Philippines Regime Change Appears To Be Imminent

“President” Arroyo has admitted that it was her voice on the National Bureau of Investigation’s wire-tapped conversations with Mr. Garcillano, the head of the Commission on Elections. But she says she merely acted to “protect” “her” votes and did “nothing illegal”.

Also since our last issue went to press, GMA dispatched her husband, Jose Miguel Arroyo, to the United States where he (and his involvement in the jueteng scandal) can rest out of the spotlight.

In an effort to defuse the situation, Arroyo backed off on her commitment to implement a new Value Added Tax, which just might have been the proverbial straw which breaks the camel’s back.

This week Mrs. Arroyo was denounced by numerous members of her resigning cabinet. A congress of bishops stopped short, however, of calling for her resignation.

[QUOTING:]

WHY ARROYO SHOULD GO NOW

By Alejandro Lichauco, The Daily Tribune, 7/1/05

President Arroyo is doing everything to hold on. But nothing will work anymore. She has lost the office, she must now try to save her honor. She must go now. Prolonged inaction can only be injurious to all.

On Monday (June 27), she said “sorry” to the nation in what her propagandists called an “unprecedented act of public contrition”. But she said sorry for the wrong thing, showed no real sorrow for her sin and therefore failed to win forgiveness from the people.

On Wednesday (June 29), she said she was sending her husband, Jose Miguel Arroyo, away “on exile”. This has not worked either. Many saw it as a move to run away with the money, and to evade prosecution for various crimes. Big Mike will not be chained to a rock called Alcatraz, but will be living in a posh district in San Francisco, in style.

Mrs. Arroyo had wanted her son, Rep. Juan Miguel “Mikey” Arroyo, and brother-in-law, Rep. Ignacio “Iggy” Arroyo to resign. She is also poised to announce a Cabinet revamp. She was told congressmen cannot resign; knowing not whom to resign from. So Congress will be stuck with Mikey and Iggy, alias Jose Pidal. But the Cabinet revamp is a sure thing, unless it is overtaken by events, or there are no more takers.

None of these will save her. It is her head, not anybody else’s, the people want.

Mrs. Arroyo’s first mistake was committing the crime. Her second mistake was getting caught. Then her cover-up failed. After her “mock confession” on the “Hello, Garci” tape, she could do nothing right anymore. She lied while assuring the nation she had finally decided to tell the truth, and that was worse than the original lie.

She said because the 2004 canvassing was unnecessarily slow, she had to call many people, including an unnamed Commission on Elections official (Virgilio Garcillano), to “protect” her votes. It was a “lapse of judgment”, she said, and she was “sorry” for it. She said she was taking “full responsibility for her actions”, but offered no remorse for her offense.

The confession was built on a lie. It was no confession at all. Every part of it insulted the intelligence. She said sorry for talking to Garcillano, but avoided saying what they had talked about. She asked forgiveness for her “lapse of judgment” but not for her lapse in morals. She violated the sixth commandment—Thou shalt not steal, but said sorry for mere improper behavior.

Stealing the highest office was her basic crime. But it included many other crimes—kidnapping, bribery, corruption, misuse of government funds and personnel, etc. There is no way saying “sorry” for the wrong thing could cure it at all.

As sitting President, Mrs. Arroyo did not need to “protect” her votes from the opposition. With her well-oiled party machine to do the job, she did not need Garcillano at all. She needed Garcillano to fabricate votes for her.

Nor did she “call” Garcillano in just one or two instances. [The] calls were habitual and routine. She put to him every problem she met on the road. They worked together as a team to win the post-elections after losing the elections.

Stealing the highest office is a grievous mortal sin. For a Catholic, this sin can be forgiven only if confessed, and the penitent does penance, and gives up what she had stolen. Otherwise, she commits sacrilege, a more grievous sin, every time she unworthily receives communion.

It is also a justiciable crime. The law specifies the penalties for this crime. But one who cheats her way to the presidency renders herself absolutely unfit for the office from the very beginning and needs no court judgment to incur the moral penalty for the crime. In Canon Law, this is called latae sententiae [“the sentence already given”, i.e. automatic excommunication]; it is a standard we could apply. One who has merely stolen the presidency must know she is holding on illegally to something that is not hers. Soon or late, she must give up the fruit of her crime.

“I take full responsibility for my actions,” Mrs. Arroyo said. But she showed no understanding of what these words meant. “Taking full responsibility” simply means “accepting the full consequences” of one’s acts. In Japan, it would mean harakiri; in other climes, it should mean resignation at the very least.

For Mrs. Arroyo, however, it simply meant staying on, and branding those who disapprove as “followers of Satan”. Not only has she dishonored the presidency; she has also damaged it beyond question. The only moral and honorable thing for her to do is to let go, and renounce what is not hers at all.

The nation must move on. But it can only do so without Mrs. Arroyo illegally occupying the presidency. The government must derive its authority and power from the consent of the governed. Without a mandate, Mrs. Arroyo is no more than a foreign occupation force that has imposed itself on the country by the force of arms. The people have the duty to eject her forcibly, if she does not freely vacate the scene.

In the next article, journalist Herman Tiu

Laurel examines the three main political factions in the Philippines at this time, showing why it is only the Erap Estrada-Susan Roces [Fernando Poe Junior’s widow] faction which could represent the people’s interests.

[QUOTING:]

A NEW FILIPINO ORDER

By Herman Tiu Laurel, The Daily Tribune, 7/11/05

Taking a step back to view the events from a broader perspective, I saw the three major divisions in our body polity, differentiated by their respective socio-economic underpinnings. We will explain below the socio-economic character of each faction as we see it, but in terms of the personalities each grouping has chosen: The Gloria faction, the Cory-Ramos faction and the Estrada-Susan Roces movement. The nation is on the brink of civil fragmentation and unless resolved we may see it broken into these three parts.

The socio-economic basis of each faction constitutes and reflects their respective real ideology. Take note of the support behind each of the political divisions: The Gloria faction is supported by the [gangster]-regional warlords sub-factions such as former Ilocos Sur Gov. Luis “Chavit” Singson, Pampanga jueteng lord Bong Pineda, Bicol alleged jueteng family, the Villafuertes, the Cebu mafia of the Garcias, Mindanao warlords Duterte and Barbers (with cult leader Ecleo), among others in the South. Provincial and local officials dependent on Malacañang fund releases have also fallen into line behind Gloria.

The Cory-Ramos faction is supported by the foreign fund-dependent elite of society: The Makati Business Club whose current mascot is SGV’s Cesar Purisima, with U.S.-European funded non-government organization gofers such as Dinky Soliman, Dan Songco, the Ateneo-Jesuit led SocDems, the conservative Catholic Church bishops (a great many of whom are still controlled by American districts and of course the Papal Nuncio has his say), International Monetary Fund-World Bank allies Christian and Winnie Monsod, etc. who, on signal dumped Gloria when the IMF-WB required expanded value-added tax was “TROed” by Gloria.

The Estrada-FPJ-Susan Roces group is the only one we call a movement because it has genuine mass following that is dominant in Luzon and Mindanao and growing in the Visayas. It is authentic Filipino because its socio-economic, cultural and political practice reflects the national grassroots. Its leaders and following reflect real economic activity (as against the Gloria and Cory-Ramos factions described below). Estrada, FPJ and Susan had or have independent economic means; the masa scavengers, peasants or overseas Filipino workers engage in real productive work. Its language is Pilipino.

Gloria’s faction depends on “bureaucrat capitalism”, i.e. government corruption, and/or criminal activities such as jueteng and masiao [a local variant of the jeuteng “numbers” racket], among other underworld enterprises. The Cory-Ramos faction is based on foreign exploitative businesses and speculative (finance, real estate) interests revolving around Makati Business Club members, while CODE-NGO groups are dependent on USAid, AGILE, Konrad Adenauer Foundation, etc. “Mucho-smelly”, U.S. chargé, need not intervene (except when F-14s are needed) because Ramos is already at work representing Carlyle (Cheney, Schultz, et al.).

For the Gloria and Cory-Ramos factions, democratic political terms are tools for deception, as Gloria puts it so well when she says she doesn’t care about the popular sentiments. Their “democracy” is plutocracy with elections manipulated by their corrupted Commission on Elections and National Citizens Movement for Free Elections, and “free press” and media are controlled by the oligarchy. These two factions do not invoke the ideal of “nationalism” at all, because they are globalist agents selling out the national interest to transnational business predators. The 1999 Battle in Seattle and the recent French rejection of the Euro Constitution shows the renewed relevance of economic nationalism to protect nations.

The country is at a critical juncture and, as the Chinese saying goes, many risks present a myriad of opportunities. We should focus on one opportunity: to unite Filipinos against the Gloria and Cory-Ramos factions of corruption, regional warlordism and foreign exploitation. Only the Estrada-Susan Roces option offers the promise of genuine grassroot-based national unity and, eventually, a restoration of “development economics” to replace the exploitation of the neo-colonial economy perpetuated by both Gloria and Cory-Ramos factions.

The Estrada-Susan Roces political movement has the best potential to become a powerful nationalist option. Estrada is still the most experienced leader-politician who has by sheer will sustained the opposition the past four years against the oppressive Gloria-Cory/Ramos faction coalition, his hands-on knowledge will be vital for the nation’s success. But Fernando Poe Jr.’s widow Susan Roces opens up the possibility of expanding what Estrada has sustained. Although Estrada has gained up to +11 in the ABC class, Susan Roces will fast-track the ABC class realignment and national unity.

The U.S. will always prefer the Gloria and Cory-Ramos factions because they are partners in exploitation; but these factions are identified with the increasing economic woes of the people and the population has become increasingly hostile to them. Eighteen years after Cory Aquino and Edsa I, and four years after Edsa II, the Filipino feels poorer than ever, look back to Marcos and Estrada with nostalgia, and hate the Gloria and Cory-Ramos factions more than ever. A strong nationalist revival with Estrada and Susan Roces will force the U.S. to accept fair terms for our development.

Those who love this country must awaken the Filipino nation to the socio-political-economic crisis: Our society is broken by two political factions, the Gloria and Cory-Ramos factions. Only one option can overwhelm the factionalism and unify the country by its grassroot power for freedom, progress and justice. It is the only one that shows love for the people and true self-reliant creativity and work—the Estrada-Susan Roces movement. This option for a New Filipino Order will respond to Maj. Aquino’s leaflet calling for a “new order” for which he has been relieved.

DIVINE INSPIRATION:
INSTRUCTIONS OR HOGWASH?

Years ago as Little Crow Bryant sat to share in some outrageous realizations and with great and wise input he leaned forward at the table and directly looked me in the eyes and said: “No matter what you think or even know—you must stand responsible for what you do, say, or present.” I have never for one minute forgotten that teacher’s lesson.

I struggle with every “file name” because I do NOT want such garbage heaped upon us as is being passed around about such as George Bush or the Supreme Court Justices in the Philippines. V.K. has also reinforced the lessons mostly learned the hardest way possible.

We must be ever mindful of the responsibility of the paper, CONTACT, along with ability to share the ongoing priorities of our individual missions as might be and the coalition of a desired goal.

Our work is totally human as to mandatory backup, documentation, right actions and performance in any interchanges—especially involving more than self.

I am a writer, a journalist, no more or less. I KNOW that I received “Divine” guidance as might be called “Inspiration”. But I also know that I must always sort that “inspiration” sufficiently well to STAND RESPONSIBLE for that which ultimately is presented through my fingers to this keyboard. It is not enough to simply spew out that “God made me do it!” GOD MAKES NO-ONE DO ANYTHING! AND, IF IT BREAKS THE LAWS OF GOD AND/OR MAN THE INSTRUCTIONS ARE “NOT” (SIMPLY PUT) OF GOD—UNLESS THOSE BITS OF INPUT ARE TO TEST OUR INDIVIDUAL PERCEPTIONS AND ULTIMATE ACTIONS.

YOU CANNOT, FOR INSTANCE, USE “THOU SHALL NOT KILL” AND IN THE NEXT BREATH LAUNCH A WAR WHICH KILLS. THE TWO ARE MUTUALLY EXCLUSIVE TERMS. GOD IS NEITHER AMBIGUOUS NOR SUPERFICIAL FOR ONE’S BENEFIT AGAINST ANOTHER. GOD ALLOWS.

I am expressing this, my own observation, because as days pass and confusion is dumped all over us in and from every arena, we must discern and make judgments about activities and actions—especially of those in powerful positions and who can send nations to war and death. There is no need to judge “a man or woman”—for it is only the human format ACTION or revealed intent that must be considered. The action itself will determine the individual involved.

In the Philippines we are living through the very reality of being at a level involved enough to be actually tossed about by the ongoing things of political, judicial and legislative manipulations which impact us greatly. We are visitors in this country and cannot participate—while it is certainly obvious that some here would like us to solve their own personal and individual problems as they perceive them to be.

This also becomes difficult as a secretary for an employer with whom all would like to make connection. In this I have gone through the phases of thinking myself the bearer of responsibilities as assumed by others upon me. I accept responsibility for that which I can do and have to allow that which I cannot change, go with my own prayers for hearing.

We were told, and that has been reinforced throughout the entire journey from first step to here, that this would be a human/physical journey within the guidance and guidelines of that which would allow for change in GOODNESS.

In the Philippines today, the Supreme Court is trying to shield itself from any inquiries or investigations and even to hide from answering inquiries as to individual behaviors, rulings, participations and/or actual breaking of Constitutional and State LAWS. At this point they are prevailing.

The justices involved come forth and claim that they were DIVINELY TOLD to do that which they did—to “Save Zion”, no less, and overthrew a duly elected (by a massive landslide election victory) sitting President. Ah indeed, on the basis of “God told me...”.

Now comes from THE MOSCOW TIMES, 6-30-03 a tale to, I’m quite confident, curl Divine hair.

[QUOTING:]

ERRAND BOY—GOD PERSONALLY
TOLD BUSH TO INVADE IRAQ

MOSCOW—So, now we know. After all the mountains of commentary and speculation, all the earnest debates over motives and goals, all the detailed analyses of global strategy and political ideology, it all comes down to this: George W. Bush waged war on Iraq because, in his own words, GOD “INSTRUCTED ME TO STRIKE AT SADDAM”.

This gospel was revealed, appropriately enough, in the Holy Land this week, through an unusual partnership between the fractious children of Abraham. The Israeli newspaper Ha’aretz was given transcripts of a negotiating session between Palestinian Prime Minister Mahmoud Abbas and faction leaders from Hamas and other militant groups. Abbas who was trying to persuade the groups to call a cease-fire in their uprising against Israeli forces, described for them his recent summit with Ariel Sharon and Bush.

During the tense talks at the summit, Bush sought to underscore the kind of authority he could bring to efforts at achieving peace in the Middle East. While thundering that there could be “no deals with terror groups”, Bush sought to assure the rattled Palestinians that he also had the ability to wring concessions from Sharon. And what was the source of this wonder-working power? It was not, as you might think, the ungodly size of the U.S. military or the gargantuan amount of money and arms the United States pours into Israel year after year.

No, Bush said he derived his moral heft from the Almighty Himself. What’s more, the Lord had proven his devotion to the Crawford Crusader by crowning his military efforts with success. In fact, he told Abbas, God was holding the door open for Middle East peace right now—but they would have to move fast, because soon the Creator and Sustainer of the Universe would have to give His attention to something far more important: the election of His little sunbeam, Georgie, in 2004.

Here are Bush’s exact words, quoted by Ha’aretz:

“God told me to strike at al-Qaida and I struck them, and then He instructed me to strike at Saddam, which I did, and now I am determined to solve the problem in the Middle East. If you help me, I will act, and if not, the elections will come and I will have to focus on them.”

You can’t put it plainer than that. The whole chaotic rigmarole of Security Council votes and UN inspections and congressional approval and Colin Powell’s whizbang PowerPoint displays of “proof” and Bush’s own tearful prayers for “peace”—it was all a sham, a meaningless exercise.

No votes, no inspections, no proof or lack of proof—in fact, no earthly reason whatsoever—could have stopped Bush’s aggressive war on Iraq. It was God’s unalterable will: The Lord of Hosts gave a direct order for George W. Bush to “strike at Saddam”.

And strike he did, with an awesome fury that rained death and destruction on the mustachioed whole of Babylon, with a firestorm of Godly wrath that consumed the enemy armies like so much chaff put to the flame—and with an arsenal of cruise missiles, cluster bombs, dive bombers and assault helicopters that killed up to 10,000 innocent civilians: blasted to pieces in their beds, shot down in their fields and streets, crushed beneath the walls of their own houses, boiled alive in factories, ditches and cars, gutted, mutilated, beheaded, murdered, women, children, elders, some praying, some wailing, some cursing, some mute with fear as metal death ripped their lives away and left rotting hulks behind. This was the work of the Lord and His faithful servant, whom He hath raised high up to have dominion over men.

And this is the mindset—or rather, the primitive fever-dream—that is now directing the actions of the greatest military power in the history of the world. There can be no doubt that Bush believes literally in the divine character of his mission. He honestly and sincerely believes that whatever “decision” forms in his brain—out of the flux and flow of his own emotional impulses and biochemical reactions, the flattery and cajolements of his sinister advisers, the random scraps of fact, myth and fabrication that dribble into his proudly undeveloped and incurious consciousness—has been planted there, whole and perfected, by God Almighty.

And that’s why Bush acts with such serenity and ruthlessness. Nothing he does can be challenged on moral grounds, however unethical or evil it might appear, because all of his actions are directed by God. He can twist the truth, oppress the poor, exalt the rich, despoil the Earth, ignore the law—and murder children—without the slightest compunction, the briefest moment of doubt or self-reflection, because he believes, he truly believes, that God squats in his brainpan and tells him what to do.

And just as God countenanced deception on the part of Abraham, just as God forgave David for the murders he ordered, just as God blessed the armies of Saul as they obliterated the Amalekites, man, woman and child, so will He overlook any crime committed by Bush and his minions as they carry out His will. That’s why Bush can always “do whatever it takes” to achieve his goals. And by his own words to Abbas, we see that he places his election in 2004 above all other concerns, even the endless bloodshed in the Middle East.

So what new crimes will the Lord have to countenance to keep His appointed servant in power?—(Ref: Chris Floyd)

[END QUOTING]

There is more to add to the above topic as to ongoing events, even to the very discounting by the Supreme Court here in Manila to any response or addressing of the issues in point. The missing MILLIONS of pesos is also under fire with the same refusal to produce records, bank statements, etc., on the same basis as “being THE law of the land”. I do hope you realize that I do not JEST! We are living witnesses to the most absurd usurpation of POWER probably since the takeover of the U.S.A.

I will try to get to a bit of summary on those topics but our attention has to be turned to new happenings in the “land title” circumstances in the Philippines and the media bash being put forth in selected media against the “Tallano Estate” administrators.

I must clarify “administrators” vs. “heirs” because we do NOT speak of the same thing although the “court-appointed administrator” of the estate is also the first heir. He, however, as administrator must meet the orders of the court as to fiduciary duties and responsibilities as would any other independent “administrator”.

I further discuss that point because somehow the word goes forth as to “Tallano claims to own...”. What he claims may well be other than the court orders state but that is not our, or anyone’s business—OUTSIDE THE FUNCTIONING DUTY OF THE “ADMINISTRATOR” AS TO CARRY THROUGH ON COURT ORDERS!

When people inquire, as you do, as to just who, what, how, etc., we interchange within that particular “grouping” of heirs or administrators I can be a bit more clear, perhaps, but you must recognize that their business is theirs and our agreement is assist where we can do so—NOT INTERFERE WITH THEIR INTERESTS.

We did our proper and thorough responsibility to make sure DUE DILIGENCE was complete to the extent of making an agreement of intent based on legal authority. However, it must be noted that documentation of the next “segment” of investigations and PROOF of land titles and ownership regarding the immediate area where we are located is in the finishing stages and not yet ready for public release. It proves that all of this land in this immediate area of Makati and indeed, even the land upon which this very building stands is on falsely “titled” land. This is the making of major indigestion, readers, and we take no “sides”—just the facts as are in the records, court records and land registration halls of record.

Global’s participation is NOT to run anything but rather to present facts to protect anything we might do or offer and it only deals with recovery or claims UNDER RES JUDICATA ORDERS OF VALID COURTS.

Our particular and major interest, of course, is in the gold held in the Central Bank vaults for which a “joint-venture” is already put to contract with the parties to the Foundation holding the assets of the “estate”. We are not responsible nor invited to audit, investigate nor manipulate any of the orders or property.

We have done the diligent investigations, compiled the court records, recognized the judges in the matter and PUBLISHED THE MATERIAL WITH OUR AGREEMENTS AND INTENTIONS.

It is as with holdings of Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA): IT HAD TO BE PROVEN AND RECOGNIZED AS BACKED BY VALID INSTRUMENTS, ASSIGNMENTS AND DOCUMENTATION.

By the way, for you who continue to assume “Investment” in the above entity somehow represents an investment-brokerage type of offering of some kind—NO! Investment refers to the “alliance” as an/or separate “association” which will then invest in the assistance to others. This is not us offering some investment program to Tom, Dick or Hilary who somehow “buys” stock, or into some scheme or other, as offered by brokers on the stock exchange. We have no interchange with even the Securities and Exchange Commission—for we market NOTHING, sell NOTHING or receive any payment for anything. Our program will advance through joint venture associations, nothing more—after the fact in operational structure and contract.

We also MUST KEEP OUT OF ANY BUSINESS OF VENTURE PARTIES. Separation is the ONLY way to ensure there is no misrepresentation of our position nor involvement where questionable.

Therefore, back to the immediate topic at hand of Tallano—land titles, etc.

On Tuesday, July 8, 2003 in many papers came outrageously incorrect publication regarding the “Estate” in point, disinformation and outright lies regarding the issue—from, no less, than the Secretary of Housing, Michael Defensor. Not only did he offer INCORRECT information but stated the whole “scam” is bigger than anything in Ripley’s Believe it or Not. Well, just as Ripley’s had indicated Marcos to be the biggest crook on the globe, which will have to be rather quickly disclaimed, Mr. Defensor has put both feet into his mouth.

Moreover, it seems that Global’s public notice has now circulated quite well through the parties who would need background information from which they can DO THEIR OWN DUE DILIGENCE.

It is not “us” under attack, however, but rather a blatant calling of names and accusations at the Estate and specifically, the administrator of that estate, Tallano. We are told that the facts are that titles are now up for questioning and it does very well involve high-rollers and it is now claimed that the Tallano associates are nothing more than scam syndicates and squatters—now clearing their property.

The last statement is funny because the very court orders state that those lands which house buildings or tenants—ARE TO BE CLEARED. I would guess that upsets the “squatter” with a 45-story building more even than one with a bamboo shanty.

Remember, for information, that we suggested for your interest that you keep the “OCT 01-4 in mind along side 3392-181 because it identifies, often enough, the subject identification of certain documents. OCT 01-4 is the official “Original Certificate of Title” (OCT) registration.

You will note in what I will next share that that is now, by the Department of Housing, “the” fictitious and fake title. There is reference to others as well but we don’t need to clutter this beyond the level of confusion surpassing all understanding. We can only offer what is on record, documented, in court records and decisions and current to this very date in point.

Another thing you will note is that there is a claim that this “group” claims all of the Philippines along with parts of Malaysia, Sabah and the Spratley Islands. NO, that is not true, for a lot of the land down South inclusive of Sabah (North Borneo) was turned over to Sultanates and people in that area which is roughly delineated today in Mindanao as the Autonomous Region of Muslim Mindanao (ARMM) with full treaty and agreements with the Philippine GOVERNMENT.

Moreover, Malaysia LEASES Sabah from the Sultanate of the area. So, Mr. Defensor has both feet squarely into his very throat. So, the Tallano estate MAY WELL BE INVOLVED TO SOME HERITAGE EXTENT BUT HAS NO ACTUAL CLAIM IN THAT AREA. P.S.: Annotations noticed and printed on that very title are there and authenticated by no less than U.S. President Howard Taft. You with holdings of the paper with our public notice can look that up right in your own paper with your own eyes.

And here is where I want to make a point, friends and readers: These are court RECORDS and authenticated Certified DOCUMENTS—and not “God made us do it!” God may have inspired us to do it—and I most certainly DO BELIEVE that to be so, for who in the world would ever even THINK of such a thing, but, He neither “made” us do anything nor did HE magically manifest hard copy on our desk tops.

In the immediate aftermath of these articles hitting the paper we did have some interesting calls regarding the matter suggesting that a Hornet’s nest had been opened and we might want to basically stay out of it until the stingers were sheathed. One represented that a CIA agent had called to inquire about that CONTACT paper. The response was that we had outstanding recognition and would welcome interviews or “checkout”. We go further in that we know already that we have been so “checked” out as to be totally boring. Those investigations started all the way back to our first coming to Manila and right after the return of Don Rhoads (attorney), York, Martin and Neil to the U.S. At that time the CENTRAL BANK sent investigators to thoroughly check everything with our attorney. THEY FOUND NOTHING OUT OF ORDER nor has any investigation team since.

Do we stand behind the total truth of these documents? No, we stand soundly behind them as GATHERED and compiled and presented. The documents are directly from court records as established and of which we obtained certified copies of the cases themselves along with the Judges’ rulings in each case, along with registered titles, etc., with annotations. “Annotations”, for information only, represents a “final” recognition of status.

You might, as sleuths, enjoy a bit of Sherlocking and check out the number of errors in the presentations (three) articles against the information you hold.

[QUOTING TODAY, Tues, July 8, 2003. (Editorial Telephones: 813-1459 Fax 813-0140), Manila, Philippines:]

WHAAAT?! SQUATTING, FAKE TITLE RING CLAIMS SABAH, RP, STUNS HOUSING CHIEF

THIS one’s for Ripley’s. Squatting syndicates operating in Metro Manila are invoking a spurious Spanish-era land title that covers onto not only the “whole Philippine archipelago” but also Sabah in North Borneo in grabbing private and public lands.

Housing Secretary Michael Defensor revealed that “well-armed, well-financed” syndicates are using a certain “OCT T 01-4 in taking over lands from their legitimate owners”.

Defensor described OCT T 01-4 as a “monumental fakery and a badly made work of fiction”.

The document, he said, claims to be a deed to the “whole archipelago and represents four regions; Luzon, Visayas, Palawan-Zamboanga, Kalayaan and Sabah, and Mindanao region.”

“If there could be a single land title to the whole country, then this could be it. But its fantastic claim to own the whole Philippines makes OCT T-01-4 bogus,” Defensor said in a brief on professional squatting that he prepared for senators and congressmen. [one line missing in fax copy] are glaring forgery[ies] employed in fabricating the title many people are buying lots derived from it, Defensor said.

He said there is a “cottage industry” in deriving titles from OCT T-01-4 among which are equally fake TCT T-408 and T-498. Both carry outlandish claims.

“T-408 alone covers 1.2 billion square meters [120,000 hectares—264,000 acres] of land in Metro Manila,” he said, T-498, on the other hand, claims to cover 312,242 hectares in Luzon.

The said T-408, records of the Housing and Urban Development coordinating Council showed, are being used by “Anacieto Madrigal Acopiado, Anacieto Madrigal Acop and Julian Tallano” to harass legitimate property owners in Metro Manila.

Defensor said police reports cite the Tallano-Acop group as illegally occupying a 64-hectare lot in North Fairview, Quezon City, on the basis of TCT T-408. Defensor warned the public against purchasing lands whose titles are derived from OCT T-01-4.

Defensor had revealed on Sunday that private and public lands worth billions have been taken over by professional squatting syndicates often using fictitious titles.

[END QUOTING]
The next is essentially the same topic but an even worse “copy” so we will do the best we can for copy accuracy while realizing that right off in the second paragraph the first sentence is illegible.

[QUOTING MANILA STANDARD, Tuesday July 8,

2003 (Manila, Philippines):]

BIG-TIME SQUATTERS ‘OWN’ RP, SABAH

This one’s for Ripley.
Groups of well-armed, well-financed professional squatting syndicates based in metro Manila are invoking a spurious Spanish-era land title that covers the entire Philippine archipelago, including Sabah in Malaysia and the disputed Kalayaan Islands [Turtle Islands] in the Spratleys.

The syndicates, according to Housing Secretary Michael Defensor, have been using “land title OCT No. T-01-4” in grabbing public and private land from legitimate owners.

In a briefing for reporters yesterday Defensor identified the syndicates as the Anacheto Madrigal Acoplado and the Julian Tallano groups. [Next three lines illegible.]

“If there could be a single land title to the whole country then this could be it, but its fantastic claim of owning the whole Philippines makes [illegible] the land title bogus.”

The syndicates, he added, managed to subdivide the titles. “One title alone covers 1.2 billion sqm of land in Metro Manila. Another claims to cover 312,242 hectares in Luzon.

Defensor said records inside Housing and Urban Poor Development Coordinating Council identified the Tallano-Acop group as those who use the fake titles in harassing legitimate property owners in Metro Manila.

The group, according to public records is illegally occupying a 64-hectare lot in North Fairview, Quezon City on the basis of a fake title.

The land Registration Authority has so far discovered at least 7,000 fake land titles.

Defensor has instructed Housing and Urban Development Coordinating Council to investigate the origins of the spurious land title.

[END QUOTING]
The last is quite short but probably the most important because it is featured on the Op-Ed page WITH THE CARTOON WHICH REPRESENTS THE “GROUP” AS INCREDIBLE TERRORISTS WITH AUTOMATIC WEAPONS TOSSING OUT HOMES, ETC.

You will notice, however, in the next article that names are NOT given. Smarter editors? It is OBVIOUS from content that it is, however, the SAME pointed focus.

[QUOTING The Philippine STAR, EDITORIAL, Tuesday, July 8, 2003:]

BALANCING RIGHTS

Shelter is a basic need, and even the poorest of the poor should not be deprived of it. Sympathy for the poor led to the passage of a law several years ago, decriminalizing squatting. This is one law that never lacked in enforcement. Since it took effect it has been abused by people who make money out of the very poor, to the detriment of both private property owners and the government. And politicians who rely on squatters for their votes lack the will or guts to protect property appropriated by squatting syndicates.

Housing chief Michael Defensor, whose job is to provide shelter to the underprivileged, has expressed alarm over the proliferation of squatting syndicates that stake claims over both private and public property using fake land titles, then collect rent from people who set up shanties on the appropriated estates. The latest case was uncovered at the University of the Philippines arboretum in Diliman, Quezon City, where about 1,000 families had set up shanties and paid rent to a squatting ring. The madness has to stop, Defensor said, as he urged lawmakers to amend the nation’s laws so that professional squatters can be punished.

It’s easy for the government to drive out squatters from public land. But owners of private property that have been invaded by squatters often have to go through years of costly litigation simply to get an eviction order. When the order is finally issued, the property owners have to find cops who will drive out the squatters without fear of being slapped with administrative charges by human-rights advocates. Ironically, the head of the department with jurisdiction over the police, Interior Secretary Jose Lina, was the principal author of the law that decriminalized squatting.

The Land Registration Authority has reportedly uncovered more than 7,000 fake land titles being used by squatting syndicates to occupy both private and public property valued at billions of pesos. Whatever the merits of the law that decriminalized squatting, every right must be balanced against others guaranteed under the Constitution, such as the right to property. The rule of law must prevail—for poor and rich alike, and everyone else in between.

[END QUOTING]
Needless to repeat, but I will, that there is an uproar because it seems the bigger the injustice the more the old “too good to be true” type of response is offered and surely that it belongs in “Ripley’s”. Well, perhaps it DOES belong in Ripley’s, for it seems to me to be time that the marchers and trampers be brought up short and a bit of light thrown onto the scene.

Global’s program may well seem equally absurd but it is just, valid and REAL. Perhaps it belongs also in Ripley’s? However, as we use it, it probably wouldn’t qualify. Who can possibly measure up along side the IMF and/or V.K. Durham and her infamous non-existent “holding trust”? You see, when you break down Global’s program you find that it is not welfare, give-away, take-away or anything but a well-founded alliance of balanced participation—just like God said it would be!

The most I can ever ask for self is the backbone to ever keep strong in what is RIGHT and what is REAL. That is sufficiently close enough to God to be acceptable to me in my journey through this “play”. Moreover, we are so grateful to you other “actors” in this “act” of this “play” as to be quite inept at expressing it.

And as for George Dubya Bush? Well, “which god?” I think that might well be the most appropriate question. I believe it is quite important what we do “IN THE NAME OF GOD”—or—perhaps I am simply too “chicken” to assume such a major possibility of misinformation and its repercussions. It appears to me that some “MEN” have conjured a “war of the gods” while GOD is patiently allowing them their silliness.

Even in the Harry Potter epics it is noted that with all the wizards, witches and dragons, He prevails through LOVE. It might be an interesting concept after all.

MORE NAMES AND FIGHTING BACK

Carter’s choice of Paul Volcker (in fact he was told to appoint Volcker by David Rockefeller) started the collapse of the U.S. economy, according to the plan laid down by the Club of Rome. We are up against powerful forces dedicated to the goal of a One World Government. We have been engaged in a devastatingly crippling war for the past 47 years, but it is not perceived as such. We are brainwashed, methodically, systematically and without ever being aware of it. The Tavistock Institute provided the system for this low intensity war against we, the people, and then set it in motion.

[H: Just an aside about Mr. Paul Volcker and “people we know” and “name-drop”. George Green, recognized by most all of our friends and colleagues, claimed to be a working associate (friend) of Paul Volcker. It was some claim to fame because Mr. Volcker was head of the Federal Reserve before Mr. Greenspan. More importantly, that very association was also connected with the Bush Boys and the Savings and Loan failures. George Green claimed to have attended that infamous meeting at Silverado Savings with Neal Bush. Now Mr. Green made every “ultimate” attempt to destroy us after he STOLE actual GOLD and literally buried it in his backyard. It took years to recover anything at all of it and, as well, he stole thousands of books in inventory while continuing a “legal team” capture to always keep us at disadvantage. Well, revenge is mine, says GOD, and so be it. Nasty things sent “out” always return in kind.

George Green claimed to have never served the “other” side but was totally boggled when caught by others on the LIST OF ALUMNI of the Intelligence Services, CIA if properly recalled. He claimed it was an error but managed to break and RUN away ASAP. He was trading gold he acquired openly through Puerto Rico and Costa Rica where he also owned a couple of Coffee Plantations and where the CIA has major hub-quarters. If you stay the course long enough, travelers, the TRUTH seeps out like water through a hole in a dam.

GEORGE GREEN even STOLE the very first publication of Dr. Coleman’s book as being presented here. That was at OUR expense and for which he took money from us to actually publish after our people, Fingers here, did all the work and our people got it press ready. We were not, nor was even the Author, given “author’s” copies. This same thing took place at George’s America West

Publishers and Distributors on many other books. Could it be that Mr. Green simply wanted to get an education? Well, hardly seems likely since at a seminar in Hawaii where his America West “booth” was adjacent to one of Eustace Mullins, Mr. Mullins ended up with many cartons LESS OF HIS OWN BOOKS that somehow managed to slip under the partition into Green’s inventory.

IT IS HARD TO BE GOODLY OR WISH TO SERVE OUR FELLOW-MAN WITH THIS KIND OF CONSTANT ATTACK.

Many people still come to this resource as the end-all of owing whatever is considered owed when it was George Green and his wife that were the responsible parties from upstart. It is here just for interest to you who wondered whatever happened...!]

The only way we can fight back is by exposing the plotters and their multiplicity of front organizations. We need men with experience who can formulate strategy to defend our priceless heritage, which once lost, will never again reappear. We need to learn the methods the plotters use, learn how to adopt them, and then take the necessary counter-measures. Only a crash program of this kind will stop the rot which is consuming our nation.

Some may have difficulty in accepting the idea of a global conspiracy because so many writers have made financial gain from it. Others doubt that activity on a global scale can be successfully advanced. They see the huge bureaucracy of our government, and then say, “Well how are we supposed to believe that private people can do more than the government does?” This overlooks the fact that government IS part of the conspiracy. Hard evidence is what they want, but hard evidence is difficult to come by.

But there is some hard evidence. Witness the slavish manner in which former President George Bush rushed to carry out the orders he received from Margaret Thatcher to begin the Gulf War, and again, how Prime Minister John Major imposed the Committee’s United Nations agenda on the Bush administration, even to the extent of forcing Bush to go along with the appointment of Bhuttros Ghali as the United Nations Secretary General. Bush was told that Bhuttros Ghali was a former member of British intelligence MI6, and as such, was the choice of the Committee. Bush had a former United States ambassador to the United Nations in mind for the post, which he had to put aside.

Others say, “So what; what do I care about a conspiracy? I don’t even bother to vote.” This is exactly the way the general population of America was conditioned to react. Our people have become discouraged and confused as the result of 47 years of low-intensity psychological warfare conducted against us. How that was done is explained in Bernard Levin’s book, but how many people would bother to read an academic’s non-fiction book? We are reacting exactly as we were conditioned to act. Demoralized and confused people are far more willing to welcome the sudden appearance of a great man who promises to solve every problem and guarantee a well-ordered society, in which people are fully employed and domestic strife is minimal. Their dictator, for that is who it will be, after he will be, will be welcomed with open arms.

ART OF “PROFILING”

Knowing WHO the enemy is becomes a vital necessity. No one can fight and win against an unidentified enemy. This book could be used like a military field manual. Study its content and memorize all names. I have mentioned profiling techniques quite frequently. A full explanation of “profiling” is contained in this book. One of the most profound pieces of information to come out of the science of profiling is the relative ease in which it can be accomplished in individuals, groups, political entities and so on, right on down the line. Once we wake up to how easy this is to accomplish, “conspiracy” will no longer be more than we are willing to admit. The assassination of President Kennedy, the attempt on the life of President Reagan, will then become easy to understand.

Profiling is a technique developed in 1922 on the command of the Royal Institute for International Affairs (RIIA). Major John Rawlings Reese, a British Army technician was instructed to set up a brainwashing facility at the Tavistock Institute for Human Relations, as a part of Sussex University. An additional facility was opened in a suburb of London, under Tavistock’s name. These two facilities became the core institution of Britain’s Psychological Warfare Bureau. When I first introduced the names of Reese and Tavistock to the United States in 1970, very little interest was shown. But over the years, as I came to reveal more and more about Tavistock and its vital role in the plans for a One World Government, it has become popular to follow my research.

Britain’s Psychological Warfare Bureau made extensive use of the work done by Reese on 80,000 British Army guinea pigs, virtually a captive audience of soldiers, who underwent many forms of testing. Tavistock-designed methods also got the United States into WWII. Under the guidance of Dr. Kurt Lewin, Tavistock established the OSS, the forerunner of the CIA. Lewin became the director of the Strategic Bombing Initiative which was a plan for the Royal Air Force (RAF) to concentrate on bombing German worker housing, while leaving military targets such as munitions plants alone. The munitions plants on both sides belonged to the international bankers who had no wish to see their assets destroyed.

Later, after the war was over, NATO ordered Sussex University to establish a very special brainwashing center, which became part of Britain’s Psychological Warfare Bureau. Only now, its research was directed toward civilian, rather than to military applications. We shall return to that super secret unit which was called Science Policy Research Institute (SPRI).

The idea behind the saturation bombing of civilian worker housing was to break the morale of the German worker. It was not designed to affect the war effort against the German military machine. Lewin and his team of actuaries reached an agreement on a target figure: if 65 percent of German worker housing was destroyed by nightly RAF bombing raids, the morale of the civilian population would collapse. The actual working document was prepared for the RAF by the Prudential Assurance Company.

[H: This holds true in EVERY circumstance from a Tsunami to air-raids. And, moreover, when over 65 percent of a population is hungry—it is either in full control of the manipulators as to outcome OR watch out—the rabble will rise. This ratio is on the cusp in the Philippines so shortly will come the deciding actions of which way the nation will move.]

The RAF, under the command of “Bomber” Harris, carried out Lewin’s plans, culminating in the terror firestorm (holocaust) of Dresden, in which more than 125,000 mainly older men, women and children were killed. The truth of “Bomber” Harris’ horror raids on German civilians was a well-kept secret long after the end of WWII.

Tavistock provided most of the detailed programs that led to the establishing of the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI), the No. 1 intelligence service in the United States, one which dwarfs the CIA in size and scope. Contracts worth billions of dollars were given to Tavistock by the United States government, and Tavistock’s strategic planners provided most of what the Pentagon used to build up our defense establishment. This still holds true, even today. Here again, is illustrated the grip the Committee has on the United States, and the majority of its institutions. Tavistock runs more than 30 research institutions in the United States, most of which are named in our charts at the end of the book.

[H: You really DO need your own copy of this book for those references along with some blank pages for more additions as others bring more to the list from your daily fraud—er-ah broadsheets.]

These Tavistock-U.S. institutions have, in many cases, grown into gargantuan monsters, penetrating every aspect of our government agencies and taking command of all policy making. One of Tavistock’s chief wreckers of our way of life was Dr. Alexander King, a founder member of NATO, and a favorite of the Committee, as well as an outstanding member of the Club of Rome. King was assigned by the Club of Rome to destroy America’s education by taking control of the National Teachers Association and working in close conjunction with certain law makers and judges. If it was not generally known before how all-pervading is the influence of the Committee, this book should dispel every vestige of doubt.

Today, in 1993, the National Teachers Association (NTA) has become a formidable Socialist tool, in the struggle for possession of the minds of our children. Outcome Based Education (OBE) is the method whereby the wholesale socializing of American school children is being carried out. Another aspect of OBE is its heavy attention to “sex education”, and its insidious pumping of lesbianism and homosexuality into the minds of grade and secondary school children.

A few words about the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), a Club of Rome creation, and the test it ran against a nuclear power station at Three Mile Island, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Termed “an accident” by the hysterical media, this was not an accident, but a deliberately designed crisis test for FEMA. An additional benefit was the fear and hysteria generated by the news media, which had people fleeing the area, when in fact they were NEVER in any danger. Bear in mind that NOBODY died as a result of the TMI “accident”, nor were any serious injuries reported.

The TMI experiment was considered a success by FEMA, and it scored a lot of points with the anti-nuclear forces. TMI became the rallying point for the so-called “environmentalists”, a well financed and controlled group run largely by the Aspen Institute on behalf of the Club of Rome. Extensive coverage of the “accident” was provided free of charge by CBS television’s William Paley, a former British intelligence agent.

FEMA is the natural successor to the Strategic Bombing Initiative of WWII. Dr. Kurt Lewin, the theoretician for what the Tavistock plotters called “crisis management” was deeply involved in the study. There is an unbroken chain between Lewin and Tavistock that stretches back for 37 years. Lewin incorporated the Strategic Bombing Initiative into FEMA with only a few small adjustments proving necessary. One of the changes was that the target was no longer Germany, but the United States of America. Forty-seven years after the end of WWII, it is still Tavistock that has its hands on the trigger, and the weapon is pointed at the United States.

The late Margaret Meade conducted an intensive study of the German and Japanese population under the aegis of Tavistock on how they reacted to stress caused by aerial bombardment. Irving Janus was an associate professor on the project, which was supervised by Dr. John Rawlings Reese, who was later promoted to the rank of Brigadier-General in the British Army. The Meade-Janus test results were provided for FEMA. The report was of great value in formulating FEMA policies. Janus used it in his book, Air War and Stress, which he later wrote.

The Meade-Janus ideas were followed to the letter by FEMA during the Three Mile Island “Crisis”. Janus had hit on a really simple idea: Simulate a succession of crises and manipulate the population following the methodology of Lewin terror tactics, and the targeted population group will do exactly as required.

In carrying out this exercise, Lewin discovered something new: that social control on a wide scale can be achieved by using the media to bring home the horrors of a nuclear war, especially via the television media. It was also discovered that women’s magazines were very effective in dramatizing the terrors of a nuclear war. A trial run conducted by Janus had Betty Bumpers, wife of Senator Dale Bumpers of Arkansas, “writing” for McCall’s magazine on that subject.

The article appeared in McCall’s, January 1983 issue. Actually, Mrs. Bumpers did not write the article. It was created for her by a group of writers at Tavistock, who specialize in such subject matters. The article was a collection of untruths, non-facts, innuendoes, and conjectures based entirely upon a false premise. The Bumper’s article was typical of the kind of psychological manipulation at which Tavistock is so very good. Not one of the ladies who read McCall’s could have failed to be impressed by the terror horror story of what a nuclear war would look like.

The Committee of 300 has a major bureaucracy at its disposal made up of hundreds of think tanks, and front organizations that run the whole gamut of private business and government leaders. I will mention as many as I can fit in, starting with the German Marshall Fund. Its members—and remember they are also members of NATO and the Club of Rome—consist of David Rockefeller of Chase Manhattan Bank, Gabriel Hague of the prestigious Manufactures Hanover Trust and Finance Corporation, Milton Katz of the Ford Foundation, Willy Brandt, leader of Socialist International and KGB agent and member of the Committee of 300, Irving Bluestone, chairman of the United Auto Workers Executive Board, Russell Train, U.S. president of the Club of Rome and a member of Prince Philip’s World Wildlife Fund, Elizabeth Midgely, CBS programs producer, B.R. Gifford, director of the Russell Sage Foundation, Guido Goldman of the Aspen Institute, the late Averill Harriman, Committee of 300 extra-ordinary member, Thomas I. Hughes of the Carnegie Endowment Fund, Dennis Meadows and Jay Forrester of MIT “world dynamics”.

ENTER THE BILDERBERGERS

The Committee of 300, although in existence for more than 100 years, did not take on its present form until around 1897. It was always given to issuing orders through other fronts, such as the Royal Institute For International Affairs. When it was decided that a super-body would control European affairs, the RIIA founded the Tavistock Institute, which in turn created NATO. For five years, NATO was financed by the German Marshall Fund. Perhaps the most important member of the Bilderbergers, a foreign policy body of the Committee, was Joseph Rettinger, said to be one of its founder members. The Bilderbergers annual meetings have delighted conspiracy hunters for several decades.

Rettinger was a well-trained Jesuit priest, and a 33rd Degree Freemason. Mrs. Katherine Meyer Graham, who is suspected of having murdered her husband in order to get control of the Washington Post was another ranking member of the Club of Rome, as was Paul G. Hoffman of the New York Life Insurance Company, one of the largest insurance companies in the United States, and a leading Rank company, with ties directly to Queen Elizabeth of England’s immediate family. John J. McCloy, the man who attempted to wipe post World War II Germany off the map, and last but not least, James A Perkins of the Carnegie Corporation, were also founder members of the Bilderbergers and the Club of Rome.

What a star-studded cast! Yet strangely enough, few if any outside of genuine intelligence agencies had ever heard of this organization until recent times. The power exercised by these important personages and the corporations, television stations, newspapers, insurance companies and banks they represent, matches in size and strength the power and prestige of at least two European countries, and still this is only the tip of The Committee of 300’s enormous cross-gridding of interfaced interests.

Not mentioned in the foregoing line-up is Richard Gardner, who, although an early member of the Committee of 300, was sent to Rome on a special assignment. Gardner married into one of the oldest Black Nobility families of Venice, thus providing the Venetian aristocracy a direct line to the White House. The late Averill Harriman was one of the Committee’s direct links between the Kremlin and the White House, a position which Kissinger inherited after the death of Harriman.

[H: As you pay a bit of attention to the upcoming listings as offered, PAY ATTENTION MORE DEEPLY THAN YOU MIGHT WISH. KNOW that as a “club” or organization becomes too visible or problems start or effectiveness is diminished—a new one is substituted in, people are shifted around (note same names on many rosters), and worse yet, as WARS change so too will the name of the specific Club started to cover whatever purpose might be the focus. It is very workable and totally legal. The shifts and turns come most quickly when it is time to pay taxes or become too visible as to “real intent”. Often unsuspecting people will join these organizations only to later be classified as traitors, terrorists and/or worse. Young people are especially vulnerable to such “groups”. If you don’t know how easy it is to bait and switch on a massive scale then you might well wish to find out. Most of these organizations don’t ACTUALLY even bother to do their registration requirements in the first place. Almost all of the BIG government-run organizations never bother to register or incorporate AT ALL while just putting some word or another, such as “corporation” or “corp” or INC into the title and the “assumption” is presented. THIS IS A VERY GOOD TIME TO POINT OUT THAT IF AND WHEN YOU “INCORPORATE”, DO IT IN A PLACE OF BETTER SECURITY PERSONALLY IF YOU WISH TO BE PRIVATE AND THE ONLY REMAINING STATE QUALIFIED FOR THIS IS NEVADA (WITHIN THE DOMESTIC UNITED STATES). My purpose is not to push corporations or how to manage them, BUT it would behoove all citizens to stop complaining and look into YOUR OWN PERSONAL OPTIONS FOR MANAGEMENT OF YOUR AFFAIRS. [For a free consultation, contact Budget Corporate Renewals at 702-870-5351.]

Example: A few years back there was a major focus on a questionable corporation called Inter-American Investment Corp. There is nothing particularly interesting about this except that under its management many “Development Banks” were operated, some under the Governorship of one later the Treasurer of the U.S., Mr. Robert Ruben.

Now, listen up. When this came to attention there was great interest in the circumstances that would allow such operations, for we were involved in a program which was responsible for the “Bonus 3392” matter.

In thorough investigation we not only found the entity NOT INCORPORATED ANYWHERE but worse, operating as if it were legitimate EVERYWHERE. Our people went directly to the HOME OFFICE and found that there were a lot of fabricated financial reports and other interesting manipulations. However, that is not, at the moment, the point.

At that same time we were trying diligently to protect VK Durham who CLAIMED to be (but was never) the wife of Russell Herman, holder/“owner” THROUGH Cosmos SEML (I will maintain some privacy here).

There was NOT, as claimed by VKD, any “TRUST” of any kind involved with her but she was trying to EXTORT money from us to create one.

When I noted the non-incorporation of the very entity she wanted to STEAL for her purposes we very carefully INCORPORATED IT lawfully, legally and intentionally (to keep it out of her clutches). We in no way were working for OR AGAINST anything the U.S. hierarchy was doing.

Ever since the split with VK over her avarice, lies and misrepresentations she has claimed holding of that corporation and, worse, it being part of her claimed, but non-existent, “Trust”. She never did have nor does she now have a valid Trust of any kind.

She also claimed, idiotically and ignorantly, that “we” also hold The Inter-American Development Bank, the “Depository Trust...” along with boodles of other non-entities or actual entities in operation but nothing whatsoever to do with us. IN FACT, WE DID INVESTIGATE AND TRIED TO BRING INTO SHELTER THOSE NAMED ENTITIES AND FOUND: GET THIS, THAT BANKS AND TRUSTS HAVE ALL SORTS OF VARIOUS REGULATIONS REQUIRED THAT WE HAD NO INTENTION NOR WISH FOR INVOLVEMENT. VK continues, however, to whistle Dixie regarding these “corporations” as OUR entities, mis-naming them at every writing and informing such as INTERPOL, National Central Banks of every country she can think of with free email links and when anyone will pay her phone-Fax bill FOR HER.

She went too far, however, and incorporated the articles of incorporation of the Inter-American Investment Corp. into HER “Trust” (non-existent) while still trying through extortion to gain the incorporation status from us. And THIS IS WHY without effort anyone can check it out quite easily and find VK Durham has no valid Trust or any other entity pertinent to, or involved in any of our holdings. That includes COSMOS SEAFOOD ENERGY MARKETING, LTD., which is fully operational and in good standing (since 1985), which is OWNER of the Bonus assets.

VK Durham is a fraud of the most terrible kind as she deceives, possibly, even herself.

This becomes worthy of note right here because she continues to give fraudulent information forth on her Internet site and it is truly circulating globally. It is most interesting, however, that we have been checked out, investigated and even INTERPOL leaks that our program is valid and good.

This seems appropriate to point out right here before you go into lists of players and remark even to self that “Well, that was years ago and....” The point is that YOU can check it out and, moreover, when you find “nothing” it can mean far more than finding anything. THESE NAMED ARE ALL FRAGMENTS UNDER THE CONTROL OF, AT THE LEAST, THE COMMITTEE OF 300 FILTERING ALL THE WAY DOWN THE RANKS THROUGH THE IMF, WORLD BANK AND CENTRAL BANKS WITH INFILTRATORS INTO EVERY GOVERNMENT ON THE GLOBE. It is truly a good job if you can get it and millions of manipulators get it every year. Even “THEY” don’t have the foggiest idea into what they have bid their hand. Sold to the Devil comes to mind.

Remember that the best any writer can offer is what is currently presented at any given moment of his publication, including OURS. The point is to switch and change so that the really big “players” are not caught even if they are caught. Once at levels of high-political places you have “plausible denial”, absolute denial and general denial. The minute you hear “I categorically deny...”—KNOW THE TRUTH IS ABOUT TO BREAK FORTH!

The Club of Rome is indeed a formidable agency of the Committee. Although ostensibly working on American affairs, the group overlaps other Committee agencies and its United States members are often found working on “problems” in Japan and Germany. Some of the front organizations operated by Committee include the following, although not limited to them:

LEAGUE OF INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY
Officials: Michael Novak, Jean Kirkpatrick, Eugene Rostow, Irwin Suall, Lane Kirkland, and Albert Schenker
Purpose: To disrupt and disturb normal labor relations between workers and employers by brainwashing labor unions to make impossible demands with special attention to steel, automobile and housing industries.

FREEDOM HOUSE
Officials: Leo Churn and Carl Gershman
Purpose: To spread socialist disinformation among American blue-collar workers, spread dissension and dissatisfaction. As soon as these objectives were largely accomplished, Gershman was drafted by Lawrence Eagleburger to CEDC, a newly created body to stop a united Germany from expanding its trade into the Danube basin. This is very closely related to the conflict in former Yugoslavia.

COMMITTEE FOR A DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY
Officials: Ben Wattenburg, Jean Kirkpatrick, Elmo Zumwalt and Midge Dector

Purpose: To provide a connecting link between the educated socialist class and minority groups with the intent of setting up a solid block of voters who could be counted on to vote for left-wing candidates at election time. It was a true Fabianist operation from its very beginning.

FOREIGN POLICY RESEARCH INSTITUTE
Officials: Robert Strausz Hupe
Purpose: To undermine and eventually end NASA space program.

SOCIAL DEMOCRATS U.S.A.
Officials: Bayard Rustin, Lane Kirkland, Jay Lovestone, Carl Gershman, Howard Samuel, Sidney Hook
Purpose: To spread radical socialism, especially among minority groups, and forge links between similar organization in socialist countries. Lovestone was for decades the leading advisor to United States presidents on Soviet affairs, with strong direct links to Moscow.

INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL RELATIONS
Officials: Harland Cleveland, Willis Harmon
Purpose: Change the way America thinks. Cleveland was a top official in the Club of Rome and what one intelligence officer described as a “Socialist specialist on China”. Cleveland got his Socialist education at Oxford in 1938. He later became Assistant Secretary of State for International Affairs, and the UNRRA delegate to China and a director of the ECA China program. Cleveland had a perception that the way America was going, was not the way the socialists wanted it to go, and that methods had been devised to make America change direction. The Institute for Social Relations and the Club of Rome were the vehicles he felt could be instrumental in bringing about the changes needed to socialize America.

THE CITIZENS LEAGUE
Officials: Barry Commoner
Purpose: To bring “common cause” legal suits against various government agencies, especially those who worked with the defense industries, with the object of disturbing relations in the military-industrial complex. Commoner encouraged “whistle blowers” to report any cost overruns among defense contractors.

WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE
Officials: [Noam] Chomsky and David McReynolds
Purpose: To organize resistance to the Vietnam War among left-wing groups, students and the Hollywood “our crowd”. Acted in conjunction with the Riverside Church Disarmament Program, directed by Cora Weiss. The main thrust of the War Resisters League was to infuse into the American mainstream the idea that the “Russian threat is the big lie of the arms race.” Chomsky was closely associated with other “peace movements”, like World Peacemakers and American Friends Service Committee, all of whom favored Socialist causes.

THE DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST ORGANIZING COMMITTEE OF THE INSTITUTE FOR DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISM
Officials: Frank Zeider, Arthur Redier and David McReynolds
Purpose: A clearing house for left-wing socialist ideas and activities in the United States and Europe. McReynolds attended many meetings of the Women’s International League for Peace and Freedom and was actively associated with the Campaign for the Second Special Session on Disarmament.

ANTI DEFAMATION LEAGUE FACT FINDING DIVISION
Official: Irwin Suall also known as John Graham
Purpose: A joint FBI-British intelligence operation designed to single out right-wing groups and their leaders and put them out of business before they grow too large and too influential.

[H: This entity needs a bit more information offered. Note that it is truly a JEWISH LOBBY group and bears tremendous weight as to ability to shout “Anti-Semitic” and bring down innocent persons and businesses. They even had an operation going in the San Francisco area where the ADL was totally integrated as to a “watch listing” of thousands of individuals, WITH THE FBI.

Yes indeed, they certainly did attack our people and our paper and we find that all these years later, they were behind the problems we experienced right through our first publisher-distributor who ACTUALLY STOLE our property. These are mostly little simple-minded people who are nothing more than petty paid crooks.

This same ADL, after all said and done, DESTROYED and bankrupted the only REALLY FREE PRESS PUBLICATION, SPOTLIGHT!

This was done in such an underhanded hand-in-glove judicial operation as to be both shocking and yet, expected in this age of judicial sell-outs with full cooperation of such judicial systems as to CONTROL MEDIA—AND YOU!

Our Journals, and some of our papers, WERE SEIZED AT THE CANADIAN BORDER AND LABELED “HATE” MATERIAL. MOST OF IT WAS RELEASED AND FOUND QUITE APPROPRIATE. HOWEVER, SOME OF OUR JOURNALS WERE BANNED IN THE U.S. AS WELL AND WERE BURNED. Indeed, if you think “freedom”, do not be so foolish, citizen, as to think that it might be “you”. Anyone, anywhere, who has a contract of any kind with government-associated entities is a SLAVE. Anyone who can have property seized for non-payment OF TAXES or obligatory licenses, is ENSLAVED, NOT FREE.

And, speaking of non-payment of taxes: ALL OF THE ORGANIZATIONS LISTED HERE ARE “TAX-FREE” AS TO QUALIFICATION.

I am going to shock and awe our own readers when I point out that the bunch who literally STOLE (thieved by take-over) CONTACT, after first continuing to call themselves CONTACT UNTIL STOPPED BY COURT ORDER, immediately got a “tax-free” listing directly from the U.S. government for their new paper named SPECTRUM. Now, friends, that SHOULD tell you the facts about the miscreants and activities of those who don’t like us a lot.

Fine, we just continue, after all the losses, to run in the “red” and never meeting even one publication coverage. This means that we don’t make a profit but we are in debt and, therefore, it becomes totally unwanted property. Steal CONTACT and you have just picked up the DEBT while we can mark it off as loss. Further, since we don’t have “random” advertising we keep qualified but, even though not planned this way, there is only debt. We keep no “profile” other than as a publication and our people work totally as contract (as with printer), and in their spare time as voluntary individuals. Dharma, in spite of having presented countless papers, tapes and now some 300 plus Journals, has taken NOTHING. That means: NOTHING. It is however, that seemingly everyone comes to believe that these people are responsible for everyone’s “responsibilities” and eventual “gains” if you ever “heard of” them or me, GCH. However, simply believing that to be “a right” or “fact” DOES NOT MAKE IT SO.]

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MACHINISTS
Officials: (None listed)

Purpose: A labor-oriented front for the Socialist International and a hotbed for organizing labor unrest, polarizing workers and management. According to Ladislav Bittman, a director from the Czech STB (intelligence), “The Soviets relied on organizations such as the IMAW for certain information.”

AMALGAMATED CLOTHING WORKERS
Officials: Murray Findley, Irwin Suall and Jacob Scheinkman

Purpose: Much the same as the machinists Union, to socialize and polarize workers in the garment trade. According to Service A of the KGB, it had many contacts among this group.

A. PHILIP RANDOLPH INSTITUTE
Officials: Bayard Rustin
Purpose: To provide a means of coordinating organizations with a common purpose, an example of which would be the spread of socialist ideas among college students and workers. Reportedly has ties to the Knights of Malta and the Mont Pelerin Society.

CAMBRIDGE POLICY STUDIES INSTITUTE
Officials: Gar Alperovitz
Purpose: To expand on the work being done at the Institute for Policy Studies. Founded in February of 1959 by international socialist Gar Alperovitz, a former assistant to Senator Gaylord Nelson. Alperovitz wrote the controversial book Atomic Diplomacy for the Club of Rome, which was financed by the German Marshall Fund. CPSI concentrates on research and action projects, with a stated goal of fundamentally changing American society, i.e., to create a Fabian Socialist United States in preparation of the coming One World Government.

ECONOMIC COMMITTEE OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC INSTITUTE
Officials: Dr. Aurellio Peccei
Purpose: NATO think-tank on global economic issues. Much of what the economic think tank turned out was a rehash of Von Hayek and Ludwig Von Mises ideas, which have since been passed on to the Clinton administration.

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS
Officials: Founder: Robert Hutchins, of the Committee of 300; Harry Ashmore; Frank Kelly and a large group of IPS “Fellows”.
Purpose: To spread ideas that would bring on Socialist reforms of the liberal kind, with democracy as an ideology. One of its activities was to draft a new constitution for the United States, which would be strongly monarchical and socialistic, as in Denmark.

The center is an “Olympian” stronghold. Located in Santa Barbara, it is housed in what is affectionately known as “the Parthenon”. Former U.S. Representative John Rarick called it “an outfit loaded with Communists”. By 1973, work on a new United States Constitution was in its 35th draft, which proposed an amendment guaranteeing “environmental rights”, the thrust of which is to reduce the industrial base of the U.S. to a mere whimper of what it was in 1969. In other words, this institution is carrying out the Club of Rome zero-growth post-industrial policies laid down by the Committee.

Some other aims include the creation and control of economic cycles, welfare, regulation of business and national public works, and the control of pollution. Speaking on behalf of the Committee of 300, Ashmore said the functions of the CSDI were to find ways and means of making our political system work more effectively. “We must change education (reference to OBE) and we must consider a new U.S. Constitution and a Constitution for the world.”

Further goals enunciated by Ashmore were as follows:

- (1) Membership of the U.N. must be made universal.
- (2) The U.N. must be strengthened.
- (3) South East Asia must be neutralized (for neutralized read “communized”).
- (4) Cold War must be ended.
- (5) Racial discrimination must be abolished.
- (6) Developing nations must be assisted, (meaning assisted to destruct).
- (7) No military solutions to problems. (Pity they didn’t tell George Bush that before the Gulf War.)
- (8) National solutions are not adequate.
- (9) Coexistence is necessary, the “global concept” that George Bush was told to push, and which Clinton is doing.

HARVARD PSYCHOLOGICAL CLINIC
Officials: Dr. Kurt Lewin and staff of 15 new science-scientists
Purpose: To create a climate in which the Committee has unlimited power over the United States. To prepare society for radical changes, Harvard worked with the Institute for Policy Studies and enlisted the aid of the mass media to condition the American public to the idea that its society is inadequate and riddled with faults, and that it must be changed.

INSTITUTE FOR SOCIAL RESEARCH/RAND “DELPHI” PROJECT
Officials: Dr. Kurt Lewin and staff of 20 new science-scientists
Purpose: To devise a whole new set of social programs to steer America away from its industrial base, and to create an atmosphere that would make the American public feel that industrial expansion was a bad thing, and to steer investments away from profitable industries that pay well.

A “Future” think tank, Rand Delphi worked on the “Prometheus Project”, which established Future forecasting as an exact science. At this think tank, the work of John McHale’s Future of the Future was taken as a theme. This work was not for ordinary folk with an interest in Jules Verne and H.G. Wells “time warp” novels. Rather, it was a strict discipline, rigorously applied to forecasting techniques, based upon works by Robert U. Ayers’ Technological Forecasting: A Practical Approach.

EDUCATIONAL POLICY CENTER
Officials: Willis Harmon
Purpose: This adjunct to the Stanford Research Institute is funded by the United States Education Department. It is one of more than 30 policy research centers under the jurisdiction of the Office of Education. Begun in 1967, the center works on future education policies which the Committee deems fit to be taught in America’s primary and secondary schools. The center employs from 20 to 25 full-time professors, whose job it is to look at education from a Socialist aspect in a national and international context. Its director is Willis Harmon, who said that his mandate was to see that education was not isolated from the rest of society: “We decided to look at the major alternatives, (i.e. Socialist education) to see how education fits into them. Ours is a holistic approach in which education can be tested in terms of national alternatives and “World Macroproblems”.

SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
Officials: Sheldon Arenberg and a staff of hundreds, too numerous to mention here
Purpose: To coordinate all elements of the intelligence communities of the United States and Britain. It analyzes what players have to be assigned the role of a national entity. For example: Spain would come under a supine watered-down Catholic Church, the United Nations under a Secretary General that it would henceforth appoint (as in the case of Bhuttros Ghali), and so forth. It developed the system of “X RAY 2”, where think-tank personnel, military installations and law enforcement agencies are all linked to the Pentagon through a nation-wide network of teletypes and computers. Its mission is to apply an all-embracing surveillance system, using new techniques, on a nation-wide scale. Arenberg says his ideas are non military, but his techniques are mainly those he learned from the military. He was responsible for the New York State Identification and Intelligence System, a typical “George Orwell-1984” project, which is completely illegal under our Constitution. The NYSIIS system is in the process of being adopted nation-wide. It is what Brzezinski alluded to as the ability to instantaneously retrieve data about any person. NYSIIS shares data with all law enforcement and government agencies in the nation. It provides storage and rapid retrieval of individual records, criminal and social. It is a TYPICAL Committee of 300 project. There is a crying need for a full investigation into just what it is that Systems Development Corporation is doing, but that is beyond the scope of this book. One thing is certain, SDC does not exist to preserve freedom and liberty guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution. How convenient that it should be located in Santa Barbara, within easy reach of Robert Hutchins’ “Parthenon”. Some publications put out by Club of Rome institutions are as follows:

- The New Republic*
- Industrial Research*
- One*
- Raconteur*
- Dissent*
- Human Relations*
- Coventry*
- Working Papers for a New Society*
- Inquiry*
- Center Magazine*
- Counterspy*
- Mother Jones*
- Progressive*
- Covert Action Information Bulletin*

These are by no means all of the publications issued under the auspices of the Club of Rome. There are many HUNDREDS more, in fact, each of the foundations puts out several of its own publications. Given the number of foundations run by the Tavistock Institute and the Club of Rome, a partial listing is all we can include here. Some of the more important foundations and think tanks are in the following list, which includes military think tanks.

The American public would be astounded if it only knew how deeply the Army is involved in “new war tactics” research with Committee of 300 think tanks. Americans are not aware that in 1946, the Club of Rome was ordered by the Committee to further the progress of think tanks which it said offered a new means of spreading the Committee’s philosophy. The impact of these think tanks upon our military since 1959, when they suddenly proliferated, is truly astounding. There is no doubt that they will play an even greater role in the daily affairs of this nation as we come to the close of the 20th century.

[H: Please note this reference to closing of the 20th century. This shows that this information is AT LEAST five years old—or LOTS OLDER. This is a “guide”, readers—YOU HAVE BEEN HAD!]

For the most part, and worse, for global recognition, this is geared for realization in the United States as a real “eye-opener” of which every citizen in EVERY NATION should have full awareness.

Unless you recognize that such as USAID is just another controlling, manipulative and deliberately structured entity for eventual “take-over”, you are doomed! I use this one as an example because it happens to be one under attention right in the Philippines almost all of the time as manipulative and criminal actions take place against the people thereof. Ah but, the bowing and scraping just goes and on and on while the rich Elite get richer (before the rug is pulled out from under them) and get relocated so that after the “foreclosure” and orchestrated demise of the nation as a Sovereign State is accomplished.

Does it need be this way? Well, certainly NOT IN THE PHILIPPINES where RECOVERY of stolen wealth is not too late for the “bring it back”. However, it certainly should be noted that the “time clock” is on “shut down” while the dickering and manipulation of even elections with heinous and OBVIOUS breaking of all Constitutional LAW takes place and with a JUDICIAL system that sustains heinous acts of criminal nature all the while as orchestrated, frankly, by that New World Order in take-over mode.

I would interrupt this writing at this point and when we take up again we will reference the various entities which are not so limited as to simply offer “Officials”.]

* * *

Just for a close-out of this writing I would note that it is now Sunday, May 1st of 2005. This is a major “holiday” here in the Philippines and, actually, in much of the world. Here it is called “Labor Day”.

Many events are scheduled today and there is full alert of all policing departments. However, it is also noted that many of the policing agencies and departments are part and parcel of the actions showing against this Administration. I just want to note this for historical reference and nothing more.

The President, being terrified for her life and position has left the Capitol (Manila) region and gone to Cebu which is a large city to the south and which has facilities to remove her conveniently from the country if necessary.

She (Gloria Arroyo) was put into power through TREASON of the military and police and a duly and overwhelmingly elected President was simply deposed through force after an effort at Impeachment FAILED. It is a frightening time for this nation and the media is so controlled as to have so few actually know truth that it boggles the mind.

Knowing TRUTH offers ability to achieve FREEDOM—but just “knowing” something means little or nothing.

“Fighting” and “WAR” are puny excuses for acting without “reason” or “wisdom”. There are always solutions worthy of GOD, my friends, and HE offers them every step of the treacherous way.

The New Jerusalem

Part One: Introduction

Author Michael Collins Piper has graciously given permission to serialize his latest book, The New Jerusalem: Zionist Power in America. This book is—as were his previous efforts, Final Judgment and The High Priests of War—very well researched and fully footnoted. In an effort to save space we will not be including the footnotes—which is a good reason for you to acquire your own, personal copy.

Copies of this book can be obtained through Phoenix Source Distributors (800-800-5565). International orders can also be placed through The Preferred Network (250-248-5591).

[QUOTING:]

Is America the New Jerusalem? America’s most controversial author has now come forth with perhaps his most provocative work yet . . . an un-censored and fully-documented forthright examination—based on “mainstream” sources—of the immense power and influence assembled by the Zionist community in America today. In 1994 Michael Collins Piper rocked the world of research into the always news-making topic of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and dared to suggest that the president’s murder was a direct consequence of JFK’s steadfast refusal to acquiesce to the State of Israel’s determined drive to build nuclear weapons of mass destruction. In his 768-page work, Final Judgment: The Missing Link in the JFK Assassination Conspiracy, Piper assembled—in page after remarkable page—a stunning indictment which laid forth the proposition that Israel’s intelligence agency, the Mossad, played a key behind-the-scenes role in the events in Dallas on November 22, 1963. Thus far, no responsible source has come forth to refute Piper’s thesis which does indeed remain the unchallenged “final judgment” on the assassination of President Kennedy, the bitterness and hysteria of Piper’s critics notwithstanding. In 2004, Piper’s book, The High Priests of War, emerged as the first-ever full-length work examining the little-known history of the hard-line pro-Israel neo-conservative network inside the George W. Bush administration and how it achieved its influence, making possible the unprecedented unprovoked U.S. military attack on a sovereign nation, a war based largely—if secretly—on the premise that the protection of the state of Israel and its imperial ambitions was central to America’s own geopolitical interests.

Now, in The New Jerusalem—Zionist Power in America, Piper goes where no other modern-day writer has gone before. Citing facts and figures and naming names, based upon his careful study of a wide-ranging array of published material (exclusively from pro-Zionist sources), Piper demonstrates, beyond any question, that Zionist power in America has reached a pinnacle—a titanic achievement—unlike anything yet seen anywhere in recorded history. Michael Collins Piper ventures so far as to ask the critical question: “Is this good for America and the world?” Although he expresses his own opinions on this matter, Piper leaves it up to the reader to make the final judgment.

THE NEW JERUSALEM ZIONIST POWER IN AMERICA

“The great question which, in all ages, has disturbed mankind, and brought on them the greatest part of those mischiefs which have ruined cities, depopulated countries, and disordered the peace of the world, has been, not whether there be power in the world, nor whence it came, but who should have it.”—JOHN LOCKE, Treatises on Government, I

On June 7, 1922 the popular London-based satire magazine, Punch, published this cartoon, entitled “The Half-Promised Land”. The cartoon commemorates how one Pinchas Rutenberg, a Russian-born anti-Czarist, Jewish revolutionary-turned-Zionist devotee and business enterpriser, was viewing Palestine—then still in British hands and not yet transferred, as it ultimately was, to Jewish control. To Rutenberg, Palestine very much proved to be a veritable land of milk and honey, a foundation for what was essentially Rutenberg’s own “get rich quick” scheme to supply electricity to Palestine, shown as the “electrical contracts” in his hand, with his traveling bag in the other, featuring the tag, “Mr. Rutenberg—Russia to Palestine”. Rutenberg’s Palestine Electric Corporation (later the Israel Electric Corporation) emerged as one of the first corporate success stories in Palestine. Although Rutenberg and his fellow Zionist dreamers ultimately achieved a state in Palestine, with the formal establishment of Israel in 1948, a very real “New Jerusalem” firmly in the hands of modern-day “Rutenbergs” has since evolved, and it is no less than the United States of America.

ABOUT THE COVER . . .

This is a rendition of Robert Fleaux’s 1851 painting of the “Assault on the Jewish Quarter of Venice”, the original of which is in the Augustine Museum in Toulouse. The painting commemorates a 15th century uprising by Venetian citizens against Jewish merchants and money lenders who had come to predominate in the commercial and public affairs of that Italian city state.

Similar events took place throughout Europe as citizens discovered their respective economies—local, provincial and national—had fallen into the hands of a select few.

Such uprisings flared in Europe well into the 20th century. Some speculated that this tragic history played a major part in directing Jewish attention toward the American continent where British geopolitical interests, heavily interconnected with the global enterprises of the Jewish Rothschild family, had taken root.

In the end—following years of turmoil, wars and social unrest, much of it traceable to high-level intrigue involving the Rothschilds and their agents on American soil—the United States began to take on a markedly different complexion, with a “new elite” emerging to reign supreme over a country otherwise much divided within.

The consequences of that new paradigm—and how it may impact on the future of not only the United States but the world—constitute the subject of The New Jerusalem.

DEDICATION

To Ruth Cramer Waters, the first person ever to tell me that the Zionists had immense power in America.

To my lifelong friend, Colonel Dallas Texas Naylor, An unabashed patriot whose own life was all too short.

To the more than One Hundred Million Forgotten Victims of Zionism and Communism worldwide.

To the Muslim and Christian Survivors (and Victims) of the Palestinian Holocaust—“The Nakba”.

To Nicholas II, Czar of Russia, The First Martyr of the 20th Century butchered by Zionist assassins.

To John Fitzgerald Kennedy, publicly executed for his effort to stop Israel’s mad drive to build nuclear weapons of mass destruction.

To His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, whose memory has been ritually soiled by the forces of hate.

To Lawrence Dennis, Charles Coughlin, Paquita DeShishmareff, Arnold Leese, Henry Ford, Charles Lindbergh, Ezra Pound—along with many others, they were crucified for speaking out.

To H. Keith Thompson, DeWest Hooker, and Francois Genoud, for their broad international approach to the problem of our time.

To Eustace Mullins, the American intellectual whose studies introduced me to the intrigues few would ever write about.

To Ernst Zundel, Hans Schmidt, Fredrick Toben, Udo Walendy. Just four—among thousands—jailed for daring to question the official “interpretations” of 20th century history.

To Paul Christian Wolff, a dear friend, confidant and advisor, whose insights and humor will never be matched.

And to all of the future leaders—in the United States and around the world—who will play a part in making the necessary adjustments that will bring true liberty to all peoples on our planet.

THE FIRST BIG-NAME BIGOT IN AMERICA:
U.S. CONGRESSMAN LEWIS CHARLES LEVIN,
JEWISH FOUNDER OF THE “KNOW NOTHING” PARTY

The subject of “anti-Semitism” and “bigotry” is much discussed in the mainstream media and in the history books in America today. But perhaps the biggest secret of all is that one of the first and foremost outspoken bigots in America leading the fight against immigration into the United States—particularly Irish Catholic immigration—was a prominent Jewish American, Lewis Charles Levin.

Although history often tells us that the so-called “Know Nothing” movement—the Native American Party—was “led by Protestants” and “aimed at Catholics and Jews”, the truth is that Levin—a Jew—was not only one of the party’s founders but also one of the editors of its national organ and one of the first Know Nothing members elected to Congress!

In fact, Levin was the first Jew elected to the U.S. Congress. Yet, Jewish literature today never mention’s Levin’s preeminent role in the anti-Catholic agitation of America’s early years.

Levin was born in 1808 in Charleston, South Carolina, which—as students of the African slave trade know—was the Jewish population center of the United States for many years, long before New York City emerged as such. He later moved north, as an attorney, to Philadelphia where he published and edited the Philadelphia Daily Sun. In 1844 he was elected to Congress from Pennsylvania on the American (or “Know Nothing”) ticket and held that post for three terms until he was defeated for re-election in 1850. Levin died ten years later, on March 14, 1860.

The fact that Levin was one of the pioneering anti-Catholic agitators on American soil is very interesting, to say the least, particularly because, as we’ve noted, the history books have been careful to “edit” the historical record as far as Levin’s role in the Know Nothing movement is concerned. And that, of course, raises the question: “Why?”

In the pages of The New Jerusalem we will effectively explain why Levin’s career has been consigned to the Orwellian “Memory Hole” and why, instead, we always hear how both “the Protestants” and “the Catholics” have been so hostile to “the poor Jewish immigrants who were fleeing persecution”.

Levin’s story is very revealing indeed . . .

PREFACE: ISRAEL OR AMERICA?

In 1988 Professor Shalom Goldman, an associate professor of Hebrew and Middle Eastern Studies at Emory University, made the interesting discovery that a little-known ancestor of the American presidents Bush was no less than Professor George Bush, who—in 1830—wrote The Life of Mohammed, which just happened to be the first anti-Muslim hate screed ever published on American soil.

Writing in his own 2004 book, God’s Sacred Tongue: Hebrew and the American Imagination (The University of North Carolina Press), Professor Goldman, writing of Bush, who lived from 1796 to 1859, says that Bush’s life and work is important in tracing the roots of “Christian Zionism” in America. Bush was quite well known and prolific in his day and a fervent advocate of a return by the Jews to the Holy Land, and his statements in that regard, says Goldman, “had considerable influence”.

Ironically, despite his advocacy of Zionism, Bush was not a philo-Semite, but, instead, was actually quite hostile to the Jewish people, just as he was toward the Muslims. He viewed the Jewish philosophy as a threat to Christianity and the West and felt the establishment of a Jewish state might only be possible if appeals were made to what Bush called the “worldly and selfish principles of the Jewish mind”.

Of course, today, there is a Jewish state known as Israel, and Bush’s descendants have proven to be worthy advocates for that nation, both Presidents Bush having launched devastating wars on its behalf. And the second President Bush, at least, seems to share his distant ancestor’s peculiar love-hate for the Jews by virtue of his own chosen brand of Christian dispensationalism, which places Israel at its center, yet still looks forward to those so-called “Last Days” when (so the teaching goes) only a remnant of the Jews will survive and become followers of Christ.

However, the Professor Bush of old was not the only philosopher contemplating the return of the Jews to Zion. There were others who actually saw the United States of America as The New Jerusalem—at least temporarily—and viewed American soil as a gathering place for the Jews to prepare for their eventual return to Palestine, which was said to be the land of their forebears. And while today there are—unknown to many people—many notable anthropologists and archeologists, as well as both Jewish and Christian academics and scholars of Higher Criticism, among others, who have serious doubts about the Jewish people’s so-called “historic” right to Palestine, the legend of a return to the Holy Land held great sway in America’s early days, and even unto today.

(For those who dare to look into this controversy surrounding the myth of a Jewish historical claim to Palestine, a good starting point is Professor Thomas L. Thompson’s 1999 work, The Mythic Past: Biblical Archeology and the Myth of Israel (Basic Books). Also Jewish author Daniel Lazare’s “False Testament,” in the March 2002 issue of Harper’s, and that article can be accessed on the Internet at findarticles.com.)

Nonetheless, as we move fast forward into the 21st century—long after Professor Bush went to his reward—we find that although the State of Israel very much exists—just barely, and torn apart by major divisions within—the position of the Zionist community on American soil is unrivaled by any other ethnic grouping, even including the old-line so-called “WASP” families of great power and renown.

Although American Zionists insist that the United States continue to prop up the State of Israel with billions of dollars in welfare, not to mention military aid and other forms of support, these same Zionists do not seem so intent upon taking up residence there. No indeed, they are rather happy here in America and enjoying it immensely.

As we shall see, the Zionist elite in America have achieved much and while many people know that the so-called “Israeli lobby” is powerful in Washington, most people don’t quite understand precisely why that lobby is so powerful. The reason is quite simple: despite all the hoopla and all the rhetoric about “little Israel” and its sacred place in the hearts of the Jewish people, the fact is that the United States has become the center of Zionist power in the world today.

Those Who Reign Supreme, by sheer force of financial clout, coupled with a stranglehold on the Media Monopoly, have established the United States as the mechanism for setting in place a world empire, the long-dreamed-of New World Order.

In the bigger picture, the state of Israel is nothing more than a symbol of an age-old dream that, in reality, has been achieved right here in America—The New Jerusalem.

INTRODUCTION: SEMITES & ANTI-SEMITES— THE CONFLICT OF THE AGES

Despite the fact that most of the substantive material within this volume is taken from books by Jewish authors citing—perhaps actually bragging about—Jewish wealth and Jewish power, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) of B’nai B’rith will undoubtedly defame this volume as a work of “anti-Semitism” if indeed they even dare mention it at all.

Right up front, let it be noted that we are not here to say that Jewish people in America do not deserve the massive and unprecedented wealth and the consequential power that they have accumulated (and which is documented in this volume).

The fact of considerable Jewish wealth and power is not the issue.

What is at issue is how the Jewish community has exercised its wealth and power—in league with a hardcore group of fundamentalist Christian allies—particularly in the arena of influencing U.S. policy toward Israel and the Arab world.

The truth is that two of the great tragedies of our new century—the 9-11 terrorist outrage resulting in the deaths of 3,000 Americans and the unnecessary and disastrous American invasion of Iraq that has resulted in countless lives being lost and ten times that many being butchered and maimed—are both a direct consequence of U.S. policy in the Middle East, a policy that has been dictated by the “Jewish lobby” in Washington and actively encouraged by the American media monopoly that is, for all intents and purposes, largely owned by a handful of families and financial interests who are Jewish supporters of Israel.

How many more such tragedies will occur because American Jews have accumulated so much power and have used it to bend American policy in such a parochial fashion, forcing America’s elected and appointed officials to carry out policies that, more often than not, are contrary to America’s interests? How many more innocent people have to die? How much longer will an influential special interest group continue to dominate U.S. foreign policy?

These very serious questions standing alone demonstrate why a study of precisely what wealth and power has been captured by the Jewish elite in America is fully within the realm of thoroughly acceptable and logical public discussion, despite what the well-funded and often hysterical demonizers at the ADL might say to the contrary.

To be sure, it is not only in foreign policy that Jewish influence makes its presence felt. The influence of Jewish organizations in shaping modern-day (and most disastrous) U.S. immigration policy was paramount.

Likewise with Jewish influence in issues such as separation of church and state and the institution of “thought control” measures that infringe on First Amendment freedoms. The range of issues is endless.

However, of course, those who raise questions about Jewish influence are hit with the always damaging charge of “anti-Semitism”.

And—at least in the past—those who have been tarred with that ugly label have faced the most egregious forms of public censure and opprobrium, not to mention economic sanctions and, on more than one occasion, acts of terrorism, the last of which is of no surprise considering the fact that modern-day terrorism has its origins in the activities of the so-called Jewish “defense” organizations that drove the British out of Palestine prior to the establishment of Israel in 1948.

In recent years, however, if groups such as the ADL are to be believed, anti-Semitism is growing by leaps and bounds. In the past several years, dozens of books and thousands of magazine articles have raised the specter of a “new anti-Semitism”.

And even the esteemed Webster’s Dictionary has now broadened the definition of anti-Semitism to include “opposition to Zionism” and “sympathy for the opponents of Israel”—two categories that would probably include literally billions of people all across the face of the planet.

In that regard it is perhaps no wonder that some years ago, even before the purported “outbreak” of the “new anti-Semitism”, the most popular song in Israel was “The Whole World Is Against Us”, reflecting a mindset that is most revealing, to say the very least.

The fact is that the “anti-Semitic” bugaboo that the ADL has profited from so immensely has become so tired and worn that it now seems—if the ADL is to be believed—that virtually everybody is an anti-Semite (or at least potentially one)!

History shows that a wide-ranging array of individuals have been accused by the ADL—or by like-minded “hater hunters” such as the Simon Wiesenthal Center—of either being “anti-Semitic” and/or insufficiently supportive of the demands of the Jewish people and, in more modern times, of the state of Israel. And we’re not talking about Adolf Hitler here! Instead, the list of those standing accused of “anti-Semitism” is impressive indeed, virtually a catalogue of some of the most respected personages of their respective eras. While the list is by no means complete, it is representative.

First of all, there is an extensive list of former public officials of recent years—liberal and conservative and Republican and Democratic alike—who have been dubbed as “anti-Semites” outright, accused of making “anti-Semitic” remarks, or charged with hostility to “tiny Israel”. Those accused include such eminent names as: President Richard Nixon; President John F. Kennedy; President Jimmy Carter; President George H. W. Bush; President Gerald Ford; President Harry S. Truman; Sen. Robert F. Kennedy (D-N.Y.); Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.); Sen. Charles Percy (R-Ill.); Sen. Jim Abourezk (D-S.D.); Sen. Adlai

Stevenson (D-Ill.); Sen. Ernest F. Hollings (D-S.C.); Rep. Paul Findley (R-Ill.); Rep. Pete McCloskey (R-Calif.); Rep. Ed Zschau (R-Calif.); Rep. Mary Rose O’Kear (D-Ohio); Rep. Mervyn Dymally (D-Calif.); Rep. Gus Savage (D-Ill.); Rep. John R. Rarick (D-La.); Rep. Steve Stockman (R-Texas); Rep. Jim Traficant (D-Ohio); Rep. Earl Hilliard (D-Ala.); UN Ambassador Bill Scranton; UN Ambassador Andrew Young; Governor John B. Connally (D-Texas); Defense Secretary James Forrestal; Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger; Secretary of State James Baker.

At least three current members of Congress (as of the 2004 elections) have been hit with the smear of “anti-Semitism” at one time or another: Rep. Fortney “Pete” Stark (D-Calif.); Rep. Cynthia McKinney (D-Ga.); Sen. Hillary Rodham Clinton (D-N.Y.).

Yes, even Hillary! And do recall that in the 2004 presidential campaign, no less than former Vermont Gov. Howard Dean—whose own wife is Jewish—was suspected of being less than loyal to the interests of Israel.

As a consequence, Dean saw his hard-driving presidential campaign sabotaged in the Iowa caucuses by—according to the Jewish newspaper Forward—a substantial turnout of Jewish voters in favor of Sen. John Kerry (D-Mass.) whose own campaign had, until then, been faltering.

The Jewish elite simply could not accept the idea that a maverick politician such as Dean—who opposed the Iraq war that the major American Jewish organizations (and Israel) supported—could be within striking distance of winning the Democratic presidential nomination. Thus, the switch to Kerry who—as we now know—just happens to be of Jewish extraction himself.

In the past—aside from the politicians—there have been some rather well-known American military figures accused of being “anti-Semitic” or somehow hostile to the state of Israel. They include such notables as: Gen. George Patton (Famed U.S. Army Commander in World War II); Gen. George C. Marshall (U.S. Army Chief of Staff during World War II); Gen. George Stratemeyer (Commanding General of Air Forces in WWII); Gen. Albert Wedemeyer (U.S. Army Chief of Plans & Operations); Gen. George V. Strong (Chief of U.S. Army Intelligence – 1942-44); Maj. Gen. George Moseley (Commander of the Third Army – 1936-38); Lt. Gen. Sherman Miles (Commander I Corps Area – 1942-45); Gen. George Brown (Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff – 1974-78); Adm. Thomas Moorer (Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff – 1970-74); Gen. Pedro Del Valle (U.S. Marine commander at Okinawa in WWII).

In recent years, several well-known entertainers, literary figures, commentators and others—including at least one Jewish rabbi and one Jewish newsman—have also been charged with “anti-Semitism”, or being hostile to Israel, in one form or another. They include: Mel Gibson; Marlon Brando; Michael Jackson; Steve Carlton; Gore Vidal; Robert Mitchum; Mark Lane; Alfred Lillenthal; Rabbi Elmer Berger; Dr. Billy Graham; Mike Wallace (“Sixty Minutes”); Peter Jennings (“ABC News”).

Several Black leaders have also been accused (or suspected) of being “anti-Semitic”. They include: Rev. Martin Luther King; Rev. Jesse Jackson; Minister Louis Farrakhan; Malcolm X.

And note that on April 28, 1993 the San Francisco Weekly reported that a former ADL official, Henry Schwarzschild, had revealed that King was one of those under regular surveillance by the ADL, which then turned the fruits of its labor over to the FBI.

In fact, while the FBI was engaged in spying on Rev. King, the ADL was doing likewise, considering King a “loose cannon”, according to Schwarzschild. So not even an esteemed African-American civil rights leader was immune from the suspicions of the ADL!

The truth is that anyone—repeat anyone—who has any substantial point of view on any subject and chooses to express it in a public forum is considered subject to surveillance by the ADL, acting as the unofficial “thought police” for the Zionist elite in America.

To even begin listing the array of current non-American world leaders who have been charged with anti-Semitism (in the Webster definition of the word) would belabor the point, although Malaysia’s world-renowned former Prime Minister Dr. Mahathir Muhammed is probably among the best known of those who have been hit with this smear. And he is just one of those respected names recently subjected to the charge. The roll call of notable figures of the past accused of “anti-Semitism” is worth citing. The list includes such writers, philosophers, artists, com-posers and inventors as: Walt Disney; Thomas Edison; Charles A. Lindbergh; Henry Ford; H. L. Mencken; Theodore Dreiser; Nathaniel Hawthorne; Ernest Hemingway; Lord Byron; Thomas Carlyle; Henry James; Henry Adams; T. S. Eliot; George Eliot; Washington Irving; Truman Capote; Carl Jung; F. Scott Fitzgerald; Jack Kerouc; Percy Shelley; Rudyard Kipling; H. G. Wells; D. H. Lawrence; Franz Liszt; James Russell Lowell; Somerset Maugham; Henry Miller; Eugene O’Neill; C. Northcote Parkinson; Sir Walter Scott; Ezra Pound; George Sand; George Bernard Shaw; Johannes Brahms; Richard Wagner; William Faulkner; Robert Louis Stevenson; George Orwell.

Oh, the list goes on and on . . .
And so the next time you hear someone charged with being “antiSemitic” (or something along those lines), the person being so accused is actually in some fairly distinguished company. It’s not just those crazy “neo-Nazis” in funny uniforms who are accused of being less than friendly to the Zionists. They even said it about Walt Disney! And as we’ve seen already, the Jewish elite in America don’t have much to brag about when it comes to bigotry, as demonstrated by the little-known story of America’s first Jewish congressman, Lewis Levin, whom we met in the opening pages of this volume. In his fight to keep Irish Catholics out of the United States, it was Levin who truly pioneered very real bigotry in America.

The next time your Jewish neighbor starts bellyaching about “anti Semitism”, you might mention Levin.

You see, it’s not only “the poor persecuted Jews” who’ve suffered, although sometimes one might think otherwise, based on what we hear in the media which often proclaims Jewish suffering “unique”. In fact, the Jewish elite have helped make others suffer. Their exercise of power and influence has not always been for the best.

In any case, all of that having been said, let’s take a look at some cold, hard facts about Those Who Reign Supreme in America today. As we’ll see, beyond question, “the poor persecuted Jews” have actually done pretty well in America and that’s why it is no stretch of the imagination to call America . . . The New Jerusalem.

It is becoming very obvious that the number of casualties in Iraq far exceeds the official figures. As the next two articles document, the actual toll could well be two to four times as high as has been reported to the American public.

[QUOTING, emphasis added:]

NUMBER OF IRAQ CASUALTIES IS DOUBLE OFFICIAL FIGURES, SAYS PUERTO RICAN GOVERNMENT

By Jesus Davila, El Diario, July, 2005

Official U.S. government reports on soldiers under U.S. command killed in Iraq are so fragmented that they account for less than half of the total number, according to information uncovered as part of an inquiry by the Government of Puerto Rico regarding the total number of Puerto Rican war casualties.

This analysis was confirmed by El Diario/La Prensa’s review of multiple documents, including official reports issued by the U.S. Department of Defense, the Iraqi Ministry of the Interior and more than 230 battlefield reports, which reveal that more than 4,076 troops under U.S. command have been killed in 799 days of battle.

...Calculations are even more difficult when it comes to the wounded, which U.S. authorities number at more than 12,600, and medical discharges—those maimed or suffering from physical and mental injuries—about whom only partial reports can be obtained. In this category, large discrepancies in counts have been publicized by news outlets such as the national German Press Agency (DPA), which ran a story reporting on U.S. Army documents putting the number of U.S. soldiers with war-related mental ailments at 100,000....

NEARLY 9,000 U.S. TROOPS DEAD?

By Brian Harring, TBR News, 7/1/05

...U.S. Military Personnel who died in German hospitals or en route to German hospitals have not previously been counted. They total about 6,210 as of 1 January, 2005.

...We have received copies of manifests from the MATS that show far more bodies shipped into Dover AFP than are reported officially. The educated rumor is that the actual death toll is in excess of 7,000. ...In addition to the evident falsification of the death rolls, at least 5,500 American military personnel have deserted, most in Ireland but more have escaped to Canada and other European countries, none of whom are inclined to cooperate with vengeful American authorities. (See TBR News of 18 February for full coverage on the mass desertions.)

This means that of the 158,000 U.S. military shipped to Iraq, 26,000 either deserted, were killed or seriously wounded. The DoD lists currently being very quietly circulated indicate almost 9,000 dead, over 16,000 seriously wounded (The latest on the wounded: “Landstuhl Regional Medical Center in Germany, is a 150-bed hospital that’s already seen over 24,000 wounded military patients from Iraq and Afghanistan since the commencement of hostilities.”—Knight Ridder Newspapers, June 6, 2005) and a large number of suicides, forced hospitalization for ongoing drug usage and sales, murder of Iraqi civilians and fellow soldiers, rapes, courts martial and so on.

I have a copy of the official DoD casualty list. I am alphabetizing it with the reported date of death following. TBR will post this list in sections and when this is circulated widely by veteran groups and other concerned sites, if people who do not see their loved ones’ names, [they] are requested to inform their Congressman, their local paper, us and other concerned people as soon as possible.

...As of June 16, TBR has received 32 new, unlisted names. This is a fully alphabetized list of the official number of American dead in Iraq from the beginning of the Iraqi war through June 6, 2005.

...There are many more deaths that have not appeared on the official lists because the DoD has taken the tricky tack of loading dying and probable fatalities onto aircraft and flying them out of Iraq to bases and hospitals outside of that country. So, if a GI is dying or has every expectation of dying, he or she is loaded on an aircraft and their subsequent deaths are not publicly reported as “Combat Deaths”. Of course the families or survivors are certainly notified of the death but the public is not....

ISRAEL WON’T EXTRADITE JEW ACCUSED OF WWII GENOCIDE

Associated Press, 7/7/05

Israel has refused for a second time to extradite to Poland a Jewish man accused of crimes against German prisoners just after the end of World War II, prosecutors said Wednesday.

Polish prosecutors received the refusal in a letter from the Israeli Justice Ministry saying “there was no basis whatsoever to extradite” Solomon Morel, an 86-year-old Holocaust survivor, prosecutor Ewa Koj told The Associated Press.

Morel commanded a communist-run camp for German prisoners in southern Poland in 1945 after Soviet troops had occupied the country. Polish authorities accuse him of genocide by seeking to exterminate German prisoners by starving them to death, depriving them of medical care as well as carrying out torture and sanctioning torture by his subordinates.

Polish prosecutors charge that Morel is responsible for the deaths of at least 1,500 prisoners in the Swietochlowice camp.

...Koj quoted the letter as saying: “In light of the facts, there appears to be no basis to charge Mr. Morel with serious crimes let alone crimes of ‘genocide’ or ‘crimes against the Polish nation’. If anything, it would seem to us that Mr. Morel and his family were clearly victims of crimes of genocide committed by the Nazis and the Polish collaborators.”

Koj criticized Israel’s decision, saying: “How can a statute of limitations run out on crimes against humanity?”

“There should be one measure for judging war criminals, irrespective whether they are German, Israeli, or any other nationality,” she added.

...Morel left Poland for Israel in 1994, after accusations against him surfaced.

ONE IN SIX COUNTRIES FACING FOOD SHORTAGE
J. Vidal and T. Radford, The Guardian—UK, 6/30/05

One in six countries in the world face food shortages this year because of severe droughts that could become semi-permanent under climate change, UN scientists warned yesterday.

In a stark message for world leaders who meet in Gleneagles next week to discuss global warming, Wulf Killman, chairman of the UN food and agriculture organisation’s climate change group, said the droughts that have devastated crops across Africa, central America and south-east Asia in the past year are part of an emerging pattern.

“Africa is our greatest worry,” he said. “Many countries are already in difficulties ... and we see a pattern emerging. Southern Africa is definitely becoming drier and everyone agrees that the climate there is changing. We would expect areas which are already prone to drought to become drier with climate change.”

The food and agriculture organisation and the U.S. government, both of which monitor global food shortages, agree that 34 countries are now experiencing droughts and food shortages and others could join them. Up to 30 million people will need assistance because of the droughts and other natural disasters such as the Asian tsunami.

The worst affected countries include Ethiopia, Zimbabwe, Malawi, Eritrea and Zambia, a group of countries where at least 15 million people will go hungry without aid. The situation in Niger, Djibouti and Sudan is reported to be deteriorating rapidly. Many countries have had their worst harvests in more than 10 years and are experiencing their third or fourth severe drought in a few years, the UN said.

...Severe droughts have also badly affected crops in Cuba, Cambodia, Australia, Afghanistan, Vietnam, Morocco, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua. According to the UN’s famine early warning system, 16 countries, including Peru, Ecuador and Lesotho, face “unfavourable prospects” with current crops....

RUSSIAN-CHINESE POLITICAL TRUST ENTERS NEW LEVEL
RIA Novosti, 7/3/05

MOSCOW—The Russian-Chinese political trust has entered a new level, says a joint statement issued in Moscow on July 2 following the meeting of Russian and Chinese Presidents Vladimir Putin and Hu Jintao.

...Putin and Hu said that bilateral strategic partnership had entered a new development level and were a priority of Russian and Chinese foreign policy.

In 2004, the bilateral trade reached a new record of $21.23 billion. High rates of the trade growth (over 20%) have been preserved in 2005. “The sides will continue efforts to increase the bilateral trade to $60-80 billion by 2010,” the presidents said.

...The sides reaffirmed support for counter-terrorism and condemned linking terrorism with certain countries, nations and religions, as well as double standards in the fight against this evil.

Russia and China spoke in favor of working out an overall anti-terrorist strategy under the coordinating role of the UN and UN Security Council in compliance with the UN Charter and international law.

RUSSIA, INDIA, BRAZIL, CHINA TO COMPETE WITH WESTERN NATIONS IN HI-TECH
RIA Novosti, 6/30/05

MOSCOW—Russia, India, Brazil, and China will be able to compete with industrialized nations in five years with developing innovations, Ernst & Young Global experts say.

The intellectual level of specialists in these countries is the key factor in attracting investors to Western Europe, but the market in Central and Eastern European countries has transformed from cheap homemade products to a market with vast potential, according to James S. Turley, Managing Partner of Ernst & Young.

Turley said the same was happening in China, Russia, India, and Brazil, which will evolve into countries with growing innovation trends and will therefore be able to compete with industrialized nations.

According to Ernst & Young research, Europe is still an attractive zone for investment and can compete with the United States and China.

China is a new leader in this area, with its impressive growth and the potential of its domestic market being attractive for a series of foreign investors, the company said.

In terms of foreign investment, China as a country ranks first, and third as a geographic region. Within twelve months, China’s rating grew from 37% to 52%, placing it ahead of the United States and Canada (45%)....

MASSIVE RAISING OF ATLANTIC OCEAN BED TRIGGERS CURRENT CHANGES AS NORTH AMERICAN PLATE PRESSURES BUILD TO ‘UNPRECEDENTED LEVELS’
By Sorcha Faal, <WhatDoesItMean.com>, 7/5/05

Reports being circulated by Russian Scientists today are suggesting that a massive ‘anomalous’ event is occurring in the Mid-Atlantic Ocean Region suggesting an ‘extreme alteration’ of the Atlantic Ocean Bed itself, or as some Scientists are suggesting, that a new Atlantic Ocean Island is about to form.

Of the main effects being felt by the raising of the Atlantic Ocean Bed are the alterations to its current flows, and as we can read as exemplified by the British Telegraph News Service in their article titled “Surfers search for wave that went missing” and which says, “A famous European surfing beach has mysteriously lost its waves, to the consternation of locals and dismay of surfers, who fear that a ‘wonder of the world’ has vanished forever. Surfers flock in their thousands to Mundaka, on Spain’s north Atlantic coast, to master its enormous tube-like roller—a giant often reaching more than 20 feet. Now anyone arriving to catch the “Basque wave” will find themselves riding no more than a ripple. The Basque government has dispatched scientists and academics to find a solution.”

On the American side of the Atlantic Ocean we can also see the effects of these massive current changes in the reporting of the first deaths in history due to riptides in their New England Region, and as we can read as reported by the Boston Globe News Service in their article titled “Riptide claims two lives at beach” and which says;

“Two Massachusetts men drowned and a 10-year-old boy was taken to the hospital yesterday evening after a riptide pulled swimmers out to sea at Hampton Beach, according to hospital and emergency officials. Authorities said as many as 12 people were swept out about 6 p.m. The Hampton Fire Department responded with a 34-foot boat and the Coast Guard dispatched two 25-foot boats and a helicopter. ‘We’ve never had beach conditions like that before,’ said lifeguard captain James DeLuca. ‘They were swimming in a bad area after the lifeguards went off duty.’ Authorities said they couldn’t remember another case of a riptide drowning at the beach.”

The alterations of these Atlantic Ocean currents are also responsible for the devastation wrecked upon the New England Regions fishing industries due to their recent Red Tide disaster, and as we can read as reported by the Associated Press News Service in their article titled “Romney declares red tide a disaster for Massachusetts” and which says;

“Gov. Mitt Romney on Thursday declared a state of emergency because of the red tide bloom off the coast of Massachusetts, allowing the state to seek federal disaster aid for the shellfish industry. ‘I have declared a state of emergency, and am seeking disaster relief,’ he said. Red tide is the result of algae that contaminate shellfish and can be dangerous to humans who eat the shellfish. The heavy bloom this year was pushed by unusually strong north and northeast winds into Massachusetts Bay, where it thrived in warmer waters. The growth around Cape Cod and forced its way through the Cape Cod Canal for the first time. The bloom has closed down about two thirds of Massachusetts shell fishing flats, and is expected to persist through what is traditionally the peak shell fishing season leading to the July 4th holiday.”

...Not just to these changing Ocean Currents but also to the continuing massively building pressure being built up upon the North American Plate are Russian Scientists concerned about, even to the point where the internal stresses of this tectonic plate are building up such pressures that the Great Lakes of the United States are now heating up, and as we can read as reported by the American All Headline News Service in their article titled “Great Lakes Reach Mysterious Temperature High” and which says;

“Water temperatures in the lower Great Lakes are at a 5-year high, mysteriously measuring now where they

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

Foreign Nationals And Corporate Citizenship

Budget’s “Tip of the Week” #10:

Benefits for Foreign Nationals

As a foreign national citizen, when you set up a Nevada corporation you are establishing an entity resident in the United States, with all of the benefits that accrue to that status. And no, you do not ever have to set foot in the country to do this. You can even set up a virtual office presence, with a telephone answered in the name of the corporation to present a different face to the new global community!

A Nevada corporation can provide services for a business in a foreign jurisdiction and receive its income in Nevada, where is taxed at the federal rate of just 15% on the first $50,000 of net income. In some cases, that advantage alone is sufficient reason to take this step IMMEDIATELY. In the long run, however, you will find that Nevada’s “haven” status will serve you in many other ways as well.

Coming to America

The United States Immigration Service has in recent years relaxed requirements for many high-tech workers, in recognition of the global demand for skilled workers in this field. H1-B visa status—which applies to entertainers, athletes and those who otherwise possess unique skills—is easier to obtain now than at any time in the past. Wouldn’t it be nice if an American company needed you badly enough that it would help you to qualify for an H1-B visa? You just might have a LOT to offer this country!

H1-B visa quotas are often filled quickly but there is another type of visa that might be of interest to any foreign national working in a management capacity. An executive or manager of a foreign corporation affiliated with a U.S. corporation can qualify for an L visa, if the following requirements are fulfilled:

- 1. The foreign corporation must be affiliated with the American (Nevada) corporation and should have assets in excess of $500,000.
- 2. Document that you are in fact an executive or manager of a foreign corporation affiliated with the U.S. corporation.
- 2. Document that the U.S. corporate affiliate is in need of someone with your skills and abilities. (An advertisement demanding a special combination of skills and abilities that just happen to match your own will help a lot.)
- 3. Document your skills and abilities relative to the U.S. corporation’s needs.

In addition to the L-type visa, foreign nationals may be able to avail themselves of E-type visas, which typically involve investment in U.S. businesses. We suggest you consult with an immigration attorney.
