STORMS

What of the storms in the U.S. today? What about the ones in other parts of the world? Yes, I realize that you ones of our readers are almost all from the U.S. and since that is the location from which I am working—I can understand and actually request, that we must stick closely to the U.S. in happenings—"as the U.S. goes, so goes the world!"

I have explained to you how storms can be directed and how tornados are manufactured and you have just experienced another act of terrorism far greater than any in a "Trade" building—and, you get to blame God. (See Soltec's writing on page 19 for more on this recent major "manufactured" storm.)

The point is, citizens, to not look the other way into the distractions as you have your nation and world "taken" while you have your "blind side" on. What is happening in the political circles can only devastate the world for freedom and glean the worldly property and assets for the Elite Controllers and Kings.

CHINA

Since we just wrote of China in the just prior writing—I would have you look at "today". It is reported that the hard-line Chinese in power have just destroyed the "democratic" plan and have come down with massive power against the ones pushing it. As the power controls are pressed in Russia and the more "Soviet" power comes down with the Kissinger Associates in places like Serbia/Bosnia—more and more show and tells will be coming out of China.

U.S.A. HEADINGS

The British Khazarian Banksters just about have you-the-people where you are harmless to their plans. The only unfortunate thing is that you have "act-up" just when the defense system of the U.S. is about to fold completely and go away, making room for massive incarceration centers AND an influx of more U.N. Troops/Police Force.

Most people are going to fully believe the insanity and stupidity of the idea that spending more, raising taxes and then lying about both will magically "fix" EVERYTHING. YOU seem to think that higher taxes will simply hurt the "next guy" and NOT you. Woe unto you in that misperception for there are relatively few left with jobs to pay more of anything. The truth is that by far the majority of people refuse to face any kind of "reality". You will simply be sucked dry and vital portions of your lives will be amputated—but not cleanly—it will be an agonizing "infectious" process. I suggest, however, that almost NONE will act in time to change a thing. Consequences of this plan of the adversary in power is going to be terrible beyond your ability to believe.

DEFICIT

What about the deficit? Won't it help to get that sucker cut back? NO. Right now the only thing that will happen in cutting the deficit is to cause interest rates to rise. YOU think you are in a

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON AND ...The Liberator...

The last time The United States of America was involved in a great internal division was due to the "institution" of slavery. Many great men led the moral fight for freedom of all men in America, the fight to abolish slavery! William Lloyd Garrison was one of these staunch, uncompromising leaders who saw very early that America could not remain strong and free and allow half of its population to be enslaved. This article is about William Lloyd Garrison and is dedicated to him and his great moral influence on the American landscape prior to and during the Civil War between the Northern and Southern States of America (1861-1865).

Taking captives into slavery has been an ancient practice among conquerors. During expansionist wars and raids on every continent the aggressors captured slaves of all races and colors to man ships, work the land, labor in the mines, and fight in the army. Slavery provided aggressors with a continual source of manpower — and thus the means to continue their expansions. Slavery also produced great economic and political power for these same people. Taking people into slavery for the use of the conquerors, or to sell at a price, became a way of life for many aggressive, cruel and unscrupulous men. The slaves were, except in a very few cases, treated as less-than-human beings — and most certainly they had no rights!

There were, of course, down through the centuries, many kinds of slavery. Women were considered the "property" of their husbands in too many cultures, and "serfs" were regarded as the property of landowners. Indeed, even now, in this "sophisticated" latter twentieth century, although the word "slavery" is not used, many, many people have lost control of their lives and production to monopolies, large landowners, unfair trade practices, tyrants, conspirators in government, financial plutocrats and ignorance, to name just a few of the "enslaving" problems.

Whenever you see someone, or groups of powerful someones, who deem it their "right" to be maintained in undue luxury and power at the expense in time or resources of the people who provide these services and resources, you essentially see a slaver. The label given to slavery, and the methods used have changed. The purpose has always been for the personal wealth, power, aggrandizement and their perpetuity by a few who consider themselves some kind of "elite", the "favored" few! None of these have the will or the integrity to work for the good of all, or to adequately pay for the services rendered or resources plundered. They are exploiters of people and of the Earth. Parasites!

The institution of slavery had a hold on the American Colonies before the Revolutionary War, after which America gained its independence from England (1776). Several European countries had colonies or groups of settlers well established in America (England, France, Germany and Spain) and the slave traders, who now were kidnapping African Blacks, were busy. There was money to be made in slave-trading and the use of slaves. In particular, the large plantation owners of the Southern states provided a ready market. They needed field hands.

Although slavery in America was not limited to the Southern States, it was certainly most openly practiced there as a "cultural" right. It was the custom of most wealthy persons to get and keep "servants", most of whom were not paid any wages, as such. The idea of any kind of "fair payment for services rendered" came rather late, and is still tentative in many countries. The "servants" were thus dependent on the "masters" for their keep, and that was generally the sum of what they received. In most cases, their "living standards" were poor indeed, if adequate at all. Most "servants" or "slaves" had a short life from years of hard work, actual abuse or little care and no hope of a better future. As might be expected, many tried to escape.

After the American Revolution, Congress passed the Fugitive Slave Act (1793), which gave legal support to masters seeking runaways. By this time, slavery had been abolished in most of the Northern states. In response to the act of 1793, the Northern states passed "personal liberty" laws intended to protect their citizens against unscrupulous slave catchers who might seize or kidnap free Negroes claimed by Southern masters.

Many Northerners and Southerners favored the gradual abolition of slavery, and there was the freest expression of opinion on the subject. Unfortunately, Eli Whitney's cotton gin was making the slave system enormously profitable, and after the Missouri Compromise (1820), the South insisted that states should be admitted to the Union only in pairs, one slave and one free.

Now enter William Lloyd Garrison onto this scene. William Lloyd Garrison, a strong and vocal opponent of slavery, was born in the small coastal town of Newburyport, Massachusetts, on December 12, 1804 (not 1805, as stated in some publications, according to Lippincott's Universal Pronouncing Dictionary of Biography and Mythology).

After trying an apprenticeship at cabinet-making, at about fourteen years of age, and finding it unsuitable, he prevailed upon his trademaster to release him. Shortly thereafter he was placed with Mr. E.W. Allen, Editor of the Newburyport Herald, to learn the art of printing.

He soon learned the mechanical part of the business and began to write — at first anonymously — for the Herald, and other papers. Before he was twenty years old he contributed to the Salem [Massachusetts] Gazette a series of well written articles which attracted much attention. Upon the expiration of his apprenticeship to Mr. Allen, in 1826, Garrison became the manager of his own paper, called the Free Press, published in Newburyport.

In 1827 Mr. Garrison became Editor of the National Philanthropist, published in Boston, being the first paper in America devoted to the advocacy of "total abstinence". About the end of 1829 he accepted an invitation from Benjamin Lundy to assist in the Editorship of the Genius of Universal Emancipation, published in Baltimore. While this paper had "previously advocated the gradual abolition of slavery", in the first issue after Garrison became associated with it, "he distinctly avowed the doctrine that immediate emancipation was the right of the slave and the duty of the master."

According to Lippincott's Dictionary, it was not long after that when Mr. Garrison, "denounced with great severity certain persons engaged in the domestic slave-trade", and declared his purpose to "cover with thick infamy" all who were implicated therein. He was, in consequence, tried and convicted for libel.

Being unable to pay the costs he was committed to prison for two months. A Book Of Days In American History states that on April 17, 1830, "In Baltimore, abolitionist William Lloyd Garrison begins a jail sentence after proving unable to pay a $50 fine. Garrison was convicted for his remarks about a shipowner who transported slaves. Such men, he said, were 'enemies of their own species'." Arthur Tappan, a merchant of New York, paid his fine and released him.

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, Garrison broke with Lundy on the matter of Colonization, and proposed to publish an antislavery paper that would rouse the country. The Liberator began publication in Boston on Jan. 1, 1831. It was supported mainly by free Negroes and never had more than 3,000 subscribers, but its editorial policy was unprecedented and uncompromising. It denounced slaveholding as a crime, held that a moderate approach gave comfort to partisans of slavery, and demanded "immediate" abolition. "Garrison did not expect immediate action, but considered it immoral to treat slavery as a legitimate institution and maintained that honorable people ought to repudiate the system."

In general, "Abolitionist literature began to appear about 1820 and increased in volume until the Civil War. The antislavery press published newspapers and periodicals, sermons and addresses, reports of Abolitionist societies, correspondence, and the memoirs of runaway slaves."

The Nat Turner slave uprising in Virginia in August, 1831, stirred Southern fears that Negroes were being incited to a state of rebellion. Part of the blame was directed to Garrison, and Southern states outlawed circulation of The Liberator and sought to prosecute him."

According to the Encyclopedia Americana's article on Fugitive Slave Laws, "The spectacular rise of the antislavery movement in the 1830's focused attention on fugitive slaves. One fugitive, Frederick Douglass, who escaped from bondage in Maryland in 1838, became a symbol of the injustices perpetuated against sensitive, intelligent slaves. Many people became active on behalf of the Blacks. Levi Coffin, Thomas Garrett, Rev. Charles T. Torrey, Rev. John Rankin, and Isaac T. Hopper, among others, challenged fugitive slave enactments and aided the escape of many Negroes through the so-called "Underground Railroad", especially from the border states of Maryland, Virginia and Kentucky. Harriet Tubman was outstanding among the Negroes who helped runaway slaves."

There were many incidences of abuse of slaves, runaways, legal actions, etc., which kept attention focused on the moral crime of slavery. In maintaining this spotlight of attention, William Lloyd Garrison was the foremost author and was considered the "conscience of the nation" through his activities both in publishing, editing, organizing and leading the New England Antislavery Society, as well as by attending conferences and exerting political pressure.

The New England Antislavery Society was based on the immediate abolition of slavery. Its membership was composed of "local Negroes along with elements of the aristocracy, notably Rev. Samuel J. May, Ellis Gray Loring, David Lee Child, and Samuel E. Sewall".

So great was the excitement produced by The Liberator, that Mr. Garrison's life was more than once in "utmost peril". His friends entreated him to go armed in self-defence — but his non-resistance principles prevented him from doing so. Garrison took for his motto "MY COUNTRY IS THE WORLD, MY COUNTRYMEN ARE ALL MANKIND".... "In 1840 he was sent as a delegate to the World's Antislavery Convention held in London; but refused to take his seat, because the female delegates from the United States were excluded." (Ref., Lippincott's Dictionary)

In addition to The Liberator, a weekly that continued to publish until 1865, "a brilliant group of orators, philanthropists, and political leaders kept the political issue before the people. Among them were Wendell Phillips, Charles Sumner, Gerrit Smith, and Lucretia Mott, all of whom worked unceasingly for the fight against slavery." (Ref., Encyclopedia Americana's article "Abolitionists".)

The pendulum swung back and forth in the political arena between the legality of the Fugitive Slave Laws (which made the ownership of slaves legal and provided laws for the return of runaway slaves to their masters), and the opposing legality of the "personal liberty" laws passed by the Northern states. Several well publicized cases began to sway public opinion in the North, but the Southerners retained a strong political power and the Congress passed, in 1850, a stronger Fugitive Slave Act designed to end the traffic in runaways. This act aroused wholesale opposition in the North and resulted in the enactment of a number of additional "personal liberty" laws.

"In 1857, Chief Justice Roger B. Taney, speaking for the U.S. Supreme Court on the case Scott V. Sanford, confirmed the validity of the Fugitive Slave Act by concluding that slavery could not be confined to the slave states. This decision denied contentions that Northerners had a Constitutional right to impede slave law enforcement. Freesoilers then committed themselves to the doctrine that there was a "higher law" than the U.S. Constitution (See Dred Scott Case). (Ref., Encyclopedia Americana article "Fugitive Slave Laws".)

This final decision, in 1857, of the Supreme Court, regarding the legality of the Fugitive Slave Act, which was passed by Congress in 1850, and which strengthened the original Act of 1793, seemed to indicate that slavery would not be ended through moral persuasion or political action. Anti-Southern feeling was now increased in the North. Garrison, "although a pacifist, accepted the Civil War as necessary. At its conclusion he was viewed as the conscience of the abolition crusade." (Ref., Encyclopedia Americana article "Garrison, William Lloyd, 1805 - 1879.")

CULVER PICTURES

William Lloyd Garrison

President Abraham Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, which went into effect in 1863, ended the issue of Fugitive Slaves in the warring states. The Thirteenth Amendment in 1865 ended legal slavery in the United States. (Author Louis Filler, The Crusade Against Slavery, 1830-1860, as shown in the article "Fugitive Slave Laws" in the Encyclopedia Americana.)

"Last years: In May, 1865, Mr. Garrison resigned the presidency of the Antislavery Society — an office he had held uninterruptedly for twenty-two years."...."and in December of the same year The Liberator was discontinued, the great object for which it had been established having, in his view, been fully accomplished.

"Not long afterwards his friends set on foot a subscription designed as a national testimonial for his long and faithful labors in the antislavery cause. About thirty thousand dollars was raised, and presented to him in March, 1868." (Ref., Lippincott's Dictionary article "Garrison, William Lloyd".)

Mr. Wendell Phillips became head of the Antislavery Society after Mr. Garrison's resignation. This Society continued until 1870. Mr. Phillips was an eloquent and tireless supporter of the Antislavery movement. (Ref., Lippincott's Dictionary article "Phillips, Wendell".)

According to the Encyclopedia Americana, Mr. Garrison "devoted himself to other reform movements, notably woman suffrage, prohibition, and advancing the rights of American Indians" after The Liberator was discontinued and until his death, in New York City, on May 24, 1879.

Garrison was definitely a man of strong principles and he never hesitated to speak up in the face of injustice. As the Reader's Digest Illustrated Encyclopedic Dictionary summed it up, "Garrison was best known for his fiery polemics and his demand, 'I will be heard!'" And, indeed he was, proving once again that the pen is ultimately mightier than the sword.

For those of you who may be unaware of the connection between William Lloyd Garrison and his Civil War publication called The Liberator, and this present publication called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, I shall simply repeat what Commander Hatonn has said about the matter: Doris Ekker is the present incarnation of the former William Lloyd Garrison. The name PHOENIX LIBERATOR, chosen by Hatonn, shows the link in purpose to the earlier Liberator, which was a voice of conscience to a society meant to be free, but pursuing a wrong course in maintaining the institution of slavery.

Today's LIBERATOR carries the motto on its masthead that Garrison would certainly be proud of, "THE TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE." Moreover, there is the added symbol of the "Phoenix" — the symbol from Egyptian mythology of a majestic bird, consumed by fire and then rising with renewed life up from out of its own ashes.

The task of the PHOENIX LIBERATOR is a task of world concern — nothing less than communicating God's word of Truth to the four corners of an erring and Truth-starved and, once again, enslaved world on the brink of being consumed by the "fires" of tyranny and nuclear holocaust. This is a task, indeed, for one who so successfully passed the challenges given William Lloyd Garrison in the days of the antislavery cause, and one who now is the scribe of Commander Hatonn.

THE TRUTH WILL ALWAYS "OUT"

YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH AND
THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU MAD!

As Mr. Green heads for Texas to cause a great gentleman octogenarian to be coerced into somehow "thinking" he gave $350,000 in gold to George Green's personal life-style—I think he might well be surprised.

We are told that the Texas State Attorney General WANTS Mr. Green for past indiscretions. Is it not interesting how truth flows as the lies get so entangled that they cannot be longer presented instead? So, to you who ask, "What are you doing to poor Mr. Green?" I respond: NOT A THING—Mr. Green is making his own bed in which he shall lie for a long time to come. I believe he is using "sheets" that fit not the mattress. If you use a king-sized sheet on a twin-sized bed—you have a lot of wrinkles. If you do not fit the living to the Truth—you have a very rumpled bed which shall entrap you.

IMMACULATE DECEPTION

Remember that great book I asked you to get? It was on the subject of the "Bush-whacker". Well, interestingly enough, the AUTHOR (who is NOT Russell S. Bowen as listed in the catalog) of that book paid George Green some $60,000 to publish that book. George gave him back $500 to "clinch the deal". The author now tells E.J. that thousands of those books were sold by George Green and he (the author) has not seen one cent—further, he is unable to get any of his own books (sound familiar?). You who want to continue to feel that we are abusing Mr. Green do not have priorities straight as concerns the work of GOD! You do not "just accidentally" take hundreds of thousands of dollars from people illicitly, for your own use, then destroy the ones from whom you stole and continue to be protected from discovery by the Hosts of God. Somehow it is that some of you perceive that "I" am making up this story. Further—all and any of you who are demanding your funds back from the Phoenix Institute no matter how it damages all others in the Institute (at the demand of George Green) will get it back JUST AS SOON AS WE CAN GET THE FUNDS TAKEN BY MR. GREEN—THAT WILL COVER IT ALL!

If you check the current America West catalog you will find CONSPIRATORS' HIERARCHY: THE COMMITTEE OF 300 by "Dr. John Coleman" [AKA Joseph Pavlonski]. This book was completely formatted, edited and made camera ready by the Editors and crew at the PHOENIX JOURNAL/LIBERATOR office. Not even a "thank you" was returned to any at this location and hundreds upon hundreds of those volumes have been sold—undercutting Dr. Coleman. George Green came crossways with Coleman and kept all volumes in print at the time and continues to print more. I make no comment as to John Coleman—but two wrongs do not make a right.

The interesting thing about the GEORGE BUSH: THE UNAUTHORIZED BIOGRAPHY by Tarpley & Chaitkin is that this book was run in chapter format and published by The New Federalist. When I asked to use this book George said that The New Federalist would not so much as allow America West to distribute the book. We had permission to run excerpts in the paper but would not be allowed to so much as "handle" the book itself. (???) Seems to me that America West has it listed quite conspicuously on the front page of their catalog.

Perhaps this sounds like good business to you readers—it is unacceptable to me and the ones here efforting to do absolutely everything both legally and morally correct. Even if you lie to all the public, does it not seem even worse to steal and lie to your own "family" partners? I leave the discernment and judgment of actions into your own attending for we have some readers who cancel subscriptions because "you draw conclusions FOR me" and it is somehow resented.

I am going to repeat something: Mr. Green appeared on a Pittsburgh, PA radio station [KDKA] a few nights ago and SAID: "...I get my information from Hatonn and Soltec who hover around me all the time." B.S.!! and, when talking about money and his own credentials he said to the effect that "I owned a bank and I have over a million dollars." Then why would he need to steal from the ones efforting to survive while HE HOLDS ALL THE PROPERTY AND THE FUNDS??

So, "conclusions" are yours.

RUSSBACHER AGAIN

Gunther sends his regards to all of you readers—from beautiful downtown Jefferson City, Missouri PRISON. Indeed he is a "political" prisoner—but it certainly affords no more freedom than any other where he, further, is kept isolated for "security" reasons.

He appreciated our running his material in the LIBERATOR, but suggested we should have run the "other material" he sent first. Well, we ran what we got! Since then, however, a copy of what was intended to go first has been provided, so we'll offer it now. I agree, it would have been good to have run it first—but we have to work with that which the government spies allow us to have.

QUOTING:

THE SHORT ROAD TO CHAOS AND DESTRUCTION

by Gunther Karl Russbacher

Editor's note: Navy Captain Gunther Russbacher is a 28 year veteran of the United States Intelligence Community, (Office of Naval Intelligence, attached to the Central Intelligence Agency). During all of that time he has operated as a deep black covert operative. In 1980 Captain Russbacher flew then vice-presidential candidate George Bush from a secret meeting near Paris in what has become known as "The October Surprise". In 1989, Captain Russbacher married, against direct orders, Rayelan Allan, an investigative researcher who was working to expose the October Surprise scandal. Captain Russbacher was arrested two days after their marriage and has been incarcerated the entire time of their marriage.

He is currently serving a 21 year sentence in Missouri for allegedly stealing a sum of less than $20,000. The $20,000 sum was made up from claims from 26 former clients of his stock brokerage firm, National Brokerage Company, a CIA proprietary. All of the claims were paid in full, by Russbacher or his insurance company, years before the prosecution, which took place 18 months after the statute of limitations had expired. In most states those charges, because of their small amount, would have ended up in small claims court. The case is currently on appeal with the Missouri Supreme Court. [H: Well, I don't consider $20,000 a small amount but since there is more to the story, I believe we shall not jump to wrong conclusions—for as stated, all sums had been paid in full. And, this charge came AFTER THE EXPIRATION (18 MONTHS) OF THE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS. There are some legal discrepancies here but we won't hang up on them since they are irrelevant to this story.]

From his prison cell, in a maximum security Missouri prison, Russbacher is holding talks with the Senate October Surprise Taskforce. He is trying to bring forth hard proof, which will conclusively show that George Bush was in France in October of 1980, and did make a deal with Iran to delay the release of the 52 Embassy hostages...a deal that defeated President Jimmy Carter in his 1980 re-election bid.

MONOGRAPH
(September 1992)

Navy Captain Gunther Karl Russbacher, who worked with Navy Intelligence, and assigned to the CIA, Langley, Va., received a telephone call at his home in St. Louis, in mid-October 1980. He was instructed to meet a TWA flight and take it to Washington D.C. From there he was met by a car and brought to the Base Hospital at Andrews Air Force Base. At 1900 hours (7 p.m.) he was greeted by two military personnel in flight suits, handed flight papers and boarded a BAC 111 aircraft. Destination? Paris! Purpose of the mission was unknown at the time.

Richard Breneke, a U.S. Navy pilot, was doing a pre-flight check when Russbacher closed the cockpit door. He had no knowledge of who else was aboard the aircraft. Breneke had already testified that he was on the aircraft and his testimony was upheld by a federal jury. Russbacher testifies that he did not look into the passenger cabin until he was over the Atlantic. The plane was refueled in Newfoundland, landing later at Le Bourget Airport near Paris.

Who did Russbacher see in the cabin? George Bush, William Casey, Donald Gregg, Richard Allen, Robert Gates, Jennifer Fitzgerald, and others un-named. The crew checked into the Hotel Florida and within three hours Russbacher was called back to duty. His mission—fly George Bush back in an SR-71, the CIA Blackbird, from a French Air Force Base to Dover Air Force Base. Because of security leaks in Paris, the SR-71 was diverted to McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey. The SR-71 flight took one hour and 14 1/2 minutes, being refueled 1,800 nautical miles over the Atlantic.

July 9, 1992, top officials in the Pentagon called a top secret meeting with leaders of the House and Senate, which lasted until 2:00 p.m. the next day. By 5:00 p.m., July 10, 1992 the Pentagon had confiscated the "Football", (code name for the nuclear code box) an effective military coup. It was essentially the same as August 1, 1974, when the Pentagon did the same thing to Richard Nixon, who, nine days later, resigned. The single event which caused this secret meeting was...A "cockpit Video", which has now been authenticated as true, showing George Bush and Russbacher at the time and place, in Paris, relating to the 52 hostages held in Iran for the political purposes of being elected Vice President in 1980.

At the same time Bush disappeared and surfaced at the James Baker ranch in Wyoming, for a top level strategy meeting to counter the Pentagon's actions. Almost simultaneously H. Ross Perot backed out of public efforts for the presidency...But, he is your next president, by way of the 25th Amendment. However, have you noticed Perot's high profile in the media? Do you really think Ross has given up?

Russbacher's revelations are directly responsible for the political demise of George Bush, together with the criminal indictments coming down on him at the time. Bush will appoint Ross Perot as Vice President after Quayle quits. This will set the scenario for a Bush win, (because of the 50 million Perot followers) after which he will resign. Perot will become president, pardon Bush... and then—business as usual. Gunther K. Russbacher will become a legend in his own time, as a great American Patriot who tried to save his country.

I'm proud to lend my name as his friend.

Hal Massey

[H: Obviously the political story did not unfold as above. However, remember that I gave you the same story at the time of happening prior to the election. IT WAS PLANNED EXACTLY AS DESCRIBED AND SIMPLY GOT TOO HOT TO HANDLE. CLINTON WAS ALREADY GROOMED AND APPROVED BY THE ELITE 300 THROUGH THE BILDERBERGERS AND THE ELITE WANTED NO POSSIBILITY OF SETBACKS OF THE MAGNITUDE OF PRESIDENTIAL IMPEACHMENT AFTER THIS ELECTION. THEY HAVE LESS THAN 7 YEARS TO PULL OFF THEIR PLAN 2000.]

[H: As will be noted and likely already has been, by you readers—Captain Russbacher has a flair for writing which might very well be as expressive as any we have ever had the privilege of sharing. I would, therefore, indulge myself in suggesting that while he has nothing to do with his isolation time—that he give us some James Bond stories since the author of those originals is passed on over here. I believe we can build quite a nice market for him—AND—perhaps get him on the "outside" to enjoy his rewards for same. Give it a serious thought, Gunther.]

CHAPTER ONE

NEW CURRENCY, FEDERAL RESERVE AND DEBIT CARDS

The story of my investigation into the One-World monetary cabal begins in the elevator at Langley Center (Headquarters for the Central intelligence Agency in McLean, Virginia). I had just finished a field exercise designed to certify me for further operations status. I had narrowly passed.

On the elevator a friend invited me to join him and three others for dinner. Knowing that my plane wasn't due out until 0800 hours the following morning, I accepted. I needed a shower so I hurriedly walked over to my car and began to drive back to the city. It was a sweltering day in the Capitol. The air appeared to stand still. Mosquitoes angrily attacked anything that moved on the hot pavement. Little did I suspect, as I drove back to my hotel, that tonight's dinner was going to be more than just a friendly gathering.

After a shower, shave and fresh clothes, I arrived at the restaurant. I arrived early so I could have a drink and check out the place. I made my way through the restaurant, heading for the bar. Hopefully no one noticed my surprise when I saw the group who had already gathered. It was a weekend, the place should have been empty. But it was filled with high level government types, most of whom I knew. My friend from work was already in the bar. Judging from the half-filled drink in his hand, he had arrived early with the same intent in mind. The three others he mentioned this afternoon were with him.

After exchanging the usual banal forms of greetings, we were led into the dining room. Over hors d'oeuvres I realized that I was in the midst of a serious meeting. The others who were present (with the exception of one man, who was employed by one of the wire services), were all top echelon government employees. Together we represented the elite of the investigative and intelligence communities. You didn't need a mensa IQ to realize something was going on here. To slam home the point, a guy from the State Department read our evening's agenda. We were apprised that dinner would be brief so we should eat fast. A helicopter would pick us up and take us to a special manufacturing plant.

Not knowing when we'd eat again, we followed his suggestion and ate quickly, in studied silence. We were soon told that the helicopters were waiting, ready to take us deep into Maryland countryside. We left the table and boarded, still not knowing where we were going or why.

The flight was, thankfully, uneventful and the craft softly deposited us on the lawn in front of the corporate offices of a large manufacturing plant. I offered the guess that the firm was considering an expansion or maybe desired a government contract. Possibly they were looking for government assistance to fund their current projects. At that point, all speculations were pure conjecture.

It was plain to all of us that we were on the scene as representatives of our respective bureaus and agencies. The meeting was to be with various high corporate officials, along with members of a U.S. Senator's office and the mayor's office of a large Maryland metropolis.

After receiving an impressive tour of the facility, one of the members of our group asked why the firm was planning such a major expansion. The corporate official in charge of the tour replied, "We are one of three companies being considered by the United States Treasury Department to build the printing presses that will print the new

U.S. currency."

We all looked at each other. The expressions on our faces said it all. "What new U.S. currency?" Not a word was spoken. We were as speechless at that moment as we would have been if we had been lobotomized by the painless methods of chemical ingestion. Here we were, all of us high level government officials, learning about the planned new currency without any warning or introduction. [H: Obviously Capt. Russbacher WAS NOT A LIBERATOR READER!!] It was almost as if the information had been purposely leaked to us through the grapevine...through a private, non-governmental source. The corporate official, when probed about the matter, and unorthodox manner of approach, claimed he didn't know much beyond what he had already told us.

When I returned to my office at Langley the following day, I couldn't help but wonder what last night was all about. I entered the entire proceedings into my Weekly Assessment Report, known within our circles as the "WAR" reports. Over the next several weeks, I spent a great deal of time investigating the proposed printing of the new currency and the purpose behind it. I discovered soon enough that others were asking questions as well.

(One of those individuals was Congressman Ron Paul of Texas, who served on the Congressional committee dealing with the Treasury Department on this particular matter.)

In essence, I had learned that the plans to issue a new currency were international in scope, at least a dozen major countries were planning, or had specific plans, for coming out with new money. They included Switzerland, Germany, the United Kingdom, Canada, France, Italy, Australia, Brazil and several others.

I engaged my network to gather information on these proposed changes. Soon the information began flowing into my terminal. The picture began to clear. Several of the afore named countries had already issued new currencies in various denominations. Most of these new currencies had two things in common... they had bare spots, about the size of a fifty cent coin, usually on the left-hand side of the bill. Upon closer inspection of these currencies, it was evident that they also contained metallic filament or element strips, enabling special devices to detect the currencies as they passed through airports or across international boundaries.

If the currencies are held over a light, a three-dimensional image (hologram) becomes apparent in the blank spot. The images, barely visible to the naked eye, are seemingly always of prominent world figures, and cannot be reproduced on copiers. The effort to create the "new money" was internationally coordinated.

Rumor had it that these currencies would later receive a common image linking them together in an international monetary system. Several years have passed since I first learned about the proposed new currency. Although it has been printed, and is stored in Treasury vaults, the actual issuance of the currency has, for some unknown reason, been delayed. Based upon my information, as a member of the United States Intelligence community, it seems clear that, if we were to enter into a world government in the near future, the first step, from a monetary standpoint, would include the establishment of an international currency system.

It must be stated that due to the rapid advances in electronic banking technology and the proven willingness of consumers to quickly adapt to these changes, the chances of by-passing the new currencies and going directly to an electronic (cashless) system are increasing exponentially. If the powers that be perceive the public to be ready and prepared for such a move, I believe they wouldn't hesitate to make this jump all at once, even in spite of the large investment that has already been made in the new currency.

If this were to be the case, the main focus of international finance would, without doubt, shift toward promoting international debit cards, which are already gaining widespread acceptance because of their convenience. [H: No, it is not an accident that the next subject via McAlvany is "Toward a Cashless Society". Indeed, we have written about these things over and over and over again, however, isn't it nice to hear from a good-old earth-bound "authority"?) Long time antagonists of these cards, such as Austria, Germany and Switzerland, have always believed in a true cash and carry society. They have already, with great regret, lost the battle to the debit card banking schemes.

To make a purchase, the card is passed through a scanning device. After making a positive identification, your bank account, or credit account, is automatically charged or debited with the amount of the purchase. The willingness of consumers to accept such a single card for world-wide use is already past the test market stage. Even my household has not been spared. We have received the new AT&T card which is being promoted by the intriguing commercial... "One World, One Card". The implications are most clear. Big Brother is at our very door. However, This Big Brother should not be confused with Orwell's for it is not the Big Brother of our national government, but rather, and more ominous—it is BIG BROTHER of world-wide proportions.

Once such debit/credit cards have gained world-wide acceptance, everything would be in place for the next and final step, which would be to force each individual to be tagged with a personal identification code without which he would be unable to buy or sell. The technology for such a world-wide electronic system is already in place, and experiments with such a mark have already been conducted in several countries.

Other developments are underway as well. In the not too distant future, products on our grocery shelves may become labeled with an invisible bar code. The Universal Product Code (UPC), which most of us have complained is an eye sore on product packaging, will no longer be visible. It will still be there, however, only the scanner will be able to read it. Once the transition to an invisible code begins to take place, it will only be a matter of time before humans are tattooed with a similar mark. Wake up America! The implications to personal freedom are staggering! I emphasize the tattoo in order to bring this discussion down to a personal level. If the globalist cabal has their way, their system will become operational by 1994. To understand how all this fits together, it's important to understand some of the finer points of monetary history.

Recently passed interstate banking laws have made this global centralization possible by allowing strength and swallow mergers. I am saying that many of the smaller banks have been virtually eaten by the big ones...at an alarming rate. Over a 12 state region stretching from New York to the Carolinas, only three New York superbanks control over 85% of all banking assets. The same can be said for the First Interstate System, which is now in place from the Pacific West to the middle of the heartland of America. The writing is on the wall, surely it is finally going to be read.

CHAPTER TWO

BANKS AND OIL COMPANIES (All the same?)

I had ample opportunity to study the American banking system while serving as an operative for the Central Intelligence Agency's Proprietary Operations Division. After all, we had not only served as members of boards of directors, but more so, held outright ownership of a number of Savings and Loan institutions. I was well in the know, but even I was shocked to realize that I had merely scratched the surface on the national and international banking plot.

I discovered that the SAME forces behind the big bank mergers, already controlled the American banking industry, via the Federal Reserve System. This has been the case ever since the Fed's establishment in 1913. Contrary to public belief, the Federal Reserve is NOT a government institution. It is a privately held corporation owned by the stockholders. Until a few years ago, however, the names of those who owned the Federal Reserve were one of the best kept secrets of international finance, due to a provision of the Federal Reserve Act, which stated that the identities of the Fed's Class A stockholders not be revealed.

In our circles, it became widely known that the Fed's principle owners, or stockholders (as they prefer to be called) were the ROTHSCHILD banks of London and Berlin; LAZARD BROTHERS banks of Paris; ISRAEL MOSES SEIF banks of Italy; WARBURG banks of Hamburg and Amsterdam; LEHMAN BROTHERS bank of New York; and GOLDMAN, SACHS banks of New York. These interests own and operate the Federal Reserve System through approximately three hundred stockholders, all of whom are very well known to each other, and frequently are related.

This can be understood better by knowing that a great deal of maneuvering and deception accompanied the passage of the Federal Reserve Act. The original proposal, calling for a central bank operated by insiders and private interests, was presented by Nelson Aldrich (the maternal grandfather of today's Rockefeller brothers) and was known as the Aldrich Bill. This bill was narrowly put down, but was soon reintroduced and passed as the Federal Reserve Act, (officially known as the Owens Glass Act.)

Because of the way in which the Federal Reserve System was designed by its founders, whoever controlled the Federal Reserve Bank of New York essentially controlled the entire system. For all practical purposes the Federal Reserve Bank of New York—IS—the Federal Reserve. Currently more than ninety of the 100 largest banks in the United States are located within this district.

Class A stockholders control the entire Federal Reserve System by owning the stock of the largest member banks in the New York Federal Reserve Bank. This controlling interest is held by fewer than a dozen international banking establishments, only four of which are factually based in the United States. The rest of the outlying interests are European, with the most influential of these being the Rothschild family in London.

Each of the American interests are in some way connected to this family. Included among these are the Rockefellers who are by far the most powerful of the Fed's American stockholders. (The Rockefellers' holdings in the Federal Reserve are primarily through Chase Manhattan Bank).

Through their U.S. and European agents, the Rothschilds would go on to finance the Rockefeller Standard Oil dynasty, the Carnegie Steel empire, as well as the Harriman railroad system. The Rockefellers, who later became intermarried with the Carnegies, would go on to finance many of America's leading capitalists, through Chase Manhattan and Citibank, both of which have long been Rockefeller family banks. Many of these families would also become intermarried with the Rockefellers so that by 1937 one could trace "an almost unbroken line of biological relationships from the Rockefellers through one-half of the wealthiest sixty families in the nation".

Owing much of their wealth to the Rockefellers, these families have become loyal allies of the "family". The Rockefellers, on the other hand, owing their enormous fortune to the Rothschild banking empire, have, for the most part, remained true and loyal to them and their European interest. As a direct result of this chain, much of America's corporate wealth is ultimately traceable to the old money of Europe and the ONE-WORLD INTERESTS of its members.

In order to bring the reader up to speed, and make the connection between the new currency, the international debit/credit card, the Federal Reserve System and the New World Order, it is imperative to present a little American history within this report.

In 1911, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled that Standard Oil had, in fact, long been in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. However, the problem goes back all the way to 1890, where Standard Oil of Ohio, owned by John D. Rockefeller was refining more than 90% of all American crude oil and was well on its way to international expansion politics. Although J.D. and his family were the repeated subjects of congressional investigations for anti-trust violations and criminal conspiracy, the investigations had little or no effect on the family's business in progress. They always managed to stay a step ahead of the federal government. The law was not able to thwart such illicit maneuvering. The American people's hands were tied.

It is worth noting that the 1911 action did indeed cause the Rockefeller family empire a certain amount of legal difficulties. It brought them into the United States District Courts. A verdict was found in favor of the government. The firm had to be split and many of the peripheral firms sold off. The holding company was dissolved, its shares distributed among thirty-three companies in an attempt to break up the monopoly. However, it soon became evident that all the new companies were owned by the same people (J.D. Rockefeller had 25% of the stock in each of the new firms) "and that there wasn't a shred of competition among ANY OF THEM!"

Off-shoots of the original Standard Oil Trust included Standard Oil of New Jersey (today EXXON), Standard Oil of New York (today MOBIL), Standard Oil of California (today operates under its name and CHEVRON), Standard Oil of Indiana (DX-BORON), Standard Oil of Ohio (SOHIO), Standard Oil Company, Phillips 66, and many lesser known others.

In 1966 (data supplied from my "company", as a result of congressional investigation headed by U.S. Representative Wright Patman of Texas) it was discovered that four of the world's seven largest oil companies were under the direct ownership of and/or control of the Rockefeller family. According to an earlier Operations Report, the largest of these, Standard Oil of New Jersey (EXXON) alone controlled 321 other major corporations, including Humble Oil and Venezuela's OREOLE Petroleum, themselves among the largest oil corporations in the world.

By 1975, the Rockefellers had gained control of the single largest block of stock in Atlantic Richfield (ARCO) and were believed to be in control of TEXACO as well. (Therefore, it must be assumed that the extremely large suit and judgement against Texaco was merely a put-on for the public, and not a true verdict.)

Consider the true premise of a parent company bringing suit against its darling daughter. It was further noted that the Rockefellers were operating major joint ventures with the Royal Dutch Shell, which was already in the hands of European one-world interests. I am specifically referring to the Royal Dutch Family. It was Queen Juliana who was the sole owner of Shell. Upon her daughter's (Beatrice) marriage to Klaus (Germany), she divested herself of the interests in Royal Dutch Shell. Substantial interests were offered and sold through Credit Anstalt Bank Verein, as well as Union Bank of Switzerland.

END QUOTING FOR NOW.

Dharma, let us have a little break please. Since there is another court session tomorrow for you—I would like to finish at least this little information subject this afternoon. By the way, little one, if you wish the baby parrot bird—get it. It can learn to sit with us and would bring great joy, and another purpose would be also served. Let us give assistance where we can do so—especially without burden. Salu.

Hatonn to refrain from further comment on the subject in progress until we finish the writing. I, actually, have little to add as we have covered the subject material several times prior to this. It is refreshing, however, to have new input and cause readers to look "again" or for the first time.

Thank you.

CHAPTER THREE

MONEY INTERESTS AND
"COINCIDENTAL SUICIDING"

Our article deals with global strategists from both sides of the Atlantic. It should have seemed obvious to any American that major problems were to be encountered with the continuation of the Fed System. Ever since the founding of the Federal Reserve, consistent efforts have been made by conservatives of both houses of Congress to have their leaders put a stop to the Fed and to the dark forces behind it. With the passing of each decade, there was at least one valiant attempt to expose the already well known conspiracy.

Congressman Charles Lindbergh, Sr., the father of the famous aviator, was among those who fought the passage of the dark Act and later managed to raise an investigation into the cartel. His life was made extremely difficult as a direct result of crying for such an investigation. Lindbergh had openly yelled his warning to Congress and to the American people. It was all to no avail. No one would hear his cry in the wilderness.

It must be noted that Lindbergh's efforts to expose the plot were followed by those of Congressman Louis T. McFadden, who chaired the House Banking and Currency Committee for a ten year period. [See the prophetic text of McFadden's most famous and fiery speech on the Federal Reserve, just recently reprinted in the 2/2/93 LIBERATOR.] During his tenure, three attempts were made on his life. First, he was shot, in Washington D.C., and then his food was poisoned. The third attempt was unfortunately successful. His mysterious death occurred while on a visit to New York City. The cause of death, as listed on the death certificate, was given as "heart failure", although more than enough evidence pointed to poisoning. It is my proffered opinion that Mr. McFadden was poisoned by members of the cartel. Without proper court orders demanding the exhumation and forensic pathology tests, we shall never know the true story.

During the 1950s, Congressman Carroll Reece of Tennessee headed what became known as the Reece Committee. The Committee was charged with conducting a thorough investigation of the (then) major tax-exempt foundations linked to the international money cartel. The investigation centered on those foundations and trusts actually owned and controlled by the Rockefellers, Fords, and Carnegies, as well as the Guggenheim foundations. The findings regarding the wealth and absolute power of these foundations were so traumatically overwhelming that many in congress found the information difficult to believe. That disbelief was the door opener for the continuation of the Machiavellian machinations within the money industry.

The disbelief and resultant inaction was also indirectly responsible for allowing CIA Agency personnel to defrock the already threatened Banking and Savings industry. The implementation of this defrocking, thanks to Congressional Oversight Committees, was easily attained. Please bear in mind, though, that the raping of the American financial institutions began long before the CIA Agency entered the picture.

During the 1960s and 1970s, Congressman Wright Patman of Texas also investigated manipulations by these foundations, trusts and the Federal Reserve. Using his influence as Chairman of the House Banking Committee and later as Chairman of other important committees, he repeatedly tried to expose the so called "One World Plot" by calling for audits of the Federal Reserve and even trying to have the Act repealed. However, the findings of each of his committees, for some strange reason, were unable to attract any attention from the media. Patman, and others who have gone after and before him, frequently stated and vented his frustration over his lack of press and media coverage. On one occasion he stated, "Our exposés of the Federal Reserve Board are shocking and scandalous, but they are only printed in the daily Congressional Record, which is read by very few people."

In the 1970s and the 1980s, Congressman Larry McDonald was the one who spearheaded the efforts against the Bush version of the New World Order. In 1976, he wrote the introduction to the Rockefeller File, a book exposing the Rockefeller's financial holdings and secret intentions. The book supposedly revealed that the Rockefellers have as many as two hundred trusts and foundation type organizations and that the actual number of such foundations controlled by the family might well number into the thousands. Such control is possible because Rockefeller banks, such as Chase Manhattan, have become the trustees for many other U.S. foundations as well; possessing the right to invest and to vote the capital and common stock of these institutions—through the trust department of the bank.

McDonald did everything in his power to warn the American public. However, as usual, the attempt was to no avail. He stated unequivocally that the Rockefellers intended to control—first our own country, and then the world! He went on to state, "Do I mean conspiracy? Yes, yes I do. I am convinced there is a plot, national and international."

McDonald's warning was written on legal congressional letterhead and was dated November, 1975. During the ensuing years, frustrated by the media's refusal to report his findings, he began, like others and myself, to take his message to the streets by speaking out against these forces publicly to anyone who would listen to him. McDonald's courageous efforts came to an abrupt end on August 31, 1983, when he was killed aboard the Korean Airliner 007 flight, which "accidentally" strayed over Soviet airspace and was "accidentally" shot down. [H: How nice, now you readers know all the answers to K-007 and how William Clark (Judge) set up that nice little "accident" because you can begin to realize, if you missed it before, that all is relative and attached to all. You are slaves and prisoners to a very "few" when the facts become known.]

Today, as many other true patriots, very little remains of his fight for freedom from within the system. Critical information does kill the holder.

Media reporting on this event was scant, short lived and, as a result, the incident was all too soon forgotten. Even though his activities were well known within and among the media on the Hill, not a single mention was publicly made about the fact that McDonald had been heading a congressional effort to expose what he called a dangerous international conspiracy. Had this fact been made known to the American people, it would certainly have had an impact on the way in which you would have viewed this incident. Who knows? Maybe someday all the truth about the many sanctioned maimings and killings shall surface and see the true light of day. In the meantime, further facts must be brought forth and offered on the altar of truth.

The chance of a U.S. Congressman being aboard a commercial airline shot down by the Soviet military is less than one in a billion. Depending on the variables entered into the equation, the numbers may very well be higher and greater still. You, the public, are expected to believe that it was pure coincidence, just as we are supposed to believe that the recent (1991) deaths of Senator John Heinz and former Senator John Tower in two separate crashes were "pure" coincidence as well.

Tower had been an outspoken critic of the "Eastern Establishment", (a euphemism for ONE WORLD ORDER), even though he had himself been associated with such organizations. He had a very strong sense of right and wrong, particularly on matters concerning national security. He was well known for "bucking" the tide. This backfired when certain members of Congress, loyal to the Regan (Reagan) and Bush faction of the Intelligence Community banded together against him in a smear campaign which resulted in the denial of Tower's confirmation as U.S. Secretary of Defense. Outraged over the undocumented allegation made to slander his name, Tower began the book writing process so feared in Washington circles. His controversial book heavily criticizes his old crony pals in Congress. His death in a plane crash on April 5, 1991, came very shortly after the book was released.

One day earlier, (April 4, 1991) Senator John Heinz died in a blazing plane crash near Philadelphia. The official report states the plane's landing gear had suddenly malfunctioned. A helicopter was sent up to check out the gear, only to end up (allegedly) crashing into the plane itself. We are really stretching the "coincidence theory" when we state that two freak accidents occurred in one! First, the landing gear fails, and then the rescue aircraft slams into the plane. No one should make book as to the veracity of such obviously slanted and untrue reports.

Heinz and Tower had both been members of a prominent one-world society known as the Council on Foreign Relations, the CFR. Both had served on powerful Senate banking and finance committees, and had known a great deal about the matters discussed in this article. I suppose the obvious question must read... "could they have known too much?" I submit that they in fact...knew too much! Both were very astute when it comes to matters of monetary policy and the implementation of foreign policy. Yes, without doubt, they knew too much. Although accidents do happen, how much longer are we supposed to believe that all of these "so-called" accidents are mere coincidence?

Since the earlier death of Congressman Larry McDonald, Senator Jesse Helms has led many efforts to expose the plot. Although Mr. Helms has recently been required to undergo extensive cardiovascular surgery, nothing appears to have happened to him, YET! I am quite certain that Mr. Helms would appreciate the combined prayers of Americans who are concerned for the truth as well as his safety.

CHAPTER FOUR

GET RID OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE?

The vivid remarks and statements of Senator Helms, like those of his predecessors, have been entered into the Congressional Record, without receiving any network coverage. Regretfully, the only attention Mr. Helms manages to garner in the press is in the form of public ridicule over his conservative voting record. It must be noted here, that the major threat to the American way of life transcends labels like Conservative and Liberal. Those who valiantly try to protect the way of life that Americans love and cherish are the new American patriots. They come from all backgrounds, Republican, Democrat, Liberal and Conservative. The American people must wake up immediately and realize that the "Labels" applied to them are merely a way of dividing and conquering.

During the 1960s and 1970s, thanks to the efforts of Congressman Wright Patman, Larry McDonald, and others, the message had begun to reach the "reading" American people. The usual action groups were formed by various citizens in an urgent attempt to get this information into the hands of the public. However, as usual, without coverage from the major media, their efforts have had only limited results. These groups have had to rely on self-published newsletters and books. Numerous radio appearances also were used to spread the word. The task of educating the American public is not a simple one but rather, and more so, based and predicated upon numerous unpublicized speaking engagements in order to get the word out. Such is the stress associated with an active grassroots campaign.

Lt. Col. Archibald Roberts is one of the individuals who has made significant impact. As Director of the Committee to Restore the Constitution, he began testifying before state legislatures, informing our elected officials at the state level about the deception surrounding the Federal Reserve Act. His campaign, urging state legislatures to repeal the Federal Reserve Act was, according to Agency records, launched on March 30, 1971 when he testified before the Wisconsin House of Representatives. The text of Roberts' address was subsequently entered in the Congressional Record on April 19, 1991 by Louisiana Congressman John Rarick.

As a result of Roberts' work, by the mid 1980s approximately twenty states had taken some form of action to pass legislation calling either for an audit of the Fed or for the repeal of the Federal Reserve Act.

However, there has been virtually no media coverage and the American public is still largely unaware of the intense battle going on behind the scenes of the Washington establishment.

During June, 1989 the battle waged at the state level had once again reached Congress. Representative Henry Gonzalez of Texas introduced House Resolution 1496 calling for the abolition of the Open Market Committee of the Federal Reserve System. He also introduced House Resolution 1470 calling for the repeal of the Federal Reserve Act of 1913. During the same session Representative Phil Crane of Illinois introduced H.R. 70 calling for an annual audit of the Federal Reserve. However, all of these efforts, like those of others before them, failed.

We have personally come to know that it is far more than merely difficult to get the public behind a legitimate cause or issue if the media refuses to cover it. Obviously such coverage is necessary in order to get the public to put the kind of pressure on Congress that will lead to action. This is particularly true of a Congress in which One World interests now hold the upper hand.

CHAPTER FIVE

When I was asked to write this article, I made my way back into the dark corridors and lesser known places inside Agency Headquarters. Some of my old friends and associates were still willing to hear from me, even though several years had passed. They not only talked with me, but were gracious enough to accept my collect calls from prison. We pulled files, read numerous articles, and reviewed stymied legislation. The information you have been made privy to is a result of cooperation with the "so-called" unspeakable, and unclean element from the CIA Center. We have come a long way in tracking the specifics of this money trail and how One World money is being used to influence our society. Our distaste must seem obvious to the reader. These one-worlders have invaded every aspect of American life and not only threaten the well-being of the nation, but have virtually managed to secure a strangle hold upon the physical bodies of each and every one of us.

It must be stated, for the record, that each year billions of dollars are EARNED by Class A stockholders of the Federal Reserve. These profits come at the expense of the U.S. Government and American citizens, who pay interest on bank loans, a portion of which ends up going to the Federal Reserve. Much of this money, along with the annual profits stemming from hundreds of corporations and banks owned and operated by these same interests, is then funnelled into tax-exempt foundations—where it is then reinvested into American and foreign corporations and used to influence our thoughts and our economy. In this fashion a small group of people, dedicated to the establishment of a strong type of world government, has gained considerable influence over global activity and therefore your life.

It is NO coincidence that the forces responsible for the founding of the Federal Reserve were also responsible for the passage of laws permitting the creation of tax-exempt foundations. Such private foundations were specifically intended to serve as tax shelters to stow and hide the enormous wealth generated by the international banking cartel. It might be significant to note that they have also been most cherished for the purpose of funding major think-tanks, which influence virtually every aspect of American life.

AUTHOR'S ASSESSMENT AND CONCLUSIONS:

At the close of research and investigation for this article, the writer must conclude that the influence of one-world foundations in the areas of social science, education and foreign policy has only accelerated, thereby accomplishing great strides due to minimal opposition from opposing foundations.

It must be remembered that it was the One-World cabal, (Rockefeller, Rothschild, etc.), who pushed for the legalization of tax-exempt foundations and were therefore the first to establish them. They were able to successfully get off to a head start. Even if a sizable foundation-sponsored opposition were to develop, it would be on small scale and of rather insignificant result, compared to the massive efforts exerted by the One World Cabal's mega-foundations.

The "One World Cabal" will always have more power in the world because of the devious strategies it is willing to employ in order to accumulate money and manipulate the rest of us with it. Clear cut and decisive action is required immediately. Otherwise, it is this writer's opinion that we will very quickly lose the freedoms our Constitution guarantees for us. In short, our Constitution will be superseded by a One World document. In fact, it already has.

It is important for the reader to begin to think about what the world would be like if the One Worlders succeed. Because this is a short article, all the possible ramifications and changes to your lifestyle cannot be covered. But one possible negative outcome could be a return to a feudal system with 98% of the people shackled to some major corporation in the same way that serfs lived by the whim of their overlord. This is just one of the many possibilities, all equally black.

That being said, the ball is squarely in your court. You are part of a select few who have the education, intelligence and desire to even care about such things. In other words, it is up to you. You are part of the last classically educated free-thinking generation in this nation. If you wish to preserve your country for your grandchildren, then get busy. Write letters. Form groups which will inform your family and friends. Buy shortwave radios and create radio networks which will get together and decide how to create an informed voting block that will take back your country. Act now, because if you wait until "November", it will be too late.

A Newsletter Update From Rayelan Russbacher

(Editor's note: Commander Hatonn has asked that this newsletter be shared with our readers and, at a recent meeting, reminded us that "Gunther Russbacher has a very interesting story to tell...when it's the right time for it to be told." As always, please read with DISCERNMENT, particularly where characters such as Ross Perot and that infamous rogue Joseph Pavlonski — AKA "Dr. John Coleman" — enter the picture.)

February, 1993

Dear Fellow Patriot,

It has been a long time since I have written an update on our situation. 1992 has been a very eventful year. In February Gunther was sentenced to 21 years in prison for an alleged crime which amounted to $20,000. Later that month Ross Perot contacted us and offered to help. Then my husband suffered an attack of angina which was worsened to the point of a minor heart attack because the prison withheld his nitroglycerin. Upon his release from the hospital he was beaten by three guards and then thrown into the hole. And things continued to deteriorate.

I fell ill in March and it took me almost six months to fully recover. During that period of time we were dealing with the October Surprise Taskforce in the House trying to surface the documents which would prove who Gunther is and would indict George Bush for treason. In July we finally had everything in place to deliver absolute proof of Bush's treasonous flight to France in October of 1980. The proof was delivered and unfortunately, the Senate and the House immediately buried it and announced that there was no credible evidence that the October Surprise happened.

We were disappointed that the cover up was so extensive, but we were not surprised, and so we decided to concentrate our efforts on the legal aspects of my husband's case and hope that Clinton or Perot won the election. In late October I was back in Jefferson City visiting my husband at the prison where he is incarcerated. A friend of ours from Ohio was there with me. The weather was beautiful and the visit with my husband was going very smoothly. Everything seemed fine. And then the roof caved in.

On October 29th, 1992, my husband, Gunther, myself and our friend William Smith were set up as the fall guys in a failed attempt to assassinate George Bush. The attempt was planned by men at the top level of the CIA because they knew Bush was going to be defeated and they did not want to relinquish their power. The purpose of the assassination was threefold. First to assassinate the president, second to declare Martial Law and suspend the election as well as the Constitution, and third to blame Navy Intelligence for the plot and deactivate the admirals within the CIA who oppose its present direction.

During the period from October 30th to Christmas Eve there were four attempts to kill me and our friend William Smith, who everyone thinks is a high ranking Naval Intelligence officer. During that same time over fifty CIA operatives, their wives and families were killed in an attempt by the Robert Gates faction of the CIA to cover its tracks before Clinton's team came to power. After the last attempt on my life, my husband's SEAL team arranged safe transport for me to Vienna where I stayed until Robert Gates was removed as Director of the CIA.

Immediately upon my return from Vienna, I went on a Santa Barbara live television talk show. It was the first time I had told my whole story and all the ramifications of the October Surprise. From Santa Barbara I flew to Salt Lake City, Utah where I was the keynote speaker at a Survivalist Expo. Again I was able to tell my whole story without the fear of being killed. Bo Gritz and John Coleman were also there. I was happy to have a chance to talk with them.

On the last day of the expo I received a call from a friend telling me that Gunther had been thrown into solitary confinement because the warden feared his life was in danger. This was January 23rd. On Monday, January 25th a gunman shot five CIA employees at the entrance of the CIA Langley, Virginia headquarters. Two of the five were killed. This morning, February 2, Gunther called to let me know that he had been released from solitary. He said that all CIA operatives who have personal involvement in the crimes of the Reagan-Bush years have been targeted by the Bush-Gates faction of the CIA. The people who orchestrated the wholesale raping and pillaging of the United States want no witnesses to incriminate them in their crimes. If the slaughter is successful, there will be no witnesses left to testify to anything.

The men and women who have been targeted are fighting back. These are not people who will simply lay down and wait to be killed. They have an active plan to defend themselves and neutralize their enemies. Unfortunately, their enemies are very powerful. The enemy camp is placed squarely within the Council on Foreign Relations and the International Elite who are behind the One World Government. These people cannot afford for the American people to know how diabolical their plan is and the lengths to which they went to carry it out. The International Elite have the money and the connections to continue this war until every witness is dead.

These murders will never be covered in the newspapers or on radio. The people who are being killed have names that no one has ever heard and so they won't be missed or even remembered. If I had not been able to bring our story forward through the various radio and newspapers that have covered us, then Gunther and I would have also been among the anonymous dead of this war.

In the meantime Gunther and I are simply trying to stay alive.

As usual, my biggest problem, aside from the attempts on my life, is money. It's hard to earn money while you are in hiding trying to stay alive. This, of course, is part of the way the CIA breaks its enemies. For the months of November, December and January, I was unable to raise any money at all above and beyond the rent. Unfortunately the gas, electric and telephone bills have just kept mounting. I am still supporting myself from the sale of tapes and from loans and gifts from other patriots. So far, God has provided for me in times like these and I know He will again.

For the next few months I will be staying close to home finishing my book, "I Call It Treason." I have not been able to find a publisher who is brave enough to publish it, and so I will be creating my own publishing company and printing and distributing it myself. If you feel you have expertise in this area, please contact me. I need all the help I can get. I also need to raise $3500 to get the project started. The printer will let me pay the balance from the sale of the books.

I have enclosed a list of new tapes that are available. So much happened in 1992 that the only way I have of updating you is through these tapes. I hope you will listen to them. In them you will find the stories that the media won't touch. Thank you for your support and your friendship. In all of the United States there are only one hundred people who are brave enough to call me Friend. Thank you for being one of them.

* SITUATION UPDATE FEBRUARY 2, 1992

In the first tape of this two tape set, Gunther Russbacher talks about his two year incarceration and his hopes to be freed. He goes into his background as a deep black covert operative for the CIA. In tape two, "The After Trial Update," his wife Rayelan angrily describes the kangaroo court which sentenced her husband to 21 years in Missouri state prison.

Two 90 Minute tapes $20.00

* THE RUSSBACHER-PEROT CONNECTION

Rayelan Russbacher describes Ross Perot's effort to help her husband and how the government prevented it. She speaks of her husband's heart attack which was brought on by the prison's refusal to give him his nitro glycerine. This was a calculated move to put Gunther into a situation where Perot's men could not reach him. While in the hospital, Gunther was told to stay quiet or his son would die.

* SALT LAKE CITY SURVIVAL EXPO

Rayelan Russbacher was the keynote speaker and the closing speaker from this gathering of American Patriots. She delivers three riveting lectures in which she details the crimes and corruption of the Reagan/Bush years and the extent to which the illegitimate government will go to cover its tracks.

Three 60 minute video tapes $60.00

* SANTA BARBARA TELEVISION SHOW

The October Surprise scandal is covered in this 60 minute program. Mrs. Russbacher also tells how the government has persecuted and discredited her and her husband to keep them from telling the truth or from being believed if they did manage to tell the truth.

* HOW GEORGE BUSH LOST THE FOOTBALL

Gunther and Rayelan Russbacher tell the story that was never printed. In July of 1992 Navy Intelligence surfaced the cockpit video from the SR 71 in which Captain Russbacher flew George Bush back from the Paris October Surprise meeting. As a result of the incontrovertible evidence that George Bush committed treason, the military staged a coup on Friday, July 10, 1992. The Nuclear football was taken from President Bush.

* CONSPIRACY TO ASSASSINATE

Rayelan Russbacher tells the story of how she, her husband, and their close friend William Smith, were set up as the fall guys in a failed attempt to assassinate George Bush just six days before the election. She describes being surrounded by a SWAT team, searched for weapons and grilled for three hours by the Secret Service. The assassination attempt was planned by men at the top level of the CIA. Its purpose was threefold. First to assassinate the president; second, to declare Martial Law and suspend the election as well as the Constitution; and third, to blame Navy Intelligence for the assassination and deactivate the high ranking admirals who actively oppose the Bush-Gates agenda.

Mount Carmel Federal Massacre

An Alert To The People!

3/10/93 #2 HATONN

The next comes from John R. Prukop—TO: The Sheriff and County Judge of McLennan County, Texas. [Please pay very close attention to the contents of this letter!]

John R. Prukop is: Washington State Press Secretary; Bo Gritz for President, 11910-C Meridian E., #124, Puyallup, Washington 98373. Phone/FAX (206) 927-0805

QUOTING:

FAXCOM, Mar. 9, 1993

RE: MOUNT CARMEL FEDERAL MASSACRE—ALERT:

TO: The Sheriff and County Judge of McLennan County, Texas.
(By FAX: 817-757-5091)

Gentlemen:

Are each of you, as Public Servants to the People, allowing a Federal repeat of the Idaho "Ruby Creek Massacre" to occur within the sovereign State of Texas, County of McLennan?

As this dreadful situation unfolds and more information filters through the controlled-establishment-media and tight censorship imposed by so-called Federal "Authority", the stench from Texas gets progressively worse and leads us to question the REAL motives of the BATF, DEA, FBI and U.S. Marshals. These three or four Federal Agencies of that FOREIGN jurisdiction, a foreign corporation known and described as the "United States", are making an absolute mockery of Texas Law and Justice [See U.S. Supreme Court in Re: Merriam, 16 S.Ct. 1073, 163 U.S. 625, 41 L.Ed. 287, 20 C.J.S. P.11 Sub. 1785 Fn. 13—"the United States Government is a foreign corporation with respect to a State."].

TIME TO CALL A HALT

As concerned Citizens of the State of Washington, we call upon you, as the legitimate conservators of the peace of McLennan County, Texas, to ARREST ALL FEDERAL OFFICERS AT THE SCENE and to restore the peace and domestic tranquility of McLennan County.

As we have seen repeated time and time again, we are now again witnessing the specter of an out-of-control Federal foreign assault on a sovereign People, who by sham, guise and pretense, have more than likely "set-up" their victims under a federal "sting" operation, to advance their own political agenda to the detriment of the People of Texas, AND in violation of their sworn oath to defend and protect the Constitution for the United States of America, IF they took such an oath.

There is now evidence within the United States Code, to indicate that the oaths of the Federal entities operating on sovereign Texas soil are more than just mere "foreign" agents of their foreign principal. These oaths were ALTERED in 1988 and essentially negated the requirement to have a solemn oath of office to support the Constitution for the United States of America. The statutory provisions are provably shown at 28 USC sub. 563 [See: congressional Record—House, September 22, 1988, pages H7934 thru H7936—Secretary General of the U.N., Omnibus Crime Control Act, and U.S. Marshals]. The Congressional Record contains the following language at page H7935 in the center column: "Amended Section 563 provides generally that the Director, U.S. Marshals, and all law enforcement officers of the service must take an oath to faithfully execute the duties of their office. The section deletes the specific oath prescribed by the current Section 563, CERTAIN THAT THE LANGUAGE THEREIN HAVING BECOME OBSOLETE." As a result of the oath having been altered, Federal operatives no longer have allegiance to the Constitution. One must ask WHY?

Having researched this to the end, we discover in the U.S. Government Manual, under the heading "Department of Justice", a Section on INTERPOL mandate is found at 22 USC Sub. 263A. Further, the Secretary of the Treasury is the alien corporate Governor of the IMF and the bank; this is found at 22 USC Sub. 286A. Here, there is found a "STATEMENT OF MEMO-RANDUM AND AGREEMENT", as follows: "Memorandum of understanding between the Department of Treasury, and the Department of Justice, pertaining to U.S. representation to the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL) and matters related thereto". This agreement is between the U.S. Attorney General's Office and the Secretary of Treasury. According to these documents their base of operations is situated in Lyons, France. As early as 1950, they were discussing surrendering the U.S. sovereignty of the several States of the Union (including Texas) to the United Nations. This is verified in a Senate Report: "Hearing Before A Senate Sub-Committee of the Committee on Foreign Relations, U.S. Congress, 81st Congress, 2nd Session, on Resolutions relative to revisions of the U.N. Charter, Atlantic Union, World Federation, Etc., February 2nd, 3rd, 6th, 8th, 9th, 13th, 15th, was made from the floor to RELINQUISH SOVEREIGNTY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. The reply, "YES!"

The foregoing raises the serious question of whether the sovereignty of the United States of America has, in fact, ALREADY BEEN RELINQUISHED TO THE UNITED NATIONS. Because the BATF, DEA, FBI and U.S. MARSHALS, all FEDERAL AGENCIES, now operating within the sovereign State of Texas are under the International Economic Emergencies Act, Title 50 USC sub. 1701-1706, what you have are U.N. OPERATIVES, INDEED FOREIGN AGENTS, DISGUISED WITH "ATF" AND OTHER INSIGNIA, PERPETRATING AN "ACT OF WAR" AGAINST THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS, AS THESE AGENTS HAVE RELINQUISHED ALLEGIANCE TO THESE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

With this imputed knowledge, it is your open duty as Public Servants under YOUR SWORN OATH, to support and defend your State Constitution and the Constitution for the United States of America, against ALL enemies, FOREIGN and DOMESTIC. I have accomplished my duty under Title 18 USC sub. 4 "Misprision of Felony" by informing you of the ominous danger now evolving in your State of Texas. Now, under Title 18 USC Sub. 2382 "Misprision of Treason" son"; Title 18 USC Sub. 2383 "Rebellion or Insurrection"; Title 18 USC Sub. 2384 "Seditious Conspiracy" and Title 18 USC Sub. 2385 "Advocating Overthrow of Government", it is your sworn duty to immediately Notify the Governor of Texas, the Commanding General of the Texas State militia and others, to suppress these foreign agents and place all of them under arrest for their crimes against the Peace and Dignity of the People of the State of Texas. The lives of the People of Texas and your Texas front-line officers are being put at risk unnecessarily.

This Federal action fits into a pattern of Federal activity which, according to the foregoing official "cites", has all the appearances of being part of the new World Order scheme under the authority of the UNITED NATIONS, A FOREIGN JURISDICTION.

We are confident that local law enforcement is fully capable of properly handling the situation, and could have from the beginning. PLEASE, exercise your sovereign authority to remove and arrest all federal officers at the scene of the crime and take local control of the situation.

As concerned State Citizens of this great Country, we humbly pray for your help. There are private negotiators available there to help defuse this tragic situation. PLEASE, UTILIZE EVERY PEACEFUL METHOD AND PREVENT FURTHER BLOODSHED.

Most Sincerely,

John R. Prukop

END QUOTING.

OK, Readers, here is an opportunity to put your fingers where your mouth is. You can copy this letter verbatim, changing appropriate information as to location, etc. You can also send forth letters, etc., to the above listed FAX in McLennan County. YOU WILL NEVER TAKE YOUR NATION BACK WITH GUNS—BUT YOU CAN WITH THE PEN. DEMAND, UNIFY—AND GET IT DONE!

I ask that this message be put immediately on the telephone Hotline—and anyone requesting a copy to utilize, can call the LIBERATOR number and be sent by Fax or mail, a copy for use as sample. These are the very things you, as citizens, can do without danger to selves or any other citizen—and if enough act, you will be heard! If TEXAS fails to act—then I think the "Alamo" will not represent more than cowardly injustice.

Thank you, Hatonn to clear.

An Update On Pending Issues Of Interest

3/12/93 #1 HATONN

Hatonn present in the Light of Radiance. As we sit to pen the "circuits" are all in "overload" so allow us to commune here for just a minute.

SLOPPY SURVEILLANCE

To you readers, it is not that we feel duty-bound to explain things that happen here, but it is helpful if you understand so that when new things happen, you are not in a quandary. To new readers, please be patient for a few paragraphs.

The spy teams were caught red-handed with instruments against the window of the office yesterday, a "bug" which would pick up anything for a block around. When confronted, the man with the instrument on the window threw the apparatus in his bag and "took off". Now today, phone tappers are under the street organizing a better listening status. The phone company people are present but nobody seems to know what anyone else is doing—or even "supposed" to be doing. There is NOTHING new so just settle nerves. There is NOTHING to UNCOVER—for we have no cover-ups. I would hope that you will all be able to now appreciate all those mandatory requirements of "no groups", "good business", absolute integrity, etc. There is nothing to "find"—we publish EVERYTHING.

BAD NEWS, PERHAPS, FOR PATRIOTS SEEKING HELP

For the sake of all involved, however, I must quiet the calls from some who have begun to call frequently. The LIBERATOR is NOT the Constitutional Law Center and ones must not confuse the issues. We will continue to write that which is offered on anyone who is in "trouble" with the injustice system—but, chelas, if we take a stand as with or in a, say, patriot GROUP, then we are going to glean the same rewards as any other ones "they" want out of their hair as troublemakers. Especially for ones who think they will "fight with weapons" the new U.N. forces, we can do little to change things for you.

We must now be very, very careful about how we handle information from ones that have been incarcerated "just to keep silence". We must not place any of our workers OR our publications in jeopardy of being shut down.

MAYNARD CAMPBELL

MAYNARD CAMPBELL is in serious trouble—the Feds suggest all sorts of plea-bargains—all of which are intended to silence him. He is being targeted, also, by piped-in substances and tainted food.

I know that the soul cries out in torment and desperation as to how to help and comes up with "very little". Time has simply run out to treat anything in America as having basis within or upon your Constitution. The New World Order is making examples and thus it requires constant attention to all facets of living and business. NO LAWS OF THE LAND SHALL BE BROKEN AND IF THERE ARE SUGGESTIONS OF ERRORS IN STRUCTURE ALREADY APPARENT—THEN FIX IT NOW. I continue to remind you that we are to "here" and therefore we shall probably have to shut down that which has come before, as the months pass. If we are to succeed, we must always work within the system—for there is no longer such a thing as winning by "fighting". We do not stop doing that which can be done according to the laws, but "dead" martyrs are of no value.

RUSSBACHER

I don't want to get into all that is happening to Gunther right now—he has been "disciplined" for some false charges. Of course, it is because he is getting some truth out. I will share with you ones something that almost no-one knows. The Judge who attended Gunther's conviction and continues to hold the ropes around his neck—has a daughter. The most recent threat to the Judge is that if he acts in behalf of Gunther then the daughter is killed. I think any of you who might have watched UNSOLVED MYSTERIES a couple of nights ago regarding the Journalist, Casolaro (Inslaw case), can well see what happens when ones get close to truth and start telling it. Now the Feds know that Gunther can call here and even be connected with Rayelan so it will probably be necessary to close that connection for the security of all parties involved.

EKKER PROPERTY/RTC

Oh no, it is not OVER! It gets worse because the RTC slipped and made an offer that the Church buying the property—TOOK. Now they come back AFTER THE FACT and are doing everything possible to botch the sale. This is because the "sale" slipped through without shackles on the Ekkers to stop hearings into the original criminal actions. We shall walk most carefully because the adversary continues to do stupid things and this is when life gets very dangerous.

AMERICA WEST

It is hard to say just "when" things will work out regarding the books. The sheriff went to claim the property, with documents in hand—but the papers were refused on the basis of the "books belong to America West Distributors". WRONG, but at least the sheriff has cordoned off the books and no one can move them until next week.

GEORGE GREEN AND THE GOLD

Deposition was taken in Texas and the attorneys now want to continue with a deposition of George Green because, when questioned about some "missing checks", he said he had returned them to the people who had originally sent them "incorrectly". WRONG ANSWER—he sits on cashier's checks which prove otherwise.

The Ekkers are asking the Institute to request that the GOLD, in its present form—be returned directly to the party, D.O., and then he can do that which he wishes with the commodity. Surely enough, George had borrowed a lot of money against that inventory of gold. He also claims that some of the book inventory is against printing costs which have not been paid—good grief, is there no end to the string of problems? Furthermore, why would there still be outstanding printing costs when so much other stuff has been printed other than the JOURNALS—and why should the INSTITUTE pay for those other things?

I think, however, the larger problem Mr. Green may have is that he is the one who worked out the "Institute Plan" originally and put himself forward as knowing all the rules and regulations. It appears some of them are not just exactly according to the REAL rules. These are technicalities but nonetheless—troublesome and time consuming and every one is now backfiring on himself. It becomes clear why he wanted to distance himself from involvement by denouncing his participation as he began to set up the pull-down of our work while "he" planned to take "Hatonn and Soltec" "on the road"!

I also find it most painful and sad—and worse—so uselessly unnecessary. I simply remind you how very easy it is to get "had" while you "think" you are in control. It is the time of the "false prophets" and, sorrowfully enough—the entity in the "hot seat" doesn't really know that they are "false" and forgets to follow the guidelines brought forth to thwart this very thing. When spiritual path gets entangled with the "power", "ego" and things of the flesh—it is easy to see for others but most difficult for the ones entrapped.

This is why it appears that the ones of Christian or Godly path are so put-upon and smitten in these days as stated in the Bible—because they are fooled into following "human physical paths" instead of the Truth whose guidelines are indeed simple.

Extraterrestrials Galore! What's Really Going On?

3/12/93 #1 HATONN

Since "they" are getting ready to spring extraterrestrials on you nice people, why don't we go back and look a bit more closely at the phenomenon as being presented to you. I have here a rather interesting article by your respected Carl Sagan (a view I do not share with you). This article is, of course, about all the nonsense and foolishness afoot but gives you an idea of the thrust coming at you from the scientific community of disinformers.

QUOTING:

PARADE MAGAZINE, in The Bakersfield Californian, by Carl Sagan, Sunday, March 7, 1993.

As the bizarre reports of alien abductions increase, many people wonder: What's Really Going on?

It's still dark out. You're lying in bed, fully awake—but, you discover, you're utterly paralyzed. You sense someone in the room. You try to cry out. But you cannot. Several small gray beings less than 4 feet tall are standing at the foot of your bed. Their heads are pear-shaped and bald, and large for their bodies. Their eyes are enormous, their faces expressionless and identical. They wear tunics and boots. You hope this is only a dream, but as nearly as you can tell it's really happening. They lift you up and, eerily, they and you slip through the wall of your bedroom and float out into the air, rising high toward a metallic, saucer-shaped spacecraft. There, you are escorted into a medical examining room. A larger but similar being—evidently some kind of physician—takes over. What follows is even more terrifying.

Your body is probed with special machines, especially your sexual parts. [H: This in itself is the give-away clue. I do not know of one extraterrestrial in the least bit interested in human "sexual parts"—THIS IS A FABRICATION AND OBSESSION OF EARTH HUMAN ALL THE WAY DOWN THE LINE!] If you're a man, they may take sperm samples; if you're a woman, they may implant semen or remove ova or fetuses. They may force you to have sex. Afterward, you may be ushered into a different room where hybrid babies, partly human and partly like these creatures, stare back at you. You may be given an admonition about human misbehavior, especially in despoiling the environment; scenes of further devastation are displayed. Finally, these cheerless gray emissaries usher you out of the spacecraft and ooze you back through the walls into your bed. By the time you're able to move and talk, they're gone.

You may not remember the incident right away; you might find some period of time unaccountably missing. Because all of this seems so bizarre, you're concerned about your sanity; naturally you're reluctant to talk to anyone about it. At the same time, the experience is so disturbing that it's hard to keep bottled up forever. It all pours out when you hear similar accounts, or when you're under hypnosis with a sympathetic therapist, or even when you see a picture of an "alien" in one of the many popular magazines and books on UFOs.

In a recent Roper poll of nearly 6000 American adults, specially commissioned by those who accept the alien abduction story at face value, 18 percent reported sometimes waking up paralyzed, aware of one or more strange beings in the room. Something like 13 percent reported odd episodes of missing time, and 10 percent claimed to have flown through the air without mechanical assistance. From these results, the poll's sponsors concluded that 2 percent of all Americans have been abducted, many repeatedly, by beings from other worlds. If aliens are not partial to Americans, the number for the whole planet would be more than 100 million people. This means an abduction every few seconds. It's surprising that more of the neighbors haven't noticed.

What's going on here? Could all these people be mistaken, or lying, or hallucinating the same or a very similar story? When you talk with them, most seem very sincere, although in the grip of powerful emotions. A few psychiatrists who have examined them find no more evidence of psychopathology than in the rest of us. But could there really be a massive alien invasion, repugnant medical procedures performed on millions of innocent men, women and children, and humans apparently used as breeding stock over many decades—and all this not generally known and dealt with by responsible media and the governments sworn to protect the lives and well-being of their citizens?

Why should beings so advanced in psychics and engineering—crossing vast interstellar distances, walking like ghosts through walls—be so backward when it comes to biology? [H: Why indeed?] Why go to all the trouble of repeated sexual encounters between aliens and humans? Why not steal a few egg and sperm cells, read the full genetic code and then manufacture as many copies with as many genetic variations as you like? Even we humans—who cannot quickly cross interstellar space or slither through walls—ARE ABLE TO CLONE CELLS. The preoccupation with reproduction in these accounts raises a warning flag—especially considering the uneasy balance between sexual freedom and repression that has always characterized the human condition, and the fact that we live in a time fraught with numerous ghastly accounts, both true and false, of childhood sexual abuse.

The pollsters never actually asked whether their subjects had been abducted by aliens; they deduced it: Those who've ever awakened sensing strange presences around them; ever unaccountably seemed to fly through the air, and so on, have therefore been abducted by aliens. The conclusion—that millions of Americans have been so abducted—seems extremely doubtful. Still, at least hundreds of people, believing they have been abducted, have sought out sympathetic therapists or joined abductee support groups.

So which is more likely—that we're undergoing a massive but generally overlooked invasion by alien sexual abusers, or that people are experiencing some internal mental state they do not understand? Admittedly, we're very ignorant both about extraterrestrial beings, if any, and about human psychology. But if these really were the only two alternatives, which would you pick?

It's curious that emotions can run so high on a matter about which we know so little. After all, either hypothesis—extraterrestrial invasion or an epidemic of hallucinations—teaches us something we certainly ought to know about. Maybe the reason for such strong feelings is that both alternatives have extremely unpleasant implications.

The first alien abduction story in the modern genre began with Betty and Barney Hill, a New Hampshire couple—she a social worker and he a Post Office employee. During a late-night drive in 1961 through the White Mountains of New Hampshire, Betty spotted a bright starlike UFO that seemed to follow them. Because Barney feared it might harm them, they left the main highway for narrow mountain roads. They arrive home two hours later than they had expected. The experience prompted Betty to read a book claiming that UFOs were spaceships from other worlds. Soon after, she had a repetitive nightmare in which she and Barney were abducted and taken aboard the UFO. Barney overheard her describing this dream to friends and volunteer UFO investigators.

Several years later, Barney's psychiatrist referred him to a Boston hypnotherapist, Benjamin Simon, M.D. Betty came to be hypnotized as well. Under hypnosis they separately described a memory of their trip home—of seeing a UFO, watching it land on the highway and being taken partly immobilized into the UFO, where little humanoid creatures subjected them to unconventional medical examinations.

I was glad to have an opportunity to spend several hours with Mr. and Mrs. Hill, and with Dr. Simon. There was no mistaking the earnestness and sincerity of Betty and Barney, and their mixed feelings about becoming public figures under such bizarre circumstances. With the Hills' permission, Dr. Simon played for me some of the audiotapes of their sessions under hypnosis. By far my most striking impression was the absolute terror in Barney's voice as he described—relived would be a better word—the encounter. Simon rejected the notion that they were lying. So what's left? The Hills, said their psychiatrist, had experienced a species of "dream".

In 1894 The International Census of Waking Hallucinations was published in London. From that time to this, repeated surveys have shown that 10 percent to 25 percent of ordinary, functioning people have experienced at least once a vivid hallucination—hearing a voice, usually, or seeing a form when there's no one there. In some cases, these are profound religious experiences. (Probably a dozen times since their deaths I've heard my mother or father, in an ordinary, conversational tone of voice, call my name. They had called my name often during my life with them. I still miss them so much that it doesn't seem strange to me that my brain occasionally will retrieve a kind of lucid recollection of their voices.)

Such hallucinations may occur to perfectly normal people under ordinary circumstances. But there are various circumstances in which they can be elicited: by a campfire at night, or under great stress, or by prolonged fasting or sleeplessness or sensory deprivation, or through hallucinogens such as LSD, psilocybin, mescaline, hashish or alcohol. These hallucinations have a vivid and palpable reality.

Hallucinations are common. If you have one, it doesn't mean you're crazy. Indeed, they are sought out in many cultures. We surely would be missing something important about our own nature if we refused to face up to the fact that having hallucinations are part of being human. But none of this makes hallucinations real.

Most of us remember being frightened at the age of 3 or so by real-seeming but wholly imaginary "monsters". If we're capable of conjuring up monsters in childhood, why shouldn't some of us, at least on occasion, be able to imagine similar things as adults?

There's a common, although insufficiently well known, psychological syndrome very much like alien abduction: Many people have experienced sleep paralysis. On falling asleep or when waking up—just for a few seconds, or maybe for longer periods—you seem to be paralyzed and acutely anxious. You may feel a weight on your chest, your heartbeat is quick, your breathing labored. You may experience auditory or visual hallucinations—of people, demons, ghosts, animals or birds. In the right setting, the experience can have "the full force and impact of reality", according to Dr. Robert Baker, a psychologist at the University of Kentucky. Sometimes there's a marked sexual component to the hallucination.

Baker has forcefully argued that these common sleep disturbances are behind many if not most of the alien abduction accounts. (He and others suggest that some abduction claims also are made by fantasy-prone individuals or hoaxers seeking fame and fortune.) Even if no known hallucinations were to fit the alien abduction pattern, it's certain that humans commonly hallucinate. There's considerable doubt about whether extraterrestrials exist and frequently visit our planet. We may argue about details, but the one category of explanation seems much better supported than the other. The main reservation you might then have is: Why do so many people report this particular set of hallucinations? Why little gray beings and flying saucers and sexual molestation?

Demons, the early Church Fathers taught, come down from Heaven and have unlawful sexual congress with women. St. Augustine believed witches were the offspring of these forbidden unions. In his famous Bull of 1484, Pope Innocent VIII declared: "It has come to Our ears that members of both sexes do not avoid to have intercourse with evil angels, incubi, and succubi, and that by their sorceries, and by their incantations, charms, and conjurations, they suffocate, extinguish, and cause to perish the births of women," as well as cause sundry other calamities. With the Bull, Innocent initiated the systematic accusation, torture and execution of countless "witches" all over Europe.

Two inquisitors appointed by Innocent declared: "Devils...busy themselves by interfering with the process of normal copulation and conception, by obtaining human semen, and themselves transferring it." The offspring of these demonic unions are also, when they grow up, visited by devils—although not all witches are created this way. And witches were well known to fly through the air. There is no spaceship, but most of the essential elements of the alien abduction story are here.

In 1645, a Cornish teenager, Anne Jeffries, was found groggy and crumpled on the floor. Much later, she recalled being attacked by little men, carried paralyzed to a castle in the air, seduced and returned home. She called the little men fairies. They returned to torment her. The next year she was arrested for witchcraft. Fairies traditionally have magical powers and can cause paralysis by the merest touch. The ordinary passage of time is slowed in fairyland. Fairies have sex with humans and carry off babies from their cradles. If Anne Jeffries had known about aliens rather than fairies, and UFOs rather than castles in the air, would her story have been distinguishable from the one "abductees" tell?

Is it possible that people in all times and places occasionally experience vivid, realistic hallucinations, often with sexual content—with the details filled in by the prevailing cultural idioms, sucked out of the Zeitgeist? When everyone knows that gods regularly come down to Earth, we hallucinate gods; when everyone knows about demons, it's incubi and succubi; when fairies are widely believed, we see fairies; when the old myths fade and we begin thinking that alien beings are plausible, then that's where our hypnagogic imagery tends. Snatches of songs or foreign languages, images and stories we witnessed in our childhood can be accurately recalled decades later without any conscious memory of the source. In our everyday life, we effortlessly incorporate cultural motifs and norms and make them our own.

Today aliens are the subject of innumerable science-fiction stories and novels. UFOs are a regular feature of weekly newspapers dedicated to falsification and mystification. One of the highest-grossing motion pictures of all time is about aliens very much like those described by abductees. Alien abduction stories were comparatively rare until 1987, when a purported firsthand account with a haunting cover painting of an "alien" became a best-seller. It is striking how similar many of the abduction accounts are now, and how little we hear about incubi and fairies. But it might not be altogether surprising that, in our time and society, short, gray aliens with breeding programs on their minds are what we mainly reach for when we must describe these hallucinations.

No one would be happier than I would if we had real evidence of extraterrestrial life. But the issue comes down to the quality of the evidence. Proponents of alien abductions do not ask us to believe on faith, but rather on the strength of their evidence. Surely it is our duty to examine the purported evidence closely and skeptically. No anecdotal claim—no matter how sincere, no matter how deeply felt, no matter how exemplary the lives of the attesting citizens—carries much weight on so important a question. As with the older UFO cases, anecdotal accounts are subject to irreducible error. This is not a criticism of those who claim abductions or of those who interrogate them. It is merely a statement of human fallibility.

Where is the physical evidence? Some abductees allege that aliens stole fetuses from their wombs. This is something that would surely cause a stir among gynecologists, midwives, obstetrical nurses, especially in an age of heightened feminist awareness. But not a single medical record has been produced substantiating such claims.

Some abductees say that tiny metallic implants were inserted into their bodies—high up their nostrils, for example. But no such implants have been confirmed by physicists or chemists as being of un-earthly manufacture. No abductee has filched a page from the captain's logbook or a strange examining instrument, or taken an authentic photograph of the interior of the ship, or come back with detailed scientific information not hitherto known on Earth. These failures surely tell us something.

If indeed the bulk of the alien abduction accounts are really about hallucinations, don't we have before us a matter of supreme importance—touching on our limitations, the ease with which we may be misled, the fashioning of our beliefs and perhaps even the origins of our religions? There is genuine scientific paydirt in UFOs and alien abductions—but it is, I think, of distinctly terrestrial origin.

Carl Sagan of Cornell University has played a leading role in the search for extraterrestrial life with spacecraft and radio telescopes. He was a member of the U.S. Air Force committee that evaluated the government's investigation of UFOs. In 1966, Dr. Sagan resigned from the Air Force Scientific Advisory Board in protest against the Vietnam War. He is the author (with Ann Druyan) of Shadows of Forgotten Ancestors.

END QUOTE.

I guess I should say that I have a bit more healthy respect for the man now than when I began this article. The thing that is hidden from you—is that the whole of the "hallucinations" is orchestrated.

As a witness to the "facts", I can tell you without hesitation that abductions HAVE HAPPENED. They are not, however, little aliens from out of space—they are from little aliens RIGHT ON YOUR PLANET. The stage is set and then anyone can be caused to see and experience anything that the World Controllers wish you to see and experience.

Indeed there are veritable armies of little gray clones along with some pretty formidable looking "reptilian" hybrids. This is not from outer space, however, it usually happens that they come right from Area 51 in Nevada or Northrop facilities near Palmdale, California and thus and so. No self-respecting outer space alien would get in the middle of this ridiculous game-playing. There is a massive number of aliens out here in the "spaces" and throughout the cosmos—but out here YOU are the ALIENS! NOT US.

This whole scenario of UFOs and aliens is accomplishing exactly that which is planned—programming you right into a one world order with a massive "one military force" objective. The EVIL is already locked onto your place and within your atmosphere—you can't really get off your planet for any distance to speak of and you must always go back to your orb for survival.

I do enjoy the “failure to find valid life in space” about as ridiculous as idiots dare to project. They put up “space monitoring stations” to pump in pulse waves at you fantasy-eyed citizens while they are doing you in and calling it scientific research for aliens. Ah, if you could but see and experience the WONDERS of the cosmos instead of being stupefied by these false speakers. God rules the wondrous universe of the cosmos. Evil rules the physical planes of expression—what a sad commentary for humankind.

Just as reminders of progression of man in the order of the universe, let us look on the scale of growth and where is Earth man at this time of cycle changes:

There are seven main periods of man expression. It can be considered that each division is a “whole” period or a “school semester”. You must consider that it means, in your designation, one life-semester during which seven subjects must be accomplished.

PRIMARY LIFE:

- 1. Primary development of intellect and spirit.
- 2. Primary thinking of intellect and spirit.
- 3. Primary thinking of reason.
- 4. Primary exercise of intellect and spirit force.
- 5. Primary reasonable actions.
- 6. Primary will-thinking and will-activity.
- 7. Reason-conditioned guiding of the life.

Creatures of these levels are considered insane, idiots, etc., by already thinking-reasoning beings. But in truth their spirit and intellect is not yet spiritually developed. (They are new spirits who have to first form themselves by learning and experience.)

REASONED LIFE:

- 1. Primary development of reason.
- 2. Effective realization of reason and its use.
- 3. Primary acknowledgement and cognition of higher influences.
- 4. Belief in higher influences without having the knowledge.
- 5. Belief in higher forces, superstition, fear of evil, veneration of God, etc. This present germinating time for religions, etc.

Now the next is about the present position of the average Earth human being:

- 6. Primary cognition of the true reality. Research, knowledgeable development. First spiritual cognitions and their exercise. Spiritual healing, telepathy, etc.
- 7. Primary development of knowledge and wisdom.

INTELLECT LIFE:

- 1. Advanced development of the intellect. High technology. Second utilization of spiritual forces. Primary creation of living forms.
- 2. Realization and exercise of knowledge, truth, and wisdom. Slow breakdown of accepted beliefs.

*This is the approximate location of educated Earth beings, scientists, etc. and a few borderland and spiritual scientists.

- 3. First utilization of knowledge and wisdom.
- 4. Acknowledgement and utilization of Nature’s laws. Generation of super-technologies. Second creation of living forms.
- 5. Natural exercise of wisdom and knowledge in the cognition of spiritual forces. Further breakdown of accepted beliefs.
- 6. Life in knowing, about wisdom, truth and logic.
- 7. Primary cognition of the reality as absolutely real.

REAL LIFE:

- 1. Clear knowledge about reality as absolutely real.
- 2. Cognition of spiritual knowledge and spiritual wisdom.
- 3. Utilization of spirit knowledge and spiritual wisdom.
- 4. Cognition of the reality of the Creation and its laws.
- 5. Living according to the Creation law. Purification of Spirit and intellect. Cognition of the obligation and force of Spirit. Breakdown of blind acceptances in belief.
- 6. Guided and controlled utilization of spiritual forces.
- 7. Creation of first living creatures.

CREATIONAL LIFE:

- 1. Creating and controlling of living forms.
- 2. Construction of mechanical-organic living things.
- 3. Spiritual development of forces for control of material and organic forms of life.
- 4. Will-conditioned mastery of life in all its forms and sorts.

- 5. Position of recognitions. Reminiscences of earlier lifetimes, etc.
- 6. Kings of Wisdom—IHWH before their higher power knowledge.
- 7. Cognition of Spiritual Peace, of universal love and creational harmony.

SPIRITUAL LIFE:

- 1. Acknowledgement and realization of Spiritual Peace, universal love and creational harmony.
- 2. Living according to pure Spiritual knowledge.
- 3. Spiritual creating and creations.
- 4. Dis-embodiment of Spirit from organic matter.
- 5. First pure Spiritual existence.
- 6. Final Spiritual existence.
- 7. Passing-over into the Creation consciousness.

CREATION LIFE:

- 1. Twilight sleeping during seven periods of rest.
- 2. Awakening and beginning of creating in the Creation as CREATION, during seven periods.
- 3. Creating of living forms.
- 4. Creating of new Spirit in improvement of the CREATION.
- 5. Creating of great Spirit in the Creation.
- 6. Creating of thought projection of Great Spirit WITHIN the Creation.
- 7. Last reach of highest improvement during the 7th period.

The twilight sleep of the CREATION lasts seven periods/great-times. One period/great-time lasts about 311,040,000,000,000 years in your counting (give or take a couple of years). In the twilight state of the CREATION all life and the whole universe seems to totally cease to exist. Just after its awakening it begins to create all things anew. During the twilight sleep, neither time nor space exist. There is only the “nothing”, as all lies sleeping inside the infinite bosom of the CREATION and null-time (voidance). While no creating thought exists there is no force, no time, and no space. There is only duration in a nameless nothing—at rest—awaiting renewal in manifestation.

I sincerely hope that some of you, as you look again at this record of progression, see that YOU HAVE GROWN more than you thought—just since our first “meeting”. May the Force be with you. Be ever able at any moment to sacrifice what you are for that which you can become—and so too shall it come to pass.
Salu,
Hatonn

Storms, Preparations & Geomagnets

All Is Connected To All In Nature

3/14/93 SOLTEC

Good morning. I am Ceres Anthonious Soltec, present in the eternal Light of Holy God. Our mission is that of service unto Holy God, to assist in the transition of planet Earth-Shan.

It grows more interesting day to day, does it not? You who live in the eastern portion of your United States have just experienced the worst winter storm in your remembering. What you experienced was a winter hurricane and carried with it record low barometric pressure readings—28.54" in some instances. This storm has left many areas with no electrical power, frozen or burst water pipes and many without heat in their homes. Many of you were isolated, even though you live in large metropolises. Florida was struck by tornadoes and many homes were totally destroyed. Even your nation's capital was left virtually paralyzed by this sudden, strong storm of previously unknown proportions.

How many regular LIBERATOR readers in this area were caught off guard and without your emergency supplies? This is an excellent lesson in point, as we have over and over explained to you ones that there would come about many occasions when you would wish that you had heeded the warnings and prepared selves for these eventualities. It is not a game of, "I told you so." Rather, it is a subject which apparently still needs to be brought to the forefront. Since your world is not the same place as it was ten or even five years past, you can no longer depend on that which sufficed in the past. This storm should have made this quite apparent to those who were left unprepared. Have you ones not been told that this year was going to be one which you would not soon forget? Have you not been forewarned that it was going to be a rough ride? Did you think, perhaps, that it meant only in the political and money end of things? When you are stranded, as has just occurred, you can have all the money in the world and it would have done you not one ounce of good, for you could get no where to spend it. Please, consider these things for it is long from being finished and over.

At this point in your time, there are a very many things taking place on very many levels. You cannot afford the luxury of focusing only on political events, or only on Earth Changes events, for you are being assaulted by the Adversary on all sides and all things are, therefore, linked together. You must be prepared on all levels to safeguard, as much as is possible, against being caught unaware and with your proverbial pants down. Have not your own prophecies warned you to be alert to strange things in both the heavens and the Earth in these times, or do you perhaps not yet believe that you have entered into that time foretold as the tribulation? Do you still believe that everything will turn around and go back to the way it used to be in the "Good Old Days"? Do you believe the drivel that you see on your news casts and read in your controlled newspapers, or do you use your own reasoning powers to determine that things are not as they are presented for your viewing? Do you still take the LIBERATOR weekly and try to prove what is written therein by that which you see on your televisions? Has it not yet become a reality for you that you have been set up by the Elite Controllers on your place? Have you, as they had hoped, followed along behind them as sheeple, believing everything you are told? WAKE UP, PLANET EARTH! TAKE OFF THE BLINDERS FROM YOUR EYES AND REASON FOR SELVES. YOU ONES HAVE BEEN SOLD DOWN THE RIVER INTO SLAVERY AND BONDAGE AND YOU ARE IN THE PROCESS OF FOLLOWING THE SLAVE MASTERS WILLINGLY AND BLINDLY UNTO YOUR OWN DESTRUCTION. AND IF YOU ARE WAITING FOR GOD TO DO IT ALL FOR YOU, YOU ARE IN FOR A VERY RUDE AWAKENING FOR GOD IS NOT GOING TO DO IT—YOU ARE GOING TO DO IT OR IT IS NOT GOING TO GET DONE!

God has sent His messengers with the Truth to inform and awaken those who will but hear. The Truth that we bring unto your place will, if utilized, bring about the changes that will liberate your planet from its slave masters. But you must pick up the load and get it done for selves, for it is, after all, your planet and your destiny, not ours. We teach you and we assist you, but we will not do it for you.

We are in receipt of a communiqué regarding the causes of earthquakes. If I am in understanding of this one's conclusions, he believes that earthquakes are caused by magnetic changes and fluctuations rather than by the faults and fractures. This may be an over-simplification of his conclusions, but I believe it shall suffice for this discussion. There are many dangers associated with targeting only one aspect of a greater picture as being the only cause of anything. Religions on your planet got started in the same manner—by picking one piece of The Truth and claiming it was the only Truth, while ignoring and rejecting all other truths. It is a dangerous position to believe that you possess the entire truth about a thing, as you are now in the position of limiting God of Creation, and as you should by now know, this is an impossibility. So by limiting your search for The Truth, you may end up missing the most important point of all. This is dangerous because, while one is focusing only on one truth, all the other truths are taking place about you, yet you deny that they play any part in your belief system and these other truths end up sneaking up from behind and destroying you.

While this person makes some excellent points, he also omits other factors from the equation. We have, in the past, attempted to re-educate you ones to look at all possibilities, regardless of their source, for truth comes from many sources, in many packages. This is why I have told you that you cannot separate out just one thing from the others, because they are all interconnected and interrelated, because all that exists is but a part of the overall whole. The Native Americans have a phrase, "Mitakuye Oyasin"—All My Relations. It is a simple phrase that sums it up quite nicely. Everything is related—there are no exceptions.

Though magnetics play a part in the overall picture of earthquakes, they are not, by a long shot, the only aspect that must be taken into consideration. All things in the Universe abide by the law of cause and effect, but the causes and effects are multi-layered, and must be viewed in this way before any understanding can be achieved. The Universe is a multi-dimensional thing—not mono-dimensional. In other words, there are, at all times, an infinite number of causes and effects all playing out simultaneously on multiple levels of consciousness. For you to declare that only one thing is responsible for earthquakes is to assume that the Earth is but a flat, one-dimensional object, which it is not. This is the reason that you are not able to predict earthquakes or volcanoes or weather with any degree of accuracy. You have falsely concluded that only weather occurrences affect the weather and only faults, volcanism or magnetism affect seismic events.

Just a small listing of energy forces that affect your planet seismically would include: the rotation of the core within the Earth, causing plate movement and volcanic activities; gravitational forces of nearby objects in space; torsional effects on the Earth's core caused by magnetic interaction with extraterrestrial bodies; planetary consciousness; crustal weakening caused by varying barometric pressures, temperatures and moisture content; prana scalar beam energy; ground evacuation caused by underground detonations; depletion of ground water supplies; impact of extra-terrestrial objects on the Earth; planetary and other heavenly body alignments; centrifugal forces produced by the wobble in axial rotation of the Earth; solar magnetic storms, solar flares and solar wind influences; weight and balance stresses caused by concentration of population centers; sound vibrations caused by population in already weakened areas—and the list could go on and on.

All these things have a definite effect upon your planet, seismically speaking. It might take only one of these forces in the right place at the right time, or it may take a combination of many of these forces to have an effect seismically. Not only is it not fair to say that only one of these factors is the only cause, but it is also foolish to make such a statement.

Let us examine, briefly, the magnetic field of the Earth. Invisible lines of magnetic force surround the earth and deflect magnetized objects, like compass needles, that are free to move. These lines of magnetic force emanate from the South Pole, encircle the planet and reenter the Earth at the North Pole. The field has what you call north and south magnetic poles, one which is near the geographic North Pole and one near the geographic South Pole. These magnetic poles are approximately 11.5 degrees offset from the geographic poles. Because the Earth has two poles, the magnetic field of the planet is called dipolar. The strength of the magnetic field is greatest at the magnetic poles, where magnetic lines of force appear (if they were visible) to leave and enter the Earth vertically.

Throughout its history, the Earth has experienced magnetic reversals, in which the polarity of its magnetic field has reversed. As I stated above, the magnetic lines of force exit from the Earth at one pole and reenter the Earth at the opposite pole. At different times during the past, the poles have reversed and instead of the magnetic forces leaving at the south pole and entering at the North Pole, the magnetic forces have left at the North Pole and reentered at the South Pole. What was the cause?

In order to understand this, you must have a basic understanding of the effects of magnetism. With any magnet, you have a north pole and a south pole—positive and negative, male and female, if you will. You have all heard the old saying that opposites attract, I am sure. This is exactly what happens with magnets. If you were to take two magnets, and lay them end to end, with OPPOSITE poles together, they would pull with equal force towards one another. If, however, you laid these same two magnets end to end with LIKE poles together, they would repel one another and attempt to turn and align themselves with the opposite poles.

Now let us look at this on a larger scale. The Earth is a magnet with a south pole and a north pole. Another magnetic object in space approaches the Earth within a distance that the magnetic fields of the two objects begin to feel the influence of each other. If, as these two objects approach one another, like poles facing one another, they will have the natural tendency to repel one another and align their opposite poles. When this occurs, it is highly likely that the core of the Earth would try to turn itself in an attempt to balance itself with the approaching object, thus causing the pole reversals that are apparent. (Remember that all things in the Universe will attempt the path of balance of its male and female counterparts.) So what keeps these objects from colliding? You must now take into consideration the rotation of planetary objects around the central planetary system object, in this case, your sun. This is where gravitational influences come into the picture. The sun is a much larger object than the planets which revolve around it; therefore, the sun exerts a greater amount of gravitational influence. So, should you have a planetary alignment, and the magnetic forces are affected, you have to also consider the gravitational influences being exerted by the sun, which would have a tendency to offset the magnetic forces, because the gravitational forces are greater than the magnetic forces, in this case. However, should an object pass close enough to the Earth to cause the magnetic core to move within the Earth, yet far enough away that gravity would not allow the object to collide with the planet, you would have the effect of the poles either reversing completely, or tilting several degrees one direction or the other, depending upon the strengths of the two influences, magnetic and gravitational, as one will always attempt to counter-balance the other.

These forces, then, would have a direct effect upon the planet and would place stress upon the plates and the already existing faults and fractures and would produce large earthquakes and volcanic activity as the plates would move over hot spots beneath the surface and allow magma to flow up through the cracks and fractures. New cracks and fractures would be produced as the plates moved and twisted due to the forces produced by the movement of the core within the planet. It would have the effect also of changing the ocean currents, which would change the jet streams, as well as volcanic ash in the atmosphere, which in turn would change the planetary weather cycles. So, in this case, the cause would be the magnetic and gravitational influences of other spacial bodies, and the effect would be the seismic reaction of the plates, fault lines, etc.

The letter states that, "geological events and formations are STRICTLY after-the-fact.....no exceptions!!!" Geologic events and formations are results or effects of many other influences and factors; however, the factors involved are more than just the magnetic field. This person is not totally out of touch, he merely needs to broaden his scope and look at ALL possibilities and causes. He believes that major earthquake activity will begin as early as the 2nd or 3rd week of March, 1993, with the high points of mega-seismic events to follow near mid-April and into May 1993. He also believes that California is due for a lot of trembling throughout the entire year of 1993, and also, following the activity in California, he sees seismic activity in the Midwest along the New Madrid and Wabash Valley areas. He feels that most people in the Midwest will be caught off-guard and that these events will most likely be occurring in the six to nine month period following the advent of the major quakes in California. The possibility of this occurring definitely exists today and, as time proceeds forward, the probability of same increases.

He is absolutely correct in that he foresees massive campaigns of deception waged by the "experts", enjoined by the financial establishment to mislead the citizens about the prospects for earthquake hazards to follow in the wake of these upcoming events, as the Elite Controllers will use any avenue available to them to exert even greater control over You-The-People and are not above using a catastrophic event to their advantage, regardless of what effect it may have upon the people for, in their opinion, you are an expendable commodity. Also, each community of scientists will have their own theories about why it took place, each arguing with the other that they are the only ones with the truth when, if it were examined, each one possesses a part of the truth and, if linked with the other pieces of the puzzle, they would have greater overall view of the picture. This is where the ego of each one needs to be put on hold long enough to examine and give consideration to ideas and proposals of the other—in other words, cooperation—working together toward a common goal, not in opposition to one another. So, I caution you, son, not to fall into this trap. You have some excellent points and thoughts on the subject, but do not be so quick to disavow the validity of another's idea, for joined with your ideas and studies, you may open up an entire new avenue for science on your planet.

This person is right on target regarding the events and time frame for same. The Earth is in a period of great transformation and great changes, but I urge him to not throw the baby out with the bath water and consider all things as factoring into the equation. His statement that the planet is in a period of striving to achieve balance is true; however, this state of equilibrium is taking place on many levels, both those seen and those unseen, and all must be taken into consideration if one hopes to achieve the full scope of the overall picture.

This is, I realize, an over-simplification of the case in point, but I believe that you are able to grasp the image of the lesson. Of course, it goes without saying that many other factors would enter into the equation, but without writing an entire book or thesis on the subject, this gives a general overview of the subject. As you progress toward transition, more will become apparent and you will be able to understand the greater forces that affect your planet. You approach the Light and in the Light is knowledge. An entire new arena will be opened and your understanding will abound.

At this time, I only am attempting to drive home to you ones to see that more than one factor must be taken into consideration, for all things have a direct effect to some degree upon all other things. It is the way the entire Universe operates, because all things come from but One Source; therefore, all things are related and exist in a symbiotic relationship—Mitakuye Oyasin. In order that you begin to understand the Universe in which you live, you must expand your scope of vision and thought and consider all things—even those things which you cannot see. It is time to remove the blinders and look what lies not only ahead, but that which is to the side and behind, for yours is a multi-dimensional existence and it is time that you begin thinking in these terms.

Let us bring this to a close for now. We have given a lot of information in a short space, and it will need to be digested slowly for understanding. Keep the shields about you and keep your eye on the Divine Source of all things. For in this Source is the answers to all things, both of the seen and of the unseen. I leave you with the blessings of Almighty God.

Soltec to clear. Salu.

Nevada Corporations

TAX-ADVANTAGED SAVINGS PLANS

As we continue to learn and develop strategies with Nevada Corporations, we will effort to keep each of the readers of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR (a Nevada Corporation) informed about uses, benefits, and strategies. Daily we are finding new ways to deal with situations that arise in the personal and business lives of our clients. As subscribers to THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR you do see, or will see, that Commander Hatonn is informing and guiding us down a purposeful path. That path may not always appear clear in the moment, but we continue to receive the wisdom of his guidance. This guidance has pushed us to strive to develop new techniques with Nevada Corporations, and we are continually amazed at the benefits that have come out of their use. The following is just another one of these benefits.

Corporations can act as fantastic tax-saving devices for the individual who has leftover income at the end of the month (as opposed to leftover month at the end of their income). If you are a person who has flexibility over how you receive your income, you may find this quite exciting. With most of our clients we try to teach the individual to expense as much of a corporation's income out as possible. This is handled through legitimate business expenses. By eliminating as much income as possible from a corporation, you literally eliminate any Corporate Income Tax (and also the corporation's exposure). If, however, one of the only ways that you have of eliminating your corporate profits is to draw out those profits as personal income, then you may consider leaving the profits in the corporation.

In working out corporate strategies one needs to look at Corporate and Individual Tax Rates. On corporate profits up to $50,000, a corporation pays only 15% of that in tax — unlike personal income tax rates where, on that same $50,000, you would be paying 28% in tax. So, from these rates, it should become clear that if an individual can operate under a corporate shelter and only draw out of that corporation enough income to get by with, you would see a 54% savings on taxable dollars which are left in the corporation.

Now, the next question would be, "How can I receive the benefits of those funds now held by my corporation?" Well, these unused profits can go towards investments, future business uses, and many other alternatives that would indirectly and directly benefit the corporation's owners. Always remember, though, that once these retained earnings (retained profits) are removed from the corporation as personal income, they would get taxed at your current personal tax rates. But, if the corporation is controlled by you, there are many alternatives to taking these funds out to yourself as personal income.

One option with the low-taxed retained earnings in the corporation would be to give yourself an interest free loan. A Nevada corporation can make a loan to one of its corporate officers with no interest attached, and the officer would not have to consider these funds as income. This way you can personally have the use of corporate funds without having to pay any personal income tax on those funds.

Let's consider another alternative to using these low-taxed retained earnings or corporate profits for your personal gain without personal tax. Let's say that, over a couple of years, corporate profits, which up to $50,000 are only taxed at 15%, have built up and now your corporation has a cash savings of $150,000. You currently live in a house which has a current basis of about $150,000. As an officer of your corporation you decide to purchase your house for your corporation. As the owner of the property, the corporation would pay you $150,000. You still control your property but you have just successfully moved $150,000 into your pocket—tax free. This example does have other implications, but for purposes of this column, we will keep things as simple as possible.

The proper way to balance this strategy is to receive income from your corporation of an amount up to $21,450, which is currently taxed at 15%, and leave the rest of your corporate income in your corporation in the form of corporate profits which are taxed at 15% up to $50,000. You would now have essentially made $71,450 and only paid 15% on the entire amount. (This is not taking into consideration employee or self-employment taxes.)

So, as you can see, a Nevada Corporation can be a great savings account in more ways than one. If you are wondering if these and other strategies for using a Nevada Corporation can be of benefit to you, give us a call at Corporate Advisors and we will be glad to talk with you.

New "Bird Tribe" Addition And Latest Ekker Property Update

BIG MAC!

ANOTHER ANNOUNCEMENT: Doris and E.J. are also proud parents—of a "not so pretty—but wonderful" little (big) person called MacBilly. He is a still-naked, all head-and-kutz, infant Macaw with toothpicks instead of feathers—but then, all of the tribal birds must grow their flight feathers in a most tedious manner. He is a follow-on from a beautiful Rose-Gala Cockatoo with fickle habits, from the same place. From the same aviary came two magnificently rainbow-colored Rozelles of such brilliance one is astounded that God can do such magnificent art-work. And yet, as loved as are any and all of the little creatures that fly—is the little sparrow who fell from the nest and owns the house with the Parakeet called Turkey who does the daily news broadcast in any ear that will sit and listen to the tales—in English yet!

MacBilly is named for a beloved friend who has a Pet store/aviary in Bakersfield and two years ago was sentenced to DEATH by terminal cancer, by physicians. He flourishes today, on Gaianandria and the other gifts God has allowed us to share. We may well have to take up a collection to continue to feed this baby who will reach the size of an eagle—but will be iridescent blue and gold of the regal quetzal of the rainbow. Rejoice in each "gift" for that which you share shall flow back in riches beyond the counting—for gold has price—a true gift has NONE!

I share this with you readers for unto many it will mean nothing—but to you who have sat with us while the property and dwelling have swung in the balance—we are greatly thankful for your prayers and love during this time of tightrope walking. The biggest problem of a move was not these little ones we speak of above—but the hundreds of little flight creatures in the outside aviary and the thousands of "panhandlers" who reside at this place in the nature of quail, doves, pigeon-doves and infinite numbers of tiny friends of every variety. A house is but a box—these living creatures are the treasure and that which brings the concern for care and feeding if their home is taken away for they have few other places to go for sanctuary and "panhandling" and, of course, the little tropical "feathered children" would not survive.

It is with breath-holding last-gasp hope that it appears a "Church", homebased in Arizona, has made final arrangements, through ones of YOU, to own the property. The RTC and allied criminals have done every last-ditch effort to disallow the transaction from happening—to cause the charges to be dropped against ALL parties involved in the fraud to date. All requirements have managed to be met, however, and it is interesting to see what new and different damages the enemy can do from hour to hour. But, it looks like the property will transfer to the Church, at which time there will be allowance for remaining in and on the property until other arrangements can be made for whatever comes next. This means the tents are still up and the moving dollies by the doors—but hope looms on the horizon without the need to cover the criminals in their actions. The property is lost to the Ekkers but the final chapter has not yet been written!

Will the "Justice" system be cleansed and returned to Constitution by this case? NO! It will hardly be impacted AT ALL—but look at the myriad of lessons you have experienced from this ONE focus and how much has been gained in knowledge through these seemingly endless encounters. YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE TO WORK WITHIN THE STRUCTURED SYSTEM—AS IT EXISTS—IF YOU ARE TO SURVIVE AND EVER AGAIN HOPE TO FIND FREEDOM ON THE PLANET EARTH. Examples and working lessons in experience ARE THE ONLY TEACHERS OF WORTHY NOTE. Through all these recent upheavals and seemingly painful and disastrous impacts—YOU HAVE LEARNED INFINITELY. You have learned that by doing that which we have shared with you—will see you through in good stead, stability and nicely "alive".

There is no possible way to impress upon you enough—you must live and work within the system as it now IS—or you will not be allowed to survive and, at the least, func-

Beautiful New Arrival To The Ground Crew

NEW ARRIVAL BULLETIN

Our latest Gaia product is the first of our wondrous PROOFS OF GOD'S PERFECTION—DIANE AND JACK WELCOMED A PERFECT, BEAUTIFUL NEW CREATION, JACQUELINE—but we shall call her Jackie for she shall be a "successor" and, if rightfully guided, shall be one who will "seize the moment" and realize the "Achilles' heel" in the armor of the adversary". We shall recognize her other label as Dinelle which honors her mother and is a reflection of the "moon" to balance Andy's representation of the "sun". NO—Jack and Diane do not realize this information—they just "thought" they named their baby girl. God works in mysterious ways His wishes to be known! We experienced a home birth with so many loving ones having this babe that there was hardly room for the Mother and babe but all witnessed perfection in God's perfect creation, timing and production. For you beloved "astrologers", she was born at 6:26 A.M., Saturday, March 13th.

We now look forward to our other Gaia productions from Jenny and Kathy—in short order! Those who follow the REAL path of God shall flourish for all shall be performed within the system as laid forth.

Please, out there, KNOW that we realize there are these miracles arriving every day and that there are the energies added unto the list each moment—perhaps we shall need a "Cradle Roll" so as to honor each blessed child as they come forth and as parents and grandparents would wish to share—this is the OBVIOUS promise of God in its fullest form. The reason we announce these little arrivals is that hundreds of you constantly ask and attend these ones as they share with you in the very physical structuring of your pathway and help you build the very foundations of actions and intake which shall see you through. (Didn't think of the jobs in THAT WAY did you??? "Showers of the way, perhaps?") Ah, it is blessed to see the young leaders assume their roles and not even see it cast upon them.

This is the way it must be, in peace and sharing, come the elders to bear the banner and set the stage—then the youth can come and fill their roles and prepare for those who shall bring you home! Is it not a very good plan? Indeed!

tion. You do not need to sell the "soul" (for that is between you and God under ALL circumstances) to utilize that which is made into the law of the land. Violent revolution and battled insubordination will but get many millions slain. Let us use WISDOM IN ALL THINGS AND WALK GENTLY AGAINST THE BIG GUNS FOR YOU SHALL HOLD THE "BIGGEST STICKS" IN THE UNIVERSE AT THE PENNING OF THE "FINAL" CHAPTER!

We can, and will, continue to write on these things, telling you what has gone wrong and what continue to be signs and clues of that which IS wrong all about you. However, our thrust shall never be violence in any way—nor inciting to any civil disobedience. YOU let it go wrong within the system and, now, you must bring it again into "right" within the system.

The U.S., for instance, has been under martial law since 1933—IT DID NOT "JUST" happen. Then in the early 1970s you placed the final curtain over freedom under your Constitutional Laws. You are laughed out of the courtroom if you even mention "constitutional rights" in a modern court hall of "in"justice. Your Constitution, Justice System, Medical System and Religious foundations have been raped, ravaged, pillaged and plundered. Even within your own households and places of partnerships you are constantly set-up and the ways of the worldly greed-mongers are about their work. Ones with good intent fall to the hordes of those who would tempt and pull you away from the path of goodness into the fringes of that which is totally of physical manifestation.

The 800-Year Oriental Cycle And Connection To Khazars

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Every day information pours in and, oh, would it be wonderful to share every confirmation, every realization with you readers—perhaps some day!

Nora has been my backbone backup since joining me in our work and I cannot express wholly enough my appreciation of her desire to be accurate to the last detail. She, for instance, finds—from information flowing from an observant reader—that she offered something she thought came from ones "Grimm" only to find it actually came from Hans Andersen. Just a word of comment nature is quite sufficient, Nora—for ours is NEVER the intent to do work FOR ones, but rather, to cause ones to go seek and confirm. THIS is the manner in which Truth shall be able to flow so that the "story" of progression can eventually become accurate amid all the lies and fabrications. However, I shall NEVER leave Nora to face the critics alone as a singled out scribe and record-keeper/researcher. There is no way to prevent errors in perception or presentation from coming through from time to time. This is the very reason we must continue to cover things of current nature according to "truth" so that someday this story, too, can be reconstructed as to "how it really was in those days of the Bird Tribes upon the land"—or better yet—the day of the One World Inquisition!

As ones share with us, we will take every possible opportunity to share with you, the readers. We realize we cannot please all of you people all of the time, or even some of you readers SOME of the time—but we shall always effort to bring you as much as we can from several revealing studies and presentations.

The following comes directly from one Tim Burns. I thank Tim most heartily and shall not give any location for each who nears the gate of Truth is a target for silencing. We shall, as in all instances—reprint as is:

This letter is directed to several entities (people) here at this location, directly, but we realize it is for all of we who struggle in this journey.

QUOTING:

February 26, 1993

I am a late comer to your great publication, the PHOENIX LIBERATOR and the JOURNALS. I have listened to Doris on the radio and realized her greatness immediately. [H: She does take exception to this commendation for she only translates for me and her perception would never be one of "greatness" in self. I honor her for this understanding and yet, I also thank Tim for his gracious and loving support of a task all but impossible to perform.] I am saddened by the Ekkers' struggles against this country's unnatural legal system and the personal hardships they are going through daily. In the court system they are contenders on a Zionist/Masonic playing field and will be judged by Zionist/Masonic rules and referees. The Masonic legal system will now use every pretense to bring action against the "Institute" and bind it up. Their tentacles will try to envelop everything and I fear the PHOENIX LIBERATOR is also their target. I have listened to Dr. Coleman speak and I also spoke briefly with him. If his real name is Joseph Pavlonski, then I am 90% sure that he is a 'real Teutonic' Pole, judging from his eyes and facial structures. I have never met or seen this George Green and therefore cannot estimate his cultural heritage except to caution you that many "Jews" use the name Green (shortened from Greenberg). If he is not Jewish then his recent actions against you are based on one of two motives. He is trying to either gain economically for himself or, like a Judas, ingratiate himself with our Zionist society for future political survival or both. If he is Jewish, then a trap has been set, you are now in its jaws, and he has now stepped forward to slay and annihilate you with the Zionist beast, the anti-Christ system. You are one of its great antagonists and adversaries. You are the dragon slayers. You are the real patriots. [H: Thank you for very acute observation—but remember, THE TIME OF THE LORD IS AT HAND—AND THIS MEANS THAT GOD STOPS "LOSING THEM ALL"!]

You people are a great credit to your race and culture, representing the cause of all white Gentiles and, ultimately, the great Chinese/Mongolian cultures as well as the Arab/Persian cultures. The Negroid race seems to be tolerated for now by the Zionist/Jewish interests and hence their meteoric rise in the Zionist controlled U.S. television industry in the last 10 years, and also the political promotion of this minority to the exclusion of all others such as the Native American/Mexican (a branch of the Chinese/Mongolians) and the Japanese and Chinese. This is because the Negroes are the only racial branch who have never historically fought against the Zionist Jews, the bulk of the race having been relatively secluded in central and south Africa in a tribal state most of the time. Those few who saw through the Zionist veil were either assassinated or relegated to obscurity like Malcolm X or Farrakhan.

The history of the Teuton/Saxon and Persian/Arab struggles against the Zionist Jews are well documented. But little is known about the struggle between the Chinese/Mongolian race and the Roman Jews and later the Khazar Jews. It is why the Zicnists do not promote the Chinese/Mongolian races, both Old and New World, in America today.

I would like to touch on this history briefly. It can be called the 800 year Oriental cycle and is due to strike now in the present time and culminate in W.W. III or Armageddon. If it does not materialize now as proposed by Rene Noorbergen in her colossal work titled, Nostradamus Predicts the End of the World (Pinnacle Books, Windsor Publishing Corp., 475 Park Avenue South, N.Y., NY 10016, Copyright 1981.), then our race and culture are surely doomed to such perpetual slavery and mongrelization that a whole new order of man may arise in the future resembling an insect species similar to the bees and ants wherein the elite Zionists will evolve into a specialized ruling class much like the Queen bee and her "drones" but we will evolve into a permanent slave/working class and, who knows, maybe the two classes will even lose the ability to interbreed by evolving into two separate sub-species. I say this because I do not believe the undeserving and weak should be entitled to miracles on their behalf since God supposedly helps those who help themselves. I believe that either this scenario will evolve or the only other one, whereby, in spite of our weakness, timidity, and stupidity, only through a hellish blood bath due to the fast approaching 800 year oriental cycle which will culminate in Armageddon and which will so destroy society that society will break back down into the Tribal states of ancient times because the present world economic and political systems will collapse and be extirpated completely. Hence, the Zionists will lose control. So pray for the Chinese. There is no 'easy' way out. Why would Christ come down to save a degenerate and weak White race who gave up their freedom and birthright out of laziness and ignorance? If He comes down, it will be with anger and a hammer, the hammer of God, the Chinese/Mongolian hordes, as he has unleashed against the corrupt decadent west every 800 years, to scourge and cleanse it. But now once again back to our history.

In 395 A.D. the Roman Empire was in a morally corrupt state of decay. The old Republic had collapsed 400 years earlier and the empire had been ruled by dictators ever since. Besides this, it had just split into two, east and west, Constantinople and Rome. Back in 70 A.D. the Romans had destroyed Jewish Palestine under the Emperor Vespasian. A large fraction of the Pharisee/Talmudic Jews emigrated north to places like Azerbaïdzhān, Armenia, and Georgia, then, over the Caucasus Mtns. into southern Russia, the Crimea, and the Ukrain. In about 550 A.D. many of these Jews began to merge with the dominant Khazar race whose territory extended between the Black and Caspian Seas and just north of the Caucasus and south of the Don and Volga. By 700 A.D. they had intermarried with and converted the whole Khazar nation to Talmudic Judaism and it became the State or national religion. At first the Jews controlled the Khazar king from behind the scenes but this was transformed later into a dual Monarchy whereby the real Khazar King became only a figurehead with no power and the second king, a Khazar Jew, held all the power. This nation's government followed almost no other foreign policy or pursuit except that of war, terror and blackmail and lived on the annual tributes paid to it by as many as 30 different races, tribes, and nations which lived around it. The Khazar Jews maintained a ferocious standing army and held all others in military subjugation. Any who refused to pay annual tribute in food, horses, supplies, or Gold, were punished by the army. But we will return to them later.

[H: Indeed, for you "old readers", yes, I do realize this is all "old hat"—BUT IT IS NOT EVEN "NEW HAT" TO THOSE WHO HAVE NOT EXPERIENCED ALL THE JOURNALS AND THE FIRST, ESPECIALLY, THAT BROUGHT DOWN THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE OF B'NAI B'RITH AGAINST US FULL BLAST. Indeed we HAVE covered ALL of this—several times—but there are not two of you who are avid students of ours who will remember it ALL, or even significant amounts in any event. We are not set-out to cause trouble—even with our presumed enemies—for it be most foolish to proclaim oneself an "enemy of God's army". We only have "adversarial" opponents—WHO KNOW NOT WHAT THEY ARE ABOUT! THE "WORKERS" IN THIS ADVERSARIAL ARMY WORK FROM TOTAL IGNORANCE OF TRUTH, WHAT THEY SERVE OR, EVEN, WHAT THEY ARE ABOUT! HAVE COMPASSION—NEVER "HATRED" FOR THEY ARE BLIND FROM THE LAMBING FOLD. I would most appreciate it if the volumes of JOURNALS containing most of this information be pointed out to the readers. (This would be JOURNAL #26, called COUNTERFEIT BLESSINGS — THE ANTI-CHRIST BY ANY NAME: KHAZARS and JOURNAL #28, called OPERATION SHANSTORM. However, some historical aspects of the "busy" and widespread Khazarian-Zionist web of control appear in just about every JOURNAL since they control everything of importance to the present world malaise. Our new catalog will be out soon.) We are working to get inventory back into ability to distribute so probably orders can be honored shortly—the resource will be structured separately, handled and housed in Nevada (Las Vegas) henceforth. This builds several layers of protection for both persons and material.]

Meanwhile, back in Jerusalem in 70 A.D., another large fraction of Pharisee/Talmudic Jews dispersed into the Roman Empire itself and through it a few went as far as France and Spain. The non Babylonian/Talmudic Jews at this time were those who followed Christ and they were the first Christians. But by 400 A.D., 330 years later, the economy and politics of Rome had become infested and dominated by the Carthagian Jews, Venetian Jews (the Black Nobility), and Palestinian Talmudic Jews. These wealthy and powerful Jewish cabals through their respective monopolies were choking off the very economic and political life of both Empires, Constantinople and Rome.

It was during this long period of decay and corruption that 'God' sent his hammer of scourge in the form of the yellow hordes down as the Huns. This Chinese/Mongolian nation under their leader, Attila, brought both the East and West Roman Empires to their knees and so weakened them as to make possible their further destruction by the Germans.

There exist only four descriptions of the Huns. Three are from Roman sources and one is from a Gaulish source. Jordanes stressed the small stature, swarthy complexion (dark), the heads were round and shapeless, the eyes small and deep set: "tiny eyes, perforations rather than lights". He said the nose was flat. Sidonius said, "Their sight is there in two hollows beneath the forehead; while the eyes are not visible, the light that enters the dome of the skull can hardly reach the receding eyeballs." The Huns were of the Chinese/Mongolian race.

Attila attacked the Eastern Roman Empire and defeated its armies and threatened to dismantle the walls of its capital, Constantinople. The Emperor agreed to pay a huge yearly tribute in gold to the Huns and did so for many years. Each time they failed or refused to pay, the Huns reconquered them and doubled the annual tribute. The Huns maintained their headquarters in Hungary, and towards the end of Attila's life, they made a push through Germany and over the Alps and attacked the Western Roman Empire. He defeated the Romans all the way to the Po River Valley but then decided to turn back and give up on the conquest of Rome because Rome and Italy were in the midst of a plague and famine and Attila wished to save his troops. He returned back with a new German wife and suddenly died in 453 A.D. The Huns soon after disappeared as mysteriously as they had appeared, out of nowhere. Two years later the Vandals plundered Rome and 21 years after that in 476 A.D. the German chief Odoacer finally deposed the last Roman Emperor Romulus.

800 years again passes and the Hammer of God strikes again. The year is approximately 1200 A.D. In the west we find Europe in the "Dark Ages", with all its kingdoms and the Pope fighting one another. If they weren't doing this then they were equipping the Crusades and fighting the Moslems. When the Moslems weren't fighting Europe then they were fighting the Khazar Jews to the north. These three civilizations fought each other for almost 1000 years, but none could prevail. Far to the east was the relatively unknown Empire of China. To China's north lay a desolate desert/mountain region harsher in climate than Nevada and over 5 times as large. If you could have driven a car across Mongolia in 1200 A.D., chances are good that you wouldn't have encountered a soul. However, with some luck, you may have seen a small tribe or two living in round yurt tents and tending their horses. The Chinese, by deceit and treachery, helped keep these Mongolian tribes divided and fighting among themselves for centuries. If someone had told you that this nomadic people would conquer the world in the next 20 to 40 years, you would probably have replied, what world? or, are you crazy? Yet this karma would be in the future of a 13 year-old boy whose father had just been killed and whose mother and brothers were left by the tribe to die along a desert river. Genghis Khan was the oldest son and had to hunt rats, snakes, and catch fish to feed his desolate family. This boy, whose life was constantly threatened by a new tribal chieftain, who never learned to read or write, and who never had any formal education, would become the greatest General, the greatest Conqueror, and one of the greatest law-givers in history.

STOP QUOTING FOR THIS SEGMENT.

Dharma, we need to close this segment lest it become too long and unwieldy. We shall, however, pick up immediately with this same topic, Genghis Khan.

COINCIDENCE?

Since there are no "coincidences", then we have to assume that what is happening in your "news" presentations is coming from interesting sectors of bearers. We had a most interesting (and interested) caller this morning, telling us that CNN is now making the "Iranian Connection" with the bombing in New York City. The words were: "It is amazing how the words used are almost parroting THE LIBERATOR." No, it is just that eventually the TRUTH has to be spoken in some manner to not call undue attention to the contradictions. If you keep attention placed properly you can get the whole thing almost immediately by what they tell you is "no connection". We are grateful to get the feedback, however, because I cannot give Dharma a chance to monitor the non-news very often.

Let us move back to our history lesson which was in progress:

TEMUJIN: IRON SMITH—GENGHIS KHAN

QUOTING, Tim Burns, letter of Feb. 26, 1993:

With only the ancient Mongolian God, the "Eternal Blue Sky", and his extraordinary innate ability and genius to guide him, this 13 year old boy and his future sons and grandsons would go on to assemble the largest Empire in human history. This empire would eventually include all of China, Mongolia, and Siberia, 90% of the Moslem/Persian Empire from northern India to Israel, and 1/2 of Europe including all of Russia, Moscow, the Khazar/Jew Empire, Poland, and Hungary. This Empire would continue on average for 150 years but in some parts of Russia and India for as long as 300 and 500 years.

His real name was Temujin, meaning "Iron Smith". He was born in about 1162 A.D. and in 1206 when he was 44 he united all of the Mongolian Tribes and took the title of Genghis Khan. He then set out to conquer his arch enemy China. He conquered Peking in 1215. In 1219 Genghis dispatched a letter to the Moslem King who controlled a stupendous empire. This King's army numbered over 2,000,000 men, ten times the size of the Mongolian army which usually averaged about 200,000. This King had over 400 wives and untold riches and wealth. Genghis' letter stated that he himself was now the King of the East and that the Moslem leader was the King of the West and that the two should be friends and commence trade. The King agreed and Genghis sent a large caravan of wagons along with many diplomats, guards, and relatives to visit the Islamic King, a trip of several months. This caravan had just entered the King's eastern frontiers when he ordered everyone killed and everything confiscated. Genghis then sent an envoy to protest. The Moslem king beheaded the leader and burned the beards off of the remaining envoys and sent them back to Mongolia. This mistake would not only cost the King his life, but would lead to the destruction of two empires, 1/2 of Europe, and countless millions of lives lost, nay, whole civilizations would cease to exist without any trace, their cities, capitals, and walls completely dismantled, and major rivers diverted to wash their remains into oblivion. Whole deserts would be returned to their natural state.

Genghis prepared his army and in 1221 defeated the Moslem King and took most of his empire from Northern India to Iran. His grandson, Hulagu, would later destroy Baghdad and conquer Iraq, Syria and Jordan.

What happened next is still considered the greatest feat of cavalry in human annals. Genghis sent his favorite General, Subotai, with only 20,000 troops north over the Caucasus Mountains in order to circle around the Caspian Sea and meet him on the eastern side. In the Caucasus the Mongols met and desperately struggled with the Georgian Army but out-manuevered and defeated them. As he exited the northern slopes and entered Khazaria he met and engaged 3 armies from the old Khazar suzerainty or alliance, the armies of the Alans, Circassians, and Kipchaks. The Mongolian band was vastly outnumbered but they defeated all before them. This defeat accelerated the migrations of Khazar Jew populations deeper into Russia via the Ukraine and thence into Hungary and Poland. The Russians in the west became alarmed and assembled warriors gathered from Kiev and the far dukedoms, eighty-two thousand of them. The battle lasted for two days and the Mongolians, outnumbered 5 to 1, slaughtered the entire Russian army save only a few survivors. After this, perhaps for amusement, this small band of Mongols turned south and defeated the Crimea and stormed the Genoese trade citadel. Their next idea was to cross the Dnieper River to attack Poland and maybe take on all of Europe. Just then Genghis ordered them back, they had been gone two years, it was now 1223. On their return they paused to engage and defeat the powerful Bulgar (the future Bulgarians) army, another Khazar Jew subordinate ally, on the Volga River. This small Mongolian band, then, had defeated a half dozen armies totaling well over 300,000 troops. They rode home in fine form, loaded with glory, riches, and booty.

Genghis's old General, Subotai, would return to Russia about 15 years later, or 11 years after Genghis Khan's death in 1227, at the head of a full fledged Mongolian army, which would be called the 'Golden Horde', to conquer all of Russia, Hungary, and Poland. This Golden Horde would establish its headquarters in the heartland of the extinct Khazar Jew empire near the Volga River, and these operations would cause the last major migrations of Khazar Jews into Poland, Hungary, and thence into Germany. Not only was the Khazar Jew Empire completely obliterated by the Mongols, but its history was almost completely lost. The Mongolian Empire, however, would continue on average for another 150 years, with parts of it lasting 300 and 500 years in Russia and India, as I have already mentioned.

In 1241, the Golden Horde (the European section of the Mongolian Empire) was near the frontiers of Germany building an army reaching approximately 150,000 troops with the objective of conquering Western Europe all the way to the Atlantic Ocean. It is estimated that it would have taken little more than a year. But the Supreme Khan, Ogotai, Genghis' third son, died in Mongolia, and the Golden Horde's army was called back to its headquarters near the Volga, while its leader, Batu, Genghis' grandson, would vie with his cousins, Kubilai (China), and Hugu (Persia/Arabia), to become the Supreme Khan back in Mongolia. They began doing what Genghis had warned them against, fighting with each other. Thus, Western Europe was saved by the death of one man. If this had not happened, then perhaps the Mongolians could have changed history by subjugating Spain and England and thereby delaying the catastrophic rape, destruction, and pollution of three pristine continents, the Americas and Africa, and the domination of the world by the Zionist British Crown. [H: Emphasis mine!]

Now, 800 more years is about to pass since then as we reach the year 2000 A.D., but this time the 800 year cycle is not so well hidden as it was the last two times. The West is once again corrupt, decadent, and infested and controlled by Zionist/Khazars (calling themselves Jews). Only China is independent and equal to this combined Zionist threat from America and Europe.

The Zionist controlled British Crown dominated India and China for over 100 years and instituted the opium trade. France, Britain's 10% junior partner, received Cambodia, Vietnam and Laos, about 10% of the Asian land mass in the bargain. Ho Chi Minh was a Vietnamese statesman who eventually kicked the Zionist French and British out of Vietnam. Now that the Soviet Union has crumbled, Vietnam is rid of them also. Mao Tse-Tung was a great Chinese statesman who eventually kicked the Zionist British Crown out of China in 1949. There were six Chinese revolutions against the British domination of China. One was led by Chiang Kai-Shek. He was almost successful, so the British called on their 1/2 Chinese-1/2 Zionist banker, the Sung family, who were the Bank of England's leg into China, and Sung negotiated with Chiang to give him his beautiful sister for a second wife, untold millions of dollars, and the Presidency of China, if Chiang would sell out the Revolution. Chiang agreed to the terms and joined the British Crown and sold out his people. The U.S. and British ever after supported Chiang, their coolie, in his struggle against Mao. Mao was untouchable. Many times during the revolution he lived in caves and slept on the ground; even later, as China's leader in Peking, he still slept on the hard wood floors, finding soft beds undesirable. He couldn't be bought and his primary wish was to unite and free his people from foreign domination, much like Genghis Khan of earlier times. In the 1950s, despite joint ventures and promises, Russia ultimately refused to give the atomic secrets to a non-Jew nation, so China developed her own Atomic bomb thanks to the timely defection of an American Chinese scientist to China.

Kissinger and Associates announced a few years back that they were entering China. This was an attempt by the Zionists, the Bank of England, and the U.S. Federal Reserve to infiltrate and sabotage China. Recently, Kissinger and Associates announced that they had given up on their venture and pulled out of China. The Chinese had kicked the Zionists out; they don't want them. Even now China is helping Iraq and Iran and buying weapons, scientists, and technology from the former Soviet Union. China may run out of oil in the next 20 years and she will need food when the next famine develops. The food is in Southeast Asia, and the oil is in Arabia. The Zionists and the Chinese are destined to collide. In the book of Revelation 9:14-16, it speaks of a great army numbering 200,000,000 bound in the Euphrates (Iraq). How could such a host ever come about in that area, even in combination with all the major nations, if China were not somehow heavily involved? It has been mentioned that the George Bush family has huge private investments in China. If so, this makes Bush beholden to China, not the other way around. Any Bush family losses would be China's gain. That is why Bush always pandered to China on trade, on the Tiananmen Square incident and every other issue affecting China, because the Chinese had Bush where they wanted him. A conflict of interest? Could a U.S. President be subject to blackmail for fear of China's good or bad will? How about the family's holdings and connections in the Middle East? The super rich who control the press and thereby the U.S. Government belong to an exclusive gentlemen's club and such issues are never raised since most of the members also have bloodied hands. The more U.S. investments go into China, the more instant U.S. lobbyists China gains, and at no cost. This is true for any country. So let them invest their billions in China; when war comes, China will be the richer and they the poorer. China cannot lose at this game and she knows it.

China has full nuclear capability and accurate delivery systems to anywhere on the planet. China can build 100 megaton hydrogen bombs. If China takes Southeast Asia for food, who will stop it? If China takes Japan for military production, who will stop it? How about if China should ally itself with the Arabians and Persians for oil? Will Israel be threatened? Please read Rene Noorbergens' Nostradamus Predicts the End of the World. I believe she is the only one who has gotten it right. She clearly delineates the two alliances to be involved in the future world war. The Western Alliance (composed of the Zionist anti-Christ led nations of the United States, Canada, Europe, and European Russia) fighting against the Eastern Axis (composed of the non-Christian nations of China, Asia, 2/3 of the former Soviet Union, the Persians, Arabs, and all of Islam. The war will be, then, anti-Christ against non-Christian.

What happened to the Christians? They are the economic and political slaves who will fill the Zionist armies in the West, just as they did in W.W. I and W.W. II. It will be only through the destruction delivered to the West by the eastern Yellow Hordes that the bonds of slavery binding the Christians can dissolve and sever as the Zionist-controlled economic and political systems of the West are annihilated in the catastrophe. The price of freedom will be dear; it must be paid by blood and tears; there won't be many left to cheer. The Orientals will once again fulfill their role as the world's solvent or cleansing agent. It is either this or perpetual slavery, take your pick. The mass extinctions of flora and fauna; the pollution of air, land and sea; the daily destruction of all that is natural and beautiful on this planet; all this, because of the unnatural crushing weight and mass of humanity—will be reversed and brought back into balance in the aftermath of the catastrophe. The future may then become brighter for all surviving organisms as the human beast, or race, is brought back into the natural balance of old with the other plants and animals.

China, as we have seen, will play the role of energizer and power-giver to restore new life and vigor to the East. China is the only super power independent of the anti-Christ Zionists. What about China's leaders? The seven men who control China are in their 80s and referred to as the "Octogenarians". Deng Xiao-Ping himself is now 87 years old. This old leadership can be swept away any moment. Is there another military genius like Genghis Khan lurking underneath, waiting for the right moment to ascend?

Please see enclosed newspaper article. Please find enclosed my work on Revelation and the anti-Christ, also, an open letter to the Arabs and Persians. I have already sent my work to many Christian churches and Arab organizations in the U.S. I have not had a chance to send it to other countries yet. This is strong "stuff" and I would like you to publish it in the LIBERATOR and JOURNALS under my name as a letter to the editor. This way you do not have to take any responsibility; the pressure is already immense on yourselves. I would also like you to publish this letter. If you find it too risky or in poor taste then you are welcome to edit it. I am only working for the cause. You people must use your judgement. Your survival is of the utmost importance now.

I will be sending more articles to you in the future on current events, my ideas on who Ross Perot really is, and why Bush bombed Iraq after losing the elections. I talked with Brent on the 800 number and I called from a public phone. You mentioned in an article that your phone was tapped and I am a wanted man, wanted by the Zionists. Any phone call can be traced. My location must be hidden for now. I need a reasonable amount of peace so that I can think. I would also like to visit you people one day when I go to California. Also, in the future, I want to raise funds for your cause by approaching some wealthy individuals who have been crushed by the system. If the wealthy Jews can contribute to their organizations for conquest, then why can't some wealthy Gentiles contribute to yours for survival? I have some people in mind to visit in the future. I can only hope and pray that your work continues and that you survive the present ordeals.

Respectfully with love,
Tim Burns

P.S.: If there is any way that I can help that cause, then to that effect can I take some pleasure.

END QUOTE.

CHINA'S OLD LEADERS ON LAST LEGS

Then, I find it interesting as to how far and wide valuable information can circulate for the next article comes around about from the Salt Lake Tribune, Jan. 13, 1992. QUOTING:

WILL DEATHS BRING CHAOS OR FREEDOM? Beijing—(FROM THE LOS ANGELES TIMES) When President Yang Shangkun left here for a routine eight-day trip to Singapore and Malaysia, Premier Li Peng offered some cheerful advice.

"Don't let yourself get too busy," Li counseled Yang while shaking hands at a brief departure ceremony in the Great Hall of the People last week.

Yang, a sturdy 84-year-old, bantered briefly with Li, then headed for the airport.

Li's words, however pleasant and respectful, carried an implicit acknowledgment of the central fact of political life here: The men who really rule China are old. Yang is one of the few who is not also sick or feeble.

With Deng Xiaoping, 87, slowly fading, and the other octogenarian power-holders rumored to be hospitalized, Yang plays an increasingly important role as Deng's most important political ally. As a national leader, Yang now is second in influence only to Deng.

Communist Party General Secretary Jiang Zemin, 65, and Premier Li, 63, while titular heads of the party and government, in fact serve only at the pleasure of their elders. This reality was dramatically demonstrated in the events of three years ago that led to Jiang's elevation.

The decision to use violence to crush the pro-democracy demonstrations that engulfed Beijing in the spring of 1989 was essentially imposed by eight octogenarians: Deng, Yang, Chen Yun, Li Xiannian, Peng Zhen, Wang Zhen, Bo Yibo and Song Renqiong.

These so-called "Eight Elders"—too weak physically and mentally to actually run the country day by day, but too powerful to be pushed aside—still exercise veto power over major policy and personnel decisions.

"They don't have arduous work schedules—none of them except Yang work more than an hour or two a day," said a Western diplomat.

In recent months, most of the eight have dropped out of sight. The people now await the elders' passing with uneasy anticipation, unsure whether the looming generational change augurs greater freedom and economic progress or an eruption of chaos and bloodshed.

China is so secretive about the health of senior leaders that it is impossible to be sure of their real conditions. But indications are that a wave of deaths may come this year.

END OF QUOTING

And so the perceived time and societal structure of the planet turns ever revolving on the wheel of expression—to repeat itself time after time in changes only according to the level of knowledge of each experience—as technology becomes great, is lost and then again, refounded upon that which evolved from the heap of ashes in the fire-pits. And so, too, turns the world ever revolving, ever recycling—ever expressing that which is its bindings upon that which is capable of expression in life-form. Where shall ye ones be in this changing cycle as it comes upon its own beginning? Perhaps there shall only be the hopeful finding of the Truth buried somewhere in the archives of a new civilization, such as this, which shall tell the tale of "how it was"! And so, we look onward to see that which evolves AS THE WORLD TURNS!

I AM—"ATON"—WHO MIGHT YE BE?

DEDICATION

I dedicate this volume to one, Tim Burns, who silently but surely reassures Dharma that—though her hands be stilled and her voice silenced for any reason—through ones such as Tim and the other unsung and unseen voices of Truth—shall flow the word and the history of your species. Thank you.

INTRODUCTION

To this volume there needs be no "Introduction" for it is a compilation of that which explains itself—bravely, by the daring who stand forth in Truth and risk—that YOU might have vision and understanding against that day which is upon you when freedom shall have vanished from the face of your nation—and the defenses, priorly your foundation—are ripped away and buried in the destruction of your Constitution.

You can survive within the system—but the days of "fighting" the system are gone, alas, my beloved brothers. You didn't see this day coming and, yet, it has come upon you—this "world 2000". But you shall see that it too shall perish in the rubble of the fire-pit for there is yet an enemy of "thine enemy of freedom" at the threshold of mighty battle. No, I speak not of the Hosts of God—I speak of the massive annihilators of the globe. All things can be "timed" by the sequence of events as they unfold and the time of the "hordes" is close upon you and almost none know who they be.

The LIBERATOR and the PHOENIX JOURNALS are not touted as a voice of freedom of patriots. It is Word of Truth unto the peoples of the globe—THE WORD, that you might see and hear. Those who would use THE WORD for worldly gain and placement—shall be brought down for it is come through the Hosts in the Name of God to His people upon the lands—called Shan (Earth). May your hearts be given into hearing that you might find your way in the darkness come upon your lands.

Storms & Other Aggressions

"lull" of "good times" right now—but it won't (can't) last. It is not the deficit which is hurting you, little ones, and besides—the deficit will not be lowered by false spending slashes OR increased taxes. It is as within any household—the Government spending must be stopped (frozen, ALL of it) and a return to a budget within which you are limited and not allowed to go beyond those limits. No, I did not say "balanced" budget. A requirement of a balanced budget annually is already in your Constitution. The "balanced budget amendment through a Constitutional Convention" is a facade to remove your total Constitution.

SERBIAN FORCES

Note the "slip" of the lip when CNN said there was a new and intensified assault by "Soviet" troops in Bosnia, etc. Then in the next broadcast it was changed to "Serbian". No, they were right the first time. AND, nice Americans—you are dropping supplies to them under the illusion of humanitarian food drops.

THE WORLD IS NOW MOVED INTO AN ERA OF INTENSIFIED CLOSING OF THE NOOSE ON ALL FREEDOM AS YOU MOVE INTO AND UNDER THE POWER OF THE ONE WORLD ELITE POWER. I LOOK TO ALTERNATIVES AND SEE NO WAY THAT YOU IN THE UNITED STATES CAN UNDO THAT WHICH IS DONE—FINISHED. IF YOU RISE UP IN OPEN "GUN" BATTLE WITH THE ADVERSARY IN POWER YOU WILL GET SMASHED AND THE BEST OF YOUR LEADERSHIP WILL BE KILLED OUT-RIGHT. YOUR HOPE FOR SURVIVAL

AND SOME GOOD QUALITY OF LIFE—WILL REST UPON HOW WELL YOU CAN FUNCTION IN "KNOWLEDGE" WITHIN THE SYSTEM AS STRUCTURED. This approach may well allow you to go pretty much unnoticed until the next major distraction to the very adversary hits THEM. That will be an open war, chelas, but you are going to be pretty destitute as a nation by that time, so much of the battle will rage on lands across the seas. However, you will not go unscathed so survival facilities becomes your most important focus. The U.S. Government is now focusing on absolute upgrading of facilities for survival RIGHT NOW—they are "making their lists and checking them twice". You will not get help from the government for your own needs except in small and isolated "look how hard we are trying" spurts for "show and tell". Salu.

Gaia Resources New Products

GAIAANDRIANA

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well!

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

AQUAGAIA

Complementary to the Gaiandriana product, Aquagaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

Aquagaia contains mitochondria. These are the major biochemical energy "processors" within cellular metabolism. First, enzymes begin the breakdown process of organic nutrients (like fats, carbohydrates and proteins) to intermediate substances such as amino and pyruvic acids. Then, in the next "bucket brigade" step, these various acid molecules are processed within the mitochondria to release chemical energy recognized as adenosine triphosphate (ATP).

About 95% of the energy needed to "run the machinery" that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of Aquagaia, with its assimilatable supply of healthy mitochondria — like "fresh batteries" for the body's cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well.

2/11/93 #2 HATONN

GAIAANDRIANA AND AQUAGAIA:

To help in understanding the workings of these organic "pac-men" you must realize that there is a protein covering "cap" on viruses. The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc atom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA—in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

Aquagaia, in conjunction with the Gaiandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple "charge" change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of "parts" of the Gaiandriana male/female DNA structure which release many working variants but frees the Gaiandriettes or "killers" to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the "cap", the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells—further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochondria.

Healthy cells are not affected because they lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the virus.

These "Gaia" compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a "messenger" molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell's DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take-out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved well-being and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

The obvious conclusion is that there might well be good reports of better health and faster recovery following infection by other viruses than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondriana (living crystal forms). We, again, make no medical claims—we are simply reporting in an effort to explain WHAT takes place within the cellular structures of living organisms. If you really want to witness remarkable growth in plants and good stamina and health in pets and other animals—try a little of these additives as you would vitamins or fertilizers. Use in a mildly vitamin C based solution on same. At transplant time for garden plants and houseplants—soak their little root systems in this natural and mild solution. Just add a tablespoon of Gaiandriana, a few drops of liquid vitamin C or C-crystals to a quart of water and let set for 48 hours—then it is ready for use. It will not negatively interact with anything other than perhaps harbored viruses and disease spores and organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor—it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference—refrigerate after opening and reclosing.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiandriana and Aquagaia, together for storage as the Aquagaia (mitochondria) is aggressive and begins to "eat" the Gaiandriana for fuel. They go about their appointed tasks once ingested, but in bottle prisons they are not particularly compatible once the available fuel supply is exhausted. Juices are excellent to take with the Aquagaia because the mitochondria must have the fuel derived from same, the most effective juice being from the tropical "Guava" fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the "initial" program is begun and maintenance is followed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

A-C-E ANTI-OXIDANT FORMULA

There is growing evidence that essentially everyone in our society is exposed to free radicals, now more than ever. While free radicals are normal products of our cells and have certain beneficial roles in the body, increased levels of free radicals in our body tissues can be detrimental to our health. Free radicals are highly unstable substances produced in the body through, among other routes, the metabolism of oxygen. Free radicals multiply through a series of chain reactions and can attack the polyunsaturated fatty acids of cell membranes. Unless excess free radicals are neutralized, they can cause considerable damage to the structure and function of cell membranes, and thus the cells themselves. The products from free radical reactions are implicated in the progressive accumulation of deleterious cellular changes over time, which may eventually result in recognizable disease. Free radical damage is implicated in the initiation and promotion of many cancers, as well as hardening of the arteries.

One area of Aging Research suggests that free radicals damage body cells and cause the pathological changes associated with aging. Besides being byproducts of the metabolism of oxygen, such as during strenuous exercise, we also generate significant levels of free radicals from the environment, such as from so-called "background" levels of ionizing radiation.

Cooperative defense systems that can protect the body from free radical damage include certain enzymes and the antioxidant vitamins A, C, and E and beta-carotene, which protect cell membranes from oxidative damage. Vitamin E, one of the fat-soluble vitamins, is present in the blood as d-alpha-tocopherol and is well accepted as the major antioxidant in lipid body tissues. Vitamin E is considered the first line of defense against cell-membrane damage due to peroxidation. Vitamin E scavenges free radicals, terminating chain reactions and confining damage to limited areas of the membrane. Selenium contained in the enzyme glutathione peroxidase is the second line of defense that destroys peroxides before they can damage cell membranes. Beta-carotene, a precursor of Vitamin A, also traps free radicals. Vitamin C is water soluble and serves to neutralize free radicals in aqueous systems.

The antioxidants show promise as cancer-prevention agents, alone and in combination.

GINKGO BILOBA (Ginkgo Biloba extract 24%)

The Ginkgo Biloba, or Maidenhair tree, is one of the oldest living species on this planet. Ginkgo has flourished almost unchanged for 150 million years, and its ancestors can be traced back 250 million years. It is because of this antiquity that the Ginkgo Biloba tree is called "the living fossil". Individual trees are believed capable of living 2000 to 4000 years. During the last ice age, Ginkgos nearly became extinct. These trees survived only in China and other parts of Asia, where they stayed until approximately 1,000 years ago. At that time, Ginkgo trees were also planted around monasteries in Japan, where they still live today.

The name Ginkgo may come from the Chinese Sankyo or Yinkuo (Yin Guo), meaning "hill apricot" or "silver fruit". The word biloba means "two lobes" and describes the young leaves. Although modern medical research focuses mainly on the leaves of Ginkgo, the Ginkgo fruits and nuts have been used in China since time immemorial as a delicacy and tonic food. Ancient Chinese texts record Ginkgo's use as a medicinal agent as far back as five thousand years ago.

The Ginkgo Biloba extract is a complex compound. The green leaves of the tree are usually harvested from trees grown on plantations in South Korea, Japan and France.

Ginkgo is reported to have a natural affinity for the nervous system. It also seems to stimulate the vascular and endocrine systems that, in turn, strongly affect the function of the nervous system, possibly increasing the capacity for normal physical activity, and the flow of blood to the brain. Some research indicates the possible effectiveness of Ginkgo in the treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

Due to its pharmacological properties, Ginkgo is now widely used throughout Europe for treating many forms of vascular disease. In a survey of packaging information of European products, Ginkgo has been recommended for such ailments as headaches, vertigo, inner-ear disturbances, diminished intellectual capacity and alertness as a result of insufficient circulation to the brain, anxiety, and depression, to name a few.

Ginkgo Biloba Extract (24%) is concentrated from the leaves of the Ginkgo Biloba tree. The highly specialized extraction process yields a 50:1 concentrate from the leaves (50 grams of leaf produce 1 gram of extract). The extract is then further standardized to contain 24% of the active Ginkgo Flavoglycosides.

MO-GU ELIXIR

The first recorded use of Mo-Gu Elixir was during the Chinese Tsin-Dynasty in 221 B.C. It was referred to as "The Remedy for Immortality" or "The Divine Tsché".

It has been well documented that there are certain people who live to be well past a hundred years of age. These people live in such areas as the mountainous Caucasus, Yakutia in Siberia, the Poltava District of the Ukraine, Tibet and Spain. There is an area in Russia called Kargasok where the people are a dairy- and vegetable-eating populace. Centenarians are common among these people. They attribute their longevity to the Yeast Enzyme Tea (Mo-Gu Elixir) which has been in their diet for hundreds of years. It is said that Mo-Gu and yak butter are staples among the dwellers of the high Himalayas.

Mo-Gu has been used throughout history in China, Japan, Russia, Korea, and India. It has been said to promote a feeling of well-being and overall physical restoration. It has been known by many names, some of which are: Fungus Japonicus, Fungojapon Kombucha, Pichia Fermentans, Cembuya Orientalis, Combuchu Tschambucco, Volga-Spring, Champignon de Longue Vie, Teekwass, Kwassan, and Kargasok.

The Mo-Gu fungus constructs in a membrane form and is a symbiosis of yeast cells and different bacteria. Among these bacteria are: Bacterium Xylinum, Bacterium Gluconicum, Acetobacter Ketogenum, and Pichia Fermentans.

The Mo-Gu fungus needs to live in a solution composed of common (black) tea and sugar. In the proper temperature environment they multiply constantly. They do not build spores as yeast normally does, but instead multiply by a process of branching.

CHLORELLA

Chlorella is a single-celled, fresh-water algae. Believed to be the first form of life with a true nucleus, chlorella dates back approximately 2.5 billion years, making it pre-Cambrian. Through the process of photosynthesis chlorella cells reproduce themselves by cell division at the rate of four new cells every 17-24 hours. It was not until the 1890s that chlorella was identified under the microscope. In naming it, the prefix chlor was selected to signify green, while the suffix ella, indicates small. Chlorella is the most researched algae in the world and remains the most popular with millions of consumers worldwide.

Chlorella is a nutritionally balanced whole food and contributes to the health and growth of human cells like no single vitamin or mineral possibly can.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: Vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll a, chlorophyll b, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoic acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. The minerals include: phosphorus, potassium, iodine, magnesium, sulphur, iron, calcium, manganese, copper, zinc and cobalt.

The amino acids include: lysine, histidine, arginine, aspartic acid, threonine, serine, glutamic acid, proline, glycine, alanine, cystine, valine, methionine, isoleucine, leucine, tyrosine, phenylalanine, ornithine, tryptophan.

The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day.
