6/30/91 #1 HATONN
SUNDAY

Hatonn present in Light and appreciation. Thank you who have called with confirmation for Dharma regarding the activities around the Los Angeles area during the past week as to airquakes, etc. It is incredibly difficult to write that which we are giving in the midst of havoc when you have not knowledge whatsoever of personal backup. However, each time the truth is confirmed from alert or "inside" sources it is so greatly appreciated--it also gives us ability to coordinate that which they either cannot keep from the public and/or that which they are telling you-the-people about local things which are never allowed on national news or only mentioned in passing.

I do wish to clarify what I said regarding missiles and rocket launches, etc. The major "cover" was of a missile launched, after delay, of a radiation sensing device from Vandenberg yesterday. The cover was of a rocket "TESTING" of a Teledyne rocket booster on the 28th. One was to cover the other--see how that works out for you sleuths.

Now, as to sightings of craft in the area of the local location--yes, thank you, Eric, we kept several small craft in the immediate area as well as covering the ones who left the area for the "construction" business meeting. We kept direct and immediate protection surveillance on Dharma and the immediate participants for you have been under heavy "elf" attack and they have managed to knock out the computer system at least twice in the past few days. The point has been to cover the activities of the past week and disallow us to write of the current happenings--that is why we utilized a battery powered audio recording to cover the immediate events. I needed documentation scattered into your hands but we would not have been able to put it through on the computer. It is still "alert" time so we will postpone for another day, at least, writing about the incidents. I just want to give appreciation to you who have watched and reported as you find out about things which coincide with that which we are outlaying to you, i.e. the airquakes, etc.

You have several things which are preposterous taking place. Look at South Korea, and by the way, you here in present locale--note that our beloved friend from the military in South Korea has NOT been allowed to make his visit here. Further, all mail from and to has been intercepted. You are all but in full-out military war in South Korea and those soldiers there are in full alert and have been for months now. And what happens? In the company of Shultz, the South Korean President is in the U.S. yesterday and now, to offer full backing to Bush's New World Order! Serious indeed.

Note a few things said by Justice Marshall regarding his sudden "stepdown". He said, appropriately enough, when asked for his comments regarding George Bush: "I do not speak of the dead!" I tell you, chelas, no matter what you believe--you do not believe it seriously enough!

PLAYERS

There is no way to sort the players and allegiances and connections as the play is unfolding in its major form these days. Just know the Elite ALL want the same thing--and yet, there are at least three factions at play for differing reasons of desiring power. Part of the unfolding and distractions are to keep you from seeing the tree for the forest and the other is that there are great actual differences in the groups involved. Do not concern yourself--KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE BALL--YOU MUST RETAIN YOUR CONSTITUTION!!! Note what you ARE told--i.e., "Mr. Bush does not need any further authority to go again into military action in Iraq--HE STILL HAS EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY TO ACT SINGULARLY AND UNILATERALLY ON BEHALF OF THE U.S. IRRESPECTIVE OF EVEN THE UNITED NATIONS!..." (Now, this is from a government announcement!)

SECRET PACT WITH ISRAEL TO VETO UN RESOLUTIONS

Harken up!! A secret White House effort to appease the Israeli government by offering IT A PERMANENT VETO OVER FUTURE UN RESOLUTIONS is now in place. This is causing a rift, actually, between Bush and his closest adviser, Secretary of State James Baker.

In the couple of days of "silenced" talks with visiting Israeli Foreign Minister David Levy, Bush PLEDGED THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD VETO ANY FUTURE UN RESOLUTION ISRAEL DIDN'T LIKE, IF IN RETURN, THE MINISTATE WOULD MAINTAIN AT LEAST TOKEN PARTICIPATION IN THE MIDDLE EASTERN PEACE TALKS NOW BEING PROMOTED THROUGH WASHINGTON.

Baker stated that he was "distressed" and that he didn't see how such a thing could happen--i.e., "This will not stand!" You see, this is a commitment to "lease" your veto power in the UN Security Council to an alien government.

Two things are happening herein and let me tell you what the big hoopla really is about. Militant supporters of the State of Israel in the United States are actually talking about all-out-war against both Bush and Baker because it is surfacing (whether actual or fabricated is 'unimportant') that the two privately shared an "intense dislike" of Israel--true so far! It will be coming forth in the "information press" very soon, probably within your next month, and get a lot of to-do over the publication of documents proving the above statement. You see, the Israeli faction wants to put Solarz in place as President. The opposition in the Democratic faction will run Rockefeller to lessen chances of Solarz gaining enough support. This will be a dandy political battle--maybe the "Mother of all battles"? These two, Bush and Baker, will be openly and loudly accused of coming into office with intense dislike for both France and Israel.

At any rate, at UN headquarters, for reasons which allow Bush to reclaim such a commitment when desirable, Bush has given away America's veto power--a key instrument of great-power influence, reserved for five members of the world forum--to a tiny, corrupt, excitable country.

The Arabs are now expected and have stated that they will pull away from the peace process and that would be the end of it if, in fact, the war is not reopened and the UN sucked in again. Meanwhile it is ONLY Gorbachev's groupies that support this New World Order of Bush and the Bankers, in the Soviet Union, and two things come to forefront in this instance: 1) to settle the issue while there is any possibility of winning--the U.S. must have a nuclear first strike--SOON or be prepared for the Soviets to reverse the attack if support for economic input is not adequately forthcoming. The coalition is so weak that it is not even expected to hold! Israel is now pushing its Khazarian taunting against the Soviet Union and passions are at boiling point and great eagerness is afoot to simply squash Israel. When that happens it will be free-for-all time and hence you can again look unto Revelation. You can expect the Mongol (Chinese element) horde to get on the side of squashing brother communists and you have a dandy holocaust going.

I shall tell you about the fiasco and near oblivion you faced in 1980, for it was similar to all other outright plans for nuclear war by the U.S., etc. I have to continue to give you history for you don't seem to ever get the full truth laid forth for you in mass press wherein all of you can actually KNOW that which has transpired. I know it is hard to believe that thousands can be murdered in a place like Jonestown and then labeled an "evangelical" madness! It was a governmental-military massacre--by the United States Government! Call Hatonn that which you will--IT HAPPENED EXACTLY AS I HAVE TOLD YOU AND WE WILL REPUBLISH IT SOON IF YOU READERS DON'T WISH TO GO BACK AND READ IT FIRST. I WEARY OF YOU DAWDLING WHILE YOUR CIVILIZATION BURNS IN THE HELL OF DECEIT.

Well, over this Israeli "thing" you have advisers and Bush with locked horns--hence the attacks on Sununu; for there is bitter dispute among the "ranks" over this matter as Israel efforts to pull apart the close administration wall of power. The problem is how to placate Israel and its aggressive U.S. lobby, the most powerful alien-interest pressure group in history. There aren't even any denials of the veto-giveaway, chelas, so you had best look carefully at the writing on the wall. Sununu is of ARAB descent!

The ones who are involved from the sidelines are actually now referring to the UN Security Council as the "Insecurity Council". Ones such as Ambassador Ali Treiki, of Libya, for instance, are pressing for a statement from Washington's Administration prior to any further voting on any issue.

This is one of the final straws on the camel's back, friends, as far as American credibility before the world. It should be an interesting unfolding which I hope you ones will watch most closely--IF YOU HAVE TIME FOR THE UNFOLDING OF THIS ONE.

LIES, LIES AND MORE LIES

Every day in every way you MUST BE NOW SEEING that which was hidden from you. How is it that every day the contradictions blast louder and louder into the speaker system? While the parades and celebrations go on in front of you over the "war being won"--the same speakers are telling you that Iraq had nuclear capability all the way along and in spite of the unleashing of horror upon the Iraqi populace--you MISSED THE WEAPONS SITES! Even the new reports on the war DO NOT SPEAK TO LOSSES OF POPULATION IN IRAQ THROUGH MURDER BY YOUR HANDS. Since you have no valid EXCUSE to go massacre more to pull off your dreadful schemes--you manufacture more lies and more lies, etc., even to stating that Saddam plans to again invade Kuwait! Will you sit still again? Will you allow this horror again?

What else do they tell you by actions? That they fully intend to murder the children and population of Iraq by keeping full blockade against Iraq "because of this so-called inspection violation"! I warn you the entire mass projection is total LIES, LIES AND MORE LIES!

Want to hear a truth? Let us tell you the story as outlaid by a returning Marine! I will omit his name for his security but it has been made public elsewhere so this can be verified.

This young man was a guard in the camp perimeters and was among the first moving into front line duty. He operated a small rocket launcher with the approximate capabilities as for guided missiles. This is a portable, shoulder-fired weapon that can be fired while the operator is lying down, it is about four feet long and has a scope and a spotting rifle so that the gunner can spot with bullet to see if he is on target before he lets his round go.

With that background, we will speak of a mission called Operation Troy, that these young Marines won't forget--EVER. Along with never forgetting the wondrous care and attention of the U.S. for your precious young lives. It was not intended that this group of Marines survive to tell their story!

OPERATION TROY

This was a top secret mission just inside Saudi Arabia on the border with Kuwait. Operation Troy was a psychological operation meant to confuse and distract the Iraqis. Well, it certainly confused and distracted the Marines of the United States. At one point during the ground war, an entire DIVISION of about 20,000 Marines was pulled out of that border position and sent to another area. Since that left what would be termed a "hole in the defense" of the American and Joint Forces positions, the solution was a "deceptive mission". About 250 Marines--this young man included--were sent into the area with FAKE TANKS MADE OUT OF PLYWOOD AND HUM-VEES, A NEW KIND OF JEEP (Yes, that kind that your new Terminator has as a plaything). THEIR TASK WAS TO DO ALL KINDS OF THINGS THAT WOULD MAKE IT SEEM AS THOUGH THEY WERE AN ENTIRE DIVISION. (250 relative to 20,000? Not a very good ratio if I might comment from the standpoint of being one of the 250.)

While some Marines were driving the hum-vees, equipped with SPEAKERS AND BLARING THE SOUNDS OF THOUSANDS OF TANKS SCREECHING AROUND BACK AND FORTH in the desert, others were firing mortars into the Iraqi areas.

"On that operation," says XXX, "a lot of us felt pretty ripped off because they told us basically that we had been written off!"

If the Iraqis had offered any resistance, the marines would have been wiped out, he reported. "If anything had happened, we wouldn't have survived because we didn't have any transportation out of there! They told us before the whole operation that we probably would not come back!"

The 20-minute trip out to the line was in huge five-ton trucks. BUT, because there were only two trucks, the troops were transported in three trips and had no means of evacuation should a problem occur (which was duly noted and totally expected).

"A lot of chances were taken," he says, "and luckily the Iraqis didn't want to fight. They didn't fire back when we fired mortars on them. They were ready to give up. If they hadn't been, we would have been at their mercy because we didn't have a bit of transportation out of there."

Another memorable mission that was scheduled during one of the last days of the war is one that fortunately got aborted. With about 40 other marines, he was selected for a mission that would take them through open desert space dotted with mine fields and machine gun nests to a tree line where they were to arouse what was expected to be about 50 Iraqis. Three cobra helicopters were sent on ahead--something very unusual for a mission of this nature. When the cobras got into a fight with over 300 Iraqis and nine tanks, they called back to the troops and told them to abort the mission. The Marines were already on the truck ready to be transported to the area.

From there this young man was put in a group caring for Iraqi prisoners of war. With the prisoners, he says, there was only one problem: the sheer numbers of them. The prisoners themselves were so cooperative that at one point, with only one soldier to guard about 1,000 prisoners, there were no problems. No one tried to escape; no one made loud noises; no one was disruptive.

Only once on a particularly cold and rainy night when soldiers threw a huge bundle of blankets into the middle of a very large group of prisoners did a small incident start among the men who were trying to get the blankets.

Some of the guards simply fired into the air to quiet the prisoners--and they got into trouble for doing so, with our own command.

It was noted that many strange things were taking place all around everywhere. The prisoners seemed to fear being returned to Iraq because they had put up no resistance but it was as if it were planned that way--and some of the POW's were just kids, like 14 year-old tank drivers, etc., and they just turned themselves in.

Do you readers feel as if your brains are in some kind of a vise which is squashing you? Well, you know who is turning the screws with their elite screwdrivers. You are dealing with insane actions of human deceivers and YOUR TIME FOR ACTION IS ALL BUT EXPIRED!

LITTLE SCENARIO FROM 1980

I will start in the middle and, later, after we have your attention, we will work backwards as Dharma has time amidst writing on the Universal Order and Who and What God IS (a little insignificant subject in its own right, I suppose, as regarded by the accusations of readers as to "evil, satanic", etc.)

Remember that back in 1980 there was an ultimatum against Russia regarding the Olympics. Well, on February 20 that ultimatum by the U.S. against Russia expired. That same day Pravda Tass said that the Politburo member Mikhail Suslov had given a speech at a town on the Volga River (good for you, readers, it IS the same Khazarian "Volga"). The speech itself was actually a collective response by the Kremlin to American actions. The answer to the expiration of the Olympic ultimatum was, quote: "The Soviet people will not be intimidated." Then, America was described as using Afghanistan as a pretext for blackmail and threats. (By the way it was at the same time that the U.S. was supplying equipment, men and money to build highways from the Kremlin into Afghanistan WITH the Soviets). And in answer to that, Suslov said, quote: "The American government's actions will inflict damage mainly to the United States itself."

The Russians (I use the term wisely) planned to make those words come true. They planned to let the U.S. walk into one military trap following another. Each time they planned to let the Bolsheviks in America believe they were springing a surprise, but each time the Russians intended to be one step ahead--and they do, to this day, remain at least one step ahead of you!

Each time the Bolshevik dragon would show a fang, the Russians intended to pull it; and so as Suslov put it then, the American government's actions would inflict damage mainly to the United States itself. Of course, it was equally known that with your controlled press, the people (citizens) of America would never know.

The then new Russian master strategy was already at work. The Bolsheviks in the U.S. had already set in motion and set up an attempt for nuclear first strike against Russia in August, 1978! The secret planners of the American operation fully expected that the operation would lead to NUCLEAR WAR ONE before the end of January--but the operation was already in deep trouble.

First, Israeli-piloted American Submersible Aircraft in the White Sea and Caspian Sea (read that again for most of you are still in too much shock to swallow--it helps to breathe, too!) were blasted out of existence on January 20. I suggest you make a note that I tell you this information was available to you "inquiring minds" AT THE TIME!

I can't take time to describe the entire operation; suffice it to say that the important thing is that the Russians lured the American Subcraft into a trap, where they were destroyed; and their destruction took place under conditions which prevented the Bolsheviks from learning about it immediately. As a result, other parts of the American nuclear strike plan were moving ahead.

American RPV's (remote controlled aircraft) were rushed to Sinkiang Province, Red China. (Remember from prior JOURNALS I have spoken of the importance of Sinkiang Province and, readers, if you haven't this information, I can only suggest you get back copies of the JOURNALS for I cannot repeat everything as I haven't time to keep up with daily new writings). These little planes were very, very special; they were relatively small and hard to spot, very fast, and able to outmaneuver any known antiaircraft missile. Like the Subcraft, the RPV's were essential to the attack plan, which was actually revealed to you in August 1978.

America's Ruling Circles were desperate to gain access to China's Sinkiang Province. This was the geographic key to the plan for using Americas RPV's to attack Russia's Cosmosphere installations in Siberia, but it took nearly a year and a half before China agreed to the plan. Oh, the lights are beginning to flicker?

The breakthrough came during the urgent trip to China, early in January of 1980, by the United States Secretary of Defense. Right away rumors surfaced in the news about a military alliance with Red China--you history buffs, please go look it up. Part of the price of the deal was for the U.S. to afford Red China "most favored nation trade status" immediately (sick yet?); and so as his trip to China ended, the White House suddenly started leaning on Congress to act fast. By January 20, China was given a guarantee that it would be passed; and four days later your rubber-stamp House and Senate approved "most favored nation status" for Red China by overwhelming margins. The Bolshevik war planners in the U.S. did not, however, even wait for the vote.

The RPV's were on their way and landed in China on the 21st. There were 14 of them--seven were to be launched at Semipalatinsk where Russia's Cosmospheres and Particle Beam weapons were assembled. The other seven were to be launched at Novosibirsk, where the operational cosmosphere base was located; and each RPV carried a multimegaton hydrogen bomb with a cobalt jacket. In nuclear bombs lingo, they were extremely dirty bombs designed to blanket the target area with a deadly radiation for decades.

Now for you further "Inquiring Minds", yes, indeed, the "accident at Chernobyl" is completely entangled in all this mess and it is no accident that the incident is getting widespread repeat coverage in AMERICA this very week! I tell you, the elite play with deadly, deadly toys! People do not enter into the equation except as expendables.

Back to the plans: Four separate Russian groups were poised and waiting at the border for the RPV's. When they did arrive on January 21, the Russians waited only long enough to make sure all the RPV's were in place. Then around midnight that night, the Russians began moving in. Just in case, for backup if needed, there were also 45 Cosmospheres hovering over the area, but they were not needed as it turned out. The Russian Commandos achieved a complete surprise, and it was all over in a matter of minutes. The RPV's were all blown up and the camp was overrun.

In November of 1978 a secret Russian missile base in Guyana (remember Guyana?), about which you had been warned about for four years earlier, was destroyed. Joint American and Israeli Commando forces took the base by storm and killed every single Russian on the base. This was covered by the sham of Jonestown. Well, the Russians evened the score (they always do), by wiping out the secret American RPV base in Sinkiang Province, China, and not one member of the joint American and Israeli forces at the base were spared.

Don't you ones LISTEN? Just this week "they" returned four supposedly MIA's from Asia and the big boys let it slip that there are over nine thousand (9,000) unaccounted for, missing persons! Is it not time you ones started demanding, and getting, some FACTS?

As the Chinese dawn broke over the smoldering ruins of the American RPV base, January 23rd was making its own way around the globe. That evening the latest replica for the late President Jimmy Carter was scheduled to be on television. It was to be a tough speech, setting the stage for war itself to erupt within days, but the Bolshevik military planners in America were in a state of upheaval. The RPV operation in China had turned into a disaster, so it was obvious that the Russians were now on the alert. The decision was made to freeze all other parts of their nuclear first-strike operation to assess the situation. Coded signals were flashed to the nonexistent Subcraft in the White and Caspian Seas to continue "holding" at their final check points.

At the same time, another Subcraft operation was getting under way in the Black Sea. Twenty-nine (29) Subcraft were involved, and all were ordered to stop in their tracks and await further orders. The Black Sea Subcraft operation was not a part of the original plan which was revealed in about 1988--to you-the-people, from us, but during that time Russia's Particle Beam weapons program had caused additional targets to be added to the Bolshevik first-strike plan. Three of the most important new targets were Kharkov, Voronezh, and Kazan (sound familiar--you who still doubt existence of Khazars? These are names coming directly FROM "KHAZAR"). The first two were to be attacked from the Black Sea; the third target, Kazan, was to be approached from the Caspian by Subcraft, using the huge Volga River.

When the Black Sea Subcraft were ordered to halt on January 23, many were still close to their bases in northern Turkey. Eleven Subcraft were arranged along Russia's Crimean seacoast, but the rest were still in Turkish waters. That presented the Russians with somewhat of a dilemma for they preferred not to use their most important weapons where they could be observed in action but it soon became clear to the Russians that the Bolsheviks were getting cold feet and would shortly order the Subcraft back to their bases. Soon after night fell across the Black Sea on January 23, the Russian High Command gave the order to attack the Subcraft. There were 92 Cosmospheres hovering over the Black Sea at that time. Each Subcraft was being tracked continuously by at least three cosmospheres using their Psychoenergetic Range-finding equipment--that is, PRF.

When the attack order was given, selective cosmospheres started firing their Charged Particle Beam weapons downward into the sea far below them. Each Subcraft was resting motionless a short distance underwater, not nearly deep enough to avoid destruction; and so each Subcraft erupted briefly into a brilliant cloud of steam and debris. Then the sea was dark once again. Chance observers ashore and on ships saw nothing more than a brief intense light on a distant horizon--a spark that disappeared as quickly as it had appeared and no cause was ever presented to the public for such phenomenon--not unlike your recent airquakes!!! But to the Bolshevik war planners in America, those brief sparks on the horizon spelled disaster. They meant that all those nuclear-armed Subcraft in the Black Sea would not be available for a second try later on--and the Bolsheviks then guessed correctly that the same was true of the Subcraft in the White and Caspian Seas. Ah yes, now that you mention it--I do believe the ones who made judgment errors at Chernobyl were put away for life! And yes indeed--we DO have to give you Truth in small segments for the whole is absolutely unimaginable!!!

The destruction of the Subcraft in the Black Sea took place just after 4:00 P.M. A few short hours later the so-called Carter Doctrine was proclaimed in the "State of the Union" speech on your television for public consumption. The United States was still talking tough, threatening to use military force in the Persian Gulf; but later that same evening, January 23, it was the Russians who were doing the really tough talking, out of the public eye. (What do you suppose is being said regarding the new threat to use military assault against Iraq? You just brought all your soldiers home--DIDN'T YOU? Or, did you? What actually IS happening? YOU DO NOT KNOW, DO YOU?!?!)

Well, Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin suddenly arrived at the State Department for an unexpected late night meeting. There he met for an hour and a half with the top-level representative of the Bolsheviks. Dobrynin is famous for the beaming smile he always wears, but he certainly stopped smiling as soon as the meeting began. Speaking with icy precision, he confirmed that Russia had destroyed the American Subcraft AND RPV's. He also called attention to an unpublished disaster earlier that day near northern Greece in the Aegean Sea.

Ah ha! A hush-hush "oil rig", so-called, had been at work under Norwegian and American control, using German and Dutch workers; but THAT DAY the rig had suddenly gone up in flames, killing EVERYONE aboard. Dobrynin explained that Russia had known what the rig was up to and did not approve. It was preparing to plant nuclear missiles on the ocean floor to be aimed at the heart of Russia. The Russians had waited until the missiles were aboard the platform ready for planting--then a trio of Cosmospheres overhead had destroyed platform, missiles, and the crew, all at once.

Finally, Dobrynin added something which was intended to drive home the hopelessness of the Bolshevik war plans. He revealed that Russia knew that there was one more element in the overall first-strike plan which was still under way. A tiny force of four more Subcraft were moving into the Baltic Sea armed with cobalt bombs. They were a suicide force and they were all heading for a single target--Moscow. They were to approach Russia's Baltic Sea coast under water until they arrived at widely separated points near Kaliningrad, Riga, and Leningrad. Then when the order came, the plan was for them to surface and make the transition to flight configuration. From there, their mission called for them to take off, arming their cobalt bombs for detonation on impact. Flying their super-quiet Subcraft at tree-top height, their mission called for them to get as close as possible to Moscow before being shot down. As each suicide Subcraft crashed in flames, the cobalt bomb it was carrying would detonate automatically. The Bolshevik war planners in the U.S. did not expect that any of them would actually reach Moscow, but they were confident that they would get close enough to do the job.

The ground-level detonation of four cobalt bombs would send an enormous cloud of deadly radioactive fallout drifting eastward, and the Bolsheviks in the U.S. were sure that Moscow, the nerve center of Russia, would not survive. By administering a giant dose of radioactive poison, the Bolsheviks were planning to turn Moscow into a giant Jonestown of silent death. Dobrynin described it all during the meeting. Then he revealed that Russia was tracking all four suicide Subcraft. He proved it by giving their exact locations; then he said: "I am instructed to inform you that you are now invited to attempt to save these four machines from destruction if you can. You may try to hide them or protect them in any way you choose--you will discover that you cannot. Promptly at 1:00 P.M. Eastern Standard Time tomorrow, twelve hours from now, they will all cease to exist."

The next day, January 24, the Russians made good their threat. One Suicide Subcraft was near the Russian Baltic coast itself, close to Kaliningrad; another was well to the west near the border between East Germany and Poland where it strikes the coast; the third was far to the north, 30 miles west-northwest of Pori, Finland; and the fourth was clear outside the Baltic, about 70 miles north-northwest of Bergen, Norway--but all four were blasted simultaneously by the cosmospheres hovering in the sky above them.

The destruction of the suicide Subcraft with their cobalt bombs marked the end of the abortive first-strike operations for that particular time frame. It was a total defeat for the U.S., while Russia did not receive so much as a scratch; and its ramifications were widespread. For example, the debacle in Sinkiang Province was a major shock to China. It revived the arguments within Chinese ruling circles that the U.S. is a paper tiger, and the Chinese military commanders who were involved in the Sinkiang affair were in deep trouble, to say the least. There were major reshuffles in the Chinese military and Russia unseated all the Bolshevik leaders of China.

Now, since I do not wish to launch off on another subject at this writing I will just add this note, since you are all in a dither about whether or not there were trips regarding the hostages in April, 1980, by Bush, etc. Let's smoke this grass for a minute and see how it chokes you: On February 24, 1980, confirmed proof was put forth that the infamous Ayatollah Khomeini was in the hospital and would see no visitors until further notice, including all religious and political leaders. The doctors reported he had been over-taxed; BUT THE REAL REASON WAS THAT THE AYATOLLAH KHOMEINI WAS ASSASSINATED AND REPLACED BY A DOUBLE. HE WAS SHOT ABOVE THE LEFT EYE--AND KILLED--DEAD.

Do you dear ones still wish to cast stones and proclaim that your enemies might be "little gray aliens" from "somewhere out there". You are in more danger this day, June 30, 1991, than any time in the history of your planet--keep your eyes open and I suggest you pray a lot because that is the ONLY PROTECTION allowed you!!!

Dharma, you have had enough for one sitting. Thank you, for we can do no more than place the information on the banquet table--he who partakes is welcome and he who refuses, is also welcome. So be it and Salu.

6/30/91 #2 HATONN

I have asked to be allowed to write enough to finish the Express started earlier so that when I finish writing on the Bank Laundering scams, the material will not be in separation.

THE POWER PLAY

It is important that you ones be aware right now, of the seriousness of the nuclear threat. It is not by accident that Germain is writing JOURNALS dealing with life and death and suicide by atomic means. You are already destroying your populations in a most heinous manner through atomic means without blowing yourselves away. But it looks like the Elite don't mind doing that, either, if it means winning the power struggle. It should be obvious, however, that most of the Elitist "Bankers" would as soon wipe out populations through medical means, starvation, etc., for they really don't gain in the same manner as the "anti-Christ" faction wins. They need all the wondrous "stuff" gained by gaining the worldly assets--the anti-Christ just wants everything to fall into destruction to spite God and he cares not how it is accomplished. Either way--the Elite top few have protections in place and are pretty much ready for anything.

So, why do I feel a need to speak of things back in the late 1970's and 80's? Because if you watch what is happening you will see major correlations in events. Dear ones, note that which is being TALKED about this day. Things like Afghanistan, the Iranian situation including the activities of the Shah in addition to other incidents taking place in and around Paris in the politically associated arena. Oberli and Dharma both thought I had created an error when I referred to meetings in Paris regarding the hostages in "April"; no, I meant it--secret meetings were being held right along and, after the Ayatollah was replaced, things immediately began to unfold because the ones who set up the assassination would be the very ones who would go in and deal over the hostages. And remember (see above) the Ayatollah was taken out and replaced around the 23rd of Feb., 1980. There were several meetings which included Bush during the time prior to the biggie you ones speak of in the press which is just now coming under attention. There was a tremendous hotbed of intrigue already well under way.

Remember all the shifting of the Shah and then his untimely death from "illness" after he made it to the U.S.? Please, chelas, don't disappoint me by acting shocked over these revelations--they are old hat.

Let us look briefly at a few incidents which occurred just during mid-winter of 79/80. For example, the alleged former Shah of Iran had made sudden surprise moves--first to Texas, then to PANAMA. The world had been jolted by a radical change in the behavior of Russia, starting with massive intervention in Afghanistan. Even more startling, the U.S. was answering Russia with the revival of the Cold War. (You didn't REALLY think the disagreements have ended, did you?)

Meanwhile, and harken up for repeats of same, as is happening with so many other things: gold skyrocketed higher and higher in panic buying and the dark cloud of the expanding Iran crisis was hanging like that sword on the thread above the neck. Let us look backwards a bit and see the similarities--and, you can expect the same reactions any moment, from skyrocketing gold prices to total monetary collapse or another war which is a MUST to forestall preempting plans on the schedule projected.

The picture was something like this: Gold prices streaking upward, the Iran crisis was escalating out of all bounds and, internationally, the climate had undergone dramatic changes in all directions. The blue skies of peace and prosperity were fading rapidly. Suddenly the atmosphere was filled with the smell of approaching war, and the events in the headlines were only a pale shadow of what was taking place behind the scenes. The most important incidents had taken place right in the U.S. and in Russia.

In the U.S. powerful forces who were bent on war were fast gaining the upper hand. In Russia the "peace faction" in the Kremlin had been toppled from power!!! It had begun as a family squabble among the secret New Christian rulers of Russia, and it ended in tragedy for some. The result was a return to power by the hardliners among the secret sect that would rule Russia. You were headed right down that road to Thermonuclear War as spoken of prior to this. The hardliners, however, in the Kremlin were members of the same religious group as the "peace faction" and disagreed on only one major point. The "peace faction", who were known as the "White Doves", believed nuclear war must be prevented if it was humanly possible. By contrast, the hard-liners believed nuclear war was inevitable; so their guiding military strategy was not to prevent nuclear war indefinitely but WIN IT!

SHAH OF IRAN

So let us look at the scenario starting on January 17th as millions of you Americans tuned in the ABC television program "20/20". The program that night presented a heavily-edited interview by the British television personality David Frost. The person interviewed was said to be the former Shah of Iran. The individual you saw on the David Frost interview looked, sounded, and acted pretty much like the Shah--unless you knew the Shah. But oops, he looked ever so much healthier than the sickly-looking Shah in New York some short weeks prior. This was true even though news reports had been saying the Shah's condition was rapidly deteriorating. Almost every time he answered a question the face became expressionless, and the eyes frozen into a glassy stare. He spoke slowly, haltingly, as if groping around in a very faded, fuzzy memory to find the answers to the inquiries. Time after time he just gave up and simply said, "I can't remember that."

Later that same evening ABC presented its nightly special on the Iran crisis--similar to the daily blast about the Gulf War of late. The program began with some follow-up discussion of the David Frost interview program. Dr. Joseph Sisco, former Under-Secretary of State, was among those asked for his reactions to the interview. Sisco appeared to be shaken by what he had seen. He said the Shah he knew had always been able to discuss the intricacies of geopolitics, not only as they affected the Persian Gulf but world-wide. By contrast, the man he saw on the David Frost interview was, "Uncertain in his speech; a completely different man from the one I knew."

The individual interviewed by David Frost in Panama was, of course, not the Shah at all, in fact he was not even human. It was the newly released kind of living robot, known as a "synthetic automaton", or more briefly, a "Synthetic".

REPLICAS

They were being deployed as a tool of intrigue by the warlike Bolsheviks in the U.S. They were the Bolshevik answer to the other type of biological robot which the Russians began deploying earlier in 1979. The Russian type is known as an "Organic Robotoid", and both the Robotoids and the Synthetics were remarkable creatures and have only been continuously upgraded since.

By the way--how many of you remember the announcement of the Israelis creating totally "new life" in a test tube (a type of virus construction from DNA--in 1952)? This was in Tel Aviv, so don't go to sleep on me, please.

The replicas (Robotoids and Synthetics) were truly remarkable at that time and still are--even more remarkable as presented unto you now. We have spoken of these at great detail prior to this so let us move on quickly. They are manufactured by radically different technologies; but they have one thing in common--they are both artificial life-forms which live and breathe but have to be programmed like computers, and they are the products of many decades of spectacular scientific unfolding which took place COMPLETELY in secrecy out of public view and without allowed press coverage. Robotoids and synthetics remain to this time perhaps the most secret of all Intelligence Weapons.

Their most critical feature is their biological computer brain. In that regard, the Russian Robotoids were far superior to the Bolshevik Synthetics. That's because of their holographic brain. The Synthetics contained a quite low brain quality. The actions of the Shah on that program points up that of which I speak now. Synthetics easily pass for human beings, but they act dull-witted compared to the humans which they simulate (I'm sure you can give more examples from your own witness). When Frost interviewed the Synthetic "double" for the former Shah, he no doubt thought he was talking with the real thing; but by that time the original Shah had been dead for well over a month. The Shah was murdered in the morning hours of Sunday, December 2, 1979.

The once mighty Shah arrived in New York quite healthy but needing some "surgery", as was reported. He did undergo "medical treatment" but not what you or "HE" expected and the little surgical procedure touted could have been easily done anywhere. He was a mere pawn in a very deadly world-wide game of life/death chess. For more than two years a secret war had been already in progress between the new rulers of Russia and the overthrown former rulers of Russia, the Bolsheviks. Having been expelled from Russia by the tens of thousands, the old Bolsheviks had been flocking mainly to the United States. They were and are in a rage to strike back at Russia, and they plan to do it using America's military power.

So a new Bolshevik revolution had gotten under way without fanfare in the U.S. This faction is still in a hidden frenzy to throw America's military might at Russia. The Bolshevik war plan is based on an American nuclear first strike against Russia; the chain of events leading up to the first strike was to begin with a crisis over Iran and it came off right on schedule. Funny thing about planned crises--you see, the identical pattern was set up again over Iraq and Russia didn't come to the war! Indeed, indeed--the Zionists are really ticked off and now have to stage some more upsets--but that should be easy enough for the tricksters have all your money, America, and you are stockpiling nuclear and other weapons in Israel and all manner of other goodies. But, on the other hand, as the old saying goes, could your own Elite desire that somehow Russia and Israel get goaded into their own war? Well, I leave you to ponder it--for you are at the time of Armageddon, old friends, and what you sees is definitely NOT WHAT YOUZE GETS!

These factions have been setting up their world take-over since the beginning of the planet--long before they integrated into the Bankers' Cartel, so you had better get a bit nervous and pray they can keep it out of your doorway! So be it.

ASSK

Reminder to America West. After the last blast from ASSK to all their mailing list and the insults we have endured over that last barrage--I recall asking that a demand be sent to cause them to print information regarding where their readers could get information from America West. All information as to how to get the JOURNAL and/or EXPRESS material was deliberately omitted and is refused to be given out by phone. I again ask that you get on with a requirement, and follow-up proof of press, that the information be printed and distributed to every one who received the ASSK document. I appreciate the advertising; I simply demand that readers have access to the material in point. If ASSK wishes to assume ownership of our material I welcome their input but I insist proof that all members making such claims present themselves having studied every word written by our speakers. I fear that nonsense written by one Brother Philip and claimed by Sister is, at best, Williamson's plagiarism and not mine or Sananda's. We, further, have absolutely no interest in the material of the "Andes", "Places of the Lion" (for most is pure fabrication from onset of information) and/or Tiahuanaco Prophecies by anyone. I think we might be getting a glimmer of the truth of the accusations? God stands forth without shroud of anonymous accusations and/or hidden gibes. He has no royal orders or special beings of some kind or another of "royalty". There is not "my Sananda" or "their Sananda" nor "her Hatonn/Aton" vs. "someone-else's Hatonn/Aton"--THERE IS ONLY ONE! SO BE IT. I WOULD SUGGEST, FURTHER, THAT SINCE TIME HAS OBVIOUSLY ELAPSED THAT YOU SUGGEST THAT TED REPEAT THE MAILING IN FULL--ALONG WITH DOCUMENT INFORMATION. PERHAPS YOU MIGHT LIKE HIM TO MAIL THE SAME TO OTHER MAILING LISTS AS WELL. WE DO NOT HIDE BEHIND FACADES NOR SPEAKERS--I SHALL MEET WITH ANY SPEAKER THEY WISH TO PRODUCE FROM BEHIND THE RECEIVER'S MOUTH--VIA THAT RECEIVER'S MOUTH--PUBLICLY.

I believe you nice earth people have been somehow misled regarding the demeanor and projection of pious stupidity as touted by the many receivers who project their own image or perceptions. God is neither pious nor non-passionate and He will react in a manner befitting a CREATOR and not as a royal pig with mush in its mouth. Now, I suggest you ones please remove the mush from your ears and HEAR for your world is in desperate circumstance and if these ones who continue with the rock blasts fail to notify you of same, I pity you all who refuse to see Truth as it is being unfolded unto you. The choice is yours but I DO DEMAND that the choice for obtaining the material be made available to you and then you can do whatever you choose about same.

Hatonn to clear.

Do I strike all that accused of "FEAR" in your hearts? Ah so--I suggest then, that you get all the information for we also tell you WHAT TO DO ABOUT YOUR PLIGHT! KNOWLEDGE IN TRUTH IS THE ONLY THING WHICH WILL DISSOLVE THE FEAR AND SHOW YOU THE WAY. THE WAYSHOWERS ARE AGAIN PRESENT TO SHOW YOU THE WAY, THE OPENING OF EYES, HOWEVER, IS UP TO YOU! SALU.

GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT

AND CREATION BECAME

PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL.

II

By Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

The thought of God is LIGHT.

LIGHT is all there is. ALL springs from, and returns to, LIGHT, the thought of God.

The "War in Heaven for Men's souls" between God and Lucifer, the Light and the dark forces, cannot be comprehended without an understanding of the "physics" of the Universe.

Returning to God requires rising above the physical so dark forces' thrust is ever to ensnare man in the physical, fleshly, "things" of "wealth" and "power" through man's ego.

Shedding our attachments to those physical things, and "highs" associated with sex, drugs, alcohol, thrill/life-risking sports (including war), etc., requires KNOWING that there is more--something better.

This book, a primer, provides the basic understanding of what we are, where we come from and return to, why we are where we are and for what, and how to get the most from this experience.

And, it will help you begin to free yourself from the density and negativity of this experience to take that next step to your oneness with GOD/ATON, the ONE LIGHT.
