Ronn Jackson Exposes House Banking Committee's HUSH Offer

4/22/94 RICK MARTIN

After numerous telephone calls over the last week, Ronn Jackson requested a personal meeting to discuss certain matters which were better discussed face-to-face. Ronn Jackson is a former member of the Secret Service. He was also a high-level assassin for a group known as "The Committee". The following article is a composite, reconstructing various comments made during that personal meeting, along with recent telephone conversations. The personal meeting with Ronn took place on Tuesday, April 20 at the Northern Nevada Correctional Center. At this time I would like to express my appreciation to Warden Brenda Burns and her staff for extending CONTACT every courtesy.

In a conference call some days ago, Ronn Jackson spoke of some specific computer locations and account numbers where the national debt of the United States of America is located. He confirmed the existence of the so-called "Treasurygate" gold certificates and stated that efforts were being made to discredit and invalidate those legitimate Government obligations, including the use of perjured affidavits. Jackson went on to say, "This morning I spoke to three people and they want me to back off again. Now, one of them was Senator Alfonse D'Amato [R-NY], member of the House Banking Committee, [Rep.] Maxine Waters [D-CA], and [Rep.] Barney Frank [D-MA]. I told them to kiss my fat ass. Then they wanted to buy me, and I said you don't have enough money. And then they threatened me. Now they're making me mad. I have little or no patience with Government officials. For the most part, I make them address me as 'Dr. Jackson'. I'm pretty funny about that. They work for me."

During the personal meeting Jackson stated that over the weekend, Sunday [I believe he said], members of the Banking Committee, including [Rep.] Henry Gonzalez [D-TX], Barney Frank, and Alfonse D'Amato offered hush money to Tommy Buckley [see Page 10], with Ronn Jackson as the go-between. The sum? $10 million, in cash, within two hours, delivered. Buckley's response, according to Jackson: "Forget it." Then the counter offer by Banking Committee members: $15 million. The response: "Well, Ronn, what's your favorite expression? Tell them to put it where the sun doesn't shine."

Continuous efforts by CONTACT to speak directly with D'Amato and Gonzalez have been fruitless. When Rep. Frank was questioned directly about Mr. Jackson, he denied knowing him or who he is. When asked about the issuance of new currency or a return to the gold standard, he denied knowing anything. When asked about Tommy Buckley and "Treasurygate", likewise, he denied any knowledge.

Making A Difference

4/19/94 #1 HATONN

IN THE FAN....

I am going to launch right off into that which I feel is most important today. We may well be offering up the CONTACT as one of the most influential and network-oriented newspapers in your nation—already begun, but expanding as a forum for sharing. We get so much information to which I can add insight that we cannot fail to get it forth for your inspection, one way or another. If we cannot bring protection here, then we will offer you other alternatives.

We are not EVER going to be in the "business" of organizing, disturbing the peace, demonstrating and/or things of that nature. We cannot offer pure journalistic information if we are a major biased participant. This doesn't mean, under any interpretation, that ones here do not have personal opinion or qualify for any or all "actions". It DOES mean that you need a forum which is NOT self-serving other than as a national citizen-information resource. Some of what we will be offering will undoubtedly be biased in presentation—WE SIMPLY OFFER IT. Along with those offerings we will certainly continue the SAME measure of guidance as to HOW to discern and judge where appropriate. To do this, we hope to be able to get funding enough to continue to allow ONLY for advertising of that which is offered FROM MY OWN RESOURCES (unpaid) but in constant attention to never fall into the trap of advertising garbage along with truth JUST TO KEEP GOING. This may take a while to accomplish as to resources but I believe that we will move into being able to accomplish this format.

Your government is made of fools, tricksters, treasonists and derelicts and it is time to uproot them and build yourselves a nation based on that which was good BEFORE your Constitution and those parts of equality AFTER AND UPON THE BASIS of that Constitution. The money upheavals continue as they are already in flux and change—a stable foundation of value must be incorporated. Believe-it-or-not, at the moment—it CAN be done and mechanisms are under way which WOULD ALLOW FOR SUCH CHANGE—WITHOUT BLOODSHED OR WAR REVOLUTION. BUT, WE HAVE TO CONTINUE TO PROTECT AND DEFEND THE PLAYERS. THIS, AS MUCH FROM INTEGRATED DO-GOODERS WHO ARE ACTUALLY OUT FOR SELVES WHILE PROCLAIMING PATRIOTISM AND/OR GODLINESS. IT IS FINE TO GAIN FOR SELF AS LONG AS INTENT IS FOR THE GOOD OF BROTHER AND NATION. YOU AS CITIZENS MUST BE VERY DISCERNING FOR YOUR VERY MOST DEADLY ENEMY WORKS FROM WITHIN YOUR VERY BODY OF FREEDOM SEEKERS!

I am telling you this up front here today because our journalistic staff is off to gather personal data to present as we move along. We also have PILES AND PILES of such valid information as to boggle the minds of the ones who must sort it and decide what we can offer. I always insist, for clarity, avoidance of all legal confrontations, etc., to NEVER take things out of context and the MANNER in which a "tale" is written is often more important than is the item in topic.

I know that you would have Dharma and me continue with naught but the stories in unfolding by our "James Bond" brothers—as would we, BUT, it is necessary to keep up with the game underway.

As we are printing Ronn Jackson's story, for instance, we are going to note right here and now—that part of the reason we are offering it IN FULL, as written, is that there are over 3,000 pages of handwritten material (five volumes) which need to be organized and put to disc. We are merely efforting to offer it to you AS WE ACCOMPLISH THAT TASK FOR RONN. HE HAS FAR MORE IMPORTANT WORK TO DO THAN REARRANGE HIS "OLD" MATERIAL. THE PUBLICITY BEING GIVEN ALSO GIVES SUPPORT AND SECURITY FOR HIS PERSON. HE IS BRANCHING OUT INTO UTILIZING HIS ORGANIZATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS TO BRING THE COMMUNITY INTO BETTER TEAMWORK. MEANWHILE, BACK HERE ON THE RANCH, WE HAVE MAJOR OTHER TASKS TO ACCOMPLISH SO, AT SOME POINT IN THE NEAR FUTURE, WE WILL NEED TO RELIEVE DHARMA OF THE FULL LOAD OF THESE REPRODUCTIONS AND ASK FOR HELP IN THE TYPING AND EDITING PROCESSES.

You will, when we put some of the players TOGETHER, begin to get such INSIDE INFORMATION as to "blow you away" as we hook up the "Colemans", Jacksons, Stichs, etc., etc., etc. Stu Webb, as a for instance, also has "books" to offer on other subjects such as the RTC and S&Ls which is more focused than some of the other authors—but it is the INTEGRATION of this information which makes it so timely and VALUABLE. YOU MUST UNDO THAT WHICH IS—PROPERLY, UNDER THE LAW!

We, alone, have offered you already enough information and background, technical Constitutional truth and basis for taking action—gathered from all manner of resources—IF YOU WILL BUT GET IT CIRCULATED AND THE CITIZENS INFORMED. We have no intention of slacking up on that task even as the bombardment against my people increases DAILY.

I use as example, again: George Green, et al. We have more and more HARD EVIDENCE of the complicity and conspiracy of ones who diverted money (checks) FROM THE CONSTI-TUTIONAL LAW CENTER, sent through George Green and America West to Sacramento, where the checks were taken and (to show deliberate action) stamped with a preprint stamp on the back for endorsement by Constitutional Law Centre, "trust" and WE THE PEOPLE—signed by Gary Anderson and DEPOSITED INTO ACCOUNTS IN KIRK, COLORADO! I HOPE that Ruby Pimental is watching! I further KNOW that "Dr. Coleman" can give us much needed confirmation about the University of Science and Philosophy and the hierarchy of that institution, without accusations of "slander" and "defamation".

The Institute is no longer willing to settle the suit against Green and America West just for the books typed by Dharma—although she and E.J. are more than happy to divest themselves of any interest in them whatsoever—AND HAVE ALREADY DONE SO—AT ONSET OF WRITING. These things should have ONLY involved Green and America West in the onset, as Dharma has never, never intended to, or ever planned to—receive anything from any of her works as directly applies to any kind of assumed or presumed "authorship" of any of the papers or journals. It appears Ekkers, in fact, will have to AGAIN go through total bankruptcy proceedings to simply set aside such as the some $50,000 to US&P, Contempt charges caused BY GEORGE GREEN, outstanding legal fees to a law firm WHO ACTUALLY SET THEM UP WITH A MUNICIPAL JUDGE THROUGH RECONSTRUCTION (ACCORDING TO REARRANGED PAPERWORK AND AUDIO TAPES TO PROTECT THE GUILTY POLITICIANS AND JUDGES INVOLVED) OF SOME $72,000 AND ON AND ON AND ON.

Are my people willing to go through all of this again and again and again? YES INDEED! NOTE PLEASE: OUR PEOPLE GROW STRONGER AS MORE AND MORE LIGHT COMES FORTH AND TRUTH IS ENTERED INTO THE "FIXED" EQUATIONS. These people who bring false charges and ongoing attempts at destruction of God's work shall reap their rewards—IN KIND. It will become more and more difficult for a court to rule against truth on the whims of the politicians, derelicts, alcoholics and greed-mongers. There is a totally deceitful and criminal element FEEDING OFF YOU UNTHINKING PATRIOTS AND CITIZENS. HOWEVER, THOSE INTERACTIONS ARE UP TO YOU AS INDIVIDUALS—WE HAVE NO INTENTION OF DOING ANYTHING SAVE OFFER INFORMATION.

So where does one calling himself "Hatonn" come in? Well, let's just note that I can discern truth from lies, fact from fiction and recognize the true bringers of truth and valid information from these priorly mentioned treasonists and thieves bearing false information.

For instance, I can tell you, without wavering, that there are gold certificates—valid, due and owing with interest IN GOLD ONLY as payment, and just ONE of them is more valuable than all the GOLD you KNOW about. Is it not nice that more gold is AROUND than you know about? However, it is not going to be through the hands of the would-be false sellers of this commodity or information.

Is there a "Cosmos..."? YES INDEED—BUT NOT THE ONE YOU BOW AND PAY TO! The REAL Cosmos will "stand up" when the time is right and the protection coverage present. In addition to that certificate are many MORE, equally valid but somehow "taken". Now isn't it nice that some of our "bunch" knows where they are and have control of them? Along with that, there are many more VALID ones being held, and hopefully secured—by that which some of you call "Treasurygate" "players". But the Government, as it now exists, will simply deny, toss the players in prison and thus and so. Those days are come to an end as of NOW—that it is so easy to deceive and exploit you, the masses. [See More Reading box to find out where you can read more about Cosmos and Treasurygate.]

TREASON

Does it occur to you readers that your Government (Federal) United States players are ALL guilty of treason, that all but a tiny, tiny handful of all of your judges and legal counsel are TOTALLY GUILTY OF TREASON (even to the Bar Association, which is the legal club against the Constitutional Laws of your nation) and that myriads of citizens ARE ALSO GUILTY OF TREASON AND JUST WHAT IS THE PENALTY FOR TREASON? HANGING???

Now, what race, creed, etc., makes up the majority of all these participants AND CONTROLS YOUR MEDIA, PRESS, CONGRESS AND THUS AND SO? Ah, indeed. So guess what will come about in its own time as you UNDO that which has been deceitfully DONE TO YOU AS A NATION? I would suspect that when you take action you are going to find that you will be accused of another and much bigger "effort at genocide" and massive "holocaust". Of the so-called "Jews"? I don't care what you call them—they are NOT JUDEANS NOR JUDAISTS. They will be the root of the "anti-Christ" and they will, themselves, represent themselves as Talmudist Zionists. For instance, the evangelist Jerry Falwell—is he "Jewish"? I suspect not but he proclaims to be a "Zionist and proud of it!" This same BUNCH of treasonists are of the ELITE, the Committee of 300, Committee of 17, of the some 17 families, Council on Foreign Relations, Trilateralists and Bilderbergers, and the roots are in the ancient order of Freemasons bedded and brotheled in Great Britain. FACTS IS FACTS, PIGS IS PIGS (AS IN THE BOOK BY THE SAME NAME) AND ALL THE LIES IN THE WORLD WILL NOT CHANGE ONE IOTA OF THAT TRUTH!!

Does this ACTUALLY make me an "anti-Semite"? NOPE—I repeat something very important: these above-named parties ARE NOT SEMITES. I and all of you in Holy God's service, by whatever sectarian practice you claim—ARE SEMITES!

Along the POLITICAL lines of this discussion, I will offer you MORE as presented by functioning, acting, citizens who now are reclaiming the truth of CONSTITUTIONAL LAW and rediscovering rights, separations (as in the Federal United States and Constitutional "u'nited States. You will find that all the actions of forming Federal government are against the law, all Executive Orders are unconstitutional and the removal of sovereignty from the States is not only unconstitutional but TREASONOUS!

YOU CAN RECLAIM YOUR NATION IF YOU WANT TO! However, if you do not build-in the guidelines—you will allow the same thing to happen over and over again. If you as a nation of people fail to come back into morality, Godliness and political LAW under a guardian Constitution of equality FOR THE CITIZENS—you ARE DOOMED TO REPEAT AND REPEAT THE ERRORS YOU HAVE MADE THIS TIME. Can you accomplish this without international war and destruction? I DON'T KNOW—CAN

YOU? WILL YOU?

I CAN tell you this much: those "FAMILIES" who have controlled your world for centuries ARE BEING METHODICALLY EXTERMINATED! It may well not show, but the Evil Empire puppet-masters have carefully replaced the main players in most instances and have their puppets spread all around the globe. The scene is not pretty but the vipers WILL be caught in their own dastardly tricks because there IS NO LOYALTY OR MORALITY AMONG THEM!

LAWS, TREATIES AND THE FEDERAL UNITED STATES

You are going to find that all these NEW treaties, OLD treaties, Federal Reserve, IRS, NAFTA, BRADY BILL, GUN CONTROL, and every other new thing such as the biggie of them all, FEMA, ARE ALL WRITTEN FOR THE FEDERAL UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—ONLY! These things are the basis of the Ronn Jackson lawsuit that got ruled upon in a positive manner (CV-N-93-401 in U.S. District Court). This is now being denied by the judicial system, including the judge in point who made the ruling. However, the news GOT OUT THERE AMONG YOU THROUGH QUICK THINKING ON THE PART OF CLOSE PLAYERS. PAPERS HAVE BEEN DESTROYED AND ORDERS REWRITTEN AND PUBLICITY OFFERED NEGATING THE ACTIONS—BUT TOO LATE!

Members of the "Congressional Banking Committee" of your U.S.A.: Frank, D'Amato, even Gonzalez, etc., are in touch with Jackson about the things he is expounding upon—efforting to bribe him, blackmail him, threaten him, pay him off, whatever—if he will just shut up for another 30 days, keeping the information we are spreading everywhere—QUIET! Interestingly enough, Ronn Jackson THOUGHT he knew a lot—and did, from the other "side" in actual participation in many evil actions. However, he is just blinking open his eyes to that which is ACTUALLY happening. But he does present in a position of being able to make a MASSIVE IMPACT on public informing and coordinating of activities—because he knows the "Big" players.

You will ALL be very wise to NOT SIT IN JUDGMENT OF THIS MAN for YOU DO NOT KNOW, DO YOU?

What I am going to offer you here, and I am asking Dharma to type this, for I want it on our disc as well as in her data banks, comes from Ronn Jackson but it is done by JOHN B. NELSON. It deals with Colorado BUT IT SHOWS YOU THE WAY to MAKE THE DIFFERENCE! We have offered this information in several ways, in several different places and it now becomes necessary to offer and re-offer these integrated actions and information packets again and again until enough hear and see to accomplish the tasks before you.

RE: SENATE REPORT NO. 93-549, Etc. by John B. Nelson

I have chosen Senate Report No. 93-549, consisting of 607 pages, which I believe you will find most interesting. The United States went "Bankrupt" in 1933 and was declared so by President Roosevelt by Executive Orders 6073, 6102, 6111 and Executive Order 6260, (See: Senate Report 93-549, pgs. 187 & 594) under the Trading with the Enemy Act (Sixty-Fifth Congress, Sess. 1, Chs. 105, 106, October 6, 1917), and as codified at 12 U.S.C.A. 95a. The several States of the Union then pledged the faith and credit thereof to the aid of the national Government, and formed numerous socialist committees, such as the "Council of State Governments", "Social Security Administration", etc., to purportedly deal with the economic "Emergency." These Organizations operated under the Declaration of INTERdependence of January 22, 1937, and published some of their activities in The Book of The States. The 1937 Edition of The Book of the States openly declared that the people engaged in such activities as the Farming/Husbandry Industry had been reduced to mere feudal "Tenants" on their Land. Book of the States, 1937, pg 155. This of course was compounded by such activities as price fixing wheat and grains 7 U.S.C.A. 1332, quota regulations 7 U.S.C.A. 1371, and livestock products 7 U.S.C.A. 1903, which have been consistently below the costs of production, interest on loans and inflation of the paper "Bills of Credit", leaving the food producers and others in a state of peonage and involuntary servitude, constituting the taking of private property, for the benefit and use of others, without just compensation.

NOTE: The council of State Governments has now been absorbed into such things as the "National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws", whose Headquarters Office is located at 676 North St. Clair Street, Suite 1700, Chicago, Illinois 60611, and "all" being "members of the Bar", and operating under a different "Constitution and By-Laws" has promulgated, lobbied for, passed, adjudicated and ordered the implementation and execution of their purported statutory provisions, to "help implement international treaties of the United States or where world uniformity would be desirable." (See: 1990/91 Reference Book: National Council of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, pg. 2) This is apparently what Robert Bork meant when he wrote "we are governed not by law or elected representatives but by an unelected, unrepresentative, unaccountable committee of lawyers applying no will but their own." (See: The Tempting of America, Robert H. Bork, pg. 130)

The United States thereafter entered the Second World War during which time the "League of Nations" was reinstituted under pretense of the "United Nations" and the "Bretton Woods Agreement". (See: 60 Stat. 1401.) The United States as a corporate body politic (artificial) came out of World War II in worse economic shape than when it entered and, in 1950, declared Bankruptcy and "Reorganization". The Reorganization is located in Title 5 of United States Codes Annotated. The "Explanation" at the beginning of 5 U.S.C.A. is most informative reading. The "Secretary of Treasury" was appointed as the "Receiver" in Bankruptcy. (See: Reorganization Plan No. 26, 5 U.S.C.A. 903, Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5967.) (See p.8) The United States went down the road and periodically filed for further Reorganization. Things and situations worsened, having done what they were Commanded NOT to do, (See: Madison's Notes, Constitutional Convention, August 16, 1787, Federalist Papers No. 44) and in 1965 passed the "Coinage Act of 1965" completely debasing the Constitutional Coin (gold & silver, i.e., Dollar). (See: 18 U.S.C.A. 331 & 332, U.S. vs. Marigold, 50 U.S. 560, 13 L.Ed. 257) At the signing of the Coinage Act on July 23, 1965, Lyndon B. Johnson stated in his Press Release that:

"When I have signed this bill before me, we will have made the first fundamental change in our coinage in 173 years. The Coinage Act of 1965 supersedes the Act of 1792. And that Act had the title: An Act Establishing a Mint and Regulating the Coinage of the United States...."

"Now I will sign this bill to make the first change in our coinage system since the 18th Century. To those members of Congress, who are here on this historic occasion, I want to assure you that in making this change from the 18th Century we have no idea of returning to it." [R.J.: This action alone qualified "LBJ" to be classified AS A TRAITOR. He signed only what CONGRESS WAS INSTRUCTED TO PASS.]

It is important to take cognizance of the fact that NO Constitutional Amendment was ever obtained to FUNDAMENTALLY CHANGE, amend, abridge or abolish the Constitutional mandates, provisions or prohibitions, but due to internal and external diversions surrounding the Viet Nam War, etc., the usurpation and breach went basically unchallenged and unnoticed by the general public at large, who became "a wealthy man's cannon fodder or cheap source of slave labor". (See: Silent Weapons for Quiet Wars, TM-SW 7905.1, PGS. 6, 7, 8, 9, 12, 13 & 56.) [H: Yes, we have offered this (SILENT WEAPONS FOR QUIET WARS) at least twice but perhaps it needs to be run again; (see MORE READING box on this page) I leave that to the editorial staff.] [R.J.: This "Act" is a part of case #CV-N-93-401-DWH.] Congress was clearly delegated the Power and Authority to regulate and maintain the true and inherent "value" of the Coin within the scope and purview of Article I, Section 8, Clauses 5 & 6 and Article I, Section 10, Clause 1, of the ordained Constitution (1787), and further, under a corresponding duty and obligation to maintain said gold and silver Coin and Foreign Coin at and within the necessary and proper "equal weights and measures" clause. (See also: BIBLE: Deuteronomy, Chapter 25, verses 13 thru 16, Public Law 97-289, 96 Stat. 1211)

Those exercising the Offices of the several states, in equal measure, knew such "De Facto Transitions" were unlawful and unauthorized, but sanctioned, implemented and enforced the complete debouchment and the resulting "governmental, social, industrial economic change" in the "De Jure" States and in United States of America (See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5936, 5945, 31 U.S.C.A. 314, 31 U.S.C.A. 321, 31 U.S.C.A. 5112, C.R.S. 11-61-101, C.R.S. 39-22-103.5 and C.R.S. 18-11-203.) and were and are now under the delusion that they can do both directly and indirectly what they were absolutely prohibited from doing. (See also: Federalist Papers No. 44, Craig vs. Missouri, 4 Peters 903)

In 1966, Congress, being severely compromised, passed the "Federal Tax Lien Act of 1966", by which the entire taxing and monetary system, i.e., "Essential Engine" (See: Federalist Papers No. 31) was placed under the Uniform Commercial Code. (See: Public Law 89-719, Legislative History, pg. 3722, also see, C.R.S. 5-1-106.) The Uniform Commercial Code was of course promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners On Uniform State Laws in collusion with American Law Institute for the "banking and business interests". (See: Handbook Of The National Conference of Commissioners On Uniform State Laws, 1966 Ed. pgs. 152 & 153.) The United States being engaged in numerous U.N. conflicts, including the Korean and the Viet Nam conflicts, which were under direction of the United Nations (See: 22 U.S.C.A. 287d), and agreeing to foot the bill (See: 22 U.S.C.A. 287j), and not being able to honor their obligations and rehypothecated debt credit, openly and publicly dishonored and disavowed their "Notes" and "obligations" (12 U.S.C.A. 411), i.e., "Federal Reserve Notes" through Public Law 90-269, Section 2, 82 Stat. 50 (1968) to wit:

"Sec. 2. The first sentence of Section 15 of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 391) is amended by striking 'and the funds provided in this Act for the redemption of Federal Reserve notes'."

Things steadily grew worse and on March 28, 1970, President Nixon issued Proclamation No. 3972, declaring an "emergency" because the Postal Employees struck against the de facto government(?) for higher pay, due to inflation of the paper "Bills of Credit". (See: Senate Report No. 93-549, pg. 596.) Nixon placed the U.S. Postal Department under control of the "Department of Defense". (See: Department of the Army Field Manual, FM 41-10 [1969 ed.])

"The System had been faltering for a decade, but the bench mark date of the collapse is put at August 15, 1971. On this day, President Nixon reversed U.S. international monetary policy by officially declaring the non-convertibility of the U.S. dollar [F.R.N.] into gold." (See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5937 & Senate Report No. 93-549; Foreword, pg. III, Proclamation No. 4074, pg. 597, 31 U.S.C.A. 314 & 31 U.S.C.A. 5112.) On September 21, 1973, Congress passed Public Law 93-110, amending the Bretton Woods Par Value Modification Act, 82 Stat. 116, 31 U.S.C.A. 449, and reiterated the "Emergency", 12 U.S.C.A. 95a, and Section 8 of the Bretton Woods Agreements Act of 1945 (22 U.S.C.A. 286f), and which included "reports on foreign currency transactions". (Also see, Executive Order No. 1003.)

This Act further declared in Section 2 (b) that: "No provision of any law in effect on the date of enactment of this Act, and no rule, regulation, or order under authority of any such law, may be construed to prohibit any person from purchasing, holding, selling, or otherwise dealing with gold."

On January 19, 1976, Marjorie S. Holt noted for the record a second "Declaration of INTERdependence" and clearly identified the U.N. as a "Communist" organization, and that they were seeking both production and monetary control over the Union and People through International Organization promoting the "One World Order". (8 U.S.C.A. 1101(4) also see, 50 U.S.C.A. 781 & 783.)

[QUOTING:]

The socio/economic situation worsened as noted in the Complaint/Petition, filed in the U.S. Court of Claims, Docket No. 41-76, on February 11, 1976, by 44 Federal Judges, Atkins et al. vs. U.S. Atkins et al. complained that "As a result of inflation, the compensation of federal judges has been substantially diminished each year since 1969, causing direct and continuing monetary harm to plaintiffs....the real value of the dollar decreased by approximately 34.5 percent from March 15, 1969 to October 1, 1975.... As a result, plaintiffs have suffered an unconstitutional "deprivation of earnings", and in the prayer for relief claimed "damages for the constitutional violations enumerated above, measured as the diminution of his earnings for the entire period since March 9, 1969." It is quite apparent that the persons holding and enjoying Offices of Public Trust, Honor and/or Profit knew of the emergency emergent problem and sought protection for themselves, to the damage and injury of the People and Children, who were classified as "a club that has many other members" who "have no remedy." And knowing that "heinous" acts had been committed, stated that they [judges/lawyers] would not apply the Law, nor would any substantive remedy be applied (checked more or less, but never stopped) "until all of us [judges] are dead." Such persons fraudulently swore an Oath to uphold, defend and preserve the sovereignty of the Nation and several Republican States of the Union, and breached the Duty to protect the People/Citizens and their Posterity from fraud, imposition, avarice and stealthy encroachment. (See: Atkins et al. vs. U.S., 556 F.2d 1028, pg. 1072, 1074, The Tempting of America, supra, pgs. 155-159, also see, 5 U.S.C.A. 5305 & 5335, Senate Report No. 93-549, pgs. 69-71, C.R.S. 24-75-101.) This is verified in Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5944, which states:

"Moving to a floating exchange rate for international commerce means private enterprise and not central governments bear the risk of currency fluctuations."

Numerous serious debates were held in Congress, including but not limited to Tuesday, July 27, 1976 (See: Congressional Record—House, July 27, 1976.), concerning the International Financial Institutions and its operations. Representative Ron Paul, Chairman of the House Banking Committee, made numerous references to the true practices of the "International" financial institutions, including but not limited to, the conversion of 27,000,000 (27 million) in gold, contributed by the United States as part of its "quota obligations", which the International Monetary Fund (Governor-Secretary of Treasury) sold (See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5945 & 5946.), under some very questionable terms and concessions. (Also see: The Ron Paul Money Book, (1991), by Ron Paul, Plantation Publishing, 837 W. Plantation, Clute, Texas 77531.)

On October 28, 1977 the passage of Public Law 95-147, 91 Stat. 1227 declared most banking institutions, including State banks, to be under direction and control of the corporate "Governor" of the International Monetary Fund (See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, Pg. 5942, United States Government Manual 1990/91, pgs. 480-481). The Act further declared that:

"(2) Section 10(a) of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934 (31 U.S.C. 822a(b) is amended by striking out the phrase 'stabilizing the exchange value of the dollar'..."

"(c) The joint resolution entitled 'Joint resolution to assure uniform value to the coins and currencies of the United States', approved June 5, 1933 (31 U.S.C. 463) shall not apply to obligations issued on or after the date of enactment of this section."

The United States as Corporator, (22 U.S.C.A. 286e, et seq.) and "State" (C.R.S. 24-36-104, C.R.S. 24-601301(h)) had declared "Insolvency". (See: 26 I.R.C. 165(g)(1), U.C.C. 1-201(23), C.R.S. 39-22-103.5, Westfall vs. Braley, 10 Ohio 188, 75 Am. Dec. 509, Adams vs. Richardson, 337 S.W.2d 911 Ward vs. Smith, 7 Wall 447.) A permanent state of "Emergency" was instituted, formed and erected within the Union through the contrivances, fraud and avarice of the International Financial Institutions, Organizations, Corporations and Associations, including the Federal Reserve, their "fiscal and depository agent". 22 U.S.C.A. 286d. This has led to such "Emergency" legislation as the "Public Debt Limit-Balance Budget And Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985", Public Law 99-177, etc.

The government, by becoming a corporator, (See: 22 U.S.C.A. 286e.) lays down its sovereignty and takes on that of a private citizen. It can exercise no power which is not derived from the corporate charter. (See: The Bank of the United States vs. Planters Bank of Georgia, 6 L.Ed. (9 Wheat) 244, U.S. vs. Burr, 309 U.S. 242.) The real party in interest is not the de jure "United States of America" or "State", but "The Bank" and "The Fund". (22 U.S.C.A. 286, et seq., C.R.S. 11-60-103.) The acts committed under fraud, force and seizures are many times done under "Letters of Marque and Reprisal", i.e., "recapture". (See: 31 U.S.C.A. 5323.) Such principles as "Fraud and Justice never dwell together" Wingate's Maxims 680 and "A right of action cannot arise out of fraud" Broom's Maxims 297, 729; Cowper's Reports 343; 5 Scott's New Reports 558; 10 Mass. 276; 38 Fed. 800, are too high of a thought concept, as is "Due Process", "Just Compensation" and Justice itself. Honor is earned by honesty and integrity, not under false and fraudulent pretenses, nor will the color of the cloth one wears cover-up the usurpations, lies, trickery and deceptions. When Black is fraudulently declared to be White, not all will live in darkness. As astutely observed by Will Rogers, "There are men running governments who shouldn't be allowed to play with matches," and this is as applicable today as Jesus' statements about Lawyers.

The contrived "emergency" has created numerous abuses and usurpations, and abridgments of delegated Powers and Authority.

As stated in Senate Report 93-549:

"These proclamations give force to 470 provisions of Federal law. These hundreds of statutes delegate to the President extraordinary powers, ordinarily exercised by the Congress, which affect the lives of American citizens in a host of all-encompassing manners. This vast range of powers, taken together, confer enough authority to rule the country without reference to normal constitutional process."

"Under the powers delegated by these statutes, the President may: seize property; organize and control the means of production; seize commodities; assign military forces abroad; institute martial law; seize and control all transportation and communication; regulate the operation of private enterprise; restrict travel; and in a plethora of particular ways, control the lives of all American citizens." (See: Foreword, pg. III.)

The "Introduction", on page 1, begins with a phenomenal declaration, to wit:

"A majority of the people of the United States have lived all of their lives under emergency rule. For 40 years, freedoms and governmental procedures guaranteed by the Constitution have in varying degrees been abridged by laws brought into force by states of national emergency...."

According to the research done in 16 American Jurisprudence, 2nd Edition, Sections 71 and 82, no "emergency" justifies a violation of any Constitutional provision. Arguendo, "Supremacy Clause" and "Separation of Powers", it is clearly admitted in Senate Report No. 93-549 that abridgment has occurred. The statements heard in the Federal and State Tribunals, on numerous occasions, that Constitutional arguments are "immaterial", "frivolous", etc., is based upon the concealment, furtherance and compounding of the Frauds and "Emergency" created and sustained by the "Expatriated", ALIENS of the United Nations and its Organizations, Corporations and Associations. (See: Letter, Insight Magazine, February 18, 1991, pg. 7, Lowell L. Flanders, President, U.N. Staff Union, New York) 8 U.S.C.A. 611, 612 & 613 and 50 U.S.C.A. 781.

The Internal Revenue Service entered into a "service agreement" with the U.S. Treasury Department (See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5967, Reorganization Plan No. 26.) and the Agency for International Development, pursuant to Treasury Delegation Order No. 91. The Agency for International Development is an International paramilitary operation (See: Department of the Army Field Manual, (1969) FM 41-10, pgs. 1-4, Sec. 1-7(b) & 1-6, Section 1-10(7)(c)(1), 22 U.S.C.A. 284.) and includes such activities as "Assumption of full or partial executive, legislative, and judicial authority over a country or area". (See: FM 41-10, pg. 1-7, Section 1-10(7)(c)(4)—also see, Agreement Between The United Nations And The United States of America Regarding The Headquarters Of The United Nations, Section 7(d) & 8, 22 U.S.C.A. 287 (1979 Ed.) at pg. 241.) It is to be further observed that the "Agreement" regarding the Headquarters District of the United Nations was NOT agreed to (See: Congressional Record - Senate, December 13, 1967, Mr. Thurmond), and is illegally in the Country in the first instant.

The International Organizational intents, purposes and activities include complete control of "Public Finance", i.e., "control, supervision, and audit of indigenous fiscal resources; budget practices, taxation, expenditures of public funds, currency issues, and banking agencies and affiliates". (See: FM 41-10, pgs. 2-30 thru 2-31, Section 251. Public Finance) This of course complies with "Silent Weapons for Quiet Wars" Research Technical Manual TM-SW7905.1, which discloses a declaration of war upon the American PEOPLE (See: pg. 3 & 7.), monetary control by the Internationalists, through information, etc., solicited and collected by the Internal Revenue Service (See: TM-SW7905.1, pg. 48, also see, 22 U.S.C.A. 286f & Executive Order No. 10033, 26 U.S.C.A. 6103(k)(4).) and who is operating and enforcing the seditious International program. (See: TM-SW7905.1, pg. 52.) The 1985 Edition of the Department of Army Field Manual, FM 41-10 further describes the International "Civil Affairs" operations. At page 3-6 it is admitted that the A.I.D. is autonomous and under direction of the International Development Cooperation Agency, and at page 3-8 that the operation is "paramilitary". The International Organization(s) intents and purposes was to promote, implement and enforce a "DICTATORSHIP OVER FINANCE IN THE UNITED STATES". (See: Senate Report No. 93-549, pg. 186)

It appears from the documentary evidence that the Internal Revenue Service Agents, etc., are "Agents of a Foreign Principal" within the meaning of intent of the "Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938". They are directed and controlled by the corporate "Governor" of "The Fund" a/k/a "Secretary of Treasury" (See: Public Law 94-564, supra, pg. 5942, U.S. Government Manual 1990/91, pgs. 480 & 481, 26 U.S.C.A. 7701(a)(11), Treasury Delegation Order No. 150-10.) and the corporate "Governor" of "The Bank" 22 U.S.C.A. 286 & 286a, acting as "information-service employees" 22 U.S.C.A. 611(c)(ii) and have been and do now "solicit, collect, disburse or dispense contribution [Tax-pecuniary contribution, Blacks Law Dict. 5th ed.], loans, money or other things of value for or in interest of such foreign principal 22 U.S.C.A. 611(c)(iii), and they entered into agreements with a Foreign Principal pursuant to Treasury Delegation Order No. 91, i.e., the "Agency for International Development". (See: 22 U.S.C.A. 611(c)(2).) The Internal Revenue Service is also an agency of the International Criminal Police Organization and solicits and collects information for 150 Foreign Powers. (See: 22 U.S.C.A. 263a, The United States Government Manual, 1990/91, pg. 385; see also: The Ron Paul Money Book, pg. 250-251.) It should be further noted that congress has appropriated, transferred, and converted vast sums to Foreign Powers (See: 22 U.S.C.A. 262c(b)) and has entered into numerous Foreign Taxing Treaties (conventions) (See: 22 U.S.C.A. 285g, 22 U.S.C.A. 287j) and other Agreements, which are solicited and collected pursuant to 26 I.R.C. 6103(k)(4). Along with the other documentary evidence submitted herewith, this should absolve any further doubt as to the true character of the party. Such restrictions as "For the general welfare and common defense of the United States" (See: CONSTITUTION (1787), Article I, Section 8, Clause 1.) apparently aren't applicable, and the fraudulent rehypothecated debt credit will be merely added to the insolvent nature of the continual "emergency", and the reciprocal socio/economic repercussions laid upon present and future generations.

Among other reasons for lack of authority to act, such as a Foreign Agents Registration Statement, 22 U.S.C.A. 612 and 18 U.S.C.A. 219 & 951, military authority cannot be imposed into civil affairs. (See: Department of the Army Pamphlet 27100-70, Military Law Reviews, Vol. 70) The United Nations Charter, Article 2, Section 7, further prohibits the U.N. from "intervening in matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of any state..." Korea, Viet Nam, Ethiopia, Angola, Kuwait, etc., etc., are evidence enough of the "BAD FAITH" of the United Nations and its Organizations, Corporations and Associations, not to mention the seizing of two day-care centers in the State of Minnesota by their agents, and holding the children as collateral/hostages for payment/ransom of their fraudulent, dishonored, rehypothecated debt credit, worthless securities. Such is the "Rule of Law" as envisioned by the "Founders" of the United Nations. Such is Communist terrorism, despotism and tyranny. ALL WERE AND ARE OUTLAWED HERE.

I hope this communication finds you well and mentally strong for the occasion. It is quite apparent that the "Treasonous" and "Seditious" are brewing up a storm of untold magnitude. Bush's public address of September 11, 1991 (See: Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents.) should further qualify what is being said here. He admitted "Interdependence" (See also: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5950.), "One World Order" (See also: Extension of Remarks, January 19, 1976, Marjorie S. Holt, 8 U.S.C.A. 1101(40).), affiliation and collusion with the Soviet Union Oligarchy (50 U.S.C.A. 781), direction by the U.N., 22 U.S.C.A. 611, etc. You might also find it interesting that Treasury Delegation Order No. 92 (enclosed) states that the I.R.S. is trained under direction of the Division of "Human Resources" (U.N.) and the Commissioner (INTERNATIONAL), by the "Office of Personnel Management". In the 1979 Edition of 22 U.S.C.A. 287, the United Nations, at pg. 248, you will find Executive Order No. 10422. The Office of Personnel Management is under direction of the Secretary General of the United Nations. And as stated previously, the I.R.S. is also a member in a one hundred fifty (150) nation pact called the "International Criminal Police Organization", found at 22 U.S.C.A. 263a. The "Memorandum & Agreement" between the Secretary of Treasury/Corporate Governor of "The Fund" and "The Bank" and the Office of the U.S. Attorney General would indicate that the Attorney General and his associates are soliciting and collecting information for Foreign Principals. (See also, The United States Government Manual 1990/91, pg. 385; also see: The Ron Paul Money Book, supra, pg. 250, 251.)

It is worthy of note that an Attorney/Representative is required to file a "Foreign Agents Registration Statement" pursuant to 22 U.S.C.A. 611(c)(1)(iv) & 612, if representing the interests of a Foreign Principal or Power. (See: 22 U.S.C.A. 613, Rabinowitz vs. Kennedy, 376 U.S. 605, 11 L.Ed. 2d 940, 18 U.S.C.A. 219 & 951.)

On January 17, 1980, the President and Senate confirmed another "constitution", namely the "Constitution of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization", found at Senate, Treaty Document No. 97-19, 97th Congress, 1st Session. A perusal of this Foreign Constitution should more than qualify the internationalist intents. The "Preamble", Article 1, "Objectives" and Article 2, "Functions", clearly evidences their intent to direct, control, finance and subsidize all "natural and human resources" and "agro-related as well as basic industries", through "dynamic social and economic changes" "with a view to assisting in the establishment of a new international economic order." The high flown rhetoric is obviously of "Communist" [H: And WHO invented "Communism"???] origin and intents. An unelected, unrepresentative, unaccountable oligarchy of expatriates and aliens, who fraudulently claim in the Preamble that they intend to establish "rational and equitable international economic relations", yet openly declared that they no longer "stabilize the value of the dollar" nor "assure the value of the coin and currency of the United States" is purely misrepresentation, deceit and fraud. (See: Public Law 95-147, 91 Stat. 1227, at pg. 1229.) This was augmented by Public Law 101-167, 103 Stat. 1195, which discloses massive appropriations of rehypothecated debt credit for the general welfare and common defense of other Foreign Powers, including "Communist" countries or satellites, International control of natural and human resources, etc., etc. A "Resource" is a claim of "property" and when related to people constitutes "slavery".

It is now necessary to ask under which Constitution they are operating. The "Constitution for the Newstates of the United States", which was located at Liberty Lobby, 300 Independence Ave., SE, Washington, D.C. 20003, was the subject matter of the book entitled The Emerging Constitution by Rexford G. Tugwell, [H: We have offered this in the paper and journals AT LEAST three times prior to this.] (See MORE READING box on next page.) which was accomplished under the auspices of the Rockefeller tax-exempt foundation called the "Center for The Study of Democratic Institutions". The People and Citizens of this Nation were forewarned against formation of "Democracies". "Democracies have ever been the spectacles of turbulence and contention; have ever been found incompatible with personal security or the rights of property, and have in general been as short in their lives as they have been violent in their deaths." (See: FEDERALIST PAPERS No. 10, also see, The Law, Fredrick Bastiat, Code of Professional Responsibility. Preamble) This Alien Constitution, however, has nothing to do with democracy in reality. It is the basis of and for a despotic, tyrannical oligarchy.

Article I, "Rights and Responsibilities", Sections 1 and 15 evidence their knowledge of the "emergency". The Rights of expression, communication, movement, assembly, petition and Habeas Corpus are all excepted from being exercised under and in a "declared emergency". The Constitution for the Newstates of America openly declares, among other seditious things and delusions that "Until each indicated change in the government shall have been completed the provisions of the existing Constitution and the organs of government shall be in effect." (See: Article XII, Section 3.) "All operations of the national government shall cease as they are replaced by those authorized under this Constitution." (See: Article XII, Section 4.) This is apparently what Burger was promoting in 1976, after he resigned as Supreme Court Justice and took up the promotion of a "Constitutional Convention". No trial by jury is mentioned, "JUST" compensation has been removed, along with being informed of the "Nature and Cause of the Accusation", etc., etc., and every one will of course participate in the "democracy". This Constitution is but a reiteration of the Communist Doctrines, intents and purposes, and clearly establishes a "Police Power" State, under direction and control of a self-appointed oligarchy.

Apparently the present operation of the de facto government is under Foreign/Alien Constitutions, Laws, Rules and Regulations. The overthrow of the "essential engine" declared in and by the ordained and established

"Apparently the present operation of the de facto government is under Foreign/Alien Constitutions, Laws, Rules and Regulations."

Constitution for the United States of America (1787), and by and under the "Bill of Rights" (1791) is obvious. The covert procedure used to implement and enforce these Foreign Constitutions, Laws, Procedures, Rules, Regulations, etc., has not, to my knowledge, been collected and assimilated nor presented as evidence to establish seditious collusion and conspiracy.

Fortunately and Unfortunately in my Land it is necessary to seek, obtain and present EVIDENCE to sustain a conviction and/or judgment. Our patience and tolerance for those who pervert the very necessary and basic foundations of society has been pushed to insufferable levels. They have "fundamentally" changed the form and substance of the de jure Republican form of Government, exhibited a willful and wanton disregard for the Rights, Safety and Property of others, evinced a despotic design to reduce my people to slavery, peonage and involuntary servitude, under a fraudulent, tyrannical, seditious foreign oligarchy, with intent and purpose to institute, erect and form a "Dictatorship" over the Citizens and our Posterity. They have completely debauched the de jure monetary system, destroyed the Livelihood and Lives of thousands, aided and abetted our enemies, declared War upon us and our Posterity, destroyed untold families and made homeless over 750,000 children in the middle of winter, afflicted widows and orphans, turned Sodomites loose amongst our young, implemented foreign laws, rules, regulations and procedures within the body of the country, incited insurrection, rebellion, sedition and anarchy within the de jure society, illegally entered our Land, taken false Oaths, entered into Seditious Foreign Constitutions, Agreements, Pactions, Confederations, and Alliances, and under pretense of "emergency", which they themselves created, promoted and furthered, formed a multitude of offices and retained those of alien allegiance to perpetuate their frauds and to eat out the substance of the good and productive people of our Land, and have arbitrarily dismissed and held mock trials for those who trespassed upon our Lives, Liberties, Properties and Families and endangered our Peace, Safety, Welfare and Dignity. The damage, injury and costs have been higher than mere money can repay. They have done what they were COMMANDED NOT TO DO. The time for just correction is NOW!

Sincere consideration of "Presentment" to a Grand Jury under the ordained and established Constitution for the United States of America (1787), Amendment V is in order. Numerous High Crimes and Misdemeanors have been committed under the Constitution for the United States of America, and Laws made in Pursuance thereof, and under the Constitution for the State of Colorado, and the Laws made in Pursuance thereof, and against the Peace and Dignity of the People, including but not limited to, C.R.S. 18-11-203 which defines and prescribes punishment for "Seditious Associations" which is applicable to the other constitutions, and the intents and professed purposes of their Organizations, Corporations and Associations. If the Presentment should be obstructed by the members of the Bar, ARREST THEM.

I could go on but the story is long! I hope this information and research is of assistance to you. Much remains to be uncovered and disclosed, as it is necessary and imperative to secure the Lives, Liberties, Property, Peace and Dignity of the People and our Posterity. Good Hunting and the Good Lord be with you in all your endeavors.

God Bless!

P.S. In addition, I am yet expecting a copy of the "Service Agreement", (T.D.O. 91). It was located in the Department of Treasury, office of the Assistant General Counsel, (International Affairs), Russell L. Munk, 1500 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20220. Efforts are being made to obtain a copy, but so far have been obstructed by the Bar. If anyone knows where and how a copy can be obtained please do so immediately, the documents are necessary and imperative. It ought to be most informative! By the way, it's against the law for an insolvent to make a loan or to try to fraudulently collect thereon. (See: Neal et al. vs. Clark, 251 p.2d 903.) It should be further noted that an "Alien" or "Denizen" cannot sit on a Jury (See: 3 Am. Jur. 2d Sub. 40.) nor hold a Public Office. (Also see: 50 U.S.C.A. 781(9) & 842.)

The "out of court" summary determination upon matters in issue is purely "Administrative" procedure. (See: 1 Am. Jur. 2d Sub. 78.) The jury, if any, is reduced to an "advisory jury" position and is more than likely arrayed as a "homage" jury.

5 U.S.C.A. 701 - 703 should be of interest concerning "Judicial Review" of Agency actions. It can be found in most States under such headings and Acts as the "Administrative Procedures Act" or the "Administrative Reorganization Act".

The de facto Federal/International chartered "Institutions", their Officers, Employees, Servants, Agents and Representatives are subject to and should be turned over to a Court of Law for prosecution, trial, and judgment according to Law. (See: Pope Mfg. Co. vs. Gormully, 144 U.S. 414, at pg. 419, also see, 22 U.S.C.A. 286g.)

"FRAUD vitiates the most solemn Contracts, documents and even judgements." U.S. vs. Throckmorton, 98 US 61, at pg. 65.

I believe that the statement made in Cohen vs. Virginia, 6 Wheat 264, 5 L.Ed. 257 (1821) is worthy of note:

"We [Courts] have no more right to decline the exercise of jurisdiction which is given, than to usurp that which is not given. THE ONE OR THE OTHER

WOULD BE TREASON TO THE CONSTITUTION." (Also see: U.S. vs. Will, 449 US 200, 66 L.Ed.2d 392, at pg. 406.)

WHEN IN THE COURSE OF HUMAN EVENTS...WHENEVER ANY FORM OF GOVERNMENT BECOMES DESTRUCTIVE...WHEN A LONG TRAIN OF ABUSES AND USURPATIONS, PURSUING INVARIABLY THE SAME OBJECT, EVINCES A DESIGN TO REDUCE THEM UNDER ABSOLUTE DESPOTISM, IT IS THEIR RIGHT, IT IS THEIR DUTY...." DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

"No political truth is of greater intrinsic value...The accumulation of all powers, legislative, executive, judiciary, in the same hands, whether hereditary, self-appointed, or elective, may be justly pronounced the very definition of tyranny." FEDERALIST PAPERS NO. 47

"If a nation expects to be ignorant and free, in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and never will be. The functionaries of every government have propensities to command at will the liberties and property of their constituents. There is no safe deposit for these but with the people themselves; nor can they be safe with them without information." (THE WRITINGS OF THOMAS JEFFERSON, Albert E. Bergh Ed., vol. 14, pg. 384.)

One cannot make agreements with Sodomites, Babylonians and/or Satanics. Their words, oaths or signatures are of no meaning or value; their intent and purpose is to deceive [H: Directly permitted and demanded by the very vow of all vows, the Kol Nidre, (See MORE READING box on this page to find where you can go read about the Kol Nidre.) as practiced annually by the followers of the Talmud as the FIRST OBLIGATION ON THE FIRST OF THE HOLY DAYS OF THE JEWS.], cheat, steal, lie, defraud and destroy. The seditious covert conspiracy and collusion of certain Organizations, Corporations and Associations to damage, injure, oppress, threaten, intimidate and enforce their fraudulent, foreign, socialist, Communist, "Democracy" and foist their delusions upon the Citizens and children of this Land, and to corrupt the de jure Public Officers established to accomplish the purposes set forth in the "Preamble" to the ordained and established Constitution is cause and necessity enough.

Once again finding our safety, happiness and liberties to be in imminent danger, it has become necessary and imperative to our rights, privileges, immunities, lives, liberties and property and that of our posterity, to declare our separate and equal station, and exercise our Right and Duty to throw off and abolish the form and operation of the de facto, fraudulent, seditious "state". (See: CONSTITUTION FOR THE STATE OF COLORADO, Article II, Section 2, DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE (1776), CONSTITUTION FOR THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Amendments IX and X, C.R.S. 24-60-1301, Articles IV[h])

Section 2. People may alter or abolish form of government—proviso. The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign and independent state; and to alter or abolish their constitution and form of government whenever they deem it necessary to their safety and happiness, provided, such change be not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States.

How many will do more than simply READ these passages and pretend to not "quite understand"? The reclamation of freedom rests with each of YOU—not ANOTHER, SOMEWHERE, SOMETIME—IT WILL BE YOU, NOW, OR IT WILL NEVER COME AND YOU SHALL RUN OUT YOUR DAYS WITHIN THE VERY PROPHECIES MADE BY MAN TO MAKE SURE SATAN WOULD RULE THE PLANET FOR ALL YOUR DAYS UPON IT.

God did not WRITE THE PROPHECIES as they are projected to produce destruction and heinous catastrophe. Those things are of MAN. GOD CREATES—MAN PRODUCES THE DISASTROUS DESTRUCTIONS! GOD HAS SENT HIS MESSENGERS—AND YE SLEW THEM! GOD GAVE THE TRUTH IN THE PROPHECIES AS IT WOULD COME TO BE IF THE LAWS OF GOD AND CREATION WOULD BE BROKEN. MAN HAS COME TO THE ENDING OF TIME UPON THIS WONDROUS ORB AS YOU HAVE EXPERIENCED—IF YE CHANGE NOT. So be it and mark these words engraved upon the very soul of Man—for if you continue in your movement AWAY from God—ye shall dwell in HELL in the absence of all LIGHT—the darkness—devoid of God. FOR IT IS WRITTEN AND AS GOD OF LIGHT HAS WRITTEN, SO SHALL IT COME TO PASS. Salu.

Nevada Corporations

Corporation Formation: Structure, Part II

Corporate Stock: A corporation is owned by its shareholders who make a contribution to the corporation in the form of cash, notes, tangible/intangible property, stock and anything else of value, in a free exchange for shares of ownership (also called "stock shares"), in proportion to the accepted value of the property they contributed. Multiple owners usually agree on the value of any non-cash contributions, but single owners merely put in what they need to operate and are issued 100 % of the issued shares in return.

As the value of a corporation rises, so too does the value of each share of the corporation's stock. Any additional assets placed into a corporation by its owners will increase the value of the shares in the corporation. The value of a corporation's shares are valued by calculating the difference between a corporation's assets and liabilities, plus the value of the good will of the corporation, divided by the number of issued shares of the corporation.

Every corporation is authorized to issue a certain number of shares of stock. This authorized number of shares is set in the Articles of Incorporation. Of those authorized shares, the corporation's Directors decide how many shares they will issue. A corporation could have 2500 shares authorized and only have issued one share of stock. That one share of stock would then make up the entire ownership of the corporation. A corporation's ownership is only based on those shares of the corporation's stock that have been issued.

There are a few classifications of stock that you should be made aware of. Common Stock is the most common form of stock. Common Stock represents the ownership of a corporation and is broken down into voting and non-voting shares. Voting shareholders get to vote on matters that effect the corporation and the holders of these shares have the control of the corporation. Non-voting shareholders have no voting rights or say in the matters of the corporation. Another class of stock is Preferred Stock. This class of stock, like non-voting Common Stock, does not get a say or a vote in the matters of the corporation, but is guaranteed a percentage of the profits of the corporation to be paid in the form of a Dividend.

When one or two people have set up a corporation for their own use, the question often arises as to when they should issue themselves stock. None of us knows exactly what the future holds for us in the way of lawsuits, IRS investigations, or a debilitating illness that can seriously jeopardize the assets that we control. We believe that, in most cases, there are advantages to not issuing the stock of a corporation until you are confronted with a situation that may require proof of ownership. Today's world of asset protection and privacy forces each of us to remain sharp and creative. Be very careful of what other people may tell you with respect to managing the affairs of your own corporations and be aware that, in general, you will not get educated information from your family accountant or attorney.

Amending Articles: Corporate Articles on Incorporation are not fixed in stone in Nevada. If the stock of the corporation has not yet been issued for the corporation, a Certificate Of Amending Or Altering The Articles must be filed with the Secretary of State's office and be signed by the original incorporator(s) of the corporation.

If the stock of the corporation has been issued, a meeting must be called and the stockholders of the corporation must come to a majority decision on the changes to be made. This amendment is then filed with the Secretary of State and the changes are then adopted.

Sixty-Day List Of Officers And Directors: Once the Articles of Incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State, Nevada will send you a sixty-day list of officers and directors that you fill out and mail back to them. You have sixty days from the time of incorporation to get this list into the State. A check for $85 is to be included every year with the sixty-day list to pay the State's annual filing fee.

The list asks for the name of the President, Secretary, Treasurer and Directors of the corporation. Included with their names, you must also provide an accurate address for the current Officers and Directors. This sixty-day list of Officers is a matter of public record; therefore, anyone who wishes to check this information with the Secretary of State's Office can do so with one simple phone call.

Update On "Treasurygate"

4/20/94 #1 HATONN

CURIOUSER AND CURIOUSER

Bad grammar? Would "more and more curious" make you FEEL better? So be it!

TREASURYGATE

I had not intended to speak much more on the subject of Treasurygate than we have so done in the past few days because it is NOT at this moment a focus of MY interest. [We have covered this subject extensively, see MORE READING box.] However, I did tell you that the story of Mr. Buckley was correct and there are many outstanding bonds and certificates which YOUR NATION IS ULTIMATELY GOING TO HAVE TO HONOR FOR THEY COME UNDER THE CONSTITUTION. But, your country is Bankrupt and has been since the early 1930s. So—a LOT is going on as we write and it concerns something that may not be discussed here at this time. However, you who have interest in "Treasurygate" and do not have access to SPOTLIGHT might enjoy seeing how entangled things really ARE. Remember the Supreme Court Justice who is stepping down (SUDDENLY)? Well—could it be????....

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE NAMED IN TREASURYGATE

by Tom Valentine

[QUOTING:]

Things keep getting curiouser and curiouser in the case of a Texas man and his suit against the federal government involving bonds said to be worth trillions of dollars. [H: Language on the part of both parties aside, these are only a "few" of the outstanding documents. The "Cosmos" instrument will, in itself, break the banks! {We have followed "Cosmos" in several JOURNALS and in the CONTACT as events unfold; see the MORE READING box below.} When presented to England a couple or so years ago—it caused closure of the banks and about wiped out the market. That same certificate is due and owing FROM the U.S. Treasury, good friends. You are NOW talking about trillions upon trillions of dollars—and some of these instruments are LEGAL documents demanding payment in GOLD! GOOD HARD YELLOW GOLD! I would dare speculate that perhaps somebody does not want Sir Blackmun in the middle of this while sitting on the BENCH of the highest court of your land. But what can a bankrupt nation, city or citizen do? We shall see. These documents pre-date ANY of your more recent debts for anything related to the (u)nited States of America. This is a debt of your nice FEDERAL U.S. and what will you do? I think Los Angeles is about in the same boat with Mr. King's demand settlement by the jury yesterday: the city is bankrupt so how can you possibly pay the amounts ordered by the court? Changing the rules won't help, friends, because the changes to date have been UNLAWFUL and will not stand against the Federalist Government OR under the Constitution of the United States. It is "happening", citizens, and it is going to be most interesting.]

Supreme Court Associate Justice Harry Blackmun is scheduled to be deposed by lawyers for Tommy Buckley of Amarillo, Texas in the case known as Treasurygate.

Blackmun is alleged to be an important witness for Buckley who has sued the U.S. Treasury, Secretary of the Treasury Lloyd Bentsen and the Federal Reserve System in the U.S. Court of Claims for failing to honor Certificates of Obligation totalling trillions of dollars.

In perhaps the most bizarre, yet important lawsuit in history, the plaintiff is alleging the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas, the entire Fed system and central banks in Switzerland, Japan and elsewhere have conspired to dishonor their own certificates which total unimaginable amounts of money.

Blackmun has been an unnamed figure in this case ever since it was first filed nearly a year ago in the U.S. District Court, Amarillo, Texas. His name as a witness was released recently when Judge Diane Weinstein in the Court of Claims denied the government's request for summary judgement and granted Buckley a time extension to take depositions in the case.

KEY FIGURES

Among other key figures to be deposed by Buckley's lawyers are Rep. Charlie Rose (D-N.C.) and Bentsen.

In a letter to his followers dated January 17, Buckley explained Weinstein ruled in their favor by extending the time frame for depositions and discovery and shortened the time frame for the defendants—the Treasury Department and the Fed—to bring forth the Federal Reserve Bank certificates which the Secret Service CONFISCATED FROM BUCKLEY IN JUNE OF 1991.

The defendants quickly filed a "protective order motion" in an effort to prevent the court from forcing the certificates into the light of the public record.

In a nutshell, the Fed does not want to bring the certificates forth. If they are forced to do so, they want to bring only the $278 billion certificate used by Buckley to open the case. They will show the certificates, if forced to do so, only under their stringent conditions—which includes a stipulation Buckley not get near the certificates, and they demand to know WHO the experts are who will be examining the documents "in advance". [H: Ah-humnnnn...]

The judge has not yet ruled on this protective order motion.

Meanwhile, the feds do not want Blackmun deposed in this matter and appear to be taking steps to interfere.

The Government's arguments have been inconsistent ever since this unique case, that could bring down the globalist central banking house of cards in one fell swoop, first came to light.

GOVERNMENT CLAIMS

The Fed and the government claim the certificates are:

- * Bogus, 100 percent imagination by Buckley and his associates; and

- * Are copies, very poor copies, of the originals. [H: This reminds ME of the argument against the PROTOCOLS OF ZION Copies of originals? If they are "copies" of "originals" at worst—they can't be "bogus". With the PROTOCOLS it was taken even further, however, while the Zionists, ADL, all Jewish Organizations of the New World Order CLAIMED "forgery". This also indicates that AN ORIGINAL is genuine and valid—somewhere!]

In a January 4 letter to Michael B. Levy, assistant secretary for legislative affairs, Department of Treasury, an attorney familiar with the case pointed out:

"Unfortunately for the defendants in this matter, members of both the Senate and the House have given opinion as to this matter that range from 'the certificates are counterfeits' [H: Again indicating the ORIGINALS would not be counterfeits or false.] to 'the certificates are copies of the originals, and poor copies at that'; What is the truth? If the certificates do not exist, why not say that."

The name of the attorney who wrote the letter to Levy has been withheld at this time.

He also wrote: "If the certificates do exist and the subject certificate is nothing more than a poor counterfeit, then the whereabouts of the original would place to rest 'Treasurygate'."

"What is of concern is the fact that if Treasurygate proves to be fact, then the American people have been subjected to a massive fraud perpetrated on them by the United States Government in collusion with the Federal Reserve System." [H: No-o-o....., really?]

He closed his letter with:

"If, or when the truth surfaces, either the government will be a fraud or Mr. Buckley will be a fraud. Right now it appears that Mr. Buckley has the edge."

[END OF QUOTING]

It would appear that there is more to the frenzied purchase by the Treasury, or someone, of the Federal Reserve, the panic of the Banking Committee right now, the resignation of Blackmun (Just wait until you see WHY Blackmun is the Justice being deposed!) and other massively HIDDEN operations going on as we write. I can only wish you hope in the possibility of winning anything against the lawyers and judges—placed to stop any Citizen from winning anything! Yes, I think there will be a great genocide/holocaust when America hangs the treasonists and moves on to the rest of the world!

Messages For Some And Some For All

4/20/94 #2 HATONN

SOMETIMES WRONG...

Word has come back to me from a fairly new reader who has noted that we write a lot of things we shouldn't, that Hatonn must know more than he tells, and that some of the things are not quite correct.

Again, from the top, please. I am helping to write a paper and magazines. I am efforting to integrate information FROM MANY CREDIBLE WRITERS—VS. ONES WHO SIMPLY WANT TO MAKE A BUNDLE ON THE "INCREDIBLE". I will most certainly make every effort to be correct and will often stop and call your attention to items for which extra care should be given in acceptance.

AUTHORS

I am now offering VERY dangerous material for which authors have become targets for "sanction", legal fodder for the corrupt courts, etc. THEY have had to get bits of information from here and from there and must reach conclusions. I try to offer work EXACTLY as given to us so that it is not tampered or changed. We are now offering it in more focused portions so that you readers who DO KNOW can write and correct any misstatements—IF YOU KNOW FIRST HAND OR FROM THE "HORSE'S MOUTH". There is already plenty of "speculation" about things such as Kennedy's assassination—and the assassination itself is only an EXAMPLE of how things have reached the terrible and confused state as now being experienced.

Speaking of Kennedy will bring immediately to mind, Ronn Jackson. Well, we wouldn't expect Ronn to know as much about Stich's lawsuits as does Stich—likewise, Stich cannot know as much about Kennedy's assassination as does Ronn. "Coleman" couldn't know all the players and changes on various committees but could gather a lot of information. What most of these people are finding out, however, is that it is rare if ANYTHING presented, including names, will be accurate or the same as when each crossed the other's trail. For instance, again, let us take "Coleman". He has written a book and states the author is "Dr. John Coleman". Who am I to argue. The facts are that most of the Special Services people who would recognize this person at all will know him as Joseph (or "Josef") Pavlonsky (or Pavlonski). Is he REALLY with MI-6? Who cares—he wrote some very good books with a lot of information.

When we write of Gunther Russbacher, it is worse: Gunther has had so many alias identifications as to boggle the mind and you won't even know what he is called this very day. We are not trying to give a telephone book and all identifications—we are trying to let you know what a sorry state of affairs has been reached on this globe, in your various nations, and with humanity, and WHO now rules it and consequences of actions. It is a must to know the generalization "orders" who wield the power, i.e., CFR, TRILATS, CIA, Mossad, etc. However, it is not of much consequence, either, as you will note that all humans in POWER places are basically egotistically based and also straining for CONTROL. YOU are watching an unfoldment of players in such a way that you can pretty well size up the "Titans" who will clash in such a way as to be FELT around the Universe.

Much of what I write are MESSAGES and the message may be for only one or two to understand—but in most cases I don't have other resource at present to get the message to the receiver.

If, for instance, I want to get Mr. Jackson's attention I will talk about Hangar 51, craft "skin" and who might have been on board. I might also suggest that he be prepared for some disappointments in his employers—and that goodness is hardly their purpose in life. They will, however, allow the conduit for recovery of, at least, a substantial restructuring of government through financial influence and gold-based accounting. I would also suggest that if he starts seeing 9-1/2 foot reptilians in his sleep, that he understand he is an accepted, incredibly well trained and capable person with "very special" talents and abilities—but HE DOES NOT WORK FOR A REPTILIAN SPECIES OF SOUL-LESS CRACKPOTS.

I also ask that everyone remember that we have written over 30,000 pages of print, thousands of hours of audio tapes AND many, many weekly papers—in only the past 57 MONTHS—just through this source.

Our thrust is to give the PEOPLE something to have as truth and perception-changing information. It is up to YOU-THE-PEOPLE TO SUPPLY THE FACTS, DETAILS AND GET YOUR LIVES CHANGED ABOUT. And furthermore, just as the adversary (my enemy) tries to use everyone and everything of ours to make his game—I use him and his to win mine! In our thrust to follow the laws of God and Creation and not cross the laws of man—we remain pretty safe and secure. We will also have "Bigger" players will help if need be. Relatively speaking, we don't need much—so they will have plenty left to pretty much fight their wars. The larger problem is that most players DON'T EVEN REALLY UNDERSTAND THEIR OWN GAME OR EMPLOYERS! And, no, I am not going to take up one-on-one presentations. I can make myself known when necessary. I wield a pretty big stick also.

I also suggest that ones who can't quite come to grips with me, or with what we offer—after you have studied all or most all of our work, be PATIENT! I am not in the business of giving forth great revelations or telling fortunes. Let it suffice to remind you that extra-terrestrials have been on YOUR PLACE for a very long time—some good and some bad as you would describe personalities and activities. However, you have no big bad wolves left out in the atmospheric places to do you in—UNLESS OF COURSE, YOU ARE ON THE WRONG SIDE OF GOD! THEN, I, MYSELF, AM A VERY BIG AND RATHER AWESOME OPPONENT. The majority of the would-be-"kings" fit the "opposition" category—IF they harm my people or give us great difficulty with our mission.

We offer assistance, awakening and A WAY INTO SECURITY but we don't force anyone and we don't bargain with anyone—neither do we BRIBE anyone. We do negotiate but never COMPROMISE in integrity, honor or within the Laws of God and Creation.

You do, however, have some cute players who come from outside your recognition as well. You have abused most of those "creatures" (creations) and you have about cross-DNA'd yourselves out of human ability to survive. In fact, with all your underground SECRET replications and alterations for the purpose of bringing panic and fear to your own people—you have BUILT MY TEAM A WHOLE ARMY. YOU may well be able to construct a robotic machine that looks very real and acts human in every respect—BUT MY TEAM CAN LITERALLY BREATHE LIFE (SOUL) INTO THE ENTITIES AND WHAT "WAS" AN EVIL WORKER BECOMES GOD'S BEST SOLDIER!

THE LIGHT WAVE

I am totally amused when such as Bo Gritz gets all filled with humor over the "three days of light" that didn't happen. Didn't it? Well, no, you are moving into it, fortunately for you, a bit more slowly than anticipated by the projectors of such an event. I merely gave you what was offered by scientists from your place, specifically Australia. I certainly DID suggest you get dark glasses because the bastards on your place planned to ignite the radioactive belt around your planet and, brothers, it would burn your cute little eyes right out of your head. The higher-than-recognized ultra-violet rays, which are now giving such damage to you nice people, are getting more and more intense every day. You can't "SEE" these rays but your world is certainly beginning to feel the results of them. THAT IS WHAT MAKES UP THE PHOTON BELT. [For more information on The Photon Belt, please see MORE READING box on the previous page.]

However, you ones had best get your heads on and start paying attention: I said that I did not expect the "big event", even with the Photon Belt, until the first decade of the new millennium. Then, in about 2011, WATCH OUT, good buddies, because a WHOLE BIG LOT OF THINGS are going to break loose—if you can hold together that long. THAT is why

I am here—not to tattle on greedy snitches. Then, if we can make it a bit changed about without destroying everything—we may actually make it with you through that period also but there will be massive changes in the Earth itself—as you are now going.

The speculation of happenings in July when asteroids hit Jupiter are probably also going to be quite interesting. You can't have such massive disruptions without SOMETHING rubbing off in your orbiting system from shock-waves. You may well be a manifest illusion, good friends, BUT COSMIC UNIVERSAL PHYSICS IS INFINITE IN TRUTH AND ALL THAT "IS" IS ELECTRIC WAVES AND THOUGHT EXPRESSION. I would at the least expect some oceanic wave action—like some very large tidal waves—if quaking, as expected, occurs. THESE are the things that change the face of worlds!

Are you sure that there will be something striking Jupiter? Come now—if you are thought projections—does something HAVE TO strike anything? Smarten-up! There are Earth-launched Cosmospheers that could blow those little pebbles out of the trajectory path.

The important thing to hold in focus is that at this point you still don't have the "sides" in picture and that makes you helpless pawns in this game.

The word is coming down today from several sources as to what to "watch out" for as "we move into the reestablishment of the gold-based economy ones with arbitrages ongoing must register them or they won't be paid." Is this valid? Who knows? Do YOU have an arbitrage going? ARE YOU SURE? I can tell you this—all those great manipulations with treasuries and CDs and international computer transfers and big profits from sell-shorts and all that will come to a rather miserable change pretty quickly. All won't go away but there will be some interesting times ahead—IF the rumors are accurate.

Are the rumors accurate? Some of them are indeed completely accurate! You are, as we write here today, unaware of that which is taking place in the Federal systems. A gold standard is very much in the works—so what about those gold certificates? Well, what about all the news pouring out about the corrupt players? Who is going to struggle to look good and who is really a good-guy? It is going to be very hard to tell and it is going to be even harder to make you all think it is the "government" good-guys doing the switcheroo. But, it might well save you from total anarchy.

What about the new currency? What about it? It is printed and ready—but why would you not just go back to the previously printed "old" currency. A lot was printed back in the Kennedy era or thereabouts. Either way I would expect you to be hearing a bit from very unexpected sources like the CNN mouthpiece interview show, the King lips, and the International Monetary Fund representative Bentsen of the Cabinet. Is Bentsen a good-guy? Who knows? See what he offers—he is heavy duty but I wouldn't place my infinite journey on his Godliness. He is, however, in a position where he can make a lot of tracks and they may well mean something interesting. There are also SOME who are not happy with the Bolshevik Sovietization of America [see last week's CONTACT] from anywhere—even England. There are still one or two very heavy-duty hitters on Clinton's Cabinet roll-call. Hillary's Hellcats [CONTACT presented articles on the "Hellcats" in our 3/1/94 and 3/8/94 issues] aren't the only mates running about destroying the morals of the nation. Some heavy hitters are in very high places and travel the globe! SOME ARE BETTER THAN OTHERS. I simply REMIND you that a nation, a people or a world CANNOT SURVIVE WITH ROT AT THE CORE OF MORAL STANDARDS!

There are several factions which have PLANS 2000! GOD IS ONE OF THEM!

Enough now; I am NOT here to do your work for you—figure out your puzzles or do your homework. Salu.

!*&!$ Lawyers: In Stich's Defrauding America

4/20/94 #1 HATONN

We have so many interesting topics going at the same time that we sort of sit and say: "eenie, meenie, mynie, moe..." but since we have turned attention to lawyers and "justice", let us go with Stich's DEFRAUDING AMERICA, updated version, second edition, [see next page for ordering information] and his segment on the Legal Fraternity.

Before we enter into the copy itself I would like to make note to you that all funds from Rodney Stich's TRUST accounts have been frozen. The ONLY income he has of any kind at this time is through THESE books. Please help support him—information in truth to YOU rests on your willing desire to see to the assistance of the daring writers.

I also ask that you consider, each time you read anything on THE LEGAL FRATERNITY, that you turn to Eustace Mullins' RAPE OF JUSTICE [To order this book, see MORE READING box.] If you will do nothing to help the brothers willing to risk IT ALL—then you become totally undeserving of freedom, for you have shown that you have made your choices.

LEGAL FRATERNITY

The common denominator in the entire sordid mess was the legal and judicial fraternities. I wrote of this in the first two printings of UNFRIENDLY SKIES—An Aviation Watergate in 1978 and 1980, and greatly enlarged upon that in the 1990 Unfriendly Skies. This revised Defrauding America expands upon the sordid and criminal nature of this legal fraternity group.

It was the legal fraternity with the FAA and NTSB that covered up for the air safety and criminal acts which other federal inspectors and I found at United Airlines and within the FAA. [H: If you read carefully Unfriendly Skies you MAY NEVER WISH TO FLY THE FRIENDLY SKIES—EVER AGAIN. AND, it is not just United!] Justice Department attorneys enlarged upon these cover-ups and obstruction of justice. For the past thirty years Justice Department attorneys have blocked every attempt to report the crimes revealed in these pages.

REPORT A CRIME, GO TO JAIL

After failing to block the exposure of these criminal activities in this manner, Justice Department attorneys then proceeded to destroy me financially through the cover of the Justice Department and CIA law firm of Friedman, Sloan and Ross. And when that failed to stop me, they proceeded to repeatedly charge me with contempt of court from 1987 to the present date, in retaliation for reporting the criminal activities against the United States.

Sabotage of my exposure activities in the air safety field commenced with attorneys in the Federal Aviation Administration and the National Transportation Safety Board, especially during the Denver air safety grievance hearing. This was compounded by the Denver attorney whom I hired to assist me in that hearing, J.E. Kuttler. Kuttler either sabotaged my exposure efforts from the very start, or was grossly incompetent.

I sought legal representation to help expose the FAA corruption while residing in Oklahoma City. Several expressed shock at what I told them, and they stated they would get back to me, and then never did. I presume they talked to another attorney in the Justice Department and that ended their interest. I asked Oklahoma City attorney Clyde Watts for help to expose the corruption. He was a former attorney with the Department of Justice in Washington, and stated he would question some of his Justice Department friends when he went to Washington. Watts was defending General [Edwin] Walker, whom the federal government was trying to silence, and who was placed in a federal prison hospital on the argument that he had mental problems. When Watts returned to Oklahoma City, he wouldn't talk to me. When I went to his office to pick up my papers, his associate greeted me, looked at me sadly, and wished me luck. Other attorneys advised that they would check the matter and get back to me. They all then avoided me.

Los Angeles attorney Ned Good contacted me and stated he would use my testimony against United Airlines in a lawsuit against United Airlines concerning a Boeing 727 crash into the Pacific Ocean at Los Angeles (January 18, 1969). The sequence of events suggests that Good simply threatened to use my testimony if United did not agree to a financial settlement dictated by the attorney.

This same problem happened when attorneys contacted me to obtain information on the crew partying and NTSB cover-up associated with the PSA San Diego crash (which was the world's worst air disaster at that time). They advised me that they would publicize my evidence, when in reality they simply used it to extract more money from PSA and its insurance carrier.

Some of the largest law firms in Salt Lake City, and the Utah State Bar, sought to block the introduction of my evidence into the trials relating to the United Airlines crash at Salt Lake City. The same occurred in the new York City and Denver crashes when I sought to introduce evidence that I acquired while I was a federal air safety investigator on that very same program at United Airlines.

LACK OF INTEGRITY AT AIR-CRASH TRIALS

The level of integrity at court trials is of the level expected from the legal fraternity. Employing attorneys demand that their expert witnesses slant their testimony in favor of their client, making the expert witnesses nothing more than brokers of disinformation.

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION

The American Civil Liberties Union, the self-professed protector of civil rights, played a key role in the pattern of hard-core civil rights violations judicially inflicted upon me. I repeatedly notified the ACLU of the civil rights violations inflicted upon me, why it was being done, and the damage to the judicial system and our constitutional protections. [H: Now, WHY we are offering you so many topics? For reference! Go get your copy of "Coleman's" CONSPIRATORS' HIERARCHY: THE STORY OF THE COMMITTEE OF 300, and in the listings of "controlled" and purposefully structured groups, you WILL FIND the ACLU as an operating branch controlled totally by the Committee of 300. (See MORE READING box for ordering information.)] The first contact was 1965 and continued through 1989. They not only refused to provide help, but they upheld and aided and abetted the escalating civil rights violations.

In 1989, the Executive Director of the Nevada ACLU, Shelly Chase, and I appeared on Reno radio station KOA, during which she upheld the right of Justice Department attorneys and federal judges to imprison citizens who report crimes committed by federal officials. She upheld the right of California judges to void divorce judgments rendered years and decades earlier, even though these acts were gross civil and constitutional violations. The Friedman law firm that played a key role in the ten-year-pattern of civil rights violations was a key member of the ACLU in the San Francisco area.

The ACLU gets large financial donations from the public on the argument that they protect civil and constitutional rights. While some of their stated motives and actions are meritorious, there are many who question whether or not their goals enhance the quality of life. The ACLU often protects the most vicious and seamy side of society, often working to inflict harm upon others by protecting the guilty. Despite the fact that people were dying from aircraft hijackings, they opposed using metal detectors to screen passengers for weapons. Between 1968 and 1973, there was an average of over two dozen attempted airplane hijackings a year. But after airports commenced using metal detectors in 1973 to screen passengers for weapons, the hijacking attempts dropped dramatically. ACLU argued that the security devices violated the Fourth Amendment protections against "unreasonable search and seizure". The ACLU opposed drug testing of transportation employees, even though studies showed that excessive alcohol consumption was a serious problem among railroad employees. They opposed roadblock stopping of cars in an attempt to reduce the high death rate and maiming resulting from excessive drinking. They argued repeatedly to allow brutal murderers to go scot-free because of some minor procedural requirement dreamed up by the same U.S. Supreme Court justices described in these pages.

CONGRESSIONAL ATTORNEYS

Without the cover-up by members of Congress, most of whom are attorneys, the present number of scandals could not have been possible, and would have been nipped in the bud in their infancy, instead of escalating into the epidemic corruption that now exists. Members of Congress proposed legislation in mid-1989 to authorize federal employees in various government agencies to shoot down private aircraft in the drug-interdiction program, and proposed immunity for those shooting down and killing the occupants of the aircraft. They proposed that aircraft should be shot down if they did not respond to signals from an intercepting Customs or other government agency aircraft. The Senate voted to authorize the Customs Service and other federal agencies in August 1989 to fire upon small planes that do not respond to interception. Entire families can be wiped out by gunfire in this manner [H: Besides, the most drugs are brought in on military aircraft TO military bases and to other bases such as the Mena, Arkansas airport!]

CALIFORNIA SEGMENT OF LEGAL CORRUPTION

Corruption in the legal fraternity is rampant throughout the United States, but that segment based in California has probably inflicted more damage upon the United States than any other segment. Upon becoming President in 1981, Ronald Reagan brought into the White House many California attorneys, including Edwin Meese (former district attorney from Alameda County near San Francisco), Lowell Jensen, and others. They were all involved in scandal after scandal, using their control of the Justice Department to protect themselves from criminal prosecution.

It was the California legal fraternity who acted as a front in the sham action filed against me in the California courts. It was California judges, up to and including the judges in the California Supreme Court, who aided and abetted the scheme through a ten-year pattern of outrageous civil and constitutional violations.

It was a large group of federal judges in the State of California who enlarged upon the earlier violations; aiding and abetting not only the corrupt judicial actions in the California courts, but blocking the reports of the criminal activities described within these pages. It was federal judges in the State of California and in the largest federal circuit, the Ninth Circuit, who have made it an imprisonable offense to report government crimes, or to exercise federal protections to defend against the civil, constitutional and criminal violations inflicted upon me.

The attorneys that I hired were equally abominable. I finally had to appear without attorney to get the law into the record that barred the actions taken against me. In the sham California action the attorneys refused to raise the defenses in mandatory statutory law and under federal law, arguing instead fifty-year-old case law that permitted judges to do what they please.

My first attorney, Walnut Creek practitioner Douglas Page, jeopardized my defenses by substituting a young attorney right out of law school to argue important matters of law at a critical hearing, contrary to our employment agreement. The substituted attorney knew nothing about the unusual issues arising in the bizarre action filed against me. I fired both attorneys.

I contacted over thirty attorneys during the next few years, seeking legal representation. I knew the law, but recognized that pro per defendants, appearing without legal counsel, usually end up on the losing side, due to judicial prejudice. (Refusing to recognize prior divorce judgments and the adjudicated personal property rights, because the parties did not intend to live forever in the prior court's jurisdiction, was barred by the U.S. Supreme Court in the mid-1940s and barred by state and federal statutes.) Most attorneys didn't have any knowledge of the law pertaining to the issues. Or, they were deliberately playing stupid to facilitate the scheme against me. Some attorneys admitted that I faced a judicial gridlock, and that their legal practice would suffer if they raised the legal defenses necessary to halt the sham action.

When I decided it was time to exercise federal remedies for the massive civil and constitutional violations running rampant in the California courts, I engaged Sacramento attorney James Reed, who taught civil and constitutional law in the local law school. He wasn't much on California law relating to the underlying action filed against me by the Friedman law firm, but he used the law I researched on the matter, and got it into his federal briefs. It was necessary to sue state judges to obtain declaratory and injunctive relief, something very few attorneys will do, fearing judicial retaliation.

The first federal lawsuit exercising federal remedies to address the civil right violations named Solano County Judges Dwight Ely and Michael McInnis as defendants, along with the Friedman law firm. It appeared that Reed was pressured to drop the judges as defendants, and over my objections amended the complaint, eliminating them. He appeared to panic. This federal action was assigned to U.S. District Judge Raul Ramirez, who quickly dismissed the action, clearly violating many federal statutes and related case law. Reed then changed residence and became county counsel at Mammoth Lakes, causing me to look for another attorney specializing in civil and constitutional rights.

In 1985 I contacted attorney John Moulds who specialized in civil and constitutional law. Moulds, you may remember, was the part-time magistrate who in 1987 sentenced me to prison for filing three federal actions seeking declaratory and injunctive relief, and for reporting the federal corruption I had uncovered. These actions sought a judgment to declare the validity of the five divorce judgments and the personal and property rights

Among the corrupt activities described in Defrauding America are the following:

- Epidemic drug trafficking into the United States.
- Role played by the CIA in Savings and Loan and HUD looting.
- Conversion of Chapter 11 courts into a criminal enterprise.
- October Surprise and its criminal coverup.
- The ugly part of the Iran-Contra scandal.
- Inslaw, the tip of Justice Department criminality.
- Covert CIA financial institutions dealing in drug money laundering.

established in them. This was a right to which I was entitled, and not up to the whim of any judge. I also sought injunctive relief from the unlawful orders rendered without jurisdiction in the sham California action. After Moulds looked over my papers, he admitted the gravity of the violations committed in the California action, but stated he couldn't represent me in federal court because of his part-time magistrate position. He had known that earlier, and never raised the objection, until he recognized the nature of the problem.

ANOTHER IMPOSTOR

I wasn't doing very well in finding attorneys by referrals, or even on blind calls, so I tried a different approach. I advertised in the San Francisco newspapers for an attorney, receiving a telephone call from an attorney who represented himself as Sid Saperstein, with offices supposedly in San Francisco. I resided in Reno then, seeking to escape the worse of the California judicial tactics. Saperstein stated he would come to Reno the next day. I was unable to visit California because California judge William Jensen, Fairfield [CA], rendered a bench warrant for my arrest. This warrant was issued when I had an attorney appear on my behalf during a hearing in Solano County Superior Court, which was necessitated by my appearance in U.S. District Court in Sacramento in a civil rights action, in which that same California judge was a defendant. Even though appearance by attorney was permitted by California law, and he knew I could not physically be in two places at the same time, Jensen issued a bench warrant for my arrest. The Solano County bench warrant for my arrest was still outstanding, and I wanted an attorney to get that removed.

Saperstein came to my Reno residence on January 23, 1987, claiming that he had connections in the courts and could get the bench warrant lifted. He asked for money and I wrote him a check, and asked him for his calling card. He pulled out a hand-written calling card, stating he had changed offices and that his printed cards had not yet arrived. Sounded strange, but possible.

Several days later, Saperstein called and said that he had succeeded in getting the bench warrant lifted. This sounded fishy, as it normally requires a noticed hearing to have the matter heard. I asked him if he had the judge's order in front of him that vacated the bench warrant, and he said that he did. I asked him the name of the judge who signed the order. "Judge Schwartz", he replied. There was no Judge Schwartz in the Solano County courts where the warrant originated, causing me to ask which court issued the order. "The Superior Court in San Francisco", he answered. The San Francisco courts had no authority over the order rendered by the Solano County courts. Saperstein had a scheme going that obviously smelled to high heaven.

I asked Saperstein to read off the exact wording on the order that he stated a few minutes earlier was right in front of him. He couldn't do this because there was no such order. He stated he would call me back shortly. That was the end of Saperstein. I never saw or heard from him again. I sent a certified letter to the address that he gave me as his office, and it came back with a post office notation that the address didn't exist. [H: My, my—sounds like something out of a lot of personal files—including the Ekkers'. A bench warrant issued by a court with an ex-judge representing a party who claimed "trespass" on a vacant lot on which Ekkers' have easement. There was no court hearing set on the day the warrant stated Ekkers did not appear and it got worse from there—to the extent that the "warrant" was SEALED and no-one, including the Ekkers' attorney could even get a look at it. You people are going to have to clean out the ENTIRE RATS' NESTS, dear friends, or you can't EVER reclaim your nation or get any manner of freedom in your lives!]

What I suspect happened was that the Friedman law firm saw my advertisement for an attorney in the San Francisco legal paper, and got Saperstein—or whoever he was—to contact me for the purpose of giving me false assurance that it was safe to return to California. Then, upon returning to California, Friedman would insure that I was arrested.

I hired a Sacramento attorney, Joel Pegg, to have the bench warrant removed and to file appeal briefs that were due, seeking to vacate the orders rendered in the sham divorce action that had been rendered without jurisdiction and which violated blocks of California and federal law. His services were also needed as U.S. District Judge Milton Schwartz and U.S. Attorney David Levi, Sacramento, charged me with civil contempt of court for filing federal actions to have the validity of the five judgments declared invalid under federal law and seeking relief from the civil right violations. Further, the actions reported the early stages of the federal corruption that I had uncovered up to that time.

Pegg has a prestigious looking office and a charming picture of Rhonda Fleming, supposedly one of his clients, on his desk. He looked impressive, and said the right words, and I felt confident that I could trust him. I paid Pegg a $20,000 retainer, and from that point he started sabotaging me at every turn, which is a common practice.

It was urgent that the attorney file several appeal briefs with the California Court of Appeals that were coming due, but Pegg repeatedly put off preparing and filing the briefs. I was appealing decisions that would overturn the past three years of illegal and unconstitutional orders by the California judges, and which affected the ownership of ten million dollars of property. The California Court of Appeals had already given me a time extension, and the three judges, Donald King, Harry Low, and Zerme Haning, were anxious to find some excuse to dismiss the appeals.

Forty-eight hours before the filing deadline I forced Pegg to give me an answer about the briefs that he had not even started to prepare, and he answered that he had requested a time extension from the court and the court granted it. By this time my opinion of attorneys was about as low as it could possibly get, so I checked to determine if he was lying. I telephoned the Clerk of the Court of Appeals at San Francisco, asking if an extension of time was requested and if it was granted. The clerk advised me that there was no request for an extension and none was granted. Pegg had lied to me. I wrote Pegg a letter and asked him for an explanation, which he refused to give me.

I then had to quickly prepare and file my own appeal briefs. This didn't take too long as I had already prepared a draft for Pegg. Appeals by people appearing without attorneys are usually denied in California courts, which are openly hostile to those appearing without attorneys. The system protects itself.

The briefs were filed, but the three judges in Division Five, District One, refused to even consider the briefs. They fraudulently said that the decisions being appealed were not appealable orders, repeating the misstatement of facts and law that kept the sham California action going for the past six years. I then sought relief from the Justices of the California Supreme Court, but by this time the judicial corruption had progressed to such an advanced stage that it became necessary for every state and federal judge to protect the earlier judicial conduct.

Joel Pegg was to seek removal of the lis pendens placed upon my dozens of properties in the sham divorce action that halted my business operations, and caused loss of valuable properties. He repeatedly stated he would do so and then never did. His refusal to seek this basic relief forced me to seek relief in Chapter 11.

As stated in earlier pages, U.S. Attorney David Levi and Judge Schwartz converted the civil contempt into a criminal contempt, and I now faced prison for having exercised federal remedies to defend against what was being done in the California courts. Pegg represented me in the defense against the criminal contempt charge, but refused to raise the defenses that would expose the scheme by Justice Department prosecutors and the federal judges. Just before the trial commenced, Pegg notified Magistrate John Moulds that he wanted to withdraw from the case. By that time Pegg had my money, and the Chapter 11 seizure of my assets left me without funds to hire other legal counsel. It also showed Moulds that there would be no attorney to file appeal briefs and other post-conviction defenses.

THE BANKRUPTCY SCENE

In 1987 I sought relief in Chapter 11, and obtained other legal counsel. I hired attorney Vernon Bradley of Sausalito, California, who was to represent me both in the California action and in the Chapter 11 proceedings. He then hired Las Vegas attorney Joshua Landish to handle the filing of the Chapter 11 papers in Las Vegas. Both Bradley and Landish agreed before I hired them that they would seek relief from the federal judge in Chapter 11 from the illegal orders of the California judges. But then when they became attorneys of record, they refused to file the necessary papers to obtain the relief.

I was present at the first hearing on the Chapter 11 cases, on September 11, 1987. The two attorneys made a passionate argument on my behalf and, although they failed to raise the civil and constitutional violations that forced me to seek Chapter 11 relief, they argued in my defense. They praised my management style that built up a multi-million dollar equity estate in twenty years. They argued that the sham California divorce action filed by the Friedman law firm caused me to seek relief in Chapter 11, and if federal law was applied requiring the California judges to recognize the five prior judgments, there would be no reason for my seeking relief in Chapter 11. This was the hearing where federal Judge Robert Jones rendered an order that the two cases would be dismissed in 60 days. This was not the full relief I wanted, but it removed the lis pendens and permitted me to pay off the mortgage loans that had come due.

These attorneys then sabotaged my defenses. Attorney John Landish appeared at a hearing limited to the personal Chapter 11 filing and limited to removal of the automatic stay on several mortgages. That hearing took place on September 28, 1987, without my knowledge. The mortgage holder, Robil, Inc., and Superior Home Loans, sought to foreclose on the properties for which the mortgages had come due, and which would have been shortly paid off since Judge Jones ordered removal of the state lis pendens that had blocked the refinancing. Landish, whom I had hired specifically to protect my properties, then requested Judge Jones to vacate the earlier order providing me relief; to seize the business, home, and assets on both the personal and corporate Chapter 11 cases via appointment of a trustee; and then to liquidate the assets, leaving me penniless.

I would later learn that this is a common trick used by attorneys after they recommend to their clients that they seek Chapter 11 relief. The attorneys then strip their clients of all assets! In this manner the attorneys and trustees generate huge fees as they plunder the assets. Through their attorneys the Bank of America was famous for jumping the gun to seize the properties of their clients, ever since the 1930 depression days.

Landish kept notice of the seizure from me until after the ten-day period to appeal passed. I discharged Landish but by that time he had done the damage. I did not learn what occurred at that hearing until several months later, after I obtained taped recordings of the court proceedings.

I hired other legal counsel, and the integrity problems continued. I hired attorney Raymond Goodman of Concord, California, to represent me in the bankruptcy proceedings, and he too agreed to file briefs to remove the illegally appointed trustee. He didn't tell me that the California State Bar had suspended his right to practice law. Also, he didn't tell me that he would turn my Chapter 11 cases over to an associate attorney, William Rubendall, whom I had never seen, and who turned out to be a disaster. He failed to file opposition briefs, and refused to file the briefs to remove the illegally appointed trustee as was agreed before I paid the retainer. He refused to return phone calls. Contrary to my instructions, he notified Judge Jellen that my earlier appeals would be withdrawn. And much more.

I then retained attorney Robert Ayers of Walnut Creek, California, and paid him a retainer. After six weeks of failing to file the required briefs, he then stated he was not my attorney. But he kept the money I gave him. I even had trouble getting my files back.

SEIZING MY ASSETS AND THEN STRIPPING ME OF
LEGAL COUNSEL

After attorney Pegg abandoned me, I asked for a public defender to defend me against the false imprisonment. Judge Raul Ramirez appointed Assistant Federal Public Defender Carl Larson, who operated as a puppet for the Department of Justice gang.

Larson refused to perform any of the fundamental legal requirements needed to defend me. He refused to file a motion for stay of my imprisonment pending appeal, which is a right under law. Larson refused to file briefs raising the many fundamental constitutional and statutory defenses that were violated. Larson refused to acknowledge the grotesque violations of law and constitutional safeguards and supported the actions taken against me.

Larson refused to obtain the hearing transcript or the records required to prepare a defense. He refused to file any briefs on my behalf, arguing that he would give a verbal presentation. That was totally unacceptable. Court rules and proper defense tactics require filing a written brief addressing the dozens of statutory and case laws and constitutional protections. A court hearing of this type is limited to a brief verbal argument, and is totally inadequate and not intended to present the dozens of case laws, constitutional protections, and other complex issues. Larson was protecting his employer, the Justice Department, and the federal judges.

I discharged Larson, and requested another attorney. At first this request was refused and I had to present briefs in pro se status. Finally, federal judges appointed another attorney, Sacramento sole practitioner

I thoroughly enjoyed "Garden of Aton" and want to commend you on such a remarkable job. As an aside, it was your book that finally convinced my friend that perhaps old Hatonn just might be who he says he is, and she is now taking an interest in the PHOENIX JOURNALS.

Clifford Tedmon. He too duplicated the prior counsel's misconduct and again I had no alternative but to discharge him. None of them would file motions for my release or raise any of the glaring violations of law. Federal judges appointed still another attorney, Brian DeAmicis, who repeated the tactics of the prior attorneys, refusing to argue the controlling law, and refusing to prepare adequate defenses. It was hopeless to obtain defenses under this pattern of legal misconduct. Finally, I discharged him, and filed my own briefs.

HOW WOULD THEY PROTECT AGAINST MALPRACTICE?

The conduct of these attorneys was hardcore misconduct and I wondered how they would protect themselves from a malpractice action. I learned later that in judicial and Justice Department corruption of this magnitude the legal system bands together to protect itself.

I filed complaints with the California State Bar Association concerning Pegg and other attorneys, and they held the conduct to be proper. I filed a complaint with the Nevada State Bar and the Governor of Nevada concerning the misconduct of attorney Joshua Landish, who sabotaged me and caused the loss of my ten-million-dollar estate. They held that the attorney conduct was proper. When I filed malpractice actions in the State of California against the attorneys, the judges unlawfully dismissed the actions. I was totally gridlocked in every state and federal court, reflecting the cohesiveness of the legal fraternity.

Nevada Attorneys stated to me that I probably could never find a Nevada attorney to file a malpractice action against Landish, as the attorneys protect each other. I contacted at least half a dozen California malpractice attorneys concerning the misconduct by California attorneys, and none would take the case. Most had already heard about the judicial involvement and wanted no part of it. The legal fraternity had me gridlocked in the California and federal courts while simultaneously using the courts to destroy me financially and take away my freedom.

Eventually the California and federal judges settled on two quick responses to strip me of all defenses. They placed a frivolous label upon anything I filed, and then called me a vexatious litigant for seeking relief. In this way they stripped me of all statutory and constitutional protections and protected the legal and judicial fraternities from the consequences of their actions.

[H: In case this is sounding too far-fetched and couldn't be "quite" right, let me assure you that this happens all the time—ALL THE TIME. Ask the Red Beckmans, the Ekkers—anyone who "they" want to "get". This is exactly what they have done with the Ekkers—who simply wanted to save their home and, now, seven years later, are still in litigation just for survival. The municipal judge was corrupt and still runs letters in the local paper saying that Ekkers are delicts, transient rip-off artists and have "used and abused the court system more than any parties he has witnessed in his 32 years of practice." They, the Ekkers, have DONE NOTHING but try desperately TO STAY ALIVE! Every nasty tactic has been pulled, from Municipal court to Federal court, to run them out of legal help by stripping all financial capability. Then the Municipal judge even ORDERED them to get an attorney, and an "appeal" to a higher court panel of JUDGES had to be rendered to simply allow "forgiveness" for "HAVING TO" represent themselves. It is a circus if you don't happen to be the trapped "clown". Once all assets are tied up in court in receivership, bankruptcy, ordered conservators, etc., then you can't get at any assets you might have. Ekkers find it easier to be paupers. Believe me, readers, MOST PEOPLE SIMPLY GIVE UP BECAUSE THERE ARE NO ALTERNATIVES!]

POWER OF THE LEGAL AND JUDICIAL BROTHERHOODS

In With Justice for None (Times Books, Gerry Spence) the author and attorney, Gerry Spence, described the power of the legal and judicial fraternities, and that most judges are the lackeys of big-money interests. Mr. Spence spent much of his life representing insurance companies and government contractors and, later, protecting the rights of people adversely affected by injustice, such as the case of Karen Silkwood against Kerr-McGee. He also sympathized with me when I sought his help in 1988, but refused to help, even though the actions taken against me represented attacks upon fundamental constitutional rights and revealed a corrupt judiciary.

In A Feast for Lawyers (Evans & Company, by Sol Stein), the author describes the hacks, vultures and scoundrels in the legal fraternity, and the judges who feed on the public. He describes the mentality of "we against them," the "we" being the legal fraternity, and "them" being the public.

JUDGES FOR SALE

The practice of buying decisions is firmly embedded in the legal fraternity. A typical example was San Francisco Bay Area attorney Suren Toomajian who spent his vacations in Palm Springs and other places, accompanied by California judges whose expenses he paid. In return, the attorney received favorable decisions. One of his clients, a lady friend of mine, described the tactic of canceling hearing dates until the court clerk assigned the case to a judge which the attorney controlled. Crooked attorneys leave envelopes containing money with particular judges, or the judge's law clerk, in payment for favorable rulings. Often, when the attorney appeared before a judge that he controlled, there would be virtually no arguments raised in support of the decision sought. The decision had been reached in private conversations before the hearing on the matter.

The legal fraternity has no interest in cleaning up the system that benefits attorneys and judges, even though the public is repeatedly victimized. The charade of standing up when the judge enters the court room, the rhetoric of justice, are deceptions to impress the public.

TIES BETWEEN RELATED LAW FIRMS AND COVERT GOVERNMENT ACTIVITIES

I discovered that the San Francisco law firm of Friedman, Sloan and Ross, who filed the sham California action against me and whom the California and federal judges protected, was a covert Justice Department and CIA law firm, wielding immense control in the courts. The first indication I had of that relationship was when an attorney in Las Vegas told me about it in early 1991 (Jan. 22, 1991). The following year several of my CIA contacts described the clandestine CIA activities in which attorneys, law firms, trustees, and judges, are paid off.

CIA operative Gunther Russbacher described to me in sworn declarations the role played by law firms and attorneys in covert dealings with the Central Intelligence Agency and the Justice Department. He described how these attorneys do covert legal work for the two government agencies and how they play a key role in the Chapter 11 corruption. Russbacher described numerous covert CIA locations at which he saw members of this group, and how they received payoffs.

Russbacher described seeing Las Vegas federal Judge Robert Jones at Atlantic City gambling casinos and the method of paying off the judge (and others). Russbacher described the presence of Chapter 11 trustee Charles Duck at secret Central America CIA meetings and his related law firm of Goldberg, Stinnett and MacDonald. This entire cast of characters were key players in seizing and looting my assets in Chapter 11.

Russbacher described the role one of his companies, National Brokerage Company, played in the money trail to the overseas company that serves as the payoff center for federal judges, trustees and law firms, which is described in more detail elsewhere. Shamrock Overseas Disbursement Corporation in Dublin, Ireland, receives and disburses funds for these payoffs. The telephone listing is under Shamrock Overseas Courier Service. The same person who was a CIA asset in the CIA-associated Silverado Bank Savings and Loan is reportedly the Chief Executive Officer of Shamrock, Donald Lutz.

LEGAL FRATERNITY IN CHAPTER 11 CORRUPTION

The legal fraternity is deeply implicated in the massive Chapter 11 corruption that is inflicting billions of dollars of fraud upon American citizens every year. Attorneys often encourage their clients to file Chapter 11 to gain a little more time to pay a particular debt that has come due, fraudulently stating that Chapter 11 court will provide the extra time. This is what the law says. But in practice, the fraud starts immediately. The federal judges order a trustee to seize the person's properties, business, and assets. The owner who built up the business and assets is ordered to vacate. The trustee then proceeds to liquidate the assets at fire-sale prices, incurring huge legal fees and losses that usually destroy the assets. It's all blatantly unlawful, but the entire judicial system, including the Justices of the U.S. Supreme Court, protects the multi-billion-dollar a year racketeering enterprise. It is all part of the vast secret government, looting assets of the American people.

After placing their clients in Chapter 11, the attorneys then request the court to appoint a trustee to take over from the person whose competency built up the business. From that point on, fire sale liquidation takes place, and the client usually loses everything. It is a criminal enterprise and one of the best kept secrets in the United States.

LEGAL FRATERNITY IN SAVINGS AND LOAN DEBACLE

The legal fraternity was heavily implicated in the Savings and Loan debacle. In 1992 numerous law firms were charged by various federal agencies with helping to carry out the looting of the Savings and Loans. The law firms associated with covert CIA activities, however, escaped the financial penalties. Despite their key role in the hundreds of billions of dollars in fraudulent transactions, I know of no law firm that was criminally prosecuted.

Blasting the role played by attorneys in the fraud involving Lincoln Savings and Loan Association, U.S. District Judge Stanley Sporkin of Washington, D.C., asked: "Where were these professionals? Why didn't any of them speak up?" Sporkin was involved in the 1980 October Surprise scheme, and his judicial appointment was probably his reward by the Reagan-Bush administration for helping to carry it out, and to block any judicial exposure or prosecution activities.

"Thievery by Lawyers Is on the Increase, With Duped Clients Losing Bigger Sums", headlined the Wall Street Journal article (November 26, 1990). Dozens of articles like this appeared in the legal publications throughout the United States, especially in California. The cases (where attorneys receive large sums of money from estate or litigation settlements and then steal the funds intended for their client) are endless. The Daily Journal legal newspaper wrote (January 9, 1992) about the sharp rise in larceny by attorneys against their own clients. Sporkin's role in treasonous and criminal activities makes him the last person to point a finger. But it was good public relations.

ATTORNEY "WATCHDOGS"

Complaining to State Bar Associations about incompetence or outright thievery by attorneys is usually useless. The practice of attorneys stealing money received for their clients is endless, and when this is reported, the bar association often times will refuse to suspend the attorney's license to practice.

LEGAL FRATERNITY IN PROBATE

Even in death, the legal and judicial fraternities continue their sordid conduct. Attorneys have turned the probate field into a system to loot the deceased's assets, depriving widows and orphans of money they would receive if the corruption did not exist. In many states the probate system is a means of plundering estates, dividing up the loot among attorneys, judges, and their fronts. Local party bosses often select probate judges who will continue the system of looting assets of the deceased.

An article in the Journal of the American Bar Association described the probate courts as "one of the most viciously corrupt systems ever devised by the inventive minds of the greedy." This is basically true, but the Chapter 11 courts are even worse, and more crooked.

The New York Times reported "the probate procedures in many areas border on the scandalous." A leading professional journal involved in probate reporting, Trusts and Estates, described the routine nature of probate work as being "cut and dried... most of the work is done by the lawyer's secretary... very little of the lawyer's own time is consumed." But the fees extracted from probate estates often consume most of the assets and, in some cases the charges exceed the assets. Attorney fees are astronomical in relation to the time that the attorney spends on the case. In addition, probates that could be quickly settled are dragged out for months and years longer than necessary to inflate the attorney's already padded charges.

Probate judges and attorneys work hand in hand, cooperating in the looting of assets, often forcing the surviving widow or children to go on welfare while the legal fraternity devours the money intended for the surviving family members.

There are cases where the heirs had to go on welfare, while a million dollars or more of assets were tied up in probate by crooked judges and their attorney cohorts. Even when wills have been made, some judges will find fault with them, declare that the person died intestate, and divide the assets as they see fit, increasing even further the attorney charges and kickbacks to the judge.

Attorney fees come from the assets before the heirs receive their inheritance, even when the attorneys appointed by the judges are unnecessary and their appointment results in the heirs receiving nothing. What a system! There is virtually nothing a victimized heir can do as the system protects its own, regardless of how corrupt the attorneys and judges may be.

Connecticut attorneys conspired with their attorney friends in the legislature to pass a law taxing in inter vivos trusts that were circumventing the probate racket. This law requires a person filing an inheritance tax return due on a probate-exempt trust to pay huge fees to the local probate judge, even though that person performed no services in connection with the trust. The legislatures on the state and federal level are controlled by attorneys, who block almost every effort by the public to protect themselves against these parasites. Like sheep, the public remains unresponsive as it is devastated, financially and otherwise.

It has been said that it costs over one hundred times more to probate an estate in the United States than the same size estate in Britain, and takes over ten times longer to do it. [H: Makes nice Nevada Corporations look pretty good, doesn't it? (See Page 9 on this subject.) It also points out WHY accountants and lawyers DON'T LIKE NEVADA CORPORATIONS!]

Often times, as in other legal cases, the attorney absconds with all the assets, leaving the surviving widow or orphans penniless. Attorneys and judges lust after the assets people accumulate in a lifetime of hard work.

The public doesn't understand the gravity of this misconduct. During the 1984 presidential campaign of Vice Presidential candidate Geraldine A. Ferraro, it was revealed that her attorney husband, John Zaccaro, had taken $175,000 from an elderly woman for whom he had been appointed conservator. As if the money was his own, he used part of it as a deposit to purchase property for a client of his real estate company and part of it to pay tax and mortgage payments for another client. Confirming that no one can lie like an attorney, Zaccaro stated to a New York Times reporter that no one told him that he couldn't use someone else's money for his own use.

If this was a book on probate it could be filled with horror stories of attorneys and judges stealing money from innocent people through probate fraud that they call legal.

TYPICAL LEGAL SABOTAGE

Another example of how an attorney will sabotage his own client occurred during a trial on drug smuggling charges. A federal judge in San Francisco dismissed charges (November 15, 1991) against a person charged with drug smuggling on the basis that the defendant's attorney conspired with attorneys for the Justice Department to get him convicted.

The judge blasted the U.S. Attorney's office for "outrageous misconduct" in encouraging the defendant's attorney to set up his client. "The conduct of the Justice Department in the investigation and prosecution of Steven Marshank was so outrageous that it shocked the universal sense of justice," said the U.S. District Judge. The written ruling by the judge said that the defendant's attorney, Ronald Minkin of Los Angeles, supplied information to Justice Department attorneys about his client and other defendants in order to get them convicted. Through this misconduct the attorney was able to collect thousands of dollars in legal fees and stood to gain millions of dollars when the prosecutor seized his client's properties under forfeiture laws.

Outrageous as this is, I experienced this attorney misconduct over and over again, and learned of many other cases similar to this. It is a firmly established mindset and accepted code of conduct of this sordid group.

An article in the Wall Street Journal (September 11, 1991) said, "Lawyers Who Tattle On Clients Prompt Concern". The article described the situation in Houston where the attorney became a government informant against his own clients. U.S. District Judge Lynn Hughes held, however, that tape recordings made by the attorney of his client can be used in criminal proceedings against the client.

"The notion of attorneys as informants, particularly as informants against their own clients, is an area that we've seen sporadically over the years," said Neal Sonnett, a Miami criminal-defense lawyer. "We do not condone the government's use of criminal-defense-attorneys as informants against their clients," said a federal appeals court in Atlanta (1987). However, they allowed the indictment against the victimized client to stand.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Turow in Chicago approved the treachery, saying that the intrusion is justified, "It's obviously a treacherous area for the government to work in, but it's an area that sometimes the government has to work in." Attorneys involved in the profitable sabotage of their own clients have even agreed to keep Justice Department prosecutors informed of their client's future crimes. In the case against Manuel Noriega, Justice Department prosecutors obtained the help of an attorney who formerly represented Noriega and who turned government informant, a profitable change for the attorney.

Attorneys have even killed their clients. An example: San Jose, California attorney Norman R. Sjonborg was charged by Santa Clara County Superior Court Judge with being "one of the most dangerous sociopaths that I have ever seen," for having killed one of his female clients. Attorneys taking advantage of their female clients, demanding sex, is so rampant it is hardly news any more.

FORCING SEX UPON WOMEN NEEDING LEGAL HELP

A standard practice of attorneys is forcing female clients to have sex with them in order to be represented. This practice was so outrageous that New York and California passed legislation barring sex between an attorney and client. But whether this will stop the abuses is questionable. The routine violations of the canons of ethics by attorneys, and the State Bar refusal to prosecute for such violations, leave no hope for reform.

SEIZING A CLIENT'S PROPERTIES

One of the scams used by attorneys is to take a deed of trust on a person's home or properties to insure payment of legal fees, followed by outrageously excessive fees resulting in loss of the property to the attorney. New York State passed legislation in 1993 preventing this onerous practice.

THOSE UNABLE TO STOMACH IT

In a full page Newsweek article (Nov. 4, 1991), a former attorney described why he quit the business of law, repeating what has been written in many other articles. Sam Benson stated in a book he wrote:

"I am astounded that I was able to practice law for more than two years of my life. It was not any single event that pushed me over the edge. It was an uneasiness, and uncomfortable that was always there for me. I was tired of the deceit. I was tired of the chicanery. But most of all, I was tired of the misery my job caused other people."

THE POWERFUL TRIAL LAWYER LOBBY

The Trial Lawyer Lobby is one of the most powerful lobbies in the United States, consisting of over 60,000 trial lawyers. They exert great influence upon politicians through their political contributions or bribes. This lobby has become the Democratic Party's most important special interest group, supposedly more powerful than government unions. Congressmen vote against the wishes of this lobby at risk of being targeted for removal.

Two prominent names on the list of financial recipients of the Trial Lawyers Lobby were Senator Howard Metzenbaum (D-Oh), and Senator Ernest Hollings (D-SC) who received over $400,000 from members of the Trial Lawyers' Lobby (Daily Journal, Sept. 30, 1992). The bundling of contributions from these attorneys and their family members, and the political-action committee, can buy virtually any Senator's votes. So-called public interest advocate Ralph Nader gets a major share of his contributions from the trial-lawyer groups. Attorneys in the trial lawyer lobby control sufficient Democrats to block any vote in the Senate on changing the liability laws.

Studies have shown that less than 40 cents of every dollar paid to settle litigation goes to the person who suffered the injury. The rest goes to the attorneys.

Election of attorney Bill Clinton to the presidency of the United States, with his attorney wife, didn't help the problem, especially with Clinton's role in scandals such as the CIA and DEA drug trafficking into the United States.

PROTECTED BY THE STATE BAR ASSOCIATIONS

In case after case these corrupt practices continued without any corrective actions after people made complaints to the State Bar Associations. My complaints to the California and Nevada Bar Associations relating to the pattern of attorney misconduct resulted in approval of the misconduct.

Major law schools and universities have a responsibility to act when a pattern of judicial activities destroys the rights and protections under our form of government. They have the legal knowledge and the duty to act, but when hardcore corruption is involved that would bring adverse public reaction upon the group, they aid and abet the activities. These legal institutes of learning knew of the criminal activities implicating federal judges and Justice Department attorneys.

I brought these activities to the attention of Professor Ulysses Crockett of the University of California at Berkeley. Crockett had first telephoned me in 1991 when he heard about my contact with CIA operative Gunther Russbacher, and then seemingly took an interest in what I was doing. When I later confronted Crockett with his responsibility to intervene, especially in the nearby San Francisco federal action against me, he referred me to several law professors in New York and Massachusetts that he stated owed him a favor.

I wrote to these professors and only one responded, expressing a lack of interest. Crockett has been a prosecutor in the same Alameda County District Attorney's office as Edwin Meese, who was deeply involved in most of the scandals described in these pages. I wondered if Ulysses was simply trying to find out how much information we had about the scandals in which his fellow attorneys, such as Edwin Meese, were involved.

WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING

From this sordid group come state and federal judges who try to present to the public a sense of honor, integrity and justice. Many judges require everyone in the court to stand up when they enter the court room, as if they are someone to be revered. Much of the public is taken in by these charades.

There are thousands of examples of the sordid conduct of state and federal judges. On a lighter vein was the conduct by U.S. District Judge Robert H. Schnacke, to whom I sought to report in 1974 the criminality I uncovered in the aviation environment. Reflecting on Schnacke's personal life, the headline in The National Educator, March 1989, stated: "Kindig fights Pan Am and cathouse judge." The article stated in part:

A judge who has a reputation of siding with the big corporations and who, to say the least, is anything but squeaky clean in his own personal life, having been caught up in a police vice squad raid on a house of prostitution on January 25, 1985. One way or the other, the raid, which took place in San Francisco, did not make the news media until the San Francisco Chronicle finally reported it on March 16th. The federal judge, Robert H. Schnacke, was in the audience of an adult theater on Market Street when the vice squad officers arrested 11 women performers on lewd conduct charges. According to one of the arresting officers, the judge was more than in the audience; he was allegedly "performing" by placing Federal Reserve notes in the private parts [vagina] of the prostitutes.

"MONTHS OF LIES TO THE PRESS."

Famed defense attorney Gerry Spence described during a 90-minute talk to the Montana Trial Lawyers Association (July 22, 1993) his observations of the lying by Justice Department attorneys in criminal trials. He exhorted the attorneys to challenge federal prosecutors and not accept as true anything that they say.

"These are not the good guys," Spence stated, "these are people who do [lie, fabricate evidence] what they believe is necessary to bring about a conviction."

Spence had just finished the trial in which Justice Department attorneys sought to imprison Randy Weaver after they had killed his wife and son as they stormed their humble cabin. Spence stated to the trial lawyers group:

"The siege against Weaver brought in enough [weapons of war] to take over a small country, for this little man sitting in this little plywood cabin."

Spence stated that after killing his wife and son, the Justice Department attorneys "charged him with conspiracy, ...and they made the entire family the conspirators. The federal government now has the audacity to say that members of a family are members of a conspiracy, little children are members of a conspiracy."

HIGHEST JUDGE IN NEW YORK STATE SENTENCED TO PRISON

One of the highest-ranking judges in New York State was sentenced to prison on September 9, 1993. Former Chief Judge of New York's Court of Appeals embarked on a two-year pattern of sending vulgar, harassing, and threatening letters and phone calls to his former mistress and her daughter. Judge Sol Wachtler, who was married, was upset over the ending of his four-year secret love affair with Manhattan socialite Joy Silverman. He disguised his voice while making threatening phone calls to his former mistress, threatened to kidnap her fourteen-year-old daughter, sent obscene letters and pictures to the daughter, and other despicable acts. These were obscene and criminal acts, but the many judges and their co-conspirators who strip innocent people of their life's assets, or their liberties, commit far greater harm.

AMAZING THAT MORE ATTORNEYS AND JUDGES ARE NOT SHOT BY THEIR VICTIMS

It has always amazed me that more attorneys and judges are not shot by their victims, some of whom have lost through judicial and legal corruption their life's assets and now must face their remaining years in abstract poverty, along with their families. Often, the victims are unaware of the mechanics of how they had been financially destroyed.

The individual attorney or judge who gets shot receives little publicity. But in one case, the publicity was nation-wide when a client stormed into a San Francisco high-rise office building on July 1, 1993 and shot over a dozen people [in an elegant law office suite], eight of whom died.

CREATING A DANGEROUS MINDSET NATIONWIDE

The endemic corruption with the legal and judicial fraternities, the abominable integrity, infects government and non-government activities throughout the United States. These two groups are at the center of every corrupt activity within these pages. Their conduct has created a mindset of corruption throughout America, destroying the moral fibre of the United States. And these are the two groups most responsible for upholding the laws and Constitution of the United States, and establishing a guideline for acceptable conduct.

HUSH Offer

Jackson said, "This last week on the McNEIL/LEHRER NEWS HOUR was a story about Dr. Robert Oppenheimer, Director of the Manhattan Project, the development of the atomic bomb. There's a new book that came out yesterday by a top spy of the Soviet Union. I don't remember the man's name. But Mrs. Oppenheimer was a member of the Communist Party, and Dr. Oppenheimer, while Director of the Manhattan Project, gave information of the atomic weapons to the Soviet Union. Now, this was on the McNEIL/LEHRER NEWS HOUR program.

"Now, the number-two person in the Justice Department is a man by the name of Strobe Talbott. He is directly under Janet Reno. If you were to look at your roster of the Committee of 300, you'll see that the number-two name on there is a man by the name of Dean Acheson. His daughter is the number-three person in the Justice Department under Janet Reno. Strobe Talbott and Acheson's daughter are both students of Hegel and Lenin; they're Marxists. I know our Government is a bunch of liars—but I had no idea. And, you know, I know that Strobe Talbott is a student of the Russian economy. It's been printed a number of times. And our country is being run by it right now."

There is an almost omnipotent group, referred to by Jackson only as "The Committee". The Committee consists of 16 people, and towers above the Committee of 300, issuing mandates which affect the global politic. It began in 1931. The Committee started with 6 members and stayed that way for a long time. The Elite within THE Elite Committee is represented by the first six members to this very day; the Board, so to speak.

The Committee was Jackson's former employer.

In discussing the possibility of the issuance of new colored currency, Jackson revealed portions of a recent conversation with Committee members and stated, "It's not going to happen. They're shutting it down. It doesn't fit into their plans, but it may in the future. I can't talk a lot about it, but they may not have enough control if there are enough rebels out there. So, I think we're going to have back [existent] currency pretty soon now."

Jackson goes on to say, "The Committee of 300's original purpose and job was to form many governments within our society—and I use Sears as an example. Sears is a merchandising organization. They have an insurance company. They had Coldwell Banker real estate company. They had a stock brokerage firm, and so on. They opened, in California, a number of Savings & Loan banks.

"Their purpose, under the Committee of 300, was to establish conglomerates to set-up employers that have approximately one-half to one million people in their employ, in their sphere of influence. With this they could actually control and direct political occurrences. By doing this with 20 or 30 areas in the United States they, in essence, had control of the political power and, conversely, the Government. Too many of the companies were not doing as they were supposed to do, their board of directors—you see what's happened: They're divesting. They're going another route. Make no mistake: The Committee of 300 does exist, still exists, and is under my former employer's control. So is MJ-12, so is the Jason Society, and so is the CFR [Council on Foreign Relations]."

"Before you can achieve any kind of World Government, you must have parity in the working class. Now, if you're controlling 6 billion people, which is easier: bring the living standard of 300 million down or bring the living standard of 5 billion, 700 million up? Which is easier? You take your smaller group and you break them. The Committee is not going to break my country. They may break somebody else's country but, as long as I'm alive, they're not going to break my country," Jackson passionately declared.

Moreover, "I'm looking at it from the standpoint that if I'm accountable, everybody's accountable, including Government. And I don't care if your name's Clinton or Rockefeller. If you're a crook, you're a crook. You've just got more zeros on the end of what you're doing.

"I want my country just to go back to the Constitution, that's all. And once it's there, I have no interest other than living in that environment and taking advantage of what's available to me as a member of that society," Jackson stated.

Explaining further, Jackson said, "We have been preconditioned over several generations and told several things that are not true. And, no matter what you call it, and no matter what the atmosphere that you exist in, it is still brainwashing. You don't have to use force or coercion to implement brainwashing—you can produce disinformation in a number of ways."

Jackson told The Committee recently, "We're not going to have a World Government. I will personally stop you if you think that you're going to put in a One World Government." Jackson went on to say, "If my country says they want to be a part of it, you're not going to ask our Government. You're going to ask the people, and if the people say that they would be interested in a One World Government, that's fine. But you're not going to think for us. And I mean that."

Shifting topics, Jackson states, "I don't believe in what David Koresh believed in, at all, absolutely not. But David Koresh has a right to believe any way he wants to and so do you, and so do I. As long as David Koresh didn't infringe on me or my rights, he can go out and do whatever he wants to do. And the Government isn't going to tell him or you or you what to do. They think they're going to, but you're going to see every road and sidewalk in this country running in crimson if they keep pushing what they're doing right now. They're making a very bad mistake. And if they do something to me, there's going to be somebody else come after me and there's still going to be somebody else. 'Til where they're going to have uniforms, they're not going to have a country. The Government is through; they're finished."

When asked about prison, Jackson replied, "I'm in prison because I wanted to come here and because I purposely broke the law. But when you hear the story about that, I had to break the law 75 or 100 times to get here. I mean, I didn't just break it once, I had to slap it in people's faces."

"I've carried, myself, for The Committee trillions of dollars; not millions, not billions, trillions of dollars. I've transported more drugs than you've ever—I'm talking about tons and tons. I'm not talking about just 50 keys [kilos] or 100 keys. Most of these big-time drug dealers in here may have had $2,000 or $3,000 in their pockets. They don't even know what money is or drugs are."

"The Committee controls drugs. The Committee controls drugs. Not just a little bit of it. They control the people who control the drugs—they are employees. Just like I was an employee. The Committee runs the drugs! Jackson says emphatically with temples bulging.

"They [the Committee] control Japan in its entirety. They have control of the currency in Japan. They have control, now, of the Federal Reserve, in this country. Now, the owners of the Federal Reserve in this country, you have two people who are in a like situation in Russia right now, and their Central Bank who own or are on this Board.

"All your money is all together in the world and, yes, you do know who they are. You may not know the individual families or the players, but that was a good point—in order to do anything you've got to know the players, the headline on your paper. [See the Front Page headline for the 4/5/94 issue of CONTACT, which states: "Knowing The Players Is Key To Toppling Evil Empire".] That was an excellent point.

"The Deutsche Bank is controlled by three of the same members who are on our Central Bank. And France, kiss off—I mean, they own France lock, stock & barrel. Spain is a like situation. And Brazil has got to be one of their finest pieces of work. They own that country literally. I mean, everything. I mean every single natural resource they own in Brazil. And you talk about gold: there are two mines there where they could conceivably pull in excess of 20 million ounces a year, out of both places! You just don't even know about it.

"There's a mine right now, here in Nevada, that's putting out 3.5 million ounces of gold. I mean, it's not far from this location, over by Elko," Jackson continues.

When queried about several sensitive subjects, Jackson replied, "I have to be careful. Like I told you before, some asshole from Harvard in a 3-piece suit wants to make a reputation. Well, if it ever comes to that, I don't care if I'm 105 years old—before he gets me, I'm going to get him. I did what I did because I believed in what I was doing."

When asked about William Casey (former Director of the CIA), Jackson was quick to reply. "Bill Casey is dead. He was one of my very best friends, and I get very touchy about Bill Casey. Bill Casey worked for The Committee just like I did. Just like Lyndon Johnson. We followed The Committee's orders. And Bill Casey and I used to sit and he'd say, 'Bob Woodward [Washington Post reporter of Watergate fame] has got to be one of the dumbest people I've ever seen. Two books, not one, but two books written on the CIA—and Bob Woodward thinks that everything is true.' And Casey'd come in there and sit down and he'd say, 'How can anybody be so gullible as Bob Woodward of THE WASHINGTON POST? Casey is dead, completely. I know there's been a lot of rumors, but he's not alive.'

"That's where I got the Alpha files, from him. I've still got the same case they came in. There's still the little Government identification marker on it, that they belong to the FBI," Jackson says.

"Do you know how many people's lives were ruined by Senator McCarthy and the McCarthy hearings?" Jackson queried. "He was being blackmailed by J. Edgar Hoover and it shows that in the file—and they were fun and games. Incidentally, Julian and Ethel Rosenberg, the whole goddamn thing was a fraud. There were many people who were guilty of much more serious espionage and spying crimes than those two people. They were chosen by J. Edgar Hoover to die. Now, where is our beautiful system of justice in our country?"

Almost as an aside, Jackson said, "You are giving those people [the CIA] much more credit than they deserve. They are nothing. When I say zero, zip! I mean they are nothing. Forget about James Bond and all that bullshit, because that is what it is; it's a movie. And the CIA is counter-intelligence."

When asked about his current legal case, Jackson replied, "The court has sold 610 copies of my lawsuit [see the "16th Amendment Court Ruling article on Page 28 in the 3/29/94 issue of CONTACT]; that's how many of them were sold at $80 each! I think it's great! I want everybody to read it!"

Concerning Jackson's ongoing legal action in Nevada, "The hearing for the permanent injunction was scheduled for Tuesday, and it didn't take place. I sent out 21 copies of the Declaratory Judgment and Restraining Order and not one of them landed. I have the original of both, or someone else does; but they're in my control," Jackson said. He continued, "You've got to remember one thing. Once you get the papers [Declaratory Judgment and Restraining Order] you're sticking your neck out, and I'm serious. Not just a little bit. This is not conjecture on my part. Most people are scared to death of those two orders. Everybody is scared of them and don't think that they don't know about them."

When asked to name one of the judges of the 3-judge panel from the 9th Circuit who allegedly issued the restraining order, Jackson quickly responded, "Stewart."

Jackson went on to explain that there have been discussions which would indicate the possibility of his release in the not-too-distant future.

In response to inquiries about his health, Jackson replied, "They've got most of the fluid out of my lungs. I wasn't drowning, I was suffocating. It was the opposite effect of pneumonia. It was just from smoking for years and years and not taking care of myself physically.

See, in here, I suppose I could exercise and so on; but I get lazy. I don't like contact with a lot of people. It's my own fault, but I'm feeling much better. I checked out every single drug before it was taken and knew what was wrong with me even before they knew. So, yesterday, they took an ultrasound of my heart and I could see where the damage is. But that's from a heart attack I had a long time ago." [Ronn commented yesterday that he had just received mail from his former prison. He was moved for medical reasons to another facility. In the mail were get-well cards from many CONTACT subscribers. Please know that those cards were very much appreciated.]

Well, it just so happened that during a trip to San Luis Obispo, California last weekend, this reporter coincidentally met two insiders in the Diablo Nuclear Facility. These two people, who shall remain nameless, were quite explicit in their remarks to CONTACT. One of the reactors is "down", which isn't too unusual. This occurs every 18 months or so while fuel is replaced within the reactors. The cost to Pacific Gas & Electric for "down-time" was stated at about $2 million per day. So far, the reactor has been closed down for 6 weeks. That wouldn't be so bad normally, except for the fact that the staff at the plant have been working 12-hour days, 6 days a week for 6 weeks, and yes, it's taking a toll. Insider comments indicated that drug usage is a natural and prevalent form of coping for many of the workers.

When speaking with Jackson about the Diablo power plant, he was quick to respond. "Diablo Canyon is a breeder reactor. You grow [nuclear weapons-making] plutonium in a breeder reactor. It was built that way.

"The owner of the Diablo Canyon property was the 5th or 6th generation family to receive the property under one of the original Spanish land grants. He was in a situation where, if he took cash, it would cost him. So, P G & E gave him a 6.5 million dollar line of credit. Christ, they extended him from 6.5 to 12 million dollars and then he filed bankruptcy. They didn't have any choice but to take the land. I mean, they bent over backwards with the guy.

"Diablo Canyon is a breeder reactor and it was put in that way. The Committee set this up a long time ago. The original price was 2.5 billion dollars, and it went to over 4 billion, and they still don't have it totally on-line. But the reason they don't have it on-line is because they're having a problem with the technology that was put in there. It was different technology than had ever been utilized before," Jackson revealed.

Well, needless to say, there is a lot of ground being covered here. More information is pouring in daily and we can only ask our readers to stay tuned. We are making every effort to present the information as it is being given to us. Confirmations are being made where possible. In other areas, well, it's very difficult indeed. It is obvious to all here that this story hasn't even begun.

Updates On Some Key People

PERSONAL UPDATES

Before we go further I would like to comment on some of our people for whom you have cared and with whom you have generously shared.

Gunther Russbacher. He is in Austria and receiving medical care. He is also unavailable to civilians. He is, however, being monitored and calls interrupted and screened by Naval Intelligence of the U.S. forces. This indicates, since he is, after all, an Officer in the U.S. Navy, that he is being tended.

Rayelan Russbacher. Her address in California remains the same but it is reported back that her phone has been disconnected. She was unable to meet last month's rather large bill but that was attended by a private party, so we have no further reports.

Rodney Stich. The "Trust Officers" holding his assets have arbitrarily cut off all funds to Rodney. He is in difficult times—but he does receive whatever is brought in through his books. Thank you for supporting him with book purchases [see Page 14].

Ronn Jackson. He sends appreciation for the loving correspondence and cards you readers have sent while he has been infirm. His health is improved. He keeps in close touch with Rick Martin at CONTACT so that we have updates. He believes he can arrange to get his freedom soon in order that he can hit the front-line battle for bringing you readers TRUTH—and—see what he can do to spearhead reclamation or revolvment into Constitutional Law for your nation. He has a healthy attitude about "me" but it will be fine as he will realize—quite shortly—that he knows me quite well.

His "former" employers are THE ones who wield the biggest sticks in the negative march ahead into disaster and away from Constitutional Government. However, they are interesting in that they are mostly just "against" the "other" teams now at battle over who gets to be the number-one TOP DOG. I hope you will continue to support and appreciate Ronn because he can do a tremendous and incredible job at making a difference in a lot of structuring of your nation.

Ray Renick. He is still very much incarcerated but it is worse for him now, physically. There is, however, legal help for him and it is hoped for some positive changes soon. He is being medicated into a stupor as it is "claimed" that he is being mentally evaluated and other snakepit lies. He has created the worst of all sins—he has nailed the JUSTICE system and especially (Justice) William Clark who is a VERY BIG FISH IN THE VERY BIG POND. He is a powerful man and responsible for incredible damage to your nation, illicit trafficking of all sorts of commodities and also is powerful in this new and totally corrupted JUDICIAL SYSTEM.

Gary Wean. Well, "they" already have stripped him of everything through the injustice system as with all other patriots who have efforted to bring you information. All assets have been confiscated through the system—but he continues to urge us to continue with input into the public domain.

John Doe. This person is not identified otherwise because of the urgently critical nature of his position. We will be hearing a lot more from him with some corrections to other author's work along with insights which have escaped others.

John Coleman. He continues to offer speeches here and there and radio interviews. He sticks mostly to the political matters but I hear he allows as how there is no substantial evidence to indicate there are E.T.s or UFOs. I find that more interesting than you would—since he has worked with me at great length in the past—but I do believe he, at one time, told the world that George Green was Hatonn. I find it amusing for it is that a lot of people get on ego trips and open their mouths and invariably find a foot in it—or a mouthful of very tough "crow". He expresses great appreciation to you readers for purchasing his books and we are happy that we can assist, for even though his information is a compilation of a lot of others' information, he has done a superb job of making it interesting and packed huge amounts of information within the book covers.

Russell Herman. There will be a letter of appreciation to you readers elsewhere within this paper [see next page]. Russell was, after all, able to be returned to his home. He was not "supposed" to make it through this last bout of "medical treatment"—but never underestimate the limits of God. These people whom you would identify as being with a "cosmos" something or other, are VALID, with a very valid gold certificate and have asked to be identified in the future as simply CSEML [Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd.] since there are so many "others" who have tried to get the name, the commodity and the corporation.

Michael Collin Piper (Final Judgment). Well, we have been joined by another author, in the person of Mr. Piper, who holds the "dubious honor" of having had his books BURNED. Our journals have been banned AND burned in Europe, Canada and the U.S. In fact, it is fully intended by the University of Science and Philosophy to burn 9 different titles of journals—still incarcerated by the Federal Court. So be it. Mr. Piper, however, made the interesting action of writing another book, Best Witness (Liberty Lobby). But, it is about the ADL and Historical Revisionism, etc. He is wondrously happy if we use it also—but my, my, do we have you readers about confused enough? We'll have to see as we are able to present more quantity of material. I do not like to simply summarize these books because it becomes like trying to "summarize" history. There is no way to do so and have historical accuracy in either substance or intent.

So, we are going to plug along here the best we can while hoping to integrate the pertinent information into topical subjects under discussion.

There is hope that we will soon have some booster help for the paper's financing. We don't hold our breath—but we do pray a lot. We will effort to keep to the major body of writing being left to Dharma's fingers in order to not BURY you readers. However, we hope to move into different sections of interest so that you have more in-depth information and a sharing column about the Gaia "stuff", spelt sharings, "fat burners" and other things which offer a lot of well-being for little effort. You need constant reminders about these items for if you ever err in considering them medicines or medical advisories, we would have to remove them from offering. There is one thing I consider WORSE than being entangled in the legal profession in ANY WAY AT ALL—and THAT IS any entanglement with the medical profession. BOTH are branches of the "control" machines, chemical manufacturers and Khazarian money-changers belonging to select PRIVATE CLUBS. Neither the Medical Association nor the Bar Association are what you think—they are private clubs who control all of medicine and the entire Judicial System.

NEW BLAST FROM API

There are others that are the focus of your multiple inquiries but we need to move on. Ekkers continue the daily legal battles and now the opposition has released another Associated Press article from Abbott and Luke Perry, et al., so the phones are busy with the nonsense of E.T.s and UFOs who steal your money.

It is sad because the main inquiries are so interesting and important and deal with happenings around this valley. You must understand, readers, that around Edwards Air Force Base, the local Northrop facility, the China Lake Naval Weapons facility, Palmdale, Lancaster and all over Nevada—the question is not "whether or not there are UFOs" but rather "what is going on with them and you?" There are so many underground bases and facilities as to cause readers to go back and read about them from our prior observations. [See MORE READING box below.]

The Associated Press article was so obviously a set-up by Green and buddies, however, that we will let them stew in their own juice as it is about the "gold". The article is libelous in itself, totally incorrect in ALL instances and quite silly and totally stupid. And, of course, the effort has been to run it in every locally-oriented paper. I believe "they" have gone a step too far this time—because the Associated Press becomes responsible for false, misleading and open lies regarding many parties. We use the terms Luke Perry and Abbott because the article quotes their input. I am beginning to feel a bit sorry for George Green because he uses this stupid and false information to back up his multitudes of mailings. It makes him look not only foolish but incriminates him. We all find it as interesting as probably would you that an Associated Press International article would find interest in a case being moved on calendar from one date to another??? Since, however, the young writer for the A.P. continues to publish these unresearched revelations—it would appear time to confront the gentleman, for the A.P. is going to be held responsible. I don't think there is an attorney (incredible as they are) who can much longer afford the lies being distributed internationally on such a regular basis.

MORE READING

The subject of Secret Underground Bases and facilities (and what diabolical shenanigans go on therein, courtesy of your tax dollars) is a fascinating if disgusting one which has been extensively covered in the past. You can find the information in PHOENIX JOURNALS #46 & #81 or in CONTACT for 5/11/93.

I suggest that all of you who want psychic fortune-telling from ancient astronauts, little E.T.s and-or information on the UFO "industry"—go to George Green and-or his UFO community buddies because we simply don't play in such silly prattle.

Mr. Green took a KNOWN $350,000 in gold coins belonging to an Institute. He not only took it but he carried it into Nevada and BURIED IT IN HIS BACKYARD. He was also working with others who diverted checks intended for the Constitutional Law Center into a Colorado Bank AFTER stamping the back and endorsing illegally. The Institute and the Constitutional Law Center are involved in suits with these parties—NOT Ekkers. Ekkers are involved because of the assaults ONLY. The books and the gold are associated with these other entities—which Mr. Green CLAIMED to have originated. There are a LOT of dead, stinking fish scattered all about and not just in the COURTHOUSE. (Mr. Wean, please forgive the pun.)

Then why do I even bring it up here? Because the "release" was sent to every paper, radio and TV station and the calls have flowed in to Ekkers for interviews, etc. It seems someone must have also given out personal phone numbers and told these people to call...!

We thank these ones for doing the favor for it allows a lot of setting to straight—FROM proper parties involved—not the Ekkers! Don't you-the-people ever get fed up with the sneaky, deceitful thieves and liars? Your world is crumbling down around your necks and this is the kind of garbage being noted! My own suggestion is to give appreciation for this kind of tactics because at some point even a corrupted, fixed-court system will be too embarrassed to simply rule AGAINST these entities.

Ekkers have already lost everything and the other corporations in point have no "damages" to pay—so it begins to be shown up for that which it IS and the comedy gets thicker and deeper.

It is nice that the enemy continues to shoot off their own toes and fingers and offers up ammunition for use against themselves. IT WILL NOT ALWAYS BE THAT THIS SYSTEM WILL BE ALLOWED TO DESTROY AT RANDOM! One day enough of you will rise up and clean out the treasonists and it will be a far better world—which will be allowed to grow within the "laws" as intended. We find it interesting that Mr. Perry is still trying to get his Mother's retirement "trust" funds for himself. HE NOR HIS FAMILY HAVE ANY INVESTMENT, INVOLVEMENT OR ANYTHING GOING WITH ANY PARTIES NAMED OR INVOLVED! So, you who get the AP releases—I ask that you send copies to the CONTACT. Thank you. We like to ask that both sides of such issues be PUBLISHED.

Editor's note: To better appreciate this letter, refer back to the "Russell Herman" paragraph in the second column of Page 23.

Dear Rick, Comander and all others who "participated in prayer for the survival and recovery of Russell Herman;

May God Bless all of you who have consistantly kept your prayer rings going for Russell Herman all these many months, your prayers have been answered and Russell Herman; against all odds; will be coming home this next week.

The odds against him coming home were 99.01% as he was too weak to fight the "unauthorized invasive procedures of radiation" and other unauthorized treatments suffered while in the Hospital in Missouri, whereupon he contracted Phneumonia which greatly complicated the existing health difficulties.

We have been told; "Over 60,000 Prayer Rings accross the nation have been ongoing in Russell Herman's behalf! Your prayers have been answered, and GOD BLESS EACH AND EVERY ONE FOR YOUR PRAYERS.

Also; our thanks go to the "Comander" for his assistance in a request to use his powers which he complied with, and it worked. Thank you Comander for your conscientious acts in and on the behalf of Russell Herman.

From the bottom of our Hearts; we thank you, and pray that God keeps you well and safe in order the objectives be obtained.

God Bless each and all of you for your prayers for Russell Herman; as the prayers have worked.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

THE DEATH OF CAMELOT

by Ronn Jackson

4/22/94 #1 HATONN

Now for you patient waiters for the next episode of "Camelot", here we go. I will offer here that there is someone else who is taking the material and will publish the book(s), thus saving Dharma hours and hours of time in efforting to write the script in such a way as to be partially press ready. This way we can simply type it in and not concern with structure. When Ronn is "out" and the material ready, we will see to it that you have access immediately. [Part 5 was presented in the 4/12/94 CONTACT, starting on p. 38.]

THE DEATH OF CAMELOT, Part 6
by Ronn Jackson (060220)

[QUOTING:]

"Is that all of the agreement?"

"No, that is just the beginning. When I appear before the Grand Jury I'm naming names, events, occurrences, dates and I'm producing irrefutable evidence of a conspiracy that started about seventy years ago, in this country, and exists today. This is affecting each and every one of us. By 'us' I mean all people."

She had stopped writing and was looking at me. It wasn't too difficult to imagine what she was thinking and I said, "No I'm not mad, in the sense of being insane; at least I don't think I am." I quickly added, "I'm doing what I should have done a long time ago. I am going to do it my way, on my terms, on my time, and I am going to carry it through to its conclusion and may the Higher Authority, if He exists [H: HE DOES!], have mercy on anyone's soul, that gets in my way."

"Why all the secrecy?"

"Because I am bringing one of the minor players of part of the conspiracy to the Grand Jury with me."

"Can I ask who?"

"At this time I will only say that he is a leader of another country, who is a 'blow-hard', runs drugs, guns and lays away his own people. He is personally responsible for many, many lives or, rather, I should say, the taking of those lives, and was part and parcel in the assassination of John F. Kennedy."

"There were rumors."

"But never substantiated," I replied.

"How can you do what you say by yourself?"

"I can't. I have several people who are going to assist me and I will also have the cooperation of the military when it is needed."

"An invasion?"

"No, no—just, shall we say, a little technical support and grunt work."

Sometimes I'm given instructions to do tasks that are not normally within the range and scope of what I have described. As example, I was ordered to Malta and my information folder contained the specifications on a certain catamaran. I was to observe the schedules on the service between Malta and Libya. This catamaran service had been started because of the loss of flights out of Libya. Something to do with the embargo that the United States (I could have said United Nations, but the embargo was at the insistence of the U.S.) had put in place.

For a week I played the part of a tourist. I took pictures around the boat as well as from every angle of the unloading zone. I recorded schedules and numbers of arriving passengers and freight, both coming in and going out. I wasn't sure what I was supposed to be doing and on the eighth day of my stay there appeared a difference. The vessel was low in the water, some several inches more than it was when it came in loaded. I went back to my hotel and pulled out the drawing of the boat. The scale of my drawing was one inch to a foot and I realized the craft was much larger than I had at first thought in examining the prints. The weight was given and the water-line was shown on the pontoons. Empty, the water-line was well below the water—as it now set. So, some weight had been added someplace and, based on the prints, it was quite substantial.

I looked at the detail on the pontoons and they were large enough to hold something pretty big. But what? Drugs? Arms? Explosives? It could be any number of items or a combination of many. I wasn't, however, there to guess.

My instructions said nothing of going to Libya. Americans weren't welcome there and I wasn't really comfortable in Malta. There was too much activity around the unloading zone for me to take a swim and the only people I knew were the hotel personnel and a few bartenders and waitresses. They wouldn't know what I needed to know. The number of people boarding the vessel from this side was limited and, in observing the treatment of the passengers, I wasn't too interested in getting involved in that.

The schedule I had made showed the unit was to leave the following morning. I intended to do whatever I could and had no idea of what that was supposed to be. It was my guess that something was "inside" those pontoons. I wasn't sure what it was or what I was expected to do about it. I re-read my instructions and there was nothing about what I was there for.

So, I put on my tourist shirt and sunglasses and hung my camera around my neck. I went back to the loading area....

Through the use of sign language and a lot of pointing I was able to get myself aboard the craft. The unit was constructed so that you could see the tops of the flotation units from the inside and on the dome of them there appeared to be some kind of "doors". I walked off the distance of the doors and mentally calculated that they were some thirty or so feet. I guessed the other measurement at about three-and-a-half to four feet. No wonder the thing was sitting so deep in the water—because if there was one of whatever would go through the door and fill the area, in each side, there could be several tons of something in the thing.

Back at the hotel again, I made a few figures on paper in preparation for a phone call. I then called and made a report in detail regarding all of my observations. I was told to "relax for a day and call back." His (my employer's) response was at the least, puzzling—but, he was the boss. I thought to myself that the mission must not be as important as I had presumed.

I walked through several stores to fill time and since I had had no need to rent a car, as I had no place to go, I made my way, finally, back to the hotel. I had dinner and met a couple from England. We drank for a while and I decided it was time for me to "call it quits". I was bored and wasn't really interested in going out anywhere. Therefore I returned to my room and showered. I then turned on the TV and couldn't find a station which came through in English so went directly to bed.

I had just dozed off when the phone rang. It was my employer. He said my job was done. I asked him exactly what had been my job? He just laughed it off and asked if I was coming back to the States right way? I told him that I planned on stopping off in Madrid and then going to my place in Austria by way of Geneva. He said for me to pick up my package in Switzerland. His parting words were to make sure of the "pontoon" launching for Libya and to have a good time.

In Madrid I hit a few places I knew and ran into an old acquaintance of mine. This was a lady from Virginia and she was with the Diplomatic Corps. We went to several more places and sometime about three in the morning I was really beginning to drag. I found that when I was inactive I didn't have the stamina that I always had when I was working. She noticed and invited me to her place. We compromised by stopping at her place and then going on back to mine.

I awakened at four in the afternoon. She was gone. There was a note printed in lipstick on the bathroom mirror. It seemed I would have a couple of hours to get the cobwebs out of my head.

The following day I was on an L-1011. Geneva was clear as we landed. The mountains were covered with snow and I was looking forward to a few days of skiing. The helicopter ride to Innsbruck missed the high overcast and we set down after making very good time.

After clearing customs I walked to the area for private parking. I cleared the snow off my trusty Suburban, but when I tried to start it, the battery was dead. After an airport security officer gave me a battery jump, I drove on into town. My own place was rented-out and I told the agent not to be concerned and that I would just get a room. I was getting two thousand dollars a week from skiers who rented my place. Besides that, I just didn't want to cook or make beds.

I love that town and its friendly people. The square, you know, the one that you always see on the travel brochures, was one of the most beautiful sights in Europe. One day I planned to retire and I had decided it would be right there.

My first stop, as usual, was the "watering hole". I liked this place because no matter what time I went in or no matter how long I had been away, a drink would always be waiting for me. It was not that I was so anxious to get a drink; it was that the people were like that all the time—totally thoughtful. They knew me by name and they were my friends. The waiter had grown up with the place and the town and there was seemingly no request which was beyond his capabilities to fill. He had reserved a suite for me before I finished my first drink. Since business was a bit slow at the time, he walked over and joined me. He knew about just about everything going on around the town and that was a lot. There were some thirty to forty thousand extra people in the town during the ski season.

He pointed to a table by a window where four young men were seated. They were the ones staying at my place. We continued to visit as he had a free minute and joined me for a drink. He told me that he owned the place now and I congratulated him. I asked why, then, was he waiting tables? He said nothing had changed: his wife was the "brains" and he had served too long to change jobs, as he liked to stay right near his customers.

He brought me the prior day's Wall Street Journal as he turned to his work of seating two couples that had entered. I had been comfortable until I started reading the paper. On Page One was a story about Scud Missiles and the problems the Government was supposed to be having with other countries getting them. That struck a chord with me. I got up and walked over to the bar and picked up a phone which I took back to the table and plugged it into the jack behind me. I called a contact of mine and asked him to get the dimensions on that particular piece of equipment. I waited for him to get back to me. When he called back he was, of course, curious. I told him I was pretty sure that I knew where a couple of the Scuds were. He told me to just forget that he had asked anything. He gave me the dimensions and was off the line—hey, I was just playing a hunch.

I sat for a minute and wondered if I should call my employer and report my suspicions. I decided against it. I remembered the envelope in my pocket that I had picked up in Geneva and had forgotten. I pulled it out to check it over and found the standard amount enclosed within a rubber-band which also had a note tucked inside. I pulled out the note and read it. It said, "They are ours." Now he was into reading my mind. (060220)

CALIFORNIA SOVEREIGNTY

From a Press Release: On April 14, California State Senator Don Rogers (R-17th Sen. District), announced the introduction of a resolution declaring that California claims sovereignty under the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. Senate Joint Resolution 44 has 21 Senate coauthors and 41 Assembly coauthors.

CRIMINAL JUDGES

In an article appearing in the April 20 edition of the DAILY NEWS, written by William Carlsen and Harriet Chiang of the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, "California is handing down minimal punishment to judges who have committed acts of professional misconduct, employing a highly confidential system of discipline that shields the judges and the system itself from public accountability."

"In a three-month investigation, the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE found that judges who have engaged in repeated acts of misconduct and breaches of ethics codes—from violations of the constitutional rights of defendants to taking gifts from lawyers and litigants—often have been punished privately with simple admonishments or letters of warning.

"Most judges defend the state Commission on Judicial Performance, saying the agency's strong discipline serves as an effective deterrent to corruption and misconduct. But a growing group of critics says that when serious charges of misconduct do arise—several dozen times a year among the state's 1,500 judges—the commission often is much too lenient.

"Its name should be changed to the 'Commission for Judicial Protection,' said Stephen Barnett, a professor at the University of California's Boalt Hall Law School.

"Because the nine commissioners do most of their work in private, it is difficult in most cases for outside analysts to evaluate the penalties imposed.

"But each year, the commission publishes an annual summary that provides a general sketch of cases in which it took disciplinary action.

"In a review of those summaries, the CHRONICLE found that the panel has not voted to publicly censure or remove a single judge since 1988—a sharp contrast to the previous nine years, when 19 judges were censured or removed from office. The total since 1980 has been less than half the national average."

ATTITUDE ADJUSTMENT

THE ELECTRONIC BELT

The electronic belt, called Remote Electronic Activated Control Technology, is a belt designed to incapacitate prisoners causing disturbances or trying to escape. The 50,000-volt belt consists of a thick black belt and a battery pouch, which rests against the suspect's lower back.

The pouch contains two battery packs:

- Receives message from a remote-control activator.
- Generates the electric current.

The belt: A four-inch wide strip of thick, black stretch fabric that wraps around the suspect's waist and attaches with Velcro patches.

Activation: A 50,000-volt current flows through the metal discs, rushing through the back muscles so the suspect loses control of them and is incapacitated.

A metal lock fastened to holes at the bottom of the fabric locks the belt in place.

RUSSIA'S TINY NEUTRON BOMB

In an article from the April 13 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, LONDON—"Russian scientists have designed a miniature nuclear bomb the size of a baseball, British television researchers said Tuesday.

"The small 'clean' neutron bombs are not made from 'dirty' plutonium and so are not covered by nuclear treaties.

"Independent Channel Four in a program to be broadcast today shows how Russian scientists have used a compound called red mercury to make neutron weapons that kill people but leave buildings and machinery intact.

"It said the development of radioactive red mercury was an extraordinary scientific breakthrough that has eluded American researchers for 40 years while the small size of the bombs poses a serious threat from terrorist attacks."

CHERNOBYL

In an article from the April 10 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, KIEV, UKRAINE—"The Ukrainian government has agreed to look for other energy sources so it can shut down the Chernobyl nuclear power plant...

"Ukrainian officials agreed to work toward closing the two remaining reactors at Chernobyl as soon as possible...

“Although crippled by the 1986 disaster and a fire in 1991, Chernobyl still supplies Ukraine with 7 percent of its energy.

“Ukrainian officials assured him [U.S. Deputy Energy Secretary William White] the plant will be shut ‘as soon as Ukraine’s energy system is in balance.’

“Just when that might be was unclear. Ukrainian officials had said Chernobyl would be shut down when a more modern, four-reactor plant comes on line in 1998. But they also have said they don’t have the $34 million needed to finish the new plant.”

SPACE STATION

In an article from the April 14 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, written by Sean Holton, “Will American taxpayers spend $28.1 billion to build a space station that Russians could end up controlling?

“Consequently, will something like ‘Roger, Kaliningrad’ replace the familiar ‘Roger, Houston’ as the signature utterance of orbiting U.S. astronauts?

“Believe it or not, those once-unthinkable questions were at issue Wednesday as NASA’s top brass made their latest pitch for the proposed station to increasingly skeptical lawmakers on Capitol Hill.

“NASA assured the House space subcommittee that the agency would never cede control of the station to Russian ground commanders.”

KAREN SILKWOOD

In another article from the same paper, “Almost 20 years have passed since plutonium plant whistle-blower Karen Silkwood died in a car crash on an Oklahoma highway, but her father still can’t put her mysterious death behind him.

“Even if Bill Silkwood wanted to let go, events won’t let him.

“He learned recently that Los Alamos National Laboratory in New Mexico has several bone fragments left behind from the testing done on the body of his 28-year-old daughter, who thought she had been contaminated with radioactive plutonium.

“The lab wanted to know what the family wished to do with the remains. Silkwood is furious that the lab still has them.

“‘I don’t want them to have it,’ Silkwood said. ‘I want it all...It’s the remains of what they did to her.’

“Karen Silkwood, a union activist and a lab-analyst for Kerr-McGee Corp. at its plutonium processing plant near Crescent, Okla., died Nov. 13, 1974, while driving to meet a reporter for THE NEW YORK TIMES.

“She had promised to bring evidence to the reporter to prove the plant was unsafe. However, no documents were found in the wrecked car.

“Her story later became the movie SILKWOOD, starring Meryl Streep and Cher.

“Silkwood, 69, still is convinced that someone killed his daughter, and he has a standing $10,000 reward offer for information leading to an arrest and conviction in the case.

“As for the Los Alamos lab, site of government nuclear research since World War II, Silkwood is seeking legal advice before he crafts a response about the remaining bones. He also wants 113 vials of tissue samples from his daughter that he believes the lab still has.

“Karen Silkwood was buried in the east

Texas town of Kilgore after an autopsy was performed in Oklahoma.

“Some of her organs, including her brain, were removed and sent to the Los Alamos lab for additional testing.

“Lab officials insist they did so with the family’s permission, but Silkwood disagrees.

“‘They’re liars. We only gave them per mission to do an autopsy [in Oklahoma]. That had nothing to do with stripping her body organs out’ and taking them to Los Alamos, he said.”

PAKISTAN NUCLEAR DEAL

In an article appearing in the April 6 edition of THE (LONDON) FINANCIAL TIMES, written by Stefan Wagstyl, “Mr. Strobe Talbott, U.S. deputy secretary of state, is due today to start a three-day mission to India and Pakistan aimed mainly at promoting regional nuclear non-proliferation.

“Mr. Talbott, the most senior Clinton Administration official to visit south Asia, will be seeking to persuade Pakistan to accept a controversial offer from Washington of 38 F-16 fighters in return for a ‘verifiable cap’ on its nuclear weapons program.

“Mr. Talbott will also try to convince Indian officials to drop opposition to the deal, arguing that the threat to India posed by the new jets would be more than outweighed by the benefits of a cap on Pakistan’s nuclear program.

“Mr. Talbott intends to offer India as yet unspecified incentives to cap its own nuclear weapons program.

“Meanwhile, India insists nuclear non-proliferation is a global rather than a bilateral issue with Pakistan.”

FRIENDLY SKYS BUGGED

In an article from the April 14 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, OTTAWA—“Multi-national executives flying abroad, beware—your business-class seat could be bugged and the stewardess an undercover agent prying into your company’s secrets.

“The Canadian Security Intelligence Service, or CSIS, said in a report this week that more than two dozen countries are engaging in economic spying, and Canadian interests have been affected even by governments considered ‘friendly’.

“An internal CSIS document said Canadian business executives were warned in 1992 not to fly AIR FRANCE after it discovered the French intelligence service was bugging airline seats and using undercover agents to pose as flight attendants.

“A CSIS spokesman denied, however, that the agency, which is charged with safeguarding national security, had warned business executives and would not say who had issued the warning.

“The CSIS said China and Russia continue to operate spy networks in Canada, and their focus has increasingly become the search for commercial rather than military secrets.

“Spies are not only looking for advanced technology but also seemingly mundane information on efficient plant layouts, client lists or bids, the agency said.

“The Canadian intelligence service says it thinks Asian countries are the most actively engaged in economic espionage today, followed by Western European nations.”

VIOLENCE IN WORKPLACE

In an article from the March/April edition of SECURITY NEWS, “A recently published report, titled, Fear and Violence in the Workplace revealed over two million Americans came under a physical attack at their workplace during the past year, and the figures are expected to rise for 1994. In addition to those statistics another six million workers were verbally threatened and sixteen million were harassed during working hours.

“Workplace violence may be defined in four categories:

- * Employer-directed violence: An employee engages in violence against an employer, manager, or supervisor.
- * Domestic-related violence: A romantically disaffected partner or would-be partner strikes out against the object of his or her affections.
- * Property-directed violence: These are employee acts against employers designed to damage the company property.
- * Commercial-directed violence: An employee perpetrates events, including theft of money or property that also involves violence.

“The most dramatically increasing type of workplace violence is employer-directed violence.”

DALAI LAMA

In an article appearing in the April 6 edition of THE OBSERVER, “Several orthodox Jews jeered the Dalai Lama during a visit to the Wailing Wall last week, calling the Tibetan spiritual leader stupid and crazy.

"'You look like an intelligent man, but you're stupid, fleeing from reality,' shouted one worshiper as Tibetan and Israeli security guards hustled the Nobel laureate away.

"A second man, white-bearded and shrouded in a prayer shawl, yelled 'Screwball, political maniac' at the robed Buddhist, who looked puzzled at the outburst at Judaism's holiest shrine.

"The Dalai Lama, the exiled spiritual leader of Tibetan Buddhists, offered prayers at the Wailing Wall. He is on a five-day visit, he said Sunday that he hoped to promote religious harmony in the holy land."

THE NEW GASES

Clear Out: a combination of tear and pepper gas. The can acts much like a home fogger used to kill roaches or fleas, releasing its gas into the air. The chemicals induce nausea, vomiting, watery eyes and chest tightness within 30 seconds of contact.

Talc grenade: a can of fine powdery tear gas. The can is aimed above a crowd when the mist is released into the air. The chemical, which lingers in the wind before settling, causes the skin to itch. A residue remains until the chemical is washed off.

Triple chase: a tear gas grenade. The canister breaks into three pieces when set off on the ground and releases tear gas. It reaches temperatures of 1,800 degrees and melts when set off, preventing people from handling the canister.

Cigarette chemicals

The eight chemicals among cigarette additives most questioned by tobacco opponents:

■ Ammonia: a processing aid. FDA considers certain forms of ammonia safe in foods but couldn't comment on the type in cigarettes.

■ Dehydromenthofuroolactone: a flavoring tobacco companies say is found in peppermint and considered safe by the food industry. FDA couldn't confirm that.

■ Ethyl furoate: found naturally in coffee, kiwi and peanuts. FDA hasn't formally ruled on the issue but said the food industry considers it safe. But a toxicologist last week said the chemical can cause liver damage in laboratory animals.

■ Megastigmatrienone: a flavoring tobacco companies contend is found naturally in grapefruit juice and considered safe by the food industry. FDA couldn't confirm that.

■ Maltitol: a sweetener used in chewing gum and diabetic candy. The food industry considers it safe, but FDA hasn't ruled on a petition questioning the safety.

■ Methoprene: an insecticide that toxicologists say is biodegradable and works by stopping insects from growing to adulthood. Tobacco companies say FDA allows it in dried fruits, but FDA couldn't confirm that.

■ Sclareolide: a synthetic form of a naturally occurring tobacco element. The food industry considers it safe.

■ Tobacco extract: used to boost flavor of reconstituted tobacco; companies say it does contain a small amount of nicotine.

CHEROKEE CITY

In an article appearing in the April 29 edition of THE HARLAN (KY), written by Reese Cleghorn, CALHOUN, GA—"Ruins of Echota, long lost capital of the Cherokee nation may soon emerge from a cotton field. Dr. Henry Malone of the University of Georgia says the lost city is believed to represent a high civilization comparable to those of the Incas and Mayas.

"Malone will lead archaeologists to a site revealed by strange lines traced on an air-survey picture.

"After long study of Cherokee records, he said, 'These were not people of teepees.' New Echota was one of the last sanctuaries of a free and independent Indian tribe within the United States. The Cherokees had a Republican form of government, published a newspaper and levied taxes.

"Although New Echota was built about 1825, no one knows just where it was.

"In the 1700s when frontiersmen were spilling over the mountains, the Cherokees fought them. During the Revolution the Indians sided with the British.

"Afterward the angry Americans pushed them back into the mountainous corners of northwest Georgia, northeast Alabama, east Tennessee, and western North Carolina.

"There they lived peacefully for several years, advancing in culture and commerce. Then, about 1817, they refused to make any more land concessions to the white men.

"Between that time and 1835, when they were driven to the West, the Cherokees developed remarkably.

"New Echota became the center of their nation. There their bicameral legislature assembled and their supreme court judged cases appealed from the tribal circuit courts.

"Their newspaper, the CHEROKEE PHOENIX, published in the 86 characters of the Cherokee language circulated through the Piedmont."

Inquisitive as children, two wee sandpipers flew near.

Perhaps within their tiny hearts there was a little fear.

They thought the place a haven for free and air-borne things, When here came I... a creature without a pair of wings!

They dropped upon a rocky ledge and looked me in the eye, Then turning heads from side to side, they soon flew nearer by. What wingless monster can this be from out the briny deep?

At least that's what they seemed to say with just one plaintive peep.

Are your pinions bruised and broken and so you cannot fly? Or are you just too clumsy to stretch them out and try?

They could have saved their sympathy for other friends than I, For my heart was winging heavenward, although I couldn't fly.

What's In A Brand-Name Cigarette?

How About Opium In The Paper!

Editor's note: No doubt you've heard all the "smoke" and "fire" recently generated in the media over the "burning" issue of cigarettes.

The really big deal has been that oh-so-mysterious Secret List of proprietary ingredients, snippets of which have finally been leaked—such as we present in this week's "THE NEWS DESK" on Page 28.

We can only surmise that the entire list must be a real doozy, as far as a roster of choice poisons calculated to "heighten" the smoker's "enjoyment" of the product—to use that sleazy promotional legalese spouted by the tobacco industry spokesrobots at the recent pageant of Congressional hearings.

From a scientific point of view, it has been particularly amusing to watch how the media has soft-pedaled the issue of combustion byproducts—the chemicals produced by the burning process itself. And the way of cigarette burning, as you "take a drag" on that smoldering stick, is mostly what is called Incomplete Burning. This is like putting a lid on your outdoor grill to starve the charcoal or gas flame, and right off the bat produces carbon monoxide! Thus the smoker's "inhaled pleasures", sucked directly into the lungs are, bluntly, a nightmarish array of highly toxic and poorly understood gaseous chemical fragments, most of which result from those "oh-so-innocent" (tobacco industry legalese, again) additive ingredients.

But—what about THE PAPER in which those name-brand cigarettes are rolled? You haven't seen ANYONE—for all the media hounds chasing this matter with their clever undercover tieclip cameras and supersecret informants—even BEGIN TO DARE to mention this crowning trick of that "oh-so-innocent" (hear the violins in the background?) tobacco industry.

Well, long-time readers of the CONTACT, and on back to CONTACT's predecessor, THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, will probably still remember the following exceptionally well researched writing, which was anonymously penned by "one" who would be very familiar to our readers under other circumstances.

The following is reprinted from Pages 13-15 of the 1/14/92 issue of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR—over TWO YEARS AGO now! We share it again here, both for the reaction of surprise it will no doubt elicit from our newer readers and, of course, as a critical refresher for all of our readers about an important missing "ingredient" in this hot topic.

Between just this and the human-guinea pig radiation experiments of the '50s and early '60s that have recently come to the public's attention, it's a wonder any of us are still alive to annoy the soul-less, satanic Elite-New World Order controllers who are behind all of these shenanigans. But here we are—thanks to God's help and some anti-oxidant vitamins...oh yeh, the systematic confiscation of vitamins...but that's a whole 'nother story for some other day!

A. N. OTHER 12/31/91

The United States Government and the tobacco industry are playing a dangerous game with your health when it comes to warnings about cigarette smoking. If you are a smoker, you have quite literally been deceived into believing that the tar in nicotine is the main ingredient that makes smoking a habit-forming health hazard: "The Surgeon General Has Determined That Smoking Is Hazardous To Your Health." That warning label is deemed sufficient to protect you from the dangers of smoking.

As a smoker you have been led to believe that addiction to nicotine and danger from the tar it produces is your only problem. If this is what you believe, then read on. Your life may depend on it. Cigarettes are not just tobacco rolled up in fancy thin papers with brand names stenciled on them. Indeed, the secret of addiction to tobacco-smoking may lie in the paper itself. A doctor friend of mine who has done a lot of research on smoking told me, when I began this investigation, that he was once invited to visit a cigarette paper-making factory in the course of his research work. Before being shown around the plant, he had to don a coverall made of a paper-like substance, which covered him from head to foot.

He was shown various stages of manufacture including a sealed room which his guide said was a paper impregnation plant. My doctor friend was informed that in this building the paper was impregnated with a substance to ensure even, slow burning without the taste of burning paper. Later, when he got home (he kept the coverall as a souvenir), he had the fine dust on it analyzed and when the lab results came back, lo and behold, the dust contained traces of opium.

The doctor is thus under the firm impression that paper used for cigarette manufacture is first impregnated with OPIUM. It is the opium that causes addiction to smoking. Even in small quantities, opium is extremely addictive. In his opinion, based upon research on nicotine, he found that it is not nicotine alone that makes a tobacco addict, but rather, it is the opium used to impregnate the paper, plus the nicotine, that is the root cause of addiction to smoking.

My doctor friend is a smoker himself, and in order to prove his point, he changed to rolling his own cigarettes. Kits to roll cigarettes can be bought in smokers' speciality shops, and consist of a supply of thin paper (apparently no different from the usual cigarette paper), tobacco, plus a device that rolls the paper around the tobacco.

After trying several brands of loose tobacco and rolling his own cigarettes for three weeks, his craving was not relieved. Rather, it became worse. Finally, after three weeks of home-rolled cigarettes, he went back to his favorite brand of manufactured cigarette. "The relief was instant, the satisfaction gratifying," he told me. As a result of his experiment, the doctor is more than ever convinced that addiction to smoking does not come from tobacco alone, but from the PAPER used by cigarette companies, no matter what brand of tobacco is used.

Do you believe this is far-fetched? Well, if you do, that is exactly what the Government and the tobacco industry want you to believe. You might wish to reconsider the matter after you take into account the following information. If you have any lingering doubts thereafter, then I urge you to write to the Department of Health and Human Services and ask them about it.

You might not get a response from the Government, but you will be certain to attract the attention of Stanley Temko, a lawyer at Covington and Burling, legal guardians of the tobacco industry. If that causes concern, then you might try Senator Jesse Helms, so filled with rectitude when it comes to Manuel Noriega (accused, but far from proven guilty, of being a cocaine smuggler). Helms represents North Carolina, the premier tobacco-growing state in the nation.

On second thought, Senator Helms might not be inclined to enlighten you, so you might then try the Office on Smoking and Health, a Government watchdog agency which is supposed to have our health and welfare at heart. Dr. Ronald Davis, who resigned from the agency earlier this year, is on record as stating: "I think the consumers have a right to know what is in tobacco products, but I'm not allowed, under law, to release this information to the public."

The Office on Smoking and Health and the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) are the keepers of the keys to the top-secret lists of what ingredients go into making your favorite brand of cigarette, the additives that give tobacco its "flavor", keep it soft, and give it that special aroma. If you thought "taste" was just an advertising gimmick, you would be wrong. "Taste" is very important to tobacco addicts, which is why cigarette manufacturers go to such lengths to create it.

Before doing any writing, or phoning your Senator, the tobacco companies or HHS, you might want to reflect upon the wisdom of arousing the watchdog. "Let sleeping dogs lie" may be preferred to "kicking a sleeping dog". You see, the list of ingredients that go into cigarettes is TOP SECRET. Yes, that is right, TOP SECRET. Government doesn't like people nosing around top secret documents, and the tobacco industry is paranoid about secrecy. They might decide to take a note of your name for future reference.

The tobacco industry does not want smokers to know that, apart from tobacco, he or she is inhaling acetone, methyl salicylate, turpentine, glycyrrhizic acid, caramel, shellac, catechol, acetaldehyde, amino acids. What are the effects of these substances on the body when heated, i.e., at that magic moment when you first light up and deeply inhale?

Take caramel, added to give flavor—which smokers believe comes from their favorite tobacco mix. When the burning end of a cigarette heats the caramel—or any other of the many types of sugar used in the manufacture of cigarettes—it produces catechol which, when combined with some of the other additives, strengthens their carcinogenic properties.

This is called a Synergistic Reaction. In tests on laboratory rats using a number of vitamins, scientists Ken Anderson, R. T. Bartus, C. E. Girgea, Kaufman and several others found that by combining vitamins with other substances, a synergistic reaction was observed. What this means, for instance, is that rats on choline didn't show that much improvement, but when combined with piracetam, the resulting improvement was dramatic. Reverse synergistic effects happen when caramel is burned with other additives in cigarettes, thus strengthening their carcinogenic properties.

Do you like licorice? Most kids do, but smokers would not be amused if you told them they were smoking it in the additive licorice root—glycyrrhizic acid—used to flavor and keep tobacco moist, which the American Health Foundation says gives off polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons when burned—and that means smokers are inhaling a known cancer-causing substance along with their aroma-filled tobacco smoke.

How about amino acids? Now, most everybody knows that amino acids are what DNA is all about—and don't health food stores sell amino acids, so what is so bad about it? The trick is not to heat amino acids, nor combine them with other substances that might give a synergistic effect. Once heated, amino acids give off suspected carcinogens, says the American Health Institute.

You can't smoke without applying heat; I mean, where there is tobacco there has got to be heat, and where there is heat there has to be smoke, and where there is tobacco smoke there are carcinogens. So now you know: cigarettes consist of a good deal more than just blended tobacco rolled in paper, even though the outside package of your favorite brand doesn't list any additives.

Your Virginia Slims, Marlboros, Winstons, Camels, Kools, or any other brand you favor, contain, in varying degrees, a number of chemicals, plant extracts and other substances which tests in France proved can amount to as much as 8 percent of the content of what you enjoy so much when you inhale that smoke. Do not be deceived by the printed information on that attractive packaging, "Ingredients: Selected Fine Tobaccos".

Like Mrs. Nancy Reagan's non-solution to the drug addiction problem washing like a tidal wave over this nation, "just say no," or applying a PARTIAL warning label to a package of cigarettes, isn't going to solve the problem. In any case every smoker thinks smoking-induced cancer is strictly for the other fellow.

The warning label cigarette packages carry is meaningless and will remain so until the SECRET ADDITIVES in the tobacco are printed on the label alongside what they are capable of doing to your health. It is time that the FDA enforced its own rules but, given the huge amounts of money spread around Washington by powerful tobacco industry lobbyists, this is still a long way off.

Since the FDA requires strict labeling of ingredients used in ALL foodstuffs, why then is the tobacco industry exempted from these requirements? Not that tobacco is a foodstuff. But if it is compulsory to properly label household detergents and to tell the public what is inside a bottle of apple jelly or peanut butter or ketchup, why conceal the deadly poison that is added to an already dangerous substance called nicotine? How about cigarette paper? Is it impregnated with opium or not? Why aren't consumers told what, if anything, goes into the making of the paper?

Here is something you ought to know about nicotine: It causes flushing, a sense of warmth, heart palpitations, nausea (especially in first-time smokers), dyspepsia, muscle cramps, blurred vision, a lowered blood pressure when rising from a sitting position and is suspected of causing deformities in unborn babies if the mothers smoke during pregnancy.

In the 1960s, when the truth about tar in nicotine was brought out and stories about lung cancer caused by tobacco swept the land, the tobacco industry went into a state of panic which resulted in the production of "low in tar" brands to offset dramatic losses in sales. These so-called "light" brands were to help assuage the guilty feeling among those who could not bring themselves to kick the smoking habit, even knowing what they were doing to their bodies.

"Light" cigarettes consisted of lighter blends of tobacco, plus filters which were so dense that smokers could no longer get the all-important "taste" of their cigarettes. "Safe" cigarettes became "tasteless" cigarettes. The tobacco industry's solution to tasteless cigarettes was to use more and more additives of the kinds already enumerated so that "taste" and "flavor" were restored.

But unbeknown to the fans of "light" cigarettes, the cigarette they believed was lighter and safer was now more deadly than the regular type, because of the heavy dosage of secret ingredients it took to restore what smokers wanted most, taste and flavor.

Do our government agencies know about this? Yes, they do. So why don't those agencies responsible for protecting our national health do something about the menace? They did, or thought they had done something with passage of a 1984 law which called upon manufacturers of cigarettes to list "health risks associated with smoking cigarettes containing any substances commonly added to commercially manufactured cigarettes".

That was in 1984; yet in spite of urgent appeals to the cigarette industry to come clean, by 1991 they have still not done so. In 1984 a Surgeon General's report said that data about additives was impossible to obtain, "because cigarette companies are not required by law to reveal what additives they use in each and every brand of cigarettes they manufacture." What the Surgeon General wanted was a meaningful list of additives that could be related to amounts contained in each cigarette.

Succumbing somewhat to public pressure arising from these disclosures, Congress reluctantly passed a law later that year (1984) which mandated that cigarette manufacturers provide HHS each year with a list of additives used in cigarette manufacturing. However, the tobacco industry was successful in subverting that law. Congress sold out to the tobacco industry—it is called "reaching a compromise".

Instead of each and every cigarette manufacturer being compelled to give a complete listing of specific additives and amounts going into each and every brand of cigarette produced, the industry—not each manufacturer—was allowed to get away with a general listing of additives which was and still is totally lacking in detail. These annual lists have been described by anti-smoking groups as "page after page of meaningless, useless names". But according to Covington and Burling, the tobacco industry is "complying with the law".

Then the tobacco industry scored an even greater triumph over we, the people. It got a provision entered into law which said that the lists of additives were not to be published or made available to the public or research scientists. To this day it is a crime to provide information contained in the TOP SECRET lists. The "state secrets" of the tobacco industry remain sacrosanct. Dutifully each year the tobacco industry gives HHS its secret list and, each year, H.H.S. dutifully locks the list in its safe, away from prying eyes.

If you believe the cigarette industry lists of deadly additives are public property—in short, a Government document—try getting it under the Freedom Of Information Act (FOIA). You will come up blank no matter how hard you try. The FDA insists on Twinkies being properly labeled, but has nothing to say when it comes to cancer-causing agents in cigarettes and why they should be excluded from cigarette packaging warning labeling.

But even if you achieved the seemingly impossible and obtained a copy of the lists, it wouldn't mean very much in its unrelated state. All you would see would be a long list of chemicals with difficult to pronounce names, not grouped or related to any brand of cigarette. If you are dogged enough to stick with it, you would be able to unravel the jumble of chemical names, but how would you relate that information to INDIVIDUAL brand names of cigarettes? Only the cigarette manufacturers could do it, but they are not about to oblige us in any way, shape or form. Cigarette manufacturers say it is their right to protect their "recipes"—they call them trade secrets—over the rights of consumers to know what goes into their favorite cigarettes. This rule does not apply to cereals, canned foods, etc. Apparently the FDA agrees with the tobacco industry for, thus far, the FDA continues to look the other way. Is it a case of special privileges? I think so, otherwise what else should we call it?

Remember this the next time you pass one of those billboards along the highway where some tough-looking rancher sits on his horse smoking a Marlboro as his fiercely keen eyes scan the wide blue skies above him. It would be better for him, and for us, if he were to drop his gaze for a moment and take in the cancer wards filled with pain-wracked or so-doped-out-by-morphine patients, to whom life has become meaningless as it nears its end. Cigarettes are indeed the most dangerous product sold in America.

Better yet, why don't anti-smoking groups go out and erect such "cancer ward" billboards—preferably as close as possible to the blue-sky blue-smoke Marlboro billboards? Come to think of it, a lot of people would find it a sobering experience the next time they pass that hitherto attractive outdoor scene.

Don't Ask, But— Finally Some Good News!

CURIOSITY IS SOMETIMES VERY DANGEROUS, LITTLE KITTENS

As you walk through this perception of living—in some seemingly limited states of mental direction—you are NOT. These are subjects which are very heavy on the mind of my scribe this day along with other major players in this "play". However, like wine "sold before its time", so too is information, before its time, a problem and not an asset. It may never be an asset to the population as a whole—only in that you have been deceived and need change for that is what is important to most.

As I have contacted some people within the past few days, Dharma's brain is scattered as she too wants answers. I ask her to back off for the less she KNOWS about many things which will be surfacing—the more secure. We have several jobs to be done and I ask that each of you consider NOT TRYING TO DO ANOTHER'S!

WHAT IS "MONTAUK"?

Montauk is simply a small place on the eastern-most tip of Long Island, so "down" with your aggressive chattering. Yes, there IS something which became referred to as the "Project Montauk". It is simply a reference point.

You ones can get completely buried in the multitudes of happenings and "projects" and miss the problems facing you TODAY. You will find references to Rainbow, Phoenix, Phoenix II, etc. These are not for doing your computer graphics homework, readers. We have written about these projects prior to this and they only confirm the Philadelphia Experiment of time-space CONFUSION, warps and actual transposition within and among various perceived aspects of presentation wherein "soul" AND "body" are shifted and become "insane-gathering" material for lock-away.

I have told you that EVERYTHING is LIGHT. However, I have also told you that EVERYTHING is "wave" and "pulse"—expressed in sound, light and frequency.

We can speak of radiosondes, transference, visibility vs. stealth and you will simply be totally confused. It is not TIME for these massive and incredible things to be revealed to the "whole" for they would have neither meaning nor allow for peaceful nights of rest and relaxation. The PROPER PARTIES are in the knowing and all I want at this present time of evolving sequence is for those ones to recognize and have confirmation of my presence and TRUTH. I KNOW!

At this point in evolution of social impact—you citizens need to know more about the USS Liberty than the USS ELDRIDGE.

"Ah," you will ask, "does this have something to do with Al Bielek?" This will come from you who follow the trail of the seminars and speaking circuits. Most of such persons are only fringe participants in something they did not understand nor shall they EVER UNDERSTAND—only give revelations of what they THINK happened in some of those projects.

I ask you to be more patient than to demand full disclosure for we would not more fully disclose for the masses a thing which can more quickly destroy (or save) your world than any other knowledge present. Suffice it to say that the basis of such transition is in the mind control, change, frequency and sound waves of CONTROL OF SPECIES. Further, these major projects were SO LONG AGO that you must realize the momentum of possibilities in the interim time perception called "years". Dharma, I will not allow this to be clarified in your brain data—so just back off, please, and allow my contacts and confirmations to be for the directed energies and not for self. It becomes more and more important that it be handled this way—for as things unfold I shall be communicating directly and continue to maintain your security. What you DON'T KNOW is your safety net. Things will be presented from YOUR SIDE of the curtain as we move along—with safety and security for you participants.

Yes, I agree that what "will be" shared is more entertaining and exciting than that which the authors we offer have shared to date—but you can ruin even a good novel by telling the plot out of context or sequence. You readers remind me of the ones who must read the last chapter, before understanding the first, of any good book. You ALL "think" you want the punch-line or bottom-line FIRST. But it is like giving the baby Calculus before he can perceive numbers. GOD IS SUMMONING HIS PLAYERS—SO DON'T TRY SO HARD TO FIT THE ROLE OF ANOTHER ACTOR LEST YOU BOTCH THE SCRIPT.

LAWSUITS

We are very happy this morning because the Constitutional Law Center [the valid entity] and the Phoenix Institute for Research & Education, Ltd. have been contacted by a lender willing to loan up to two-and-a-half million dollars to defend the case against George Green and the University of Science and Philosophy. Will Ekkers withdraw or not? It doesn't matter for Doris and E.J. NEVER HAD AN INTEREST IN THE BOOKS BANNED BY THESE ENTITIES THROUGH THE FEDERAL COURT! They will probably be enjoined of necessity because of writing and participation in their conception. At this time Ekkers are in "pro per" because they have no funds available for legal counsel.

The lenders involved believe that recovery can be caused by legal considerations as type of documents are involved, content of scientific focus vs. philosophical attitudes, for which we are adamantly opposed as relates to US&P, and of course it appears George Green simply wants cake and eat it also while protecting all sides of his hopeful little pots of gold. It is his problem and not that of our own. The loan will be exclusively for this single suit defense and nothing further—in case the opposition considers this some new-found garden of money. This is being offered through one who KNOWS all parties involved, the information limitations of the productions in point (information), the laws involved with newspapers, magazines and periodicals vs. novels, and fictional or even non-fictional scenario type of material.

All the confusion and negotiations can continue into infinity with the legal interchanges regarding Ekkers and US&P. However, since they are on food-stamps and have not yet even been cleared for start-up of Social Security (early draw which is very costly) and are having to probably move into personal bankruptcy anyway, we feel that $42 is absurd—much less the $42,000 cashier's check for the full amount, now demanded! We are curious as to the status of Mr. Green's settlement with them—for it is highly unlikely that there is over $100,000 in point of legal fees for the US&P at this time. That is, of course, unless there is triple billing which should raise flags at US&P—to name one other party involved!

Ekkers are willing and able to give up ALL RIGHTS to all nine volumes in point—but, the facts are that the Institute OWNS those volumes—not Tehachapi Distributing (now defunct) or Rick Martin (he never did) or any other party.

This same lender feels strongly in equal intent about the journals that are now being hostages by George Green. He does, however, recognize that the volumes themselves are a liability instead of asset because they will have to be torn apart for publishing information and now represent only a bunch of old magazines having lost all market value as they are now presented. Further, the storage fees now unpaid will eat up any possible savings in reproduction. Why would ANYONE pay twice the price of new expense just to save reprinting when half the cost is involved in simply repressing the pamphlets? The lender believes he can recover the expenses of the loan by collection on the debt notes from Mr. Green to the Institute. Mr. Green says he has ample funds (being a self-publicized millionaire) to keep this "thing" going into infinity. Well, so does the new benefactor, who is likewise a VERY GOOD BUSINESSMAN, and will take nothing less than a "win" in legal recourse.

This same lender further offers a loan to the Constitutional Law Center and attorneys representing Ekkers in the "property" case for damages for the confiscation of their home and property by RTC, Santa Barbara Savings & Loan and specifically the parties involved who, in conspiracy with the above, FAILED TO HOLD PUBLIC SALE. I can myself see that the lawyers involved are going to finally run the adversary out of funds (as has been the attempt against Ekkers) for such a case as represented by Mr. Steven Horn—who, by the way, seems to lead a sheltered life and has represented EVERY ONE OF THE OPPOSING ENTITIES. IS THAT NOT SOMEHOW LACK OF INTEGRITY?? HOW COULD HE BE THE SANTA BARBARA SAVINGS AND LOAN, HOME FEDERAL MORTGAGE, EVERY INDIVIDUAL INVOLVED IN ALL OTHER COMPANIES AND REPRESENT THE RTC AT THE SAME TIME—RARELY EVER HAVING THE PROPER PARTIES LISTED ON HIS COURT DOCUMENTS? MUCK AFOOT? YES, INDEED, I DO BELIEVE SO.

When asked how much the lender would be willing to provide—the answer was “as much as it takes” to get the best and WIN! The party in point has reached the point wherein he is fed-up with the Elite’s ability to destroy every citizen in their path. Our people are indeed grateful. Is this pie in the sky? No—funding is under way as we write. Can the Government block it? They can try, but people still have the right to share and invest in this nation and this party believes in the CAUSE in point and is a good enough businessman to see the value involved and the return on his INVESTMENT! Blessings rest upon you, sir.

This party is also taking into critical evaluation of legal action involving the Associated Press and writer along with false information printed internationally—via information falsely provided by Mr. Green’s boys and Luke Perry, George Abbott and Fort-Schroepfer. Further, he is moving right along with study of the radio-barrage against the Institute, Ekkers, myself, etc., by Gritz, Anderson, Binder and Green! There are now many other “checks” made out to the valid Constitutional Law Center, sent through Mr. Green, and ending up sidetracked and ENDORSED by Gary Anderson and We The People Unlimited and deposited in Colorado’s Kirk Bank.

A RAINY DAY?

In this place it snowed yesterday and is raining (and snowing some) today—but I can guarantee that the sun is shining in the hearts of these battered people. If there are to be settlements—it shall be from the opposing sides or this shall be taken to the highest courts of your land. And now that a lender is involved from abroad—the international courts of law can be involved as well (in order to protect his own investment).

By the way, you who believe that the Institute is up for “receivership” as is continually threatened—THE LENDER’S FUNDS WILL BE “STORED”, BACKED BY GOLD, FOR USE AS NECESSARY—IN THE INSTITUTE! I BELIEVE THAT WILL RENDER IT FAIRLY ATTACK-PROOF! SO BE IT.

[For questions about participation in the Phoenix Institute, call 805-822-0601 during normal West Coast business hours.]

In addition, since ALL funds in the Institute are BORROWED, there are no outstanding liabilities against the holdings, for all is debt! Further, when Mr. Green HONORS his debt to the Institute—it will be a good indication that other “debts” can be met to “his own colleagues”. IF “Green’s” notes are “NO GOOD” then how can a court decide that any OTHER notes are worthy from the same corporation? If Mr. Green, as Director of the Institute, can pull-down and destroy his own participating company—and get away with it—how can ANY ENTITY BE SAFE ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD?? If a Director and Officer of a corporation can take a half-million dollars in gold coinage and bury it in his backyard in another state and then claim “personal gift” when it is amply proven that it was intended FOR THE INSTITUTE USE—and after two years in court, continue the case and plead innocence—what chance does the world have in recovery?? Greens have merged their efforts into working with the adversarial forces against my people—and I find it unacceptable. The latest assaults have annoyed me.... Thank you.

I ask that the legal “thunderbirds” move forward NOW as the loans are finished in the processing, for it is time we turn to “important” work and matters and put this garbage behind us. You can make it a few days longer on bread, water and Kargasok tea if necessary. GOD IS IN HIS HEAVEN—AND NOTHING IS RIGHT WITH THE WORLD—SO WHAT ELSE IS NEW? WHEN YOU TURN YOUR HEARTS AND SOULS INTO CREATING THE WAY—IT APPEARS AND OF THIS, I REMIND YOU OF AS MUCH!

Dharma, take this off the computer so that it can be sent over to the appropriate office. Our CONTACT friends may well want to run this in tomorrow’s paper. Blessings, scribe—I SHALL prevail, grandmother, and “GRANDFATHER” may also begin to smile a bit. Salu.

4/23/94: An APFN Open Letter To Patterson Strategy Organization Of Criminal Politics. Re: WACO

(800) 543-0486

FAX: 513-345-4727

Thank you for your order of APFN Documentation called Why? Waco! "The Paul Wilcher Exposé". Please note this Exposé comes in two parts: (1) The 102-page letter that Paul Wilcher wrote to A.G. Janet Reno, dated May 21, 1993; and (2) APFN supporting information. It is clear that the CIA, drugs and drug money were the real story behind the siege on the Branch Davidians in Waco, Texas on the 28th of Feb. 1993, finally killing, in cold blood, these people on April 19th, 1993.

Criminal Politics has followed these events very closely. Reporting outstanding information. APFN has networked information from day one. Yet, no justice is being done. The fix has been in from the start to the trials. How can we join forces and get a Congressional hearing? People’s grand jury, or what?

In your March issue, Page 11, you state: “Let your community leaders know the truth! The CIA, along with the Conspiracy, controls our country! We’ll send them copies for free! Call 800-543-0486”. I am hopeful that the true story of the CIA and WACO is exposed. I am hopeful that Criminal Politics joins APFN Friends in the largest outcry ever heard by the American People to, for once and for all, OPENLY EXPOSE these rascals.

What does it take, Mr. Patterson? I am so saddened at thoughts of April 19th, one year later. I am at a total loss as to what power do “We the People” do, to see justice? What is this Federal Government doing to us? Aren’t the lessons of WACO our only hope of taking to task these people for cold-blooded murder? Our cry to our elected public officials has been a joke. Take, for instance, Hon. John Conyers (D-MI). At the hearings he comes on strong; next day he meets with A.G. Janet Reno and backs-off like a struck puppy dog! How do we break that power chain? We all know where the buck stops in this matter!

History demands we understand this whole affair, in the most detailed manner ever investigated. The souls of these children demand a clearing of conspiracies. No other conspiracy has dealt with the deaths of children like this. Not ever in History has mankind been allowed to put to death children, like this. So, in the matter of the WACO tragedy, we must proceed with due vigilance—settling for nothing less than full justice. How, Mr. Patterson, can a mother look at her child and not think, “the Government could kill you”!

I am guided by my highest power to commit my life to this matter—just as I gave an oath when I joined the U.S. Navy. I am 55 years old. I have been lied to my whole life about the values of me being an American. I spent nearly 14 years in the Navy as a Radioman. I was very well schooled. I aced KL-47 crypto school in 1965. I left the Navy in 1969 when I discovered how gutless we were, not to end the Viet Nam conflict on any given day. Another CIA-UN operation! I am appalled by my fellow countrymen still being held in Viet Nam. I have spent the last 25 years dealing with electronic mail & messaging technologies. The one thing the New World Order elites cannot stand is exposure. I pray that enough patriots, with love of God & country, along with technology, can make a difference. I say, we can out-wit the ELITE MEDIA. I pray that all APFN Friends, radio & TV hosts, newspapers, newsletters & networkers, will put into force our collective effort toward bringing God’s Natural Laws back to this nation, for the future of all nations of the world. Thou shall not kill!

New Gaia Products

GAIANDRIANA

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well.

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

AQUAGAIA

Complementary to the Gaiandriana product, AquaGaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

AquaGaia contains mitochondria. These are the major biochemical energy "processors" within cellular metabolism. First, enzymes begin the breakdown process of organic nutrients (like fats, carbohydrates and proteins) to intermediate substances such as amino and pyruvic acids. Then, in the next "bucket brigade" step, these various acid molecules are processed within the mitochondria to release chemical energy recognized as adenosine triphosphate (ATP).

About 95% of the energy needed to "run the machinery" that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment. These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of AquaGaia, with its assimilable supply of healthy mitochondria — like "fresh batteries" for the body's cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders.

2/11/93 #2 HATONN

GAIANDRIANA & AQUAGAIA

To help in understanding the workings of these organic "pac-men" you must realize that there is a protein covering "cap" on viruses. The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc atom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA—in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

AquaGaia, in conjunction with the Gaiandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple "charge" change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of "parts" of the Gaiandriana male-female DNA structure which releases many working variants but frees the Gaiandriettes or "killers" to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the "cap", the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells—further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochondria.

Healthy cells are not affected because they lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the virus.

These "Gaia" compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a "messenger" molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell's DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved well-being and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

The obvious conclusion is that there might well be good reports of better health and faster recovery, following infection by other viruses, than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondrianas (living crystal forms). We, again, make no medical claims—we are simply reporting in an effort to explain WHAT takes place within the cellular structures of living organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor — it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference—refrigerate after opening and reclosing.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiandriana and AquaGaia, together for storage as the AquaGaia (mitochondria) are aggressive and begin to "eat" the Gaiandriana for fuel. Once ingested, they go about their appointed tasks, but in bottle prisons they are not particularly compatible once the available fuel supply is exhausted. Juices are excellent to take with the AquaGaia because the mitochondria must have the fuel derived from same, the most effective juice being from the tropical "Guava" fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the "initial" program is completed, and the maintenance level of intake is being followed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

GaiaLyte is a fully integrated electrolytic liquid. The "drink" is a "concentrate" (3 to 1 minimum—as much to one as you like maximum). It contains EVERYTHING supplemental to Gaiandriana—INCLUDING A GROWING-PROGRAMMING BASE OF GAIANDRIANA AND BASIC DRIANAS. It also contains enough Carbragaia to equal a full schedule of what is being used in Mexico—(shark-fin cartilage). If you are using MO-GU—keep on—it can only enhance your full-rounded intake—but it WILL NOT be the same. However, the "new" drink will supply all you need without it. This is NOT A MEDICAL PROGRAM OF ANY KIND. We are not physicians as in Medical Doctor; we are not anything—except hopefully, sharers of information.

The GaiaLyte has a full spectrum of vitamins, minerals, Ginkgo, Echinacea, Chlorella, Oxygenators, Aloe Vera—everything necessary to "program" the cells in the tea membrane AND the Gaiandriana included. This does not replace the Gaiandriana used otherwise. This is a PERFECT medium to enhance the ability of the Gaiandriana you already take to enhance itself—reinforcement fuel, if you will.

You can dilute the concentrate with water AND/or anything you like. May we recommend apple juice and/or Cranberry. The apple juice is to flush out the gallbladder and the cranberry juice flushes out the bladder (urine). You may use as much as you like of either OR both and we would hope you would do so on a continuing basis because of the value of these two products and their focus of use.

We believe you will find it a very tasty beverage but we ask that no matter how "good", just keep to the "program" amounts or you may find yourself a bit "woozy" immediately after intake. This is due more to the Aloe Vera present than the tea itself—but as you know, even the MO-GU tea can make you quite light-headed. There is no alcohol in the beverage although you may very well think so as the body rushes to uptake the fuel supply. This is not a medical-chemical concoction so you could take the entire bottle without damage or hazard—but you might well not feel so great for a bit afterward and it is totally UNNECESSARY for any expected positive response.

This is not like taking an antibiotic with flu or sore-throat. This is a well-body systemic enhancement. It sometimes, as with other persons' elixir—takes weeks or months to feel any difference. ONCE balanced, however, you will note that at onset of infection, cold, etc., if you take around six ounces of Gaiandriana and double up on the GaiaLyte—you will probably note positive response in about an hour. Remember—you are activating the enhanced immune system and it takes a while to accomplish this task.

ALOE JUICE (Whole Leaf, Cold Pressed Aloe Vera Concentrate)

Aloe Vera has a long and impressive history that spans hundreds of centuries, countries and cultures, and appears in countless "folk remedies" as a plant revered for its healing qualities.

Aloe Juice is a whole-leaf concentrate prepared from the freshly harvested leaves of the Barbadosis Miller Aloe Vera plant. Aloe Juice guarantees a minimum of 10,000 mg. of mucopolysaccharides per liter.

The nutrients reported in Aloe Vera include mucopolysaccharides and polysaccharides (glucomannans), glycoproteins, glucose, mannose, galactose, xylose, arabinose, tannins, steroids, organic acids, antibiotic principles, glucuronic acids, enzymes (oxidase, catalase and amylase), trace sugars, calcium oxalate, a protein containing 18 amino acids, "wound healing" hormones, biogenic stimulants, saponins, vitamins B1, B2, niacin, B6, choline, folic acid, chloride, sulfate, iron, calcium, copper, sodium, potassium, silicon, manganese, plus many other metabolism-assisting components.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll-A, chlorophyll-B, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoic acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS (with American Ginseng)

In recent years few medicinal plants have garnered as much attention as Echinacea (Echinacea Purpurea and Echinacea Angustifolia).

Echinacea is a non-specific stimulant to the immune system. Claims for Echinacea include: stimulation of leukocytes, mild antibiotic activity, anti-inflammatory activity, stimulation of the adrenal cortex, stimulation of the properdin-complement system, interferon-like activity, stimulation of general cellular immunity, and antiviral activity. Internal preparations are said to assist in alleviating cold and flu symptoms, respiratory infections, and arthritis, to name a few.

Goldenseal (Hydrastis Canadensis) is among the most popular herbs in the American health food market. Uses are numerous, including but not limited to: antiseptic, hemostatic, diuretic, laxative, and tonic/anti-inflammatory for the mucous membranes, hemorrhoids, nasal congestion, mouth and gum sores and eye afflictions.

Few medicinal plants in the world possess Ginseng's near-legendary status. Dating back thousands of years, its history of use in the Orient records therapeutic properties so wide ranging that it was first dismissed by Western doctors as a "panacea". When fatigued, Ginseng reportedly restores both physical and mental functions to peak efficiency and, with regular use, improves resistance to disease and stress. American Ginseng's genus name is Panax Quinquefolius.

Over 40,000 species of mushrooms exist, many of which are used as medicines. Of particular note are such remedies as penicillin- and ergot-based extracts used in migraine treatment, to name a few. Extensive research has been done with one mushroom in particular, namely, Reishi. This mushroom is now considered a tried and true immune system fortifier.
