The moving finger writes; and, having writ,
Moves on: nor all your Piety nor Wit
Shall lure it back to cancel half a line,
Nor all your tears wash out a word of it.

From the Rubaiyat - Omar Khayyam

It was Wednesday evening in the United States, Thursday morning in the Philippines when the email message from EJ Ekker arrived with the simple subject line: "Doris & Dad".

"Doris left us this morning to join her Father God Aton, AKA Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn.

"Some day we may know why she left us just now but today the disappointment of her not getting to finish here and see the marvelous changes that will take place on this physical level, that she worked so hard to see through, is hard for me to understand."

This issue of the newspaper is dedicated to LIFE and the CONTINUITY OF EXISTENCE IN LIGHT so well exemplified by the LIVES of one

To our young friends and family members—learn your lessons as to technical capabilities for we SHALL have multitudes of needs for participation in almost every field of endeavor and especially in management of all manners of business in the computer world. Records have to be kept to the last cent and breath taken, used or exhaled. The years of lessons have been priceless and we "think" we have a good idea now as to how to manage "success".—DJE

most recently known as Doris Eloise Ekker, Dharma (dharma meaning "righteousness") or simply "Fingers" for the prolific typing she did in service to Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn. Doris had a deep love of her winged friends physical existence here she was visited regularly by a white dove, which EJ described rather humorously as eating "like an Uzi stuck in reverse". Please note the white birds in the picture on page 9 of this issue: a dove, along with what appears to be a falcon and a rather large phoenix-like bird.

We have chosen to present the final writing from Doris, along with the final writing from GCH through Doris and a very notable recent writing relating to PURPOSE. The main focus of this issue begins on page 9 with "The Story of Her Lives". This story has, literally, changed the world; it is now up to us, in unity, to manifest the Truth. We hope all present and future readers will enjoy and appreciate this issue as much as we and in the last days of her have in putting it together.

What Happens When You Die

1/26/00—#1 (13-163)

Wed., January 26, 2000 9:34 A.M. YR 13, DAY 163
Manila, Philippines

[Personal references have been excised from the beginning of this document as denoted by the three-dots editing marks.]

... GOD HAS A DIVINE PLAN FOR YOU. YOU MUST BELIEVE AND KNOW THAT THIS PLAN IS WRAPPED IN THE FOLDS OF GOD'S BEING, EVEN AS THE OAK IS WRAPPED IN THE ACORN AND THE ROSE IS WRAPPED IN THE BUD. YOU ARE LOVED, ABSOLUTELY AND WITHOUT CONDITIONS. ACCEPT AND RECOGNIZE EACH STEP AS AN OPPORTUNITY AND YOU WILL BE FINE.

SUCCESS VS. FAILURE

WITHIN THE LIGHT OF GOD THERE CAN BE NO FAILURE. THERE IS ONLY EXPERIENCE. THERE ARE ONLY LESSONS. THERE IS ONLY GROWTH—MUCH OF WHICH MAY ONLY BE FULLY UNDERSTOOD AND COMPLETELY KNOWN ON THE SOUL LEVEL. IT IS WITHIN THIS LIGHT THAT WISDOM PREVAILS AND SECURITY EXISTS.

GOOD NEEDS NOT PUNISH YOU—YOU DO THAT NICELY FOR SELF

THE CONNECTION TO GOD IS INSTANT—THE PERCEPTION OF THE CONNECTION IS ELUSIVE.

And remember each and all of you:

WHEN YOU STRIVE TOO HARD FOR PERFECTION IN OTHERS, YOU WILL FIND THAT YOU HAVE DEVELOPED VERY VISIBLE AND OBVIOUS IMPERFECTIONS IN SELF....

EVERY DAY IN THE MOMENT

Every day, actually every moment, there are decisions, choices, and responsibilities to be met. When YOU can realize that what YOU DO is also precipitating a good lesson or understanding within others, usually of like nature, you will be less hard on self. When you can say, "Well, in this way or circumstance, I am allowing others to become attuned to their own shortcomings." It is a time for hard realizations where choices MUST BE MADE for the protection of the WHOLE and this includes PROTECTION OF YOU as well as that which is and shall come to be as confrontations become more and more pressuring.

So, readers, don't be too hard on those, or self, over imperfections—for imperfections teach the greatest lessons and offer the most valuable opportunities to each of us. Therefore: PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER SO THAT THE CONDUITS OF FLOW BE SUSTAINED OR REOPENED IF YOU PERCEIVE THEY HAVE BECOME CLOGGED BY THE DEBRIS OF LIVING. And so be it!

WHERE TO, TO DEATH OR LIVING?

By now, although you don't realize it, each of you in physical projection have experienced that which you call death and more often have experienced that which you call, erroneously, "near death".

It matters not how you come to participate in such a journey or realization but it DOES matter what you think of that experience. Just KNOW that these experiences are "real" and that at the time of expression it is KNOWN in its reality.

Each scenario, no matter how it is interpreted or what kind of imagery it encompassed, is absolutely and totally and completely REAL to the one who experienced it. What happened, happened. No one's belief or disbelief can change that simple FACT. If you are "confirmed" "dead" then you have more visible confirmation, perhaps, but you do not have to walk to the very door of transition to realize that you move "into" reality FROM the illusion.

There is no one experiencer and no single experience that is more important than any other. Nor is there any message or revelation given to any one person that is more correct or true than what is revealed to any other. So, quoting from some holy writ in order to validate or legitimize near-death claims accomplishes little or nothing, and serves no one. The experience IS and from that experience great insight and knowing is received EVERY time.

Little Crow, as a for instance, knew that he would have to experience this "near-death" or "DEATH" at least seven times in THIS JOURNEY. HE HAS PASSED THOSE IN HIS JOURNEY THUS FAR. Dharma had five times literally been "killed" since her work began in 1987—however, there were three incidents within the prior years from 1984. Is "seven" the magical number? No, there are no "magical" numbers, chelas. There is purpose and necessity of travels which take you back and forth as MIND moves toward success of mission.

You can deny the experiences but it matters not except to limit your insight into that which is YOUR UNIQUE JOURNEY AND PURPOSE. There is no place to run and there is no place to hide—FROM SELF and/or GOD.

So, why could it not be that just one or two experience the transition and tell the others? Because until YOU recognize reality, another's reality is nothing more than words on a screen, page or sound waves. None see the WHOLE picture in any such experience and none of you retain all that you DID EXPERIENCE in consciousness.

The real POWER that emerges from near-death experiences (if you wish to call them by that accepted term) is a collective one—not what one person saw or heard, but the sum of the many. When you have listened to the thousands of experiences from those willing to speak of their own experiences a collective message emerges which speaks with a very loud and thunderous voice. There are what might be considered "summations" assembled from the sum of the many who are willing to share. YOU KNOW WHEN YOU HAVE TOUCHED GOD!

DYING

Oh my, we would need to recognize some signs, I suppose, so that you can relate to your own possible experiences.

The FACT of actually making that "death transition into life" is recognition that any pain to be suffered comes first for there is NO PAIN IN THE ACTUAL TRANSLATION.

It is most reported, however, that in a physical trauma circumstance, rather than from some "astral adventure", there is an instinctive fight to "live". We can discuss these various things as we move along but the facts are that even in attempts at suicide there is an instinctive drive to live, even as the translation is being made, for the soul strives to face the chosen experience of physical life and almost always finds the actual taking of one's own life is not really very acceptable—TO SELF.

These are automatic realizations because to the conscious mind it is inconceivable that any other reality could possibly exist besides the earth-world of matter bounded by time and space. You are used to the world of matter. You have been trained since birth to live and thrive in it. You know yourselves to be yourselves by the external stimuli you receive (those senses of human). Life tells you who you are and you accept its telling. That, too, is automatic and to be expected.

At passage the body goes totally limp.

Your heart stops.

No more air flows in or out.

You lose sight, feeling, and movement—although the ability to hear goes last. Identity ceases. The "you" that you once were becomes only a memory.

There is NO PAIN at the MOMENT OF DEATH. I repeat this one because what is feared most is the suffering prior to the death passage and the fear of that which is unknown. Well, "unknown" is not a good description because you DO, INDEED, KNOW.

There is only peaceful silence, a calm, a quiet—a release.

It is, frankly, easy not to breathe. In fact, it is easier, more comfortable and infinitely more natural NOT to breathe than to breathe.

The greatest surprise for most people in dying is to realize that dying does NOT END LIFE. Whether darkness or light comes next, or some kind of event, be it positive, negative or somewhere in between, expected or unexpected, the biggest surprise of all is to realize you are still YOU. You can still think, you can still remember and you can still see, hear, move, reason, wonder, feel, question and tell jokes—if you wish.

You are still alive, VERY MUCH ALIVE. Actually, you're more alive AFTER DEATH than at any time since you were last born. Only the way of all this is different; different because you no longer wear a dense body to filter and amplify the various sensations you had once regarded as the only valid indicators of what constitutes "life". You had always been taught one has to wear a body to live.

If you expect to die when you "die", you will be disappointed. The only thing dying does is help you release, slough off and discard the "jacket" you once wore (more commonly referred to as a physical body).

That is all there is to it. Nothing else is lost.

You are not your body. It is just something you wear for a while, because living in the earthplane is infinitely more meaningful and more involved if you are encased in its trappings and subject to its rules.

SO, WHAT THEN, IS "DEATH"?

Well, hold on to your hats, kids, for it is not less, it is MORE. There is a great step-up of energy at the moment of passage into that next life. There is an increase in speed as if you are suddenly vibrating faster than before—and that's because you are for you are in "free-form" soul expression, expressing.

Let us present it as others have described it so that it is easily understood: Using radio waves as an analogy, this "speed-up" is comparable to having lived all your life at a certain radio frequency when all of a sudden someone or something comes along and flips the dial. That flip shifts you to another, higher wavelength. The original frequency where you once existed is still there. It did not change. Everything is still just the same as it was, only YOU changed, only YOU speeded up to allow entry into the next radio frequency on the dial. AND NO, IT IS NOT INTO WHAT YOU MIGHT CALL THE FOURTH DIMENSION FOR YOU ONLY EXPERIENCE THE MENTAL REALIZATION THAT YOU “WERE” ALREADY IN THE “ALL DIMENSIONS” ALL THE “TIME” AND THAT IS REPRESENTED IN THE MOMENT OF “NOW”. FURTHER, YOU LOOK UPON THE LIVING PHYSICAL INDIVIDUALS ACCORDING TO “THEIR” LIMITATIONS AS TO TIME AND SPACE, AS YOU HAVE NONE. OPTIONS REGARDING THESE THINGS ARE THE CHOICES MADE AT THAT LEVEL OF UNDERSTANDING.

As is true with all radios and radio stations, there can be “stepons” and “bleedovers” or distortions of transmission signals due to interference patterns. These can allow or force frequencies to coexist or commingle for indefinite periods of time. Normally, most shifts up the dial are fast and efficient; but, occasionally, one can run into interference, perhaps from a strong emotion, a sense of duty or a need to fulfill a vow or keep a promise. This interference could allow coexistence of frequencies for a few seconds, days or even years where this can exhibit as hauntings or is represented by a state of comatose state of the “body” where the brain is functioning but the mind is “away somewhere”! However, sooner or later, eventually every given vibrational frequency will seek out or be nudged to WHERE IT BELONGS.

You fit YOUR particular spot on that dial by your speed of vibration existing. You can’t “just exist” or coexist forever where YOU DO NOT BELONG. THIS IS WHY IT SO IMPORTANT TO LEARN NOW ABOUT THOSE THINGS.

Who can say how many spots there are on the dial or how many frequencies there are to inhabit? No one knows, so it behooves you to aim for the highest you can get.

You shift frequencies in “dying”. You switch over to life on another wavelength. You are still a spot on the dial but you move up (or down) a notch or two with each transition and insight growth.

You DO NOT DIE when you “die”. You simply shift your CONSCIOUSNESS and speed of vibration frequency. So, sorry if this disappoints you: THAT’S ALL DEATH IS—A SHIFT!

OK, SO WHAT’S “EXISTENCE”?

In responding to this question let us start with “time” and “space”.

Time and space, as you recognize and know them, EXIST ONLY ON THE EARTHPLANE of physical manifestation. When you leave the earthplane, you leave such constraints and limitations.

There are realms and dimensions of existence without number, ranging from the slower, more dense vibrations of form to higher, finer streamers of nonenergetic currents. And there is more beyond that, realities that cannot be measured or described in the convenience of mathematics or mind-play.

“HELL” refers to levels of “negative thought-forms” that reside in close proximity to the earthplane. It is where you go to work out, or remain within, your hang-ups, addictions, fears, guilts, angers, rage, regrets, self-pity, arrogance or whatever else blocks you from the power of your own LIGHT. You stay in hell (and there are many divisions to this vibratory level) for however long best serves your development. There is no condemnation here, only the outworking of your misjudgments, mistakes, misalignments or misappropriations (what some people call “sin”). In “hell”, you have the opportunity to either revel in your folly or come to grips with the reality of consequences—that every action has a reaction, what is inflicted on another can be returned in kind. You experience the “flip-side” of your despair or your demands, “living through” the extremes of whatever you dread (fear). This is not a “punishment for your sins” but a confrontation with any distortion of your sense of values and priorities. You do not leave until you have changed your attitudes and perceptions.

“HEAVEN” is a term used to describe levels of positive thought-forms that reside in close proximity to the earthplane. These are just “terms” but they serve well enough for understanding for they have become pretty well accepted in general recognition. It is where you go to recognize or enjoy your worth, talents, abilities, joys, courage, generosity, caring, empathy, givingness, virtue, cheer, diligence, thoughtfulness, patience, loving kindness or whatever else reveals the power of your own LIGHT. You stay in “heaven” (and there are many divisions to that level) for however long best serves your development. There is a sense of benefit here, as if one has found one’s true home and all is well. Some people regard this a “time-out”, “recess” or a “time of rewards”. In heaven, you have the opportunity to assess your progress as a soul, to evaluate pros and cons and outcomes, to remember all truths including that of your REAL identity. You experience the glory of love and the power of forgiveness. This is not an end point, but, rather, the realization of your purpose in creation’s story, how you fit, and what possibilities for future growth and learning exist. You do not leave until you are ready for your next advancement either in the world of form or beyond it.

No one “knows” how vast creation is—only that it has always been and will always be. Shapes and embodiments change and alter, substance is recycled, but existence EXISTS, as does energy.

Existence is life, never ending and ongoing, forever and ever eternal. Yet its only true movement (without the distortion of time and space), is expansion and contraction, as if the existence that exists were capable of breathing—which it is. What appears as a progression, a “time-line” of starts and stops and ever-changing variations, is but an overleaf, an illusion, that helps you to focus on whatever spot on the dial you currently inhabit so that you can accomplish what you set out to do, or at least have the opportunity to so do, and not be distracted by THE TRUTH as undergirds reality.

Another example which is effective in giving insight is to consider television in analogy. The picture you enjoy seeing, the progression of a storyline with characters acting out a script, is but a trick of perception. What exists, what is really there, is quite literally ONE ELECTRON AT A TIME (with black and white, and three at a time with color) fired from the back of the television TUBE to the screen to be illuminated once it hits the screen as a tiny dot. The continuous barrage of electrons-turned-into-dots creates the appearance of images, as scanning lines (rasher bars) roll from top to bottom separating information coming in (new dots) from information fading out (old dots). You adjust the vertical hold on your set, not to remove strange bars appearing in the picture, but to place all screen activity within the range of your own perceptual preference. A television picture tube is nothing more than a “gun” that fires electrons at a screen. Your mind connects the electrons/dots into the picture images you think you see, while it totally ignores the true reality of what actually undergirds the operation. The way television operates, at the least in your daily experience of it, is an illusion.

Existence is a lot like television. What exists, what really exists, can’t be fathomed by how it appears to operate or what it seems to be. Facts are, you do not need to fully understand the workings—but only to turn on the on-switch and check out a channel or run up and down the dial, channel-hopping as most “men” are apt to do. So, yes, if you wish you can reduce a baseball or football game on TV to a bunch of electrons and nothing more.

When your TV picture becomes “scrambled” you call it “broken”—well when YOU ARE SCRAMBLED CAN’T YOU EXPECT AS MUCH?

I know that sometimes you literally lie awake at night wondering “Why me?” Then a voice responds, usually, “Oh, nothing personal—you have to do it sometime, why not you and why not now?”

Now would be a good time, I suppose, to discuss “LIGHT” and “ENLIGHTENMENT” but I think I will save that for another sitting. And as you move along in understanding you will find answers to things like: “We understand why children are afraid of darkness, but why are men afraid of light?” Plato noted this a trillion years ago.

Inclusive in the response to this inquiry, however, is why I remind you of the dangers of any kind of drug-induced experience of that transition processing. With drugs or other mind-altering substances, you make that journey, alright, but it is NOT where you intended to go, no matter how good it may seem. These “substances” are a PHYSICALLY CAUSED hallucination process which are caused basically by a “downer” and the journey may seem good at the experience, but the sensing brain-body-mind have consciousness with which to contend as the substance removes itself from your system and ALL IS TOTALLY DISTORTED IN THE “ABSENT” STATE OF MENTAL GYRATIONS. TO FULLY APPRECIATE YOUR EXPERIENCE YOU NEED TO MEET GOD CLEAR AND TOTALLY SOBER. You will also come to KNOW how and why YOU ARE CO-CREATOR for once within the presence of GOD, you know all things are possible and you have but to choose that which is most worthy of expressing.

If you look for that “partner” called God with all your heart and all your soul—YE SHALL FIND HIM. And, furthermore, you will find that nothing so far experienced can equal the very GLORY IN THE PRESENCE OF GOD OUR CREATOR. HE “thought” you uniquely and worthy of his highest honor, creation, are you to offer less in return unto HIM?

And by the way: GOD DOES NOT WANT YOU TO HAVE LESSER THAN THAT WHICH IS “BEST” SO DON’T BE LESSER TO PLEASE YOUR ENEMY.

I ask to end this now even though it is not too long as we usually go, but I want you to really dig into these topics on this matter because it is the most important KNOWING you can come by. THIS IS THE WAY IT “IS” AND ALL THE WISHING YOU MIGHT CHOOSE WILL NOT CHANGE THESE UNIVERSAL FACTS. YOU CAN CHANGE YOUR SCRIPTS BUT YOU CANNOT CHANGE THAT WHICH IS THE VERY BASIS OF UNIVERSAL CREATION OF INFINITE “LIFE”.

In love and an offer to SHARE THE LIGHT,

I AM ATON (I am not the beginning or the end or both for there is NO BEGINNING AND NO END! I come that we might walk together in understanding, Light and Truth. Salu and Selah.

RE: SOME ATTITUDE ADJUSTMENTS HARDER
THAN OTHERS BUT IT IS THE NAME OF ALL GAMES—DJE

SOME DAYS AND ATTITUDES ARE BETTER THAN OTHERS

I would like to share with my Grandson a bit of observation from three quarters of a century of “living”. We never seem to get less perfect but surely not ever MORE perfect, with “perfect” being the perfect word without verb or adjective.

It is always difficult for us to want to show anything less than perfect wisdom in our trips through the years to where we consider that we “should” know all there is and handle anything flung at us along the way. It just isn’t so and no matter what your current task or experience it is that “attitude” regarding the circumstance is always a choice and perspective is totally impacted by that attitude. ONLY “I” CAN CHANGE MY ATTITUDE AND NO OTHER!

That hurts on a morning like today when we work ourselves overtime and results are not easily seen in any direction.

This is the time to take a minute, go to some quiet place (if possible) for a few minutes of self-examination and see where the problem with the moment might well be flowing. If the attitude is GOOD then great but when it is good there is rarely a question regarding anything about the circumstance.

Whatever confronts us is the immediate consideration and is sometimes just too big to easily let pass into the settling pond of life without opinions, self-battering, or whatever the mind perceives to be our personal problem or confrontation. Moreover, we seem to have to drag the negative “stuff” into infinity when often it is only an adjustment of the attitude that accomplishes the change-out.

Today in the Philippines it is that thousands of people have died and others by the thousands have lost their homes. These are the poorest of the poverty-stricken citizens of this land of lies and corruption. This through unceasing rains in the mountains south of Manila where all the wonderful TREES used to grow!

Over the years the corrupt political and commercial thieves have gone black-market and thieved the lumber with some species of incredibly beautiful trees going totally extinct. The local people cut the wood as in “jobs” and nobody ever considers the outcome of stripping watersheds. The lands are totally STRIPPED.

So, day before yesterday, after weeks of HEAVY rains, the slides started but then there were two massive explosions (as in dynamite-type) and in one area from the tip of the mountain top to the valley level the mountains came down in mere seconds. Thousands of people were instantly buried and thousands more displaced. Now, slippage is happening all along the logging areas even into the deep South of the Southern Island of Mindanao. Talk about “attitude”! Mine has been all over the map for so many reasons I can’t breathe well.

So, I have observed that attitude is directly relative to the circumstances as in PERSPECTIVE. The ratio of helpless to helpful is also to be considered and we feel totally HELPLESS while yet having the very solution to the big problems right in our hands. Phooey on the politicians and corrupt grabbers and may they get some of that MUD in their eyes.

After thinking about the issue at point I CHANGED MY ATTITUDE JJJ as I realized that people have to get “way down” before they will seek and find a way UP. All we have to do is wait out the misery while remaining ready, willing and able when the time is appropriate. The political arena is still too full of debris to even try to clean it this week. Politics are the ALL, around which all else rotates, if there is

PUREHEART

If ever there was anyone who should be called a saint
Who labors constantly for God with never one complaint,

Who spreads the word of God to all, and so abundantly,
Just like a great Niagara Fall or even mighty sea

Who always gives and never takes and, yet, has more to give,
Who, though betrayed by many fakes, emerges positive,

And even when the worst has come, destroys and moves along,
Our holy father manages to fill her heart with song.

Who faces every friend or foe and gives them only love,
And says, “Be wise as a serpent and harmless as a dove”,

If ever there was anyone with heart so pure and clear,
It is our beloved Dharma, the one we hold so dear.

—“Two By”

anything left to rotate. Big guns and games are afoot to bind up a lot of things and right here is one of them—the VISITING FORCES AGREEMENT with the U.S.

The “visit” is just under way in spite of the alleged rape of a Filipina prostitute a few months ago and the failure of the U.S. to release the 4 accused to the nitwits here. Now we have the big-honcho mouths threatening to cancel the VFA if the U.S. wouldn’t kowtow to demands—silly as those demands might well be. I DON’T THINK SO, FRIENDS.

So, only last week the troops started moving in and there would be a minimum of 5,500 U.S. soldiers. They come in with heavy equipment for training with joint sessions with the Philippine Military. Believe me, the whole thing is about as funny as ten broken crutches. The explosions creating a massive catastrophe is interesting in thought possibilities as to who has such capability?

Now what happens?

Neat-o, everything good, except for the buried people, it is perfect, no less.

Two ships, loaded, are moved into the disaster area and off-loading facilities are put into place like instant pudding. Everything from TROOPS to equipment of every kind is at ready and everybody feels “good luck” was certainly working in this big coincidence.

My attitude was one of a broad grin as I watch our guys in PERFECT order and diligence tear into that mud-pile. The heavy equipment simply SINKS in the muck but, undaunted as is the pride of my own citizenship, those U.S. guys sorted the mess, moved right out onto those slide areas as they propped themselves with buoyant platforms and started digging by hand.

They organized the other foreign people sent to help and if nothing else brought almost instant order to the chaos. What kind of coincident need for “training” could you ask for on a good day in February.

Facts are, THERE SHOULD BE NONE OF THIS RAIN at this time and the search is on as to why it is happening. Oh well.

The U.S. also sent in equipment that are Ground Penetrating instruments which hang from a chopper and register structures underground which could possibly be intact to the extent of possible life-sustaining room for survival. They just happened to have them available! Who in the world needs war games when such impressive opportunities “happen” on cue?

So, my attitude about the matter rose from the pits way up onto the mountains as the U.S. once again is saving the day.

A few years back most will remember when the biggest volcanic eruption of the century occurred with Mt. Pinatubo blowing and actually changing the weather for months and into three years in some areas.

It was equally interesting to note that the U.S. geologists actually saved the day then and only 300 people perished. Clark field, the U.S. base, was totally buried and completely destroyed while it was mandatory to evacuate everyone from the mountain when the U.S. teams registered the imminent eruption. The people were evacuated by truck, foot, cart or donkey as was possible. Only three people survived on the mountain itself and they were tribal Aetas and buried themselves in bat guano in a cave. We are talking less than sixty miles from Manila.

That geologist given such credit is now retired and lives in the Philippines as, once such a part of something, it is hard to let go. Besides, he knows that if he speaks the people will listen.

There have also been tiny earthquakes around the area of the slides but are not in any way given credit or blame for the slides. More interesting to us, however, is that there was quite a big one in the Philippine Deep (trench) after the fact—which is in the same area offshore. That trench could hold the whole of the Philippines and not even line the bottom.

Along about here is where the facts of AA [probably Attitude Adjustment rather than Alcoholics Anonymous] kick in while considering that we work to change those things we can and accept the things totally out of our consideration and then ask God to grant us the wisdom to determine with which we are dealing.

Before I can make something “better” I have to become “better” and to achieve that I have to keep an attitude that is both positive and reaches a bit above that beyond which I think I can’t attain. Somewhere in the mix the adjustment seems reasonable as we wait for “this too to pass”.

We can somehow recognize the overall GOAL out there if we do our job but don’t these little mucky steps seem the pits? God has given into our care GREAT THINGS beyond that which others cannot imagine and perhaps THAT is what becomes too large to comprehend in our own recognition of limitations.

I wonder if it isn’t actually “WAR” which we consider and then I recognize that the same RULES apply to success in both war and peace along with any other attempted task and especially those which involve other PEOPLE. It is a game and if we pull from all our experiences, even those under way now, we CAN apply the wisdom of the “game” to anything—if we maintain an attitude of positive expectation and, “Oh yes, we CAN.”

I KNOW that we “CAN” but I continually marvel at the necessity of so many bricks in our path with evil always first confronting every scene and every action. Temptation to move into the easy stream or simply give-up is always among the considerations first thrust into our consciousness.

I am reminded that cutting and running is much like buying on credit; it hangs there with the price to be paid and doesn’t improve with age or time-passage. The moment of relief is so temporary that shock and awe stone you to death later. And yet that credit card well managed gives a lot of security to the insecure mind working its way through the demands of life.

I included Andy in this writing, along with, please, Diane, because we struggle along and pressures are often heavy and especially in a new adventure as with Andy where we all often think we aren’t up to the task or just get plain fed-up with the process. Sorry, it doesn’t get better or easier with age but perhaps the choices are more obvious as myriad fragments continue to hit the fan.

To our young friends and family members—learn your lessons as to technical capabilities for we SHALL have multitudes of needs for participation in almost every field of endeavor and especially in management of all manners of business in the computer world. Records have to be kept to the last cent and breath taken, used or exhaled. The years of lessons have been priceless and we “think” we have a good idea as to now how to manage “success”. We do NOT play games or fudge laws—we know limitations and tools and plan to use them all. God has been patient with us and we are grateful. We are blessed to have this opportunity and love sharing it as well as offering appreciation to those who at first appeared adversaries to our cause. The lessons were necessary and we have gown and can only hope the other parties have likewise had opportunity to consider their own positions. When we stand on truth we know that eventually we STAND strong and whole and the ultimate advantage of that position is without price.

When we act in Truth we have on our side Moral Law and in war or peace we shall prevail because it is the universal LAW OF JUSTICE. He who cheats, lies and steals cannot have ultimate Moral Law and will fall always, eventually, to TRUTH. Moreover, the miscreant will always ultimately build the very case for his/her opposition resting in Truth. Truth can “create” while lies ultimately destroy and fall. That is an attitude adjustment in its utter realization. A lie repeated NEVER makes a truth. Truth stands alone no matter how battered it might become.

Please send this on to Andy with this thought: If we were “there” I could capture you camping or fishing or with a guilt trip but I want to first note that we, because we get ancient in our bodies and means, face choices all the time and our “perfection” is still a “thing under construction” so be patient, you youngsters, of us who walked our path and would give much to be able to walk yours now. It is not possible so please accept our absolute LOVE (not necessarily “unconditional”) for from that REALITY we can all grow strong and unified. We SHALL PREVAIL in whatever we set forth to accomplish be it to make chocolate chip cookies or build a finer world or building.

I do not single out Andy onto which to dump but I did promise to dump a letter or two onto his head while he is away from home in his own adventure. Never give a grandmother an opportunity might well be the bottom line.

See, my attitude is already quite nicely adjusted by the “dump it” routine in perspective-ville. DJE

RE: WHEN DEATH IS RULED OUT AS AN OPTION—GCH/d

TIME TO MAKE UP YOUR MIND, FRIEND

When the way on one side of the fence is no more enticing than on the other the options are far more simple—just keep going in the RIGHT direction to suit needs of PURPOSE of the very PRESENCE of your expression.

I must refer here to Dharma for the focus is swirling about her very “ability to physically make the calls as to her own being”. A couple of days ago the REASONABLE AND LOGICAL resolutions to questions and “what to do now” fell a bit more appropriately, sans emotional hyper-vapors, to consider “directions” of the moment and then look into other options “after ‘the’ crisis”.

WRONG: WE LOOK AT THE WHOLE OF PURPOSE IN THIS FRAGMENT OF EXPERIENCE AND FROM THAT WE BUILD OUR BEST OPTIONS FOR CONSIDERATION OF ACTIONS, EXPENDITURES OF MANAGEMENT, AND LOSS OR GAIN IN EACH MORE LIMITED REALITY.

At the same time we want to keep our family notified and current because when Mother Hen [MH] can’t “cluck” we all look for an interim “cluckker”. No, no interim cluckker, just please see to your own job as expressed and accepted and let MH recover stability. I warned all of you about the finality of killing your goose who lays golden eggs and I will remind you again: Dharma has a job to do here in conjunction with that which is MY RESPONSIBILITY and if isolation has to be achieved to that limitation, so be it.

We are grateful to Dr. Cantara who came immediately to evaluate the “patient” and without pressure or push offered a preferred treatment program that could be handled with what was ongoing and without hospitalization to inconvenience “everyone” so that evaluation could better be made than just in hopeless chaos.

We thank everyone who, without exception, offered ideas and at this point in the help plan we have some 45-60 capsules of everything from thistle down to frog warts for a person who can’t at this point get the one vitamin tablet all the way to the stomach, and that being without a sick stomach. Problems? Yes, for there is no fever and yet overwhelming symptoms that put bird-flu to shame. Never mind, a “name” for the game for that is not in point. These serious things give you OPPORTUNITY to address questions that must be confronted at every major choice of ongoing venture. What it does is give you cause to ask: “What will we do If...?”

The answer here is, after careful considerations of even costs involved for where to be sick, where to actually die if that is optional and what, excluding the job ongoing, is the best use of manpower, funds and gives least impact to EVERYONE who would be concerned in caregiving, tending, etc. Outcome of those determinations? Keep right on doing our job for dharma realizes that as long as she can hold a pen and sign her name we can move forward from here—not downtown U.S.A.

We have not worked a quarter century to get to here to now blow it off because of some “possible” blowout of a tire along the way. So, to avoid any sweet kibitzing and with a realization that if “you” disagree with our ultimate decisions, we thank you but have to cause you to realize that “your opinion in such a massively impacting project” is not our business.

There are no funds for coming home to vegetate in a hospital or elsewhere, even with hope of Medicare. We can attend what ails us right here in this “unit” and if necessary for more urgent mechanical intervention we are only minutes from the medical center.

Dharma already has compromised lung capacity but that does not mean much to any of YOU who are hit with this concern. The sputum/phlegm of this beast can actually glue your lungs together and disallow oxygen passage. The lungs are both swollen and, as well, plugged, so don’t push the river. Stay as inert as possible because exercise is NOT the name of this particular game—it only compromises recovery.

What is my point? TO REMIND YOU THAT YOU CALL YOUR SHOTS AND YOU WILL DO AND BE THAT WHICH YOU CHOOSE.

Thank you all for holding our hand through the frightening time recently when that next breath is the one of ultimate importance. We “can” do this job and we “shall” do it. It is suggested by loving family that perhaps we should not run such chances with information or this program and we can only appreciate the considerations but somebody has to do THIS JOB and if not we—WHO? We made the decision to not be timid and it has stood well in our favor. We ask no one to step even outside your comfort zone and yet, please allow us our duty in passage for we can easily see, “If not us—WHO?”

It is the better part of wisdom to keep right on with our program for sometimes it is the outside stress on the goodly goose that kills same. At this point nobody need change a thing to meet our needs and in the same realization it is far better that we change nothing for this remains the best and wisest attitude and action. You must each live within your own limitations and realizations but all as a “unit” for directional movement. May we always appreciate one another in respect of that which we ARE so that what we wish to become has a place to grow and mature.

We are living through times of extreme seriousness here in this place with or without a pressure from illness and limitations. Sometimes it makes sense to just give in and have a rest. Dharma’s feet and legs are like footballs from having to sit without ability to lie down for two weeks now. Sleep? What might that be? One does what one needs to do to get through and that is the very basic gift of human in the game of expression. When you find that indeed we can adjust and be flexible when confronted with major choices and problems of great magnitude we can crest the hill and keep right on moving. When you can't get shoes on your feet, as with attached footballs, you tend to be content to sit and "stay-put" as suggested in the first place. Dump the "guilt" because I don't need any more of "your" nonsense. If you can keep the paper moving along we can keep this program trucking right along for the players are lining up on OUR SIDE now and we are so pleased to see some of our best writers back swinging those bats. Bless our enemies, friends, for they truly are so stupidly helpful to our cause as to be quite embarrassing to objective observers.

Thank you for allowing me to catch up my "survivors" here on the front-line. The way is cloudy from time to time and, at the least, somewhat frightening in overall perception on a given day with gorilla-glue pneumonia. One breath at a time is all we need, students, just one at a time but keep them coming please.

This comes with full appreciation for your caring, sharing and patience. Families must just let us work through this and they, themselves, relax and just keep on doing what you are doing for we will not quit before our wine is ready for its own perfection. And each of you can help us most by allowing us "room" and a bit of time to regroup. At each turn we are constantly considering options and to you who fear we will quit the race—NO, we won't. For families who concern and "enough is enough already", so be it but in that, too, there is no merit in the "quitting". We are about to make a homerun with all those nice bases loaded—please don't cause us to miss that hit.

Walk in the moment without regret or sorrow for all is healed in the tomorrow gained through the steps of today. Do not dwell in the places of the past for those are the gifts that allow a "future" consideration; treasures of experience and expression ever present and ever changing in the very moments of that which is life and living. Joy comes in the form of a white dove or a tawny sparrow as each is precious and beautiful in its own special unique presence. We cherish BOTH!

We constantly ask God to send us a sign? Sign? GOD IS—THAT IS THE SIGN! You are the very projection of God's "sign" to another, to one another and to ANY other. You ARE because GOD IS and thus, WE ARE! Where and when "we are" is the only perception yet to be understood. Creation is the totality of all things expressed by and through CREATOR. That makes each of us as unique and special as any other ONE thing in this wondrous universe. GOD OFFERS US "THE WAY" AND ALLOWS US TO USE IT AS WE WILL. My wish is that we would get on with it while there are yet some of "us" still around to do the task.

RE: REMINDERS OF "WHAT WE ARE ALL ABOUT"! WE BEGIN WITH "PURPOSE" AND MOVE ON THROUGH THE MORTAL REALITIES OF LIVING—GCH/d

PERCEIVED LOSS OF LEADERS?

GCH (By Line). Sunday, January 22, 2006; Year 19, Day 159 (Date Line), Manila, Philippines "Roaming" (Office location; cellular system on "Roam"), On Line (Communications systems functional; connections intact). Secretarial Pool (d) [Assignment task]. TOPIC: PURPOSE—(YOURS) [I know mine!]

Time Line: 8:35 AM, Manila, Philippines time zone (Jan. 22nd, 2006-01-22) or 8:35 PM, East Coast, Florida, U.S.A. (21st January, 2006)

Amazing isn't it? You are not even in the SAME DAY! Ah, BUT, you ARE! You ARE simultaneously in full expression even if YOU are not noticing other than the routines of your rotating daily habits.

To clarify my "initials" instead of repetitiously boring waste time and space I choose to be totally minimal in presentation and with total lack of commotion, silly nonsense OR silly kid stuff. When YOU were children and undiscerning—you saw through the glass very, very darkly. We have now polished the lenses and must serve OUR PURPOSE. Our purpose is NOT to longer polish off the little blemishes that you have scratched into your lens surface to block your view of your own PURPOSE. GOD HAS LAID A WHOLE UNIVERSE BEFORE YOU FOR YOUR SELECTION OF CHOICES AND SINGULAR PURPOSES IN EXPRESSION AND EXPERIENCE. "ANOTHER" CANNOT TURN FROM THEIR PURPOSE TO FULFILL "YOURS" FOR EACH IS UNIQUE AS IS THE HEART FROM THE LIVER OR THE RIGHT HAND FROM THE LEFT.

If "I" consume ALL time and space holding both your hands in both of mine then WHO CAN FULFILL MY PURPOSE? Fairness is not at issue, right or wrong is not at issue: JUSTICE, RIGHTEOUSNESS AND "FREE-WILL" EXPRESSION ARE AT ISSUE.

MISGUIDANCE

Do you choose a journey down the "bunny trail" of primrose brambles OR do you choose a pathway TO THE STARS?

You will never get to the stars while you tangle self in the briar-patch thistles. NOR WILL YOU GET ANYWHERE WHILE EXPRESSING OVER AND OVER THAT WHICH "OBVIOUSLY" IS NOT.

This in no way denies you the right and freedom to address and attend any nonsensical magic-show you choose. I am simply amazed, however, that you would not only attend the magic SHOW without the evidence of even the illusion and then, moreover, DO IT IN, SAY, MY NAME. Oh well, friends, perhaps you might "go figure" that one for yourself.

CONTENT AND REALITY

We must get "high-centered" on some topics which at first simply annoy you in seemingly undue consumption of energy, time and certainly, space where you would rather seek some revelation or titillation so that you might recognize your condition of "dead or alive" for a moment in time.

Well, sorry readers, there are so many would-be focus-demanders around to choke the angels. YOU FOLLOW WHOMEVER YOU "WANT" MOST TO HAVE YOUR MAGIC OFFERINGS FOR MIRACLES ARE PRODUCED IN REALITY AND IN EXPRESSION BY MUTUAL EFFORT OF YOUR COLLECTIVE "SELF(S)".

God presents you with "the way" and "the life" through which you achieve the REALITY of CREATIVE PURPOSE, RESOLUTION AND "REALITY" ITSELF. No "Nidle" or "Bellringer" is going to do anything other than DISTRACT YOU FROM YOUR OWN RECOGNITION OF PURPOSE.

MORE IMPORTANT TO YOU: THERE IS NO SECRET OR MAGIC "TRUST" WAITING TO SHOWER GOLD OR WEALTH UPON YOU; THERE IS NO LIFT-OFF MAGIC BY COSMIC PLAYMATES GOING TO HAPPEN (IT IS AGAINST THE LAWS OF FREE-WILL EXPRESSION) AND YET, EVERYTHING YOU NEED FOR TOTAL RECLAMATION AND RECOVERY OF YOUR PLANET IS PROVIDED FOR YOUR USE—IF YOU BUT DO "YOUR" JOB.

These sideline fakes ARE, however, your best and most important TEACHERS. They hone your ignorance until you cannot see and finally, when embarrassed and empty, you will dump everything, even if of value, as you ultimately SEE TRUTH. "I" certainly DO NOT need to stand around hopping on one or the other toe to accomplish your enlightenment for YOU WILL GET THERE ON YOUR OWN if you choose such a silly pathway—WITHOUT STOPPING THE REST OF US IN OUR OWN ATTEMPTS TO FILL THE VOID OF CHANGING WHAT HAS GONE AMISS.

If YOU cannot recognize who I am then all the empty speakings and repeating of mantras will NOT make a whit of difference. Mouths can speak anything if the tongue is intact and the fingers can type anything if guided to do so. I DO NOT ARGUE FOR IT HAS NO MERIT WHATSOEVER. I OFFER WHAT I OFFER AND IF YOU CANNOT DISCERN IT TO BE OF VALUE, SO BE IT. NEITHER DO I CHALLENGE YOU TO BUILD CRYSTAL CHURCHES IN ANY NAME FOR ULTIMATELY THE STRUCTURE IS HOMAGE TO THE BUILDER—NOT SOME GOD OF SPACE OR TIME.

GOD DOES NOT NEED A SWORD, A GUN, A CHURCH OR EVEN A CHURCH-HOUSE AND IF YOU THINK OTHERWISE—WHAT MAN TOLD YOU SO? GOD IS TOTALLY, 100%, SUFFICIENT UNTO ITSELF! THAT IS THE VERY CONCLUSIVELY SIMPLISTIC TRUTH OF THE UNIVERSE ITSELF.

THE POINT, THEN, IS TO DETERMINE WHERE YOU FIT, WHAT YOU WILL DO TO ASSIST IN MOVING ON TO GREATER CHANGE AND CAPABILITIES AND WHAT MIGHT BE YOUR PURPOSE? To some that purpose is but to question, challenge, debate, endless wrangle and keep, for sure, your individual and proverbial "nose" out of joint over some perceived affront to your conscious sensing, but fraudulent, shell you have built for whatever purposes you choose to allow or present. You use those incidents as blackmail against those you perceive might have other purpose than do you. So be it. If the "other" capitulates" to YOUR demands or expectations of grovel-factoring then they are betraying all that is within THEIR PURPOSE AND, FRANKLY, MINE, would their commitment be to “our” joint “purpose”. If YOU find my purpose to be unworthy I suggest you first ask self: WHY? Then, I suggest you might consider very carefully your conclusion and watch to whom you go to prattle and placate self. IF YOU ARE CORRECT, THE VERY FACT WILL STAND ON ITS OWN—AND THAT POINT IS THAT “YOU” DISAGREE—NO MORE OR LESS. It is only when we capitulate to the petulance of the moment in point that we seek reassurance from others also in a state of petulance to support our choices. THE MINUTE, HOWEVER, THAT YOU “EXCUSE” AND OFFER A LIE AS AN EXCUSE THAT YOU REALLY TELL EVERY SECRET YOU HOLD REGARDING YOURSELF AND THAT FOR ALL AROUND TO WITNESS AND RECOGNIZE.

If you choose, for instance, to no longer support this program or these people, so be it. How many do you need to convince of your stance to satisfy your perceived redirection? How many false excuses do you offer to whomever will question or notice? If your PURPOSE is totally honorable it requires no attention whatsoever for “reason” is Truth and “excuses” are, at the least, fabricated lies.

Can I prove “myself”? Yes, but why should I do so?

It is far easier to prove the liars lie regarding my person and rewrite whatever script they have filched in the first place for the imposters all use MY WORK to build their silly houses of make-believe. It seems a fair exchange whereat, in the end conclusion, the serpent eats itself and the proof of my TRUTH remains untainted.

Indeed, it is a bit hard on the hearts of the insulted parties but when the Beacon is again glowing in the harbor, it is unworthy of further notation while you grow to understand this most important message (lesson) for the days when hurts and sad realizations pound upon the mind and reminding of PURPOSE becomes uppermost in mandatory recognition.

So, the question comes full circle regarding, say, “me”. What is it that I don’t produce and solve YOUR problems as YOU thought was YOUR DUE?

I have produced and produced positive results magnificently. Look carefully at that which YOU have produced and WHY you question MY PURPOSE OR ACTIVITIES.

If you have assisted us to reach through this morass of impossible mission, then you do NOT pound upon us—DO YOU?

We note that people with honest support even begin a contact with “is there anything I can do?” They do NOT withdraw either contact OR OFFER EXCUSES that are recognized on our end as being empty “excuses” and antagonistic “change of mind”. The point, individual, is that I RECOGNIZE THE SLINGS AND ARROWS for I know at whom they are aimed and I let them pass and so too shall you. THIS MISSION IS NOT EVEN NEARLY OVER SO WHO CAN STATE FAILURE OR LOSS? UNTIL “YOU” QUIT THERE IS “NO” LOSS OF ANY KIND FOR YOU ARE AS SAFE AS THAT PROVERBIAL SECURITY STATEMENT: IN THE HAND OF GOD. THEREIN RESTS “MY PEOPLE”, MY PEOPLE.

“Old GCH is in a bad mood,” you say? Oh my, no, I am in my usual WONDROUSLY GOOD MOOD for we are breaking the very bonds set forth by MAN against MAN. All other attitudes are born and incubated in PERCEPTIONS and illusion. YOU HAVE TO ATTEND YOUR OWN ATTITUDE ADJUSTMENTS AND IN THAT YOU DON’T EVEN NEED TAKE NOTICE OF OURS—

EXCEPT, TRAVELER, YOU “WILL” NEED OUR PIECE OF THE PUZZLE TO FINISH YOUR OWN IDEALIZED TAPESTRY.

WE ARE A PART AND PARCEL OF THAT WHICH GOD PROMISED MANKIND—AND WE ARE DOING OUR JOB. WHAT YOU DO IS YOUR CHOICE. IF YOU FIDDLE IN AND OUT AND DANCE ALL AROUND, SO BE IT—DANCING IS GOOD BUT EVASION TACTICS RARELY DO MORE THAN ENTANGLE FEET AND DUMP YOU FLATLY ON YOUR FACE OR BACKSIDE DEPENDING ON WHICH “SIDE” IS “UP”—AND WHICH WAY IS “UP”? CAN YOU “REALLY” KNOW THE DIFFERENCE? HOW? Will you lay there and suffocate in the mud hole while you actually figure out which way might be “up”? It is up to you for we have trained for this moment of experience and our “ship” will move on and you can contemplate anything you please from your soggy vantage point. We will leave you a life-ring and even hold the rope—for a while—for your consideration. GOD IS A VERY MYSTERIOUS MIRACLE WORKER.

While you pick and choose about OUR POSITION I would remind you that even though it seems LONG and you are impatient with our work—we have done the impossible. We now hold, qualified, the two largest assets on the face of the earth—all in mortal, physical REALITY. How long would it have taken you and if it is a shorter span of time then why haven’t you accomplished the job? And never mind realizing that what we have accomplished is AGAINST ALL ODDS POSSIBLE THROWN IN THE RING AGAINST US.

I hear all sorts of comments about our “faulty” persons and many conclude their snide taunting with “but if you are REAL you don’t need help”. Right, I don’t—BUT YOU DO! Remember, I don’t have to live YOUR life—only MINE. In fact, I CAN’T live your life and you CANNOT LIVE MINE. However, by joining forces we form a team that is unsurpassed by any force. I SUGGEST YOU THINK ABOUT “THAT ONE”.

CLEANING UP THE STAGE

As with any “play” there must be periodic clearance of the stage and rehearsals for the next act even if it is already in progress. As with “life” the show goes on with or without the curtain closed or raised and HOW WELL THE PLAY goes depends on those regrouping activities in teamwork even to changes and redirection in the script itself or sets readjustments. Always, the actors (players) are in flux, swings of attitudes, focus and/or changes constantly under flux.

THIS is why, for instance, dharma does not go to war over whether or not a Bellringer attachment claims to channel the NEW instructions of some false “Hatonn” (by any spelling or title change as desired to embellish the facts established). If we cannot stand on our own merit and Truth then it matters not who says what to whom. Say it, do it, or be “it”. Truth is in the presentation and OUTCOME, readers, and our goal has never varied one iota FROM INCEPTION OF THE PLAY ITSELF. All the nonsensical battering and carping has, actually, NO MEANING! We must produce in the world of manifest consciousness WITH DOCUMENTS IN PLACE. IT IS SIMPLY THE WAY IT IS—AND WE HAVE ACCOMPLISHED THE TASK AND THUS THE REST CAN UNFOLD.

I have asked for hearing as we move on into a bit of a “new” phase of activities for all parts must merge at proper time of integration and we MUST WORK WITH WHAT COMES TO BE AND WITH THOSE

WHO ARE IN “POWER”. IT MAY NOT BE OUR PREFERENCE IN ALL CIRCUMSTANCE BUT THAT IS WHAT A QUARTER OF A CENTURY OF HARD LEARNING AND TRAINING HAS BEEN ALL ABOUT, ALPHY.

You have been welcome to travel and train WITH US and that has been from the very first day of personal acquaintance. If YOU have changed your direction and mind then I hope, for old times sake, you will take into consideration what you may well miss in the outcome by being a bit “testy” and possibly consider that perhaps you actually may have erred at some point in your journey. Ours is NOT “perfection” but our program is putting forth an opportunity FOR YOU TO CHOOSE YOURS AS RELATES TO OURS. And, moreover, IF you believe that task to be Ekkers’ then it is a massive error in discernment. If, in addition, you somehow feel slighted by them (and yes indeed, that is the only conclusion that CAN BE REACHED) THEN YOUR SCRIPT IS SET AND ALL THE “ARGUMENTS” OTHERWISE CANNOT CHANGE IT.

I do not even need make further attention to the matter for you do not pick a war with me through Ekkers and yet that is where almost everyone involved picks their war-field. I remember to remind you of “the last laugh”, not the giggling along the way.

Before I close this to allow for paper management I have a personal directive to one of our teammates. Ron, listen up, please.

I want you to make sure that funds are sufficient in “some” account for easy access in a sum that can get Evan out of Oklahoma on a minute’s notice. The earth is erupting, spilling gas into the atmosphere and if fissures open without attention there can be trouble in the entire area.

This is in NO WAY a panic situation but merely a caution and preparation for YOUR COMFORT. Make sure passports on both ends are in order for things heat up too rapidly in a world gone into reclamation mode to not think ahead. DO NOT PRESS ANY OTHER PERSON FOR “BARGAINING” IS NOT AMONG MY NEGOTIATIONS WHEN “COMPROMISE” IS THE COST INVOLVED.

No, readers, this IS specific and pointed and does not mean the world is blowing up. I have commitments to my team who man the ships in the face of “rather not” and we will see to the needs of one another as best possible. Just BE PREPARED and do not bargain or kibitz for it needs no further preparation than on your end.

Soltec was hoping to comment further on this pending eruption in the making but I have asked that we do not overload circuits so that our own people are totally distracted by “what ifs”. There are plenty of “what ifs” that are easily met with “what is” so make WHAT IS meaningful and not a retroactive “I wish”.

I also ask that we run again the corporation stats for Inter-American so that we can present the nonsensical SEAL and the backup gibberish relative to our poor rebuttals and pile-on of more lies. We do not need to further argue—just now please register everything and let us turn to this processing in this place. Thank you.

I do not need belabor this with covering even the headline topics. We CERTAINLY SHALL get back to Islamic-types of banking in the very near future because it is the banking of the present and into the future. What others THINK about that fact is none of my business and MY BUSINESS IS MANAGING OUR BUSINESS.

God keep you each and remember your blessings for indeed you have them and ARE THEM. GCH dharma

Hymn to the Aton

*Thou appearest beautifully on the horizon of heaven,
Thou living Aton, the beginning of life!
When thou art risen on the eastern horizon,
Thou hast filled every land with thy beauty.
Thou art gracious, great, glistening, and high over every land;
Thy rays encompass the lands to the limit of all that thou hast made:
As thou art Re, thou reachest to the end of them;
Subduest them thy beloved son.
Though thou art far away, thy rays are on earth;
Though thou art in their faces, no one knows thy going.*

*When thou settest in the western horizon,
The land is in darkness, in the manner of death.
They sleep in a room, with heads wrapped up,
Nor sees one eye the other.
All their goods which are under their heads might be stolen, they would not perceive.
Every lion is come forth from his den;
All creeping things, they sting.
Darkness is a shroud, and the earth is in stillness,
For he who made them rests in his horizon.*

*At daybreak, when thou arisest on the horizon,
When thou shinest as the Aton by day,
Thou drivest away the darkness and givest thy rays.
The Two Lands are in festivity every day,
Awake and standing upon (their) feet,
For thou hast raised them up.
Washing their bodies, taking (their) clothing,
Their arms are (raised) in praise at thy appearance.
All the world, they do their work.*

*All beasts are content with their pasturage;
Trees and plants are flourishing.
The birds which fly from their nests,
Their wings are (stretched out) in praise to thy ka.
All beasts spring upon (their) feet.
Whatever flies and alights,
They live when thou hast risen (for) them.
The ships are sailing north and south as well,
For every way is open at thy appearance.
The fish in the river dart before thy face;
Thy rays are in the midst of the great green sea.*

*Creator of seed in women,
Thou who makest fluid into man,
Who maintainest the son in the womb of his mother,
Who sootheest him with that which stills his weeping,
Thou nursest in the womb,
Who givest breath to sustain all that he has made!
When he descends from the womb to breathe
On the day when he is born,
Thou openest his mouth completely,
Thou suppliest his necessities.
When the chick in the egg speaks within the shell,
Thou givest him breath within it to maintain him.
When thou hast made him his fulfillment within the egg, to break it,
He comes forth from the egg to speak at his completed;
He walks upon his legs when he comes forth from it.
How manifold it is, what thou hast made!
They are hidden from the face.
O sole god, like whom there is no other!
Thou didst create the world according to thy desire,
Whilst thou wert alone: All men, cattle, and wild beasts,*

*Whatever is on earth, going upon feet,
And what is on high, flying with its wings.*

*The countries of Syria and Nubia, the land of Egypt,
Thou settest every man in his place,
Thou suppliest their necessities:
Everyone has his food, and his time of life is reckoned.
Their tongues are separate in speech,
And their natures as well;
Their skins are distinguished,
As thou distinguishest the foreign peoples.
Thou makest a Nile in the underworld,
Thou bringest forth as thou desirest
To maintain the people
According as thou madest them for thyself,
The lord of all of them, wearying with them,
The lord of every land, rising for them,
The Aton of the day, great of majesty.*

*All distant foreign countries, thou makest their life,
For thou hast set a Nile in heaven,
That it may descend for them and make waves upon the mountains,
Like the great green sea,
To water their fields in their towns.
How effective they are, thy plans, O lord of eternity!
The Nile in heaven, it is for the foreign peoples
And for the beasts of every desert that go upon feet;
The Nile comes from the underworld for Egypt.*

*Thy rays suckle every meadow.
When thou risest, they live, they grow for thee.
Thou makest the seasons in order to rear all that thou hast made,
The winter to cool them,
And the heat that they may taste thee.
Thou hast made the distant sky in order to rise therein,
In order to see all that thou dost make.
Whilst thou wert alone,
Rising in thy form as the living Aton,
Appearing, shining, withdrawing or approaching,
Thou madest millions of forms of thyself alone.
Cities, towns, fields, road, and river—
Every eye beholds thee over against them,
For thou art the Aton of the day over the earth....*

*Thou are in my heart,
And there is no other that knows thee
Save thy son Nefer-kheperu-Re Wa-en-Re,
For thou hast made him well-versed in thy plans and in thy strength.*

*The world came into being by thy hand,
According as thou hast made them.
When thou hast risen they live,
When thou settest they die.
Thou art lifetime thy own self,
For one lives through thee.
Eyes are on beauty until thou settest.
All work is laid aside when thou settest in the west.
When risest,
Made to flourish for the king,...
Since thou didst found the earth
And raise them up for thy son,
Who came forth from thy body: the King of Upper and Lower Egypt,
—Akh-en-Aton, ... and the Chief Wife of the King ... Nefert-iti living and youthful forever and ever.*

DAWNING OF THE WORD

At around 1379 B.C., Akhnaton (aka Amenhotep IV) enters the scene as Pharaoh of the Eighteenth Dynasty, He prepares man for the dawning of the word from ATON.

The following excerpts provide a brief, if typically distorted, outline of that history as written by Professor Gerhard Rempel of Western New England College (<http://mars.wnec.edu/~grempe/courses/wc1/lectures/03akhenaton.html>).

[QUOTING:]

Background of Amenhotep IV

... By the 14th century B.C. the Egyptians had developed a large empire and their religious beliefs were spread to other peoples. However, it was back in Egypt itself [where] a dramatic revolution took place with the accession of Amenhotep IV in the year 1379 [BC]. ... Amenhotep IV was of peculiar physique, and thus set a kind of common fashion which influenced the portraits [of] other members of the court. It is striking and possibly significant, that he and other members of his family and court are often depicted with bulging cranium, thin neck, sloping shoulders and paunchy stomachs.

[There is no doubt he was extraterrestrial.]

With these physical peculiarities, real or invented, went an equally remarkable personality and policy. He tried to replace the traditional, official Egyptian religion of Amarna by a new concept of god. Although still embodied in the sun, this concept, called Aton, was understood more abstractly and monotheistically. This meant that he had to make a revolution. He had to attack and destroy [through enlightenment and reason, not force] the traditional patterns of religion, which were thoroughly woven into every aspect of Egyptian life. He had to change the theology, ritual and ecclesiastical structure. To begin with he changed the capital from Thebes to a new place in middle Egypt called Amarna. He also changed his name to Akhenaton, which means "Aton is satisfied." He reversed the entire foreign policy of Egypt by abandoning efforts to extend or even maintain Egyptian power outside the Nile valley. Egypt stopped being imperialistic and aggressive. [How does that fit with words such as "attack" and "destroy" as used above?] It was something like an immediate and unconditional withdrawal from Vietnam. The immediate result was a powerful opposition within Egypt from those who, for material interests or mere ideological reasons, resented the changes [Khazars by any other name]. Every revolution has his opponents. Every revolution spawns a counter-revolution. Chaos followed in Syria and Palestine, where the principalities tried to take advantage of the situation to reestablish their independence. The greater Asian powers tried to win for themselves larger territories.

Akhenaton died after only fifteen years of rule. His successors were young and ineffectual and hence victimized by the [Khazarian] leaders of the party of the old regime. The worship of the old god [Amun] was shortly restored and the counterrevolution was victorious. That was the revolution in capsule form. Now let's look at this first revolution in history more closely to see what we can learn from it.

The First Revolutionary in History

When Amenhotep became pharaoh a sharp struggle began between the royal house and the organized priests of [Amun]. Their position and wealth were challenged by the new religious ideas of the new king. It is always that way. The entrenched religious establishment, like the entrenched political power structure resists new ideas because they threaten to reduce their power and disrupt their cozy economic nests. At a time when Egypt's imperial possessions in Asia were being threatened, the new pharaoh did not call for all-out war against the enemy, but instead devoted himself with absorbing zeal to the new Solar universalism—in other words, to domestic reform. Imperialistic war is frequently used as a way to prevent revolution or reform at home. But Amenhotep like most revolutionaries did the exact opposite.

The Sun-god was given a new name [the oldest and original name, Aton, which had been known throughout the period of Light] which freed the new faith from the compromising polytheistic tradition of the old solar theology. He was now called "Aton", an ancient name for the physical sun [sic], and probably designating his disk [sic]. Not only did the Sun-god receive a new name, but the young king ... gave him a new symbol also. The most ancient symbol of the Sun-god was a pyramid or a falcon. However these were intelligible only in Egypt, and Amenhotep had a wider arena in view. The new symbol depicted the [sun] as a disk from which diverging beams radiated downward, each ray terminating in a human hand. It was a masterly symbol, suggesting a power issuing from its celestial source, and putting its hand upon the world and the affairs of man. Such a symbol was suited to be understood throughout the world which the Pharaoh controlled. It is evident that what the king was deifying was the force by which the Sun made himself felt on earth. [May the Force be with us all!] Religion was made more universal, more spiritual and abstract [???]. Thus all men could benefit by it. It was no longer limited to a few who had used it for their own salvation after death and enrichment while still on earth [i.e., the Khazarian Elite]. The bitterest enmities broke out, culminating finally in the determination on the king's part to make Aton sole god of the Empire and to annihilate [Amun]. [As usual, the Truth is opposite to so-called historical presentation: It was the Amun gang which sought to annihilate the Aton and His representatives.]

The king changed his name from "Amenhotep" (Amen is satisfied) to "Akhenaton" (Aton is satisfied). The name of Amen [Amun], wherever it occurred on the great monuments of Thebes, was expunged. These erasures were not confined to the name of [Amun]. Even the word "gods" as a compromising plural was expunged wherever found, and the names of other gods, too, were treated like that of [Amun]. The king built a new capital at Tell-el-Amarna and called it Akhetaton (horizon of Aton). The name of the Sun-god is the only divine name found in the place, and it was evidently intended as a center for the dissemination of Solar monotheism. Similar centers were also built in other parts of the Empire, in Nubia (Sudan) and Syria. He built up a strong following which propagated the new faith. It was a faith in a God who had limitless power—a God no longer of the Nile valley alone, but of all men and all the world.

The obvious dependence of Egypt on the Nile made it impossible to ignore this agency of life, and there is nothing which discloses more clearly the surprising rationalism of Akhenaton than the fact that he stripped off without hesitation the venerable body of myth and tradition which deified the Nile as Osiris, and attributed the flooding to natural forces controlled by his god, who in like solicitude for other lands made a Nile for them in the sky. It is evident that, in spite of the political origin of this movement the deepest sources of power in this remarkable revolution lay in this appeal to nature, in this admonition to "consider the lilies of the field". Akhenaton was a "God-intoxicated man", whose mind responded with marvelous sensitiveness [sic] and discernment to the visible evidences of God about him. He was absolutely ecstatic in his sense of the beauty of the eternal and universal light.

In this respect Akhenaton's revolution consists of the gospel of beauty and beneficence of the natural order, a recognition of the message of nature to the soul of man. The breath of nature had touched life and art at the same time and quickened them with a new vision. Even the king's relations with his family became natural and unrestrained. Like all true revolutions it affected all aspects of man's life. He was determined to establish a world of things as they are, in wholesome naturalness. Such fundamental changes as these, on a moment's reflection, suggest what an overwhelming tide of inherited thought, custom, and tradition had been diverted from its channel by the young king who was guiding this revolution.

It is only as this aspect of his movement is clearly discerned that we begin to appreciate the power of his remarkable personality. Before his time religious documents were usually attributed to ancient kings and wise men [scribes and pharisees], and the power of a belief lay chiefly in its claim to remote antiquity and the sanctity of immemorial custom. Until Akhenaton the history of the world had been but the irresistible drift of tradition. All men had been but drops of water in the great current. Akhenaton was the first individual in history [emphasis added].

Consciously and deliberately, by intellectual process he gained his position, and then placed himself squarely in the face of tradition and swept it aside.

The Meaning of Akhenaton's Revolution

What did this revolution mean to the Egyptian people? How did it affect their daily life? The whole environment of existence had been changed suddenly. Their holy places had been desecrated, the shrines sacred with the memories of thousands of years had been closed up, the priests driven away, the offerings and temple incomes confiscated, and the old [Khazarian] order blotted out. Groups of muttering priests, nursing implacable hatred, must have mingled their curses with the execration of whole communities of discontented tradesmen [masons by any other name?]—those who had made a comfortable living out of the old religion. Bakers no longer made a living from the sale of ceremonial cakes at the temple feasts. Craftsmen no longer sold holy trinkets of the old gods at the temple gateway. Statues of Osiris lay under piles of dust in the tumbledown studios of hack sculptors. Tombstone makers and scribes who had sold their cheap wares to a gullible public were bankrupt.

Actors and priestly mimes were driven away from the sacred groves of Osiris by the police: Normally they would have presented the passion play, reenacting the drama of the life, death and resurrection of Osiris. Physicians so-called no longer collected money for expelling evil spirits. Shepherds no longer placed a loaf of bread and jar of water under a tree in order to placate the goddess of the tree who might otherwise bring sickness to the household. Peasants no longer erected crude images of the gods in the field to drive away terrible demons of drought and famine. Mothers no longer dared to pray with their little ones at bedtime to shield them from the demons of darkness. In the midst of a whole land thus darkened by clouds of smouldering discontent, this marvelous young king, and the group of sympathizers who served under him set up their tabernacle to the daily light, in serene unconsciousness [sic: superconsciousness] of the total darkness that enveloped all around and grew daily darker and more threatening. [Is this sort of like Doris' supposed "dark tingies" in this energy's most recent lifestream?]

When we place the revolutionary movement of Akhenaton against this background of popular discontent and then add to it the secret opposition of a powerful priesthood, a powerful army which disliked the king's peace policy, we begin to appreciate the powerful individuality of this first intellectual leader in history [emphasis added]. His reign was the earliest age of the rule of ideas. [This Professor has identified the DAWNING OF THE WORD brought about by Akhenaton.] Akhenaton was the world's first revolutionary, and he was fully convinced that he might entirely recast the world of religion, thought, and life by the invincible purpose he held. Like all true revolutionaries at all times Akhenaton was fully persuaded that his ideas were right and that all men would eventually benefit by them. [And he was right as the "outing" of Truth shall prove; and all men have already benefited from his ideas.]

[END QUOTING]

A search on the Internet provided the following quotations, reinforcing the 'revolutionary' concepts advanced by this THINKING and God-knowing 'first individual'. [QUOTING:]

QUOTATIONS OF AKHNATON

... Adversity is the seed of well-doing: it is the nurse of heroism and boldness; who that hath enough, will endanger himself to have more? who that is at ease, will set his life on the hazard?

... To be satisfied with a little, is the greatest wisdom; and he that increaseth his riches, increaseth his cares; but a contented mind is a hidden treasure, and trouble findeth it not.

... As a rock on the seashore he standeth firm, and the dashing of the waves disturbeth him not. He raiseth his head like a tower on a hill, and the arrows of fortune drop at his feet. In the instant of danger, the courage of his heart here, and scorn to fly.

... As the ostrich when pursued hideth his head, but forgetteth his body; so the fears of a coward expose him to danger.

... The butcher relenteth not at the bleating of the lamb; neither is the heart of the cruel moved with distress. But the tears of the compassionate are sweeter than dewdrops, falling from roses on the bosom of spring.

... As the ocean giveth rise to springs, whose water return again into its bosom through the rivers, so runneth thy life force from the heart outwards, and so returneth into its place again

... He that giveth away his treasure wisely, giveth away his plagues: he that retaineth their increase, heapeth up sorrow.

... Honor is the inner garment of the Soul; the first thing put on by it with the flesh, and the last it layeth down at its separation from it.

... Say not that honor is the child of boldness, nor believe thou that the hazard of life alone can pay the price of it: it is not to the action that it is due, but to the manner of performing it.

... As the tempest and the thunder affect not the sun or the stars, but spend their fury on stones and trees below; so injuries ascend not to the Soul of the great, but waste themselves on such as are those who offer them.

After the glorious 'revolutionary' Dawning of the Word through Akhnaton, we find this same soul at the dawning of the word in an evolutionary way, now known as Socrates.

As demonstrated by his willingness to drink the cup of hemlock poison though wrongfully accused, Socrates had NO fear of death and lived the Truth. The Khazars were no less fearful of this humble man, whose wisdom has survived despite Hegelian efforts to dilute and distort the message by juxtaposing it against lesser luminaries such as Plato and Aristotle.

QUOTATIONS FROM SOCRATES

... By all means marry; if you get a good wife, you'll be happy. If you get a bad one, you'll become a philosopher.

... Death may be the greatest of all human blessings.

... Do not do to others what angers you if done to you by others.

... Envy is the ulcer of the soul.

... Get not your friends by bare compliments, but by giving them sensible tokens of your love.

... If a man is proud of his wealth, he should not be praised until it is known how he employs it.

... Regard your good name as the richest jewel you can possibly be possessed of - for credit is like fire; when once you have kindled it you may easily preserve it, but if you once extinguish it, you will find it an arduous task to rekindle it again. The way to gain a good reputation is to endeavor to be what you desire to appear.

... Remember that there is nothing stable in human affairs; therefore avoid undue elation in prosperity, or undue depression in adversity.

... Remember what is unbecoming to do is also unbecoming to speak of.

... The only good is knowledge and the only evil is ignorance.

... The shortest and surest way to live with honour in the world, is to be in reality what we would appear to be; and if we observe, we shall find, that all human virtues increase and strengthen themselves by the practice of them.

... Think not those faithful who praise all thy words and actions; but those who kindly reprove thy faults.

... Thou shouldst eat to live; not live to eat.

... Having the fewest wants, I am nearest to the gods.

... I know nothing except the fact of my ignorance.

... There is only one good, knowledge, and one evil, ignorance.

... Bad men live that they may eat and drink, whereas good men eat and drink that they may live.

... I am not an Athenian or a Greek, but a citizen of the world.

... I decided that it was not wisdom that enabled [poets] to write their poetry, but a kind of instinct or inspiration, such as you find in seers and prophets who deliver all their sublime messages without knowing in the least what they mean.

Now we come to the moment in time for the revelation and fulfillment of the word of ATON through the one known to all as the CHRIST Immanuel. And here we find this very same soul energy who was Socrates and Akhnaton, now at the Master's side in service as the disciple Simon Peter, also known as Peter.

The following citations stand as testimony of Simon Peter's spiritual life in service AND his preparation for a subsequent direct role as 'secretary' for Aton. These citations are all

SAYINGS TO DISCIPLES FROM IMMANUEL:
REVELATION AND FULFILLMENT OF THE WORD

Sun., AUG 6, 1989 (9:00 A.M.)
YEAR 2, DAY 355

... Ones of mine beloved friends and followers have been thusly recorded incorrectly and their own truth butchered and stolen—they have come back, brethren, to set it to right. So be it Peter, Socrates, Ahknaton, Mr. Bacon! So be it! This time, Oberli, ye shall pull it off!!, blessed scribe in Galilee and long before! Ye shall each be shown thy placement for I honor thee ones but time does not permit at this sitting. ...

YEAR 2, DAY 356

FIRST DISCIPLES

... And then as Jmmanuel went along the Sea of Galilee with this teaching, he came upon two brothers, named Peter and Andrew of the house of Simon, known also as Sumeon; and they threw their fishing nets into the sea for they were fishermen. And Jmmanuel spoke to them, saying, "Come and follow me; I shall teach you knowledge and make you into fishers of men." After they listened to Jmmanuel's truth they became bonded friends and they soon left their fishing nets behind and traveled along with the young Jmmanuel, all being young and about the same number of years.

They and Jmmanuel traveled over the whole of Galilee, taught in the synagogues, preached the knowledge of the spirit, and healed all diseases and infirmities of the people who came forth to hear and sought wisdom.

The news of him spread all over Syria. They who heard of him brought to him those who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and plagues, those who were obsessed, the lunatics, and those who were sick of palsy and all manner of distresses. He healed them all.

It came to pass that many people followed him from Galilee, from the ten cities, from Jerusalem, from Judea, and from the other side of the river Jordan. Everywhere they went, many people would gather and aspire to hear his teachings for it was recognized that he was of Higher inspiration and knowledge. The crowds continually grew in numbers so that the young Master would need find a higher ground upon which to stand that he might be seen and heard. He sought out placement whereby he might stand atop a hillock and oversee the people that his voice might be carried to the far edges of the gathered ones....

REC #2 ESU JESUS SANANDA
WED., AUG. 2, 1989 2:00 P.M.
YEAR 2, DAY 351

Since many of the ones who served with me in the Middle Eastern lands have now returned with me to serve again, I must be in the enlightening of your different thrust. I watch ye beauteous ones thrash in foment and agitation over your directions. Ye are in a different time and place. Yours will be by works of a different nature at this time. I AM

ESU JESUS SANANDA WHO COMES IN THY SERVICE TO DO A BIT OF REMINDING. Lessons must be of such nature that the "point" can be utilized in any circumstance. You go where you can accomplish and allow seeds to germinate and sturdy plants grow to harvest. To run about teaching one to one to one as the disciples did in the Holy Lands is most foolish indeed. Firstly, you will negate our thrust of building a thriving industrial city of newness and you will not reach but a puny few who will not believe at any rate.

No, chelas, the teachings must be spread forth through giant television/motion picture complexes and such as that type of conduit—massive spread and circulation; these are the last offerings of the word of truth to a sick humanity and it must be mammoth in nature.

I will effort at comparison of teachings as I gathered you around me in those days of two thousand years ago, and now in the present time.

INSTRUCTIONS TO MINE TWELVE

I called my twelve and they were as follows: Simon called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Phillip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew, the customs officer; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; Simon Danaeus and Judas Iscariot, who was the only one besides Me who understood the script.

I sent them forth and told them to NOT go into the streets of Israel and to NOT go near the Pharisees and the scribes, but rather to go to the cities of the Samaritans and the unknowing in any and all other parts of the world.

I told them thusly, to do this after I would be gone from them for these ones, the unknowing "heathens" (which only means unbelieving, agnostic, etc., simply a definitive term), for they did NOT belong to the house of Israel, which would bring death and bloodshed into the world. Again, brethren, I speak not against any individual man, but as a defined group of oneness in thought and doctrine.

I told them to go forth and teach that the Laws of Nature are the Laws of The Creation, and the power of man's spirit embodies life. I told them to heal the sick, rouse the dead, cleanse the lepers, drive out evil spirits, etc. These services were to be done without pay; given freely to all ones asking. Material needs would be met with work of integrity in the marketplace—with honor and honesty.

I told them to not amass gold, silver or copper in their belts. Their works would produce remuneration and it would be recycled into the business and works that the work and word could spread. Those ordained to go forth unto the frontiers would leave the business in the hands of the servants who remained to insure a foundation of value to cover earth needs. All would "have" but no ONE person would glean great masses of wealth to be squandered or stolen.

At that time it was far different from your current life style where there is a hotel on every corner and eating establishments by the hordes in every village—and ye can travel by machine and thus and so. Therefore, ye need not travel and abide with others nor depend on another for your needs for all can be in the production of the wherewithal. This is "if" ye all come to thy purpose and settle down to do of thy works as ye have accepted and committed.

Two thousand years ago I told them to go only with those things that are absolutely necessary so that they could eat and sleep on their journey, and so that they could keep clean and have always clean changes of clothing.

TRAVEL WAS DANGEROUS IN THOSE DAYS AND I TOLD THEM NOT TO CARRY MANY THINGS WITH THEM, FOR THEY WOULD ONLY BE BURDENED AND WOULD BECOME WELCOME VICTIMS FOR THIEVES.

I reminded them that "Each good deed is worth its pay, and if you diligently preach and teach knowledge, you shall not want anything." Now this was meant exactly as laid forth. These men knew their purpose, served those encountered and further, they were not searching for "self" but serving others. These ones were not going in SEARCH OF ~SELF~ FULFILLMENT AND INNER LIGHT FOR THE INDIVIDUAL ~SELF~—TO MEDITATE IN ANOTHER'S PRESENCE THAT THAT ONE'S TRUTH MIGHT SOMEHOW RUB OFF ON THEM. THESE WERE NOT FLOWER CHILDREN DRIFTING WITHOUT PURPOSE, LIVING THE LIE OF LIES THAT THEY WERE OFF HELPING MANKIND. THESE "FLOWER CHILDREN" WERE THE DROPOUTS OF SOCIETY CLAIMING TO SEARCH FOR THEIR IDENTITY THROUGH EVERY LOOSE MORAL ACTIVITY AVAILABLE, WHILE WONDERING AND DRIFTING ABOUT IN GROUPS OF BOOSTER UPPERS AND MEDITATION MEDIUMS. THIS, BRETHREN, IS THE DIFFERENCE IN RESPONSIBILITY AND IRRESPONSIBILITY. THIS TYPE OF PROCLAIMED "LOVE" IS THE MOST DESTRUCTIVE ONE ACTIVITY TO PLAGUE HUMANITY. MINE ONES WERE SENT FORTH KNOWING FULL WELL WHAT WAS THEIR JOB AND WORKING TWENTY-FOUR HOURS A DAY AT IT—NO TIME OFF FOR AFTERNOON ENERGY MEDITATION WHILE THEY SNEAKED IN A NAP AND CRIED LATER, "ENERGY OVERLOAD".

They went on foot; remember? They walked thousands of miles where you can put one hundred fifty envelopes into the mail to cover the same thousands of miles. So be it. Ye cop-out by saying "Well, you told them to do this and that and thus and so." When you do as they had to do, then you come and complain to me. And watch it, friends, if you do not do your job well now—that is exactly the way you will find yourselves doing it. AND, BROTHERS, YOU HAVE COMMITTED UNTO THE WORK NO MATTER HOW YE HAVE TO DO IT!

I warned them to check carefully when entering a village; remember, no motels—they had to search out living quarters in private places. So I urged them to take great care and inquire about if there would be someone there who would be worthy and advised them to stay with same until departure, if possible.

I told them to salute a house when it was entered into. And, I tell you to honor (salute) the house into which you enter. It is gracious and imparts love and vibrations of peace and goodness. If the house is worthy, your peace will come upon it. But if it is not worthy, your peace will return unto you and you depart.

If someone does not want to take you in or to hear your speeches, leave that house or that town and shake the dust off your feet.

I told them then; I tell you now, not to stay in a place where you are not welcomed with openness. Your truth and speeches will not be recognized. Flee from these places for they are selfish and disloyal to nature, they revere not sacred things, they will be honoring false gods and idols of whatever nature they so choose from worldly manifestation; they are not followers of The Creation nor of the Laws thereof. Where a man's thoughts center therein lies his heart desires—rarely is centered on God or The Creation.

I will now just repeat unto you that which I said unto them that you can see the teachings are as filled with TRUTH for you today as it was two thousand years past. I did not lay down these edicts, brethren, these were edicts passed down from God to a people in disobedience of the very Laws of The Creation and knew not any Christ path of Truth. Herein I speak of Israel, since that was the directed subject material on this morn. I would have it otherwise; it is not otherwise. So be it.

“Flee from those places of false gods and false teachings, for they will seek your life because they do not want to forsake that which they have and that which they are.” THIS INCLUDES THE MULTITUDES OF FALSE CHRISTIANS, BRETHREN. THE FALSE CHRISTIAN CHURCH CLUBS WILL BE FIRST TO EFFORT AT DESTRUCTION OF THIS SCRIBE, AS A FOR INSTANCE. THE MYSTICS AND “NEW AGERS”, AS SUCH, ARE EQUALLY AS DANGEROUS—WATCH OF YOUR STEPS AND WATCH OUT FOR MINE SCRIBES, PLEASE, I PETITION YOU FOR MOST ONES ENTERING INTO THY PLACES WILL NOT REALIZE THEY ARE TOOLS OF DARKNESS.

THE IMPACT HAS HIT HARD, BOTH OBERLI AND DHARMA, THIS VERY DAY. ENERGY THRUST IN FOCUSED INTENT TRAVELS UNINHIBITED FOR TREMENDOUS SPACES—KEEP THY LIGHT SHIELDS ABOUT YOU. NEVER MIND THE ORIGINATOR AT THIS POINT; JUST KNOW YOU ARE THE TARGETS.

“Flee from these incredulous people, for you shall not lose your life for the sake of truth and knowledge. No law demands that of you, nor is there a law which would recognize such foolishness.” WE NEED NO PHYSICALLY DEAD WORKERS; I NEED LIVE AND ALERT WORKERS. DO NOT BE FOOLISH IN THY PROJECTS—USE THY GOD GIVEN INTELLIGENCE AND FOUND GOOD, SOLID BUSINESS CONCERNS AND YE WILL BE ACCEPTED AND TRUTH WILL FOLLOW LIKE SHEEP TO A GOOD SHEPHERD.

“Verily I say unto you, however, many will die and shed their blood into the sand, because later my teaching will be made into false teachings which I never taught, and which originate from the brains of scribes and priests set forth for their own gain, power and purposes.

“They will thereby bring masses of mankind under their control and through the belief in their false teachings will rob man of his rightful belongings. MAN is God's temple; he needs no graven images nor ornate buildings with another man's name placed thereon.

“In all the world, there will be screaming and chattering of teeth when the blood of all those flows who have made my teaching of wisdom and knowledge into false teaching, and when the blood flows of all those who through false belief and through being led astray believe these false teachings and advocate them, teachings that are not mine, consequently, many of these heretics will lose their lives, many of these people of Israel, who will never find their peace until the END OF THE WORLD because they do not believe and deny the power of the spirit and of knowledge.”

Now, little ones, prepare yourselves for I am going to lay a hard one onto your backs. I make no exceptions to belief systems nor do I condemn any man, as such, but the next is directly from God source and there is a lot of cleaning up that needs doing.

WALKING ON THE WAVES

During the fourth night watch, Immanuel came towards them, walking on the waves of the sea. When his disciples saw him walk upon the water, they were terrified and said, “He is a ghost!”, and they were screaming in fear.

Soon Immanuel reached near unto the boat and spoke to them saying, “Be comforted for it is I, do not be afraid. I have come to bring you to safety.”

“Master, is it truly you?” asked Peter. And Immanuel answered, “Verily, it is me.”

Peter could not understand and called to Immanuel, “Master, if it is you, please let me come to you—upon the water.”

Immanuel said, “Then come here unto me and do not be afraid, believe and know that the water will carry you and it shall carry you. Do not doubt in your faith and your knowledge, and the water will be firm beneath your feet.”

Peter stepped from the boat and was held above the water and he walked toward Immanuel. But then strong thunder ripped through the howling storm and he was startled and began to go down into the sea, and he screamed and called, “Immanuel, help me!” Immanuel quickly went to him, reached forth his hand and pulled him gently up above the waves saying, “Oh you of little faith, why are you startled, and why do you doubt when things appear to be difficult and formidable? The power of your knowledge gives you the ability which you have just witnessed. You trusted in my words before the thunder came, but when you were shaken and began to doubt, then the power of knowledge left you and your ability disappeared also.

“Never doubt in the power of the spirit which is part of The Creation Itself and therefore does not know any limits of power.

“Behold, there was a little bird who circled the sky a great distance in the air and whistled and sang in rejoicement about life when a strong gust of wind came and made him waver. He suddenly doubted his power to fly, fell and crashed and was thusly killed.

“Therefore, never doubt in the power of your spirit and never doubt in your knowledge, when logic proves to you the Law of The Creation. Even in thy daily lives you can see the logic of The Creation and know truth, for all about you will be done that which you perceive cannot be done.”

Peter and Immanuel then stepped into the boat, and Immanuel told the storm to stop, and it abated and the winds ceased to blow and all was quiet as the waves became stilled.

Aboard the boat, the men marvelled and said, “You are indeed a Master of the Spirit and someone who knows the Laws of The Creation. No one like you has ever been born, and also, no prophet has had such power.” ...

... Peter then spoke unto Immanuel, “Please interpret, to us, your speech about the blind men.”

DISCIPLES REPRIMANDED

Immanuel reprimanded his disciples and said, “Are you, too, still without understanding and therefore ignorant and doubting in thy spirit? You have been with me for a very long time, but you still do not have the ability to think and recognize truth. Verily I say to you, you yourselves will do much towards falsifying my teachings in the future, for you do not come into proper understanding of such simple truth. With your knowledge, you hardly exceed that of the other people who have not walked with me. Have you not yet realized that all the parables and speeches have a spiritual meaning and are about the spiritual life of man-kind? Oh you of little faith, does not your understanding exceed the stupidity of the people and those who make no effort to follow the Laws of The Creation and of God? BEWARE, OR YOU WILL SEE ME IN A FALSE PERCEPTION AND LIGHT AND ACCUSE ME OF AN ORIGIN OF WHICH I CANNOT BE.”

Then Immanuel went away from that place and escaped to the area of Sidon and Tyre.

SIGNS?

But, again, he was antagonized by the Sadducees and Pharisees who came to him and demanded that he would let them see a “sign” of his spiritual power.

But he answered and said, “In the evening you say, ‘Tomorrow will be a fair day for the sky is red.’ Then in the morning you say, ‘Today will be foul weather, for the sky is red and dull.’ You can discern the appearance of the sky, but cannot you then also discern the signs of the times as they appear unto you? This wicked infidel generation is seeking a sign; there shall be no sign given unto it, but the sign of Jonah who disappeared alive into the belly of the whale and stayed alive therein, and came again alive into the light.”

Immanuel said not another word, turned from them and left and went away from that place....

WHAT'S IN IT FOR US?

... As they were walking, Peter said to him: “Behold, we have forsaken all to follow you, and what shall we get for that?”

Immanuel spoke to them, “Verily I say to you, you who follow me, some of you will embrace the wisdom of my teaching, so you will be spiritually great in the incarnations to come. But some of you will not perceive the wisdom of my teaching and will spread false teachings about me in the times to come. But those shall have a difficult time finding the truth in their coming incarnation. But ye must come into thy truth and wisdom in the conclusion if ye are to gain thy spiritual perfection. And thus it will be among the human races from East to West and from North to South. My teaching will be brought to many, but they will not perceive it. Many will follow false teachings about me and therefore not find the truth, because they consider me God or His son, or perhaps even the Son of The Creation.

“Great words will be spoken and some will proclaim that they alone know the truth, because they have become victims of a terrible mistake, and thus follow evil and falsified teachings.

“Many will be the first among human races, because they will think humanly in their false teachings. But they will be the last in spiritual knowledge and very small, indeed, in wisdom. Wisdom will only be where the knowledge about wisdom bears fruit and follows and respects the Laws of The Creation in truth.”

I, Sananda, do place my seal upon these words. So be it and Selah. I AM THAT I AM, I AM SANANDA. SALU, SALU, SALU.

CHAPTER 14

REC #2 ISCARIOTH/JMMAUEL

SANANDA

THUR., AUG. 10, 1989

YEAR 2, DAY 359

THE LAST SUPPER

... On the first day of the unleavened bread, Immanuel spoke to his disciples, “Go into the city to a certain person and speak to him and say: ‘Immanuel says to you; I wish to have a last supper with my disciples at your dwelling, please, for behold, Easter is near.’

The disciples did as Immanuel had asked them, and they prepared the meal.

When they sat down and ate, he said, “Behold, the time is near that I shall have to take my heavy burden upon my shoulders. I do, however, go where I am supposed to go according to the prophets; however, I shall only appear to be in death and will suffer much pain of the physical body. You are not to be afraid and do not be in trepidation for this is that which I must do. There are none who can bear this adversity in my stead, nor will any be able to share of it.

“Verily I say to you, until this is past I shall no longer drink of the fruit of the vineyard or eat of the bread until the time comes that I shall drink it and eat it anew, with you.

“When I shall have risen from the state between physical life and death, I shall have lain in the tomb for three days and three nights.”

When they ate, Immanuel took the bread, broke it, and gave it to the disciples, saying, “Take and eat; the body needs nourishment also in times of need and grief”.

And he took the cup, gave it them, and said, “All of you drink from this cup; your throats are thirsty also on rainy and cold days. Verily I say to you, as you do not understand my words now and are annoyed with me because of them, so will you be annoyed with me this night, because your minds still have not been enlightened.

“When I rise from the tomb, I will walk in front of you to Galilee, so that you may perceive the truth of my words. I have taught you wisdom and truth, but you doubt and do not believe me. Oh, you who are so faint of heart and of such little faith; how startled you will be, how confused, when I shall meet you again after being seemingly dead.”

But Peter answered and spoke to him, “Even if they were all angry with you, I would never be angry.”

Immanuel rebuked him, “Verily I say to you, you will be one of the worst, for in this night, before the cock crows, you will deny me three times.”

Peter contradicted, “This will never come about. And even if I had to die with you, I would never deny you.”

Thus spoke all of the disciples for they could not believe the words of Immanuel....

PETER’S DENIAL

Peter had followed Immanuel and the crowd and hid among the people who looked through the windows, and so he saw what was done to Immanuel. And a maid came up to him and said, “Are you not one among those, who are the disciples of this Immanuel from Galilee?”

When Peter was asked by the maid, he denied it and said, “What kind of senselessness do you accuse me of, for I do not know what you are saying.”

But because of the maid’s question he was fearful and he wanted to escape from there, for he was afraid for his life.

But as he passed through the doorway, another maid saw him and said to the people, “This man, too, was together with the blasphemer from Nazareth.”

But Peter lied a second time, raised his hand to swear and said, “Verily, I do not know this confused person.”

When Peter left the house, those who had been standing there, came up to him saying, “Are you not one of them who serve this Immanuel? You are giving yourself away through your speech.”

Peter then started to revile Immanuel, and cursed himself and swore, “I do not know this crazy person nor his blasphemous teachings of God.”

Soon thereafter a cock crowed three times and he was stunned by the words of Immanuel which flooded through his mind. Peter ran away and bitterly wept.

Having lived this life in service with the Master and having the shameful and agonizing realization of denial of the CHRIST we see what a blessed opportunity this soul has fulfilled in the recent life as Doris, receiving and affirming the Word from Commander Hatonn (ATON).

In the sequence of past lives of this energy we know as dharma (righteousness) we see the fruition of reasoning power in fulfilling the word as the FEARLESS William Lloyd Garrison in the newspaper known as the Liberator.

See if you can detect “just a hint” of Commander Hatonn in the bolded text within the following citation.

FULFILLING THE WORD: WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON

[QUOTING]:

...Now the doctrine we shall endeavor to inculcate is that the kingdoms of this world are to become the kingdoms of our Lord and of his Christ; consequently, that they are all to be supplanted, whether they are called despotic, monarchical, or republican, and lie—only who is King of kings, and Lord of lords, is to rule in righteousness. The kingdom of God is to be established IN ALL THE EARTH, and it shall never be destroyed, but it shall “BREAK IN PIECES AND CONSUME ALL OTHERS”: its elements are righteousness and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost; without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whatsoever loveth and maketh a lie. Its government is one of love, not of military coercion or physical restraint: its laws are not written upon parchment, but upon the hearts of its subjects—they are not conceived in the wisdom of man, but framed by the Spirit of God: its weapons are not carnal, but spiritual. Its soldiers are clad in the whole armor of God, having their loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; their feet are shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; with the shield of faith they are able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked, and they wear the helmet of salvation, and wield the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God. Hence, when smitten on the one cheek, they turn the other also; being defamed, they entreat; being deviled, they bless; being persecuted, they suffer it; they take joyfully the spoiling of their goods; they rejoice, inasmuch as they are partakers of Christ’s sufferings; they are sheep in the midst of wolves; in no Extremity whatever, even if their enemies are determined to nail them to the cross with Jesus, and if they, like him, could summon legions of angels to their rescue, will they resort to the law of violence.

As to the governments of this world, whatever their titles or forms, we shall endeavor to prove that, in their essential elements, and as at present administered, they are all Anti-Christ; that they can never, by human wisdom, be brought into conformity to the will of God; that they cannot be maintained except by naval and military power; that all their penal enactments, being a dead letter without an army to carry them into effect, are virtually written in human blood; and that the followers of Jesus should instinctively shun their stations of honor, power, and emolument—at the same time “submitting to every ordinance of man, for the Lord’s sake”, and offering no physical resistance to any of their mandates, however unjust or tyrannical. The language of Jesus is, “My kingdom is not of this world, else would my servants fight.” Calling his disciples to him, he said to them, “Ye know that they which are accustomed to rule over the Gentiles, exercise lordship Over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. But so it SHALL NOT be among You; but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister; and whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all. For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

Human governments are to be viewed as judicial punishments. If a people turn the grace of God into lasciviousness, or make their liberty an occasion for anarchy, or if they refuse to belong to the “one fold and one Shepherd”—they shall be scourged by governments of their own choosing, and burdened with taxation, and subjected to physical control, and torn by factions, and made to eat the fruit of their evil doings, until they are prepared to receive the liberty and the rest which remain, on earth as well as in heaven, for THE PEOPLE OF GOD. This is in strict accordance with the arrangement of Divine Providence.

So long as men condemn the perfect government of the Most High... just so long will they desire to usurp authority over each other—just so long will they pertinaciously cling to human governments, fashioned in the likeness and administered in the spirit of their own disobedience. Now, if the prayer of our Lord be not a mockery; if the Kingdom of God is to come universally, and His will to be done ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN; and if, in that kingdom, no carnal weapon can be wielded, and swords are beaten into ploughshares, and spears into pruning-hooks, and there is none to molest or make afraid, and no statute-book but the Bible, and no judge but Christ; then why are not Christians obligated to come out NOW, and be separate from “the kingdoms of this world”, which are all based upon THE PRINCIPLE OF VIOLENCE, and which require their officers and servants to govern and be governed by that principle?

[END QUOTING]

This glorious story and living soul who has participated from the dawning of the word to the fulfilment of the word and now participates in heaven for the discovery of the word now smiles down upon us one and all in joyous raiment with the master at her side.

“Well done, true and faithful servant.”

Well done Doris, well done!

Goodbye, beloved Doris, until we meet again in spirit.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

REC #1 HATONN
TUE., JULY 28, 1992 8:22 A.M.
YEAR 5, DAY 347

First today, let me remind you of MY MISSION. I come in LIGHT as a HOST OF GOD to bring the “WORD” and collect HIS children. I am NOT involved in Earth politics, wars, rainstorms, earthquakes, trial “photon” null-time and/or abortion rights. Does everybody see and hear? I am not a fortune-teller nor a psychic to do readings.

I am here to tell you what is going on in the secret places and then, hopefully, reveal what is awaiting in the “secret places of THE LION”. Except as it affects my crew, I have no input nor particular interest in Earth upheavals and/or political games. HARD? It is all in YOUR perception. I write for some 6-1/2 to 7 BILLION individuals and am sent to bring the WORD OF GOD AS TO YOUR SOUL:JOURNEY AND REALITY. To give unto you THIS I must bandy about in your skirmishes and stupid, but deadly, games. I DO NOT LIKE IT but it IS MY MISSION.

To the best of my ability I will tell you WHAT IS going on in the places and palaces of deception so that you can awaken and smell the toast burning. I have no intent nor desire to interrupt your games of chance with your destiny—ONLY INFORM YOU!

Many of you in my crew are sorely aggravated that you had no “Photon entry” (didn’t you? and, how do you know that you didn’t?—I say that you certainly DID). I found ones complaining that “...I told ones all about what to expect and now, I have egg all over my face! I am really ....ed!” Do you NOT READ? I have told you every way I know how—the “Great Barrier is not yet even expected!” What is happening is happening at the hands and technology of MAN to gain total control of you. I note that very, very few so much as changed their plans to go right on over to the San Andreas fault-line to “shop”. I am going to tend each and every one of the 6-1/2 BILLION beings to the best of their level of learning—I am NOT going to FORCE YOU TO LISTEN OR “DO” ANYTHING—I AM NOT GOING TO “SAVE” YOU!

Memorial to Doris “Fingers” Ekker

Sunday, 3-26-06
Moose Lodge, Tehachapi, California

This is my letter to Doris Ekker, also known as “Dharma” and also “Fingers”, who wrote so often to me—not to me personally, but to anyone on Planet Earth fortunate enough to have known of this dear woman’s life and accomplishments.

My own mother’s name was Doris too, and although her contribution in life was not on the scale of this wife and mother and grandmother and Scribe for Heaven whom we gather to memorialize today, my mother’s triumph in her later years was to attain a breadth of balance and outlook that her earlier years lacked.

In Doris Ekker’s case, after a full lifetime of child-rearing and professional accomplishment, she too found herself on a path of broadened outlook and perspective that all around her could only marvel at, if they couldn’t understand fully what she had been made privy to.

Like my own four children wondering what their old Dad has gotten himself into with all this spaceship nonsense, I can imagine many who knew Doris before the past twenty years wondering what on earth she had gotten herself into. Well, we may not know the entire answer to that question, even now, but everybody around her clearly sensed that what ‘Mom’ had gotten herself into was nothing on Earth at all.

I never really got to know Doris Ekker personally; it was mainly through her writings—and what a writer Doris was! Her keen mind and wide-ranging interests and elegant writing style captivated all her readers, myself included, and not just when she was communicating on behalf of her Friend Upstairs. Still, we all knew that something extraordinary was happening whenever she’d put on those dark glasses, and another voice, another whole personality issued from her tiny frame—booming, just as charming, though distinctly masculine, and insightful far beyond any earth-based source any of us had yet encountered. This personality, we were informed, was none other than The Head of the Project for Earth issuing from the Galactic Federation—just like on the original Star Trek, as this Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn informed us, and proceeded to make Doris one of the most prolific authors of our own or of any time period.

Many here knew Doris in her many earthly capacities and have already spoken of that; but in coming here, I joined a world-wide assemblage of students who hung on Doris’s every word, Hatonn’s that is, and thereby gained a better understanding of this physical world and our place in it, and of the wider universe awaiting us just past the borders of the physical, where Doris now resides.

Through her flowed several hundreds of bound volumes, the Phoenix Journals, along with nearly a thousand weekly newsletters and, most recently, a full newspaper, the CONTACT newspaper remaining in publication. While everybody knew it wasn’t her writing exactly, none of us could properly fathom the greatness of her contribution to this place, serving faithfully, through all life’s crises and encountering unprecedented slander and personal attack (which extended even to members of her family), in her service to God and to the very Hosts of Heaven, returned here in Earth’s hour of need, to guide humanity through and raise us all higher.

Through Doris, we learned that our Heavenly Father (and never mind this ‘space cadet’ business, Hatonn always told us—it doesn’t matter ‘who’ he is: it’s only a question of the quality of information she was transmitting from him)—that our Heavenly Father wants us to get up off our knees and join with the Hosts in salvaging our drunken planet, reeling under the assaults of no less than the “Big Boy”, Satan himself.

Over time, each participant in those wonderful open discussions and give-and-take at the old Apple Center meeting room several miles west of here, found him- or her-self addressed on occasion, and touched to the quick with Hatonn’s often stern guidance, dealt with appropriately, in other words—and many of us can recall specific instances of that happening.

Sure, the enemy lurked ever near, and typically within our gates—as one bozo after another contributed his piece to the larger Mission and then moved on, usually in hostility, and typically blaming Doris for some fancied affront. Enough of them!

Now our blessed opportunity is to join her beloved life-companion EJ in “waiting upon the Lord” (to use a phrase my fundamentalist Christian parents would resonate to) and seeing what’s next in this grand undertaking she informed us about and which must surely continue. As always along this journey, it is individual perceptivity that is at stake. Commander never equivocated about those who turned enemy, saying “they were never our friends in the first place” and explaining about that old process of “sorting” that goes on continually—right up through today, I’d venture.

So may we all be perceptive in the days and weeks to come and be no less faithful than Doris and EJ have been and remained for lo these many years. As our dear departed friend, wife, mother, grandmother, and Servant of the Almighty understood perfectly (for she’d died and been brought back on several instances in earlier years, though not for awhile), this miracle in our lifetimes ushers us to the very gates of that Realm beyond what any of us can fully grasp.

Doris Ekker’s example shines before us all, of the perfect cooperation and collaboration that is possible betwixt The Unknown and this world of ours. Her spate of typing may have come to a close here—she now types on new keyboards and in a new phase of her service. And I can picture her, the pain and regrets fading, being ushered to a special place around a great Council Fire out back of the Galactic Federation headquarters somewhere, lending her voice and loving wisdom to the broader gathering that even now ponders how to save us earthlings from ourselves and our love of ignorance.

Thank you, Doris, from the bottom of my heart—you’re my Mom too, and I love and respect you and all you have come to stand for. We know you brought this astounding body of universal spiritual teachings through your sacrifice of a comfortable home, your family and even your health for us all. Truly you have now become that DHARMA (body of higher teachings) which Hatonn saw in you from the start twenty years ago in this very special little town.

And now, Doris, may every lover of the Light cheer you on your way to greater accomplishments, and may we each continue faithful to the task you’ve left in our hands.

Bruce Tracy, chela

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

The Myth And Reality Of Dividend Double-Taxation

Budget's "Tip of the Week" #13:

Getting Money Out of a Corporation Avoiding Double Taxation on Dividends

"You don't want to take income into a corporation because there is double-taxation on dividends." This statement is only partly true and a half-truth is almost always intended to mislead. The truth is that a corporation earns money on which it is taxed; then, IF it pays out a dividend, the dividend is taxable in the hands of the recipient. Perhaps a better way to express the truth of the matter would be: You don't want to pay dividends out of a corporation because they are subject to double taxation. But there are many other ways of taking money out of a corporation, so the real question is why you would ever take it out in the form of dividends.

The primary method for taking money out of a corporation is in the form of payments for services rendered. Any such payment is a deductible expense to the corporation, reducing its taxable income. At the same time, however, such a payment becomes taxable income for the recipient. You don't want to receive much income personally because in all likelihood you will pay more in taxes on income received personally than the corporation would pay in retaining that income itself. On the other hand, if an individual keeps living expenses moderate and takes out only what he needs, his personal tax rate is often not much higher than that on corporate income, resulting in an effective income split and reduced overall taxation.

Keep in mind that a corporation can pay wages to any number of persons for services rendered, so it can be quite practical to have your spouse or children on the payroll, as long as they do, indeed, provide some sort of valuable service. And before you dismiss the possibility of payments to your children, consider the potential value of intellectual property. Yes, a good idea for developing the business is compensatable as "intellectual property". No spouse and no children and still need some income splitting? Perhaps you could acquire or pay for the "intellectual property" of another private corporation?

Don't forget that a corporation may hold assets in the form of retained earnings. Without stating a specific plan of development, it is considered reasonable for any corporation to keep up to $250,000 in retained earnings for future business development. Earnings may still be retained above this level without triggering the accumulated earnings surcharge prescribed by Internal Revenue Code 531-537 provided there is a plan for expansion of the business (this could include, for instance, the acquisition of another business); for paying off debts; for product liability loss reserves; for supplying loans to either customers or suppliers to maintain the viability of the business; or for the need for increased working capital (say, to acquire additional inventory for the business).

We constantly ask God to send us a sign? Sign? GOD IS—THAT IS THE SIGN! You are the very projection of God's "sign" to another, to one another and to ANY other. You ARE because GOD IS and thus, WE ARE! Where and when "we are" is the only perception yet to be understood.
