STRATEGIC PLANNING

Hatonn returned that we might finish the next EXPRESS, or, begin a new one--whichever is appropriate. I say this because you might well wish to utilize the personal messages of this morning as EXPRESS material. A message for one of our people--is instruction and message for all--it is, in fact, that which sets aside "Phoenix" people from the masses--how else will you get your instructions? If all you desire from the Phoenix material is how to manage your money--then I suggest you are at the wrong place, for ours comprises how to make a transition of a planet and the functioning order in explanation, of the universe. If, for instance, I give Dharma instructions to harken up to responsibility and respite, priorities and fatigue--ALL OF YOU PAY ATTENTION FOR THE MESSAGE IS FOR ALL OF YOU--PERSONALLY--NOT JUST BECAUSE SHE WEARS A PARTICULAR LABEL. All (each) must carefully evaluate priorities, function, HEARING AND LISTENING, and that which works for her will work for all. We need functioning, alert bodies to do our tasks to best advantage. If the consciousness of life experience is predominantly of SELF, we cannot get past the block in the roadway. Further, if you take each statement as if it were your own whipping master beating you--stop it! YOU may NOT jeopardize the entire transition because YOU cannot pull from individual ego-trip. If you feel offended or personally attacked by responses--go within and consider WHY for all is for all--and NONE may garner unto self all of the lessons nor the discipline. If TRUTH is an affront to you, I ask that you linger long enough with open mind to see the unfolding of that which we bring lest ye formulate incorrect conclusions from inadequate input and data, i.e., as with the homosexual questions. If you miss explanations then there is no way except to form incorrect conclusions and assumptions regarding our words. This will hold true for EVERY subject in point. If it is against the commandments and balanced laws of Creation it is against Truth and we do not compromise--however, the explanation is most truly needed to understand that which we ARE bringing. We condemn no MAN/WOMAN/CHILD for anything--we do lay TRUTH and INSTRUCTIVE RULES FROM GOD AND WITHIN CREATION FOR BEHAVIOR AND ACTIONS THEREOF. THIS WILL IN NO WISE EVER BE COMPROMISED--NOR WOULD YOU HAVE IT ANY OTHER WAY. YOU HAVE BEEN PEOPLE OF THE LIES TOO LONG, LOOK AROUND YOU CAREFULLY AND YOU WILL SEE WHERE THE LIES HAVE BROUGHT YOU--AWAY FROM GOD AND NOT UNTO HIM. SO BE IT.

HONOR TO ONE,
VIRGINIA MEVES

Virginia Meves is Director of the Wisconsin Report. She gives her entire being and all of her time to bringing you Truth and information. There are not enough accolades to express my appreciation for this wondrous being who goes so selflessly in the pursuit of awakening you to that which is coming upon you and, as we will take that valid information as ones project it in their own rum so that the word can go farther on the waves of touch and spreading of that Truth. It is what spreading and awakening about, brothers. We must take that which is urgent and important and send it further into the masses so this does two things--it gets the Truth out and it, by volume and recognition, brings a bit of security to the pioneers and risk-takers. Protection comes in publicly recognizing known the plight and "accidents" are noted and attention I wish to quote from her Editor's Comment of June 13, 1991.

How can all this evil be opening in America? We do not know what took place in Germany before and during World War II. It is supposed to never happen again anywhere in the world! And, we look at our government and our schools in horror to see the same plan and the same goals are being implemented worldwide in the name of "New World Order". But no matter how, perhaps the plan are seemingly disguised to the point where the majority of the population still hasn't felt a hint of what is coming--what disaster is planned for all people. There is nothing worse than to lose freedom, your sovereignty, your identity or culture!

Someone just mailed me important quotes from a book titled THE IMPACT OF SCIENCE ON SOCIETY by Bertrand Russell. Bertrand Russell is identified as God-like hero of the Socialists" and he was discussing, in his book, how future planned control was to be carried out:

"It is to be expected that advances in psychology will give governments much more control over individual mentality than they now have." (The book is a 1953 book). "...education should aim at destroying free will, so that, after pupils have left school they shall be incapable, throughout the rest of their lives, of thinking or acting otherwise than as their schoolmaster would have wished. Diet, injections and injunctions will combine from a very early age to produce the sort of character and the sort of beliefs that the authorities consider desirable, and any serious criticism of the powers that be, will become psychologically impossible. Even if all are miserable, all will believe themselves happy, because the government will tell them that they are so.

"The System, one may surmise, will be something like this: except possibly the governing aristocracy, all but 5 percent of males and 30 percent of females will be sterilized. [In Brazil, thanks to the Bush America over 40% of the females have now been sterilized.] The thirty percent of females will be expected to spend the years from eighteen to forty in reproduction. As a rule, artificial insemination will be preferred to the natural method. The unsterilized, if they desire the pleasures of love, will usually have to seek them with sterilized partners.

"Children will be taken from their mothers and reared by professional nurses. To those accustomed to this system, the family as we know it would seem as queer as the totem organization of the Australian aborigines seems to us. The laboring class will have such long hours of work and so little to eat that their desires will hardly extend beyond sleep and food. The upper class, being deprived by the softer pleasures, both by the abolition of the family and by the supreme duty of devotion the State, will acquire the mentality of ascetics; they will care only for power and in the pursuit of it will not shrink from cruelty.

"Gradually, by selective breeding, the congenital differences between the rulers and the ruled will increase until they become almost different species. A revolt of the plebs would become as unthinkable as an organized insurrection of sheep against the practice of eating mutton."

It takes a strong stomach just to read such quotes, but to see our President, our Governors, our State legislators and local elected officials working so feverishly to carry out this planning, to follow such a blueprint is unthinkable. Has the psychological warfare really been as successful as it seems? LOOK AROUND YOU AND YOU'LL SEE!!!!

Ah, chelas, it is even worse for this only takes in a few of the aspects of life planned for you. And read on for how this pronouncement and training so inately is sneaked in upon you and your progeny. They are TRAINED BY ACCEPTED "AUTHORITIES" AND WHAT I WILL GIVE HERE IS ONLY ONE EXAMPLE.

The following is a reprint: 1988--NOAPP meeting in Milwaukee, WI. Published by the American Life League in the June-July 1989 ALL ABOUT ISSUES publication. (P.O. Box 1350, Stafford, VA 22554 [for you who want to go to Source]:

THE PIED PIPER OF SEX AND SLEAZE

Dr. Sol Gordon and Friends Tell Kids to "JUST SAY YES!"

THIS WILL SIMPLY BE QUOTED:

"You are my people; you are the people I care about the most...and this is from a card-carrying member of the ACLU!!"

With these opening remarks, keynoter Dr. Sol Gordon began his address to last year's meeting of the National Organization of Adolescent Pregnancy and Parenting (NOAPP). Speaking to an audience of over four hundred at the Marc Plaza Hotel in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in October 1988, Dr. Gordon was welcomed with great enthusiasm by this gathering of admirers.

The group, approximately 95 percent women, responded with laughter and applause to Dr. Gordon's presentation, which included crude jokes, vulgar language and ardent criticism of premarital chastity as an approach to teen pregnancy. In Dr. Gordon's words, "...young people are not paying any attention to us...because we have these dumb messages...and the dumbest one is...just say no!!" Abstinence, according to Dr. Gordon, is being proposed by "extremists".

NOAPP, with 501(c)3 non-profit status, describes itself as "a national network of diverse individuals and organizations dedicated to preventing adolescent pregnancy and problems related to adolescent sexuality, pregnancy and parenting. NOAPP works through its membership to provide conferences and training events, technical assistance for policy and program development, networking and resource-sharing opportunities, state and local coalition-building guidance and a variety of other support activities."

STATE-SPONSORED, TAX-FUNDED

The Milwaukee conference, "Today's Decisions... Tomorrow's Destiny", was hosted locally by the Wisconsin Alliance Concerned With School-Age parents (WACSAP). In its attempt to influence the needs of school-age parents, NOAPP seeks to network with various public service providers, made clear by the fact that three of the four sponsors of this particular conference were state-financed agencies: (1) The Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, (2) The state Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Service Board, (3) The Wisconsin Department of Health and Social Service. The fourth sponsor was the Milwaukee Foundation, which provided funding for the 1986 Blue Ribbon Panel on Teen Pregnancy that recommended school-based clinics for Milwaukee schools.

As an example of NOAPP/WACSAP networking with the public schools can be found in the fact that Peggy Clapp, president of WACSAP, is also the Asst. Vice Principal in Charge of the "School-Age Parent Program" in Milwaukee's Lincoln High School. It should be no surprise, then, to discover that a local contributor to the NOAPP conference was the Milwaukee Public School System. Furthermore, the State Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Herbert Grover, sent a welcoming letter, printed on page two of the 24-page NOAPP conference booklet, congratulating participants on their attendance, and urging them "to listen carefully to the ideas and programs presented here..."

And who was presenting these "ideas and programs" to the many teachers, social service workers, and health professionals who attended this conference, and what messages were being given? As one of four keynote speakers, the primary "drawing card" for the meeting was Dr. Sol Gordon, the only "keynoter" featured in the pre-registration booklet and the only one who gave two presentations to the group. From 1970 to 1985, Dr. Gordon was the Director of the Institute for Family Research and Education at Syracuse University, and currently devotes his time to group lectures and seminars. Gordon, a "sexologist", has been a long-time proponent of sex education in the schools, serving on the Board of Directors of the Sex Information and Education Council of the United States (SIECUS), and publishing many books on the subject. His message very much reflected his association with SIECUS, which was founded in 1964 by former Planned Parenthood medical director, Dr. Mary Calderone.

The 1979 SIECUS "Principles Basic to Education for Sexuality" clearly avoids any suggestion that sexual activity should be restricted to marriage, and founder Mary Calderone has stated, "We must accept that adolescent sexual experimentation is not just inevitable, but actually NECESSARY for normal develop-

SELF-ABUSE, SODOMY AND SLEAZE

As indicated earlier, Sol Gordon's NOAPP presentation only served to reinforce his association with the SIECUS philosophy. While abstinence and chastity became the target of many jokes, he made quite a production of announcing his "thirty-second" birth control message: "If you girls are not on the pill, I want you to use foam; be sure to put in BEFORE you have sex; and if a boy can't afford fifty cents for a condom, he is too cheap to be allowed in!!"

In addition to promoting the use of contraceptives among the young, Gordon also insisted that masturbation MUST BE ACCEPTED: "Masturbation is a healthy, normal expression of sexuality at any age," he said, "and we have to legitimize masturbation as a healthy, normal expression of sexuality."

[Hatonn: I must interrupt here at this point at issue because in writing in conjunction with assistance from Sananda, one of our own beloved ones wrote something almost identical in message content. NO--THAT MESSAGE IS NOT EVER FROM ONE OF NON-PHYSICAL BEING NOR ANYONE WHO WORKS IN DIRECTED INPUT DIRECTLY FROM HIGHER ENERGY--THAT IS AN EARTH PROJECTION HOOK, LINE AND SINKER. Whoever heard of problems being encountered by using responsibility and acting within the commandments? If a child experiments with self it is exploration--but to encourage public manifestation or outright terror of now predicted exchange, that if you don't masturbate you are going to have physical and emotional attacks and damage--this is unacceptable and unthinkable. THIS IS MAN-PROJECTED AND SHALL NOT BE ACCEPTABLE AS COMING FROM ANY HIGHER INTELLIGENCE. IF THIS SHOE FITS ANY OF OUR WRITERS--THEN CHECK THE FEET FOR THAT TYPE OF PROJECTION IS OF EARTH PHYSICAL AND NOT OF GOD.

Earth physicians of warped intelligence project to men, for instance, that if they don't have sex release via intercourse that they MUST masturbate or they will get cancer or their penis will fall off or they will turn into a frog or something else worthy of death by torture. This is an incredible and absolute lie and we will not allow such projection of this stupid information to go further. Know that if this appears in any of your material, it is reprinted as MAN'S PROJECTION--NOT GOD'S! God creates in perfection and all parts work just fine without tampering of Man's meddling or projections of "what if's". If your focus is on getting your world squared around in Truth, you will be so occupied and focused that these things will simply not be present to give you notice. It is through thoughts centered and focused on such activities which present the problems--EVERY TIME!]

Dr. Gordon also spent considerable time discussing homosexuality, emphasizing that "It's NOT OK to be anti-gay...we have to be in the forefront of people who are saying it openly and freely..." [Now you tell me how a child can be gay or anti-gay (for this represents "male") when he doesn't even know what sex he is at such young ages--a youth is only just beginning to have feelings of emotional reaction at these young experiences. We are speaking herejn about children, readers--children!]

In addition, he defined pornography, saying that in a case of rape, "If I was going to sue anybody...the 38th person, in order of importance, that I would sue, would be the pornographer, in order of influence on the rape." [Doesn't anyone remember that "rape" is a crime of VIOLENCE--NOT SEX! So, how about a little snuff film or blood-letting, beatings, etc., and perhaps the rage will just go-away? You will wake up, people, or you better pray to sleep soundly on without dreams for your world is a nightmare and I know not what you can do about it! At the rate you attend it, it looks bleak indeed.]

And, he also had a message for teachers present: "Don't you dare try to implement anything I say unless you have job security and tenure...If a supervisor says to you, 'But you're not supposed to do this stuff,' always say, 'OH, I DIDN'T KNOW.'"

ATHEISM AND PERVERSION

The philosophies Sol Gordon espoused at the NOAPP conference are consistent with the fact that he was among the almost four hundred who signed the 1973 Humanist Manifesto II, which, in addition to DENYING THE EXISTENCE OF GOD, ADVOCATES MORAL RELATIVISM, AND CALLS FOR COMPLETE SEXUAL FREEDOM. [Now readers, this includes those youthful experimenters who are still living off the good-will of parents, in your homes and who won't even mow the grass or take out trash. This is responsibility???

Understanding Sol Gordon's association with the liberal philosophies of the Humanists' and of SIECUS, one can more easily understand Gordon's description of himself, as originally written in the Jan./Feb. 1975 issue of The Humanist. [Humanist MEANS of the physical plane--absolutely and solely; as if that state of a person would last eternally, somehow.] This is reprinted by Claire Chambers in her 1977 publication, The SIECUS Circle:

The author wishes to use the occasion of this publication to come out of his closet and declare that he is polymorphous perverse [sic]. He dedicates this piece to all the women in his life, to all the men in his life, and especially to the wife in his life.

According to Chambers, Gordon has also written a series of vulgar sex comic books for young readers. These are known as ZING SEX COMIX and are published by Ed-U Press, which Gordon heads. In the Ed-U Press brochure that was distributed at the NOAPP conference, Dr. Gordon was promoting and selling not only his own books like The New Our Bodies, Ourselves, Gary Kelly's Learning About Sex, and Ruth Bell's Changing Bodies, Changing Lives, considered by many to be among the most filthy of sex "education" materials being advocated for classroom use.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD PARTICIPATION

As one might expect, the single group with the largest representation at this conference was Planned Parenthood. Additionally, Planned Parenthood of Wisconsin was among the seventeen exhibitors at the conference, along with groups such as the March of Dimes. In fact, one keynote speaker, Dorothy Patterson, who was named 1988 Woman of the Year by the California State Legislature for her work as director of the Oakland Unified School District's Teen Assistance Program, indicated a great admiration for Margaret Sanger, the founder of Planned Parenthood. Patterson said, "Among those advocates whose examples inspire me are...family planners like Margaret Sanger....feminists like Betty Friedan...these people...have had a profound effect on the lives of individuals and have helped shape the character of our nation." [Whew, and she is so right. We aren't really talking about typical "family" planning--we are talking about total irresponsible behavior.] The irony is that Patterson, a black woman, appears to be promoting the work of Margaret Sanger, who in 1939 launched her "Negro Project", which sought to discourage "the defective and diseased elements of humanity" from their "reckless and irresponsible swarming and spawning..." [You better reread this last and think about it a minute because I believe most of you missed the point at issue!]

CREATING THE MARKET FOR ABORTION

And how has Margaret Sanger "helped shape the character of our nation?" It is obvious to anyone who has examined Planned Parenthood's sex education curricula that the "contraceptive philosophy" it promulgates not only approves premarital sexual activity, but actively encourages the "adolescent sexual experimentation" Calderone says is "necessary for normal development". The sad truth is that Planned Parenthood promotes the very activity it pretends to cure, and in doing so, creates a market for its own abortion services. As a result, teen sexual delinquency rates are at an all-time high.

These facts were ignored by another keynote speaker, Dr. Marilyn Steele, who blatantly stated that, "Early and regular contraceptive use results in fewer pregnancies." Readers of ALL About Issues know that this theory has no foundation in fact, and has been proven wrong in major studies by Stan Week, Jacqueline Ksun, Michael Schwartz and James Ford, as well as many others.

CONTRACEPTION AND "SELF-ESTEEM"

The two dominant themes of the NOAPP conference were contraception and "self-esteem". The fact that teens would be sexually active was taken for granted, and promotion of contraception was pervasive throughout the conference. For example, at a Center for Population Options workshop on AIDS education, literature was distributed which suggested to teachers, that, "In some schools, students can't pass their health class without buying a condom!" It is also significant that one of the contributors to the conference was Ortho Pharmaceutical, the largest contraceptive manufacturer in the country. [And one of the major elite Cartel pharmaceutical companies of the world.]

Among the keynoters and most of the thirty-five workshops there was no serious discussions of abstinence or pre-marital chastity as a solution to offer for teen pregnancy; it simply WAS NOT considered. "Self-esteem" was promoted over and over again as the new panacea along with teaching "responsibility" AFTER the fact. However, parents must remember that "self-esteem" is a double-edged sword as taught by these trainers in negative response to parental authority at all levels and ages. While it may be true that a child needs a great deal of self-confidence to reject undesirable peer influence, it will, at the same time, require a defiantly self-confident child to have the courage to violate his or her family values and/or heritage, and engage in the "responsible" promiscuity being promoted by the liberal sex educators. In fact, one workshop speaker admitted that, "We don't want to stop people from having sexual intercourse at any age; we don't want to stop people from being sexual at whatever age." Another speaker said, "Teens are having sex, and probably enjoying it". [Whatever that might mean.] There may be good reason why, from December 26-31, 1988, Sol Gordon conducted--in Hawaii--the "First International Congress on Self-Esteem and Sex Education". Children will need lots of "self-esteem" JUST TO LIVE AS GORDON SUGGESTS!

TEACHING HATRED OF BABIES

Also present at the NOAPP conference was the anti-family rhetoric that seeks to reduce teen pregnancy by teaching teens to hate babies. One workshop speaker proudly displayed a large sign showing a lovely picture of a mother and a toddler, but the caption on the picture stated, "It's like being grounded for 18 years!" The speaker was very enthusiastic about the poster, indicating that it had been distributed throughout the city in which she worked. This particular poster was part of a program being funded by the Wisconsin Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Service Board. The subtle, anti-family message in the poster was that motherhood is a horrible sentence.

While abortion was not openly advocated by NOAPP conference speakers, the pro-life message was conspicuous by its absence. There were no pro-life organizations represented, even though two brazenly pro-abortion organizations were among the seventeen exhibitors. It is interesting to note that, in the list of exhibitors appearing on page 21 of the official conference program, the Wisconsin Religious Coalition for Abortion Rights is listed only as the Wisconsin Religious Coalition, giving an entirely different connotation to the organization. It gave one the feeling that NOAPP is trying to avoid a public pro-abortion position.

Finally, it is significant that almost all of those who control the NOAPP/WACSAP alliance are women; as were approximately 90-95% of those who attended the conference. Considering the heavy promotion of contraception, the lack of pro-life representation, and the visibility of pro-abortion organizations, one could easily get the impression that this conference was organized by feminists, working to preserve the right to abortion. Listening to keynote speaker Dorothy Patterson invoke the names of patron saints Margaret Sanger and Betty Friedan only reinforced this perception.

Abortion rights are fundamental to the agendas promoted by the HUMANIST MANIFESTOS, by SIECUS and by the ACLU. Therefore, it is not surprising that these were, indeed, the people that Sol Gordon cared about the most.

NOW TO "MAKE YOUR DAY!"

I am going to ask Dharma to just quote these two pages which came over the fax about an hour ago. She, by the way, has called off cleaning, unpacking and plans to pack the rest of her junk and leave--if she can figure out how to ASCEND--for she surely doesn't want to miss the "whole" show:

June 15, 1991 (News Commentary)

AIMING FOR THE TOP SPOT: The rumor mongers of the nation's capital continue to talk up the possibility that New York Democratic Congressman STEPHEN SOLARZ will make a bid for his party's nomination as presidential candidate. While most pundits cautiously weigh the pros and cons of such a move by Solarz, a few are convinced it would make good political sense. These watchers of the Washington scene think the time may be right for a Jewish presidential candidate to test the waters.

"The Democratic Party is so fractured at present that anyone with an organized cadre and a little money can have the nomination for the asking", says one congressional member.

Solarz, should he choose to run, would have a lot more than "a little money," and he certainly would have a highly "organized cadre", opined the source. The entire organized Jewish community--AIPAC, the AJC's, THE ADL, WZO, et al--would turn out to work on his behalf. The New York crowd, Hollywood and the bulk of the news media would support his nomination and later his candidacy. Money would pour into his campaign coffers, "Probably more than any candidate in history has ever had."

While Solarz would likely win the Democratic nomination with relative ease, his chances of defeating President Bush would be slim--unless there was a sudden, severe downturn in the Republican leader's popularity. "That's not a probability, but it is a possibility," said the congressional veteran. "It's still a long time until November 1992." If Solarz waged a good campaign, even if he lost to Bush in 1992, he would gain a great deal of party loyalty from the rank and file (for the ordinary American has now been trained to not be anti-Semitic and is less biased than ever before in history.) This would put him in position to prepare for the 1996 election--when his opponent might be current Vice President Dan Quayle, a far less formidable candidate than the sitting president.

"The Jewish crowd is ready to make a run for it. That's for sure," said the source. "The real question is: Are the American people ready for a Jewish president?"

At this point, only the New York congressman knows for certain what his plans are. Meanwhile, however, the excitement in Jewish Democratic circles is running high. The Jewish caucus on the Hill and its horde of energetic young staffers are teaming up with AIPAC and the rest of the organized pro-Israeli movement to win the big budget battle for the Jewish state this coming September. Solarz will be one of the leaders of the campaign.

At the same time, the National

Jewish Democratic Council (NJDC) continues to prepare for its big effort "to promote Jewish involvement in the party from the executive to the grassroots level." A power lunch is to be held by leaders of the NJDC with Democratic National Committee Chairman Ron Brown, Senate majority Leader George Mitchell (Maine) and House Speaker Tom Foley (Wash.) [Still think you are talking about "two" factions? Come, come, chelas! Remember Tom Foley's little visit with Bush's at Camp David?????] next month to discuss party priorities. In addition, the NJDC is reaching out to both the Black Caucus and the Women's Caucus in Congress. The NJDC is also planning a summer conference which is to be attended by representatives from all sectors of the Jewish pro-Israeli community, including AIPAC's chief honcho, Tom Dine.

"There's no doubt about it," the source said, "They're getting ready for something big,--and it's not just gaining more seats in Congress. They're going for the top spot, too." End of Quoting.

How dare you call me Anti-Semitic. Number one, because I am a Semite (Shemite) and number two--this writer who presented this paper and public notice is pro-Solarz and a Jewish-run America!!! You ones just don't know what to think any more, do you?

To help clarify your thoughts: More QUOTE: By the way, none of the terms to be utilized are of the original Hebrew Judean Judaists--not throughout this next portion and the one following it--they are both from public forum press and are also dated June 15, 1991.

THE INVASION OF THE SAYANIM

JEWISH STAFFERS COME IN DROVES, AND STAY: Each day hundreds of dedicated Zionists are hard at work furthering the goals and objectives of the State of Israel in the corridors of power on Capitol Hill. Much larger than the staff of the very organization which relies on them--the Mossad--these witting (and unwitting) pawns provide Israel with the most up-to-date and comprehensive insights on the behind-the-scenes activities of the U.S. legislature, and, indirectly, some of the key government agencies reporting to Congress. These pawns are known as sayanim, Hebrew for volunteers. They spy for Israel's secret intelligence service, the Mossad. [You see, chelas, the adversary has never, and will never, lose sight of his target and goals of world control--it is a lesson you of Light might well learn!]

According to Victor Ostrovsky, an ex-Mossad member and author of the book BY WAY OF DECEPTION: THE MAKING AND UNMAKING OF A MOSSAD OFFICER, THE SAYANIM ARE JEWISH VOLUNTARY HELPERS. They must be 100 percent "Jewish" (Talmudic in devotion and belief) as well as citizens of their host country (in this case, America). Many are initially contacted at the behest of the Mossad by relatives living in Israel, with the request that they assist another Israeli agency whose purpose is more mundane.

Relying on ideological appeal and the recruit's strong sense of Jewishness, the Mossad does not usually compensate a "sayan" for anything save the expenses incurred in assistance on a mission. Like one small piece of a puzzle, the individual "sayan" is often kept completely in the dark about the nature and logistics of the clandestine operations in which he is often requested to assist. Because the "sayans" are not fully informed about the work in which they engage, nor ever given classified information, they are only infrequently put at risk. Given the extent of this network in the U.S.--particularly on Capitol Hill--as well as its ideological nature, the Mossad is able to wield phenomenal influence in just about all vital areas of American society.

A cursory glance at the ethnicity of Congress reveals that its makeup is 8 percent Jewish, far beyond the 2.5 percent of the U.S. population represented by Jews. Even more impressive is that 20 percent of the staff personnel in Congress are Jews. Thus, Congress is literally inundated with Israeli sympathizers and loyalists. Of course, not all of the Jewish staffers on Capitol Hill are working for the Mossad. But with a scant few "sayanim" on the staffs of the key congressional members and committees, Israeli intelligence is more cognizant of issues affecting the Jewish state than the majority of Washington's insiders. In fact, this condition is so pervasive that former Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs David McGiffert once complained that the Israeli Embassy would frequently demand copies of documents from the Pentagon which were still in draft stage and had not yet even reached his desk.

Recruitment of agents on congressional staffs is virtually risk-free for the Mossad. Because of the ideological nature of Zionism, a "sayan" unwilling to help out is the exception to the rule. In the event refusal to assist should occur, the "sayan" could then stand accused of being a traitor to the Jewish people and even confronted with the charge that it was Jews like him or her who facilitated the Holocaust [For it is fully recognized except by you-the-blind-people, that it was the Zionist Khazarian Jews who did facilitate the Nazi Holocaust!]

One of the chief sources of Mossad recruitment is the American Israel Public Affairs Committee. Through its intern program, every year hundreds of young Zionists come to Washington at AIPAC's encouragement to intern in a friendly congressman's office. Internships in hostile offices are also encouraged and easily attained in the preventing of the host leader being labeled anti-Semite (though obviously not under the auspices of AIPAC) in order for Israeli intelligence to keep tabs on the opposition. Many of the students, who receive valuable experience, eventually return to work on the Hill or other targeted government agencies after graduation, all well versed in working hand-in-glove with Israeli intelligence.

"Sayanim" give Israel a prodigious advantage in its lobbying efforts. They are the most effective secret lobby in Washington, and often they work closely with AIPAC. In the midst of the Iranian hostage crisis in 1980, columnist Jack Anderson quoted what he believed to be U.S. intelligence reports. Actually they were supplied by the Mossad through AIPAC. Ultimately, Anderson learned the reports were nothing more than disinformation, intended to frustrate the Carter administration's hostage rescue attempts. Of course it is also now known that there was an attempt to have Anderson assassinated (a nice term for murder).

Also ensnared in the arms-for-hostage quagmire was former National Security Adviser Richard Allen (and chief foreign policy adviser to Reagan during the 1980 campaign), who was approached at a social event following the landslide Reagan victory by then-director of AIPAC, Morris Amitay. Amitay, acting on behalf of the Israeli government and with blatant disregard for the U.S. embargo against Iran, let alone the tense diplomatic situation, told Allen that in return for Iranian Jews being allowed to emigrate to Israel, Israel wanted to send American arms to the Ayatollah.

Just one more and we will leave this writing for today:

MOTHER OF ALL BATTLES

Forget Saddam Hussein. The budget negotiations in Congress scheduled for this September will undoubtedly be the promised "mother of all battles". That is when the Jewish lobby will make its formal bid for another $10 BILLION in U.S. loan guarantees to finance the absorption of Soviet Jews by Israel. Led by AIPAC, the Jewish community has indicated it will appeal on "humanitarian" grounds for the additional aid, and will include the Ethiopian Jews newly arrived in Israel as part of the appeal. A "full court press" is already under way, says the Washington Jewish Week.

The planned $10 BILLION rip-off has rallied the pro-Israeli community like no cause in recent history. Israeli and Jewish American organizational officials have been working overtime in an effort to plot the most effective course to fleece the U.S. taxpayer of the desired funds. Included in their efforts is a grassroots letter writing campaign, pressure on news editors and reporters to provide favorable coverage of Israel, and requests to members of Congress to write op-ed pieces on Israel's behalf.

According to the Washington Jewish Week, "Israeli officials have concurred that the loan campaign should be Jewish rather than Israeli", a thinly disguised attempt to draw attention away from the administration's lineage of the loan guarantees with the controversial West Bank housing settlements now being expanded by the Israelis. This bone of contention has even led to an erosion of trust between some Israeli supporters in Congress and the Zionist state. Rep. Larry Smith (D-Fla.) expressed concern with the campaign's hopes of survival because Israeli Housing Minister Ariel Sharon lied blatantly to him and other congressmen about Israel's settlement policy. Smith characterized Sharon as "a domestic opportunist".

Israel's inflexibility and lack of cooperation with Secretary of State Baker's peace initiatives also have impeded support for the loan guarantees. Leading the effort to elicit compliance with U.S. policy and congruence with the peace initiatives are Sen. Patrick Leahy (D-Vt.), chairman of the Senate Appropriations foreign operations panel, and his House counterpart Rep. David Obey (D-Wis.). Obey asked during a recent appearance before the prestigious Council on Foreign Relations: "How much more of our foreign aid budget should the Middle East devour? My answer is--none, until those dollars are provided in the context of a sweeping re-evaluation of basic policy."

Meanwhile, the House Foreign Affairs Europe and Middle East subcommittee has upped the ante for Israel to record heights, with an additional $200 million in guaranteed military assistance, and the disbursing of Israel's aid with the first month of the fiscal year. Included in the Israeli aid bill are measures which effect the cancellation of aid to Syria unless they begin negotiations with Israel, and further restrictions on any U.S.-PLO dialogue. [Well, what did you THINK Baker has been doing every week in Israel?] Not to be outdone by the House giveaway, Sens. Charles Grassley (R-Iowa) and Arien Specter (R-Pa.) have submitted a request to President Bush that he approve funds for the Arrow anti-ballistic missile project ($340 million) and provide supercomputers to Israeli universities. Sens. Daniel Inouye (D-Hawaii) and Ted Stevens (R-Alaska) have proposed giving excess gulf war material to Israel, in addition to the $700 million drawdown in "surplus" weaponry to be transferred to Israel from the Pentagon inventories. [Excess? Surplus? Where are you Americans?] In addition, since the gulf crisis, Israel has received $650 million for the collateral damage sustained during so-called SCUD attacks (which have been suspected as being self-induced), $400 million in housing loan guarantees last March, $300 million in stockpiled U.S. arms for Israeli use, two Patriot missile batteries, guarantees of Pentagon contracts to modify fighter jets, 10 F-15 fighters, and a 4.5 million barrel strategic petroleum reserve.

How big is our annual SHELL-OUT TO THE UN-GRATEFUL ZIONIST STATE? Not counting the supercomputers for Israeli universities, the excess Gulf War material, Arrow anti-ballistic missile project and Pentagon contracts to modify fighter aircraft, we are looking at $3 BILLION in guaranteed annual aid (cash), $200 million in increased military assistance (for FY 1993), $700 million for the weapons drawdown, $650 million for the collateral damage sustained in the gulf crisis, $300 million in U.S. arms stockpiled in Israel for their use, $200 million for two patriot missile batteries, $650 million for the 10 F-15 fighter jets, $400 million in housing loan guarantees secured in March, $340 million to fund the Arrow project, $90 million for the strategic oil reserves (4.5 million barrels at a very generous $20 a barrel) which comes out to well over $6 BILLION. And they want an additional $10 BILLION for immigrant housing on top of this! WELL, YOU ADD IT UP!

As you consider the above, I suggest you take a look at the rest of your world and the starving people and the genocide thrust upon every nation on the planet--INCLUDING TOP OF THE LIST, AMERICA! How is it with the moral issuances coming forth from Israel these days--there is hardly any speaking about any AIDS in the top levels of the Elite Zionist organization? You had best look into that, beloved sleepy-heads. I didn't say "Jews"--I said "top-level Elite Zionists".

Do you still disbelieve the capability of humanoid duplication? How about foreign control? How about you "think hard about it!". AMERICA IS HAVING NEW SIGN-UPS FOR UNEMPLOYMENT IN THE RANGE OF HALF MILLION PER WEEK! You are IN A DEPRESSION AND STILL GIVE ALL YOUR ASSETS TO THE PARASITES! SO BE IT FOR THE REAPER WILL HARVEST THAT WHICH YOU SOW! Salu!

Hatonn to stand aside. We need a rest break. Good luck, World, for you certainly do need a lot of it.

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT AND CREATION BECAME PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL. II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God. The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.

Hatonn also keeps us up to date on critical National and World Events.
