RE: IGNORANCE IS NOT BLISS!—SOLTEC/d

IMPORTANT WATCH-LIST (GEOPHYSICAL)

SOLTEC—I realize that with me asking for hearing, I frighten a lot of readers so I will make an effort to be as low-key as possible without hitting you with a two-by-four as your attention alert apparatus often requires. I have asked for just a bit of space and attention time because I am a Geophysical student (professor) experiencing with you that I might make timely observations and ask you to pay attention as things outside your control “happen” TO you and your orbiting system.

Just as I can tell EJ that he is going to regret piling the family stack of papers any higher or they will tip in the breeze and cause considerable mess and inconvenience, so too can I point out that if YOU don't pay attention, get safety supplies handy you are going to have some problems around your globe.

ANNUAL CYCLE

Surely it is not “just ignorance” that causes you such distraction as to cause you to totally ignore the fact that just as you have daily cycles you also have annual cycles which impact you as you spin through space in your ever-changing orbit. These orbit trajectories may well be as perturbations of slight realization but they are massive from a Cosmic viewpoint. You are now into the phenomenon called “photon belt” and it is time you protect yourselves with a bit more information as you experience ever increasing “Cosmic” blasts of both light and MAGNETIC FLUX.

We experience many asking if it is time to pack and run to the Philippines. I certainly hope not for what you need NOW is to attend selves where you are in as good stability as is possible and allow us to do our work. When we speak of “Equatorial advantage”, we do not even begin to state: SECURITY OR PROMISE OF PHYSICAL SAFETY. Moreover, the equatorial sectors around the globe are tremendously

LARGE in size and are truly more secure elsewhere than in Southeast Asian areas. The Philippines is where ECONOMIC change is best focused and attainable for major shifts in living potential

The facts are that many things are in flux as changing pressures in every energy field recognized by MAN are brought into active and often chaotic play. Your planetary MAGNETIC pole IS IN SHIFT. It cannot sustain all systems in stable “non” movement so everything manifest will also be shifting to some degree. This is why we point out that the equatorial belt is remaining the most stable. However, it is noted that some of the most immediate upheavals of tectonic plate (often called Tutoic or Teutonic plates) are equatorial. More accurately we use various terms to describe scientific measurements as to whether the shifts are quantitative (whole shifts) or individual plate slippage or surges. When you have BOTH or “all” moving and have additional individual shifts you have misery, friends.

For a very long time during prior “shifts” of such massively global scale there was ability to contain movement by magnetic stabilization. That massive magnetic stabilizer mechanism is changed but it is felt that in the magnetic shifting there can be accomplished enough stabilization in the mid-equatorial geographic location to prevent a total axis shift at the same time. We might be able, as well, to influence trajectory thrust on “incoming” asteroids or energy cells that can, with your weak magnetic pole flux, knock you to kingdom-come (in terms you might understand).

Some of the games are man-made and intentional thrusts; some are resulting from prior stupidly innovative MAN-precipitated cyclic changes—“as the world turns”, and some are a phenomenon of sun activity in counter to a cooling moon as “Man in the----”.

Don’t say, please, that nobody told you about these things for WE TOLD YOU ALL ABOUT THESE THINGS AND GOT BROUGHT DOWN TO EARTH AND BURIED IN RIDICULE. We suggested you do something as simple as getting some emergency DARK glasses, even suggesting welder’s goggles, for when abrupt change comes you will have BLINDING “time” where the light will literally blind you and that can last up to or beyond, easily and probably, three full days. Those were the things we warned you to have available: some Mylar or blackout covers for windows and just stick it up with “duct” tape. The LIGHT will be so intense as to BURN the eyes and actually penetrate WALLS. The immediate BURST needs special adjustment and immediate protection by falling flat with eyes DOWNWARD until the initial surge passes. You WILL know and then get immediately into shelter mode.

The best action is to get your temporary protection and go for inside “survival” rooms without windows and preferably to UNDERGROUND protection. We went through all THESE exercises and then the very team let the protection be taken from you or totally become useless. Some didn’t want to survive WITH other individuals they didn’t “care for”. Others didn’t want to smell the underground “smell”. Most just wanted to be titillated for a minute, kibitz on source information and, finally, not to bother. Very well, to each his own. I certainly, however, suggest you dig out the old JOURNALS speaking on these matters and study up—sometimes survival is only some ten feet from total disaster.

The photon belt is a phenomenon that comes around to some extent with every magnetic pole shift as photons penetrate so incredibly intensely. Fortunately for living “matter” it is not the same as “radiation” as in “X-ray” or radioactive material—unless that material is triggered as well. The intensity of this photon strike will be felt less intensely in the geographic locations around the equatorial belt. Physics explains that phenomenon by centrifugal action or gyroscopic stability. However, the scalar wave activity is basically unaffected.

I do not intend to repeat the lessons so tediously given before but I ask that you please run in the paper with a special attention notice following this very writing, the most recently received paper on Cosmic Explosions and other related attention grabbers <whatdoesitmean.com/index864.htm>.

Now readers and friends, if you are NOT feeling just a twinge of PANIC then you are too dead to care one way or another for WHAT YOU DO is up to you—entirely.

I note that our own readers freeze up and some would complain about taking space and time addressing such as a VK Durham. Well, you sleep on, for in THAT ignorance you really shackle self for if you cannot perceive and discern potential priorities of presentation of TRUTH and confront the adversary’s LIES then you err magnificently and totally.

You as a global society are looking directly into the oncoming face of probably global war, Pandemics, Economic Collapse and Violent Earth Cataclysms that

WILL COME FOR THE PATH IS DIRECTLY BLOCKED AHEAD, TRAVELER.

I am not going to ask that we distract THIS team to search out those Journals addressing these topics but it would certainly behoove SOMEONE to do so and LIST THEM IN THIS PAPER. GET SOME EXTRA COPIES, APPEND THIS WRITING AND THE ATTACHMENT THERETO AND HAND THEM OUT AND MOST ESPECIALLY TO ANYONE ABOUT WHOM YOU CARE. Thank you for your attention and may you take enough “care” to live another day for we can change things IF WE WANT TO DO SO!

In discussions regarding the continuation of the VKD lies and hits against our primary team struggling daily in these particular trenches we suggest that you run the more recent focused material from the internet scatter, add a few more “thoughts” to the picture and run it again in living COLOR. You don’t seem to understand the circumstance, readers. YOU DO NOT PLAY GAMES WITH SATAN!

I suggest you stop arguing over Christmas trees and candleholders while you get people informed about the very physical enemy overrunning you in every physical way possible. What you do is your business; informing you is our business!

Mechanics of a Pole Shift

As Commander Soltec pointed out in the preceding writing, we should pay some attention to the annual cycle. Based on the events which transpired the last TWO years at this time of year (Bam, Iran in 2003 and the tsunami in 2004), this is a good time of year to make this reminder.

As we shall see in the following information presented by Sorch Faal and the team at <WhatDoesItMean.com>, there is an inter-relationship between the heating caused by increased photonic activity and slippage of both the tectonic (teutonic) plates and the magnetic poles. And yes, this has everything to do with the Phoenix which rises from the ashes.

MASSIVE COSMIC EXPLOSION HITS
ANTARCTICA AS WEATHER CHAOS
ENVELOPES ENTIRE NORTHERN HEMISPHERE AND UNITED STATES WARNS
ALLIES TO ‘PREPARE FOR WAR’

By Sorch Faal, WhatDoesItMean.com, 12/20/05

Russian Scientists from Antarctica are reporting that the Southern Hemispheric Regions have been ‘hit’ by a Massive Cosmic Explosion that dwarfs in scale the same event that occurred last year, and of which [last year’s event] [we] can read as reported by the United States Space Agency NASA in their February 18th report titled “Cosmic Explosion Among the Brightest in Recorded History” and which says:

“Scientists have detected a flash of light from across the Galaxy so powerful that it bounced off the Moon and lit up the Earth’s upper atmosphere. The flash was brighter than anything ever detected from beyond our Solar System and lasted over a tenth of a second. NASA and European satellites and many radio telescopes detected the flash and its aftermath on December 27, 2004.”

Of the greatest concern to Scientists regarding these current Massive Blasts hitting our Southern Hemispheric Regions are how they are almost exactly mirroring those events of last year, at this same time [Note Soltec’s reference to the annual cycle, a very important timing clue], and ... which some of these reports state is due to an ‘Anomalous Feature’ in our Solar System that has now entered into the regions outside of the orbit of Neptune, and ... of these Massive Blasts we had previously reported upon in our December 22, 2004 report titled “Unknown Energy Surges Continue to Hit Planet, Global Weather Systems in Chaos”, and wherein we had stated:

“An increasingly panicked global effort is now underway by the world’s top scientists to understand an unprecedented series of ‘blasts’, energy surges, which the planet has been taking from an as yet unknown source which has been bombarding Antarctica with cosmic rays and disrupting Northern Hemisphere weather systems on a global scale.

“The first of these cosmic ray blasts occurred nearly 5 years ago and have been increasing in their frequency and intensity since the end of November. The once normally darkened skies of the Northern Hemispheres Arctic regions are now in twilight due to these blasts. Wayne Davidson, from the Canadian Government’s weather station at Resolute Bay, located in the Arctic Circle, says about this mysterious lighting, ‘The entire horizon is raised like magic, like the hand of God is bringing it up.’

“On December 1, 2004 the largest recorded blast sent not only shockwaves through the world scientific community but also through the Northern Hemisphere resulting in one of the largest weather events in recorded human history when 86,800 square miles of China was shrouded in fog, bringing transportation systems (especially air travel) to a virtual standstill throughout the country.”

For this year however the weather chaos and dense fog associated with these Massive Cosmic Blasts are now centered upon the Northern parts of India, and as we can read as reported by India’s Hindustan News Service in their article titled “Cold wave, fog continue to sweep north India”, and which says: “Intense cold wave conditions continued in Punjab, Haryana and Chandigarh on Sunday even as the most parts of the region were engulfed under a blanket of fog that reduced visibility and affected movement of road and rail traffic. The minimum temperature hovered between two to four degrees below normal in most parts of the region, the MET office said.”

Not just to India either has the Weather Chaos created by these blasts affected, but also to the nation of Japan, and as we can read as reported by Japan’s Asahi Shimbun News Service in their article titled “Record lows, snow as cold snap persists” and which says: “The cold spell that gripped the nation over the weekend continued to dump heavy snow in mountainous regions Monday and brought Nagoya its heaviest fall in 58 years, the Japan Meteorological Agency said.”

In the North American Region these blasts have also had the same effects, and to the point where they are now experiencing their coldest December in a century, and as we can read as reported by the United States World Net Daily News Service in their article titled “Coldest December since late 1800s?” and which says:

“A weather expert says December 2005 is on pace to become one of the 10 coldest in more than 100 years, despite claims at a global conference on climate change this week that the Earth is getting warmer. Joe Bastardi, senior meteorologist with Accuweather.com, says present weather patterns across the country show below-normal temperatures in the single digits, with still colder air forecast in the coming weeks.”

To the connections between these Massive Cosmic Blasts in our Southern Hemispheric Regions, followed by Weather Chaos in the Northern Hemispheric Regions, and then to be followed by catastrophic Sub-Continent Teutonic Plate fractures, have been fully understood by many Eastern Scientists, including Thailand’s Dr. Dharmasaroja, and who even having warned of last year’s Catastrophic Earthquake and Tsunami is yet again being ignored by Western Scientists, and as we can read as reported by the Channel News Asia News Service in their article titled “Not all geologists agree with tsunami prophet’s warning for Singapore”, and which says:

“In recent interviews, Thai tsunami prophet Smith Dharmasaroja said the epicentre of the next earthquake in the region could move further north from last year’s temblors, which puts Malaysia and Singapore at risk of being hit by killer waves. Since predicting correctly the December 26 tsunami last year, Dr Dharmasaroja, who was then labelled a ‘madman’ and ‘rumour-monger’, has been taken seriously by many who do not wish to see a repeat of the disaster that killed 290,000. Two days ago, Dr Dharmasaroja—now a vice-minister in the Office of the Prime Minister of Thailand—told TODAY that, based on his studies, an earthquake with its heart slightly north of last year’s epicentre could ‘send waves surging through the Straits of Malacca, which could smash into Malaysia and Singapore’.”

Even to the warnings of pending catastrophic events that our Earth’s animals give to us we are also seeing today in the Southern Hemispheric Regions, and as we can read as reported by New Zealand’s News Service in their article titled “Frantic efforts to save whales” and which says, “Hundreds of Farewell Spit residents and tourists have joined conservation workers in a frantic battle to help 123 stranded whales, and more rescue attempts are planned today. The pod of pilot whales began beaching themselves at Puponga at midday yesterday and by last night were strewn the length of the beach, at the top of the South Island, the Conservation Department’s Golden Bay area manager, John Mason, said.”

To the chaos currently reigning in our Solar System we can also read as reported by the United States USA Today’s News Service in their article titled “The solar system gets crazier” and which says, “A swath of space beyond Neptune is getting stranger all the time as astronomers find an ever-more diverse array of objects in various orbits and groupings.

“A pair of discoveries this month along with a handful of others in 2005 have begun to reveal what some astronomers long suspected: The outer solar system contains a dizzying array of round worlds on countless odd trajectories around the sun, often with multiple satellite systems. The problem is, current theories of the solar system’s formation and evolution can’t account for it all.”

The Western peoples’ continued reliance upon their ‘current’ Darwinian based theories leaving them ‘unknowing’ about the events occurring in our Solar System is also what precludes them from the knowing of what all Earth’s people’s religion, history, legends and myths knew about these current times, and likewise ignorant about the warnings of these things passed down to us.

But to the catastrophic events to come even their top Scientists can no longer ignore, and as we can read as reported by the PhysOrg.Com News Service in their article titled “Discovery of a new physical example, a material made of very small compasses, all of which have the north pole facing upwards) and we apply a magnetic field in the opposite direction the compass poles should turn slowly until, eventually, they are all aligned downwards.

If we fire acoustic microwaves [or photons] at the material to heat it up, then in a certain part of the material the heat will be sufficient to cause the compass poles to reverse in this area. This part of the material then heats the surrounding areas enough to produce the same reaction and the poles of other compasses are reversed; this propagation continues until all the spins are aligned downwards (the opposite of their initial orientation). The reversal of the poles is produced by the tunnelling effect of the magnetic moment, which is a quantum effect.

The researchers have discovered that the propagation speed at which the compass poles are reversed follows a law determined by quantum mechanics. In other words, and contrary to expectations, it is a macroscopic effect governed by a quantum law.

To the validity of these Western Scientists’ discovery of the effects of heat upon our Earth’s electro-magnetic field, and then its changing of poles, we can see evidenced in these two reports:

As reported by Britain’s Independent News Service in their article titled “World is at its hottest since prehistory, say scientists”, and which says, “The world is now hotter than at any stage since prehistoric times, a top climatologist announced last week. His startling conclusion comes as NASA reported that 2005 has been the hottest year ever recorded. Dr. Michael Coughlan, head of the National Climate Centre at the Australian Government’s Bureau of Meteorology, said: ‘One probably has to go back into prehistoric times—and way back in them—to be seeing these sorts of temperatures.’”

As reported by the EarthTimes.Org News Service in their article titled “North Magnetic Pole to migrate from Alaska to Europe: study” and which says, “Here’s one reason why you will no longer trust your faithful compass to always point to the north.

“The earth’s north magnetic pole is moving; and at such a rate that in the next 50 years it could shift from Alaska to Siberia, recent study has revealed. A team of scientists led by paleomagnetist Joseph Stoner said they found the Earth’s magnetic pole had moved nearly 1,100 km during the last century. From northern Canada, it was now at a point in the Arctic Ocean and would proceed towards Siberia over the next fifty years.”

What remains of the greatest concern to the World’s Governments about these events are their being able to keep the truth from their citizens as well as positioning themselves for what they term a ‘Post Apocalyptic World’, and to which the United States Empire is accelerating their plans for the conquest of the entire Middle Eastern Nations oil supplies by the introduction of Total War ... [We have chosen to redact a reference here to Porter Goss’ visit to Turkey in the ramping up of plans for war against Iran.] phenomenon governed by a quantum law” and which says,

A team of researchers has just discovered a new macroscopic physical phenomenon governed by a quantum law: quantum magnetic deflagration. The discovery, published in November in the American journal Physical Review Letters, was made by a team led by Javier Tejada, Professor of Fundamental Physics at the UB, and Paul Santos, a researcher at the Paul Drude Institute in Berlin.

Javier Tejada says that “to understand the idea a parallel could be drawn between chemical combustion and what we know as magnetic combustion. Combustion involves a reaction between a substance (the fuel) and a gas (the oxidizer), and a great amount of heat is released. In a complete combustion reaction the components of the material interact with the oxidizer to yield new components (burnt fuel). Deflagration is a combustion process produced by thermal conductivity and is propagated more slowly than the speed of sound. The simplest example is that of a piece of paper heated with a lighter at one end: one layer of paper burns and heats up the next layer until the whole piece of paper is burnt. That which is propagated and burnt is the flame, while what remains are the ashes.” [Ah yes, and could these be the very ashes from which the Phoenix arises? Read on, please, as the discussion moves to magnetic material and pole shifts.]

What, however, happens with a magnetic material? If we have a magnetic material with all the poles aligned in the same direction (for

To all of these events, the American people, and who are about to be the most effected by catastrophe, remain the least informed, with the exception of those who are the close friends of their President and are Billionaires, and as we can read as reported by the Fortune Magazine News service in their article titled “The Rainwater Prophecy”, and which says:

“Richard Rainwater made billions by knowing how to profit from a crisis. Now he foresees the biggest one yet. Richard Rainwater doesn’t want to sound like a kook. But he’s about as worried as a happily married guy with more than $2 billion and a home in Pebble Beach can get. Americans are ‘in the kind of trouble people shouldn’t find themselves in’, he says. He’s just wary about being the one to sound the alarm.

“Rainwater is no crackpot. But you don’t get to be a multibillionaire investor—one who’s more than doubled his net worth in a decade—through incremental gains on little stock trades. You have to push way past conventional thinking, test the boundaries of chaos, see events in a bigger context. You have to look at all the scenarios, from “A to friggin’ Z”, as he says, and not be afraid to focus on Z.

“Only when you’ve vacuumed up as much information as possible and you know the world is at a major inflection point do you put a hell of a lot of money behind your conviction. The next blowup, however, looms so large that it scares and confuses him.

... “‘We’ve got a lot of things going on simultaneously,’ he says. ‘The world as we know it is unwinding with respect to Social Security, pensions, Medicare. We’re going to have dramatically increased taxes in the U.S. I believe we’re going into a world where there’s going to be more hostility. More people are going to be asking, ‘Why did God do this to us?’ Whatever God they worship.

“‘Alfred Sloan said it a long time ago at General Motors, that we’re giving these things during good times. What happens in bad times? We’re going to have to take them back, and then ‘everybody will riot.’ And he’s right.”

“Back on the farm that night, he and Moore discuss future projects with their landscaper, Jenks Farmer, over a glass of wine. Farmer, who has a master’s in horticulture and lives on the property, maintains Moore’s extensive gardens, including vegetable beds that produce all year round. That morning Rainwater had been surfing the web, researching greenhouses in his quest to further ensure a steady flow of food through the winter. At his prodding, Moore has installed an emergency generator and 500-gallon storage tanks for diesel fuel and water. When Rainwater says that he’s thinking about opening a for-profit survivability center, it’s not entirely clear that he’s joking.

“Later in the night Rainwater returns to musing on how different his lot is from the residents of Lake City. And then, returning to the debate in his head, he gets a serious look on his face and says: ‘This is going to get a little religious. I ask why I was blessed with this insightfulness. Everyone who has achieved something, scientists, ballplayers, thinks they were given their talent for a reason. Why me? Was I given this insightfulness at this particular time? Or was I just given this insightfulness?’ He pauses. ‘I just want people to look out. ‘Cause it could be bad.’”

As we have seen evidenced, so many times over these past years, the people of the United States, and who were once a Nation of people who not only listened to warnings given them, but also prepared, are today but a shell of their ancestors.

The catastrophic events of Total Global War, Pandemic, Economic Collapse and Violent Earth Cataclysms are around the very next ‘corner’ they are about to turn, and they see it not.

RE: UFOs, ALIENS, ENCOUNTERS OF THE INTERESTING KIND AND “WHERE HAVE YOU BEEN?”—GCH/d

COME FLY WITH ME—
SAID THE EAGLE TO THE STONE.
HOW? I AM BUT A ROCK WITHOUT WINGS.
TAKE MY HAND AND I’LL TAKE YOU THERE---

Since the shan has been now fitted we will turn some attention to wondrous thoughts of purpose, heritage, longing and REALITY.

We of the cosmos ARE! You manifest physical beings ARE! Can the twain meet and find joy and even a bit of peace in the valley? Do YOU think so poorly of GOD CREATOR that you believe in such total limitation as to assure yourselves that there is no possibility of life, INTELLIGENT LIFE, OUT THERE SOMEWHERE? The answer is closer than you could imagine, obviously.

You are confronted with good guys and bad guys and every day you see the very PROOF of integrated teachers and PERFORMERS.

Mostly the myths are but nonsense but where you will find the one, of creation, you WILL FIND THE OTHER.

Just as with GOD OF LIGHT there is a multitude of “gods” of every other type abounding, controlling and working in the form of manifest entities taking instructions from “off-shore” directors. And no, NONE OF THEM ARE INSECTS unless they are instructing the instincts of insects to function in a world of evolution and natural selection. Mostly, they don’t need instructors even to teach them to eat YOU. A mosquito is a good example—it requires nothing more than warm blood and sometimes it doesn’t even require “warm” blood.

Is it all as simplistic as “good” vs. “evil”? NO, but it suffices in description better than you might guess because “illusion” is but the thought PROJECTION of PERCEPTION of mind—ANY MIND.

Ah but—you want flying objects, weird aliens and strange terrifying “things”. Hyper-BS, for YOU are the strange, amazingly blind and foolish “things” abounding about the wondrous globe on which you are LOCKED. You certainly “seem” “real”—but ARE YOU? Of course, for REALITY, like anything, has DEFINITION. For example: A DREAM is real although it may lack substance. However, within the dream there is total substance while never leaving the port of the mind.

I don’t want to address this more abundantly today because the questions are many and we have a whole new audience as information seeps through and is dispersed about the land of the living-dead.

The Philippines is far more interesting in the citizens’ belief in the REALITY of outside energies and parties of the “strange” kind. That, however, is simple “spirit mind”. We need to address the integration of those spirit minds within the walking “vehicles” or “housing” of physical mortals—even if they have no more substance than a vapor trail. Mind is EXTRA-TERRESTRIAL AND INVISIBLE. All you can SEE or FEEL is the energy or the reflected manifestation of some molecular substance reflecting LIGHT. You cannot see WIND but you can both feel it and see the particles pushed about by the unseen entity.

Before we go further, however, KNOW that the tampering of genetic alterations and even “possibilities” of hybrid beings is an offshoot of MORTAL HUMAN ACTIVITIES. This does NOT mean, readers, that the “mortal beings” have to be from Planet Earth, but MUST BE FROM SOME PLANET WITH CAPABILITY OF GETTING FROM THEIR PLACE TO YOURS. That is a super-INTELLIGENCE that overcomes or works with the cosmic universal elements.

I have no wish to spoil good tales or ruin your fun and games by those who “channel”, “receive” or play at psychic games. If you can “conjure it”, it IS! But neither am I going to bash any person pouring forth whatever they envision. THAT IS YOUR PREROGATIVE TO DISCERN AND SORT. MY RESPONSIBILITY IS AND “WAS” TO HAVE GIVEN YOU INFORMATION WHEREBY “YOU” CAN DISCERN FOR YOU MUST “NEVER-MIND” ME OR MINE AS THAT IS YOUR CHOICE.

Does God present as a visible “person”? NO, HE PRESENTS THROUGH THAT WHICH YOU CAN UNDERSTAND AND IT IS IN “MIND” THAT THE POTENTIAL AND REALITY PRESENTS.

Satan is exactly the same process. Satan doesn’t run about as “a person” in a red or black suit with physical characteristics for this is the shrewd and cunning “trickster” who tempts, frightens and manipulates you through his best-recognized tool—EGO.

This mind entity is the adversary of “goodness” as expressed in simply used language and you who catch the “infection” must suffer the “disease” process until you CHOOSE to heal yourself and cure the very “cause” of the attackers.

I do NOT plan on debating this issue for there are plenty of would-be experts on the topic already manipulating you like chaff in the wind.

I have stated that I, Hatonn, “am real”. And THAT, friends, is more than you can imagine. I am KNOWN and when I say that someone has to get THROUGH ME to get to my “scribe”—KNOW IT. Nothing will be dumped on you or forced down your gullet like a pelican. DO WHAT YOU WILL BUT AT SOME POINT ALONG HERE YOU ARE GOING TO FACE THE TRUTH, IF YOU ARE MY FRIEND, FOR WE HAVE A FULLY OUTLINED “MISSION” AND WE ARE ACCOMPLISHING THAT MISSION. My people do not even have to attend or note the adversaries or gamesmen. HOWEVER, we do take note, we confront the lies and we share everything we are and do—WITHIN ALL LAWS PRONOUNCED BY GOD AND/OR MAN IN ANY LOCATION WE FUNCTION. We each have a VOICE and this is MINE and it is OUR position and the printed words are our voice as well, into easy to understand language and projected movement. CAN I PROJECT MY “PERSON”? INDEED YES, AND DO FREQUENTLY WHEN APPROPRIATE. This is often the very interesting realization precipitated by a perception that “somehow” we work in “cahoots” with high-level manipulators, controllers and hackers. NO, WE DO NOT WORK “WITH” THEM EXCEPT IN THE FORM OF AGREEMENTS AND SECURITY.

We do not go about creating anything from “whole cloth” for our agreements are to work within what is already available, merge it where necessary and give it life and purpose in potential for mankind. It is truly a good job if you can get it!

The good part is that the job is extremely challenging and interesting while the negative part is knowing that every negative being, even ones you thought closer than brothers, will turn on you at the drop of a whim. SO, WE MOVE ALONG, TELL THE TRUTH, MAKE IT WORK AND YOU CHOOSE UP WHATEVER IT IS YOU WISH TO THINK.

I met many, many times with the now infamous Russell Herman. I MET WITH THE MORE INFAMOUS BUSH AND COLLEAGUES.

Our agreements are that we will not FORCE anything for FORCE IS NOT OF GOD, readers, and you had best get really into KNOWING about that FACT. Ultimately the desire for achievement of better conclusions will turn in our direction—it only takes ONE.

Waiting around on hilltops awaiting pick-up will serve you badly—every time. It will not happen!

Do I object greatly to “ascension”, “rapture” and “nasty experimenters”? No, because you can experience anything your mind chooses to “create” and in any shape or form you wish. You are bored and self-centered on your own expression and experience so that you reach out only to that which is fun and comfortable TO YOU. Why struggle with “good vs. evil” when you are luxuriously comfortable? Ah indeed, yes; comfortable!

The fact that your entire species is dying would seem notable but apparently is not beyond the moment of blame someone ELSE for whatever plight or new virus drifts your way on the tips of vaccination needles or from created varmints of the killer variety. First you work diligently to make sure YOU HAVE NO FOOD SUPPLY and whammo, what a pleasant “ascension” comes at the end of a slow death from starvation or living in the muck of poverty.

By the way, Satan’s hierarchy laughs all the way to, first the bank (theirs) and then the grave—also “theirs” (you will only rent it).

I like to focus attention on Pleiades as to constellations you might recognize but you can focus on anything you wish. Pleiades is basically a constellation of your own species and there has been contact with you from creation of your little planet.

I personally am recognized as being “Atonian” or “Atenian” depending on who is writing, of the “Attas”, (Attanese). I personally am “Aton”, WHICH IS PRONOUNCED, “Hatonn” (hATONn), [The One Light].). That seems simple enough to pass on by it for now. We have written so many pages for so many hours that it is up to YOU to refresh your own memories. I can recommend a couple of dozen Journals to give you full information. I will also spare my scribe that repeat. However, it is time to refresh you on a few interesting happenings along our journey to here.

I would like to share with you some writings making, again, the rounds of titillation and interest in the subject matter of UFOs and aliens. I find it fun that we make crop circles, they make crop circles and YOU make crop circles and the game is which is which and how is one so complicated as to be obviously advanced of your information and capabilities. These are the more fun games of interchange except for the farmers whose crops are ruined. I do NOT do that for there are far better places to play games than in damaging someone in the process. I can, though, enjoy the speculation and puzzlement of such communication art form.

There are two examples of “stuff” now eagerly being taken off Internet sites and some are far more credible than others so I think these are the ones I would share first and you can then research our early writings through this source for continuity of years of presentations.

Yes indeed, I DO come in what you can call whatever “coming” you wish to number from “second” to “One thousand and second”. It matters not a whit or tittle.

We are here to help level the incredibly warped “playing field” and hopefully that is in time to allow YOU to begin reversing your rush to destruction. You must have the things of “life” that offer “living” and there is no substitute except through your own change of “housing” and function. You must have water and you must have AIR with oxygen content. So be it for there is NO argument on the matter.

How do you know I am credible? YOU DON’T! But I remind you that it is NOT “ours” to prove anything TO YOU but it is long past time to prove something of self to GOD. The mouth LIES as easily, and far more often, than it speaks truth—so it is upon “action” and “doing” that Truth is judged. It has ever been thus and so it remains.

You will notice that in one of the writings we share there is reference to Bill Cooper and John Lear. I don’t need to give further reference for you can look up both in our own past Journals. But as a reminder to you with Alzheimer’s-type memories I will share a couple of very credible early-on contact realities with just these two.

It has to involve George Green who was the manipulator of our information early, early on in the late 1980s. I don’t need to further note this person at this time for this story except to name him—an early acquaintance of Billy Meier of Truthful CONTACT with Pleiadians in Switzerland and Germany and whose pictures are still the most shown depictions, good or bad versions, around. As they strayed from the correct focus and branched out into “fiction” we simply removed ourselves. That is also for another story on a rainy night by a fireplace.

As we started to write it was George Green who took up the publishing of both journals and paper after the first couple of really good books were published.

Bill Cooper with exaggerated title (in the article here used) first declared our 200-plus page journal was a direct copy of his 22-page manuscript. Now that is interesting math. The others of the underground players like John Lear, also mentioned in the writing, were quite stunned and pronounced, at that time, that I (we) was the real “turkey”.

Why? Because he and his buddies had some very startling encounters and more especially in the Area 51 and sites of other contacts. They didn’t know what to do about labeling these entities and “captured” “one”. He was EBE. Ah but, not to stop there it was announced that heading up the “crew” was His Royal Highness Krill.

I immediately wrote that there COULD BE NO SUCH PARTY. In language of recognition we bear very simple titles indicating our “chain of command” if we could even call it that. WE HAVE NO ROYALTY. NONE! THERE, THEREFORE, COULD BE NO HRH KRILL. I announced it to be fabrication of a rather real adventure.

Immediately came a call to GG with shock and awe as he was with the other “authors” who fabricated “Krill”.

And yes, I personally met with George Herbert Walker Bush, Sr. at Camp David and offered him a pleasing way “out” of his dilemma at the time. I also kept contact by letter and postings with him and his family-tree twiglets. BUT INDEED, WE NEEDED BUSH AND WE NEEDED HERMAN AND WE BLESS THEM BOTH. I do not JUDGE a man, only his works, his intentions and actions.

These high-level manipulators and controllers had every opportunity to do RIGHT and RIGHTEOUS things but chose, as is usually the way of it, the dark trail of assumed POWER and FORCE through manipulation and power PROTOCOLS. It is fine for each person, mind and action ultimately serves goodness if we continue our constant stand demanding same. It takes a long time to have some BIG reality flow from that which the Hierarchy of Power in Human Greediness wishes to bury. These children at play, however, always bend the rules of decency and make wars and terror upon all they touch in order to achieve their goals. So be it. We have patience and learn from their foolishness. If you understand this concept then you have no problem at all with consideration of OUR POSITION OR REALITY.

This program, for instance, is so incredibly BIG as to boggle minds who must decide reality or fraud, and more especially in a place of fundamental lies, cheating and confusion.

It most certainly makes for far more easily accepted discernment lessons and a bit of patience in order to accomplish a goal which can be sustained.

Our people come from the line of a perception of “Christ” which is also the “Son of Tonka” if you are Lakota Sioux. More possibly you recognize it as “Jesus” as some labeled “Son of God”. It doesn’t matter for it is of the very recognized segment recognized as Jesus/White Buffalo Woman/True Divine Mother. I can explain these entities as the sacred symbol and SIGN of the White Buffalo and Native American lore. Jesus is “the” one noted by the same group as the “White Buffalo Calf Woman” and the True Divine Mother is “OF THE EARTH” WHICH IS ALL SACRED AND ALL BEING as expressed in a mortal FORM. This did not confuse Thunderbirds or Thunder People other than as “visitors” to THE PEOPLE whom they considered SELVES to be—as well as also “human”. Human is but Higher Universal Man (Human).

Moreover, citizens, you must bring ORDER out of the massive inclusive global chaos you have brought to your living nightmares. GOD BRINGS ORDER AND THUS YOU HAVE A VERY ORDERLY COSMIC STRUCTURING WITHIN THE VERY UNIVERSAL LAWS OF PHYSICS WHERE ANY EXCEPTION IS THE ULTIMATE REALIZATION OF “SCIENTIFIC” LAW.

Technology on your orb has reached such a degree that there is full capability of total destruction to your “illusion” as you find it. This is called experienced recognition. YOU as an individual have no near imagining of the expanse of that manipulated technology. We do and that is simply the fact of the matter without games at play.

Do you “have to” believe in something or someone like “me”? Good grief no, but I do marvel at the need to denounce that which is so abundantly obvious in EVERY WAY.

You were TOLD there would be false prophets and you should be aware. However, you play to the con-scammer false players like children to the candy store. You bargain with that which CAN bring you nothing and THEN YOU BLAME GOD for your own idiotic foolishness.

Earth as you recognize it to be is YOUR SILLY PLAYGROUND—not mine—other than as I am meeting my command and assignment. I am certainly not going to twist you in knots or make a slave of you in some manner or another. Why would I bother to do that when I find a PERFECT world without the evils of mankind in my own expression and experience? Think about it, please, for it DOES make a very large difference to YOU.

I can't nor shall I work out YOUR experience for that is YOURS to bring to conclusion—I have my own, Dharma has her own, Oberli has HIS OWN. We are so pleased to share all we have and offer it freely—but YOU WILL MAKE YOUR WAY, YOUR CHOICES AND IF YOU CHOOSE, help us in our own physical way to accomplish this mission in the ACCEPTABLE human chain of events precipitated by the mortal expression. It is not up for grabs that God or his minions do anything more than provide “the way”, the light and the LIFE. You now have in physical expression THE way to move your economic life-flow in balanced realization of value, service and TRUTH. Use it if you will or destroy it as you choose but it certainly is NOT WORKING THE WAY YOU ARE GOING. My people, however, do not need give up their lives for your wishes and it shall not come to pass in that ridiculous matter [manner?].

If the Filipinos, for example, wish to regain their “ownership” of self and nation, THEY will do it while we can only provide backup and service. This does NOT lessen “us”; it gives us full realization of power over circumstances existing. In making a bottom-line to this writing: WHEN WERE YOU EVER BEFORE GIVEN THE VERY KEYS TO THE KINGDOM OF LIFE AND LIVING IN SUCH A WONDROUS EXPRESSION? THINK ABOUT IT AS YOU DENOUNCE ME OR MY FRIENDS.

And yes, VK, to get to my people to destroy or damage them greatly—you and others must first GET THROUGH ME! That is just the way it IS! Take your games and foolishness and do what you will for you are left with plenty of air and pretend nonsense to last many lifetimes. If VKD wishes to believe I am Doris, so be it for it is such a silly concept as to cause us to perceive you who accept that garbage as total fools in the land of chaos and what could actually be called: “Hell” as you have constructed it to be. Your game; your choice. I certainly prefer the alternative of unlimited potential of expression and experience. YOU CANNOT FIND FREEDOM IN THE WORLD YOU HAVE CREATED AND MANUFACTURED AS YOU HAVE WARPED IT TO BE.

THE POTENTIAL IS IMMEDIATE BUT THE REALITY OF LIFE AS YOU HAVE BROUGHT IT TO BE IS GOING TO BE REPRESENTED AS SLOW AND A CONTINUAL BATTLE AS YOU GROW UP THROUGH THE MUCK ABOUT YOU.

I will enjoy much, much more discussion on these matters, readers, for the time is at hand for you to actually recognize your brothers in an expression you can understand with your “sensing” selves of mortal form and “spacesuits” as presented. What a shame that you cannot be pleased with such gifts and ah indeed, that old EGO is “atcha” every time you experience a thought or moment in your perceived “time”. I do not have to deal with “time” constraints so “imminent” has a very long life-span in meaning. But I am here to now tell you that you have “USED UP” “IMMINENT”—and, meanwhile, the changes are upon you from Earth Changes to LIFE CHANGES. It IS “DECISION” TIME! Soon we will not have “time” for the stragglers for life IS and it can be no other way of MIND IN PERFECT COSMIC ORDER.

I believe that each of you who have helped us get to “here” will note by the daily reports of nothing more than the gold report and exchange, that we are GOING TO ACHIEVE our goals as established. We have to struggle with courts, laws, politicians, thieves and corrupted mass theft—but we have a way that, once accepted, we can use the very power of the facts established to MAKE IT WORK and you SHALL BE REPAID ABUNDANTLY. We have no empty or con-game proposals and we care not what any other reports otherwise. And yes indeed, I CAN WORK WITH MY WORST ENEMY THE MINUTE HE BECOMES MY FRIEND. Try it and find that you actually might like it. And then, friends, CAUSE THE ADVERSARIES TO PROVE THEMSELVES OUT OF THE BLUNDERING

LIES AND FRAUD! It is up to YOU for Evil IS and the LIARS ARE. They only make our way more tedious in the proving-up of our stand, our program and our holdings. GOD IS TRULY A QUITE IMPRESSIVE ADVERSARY TO THE GAMESMEN.

I am Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn in your service. The mission is worthy and we will “make it so”. Thank you and please enjoy. Your opinion is respected but it is a fact that right through the security files in Washington D.C.—even you can check-out my credentials.

GCH—“CEO-COO”. May the Force be with you!

ALIENS BEHIND THE SUPER POWERS AND SUPER ALLIANCES

By Amitakh Stanford

(Republished from the Nara Site March 18, 2005)

In Super Powers, Super Wars and Extermination I presented a sense of the imminent groupings around the two major Annunaki contenders for world domination. This posting will give a more in-depth explanation about the alliances of the alien groups and how they will impact on the lives of people.

There are many different Annunaki groups on Earth at this time, including, but not limited to, the Reptilians and their main competitors—known to me as Attas as “Pers-sires”—for whom I subsequently coined the name of “Vulturites” for many reasons that I will explain another time.

There are many smaller groups of aliens currently on the planet. Some have remained neutral, but the majority of them have joined with one of the two major alien powers. There are also many alien True-Light beings sprinkled around the world, but, on the energy level, they are not involved in the battle for world dominance.

To have a better understanding of what I will be discussing, it is important to remember that physical human bodies are like clothes that are worn by consciousnesses. Thus, the “clothes” can be worn by other consciousnesses at times, with or without the original consciousness’ consent. However, switching “clothes” is not a simple process and requires a lot of preparation.

On the energy level and on the physical level that can be observed, things are coming together in such a way that some will begin to see through the maze. This writing will hopefully give a little nudge to those who are ready for that insight.

The overall Annunaki plan is so far advanced that it is now unfolding with minor modifications here and there. The Rescuers of the Light (the Attas) are aware of the Annunaki plans. The Attas are closely observing the Annunaki groups from the sky and from the Earth, and are doing their best to protect the True-Light beings in various forms who remain on the planet. (Incidentally, many True-Light being consciousnesses have already been evacuated—many left in 1999. Although most of the Attas are located in Australia, they do move around the world as needed. Many of the Light Workers, the Tarra-ha-tikas, are located in the U.S.A., Europe, U.K., Canada, Australia and other countries.)

The Reptilians and the Vulturites have waited patiently throughout political, religious, economic, geographic, technological, arms build-ups and other wars for a long, long time. Events such as the Crusades, World War I and II, Middle East tension, the Cold War, the Vietnam War, and other events that occurred thousands of year ago and in the last century are all just markers as the two major groups posture for the upcoming battle for global domination. Both sides are now poised and gathering their forces for the final preparations. The battle will not be confined to shooting wars, which may not be as important as other forms of confrontations.

At this stage of events, things are working up towards the final alliances as planned. Countries are being influenced because of these two dominant alien forces within their populations. The governments of many nations will now begin to openly re-align in accordance with their alien allegiances. The heads of state and the important cabinet members of most nations are either programmed to align with one of the major alien groups, or are themselves alien consciousnesses of one of the groups wearing the “clothes” of humans. It is not so critical whether the key politicians are programmed humans or aliens—the alliances will occur.

In the past, when one of the alien groups gained control of a geo-political-religious situation, its power was not as dominant. There would be some rebellion from those under the influence of other groups. Today, those smaller groups of aliens are under much tighter control and many are being forced to take sides. Even the neutral ones are feeling intense pressure to align with one side or the other.

The Greys, who were originally one of the major groups of aliens on Earth, have now aligned themselves with the Reptilians. This is an important alien alliance.

The Masa-karas from Central Europe started moving to New Zealand and Australia some 10 years ago, and especially in the last five years; the Masa-karas have spread all over Australia and have aligned with the Reptilians.

For many reasons, one of the main control centers of the fight for world dominance will be operated from Australia. Soon, the highest concentration of alien consciousnesses in the world will be in New Zealand and Australia.

Since the recent alien alliances began, various countries have aligned themselves with the U.S.A., which is currently a Vulturite dominated state that was formerly a Reptilian dominated nation. As I stated in Super Powers, Super Wars and Extermination, the Reptilian consciousnesses in high positions have already “migrated” to China. At this time, many nations are changing political alliances. These changes could surprise many political observers who lack the esoteric understanding that the new alliances and allegiances being formed are based upon alien consciousnesses that are dominant in the various countries. On the political scene, there will be many changes of personnel in banking and other political fields due to alien alignments.

Several Arab states will align with the Vulturite-headed U.S.A., others will align with the Reptilians. This is going to cause severe conflict in Israel, which continues to be influenced by the Reptilians. A severe rift will form within Israel and between its main ally, the U.S.A. The new Arab/U.S.A. (Vulturite) alliance will be very strong despite the allies' religious differences (Christian/Muslim). Here is what I mentioned in Discourse #12 regarding the invasion of Iraq by U.S.A. forces:

. . . Here is my revelation from 31st March 2003:

Other countries are going to join in. Syria will be the first. The birthplace (country) of Jesus will tremble.

Internal rebellion will occur in the number one on the top (Vulturite side) which will eventually fall and will be humiliated and punished.

The road to Damascus will lead to many places.

Bloodshed everywhere will cover the whole earth, streaming far and long.

All heads will turn as they witness the horrific end of mankind.

Humanity in transit will not rest in peace.

The voice of Old will scream out and be heard for miles around.

Those who caused the grim will find no place to hide. They will cringe in fear and be breathless. Their hearts will fly out in fear and numbness. Their days of Old will catch up with them. They will cry but no tears will come, they will scream but none will hear them; they will cry for help and forgiveness but none will be given to them. The gnashing of teeth and the tearing out of their hair will signal the end of the bloodthirsty tribe of Aaron.

"Mountains" will turn over to crush the evil ones. The mountain of giants will advance in numbers never witnessed before and march towards "Golgotha" and together the wind of fate will gather strength and push eastwards, northwards, southwards and even to the west. The land of Zion will cry and then there will be no more. Hosanna in the highest all will shout but there will be none to hear or sing the song "Hosanna, Hosanna."

It should be remembered that Syria has long been considered to be strongly opposed to the U.S.A. The physical observers will believe Syria's turn towards the U.S.A. to be due to bribes/threats, etc. However, the reason for the shift towards the new Vulturite alliance is the commencement of the alignments of alien consciousnesses—Syria is the first to join in.

It will not matter what political stand a country took in the past; today the alliances will form regardless of religious, political, economic and other differences. The regimes can be totalitarian or democratic—it will make no difference. Since every country has a mixture of Reptilians and Vulturites in their populations, there will be unrest everywhere.

Taiwan will become one of the catalyst issues regarding the confrontation of the two sides. However, remember that the wars do not have to be shooting wars. They can take many forms of expression.

The United Kingdom is in flux right now, and while it will appear to follow the U.S.A. at first, eventually it will cool towards it after Tony Blair is no longer the Prime Minister. It is most likely that Britain's former master—the Reptilians—will re-gain political dominance in that country.

Russia will join China and form a formidable alliance of Reptilian forces. Brazil, Italy, Iran, India, Iceland, Indonesia, Malaysia, France, Korea, Germany, Mexico, the Netherlands and others, after internal turmoil, will eventually gravitate towards the Sino-Russian alliance.

Denmark, Australia, Jordan, Pakistan, Ukraine, Japan and most of the Asian countries, Spain, Canada and others will eventually gravitate towards the Vulturite power base in the U.S.A.

The recent, much publicized royal marriage between Crown Prince Frederick of Denmark and Mary Donaldson of Australia has caught the attention of many throughout the world. Their "chance" meeting in a Sydney pub is much more than a co-incidence. ...

On the physical level it appears that the people in Australia are dazzled by the fact that Mary is a "living, breathing Aussie-commoner-turned-princess"—it is still nearly every girl's dream and fantasy to follow in her footsteps. On the energy level, there is no co-incidence at all. The couple has been hand picked to play a significant role in the formation of the alliances between the common people and the governments.

It is also no co-incidence that Denmark owns Greenland, which is the main glacier in the Northern Hemisphere, and that Australia has enormous claims on the Antarctic continent. The ruling elite know that global warming will soon cause fresh water to become a precious commodity. Both Greenland and Antarctica will be among the last huge sources of fresh water on the planet as it heats up. Australia is geographically in a good position to defend Antarctica, while the U.S.A. and Canada are in good positions to defend Greenland. Fresh water will be a decisive issue in the near future, and the Vulturites are grabbing as much ice as they can. Who would have thought that common ice would become so critical? It is also no co-incidence that the Mary mania is so strong in Australia.

On the religious level, the frail Pope, John-Paul II, knows that there is great divisiveness within the Roman Catholic Church. He is also aware of the coming demise of the planet, but he has chosen not to disclose this information for fear of the panic it would cause. The weakening of the Church has become quite apparent in that various cardinals and other Church leaders have come out to support or oppose the 2003 book, The Da Vinci Code. This will make more sense to those who have the esoteric understanding that while the Church is predominantly influenced by Reptilian Annunaki, there are many Vulturite Annunaki within its ranks. Due to the Pope's frail condition, his leadership is being openly challenged by the Vulturite minority; now the Church has difficulty expressing with one voice.

The Pope is holding onto power because he is very concerned that the next pope will not be able to hold the Church together. In fact, the next pope will cause many problems and much chaos to the Catholic Church and the world.

To grasp the excitement surrounding The Da Vinci Code, one should understand that it is being sponsored by the Vulturites. Some of the Church members and leaders are also sponsored by the Vulturites, and will come forward to support the book even though the Pope is against it. The long-standing lies about Jesus and Mary Magdalene being an intimate couple are Vulturite false propaganda, which was incidentally started by Dark ones who had infiltrated Gnostic circles a long time ago. It should be noted that all religions are infiltrated by Dark beings, whether they are Reptilians, Vulturites or otherwise.

The Da Vinci Code is really a code, whether the author and publisher are consciously aware of it or not. It is a code to get certain sectors of the world's population, especially the Christians, to re-align. Leonardo da Vinci was originally a being of Light who later succumbed to Darkness. He was a casualty of the war of essences. [Oh, really?]

The gospels, including those recently discovered writings found in Qumran, and the Nag Hammadi Library were written by people who had no first-hand contact with Jesus, and they were written many years after the death of Jesus. All of these writings contain their own distortions due to misunderstandings, mistranslations, embellishments, or deliberate editings.

In fact, evil deliberately misled by assigning Mary Magdalene as one who was very close to Jesus and familiar with his teachings. Many writings were falsely attributed to her. Some of the writings claimed to be by Magdalene were actually written a long time after her death. Magdalene was incapable of writing on spiritual matters and did not write any of the Gnostic writings attributed to her. The story about Mary Magdalene being Jesus' favorite disciple, and the story about her witnessing Jesus' supposed physical resurrection in the garden where he was buried, were mere inventions by the writers and compilers of the gospels. In truth, Magdalene was a being of Darkness, a fact of which Jesus was well aware, and he was never fooled or trapped by her. Jesus and Mary Magdalene are diametrically opposed in essence. She is of Darkness. Jesus is of the Light.

The proponents for The Da Vinci Code are all trying to fracture the Church, which is currently a Reptilian stronghold. The irony is that many of the chief Vulturites in human bodies appear to be fundamentalist Christians, yet on the physical level, they are out to destroy the Church. If the Vulturites believed that they could acquire control over the Church, they would try to do so. However, they realize that the Reptilians have far too strong a hold on the Church to do so. Therefore, the Vulturites have resolved to destroy the Church by spreading anew the long-standing lies about Jesus and Magdalene with the "code" embedded in the malicious propaganda. The people who believe and/or spread the Jesus/Magdalene lies are either programmed by Darkness to do so, or are themselves Evil. As a cautionary reminder, not everyone defending Jesus in this regard is of the Light.

Jesus is an Attas of the Light who is presently heading the Rescue Mission by the Light. Jesus is a "walk-in" consciousness of the True Divine Mother. The True Divine Mother is also the "walk-in" consciousness of White Buffalo Woman, who visited a band of dedicated Kiowa Apaches about 2,000 years ago. Jesus/White Buffalo Woman/True Divine Mother as a complete being (incognito) is here on Earth leading the Rescue Mission.

Out of the chaos that is spreading across the globe will emerge a small group of True-Light beings from all walks of life, cultures and beliefs. Programmed knowledge aside, these True-Light beings have one important thing in common—they are faithful to the True Creator of Light. These have been chosen to play the role as "sound-emitters" under the guidance of the Rescuers. These people may or may not be consciously aware of their roles or identities. However, they will be "enrolled" on the energy level as the "Amaz-ta-has". The Amaz-ta-has will help to emit soothing, comforting signals to assist the viable beings as they prepare for their journey Home.

The time is close.

Jesus has retrieved the full Powers of "Excalibur" that were previously stolen by Darkness. The Rescue Mission is nearly completed.

Victory to the Light

HIGHRISE IN DISCOURAGEMENTVILLE—DJE

THINGS "HOTTING-UP"

I find it quite difficult to select small enough amounts of information overflow to keep you with ability to do "other things" as well as read observation updates. However, if we wait until the next paper, there is a lot of lag on some items that we could not have adequately shared by press.

I had not planned to make my regular "family" mail more public than our little "family" that never otherwise hears from us—but the input was accepted as sometimes more sharing than the regular writings and by somewhat sharing more "private or personal" items we could keep you team-mates a bit better informed without the embarrassment of everything said being opposite information by tomorrow's press runs.

Congress here is TRYING to go on holiday break and the Circus Maximus is in full chaos.

The lying, cheating, scamming and conning is in the highest circles of kickback and payback to the extent that the President GMA asks that it be dropped and just start afresh and just close ongoing investigations.

This, however, was interrupted by Transparency International's report that the Philippines is the second most corrupt country on the face of the Earth. Even our U.S. Chief Spy Director, Negroponte came, threw up his hands and went. And GOLLEEEE, didn't even call us on the VK matters. They did, however, close the Embassy for a few days while he was here and left us out of that one too! We have had, however, a few "new" callers who only took home GOOD reports from our side.

And indeed, VKD has pounded and pounded on us with her hype and fabricated tales from the crypt. Christmas? No—more like graveyard humor on Halloween. Color her eyes "brown".

One rather funny thing about VK is that she is on a tear about some insult to Christmas TREES and their somehow being lawfully excluded from certain places of which I could not decipher just "where" the exclusions are happening.

She also repeats our (Ekkers) so-called hatred of our country (the U.S.) AND Israel as in "United States of Israel" as printed and publicly obtained from Alan Dershowitz some "too many" years ago to even remember but somewhere circa early 1990s. It was noted and also so stated by him that the U.S. "IS" the new Jewish 'homeland'".

Now, with that in mind, it is somewhat more interesting to note that the "Jewish" label is not what is important as such but the Zionist commercial management of all things upon which we base our CULTURAL and TRADITIONAL, if Seasonal, activities and fun things.

The entire theme here this Season is commercial to a rather extensive and pretentious display in that the "traditional" window displays and major décor is now very commercial and 'Party' oriented. So be it for it sparkles and glitters and probably more fittingly suits the attitudes of buying and selling. BUT, here they outdid themselves in that things are so much worse here NOW that the businessmen are already crying and begging for someone to do something—people are just NOT buying. But, do you really believe the representative trees of temptation, Santa, and piles of gifts and packages are going to the dump-heap? ONLY "Christ" seems lost to the gibberish presented, even here in Roman Catholic "Christian" land of no opportunities.

All of the money remitted by the overseas workers is already going to fill in as RESERVES in the Central Bank/Government and therefore the families have lost their income from those families overseas as to supporting them.

Ham is the meat of choice here and there is so much ham piled up in every shape and form as to boggle the mind BUT it is so expensive that the general public can't buy it.

The major sugar-cane processing plant opened this week but not in time for Christmas! Then, to insult the injuries some dikes burst in many of the Provinces and have flooded out the major garden and rice fields with total loss of crops AND villages. This was just "rain" (monsoon TYPE but not monsoon season). THERE IS NO MONEY TO EVEN HELP THE "SURVIVORS". The relief people had less than 500 food packages of one day's ration (with no more backup) and a minimum of 175,000 IN SHELTERS.

Now it is "disease" time, mosquito injectors and it gets worse. There are tons of mosquito netting in the Philippines and now a demand like never before so what did the government do? Ah indeed, replace the local netting with IMPORTED netting at twice to four times the price. Moreover, trade restrictions don't allow the shipping or exporting of these "goods" to worse countries like Africa. Ah yes, may we all love those bankers and manipulators. If we can't find anything wrong other than with Christmas trees then I suggest we may as well just party-on.

We had a major businessperson come and has met with us several times now on land, Foundation business, etc. He said to EJ—"YOU have to come-out and be more visible!" EJ answered: "We have made ourselves visible and available to four presidents of the Republic of the Philippines: Aquino, Ramos, Estrada, and GMA. Would you like for us to be arrested and deported for supporting sedition? Our mission is to alleviate the poverty and hunger afflicting the people, not to solve the problems of governments. It is the responsibility of Filipinos to cause their elected public servants search out, study, and adopt programs that will solve their problems. It is unfortunate that the people have allowed certain politicians to cheat in the elections to remain in power and continue to plunder the nation. Even though those criminal acts delay the installation of our program, we have to leave it to them to solve the matter of leadership."

Some time ago VK stated that "it makes a good story but Herman had nothing to do in the Philippines or the Marcos ... " Now, in this latest fiction, she states, "Russell was the chief BANKER for the entire works of Contra, etc.," and named off MANY nations where he operated in that "Big Boy" capacity, including THE PHILIPPINES. Obviously more VK weaving; more VK deceiving. Moreover, the only thing really even remotely associated with VK Durham as a "widow" is that she apparently is one formidable "black widow" who ate her mate as well as all he represented. I DID NOT SAY "HUSBAND"—they were NEVER married—NEVER! Fabricating documents is CRIMINAL, not just simply a cute game as is name-calling.

IF there were "TIAS treaties" and VK claims we incorporated the MAJOR one, then we must conclude that WE TOO ARE SHELTERED BY SUCH AS TIAS 12087!? What nonsense. Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd is NOT by any stretch such an "international treaty other than treaty" (that is from VK—it looks impossible to us) and is unquestionably the owner of 3392-181. VK can keep the accusations going (or coming) because she gets it more and more convoluted and unbelievable to anyone.

Personally, I like this notation in one of her last issues: "When the Actuarial Services of the CIA calculated (and notarized the calculations) per the 'Contract' back in December of 1988, they calculated the amount due and payable on the Principle at $206,858,581,465,280,000,000.00. double it, because the same identical amount is due on THE INTEREST."

"And you know what....those were just the calculations from May 1, 1875 to May 1, 1990! Can you imagine what this DEBT we own has increased to since May 1, 1990?"

"Double it"? The woman is off her rocker. Compound interest is taught in high school math classes and you do not "double it". She has always stated to us, and it is in the documentation, that the Federal Reserve in Los Angeles did those compound interest calculations. "Actuarial Services of the CIA" is certainly a "NEW" VK invention and the copy on file is not notarized. Besides, who needs to "double it"? It seems large enough as it is.

Of course we use those same numbers; they were supplied to us out of the CSEML file of Herman, which VK also uses. What is interesting beyond credulity is that this "CIA" "in December of 1988" would do up calculations through May 1, 1990—not likely but they are undated.

I am also interested in just "why" she is so hard on old George Bush? Without George and his "boys" causing the "Bonus" to be validated and accepted by the U.S. Treasury it might have been dropped into oblivion. Bush called it THE SUPERFUND (internationally) and used it in his personal banking game as well.

Now, please understand that I do sincerely appreciate the effort on his part and certainly do NOT "hate" him or his "welps" (VK's term). Moreover, if VKD thinks WE are going to somehow damage our own nation, the U.S.A., I have terrible news for her—

NO TRUTH IN HER

(In Living Color!)

Some readers apparently failed to get the message: As guest journalist Soltec writes, "YOU DO NOT PLAY GAMES WITH SATAN!"

VK Durham has demonstrated quite clearly that she is a direct minion of the ADVERSARY of Goodness and continues to make every effort to prevent fruition of the Divine Plan. She has CHOSEN to oppose goodness, quite wilfully, and for that reason she deserves all of the attention we can afford to give her.

NO TRUTH IN HER

we have set aside a full 50% into security JUST FOR THE U.S.A. through Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd.

For years, now, VK has touted herself as “sole owner and sole signatory” of the Trust, etc. NOW, in this same posting she says: “This TRUST was set up as GOD’S TRUST, it’s not V.K. Durham’s Trust... V.K. only ‘does His bidding’..and ‘protects the Trust for THE BEST INTEREST OF WE, THE PEOPLE.’”

Then she wraps it up by saying “The FAT LADY just sung!” in response, we suppose, to quote her earlier statement: “Quoting George H.W. Bush: ‘It ain’t over till the Fat Lady Sings’ ...”

“SUNG”? VK’s English and grammar usage is just a bit “too much”.

She wraps up her posting with grandmotherly advice:

“Remember; Evil and those who do Evil will flourish and prosper..as long as YOU allow Evil in your lives, your homes, your churches, your body politic..”

“A little advice...KEEP THE FAITH! Keep the Spirit of The Son of God Alive in the Remembrances and Celebrations of CHRISTmas and keep the CHRISTmas Trees..as a reminder of celebrating God and His Son.”

Please don’t think I misrepresent for I have only noted a few interesting items out of PAGES of trashing of more personal nature.

It is her, alright, for she signs off with “Good Bye-“ and then: “VK. Durham, CEO-Signatory, Durham Holding Trust (Tias 12087), The Duly Constituted, Outstanding, Primary Creditor of the US of A, and ALL Debtor Nations.”

I suggest you not pay too much attention to the next quote from VK for it never has meant a fool thing BEFORE but: “It is my humble opinion.. Time is proper for me to DROP OUT from trying to awaken a SOCIETY OF PEOPLE who would rather be LIZARD FOOD of COMMANDER HATONN and be the ‘minions and slaves’ of Organized Crime to:

“Stand on their feet; Live as Free Men/Women in their Pursuit of Liberty and Blessings of Peace. When Men/Women would rather choose Wrong over Right then they have made their choice to die on bended knee as minions and slaves.” So, please spare us more wasted space in this epistle and gather the posting from VK’s internet site: <<http://www.theantechamber.net>>. Just sort it as you will for she still has backup posting on every available site she can fool or conjure some poor sucker to post this inane excrement.

ABOUT THAT CHRISTMAS TREE

Quoting from “The First Illuminated Christmas Tree in the New World” in The Barnes Review, Nov. Dec. 2005 (current):

“The custom of bringing evergreens into the house at the beginning of the winter solstice goes back THROUGH THE MISTS OF TIME TO THE PRE-CHRISTIAN ERA.”

It is an excellent article and shows that the American custom became only noted by the earliest GERMAN colonists in any way whatsoever. I will copy the article if time and space permits because it certainly only denotes other than “CHRIST” except that it became also an ornament for the notice of the holiday on Dec. 25th.

As interesting, or more so, is another article in the Journal, same date: The Ironic Origin of Santa Claus.

I WONDER HOW MANY RECALL A VERY

SUBSTANTIAL ACCEPTED LABEL FOR SATAN: “OLD NICK”. It becomes more interesting in that Santa was NEVER such a goodly character as we now depict him in loving lies to our children. This one came from, basically, the “Dutch” influence and a publication of a poem created by Clement C. Moore of “An Account of a Visit from St. Nicholas”.

Well, I intend to enjoy the good thoughts and certainly the wonder of the Season that decorates trees, almost 100% artificial here in Paradise (good show). How else can we possibly keep guilt, lonely feelings and “time” calculations alive if not through these trappings of things that WERE? I don’t think you keep CHRIST alive in a bit of tinsel but then I’m not VK or any of her “alias’s” as proclaimed globally. She also refers to the Mayflower Compact but sorry, I wasn’t around for that one either regardless of how old I appear.

As to being Kosher about all things ritualistic and “Christ”mas, let us consider the posting yesterday of the pictures of staff members and her “first lady” of the U.S. as “WHITE HOUSE GOES KOSHER”.

No, I kid you not as Chanukah takes over among the trees but ever so much more brutal a “meaning” as the White House “koshered” its kitchen ... ! Bush, later at a candle lighting ceremony: “As educators who dedicate themselves to teaching the faith and to teaching, they are fulfilling the true lesson of Chanukah every day of the year.” Before the party Bush met with 13 rabbis and “educational administrators” to make sure it was all, well, Kosher.

Only kosher meats would be served from ritually slaughtered animals so it means the throats were cut while living so that the hearts of the animals could pump out the blood as the animal slowly died. Good show for “Christ”mas celebrating the ultimate of “LIFE”. Oh well, no “turkey” here! That comes later at the family celebration with the entire Bush family at CAMP DAVID! There they only bleed the citizens to death.

NEVADA CORPORATIONS & NOMINEES

We again have to look at the new squabbles over corporations and their advantages in NEVADA. Yes indeed, and let us fully use them for as long as we can do so before the dogs of Hell close the opportunity doors on any privacy.

We personally do NOT ask for “privacy” for we stick our names right out there for the world to see but some objectors think there should be NO PRIVACY—“for others”—just themselves. It is ever thus and why should we expect otherwise? We were told in studying this option CAREFULLY and for YEARS that we use the laws as they are to the best of our capability and if laws CHANGE then we “change”. It is simple in both concept and practice. And remember, NEVER is the fault of the corporation structuring or otherwise but the actions of INDIVIDUAL PEOPLE in every instance, IF ACTIONS BE OTHERWISE. We find that Nevada has, and continues to do so, served us well and protected OUR PROPERTY “from” the likes of the VK Durhams of the global “stick it to you” clubs.

Never thee mind the use of such as Geo. Bush, et al., as to Nevada corporations. The facts are that those “kids” simply never bother to “incorporate” anything anywhere—and that is called “manipulation” and criminal activities. Nevada corporations certainly do NOT have anything to do with Treaties or TIAS “stuff”.

OTHER PHILIPPINE AND FOUNDATION NOTATIONS

We have continued right to yesterday having meetings while the nation shuts down to drift, vacation and the honchos GO TO THE U.S. Well, we can do this at least this one more season and ask everyone to count “markers” and know that we go far beyond appreciation for things like shirts and L-Carnatine which, Irene, arrived yesterday. I had my picture taken in front of the most incredible Christmas Tree at the Penn hotel just an hour ago, in the blouse Irene sent. Furthermore, we made it all the way across the little street without assistance and realized we couldn’t duplicate that beauty no matter how much money we might have or time and/or energy to decorate. We had a full lunch for the cost of an American hamburger and felt totally overflowing with luxury. We know that the lunch was less because it was on the “same” menu. We did note that the music was a mixture of Christmas and Jewish alternating songs. It must be that new Judeo-Christian “compromise agreement”. This tree in reference is at least 35-40 ft tall and who has a living room big enough to match THAT?

We hope, and especially here note, that everyone is having some special times and with Ron we hope that his visit with Evan is as great as he anticipated. Indeed, it is difficult to be away from the little ones and yet we find that we CAN do it if necessary and that even with having to give up eyeballs, innards, etc. We, frankly, haven’t seen or found any 9 ft eyeball-eating lizards but we will continue to look, for VKD says they are real and certainly we wouldn’t argue the point.

We did have a chuckle as we watched people and that Christmas tree in point. A little girl, about 4 years, rushed about and did a dance in front of the tree as if in pure glee. We watched and she was totally without self-consciousness UNTIL I asked EJ to take her picture and then she dived under the table—behind mommy. There is no difference in children or animals the world over and it so happens they get hungry and deprived no matter where they are on this globe as the sound of pain, crying and starvation are ALSO the same everywhere!

There is so much more to share but I need to close THIS particular writing and catch up on some of the other things which have arrived and not been read. Indeed the world will surely perish under tons of paper with splashes of ink scattered all about it.

May the spirit of the holidays linger with you each for the reality of what is going on around us can surely spoil us if we aren’t careful about our attitude adjustments. We just have to realize we win because God wins and we ARE getting the messages to some “very interesting” personalities THIS WEEK.

By the way, VK said her TRUST was for the purpose of backing currency with gold. OK. She won’t find all the gold in all the world enough to help her even one iota but I believe we have a bit of a corner on some of it—enough to support a run at least. And yes, indeed, the price is ever so much more than when “they” calculated her assets as claimed. It is just so sad that she writes Russell out of all her “claims” and “holdings” and, worse yet, he told her exactly what he was going to do BEFORE he died. And we lived within her chaos, lies and frustrations until it obviously could not work in any direction she chose—at all. We call it “messing in your own nest”.

God blesses us every one. And, if things finally get “bad” enough it will come to pass that we change things. May the light shine ever upon us and keep us headed in the right direction.

Coming: Fake Alien Invasion

November 29, 2005: The undated article below is the subject of some of the comment of Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn of this date (see 'Aliens, UFOs ...' beginning page 4).

This article is presented as a reminder that the introduction to mankind of knowledge regarding the presence of aliens is setting up a "fake alien invasion" scenario intended to unite mankind under a One World Government governed by FORCE, which is, as we know, NOT OF GOD.

[QUOTING:]

THIS INFORMATION COULD SAVE YOUR LIFE AND FREEDOM
THE COMING "OFFICIAL" ANNOUNCEMENT
OF THE ALIEN PRESENCE ON EARTH
WHY "STAR WARS", THE HUBBLE SPACE
TELESCOPE, THE SUDDEN FALL OF COMMUNISM?
<FortuneCity.com/Roswell/prediction/51/text-files/fakeinvs.txt>

What is going on? Something very sinister is going on. Polls reveal that over 90% of the Americans people believe in UFO's and 95% of these people believe the government is keeping this knowledge from the public. But Why? Are they afraid the people will panic if an "Official" announcement were made? Hardly. Such an announcement would create interest and excitement and many questions, particularly by the churches, but do not panic. Why then the continued cover-up?

There is overwhelming evidence in the past several years from "Whistle Blowers" retired military officers who have finally said, "Enough is enough! It's time the government told the people the truth!" These officers, such as Navy Intelligence officer, William Cooper, Major John Lear (whose father founded the Lear Jet Corp.) and Air Force officer William English, to name but a few, have all discovered the truth, and at the risk of their very lives, are trying to alert YOU to the secrets behind the UFOs and the Alien Presence on this earth. These people worked on the secret projects, had access to "classified" Top Secret documents, had seen with their own eyes "captured" aliens, or extraterrestrial entities, UFOs and the incredible technology they brought with them.

Sightings of UFOs have been reported throughout history, and biblical and historic references to "Flaming Chariots" huge flying "birds" and odd looking beings predate our history by thousands of years. In the 1940s several alien spacecraft were recovered by the U.S. and other countries, along with a few dead aliens and one live one they named EBE (a name suggested by Dr. Vannevar Bush and was short for Extraterrestrial Biological Entity).

In 1953 astronomers discovered large objects in space which were moving toward earth. At first they believed they were asteroids, but later evidence proved the objects could only be spaceships. Project Sigma and Project Plato intercepted alien radio communication and using the computer binary language, was able to arrange a landing that resulted in face-to-face contact with alien beings from another planet. Meanwhile, a race of human-looking aliens contacted the U.S. Government, warning us that the aliens orbiting the equator were hostile beings from Orion. These human-type aliens demanded we dismantle and destroy our nuclear weapons, that we were on a path of self-destruction and we must stop killing each other, stop polluting the earth, stop raping the earth's natural resources and learn to live in harmony with one another. President Eisenhower rejected these demands.

Later in 1954 the race of aliens, known as Greys, from Zeta Reticuli area in space, who had been orbiting the equator, landed at Holloman Air Force base. They stated their planet was dying and needed quarters on earth to conduct genetic experiments that might allow their race to survive; this in exchange for certain technology. President Eisenhower met with the aliens and a formal treaty was signed. The treaty stated the aliens would not interfere in our affairs and we would not interfere in theirs. We would keep their presence on earth secret; they would furnish us with advanced technology. They could abduct humans on a limited basis for the purpose of medical examination and monitoring, with the stipulation that the humans would not be harmed, would be returned to their point of abduction, that the humans have no memory of the event. It was also agreed the alien bases would be constructed underground, beneath Indian reservations in the 4 corners area of Utah, New Mexico, Arizona and Colorado. Another was to be constructed in Nevada in the area known as S-4, about 7 miles south of area 51, known as "Dreamland". A multi-billion dollar secret fund was organized and kept by the Military Office of the White House, supposedly to build secret underground sites for the President and the staff in case of military attacks.

By secret Executive Memorandum, NSC5410, Eisenhower established a permanent committee known as "Majority Twelve" (MJ-12) to oversee and conduct all covert activities with the aliens. This included FBI director J. Edgar Hoover and six leaders of the Council on Foreign Relations, known as the "Wise Men" and later others from the Trilateral Commission. George Bush, Gordon Dean, and Brzezinski were among them.

A major finding of the commission was the aliens were using humans and animals for a source of glandular secretions, enzymes, hormonal secretions, and blood in horrible genetic experiments. The aliens explained these actions as necessary for their survival, that if their genetic structure were not improved, their race would cease to exist.

The ruling powers decided that one means of funding the alien project was to corner the illegal drug market. A young ambitious member of the Council on Foreign Relations was approached. His name is George Bush who at the time was president and CEO of Zapata Oil Co. based in Texas. Zapata Oil was experimenting with offshore oil drilling and it was arranged that the drugs could be shipped from South America to the offshore platforms by fishing boats, then transferred to the U.S. shore by normal transportation, thus avoiding search by customs agents. The plan worked better than anyone expected, and today the CIA controls all the world's illegal drug markets. One should remember, it was George Bush who first started selling drugs to our children. The drug money was used to finance the deep underground alien bases.

Conclusions: the Bilderbergers, the Council on Foreign Relations and the Trilateral Commission are the SECRET GOVERNMENT and rule this nation through MJ-12 and the study group known as the Jason Society.

Throughout history the aliens have manipulated and/or ruled the human race through various secret societies, religion and the occult. The CFR and the Trilateral Commission are in complete control of the alien technology and the nation's economy. Eisenhower was the last president to know the entire overview of the alien problem. Succeeding presidents were told only what MJ-12 wanted them to know, and it was NOT the truth. MJ-12 presented each new president with a picture of a lost alien culture seeking to renew itself, build a home on this planet and shower us with gifts of technology. Each president has bought the story hook, line, and sinker. Meanwhile, innocent people continue to suffer unspeakable horrors at the hands of alien and human scientists who are engaged in barbarous research that would make the Nazis pale in comparison. As if that is not enough, many people end up as food for the insatiable alien appetite for biological enzymes, hormonal secretions and blood. At least 1 in every 40 Americans have been implanted with alien devices that are used to control them if necessity calls.

By 1989 over 3 million "Greys" are occupying these deep multi-level underground complexes. Level 7 at Dulce is called "Nightmare Hall". They have welched on their agreement on abducting humans; today over 25 million citizens have been abducted and implanted, a literal army awaiting orders to march! (Whitley Strieber has written a best selling book on his personal experience as have many others.) For this reason other nations were informed. Within 5 months the communist monolith Russia was dismantled to unite with the U.S. and it's technology to fight the invasion. The Hubble Space Telescope was created to keep a watchful eye on the invasion fleet; Star Wars technology has been developed to hopefully stop them in outer space before they can get to the earth.

Today, the government is on the horns of a dilemma. Too may [sic: many] sources are releasing alien information. The public could get angry at continued secrecy. So MJ-12 plans soon to make an "Official" announcement, under controlled conditions, probably Area 51. Network TV will be called to meet the staged "landing" of the aliens, these being the Greys. They will come bearing gifts, technology that supposedly will heal Cancer and AIDS, retard aging, etc. They will tell us they are "saviors of humanity" who have come to defend the earth against an invasion of man-eating aliens called Reptoids.

This story is a LIE; they already work for the Reptoids! Their plan is to unify the world into a One-world Government, a "New World Order" with the argument that only this can defeat the invasion by Reptoids. This is a trap to enslave the world's population. Control will be accomplished through the money system, a universal currency controlled by certain international bankers, who for years have been lackeys of the aliens, who seized upon their greed and lust for wealth and power as a means to bring about their evil plan to control the earth. (This also being the scenario predicted in the Bible's "Book of Revelation" wherein only those who accept the Mark of the Beast (the aliens being the "Beast" and the "Mark" being some sort of laser tattoo or Credit Card they will use, which will allow people to buy and sell goods). Those who do not accept this "Mark" must live outside the money system and survive somehow on their own, through barter, etc.

SO BE AWARE! ONLY YOUR KNOWLEDGE OF THIS FAKE INVASION AND FAKE RAPTURE CAN PREVENT IT FROM HAPPENING. DEMAND THE TRUTH FROM YOUR GOVERNMENT. TELL THEM YOU KNOW ABOUT THE ALIENS AND THAT THERE ARE GOOD ALIENS AND BAD ALIENS AND THAT MJ-12 IS PROMOTING THE BAD ALIENS AND THE ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT THEY HOPE TO CONTROL.

World News Insights

The situation in the Philippines is rarely covered by the corporate media in the United States and it is past time we shared more background information with our readers. We turn to articles by daring journalists with the “call a spade a spade” TRIBUNE newspaper for a glimpse of the madness prevailing in this country, which is very important to the Divine Plan.

[QUOTING:]

OF SOCIOPATHS

By Herman Tiu Laurel, Daily TRIBUNE—RP, 12/19/05

Paranoia and sadism have taken over [President] Gloria [Arroyo] and her henchmen. Bertrand Russell, cynical but acute observer of human nature, succinctly puts it, “Fear is...one of the main sources of cruelty. To conquer fear is the beginning of wisdom.”

Gloria is succumbing to worse and worst fears for her future, which is most likely in jail or in the prone or inverted position of Elena Ceaucescu, wife of the Romanian tyrant, or Mussolini’s mistress Clara Petacci who was hung upside down after execution; but wisdom escapes Gloria.

We do not wish such sordid endings for Gloria but with the way she is treating the Filipino people, subjecting them to the worst economic cruelties since the last World War, the political persecution and repression embodied in her murderous reaction to Edsa III and the protest actions of dissenters since, the popular backlash against her and all those identified with her can be very violent. Eliciting even worse reaction are her constant insults to the intelligence of the people by her callous and offensive lies on the Garci-Bolante-Garcia and similar capers.

The clearest sign of paranoia and sadism is the “packing tape” the Sandiganbayan wrapped around President Joseph Estrada’s mouth and limbs for the duration of his visit to his elder brother’s wake. Estrada’s spokesman, former Rep. Didagen Dilangalen, said Estrada “felt very badly when he was informed he was banned from even delivering the eulogy for his departed brother during the funeral Mass...also banned by the court from joining the funeral march up to the San Juan Cemetery, where the family burial plot is located...”

Dilangalen said Estrada was “...banned by the police guards from even waving at supporters who had gathered to express their support. This is too much.” He added “all Erap wanted to do was to honor and mourn his brother the way he deserved to be mourned and should best be mourned ...That was really callous of Gloria and her police, for them to deny a grieving brother the only chance he had to honor him and mourn his passing. That’s very unFilipino...” Estrada was not allowed to deliver even the eulogy for his brother the late Antonio Ejercito.

Why does she fear Estrada so? Tribune’s sources said, “She really believes she will be ousted by her military, which is why that strict condition was imposed, and at the last minute.”

This is the “confluence of events” that could lead to a coup d’etat that Malacañang’s Justice Secretary Raul Gonzalez spoke of earlier. If this regime of Gloria can fear one detained man so much, what does it say of the regime’s situation? That holding the barrel of the gun to the face of the people is not enough to cow the nation, and the voice of one man alone could bring down its fortress walls.

Doing a little Internet research on the matter of paranoia and sadism or cruelty, I found plenty of material in the National Institute of Mental Health, particularly in the child psychology section. This is so Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo, childish syndromes coupled with inordinate degree of power and obsession to control or micromanage; this is the same diagnosis for those little kids who like to torture kittens, tie cans to tails of dogs and gleefully watch the little pets’ consternation, panic and desperation. The country has a mad little brat at the helms of its ship of state!

Gloria is mad but “they” have expert Machiavellis behind pulling the strings on her madness, technicians of political subterfuge and subversion. Gloria in her paranoiac state would not last another hour in power if it were not for bigger forces calibrating the balance of forces in Philippine politics to keep a true leader like President Estrada from rallying the nation. The weak Gloria is kept as a hate figure, empowered to run roughshod over laws, suppress genuine leaders like Estrada by the use of sheer force of the office of the Commander-in-Chief, but she is to be dumped at the crucial moment.

“Who are ‘they’?” you will ask. “They” are the ones who fly in from the cold throwing their weight around to get the anti-terror bill passed into law, to press the expansion of the expanded value-added tax by another 20 percent to complete the total looting of the people’s pockets, to get the Charter change (Cha-cha) to allow the complete purchase in exchange for nothing of the land of the nation’s forefathers and progeny. With Edsa II and Gloria’s hijack of the Philippine Constitution and rule of law, nothing stops these “cold-blooded warriors” anymore, and the Cha-cha would finish the subversion of the people’s will.

Prof. Jose Abueva’s double con game, ConConCom, submitted its recommendations including the abhorrent “term extensions” for all elected legislative branch members. It is blatant bribery of these officials to approve through a “Constituent Assembly” the Cha-cha. We don’t expect that to pass the Senate, but I suspect the Machiavellian experts have put this in so the senators can pounce on it, remove it and proclaim that they have exorcised the evil and, therefore, allow the Cha-cha to proceed. Let’s hope I am wrong and the Senate rejects it entirely.

We are not being paranoid, this is what history teaches us. The Cha-cha and Gloria will end.

ABAT: NOW A REAL THREAT TO GMA

By Alejandro Lichauco, Daily TRIBUNE—RP, 12/19/05

You have to read the brief statement retired Gen. Fortunato Abat issued after his arrest to understand why he now poses a real threat to GMA.

Here is the statement in full:

“I am now under arrest. By order of a President whose legitimacy is clouded in doubt, and carried out by one who is more of a fascist than champion of justice.

“Why am I being arrested? Because I dared to heed the longing cry of 85 million Filipinos for a man who would lead them out of the tyranny of corruption and incompetence of the present administration.

“I have served my country for over 50 years. As a teenage guerrilla fighter, as a soldier who fought in the jungles of Mindanao, as leader of the Army, as ambassador, as a conscientious worker tasked with bringing peace and reconciliation with our Muslim brothers.

“After all the toils and sacrifices for the country that I have gone through, I should be living now a life of peace and quiet. But I am not. Indeed I find it a shame that given the ills and misrule that bedevil our beloved country, none of our young generation of leaders would stand up and take the lead to do something.

“I am now in my sunset years. Yet I dared to act in this hour of need of our country. Where are our youthful leaders? Many who are expected to respond to the plea of our people for a change are instead in the sidelines jeering and ridiculing the effort of those who out of sense of patriotism chose to act.

“This is a time of grave crises. I appeal to all who love this country especially those in the military to act according to what their hearts dictate, not to what the keepers of power unlawfully tell them to.

“The night is darkest before dawn. But come it will, the dawn.

“Mabuhay ang Pilipinas!”

The statement, you will note, ends with a moving appeal: “to all who love this country specially those in the military to act according to what their hearts dictate”—meaning, of course, to stage a coup against GMA and replace her government with one that would do the Filipino people justice by giving them the government they deserve.

If Abat now poses a real threat to the government of GMA, it isn’t because he commands a significant following in the military, because he doesn’t. In fact, those in the know say he doesn’t have any following at all, period. He is generally dismissed, in both military and civilian circles, as an old and retired soldier experiencing his second childhood and his action in proclaiming the existence of a revolutionary government under the circumstances he did is given as proof enough of that.

And so, how can any one possibly take such old man seriously?

In that sense then, does Abat pose a real threat to this administration? The answer is in his statement just quoted and in the context of the times in which that statement was made.

For these are times when there is great restiveness against the government in both civilian and military circles. Within the military, there are several factions that have already announced their intention to stage a coup against the government.

These factions, although differing in composition and political persuasion, share one thing in common. So far, they all amounted only to what seems pure bluster, all threatening to stage a coup but no one repeat, not one—daring to do what it threatens to do.

What old man Abat did was to put them all to shame. He took action—senseless action, in the view of many, but action nonetheless—and paid the price for it.

And that’s what matters. He showed that although he [is] an old man, he has the balls as young as those of a lusty teenager while the others have done nothing so far but “to speak too much”, if one many paraphrase the poet.

“I may be a foolish old man,” Abat in effect told his juniors in the military, “but at least I have shown my balls but for all your talk you still have to show yours.”

Abat’s real threat to the government then comes from the impact which in brief but movingly powerful statement made after his arrest is bound to have on the various factions of military activists who have so far done nothing but threaten to overthrow this government.

Those factions may not follow Abat’s leadership and they even dismiss him as a foolish old man. But if he is a foolish old man, he is a foolish old man who has asked his junior fellows where the hell are their balls, telling them in effect that they had better put up soon or shut up for good.

And that is one challenge the young officers can't ignore and to which they will be forced to respond if for no reason but to show that they too have the balls.

The government should simply have left Abat alone and treated him as someone in his second childhood, as they claim he is. But by arresting him, they made him a symbol that can prove extremely dangerous, at least to this government.

Abat's appeal to the military has taken on an explosive dimension it would never have had if the government had simply left him alone.

Russia seems to be quite aware of the importance of Southeast Asia and has just wrapped up a summit meeting with the Association of SouthEast Asian Nations including increased security commitments.

RUSSIA-ASEAN SUMMIT ADOPTS JOINT DECLARATION, ACTION PLAN

RIA Novosti, 12/13/05

KUALA LUMPUR—At their first joint summit in the Malaysian capital of Kuala Lumpur Tuesday, Russia and the 10-member Association of Southeast Asian Nations adopted an action plan for 2005-2015 and a declaration reiterating their commitment to furthering multilateral cooperation in politics, security and economic and social development.

They said their partnership was meant to encourage economic growth and sustained development, prosperity and social progress based on the principles of equality, symbiosis and shared responsibility, as well as to promote peace, stability, security and prosperity throughout Asia and the Pacific Rim.

Russia and Asean regard terrorism as one of the most serious challenges to the world community, the sides said in the declaration.

According to the document, Russia and Asean confirmed their mutual determination to develop counter-terrorism cooperation on the basis of UN conventions and protocols on terrorism and UN Security Council resolutions, including the creation of a joint task force to counter terrorism and transnational crime.

The participants of the summit agreed to exchange information on terrorist groups and potential terrorist threats, including attacks using chemical, biological, radioactive and nuclear weapons, and to unite efforts against money laundering and illicit drug trafficking.

Russia recognizes and respects Asean efforts to create a nuclear free zone in Southeast Asia, considering these efforts an important element of strengthening regional security and a considerable contribution to the establishment of such zones worldwide ...

Russia has proactively been developing ties in the Asia-Pacific region in the last few years. In September, Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov attended a summit held by the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation forum, while President Putin made an official visit to Japan. Russia is also an observer in the Organization of the Islamic Conference. ...

NORTH AMERICAN PLATE FACTURES REPORTED AS MAJOR US HYDRO ELECTRIC DAM FAILS AND OKLAHOMA MEER'S FAULT ZONE BEGINS OUTGASSING

By Sorcha Faal, <WhatDoesItMean.com>, 12/14/05

Reports from the United States are showing the unremitting pressures upon the North American Plate have accelerated and have just today resulted in the collapsing of a Major Hydro Electric Dam ...

To the size of this Hydro Electric Dam we can read about as described by the United States National Academy of Engineering, and which says, "The Taum Sauk Hydroelectric Storage Plant was engineered to take power from other sources during part of the day and supply energy during other hours. The facility is made of four parts: a 55-acre reservoir at the top of a mountain, a 7000-foot-long tunnel, a powerhouse with two reversible pump-turbine units, and a lower reservoir formed by a dam." ...

This dam is also reported by the United States Government to be in full compliance with their laws and was not due for re-licensing until the year 2010.

So prestigious to the Americans was this Hydro Electric Project that they had recently been noted for a prestigious award, and as we can read as reported by the Ameren Energy Services Company September 26, 2005 news release titled "International Group Declares AmerenUE's Taum Sauk Plant an Engineering "Milestone"-AmerenUE Donates $1,000 to Local School" and which says:

"The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE) today presented AmerenUE's Taum Sauk pumped-storage hydroelectric plant its prestigious "Milestone in Electrical Engineering and Computing" award." ...

Though initial reporting by American Propaganda News Sources quickly blamed the collapse of this dam on a 'heavy amount of rainfall' in the area, that was quickly dispelled by International Media Sources as weather reports showed only a small amount of rain had fallen in the region, and as we can read as reported by Britain's Guardian Unlimited News Service in their article titled "Person Missing After Missouri Dam Fails" and which says:

"Pedigo said rain was not a factor in the break. The region received only about one-tenth of an inch of rain overnight, he said."

According to Russian Scientific reports on this event the cause of this dam's failure was due to the Magnitude 1.9 Earthquake that occurred in Matthews, Missouri yesterday, and which was located approximately 205 kilometers (128 miles) away. The shallow depth of this Earthquake, coupled with it opening a new fault line in this region contributed to the sudden collapse of this dam these reports further state.

The collapse of this dam also coincides with reports from the near Meer's Fault Zone Region in Oklahoma where a major outgassing event is currently taking place, and as we can read as reported by the Enid News and Eagle News Service in their article titled "Mysterious Kingfisher-area gas geysers leave officials puzzled" and which says:

"Mysterious unrefined natural gas leaks erupting in rural Kingfisher County in recent days continue to have officials puzzled as to their cause. 'We originally thought a pipeline had exploded,' said Matt Skinner, Oklahoma Corporation Commission public information manager. 'We had the pressure to zero pressure, and the leaks seemed to get bigger. So that's not it.' Skinner had said at a press conference Monday geologists and hydrologists are beginning to study underground maps of the area to find an explanation. 'We've ruled out the probables, and now we're into the unprobables,' [like, massive pressure on the central part of the North American tectonic plate?] he said. 'We've never seen one like this before, one that covers such a large area. It's another animal.' Skinner said the leak was unusual because of its size and that it was 'moving with no explanation'."

Russian Scientists have long noted that one of the first areas of the North American Continent that will begin to experience the mid-continent splitting of the North American Plate would in fact be the near Meer's Fault Zone Region, and which has further been confirmed by United States Scientists, and as we can read from one of the United States reports on this Region titled "Evaluation of Potential Aseismic Creep Along the Ouachita Frontal Fault Zone, Southeastern Oklahoma" and which says:

"This fault is the westernmost of a series of thrust faults within the Paleozoic southern Ouachita fold and thrust belt ... The orientation and location of the Choctaw fault are favorable to re-activation in the present-day stress field observed in the mid-continent. Based on our initial field reconnaissance, we cannot rule out the possibility of aseismic tectonic creep on the fault, as suggested by previous workers. In the town of Atoka, the fault traverses a small, linear hill upon which there is an alignment of historic damage to cultural features (e.g., sidewalks, curbs, pipelines, rock walls) from left-lateral ground movement. On the basis of about 140 mm of left-lateral offset of a sidewalk (dated October 27, 1914), we estimate a rate of left-lateral offset of about 1 to 2 mm/yr. In a qualitative sense, this rate seems reasonable given the degree of deformation observed in houses and other cultural features along this alignment. Early workers concluded that the damage is not related to downslope movement, freeze-thaw processes or dissolution collapse, and instead is due to faulting in the absence of earthquakes (i.e., aseismic creep)."

To these events we have likewise reported on many times, including our November 26th report titled "United States Prepares For 'Catastrophic Event' As U.S. Justice Department Orders New Crackdown on Journalists and Dissenting American Citizens", and wherein we had evidenced the growing numbers of 'Booming' earthquakes in North America, and which are associated with Massive Plate Fracturing ...

And since that report these earthquake 'Booms' have continued, and as we can read as reported by New Jersey's Daily Record News Service in their article titled "Earthquake jolts northeast Morris: Reports of loud boom from 2.1 temblor" and which says:

"The loud boom came first. Then, the house shook. Shortly after 10:30 p.m. Thursday, Nancy Wood jumped from her chair inside the living room of her Lakeview Drive home in Kinnelon's small Lake Reality community. 'Did the furnace explode?' she wondered. 'Or did somebody slam the garage door really hard?' Shortly afterward, she felt a tiny jolt, like a little wiggle, she said. It was an aftershock. 'As soon as I went out and asked my husband, 'Did someone slam the garage door?' we looked at each other and said, 'Oh, no,' Wood said. The boom was exactly what they feared: an earthquake."

Unlike other Regions of the World where the signs for a greater catastrophic earthquake to come are always heeded, by both citizens and governments alike, in the United States there is no evidence that their citizens are preparing. Even more concerning about them is that with their Darwinian Mindsets, and where everything is 'broken into pieces', they do not even see the full meanings of the signs they are being given.

This cannot be said though about the animals in their Nation, and who when 'knowing' of the dangers to come protect themselves, and which they are doing in the United States today, and as we can read as reported by the Associated Press News Service in their article titled “Scientists Say Global Warming Causing Migration In Yosemite” and which says:

“Scientists studying Yosemite National Park’s wildlife say the effects of global warming may be forcing several animal species to move to higher altitudes. A team of scientists from U-C Berkeley were retracing a recorded account of the park’s mammals, birds and reptiles catalogued about 90 years ago when they made the discovery.”

But not to the reasons of ‘Global Warming’ are the animals of the American Western Coastlines seeking higher ground, but rather for the event that we can read as described by seismologists in the United States, and as reported by the United Press International News Service in their article titled “Giant tsunami could hit U.S. West Coast” and which says:

“Seismologists are warning the U.S. West Coast could be hit by a catastrophic tsunami, with waves as high as 100 feet or more. More than a million people in California live in areas that might be affected by a tsunami, and another million visit the state’s beaches on a typical summer day, according to a California Seismic Safety Commission study, the Los Angeles Times reported Tuesday.

“There have been 80 tsunamis in California during the past 150 years, and geological records show previous waves reached heights of 60 feet or more. The indications are simple, said Lucy Jones, scientist-in-charge for the U.S. Geological Survey in Southern California—a long earthquake after which the water recedes. Jones says beachgoers seeing the water recede should run far inland and stay away from the beach for at least 12 hours, since tsunamis are actually a series of waves that can last for hours.

“‘You need to know that if you have a five-minute earthquake, there will be a tsunami,’ Jones told the Times. ‘That’s inevitable.... The really terror scenario is that it’s a summer day and there’s a million people on the beach.’”

For yet another indication of just how much things are heating up geophysically, we turn to excerpts from the venerable National Geographic. Note, however, the strange math in this article, which describes the newly discovered ‘megaplume’ as ‘possibly 20 times’ bigger than anything of its kind seen before and further along in the article this ratio is given as 100,000 to 500—200 times what a ‘normal hydrothermal vent might produce’.

Things are, unquestionably, heating up. Are you prepared for what’s coming?

[QUOTING:]

HYDROTHERMAL “MEGAPLUME”
FOUND IN INDIAN OCEAN

By Brian Handwerk, National Geographic News, 12/12/05

An enormous hydrothermal “megaplume” found in the Indian Ocean serves as a dramatic reminder that underwater volcanoes likely play an important role in shaping Earth’s ocean systems, scientists report.

The plume, which stretches some 43.5 miles (70 kilometers) long, appears to be active on a previously unseen scale.

“In a nutshell, this thing is at least 10 times—or possibly 20 times—bigger than anything of its kind that’s been seen before,” said Bramley Murton of the British National Oceanography Centre.

... Megaplumes like the one found in the Indian Ocean are probably caused by undersea volcanic eruptions, though scientists aren’t yet certain.

“Once formed they can possibly hang around for years,” Murton said. The heat from such events could have a dramatic effect on ocean circulation, which plays a role in determining Earth’s climate.

“The energy content is an order of magnitude greater [than ordinary plumes], and the thermal power may be many orders of magnitude greater,” Murton said.

“A normal hydrothermal vent might produce something like 500 megawatts, while this is producing 100,000 megawatts. It’s like an atom bomb down there.”

Recent studies have attempted to factor the heat from the world’s known hydrothermal ridges into ocean circulation models.

“Some studies estimate that for the Pacific, background thermal heating might increase ocean circulation by up to 50 percent,” Murton said.

Regular hydrothermal fields stir the water for only a few hundred meters (about a thousand feet) above the ocean floor. “But these megaplumes can reach a column of 1,000 to 1,500 meters [3,280 to 4,920 feet], so it reaches right up into the midwater,” he said.

THE TAGEAN-TALLANO GOLD (617,500 M.T.)
Legacy of King Luisong Tagean to the Filipino People

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The only savior of the Philippine and its citizenry in this time of economic difficulty in the middle of disunity of Filipino people and destabilization threat against the present government is the termination of the lease contract of 617,500 metric tons of gold lent to the government in 1949 by the Royal Family to serve as gold reserves required in the establishment of the new Central Bank of the Philippines. Then ex-President Manuel A. Roxas and Don Esteban Benitez Tallano signed the lease contract.

Documentary and testimonial evidences are presented herein to substantiate this information, which show proofs of the presence of the gold.

On documentary evidence, the deposits of the gold bullion in the Central Bank are covered by Gold Bullion Certificates (GBC) Nos. 083-030, 083-031, 083-032 & 083-033, and these were incorporated in the Last Will & Testament of Don Esteban Benitez Tallano and Don Gregorio Madrigal Acop in 1977.

On the testimonial evidence, last May 5, 1972 Fr. Jose Antonio Diaz, alias Severino Sta. Romana, testified in the open court before the presence of Amicus Curae that the last inventory of the gold remaining intact in the CB vault was only 400,000 M.T.

Other corroborating evidences on this can be found on the Monetary Board Meeting last January 3, 1949 at the new office of CB at 6th floor of PNB, Manila were it was mentioned on its 2nd page that 217,500 M.T. of gold was assigned, exported and distributed for the benefit of Asian Pacific Nations while the 400,000 M.T. were deposited in trust with SKR No. A & B 51263 CR. 1950 to back up Victory Notes where the beneficiaries are the Filipino people.

Further to these, the said quantity of gold (617,500M.T.) is owned by the Royal Family or Tallano clan, however only 400,000 M.T. was lent and approved by the CB. Said document was signed by the then late Gov. Miguel Cuaderno, Sr., Pres. Elpidio Quirino, Pres. Harry S. Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Atty. Ferdinand E. Marcos, Fr. Jose Antonio Diaz, Jose Bautista Cruz & Jesus Antonio Cruz.

Inasmuch as the lease contract of gold is to be terminated within this year (2005), the Foundation (Don Esteban Benitez Tallano & Don Gregorio Madrigal Acop Foundation, Inc.) having been mandated by the Court (CFI 28, now RTC 111, Pasay City) where its duty, responsibility and obligation is to preserve, conserve, consolidate and manage the assets of Don Esteban Benitez Tallano & Don Gregorio Madrigal Acop, had notified last December 12, 2005 the BSP (Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas formerly Central Bank of the Philippines) regarding the termination of the lease contract and to return the gold assets to the owners thereof represented by the Foundation.

Fifty percent (50%) of the gold is for the 85 million Filipino people and based on the current price of gold at present which is $496.40 per troy oz. the 617,500 M.T. worth $ 9.4 Trillion USD or $4.7 Trillion constitutes the 50% and can be invested for profitable business ventures hence this presentation is for the benefit of the citizenry who have no knowledge of this big wealth which is the legacy of King Luisong Tagean thru his son, Prince Lacan Acuna Tallano Tagean (formerly Tagean Clan) married with Princess Rowena Ma. Overbeck Macleod of Austria, the owner in Fee simple of certain lands, known as Hacienda Filipina registered owners and covered by Original Certificate of Title (OCT) T 01-4 issued by virtue of the Supreme Order of the Royal Crown of England, and in accordance with the order of the Royal Audiencia de Manila, under date of 17th of January 1764, issued at the Province of Manila, Philippine Islands, in a case No. 571 of said Court by Gov. Gen. Downssone Drake, British Governor, P.I.

FINAL DENIAL OF ASSOCIATION

The CORPORATION (CSEML) rejects hereby any association whatsoever at any time, past or present, claimed by Vina Katherine Durham, V.K. Durham, and all other of her affected self-designations. Two of the officers of this corporation, E J Ekker and Doris J Ekker, and several of their friends, at the request of Ms. Durham's former business partner, Russell Herman, financially supported her from the time of his death August 29, 1994 until her demands became oppressive and unbearable in June of 1997.

In her personal posting dated 11/28/05 and titled "The Contra Fall-Out & Pending WWII, the Now Time (7)" on "her" Antechamber website Ms. Durham has made such outlandish statements replete with maliciously fabricated innuendos that we are obliged to point out her fallacies in this Public Notice.

First, however, as foundational information, we will quote from her own undated narration that is intermixed with others dated in late October and early November 1994, some 8-10 weeks after Russell's death.

Quoting (exactly, for the flavor): "I had been working on SAILFINN.. out on the West Coast.. sent out by Senator John Morton who disappeared and "I" lost my cover."

From the same narrative: "Didn't see Russ again until 1969.. he was on his way to VIET NAM.../and then I did not see him again until 1986.... In 1987, Russ came out to California.. to PROTECT ME as; I had been in an auto accident (Feb. 17, 1983), which was no accident at all.. but moreover, an attempted murder.. to look like an auto accident.. and I was being held hostage in my own home... by the "GOOD OLD BOYS SYSTEM"... couldn't walk, I could barely talk... I was in a wheel-chair... and being drugged to death..."

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

The Value of an Aged 'Shelf' Corporation

Budget's "Tip of the Week" #6:

The Value of an Aged Corporate Shell or "Shelf" Corporation

While many stock-market investors have recently discovered the meaning of the word "risk", it's too bad they never learned to invest in Nevada shell corporations, which continue to appreciate in value.

An aged corporate shell—commonly referred to as a "shelf" corporation, an indication that it has not been used, only put "on the shelf"—will generally increase substantially in value over time. This is because there are those who can benefit greatly by the ability to instantly get into business and yet have the ability to say that the corporation has been in business for some time.

Generally, the value of an aged "shell" corporation is more than the amounts paid to keep it current, although there may be a significant difference between "bid" and "ask" due to the small size of the market. If you are the holder of such an aged corporation with no real activity in its history, you just might find that it has been a fair investment. The best way to sell such an entity is often by consignment, whereby the seller consents to pay a percentage of the sale price realized to a middleman (typically, a resident agent such as BCR) with good contacts in the market place. Unfortunately, many who have held such a gem of an investment have been taken advantage of by predatory middlemen, who typically offer only a few hundred dollars for a corporation that they turn around and sell for many thousands of dollars.

Some people acquire a number of newborn corporations specifically as an investment. If this sounds like something you would like to do, here are several steps you can take to maximize the value:

- Obtain an Employer Identification Number;
- Use nominee service so that there is no link to you personally;
- Open a no-interest bank account for the corporation;
- File "zero income" (non-activity) tax returns every year;
- DO NOT TRANSACT ANY BUSINESS WITH THE CORPORATION.

A shelf corporation maintained in this manner typically carries a premium of $1,000 PER YEAR OF AGE, in addition to the initial costs of setting it up. Even after annual maintenance costs (at least, through Budget Corporate Renewals) it is possible to have an annual gain of $500 to $1,000, making the incubation of shelf corporations a very rewarding enterprise!
