TODAY'S WATCH

Oh chela, chela, chela; it is fine that we have missed a day in writing for you are bound by human limits and the physical form is fatigued. You have enough to concern about with the nerds in your Congress and Administration without writing about the BANKS today. Blessings be unto Charles for he has given us the breath assistance which helps the soul to find a bit of peace and order--I am most grateful.

As we run and "mush" through these days of overload we shall simply have to cast aside that which is left unfinished. Reprioritize and allow it go for you cannot do of it all.

We must be most careful, however, to make sure that our priorities are in order. Today, for instance, is a day in which the most important ones almost did not come because it was perceived they could not bring of their little tots. We must remember that there are some twenty adults in this group, already in Tehachapi and any one or more could miss the meeting to keep the toddlers in safety, for any ones of you in the town could most easily miss of the meeting with me. Desiree', you must not "wait" for volunteers, precious, lest you never get help. So be it. You must not just require that the young ones with children do of it for they are the most consumed of all as to restrictions. There are plenty of grandfathers and grandmothers in this crowd and I am pained that it has even come to such a discussion. NEVER DO THE BABIES OR CHILDREN ANNOY HATONN OR GOD--SOME OF YOU OLDER ONES, YES! THE CHILDREN--NO, NEVER!

While we are on the subject of children, Dharma, I want you to take time this weekend to spend with the children and grandchildren. You have not seen them for months for we have not given you a day for rest or visiting in well over a year and we must remember that you cannot be all unto all. A family is a most precious thing and we have required that you have neglected and been neglected far too much in these days of pressure and bringing forth the writings. I cannot function as clearly when you are distressed and burdened to the extent you are these days.

Blessings are unto all of you who have been pushed by the public for now the rewards can begin to flow back in the cycle. It has been and continues to be such a great responsibility--especially to George and Desiree' who must face those multitudes of hounding questions and always accept the ones who are rude and insulting. You handle it superbly and soon, I shall come forth to do a little house cleaning when the station is nearby. You are welcome, at any time now, to interrupt your program when you get a "Fritz" on the line--to call upon me! I shall quite enjoy setting a few of these smart disinformation specialists to correct perceptions. I prefer to not bring this location nor Dharma into public encounter as to set up a program but I most certainly am most happy to interject a bit of thought correction.

I remind you ones of the "way out" of any encounter. Stand on truth and "this is MY PERCEPTION OF WHAT THIS OR THAT MEANS!" You do not need to, nor is it appropriate, to speak FOR any of us authors and you must always leave an opportunity "to be incorrect in your projections". This is not a correction unto you--it is simply to give you comfort. Another excellent response to dissenters is to simply keep asking if they have read ALL the Journals. If not, they have no basis upon which to argue and refuse to do so. It is an incredible task to interject yourselves into the atmosphere of blackness with the talk show hosts themselves for they are already "authorities" on every subject and cannot keep their mouths shut long enough for input. Always a good response when they allow you to not speak is to simply let them ramble and when they run down and ask why you do not answer--tell them, "If you shut your mouth, perhaps I can!"

So much for this matter, we can discuss it. I shall probably decline to allow Dharma to listen in to too many because she becomes quite irate at the insults unto you who are just trying to discuss a subject. It is much like watching a child do a piano recital--the comments from the crowd who think the child plays badly are quite painful to the parent. And always remember: MY SHOULDERS FIT A NINE AND A HALF FOOT FRAME--THERE IS NO BURDEN I CANNOT CARRY FROM SUCH AS KIBITZERS AND I DO, IN FACT, ENJOY THE ENCOUNTER IMMENSELY.

WHAT OF THE SHUTTLE LAUNCH?

It is unimportant. The pay-load on this shuttle is follow-on for the one they did not get launched and it will simply be removed by the Russians at the appropriate time. Sun probes indeed! This story is to cover for all of the heat sensing devices and sensitive apparatus they have on the system to monitor earth blasts. They don't even bother to change the scenario any longer. I think, though, that the public might just be starting to "smell the toast burning"--frying, perhaps, in Fuel/Air holocaust. That was a BIG ONE THAT THE RUSSIANS GAVE UNTO YOU THROUGH THE "LEAK-VINE". You ones have absolutely no defense against those weapons and that public projection is truth. It was just the Russian's way of telling the bureaucrats to mind their business and not push too far. Mr. Bush didn't like that bean spilling at all, on top of his slap in the face with the budget. Good for you people! Oh, the administration will make the piper (you) pay, but stand tall for you just pulled a coup on the criminals. You the public, John Q. Public, are going to get a real view of nasty politics now and you can make some real headway if you don't get sucked in by the lies they will conjure now. You can bet there will shortly be an incident in the Middle East to punish you ones, but keep your eyes open and don't let the truth fail to surface.

WEAPONS

Oh my yes, the Fuel/Air explosions are bad--and it should shut down the stupid passing out of chemical gas masks. Every one of you participants in the Middle East hocus pocus have the ability to utilize those missiles and they are as horrendous as anything you have conjured up to devastate a scattered army. You see the "beams" as such are not too effective in a "scattered" situation but these nice fire bombs can blanket miles in pure hell. The heat is so intense that you might as well be in a hydrogen blast except that radioactivity becomes a moot issue. I believe you can also see why it would be the weapon of choice wherein your enemies (Global Cartel) are not yet ready to give up the functioning world.

A city set afire by this weapon is going to burn the entire area without selection because the entire area is blanketed in fire, but outlying areas in rural locations will not suffer greatly and there is not need for radiation panic. These are just dandy to set all the Middle Eastern oil fields afire and yes, Mr. Hussein will do that just as soon as Mr. Shamir sets the Saudi fields afire and creates the "incident" as planned.

Funny things happen in this kind of a game of wits. You see, Israel passed out gas masks to all her population in order to dump chemicals on her own people to cause the "incident" which would start the war. It was a superb way to wipe out the Palestinians because they wouldn't have masks and Hussein would be blamed for the entire matter. Never underestimate the capability of the Russians who sprang this new weaponry on you the public because Shamir would be a total and visible fool to douse his own with chemicals now. Keep your eyes and ears open and pay attention for we are making some real progress and it will pick up momentum as we move along.

NOTE THE DISTRACTORS

The distractors shall be kept moving from one to another now as you all pay attention to the government closing operations; no one will even notice what happens to Keating, the senators involved, Neil Bush and thus and so. You will hardly notice when Bush calls a NATIONAL EMERGENCY and takes over through Executive Order under "national emergency regulations"! Sorry about that--but you had forgotten that he can do that and you needed reminding. He can take away every one of your Bill of Rights by the signature on an order--without ever touching the budget papers. Well, it has not eluded his notice nor the notice of those "advisers" and manipulators--why do you think you had to have a Middle East incident in the first place? Oh yes, it is that bad, dear ones--it is even worse for you will have to have some kind of a war anyway in order to pull off the whole thing. TAKING BACK CONTROL OF YOUR DESTINY AND GOVERNMENT IS NOT AN EASY TASK BUT SURELY YOU SEE THAT IT CAN BE DONE IF YOU HOLD TRUE AND REQUIRE THAT YOUR REPRESENTATIVES "MEASURE UP" TO YOUR DEMANDS.

You will note that even the ones who quoted the Constitution--from California indeed (and I directly thank you letter writers for that is where it came from), did not mention the way outlined in the Constitution to balance the budget and pay for these overburdens. Most do not even KNOW and the others are very, very careful to never let that get into your attention. Feel gratified for a job well done--you made them stop and pay attention for they dared not run rampant right over you the people in the last two days--ones of the criminal element are getting nervous about their jobs, dear hearts, so let's keep them nervous.

Even though we seem to walk through the shadows, we walk not alone for in the light are the pitfalls illuminated. Hold it ever in thine hearts. Keep ever in thine minds, also, that Gorbachev and Bush agreed that there should be no nuclear war in the Middle East until 1992/93. Keeping the Israelis in line may be impossible but I believe you can see that some "good judgment" is coming into play from the direction of Russia as regards weapons, etc. No, it does NOT mean that there will not be war; it does mean that it becomes pretty stupid to press the luck in the matter for an awfully large number of people are going to get hurt and killed and YOU WILL NEED THEM LATER FOR THE NEXT WAR--SO, GOOD JUDGMENT WOULD BE TO CALL THIS ONE OFF. Israel, however, is being pushed to get that West Bank into her clutches and mad-men in a frenzy do foolish things. So be it.

Dharma, allow us to close this as it is time for guests and you need a bit of respite before we begin our work during the remainder of this day. We can talk of these things during our meeting later today.

Hatonn to stand-by as I clear the frequency, please.

Salu

TODAY'S WATCH

Greetings in the beauty of the early morning while the quiet beauty awakens into the wonder of a day of radiance for our using. May we fill it with beauty for it has been given in love for our experience. AHO! Hatonn present; in service.

As we begin this morning I would like to speak briefly regarding "receiving". As more ones come into the circle of the Phoenix Journals it is perhaps time to again speak of "methods" of communication.

There is nothing strange nor mystical regarding our transmissions--in fact, I shall herein, again, dissolve even the "mystery". Mysticism is that which is conjured around myths, magic and usually a wondrous blending of the two. Mystery is that which is simply not yet known unto you personally--not a "secret", only yet unknown in fullness.

My language is silent for the most part. I can speak but those with whom I communicate do not need written or spoken words, therefore, let us better define a "receiver". I, for instance, do transmit on a frequency just as in a radio transmission. I believe, however, a better way to describe her "job", if you will, is as a "translator". I am continually asked why or how it is that I speak English. I do not speak English, I project thought forms and depend upon her data banks (and sometimes give her new vocabulary to better suit my descriptive needs) and vocabulary data. It is much as any translator who simply "retells" a statement in a native language. Can anyone do it? Of course, all can do it--if you know the frequency and can "tune your radio".

Ones with a mission or who are receivers have it simplified even more easily, however, in that we work most closely and the frequency is already set. Dharma's "Hatonn" frequency is always "on" and two other frequencies always "on" and utilized by others. If you could move within her head you would run into a barrage of ever changing tones or "frequencies", just like scanning a radio tuner. Her "automatic push buttons", however, are pre-set for instant connection with my frequency because her purpose at this time is as my translator. I have constant attachment to her right receiver, Sananda Emmanuel (Christos) to her left and "Grandfather" to her central banks. This is being put in such simplified manner that we feel foolish but I believe it is better clarified by relationships with something which you have daily access. I, for instance, simply pour in universal language for the most part--unless I am in the practice of a particular communications language for later use, and she translates the material. If the subject is technical in nature and beyond her knowledge, I simply dictate and translate myself. If I utilize material already put to print, I utilize computer resources and basically, read the information--depending upon what my purpose might be for the written word--or, I will give her instructions as to resource to allow for proper spelling, etc. Your spelling of word symbols are atrociously complicated and unnecessary and your punctuation and prepositions totally absurd so I usually confuse them and write a lot of "and's" when I should put "for", etc. It is better to leave those things to an editor for when we are in communication Dharma is so finely "tuned" that we rarely interrupt for any purpose and we write as fast as she can type the symbols. It is quite interesting to observe, for as she translates and types there is frequently a word which will have all the proper symbols but all out of order.

My point in this discussion is to allow you to receive a better description of this mechanism and get rid of the "mystical" format. We, further, never sit to communicate until all energies utilizing the system are cleared and "authorized" to utilize the frequency. Where exceptional receivers are "lost" is through that one error in ego judgment. A "hacker" can utilize the frequencies when allowed to so do--it is up to the receiver to prevent the interference. This is a mutual agreement relationship with great respect and understanding that I will never embarrass her, speak untruths in conceptual matters and she will write that which she understands not nor has nor has had access to the information. In other words, she clears to my frequency, writes that which I give her whether or not she agrees and reserves her opinions for expression just as any reader of the material--after the fact, just as would a translator from Russian into English. Often the opinion given by me, the speaker, and that of the "management", her, vary considerably--but she does not have access to all the data scanners which are available to me.

I hope I have responded in a manner that is not simply more confusing.

FUEL-AIR EXPLOSIVES

Within the past few days I am bombarded with requests for additional information regarding the Fuel-Air explosives that Saddam has. I have discussed these weapons in prior papers but it is news to you the public and I am happy to re-identify the information as well as remind you that all of the participants and potential major participants in any Middle Eastern war (actually, any war these days, anywhere) are equipped with everything because of the random distribution of arms on the market as well as the nature of the elite undercover agencies such as the CIA, Mossad, etc. ALL are equipped with ALL to serve the purposes of the Global Planners. Sophisticated killers are available to both sides of any disagreement in these days of terrorists.

Russia has the technology, however, that all other governments lack and have been able to gain control from "position". Some things, to be effective, must have space capability for aiming, surveillance and focus in firing. Russia can take out anything you can place in space at this time and has remarkable defenses against anything you can fire at her. Therefore, YOU (U.S. and Allies) have no defense against these Fuel-Air weapons but she has all of yours pin-pointed to exact location and can "beam" explode them on your launching pads. The day you utilize them for attack against Iraq, for instance, your army will find themselves blowing themselves up in a most heinous manner.

In Russia and now in Iraq, are installations surrounding all installations of importance which surveil the entire circumference of entry of any object, with ability to identify, see through the electronic shielding and intercept instantaneously. Further, the space based weapons can identify and destroy anything you can get off the ground so far.

The Fuel-Air explosives are not new but are extremely powerful and are the weapon of choice in encounters wherein radiation is undesirable. These weapons are the main reason the facade of gas-masks, chemical suits and other such nonsense is totally ridiculous--no one except Israel has any intention of such stupid encounters. Chemicals would be for distraction and "incident" value--nothing more. Further, the "INCIDENT" would kill thousands of Palestinians and the Israelis with all their lovely new designer masks would survive a self-inflicted dousing--blamed on the Iraqi terrorists. No, it won't sell except to you who believe the drivel you read and are fed by the controlled media.

Does your government know all this? Who knows exactly who knows what? Well, your government knows for sure, but only at the highest Establishment level and now as some manipulated congressmen find out, it gets a bit more tedious to fool you completely. YOU must understand that Saddam is not a mad-man in any sense of the word and he would never stand off the entire world elite if he wasn't pretty sure he had defenses which can allow him to prevail. He has no wish to blow up the world--not even the U.S.--he wants to sell his oil, make money for his nation and unite his people--inclusive of Kuwait. This battle is not even about oil, dear friends--IT IS ABOUT WORLD DOMINATION AND CONTROL.

Fuel-Air explosive devices carry the destructive power of small nuclear bombs. Saddam has them and has them set on target--your military "invaders" playing soldiers in the Saudi desert. Your military leaders know you are targeted and know the consequences of this type of weaponry and yet your government continues to push the world to the brink of a most devastating war.

The Fuel-Air explosives, or FAE's, have a minimum of ten times the power of conventional explosives and create a tremendous fireball of intensely super-heated particles and create a shock wave of intense magnitude over a relatively large area with total devastation in the concentrated impact area. BUT YOU HAVE NO RADIATION FALLOUT ASSOCI-ATED AS WITH NUCLEAR WEAPONS.

They are surely not your "garden variety" of bows and arrows, spears and sling-shots. These are incredible blast-effect weapons, and what you can't see can certainly kill you dead. You have no defense against such weapons nor any way to intercept the missiles bearing them. You would have no ability to effectively defend against such a missile-delivered warhead. Your leaders will tell you that they don't "believe" Iraq has technology to "mount the system on missiles". I TELL YOU THEY HAVE THE CAPABILITY AND ALREADY HAVE THEM IN PLACE FOR USE--INSTANTLY! THE SOVIETS HAVE SET THEM UP AND CONTINUE TO RENDER THEM TARGETED AND READY TO FIRE. You can know this to be truth by the new edict to allow some of the Russians to leave Iraq. That is simply to tell you that they are now finished with their work and that you had best "back off". Thousands are remaining to man the scanner systems. You are playing with destruction beyond your imagination if you pursue this into war because someone is going to lose their "cool" and start firing these toys.

It is amusing to note that now the senators, such as Glenn and Helms, are going to "insist" these weapons be looked into. More distractors, beloved ones. Can you really believe that a former astronaut who has flown in the face of the lies and deceits would not know of these weapons--especially ones who have taken bribes for their cover-ups in the government and against you the people?

The noose tightens even more gripingly as you will find that the components and scientific knowledge to build the weapons came into Iraq from the German arms industry. The arms industry of the world simply sold to anyone who could buy and you of the super-powers paid for the "stuff" and supplied the technicians.

It certainly is not complicated to figure out--just hard to believe in your innocent naivety.

A major German aerospace and defense firm, Messerschmitt-Bolkow-Blohm, conducted feasibility studies on an FAE device as part of a major missile project with the Egyptian government (oops, there went your $7 BILLION for garbage). That project terminated in about 1988 and all that dandy technology remained ready if the price was right--and the price will always be right at the appropriate time. Egypt simply turned around and provided all that nice technology to their beloved brother and friend, Iraq.

WEAPONS ALL OVER THE MAP

It is hard for me to understand your "sudden" surprise at these weapons in Iraq. It is most amusing indeed and seems to somehow conveniently coincide with a need for distraction while your Congress plays at budgets and "broke" government, etc. Could it be another "chemical" weapons scare to rally the troops (you the public) behind the controllers in order to "protect" your children?

Will you never see that your Establishment is setting itself up for total control and they will get there by any means possible? IT WAS YOUR PRESIDENT THAT BROUGHT YOUR NATION TO A STANDSTILL--AND IT IS YOUR PRESIDENT THAT CAN NOW OVERRIDE THE ENTIRE CONSTITUTIONAL SYSTEM AND MOVE ON "EMERGENCY REGULATIONS" BY "EXECUTIVE ORDER" AND PLANS TO DO SO--JUST AS SOON AS THINGS ARE A BUNGLED AND ENTANGLED MASS OF DEMANDING POPULATION. YOU WILL DEMAND THAT HE ACT AND IN SO-DOING, YOU WILL HAVE GIVEN AWAY YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS FOR ALL CAN BE HANDLED THEN UNDER EMERGENCY REGULA-TIONS AND THE NEW LAWS ENACTED WILL ALLOW IT TO HOLD FOR A MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS, DEAR FRIENDS. BY THEN IT WILL ALL BE OVER BUT THE CRYING.

The weapons in point are in the arsenals of the Soviet Union, Israel, China, France, Germany, Spain and several Third World nations in addition to Iraq. This is well known by the Pentagon which just happened to forget to mention it to you the people and/or Congress. Besides, "Gorby" told Mr. Bush all of this at their "summit". How long will you the public allow of this? It seems likely that you will begin to pay better attention in the wake of the budget vote. It is not so simple, however, for either way it would go would be to your disadvantage for you have allowed laws to become active which allow for total bypass of the Congressional and Constitutional "system". You CAN, however, recover it if you want to badly enough for it is up to you the people to unify and they cannot stop you for at this point ALL is not lost to your use. If, however, you do not stand and refuse this treatment, you will lose for with each defeat you are more binded. You are now beginning to experience the "proof" you keep demanding from me! You are experiencing the steamroller in motion and running amok over all in its wake toward Establishment control.

The action is mandatory, from the U.S.A. You are the last population within a nation with the ability to stand in any measure of freedom at all. The Russians are gaining ground on you, however. Of course it will not be easy or without effort to turn this tide the other direction and recover your freedom--but it is not yet too late if you take your stand--you proved as much by your refusal to accept the bounds of the ridiculous budget. You can now see that it is your President acting in dictatorial fashion who single-handedly has put the whip to your backsides. He is giving you a show of power and don't overlook as much. He is counting on you to back off and demand passage of the hardship package on yourselves just to get his permission to operate your country again.

What about all those parks and services that belong to you the people--it seemed with the stroke of a pen one man closed them all away from you the people--how be it possible if they be yours? IT IS NOW THE TIME TO REMAIN STRONG LEST YOU LOSE OF YOUR NATION AND FREEDOM DURING THE ENTIRE REMAINDER OF YOUR EXPERIENCE ON THIS BEAUTEOUS BUT BELEAGUERED PLANET. WE ARE SENT TO STAND WITH YOU IF YOU BUT ASK US IN. WE ARE NOT SENT TO INTERFERE NOR DO IT FOR YOU--ONLY TO SHOW TO YOU THE WAY! YOU MUST MAKE THE STAND AND DO OF THE LABOR AND WALK OF THE GAUNTLET. WE CAN WALK WITH YOU AS SHIELD WITHIN THE LIGHTED TRUTH OF GOD. YOU, HOWEVER, AS A NATION, MUST SHOW UNTO GOD THAT YOU WILL TURN UNTO HIS TRUTH AND REGAIN THE STRENGTH OF MORAL ATTENTION UNTO HIS GUIDELINES AND COME BACK ONTO THE PATH TOWARD BALANCE WITHIN THE LAWS OF THE WONDROUS CREATION. You will not be given assistance to further destruction or further deliberate breaking of the Laws of God or of the Creation. We are the hosts of God sent as wayshowers and preparers of the place for the return of God-ness unto the Kingdom of Earth as she makes transition again into that wondrous Kingdom. Evil is not put asunder by bombs and deceit. Evil is dissolved by the refusal to participate in the dark empire games of death and destruction. Evil will not remain in the presence of God-ness and thusly can you know that God shall prevail. Evil is a creation of God and what God hath created so can it be un-created.

Man, however, shall be in the making of his choice as to how it will be for given the withdrawal from God's Laws of balance and those of the Natural Creation--the worldly Empire shall ultimately fall into chaos and destruction for it is the natural order of progression. The purpose of human is to return order from the chaos in the order of Universal Godness in truth and in knowledge. God is the Word and the Word must be truth and herein lies the great and wondrous "secret". So be it! May you as humanity look again into the heart wherein God resides in the wondrous temple of self, find truth and strength and return again within the wondrous laws which set you free. I have no need nor desire to either preach nor debate. You will come again into the balance of truth within the Universal and Cosmic Laws or you shall fall into irreversible chaos for that is what ye have manifested upon your placement--you have soiled that which is your own nesting places. God will send unlimited hosts to march with you if you turn unto His presence and away from your destructive path toward the hypnotic pull of the lies.

Your sons have not been sent to defend your nation nor your people--they are in Saudi Arabia to protect the purses and royal dictatorial status of the Establishment World Elite. If this madness continues they will perish--not for God or Country, but rather for greed, lust and control of a world.

YOU HAVE MET YOUR ANTI-CHRIST, BROTHERS, AND YOU STILL DO NOT RECOGNIZE HIM. THE TIME IS AT HAND--NOT "OUT THERE SOMEWHERE"! IT IS UP TO YOU HOW IT GOES FROM HERE FOR IT WILL GO EXACTLY AS YOU ALLOW OF IT TO GO, NO MORE AND SURELY NOTHING LESSER. FURTHER, YOU WILL CONTINUE TO HAVE TO STAND IN CONSTANT "WATCH" FOR THE ENEMY WILL NOT LEAVE EASILY FROM HIS DENS OF INIQUITY AND FALSE TEACHINGS.

You do not fight this battle with guns--you fight with the words of truth and the shield of your Constitution and the enemy will fall to the right and to the left and ye of truth shall prevail. Color, creed, sex and all other separations must be blended into unity and then naught of evil can stand against that sword of truth. But it is, as gifted in free-will choices, up to you. It can be changed if you but want to change of it and come into return unto the Godly truth of direction and away from the lies that have brought you to your knees in helplessness. Stand again as God and God shall stand strong in thine forward lead; sit in thine greedy and lustful dark worlds and you shall perish within the twilight zones of material deceptions.

PROOF? YOU WANT PROOF? LOOK ABOUT YOURSELVES AND AT THAT WHICH IS ABOUT YOUR WORLD! FOR GOD SO LOVED YOU THAT HE SHOWED OF YOU THE WAY AND SENT GUIDES TO LEAD THE WAY, YOU HAVE TURNED AWAY YOUR FACES AND PLUGGED OF YOUR EARS IN ORDER TO STAY WITH YOUR "THINGS" CONSIDERED THE MEASURE OF YOUR WORTH--YOU ARE PRICELESS AND, THEREFORE, YOUR "THINGS OF MEASURE" CAN BE OF NO VALUE WHAT-SO-EVER. PONDER IT!

YOU CAN EITHER PERISH IN THE FIRE OR YOU CAN CALL UPON THE LIVING WATERS OF GOD WHO CAN RENDER THE FIRE INTO NOTHINGNESS--BUT YOU WILL MAKE OF THE CHOICE AND ASK FOR IT IS THE WAY OF GOD. MAY YOU RECOGNIZE THE GRACE WHICH IS BEING PRESENTED UNTO YOU AS A PEOPLE THAT YOU MIGHT ACCEPT IT AS THE WONDROUS GIFT UNTO YOU AS THE DECISIONS OF DIRECTION ARE THRUST HARD AFORE YOU. MAY YOU ACCEPT THE WISDOM OF TRUTH

BEING BROUGHT UNTO YOU BY THE TRUTHBRINGERS SENT FORTH. WE STAND AT READY AWAITING YOUR RESPONSE AND CALL.

I am Hatonn to move to stand-by. Saalome' and Selah. For the WORD IS ALL INCLUSIVE--SAALOME'.

10/9/90 HATONN

TODAY'S WATCH

Hatonn present in service, come forth in the light of radiance. This is "ALERT TIME".

That which is done in the United Nations and is or is not accepted in fullness by the United States will tell you more than any written word. What Israel has perpetrated upon the Palestinians is far worse than that which has been allowed the showing on television. Israel is "setting up her 'incident'". Hussein has responded with a call to the Arab Nations to send missiles. ISRAEL FULLY INTENDS TO ESCALATE THIS INTO A MAJOR ATTENTION GETTER AND LOOSE CHEMICALS, CLAIMING THEY WERE SENT IN MISSILES FROM IRAQ.

The United Nations Assembly is denouncing the inequalities of the UN Security Council led by the U.S. in favorable and total alliance to Israel. They may need more than a tiny tap on the wrist from America. Even if the U.S. joins in sanctions against Israel--KNOW THAT IT IS A FACADE AND THE BONDS ONLY STRENGTHENED TO DECEIVE YOU FOR, AS WE HAVE RECENTLY POINTED OUT TO YOU, IT IS THE MODUS OPERANDI OF THE U.S. AND ISRAEL WHEN A MAJOR INCIDENT IS READY TO OCCUR. I SUGGEST YOU NOT LINGER NOR DRAG IN THE PREPARATIONS.

You can see the game underway in full intent on your price scales--light crude, which is the Benchmark for pricing of crude, is $40.55 this day and rising because of the incident in Jerusalem. It did not rise, you will note, because of that which the Israelis did, but rather, from Hussein suggesting that someone should stop the bloodshed in Palestine. The fact that gold prices remain under $400 is the real balance clue that the market is being totally manually manipulated. This is all happening through your "World Series" ball games so the populace of America will not notice. With the ball games and the budget foolishness, you will not notice what occurs. It is all being set up to insure that Bush can call in "Emergency" regulations which he will announce are "...just in case". You balance on the razor's edge.

Further, you are coming upon the fullest moon and closest swing to the earth with all the magnetic pulls which that entails in only a few weeks in your counting and it becomes the easiest time to detonate massive earth movement.

Is anyone noticing the announcements of incredible radio pulse activity in the more recent large quakes--even your scientists take note these days and sweat the next months. Prior to triggering quakes, specific plans are laid between the triggering cosmospheres among the craft and also with the earth bases. During the beam detonations the pulses will run the meter needles off the gauges. I REMIND YOU THAT THIS IS NOT THE WORK OF ANY SPACE BROTHERHOOD--ONLY EARTH MAN IN THE ATMOSPHERE AND NEAR SPACE. IT WILL BE CLAIMED THAT THESE ARE INSTIGATED BY SPACE BROTHERHOOD--THEY ARE NOT! SO BE IT.

By the way, do not allow yourselves to go back to sleep as regards the troops in Saudi Arabia. You are not on a sit and hold position--the heaviest armor and war equipment is just now in arrival for your army and you can't function in that desert as is. If actions are not set into motion to reverse this thing you are all headed dead-on to horrendous pain and death. It can be stopped if enough will ban together and demand it to stop. Attention is pulling towards action and this is one reason there is increased activity in Israel and that part of the Middle East--TO STOP YOU THE PEOPLE FROM SHUTTING THIS ATROCITY DOWN IN TIME TO PREVENT THE ISRAELI PLAN FROM UNFOLDING. BEWARE THE JACKAL IN THE FLOCK.

Let us now return to the Journal material, Dharma. I wish to further discuss the monetary relativities and the structuring of the plans which are now culminating before your eyes.

DARK AGE ECONOMY MENTALITY

In all the hoopla over oil and "recession", watch what your markets are doing. They plead "oil" as the instigator of problems and then rise with each piece of good "oil news". It differs only minutely from that which was appearing at the time of the 1982 planned war--before and after postponement. Look what the manipulators did in the early 1980's to throw the public off the track.

The following notice could have been written this morning, and yet it was written and published in August of 1980. It would be appropriate for any circumstance since.

"Wall Street, which waited for years for the recession to begin, is starting to act like the economic downturn is just about over. Even as companies report that their profits in the second quarter were lower than last year, the Stock Market has continued a rally that has pushed up the Dow Jones industrial average to its highest levels in three years."

Yes I know that the averages are "down" at present, but they were at an all time high just brief weeks past.

Further, your President's lips were seen speaking that if his budget would be approved, there would be an upsurge in growth and prosperity ahead as you started bringing your debt under control. YOU CAN'T BRING YOUR DEBT NOR DEFICIT UNDER CONTROL! MOREOVER, YOU ARE DUPES AGAIN--THE CONGRESS IS MADE OF "LAWYERS" WHO KNOW HOW TO THROW OFF AN OPPONENT--A TRICK ONLY NOTED BY THE OPPONENT. DO NOT THINK THAT WHAT IS HAPPENING IN WASHINGTON WAS NOT "PLANNED"--FOR IT WAS--IN EVERY DETAIL AND ALTERNATIVE. YOU THE PEOPLE AND YOUR CONGRESS WILL NOW APPROVE A MINUTELY CHANGED BUDGET WHICH WILL ULTIMATELY SQUEEZE YOU HARDER AND WILL SETTLE FOR EXACTLY THAT WHICH MR. BUSH, YOUR NEW DICTATOR/MONARCH, DESIRES--FOOL NOT YOURSELVES. SO BE IT!

What is reflected in the Stock Markets around the world can no longer be a guide to the state of affairs. Just as in August, 1980, the Market appeared to be saying that better times were just ahead; better times were not just ahead. Those bubbles burst with manipulated regularity when the purpose of the controllers is fulfilled and the profits made by the elite.

There is a trick of the trade called "A Bear Trap" and I suggest you keep your eyes on the ball. A bear trap is an episode of gross manipulation of the Stock Market by certain large institutional investors to unload unwanted stocks, junk bonds, etc., usually occurring during a time of distraction as is now happening with crude oil. In other words, the elite manipulators are "getting set". Let us look at that which happened in the fall of 1982 as the war was postponed and the "Bear Trap" began to snare its victims.

During September (1982), and especially October, large amounts of unwanted stocks were successfully dumped onto small investors. Instead of setting another new record for a one-day rise in stock prices, the Dow Jones set a more disturbing record by dropping, on October 25, by more than 36 points. That does not seem great today, but it was remarkable in 1982 under the then current circumstances. This was the largest one day decline since the crash of 1929. Guess what--there were signs and pronouncements that the Feds were ready to drop the interest rates and therefore everything would be rosy ahead. Did anyone read Greenspan's lips? "If the President's budget passes, we can expect an immediate drop in interest rates!"

In 1982 a thousand (1000) on the Dow was worth only about as much as 400 points a decade prior and you can now see that 3000 is only relative to the 1000 of 1982. It has been fully planned to push the Dow, one way or another, to 3500 and then dump it. It gets a bit harder as nations refuse to play the ball-game by the Cartel rules but so far no one has even interrupted the plans. BUT YOU THE PEOPLE ARE STARTING TO INPUT OBJECTION AND THAT IS MAKING A LOT OF PEOPLE, IN THE CARTEL, NERVOUS. THIS MIGHT WELL CAUSE SOME REAL BLUNDERS FROM ONES NOT REALIZING THE WELL-MAPPED PLAN. YOU SEE, CONGRESSMEN, STOCK BROKERS, MILITARY MEN, ETC., DIE NICELY IN FUEL-AIR BOMBS ALSO!!! ONLY THE ELITE CARTEL HIERARCHY ARE WITHIN THE PLAN FOR SECURE PROTECTION.

As the Markets decline and swing up--then up and down--it is indicative of total instability for its swings are based on pure speculation and rumors whereby a very small stimulus produces sometimes massive effects. This is exactly what happened to the Stock Market in your crash of 1929. The crash of 1990's shall be the King of Crashes.

The U.S. economy is fundamentally sick unto death, and is now having terminal chills and fever as reflected in your daily news. You just got the word this very day that construction and real estate are down and Detroit auto-makers are near panic--the market, especially for large automobiles, is DEAD this day.

In the fall of 1982 the economy, "automobiles and construction", were running at about half speed. The pattern was set for fluctuations of massive scale and manipulation for the final throes of economic disaster.

Unemployment, as measured by your own Government's grossly understated statistics, reached 10.1 per cent in September, the highest rate since the Great Depression and, dear ones, no matter what the government relays to you today--you have more unemployed than in any time in your history, and rising. You have more homeless and with the Resolution Trust Corporation in hand-grip with the Banks and S&L's, you are destined to witness the biggest loss of real estate, businesses and home properties than in world history relative to any measuring device known to mankind.

Let us place the above portion in the Express and then continue with the Journal. Thank you. Salu.

SADDAM HUSSEIN, RECORDED FOR AMERICANS.

Saddam's speech is an hour and 16 minutes long. What we are about to show is a tape provided by the Iraqi government. The subtitled translation was put on to the tape by Iraq. The Translation that you will hear comes from CNN.

In the name of God, the compassionate, the merciful, o mankind that created you, male and female, and made you into the races and tribes, that you may know one another. Surely the noblest among you is the most God-fearing of you. God is all-knowing, all aware.

American people, Ah salamu alakan.

Peace be upon you. I said, ah salamu alakan, instead of saying "good morning" or "good evening" as would be the habit in the West. This is because when the Arabs greet other people, they use the phrase "Ah salamu alakan". Hence you can see from the start that the Arabs from the East, even when they greet non-Arabs they also introduce their speech, with whoever they deal with, by good wishes, optimism and desire for peace. This is part of the traditional heritage of the Arab Nation and Islam to which we are honored to belong.

I address you now after President Bush has appeared on our national television. He expressed to the Iraqis his view on the crisis which has emerged in our region, and I come to you to express our point of view within the space of time available to me. My concern will be the great majority of the American people, not those involved in the business of politics, because the great majority of the people that constitutes the essence of any legitimate main issue in accordance with the concepts of democracy. In this respect the matters I am going to address will by necessity have already been known to specialized politicians through their profession. President Bush has already appeared on Iraqi National Television and presented his views in full, after he voiced his desire to do so on August 30, 1990, and after he expressed the satisfaction at the appearances of Saddam Hussein on U.S. Television. Thus we have known of President Bush's desire and out of respect for American and Western public opinion, we in general, we welcomed the idea. Through our Minister of Information now President Bush has expressed his viewpoint. I should like to present to you some reported views held by our country and our Nation. Bush has said to the people of Iraq that the American administration had no quarrel with them. To prove that he said that the Administration had allowed the Iraqi's to purchase some of the goods they needed, particularly grains on the U. S. market. He also said that the U.S. Administration had also helped bring about the cease-fire in the Iraq-Iran War; the U.S. President was not accurate in saying that the U.S. Administration had no quarrel with the people of Iraq.

We have evidence that President Bush was himself involved in the Iran-gate or Iran-Contra Conspiracy against Iraq, in 1986, when he was Reagan's Vice-President. This is a well-known fact, documented in the dossier of the case. President Reagan apologized to us for that. He said it was a mistake which would not be repeated. We accepted his apology, conveyed to us through the U. S. Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. Richard Murphy, on May 11, 1987. Voices had already begun to be missed in the U. S. and Britain for an economic, technological and scientific boycott being imposed on Iraq, well before the emergence of the current Gulf crisis. Some of the boycott measures against Iraq, including the embargo on the export of grains and other commodities to Iraq, had already been discussed and adopted by the U.S., Britain and some Western Countries before August 2nd, 1990, the day on which the Iraqi Army extended assistance in throwing out the former rulers of Kuwait, who had been installed by foreign powers to impose a despotic rule on this severed part of Iraq.

Do you know, Ladies and Gentlemen, why the Bush Administration and its allies lose stature, took those measures to boycott Iraq even before the emergency point that has come to be known as the current Gulf Crises? Why indeed have certain voices been raised in the U. S. and Britain promoting the notion that ending the life of Saddam Hussein by assassination has become a necessity and encouraging an attack to be perpetrated against the vital installations in Iraq? Why did the Iran-gate conspiracy take place in 1986 involving Mr. Bush and Israeli representatives and others? This took place before the coming of U. S. and British armies to the area.

Worse developments may be yet to come. This is because we are Arabs and since we are honest in our humanity we rejected, as we still do, the Zionist encroachment upon the land of Palestine, the repressive practices against the Palestinians and their occupation of the Holy Truths, Jerusalem.

You are aware, Ladies and Gentlemen, that we are not alone in our rejection of occupation and oppression. We have with us in this political stand, in addition to the resilient and persevering people of Palestine, the true leaders of the Arab Nations along with its 200 million people. You are also undoubtedly aware that there are voices demanding an Israeli withdrawal from the Palestinian land allowing the people of Palestine to exercise thereupon their right to free life in dignity on equal footing with all mankind. These voices have been raised in the American society and even amongst professional politicians and the world at large.

Do you know, Ladies and Gentlemen, how many resolutions have been adopted by the U. N. Security Council and the General Assembly against the Israeli policies violating the inalienable rights of the Palestinian people and perpetuating Israel's occupation of the lands of Palestine, including holy quds and all other Arab lands occupied since 1947? More than 160 resolutions have been issued by the Security Council alone, along with 400 more adopted by the General Assembly. The U. S. has vetoed more than 80 Security Council Resolutions, the majority of which was to do with the Palestinian Plight. However, no blockade has ever been imposed against Israel in the same manner as it has been imposed against Iraq. Under the pretext of implementing the recent resolutions of the Security Council, not even a milder course of action has been taken or army support against Israel. Such measures were never taken against Israel when it announced its annexation of Arab lands and cities in an official, final manner.

In the aftermath of the occupation of Lebanon by the Syrian Regime, which continues today, no U.S. armies have ever been deployed against that Regime, nor have we seen any embargo or boycott being imposed against the Syrian Regime. As we see today, none of the resolutions or appeals calling for the withdrawal of the Syrian Army from Lebanon have been implemented. Why has this been the case? When we see now U.S. and Western armies deployed to occupy the lands of the Arabian Peninsula, which are sacred to Arabs and Moslems alike, in such cruel, degrading and arrogant measures as has never been witnessed except to the attempt made by the Abrahama Abyssanians to invade Holy Mecca some fifteen centuries ago. The resolutions of the Security Council on the Palestinian question have never been implemented, nor have the resolutions and appeals calling for the withdrawal of the Syrian and Israeli forces from Lebanon. Many other resolutions are still pending yet we see how the armies of the U.S. have been deployed against Iraq and how the valued Iraqi people have been denied food, medicine and even the children's milk. This has been imposed through a decision taken exclusively by the U. S., contrary to Bush's claim that those measures were taken by international organizations. These international organizations became involved later, only to be used as a cover for measures already drawn up. Measures taken by the U. S. and Britain, including their military build-up in the region along with the imposition of the economic embargo and boycott, came well in advance of any official international measure. It was the U. S. and Britain which goaded the international organizations to take those measures. Indeed, they even forced some countries into participating in those measures against their will. Pressure was exerted overtly on Japan, Germany, Italy and other countries. Pressure in its open form could be seen every day by the U. S. citizen on television, or heard or read about through the other mass media. It is left up to the U. S. citizen to imagine the kind of covert pressure employed in forcing other countries to adopt the policy laid down by the U. S. in the international organizations.

Do you know, Ladies and Gentlemen, why anything like this has never been done before to Israel which still occupies the lands of Palestine and the Arab Nations? Do you know why this same thing has not been done before to the Syrian Regime of Afez Assad which has been occupying the land of Lebanon since 1976? The answer is if this were to happen, it would have given the Arabs a great deal of what would set free their humanity, now fettered by the shackles of occupation and its impact. If this were ever to come about, it would enable the Arabs to exercise their proper human role as a nation with an ancient history behind it, renowned always with remarkable contributions to humanity, both culturally and spiritually in the life of mankind everywhere. However, nothing of this sort will be allowed to happen because Israel, the Zionist lobby, armed to prevent politicians awaiting their election chances in the U. S. and other Western countries either do not want it, or indeed, cannot say they want it to happen. The Zionist Lobby is capable, through money, media and other means of influencing the outcome of elections.

What has never been done in the case of Lebanon, against Palestine, Cyprus and other places in the area and the world at large is being done only again Iraq and the Arab Nations. Why has it been like this? The reason is that military build-ups and the aggressive measures related to them, along with the economic blockade and the even worse measures which the days ahead may yet unfold, are all practiced undermining the Arab Nations. The return of Kuwait to the fold of Iraq, its motherland from which it is long severed and usurped, like an infant separated from its mother will further strengthen the Arab Nation and Iraq in their endeavor to reassert the role on the human and Arab levels. It will allow them to show the true example and meaning of Islam as dictated by God and conveyed by His Prophet, Mohammed, in a manner free from the kind of distortion and falsehoods that have given Islam a bad name. Through infamous rulers in the regions, including some friends of the U.S, it will also throw light on the necessary right life of humanity to equal rights and duties on equal footing with all mankind regardless of color, race and nationality. This runs counter to the desire of Israel and the Zionist Lobby which control the fate of many politicians in the West, through the control they can hold over the election of officials in various countries and over other issues.

Ladies and Gentlemen, although I am deeply unwilling to burden you with details, yet it is my respect to the fact that people should be aware of what is going on around them in life, that I find it imperative to put before you some of the facts which may furnish you with an ample opportunity to reach the right judgement and to distinguish the genuine from the dishonest in the behavior of professional politicians in your country.

Kuwait is Iraq's southern part, which had been severed by the British in 1913 in preparation for the First World War, and in which Britain installed Mubarak Al Sabah to be undisputed Sheik in return for his services to and alliance with the British against the Ottoman Empire which was then in control of the region of Iraq. The Sheikdom of Kuwait became a British Protectorate. All governments in Iraq before us, royal and republican, never recognized these measures in a constitutional manner. In order not to burden you with excessive details, I shall refer only to three instances out of a long record, every part of which offers an unequivocal confirmation of this fact. In 1938 the Kuwaiti Legislative Council decided on two successive occasions that Kuwait should be reunited with Iraq of which it was an integral part. The Sheik of Kuwait at the time, Amed Al Gabcir, was forced to dissolve the Legislative Council in an attempt to suppress the voice of the people in Kuwait demanding the return of this part to its origin, Iraq. In 1958 Nuri Assad, then Prime Minister of Iraq, a close friend of Britain and the West, demanded at a Baghdad pact meeting in the presence of U. S. Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, that Iraq's severed part of Kuwait be returned. In 1961, when Britain granted Kuwait independence, Iraq rejected the decision. Prime Minister Abdul Karim Qassm, who was a close friend to the Soviet Union, took constitutional action to repudiate the British decision. He obtained a constitutional decision to return Kuwait to Iraq, appointing the Sheik of Kuwait, Macaam, District Administrator of the Patcalb District of Kuwait, subordinate to the Province of Baklaad, which had been the case prior to the severance of Kuwait from Iraq. Qassm deployed the Iraqi army to put this constitutional decision into effect. He was preempted, however, by the British who entered Kuwait with their forces before he could move in. This led to complications which prevented Iraq's 1961 constitutional move to restore Kuwait from being realized. This whole background notwithstanding, we dealt with the former government of Kuwait in normal manner. The problem, however, was exacerbated and aggravated when we discovered that the Sheiks of Kuwait had been involved in the conspiracy to debilitate Iraq economically and politically with a view to undermine it militarily and disturbing the relationship existing between the people and its leadership.

All this came about as a result of our political stands in which we have made reference in relation to the right of the Arabs to a free and decent life along with the right of the people of Palestine to liberty, return of independence and the establishment of their free state on their homeland. We have discovered that the U. S. Administration was involved, in one way or the other in this conspiracy and so was the King of Saudi Arabia. This fact is partly revealed in a recorded telephone conversation between King Faud and the ruler of Qatar on 9 July 1990. I'm also sending you along with this message the tape recording of that conversation with English subtitles hoping that the authorities concerned will let you see it and if we add to this that the former rulers of Kuwait did not stop at severing Kuwait, which was a fledgling town still confined to its old walls, but they began expanding their Sheikdom to the extent that it reached the Al Kulah area and then expanded further by an additional distance of tens of kilometers between 1963 and 1968. Then these rulers of Kuwait exploited our preoccupation with the war between U.S. and Iran to expand further, at our expense, by using our Southern oil field to acquire new oil wells from which to funnel additional oil to their benefit. No warning, however repeated, could deter them from that course of action. We have official documents substantiating all of this which we place at the disposal of whoever is interested to have them.

As President Bush was delivering his statement with the help of an autotape, he made the calculated move of taking out a piece of paper on which was written a citation from something I had previously said on the Syrian Regime's occupation. Granting the words were literally mine on that occasion, I suggest, however, that he should have considered the matter more carefully before passing his judgement in plain words, or by implication, that we,--having deplored the Syrian interference in the occupation of Lebanon--have fallen into a contradiction through our action in Kuwait. The case of Lebanon is totally different from that of Kuwait. As I have already pointed out through the facts I have reviewed, Lebanon did not conspire against Syria while the former Sheik of Kuwait, Jabir El Ahmed and his clique did against Iraq. Lebanon committed no aggression against Syria while the former Regime of Kuwait perpetrated aggression against Iraq. In any case, the motives were entirely different in the two situation. Yet, and although Bush meant, by quoting my words, to underscore contradiction between what we say and what we do, and he sought in vain to do that to justify deploying his armies. It is still a fact that Bush had failed to oppose the occupation of Lebanon by the Syrian Regime, nor did any of his allies or the traitors amongst the rulers in the region with him in the conspiracy against the Arab and Islamic Nation oppose that occupation. Indeed, the U. S. Administration had encouraged the Syrian Regime at the outset. This may well be supported by the fact that Bush has been seen recently to reward the Syrian Regime in return for the services it has rendered. He dispatched Secretary of State Baker on an official visit to Damascus on 13 and 14 September and gave the Syrian Regime generous financial rewards from the United States and its allies, both inside the region and outside. So what has been regarded by Bush to be an infatuation against us, using the text he quoted from my speech, is in fact a shameful infatuation on him and on all those who adopt double standards and conflicting criteria in their thinking and behavior, and in the solution they seek to issues, be they those of Lebanon, Palestine or of any other part.

On top of all of this, and in order that you may know the extent of the damage caused to an ancient people through that black conspiracy spearheaded by the rulers of Kuwait against Iraq, let me give you just one example in the financial field to which you could conclude your own judgements. The Iraqi dinar became around a 20th of the (value of the) Kuwaiti dinar after it had been higher in value than the Kuwaiti currency in 1980. Having seen all doors closed in front of us for a solution that might reassure the Iraqi people about their present and their future, including the failure of the negotiations which we conducted in Jeddah on 31 July 1990 with the rulers of Kuwait between the delegations from our side headed by the Vice Chairman of the Revolution Command Council and the delegation from their side headed by the former Prime Minister of Kuwait. We were left with no other alternative but to take the action which we took on 2nd August 1990.

In order to halt danger, rectify an historical injustice and place Iraq in a position of self reassurance and a capability to serve its nation and humanity at large, contrary to what President Bush tells you about Iraq having invaded Kuwait without any Kuwaiti provocation against Iraq, here are some extracts from the warning which we repeatedly expressed to the rulers of Kuwait, but in vain. These warnings were made in addition to others, which we kept unpublished. We addressed the rulers of Kuwait in the presence of all of the Arab heads of state during the meetings of the Baghdad Summit Conference on 30 May 1990 by saying: "War occurs sometimes through soldiers and damage is inflicted by explosives, killings or coup attempts. At other times, war occurs through economic means. To those who do not intend to wage war against Iraq, I say that this is a kind of war against Iraq." Then I stated the following on 16 July 1990 in my annual address to the nation celebrating the anniversary of Iraq's National Day, the anniversary of the 1730 July Révolution. "Because the people of Iraq, who have suffered this deliberate injustice, have enough faith in their rights to self-defense and the defence of their rights, they shall never forget the saying 'rather heads be cut off than sustenance'. If words fail to provide protection, then decisive action must be taken to restore the usurped rights to their owners."

Does not all this represent warnings made in advance but in vain? Does this not constitute a provocation, indeed, a flagrant aggression against Iraq? Is not all this evidence enough for understanding the measures we took on and after 2nd August 1990? President Bush knows all these facts along with more events substantiating the meaning and the legitimacy of the measures that we have taken. His Administration followed events closely. The U. S. government and Congress were escalating the campaigns against Iraq and preparing draft resolutions for further measures of boycott and blockade to be imposed against Iraq in the political, economic and other fields. All this had happened prior to the 2nd of August, 1990. The American measures were being taken against us as a result of our repeated warnings to the government of Kuwait. Now after that has taken place, and regardless of any disagreement or agreement on the methods used, is it practical or logical to call for things to be returned to how they were before the 2nd of August, 1990, including the return of the Sheiks of Kuwait who spent their time amassing wealth and women to the extent that some of them became unable to distinguish his own children in view of their great number? Indeed, the situation was such that one of them one day expressed his desire to marry a young girl whom he had come across by chance on a previous occasion, only to discover that the girl in question was, in fact, one of his own daughters. God save us all.

On the 5th of August, 1990, it was agreed that an Arab Summit Conference would be held comprising Yemen, Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Egypt and Iraq in order to discuss the new situation and to find a solution to the crisis. Instead of convening this conference to which the parties concerned had all agreed, we were surprised to see the idea of the conference closing, by the friends of the United States which had given them instructions to that effect, by the entry of armies to the lands of Arabia and the Islamic sanctities of the Arabian Peninsula and by the other resolutions of the U. S. This was how both we and the international community lost the chance for an Arab solution, for a calm inter-Arab discussion of the issue. While this has been the case in the current crisis, we know that both the U. S. and its allies had encouraged an Arab solution to the Lebanese question for which an Arab committee was formed with the encouragement of the U. S. and the subsequent blessing of the Security Council. Saudi Arabia was the prime mover in that affair.

You know, Ladies and Gentlemen, that the people of Lebanon have been a more vital contributor to humanity than the Sheiks of Kuwait, yet we see the U. S. Administration exerting tireless efforts to appease the ruler of Syria which occupies Lebanon. The statement issued in Damascus at the end of Baker's visit on the 13th and 14th (of September), instantly revealed that fact. The question is, therefore, one of politics, not of principles.

Contrary to what Bush has tried to tell us in his message to the people of Iraq, since the issue is political and not one of principles in the facts of U. S. policy, and since the question remains to be a matter of opinion in which each one sees matters on the basis of his own judgement and interest. Let us then resort to dialogue rather than arms as the road to a common understanding and acceptable solutions in such a situation. The Arabs will be better equipped to resolve their problems amongst themselves. If it is desired that the international community should participate in resolving the crisis and problems of the region as a whole, then the best course to adopt towards this end would be what we called for in our initiative of 12 August 1990, when we proposed that all the issues of the region in Palestine, Lebanon and the Gulf should be discussed together and on the same level in the Security Council with a view to aiming at the same principles and criteria to be applied to all issues, while taking into consideration the special nature and background of each issue. This is the serious way to reach a comprehensive and lasting solution to all the problems and crises of the region, in the forefront of which is the Palestinian question without whose solution the region can never regain its calm or stability. Those who view with responsibility the security of the region must address all the factors preceding the 2nd of August, 1990, in the forefront of which are the Palestinian question and the occupation of Lebanon by the Syrian army. They should also view the question of Kuwait realistically and in accordance with its historical background as an integral part of Iraq. We have proposed that initiative which seeks to resolve all outstanding issues in the region in a manner that insures the achievement of a comprehensive and lasting peace and security.

Do you know what has happened, Ladies and Gentlemen? Bush rejected our initiative, even before seeing its text, and when we knew that the U. S. Administration was planning military action against Iraq based, in the beginning, on a false pretext that Iraq had intended to invade Saudi Arabia, a pretext dismissed by naked facts.

It occurred to us that one of the means of giving the U. S. Administration a better chance for thinking while allowing all parties concerned additional time which could be used for dialogue would be to prevent some foreigners, including U. S. citizens, from leaving the country and to host them as guests in the houses of our staff. At the scientific and economic establishments this measure was used, along with other ways, in order to prevent the outbreak of a devastating war whose damage would be immense to those rushing to it. In any event, we are human and feel the pain of having had to take this measure, in spite of the fact that there are those who keep telling us that the imposition of an economic blockade against Iraq, depriving it of food, medicine and even children's milk is, in itself, an act of war which allows us under international law to detain the subjects of those countries responsible for the blockade. This was what the USA itself did during the 2nd World War when it detained even its own citizens of Japanese origin. Yet I still say that we are truly pained by this and wish to see the people of Iraq and the National Assembly representing them, given any guarantees or undertakings from the United States of America pledging its commitment not to lodge war and aggression against Iraq, a pledge that would enable us immediately to allow all foreigners to leave the country, if they so wished. This was what we proposed in our initiative of 19 August 1990, which was again immediately rejected by the USA without any discussion or inquiry.

I have expressed publicly my desire to have a TV debate or discussion with Bush in order to let the world public opinion, including that of the American people, know the facts in detail but Bush has turned down this proposal which is why you find me forced now to burden you with details. A public TV discussion with Bush would have generated for viewers everywhere greater vitality and given them a better chance to make their own judgements. In spite of this, however, Bush complained to you that he could not predict what Saddam Hussein would do, or know how Saddam Hussein would think. I ask you in the name of God, how could Mr. Bush know Saddam Hussein or his comrades in the leadership when Bush refuses to have a direct discussion with Saddam Hussein or enter into a direct debate with him on television? When we invite Bush to a discussion we do not need to beg his or any party's acceptance of the idea. We propose the debate basically out of respect for world opinion, including the public opinion of the U.S. All we seek in such debate would be to disclose the lies and false allegations, so that people are better informed of the issue in question, and hence better equipped to make their own decisions on the basis of what they see as clear and concrete facts.

Should not the opportunity of the debate or the discussion be seized upon by the parties concerned in order that opponents may better know each other? Had Bush viewed the matter in a truly responsible and serious manner, free from any preconceived objectives, should he not have agreed to enter into the proposed TV debate? If Bush had truth on his side, why should he evade debate and direct discussion? Saddam Hussein's way of thinking is no great secret, as Bush seems to suggest. Saddam Hussein's comrades in the leadership, the people of Iraq and the world, know him well, and can draw their own conclusions about what he has not said in relation to any forthcoming action taken towards known events requiring a response through words or conduct. There is nothing hidden in the policy of Iraq for Bush has no agents in our leadership nor does he have many spies in our society as some of the U. S. authorities concerned have indeed publicly complained.

If Bush and other professional politicians in the West wanted to know more about the leadership of Iraq, then we say the following: "The leadership of Iraq is a group of God-fearing mortals sharing beliefs of all true worshippers of God, aspiring to please God Almighty and serve their people while refusing to serve tyrants. Unenticed by temptation and unintimidated by the threats of tyranny, we serve our people and our Nation deeply and sincerely, and through this we find that we serve humanity at large. We are proud to refuse serving tyrants. We protect with our very lives the rights and resources of our people. We neither plunder them nor keep them to ourselves in banks. (As is being done by the allies who are the servants of the U.S. Administration amongst the rulers of the region.) Serious in matters of seriousness; compassionate amongst each other and towards all God-fearing and genuine servants of God; firm in the face of blasphemy, injustice and the exploitation that oppresses people and leads to poor people; we do not bend in the fight for Truth, or in determining what we should take, or give. We reject the subjugation of people by any force and call for liberty to be granted to all as commanded by God. Further still, if more is required of us, then we remain fighters in the name of God and the principle of Truth; freedom fighters against injustice and its perpetrators true to our word."

If these signs are not sufficient enough, with the right conclusions to be made by the U. S. Administration or others, then this means that those concerned do not find these qualities to be necessary for those whom they regard to be their friends. Amongst the rulers of the region, they have not been used to seeing any of these attributes in those rulers, a fact for which we bear no guilt. The guilt is theirs and it is they alone who will bear the consequence. The day for which we prepare ourselves, is the day of judgement in front of God. Our people and history, when steps, God forbid, go astray, we respect world public opinion, when it is in a position in which it is formed only on objective and a fair basis. Other than this will be the plan of the Devil.

The plan of the Devil leads to an abyss yielding no proof and leaving nothing to its rebirth but vice. The weight of God's punishment will equal the acts of those tempted to go astray. We, our people and our nation, desire peace as much as peace is desired by the good amongst you, Ladies and Gentlemen. We want peace but we want it to be comprehensive and durable, rather than just a temporary and superficial arrangement leading to an even more violent explosion at a later stage. We do not want war in which we have had enough experience and which we know in detail. While our difficult circumstances and war have provided us with the resilience required for the responsibility and honor of defending our homeland and principles, those same circumstances and the war provided us, also, with ample opportunities to consider deeply and patiently any step which we take. Bearing the responsibility of such a step in honor and firmness, we fear no threats from tyrants and will not fall prey to their temptation.

Mr. Bush, Ladies and Gentlemen, is sending your sons to a war which has no human value or meaning, save fatal arrogance fueled by the capabilities of a super power used to issuing commands which the weaklings have to obey. All must remember, God is omnipotent. Bush wants to bring back the sorrows of the U. S. and humanity by repeating the Veit Nam experience, only this time the ordeal will be more violent, and demand greater sacrifices, and cause bigger losses. Bush tells you, Ladies and Gentlemen, that he and others are capable of inflicting quick strikes against their targets and end the war in that way. You should know, however, and here I do not mean to issue a threat for we threaten no one, but only to describe faithfully how we see things and what our decisions are. You should know that if Bush decided to start a war, it would not be up to him to end the war. The end of such a war would be very much linked to its impact and the determination of the people that has decided to confront tyranny with unyielding strength for as long as both it and its nation remained on the side of Truth.

The United States, Ladies and Gentlemen, would not lose anything if the Devil of aggression and war were to be removed from Bush's forehead, and if the means of war and destruction were to be removed from the area and the burden of occupation and the degradation of Arab and Moslem sanctities were to be lifted, but the Iraqis and the Arabs, on the one hand, would lose their humanity and their objectivity for a free life and dignity, should Bush have his way in achieving the desire of his ill-motivated self. The Arabs would be under a circumstance without honor or meaning, without a presence to be proud of or a future insuring life for them and their children.

Whenever we have talked in the past and whenever we find it our duty to remind others of the qualities of the Iraqi people and its human role, of the qualities of the Arab Nation and its human role, we also remind of the death of civilization established through their minds and efforts of the culture which they pioneered to the benefit of humanity as a whole, when we say that the depth of civilization in Iraq stretches back more than 5000 years. In fact, it was Iraq which first taught mankind letters and writing, more than 5000 years ago. And we are marabi and acting this famous code, around 4500 years ago. The land of the Arabs has always been, by God's choice, the place of decent for Divine Messages, and the cradle for God's messages. The Arabs have always been, and still are, the apostles of constant faith entrusted with the task of spreading the Word of God all over the world. The guidance and faith that has reached your hearts, Ladies and Gentlemen, have been conveyed to you by the Arab faithful. We have never placed Iraq or the ASC above humanity in anything. We said in the past, nor do we threaten anybody with the qualities of the people of Iraq and the Arab Nation, although the depth of these qualities must be linked with the depth of civilization--qualities such as endurance and patience, resilience through adversity and readiness to fight in the defence of Truth.

As he addressed his message to the people of Iraq, Bush wanted to voice a threat when he talked about the qualities of the people of the United States by saying, "We, as Americans, there is no nation on Earth with greater resolve, with stronger steadiness of purpose." He also placed the American people above other nations when he gave himself the right to lead mankind, and all states, in his address to the U. S. Congress on the 11th of September, 1990. In this way Bush is, in fact, promoting a form of Ne nazism.

God is the Only, is the One and Only. He alone is the One, unchallenged, supreme leader of mankind and the universe. Any claim deviating from this is a false claim, void of Truth, and bound to be repelled. Glory is not achieved by aggressive force but through justice, fairness and good example. Humanity would see virtue in the humility of those blessed by God with the power, the power to which God remains capable of taking back from them, if they fail to show humility and persist along their path of misguidance to glory that comes from power alone can be removed by counter power. The glory that comes through sheer force is a glory that can be removed by counter force. It is indeed a glory doomed to oblivion from the moment at which it begins.

Bush talked to Congress on the 11th of September, 1990, about the importance of strength and vitality as the true elements of leadership. He made no mention of God and did not speak of wisdom. If man loses the link between himself and God, he loses his Spirit. If he loses wisdom he will, even if he continues to possess strength and vitality, lose human respect and influence because he will not be active in what he says or does. I do not think that you will disagree with me that whoever loses his soul and respect of others, will lose all else. Indeed, more important than anything else, is that Bush tells you that he brought his armies, and the armies of his allies, to our region to defend the life style of the American people, irrespective of the selfish undertone of his statement in which the speaker fails to see the interests of others while pursuing his own, and of the particular danger it carries to humanity as a whole, if it were to maintain its generalized dimension.

You ought to ask Bush, "Who is actually threatening the life-style of the American people?" Have the Arabs or Iraq ever threatened the life styles of the American people?" He tells you that he came here, to the land of our nation, to protect oil and that Iraq should not be allowed to possess 20% of oil reserves. This makes it incumbent upon you, and us all, to ask Bush whether he thinks Iraq intends to sell oil or drink it? Iraq sells its oil to its usual market in the West. Iraq sells oil to the U. S. and the West in general. That was the case up to the 2nd of August, 1990, when Iraq was selling 1/3 of its oil to the U. S. alone.

In any event, if Bush wants to issue a new law by which to decide the percentage allowed to any given country of any particular resource or commodity, including the resources of the United States such as grains, then I suggest that Bush should submit a proposal to that effect to the United Nations. It will then be up to the United Nations to make a decision which will have to be complied with by all concerned and accommodated in the United Nations Charter. But if Bush thinks that he is alone and subjugates humanity and interferes and repels of its life and its forces, then he is mistaken. This policy of his is bound to isolate the U. S. from the rest of the world and make it hated and despised. It will also cause those who perpetuate this policy to be cursed till the day of judgement.

I don't wish to burden you with more, but you ought to remember that thousands of children may die of malnutrition due to the lack of children's milk and that the health of many people will deteriorate for lack of adequate food, and their life will be in danger. The stoppage of food, children's milk and medical supplies is the result of a measure initiated by the U.S. and the Bush Administration in violation of the U. N. Charter and of the international norms.

President Waldheim stated on his visit to Baghdad on the 25th of August, 1990, that such an inhumane act cannot be compared in its impact with any other action, regardless of the different descriptions given to it. This measure was taken by a party to which no threat was posed, while Iraq, in spite of the threat posed on its sovereignty and security of its nation, did not take any measure similar to that action or anywhere near it in description or motives in any form or shape. Those who talk about foreigners prevented from travel ought to remember that the whole people of Iraq is now prevented from travel and confined to within its borders. In view of the measures taken against the means of travel, the last being the proposal propagated by certain parties for the imposition of an air blockade against our civilized nation. Have you ever known or heard about measures more boorish, inhumane and unjust than those measures?

When Bush is asked why he opposes the reunification of Iraq and Kuwait while supporting that of Germany and not objecting to unity in other parts, he may say to you that he is not against unity but he opposes an annexation by force. Without going into details and arguments, you can inform Bush that the Sheiks of Kuwait were themselves installed there by force, by Britain. They did not come to rule through democracy or elections. Kuwait, too, has been severed from Iraq by force and all the instances I have referred to which were made through democratic means, through unification and which were tried by the Kuwaiti Legislative Council in 1938 and were suppressed. Kuwait, Iraq's severed part, has been used as a base of conspiring against Iraq, instead of being the part that should support it.

There was no other alternative better than what was done, Ladies and Gentlemen, and we thank God for what has happened. The claim made by Bush that the majority of Arabs are with the U.S. is inaccurate. I do not want to describe other than this, if the desire is there, to ascertain the position of the Arabs that Bush agrees to the setting up of a working group comprising members of the U. S. Congress to meet with representatives of the people of Iraq from the National Assembly with a view to conducting a joint investigation into an assessment of the information and facts of the issue. Bush has to promise you in advance however, that he will let you know the true facts as they are, in which case you will have known for certain that the Arab Nations stand entirely with Iraq and that this nation, along with the Moslems of the world, reject the presence of your armies on the land of Moslem sanctities in the Arabian Peninsula.

This nation is on the side of Truth, not falsehood, and no one should be deceived by a bunch of mercenaries, weaklings and traitors shaking within the confines of their hiding places for fear of the peoples' anger, especially now that they have been isolated from the course of truth pursued by our faithful. The U. S. Administration, Ladies and Gentlemen, is placing you in a critically embarrassing situation, in addition to the fact that it places you all along with us and the whole of mankind, on the edge of a bottomless abyss. The U. S. Administration is causing you embarrassment as Americans in that it keeps talking about and bragging over democracy while allying itself to the most backward of governments. Governments that are the most unrepresentative of their people, most distant from democracy and most distant from God, the One, the Omnipotent and the Almighty.

The people of Iraq have expressed their views through their demonstration in which they took to the streets in roaring waves, protesting what Bush has said in his message to them. They came out immediately after the broadcast of his message in every town and village of Iraq, and here I have said my word to you on behalf of the leadership of Iraq, indeed, on behalf of all God, all of the good and faithful Arabs and Moslems. God is the source of success. God is great. There are those who are being told, "Your enemy has mustered a great force against you. Fear them, through war, tenacious in their faith." And we reply, Allah's help is all sufficient for us. He is the best protector, Holy Koran.

OUR NEWEST JOURNALS

FIRESTORM IN BABYLON THE TIME IS COME by Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

History is repeating itself--in ever shortening cycles. It is he who can learn from history who will prevail.

This book is a review of the several attempts to start Nuclear War I during the past ten years and how that relates to the current (September, 1990) Middle East "Crisis in the Gulf"

The world teeters on the Abyss of total all-out nuclear war, the military bases of the U.S., foreign and domestic, have been stripped of men and equipment, and the news media (controlled by political and financial cartels) work diligently to obscure the truth.

FOR YOU WHO STAND IN TRUTH--THERE SHALL BE PEACE IN THE VALLEY FOR YOU! GOD EXTENDS HIS HAND; HE HAS AGAIN SENT HIS "SON" AND THE "HOSTS" AFORE HIM. WHO WILL TAKE OF HIS HAND? WHO WILL THEN TAKE OF THINE BROTHER'S HAND?

PHOENIX JOURNAL LECTURE VIDEOTAPE

by George Green

America West is now offering a 50 minute color videotape of publisher George Green's recent lecture at the Denver Global Sciences Conference. The lecture covers George's long history with extraterrestrials and so-called UFO's. The lecture explains early contacts with Swiss contactee Billy Meier, slides are presented showing various craft, and the talk moves into recent contact with the Pleiadeans which has resulted in publication of the Phoenix Journals and Phoenix Express Newsletter. This lecture is an excellent introduction and summary of the material presented by our space brothers. The cost is $19.95 (plus 6.75% sales tax Calif. residents) plus $2.50 shipping/handling.

The high-minded man does not bear grudges, for it is not the mark of a great soul to remember injuries - but to forget them.

Without a God there is for man neither purpose, nor goal, nor hope, only a wavering future, an eternal dread of every darkness.

The fellow who knows nothing soon repeats it.

Nature gives man corn, but he must grind it; God gives man a will, but he must make the right choices.

Happiness does not depend upon wealth, position or possessions. It is a state of mind subject to mental control.
