10/26/90 HATONN

Dharma, good morning, Hatonn present in light and service. First, we will go out of sequence to print portions of Alex Molnar's letter to Bush, in part. The entire text needs to be obtained but this will suffice for our needs. It fits in a prior writing, please.

Then, please, cut and paste (for I desire the actual copy of the Spotlight rendition, with pictures, of Bo Gritz' speech added to the same Express portion.

Next, I request that Saddam's speech be copied IN FULL and we will print it and send it out in the next Express.

* * * * *

The following is a portion of a letter sent to President Bush from a father of a young marine sent to Saudi Arabia. It was personal and from a father's heart. It was reprinted in the New York Times but since a large majority of citizens would not subscribe to the paper, we will reprint pertinent portions:

ALEX MOLNAR'S LETTER TO PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH

"... As I sat in my hotel room watching you on television, looking through my son's hastily written 'last will and testament' and listening to military equipment rumble past, you seemed to me to be both calloused and ridiculous, chasing golf balls and zipping around in your boat in Kennybunkport.

"While visiting my son I had a chance to see him pack his chemical weapons suit and his body armor. I don't know if you have ever had this experience, Mr. President--I hope you never will.

"I also met many of my son's fellow soldiers. They are fine young men. A number of them told me that they were from poor families. They joined the marines as a way of earning enough money to go to college.

"None of the young men I met are likely to be invited to serve on the Board of Directors of a Savings and Loan Association, as your son Neil was, and none of them have parents well enough connected to call or write a General to see that their child stays out of harm's way as Vice President Quayle's parents did for him during the Viet Nam War."

The letter concludes as follows:

"In the past you have demonstrated no enduring commitment to any principle other than the advancement of your political career. This makes me doubt that you have either the courage or the character to meet the challenge of finding a diplomatic solution to this crisis.

"If, as I expect, you eventually order American soldiers to attack Iraq, then it is God who will have to forgive you--I will not!"

My dear friends, if you cannot see what is coming down, I pity you.

TODAY'S WATCH

Please note this day that none of the Network television broadcasters are running Saddam Hussein's message to you the people other than CNN who ran it "late night" when watching would be all but zilch--1:00 A.M. in the East. Well, we aren't going to allow you to goof off on that excuse--we will print it just as soon as it can be transferred to audio tape and transcribed--it will be in total in the next Express.

Dharma's words about Hussein? "Listen to that, Saddam has plagiarized our Journals!" For those who don't see any humor in the statement, I remind you: the biggest insulting tauntings coming back to us is that we plagiarize portions of "everyone's truth". I'm not sure how you can plagiarize truth but I accept it as a compliment that I have such ability to select truthful material; it would seem earth ones might enjoy sharing of their "truth". The problem is that there is so little of truth in most ones' projections that only minute portions would be suitable for distribution at any event. SADDAM HUSSEIN SPOKE TRUTH!!!

I suggest all of you pay close attention to the portions of Hussein's speech which are chosen to show to the masses--in the bars of your country, yet! God help you all for you are such lambs to the slaughter.

I suggest, George and Oberli, that you get continuances in the property case and then utilize any legal funds to get research investigators--you are going to find that bribes were paid by SBS to Cranston and his cronies, also, and campaign funds were supplied to same from Brent's lawfirm. Just your one little case is going to go all the way to the top of your government! Do you see, it doesn't matter what happens--WE WILL PUBLICLY CARRY THE STORY TO THE NATION AS ONE EXAMPLE OF CORRUPTION AND INTENT TO STOP OUR WORK AND TRUTH FROM COMING FORTH. NOW, THE HEINOUS AND EVIL CONTROLLERS ARE GOING TO BLATANTLY HAVE YOUR CHILDREN MURDERED IN A SAUDI DESERT TO KEEP CONTROL OF THE WEALTH AND OF THE WORLD. DO YOU SEE THAT THE WORLD IS ALREADY UNDER "THE NEW ONE WORLD ORDER"? IT ONLY REMAINS TO BE SEEN IF YOU WILL DO ANYTHING ABOUT IT!

NEWT GINGRICH

Watch this man! This man is completely involved with the budget of the government at this time. He is also the one who has the bill up for legislation which will allow the complete negation of your Bill of Rights by Executive Order! This man is DANGEROUS, DANGEROUS, DANGEROUS!!!

EDUCATION

Today your national "report cards" came out and were made public--- YOU FLUNKED, AMERICA. Your educational system has fallen--just as was arranged decades ago. An ignorant people do not fight back! If rulers can keep the people ignorant, the battle is won. How do you think you are doing? IS IT REMOTELY POSSIBLE, BELOVED ONES, THAT THE GOVERNMENT MIGHT HAVE UNDERESTIMATED THE AWAKENING OF YOU THE MASSES? WOULDN'T GOD SMILE IF THAT COULD BE SO? PLEASE ALLOW IT TO BE SO!

YOU HAD ALL BETTER HEAR WELL THAT WHICH SADDAM HUSSEIN SPEAKS OF AS THE ARAB RELATIONSHIP TO GOD! THEY ARE A GOD-RESPECTING SEGMENT OF MANKIND AND YOU HAVE FORSAKEN GOD--GUESS WHICH SIDE SHALL HAVE ATTENTION WHEN CALLED UPON? THE FUNNY THING IS: THEY WILL ASK GOD, YOU WILL NOT! OH, YOU WILL PRAY FOR VICTORY WHICH IS BUILT ON GREED AND BLOODSHED AND, IN THE ENDING OF IT ALL, IT SHALL BE THOSE OF GOD WHO SHALL PREVAIL. I REPEAT SOMETHING--ISLAM "MEANS" 'TO SUBMIT' AND THAT IN TURN MEANS THAT WITHIN THE ISLAMIC FAITH, JIHADS (HOLY WARS) ARE GLORIFIED. ISLAMIC FAITH, FURTHER, IS BASED ON "CHRIST"-NESS! YOU ARE SORELY MISLED IF YOU BELIEVE YOU ARE NOT GOING TO GO TO WAR WITH "CHRISTIANS" WHO SURPASS ANYTHING THAT YOU HAVE EVER WITNESSED IN MODERN TIMES--TRUE CHRISTIANITY ON THE ONE HAND AND THE BLOODBATH OF A HOLY WAR ON THE OTHER. STAND WARNED, OH PEOPLE OF EARTH, FOR YOU ARE ABOUT TO BEGIN YOUR ENDING!

SYRIA

Syria is a worse situation than even Hussein can point out to you for you have no integrity from one minute unto the next except as it benefits your purpose to world control and oil procurement, along with serving the best interests of Israel.

The U.S. and Syria "made a deal". In exchange for Syria relinquishing claims to the Israeli-occupied Golan Heights and sending some troops to park in Saudi Arabia, SYRIA WILL GET SUBSTANTIAL PAYMENTS FROM THE U.S.--AND YOU WILL JUST FORGET ABOUT THE INCONVENIENCE OF THE DOWNING OF PAN AM FLIGHT 103 OVER LOCKERBIE, SCOTLAND, IN WHICH 270 U.S. LIVES WERE LOST!

This "deal was cut" even before Baker went "on his vacation" to the Middle East and Israel, and also Iran, during Congressional recess. It had already been arranged prior to any "invasion" of anything--just as the rest of the planned happenings.

Has anyone told you that in the last two weeks of August, 1990, there has been a time of widespread massacres in Syria? This new ally of the West in the Persian Gulf crisis has, at the conduction of the government of President Hafez al-Assad, killed outright more than 5,500 people. Five thousand, five hundred is the number proven and accounted for with additional body parts unidentified. THIS HAS GONE COMPLETELY UNREPORTED IN THE ESTABLISHMENT MEDIA. YOU SEE, A LOT OF SYRIANS DIDN'T LIKE THE "NEW DEAL". MR. BUSH SITS WITH THIS MURDERER OF HIS OWN PEOPLE AND CALLS HIM "MR. PRESIDENT ASSAD, THE PROGRESSIVE LEADER OF A DEMOCRATIZED SYRIA." AS SOON AS PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH EMBRACED HIS NEW ALLY, ASSAD ORDERED THE MASSACRES OF VARIOUS POLITICAL OPPONENTS, BOTH REAL AND PERCEIVED!.

First, Assad ordered the roundup of 870 members of the Moslem Brotherhood from Aleppo (Haleb) and Latakia (El Ladhqiya). They were taken to Damascus and tortured for two days before being put to death.

Then Assad moved 3,000 troops to the province of Deir ez Zor (Dayr az Zawr), which adjoins Iraq, with orders to shoot anybody who broke a 9:00 P.M. curfew. Assad, characteristically, made sure that the imposition of that curfew remained unannounced! That part of the evening is the traditional time for socializing and visiting, as the towns and villages come alive in the cool of the evening after the day's torrid heat of 120 degrees.

The troops suddenly opened fire on the stunned and terrified populace, leaving a total of more than 3,000 dead and dying in alleys and doorways. All of this in response to rumors that there would be civil disobedience in Deir es Zor in opposition to the troops Assad was sending to Saudi Arabia.

Then Assad's police moved to the province of Haseke adjoining Iraq near the Turkish border, and the police killed an estimated 1,600 people in broad daylight in the towns of Fajami, Bir Bidea and El Haseke. The hardest hit cities were Homs and Hama, the scenes of prior genocidal campaigns ordered by Assad. Hama, a stronghold of the Moslem Brotherhood, was razed in 1982 with all 10,000 inhabitants murdered by Assad's tanks and planes.

The secret police troops who committed the bloodletting belong to Assad's minority Alawite sect--an esoteric mix of various religions which mainstream Moslems regard as anti-Islamic and anti-Arab!

I warn you again, my friends, for Assad's reliable troops are now stretched very, very thin. The bulk of Syrian conscripts are Moslem--80 percent of the overall population--while the officers' corp is drawn from the Alawite sect.

THE TROOPS SENT TO SAUDI ARABIA ARE SYRIAN MOSLEMS UNDER THE COMMAND OF ALAWITE OFFICERS. U.S. ARMY INTELLIGENCE IS QUITE REALIS-TICALLY COMPLETELY CONCERNED THAT A SHOOTING WAR WOULD PROMPT THE SYRIAN SOLDIERS TO KILL THEIR OWN OFFICERS--PARTICULARLY SINCE THE GREAT BULK OF THE SYRIAN POPULATION IS PRO-IRAQI IN THIS CURRENT CONFLICT!

This is but one more example, little sleepy-heads, that the Establishment media has marched right along in lockstep with "orders" to not report the ramifications of the confrontation with Iraq. The Moslem world, one-fifth to one-quarter of the world's population, is enraged by the Western intrusion into the holy places. The leaders of many of the Arab countries, based as they are on the vestiges of colonial governments and puppet regimes, are severely threatened by their alliance with the West, portending a massive anti-Western, Islamic explosion that will have severe consequences for decades to come.

COME TO THINK OF IT

Assad rules one of the few regimes in the world to be labeled by your State Department as state sponsors of terrorism and is directly implicated in the downing of Pan Am flight 103, which killed 270 Americans.

In just the same way the U.S. in the past cozied right up to President Saddam Hussein At-Takriti of Iraq and overlooked his nasty little habit of slaughtering his political opponents and waging genocide against rebellious ethnic groups within his borders (if that be true); the U.S. is teaming up now with the most unsavory of Middle Eastern despots, such as Assad, Morocco's King Hassan II and the medieval ruling dynasties of bloodshed, power and greed of the Persian Gulf states. What kind of pride can you feel for your government now, little chelas? HOW MUCH BLOOD IS SPILLED ON YOUR HANDS AND, LIKE PILOTE, YOU WILL LATER WISH TO WASH YOUR HANDS AND IT WILL BE TOO LATE???

WHAT WAS THE PRICE?

Well let us look at "the deal". On the day of Baker's arrival in Damascus, the Syrian government announced it would send the first contingent of the promised 20,000, more or less, troops to Saudi Arabia (an armored division of 10,000 men and 300 tanks with necessary personnel). Syria would also provide information to the West on the activities of the Palestine Liberation Organization and other enemies of Israeli expansionism!

Now, comes the pay-off from you nice little U.S. citizens in support of Israel's interests: in return for these favors, Assad has been promised $800 million in immediate aid with more to follow later, AND THE GRANTING OF "MOST FAVORED NATION" TRADING STATUS (GIVING SYRIAN PRODUCTS ENTERING THE U.S. PREFERENTIAL TARIFF TREATMENT) AS WELL AS OTHER TRADE BENEFITS.

TURN THE TURKEY

Your nice and generous President Bush has also given that lovely reward to Egypt for cooperation--he will forgive Egypt's 7.1 BILLION military debt. Now he DOES end up in a crunch for Congress will only approve this action IF AND WHEN ISRAEL'S MILITARY DEBT OF $4 BILLION IS ALSO FORGIVEN. Now, readers, THIS debt is not that good old World Bank's money--THIS IS YOUR U.S. MONEY! THIS MONEY IS OWED TO EVERYONE OF YOU NICE TAXPAYERS!

At the same time your vultures hover at Andrews Air Force Base near Washington (what ever happened to Congressional sittings at the Capitol?) trying in vain so far, to come up with a formula to reduce the deficit by a relatively paltry $40-$50 billion for this coming fiscal year (your annual deficit is about $300 billion). If they don't come up with a plan by Oct. 1, the government will run out of money. AT LEAST HALF OF THE DEFICIT REDUCTION IS EXPECTED TO TAKE THE SHAPE OF NEW TAXES--READ MY LIPS!

While your taxes are being raised, Bush and Congress are forgiving Egypt's and Israel's debt to the taxpayers! The government alone owes some $2.3 TRILLION. At the same time there are millions of workers losing their jobs because their companies can't pay the interest on their own debt burdens. These unemployed workers are losing their houses because they can't afford the mortgage payments, and millions more cannot even begin to hope to buy a home in their entire lifetime. All in the plan, dear little sleepy-heads!

DOES ANYTHING EVEN ANNOY YOU AS A NATION?

American farmers are literally being turned out of farms that have been in their families for generations because they can't afford to stay current on their debts. Their property is being "legally" confiscated through corrupt under-cover and fixed judicial "deals" and bribes.

That $7.1 billion would buy $100,000 homes for 71 thousand families. You have some 3 million homeless people, dear hearts! It takes the annual income tax payments from 2 million average taxpayers to add up to $7.1 billion.

Why is your president doing this? The answer is, to enforce the International Establishment's monopoly on oil!

IT IS AS ODIOS AND TOTALLY OUTRAGEOUS AS ANY ACTION TAKEN BY ANY PRESIDENT IN YOUR HISTORY--EVEN MORE SO! This is an act of sheer class hatred, sticking it to you the citizen taxpayer to ensure the wealth and privilege of the elite who plan to completely control you.

Will the American taxpayer sit still for this? It appears so! Wouldn't you think the Americans could stand a bit of a break with the forgiveness bit?

Will none of you step forward and demand an end to this madness?--the national media certainly will not; they will not even show dissension but rather tout that Mr. Bush's credibility and support are on a giant rise! Where are your proverbial heads?

We will join with the brave few who dare in the face of threats, warnings to cease and desist, threats of death if we do not stop publishing this material and whatever else they throw at us--to stand forth and shout and tell it as it is until we can no longer be heard. Just as these people can die a human death--SO CAN EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU!! THERE WILL BE NO RAPTURE OFF THIS PLACE TO SUIT THE FALSE PROPHETS--YOU CAN DIE, TOO, AND THEY PLAN TO KILL YOU EN MASSE. SO BE IT FOR THE TRUMPET BLOWS UNTO "YOU"!

BY THE WAY

On August 10, 1990, your Senate voted up S-2834, the bill which is the intelligence appropriations authorization for fiscal 1991. The bill now goes to the House for consideration.

S-2834 WOULD MAKE LEGAL "THE USE OF THIRD COUNTRIES OR PRIVATE PARTIES OUTSIDE NORMAL U.S. GOVERNMENT CONTROLS" TO FUND COVERT OPERATIONS OR CARRY THEM OUT ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED STATES, AS WAS ILLEGALLY DONE DURING THE INFAMOUS IRAN-CONTRA AFFAIR.

SURRENDERING POWER AND PURSE

The Congress would not only surrender its "power of the purse", but even its oversight function, since it would not have the right to ask for the identification of the "third parties" involved.

And what of Oliver North? Despite the multiple charges, accusations and evidence that have repeatedly surfaced over the years concerning Lt. Col. Oliver North and his Project Democracy's knee-deep involvement in the international narcotics trade, it seems your Congress has a strange way of fighting the "war on drugs" as it is head-long on its way to passing legislation which would make pushing dope "completely legal" if it is "necessary to support the foreign policy objectives of the U.S. and...important to the national security of the U.S." I would say that what is most important to the CURRENT FOREIGN POLICY OF BEING IN THE DRUG BUSINESS AND "NATIONAL SECURITY" IS ANYTHING THEY WANT TO KEEP SECRET FROM YOU THE PEOPLE AND STILL HAVE YOU PAY FOR.

PROVISIONS OF SB-2834

It empowers the president to initiate covert actions, an authority never specifically given to the president;

Denies Congress the power to prevent the president from initiating covert actions;

Permits the president to use any federal "departments, agencies, or entities" to conduct or finance a covert operation;

Allows the president to use any third country or private contractor to fund or conduct a covert action, so actions such as using funds from the Sultan of Brunei or hiring Richard Secord's enterprise as occurred in Iran-contra, would be perfectly LEGAL;

Defines covert actions as operations "necessary to support foreign policy objectives of the United States", purposes so broad as to be essentially unlimited;

Explicitly claims the right of your country to secretly interfere in the internal "political, economic, or military affairs of other countries in violation of international law";

Requires the president to prepare a written finding and deliver that finding to the intelligence committees of the Congress but also authorizes the president to omit from the finding "extremely sensitive matters" and to claim executive privilege if Congress asks too many questions.

The phrase "national security" is so routinely used these days that allowing the president to initiate covert actions "important to the national security" is simply a blank check to continue such operations.

Given that the "oversight" section as a whole demonstrates a transparent congressional desire NOT TO KNOW about or take responsibility for covert actions, the president will undoubtedly interpret every phase as broadly as possible and avoid burdening Congress with any relevant information--since the president has had the bill written for his purposes from the onset.

There are no penalties in the bill for violating any of its provisions. It is hard to find a restriction to violate, including the provision requiring a finding, and such behavior by the president is even more likely.

These provisions amend the National Security Act of 1947. That act established the National Security Council and the CIA for purposes of centralizing the gathering of intelligence. Clark Clifford, author of the act, stated that this act was never intended to provide authority for covert actions.

Nevertheless, the CIA engaged in such operations without congressional authorization. Over the years, you must have noticed democratically-elected governments overthrown, assassination programs, paramilitary wars, active cooperation with drug smugglers and other illegal activity blossom under the rubric of "covert actions". It is now underway in true format to kill Saddam Hussein.

YOU ARE WITNESSING THE COMPLETE RENUNCIATION OF ANY CONGRESSIONAL ATTEMPT TO CONTROL THE PARALLEL, SECRET GOVERNMENT THAT HAS INFESTED AND TAKEN CONTROL OF YOUR ENTIRE GOVERNMENTAL SYSTEM AND OVERTHROWN YOUR CONSTITUTION.

Let us look at an "assassination" of President Hussein of Iraq. An application of the law might well involve U.S. complicity or direct involvement (as the case is) in the assassination of Iraqi's President Hussein by a team of, let us say in all seriousness, A TEAM OF SYRIAN HITMEN (IT WAS, AFTER ALL, A PART OF THE "DEAL" I FAILED TO MENTION ABOVE). Syria's intelligence service, WHICH REGULARLY FUNDS TERRORIST GROUPS THAT HAVE MURDERED AMERICAN GIs IN EUROPE AND NICE AMERICANS EVERYWHERE, finances its operations through trafficking in narcotics grown in Lebanon's Bekaa Valley.

CHINA CONNECTION

There are ample precedents during the Iran-Contra fiasco which document times in which the Reagan-Bush administration rationalized that "the end justifies the means". During North's trial, just this past year, documents were released that portrayed his soliciting arms from intelligence agents of the Red Chinese Peoples Liberation Army for the Contras. Communist China is known to export 40% of the heroin that hits the streets of U.S. urban centers each year. (Please refer to the material by "Bo" Gritz previously published.)

When a person like "Ollie" North--who ran guns to the Ayatollah

Khomeini and whose network of covert operatives financed weapons shipments to the Contras with the help of the Colombian Medellin dope cartel and all of the fighters trained and instructed by the Israeli Mossad--is perceived as WONDROUSLY PATRIOTIC AND BEYOND SUCH REPROACH AS THE LAW, the people are either dupes or seriously misinformed--I shall allow you to be the judge! And then, after all, North was simply the scapegoat for the higher "goats" and you could almost feel sympathy for his public shame.

"NORTH" DIARIES CONFIRM KNOWLEDGE

North's own diaries, now declassified, prove that he knew exactly that which he was doing. In entry after entry, North records in his own handwriting the evidence that his patriotic operatives in Central America were dealing in dope. Does this make North a "patriot" or a "pusher"?

In a January 14, 1985 entry, North seems to be covering up for CIA operative John Hull, an American rancher in Costa Rica. Hull had an airfield on his property which was used to fly in arms for the Contras and fly out dope on the return trips, according to published reports and a Senate investigation. The entry reads "Rob Owen--John Hull--no drug connection--believes." Owen was one of North's bagmen to the Contras.

But the Hull story was not the first time North and his co-conspirators had evidence of dirty dealings. On Sept. 26, 1984, a documented case of dope pushers financing the Contras was made available to the FBI's special agent George Kiszynski, of the FBI's foreign counterintelligence division in Miami. Reportedly, the report was made available to North's colleague, Oliver "Buck" Revell, then Number Two at the FBI.

Special Agent Kiszynski had been given a copy of a report by a Miami Police Department investigator who interviewed a group of anti-Castro terrorists. The report, subsequently filed as defense evidence in an Iran-Contra related court case, provided extensive details concerning narcotics trafficker Francisco Chanes.

"Subject Chanes was giving financial support to anti-Castro guerrillas; the monies come from narcotics transactions"--according to Miami Police Department reports. This particular report continues by describing that two of Chanes' anti-communist dope pushers, Pedro Gil and Rolando Valdez, "are associated with an American who owns a ranch in the northern part of Costa Rica near the Nicaraguan border. The owner of the ranch is known as John Hull(s) and the ranch has an airstrip. In October 1983 a load of ammunition and firearms was unloaded on that airstrip."

OH, NOT FAWN HALL TOO!

Yep, old Ollie had a bunch of B-grade geeks for associates but even his "Playboy pretty" secretary was involved. Hall was the target of a federal drug investigation originating from the Alexandria, Va. office of U.S. Attorney Henry Hudson. The case was nicely quashed by Project Democracy's allies in the Justice Department--what a handy deal!

CIA DEFENSE

The popular belief that the U.S. government sanctions dope trafficking is so pervasive that law enforcement officials report it seems that every other dope pusher they bust has a "CIA defense". The cases are so numerous that it is hard to choose one as an example--right from court records which you can run out and confirm.

In April 1990 the U.S. government settled a civil suit to which it was not a party for a substantial amount of money beyond the loss claimed by the plaintiffs in the case of Midland National Bank vs. Puritan Insurance Co. The case took place before Federal Judge Patrick Kelly in Wichita,

Kansas. The government rushed to settle after the judge ordered Attorney General RICHARD THORNBURGH, whose aids had also been recently indicted, to appear in his court. Judge Kelly accused the government of engaging in "criminal conduct". This case "stinks to high heaven", he said. "It involves the transport of drugs by agents of the United States."

The case involved an aircraft leased by the U.S. government for Project Democracy operations from a Kansas businessman. In 1983, the plane crashed off the Cayman Islands while returning with a cargo of drugs from Colombia. Michael Toliver, the pilot and a convicted smuggler, testified that he had been hired to deliver weapons to the Contras and often made the return flight carrying drugs aboard. Toliver had previously testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Narcotics, Terrorism and International Operations, that he had flown 29 tons of marijuana to Homestead Air Force Base in Florida in exchange for weapons for the Contras.

The Wichita civil suit was brought by Midland National, which financed the plane, against the insurance company, Puritan, when the latter refused to cover loss of the crashed aircraft. Puritan claimed that it was not used for the purposes stated in the policy! And so it goes - - !

The joint congressional committee investigating the Iran-Contra scandal reached the remarkable conclusion that covert operations are completely "compatible with democratic government", if conducted under certain conditions. The Senate newbill adopts that conclusion without question.

FOUNDING FATHERS

Thomas Jefferson and the other Founding Fathers envisioned a democratic society fundamentally different from the European orders they were rejecting. In this vision, government operates in the open. Citizens participate actively in the governance process. Legislators are elected by and responsive to the will of the people. The people have the education and access to information they need to reach informed decisions and provide guidance to their elected representatives. The governing system has checks and balances to avoid excessive concentration of power in one branch of government.

Ultimately, democracy is based on a full and free exchange of ideas among all the people and produces a society based on the rule of reason and law, guided by the principles of mutual respect. The Founding Fathers believed such a system to be an earthly expression of divine will.

While many of the Founding Fathers failed to live up to their vision--in some cases holding slaves while urging democracy--they nevertheless managed to set forth a vision which you have inherited and can still achieve, for those errors were corrected.

THE SENATE BILL WHICH IS DESTINED TO PASS AND BECOME LAW, IS THE ABSOLUTE ANTITHESIS OF THE DEMOCRATIC IDEAL AS PRESENTED IN YOUR CONSTITUTION--BUT THEN, YOU HAVE ALLOWED YOUR CONSTITUTION TO BE DESTROYED RIGHT BEFORE YOUR EYES WITHOUT RAISING A FINGER TO STOP THE CRIMINALS.

In a covert action, the people of your country are completely unaware of the contemplated actions, let alone allowed to participate in evaluating their wisdom. Under SB-2834, a presidential finding usurps the legislative process in total. The purse strings are handed over to the president by Congress. Any appropriated funds can be used for covert action, even if never appropriated for that purpose.

NOT MUCH DIFFERENT FROM NOW

True! What a sad commentary upon your society that it is already not different--except that occasionally someone "gets caught". Getting caught won't be such an inconvenience any longer!

While the covert action is carried out by the U.S. government, or at the behest of the U.S. government by other parties, the people of the U.S. are never to know what has been done IN THEIR NAME! THAT IS "YOUR" NAME, FRIENDS!

Covert action is clearly not "compatible with democratic government". To the contrary, the Senate bill formalizes a monarchical system, leaving President Bush free to be a King or Dictator, totally, in foreign policies, with the always present truth that the techniques used abroad would be used at home to prevent or eliminate opposition. Remember those concentration camps?

The House version of the Intelligence Authorization Act which is about to be brought to a vote does not contain any of the "oversight" provisions in the Senate bill. THE PLAN IS TO PASS THE BILL THROUGH THE HOUSE AND THEN HAVE A CLOSED-DOOR (COVERT) CONFERENCE COMMITTEE RECONCILE THE TWO BILLS BY ADDING THE OVERSIGHT PROVISIONS TO THE HOUSE BILL. THE BILL WILL THEN BE RETURNED TO BOTH HOUSES FOR A FINAL VOTE WITH NO CHANCE FOR DEBATE OR AMENDMENT.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

What are you sleepy-heads willing to do? So far you are being run over by the gaggle of steamrollers without blinking--just upping the popularity ratings!

UNLESS YOU THE PUBLIC IMMEDIATELY BARRAGE YOUR

REPRESENTATIVES AND SENATORS WITH OBJECTIONS EN MASSE WITH OBJECTIONS TO THE OVERSIGHT SECTION OF THE SENATE BILL--DEMANDING THAT SECTION BE REMOVED FROM THE BILL--YOU WILL WELL BE WITNESSING THE TWILIGHT OF YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRACY!

HOW DID THIS SLIP BY YOU?

At about 3:30 A.M. (that's the wee, wee hours of night) in the morning on Saturday, August 4, a small group of United States senators--perhaps ten, passed the bill that fundamentally alters your constitutional system and threatens the continued viability of your democratic system. NOW--GO WORRY ABOUT HOW MANY OTHER SUCH MEETINGS AND PASSINGS HAPPENED DURING THAT LOVELY VACATION RECESS WHILE YOU WATCHED "MONSTER" HUSSEIN, AND BUSH FISHED AND GOLFED! With attention riveted on the Persian Gulf crisis, the public and most members of Congress still don't even know about the bill.

It is portrayed as a "reform" bill to address the abuses revealed in the Iran-Contra scandal; this "reform" essentially authorizes virtually every abuse.

The bill, Senate Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1991 (SB-2834)--brought to a dead-of-night vote by Senator Sam Nunn, transfers authority over the U.S. government to former CIA director, now president, George Bush and to the "Secret Government" endangering your Constitution to the point of probable destruction of same. Among the powers transferred to the sole discretion of the president are the power to initiate war, appropriate public funds, define foreign policy goals, and determine what is important to your national security. THINK ABOUT IT!

Dharma, allow rest, please. Peace be with you as we move along this journey together for the odds seem indeed great. Salu.

TODAY'S WATCH

As we sit to write it seems such a mammoth task to get you up to date with information for sometimes projections are simply not enough. How can you balance information with no foundation? It is overwhelming to this scribe to realize we must give you a couple of decades of actions and plans to allow for the "seeing". You all slept through the earlier firestorms in Babylon and writhed and twisted and proclaimed abuse over fuel costs but awakened not. Now you only wish to get your vidiot-mush and return to your dreaming--DREAM TIME IS PAST!

EARTHQUAKE INQUISITION

You have literally bombed me with queries regarding the Midwest earthquake of two days ago. I will not be specific for you should know, now, how to look for signs and relate things unto things. It WAS on the NEW MADRID fault line whereon you can expect a massive one later. I SUGGEST YOU LOOK TO THE STATUS OF YOUR SHUTTLE AND SPACE SATELLITE LAUNCHERS FOR YOU JUST HAD A GOOD REMINDER OF POWER APPROPRIATELY PLACED SO THAT THERE COULD BE NO LACK OF NOTICE. EXPECT MORE AS YOU MOVE ALONG THROUGH THESE CRITICAL WEEKS. YOUR GOVERNMENT THOUGHT IT COULD JUST SORT OF SNEAK SOME THINGS OVER ON THE REST OF THE WORLD WHILE SADDAM IS GETTING ALL THE ATTENTION--FORGET IT, NOTHING IS SLIPPING PAST THE SPY-EYES!

I suggest you keep right on in your

Gritz Warns BOP: Get Ready

Links Drugs, CIA, Mossad; Slams U.S. Foreign

During Liberty Lobby's recent 35th Anniversary National Board of Policy Convention, retired Lt. Col. James ("Bo") Gritz was a featured speaker. Gritz, America's most highly decorated Vietnam War hero, has emerged in recent years as one of the nation's most outspoken critics of the Establishment's international warmongering. In his address Gritz analyzed ongoing developments in the Middle East and here at home and how they affect the future of this country. An edited transcript of Gritz's remarks follows:

I can report to you what has happened to me behind a veil of national security, but I'm just the finger that is out there. The brains that sent me there know far more than those of us who are on the ground.

The areas of key importance today that I've pinpointed as we march forward are what I'd like to outline here.

Now starting off I want to talk about drugs.

In 1975 I was sent to Panama as commander of Special Forces in Latin America. In December of 1975, one of my best friends, Col. A.J. ("Bo") Baker, was there. Baker was not there as a Ranger commander.

He was there as a CIA operative who had been tasked by Ed Wilson and others within the agency for the purpose of setting up a navigations system from Bogota, Colombia to [a U.S.] Army airfield on the Pacific side of the Panama Canal.

The reason that Baker used his people to set up a navigation system for aircraft is so that those airplanes could fly at below 500 feet [above] actual ground level. This places them below the radar mask. If you get above 500 feet and you get painted with radar, the U.S. government and other governments might want to know what these unauthorized, unlisted flights are doing.

During the month of December and the months to follow, there were about 30 to 40 flights every month. That's almost one a day. These planes were flying in from Bogota with Medellin cartel cocaine that was being distributed directly into the United States.

The monies were being laundered through the banking institution, and there were several people at the Army airfield. One of them was ex-CIA operative Edwin Wilson. There were other people, including a man named Manuel Antonio Noriega who was also on the ground.

Now somebody you may not realize was there was a man who arrived in Panama in 1975. It's Michael Harari, a Mossad agent.

Now I've spent a lot of time in Central America, and if you go to any of those countries, you're going to find that there are Israeli teams that are training the Latin Americans. They moved in to try to pick up everything they could.

The point is: Don't be surprised that Israel's Mossad has been in Latin America dealing in arms and drugs openly for decades. Harari got behind then-dictator Omar Torrijos and Manuel Noriega, the intelligence chief at the time.

Baker was one of my very best friends, although he's dead today. I'm here to carry a torch for Bo Baker, but it's taken me a long time to speak his piece.

In 1976 I recommended that we assassinate Manuel Noriega, and I was told by the chief of intelligence to keep my hands off Noriega. He had, I was told, "immense value at the highest levels."

George Bush was director of the CIA at that time. He had put Noriega on the payroll on a retainer, making $200,000 a year (which was more than the president of the United States). That didn't even count the money Noriega was making through the illegal bank operations and through drugs and arms. But Harari was right behind him.

However, Baker was no fool. He got close enough to identify the people that his people were providing navigation for. This operation was called "Operation Watchtower."

I have a document signed by other Special Forces officers, an affidavit, which verifies that Operation Watchtower existed and that the United States government was directly involved in the trafficking of illegal narcotics from Colombia.

Baker came to me with the information. He was concerned because he was responsible for setting up the towers that were giving the low-level navigation information to the aircraft. That was his job as a soldier, and he had confirmed that he was working for Edwin Wilson, who he also confirmed was working for the CIA, and that it was all legitimate. Except there was no reporting, of course, of the illegal drugs or the illegal banking operations going on.

In January of 1976 Col. Ed Katulo took over from Baker as head of Operation Watchtower. Both men are dead today. Baker dropped over unexpectedly, and Katulo died in a training accident.

Both men died right before they were to meet with Harari. Both of them were not subtle. If they had something to say to you, they would say it to your face.

They were trying to prove that Ed Wilson was not an authorized representative of the CIA and was making millions in profits through Harari and the Mossad. They were trying to pin Harari down, and it cost them their lives, I believe.

Another Special Forces officer (who died earlier this year), Nick Rowe, one of the few POWs to escape on his own from the Vietcong, was in touch with these men. The three of them were trying to get to the bottom of this, because it wasn't right.

Rowe was assassinated in the Philippines. Harari was there in the Philippines two weeks before Rowe's assassination and one week after.

I have a letter from Rowe in which he contacted CBS's Sixty Minutes. A Miss Holyoke from Sixty Minutes said, "We're not interested in exposing a story of the U.S. government's involvement in illegal narcotics trafficking."

Rowe was ready to go public, and he encouraged CBS to do it. She explained that Sixty Minutes was too busy running down other stories.

Now as many of you probably know, I was training Afghan freedom fighters in 1986 and was asked to go into the Golden Triangle in Burma by the White House. At that time then-Vice President Bush was leading the "war on drugs."

I brought back information from Gen. Khun Sa [top drug lord of the Shan State in Burma] in which he said he would stop 600 tons of opiates from leaving the Golden Triangle. He said he would reveal every U.S. government official who had been his best customers for more than 20 years.

Did you know that in the Los Angeles Times it was recently reported that in 1989 the Drug Enforcement Agency had calculated 3,065 tons of opiates were produced in the Golden Triangle that year. In 1986 it was only 600 tons. In 1987 it was 900 tons. In 1988 it was 1,200 tons. Now it's over 3,000 tons.

Did you know that heroin goes for $1 million a pound? So when you read these reports that the police have received $7 million worth of heroin, you'll notice that it's less than seven pounds. And the U.S. government last year intercepted less heroin than they did the year before.

If only one-half of the production of the Golden Triangle was actually put out, that is 666,000 pounds times a million dollars. And we only intercepted, according to the government, about 1,000 pounds of that.

Any question now about the war on drugs? Who is making the profit?

Now let me talk about the POW situation. We had 308 American POWs captured and held in Laos. Many of them are still alive today.

Our charge d'affaires in Laos said that American POWs are "dispensable in the pursuit of U.S. foreign policy in Southeast Asia," especially since Vietnam was an undeclared war.

If that is what America has come down to—where live human beings are no longer the most important thing that we have—then we are ready for what diplomat Richard Armitage said.

He said that [Iraqi President] Saddam Hussein is, unknowingly, aiding the "new international order" led by the United States—for the time being.

I'm here to tell you that the damned oil is not destined for America. We've only got 14 percent of our oil coming from the Middle East. We've got the Alaska pipeline. We've got South America. We have pumps in Texas, Oklahoma and California that are idle. We have all kinds of alternative fuels.

It is the Trilateral entities that have dependence on that Middle East oil.

To move forward. Let's discuss the new national identity card that's been proposed. On March 31 the New York Times said that "Leading members of Congress said the nation should adopt a simpler, more secure method of identifying its citizens."

Sen. Alan Simpson (R-Wyo.) said, "It doesn't offend me to have a new national identity card."

Why do you think we would want a national identity card? Think about it.

It's been reported that "high marks" are being given to the Data Tech Co. that invented a new barcode card that is being used on the Dallas toll roads that automatically debits your bank account so that you don't have to throw money in there anymore.

It says that they are getting high marks for speeding America's movement toward a cashless society. Why is it that we would not want to have a cash society?

In Oklahoma, beginning in 1991, they will have to submit to the tax people everything that they own, in writing. If the tax assessors don't believe your form, then they can come to your home. If you refuse their entrance, you will be served with legal search warrants. If any jewelry, firearms, personal property or real estate property that you do not report is discovered, you will be fined up to 20 percent of its assessed value.

Is that in the spirit of 1776?

There's no question that this "one-world government" is coming. You've been hearing it for a long time.

Now the most dangerous congressional legislation I've seen in a long time is H.R. 4079 [SPOTLIGHT, Sept. 17]. In the Senate, it's S. 2245. If this measure gets away from us, then shame on you.

This bill is about an inch thick, but all you really need to know is what it says in this line: "As of the signing of this document into law, for five years there will be declared a national crime emergency."

Why is that important? Remember during the interrogation of Col. Oliver North by Rep. Jack Brooks (D-Texas), Brooks asked North, "I understand that you have had some doings with an executive directive that would suspend the Constitution of the United States?"

Sen. Daniel Inouye (D-Hawaii) came back and said, "Let's not talk about that. That's sensitive. We'll have to talk about that in executive session."

Well, you're damned right it's sensitive, when they are talking about suspending the Constitution.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is already set up. The president can implement FEMA's emergency authority anytime there is a national emergency. It doesn't mean that martial law will be instituted.

However, if Congress puts before the president a national emergency in the few years to come when the debt hits $5 trillion, and the president pushes for a one-world government, the people will not get a chance to choose. Debtors can't be choosers. If we do put up one hell of a fight, then there will be a national emergency.

Do you know that in Peoria, Illinois I found that local police officers have volunteered to be federalized under FEMA's control in the event of a national emergency? They get a little stipend.

Do you think that the police in Peoria, for example, are going to be left in Peoria if a national emergency comes down? They know the patriots there, and they would refuse to round them up.

What if FEMA took the Peoria officers and put them in Gary, Indiana and gave them a list of people and said, "Go get these folks?"

That is why this is a dumb bill. It is the key to instituting martial law in the United States. Don't let it happen.

I know we are doing something right. When I was speaking here in Washington recently, a State Department official I've known for about 30 years came up to me and said, "Bo, go home and shred any kind of evidence that we might use against you. The State Department has declared war on Bo Gritz."

... Doesn't want to talk about martial law.

I said, "Thank you. That's a compliment. It shows we are doing something right. If you don't prod the beast in the right place, he's not going to scratch. But when you get him riled up, he'll fight."

In 1992 we have to be ready to win. We may not have another presidential election after that. We've got to find somebody who's got some courage, and you probably won't find that person in either of the two major parties. Grass-roots America has to do something about this. Remember, it wasn't the majority that won us our independence from England. It was a minority.

Remember, friends: There's one more hill to take, and that's Capitol Hill. You better get ready.

Manuel Noreiga is behind bars now. But not too long ago, he was of "immense value at the highest levels."

reserve supply planning so that you have a bit to work with for a period of time of confusion and shortage. So be it.

I reminded you yesterday that you had flunked education for your children by government statistics. Rest easy, those of you who were worried about the general welfare of your ignorant offspring, the government is getting it under control to stop your worries. They are now "legally" and openly going to begin a massive program of handing out free condoms in your high schools and junior high schools and take education into the grade schools with "programming" for "safe-sex" in the kindergartens! It begins immediately in the New York area. Well, you have a much bigger problem than pregnancy and AIDS in the children.

Syphilis is again at epidemic proportions in the black communities of the South. This is a prime precursor to AIDS. What you call AIDS is, in fact, a different form of tertiary syphilis. It runs rampant because the people cannot afford treatment. You think I jest? Daylene took our little Andy to the doctor's office with a "new" flu infection--the simple examination to get past the doctor and on to treatment was $65. The medicine was another $60.

Debbie went to have an "annual" female checkup; the bill was $75, the medication for a simple side-line problem was another $47 and all lab tests (routine) will run another $100. And, this is in a small town where costs are less than in the cities where most of the problems are greatest. Welfare is not an answer for you are moving into a time where there will be no funds for welfare--in fact, you are already well past that stage with millions yet to need the system. These things are fresh in the scribe's mind for these things occurred within the week. Daylene was also sick but no one could afford the expense. How long do you think it will be before Andy is reinfected--from mother?

There is no insurance to cover these things--even with good insurance plans, these things are not covered. There will be more and more ones out of work. WHO WILL PAY FOR THESE THINGS? DISEASES CAN KILL OFF YOUR POPULATIONS, DEAR ONES! These children rearing children cannot tend of the costs and now ALL disease is dependent upon drugs for healing and you are in the trap. Dharma and Oberli have not been able to afford medical or dental care in over six years. This is not the exception--THIS HAS BECOME THE "RULE".

Where are you with AIDS?

AIDS

AIDS has spread beyond "high-risk" groups and remember, it can take years for the disease to come into symptoms. In earth terms you are all but beyond the point of "no-return". It must be clear to you as a populace that the diseases related to the AIDS (so-called) infection are beyond the groups such as homosexuals and drug users and are running rampant in poverty-stricken populations.

We have one case of "AIDS" recently diagnosed within the realm of local family friends, who was with a woman some six years ago for one brief night--she had acquired AIDS from a boy friend with almost as brief an encounter. A condom was utilized to prevent pregnancy--the young man is now dying of side-infections. You have been lied to over and over--condoms do nothing to prevent AIDS!

And you threw stones at those who said these ones with infection must somehow be isolated just as with Typhoid Fever or Tuberculosis and you screamed, "Lock up the bigots!"

The World Health Organization (WHO) and the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) (the very ones who created the disease in the first place) led the medical establishment in insisting that only homosexuals and drug users could get AIDS. They denied that environmental factors played a role. They denied any link between AIDS and tuberculosis. They denied any link between AIDS and syphilis or other venereal diseases. They PUSHED "safe sex", "condoms" and "clean needles", and blocked the only programs that could prevent the disease from spreading generally.

STUPID STATISTICS

The WHO now gives you some "revised" statistics. You must know that the statistics are only the tip of the iceberg.

At the end of June of this year, the WHO revised upward its estimates of the global spread of AIDS, from 6 million to over 10 million. The new estimate was based on figures from sub-Saharan Africa, Asia, and Ibero-America. In 1988, the WHO was claiming near-zero reported AIDS cases in Asia, but now must admit to well over 500,000 "reported" cases. In sub-Saharan Africa, it is estimated there are well over 5 million cases against less than 2.5 million at ending 1987. WHO also is now warning that they were "wrong" and the disease is spreading rapidly among women and children.

A recent CDC study found that one of every four men, aged 25-44, admitted to surveyed hospitals in New York City tests positive for AIDS infection. Among the black population, aged 25-44, 24% of men and 8.1% of women were positive.

Once again you can go back to your wondrous bankers and thank them. All the way back to 1973 you were warned about the consequences of the World Bank and International Monetary Fund austerity policies in Third World countries, such as the Central African states, the countries that later came to form the "AIDS belt" of the African continent. How about an update of a 1974 report prepared by the Fusion Energy Foundation (FEF), "The Potential Threat of Biological Holocaust" which predicted that under those IMF austerity policies, old and new plagues would arise. Well, of course, it was set up that way intentionally.

In 1985, a Biological Holocaust Task Force updated the '74 report, "Economic Breakdown and the Threat of Global Pandemics". It was evident from the demographic distribution of the disease that AIDS was an environmentally based disease, not a sexually transmitted disease.

Two wondrous doctors, Caroline MacLeod and Mark Whiteside in Belle Glade, Florida, a dilapidated rural slum with the highest ratio of AIDS cases in the world, showed that over half of the afflicted did not belong to a "risk group". In that particular area infested with mosquitos, it was deemed insect transmission was the most likely cause.

For reporting the results of the most careful and thorough environmental studies of AIDS to date, the doctors were subjected to ostracism. But the evidence was clear: in conditions of environmental collapse, AIDS was and is no respecter of persons.

Immediately AFTER the defeat of California Proposition 64 (an initiative to apply standard public health procedures to AIDS) in November 1986, Dr. Halfdan von Mahler, Director General of the WHO, admitted that AIDS was "out of control", especially in Africa.

MODEL DEVELOPED

In late Fall, 1986, a task force was formed to collaborate to develop a model for forecasting the future spread of AIDS. The team produced a preliminary model in early 1987, forecasting that the infection would spread in two waves in the U.S.: an initial rapid spread in the "risk groups", followed by a slower, but inexorable spread into the general population. In the initial stages of the epidemic, when few people were infected, efficient behavioral means of transmission were necessary. But once a critical mass of carriers was reached, infection would spread by less efficient environmental means, especially if the environment were in a state of collapse.

A refined version of the model projected an "autocatalytic" reaction between HIV infection and tuberculosis with HIV activating latent TB, and reciprocally, TB activating latent HIV.

The scientific and political challenge posed by the task force did not go unnoticed and in October, 1986, heavily armed local, state, and federal officers seized the offices of ones involved in the task force on "unrelated charges". DEAR ONES, AIDS IS A CREATED DISEASE AND ENJOYS THE BLESSINGS AND PROTECTION AND INSURED SPREAD BY THE GOVERNMENT AND THE WORLD CARTEL. IT WAS CREATED TO GET RID OF THE OVERPOPULATION OF YOUR PLANET. WHY DO YOU THINK IT GETS SO LITTLE ATTENTION IN THE HALLS OF THE GOVERNMENT? THE CARTEL INCLUSIVES ALREADY HAVE ANTIDOTES FOR THE DISEASES INVOLVED--TIS YOU THE PEOPLE LEFT TO DIE.

AIDS IN MEXICO

While we dwell on the subject of AIDS and have been writing about the plans for joining of the U.S. and Mexico we must speak of the matter.

The Mexican chapter of the Schiller Institute (one of the strongest Tri-lateral/Global Cartel organizations in the world) launched a high-profile campaign in about April of this year of your counting, to expose the coverup by the Mexican authorities of the AIDS epidemic, and to force the government to impose public health measures to stop the virus from spreading further. This would bring a good belly-laugh if it were not so tragically terrible.

The campaign started with a tour of Dr. Berta Farfan in the northwest states of Baja California and Sonora, and is now about to heat up and boil over in the central states of Jalisco, Michoacan, Colima, Nayarit, and Aguascalientes. Marivilia Carrasco, president of the Schiller Institute in Mexico, is giving radio interviews, public presentations, and press conferences on the AIDS crisis itself, and on the ways in which President Carlos Salinas de Gortari's economic policies are causing the expansion of this terrible disease.

Carrasco has demonstrated that as long as Salinas's economic policies are in place (and they are in place at the enforcement of the U.S.--who by the way, plans to forgive about $15 BILLION of Mexico's and Ibero-America's debt), there is no hope for those infected with HIV, and the risk of contracting AIDS is growing. International Monetary Fund austerity conditionalities have caused a severe breakdown in Mexico's infrastructure and public health system. CONTROL THE MONEY AND THE OIL OF THE WORLD AND YOU CONTROL THE WORLD--NO MORE AND NO LESS! IT IS ALL IN PLACE, IS IT NOT??

As an example of the case in point, the daily paper El Financiero reported that public expenditure has suffered "a squeeze without precedent" since, in the first quarter of 1990, Mexico's deficit was reduced by 31%--compared to a planned 10% reduction for the whole year.

During hearings of the Education, Health and Social Assistance Committee of the Federal District legislature, Hector Ramirez Cuellar said that "social expenditures have been reduced 45% nationally, which has led to a situation in which Mexico ranks fifth in poverty in Latin America." He reported that 90% of the children born in the capital are undernourished.

CITIZENS AGAINST AIDS

Dr. Farfan's tour has been widely reported as all planned pushes by the Cartel. Hundreds of people have heard her public health proposals to halt AIDS--but where are the other millions? Now let us pick up the wondrous results: 126 citizens signed a petition published July 7 in the Sonora daily El Imparcial. Somewhat underwhelming, I would suggest!

The petition, addressed to the Governor of the state of Sonora and the state congress, proposes an "Emergency Program Against AIDS". Among the signers of the petition were doctors and state legislators.

The petition calls for modifications in the state's Public Health Law, which includes traditional public health measures to treat other communicable diseases but does not include AIDS as one of those diseases. It also calls for an emergency program which includes measures proposed by the Schiller Institute over the past three years. Indeed, the Schiller Institute has been one of the few institutions internationally to insist that AIDS be treated by the public health laws in the same way that TB is: made reportable and, under some circumstances, quarantinable.

BAJA JOINS FIGHT

After the success in mobilizing citizens in Sonora, the campaign continued in the state of Baja California, where another petition was published in the local newspapers.

The petition, addressed to the state governor and state legislature, asserts that the signers decided to make the call for a modification of the law based on what the "Schiller Institute has been doing in our region to inform and propose public health measures that stop the expansion of the disease while medical science finds a cure or a vaccine for such a terrible sickness...."

The modifications that Baja California citizens are asking for are different from those in Sonora. First, Baja California laws don't say anything about communicable diseases; second, Baja California borders the U.S. state of California. Since California has such a high rate of HIV-infected people, the petition calls for screening all people crossing the USA-Mexico border in Baja California. The petition is signed by representatives of the four state municipalities: Tecate, Ensenada, Tijuana, and Mexicali. Among the signers are the municipal president of Tecate and the president of the Northeast Medical Confederation.

HOW CAN YOU CONTINUE TO MISS THE POINT?

MY WORD, CHELAS, HOW CAN YOU MISS THE POINT? YOU THINK YOUR GOVERNMENT IN THE U.S. IS DOING TOO LITTLE REGARDING THIS DISEASE WHICH THEY CREATED? THEY ARE DOING EXACTLY THAT WHICH THEY PLANNED FROM THE BEGINNING--REMEMBER THOSE CONCENTRATION CAMPS? THE PLAN IS TO WAIT UNTIL THE DISEASE IS OUT OF CONTROL, CALL A NATIONAL EMERGENCY (THE EXECUTIVE ORDER IS READY AND WAITING) AND ALL PERSONS REACTING "POSITIVE" TO NATIONALLY REQUIRED TESTING, WILL BE PUT IN QUARANTINE--COMPLETELY SEPARATED FROM THE CITIZENS OF WHICH THERE WILL BE FEW REMAINING. ALL NATIONAL "RIGHTS" WILL BE SUSPENDED "FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE PUBLIC" AND YOU WILL HAVE ACCOMPLISHED A MAJOR STEP IN THE GLOBAL 2000 PLAN OF TOTAL CONTROL--THAT GROUP, OF COURSE, WILL PERISH!

WHAT DOES IT REQUIRE OF ME TO GET YOUR ATTENTION?

LET US SEE ANOTHER DELIBERATE POPULATION CONTROL

The Bush administration has scuttled a confidential White House report on how your country could remedy its soaring infant mortality rate. I speak of this in light of my earlier reference to the Mexican infants. You who can forgive multi-Billions of Dollars due and owing from other countries? (How about the deal with Greece? You are giving them four U.S. Navy destroyers, $345 million in arms and equipment, AND A $50 MILLION DEBT WRITE-OFF ON PAST ARMS PURCHASES--ANOTHER TAXPAYER GIFT--just for allowing renewal of U.S. military base rights there, one of which is a major Northrup installation on Crete.) YOUR ADMINISTRATION SAYS IT WOULD COST TOO MUCH TO IMPLEMENT THE REPORT'S RECOMMENDATIONS IN ORDER TO SAVE THOUSANDS OF AMERICAN BABIES FROM DEATH AND DISABILITIES EACH YEAR.

Forty THOUSAND infants die in America each year before they reach their FIRST BIRTHDAY and another 400,000 develop chronic or disabling conditions. The data have been available for years. Funny thing is that once the White House Task Force on Infant Mortality analyzed the crisis, it reported that simply by applying the knowledge you already have, plus an outlay investment of some $500 million (Hmmmmmm--but what would that do to Greece's military force and the "big deal" political debt forgiveness?), you could "save over 10,000 additional infant lives each year and prevent an untold number of disabilities among infants."

The Task Force, after all, did grow out of your President Bush's campaign promise (read his lips) "to invest in our children".

GETS BETTER SO STAY TUNED

The Task Force calls on the President to make infant mortality an issue of "national urgency", because "this country cannot afford its current infant mortality rate in economic or in human terms." Its report came out last November (1989) and was promptly "leaked" to the media early in August (1990).

White House claims that the report was being "edited" were challenged by one representative, John Dingell, who contends that "high-level White House officials vetoed the report during critical administration budget deliberations in late 1989." Dingell, who has been trying to get his hands on the report since April, wrote to Secretary of Health and Human Services Louis Sullivan that, "Our constitutional system of checks and balances does not sanction the withholding of documents for political reasons."

The report states that "infant mortality and disability are not intractable problems" for the U.S., which has an overall infant mortality rate of 10.1 deaths per 1,000 live births--higher than 21 other industrialized countries. The mortality rate for black infants is double that of white infants. By contrast, Japan's infant mortality rate, which was 20% higher than America's in 1960, is now the lowest in the world.

NOW SOME STATS THAT SHOULD BE TOUGH TO CHEW

While you give away billions upon billions of dollars and war toys, let us look at findings in the good old USA (read my lips carefully).

The White House Task Force, established in July 1989, includes representatives of 10 federal departments and agencies, and six offices within the Office of the President. Its report starts by quoting the Hebrew Talmud: "If we save but one life, we save the world." Now that is a Jewish projection--not a Zionist's--KNOW THE DIFFERENCE!

The report reviews the factors, by now well known, that lead to premature birth and low birth weight--the causes of 60% of infant deaths in the first four weeks of life. The Task Force found that 25% of all babies born each year are born to poor families; another 20% are born to families with incomes at 100-185% of the poverty level. You also know that 45% of all black children live below the poverty line. "Each infant death," the report found, "represents an estimated $380,000 in lost productivity. Reducing infant mortality could lead to an increase of $2.3 billion in national productivity." Of course it does not represent any such thing and the administration knows it. It represents that many more persons to not go on the welfare rolls, dear hearts.

SAFE SEX?????

Can you begin to see that every spectrum of your lives has been corrupted and devastated through your misuse of God's laws and commandments? Will it ever seep through? Is abortion better? Does it matter? If there is no money, dear ones, death comes to the door either way! Responsibility comes BEFORE the fact, not AFTER!

Hundreds of counties across your country have no obstetrician or GP to deliver babies. High malpractice insurance premiums bar most doctors from caring for poor pregnant women. Medicare and Medicaid payments are too low to cover the expenses involved. Medicaid pays the same flat rate per delivery, whether routine or Caesarian--so you can bet one thing, there are fewer non-necessary Caesarians in this grouping.

THE ENDLESS SPIRAL OF EXCUSES

Look at Texas as an example of the problem. Of 254 counties there, 54 have NO hospitals. Texas has lost 105 hospitals since 1980, half in rural areas--all due to underpayment from Medicare/Medicaid (what does this tell you about the numbers of persons on Medicare and Medicaid?). Hospitals lose $600 to $780 per Medicare/Medicaid patient, causing physician and nurse shortages. When cities like Houston have their health budgets cut, more shortages occur, and clinics are cut. So infants and children there die of measles and TB. In parts of Houston, infant mortality is up to 18.5 deaths--higher than in Costa Rica (18.0). Too, 13 maternal deaths were reported last year in one Houston hospital. Now why would that be? Because of the lack of payments in higher scale for proper surgery. And so it goes.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

It means that you are sitting ducks with no pond in which to swim. You have been set up and given into a system which renders you helpless. They teach you to rely on them for your every whim and food morsel and when you are properly helpless, you can do nothing! You as a population have all but reached the point of no return in every facet of your lives. Where will the money come from to see you through the AIDS incarcerations and the stopping of all welfare? If the entire population gave every earned penny into the government, you could not even pay the interest on all your debts. The Global 2000 Cartel and World Bankers have you right where they want you--hooked and flopping and no way off the line. The planners have worked long, long years to reach this point and they will not "just go away" and give you back your nation.

BRITAIN ACQUIRED THE PERSIAN GULF

Another subject which continually comes back to me is "How did the Persian Gulf become a British Pond?" The subject above would not seem to have much relationship but I TELL YOU NOW--EVERYTHING IS RELATED TO EVERYTHING ELSE! Through years of planning and orchestration do these things come to pass--while the populace sleeps and dreams of sugarplums and fairy god-mothers.

For the next discussion I give great honor and appreciation to one Webster G. Tarpley, an Executive Intelligence Review Board member, who has reviewed the British colonial role in the Middle East in light of the present crisis. Dharma, perhaps it will suffice to simply give excerpts as already printed for we are most short of time this morning and as I have scanned the material; it is excellent in content.

In particular, Mr. Tarpley noted that the family of Jabir Ahmad Jabir Sabah, the now-deposed Emir of Kuwait, has been an imperial satellite and pawn of the British Foreign and Colonial Office for almost a century.

The British have been involved in the Persian Gulf since well before the exploitation of the area's immense petroleum reserves because it was key to their control of their Indian Empire. Perhaps you will be better able to see that which is going on in that sector and keep in mind the historical data we presented to you recently. If you cannot understand and see the problems there is no hope of solving them.

QUOTE, WEBSTER G.
TARPLEY:

In the late 1890's, Sheikh Mubarak al Sabah, the ancestor of the present toppled ruler, was a down-on-his-luck petty warlord of the arid Gulf littoral. Kuwait, according to tradition, had been founded in 1710, and an emirate under the Sabah family is said to have existed from 1756 on. The entire region was, of course, formerly a part of the Ottoman Empire, and Kuwait remained ultimately subject to the Sultan in Constantinople, but the authority of the Sublime Porte was already tenuous in the upper Gulf, where various petty rulers were seeking to break loose from the Sultan in the direction of the Court of St. James. In March 1897, Mubarak asked to be placed under the protection of the British Crown. The British Foreign Office declined, but Mubarak kept repeating his offer.

The British became more interested when they began to perceive that other great powers, notably Russia, might be interested in taking over Kuwait. The British became especially alarmed when it appeared that Kuwait might become the south-east terminus for the Berlin-to-Baghdad railway, which was being projected by Germany.

In January 1899, an agreement was signed between Sheikh Mubarak and Colonel Meade, the British political resident in the Gulf, which made Kuwait a protectorate of the British Crown. One of the provisions of this accord was that it was to be kept secret. Kuwait thus became a British protectorate and was to remain one until 1961, when its nominal independence was established. But as far as the Sultan and even world public opinion were concerned, Kuwait in 1899 remained a part of the Ottoman Empire. According to the British Foreign Secretary, Lord Lansdowne, "a shadowy suzerainty may be exercised by the Sultan over the Sheikh, but the Sheikh should not be described as 'technically a subject of the Sultan.'" In 1899-1902, the Royal Navy employed or threatened armed force numerous times to protect Mubarak from the Turks.

The British found Emir Mubarak an unruly and aggressive ward. In 1901, Lansdowne wrote, "We have saddled ourselves with an impossible client in the person of the Sheikh. He is apparently an untrustworthy savage, no one knows where his possessions begin and end, and our obligations towards him are as ill-defined as the boundaries of his Principality."

Mubarak became involved in a rivalry with another local potentate, Ibn Rashid, for the domination of eastern Arabia. As a result of this rivalry, Mubarak gravitated toward an alliance with another desert warlord, Abdul-Rahman ibn Faisal al-Saud, and with the latter's son, Abdul-Aziz, later King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia, who was able to administer some defeats to Ibn Rashid in 1902, and who was later associated with Lawrence of Arabia--T.E. Lawrence (T.E. Shaw).

During World War I, the upper Gulf was important as a base of operations for British forces advancing against the Ottoman Army defending Baghdad, with which the German General von Falkenhayn served for a time. During these years of 1914-18, the British repeatedly reaffirmed their protectorate over Kuwait.

INDEPENDENCE AND AFTERMATH

On June 19, 1961, the British government announced that it was terminating the protectorate of 1899 and was recognizing the sheikhdom as an independent state. At this time, the British government also signed an undertaking, promising to provide military assistance to Kuwait if asked to do so by the Kuwaiti government.

Several days after London had announced Kuwait's independence, Gen. Abdul Karim Kassem, the prime minister of Iraq, advanced a claim on Kuwait, maintaining that Kuwait had always constituted an "integral part" of Iraq. Kassem argued that under the Ottoman Empire Kuwait had been juridically a part of the Ottoman province of Basra, and that ethnically, geographically and socially, Iraq and Kuwait were in effect one country, which had been artificially and arbitrarily partitioned by the British.

Kuwait appealed to the UN Security Council for help against Iraq, but no action was taken because the U.S.S.R. interposed its veto. London thereupon chose to act unilaterally, and in early July 1961, some 600 Royal Marines landed in Kuwait. The British government announced that it would be willing to withdraw its forces if they could be replaced by a peace-keeping force of the Arab states. British diplomacy had, in the meantime, induced the Arab League to admit Kuwait as one of its members, thus further buttressing its claim to independence. Arab forces began to arrive in Kuwait by September, and in October the last of the British departed. But in December of the same year, the British placed their Middle East forces on a high alert, in response to reports of new Iraqi attempts to seize Kuwait, which did not, however, materialize.

In October 1973, Kuwait was at the center of world attention as the venue of a meeting of the six largest Gulf oil producers which announced a 17% increase in the price of crude oil, in response to the Yom Kippur War involving Israel, Egypt, and Syria at that time. But in March 1973, another acute crisis involving Iraq had emerged. In that month, Iraqi troops occupied a police station in the locality of Sameta, some 2.5 miles inside Kuwaiti territory. Sameta commanded a dominating position over the Iraqi port of Umm Qasr. For a time there was the danger of larger-scale fighting, but the dispute was submitted to negotiations, which dragged on to late August without any result, and were then adjourned. In June of this year, the National Assembly voted an appropriation of $1.2 billion to provide Kuwait with a defense force.

The Sabah regime in Kuwait has been noted especially for its unbridled nepotism, with a 1984 survey showing members of the emiri family holding the posts of deputy prime minister, foreign minister, information minister, interior minister, finance minister, and various sub-cabinet posts. The Sabah clan is known for its sybaritic lifestyle, with yachts, limousines, race horses, and opulent consumption as the order of the day.

And so you see how it goes. An amusing aside is that this same group of family rulers are nicely flourishing in a totally luxurious lifestyle awaiting you nice Americans to fight their war for them. They get the money and you get the bloodshed. A WORD TO THE WISE IS OBVIOUSLY NOT SUFFICIENT!

Dharma, I think we need to take a break for I am about to launch off on a new subject concerning your Attorney General Richard Thornburgh and it would be too lengthy to conclude herein. Suffice it to say that he is entangled to his eyes in contributions (bribes) with one who is chairman of the Senate JUDICIAL Committee, Joseph Biden (D-Del) and your loudest mouth in behalf of "Israel First". Is it any wonder that your judicial system has fallen into the pigpen? Just a teaser perhaps: according to the August 7, 1990, filing with the Federal Election Commission by Citizens for Biden, on June 27, 1990, the Kirkpatrick and Lockhart PAC donated $2,000 to the Biden campaign. At the time of his appointment as Attorney General in August 1988, Thornburgh was a partner in the Pittsburgh office of that firm. Thornburgh has been with the firm since 1959.

Thornburgh held a lot of leverage over the Delaware Democrat and that explains Biden's persistent refusal to take congressional action after a string of scandals erupted around Thornburgh in these past six months. You ones are going to find the circle closing and see how YOU ARE CAUGHT IN THE NET--NONE OF YOU WILL ESCAPE THE DECEIT AND GLOBAL PLAN!

I move to stand-by, please.

Hatonn to clear, thank you.

BLOOD AND ASHES
by Hatonn

You are sitting upon the bomb ready to be burst and you hide within the lies. This book is truth and we are now writing in sequence so that you might see the correlation between the lies of one decade heaped upon the next--but the play is the same. Satan intends to win or pull as many with him as is possible--there will be many, dear friends.

To understand the lies given unto you this day in your "Middle East" you must know of the lies told you by your government during the decade past. The traitorous Zionist plan to win world domination through an American nuclear first strike on Russia has not been abandoned, even though Russia has thwarted several attempts.

The "Biblical Prophecies", written not by God but by Satan, are being played out by a mankind brainwashed and blinded to believe them to be "inevitable". They are not. Mankind, hearing God's WORD, can re-write the script to fit God's plan, a much more wholesome scenario.

FIRESTORM IN BABYLON
THE TIME IS COME
by Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

History is repeating itself--in ever shortening cycles. It is he who can learn from history who will prevail.

This book is a review of the several attempts to start Nuclear War I during the past ten years and how that relates to the current (September, 1990) Middle East "Crisis in the Gulf"

The world teeters on the Abyss of total all-out nuclear war, the military bases of the U.S., foreign and domestic, have been stripped of men and equipment, and the news media (controlled by political and financial cartels) work diligently to obscure the truth.

FOR YOU WHO STAND IN TRUTH--THERE SHALL BE PEACE IN THE VALLEY FOR YOU! GOD EXTENDS HIS HAND; HE HAS AGAIN SENT HIS "SON" AND THE "HOSTS" AFORE HIM. WHO WILL TAKE OF HIS HAND? WHO WILL THEN TAKE OF THINE BROTHER'S HAND?

PHOENIX JOURNAL LECTURE VIDEOTAPE
by George Green

America West is now offering a 50 minute color videotape of publisher George Green's recent lecture at the Denver Global Sciences Conference. The lecture covers George's long history with extraterrestrials and so-called UFO's. The lecture explains early contacts with Swiss contactee Billy Meier, slides are presented showing various craft, and the talk moves into recent contact with the Pleiadeans which has resulted in publication of the Phoenix Journals and Phoenix Express Newsletter. This lecture is an excellent introduction and summary of the material presented by our space brothers. The cost is $19.95, plus $2.50 shipping/handling.

When we're blue, the thing to do is just to go after a little laughter.

We are what we are; we gain nothing by copying others.

Good and bad luck are synonyms, in the great majority of instances, for good and bad judgment.

The man who was called on to address 1,200 men and women at the chamber of commerce banquet was rushed to the hospital the day before the big event for exploratory surgery. As the surgeon cut open his stomach, a flock of butterflies flew out. "Well, I'll be!" exclaimed the surgeon. "He was telling the truth."

Thanks to jogging, more people are collapsing in perfect health than ever before.
