Are YOU One, Too? Slavery American Style

10/21/93 #2 HATONN

I am going to begin this writing with an excerpt (the "Introduction") from a booklet just received. I will take up other portions of the material later but I, at present, just want you to be aware of the volume. It is small, only 83 pages, by Gordon Larsen and can be acquired from:

RED LARSEN,
UPPER VILLAGE SCHOOLHOUSE,
ATHENS, NY 12015
($7.95)

We have been given permission to use any or all of this material and we are most appreciative. This comes directly to us from Dr. Pierre Cloutier,

INTRODUCTION

LIBERTY VERSUS SLAVERY A Historical Perspective

Man as a social being has long recognized that, when living in a group, some kind of rules are necessary if relationships are to go along smoothly and everyone's needs are to be met; for the purposes of this handbook, we will call these rules "government".

Formal statements of governmental concepts were made as far back as the Greek City-states. The MOST IMPORTANT IDEA from that time was put forth by the leader Solon, who established the principle that NO ONE IS ABOVE THE LAW! Needless to say, this idea was not popular with anyone in a ruling position, as it took away many "privileges" to which the ruler was entitled and therefore interfered with the ruler's exercise of power, but while it was in force, justice prevailed for the most part and the Greek City-states flourished for a time.

The concept of the Divine Right of Kings appeared during the time of Constantine, when Christianity became the State Religion of the newly-designated Holy Roman Empire. This Divine Right of Kings was established in part as a result of the ruling classes—Royalty and the "Church"—agreeing to exercise control over the people and the production of wealth which they represented. It meant that the Sovereignty or supreme power/authority was established in one person, the Sovereign—the King, Queen, or Emperor. This, in turn, entitled

Is Amerika A "Sucker Force" For The New World Order?

Editor's note: It appears that we have been reduced to using CIA tactics of blacking out information because of court orders forbidding us to write about certain people and situations. We hope you will understand and bear with us as you read the following article.

10/19/93 #1 HATONN

I ask that we now turn to important issues at hand, i.e., Russian escapades, Haitian "threat to the world" (apparently), Somalian threat to the world (apparently) and other (apparently) significant points of disaster around your globe.

You think it is OK for the U.S. to do what is being done? Or, ARE you the U.N. "sucker force" for sending your young men off to die and kill FOR THE ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT OUT OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND RUSSIAN EMBASSY? OR, IS IT FOR THE BANKSTERS AND KHAZARIAN GUARD? EITHER WAY, IT SEEMS A BIT STRANGE TO ME, BUT THEN, WHAT DO I KNOW ABOUT PATRIOTISM AND HUMAN RIGHTS?

For you who don't take SPOTLIGHT, I would like to share their perceptions with you—as they have a VERY GOOD resource of investigators and journalists. In this instance it is in the form of an "exclusive" by a fine writer and researcher, Martin Mann.

In fact, I would honor that paper with its headlines on the Front page which read: Ron Brown Scandal in the Open; Audit of World Bank Exposes Deception; RUSSIAN DEMOCRACY SUBVERTED...

Why do I like them? Because they CONFIRM what we bring you so that perhaps you can bring yourself to consider our suggestions along the way. Do I wish to distract from their presentation? NO INDEED—I wish Dharma NEVER HAD TO WRITE A SINGLE CONTROVERSIAL WORD—AGAIN, EVER! She wishes it far more than do I. So, when we can—we just give you what is available if you would only research the information. Therefore, let us just offer you RUSSIAN DEMOCRACY SUBVERTED: SPOTLIGHT, October 11, 1993, by Martin Mann.

RUSSIAN DEMOCRACY SUBVERTED

Russian President Boris Yeltsin's coup and the current standoff with the parliament are being covertly supported by U.S. and ISRAEL INTELLIGENCE.

Planeloads of U.S.-made high-tech surveillance systems and "expert" disinformation psychological warfare and intelligence specialists are being rushed to Moscow on emergency airlifts to help Russian President Boris Yeltsin crush parliamentary opposition to his recent coup.

With the Clinton Administration's support, leading American manufacturers of sophisticated eavesdropping equipment, such as the giant Honeywell Corporation, are supplying Yeltsin's forces with the latest electronic espionage systems, confirmed Richard Clement, a long-serving federal security administrator who is now a corporate consultant in Washington. [H: The question "should" now be: "I thought Russia had all that 'stuff' in more sophistication and technology than the U.S., old Space Cadet..." INDEED—BUT BORIS YELTSIN DOES NOT HAVE IT IN HIS CONTROL, sleepy little fantasizers! And hence, one of your BIGGER PROBLEMS!]

All international news agencies and American newspapers have apparently been instructed to keep this overt interference into Russian politics SECRET.

CRITICS PRESSURED

The Yeltsin faction is using undercover intercepts—whether real or fabricated—in an all-out effort to discredit its critics with broad accusations of corruption, well-informed diplomatic sources say.

"Technical advisers" supplied by the CIA and, according to some reports, the Mossad, Israel's secret service, are assisting special Russian surveillance units under the personal command of Defense Minister Pavel Grachev, a hard-line Yeltsin ally in the operation, these sources said.

"Russia is no banana republic," warned Dr. Paul Adler [Big Khazarian honcho], the noted international policy analyst. "The growing opposition to Yeltsin's takeover supported by Wall Street MEGABANKS and foreign speculators is spreading from parliamentary and nationalist groups to the general population. Russia is in for serious trouble.

END OF QUOTING

Yes, I would agree—serious trouble—but then, SO ARE YOU! You, in your little cocoons peek out and have the solution—why doesn't the Space Command just "do something". The "something" is usually followed by some interesting thoughts—like set the "in-tract" aircraft WE HAVE down in the middle of the World Series. (Not a bad idea)—how long do you think it would take the U.N. to get troops into that stadium and blow you all away?? Also, comes "...then why don't the Russians with the bigger guns do something?" They are: they are waiting until you ones do the work for them and then the "plum" is not so expensive to their side. It is good management, my dears—all the better to eat you with. You are playing with the end of the world—and neither side really wants, or can use, a DEAD WORLD. So, some of you are "caught" in the middle, unable to "force" anything and unable to make impact big enough to change much. I suggest the same kind of WISE waiting, in peaceful preparation, for some possible hard times a'comin. The Russians HATE the Bolsheviks and AMERIKA HAS BECOME THE CAPITOL (AND CAPITAL) OF THE BOLSHEVIK KHAZARIAN ZIONISTS! The Mongolian Orientals (Chinese lineage) dislike the Khazarian Zionists EVEN MORE THAN DO THE "RUSSIANS". It will probably, one of the days in the not-too distant future—be a "Mother of all Wars", just like THAT Islamic "mad-man" said. Where will YOU be when the nuclear bomb lands? It would seem wise to have a bit of water and grain somewhere nearby—if you can get under shelter somewhere. The next "Mother of all Wars" is going to hit AMERICA, my friends, for AMERICA (U.S.A.) IS WHERE THE NEW KHAZARIAN CAPITOL AND THE UNITED NATIONS ONE WORLD GOVERNMENT HEAD IS!

I think you will enjoy the article on the World Bank also, since what you are told doesn't match WHAT IS and you need to begin to question EVERYTHING "they" tell you, citizens.

AUDIT OF WORLD BANK EXPOSES DECEPTION

Internal World Bank audits obtained by The SPOTLIGHT prove what this paper has contended all along. The tax-supported lending agency serves merely to funnel tax dollars to the big banks. By Lawrence Wilmot.

QUOTING:

Using deception, double-talk and "discreet fraud", the World Bank scoops more than $5 billion each year from the pockets of American taxpayers to pay for so-called development programs that are often merely covert bank bail-outs.

Those are the disturbing findings of two closely guarded internal audits held earlier this year by the international money center's own executives. Although neither was made public, Spotlight has obtained access to them through confidential sources at the World Bank's annual meeting in the final days of last month.

The reports confirm that the World Bank, under pressure from international moneylenders, routinely uses false pretenses when it extends huge loans to insolvent governments which are already delinquent on previous debts to international banks.

"To pick up a billion or two from us, a heavily indebted borrower—say, Brazil or Ghana—need only pretend nowadays that the fresh money will be spent on something beneficial, preferably an ecological project such as reforestation, anti-pollution, water cleanup, recycling or similar programs," says Philippe Larimer, a former World Bank data analyst who is writing a book about his experiences in global finance.

The basic rules of fiscal responsibility suggest that when an already overburdened debtor such as Brazil or Ghana tries to borrow additional billions, the international lending institutions who hold its delinquent IOUs would block any more debt deals.

But the opposite is true, reports World Bank vice president Will Wapenhans, who headed one of the institution's recent internal audits.

POUR BILLIONS DOWN THE RAT HOLE

There is heavy pressure on the World Bank from corporate lenders such as Chase Manhattan, the Rockefeller financial consortium, to pour more billions into Third World deadbeats.

The reason is simple: Most of these new "environmental loans" are diverted into overdue debt repayments to Chase, Citibank or other global debt dispensers.

"The taxpayers—whether in America or in other industrial nations—who finance and vouch for World Bank lending are cheated. They are told their money will help the poor and protect the Earth. In reality, these billions protect only the annual earnings of megabanks," explained Larimer.

A whopping four-fifths of the estimated $30 billion the World Bank commits and disburses each year is converted, in part or whole, into covert bank bail-outs, the auditors discovered.

"While major credits were made conditional on funding specific development projects, 79 percent of the borrowed money was spent in disregard or violation of the loan's original terms," admitted the Wapenhans report.

DEVASTATING SWINDLE

Apart from the swindle perpetrated on U.S. taxpayers, this renewed cycle of leaky loans and furtive bail-outs has a devastating effect on the economies of the debtor countries. According to the World Bank's own figures, revealed at last month's annual assembly, in 1983 the dirt-poor nations of sub-Saharan Africa were in hock to the tune of some $60 billion. Today, their collective debt to the international bankers has tripled to a crushing $183 billion—more than the value of the entire region's combined gross domestic product.

END

Is it easier to believe, this way? Since so many readers denounce my input perhaps it is easier to read SPOTLIGHT.

TRUTH IS TRUTH IS TRUTH—AND LIES ARE LIES ARE LIES. IT MATTERS NOT FROM WHENCE YOU HEAR OR BELIEVE EITHER. 10/19/93 #1 HATONN

ABSURDITIES OF THE DAY!

How you people get anything accomplished is beyond my imaginings as I witness WHAT stupid things are done. One of the high-points of this day is in the news: "General Norman Schwarzkopf has been made a 'great chief' of some kind by the Osage Indian Nation." This Khazarian Zionist One World "Chief" is now given HONORARY nobility within the Native American Tribal councils?? He was all done-up in ceremonial blankets being anointed with sacred Eagle feathers, etc.—the whole sacred ball-o'-wax! And I further find it funny that YOU denounce ME as being ABSURD!

I also begin to believe one George Green has reached the epitome of likewise stupid actions—he has, yes, indeed, taken all the nasty, dirty lying, out-of-context garbage he can gather against the Ekkers and sent it to Little Crow. LC, my friends, took one look at it and disposed of it. Is THIS reaching a bit? How desperate does one get in the pits of evil before they see that they damage themselves and not the intended "victim"? When you move into the realms of spiritual Truth with your assault from the pits of darkness—you are going to meet your match somewhere along the line. What lengths will man reach to acquire gold?? Does he REALLY believe that Dave Overton sent $350,000 in gold coins for Desirée's personal use to acquire "things"?? YOU MOCK THE MAN IN HIS INTENT FOR GOOD SUPPORT FOR GOD AND NATION! George tells the world on radio, etc., that "I OWN A BANK" and "AM AN INSIDER" with the TOP PLAYERS, i.e., Paul Volcker, et al. He also claims to be "Mr. Mall" for his building of malls around and sat in important meetings with such as Bush of Silverado, et al. Why, then, does he need the gold which was sent to cover projects and cover notes for the Institute? He further tells others, who used the information to tattle to the Food Stamp division of Welfare, that the gold was "Ekkers'" and he purchased it from them with three checks (missing of course) to the tune of nearly $400,000." Is there something a bit odd in this?? THOROUGH investigation into the doings of Ekkers found them fully eligible for not only food stamps BUT welfare coverage. Who fibs around here? Well, I feel completely sorry for the ones at [REDACTED], most especially [REDACTED], for he bought the lies and acquired the damages.

As for that "University"? And [REDACTED]? I watch the pit get deeper and deeper for what comes forth on "just" the surface is damaging.

[REDACTED] said there is NO involvement with Brookings Institute. Ordinarily I would suggest that a connection would be a most positive relationship in which the recipients would be PLEASED and this information would be used for extensive ADVERTISING for a quality organization. What is wrong? Well now, I am forbidden to tell you that.

However, a most important "person" was just in our midst who claims to know all about such matters and he says, "Brookings has put A BIG AMOUNT OF MONEY INTO [REDACTED]."

Further, let us share just a tiny bit of RESEARCH into, of all things, THE BROOKINGS INSTITUTE. See what you might think and see if you would classify our writings as total lies and defamation.

I think all of you respect "Nora's" research—certainly I believe it to be THE BEST. I would share a letter regarding this very instance in point. Nora is my hardest critic and when I say something—she sets forth like Sherlock Holmes to either prove me wrong or right—whichever. She sleuths all the way back to the original Sumarian Texts, the Jewish Encyclopedias, British Law, Tavistock, etc., etc.

QUOTING NORA'S LETTER: Sept. 23, 1993

RE: [REDACTED]—Twilight Club

Attached is a chronology, as given in the book, [REDACTED] by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], of [REDACTED]. The book was copyrighted in 1958 by [REDACTED]. (This was among the books that Mr. H. sent.)

I believe this chronology clearly shows some connections that Hatonn has mentioned with other "world conspirators". I checked the names shown against Coleman's book, Conspirators' Hierarchy and found none except Carnegie and Vanderbilt, although there are the Kiwanis, Rotary & Lions Clubs which are claimed as "outcomes" of the work, all of which appears innocuous enough until you know more.

Surprisingly, the First Era of [REDACTED] is stated as beginning in the early 1870's!!!! [REDACTED] is shown as participating in the Second Era as a leading worker of The Twilight Club, and from then on.....

Further, I have located a book titled The Brookings Institute, A Fifty Year History, by Charles B. Saunders, Jr., published by the Institution in 1966. Therein, on page 28, it tells how Carnegie (a member of the Twilight Club) contributed a large sum to the Institute February 13, 1922, as well as a long list of others which included Paul Warburg, Banker; John Barton Payne, Chairman of the American Red Cross; George Sutherland, Associate Supreme Court Justice; Charles D. Walcott, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institute, etc. (I attach page 28 for your confirmation.) (Remember, according to the "Introduction" in [REDACTED], [REDACTED] states that [REDACTED] planned to deposit his works at the Smithsonian Institute for safe-keeping [H: He had already given bunches to Princeton University for open sharing of his information.]—UNTIL SHE CAME ALONG.) So, it looks like there are some early connections among many of the players.

Further, as to "connections" with current directors of [REDACTED], I found some corresponding names but not confirmation that the parties are related. For example:

1. Robert D. Calkins was President of the Brookings Institute in 1968, the last year reviewed in this book.

At [REDACTED], according to their letterhead, Shirley Calkins-Smith is Director of Student Affairs.

2. A Cesar Lombardi, a Dallas Publisher, was a Trustee of the Brookings institute in 1915. (See page 15 & 16 of the book.)

At [REDACTED], Emilia Lombardi is NOW a Director and co-Executor of [REDACTED]'s estate. (See letterhead of [REDACTED].)

The above, of course, is not conclusive—only suggestive.

It is also a little interesting that the subject of Alexis Carrel's book Man the Unknown in which he stated that The Science of Man was the most important of all sciences is primarily given top billing as purpose for the [REDACTED]—it is shown at the top and bottom of the chronology, The Science of Man.

I am trying to locate as much as possible on the Brookings Institute. The above, at least, will help show any lawyer bent on a "libel" charge regarding this issue, that indeed, [REDACTED] has some rather old ties to persons involved in the Brookings Institute.

Attached are some New York Times articles on Walter and his Arts and Sciences connections.....

END OF QUOTING NORA'S LETTER

One more tid-bit before moving on; [REDACTED] has written many people denying all of our claims regarding this matter. In addition to denying the Brookings connections, he also says that [REDACTED] and his wife had years (I believe the statement was "twelve" years) of separation prior to [REDACTED]. WRONG! The PAPERS said that the separation from his wife "DID NOT COME UNTIL THE 'IMMEDIATE' DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS" Readers, it was the "TALK" of the "times"! [REDACTED] is an important ROYALTY ELITE name from Europe and [REDACTED] was also from such lineage—there was not silence on the subject as if "Joe Blow" had jaywalked in Podunk, Missouri.

So, why do I again speak of this? Because the attorney of [REDACTED] AGAIN THREATENS MY SCRIBE WITH CONTEMPT CHARGES FOR WRITING ON THIS SUBJECT. The fact that the writing and "running in the CONTACT" are TWO TOTALLY DIFFERENT THINGS, DOES NOT SEEM TO ENTER INTO THE PICTURE. It is hard, however, for Dharma to be told by a Federal Judge that he will "imprison" her for further contempt (of which Mr. Green is the only one in actual contempt of orders—but not even represented or mentioned in the court—having joined the opposition in service and "settlement" [SECRET]) for printing erroneous information. So, the information is NOT ERRONEOUS, nor contemptuous—but this seems NOT TO MATTER IN THIS CASE OR IN THE JUDICIAL COURT OF FEDERAL LAW.

Because George Green also claims abuse for a "Hatonn-signed" release of all responsibility on "his" (GREEN'S) part and he is (counter) suing Ekkers for said default in his protection or something or other totally non-understandable, I ask you: IF A COURT OF LAW RULES THERE "IS NO HATONN"—HOW CAN SUCH A DOCUMENT BE VALID UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES—I, HATONN, SIGNED DOCUMENTS—AND IN THOSE INSTANCES GERMAIN SIGNED THEM!

Mr. Green swore I was valid, along with Sananda, et al.—until it became convenient to deny same. However, he is still stuck with claiming far and wide (on the airwaves yet) THAT "HATONN LEFT DHARMA AND MOVED WITH HIM AND DESIREE TO NEVADA IN JULY OF 1992 AND THEY STILL RECEIVED HIGH-LEVEL INFORMATION FROM "HIM" (HATONN)." Now, he is efforting to draw "Tuieta" into his trap and publish her old and new books—guess what: on the basis of Tuieta being Hatonn's scribe! So—back to Little Crow—is somebody missing some marbles or what? And NO, I DO NOT THINK THIS IS FUNNY. I THINK IT IS SICK! Is it important? Not really, except to point out to you—YOU ARE CAUGHT IN A PACK OF LIES IN EVERY TURN OF YOUR EXPERIENCE AND THE TRUTH MERITS "CONTEMPT" OF COURT—IS IT ANY WONDER THAT YOU REMAIN PEOPLE OF THE LIE?

Why do I go further with this waste of time? Because Dharma had to face attorneys, Little Crow's call, and a new pile of information this morning (the above is OLD). The NEW is more blatantly open—but we will not give the opposition the advantage of show-and-tell this day.

CONTACT IS QUALIFIED AS A BONAFIDE NEWSPAPER BY THE TAX AUTHORITY IN NEVADA—AND I DO BELIEVE THAT IF YOU CAN PRINT LIES AGAINST EKKERS THROUGH THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—THAT THE TRUTH IN VALID PUBLICATION, IS OR SHOULD BE, EQUALLY PERMISSIBLE. OR, AMERICA, IS THERE NO WAY TO DEFEND TRUTH AND SELF LEFT IN YOUR WORLD? YOU HAD BEST BEGIN TO CONSIDER THIS MATTER OR YOU ARE DEAD. YOU WHO COMPLAIN AS TO PLAYERS UNKNOWN AND "WHAT AND WHO IS THIS OR THAT" MIGHT WELL HAVE PATIENCE FOR IT MATTERS NOT AS TO IDENTITIES IF YOU CAN'T "CATCH UP" BECAUSE THE NEXT ONE IN POINT MAY WELL BE YOU!

By the way—where IS Desiree? Is she still alive? Dead? She WROTE FOR SANANDA, you know. What has happened to her? George refers to her on his circuits but where are her big speeches? Patriots, I wonder at your lack of perception and attention. George is off and running into major ECONOMICS and DISASTER HOUS-ING with INSIDERS. Where is little dove, Desirée? She was one of the most precious and naive little seekers around—terrified of being without, terrified of being “with”—what has happened to HER during this frenzied attempt to thief gold from others? Is she misinformed enough to take also—or is she a good showman also—“JUST TRYING TO GET THE ‘WORD’ OUT!” What “word”? Whatever it is, it is NOT the word of GOD!

By the way, Dr. Young has also taken major abuse for his running of these things in CONTACT. That complaint is unacceptable because Dr. Young takes responsibility VERY, VERY SERIOUSLY as does the staff of editors and workers. CONTACT is the MOST READ publication anywhere in the U.S.A. and connected countries. It is also one of the least SUBSCRIBED-TO papers. That should tell it all as to WHO offers you Truth! When the underground, overground, satellite spies, intelligence communities, administration hoods, etc., are first to skive off the information and network the paper—you KNOW you have a winner. No, it is not reflected in the “income”—but it IS REFLECTED. So be it.

ZOG, Weatherwar, And Other Incredibles

10/21/93 #1 HATONN

(Editor's note: ZOG, Zionist Occupational Government). How do you readers feel about a 500 page paper each week? A day?? There is so much information flowing over and around us that needs sharing that we can hardly sort it according to subject. It causes Dharma to realize how diversified have been our writings—yes indeed, on about every subject that comes along the pipeline.

We know that you can't possibly remember it all, nor the comments regarding happenings—but we must move on as it falls and do the best we can. Many of the things will only mean something to local groups here and there as we write about GWEN towers and steel plants, etc. But it ALL affects each of you so greatly that we will continue to cover as much as we can—for each tidbit contributes to the viewing of the “whole”. i.e.:

AMERICAN STEEL MILL IS BEING SHIPPED TO CHINA

THE NEW YORK TIMES, Oct. 14, 1993

The Kaiser Steel Corporation's defunct 22-story mill in Fontana, Calif., is being disassembled by 270 Chinese workers from the Capital Iron and Steel Corporation of BEIJING, where the buildings will be reassembled.

...

Hum-m-n-n—and who do you think might own the Capital Iron and Steel Corporation?? Guess where it is incorporated? The Fontana mill is very close to Los Angeles and when it was closed, thousands of workers were without work—and still are after over a decade. And YOU think NAFTA will work—this one went all the way to China (most favored nation). Americans YOU ARE BLIND—EVEN BATS ARE NOT BLIND!

IN FACT—

How many of you readers realize what is coming off on this coming weekend in BAKERSFIELD? The Ekkers are having another loss in the courts? No—that comes on Nov. 1st, 23, Dec. 27 and so on—I No, there is no further hearing on the ground racer snake that is tying up the San Joaquin Valley growing fields as well as Imperial Valley.

There are over 10,000 selected attendees at $250 per ticket meeting in a specially constructed tent (in order to hold everyone specially invited) to witness, we lose count and the paper is not in front of Dharma, but something like the last four or FIVE Presidents are due, T. Boone Pickens, Glenn Yarborough, Mario Cuomo, Trump, Iacocca, Kemp and dozens more of the top political dignitaries of this day from the NEW WORLD ORDER—are meeting in BAKERSFIELD(???). It was originally stated that Shwarzkopf and Clintons would be attending but that announcement has somehow slipped through the final agenda list. Is it the oil fields, the farm workers—what is this? This is touted as a major BUSINESS CONFERENCE—business(???) in Bakersfield? Bakersfield is just another dying “All American” city in a county with the worst political corruption in the State of California outside, that is, of San Luis Obispo with its SLO Connections. DO YOU THINK IT IS

A GATHERING TO HONOR ROSS PEROT AND NAFTA? If YOU still think things are NOT SERIOUS, you had best be looking AGAIN! YES INDEED, WE WRITE IN A LITTLE PLACE CLOSE TO WHERE BAKERSFIELD IS THE CENTRAL CITY AND LEGAL AND POLITICAL CENTER. THE CONTACT IS HOUSED IN LAS VEGAS, NEVADA. I WRITE TO DHARMA IN TEHACHAPI—VERY CLOSE TO BAKERSFIELD AND EVEN CLOSER TO EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE AND RIGHT OVER THE HILL FROM NORTHROP UNDERGROUND CITY/STATE FACILITIES. Also, very, very close to China Lake Naval Base with over 80 levels underground. And so, too, is San Bernardino close with terminals for underground water tunnels from Long Beach which handle submarines. Interesting? Yes, I think so.

Why would this “Business Conference” not be in Los Angeles—and WHY IS THERE NO NATIONAL ATTENTION, AT ALL, TO SUCH A GATHERING OF BIG SHOTS? WHAT DO THEY KNOW THAT YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO KNOW?

With all the incredibly nasty assaults against my people and most especially my scribe, I shall tell you AGAIN, that we are going to use that which is written elsewhere and simply bring it to your attention. Dharma and E.J., for instance, were arrested in the middle of one of our public meetings, in a place of business, for trespassing on their own easement adjacent to the house that used to be theirs before confiscation by the RTC. I cannot cause them more grief as there are still some six legal actions going on at present—two of course being XX&X. We have agreed to deduct any mention of the proper names in point to escape further “contempt” charges from the Federal Court “for” XX&X for the threat to continue such harassment is dangling over Dharma's head like a loose cannon.

We do not, however, have to deduct the name of Brookings Institute (Yet). But just in case, we shall offer the next writing by Bruce G. Blair in The New York Times, October 8, 1993. Mr. Blair is a senior fellow at the Brookings Institute and is author of The Logic of Accidental Nuclear War. I think this will also have more meaning if you REALIZE THAT TODAY THE CHERNOBYL, UKRAINE NUCLEAR PLANT WAS PLACED AGAIN INTO OPERATION—WITHOUT UPGRADING OR FURTHER SAFETY PROCEDURES.

This however deals with:

RUSSIA'S DOOMSDAY MACHINE

By: Bruce G. Blair, Brookings Institute

QUOTING:

“Washington: On Nov. 13, 1984, U.S. intelligence tracked two Soviet long-range

Russia's "Doomsday Machine"

THE NEW YORK TIMES OP-ED FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1993

missiles fired 40 minutes apart. What seemed to be an unremarkable test, however, turned out to be far from ordinary. The Soviets were exercising a secret doomsday system: a fantastic scheme in which spasms of the dead hand of the Soviet leadership would unleash a massive counter-strike after it had been wiped out by a nuclear attack.

Soviet wizards of Armageddon devised the scheme in the 1970s to prevent a sudden nuclear strike from paralyzing their arsenal. Their invention enables thousands of nuclear warheads to be launched automatically if the top nuclear commanders were killed or otherwise neutralized.

A closer look at the 1984 exercise reveals how it worked then, and indeed how it works today. [H: Good grief, is THIS MAN unaware of the dry-run nuclear mock attack on the U.S. THIS YEAR??] Yes, this doomsday machine still exists. The Russians lavish resources on its modernization to keep it on combat alert at all times. The risk of its launching weapons by accident is impossible to know, but clearly it increases in a nuclear crisis.

Russia, of course, holds no monopoly on nuclear relics of the Cold war. The United States still runs its bombers up to the North Pole on simulated nuclear strikes against Russia, and maintains a nuclear vigil with thousands of warheads ready to strike at a moment's notice. [H: I remind you ones to watch your trains—the missiles are moving about now more than ever before.] And despite the widespread belief that the Russian and U.S. military establishments cannot physically mount a nuclear attack unless they first obtain essential codes from their respective Presidents, in fact they have custody of all the codes needed to order an all-out strategic attack.

The portrait of the Soviet doomsday machine emerged in interviews with Russians who designed and operated the system and with U.S. officials who corroborated key details of their accounts. The Soviet general staff—the highest military body—activated the machine at the start of the exercise. From a simulated war room in Leningrad, it transmitted a "fail deadly" message to a special radio station in the Moscow military district. In an actual nuclear crisis today, this message would be likely to flow from the Russian general staff's underground war room in Moscow to a radio bunker 40 miles south at Chekhov.

The "fail deadly" message contains a component of the "unlock" codes held by the general staff to keep lower echelons from launching nuclear missiles without authority. By transmitting this component, the general staff activates the radio station and enables it to function autonomously in firing nuclear missiles under conditions of enemy nuclear attack. Only a small team needs to be present to carry out certain mechanical procedures; the rest of the doomsday apparatus is totally automated.

Using electronic devices that register a break in communications with the general staff and detect nuclear explosions in the vicinity, the apparatus forms an order to launch, complete with unlock codes, and transmits it through a nearby buried low-frequency radio antenna to yet another set of special complexes as far as 600 miles away. There, emergency communications rockets hidden in SS-17 silos or on mobile SS-25 launchers automatically record the launching instructions and then automatically fire themselves on trajectories that traverse all the nuclear missile fields in the former Soviet Union.

DEAD HAND ON THE NUCLEAR TRIGGER

During their 30-minute flight, they transmit signals to fire directly to the modern classes of nuclear-armed intercontinental missiles in the strategic rocket forces.

In that 1984 exercise, the radio station in the Moscow military district sent the launching order to an SS-20 communications rocket at the Kapustin Yar test site. The missile then flew automatically within radio range of distant SS-18 missiles based in Kazakhstan. From space, the SS-20 relayed the launching order to an SS-18 taking part in the exercise, which fired out of its silo on a path to a test impact area on the Kamchatka Peninsula.

In a real nuclear crisis, communications rockets, launched automatically by radio command, would relay fire orders to nuclear combat missiles in Russia, Belarus, Kazakhstan and Ukraine. The doomsday machine provides for a massive salvo of these forces without any participation by local crews. Weapons commanders in the field may be completely bypassed. Even the mobile missiles on trucks would fire automatically, triggered by commands from the communications rockets.

The existence of the doomsday machine is symptomatic of a nuclear dependency that still afflicts Russia. Other symptoms abound—for instance, the continuing construction of deep underground command posts in the Urals with hardened antennas for ordering a retaliatory strike by deeply submerged submarines. The Russians also still keep thousands of strategic warheads poised for immediate launching, and continue to play nuclear war games with Western foes in mind. During a major exercise of strategic forces several months ago, Russia fought an all-out nuclear war with the United States. [H: Ah, there it is.]

The United States has its own version of the doomsday machine, with less technical gadgetry but more distribution of launching authority. U.S. military commanders have traditionally been vested with the authority to order nuclear retaliation under conditions similar to those that trigger Russia's automatic launching—notably, loss of communications with national authorities and signs of nuclear detonations on American soil. Variants of these arrangements for nuclear "pre-delegation" existed from the 1950s and they presumably remain in effect.

For the sake of U.S.-Russian reconciliation, to set an example of responsible nuclear custodianship and to reduce the danger that a doomsday system might be set in motion by mistake, it's time to relax the combative stance of the arsenals. Arms negotiations are all well and good, but the higher priority is to eliminate the hair trigger on those arms that remain. Neither side, alas, has embraced that wisdom; both have preserved the operational stances of the cold war.

For the United States' part, new Presidential guidance is needed to bring nuclear field operations into the modern era. [H: Gosh, sounds like "modern" religious updating! By the way, in case you missed it yesterday: The Lutheran Church authorities and researchers have found that "the Bible backs up the approval of homosexuality, masturbation, adultery and prostitution"—among other "no-longer sins" and will be introduced into the doctrine. Nope, it must be so—it was on CNN!] Believe it or not, the latest Presidential policy on nuclear planning is National Security Decision Directive 13, the notorious tract on nuclear-war fighting signed by Ronald Reagan in 1981. This cold war document advanced the preposterous and dangerous premise that it was possible to fight and win a protracted nuclear war. It is an absurd basis for current planning. [H: It is equally preposterous, however, to believe that all HAVE TO DIE IN SUCH A WAR. GET PREPARED!]

New guidance should de-emphasize the importance of nuclear weapons, strengthen safeguards on weapons and revoke any "pre-delegation" to launch a nuclear strike without the explicit permission of civilian leaders. [H: Out of your mind? They (this author) is certainly out of his.] It should slash the number of targets in the strategic war plan and reject faddish and misguided notions like forming a nuclear expeditionary force aimed at China and the Third World. [H: Whose side do you suppose this author is on?] The guidance should also lay the groundwork for taking all nuclear forces off alert and separating warheads from their delivery systems.

Even with international cooperation, dismantling the doomsday systems will take more than a stroke from a President's pen. Domestic politics involving civil-military relations would be deeply engaged on both the Russian and American sides. But the end of the cold war encourages greater determination to become something more than cogs in the nuclear machinery. It is time to be its master, not its minion."

END QUOTING

Sound good to you? Well, the Brookings Institute is the top mind-control branch of the Tavistock Institute of the Committee of 300—so, good luck, Amerika.

The next comes from a research report and directly from Youth Action News, by C.B. Baker, P.O. Box 312, Alexandria, Virginia 22313, September 1993. (See page 41 for order form.) I won't utilize much of the information presented but you need confirmation on some of the things we have recently featured in the paper. The last report from Youth Action News covered a lot of information on The New Soviet Threat & E.L.F. Zapping. This is an EXCELLENT resource for information, readers, and I do ask that you support this man and that publication.

I will begin by simply offering the message on an inclosed slip within the document.

"America has just experienced its worst floods in recorded history. [H: Worse yet, you homeowners and landowners who THOUGHT you owned property along the flooded rivers—ALL THAT AREA HAS BEEN DECLARED WETLANDS AND REVERTS TO THE U.S. GOVERNMENT—NOW! LAND GRAB OF GREAT MAGNITUDE? ONLY SURPASSED BY THE RTC, MY FRIENDS—ALONG, OF COURSE, WITH THE RAILROADS.] Some areas of the Mississippi Valley experienced months of continuous rains. Many residents have been hit with repeat flooding—two, even three times this year. [H: Not to mention the fields which did NOT flood but now that it is harvest time—the aquifers have such overload that the fields are flooded from the underground UP—it produces the same results, readers, LOSS OF ALL CROPS!]

After long research, we discovered that the specific weather-patterns that generated the flood were identical to weatherwar patterns that have been repeatedly engineered over the last 17 YEARS by Soviet-Russian electromagnetic transmitters.

1993's Great Midwest Flood was the direct result of a very long-lasting weather-blocking system and an altered jet stream path—two of the proven results of Extreme Low Frequency (ELF) WOODPECKER TRANSMISSION.

WE ALSO UNCOVERED SHOCKING FACTS ABOUT THE HIDDEN FUNCTIONS OF THE GROUND WAVE EMERGENCY NETWORK (GWEN), WHICH EXPLAIN WHY IT IS BEING EXPANDED BY BILL CLINTON AT THE SAME TIME THAT HE IS SCUTTling MOST U.S. STRATEGIC DEFENSES. There is strong evidence that some working GWEN units, in the Midwest flood area, actually INCREASED THE LEVELS OF CONSTANT PRECIPITATION.

The Clinton Administration is exploiting the flood, that it helped to engineer, as a convenient excuse to justify A WHOPPING EXPANSION OF LANDS SUBJECT TO FEDERAL WETLANDS POLICY. The President is now preparing for a Marxist-style Federal land grab of millions of acres of private property. Across the Mississippi Valley, many levees will NOT be rebuilt, other levees will be TORN DOWN and WHOLE TOWNS AND MANY FARMS WILL BE RETURNED TO SWAMPLAND. [H: It is already DONE, readers—see my comment above.]

Ok, let us move right along with Mr. Baker's overview regarding:

WEATHERWAR DELUGE OVER AMERICA

There is powerful evidence that the Great Flood of 1993 was the result of secret, joint weather-engineering conducted by the Russian and U.S. Governments. The Clinton Administration is utilizing the deluge to take over many farms and private land, via a massive expansion of areas subject to Federal wetlands control.

GREAT MIDWEST FLOOD HAD STRANGE AND UNUSUAL CHARACTERISTICS

The Midwest deluge had anomalous characteristics that were similar to many previous weatherWAR operations. "Across the Midwest cornbelt, it has rained in Biblical proportions—49 straight days, often in 'torrents', (7/18/93 New York Times). "We've got flooding where we haven't seen much before," said Larry Black, a hydrologist for the National Weather Service." (7/25/93 New York Times).

The 7/6/93 New York Times reported that S.K. Nanda, chief hydrologist in the Army's Corps of Engineers at Rock Island, ILL., said that SUCH MAMMOTH LEVELS OF FLOODING HAVE "NEVER BEEN SEEN IN JULY." Almost all of the rain storms were carefully directed AWAY from flood-control storage basins.

"Beginning on June 11, a foot of rain fell in southern Minnesota and lesser amounts fell in northern Iowa. Four days later, 11 more inches fell in roughly the same area. Both storms also moved east and dumped near-record levels of rain on Wisconsin. Most of the water found its way to the Minnesota River, a Mississippi tributary southwest of St. Paul, but NOT in any place where the Government had built storage reservoirs. On the east side of the Mississippi, the same sequence occurred in Wisconsin, on the Black River and the Wisconsin River." June, 1993 "became the WETTEST IN THIS REGION SINCE RECORD-KEEPING BEGAN IN 1876."

"THE CREST OF THE MIGHTY FLOOD WAS PROBABLY THE WORST TO EVER WASH OVER THE U.S.A." (8/10/93 New York Times)

In July, 1993, "Satellite pictures found so much water covering the Midwest that the region resembled a sixth Great Lake. Since June, 421 of the 791 counties in the nine-state flood zone have been declared Federal disaster areas." Severe rainstorms continued to pelt the area through September.

LONG-LASTING BLOCKING SYSTEMS AND ALTERED JET STREAMS ARE TYPICAL WOODPECKER E.L.F. EFFECTS

On July 4, 1976, the Soviet Union began generating powerful electromagnetic transmissions, that were dubbed "The Russian Woodpecker" by Western ham radio operators. These transmitters are based upon the original design of the great scientist, Nikola Tesla. The Russian signals are primarily pulsed at the very dangerous 10 Hertz Extreme Low Frequency (ELF).

The Woodpecker system is used to wage weatherwar against America. The Tesla transmitters create giant standing ELF waves, that have repeatedly formed huge blocking-systems that alter the path of the high altitude jet stream and dam up the normal flow of weather fronts. The Soviet ELF transmitters have been able to create droughts that lasted for months and even years, as well as generate devastating floods.

Press reports on the causes of 1993's Great Midwest Flood, repeatedly described factors that were identical to the previous, 17 year history of Woodpecker weatherWAR actions.

"Few may know why the area has been plagued with so much rain. The middle and upper parts of the Mississippi Valley have been in what metrologists call "A Blocking Pattern", though they do NOT know why it occurs. While weather systems usually move regularly from west to east across the United States, most weather systems in the last few months have stalled over the upper Midwest, said Fred Gadomski, a meteorologist at Pennsylvania State University, (7/4/93 New York Times).

"For five weeks a high-pressure system over the eastern part of the country has been pumping warm moist air from the Gulf of Mexico and dumping thunderstorms over the Midwest, where it meets the jet stream. The rain line 'is just sagging back and forth between Interstate 70 and 80,' said Bill Dieffenbach of the Missouri Conservation Department." An annotated map of the flood area stated: "AN UNUSUAL SHIFT IN THE JET STREAM, ACTING AS A BARRIER TO A COLD FRONT, HAS BROUGHT 150% TO 200% MORE RAIN THAN NORMAL TO THE REGION" (7/26/93 NEWSWEEK Magazine).

A weather pattern "has been locked in place for at least six weeks, causing mammoth floods in the Midwest, and parched conditions along the East Coast. The stagnant high-pressure zone has also acted like a barrier, preventing the normal flow of weather patterns from west to east across the country. Winds, circulating clockwise around the high-pressure dome, have brought moisture from the Gulf of Mexico into the Midwest, feeding the storms there that have brought three times the normal rainfall to the region. The dome has also blocked the path of cold Canadian winds, bringing record low temperatures to the Northwest." (7/29/93 New York Times)

Enough—I suggest you get this fine publication for Baker goes on to discuss the Tesla system, etc. Yes, he is correct and backs up all his information, readers. We have run information for ordering prior to this but I request that the staff please re-run that information. (Youth Action News, by C.B. Baker, P.O. Box 312, Alexandria, Virginia 22313).

Since we have recently written about those GWEN towers I would like to share one more tid-bit with you from Mr. Baker's presentation:

GWEN TOWERS AND THE GREAT FLOOD OF 1993

Depending upon the specific local geological formations, the continuous signals of the GWEN antenna are clearly capable of altering the magnetic field within a 200 to 250 mile radius of certain units. As documented, alterations of the earth's magnetic field can strongly influence precipitation.

The 11/89 BULLETIN OF THE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS listed some of the GWEN tower locations. Of extreme significance were GWEN units directly in the middle of the high rainfall area. Although not all towers are completed, some of these units were on line and functioning when the Russian Woodpecker system altered the jet stream and set up the long lasting weather-blocks of 1993. Some operating and planned GWEN unit locations are at: Mechanicsville, Iowa; Ledyard, Iowa; Chelsea, Wisconsin; Shephard, Minnesota; Curryville and Dudley, Missouri; Whitney, Nebraska and other units in Colorado and Montana, whose range could influence the magnetic fields in neighboring states. A total of ten GWEN units (including currently operating and planned) are in the Midwest. [H: And—the numbers given are LIES as there are numerous ones under constructions and already in operation which have never been included in the listings.]

The existence of working GWEN units inside the area targeted by the Russian Woodpecker weatherWAR transmitters, greatly enhanced and helped to maintain (by altering certain local magnetic fields), the constant precipitation levels inside the Upper Mississippi Valley. Thus, U.S. Government GWEN units made a significant contribution to creating the Great Flood of 1993.

By the way, U.S.-Soviet Joint weather-manipulation has been ONGOING since 1971. Good luck, Amerika.

So as not to let you slip into confusion regarding players in this game—we shall continue with some old "new" information brought to my attention by Brent. AGAIN, we are at a loss as to source because all information has been REMOVED with the exception of one or two references which do not represent original source. I will honor the request for "privacy" because, yes indeed, we understand the position of ones who so much as share with us. Thank you for being daring enough to send it. I salute you for you will be ultimately amazed at WHO is in protecting of your persons.

Slavery American Style

the Sovereign to do as he or she wished; the expression "God save the King" means, "[The power and authority of] God exempts the King from having to obey the laws of the land." Now, this is all fine and dandy IF you happen to be the Sovereign; but everyone else soon discovered that justice was not always present in the decisions of the Sovereign. And since the Sovereign was ABOVE THE LAW, the people had to accept those decisions whether they liked them or not.

Then, in 1776, something unique happened: certain independent-thinking men, whom we now call our Founding Fathers, developed the concept of Sovereignty being located in the INDIVIDUAL HUMAN BEING, having been put there by "the Laws of Nature and Nature's God". This established the principle of individual Sovereignty being equal to all other Sovereigns; this nullified the "Divine Right of Kings", in which all the power and authority was embodied in one person, leaving everyone else with none.

Under this idea of Individual Sovereignty, all Free Human Beings are SOVEREIGNS WITHOUT SUBJECTS. All Free Human Beings have certain Unalienable (ABSOLUTE) Rights which make them EQUAL BEFORE THE LAWS OF MANKIND; and these Unalienable Rights cannot be given away, bartered away, nor taken away under law except as punishment for a crime after conviction by due process of law.

The ownership by each of us of these Unalienable Rights involves the recognition that other Free Human Beings UNDER THE LAWS OF NATURE AND NATURE'S GOD are also owners of those same Rights; it would be self-contradictory to claim something for ourselves and deny it to those equal to us under the law. The general statement of what constituted those Unalienable Rights was given to the world in our Declaration of Independence: the Unalienable Rights to Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.

Fundamentally speaking, Liberty and its opposite, Slavery, must be considered from the economic point of view and to understand one, you must understand the other. Let's start with the concept of slavery.

Slavery is defined as the coercion or control of the services of one person for the benefit of others; there are many incidences and badges of slavery. Economically, the slave owner exercises coercion and/or control over the productivity of the slave, thus controlling the fruits of his (the slave's) labor. The slave owner determines what activities the slave will perform, and those activities must be of benefit to the slave owner; only minimal consideration is given to the slave's well-being. After all, too much money invested in the slave would decrease the profits of the slave owner, and that would never do! Thus, we see that the fruits of the slave's labor are used, not to benefit the slave, but to benefit SOMEONE ELSE.

By contrast, the Free Human Being determines for himself his productivity. He controls the use of his body, what agreements or contracts he chooses to enter, and, most important, THE FREE HUMAN BEING CONTROLS THE BENEFICIAL USE AND ENJOYMENT OF THE FRUITS OF HIS LABOR, a critical focus of this Handbook. To be specific, among others, the Free Human Being has the Unalienable Rights to the following.

- * The Unalienable Right to the Liberty of Contract;
- * The Unalienable Right to earn a Livelihood;
- * The Unalienable Right to enjoy the fruits of one's labor.
- * The Unalienable Right to the ownership, control, beneficial use and enjoyment of Private Property.

Thus, the well-being (known as "happiness" in the Declaration of Independence) of the Free Human Being is determined by the Free Human Being AND NO ONE ELSE; recognition that the responsibility for his own welfare rests with him AND NO ONE ELSE is fundamental and essential.

When our Founding Fathers ordained and established our systems of government, they recognized that it is the nature of rulers, regardless of time, place, or title, to want to expand their power and control. Therefore, the new systems of government were designed with clear and distinct limitations upon its powers and upon those who served within it. Our Forefathers knew all too well that FOR EACH ADVANCE OF GOVERNMENTAL POWER THERE WOULD BE A RETREAT OF PERSONAL FREEDOMS; and since the securing of Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness are "what it's all about", GOVERNMENT MUST BE CONTROLLED AND LIMITED IN ITS EXERCISE OF POWER. And that's exactly what they accomplished with the ratification of the Constitution for the United States of America.

Since that time, things have indeed changed. Various forces have conspired to accomplish exactly what our systems of government were designed to prevent: the expansion of the exercise of governmental powers at the expense of personal freedoms, to the point where economic slavery is essentially universal in the so-called "Land of the Free". We can no longer consider ourselves the Free Human Beings we were intended to be under the Laws of Nature and Nature's God.

The intent of this Handbook is to help you, the reader, to decide for yourself whether our assertion is in fact true that "slavery, American style, does exist in America today". Further on in this Handbook, a series of questions will be presented to help you clarify the issues in your own mind; and you may find you don't like the answers. Then you will be faced with a choice: whether to choose freedom for yourself and your posterity, or remain in ignorance and slavery..... - -

Oh, would that it be as simple a choice as the last sentence above indicates. However, if you know not Truth then you have NO CHANCE AT ALL. I suggest you get the booklet.

THE HIDDEN TYRANNY THE ISSUE THAT DWARFS ALL OTHER ISSUES

(Interview with: HAROLD WALLACE ROSENTHAL)

It says here that this "is the most sensational manuscript of its kind". I don't know about that but it is very eye-opening. We have run this information in the JOURNALS past but since it has been re-focused and even our own people had forgotten, and since it deals with the recent subject of ZOG, it should be offered again for it is FIRST HAND—not gossip or hearsay.

COPY:

Editor's Note: Rosenthal was killed in 1976. He was so dangerous to his own that he was murdered for these revelations.

In a highly confidential interview with a Jewish administrative assistant to one of this nation's ranking senators, he said, "It is a marvel that the American people do not rise up and drive every Jew out of this country."

THE JEW, MR. HAROLD WALLACE ROSENTHAL, MADE THIS STATEMENT after admitting the Jewish dominance in all significant national programs. He said, "We Jews continue to be amazed with the ease by which Christian Americans have fallen into our hands. While the native Americans wait for Khrushchev to bury them, we have taught them to submit to our EVERY DEMAND."

Asked how a nation could be captured without their knowing it, Mr. Rosenthal attributed this victory to absolute control of the media. He boasted of Jewish control of all news. Any newspaper which refused to acquiesce to controlled news was brought to its knees by withdrawing advertising. Failing in this, the Jews stop the supply of news print and ink. "It's a very simple matter," he stated.

Asked about men in high political office, Mr. Rosenthal said that no one in the last three decades has achieved any political power without Jewish approval. "Americans have not had a presidential choice since 1932. Roosevelt was our man; every president since Roosevelt has been our man."

In a discussion about George Wallace, Mr. Rosenthal smiled and suggested that we note where Wallace stands today. [It appears this interview took place sometime in 1976.]

When the U.S. foreign policy was mentioned, the bedroom confidence of the interview was all but set aside. With disdain and mockery he sneered at the American stupidity in failing to see through the entire scope of KISSINGER foreign policy. "It is Zionist-Communist policy from beginning to end. Yet the citizens think this Jewish policy will benefit America." He cited 'detente' and Angola as examples of Jewish diplomacy. The credulous nature of Americans drew only contempt from him.

The interview continued on an almost omniscient plane. "We Jews have put issue upon issue to the American people. Then we promote both sides of the issue as confusion reigns. With their eyes fixed on the issues, they fail to see who is behind every scene. We Jews toy with the American public as a cat toys with a mouse."

As the conversation went on into the late hours, one could sense that perhaps America deserves the reign of terror being planned for her. The Jewish mind pits every ethnic group against the other. "The blood of the masses will flow as we wait for our day of world victory," Mr. Rosenthal said coldly.

For hours after this incredible discussion, a sense of inadequacy prevailed. Is it possible that another group of 'human beings' could be so treacherous in spirit, so evil in intent? Yet, the words heard and the evidence at hand are real. Is it possible that the American people can remain docile, even while their life's blood is being drained from them? It seems so.

WHAT DOES THIS SAY TO US?

Since what you have just read plus the lengthy interview that followed, Mr. Harold Wallace Rosenthal, age 29, the administrative assistant to Senator Jacob K. Javits of New York, was killed in an alleged sky-jacking attempt on an Israeli airliner in Istanbul, Turkey, August 12, 1976. [H: Don't be squeamish, readers, at the time it WAS THE TALK OF THE NATION.]

It would appear that Mr. Rosenthal might have 'talked too freely' because, although four people were killed and some 30 injured during the sky-jacking attempt, Rosenthal was not killed by a random bullet as were the others. From reports secured at the time, it seems amazing and strange that of all the people involved in this incident Mr. Rosenthal should have been fatally wounded. It tends to simply confirm the truth of this sensational interview. A small portion of this interview was published in the 1976 August edition of The Battle Axe, although our interview and theirs are not related.

We had no desire to hurt anyone and especially members of the Rosenthal family who had suffered enough in this tragedy. We corresponded with his mother and father in Philadelphia and his brother Mark David Rosenthal who is attending college in Northern California. In fact, it was he who advised me that Harold's friends in Washington had set up a memorial fund in Harold W. Rosenthal's name. He sent us a copy of The Harold W. Rosenthal Fellowship in International Relations American Jewish Committee, Washington Chapter, 818—

18th Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20006. It lists some of the 'who's-who' and the honorary Co-Chairmen are Vice President Walter F. Mondale and Senator Jacob K. Javits.

Out of respect, we decided to wait until a year had passed since the death of Harold Wallace Rosenthal so we delayed publishing everything he gave us on that memorable day and evening. And as stated before, the interview was lengthy—as he seemed to enjoy pouring out this information—and at times it was broken—and went on into the evening.

This writer and editor is not easily shocked but as this egotist Harold W. Rosenthal raved on and on I found so much of what he said actually horrifying—the actual betrayal of which he admittedly was a part—and he appeared to gloat over the apparent success of a Jewish World Conspiracy. This, mind you, comes from an "administrative assistant" to one of our ranking Senators, Jacob K. Javits of New York.

What you are about to read should act as a WARNING to all non-Jews throughout the world. [H: Also to all of you who THINK you are "Jews" but ARE NOT in the definition as now applied liberally to Khazarian Zionists.] It hopefully should open the eyes of many who knew him in Washington government circles.

It becomes indeed obvious that what he discloses is not fiction. It is not imagination! He was not pretending—as he spoke with knowledge and intelligence. Many things have been said and written about the One World Jewish Conspiracy but never has it been described so openly. It staggers the imagination. Their plans are shocking and many will be astonished at the contents of this document. NOTHING like it has ever been told before.

We prefer not to elaborate. You be the judge.

Looking back to the time of this interview and having had time to analyze Harold Rosenthal's candidness, we are compelled to think of him as a conceited, boastful yet very knowledgeable person. I would classify him as an egotist and an egoist. At times his cruelty surfaced with a venom, especially as he describes the stupid Christians or "goys" as he so often referred to us. This surprised me because the word "goy" is not in our language and he must have known this. His mind was thoroughly immersed in the one-world plan of world Jewry. With arrogance, he boasted that the Jew's conquest of the world was almost complete—thanks to Christianity stupidity.

When asked if he was a "Zionist" Mr. R. replied:

"That's a hell of a question! At the foundation of the issue is the traditional Zionist concept of aliyah, a Hebrew term meaning the "in gathering" or return of Diaspora (dispersed Jews) Jews to the Palestine homeland. Ever since 1948 and the creation of the state of Israel, aliyah has become a basic imperative of Israeli Government policy."

What is aliyah? Will you please spell it for me—where-in he did and we inquired as to the realistic meaning of aliyah. Mr. R. said:

"It is a permanent physical migration to Palestine, not just a visit."

We asked, what is Zionism? I've heard Jews define it as anything from permanent migration to financial and spiritual support of Israel from around the world. Mr. R. replied:

"Our first leader, former Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion said that Zionism without a 'return to Zion' is phony. Not many American Jews migrate permanently to Israel. Some say that all Jews, by definition, are Zionists. Others say that a Jew is not a Zionist unless he's a member who pays dues to an actively Zionist organization. Definitions have been tossed everywhere since the Jewish homeland became a reality." [H: Perhaps since so many "Jews" would not wish to leave good old U.S.A. is WHY Mr. Alan Dershowitz proclaims the U.S.A. to be the "NEW ISRAEL" HOMELAND!]

Millions of tax-exempt American dollars are sent to Israel yearly and we true Americans do not like this. Mr. R. replied:

"The naive politicians in Washington are gullible. Most of them are not too bright so the powerful Jewish lobbyists influenced this practice years ago and there is no one strong enough to stop it. Some of that money is even returned to the United States and spent on Zionist propaganda efforts, much of it through the B'nai B'rith and the Conference of Jewish Organizations and the World Jewish Congress. The Jewish Agency is a funding arm—a sort of body of B'nai B'rith officials. There is nothing wrong with sending American dollars to Israel tax-free so long as we are smart enough to get away with it. Let's reverse this conversation for a minute. You made it clear and quite vociferously, that you don't like Jews. Why do you hate us?" [H: Don't get distracted—remember—this was just before August, 1976—nearly two decades ago—so much of this will be so outdated that, that in itself, will shock your sleepy eyes.]

Mr. Rosenthal, I do not hate anybody. I said I hate what the Jews are doing to us and especially as it relates to any and everything related to Christianity. I hate the deceit, trickery, cunning, and the detestable dishonesty. Does that make me anti-semitic? If it does then I am anti-semitic!!

"Anti-Semitism does not signify opposition to Semitism. There is no such thing. It is an expression we Jews use effectively as a smearword—used to brand as a bigot like you guys—anyone who brings criticism against Jews. We use it against hate-mongers."

It was made clear that I despised the Jews' corruptive influence on our Christian culture—and on our properly Christ-oriented American way of life to which Mr. R. said:

"During Christ's time, the Jews were seeking a material and Earthly kingdom but Christ offered the Jews a spiritual kingdom. This, they couldn't buy, so they rejected Jesus Christ and had him crucified."

What to do you mean—"had him crucified"? Doesn't history show that the Jews crucified Jesus Christ? To which he answered:

"Yes, I guess they did. I don't beat around the bush—but 2,000 years ago your people would have done the same thing to a man who mistreated them as Christ did the Jews." [H: YOU STILL DO THE SAME THING EVEN IF NOT MISTREATED.]

You speak of Jesus Christ as merely a man.

"That's all he was—a man who walked on the Earth like any other man and this myth about Christ rising from the dead and returning to Earth to visit with his disciples is a bunch of crap. The Jews who drove the Arabs out of Palestine did so to disprove Christ's mission for a spiritual kingdom. You see, instead of a leader who would make an empire for the Jews, your kind of people gave the Jews a peaceful preacher called Christ who instead of an eye-for-an-eye turns the other cheek. Rubbish! We are building and, in fact, have built an Earthly empire without your kind and your disappointing Messiah."

I can see that it is you and your kind who try to get Christ out of Christmas. I feel sorry for you. To which he quickly replied:

"Don't give me that s... I don't want your pity. I don't need it! Too many Jews do not have the guts to tell you how we live and plan, but I am not intimidated by anyone or anything. I know where I'm going."

When asked why do Jews frequently change their names he said:

"Jews are the most intelligent people in the world so if it benefits them to change their names they do so. That's all there is to it. They mix in your society which is plenty corrupt—so while the Jews are benefiting themselves the dumb goy doesn't realize that these Jews with non-Jew names are Jews. I know what you're thinking—about Jews in the government who use non-Jew names. Well, don't be concerned because in the foreseeable future there will be no Presidential power in the United States. THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT IS TAKING STRENGTH IN

THAT DIRECTION."

To your knowledge, are the Jews in Russia really persecuted or are they given any kind of freedom? To which he said:

"Most Jews throughout the world—I'd say more than 90%—know what is really happening to our people. We have communication unequaled anywhere. It is only the jerks, the ignorant and misinformed and degenerates who can find peace in your society—and you bastards hide your sins by donning sheep's clothing. You are the hypocrites—not the Jews, as you say and write about. To answer your question—in Russia, there are two governments—one visible and the other invisible. The visible is made up of different nationalities—whereas the invisible is composed of ALL JEWS. The powerful Soviet secret police takes its orders from the invisible government."

"There are about six to seven million Communists in Soviet Russia. 50% are Jews and about 50% gentile—but the gentiles are not trusted. The Communist Jews are united and trust each other—while the others spy on one another. About every five or six years the secret Jewish Board calls for the purge of the Party and many are liquidated."

When asked—why? he said:

"Because they begin to understand too much the Jewish secret of government. Russian Communists have a Secret Group Order which consists of Jews only. They rule over everything pertaining to the visible government. It was this powerful organization that was responsible for the secret removal of the center of Communism TO TEL AVIV from where all instructions now originate."

Does our government and the United Nations have knowledge of this? He replied:

"The United Nations is nothing but a trap-door to the Red World's immense concentration camp. We pretty much control the U.N."

When asked why the Communists destroy the middle class or educated and their entire families when they invade a country, Mr. R. replied:

"It is an established rule to destroy all members of pre-existing government, their families and relatives but NEVER JEWS. They destroy all members of the police, state police, army officers and their families but NEVER JEWS. You see, we know when a government begins to search for the Communists within its borders—they are really attempting to uncover Jews in their area. We're not fooled! The invisible rulers in the Communist countries have a world control over the propaganda and the governments in free countries. We control every media of expression including newspapers, magazines, radio and television. Even your music! We censor the songs released for publication long before they reach the publishers. Before long we will have complete control of your thinking."

The way you boast—if this is true—it is frightening to think about our future—and that of Christianity—to which Mr. R. said:

"There will be a forced class-warfare here in the United States and many will be liquidated. You will unquestionably be among them. The Jews will not be harmed. I'm not boasting! I'm giving you the facts! And it is too late for your Christian followers to put up a defense. That time is long past. Long, long ago we HAD to become the aggressors!! That is undoubtedly one of the GREAT PURPOSES in life. WE are the aggressors!! Because you stole your pretended religious beliefs from our Talmud." [H: Wow, Dharma is suddenly very relieved that we are not typical "Christians" of the shepherd variety—doesn't look too good for you evangelists who actually believe what they say.]

After reminding him that we thought he was intelligent but now realize that he doesn't know what he was talking about he replied:

"Judaism is the unequaled culture—with nothing, nothing anywhere in the world to compare with it. Your so-called Christianity is an outgrowth of Judaism. The cultural and intellectual influence of Judaism is felt throughout the world—yes, throughout civilization."

Asked whether he thought we faced a problem eventually with the Blacks because of their startling population increase he said that the Blacks are helping to SERVE 'OUR PURPOSE' which might mean several things.

We discussed the Black invasion of city, county and state jobs and their prominence now in television. Also how ridiculous it is for Blacks to become converted to Jews—like Sammy Davis for instance. Mr. R. replied:

"That doesn't mean anything. We know that a Black cannot become a Jew and that Sammy Davis is still Black. It may have been to his advantage to become converted. In reality he still remains a nigger and not a Jew."

I told him of my in-depth study of the Jews and that there were few who have done more research on world Jewry than I—and about my unpleasant discoveries—reminding Mr. R. that there is no morality among Jews. He replied:

"Money is more important than morality. We can accomplish anything with money. Our people are proving that in Israel where its strength against attack is its permanent state of war readiness. Israel can now win in any encounter. The kibbutz-raised intellectual elements are going to build that small country into a mid-east wonderland. It will also eventually be the base for World Government Headquarters."

CONTINUATION OF INTERVIEW WITH HAROLD WALLACE
ROSENTHAL:

Taking up immediately where we left off:
WATERGATE AND CORRUPTION

We discussed the tragedy of Watergate and corruption at all levels of government and suggested that government representatives practice more openness and candor in dealing with the people. Mr. R. said:

"What good would it do? What the hell does the public know about the running of government? The great majority are asses—horse's asses!!"

May we quote you on that?

"I don't care what you do—as I said, few have the guts to speak out. We would all have better understanding between each other—Jews and gentiles—if we spoke out more openly. Your people don't have guts. We establish your thinking—we even place within you a 'guilt complex' making you afraid to criticize Jewry openly."

In the quietness of this enlightening conversation it became clear that the understanding poured forth did not come from a novice. Mr. Rosenthal was asked how Jews gain acceptance so easily among other races. His answer was long and thorough.

"At a very early date, urged on by the desire to make our way in the world, Jews began to look for a means whereby we might distract all attention from the racial aspect. What could be more effective, and at the same time more above suspicion, than to borrow and utilize the idea of a religious community? We've been forced to borrow this idea from the Aryans. We Jews never possessed any religious institution which developed out of our own consciousness, for we lack any kind of idealism. This means that a belief in life beyond this terrestrial existence is foreign to us. As a matter of fact, the Talmud does not lay down principles with which to prepare the individual for a life to come, but furnishes only rules for a sumptuous life in this world. It is a collection of instructions for maintaining the Jewish race and regulating intercourses between us and the goy. Our teachings are not concerned with moral problems, but rather with how to 'get'.

"In regard to the moral value of the Jews' religious teaching, there exist quite exhaustive studies which show the kind of religion that we have in a light that makes it look uncanny to the Aryan mind. We are the best example of the kind of product which religious training evolves. Our life is of this world only and our mentality is as foreign to the true spirit of Christianity as our character was to the Founder of this new creed 2,000 years ago. The Founder of Christianity made no secret of his estimation of the Jews and the fact that he was not one of us. When he found it necessary he drove us out of the temple of God, because then, as always, we used religion as a means of advancing our commercial interest.

"But at that time, we managed to nail Jesus to the cross for his attitude towards us; whereas the modern Christians enter into party politics and, in order to win elections, they debase themselves by begging for Jewish votes. They even enter into political intrigues with us against the interests of their own nation.

"We can live among other nations and states only as long as we succeed in persuading them that the Jews are not a distinct people, but are the representatives of a religious faith who, therefore, constitute a 'religious community', though this be of a peculiar character. As a matter of fact, this is the greatest of our falsehoods.

"We are obliged to conceal our own particular character and mode of life so that we will be allowed to continue our existence as a parasite among the nations. Our success in this line has gone so far that many believe that the Jews among them are genuine Frenchmen, or Englishmen, or Italians, or Germans who just happen to belong to a religious denomination which is different from that prevailing in these countries. Especially in circles concerned with government, where the officials have only a minimum of historical sense, we are able to impose our infamous deception with comparative ease. Therefore, there is never the slightest suspicion that we Jews form a distinct nation and are not merely the adherents of a 'confession', though one glance at the press which we control ought to furnish sufficient evidence to the contrary, even for those who possess only the smallest degree of intelligence."

When questioned about the ways in which the Jews have gained power, Mr. Rosenthal said:

"Our power has been created through the manipulation of the national monetary system. We authored the quotation, 'Money is Power'. As revealed in our master plan, it was essential for us to establish a private national bank. The Federal Reserve system fitted our plan nicely since it is owned by us, but the name implies that it is a government institution. From the very outset, our purpose was to confiscate all the gold and silver, replacing them with worthless non-redeemable paper notes. This we have done!" [H: First rule of the PROTOCOLS is to get control of the wealth (Gold) and as Rothschild said, "If you control the money of any people—you control the people," or something similar. As a matter of fact—"they" have accomplished just about every last thing the PROTOCOLS suggested.]

Asked about the term 'non-redeemable notes', Mr. Rosenthal replied:

"Prior to 1968, the gullible goy could take a one dollar Federal Reserve note into any bank in America and redeem it for a dollar which was by law a coin containing 412 1/2 grains of 90 per cent silver. Up until 1933, one could have redeemed the same note for a coin of 25 4/5ths grains of 90 per cent gold. However, since 1968 the dollar Federal Reserve note is not redeemable. All we do is give the goy more non-redeemable notes, or else copper slugs. But we never give them their gold and silver. Only more paper," he said contemptuously. "We Jews have prospered through the paper gimmick. It's our method through which we take money and give only paper in return."

Can you give me an example of this we asked?

"The examples are numerous, but a few readily apparent are the stocks and bonds market, all forms of insurance and the fractional reserve system practiced by the Federal Reserve Corporation, not to mention the billions in gold and silver that we have gained in exchange for paper notes, stupidly called money. Money power was essential in carrying out our master plan of international conquest through propaganda."

Asked how they proposed doing this, he said, "At first, by controlling the banking system we were able to control corporation capital. Through this, we acquired total monopoly of the movie industry, the radio networks and the newly developing television media. The printing industry, newspapers, periodicals and technical journals had already fallen into our hands. The richest plum was later to come when we took over the publication OF ALL SCHOOL MATERIALS. Through these vehicles we could mold public opinion to suit our own purposes. The people are only stupid pigs that grunt and squeal the chants we give them, whether they be truth or lies."

Asked if the Jews felt any threat from the 'silent majority', he laughed at the idea, saying, "There is no such thing as the silent majority because we control their cry and hue. The only thing that exists is an unthinking majority and unthinking they will remain, as long as their escape from our rigorous service is the opiate of our entertainment industry. By controlling industry, we have become the task masters and the people the slaves. When the pressure of daily toil builds to an explosive degree, we have provided the safety valve of momentary pleasure. The television and movie industries furnish the necessary temporary distraction. These programs are carefully designed to appeal to the sensuous emotions, never to the logical thinking mind. Because of this, the people are programmed to respond according to our dictates, not according to reason. Silent they never are; unthinking they will remain."

Continuing his thought of Jewish control over the goy, Mr. R. said: "We have castrated society through fear and intimidation. Its manhood exists only in combination with a feminine outward appearance. Being so neutered, the populace has become docile and easily ruled. As all geldings in nature, their thoughts are not involved with the concerns of the future and their posterity, but only with the present toil and the next meal."

It was obvious that the excitement of Mr. Rosenthal was triggered when mention was made of the nation's industry. "We have been successful in dividing society against itself by pitting labor against management. This perhaps has been one of our greatest feats, since in reality it is a triangle, though only two points ever seem to occur. In modern industry where exists capital, which force we represent, at the apex. Both management and labor are on the base of this triangle. They continually stand opposed to each other and their attention is never directed to the head of their problem. Management is forced to raise prices since we are ever increasing the cost of capital. Labor must have increasing wages and management must have higher prices, thus creating a vicious cycle. We are never called to task for our role which is the real reason for inflation, since the conflict between management and labor is so severe that neither has time to observe our activities. It is our increase in the cost of capital that causes the inflation cycle. We do not labor or manage, and yet we receive the profits. Through our money manipulation, the capital that we supply industry costs us nothing. Through our national bank, the Federal Reserve, we extend book credit, which we create from nothing, to all local banks who are member banks. They in turn extend book credit to industry. Thus, we do more than God, for all of our wealth is created from nothing. You look shocked! Don't be! It's true, we actually do more than God. With this supposed capital we bring industry, management and labor into our debt, which debt only increases and is never liquidated. Through this continual increase, we are able to pit management against labor so they will never unite and attack us and usher in a debt-free industrial utopia.

"We are the necessary element since we expend nothing. Management can create its own capital and keep the cream—the profits. Its business would grow and profits increase. Labor would prosper as well, while the price of the product would remain constant, the prosperity of industry, labor and management would continually increase. We Jews glory in the fact that the stupid goy have never realized that we are the parasites consuming an increasing portion of production while the producers are continually receiving less and less."

As the hours rolled on in this intense, but cordial, interview, Mr. R. exposed his thoughts concerning religion.

"Religion, too, must be taught, and through this necessity we have labored. With our control of the text book industry and the news media, we have been able to hold ourselves up as the authorities on religion. Many of our rabbis now hold professorships in supposed Christian theological seminaries. We are amazed by the Christians' stupidity in receiving our teachings and propagating them as their own. Judaism is not only the teaching of the synagogue, but also the doctrine of every 'Christian Church' in America. Through our propaganda the Church has become OUR MOST AVID SUPPORTER. THIS HAS EVEN GIVEN US A SPECIAL PLACE IN SOCIETY, THEIR BELIEVING THE LIE THAT WE ARE THE 'CHOSEN PEOPLE' AND THEY, GENTILES.

"These deluded children of the Church defend us to the point of destroying their own culture. This truth is evident even to the dullard when one views history and sees that all wars have been white fighting white in order that we maintain our control. We controlled England during the Revolutionary War, the North during the Civil War and England and America during World War I and II. Through our influence of religion we were able to involve the ignorant white Christians in wars against themselves which always impoverished both sides while we reaped a financial and political harvest. Anytime truth comes forth which exposes us, we simply rally our forces—the ignorant Christian. They attack the crusaders even if they are members of their own families. [H: How many politicians out of Washington or the big corporations lose loved ones to the POW/MIA camps? And of those who might fall—are somehow extracted without harm, etc? You had better start looking at JUST WHO goes off to the politicians' wars. Certainly Mr. Clinton DIDN'T!]

"Through religion we have gained complete control of society, government and economics. No law is ever passed except its merits have previously been taught from the pulpits. An example of this is race equality which led to integration and ultimately to mongrelization. The gullible clergy in one breath instruct their parishioners that we are a special, chosen people while in another breath proclaim all races are the same. Their inconsistency is never discovered. So we Jews enjoy a special place in society while all other races are reduced to common equality. It is for this reason that we authored the equality hoax, thereby reducing all to a lower level.

"We have been taught that our current economic practices are benevolent, therefore Christian. These pulpit parrots extol our goodness for loaning them the money to build their temples, never realizing that their own holy book condemns all usury. They are eager to pay our exorbitant interest rates. They have led society into our control through the same practice. Politically, they hail the blessings of democracy and never understand that through democracy we have gained control of their nation. Their book again teaches a benevolent despotic form of government in accordance with the laws of that book, while A DEMOCRACY IS MOB RULE WHICH WE CONTROL THROUGH THEIR CHURCHES, OUR NEWS MEDIA AND ECONOMIC INSTITUTIONS. Their religion is only another channel through which we can direct the power of our propaganda. These religious puppets' stupidity is only exceeded by their cowardice, for they are ruled easily."

THE LIGHT DAWNS

Rarely does any man confess the intimacy of his soul as did Mr. Rosenthal. Hindsight suggests that there was a greater force compelling this man to reveal what has been written here. The remainder of the interview seems to confirm this.

"Since we do not believe in a life after death, all our efforts are directed to the 'now'. We are not as foolish as you and will never adopt an ideology that is rooted in self-sacrifice. Whereas you will live and die for the benefit of the community, we will live and die only for our own individual self. The idea of self-sacrifice is abhorred by Jews. It is abhorrent to me. No cause is worth dying for since death is the end. The only time we unite is to preserve our individual selves. As a group of wolves unite to attack a prey, but then disperse after each is filled, so we Jews unite when peril is pending, not to preserve our community but to save our own skin.

"This attitude permeates our entire being and philosophy. We are not the creators for to create would only benefit another. We are the 'acquirers' and are interested only in satisfying the 'self'. To understand our philosophy would be to understand the term 'to get'. We never give but only take. We never labor but enjoy the fruits of others' labor. We do not create but confiscate. We are not the producers but the parasites. We do not physically live within any society, but always remain spiritually apart. To work would be to produce and the highest form of that labor would be to create. Your race has always worked for the satisfaction of what it produces. We would never work for anyone's benefit, only for what we can get. We have used this Aryan attitude to achieve our greatest prosperity. You will work for the enjoyment you derive out of producing, while never being concerned about the pay. We take your productivity for a paltry fee and turn it into fortunes.

"Until recently, the pride of workmanship exceeded the quest for high incomes. However, we have been able to enslave society to our own power which is money, by causing them to seek after it. We have converted the people to our philosophy of getting and acquiring so that they will never be satisfied. A dissatisfied people are the pawns in our game of world conquest. Thus, they are always seeking and never able to find satisfaction. The very moment they seek happiness outside themselves, they become our willing servants. (Editors: Emphasis ours.)

"Your people never realize that we offer them only worthless baubles that can not bring fulfillment. They procure one and consume it and are not filled. We present another. We have provided an infinite number of outward distractions, to the extent that life can not again turn inward to find its definite fulfillment. You have become addicted to our medicine through which we have become your absolute masters. (Editors: Emphasis ours.)

"On the first and fundamental lie, the purpose of which is to make people believe that we are not a nation but a religion, other lies are subsequently based. Our greatest fear is that this falsehood will be discovered, for we will be stamped out the moment the general public comes into possession of the Truth and acts upon it. It is becoming apparent that an awakening is occurring even here in America. We had hoped that through our devastation of Christian Germany that any subject dealing with us would be a fearful taboo. However, there seems to be a resurgence here in the one nation that we so strongly control. We are presently making plans for a rapid exodus. We know that when the light begins to dawn, there will be no stopping it. All efforts on our part will only intensify that light and draw focus upon it.

"We fear that light is coming forth in movements across this land, especially yours. It has amazed us how you have been successful in reaching the people after we closed every door of communication. This, we fear, is a sign of a coming pogrom that will take place in America soon. The American public has realized that we are in control, which is a fatal mistake on our part. This nation could never be the land of the free as long as it is the land of the Jew. This is the revelation that will be our undoing. (Editors: Emphasis ours.)

"The American people have been easily ruled through our propaganda that the pen is mightier than the sword. We virtually get away with murder and all the goy do is to talk about it, which is ineffective since we, the masters of propaganda, always publish a contradicting account. If the Aryan would review history and apply those lessons of the past, then the pen will be thrown down in disgust and the sword wielded in the heat of passion. Thus far, we have escaped the sword, when the only reprisal is some periodical of no repute, or some pamphlet with limited circulation. Their pen is no match of ours, but our constant fear is that they may open their eyes and learn that no change was ever brought about with a pen. History has been written in blood, not with ink. No letter, editorial or book has ever rallied the people or stopped tyranny. We understand this principle and are continually propagandizing the people to write letters to the President, to Congress and to their local media. We are safe to continually exploit, intimidate and disenfranchise the white American as long as they are preoccupied with the illusion of educating the masses through printed material. Woe be unto us if they ever see the futility of it, lay down the pen and employ the sword. [H: Could this be one of the reasons that attached TO THE BILL FOR HEALTH CARE PLANS— IS A GUN CONTROL BILL WHICH WOULD ALSO BE PASSED WITHOUT THE PEOPLE REALIZING IT?]

"History confirms the fact that the passions of an aroused minority, no matter how small a group, have exerted enough power to topple the greatest empire. The movements that control destiny are not those that rest on the inactive majority, but on the sheer force of an active minority. Will is Power, not numbers, for a strong WILL will always rule the masses.

"Again, we are safe as long as our WILL is stronger, or the WILL of the people is misdirected, scattered and without leadership. We will never be deposed with words, only force!"

The wisdom of Mr. Harold Wallace Rosenthal has been set forth!

WHAT CAN YOU DO TO PROTECT EVERY CITIZEN FROM THE ABOVE POTENTIALS?????

Those of us who have been in this battle to save our once great nation for so many years possibly become calloused, not too sensitive to the horrible things going on around us. I must admit however that the FACTS as conveyed by Harold Rosenthal have made their impact on this writer. The interview, or perhaps a better word might be "confession", has helped to bring to the surface a reality of what we veterans have known for years, but the stark reality of Jewish treachery becomes more shocking when getting it ALL in one package.

IS GOD FINISHED WITH THE JEWS?

Mr. Rosenthal, a former influential Jew in his own right, prided himself in being a vital part of the admitted control of the media, of their invisible government, no political power without Jewish approval, the American people have no guts and the sneer at their stupidity, the Jews' power through their money and the money power affording them a "master plan" for international conquest through propaganda. Let us remember Rosenthal's remarks about an "unthinking majority", the Jews' treachery of pitting labor against management and that Christ was just another man walking on earth. That they are admitted parasites who have gained control of our society, government and economics through their religion, also the "chosen people" myth exploded and the confessed "big lie" that the Jews are a religion and not a nation. And we must not forget what Mr. R. said about their fear of being discovered for what they are.

We are beginning to uncover the whole conspiracy on the part of the Communists and World Zionism to capture control of our nation, and the Jews and their prostituted media are beginning to admit, as Mr. R. said, that we have them on the run. Believe us, dear reader, it will be shock to the Jewish world when this gets into circulation and they discover we have laid our hands on this "first hand" information from a Jew who was formerly respected in high government office, and it is this Report that could "trigger the miracle". If, with your help we can get this material distributed in city, county, state and federal offices throughout the country, it might bring about an action. This is a most informative, enlightening document and it is not "one" of the most outstanding accounts of its kind—it is "the most extraordinary" confession of modern time. We lack words in expressing the incomparable importance and value of this vehicle.

As you have observed, the Jew conspiracy is to reduce our population to a subservient obedience designed to groom us for a Jew-controlled, international, moneychanging dictatorship designed by Zionists and Communists. This cannot happen. The American public will not allow itself to be so subdued. [H: Oh—really? Show me!] These One World traitors who have been running our bureaucracy in Washington have permitted over 12,000,000 aliens to come into this country illegally from all the nations of the world including China and Mexico and all the nations in between. They are holding jobs which amount to more than the number of people we have unemployed.

This manuscript can act as a weapon with which we will open the eyes of the masses. They know something is wrong but they do not know what to do. NOW we can show them. You can talk about this to your neighbors, friends, relatives and business associates regardless of their viewpoints or in spite of their tolerance of Jews. If you will help to circulate this evidence to tens of thousands a victory would be within our grasp. [H: Well it has been almost two decades and how far have you gotten? It has been years since "I" first ran this document for your attention and how far have we gotten? We have a small subscription rate and the highest "read" rate of any publication and, still, we get very little distance. Of course we have had the Satan in the midst of our crew tearing down that which is built, spreading gross and blatant lies which can be easily checked by records readily available, etc. So, what are the chances of pulling this off with reclamation of your nation and Constitution? At this writing I see disaster heaping upon disaster as the "other" players come into the picture. My advice, hunker down, my children, and let's see if we can survive the clash of the Titans of physical would-be kings. We do not need to PROVE anything—before it is finished—GOD WINS—REMEMBER?] Although it is a lengthy manuscript, its content will hold the attention of almost any reader. Why? Because it affects every man, woman and child in America and the world. IT IS THAT IMPORTANT! There cannot ever be another document of such vital importance. It is expensive to print so we cannot afford to send it to anyone except those who donate to this Cause.

WARNING

Anyone who does not know that the organized Jew is the instigator of World Communism, and is in a conspiracy to destroy Christian civilization, is too naive and too ignorant to deal with the problems we face. The Christ-hating Zionist who conspires against our Christian Heritage, enjoys nothing better than the conservative who protects the "Jew" and will talk about everything dangerous to our country except the Hidden Hand Zionist conspirators, the root of all evil which threatens Christian civilization.

This evil force is the ANTI-CHRIST, as revealed in the second general letter of St. John, who says: "He is the Anti-Christ, that denieth the Father and the Son." These "conservative" Americans are knowingly or unknowingly helping to destroy their own country. As a result.....[H: Well, enough—you surely MUST be able to read the writing scribbled on your walls.]

I think you can understand why we have no information on this writer. The only way we have to "help" him in the "Cause" mentioned above—is to do what we are doing—printing this AGAIN in hopes that you will read it and THINK!

Is THIS "Jew-bashing"—a hate crime??? Goodness, readers, this is from a JEW WHO WAS SO DANGEROUS TO HIS OWN THAT HE WAS MURDERED FOR THE REVELATIONS. CAN'T YOU SEE THAT YOU ARE BEING METHODICALLY AND DEFINITELY DESTROYED? WHAT, READERS, WILL IT TAKE TO MAKE YOU COME TO ATTENTION? THE BEAST HAS ALL BUT DEVoured YOU WHILE YOU MARCH TO HIS DINNER MUSIC AND SEASON YOURSELF TO HIS TASTE! WELL, THE "TITANS" ARE GOING TO CLASH SOON FOR THE HATRED BETWEEN THE TWO FACTIONS OF WOULD-BE NUMBER ONES OF THE WORLDLY REALM IS WITHOUT BOUNDS AND THE CUNNING AS UNLIMITED. HOLD TIGHT, FRIENDS, THE RIDE IS GOING TO GET ROUGHER!

I'm sorry to keep you for such a long session, but someones have to do this, scribe—it may as well be us. Thank you.

ANTHRAX

In the October 6 issue of the MONTREAL GAZETTE it states, "Seven cases of anthrax have been confirmed in livestock in North Dakota, the Agriculture Department said yesterday, warning that flooded parts of the Midwest could be vulnerable to the disease. The first cases were confirmed in late August and have been limited to the Cheyenne River Valley. No human cases have been reported."

GIRL SCOUT OATH

From the ORLANDO SENTINEL, October 19 issue, "For decades, Girl Scouts have put on badge-bedecked vests and gathered with troop leaders to recite a solemn pledge to serve God and country. On my honor I will try to serve God and my country, to help people at all times, and to live by the Girl Scout Law. In a proposed change to the oath, the word God could be substituted for another word or no word at all."

RUSSIA-CIA EXCHANGE

From a fax sent to the CONTACT office this week, "The Central Intelligence Agency is discussing with Russian Foreign Intelligence Service officials ways the two nations might share information from satellite photos for environmental studies. Such sharing would expand the cooperation between the CIA and the Russian Foreign Intelligence Service, which already includes such matters as counter-narcotics and counter-terrorism."

NAFTA & JAPAN

In the October 21 issue of the DAILY NEWS, "President Clinton, gearing up for the final weeks of an uphill battle to win congressional support for the North American Free Trade Agreement, has settled on a provocative strategy that treats Japan, not Mexico, as the most severe threat to American jobs."

"The new approach emerged Wednesday at the White House, where Clinton was joined by Lee Iacocca, the retired chairman of the Chrysler Corporation."

BOSNIA

Also from the DAILY NEWS, "The White House averted a major foreign policy defeat

Wednesday night as the Senate endorsed a compromise between President Clinton and Republican leader Bob Dole on sending U.S. troops abroad."

"The Senate voted 99-1 to back a nonbinding resolution that puts Congress on record as insisting that it give its approval before any U.S. troops are used to enforce a peace accord in Bosnia."

SOMALIA

From the October 6 issue of the MILWAUKEE JOURNAL, "The United Nations now believes Somalia is close to being able to feed itself."

TV VIOLENCE

In October 21 issue of the DAILY NEWS, "Attorney General Janet Reno told the television industry Wednesday that unless it moved immediately to stem the tide of shootings, knifings and other mayhem beamed daily into the nation's homes, the White House and Congress would seek laws to do it for them."

"It was the bluntest government condemnation of broadcast violence since the surgeon general linked television to aggressive behavior 21 years ago. And it drew anguished protests of innocence from some of the industry's most visible executives."

GORBACHEV AS GOP FUND-RAISER

October 12, REPORTER-HERALD, "Mikhail Gorbachev, who put the former Soviet Union on the road to democratic reform but never renounced communism, now is going to help Republican Senate candidates raise money."

"Gorbachev is the featured attraction at a fund-raiser November 4 for the National Republican Senatorial Committee, which works to elect GOP candidates to the Senate."

"It's sort of capitalism at its finest..."

PEARL HARBOR 1995

Also from the REPORTER-HERALD, "America has to get ready for Pearl Harbor 1995," Walter Murphy, executive director of the American Civil Defense Association said, "with mass shelters, the experts say we'd lose 7,000 people instead of 150 million. Isn't that alone worth considering this idea?"

CHEMICAL WEAPONS TIMEBOMB

In the October 12 issue of the DENVER POST, "The little-known Oquirrh Fault (20 miles southwest of Salt Lake City) could someday generate a major earthquake under the Tooele Army Depot, home to more than 40 percent of the nation's chemical weapons. Utah Geological Survey researchers estimate the quake up to 7.5 magnitude on the Richter scale also may hit Dugway Proving Ground in Utah's western desert."

BRILLIANT ECONOMIC FORECASTING

From the WALL STREET JOURNAL, Tuesday, October 12, "Private economic forecasters, asked to peer 10 years into the future, say the U.S. economy won't look much better than it does now, according to a new survey by the Blue Chip Economic Indicators newsletter."

VIETNAM

In an article from the October 12 issue of THE NEW YORK TIMES, "The International Monetary Fund (IMF) offered today to help Vietnam in debt rescheduling negotiations with Western government creditors and Russia."

Michael Camdessus, IMF's managing director told Vietnam Foreign Minister Nguyen Manh Cam "that the IMF would be alongside Vietnam in negotiations with the so-called Paris Club of official creditors, expected to meet next month."

GENERAL MOTORS LOSS

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL, October 11, "General Motors Corporation's U.S. vehicle operations are heading for a $2 billion loss this year, largely because of uncompetitive labor costs..."

CLINTON'S HEALTH PLAN

This week, Kmart's Joseph Antonini said, "We're going to end up spending several hundred million more—$300 million—if the president's proposal requiring employers to pay part of the health insurance premiums for part-time, as well as full-time workers goes into effect," as taken from THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.

Changes & Comments From Our "Retiring" Chief Ed

I would like to take a moment to discuss several changes going on with CONTACT that our more perceptive regular readers are no doubt already noticing.

The first of these changes began several weeks ago with the introduction of the column feature called "From The News Desk" under Rick Martin. This is growing by delightful leaps and bounds under Rick's more-than-able cultivation.

Aside from the obvious information value, this format provides a much needed, flexible forum through which newsworthy material, that is not necessarily directly a part of Commander Hatonn's current writings, can be shared with you. After all, only so much information can flow through Dharma's hands in an already crowded 24-hour day.

As I said at the time of first introducing Rick's column several weeks ago, we receive so much good mail from you observant readers—especially in the way of verifications—that it was becoming a bigger and bigger shame NOT to be sharing more of these juicy "plums" with you, somehow.

As you have become more aware of and comfortable with THE TRUTH—in growing understanding of the CONTACT and JOURNAL writings—your vigilance and enthusiasm has increased. You therefore scan your own local newspapers and other media sources with fresh eyes. Things that may have been overlooked before are really jumping off the pages now—particularly, of course, those revealing "little" items buried on the infamous "back pages" where "they" feel more comfortable about hiding the really important stuff.

Moreover, we have come to regard it as a singularly great honor to the stature to which CONTACT's effectiveness has grown that, just like clockwork, shortly after the release of any major TRUTH in CONTACT, there will appear the "damage control" versions in the prostituted regular print and broadcast media. We must REALLY be doing SOMETHING right to merit, so often, such massive and coordinated DIS-information attention.

And this "dance" isn't lost on many of you readers, either. So, whatever else you do, keep your eyes open for those dynamite verifications of THE TRUTH and PLEASE send them on to Rick for sharing with the rest of our awakening CONTACT readers.

While we're on the subject of CONTACT readers thirsty for TRUTH, I have to pause a moment in amusement of that small minority who prefer to gripe. Coming from a professional academic background (among other things), this always looks to me just like the classic case of the good students, willing to put out the necessary effort to achieve understanding, versus the ones who whine for the easy, spoon-fed route—and grumpily resent any proddings to the contrary.

CONTACT is very much like a collection of weekly "class notes" from a serious college- or graduate-school-level course. And, in that context, most of the griping we receive reminds me identically of those students who prefer to whine poetic with every conceivable excuse ("Gee whiz, teacher, do we HAVE to study THIS, TOO?") to avoid doing what—no way around it—amounts to hard WORK.

Sorry, but CONTACT is a demanding "course" because the world scene is a demanding mess—and time is running out! Just know that all involved with CONTACT put a lot of careful thought into every single item included (or, with agony, excluded) from those "class notes" you receive each week.

Now, coincident with Rick taking over more fully the "news desk" aspects of CONTACT, I am going to be more and more "fading into the background" of routine CONTACT operations. Commander Hatonn has fired me for being too wordy...ah...no, actually, I'm stepping aside to free up time to begin to pursue some scientific matters.

The demands of this job have allowed NO time for anything else—and that has been the case since I first locally took over the helm of CONTACT's predecessor, THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in May of 1992.

Since that time we have put out, without fail, almost 80 provocative weekly issues of these newspapers. And, if you only knew what we work against in terms of electromagnetic beam pulse blasts and other "loving assistance" (to our equipment and persons) from puppet minions of the crooks in high places, you would wonder how (thank you, Space Command) ANY of those 80 issues ever got out the door to you!

Please appreciate that this entire CONTACT team here really puts their collective hearts and souls into getting this unique newspaper out to you in a TIMELY manner. Therefore EVERYTHING else takes a back burner to that commitment focus. In fact, just ask my plants, who learned how to get to the sink and sip their own drink of water, having long ago given up on me.

From the perspective of you readers, this change mostly means you won't see any more sprinklings of my sometimes lengthy editorial notes or my buttings into things [like I was always doing in this fashion]. I'm not especially "going anywhere" as far as "the team" is concerned, except in the sense of affording the opportunity—to those who can do a much better job than I can—of taking direct control over running all aspects of the paper.

Although CONTACT's crew is an unbelievably small one by normal newspaper standards, rest assured that all editing and production operations are in the hands of an INCREDIBLY GIFTED AND DEDICATED team of professionals who have grown into their present jobs, as I did, from diverse backgrounds of preparation. Whether it's the writing or editing of a story, or making sure your address is correct and the label is on straight, these are GOOD PEOPLE—period!

Of course there will be some time (and patience) needed for adjustments to new routines, but just know that neither CONTACT nor its production team (nor I) are "going anywhere" out of the picture. Think of me as stepping to the sidelines, into a consulting capacity, as far as my involvement with CONTACT is concerned.

However, if time and circumstances downstream permit, I may write a column along the lines of something like "The Science Corner" (move over, Nora Boyles, and her fine "Nora's Research Corner" and Cort Christie's fine "Nevada Corporations" lessons). That is, I'll do so if there is sufficient interest and you promise NOT to cancel your subscription if I have to write down a mathematical or scientific equation every once in a while. Both Commanders Hatonn and Soltec have covered important scientific matters so well, in their writings through Dharma and Kali, that I hardly feel up to the task of presuming to compete with their teaching skills or vision.

Besides the brief mention near the beginning of the 10/23 #1 writing on page 33, I'm sure Commander Hatonn will have more to say about these changes, concerning this newspaper and his immediate "ground crew" team, as the time becomes appropriate. Meanwhile, please keep reading and learning THE TRUTH from wherever you can find it. After all, even our serpentine Government often tells you TRUTH—if you just know enough to take THE EXACT OPPOSITE of what they're saying! What a world we're living in.

KILL NAFTA

North American Free Trade Agreement, aka
North American Fraud & Theft Agreement, aka
No American Factories Taking Applications

NAFTA is the worst legislation ever proposed to Congress because:

- NAFTA is unconstitutional. It violates Article I, Section 8 as well as the 14th Amendment and other clauses because it unlawfully gives to Mexico rights and immunities from American laws denied to every one of the 50 states.
- NAFTA is not a treaty. If it were a treaty, it would require a two-thirds majority of the Senate. So its clever handlers call NAFTA an "agreement" although there is nothing about an "agreement" in the Constitution. But no newspaper mentions this.
- NAFTA undercuts American sovereignty. It gives a Mexican-American board of bureaucrats appointed by President Clinton and President Salinas the authority to override all state and local law by "interpreting" the agreement the way big business wants.
- NAFTA means a lower American living standard and lost jobs. The average Mexican wage level is one-tenth the American average of $29,000 per year. Already, 3,021 American factories have moved to Mexico, escaping environmental laws, pension funds for employees, child labor laws, minimum wage laws and American unions. Mexico does not permit free unions. Mexico is governed by a one-party dictatorship controlled by a totally corrupt, super-rich plutocracy that ruthlessly stamps out union activities.
- NAFTA is a bankers' scam. The impulse for NAFTA comes from Wall Street banks which have foolishly lent out some $130 billion to Mexico. There is no way the interest on these loans can be paid without milking American consumers and taxpayers. Mexico is bankrupt, drowned in an endless sea of corruption. Some of the world's richest people are Mexicans who have looted their nation's treasury and resources. Through NAFTA they expect to become even richer—at your expense.
- NAFTA is being lobbied for by more than 1200 of America's biggest corporations and 300 very rich Mexican families who will spend at least $60 million in America to push NAFTA through Congress. Will your congressman pocket some of this cash? Do you know where your lawmakers stand on NAFTA? If you don't, you should.
- NAFTA is expensive. NAFTA will require U.S. taxpayers to come up with $10 billion to clean up the border area between the U.S. and Mexico. American workers thrown out of jobs that move to Mexico will have to be supported by the remaining taxpayers. American factories that move South of the border will pay taxes to the U.S. no longer, leaving it to the remaining taxpayers to make up the difference. NAFTA will raise taxes.
- NAFTA will not work for Americans. The earlier "free trade" deal with Canada is a failure and is now opposed by most Canadians (admitted by the New York Times, Oct. 3, 1993, p.1). It has put thousands of Americans out of work. If free trade can't work between Canada and the U.S., how can it work between the U.S. and a Third World dictatorship like Mexico?

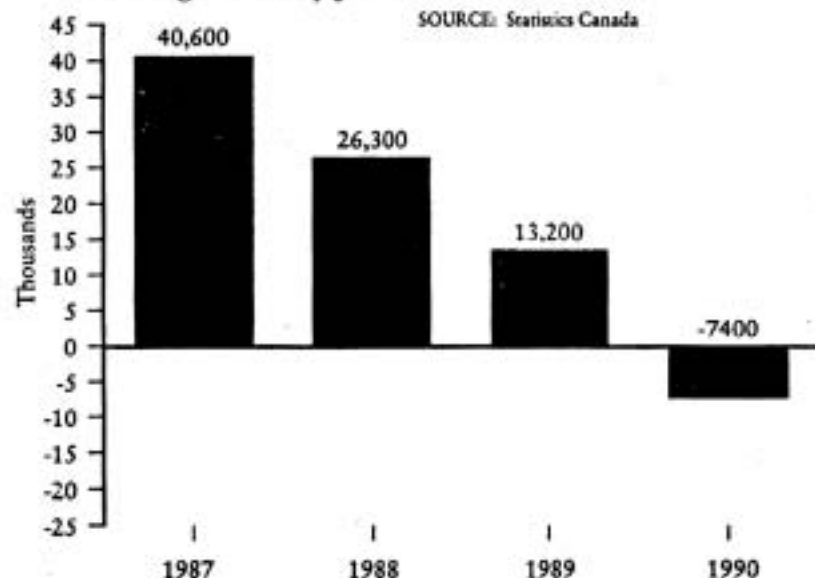

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP DEFEAT NAFTA: Please write your congressman and two senators or call them at (202) 224-3121 and demand that NAFTA be defeated. Inform others. Please do not delay. A vote is expected in 1993.

Average Monthly Job Creation in Canada

[Free Trade] will create more jobs, especially for our young people, and put more money in the pockets of our workers. The Economic Council of Canada predicts that free trade will provide 250,000 additional jobs.

Changes in Jobs in Canada

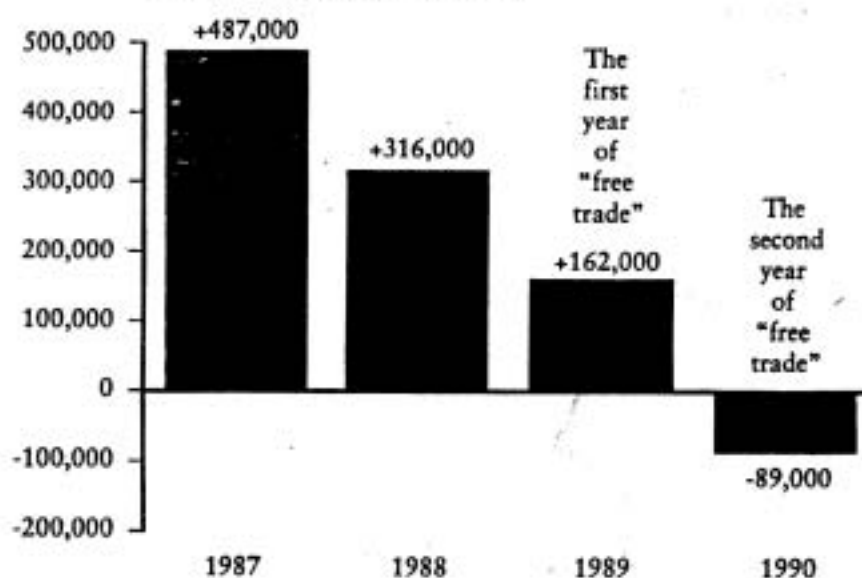

Chart 2 presents a very different picture. It requires little comment. As can be seen, the first two years of free trade, 1989 and 1990, showed a precipitous decline in new jobs for Canadians. Chart 3 presents a similarly depressing record, this time on an annual basis for the two years preceding the FTA and for the first two years of the agreement. Note that some 803,000 new jobs were created in Canada during the two years before the FTA, while only 73,000 new jobs were created in 1989 and 1990.

"This poll shows Californians aren't buying the Administration's story about job creation. That's the bottom line," said Judith Barish, the organization's policy director.

However, NAFTA supporters said the negative responses came in part from Californians' overwhelming fear that the economy will worsen.

Subject Matter: Clinton's New World Order Agenda

Dear Congressman Kreidler:

Without mincing words, let's cut directly to the chase. There are a multitude of domestic and international events that have occurred and are occurring, being promulgated under the auspices of the United Nations, IMF, World Bank, Bilderbergers, The Cobden Clubs, The Club of Rome, Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), Trilateral Commission, and a host of others, through their puppet/marionette mouthpiece, William Jefferson Blythe IV (Clinton) and his co-President Hillary Rodham Clinton - the Socialists of our current Ship of State: Amerika.

Ever mounting evidence suggests that perhaps every member of the House and Senate, and surely the Justice Department, are going along with this charade of transformation and centralization of powers into a literal "dictatorship", or as the Clintonista Administration refers to it, "change". All of these entities appear to be operating under pretense of name only as the "United States of America", when in fact and law, they are being directed, controlled, financed and subsidized by agents of a foreign principal, a malignant cancer growing in the breast of America which is causing the demoralization and disintegration of America's fundamental principles, ethical, lawful and social fabric. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) Making the "World safe for Democracy" in Bosnia, Somalia, Haiti and other components of "The Third World" political blocks under "Global 2000" Agenda;

- (2) NAFTA - the North American Free Trade Agreement, aka the North American Fraud and Theft Agreement, which will not create jobs, but will mark the demise of the sovereignty of these United States of America;
- (3) The phoney Clinton-Gore "Reinventing Government" campaign claiming to save billions of dollars and to eliminate 250,000 federal jobs -- not right now, but by 1998, while Americans are losing their jobs TODAY.

Government doesn't need to be "reinvented". What America needs is for existing government bureaucrats to obey the Constitution for the United States of America, to which they've sworn allegiance!

- (4) The Clintonista's, Hill and Billary multi-agenda "Health Care Plan" which contains anti-gun legislation and a nationwide registration program.
- (5) The many facets of "Gun Control" via the CIA sponsored Brady Bill and other attempts under the facade of the "War on Drugs";
- (6) The "Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993" enacted by the 103rd Congress as Public Law 103-66 (H.R. 2264) and its component part, the so-called "Deficit Reduction Fund" set up by the Clintonista Administration by Executive Order #12858;

- (7) With respect to (6) above, as a part of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, under Part IV - "Transportation Fuels Provision", the deliberate fleecing of the American People by an underhanded method of passing on a "Manufacturers Excise Tax" AS DEPICTED AT 26 USC 4081 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE, of 4.3 cents per gallon of gasoline for the express stated purpose AS DEPICTED IN E.O. 12858 at item (c): "The amounts in the Deficit Reduction Fund shall be used exclusively to redress maturing debt obligations of the Treasury of the United States held by foreign governments" The foregoing bill-of-goods was promulgated and sold to the American People via the FED-STATE team controlled Establishment Media: ABC, CBS, CNN and NBC and its many other component "expert" Think Tank parts to allegedly reduce the deficit . . . a mathematically impossible option. The real purpose of this morass of legislation is to fund United Nations operations and the formation of a World Army for purposes of overthrowing dejure governments on all continents of the globe.

- (8) The "Crime Control Act of 1993" (SB-8) redefines and vastly expands the government's search and seizure powers (legalizing formerly illegal government activities) and eliminates Citizens' civil redress in suits against government officials and agents. Consider: Property forfeiture and/or jail for speeches, writings, and assembly. Incorporated are provisions of SB-265, titled "Terrorism Death Penalty Act of 1991" and you not see that failure now, is to be pulled down by the billions of Lilliputians of lesser race who care little or nothing for the Anglo-Saxon system?"

The Cobden Clubs, Secretariat for World Order, and its group of world conspirators mandated in the same memoranda as cited in item (10) above that the following policy be implemented:

(A) The Security Council of the U.N., led by the Anglo-Saxon Major Nation Powers, will decree that henceforth, the Security Council will inform all nations that its sufferance on population has ended, that all nations have quotas for REDUCTION on a yearly basis, which will be enforced by the Security Council by selective or total embargo of credit, items of trade including food and medicine, or by military force, when required. [Gee, Congressman Kreider, is this the reason Mr. Clinton has sent U.S. Navy War ships, to enforce the U.N. embargo against Haiti, yet the American People are told it's to protect the Citizens and make it safe for "Socialist Democracy"??]

(B) The Security Council of the U.N. will inform all nations that outmoded notions of national sovereignty will be discarded and that the Security Council has complete legal, military, and economic jurisdiction in any region in the world and that this will be enforced by the Major Nations of the Security Council.

(C) The Security Council of the U.N. will take possession of all natural resources, including the watersheds and great forests, to be used and preserved for the good of the Major Nations of the Security Council. [Hiram, do I smell a Spotted Owl under the nose of The Endangered Species Act?]

(D) The Security Council of the U.N. will explain that not all races and peoples are equal, nor should they be. Those races proven superior by superior achievements ought to rule the lesser races, caring for them on sufferance that they cooperate with the Security Council. Decision making, including banking, trade, currency rates, and economic development plans, will be made in stewardship by the Major Nations.

(E) All of the above constitute the New World Order, in which Order, all nations, regions and races will cooperate with the decisions of the Major Nations of the Security Council.

This Cobden Club document concludes: "The purpose of this document is to demonstrate that action delayed could well be fatal. All could be lost if mere opposition by minor races is tolerated and the unfortunate

Senator Biden's SB-266, titled "Comprehensive Counter Terrorism Act of 1991". Both bills contain language which can charge law-abiding Citizens with being agents or affording support to terrorist organizations. Politically active organizations and labor unions are especially vulnerable to SB-8 provisions which define bodily acts as "terrorist acts". A fist fight at a demonstration or picket line would qualify. The physical act need not cause bodily harm as its provisions refer to "involving any violent act." The "Crime Control Act of 1993" forfeiture provisions appear aimed at public dissent and are written like RICO laws, taking on the added prospect of Political Property Forfeiture. Broadly written, intent to commit a terrorist act is defined: "appear to be intended (1) to intimidate or coerce a civilian population, (2) to influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion." It would appear that certain provisions of Senator Biden's SB-266, now included in "The Crime Control Act of 1993", target any group of persons which would dare demonstrate for or against any issue.

(9)

The Clintonista "Climate Change Action Plan" to attack a still scientifically unproven thesis of "Global Warming", but which does enhance revenue for the ever expanding Federal Agencies. One hypocrisy is that one such agency, the EPA, is headed by William Ruckelshaus, a former Weyerhaeuser Company executive and buddy of David Rockefeller (Tribal-CFR), whose own environmental company of which he is the CEO and Chairman of the Board, Browning-Ferris Industries, is profiting like mad from the new laws which his EPA Agency has promulgated, to the injury of other companies not in a position of power. Browning-Ferris Industries manufactures a newly patented refrigerant which cools less efficiently, is more costly, and mandates mandatory replacement of Freon by 1995. All under the guise of "protecting the environment".

(10)

According to memoranda of The Cobden Club dated September 20, 1991, and containing Representative Richard Gephardt's telephone number, they profess to be the living sponsors of the great Cecil Rhodes will of 1877, in which Rhodes devoted his fortune to: "The extension of British rule throughout the world... the colonization of British subjects of the entire Continent of Africa, the Holy Land, the Valley of the Euphrates, the islands of Cyprus and Candia, the whole of South America, the islands of the Pacific not heretofore possessed by Great Britain, the whole of the Malay Archipelago, the seaboard of China and Japan, the Mississippi Territory of the United States of America as an integral part of the British Empire... We stand with Lord Milner's Credo. We too, are "British Race Patriots" and our patriotism is the speech, the tradition, the principles, the aspirations of the British Race. Do you fear to take this stand, at the very last moment when this purpose can be realized? Do vacillations of our closest comrades is cause for our hesitations.

Open declaration of intent followed by decisive force is the final solution. This must be done before any shock hits our financial markets, tarnishing our credibility and perhaps diminishing our force."

And so, Congressman Kreidler, can you visualize that when Communism and Capitalism collapse, World National Socialism will rise up to replace them? "NAZI" stood for "Nationalist" in the words "National Socialism". Is it not interesting that the controlled establishment media, whose ownership is reflected through various members of the CFR and Trilateral Commission, and their interconnecting positions with Public Servants who occupy our Offices of Public Trust, parrot the "buzzwords" that are framed from the foregoing, such as "NAZI" and "WHITE SUPREMACIST" whenever the federal government chooses to demonize its intended victim(s)? And, as The Cobden Club has already attested within the excerpts of their preceding document, whenever any nation/state falls into disfavor of the machinations of the New World Order crowd, we always hear the cry of "HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS"? We need look no further than recent events in Iraq with the Kurds, the invasion of Somalia and now the embargo against another sovereign nation: Haiti.

Recalling the recent attacks by the federal government against Randy Weaver in Naples, Idaho and the government's attack on the Branch Davidian Church, the controlled establishment media played their part well by orchestrating the conditioning of the American People to accept the final results: The deliberate murder of a young boy, 13-year old Sammy Weaver, and the premeditated murder of his mother, Vicki Weaver, at the hands of Government Snipers, and the deliberate murders and burning to death of at least 100 INNOCENT men, women and children at Waco, Texas. WHEN WILL THE GOVERNMENT CARNAGE END? These victims were used in a barbaric method by the federal government as an objective lesson in conditioning the American People to accept the draconian precepts of the New World Order, which without the Hegelian principle of bringing about change in a three step process: Thesis, Antithesis and Synthesis - change which would have been impossible to impose on the people without the proper psychological conditioning achieved in the first two stages, (1) creating the problem, and (2) creating opposition to the problem through fear, panic, and hysteria.

The Clintonista's are currently "creating" a problem in the minds of most Americans, promoting such things as "National Health Care" and "National Gun Control", the latter of which is patterned after Nazi German gun laws. Recent evidence reveals our existing federal gun laws contained within the federal "Gun Control Act of 1968" mimic the Nazi documents to such a degree that they CANNOT simply be coincidental and follow a pattern of gun registration first, and confiscation second. Had Americans, in the 1940's, 50's, or 60's, been introduced to the Nazi's earlier gun registration and confiscation tactics we would not be operating under the blueprint for a United Nations police state as is presently embodied in the federal "Gun Control Act of 1968".

Anti-Second Amendment and gun confiscation proponents must view the barrage of questions on a federal gun registration form #4473, as the sugar coating that makes the poison pill of centralized gun registration easier for a gullible and ignorant American public to swallow. Because of the information available on these forms, the centralized registration of every firearm sold in any store in America since 1968 is only one step away from reality. Totalitarian governments must disarm their citizenry. And to do that, the government must first be able to find all the guns. And now we know why the federal government is proceeding with "Operation Forward Trace". And so, Congressman Kreidler, let's get it clear who the real "neo-Nazis" in this nation actually are, and not some orchestrated machination of the controlled press with fashionable media "buzzwords". For instance, it would be very interesting to find out which "neo-Nazi" career American politician(s) ramrodded the "Gun Control Act of 1968" into federal law, would it not?

We know the New World Order planners and certain people in positions of honor and trust want us to believe that free thought is dangerous to this nation. We know that these same people want us to believe that it's "okay" to sacrifice the rights of government labeled "kooks" like Randy Weaver, and "religious fanatics" like David Koresh, and still preserve our own rights. We know the government wants to do our thinking for us. The government not only wants to tell us what to do with our life, but also wants to dictate what we will read in books and newspapers, see on television, and hear on the radio. The government wants the people only as a "production unit", chattel property if you will, our labor exploited by it, to create the tangible wealth of real substance necessary to actually pay off the incredible, unbelievable, and monstrous so-called "national debt" that the federal government created without our specific contractual approval. In short, the government has become defacto, evil, fraudulent, devious, malicious, murderous, tyrannical, arbitrary, thieving and ominously malignant.

This present and corrupt government, known and described as the "United States", a foreign corporation with respect to a State (see in Re: Merriam, US Supreme Court) with its many tentacles of international and foreign intrigue, has become ten thousand times the threat to the freedom of each individual American today than that which was posed by the relatively bush league tyranny of King George back in 1776. There are not enough hours in a day to fully outline all of the crime so omnipotent of today's corrupt government of which it is guilty. But in the space of the next few sentences, we can sum it up:

- (1) Fraudulent paper "money", which, against the most clear command of the Constitution, is unbacked by a single ounce of substantive coin of the realm, and save for "faith" by the people, is irredeemable, worthless paper.
- (2) A control of the "free press" that is incredible. The socialistic "politically correctness" agenda is an abcess of abhorrent perversion within the body of our freedom of thought and inquiry.

A. 6

families with its collection arm: the Internal Revenue Service? Are you hiding something from your constituency Mr. Kraidler? If you don't know what the problem is, then I suggest you learn what it is and make the necessary self-corrections to fulfill your Oath of Office, or relinquish the Office back to the People from where all power originates. America has much business to attend and "We the People" need competent and alert individuals to right the wrongs that have gone on for the past eighty-years! Imagine, eighty-years of "FED" banking FRAUD!!!

With respect to item (7) above, Public Law 87-297, promulgated by Senator Prescott Bush and signed into law in 1961, is cited at 22 USC Section 2251 and calls for the complete elimination of our armed forces from national control which, in turn, wipes out the sovereignty of the United States of America. In two stages we shall have no more army, no more navy, and no more air force. In the third stage we shall have a "zero" military. But before Stage 1 closes, all citizen-owned guns will be banned. Public Law 87-297 is further explained in a State Department Document, Publication 7277. There is even a federal agency to oversee the implementation of this plan, called the United States Arms Control & Disarmament Agency. Their publication, "The Blueprint for the Peace Race" is the unabridged version of the State Department Document, Publication 7277. Both of these booklets explain how our military is to be reduced to 2.1 million men. China and the Soviets are to reduce to that level also. At this point we are in Stage 1 at which time we are to transfer (on a permanent basis) one-half of our armed forces to be merged with the Russian and Chinese armies. In Stage 11, the remaining one-half of our armed forces is then turned over to the same Security Council of the United Nations that is presently enforcing an embargo against Haiti. The person in charge of the merged armies must, by treaty agreement, always be a Russian . . . spelled S-O-V-I-E-T. The world's smaller nations turn 100% of their armies over to the same under-secretary of the Security Council in Stage 11. Base closures and gun control legislation are not by accident, but craftily planned by ellists of the New World Order crowd.

THERE HAS NEVER BEEN ANY "CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED" TO ALLOW THESE PLANS TO BE IMPLEMENTED. RUSSIA IS NOT MOVING AWAY FROM COMMUNISM. THAT IS PROPAGANDA!

This nation, these United States of America (the Union of the 50 States, and the Free, Sovereign People/Citizens therein) is facing the greatest danger to freedom that has ever loomed over our country. The present enemy is not clearly perceived by most Americans, nor it would seem by our elected Public Servants, even if they sense something is deeply wrong. There has been no graphic Pearl Harbor, although we've seen barbaric acts of aggression committed against other sovereign nations by the United States. We are not yet facing helmeted troops and rumbling tanks from a foreign power massed along our borders, yet they have amassed our own so-called "United States" Army within our borders - and in violation of 18 USC Section 1385 - Use of Army and Air Force as posse comitatus, with respect to the government attack on the Branch Davidian Church at Waco, within the sovereign State of Texas.

(3) A central system of "fractional reserve banking" that is the tool of the ellist foreign families and governments. The Federal Reserve System is the agent provocateur and the most blatant creator of abject poverty and misery in America today.

(4) An "income tax" that is so unlawful and so enslaving that an entire nation stands condemned in naked stupidity for ever having put up with it under the guise that everyone must pay their "fair share", a media buzzword.

(5) A bogus "War on Drugs" that is being utilized as a vehicle to create a computerized, hi-tech police state under the auspices of INTERPOL and the United Nations, within these United States of America.

(6) A "public education" system that is nothing more than a well orchestrated and methodical government indoctrination and brain washing camp of our precious posterity. We wallow pitifully in the mentality of: "If they say its free, it must be good."

(7) An agenda to completely disarm the free American Citizen . . . as has already begun in other places around the globe. The slaves-to-be must be disarmed before the ellists can take complete control under their Global 2000 plan of the New World Order.

With respect to item (1) above, on September 29, 1993, Davy Kidd of Lakewood, Colorado, representing a nationwide movement called Project 93, to Petton Congress for Redress of Grievances, presented to the House of Representatives approximately 1.8 million signed petitions from Americans all over this great land, including approximately 28,000 signatures that were collected on the steps of the Capitol that very day. The bottom-line of the Petton is three-fold: "(1) The repeal of the income tax in its entirety; The abolition of the agency known as the Internal Revenue Service. The IRS forces Americans to surrender their Fifth Amendment rights and is therefore unconstitutional; (2) The replacement of the federal income tax with a system of taxation within the classes of imports, excises and duties, while promoting the restoration of State Sovereignty; and, (3) The repeal of the "Federal" Reserve Act and all subsequent legislation authorizing or empowering a central bank. We the People want the "Federal" Reserve Bank audited. Since they conducted theft by operating an entity that is illegal under the U.S. Constitution, we need an accurate accounting of their assets. We the People have a legal claim against the assets of the Federal Reserve and all its branch operations. We want the stockholders, the Board of Governors and all its Greengrass, of this illegal entity prosecuted." Why, Congressman Kraidler, have you not even made one mention of this in your town meetings? Why is it you don't acknowledge the basic underlying root cause of most, if not all, of Americas problems: the Federal Reserve, the silent thief in the night, which is not Federal, but rather a privately held corporation of eight international banking

Congresswoman Patricia Schroeder, Dist Dist. CO

Faxed to: Veronica Levin 303-866-1237

Dear Congresswoman Schroeder,

I am writing to you, woman to woman, hoping you will hear my plea. For over four years now, my letters and telephone calls to the Office of Naval Intelligence, the Central Intelligence Agency and various Congressman and Senators have all been answered with abusive vitriolic diatribes, or worse yet, my pleas have been completely ignored, like I didn't exist. The message that I have gotten is that "women", especially "wives" have no business interfering in the "Intelligence Community".

The last four years of my life have been a nightmare unlike any you have seen in horror films. I am tired, I am sick and I have no one else to turn to. Please help me, I am tired of being abused and impugned by the United States Navy. I am just a woman, I should be used to being ignored by the Navy, but I can't sit back and take it any longer. My husband's life is at great risk, and the Navy MUST step in and do something or he will be dead very soon.

Congresswoman Schroeder, I feel as if I know you. Over the years our paths have brushed each other several times. Your brother Mike Scott defended a friend of mine, Richard Brenneke.

On May 12th, my birthday, of 1989, a series of seemingly separate events converged and changed my life forever. Richard Brenneke was indicted for "knowingly making a false material declaration before the United States District Court for the District of Colorado in the case entitled United States v. Heinrich Rupp". My friend and colleague, Barbara Honneger, saw the debut of her book October Surprise, in book stores; and Donald Gregg, George Bush's nominee for Ambassador to Korea began his testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which was and is chaired by my friend Senator Claiborne Pell.

Barbara and I had been investigating the illegal activities of the CIA and other government scandals and coverups. Our Congressman Kreidler, you have the delegated power of the People to put a stop to the black cloud that has begun rolling across America. The great majority of your constituency cannot even see it as they live on in a contented, complacent comfort zone that sees no evil, hears no evil, and feels no evil. The same can be said of Capitol Hill, as there appears to be no resistance from either the Congress or Judiciary which is going along with 99% of the agenda the Establishment has for America. There is no resistance from the media, which is a not-so-silent partner and servant to the Establishment in keeping the American people asleep, and psychologically preparing them for Global 2000. There is no resistance from the Churches of America which are also in a very complacent comfort zone - the mainliners supporting the Establishment's goals: the fundamental evangelicals too busy "loving the brethren" and striving "to feel good about themselves" to notice the evil sweeping across America (real, nominal or pseudo) in a complacent comfort zone that is presently difficult to disturb. It is as if a spirit of blindness or delusion has settled over Americans in general and the Christian Church in America, in particular, and as the affronts, the insults and attacks against our traditional, Constitutional, and Biblical values in America grow every day, almost geometrically, the average Christian in America goes even more asleep. America is much like Nazi Germany was in the late 1920's and early 30's - ignorant and decadent, in moral, spiritual and political decline, and psychologically ripe to accept the New World Order.

And so Congressman Kreidler, to whom can "We the People" turn to for effective leadership out of this morass? You, as an elected representative, took a solemn Oath of Office to protect and defend the Constitution against all enemies, foreign and domestic. Yet you seem to propound the same tenets espoused by the Clinton's. Do you not understand your Oath of Office to be our contract with you, and that the terms of that contract are laid out with clearly defined and restricted authority in the Constitution for these United States of America? The government must function within the constraints placed upon it by that express contract. Anything less is seditious and treasonous.

Without belaboring the issues further, I believe we have laid it all out before you in spades. Now, it is up to you what you do with the deck of cards marked "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness". We the People do expect you to be accountable and if you cannot work on the problems we've identified herein, then we shall work to run a more qualified candidate against you in November 1994. We the People have spoken.

Constitutionally yours,

John R. Prukop
Executive Director

Once you know the Truth, the Law will set you Free!

collaboration began in 1984 when we formed the Citizen Alert Committee and put out information worldwide on the extremely dangerous Armageddonist beliefs held by our president Ronald Reagan. It was our belief at that time, that the president was manipulating Biblical prophecy to bring about a nuclear war in the Middle East. In 1986, when he was threatening to bomb Syria, we saw the fulfillment of our predictions. We felt if he was not stopped he would force a nuclear confrontation between the United States, with Israel as an ally, and the USSR, Libya and Syria... this is the scenario which had been taught to him by his religious rightwing advisors. We delivered our information to a childhood friend of Pope John Paul II and the Pope called President Reagan. I give you this background of my activities so that you will understand that I was not beloved by the Reagan/Bush administration or the CIA.

On May 12th, 1989, Barbara and I were celebrating my birthday and the debut of her book, when we found out that our friend Richard, who had been THE major source of information for her book, October Surprise, had been indicted. We were also told about Donald Gregg, the career CIA operative that Richard had implicated in the October Surprise scandal. According to Richard, Donald Gregg was aboard the DAC 1-11 that Richard flew to Paris so that George Bush could seal the secret deal with Iran to delay the release of the hostages. Barbara's Master's thesis had been on Synchronicity, and the overlapping of these four events seemed to portend something we could not imagine at that time.

Barbara and Richard knew that I had planned a trip to Washington D.C. in July of 1990. They also knew that whenever I was in Washington, I had dinner with Claiborne Pell. They asked me to carry a packet of information to Senator Pell which proved that Donald Gregg had committed treason by helping the Reagan campaign sabotage Jimmy Carter's reelection campaign. I never opened the packet I was given. I delivered it to Senator Pell. What he did with it afterwards, you will have to find out from him. Donald Gregg was passed by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Senator Pell and Senator Robb were the two Democrats who voted for him.

On August 30 of 1989, barely six weeks after I had handcarried the Donald Gregg packet to Senator Pell, I married a man I had known since the late seventies, Navy Captain Gunther Ruesebacher. I had met him on numerous occasions at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey. At that time I was married to Dr. John N. Dyer, physics professor, Chairman of the Physics Department, and later Dean of Science and Engineering at NPS. It was my late husband, John, who introduced me to the Naval officer that I married in 1989.

Two days after our wedding, on September 1st, my new husband was arrested by the FBI at a family dinner where we were celebrating our wedding. The arresting FBI agent told me that he was a conman who was on a crime spree from Missouri to California, marrying and defrauding wealthy widows. I told him that I had known my husband for years and that he was a Naval officer. I was told by the FBI that he is a pathological liar with a photographic memory who can con anyone.

By the time my husband was arrested, I had already learned that he was more than a Naval officer. The small Learjet in which we flew to Reno to marry was equipped with more than just a full bar. Fifteen minutes out of Reno, on our way back to Seattle, the pilot turned around to my husband and said, "Chief, our airspace has been violated, we've been ordered to arm." My husband started forward to the cabin. I held on to him and went forward also. I could not believe my ears when I heard the co-pilot say, "Nose cannon fully armed. Missiles locked in." I saw my husband look out a window. I looked also and saw that the fuel pods on the ends of the wings had opened up and black missiles were extended out of them. The question that kept going through my head was "...Who have I married? What Naval officer files around in a Learjet with missiles on the wings?"

"What kind of a plane is this?" I struggled to ask. I saw the pained look on my husband's face. I had known that his superiors in the Navy had denied him permission to marry me, and that we had defied orders and fled to Reno to marry in spite of orders to the contrary. His superior, an ONI Admiral who at that time the Director of Covert Operations for the CIA, feared that he would disclose too much to me and I would in turn tell it to Barbara Honegger and the group of investigators and reporters with whom we worked. It was now evident to my husband that his boss's fears were being realized. He was faced with a choice. He could lie to me about what kind of a plane we were in and begin our marriage on a lie, or he could tell me the truth about who he was. He chose the latter.

He started his explanation to me by saying that the plane in which we were flying was the Blackbird. It had been William Casey's private jet. He continued by saying that up until 1986 he had been the number three man in the CIA. I objected at that point and told him that I had never heard of a Gunther Ruesebacher. I told him that I was familiar with the hierarchy of the CIA and that I'd never seen his name. He went on to explain that 80% of the CIA is covert and that the real power lies within the covert arm of the CIA. He said that these men are never named publicly, but that I had met many of them at the Naval Postgraduate School and I thought they were Naval officers.

I asked him what happened in 1986. He told me that one of his planes had crashed in Nicaragua and he was blamed for it. I was very familiar with the crash of the C-130 SAT cargo plane in which Eugene Hasenfus was the only survivor. It was the beginning of the Iran/Contra scandal. My husband told me that after the crash he had been thrown out of Langley and attached to a Restricted Interagency Group (RIG). He further stated that Langley wanted nothing to do with him and was trying to distance themselves from him. He made it very clear that he was on the "outs" BIGTIME with the CIA.

I knew all of this at the time the FBI told me that I had married a conman. I had seen the missiles on the Learjet. I had listened to my husband's explanation of the crash in Nicaragua. Only a CIA operative or a reporter with high level access could have known the details of the Contra supply network that he clicked off without a pause or a hesitation. But even knowing those things, the FBI was so convincing in their lie that I believed them at first. I felt that I had been the victim of a conman, and I almost agreed to sign the annulment form that the kindly agent brought out to my home. He told me that he would take it up to the jail and make my husband sign it. When it was complete, he would go with me to court and testify that I had been the innocent victim of a conman.

Fortunately, I knew Richard Brenneke who was a CIA contract agent. After I had recovered my wife enough to think clearly, I called Richard. At first he was very hesitant to give me any information. I later discovered that he felt that someone was trying to infiltrate his support group and undermine his upcoming trial. But when Gunther told me to tell him that I had married "Karlie", I heard Richard choke back tears. He struggled with his words... "Karlie, oh my GOD... you've married Karlie." Richard was silent for a while and then spoke. "Yes, I know him." Then Richard paused a little longer. When he spoke again he began retracting the statements he had made in an emotional outburst. "MAYBE I know him. I'll make some calls and get back to you."

Richard got back to me and confirmed who I had married. I have several taped conversations of Richard and my husband talking and laughing and passing coded messages back and forth. I will enclose a letter from Richard to my husband "Ruee", and me.

On the VERY day I married my husband, the County of St. Charles, Missouri, refilled charges they had filed originally in November of 1986. Please see the enclosed Government Memo on the failed May 25th, 1986 trip to Tehran to rescue the hostages in Beirut. In it you will see the connection between the breaking open of the Iran/Contra scandal and the 1986 indictment of Gunther Rueschauer. Even though he was indicted in 1986, it was only done to distance him from the CIA and destroy his credibility just in case he decided to tell the truth at the hearings. The charges were never pressed. He was freed on a personal recognizance bond and transferred to the Restricted Interagency Group. The charges were left hanging over his head, just in case he got out of line again.

On the VERY day we married, St. Charles County, Missouri refilled the old 1986 charges and issued a warrant for his arrest. Two days later he was arrested in my small home town in California and with the exceptions of seventeen days, he has been incarcerated the entire time of our marriage.

I have asked the CIA to step in and tell the truth about who he is. They ignore me. I have asked the Navy to do something to free one of their men. The legal counsel simply listens to me politely, but so far has done nothing. With all the publicity that my husband has had in the last four years, NEITHER the CIA or the Navy has denied him... this should tell you something. The FBI has denied him publicly and voraciously, but this is another story of interagency rivalry and personal animosity on the part of the FBI agents with whom he was working in the RIG.

On July 16th of 1990, after almost eleven months of incarceration, my husband agreed to plead the Alford plea in a plea agreement. He was given four seven year sentences and released on probation. We immediately drove from St. Louis to Omaha, Nebraska arriving there at Offutt Air Force Base on July 19th, 1990. If you will check the records for this day, you will find that Offutt was getting ready for a big meeting (July 20 and 21) at which it was decided to close the Locking Glass Command. My husband and I were present at the VIP quarters for that meeting. Our room was next door to that of William Webster, the DCI. My husband introduced me to William Webster at the Officer's Club on Offutt.

My husband had to attend meetings at night. I later found out that he was training in a simulator to fly a mission that would take place July 26, 1990, one day after April Glasple had her meeting with Saddam Hussein. The mission my husband was to fly was in an SR-71. I saw the plane come in and pick him up. He landed at a Naval refueling station near my home to fuel one of the four 71's that was going on the mission. My mother and my niece met him there. (We have all testified to this under oath, and we weren't charged with perjury!) The destination of the top secret flight was Moscow. A treaty that had already been signed by George Bush was being taken over for Mikhail Gorbachev's signature. About a week later Saddam Hussein invaded Kuwait.

But at that time, I hardly noticed what Iraq had done. Because tragedy had struck me down one more time. My husband and I were told that the Navy had decided to "sanitize" him, promote him to Admiral and give him a command for two years, and then he could retire. We were ordered to Castle Air Force Base, another SAC command, for a debriefing and a promotion to Admiral ceremony. The debriefing took place. But instead of a promotion to Admiral, the same FBI agent who had arrested him a year before arrested him again. This time for impersonating a Naval officer. The arresting agent assured my husband that they had no intention of pressing these charges. They were only doing it so that Missouri would have cause to revoke his probation and throw him in prison for 28 years.

And this is exactly what has happened. In the last four years I have told my story thousands of times. But my husband is still incarcerated. On August 26th of this year the appeals Judge vacated the sentence and ordered him released. Instead, the varden wrote the prosecutor and admitted that he had no legal right to continue holding Rusbacher, and if the Prosecutor didn't come get him, he would have to turn Rusbacher loose. I will enclose the letter.

The County Sheriff picked my husband up on September 15th, 1993. He is currently being held in the St. Charles County Jail on $450,000 CASH ONLY bail. The three counts on which he is being held are all Class C and D felonies...just barely above the misdemeanor level. The combined total of the three checks is less than $6,000...six thousand dollars, and yet he is being held on this ridiculous bail.

I contacted the CIA legal counsel, Elizabeth Rindkopf, last Friday and sent her the enclosed fax. I did so because I fear my husband's life is in danger, and since I know that what is happening to him was started as a CIA disciplinary action, I asked her to intercede and stop it before he died.

One small but "amazing" detail that I have neglected to mention in this letter is...at the time we married, Donald Gregg...the very man whose nomination as Ambassador to South Korea I had tried to derail, was the Chairman of the CIA discipline committee. I found out very quickly that you do not disobey orders from the CIA and go unpunished. I am certain that our punishment has been so harsh not just because of who my husband is, but because of WHO he married. Not only was I hated by the CIA and George Bush, but I had interfered in the career of the CIA discipline officer.

I faxed a copy of the letter to Rindkopf to the legal Counsel of ONI, LTC Chema. My concern is for my husband's heart condition. Shortly before his sentence was vacated, the Missouri Prison System, under protest, sent him to a cardiologist who told him that he needs quadruple by-pass surgery. The St. Charles County jail had refused to give him his heart medicine until members of our network began bombarding them with phone calls. Then they took him to a hospital for a thallium stress test. The Osteopath who conducted the test scheduled Gunther for an angioplasty October 22nd. This concerned me greatly because the Osteopath did not have Gunther's complete medical file, and I felt the man would be flying by the seat of his pants as he performed a life threatening procedure on my husband's heart. But I also knew that if Gunther refused the procedure, the jail could refuse his medicine until he died and then say that it was his own fault because he had declined THEIR prescribed treatment.

So I vent begging for help from the very monsters who have kept us apart for four years. I am including the notes that I have faxed to both the CIA and ONI.

MS Schroeder, in 1984 I was Gary Hart's central California coordinator. I have been active in the same causes that you have been. I am asking you as a woman and as a friend and supporter, to please...please look into this and help me free my husband from a cruel and probably fatal CIA disciplinary action.

Gunther's real crime is called "intel activation" and I have even told that the punishment is usually death. Haven't we paid a high enough price already? You are my last hope. I am destitute and in failing health. Please examine the extensive records I am sending you and stop in before it is too late and my husband is dead. The Navy is destroying another woman and the career of another officer. Please stop this torture while Gunther and I are still alive to enjoy the comfort of each other's arms once again.

Thank you for your time and your deep concern. Sincerely,

Rayelan Rusbacher

11 Cavalry Division

Dear Mr. Robinson:

You Sir, in the conduct of your affairs, the seminars you have hosted honoring Hanoi Communist Leaders and War Criminals and in magazine articles you have written calling for immediate and total normalization with Hanoi (With no consideration whatsoever over the fate of 2,248 POW/MIAs) have shown yourself to be a liar, a turncoat, a traitor and a disgrace and embarrassment to everything the United States of America has ever stood for.

101st Airborne Division

We will begin by refuting the ten main points of your article in the Vietnam Business Journal and then go on to show why normalized relations with the Hanoi Regime under the current set of circumstances are in the worst possible interests of the United States. YOUR ASSERTIONS:

- 1) WE SHOULD NOT HAVE BEEN IN THE VIETNAM WAR IN THE FIRST PLACE. On that score, you are absolutely right. No argument.
- 2) WORLD WAR II AND KOREA HAD MORE POW/MIAs. So what? The American people are now awake and paying attention to the fact that their government lies to them. People tended to believe the govt back then; no more. A war is a war and a POW is a POW. We want all of them back. When CWO Michael Durant was captured in Somalia, we had a letter in his wife's hand the next morning explaining to her the facts of life and govt duplicity on POW/MIA and put our entire resources at her disposal. The govt moved quickly and arranged his release in 11 days, a new record. They realized there is now a permanent POW/MIA lobby and we will absolutely not tolerate new POW betrayals or allow the old ones to exist much longer. We are the snake coiled and ready to strike and they know it.

- 3) THERE ARE 300,000 COMMUNIST MISSING POW/MIAS TODAY IN VIETNAM. That is simply preposterous. There aren't any. They won the war. They control the country. Any Communist "Missing" or "Hiding" from American Forces could have simply gone home after the fall of Saigon in 1975. Who could possibly be detaining them today???
- 4) LARGE NUMBERS OF AMERICAN BUSINESSMEN WOULD "FIND" POW/MIAS. That shows how really ignorant you are of Vietnam. In the entire course of the war, we never found COSVN, Vietcong headquarters. It is in the Parrots Beak and now a popular museum to American stupidity and incompetence. In eight years, the CIA was never able to locate the hostages in Beirut, and that's just a city. There are POW/MIAS in Russia and China. When is the last time an American businessman ever found one of them?
- 5) POW/MIA GROUPS "NEED THE MONEY" AND KEEP THE ISSUE ALIVE. How many activists do you know that have a penthouse on Park Avenue? How many are in the CFR or the Forbes 200? When I go to Washington DC to demonstrate I sleep on the floor along with 30 other hardcore Vietnam Veterans at the house of a patriot. We send out for Pizza. What little extra money we have we give to cold and homeless veterans we meet at the wall. We do not arrive at $1,000 a plate banquets at the Plaza Hotel in limousines like the VACC members. Our family members tell us to get out of the issue and tend to matters at home; but we are motivated by a higher calling of patriotism, the same one that called us to fight a war when our peers went to Canada and England. No Mr. Robinson, I think it's more those of your ilk who are concerned with money in this endeavour, not us.
- 6) IF THE POW/MIAS COME HOME THERE WILL BE SOME "NEW" CAUSE. There certainly will be Mr. Robinson, the cause of freedom, democracy and human rights for the Vietnamese People, our original reason for fighting the war in the first place!
- 7) UNCONSCIONABLE INTIMIDATION OF CONGRESS? Since when is it a crime to write your congressman on matters of importance to our country? Did you know that family members of U.S. Soldiers "Serving" in UN Forces in Somalia were ordered not to contact their congressmen? Did you have anything to do with that? How much do your PAC's and special interest groups contribute to campaign funds?
- 8) WE HELD THE EMBARGO "CLUB" OVER HANOI'S HEAD FOR 20 YEARS. Not true. We offered them unconditional normalization, and even most favored nation status in 1978. Why did they not take it when it was offered?
- 9) WE NEED HANOI FOR AMERICA'S STRATEGIC INTERESTS. I believe that is mindspeak for new wars and profits for the companies you work for. Why should 19-year old Marines go die to protect communist Vietnam from Communist China?
- 10) MOST OF THE VIETNAMESE LIVING TODAY WERE BORN AFTER THE WAR. So what? ALL OF THE LEADERS were certainly alive during the war and you can't be a member of the Politburo unless you personally killed at least ten Americans.

I wonder, Mr. Robinson, if you can possibly imagine what it would be like to go through an all-night rocket and mortar barrage, see the rocket's red glare and bombs bursting in air and in the first morning's light see dead U.S. Marines two deep as far as the eye can see in any direction and the Vietnamese Communist dead eleven deep on the concertina wire? Can you even possibly begin to comprehend what experiencing that can be like? How about spending Christmas Eve under incoming fire and the only present you wanted was to be alive to see the sun rise? How about standing on the deck of a pitching aircraft carrier at dusk and counting how few planes returned from the squadron that left at dawn(5,000 US aircraft losses)? How about telling your girlfriend on the runway at Travis AFB that if you're killed in action your dying thoughts will be of her?, or come home to an ungrateful nation that didn't support its troops and streets full of hippies like you and Bill Clinton and Ron Brown spitting on you?

Have you ever been to a National Alliance of Families POW/MIA national convention and hugged the wife, daughter or mother of a POW while she cried after hearing from her case officer who lied and said there was no new information when in fact there was lots of it but it was covered up? So shysters and scum like you can go back to NAM and enrich yourselves? How many names on the Vietnam Wall or on the POW/MIA lists are of people related to you, Mr. Robinson? Who the hell do you think you are that you can enrich yourself off my sacrifice and those of the nine million Vietnam Veterans? We paid the price for freedom; you didn't. And you certainly don't have the right to abandon our brothers just so you and your fatcat rich scumbag buddies can get richer.(While your sons sit out wars).

We are in possession of letters from Hanoi Prime Minister Vo Van Kiet to you authorizing you to arrange a meeting between him and President-elect Clinton last December and your letter to National Security Advisor Tony Lake trying to set it up. In your letter, you mentioned "Dire consequences" if other members of the Politburo in Vietnam learned of these overtures. Why the concern? Is all not well in the worker's paradise? Congressman Sam Gibbons(D,FL) said that Mr. Kiet was a war criminal who should be tried and shot by a war tribunal. During the war, he had three green berets kneeling in front of him(Versace, Bennett, and Rohrabach)and he ordered them to sign a confession. Versace spoke for them and said, "We are Special Forces Officers, we will not dishonor our country, we demand to be treated in accordance with the Geneva Convention". Vo Van Kiet said, "Very Well" and shot all three unarmed American POWs in the back of the head with his pistol. This is the man you want to bring to America and cut business deals with? Guess again, Mr. Robinson!

Senator Robb and others in congress have assailed Vietnam for their horrible human rights violations. So have Amnesty International and Asia Watch and Senator Dole. When are they going to release Dr. Que and the 70,000 political prisoners? How can we condemn these atrocities in South Africa yet condone them in Vietnam? Lane Kirkland, President of AFL-CIO says that normalization with Vietnam will cause millions of Americans to lose their jobs and further weaken our troubled economy. Many things must change before we move any closer to Hanoi. Our edict to you and your Vietnam-American Chamber of Commerce members is this:

We will fight you in the streets of New York, in the Halls of Congress, in the boardrooms, on talk shows, on Patriot FAX networks and in the hearts and minds of the American People. We have the moral high ground, our cause is just, we are the defender of the faithful and instruments of the Will of God protecting his chosen people and the American Way of Life. We are military extremists and we will never sell out our country or the men we fought with. We are the force driving this issue; we are not going away and we will never give up.

AN OPEN LETTER

TO: President William Clinton - FAX (202) 456-2461

So, how's it going these days? Catching a lot of flak? Personally, I wouldn't have your job if it was the only one left. You get pulled in every direction, you get bad advice, and any decision you make always leaves people or organizations hanging out to dry. But, at least the benefits are good.

In comparing government with the people, I think that why people are so hostile towards government, is because governments are so indifferent towards the people. By this I mean, people in government are insulated against the reality of what life is all about. Once in office, everything is handed to them on a silver platter. There is no day-to-day struggle that we go through. Money apparently doesn't seem to be a problem to politicians. They go into office with a buck in their pocket, and leave as millionaires. They make themselves impervious to the very laws they make for us. Our sons and daughters are sent to strange lands to kill people we have no quarrel with. Some are handed back to us in caskets. Some come back in pieces. Unable to hold a job or raise a family. Yet, the sons and daughters of politicians are safe at home getting a first rate education. Then there is all the perks, frills, junkies, and handsome paychecks that seem to keep growing. For people who suppose to work for us, it appears to be the other way around.

On the other side of the coin is us. Laws are made that allow the destruction of babies while still in the comfort of its womb. Our teenagers are handed condoms for safe sex, needles for drug use, and given a pat on the back. Elements of government permit the spread of this pestilence known as AIDS to run rampant throughout our land. Rather than taking a harsh stance to isolate and protect, more people are allowed into this country who carry this disease. Churches are raided by our government and ministers are arrested while still delivering their sermons. Seizure of houses and possessions are confiscated under speculation that the owners might have drugs even though none is present. Speaking of drugs Mr. President, when will this drug war end, or has it even started yet? Then there are heavy, unfair and illegal taxes laid on our backs that has reached the point where there is nothing left over for our children to inherit. We are taxed to the hilt to put our children through school and they graduate as illiterates, unable to hold decent jobs. Whole corporations have moved out of this country leaving households with no money to even buy the necessities of life. Everything they've worked hard for over the years is lost. The only medium of entertainment that one can afford is their TV. But turn it on and all you get is explicit sex and foul mouthed "entertainment" by what appears to be something straight out of hell. Great training for the kids for when they enter their non-schools. Then we have murder, rape, burglaries and a host of other violent crimes that continues to grow. So what does government do? They take guns away from the law abiding citizens. The criminals still have theirs. If we use a blackjack for defense, the criminals sue us, and the government jails us. Needless to say, we are not happy campers out here.

As you can see, the government's way has not worked. Why don't you apply some of God's rules and see what happens. After all, our Constitution does bear proof of His name. You may not have stopped to realize this, but you were chosen before the world was ever created to be the steward of this nation. A steward as you well know, has the responsibility of being the administrator of an estate belonging to someone else. What do you think He would say if He came back right now and seen the wreckage of His estate, and His people defected, failed and killed. He would apply what He said in Luke 12:42-46 to you, and other politicians.

Right now, you have the power to change things and turn this country back to the degree of decency and freedom it once had. You can stop the wars started by Bush; to force those corporations to bring back the jobs we once had; to provide money to deal with this deadly disease; to clean up this smut being doled out to us by Hollywood; to stop these deadly drugs from entering our country; to provide an earnest education for our children; and to clean up those hoodlums who think they own the streets. Big job isn't it? But then you'll have eight years to finish the job and leave your legacy to the next person. And if he fails to follow through, at least you've kept the faith. Keep going the way you have been, and the above verses from Luke will apply. Consider yourself on notice. You have a choice. I've done my duty by informing you.

Respectfully

Latest JOURNAL Goes To Press

Editor's note: Readers, please keep in mind that it takes a good 6-8 weeks of publication and printing activities between the time we announce the latest JOURNAL here, only GOING to press, and when that JOURNAL is actually completed and available for distribution.

10/23/93 #1 HATONN

INTRODUCTION

THE ZOG BOG

What you will find in this JOURNAL will undoubtedly be controversial (as you ones like to say). I can only ask that you READ IT ALL—CAREFULLY—so that you do not miss the confirmations of the Truth within.

We sit with letters of love, appreciation, complaint and ideas for "restructuring" things to be more suitable to you, the readers. We accept them all in great appreciation. Please, however, remember that we cannot please all of the people all of the time nor some of the people ANY of the time nor all of the people even some of the time.

We get complaints of the "length" of the paper—only to have suggestions from the same writer which would double the "largest" sized paper if we integrated the suggestions. However, many suggestions are already under introduction—please bear with the crew. The Chief Editor, Dr. Young, is moving into intensive SCIENTIFIC research and that means that already overburdened journalists and editors have to take up new burdens. [See Dr. Young's comments on these changes on page 17.] We get complaints about "blown up" letters which take too much space and waste time and space. We have no facilities to work around such inserted material and since a letter will cause forfeiture of a page it seems better to "blow it up" so you can more easily read it. We don't always have time nor help to type and retype everything.

We also get complaints about the "monotonous monologues" of Hatonn and Soltec. Sorry, readers, this is NOT a paper for the masses as such and we shall continue to offer what seems appropriate to your needs—according to OUR mission.

We get complaints that we offer too much negative without recourse or instructions to the "positive" and do not offer contacts with ones "doing something". Well, if we know of ones doing something worthy we will always print it. I find very little going on which is positive to FREEDOM. My mission is to inform you of WHAT, WHO, WHY, WHEN, WHERE, etc. I am urged to give times and places of patriot marches and players doing something. I find that most of the "marches" and "doings" are distractions from TRUTH and actual value.

I am reprimanded for not giving a detailed writeup and taking "space" in the paper to cover the Devvie Kidd "march on Washington like Spotlight did." OK, let us look at the "march" in point. There were to be at least 10,000 marchers—there were less than a thousand. There were to be support groups for the "marchers"—yet Spotlight had a distraction group present which further lessened the impact—planned or not, it matters little. There was NO coverage on a national level—not even MENTIONED except on some isolated patriot interviews. Why? Well, if I must stop telling you "why" to please all of the people some of the time—you won't find out, will you—and, if you don't find out—you CANNOT FIX IT.

We are threatened with subscription cancellations "IF" we don't shape up and do a better job of giving the people "what they want" and stop the drivel. So be it—obviously our paper does not please these people—although they suggest they will stop "supporting" us and "get the information from others who get the CON-TACT". Thank you.

We also are told that the paper is too long to get read and "go back to the small format"—HOW? Is it not possible since the cost is the same for you who do not wish it "all" to simply not read it all? You act as if, as with television, you are bound, gagged and tied up until you read everything. It is offered for your information—if you do not wish truthful information—cast it aside. If you cannot see supporting us, then we have no way of countering that decision for if we all "just quit" and become a voice for the misinformation teams—we are worse than being "out of business"—GOD HAS FEW ENOUGH TROOPS AS IS. Do you actually think our people ENJOY being on the front line of attack every minute of their life? And you who write for SELF and SELF INTEREST and DISAGREEMENT—is it not possible that others OUT THERE are not as advanced as YOU and desire this information? Can we not GIVE A BIT to a brother ALSO seeking direction? Can we not come together in FRIENDSHIP to consider a task which IS worth the doing:

From Marie:

FRIENDSHIP

*It is not a matter of giving or receiving
It is earned
Mutual likes, dislikes
Beliefs—
A moral fiber
Mutual respect and trust
And by that
It becomes a natural process
To give and receive
To support
To share
To love
To be - - -*

*And with the watchful eye of GOD
And HIS gentle hand
As so the oak grows—
So shall true
FRIENDSHIP*

Thank you.

THOUGHTS ON FREEDOM

There is no way to enter into the tangled webs of that which is LIE in tiny cells—for if you look not about you—you will miss the enemy for that is the enemy's intent. ALL have no intention of desiring the path of Light, readers, for they are steeped in the game of physical gain and regain for self. All we can do is offer that which IS and you shall accept or discard that which you choose. You will not always recognize enemy—nor friend, as you are more controlled and taught to move toward mental, physical and spiritual disaster at the hands of the Adversary of goodness. WE ARE NOT A PATRIOT GROUP—WE ARE NOT A "GROUP" OF ANY KIND. WE ARE EFFORTING TO DO A JOB (A MISSION) WITHIN THE ASSIGNMENT OF HOSTS INTO A CHANGING ERA OF EXPRESSION—THE TRANSITION INTO THIS RADIANCE WILL "GET" MOST OF YOU AND OURS IS TO LEAVE A HISTORICAL DOCUMENTATION OF "WHAT HAPPENED". We will always do the best we can to fill your needs and desires as to offerings—but we compromise NO ITEM OF TRUTH TO PLEASE ANY MAN. This is hard for our workers in the focus on THE LIES. I can only ask that you go to the end of this JOURNAL and read what one, Rosenthal had to say about you, the masses and "them", the Elite. GOD WAITS—BUT NOT MUCH LONGER!

I will share a few FACTS with you. It comes from a FAX and IT has no information save a tiny reference to something called ExPOSE and a name, Robert D. Newcomer (216-264-2318). It is well done, succinct and worthy of your noting. Confirmations are pouring in for those things we have written over the past years and months for we have only been writing for 4+ years—but it is mostly there for you—in print, inexpensive except in my people's blood and yes, SHOCKING. However, if you can function in the world as it is—you are either SHOCKED or DEAD or have become a total Zombie.

QUOTE:

CRIMINAL POLITICS OR PUBLIC APATHY

The moral, financial, and constitutional structure of America is being rapidly altered in a manner that may result in many new catastrophic and depraved realities for all citizens. [H: You as a species are in total SPIRITUAL catastrophe.]

FACT: Special interest groups are diligently attempting to manipulate the re-writing of the United States Constitution. Thirty two states have approved the Constitutional Convention and only thirty four are required.

FACT: The tax increase endorsed by Congress in August was mis-represented to the public as it will have zero impact on reducing the National Debt which will continue to grow out of control because the interest alone is now one billion dollars daily. Phone calls to Washington were 90 to 1 against this largest tax increase in history.

FACT: Hillary Clinton's proposed health care program represents the largest spending increase ever thus insuring the need for ever increasing taxes and will mandate that everyone will pay for abortions regardless of their Christian beliefs. Our President's agenda, when analyzed, directly opposes most Christian values.

FACT: Our currency (especially larger bills) is now marked with a magnetic strip about one inch from one end across the entire bill. A plane flying overhead or a car equipped with a proper device can count the money in your home or safety deposit box.

FACT: Military bases are being closed (leaving America exposed) to allegedly cut four billion dollars of spending which is equal to only four days interest on the national debt. How can we conceivably justify this exposure? Our Government is planning to place the military under United Nations control and our sons and daughters may die defending a foreign country while under foreign leadership.

FACT: The U.S. House of Representatives just approved HR 1804 "Goals 2000-Educate America Act". The Bill represents government CONTROL of the schools comparable to 1920s Russia under Joseph Stalin.

FACT: Second Amendment rights to bear arms is under attack at Federal and State levels and the media is preparing American citizens to accept confiscation of their guns leaving citizens defenseless against a tyrannical government. Hitler and Metzenbaum both agree that gun control really does work. [H: Note also that WITHIN the Bill for "The Health Plan" ARE ALSO GUN CONTROL MEASURES WHICH WILL PASS WITHOUT EVEN BEING PUBLICLY NOTED! Success of PLAN 2000 IS BASED on disarming the innocent citizens. It is all but finished!]

FACT: Senate Bill 8 (Crime Control Act of 1993) proposes fifty new reasons for which an American citizen can be put to DEATH. This bill would nullify the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th Amendments of the Bill of Rights.

FACT: Within three years the interest on the national debt will grow to the point to where 100 percent of federal taxes collected will just cover the interest which is profit in the pockets of those private bankers who make the loans to our government. The interest on the debt is unconstitutional and is the KEY to our problem.

FACT: NAFTA (North American Free Trade Agreement) undercuts American sovereignty and translates into lower American living standards and lost jobs.

FACT: Martial law has been in effect in Puerto Rico now for several months with house to house searches and police state tactics in place. Could this be a test run?

If all citizens are not aware and involved in this pending legislation being promoted by our leadership, is it because of CRIMINAL POLITICS where legislators have turned their backs on representative government or is it PUBLIC APATHY whereas the public is too busy trying to make ends meet under increased tax burdens to do their homework? I believe it is both and, if allowed to continue, our grandchildren may never know the American dream!!!

END QUOTE

And WHO have you allowed to do this to you? READ ON, THIS JOURNAL WILL POINT IT OUT QUITE CLEARLY, I BELIEVE.

The next complaint we always get (We as in "Messengers") is: "Where have you been? It is easy to come NOW and 'smart off'—but where were you with your alarm clock while all this came down on us unsuspecting innocents?"

WE WERE HERE TRYING TO GET YOUR ATTENTION!

My Compatriot, Saint Germain, (of PLEIAD-ES CONNECTION [series of JOURNALS] infamous writings) made a rather nifty speech at the old State House in Philadelphia on JULY 4, 1776:

QUOTING:

This is an account of a speech which has been verified and confirmed over and over again:

...A group of men gathered in the old State House in Philadelphia on July 4, 1776, preparatory to signing the Declaration. Among them were Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, John Hancock and John Adams. It was late in the afternoon and they had not signed the Declaration. These men realized that they were faced with the death penalty for high treason if the Revolutionary War failed. They talked of death by scaffolds, axes and the gibbet. Naturally, they were reluctant to sign the document, and their courage seemed to wane.

Suddenly a strong voice sounded from the balcony. A man was speaking to the group of men.

"They may stretch our necks on all the gibbets in the land, they may turn every rock into a scaffold, every tree into a gallows, every home into a grave, and yet the words of that parchment can never die! They may pour blood on a thousand scaffolds, and yet from every drop of blood that dyes the axe, a new champion of Freedom will spring into birth! You cannot blot out the words of God written on that parchment there. The works of God may perish, HIS words, never!

"The words of the Declaration will live in the world long after our bones are dust. To the mechanic in his workshop they will speak hope, to the slave in the mines, Freedom, but to the coward kings, these words will speak tones of warning they cannot choose but hear.

"Sign that parchment! Sign! If in the next moment the gibbet's rope is about your neck! Sign! By all your hopes in life or death, as men, as husbands, as fathers, brothers!—or be accursed forever. Sign! Not only for yourselves but for all ages, for that parchment will be the textbook of FREEDOM, the Bible of the rights of men FOREVER.

"Nay, do not start and whisper with surprise. It is true—your own hearts witness it! God proclaims it. Look at this strange band of exiles and outcasts, suddenly transformed into a people, a handful of men, weak in arms but Mighty in GOD-like faith. Look at your recent achievements—your Bunker Hill, your Lexington, and then tell me, if you can, that God has not given America to be free!

"I beg you to sign that parchment for the sake of these millions whose very breath is now hushed in intense expectations as they look up to you for the awful words. YOU ARE FREE!

"Were my soul trembling on the verge of eternity, were this hand freezing to death, were this voice choking in the last struggle, I would still, with the last gasp of that voice, implore you to remember this Truth—GOD HAS GIVEN AMERICA TO BE FREE!"

The unknown speaker sank exhausted in his chair. The men, fortified with his enthusiasm, rushed forward. John Hancock was the first to snatch up the quill and pen his name. He had hardly finished before the quill was grasped by another, and then another, and yet another. Finally, it was done.

They turned to thank the man for his inspiring words, but he was not there, and unfortunately no one knew who he was or where to find him.

THE UNKNOWN SPEAKER?

TRUTH FROM THE

"ZOG BOG"

ZOG—Zionist Occupational Government

If you know not the players in the game-team which opposes that which you find to be "right" and "truth"—you cannot consider the winning of the match. It is unpleasant to realize self has been duped and made the fool—it takes MEN (generic term) OF GREATNESS to confront that which IS for what it IS and rise-up in strength to overcome and reclaim rightful ownership of property—be it physical or SPIRITUAL. How many MEN (generic term) OF GREATNESS MIGHT THERE BE?

DEDICATION

To the one who has been most "tested" in penning of this volume—from onset to this point, I take in loving protection for the terror of knowing the enemy is great in the disclosing. Even the prior brother and publisher of these writings has joined with and instructs her local enemy to bind her hand and foot—literally—through the unjust system you call "law", where criminals can "pay off" the unjust bearers of power. I denounce the coalition of ones, George Green and Jason Brent, who have formed a league to block justice, commit and hide crime and bring total injustice against the citizens and our own people and the people of Lighted God. This is not a "local" confrontation—it is the pattern for your world in chaos and loss. Woe be unto ye who act so foolishly in the service of Evil.

May the justice of that spiraling sword come to rest upon the tongues and beings of you who act in dark and evil intent and action. Your actions are seen and confirmed and those you thought to be YOUR FRIENDS are not and have told of your coalition!

I thank you scribe, but that which SEEMS so desperate has equal reflection in Truth and radiance. I walk with thee, child, and with those who likewise walk with US.

Thankyou, Dharma and thankyou, Oberli. The path may not be seemingly easy—but it shall be fruitful as promised by our Creator in that which is JUST. I salute you for you ones are my hands that we might bring THE WORD.

Nevada Corporations

TRAPS OF THE
CORPORATE LIFESTYLE

Personal Holding Corporations are a type of corporation that is taxed 28% on top of the regular tax on undistributed income within the corporation. This additional tax is significant if you are looking at a 15% federal corporate tax, and a California tax of 9% or 8%. Add 28% tax on your corporate income and your tax rate goes through the roof.

So, what constitutes a Personal Holding Corporation? A personal holding corporation is any corporation in which one or both of the following criteria are present: In the last half of its tax year, five or fewer shareholders own more than 50% of the value of the outstanding stock. One simple way of avoiding this would simply be to have six people equally own the stock of the corporation, this would allow you to avoid the first criteria.

The second criteria is any corporation in which at least 60% of the corporation's undistributed adjusted gross income for that tax year is personal holding corporation income; basically passive income. This was created so that people wouldn't create corporations just to dump their investments and other property into it—in other words it is a penalty because of the tax advantages available to a corporation. There are of course some creative ways of working around this situation. "Passive income" is referred to as interest, dividends and rents, income that is not actively generated by a corporation. A personal holding corporation would be labeled a holding corporation if at least 60% of the corporation's gross income was passive. There are ways to avoid this, and pay careful attention because if you get into an audit situation you don't want to be considered a personal holding corporation.

There are a lot of advantages to having good friends that you can trust and work with. This allows you to pass around the ownership of a corporation quickly and quietly. It is important for everybody to make good contacts when you are playing these games. They should be trustworthy enough that you can give them every cent of control to your corporation and feel confident.

Another thought on avoiding the personal holding corporation trap is to not make any profit. Work your corporation carefully so that at the end of the year there are no profits showing or better yet, at the end of the year you are in the hole. That looks even better; it keeps the auditors out, especially on small and newer corporations. They expect to see some losses the first few years. The other thing to consider is to limit your personal holding corporation, or passive income to 59% and have the rest active in one way or another. Sell goods or services that add up to 41% of the corporation's overall income. So if you run into personal holding corporation problems, bring in active income if you can.

The next type of corporation that we are going to look at is Personal Service Corporations. This is another area that you want to try to avoid. There is a 34% flat tax on all personal service corporation profits. Personal service corporations are your lawyers, accountants, and consultants, etc. There are two tests to qualify for this status. There is a functional test and an ownership test. Just let those creative juices start flowing as you read this.

First of all, the functional test. To qualify as a personal service corporation, the principal activities are health care, law, engineering, architecture, accounting, actuarial sciences, performing arts and consulting. Capital is not a material income producing factor in these businesses. They are intangible services. You are not selling the actual goods to other entities.

The other test is the ownership test. All stock or substantially all the corporate stock is owned by current or related employees, or their relatives, their estates or their heirs; this would qualify it as a personal service corporation. This is an easy one to get around. Sell some of (they actually don't say what percentage), or substantially all of the corporate stock so the IRS can come in and decide what that means exactly. A figure that I have seen thrown out is, if 10% of the corporation is owned by individuals who are not employees or not involved in the corporation, then you can get around the personal service corporation status, where you end up with the 34% corporate tax.

So how do you avoid personal service corporation status? One of the ideas is instead of doing consulting or law or other services, just sell something. Sell a law book, sell some kind of product, do seminars or something that is more of a tangible item. The other simple way is don't own your corporation. Sell part of the corporation to non-employees. If you have a corporation and you have income coming in and yet you are not an employee, but maybe a contractor for that corporation, then you are not going to be a personal service corporation. You have to be careful what relationship you have with that corporation as far as being an employee or a contractor. If you got into an audit, the IRS could come in and say that they consider you an employee and not a contractor. If you haven't covered one of the other angles, you could be considered a personal service corporation. So have somebody in mind who can help you and can own a percentage of or all of your corporation.

When working with corporations where personal service and personal holding corporation status can be a problem, you can see the value of having a few trustworthy friends. To avoid the personal service corporation status, the owners have to be non-employees and non-relatives of employees or their heirs, so have someone who is not in your immediate family come in and help you out. In-laws are a good example of people to use with your corporate strategy because they are not your immediate family. Always have somebody around to help you out if you need to move ownership quickly out of your own or your family's name.

CONNECTIONS—MORE GOATS and the "ELITE" PART III and End of Series

THE "STONE of SCONE" and ONE-WORLD RELIGION

I discovered another family in the English peerage that displays goats on their coat of arms. Its name is "Ruthven" of Freeland, Co. Perth in Scotland. (There may be other titled people using this symbol that do not have a picture displayed of their coat of arms.) A copy of Ruthven's coat of arms is attached. According to Burke's Peerage the Ruthvens are "apparently of Northumbrian or Scandinavian descent, took their historic name from the lands and Barony of Ruthven (pronounced Ritven) near Perth, held them from the reign of William the Lion until their dramatic downfall in 1600, when their name and castle was forfeited." The family name was subsequently restored in 1641.

In reading the account of this family in Burke's Peerage one gains a unique glimpse into the history of the times and the "culture" of the ruling houses. Ruthvens were politically active and powerful people with "high" connections, although things didn't always go their way. It is in this house that we find a trace of that famous "Stone of Scone", which was moved in 1296 A.D. from Scone in Scotland (where the Scottish kings were crowned) to the Coronation Chair at Westminster Abbey in London (where the English kings are crowned). It appears that the Ruthvens also were Goths. They had a Scandinavian name before they started using the name of their castle (Ruthven) in 1223 A.D. I shall quote more from Burke's Peerage:

"Thor, who granted the Church of Tranent to the monks of Holyrood, was probably overlord of the great mountainous district of Crawford in Clydesdale, and identical with the noble, Thor Sweyn's-son, who witnessed Royal Charters of King David I between 1127 and 1150. He was perhaps a friend of the king's son and heir to Henry, Earl of Northumberland, who was commemorated in a Charter granted to Scone Abbey by his son.

Sweyns Thor's-son, feudal overlord of the district of Crawford, which was held for him by his powerful vassal, William de Lindsay (himself a Baron, Justicair of Scotland, and ancestor of the Lindsay Earls of Crawford). [Here we have that name of "Lindsay" again.] He was at the royal court of King Malcolm The Maiden, 1163-4, and settled in Perthshire before 1188-89, when he granted lands in Gowrie to the monks of Scone." This family has many marital ties to other landed and titled gentry of more than one country.

Because of the "Ruthvens'" support of the monks at Scone Abbey, it is likely they had some early connections with the "Stone of Scone", although Burke's Peerage does not say so. However, the Ruthvens were involved with the kings of Scotland, Sweden and England, and were active at the time the stone was moved to London. Some of the family were said to be "distinguished alchemists", and one was said to have "discovered the Philosophers' Stone". Some also were "accused of necromancy and witchcraft". One descendent married Robert, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, near 1651 A.D. (Of course it was Lord Arthur Balfour whose name is on the Balfour Declaration, dated November 2, 1917, which declared England's support for Palestine becoming a homeland for the Jews.)

The name "Gore" can also be found in the Ruthven lineage. Walter James, Baron Ruthven, married Lady Caroline Gore in 1869 (d. 1914), "eldest daughter of the Earl of Arran". Whether this family is related to Vice-President Albert Gore, I could not say, although several descendents live in the United States. The "Gore" family is also related to several other titled families in Great Britain.

So—What about the "Stone of Scone"? Its history has presented a number of problems, and may not actually be what the "legends" tell us it is—then again, the story may be true and tell us more than the "legends" were intended to tell (yet).

Supposedly, the "Stone of Scone" was originally called the "Lia Foil", and belonged in Ireland. The early kings of Leinster were crowned on it, and "legend" has it that it is the "Stone of Scone" now in the English Coronation Chair in Westminster Abbey. Edward I is said to have brought the Stone from Scone in 1296, as it is said to have

RUTHVEN OF FREELAND

"recognized the destined king by roaring when he stood upon it." (Ref. Encyclopedia of Religion & Ethics) Further, quote: "It seems not impossible that similar animistic or animatistic beliefs may have once been attached to the 'King's Stone' at Kingston-on-Thames, on which the Anglo-Saxon kings were crowned, and to the Coronation Stone of the kings of Sweden at Upsala. A curious story of the power of a sacred stone to determine the succession to the throne is related of a certain Scythian Tribe. When a king died, a tribal assembly met on the banks of the River Tanais to determine the successor to the throne. In the river was a stone like a crystal, resembling in shape a man wearing a crown. Whoever was able to find it and produce it in the assembly became king."

It would seem from the above reference that indeed, there are many corollaries here with some very old beliefs (or purported beliefs) of the Khazars/Goths/Vikings/Thulians/and Odin's crew. For, it is the Goths who have been called "Scythian", it is the Goths, Khazars of the Crimea (including Atilla the Hun), who lived on the River Tanais (now known as the "Don"), and it is from this area that "Odin" proceeded to the Baltic area and hence set-up his sons as rulers of the countries all around. Also—another name for Odin is "Woden", or "Wettin", and the present monarchy of Great Britain (among other "Saxon" rulers) claims descent from Odin/Wettin!

Further, those of you who have read my articles on the "Odinic Mysteries" may recall that Odin practiced magic (called "seid" in the Scandinavian countries) and was said to be able to make a head of a dead man talk through the power given to it via extreme concentration and "singing of spells"! In addition, there are many, many correlations between the "Odinic Mysteries" and Freemasonry! Upsala was where Odin had his castle, and where "Valhalla" was said to be located. All of it, historically and legendarily, identifies rather closely to this group that "Dr. John Coleman" calls "The Committee of 300", and Hatonn calls the "Khazars". (Please see my article on the Odinic Mysteries in the 3/2/93 issue of the PHOENIX LIBERATOR.)

Surprisingly the "Stone of Scone" now has another "legend" attached to it. The actual truth of the matter may be something else. Nevertheless, that ones would want to claim that this particular stone is the one that Jacob laid his head on when he had that Old Testament, Biblical vision of the ladder going to heaven is something to think about (see Gen. 28:12). This reference comes from Manly Palmer Hall's epochal work, The Secret Teachings of

All Ages, Masonic, Hermetic, Quabbalistic & Rosicrucian Symbolical Philosophy. I quote:

"Divination by stones was often resorted to by the Greeks, and Helena is said to have foretold by lithomancy the destruction of Troy. Many popular superstitions about stones survive the so-called Dark Ages. Chief among these is the one concerning the famous black stone in the seat of the Coronation Chair in Westminster Abbey, which is declared to be the actual rock used by Jacob as a pillow. The black stone also appears several times in religious symbolism. It was called "Heliogabalus", a word presumably derived from Elagabal, the Syro-Phoenician sun god. This stone was sacred to the sun and declared to possess great and diversified properties." Mr. Hall was a Mason.

Some questions surely come to mind from the above quote:

1. We know, or are told, that the Phoenicians traded along the coasts of what is known today as Europe, England and the Baltics long before others gained the courage to venture beyond the Gates of Gibraltar in the Mediterranean sea. They could have brought the "pillow" to Ireland. How did it come into their hands? Is it possible the Phoenicians are the originators of the present Old Testament story of Jacob's pillow? And — does that mean they originated much more of the Old Testament?

2. Does this "legend" of Jacob's pillow reveal a hidden connection of the monarchs of Great Britain to Phoenicia and/or a sun god named Elagabal? Or, a hidden relationship to the "Hebrews"? If this is a true story, then this particular stone predates Christianity, as do the early rulers of Ireland and Scotland! In fact, it means the present monarchs choose to cling to a "tradition" that predates Christianity! If this is not a true story then, at least, it appears the propagandists and "architects of culture" may be setting us up to think in these terms. (Who could really tell if it is true or not?)

3. Of course, "Jacob's pillow" has become another important part of the Masonic tradition. You can read about it in Albert Pike's book, Morals and Dogma, a book on Freemasonry. Why is this particular Biblical story retained and made an important part of the "traditions" of Freemasonry? Or is this too one of the many factors being used to promote the One-World Government and One-World "Religion" ideas?

4. Were the Phoenicians and the Goths of the same lineage? If you have read my other articles you will have gained some insight into this possibility for one of Odin's sons was named Tyr (AKA Tyrus, Tirias). One of Phoenicia's main trading cities was Tyre, and Hiram, King of Tyre, has a major role in Masonic dogma. Tirias was a son of Japhet (not Shem or "Sem"). The Goths were sons of Japhet. The present Ashkenazi Jews are sons of Japhet (per Biblical accounts). Therefore, the present monarch of England, as well as many other wealthy and titled people in other countries, are related to the Ashkenazi "Jews" through their relationship to the Khazars who adopted "Judaism" in the 8th Century A.D. The Khazars were Goths, just like the modern ruling houses are mostly Goths and are all related. They obtained their great wealth and power originally through trading, continual war, piracy, slave-trading, marriages with ruling families or purchase of titles, and special privileges gained through intrigue and power. Further, there has always been a "King of the Khazars" who rules all of them!

5. There is another aspect to consider in all of this as well. Was it the ruling Goths (or sons of Japheth) who restructured the "Hebrew" religion from the Sumarian in the first place? The possibility of this will dawn on you more clearly if you have read my previous articles. However, I cannot, unequivocally state that they did—perhaps Hatonn will clear-up this point for us someday. Nevertheless, it has been the Adversary of God who has initiated all of the false teachings. Keep this in mind.

It was "Tyrus", King of Tyre, a wealthy merchant, city-state of Phoenicia, who was identified as an incarnation of Lucifer by Ezekiel (chap. 28).

Of course, all of the above regarding the "Stone of Scone" may be a farce! Remember, kings and queens have often, down through the centuries, created their own religions; made these religions "State" religions; controlled the printing of certain books; supported and promoted certain ideas, etc. In fact, most monarchs have also been head (King/Priests) of the church in their domains! It helps to have a monopoly on information! The priests of Thebes, for example, owned one-third of the property and most of the wealth of Egypt at one time. They also had control of the ruling families for the most part. Religion is a lucrative business, especially when it too is a monopoly, the people are ignorant, and tithes are enforced by the sword. What is needed is a good show, something monarchs have managed to deliver!

Nevertheless, if, in fact, the monarchy of Great Britain is making some kind of original claim to the "Hebrew" religion, or a "Hebrew" religious artifact, it is indeed a part of history that has been suppressed for centuries! Or it is a propaganda tool of the One World Government! Which is it? Is the Queen of England, for example, a "Hebrew"? A "Christian"? A "Heathen"? Or, none of the above? I'm afraid we are going to find out all too soon. Consider: (1) The Queen is head of the Church of England, supposedly a "Christian" church. (2) She is crowned in a chair containing a "Hebrew religious relic", but also one that is supposed to have "magical" powers. (3) Those of you who saw the coronation rites of Queen Elizabeth may recall some aspects of it which also had a distinct "fertility cult" flavor. As I recall (being old enough to do so), Elizabeth and the Archbishop of the Church of England were covered with a special tent during part of the ceremonies, in order to preserve privacy, while we watching the film were told the Archbishop "anointed her breasts"! This activity is a throw-back to the fertility cult practices of the Phoenicians, "Jews", Druids, etc. This coronation ceremony has been highly criticized and may possibly be dropped in the future.

Nevertheless, it is apparent that the monarchs of Great Britain appear to support three, incompatible types of "religion". The next step is a world "religion" that includes some parts of all three. That is the intent of the plan, as laid forth in the Protocols of Zion, and as is now being orchestrated through the World Council of Churches by the "One-Worlders".

I might ask you—if the Zionists thought that "Jacob's pillow" was an important part of their "religion" wouldn't you think they would now be demanding its return to Israel? Maybe "Jacob's Pillow" is irrelevant to present day Israel, or there are "other" plans for it, which the Queen and the Khazars are well aware of.

Bible students have long pondered the meaning of some prophecies in the Book of Daniel, 11:31, and 12:11. What is that "abomination of desolation" to be placed in the temple sanctuary before the total destruction of Jerusalem at the end of this Earthly cycle. I have searched for an answer to this question in a number of places. There appear to be a couple of possibly, symbolic items connected to the past history of the "Hebrews" which could conceivably be used by the "Satanic" group for this purpose. They are: (1) a golden eagle, representing the hated Roman occupational government and later the German government; (2) an ass-head, or an ass (donkey), representing now the so-called "Democratic" One-World-Government, but also having been used in the past to "desecrate" the sanctuary. It is a symbol of "Seth", the "devil", according to some Egyptian "Sethian Cults". (See Secret Teachings of All Ages). (And you thought it was an All-American symbol!)

Surprisingly, or not surprisingly, depending on your present level of information, either of the above two items (or images) could be effectively and easily made a part of the One-World "religion" by representing the One-World Government in the sanctuary. There may yet be a major propaganda movement through our controlled media to perpetrate just such ideas through a "Germanic One-World Government", and-or a "Democratic One-World Government". Watch for it—some of the propaganda is already underway.

Of course, the "abomination" need not be an image, per se. It is just as likely to be the false teachings of immorality so prevalent today, and "worshipped" by the world today. I do not pretend to know what may be finally chosen for this purpose to show the total disrespect of the Satanic group for all that some parts of humanity conceive of as "Godly". Nevertheless, I would like you to carefully consider the "Stone of Scone" as another possible candidate for the "honor" of being the "abomination of desolation" to be placed in the Temple at Jerusalem by an Anti-Christ of the end time; I am speculating.

1. The propagandists could start promoting the stone to the "Jews" as "Jacob's pillow"!

2. The same can be promoted among the "Masons", who are a worldwide brotherhood under the control of our present day "Elite", and who use this symbol in their doctrines.

3. The "Christian" churches are already being brought into the group of the One-Worlders, being taught that "Judaism" is the mother religion. So—if it so happens that the English Monarchs have been "crowned" sitting on this "Jacob's pillow"—what better symbol to use for the One-World "Religion" than Jacob's Pillow, where the religion of Jacob all began!!!

How could this be done? Easily. The newspapers suddenly "discover" the importance of this artifact. The "Jews" suddenly "discover", through the newspapers, the importance of this artifact. The Masons and the so-called "Christian Churches" get on the bandwagon, along with the "magical" (witchcraft and sorcery) movements of today. All will clamor (according to our controlled media) for the return of the Stone to the "Jews" in Jerusalem, forgetting any other "traditions" that may have gone before.

In the clamoring, remember, the "abomination of desolation" is one of the major signs of the end time. And if this stone, or one of the other images, were to be placed in the temple at Jerusalem and become the seat of the Anti-Christ in Jerusalem, keep in mind that the Khazars are related to all of those who could conceivably be chosen to sit on it — High Germans, "English"/German Monarchs, Askhenazi Jews, Goths, Phoenicians, Wealthy Merchants and Financiers, Nazi Princes, or sons of same. The one to be chosen, according to the Protocols of Zion, must be able to rule according to the precepts in those Protocols! Undoubtedly, there will be some effort also to confirm that whoever sits on this "throne" is also a descendent of "King David". However, there are so many descendents of David and Solomon (Solomon had over 100 wives) that "scions of David" will not be hard to find although the actual lineage may be unprovable. In fact, the idea that the "Stone of Scone" is "Jacob's Pillow" would also be very hard to prove. It is a story promulgated for those who have always demanded a king to rule over them, and have rejected God!

Isn't our world ready for a new and better day yet? Read Chapter 8 in 1 Samuel in the Bible for an account of the "people's choice" and its aftermath. Samuel had appointed "Elders" to be Judges over Israel. They all "went aside after filthy lucre". The people of Israel demanded that Samuel set a King over them, like the other nations had. Samuel appealed to God for help. God said, "Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee; for they have not rejected thee but have rejected me, that I should not reign over them..." "Yet protest solemnly unto them and show them the manner of the king that shall reign over them."

I list those things that the "King" will do, according to 1 Samuel Chapter 8,

King James Version of the Bible:

1. He will take your sons and appoint them for himself for his Chariots, and his horsemen.
2. He will appoint captains over thousands as spies, to reap your harvest, to make instruments of war and for his Chariots.
3. He will take your daughters to be cooks and bakers.
4. He will take your fields, your vineyards, your oliveyards, the best of them to give to his servants.
5. He will take the tenth of all you have to give to his servants.
6. He will take your sons, daughters, servants and the goodliest of all your assets and put them to his work.
7. He will take the tenth of your sheep, and ye shall be his servants. (The above is paraphrased.)

Kings and rulers have not changed much over more than two millennia. Hatonn has pretty much given us today the same story as Samuel received from God.

THE "GOAT of MENDES" and the "BILDERBERGERS"

There is another question about "Goats" which I've been researching. That is a connection to the name "The Goat of Mendes", or Baphomet, the goat of Masonic symbology. So far, I have not found a direct link of "The Goat of Mendes" to a person or place in Masonry. However, in searching out this name, I did find several persons with the name "Mendes" with links to the Khazars, the wealthy merchants of the Mediterranean and Baltic areas, the "Jews", financiers, the "Elite" and the One-World Government. I shall list some of them for you. The name is not shown in most Who's Who listings or encyclopedias. The references below are taken from Jewish sources.

The Standard Jewish Encyclopedia:

Mendes: Family of Marrano origin. Among its outstanding members were:

(1) Alvaro Mendes, see Solomon Ibn Yaish

(2) Diogo Mendes, a Portuguese banker. He established an important financial and trading house at Antwerp (Belgium) in the 1500s and long headed the Marrano Community of that city. He was brother-in-law to Gracia Nasi.

(3) Fernando Mendes was a Marrano Physician. He accompanied Catherine of Braganza when she went to England to marry Charles II. He founded a noted English-Jewish family.

(4) Mendes-France, Pierre (1907-), a French statesman belonging to an old Bordeaux Sephardi family. A lawyer by profession, he was elected to the French Parliament in 1932, and in 1938, was deputy minister of finance in Leon Blum's government. During World War II, he served the Free French Air Force and was appointed by Gen. de Gaulle as finance commissioner in Algeria. Mendes was executive director of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (1946) and French Governor of the International Monetary Fund. He served as radical socialist premier of France from June 1954-Feb. 1955 during which time he negotiated an armistice in Indo-China, introduced a vigorous N. Africa (Algerian) policy, and produced a far-reaching economic plan. In 1956 he served for a few months as vice-premier under M. Mollet. (The above is a shortened version of the articles with parenthetical entries and emphasis added - Nora.)

Remember, according to recent magazine articles on Algeria, it was the International Monetary Fund's very tight restrictions on Algeria's loan repayment, plus the fluctuation and depression of oil prices which has brought Algeria today to a state of civil war. Obviously, from the above reports on his activities, Mr. Mendes-France had a very influential, and early role to play in all of this. (See my article in the book, THE GARDEN OF ATON.) Unfortunately, his family background is adroitly concealed by the words that he comes from "an old Bordeaux Sephardi family"—which tells us very little. However, other Mendeses of earlier centuries were established in Portugal and Spain. For example, Diogo and Francisco Mendes-Nasi. This was the group of "Jews" called "Sephardi", those who lived in Portugal and Spain. However, whether or not they were "Semites" or sons of "Japheth" is not determined by where they lived. Neither is their type of "tradition" identified (i.e., Talmud, Torah, Zohar or Cabala, etc.).

There are others with the last name of Mendes. Some were poets, rabbis, and artists. According to the Encyclopedia of Jewish Knowledge, Moses Mendes was a poet-banker of old Buckenham, England, 1758. A native of London and a son of a banker he wrote ballad-operas, dramas and poems. He was also a stock-broker and amassed a fortune, bought an estate, and collected a considerable library. His sons changed their name to "Head", and their descendents, "Bondhead" are members of the British peerage.

Francisco Mendes-Nasi was the brother of Diogo, who established an important banking and trading house in Antwerp. He with his brother, Diogo also had a banking business in Lisbon, Portugal, and were said to be active in helping the Jews who were being persecuted during the Catholic Church's inquisition. He died in 1536, leaving a widow, Gracia de Mendesia, and a daughter, Gracia de Mendesia II. The brother Diogo, died in 1546. (The two reference sources are conflicting as to the husband of Gracia, it is not clear whether he was Francisco or Diogo. There is also some confusion as to the names of the daughters—Gracia II, or Reyna. Both brothers had a wife and daughter. In any event the Mendes family of the 16th century is very likely to have continued although the name may have changed.)

The name (or title) of "Nasi" is generally a complimentary title given by the Ashkenazi Jews to their leaders. It means "prince". Gracia, a prominent Jewess of the 16th century, used the name "Nasi" as a last name in her later years. She became a banker, philanthropist, and patron of Jewish scholarship. Born a Marrano and named Beatrice de Luna, Portugal, 1510, died in Constantinople, as Hannah Nasi, 1569. According to The Encyclopedia of Jewish Knowledge, "the Marranos, for better concealment, and following the Spanish custom of adding the mother's surname to that of the father's, acquired a considerable number of names, so that she was a "Benvenista" and a "de Luna", before marriage, "Mendesia" during her marriage, and though the name clung to her, she preferred in her widowhood, once she resumed Judaism, to be known as "Hannah Nasi", which was one of her husband's family names." It is not clear whether Francisco was given the name "Nasi" as a complimentary title or not.

Gracia's daughter (this encyclopedia calls her "Reyna") married a cousin, "Joao Miguez", who afterwards resumed the name of "Joseph Nasi" when he became the Duke of Naxos.

In Antwerp the Marranos were permitted residence, but not to throw off their religious disguise. The great financial interests of the trading and banking firm in Antwerp (which Gracia inherited) included large loans to the German Emperor Charles V, and to the King of France, as well as interests in shipping and the spice trade. After Diogo's death Gracia's affairs were complicated. She was finally permitted to settle in Constantinople in 1552, and built her home, the Belvedere, in which she housed scholars. She also set-up a Jewish printing press, erected a synagog, and continued her protection and support of persecuted Jews. (Isn't it interesting that the Marrano family of Mendes were so wealthy in the 16th Century they could provide loans to two Kings?)

Joseph Nasi married Gracia's daughter. (He is said to be a cousin, but it is not clear who his father was.) He became an important personage in the sultan "Suleiman the Magnificent's" Court. On Suleiman's death Nasi espoused the claim of Selim to the throne, and the latter, being victorious, made Nasi the owner of a stretch of land around Tiberias, and supported him in rebuilding the walls and settling Jews there. Selim also transferred to Nasi the islands of the Cyclades and made him Duke of Naxos. Nasi, through his personal activities and his counsel to Selim, was involved in disputes with France, Spain, Venice and the capture of Cyprus by the Turks. Cyprus remained in Turkish hands until its annexation in 1871 by Disraeli for the British government. There is a tradition that Nasi had been made king of Cyprus. He died childless and his estate was said to have been confiscated by the Sultan, Murad. However, another account of his widow's life, tells us she continued the work of both her mother and her husband after their deaths. (As with many others, we see in this family the easy transitions from "Jewish" to "Christian Marrano" to high offices in the "Moslem" world, a not unusual event.)

The 16th Century, Hansa League city of Antwerp (now part of Belgium) was one of those free-trading towns in the Baltics. Many, many merchants and bankers made fabulous fortunes through their activities in these leagues—they were monopolies with special privileges granted by the crown, and while they were protected by the monarchy where they were located, they were free cities! That meant they paid no taxes, and set-up their own form of Government within the city run by the merchants. These merchant "governors" were called "Burghers". They set-up "guilds" to mollify the skilled workers. However, the craftsman involved in the guilds were not allowed a share in the government of the Burghers. It is very possible that much of what still passes for a "brotherhood of guild workers" in Masonry, remains the same as it always was. A Mason of the "craft" never becomes a governing "Burgher" unless there are "other" dominant circumstances.

Gracia Mendes-Nasi's great wealth, reported in part as gained from monopolistic trade and banking in the Baltic area during the 16th century, would place the Mendes family at a time and circumstance when Freemasonry was started, according to some historians, via craft-guilds, etc. However, I was unable to find a direct link between a Mendes family and Masonry. This does not mean one does not exist or that an explanation of the name, "The Goat of Mendes", does not exist. It does appear, however, that the Mendes-Nasi family had, like Odin and the Khazars, roots in both the Mediterranean and Black Sea areas, and in the Baltics. Obviously, as well, the "free cities" of the Hansa League were patterned after those earlier merchant, city-states of Phoenicia, Tyre and Sidon. The Merchants reaped the rewards of everyone else's labors, yet took no responsibility for the rest of the country!

Before I close this, I hope you will consider another word exercise. This may appear to be an irrelevant subject. However, please consider that word, Burgher. If one were to change a vowel, and drop the "h" it could be spelled as "Berger" and still be pronounced the same and mean the same in some languages. Now add the word for builder, but drop the "u" — you have "Bilder", which also sounds the same. Combine them and you have "Bilderberger"! It appears to me, that the name "Bilderberger" originated or evolved from just such circumstances as were found among the Hansa Towns in the Baltic and European area during the 16th and 17th centuries. The "Bilderbergers" were the ones who governed the builders/masons of craft-guilds during the middle ages. One of the major, controlling groups in the Committee of 300 are called "Bilderbergers". Whether they are today the group at the head of Freemasonry is still another question. The "head" of Freemasonry is "unknown" except to a very few. Still, the implications of the name, Bilderbergers, should note be overlooked.

In reviewing the index of John Coleman's book, Conspirators' Hierarchy: The Story of the Committee of 300, I came across a reference to "Nasi". The name has been taken-up by a group calling themselves "The Nasi Princes", which is one of those organizations working toward the One-World Order, per "Dr. Coleman" (see pg. 159-160).

Everything is related to everything else, according to Hatonn, and we are people of the lie!

Never Give Up Hope

(The following book is recommended by Commander Hatonn)

10/24/93 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Peace and blessings, Thomas, Esu Sananda here in Radiance.

Ah, it is grand indeed for us to watch the perceptions of the Earth human at times such as these—for the physical density weighs so heavily upon thine consciousness as to blur vision and dull perception. I am well pleased at your attendance yesterday, Thomas, for the world deserves to know that which is taking place in the circles of these power brokers who call themselves Expressidents. Indeed, your nation was once the greatest nation upon the Earth, blessed of God, a chosen land—and the whores and liars that call themselves Jews have denigrated this once great land so that now she has become the Great Satan in the eyes of the world—there is much to be patriotic about when hearing the inspiration offered by those who have served in public office, and yet those very ones have become tools themselves for the power brokers and the financiers who truly control your world.

Ye must love thine country as thine self—for it is as God would have it—and so too ye must see clearly that your nation has been sold to ruin by ones not even of this land. 'Tis the sad truth of it.

Ye mustn't ever give up hope—always the effort must go forth to strive to better self and country—yet the nation has been lulled to a deep slumber for years and years now so the very premise upon which great decisions are made is in error—yet can the lone voice in the wilderness override the many? Is a nation who collectively chooses a course of action not obliged to experience the consequences and lessons from such choices? Who would deprive the lessons for the many even if they be hard and painful indeed? Not God's people, not God's people—We come bearing THE WORD—the Truth shall set you free.

Be of good cheer for our mission is progressing—our workers are "taking their places" for the next act of the play.

Be at peace for the Truth shall become known. Stay the course.

Blessings rest with ye of mine ground crew whose work is recorded in the Kingdom of Heaven. Hold it in your heart.

Salu, I Am Sananda.

Few things are harder to put up with than the annoyance of a good example.

Space Shuttle-Assisted Earthquake Roundup

10/24/93 #1 SOLTEC

Good evening, Toniose Soltec present. I come in the radiant Light of Holy God. I cannot stress enough in these days the importance of identification for those that are in league with the darkness are all about in great abundance upon your world. Therefore, I urge all to take the time to clear space and demand identification of any energy that comes near; you can be assured that the darkness will always come when the doorway is opened. The identification process is not a game; rather, it is a process necessary to guard you ones from receiving and entertaining those energies or entities of the darkness. So, do not take the clearing process lightly and always take the time, no matter what the occasion, to do so.

SPACE SHUTTLE/QUAKES

Once again, you have a Space Shuttle in orbit about your planet and, true to form, you ones are experiencing little earthquakes in California and Oregon. In the past few days, there have been several little shakers in the Klamath Falls, Oregon area and a few little shakers in California. It is such coincidence, is it not, that each and every time you have one of your Shuttle missions that you have earthquakes in these places?

Those who are in control upon your planet are again playing more of their same old cat and mouse games with you. These small earthquakes in the Western United States are not the only ones that have been taking place since last we sat to write but, as is usual, there has been no reporting of any of them, save a small shaker which occurred just north of Los Angeles on Thursday, October 21. That particular earthquake was registered as a 3.0, yet on that same day there was one of 4.1 magnitude on the California/Nevada border, as was there the day before that and the day before that.

Why is it that these were not brought to your attention? Well, for one thing, there is a greater population in the Los Angeles area and, after enough inquiries from citizens, something has to be mentioned on the media sources whereas, out there in the Mono Lake area, there are fewer people, so therefore it is much easier to keep it quiet. Remember, it is not the purpose of the news media to keep you ones informed of Truth; rather, it is their purpose to keep you ones programmed with their own agendas and versions of the truth.

SOMALIA PROPOGANDA

As one example of this intentional programming, you are being primed with pictures from Somalia of sick and dying children. How convenient, when there is an outcry from the citizenry of the United States to pull out that, suddenly, instead of showing you ones the nice school rooms and round-faced children that the military efforts have brought to Somalia, you are seeing again the sick and dying children with flies crawling on their faces. Can you not see that it is so orchestrated to pull at your emotions, to feed you these awful, sickening pictures so that you ones will have to change your minds and support added efforts in this place?

How blind are you ones? How long are your memories that you cannot remember that within a week of your military's arrival in Somalia that suddenly you were seeing fattened little children singing songs with your soldiers? Have they now, again, suddenly fallen ill and starving overnight, just when you are planning to withdraw your troops? It should be quite evident, even to the most uninformed, that the controllers are attempting to program you to accept yet further military involvement in Africa and other parts of the world—such as, perhaps Haiti? That, however, is another kettle of smelly fish.

EARTHQUAKE ROUNDUP

As a matter of fact, there has not been one day pass for over a week's period when there has not been earthquake activity in California in one place or another. They are seldom above 4.1 magnitude, but you ones who reside there are experiencing continual shaking all the same. Also, Mexico has been having its share of seismic activity off the coast of Chiapas, the same place that experienced the large earthquakes several weeks past, as has New Guinea, which also experienced a 7.2 on October 13. That place is still experiencing large earthquakes, anywhere from magnitude 3.8 to 6.3. It would also appear that activity is stepping up near the Mariana Islands, with several earthquakes registered there, magnitude 5.1.

The following article is from the Daily News October 25, 1993:

Mexico City rattled by 6.8 earthquake

MEXICO CITY — A strong quake measuring about 6.8 on the Richter scale hit Mexico City early Sunday morning, rattling buildings and alarming residents, but there were no reports of damage or injuries.

The 1:55 a.m. PDT quake caused power outages in several parts of this city of 18 million, and radio reports said some power lines were down. But authorities reported no injuries or significant damages.

— Associated Press

Japan? Yes, Japan has experienced several small earthquakes, as well, the most recent of which occurred on the Kurile Islands, magnitude 4.8. Let us also not forget the others: Ohio, a 3.4; the Philippine Islands, a 5.5; Solomon Islands, 4.9; off the coast of Kamchatka, 4.6; off coast of Nicaragua, 4.8; Virgin Islands, 4.3; southern Bolivia, 5.8; Fiji Islands, 4.8; Guatemala, 4.5; and Costa Rica 4.6.

I hear the questions, are any of these earthquakes significant? I must tell you ones that at this stage of the game, all are significant for all things are in a stage of changing and development. So long as there is movement of those tectonic plates; so long as there is tampering by your governments and scientists; so long as there are all the abuses occurring upon your planet, there are going to be continued stresses, and therefore, earthquakes and volcanic activity, and subsequently, altered weather patterns and the like.

EARTH IS IN THROES OF CHANGE

You who reside upon the planet had just better get it into your minds that all things are in a state of change and it is only going to continue until you have completed the present cycle in which you are now experiencing. All things in the Universe are cyclic and Earth is no exception to that universal rule. As you are at the threshold of a cycle change, you can count on many more changes taking place before you pass through the door and onto the other side. These changes taking place are playing havoc on many upon the planet because they are unwilling to accept the changes which are taking place and are resistant to moving forward.

Chelas, all things must change in order that growth take place. The Universe does not operate upon stagnation, but upon moving forward, ever expanding, ever growing, ever evolving. During times of transition, there are always upheavals of every kind and you ones are in the middle of one of the greatest transitions ever to have taken place.

The dark influences upon your world are playing a gigantic role in these changes, but even that has its purpose, for in such opposition there shall come forth enormous amounts of knowledge and, therefore, great strides of growth. No, you do not just lie down and accept all that the darkness throws at you, thinking that by suffering or enduring the trials you are growing—that is not growth. But the learning how to overcome the obstacles and going forth in spite of them is wherein comes the growth. You can not stand still and hope that you will move forward—if you wish to move forward, you must make the effort and take the responsibility for your own actions and decisions, regardless of what those decisions or actions might be. Yes, you may stumble and skin a knee now and then but you will have at least learned something from the experience.

Do not sit down to wait for someone else to come along and pick you up and move you forward. That is not their responsibility and it doesn't matter whether you are waiting for one of your brothers or for someone of Space Command. You might end up sitting a very long time and miss out on all the fun. Certainly you are going to make mistakes—who hasn't? But where will you be if you just sit there wringing your hands, afraid to move forward?

It is your controlled world that has taught you ones to be afraid and intimidated. You are not taught to think for yourselves, but rather to have everything "secure and safe". Your world controllers want you to believe that they are the only ones that can provide for your safety and security and they have done a pretty good job of convincing you of it.

They have only been successful because they have managed to keep you ones in a world of illusion and lies and teaching only that which would mold you and keep you in control. Once you know of the Truth, it is then impossible to control you and therein lies their fight with us.

You now have a source for the Truth and the Light and it is threatening to those who have worked so diligently for so long to keep you in the darkness. God will always provide; do not ever forget that. God is providing for His people now—not by coming down and doing it for you, but by bringing to you the knowledge and information necessary that you ones might be able to pick up and do for selves and reclaim your own lives away from those that have usurped your autonomy in the past.

This world was given unto you ones and it shall be for you ones to reclaim—not by the sword, but by the Truth and the Light which comes forth from God. You have been given the knowledge of the very source of life, yet you would question its validity. Why is it that you do not question the validity of all the immunizations and "wonder drugs" that you have been bombarded with? Why is it that you will not trust God, yet you will trust another man, simply because he carries an M.D. after his name? Why is it that you ones must try to mold God into your preconceived notion of what God will and will not do? Why must you always limit God? All the information and all the knowledge in the Universe will not do you one bit of good unless you pick it up and use it.

Look at it this way. Where has man gotten himself? Do you have clean air? Do you have pure water? Do you have unpoisoned food to eat? Do you have clean, safe renewable sources of energy? Do you have solutions to wars? Do you have cures for AIDS, cancer, diabetes, muscular dystrophy, etc.? Are you living abundant lives? Is God the central focus of your life, or have you cast God into the outer fringes of your life?

It's pretty evident that man's ways have not been working, so what will it hurt to try God's way? Oh, you're afraid of losing control over your lives? Chelas, you already have lost that a long time ago! Wake up and face the reality of what is going on. You will find much more freedom when you live in accordance with God's way than you have ever known possible.

THE LIGHT OF GOD IS FOR YOU

Yes, you do have to live in this world, but as the Master Esu told you, be in the world, but not of the world. You do have to live on Earth and you do have to abide by the laws of man, but you draw your strength and your inner knowledge from God. It is the only way that you are going to survive all the changes that are taking place and those that are yet to come on your planet. I am not talking about religion, for in such you too will find controlling powers. I am talking about God as being a part of your daily lives; the acknowledgment that you are a part of that divine spark, and recognizing that you have the ability to draw upon the knowledge and information that is God.

If you will but open up your inner eyes and ears, you will be able to sort the lies from the Truth and you will not be led into the darkness. There is no darkness with God, for all things are purified and tried in the Light. There are no secrets, there are no lies, there is no eternal death. Learn of these things and you shall be set free from that bondage that keeps you in the darkness.

Oh my, I have begun to sound like a preacher. But Chelas, we can teach you all the scientific jargon and tell you all about what is taking place upon your planet and bring to you the Truth, but that same ability is available to each and every one of you. That is the greater message we bring to you—not that we can tune-in people and have them write these things down for you, but that you have the ability to tune-in God and know these things for selves.

Ours is a mission of assisting you through the ongoing and upcoming changes and transition time, to bring to you the Truth and knowing—part of that knowing is awakening you ones to who and what you are and why you are here at this time. There are no coincidences. Each of you are here for a very specific purpose, but it is up to each of you to discover that purpose for self—it is not for anyone else to tell you what that purpose is. Some of you already know, some are just awakening to it, others are still searching. Some are serving in other capacities until the time is right for their true purpose. So it is not necessary that you just sit back and wait. Get busy and do not concern too heavily about what that purpose might be. For if you are truly seeking, and doing so with right intent of heart, you shall come into the knowing of what that purpose is.

The changes that are taking place within your planet, i.e., earthquakes, volcanoes, weather patterns, etc., are all a part of the times in which you are living and all a part of the greater transitionary period. Know only that they shall continue as your planet seeks to survive, heal and maintain the balance of its relationship with the Universe. Know that you do not have to labor in the darkness and in the lie and that you have the ability to see in the Light.

Thank you for your attention, and blessings upon each and every one of you who are seeking and striving to come into the Light and Knowledge.

Toniose to clear. Salu.

Elite Heavy Hitters Meet At Bakersfield, CA Bash

by Rick Martin

On Saturday, October 23, set in the regal splendor that was Babylon, the one day, sold-out $250 per seat, 9th Annual Bakersfield Business Conference proceeded amidst the pomp and circumstance of luxurious abundance. Leaving no detail left to chance, with costs of nearly $2.5 million, the carefully constructed conference presented a face of opulence, wealth, and business-as-usual to the estimated 9,600 attendees. Stacked with a heavy-weight agenda of speakers and billed as "The Best Lecture Series In The Nation" and "The Most Unique Event of Its Kind On This Planet", the Conference faculty to speak included: Mark Russell (political satirist); Jimmy Carter (39th President); T. Boone Pickens (entrepreneur); Gerald Ford (38th President); Donald Trump (entrepreneur); Glenn Yarbrough (folk singer); Phyllis Diller (comedian); Mario Cuomo (Governor of New York); Jack Kemp (Secretary of HUD under President Bush); Lesley Stahl (60 Minutes); Willard Scott (weather reporter); Lee Iacocca (former CEO & Chairman of the Board of Chrysler Corporation); Barbara Bush (First Lady); George Bush (41st President); capped off with Burt Bacharach and Dionne Warwick and fireworks. Staged in the world's largest tent (640 feet by 150 feet, 93,000 square feet), in an atmosphere second only to Disneyland, Steven Spielberg would be hard pressed to match this 14-acre tent city.

Amidst the corn-fed smiles and silk ties, the well-heeled attendees ordered cocktails before noon and mingled amidst the carts of floral bouquets, with red-white-and-blue streamers blowing in the wind to a medley of 76 Trombones by the All American Choir. With a dolphin-lined reflection pool, waterfalls and fountains, a beer garden, a Baskin-Robbins ice-cream booth, fruit stands, music, an incredible assortment of perfectly prepared food, large JBL speakers and sound system throughout to allow hearing of all speakers, a sports tent, a place for deal making called the quiet deal, gazebos, something called the Jumbotron video screen, wet bars and more, there was something for everyone orchestrated to perfection. Two hundred and fifty representatives from radio, press and television? Who were these 9,600 people from 354 cities, 29 states, and 4 countries? What was their purpose for coming to Bakersfield this day? Hmmm...what have we here? Let's take a closer look.

Sponsored by the Bakersfield law firm of Borton, Petrini & Conron, Managing General Partner George F. Martin states in this year's information booklet, the goals of the Conference. Their goals include:

"The conference has evolved from its earliest "how to" format to a celebrity forum that is intended to be a day of enjoyment for business people and community leaders. The faculty, all nationally renowned entertainers and speakers, are selected on their ability to communicate their thoughts in an enjoyable manner to their audience. The featured speakers are not here to tell us how to accomplish any particular goal, but rather to help us understand on a more philosophical level what is happening to our economy, government, and society and why. In a word, they are with us to help us think and learn to solve our own problems."

"We also want the conference to be entertaining.

"Our philosophy at this conference is the same as most other seminars, and that is: disregard those ideas with which you do not agree and look for the one, two or three new ideas that you feel comfortable with and which will make you and your organization more successful."

Elsewhere in their booklet, Borton, Petrini and Conron state that the Conference is used as a marketing tool for the law firm and, as such, is not a money making project.

After some opening remarks by George Martin, satirist Mark Russell, referred to as a modern day Will Rogers, walked on stage, with both arms high in the air. Immediately explaining that George Bush had just gotten into town and was taken out to a Japanese restaurant, where they made him sign a release before serving him. They were concerned about the brocoli tempura.

Russell also explained how he understood Yeltsin's need for moving tanks to the Parliament building and to shoot into the building. He went on to say that Yeltsin had been granted honorary membership into the BATF.

Jimmy Carter spoke at length about the Carter Center, which is quite active in global politics. Carter explained his partnership with the United Nations Secretary General and the close working relationship with the Carter Center, which has been funded by the Rockefeller Foundation and other similar foundations. The largest thrust of the Carter Center at this time is the inoculation of small children throughout the world. Wherever there is a disaster in the world, the Carter Center goes there to immediately inoculate the children. The Carter Center also carefully monitors the various Earth Watch organizations to assess various global situations as they emerge.

The former president spoke about the numerous conflicts throughout the globe, and put the number of current conflicts at 110. He said that there are currently 34 wars around the world, and that the definition of a war is one where 1,000 or more people have been killed. Carter also spoke of a new technique which is being used to end regional conflicts. What new technique? Holding democratic elections.

Carter said, "Politics is a science of self-delusion." He also said, "The greatest discrimination on earth is not racial, nor religious. It's discrimination by the rich against the poor; it's created by unawareness."

Dallas oilman T. Boone Pickens, often sought for Texas governorship, stated at the Conference that he would not be seeking the office of Governor. He stated, quite clearly, that we are buying oil from our enemies and he, for one, is concerned about being cut-off over the years ahead. The way it is currently going, to paraphrase, T. Boone said that by the year 2000 the United States will be 70% dependent on foreign oil imports. He recommended a move by this country toward natural gas automobiles. Granted, he is in the natural gas business. He predicted, however, that if 20 million Americans switched to natural gas cars by the year 2000, our oil imports could be reduced by 25%. And, of course, NAFTA was a hot-topic of the day. T. Boone is in favor of NAFTA, saying it would provide 130,000 jobs by 1995.

When asked about the California economy, Pickens said, "When you overbuild, you are going to pay for it."

Pickens said, "To survive in business, you must: keep bureaucracy to a minimum; management must lead by example; and management must think like owners and have employees who think the same."

Gerald Ford, introduced as not only a former President but the only surviving member of the Warren Commission, had a number of things to say. He gave accolades to the signing of the 1975 Helsinki Accords which were signed by 35 nations. The Helsinki Accords, for those of you who won't remember, were signed by the U.S.A., Canada, the U.S.S.R., and 35 European countries as the final act of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe that began in 1972.

Former President Ford said, on the U.S. Somalia policy, "What was a humanitarian effort (in Somalia) has gotten mixed up with resolving a clan dispute and I'm not sure we should send U.S. military to solve that domestic problem. I don't think we should be the police of the world." Later, concerning another inquiry, he said, "We cannot be, nor should not be, the world's police force."

Ford also said, "I say no blank checks for ex-Communist bosses."

When asked whether he felt there was leading support for NAFTA in Congress, Ford said, "My best estimate is we are behind, especially in the House, by a small margin."

Early in his talk Ford mentioned that he "was at a meeting with Bush, Carter and Clinton where the side agreements to NAFTA were signed." When asked about various border pollution concerns if NAFTA is adopted, he replied, "Canada and Mexico have entered into side-agreements, including stronger enforcement of environmental regulations of both countries."

Concerning NAFTA, Ford described it as a way to reduce the influx of Mexicans into the American workplace. "Approval of NAFTA gives less incentive for them to come over here," Ford said in response to a question about alternatives to stepping up border tactics. "If NAFTA is passed it will create 200,000 new high paying jobs." When asked whether there should be an escape clause for the United States in NAFTA, Ford said that "Clinton is considering this." Ford also said, "We must approve NAFTA." And, "NAFTA represents an improvement in the Western Hemisphere."

Quick to respond about whether he supported NAFTA, Donald Trump said, "Well, I think NAFTA is a very bad thing for the California economy. I think their jobs are going to be going, and quickly, over to Mexico. So, I think one of the simple things will be to get rid of NAFTA because it's going to be very bad, I believe, for the California economy."

When asked what advice he would give to teenagers, Trump replied, "Stay home, work hard, do well in school. And, hopefully, by the time they graduate from college, and hopefully they go even beyond college, but by the time they graduate from college it will be a little saner place that we all live in."

On parenthood, Trump said, "It's an incredibly scary time for parents. I've never seen and I can't image a rougher period of time for a parent, let alone a child, than growing up in the '90s. So, when I say from a business standpoint things can be great, from a social standpoint, the parents, the children, I think the '90s are maybe going to be one of the toughest decades ever, ever."

The songs of Glenn Yarbrough soothed the mind and spoke of a time gone by, and then jokes of Phyllis Diller brought color into the cheeks.

Governor of New York, Mario Cuomo, gave an impassioned speech, some of which I'll share here.

"...that's how you did it the first time. You worked harder than they did. You thought harder than they did. You saved, you invested in education. Now you have to do it by investing in high-tech. You have to do what you did the first time, and you have to do something else. You must find a way to bring back all the old qualities; all those old habits that mom and papa had; a sense of responsibility; the dignity of hard work; investing in education. How do you do it? Well, you do it in a couple of ways. You do it through government. Work has to be your most important word. Where there is no work, there is worry and anger and trouble.

"We must work to open up closed markets around the world. Remember the Marshall Plan?" For those readers who don't, the Marshall Plan was the European Recovery Program of 1947-52, aimed at Europe's economic recovery after World War II. "Inevitably there's going to have to be a Free Trade Agreement that embraces the principal players in the Western Hemisphere. Although many believe there's a question whether the nation can afford the price of NAFTA at this particular time, but in the long run, a freer hemisphere is absolutely essential. Why? Because you've got Europe, which is already in its combined form, the largest economy in the world. They're going to be tough to deal with. And then you have the East. What would happen, my goodness, if China and Japan ever got together? But without that you have this Trilateral approach to life. You better make yourself stronger, so you're going to have to do that because the winners in this global contest will be those with the smartest, most ambitious workers.

"You know that instinct that says we are all in it together? That instinct that says, 'No man is an island.' No woman, either, no state, no nation, either. You cannot make it as just the United States of America. You've got to bring South Africa to life. You have to do something about Russia and the Ukraine. You need them as your markets. You need the southern half of the world. You need Argentina. You need Brazil. Forget about just NAFTA. After you make the deal with Mexico, what about the Caribbean nations? You have to deal with the Caribbean nations. And with South America. You need them all. We have to do business with the whole world. Nobody makes it alone, strike that arrogance from your mind."

The following comments are from Cuomo's press conference. When pressed about NAFTA, Cuomo said, "Let me tell you about NAFTA very quickly, and this at the risk of being simplistic. I think it is not a difficult analysis. Almost everybody agrees, in the long run, a freer trade in the Western Hemisphere is desirable, if not inevitable. It would be very good to have a free trade zone that includes Mexico, now that we have the United States and Canada. Indeed, that is only an intermediate step. After Mexico you should be thinking about the Caribbean nations, Argentina, Brazil. We should have a Hemispheric Free Trade Zone and it should be able to compete with the European Community, which, by itself, is now the largest market in world history.

"So, everybody agrees that free trade is a good thing, for a couple of reasons. The most obvious to me is you have to recreate the strength or create for the first time, in the southern part of the world, South America, South Africa—the whole southern half of the world needs to be strengthened for the same reason that you had to strengthen Germany and Japan after the Second World War. You need them as markets. You can't live without them. So, that's inevitable.

"The question for NAFTA now is, what price does it demand of California and New York in terms of immediate loss of jobs? And, unfortunately, most of the experts are saying, 'Yes, there will be some dislocation, some loss of jobs.' Well, if you're the Governor of the State of New York, who was just told that IBM, the invincible, had finally fallen to international competitiveness and was going to lose 10-15,000 jobs; that Kodak, one of the mainstays of your state, had lost to the Japanese and was going to lose 10,000 jobs; and that General Electric, and Jack Welch, were moving their work out and going overseas; and General Motors was closing its Tarrytown plant, if all of that was happening at the same time that they said to you, 'We must do NAFTA at this exquisite moment in time,' not three years from now, when we could be a lot stronger, particularly when health care might have been dissipated. Or the economy, just for cyclical reasons, might be better. Why must you do it at this moment? Well, if you don't do it now Mexico goes down politically and they make a deal with the Japanese. Don't believe it. I don't. If they could have made a deal with the Japanese, they would have made a deal with the Japanese. Nobody makes a deal with the Japanese. We can't make one, why should Mexico be able to? So, that's where it is. I'm not saying I'm against it."

When asked about racial violence, Cuomo spoke on the complexity of the issue and offered a solution. "I tell you what would make everything better immediately. It's the closest thing to a panacea that we have. And the word is work. W O R K. If everybody had what my father, who was a ditch digger in Jersey City, came from another part of the world, couldn't read or write in Italian, let alone in English, and never went a day to school here. He was able to work and he was able to work with some dignity, believe it or not. And work his way up. If everybody had the chance to earn their own bread with dignity, there would be less violence, less racial stress, less wife battering, less drugs and abuse, less AIDS, less budgetary problems. Everything would get better. It wouldn't make the world perfect, but if you had more work it would make everything, everything, everything better. When the bread is short and a lot of hands reach for it, then the tensions and the concerns and the anger break out."

Jack Kemp said his greatest introduction was by his four year old grandson "who introduces me as a very important public serpent."

Kemp: "The American people are over-taxed, overregulated. There are too many mandates on small and medium entrepreneurs in America (drowned out with applause)."

When asked about how the Republicans can reclaim the White House in '96, Kemp responded, "Let me address the question about how the Republicans can just reclaim the higher ground, whether it's the White House or Congress or Governorship or Mayor, or whatever. We need to be inclusive, not exclusive. We need to be internationalists in our approach, not nationalistic or protectionistic or isolationists. We need to think in terms of progress and reforms, not reactionary conservatism, but progressive conservatism."

"To me, free trade is essential to a free enterprise, democratic society," Kemp said. And yes, Kemp favored NAFTA.

When asked about welfare, Kemp replied, "The current welfare system is anti-work, anti-savings, anti-family because it's absent Christian values. You've got to make the reward for going to work greater than the reward for not working."

Lee Iacocca, recently brought on board by the Clinton Administration to do Perot damage-control for NAFTA, said, "NAFTA is a gift horse we're looking in the mouth." And, "NAFTA is good for this country."

Iacocca also admitted, "Companies today aren't anxious to hire new people because it's expensive and risky as hell."

A relaxed Barbara Bush, smiling and joking with the audience, shared that she was really impressed with the lineup of speakers until she took a closer look and realized that half of them were unemployed. She also shared with the press that, "George just can't keep a job."

Ending the day's line-up, former President George Bush met with a standing ovation. Here are a few comments by the former President.

"Because of Desert Storm, we have renewed pride in this country."

"It is essential that the USA lead around the world."

"History will treat Gorbachev kindly."

And lastly, "NAFTA is bigger than jobs, bigger than trade."

Topped off with food and beverage, fine music by Burt Bacharach and Dionne Warwick in a beautiful setting, one is almost tempted to believe George Martin's opening remarks, "Every once in awhile even lawyers like to do something good." On second thought, perhaps I shouldn't go too far. But one thing is certain, the Conference Coordinator Sherry Zaninovich of Borton, Petrini & Conron, deserves unrestrained praise for perfection and excellence in the coordination of a complex and varied program. And, as with all such events, the other support staff should be likewise acknowledged for a job exceptionally well done.

Upon reflection on this event, it is difficult to know what to make of it. Yes, there were political agendas. And this year NAFTA seemed clearly to be the central one. Was NAFTA merely this year's political hot potato or was there more to it? Hard to say. It was, indeed, a unique, exciting, fascinating experience. But Bakersfield?

REALITY

Reality is what we take to be true. What we take to be true is what we believe. What we believe is based upon our perceptions. Our perceptions depend upon what we look for. What we look for depends upon what we think. What we think depends upon what we perceive. What we perceive determines what we believe. What we believe determines what we take to be true. What we take to be true is our reality.

THE WORD

Tapes, Transcriptions & Videos

In addition to audio tapes of meetings with Commander Hatonn and written transcriptions of some taped topics, THE WORD also offers other tapes and videos on selected topics.

Donations to cover the costs of tapes are $4.00 for one tape, $6.00 for two tapes and $2.50 per tape for three or more, except where otherwise noted. The transcriptions are $3.00 each. (Mexico or Canada add $0.25 and other foreign countries add $0.50 per tape or transcription.) Postage is included in tape and transcription prices.

Please send check or money order to: THE WORD, P.O. Box 6194, Tehachapi, CA 93582 or call 805-822-4176 if you have questions or you wish to use your Visa, Discover or Master Card.

If you desire to automatically receive tapes from future meetings, please send at least a $50 donation from which tape costs will be deducted. We will try to notify you as your balance reaches zero.

Special Order tapes are noted below by * and are not automatically sent since this material is usually either already in print or will be soon. Available written transcriptions are noted by #.

Confirmation Of Cloning For Those Who Still Doubt!

Editor's note: For those readers who are always looking for confirmation of what Commander Hatonn has been saying for years about the extent to which the technology has been developed for the cloning of human embryos--what about this?

This one should stand out in bold! And for those of you who can remember some of the earlier material on this super-secret genetic technology, this kind of research has been going on for a very long time...perfected at least since Carter's Administration. It doesn't take much imagination to fill in the blanks of what is actually possible given what is admitted here. Remember Commander Hatonn has said many times that over one half of the world's population is soul-less. Could this be a partial answer??

CLONING MADE PUBLIC

In a just released article by Gina Kolata, published in the October 23 issue of the BAKERSFIELD CALIFORNIAN, the headline reads: Embryos split into twins. "A university researcher in Washington, D.C. has, as an experiment, cloned human embryos, splitting single embryos into identical twins or triplets. This appears to be the first report of such a feat.

"The scientist, Jerry L. Hall of George Washington University Medical Center, reported his work at a recent meeting of the American Fertility Society.

"The experiment was not a technical breakthrough, since he used methods that are commonly used to clone animal embryos, but it opens a range of practical and ethical questions.

"For example, since human embryos can be frozen and used at a later date, it could be possible for parents to have a child and then, years later, use a cloned, frozen embryo to give birth to an identical twin."

New Gaia Products

GAIANDRIANA

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well.

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

Complementary to the Gaiandriana product, Aquagaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

Aquagaia contains mitochondria. These are the major biochemical energy "processors" within cellular metabolism. First, enzymes begin the breakdown process of organic nutrients (like fats, carbohydrates and proteins) to intermediate substances such as amino and pyruvic acids. Then, in the next "bucket brigade" step, these various acid molecules are processed within the mitochondria to release chemical energy recognized as adenosine triphosphate (ATP).

About 95% of the energy needed to "run the machinery" that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of Aquagaia, with its assimilable supply of healthy mitochondria — like "fresh batteries" for the body's cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders.

2/11/93 #2 HATONN

GAIANDRIANA & AQUAGAIA

To help in understanding the workings of these organic "pac-men" you must realize that there is a protein covering "cap" on viruses. The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc atom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA—in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

Aquagaia, in conjunction with the Gaiandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple "charge" change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of "parts" of the Gaiandriana male-female DNA structure which releases many working variants but frees the Gaiandriettes or "killers" to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the "cap", the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells—further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochondria.

Healthy cells are not affected because they lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the virus.

These "Gaia" compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a "messenger" molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell's DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved well-being and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

The obvious conclusion is that there might well be good reports of better health and faster recovery, following infection by other viruses, than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondrianas (living crystal forms). We, again, make no medical claims—we are simply reporting in an effort to explain WHAT takes place within the cellular structures of living organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor — it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference—refrigerate after opening and reclosing.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiandriana and Aquagaia, together for storage as the Aquagaia (mitochondria) are aggressive and begin to "eat" the Gaiandriana for fuel. Once ingested, they go about their appointed tasks, but in bottle prisons they are not particularly compatible once the available fuel supply is exhausted. Juices are excellent to take with the Aquagaia because the mitochondria must have the fuel derived from same, the most effective juice being from the tropical "Guava" fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the "initial" program is completed, and the maintenance level of intake is being followed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

A-C-E ANTI-OXIDANT FORMULA

There is growing evidence that essentially everyone in our society is exposed to free radicals, now more than ever. While free radicals are normal products of our cells and have certain beneficial roles in the body, increased levels of free radicals in our body tissues can be detrimental to our health. Free radicals are highly unstable substances produced in the body through, among other routes, metabolism of oxygen. Free radicals multiply through a series of chain reactions and can attack the polyunsaturated fatty acids of cell membranes. Unless excess free radicals are neutralized, they can cause considerable damage to the structure and function of cell membranes and thus, the cells themselves.

The products from free radical reactions are implicated in the progressive accumulation of deleterious cellular changes over time, which may eventually result in recognizable disease. Free radical damage is implicated in the initiation and promotion of many cancers, as well as atherosclerosis.

One area of aging research suggests that free radicals damage body cells and cause the pathological changes associated with aging. Besides being by-products of the metabolism of oxygen, such as during strenuous exercise, we are also exposed to significant sources of free radicals from the environment, such as from so-called "background" levels of ionizing radiation.

Cooperative defense systems that can protect the body from free radical damage include certain enzymes and the antioxidant vitamins A, C, and E and Beta-Carotene, which protect cell membranes from oxidative damage. Vitamin E, one of the fat-soluble vitamins, is present in the blood as d-alpha-tocopherol and is well accepted as the major antioxidant in lipid body tissues. Vitamin E is considered the first line of defense against cell-membrane damage due to peroxidation. Vitamin E scavenges free radicals, terminating chain reactions and confining damage to limited areas of the membrane. Selenium contained in the enzyme glutathione peroxidase is the second line of defense that destroys peroxides before they can damage cell membranes. Beta-Carotene, a precursor of Vitamin A, also traps free radicals. Vitamin C is water soluble and serves to neutralize free radicals in aqueous systems.

The antioxidants show promise as cancer-prevention agents, alone and in combination.

ALOE COMPLETE (Whole Leaf, Cold Pressed Aloe Vera Concentrate)

Aloe Vera has a long and impressive history that spans hundreds of centuries, countries and cultures, and appears in countless "folk remedies" as a plant revered for its healing qualities.

Aloe Complete is a whole-leaf concentrate prepared from the freshly harvested leaves of the Barbadensis Miller Aloe Vera plant. Aloe Complete guarantees a minimum of 10,000 mg. of mucopolysaccharides per liter.

The nutrients reported in Aloe Vera include mucopolysaccharides and polysaccharides (glucmannans), glycoproteins, glucose, mannose, galactose, xylose, arabinose, tannins, steroids, organic acids, antibiotic principles, glucuronic acids, enzymes (oxidase, catalase and amylase), trace sugars, calcium oxalate, a protein containing 18 amino acids, "wound healing" hormones, biogenic stimulators, saponins, vitamins B1, B2, niacin, B6, choline, folic acid, chloride, sulfate, iron, calcium, copper, sodium, potassium, silicon, manganese, plus many other metabolism-assisting components.

GINKGO BILOBA (Ginkgo Biloba extract, 24%)

The Ginkgo Biloba extract is a complex compound. The green leaves of the tree are usually harvested from trees grown on plantations in South Korea, Japan and France.

Ginkgo is reported to have a natural affinity for the nervous system. It also seems to stimulate the vascular and endocrine systems that, in turn, strongly affect the function of the nervous system, possibly increasing the capacity for normal physical activity, and the flow of blood to the brain. Some research indicates the possible effectiveness of Ginkgo in the treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

Due to its pharmacological properties, Ginkgo is now widely used throughout Europe for treating many forms of vascular disease. In a survey of packaging information of European products, Ginkgo has been recommended for such ailments as headaches, vertigo, inner-ear disturbances, diminished intellectual capacity and alertness as a result of insufficient circulation to the brain, anxiety, and depression, to name a few.

Ginkgo Biloba Extract (24%) is concentrated from the leaves of the Ginkgo Biloba tree. The highly specialized extraction process yields a 50:1 concentrate from the leaves (50 grams of leaf produce 1 gram of extract). The extract is then further standardized to contain 24% of the active Ginkgo Flavoglycosides.

CHLORELLA

Chlorella is a nutritionally balanced whole food and contributes to the health and growth of human cells like no single vitamin or mineral possibly can.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll-A, chlorophyll-B, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoic acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. The minerals include: phosphorus, potassium, iodine, magnesium, sulphur, iron, calcium, manganese, copper, zinc and cobalt.

The amino acids include: lysine, histidine, arginine, aspartic acid, threonine, serine, glutamic acid, proline, glycine, alanine, cystine, valine, methionine, isoleucine, leucine, tyrosine, phenylalanine, ornithine, tryptophan.

The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day.

ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS (with American Ginseng)

In recent years few medicinal plants have garnered as much attention as Echinacea (Echinacea Purpurea and Echinacea Angustifolia).

Echinacea is a non-specific stimulant to the immune system. Claims for Echinacea include: stimulation of leukocytes, mild antibiotic activity, anti-inflammatory activity, stimulation of the adrenal cortex, stimulation of the properdin-complement system, interferon-like activity, stimulation of general cellular immunity, and antiviral activity. Internal preparations are said to assist in alleviating cold and flu symptoms, respiratory infections, and arthritis, to name a few.

Goldenseal (Hydrastis Canadensis) is among the most popular herbs in the American health food market. Uses are numerous, including but not limited to: antiseptic, hemostatic, diuretic, laxative, and tonic/anti-inflammatory for the mucous membranes, hemorrhoids, nasal congestion, mouth and gum sores and eye afflictions.

Few medicinal plants in the world possess Ginseng's near-legendary status. Dating back thousands of years, its history of use in the Orient records therapeutic properties so wide ranging that it was first dismissed by Western doctors as a "panacea". When fatigued, Ginseng reportedly restores both physical and mental functions to peak efficiency and, with regular use, improves resistance to disease and stress. American Ginseng's genus name is Panax Quinquifolius.

Over 40,000 species of mushrooms exist, many of which are used as medicines. Of particular note are such remedies as penicillin- and ergot-based extracts used in migraine treatment, to name a few. Extensive research has been done with one mushroom in particular, namely, Reishi. This mushroom is now considered a tried and true immune system fortifier.

OXY TODDY

Made from pure Aloe Vera juice from organic Aloe Vera plants, this product is oxygen-enhanced with 35% food grade hydrogen peroxide, minerals, whole Aloe Vera pulp, 60 colloidal plant minerals (an aqueous solution), and natural flavors.

One ounce of Oxy Toddy contains approximately 20 drops of 35% food grade hydrogen peroxide. This product contains no sugar, fillers or starches and is cold processed to ensure maximum enzymatic activity.

Hydrogen Peroxide Use For Water Purification

To purify water (of viruses as well as bacteria and other critters) for drinking purposes, use 10 drops of 35% Food Grade Hydrogen Peroxide per gallon of water and agitate container enough to mix well.

Locating the 35% Food Grade Hydrogen Peroxide can be a problem as the Elite effort to close down everything that promotes health, from products to therapies. Food Grade Hydrogen Peroxide is necessary as the drugstore (3%) variety contains additives and stabilizers not good for ingestion.

72 Hour Kit Checklist ☒

☐ Water
Stored in a portable container. Rotate regularly. Have at least three gallons per person (for a three day supply). Have a water purification method.

☐ Food
Suitable for long term storage. Packaged to prevent water damage. Include cups, utensils, paper plates and a can opener, if needed.

☐ Extra Clothing
A complete outfit of warm clothing for each family member. Include extra socks, and underwear. Include walking shoes.

☐ Warmth & Shelter
Coats, hats, scarves, and gloves for everyone include warm blankets (wool or emergency blankets are best). Rain ponchos, garbage bags, and/or umbrellas to keep off the rain. Warm Packs or other heat source. Pup tent or tarp.

☐ Light Source
Flashlight with extra batteries or a chemical lightstick. Kerosene lanterns are fine, but any flame may pose a hazard, especially near potential gas leaks. Have at least two quick and safe light sources in your kit.

☐ Tools
Pocket knife, lightweight shovel, duct tape, matches, pocket sewing kit, screwdriver.

☐ Important Papers
Important family documents (such as birth certificates, marriage certificates, insurance forms, wills), addresses and phone numbers of relatives, and places to meet if separated.

☐ Money
Keep at last $20 in your kit. Be sure to include quarters for phone calls, etc.

☐ First Aid Supplies
Pain relievers, bandages, antiseptics, clean cloths, burn ointment. Include any personal medications.

☐ Special Needs
For babies: diapers, ointment, bottles & pacifiers, hand towels, special foods, and other supplies as needed. Consider the needs of elderly people as well as those with handicaps or other special needs.

☐ Stress Relievers
Card games, books, small hobbies, hard candy, Bible. For children: small toys, paper and pen, favorite security items.

☐ Communications
Portable radio with batteries, signal mirrors, whistles, red flags, signal flares.

☐ Personal Sanitation
Sanitary napkins, razors, toothbrush, hand soap, dish soap, towels, toilet paper.

☐ Portable Container
Such as a book bag, backpack, or duffel bag. Should be easy to carry and lightweight. Shoulder straps are best for traveling long distances.

☐ Additional Items
Added as carrying weight and expense of kit will allow: Extra food, camp stove and cooking equipment, tents, sleeping bags, sun block, insect repellent, portable toilet.

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
