Who Are Channels, and What Is It All About?

2/21/92 #1 HATONN

I welcome your inquiries and most certainly appreciate your sharing of information gleaned from another. But, chelas, please use your intelligent discernment. Just as ones ask ME about such things as Ramtha, Lazarus, and different "Channels"--I do not have right to speak on those subjects for I am not informed as to that which is their business. If their work fits within the LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION--what pick can you have? If not--they are uninformed or misled.

Example: I have been sent a por-

Israel/Lebanon

2/21/92 #1 HATONN

Unlike the Eveready commercial where the rabbit will eventually run down--the war continues to rev-up. Keep your eye open to other things going on and this will fit into its proper placement. Remember what I told you about WATER in a writing some couple of months past. This is a major reason for such encounters as well as forced building--to claim water. The aquifers which feed Israel are under the West Bank and the Gaza Strip. Israel plans to have all the land above these resources one way or another.

tion of a newsletter from one who receives from some energy called "This Awareness". "This Awareness"??? Does this energy not have a name or identification? Why do you not demand identification? This is like using the term "unified" as a proper label. "Awareness" is not a "name" nor an identification.

I take no exception to the attention given by this one in response to many inquiries regarding the Phoenix material--in fact, I am most happy to have the ability to interact. Ones ask for response when they have only seen one or two documents--at most--and then turn to "Awareness" and ask judgment (yes, I said "judgment"). The person and "Awareness" have seen no more of the information or papers than has the inquirer but we get two full pages of detailed credit and discredit all mixed in the same pot.

For readers of the Phoenix material who have followed along and read their homework--there is no confusion nor failure to measure intent. With over 12,000 pages of writing I think all of you can find something of value in the pile of material. If you know the rules of discernment according to laws we keep repeating and repeating unto you--you have no problem with "belief".

I get credit for telling Truth and then smacked because it is written "somewhere". Do you not read? I have stated over and over and over again--I GIVE WHAT IS ALREADY ON YOUR PLACE AS PERTAINS TO ACTIONS OF THE ELITE--SO THAT YOU CAN GET CONFIRMATION. Do you badger a Journalist for reporting the news? The point is to integrate the "news" so that the sleeping masses can finally see and hear it!!! Wherein the subject is God and soul journey--YOU WILL GET TRUTH AND NO FLOWERS TO DISTRACT YOU FROM THE GRAVE INTO WHICH THE WORLD IS READY TO ROLL.

As with the taped message which does all in the name of "Jesus" (ALL), and then says Truth: "...who was named by the Apostle Paul....", etc. Indeed? Wherein is your 'CHRIST'? "Christ" is the point and not a man named by another man. You have now focused on a PHYSICAL BEING and left out the one component part of value--CHRIST, which is a state of being in energy form--called spiritual.

Now, as with "Awareness", the speaker goes along very well as he quotes from a letter of inquirer: "Word from knowledgeable sources has stated that this information is only copied from already existing materials and the government is actually behind this, adding mistruths to a percentage of the information in order to confuse and mislead those who have a high amount of awareness concerning covered-up issues. ("This Awareness" suggested the last paragraph be reread.) "Word from knowledgeable sources has stated that this information is only copied from already existing materials, and the government is actually behind this, adding mistruths to a percentage of the information in order to confuse and mislead those who have a high amount of awareness concerning covered-up issues."

This goes on for some two pages so allow me to spare the space and time, please. Number one: if there is already "awareness of events", how can more clarification possibly cause CONFUSION? Next, even "Awareness" indicates the Truth of the projections of the MATERIAL--THEN GOES RIGHT ON TO STATE: "DON'T TAKE THE INFORMATION SERIOUSLY.....!!!"

I am denounced--actually my scribe is denounced--and named, Doris Ekker. Well, I shall be happy to share a bit further for the ones sending the information to this place removed all evidence of source of "Awareness" identity by sending only pertinent Phoenix reference. This is proper and fine, I just wish to make a point for clarity. I would suggest that I see that these are ones, Avaton and Vikki. I make no comment on their capability for it is not my business to share their journey or purpose. However, if you do not take the material SERIOUSLY then you are going to have a very, very rough go of it.

I repeat several things herein--I HAVE NO CONNECTION TO ANY KNOWN "RELIGION"--I SERVE ONLY GOD AND GOD'S PEOPLE AS YOU MOVE TOWARD TRANSITION. THERE IS GROSS MISPERCEPTION AS TO MY CONNECTION WITH THE HIGHER ENERGY FORMS WHO HAVE BROUGHT THEIR OWN MISSION OF INFORMATION. THIS MISINFORMATION AND MISUNDERSTANDING CONCERNS EVEN MY RELATIONSHIP WITH ONE, ASHTAR COMMAND. I HAVE SPOKEN AND CORRECTED SO

Introduction to Hatonn

1/13/92 #1 HATONN

I am Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, Commander in Chief, Earth Project Transition, Pleiades Sector Flight Command, Intergalactic Federation Fleet. You may call me Hatonn. I am come in service unto the ONE GOD of Lighted Creation, and as "Host" unto His people who will be brought into His places long prepared for you. My own "Captain" is Sananda, the Christed Being you have called by many names--now one totally with Creator/Creation. [Sananda: simply meaning of/with God]. We are not "mystical" nor even "mysterious" aliens. We are the "Hosts" sent in preparation for His return, bringers of Truth according to His promise and to reveal the lies foisted upon you to claim your souls for the physical evil Elite controllers. We come in total love and without intent of force, coercion or judging. "Judging" is a state of evaluation of self in the presence of Creator in which actions in the physical experience are evaluated.

The information within the documents revealing Truth, THE PHOENIX JOURNALS and LIBERATOR, are the outlays of lies and hidden facts for which you can find confirmation. If you don't know the problems and the source of the problems, you can have no solutions.

I do not "channel"; I transmit on a frequency attuned to my "receiver" who is simply a translator of the pulses into English. This is true of all receivers who receive from any of this Command come forth with God for this transition of species and planet.

The receivers mostly have no reference for material given until after the giving and then, only for their own confirmation and yours. My petition is that you pay no attention to this resource if it is confusing and uncertain unto you--LET TRUTH STAND ALONE IN ITS PRESENTATION--THE REST WILL FOLLOW IN PROPER SEQUENCE.

MANY TIMES THAT I REFUSE TO DO SO AGAIN HEREIN FOR OUR TIME AND SPACE IS MORE VALUABLE THAN ALL THE GOLD ON YOUR PLACEMENT. THE RELIGIONS AND DOCTRINES OF RELIGION AND THE NEW AGE MOVEMENT WILL BE THE DEATH OF YOUR SOUL JOURNEY IN TRUTH AS YOU ARE HEADED.

I note that even in the taping of denouncement and "help for a lost soul", the names and places are totally incorrect--how can you say the "Bible" has no errors when the spokesmen speak almost no valid facts as to dates or players??

MY ONLY INTENT AS FAR AS WORLD HISTORY AND HAPPENINGS IS TO CONFIRM AND VALIDIFY FACTS, FOR YOUR ENEMY IS CONTINUALLY CHANGING HISTORY TO SUIT HIS OWN NEEDS FOR YOUR ENSLAVEMENT. YOU ARE TAUGHT INCORRECTLY AND TO BLATANTLY DISREGARD THE LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION--IT IS FINE IF YOU DO SO--IT WILL, HOWEVER, NOT GET YOU ABOARD SECURE PASSAGE OFF YOUR PRISON. I WOULD ASK THESE TAPERS AND CHANNELS AND "AWARENESS" JUST HOW IT IS THEY CAN JUDGE THIS WORK?? I, FOR ONE, DEMAND TO KNOW IN BEHALF OF YOU ONES WHO BELIEVE THEIR OUTPUT--TRUE OR FALSE. IF THE ANSWER IS FROM A PURELY PHYSICAL ASPECT--BE CAUTIOUS FOR YOUR SOUL WILL RESIDE IN THE SPIRITUAL--DETACHED FROM PHYSICAL. JUST AS MY WORDS ARE CHANGED IN THE RETELLING--SO HAS BEEN THE BOOKS GIVEN FOR YOUR GUIDANCE--DELIBERATELY AND DEADLY! FEEL FREE TO CONTINUE IN YOUR PRAYING FOR INSIGHT FOR THESE "POOR CHILDREN CAUGHT IN HATONN'S TRAP OF EVIL" AS PRONOUNCED UPON MY ONES, BUT YOUR KNOWLEDGE MUST INCLUDE: "CHARITY MUST BEGIN AT HOME"! WE SHALL CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR YOUR CLARITY OF INSIGHT AND GO RIGHT ON WITH OUR PROJECTIONS OF DESTINY AS UNTOUCHED BY PHYSICAL, HUMAN HANDS AND TAMPERINGS. WE MAKE NO CLAIM NOR FORCE

UPON ANY WHO WISH TO TRAVEL A DIFFERENT JOURNEY--I JUST SUGGEST YOU BE SURE WHERE YOUR PATH LEADS--AND THEN, PERHAPS, YOU WILL REJOICE IN THE TID-BITS OF PROOF AND CONFIRMATION WE SORT OUT OF THE BILLIONS OF PAGES OF NONSENSE, TO PRESENT TO YOUR ATTENTION. HOW MIGHT IT BE THAT THIS SCRIBE HAS ONLY CHOSEN THOSE TOPICS WHICH PROVE TO BE TRUTH EVEN TO THOSE YOU PETITION? WOULD YOU BE CAPABLE OF SUCH SELECTIVITY--WITHOUT ERROR OF CHOICE? WOULD YOU NOT, PERHAPS, CHOOSE EVEN ONE INCORRECT PRESENTATION? DHARMA IS A 60 YEAR-OLD HUMAN WHO HAS NEVER BEEN INTERESTED IN ANY OF THIS MATERIAL--THAT IS ONE OF THE REASONS SHE SERVES IN THIS CAPACITY--SO SHE DOES NOT TAINT THE WORK BY HER OPINIONS--FOR SHE BORE NO PARTICULAR OPINIONS REGARDING THE SUBJECTS AT POINT. I ASK THAT YOU READERS PONDER THIS INPUT FOR I AM ADVANCING BEYOND THIS TYPE OF DISSERTATION--THE INFORMATION IS FOR YOUR USE AND GLEANING--I AM NOT COME TO DEBATE NOR ARGUE POINTS OF PHYSICAL DOMINION. ULTIMATELY, THERE IS NOTHING OF VALUE IN ANY RATIO WHATEVER--EXCEPT SOUL AND I, FOR ONE, NEED TO GET ON WITH THAT ASPECT FAR MORE FULLY. HOWEVER, IF YOU ARE MIRED IN THE BLINDNESS OF THE LIES AND THE PHYSICAL--YOU CANNOT RISE HIGH ENOUGH TO PERCEIVE THE SPIRITUAL TRUTH. THE INTENT OF PULLING YOU DOWN--BEGAN IN THE SPIRITUAL LIES!! MOREOVER, THIS IS WHY BOOKS AND SPEECH ARE BANNED FROM THESE RESOURCES--FOR IT IS THE ONLY WAY TO KEEP TRUTH FROM YOU!

AS TO SPIRITUAL TRUTH--I SUGGEST YOU STOP ASKING FOR ANOTHER'S OPINION REGARDING YOUR SOUL JOURNEY. YOU WILL MAKE IT SOLELY ALONE WITH GOD. AVATON'S OPINION OF MY WORK IS WORTHLESS TO YOU. IF THESE ONES BE GOOD TEACHERS THEN YOU WILL BE ABLE TO DISCERN FOR SELF ACCORDING TO THE RULES AND GUIDELINES OF TRUTH--WHAT DOES THE WORD MEAN TO YOU?!! THAT IS THE ONLY MEASURE OF IMPORTANCE--YOUR PERCEPTION! WE ONLY GIVE YOU THE FACTS OF "HOW IT IS" AND YOU WILL DO THE DISCERNING AND JUDGING FOR I JUDGE NOT AND NEITHER WILL GOD. YOU WILL JUDGE ALONG WITH THAT GOD WITHIN--MY MISSION IS TO ALLOW YOU TRUTH WITH WHICH TO HAVE DISCLOSED KNOWLEDGE BY WHICH TO FORM YOUR JUDGMENTS AND DIRECTION--EXACTLY ACCORDING TO THE PROMISE OF GOD--FOR YOUR JOURNEY THROUGH THE VEIL OF PHYSICAL MANIFESTATION--OUT OF THE PITS AND INTO LIGHT! NO MORE AND NO LESS--THE REST IS STRICTLY UP TO YOU.

Let us move on with our work. Following disclosures of the lies as impact you THIS DAY--we shall take time to move into these other areas of discernment, but, frankly, I wish to have my audience with me so that the multitudes HEAR WHAT I SAY AND RECOGNIZE WHO I AM AND I HAVE JUDGED THAT THIS IS THE PROPER SEQUENCE TO ARRIVE AT THAT PRESENTATION--AFTER YOU ONES HAVE ABILITY TO DISCERN THAT I DO BRING TRUTH WHICH CAN BE CONFIRMED AND BELIEVED. THE LESSONS OF ENERGY AND SOUL ARE TOO IMPORTANT TO FRAGMENT AND QUARREL OVER IN YOUR LITTLE CIRCLES SET FORTH TO DISTRACT YOU AND KEEP YOU MISINFORMED. NOTE THAT ALL THE WORDS ARE USUALLY USED BY THE ADVERSARY, UPON YOU PRECIOUS LISTENERS--AND THEN HE LOCKS YOU SECURELY INTO THE PHYSICAL NON-REALITY WHILE CAUSING YOU TO SEPARATE YOURSELF FROM INSIGHT TO SEE BEYOND THAT VEIL INTO REALITY. SO BE IT--FOR TO EACH WILL BE HIS OWN!

I ask that we simply begin right here with the subject I outlaid yesterday:

KENNEDY AND MAC
ARTHUR

How is it that facts are distorted and lies fill the void? Let us use the following as an example. Right out of a note in the Spotlight regarding author and contributor, Mark Lane, you will find the following interesting turn of events. Now, please, as you read the quotation I ask that you keep in mind what I have told you: The ADL is a fabrication and a branch of BRIT-fare? God always returns honor and reward to those who give in truthful purpose unto that which is goodly and within the laws of goodness. This, by the way, fits the rules laid forth in your Constitution of the United States of America and your Bill of Rights. You must now begin at reclaiming that foundation lest you lose freedom to recover. I shall reveal all resources at the proper time for secure deliverance with ability to bring forth Truth unto you--the people in freedom and safety. Your taunts of "plagiarism" are unworthy of Truth--YOU CANNOT PLAGIARIZE TRUTH! If YOU accuse of "plagiarism" and the subject be "Truth", you show your own ignorance and total lack of knowledge as to even the legality in the laws. We print JOURNALS and NEWSPAPERS--I suggest you ones check out the differences in perception and definition of both and/or either. By the same set of honorable rules I PROTECT RESOURCES FROM YOU ONES WHO WOULD PULL THEM DOWN BY YOUR ACCUSATIONS, DENIALS AND DIRECT ASSAULT. LET IT BE CLEARLY KNOWN AS TO THIS FACT--HEREIN--NOW. If I choose to editorialize--I SHALL DO SO. I LAY A BANQUET FOR YOUR INTAKE--YOU MAY REFUSE ANY OR ALL. I AM NOT YOUR ENEMY--YOU ARE YOUR ENEMY!

ISH INTELLIGENCE--not "Jewish" anything. The operations in the U.S. are called "... B'nai B'rith". This "ADL" is in integration with the Mafia Crime Syndicate and owns Sterling Bank, home officed in New York. From this springs the Jewish Defense League (JDL), Jewish Defense Organization (JDO), World Zionist Organization (WZO) and other Lobby groups.

Note herein that Mark Lane wrote a book regarding the Kennedy assassination recently. Parts of that were integrated into Oliver Stone's "JFK". Mark's book, PLAUSIBLE DENIAL, is about the assassination and has nothing to do with Jews, Zionists nor does he speak of these elements in his interviews. Thus, the next becomes a bit perplexing if you don't understand the way these organizations work to get attention and sympathy for themselves. I think I need not make further comment for the little notice speaks for itself.

FALSE ACCUSATIONS

"COVERT ACTION?--Spotlight, Feb. 24, 1992: Author-attorney Mark Lane, author of the phenomenally best-selling PLAUSIBLE DENIAL, has been the target of harassment by the violence-prone Jewish Defense Organization (JDO), an offshoot of the Jewish Defense League. After his appearance on a New York City television interview program, the JDO demanded "equal time" and threatened to picket the home and office of the host. According to Lane: "Equal time for what? I never mentioned the JDO or Israel in my book, which is about the JFK assassination. I know their spiritual leader, the late Meir Kahane, was an informant for the FBI, and I now wonder if when I say the CIA killed JFK, the JDO is entitled to equal time because they are now representing the CIA."

We will take this one step forward, please. This "Racism" and "Anti-Semitism" is totally out of control and you will end up as Canada--blindly giving up your freedom of expression and press by playing into the lying frenzy of the accusers. Here is another one assaulting an author, James B. Stewart, who wrote a book DEN

OF THIEVES about the junk bond swindler, Michael Milken. What happened? Let's quote: "Did Michael Milken get off easy in court? That was the opinion of lawyer Alan Dershowitz, who announced, 'I smell a rat in this case.'"

"But a few months later, when the jailed junk bond swindler hired Dershowitz to argue his appeal, the aggressive attorney changed his tune. When DEN OF THIEVES was published, revealing a documented account of Milken's 'historic' crimes, Dershowitz attempted to discredit it by calling author James B. Stewart an 'anti-Semite' and his book 'an anti-Semitic screed'."

So what is this about? It is about your freedom to bring Truth forth in any form whatsoever. In the book, in the Index, the word Israel is not listed--but that is used as an expression to "prove intent" of anti-Semitism!?! Also missing in the index is the Simon Wiesenthal Center or the Simon Wiesenthal Foundation. Yet these "Nazi-hunting" agencies have received more financial support from Milken and his inner circle, such as Marc Rich, than from any other source. In turn they represented the junk bond czar's major social forum--the one place where Milken regularly attended social and public functions. I would suggest that the missing words from the index indicate the pro-Israel slant instead of the orthodox definition of "anti-Semitism".

SWINDLERS BIG CONTRIBUTORS

It is totally proven that the financial support Milken and his cohorts gave Israel was very significant. Apart from the Simon Wiesenthal group, other leading pro-Israel organizations have extended their top honors to these swindlers.

Ivan Boesky, one of the junk bond czar's principal confederates, raised "hundreds of millions of dollars" for Israel as two-term chairman of the United Jewish Appeal's Israel bond drive and was named Man of the Year in 1985 for "untiring" efforts. Milken was similarly honored for what are described as "huge" handouts he contributed during "emergencies" such as the invasion of Lebanon by Israeli forces.

I am going to leave this at this point but when you speak of "confusion"--is it Hatonn who offers confusion?? You sleepyheads better get your eyes open before they are "put-out" for the remainder of your life journey on your placement. Did you nice investors who were placing your money into what you thought was good investment--KNOW THAT YOUR MONEY WAS FUNNELLED FOR WAR IN ISRAEL? I THOUGHT NOT!

You must come to see and recognize the connections for the entire Elite circle of controllers are never sleeping and they are out to "GETCHA!" You are already in the "Web"; all that is left is the "kill" and "supper".

Even if this seems to be unconnected to Bush, Kennedy, MacArthur and thus and so--No--you must come to realize that all is connected to all and clues have been abundant all the way to this moment in setting of the stage for the things that have come to destroy you. You must come to see and KNOW.

HUNT/KENNEDY/MAC
ARTHUR

Hunt was typical of the opinion that the debacle (Cuban invasion) had been Kennedy's fault, and not the responsibility of men like Allen Dulles and Richard Bissell, who had designed it and recommended it. After the embarrassing failure of the invasion, which never evoked the hoped-for spontaneous anti-Castro insurrection, Kennedy fired Allen Dulles, his Harrimanite deputy Bissell, and CIA deputy Director Charles Cabell (whose brother was the mayor of Dallas at the time Kennedy was shot). [H: Remember, he is the one responsible for changing the route of the motorcade that infamous day!]

During the days after the Bay of Pigs debacle, Kennedy was deeply suspicious of the intelligence community and of proposals for military escalation in general, including in places like South Vietnam. Kennedy sought to procure an outside, expert opinion on military matters. For this he turned to the former Commander in Chief of the Southwest Pacific Theatre during World War II, General Douglas MacArthur. Kennedy met with MacArthur in which the veteran general warned the young President that there were elements inside the U.S. government who emphatically did not share his patriotic motives, and who were seeking to destroy his administration from within. MacArthur warned that the forces bent on destroying Kennedy were centered in the Wall Street financial community and its various tentacles in the intelligence community.

MAC ARTHUR'S AWARENESS VALUED

It is a matter of public record that Kennedy met with MacArthur in the latter part of April 1961, after the Bay of Pigs. According to Kennedy aide Theodore Sorenson, MacArthur told Kennedy, "The chickens are coming home to roost, and you happen to have just moved into the chicken house." At the same meeting, according to Sorenson, MacArthur "warned Kennedy against the commitment of American foot soldiers on the Asian mainland, and the President never forgot this advice." This point is very grudgingly confirmed by Arthur M. Schlesinger, a Kennedy aide who had a vested interest in vilifying MacArthur and who wrote that "MacArthur expressed his old view that anyone wanting to commit American ground forces to the mainland of Asia should have his head examined." MacArthur restated this advice during a second meeting with Kennedy when the General returned from his last trip to the Far East in July 1961.

Kennedy valued MacArthur's professional military opinion highly, and used it to keep at arms length those advisers who were arguing for escalation in Laos, Vietnam, and elsewhere. He repeatedly invited those who proposed to send land forces to Asia to convince MacArthur that this was a good idea. If they could convince MacArthur, then he, Kennedy, might also go along.

At this time, the group proposing escalation in Vietnam (as well as preparing the assassination of President Diem) had a heavy Brown Brothers Harriman/Skull and Bones overtone: The hawks of 1961-63 were Harriman, McGeorge Bundy, William Bundy, Henry Cabot Lodge and some key London oligarchs and theoreticians of counterinsurgency wars. And of course, George Bush during these years was calling for escalation in Vietnam and challenging Kennedy to "muster the courage" to try a second invasion of Cuba.

In the meantime, the JM/WAVE-Miami station complex was growing rapidly to become the largest of Langley's many satellites. During the years after the failure of the Bay of Pigs, this complex had as many as 3,000 Cuban agents and subagents, with a small army of case officers to direct and look after each one. According to one account, there were at least 55 dummy corporations to provide employment, cover, and commercial disguise for all these operatives. There were detective bureaus, gun stores, real estate brokerages, boat repair shops, and party boats for fishing and other entertainments. There was the clandestine Radio Swan, later renamed Radio Americas. There were fleets of specially modified boats based at Homestead Marina and at other marinas throughout the Florida Keys. Agents were assigned to the University of Miami and other educational institutions.

The raison d'être of the massive capability commanded by Theodore Shackley was now Operation Mon-goose, a program for sabotage raids and assassinations to be conducted on Cuban territory, with a special effort to eliminate Fidel Castro personally. In order to run these operations from U.S. territory, flagrant and extensive violation of federal and state laws was the order of the day. Documents regarding the income tax returns were faked. FAA regulations were violated by planes taking off for Cuba or for forward bases in the Bahamas and elsewhere. Explosives moved across highways that were full of civilian traffic. The Munitions Act, the Neutrality Act, the customs and immigrations laws were routinely flaunted.

Above all, the drug laws were massively violated as the gallant anti-communist fighters filled their planes and boats with illegal narcotics to be smuggled back into the United States when they returned from their missions. By 1963, the drug-running activities of the covert operatives were beginning to attract attention. JM/WAVE, in sum, accelerated the slide of south Florida towards the status of drug and murder capital of the United States it achieved during the 1980's.

More on the Kennedy Assassination

2/21/92 #1 HATONN

It cannot be the task herein to begin to treat the reasons for which certain leading elements of the Anglo-American financial oligarchy, acting with certain kinds of support from continental European aristocratic and neofacist networks, ordered the murder of John F. Kennedy. The British and the Harrimanites wanted escalation in Vietnam; by the time of his assassination Kennedy was committed to a pullout of U.S. forces. Kennedy was also interested in seeking a more stable path of war avoidance with the Soviets, using the U.S. military superiority demonstrated during the Cuban missile crisis to convince Moscow to accept a policy of world peace through economic development. Kennedy was interested in the possibilities of anti-missile strategic defense to put an end to that nightmare of Mutually Assured Destruction which appealed to HENRY KISSINGER, a disgruntled former employee of the Kennedy Administration whom the President had denounced as a madman.

JFK'S PLANS FOR GOOD

Kennedy was also considering moves to limit or perhaps abolish the usurpation of authority over the national currency of the Wall Street and London interests controlling the Federal Reserve System. He fully planned to assert presidential control, as distinct from Wall Street control, over the intelligence community. My, what a big order--little realizing that your nation had already been taken over by these very organizations in point. Kennedy fully planned to oust J. Edgar Hoover from his purported life tenure at the FBI, subjecting that agency to presidential control for the first time in bunches of years. Hoover had become a "mentally sick" individual. Kennedy was further committed to a vigorous expansion of the space program, the cultural impact of which was beginning to alarm the finance oligarches.

Above all, Kennedy was acting like a man who thought he was "President of the United States" violating the collegiality of oligarchical trusteeship of that office that had been in force since the days before Roosevelt. Kennedy furthermore had two younger brothers who might succeed him, putting a strong presidency beyond the control of the Eastern Anglophile Liberal Establishment for some decades to come. This would, in turn, strengthen the Constitutional functioning of the system and break down the Judicial machine as structured by the non-justice bilkers of Law.

George Bush joined in the Harrimanite opposition to Kennedy on ALL of these points.

After Kennedy was killed in Dallas on November 22, 1963, it was known that E. Howard Hunt and Frank Sturgis had both been present--together--in Dallas on the day of the shooting, although the truth of these particular allegations were buried and the proof efforted at thwarting. Both Hunt and Sturgis were active veterans of the Bay of Pigs operation and would later appear center stage in Watergate.

BUSH PROVABLY INVOLVED

I think it is important for you to know that both Nixon and Bush were involved in the assassination. Bush, as a matter of fact and record, made a phone call to the FBI, identifying himself as George H.W. Bush only brief hours following the shooting. He reported that a "right-wing Young Republican had been talking of killing the president". Remember that Bush's name is George Herbert Walker Bush and at that time he was an oilman living in Houston (he still has a hotel room so he can claim residency and avoid state taxes and vote in Texas). He was active in the growing Republican Party in Texas as well. The party was split in those days by a bitter struggle for control between moderates such as Bush claimed to be and extreme conservatives.

BLAME IT ON THE PARROT

The facts then fell apart when the Bush press office at first denied any such call--even though proof was in hand. Then the authenticity was challenged along with the authenticity of the FBI records of the call. Then, of

Chelas, you are seeing dirty politics at work--don't miss it. In South Carolina (Charleston)--Pat Buchanan was NOT ALLOWED INTO THE REPUBLICAN MEETING HALL--

ONLY BUSH! You ones better get into this fray and demand Constitutional rights of a "free society" or you will NEVER AGAIN HAVE FREEDOM. What can be done? Well, for one thing, you can urge these fine men who run in bits and pieces of territories--to unite. You must set up some alternative "parties"--preferably ONE wherein all dissenters from the two controlled and predetermined parties can vote and elect. Even if your choice at voting day is made for the runners within the party already working--THEY WILL NOT WIN THE ELECTION FOR IT IS SO DETERMINED BY THE ELITE--ALREADY! Some of these brave Patriots MUST get into service wherein ability to change may begin--THEN you can change the system. BUT YOU CAN'T SIT AND DEMAND THE CONSTITUTIONAL LAWS BE APPLIED ONLY TO THOSE YOU "LIKE" WHILE OTHERS ARE "PUT OUT". IF YOU ALLOW ONE TO BE CAST OUT FOR WHATEVER REASON CONJURED--THEN YOU CANNOT EXPECT CONSTITUTIONAL "RIGHTS" FOR ANOTHER. THE CONSTITUTION ALLOWS AND DEMANDS EQUALITY FOR ALL AND THEN THE PEOPLE MUST DECIDE VALIDITY AND QUALITY.

THE CONSTITUTION WAS SET TO PROTECT "EQUALITY" NOT "QUALITY"--IT IS UP TO YOU TO DEMAND "QUALITY".

Today's Watch

2/22/92 #1 HATONN

A thought: If there be anything you wish to change in another or in a nation, you must first examine it and see whether or not it might be something that must first be changed in self! What might you change this day in self to set a good example TODAY? This becomes most evident and present in the training and rearing of children who can only learn by examples brought forth into their lives. Is everything you do pleasing to you--to be seen by your children? GOD? That which ye do in darkness and secret must be looked at most closely in the very light of God and Day. Are you actually serving the king of darkness or the Sovereign of Light?

Can you set aside the problems of the physical for a moment and consider appreciating the more simple pleasures of this day? Are you at peace within--enough--to rejoice at the tinymost miracle of life? It is WEALTH, beloved ones--to be content! It means not that ye shall act not toward goals--it means only that ye rest in contentment with that which IS as ye travel upon the path unto that which will finally become perfection. Ponder upon these things, for I find you ones forget to commune with God and Creation but are racked and pulled by that which affects only the "PHYSICAL" ASPECT OF YOUR BEING. Learn to come unto the communion with your God--in listening, and let thine heart be the spokesman instead of thine lips--and ask that which ye might--for your brother! If ye attend that giving--so shall ye experience the wondrous rewards of the gift.

Please remember what I told you in another lesson: "You shall finally learn that WISDOM comes ONLY when you stop looking for it and start truly living the life the Creator intended for you--for in the beginning--so it was with thee." May you think upon these things this day. Perhaps we need a daily "thought pattern" upon which to center our thoughts and ourselves. I am in great, great love and cherishing of you, my people upon a difficult path of learning and experiencing. Only through your success may I find fulfillment and success--yes, me, Hatonn, for we each are only the teachers for those who come after. And if it seems that I see further--it is because I have stood on the shoulders of wondrous giants who came before me! I proclaim and accept my responsibilities--what might ye do with yours?

course, as with all memories in trouble--Bush said that he "...didn't recall the phone call!" Stranger yet, the records were buried in the archives of "top secret--national security". By the way--more to the story as you might guess. The story was to be planted and given publicity and Bush was to "advise", telephonically, the Houston FBI office that a right-wing member of the Texas Young Republicans "had been talking of killing the president when he comes to Houston." POOR CHILD CATCHING THE BLAME? MILTON PARROTT. Parrott would forever bear the stigma of being "fingered" by the now President of the United States as an assassin. The FBI picked up Parrott and questioned him ad nauseam. The only thing ever brought forth as "cause" was that Parrott had been somehow noted checking out the "John Birch Society".

POLICE DESTROY OWN RECORDS

It was noted that both Hunt and Sturgis were among a group of six to eight derelicts who were found in boxcars sitting on the railroad tracks behind the grassy knoll near Dealey Plaza, and who were actually rounded up and taken in for questioning by the Dallas police on the day of the assassination. I note further--the records were destroyed by the police. Somehow the fingerprints, interrogations and all related material were "LOST" on all parties involved--including the other fourteen "derelicts".

I can assure you, however, the evidence was still good enough to have the Commission on CIA Activities Within the United States (the Rockefeller Commission) to attempt to refute them in its 1975 report. Yes, I said "Rockefeller" Commission.

SO WHAT OF GEORGE?

I would think you can see the cover when you see what is written in George Bush's OFFICIAL biography: He was during 1963 a well-to-do businessman residing in Houston, the busy president of Zapata Offshore and the chairman of the Harris County Republican Organization, supporting Barry Goldwater as the GOP's 1964 presidential candidate, while at the same time actively preparing his own 1964 bid for the U.S. Senate.

But--during that time some strange bedfellows are noted. Bush shared some common acquaintances with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

This is getting most lengthy so allow us to close this segment. When we pen again we will take up the De Mohrenschildt connection which will speak to the Oswald connection more clearly. Thank you for your attention. Hatonn to clear.

Face Your Bigotry

2/22/92 #1 HATONN

Who are you and where are you, America? A most beautiful and wondrous child of America has just won a gold medal for ice skating--and what did I hear? "Too bad she isn't REALLY an American--she is Japanese and they are STILL our enemy!" May God have mercy on your controlled and egotistical media--for with God there is no race, no color, no creed and above all--no bigotry. Worse, this has been stated in a manner to bring great chaos and further turn you against Japan. Japan has done nothing to you--not even in the World War--for your own Presidential Administration planned and caused the war. Without the Japanese economy your nation would have economically fallen decades ago. How bitter are the dregs of poison you cast upon your neighbor. This wondrous child comes from Fremont, California, which I believe, is still American!! I am going to require that you look up her name for I will not give further credence to your bigotry. I find the ones with the most objection coming from a group who also bear

CIA to open Kennedy Files

2/22/92 #1 HATONN

So what??? It already says to you: "Kennedy? Why the CIA had no part in such a thing as his assassination and you won't find anything otherwise in all 300,000 pages on the case." Right on--you WON'T. Gates has said publicly: "We show no indication the CIA had any part in the assassination of President Kennedy. The declassification of documents I think will help persuade people of that" and "CIA WILL NOT BE FOUND LAGGING IN ANY BROADER GOVERNMENT EFFORT TO REVIEW AND DECLASSIFY THESE DOCUMENTS." I am quite sure of that point--they have had forty years (four decades) to make sure there is nothing in those files to indict--only clear them of taint. Wouldn't it be lovely for you people accused of tax evasion and other crimes and misdemeanors to be able to have four decades to destroy and rewrite the file AND HISTORY? Soon will follow a law which will disallow you to speak of the matter if it differs from the "orthodox" story given to the historians. Well, until then we shall go right on writing and speaking.

I want you to pay careful attention as to WHO is on the "historical review" committee to study this information being released!!!

I cause you go look it up for not more than one in ten thousand even know of what or whom I speak--or, even if you know "mentally"--you will not know the name or spelling thereof. Where is YOUR bigotry today?

"war on drugs" and a "war on crime" than by the very ones who run the drugs and head the criminal elements? Is it not easier for the fox to be locked "alone" in the hen house with all documentation of dastardly deeds becoming "national security top secret"? You have locked the empty barn, chelas--the horses got out long ago--before you thought to lock the barn. Now you will either fix your blunders or you will perish as a free nation and world. Literally--I mean PERISH for the intent is to depopulate your planet by some 6 billion people. WHAT ARE YOUR ODDS AT LIVING HAPPILY EVER AFTER?

Breast Implants

Sorry chelas--I am not interested in your "breast enhancements". I feel that all surgery on the breasts for so-called "cancer" is unnecessary in the first place and I see no merit in falsely fasting to become a "twig" and then enhancing a particular portion of the anatomy to appear larger. You are indeed a foolish people and I abhor the entire matter. You are terrified of death in which you give up the old to claim the new and perfect--and yet you hate and despise that which was given unto you. I find another point most interesting--the FDA takes L-Tryptophan, which comes from milk, off the market and yet DOW CHEMICAL can continue to produce and sell deadly and disfiguring substance and it is protected and becomes an international point of confusion. Stop asking me, Hatonn, about your balance and probabilities--LOOK ABOUT YOU!

Many opportunities to make choices present themselves each and every day--what choices will YOU make? You see, there are actually only a couple of ways in which to approach life as you experience it--as victim or as gallant fighter--and you must decide if you want to act or react (respond or react--very different in meaning), deal your own "cards" or play with a "stacked deck". If you don't decide which way you will "play" with life--LIFE WILL PLAY WITH YOU!

SUICIDES GALORE

Between October 1962 and April 1963, Lee Harvey Oswald and his Russian wife Marina were in frequent contact with a Russian emigre' couple living in Dallas, George De Mohrenschildt and his wife Jeanne. During the Warren Commission investigation of the Kennedy assassination, De Mohrenschildt was interviewed at length about his contacts with Oswald. When, in the spring of 1977, the discrediting of the Warren Commission report as a blatant cover-up had made public pressure for a new investigation of the Kennedy assassination irresistible, the House Assassinations Committee planned to interview De Mohrenschildt once again. But in March 1977, just before De Mohrenschildt was scheduled to be interviewed by Gaeton Fonzi of the House Committee's staff, he was found dead in Palm Beach, Florida. Death has a great field-day in these kinds of cover-ups and scandals, you will notice. His death was quickly ruled a suicide and autopsies, etc., are carefully avoided, usually by rapid incineration of the body or lock-and-key substitute burial if cremation is out of the question. After all--wouldn't an autopsy show that Jack Kennedy's skull was tampered with quite extensively? Besides, where are his brains? Do you-the-people realize that Kennedy's brains somehow got "misplaced"? One of the last people to see Fonzi alive was Edward Jay Epstein, who was also interviewing De Mohrenschildt about the Kennedy assassination for an upcoming book. Epstein is one of the writers on the Kennedy assassination who enjoyed excellent relations with the late James Angleton of the CIA. Isn't it absolutely amazing how these names keep coming up again and again and again? If De Mohrenschildt were alive today, he might be able to enlighten you about his relations with George Bush, and perhaps afford you some insight into Bush's activities during this epoch in point.

Ah but so be it--again, the epidemic of suicide did its work. Jeanne De Mohrenschildt rejected the finding of suicide in her husband's death.

"He was eliminated before he got to that committee," the widow told journalists in 1978, "because someone did not want him to get to it." She also stated that George De Mohrenschildt had been surreptitiously injected with mind-altering drugs. Can you not see how the actions and pieces of the puzzles fit together?

ENTER GEORGE (POPPY) BUSH

After De Mohrenschildt's death, his personal address book was located, and lo and behold, it contained this entry: "Bush, George H. W. (Poppy) 1412 W. Ohio and also, Zapata Petroleum, Midland." There is obviously foul play afoot because George Bush had moved his office and home from Midland to Houston in 1959, when Zapata Offshore was constituted, so perhaps this little reference goes even further back to some time prior to 1959. There is also the number: "4-6355". There are numerous other entries, including one W. F. Buckley of the Buckley brothers of New York City, William S. Paley of CBS, plus many oil men, stockbrokers and the like.

To have this have any impact at all--REMEMBER SOMETHING PERTINENT--George De Mohrenschildt WAS LEE HARVEY OSWALD'S CIA CONTROL OFFICER!!!

George De Mohrenschildt recounted a number of different versions of his life, so it is very difficult to establish the facts about him. According to one version, he was the Russian Count Sergei De Mohrenschildt, but when he arrived in the United States in 1938 he carried a Polish passport identifying him as Jerzy Sergius von Mohrenschildt, born in Mozyr, Russia in 1911. He was, in fact, typical of CIA operatives who are "sheep dipped" to the point of losing all identity. He worked for a time for the Polish Embassy in Washington, D.C. De Mohrenschildt was acquainted with the chairman of Humble Oil, Blaffer, and Blaffer procured him a job. During this time De Mohrenschildt was also affiliated with the War Department. He later went to work for the French Deuxieme Bureau, which wanted to know about petroleum exports from the United States to Europe.

SUPERFLUOUS NOBILITY

De Mohrenschildt in 1941 became associated with Baron Konstantin von Maydell in a public affairs venture called "Facts and Film". Maydell was considered a Nazi agent by the FBI, and in September 1942 he was sent to North Dakota for an internment that would last for some four years. Do you find it interesting that these ones "choose" labels such as Baron, Duke of, and other familial labels of nobility? De Mohrenschildt was interrogated by police at Port Arthur, Texas, on the suspicion of espionage after he was found making sketches of port facilities. During 1941, De Mohrenschildt applied for a post in the U.S. Office of Strategic Services (OSS). He was not hired but the strange thing is that it was not because of inability to garner "top security" ratings. Soon after this he went to Mexico where he remained until 1944. In the latter year, he began study for a master's degree in petroleum engineering at the University of Texas. During this period De Mohrenschildt was investigated by the Office of Naval Intelligence. They claimed it was because of his alleged communist sympathies--it was to have ample reason, secretly, to begin to set all the forthcoming activities to blueprint without public notice.

After the war, De Mohrenschildt worked as a petroleum engineer in Cuba and Venezuela, and in Caracas he had several meetings with the Soviet ambassador. During the postwar years, he also worked in the Rangely oil field in Colorado. During the 1950's, after having married Winifred Sharpless, the daughter of an oil millionaire, De Mohrenschildt was active as an independent oil entrepreneur.

In 1957, De Mohrenschildt was approved by the CIA Office of Security to be hired as a U.S. government geologist for a mission to Yugoslavia. Upon his return he was interviewed by one J. Walter Moore of the CIA's Domestic Contact Service, with whom he then remained in contact. During 1958, De Mohrenschildt visited Ghana, Togo, and Dahomey (now Benin); during 1959, he visited Africa again and returned by way of Poland. In 1959, he married Jeanne, his fourth wife, a former ballet dancer and dress designer who had been one of the directors of the Chinese Eastern Railroad.

ENTER THE OSWALDS

During the summer of 1960, George and Jeanne De Mohrenschildt told their friends that they were going to embark on a walking tour of 11,000 miles along Indian trails from Mexico to Central America. One of their principal destinations was Guatemala City, where they were staying at the time of the Bay of Pigs invasion in April 1961 (ummmm hmmm), after which they somehow made their way home by way of Panama and Haiti (not an easy task). By this time, De Mohrenschildt was also in frequent contact with Admiral Henry C. Bruton and his wife, to whom he introduced the OSWALDS (busy Indian trails!) Admiral Bruton was the former Director of Naval Communications.

Between October 1962 and late April 1963, De Mohrenschildt was a very important figure in the life of Oswald and his Russian wife. Despite Oswald's lack of social graces, De Mohrenschildt introduced him into Dallas society, took him to parties, assisted him in finding employment and much more. It was through De Mohrenschildt that Oswald met a certain Volkmar Schmidt, a young German geologist who had studied with Professor Willhelm Kuetemeyer, an expert in psychosomatic medicine and religious philosophy at the University of Heidelberg, who compiled a detailed psychological profile of Oswald. Jeanne and George helped Marina move her belongings during one of her many estrangements from Oswald. De Mohrenschildt's influence on Oswald was so great during this period that he could virtually dictate important decisions to the young "ex-Marine" (Oliver North???) simply by making suggestions!!!

OSWALD STALKED GENERAL WALKER

De Mohrenschildt was not only aware of Oswald's alleged April 10, 1963 attempt to assassinate the well-known right-wing General Edwin Walker, but was the instigator of the operation. Marina said she was present when De Mohrenschildt asked Oswald, "Lee, how did you miss General Walker?" On April 19, George and Jeanne De Mohrenschildt went to New York City and, on April 29, the CIA Office of Security found that it had no objection to De Mohrenschildt's acceptance of a contract with the Duvalier regime of Haiti in the field of natural resource development. De Mohrenschildt departed for Haiti on May 1, 1963. In the meantime, Oswald had left Dallas and traveled to New Orleans.

De Mohrenschildt was serving as a CIA control officer who was in control of Oswald's activities.

So--is it not interesting to find George Bush turning up in De Mohrenschildt's files and address books? Mainly in the PERSONAL address book.

COVER-UP BY WARREN COMMISSION.

The most blatant cover-up drive by the Warren Commission came in the absurd lengths to cover up the fact that George De Mohrenschildt was a denizen of the world of the intelligence agencies. This included ignoring the well-developed paper trail on De Mohrenschildt as Nazi and command sympathizer, and later as a U.S. asset abroad. The Warren Commission concluded:

"The Commission's investigation has developed no signs of subversive or disloyal conduct on the part of either of the De Mohrenschildts.

Neither the FBI, CIA, nor any witnesses contacted by the Commission has provided any information linking the De Mohrenschildts to subversive or extremist organizations. Nor has there been any evidence linking them in any way with the assassination of President Kennedy."

BUSH, THE CIA, AND KENNEDY

Let us close this loop fragment and then we shall return to the operations and structure of the CIA. We will continue to insert these vignettes as we go along so that you can flesh out the connections. Further, you may be able to insert the "missing" information in the CIA documents which the CIA deleted. Isn't sleuthing fun?

On the day of the Kennedy assassination, FBI records show George Bush as reporting a right-wing member of the Houston Young Republicans for making threatening comments about President Kennedy. According to FBI documents released under the Freedom of Information Act:

"On November 22, 1963 Mr. George H. W. Bush, 5525 Briar, Houston, Texas, telephonically advised that he wanted to relate some hearsay that he had heard in recent weeks, date and source unknown. He advised that one James Parrott had been talking of killing the President when he comes to Houston.

"Parrott is possibly a student at the University of Houston and is active in politics in the Houston area."

According to related FBI documentation, "...a check with Secret Service at Houston, Texas revealed that agency had a report that Parrott stated in 1961 he would kill President Kennedy if he got near him." Here Bush is described as "a reputable businessman". FBI agents were sent to interrogate Parrott's mother, and later James Milton Parrott himself. Parrott had been discharged from the U.S. Air Force for psychiatric reasons in 1959 (boy, chelas--they don't miss a thing!); Parrott had a full alibi for the time of the Dallas shootings; he had been in the company of others in the Republican activist group. Even the "press" had to give account that "Parrott could not have been involved but has been a member of the right-wing faction of the Houston GOP, which was oriented toward the John Birch Society and which opposed Bush's chairmanship." How interesting that it would be printed in this

"Subject: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY, NOVEMBER 22, 1963.

"Our Miami, Florida Office on November 23, 1963 advised that the Office of Coordinator of Cuban Affairs in Miami advised that the Department of State feels some misguided anti-Castro group might capitalize on the present situation and undertake an unauthorized raid against Cuba, believing that the assassination of President John F. Kennedy might herald a change in U.S. policy, which is not true.

"Our sources and informants familiar with Cuban matters in the Miami area advise that the general feeling in the anti-Castro Cuban community is one of stunned disbelief and even among those who did not entirely agree with the President's policy concerning Cuba, the feeling is that the President's death represents a great loss not only to the U.S. but to all Latin America. These sources know of no plans for unauthorized action against Cuba.

"An informant who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is close to a small pro-Castro group in Miami has advised that those individuals are afraid that the assassination of the President may result in strong repressive measures being taken against them and, although pro-Castro in their feelings, regret the assassination.

to Mr. George Bush OF THE CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY and Captain William Edwards of the Defense Intelligence Agency ON NOVEMBER 23, 1963, BY MR. W.T. FORSYTH OF THIS BUREAU."

William T. Forsyth, since deceased (as all involved do become), was an official of the FBI's Washington headquarters. During the time he was attached to the bureau's subversive control section, he ran the investigation of Dr. Martin Luther King. Was he also a part of the FBI's harassment of Dr. King? Indeed, indeed!

The efforts of journalists to locate Captain Edwards ended in total thwarting.

This FBI document identifying George Bush as a CIA agent in November 1963 was first published by Joseph McBride in The Nation in July 1988, just before Bush received the Republican nomination for President. McBride's source observed: "I know Bush was involved in the Caribbean. I know he was involved in the suppression of things after the Kennedy assassination. There was a very definite worry that some Cuban groups were going to move against Castro and attempt to blame it on the CIA." When pressed for information or denial, Bush's spokesman Stephen Hart commented, "MUST BE ANOTHER GEORGE BUSH."

BUSH PROTECTED THROUGH LIES AND DECEIT

Within a very short time, the CIA itself published the same damage control line. On July 19, 1968, in the wake of wide public attention to the report published in The Nation, CIA spokeswoman Sharron Basso departed from the normal CIA policy of refusing to confirm or deny reports that any person is or was a CIA employee. CIA spokeswoman Basso told the Associated Press that the CIA believed that "the record should be clarified". She said that the FBI document "apparently" referred to a George William Bush who had worked in 1963 on the night shift at CIA headquarters, and that "would have been the appropriate place to have received such an FBI report". According to her account, the George William Bush in question had left the CIA to join the Defense Intelligence Agency in 1964--and vanished, only to surface in 1988 with no reason to realize he was the "Bush" in contention at ANY time past or present having only served in a very low-level position.

For the CIA to volunteer the name of one of its former employees to the press was a shocking violation of traditional methods [read Oliver North's lips which said all these people (agents) work and die in secrecy and should be honored publicly even if anonymous. There is even a special burial place for these "unknown" ones] which are supposedly designed to keep such names a closely guarded top secret. This revelation may have constituted a violation of federal law. But no exertions were too great when it came to damage control for George Bush.

George William Bush had indeed worked for the CIA, the DIA, and the Alexandria, Virginia Department of Public Welfare before joining the Social Security Administration, in whose Arlington, Virginia office he was employed as a claims representative in 1988. George William Bush told The Nation that while at the CIA he was "just a lowly researcher and analyst" who worked with documents and photos and NEVER RECEIVED INTERAGENCY BRIEFINGS. He had never met Forsyth of the FBI or Captain Edwards of the DIA. "So it wasn't me," said George William Bush.

WHO IS GEORGE WILLIAM BUSH?

Later, George William Bush formalized his denial in a sworn statement to a federal court in Washington, D.C. The affidavit acknowledges that while working at CIA headquarters between September 1963 and February 1964, George William Bush was the junior person on a three- to four-man watch which was on duty when Kennedy was shot. But, as George William Bush goes on to say, "have carefully reviewed the FBI memorandum to the Director, Bureau of Intelligence and Research, Department of State dated November 29, 1963 which mentions a Mr. George Bush of the Central Intelligence Agency.... I do not recognize the contents of the memorandum as information furnished to me orally or otherwise during the time I was at the CIA. In fact, during my time at the CIA, I did not receive any oral communications from any government agency of any nature whatsoever. I did not receive any information relating to the Kennedy assassination during my time at the CIA from the FBI.

"Based on the above, it is my conclusion that I am NOT the Mr. George Bush of the Central Intelligence Agency referred to in the memorandum and neither do I have an 'H' in my name."

BUSH IS NOT BUSH

So you are left with the obvious--that "Mr. George Bush of the CIA" referred to by the FBI is your own George Herbert Walker Bush who, in addition to his contact with Lee Harvey Oswald and Oswald's controller, joins the ranks of the Kennedy assassination cover-up. It is interesting that the Cuban matter would circulate around Bush because that is a place where George traditionally has had a constituency. George inherited it from his father, Prescott Bush of Jupiter Island, and later passed it on to his son, Jeb.

I don't want to get into family spider webs at this time for we have spoken of placements of the "boys" in many prior writings but note that the involvement goes from Cuba, to South and Central America, Africa and Bahrain--not to even mention within and into the Savings and Loan debacles which have brought America to her knees.

Hatonn present that the road may be a bit more easily travelled.

RELIGIONS ARE OF MAN

As you grow through this wondrous experience upon the physical plane you have such opportunity to choose. What important decisions shall you make this day? Will you be able to make them in knowledge or in ignorance? Will you choose religion or spirit growth? It seems the same? No--it is NOT the same. Religions are but MAN's doctrines set forth for guidelines within a group. The Great Spirit has given living rules which most churches have abandoned in favor of Man's doctrines. Worse--the Christ path is being excluded, even by name (Christ) from all of your public affiliations as quickly as can be legalized by your non-"Christ"ian government and legal system. The statistics are posted for you to see. Every moment is a choice--every breath is a choice--what important decisions shall you make this day? Will it be in fear or knowledge? So be it. When you have to make a choice and don't make it, that is in itself a choice. Think upon it. And please remember, precious friends--nothing turns up in the world unless SOMEONE turns it up!

there is challenge. Can you not see that the government controls you by fear and force?

The important thing in dealing with any problem is to NEVER ignore communication for it is through the communication that you can act and respond. The following is exceptionally good advice and I hope it will be helpful to you. We have offered so much in response in SPiral TO ECONOMIC DISASTER, PRIVACY IN A FISHBOWL and YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON that I cannot take undue time in repetition. I can only offer--you must decide what to do. Please accept the following as a valid way in which to handle this particular matter.

When the income tax resister is placed on a witness stand and subjected to cross-examination as to why he/she did not file a Form 1040 or other, for a certain year, usually the first thing the prosecution does is to produce a return filed previously by the accused--to set the pattern.

The fact such a document exists is taken for proof the witness has known he must prepare such a document and pay whatever tax is indicated thereon. By preparing and submitting such a return, the person has unwittingly entered into a contract with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) a collection (private) service for the Federal Reserve (also a private corporation). Taxes DO NOT go for paying government expenses--100% of all income taxes go to pay the banks interest on the national debt. More money must then be borrowed to run the government which keeps it fully and wholly in debt and bound by the banks. The illusion is thus created by the government of the United States which makes him a taxpayer and, by inference, such for the remainder of his life. In law, this is known as "presumptive evidence".

This is the position taken by the IRS. Whether or not this is based on actual fact is a matter which is not determined. If you are in such a position you must counteract effectively. Remember, there are two types of government and several types of "citizens" and, moreover, on the form itself and in the instructions it says that the tax is VOLUNTARY and names and places and citizens subject to the tax. Any "State" of the union is set apart. I can't go into all that herein but please accept this brief explanation. It is the signing of that form and turning it in in the first place which gets you "hooked".

This is indeed a very significant matter and must be dealt with if the accused is to have any standing in court. The way to solve the difficulty is to file a letter or an affidavit of renunciation explaining why a person declines to file a 1040. Such a letter might read as exemplified here:

(City, State)

Dear Sir:

Before 19__, I had never studied the internal revenue code in order to determine whether or not I am subject to income taxation and, therefore overwhelmed by publicity issued by the government, I simply did as I was told--namely, prepared a 1040 and paid whatever taxes were indicated thereon.

However, in 19__ I became alerted to the fact certain people were "refusing" to pay and I became very curious as to their reasons. I then obtained a complete copy of the code and began an intensive study thereof. I was amazed to discover that employees, as defined in Section 3401(c), consist only of officials of any division of the federal government or their employees. I found also that under Section 6331(a) levy and distraint in the collection of income taxes may be invoked only in regard to the wages or salaries of such personnel. Since I work in the private sector in the sovereign state of ____, I cannot be considered an employee whose income is subject to federal taxation. There are other sections of the code which corroborate this position.

Since, therefore, under your own law, I am not subject to IRS jurisdiction or to federal income taxation, I am not filing a 1040 nor paying any federal income tax.

Respectfully submitted

Be sure to keep a copy, as you will need it in court, and it is best if the letter is sent certified mail, return receipt requested. In order to make this more emphatic, you might have the document notarized and attested to by two qualifying individuals. You will then call the letter an affidavit of renunciation.

I will not say the IRS will automatically agree that a statement of renunciation is effective. If you have a bank savings or checking account, they may seize all or part of it. However, if they take such action, you can sue them in court. If they bring you to criminal trial, it will be before a jury. (And the Bill of Rights guarantees you the right to a jury trial in all civil cases in which more than $20 is in controversy.)

In such case, your statement of rescission should be very effective. You can also use a similar letter to rescind your Social Security number.

Of course, if you have no personal bank accounts, it becomes much harder for the IRS to attempt to seize your assets.

All this is a vital part of the struggle now waged by patriots to defeat the onerous, oppressive personal federal income tax.

If you live as a permanent resident of Washington D.C., etc., then you have a different set of problems but there is no "way of collection" built into the Constitution and therefore I suggest you get in touch with the Constitutional Law Center or the Common Law Service Center for further advice (916 487-1849).

The Common Law Service Center can help you with legal methods of citizenship determination, etc. They can also help you as a "citizen" handle affairs in such a way as to get some measure or total security. I, Hatonn, personally only recommend a couple of ways in which you handle all through "Nevada incorporation" of self---PROPERLY. Further, I SEE NO SAFE INVESTMENTS IN THE MARKET, BANKS, INSURANCE COMPANIES, ETC.,--NONE. THE SYSTEM IS READY TO COLLAPSE AND UNLESS YOU ARE INDEED ON THE "INSIDE" AND SHREWD BEYOND MOST--YOU ARE SET TO LOSE! THE FULL INTENT OF THE "NEW WORLD ORDER" IS TO GET ALL YOUR PROPERTY AND ASSETS! ## CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER REQUEST

Immediately look into the case of "Robert Martyr" who is incarcerated in an institution--hopelessly. Remember they did this to ones such as Ezra Pound and other Patriots--simply lock them away in mental institutions until they are able to outright murder them under the guise of natural causes. These cases are increasing and MUST be looked into and at this time there IS NO PLACE FOR THESE ONES TO TURN. He is incarcerated at #48C, 2600 Center Street, N.E., Salem, Oregon 97310. He has run ads at his own expense to gain attention and still none comes. The ads are outrageous but attend them with the hopelessness they contain and evaluate on the basis of THE MAN and not those incarcerating. It is his Constitutional Rights at issue, not his attitude about his shackles. I would herein run a statement to the "people" as honored by the AMERICAN'S BULLETIN (503/779-7709):

ROBERT MARTYR PROOF: YOU HAVE NO RIGHTS!!

Cruel and Unusual Punishment

THIS country just celebrated the 200th Anniversary of the Bill of Rights. A document which almost did not get included in the corporate Constitution for these united States. Most Americans have been conditioned to believe that FREEDOM abounds in the "greatest nation on earth"! But for the true Freedom Fighter today, that is one of the biggest lies being told, because he knows--if not first hand--at least by study and interest, that many are suffering under the greatest oppression the world has ever seen. The New World Order, which has for many years been in place, has only recently begun to openly flex its muscle. Those who would respect and obey the true law of the land are imprisoned while the beast system and its media labels and libels their names and steals their property, all with citizens screaming their praises and showing their thumbs down, for the "illegal protester's" death and destruction. After all, most want their banks, their usury, their churches to tell them they're godly and all the rest of the goodies that Babylon the Great has to offer.

Americans, for the most part are quite happy to support the starving children in India while letting their own children or neighbor children starve to death. They are outraged by someone being held prisoner in another land, but could care less about those who are prisoners in this their own land. They believe in the causes they are manipulated to care about and care less about the real issues which they come in contact with daily. They call evil, good, and good, evil.

One such prisoner--who has run ads at his own expense for many months in the pages of this paper--is Robert Martyr. His plight has been openly related to our readers. Yet, where is their outrage? Where is the concern? Most have dismissed his stories, as just that, "stories" from a "mental case" who has nothing better to do than complain about the situation he has assuredly brought upon himself.

And yet, the fact that "they"--his government "keepers"--are now about to silence Martyr for good, through outright murder, should be indication enough that there is more to the story than one might think. After all, if all his "complaints" have been mere railings of a mad man, who would take them seriously? So, why IS someone taking them so seriously? So seriously in fact, as to take away all his food, and deny him all his basic civil rights--which especially should be enjoyed by those who are considered "sick", those less able to defend themselves?! Why is Robert Martyr such a threat to his keeper/jailers? And why is he singled out for such inhuman treatment? Treatment which we usually associate with foreign prisons--certainly not the progressive mental institutions in this country.

Perhaps it is time to wake up to the fact that all those in mental facilities are not necessarily mental patients. Many, if not most, are political prisoners, like Robert Martyr. Many are those who have had the misfortune to discover information that they should not have found out about, for their own safety. Many are there because it was easy to put them there and take all their possessions, too boot.

And after "treatment", many of those patients turn up as "the homeless" on our streets, as drugged zombies who don't even know who they are, let alone any one else.

All this, at a continuing rising cost to the American "taxpayer" who pays for these and coming programs designed to solve these "complex" problems.

So, what are YOU doing about it? If you are like many, you will do NOTHING, for fear of becoming a target of the New World Order yourself.

As far back as the Second World War citizens were determined to be "enemies" of the government. In 1952 lists were established by this government of over 500,000 American citizens as the basis for carrying out the FBI-directed "Operation Dragonet" in which, initially, from 3 to 12 thousand Americans could be picked up "overnight" for incarceration in federal detention camps as "potential" spies and saboteurs, enemies of the/our beloved government! While those plans have not yet been carried out they have been updated yearly. [H: And are now fully operational--waiting!]

Robert Martyr is only the first, of perhaps thousands, who will follow in his steps through the halls of internment camps, be they prisons, mental institutions or concentration camps. You and I are probably on the list. It is a necessary policy of the New World Order. Those who would stand in the way of progress, peace and love, must be dealt with for the good of the rest of the peace loving citizens.

Robert Martyr's case is important to you and me. What "they" are allowed to do to him, what they are allowed to get away with in his case, is only a prelude to what they will be able to do to you and me when we become their captive audience. It's time you took an interest in him--for your own good!

If you are a true Believer and a lover of Truth, you just might sit down and write some letters and see what, if anything, can be done about this one situation involving Robert Martyr. Because if you don't you might be in his place sooner than you think. His blood will stain all.

A ROSE IS A ROSE: MARTYR IS A---??

I ask that you take this most seriously and let us see what there is which needs be done. Truth must be isolated and the protection by the Constitution effected. If there are other extenuating circumstances, criminal activities, etc., it will OUT. THE MAN IS INNOCENT UNTIL AND "IF" PROVEN GUILTY IN A COURT OF LAW BY A JURY OF HIS PEERS! REMEMBER??

Please listen carefully to me at this writing for you can actually get the man killed if you act rashly.

You who will, please do the following:

Write to the people listed below-- STATING THAT THE MATTER IS ALREADY TURNED OVER TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER FOR IMMEDIATE ACTION. BY THE TIME YOU RECEIVE THIS DOCUMENT--THE LEGAL COUNSELS WILL HAVE BEEN IN CONTACT. THE POINT IS TO PROTECT THE MAN FROM INTERIM HARM UNTIL HE CAN BE GIVEN HEARING.

FIRST OF ALL, WRITE TO HIM. REMEMBER THE "MASTER TEACHER" SPOKE OF THESE THINGS SUCH AS "VISITING WHEN I WAS IN PRISON"? We are not to judge--only presume innocence and give love and assistance wherein we can do so. In the letters to him--please, also--write that you KNOW the matter is being reviewed right now by the Constitutional Law Center. This is so that "staff" cannot destroy the letters and carry through with any extenuating plans which may be afoot. Publicity is this man's only prayer and hope of getting out of there alive and whole in mind.

Give Robert comfort BUT demand attention from the ones on the following list:

I have a couple of things to share with you and then we will move back into the subject of the CIA and government abuses in other higher forms of killing.

Pay very close attention to this next document:

An Internal Security Emergency Detention Order

(As Provided Under the McCarran Act)

THE PRESIDENT of the United States has declared that an "Internal Security Emergency" exists. This Federal Bureau of Investigation is hereby authorized by the Attorney General of the United States "to apprehend and detain the person named, designated and described below... as to whom there is reasonable grounds to believe that he/she probably will engage in, or probably will conspire with others to engage in, acts of espionage or of sabotage."

The detention will be in the place designated below by the office of the Internal Security Division of the Department of Justice and as is authorized by the Attorney General of the United States.

The detention of the below-designated person will last until the end of the Internal Security Emergency is proclaimed by the President of the United States or by a Concurrent Resolution of both Houses of the United States Congress, or until a release may be effected by either the Attorney General of the United States or by the Board of Detention Review.

PROTECTION FOR INFORMANTS?

The Department of Justice "at no time is required to release any information the revelation of which would disclose the identity or evidence of Government agents or officers which it believes would be dangerous to the national safety and security to divulge."

To knowingly disregard or evade apprehension of this detention warrant is a federal crime punishable by a fine of $10,000 and imprisonment of 10 years, or both.

A copy of this Federal Detention Order shall be supplied the person designated for apprehension and detention.

Signed by the Attorney General of the United States.

IT HAS HAPPENED IN AMERICA BEFORE--IT WILL HAPPEN IN AMERICA AGAIN!! THE GOVERNMENT MUST PROTECT ITSELF FROM "WE--THE PEOPLE"!

I suggest you all go back and read that document four or five times because you are "in it", America.

I will leave you with one last thought:

"Decency, security and liberty alike demand that government officials shall be subjected to the same rules of conduct that are commands to the citizen. In a government of laws, existence of the government will be imperilled if it fails to observe the law scrupulously. Our Government is the potent, the omnipresent teacher. For good or for ill, it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the Government becomes a lawbreaker, it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy. To declare that in the administration of the criminal law the end justifies the means.... would BRING TERRIBLE RETRIBUTION. AGAINST THAT PERNICIOUS DOCTRINE THIS COURT SHOULD RESOLUTELY SET ITS FACE."

--Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438, 485 (1928)

We can offer insight and, even now, follow up with LAW. However, ultimately--IT IS UP TO YOU! IF NOT YOU--WHO???

YOU CAN IGNORE DISHONESTY IN GOVERNMENT, BUT YOU CANNOT ESCAPE ITS COST!

Let us take a break, please. Hatonn to stand-by.

ROBERT MARTYR

A FEW INSTRUCTIONS PLEASE: Please make sure that Robert Martyr gets a copy of the prior writing--REGISTERED/RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED--AT THE LEAST. I SUGGEST YOU SEND HIM SOME SELECTED COPIES OF THE LIBERATOR. Please append a note and ask that he refrain from utilizing accusatory language in any of his responses to us for all will henceforth become issue in his "case". We do not take "ads" as such, so all material he sends to us must be clear "as is" for publication reprint. The accusations and labels of Scum-nuts, Scum-Bags, Sluts and other derogatory slang only enhance the enemy's position and cause readers to "turn-off". Awakening "people" are quite incapable of handling such overloads initially--let us always use discretion in our language of choice so that we do not simply aid and abet the attacker.

You may wish to add a notation to the readers that "Registered/Return Receipt" or at least "Registered" mail is all that assures the correspondence at least reaches the institution. It then becomes easy to track whoever might hide or destroy mailings. Let us each and all do OUR portion and truth will OUT. If "illness" is in point--so shall it come to surface and ill-treatment and Constitutional violations (as will be found in this case) will also become evident.

I suggest that Gene Dixon get immediately onto this--probably through "showing up" unannounced on the institution's doorstep and take it from there!! Thank you.

If travel expenses are at point--pay them now and you can expect repayment from the man for he has been running great expenses already--in placing advertisements. This very

Watergate Burglar Linked To JFK's Death

2/23/92 #2 HATONN

Miami, Florida, 1-16-92. MIAMI HERALD:

Watergate burglar Frank Sturgis filed a $5 million lawsuit in Miami Wednesday against a former mistress of Fidel Castro who has linked Sturgis to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The suit, filed in federal court, says Marita Lorenz made the comments about Sturgis during recent appearances on TV's Geraldo and A Current Affair.

"I had nothing to do with the assassination of President Kennedy," Sturgis said. "I want to put a stop once and for all to these libelous lies still being told by Marita Lorenz." [H: Lies? Well, "presumption of innocence until proven or 'if' - -"]

Lorenz, who met Castro shortly after the triumph of the Cuban revolution and had a short-lived relationship with him, could not be reached for comment Wednesday.

Although Sturgis' lawsuit focuses on Lorenz's comments in the television shows, she first made the allegations 14 years ago. [H: And who listened 14 years ago?]

In 1978 Lorenz testified before the House Select Committee on Assassinations that Sturgis met Lee Harvey Oswald in Miami at the home of militant exile leader Orlando Bosch shortly before the assassination.

Lorenz also said she heard Oswald, Sturgis and Bosch discuss plans to visit Dallas.

She said that around Nov. 15, 1963, a week before the assassination, she traveled to Dallas by car WITH Oswald, Sturgis, Bosch and other exiles.

Sturgis and Bosch have denied the allegations, and the committee said it could not corroborate the story.

In his lawsuit, Sturgis says Lorenz made similar allegations without verification on the recent TV shows.

In A Current Affair in November, Lorenz said that after Kennedy was killed, Sturgis bragged to her about it.

STURGIS SAYS, "WE GOT (PRES.) KENNEDY."

"He came to see me and he said, 'You know that Dallas job we did?' and I said, 'Not we--you!' and he said, 'Well, we got Kennedy.'"

I find it interesting that this man turns up involved in every major political scandal around!?!

BACK TO:

IMA'S BOOK ON THE CIA

SPECIAL OPERATIONS

"YOU HAVE TO MAKE UP YOUR MIND THAT YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE AN INTELLIGENCE AGENCY AND PROTECT IT AS SUCH, AND SHUT YOUR EYES SOME AND TAKE WHAT IS COMING." Senator John Stennis, Chairman, Joint Senate Committee for CIA Oversight: Nov. 23, 1971.

Covert action--intervention in the internal affairs of other nations--is the most controversial of the CIA's clandestine functions. It is the invariable means to the most variable ends. It is basic to the clandestine mentality. And the crudest, most direct form of covert action is called "special operations".

These activities, mostly of a paramilitary or warlike nature, have little of the sophistication and subtlety of political actions (penetration and manipulation) or propaganda and disinformation. Although planned by the CIA's professionals, these operations are to the large extent carried out by agency contract employees and mercenaries--both American and foreign. Within the CIA's Clandestine Services, "special ops" have always been viewed with mixed emotions. Most of the professionals, especially in recent years, have looked down on such activities, even while at times recommending their use. It is widely recognized within the agency, however, that less direct forms of covert action have their limitations, especially when timely, conclusive action is thought necessary to put down a troublesome rebel movement or to overthrow an unfriendly government. In these cases, the CIA usually calls on its own "armed forces", the Special Operations Division (SOD), to do the job.

SOD: TERROR, FORCE & VIOLENCE

By definition, special ops are violent and brutal; most clandestine operators prefer more refined techniques. The CIA professional is a flimflam artist, involved in the creative challenge of plotting and orchestrating a clandestine campaign without resorting to violence. In such non-paramilitary covert action, the operator tends to keep his hands unbloodied, and his crimes are of the white-collar variety--conspiracy, bribery, corruption. His failure or exposure is normally punished only with expulsion from the country where he is operating. He is, in the end, merely engaging in a "gentlemen's" game. The paramilitary operator, on the contrary, is a gangster who deals in force, in terror, in violence. Failure can mean death--if not to the operator himself, then to the agents he has recruited. The SOD man wages war, albeit on a small and secret level, but none of the rules of warfare apply. His is a breed apart; in the CIA, special ops types are sometimes referred to as the "animals" of the agency.

BORROWING SOLDIERS

In the CIA's early years, and especially during the Korean war, many paramilitary (PM) specialists, mostly former military men, were hired as career officers. But the CIA soon learned that their military skills were not easily transferable to other types of clandestine work and that most of the PM experts were next to useless in the bureaucratic and diplomatic settings in which the agency usually functions. At times, when special operations were at a low ebb, the agency had difficulty in finding jobs that the PM specialists could handle. Hence, during the late 1950's PM manpower was gradually reduced to a cadre of a couple of hundred operators capable of doing the planning and the training for paramilitary operations. When more men were needed, the agency would hire them on short-term contracts. These contract forces tended to be a melange of ex-military men, adventurers, and outright mercenaries; others came to the CIA on direct loan from the armed services. The U.S. Army's Special Forces and the counter guerrilla units of the Navy (SEALS) and Air Force (SOFs) provided many of the recruits, since veterans of these branches already possessed the most up-to-date paramilitary skills. Sometimes these military men "resigned" from the service in order to accommodate the CIA's cover--understanding that eventually they would return to military service--their time with the CIA counting toward promotion and retirement. (This process is known in the intelligence trade as "sheep-dipping".) But the agency was always careful to keep direct control over the planning, logistics, and communications of its special or paramilitary operations. The contractees merely did the dirty work.

"THE FARM": FOR DIRTY WAR GAMES TRAINING

The CIA set up training facilities in the United States and overseas to prepare both its own career operators and the temporary personnel on contract for paramilitary work. Camp Peary--"The Farm"--in southeastern Virginia provided the basic courses. More advanced techniques, such as demolitions and heavy weapons, were taught at a secret CIA base in North Carolina. Instruction in parachuting and air operations was provided at both these facilities and at the headquarters of Intermountain Aviation near Tucson, Arizona. A secret installation in the Canal Zone was the site for jungle-warfare and survival training. Here the agency's trainees would play paramilitary war games, pitted against the elite of the U.S. Army's Special Forces.

Large-scale paramilitary operations also necessitated special training bases for the mercenaries. For the case can shock a nation if handled properly--either way. I promise you, however, that this man has made enough "fuss" that you will get no help initially, from any of the people listed--do not get predisposed for it will be an error in action--speak first to the person in point and then follow-up. PUBLICITY MUST BE FROM FIRST MOMENT OR THIS PERSON IS VERY APT TO BE KILLED BEFORE YOU CAN GET HELP. THESE PEOPLE WILL DO ANYTHING, NOW, TO COVER THEIR ACTIONS. TAKE CARE.

1954 Guatemalan invasion, the CIA built installations in Nicaragua and Honduras. For the 1961 attack at the Bay of Pigs, sites were established again in Nicaragua and this time also in Guatemala, which had become available to the CIA as a result of its success there seven years earlier (** DELETED **) constructed large support facilities in Northeast India and gave (DELETED) the guerrillas at a deserted army base in the mountains. And for its many Southeast Asia adventures, the Special Operations Division had "a home away from home" under Navy cover on the Pacific island of Saipan.

SAIPAN: USING UN TERRITORY FOR TRAINING

Saipan, however, was not a U.S. possession, but rather a Trust Territory of the United Nations under U.S. care, and consequently there was some concern within the agency that the establishment and operation of a secret military base there would raise sticky problems in the U.N. But being masters of the art of cover and deception, the CIA contingent on Saipan merely "sanitized" the base whenever U.N. representatives visited the island on inspection tours. [H: Just as will the state hospital in the case of Robert R. Martyr in Salem, Oregon if they know in advance that you are coming.] According to natives of the island, trainees and instructors alike disappeared; the barbed wire and "no admittance to unauthorized personnel" signs were taken down. In a day or so, the camp was made to appear just like any other jumble of military quonset huts, which the inspectors ignored. As soon as they were gone, however, all was returned to normal, and the CIA's special ops training was begun anew.

CONFESSION OF A CLANDESTINE OFFICER

One former officer of the CIA's Clandestine Services, who was trained in special ops, wrote this account of his experiences for Ramparts magazine:

The stated purpose of paramilitary school was to train and equip us to become instructors for village peasants who wanted to defend themselves against guerrillas. I could believe in that.

Some of the training was conventional: But then we moved up to the CIA's demolition training headquarters. It was here that Cubans had been, and still were (in the mid-1960's) being trained in conventional and underwater demolitions. And it was here that we received training in tactics which hardly conformed to the Geneva Convention.

The array of outlawed weaponry with which we were familiarized included bullets that explode on impact, silencer-equipped machine-guns, homemade explosives and self-made napalm for stickier and hotter Molotov cocktails. We were taught demolition techniques, practicing on late model cars, railroad trucks, and gas storage tanks. And we were shown a quick method of saturating a confined area with flour or fertilizer, causing an explosion like in a dustbin or granary.

And there was a diabolical invention that might be called a mini-cannon. It was constructed of a concave piece of steel fitted into the top of a #10 can filled with a plastic explosive. When the device was detonated, the tremendous heat of friction of the steel turning inside out made the steel piece a white-hot projectile. There was a number of uses for the mini-cannon, one of which was demonstrated to us using an old army school bus. It was fastened to the gasoline tank in such a fashion that the incendiary projectile would rupture the tank and fling flaming gasoline the length of the bus interior, incinerating anyone inside. It was my lot to show the rest of the class how easily it could be done. It worked, my God, how it worked! I stood there watching the flames consume the bus. It was, I guess, the moment of truth. What did a busload of burning people have to do with freedom? What right did I have, in the name of democracy and the CIA, to decide that random victims should die? The intellectual game was over. I had to leave.

The heavy reliance on paramilitary methods in the CIA's special operations is a direct outgrowth of the clandestine guerrilla programs undertaken by the Office of Strategic Services during World War II. The OSS, like its British counterpart, Special Operations Executive, made extensive use of indigenous underground resistance movements to sabotage the activities of German and Japanese armed forces in the occupied countries and to foment national unrest in these areas. In running such operations, the OSS officers performed as advisors and acted as channels for communications and support from the Allied powers. Basic to the success of the OSS operations was the fact that the countries in which it conducted its covert activities were under the military control of foreign armies despised by native resistance forces. Even so, the resistance movements in most occupied countries enjoyed limited success until the regular Allied forces had won sufficient victories to force the axis powers into an essentially defensive strategy of protecting their homelands.

PROMOTION OF PARAMILITARY RESISTANCE IN EASTERN EUROPE

During the early postwar years, as we have noted, the CIA's initial reaction to the Cold War was to employ the wartime tactics of the OSS in new efforts to organize and promote paramilitary resistance movements in such areas as Albania, the Ukraine, and other parts of Eastern Europe. Almost all of these operations were complete failures. (Similar setbacks occurred in agency paramilitary operations against China and North Korea.) The controlling military forces in Eastern Europe, although supported by the Soviet Union, were for the most part of native origin--often directed by the same political elements that had cooperated with the OSS and other Allied intelligence services in the prior struggle against the Nazi occupiers. Despite a large amount of disenchantment with the communist regimes on the part of the indigenous populations, which the CIA grossly misinterpreted as revolutionary fervor, the war-weary populations were not willing to join, in significant numbers, resistance groups with little chance of success. And under the prevailing political circumstances of the times, there was little likelihood of eventual overt military support from the U.S. armed forces. Thus, the Eastern European governments, with their rigid internal-security systems, were easily able to thwart CIA paramilitary efforts against them.

PARAMILITARY OPERATIONS IN NON-COMMUNIST AREAS

In those areas of the world not under communist domination, however, the CIA's clandestine paramilitary operations fared somewhat better, at least during the early 1950's. But unlike the OSS, which had supported partisan groups fighting against fascist-dominated governments, the CIA more often than not found itself in the position of supporting the counterinsurgency efforts of established regimes threatened from the left by local guerrilla movements. Blinded by its fear and distrust of communism, the CIA had gradually drifted into a posture whereby its paramilitary op-

I am asked about this one or that one and I have spoken of my aversion to anything regarding politics; however, you are stuck in the mire of that very downfall. I am specifically asked about Jerry Brown. His pronouncements are good--excellent, in fact, for breakaway from the present and movement into the new, and his plan could work to pull you out and up through the morass--if there be enough support. You still have to clean Congress. However, as we disclose "crime" in the ranks you can clean the Congress. You will have to reinstate the missing 13th Amendment and remove all of nobility and title

(that DOES mean attorneys) from the offices of government--just as the Amendment is intended. You will also have to return to a "justice" system and clean the vermin from the halls of Law. Yes, that DOES mean that ~~ones~~ wishing to serve will need ~~renounce~~ all connection with power. REMEMBER: YOUR GOVERNMENT IS OF YOU, BY YOU, AND FOR YOU--NOT FOR THE LEGAL POCKETS WHO MANIPULATE AND DESTROY JUSTICE.

Are all Lawyers "bad"? NO. Are all Khazarians "bad"? NO. But I promise you that there are indeed FEW Khazarian Lawyers who have good intent or justice as operating procedure. Do not quote me as saying

All you have to do is look and you can see what is happening in the controlled political arena--even in the ranks of the political Parties currently allowed, ones are not allowed within the balloting halls and are being restricted from the ballots themselves.

It is mandatory that the Parties in point be LEFT and ones unify separately as a new offering and join together in service most validly suitable to form a TEAM which cannot be beaten. ## Memories and Dreams

2/24/92 #1 HATONN

As we set forth upon the winds of life journeys, how many are tossed about by the whirlwinds and how many are prepared in security beyond those winds? You, perhaps, cannot ever learn to stop the winds but you can keep your wings intact and learn to shed the winds so that they can pass you by.

In this endeavor there must be goals and dreams of how to reach those goals--beyond the moments in passing. There is only memory from past--and no future in certainty. There is but the moment--buffered by the lessons of the memories and the positive goals of the future in perception.

Since you can only be sure of some type of transition from this experience into another--even if you perceive it to be "death" and ceasing of adventure--so you must, in sequence, look beyond. HOWEVER, DO NOT DWELL IN IT FOR IT IS THE NOW WHICH IS MANIFEST FOR YOUR USE.

You must, also, hold fast to dreams for if dreams die and are buried, you become as a broken-winged bird that cannot fly. Perhaps, chelas, if there are no flights today for you, then maybe there is a wound which must first be healed. Perhaps you need acquire more "knowledge" that your directions and insight are honed for action. Even a broken wing can be healed and new feathers grown if ye but know HOW.

Dreams are but "thoughts" and thoughts--just mere thoughts--are powerful. They are as the electric batteries processing and storing energy. They are priceless as sunlight for life or as bad for one as poison. What are your thoughts? You fear? What do ye fear? Mistakes? Oh, precious ones--there is glory to be had in GREAT MISTAKES. In gaining of perfection one MUST make the mistakes of the growing being--how else can the lessons be truly learned? Do not fear error--simply "correct" error!

2/24/92 #1 HATONN

Please, as we have asked before--attend these volumes as you would a compilation of daily "journals". We have grown too pressed to handle only one subject at a time and there is no ability to bring forth all in the LIBERATOR. We must write the details and backup and send forth the messages (call) unto those who will fall into the writings along their journey unto "mission" and see their purpose of the journey.

It is, for instance, necessary that as we write on the "Intelligence" forces (mutually exclusive terms, I believe), we must also give you insight on the participations of your President Bush so that you can attend an election with knowledge and not repeat and repeat your errors in blindness.

This means that you will have to plow through the tangled webs and threads of bindings which render you, as the fly in the spider web, helpless and without vision of Truth. If you fail to see your enemy and what has become your prison you have no way to set yourself free from the entanglement and the "spider" shall eat you or in the least, ye shall be trapped until you perish for as the insect in the web, he shall surely die if he cannot free himself.

Today ones speak of recovery of your economy. Greenspan gives you conjured reasoning why it appears there is recovery and all point to the "market". How much money might a family man out of work have in the market? Oh, you have it with a trusted Mutual Fund? And where does the Mutual Fund have its (your) money? And if it be pensions and retirement funds you await--where is that money invested? Ah so--the words are just more "party line" to make you believe that which is NOT. There is only more unemployment this day and less industry--THERE IS NO RECOVERY AND IT SHALL BE LONG BEFORE THERE IS ANY KIND OF RECOVERY IN THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY. GREENSPAN KNOWS AS MUCH AND IS SETTING YOU UP FOR THE FINAL BLOW WHEN THEY TELL YOU: "WE THOUGHT IT WOULD BE DIFFERENT, WE TRIED EVERYTHING--BUT ALAS, IT DIDN'T WORK. I'M SORRY PEOPLE, YOUR ASSETS ARE ALL GONE!" Ah yes, it WILL be that way. Just as "they" now tell you there were errors in the bombing of civilian targets in Iraq, right after telling you that you had "perfect precision" bombing when it was convenient and served their needs--they will tell you simply and openly--"We made a mistake" and whether or not you like it--your life savings and property will be gone and there will be NOTHING YOU CAN DO ABOUT IT. YOU MUST ACT NOW FOR IN THE HANDS OF THE BEAST WAITING TO EAT YOU IS NOT SECURITY FOR ANYTHING.

erations were in support of the status quo. The agency, in pursuit of "stability" and "orderly change", increasingly associated itself with protecting vested interests. In the view of much of the world, it had become a symbol of repression rather than freedom. While the CIA's paramilitary activities were at times successful, many of the victories won took on a Pyrrhic quality. They always seemed to work against legitimate social and political change--for which the U.S. government would in later years be held accountable by the peoples of these countries.

2/24/92 #2 HATONN*SPECIAL OPERATIONS
EARLY CIA

During the first years of its existence and particularly after the outbreak of the Korean War in 1950, the CIA recruited and trained large numbers of officers for special operations. Many were, of course, intended for service in Korea, but the American commander there, General Douglas MacArthur, was not particularly fond of clandestine paramilitary operations, and he did his best to keep the CIA's special-ops experts out of his theater. The agency did nevertheless manage to launch a large number of secret operations, resulting in the loss of numerous Korean agents and few, if any, meaningful gains.

SUCSESSES

With its newly expanded staff, the CIA's Special Operations Division was able to turn its attention to other countries in Asia. Attempts were made to develop resistance movements in China, but these efforts accomplished virtually nothing more than the capture of agency officers John Downey and Richard Fecteau--and death for the Nationalist Chinese agents they were helping to infiltrate. Mainland China, like Eastern Europe, was not fertile territory for agency operations.

There were some successes elsewhere. The Huk insurgency in the Philippines was put down with CIA help. Agency-supported Nationalist Chinese troops in Burma (when not engaging in their principal pastime of trafficking in opium) were induced to conduct occasional raids into the hinterland of Communist China. In South Vietnam the CIA played a large part in consolidating the power of the Diem regime--and this was considered by the agency to be a major accomplishment.

FAILURES

Such gains in Southeast Asia were offset by some rather notable failures, most particularly the agency's inability to overthrow President Sukarno of Indonesia in 1958. While this CIA-supported revolt was going on, the U.S. government categorically denied providing any support to the anti-Sukarno forces. In March 1958, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles [H: Note how often this name pops up in every misadventure one way or another.] told a congressional committee that "We are not intervening in the internal affairs of the country." Six weeks later President Eisenhower stated that while "soldiers of fortune" probably were involved in the affair, "our policy is one of careful neutrality and proper deportment all the way through so as not to be taking sides where it is none of our business." These statements were, of course, false. The Indonesian government put little credence in the denials and denounced the United States for its intervention. The New York Times, however, chose to believe the official American version and indignantly scolded the Indonesians for circulating false reports saying that the U.S. government was giving aid to the rebels. [H: See how helpful to have a fully controlled media? The New York Times is one of the MAJOR Conspiracy newspapers as we have discussed at great length prior to this document. If you have done your homework in the JOURNALS you KNOW what is going on--between the lines, so to speak.] The Times commented that the Secretary of State and "the President himself" had denied American involvement, and that "the United States is not ready...to step in to help overthrow a constituted government." The pattern of lying to cover up failure was established; it would find further manifestation during the U-2 Affair, and again at the Bay of Pigs. [H: Now, you have two U-2 "affairs" to note! Don't overlook the one that crashed off South Korea in the past month--that was certainly by no means an accident!]

TIBETAN REVOLT

In 1959 the CIA found another opportunity to engage in special ops when the Tibetans revolted against the Chinese communists who eight years before had imposed their rule on the mountain kingdom. Sparked by Peking's move to replace the Dalai Lama, Tibet's traditional religious and temporal ruler, with the Panchen Lama, an important religious leader controlled by the Chinese, there was a short-lived uprising. After its failure, the Dalai Lama with several thousand followers and troops escaped to India, where he and his loyalists were granted sanctuary. Then,

DO IT! "LET'S GET OFF OUR 'BUTS'"

The front flyer from a book has been sent to my attention. The small inserted writeup is worthy of reproduction for your thought processes. The book is by the above title and let's see here, it is by a John-Roger & Peter McWilliams. You will find it almost anywhere that books are sold for it is not controversial and is a best seller--do-it-yourself type of volume. I believe it bears enough pondering material to suffice moving into the volume in hand.

Within each of us is a dream--a heart's desire.

For some, it's a professional or a career goal; for others, it's a relationship or a family. It might be a political or social desire, or it may be a religious or spiritual one.

Unfortunately, many people are not pursuing their heart's desire. Some are so far away from living their dream that they have forgotten what was their true dream.

Why? What's keeping us from fulfilling our heart's desire? Why aren't we living our dreams?

Our comfort zone.

Our comfort zone includes all the things we've done often enough to feel comfortable doing. Any behavior outside our comfort zone can result in fear, guilt, unworthiness, hurt feelings, anger, discouragement--you know: discomfort!

Alas, to accomplish something new requires new behavior, and new behavior by its very definition lies outside the confines of the comfort zone.

So, do we honor our comfort zone, or do we honor our dream? The choice is ours.

As Galbraith pointed out, "When faced with the choice between changing and proving there's no need to do so, most people get busy on the proof."

To accomplish anything, you must get up off your assets and put aside your "buts"--and "if onlys". You have the power of God to allow you to accomplish ANYTHING YOU WISH--I believe it is time to take that action and let's get on with our work.

Just as with disease--to avoid contact you must either disperse the disease OR you must learn to protect yourself from the contagion. Either way--YOU MUST KNOW THE CAUSE.

special ops officers began secretly training and re-equipping the Dalai Lama's troops--fearsome Khamba horsemen--in preparation for eventual clandestine forays into Tibet. Some of the Tibetans were quietly brought to the United States for special paramilitary training at Camp Hale, Colorado.

Although the CIA officers led their Tibetan trainees to believe that they were being readied for the reconquering of their homeland, even within the agency few saw any real chance that this could happen. Some of the covert operators who worked directly with the Tibetans, however, eventually came to believe their own persuasive propaganda. Years later, they would flush with anger and frustration describing how they and their Tibetans had been undone by the bureaucrats back in Washington. This phenomenon of "emotional attachment" is not rare in the clandestine business, but it is particularly prevalent in special operations. The officers who engage in special ops often have a deep psychological need to belong and believe. This, coupled with the dangers and hardships they willingly endure, tends to drive them to support extreme causes and seek unattainable goals. Several of them would turn for solace to the Tibetan prayers which they had learned during their years with the Dalai Lama.

From the beginning of the Tibetan operation, it was clear that its only value would be one of harassment. Spot raids against Chinese facilities in the backward mountain country were an annoyance to Peking and a reminder of its vulnerability. But the dream of reoccupying the land and reestablishing the Dalai Lama as its political ruler was an impossible one. [H: However, now take a look at what happened in regards to the Dalai Lama and followers as currently as between 1990 and now. Politics leave nothing "sacred" nor any man untainted!]

The guerrilla raids of the Dalai Lama's forces into Tibet, planned by CIA operators and on occasion led by agency contract mercenaries, were supported and covered by "private" planes of the Civil Air Transport complex, a CIA proprietary which was also instrumental in secretly supplying weapons ( ** DELETED ** ) part, the raids accomplished little beyond giving the Tibetan troops some temporary satisfaction and fanning their hopes that someday they would lead a true invasion of their homeland. Communication lines were cut, some sabotage was carried out, and from time to time an ambush of a small Chinese Communist force was undertaken.

THE MAILBAG WINDFALL IN TIBET

One such ambush resulted in an intelligence windfall. The Tibetans had waylaid a small military convoy on a lonely mountain road and were preparing to put the torch to the Chinese vehicles when it was discovered that one of them contained several mailbags. A quick examination disclosed that in addition to the routine mix of general correspondence, the mail included official government and military documents being delivered from China proper. The mailbags were salvaged and returned to India by the Tibetan guerrillas, where they were turned over to the CIA operatives working on the operation. The contents of the mailbags were later analyzed in detail by the agency's China experts in Langley, Virginia. Data and insights as to the status of the Chinese occupation of Tibet were found in abundance. While difficulties were being encountered in imposing communist rule on the feudal system of the mountain nation, it was clear that the Chinese were in full control of the situation and were determined to have their way. Even more interesting to the agency's China-watchers, however, was authentic background information revealing that Mao Tse-tung's "Great Leap Forward" had failed in several crucial respects to achieve its goal of raising China from the depths of underdevelopment. As incredible as it may seem in retrospect, some of the CIA's economic analysts (and many other officials in Washington) were, in the early 1960's, still inclined to accept much of Peking's propaganda as to the success of Mao's economic experiment. The acquisition of the Tibetan documents was a significant contribution to the resolution of this particular debate within the U.S. intelligence community.

DEATH OF TIBETAN OPERATION

Without any other noteworthy gains, the Tibetan operation sputtered hopelessly on. A few years later, at the end of 1964, the Chinese removed the Panchen Lama from power, setting off another minor revolt. But the Dalai Lama's CIA-trained troops, now more than five years in exile in India, were unable to come to the rescue of their countrymen. With the CIA's Bay of Pigs defeat still fresh in American minds, there was little interest in Washington in supporting the dreams of the Khamba horsemen. Gradually the Tibetan operation atrophied. By the late 1960's the CIA's clandestine operatives were interested only in seeking a graceful way to terminate their association with the Dalai Lama and his aging, now useless troops.

CIA IN THE CONGO

The Tibetan operation was soon overshadowed and succeeded by CIA involvement in the Congo. The chaotic strife which gripped that country almost from the moment it became independent of Belgian rule provided the CIA, along with intelligence services of many other countries, fertile ground for special operations. The U.S. Government's intent was to promote a stable pro-Western regime that would protect foreign investments, and the CIA was given much of the responsibility for carrying out this policy. At first the agency's covert activities were confined to political manipulation and cash payments to selected politicians, but as the Congolese political scene became more and more unraveled, the agency sent its paramilitary experts and mercenaries to support the new government. By 1964, CIA B-26 aircraft flown by Cuban pilots under contract with the CIA were carrying out regular bombing missions against rebel areas. Later, in 1966, the New York Times would describe the CIA planes as "an instant air force". While the agency was not completely happy with this publicity, many operators were pleased with the newspaper's recognition of the CIA's skill in putting the operation together on comparatively short notice. [H: You must keep in mind that the kind of personality which allows for this intrigue and dangerous work ALSO DEMANDS ATTENTION TO

THAT WHICH THEY HAVE ACCOMPLISHED! These operatives contain massively huge egos.]

Relying in large part on the considerable assistance furnished by the CIA and other U.S. government agencies, the central Congolese government under President Mobutu was finally able to impose some degree of stability throughout the country.

SOUTHEAST ASIA: SECRET WAR IN LAOS

During the years when the Tibetan and Congolese programs were in full operation, the CIA and its Special Operations Division were already becoming increasingly preoccupied with Southeast Asia. In Laos, agency operators were organizing a private army (L'Armee Clandestine) of more than 30,000 men and building an impressive string of bases throughout the country. A few of these bases were used as jumping-off points to send guerrilla raiding parties into North Vietnam and China.

The secret war in Laos was viewed within the CIA with much more favor than the huge military struggle that eventually developed in Vietnam. The fighting was not highly visible to the American public or the world. In fact, the Laotian war was years along before the U.S. Congress even became aware it was going on. In Laos the CIA was in complete control, but at no time were more than forty or fifty operations officers required to direct the paramilitary effort. The dirty and dangerous work--the ground fighting--was handled by hundreds of agency contract personnel and more than 30,000 Lao tribesmen under the leadership of General Vang Pao--whom the CIA from time to time secretly decorated with "intelligence" medals. The CIA's Laotian forces were augmented by thousands of Thai "volunteers" paid by the agency. Air support, an extremely dangerous business in Laos, was supplied by Air America--a CIA-owned airline--and on occasion by the Thai Air Force. Thus, while the CIA's special-ops officer masterminded the war and called all the shots, largely from the Laotian capital of Vientiane or from secure bases upcountry, most were not required to run the physical risks of war. The Laotian operation was, as special operations go, a near-perfect situation for the career officer.

CIA IN VIETNAM

Meanwhile, in Vietnam the CIA supported and financed a force of roughly 45,000 Civilian Irregular Defense Guards (CIDGs), local guerrilla troops who fought under the operational direction of the U.S. Army's Special Forces. SOD operators and agency contractees ran the Counter Terror teams which employed similar methods to oppose the Vietcong's terror tactics of kidnapping, torture, and murder. The agency also organized guerrilla raids against North Vietnam, with special emphasis on intrusions by sea-borne commando groups coming "over the beach" on specially designed, heavily armed high-speed PT-type boats. At least one such CIA raiding party was operating in that part of the Tonkin Gulf in 1964 where two U.S. destroyers allegedly came under attack by North Vietnamese ships. [H: Many of those fast boats are now operating off-shore along the Gulf Coast of the U.S./Mexico. They are operated, still, by Vietnamese Cong in large measure!] These CIA raids may well have specifically provoked the North Vietnamese action against the destroyers, which in turn led to the passage of the Tonkin Gulf resolution by the U.S. Congress in 1964, thus setting the stage for large-scale American military involvement in Indochina.

The CIA's special operations in Southeast Asia were massive in scale and an important part of the overall U.S. war effort. Many of these operations are described in detail in official U.S. government documents published in The Pentagon Papers. Nevertheless, a few operations not mentioned therein deserve particular note.

CIA USE OF CHINESE NUNGS

One involved the Nungs, a national minority of Chinese hill people who fought on the French side in the first Vietnam War and then came south in large numbers after 1954. The Nungs were known to be extremely fierce fighters, and they became a favorite source of manpower for CIA operations in South Vietnam. In fact, casual observers could nearly always spot secret CIA installations in the Vietnamese provinces by the Nung guards out front, dressed invariably in jungle camouflage uniforms.

In addition, Nung mercenaries were often sent by the CIA on forays along the Ho Chi Minh trail. Their function was to observe North Vietnamese and Vietcong supply movements and on occasion to make attacks against convoys, or to carry out sabotage on storage depots. Since most of the Nungs were illiterate and had great difficulty in sending back quick, accurate reports of what they saw, the CIA technicians developed a special kind of radio transmitter for their use. Each transmitter had a set of buttons corresponding to pictures of a tank, a truck, an artillery piece, or some other military-related object. When the Nung trail watcher saw a Vietcong convoy, he would push the appropriate button as many times as he counted such objects go by him. Each push sent a specially coded impulse back to a base camp which could in this way keep a running account of supply movements on the trail. In some instances the signals would be recorded by observation planes that would relay the information to attack aircraft for immediate bombing raids on the trail.

The Nung units made special demands on their CIA case officers, and consequently they cost the agency about 100 times as much per soldier as the Meos fighting in CIA's L'Armee Clandestine in Laos, who could be put into the field for less than ten cents per man per day. The higher cost for the Nungs' services was caused by their unwillingness to go into remote regions under agency command unless they were regularly supplied with beer and prostitutes--thus, the agency had no choice but to provide flying bar and brothel services. Even though one of the CIA's own airlines, Air America, handled this unusual cargo, the cost of the air support was still high. The CIA's case officers would have preferred to give the Nungs whiskey, which, while more expensive to buy, was considerably lighter and hence cheaper to fly in, but the Nungs would fight only for beer. The prostitutes also presented a special problem because the agency did not want to compromise the secrecy of the operations by supplying women from local areas who might be able to talk to the Nungs. Thus, Air America brought in only prostitutes from distant parts of Southeast Asia who had no language in common with the Nungs.

CIA USE OF GIMMICKS AND GADGETS

With their characteristic enthusiasm for gimmicks and gadgetry, the CIA came up with two technical discoveries in the mid-1960's that were used in Vietnam with limited success but great delight

4½ LINES DELETED

In actual practice, however, whatever damage was caused by the chemical was quickly repaired by the Vietcong and North Vietnamese.

The agency's other discovery was a weapons-detection system. It worked by spraying a special chemical on the hands of a suspected Vietcong and then, after a few minutes, shining an ultraviolet light on his hands. If the chemical glowed in a certain manner, that meant that the suspect had held a metal object--in theory, a weapon--during the preceding twenty-four hours. The system's main drawback was that it was just as sensitive to steel farm implements as to guns and it could implicate a person who had been merely working with a hammer. The CIA considered the system such a success, however, that it passed it on through a domestic training program to the police forces in several American cities. [H: Now wouldn't this strike terror into your hearts? I suppose you can know which cities would use such ruthless devices?]

Vietnam POWs

2/28/92 #1 HATONN

America, what are you going to do to your politicians who have lied to you? How is it that the reports are flowing that there will be at least 72 American prisoners (FROM VIETNAM) released within the next short while? How is it that Kerrey went to that area only to find no prisoners--the government couldn't seem to find them--and yet Col. Gritz found them? Don't count them before they hatch, however, for these are all "Special Forces" men and--unless they have been tampered with and reprogrammed--they will have either "sold-out" or, for some other reason, won't talk. Governments play very rough when they are out to gain the world.

Oh indeed yes, the men are there--along with a couple of thousand more--at least.

PRISONERS IN RUSSIA TOO

I have told you many times that the Russians took prisoners also--from Korea and Vietnam. This was spoofed beyond the above statements. Funny thing--NOW THEY TELL YOU THAT THE SAME PEOPLE IN POINT (i.e., Kerrey) HAS BEEN GIVEN KGB INFORMATION THAT VERIFIES THE FACT.

BANKS AND FOLD-UPS AND MOVE AWAYS

The banks are hitting the fan in Japan at this writing. The economic situation is at high boil and ready to burn the pot, house and all. Since you have been watching the downfall of the banking industry into one global system you can now objectively watch it in full swing in Tokyo. The banks in Japan are expected to collapse at any moment. What do you think that will do to American Banking--especially Japanese owned banks--predominantly big ones in California?

Banking and Finance

2/28/92 #1 HATONN

Why might it be that America has held up the Japanese banking system as a model? When the Treasury and the Fed support a truly National Banking System, they have in mind an America where over 13,000 banks telescope down into less than 300 and then into ONE with branches here and there. You now have about 10 SUPER-banks and almost 300 BIG Regional banks. This would certainly force reform for the only way you would be able to bank without banks and without cash supply--would be through debit cards????

The Japanese did exactly what the insiders in the U.S.A. did and what the junk bond salesmen did--ran up, through inside trading--land prices which had no reality to anything.

They then used this extra money to buy American stocks and bonds. Sometimes they speculated in more and more Japanese real estate--this pushed the real estate market up another notch, and started another upward spiral of bank borrowing. This eventually catches up to the reality of the big world.

QUEEN BEE HIVE OF CARDS

Japanese Corporations belong to groupings, built around a BIG bank. Each company in a group buys shares in the other companies in the group. The banks at the center buy shares in all of the companies allied with them. Each bank became a queen bee with a massive hive. As the stock Market rose in Japan from under 1,000 after WW II to 40,000 just a few years past--the value of shares went up steadily. When corporations wanted to expand or to modernize or to either buy-up or build factories, etc., or a whole company in America, they went to their Bank and asked for a loan. They used their land and stock holdings as collateral. This is the element which is most dangerous of all. Now ponder what I have told you about the Federal Reserve and banking loan ratios against money as collateral and check this out: Japanese Banks were allowed to count 40% of the increase in value of their stock holding as BANK CAPITAL. With stocks on the rise, the banks had a lot of surplus capital and money flowed quite cheaply. Just as within the U.S.--everything was built on borrowed money--and--money gleaned and washed from crime and counterfeit published currency (remember those printing plates??).

The moment of truth is about to be upon you and I hope you will take heed to my warnings--the Japanese banks are ready to fold and, with the attitude as is at present--the U.S. will not only allow it but will insist upon its happening.

As you try to figure out what to do with your assets if you are in Japanese banks--I suggest you do a couple of things. Follow the path of the banks as they have evolved. For instance--begin with Bank of America. Find out WHO owns it NOW. For a while, at least, and perhaps presently--it was owned by a major Japanese consortium who decided not to change its name. It in turn has bought up many S&L's in failure and collapse--such as Santa Barbara Savings (just the good deposits and assets) as bad debts were left to you--the people. Locally, Lloyds (of London) was bought and became Sanwa. I am not going to follow these for you for that is your job to attend but it is time to make these connections and ponder the next proper move to protect what assets are available to you.

WHAT HAPPENED

The whole edifice of banking in Japan was built on borrowed money--just as your own national economy. It all depended on high and rising land values, high and rising stock prices, low and stable interest rates. But then the entire system began to unwind. Interest rates began to rise, making it difficult to carry debt. Fewer new borrowers could afford to buy real estate. And for good reason. Prices were so high that rents could not begin to cover interest payments. Speculators lost interest in real estate. Now you had less money coming in and the price of land began to stabilize and then started to fall off. The prices had been so puffed up--as in California--that there was no "reasonable" place to go except down. The Japanese Central Bank and the Japanese Government were fully in favor of Real Estate coming down in price but they desired it over a generation and under totally controlled conditions. Despite all efforts to prevent a sudden drop--it happened at a shocking rate.

This occurrence blasted the market and as land fell so did the price of stocks. Check it--after only a couple of years, the Japanese market has declined over 50%. The bankers are now at the brick wall.

Japanese banks have watched capital ratios shrink massively as the value of stocks and real estate have fallen.

We have written on this at length but bear with me a moment while I remind you that the key range of the Nikkei Stock Average is between 20,000 and 21,000. Below that level, Japanese Banks would lack enough capital to stay open...and some would go bankrupt. This would trigger demands for loan-payments and bring down the house of cards--just as in America. So, doing their duty, financial institutions have injected massive amounts of money into stocks to shore up the average. JUST AS IN AMERICA.

America has depended on Japan to purchase your DEBT AND BONDS. They can't, so guess what? You are in worse shape than they--for you owe your soul "to the company store"! The Federal Reserve--branch of the Global ONE Bank of the Elite in Basel, Switzerland.

WHAT OF AMERICA?

It was smugly thought that the American Stock Market could be held up until the first week in March. It was really thought that they could shore up the market with stock prices alone, without having to dump in real estate and other securities. But it has happened and the crisis is at hand. Let me outlay another's projections and view of this mess in Tokyo. This scenario is geared and primed to pull down the ruling party in Japan. Japan's banking structure comes in layers: International Banks and Inside Japan Banks--and mortgage loan companies who borrow money from "City Banks". They then re-loan the money to buyers of property. The mortgage loan companies hold loans worth TWENTY TRILLION DOLLARS. This gives you a relative measure of the inflated value of Tokyo real estate which beats the worst in the U.S.A., even. But then, JUST WHERE DO YOU THINK THE JAPANESE LEARNED TO DO BANKING BUSINESS? AND WHO CONTROLS ALL THE BANKS IN THE WORLD? AH YES--GREAT BRITAIN AND THE COMMITTEE OF 300 BANKERS.

Let us continue with the explanation: Given the decline in Japanese land values, it comes as no surprise that big borrowers are defaulting on loans. You are already "told" that some of the BIG speculators are now missing--having disappeared, unwilling to face the shame of foreclosure. Up to over 22% of outstanding Tokyo mortgage loans are 6 to 12 months in arrears. MORTGAGE BANKS ARE QUITE UNABLE TO KEEP UP ON INTEREST PAYMENTS TO THE CITY BANKS. Japanese Bank stocks have fallen in price by one-third since Labor Day. Eight mortgage loan companies may be already collapsing under debt loads. The word received FROM BRITISH BANKING SOURCES DOING BUSINESS IN TOKYO is that 23% of the capital of some 12 large Japanese "City Banks" is tied up in loans to mortgage loan companies. The situation is bad enough so that Japanese Bank stocks have fallen in price by one-third since Labor Day, 1991. The investors in Tokyo know what is going on, even if American officials keep on looking the other way and hoping in vain for Japanese buyers to show up at your Government Bond auctions. The Money flow from Japan is being shut down not from spite but because they see themselves at risk of mass default and insolvency and KNOW AMERICA WILL HAVE TO DEFAULT ON YOUR DEBTS AND BONDS.

BANKING

I suggest you heed this as a warning and ponder actions--immediately. As we worked in the past it appeared the San Andreas Fault would go prior to the bank collapse and a big Japanese-backed bank was the best maneuver for that moment in time. Therefore, for our people on the West coast, a Japanese Bank on the Eastern side of that fault, in the event of a collapsed computer clearing system, would serve better. Obviously, if the bank itself may fail with no hope of shoring-up except from the World Bank, I see that it is not likely to survive the first slash.

This is all just one more step in world control but it is indeed difficult to move correctly through the morass in order to keep funds secure and obtainable for necessary building. DO NOT, HOWEVER, GET CAUGHT WITH SUMS IN THESE JAPANESE BANKS--THE TIME FOR THE NEXT PERSONAL MOVE IS NOW.

For you who grumble--I don't believe God ever told you it would be either easy or certain that you could salvage any of your THINGS! But we need building funding and operating funding to sustain things such as the Constitutional Law Center and the probabilities are all that we are given with which to work.

It gets more and more difficult to find banks that will hold gold reserves as collateral. Each day the curtain comes lower and lower and flexibility is the name of the game. Each day it gets more difficult and one or two more sources have been located for limited utilization. The nice thing about the folding of the stock market is the certain rise of precious metals for it always happens just before the bottom drops out of the world economy and the world enters great depression.

The bad thing, of course, is that with the bottom dropping out the world does dandy things to increase the economy--they allow increased destruction to the planet and bring about great and horrendously expensive WARS!

BEFORE I LEAVE "BANKS"

I still suggest the best bank is the one owned by the biggest of the Cartel "game-players" for they will be the last to collapse and are geared to service the criminals to the very end--along with being unlikely in stealing their own collateral assets. Just to give you a bit of insight--Safra (Israeli bank) has now closed its loan-against-gold service so you can guess that they are NOT insiders, after all, but rather, Israel is only a tool of the Elite.

Also, I would wish that you who continue to feel sorry for poor old Bill Clinton and his getting caught with things in other people's places--HE WAS, IS, INVOLVED IN THE BCCI SCANDAL--TO HIS EYES.

Financial resources and sources allowing Clinton, the Bilderberger, to run for President are linked to the burgeoning Bank of Credit and Commerce International (BCCI).

The major Clinton fund-raiser is a little-known (that is OUTSIDE of banking circles just like most of the Clinton's link with all of this comes from his dealings with the Worthen National Bank of Little Rock, of which the Stephens family has a controlling interest. Ten percent of that bank belongs to a Saudi oil sheik, Abdullah Taha Bakhsh, who is a business associate and personal friend of the principals in the BCCI scandal. Worthen National's part in the BCCI scandal is now under quiet investigation.

Clinton's ties, however, with the Stephenses' financial empire began in October 1990, when the governor was running for re-election and found himself in deep trouble. He called for help to the Stephenses and asked them to raise some $50,000 for his campaign for which he could promise some return favors. He got the money the following day--from the Bank in point.

Now where are we? Aside from $2 million in a line of credit, the Stephenses and their associates have raised more than $100,000 in additional funds for the Clinton presidential drive. One of those associates is Curt Bradbury, a former employee of Stephens Inc., and now the chief executive officer of guess what: Worthen National Bank. The connections run the full circle which includes Bert Lance of Carter notoriety and lumps them all right into the middle,

Atlantis Discovery

2/28/92 #1 HATONN

You will soon be able to have visual proof of that which went down into destruction--not beneath waves of the ocean but into smithereens into the atmosphere--Atlantis. You who have wondered where you experienced and why the Greek Isles are so like home--remember your heritage--Atlantis is found three civilizations straight down but being recovered only to realize there is an even more advanced civilization beneath it!! Actually the next beneath is Atlantis. You will have your own archaeologists tell you this city can stand alongside any street in America and look right at home. And what is found at the center of the downfall? The "BANKS" with hoards of gold--with NOTHING found in the outlying villages. So be it!!

along with George Bush, of BCCI.

Is Clinton aware? Come, come. It is all public record and was noted as far back as when Clinton got over $2 million from Worthen National, of which Jackson Stephens is Chairman, in a credit-line. Connections? I would certainly note that if the man is so ill-informed as not to be aware he wouldn't make a good leader at any rate! But perhaps the more important point: Why the intense desire to pull him down? These outlays of "secrets" are in full intent to destroy the man--why? Who? How is it that Bush can still keep the most horrendous things of a criminal background hidden? YOU HAD BETTER CONSIDER THE POWER INVOLVED IN THAT STATEMENT AND QUESTION. THIS IS THE NEW WORLD ORDER IN ACTION, READY TO TAKE OVER AS THE ONE WORLD GLOBAL CONTROL RESOURCE WITH A ONE WORLD MILITARY FORCE, ONE WORLD BANK AND THE ONE WORLD IS "THEIRS"--NOT "YOURS".

Please take this off the equipment, Dharma, for there are some things herein which may need some consideration soon. We will then go back to the "Tavistock network".

Ekker Property Court Case

2/28/92 #1 HATONN

This has gone into a miserable round with Feds and more garbage causing new delays until March 9th. The RTC has come up with a new one, though, which we should share with you--ah, how well lies are taken-in in ignorance. The RTC now has a new power play which is referred to as "Federal Common-Law". I toss this in for you Common Law people, Constitutional people and lawyers of all types. Another little tid-bit: The RTC lawyer tried to "snow" the new Judge. Judge Randall, having exhausted every Judge in the system of Kern County, Bakersfield, sent a volume of this case for review to a wondrous Judge--Davis. (Which is where I wanted it all along the way.) Davis agreed to take on the case based on the brief explanation only to have

Pilot Group Raided

2/28/92 #1 HATONN

For you Patriots who may not know: three of the Pilot Group organizations were raided by the IRS and all records and equipment confiscated. This was done under police force, all things loaded onto accompanying trucks--the invasions were nearly simultaneous.

I remind you that it is true that you are in a system of non-Constitutional force and violation of "rights". I must remind you, however, that the man with the big gun is always "right" and everything the government or big thugs do under the gun is "legal", even if unlawful.

This is why I do not recommend massive measures at defying the "big boys" at the level of some groups although we will do all we can through made agreement to hear the case one day and receive "the other thirteen volumes of records" the next. He has years on the bench, however, and with great humor and patience keeps a casual courtroom so the trial itself should be good and worthy of attention and witness. The manipulations and horrendous misadventures of intentional deprivation of the Ekker's became evident in just a few minutes of "motions" explanation by the RTC and its foolish lawyer, Horn.

This is excellent exercise for our Constitutional Law Center legal eagles who, by the way, are totally swamped in legal petitions--some of international merit. We will run a press release probably in the next issue of LIBERATOR for you ones will desire to keep abreast of activities.

Committee of 300 players) and almost reclusive Little Rock, Arkansas billionaire, Jackson Stephens, who brokered the deals in the 1970's which enabled BCCI officials to gain control of two American banks now at the center of the biggest banking scandal in history.

The two banks--First American Bankshares and the National Bank of Georgia--became clearing houses, as part of BCCI's international operations, for an assortment of some of the world's biggest crooks, dictators, spies and drug kingpins.

the Constitutional Law Center to get justice for these ones. When ones set out to act, however, in greed and personal gain--it always backfires and fundamentally the Pilot Group seemed to handle taxes and citizenship on the basis of beating the Big System. I continue to tell you that if you are intent on protection of assets in service unto Constitution and God-ness--go the route we have suggested for it is all within the laws as "they have written for their own protection". This is more for reassurance for you of "my beloved" ones who have done your homework and listened. I am most uncomfortable about you ones in "trusts", for instance, for you can be identified and the axe can fall upon you if you cover enough funds to be a desirable "catch" for the IRS thugs. If you have a corporation which shows no assets, only loans and notes--how can they accuse or confiscate? If you have it not as assets--there is naught to confiscate. Further, as the laws now stand, in Nevada "they" cannot even know who owns a Corporation. Not even the State of Nevada knows the owners of corporations nor do they wish to. How long will this last? I don't know but I assume for quite a while because the "Big Boys" created the safety net for themselves. It will be the impossibility for good banking which shall ultimately shut down operations for the most part--so all must be done in perfect legal and intelligent fashion.

You must understand something. We are not here to save your "taxes". I don't care about your taxes. I DO care about Constitutional RIGHTS and if you use the Constitution to claim nothing but greedy returns for self--then I cannot weep for your indiscretion. If you claim to do something "under the Constitution" and expect help from the Constitutional Law Center--it better have been in honest effort to retain your Constitution. Tax EVASION will merit you prison and fines--Constitution or no Constitution--so you had better read carefully and hear carefully, for never shall I suggest EVADING any rules.

You are again into the time of the year when the big hand will come down everywhere about your nation to SHOW YOU the power of the IRS to make example. "Constitution" and "rights" will be denied at every turn and the legal hassle will be long and hard and there is no promise of "winning".

If you wish to salvage your nation you are going to have to retain, reclaim and properly restructure under that wondrous Constitution--but you are going to have to do it properly or you will simply be subdued by force. So be it. Further, during this time of chaos and force come-down, you will not be treated fairly under any circumstance and there will be no PERFECT way to do anything nor retain ANYTHING. THE INTENT IS TO RENDER YOU HELPLESS IN THE PHYSICAL AND REMOVE ALL ASSETS AND PROPERTY! THERE WILL BE NO PERFECT WAY IN WHICH YOU WILL PROSPER AND BLOSSOM WHILST YOUR NATION AND PEOPLE FALL. YOU DO NOT, HOWEVER, NEED EITHER LOSE ALL NOR PERISH IN THE TIDAL WAVE--IF YOU SET EGO ASIDE AND FUNCTION WITHIN THE INTENT OF GOD. GOD'S REMNANT SHALL BE BROUGHT THROUGH--THOUGH THE JOURNEY MAY BE DIFFERENT THAN YOU HAVE PLANNED. YOU WILL ALSO REMEMBER THAT GOD'S DELAYS ARE NOT GOD'S DENIALS--CHECK YOUR OWN INTENT!! WHAT IS IT YOU ARE EFFORTING TO SAVE AND WHY? THE ANSWER TO THAT QUESTION MEANS EVERYTHING.

Let us leave this now and get back to the unraveling of the webs which have you, as a world, caught and entangled. Will you be just one more layer in the ruins of history? I hope not!

I will make time soon to speak of Atlantis and some of the other past civilizations and what happened. You must understand that new dark ages come upon the lands--the assumptions are as related to that which IS in perception. Atlantis, for instance, didn't "Just Sink". Most of it just ceased to exist and what remained may or may not have been submerged. I can assure you, however, that most of it was blown into particulate and by having vanished so rapidly and the particulate falling again upon the remaining, it gives the appearance of volcanic eruption and burial in some portions and sinking within the ocean at others. Where Atlantis vanished is a core "sink" of some 8 MILES in depth--which shows a "blowout" of incredible and unsurpassed power.

2/29/92 #2 HATONN

This is Commander Hatonn with an explanation of this particular issue of the LIBERATOR. I have given much thought as to how to present information to you readers in such a way as to give confirmation as well as new information. When I speak of "new" information I must remind you that nothing is "new" and information known elsewhere may not be known by YOU. As you read portions of information regarding the Japanese Banks, etc., you must use wisdom in response to circumstances. Please remember that our writings are for ALL and cannot be given to one or two so we shall do the best we can at the widest spread of input.

Banks-- Followup

2/29/92 #1 HATONN

It will be coming into your attention as follow-up to the plight of the Japanese Banks and closures, etc., that the Bank of America will be "illegally" allowed to absorb these failed institutions. Banking will be finally dwindled to some five banks working under the Mother Bank--the Bank of International Settlements in Basel, Switzerland. This is simply ongoing portions of the overall plan for Global control and a One World Bank.

I tell you this as I have now gotten information from ones who rely on the intelligence grapevine to garner information and it has hit the vine. In addition, I find that Dr. Coleman has some current and urgent information as follow-up to my statement earlier this day regarding Russia, war, etc. Therefore, I have asked Dr. Coleman to please place that in writing for this edition of the paper and as his book is ready for release and shipping on Monday of this week, we will run our confirmation information in the next issue of the Liberator.

To share some of the more interesting stories with you, of things going on in this area, I find it more fun to simply reprint a report which appeared in Mufon UFO Journal, Feb. 1992. 2/29/92 #1 HATONN

As information and confirmation for you readers, I am also asking that he, himself, run the listing of the Committee of 300. I stand responsible for the printing but it will be in his book and he has graciously consented to share with you readers directly.

I do not recommend lightly, readers, and effort never to mislead you. I do not monitor every word and the authors do not claim to write in the perfection of God. The contents and intent will be correct or you will not have my endorsement. Some authors write much which is valid but draw incorrect conclusions and you must be aware of same. This does not make them evil, it simply means they have not all the information to draw totally valid conclusions.

Please do not wait getting the book in case I print the information for I have no intention of giving you such an amount of information--my writing will be as honorable recognition of E.J. Hart of New Zealand, and other authors who dared to write on the same subject--there are many and most have been taken-out or find themselves incarcerated--silenced either way. I intend that the same DOES NOT HAPPEN TO JOHN.

This article is written by one Bill Hamilton and I have no comment about it other than to share it with you for both your information, confirmation and interest.

QUOTE:

LIGHT SHOW OVER LANCASTER:

1991 has been an unprecedented year for sightings and encounters in the Antelope Valley of California embracing the cities of Palmdale, Lancaster, and Rosamond. (Edwards AFB is some 20 miles east of Rosamond.)

I was investigating the reports of sightings associated with a Northrop Skunkworks facility (some 20 miles west of Rosamond.) in the Tehachapi Mountains on the north side of the valley when I heard about two witnesses who had experiences of missing time. These two women, Pam and Jackie, lived within eyeball range of the facility and had experienced a number of strange events. In addition, Jackie, who could see the facility clearly from her property in the high desert, reported two daylight sightings. In each case she contends that she witnessed a large disk ascend from the facility and move eastward along the base of the Tehachapis. Construction workers have informed me that the facility itself has several underground levels. [H: A question continually asked of us is, "Don't people in your area get the LIBERATOR and know about these things?" NO--there is a group sent out on publication day to REMOVE ALL COPIES OF THE LIBERATOR WHICH MAKE THEIR WAY TO PUBLIC PLACEMENTS.]

On the evening of May 14, 1991, Pam had her strangest encounter ever. Shortly after 11:00 p.m. she reports that three "grays" appeared by her bedside and started to lift her off the bed. She lives in a large, custom built pentagonal desert home that has one large room without partitions. The kitchen, bedroom and living room are open to one another. She started to struggle with the grays--the four-and-a-half-foot category--when she spotted a human in the living room area. A man, dressed all in black, was holding a device that resembled a small TV and dangling a cord. Pam heard the man say, "You have no electricity".

At this point she somehow freed herself from the entities and went to grab a light cord that would switch on a light from her twelve-volt system. The light would not come on. She then yelled for her husband to awaken. Events then took a bizarre turn.

Hearing her 100-pound Labrador barking in the yard, she and her husband went to the north-facing kitchen window. Her attention was drawn to a man who lay prone on a projecting part of the roof near a ladder. The man was dressed in full-dress Air Force blues. The three grays were now on the ground below the man as well as a K-9 sentry dog that was poised to attack Pam's dog, Casey. In the sky over the yard there were a number of red lights. The man yelled to the grays, "Get her out of the house," while Pam yelled back, "Don't kill my dog."

In the wake of this panic, Pam next remembers standing alone outside and behind their generator shack. The man, the dog, the grays, and her husband were no longer in sight. Red lights were revolving above her and a thick fog was emanating from ports set around the large craft hovering above. Her next memory was that of awakening, seated on her bed at 3:50 a.m.

I had arrived at Pam's place the next morning and spent all day with her. That evening we had a local certified hypnotherapist, Miranda Cunha, regress Pam through the incident. We discovered a mental block in the missing time period. A few tidbits emerged from this session. It seems Pam believes that she may have been taken to a base inside the Tehachapis (the second case that reported this) and that she was cautioned not to reveal what she knows. She felt very threatened by this incident.

This is just a brief recounting of only one of Pam's encounters, but significant for its mention of human involvement and its disturbing implications. Pam is a good observer and very precise about her experiences. Jackie reports seeing Pam's yard enveloped in a fog that same night, but does not remember seeing the lights which may have been directed downward and obscured by the fogscreen put out by the object. Since that night Pam has also been buzzed by low-flying helicopters. One military helicopter hovered less than a hundred feet over her yard. Her yard comprises two-and-a-half acres of desert property.

Since there have been some remarkable sightings over this area during the year and Pam's account raises many questions, I would like to proceed by relating other events that enlarge the scope considerably.

On May 28th, the night of a full moon, I went to a certain observation area in the Antelope Valley just west of the city of Lancaster and south of the Northrop facility in the Tehachapi mountain range. Joined by three other observers we saw our first aerial light emerge at the crest of the mountains south of us. The light was white with an amber tinge. It moved west above the mountain ridge, reached a certain point, then started strobing fluorescent red and white lights.

As it continued to move west, then northwest, it began to jump and dance in erratic movements. When it reached the far end of the west valley I could see a silhouette against the twilight blue sky. The object appeared to be boomerang-shaped with several strobe lights dancing around its perimeter.

This object suddenly and instantaneously vanished. A second and third object appeared above the same mountains and followed roughly the same pattern of activity except that they continued on their course to disappear in the distance. The wild "jumpers" were sometimes so erratic that normal aircraft could not withstand the structural stresses that would result from such rapid changes in motion.

On the following night, with thirteen other witnesses gathered at our desert observation post, I viewed a spectacular light show starting in the same way as the previous night.

Researchers and abductees (including Pam and Jackie) were present. We saw between 25 and 30 objects. Several of these danced and zig-zagged at all compass directions.

One or two of the objects also disappeared when in clear view. In addition to the strobing jumpers, we saw what appeared to be a large craft maneuvering to the east. It appeared to be triangular with a steady fluorescent red light on the right and an aquamarine-colored light on its left tip.

This object flew both forwards and backwards as well as gliding silently sideways. It turned and tilted until it came to the south end of the street as if it were peering at us. It then tilted on its edge and turned to proceed back to its point of origin. I snapped four photos at that instant, but the lights failed to register on 1000 ASA Ektar film.

This light show lasted two-and-one-half hours. At one point two Air Force jets crossed from northwest to southeast and returned, but did not attempt to close with any of the UFOs.

PALMDALE

Nearby Palmdale is the site of a major L.A. Air Traffic Control Center as well as several aerospace facilities and Air Force Plant 42. Edwards AFB is a few miles to the north, near the town of Rosamond. Yet no aircraft were sent out to intercept these strange aerial objects!

I phoned Edwards AFB Public Affairs Office the next day and the officer on duty was extremely interested in our sightings, but could offer no immediate explanation for them except to say that he was aware that the Antelope Valley had several secret projects that may involve advanced technology aircraft and that he had no access to that sort of information. We feel that the people on these secret projects are well aware of what is flying in the skies over Lancaster.

In the early morning hours of July 25th, Pam and I were watching the valley skies as we had made it a sort of ritual during the warm summer nights. At 12:45 a.m. a string of gold-colored lights approached silently and rapidly from the west, moving east. The golden lights were surrounded by a coronal field that may have been ionized layers of plasma. Some of this "plasma" appeared to be shedding from its source and trailing behind.

As the string reached the city limits of Lancaster, the lights disappeared one by one. At least two other sighting parties were viewing this same light string from separate locations. One of the other parties had a camcorder and starlight scope and videotaped this procession of lights. I have a VHS copy of the tape.

When one of the other witnesses mentioned the starlight scope and its ability to enhance night photography to his neighbor, his neighbor bought one and on the night of August 1st tested its ability to record the passage of an airliner over downtown Lancaster. To his surprise a small lighted object appeared and raced around the airliner, executing a sharp-angled, high-speed fly around and then faded out against the background stars. I also have this segment on video and have shown it on San Diego's ABC affiliate Channel 10 which did a special report on UFOs on their nightly news in late October.

One of the most spectacular sightings occurred on November 4th. While driving to work in the morning, Pam spotted a triangular shape over the Antelope Valley Freeway (Highway 14) at 7:11 a.m. It gave off a bright flash of gold and green. She was headed south on 60th Street west when the triangular object appeared. She then entered the freeway traveling south toward Lancaster. At 7:18 a.m. a very large charcoal-black, arrow-head-shaped vehicle passed over her pickup truck which was headed north and passing over Avenue H overpass. It had no windows or openings. Running the whole length of the bottom of the craft was a tubular structure.

The craft had no vertical stabilizers and made no sound. It was traveling very slow. She estimated its altitude as 300 to 500 feet (very low) and its dimensions as a football field in length (300 ft) and as wide as the freeway, including the central corridor and pullovers (about 80 ft). She exited at Avenue I and pulled into an ARCO station and quickly jumped out to look for the object. The object was nowhere in sight.

There have been other peculiar activities and light shows reported to me from the east side of the valley. Some of these sightings are in the vicinity of another secret underground facility owned by McDonnell-Douglas Corporation. Near this facility is El Mirage Dry Lake and Shadow Mountain.

A team of skywatchers from Victorville has seen many strange balls of light and one huge lighted craft near Shadow Mountain. They have also reported seeing an identical string of lights on several occasions similar to the one we viewed on July 25th.

Another abduction case was reported in the Victorville area. The abductee, Diane, reports being taken to an underground facility jointly occupied by grays and men in Air Force uniforms. A Victorville psychotherapist is doing extensive work on this case. If we take these reports seriously and do not dismiss them as a product of the witness's imagination, then there are significant implications in the content of such reports.

The few informants from the Aerospace sector who have approached me have done little more than cautiously confirm the existence of these underground areas, the reality of the alien presence, and verified advanced technology projects. I am not advocating a wholesale belief in any conspiracy scenario nor do I believe all the tales I hear, but I am advocating a need for further careful and cautious investigation based on eyewitness testimony.

The light shows over Lancaster continue. The "jumpers" are still seen frequently. Skywatchers are flocking to the Antelope Valley in hopes of seeing UFOs.

END OF QUOTING

Perhaps it now becomes a bit easier for you ones to understand my lack of comments regarding questions such as, "...and I was standing in my backyard on Thursday, the 3rd of May and saw something....what was it?" Your skies are filled to overflow with technological apparatus--almost all of which comes from human hands. I don't keep up with such sightings. Further, I think if you look at stories in "reason" and "content" taking into consideration the "actions" of participants you will find some interesting phenomena.

This is in no way to indicate that ones are NOT experiencing--for most certainly ARE. Neither is this experience a figment of imagination--especially in the areas mentioned above for the skies are totally polluted with these strange flying contraptions and beings of every shape, size and varied intent.

Note that there are Air Force personnel involved in all sorts of strange situations. Why? Now, note something else--in the first instance the people live within eye range of the facility and yet little "grays" actually were in the process of taking this woman from her home. Then all sorts of things seemed to happen among which was a trip to the underground facility. So--one must assume that the memory was altered somehow--MOREOVER--WHAT OF TERROR? WHAT COULD HAVE HAPPENED WHICH PUT THE PERSON "AT EASE" ENOUGH TO NOT ONLY REMAIN IN THE AREA BUT TO GO ON NIGHTLY SIGHTING TRIPS??

IF YOU WERE VIOLATED BY BEING LITERALLY ABDUCTED BY ANY KIND OF BEINGS FROM YOUR BED, TAKEN ON A TRIP TO SOMEWHERE, LOSS OF "TIME", ENCOUNTER BY GUARD DOG AND MILITARY ON YOUR ROOF--WHAT WOULD BE "YOUR" REACTION AND/OR RESPONSE?

It indicates to me that since it is unlikely the person "dreamed" such a scenario--then something made the person feel at least "fairly" safe and secure. So what is this? It is simply a test-run to see how much can be done and still have people tolerate it in reasonable emotional calmness. I am here to tell you that these dwellings are very near the periphery of the facility in point. Obviously, in second place--these are not aliens from outer space come to terrorize you. I don't want to be a wet-blanket on anyone's parade but you readers must understand that it is all a part of the scheming and manipulation of you-the-people.

UFOs? No--it is only YOU that can't identify these flying objects. They are totally classified right down to their wheel plates. Further, they are totally Earth manufactured and manned.

Are there aliens from "out-there"? Yes, and they have been duplicated from DNA/RNA. These "grays" are the very ones who just vaporize through structures--which can at some point be a real problem to the ones in control--if control is lost. A robot gone berserk that can vaporize through solid structures is totally incapable of being contained. You have about outdone your own tinkering. The original "aliens" may or may not be original beings--as with the reptilians--for the reptilians are mutations manufactured right on your planet to scare the living daylight out of you-the-people. They are not a symbol of God--they are the symbolic logo of the "adversary" forces. You will not find we-the-Hosts bearing serpents on our fore-

Dharma, Hatonn present in the Light of Holy God--as ONE we come to take your hands that you fear not.

For you who watch the datelines and timelines--along with news of storms, etc., I would set minds at ease. There is much storm activity but ones in this area are fine. Thank you for the myriads of inquiries. I also realize that your inquiries are actually requests for information as to "what is going on?" MUCH! So much, indeed, that we have not been able to write for the past two days. This is not that we "couldn't" exactly, it is that there are meetings and required integration of FACTS as separated from rumor, and quite frankly, Dharma has

What can you do if these ones come visiting you? I suggest you call on God right fast and ask for protection in the "Light". These beings, if they have any alien down-loading will back away if you order them in the name of Lighted God to "do not touch me!" This is why specific ones are visited over and over again--YOU COOPERATE WHETHER OR NOT YOU REALIZE IT. THE BIG BOYS IN THE GOVERNMENT ARE GETTING READY TO GIVE YOU A VERY BIG "SHOW AND TELL" AND THE STAGE IS NOW SET.

May your valleys be filled with light and not shadows, is my wish for you all. There is such wondrous joy to be shared if you but hold unto Truth.

If you always hold close the knowing that the way of progress is most often neither swift nor easy you will realize that the patterns you are weaving with your life are quite complex, filled with intricate detail and many, many knots. You need to go a bit slow, taking only one stitch at a time in the tapestry. With knowledge of hindsight you will see that, whatever the progress, it was the PERFECT FIT to the overall design. Salu.

George is under most primitive and hard attack and also the knowing that time is all but "out" takes its toll on the physical and consciously reasoning mind. Where do you go and what do you do? Well, chelas all, you come to GOD, and these days of fear and realization of truth is causing many, many to do just that. As you can see the evil at work and the structures of existence falling into chaos--you must turn back unto God for direction and protection. Dharma sings a little song to self which helps--"Put your hand in the hand of the One who calmed the waters, put your hand in the hand of the One who stilled the sea--. Take a look at yourself and you'll see your brother differently--put your hand in the hand of the Man from Galilee." This Christed being, by whatever name, dwells within and His hand is as sure as the hollow of God's. See that ye are blind and know that He will lead you safely through the cliffs and quicksand pits of this journey.

There is little of more importance to you than this current integration of the CIA within the other terrorist groups of the world. However, the happenings unfold so quickly as to things you should be keeping up with that we are again forced to turn from the JOURNAL in point to cover happenings of the moment. I cannot always see that which will happen in the moment for all is so dependent upon the actions and changes of man. But you know the goals of the adversary--total operational control of the world WITH DEPOPULATION by year 2000! Therefore, you cannot put off until tomorrow that which will only last through this day. Make sure your heart is at peace with God and the rest will follow quite nicely.

SUPPLIES FOR ESTONIA?

Look carefully at the circumstances in, say, Estonia and the "Eastern Bloc" nations. This day there are closed factories, almost no food, children go to schools in winter garb for there is no fuel allowed in--it is the death of a nation without destruction of the material substance. So where is all your aid going? Do not be foolish, chelas--Skittles and Twinkies won't stop the famine allowed by keeping the supplies away from the people destined for depopulation.

You are sending supplies out of Germany, that were left from the Gulf War? No--that is only an excuse to operate your massive machinery carriers in and out of various places without being noted.

AND IN AFRICA---

You have now in place massive hardware at Gaborone (Africa). America, you have troops (mostly sophisticated advanced weapons operators) in Botswana! These won't be so numerous for there certainly is no need to consider much of a ground war under modern circumstances--just technical missile launchers and bombers.

The U.S. has built the largest runway (airport) in the world--even bigger and longer than Edwards Air Force Base for landing the shuttle--over 300 feet WIDE and longer than any other landing strip anywhere except in the Australian Outback--in the Kalahari! Dear ones, this only matches the British involved along with the Botswana Defense Army who are doing a lot of the "heavy" work. The French, of course, came up with the "contract" for the base but you know how politics works--it is a U.S. (called UN) project.

The British got in by bringing some "training" troops on "manoeuvres" up in the Okavango Delta. They, of course, are after all the mineral wealth and they are just about ready to take it all over very soon now. You will also note the step-up of projected deaths from AIDS. Well, don't hold your breath, because on the basis of epidemic need and total atrocity--the plan is to take over and simply kill the African Blacks--exactly the same operational plan as Pol Pot had and used in Cambodia. The plan for America is a bit more sophisticated, as we shall point out a bit later.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON AMERICA

What of the rest of Europe and Asia? Let us please take one thing at a time and allow me to focus on America for when America loses her Constitution, the other nations will simply be handled accordingly for none can stand against the organized Global move. My remnant is scattered so it matters not--if you are in alignment with our operations. The focus at present has to remain in the U.S. for that is from where HOPE can be brought into ACTION.

"Well," you say, "this is presumed and another figment of Hatonn's insane mind at work through idiot Dharma--nobody does anything this big without it being seen--somewhere!" It is, in fact, set up already--with cover-story by the CIA and the Pentagon. They say the Botswana exercises are just part of a post-Cold War program to train armed forces in sub-Saharan Africa, which is aimed largely at the "downsizing" of armies.

PLANNED STRIKE AT IRAQ

Why would you they want to do that? Why, to stop them from "upsizing", of course.

So, what are those little games and new installations all about? Why are those huge transport planes now bringing missile launchers and massing planes in Africa--in the Kalahari at Gaborone? THE FACTS ARE THAT IT IS A THRUST TO HAVE A SECRET STRIKE AGAINST IRAQ TO FINALLY KNOCK OUT SADDAM HUSSEIN AND HAVE OPERATIONAL DISTANCE FROM ALL THE MIDDLE EAST TO BRING DOWN THE ARAB NATIONS AND WIPE OUT ISLAM. What in the world do you think Gates is about in his cute little jaunt around that area? You are witnessing the operational start-up of this Global military group called United Nations Army under direct control of the coalition of the British Intelligence/KGB/Mossad/CIA. Oh, yes, this is EXACTLY what "they" have been doing while you lusted, leeches, drooled over swimsuit issues of Sports Illustrated, lost your educational programs, lost your religious foundation and LOST YOUR CONSTITUTION. "IT" IS HERE AND IT IS HERE NOW!!

FOREIGN TROOPS IN AMERICA

There are some 3-4 groups of German military units in the U.S. at this time--specifically for "training" sessions. These are secret from the public but presence is recognized and not much issue has been taken as to "secrecy". One is a panzer division (tanks). Now, I remind you of the message of some time back when I told you that Russian tanks priorly stationed across your Southern Border had freely traveled as far North as San Antonio. Well, several of your "closing" bases and ones emptied by the Saudi transfer are now inhabited by Soviet military--mostly from East Germany--who were sent to the U.S. instead of back home to Soviet areas.

Why? Well, when the boom hits the deck--these can represent what you might well call "occupation" "insurers" of following the "new" rules. You must understand that depopulation is now under way and massive death is about to come upon the nations--America first, so that the back-bone of the world will be broken.

I believe you can begin to see why Dharma did not want to write during the past two days.

SAUDI ARABIA--TROOPS

As part of the same big stratagem, if you could be in the "know", you would find that many military bases are going through above top secret actions. Whole squadrons of planes and "pilots" are being (at this very minute of writing) sent to Saudi Arabia under blind orders. Others are left with sealed orders and instructions to set the stage by other covert and overt actions. I have no intention of jeopardizing any beings by divulging more information than this.

BACK AT THE RANCH WHERE THE RAIN IS FALLING

This is perhaps the most heinous of all. The storms are deliberately being sent in to saturate the fault lines along the Mississippi, West and East coastal areas.

These faults are "bombed" with cobalt devices. However, the hope is to not be required to utilize such "dirty" devices to devastate the faults. If the ground is saturated a few non-radioactive charges would cause the shifting without the contamination. If necessary, some air detonations of neutron bombs would cause the shifting. At that point whichever area was under attack would have massive slippage with massive death and destruction without contamination of the atmosphere. This is, of course, the desirable method of gaining control through total chaos and disaster wherein none could represent other than "Act of God" happenings. No, God would have no part in such actions and you had better get that point STRAIGHT. If the earthquake doesn't get the people--the contamination of the ocean will--with diseases which will be pumped in at random. Already multi-millions of gallons of raw sewage contaminate the entire southern coastal waters of California--as a for instance. Clue? The ruptured sewer line in San Diego was the result of a sabotage blast and the government chose to not tell you for fear of panic.

(Editor's Note: A brief "power failure" caused the loss of everything below the heading "Estonia" in this writing; however, the lost portion was found in another, newly named document. Maybe the Commander is taking an even more active hand in the protection of Dharma and the work she does.)

TODAY'S WATCH. CONTINUED

Dharma, I'm sorry to have interrupted your computer and I did carefully label your writing so it wouldn't be lost; however, the enemy was set to destroy your whole computer--writings and all. I believe E.J. located the various fragments of the writing. You are going to be most woozy and sleepy for a while here, just bear with us as we clear the chaotic frequencies resulting. If I blink your system again--GET OUT OF THE ROOM INSTANTLY. Forgive us for the interruption.

LAW CENTER MATTERS

I ask that information be given to the Law Center so that they can follow-up with Dr. Glum. This is a circumstance of gross Constitutional violation by the IRS.

The IRS raided Dr. Glum's property, confiscated much and terrorized the Glums. He was then ordered by the agents to remain in the dwelling until formal release or he would be immediately (without any legal process) incarcerated. This is all caused by alleged Tax evasion, hiding income, etc. The worst thing the man ever did was some work on frequencies, write a book and publish a recipe for Essiac. He did one other NO-NO--he went to Canada to find and bring back Sheep Sorrel (which has been confiscated from American shelves).

I realize that the Center is inundated with cases of which each is urgent and important--please readers, don't forget your Law Center for they are struggling mightily to stay afloat AND cover these myriads of cases.

I am asking them to investigate the Tyson case. The man is, of course, guilty of actions on multitudes of occasions which are heinous and illegal--however, he was railroaded in this particular case and--though the verdict MAY or MAY NOT have been correct--the Constitutional violations against him in the trial were countless and horrendous. You all must realize that the role of the Constitutional Law Center is not to decide innocence or guilt but to insure Constitutional Law and the assumption that "a man is presumed innocent until IF AND/OR PROVEN TO BE GUILTY".

ADL Gets Another Host

2/29/92 #1 HATONN

Another "talk-show" host has been caused to be fired from a Phoenix (not the same station as before) radio station at the attack of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. Please remember that the ADL is not even a Jewish organization--it was originated through British Intelligence. You are the ones in point of the duping, citizens.

I have another request. We have another situation wherein one Bradley R. Smith is having his rights violated also. He has run some ads in many papers among campuses around the nation. Since the story has come out in the New York Times, I believe we can run it herein. Dateline VISALIA, Calif.--

BRADLEY R. SMITH/FREEDOM OF SPEECH

From his cluttered, jerry-built desk in a dining room stuffed nearly to the ceiling with obscure political tracts and self-published musings, Bradley R. Smith is waging a crusade for the minds of America's university students.

Operating out of a modest rented house he shares with his wife, mother and two daughters in this farming community 220 miles southeast of San Francisco, Smith has placed a full-page advertisement in a handful of college newspapers asserting that the Nazis had no policy of exterminating Jews in World War II.

The advertisement has touched off a nationwide debate not over the Holocaust itself, whose facts are attested by those who survived it and by historians everywhere [H: Watch it right here. Those "facts" are NOT attested to even by those who survived it except through total hearsay and historians have even less evidence and any which is found to be against the orthodox view of the camps--is silenced instantly and completely. I repeat--if truth be on the side of the Jews and the orthodox view--the research and stories would only better prove their point of the incidents claimed. But no, they do not allow any investigation and pass laws preventing ones from even voicing difference in ANY measure. This always indicates total cover-up of truth so that the lie is accepted whether there is any basis or none at all. Truth always bears all investigation and ALL publicity--the more the better!] but over the role and rights of college newspapers. Some have published Smith's advertisement, saying they have no right to stifle free speech; others have rejected it on the ground of racism.

Smith says he is trying to open up to free inquiry a subject that post-war historians are afraid to explore because it has been made taboo by "organized Jewry".

"I'm looking for an audience and I'm not looking for a bunch of middle-aged professors who have betrayed the standards of their own universities," he said recently. "I'm looking for young people who aren't carrying the baggage of 50 years of the state-supported line and still have the remnants of an open mind."

Smith, 61, is a native of Los Angeles who never went to college himself and has worked as a book-seller and a construction worker. His family lives modestly on income from radio appearances and his wife's work as a cleaning woman.

COMMITTEE FOR OPEN DEBATE OF HOLOCAUST

As the head and sole participant in an organization that he has titled "The Committee for the Open Debate of the Holocaust", he portrays himself as an independent crusader seeking to correct falsehoods slandering the German people.

But organizations that monitor the publications and speeches of so-called "Holocaust revisionists" believe there are disturbing links between his work and that of anti-Semitic groups.

They say Smith's advertisements are part of a shift by anti-Semitic organizations to distance themselves in the minds of the public from extremists like the neo-Nazi skinheads, the Ku Klux Klan and certain Christian extremists who have embraced their theories, and to reposition themselves as "historians" attempting to expose a hoax.

"This shift in the revisionist movement is part of a general shift among white supremacists to take themselves off the political margins and mainstream themselves," said Leonard Zeskind, research director for the Center for Democratic Renewal in Kansas City, Mo., which monitors the work of racist and hate groups. "It's of a piece with the David Duke campaign."

ENEMIES OF THE STATE

The advertisement says that while the Nazi government "singled out the Jewish people for special and cruel treatment", this was done because Jews were viewed as "enemies of the state" and "an influential force behind international communism". [H: I shall write again about this subject--it is absolutely true: the "star" symbol IS the six-pointed star of Jewish Communism--Marx, Lenin, Trotsky, Bela Kun, Stalin, Litvinoff as accepted in that circle. It was well known and published in the open press in the U.S. that Communism was the "Jewish Strata-gem". It was well recognized everywhere in the general public that the Jews, because of their race-consciousness and their world-wide distribution, could have no allegiance to any specific country prior to Israel's bastard birthing and, as a matter of fact, practically considered themselves as transients everywhere. You must understand that, as stated by the Jew, Chaim Weizmann, Zionist leader, on August 29, 1897, at the First Zionist Congress at Basel, Switzerland (Getting a little sick yet?): "...there are no English, French, German, American, Russian, etc., Jews, but only Jews living in England, France, Germany, America or Russia."

This fact alone would motivate the Jew's urge to accumulate whatever would be in the range of possibility. He is the original opportunist, always ready to take advantage of any situation that may arise in any country where he happens to find himself, and as such, he justifies to himself his characteristic instinct for exploitation which with him literally amounts to a religion. He will be found in any field where his fertile imagination senses an opportunity for profit and possession. I DO NOT SPEAK OF JEWRY IN GENERAL WHO CLAIM THEIR NATIONS AS THEIR OWN AS CITIZENS--I SPEAK OF THOSE ZIONISTS WHO ONLY TAKE FROM A SURROGATE NATION TO FEED THE BASTARD NATION CLAIMED FROM PALESTINE.

It is through this generation after generation of nomad life that this group finds itself with these survival instincts. The Zionist considers himself accountable to no Gentile authority nor any nation who recognizes a Christ attitude in relationship to and under God of Lighted Creation. This includes, of course, that un-morality in trading and playing at politics in a corrupt and questionable manner is completely acceptable. Predatory acts either on a minor scale, or as enterprises of huge proportions, are lawful for him as a Talmudic Jew, for as such he has been taught to regard his racial and religious laws as superseding the Gentile laws of any country. An act of rape, in fact and example, is quite acceptable and permitted the Talmudic Jew, if it is committed against a Gentile person. In practice, therefore, the Gentile public is coming to be fairly well aware of the Jews not recognizing any religious or moral obligation to respect the laws of any country. Even though he may even have bound himself over to carry out his office faithfully if elected--THIS IS RESOLVED IN THE YOM KIP-PUR PRAYER: KOL NIDRE. I won't continue on this now, but we shall take it up again until you come to understand it.]

Confined to work camps, those Jews who died did so of typhus and other diseases that became rampant near the end of the war, the ad asserts. Gas chambers, to the extent they existed at all, were used only as "life-saving" fumigation chambers to delouse clothing and prevent disease, it says.

Some newspapers, including those at Harvard, Brown and Yale have refused to publish the ad, citing their guidelines for acceptable advertising. At the University of California at Berkeley, the editorial board of the Daily Californian rejected the ad in November. Steven M. Markowitz, the editor in chief, said newspaper policy forbids "racist, sexist or violence-inciting advertisements". [H: Now how could this be? If a thing is a lie and is a proven lie after full disclosure of ALL material available and made public--wouldn't Mr. Smith simply be proven to be a nit-wit liar and troublemaker? But lo and behold--the black scorpion in the woodpile--disallowing the information to see the light of the CONTROLLED press! Aren't you scared out of your wits, America, U.S.A.? It has already been silenced in Canada and books from the U.S. bearing such dialogue are now confiscated at the Canadian border!]

Newspapers at some other universities, including Duke and Northwestern, have printed it, often with editorials denouncing its contents but citing free speech as the reason for allowing it. And Rutgers' newspaper rejected it as an advertisement but ran its text on the editorial page accompanied by an opinion article rebutting it. [H: I think you can see the opposition and controllers at work--if the orthodox view is truth--why would such an article need REBUTTING? Also note that listed are THE universities who are also under total control of the Elite as well.]

Five Israeli Occupied Territories

2/29/92 #1 HATONN

I would share a bit of truthful sick humor. A speaker at one of the participating conferences on the Palestinian situation was asked to name the five Israeli-occupied territories. The reply from the speaker was, "You have miscounted--there are only four; southern Lebanon, the Golan Heights, Gaza, and the West Bank." "No sir, it is most definitely you who has miscounted--the fifth and most prized possession of all is your own--THE U.S. CONGRESS!"

You ones toss the term "peace" about like a broken record. There will be no peace in the Middle East until there is justice for the Palestinians, and justice will remain elusive for this brutalized and misunderstood people until the United States stops funding Israel's colonization of Arab lands. I BELIEVE THIS ACTUALLY MEANS, AS YOU WILL SEE--THERE WILL BE WAR, VERY SOON, IN THE MIDDLE EAST FOR IT IS SO PLANNED AT THIS TIME OF WRITING. Yitzhak Shamir, Prime Minister, has told you succinctly and bluntly: "We cannot possibly agree to partition greater Israel again. There is simply NO ROOM FOR TWO STATES IN SUCH A SMALL AREA." The building is going on in the forbidden lands at an all-time massive measure so that if the world objects--the building under way can be claimed--as in, "The law falls 9/10ths to the holders and users."

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

The debate has been particularly sharp and protracted at Northwestern University because a member of its faculty, Dr. Arthur R. Butz, a professor of electrical engineering and computer science, is the author of the most widely known Holocaust revisionist text, THE HOAX OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

The book is published by Noon-tide Press, the publishing arm of the Institute of Historical Review, a Costa Mesa, California, group that the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith has termed "the primary force in the movement to deny the reality of the Holocaust." [H: And, by the way, whose buildings were burned to the ground by the ADL.]

Smith, who said he is not disturbed that his work and that of the institute is used by racist hate groups, has served as editor of its newsletter. He is also a featured speaker at the institute's annual conventions, along with Butz and Robert Faurisson, who was convicted in France of "racial defamation" in 1983 after the publication of his book, THE RUMOR OF AUSCHWITZ. [H: Do we see a nasty pattern here? Again--if these revisionist's views are lie--won't investigation and free speech and research prove as much? Why do they hide and pronounce it illegal to speak out? These ones are threatening, act as terrorists and speak out and accuse these authors of "racism" while I inquire of you the public in reasoning logic--which is racism? a book which simply prints words or ones who actively strike out, terrorize, threaten and denounce??? You had better begin to think on these things--especially you "Jews" who have been led down the primrose path by these radicals. It is costing you your citizenship, Constitutional rights under the Laws of the U.S.A. AND you are considered enemy No. 1 by the Zionists of Israel.]

While Smith is paid by the institute to represent it on radio talk shows, he said that organization "has not put a dime" into the project to place the advertisement in college newspapers. He said private donors pay to run the ads, sometimes at the college from which they graduated.

Smith attributed the refusal of some college newspapers to publish his ad to a "conspiracy among organized Jewry to suppress revisionist theory".

"They are in conflict with the spirit of the First Amendment and certainly the letter of it," he said of the papers.

END OF ARTICLE.

IMMIGRANTS FROM RUSSIA

The immigrants from Russia mostly have no wish to be in Israel and leave as soon as arrangements can be made--MOSTLY INTO THE UNITED STATES--WITH OR WITHOUT PAPERS. You think the immigrants coming into the U.S. from Mexico is horrendous and dangerous? I am here to tell you that a steady and overwhelming flow (unstopped and no effort to follow-up made) is swamping the Immigration Service in New York. People simply get on planes and come into the U.S. They are allowed to pass through--sometimes with appointments made to meet with the Immigration Service within a couple of weeks. The appointments are never kept. There are now hundreds of thousands of such immigrants in your country with absolutely no effort to stem nor stop the flow. What does this mean? It means the Elite are readying the "take-over" people with integrated back-up. The same is happening with Asians on the West Coast and also up through Mexico. I can't do anything about it, chelas, except tell you and then hope you will get your confirmation because the articles slip through into the press daily. It is all but DONE, children.

HOW MANY REALIZE: RADIO BEAMS SHOT DOWN PLANES?

No, there is no error in tense in the above heading! As far back as 1987, prior to the network hookup of the beam grid, you were shooting down aircraft with simple radio waves from microwave towers, radio antennae and radar. Many of your own Black Hawk pilots and copters were brought down in testing exercises--of course the pilots weren't informed about the shoot-downs and simply perished along with the aircraft. The Pentagon did a very flimsy job of denial but billions of dollars were poured into the effect of EMI (electromagnetic interference) on, especially, helicopters. I believe you will note that one military chopper with 8 aboard was brought down off the coast of California yesterday!

Now that the grid is hooked up and operational, you are having the ships drop from the air like flies all over the globe.

You had an Atlas rocket launched a couple of days ago with a "military satellite". What they didn't tell you was that they launched nine other "bouncing" centers to beef-up the "ocean grid".

OZONE HOLES? NO--INGRESS-EGRESS DOORS

Why all the "ozone" action of late? Why the panic? Because there are NO OZONE HOLES--there are holes caused by the Cosmospheres and MY FLEET--in the Radioactive "Frequency" Belt around your globe for our ingress and egress without notable inconvenience from your structured, so-called "shielding" against your feared "extra-terrestrials". If you are of God, you are quite wondrously protected and should be quite happy over happenings and coming events. I think you can guess how miserably concerned and unhappy might be ones of the Evil Adversary! Worse, although they have nothing to fear from OUR INTERVENTION--THEY HAVE WHOLE FLEETS OF FLYING CRAFT AND BASES OFFSHORE EARTH MANNED BY ENEMIES OF THE ELITE CARTEL AND WILLING, READY AND ABLE TO COUNTER A GREAT STAGED BATTLE. YOU, OF GOD, SHALL BE QUITE SURPRISED AT WHO MIGHT BE YOUR "SAVIORS" IN THE PHYSICAL FORMAT.

LONG AGO I TOLD YOU THE JOURNALS WOULD END UP BEING YOUR SHIELD AND SIGN AND SAVE YOUR ASSETS--SO BE IT, FOR I JESTED NOT.

Dharma, there have been so many interruptions in this writing that we have run into the afternoon hours. Please allow us to simply close this portion so that the information can be passed on to those awaiting the writing for the paper. We will simply have to "feel" our way through the ensuing days immediately ahead for much is in the happening. We continue with our work, please. If nothing else, please allow me the HOPE that you have grown beyond the panic and "false surprise". I do suggest that you who just simply cling to this little circle of workers, realize that they are buried in work and have no time for holding hands, heads or "wings" for you to try on for size. You get with the program under God--or move aside--this is the most critical time thus far, on your planet and it will steadily worsen for the Plan is for year 2000 total operational take-over. Each passing day brings its challenges and mine must deal with them--not yours.

Special Report: A Review of War Crimes And Atrocities Committed By The Bush Administration Against Iraq

Chlorella Update

2/28/92 RICK MARTIN

2/28/92 DR. JOHN COLE-MAN

All Rights Reserved

SPECIAL REPORT: A RE- VIEW OF WAR CRIMES AND ATROCITIES COMMIT- TED BY THE BUSH ADMIN- ISTRATION AGAINST IRAQ.

There are times when patriotism must not be allowed to condone war crimes. We heard a great deal about this during the onslaught against Germany by the so-called "allies" in the Second World War. We heard that all Germans were guilty of alleged wartime atrocities of the Nazis, because they did nothing to stop them, and thus the German nation must bear the collective responsibility for what is supposed to have happened.

Yet in spite of preaching the doctrine of collective responsibility when it comes to Germany, the United States does not apply it at home. Take the case of Panama which was invaded by a vastly superior military force, the sole object of which was to oust General Manuel Noriega because he was making too many waves for the drug overlords. President Bush, who likes to think of himself as King Bush, didn't even bother to ask Congress if they would mind. He didn't even try to cover his illegal action (he liked to call the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait "naked aggression") by going to the United Nations, not that the United Nations could absolve him from breaking U.S. and international law.

As a result of "Operation Just Cause" (the name was chosen by new-science scientists with the object of deceiving the American people), 7000 Panamanians perished in the conflict, millions of dollars in damage to property resulted and the legally elected leader of the country was kidnapped and hijacked to Miami.

What is the difference between the illegal Panama "act of barbarism" (the way the President described Iraq's invasion of Kuwait) and the German invasion of Poland in the Second World War? The answer is, "There is no difference." Yet the American people have, by their collective silence, condoned this dastardly act of brigandry and wholesale destruction without so much as a murmur of protest. Why should the Germans be held responsible for the wartime conduct of the Nazis, when we have done worse in Panama and Iraq and now remain silent about such gross misconduct, war crimes and kidnapping?

Let us turn our attention to the war of genocide still being waged against the ancient, small nation of Iraq, a people and a nation that has never done us any harm, although we, the United States, have a long history of trying to rob Iraq of its one natural resource, oil. Since the 1920's there are scores of cases which are a matter of historical record where our second government, the petroleum industry, either through direct efforts by the oil companies or in complicity with the British and United States Governments, made several attempts to take control of Iraqi oil as they have done elsewhere in the Middle East.

British efforts to rob the Iraqi people of their oil culminated in taking a slice of Iraq by violence and force of arms where the richest of all of its oilfields lay (the Rumalia fields), declaring it a new country which it named "Kuwait" and then installing a puppet regime to protect its plunder in the shape of tame Arab sheiks and sultans, of which the rotten, decadent, treasonous, dictatorial Al Sabah regime is the latest.

Yet when Iraq tried to reclaim that which belongs to it, President Bush sent Delilah April Glaspie to blatantly lie, cheat and deceive President Hussein AND THE PEOPLE OF AMERICA by giving Iraq the green light to go into Kuwait on the clear understanding that the United States did not want to intervene in "border disputes between Arab nations".

Worse yet, when brought before the Senate, Glaspie deliberately lied and has thus far escaped the consequences of her treasonous actions not only against Iraq, but against the American people also. Bear this in mind, since we, the people, held Germany collectively responsible for wartime acts, so too are we collectively responsible for the treacherous actions of April Glaspie which resulted in the deaths of close to 1 million people as casualties of a shooting war, and we are also collectively responsible for the horrifying U.S.-sponsored United Nations boycott which has already resulted in the death of thousands of young Iraqi children through starvation, sickness and lack of medical supplies.

WHAT IS DIFFERENT ABOUT WHAT GERMANY IS ALLEGED TO HAVE DONE AND WHAT THE UNITED STATES IS DOING TO THE IRAQI PEOPLE, WHICH WILL GO DOWN IN HISTORY AS THE MOST CRUEL AND SAVAGE CONDUCT BY A POWERFUL SO-CALLED CHRISTIAN NATION, AGAINST A SMALL, HELPLESS AND DEFENCELESS NATION? THE ANSWER IS, "THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE". Yet, when it came to blaming the German nation en masse for the deaths of people who died in German concentration camps from disease and malnutrition brought on by relentless "allied" bombing of Germany's infrastructure, which made it impossible to give any care to the prisoners, we not only blamed the entire German nation, we went even further and put their political and military leaders on trial and hanged most them.

Therefore I submit to you that we, the people, are collectively responsible for the ongoing war crimes and genocide being committed against the nation of Iraq; indeed, we have a duty to put the perpetrators of the war crimes against Panama and Iraq on trial, from April Glaspie to those in the State Department responsible for lying to the American people, to the military commanders, Generals Schwartzkopf and Powell, but what is sauce for the German gander is apparently not sauce for the American goose.

Many Phoenix readers have responded to the idea of growing chlorella at home. In addition to the numerous letters and phone calls at America West, the Culture Collection section of the University of Texas at Austin has also received many requests.

Jeff Zeikus, Ph.D., curator of the algae bank at the university, has been kind enough to telephone and explain some concerns and considerations in this entire matter. After discussion with him and further consideration generally, it has been decided that Tehachapi will be the focal point for algae cultures and "start kits". Dr. Zeikus will be glad to process your orders, as long as it is not for food intake. There are funding source considerations for such departments within a university system, not to mention the FDA. However, he has requested that the Phoenix readers go directly through us for cultures. Dr. Zeikus expressed that a protocol (excuse the term) should be developed that will work... basically, a recipe for successful algae growing at home. In an effort to save our readers undue expense in experimentation, such a procedure will be established in Tehachapi. This will be shared with any wishing the information or for those ordering the start kits which will become available once the procedure has been successfully determined. It is estimated that this may take a few months.

Please be patient. Those working at America West will not have answers to your questions about algae. If you wish to know more about the algae idea, please write a note requesting information and you will be informed as we progress. If you have additional questions, I will try to answer them if you call after 7 p.m. (805) 822-9545. I, and the others working with me, will be learning as we go along... so again, please have patience.

Much to their credit, some have tried to bring justice to bear. Representative Henry Gonzalez, aided by Professor Boyle, a specialist in international law, drew up articles of impeachment against President Bush for breaking the United States Constitution and committing war crimes. But this valiant effort was stalled by some in Congress who were the loudest in condemning Germany, and who now see fit to hold up the bill of impeachment in their committee so that it cannot be brought to the floor for a vote.

We, the people, are collectively responsible for this attempt to pervert the course of justice, because we have not castigated those lawmakers, nor have we demanded that April Glaspie and her compatriots in crime be brought to justice, and this applies to those in the White House who plotted for war (thereby violating the Nuremberg Laws), the military commanders and all those who took part in the Gulf War conspiracy.

What was the battle plan of General Schwarzkopf? It was very simple. Do not attack the Iraqi Army, rather, adopt the Prudential Assurance Strategic Bombing Survey, a diabolical breach of the Geneva Conventions and the Hague Rules of Aerial Bombardment which plan was adopted by war criminals Churchill and the puppet of the Council on Foreign Relations, General Eisenhower.

In 1944 President Roosevelt placed

Franklin D'Olier in charge of the SBS after D'Olier had made a pilgrimage to England to bow the knee before Churchill and the King. Notice how as always, Roosevelt did nothing without prior approval of his controllers in England, which President Bush also adheres to. The Strategic Bombing Survey was put together by twelve teams under Prudential's chief statistician, Henry Vlok. Each team was responsible for researching the effect of the psychological impact of "allied" bombing of Germany.

What the teams came up with was a plan to destroy 65% of German worker housing, at which point Vlok said, German military power would collapse, and this is precisely what happened. The entire project was under the command of Air Marshall "Bomber" Harris, of the Royal Air Force whose planes, night after night, unloaded tons and tons of bombs on German houses.

It was "Bomber" Harris who planned the destruction of the undefended city of Dresden, in which barbarous attack 125,000 Germans, mostly old men, women and children met a horrible death. Harris has to rate along with Churchill, Stalin and Eisenhower as one of the worst war criminals in the annals of modern history.

General Schwarzkopf lifted a leaf out of "Bomber" Harris' book and, once "Desert Storm" got under way, "allied" bombers sped to Baghdad where they attacked civilian housing, power stations, water purification plants, roads, bridges, a factory making baby formula, mosques, schools, air raid shelters and even in one instance a hospital. This licence to kill was delegated to General Schwarzkopf by President George Bush.

What was done in the name of the people of the United States was to commit grave war crimes which left the infrastructure of Iraq almost 90% destroyed, especially so in and around Baghdad and Basra. A British journalist who visited Basra recently filed a report for his newspaper (which was not printed--but I was able to get a copy of it) in which he describes hundred of civilians carrying sick children in their arms, looking for help. The children have no hope of recovery because the United States has cut off all medical supplies, including antibiotics, oxygen, even gauze bandages.

The report gives a graphic description of how the cities of Basra and Baghdad are without clean water and electricity, and emphasizes a grave shortage of food, while untreated sewage from the smashed treatment plants "lies three inches deep all over the place." Schwarzkopf's "Desert Storm" was not war at all, but something far worse, the systematic torturing of a nation that has done the United States no harm, from which ultimately, truly heinous conduct by our Army resulted, all done because the propaganda-opinion makers in America successfully portrayed Saddam Hussein as a demon and the Iraqis as an uncivilized horde.

Not that the American people have ever been given a glimpse of the suffering Iraqi people; the jackals of the U.S. news media drew the curtain on that and there it remains to this day. Had the news media worked as they worked in Vietnam, documenting the sight of women and children crushed by U.S. bombs and the incinerated bodies of those killed in air raid shelters in Baghdad, things would have been different. The public would have reacted with shock and dismay, which is why Pentagon Pete presided over sterile maps and we were not shown the suffering of four million women and children.

America is NOT a country that revels in the killing of innocent women and children, so the Pentagon sanitized its brutal aggression against women and children, lest Americans see and/or hear the truth. Almost the entire U.S. press corps fled Baghdad, not so much out of fear of themselves becoming victims of indiscriminate bombing, but out of the fear of being there and having to report on the countless thousands of civilians who died as a result of the up-dated version of the Strategic Bombing Survey.

The Bush Administration is a government given over to lies, deceit and treason in the most unbridled manner seen thus far in our entire history, a government more ridden by its British masters than any government before it. That is why it lied shamelessly about the deliberate bombing of the Amiriya civilian air raid shelter in Baghdad in which 500 CIVILIAN men, women and children were burned to death or died from smoke inhalation caused by a planned and executed air strike meant to inspire terror in the hearts of the Iraqis, in the hope that they would turn on President Saddam Hussein.

But for a few European correspondents on the scene at Amiriya, the Pentagon would probably have got away with it and there would have been MANY MORE such deliberate targeting of civilian shelters. As it was, the few journalists who reported the truth about Amiriya were savagely mauled and tarred as President Hussein's propagandists. A colleague of mine sent me two photographs taken inside the Amiriya shelter by a German reporter, showing the charred corpses of women and children, burnt beyond recognition, piled one on top of the other like so much cordwood.

Amiriya is a heinous war crime which must not be allowed to go unpunished. Remember, it was done in the name of we, the people, and if we do not want to suffer the fate of collective guilt which history will bestow upon us, then we had better do something about bringing the perpetrators of this horrible crime to justice. We cannot hide behind the old maxim "war is war you know" because the United States was NOT legally at war. Our President had seen fit to by-pass the Constitution which mandates a declaration of war in the strict terms laid down there, and the President simply did not get such a mandate.

Breaking of the Geneva disengagement rules for agreed withdrawal is another war crime of immense proportions which thus far the President and his military leaders have got away with. Under the negotiated agreement, the United States said it would allow Iraqi military convoys to vacate Kuwait City and Basra. Both sides agreed on the Russian military-brokered arrangement.

Yet no sooner were the convoys out on the highways, where they were most vulnerable to attack, when they were set upon by round-the-clock sorties of everything that could fly. One U.S. pilot said of the carnage, "It was like a turkey shoot." Accounts of the massacre published in England told of Iraqi soldiers jumping out of their trucks waving white flags of surrender, but the planes paid no attention to the internationally-recognized symbol of surrender; they were mowed down along with the rest of their fellows. No one knows for certain just how many soldiers were massacred, but estimates from reliable sources indicate that it was between 150,000 and 180,000. Since when has a nation of the caliber of the U.S. fought wars in this fashion?

But worse was yet to come. Along the line of trenches protecting the Iraqi Army position on the border of Saudi Arabia, some 20-25 miles long, Schwarzkopf ordered specially prepared bulldozers with V-shaped blades capable of pushing forward tons of sand, to take up positions along the lines of dug-in Iraqi soldiers. Remember, this was no split-second battlefield tactic, but part of the careful planning that began in 1989 for "Desert Storm".

Without calling upon the Iraqis to surrender, and without warning, the bulldozers moved in and dumped tons of sand on the men in the trenches. Eye-witnesses who visited the scene of slaughter afterwards, said they saw arms, legs and even heads sticking out of the sand. In all, 12,000 Iraqi soldiers were BURIED ALIVE. This is a WAR CRIME of the most brutal kind, and I doubt whether there has ever been anything to equal it in sheer naked barbarity.

Apart from breaking scores of treaties governing the conduct of war, and in spite of such barbaric conduct being forbidden by the U.S. Army Field Manual Code of Conduct, those guilty of this enormous crime are walking around today as if they are heroes. No wonder that the unidentified man who confronted General Schwarzkopf while he was making a propaganda speech about the "rightness of the war"--this in a Christian church--was called him a murderer.

A visibly startled Schwarzkopf looked up as this good citizen approached the rostrum. When he had Schwarzkopf's attention, the man began to shout "murderer, murderer" over and over again until he was removed by the ushers. That citizen, whoever he is, deserves a medal. Would that a few million of us would do the same thing, but by our silence, by our lack of protest, we have in fact CONDONED all of the dreadful war crimes committed in our name by the President and his military commanders.

Then there are the crimes being committed against those few men and women who refused to participate in the war crimes of President Bush and General Schwarzkopf. Because of their conscience, they are today paying a very high price, some having received five-year jail sentences. Lance Corporal Bruce Larsen is one such man. While the yellow ribbons fluttered in the breeze, Larsen, whose status was C.O., was sentenced to six months in prison at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina for refusing to serve in the Gulf. Larsen was threatened with the death penalty, but escaped the fate of some of the other thirty-five C.O.'s who were beaten and given humiliating work details.

The Constitution, even Pentagon rules, guarantee free speech for servicemen. What is happening to these C.O.'s is nothing but a vendetta of hate and spite in violation of the laws of this country. Take the case of Adis Wiley who was in the service but sought C.O. status before the commencement of "Desert Storm". Like scores of others, Wiley had his application for C.O. status turned down. With his sense of the wrongness of the war growing more acute, a confused Wiley went AWOL for two days and then came back. Convicted of "shirking hazardous duties", Wiley is now serving a 35-month sentence.

The case of Captain Yolande Huet-Vaughn, a medical doctor, has received national attention. Dr. Huet-Vaughn flatly refused to go to Saudi Arabia. She raised the ire of the military by addressing anti-war rallies and freely expressing her opposition to the Gulf War. She was arrested and held without bail before being brought before a military court on May 6th, 1991. The charge? "Absence without authority"--refusal to participate in the Gulf War. The military prosecutor, a Captain David Harney, stated quite openly that the Army wanted Dr. Huet-Vaughn singled out for severe punishment.

In his summation to the court Captain Harney said the doctor's crime was not one of desertion, but that of calling the Gulf War "illegal, immoral and unjust...parading around the countryside, holding press conferences and making TV appearances at which she denounced the war." What ever happened to "FREE SPEECH" in America? Since when is it a crime to speak out against something one does not believe in?

What right did the military have to try and muzzle this courageous lady who told the truth? It was not as if the country was LEGALLY at war. The war of genocide against Iraq was an ILLEGAL WAR, because the president did not obtain a legal mandate from Congress to go to war, as clearly laid out, step by step, in the Constitution. Thus Dr. Huet-Vaughn was fully within her rights to protest what she felt was wrong, immoral and unjust.

Captain Harney admitted in court that what he was after was a stiff sentence for Dr. Huet-Vaughn: "If this were a straightforward desertion case, a dismissal and total forfeiture of pay might be appropriate, but gentlemen, her conduct warrants more than that. I ask you to tell the accused that what she did was wrong and that what those soldiers did that went (to Saudi Arabia) was right and honorable."

The fact of the matter is that Dr. Huet-Vaughn did have authority to absent herself under international law AND under U.S. military law as laid down in Army Field Manual 27-10. Dr. Huet-Vaughn had the right to absent herself, based upon her sincere belief that war crimes would be committed during the course of the Gulf War, also crimes against peace and crimes against humanity, all of which subsequently occurred. That the doctor was sincere is underscored by her statement made seven days (January 9th, 1991) before the bombing of Baghdad. "The bombing will target not only Saddam Hussein but over 4 million civilians, of whom 2 million are children," said Dr. Huet-Vaughn.

Under the Hague Regulations of 1907 and the Nuremberg Charter and Principles, which were ratified by the U.S., not only the military but all civilians, and that goes for the President also, indeed all persons, are legally and duty-bound to disobey higher ILLEGAL orders to commit war crimes.

Let us be perfectly clear about this, ALL orders given by President Bush and his military generals were illegal because (1) no mandate for the war was obtained from we, the people through our representatives in Congress. (2) The War Powers Act is very clear--the President was OBLIGED, not if he wanted to or not, but OBLIGED to withdraw all U.S. military forces from the Gulf area WITHIN 60 DAYS OF THEIR DEPLOYMENT in the absence of such a Constitutional mandate.

That is the law--and the President willfully and maliciously in furtherance of the foreign policies of foreign nations, to wit, the United Kingdom and Israel, did blatantly refuse to comply with the provision of the Act. (3) During the expiration of that 60 day period laid down by the Act at authorization given by Congress (totally improper as it was), the President had NO AUTHORITY to continue to prepare for war, which is precisely what George Bush and his military commanders did. It follows that all those involved in preparations for war were committing a crime under U.S. law.

Not satisfied with his law-breaking activities thus far, President Bush continued the study of how to promote the war. One of his commanders, Air Force General Michael Duggan, let it be known in September 1990, that the Bush war plan called for round the clock bombing of Baghdad. For his indiscretions, Duggan was dismissed. (4) The Nuremberg Charter, to which the U.S. is a signatory, states under Principle VI.b: wanton destruction of a city IS A WAR CRIME. What General Duggan had so vividly described as the game plan to wantonly destroy Baghdad was thus a clearly definable WAR CRIME.

That 200 cruise missiles were fired indiscriminately at Baghdad from U.S. naval vessels at sea is documented, and also documented is that the President and Secretary Cheney are guilty of planning to use nuclear weapons against Iraq, a fact Cheney did not deny. Incidentally, the 200 Tomahawk cruise missiles fired blindly at Baghdad cost we, the people, $1 million each. (5) The use of nuclear weapons and preparation for their use is forbidden by the very U.N. that Bush ran to for his "mandate".

The Pentagon and Marine Brigadier-General Neale lied to the American people when they insisted that smart bombs hit only selected military targets in Baghdad. (6) Subsequent investigations found--and this was reported to the GAO--that only 10% of the bombs used to wantonly destroy Baghdad were smart bombs, and astoundingly, 40% of the smart bombs completely missed their "military targets"

(7) Was the United States ever authorized to use force against Iraq? The answer is, "NO". What Thomas Pickering, the U.S.-Israeli Ambassador to the U.N., actually got was Resolution 678 which said that the cash register coalition should try to carry out earlier resolutions, BY ALL MEANS NECESSARY, BUT DID NOT SPECIFICALLY MENTION FORCE OF ARMS. IN FACT THE CHINESE AND THE SOVIETS SAID THEY WOULD VETO RESOLUTION 678 IF IT SPECIFICALLY AUTHORIZED THE USE OF FORCE.

By rushing to war at the command of then British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher who ordered President Bush to meet her at the Royal Institute for International Affairs (RIIA) at its branch office, The Aspen Institute, the President dropped all efforts to negotiate with Iraq for withdrawal of its forces from Kuwait.

(8) This violated the U.N. Charter of 1945, which says that ALL avenues for a peaceful solution to a dispute MUST be undertaken before resorting to arms. While the U.S. is not duty bound to obey U.N. laws, BUSH, AS A MATTER OF EXPEDIENCY, CHOSE TO ELEVATE U.N. LAW ABOVE U.S. LAW. Thus President Bush violated this provision in the U.N. Charter of 1945, and tried to have his cake and eat it.

(9) President Bush willfully, and with deep malice toward the people of Iraq, brushed aside his obligations under U.N. Charter Article 33 which is mandatory, in fact it is a fundamental obligation, to seek a solution to any situation where war may break out. What was the response of President Bush to his obligation to seek a peaceful settlement of THE UNITED STATES AND KUWAIT-created crisis over Iraq? "NO NEGOTIATIONS, NO COMPROMISES, NO ATTEMPTS AT FACE-SAVING AND NO REWARDS FOR AGGRESSION."

Contrast these words with the actions of the Bush Administration in rewarding Khmer Rouge aggression in Cambodia, the invasion of East Timor by Indonesia and the subsequent killing of 50,000 East Timorese, the Yugoslav Army invasion of Croatia and the continuing genocide going on there, the Israeli invasion of Lebanon in 1982 that resulted in the death of 30,000 Lebanese, and the continued occupation of the West Bank and Gaza in open defiance of scores of U.N. resolutions ordering Israel to give up the land it has taken from the Palestinians and Arabs.

Was there ever such an EVIL REGIME as the Bush Administration? And yet what do we find? There are still millions of Americans who are willing to vote him into office for another four years so that he can deliver us, bound hand and foot, into the One World Government-New World Order.

(10) Planning and preparing for war is a CRIME AGAINST PEACE, under the Nuremberg Charter, yet that is exactly what General Schwarzkopf was doing from early 1989 to the spring of 1990. Clearly this is a war crime, and Schwarzkopf should be indicted on this alone, not to mention the scores of other war crimes of which he is patently guilty.

(11) The fact that the President and his military commanders were preparing for war with Iraq is confirmed in a letter written by Brigadier Al Fahd, director of Kuwait intelligence, to the decadent, amoral, feudal dictator of the country, Sheikal Sabah. Detailed in the letter of November 14th, 1989, is what transpired between himself and William Webster, director of the CIA at the time. Webster, Al Fahd reported, said, "It was important to take advantage of the deteriorating economic situation in Iraq...Broad cooperation should be initiated" (between the U.S. and Kuwait).

(12) Quite naturally, as is usual in instances where the CIA is caught with its pants down, the letter was dubbed "a forgery", but the agency did admit that a top security official from Kuwait visited Webster in November 1989. It was soon after this meeting that General Schwarzkopf started planning and preparing for war against Iraq. Even the most ardent supporter of this alleged "war hero" will concede that what Webster, Al Fahd, President Bush and Schwarzkopf did was a crime under Nuremberg statutes.

(13). U.S. military units were inoculated with anti-bacteriological warfare serums, which was done WITHOUT THE INFORMED CONSENT OF THE SOLDIERS, this in spite of the fact that there was NO indication that Iraq had BAC weapons nor that it intended to use BAC weapons against U.S. forces. FORCED INOCULATION, which this was, is a violation of the Nuremberg Code on Medical Ethics. In the years to come, those soldiers who were inoculated might well develop sicknesses that will cause their death. At this point there is no way to be sure of what could happen to their health in the future.

Dr. Huet-Vaughn voiced strong objections to the inoculation program and she was within her rights to do so under U.S. military law and U.S. law. For that, the prosecutor wanted to make an example of her, while the real perpetrators of the war of genocide against Iraq get away scot-free. The deep silence from the U.N. about the breach of its own laws, over and over again, by the Bush Administration points up the fact that it is only a rubber stamp for British-Bush inspired foreign policy, which should never be seen as acceptable to the people of the United States of America.

Isn't the Huet-Vaughn case a most blatant attempt by the Army to censor the thought-processes of one who honestly and sincerely chose to remain in the U.S. and voice opposition to the Bush War? What prosecutor Harney asked for was that Dr. Huet-Vaughn not be punished for being absent without permission, BUT FOR HER HIGH IDEALS AND HER COURAGE IN SPEAKING OUT AGAINST THE UNJUST, ILLEGAL WAR OF GENOCIDE for which the Commander-in-Chief of the Army in which she served had no mandate, and which, in terms of the U.S. Constitution, Nuremberg Statutes and Geneva Conventions was ILLEGAL.

In addition to the military going after her, Dr. Huet-Vaughn is facing the prospect of being disbarred by the Kansas State Board of Health. Not that Dr. Huet-Vaughn is guilty of medical incompetence or misconduct, but solely because she dared to exercise her right to free speech. Making the excuse that Dr. Huet-Vaughn was a "convicted felon", the Board is going to disbar her.

Where are the American Civil Liberties Union, the pacifist Quaker and Mennonite churches? The Mennonites above all should come forward and help Dr. Huet-Vaughn and all prisoners of conscience; the Mennonites suffered greatly under the Bolsheviks, but perhaps the American Mennonite Church needs the right kind of cause before it will act.

I am not a supporter of Congressman Conyers, but give him full credit, because of his pressure on the GAO, the C.O. process will be reviewed. Adverse publicity resulting from the activity of THE FEW who showed up the way the military is behaving, is bringing results. Some C.O.'s are being released before finishing their sentences, but only after agreeing not to talk to the press or anyone else about their experiences.

There is a move afoot to introduce legislation later this year to end the imprisonment of those who refused to take part in the ILLEGAL Gulf War. The bill will also propose a revision of the methods used to determine C.O. status and to forbid punishment for those who choose to apply for it. There will actually be two bills, one calling for a special panel to review all cases where C.O.'s were given bad-conduct discharges, and one to review board membership make-up.

It is worth quoting Representative Henry Gonzalez's Resolution of Impeachment of President George Herbert Walker Bush, January 16th, 1991:

"The President has violated the Constitution, Federal law and the U.N. Charter by bribing, intimidating, and threatening others, including members of the Security Council...It is clear that the President paid off members of the U.N. Security Council, in return for their votes...The debt of Egypt, for example, was forgiven--$7 billion, without Congressional approval...A $140 million loan to China was agreed to. The Soviet Union was promised $7 billion in aid...Colombia was promised assistance to its armed forces...Zaire was promised assistance for its military forces and partial forgiveness of its debt. Saudi Arabia was promised $12 billion in arms, and more than that, (a loan) of $23-$30 billion...Yemen was threatened with termination of support. And the United States finally paid off $187 million of its debt to the United Nations after the vote President Bush sought was made."

What is very urgently needed--and this should take place before the November elections--is a full and unhindered investigation by the House and Senate of all of the events leading up to, and including events that occurred during, the war. The barbarous conduct of the United States military must be brought to account. No one should be immune from such proceedings, particularly not President Bush, Secretary Cheney, Secretary Baker, Generals Schwarzkopf and Powell, April Glaspie and all those in the State Department who assisted in preparing for war against Iraq.

This must be a no-holds-barred

Lest We Forget: The Gulf War, "Desert Storm"

2/92 DR. JOHN COLEMAN
INSIDER REPORT
All Rights Reserved

An anniversary of a different kind was recently celebrated in America, one of the illegal war of genocide waged against the nation of Iraq. This war is still ongoing, one in which civilian casualties have already far outstripped military casualties. The American people were lied to by a coalition of conspirators drawn from the White House, the Department of Defense, the national media and by a most heinous "advertising agency", Hill and Knowlton.

Hill and Knowlton played a decisive role in selling the Gulf War to the American people in a manner most blatant and foul. Hill and Knowlton, combined with the Al Sabah regime of Kuwait tried to, blatantly and with malice aforethought, sell the people of America a false bill of goods. CBS' "60 Minutes" exposure of the corrupt Al Sabah family, and the equally corrupt management of Hill and Knowlton, deserves full marks. I suspect that somehow the Al Sabah must have double-crossed CBS somewhere.

That Hill and Knowlton and the Kuwait ambassador to Washington would stoop so low as to use the ambassador's fifteen-year old daughter to lie, sob and sigh her way through a Senate hearing demonstrates the lengths to which the unprincipled dictators of Kuwait will go. (Kuwait's ambassador is a member of the dictatorial Al Sabah family. Kuwait is run on patrimony. All jobs of note go to Al Sabah family members.) The BIG LIE told by the ambassador's daughter was that Iraqi soldiers had taken infants in incubators in a hospital in Kuwait City, thrown them on the floor and left them to die. The alleged motive was that the incubators were needed in Iraq!

When the BIG LIE originally surfaced, I consulted some of my files on British propaganda used against the Germans early in the First World War. One which caught my attention was a lurid description of German soldiers cutting off the arms of very young French children. This bore a remarkable resemblance to the yarn pitched by the ambassador's daughter.

The war against Iraq was one of the most brilliant exercises of propaganda combined with censorship ever to be mounted against any nation. The chief victims of this massive effort were the people of the United States of America, who are left to foot the bill for the cost of the war, adding insult to injury.

President Bush refused to listen to calls for moderation and gave President Hussein a ridiculously short "time limit" with which to comply to his demands. That was the signal for censorship and deception to go into action. Backed by false and/or non-existent front organizations and funded by millions upon millions of dollars, the majority of Americans were brainwashed by the Hill and Knowlton machine. The belief in the BIG LIE is that our soldiers were in the Middle East to restore "democracy" to Kuwait, a condition that could not be "restored" in that dictatorial fiefdom called Kuwait.

The United States Government played its role in deceiving the American people all too well. Witness what happened when the dogs-of-war were unleashed against an unsuspecting Iraqi people, a people who hitherto had regarded the United States as an honourable nation not given to barbaric conduct.

A London Times correspondent in Baghdad described the atmosphere, as the January 15th deadline to exit Baghdad approached, as "conspiratorial". It was. The American contingent received daily bulletins from U.S. charge d'affaires Wilson and knew very well that a firestorm of bombs and cruise missiles was about to be dropped on the city. Clearly, President Bush did not want any eyewitnesses to the barbarism about to be unleashed upon Baghdad.

Clearly, the Bush Administration was expecting a very high body count. Had the reporters stayed on the plot to "dehumanize", the war would have failed. The theory of dehumanization of wars was put together in a position paper written by the Tavistock Institute for Human Relations and actually became official policy of the Department of Defense in the wake of the Vietnam War. It clearly established that the sight of soldiers and civilians being killed in Vietnam had HUMANIZED the war in American living rooms all across the country. So, future wars would have to be DEHUMANIZED. Henceforth, only ATROCITY STORIES aimed at the enemy would be permitted to be humanized. That is why the Hill-Knowlton-Al Sabah BIG LIE was so successful. The lies of the daughter of Ambassador Al Sabah proved the point very handily.

It should be noted that, by prearrangement with the Department of Defense, the only shots of the war the public would see would be on the ground "distance shots" and those taken by our air armada. As for cruise missiles, their successful launches would be recorded, but not the devastation and loss of human life where they landed. There is a good deal of topological psychology involved. With the absence of journalists on the spot, allegations of indiscriminate bombing could be refuted by government or its agents, including CBS in particular.

Marine General Neale, standing in front of a sterile map, pointer in hand was what we, the public, got. Only on two occasions that I can remember did journalists, who were on the spot, break the conspiracy to dehumanize the war. This occurred when U.S. planes bombed and destroyed a factory making powdered milk for babies (falsely said to be a "biological weapons factory") and when the Amiriyah civilian bomb shelter was deliberately targeted. U.S. planes used a new type of bomb to make sure that everyone in the shelter died. Reporters could describe in horrific detail the incinerated corpses of Iraqi women and children. (This was part of the DOD's strategy to terrorize the civilian population in the hope that they would force President Hussein to give up.)

The editors of those bastions of the need to tell the truth a-la-Watergate, The New York Times, The Los Angeles Times, The Washington Post, were like shrinking violets. Those coy, shy editors refused to avail themselves of some of the most brilliant journalistic reports to emerge from the bombing of Baghdad, graphic accounts of hundreds of bombs raining down indiscriminately on mosques, hospitals, schools, water purification plants, sewage treatment plants, civilian housing and electricity-generating plants.

The people of the United States never saw the brilliant reporting of Alfonso Rojo of El Mundo, whose articles were reprinted by The Guardian. Behind the scenes, those non-American reporters who stayed behind in Baghdad to report the truth were vilified and called cowardly propagandists for President Saddam Hussein! The great Peter Arness of CNN, treated like a hero, was no different than the rest of the Bush Administration. Alfonso Rojo reported to his paper that Arness had flatly refused to allow him to use CNN facilities to file his reports with El Mundo.

Neither did the United States media do any better before Operation "Desert Storm" began. War, they said, was the only alternative. WITHOUT EXCEPTION, THE SCORES OF PROPOSALS MADE BY THE RUSSIAN MILITARY AND THE IRAQI GOVERNMENT WERE TOTALLY IGNORED. There were in fact PLENTY OF ALTERNATIVES TO WAR, but none that the Israelis, the decadent Al Sabah or British Petroleum would agree to.

The media is as guilty as hell of following the Bush line, a total fabrication, that Iraq was only weeks away from coming out with nuclear-armed rockets that would wipe Kuwait, Riyadh and Tel-Aviv off the map. (It is a wonder they didn't throw in New York, Washington and San Diego for good measure.) The media did not bother to enquire as to the basis of such contentions.

"Truth is the first casualty of war," the saying goes, but in the case of the Bush Administration, the U.S.

investigation and let the chips fall where they may. Finally, to lay these important matters to rest, the House committee holding up the Gonzalez articles of impeachment must be pressured to bring the bill to the floor of the House so that it can be discussed and voted on in the manner prescribed by the U.S. Constitution. It is up to we, the people, to see that these actions are taken forthwith. If we fail to do it, then we must accept the verdict of history, that we as a nation, were collectively responsible for what the President and his men did in our name.

media, Hill and Knowlton and the decadent Al Sabah family, truth became not only a casualty but was buried six feet underground along with the corpses of 12,000 Iraqi soldiers, where it remains to this day.

Fortunately, not all people are as easy to lead astray as our own American public appears to be. Congressman Louis T. MacFadden once sadly remarked that "nobody reads the Congressional Report", a truism echoed by Congressman Pattman. Their complaints were well justified. Had we taken the time and trouble, we could have used the Congressional Record to refute the lies.

In November 1990, Walter Donnelly wrote a brief, which is in the Congressional Record and the Library of Congress, that said: "Iraq cannot now make nuclear explosives and will not be able to for many years." In addition, one of the most respected nuclear physicists in the world, Norman Dombey, expressed an INFORMED OPINION that it was not within the capabilities of Iraq to turn out nuclear weapons.

On the anniversary of the Gulf War, the media was banging again the big drum of patriotism on behalf of a President who badly wants another four years in the White House. Reports like this and many others should be placed in the hands of millions of Americans who have been deprived of the truth about the Gulf War. If we could accomplish this, not only would President Bush go down to defeat, but we might even be able to throw off the yoke of the upper-level parallel secret government that got us into the Gulf War in the first place.

Russia Now; Countdown To Chaos

2/29/92 DR. J. COLEMAN

All Rights Reserved

You would never know it if you depend on the establishment news media, but Russia in February of 1992 is in a situation bordering on chaos and despair, which cannot last much longer. The United States is facing a more dangerous period now than at the height of the Cold War and, because the self appointed Moscow leadership has virtually lost control of the economic and political situation, there is almost no one who could stop hostilities from breaking out.

It is not like it was with Stalin during the Korean crisis, when the United States was able to corral and contain Stalin who showed dangerous signs of going out of control with his hatred of the Washington "cosmopolitans". Containing Yeltsin would have zero effect on the pressure cooker that is the Commonwealth Federation today.

The reason it is felt that the situation is more dangerous now than it was at any time during the Cold War is due to the 27,000 ICBM's pointed at the United States and China; whether Yeltsin has control of them is very much in question. This is in addition to the THOUSANDS of tactical weapons not destroyed by the INF Treaty, the military having moved them behind the Ural mountains before the counting started.

If we are to believe the news media, everything is well in the new independent states, but is this really so? Only political security can make things go well in any country, and political solutions can only be based upon fairness and equity. These newly independent states have absolutely no experience with democracy, which has to be translated from words into deeds. Prior to the breakup of the USSR, the leaders of these new nations acted as though democracy meant the man with the most guns, and it is not practical to expect them to become like America in a short space of time.

There is freer access to news from Russia than there has been at any time since 1917, yet, what we are getting is a mass of simplified, stereotyped information that does not match up with current events. If you watch the televised establishment news media or read its newspapers, you will have observed that the greater part of its news is confined to Moscow. Like most Westerners, the American news media has yet to discover that Moscow is not Russia, any more than Las Vegas is the United States.

To begin to get close to understanding what conditions are in Russia, we need to look at the provincial areas, for it is here where the future of Russia will be decided. This does not sit well with the Moscow intellectuals because class distinction in Russia exists in a very real way, as it has always done, and Yeltsin and his Brookings Institution and Heritage Foundation Harvard advisors do not like the idea that their advice is being ignored by Russia of the towns and villages, the farming areas and the still firmly entrenched bureaucracy who, for the most part, are going to have to be reckoned with.

The commentaries made by the network news specialists are so far removed from rural Russia as to make one think that they are talking about a different Russia, another Russia, not the Russia of the Czars where peasants carried weight and were paternally treated. The same holds good for the spokesmen of the Brookings Institution and the Heritage Foundation. Far from clearing the air and giving us a better understanding of what is transpiring, the misconceptions springing from these intellectual circles, while opposite in style and substance to cold war reporting, leave us with a vacuum in reliable information because they obfuscate rather than reveal the true conditions that prevail.

We have just recently witnessed where this can lead to in the violent overthrow of the first democratically elected President in what used to be the USSR. In May 1991, Zviad Gamasakhurdia, a former "dissident", was elected President of the Republic of Georgia, with 87% of the vote. His election preceded that of Yeltsin by three weeks and monitors from several countries, including U.N. observers, declared the election clean and totally fair.

What then caused the violent overthrow of Gamasakhurdia? His election victory did not sit well with the Tbilisi intellectuals because the bulk of Gamasakhurdia's support came from the country, from farmers, from peasants and poor people, a situation which caused hate to fester and simmer among the intellectuals in Moscow and Tbilisi. The truth of the matter is that the intellectuals whose shoes had never been dirtied by the mud of the rural areas, did not like the idea that these "lumpen" would rule over them. In this attitude they were encouraged by the "experts" from Brookings and Heritage.

Why had President Gamasakhurdia fallen out of favour with the Moscow and Tbilisi elite? What caused the rift between him and them? After all, it was not that long ago that he was one of them. Trouble started soon after President Gamasakhurdia took office with his telling his poor constituents to beware of "the dark forces attempting to destroy the will of the majority of Georgians." Gamasakhurdia then shook Yeltsin and the intellectuals in Tbilisi to their foundations; he revealed that the 1991 earthquake which destroyed a good part of the northern part of Georgia WAS ARTIFICIALLY CREATED "BY AGENTS OF THE KREMLIN IN THE U.S."

Shevardnadze is part of a massive conspiracy that involves even President Bush," he told his countrymen. He also made the mistake of attacking what the U.S. press called "ethnic minorities", a thinly veiled reference to Zionists, calling them as Stalin had done before him, "enemies of the people". It was not long thereafter that the intellectuals ousted Gamasakhurdia "in the name of democracy", but the only democracy that had been voted into power was that of the ousted Gamasakhurdia.

How did the "enemies of the people" justify ousting by force a democratically elected president? They were unable to say that the election that brought him to power was crooked because dozens of neutral observers said it was clean and fair. Wild as it may sound, the intellectuals in Tbilisi and Moscow said it was necessary to eject Gamasakhurdia because it was impossible for them to stand by and see Georgia run from a power base of "people of low origins, uneducated farmers and workers". But was not their real reason that Gamasakhurdia opposed the new Bukharin-Jeffrey Sachs' "free market" society and revealed the truth about the earthquake?

This, the intellectuals called "unacceptable", and so they drove out a democratically elected president with machine gun bullets, artillery shells, mortar bombs, grenades and rockets. As in Georgia, so in Russia proper. There is no democracy in place. Oh yes, there is a lot of talk about democracy but democracy is still a long way from reality in Russia; otherwise, how is it that President Yeltsin rules by decree and how is it that Moscow's politicians were quick to characterize the destroyers of Georgian democracy as "the saviours of Georgia".

In the face of such absolute untruth, the U.S. State Department maintained a stony silence, and President Bush did not rush to the United Nations to obtain a mandate to invade Georgia "to restore democracy" as he claimed when he launched his totally illegal war against the nation of Iraq. If democratically elected President Gamasakhurdia was waiting for help from the United Nations and the U.S., he waited in vain, for no help was forthcoming from the Knight in badly tarnished armor who had so avidly rushed to the rescue of the UNDEMOCRATIC feudal dictatorship of the Al Sabah family of Kuwait.

The State Department will probably try to excuse itself at some time in the future by saying that it was misled by intelligence reports and therefore did not take any action to support the Georgian President, but this would be another lie. Another State Department falsehood is to tell Yeltsin to accept the so-called "free market economy" in the big cities, especially Moscow, when it is clear to everyone on the spot that what Muscovites have is a thriving black market economy.

The State Department's cheer leader, James Baker III, wants us to believe that support of Boris Yeltsin is necessary for the survival of the U.S. This sounds like an echo from the past when we consider that it was the Bakers of their day who, in the period 1917-1923, pumped us full of the same notions about the desperate need for the West to support Lenin and Trotsky without trying to equate them with democracy.

Never mind that Yeltsin's actions bear only a passing resemblance to democratic principles and ideals, somewhat akin to the "democratic principles" followed by the late Armand Hammer when he supplied "humanitarian aid" in the form of surplus U.S. Army food and equipment to Lenin and Marx. What was Hammer's motive? Well, his motive was much the same as Yeltsin's today, which is to gain control of property, land, military property (a rich prize), stores, banks, communications--especially television--housing, railroads and factories.

Yeltsin, above all, knows that property is power and, in this respect, he does not differ in the least from the Marxists of the hey-day of Lenin. This huge bonanza is up for grabs, the "state" no longer owns it. The military understand Yeltsin far better than Heritage or Brookings which is why they call Yeltsin "a money grabbing opportunist", and which is why Colonel Viktor Alksnis said, "While we are democratizing Russia, the country is going to hell." Yeltsin's dirty double-cross of Gorbachev has fueled the hatred felt by the SOYUZ military group for Yeltsin.

Thus today Russia is beset with a new ideology, having allegedly shucked off the old Communism and totalitarianism, only to find that they are now expected to immediately embrace a new ideology. In their enthusiasm to make "free market capitalism" work, the Bush-Baker crowd show their total lack of understanding of the heart and soul of the Russian people and their long history which almost guarantees that they will regard this new foreign ideology thrust upon them from outside Russia in the same light that they regarded Bolshevism when it was thrust upon them from the outside as a foreign ideology.

Like Bolshevism, it will take a lot of persuading to convince the vast majority of Russian citizenry that the new "civil society" is better than Communism. At present all they see are long lines outside empty food stores, "shock therapy ala-Jeffrey Sachs", which is forcing thousands of Muscovites to overrun the biggest (almost empty of goods to sell) Moscow department store in a Russian version of a flea market. Everybody who has anything to sell--even some of the American "relief" teddy bears are being hawked--goes there in the desperate hope of selling wedding rings, gold locket, china, fur coats, icons--anything at all that will bring in a few rubles to buy food which is out of reach of pensioners, the young and the very old, because of "free market economy" skyrocketing prices.

A noted political science professor characterizes the Russian economy as being "plundered by the politicians"; this does not differ in many respects from what the Bolsheviks did, only the players have changed and today it is not Communism, but "free market economy" doing the thieving. How long can the Russian people stand for this? The answer, according to social scientists and political commentators, is that the break will come in April unless there has been a complete reversal of conditions in the big cities for it is there that rebellion will break out.

As we already know, the failed coup, which was not a coup at all, was not supported by the masses. Only about 1% of the people in Moscow took to the streets, the remaining 99% distancing themselves from it. The army is quite scathing about the alleged coup which they say was merely a ruse engineered by Washington in order to bring Yeltsin to power. Gorbachev, the Army says, could not stay on because he had to take the blame for the collapse of the USSR, so he was the scapegoat.

What the Bush-Baker-One-World crowd show little understanding of is that the same 99% of Russians do not want the American brand of democracy or a "free market economy", which they simply do not understand and, worse yet, do not want to understand. As for the military leadership of the SOYUZ group, they see in it as a savage attack on the most vulnerable part of Russian society, the old and the very young who have no one to represent them. "If Yeltsin thinks he can ride to power on the backs of these defenseless people, then he better think again," a SOYUZ spokesman told a reporter from the London Guardian newspaper.

So perhaps the ritual chanting of the Washington establishment that the West either pour on the aid to Moscow or face the consequences of a new "ism" has some merit, BUT FOR DISTINCTLY DIFFERENT REASONS. Those of the "left" in America opposed the Vietnam War because they saw it as an attempt to choke Communism to death in the country, while those on the "right" who had any vision at all, opposed it because they quite properly perceived it to be a Kissinger plot to weaken America by pouring thousands of young men and billions of dollars down a rat-hole called "Vietnam." Evil is as evil does.

Similarly, the left in Russia sees the American invasion of their country as an attempt to choke their Communist ideology to death while those on the right see it as a new ideology which is draining the country dry. Neither left nor right in Russia is willing to accept it. Communism is not dead, far from it. The leaders in most of the former Soviet Union, especially those calling for radical economic and political reforms, consist in the main of the defunct Communist Party leadership.

They have no intention of giving up the privileges and power enjoyed under Communism: not for them to stand in long food lines or sell trinkets in Moscow's department store flea markets just to get enough money to buy food--when it is available. They say they have changed and now embrace democracy, but how can we be sure of this? There is very real danger to the West in this situation because this entrenched bureaucracy is where the power lies in these times of chaos.

As I mentioned in my newsletter a short while ago, the biggest Moscow newspaper, "Izvestia" is having a struggle to buy newsprint paper, not because there is a shortage of it, but because the factory managers of the paper mills are refusing to accept rubles in payment. The same holds good for nearly all sectors of production, which remains firmly in the hands of "former" Communists.

The almost total absence of goods,

as opposed to scarcities under Gorbachev, has resulted in a shift in power away from the Kremlin. It is the factory managers and the food producers who hold sway because these "ex-Communists" have full control of production and distribution of not only food, but also clothing, machinery, fertilizer, invaluable spares, etc. Many of these large state factories and farms are in the provinces, their managers now more powerful than Yeltsin, for he cannot govern without the full cooperation of the converts to democracy. The situation is somewhat akin to Jews who became Christians in order to escape the Inquisition.

The new converts to "democracy" have it in their power to starve large cities like Moscow and St. Petersburg, just as Lenin arranged in St. Petersburg in 1905, when Father Gampon led the hungry crowds who stormed the Winter Palace of Czar Nicholas II. It was not that there was no bread; it was just that the factory managers and producers deliberately withheld supplies, or those controlling transport "lost" bread shipments to the capital.

The provincial rulers, more than the Moscow rulers, hold the balance of power, with their long-standing very close ties to local military commanders and their undoubted ability to withhold supplies, as "Izvestia" discovered. How can they survive apart from Moscow? The answer is very simple, by carrying on the age-old tradition of bartering among themselves. This FACT OF LIFE has gone completely unnoticed by the Washington elite and their paid prostitute press. The truth is, these factory and farm managers hold the power of life and death over millions of city dwellers and no one can do anything to put an end to the situation.

Can Washington be that stupid to ignore what is going on in the provinces where, while diplomat Robert Strauss shuttles back and forth between Moscow and Washington and James Baker III is received in the glittering halls of the Kremlin, the old bureaucracy says it is not they who will shape the future of Russia but the new "elite" class in the provinces, without whose full cooperation and the full cooperation of the military, Yeltsin cannot rule? Is Yeltsin on his way out? Authoritative sources say he has until the end of April to get his act together, and it is highly doubtful that he can. His fate lies in the vast reaches of Russian farmland with its provincial towns and villages, and its factories of all kinds.

We can be sure that, like the Tbilisi intellectuals, the Moscow intellectuals are seething at being controlled by people of "low origin, farmers and workers", the "lumpen" of the social scale. They do not like the idea that their fate may be decided in the remote countryside any more than did their intellectual brethren in Tbilisi, so what can be done about it? Not much at this stage, but nothing is fixed in stone when it comes to politics.

One thing is certain, for the foreseeable future--unless the Georgian model is followed--97% of the economy will remain in the hands of the new elite, the "old guard" of the Communist Party members who deserted Moscow in droves when they felt the end was near. Of course they do not call themselves Communists anymore, but a rose by any other name is just as sweet. Changing names of cities, towns and streets has given Washington a perception that things have changed, but they haven't.

The old bureaucracy is still firmly in the saddle and class--that seemingly insurmountable barrier in Russia from the days of Prince Dimitri Donskoi's victory over the Indo-Turk Khazarians to the present day--still prevails. It should therefore come as no surprise that in the March 1991 referendum, 77% of the population voted to preserve the USSR. These are the ties that bind, and bear in mind that most nationalist leaders prefer Stalin with his cradle-to-grave welfare-care to Yeltsin's "shock therapy" imposed on them by the "cosmopolitans in Washington".

Another, perhaps equally important tie that binds the provincial and newly independent states outside of Russia is the fact that, while the USSR collapsed in the political sense, very little if any changes have occurred in the infrastructure. While these states, which the U.S. rushed to recognize--as PAMYAT put it--"in order to speed the break-up of our country", and while some are making pretenses at having their own government, military and currency--and some have even won diplomatic recognition--the "ties that bind" have not been severed.

The factory grids are interdependent and most factories depend on goods and components made in other factories. There is a common power grid, except for the military, which has its own power grid and its own economy. The Army is still in its garrison headquarters in ALL the newly "independent" states, which makes it a formidable force to be reckoned with as James Baker III discovered on his first visit to Moscow after the Gulf War. Even as George Bush overlooked Pat Buchanan, so the Washington establishment overlooked the Soviet Army commanders. Now, Baker and the New World Order Company are waking up to the fact that 77% of the Russian people are opposed to their company doing business in Russia, and opposition from the military is strong.

As much as Yeltsin strives to convince Washington that he is in charge, this isn't really true because the administrative sector still controls society. Under Communism, the party controlled the state, but the bureaucracy controlled society. Now the bureaucrats control society in a more direct manner. As Gorbachev found out to his cost, and some say that he spent hours cursing them, without the cooperation of the factory managers, growers, producers and shippers, he simply was not able to rule, no matter how many widely publicized trips he made to the outside world.

The same holds true for Boris Yeltsin and George Bush, who will find this out in November--in the political sense--when he discovers that his international wanderings cut no ice with millions of Americans whose lives have been distorted by the 1991 depression; he will also discover that "Desert Storm" is no substitute for a job, a roof over one's head and food on the table.

How does President Bush go about explaining that giving away our money by the boatload through the Rockefeller scam of "foreign aid" and "loan guarantees" for Israel (loan guarantees mean paying up when default occurs) and the BILLIONS of dollars wasted on "Desert Storm", somehow ranks higher than the needs of 40 million unemployed and almost 5 million homeless Americans? Well, he isn't going to be able to pull it off and he may even have to drop out before the Republican Party Convention in favor of a Quayle-Baker ticket.

The same dilemma, in another arena, confronted Gorbachev, a dilemma that did not go away when Yeltsin grabbed power on a double-cross: How to implement Jeffrey Sachs' free market "reforms" where the entrenched administrative sector, the bureaucracy, entrenched alongside its military ally, refused to go the way of Poland, and besides which, 77% of the people are opposed to it. "If this is democracy, then give me Stalin any day," grumbled one lady who came away empty-handed after standing in line for hours to buy sausages. "I don't want Yeltsin's newfangled ideas, I WANT SAUSAGES," she bellowed in frustration.

Put ourselves in her shoes. How long would Americans put up with what is happening in Russia, without making a great deal of noise and probably going into revolt? Yeltsin, like his predecessor, is discovering that it cannot be done, even given his highly publicized visits to empty food stores to encourage the weary being turned away empty handed. As Gorbachev discovered before him, there is no way out of this problem. "Was Communism ever this bad?" one would-be shopper asked Yeltsin. (We in the U.S. are not allowed to see things of this nature.) With a smile and a wave of the hand, Yeltsin assured her that the problems with food will soon pass. "They are only temporary," he assured her.

The distinct impression of my source, who has just returned from a prolonged visit to Russia, is that Yeltsin is fast losing control, especially of the economy and that, far from overcoming the administrative sector, it is the administrative sector--the bureaucracy--that is overcoming Yeltsin. "Those leopards are never going to change their spots so Yeltsin has the option of joining his Vice President or else resort to force, which could instantly ignite a new world war," he told me.

That leaves us with the other possibility, that gradually a new Union of Soviet Republics will emerge from the chaos. It is not impossible, given the interdependence of the bureaucracy and the need for economic creation. The United States was premature in flying to recognize the Commonwealth States, also known as the "Russian Federation", which even now does not have a proper, authorized constitution, but an emerging new state will not be the "Russian Federation" to which Yeltsin gave birth.

How can anything succeed when it is not backed by the people? The people did not give their assent to Yeltsin's trip to Belarus to break up the USSR. That was an action based upon a particularly dirty double cross in which the victim was Gorbachev, who did not intend to preside over a collapsed Communist Party but was betrayed by non-party members in his inner circle. Gorbachev intended to promote measures that would transform, not destroy, the largest country in the world.

Democracy has not brought bread and sausages and until it does, there will be little democracy. "Democracy" was supposed to have arrived on the wings of the botched coup.

Instead of real freedom, democracy has brought the slavery of bread lines, skyrocketing prices and a feeling of deep anger and resentment.

Many Communists call themselves democrats but that doesn't mean anything--only that they are going in the direction of the prevailing wind. The interesting thing to note is that the Gulag system and the judicial system are still in place in Russia and instead of abolishing the repressive state security apparatus, Yeltsin has actually strengthened it. Thus despotism, in the shape of Yeltsin, lurks around the corner, just barely out of sight.

Apart from his problems with rampant inflation coupled with a terrible shortage of bread and sausage, and indeed, food of all types, Yeltsin is facing off against the military, who became a power to be reckoned with in 1989 when officers were allowed to stand for the new parliament. During his last days in office in December 1991, Gorbachev was still pleading with the military and Yeltsin is continuing where Gorbachev left off, but with less success than his predecessor achieved.

Yeltsin's other major problem is coming to the boil now, the severe problem of ethnic identity. In February Armenians complained of attacks by Azerbaijanis, old divisions between the Christian states and the Moslem states. When power was centralized in Moscow, this could be dealt with, but not now. There is a distinct possibility that the "other countries," Turkistan, Uzbekistan and Azerbaijan, might not grant Christian Russian minorities in their borders the same rights as their Moslem counterparts.

With 25 million "REAL RUSSIANS" in these territories, it is unlikely that they will be deserted by their White Russian friends in Russia. This is especially true of the military. What could happen is a widening of ethnic conflicts such as is taking place in Armenia. As Valentin Rasputin, PAMYAT spokesman, author, writer and movie maker said of the situation, "The others (the Moslem races in independent states) have only one link with Russia and that is the language, but speaking Russian does not make you a real Russian. We must never forget Dimitri Donskoi and the Battle of Kulikova, where we White Russians destroyed the heathen hordes."

Most of the White Russian population is concentrated in Russia, and they have never looked too kindly upon their colored fellow-citizens. There is a strong possibility that, with guidance from a central authority lacking, we may see serious wars erupt as friction grows between the colored populations and what PAMYAT calls "real Russians".

To get back to the military. In January of this year, 5,000 angry officers confronted Yeltsin in the Kremlin. They expressed their sense of outrage over the way in which the "independent states are trying to seize our property and defy our authority. We are also fed up with the situation in the Baltic where our fellow soldiers feel isolated and betrayed." Yeltsin tried to pacify them by promising these things would not be allowed to continue and that he was ordering better pay and better housing for them. The officers maintained a stony silence which provoked Yeltsin into an angry retort: "What is the matter with you? I offer you better pay and better housing and you say nothing."

But there is more to the officer's grievances than poor housing and poor pay. There is the question of AUTHORITY. The military has always had authority in the provinces and now the Transcaucuses is trying to usurp it, but the military remains in power, sharing it with the industrial complex and no one else, as it has always done. If there is ethnic violence the military will not hesitate to go in on the side of their friends. Transcaucuses is a really hot spot at this time.

Yeltsin has assured the Bush-Baker machine that there will be no trouble with the Army, "because the generals accept the transition." This is far from being true. Russian nationalist organizations, including a new one calling itself simply "OURS", have entered into a new and more militant combined stance against Yeltsin and they have encouraged young officers to play a greater role in politics. This is happening in SOYUZ where Colonel Viktor Alksnis and a group of young captains are calling the shots as they did in the ouster of Shevardnadze, the former foreign minister. Yeltsin cannot simply order them to stop as it would cause his overthrow; the military are only a single step away from taking power as it is and he knows that it would not take much for them to move to the center stage.

Instead of confrontation, Yeltsin opted for explanation, telling them that some of the decidedly undemocratic measures he has introduced are "only temporary". But it is a Russian tradition, dating back to the days of Czar Alexander, that harsh measures are "only temporary". The Russian military and PAMYAT are asking, "Where is all this 'Democracy'; we don't see it. Yeltsin rules by decree as the Czars did and as the Bolsheviks did." The very real danger is that if the economic crisis--and this means also the food crisis--is not resolved by April of this year, we shall probably see a genuine coup, but this time by people taking to the streets with the full backing and blessing of the security forces (MKD-KGB) and the Army.

This could plunge the country into another experiment, another "ism", perhaps even militarism, which would mean a severe problem for George Bush and the Washington establishment. This could come if regional elections are postponed once again and, as already stated, the awful food shortages in the big cities are not ended. The military in particular are not going to let Yeltsin rule for much longer by using Czarist and Bolshevik methods. Another thing, none of the "reforms" have brought the promised privatization and there has been no move to break up state control of agriculture and industry--and the much vaunted land reforms are showing signs of collapsing.

Standing squarely against Yeltsin is the man he selected to be his Vice President, Aleksandr Rutskoi, who, since January this year, has grown very outspoken about the shortcomings of Yeltsin's "reforms", which outspokenness earned the respect of the SOYUZ officer group. Rutskoi, who carries formidable clout, is fast becoming an ardent nationalist and has been embraced by members of the Russian National Monuments Committee and PAMYAT, both militantly nationalist groups. He got a standing ovation when he addressed a meeting of nationalists recently, denouncing the policies of Yeltsin's economic minister, Yegor Gaidar, whom he accused of practicing "economic genocide", and "robbing defenseless people of their savings, jobs, and necessities."

Unless Yeltsin tries to form a coalition with Rutskoi, he will have his task cut out for him to keep things together in Russia. How did Yeltsin come to power, apart from double-crossing Gorbachev? He did it by attacking Communism but now, much to his discomfort, he finds that there isn't much support from the new democrats (read old guard Communist bureaucrats) for his reforms that have brought nothing but chaos and confusion to Russia. Yeltsin is walking a frayed tight-rope as he keeps a brave and cheery outward appearance which may be good for public relations with Washington but brings nothing but angry responses from people at home.

The only reason why Yeltsin would introduce high prices so early in his presidency is to get rid of what his advisors believe is an excess of rubles in the public's hands, which his advisors here in the U.S. have told him is a cause of inflation. But what Harvard, Brookings and Heritage have apparently not said is that, by doing this, Yeltsin has taken the life savings of the people, or "robbed them" as Vice President Aleksandr Rutskoi put it. This is one of several reasons why most observers on the spot agree that a crisis of chaos will come as early as April this year, unless the serious problems now confronting Yeltsin are solved before then.

If there is one thing that will ensure Yeltsin's failure, it is the "American invasion", as PAMYAT calls it. There are literally thousands of American businessmen descending upon Moscow, all eager to show Yeltsin how to do it, but none of them with any experience in the history of Russia. This is deeply resented. The military industrial complex and the bureaucracy prefers a German invasion. Asked why, one nationalist "OURS" spokesman said, "Simply because we do not trust the Washington cosmopolitans. What you are seeing now is what they tried to do to Stalin through Bukharin, but we will not permit our motherland to become a second-class United States."

Thus far the Bush plan to deal with the burgeoning chaos in Russia and in the Commonwealth states has proved totally ineffective. When Vice President Aleksandr Rutskoi was asked at the meeting of nationalists I mentioned earlier, "Isn't Yeltsin benefiting from what the United States is doing, isn't the Bush policy working?" Rutskoi replied, "WHAT POLICY?" which brought roars of laughter. Another military officer from SOYUZ asked Rutskoi what he thought about the Bush plan to absorb Russian nuclear scientists. "Well, as far as I am concerned, it isn't going to happen; we are not going to allow our best scientists to go to the United States," he said.

Taking all factors into account, the crisis of chaos grows louder and more clamorous with each passing day and must be a real headache for the Bush Administration. The fact of the matter is that only the Russians can solve their problems and solutions pushed onto them by Jeffrey Sachs, Heritage, and Brookings are exacerbating, not ameliorating, the grave problems facing the country. We are certainly in a count-down to chaos in Russia.
