Another Adversarial Attack Supports The Truth

(Editor's note: The following is the latest installment in a long and colorful array of attacks against THE TRUTH presented in our publications. We feel greatly honored that our bringing of THE TRUTH is so highly recognized and respected by the "intelligence" community as to warrant such disinformation attempts as you'll read about below. The original FAX from the adversarial forces appears on page 29, where this story continues. You should read that accusatory gem before Commander's response below.)

ATTENTION!

The following Cease and Desist "order" (??) was forwarded to me this morning and therefore I shall share it with you immediately. If it doesn't bear the most remarkable "fingerprints" of duly self-authorized adversaries (among us), then I have never seen such obvious evidence. (Editors: Please scan this in, so that you have full benefit of the original document.) You will NEVER get better confirmation of several facts: 1) Persons behind this take us very seriously indeed. 2) They would have found exactly what they were looking for or they would never have DE-NIED it. (If, in fact, they monitored ANYTHING!) 3) Six months of special monitoring just to discount a "fictitious" space commander is most amusing and bespeaks the idiocy of the government system—WHY DID THEY PUT IN THE MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR "ALIEN" SPACE SEARCH

PROGRAM IN THE WINTER PAST? Could this mean the elaborate network and tower transceiver stations and grid system IS NOT for monitoring "ET" communications but is, in fact, used for OTHER MORE MAGNIFICENT PURPOSES? (???) 4) "Final test monitoring today (2100Z26JUL)..."? Why didn't they simply monitor the CIA and Edwards Field systems? Why would one "intelligence" service waste so much time, personnel and money when others are monitoring already? Further, does the one who instigated this meandering nonsense not realize that he represented the need for concern—originally? 5) Are we supposed to be impressed with a Col. Bill Straton, Hawaii 992441232852?. Please, print the text as received and then I shall respond.

Earthquake Note

We received a call today (7/27/92) from technically reliable sources in Los Angeles reporting that on Friday there occurred over 100 small earthquakes in the greater LA area. Some of these were measured to be, conveniently, just under the 5.0 Richter level that requires public announcement. Also, many many people are reporting feeling ill: dizzy, nauseous and other equilibrium problems and other effects of very low frequency acoustic waves (infrasound) associated with ground motion.

The Falkland Islands Crisis-- A Few Details They Didn't Mention

(Editor's note: It was 10 years ago in April and May that Great Britain and Argentina entered into a little altercation over some tiny, barren islands in the South Atlantic. The news media had us all saying the situation was little more than "a tempest in a teapot" over ownership of some cold and wind-swept real estate that hardly seemed worth the effort.

In JOURNAL #13, SKELTONS IN THE CLOSET, pages 155-181, Commander Hatonn painted a slightly different picture of the affair. It seems a few little details were left out of what we were told about the event. We are reprinting the Falkland Islands story below because it would be well to keep in mind that the same underlying forces behind that outrageous deception are behind today's, too--only with ten years more practice. And for those readers following the recent LIBERATOR outlay of secret underground military installations and their functions--well, here's a few more to add to the collection under the heading of "your tax dollars at work.")

4/1/90 #1 HATONN

To give proper placement of background, you must return in your memories back to April of 1982. Move back to the Falkland Islands and South Georgia Island and the war between Argentina and Great Britain over these barren, wind-swept wastelands. Or, were they? Oh, dear ones, what you have not been told would fill mammoth volumes and we haven't time for that. I am going to give you information which is well-known in certain circles but hardly known at all to the populace--you the people. A few have come into this information; enough to confirm the truth of my writings at any rate.

On the surface the whole incident represented a dispute between Argentina and Great Britain over those barren islands. But surely you have learned by now, that nothing is as it seems. You are told exactly that which you are to believe and you diligently go about following the orders.

The so-called Falklands crisis was just the visible tip of a giant military operation. During the month of April 1982, fierce naval battles were taking place, not only in the South Atlantic but also in the South Pacific.

The hostilities were very effectively kept under arrest by wartime censorship on all sides of the dispute (and yes, the U.S. was most certainly in the dispute).

On April 30, a total naval and air blockade of the Falklands by the Royal Navy began. At the same time a counterblockade had been declared by Argentina in the same area.

To be effective, a blockade must be imposed over a period of time, but the Royal Navy didn't have sufficient time. Winter was coming on in the South Atlantic, and the British supply lines were overextended. Having traveled so far, however, Her Majesty's navy could not simply drop the blockade and sail away in a few weeks time without drawing blood from Argentina. As a result the British would be forced to undertake military operations very quickly no matter how risky they might turn out to be.

There was also another reason why the Royal Navy had no choice but to engage the Argentine forces in combat. That reason was that the Royal Navy had already suffered losses in secret combat that same month. Only when publicly admitted fighting erupts would the British dare to admit that they had already suffered great battle losses. And further, to obtain that cover-story, the British had no choice but to sail into combat; but in so doing, they would be risking even heavier losses on top of those already sustained. In short, Her Majesty's navy sailed directly into a trap.

THE SPANISH ARMADA

The events which unfolded in the South Atlantic carried strange, ironic echoes of your past. For weeks you had been hearing countless commentators referring to the British task force as an "armada". The British of all people ought to have been very uneasy with that description. The original Spanish Armada some 400 years ago was renowned as a seemingly invincible fighting force, but it came to grief in a naval disaster so complete that it changed the course of history--and it was none other than the English navy that destroyed the Spanish Armada.

The original Spanish Armada put to sea in 1588 during the reign of England's Queen Elizabeth I. The Armada was an invasion fleet carrying thousands of crack fighting men to invade England. They were met by the daring sea dogs of Sir Francis Drake. Drake and his small fast ships turned the tables on the Spanish Armada by changing the rules of battle. The English fleet was equipped with new longer-range guns, and it stayed upwind and out of reach. From there the English pounded, smashed, and shattered the big ships of the mighty Armada. When it was all over, barely half the Spanish fleet was left to limp back to port. Drake's defeat of the Spanish Armada was a shock to the world. It opened the door for England under Queen Elizabeth I to start its expansion into a truly global empire.

Four hundred years later, history seemed to have come full circle. Queen Elizabeth II witnessed the dismantling of the world empire whose heyday began under Queen Elizabeth I, and now the cultures of England and of Spain were once again in confrontation. Once again a so-called armada was preparing for invasion, but this time the armada was British, not Spanish. Four hundred years past Sir Francis Drake was the hero of the day; today, the ghost of Francis Drake would once again be on the scene.

Please note that the South Atlantic war zone was at the eastern end of the Drake Passage around the southern tip of South America. The defeat of the Spanish Armada four centuries ago broke the back of Spain's naval supremacy, and now it appeared that the defeat of the new British armada might very well break the back of what remained of the once glorious Royal Navy.

MILITARY SECRET OF SOUTH GEORGIA ISLAND

When the Falkland Islands crisis began in early April it looked at first like a mere tempest in a little teapot. For a century and a half since 1833, the Islands had been controlled by Great Britain. During that entire time, British sovereignty over the Falklands had been disputed by Argentina. There had been countless threats by Argentina to seize the Islands, which it called the Malvinas, but the threats had always come to nothing in the past and Britain had never even gotten very concerned over them.

The Islands are four times as distant from Argentina as Cuba is from the United States, and they are not much of a prize, it would seem, under any circumstances. After over 150 years of occupancy, the Falklands are home to fewer than 2,000 British settlers and a great number of sheep and some lovely penguins. In short, the remote Falkland Islands would hardly look like something to fight over, and yet there you were watching another crisis take place. You watched as literal gun-battle war erupted between Great Britain and Argentina and further, without much more than fanfare on your news media presentations.

The Thatcher government was acting as if it had forgotten all about its usual preoccupation with the Soviet threat at NATO's doorstep. Instead, Britain was throwing almost everything it had at Argentina—aircraft carriers, cruisers, destroyers, submarines, assault ships - you name it and if they had it they used it. Luxury cruise ships were even commissioned and turned into troop carriers overnight. Wave after wave of additional assault troops were activated and sent to join the fleet even after it sailed. Ships and submarines were pulled off station from normal NATO duty and sent to reinforce the task force. The initial 40-ship force grew steadily over the ensuing weeks into an armada numbering over 70. Over two-thirds of the entire Royal Navy was already deployed to the South Atlantic off Argentina.

As this was watched in the unfolding, a lot of people were asking: What's this fight really all about? The most popular answer suggested in the major media was "oil". Vast deposits of oil were known to exist under the continental shelf between Argentina and the Falklands (or so it was projected) and that had been espoused for well over a decade. In no way could it explain the timing of the sudden military offensive by Argentina, and oil explained even less about the Argentine seizure of South Georgia Island.

South Georgia Island is some 800 miles east of the Falklands with no known oil deposits anywhere near it; and compared to South Georgia, the Falklands are quite an island paradise. South Georgia Island is covered with rugged mountains, treacherous valleys, glaciers, and semi-permanent snow. Most of it is uninhabitable. On top of all that, Argentina had absolutely no legal or historical claim to South Georgia Island. In that respect it stood in sharp contrast to the Falklands.

In your early 1830s the Falklands were occupied for a while by Argentine colonists. In 1833 the British expelled them and took over the Islands. For that and other historical reasons, Argentina argued that the Falklands actually belonged to Argentina, not Britain.

But no such argument was possible for South Georgia Island. It was always controlled by Britain, never by Argentina or Spain. The Argentine seizure of South Georgia Island looked even more unreasonable from a military point of view. Argentina's leaders were military men and they thought in military terms and this should be a great clue to you readers. They were well aware ahead of time that far-off South Georgia Island could not possibly be held for long. By seizing it they were setting themselves up to absorb a military defeat, as the Island was retaken by Britain. So the question was: Why did Argentina's military junta bother with the seemingly worthless South Georgia Island at all?

The answers to all those questions were, of course, military, not political or economic. South Georgia Island possesses an enormous military secret! It is a giant underground installation buried under the mountains at the northwest end of the Island. The real reason for the so-called Falkland crisis was this secret installation, together with two other similar installations which I will also describe in a moment.

The secret military complexes had been in existence for many years; they were not new. What was new was an accelerated nuclear war timetable of the American Bolshevik war planners in Washington D.C. For the prior two months reports of details of that war plan were leaking out as quickly as they could be verified.

The plan called for NUCLEAR WAR ONE to erupt by September of the year 1982. It was that fast-approaching nuclear war threat that caused the so-called Falklands crisis to erupt when it did.

What was actually taking place was a coordinated effort to spoil part of the Bolshevik grand strategy for the coming nuclear war. The mutual enemies of the American Bolsheviks in the U.S.—namely, the Rockefeller cartel—and Russia's new rulers in the Kremlin were behind the crisis. They were trying to ruin Phase #3 of the "PROJECT Z" war plan which has since been revealed. [Described later in this narrative.]

That phase was to be world domination by the American Bolsheviks after both Russia and the United States had been destroyed in NUCLEAR WAR ONE. The key to this plan was the existence of secret weapons stockpiles in various places around the world!

The American Bolshevik military planners in America were working with other Bolshevik agents in key military positions of other countries to set off war. Having done that, they intended to ride out the nuclear holocaust they had caused, safe and cozy in Government war bunkers! When the warring nations would finally lie smoldering and exhausted, the Bolsheviks would leave the shattered remains of their host countries. They would rendezvous at the secret weapons installations and bring their weapons into the open. They would confront the world with the only remaining fresh, up-to-date powerful military force on earth; and using that military power, they would become the undisputed rulers of the world. They planned to do all that, and they planned to pave the way for world domination by setting off NUCLEAR WAR ONE within mere months of that April—remember, September!

The Rockefeller cartel and Russia's new anti-Bolshevik rulers were working together in a race against time to try to head off the Bolshevik war plan.

The Bolsheviks in the U.S. were already benefitting from war preparations which were started by the Rockefellers long before. It had only been about three years since the Rockefellers were dislodged as the prime movers of the United States Government by the Bolsheviks. Since that time the United States Government had been a house divided, torn by internal power struggles between rival Bolshevik and Rockefeller factions. But prior to that, the United States had been dominated for decades both economically and politically by the four Rockefeller brothers.

In 1961 the Brothers launched a new long-range plan for world domination. It was a two-pronged strategy, half visible and half secret, which has been described prior to this writing. It was a plan for the United States to arm to the teeth in secret while appearing to disarm gradually. Without repeating all the details, the basic idea was grandiose indeed, yet simple. By deliberately appearing weak, the Rockefeller-controlled United States would maneuver itself into a nuclear war with Russia. Then the secret weapons, including superweapons, would be unleashed to smash Russia and take over the world.

When they set the grand plan in motion in 1961, the Rockefeller Brothers were looking ahead to a nuclear war by the late 1970s. Their military analysts concluded very early that the war being planned would have very different effects on the Northern and Southern Hemispheres. Both superpowers, the United States and the Soviet Union, are located well up in the Northern Hemisphere; so are the other full-fledged nuclear powers—Great Britain, France, Red China, and India. By contrast, the strategic targets for nuclear war in the Southern Hemisphere are relatively few and far between. In other words, it was expected that the coming nuclear war would be essentially a Northern Hemisphere war.

In an all-out nuclear holocaust it is known that serious radioactive fallout would gradually spread to affect even areas not initially hit by war. But there are limits to how far the war clouds can spread. It was discovered long ago that there is very little mixing between the air of the Northern and Southern Hemispheres. In the northern half of your planet, cold air from the North Pole works its way southward toward the equator, then it works its way back to the north as warm air. A mirror image of this process takes up the southern half of the planet. Northern and Southern Hemisphere air meet in the equatorial zone, but very little of the air changes places.

The military conclusion is this: The coming nuclear war could ruin vast areas of the Northern Hemisphere for generations forward; but if the calculations are correct, the Southern Hemisphere could escape virtually unaffected by the war. This was surely music to the ears of the four Rockefeller Brothers. A quick look at the globe of the world shows why this would be a reasonable calculation. The Rockefeller cartel has dominated Latin America ever since World War II. As discussed in prior publications, Nelson Rockefeller solidified the cartel grip on Latin America during the war. He accomplished this as so-called "Coordinator of Hemispheric Defense" for then-President Franklin D. Roosevelt. So that takes care of the South American continent and its natural resources.

Then let us turn to the African continent. There, too, Rockefeller control was already in effect over wide areas of Black Africa, especially south of the equator. All this was thanks to the efforts of John D. Rockefeller III, as previously detailed elsewhere.

Looking around the globe, the most important remaining land masses from the standpoint of world domination are AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND. Thanks to World War II, both were wide open to the Rockefellers.

The Rockefeller Brothers decided to establish secret military installations in the Southern Hemisphere for use after the coming war. By this means they expected to become the masters of the surviving southern half of planet Earth; after the Northern Hemisphere gradually recovered from the nuclear holocaust, the Rockefeller empire would be able to pick up the pieces. In this way the third generation Rockefeller Brothers expected their family dynasty to inherit the Earth.

In order to control the Southern Hemisphere militarily after the war, some means would have to be available to project military power onto any land mass. For example, revolts against Rockefeller domination would require troops—not a blast from the beam weapons on the Moon (another very interesting story).

The most critical factor for postwar military domination of the world was found to be a NAVY! A minimum of two secret naval fleets would be required—one based in the South Atlantic, the other in the South Pacific. Since the reserve naval fleets were to be kept secret until after the Northern Hemisphere nuclear war, they could not be built in existing shipyards. New construction facilities had to be built and they had to be hidden. To hide an entire shipyard is no small task; they take up a lot of space. On top of that, it was essential that the ships remain hidden after they were built. The best way to achieve that was to combine the shipyard and naval base into one over-all secret installation. Finally, the secret naval installation had to be invulnerable to nuclear attack; otherwise if its existence were ever discovered prematurely, the secret navy might be wiped out.

The combined requirements for secrecy, space, and protection against attack were formidable; but one day in 1959, while all these plans were still in the early stages of development, the answer presented itself. During a so-called banking trip to Sweden, David Rockefeller was given a tour of a unique hidden naval port. The port is hollowed out from solid granite cliffs which come right down to the water. The entrance to the port is a gigantic hole in the side of the cliff which can be sealed off with enormous steel doors. Inside this big doorway, on the water a huge cavity has been hollowed out to accommodate ships.

The Rockefeller Brothers and their military advisers decided that a bigger, more secret, better protected version of the Swedish hidden port was just what they wanted. A survey of candidate sites was then initiated. The site survey covered coastal areas throughout the Southern Hemisphere. Many areas were rejected very quickly because the topography was wrong. Other areas were rejected because they were too close to the equator. Still others had to be ruled out because there were too many people living nearby, making the desired level of secrecy impossible. Finally, it was essential that the sites chosen for the secret naval installations be totally secure politically.

At last the sites for the secret naval installations were selected. In the South Pacific extreme southern New Zealand was selected. New Zealand would be extremely important during a coming war.

In order to obtain the necessary space, the secret New Zealand naval installation had to be divided up into two sites located close together. One is at the extreme southwest tip of South Island where the mountain range known as the Southern Alps comes down virtually to the water's edge. The other part of the installation is built into the northwest tip of Stewart Island, which is off the tip of South Island. The Stewart Island facility is hollowed out within a rise known as Mt. Anglem.

The New Zealand location met all the requirements. Ever since World War II the government of New Zealand has been tied even closer to the United States than to Great Britain. The location is far from the equator, and the installations are buried deep under mountains, protected from nuclear attack. They are also too deep to be reached by particle-beam attacks, and the New Zealand site is well situated to command the entire South Pacific.

In the South Atlantic an even more perfect site was found. That site, my friends, is South Georgia Island. It is located perfectly for naval domination of the entire South Atlantic. The tall rugged mountains provided a perfect location for the secret installation at the northwest tip of the 100-mile long island. It is controlled by Great Britain whose government, like that of New Zealand, was willing to cooperate; and South Georgia Island was virtually uninhabited except for a whaling station on the northeast coast. The whaling station was some 50 miles away from the secret new installation which was being built, but Britain took no chances. In 1965 the whaling station was closed down. Since that time there have been no inhabitants on South Georgia Island except for a few dozen alleged Antarctic scientists.

Construction of the secret naval facilities—two in New Zealand, one on South Georgia Island—began in the early 1960s. The techniques were adapted from those used previously to build other large underground facilities, such as the NORAD installation inside Cheyenne Mountain, Colorado (there are others well protected underground but we shall not go into those presently). However, these installations and techniques were adapted in radically new ways to achieve construction access directly from the sea instead of overland. In this way, the sheltering mountain was left undisturbed in appearance both during and after construction.

The cuts in the mountain side which were necessary to let ships in and out were kept as small as possible and were well camouflaged. Like the Swedish hidden naval port arrangement, the entrances to the secret installations can be sealed. When sealed, the entrance is virtually impossible to detect unless you know exactly where it is; and unlike most large construction projects, there are no tailing or piles of leftover rock lying round to attract undue attention. The man-made caverns which house the secret naval installations are enormous, but all the rock and debris was disposed of at sea.

Once the secret naval facilities were built, they had to be outfitted for ship construction and dockside storage. The fake disarmament of the United States during the 1960's contributed greatly to this task. From 1961 to 1968 one man played a pivotal role in this elaborate Rockefeller scheme. He was then-Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara. All through the 1960's McNamara presided over the public paring back of America's visible military power. This included the closing down and dismantling of entire shipyards. What you were not told was where all that shipyard equipment went afterwards. Where it went, my friends, was to the new secret installations which were being outfitted in New Zealand and South Georgia Island!

The secret naval installations have been used as duplication facilities to reproduce certain ships and submarines designed and built here in the United States. As Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger told Congress, "It is cheaper to build two ships at a time." That is most especially true if the second ship is an exact duplicate of the first. This has become even more true in recent years through the use of computerized manufacturing techniques.

The secret naval fleets which have been built at the secret installations are made up of duplicates—EXACT DUPLICATES of certain other ships and submarines. They are all nuclear powered—nuclear "subs"; nuclear cruisers; nuclear destroyers; and yes, nuclear aircraft carriers, at least three of them. A secret twin was built for the U.S.S. Nimitz, for the U.S.S. Eisenhower, and for the U.S.S. Carl Vincent. All have been financed through the gigantic cost overruns, so called, that you constantly hear about in the Defense Department and can't find anything about due to above top secret designations; all three carriers have been provided with a full complement of aircraft whose manufacture was financed in the same manner.

The ships of the secret American Bolshevik naval fleets are all duplicates of other nuclear-powered vessels. Even so, the secret naval ships possess one key difference.

The so-called "Stealth Program" may not be too effective with the planes, etc., you have been allowed to witness but, oh my, lots of interesting things go on with things you aren't given to witness.

There was developed a type of electromagnetic invisibility shielding. This technique makes an object invisible from a distance by distorting light waves in its vicinity.

A whole new fleet of Phantom warplanes went into crash production under a top secret shield. They utilize this principle; and all of the secret American Bolshevik navy ships have already been outfitted with similar Stealth-field equipment! The Stealth principle is actually easier to apply to ships than to airplanes because there is more room for the powerful equipment that generates the force field.

After NUCLEAR WAR ONE, the secret Stealth navy of the American Bolsheviks would be light years ahead of any other navy left on earth. It would be perfect for the intended role of world domination. The Rockefellers set it all in motion long ago—but about 1979 they lost control of the United States Military. Now it is the American Bolsheviks who are in control, and they are most surely bent straight ahead on war.

Now don't go about forgetting about the Nazi war machine also in the Antarctic— isn't this just about as much intrigue as you can take at one sitting?

5/31/90 #2 HATONN

Hatonn in the Light of the Radiant One, to continue.

SECRET NAVAL WAR OF THE SOUTHERN HEMISPHERE

As we move along and to make things clear, we shall discuss the referred to "PROJECT Z" I mentioned in the previous chapter. It is the new Bolshevik three-phase strategy for NUCLEAR WAR ONE. However, since it didn't come off on schedule I feel we will not be misleading if we stick with references to the area of the Antarctic. The most skeletons to arise from the dead to getcha are all parading around "under" and "within" the Southern Hemisphere and that, after all, was the subject of this Journal. I do have trouble keeping to one subject for all facets are so intertwined.

The plan in 1982 was that of an elite group of American Bolshevik military planners by which the U.S. would strike the first nuclear blow, followed by all-out thermonuclear war with Russia.

After having set off the holocaust, the Bolsheviks in the U.S. and in certain other countries planned to ride it out safely in comfortable war bunkers already in place and well stocked with luxuries. Finally, after NUCLEAR WAR ONE fizzled out in stalemate, they planned to leave behind the ashes of the U.S. and her allies. Activating Phase #3 of their grand strategy, they planned to unveil their secret weapons, especially their secret naval fleets. With these they planned to conquer and rule what would be left of the world. The United States as you know it would be long dead and gone; but in the eyes of the Bolsheviks themselves, this outcome would constitute victory for many reasons.

Up to April of 1982 the nuclear war timetable was still on track. They were still shooting for nuclear war to begin by September of that year. Actually this continued right to the date set of September 17, 1982.

What saved you is that the Bolsheviks were running as fast as they could toward war; but, the Bolsheviks are not the only runners in the race. They have two deadly enemies, both of whom are equally determined to trip up the Bolsheviks. One enemy of the Bolsheviks in the U.S. is the Rockefeller cartel; the other enemy is the new anti-Bolsheviks ruling class in Russia: and now these two mutual enemies of the Bolsheviks are pooling their efforts in certain ways.

The new anti-Bolshevik coalition is now much more firmly established but in 1982 it was still quite new and was working between the Rockefeller cartel and the Russians. The January 26, 1982 meeting between Haig and Gromyko in Geneva, Switzerland, was a turning point in the formation of this coalition.

It is now a reality, and is responsible for the so-called "Falkland crisis" which dominated the headlines in April and May of that year. It should be emphasized that the new relationship between the Rockefeller cartel and Russia fell far short of a true alliance, at least at that time. They have very major disputes to be settled between them, but they called a truce between themselves to deal with the mutual deadly enemy—the Bolsheviks in America.

The first priority of the Russians and the Rockefellers is to slow down the Bolshevik preparations for imminent nuclear war. If they could do that, time would be on the side of the Rockefeller cartel in certain political movements. A slow-down in the nuclear war timetable will also give more breathing space for additional anti-Bolshevik actions to be implemented.

The joint Rockefeller-Russian planners decided by mid-February of 1982 that military action against the Bolsheviks was essential very quickly. No other type of action had any hope of taking effect fast enough to prevent nuclear war by the end of the summer.

The exact details of the "PROJECT Z" war plan were not known to either the Rockefellers or the Russians, but the general outlines were known to be pretty well outlined and set-up.

It was decided that military action should be devised that would undermine Phase #3 of the Bolshevik war plan—that is, the Bolshevik-controlled secret naval installations and fleets in the Southern Hemisphere should be attacked and crippled. By working together, the Rockefeller cartel and the Russians were able to devise an attack plan which neither could have carried out alone. The Rockefeller group, who built and originally controlled these bases, provided detailed intelligence about the best way to attack them. The Russians with their enormous military machine provided the muscle to actually carry out the attack.

It was essential to devise a scheme that would enable both secret fleets in the South Atlantic and South Pacific to be attacked. Survival intact of either fleet would leave the Bolshevik war plan still workable.

Military analysts concluded very quickly that a direct assault on the New Zealand facilities was out of the question. There was no combination of commandos, frogmen, or other military force which could possibly keep an attack secret from the outside world. Any attack on the New Zealand bases would set off the very war which the Rockefellers and Russians wanted to prevent.

But the situation in the South Atlantic was a different matter. In a way, the greatest asset of South Georgia Island was also its Achilles' heel. The extreme isolation which protected the secrecy of the South Georgia base also made a covert military assault feasible. The key lay with Argentina and her long-standing claims to the Falkland Islands.

THE FALKLAND ISLAND WAR

The Rockefeller cartel had dominated all of Latin America for decades. Cartel operatives were sent to Argentina to work out a deal with the government military junta there. The historic dispute over the Falkland Islands was to be used to provide a ruse, a military cover, to enable the South Georgia base to be attacked. The Argentine generals were not told everything about the situation by any means, but they were told enough to make clear what they were to do.

As an inducement to cooperate, the Argentine leaders were promised handsome rewards. They were guaranteed that after the shooting was over, the Falkland Islands would remain in Argentine hands. This guarantee included the promise of covert military assistance as needed against the Royal Navy. And, to bolster the troubled Argentine economy, it was promised that the Rockefeller cartel would help develop the immense offshore oil reserves. With those combined promises of military glory and financial rewards, the Argentine military junta agreed to the plan.

So, backing up to March 19th, Argentina carried out Act One in the joint attack plan. A group of Argentine scrap-metal merchants, of all things, landed at the abandoned old whaling station on South Georgia Island. Supposedly they were there to dismantle the old buildings and carry them off to sell. While they were at it they also raised the Argentine flag over the work-site. The British, always nervous about South Georgia Island, promptly reacted exactly as expected. The British Antarctic survey ship "Endurance" put 22 Marines ashore to clear up that little misunderstanding.

They drove off the scrap merchants and promptly tore down the Argentine flag. The incident provided the exact desired excuse for the Argentine Junta to bring the simmering 150-year-old Falklands dispute to a boil. From time to time in the past, Argentina claimed that South Georgia was part of the Falklands because it is administered that way by Britain. That argument was very flimsy but it then came in most handy indeed. It was nothing new to hear that claim from Argentine leaders, so there was no hint of what was really afoot.

During late March, Argentine military forces started assembling for an assault on the Falklands. The British command thought there was nothing new for Argentina had carried out threatening maneuvers in the past many times. It was believed that they were about to do it again; but on April 2 Argentine forces did the unexpected. After many past false alarms, this time they actually invaded and seized the Islands. All Argentine public statements emphasized the long-standing historical claims to the Falklands themselves; but just for good measure, the next day a small Argentine force also seized far-off South Georgia Island. The force was so small that it gave the appearance initially that it was just a side show from Argentina's point of view; however, the small contingent of 22 Royal Marines were overpowered and bundled off the Island along with a group of 13 alleged scientists. That was a moment of pay-off in the joint Rockefeller-Russian attack plan.

"SPUDDING IN"

Thanks to the elaborate distraction staged by the Argentine forces; a special commando team got onto the Island totally undetected. Based on the detailed Rockefeller information about the base, the team moved to the location on the mountain directly above the cavernous secret base. Special high-speed drilling equipment was set up by the Rockefeller members of the team while the Russian members concentrated on military defense. By late that same evening, April 3, the military high command in London finally learned what was really taking place. The secret South Georgia base was under attack by virtually the only means possible. The joint Rockefeller-Russian team were drilling a shaft down through the mountain toward their hollowed out cavern inside. It was only a matter of time until their drill would break through the ceiling of the giant hidden naval base. Once the hole was made, the next step was obvious. The Rockefeller-Russian team would put a weapon of some kind through the hole. The best guess was that it would be probably nerve gas—it just doesn't pay to "guess".

The shock waves that went through the highest levels of British government on the evening of April 3 can hardly be described. The Thatcher government, like the so-called Reagan Administration in America, is Bolshevik controlled. Well, the Russians told you they would rule the world and it might very well be done without firing a shot!

That was why Margaret Thatcher always said, "Me, too." any time the Reagan Administration said it would do anything to Russia. Please note that it hasn't changed very much. What of the Stinger missile "sting" in Florida and the "I agree and support the U.S." in Panama this past December? Both governments are party to the secret nuclear war plan in complete betrayal of the people of their respective countries, and on the evening of April 3 they suddenly discovered that their precious war plan was in deep, deep yogurt, I believe you call it—amongst other terms.

Immediately the Thatcher government started assembling a naval armada to sail for the South Atlantic. Haste was their order of the day. The drilling on South Georgia Island was proceeding around the clock. The best estimates were that the drilling would break through into the roof of the naval base in about three weeks, on or about April 24—but it is a very long drive from England to Antarctica on the best of ships. If help did not reach South Georgia by then, the secret installation might be doomed. The forces stationed at the installation itself were unable to defend themselves under the circumstances. Their mighty naval ships were ships in a bottle.

They did not dare open the bottle to sail out and fight because the Russian commandos were armed with far superior technical and nuclear weapons. (Who do you think might be the closest allies to the Nazi undercover workers?) We are talking about ones who do not care greatly for the Jewish element, much less the Zionist-affiliated Jews. To open the blast-proof entrance doors would be suicide.

On April 5, just two days after South Georgia Island was seized, some 40 naval ships began moving out of British ports. The same day Lord Carrington was sacked as Foreign Minister. He was forced to resign because he had assisted the Rockefeller attack plan by downplaying the Argentine attack preparations. Even the evil don't have any way to count on their own.

That same day, April 5, New Zealand, the home of the other secret naval fleet, broke diplomatic relations with Argentina. The two hidden New Zealand facilities had been placed on "Red Alert" (no pun intended). As a precautionary measure, all submarines at the twin base were ordered to sea. Several surface ships were already at sea undergoing "seatrials", but that still left seven major ships inside the hidden twin naval base including one of the nuclear aircraft carriers.

On that busy day of April 5, Argentina's Foreign Minister, Costa Mendez, was at the United Nations in New York. Come on readers, go look it all up in the records—don't just stand off and accuse me of insanity—go look and find for yourselves.

Mendez was alarmed by the deployment of such a large part of the Royal Navy. Costa Mendez hurried to Washington to seek reassurances from certain U.S. officials. Of course he got them!

For the next two weeks or so the news was filled with stories about the allegedly slow movement of the British fleet while negotiations went on. That was only a cover story. The Royal Navy was actually joining up and paddling as rapidly as possible toward South Georgia Island. If the task force arrived in time to save the secret base, a major battle was likely. The official stories about "slow movement" of the British armada were intended to give a cushion of time for that battle. If need be, the fleet would have several days to retake South Georgia Island, then it could move on to arrive near the Falklands on the announced schedule. In that way the crucial importance of South Georgia Island would be hidden and the big secret preserved.

It was initially expected that advance elements of the British fleet would reach the vicinity of South Georgia Island within two weeks. That would have been soon enough to attack the joint Rockefeller-Russian commando team and stop the drilling before it was completed. But Russian Cosmospheres and submarines made a shambles of the plan.

A KEY SHIP DESTROYED

Key advance elements of the South Georgia attack contingency left Ascension Island early April 14, two days before it was announced officially. Shortly after they did so, they ran into trouble. Russian Cosmospheres and attack submarines closed in on a single ship which was critical to the planned counterassault on South Georgia Island. The Cosmospheres bombarded the bridge and combat information center of the ship with neutron radiation. In moments the ship was without any command, its communications and radar silenced. Then a Russian "sub" closed in and quickly finished off this key British ship with torpedoes. It broke apart with secondary explosions and sank rapidly. So far as was known, there were no survivors.

That unexpected shock in the mid-Atlantic produced two results, both very important: First, it caused a slowdown in the race toward the South Atlantic by the British armada. The task force had to be regrouped into a configuration better suited for an enroute defense, but that cost valuable time. Public announcements from London about the progress of the fleet reflected the slowdown. The timetable for arrival on battle stations near the Falklands started stretching out longer and longer. All this bought extra time for the joint commando team on South Georgia Island. And so the drilling continued.

The other result of the sinking was equally important. Word was flashed to the South Pacific Stealth navy to prepare for possible action. It was obvious that the Russian Navy was getting involved in the Atlantic, which meant that the Royal Navy could be in big trouble. During the dead of night, early April 15, the seven Stealth ships put to sea from their twin secret bases in southern New Zealand. They deployed to a secret operational headquarters area in the Antipodes Islands, 450 miles southeast of New Zealand. Their electromagnetic shields were operating to provide protection from attack. These shields make it impossible to communicate with the outside world or even to see it. But once they arrived at the Antipodes, the Stealth ships hooked up to buoys equipped with shielded communication cables to the Island headquarters. The Island headquarters, in turn, was in constant touch with the South Georgia base by way of a transoceanic cable around the tip of South America. The deployment of the available ships of the South Pacific Stealth fleet was exactly what the joint Rockefeller-Russian planners had hoped for. The ships had been flushed out from their essentially invulnerable hiding place in New Zealand!

The British ship's sinking of April 14 was also followed by other events. On April 15 the Argentine Navy started moving out of port. The same day, Alexander Haig arrived again in Buenos Aires. Supposedly he was there as a diplomat, but in reality he was there as a General, dealing with Generals. Haig was the top Governmental operative of the Rockefeller cartel. He was making sure that the Argentines did not get cold feet and back down at that critical moment. Four days later, April 19, Haig left for Washington. As he boarded his plane, Haig somberly told reporters, "Time is running out." And so it was, my friends, for the secret South Georgia base. We shall also have a lot more to say about General Haig in future writings.

NOT EXACTLY A DRY HOLE

The very next day, April 20, the drill broke through into the hollowed-out cavern of the naval base. Bolshevik military analysts in London had not expected that it could be completed until at least the following weekend. The British fleet was still out of range.

THE WEAPON WHICH THE COMMANDO TEAM INSERTED DOWN THROUGH THE LONG HOLE WAS A SMALL, COMPACT RUSSIAN NEUTRON BOMB. When it was detonated inside the confines of the huge artificial cave, the effects were, of course, totally devastating. The intense radiation instantly killed everyone inside the base. Also the heat and blast effects of the bomb are believed to have damaged all of the ships inside sufficiently to badly disable them.

Meanwhile, Russian Cosmospheres and submarines were converging on the Stealth ships which were near the Antipodes Islands awaiting orders. From a distance, the ships were invisible to the eye due to their protective shields, which also protect against beam-weapon attack; but they were sitting ducks for the tactics which the Russians employed.

THE COUP-DE-GRACE

Floating overhead, the Cosmospheres located the seven ships using their Psychoenergetic Range-Finding equipment known as PRF. There is no method known by which PRF can be jammed. The Cosmospheres radioed the exact locations of the ships to the attack submarines. The "subs" were armed with special non-homing, non-nuclear torpedoes designed to explode on impact. More sophisticated torpedoes would have been thrown off course or detonated prematurely by the protective shield of each ship; but these simple torpedoes just cruise right through each invisibility field to strike the ship and explode. Within 15 minutes after the attack began, all seven Bolshevik Stealth ships were on their way to the bottom, and with them went their Bolshevik Commanders and mercenary crews collected from around the world.

The South Pacific action took place just after sunset local time. The time in Washington was around 2:00 P.M. April 23. That evening Secretary of State Haig was seen briefly in public with the new British Foreign Minister, Francis Pym. Pym was wearing the typical artificial pseudo-smile which diplomats are taught always to display in public. But not Haig. Haig was grinning from ear to ear, and no wonder. The joint Rockefeller-Russian military operation had been a brilliant success. The secret Bolshevik South Atlantic fleet had been virtually wiped out, bottled up inside South Georgia Island; and the South Pacific fleet, while not totally wiped out, had been badly crippled. By working together, the Rockefeller cartel and the Russians had won the secret naval war of the Southern Hemisphere.

Dharma, you are too fatigued to continue today so let us leave this for now. We will discuss the ensuing Rockefeller fear campaign against nuclear war when we resume. Thank you for your service and blessings unto you dear ones. Rest well and we shall resume tomorrow morning. Good evening.

Hatonn to clear frequency, please. Adonai and I salute you of my command.

4/1/90 #1 HATONN

Hatonn present in the Light of the Radiant One. May we please continue on our work. I would request that this book be finished and ready for printing by mid-month. It is better to update the material in additional Journals than to either overload by quantity or allow to lag in current information. These Journals, at this time, are mostly for integration and insight into that which is known. We are setting the record straight regarding Space Command and participation within your atmosphere and disqualifying those stories which are in error regarding Space Brothers. It is necessary that the Journals get out rapidly for efforts are strengthening to stop Dharma. After the facts are integrated to great extent then we can give her a bit of rest. We must, however, show you ones that your dangers are not from Space Aliens but most surely from two or three major elements on your own planet.

No, it is not pretty and it is all but impossible for you to believe that such mammoth secrets could be kept from you; however, just as with the death camps of the Allies (specifically the U.S.) after W.W.II, we believe it will begin to soak through to you ones that the truth is far stranger than any of your surface lies. It is indeed easy to cover up any action if your media is totally controlled as is yours.

We will honor all the brave and daring ones who have brought forth information and have been "taken out" because of it. At this time, however, we honor them but protect them for these are indeed recent events and families are at risk. May you the public respect and honor those ones for they gave their very lives for your freedom. Thank you.

Let us continue with the wrap-up of the Falkland Islands war and discuss the ensuing Rockefeller fear campaign against nuclear war.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST NUCLEAR WAR BY THE ROCKEFELLER CARTEL

At the point of June, 1982 it would appear that war of a major size was about to break out in the Southern Hemisphere, but the real war in the Southern Hemisphere was already over. What you witnessed was the beginning of its bloody aftermath. That aftermath was the battle for the Falkland Islands. They had been promised to Argentina as a reward for her role in the secret war.

As things were happening in the Antarctic area the Bolsheviks were in Washington D.C. pressing for a public announcement that the U.S. would side with Britain. As soon as that would take place, military action would heat up quickly around the Falkland Islands. Britain had no choice but to fight. She had already suffered casualties which could not be explained without a public battle; but by fighting, the Bolsheviks in Britain were running the risk of a humiliating and tragic defeat for the Royal Navy.

Meanwhile "back at the ranch", the Rockefeller strategists in the U.S. were concentrating on a fast-building, anti-nuclear-war campaign. On all sides you were hearing about the so-called "nuclear freeze movement". There were documentaries, articles, publicity of all kinds to sensitize you to the terrors of nuclear war. There were even referenda popping up on election ballots dealing with the nuclear war issue. Medical doctors were banding together to warn the public about what would happen if there would be a nuclear war.

You were being told that all this was just popping up spontaneously. You were then into 37 years of the nuclear age and nothing like that had ever gained so much momentum before, yet you were supposed to believe that millions of Americans had spontaneously gotten the same ideas at the same time. If you believe that, my friends, I give up! Movements like that never, NEVER, develop without leadership, organization, and money—PLENTY OF MONEY! But can you see a bit further now? If you can pick up the momentum now you can make great changes to care for your population. Truth and knowledge can most surely preserve what freedom is left to you and bring you into a safety survival mode. Ponder it as we continue.

What you were watching at that time was the Rockefeller public relations machine at work. The Rockefeller cartel could not afford to let a nuclear war take place. If it did, they would lose everything because they were not in a position to control it. Instead, the deadly enemies of the Rockefeller cartel, the Bolsheviks in the U.S., would win out if there was a war; and so the Rockefeller faction was then doing everything in its power to prevent a nuclear war.

Therefore, the then present anti-nuclear-war orientation of the Rockefeller cartel created certain temporary common interests between them and Russia; but as Russia's new rulers knew very well, this did not spring from any great moral perspective on the part of the Rockefeller group. It was a purely practical necessity.

The Russians regarded the United States as a house divided, and they were exploiting that division by working in a careful way with the Rockefellers. Their first priority was to rid the world of the deadly Bolshevik menace of all-out, even suicidal, nuclear war; but once that was done, they knew that there would be a day of reckoning with the Rockefeller cartel some day. And, brothers, you are seeing it coming down in Europe this very day!

The Rockefeller group was working toward a definite objective with their new anti-nuclear-war propaganda. That objective was renewed power—and power that moves them closer to their old dream of World Government. The Bolsheviks in the U.S. had unwittingly provided fertile ground for the powerful new Rockefeller anti-war campaign. Under Bolshevik control, the so-called Reagan Administration had become so hawkish that it was scaring people. The Rockefeller anti-war campaign was designed to capitalize on that latent fear as a tool of power.

The smell of war was in the air. The Falklands crisis was helping to make that more intense. The Rockefeller propaganda machine was paving the way for the argument that surrender of sovereignty was the only way to avoid war. A new super-United Nations of sorts was put into the works to fill the bill. It would have teeth! As then envisioned, the new organization would be based in Geneva, Switzerland. The working name would be "World Nonproliferation Council". The plan was to bring it into being as the outgrowth of nuclear non-proliferation treaties, but its true purpose would be to use fear—the fear of war—to control you all.

SUMMARY

The Falkland Islands crisis erupted because of secret Bolshevik-controlled naval installations in the Southern Hemisphere. Those were attacked by joint action of the Rockefeller cartel and the Russians in an attempt to slow down the nuclear-war timetable. The attacks were successful, but the results are still not totally conclusive. It did not go as expected because General Haig was fired and the planned nuclear war was averted by simply bringing the truth to public attention and the perpetrators feared mass rioting from you the people. PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE, TRUTH AND REFUSAL TO ACCEPT THESE KINDS OF ACTION CARRY A MAGNIFICENT IMPACT FOR THE ELITE ARE NOT READY TO DEFEND AGAINST "YOU THE PEOPLE" IN THEIR OWN DOORYARDS. YET! WHEN THEY CONFISCATE ALL YOUR DEFENSE WEAPONS, I.E.—GUNS—THEN THEY WILL DO AS THEY PLEASE AND YOU CAN DO NOTHING ABOUT IT! OPEN YOUR EYES AND SEE THE WRITING ON THE WALL. SO BE IT.

Britain's Royal Navy took a tremendous bombardment in that "little" war. No reports were given as to that fact, but the return to England was delayed just to patch and repair sufficiently to keep the secret closeted.

Two major factions were struggling for control over your United States—the Rockefeller cartel and the Bolsheviks. They differ in style but both seek to control you through fear. If you are ever to rise above their trickery, it must be through the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, your only hope. As the recognized scriptures pronounce unto you, your Lord "...has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." You must learn to wage peace. For your Lord declared long, long ago, "Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the sons of God." Peace can only be found through the knowledge of TRUTH THROUGH THE WORD! THE FIRST IDENTIFICATION OF GOD WAS GIVEN RIGHT OFF THE BAT—"I AM THE WORD"! FURTHER, IN REVELATIONS: "THEN I SAW HEAVEN OPENED AND A WHITE HORSE STANDING THERE; AND THE ONE SITTING ON THE HORSE WAS NAMED 'FAITHFUL AND TRUE'—THE ONE WHO JUSTLY PUNISHES AND MAKES WAR. HIS EYES WERE LIKE FLAMES, AND ON HIS HEAD WERE MANY CROWNS. A NAME WAS WRITTEN ON HIS FOREHEAD AND ONLY HE KNEW ITS MEANING. HE WAS CLOTHED IN GARMENTS DIPPED IN BLOOD, AND HIS TITLE WAS 'THE WORD OF GOD'. THE ARMIES OF HEAVEN, DRESSED IN FINEST LINEN, WHITE AND CLEAN, FOLLOWED HIM ON WHITE HORSES—(AND SILVER CLOUDS)!!!!!!!"

Dharma, let us close this portion for I believe we have begun the cycle of curiosity whereby ones will seek and see. The details of THE PLAN will be forthcoming but man must first be ready to hear.

I will add a postscript to this Journal for I wish ones to realize that since our projection of the war crimes by the U.S., OTHER LOSSES and prior books such as UFO's, NAZI SECRET WEAPON? there has been a tremendous flood of eye-witnesses coming from the hiding places to confirm as eye-witnesses to the truth of our writings. Bless them for they are precious unto God for their stand for truth and their fellow-man!

The postscript will only detail the last item sent unto your attention: from THE SPOTLIGHT. Thank you for this document and we reprint it here in honor of their daring stand. That "paper" dared to comment on the book OTHER LOSSES and now dares to print other stories. The headlines of the issue to which we refer reads: CIA & MOB TIED TO THRIFT MESS, Immense Scandal Unfolding! Yes, we will comment on that and further, we will honor and back the truth bringers immediately and all the way! So be it and Selah!

Let us close of this document for we have reached a breaking point in the prior story but we shall now continue with one volume upon another as we lay out the current connections supported by the historical. Thank you for your attention and God be with you as you become PEOPLE OF THE TRUTH instead of PEOPLE OF THE LIE! AMEN.

TODAY'S REMINDER

You must realize that as you become informed the heart will rebel in pain if the knowledge is unexpected and horrendous in nature. But, if you are in "knowing" then there are no surprises—only unfolding. Therefore you must endeavor to shape your heart to front the hour, but dream not that the hour will last. It is recognized as truth that the man forewarned is worth any two or more in ignorance, so for all your days prepare and simply meet them all alike: When you are the anvil, bear—when you are the hammer, strike. And lastly, take heed for most are always saving themselves for something or another such as the "Senior Prom" but most of you forget that somewhere along the way you must learn to dance. Are you ready for the dancing having already perhaps missed the tune? The Prom is under way.

San Luis Obispo Connection To The Global Conspiracy

(Editor's note: The following is another installment in a continuing series by "R.R." that links Bush, Reagan, the Nazis and other assorted New World Order puppets through a common activity base in the small, south central California coastal town of San Luis Obispo. We are first including Commander Hatonn's introduction, below, before continuing with the story.)

SAN LUIS OBISPO CONNECTION

The following series of informative reprints are from a well-known personage among groups who have investigated and researched for truth and who has published much information. He has published information which has jeopardized his life on many occasions which indicates that ALL OF YOU NEED THE INFORMATION. He has sent a packet of information which needs to be brought to your attention—

AGAIN. His outlay is a bit different in both presentation and in some details. I honor this person and respect his research.

He has given permission that we may utilize any and all of the documents in any way we find fit and suitable. I thank him for his gracious willingness to share. I do not yet, however, have permission to call attention to this person by name so will only refer to him at this time as R.R. I, further, use the term "him" as generic reference.

I offer the reprinted information as given—without more than cursory input. I have no wish nor intent to slash and cut another's work so—as is our practice—information is given as nearly in full as possible and with NO CHANGES IN CONTENT. IF I COMMENT AS WE MOVE ALONG THEN I INDICATE AS MUCH. Therefore, I require that YOU be in the balancing of the information with that which you already have and then I suggest you get your hands on "back" JOURNALS such as SPACEGATE, SKELTONS IN THE CLOSET, BLOOD AND ASHES, END OF THE MASQUERADE, THE DARK CHARADE and in addition, all of the TANGLED WEB SERIES. If you don't have the information, backup and confirmation—you aren't going to know what hit you, beloved friends.

You must understand, further that there is massive confrontation among and between factions of this "New Global Conspiracy" which only vies for top position—the GOALS are the same.

THE SAN LUIS OBISPO CONNECTION

We are going to take up again the San Luis Obispo Connection in the order of the documents sent to me. This is going to be dealing with the

LAST FLIGHT OF KAL 007

We have written on this subject several times but I believe this deals more directly with persons involved and is worthy of repeating information at any rate. Thank you, R.R., for your sharing. We will reprint exactly as given to us.

QUOTING:

Incredible as it may seem after nearly nine years, the sabotage and destruction of Korean Air Lines Flight 007 has gone completely undetected and unresolved by the people of the world. This act of terrorism was so simple and foolproof that it could have, and indeed probably has, been repeated many times. The following explanation is, in all probability, precisely the way it was accomplished.

007 left New York City on August 31, 1983 on the first leg of its journey to Seoul, South Korea. Its midpoint stop was Anchorage, Alaska. There it stopped to refuel and possibly disembark passengers and cargo. While at Anchorage airport, 007 removed several tons of cargo destined for Seoul, Korea and added four extra tons of fuel. Remember this extra fuel as it is an important factor in the plan. If 007 had taken the shortcut across Kamchatka and Sakhalin Island, as has been alleged, it would have used six tons less fuel.

In the early morning hours of September 1, 1983, 007 left Anchorage fourteen minutes behind schedule. Remember this fourteen minutes, as it also is an important factor.

When 007 left Anchorage, it was noticed that it was ten degrees off course. If 007 would have continued on this course, without correction, it would have taken 007 across the Kamchatka Peninsula and Sakhalin Island. This was a diversion and was to establish radar tape records to prove that 007 flew over Russian territory. It was NOT advantageous nor desirable to send 007 on an intelligence mission across Russian territory. 007 had neither the electronic capabilities for performing an intelligence mission nor the capability of avoiding detection and apprehension. 007 was substituted by a U.S. intelligence-gathering aircraft, an RC-135, in the following manner.

The RC-135 is the U.S. Air Force version of the Boeing 707 and is very similar to KAL 007, which is a Boeing 747. The RC-135 has a payload of 45 tons of the most advanced, incredible electronic equipment ever devised. It is capable of any kind of communication transmission and reception, radio and radar jamming, stealth capability, radar false imaging, and computer functions that would make the movie "Star Wars" appear to be a stone age production. It also carries devices which can distract and divert incoming missiles and laser devices which can prematurely explode incoming missiles. Although it is fiction, the book "Flight of the Old Dog" accurately describes these systems and the author, an Air Force intelligence officer, attests to their reality.

RADAR "BLIP" AS COVER

It has been established that somewhere between the coast of Alaska and the Kamchatka Peninsula, 007's flightpath was intersected by an RC-135. This is not entirely correct. 007's flightpath was intersected by TWO RC-135s. The two RC-135s left their base at Shemya, in the Aleutians, flying in very close proximity or, in Air Force language they were "stacked". In this condition they would appear as one "blip" on a radar screen and therefore assumed to be only one aircraft!

When the RC-135s intersected the flightpath of 007 all three aircraft appeared as one "blip" on the radar screens of the international radar network. At this point, the pilot of 007, Captain Chun, made an announcement on the intercom, something like this: "Ladies and gentlemen, this is your captain speaking. One of our instruments is indicating a discrepancy in our cabin pressurization system. Although we want to assure you there is absolutely no danger, as a precautionary measure, we will descend to a low altitude where cabin pressurization is unnecessary, while we check out the problem. Please fasten your seat belts. The seat belt light is on. Thank you."

Under the camouflage of one radar "blip", 007 descended from approximately 30,000 feet to approximately 1000 feet. At that altitude it was below the radar network. Then 007 made a course correction and turned back toward Route 20, which was its original intended commercial air route between Anchorage, Alaska and Seoul, Korea. This route does not fly over Russian territory. While flying at these very low altitudes, 007 used up tremendous amounts of fuel. This was the reason for the extra four tons of fuel in the first place.

Meanwhile, the two RC-135s, flying "stacked", as one radar "blip" continued along 007's original misguided direction toward Kamchatka. After about ten minutes, when 007 had descended to the low altitude and was off the radar, one of the RC-135s turned off and continued on its mission and returned to its base at Shemya. This left the other RC-135 continuing along 007's misguided path over Russian territory. For all intents and purposes the RC-135 was now 007.

The real 007, flying under the radar, reached route 20 and intersected the path of KAL 015. The departure times of the two airplanes allowed 015 to catch up to 007. Remember, 007 left fourteen minutes late and 015 left six minutes early. Under the radar shadow of 015, 007 ascended to their flight plan (Route 20) to Seoul, Korea. For all intents and purposes that "blip" was only KAL 015. For all intents and purposes the "blip" over Russian territory was 007.

In the event (and of course in the mind of Captain Chun) that the RC-135, was not detected or apprehended, this is what would have happened. The RC-135 would continue on its mission across Kamchatka and Sakhalin and on across the Sea of Japan. There it would intersect Route 20 and merge with 015 and 007. The three airplanes would again appear as one radar "blip". Then there would be a repeat performance of what happened earlier. The RC-135 would descend to a very low altitude to where it was off the radar, turn and return to the base at Atsugi, Japan. The two KAL airplanes would then separate into two radar "blips" and proceed on to Seoul, Korea as if nothing unusual had happened.

Instead this is what actually happened. At a precise, predetermined point, the RC-135, posing as 007, now over Sakhalin Island, still over Russian territory, but close enough to the Sea of Japan to fake a crash in international waters did this: It turned off all its short-range radar jamming equipment, radar false imaging and turned on its strobe lights. In essence it was saying, "Here I am! Right over here! Come get me!"

FAKING "CRASH" LOCATION

The Russian fighter plane in the vicinity intercepted the RC-135, identified it, and backed off several miles and fired its heat-seeking missiles. To avoid sucking debris from the anticipated explosion into its jet engines, the Russian fighter turned off and prematurely announced, "The target is destroyed". With its advanced technical capability, the RC-135 neutralized the incoming missiles with its laser devices, dropped a simulated explosive charge, and rapidly descended toward the Sea of Japan to fake a crash. It dropped some debris and some human body parts and, under the radar, flew on to the base at Atsugi.

Simultaneously, flying in the radar shadow of KAL

015, KAL 007 was destroyed by a bomb in its cargo hold, detonated by a radio signal. 007 was over the Kurile Trench and descended five miles down into the Pacific Ocean where it will never be found. There it lies today. [H: This portion of the story is not quite correct as you will note if you have been reading the JOURNALS. Flight 007 was not destroyed until AFTER it had been accompanied to a landing site and crew and passengers removed—they reside in several various places of incarceration in Russia to this day! Before you say this is impossible, I would harken you to attend the MIA-POW scenarios going on right now regarding Russian-held U.S. people. There were some IMPORTANT persons on that plane both that were intended to be killed because of their knowledge and some because it was desirable to have them on the aforementioned bases off-planet. There are multitudes of "missing" scientists and Elite—some poorly covered by replicas—some just missing following announced death, etc. Casey is a good example in point. NO—I am NOT joshing you!] [See JOURNAL #44, Vol. II in the TANGLED WEBS series for more on KAL 007.]

The following paragraphs are included to provide details to fill in some "holes" and to correct some discrepancies and tie together any loose ends. Several discrepancies exist. First of all, in order to sucker the Russian fighter into shooting at it, the RC-135 turned on its "strobe" lights. Outside of the Continental United States, Korean Air Lines did not use "strobe" lights. It used "blinking" lights. Another discrepancy was the variation in time between the missile firing and the explosion on 007. Yet another discrepancy was the last radio transmission indicated that 007 was not experiencing any abnormal condition.

Several hours after the crash it was announced that 007 was forced to land on Sakhalin Island and the passengers and crew were all safe and sound. The purpose of this was to call off and discontinue any air-sea search and rescue mission. This was to allow any debris to sink into the ocean and disguise any evidence of what might really have happened. All the accounts which place 007 over Russian territory are wrong as presented. It was never desirable nor advantageous nor necessary to have 007 overfly Russian territory.

The magazine article "The Last Flight of 007" by Fletcher Prouty and the book "Explo 007" by R.B. Cutler are the most accurate. Both of these accounts have some holes and discrepancies in them. The purpose of this report is to fill in the holes and correct the discrepancies in these otherwise well researched reports.

The political ramifications and reasons for this disaster were necessities, either real or imagined, of the Reagan Administration and high-ranking U.S. Government officials.

END OF QUOTING

One William P. Clark (Justice) was the connection and the central figure in this event and was (is) powerful second only to Henry Kissinger.

Don't get all hung-up on what are seemingly variations and discrepancies in details of this story. Remember that in the operations of such blatant intelligence operations—it is hard to find the pieces and get the players all together to present the "whole". This is the incredible value of such a clearing house as is the LIBERATOR and other such shared documents—so that an overall picture can be concluded. Please keep in mind that as these particular articles or writings may seem unfinished or only trigger more curiosity—that is the purpose—for confirmation of already presented material, correction of material and ideas and revelation of more information from valid sources. The point, keep further in mind, in this presentation in point is to speak of the San Luis Obispo (SLO) Connection and NOT to sensationalize one or another "incident" of their actions. If you as a reader miss that very point—then you are going to only be further confused and perceive discrepancies in various stories—it is the "player list" in point herein. Specifically, in some of the writings the author is nailing William P. Clark and a few others, like Ronald Reagan, Bush, etc. It also reveals the connections and operations of law firms, predominantly in West Coast area of Sinsheimer, Schiebelhut & Baggett and national/international firms as in Shea & Gould. This blight runs through the entire world real estate foundation, drugs, money laundering, political corruption as well as Bank involvement, S&Ls, etc. You name the problem—they are involved to their eyes in it.

Now we will continue another subject, in listing, number 3.

PROJECT PAPERCLIP: THE NAZI INFLUX

QUOTING:

There is a definite connection between the "New World Order" of Adolph Hitler and the "New World Order" of George Bush. It is right there in San Luis Obispo County, California.

Project Paperclip is the operation where the U.S. Government brought hundreds of Nazi scientists, doctors, intelligence agents, and military personnel to America after World War II. They were integrated into aerospace and munitions industries, medical science, military and intelligence agencies. Following are excerpts from PROJECT PAPERCLIP by Clarence Lasby, THE TORBITT DOCUMENT by William Torbitt, THE NAZI CONNECTION TO THE JOHN F. KENNEDY ASSASSINATION by Mae Brussel. They may be somewhat out of context, so the reader is cautioned to study the original texts. [H: I also urge you to get SKELTONS IN THE CLOSET, a PHOENIX JOURNAL.]

When it was obvious to Hitler they would be losing the war against the USSR, all top Nazis made detailed plans for two years on how to proceed next.

Speer met with Dornberger, at Peenemunde, the missile and rocket factory run with Werner von Braun, and instructed him in "the dispersion of functions throughout the Reich". Translated, that meant "get ready to come to the U.S."

....The British did win a token victory: over the protestations of von Braun, they convinced their ally to relinquish any claim on General Dornberger; they considered him a "menace of the first order" who deserved to be "left on the dust-heap." As one Englishman explained to his American friend, the military commander of Peenemunde "will ever have in mind the desirability of returning to a resurrected Reich carrying with him the knowledge accumulated by the German rocketeers while working under Allied patronage." The Americans were not anxious to import the enemy general. After listening to monitored conversations between Dornberger and fellow inmates of detention centers, they concluded he had an "untrustworthy attitude in seeking to turn ally against ally" and that he would be "a source of irritation and future unrest" among the Germans if he were sent to America. One American general quipped that "We may trade him to the Russians for a dish of caviar." But His Majesty's government had plans of their own; they imprisoned him for two years hoping to find some legal basis to place him in the dock at Nuremberg. Only upon his release in 1947 was Dornberger free to accept a contract under Project Paperclip—which led eventually to the directorship of Research and Development at the Bell Aircraft Company.

....In the transfer of the Nazi rocket scientists, the services of Adolf Hitler's intelligence agency was used extensively and Shaw, von Braun, Dornberger and the others began a very close association with the Nazi agency and its commander.

The Brunesnachrichtendienst, better known as the Federal Intelligence Agency or FIA, is largely dependent on the CIA, which subsidizes and controls it. The director in 1963 was Reinhard Gehlen, a former ex-Nazi colonel "repatriated" in August, 1945 by Allen Dulles, who at the time headed the OSS in Switzerland and was in charge of American intelligence activities in occupied Germany. See the book REINHARD GEHLEN, MASTER SPY.

From 1932 until 1945 Werner von Braun was Adolf Hitler's most dedicated Nazi rocket scientist. As a matter of fact, given a few more months time, von Braun's "Buzz Bomb" and V-2 rocket in 1945 could have turned the tide and forced the allies to seek something less than total victory over the Third Reich. An enthusiastic Nazi, Von Braun's V-2 rocket had killed thousands and thousands of British Isle residents and the sound of the approach of the V-2 was terrorizing the entire English countryside.

In 1945, as the Russians were approaching Von Braun's rocket headquarters, he and 115 other of his Nazi rocket scientists escaped with valuable papers and traveled west in Germany until they could turn themselves in to the Allied armies in the west. Later the same year, Von Braun and the 115 other German scientists were removed to Fort Bliss, Texas, where they remained until 1950. In 1950, Von Braun and the others were moved on to the old Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama, where they remain to this date.

Von Braun, immediately upon arriving in the United States, made close personal friendships with J. Edgar Hoover and Lyndon B. Johnson, and the relationship remained close with Von Braun working with Hoover in security in the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Redstone Arsenal and later, beginning in 1958, they worked together in the security of the National Space Agency. 1958 was the year that Lyndon Johnson, as majority leader of the Senate, helped to push through the National Space act.

In March 1944 the Gestapo learned that von Braun had expressed in public a defeatist attitude about Germany's chances in the war, and a desire to design a spaceship rather than a weapon. Voracious in their demand for control of the V-2 program, the S.S. leaders used this information, together with a trumped-up charge that von Braun had Communist leanings, to imprison him for two weeks in a Gestapo cell in Stettin.

Von Braun was a highly visible "hero" so he was sent to NASA at Huntsville, Alabama where he worked on rockets. Dornberger was a convicted, sentenced war criminal and required a lower profile, so he was sent to Bell Aircraft where he worked on the spaceship program. One of these, a nuclear powered TAV (trans-atmospheric vehicle) operates at Area 51 in the Mojave Desert in Nevada. [H: Among several other places.]

As America stood on the threshold of World War II Hoover continued a friendly relationship with the Nazis who dominated Interpol, the Berlin-based international secret police. He had been obsessed with the "Red Menace" since 1919 when he became head of the Bureau's General Intelligence Division. Heinrich Himmler, Reinhard Heydrich, Arthur Nebe and other fanatical Nazis were active in Interpol. Even after Hitler occupied Czechoslovakia, Hoover ignored all evidence of Nazi death squads and atrocities and cooperated with the boys in Berlin. As France fell, Hoover exchanged lists of wanted criminals, enclosing autographed photographs of himself. It was not until three days before Pearl Harbor that he called a halt—and then only because he feared his image might be tarnished.

When the war had been imminent Roosevelt charged Hoover with ferreting out Nazi spies in the Western Hemisphere. Two escaped his notice. As early as 1933 Gestapo agent Dr. Hermann Friedrich Erban recruited Errol Flynn as an intelligence source. Erban went on to become a naturalized American citizen, but never abandoned his loyalty to Hitler. Flynn went on to make "Santa Fe Trail" in 1940, co-starring with Ronald Reagan, and the two paired up for "Desperate Journey" in 1942. [H: Just to sort time and space a bit—you will recall that Errol Flynn continued his escapades right into the Cuban war playing with Castro.]

During this pre-WW II period, Reagan also worked for the FBI as an intelligence agent. As J. Edgar Hoover had already demonstrated Nazi sympathies and later inserted 642 Nazis into aerospace military, and government positions, the question is WHOSE government was Reagan working for? Reagan's enthusiastic use of the "King Alred Plan", CSTI, FEMA and REX 84, leaves little doubt. Hoover's FBI-Division 5 and the CIA carried out the assassination of John F. Kennedy. George Bush was a CIA "asset" at that time. He became Director of Central Intelligence.

REINHARD GEHLEN

Richard Nixon's political career brought him inside Nixon's 1960 campaign for the presidency. In 1969 he showed up in California with a high-tech firm called TCI that held classified Defense Department contracts. His translator for German projects was Helene van Damme, Governor Ronald Reagan's appointments secretary. Von Damme is currently U.S. Ambassador to Austria, next door to the Nazis homeland.

In 1968 Reinhard Gehlen withdrew to his chalet in Bavaria. The chalet had been a gift from Allen Dulles. [H: Interesting???

Richard Nixon "couldn't remember" he was in Dallas, Texas on November 22, 1963. [H: How many of you "old timers" can forget where you were on the day Kennedy was killed in Dallas? Especially if you had been IN DALLAS? Well, so was Bush and now you have the situation coming unfolded as to WHY the Watergate break-in—there were pictures and documents in the Democratic offices to be used as "gunfodder" which proved the presence of BOTH on that fateful day.]

But Nixon had also accumulated strong connections with members of the crime syndicate, the Vatican hierarchy, defense industries and known Nazis. He knew them all.

What if he lost after those seventeen years of preparation? Would there be a back-up team for the future? Could the Pentagon or Reinhard Gehlen visualize leaving the entire United States presidency to chance elections?

Remember what happened to Senator Robert Kennedy on the eve of his primary victory in June, 1968? They can't get that close to losing it again, you know. With both Kennedys gone, Nixon finally made it.

The Nazi rocket scientists are on management levels also in the munitions and aerospace industry. Walter Dornberger, the Nazi general, left the space agency in the 1950's to become a high official in Bell Aerospace Corporation and he was followed by over 30 of the Nazi scientists to control level in the corporations manufacturing munition and aerospace material. This still left well over 60 of the scientists at command level in NASA.

This is the nomenclature of the assassination team. That is the way John F. Kennedy met his death in Dallas.

At the top was Johnson, Hoover, Bloomfield, Nagy, De Menil, Prio, Jenkins, Hunt, Baker, Jones, McWillie, Von Braun, Cohn, Korth, Connally and Murchison.

L.M. Bloomfield was in overall charge responsible only to Hoover and Johnson.

The second layer of participants with supervisory and working assignments under Bloomfield and the first group were Walter Dornberger, ex-Nazi general, Guy Bannister, Albert Osborne of ACCC, E.E. Bradley of ACCC, Morris Dalitz of Las Vegas, Major General John B. Medaris, Robert McKeown, Igor Voshinin, George Boune, Peter Gregory, Maurice Gatlin, Sergio Arecha Smith, Lee Harvey Oswald, William Seymour,

Another of the Nazi space scientists who worked with the cabal was Walter Dornberger. He had been the commanding officer of Werner Von Braun while both were working for Adolf Hitler's rocket program. During the time period involved, Walter Dornberger was a directing officer in the Bell Aerospace Corporation along with Fred Korth. The former Nazi rocket officer was directly in charge of the assignment of Michael Paine to Bell Helicopter Corporation, a subsidiary in Fort Worth, Texas. Paine's assignment was to provide a place for Marina Oswald during the approximate eight months prior to November 22, 1963. He provided for Marina to live with his wife, Ruth.

The Warren Commission required planted evidence sometimes in order to divert from Lee Oswald's links to the Defense Department, assisted by Ruth and Michael Paine.

Michael Paine's occupation at Bell Aircraft is with the Defense Department. This job requires security clearances, so what would the unlikely Oswalds be doing in his home? Oswald, the "defector"?

Paine's boss at Bell Aircraft as Director of Research and Development, was none other than the notorious war criminal General Walter Dornberger.

Dornberger was supposed to be hung at Nuremburg for his war crimes, slave labor and mass murders.

The British warned the U.S. not to let him live because even after the war he was conspiring for another one. As stated, "Dornberger is a menace of the first order who is untrustworthy. His attitude will turn ally against ally and he would become a source of irritation and future unrest." Project Paperclip, Clarence Lasby.

The very first call to authorities after the gun went off on November 22, 1963, was from an employee at Bell Helicopter who suggested "Oswald did it". Police never located the source of both Oswald addresses that day.

In 1988 Bush, the Republican presidential nominee, chose as his running-mate Indiana Senator Dan Quayle. When a memo from the FBI head J. Edgar Hoover, was found, stating that "Mr. George Bush of the CIA" had been briefed on November 23rd, 1963 about the reaction of anti-Castro Cuban exiles in Miami to the assassination of President Kennedy, Bush's aides denied he was this George Bush. We wrote about this connection in, I believe, TANGLED WEBS, VOL. II. But allegations continue that Bush is concealing long standing ties to the CIA and to Cuban exiles such as Rodriguez.

Let us leave this document for now.

Chelas, I too am overwhelmed this morning as my scribe is withered by the mammoth amount of information which MUST be gotten to you and the absolute inability to do it.

Dharma has agreed to simply continue on in writing regardless of what else is going on so we will work through it and feel blessed that the load is heavy for it indicates RESULTS and oh, chelas, THAT is our purpose. The Light shall be given to shine upon you workers and receivers of the word for—in this manner—the world SHALL be changed and I would say, from observation, that it can only be for the better!

SALU, HATONN TO BID GOOD-MORNING.

Dharma, let us now turn to inclusion of a segment of the material from Ray Renick. There are portions of that which will be presented herein that actually need clarification and input for it is not quite as presented. The author would have no way of knowing all points which make my statement factual, however. The writings in point are not the main point of this material so we will not make lengthy insertions herein.

For instance, we have written in great detail about Capt. and Mrs. Gunther Russbacher, who will be mentioned in the text and there are discrepancies in the information which need clarification at some time but for purposes of Mr. Renick, it matters not herein. Just note, readers, that we are simply reprinting direct writings from Mr. Renick. We are grateful for his sharing and may his experience be a gift of insight to you-the-readers.

CALLED TO SERVE

By James "Bo" Gritz

$24.95...Book

In his book, Gritz lifts the veil of National Security to reveal how U.S. Forces have been used as tools by international elitists who are guilty of drug trafficking, preventing American POW's from coming home, and more.

To Order Call: America West
a Nevada corporation
1800-729-4131

COL. JAMES "BO" GRITZ

PALO ALTO, CA. 7/91

$20.00...2 Hour...Video Tape

Bo tells the story behind the covert CIA operations of Viet Nam. He names those key individuals involved in the Golden Triangle heroin trade. His is a message of courage and he delivers a "final call to serve" to all who will awaken to the evil behind the "New World Order".

while in the U.S. Marine Corps, I learned about the illegal heroin trade and the complicity of the United States Government, the Central Intelligence Agency, and Air Transport Command/Air America in this activity. Following are examples of my own research and experience in this. Included with this paper are references, notes and documents. They are all public domain and can be copied and disseminated.

Colonel James "Bo" Gritz made several trips to southeast Asia to look for POWs and MIAs. He returned information and video tapes about U.S. Government/State Department/White House complicity in the heroin business. The government tried to incarcerate Col. "Bo" to prevent his exposing the government's crimes. The government lost its case. After the trial, on the courthouse steps, in front of the T.V. cameras, the U.S. prosecutor Maddox announced, "George Bush called me on the phone and told me to 'Get Bo Gritz.'". I personally exchanged information with Bo about drug trafficking and assassination.

[H: I would like to insert a little "interest point" at this juncture, regarding Bo Gritz's case. The "government" set up one of Bo's "colleagues" (which I will leave unnamed here for the present time) and brought some dummy charges against him and then offered in exchange for testifying with false evidence against Bo, a dropping of his own charges. The man refused and is now serving his fifth year of a fourteen-year prison sentence. Still think you are playing with a "wimp"?]

Barbara Honegger exposed the "October Surprise" story about how George Bush and Ronald Reagan stole the 1980 election. Her friend Richard Brenneke faced incarceration for helping her expose those two criminals. Bush's National Security Advisor Donald Gregg perjured himself at Brenneke's trial and Brenneke was acquitted. For several years I have exchanged information with Barbara and sent tapes to her. I hope I was able to be of some assistance.

U.S. Navy Captain Russbacher has been falsely incarcerated to prevent his testifying about his role as George Bush's pilot in the "October Surprise" election theft. I hope my exchange of information with Mrs. Russbacher has been of some assistance. I have much information on the Russbacher case.

[H: Hereat I must make a statement. I know well Mrs. Russbacher and I have no comment regarding her story. I DO observe that either she is confused or has some facts of misleading nature given her. For instance, she had a severe falling out with Barbara Honegger after her relationship began with Gunther Russbacher. She has been badly used and abused at any slicing of the cake, but some of her facts are NOT. For instance, she says: "...we were just leaving Reno when fighter planes were rallied from Nellis to take us in custody (Russbacher and Rayelan had just married and were utilizing Casey's CIA "Little Blackbird" craft). Well, a lot of that particular story does not add up and yet has been told over and over and over again. It is a long, long way from Reno to Nellis Field (right at Las Vegas) so WHY would this slip of the lip be allowed? It is also obvious and Rael (as I call her) knows she was "set-up" at every turn of the puzzle prior to her marriage of totally absurd circumstance. This does not mean that her story is invalid—only that it is obvious there were NOT coincidences but, rather, fully planned encounters at every turn.

Next, Mr. Renick just a few days ago sent us a news release. I appreciate it very much for within it was a notation that Rael had had an investigation done and it was discovered that George Green and the Phoenix material are both "placed" disinformation resources. I speak for the Phoenix material only, in this instance, because there is actually no connection with George Green other than that he owns the publishing company, America West, through which the JOURNALS are published—not even printed. The LIBERATOR is now a totally separate entity with a home base of Las Vegas and Tehachapi and NOT Carson City. This is NOT to "pull away" from one, George Green, it is only to point out that there is and never was any other connection and I will not tolerate George bearing responsibility for anything of my own position. America West publishes many books and often, in promotion meetings and lectures, the JOURNALS are not presented more than "in passing" as reference. I protect his right to privacy and he has every right to promote his publications and distributions as would any other marketer. I have not been "discharged" by America West and therefore have no fault to find therein. If there is information held by ones who "INVESTIGATE" and then speak behind hand-backs—I suggest they share openly with all of us. I, for one, do not wish to give one iota of misinformation to any reader or receiver but I cannot be responsible for what others utilize as "their opinion" of my books and papers—THAT is their business and none of mine.

I do know that there were many discrepancies in Mrs. Russbacher's story as written and America West declined to publish her book and/or promote her "motion picture" proposal.

I wrote at length about the Russbacher story and honored her greatly for her efforts in the face of such tremendous odds in her endeavors to help Gunther. But, I must note that sometimes too much help is very endangering to the "inmate". You ones must know that Gunther is a pilot of exceptional talents along with being a "sheep dipped" agent. He is NOT a native American and therefore did not find answers in the Constitutional Law Center for the "law" simply says he is not a citizen under that Constitution. I would, however, like to know what HER resource investigators discovered that is so hush-hush. I do not work in "secret" so I suggest we lay it ALL RIGHT OUT THERE ON THE TABLE FOR ALL TO SEE!

Gunther is in double jeopardy because his talents have been needed—and utilized—by Bush since his incarceration. One of those instances was to fly Bush to and back from Moscow immediately prior to the opening shots of the Iraq war. And you thought "October Surprise" was interesting? My, my—the Gorby-Bush arrangement surpasses anything like an "October Surprise"! The "Blackbird Project" is ever so much more interesting than is the "Blackbird" Spy-plane SR-71 in point. So be it. I still suggest to all of you—DO NOT MISS THE TANGLED WEB series of JOURNALS for James Bond never had so much intrigue as truth. In fact, James Bond was taken directly from incidents out of British Intelligence.]

RETURNING TO QUOTE:

Many times I have assisted in organizing presentations of the Christic Institute. My files are full of their information on drug trafficking, assassination, money laundering, bank fraud and election fraud to "put away" much of the American Government for life. The corrupt Federal Courts have used every cheap trick in the book to prevent them from bringing their information to the public.

My own personal involvement goes back almost 40 years when I learned about U.S. Government/CIA heroin trafficking in French Indochina. Today hundreds of POWs and MIAs are incarcerated in Southeast Asia, with the collusion of the Department of Defense to hide that dirty information.

I possess a short film clip that shows William Greer was the decisive triggerman in the President Kennedy assassination. A Supreme Court Justice from Santa Barbara headed the commission that blamed and framed an innocent man for that murder.

I possess papers, documents, and copies of a lawsuit filed in Southern California that shows the U.S. Government and the courts deliberately framed and imprisoned the wrong man for the murder of Senator Robert Kennedy. Judge William P. Clark of San Luis Obispo is mentioned in the lawsuit.

There is evidence that the National Security Agency with William P. Clark as President Reagan's National Security Advisor was responsible for the bombing of the Korean Airlines KAL 007 and the murder of the 269 passengers.

My personal investigations, research and files on murder and drug trafficking in San Luis Obispo County show connections to real estate development, cattle business, and high country officials and also connections to some of the highest government officials in the United States Government. I was corresponding with Senator Howard Jarvis when he announced, "San Luis Obispo County is the crookedest county in the state." Public Works Projects such as the Los Osos sewer system are based on falsified data and are designed to assist real estate development and drug money laundering.

My personal attorney, Mr. Phillip Simon, is in a very precarious position. He's going to have a fine time explaining to the courts, the judges, the Bar Association and his future clients how he can accept fees and represent so many people on opposing sides of an issue.

First of all he represented Scott Alexander who was murdered because he knew too much about drug trafficking and murder involving high government officials. (Steven Carr was murdered because he could identify George Bush's affiliation with Panamanian dictator Manuel Noriega.)

Secondly, he represented Michael Francis Aivaz, who, as a federal agent used Scott to help gather information on Los Osos drug traffickers. Aivaz was at least an accomplice to Scott's murder. (Last time I saw Mike Aivaz he was a "basket case".)

Thirdly, he represented this author, who has spent many years gathering information on these crimes. Simon was told "up front" that this prospective client's legal problems involved both Alexander and Aivaz! Simon said, "I don't want to hear about it." Having previously represented Alexander and Aivaz and living in the small community of Los Osos, Simon knew damned well what was going on! Sounds like "conflict of interest"?

Then he had the audacity to decide by himself to NOT forward a request for a quiet, private conference. (However, there may have been some collusion involved.) The public dissemination of this information is based on his decision.

In all fairness it should be pointed out that Simon is well aware of the large number of persons that have been "terminated with extreme prejudice" (a U.S. covert intelligence term). Perhaps he is just covering his own backside. If witnesses, presidents, senators, etc., can be "terminated", lawyers would be "No Problem".

Under these conditions he cannot represent me. I will petition the court to discharge him and return all fees.

(Please make and distribute copies.)

"Natural" Disasters Update

7/22/92 #1 HATONN

I can only hope you are "keeping up" with the non-news with "insight" for there is not time to dwell on each pertinent item. The world situation worsens in relative chaos as the level of impact against the U.S. grows.

TREMBLE, TREMBLE,
TREMBLE

As ones paddle from flooded houses in flooded streets and survey irreversibly damaged crops in some parts of the nation, others are still baking in drought. New strains of HIV (AIDS) are presented along with condom use and films of explicit sexual acts (to stem unsafe sex practices); TB is at almost plague levels; mosquitos are bringing uncontrollable malaria; termites which can destroy a home in less than two years have invaded; bees which attack and kill have invaded; troops in battle gear (with machine guns at ready) patrol around your airports in major cities; troops are stationed outside all major cities for riot control; aircraft are being electronically voided and deliberately crashed (with visible light beam); you are planning another go at Iraq because they won't let you into their "Agriculture" building to look for nuclear weapons. They say "...this won't be a 'carpet bombing' like in the war [what happened to the "surgical precision" bombing?]; you are already in Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia (along with your "blue helmeted" thugs); Egypt is sending troops into that area because people of "different cultures and nationality can bring and maintain order better if the people are strange and alien"—and ones are going to teach Desiree' and George how to better present themselves on stage (over my dead vapor) to have a "more interesting 'show'" and Dharma and E.J. have had enough of the assaults and accusations from our enemies "from within". And how IS your day?

EARTHQUAKES

Let me tell you something which will not be on the news until "after the fact": Within the last two hours the WHOLE of California from above San Francisco to below the Mexican Border is showing activity in CONSTANT motion of approximately a level 2 points and rising—THIS MOMENT! Predictors with sensitive apparatus for measuring (who, by the way, have been "right on" from the past dozen quakes) say this fault "cannot hold" past the 24th and, more likely, will go by the 22nd [that's today!]. Calls are flooding us daily with updates and now anyone in Southern California can "feel" the movement if you just stop long enough to attend it. Is today "your day"? The expectations are of magnitudes of 10 to 12 (or higher) impact. Hundreds of thousands are expected to "transition"—will you and your children be among them? While you legalize sodomy and abortion, you also set up death by quakes and volcano eruptions. To each his own, but I would certainly be efforting to get square with GOD, my friends.

FOR ALL OF YOU "WAITERS", I SUGGEST YOU GET NON-SKID MATS UNDER ALL OF YOUR COMPUTER AND ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT. YOU ARE GOING TO UNDERGO "LONG PERIOD" SHAKING. WHEN THE BIG ONES HIT. THIS MEANS THAT THINGS ARE MORE APT TO VIBRATE OFF THEIR FOUNDATIONS AND/OR PLACES THAN IN A QUICK-HIT JOLT. YOU WILL EXPERIENCE "BOTH", SO ACT ACCORDINGLY, PLEASE. IF YOUR COMPUTER SET-UPS ARE DESTROYED, WE CAN'T GET OUR WORK DONE AND COST TO REPLACE WILL BE PROHIBITIVE. THAT OUNCE OF PREVENTION IS MANDATORY!! I SPEAK OF THE TYPE OF MATERIAL UTILIZED IN MOTORCOACHES, UNDER "THROW RUGS" AND/OR BETWEEN MATTRESS SETS TO PREVENT SCOOTING. IF YOU HAVE A WAY TO LATCH DOWN WITH AN ELASTIC BUNGIE, THEN PLEASE DO SO—NOW! THE MOVEMENTS ARE MOVING TO CRESCENDO AS THE PULSES ARE BEING PUMPED IN TODAY. I SEE NO SIGNS OF THE "BIG BOYS" LETTING UP ON THIS HORRENDOUS IDEA OF DESTRUCTION AND POWER-PLAY. BE PREPARED—AS IT IS ALL YOU CAN DO IF TRUCE IS NOT FORTHCOMING.

PERSISTENT EARTH MOVEMENTS AROUND THE RING OF FIRE

Reports are that earth movements are being felt and registered in almost as constant a measure in New York and the full length of the Mississippi River. Remember the preparations of NASA and FEMA for plans for handling tidal waves and rerouting of the Mississippi?

The next article comes from a San Antonio, Texas newspaper via the New York Times, Los Angeles:

Two weeks ago, one of the largest earthquakes in California history slammed through the Mojave Desert, leaving one person dead, hundreds injured and scores of scientists astonished and shaken.

Astonished because this earthquake did weird things, like setting off earthquakes more than 500 miles to the north, ripping across four existing faults to make a single larger fault, and helping give rise to a new tectonic system that is shearing California away from the rest of North America and nudging it toward Alaska.

And shaken because the nation's most dangerous fault, the San Andreas, just got more dangerous.

Having examined their preliminary data, scientists now say the twin earthquakes that struck on June 28—7.4 (upgraded to 7.5) on the Richter scale of ground motion near Landers and a magnitude 5.6 (upgraded to over 6) near Big Bear—significantly increased the likelihood that the south part of the San Andreas will soon generate a magnitude 8 or greater (10 to 12) earthquake, popularly called the "Big One".

Precisely how soon, they cannot say. [Strange thing is that I am now being denounced and assaulted because YOUR SCIENTISTS HAVE PLACED A PHOTON BELT ENTRY TO OCCUR RIGHT ON JULY 25TH, 1992—WHICH HAS SOMEHOW BECOME "HATONN'S PHOTON BELT". May I remind you, please: HATONN HAS SAID THIS IS NOTHING OF GOD'S ORDER—THE PHOTON BELT WE EXPECT IS A "GREAT BARRIER" OF ENERGY (PHOTONS) AND WILL ENDURE FOR SOME 2000 YEARS TO FOLLOW. THAT IS NOT DUE UNTIL EARLY IN YOUR NEXT CENTURY. WHAT IS THIS LACK OF READING ABILITY? THIS IS YOUR PHOTON SOMETHING OR OTHER AND IS A LOT MORE "DEADLY" THAN ANYTHING GOD MIGHT HAVE IN MIND. ISN'T IT EVEN STRANGER THAT THEY CAN

PINPOINT A PHOTON BELT ON JULY 25 AND CAN'T PREDICT THE "BIG ONE" WITHIN YEARS WHEN BOTH ARE MAN-CAUSED?] Four years ago the U.S. Geological Survey estimated the probability of a huge quake's striking the southern end of the San Andreas Fault at 60 percent in 30 years (they have said this for about 40-50 years). But in interviews last week, most scientists said they expect it to happen much sooner.

"Most of us have an awful feeling that 30 years is wishful thinking," said Dr. Allan Lindh, director of USGS Seismology Branch in Menlo Park, Calif. "Everyone agrees that Los Angeles and San Bernardino should treat this like a final warning. It's like when you clean up camp. It's time to make that last pass through our cities, homes and lives and act as if the damn thing will happen tomorrow."

Dr. Lucille Jones, a leading expert on the southern San Andreas at the USGS office in Pasadena, Calif., said: "This is a wake-up call. I think we're closer than any 30 years. It could be two years or five years or longer. But that doesn't mean people should panic this week. I ask them: 'What are you willing to do for the next two years? We have a higher hazard.'"

Scientists usually take each other's claims with reserve until they have been reviewed by independent experts and published in a scientific journal. The California seismologists have only just begun to analyze the data from the June 28 earthquakes and have not had time to write any papers. But they at least are taking their results seriously.

Scientists at the agency, Jones said, have bolted down bookcases, put Velcro on computer equipment and double-checked water supplies, batteries and backup power systems.

The southern end of the San Andreas Fault has not ruptured for over 300 years, Jones said. When it does, the shaking will be many times stronger than the Landers earthquake and could last up to three and a half minutes. The Landers quake lasted 32 seconds.

Such a catastrophic earthquake could devastate cities like San Bernardino, Riverside and Palm Springs, which are within 20 miles of the San Andreas Fault, said Dr. Thomas Henyey, director of the Southern California Earthquake Center at the University of Southern California.

But Los Angeles and San Diego, which lie farther west, could also sustain serious damage if the shaking lasted three minutes. Some older structures on soft soils, built before strict building codes were adopted, won't be able to handle that much shaking, Henyey said.

So geologists and seismologists are feeling a sense of urgency as they crawl over the newly ruptured faults to find out what happened and what is likely to happen next.

In the meantime, they are trying to solve mysteries about the recent quakes.

[H: Ah ha—in the final sentence is the meat of the story. There are so many "mysteries" to be solved with absolutely no ideas about how or what happened! Man tampers with "Mother Nature" and, boy, the sting will come back to give pain almost instantly!]

Probably not but I can guarantee he would make himself known if he was given as much "push" as was given Perot. It is strange to note that, with this suggestion, teams tore into the possibilities only to find that in most instances the Perot contacts had "never heard of anyone named Gritz" while, not shabbily at all, Gritz is on the ballot in some 19 or more states already! Perhaps, since all were impressed with FIRST BLOOD II (RAMBO), you should simply run Stallone for President and he could shoot his way through the government. # Defining Our Criminal Government

DE FACTO vs. DE JURE

You ones in the world, in every instance around your globe, have "de facto Governments"—not de jure.

GOVERNMENT: DE JURE: The system of polity in a state; that form of fundamental rules and principles by which a nation or state is governed, or by which individual members of a body politic are to regulate their social actions. A constitution, either written or unwritten, by which the rights and duties of citizens and public officers are prescribed and defined.

GOVERNMENT DE FACTO: A government of "face". A government actually exercising power and control, as opposed to the true and lawful government. A government not established according to the constitution of the nation, or not lawfully entitled to recognition or supremacy, but which has nevertheless supplanted or displaced the government de jure. A government deemed unlawful, or deemed wrongful or unjust, which, nevertheless, received habitual obedience from the bulk of the community.

USURPATION: The unlawful encroachment or assumption of the use of property, power or authority which belongs to another. An interruption or the disturbing of a man in his right and possession. The unlawful seizure or assumption of government to supreme power by force or illegally, in derogation of the constitution and of the rights of the lawful ruler.

The many books and articles in patriot libraries give mute testimony to the definitions of words just given. These definitions as used, came from BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY.

MORE SINISTER EVIL

The usurpation is not isolated to any one department or agency only but has saturated the totality of government. But there is a more sinister evil than mere usurpation and the two following words bring that element into clear focus. (Thank you, The Connector, July, 1992.):

SWINDLING: Cheating and defrauding with deliberate artifice. Usually applied to a transaction where the guilty party procures the delivery to him, under a pretended contract, of the personal property of another, with the felonious design of appropriating it to his own use. The acquisition of any personal or movable property, money, or instrument of writing conveying or securing a valuable right, by means of some false or deceitful pretense or device, or fraudulent representation, with intent to appropriate the same to the use of the party so acquiring, or of destroying or impairing the rights of the party justly entitled to the same.

FRAUDULENT CONCEALMENT: The hiding or suppression of a material fact or circumstance which the party is legally or morally bound to disclose. The employment of artifice planned to prevent inquiry or escape investigation and to mislead or hinder the acquisition of information disclosing a right of action; acts relied on must be of an affirmative character and fraudulent... The test of whether failure to disclose material facts constitutes "fraud" is the existence of a duty, legal or equitable, arising from the relation of the parties; failure to disclose a material fact with intent to mislead or defraud under such circumstances being equivalent to an actual "fraudulent concealment." Fraudulent concealment justifying a rescission of a contract is the intentional concealment of some fact known to the party charged, which is material for the party injured to know to prevent being defrauded; the concealment of a fact which one is bound to disclose being the equivalent of an indirect representation that such fact does not exist.

Without going into great detail, the words just shown and defined give one some legal perspective by which to judge those that use such devious tactics to achieve their goals. The acting government of the U.S., certainly, fits those definitions down to the last jot and tittle, almost as though these job descriptions were written just for them.

Fraudulent concealment and swindling touch upon every government transaction in some form or another from entering the military to traveling on the highways. ## "December Surprise" Bank Failures

7/22/92 #1 HATONN

FAILURES OF BANKS AND OTHER GOOD THINGS.

I think that this next item should grasp you where you live—in your pocketbook/bank.

EXPRESS-NEWS, Saturday, July 18, 1992:

FDIC BOSS PREDICTS MORE BANK FAILURES. Taylor denies 'December Surprise' theory.

AP: OKOBOJI, Iowa—Strong profits for the banking industry this year have only delayed another round of large failures, the chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. said Friday.

But William Taylor again denied [H: Anytime they DENY, pay attention!] there is a conspiracy to put off the bank closings beyond November's election. Taylor also said Congress may have to increase the $30 billion it already has provided for bank failures.

"Low interest rates may make things look better, but they will not sustain unsound institutions. There are a number of banks that won't survive," he said.

Taylor spoke at the annual meeting of the Iowa Independent Bankers, an organization of community banks with assets ranging from $10 million to nearly $600 million.

Last year, as Congress was acting to shore up the bank insurance fund the FDIC predicted it would close banks with about $80 billion in assets this year. But Taylor told the bankers that so far banks with only about $22 billion in assets had failed.

"We are behind schedule on this macabre objective," he said.

The brighter than expected performance so far this year has led some economists and politicians to allege a Bush Administration conspiracy to delay bank failures until after the election—a theory popularly known as "The December Surprise". [H: Title gleaned from "October Surprise" in which Mr. Bush was a major operative in the holding of hostages in Iran until after elections.]

"I'm here to tell you that bank failures have indeed been delayed and perhaps a few avoided by low interest rates and other factors. But there has indeed been no effort by the agencies I know to delay the closure of insolvent banks", Taylor said.

A law that takes effect in December authorizing regulators to accelerate bank seizures could raise closures toward year-end.

Taylor said about 80 banks, representing $25 billion to $30 billion in assets, already fail to meet the new standards.

"The 'December Surprise' is like the surprise that comes down the chimney at the end of the year. It may be a surprise to some, but not to those who have been around," he said.

[It shouldn't be a surprise to you either!]

The Iraq Banking Coverup

7/22/92 #1 HATONN

IRAQI-GATE

What do YOU think is going on? Do you actually believe that your trouble with Iraq is over the Agriculture building? Could it be that Gonzalez and his committee are getting close to the truth about Banca Nazionale del Lavoro? And what about Saddam and Noriega AND Bush in the BCCI coalition? But—can one nation just simply murder another to keep the dirt under the rug? Still want that One World Government with U.N. troop enforcement? You are watching it at work from the Elite stealing from you—the people to wars on the basis of a whim and to cover past indiscretions. Do you ACTUALLY THINK Bush can allow Saddam a hearing in all his "mess" of criminal activities? Does this smack of "...yes, we have some U.S. prisoners in Russia!?" Will you pick up your faded and straggled yellow ribbons and bow down to his majesty again? Well, it certainly looks as if you will have the chance to find out.

By the way, how many of you think maybe the murders in Italy are connected to your U.S. government AND the story in point?? THINK AGAIN!

Let us look at the poor bedraggled "Oliver North" of this fiasco cover-up: Christopher Drogoul. You will hear this name again and again so let us get acquainted.

BANKER MAY HELP ANSWER QUESTIONS ON IRAQI LOANS (Peter Matius)

Headline: The Atlanta Journal/The Atlanta Constitution, June, 1992. [H: This is a bit outdated but it fits right in with what is unfolding TODAY.]

Christopher Drogoul has the reputation of a man who answers a question with a riddle.

But since FBI officials raided the Atlanta bank office he managed in 1989, Mr. Drogoul himself has been the enigma.

Federal prosecutors say the Atlanta bank manager "silently picked the pocket of a major Italian bank" by masterminding $5 billion in secret loans used by Iraq to rearm in the years leading up to the Persian Gulf conflict. Mr. Drogoul, 40, approved the loans while he was manager of the Atlanta branch of Italy's Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (BNL).

Today, Mr. Drogoul is expected to plead guilty in federal court in Atlanta, even as Congress convenes a hearing in Washington on whether to seek a special counsel to investigate the administration's prosecution of the BNL case and its policies toward Iraq.

Unambiguous answers may be all that stand between Mr. Drogoul and decades in prison.

But more than his personal fortunes are at stake.

Lawmakers trying to unravel the BNL scandal have raised questions about the Reagan and Bush Administrations' secret support for Saddam Hussein before Iraq invaded Kuwait in August 1990.

Rep. Henry Gonzalez (D-Texas) questions whether those secret policies were affected by personal interests of administration officials. Recently, he released a memo showing that President Bush waived conflict-of-interest rules for 11 Cabinet-level officials so they could help set policy toward Iraq in 1990.

CASUAL ABOUT DETAILS

The answers to Mr. Gonzalez's questions may lie with Mr. Drogoul, a slender, curly-haired, 6-footer born in New Jersey to a French father and German mother. He studied in France and graduated from Temple University in Philadelphia, acquiring several languages along the way.

As a banker he was known more for aggressively seeking new business than for driving a hard bargain. He was considered casual about details and seemed to crave the approval of his subordinates, associates recalled.

Paul von Wedel, Mr. Drogoul's top assistant at BNL, recounts that after signing a particularly important loan agreement, the Iraqis showered him and Mr. Drogoul with gifts. Mr. von Wedel opened one box and blurted: "My kids will love it. A G.I. Joe watch!"

Mr. Drogoul, flushed with embarrassment, quickly corrected his assistant. The face on the Swiss watch was that of Saddam Hussein—not G.I. Joe.

Mr. von Wedel says that during the late 1980's he saw a gentle man turn into "a ruthless, compulsive liar, who cheated and deceived everyone" and has agreed to testify against him.

Often those who speak out about Mr. Drogoul today have something to gain from undermining his credibility, while those who know him best keep their silence.

For example, Bruce Kirwan, a former attorney for the bank, called Mr. Drogoul a con man in court last April and said his insistence on co-operating with the FBI was "the ultimate act of someone who thought he could still con the world."

On the other hand, his public defender, Sheila Tyler, does not return phone calls.

NO PLEA BARGAIN

And his wife, standing last week with a toddler on her hip in the front yard of a $200,000 home in Avondale Estates, would not talk about her husband. Mr. Drogoul recently filed for protection under federal bankruptcy rules to keep creditors from seizing their home.

Mr. Drogoul, who is charged with 347 counts of fraud and conspiracy, told U.S. District Judge Marvin Shoob to expect him to offer a detailed explanation of the loans today. He has no sentencing agreement with prosecutors.

That means Mr. Drogoul is pinning all hopes for leniency on how favorably Judge Shoob, an appointee of President Jimmy Carter, views his statement.

"The fact that he is pleading guilty is not surprising, but it is shocking that there is no sentencing agreement," said Edward Tolley, who represents another defendant who reached a negotiated plea.

In April his bond was revoked and he was jailed, in part for his own protection. Judge Shoob said: "If there are other people involved [in the Iraqi loan scheme], he might be better off in a safe place rather than where he is on the outside."

Mr. Drogoul's road to protective custody in the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary began when he was named head of BNL's Atlanta branch in 1984.

TRUTH=FREEDOM

A SECRET SET OF BOOKS

Under his direction, the Peachtree Center branch office loaned nearly $2 billion to finance agricultural exports to Iraq.

According to prosecutors, Mr. Drogoul recorded the Iraqi loans on a secret set of books because they far exceeded the official limits imposed by BNL headquarters in Rome.

Until whistle-blowers called in the FBI, it had been a relatively simple matter to fund the Iraqi loans by borrowing money on the world market and paying it back as the Iraqis repaid their loans.

Immediately after the scandal broke, Mr. Drogoul was a model of cooperation with both his superiors and prosecutors.

At the bank's request, he immediately flew from Europe, where he was on vacation, to BNL's offices in New York. Then he hired the law firm that the bank recommended. Finally, with the blessing of that firm, he waived his rights against self-incrimination and told the FBI his role in the scheme.

In an interview earlier this year with Il Manifestor, a Communist newspaper in Italy, he said it was his "impression" that former BNL general director Giacomo Pedde knew of his loans to Iraq. But when asked if Mr. Pedde or others knew the details of his scheme, he said: "Not everything... but they knew the general direction."

And when asked to comment on the Bush Administration's knowledge of the Iraqi weapons program financed by BNL, Mr. Drogoul said, "I never understood why in Washington they tell us not to do this or that in our relations with Iraq when the State Department and the Commerce Department and even the White House examined all of the licenses of exportation and approved them."

So, what have we here? Could this be the reason the Agriculture Building in Baghdad is THE specific building of choice under siege by the "inspectors"? You have to recall that the massive loans for arms, etc., were funnelled out of the United States as AGRICULTURE LOANS! Would it not be likely that very important documents regarding same would be housed somewhere in Iraq's "Agriculture Department" buildings? Ponder it!

I release you now to shore up the loose objects and mat the computers. If necessary, someone should perhaps make a trip into the city to make sure all instruments are latched down. I do not see enough care being taken with our project equipment. Thank you.

Hatonn to clear, please.

Research And Verification Department

7/23/92 #1 HATONN

Thank you, Nora, for your hours and hours of work in the dusty archives of a little used portion of the libraries. We shall begin in this Edition of the Liberator, a section on Truth in documentation. It will keep all of us on our toes—I, that I don't "slip" and you, that you must stop disclaiming on the basis of resources.

Nora has always, from onset of the JOURNALS, been my snoopy-dog sleuth. She has dug into ancient texts in effort to find back-up information from credible ancient documents and dictionaries utilized by select groups, etc. She even took my name, Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, apart letter by letter and did, in fact, come up with the meaning of each label, stature and origin for the purpose of confirmation of my being. We will henceforth put segments of her research into each paper and then we will bind the information as suitable pages are assembled. As always, it is hard to know where to begin because there has been basically hop-scotch subject material—as we write on various subjects. I know that you will find it valid and interesting as well as confirming and educational. I ask that she choose a label for the segment of paper reserved for her, i.e.: Nora's Corner (as suggested), Sleuthing, Clues, Under the Eye-glass, or whatever seems appropriate. We are flexible and can change it if it doesn't sit right as we move along.

This portion has been requested for a long time and once we even asked if you-the-readers wanted such an offering—the response was definitely very positive.

You can all find truth in confirmation of all I (we) write for I only compile, bring from the secret places and integrate. You HAVE THE INFORMATION available in all instances—you simply have forgotten how to look for it and where.

Seeing Thru The Lies In Today's News

7/23/92 #1 HATONN

I suggest that all of you regular readers NOW see the non-news in different light and intake. If nothing else, you can begin to generalize and see how differing instances are connected. Today we can give example for new readers just taking this morning's actions here and there. I have no desire nor intent to write shocking revelations—for frankly, there ARE NO NEW shocking revelations. Every tid-bit is OLD and repetitious ad nauseam. My intent is to awaken you to alertness so that you reclaim your capabilities to see through this man-laid veil of lies and into remembering your purpose, experience and journey. What I CAN and DO do is to choose that which is pertinent for the moment and the rebuilding of your knowledge data. I do the research and choosing—Dharma does the secretarial typing and speaking for there is not enough time for any "human" physical to discern, judge and organize such massive amounts of material—even through total plagiarism even IF, in fact, the data were all assembled and ready to simply "copy".

If you doubt the above statement—YOU go into a library and see wherein YOU would begin! I must remind you that some 56 JOURNALS have been compiled—54 by ONE person writing every word, since July of 1989. That is more than a book every three weeks (published) along with weekly (and often more frequent in the beginning) newspapers averaging some 30 pages. This, too, is predominantly produced by ONE person. There is a small group who Edit and Format and still we find that ones complain of not being able to read all we produce. We have chosen to present it through this manner so that we can better evaluate the ability of ones to READ—IF—only one person sets the work to paper.

Why do I need to tell you this once in a while? Because we get new readers who Poo-Poo the material and discount the writers—working on the assumption somehow, that the work has gone on for decades. No, Dharma first heard the name, and met this person, Hatonn, in late 1987. All of our work has been accomplished in less than five years of your counting, and myriads of other projects well under way in that same time period. I would hope that you accept this as a challenge that presents "higher input" to be capable of this kind of production. We are not here for "sensationalism" and constantly must remind all of you of that fact. Ours is not to even have interest in "top-secret" "inside" information other than to tell you what the "big boys" are doing in their own behalf and against you.

When we get enough of your attention we shall move from this type of controversial physical (and political) human distraction to outlay the important information you need for transition to higher levels of experience, integrated with your higher brotherhood of Man. This requires, however, that we give you the correct input to uncover the misconceptions and lies fed to you through the generations of ones who would control the world as a whole. You must understand your "Source" if you are to re-join same—it is quite logical and reasonable—two things you have now been trained to not consider.

SO, THE PHOTON PHENOMENON IN IRAQ

Stop it! You will NOT lay this instance off on any "higher" source of actors. What is happening right now is fully Man-tampered and utilized for self-gain of the political would-be kings.

You may note NOTHING happening in your "neighborhood" but I can assure you that your NAVY is finding itself bound by some kind of phenomenon which periodically shuts down every electric circuit and electronic piece of equipment on board ships and in command centers—in the area of the Persian Gulf and in the Mediterranean Sea.

You plan to "surgically bomb" Iraq again? Where are you going to do that "from"? You are moving the Saratoga carrier from the Mediterranean to the Gulf? Oh? You may be allowed to get it there but you are NOT going to launch planes for bombing runs from it.

You do remember, don't you, that the Gulf War with Iraq was Bush's war? Well, this one is to get rid of the information and destructive documentation against him, personally, this time. If you are a new reader, you had best get the back copies of the paper, the TANGLED WEB series of JOURNALS and pay attention to the "Gonzalez" congressional hearings.

The act of aggression as pronounced by your administration against Iraq WILL GET YOU INTO A NUCLEAR WAR AND THE BOMBING RUNS WILL BE OUT OF ISRAEL—WHY DO YOU REALLY THINK BAKER IS IN THE "HOLY LAND"? (The very term makes me ill.)

TIME YET TO FUNCTION WITH INTELLIGENCE

Let me tell you how my crew functions. We have ones fully planning to fly, tomorrow, from L.A. to Oregon (if the "big one" hasn't happened). We have ones going about their business as usual—as long as they can do so. They have "prepared" for contingency happenings and now go about their work.

Man has "free-will" and you can be victimized or take control—whichever is your "bag". Constant asking "if" "it" is on or off doesn't do a thing except immobilize you. The things coming down right now upon you from earthquakes to power failure through pulsed photon lasers are none of our doing and, therefore, not in our mandate to control as to "timing". I can only present probabilities such as how long the San Andreas can stand the bombardment it is receiving before slipping. You have some little recognized scientists whose work is often simply laughed at—who can tell you almost to the minute when the rift will occur—but you don't listen—so why continue to ask and annoy them?

One of these men remains in a "deadly" zone and, yet, he has prepared his instruments, laboratory and home for major impact so that he can continue to record FOR YOU. I honor this man for, actually, we are not at risk of life or limb. Our ground crew remains at risk but they, too, have prepared and will simply ride out whatever comes down the pike.

PUBLICITY MAY AVERT CATASTROPHE

You do, however, do great service to your fellow man by making all of this information public—even if it be in ridicule for THE ONES IN CHARGE DARE NOT bring forth the full intent for the plan has been uncovered and the impact removed. The adversary relies on secrecy and deceit to pull off his dirty-tricks. Once revealed, he is caught in his own trap if he continues with his evil plans of destruction. If he cannot blame "nature" or "act of God"—he is then caught holding the bag of tricks in his own dirty little hands. The alternative is to ridicule and denounce, lie and shut-down publications and pronouncements of truth by force. This is happening at this instant with many writers and not to leave us out—we too. You may not realize it but you averted massively destructive wars by U.S. "first-strike" on several occasions by the publicity of one or two men who knew the plan and blew the whistle, the first daring one being Dr. Peter Beter and a risk-taking radio interviewer on the very morning of the planned strike. How many times have YOU been saved from something and knew NOT? With every major disaster you get tale after tale from ones who had "literal miracles" in timing or placement. Where are YOUR guardian angels? They are there if you but LISTEN and act on the information. You who ridicule SHALL NOT HAVE THE LAST LAUGH!

WE ARE HERE!

Do you not think the Elite know we are here? Do you not think they know that the enemy has capability of attack and defense greater than your own? Indeed! They not only know but are annoyed that we continue to botch their plans by telling you the truth of their actions and plans. I want you to understand that THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN IS THE SWORD! if it be in Truth that the words are presented.

What can your offenders do right now? We have told you their plans—if they continue, they will be discovered for we already have spread too much information. If they pull it off, the worst is a bit of interesting ridicule and public discrediting which will call more attention to our work and gain more interested people to our readership. The finer "wars" of experience are NOT fought with a gun, my friends—not at all. Frankly, I care not either way—for we need more "time" to get our working elements moving. We are not in YOUR game of war or sorting of power—we have a mission which considers neither. YOU may think we LOSE either way—NO, INDEED—WE GAIN. El-

OTHER WAY! I believe it would be considered a sick mind that would demand a 12 point earthquake to prove a space-cadet or a "nothing" newspaper and JOURNALS inept. Funny thing—ones have described this material as coming from Dharma's "insane mind". WHO is insane—the one who tells Truth or the one who demands destruction for "proof"? The only thing you can logically deduct, if you squeak by again for a short few weeks, is that I speak Truth and the happenings are "totally" controlled by MAN. You can know this much because your own scientists are expecting the "big one" and cannot figure out what in the soup is going on. When they "find out" they must then also bury the information under orders "not to panic the public". But while they are silent, the military troops build-up to "control riots". Riots? Why would you have riots? You see, chelas, YOU must begin to put the pieces together for selves and then you do not have to simply accept anything from either the Elite nor from "ME", for you will see beyond the facade of secrecy and KNOW the big boys are up to something—which is NOT going to do you much good.

COLLAPSING JAPANESE BANKS

Things are about to burst in Japan within the Banking system. I suggest to you who are waiting for documentation from the Japanese Bank as noted to me—get onto this NOW. There is hanky-pank and the Japanese stock-market is on the verge of collapse. I simply suggest you have your people take appropriate ACTION without waiting longer for after the top-level "meetings" tomorrow and on the week-end, there will perhaps be some massive changes and, at the least, delays in transactions.

MERCENARIES ACT OUT PLAY

You must also note what is taking place in the "bloc" nations where the warring continues and continues despite "cease fire, agreements" and even "humanitarian" shipments are interrupted. The news reporters have now stated: "...it appears that factions are firing on themselves in deliberate efforts to keep the fighting going through incidents appearing to be from opposition forces." NO—the intelligence mercenaries are continuing the "set-up" incidents to INSURE THERE IS NO END OF THE HOSTILITIES. Pay attention, chelas, or they will slip these things over on you. Watch all those cute little blue hats at work! The down-and-dirty players won't even be wearing the visible sign but it's all the same under the sheep's costume!

Humanitarian aid? What is this "new deal", "old deal", "let's make a deal" and/or "no deal". You allow wars of incredible hardship in South Africa, the East Bloc nations and all over the map—but you will go into Iraq and bomb an Agricultural building along with a few hundred thousand people who get in the way, while you still cause "inhuman" murder upon thousands and thousands of innocent people in Iraq? Is this truly the kind of NEW WORLD ORDER and ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT WITH FREEDOM AND JUSTICE FOR NONE THAT YOU WANT? Well, you are going to get it whether or not you like it. You already have it!

Thank you, Hatonn to clear.

NORA'S RESEARCH CORNER

ATON AND AKHENATON (PART I OF A SERIES)

ATON, the One Creator God, was recognized by Akhenaton in the 14th Century B.C.

Akhenaton was known as Amenhotep IV, King of Egypt, prior to his change of worship from Amun-Ra to Aton. Amun-Ra was the reigning sun-god worshipped by former royal households and the established priesthood. Apparently Akhenaton decided to move the royal household and administration from Thebes to Akhentaten to break with the old religion of Amun-Ra. The archaeological digs at Tell El-Amarna in Egypt are the sight where Akhenaton had his new administrative city (Akhentaten) for about 15 years. The dates of his reign have been fairly accurately set at between about 1375 and 1355 B.C.

Akhenaton had tried to reform the religion in Egypt, aimed at the extirpation of the cult of Amun-Ra, removing names from monuments, etc. His movement failed. The powerful priesthood of Amun-Ra hated him, and his "neglect of Egypt's empire" antagonized the army. There is some speculation that the king and his wife, Nefertiti, were murdered. In any event, Akhenaton's reign came to an abrupt end. Soon after Akhenaton's death his memory was thoroughly removed and the capitol was returned to Thebes.

Nefertiti and Akhenaton's children were all daughters. Therefore, when the king died it was a son-in-law, Tutanhaten, who became king. He made peace with the priests at Thebes, and changed his name to Tutankhamen. He is probably best known by the name, "King Tut."

Because the "memory of Akhenaton and Aton were removed from the records of Egypt," it was not until the archaeological find at Tell El-Amarna that much was known about Akhenaton and Aton (at least in the West). The site of Akhenaton's administration was discovered in 1887. It yielded about 355 letters and cuneiforms documents, as well as some new naturalistic forms of Egyptian Art, which broke with the old stylized art forms of Egypt.

The argument still rages among scholars as to the nature of Aton. Many still believe, or interpret the information to show that Aton was a new sun-god that Akhenaton attempted to use to overthrow the reigning "gods of Egypt".

Unfortunately, some of the writings and art works found at Akhentaten (Tell El-Amarna) do not clarify the issue for everyone. "It is not possible to gather precise information as to belief or doctrine," according to Anthony S. Mercatante in his book, Who's Who in Egyptian Mythol- ogy, "Incense was burnt several times a day and hymns were sung to the god, accompanied by harps and other instruments. The offerings to the god consisted of fruits and flowers. There were no animal sacrifices. The worship was joyous, and the surroundings pictured by the artists of the period were bright and cheerful."... "Variant spellings (of Aton) are Aton, Adon and Eton."

There is a carving on a stone stele showing Akhenaton and Nefertiti giving offerings to what appears to be a representation of a sun, an orb with rays extending out to the earth(?) ending in hands holding the ankh (sign of life in Egypt) and with an uraeus at the base of the orb. There is no information as to the artist, the meaning, or the date of the art work. It is an unusual representation, and appears to indicate, from other Egyptian symbology, that the "sun" or "god" or "Aton" is wise and life-giving. Unfortunately, the resemblance to the sun leads many to conclude that Aton was another sun-god! In addition, a "Hymn to Aton", also found at the site, has elements which support this conclusion, although not decisively. Anyone studying the art and its meaning needs to keep in mind that the written language was very primitive during Akhenaton's time. The hieroglyphs and art had to tell the story.

Barbara Mertz, who received her Doctor's degree from the Oriental Institute at the University of Chicago, spent many years in travel and study in preparation for writing her book, Temples, Tombs and Hieroglyphs, The Story of Egyptology. She states that one of the fore-runners of Egyptology, and especially the expounder of the hieroglyphic language, was James Henry Brested, who wrote a major work on the subject. Brested called Akhenaton "the first individual in history" and "gave Akhenaton the distinction of being founder of the world's first monotheistic religion. Brested has been accused of overenthusiasm; some scholars loathe Akhenaton as much as Brested admired him." (end quote)

In their article on Akhenaton, the Encyclopedia Judaica concludes..."at best, Akhenaton's 'Monotheism' (including the Hymn to Aton which resembles Psalm 104) was a form of Monolatry. After Akhenaton's death, the old religious order triumphed and Atonism was effectually stamped out."

One of the subjects of much debate is the physical form of Akhenaton, which shows slender shoulders, a protruding tummy and heavy hips. Akhenaton's images, and those of his family, are more true to life than all the stylized images of kings that preceded him. Unfortunately, the true images of the preceding and succeeding rulers are not available for comparison. Nevertheless, his family is very attractive and the art work reveals a loving family group.

The controversy over Akhenaton and the "Aton" appears to have grown more heated since Barbara Mertz and James Henry Brested. Cyril Aldred in his book, Akhenaton, King of Egypt, discounts much of what the former two said. The copy of the book I was able to borrow had notes scribbled in it throughout—obviously someone else objected to Aldred's conclusions. There are uncommon reasons why the subject is so controversial—and yet not too well known except among Egyptologists for the most part.

Some questions I personally encountered while reading about the Tell El-Amarna digs are:

1. If, as Brested credited Akhenaton with, "the distinction of being the founder of the world's first monotheistic religion" is true, where does that leave Moses and the Israelites? A most difficult question because of the dates and because of those administrative letters found at Tell El-Amarna.

According to Ussher's chronological table of dates in the Oxford Bible Concordance, Joseph was in Egypt about 1729 B.C.; Moses was born in Egypt about 1571 B.C.; the children of Israel left Egypt about 1491 B.C.; and the conquest of Canaan (Palestine) took place between 1491 and 1427 B.C. This means there should have been some knowledge of the Twelve Tribes of Israel in Palestine and among the rulers of the surrounding areas well before the time of Akhenaton in 1375 B.C.—100 years after the “conquest” of Canaan by the “Israelites”. Also, since the Biblical account says Moses was raised by a daughter of the King in Egypt; and prior to that Joseph had been the King’s Visier; and there had been quite a fuss when the children of Israel left Egypt—there should have been some record somewhere giving an account of these happenings in Egypt.

There was no record of Joseph, Moses or the Hebrews anywhere in Egypt prior to Akhenaton. Also, the administrative letters between rulers at the time of Akhenaton make no mention of the Israelites or of the Hebrews. The letters are from rulers as far away as Babylon and all the places in between. In fact, Egypt was ruler of Palestine at the time of Akhenaton — having their vassals in place there—although there were some problems and all was not well. Nevertheless there are substantial and serious questions about Biblical accounts—and the problems have not been dealt with by those who should be about the business of the truth. The very foundation of the story of the Israelites crumbled in 1887!!

So—if Egypt was in possession of Palestine at the time of Akhenaton (1375 B.C.) how do we know? There are administrative letters to tell us from the Tell El-Amarna. There were complaints from other rulers asking for Akhenaton’s help with money and armies. The fortresses in Palestine had been neglected during Amenhotep III’s reign and needed strengthening. A fierce band of desert raiders, called Habiru, were causing problems—apparently, from available reports, Akhenaton was not a man of war.

There is more to discuss about the finds at Tell El-Amarna which I will take up again. Before leaving the subject of Aton and Akhenaton you need to have the “Hymn to Aton,” ascribed to Akhenaton and apparently found at Tell El-Amarna. It is the interpretation of Brested found in Barbara Mertz’s book, followed by Psalm 104 (from the Bible) for comparison:

Aton Hymn

When thou settest in the western horizon of heaven
The World is in darkness like the dead....
Every lion cometh forth from his den,
The serpents they sting.
Darkness reigns....
Bright is the earth when thou rises in the horizon....
The two lands are in daily festival,
Awake and standing upon their feet....
Then in all the world they do their work.
How manifold are all thy works!
They are hidden from before us.
On thou sole god, Whose powers no other posseseth.
Thou didst create the earth according to thy desire, being alone:
Men, all cattle, large and small;
All that are upon the earth.

Psalm 104

Thou makest darkness and it is night,
Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth;
The young lions roam after their prey; they seek their meat from God....

The sun riseth, they get them away
And lay down in their dens.
Man goeth forth unto his work.
And to his labor until the evening....
Oh Lord, how manifold are thy works!

In wisdom hast thou made them all;
The earth is full of thy creatures.

Dr. Mertz sees the above as being “two examples of a literary tradition which flourished throughout the Near East over a vast span of time!” She later writes some phrases from Syria and Nubia where “Aton is God also”:

“Their tongues are diverse in speech, and their forms and their skins likewise;
For thou, Divider, has divided the peoples.”

It appears Aton was known to more people than we in the West have known! Also, it appears the writer of the above phrase may have been one dispersed from Babylon at the time the tower of Babel was put down. Unless of course there was no Tower of Babel as we are told.

If you are able to obtain some books to read on Aton and Akhenaton I suggest you read from several authors, in order to draw your own conclusions. Aton and Akhenaton are a controversial subject among scholars and authors. Obtain as many early books as possible.

WONDERMENT WANDERINGS

This moment is the last of all having gone before! It is also the beginning of all which is yet to come! What will you make of this moment?

CONFUSION

Ah, you want to know all the answers? No, you do not or you would study your lessons so that you can see the sequence unfolding before you.

The adversary is the Prince of confusion—there can be no negative input or fear brought upon you except in confusion for how else can you become helpless victims? Confusion is the primary tool of choice and it is utilized with a myriad of distractions. Therefore, let me give you some clues to attend and see if you had noticed and if you can relate each to the others. It is a wondrous game if you but consider it objectively.

NASA UPDATE

Late yesterday evening we had several reports from ones who had contacts within the NASA community—some at very high levels of management. The word has gone out to higher echelons to secretly spread the word of top-secret activities and the terms utilized are: "Tell the people you contact in your families and close circles to NOT panic but on the 26th or 27th there will be a period of total darkness with no electric power and a shut-down of all electrical equipment. The notification is not to go outside your immediate family units." Well, we are close family units, are we not?

This SHOULD mean to you that the government and NASA are on top of everything coming

NEXT ALERT

There is a TOP-SECRET "test" of FEMA tomorrow (25th) and this word is straight out of Vandenberg, among other places. There will be a period of at least four full hours where FEMA will be placed in TOTAL control of the nation! Could this have anything to do with "null-time", "no-power", "riot control" and "earthquakes"? Better look very, very closely. This will be a nationwide sweep of the systems. This is so top secret that when ones were questioned on the "inside" the reaction was one of total astoundment and "...how in hell did you get that information—no one knows THAT!" Obviously secrets don't get kept very well any longer.

SHAKE, RATTLE AND ROLL

Cal-Tech has now issued a formal alert to all participants in the Fire Department, Emergency Preparedness, Rescue Forces, etc., etc., that there must be total alert for the San Andreas is going to "go" at a level of 8 to 12 points within the next 144 days (but expectation is within the next hours or immediate "days"). This is a little less spooky in accepting because one of our own people was one of the ones notified directly.

IRAQ WAR

Iraq's ambassador said emphatically that "there will be no war". He said this twice on Larry King's show last evening. How can he be so sure? Because word is out that it is a personal thing with Bush to bomb the Agricultural building in Baghdad. Therefore, Mr. Bush has to get the other nations of the Council (U.N.) to set it up and make the order. BUT— this won't be so good because Mr. Bush has been informed that if there is war over this—ALL INFORMATION REGARDING ALL BANK DEALS, WEAPONS BUILDUP THROUGH THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENTS, ETC., WILL BE MADE KNOWN. RECORDS ARE CAREFULLY KEPT AND INSPECTORS WILL BE DEMANDED FROM OTHER THAN INSPECTOR TEAM MEMBERS—AND THEY WILL BE TAKEN TO THE EXACT LOCATION OF "DUPLICATES" OF ALL TRANSACTIONS! I would guess, therefore, that it is a bit more awkward than simply ordering up a bombing raid. I do note, however, that most of the we-the-people questioned on the street are fully in favor of going back to war to "get Saddam". (sic, sic)

BANKING MANEUVERS

Please note, States, what is happening in California. There is still no budget and banking chits (IOU's) are now going to be refused—starting with Bank of America! This is far more important than that which seems obvious. This coming weekend seems to be heading up to be most interesting if some of the plans don't get botched.

EARTHQUAKE (THE BIG ONE)

All scientific registers on sensitive equipment—pointed (points) to within these immediate 24 hours—not 144 days, for this big shaker in California.

I'm sorry, chelas, but we aren't getting much information regarding quakes, etc., from elsewhere than California. We note the rest of the country is being beaten with weather traumas and flooding. The NASA information, however, came straight from NASA headquarters—not California.

If you must go tromping about and wheeling and dealing in the coastal areas of the Pacific and along the coastal areas of the Atlantic—TAKE YOUR EMERGENCY GEAR, FOOD AND CLEAN WATER, WITH YOU AT ALL TIMES. If they pull off major shakers on you along with an electric grid shutdown, you are going to be somewhat inconvenienced, I'm afraid. Highways are not expected to remain open—ESPECIALLY WITH FEMA IN CONTROL—FOR THE FIRST THING WHICH WILL HAPPEN IS A CLOSING OF HIGHWAY TRAFFIC.

You ones can argue with me about how "...and I HAVE to go". So—go. Just expect to be blasted, battered and torn—and probably hungry if you don't prepare. I can see your tendency to "defy God", but FEMA??? I spread "fear"? I just suggest you be on your good manners and behaviors as you say goodbye to ones who travel tomorrow—like as if it will be the LAST TIME YOU SEE THEM if you be in one of the stricken areas. If vacations won't wait—then priorities are somewhat disordered, I would suggest.

NO—I can't tell you WHEN, then, it would be OK. You are getting what everyone is getting, and more upon which to make your choices and decisions.

You might well say, "...God will warn me—if—" My, my, and what makes you think THIS IS NOT THAT WARNING? I would say that the adversary's plans are working precisely the way laid forth—confuse, fatigue and when you give up—STRIKE. I note that ones in my own immediate team have already headed into the coastal area for a confounded seminar to push the book, COMMITTEE OF 300. I would note that Dr. Coleman, the author of that book, cancelled his own participation in the conference!! He DOES get inside information and I would take that as a great clue and warning.

BY THE WAY

IF your "allies" of the U.N. are stupid enough to bomb that building in Baghdad—watch out. You will explode some devices which will cause you to rue the day you ever heard of life-forms. You think I jest? Forget it, this is beyond anything to jest about.

Let us look at the things of which only lies have been brought back to you, including "surgical bombing" which is now called "carpet bombing (widespread and at random)" to "...we have had to go in and destroy the rest of the Scud missiles." Oh? Then why, yesterday, were the announcements made that this "...need to bomb Iraq before they can launch their SCUDS at Israel is absolutely mandatory!" hogwash? Is it just another incident of "overlooked" intelligence? Or, are you-the-people in the frying pan again with no way out save by way of the fire?

TOO LATE NEWS

I can only offer that which is available. We do the very best we can to keep you right up but we only print on Tuesdays for the paper and then there is the mail.... I continue to write even if things are moot issues by the time of receiving the material for you can refer to the datelines and know that we did what we could. If you are still around to receive this—then might we have a moment of prayer of thanks for being allowed a bit of additional time to serve and re-structure?

How many of you could watch Bush as he was booed out of his speech regarding the POW/MIA issue yesterday? Did you notice the response of the audience when he started his old saw and song: "...do you think your Commander and Chief would for one minute let even one man .....???" The group was "older" and "wiser" this time and he finally had to stop his speaking. But what I hope you noted was this man's steel faced determination to "have his way". Indeed there will be some hard skirmishes before this November fiesta. You even had an officer of the Korean war KNOW about over 300 men who were taken prisoner and placed in Siberia—from the Korean war. He says that he even suggested the public not be informed and the facts be kept secret. Any of those boys belong to any of you? All of them!

A Refreshing Conversation With God

7/24/92 #1 HATONN

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD

May I share Dharma's conversation with God as we sit to pen and all seems so dreary and hard. She ponders and vacillates in her "wants" and "don't wants" just as do all of you. Fear is no longer among her reactions, however, as I find is the case with all my workers herein. Frustrations and limitations of acceptance are annoying—not earthquakes and null-times. Dharma longs for a few days where things don't work—especially computers and "radios". Also, our people are often desirous of "having a 'big one'" just to make a point. Well, that is not the way GOD works and so be the higher intelligence devoid of revenge as a cause of action. All of you have been told over and over again—THE ADVERSARY WILL DESTROY HIMSELF—GOD DOES NOT MAIM, KILL OR DESTROY. GOD HEALS, LOVES AND CREATES. May your understanding grow until you find peace in all things.

DHARMA'S CONVERSATION WITH GOD:

The God IS my shepherd and I know that I need "want not"—but I constantly "do". I "want" until my very being is filled with it and I cannot sort one "want" from another. But I think, Father, that I only want to serve when the straws are loaded and I find my back is stronger now than ever before and my being is strong now that I have shed the entrapment of ego desires as separate from "being" wants. I wonder, Father, however, if I can serve well enough that your message is received and your honor served for I care not what is said of me—but my heart is torn when your voice is so denied and ridiculed! Man cannot know that which he does and I anger and wish to strike-out and it does nothing but worsen the circumstance.

You give me water from your "still waters" and I seem to appreciate it not—and yet I know you will be there with more when my cup is empty.

I know that we are now walking in the valley of the shadows—and death and misery shall be all about us and I wonder, Father, if I will be strong enough to LIVE in this form for I should surely rather go home and let another—any other—take this cup. There is no bitterness in this cup—only sweet and purely-given love but I think I cannot face that which will come upon my brethren and those I perceive to be my own. They see not, they listen not and I cannot seem to reach them and yet I know that I must release it unto your care for it is yours that shall be done—not mine.

Please let that which I do reflect brightly upon your own being that others do not see darkness in YOU by looking upon me. I ask only to serve well and receive clearly that I NEVER mislead another or bring sorrow or pain deliberately upon another for I have been given the gift of gifts—to knowingly serve as your hands—not greater than any other—only it is that "I know" your presence and I do so wish that all could touch that moment as has become my corner of the universe.

I don't understand, Father, but it seems alright that way for I know that at the proper time I will be given all as it comes into its time of unfolding. Survive? I don't wish to "survive"—I only want to get my job done so that I can come home—oh Father, I am so lonely to come home—I don't

GOOD BOOKS TO NOTE

I am informed from America West that the book IMMACULATE DECEPTION of which I have recently been writing—should be ready for distribution by the 15th of August. I do, indeed, highly urge you to get this volume for it is equal in high-level information to the "Committee of 300" output. Are there some errors? Indeed—that is why you have been given so much other information against which to sort and discern. Sharing and probing is the only way you will ever find the story taking shape in correctly factual presentation.

HICRV

No, this is not a backwater "hick's recreational vehicle". This is some stupid label indicating that "they" have developed a nice new retro-virus which will ultimately be more deadly than HIV (all of them). You will find that it will "miraculously and coincidentally" match that which the "shuttle crew" was supposedly working on "in space". No, you are just being introduced to the next form of the "Last Great Plague". (Which reminds me to remind you that the PHOENIX JOURNAL, AIDS, THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE is one of the books trying to be banned by the adversary (along with the PHOENIX CONNECTION series) because our colleague Walter Russell wrote a few chapters therein.) By the way, when the "lifelines" go down to the coastal areas—these diseases will contaminate EVERYTHING. I suggest you sit quietly down NOW and get things squared away a bit with GOD. What in the world do you have that is so all-fired important to get done "right now"? You've waited this long—can not your travels and games wait a few more days until at least the official officials give you a bit of an all-clear?

by Sananda, Hatonn, Ashtar,
Tesla & Russell
$10.00...150 pp
ISBN: 0-922356-04-1

The deceptive origins of this man-produced disease are revealed, including the link with cattle and sheep viruses. The sobering introduction of AIDS as a means for population reduction by the World Health Organization through the Smallpox Vaccination program is exposed, as well as involvement by the Public Health Service through a Hepatitis B study on homosexual men in New York, Los Angeles, and San Francisco. Learn of the unique mutating ability of this virus and why there is no such thing as "safe sex". Viruses are crystalline structures, and therefore, may be destroyed through the use of electromagnetic sound and light frequencies. The cutting-edge research of Strecker, Rife, Priore, Russell, Crane, Cathie, and Tesla are all explored in this profound and troubling work. Become informed by the story behind the story you are being told.

PLEIADES CONNECTION SERIES:

The following series of Journals (or audiobook sets) are called "The Pleiades Connection" series because a goodly number of Earth humans are from the lineage of ones from Pleiades.

(#22) PLEIADES CONNECTION Vol. I
by Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn
$10.00...165pp
ISBN: 0-922356-31-9...12/90
or Audiobook (7 tapes)
$30.00

What are the origins of human? What is man's purpose on earth? In this compelling and profound JOURNAL the direct link with the star system Pleiades is given. Covering a vast range of topics, a number of important issues are explored, including: The basic differences between the religious beliefs of Christianity and the spiritual "Christ" way of life * The advantages of Dome housing * Pleiadian cosmonauts * The "Golden" Age * The purpose of planetary cycles * Rules governing Pleiadian Contacts * The Ancients/Native people and their connection to Pleiades.

(#31) GOD SAID: LET THERE BE LIGHT
Pleiades Connection
Vol. II
by Hatonn & Germain
$10.00...223pp
ISBN: 0-922356-42-4...6/91
or Audiobook (8 tapes)
$30.00

The nature of God and Creation is LIGHT. This JOURNAL offers a comprehensive understanding of our very nature, where we came from and ultimately return to, and how to create balance. Among the vast array of concepts which are presented: Expansion and Compression equals life/death cycles * The true meaning of sensation, consciousness, Cosmic Consciousness, "thinking", Imagination and Inspiration * Illusion and Reality * How to KNOW God * The Voidance Principle * Two-Way Universe * Polarity * The principle, law and symbol of Love * Wave fields * Cubes, Spheres, and Spirals in Nature.

(#32) I AND MY FATHER ARE ONE
Pleiades Connection
Vol. III
by Hatonn & Germain
$10.00...238pp
ISBN: 0-922356-46-7...6/91
or Audiobook (9 tapes)
$30.00

Master Germain details the nature of God/Creator and how He Creates. The various explanations include: the True Nature of electricity, gravitation, magnetism * heat and cold * The undivided light, the divided light * cubes/spheres * centering * the power of Desire * simulated idea and energy * duality of electric effect * the nature of matter * the One idea (love) of Creation. Germain also explains the misconceptions of science about energy and matter * The Mother/Father light is defined.

(#33) MURDER BY ATOMIC SUICIDE
Pleiades Connection
Vol. IV
by Germain & Hatonn
$10.00...148pp
ISBN: 0-922356-47-5...7/91
or Audiobook (5 tapes)
$25.00

Germain presents the details of what radiating atoms are, why certain atoms and minerals are to be left in their natural state and the consequences of violating Nature's laws and processes. We are warned about the danger and seriousness of atomic energy and the resulting nuclear contamination to the survival of all life on this planet.

(#34) PHONE HOME, ET
Pleades Connection
Vol. V
by Hatonn & Germain
$15.00...190pp
Includes Two Audio Tapes
ISBN: 0-922356-48-3...8/91
or Audiobook (7 tapes)
$30.00

Germain stresses the importance of communion (meditation) with God and gives excellent "how to" instructions to accomplish successful communication with God. There are two instructive audio tapes to assist in relaxation, clearing your space and relinquishing your ego-consciousness to receive inspiration, knowledge and guidance from God.

like it here very much for I couldn't remember how it would be and that the hardest things would be of the heart and soul and not of the physical. I do not understand how WE could take this most perfect and wonderful place and bring such degrading pain and agony upon her being—is YOUR forgiveness big enough for this? I think that mine is not so I'll have to work at that I suppose. I think as I sit here that there is nothing to "forgive" except the asking you to forgive me for not "remembering" and "forgetting" so completely. Could I walk through this again and again and remember so little and learn so little? Must the lessons always be harder and harder and harder? The tasks are nothing—I know that my task is the least in difficulty—for I have not even to "think" and others must do so much to bring the word to use. I am grateful and cherish my place—I must have done something right along the way—I wonder, Father, what it might have been for I don't remember earning these stars in my crown.

Please look after the lambs, Father, for I know that I cannot nor have I the "right", but I will do that which I can to hold the lamp so that others can see the way as it is shown to us who serve here in this garden overgrown with thorns and weeds—perhaps we can sort some good from the chaff.

Gyeorgos, what ever are we doing? I can't remember the way and I am weary of the trail—did we actually think we could do this job laid forth? I must rest on your KNOWING because I try, but I cannot remember enough. My mind is stuffed to bursting with it all and, yet, it seems I cannot remember any of it worthy of reflection. I sit here and stare at symbols following each other across a blue background and marvel at the very daring of such a mission. How came "I" to do this? I cannot comprehend it and I know that the answer is kept just out of my reach and understanding. I miss Paul today, Father, and I want him to know that I am trying to do my job as he constantly reminded me—in my own lack of understanding of purpose—will the child always lead the parent? How I wish to have him back to find what he saw that I could not see. We write on his grave marker, "He could see too far," and I can now understand at least that much and I missed the diamond for the moment of discontent which I felt needed the "doing" more than "hearing" and the opportunity is lost forever. Please do not let me lose again because of failure to SEE.

I sit here and I can feel the earth quiver and tremble—stretched unto the breaking and I wonder how much more she can take of the pulses before she rends apart. How much more of the pulses can we take before we rend asunder—I think my head will burst—for I feel the time upon us and there is no place to hide and I want it OVER—just let it be over for the waiting is so hard—it is the waiting which seems endless. I hear voices from another time, another place and those from the room next door and I cannot separate them. I've seen the places prepared for us and they are wondrous—I wonder why man cannot see? How came it to be that I can see those things and others cannot? I am blessed but I know not why or how. I know that I, too, had choices—but why does it seem that there were no other alternatives save this one?

I miss Little Crow today—he has kept the wisdom and still has been human and strong—why can I not be strong and remember always—wisdom? He does not always practice in wisdom, however—perfection is so blasted elusive. If we are to walk this path—why then, can we not "save" another? Would it not be rather nice? And yet, how smug of me, I see nothing to save anyone "from", for they do that which they will in any event so why would "my" way be better than theirs? I CAN see THAT one—for I do know the end of my journey and the way to get there—most do not and I am sorry for that ignorance for they only have to look and take.

So much for my prattlings. It seems there is so much and you ones of your realms are here so much and, yet, I have no "time" or "space" to thank you for the gifts you give to me. It is hard for one cannot even "speak" for another but how great that we can "feel" for another—might this be the point? To truly "feel" with the soul must somehow be the point for I find no other. I further realize, this moment, that I do all this for myself and not magnificently for "others" and I suddenly know that this is the way it must be for there is only the ONE and I have found it. I think, sir, that I can go back to our work now for I am again "still". Thank you for hearing me, Father, for the days seem short and filled with confusion and I understand why ones write to you through me—for in the writing comes the understanding—the very act of putting thoughts into fabric woven into meaning. I shall look differently at the many letters which flow—for ones simply seek to touch and pen their thoughts and there needs be a receiver-transmitter to share reality. The greatest gift which is given to me, after all, is the acceptance of that greater source for which I represent a contact. May I always see the writings as the gift and love it is—and never a burden for ones share their hearts with you and I can visit in their quiet places and through that I am blessed. May I never treat it as a burden for it is in your hands—not mine. I can only apologize that my limitations, of necessity, become yours as well. Please just let no one judge you as lacking by that which I cannot do for often I believe it to be that way.

Thank you for your patience as we grope our way along and lag with our lessons. Thank you, too, for letting us grow together so that we are not alone for it is not enough to have YOU "there" and us "here" and, yet, it is hard to break the teachings of the eons of time—thank you, sir, that the soul KNOWS so much more than the facade of physical for therein is the comfort—within in the KNOWING.

I once watched a man speak and he held such intense drive and knowing what he was seeking and his need to achieve. I remember saying to self and others present, that "it would be so wonderful to have such a knowing of direction that NOTHING would be worthy of distraction from that cause nor any price too high to pay in service"—how wonderful to have found it! How wonderful to understand the thrust and drive of a patriot and Godly man such as James Gritz and others who now come into my knowing who will push forward at ALL costs to the physical being or material gain. I now can understand it and I am grateful for that understanding because I see ones seeking, so honestly, purpose and it is so hard to stand by and know they can find no help save God through self in the finding.

Is it alright, Father—I don't like most of the lessons! I simply do not like almost all of the lessons—but my soul seems to do so—what a strange contradiction of experience. I believe that life is a total contradiction and someday I would like to spend time on that subject with you, please. Ah, yes sir, I do see—the contradictions are sorted through the wisdom gleaned from the lessons—salu. Yes, I think I can handle that bit of insight and would you grant me someday, somewhere—TIME to think upon these things? Thank you for hearing my petition for my heart was truly weary this day and I thank ones for allowing me to take "their" time for self. I know that we all ask the same, Father—to not err and to not miss that which we should be doing as our portion. Please, just always let us see our steps that we miss nothing allotted to our attention and responsibility for that which each of us does—touches so many. I think back to a time sitting with a friend (a stranger then) in Mt. Shasta—by the name of John—who offered so much and "took responsibility" in a situation because he looked at me and said, "I dare not take the chance that this is not most important." I wonder if he remembers and could he ever know how much those few minutes have touched this journey over and over again. It was an unlikely meeting and yet over the years and only a couple of meetings since—paths have been changed and guidance and protection given and friendship cemented as if in eternal intent. I have been blessed with many of these guides and some who served as teachers which seemed to have adverse consequences—I wonder which gave the best lessons? I know which I prefer—I simply wonder which lessons are greater? I can discern now,

Father, for you have taught me well—I blunder so much less frequently now and the facades cannot stand in the light if they be ill-intended beings within the shrouds. I remember Little Crow sitting and seeing more than I would ever see within myself and he knew me not, only just having met some half hour prior—is it always that others can see that which we cannot see for self? I do see that we must each do our portion or others cannot complete their own. I don't think I like that for it seems the responsibility is great indeed. Please don't ever allow me to cause another to fail in his given task because I did not do mine. I guess we will know when enough is enough and it is finished—but on the other hand, I think that it shall never be finished.

Yes, I see why the ten commandments are only eight in other places of God—because how can one discern the Sabbath for all days should be kept "Holy" and how can we discern when to rest (goof-off)? If nothing is ever "finished", only continuing forever—then some of those "man-made" COMMANDMENTS won't cut it for they place one man superior to another in power and control—ah ha, Father, I am learning quite a bit. I won't take more time, though, for I know that we have work to be done but I feel ever so much better and when I do have time to "think"; I believe my thoughts will be more mature for the clearing of these minutes to talk.

I would please take a break to attend the babies needing feeding. May I always remember that it is to be Your will and not mine so that I do not become distracted. Aho.

Dharma, it is fine, balance comes from chaos only by the taking of time to regain that which is found only in the attachment with your Source. We all benefit from the one taking the time to reclaim strength and harmony—for we must each remember our responsibility to self as well as to others—for after all, we are but one when the chips are gathered—expressing in our myriad directions and perceptions. Would it not be wondrous to love each aspect of that ONE? We shall learn—indeed, we SHALL learn.

I salute each measure of growth in my students, chela, so the time is not lost—only the gold molded more finely. The cup of knowledge can never be filled—but KNOWING can become ALL—so be it and blessed are the 'seekers' for they shall be given to 'finding' if intent be in truth. Salu.

to balance the discord in self. Most often ones feel like the VICTIM and life just happens to them whilst they understand not responsibility and accountability for the circumstances which they find selves experiencing.

And again I will repeat: WHEN you understand your error, it need not be repeated, nor will you allow that discord reentry into your energy field, emotional, mental or otherwise. You will have UNCREATED the discord. Life does not just happen haphazardly TO you. You allow, create and participate either in balance or without balance. This is one of your greatest lessons and to achieve it you must learn to fill your entire being with the love of Our Creator who has given the breath of life and Whose plan IS DIVINE AND PERFECTION. It is only HUMAN perception which feels out of control of his/her life and victimized by life instead of MASTER of self and life.

Remember: it matters not what circumstances, rich or poor, crippled or healthy, man or woman, black or white, South African or Asian, which you find yourself within, only HOW you interact and respond to the circumstance is the MEASURE of your growth. All you see and feel, touch and hear with your physical body and senses are the props and set design for your soul growth. Even the body you experience inside of is a costume of sorts for the REAL you is soul and that soul is of GOD Creator. You can and will eventually learn to work KNOWINGLY with God as a co-creator or you will be ever powerless and bitter within your own created self-victimhood. PROOF you ask. What more proof do you need than when your body expires, YOU TAKE NOTHING WITH YOU FROM EARTH PHYSICAL DIMENSIONS SAVE YOUR IMMORTAL GOD GIVEN SOUL!

Is this serious time, as Commander Hatonn tells you? ABSOLUTELY! For you are beginning a new cycle within Creation and this is a Great Cycle transition which happens very infrequently in your Earth Counting. How many of you really understand the opportu-

How To Get The Most Value From Your Human Experiences

7/21/92 SANANDA

Greetings precious Druthea. I AM Esu Immanuel Sananda. I AM in charge of spiritual elevation and transition in behalf of Our One Creator Source, God/Aton. I come as a Host with the Hosts of God which are also known as the Cosmic Brotherhood of Light. I serve only the Lighted Source and with my service comes my responsibility to His children of Light. This means ones who CHOOSE with their own free-will to live within the LAWS of God and Creation.

Does this mean absolute perfection by you ones? NO! You will find, if you have not yet discovered, that this physical human experience in which you find yourselves is most often very much less than perfection. You are learning, though, through THIS very experience what the differences are between balance and unbalance, discord and harmony, love and lust, knowing and belief, giving and taking, sharing and coveting, weakness and strength. In other words, it is through this physical experience you will achieve the wisdom to KNOW Godly behavior and actions and EVIL ANTI-GODLY behavior and actions. Now once you KNOW, it gets sticky, for you will then be expected by self and God to live accordingly to the best of your ability. You will require and even demand of self to seek the balanced transaction and interchange in EVERY circumstance of exchange you have in business, friendship building, and all other life exchanges you have.

Will you always succeed? No, although you will begin to know the error of your thinking almost as soon as the thought is expelled from your mind. Only by first recognizing an unbalanced thought projection can you then make the necessary research and adjustments to your thinking so that you do not manifest through your behavior and actions the unbalanced completion of thought projection. Does this mean you have control over your thought projections? Absolutely, as long as you be ever AWARE of that which you think and then effort to change the pattern or program of error in thinking which is contained within the "subconscious" aspect of the mind.

It occurs that when thought projections, be they of evil or of "goodness" in intent, are simply allowed to be thrust into the mass consciousness, there comes a point of "difficult" or nearly impossible return. In other words you lose control of the projection and if it be discordant it will infect the mass consciousness of your planetary species. That is why we often refer to the planetary human mass consciousness as a cesspool, for all of the discordant thoughts and feelings are swimming about like bacteria awaiting to infiltrate any victim who has allowed emotional and mental weakening and does not adequately shield him/herself in the GOD of Light shield of protection. Eventually, of course, as is the law of reaping of that which is sown, the discord will return to sender to allow sender nities for soul growth during this timeframe? Very few indeed. Or else many, many more of you would be about Our Father's business in YOUR daily experiences. Do you KNOW how long your soul has been trapped in physical experiences and lifestreams on these lowest dimensions? Do you remember what you have lived through in your past lifestreams to EARN participation within this timeframe?

Some of you KNOW you've been going round and round on this wheel for MILLIONS of years. Is it not time you take stock of self beyond this physical and seek the higher guidance WITHIN which tells you to SHAPE UP and do your homework for FINAL EXAMS ARE UPON YOU? YOU ARE IN YOUR FINAL EXAMS, PRECIOUS CHELAS, AND I AND THE REST OF GOD'S HOSTS ARE COME, NOT YET UPON YOUR PLACE, TO BRING AS MANY OF YOU WHO SO CHOOSE YOUR GRADUATION DIPLOMA WHICH IS YOUR TICKET OFF OF THE LOWER DIMENSIONAL WHEEL OF EXPERIENCES. YOU (PHYSICAL) WILL NOT REMEMBER IF YOU "FAIL" TO GRADUATE WHEN YOU NEXT INCARNATE SOMEWHERE IN PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE, BUT I GUARANTEE THAT YOUR SOUL WILL REMEMBER AND WILL BE MOST "LET DOWN" FOR THE LESSONS WILL CONTINUE TO BE STRICT AND, FOR SOME, EVEN MORE HARSH LESSONS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

You can say, "So WHAT!" and dilly dally around breaking God's Laws, and I promise you that that sort of attitude and behavior will only cause you much distress and regret at transition time of your bodily death. For you will judge SELF with God present and you ones are MUCH harder on selves than God ever would be. SO BE IT.

On the other hand, or the "good" news is, that with your graduation comes remembering of who you are and what your divine connection is with Creator Source within His plan. Will you be "All Knowing and Perfect"? NO! You will leave this place with the knowledge accumulated here, living within God's and Nature's Laws, and remembering the knowledge you brought in wholeness when you came in birth within the veil of forgetfulness to this place. Perfection only exists in GOD. Experience in all dimensions offers lessons for achieving perfection, but each must learn to sustain that perfection in living and giving love in balanced interchange on a moment to moment basis. It is one thing to intellectually know balance, it is quite another to sustain the knowledge constantly. The first step is KNOWING the difference, for any error can be corrected if the lesson and understanding of WHY it is error is achieved.

Thank you for your attention, precious chelas. Oh, the lessons are many, and yet look at that which you have gained. God's team is the winning team for it is HIS game. Whose side will you serve today? Tomorrow? Be ever thankful for these lessons and for your adversaries, for you are growing beyond your adversaries' games and God is ever patient for you to grow into KNOWING of His Divine presence within you. Thank you, precious Dru, for sitting with me this day. I am with you chela, especially when you think you are "all alone". God holds you securely in His wings of love and protection. Walk gently with one another in peace and love and God walks with you ALWAYS! I AM Sananda, One with God in His Service. Salu.

SATAN'S DRUMMERS

By Sananda...$10.00

In this deeply disturbing JOURNAL, Jesus Sananda exposes the truth about the energy called "Satan", the adversary to God of Light. Satan's fall from status as "Lucifer" is outlined. We learn how to recognize evil and how to protect ourselves from it. Satan's presence is documented within "Satanic Cults" with specific cases of demonic possession, control, murder, sexual perversion and ritual sacrifice of babies, children and animals. Topics include: Satan's Beginning - Satanic Commandments - Witchcraft - Satanic Symbols & Music.

AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL: I AM SANANDA

By Sananda & Judas Iscariot
$10.00

The story of the life of the one known as Jesus of Nazareth (Immanuel) is told by Jesus and his disciple and scribe, Judas Iscariot. Judas Iscariot's name is cleared and the actual one who betrayed Immanuel is revealed. Absolute clarification is given about the numerous falsifications and misconceptions concerning Immanuel's teachings and his life, such as: The purpose of His Life, His 40 days with Cosmic Beings, His Crucifixion and Resurrection and His journey after his resurrection.

ANY ACTION, ALTHOUGH, IT IS TEMPTING TO DO SO FROM TIME TO TIME. WE COME AS THE "HOSTS" OF GOD IN PREPARATION FOR SECURING "OUR" PEOPLE—GOD LEAVES NOTHING TO "CHANCE"—NOT EVEN FOOLISH AND INCREDIBLY STUPID NONSENSE SUCH AS THIS PARTICULAR "CEASE" ORDER—ALTHOUGH WE ARE IN GREAT APPRECIATION FOR THE EFFORTS PUT FORTH IN OUR BEHALF TO GIVE FURTHER CREDIBILITY TO OUR PRESENCE.

I TRUST THIS MEETS WITH YOUR APPROVAL FOR WE DO NOT WISH TO CAUSE PROBLEMS FOR THE INTELLIGENCE SERVICES WHO ARE SO WILLINGLY SERVING YOUR NATIONS IN THIS TIME OF TOTAL CONFOUNDMENT. I CONTINUALLY EFFORT TO BRING ATTENTION TO YOUR SERVICE.

AGAIN I DO THANK YOU FOR CONFIRMING OUR PRIOR HUMBLE OFFERINGS TO A PUBLIC SO OFTEN MISLED BY

ONES OF YOUR ORGANIZATIONS—IT IS WONDROUS INDEED, TO SEE THAT YOUR WORK HAS COME TO THE LEVEL OF SERVING THE PEOPLE FOR IT IS SO OFTEN UNRECOGNIZED. COL. OLIVER NORTH HAS POINTED OUT THIS FLAW IN THE SYSTEM SO OFTEN—THAT YOU OF THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY WORK WITHOUT RECOGNITION AND THEREFORE, PUBLIC APPRECIATION AND HONOR. RECOGNIZING HOW PAINFUL IT WAS FOR THE TROOPS OF VIETNAM TO HAVE BEEN SO OVERLOOKED IN THEIR SERVICE TO THEIR NATION AND THE TOTAL SACRIFICE OF THE LIVES OF TROOPS LEFT AS POWs AND MIAs AFTER ALL RECENT WARS—I DO

WISH TO DO MY PART IN MAKING YOUR EFFORTS PUBLICLY NOTED. MAY THE FORCE BE WITH YOU!

I ASK, IN ADDITION, THAT GEORGE GREEN ATTEND COPIES OF THESE DOCUMENTS TO ALL SURVEILLANCE HEADQUARTERS WHICH CAN BE LOCATED WITHOUT BREAKING SECRECY AND/OR NATIONAL SECURITY—I ASSUME THAT MR. GATES SHOULD BE FIRST IN OFFICIAL STATUS VIA "PRECISION MAIL". PERHAPS A COPY SHOULD BE ALSO DIRECTED TO MR. STICKNEY AT FEMA SINCE THE IMMEDIATE EXERCISES WITHIN THE NATIONAL UNITED STATES ARE UNDER FULL AND TOTAL CONTROL OF FEMA AND EXECUTIVE ORDER REGULATIONS.

GOOD DAY, AND WITH BEST REGARDS TO YOU, ALSO, SIR,

I SALUTE YOUR GRACIOUS AND WILLING WORK

BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY (EVEN IF IT COULD BE CONSTRUED AS A BIT EXPENSIVE TO THE TAXPAYERS OF THE NATION AS A WHOLE).

Tapes & Transcriptions

In addition to audio tapes of meetings with Commander Hatonn, THE WORD is now offering written transcriptions of some taped topics.

Donations to cover the costs of tapes are $4.00 for one tape, $6.00 for two tapes and $2.50 per tape for three or more. The transcriptions are $3.00 each. (Mexico or Canada add $0.25 and other foreign countries add $0.50 per tape or transcription.) Postage is included in tape and transcription prices.

Since we are not set up to take credit card orders, please send check or money order to: THE WORD, P.O. Box 6194, Tehachapi, CA 93582. Call 805-822-4176 if you have questions.

If you desire to automatically receive tapes from future meetings, please send at least a $50 donation from which tape costs will be deducted. We will try to notify you as your balance reaches zero.

Special Order tapes are noted below by * and are not automatically sent since this material is either already in print or will be soon. Available written transcriptions are noted by #.

$14.95...339pp Trade Paper
ISBN: 0-922356-44-0

Learn about AIDS from the intensive research of an M.D. Discover what AIDS really is - The economics of AIDS - Man's future: AIDS cure or extinction? - Precaution to take to protect yourself - What our Government, Organized medicine, Hospitals and Physicians are doing about AIDS.

AIDS: THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE

By Sananda, Hatonn, Ashtar, Nikola Tesla, & Walter Russell
$10.00...150pp Trade Paper
ISBN: 0-922356-04-1

In this sobering JOURNAL the MAN-made origin of AIDS as well as MANY other viruses is revealed. Implicated in this Conspiracy for population reduction through the spread of AIDS are the "World Health Organization" through its Small Pox Vaccination program in Africa and The "Public Health Service" through its Hepatitis B study on Homosexual men in New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Learn who is behind this biological warfare against humanity, why vaccines will never work and why there is no such thing as "safe" sex.

Hatonn reveals the tangled webs of deceit woven throughout all religions. Topics include: The Holy War-Origins of the Christian doctrine - Desecration of Judaism - The role of British Freemasonry - New Age Deception and what is meant by the ONE WORLD CHURCH. Also included are updates on current world events.

"GOTCHA" -- AGAIN TANGLED WEBS -- VOL. II

$10.00...By Hatonn

Hatonn presents the history and operations of the CIA, also called the "Cult of Intelligence", since 1952, as presented by two former insiders (IMA and A) who remain anonymous for their protection. Related Topics: Oliver Stone and JFK - Psychological warfare - Espionage and Counterespionage - Bush and CIA connection - National Security Act.

THE MOTHER OF ALL WEBS, TANGLED WEBS -- VOL. III

$10.00...By Hatonn

Hatonn outlines the history of worldwide CIA operations, including the "ideals" adopted and enforced by CIA leaders and operatives, their methods of influence in world affairs and how they escape scrutiny by the American people. Some Topics: CIA operatives McCone, McNamara, Helms and Dulles - The Eaton Study - Successes and Failures of CIA operations - Presidential interest in CIA - Henry Kissinger - George Bush, Zapata Offshore Oil Company and the CIA - Tavistock Institute.

LOOSEN THE KNOTS AND TANGLES TANGLED WEBS -- VOLUME IV

$10.00...By Hatonn

Hatonn exposes the history of worldwide CIA covert operations, referred to as "Clandestine Services", beginning in the early 1950's through the 1970's as presented by two former insiders. Other Topics: CIA involvement with Cuban exile groups and Bay of Pigs veterans - Some of the CIA "Proprietary" Organizations and Corporations. Plus current events.

FORCES OF THE ENEMY WITHIN TANGLED WEBS -- VOL. V

$10.00...By Hatonn/Aton

Hatonn unveils our enemies upon the planet. This volume continues with the exposure of CIA evil deeds and HOW the leaders of this elite organization have controlled and manipulated the internal socioeconomic and political affairs of the U.S.A. and many other countries. Plus Other Topics.

SILENT BLOOD SUCKERS OF THE TANGLED WEBS -- VOL. VI

$10.00 By Hatonn/Aton

Hatonn winds up the exposure of the tangled webs of evil power and deceit perpetrated by the CIA as unfolded by two former "insiders". Some Topics: National Security Intelligence Directives (NSCID) codified in 1959 and since expanded - How CIA hides budget from Congress - The 40 Committee's role in the CRAFT OF INTELLIGENCE - National Security Council head Henry Kissinger - Presidential approval of CIA operations: NEVER on paper.

PHOENIX OPERATOR/ OWNER MANUAL

By Sananda, Lord Michael, St.
Germain...$10.00

**OPERATOR/OWNER MANUAL ON TAPE $20.00...(FOUR TAPES)

This JOURNAL contains instructions and rules to live by which will keep you firmly on the lighted path of God. The Cosmic Brothers explain that by understanding and living by God's Laws of Balance, you will obtain your ticket for graduation off of this planetary dimension. This manual presents the Eighteen Cosmic Laws of Balance of God including The Highest Law of The Creation, How to Recognize the Anti-Christ Within, Understanding Personal Responsibility and the Twelve Deadly Sins (Errors).

SATAN'S DRUMMERS

By Sananda...$10.00

In this deeply disturbing JOURNAL, Jesus Sananda exposes the truth about the energy called "Satan", the adversary to God of Light. Satan's fall from status as "Lucifer" is outlined. We learn how to recognize evil and how to protect ourselves from it. Satan's presence is documented within "Satanic Cults" with specific cases of demonic possession, control, murder, sexual perversion and ritual sacrifice of babies, children and animals. Topics include: Satan's Beginning - Satanic Commandments - Witchcraft - Satanic Symbols & Music.

Our New Look

Regular readers of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR have probably noticed various changes in appearance and presentation of the paper over the past several weeks. These changes will continue for awhile and are one visible result of Commander Hatonn's restructuring of THE LIBERATOR'S management and operations.

Another change is our official business name, now THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, INC. Our new address is:

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR
2810 W. Charleston Blvd.
Suite G6723
Las Vegas, NV 89102.

This address is for mail processing only for subscriptions, comments or general communications.

Our new phone number is 1-800-800-5565.

This restructuring has been gradually implemented to relieve America West Publishers (already overworked with book and JOURNAL publishing activities, plus speaking engagements) from a growing burden they graciously carried from the time of THE LIBERATOR'S inception and evolution from the smaller newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS. The EXPRESS, in turn, evolved from THE PHOENIX JOURNALS as a mode for more rapid delivery of communications than the JOURNALS could provide.

Again, please note our new mailing address is for MAIL PROCESSING ONLY and not for "stopping by". Please know that your warm notes of support and other sharings are appreciated and treasured beyond our ability to adequately express, or often, even acknowledge under the work load of our production schedule. We thank you for being there at just the right times and at just the right places, else we would certainly have stumbled and fallen along the way. And, as Commander Hatonn put it, above all, the sharing and the caring are really what this is all about.

--The Editors
