MONEY AT THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL

The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is perhaps the most astounding piece of sleight of hand that was ever invented. Banking was conceived in iniquity and born in sin. Bankers own the Earth. Take it away from them, but leave them the power to create money, and with the flick of the pen they will create enough money to buy it back again... Take this great power away from them and all great fortunes like mine will disappear, and they ought to disappear, for then this would be a better and happier world to live in. But if you want to continue to be slaves of the banks and pay the cost of your own slavery, then let bankers continue to create money and control credit.—Sir Josiah Stamp, Director of the Bank of England from 1928-1941

Read it again, please. Do you suppose there is even one national leader who does not KNOW the truth of Sir Stamp's statement?

Has any one of them done anything about the situation or so much as told their people the true nature of the problem?

At the United Nations meeting of the General Assembly Mr. Hugo Chavez, President of Venezuela, played to the audience and called Mr. Bush of the United States “the devil himself”. Really? No, not really, poor Mr. Bush just dances on the same puppet strings as Mr. Chavez and every other national leader. It takes one to know one, possibly?

Who controls those puppet strings: “the awful power of the purse”, the Money Masters?

Let's call a spade a spade: IT'S THE ANTICHRIST, that which opposes Christ consciousness (conscious oneness with the Heavenly Father). Is that some kind of revelation?

To Messrs. Chavez, Bush, Putin, Ahmadinejad, Blair, Olmert, Hu Jintao et al and yes, Mrs. Arroyo, you too: You know whom you have been serving and now the people do, too. IT IS TIME FOR YOU TO MAKE A CHOICE, EACH AND EVERY ONE OF

YOU WHO HAVE SERVED AS MINIONS OF THE ADVERSARY. YOU CAN MOVE WITH AND WITHIN THE DIVINE PLAN OR YOU SHALL BE OVERWHELMED BY THE TRUTH. WHAT WILL YOU CHOOSE AS YOUR LEGACY?

The tables were turned on the adversary more than seven years ago and you are still scrambling after his FIAT dollars and shekels!? For personal power? For shame. The Divine Plan has been laid out in perfectly functional format awaiting only your implementation. Do you think that stopping your ears, averting your eyes and ignoring the message is going to protect you or preserve your “interests”? When you deny the messengers you turn from the One who sent them—but it has been made very clear: He shall not be denied. The wave of truth bearing down on you is much higher than you think. Shouldn't you be heading for higher ground?

To Mr. Ahmadinejad and all who await “the perfect human”, misleaders and misled alike: What kind of a being is that? Is he/she Muslim, or Christian, Buddhist, Jew or something else? Is he/she terrestrial? If so, has he/she always been perfect? Does he/she possess perfect knowledge? Oh, really?

And who provided the teaching or training? THERE IS NO SAVIOR in the sense you imply, sir. No umpteenth Imam is coming and somehow saving the world. Get with the Program! This is not written to insult but to awaken you to the truth, which is simply that YOU HAVE BEEN DECEIVED.

To the people of the World: THE ANTICHRIST IS BANKRUPT—legally as well as morally. The International Banking Cartel owes GOD/ATON/ALLAH all of the gold in the world. Your leaders, for reasons of their own, do not want you to know this truth. The claim was legally perfected according to the adversary’s own rules more than seven years ago. When will you claim your inheritance? No one will do it FOR YOU. The feast has been prepared. Who will come and sup?

Henry David Thoreau is credited with saying, “There are a thousand hacking at the branches of evil to one who is striking at the root.” At the root of ALL problems you will find the MONEY POWER. All national leaders know it—and choose (so far) to work with the adversary in the form of the International Banking Cartel.

How much longer will this condition prevail? Do you remember the graph of increasing awareness in the last issue? Here is a fun application of mathematics: Assume for a moment that there were “144,000” in 1987. In 2006 the exponential growth progression suggests that quite naturally that number would have increased 6,765-fold. Multiply 144,000 by 6,765 and you will arrive at a figure of just under ONE BILLION people who are currently aware. One in seven, that sounds about right “today”, doesn’t it? Keep working the numbers and you will see that by 2011 there should be some 7.5 billion people aware. Is it just possible that between now and then ENOUGH people will act on their awareness to get to the root of the problem?

Meanwhile, although it is gratifying to see many people awakened by heinous events such as 9/11 or Israel’s merciless pummeling of Lebanon, it would be far more gratifying to see some real focus on the root of the problem without the need for such trauma. We have no doubt the uprooting shall be done.

THE HEGELIAN DIALECTIC
AND ONE WORLD LEADER

Everything they do stirs the people into greater wakefulness and it appears the adversarial forces are starting to see how counterproductive such actions are in the New World. What is their solution to the problem? As usual, you can be sure it involves the Hegelian Dialectic: Thesis—Antithesis—Synthesis.

Here is an excerpt from Wikipedia to describe the process:

Hegel’s Triad Dialectic ... is epitomized by the phrase “divide and conquer”. By supporting both extremes (thesis and antithesis) of any issue, militarily or financially or both ... synthesis emerges as nations of shell-shocked, passive people without direction.

And—using Mr. Chavez’s Citgo logo to make the point—look at the graphic which shows how it works.

DIVIDE the people. Pose an opposite side of the issue you want to change to suit your purposes. Since the opposition is fundamentally weaker, support it more strongly. Play it up in the media. Then marginalize or eliminate the extremists. The only “reasonable” resolution is to be found in COMPROMISE, abridgment of the value wished to be suborned.

Let’s say they want to eliminate freedom. Watch how easy it is. Thesis: “Land of the free”; Antithesis: “Freedom costs lives”; Synthesis: Compromised, abridged freedom = loss of freedom.

Let’s say they want to kill babies. It’s a simple matter using the Hegelian Dialectic. Thesis: “Pro-Life”; comprising key, highly industrialized countries in the world, Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov [said in Portugal].

According to the minister, these key countries should be “representative in terms of geography and civilization .... The Group of Eight (G8) may become an important aspect of an informal mechanism of a new collective leader,” Lavrov pointed out.

[RK: Please note the “CONSENSUS” at the United Nations that the “War on Terror is valid and necessary” and that “Israel has a right to defend itself” (by attacking an entire nation for the supposed kidnapping of two of its soldiers—on Lebanese soil yet). These Antitheses have been promulgated and sustained by the MONEY POWER acting through your National Leaders.]

The timing of this long awaited fulfillment of the ancient prophecies comes as the combined Armies of the West and East are continuing their encirclement of the last remaining peoples holding to their ancient knowledge and belief, the Muslims. From Afghanistan, to Lebanon, to Iraq, and now to the Sudan thousands of soldiers from the great banking powers of both the East and West are beginning their preparations for the final assault upon the Middle Eastern Muslim Nations.

Not fully explained to the Western people are that the World’s over 1 billion people of the Islamic faith are all that stands between our most ancient of masters and total control of the World’s entire banking system [RK: Sorry, Sorch, the International Bankers are very much in control of the banking systems in all nations, including those which are predominantly Muslim.] because of the Muslims’ refusal to charge interest as their religion deems it an affront to God....and which fighters for freedom throughout our history have warned humanity that our greatest threat to freedom lies not in Armies or Empires, but in those that control the banks and money.

This was, perhaps, best articulated by one of the founding fathers of the American Empire, Thomas Jefferson, who warned the future generations of his Nation of the dangers of these ancient monsters by saying:

“I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already they have raised up a monied aristocracy that has set the government at defiance. The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the people to whom it properly belongs.”

[RK: It’s safe to say the government has not been “at defiance” with the bankers for a very long time—in all nations, not just the United States.]

It is also fitting, and has indeed also been foretold, that the American Empire now stands astride the ancient lands of Mesopotamia, including Babylon, and from which our ancient evil masters had also begun their attempt to totally enslave human beings, but because of the Great Overturning of our Earth ceased their machinations.

Today these evil dragons, and through their

Antithesis: “Pro-Choice”; Synthesis: Dead babies.

Let’s say they want the people controlled by a One World Government (and of course they do). Thesis: National sovereignty (now termed “protectionist”, you might notice, as if that is something bad); Antithesis: “Free trade”; Synthesis: Compromised, abridged national sovereignty = New World Order.

How about a One World Leader? No problem? You have witnessed the Thesis and Antithesis played out on the World stage. The (“reasonable”, compromised, abridged) Synthesis is unfolding. Let’s look at the latest from “Sorch Faal”.

[QUOTING:]

RUSSIA BEGINS CALL FOR ‘ONE WORLD LEADER’

By Sorch Faal, WhatDoesItMean.com, 9/18/06

In a headline that sounds more like a prophecy coming out of the Bible’s Book of the Apocalypse, Revelations, Portugal’s Diario de Noticias News Service is reporting today that Russia’s Foreign Minister Lavrov has begun the call for a One World Leader, and as we can read as also reported by the ITAR-TASS News Service:

Russia does not see a reasonable alternative to the creation of a new collective leader

For most people the choice is a “no brainer”. For Satan’s Minions, however, it’s another matter entirely. They have made their “deals with the devil” and WILL NOT move into goodness. Accordingly, it will be up to the people to “make it so”. Is anyone ready for FREEDOM?

At the CENTER of the Satan’s Minions graphic is President Vladimir Putin of Russia. Please note that although his visitor appears to be making some sort of “devil’s claw” gesture, Mr. Putin himself is not. We expect to find out very soon whether or not he really belongs in the picture.

Are Messrs. Chavez and Ahmadinejad mere PRETENDERS or are they just UNWITTING? The answer to that question, too, should be obvious in very short order as the global geopolitical situation evolves.

Meanwhile, September 28, 2006 marks the day of the unmasking of the Beast itself in the USA with the passage of legislation through the House and Senate which authorizes torture and does not exclude U.S. citizens! It is now up to The Decider to decide if any particular affront to him constitutes terrorism. Further, the new LAW prohibits the Supreme Court from ruling against it in any way.

Back in April 2006, Seymour Hersh reported in the New Yorker, there was a little something called “The April Revolution” when General Pace and the Joint Chiefs apparently flat-out refused to draw up plans for nuking Iran. It will be interesting to see if they will honor their oaths to defend the Constitution from all enemies foreign and domestic. From this perspective it looks like the contrast has just been turned up a notch so the people can see the difference between Good and Evil a little more clearly. It is the TIME FOR CHOICES.

It kind of makes you wonder what the BankerZ really have in mind, doesn’t it? CIVIL WAR, perhaps? WAR, in any case, because that has always been their solution. “What if they gave a war and nobody came?” It’s certainly something to THINK about. This war can be fought in the minds with no need for bullets. The war is FOR THE MINDS and SOULS of the people and if that is kept in mind everything will work out just fine.

A massive, nation-wide protest against the Bush Administration is scheduled for October 5. Anyone who doesn’t recognize the danger of the current situation is not alive between the ears, so the turnout should be such that the mainstream media cannot overlook it entirely. Well, we certainly couldn’t ask for much more “interesting times” in which to live.

VK DURHAM—STILL NO TRUTH IN HER

According to VK, 118 nations have withdrawn from the UN—so you can know that never happened. She is referring to the Non-Aligned Movement countries, those which do not wish to be perceived as “clients” of either “the West” or the Russia-China alliance.

A meeting of the formerly marginalized NAM nations—including, now notably, the Philippines—was just held in Cuba. Mrs. Arroyo was in attendance and probably learned a few things. Days later the leader of Thailand—who was very popular with the poor people in his country—found himself ousted by coup. No doubt this was a message from the BankerZ to all of those in attendance.

Another absurdity VK presents is: “Commander HATONN aka Doris J. Ekker”. Anyone who ever met Doris knows that is not so. And certainly anyone with intelligence knows better. The Phoenix Journals are simply not the product of “terrestrial” intelligence.

Too much to do and too little time, it seems. Someone told us it would be like this! SALU.

Gold and Other Interesting Things

Part 5

In the last issue we jumped part of the way into the 1989 letter from Conrado Limcaoco to President Corazon Aquino. We have decided to do a double-take because the letter is tremendously important and really should be run in a manner that both shows what it is and allows for easy copying and distribution.

Accordingly, the following text reprises the comments of Commander Hatonn at the tail end of Chapter 9, which was part of the way through writing #2 of February 18, 2000.

*The MAJOR POINT is that the Marcos Gold is not properly related to the Yamashita Treasure fables. President Ferdinand E. Marcos “just happened” to be the attorney for the magnificent Taguean-Tallano estate ruled upon by Judge Agana in the 1970s. The records of those proceedings document 617,500 metric tons of gold pertaining to the estate. That is “only” about 19 times the total of all gold in the vaults of all central banks, globally.

We now resume the series, with proper (re-) emphasis of the Limcaoco letter to Aquino.

CHAPTER 10 THE BATTERING RAM

Since the search for the so-called Marcos Fortune began, the nation has been treated to all sorts of reports about cash being stashed in the banks of Switzerland, and gold bullion at Fort Knox, the Bank of England and many places in the Philippines. The diggings at Fort Santiago, sanctioned by no less than President Aquino’s National Security Adviser, showed how much the government put its faith in the story of the hidden gold treasure.

The diggings have stopped but, unknown to the public, a small group of men continues to operate at People’s Television 4 station under the tutelage of Conrado Limcaoco Jr., for no higher purpose than to pursue leads about the Yamashita Treasure with the assistance of Noel Soriano, the National Security Adviser of Cory Aquino.

In the last failed coup, military rebels claimed to have carted away from PTV-4, documents pertaining to this gold search. On the basis of these papers, the Rebolusyonaryong Alyansang Makabayan—Soldiers of the Filipino People Young Officers Union—claimed that the Limcaoco group had recovered some gold and had gathered facts that lead them to believe the Yamashita Treasure exists but they appeared determined to hide this from the Filipino people.

Limcaoco denies the charges. But he does not deny the existence of his work and what he has been doing. He says that the group’s task is to evaluate every bit of information that comes along, without prejudging it. Most of what comes along is mind-boggling, but Limcaoco says he is not prepared to reject anything.

Based on the group’s work, on October 10, 1989, Limcaoco’s staff prepared the draft of a report to President Aquino, which proposes to tell all. Limcaoco says he never signed the letter, and that it was not sent at all. But even without the final signature, and without it having been sent, the letter reads better than a story, whether factual or fictional.

The following is Limcaoco’s letter to Mrs. Aquino:

[At this point in the original text the letter now shown on pages 5-7 was presented. We have chosen to emphasize the letter by placing it separately and in letter format. Remember: The real function of the PCGG is to keep this information HIDDEN.]

NOTE: The small stocks being referred to here by Mr. Limcaoco are actually the so-called unrecorded accounts of Imelda and FM’s children. I was earlier told by one trustee that some of these smaller stocks were a part of Mrs. Marcos’ compromise deal with the U.S. Government, in exchange for her acquittal in the New York court.

The photocopy of Mr. Limcaoco’s letter to President Cory Aquino was given to me by a RAM officer who is now living in the USA and had a role to play among Col. Red Kapunan’s group, who took over Channel 4 at the height of the 1989 RAM-SFP-YOU coup d’etat. Some concerned citizens at hotel coffee shops have circulated other similar photocopies.

Even the defunct NEWSDAY dated February 27, 1990 printed the same.

Limcaoco’s Gold Recovery Program had successfully controlled the part of the Marcos gold, specifically that taken from the Napindan Channel. This was the very reason why the Yellow Army particularly saw to it that Channel 4 should be the first target area to recover. The barricades erected surrounding the TV station’s perimeter were dismantled only after “the loot” had been successfully brought out and transferred to “safer” ground. Thus, the persuasion flight of the U.S. Phantom Jet. See the whole story in succeeding chapters.

At this point, I would like to reiterate the misconception that the Marcos gold was the Yamashita Treasure. The mere mention of Sta. Romana’s name and other long existing gold accounts as having never been moved until the time Marcos gained control over them, including those at Fort Knox, strongly confirms that the Marcos gold had been successfully amassed from different sources.

1989 Letter to

Corazon Aquino

FOR YOUR EYES ONLY

10 October 1989

CORAZON C. AQUINO
President of the Philippines
Malacanang, Manila

Dear Mrs. President,

I have never wavered in my commitment to serve you and our people over the past few years. Even in our bleakest moments, I was confident we would triumph—and thus far, we have.

In the course of tracking down the right-wing military adventurists, a task which is continuing, we have unearthed a story—parts of which you may have heard before—but which we feel deserves a serious second glance at this particular historical conjuncture.

I ask you to please read through this report personally and not show or pass it on to other officials of this government until we have had the chance to meet, should you feel such a meeting is necessary after going through this.

Please suspend your judgment and disbelief and know that this report was written after much in-depth intelligence work and soul-searching on my part.

I. Background/Premises

Our work thus far supports the contention that the Yamashita Treasure does exist and appears to be the basis for the Marcos’ hidden wealth. What has been recovered and sequestered to date is not even the tip of the proverbial iceberg.

Over 90% of the world’s legal and illegal gold production were in Asia at the outbreak of World War II. Why? History will tell us why. From the galleon trade where spices and silk were traded for gold and other precious metals to the days before World War II when the Europeans, fearing a war in the West, moved their gold to their Asian colonies and former colonies for safekeeping. Thus, England moved their gold to Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong and Australia—France to Vietnam, and so forth. The rest you know. The Japanese brought the gold here and had to leave it here as they retreated in defeat.

From 1967 to 1973, Cipirino Garcia Sta. Romana found some of this gold and began shipping it out of the country, mostly to the PROC (Peoples Republic of China). In 1973/4, Sta. Romana signed a power of attorney over the gold to Marcos. More of the treasure was found with the help of treasure maps, foreign treasure hunters and the AFP (many of the retired generals now in Hawaii) in subsequent years. It was either (1) shipped out as is, (2) laundered via the Central Bank reminting facilities and through other means and then shipped out, or (3) reburied under the custodianship of trusted subalterns or heirs. Further, there reportedly is still 35-37% of the treasure still to be discovered—which the likes of Noel Soriano and company have set their eyes on.

II. The Global Implications

There is a forty (40) year period within which another country may claim treasure/property taken from it with another country. This period lapsed in November 1985.

An interesting question is—who owns the gold? Or better still—who wants the gold? Technically, now the people of the Philippines can lay some claim to the gold, assuming Marcos was not an innocent “finder” or “treasure hunter” entitled to a share, but instead used his position and influence to find it, ship it out and even sell some of it. To answer the questions—

The countries of Europe want the gold! They believe much of it was theirs to begin with. They want or need it so much they are even willing to buy some of it back. A 1983/84 sale we are reconstructing indicates that the 11 monarchs of Europe syndicated a deal involving over 120 banks with the Bank of England as the lead bank to buy back some of the gold. This transaction is known by the code JOB/HK/25, which I will detail later.

The 12 Asian countries conquered and plundered by Japan in World War II want the gold! They believe they have a stake in this as it was from their countries that the Japanese took it from. Marcos struck deals with many of these Asian countries. He shipped back some of the gold to them in return for the share in the booty. For example, the gold shipped back to Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia and India are reportedly split now at 70% for the particular country and 30% for Marcos. Japan allegedly has been promised 50% of Marcos’ 30% in these Asian settlements. Mrs. Yamashita has alleged shares in some of the gold stock in Asia. I will also detail this later in this report.

The United States of America wants some of the gold! The U.S. had virtually no gold of its own to begin with. They need it to back their currency and to stave off economic difficulties. Marcos shipped large stocks of gold to the U.S.A. Marcos allegedly committed to sell 300,000 metric tons of the gold to the U.S. Obviously, the Asian countries and the Europeans would look with displeasure at this—if they knew about it or could prove it. We have evidence that at least 2 major sales were negotiated with CIA and U.S. Treasury front organizations in 1983/4 and 1984/5. One of these transactions in 1984/5, code-named YAB42, was apparently aborted because of a difference in payment terms. The U.S. offered 20% in cash and 80% in U.S. Government securities.

Marcos wanted 80% in cash and 20% in securities. The amount involved is staggering. A taped conversation with one of the buyer negotiators indicates that senior executive officials of the U.S. Government during the period had to get Congressional approval to increase the U.S. foreign debt to accommodate this deal. As late as mid-1986, U.S. officials were trying to convince Marcos to conclude the deal in Hawaii. In 1987, feelers from their front organizations—e.g., Navegacion Global’s Mr. Bullock—were sent to this Government. (A letter from Mr. Bullock was received by Malacanang Records Office last October 8, 1987 and is enclosed as Annex A.) I believe some of our people may have even sat with Mr. Bullock. I do not think they knew what Bullock was really up to—or understood or believed him if he told them. We allegedly have gold sitting in U.S. depositories—which the U.S. Government wants badly. They reportedly cannot release their new “rainbow dollars” (multicolored dollar bills) that are already printed without this gold to back it up.

III. The Marcos Scheme of Things

Marcos compartmentalized this whole operation so that very few could piece it all together. We have managed to assemble quite a number of Marcos’ real operating people—those that shipped the gold out, found the buyers, negotiated the transactions. We are slowly piecing the puzzle together.

For each Marcos account, whether in cash or in bullion, there are assigned trustees and signatories—some of whom do not even know each other. There are secret bank/depository arrangements such as access code and security countersigns.

Before his death, Marcos organized what is called THE UMBRELLA, a network of 54 people whose task is to manage these assets in the event of his death. In theory, The Umbrella, not Mrs. Marcos or his children, would execute his will. At least two members of The Umbrella’s inner core of about one dozen are already working with us. The Umbrella has never been tested in action before. Marcos has never died before. Those who now work with me, tell me that the Chairman of The Umbrella is a very decent man who can be talked to on behalf of our nation. Apparently, there is no sharp cleavage between this group (family, heirs, followers, etc.) and Imelda’s. Most of what we know is FM’s, not Imelda’s. It is doubtful that even she would know all of FM’s holdings. The destabilization efforts will most probably come from Imelda’s camp—not surprisingly. Marcos is reported to have revised his will a few months before he died, asking former Solicitor General Estelito Mendoza to Hawaii for this purpose. Imelda was reported vehemently against the revision. We are trying, through The Umbrella, to get a copy of this will.

Exactly how much gold is involved? The estimates vary, and understandably so because of the complex shipping procedures and the compartmentalized nature of the operation.

I have seen documents saying that the gold under the control of The Umbrella (there are smaller stocks not reported to or controlled by The Umbrella) is in the neighborhood of 1.33 million metric tons (MT). Whether one believes this figure or a lesser figure is not material, given the magnitude of the entire scenario. One metric ton of gold is worth about $11 million. The Philippines’ annual gold production is estimated at between 40-60 metric tons. The world’s “legal” annual gold production, which is regulated by the London gold cartel so as not to upset gold prices as well as the value of currencies of the world, is estimated at between 1,200 to 1,400 metric tons.

So, where is the gold? How much of it have we traced thus far?

IV. Where is it?

Our sources left out the volume figures for countries other than the United States, which are relevant for understanding points raised in other sections of the report. We do have the detailed breakdown of these other accounts in the other countries but thought it best to omit these for now. The volume/amounts involved are staggering and may be subject to misinterpretation. There is admittedly a possibility in some instances of double-counting an entry because of the process of shipping and laundering the gold from one country to another. We can present the figures per country and per bank should you wish to see them.

Whatever volume figures are ultimately believed or proven, the magnitude remains astounding. The gold was shipped out in a span of more than a decade from the late sixties to the mid-eighties. In the later frenzied stages, from 1983-85, all forms of transport were used, from commercial and/or chartered ocean vessels and aircraft to the military aircraft of the Philippines.

A. Asia

1. PROC—in various depositories in Southern China & Switzerland; joint IRM/FM stock
—an amount allegedly given to Mao Tse Tung by IRM, 1973, now with Madam Mao
2. Singapore—in three banks in Singapore; banks and signatories identified —an amount reportedly given to Lee Kuan Yew by IRM in 1975, now in Tatlee Bank, Singapore
3. Malaysia—in Bank Negara (Central Bank), shipped 1973
4. Indonesia—in at least 4 banks in Jakarta, 9,600 MT sold in 1987 for FM to Union Bank of Switzerland
5. India—in various depositories; one 94-year-old trustee identified
6. Hong Kong—in 10 Hong Kong banks; banks, signatories, account numbers, etc. identified
7. Marianas—in private storage, IRM’s stock; trustee identified
8. Palau—in private storage, IRM’s stock, trustee identified
9. Philippines—4,600 pieces, 75 kgs. in 18 identified banks in Metro Manila —more in private storage, some identified
—more still to be dug up estimated at 400,000 MT

NOTES: Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5 & 6 which are FM stocks are probably covered by the 70-30 deal with each country. No. 1 still has to be studied further, as both IRM and Madame Mao are no longer in their respective nation’s political structures. Nos. 7 & 8 are also IRM stocks and are not probably covered by the 70-30 deal. Japan and Mrs. Yamashita have their stakes here as mentioned. Mrs. Yamashita is co-owner of some Hong Kong stock (already identified), Japan may expect 50% of FM’s 30% in these Asian settlements.

B. U.S. and Environs

1. 38,000 MT—various identified depository banks in New York
2. 72,000 MT—Fort Knox, account no. identified

3. 18,300 MT—in a New York bank; signatories, account codes identified
4. 62,000 MT—various identified depository banks, Canada, Nevada, California, and Panama

NOTES: These were shipped out covering a period of more than 10 years from 1973-1983. The MAFIA and the CIA helped ship it, including some monitored shipments through Clark Air Base. Nos. 1 & 2 formed the stock for the YAB42 transaction to be detailed later. Nos. 3 & 4 were also being sold in 1983-1985. It is doubtful any of these transactions were actually consummated.

5. Bahamas—Banco Bahamas; trustee identified
6. Panama—Bank of Panama; possible 1983 sales through Navegacion Global’s Bullock.

C. Europe

1. England—in 4 identified London depository banks; IRM’s stock
2. Switzerland—in various depository banks, some banks and signatories identified
3. FRG—in various depositories in Luxembourg and Bonn
—Fabian Ver and Edna Camcam’s account, some lent to back up FRG currency

D. Africa

—FM owns 40% of 4 leading gold mining and processing firms.

V. Some Transactions Worth Looking At

We must differentiate between the movement of the stock, its ultimate destination and its final disposition in the event it was sold. The movement often required numerous transit points and sometimes “laundering” services like those provided by Johnson Matthey reminting refineries in England and Switzerland, or by the Golden Eagle reminting plant in Hong Kong and even possibly by our own Central Bank refinery in Quezon City. The original form of the treasure was varied and often indicated the countries of origin—e.g. 75 kg, 91.33 kg bars with various “hallmarks” like “Sumatra-Lloyd”, a dragon, AAA, etc. Internationally, the 12.5 kg. GLD or Good London Delivery bar is the recognized unit of gold that is numbered and registered in the London Commodity Computer by batches with indicated owners. These GLDs in batches are covered by Gold Bullion Certificates (GBCs) that are also registered in the London computer. If GLDs are bought and sold, it is often not necessary to effect a physical transfer of the stock, but merely to credit and debit, or swap equivalent currency or other GLDs or GBCs.

In 1983, FM gave the signal to start selling his gold in grand fashion. This was perhaps triggered by the unrest and re-awakening after 21 August. Literally hundreds of gold buyers, traders, brokers and middlemen converged in Manila in the years 1983-85. FM issued “mandates” to select people to sell this gold for him. (A sample of a “mandate” granted to a certain Konsehala Candelaria V. Santiago is enclosed as Annex B.) Others managed to secure “sub-mandates” from the original mandate holders. Still others produced “fake mandates” that they used to con some buyers with to give them hefty advances. We have some of the real mandate holders working with us.

In passing, today there are over 160 gold buyers and brokers now in Manila, reminiscent of the 1983-85 years anticipating gold sales by FM heirs or this Government’s representatives. I understand a few “looseleaf” pieces of 75 kg. bars have already been sold.

Three schemes to sell the gold were conceived in this period. First, the CB Treasury Bills method, where gold buyers agreed to purchase CB Treasury Bills equivalent to the gold they were buying. Using this second method, it could well be that many of our debts are not really debts but are already paid for in gold. How else can one explain the seemingly [—————2 lines missing—————] loan proceeds for personal ends. Our sources say that the very top echelon of the WB and the IMF know of this. Why are they now putting on the screws for our loans? Possibly because we have not concluded YAB42. Third, the direct sale method, where after a while the sheer magnitude of the gold being sold could no longer be sanitized by either of the two methods described earlier, outright sales agreements for gold were negotiated.

We have a good deal of documentary evidence to prove that gold transactions were, indeed, negotiated by front organizations as well as legitimate banks in those years.

To highlight a few—

1. The YAB42 transaction. This was negotiated in late 1984, early 1985. As reported, this was initiated by the U.S. Government through the U.S. Treasury and the CIA. Front organizations and personalities were used to make the deal ostensibly a non-governmental transaction. Dr. Ole Bay (YAB is BAY backwards) was the main trustee of the buyers’ group. (A Trust Exchange Agreement and a Funding Trust Pay Order between seller and buyer in transaction code YAB42 are enclosed as Annex C.) Navegacion Global SA, Dupont and other CIA conduits were used.

Forty-two (42) other major trusts were tapped to help fund this purchase. Senior U.S. officials even called FM to confirm the veracity of the mandate holder negotiating for “the seller”. Close to 100 prime banks pledged their participation in helping fund the purchase. The U.S. offered 20% cash or $200 billion through these trusts and banks and 80% in U.S. Government securities. Using the $200 billion cash as 20% of the transaction, this transaction would then involve 110,000 MT or over $1 trillion. The stock for this transaction appears to be the 38,000 MT in New York and the 72,000 MT in Ft. Knox, which total exactly 110,000 MT. In June 1986, U.S. Government representatives reportedly asked FM to conclude YAB42 and turn over the 72,000 MT in Ft. Knox. He declined. Earlier, FM signed over the 38,000 MT in New York which the U.S. Government found insufficient. In 1987, Navegacion Global’s Bruce Bullock tried to make contact with this government, possibly to conclude this transaction.

2. In 1983-84, we have evidence of another transaction involving a minimum 62,000 MT, up to a maximum of 81,000 MT, negotiated with Frank Higdon, another reported CIA intermediary. (Investment loans offered to the Philippine Government which is repayable with 62,321 MT of gold bars is enclosed as Annex D.) The stock for this appears to be the 62,000 MT in 4 locations in mainland America plus the 18,300 MT in Citibank, New York. It is doubtful this transaction was consummated, as these stocks have reportedly been recently verified to still be in place.
3. The JOB/HK/25 transaction: In 1983-84, 29,327 MT was reportedly sold to the 11 monarchs of Europe with over 120 prime banks participating with the Bank of England as the lead buyer’s bank. The proceeds are allegedly sitting in ledger credits to the seller in the sellers’ banks and even in some buyers’ banks. The PNB Singapore and New York branches were actively involved in this transaction and the key officers of these banks then can reportedly identify where these seller credits are located. In commissions alone, there is a reported P200B/$10 billion commission for the transaction’s brokers credited to the PNB through the CB sent from the Chemical Bank of New York. There is an additional $63 million in commissions for this transaction at the AMEX Bank in Hong Kong. The brokers who are claiming these commissions are with us providing us information on this deal and are willing to negotiate with this Government.
4. The Central Bank of the Philippines may not be able to balance their books as far as gold is concerned. A July report by a senior Central Bank official to the PCGG prompted by preliminary information on this project we passed on to the PCGG does not reconcile with other CB data we have on gold transactions for the 1984-85 period alone.

Further, our sources say that there are at least 5,000 MT of gold in the CB vaults in Manila and Quezon City. A recent Chronicle article indicates that COA may be getting some wind of this. (The newspaper reports that the Central Bank has violated audit standards such as under-recording of its actual gold acquisitions and the same is enclosed as Annex E.) We have the GBC number of this gold in the CB vaults. Our sources say that senior CB officials may have begun to cover their tracks by moving the gold out or logging it under someone else’s account number. Very simple, let us conduct a surprise physical count of the gold in both CB vaults. If this is true, without working on the rest of what we have uncovered, then this Government will be richer by $55 billion.

The original GBC was for seven sub-lots of 1,000 MT each. Sub-lots 2 and 4 have already been disposed of, leaving a balance of 5,000 MT. Remember, our total annual gold production is only 40-60 MT and our declared gold reserves are possibly only in the hundreds of metric tons.

5. We have evidence to support the October 1983 transaction of 1,000 MT of FM gold deposited at a PCIB branch under FM trustee Alice Lazo (deceased). The buyer was Mr. Van Dreck of a front organization called MERCANTUS. (A PCI Bank offer to sell gold to Mercantus International Establishment and an irrevocable Purchase Order by the latter are enclosed as Annex F.) What business does a local bank have keeping and selling 1,000 MT of gold? Apparently, this transaction was consummated.

These are but some of the transactions we have been able to piece together. We do have some documentary evidence, but our main sources are testimonies from the people who were actually involved in these transactions who are now cooperating with us.

VI. Evaluation and Assessment

We have substantial documentation that, by their sheer volume, indicate these gold transactions did take place.

More important, we now have in our protective custody key actors that actually helped FM on an operational level. Their testimonies have helped us piece this extremely complex puzzle together. More importantly, they are willing to assist in the recovery effort of the Government. They are key actors—trustees part-owners, signatories [_____missing line_____].

Why are they helping us? Partly out of a sense of patriotism. They are not rich—many of their relatives are impoverished. They believe that it would be criminal to allow the nation to suffer in economic deprivation when something can be done relatively quickly to correct it. Quite frankly, they also hope for a just reward to be granted by this Government for their assistance together with the necessary immunities from suit and documents to allow them to spend their reward or commission. This is one of the aspects needing your approval—the amounts or percentages should be negotiated on a case to case basis depending on the assistance given and the amount to be recovered.

They have put their trust in me for the moment. Loyal FM and IRM henchmen would definitely not look kindly on their efforts to assist us.

We would have proceeded to develop this project further, except that certain factors compelled me to bring this matter to your attention now.

First, FM died—unleashing a host of now unpredictable events that may make purposive action on our end moot and academic. What was in his will? Will The Umbrella or can The Umbrella execute his will? What will IRM and his other relatives do? What will the host of account trustees and signatories do? What will the banks and depositories do? We are trying to ascertain the answers to some of these questions.

Second, the project has grown to a scope now requiring your knowledge and, to use an FM term, your “mandate” to proceed in directions you agree with. I am not funded for an operation of this scope. To develop this project to this point has cost nearly P300,000 of borrowed money. We now have our “assets” in various safehouses and lodging areas. Soon, one of our “assets” will go abroad to contact The Umbrella’s Chairman to check the contents of FM’s will and his willingness to help our government and our people. I am totally loyal to our people’s interest through you and word may get to you from other sources that I am in touch with “loyalists”. I need you to know what it is I am doing.

Third, you are scheduled to take your second state visit to the U.S. next month. Some of our information may have impact on that visit. At the very least, you are appraised of what we have gathered to fathom any subtle messages that the U.S.

1989 Letter from Conrado Limcaoco, Jr. to President Corazon Aquino

officials may send to you. At most, we may be able to put together enough conclusive data to allow you to bring the matter up to President Bush, if not in November, [then] at some other opportune moment.

What do we have as far as the recovery of FM’s ill-gotten wealth? A few hundred million dollars from deals with overt FM cronies, the sale of some identified FM assets (buildings, paintings, and other properties) and court cases here, in Switzerland, and in the United States.

Lately, there are those who propose a “master settlement” approach meaning one negotiation with possibly IRM or the representatives of FM. This “master settlement” may involve the return of FM’s remains and/or some of his exiled relatives and henchmen. I agree with you, these conditions should be rejected at the moment for national security reasons. Also, one negotiation will not work because those that propose it are, at best, making “educated guesses” about the amount of the ill-gotten wealth that is the basis for negotiation. The PCGG has even recently proposed holding public discussion groups to try to get more information on the whereabouts of the wealth and amounts involved.

Lastly, it is doubtful that IRM or any one of the FM heirs would know all or even most of his wealth, much less make a full disclosure of what little they may know during these negotiations. A “master settlement” on the wealth by those that propose it presently may not result in a fair deal for our Government.

On the other hand, negotiated settlements on a case to case basis—based on more precise intelligence information and with the cooperation of the principals involved (the trustees, banks/depositors) in a given case or account—may lead to faster and fairer results for our Government. The ex-FM operatives we are talking to are not politically motivated and place no political pre-conditions (e.g. the return of FM’s remains or relatives) on assisting us.

Even if a fraction of what we have uncovered is true, moving on it correctly and recovering some of it for our people could alter the course of our history.

VII. Proposed Courses of Action and Vital Considerations

1. Agree to a detailed presentation only to you on what we have uncovered to date.

2. Allow us to continue the project to pinpoint concrete action proposals for your approval. In this regard, a reporting/feedback mechanism directly to you must be set up. Some funding support is also needed, even at this preparatory stage.

3. The concrete action proposals will probably take the form of proposed negotiated settlements with the parties involved—aimed at recovering FM’s share for our Government and our people. Each negotiated settlement will be different in nature. Some may even be on a country to country basis, requiring your direct intervention (e.g. the U.S. and some of the Asian countries). Most will be between specific banks, trustees, and signatories and our government. I will detail some possible negotiated settlement formulas when we get to meet.

4. There are some action proposals that can be done here immediately like the Central Bank gold and the PNB/CB sale proceeds and commissions outlined earlier. Due to the sensitive nature of these actions and the possible involvement of senior officials of this and the previous government, I propose we discuss this in private.

5. On the local front, some of the trustees/owners/caretakers of the gold already discovered but stored here in our country have come to me to explore the possibilities of negotiated settlements. Initially, some 3,000 MT of gold has been offered. I have been told that if this succeeds, there is much more. I have asked that they bring me proof positive—gold bars to show you and a visit by me to the site of the gold stockpile—before I bring this matter up to you for your consideration.

6. In all negotiated settlements, we must exact a commitment and activate a monitoring mechanism to ensure that the monies released to parties other than our Government are not used to destabilize our Government.

7. Trust is a vital dimension to this undertaking! Our newfound “partners”—the FM trustees, signatories and caretakers have placed their trust in this Government through me and you—whom they believe I report to directly. Some of them have had “sad experiences” with others in our Government, the details of which I would rather discuss privately. I ask in turn for your continued trust and guidance without which we cannot proceed with this task nor hope to succeed. Greater men than I have risked their names and reputations on parts of this puzzle—some have failed, others have had dubious interests at heart. I find myself in a situation where I must try to see this through its conclusions—because success means a better life for all of us.

Thu., Sept. 28, 2006, Year 20, Day 43
Manila, Philippines

RE: Foundation, GAIA, et. al.

Well, Ron got baptized today. His very first typhoon—and the biggest here since 2002. Did a lot of damage. Ripped the roof off part of the Gilarmi ground-floor utility area and threw it out in the street. The construction of the pedestrian underpass across Ayala Ave. (that Doris looked forward to so we wouldn’t have to dodge busses, taxis, etc., on the 8-lane crossing with no light) has a lot of construction equipment and traffic control panels that got scattered all over, among which landed the Gilarmi roof and seems to have been carted off by the construction men in their clean-up. Anyway, Ludy reports that the maintenance guys at the Gilarmi can’t find their roof—looks to be about 30 X 40 feet lost. The Satellite shows that the eye of the Phoon has moved on toward Vietnam so the worst should be over here. We will probably see lingering thunderstorms and rain for a couple of days; school was closed today and tomorrow.

FOUNDATION

Our regular Tuesday morning meeting went very well. We seem to have picked up two new attendees that will add to our contacting ability and our engineering ability. The engineer is working with the Foundation attorney to transfer the first piece of property to the Foundation in order to establish the procedure and precedent.

One of the properties that has been legally re-titled to the Tallano Estate is being claimed by the University of the Philippines (UP). Professor Ramirez, who used to teach there, will contact them to see if they would like to clear up their title. A big church also wants the property so if the UP doesn’t act, we have an alternative lever. If the UP does want the property, GAIA can help them pay for it (at no cost to them except helping GAIA get its DEEDs approved for use).

TONGA

Nothing heard from them.

PAPUA NEW GUINEA

No progress (that we know about).

SUDAN

It seems Sudan edges a bit closer to a total disaster each week. An article on the net just today has revealed that there is much oil under Darfur—which of course we had suspected. It is fairly clear that somebody is bankrolling the “rebels” to keep the situation stirred up. Bona had also said the Arabs (part of Darfur area borders Egypt) want the oil, also, so that is the formula for genocide and UN intervention.

PAKISTAN/KASHMIR

No progress (that we know about).

SOUTH AFRICA

Pretty quiet in Carol’s department. She has been in Northern California for a couple of weeks and is now in Germany where Heinz’s relatives live.

OIC

It looks like the “peace accord” with the MILF is coming apart due to some double-dealing on the part of GMA’s Administration. We are pretty sure that they know about the Annotation from 1903 granting the three Sultans (at that time) ownership of a lot of land on Mindanao and all the way to Sulu and Sabah, of which the MNLF was unaware at the time they made their agreement in 1996. The current impasse is over “indigenous” land.

PHILIPPINE POLITICS

When I look at that heading I nearly throw up my hands in frustration. Whole newspapers are written on the subject every day and what might mean something one day changes by the next. This is surely advanced of Politics 101 and to follow it requires real concentration. For instance: 4 U.S. Marines here on a training mission about a year ago went on a party their last night and picked up a 22-year-old Filipina in a bar. They had a Filipino driver and his van and one of the Marines made out with her, or tried, in the farthest back seat. There was an altercation of some sort after which she was left, pantyless, it was claimed, at the side of the road. She yelled rape and the 4 Marines have been held here at the U.S. Embassy ever since so that they could be tried in the Makati Court. They were at Subic Bay but the defense claimed they couldn’t get a fair trial so the case was moved to Makati.

On another front a guy named Joc Joc Bolante converted about $60 million of funds (meant to buy fertilizer and distribute it to the farmers) to be actually distributed to a number of Representatives and Local Politicians to be used to buy votes for GMA in 2004. When this got in the news the Senate invited Joc Joc to answer some questions “in view of needed legislation”. He ignored their invitation and they cited him for contempt and issued a warrant for his arrest. When they asked the U.S. Embassy to help locate him, the Embassy cancelled his Visa so when he ignored that and landed in LA, the U.S. Immigration Service arrested him as an illegal alien and he has been incarcerated ever since—although they did move his case to Chicago at the request of his high-powered Chicago attorneys. This guy’s testimony could put GMA not only out of office but in jail for the rest of her life, when added to some other of her alleged plunder.

The mother of the rapee has leaked to the press that Joc Joc’s attorneys are dickering with the government to kill the rape case and turn the Marines loose in exchange for giving Joc Joc back his visa so he can stay in the States out of reach of the Senate. We can imagine the U.S. is enjoying having GMA over a barrel since she delights in “playing the China card”. Turns out there are more than one way to sacrifice the lives of Marines. And meanwhile, there are serious things going on like who gets to pay for the oil spill down in the Visayas that has put some 20,000 families out of the fishing business for, probably, several years to come. Mt. Mayon seems to have settled down enough that those folks can go back to their little farms and gardens.

PERSONAL STUFF

Ludy finished computer school and has enrolled in an English course that is more typically used to tune up the skills of people going into the “outsourcing” occupation. We also have her typing some things for the paper for typing practice.

The electricity went off completely, even the Tuscany generator, so I quit and went to bed back at about So Africa. This is being written Friday, September 29, the day after the Phoon. Today we can see the damage was worse than we thought. A big section of a new building’s metal roof, maybe 20 X 200, was ripped up and folded back. It is part of the cover of a series of movie theaters. Next to that is an area being cleared to put another high-rise that now looks like a war zone. They have brought in two big tracked back-hoes and a 14 wheeler to haul away the trash that was blown into the area. The streets here are lined with trees, mostly acacia, and 1/4 to 1/3 of them have been uprooted. All of those left standing have most of the leaves whipped off and damaged branches. Painful to see.

Going into the 2nd night (it is dark at 6 PM here) there are still several million people in Metro Manila without power and the devastation was even worse southeast of here where the Phoon was a “4” and had dropped to a “3” here. It is expected to restrengthen over the warm South China Sea and belt Vietnam as a 4.

Our experience with GHR has been very positive. Our attorney, Judge Reyes, has been having a variety of health problems, prostate, etc., and Ron got him to do a 3-week parasite cleanse. That helped but nothing like his first week on GHR. He looked better when we met on Tuesday than I have ever seen him and he had plenty of energy. There were glowing reports from the others (we have 11 on GHR) so we remain enthusiastic about it.

SUMMARY

Visible progress is slow; Ron assures me, as he has you in his lead article last issue of the paper, that the awareness campaign is taking off on dozens of fronts and is on or ahead of schedule—whatever that is. 9/11, “their” great masterstroke, seems to be what will undo them with the American people and of course that is what we pray and work for.

The Secret Covenant

This chillingly satanic presentation, which came to us from Australia by way of Bankindex.com, last ran in the July 9, 2003 issue.

An illusion it will be, so large, so vast it will escape their perception. Those who will see it will be thought of as insane. We will create separate fronts to prevent them from seeing the connections between us. We will behave as if we are not connected to keep the illusion alive. Our goal will be accomplished one drop at a time so as to never bring suspicion upon ourselves. This will also prevent them from seeing the changes as they occur. We will always stand above the relative field of their experience, for we know the secrets of the absolute. We will work together always and remain bound by blood and secrecy. Death will come to him who speaks. We will keep their lifespan short and their minds weak while pretending to do the opposite. We will use our knowledge of science and technology in subtle ways so that they will never see what is happening. We will use soft metals, ageing accelerators, and sedatives in food and water, also in the air. They will be blanketed by poisons everywhere they turn. The soft metals will cause them to lose their minds. We will promise to find a cure from our many fronts, yet we will feed them more poison. The poisons will be absorbed through their skin and mouths; they will destroy their minds and reproductive systems. From all this, their children will be born dead, and we will conceal this information. The poisons will be hidden in everything that surrounds them, in what they eat, breathe drink and wear. We must be ingenious in dispensing these poisons, for they can see far. We will teach them that the poisons are good, with fun images and musical tones. They will see our products being used in film and will grow accustomed to them and never know their true effect. When they give birth we will inject poisons into the blood of their children and convince them it is for their help. We will start early on, when their minds are young; we will target their children with what children love most, sweet things. When their teeth decay we will fill them with metals that will kill their mind and steal their future. When their ability to learn has been affected, we will create medicine that will make them sicker and cause other diseases for which we will create more medicine. We will render them docile and weak before us by our power. They will grow depressed, slow and obese, and when they come to us for help, we will give them more poison. We will focus their attention towards money and material goods so they may never connect with their inner self. We will distract them with fornication, external pleasures and games so that they will never be oneness with the oneness of it all. Their minds will belong to us and they will do as we say. If they refuse, we will find ways to implement mind-altering technology into their lives. We will use fear as our weapon. We will establish their governments and opposites within. We will own both sides. We will always hide our objective but carry out our plan. They will perform the labor for us and we shall prosper from their toil. Our families will never mix with theirs. Our blood must be pure always, for it is the way. We will make them kill each other when it suits us. We will keep them separated by the ones with dogma and religion. We will control all aspects of their lives and tell them what to think and how. We will guide them kindly and gently letting them think that they are guiding themselves. We will foment animosity between them through our factions. When a light shall shine among them, we shall extinguish it by ridicule, or death, whichever suits us best. We will make them rip each other's hearts apart and kill their own children.

We will accomplish this by using hate as our ally, anger as our friend. The hate will blind them totally, and never shall they see that from their conflicts we emerge as their rulers. They will be busy killing each other. They will bathe in their own blood and kill their neighbors for as long as we see fit. We will benefit greatly from this, for they will not see us, for they cannot see us. We will continue to prosper from their wars and from their deaths. We shall repeat this over and over until our ultimate goal is accomplished. We will continue to make them live in fear and anger through images and sounds. We will use all the tools we have to accomplish this. The tools will be provided by their labor. We will make them hate themselves and their neighbors. We will always hide the divine truth from them, that we are all one. This they must never know! They must never know that color is an illusion as they must always think they are not equal. Drop by drop, drop by drop we will advance our goal. We will take over their land, resources and wealth to exercise total control over them. We will deceive them into accepting laws that will steal the little freedom they will have. We will establish a money system that will imprison them forever, keeping them and their children in debt. When they shall band together, we shall accuse them of crimes and tell a different story to the world, for we shall own all the media. We will use our media to control the flow of information and the sentiment in our favor. When they shall rise up against us we will crush them like insects, for they are less than that. They will be helpless to do anything, for they will have no weapons. We will recruit some of their own to carry out our plans, we will promise them eternal life, but eternal life they will never have, for they are not of us. The recruits will be called "initiates" and will be indoctrinated to believe false rites of passage to higher realms. Members of these groups will think they are one of us while never knowing the truth. They must never learn this truth, for they will turn against us. For their work they will be rewarded with earthly things and titles, but never will they become immortal and join us; never will they receive the light and travel the stars. They will never reach the higher realms, for the killing of their own kind will prevent passage to the realm of enlightenment. This they will never know. The truth will be hidden in their face, so close they will not be able to focus on it until it is too late. Oh yes, so grand the illusion of freedom will be, that they will never know that they are our slaves. When all is in place, the reality that we have created for them will own them. This reality will be their prison. They will live in self-delusion. When our goal is accomplished, a new era of domination will begin. Their minds will be bound by their beliefs, the beliefs we have established from time immemorial. But if they ever find out they are our equal, we shall perish. THIS THEY MUST NEVER KNOW. If they ever find out that together they can vanquish us, they will take action. They must never, ever find out what we have done, for if they do, we shall have no place to run, for it will be easy to see who we are once the veil has fallen. Our actions will have revealed who we are and they will hunt us down and no person shall give us shelter. This is the secret covenant by which we shall live the rest of our present and future lives, for this reality will transcend many generations and life spans. This covenant is sealed by blood, our blood. We, the ones from heaven to earth came. This covenant must NEVER, EVER be known to exist. It must NEVER, EVER be written or spoken of—for if it is, the [conscience] it will spawn will release the fury of the PRIME CREATOR upon us and we shall be cast to the depths from whence we came and remain there until the end time of infinity itself.

Final Warning: Part 7

The World is absolutely awash in the truth these days, it appears, but it is still very helpful to get comprehensive, well-researched background information such as that which is provided in this serialization of daring author David Rivera's Final Warning: A History of the New World Order.

THE CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT

Andrew Carnegie (1835-1919) came to the United States as a poor immigrant from Scotland in 1848, and never became an American citizen. He built the Carnegie Steel Corporation, which he sold to J. P. Morgan for $500 million, who incorporated the company into the United States Steel Corporation in 1901, enabling Carnegie to retire and concentrate on his philanthropic activities.

In 1889, William Torrey Harris, the U.S. Commissioner of Education, told a high-ranking railroad official that the schools were being scientifically designed not to overeducate children. He believed that the schools should alienate children from their parents and religion. In 1890, Carnegie wrote eleven essays which were published under the title The Gospel of Wealth. The underlying premise was that the free-enterprise system had been locked-up by men such as himself, J.P. Morgan, and John D. Rockefeller, and that they not only owned everything, but also controlled the government. His worry, was that subsequent generations would realize this, and work against them. His solution was to control the education system, and to create a direct relationship between the amount of education a person had, and how good of a job they could get. Therefore, this created a motivation for children to attend school, where they would be taught only what the social engineers of this country wanted them to know.

This was to be accomplished by instituting the educational system developed by Prussia between 1808 and 1819. German Philosopher Johann Gottlieb Fichte (1762-1814) in his "Addresses to the German Nation" (1807-08) said that he did not trust parental influence and preferred education to be carried out in a "separate and independent" environment controlled by the state. Prussia became the first government to have compulsory education, setting up a three-tiered system. The children of the elite, about one-half of one percent, went to schools called academies, and were taught to think and be independent. About 5-1/2% went to Realschulen, where they were partially taught how to think. The other 94% went to Volksschulen, where the idea of being a follower and a good citizen was stressed.

This system of education was brought to the United States through the effort of a coalition of big business led by Carnegie, J.P. Morgan, and Rockefeller; major universities like Columbia, Johns Hopkins, the University of Wisconsin, the University of Michigan, and the University of Chicago; and large foundations like Carnegie, Rockefeller, Ford, Mellon, Peabody, Sage, and Whitney. The success in creating an organized compulsory educational system in this country has allowed the elite of this country to prevent each generation from truly understanding how this country is actually run, thus keeping them from doing anything about it. This 'dumbing-down' has enabled the government to more easily assimilate the people of this country into a population which can be easily deceived and controlled.

John Dewey, known as the "Father of American Education", was a Socialist, and a founding member of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society (who changed their name to League for Industrial Democracy, which he became the President of), and one of the 34 signers of the Humanist Manifesto in 1933. In his My Pedagogic Creed (1897) and The School and Society (1899), he expressed his belief at how the schools should be instrumental in developing a socialist society in America. His system of 'progressive education' would deemphasize academics, and use psychology to do that. The July 1908 Hibbert Journal quoted him as saying: "Our schools ... are performing an infinite significant religious work. They are promoting the social unity out of which in the end genuine religious unity must grow."

With a grant of $27,000,000, Carnegie established the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, in 1900, which became the Carnegie-Mellon University in 1967, when it merged with the Mellon Institute, which had been founded in 1913. In 1905, he established the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, which, within a 20 year period, gave over $20 million to retiring teachers (and widows) at universities and technical schools in the United States and Canada to support the profession and encourage higher education. In 1904, in the U.S., and 1908 in the United Kingdom, he set up the Carnegie Hero Fund to reward heroic deeds by civilian citizens, and gave out close to $500,000,000. He also established the world-renowned Carnegie Hall, and over 2,000 public libraries. He was also a major supporter of the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama, which was founded by Booker T. Washington.

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace was established in 1910, to promote international peace and bring about the abolition of war; and the Carnegie Corporation of New York in 1911 (with a grant of $125,000,000), was set up "to promote the advancement and diffusion of knowledge and understanding among the people of the United States by aiding technical schools, institutions of higher learning, libraries, scientific research, hero funds, useful publications, and by such other agencies and means as shall time to time be found appropriate therefore".

With such a history of philanthropic contributions, the Carnegie Endowment, on its face, appeared to be innocent. However, its goal of promoting international peace, was just a ruse to disguise its true purpose to promote one-world government.

The first three Presidents of the group were: Elihu Root, socialist and former Secretary of State under President Theodore Roosevelt, who was a leading advocate of the League of Nations; he was succeeded in 1925 by Nicholas Murray Butler, the former President of Columbia University; and then Alger Hiss, the communist who helped found the United Nations. Their President during the 1960s, was Joseph E. Johnson (a member of the CFR), a close friend of Hiss, who was known as the "permanent unofficial Secretary of State". He worked closely with the Donner Foundation, which financed the Temple of Understanding, an occult organization connected to the Lucis Trust in England (a group of Satan worshipers with ties to the Theosophical Society). Members of the Temple met at the Endowment headquarters in the United Nations Plaza. Among their members: Robert McNamara (Secretary of Defense under Kennedy and Johnson), Eleanor Roosevelt, Thomas Watson (President of IBM), Max Lerner, James Linen (of Time-Life), Norman Thomas, James A. Pike, Ellsworth Bunker, and John D. Rockefeller IV.

The 1934 Yearbook of the Carnegie Endowment, said that they were "an unofficial instrument of international policy, taking up here and there the ends of international problems and questions which the governments find it difficult to handle, and ... reaching conclusions ... which officially find their way into the policies of government".

The 1947 Yearbook recommended:

"...that the Endowment work for the establishment of the United Nations headquarters in New York ... that the Endowment construct its programs primarily for the support of the United Nations ... that the Endowment's programs should be broadly educational in order to encourage public understanding and support of the United Nations at home and abroad ... that Endowment supported organizations such as International Relations Clubs in colleges, the Foreign Policy Association, the Institute of Pacific Relations, the Council on Foreign Relations, and local community groups be utilized to achieve these goals, of achieving broader understanding and support for the United Nations."

The Carnegie Endowment and Rockefeller Foundation gave over $3,000,000 to the Institute of Pacific Relations, who used the media to convince the American people that the Communists in China were agricultural reformers. The Endowment has also given money to the Council on Foreign Relations, the Aspen Institute for Humanistic Studies, the United Nations Association of the U.S., and the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation.

Norman Dodd, who in July 1953, was appointed as the research director of the Special Congressional Committee to Investigate Tax-Exempt Foundations, said he discovered that the oldest tax exempt foundations were established before the initiation of income taxes, therefore they existed for a different purpose. He examined minutes of the Board of Trustees, and found that for the first year, the members concentrated on whether there was any means more effective than war to alter the life of the people of a nation. They concluded that to get America into an upcoming war, they had to control the diplomatic machinery of the State Department.

Dodd discovered that all high-level appointments in the State Department took place only after they had been cleared through a group called the Council of Learned Societies, which was established by the Carnegie Endowment. He saw in the minutes of the Carnegie Board, record of a note to President Wilson, requesting that he "see to it that the War does not end too quickly".

Syndicated columnist Joseph Kraft, writing in Harper's in July 1958, said that records indicated that the Carnegie trustees hoped to involve the U.S. in a world war to set the stage for world government. Dodd said they wanted "to bring the idea of 'one-world' (government) to the point where it is acceptable to the people of this country. That is the primary aim, and everything that has happened since then is a means to that one end." Their memos indicated that they believed their efforts were successful, because the war "had brought about a change in the American psyche".

In the archives of the Endowment, Dodd discovered that they felt that the "only way to maintain control of the population was to obtain control of education in the U.S. They realized this was a prodigious task so they approached the Rockefeller Foundation with the suggestion that they go in tandem and that portion of education which could be considered as domestically oriented be taken over by the Rockefeller Foundation and that portion which was oriented to international matters be taken over by the Carnegie Endowment." Dodd said that "they decided that the success of this program lay in an alteration in the matter in which American history was to be presented."

The Guggenheim Foundation agreed to award fellowships to historians recommended by the Carnegie Endowment, and a group of 20 were assembled, and sent to London, where they were briefed and became founding members of the American History Association. In 1928, the A.H.A. was given a grant of $400,000 by Carnegie to write a 7-volume study on the direction the nation was to take. The secret of its success would be that it would be done gradually.

Rene Wormser, legal counsel to Reece’s Committee, said that the Carnegie Endowment was attempting to mold the minds of our children by deciding “what should be read in our schools and colleges”. He also described how the Rockefeller Foundation, the Ford Foundation, the Carnegie Endowment, and the Carnegie Corporation jointly sponsor conferences to push the goals of the United Nations.

The investigation by Reece’s Special House Committee, found that the Carnegie Corporation financed the writing and publication of the Proper Study of Mankind by Stuart Chase, the book praised by the communist agents Harry Dexter White and Lauchlin Currie, which outlined an “ideal” society in which the individual is suppressed. Over 50,000 copies of the book were distributed by the foundation to libraries and scholars. They also gave a $340,000 grant to print a 17-volume study on American education by Dr. George Counts, which was later called “an educational program for a socialist America”.

THE FORD FOUNDATION

In 1903, Henry Ford, Sr. (1863-1947) founded the Ford Motor Company, and in 1907, he bought out all of his partners, so his family would control the entire company. In 1924, he was so popular, that various polls indicated that he would be elected President if he ran.

In 1936, with his son Edsel, he established the Ford Foundation as an inheritance tax dodge, which he saw as a plot to take money away from Americans; and for his family to retain control after his death. An enemy of the establishment, Ford wanted American hero Charles A. Lindbergh (who supported the conservative ‘America First’ movement) to be the Director of his Foundation, but Lindbergh refused. Ford, and his son Edsel, died before the Foundation’s leadership could be placed in safe hands, and control passed to Edsel’s widow, and grandson Henry Ford II (who later married into the Rothschild family), who brought in such ‘insiders’ as William Benton, Dr. Robert M. Hutchins (who became Associate Director), and Paul G. Hoffman (who became the Chief Administrator).

The Ford Foundation, with assets of $4 billion, is the world’s largest endowment. They own 90% of Ford Motor’s stock. Ford also established the Edison Institute; and the Henry Ford Hospital, which gave two-thirds of its grants to education, and one-third to communications, public health, economic development, science, engineering, senior citizens, the humanities and the arts.

The Foundation financed a Black voter registration drive in Cleveland, which helped elect the city’s first Black mayor ($175,000); financed the pro-Castro Mexican-American Youth Organization in Texas; gave grants to the Marxist Black group known as C.O.R.E. ($475,000); the leftist National Students Association ($315,000); the socialist Citizens Crusade Against Poverty ($508,500); the communist-controlled Southern Christian Leadership Conference ($230,000); the leftist Urban League ($1,600,000); the pro-Vietcong American Friends Service Committee, which encouraged pacifism, resistance to military service and preparedness, and conscientious objectors ($100,000); National Council of Churches ($108,000); Anti-Defamation League ($35,000); National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice ($552,000);

American Jewish Congress ($100,000); American Council for Nationalities Service ($200,000); National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing ($162,000); Council on Foreign Relations ($1,000,000); Adlai E. Stevenson Institute of International Affairs ($1,000,000); UNESCO ($200,000); United Nations Association ($150,000); Institute for International Education ($1,625,000); American Assembly ($166,000); World Affairs Council ($102,000); Congress for Cultural Freedom ($1,500,000); the Committee for Economic Development’s Foreign Policy Research ($275,000); National Committee on U.S.-China Relations ($250,000); the communist-staffed Southern Regional Council ($648,000); the leftist National Educational Television and Radio Center ($6,000,000); and the Public Broadcast Laboratory ($7,900,000).

In November 1953, Norman Dodd, Director of Research for the House Special Committee investigating the tax-exempt foundations, was told by

“The depression was the calculated ‘shearing’ of the public by the World Money powers, triggered by the planned sudden shortage of supply of call money in the New York money market ... The One World Government leaders and their ever close bankers have now acquired full control of the money and credit machinery of the U.S. via the creation of the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank.”

Roman Gaither, President of the Ford Foundation, “that most of the men who are now running the foundations, formerly worked for the State Department, the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Association, the Marshall Plan or other foreign relief agencies, and that in those capacities, they were working under instructions from the White House to bring about such sociological, economic, and political changes, as would make union with communist Russia easy and comfortable for the American people. Now, in the foundations, we are working toward the same objectives.” He said that the Ford Foundation operated under directives which “emanate from the White House” and that the “substance of the directives under which we operate is that we shall use our grant-making power so to alter life in the United States that we can be comfortably merged with the Soviet Union.”

The Fund for the Republic (one of the six other Ford-controlled foundations), founded in 1953 under the direction of Robert G. Hoffman and Robert M. Hutchins, are known for their attacks on the internal security program of America, and criticism towards the FBI and Congressional committees investigating communism. They were responsible for ending the anti-communist fervor that was sweeping the country. They were also responsible for the establishment of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, in Santa Barbara, California, who developed a Constitution for one-world government.

Robert McNamara, an executive with the Ford Motor Co., became the Foundation’s President in 1960, later resigning to serve as the Secretary of Defense (1961-68) in the Kennedy and Johnson Administration. He helped lay the foundation for the SALT treaty. In 1968, he became President of the World Bank. McGeorge Bundy, a CFR member, the Chief Advisor for Foreign Affairs for Kennedy and Johnson, became President of the Foundation in 1966. He ushered in an era of social unrest by announcing that the Negro movement, “the first of the nation’s problems”, would be his top priority.

THE STOCK MARKET CRASH AND DEPRESSION

The Federal Reserve Board held a secret meeting on May 18, 1920 to plan a depression. Large banks began calling in loans, causing stocks to drop from a high of 138.12 in 1919, to a low of 66.24 in 1921. When the value of government bonds plummeted, they were forced to call in even more loans. When thousands of the banks’ customers could not pay their notes, the banks seized their assets.

After 1922, profits rose, and with the Federal Reserve’s ability to lend ten times more than their reserves, credit was easily obtained. From 1923 to 1929, $8 billion was sliced off of the deficit. The Reserve expanded the money supply by 62%, and this excess money was used to bid the stock market up to fantastic heights. The media began publicizing that there was an enormous profit to be made from the stock market. This push was planned at a meeting of the International Bankers in 1926, who made the boom possible, and who [were] going to bring about financial disaster later.

In 1928, the House hearings on the Stabilization of the Purchasing Power of the Dollar, revealed that the Federal Reserve Board had met with the heads of various European central banks at a secret luncheon in 1927 to plan what they believed may be a major crash. On February 6, 1929, after Montagu Norman, Chairman of the Bank of England, came to the United States to meet with Andrew Mellon, the Secretary of Treasury, the Reserve reversed its monetary policy by raising the discount rate, and during the next few months, after Paul Warburg had issued a tip in March, 1929, Illuminati members, who knew what the future held, got their money out of the stock market, reinvesting it in gold and silver. In the year before the crash, 500 banks failed.

On October 24, 1929, the New York banking establishment began calling in their loans, forcing their customers to sell stock at ridiculously low prices in order to pay off the loans. Stock prices fell by 90%, and U.S. Securities lost $26 billion. Thousands of smaller banks and insurance companies went bankrupt, and people who had been millionaires, were now broke. To prolong the depression after the crash, from 1929 to 1933, the Reserve began to reduce the money flow by one-third.

The Great Depression, as it became known, was engineered by the Illuminati to take money from the people, and to make them dependent on the Government through the subsequent New Deal programs of Roosevelt. Congressman Louis T. McFadden, Chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee said: “It was no accident. It was a carefully contrived occurrence ... The International Bankers sought to bring about a condition of despair here so they might emerge as the rulers of us all.”

To a limited extent, this same method was used to create minor ‘depressions’ in 1937, 1948, 1953, 1956, 1960, 1966, 1970, and 1979.

In his book, My Exploited Father-in-Law by Curtis Dall (son-in-law of Franklin D. Roosevelt) wrote: “The depression was the calculated ‘shearing’ of the public by the World Money powers, triggered by the planned sudden shortage of supply of call money in the New York money market ... The One World Government leaders and their ever close bankers have now acquired full control of the money and credit machinery of the U.S. via the creation of the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank.”

In a brief reprise of his “Red Symphony” articles, Dr. Henry Makow provides a definite underline for this issue’s cover story, “All World Leaders Are Working with Satan”. Every nation has a central bank which provides it with its supply of money and every national leader must work with the independent central bank in order for government to function.

[QUOTING, emphasis added:]

CENTRAL BANKERS SEEK TOTALITARIAN POWER

By Henry Makow, <SaveTheMales.ca>, 12/3/05

The “War on Terror” is a ruse by central bankers to control every aspect of your life.

Rereading “The Red Symphony” recently, I was shocked to read an insider’s statement that the bankers are not content with infinite wealth, but want unlimited power.

“The Red Symphony” is a 1938 Stalinist Secret Police (NKVD) interrogation of Christian Rakovsky, a Soviet ambassador who was a close associate of Leon Trotsky, Rothschild’s agent.

I introduced this explosive 50-page document to my readers two years ago. It strips the veil from modern history and explains the real meaning of Revolution, Communism, Freemasonry and War. It was not intended to become public knowledge. The translator, a Dr. J. Landowsky, made an unauthorized copy.

The human experiment is endangered by private interests who have usurped the function of money creation. Modern history reflects the gradual process by which they transfer all wealth and power to themselves, destroying Western Civilization and creating a world police state.

Rakovsky, whose real name was Chaim Rakover, was sentenced to death in Stalin’s purge of the Trotskyite faction of the party. Leon Trotsky wrote in his autobiography, My Life: “Christian G. Rakovsky ... played an active part in the inner workings of four Socialist parties—the Bulgarian, Russian, French, and Roumanian—to become eventually one of the leaders of the Soviet Federation, a founder of the Communist Internationale, President of the Ukranian Soviet of People’s Commissaries, and the diplomatic Soviet representative in England and France ...”

Rakovsky tried to convince his interrogator that Stalin should cooperate with the bankers who “are just like you and me. The fact that they control unlimited money, insofar as they themselves create it, does not ... determine the limits of their ambitions ... The bankers, have the impulse towards power, towards full power. Just as you and me.”

They created the Communist state as a “machine of total power” unprecedented in history. In the past, due to many factors, “there was always room for individual freedom. Do you understand that those who already partially rule over nations and worldly governments have pretensions to absolute domination? Understand that this is the only thing which they have not yet reached.”

A pernicious force paralyzes our national life. Rakovsky identifies it: “Imagine to yourself, if you can a small number of people having unlimited power through the possession of real wealth, and you will see they are the absolute dictators of the stock exchange and [economy]... If you have enough imagination then ... you will see [their] anarchical, moral and social influence, i.e. a revolutionary one ... Do you now understand?”

The Revolutionary Movement, which defines modern history, was a means to increase banker power by destroying the old order.

In the French Revolution power subtly passed to the bankers who weren’t constrained by Christian niceties, Rakovsky says. “The supreme Royal power was taken over by persons, whose moral, intellectual and cosmopolitan qualities did allow them to use it. It is clear that these were people who had never been Christians, but cosmopolitans.”

Communism, far from distributing wealth, is designed to concentrate it in the hands of the world’s wealthiest people. (The State owns the wealth and they own the State.) And Marxism, “before being a philosophical, economic and political system, is a conspiracy for the revolution”.

Rakovsky scoffs at the “elementary Marxism ... the demagogic popular one” that is used to dupe the intellectuals and the masses.

(Whatever its intrinsic merits, Socialism seems designed to bribe and make people dependent on big government, which the bankers control.)

As for Freemasonry: “Every Masonic organization tries to create all the required prerequisites for the triumph of the Communist revolution; this is the obvious aim of Freemasonry,” says Rakovsky, a high-ranking Mason himself.

The aim of the Revolution is no less than to redefine reality in terms of the interests of the bankers. This involves the promotion of subjective truth over objective truth. If Lenin “feels something to be real” then it is real. “For him every reality, every truth was relative in the face of the sole and absolute one: the revolution.”

In other words, white is black and up is down. This is the way it was in the Soviet Union and this is now happening to us. Truth and justice are being replaced by political diktat. “Political correctness” a Bolshevik term is now in common usage. Physicists like Steven Jones who question Sept.11 are silenced. Historians like David Irving are jailed.

Rakovsky marvels that “the benches on which sat the greasy usurers to trade in their moneys, have now been converted into temples, which stand magnificently at every corner of contemporary big towns with their heathen colonnades, and crowds go there ... to bring assiduously their deposits of all their possessions to the god of money ...”

He says the Soviet five-pointed star represents the “five Rothschild brothers with their banks, who possess colossal accumulations of wealth, the greatest ever known.”

Isn’t it strange that Marx never mentions this fact? Rakovsky asks. Isn’t it strange that during revolutions, the mobs never attack the bankers, their mansions or banks?

War is the means by which the central bankers advance their goal of totalitarian world government. Rakovsky says Trotsky was behind the murder of Arch Duke Ferdinand (which sparked WWI). He recalls the phrase used by the mother of the five Rothschild brothers: “‘If my sons want it, then there will be no war.’ This means that they were the arbiters, the masters of peace and war, but not emperors. Are you capable of visualizing the fact of such a cosmic importance? Is not war already a revolutionary function? ... [E]very war was a giant step towards Communism.”

After the murder of (Illuminati member Weimar Foreign Minister) Walter Rathenau in 1922, the Illuminati give political or financial positions only to intermediaries, Rakovsky says. “Obviously to persons who are trustworthy and loyal, which can be guaranteed a thousand ways: thus one can assert that those bankers and politicians [HM: in the public eye] are only men of straw ... even though they occupy very high places and are made to appear to be the authors of the plans which are carried out.”

In 1938, Rakovsky outlined three reasons for the upcoming Second World War. The first is that Hitler began to print his own money. [How many people knew that fact?] “This is very serious. Much more than all the external and cruel factors in National-Socialism.”

Secondly, the “fully developed nationalism of Western Europe is an obstacle to Marxism ... the need for the destruction of nationalism is alone worth a war in Europe.”

Finally, Communism cannot triumph unless it suppresses the “still living Christianity”. He refers to the “permanent revolution” as dating from the birth of Christ, and the Reformation as “its first partial victory” because it split Christianity. This suggests that the “conspiracy” also contains a racial or religious factor.

“In reality, Christianity is our only real enemy since all the political and economic phenomena of the Bourgeois States. Christianity controlling the individual is capable of annulling the revolutionary projection of the neutral Soviet or Atheist State.”

Now the Central Bankers are promoting World War Three as in “The Clash of Civilizations”. Substitute Islam for Christianity above.

Conclusion

Our beliefs must adjust to the truth and not vice versa. Apparently, the truth is that a relatively small clique of Jewish banking families and their non-Jewish allies in the leading families of Europe and America have usurped control of money creation, and with it the destiny of the world.

This overclass owns or controls most of the world’s largest corporations, media organizations, intelligence agencies, secret societies, universities, politicians, foundations, think tanks and NGOs. It also appears to dominate organized crime.

Sept. 11, the War on Terror and Iraq are part of an inexorable process by which this overclass increases its wealth and control. The end goal is a world police state in which the masses will be deprived of their wealth, freedom and possibly their lives.

Neo Cons are really Neo Communists. They jeopardize the security of their fellow Jews (as well as all Americans) by their evil machinations. Jews should follow my example and repudiate them.

The overclass wants us to see it as a “Jewish problem”. This way it can deflect blame onto innocent Jews and then dismiss opposition as “hatred” and “prejudice”. The problem is mainly one of money creation (credit) that has led to an untenable concentration of wealth and power a few hands.

Almost everyone who is “successful” in society, Jewish or not, is forced, wittingly or unwittingly to align themselves with the overclass. Our religious, cultural and political institutions have been subverted. This explains the false quality of social life in the West.

... God is more powerful than the satanic force that holds mankind in its thrall. But His will cannot be done unless men do it.

Whatever the cost, doing nothing will cost more. The affluence we now enjoy is part of an age-old plot to ensnare and enslave humanity.

[END QUOTING]

Ah, BUT—in order to succeed they had to destroy Christ-consciousness. This is NOT the same thing as “Christianity”. The ONE God disdains the religions of man which, you guessed it, have been fostered and promoted throughout history by the very same diabolical money power we have been discussing.

Did anyone pick up on the Hegelian Dialectic in the foregoing article, where Rakovsky notes how the Reformation “split”—compromised, abridged—Christianity? FOR THE DIVINE PLAN TO BEAR ITS FRUIT WE MUST LIVE THE TRUTH WITHOUT COMPROMISE—no more, no less.

THE GOLDEN AGE REQUIRES A FOUNDATION OF GOLD

The headline of this paper states a FACT: All world leaders are, at present, working with Satan. WHAT ARE THEY THINKING???

There is no way to build a Golden Age on the current foundation of global FIAT currency controlled by a tiny handful of elite controllers.

Let’s take the position of Mr. Putin of Russia and let’s assume, for the moment, he is a good man who wants the best for his people. He has the authority and respect to structure his own nation impeccably. He can chase out the Bolshevik element and shut down the nefarious activities of the Oligarchs; he can develop Russia’s energy and other resources and structure honorable deals with his neighbors; he can keep inflation low and the economy moving forward with his citizens paying taxes far less than countries like the United States, Canada and most others.

So far so good? Not really because what we have just described is an uncompromising NATIONALIST and that puts Mr. Putin in line for a head-on collision with the Banking Cartel’s agenda of GLOBALISM.

In case no one has noticed, the NATO Nazis have been moving into countries all around Russia. NATO forces are scheduled to replace U.S. forces in Afghanistan and NATO continues to court—with money in hand—any nation in the region where it might gain a toehold.

Suddenly, despite a working agreement with the country of Georgia, there is tremendous friction being generated, to the extent that (according to Sorcha Faal) some 10 Russian military divisions have been put on highest alert preparatory to outright WAR—the usual Bankers’ solution to obstinate problems.

There will be no peace until “someone” deals with the root of the problem.

There are other problems with this approach, too. Russia has thrived on higher oil prices in the short term but has so far not managed to accomplish one of its primary objectives, which is to lock in these high prices with long-term deals to supply the energy needs of Europe and China.

How much longer do YOU suppose oil will remain the number one energy resource in the world? The Internet is full of so-called “free energy” technology. Several backyard inventors have come up with techniques for allowing engines to split water and burn the hydrogen content. Deuterium, of course, has a much higher percentage of hydrogen and makes a superior non-polluting fuel.

Mr. Chavez faces similar problems in this regard. Venezuela just might have the largest accessible oil reserves of any nation in the world. Unfortunately, most of this oil is of the “heavy” variety and far more costly to refine. It is economical at prices above $50 per barrel but at lower prices it just doesn’t pay.

So far Mr. Chavez has had some success in trading oil for various goods and services in basic barter arrangements with other countries. But barter will never work as well as commerce based on an acceptable medium of exchange—money, in a word. Venezuela has taken a high profile in the Non-Aligned Movement organization and at the Summit of the 118-nation NAM in Havana Mr. Chavez proposed his own short-sighted solution to the money problem. As reported in The Hindu—India, 9/17/06:

Havana (PTI): Venezuelan President Hugo Chavez has proposed the creation of a bank of south-American nations to use international reserves for financing the development of these countries.

“If we are going to have a ‘Bank of the South’, we cannot lose one single day to use our international reserves to finance our development,” he told the 14th Summit of 118-nation NAM here on Friday.

“Where are our reserves today?... in the countries of the North. This is about re-launching the potential of NAM and the basis of unity of this movement,” Chavez said.

Coming down heavily against international financial institutions, the Venezuelan President, well-known for his anti-U.S. views, said “we don’t accept the kind of development the World Bank or International Monetary Fund wants to push on us to change our hopes, our souls and our pain.” ...

Can anyone fail to see that the success of a ‘Bank of the South’ is entirely dependent on the International Bankers behind the very WB/IMF structure Mr. Chavez claims to abhor? This is NO SOLUTION even if it demonstrates a commendable intention.

Please re-read the Josiah Stamp quote at the very start of this issue and you will KNOW that the only permanent solution will be found in taking the power to create money away from the International Bankers. Nothing short of that is going to work.

God has made the solution available in the form of the Global Alliance Investment Association Program. Earlier, we characterized it as a 50/50 proposition in lieu of Satan’s 20/80 deal with these leaders but that doesn’t really do it justice. The GAIA Program offers 100% transparency WITHOUT USURY, without enslaving the people’s life energies through an entirely debt-based monetary system, without inflation and with no need for taxation.

ONLY the implementation of the Global Alliance Program can remove the power to create money out of nothing from the International Bankers. WHEN it is implemented, mankind can enjoy the onset of a true Golden Age.

Yes, that is the Talmud he is carrying.

George H.W. Bush was President of the United States in 1991 when Public Law 102-14 was passed. That law essentially made the Talmudic Noahide Laws the law of the land. Not surprisingly, George W. Bush is following in his father’s footsteps.

Agana in LRC/Civil Case No. 3597-P in order to function as the "successor in interest" of the Tagacan-Tallano estate and to "...preserve the estate for and in the interest of Filipino farmers, poor families and their children..."

NOTICE OF TERMINATION OF LEASE

You are hereby given notice that the fifty-five year lease of the gold assets of the Tagacan-Tallano estate ended in December 2005 and we are asserting our court-ordered mandate to administer these assets "for the interest of the Filipino people".

Although there may be a tendency on your part to want to view these gold holdings as the property of the Republic of the Philippines, we hasten to point out that they are part of the PRIVATE property of the Tagacan-Tallano estate, which must be administered by the Tallano Foundation for the benefit of the people. Now that the lease has expired and you have been duly notified, any misapplication of these assets can only properly be construed as plunder.

Accordingly, we are entitled to an inventory of the gold assets and we expect your cooperation in arranging for same through the Bangko Sentral Pilipinas which has acted as the storage facility for these assets. Your reply to this Notice of Termination of Lease should include proposed arrangements for payment to the Foundation of the "five percent (5%) of the one percent (1%) of the appraised value of the commodities as Royalty fee" in compliance with the 1976 Clarificatory Decision of Judge Agana, along with an accounting of any such Royalty fees paid throughout the period of the lease. Until final arrangements can be made for the return of the leased property, we expect that you will render payment for and properly account for storage fees since December 31, 2005, which no doubt will be assessed by the storage facility (BSP).

If we do not hear from you within FIFTEEN (15) days, it is presumed that you take no exception to the foregoing facts and that you accept full personal responsibility for compliance.

Very respectfully yours,

Cenon C. Marcos, President

ATTN: Hon. BENJAMIN ULEP, Administrator

SUBJECT: YOUR LACK OF RESPONSE AND APPROPRIATE ACTION

Dear Sir:

In our letters of May 15 and May 28, 2006, we advised you of Supreme Court decisions declaring numerous land titles null and void. We also provided you with an endorsement of our efforts to address this issue from the Department of Justice dated May 31, 2006 requesting your appropriate action.

As the Administrator of the Land Registration Authority you have direct responsibility for maintaining the integrity of the Torrens System of land titling per the Land Registration Act (Act No. 496) and the Property Registration Decree (P.D. 1592). You have been informed of a very serious problem but after more than three months you have neither responded to our letters nor taken appropriate action as directed by the Department of Justice at our request. Every day employees under your direction are issuing more spurious titles, compounding the problem. In accordance with the foregoing facts and in fulfillment of our charge to conserve, protect and administer all lands which should remain titled under OCT 01-4, we must provide you with the following Notice.

10-DAY NOTICE TO CEASE AND DESIST

Immediately, within 10 days, you must direct all Registers of Deeds to cease and desist from issuing spurious titles derived from those titles which the Supreme Court has previously declared null and void.

If we do not hear from you within TEN (10) days, it is presumed that you take no exception to the foregoing facts and that you accept full personal responsibility for compliance.

Respectfully yours,

CENON C. MARCOS
President

NOTICE OF TERMINATION AND DENIAL OF ASSOCIATION

Dear Mr. Tallano:

Despite your termination from the Board of Trustees of the DON ESTEBAN BENITEZ TALLANO AND DON GREGORIO MADRIGAL ACOP FOUNDATION INC. at a duly noticed meeting held April 7, 2005, it has come to our attention that you are falsely holding yourself out as "Administrator" of properties which fall under the purview of the Foundation pursuant to the Clarificatory Order of the Agana Court (LRC/Civil Case #3397-P, January 19, 1976) cited below:

Ordering the Administrator, Mr. Julian M. Tallano to do the following acts and function for and in behalf of the Land owners, here to wit:

1) Organize and establish Foundation in the name of Don Esteban Benitez Tallano and Don Gregorio Madrigal Acop to pursue the objectives of the Land owners to preserve the estate for and in the interest of Filipino farmers, poor families and their children either Christian or Muslim especially those who became a victims of martial law, and to uplift economic, social and health condition of those families living under poverty line by providing employment with the use of the proceeds of the sale of the estate ...

You are in possession of documents and records to which the Foundation is entitled and which are required by the Foundation for it to straighten out the problems caused by your many years of inaction and erroneous actions with regard to this matter, which have involved thousands of prime properties, tied up the courts and apparently enriched yourself by disposing real estate properties which had neither court approval nor reportorial accounting to the court. You have put the Foundation in disrepute and worked against the orders of the court to benefit the people, thus hurting the Filipino people broadly, generally and grievously.

In accordance with the foregoing facts, we hereby provide you with Notice of Termination and Denial of Association which shall be published in a newspaper of broad circulation to notify the public that you are in no way associated with the activities of this Foundation.

If we do not hear from you within ten (10) days, it is presumed that you take no exception to the foregoing facts and that you accept full responsibility for acting accordingly.

Truly yours,

President

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

The Value of an Aged ‘Shelf’ Corporation

Budget’s “Tip of the Week” #6:

The Value of an Aged Corporate Shell or “Shelf” Corporation

While many stock-market investors have recently discovered the meaning of the word “risk”, it’s too bad they never learned to invest in Nevada shell corporations, which continue to appreciate in value.

An aged corporate shell—commonly referred to as a “shelf” corporation, an indication that it has not been used, only put “on the shelf”—will generally increase substantially in value over time. This is because there are those who can benefit greatly by the ability to instantly get into business and yet have the ability to say that the corporation has been in business for some time.

Generally, the value of an aged “shell” corporation is more than the amounts paid to keep it current, although there may be a significant difference between “bid” and “ask” due to the small size of the market. If you are the holder of such an aged corporation with no real activity in its history, you just might find that it has been a fair investment. The best way to sell such an entity is often by consignment, whereby the seller consents to pay a percentage of the sale price realized to a middleman (typically, a resident agent such as BCR) with good contacts in the market place. Unfortunately, many who have held such a gem of an investment have been taken advantage of by predatory middlemen, who typically offer only a few hundred dollars for a corporation that they turn around and sell for many thousands of dollars.

Some people acquire a number of newborn corporations specifically as an investment. If this sounds like something you would like to do, here are several steps you can take to maximize the value:

- Obtain an Employer Identification Number;
- Use nominee service so that there is no link to you personally;
- Open a no-interest bank account for the corporation;
- File “zero income” (non-activity) tax returns every year;
- DO NOT TRANSACT ANY BUSINESS WITH THE CORPORATION.

A shelf corporation maintained in this manner typically carries a premium of $1,000 PER YEAR OF AGE, in addition to the initial costs of setting it up. Even after annual maintenance costs (at least, through Budget Corporate Renewals) it is possible to have an annual gain of $500 to $1,000, making the incubation of shelf corporations a very rewarding enterprise!
