Judicial Corruption Didn't End With J. Edgar Hoover

4/30/94 #1 HATONN

The following is going to be lengthy but I'm sure it will be most interesting. The information in point is an article taken from EIR, March 19, 1993 entitled: 'Judicial Corruption: It Didn't End With J. Edgar Hoover", by Jeffrey Steinberg.

A copy of that article was recently sent to Ronn Jackson because of the subject matter in point. Since it is more important to be accurate than to save space, Dharma, we will first print the letter in response from Jackson to EIR [Executive Intelligence Review, by the LaRouche group]. Then as we recopy the article we will make notations as to pointed material. Placed in this sequence the reader will be able to connect references. This will be and to fill-in some of the speculation conimmediately relative to current information tained in the story. The article of which I make being offered to you by Jackson as being reference is by Jeffrey Steinberg and is enprinted in CONTACT [see the ongoing series, beginning on p.2, and the latest update on our favorite subject of "Treasurygate" on p.34, called with a comment by author Anthony Summers legal background, I'm not sure what was given "Jackson On 'Treasurygate' "]. Thank you.

other discussions. We are most happy that someone else is getting the book into print so that "they" can get all that push and impatience.

also has much information which corrects assumptions and misinformation in writings by others such as Rodney Stich, etc. This is not ANYTHING negative about information in the original books-only that this is what is SUPPOSED TO HAPPEN IN ORDER TO GET FULL TRUTH OF EVENTS TO THE PUBLIC EYE AND MINDS. We will be making sure that all such additions, corrections or observations are shared with you readers AS THEY ARRIVE and in addition will make sure that any writers involved have integrated information, each one with the others. I don't believe any author can possibly imagine the all-but-impossible task of ferreting out TRUTH in this web of LIES. Much will be denied by ones who "claim" they "know". No, you will find, as you seek, research and draw together the facts—THAT WE OFFER TRUTH! We will soon, hopefully, be prepared to allow it to grow as large as it needs to be-until you-the-people can reclaim your own presses and controlled media. You-thepeople may have to learn to read more quickly!

With this notation behind us let us proceed to offer a segment or two from The Death Of Camelot to appease your desires. And since we have already written today on other matters, we will move right into the subject. Dharma claims that any resemblance to the order of the writings as presented by Mr. Jackson and as typed in these segments is purely coincidental and she claims to not wish to take responsibility; so when the question is asked under oath, "Who botched the order of the writings?" she will "take the 5th". She already finds that "new arrivals" of input "should have" already been shared. Further, it will be obvious that this very segment will have its discussion in the future to great extent but it is next in the order received in the "box". May the "publisher" have a bit of forgiveness, please. We certainly are not efforting to write the book, only share it in serialization of some sort. THE HOOVER FILES

Little did I realize, when I met "Bill Casey" for dinner that evening, how significantly my life and that of others would be affected. He gave me "The Hoover Files".

The following day when I picked them up I was surprised when I saw them. There were two ordinary-looking green, steelcase, four-drawer file cabinets. I'm not sure what I expected to see or find. Maybe I expected something exotic, perhaps something with chains and padlocks all over them. I don't know but perhaps I expected a fire-eating dragon to be separating me and the files. That, however, wouldn't have been any good because I didn't so much as own a sword.

I checked them very carefully as I walked around them. I didn't see any wires leading to or from them so I did what comes naturally when you are facing a file cabinet—I opened a drawer. Ah, good, no lightning-bolt came from the heavens so I removed one of the folders. It was an accordion-type folder with several small notes either stapled or attached with a paper clip to the front. Inside were cover pages, memos, reports; all with the heading, "Federal Bureau of Investigation" and bearing the insignia of same.

Under it there were copies of charge slips and phone bills; bank statements and photographs; lined paper with notes on them. As I was reading one of the papers I noticed there was something else on those sheets of paperanswers. I carefully put the papers back into the folder and put the folder back into the drawer and closed it. This was not the time, place, or area to be seeing what I was reading lowed by Jews, Politicians and people with on those documents.

I pulled the roll-up door down and replaced the combination lock. I then walked up to the rental office and asked the manager how long the place would be open. Finding it would be open until five allowed me some seven hours to do something. I walked back to the car while my mind was racing a mile a minute. I wouldn't feel comfortable staying in the area and I wondered what I would do with what I guessed to be about a half to three mind in a Washington D.C. suburb that I might be able to utilize. I figured I could work out something as I headed the car in the direction of McLean.

By the time I arrived at my place I had made a decision to take the files to a place of mine in Colorado Springs. It was out of the way and no one knew about it. Maybe I could get in a little walked on the Earth. (060220-728943) skiing in the process. But the problem reared up at me-how to get them there. Well, twentyfour hours and six thousand dollars later, both cabinets were standing in my family room. I was building a fire in the fireplace.

Over the next several months, and in between projects, I catalogued the entire contents of both cabinets. As I finished each letter of the alphabet I recorded the data on my computer and sent the actual files off to a safeplace. I made five copies of each disk and sent them off also, for future back-up and safe keeping.

made the following observations about Mr. Hoover while recording the data and they are mine alone. In the future, when I make available the records, others may well disagree with my notes and comments; however, know what I read and stand behind it.

When Mr. Hoover made entries to what I refer to as his "cover sheet(s)", it was as though he was conversing with the sheet of paper in use. Following each entry there would be a comment which usually would show the conclusion he reached. If there was no conclusion he would appear to be angry. There were several statements entered about the subject until that particular subject was brought to a level of conclusion that satisfied him. On some of the papers in point there was sometimes evidence that he didn't like what he was writing on the papers and there might well be a hole in the paper as though he had stabbed it with his pen.

One of the most obvious traits which really stood out on paper was his dislike for women. He referred to all of them as "bitches". I do not recall him making even one flattering statement about any woman and, as I mentioned, there are over twenty-three hundred separate files and among those are some four hundred female entries.

Next on his "dislike list" were Blacks, folmoney. If there were any combinations of the above the file would be much larger.

On many of the notes or reports he received he would make comments. It was easy to see that he didn't trust all of his own people. If the report didn't say what he thought it should reflect he would order someone else onto that particular subject. Many gossip columns were in the files and he actually ordered a couple of offices broken into by his agents in an attempt to locate other sources.

This man was so powerful that he frightened most people and was able to blackmail quarters of a ton of paper. I had a place in just about everyone-including two former presidents.

[END QUOTING OF PART SEVEN]

Keep in mind here that there are some 2,309 numbered files so these above listed parties are a very short listing of some pertinent ones which Mr. Jackson plans to expand on later. I would note that some are surely missing from this personal list—as we all know, for instance, what a fear and hatred Hoover had for one Eustace Mullins. The amusing thing is that Eustace had no idea he even HAD Dharma who says, "Why in the world would anyone have a file on me?" The things that "miss" happening are stories in themselves as we effort to simply keep you workers ALIVE. I think it is the pure innocence of the questions which are endearing to me. I am sure that we are going to find these openings of truth and information quite interesting.

AUTHOR'S NOTE:

In the coming issues you will see references in "Book One" to "Hoover's" files. I am going to be more specific now so that there will be no confusion and/or misunderstandings as we move along. The "Hoover" that I refer to is "J. Edgar Hoover", former and now deceased Director of The Federal Bureau of Investigation. Yes, the same one who you and I know as a part of this country and is and was supposed to "be on our side". There has been speculation as to the existence of these files and this is to inform you that all twenty-three-hundred of them that remain are secure and in my control. What prompted me to make this known and to do so in this manner is that the current Director "William Sessions" is under investigation at this very time for "improprieties, and that Agency is again seeking anonymity. If you don't make it clear to your elected officials that you don't wish an Agency of our Government not to be accountable to the electorate, the next time around will be totally disastrous.

REMEMBER: A self-governing and selfpolicing organization is self-serving and is always "right". A good example, now, is Internal Affairs. George Orwell was a BRIL-LIANT MAN!

I was sitting in one of my favorite places, the "Iron Gate" in Belmont, California. The three brothers who owned the place made the best Steak Diane anywhere. The meat was cooked rare and they took an interest in YOU. They always remembered your name and made you feel that your business was really appreciated. One of the brothers cooked at your table and it was a production that "made" your meal. What more could you ask for?

I had finished my dinner and was relaxing with a cup of coffee with a bit of "Bailey's" in it. This place added a bit of an extra touch by putting a bit of Kahlua in the coffee also and after I first tried it I stopped having desserts in that place. I didn't pay much attention to the calorie "stuff" as I seemed to get plenty of exercise and there were many times when I went days without eating. I always had far too a "file" in FBI. It must be somewhat like many other things on my agenda to waste attention on calories.

> I had completed a sanction in San Francisco. Normally I'm on my way out of the area immediately but this time when I "called in" I was told to stay in the vicinity. My people always played it close to the vest so I would wait.

> The lounge wasn't crowded and I was sitting in a corner booth. The atmosphere was quiet and peaceful and I had seen a sign behind the bar stating that a piano player would start at eight. I checked my watch and it was now seven-thirty so there was half-anhour to wait. It was apparent the piano player was a lady as I overheard a couple seated close by talking about her. It seemed they lived in the area and it sounded as if they knew what was going on. I was looking forward to a

I was staying in a motel down the street why they were chosen to assist me. She was and had walked to the restaurant. I don't have leaving shortly to return in a couple of days. I that many evenings in the [San Franciscio] Bay opportunity to do so. I wanted some quiet time and I needed it every so often.

I note here that everything doesn't always work out the way you plan. The entertainer appeared and she was attractive. She also had a beautiful voice. She played many of my "old" favorites and when she sang a song "Wind Beneath my Wings' I thought it was about the nicest arrangement of the song that I had heard.

I watched her and noted that she was looking my way so I decided to give her an even lowing day, on schedule, airport to airport. I closer look. I moved to one of the lounge chairs next to the piano. I put a couple of singles in her glass and she asked if there was something I would like to hear? I wanted to say quite a few things but asked her to just continue what she was doin.g. The next thing I realized was that it was closing time. It seems that it is really so, time really moves when you're enjoying yourself.

When the place closed she joined me and we found an after-hours place in East Palo Alto. She knew the Group there and we ended up staying until about six in the morning. I was a bit surprised at the place police were onto him. I had been cautioned on but had mostly white people as patrons. I noted the Police Chief of San Mateo was present so that told me something...

"where to?" She took my arm and said that she was with me.

She lived in San Carlos and it was about four in the afternoon when I finally dropped her off. I also told her that I would be seeing her later.

I made a call to my employer at the appointed time and, as I figured, I was told to remain in the Bay area for a few additional days. It seems that a free-lancer in my profession had not fulfilled an obligation. He was black and on drugs and, though he didn't work for the same people I did, someone had sought my people's assistance. My remuneration was doubled. That meant problems for not only did I have to take care of him but I had to also do away with an assistant. I wasn't sure what that meant other than problems. The paperwork would be coming in the next day.

I was back at the same nightclub around eight. I hadn't eaten and didn't know what I wanted as nothing sounded good. I snacked on chips at the bar and the "singer" suggested that I ask one of the owners to fix something special. I did and it was a nice salad. It tasted good but probably the company had a lot to do

The lady played until closing and I then suggested we go out somewhere and eat. Since the only things open were hotel restaurants or fast food places we walked into the first place found open. I had had enough to drink....

We talked for quite a while and I found out that she was from Missouri, was my age and divorced with no kids and the other "usual" stuff. She said that when she came West it was her idea to just "get here" and the rest would take care of itself. Things don't often work out the way we want them to, she admitted. The rest was the same old story. She advantage of such times when there is an made a living and had forgotten about being enough to where nothing would come back on "discovered". She had bought a new car and had started saving for a place of her own. I wondered how many stories were like her's.

> We went back to the hotel. I had a phone message that spooked me a bit as no one knew where I was staying. I called the number and found it was from the "Iron Gate". It seems I had left my credit card and they remembered I had mentioned where I was staying. I was relieved.

Since he was on drugs, however, that made him unpredictable and very dangerous. I could see why the double money allowance. His assistant was his girl friend and she was known to be on drugs as well. Two squirrels, I thought. His last known address was in East Palo Alto very near where we had been-not the best of areas.

The reasoning was that there would be other When we left that place I asked the Lady times and other areas. It had never happened to me on a job and for me to be instructed to be this close there was far more involved than I was made aware. I started to make a call and find out the details a bit better. I needed to know more. I figured, however, that my employer's position was about the same and that there weren't any more details with them than they had given to me. I thought probably the extra fee was coming from the other end. I wasn't into outright questioning my instructions, and had to be honest with myself about that point. My employer's judgment is usually right and, even though I didn't always totally follow them exactly, I always stayed close there. There was nothing at the Credit Bu-anyone.

I called one of my contacts, for I was sure I could get more reliable information from across the country than I was going to get locally. I began with, "How do I get in contact with this guy?" The "receiver" was away from the line for several minutes. When he returned he gave me the man's phone number which was not a part of my information packet. The "man" was a former Green Beret with a lot of promise at one time, in the service, and then he killed a guy. He was thrown out of the service and had free-lanced while building a reputation. When he hit the drugs it was down hill all the way.

I was told of his duties while in the service and I wasn't going to underestimate this guy in any way. He was a bad dude and he still might be.

I called the number and there was no answer. I called to make sure the phone and number were in service. It was. I had the addresses of a couple of places that the man frequented. I thought that I might as well get on with mv work; it seemed nothing was ever easy any more.

The first address ended up to be a real dive. There were several people having "Port" for breakfast and they didn't care for my color either. The second place was a little better, but my being white wasn't really popular. checked out several places in the general neighborhood and the only thing that I accomplished was getting tobacco juice on my shoes.

I also had an address for a pool hall and went there. One couple was playing and nothing else was going on. I had a list of the man's creditors and I stopped by a finance company where they too were looking for him. His car was financed by Bank of America and there was a "pick-up" sheet out on him. I couldn't get any more information out of them. He was known to frequent a couple of card rooms in Palo Alto so I drove back down the peninsula and that also turned out to be just a wasted

The piano player was off and I realized I was a bit disappointed. I had a drink and decided to give her a call. She answered the phone and invited me over to her place. I offered food and liquor and she said to bring both. I love the inhibited women—well, I love them all....

The next day was a duplication of the first nothing. The following three days were the returned to the strip. This was a good idea and same, nothing. I was beginning to believe these people were out of town. I had driven by the man's place several times and saw nothing had changed. I followed her to San Mateo. She stopped at the jail. In about half an hour they both came out. The guy had been in jail. That was strange for my employers should have known that. Maybe they hadn't run a "scope" on him. He could have been using an alias and a scope would not have turned up correct information. At any rate I followed them back again to East Palo Alto. I made some calls and returns came back shortly. There were a couple of cousins in Los Angeles; his drug connection, or the person thought to be his supplier, lived in Chula Vista, right next door to Taco Land. The supplier had a home in "Puerto Vallarta". I was sure that I had him nailed.

I was going to pass L.A. I didn't like the town. After all, I rationalized, he was heading for south of the border and he would eventually get there.

For the remainder of that afternoon I did my homework. I had the supplier's home address and the directions to reach his place in Mexico. There was a private landing strip near his home and was forty-four hundred feet of paved convenience. Good old drug money! I made arrangements for a charter plane for two days later. By the time these folks finished fooling around I would probably be there well before they would arrive.

I showered and dressed after deciding on a tie. I noted it had been a while since I wore one but thought I might as well do it right-for one higher-but what did I know?! I put the paper last fling in the area.

The bartender was from Denver and I asked him how he came to be "here". He said, "In a beatup truck with a lawyer on my tail trying to serve divorce papers. The truck made it all the way on five cylinders."

Back at the resort I picked up an L.A. Times and went into the lounge. I hadn't read a newspaper in several days and wondered what the other half was doing. Nothing had changed: rapes, murders and political embarrassments were all there was. I wasn't greatly into sports and my own interest was only the scores. The Financial page had the usual merger talks and take-over plans. Dow Jones had just hit fifteen hundred. > In the main bedroom I found a safe in the floor of the closet. It wasn't locked and didn't look like it had ever been used. The small room held a few casual clothes and a few men's items like belts and ties.

> No supplies had been laid-in. The refrigerator was at the lowest setting. In the garage an older Chevy wagon and a few tools were all that were around. The place hadn't been used much.

> Everything was as it was. I closed the window and let my eyes adjust to the darkness. I saw no traffic in the distance so I started jogging back to the resort.

I was sweaty when I arrived in the room noticed was the phone book. I had purposely opened it and laid part of it across the phone. It was closed! For the next few days that I was a guest, my service improved. What really had me upset was this place was owned by Americans and was run by them. I had in mind to teach them what made their business prosper but I had an idea that they would find out soon enough.

I hated waiting but that was part of what I ern California and this was did. I accepted it as a responsibility and I must admit that I found myself in many pleasurable circumstances as a result of it. I set the time for nine because I wanted to make a quick trip out by "the" house.

There were no lights on nor cars in the driveway. I thought, "Good", as I had other things on my mind.

From the girls' reactions it appeared nei-Has anyone ever pointed out to you how ther had had much experience with men or the cost and seemed a little embarrassed when last one was where the girls were staying. I they finally ordered dinner. I did my best to put their minds at ease and after a couple of drinks we had become like family.

> When we had finished our meal we went either side of me with each holding an arm. It was nice to be liked. We walked through an amusement park and all of us tried our luck at knocking over milk bottles and shooting basketball hoops. We won a couple of stuffed bears and a giraffe. We had cotton candy which ended up spread all over us as well as in our hair. We decided to walk down the beach where we stopped by a couple of rocks to wash the sticky mess off. We watched the ocean for a while and then walked some more along the beach at water's edge. As we strolled we noted the lights of the resort area were quite distant and it was nice so we just kept walking. The sand felt good on my feet and the night seemed quite perfect. Perfect for what? I didn't know and it didn't matter.

Earlier, when I said the girls were "healthy" most certainly did NOT mean to infer they were unattractive. I guess I'm as guilty as any Let us not get sidetracked or we are NEVER at type-casting and I found that in the short

It wasn't that they were holding onto me so tightly but rather that I had to admit to this being a first for me: a threesome. It was also their first at such daring encounters so we agreed to learn what we could-together or should I say, 'among us?".

seventy-five dollars but they assured me that where they came from a dollar bought more quantity and better quality. So, guess where we went....

It was late that night when I drove back up to the hills to take a look at the house and surroundings; after all, this was a mission I was serving. Ah, there was a light on in the house and the car from the landing strip was setting in the driveway. I could only wonder who was find out tomorrow.

After watching briefly I started my own car and drove back to the resort and put the car in the parking structure. I was on the fourth level and decided to walk to the front as I had down and just walk around a while.

I was just looking over the area when I noted the car from the airport pulling into the resort across the street from where I was. watched as it was parked and studied the scene as a Black man and woman got out of the vehicle. A second or two later a third person got out and it was the "Dealer". I couldn't get a good look at his face but it had to be "my folks". I was going to request a triple billing anyway so I might as well put another turkey to roost. It didn't bother me one bit. I didn't like these people for their profession and as for the one in my profession, "he" didn't know I was coming. I had the greater advantage and it wouldn't make any difference but he was definitely "history".

I made a decision to get the car and wait until they would come out again. I did so and sat for a couple of hours until finally the Dealer came out of the building. Since I figured I knew where he was going I pulled out in front of him as we left the parking lot. Later I pulled off the road some quarter of a mile on past his house. I had seen the car pull into his driveway. I waited a minute then locked the car and trotted back to his place. I was approaching from the west so was on the same side as the one I had first used for entry on the other night. I could see him through the window and noted that he had raised it. He was on the phone talking and there was no question about the man after I heard parts of this conversation. Yes indeed, I knew exactly who he was. On his desk was a large briefcase and I knew without peeking what it contained. It would have money or drugs, OR BOTH.

It seemed a plane would be due-in shortly and he was planning to meet it. I wanted to see if anyone else was there but it was clear.

their room so I had a seat in the lounge think- I don't trust drug people, ever, as too many things can go wrong. As I waited I found that the school teachers came into mind but I as quickly put them out again. This current escapade was not just for fun and games.

I checked out the airstrip again and noted When I arrived back at my place I found the that there was an "apron" area very near the shack. A plane could stop anywhere but the easiest place with the path of least resistance would be taken and it would be that "apron". I was betting on it. I went inside the shack and perched on a chair and waited. I had put the car off in a ditch off the road quite a way distant. Man, it was so dark in this area that seen. I lit a cigarette and put the flame out quickly; there was nothing to do except sit and wait.

About an hour passed while I waited. Then a car drove onto the landing strip and went all the way to the farthest end. It was the Dealer. He was parked out there for quite a while and then I saw some lights flicker on. I recognized the light as being flares and also at the same time the lights from the parked car flashed on.

there and how many there might be. I would The car moved in my direction and when I heard it near the shack I looked through the cracks. The Dealer turned the car around facing the flares. He shut off the lights and left the car engine running.

I then moved outside. I went around the thought it would be pleasant to take the stairs building and stopped and waited where I was out of his line of vision. I heard the sound of an approaching plane a bit before I could see it. The driver blinked his lights as a signal and then shut them off. The lights on the plane kept coming. I ran to the rear of the car and again scrunched down and waited. Immediately as the plane touched down the pilot shut off the lights as the plane taxied towards us.

The plane was a beautiful twin engine job and as it approached I realized it could well be carrying three or four people. So be it, too late to reconsider anything. There was only one on board, a woman. She opened the door and got out. The Dealer was now moving toward her and I had him in my gun-sight as he reached her. I fired, knocking him into her and both into the plane.

I immediately moved toward them after I had fired. When I arrived at the plane she was crying and struggling to get the limp figure off of her. I emptied the ammo clip into both of them. I played this game on my own terms and by my own rules.

There was a suitcase, two briefcases, and a satchel aboard the plane. I gathered them up and took them to the car the dealer had just vacated. The car's interior light put out just enough light for me to inspect the luggage in point. The suitcase held drugs and the brief cases held money. The satchel held more money and several file folders with "top secret' printed on several of them. I checked the Dealer's briefcase and it also held several files and more money. What the hell was going on? The first thing that came to mind was that this was some kind of a two-way deal. I had a mess of which to dispose so I wasn't going to stand around in that place and try to figure it out.

I next moved the four pieces of luggage to the shack and then moved the car to the plane Maybe this customer was well established but and pulled it up to where it was touching the that they accepted my story about the gamplane. I got out of the car and located the fuel cap on the plane wing. I had to work at it a bit before I finally got it open. I searched around until I found a rag which I shoved into the tank opening. The rag almost immediately hit fuel and I thought it strange for the plane must not have traveled very far. I pulled the rag back out and it was soaked with fuel. I put a match to it and ran like scat back to the shack. The damned thing burned for about thirty seconds before it finally blew. I then thought the small shack was going to go too. When the car had caught fire I grabbed up the luggage and tore off toward my own car. There wasn't going to be much left of anything when that fire burned

As I drove back I kept expecting to see some kind of vehicles but strangely enough, there were none. I had fabricated a good story but I didn't get to use it. As I parked the car I looked around and then on out toward the distant mountains and noted they were just as dark as they had been the night before-the job was half done!

When I got back into my room I saw the phone light was flashing. It was a call from the girls. I returned the call and excused my absence by telling them I had been out gambling at one of the casinos and that time had simply slipped away from me. I apologized and said I was too tired and was going to shower and get some sleep. I heard them giggling and knew they were on their way over anyway. I knew I should be taking care of business but the sun was rising and I just kicked the luggage under the bed and decided I would just have to suffer!".

I smiled to myself as I pulled the satchel out from under the bed. I opened it and took out a couple of stacks of bills. I checked them over and found the money was good. There was ten thousand dollars in a stack. The denominations were in hundred dollar bills. I was going to give it to the girls, tell them they had brought me good luck, tell them I hit a jack-pot with a bet for them. They could use it and I noted that it is funny how the mind

It was only a few minutes later when they both came through the door

They both wanted to go for another stroll on the beach and I told them that they both were over-sexed. They agreed, said Okay but I'm not sure what that meant exactly but I was worn out.

At sundown I again drove ove. to the house. I had heard of the fatal fire and accident and I was sure not too many people would buy that accident crap. The authorities were on their way. At the house it was dark but I calculated the other couple could be inside and that would be a trap, it even smelled like a trap.

I drove on back to the resort and put the car away. I checked at the front desk to see if there was a way to Federal Express things to the States. There wasn't. I would have liked to send some of the goods that I had collected back by that route. There did seem to be a connection by private carrier to Los Angeles so I thought I would take care of the items later as I needed to take things in order.

The first order of business was to get rid of the "junk" in the briefcase. I flushed the bags and was lucky that the plumbing didn't get stopped-up.

I had the money laying on the bed. There was about two and a half million dollars minus the money I had given the girls. I was pleased bling for it probably was the most cash that my way of thinking: it is a nasty job, but either had ever seen and it was time for them inecessary and someone has to do it.... I have to return home and, in fact, were on their way.

I called the airlines at the municipal airport and the flights left at ten, two, and four. I had heard those numbers before! I had quite a bit of cash on me and decided to go by the ing. Those marked "TOP SECRET" were from a ticket counter and pick up a ticket. I made a reservation and left it open. I concluded from readthe agent looked like a tackle for the Green ing the information that an agent within the Bay Packers and she might not have appreci- ranks of the Federal Investigatory Agency was ated my humor.

Back at the motel I decided to get some rest but I found myself too restless to relax. I finally just got up and undressed, stood under the shower for quite a while, dressed and realized it was too late to catch a flight today. I would have to time my business so that I could catch the next available flight if at all possible. I picked up the car and drove back out to the house. There was a car parked in the driveway but I didn't recognize it. The lights were on. I decided to go forth and play the part of a lost tourist. I pounded on the door but there was no answer. I walked around the house and found no one. I pounded on the door a second time but heard or saw nothing. I tried the doorknob and found that the lock was open. I went in and right there in the living room was the "Freelancer". He was slouched on the couch totally out of it.

One shot in the eye and he was in the land of Happy Drug Dealers forever out of business. His lady was in a bedroom. Same for her!

The file folders proved to be very interestgovernment project at Lawrence Livermore and Sandia National Laboratory. Several unmarked that pertained to the missing top secret files in concert with that particular dealer.

I learned the identity of the dealer, in some more detail. Although his name was not familiar, the agency of the Federal Government for whom he had worked previously was the Justice Department. This reminded me of a conversation I had had with an agent of the FBI in Las Vegas. He had told me that the U.S. Attorney's office there could not be trusted. They had too many political checks to cash. I wonder how many more are like it throughout the country? That agent's name is Don Hale.

THE HOOVER FILES (BOOK V) Excerpt KE 001-003

AUTHOR'S NOTE: Because of the skepticism and controversy that surrounds the "Hoover Files", also referred to as the "ALPHA FILES", I have chosen the following format to explain their contents. To my knowledge there are two thousand, three hundred and nine (2,309) files in existence. I suspect there are others buried within the infra-structure of the Federal Bureau of Investigation but I have no proof. I also suspect that if others do exist, they are primarily about people of wealth and stature, both in the private as well as in Government sectors. I base this suspicion on the contents of the files that are in my control.

Although J. Edgar Hoover presented a stoic image to those around him, I believe he was an insecure and pitiful excuse for a man who usurped his position to the "Nth" degree. He was like so many others of our leaders who are placed within a level of authority and have no idea how it should be handled. [H: In com-mon words you will recognize: "Far beyond their level of incompetence/"] Hoover, known as a staunch anti-Communist, was NOT. That perception was a facade utilized under the guise of protecting our country. He used and manipulated people. A classic example is Senator McCarthy. Hoover pulled his strings for years and it is all in the Senator's file. Today such action is known as blackmail. It is hard to realize that for several decades this dastardly person was our SENIOR LAW EN-

For years I wanted to see them. I didn't file but no names are given. There are many a different agent. It will never be realized just need to speak to them, but rather to, physically, in their environment, observe them. If I were to examine my motives about this I'm quite sure it is that I wanted them to know that I knew who they were. When I speak of these as "my employer" I am making reference to "A-5" on the chart at the beginning of the series. Neither do I believe that it was thought that I was capable of obtaining such knowledge. As you read you will find that from nineteen-eighty-three (1983) to when I made the decision to sever our association, all was not easy with which to deal. I recognize that I am to blame for the strained relationship and the reason for my behavior was indeed simple: Receiving instructions and a large sum of money was not enough. I believe it can be summed up in one word: CONSCIENCE

I guess it was part of their flight training and I enjoyed watching. A Colorado highway patrolman stopped to see if I was having problems and he ended up watching them for a while with me. After several minutes I thanked him for stopping and continued on with my northward

A few miles ahead of me was a small town My discernment as "Author" is to note that by the name of Monument. As I approached the town I noted the speed limit was reduced which indicated I would have to drive through a business section or that there was a stoplight ahead. I saw a fast food sign and decided I might as well pull in and have a sandwich as it was time to eat and I was hungry. At the intersection of the off-ramp I noticed, across the road facing me, a huge sign advertising a sale of some kind being held by the Resolution Trust Corporation. The sale involved some condos. After looking at my watch I realized the "resident agent" for the RTC would be on duty for another hour and, since I was curious and had several hundred thousands of dollars in my travel bag-I decided to have a stop-see. My curiosity was more for the part played by the President's son and his involvement. I had also heard you could get some really good buys. I wasn't into dealing in other people's misery and along those lines I noted the sign stated: "New and Unoccupied". thought it wouldn't hurt to take a look.

> The agent said the units had just been refurbished and were released for sale the past week. Several speculators had been by and she (the agent) said she didn't expect the properties to be available for very long. I questioned that pronouncement as the sign dred units of two and three bedrooms up for to "try" to hide him at all and put him right in my Employers and yell at them a little, letting sale. She further explained that the units had sold for seventy-mne and eighty-four thousand-new. I asked, "How much now?" She responded, "Fifteen or so ... I bought ten after seeing one.

I gave her a deposit and drove back to Colorado Springs and rented a room. I was going to close this deal as quickly as possible. She had told me that on a sale of this size that the government would pay the closing costs. No wonder the government was going broke, I thought.

The following day I signed my name at least a thousand times and the agent introduced me to her husband who 'just happened" to have a management company which took care of renting out such places as mine. For twelve percent he would take care of everything and when he gave me a copy of his bond and I verified it, he had a new client.

I had just completed a project for my employers. It was not a job that I would normally do but then, I have never received a written job description. I am purposely being vague at this time because in order for you readers to understand the whole of information. Much of what was transpiring was leading up to an event which had not yet

My instructions for this task were to assist another person who was also employed by my people, The Committee, and to formulate a plan of escape. Once the plans were complete, only myself and the Principal involved were to have knowledge of those plans. Once all of the details and arrangements would be instituted, I was to walk away with the knowledge and leave the Principal on his own—in the event it was necessary to implement said plan.

The Principal was from another country and is known to you. He is a person who, when I met him, I did not like him. I met this person once prior to this time and my opinion of him had not changed from then until now and continues to be the same. He is a violent person and has shown that he has total disregard for life.

The plan was in the form of a safety valve. I designed it as follows: His location, the general vicinity, was known. I found a location for him for security in an adjacent country with escape routes, transportation and so on. If the heat at the second location was too great, I made a third in Central America, a fourth in Southern Mexico, a fifth in Belize, a sixth in picked up twelve inches of new powder. Northern Mexico, a seventh in Baja California. Because of the identity of this person I had to calculate all the resources that would surely be brought to bear in order to locate him. He would need to be totally hidden and yet he would need freedom to move about so that he could continue his business. His main employer was also mine and this was the important point.

The final part of the plan required a lot of thought for he had to have the ability to move freely and yet his pictured face had been plastered all over the damned world. I chose the most logical approach, which was simply not notice. I thought to myself that I should go see open view where he would least be expected. That would be right here in this country working as a field laborer. I had an eighth place in mind as well and that would be in the Imperial Valley, the ninth was on the Central California Coast, and the tenth would be somewhere around Salinas. In that way he would be able to maintain his output. I was not overly optimistic about the latter.

The last leg of the whole operation had just been completed some two days before. That part included a work area and home in a remote area where it would take an army to get him out because of its location. The place is only accessible by air and yet it is all but invisible from the air. My thoughts about an army could very well come to pass.

tral Colorado had been one of those on the spur of the moment" things for my destination had been north of Denver. Therefore, when my personal business was completed I was again heading west to some skiing.

later on my way up a mountain where I stopped to eat and gas the car. While I was in the restaurant I picked up a copy of the Rocky Mounof the situation you need to know a great deal tain News. As you will later learn, one of the methods of contact with me was through a series of "St. Jude" ads which would be placed in the "Personal" column in several newspapers. When I would have been out of contact for an extended period of time and yet not knowing in advance where my travels might lead, it was found that this was a very effective way to summon me.

Prior to going on my previous assignment I had quite a discussion with my Employer about the frequency of my assignments and he had agreed to space them out a bit better and, on parting, his words were that he would contact me "only in an emergency". However, it seemed to me that everything was an emergency. I was sitting now, drinking coffee and debating whether or not to call him or simply wait for a couple of days. I had some reservations at a resort in Vail but at that time of the year it wouldn't be too crowded. There had been a couple of snowfalls at higher elevations and a lot of people were starting to "think" like me but there would not yet be a big rush of skiers. So, maybe there might be an emergency.

I called in and the sanction was located north of Denver, which was less than a hundred miles from my location. That job took two days and, in the interim, the Rockies had

I was enjoying completion of my second full day of skiing and I saw the population of Vail increase by some ten thousand people. It appeared to be a very good starting of a good season. With pleasure I thought I would spend a great deal of my time there.

Wrong! It seems I next found myself on the way to France, some three hours later. I ended up in England for nine days, also, while completing this particular sanction. I was really "steamed" when I finally went to the airport to return to the U.S. The only field I could get into was Dulles since there was such short them know how I really felt! I thought better about doing that but did consider stopping by and making an appearance. I wasn't sure what that would accomplish but somehow it seemed that it might make me feel better. I wasn't sure what, if anything, I was ready to tell them but I was soon going to find out.

I checked into a hotel which was three blocks from their location. All manners of thoughts passed through my mind such as whether or not they had separate offices, did they meet in one big office, did they have secretaries, who else knew of their existence, were there guards in the facility? I wondered how much resistance was going to be given to my unannounced entrance. I had no idea but I was going to find out and I was going to find out NOW. I started walking

I had no weapons on me and, after all, I was My stopping off in Cen- in this country and going to meet, or see, those who employed me. I wasn't looking for problems and from my viewpoint they were my problem, or was it the other way around? Perhaps there wasn't any problem. Maybe this was all in my mind. When I reached the building I pushed open the double doors and entered.

There was no one in the entrance. There With that intent I was was no guard. There were a few potted trees and two large doors directly in front of me 1 walked to them and opened one and strolled in. In the center of the room was a table with several chairs spaced around it. Most of the chairs were occupied. There were two men who stood at a blackboard and until I walked in all the attention from the table had been directed towards them. I closed the door and the two men standing walked over and sat down. The room was large and along all the walls were charts and graphs. Several other blackboards were in various areas and some two or three deep. There was a desk in the right corner of the room and an older man sat at a computer terminal. He started to get up and I saw a motion from the corner of my eye. He sat back down. Not one word had been spoken by anyone present.

I walked to the end of the table while not taking my eyes off of the man at the opposite end. I started to say "A-5" but for some reason did not. My gaze followed around the table to the other members. I recognized ALL of them. This was the first time I had seen any of them other than in the newspapers or on television. I was, however, certain that every one of them knew me. Still, there was not a word spoken.

I moved around the table and walked around the room looking at what was written on the chalk boards and the graphs. I kept the men in my vision at all times. No one had made any effort to move. After I had made a full circle I walked back to the table. I then started walking slowly around it until I came to the head. "A-5" had not moved and I don't think his gaze had ever left me. I stood looking at him for a few seconds and then I looked at each of the other members seated at the table. Still, not a word had been uttered by anyone. I turned, then, back to the man at the head of the table. I had not reported in on my last job. I said, "My last project is complete." He stared at me for a moment and then bent over to a satchel. He hesitated briefly and then very slowly reached inside of the bag and pulled out a package. As he did so I thought about how many of those I had seen. He handed it to me, saying nothing. I just stood looking at (Continued on Page 12)

JOURNALS OF THE WEEK—BOOK REVIEW

"When You KNOW, It Can Make All The Difference: You Can Help Yourself And Your Loved Ones To Understand"

for KNOWLEDGE brings you into the dimension of the "informed" and in so doing comes great joy.

THE DEATH OF CAMELOT, Part 12 by Ronn Jackson (060220)

AUTHORS NOTE:

The following chapter contains portions of a letter that I wrote several weeks ago. [H: This segment was penned on 1-29-93 and labeled (3) #11.] Because of the contents I decided to incorporate it into the book. Since the original book was written over two years ago, not much has changed. The publisher was upset when I told him of my upcoming However, after he had read it, responded with, "In the future please give us thirty days notice on any additions you are planning on making." [H: This is now obsolete information as it is evident that person no longer exists and the publishing is being handled through other resources.]

A couple of weeks ago I sat down and wrote the Attorney General of the United States. did it mostly out of frustration after watching the "nightly news". The two top stories were of the unemployment situation and the other about the drug King-Pin from Colombia. The latter I am most familiar with as I have more information on him than have all the combined law enforcement agencies on the Earth. As I have stated before, I had contact with his products. As you may have noticed, I did my job well and I always had the current information that was supplied by my Employer and then, if needed, the rest of the background I researched on my own. The combination of the two was always adequate and on many occasions it had saved "Number One's" backside.

The context of the letter was for venting my outrage of the country's overall social and economic level and my beliefs of why it is in the shape in which it finds itself today. summed up my beliefs in two words: WASH-INGTON and DRUGS. I also supplied him with the major drug distribution network in this country and made him an offer that could go a long way in solving our country's problems.

Before I go into what I suggested I would like you to know that I didn't expect an answer to my letter. Washington's attitude in general is, and has been for years, that the common man means NOTHING except at the time of voting in elections. One can be on the campaign trail and talk with you and try to show interest in your problems and then when that one goes to the next potential voter he has already forgotten his promise of only a few seconds prior. When he gets into office he has made so many statements and promises that players and dealers ARE IN YOUR GOVERN-that he is for the "common man". So often it is that he has never been in the position of a "common man" that he, himself, has to guess what it might be like to be such and every time

Most elected officials do not go into office with any idea of distancing themselves from the electorate but, when they are confronted with the physical limitations and the vast numbers involved, they quickly retreat to the position of self-preservation. They surround themselves with people who are experts and in the most part take the advisor's word on any given subject. That supposed "expert" is wrong in the majority of instances almost all of the time. (Look at Sununu who has an I.Q. of over a hundred and sixty and yet is dumber than an armload of cow-dung.) The officials also take the attitudes that someone who is not within their own circle cannot possibly have any knowledge such as is possessed by themselves. Therefore, anything that is offered "cannot have substance".

"Most elected officials do not go into office with any idea of distancing themselves from the electorate

but, when they are confronted with the physical limitations and the vast numbers involved, they quickly retreat to the position of self-preservation."

In short, the electorate totally and absolutely disregarded. What I have said has been proven over and over again. The circle goes on and on. Perhaps it is time for more women to enter the political arena. Men seem to have tried to run things since the beginning of all time and history but what has been recorded historically is failure upon failure. [H: As Ronn would look at today's Billaries and Hillary's Helicats, I wonder if he would repeat this observation?]

My offer to the Attorney General was quite simple. It would involve drugs and the distribution of them. I supplied him with an organizational chart in semi-detail and gave the upper three levels of the network-minus the names. I even went a step further with greater information. The principal country of manufacture is Colombia. Three separate families control the majority of it. The worldwide distribution is controlled by TWO men who are both Heads of State. My offer, as I said, was simple. I would deliver all three to the United States for prosecution. Moreover, I would agree to TESTIFY. This would be after certain conditions would be met. If they wished, since this was cocaine to which I was referring, I would throw in a fourth party and include the chief heroin supplier as well. Since this one is in the Far East and I won't have a bunch of bumbling politicians looking over my shoulder, there is an excellent chance of success.

The problem, as I view it, is that Government cannot be all things to all people. They are attempting to do something of which they have no knowledge. [H: Sorry, Ronn-they are simply criminals and stupidity or knowledge has very little to do with anything. You may well be sophisticated in some arenas of action—but quite naive in perception of others.] In an effort to curtail drugs, with the media's assistance, we have made the top people in the drug business into folk heroes. They are the very worst kind of criminals and, not only are they ruining the moral fiber of our country, but they are killing our children while perpetuating their evil way by addicting our unborn as well. [H: But Ronn, the major

"BUSINESS" AROUND!] They continually laugh at our efforts to circumvent what they do and charge off what minor inconvenience we cause as an expense of doing business. [H: The facts ARE that those of whom you speak are only PARTNERS of the very ones within the Government for whom you worked.]

Another problem I see is in the distribution network within this country. Am I the only one to see that every day people are arrested and sent to prison only to have two more take their place? Does it not strike you as being odd that no matter how many people go out of circulation-the supply never dries up? That can only be because we are not seeking the source. Well, I am going to tell you the source. It is the system that prosecutes the drug people along with the support people with them. Primarily they are the civil servants of one kind or another. Several of these people work for the man to whom I wrote my letter, William Barr. [H: Now it is beloved sweety-pie, Janet Reno!] Well, there is a revolution of sorts in the works > and there are many other people involved. This is not some early stages of revolution but rather the beginning of this country's being reverted BACK to how it was intended to be governed, by and for the people.

There won't be any lobbyists involved nor will there be "government" funds. The ones involved will have used their own time and have only asked each other for one thing-assistance. Not one single fact-finding committee was formed and about half are Democrats and a couple, such as Perot and some remaining members, are still quite faithful to the Republicans and this is in spite of what Bush and Reagan have done. All are heterosexual in orientation and have children, shop at Safeway and Penney's, and some even go to church on Sundays, not to impress voters but because they WANT to and you'll find them driving American cars and so forth. Each will have filed tax returns last year and each and every one paid their property taxes as expected. Of the men concerned, all served in the Armed Forces and the women are guilty of baking cookies occasionally. One of the things that all have in common is that none have participated in the burning of the American flag, all know the 'Pledge of Allegiance" as well as the "Star Spangled Banner' and are sick and tired of the passing of the buck, rhetoric and pure and unmitigated

All of these people believe that a tax increase is probably going to be necessary and would be happy to share responsibility by contributing to our Government that which is necessary and that is covered by sufficient funds to insure that help. Each would contribute time in the helping of others. No one with whom I would work is seeking any kind of recognition; most enjoy apple and cherry pie, baseball, football and a little golf, perhaps, and would drive Chevrolets if General Motors would raise the QUALITY up to Ford's level.

We are just people here-Grass Roots. Remember us, Washington? We are the ones who made it possible for you to vote yourselves a fifty percent pay raise. We are the ones who make it possible for you to maintain a high standard of living while you force people onto the streets with your inept, uncaring, sanction. This short piece is how it was told to the topics covered the norm for the area: trafand thoughtless policies. This reminds me of me by Justice Warren, IN HIS WORDS. a saying my father used: "People who play with matches and bounce checks, get their fingers burned and broken.

I volunteered to do something for this coundoing for years. If I am not successful then my life will go for something that, under the circumstances, is for the right reasons at the least. I have no special interests other than those of this, my country.

AUTHOR'S NOTE:

This is the Second Part of three of a conversation I had in 1974. In Part One of this particular conversation I made vague references as I relayed the story to you. The of them were casually dressed and most apconversation was with Earl Warren. The sec- peared to be in the medium income category. ond party will be discussed later, as he was a I listened to a number of conversations and

When I arrived at the lounge the time was try because it is doing that which I have been nearing the hour of five. The establishment was just opening. There were no patrons present and the room was very bright. I stood by the entrance thinking that someone would seat me. After a few minutes a gentleman emerged from a rear entrance and lowered the lights. He saw me standing and told me to have a seat anywhere I wished. I chose the bar. I ordered a cocktail and set in to wait for "the" Gentleman's appearance.

I drank my drink slowly and observed several people coming into the lounge area. Most fic on the Bayshore Freeway, the Giants baseball team and the weather in the Bay Area. From my vantage point I could see the stadium. I believe it's called "Candlestick Park". While looking off in the direction of the stadium I noticed that the lights came on. I overheard one of the patrons mention a game. The traffic on the freeway below us was in five lines, bumper to bumper, and I remember thinking that it might delay "our man", if indeed a game were being played.

When The Gentleman did arrive, I didn't notice him at first. In fact, if I recall the circumstances of the moment accurately, there was a lull in the conversations and my feelings were that there was a "presence" near me. It is difficult to describe my reason and feelings of the moment. I looked to my right where a man stood, dressed in a suit and tie. He was of average height and weight and wore glasses. I remember the glasses very well, as they were the type that you associate with older people. The half-lens style, yet he was a younger person. He spoke pleasantly and the person behind the bar seemed to know him. I listened to them speak and the subject laughed when the person behind the bar said that he had won a baseball pool which he had entered on his last visit. Soon the Bartender brought me a drink that I had not ordered. It was the custom of the winner of pools to purchase a drink "for the house" with his winnings.

I listened to the conversation for several minutes and even joined in a few times. I tried to visualize the subject's character by his voice and from the manner in which he spoke. I found him knowledgeable about a number of subjects and he dominated the conversation, although he did this in a manner which was not offensive.

My interest became more intense when I heard the stock-market mentioned and soon the subject was explaining "puts" and "calls". I marveled at his explanation and found it to be remarkably accurate. The conversation then moved to Government and then to the State of California. I remember thinking that if anyone wanted to really know something about a subject that this would probably be the place to get it. The conversation was most substantive and I decided it was time to become involved. I motioned to the bartender to give the bar a "round". I thought that I would purchase a round in order to start a conversation as the subject would make acknowledgement of the offer.

He did so and I stood and walked the distance of the three intervening stools and put out my hand. "I remembered your comment about eye contact with the subject, Sir, have you ever looked into his eyes?

I had interrupted his telling of a story and added, "What about my eyes, Mr. Justice. There is nothing strange about them.

"I know that, but they do have some sex appeal," he responded.

"Buffalo dung," I retorted.

That was the only occasion on which I spoke with Justice Warren. The balance of the conversation appears later. He died a few months after we spoke. The reason he gave me for having this conversation with me was that he knew, and told me so, that he was near death. He also said that by him telling me about this conversation, I might find it of value one day. Also, he said that I had a right to know. (060220)

Once Again-Ronn Jackson Spills the Beans!

Editor's note: The following information about the PROMIS software is excerpted from a letter by Ronn Jackson to E.I.R. [Executive Intelligence Review], responding to an article appearing in their March 19, 1993 issue on J. Edgar Hoover and Judicial Corruption. See Front Page for further discussion of this now infamous spy-versus-spy matter.

"You make reference to the 'INSLAW' case. It was I who 'obtained' the source code to the PROMIS software for another party. The purpose of doing so was to enter into that software, sub-routines to monitor the U.S. Attorney's activities as that party was doing at the time to several computer systems including 'Big Floyd', the FBI computer system. Both systems are being monitored to this day along with all other of the Government's many computer systems. What was done to Mr. & Mrs. William Hamilton, the owners of 'INSLAW' was done with criminal intent on the part of my employer [The Committee of 16], and of Government. The necessary evidence will be provided to the Hamiltons in the near future."

DAMAGE CONTROL?

In an article from the April 16 edition of THE BAKERSFIELD CALIFORNIAN, "Even while the Warren Commission was preparing its report on the assassination of President Kennedy, there were disagreements over whether the same bullet had struck Kennedy and John Connally. Among the dissenters: President Johnson.

'Johnson's conversation with Russell [Senator, D-GA, Warren Commission member was included among tapes released Friday by the National Archives and the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library in Austin.

The tapes reviewed in Austin disclosed that Connally called Johnson on March 2, 1967, to discuss claims that Cuba was involved in the assassination. In other phone conversations, Johnson told aides to keep up with New Orleans prosecutor Jim Garrison's investigation into the slaying.

"Johnson, however, said he didn't believe the CIA-Cuba theory. In a Feb. 18, 1967, conversation with then-acting Attorney General Ramsey Clark, Johnson said the Cuban theory was as preposterous as if he were told that his wife, Lady Bird Johnson, 'was taking dope.'

The senator noted some members of the commission headed by hief Justice Earl Warren believed that 'the same bullet that hit Kennedy first is the one that hit Connally."

"'Well, I don't believe it,' Russell told Johnson. " 'I don't either,' Johnson responded."

REMEMBER WACO

In an article from the April 18 edition of THE NEW YORK TIMES NATIONAL, somewhat old news but certainly worthy of reprinting here, WACO, TX (April 17)-Though most of Waco was otherwise occupied, rock music blared from loudspeakers and venders hawked religious tracts under colorful tents today as nearly 300 people gathered at the site of the Branch Davidian compound nearly one year after the April 19 fire that destroyed it.

The grandmother of David Koresh, the sect's leader, came to contest the medical examiner's version of his death. A sect member, Woodrow Kendrick, recently cleared of murder charges, was there, he said, because he 'felt compelled by God to speak out.' A conservative disk jockey named Ron Engleman said he had come from Dallas to present information the lap dog media doesn't have the courage to report.' [Apparently he doesn't read CONTACT.]

an effort to 'bring people back together, to remember what happened, and to get out the real information about what the Government did here this time last year,' said Dewey Millay, a self-described constitutionalist who helped organize the event.

Though organizers promised new information and previously unseen video at the event today, little of that emerged despite a dozen speakers'

The scene today at Mount Carmel is vastly different from a year ago. The salmon-colored main structure, which much of the nation saw burning to the ground on live television coverage of the standoff's finale, is gone-bulldozed as a health hazard by Texas authorities. All that remains is wreckage: a dozen scorched bathtubs stacked beside mounds of rubble, electrical wiring dangling from utility poles knocked askew and charred timbers strewn among spring wildflowers.

"Vendors did a bustling business: T-shirts, $15; tapes of Mr. Koresh's 911 emergency call, $15; caps with a Branch Davidian logo, $5; bookmarkers and balloons, $1. Amateur photographs of last year's events brought up to $10.

"But Waco residents said they were tired of all the attention given to the events at the Branch Davidian compound on the edge of town. Just down the road from Mount Carmel, Dolores Lopez, who watched the compound burn from the porch of her trailer, said she felt no need to attend the event today. 'I think I get all the news about that I need from the media,' she said. [Obviously she doesn't read CONTACT.]

"Another Waco resident, Gene Luscher, resting with a beer in the shade of a live oak tree nearby, was also uninterested. 'Heard all I want to about it,' he said. Mr. Luscher, leading a caravan of four covered wagons, a buggy, and 25 horse enthusiasts for a Sunday outing, said he never wanted to hear another word about the Branch Davidians.

" 'I just wish the whole thing would go away,"

SATANISM IN SOUTH DAKOTA

In an article from the April 8 edition of EIR. The March 20 Sioux Falls, South Dakota ARGUS carried an explosive five-page feature on the statewide spread of Satanism, especially involving the abuse of children. While much of the article is devoted to various law enforcement satanic activity, the article by Steve Young is nevertheless a convincing report. Young detailed reports to authorities from therapists, doctors, and counselors from institutions such as the Children's Home Society in Sioux Falls, the University of South Dakota School of Medicine, and Charter Hospital and Family Service in Sioux Falls of a steadily increasing incidence of satanic activity involving children.

MONEY LAUNDERING

In an article appearing in the April 21 edition of THE [LONDON] FINANCIAL TIMES, written by Alison Smith, "The number of reports to United Kingdom authorities about suspected money laundering activities has more than doubled within two years, from 5000 in 1991 to total 12,700 in 1993.

"The United Kingdom agencies expect a further sharp rise in the number of reports made this year, in the wake of further tough regulations about disclosure of suspicions about money laundering which came into effect at the beginning of this

They added, however, that there were signs that some dirty cash was being withdrawn from the United Kingdom because Britain had tightened up its response to money laundering."

DIRTY MONEY & THE SWISS

In another article from THE [LONDON] FI-NANCIAL TIMES, dated April 24 and written by Ian Rodger, "Switzerland's private bankers have long tended to have a smug attitude to questions about accepting dirty money.

" 'We have always been extremely careful about who we will accept,' one Geneva banker said recently. They say that even in the bad old days, when the famous anonymous numbered accounts were permitted, they always checked their clients' credentials thoroughly.

These claims ring rather hollow in the light of the latest case of dirty money-a $150 million account at Union Bank of Switzerland in Zurich held openly in the name of Mrs. Sheila Miriam Arana de Naser, wife and partner of suspected big-league Colombian drug dealers.

"Swiss bankers now admit lamely that their screening of clients was perhaps not quite as rigorous in the 1970s-when this particular account was opened—and before as it is today. We were not as sensitive to money laundering then,' Mr. Stephan Haeringer, a UBS director, conceded last week.

*But bankers were surprised that UBS was the one caught out. Switzerland's largest bank is renowned for its careful scrutiny of potential customers.

The Swiss Federal Banking Commission's 1992 guidelines to bankers provide no fewer than 30 pointers to help them detect whether or not money is being laundered. But all of them have to do with transactions—withdrawals, purchase of drafts, transfers or excessive cash movements."

THE SUN

In an article from the April 12 edition of THE MODESTO BEE, "The sun's ultraviolet light not only spawns skin cancer, it suppresses the immune system and can lead to serious bacterial infections, researchers said

"That suggests the development of the ozone layer could have even more serious implications than previously thought, scientists told an American Association for Cancer Research convention.

Since a thinning ozone layer is allowing more ultraviolet light to reach the Earth's surface, the study suggests infectious diseases also may be on the rise.

Tests on mice show exposure to normal amounts of sunlight can lead to tuberculosis, Lyme disease, leprosy and other diseases their bodies normally would fight off, said Margaret L. Kripke of the University of Texas' M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston.

"The UV-B light first breaks down the skin's genetic material, Yarosh said.

*Damaged cells then apparently send out signals via chemicals—called cytokines which tell the immune system to shut down until repairs are finished.

"Any disease the immune system is fighting at that moment can become permanently invisible to the body's defenses."

BUNKERS

In an article from the April 18 edition of THE MODESTO BEE, "Seven men were in federal custody Sunday accused of paramilitary activities after authorities found bunkers stocked with weapons and military gear in the three national parks and forests in California.

"The men, whose names were not released, were arrested Saturday and expected to be arraigned today, said Rita Wears, special U.S. Forest Service agent in charge of the Angeles National Forest police unit.

The arrests cap a two-month investigation that started when a Tulare County sheriff's deputy came across a bunker the men are alleged to have dug in Sequoia National Park.

Other bunkers, up to 8 feet deep and 40 feet long, were later discovered in Los Padres National Forest in Santa Barbara County and in the Angeles National Forest, in Los Angeles County...

"All seven were booked for investigation of conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States, impersonation of a U.S. officer and destruction of federal property-all felonies.

FEMALE MUTILATION

In another article from the same edition of THE LONDON] FINANCIAL TIMES, by George Graham, "In an unusual broadening of their role into social and cultural issues, the World Bank and International Monetary Fund have won a commitment from the government of Burkina Faso [Idon't know where that is either to take steps to combat female enital mutilation.

"The practice of female genital mutilation, sometimes referred to as female circumcision, is widespread in many countries of sub-Saharan Africa. Besides ritually reinforcing the subordination of women, the mutilation brings severe risks of infection and starkly increases health risks in later life.

World Health Organization officials estimate that genital mutilation doubles the risk of death at childbirth and increases the risk of still birth by three or four times.

Besides the WHO, donor countries such as the United States and France have sought to discourage the practice. The United Nations Human Rights Commission last month agreed to a special investigation into violence against women, but referred only obliquely to genital mutilation as ' the harmful effects of certain traditional or cultural practices."

POPE CRITICAL

In an article from the April 18 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, *Pope John Paul II criticized Sunday a planned United Nations conference on population growth as an attempt to promote birth control and abortion. The pontiff said he has sent all world leaders a letter 'expressing painful surprise' that religious points of view apparently will be excluded from the meeting, planned for September in Cairo, Egypt. Officials from about 170 nations are expected to attend. The pope said the gathering, which will be led by economists, sociologists and political leaders, will reinforce the idea of abortion as a right. 'It is today more urgent than ever to react against models of behavior that are models for hedonism and permissiveness."

CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY

In an article from the April 20 edition of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, VERSAILLES, FRANCE-Paul Touvier, the first Frenchman tried for crimes against humanity, was sentenced to life in prison Tuesday for ordering the execution of seven Jews during World War II.

THE DOOMSDAY PROJECT

In an article from the April 18 edition of THE MODESTO BEE, written by Tim Weiner of THE NEW YORK TIMES, "After spending 11 years and $8 billion searching for ways to keep the government running after a sustained nuclear attack on Washington, the Pentagon will shelve its project as a high-tech antique of the Cold War, according

"The Doomsday Project, as it was known, sought to create an unbreakable chain of command for military and civilian leaders that would withstand a six-month nuclear war, which was regarded as a plausible length for a controlled conflict.

"Like many other Cold War programs, its details remain top secret. And from accounts given anonymously by Army officers and government officials, it is clear that this secrecy itself was a major stumbling block-in some ways as great a challenge as the technological hurdles.

"A Pentagon agency, the Defense Mobilization Systems Planning Activity, was given the task of making plans to glue together a shattered government. But the planners found it impossible, even in peacetime, to coordinate the White House, the Pentagon, the CIA, the State Department and other agencies.

The project was an amalgam of more than 20 black programs—so highly classified that only a handful of military and civilian personnel knew of

" 'That raised the bureaucratic nightmare to the nth power,' Blair said. 'No one knew what anyone else was doing. It was hard to find out even the technical characteristics of some of the plans. You had all the difficulties of creating commandand-control networks cutting across bureaucratic lines, combined with the secrecy of black programs even the bureaucrats running it were handicapped.'

*According to Army officers and government officials familiar with the project, the Doomsday Project created elaborate new links in the nuclear chain of command.

The plan to keep the government running after the White House and the Pentagon were reduced to radioactive rubble included a network called the Presidential Survivability Support Sys-

"Two hundred special-operations commandos were to secure surviving leaders in scores of secret bunkers."

G7 AND RUSSIA

In an article from the April 25 edition of THE [LONDON] FINANCIAL TIMES, written by Peter Norman, "Russia was yesterday given a clear warning from the world's leading industrial nations that it must put into effect tough economic decisions following last week's approval of a $1.5 billion dollar credit from the International Monetary Fund.

At a meeting with finance ministers and central bank governors from the Group of Seven leading industrial countries, Russian officials were told they must deliver on their promises to reduce the budget deficit to 6.5 percent of gross domestic product this year from 8 percent in 1993 and reduce the expansion of credit by the monetary

What's In A Name?

4/27/94 #1 HATONN

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

As we write this morning our focus will be on a presentation from Ronn Jackson regarding a bit of the "Hoover Files" as regards John Fitzgerald Kennedy [see p.8]. It is brief and it is taken out of context as to the files but is necessary for notation as Ronn writes on The Death Of Camelot.

Before we go into that subject, however, I ask that you attend a bit of side-lesson in historical "meanings". This becomes important because some "receivers" THINK they are giving accurate information to certain very important participants in this ongoing play and are most offended when I correct perceptions. Why is it that ones feel a need to be offended if errors are corrected? Wouldst it be more worthy to be continuing in the distortions of "how it was"? Dear ones, the "enemy" will always be so close to truth as to make discernment all but impossible and if "I" correct such misinformation is it not worthy of being "special" instead of offensive?

We have one who has been in acceptance of information brought forth by a friend who says, "You are Atalon, son of Odon." Close? Indeed, but the energy "Odon" as expressed is NOT the "Odin" or prior "Dar" of God accepted label in the antediluvian period of your ancient history. The "O" is accurate as to its reference to the whole or "sun" and fits with the earliest of antediluvian Kings. However, the facts are that label or symbolic title of Odo, Od"I"n, Odo or Odoin represented the first GOTHIC KING and was a carryover from the ancient "first Sumerian King". OK so far-however, the "Gothic" Elite were the first real diverted population FROM the original species. The first species was indeed Aryan in "race" as to those which first came to the area of what you call the Middle-East in ancient Sumer (in Iraq).

I do not wish to do a history lesson here because this is a very pointed bit of information and I do not wish to use current labels.

The first recognized "leader" or "father" (King) of the Aryan-Sumerians was deified as the Sungod named "Dar", which is actually in translation Thor (or St. George of Cappadocia as later recognized). He was credited with the "taming", or civilizing, the "Lion" tribes or the "Christ"-oriented Lighted Creator "GOD" tribes (flock, children, herd, gaggle, covey, etc.) of human "citizens". Later in your historical "time" this being in presentation of "person" would be recognized as the "sun-God" OR Aton.

Now, if one believes himself to be Atalon the son of Odon—you may well consider this to be a "son of God". However, you had best STUDY CAREFULLY that which you perceive is the Father and how that "father" presents himself. You will find that MOST OFTEN, in an attempt to deceive the "believer" and "practitioner", that ONE will present as a reptilian! That is your FIRST CLUE THAT YOU HAVE PICKED UP YOUR ENEMY—THE ADVERSARY. GOD CREATOR DOES NOT PRESENT AS A SNAKE! HE may well present as a "Phoenix" Eagle from time to time and sometimes as a "Lion" but the symbol of the "lion" is connected with Christed relationship.

I do not wish to get into the "DRAGON" representation AT ALL AT THIS TIME.

By the time of the Gothic era as to Kings, etc., there came Odin and I don't wish to go into this deeply, either. This is because it is the other clues in the specific relationship, to which I focus this message, that I wish to address.

The person in point told ME that he is Atalon, son of Odon. Well, he isn't! That was information offered by one close to him and very honestly given. However, he went on to say that he came from Obergon which he "said" was in Orion! Ah, now we note the connection with "serpent" symbols and warrior factions of entities. The "son" of "God" of christed Light (Creator) does NOT COME FROM ORION! So, in respect to straightening out the misunderstanding it has to be understood that the person (or soul expressing as person) has to go farther back and realize the relationship of the one, ATONLON (or Atonlan), son of Dar or "God".

 Does this separate all others into other categories? No, it is simply a connection which must be made with specific entities connected with THIS MISSION.

Dar would be presented in physical "style" as a predecessor of the Gothic expression so dress, logos and "seals" would reflect that influence as was later more prevalently expressed.

The terms Odo, Odoin, Odin or Thor following "Dar" are representative of the Goodly presentation of God-respecting people. As time went on there was a Woden who became totally confused but Wodan was a non-Goth and also, non-Aryan.

If you people err and mix this all up with "colors" you are going to distract yourselves. Why? Because "Christness" or "God-Law followers" HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH CURRENT RACE OR COLOR. The terms represent "belief and status" within a "spiritual" (soul) structure (emotional expression and intent) and cannot be described by human physical skin color or species.

The point I wish to make HERE is that you cannot simply take a name and decide who or what you are—YOU MUST COMMIT TO UNDERSTANDING THE FACTS AND CATCH ALL THE CLUES.

How do I REALLY feel about names? I repeat, if YOU come to me and introduce yourself as Tommy Peanut, I will address you as Mr. Peanut. It is the "being" in point-not a label. However, IF you misinterpret your OWN identity, it can actually reverse the direction of your purpose and mission for you will study the wrong courses as to "intent". This is to warn you multitudes who seem to think you have to have cute little 'other' names. It is sometimes foolish to accept such from the mouth of another human speaker for YOU do NOT know the source. If you are offered a name of some kind—check out all the clues or you will not be a Phoenix Eagle—you will be a sitting duck".

Then why does "Dharma" have a label? Because it is simply a mark of identification which has "meaning". Translated from ancient identification it simply means "presenter of life truth. No big deal and that is why most of the time, except when we use it as a "name", it is not capitalized. So be it. Along those lines, when we identify "Ranos" it is simply a short term for "Ranostros" which simply means of the "brotherhood of Ra" (brotherhood of God). The same is an approximation of "Rael" which means "Elder of Ra" (an Elder in the Brotherhood of Ra [God]). If you are trying to put a high level hierarchy status on yourself as with a crown of gold and jewels—forget it IF YOU ARE OF LIGHTED PRESENCE for you otherwise err. If you wish to play in OUR game—EGO MUST GO! IF YOU ARE TO SERVE AND FUNCTION WITHIN GOD'S PLACES, YOU MUST DESIRE HONOR AND REVERENCE IN HUMBLE ACCEPTANCE-NOT EGO POWER OVER OTHERS.

Gunther Russbacher Needs Your Help Again

4/27/94 #2 HATONN

RUSSBACHER

There is a great misperception which has arisen that somehow Commander Hatonn andor his people in the immediate circle are no longer interested in Gunther or Rayelan Russbacher. How could such perception become presented? There is great concern and attention to the circumstances and we are most happy to ask that CONTACT run the information and petitions of Rayelan regarding Gunther. However, not always are things as they "appear to be". Am I going to have my people panic and frantically get involved in something that can only HURT the person involved, in Austria? Gunther was taken into custody by his own doing—he announced on debarking his flight into Austria that he was a "Federal Agent". That immediately set into motion a lot of things among which were that the parties traveling with him were HELD IN THE INTERNATIONAL STAGING AREA UNTIL THEY WERE ESCORTED BACK ON A RETURN FLIGHT TO THE U.S. AFTER HAVING DIPLO-MATIC PASSPORTS DESTROYED!

Gunther was in need of medical attention and was immediately taken into custody and then transferred to a hospital setting-still in custody.

I believe the problem stems, at the immediate time, from the inability of our people to assist, in a financial manner, the family left in it will not get to Austria for WEEKS. Check the U.S., i.e., Rayelan specifically. The lack of forwarding to her Gunther's "active" status Navy pay and support is unthinkable and annoying but not terribly unexpected under current circumstances. I am not going to divulge information which will be harmful to the persons in point in various locations. Further, we hope that within a couple of weeks or so there will be some assistance for her in order that she can maintain self for a bit longer and/or travel, at the least, to Austria to visit-even if it be only for fifteen minutes twice weekly.

So, why am I concerning myself with this? Because Gunther was "reactivated" and "promoted to the rank of Vice Admiral" and it is difficult to believe that Naval Intelligence would not be somehow overseeing his status. He needed a lot of help physically and for his own protection he needed to obtain such-in a custodial and protected environment.

Does this mean that he has no other problems? No, he DOES, in fact, have other "political" problems and, in that arena, you caring writers can AGAIN MAKE A MAJOR IMPACT! WRITE, WRITE AND WRITE SOME MORE.

You can send the cards to him and requests regarding him through (in care of): Social Worker, Mrs. Kirschlag, at Justizanstaltv Josafstadt, Wiccanburgwassa, 1082 Wien, Austria. Also, readers, you may well wish to contact and petition others as has Mrs. Russbacher, i.e.:

He has his greater work before him and it will be in behalf of yourselves so let us let him know that he is loved and remembered EVERY MINUTE and that nothing has changed in our support. Thank you.

[Editor's note: The following are retypings of the latest avalanche of faxes we have received from Rayelan Russbacher pertaining to Gunther and his current situation. Paraphrasing what Commander Hatonn said during a meeting on this past Sunday afternoon, May 1: while there are those of the Good Guys in Austria who are very happy to see him back there, there are still OTHERS, shall we just say the usual *crooks in high places", who are not at all happy about a man of his tremendous capabilities and contacts and stature of family heritage having returned so close to their domain of antics. Thus the need to keep some heat and LIGHT on the matter with your letters of support. Such a spotLIGHT lets the crooks know you are watching and thus makes all the difference in stopping whatever shenanigans these crooks in high places would otherwise feel comfortable in executing.

President Thomas Klestil The Federal President of the Republic of Austria A-1014 Wien

URGENT YOUR IMMEDIATE INTERVENTION IS REQUIRED SAVE MY HUSBAND'S LIFE

President Klestil,

My husband, Gunther Russbacher v. Esterhaszy, was just arrested at the airport in Wien. I don't know the reasons, other than traveling without documents. If he is detained without medical care, I fear he will DIE. He fled the United States to Austria to GET medical care!!! It is our belief that if he stayed in the United States he would be killed.

Two weeks ago, the Mossad dispatched six agents from Tel Aviv to kill him. I watched them burn to death in front of me. They were killed by agents within the CIA. One week ago, Tel Aviv dispatched seven more agents. My husband, my mother and I went into hiding. On Friday, the 25th of March, we were told by friends within U.S. Government agencies that it was safe for my mother and I to return home, but that Gunther was still in danger. He went into hiding with several friends.

I received a call from my husband several hours ago. He told me that he was in Austria. I sighed with relief because I felt that he would be safe there. Now I find out that he has been arrested.

President Klestil, for the last four-and-ahalf years, my husband and I both have fought to stay alive. The Kissinger/Rockefeller branch of the United States Government has tried numerous times to kill us. Their last attempt on Gunther was in November of last year when he was forced to undergo emergency open heart surgery...surgery that wasn't needed. It is a miracle that he survived the surgery.

At the moment he is suffering from a kidney infection, possible pneumonia or bronchitis, liver disease, heart disease and unfortunately...he is dependent on alcohol. He became dependent on alcohol because he has been using it as a pain reliever. He was forced to do this because he is violently allergic to the pain pills that have been prescribed for him.

We have tried to "wean" him away from alcohol, but the strain on his heart was so great that his cardiologist recommended not doing anything until we could get him into a treatment center.

And here lies the reason for his entry into Mrs. Dr. Oltnar, Gunther and the men that were advising him, felt that he would be killed if he entered a treatment center in the United States. And we all felt that he would die if he didn't get help immediately.

still feel he will die if YOU don't intercede and dispatch someone to the airport and take him to a hospital. He requires alcohol every two hours or he will go into withdrawals. The withdrawals are so destructive to his heart that I fear they will trigger another heart attack. With one third of his heart "dead" from the "botched" surgery, I feel that rapid withdrawal of alcohol from his system would kill him.

Two-and-a-half years ago, when I made an urgent plea to President Kurt Waldheim to intervene and save his life, President Waldheim dispatched the Consul General from Chicago down to Missouri to talk with the Governor. That action saved my husband's life. He was in prison in Missouri and had just been beaten, with nightsticks, by three guards. My husband is a hero in the eyes of many Americans. He was brave enough to try to tell the American people the truth about their government...and our government has tried repeatedly to kill him and me. Austria, and President Waldheim, are heroes in the eyes of these people because they stood up to the corrupt part of our government and saved Gunther's life.

Please...if you don't intervene IMMEDI-ATELY, I fear my husband will die while in custody in Austria. After four years of fighting the evil United States Government to free him and keep him alive, it would be a tragedy if he died while trying to come home IN ORDER TO STAY ALIVE!

Please...please help him. The United States Government arrested him two days after we married and for four-and-a-half years I have worked to free him. He was freed in December and sent home to die.

We have only been together for three months of our five year marriage. If you send him back to the United States, I know we will be killed or thrown back into prison and then killed. He is an Austrian citizen; please give him protection, and please get him into a hospital before he dies. His life is in your hands. The eyes of the world are on you. Don't let him die. After all he has endured trying to get home to Austria, please don't let him die in the hands of Vienna security police.

My husband has not been well since his surgery in November, this combined with the alcohol has caused him to say and do things of which he is not aware. He is Very ill, please remember that.

May God bless you for coming to our aid once again.

Sincerely Rayelan Russbacher 408-475-7336

My husband, Gunther Karl Russbacher, is currently in a prison hospital in Vienna. have been told by his social worker, Mrs. Kirschlag, that you are his judge, and if I wanted any information regarding him or his case that I would have to sp-ak with you.

I have tried many times to reach you at the telephone number Mrs. Kirschlag gave me, but I have not been successful. Mrs. Kirschlag informed me that my husband's ex-wife, Peggy Neel, was successful in getting through to her, and that Ms. Neel represented herself to be his present wife. If you think that you have spoken with me, the present wife, let me assure you, that you have not. Ms. Neel is an FBI agent who is quite successful in getting people to talk to her and reveal things about my husband that an ex-wife has no business know-

Several years ago she pretended to be Gunther's current wife and obtained an Austrian passport at the Chicago Consulate. She has also emptied Gunther's bank accounts and lied about it to authorities, causing him to be arrested for passing bad checks. occurred on the day Gunther and I married and he was arrested two days later. For fourand-a-half years I have fought the United States Government, and his ex-wife, trying to prove that the charges were "manufactured" (a government term for phony charges which were created to incarcerate and thereby silence him).

She has also beaten his children so severely that she was arrested for child abuse, but because of her status with the FBI, the charges were never pressed in court. physical and mental abuse that Gunther's sons have suffered at her hands is enormous. If she were not an FBI agent, she would be in jail. The abuse goes far beyond physical beatings and mental abuse. I don't know if the boys will ever recover fully from what she has done to them. I tell you this, because I believe the only hope the boys have is to leave the United States and live in Austria with their father. Both boys are Austrian citizens and both want to be with their father.

Gunther and I were successful in getting his 21-year sentence overturned on appeal, but only after he had spent four-and-a-half years in prison. During that time, he suffered horribly at the hands of his jailers. Once he was beaten with night sticks while he was showering. This occurred barely six hours after getting out of the hospital. He was in the hospital because he had suffered a heart attack. During the beating, his leg was broken in three places, and he received a concussion. It was at this time that I first called President Kurt Waldheim and begged him to intervene with the state government in Missouri to save Gunther's life. President Waldheim sent the Consul General from Chicago to Missouri to totally unsubstantiated charges against Kurt see the Governor. At the time, Gunther was being held in the oldest prison in the country, just two blocks from the Governor's mansion. As a result of President Waldheim's intervention, Gunther was moved to a secure section of the prison.

It still took another three years to get him released and during this time there were so many attempts to murder him that I lost count. During that same time, my own government tried to murder me seven different times. They tried to kidnap me twice. At one point, the same group who surrounded and burned the compound in Waco, surrounded the house where I was staying. I was warned that I was about to be attacked, and I was able to escape. I have seen cars riddled with bullets and then exploded in front of me. I have seen assassins beaten, shot, run off cliffs and burned to death in front of me. I am not, nor ever have been, an employee of the United States Government. Unlike his first wife, I am not used to seeing people murdered. For most of my adult life I was a wife, married to a senior government official. My former husband, the late Dr. John Dyer, was the nuclear physicist who designed the nuclear warfare program for the United States Navy. As his wife, I lived a very protected and sheltered life.

After the first attempts on our lives, Gunther and I were advised by friends who had been in the same position, that the only way we could hope to stay alive was to begin releasing information on government crimes and corruption. Even after we went public with our story, the attempts continued, but they became more sophisticated. Instead of trying to kill my husband in obvious ways, government officials or their lackeys, tried to cause him to have a heart attack by withholding his heart medicine. God only knows how he survived.

The last attempt to murder him occurred on November 15th, 1993 when he was forced to undergo "emergency" open heart surgery...This surgery was not needed!!! After the surgery, the doctors drained five pints of blood and sent him back to the jail to die. He was placed, just days after open heart surgery, in a cell covered with feces and urine, and forced to clean the cell himself!! You have no idea what he has endured at the hands of this government.

The only reason that he was released was because our personal horror story had grown so large, and so many people around the world knew about us, that the government of the State of Missouri was being embarrassed. They wanted him out of their state, so they released him from the county jail where he had been sent after his 21-year sentence was revoked. But they still wanted to control him, so they held new charges over his head.

On March 13, 1994 there was another attempt to murder him. We were told by friends within the United States Government that the Mossad had dispatched six agents to kill us. We were warned to get out of our apartment. We were also told that the CIA had sent its own assassins to kill the Mossad agents.

Within an hour of the telephone call, we were contacted and told to return home because the problem had been "neutralized". On the way home, we saw the cars containing the Mossad agents. The cars were on fire, with the agents still inside. The very day that Tel Aviv dispatched these agents, the controlled media in this country dragged up unfounded and Waldheim. For two days our newspapers and ducing millions of dollars worth of counterfeit ever get to know him? How long will he have televisions ran lead stories about Herr Dr. Waldheim being a Nazi war criminal. It was not a mere coincidence that these two events happened on the same day!

After a second attempt by the Mound to murder Gunther, three friends took him to Vienna to put him in a hospital. By that time, Gunther had been fed a government "enhancement drug" used in mind control and programming called trichtomine. I was told that this drug brought on "immediate" alcohol addiction, which in turn caused his liver to swell and his kidneys to become infected. I have no idea what else my government said and did to him while he was under the effect of this drug. I have no idea what he was led to believe or what he was told to do after this drug was administered to him. All I know now and knew then, was that he needed medical care, but he was afraid that if he went into a hospital in the United States, he would be murdered. I did not know that the three men who left with him were taking him to Austria. I had been told that he needed to go into hiding before the Mossad killed him. I had no idea that he was going to Vienna.

When he left me, he was so sick that I knew he would die if he didn't get immediate medical help. It has now been over three weeks since I have seen or talked with him. As you can imagine, I am very worried about him. have been told that he is in the hospital, but I haven't been told how he is and what has been done to him. I know my government placed devices inside him when he had open heart surgery. I don't know if your doctors have found the "micro dots" which were placed inside of him to track him and to trigger heart attacks. Ordinary doctors would have no idea what to look for, because ordinary people have never even heard of the devices available to the United States Government. Only a doctor who is familiar with how the intelligence communities work would be able to help him. I pray that you have access to such a doctor.

My husband has tried to escape this country and return to Austria ever since he escaped from a prison camp in Laos in the early seventies. He was sent into Laos by our government to free American prisoners of war. His mission was betrayed by Henry Kissinger who was hoping to win a Nobel peace prize for negotiating an end to the Viet Nam war. Gunther's mission would have interfered with his negotiations.

During his confinement in Laos he was tortured so horribly that it was only by God's grace that he survived. His fingernails were pulled out repeatedly until they never grew back. (I have enclosed a color photograph of what his fingernails looked like when he was forced to work in the prison kitchen. After the heart surgery, Gunther was given a shot of interluken to speed up the healing of his rib cage and broken ribs; the interluken caused his fingernails to grow.) During his repeated eighteen months of continual torture in Laos, his abdomen was sliced open and bamboo shoots were planted in his intestines. After they had taken root, they were ripped out.

give you this information so that you understand what Gunther has undergone at the hands of my government. He tried to leave the United States after he recovered from his torture. But he was immediately setup by the CIA and charged with securities fraud. He was actually involved in a CIA operation to destabilize the Yugoslavian government by intro-bearer bonds into the country. The operation went ahead without him, but he went to prison. It was at this time that he was ordered to marry Peggy and his controllers within the CIA arranged his escape and sent him to Vienna.

After his sons were born, our government used them to keep Gunther in line. During the years that we were trying to stay alive by releasing information about government crimes, his boys sometimes paid the price. They were setup, just like their father, and put in jail. We were told that they would be raped and murdered if we continued to tell the truth. We stopped until we could be assured that we could protect them. But we couldn't protect them all the time. They have been beaten, and kidnapped, bones have been broken, jaws and shoulders dislocated, and their wills all but broken.

Gunther is now in your prison. I do not know why. I do not know how he is being cared for. In the last four-and-a-half years, my own government has tried to murder me, commit me to a mental hospital, arrest me and put me in prison. They have accused me of trying to assassinate President George Bush, they have murdered my friend and lawyer, Paul Wilcher, they have bankrupted me and my mother, they have cut off all our funds until we had to rely on our Catholic charities for food. Even today, I don't know where the money is coming from to pay the rent which is due in ten days. I have lived like this for four years while I struggled to free my husband and keep all of us alive. And now that he and I have been successful in freeing him from an American prison, he ends up in an Austrian prison. I am close to losing all hope that he and I will ever be able to live together as husband and wife.

After giving you this background information, I am asking that you review my husband's history and discover how he came to work for my government. He had no choice!!! If he had not gone to work for my government, members of his family would have been turned over to the Jews to be tried as Nazi war criminals. Just look at what they tried to do to Dr. Waldheim! The members of my husband's family, who were used as the pawns to control him, were not as lucky as Dr. Waldheim. These people had been forced, by my government, to come to this country and go to work for various agencies. If they ever tried to leave, their loved ones were killed or incarcerated, or the threat of this was held over their heads. This was part of the price that Austria paid in 1955 in order to become one country again. Many of its leading citizens and their children were forced into exile. This is a part of history that Americans aren't told.

My husband has been controlled by threats, coercion, incarceration and blackmail for over thirty years.

I am sorry that this letter has been so lengthy. I hope you will respond to this letter by telling me what charges my husband is being held on, and what treatment he has been receiving. I would also hope that you can tell me what the length of his sentence will be if he is found guilty. I also pray that Austrian justice is swift and tempered with compassion. In the four-and-a-half years that we have been married, we have only been together since December of 1993...a short period of three-and-a-half months. During that time he was so ill that all my time was spent trying to keep him alive.

to stay in prison in Austria? I worry that I will be held hostage in this country to insure that Gunther never comes back and never tells the Even now I worry that "so-called" friends, who I know are government employees, have set me up in order to have me thrown in prison.

I have been told by the Counsul General in Chicago that Austria will not extradite its own citizens. I pray that this is true. If Gunther comes back to this country he will be thrown back in prison, and in his present condition, he would not live one day in an American

Thank you for your time. I hope you will take the time to answer the questions I have asked. Since it takes over a week to mail a letter, could you fax your reply to the Austrian Consul General and ask Consul General Kreishbaum to fax your letter to me? Their number is: 312-222-4113 fax; 312-222-1515 telephone.

My telephone and fax number are the same, 408-475-7336. I will not have a telephone for many more weeks, because I cannot pay the bill. Gunther made many calls to Vienna while he was here with me. The bill is very high, and since I cannot pay it, it will be disconnected around the first of May. I tell you this because I am hoping you will fax a reply before it is disconnected.

Respectfully, Rayelan Russbacher

Herr Dr. Kurt Waldheim In Care of President Thomas Klestil The Federal President of the Republic of Austria A-1014 Wien, Austria Postfach 10

Dear Dr. Waldheim,

Once more I find that I must write to you and request your help.

It was February of 1992 when I first contacted you. At that time my husband had just been beaten by prison guards and thrown in the "hole", otherwise known as solitary confinement. In American prisons it is well known that men in the "hole" sometimes commit "suicide", and when I contacted you I was afraid that if someone of your stature did not intervene my husband would be found "suicided", a new term in the American language for a political murder victim.

I am sure that you know that my husband has been in the United States Navy for over 30 years, and that his only crime was knowing too much about the illegal activities of the United States Government, specifically the Iran/ Contra scandal.

Shortly after I called you at home and asked for your help, the Consul General from Chicago paid a visit to my husband and to the Governor of Missouri. I know that it was his physical presence which saved my husband's life. You will always have my undying grati-Will my husband live long enough for me to tude for what you have already done to save him

Gunther and I were successful in getting his 21-year prison sentence in the State of Missouri overturned on appeal. He was released from incarceration December 15, 1993. Apirl 27, 1994 While in custody he was forced to undergo open heart surgery (11-15-93). He never really recovered from the surgery; indeed, I am sure that was the purpose for the surgery. His condition continued to worsen, and no matter what we tried to do for him, it only succeeded in making him worse.

On March 13th of this year, we were warned by the CIA that Tel Aviv had dispatched six agents to kill Gunther. We were told to get out of the house while the CIA took care of the problem. About a half-hour later, while we were on the road, we were contacted and told it was safe to go home. On the way home, we passed the three cars which we were told belonged to the Mossad agents. They were on fire, with the agents still inside. The same day the Israelis attacked us, with intent to kill all of us, they also let loose a new attack on you, as I am sure you are aware. You understand, better than I, what the timing of the two events is about.

One week later another Mossad team was dispatched. Gunther, my mother and I were taken by U.S. Government agents and put under guard in hiding. The following Friday I was told that my mother and I could return home, but it wasn't safe for Gunther to go with us. I said good-bye to him thinking that I would see him in a few days, but in a few days the news I heard was very distressing.

I was told that the three men who left with him had decided to take him to Vienna to check him into a ! spital. However, Gunther was arrested at the airport and taken into

For one week I heard nothing from anyone...no matter how hard I tried. Then a woman, identifying herself as Mrs. Kirschlag, a prison social worker, called to tell me that Gunther was in the prison hospital. She gave me the name of the prison: Justizanstalty Josafstadt, Wiccanburgwassa. She also gave me her telephone number 222-40040 33601. She told me that the judge in the case is Mrs. Dr. Oltnar and her telephone number is: 222-40127 1593 or 1670.

I have tried to reach the Judge, but I do not April 27, 1994 speak German and no one in her office speaks English. I am afraid that in frustration, her staff has hung up on me. I cannot blame them.

It has now been five weeks since I have heard from my husband. All I know is that he is in the hospital recovering from an earlier surgery. He certainly needed medical help. I'm sure he would have died here in America.

I have heard nothing from my husband, from the Consul General in Chicago, or from the American Embassy in Vienna. All I want is to hear from my husband. I want to know how he is feeling and what his health prognosis is. I also want to know what charges he is being held on and how serious these charges are. I have discovered that the court should have appointed a lawyer for him, but I do not know who this person is.

I pray that you can do one more favor for me and find a way to have my husband contact me. After everything he and I have been through in our short marriage, I cannot bear the thought of him dying so far away, without me by his side. Please, can you help one more time?

Thank you for everything you have already asked your advice about what can be done regarding my husband who is currently in a Vienna prison hospital.

I have received no word from my husband over five weeks now. I am very worried.

While he was incarcerated and abused in the Missouri (USA) prison system, I kept your office and the Chicago office fully briefed. I know that the phone calls that were made by Amnesty International to the governor of Missouri helped us in obtaining his freedom.

His twenty-one-year prison sentence was reversed on appeal and he was released from incarceration December 15, 1993. In case you are not familiar with his case, I have enclosed the recent letters which were written to the Vienna Judge and to the President and former President of Austria.

I am trying to find out how he is and why he is in prison. I also wonder why I have received no letter from him.

I have also faxed you the letter which I sent to Dr. Hansak from the Vienna Red Cross. I do not believe that Dr. Hansak will ever receive this information because it first had to be approved by the American Red Cross. In other words, unless the American Red Cross allows the Vienna Red Cross to intervene in this matter, Dr. Hansak can do nothing. Is that really their policy? Is there any way you can fax the information to the Red Cross in Vienna?

Do you have an office in Vienna? If you do, can you fax this information to them? Thank you very much.

Dr. Hansak, from the Vienna Red Cross advised me that I needed to go through you in order to obtain help from him for an Austrian problem.

He is awaiting the following information.

Please fax to Dr. Hansak as soon as possible. As you know they are six hours later than you. 9:00 AM EST is 3:00 PM in Vienna. I would very much appreciate it if Dr. Hansak received the documents today so that I can call him tomorrow.

Thank you,

From: Rayelan Russbacher, Mrs. Gunther Karl Russbacher

On Monday, March 28, 1994 my husband Gunther Karl Russbacher was arrested at the Vienna International Airport. I was advised of My friend Dominick, called you today and this by the three men who accompanied him to Austria.

> I called the President's office to verify that this was true. President Klestil's secretary informed me that my husband had been arrested and taken to a hospital.

> I called the Consul General who told me that he believed the charges were passport related. He said he would get back to me when he knew more.

> For one week I heard nothing. Then a social worker named Mrs. Kirschlag called to say that my husband was in a prison named Justizanstaltz Josafstadt, Wiccanburgwassa. He was in the prison hospital and he was doing fine. Her telephone number is: 222-4040-33601.

> Mrs. Kirschlag also told me that his judge is Mrs. Dr. Oltnar. Telephone number 222-40127-1593 or 1670.

I was told that prisoners at this jail cannot make telephone calls. I was told that my husband has written a letter to me, but I have not received it. I was also told that if I go to Austria to visit him I can only visit for fifteen minutes on Monday and Wednesday.

I wish to hear from my husband. I need to know how he is. He was near death when he entered Austria. He had just undergone open heart surgery and was suffering many compli-

I am asking the Red Cross to visit him and make sure that he is alive and well. I would also like to know if he is receiving my letters, if he has written, if he needs any money, and why he is in prison.

The pertinent facts from his United States records show that he was born:

> 07-01-1944 in Kirchen Mother: Elizabeth Weissel Father: Karl Russbacher

His Austrian birth certificate will show that he was born 07-01-1942.

Thank you for your help. It will ease my mind greatly to hear from him or to hear that someone has seen and talked with him.

Dear CONTACT,

Thank you for your message on the CON-TACT Telephone Hotline. Your readers have already started calling and their loving messages of understanding and support have lifted my spirits more than you can imagine.

I am afraid that my human emotions are getting in the way, and I find myself caught in a continuous loop of worry and fear. Your callers, who felt moved to reach out and *Contact" me tl.is morning, were successful in short-circuiting the loop for today. Thank you, and thank your Readers.

I have also enclosed the reply from the American Red Cross. I am not surprised at their "diplomatic" refusal to get involved. The American Red Cross has consistently stated to me that my problems with Gunther's incarceration and abusive treatment at the hands of the Missouri prison authorities, did not fall under their "mission's directive".

I have often wondered if I would have gotten the same reply if someone other than Elizabeth Dole were the Director of the American Red Cross. Gunther has repeatedly told me of her involvement, through a "blind trust", in a series of real estate and Savings and Loan scams and failures, which, if exposed, could make Whitewater look as serious as 'jaywalk-

Dear Mrs. Russbacher:

Your fax of April 27th was referred by Mrs. Dole's office to the Office of International Services for action.

I have consulted with my colleague at the International Committee of the Red Cross concerning your husband's arrest and hospitalization. Regrettably the protections of the Geneva Conventions do not apply to this situation as it is not involving a conflict; ICRC would conduct a visit if your husband was detained due to war. National Red Cross societies, such as the Austrian Red Cross do not conduct this type of visit.

My alternate suggestions to you to secure the information you want concerning your husband's medical condition and his legal status are the following:

1) You may want to consider contacting the Overseas Citizens Service, U.S. Department of State at 202-736-7430. This office is responsible for securing information on the arrests of American citizens as well as medical reports. You may want to contact the U.S. Consulate in Vienna directly by phone: 011-43-1-31339 or fax: 011-43-1-5134351. The consulate usually receives reports on arrested Americans but your husband may have been too ill to advise the Austrian authorities of his American citizenship.

2) If you do not wish to use this channel you may want to consider contacting Amnesty International at 212-807-8400.

I regret I cannot offer more. Sincerely, /s/ Ms. Mary-Lou McCutcheon Director, International Social Services

COMMENTS?? About the only comment I can find to express is "Oh my!" What an interesting list of farewell speakers were chosen! How sad and depressing that the beauty of the nation's top songs and "meanings" were expressed with such beauty and so 'nothing' in content. Did I actually hear Kissinger at the point of tears? This is one of THE major players in the destruction of Nixon. Well, perhaps it was a dirty job but "somebody had to do it."

And the rest? Have you ever witnessed so many politicians together in their old age, perhaps wondering what their own transition celebration would be like? No. I have no comments and neither do I JUDGE; it is not for me and it is not for you—to JUDGE A MAN. IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO JUDGE EV-ERY ACTION BY THOSE YOU SET INTO SUCH HIGH OFFICE AND ALLOW THEM TO DE-STROY AND COMMITTREASON AGAINST THE VERY MOTHER THAT BIRTHED YOU.

We will move away from Jackson's story for this day [Jackson's episodes start on p. 2] and return to Rodney Stich's Defrauding America Stich's story continues below from where we left off in the 4/26/94 CONTACT, p. 13]. We are going to take up in the ending portions of his updated printing so that you who have the original will be able to catch up and also because it becomes more pertinent to this day. We are noting that our various authors are finding discrepancies in each other's material-EXCELLENT! They are also finding interactions appropriate and eye-opening. I am not going to correct much as we move along-that is better coming forth from the authors themselves as they reach unified "conclusions". When we get around to the "old" Phoenix Project and its relationship to our current project, then we will have a team worthy of recognition of TRUTH of presence and circumstance. It is always so much more interesting when you have ones of your own expression who HAVE BEEN THERE.

turn to the subject of Israel. I know that you think, "Oh dear, more blasting and assaults and everybody better duck." No, we are simply presenting more of the SAME material as already offered but with more and greater CON-FIRMATION. Remember that we have a "battle" but WE ARE NOT AT WAR! MAN WILL HAVE HIS WARS—IT WILL NOT BE NECESSARY THAT WE DO SO.

My hopes are, however, that you are awakening to your circumstances and considering a revolvement and reclamation of your nation and LAWS and regaining of FREEDOM. I know that most people refer to that action as "revolution". I choose not to define a reversal BACK into truth to be what today is defined as "revolution" for in most instances "revolution" represents WAR. You need no "wars", but rather, you must define your actions and move into winning one battle at a time until you have retaken your property and freedom. Evil will ultimately devour itself. "I" pick no quarrel as my mission is to offer you readers FACTS and TRUTH that YOU MIGHT CHOOSE YOUR OWN ACTIONS FOR IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY AND NOT MINE. BUT, DEAR ONES, I AM HERE IF YOU WANT MEI

DEFRAUDING AMERICA, Part 20 by Rodney Stich

[QUOTING:]

(Chapter 28, Page 507)

ISRAEL, THE MOSSAD AND AMERICA

Israeli officials and agencies, and particularly its intelligence agency, the Mossad, aided and abetted many of the criminal activities described within these pages, inflicting great harm upon the American people. Without the assistance of the Israelis, some of the treasonous and subversive acts against the United States would not have been possible, especially the October Surprise operation. Israel was needed to transship the arms to Iran and to act as end-users on the bill-of-lading.

KILLING PEOPLE WHO DISAGREE WITH ISRAELI POLICIES

Similar to CIA activities, and possibly worse in some respects, the Mossad doesn't hesitate to assassinate people whose lawful conduct As we write this day I am choosing to again irritates the Israelis. Gerald Bull, a Canadian scientist who developed the Super Gun used by Iraq, was killed by the Mossad at his Brussels apartment in March 1990 (Profits of War, Ari Ben-Menashe). Israeli assassination squads killed Bull to halt his development of the Supergun project for the Iraqis.

During that same time frame, Israeli agents were assassinating others, as reported by former Mossad officers Ari Ben-Menashe and Victor Ostrovsky in their books (Profits of War, by Ari Ben-Menashe; By Way of Deception, by Victor Ostrovsky and Claire Hoy). Nineteen people were killed by Israeli agents within several weeks in 1990, including eight German scientists hired by a company in Miami and who were traveling back and forth to Iraq; a German scientist, Hans Mayers, in a car "accident" in Munich; four Iraqi businessmen, and two Pakistani scientists in Britain. A television production aired on June 17, 1993, focused on the many killings by the Mossad, including the botched killing in Sweden of the wrong person by Mossad operative Michael (Freddy) Harari. One of the favorite stunts was to put a pressure sensitive plastic-explosive bomb in the victim's bed. When the intended victim lay on the bed the bomb went off. Another tactic was to place plastic explosives in a telephone handset, and when the person answered, and the caller identified him as the intended victim, the bomb would be set off by a signal carried over the telephone wire. Although the plastic explosive was small in size, it usually caused fatal injuries. [H: Remember, readers: The New York Trade Center was bombed with use of what is called "AN ISRAELI BRIEFCASE BOMB".]

Victor Ostrovsky detailed the specifics of several of the killings by Israeli agents, describing the composition of the Israeli assassination department inside the Mossad as a small internal unit called kidon, divided into three teams consisting of approximately twelve men each.

Ostrovsky described the shooting down of a Boeing 727 operated by Libyan Arab Airlines by two Israeli jets, killing over a hundred people. He told how two Israeli agents killed Arab scientist Yahia El Meshad, by slipping into his apartment with a passkey and then cutting his throat while he slept. He also told how the Mossad killed a PLO official in Paris who was preparing to meet with the French Secret Service.

[H: I will interrupt here to point out that part of the reasoning behind offering the sordid experiences of Ronn Jackson in "his field of service" is so that you can catch onto some reality that these are actually things that happen—and happen constantly and easily.

I also ask that you all turn to the letters of Rayelan Russbacher in this edition of the paper and really read them. (Editor's note: Rayelan's story starts on p. 17.) I will reprint back to the incident with Dharma on "that" Sunday a while back when we had to move into action to protect our people. Bo Gritz ridiculed our interaction and made great sport of the events to cause total discounting of the incident. No, it was very real indeed and it was also entangled with Mossad agents. I reported that Ekkers (and an accompanying Special Forces officer) were enroute in the area of San Luis Obispo County to meet "Robert Walker", et al. Well, readers, Robert Walker is Gunther Russbacher and Gunther Russbacher is from a very, very high-level ruling family of Austria. If you think these encounters by death squads do not happen or are as "silly" as Gritz made it appear-forget it, go back and read Jackson's presentations-and THOSE involved were only drug dealers and filthy politicians. The Elite will not back off until they have to do so and our desire is to have that happen without encounters of hostility by beings out of your time frame and space warp. The Elite are just waiting to find the proper moment to dump the LIE of space alien invasion upon you—what will be your attitude? Well, so be it, for that is the reason we are so careful in this offering-so that you will KNOW differences and that TRUTH shall prevail even in the midst of the false stories and lies. Technology on your place is phenomenal, so almost anything that you THINK is science fiction—is reality of experience these days. We will get back to th! a bit later.]

A December 14, 1992, issue of SPOTLIGHT carried a story about Israeli assassination squads operating in foreign countries under the title, "Foreign Killers Run Loose in U.S." The article related how Israeli-trained assassins, funded by U.S. taxpayers, are entering Liberty carried clear markings indicating it to the United States, often with the help of the be an American ship, and Israel knew that. As

"For damage control, to prevent the American public from learning the truth, the powerful U.S.-

funded Israel lobby in the United States sprang into action with disinformation to the media, and pressure on members of Congress who were recipients of their political contributions

(i.e., U.S. taxpayers' money). It worked."

CIA, leaving a trail of unsolved and unreported killings. The report explained how the United States is funding the Mossad's criminal operations in Third World countries.

Ben-Menashe's book portrays the Mossad's hiring of Arabs who unknowingly carried out terrorist attacks against Americans, inflaming the American public against the Arabs, who didn't know the attacks were planned and directed by the Mossad. He also tells how Mossad agents paid Palestinians to seize the Mediterranean cruise ship, Achille Lauro in 1985, which ended in the killing of one of the passengers. Ironically, the passenger was Jewish. Ari Ben-Menashe wrote in his book, Profits of War, that the attack upon the cruise ship was financed by Israel and its intent was "to show what a deadly, cutthroat bunch the Palestinians were." The American public was told that the attack upon the Achille fact, it was engineered and financed by Israel.

ISRAEL'S ADMISSION OF WORLDWIDE ASSASSINATIONS

A London Observer article carried in the San Francisco Examiner on November 24, 1993 was headlined, "Israeli official admits unleashportions herein because I ask that you think ing assassins." The article described the practice of Israel's military-security establishments carrying out assassinations on a global basis, many of them specifically authorized by Israel's prime ministers, including Golda Meir. The article admitted the mistaken assassination of a waiter in the Norwegian town of Lillehammer, thinking the victim was a PLO terrorist, Ali Hasan Salameh. Israeli officials admitted the disclosures by retired Major General Aharon Yariv on state-controlled Israeli Television, but felt that the information should have remained secret.

SPREADING OPPRESSION

UN official Lt. Col. Tren Lagerkrantz said that the U.S.-funded operation carried out by the Mossad has brought "nothing but oppression, cruelty, bloodshed, corruption and ultimately turmoil* to the backward regions where it operated. (The same, of course, applies to U.S. Intelligence Agencies.) The SPOTLIGHT article quoted Lagerkrantz:

Since Congress has decided to grant the most aid to governments who agree to let Israel train and equip their security troops, it has been precisely those African nations where the Mossad has been most active-Sudan, Zaire, Somalia, Liberia-that have suffered the worst outbreaks of famine, violence and disorder.

AMERICAN VICTIMS

Israel didn't limit their assassinations to Arabs. Israeli forces deliberately machinegunned and bombed a virtually unarmed U.S. Navy communication ship, the U.S.S. Liberty, off the coast of Lebanon on June 8, 1967. The > the Israeli aircraft approached the Liberty, the fighter pilots radioed and protested to their base, "It's an American ship!" Tel Aviv disregarded the pilots' protests, and ordered the fighters to attack. The brutal and bloody assault continued for almost half an hour, during which time missiles, napalm, and torpedoes were used to kill thirty-four U.S. Navy men and injuring 171 others.

The U.S. sailors had intercepted Israeli radio communications relating to a planned attack on Syria which occurred the following day, and Israel felt the Americans would expose the sneak attack.

For damage control, to prevent the American public from learning the truth, the powerful U.S.-funded Israel lobby in the United States sprang into action with disinformation to the media, and pressure on members of Congress who were recipients of their political contributions (i.e., U.S. taxpayers' money). It worked. The American public never learned Lauro was a Palestinian operation when, in the truth. Even White House officials acted to protect Israel, publicly accepting Israel's apology that the attack was an accident. American service men were expendable, as they were in Vietnam and other CIA operations.

> Seeking to evade blame, Israel asserted that they thought the Liberty was another ship, the El Quseir. They were lying. But that then constructing its own, selling the secret Egyptian supply ship was in Alexandria, a fact known to Israel. The ugly truth of the deliberate killing of U.S. military personnel by Israel was shown through radio messages intercepted by the American embassy in Beirut, which were slowly and belatedly leaked out. In 1991, former U.S. Ambassador Dwight Porter revealed the radio communications intercepted by his office in Lebanon on that fateful day in 1967, revealing that Israeli commanders knew the ship was an American ship and that they were killing American sailors.

Porter's revelations are supported by Seth Mintz, a Major in Israel's IDF (Israeli Defense Forces). (Residing in Houlton, Maine. He was a U.S. citizen who went to Israel in 1962, joining the Israeli Army in 1965, and assigned to the IDF war room during the Six-Day War with Syria.) Mintz was present in IDF headquarters for several hours before starting the attack on the U.S. communication ship. Shortly after Mintz made these statements he was threatened by Mossad agents; causing him to recant his earlier statements. In a dispatch in Ha'aretz on November 7, 1991, Mintz expressed "grave anxiety over the media interest in him' relating to the Liberty affair. He told Ha'aretz, "Everyone is after me now and that is what I'm afraid of. I don't need the Mossad (Mossad is the Israeli highly secret intelligence service and worldwide network of agents; much of it is funded by the United States) and Shin Bet (acts in a similar manner as the Mossad, performing for the military), knocking on my door." His knowledge of Mossad's assassination squads and their practice of assassinations certainly justified his anxiety.

The orders to attack the U.S. Navy communication ship came from a high Israeli official, reportedly General Yitzhak Rabin, who later became Israel's Laborite Prime Minister. President George Bush's White House staff tried to portray Israel's Rabin as a peacemaker, despite his long history of terrorist activities.

STEALING U.S. MILITARY SECRETS

Secret weapon technology sent to Israel has been repeatedly copied, stolen, and sold to foreign countries, violating agreements with the United States. In Dangerous Liaison—The Inside Story of the U.S.-Israeli Covert Relationship, authors Andrew and Leslie Cockburn describe the symbiotic relationship between the United States and Israeli intelligence networks, the stealing of nuclear fuel by Israel from the Nuclear Materials and Equipment Corporation plant at Apollo, Pennsylvania, in 1968; Israeli and CIA involvement with the Medellin drug cartel and Guatemalan death squads; and other treasonous activities. Dangerous Liaison describes the cover-up of the nuclear fuel theft by U.S. and Israeli officials, abdicating the loyalty to the United States and protecting those inflicting harm. Their book portrays the role played by the CIA and Mossad in drug trafficking, including relations with the Medellin drug cartel, and their role in the Guatemalan death squads.

Reports in the March 15, 1992, New York Times and Wall Street Journal related the long pattern of illegal sales by Israel of U.S. weapon technology. The articles revealed that Israel does this by either installing the U.S. components in an Israeli weapon system, or disassembling the weapon to discover how it works, and hostile to the U.S. interests.

Israel received Patriot missiles worth hundreds of millions of dollars from the United States, and was required to keep the technology secret. Instead, Israel sold the patriot missiles and their technology to other countries, including China, in clear violation of U.S. law. A State Department report (New York Times, April 4, 1992), accused Israel of engaging for nearly ten years in a "systematic" pattern of reselling cutting-edge U.S. military technology to Third World countries, some of whom were adversaries to the United States.

The report described how Washington officials protected this unlawful transfer of U.S. technology by ordering U.S. investigators in Israel not to check on the destination of U.S. technology sent to Israel, as is required of all other countries. Israel, using money supplied by U.S. taxpayers, retains powerful Washington law firms and bribes U.S. officials to carry out their dirty work against the United States.

DOTAN AFFAIR

Another example of Israeli attacks upon U.S. interests was the Dotan affair, in which U.S. corporations paid bribes to Israeli officials, the bribes coming from U.S. taxpayers. Over $11 million in bribe money was diverted from General Electric Company through a small New Jersey front company to European bank accounts controlled by Israel Brigadier General Rami Dotan, who was convicted by an Israeli military court of theft and fraud. The case involved bribery, money-laundering, violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, insider trading, ar l'espionage.

A General Electric official, Herbert Steindler, was considered a partner in the illicit schemes. Both General Electric and Pratt and Whitney knew the United States was being defraude-1, but it was profitable for them to remain quiet, to become co-conspirators. Falsified Bills of Lading and shipment of fictitious equipment were all part of the scheme that was paid by U.S. taxpayers. Shell companies were used for facilitating the payoffs.

General Electric agreed to pay $69 million in fines, penalties and damages, and pleaded guilty to defrauding the United States in the sale of military equipment to Israel. Israeli officials impeded the investigation by U.S. officials, despite the fact that U.S. funds were the United States, from the treasonous activiinvolved.

Duplicating its denial of involvement in the October Surprise affair, the Israeli government claimed itself innocent in the Dotan matter. But the facts speak otherwise. It is believed that the millions of dollars diverted from engine orders of United Technologies and General Electric through front companies were for the purpose of Israeli covert operations. [H: Please note that anywhere a market is opened up in "other" countries, even Russian, General Electric IS ONE OF THE FIRST CORPORATIONS TO MOVE IN!! THIS FACT HELPS NEGATE ACCUSATIONS OF TECH-NOLOGY FLOWING "FROM" THE U.S.-IN OTHER WORDS, THERE IS LEGITIMATE MAIN-LINE OPERATION NOT EVEN NOTED BY THE U.S. This is the same for many other operations, like Kissinger Associates, et al., but it is a cute way to divert attention and not longer be locked into U.S. rules and regulations.]

Most of the diverted money came from U.S. foreign-aid programs destined for Israel. This ment of the United States, including Presi- Israeli Mosrad in the United States. In 1993 technology to foreign countries who may be money-diversion had been known to be standard and unlawful practice for years to members of Congress, its investigative arm, the General Accounting Office, and White House officials.

> Congressman and House Energy and Commerce Committee Chairman John Dingell stated that Congress has been reluctant to embarrass Israel politically. This attitude exists because of past retaliatory measures inflicted upon members of Congress by the Israeli lobby when Israel's activities were questioned.

POLLARD AFFAIR

Israeli agents paid a U.S. Navy intelligence analyst, Jonathan Jay Pollard, to steal military secrets, using a Washington apartment owned by attorney Harold Katz. Israel paid Pollard for his treasonous activities from the money given to Israel by the U.S. The seriousness of the spying operation was reflected by the life sentence given to Pollard on June 4, 1986, by Chief District Judge Aubrey Robinson in Washington. But Israel's Zionist lobby in the United States protected Israel from any fallout.

ISRAEL, THE MOSSAD, AND DRUG TRAFFICKING

Several of my CIA informants, some of whom were pilots with me in the Middle East, described to me in minute detail the role they observed which the Mossad played in drug trafficking into the United States. These CIA people described their direct personal and business contracts with the Mossad, relating to the drug trafficking from South and Central America into the United States.

They described how Mossad agents, including Michael Harari and David Kimche, for instance, were present at many of the drug transshipment points and especially in Panama. They described to me the joint shipment of CIA and Mossad drugs in CIA and DEA aircraft, with the Mossad drugs identified by triangles on the drug packages, resulting from dissembling of the Star of David on the bags.

CIA AND THE MOSSAD

The CIA and Mossad have a symbiotic relationship, jointly inflicting great harm upon ties of October Surprise to the devastating drug epidemic destroying America. Together, they have inflicted unmeasurable financial and other harm upon the American people. Both engaged in assassinations and, while the CIA has by far the record in mass assassinations going into the tens of thousands, the Mossad has the record for individual assassinations in Europe and the United States.

Several of my CIA contacts have warned me against saying anything unfavorable about the Mossad or Israel in my book, making reference to the pattern of assassinations by the Mossad when they believe their interests are adversely affected.

The treasonous and subversive CIA October Surprise operation could not have occurred without the cooperation of the Mossad and other Israeli officials. They knew the October Surprise operation was defrauding the United States and became co-conspirators. It was profitable for Israel. Israel was dents Ronald Reagan and then George Bush. Besides, any member of Congress who dared to investigate and retaliate against Israel faced the prospect of being defeated at the polls as the Zionist lobby routinely funds opposition candidates.

Former Mossad agent Ben-Menashe described Israel's involvement in the October Surprise operations, which conformed with statements made to me by several CIA people with whom I had been in frequent contact for several years, including Russbacher and Riconosciuto. Israeli agents were at the Madrid, Barcelona, and Paris meetings, as related to me by Russbacher and Ari Ben-Menashe. Israel knew the October Surprise operation was an act of treason, and they aided and abetted it.

ENORMOUS POWER OF THE ISRAEL LOBBY

One of the most powerful forces in the United States is the Anti-Defamation League, whose parent is B'nai B'rith. Much of the money used to bribe members of Congress and other federal officials is sent to the United States by Israel, which obtains the money from U.S. loans and grants that are rarely repaid. Through its powerful Zionist group it can fund campaigns to defeat politicians not adhering to Zionist wishes.

ADL blocks any exposure of wrongful activities by Israel and its Mossad. It spends huge sums of money to oppose members of Congress whose interests are not aligned with Israel. Much of all of this money comes from the U.S. taxpayers who provide loans or grants that are not repaid. One tactic used to silence those who report or criticize the Mossad or Israel's conduct is to label them an anti-Semite. It is risky business for a public official to defend U.S. interests when it means confrontation with the Zionists. Apparently anyone who disagrees with Israel is anti-Semitic, and the vast control by Israel over the U.S. media will be sure the American people hear this ADL has been able to defuse any attention focused upon unlawful activities of people connected with Israel or the Mossad. The ADL lauded a major Jewish crime figure, Morris Barney Dalitz of Las Vegas, who regularly donated heavily to the ADL. Dalitz was called Chairman of the Board to such crime figures as Meyer Lansky and Benjamin "Bugsy" Siegel. Lansky and Siegel were members of the original "Murder Incorporated", also known as the Meyer and Bugsy Gang. An ADL chairman, Irv Rubin, was accused in 1992 of plotting a murder-for-hire operation.

In American Jewish Organizations and Israel, author Lee O'Brien states of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (ADL):

In later years, ADL has turned to ... aggressive measures ... outright surveillance of individuals and groups, the results of which are fed into both the Israeli intelligence-gathering apparatus, via their consulates and embassy, and American domestic intelligence, via the FBI. Top ADL officials have admitted the use of clandestine surveillance techniques.

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith then able to blackmail officials in the govern- has been functioning as the action arm of the an ADL spy scandal erupted in San Francisco. after which it was discovered that the ADL had scandal surfaced after it was discovered that San Francisco police inspector Tom Gerard was stealing police intelligence files and selling them to the ADL. (San Francisco Chronicle, May 8, 1993)

It was learned during the investigation that Roy Bullock was an ADL operative spying on numerous individuals and groups in the United States. According to an April 9, 1993 Los Angeles Times article the ADL disguised payments made to Bullock by funnelling the money through Beverly Hills attorney Bruce Hochman, who in turn paid Bullock. Hochman was a prominent ADL figure, and a member of a panel appointed by Governor Pete Wilson to recommend the names of attorneys for federal judgeships. This helps explain why the inordinately high percentage of federal judges are Jewish.

During a three-hour press interview in the Philippines Gerard revealed that he was a former CIA operative and had evidence that the CIA trained, supported, and encouraged death squads operating in El Salvador, Honduras and Guatemala during the 1980s. The sheer brutality of the carnage was too much for him, and he left the CIA in 1985. This was not good guys versus bad guys," Gerard said. "This was evil, evil. ... This was something the devil himself was involved in. And I wanted no part of it."

Gerard described how the CIA supported the death squads that tortured and murdered thousands of people in Central America, including political opponents, union members, peasants, clergy, throughout Central America. Gerard stated that the San Francisco police and the FBI have joined forces to discredit him. Following its standard practice of lying, a CIA spokesman denied that Gerard had any relationship with the Agency.

CIVIL RIGHTS UNDER ISRAEL'S GOVERNMENT

Civil rights are largely ignored in Israel. Only those with Jewish mothers have full stature in Israel, a form of apartheid. Christians and Moslem Palestinians are deprived of their basic human rights in Israel, and United States has been subsidizing this Israeli socialism, or Israel's form of apartheid. The Israeli government regulates and controls almost every facet of personal and business endeavors.

In late 1992, Israeli officials deported 415 Palestinians from their homes, forcing them into the mountains, and barring relief supplies that the Red Cross tried to deliver to them. Those deported included doctors, accountants, lawyers, lecturers, and engineers, some of whom were elderly, and some of whom had heart problems or were crippled. They were driven into a no-man's land in the mountains as winter approached.

An Israeli human rights group (Betselem, the Israeli Center of Human Rights in the Occupied Territories) charged their government with routinely torturing Palestinian political prisoners, reporting that "Violence and ill-treatment have become an expected part of interrogations." The report stated that at least 5,000 of the 25,000 Palestinian prisoners jailed been acting as proxy for the Mossad. The in the previous year had been tortured, while Palestinians stated the percentage was much higher. An April 3, 1993, New York Times article was entitled, "Israeli Study Finds Torture Common*.

AMERICAN TAXPAYERS FUND THESE ACTIVITIES

bers of Congress. Billions of dollars in loans have been given to Israel that will never be repaid, the cost of which must be borne by the American taxpayer, plus the interest on the money. In 1991 Israel literally demanded that the U.S. guarantee $10 billion in loans to build housing for Jews in land taken from Jordan.

Despite the enormous amount of gifts to Israel, their appreciation was reflected in the 1991 statement by Israel's Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir, as he attempted to lay a guilt-trip on the United States, claiming it had an obligation to help settle Soviet Jews in Israel through the guarantee of a $10 million loan.

In 1991, the United States taxpayers paid over $4.3 billion in aid to Israel. Israel then invested these funds in U.S. savings bonds for which the United States paid Israel over $34 million in interest (on the money that the United States gave to Israel in the first place).

From 1974 to 1989, Israel received $16.4 billion in loans that would never be repaid. The loans were secretly converted to grants, which did not have to be repaid. The reason the White House officials referred to the money transfer as loans in the first place was to avoid U.S. oversight, which is required only of money grants. By this time the money had already been used, and there was no control over how it was used.

If Israel defaults on the $10 billion loan and the American taxpayer is forced to make the payments, interest and principle have been reported to total $116 billion over a 30-year repayment period.

ISRAELI CITIZENS HAVE SIMILAR PROBLEMS WITH CORRUPT GOVERNMENT AND INTELLIGENCE AGENCIES

Government officials in control of Israel's foreign relations and its intelligence agency, the Mossad, have engaged in a pattern of criminal acts inflicting great harm upon American citizens, including those of Jewish faith. This indictment of those operating under the flag of Israel does not indict the average citizen of Israel any more than the criminal activities by U.S. officials indict the average Ameri-

Defrauding America by RODNEY STICH

One of the most explosive books on the market for understanding the pattern of hardcore criminal activities implicating high federal officials and how it affects the American people. It describes and documents epidemic corruption by federal officials, and a pattern of criminal misuse of federal offices against the American public. The contents are supported by a group of former federal investigators, covert intelligence agency operatives and contract agents, former FBI, police, and private investigators, composing a block of whistleblowers.

Among the corrupt activities described in Defrauding America are the following:

- Epidemic drug trafficking into the United States.
- Role played by the CIA in Savings and Loan and HUD looting.
- Conversion of Chapter 11 courts into a criminal enterprise.
- October Surprise and its criminal coverup.
- The ugly part of the Iran-Contra scandal. Inslaw, the tip of Justice Department
- Covert CIA financial institutions dealing in drug money laundering.
- Crooked federal judges and Justice Depart-
- ment attorneys. Felony persecution of informants by Justice
- Department attorneys and federal judges. Killings and mysterious deaths of informants and whistleblowers.
- Schemes to assassinate or remove U.S. Presidents and presidential candidates.

Subject: "Jim Vassilos"

Dear Mr. Harrell:

From: Michael Maholy #19365-009 P.M.B. 1000 Tallahassee, FL 32301

I am contacting you, at the request of a close friend of mine named Jim Vassilos, who is a resident of Chicago, Ill., and is also an American Patriot that has tried to make a difference in this world that is most often ruled by the powers of lust and greed.

Let me first give you a short background of myself, so that you may decide for yourself, what I am about to tell you is truly the facts as I have come to know them.

I was in the military for almost seventeen years, and was in the branch of the U.S. Navy Office Of Intelligence, (O.N.I.) since the late 70s, on into the late 80s. Also, I had been what they call a "contract" agent, for the C.I.A., for nearly eight of those years. My duties for O.N.I. started in the "Cryptography", the encoding, and decoding of highly sensitive cable, intercepted from various countries. I started training at the very young age of nineteen, when I was stationed in Greenland, at what is known as the D.E.W. Line, (Distant Early Warning) a tracking station located near the 80th parallel, that identifies incoming I.C.B.M. missiles, into the U.S. After doing a tour of duty at the top of the world, I was sent to special training schools throughout the U.S. to prepare me to become a front-line player in the war on drugs that were being smuggled into the U.S. from several South and Central American countries.

I was to work as a "Deep Cover" agent aboard one of, at that time, the largest "Off-shore Oil Drilling Rigs" in the world, whose sole primary purpose, was to enter coastal waters of that region, not only to drill for gas and oil, but to spy on the countries throughout both Central and South America. This was a master plan, devised by then President Reagan, and passed on to President Bush, while under strict supervision of other members of high-ranking government officials. I also worked very closely with members of the D.E.A. and Customs.

To make a very long story short, while I was monitoring all these drugs coming into the states, I found out that it really was our own government that was responsible for the vast majority of the poisons that we either traded weapons or cash for. Ultimately, I and several others, had got caught up in this lust of easy money, and the power that comes along with it. As a result of my greed, I was arrested in Little Rock, Arkansas and charged with smuggling drugs, and weapons. I was arrested so that I would be placed in a Federal Prison, so that I could be under guard and not reveal my former role that would expose the high-ranking government figures, that were responsible for these ongoing smuggling operations that fund many people in high places. You may have heard of the "Mena, Arkansas" incident; well I was very much a part of this operation. I had first hand knowledge, and worked with pilots like Barry Seal, Basil Abbott, and Gunther Russbacher.

Anyway, this gives you just a taste of my adventures, but keep in mind, that I have kept close contacts with several agents out there, and there are truly some honest, hard-core men trying to protect us from these bastards that run our nation.

Are you familiar with a book titled "Defrauding America", by author Rodney Stich, from Alamo, CA? If you get this book, you can read more in-depth, highly detailed highlights abut my missions, and misfortunes.

Now, let's get to Jim Vassilos. I first remember hearing about Jim back in the late 80s, through what we called the "scramble-line", which different agents would follow leads that were either told them, intercepted, or a general topic of gossip, that the government in most cases takes very seriously, especially when different "Cults", organizations, or groups of people conspire to do other than our government rules. Groups such as the Waco, Texas bunch ("Branch Davidians"), or several "Satanic Cult Churches" that fester our nation, and deploy tactics that are meant to overthrow, and tear our land apart.

These type of things often stay out of the media, but anyone who has any knowledge of such matters knows that they very well exist, and many high-ranking government officials are known to control these "covens" that are spread nation-wide and world-wide.

Well, when Jim's name first popped up, he was associated with investigating these accusations, and hit a nerve within these groups. At first, I had paid little attention to talk of "Devils and Witches", thinking, "No, this can't be true". But how I was wrong. After another agent who was appointed to investigate these doings came to me and confessed that they did indeed pose a most very deadly threat to anyone who would tend to disrupt, or expose the members to other people; they had a high probability of disappearing, often the subjects of "Human Sacrifices" at the order of high officials. Sad to say, that our good friend who has detected this very evil factor has gotten himself into much turmoil with members of powerful forces, who have him targeted for death!

I tell you these things out of several different contacts, agents who are currently on-duty for the government, investigating these matters, we speak. Take my word for it, that these forces do exist, with powers in the government that have a way of being covered up.

Please do not think that I am some sort of goof-ball. My record of fact and merit speaks for itself, and as I have stated, I tend to keep in touch on a regular basis, with agents who are loyal to me, and who know that I was a pawn in a much bigger game than meets the eye.

I don't know if you will receive this letter, as much of my mail, if not all of it, is photographed, numbered, stored, then ciphered to check if I receive or leak vital information about our nation's defrauding tactics which they deploy all the time. If you do receive this letter, and decide that it has any weight, or value, write to me at the address on top of the heading, and I can tell you things that may open your eyes to a world of much cover-up; a world that can only be described as bizarre, and deadly.

I can tell you that Jim Vassilos is in much current danger, and is very likely going to be terminated within the very near future, if we don't help him fast!

Thank you for reading this, and please let me hear from you. God bless you, and yours.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Michael Maholy

Americans Take On The I.R.S.

Editor's note: In follow-up to the Ronn Jackson Nevada lawsuit and the efforts put forth by the independent organization of A.I.R., the following was received in the CONTACT office via Fax from A.I.R. and is a description of the class action lawsuit against the I.R.S. first mentioned Americans nationwide with the assistance of in the 3/29/94 CONTACT article *16th Amendment Court Ruling?". We would, therefore, like to share this information. BUT-we are not law suit against the procedures, conduct, and automatically suggesting you provide your support in terms of disclosing your name or sending its agents. The objective of this class action is money, as you will read below. That decision is a matter for your individual choice and action.

April 20, 1994

Dear fellow American:

On April 21, 1994, over 400 concerned American Institute for the Republic (A.I.R.), and attorney Paul Young, filed a Class Action behavior of the Internal Revenue Service and to put the IRS out of business and to arm the American public with enough information, they can use, to sue IRS agents who have usurped the law, by using illegal procedures and fraud. We expect that the IRS will be replaced with a more equitable and constitutional program of taxes.

We will proceed in the courts to obtain partial declaratory judgements on 20 or more various issues. Our Brief and further details on the Class Action will be available by the time you receive this notice. We are allowing all Americans who want to share their disapproval of IRS proceedings, to add their names to the Class Action Suit. Further details on how you can participate are on a separate

We will deal with the IRS on a three-prong approach.

- 1.) In the Courts: Our approach to the fraud and deception of the IRS is dynamite.
- 2.) Through the Strength of the People: Americans all over the country are rising up and joining the Class Action Suit. Such a force can not be ignored.
- 3.) Politically: The activity of this case is sending a strong message to our politicians.

We believe we will win on all three fronts. Our case has already reached substantial attention on Capital Hill. Over a dozen BRAVE Congressmen have already called for further details on our action and our alternative to the IRS. The real thrust is in the hands of the American people. We are counting on enlightened Americans all over the country to climb on board. With enough support from you, our class action case will not only be a legal issue, but will become a political hot potato. Your name has been given to us as a possible Center of influence (C.O.I.) We have divided the country into ten zones. We are looking to fill each zone with a competent group (C.O.I.) who will be responsible for the following:

Each one of the original 10 Centers of Influence should have a mailing or FAX list of several thousand active members. Each member will be responsible for networking with 10 additional sub-C.O.l's. Each of these subgroups should be competent, having several hundred of their own active members. Each of those 10 groups will be responsible for others. The result will provide a way that we can literally wake this country up to the pressing problems that face us and to the knowledge and resources available to the public.

Here's how it will work:

As our class action proceeds, we will disseminate information to each of our 10 groups. As a C.O.I., you will maintain a priority posi-

AMERICANS TAKE ON THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

ON APRIL 21, 1994, A CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT; REPRESENTATIVE OF ALL AMERICANS WAS FILED IN:

> THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION CASE NO 94-C-427-S BY PAUL J. YOUNG, ATTORNEY AT LAW

AND IS KNOWN AS

ALBERT CARTER ET AL.

THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE ET AL.

OVER FOUR HUNDRED AMERICANS FROM ALL FIFTY STATES WHO ARE REPRESENTATIVE OF ALL THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN IN-JURED, FILED THE CLASS ACTION FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF CON-TESTING THE FRAUDULENT ACTS, BEHAVIORAL MISCONDUCT, AND THE MISUSE OF PROCEDURE IN VIOLATION OF AMERICAN'S STATU-TORY CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS BY AGENTS OF THE IRS.

ALL AMERICANS WHO FEEL THEY HAVE BEEN INJURED OR SUF-FERED ECONOMIC LOSS IN ANY WAY BY THE ACTS OF THE IRS AND ITS AGENTS, ARE INVITED TO TAKE PART. YOU MAY JOIN THIS CLASS ACTION LAW SUIT BY SENDING YOUR NAME AND A MINIMUM LEGAL FEE CONTRIBUTION OF $100 TO THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE FOR THE REPUBLIC (MAKE YOUR CHECK OUT TO A.I.R.) AND MAIL TO: A.I.R.

tion with us. Several newspapers, radio, and some TV stations are showing great interest in our case. As they initially call us, we will notify you to make sure the media stations in your area are on your mailing/Fax lines.

As declaratory judgements are made, we will be packaging the information so that interested Americans can use them to recover losses, or to go after agents who have defrauded and/or injured them.

Example: NOTICE OF LIEN OR LEVY. One of our many issues concerns Notice of LIEN, Notice of Levy. Our research shows that there is a legal procedure for a Lien/Levy to be issued. It will be our attempt to have the courts recognize that there is a correct way and an incorrect way to issue such Liens or Levys. A Notice of LIEN assumes that a LIEN has already been placed on a Citizen by a competent judge. Only after that judge has LIEN) the appropriate interested party. If the LIEN or Levy has not been issued properly, the agent, county, employer, etc. issuing or honoring the Notice of LIEN or Notice of Levy can all be held liable for fraud. Obviously, a great many Americans would be interested in such a judgement since it affects our Right to Due of Stockholders, Directors and Officers. We Process, and our Right to Property.

A.I.R. has been researching the fraudulent activities of the IRS for several years. Until now, the media has refused to acknowledge A.I.R.'s findings. Fortunately by using our C.O.I.s, we won't have to be solely dependent upon them.

Our class action suit is unique, there has never been one like it. Our attorney, Paul Young, is one of the best. He is receiving support from additional attorneys and paralegals all over the country. Paul was in the top of his class as a graduate. He assisted White House advisors during the Reagan Administration concerning research on tax reform. Paul has been fighting the IRS on behalf of Americans for over 14 years.

God has lifted up noble men and women in these latter days to take a stand for righteousness (Right Judgement). Throughout the Country Americans have joined with us to express their disappointment in the taxing program. Please consider your involvement very carefully. Your role could be vital to everyone's success.

Sincerely. Dave Hall, consultant American Institute for the Republic

Nevada Corporations

Corporation Formation: Structure, Part III

standing the corporate structure, it is important to understand who the players of a corporation are and what their responsibilities consist of. One week you may be the Vice President, the next week you may be the Chairman of the Board of Directors, and the next week you may be required to be the President. It all signed the LIEN, can the agent notify (Notice of depends on what your need is or what corporation you are working for (if you are working for more than one). Every position within the corporate structure is different and commonly understood to represent certain corporate

> We will take a closer look at the description will then follow up with a view of the liability protection clauses in your Articles and Bylaws of your corporation that protect Directors and Officers from legal action that a corporation may find itself in someday.

> Stockholders On Down: The hierarchy of a corporation basically starts off with a new corporation, often referred to as a Corporate Shell. At the top of the list are the individuals who have the most control & power within the corporate structure. They are the Stockholders, or the owners of a corporation. The Stockholders then appoint themselves a Board of Directors to set down the corporate direction and corporate policy. The Board of Directors can consist of one person in Nevada, or it can have 100 Directors in Nevada. It is wide open. Large U.S. corporations generally have boards that are between 8-20 people and they are voted on annually by the Stockholders of the corporation itself.

> The responsibility of the Stockholders is to annually appoint Board Members based on which Directors are going to represent their interests in that corporation the best. That is generally how this decision is made. Directors then have the responsibility of directing the corporation where they want it to go. They present an outline and an agenda, generally for the year or the quarter that the corporation's Directors have met, and lay out what the plan will be for the next quarter or year for the corporation; how it is going to be arranged, what new businesses are going to be acquired, what the financials of the corporation are looking like, etc. They discuss and make decisions direction of the corporation.

> The Directors of the corporation then decide annually who will be the President, Secretary, Treasurer and Vice President of the corporation. They make that decision based on experience and expertise of the potential Officers. The responsibilities of the Officers are to take on whatever direction that the Directors have pointed out for them to proceed on. Once the Directors decide in which direction the corporation is heading, the Officers then figure out how to make it there and how to go about the day-to-day management of the Corporate Hierarchy & Roles: In under- erally not involved in any day-to-day activities of the corporation unless, again, you are a very small private corporation that may have only one Director. That one Director could also be the President, Secretary and Treasurer of the corporation in Nevada, which is the case of many Nevada Corporations. One person can represent all those positions in Nevada. But it goes back to role playing: you've got your Stockholder's hat on and you decide that you are going to appoint a board. You document it. Next you put the Board of Director's hat on and you appoint your Officers. You then appoint yourself President, Secretary, and Treasurer if you are a one-person corporation and you've got that hat on.

Directors: (Section 78115 Nevada Revised Statutes, Board of Directors) Let's look at section 78120, The Board of Directors' General Powers: (1) The Board of Directors is only subject to such limitations as may be provided by this chapter or by the Articles of Incorporation. The Board of Directors has full control over the affairs of the corporation. (2) says: Subject to the Bylaws, if any, adopted by the Stockholders, the Directors may make the Bylaws of the corporation. In all of our Corporate Record Books that we produce you have Bylaws that are already made and there are sections in the Bylaws that discuss the responsibilities and limited liability of the Directors and Officers of the corporation.

I will jump down to Section 78125: Committees of Board of Directors, Designations, Powers, Names and Memberships. A Board of Directors can basically be an entity that represents a corporation, but they can delegate their role and their responsibility to side committees that take on all the activities or direction of the corporation. In Nevada they have the right to designate any responsibility to non-Board Members to assist the Board of Directors.

Officers: Now let's jump over to section 78130 of NRS: Officers of Corporation, Selections, Terms and Duties. We are going to get into some of the responsibilities of the President, Secretary, Treasurer and any Vice Presidents of the corporation. It says here that every corporation in Nevada must have a President, Secretary and Treasurer. They are chosen by the Board of Directors and hold their in a general manner, focusing more on the office until successors are chosen and they qualify.

#2 says every corporation may have one or more Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Directors and any such other Officers and agents as may be deemed necessary. So, if you decide today that you want to be the Assistant, Assistant Secretary or Vice President, that office can be created. Make sure for new Officers or Directors your corporation hires (or, appoints, etc.), that the proper paper work is drawn up and placed into the Corporate Record Book.

#3 says all Officers and Agents must be corporation. The Directors don't and are gen- chosen in such a manner, hold their offices for determined by the Board of Directors. In other words, all decisions and actions of the corporation must be documented. For every official the Directors to represent them. position that your corporation creates, paperwork is essential. You want to bury your corporation with paperwork. Every time that the IRS or anyone else comes to check on it, make the trail just as confusing as possible, but have everything there and in place. It may be a little bit of work, but when they see that you have done that, they'll soon give up the chase. If you've covered yourself by making a paper trail, they are not going to stick around to give you much trouble.

The Authority Of Directors: Any Contract Conveyance otherwise lawful made in the name of the corporation which is authorized to ratify by the Directors or is done within the scope of the authority actual or apparent given by the Directors, binds the corporation and the corporation acquires the rights thereunder. So remember, anything you sign is binding. You are locked in; there is no way to get out of it if there is no clause that allows you to back out of something.

The next section, 78138: Directors & Officers. Exercise of powers and performance of

1. Directors, Officers shall exercise their powers of good faith with a view to the interest of the corporation. In performing their responsive duties, Directors and Officers are entitled to rely on information, opinions, re-

such terms and have such powers and duties cluding financial statements and other finanas may be prescribed by the Bylaws or be cial data that are prepared or presented by one or more of the Directors, Counsels, Public Accountants, or any committee appointed by

- 2. Directors and Officers in exercising their respective powers with the view to the interest to the corporation may consider the interests of the corporation, the employees, suppliers, creditors and customers, the economy of the state and of the nation, the interests of the community and society, the long-term and short-term interests of the corporation. Remember your responsibility is to preserve the life and longevity of that corporation in any manner that you may think is in the best interest of the corporation. You have to look at how it will affect the corporation and if you are acting responsibly for the corporation.
- 3. Directors may resist a change or potential change in the controls of corporations if the Directors by a majority vote are quorumed and determine that a change or a potential change is opposed or not in the best interest of the corporation. What this gets into is in section B on the next page: "because of the amount or nature of the indebtedness or other obligations to which the corporation is in successor to the party of either may become subject to in connection with the change or the potential change in the control, provides reasonable grounds to believe that within a reasonable time the assets of the corporation or any successor would be or become less then its liabilities." This section describes the Diports, books of accounts or statements in- rectors' and Officers' responsibilities with respect to a corporation that is failing. The Directors and Officers must act only in the best interest of the corporation based on intelligent decision-making which may involve unsavory decisions such as bankruptcy.

This now should give you a better understanding of the responsibilities and roles of a corporation's representatives.

A PRIVATE WORD TO EKKERS:

I ask that this be left in the writing, please. I know that the realizations of the morning and yesterday are heavy upon you-please release it to me for there is nothing that you can do about these situations which have been set forth against you. Yes indeed, the plans to incarcerate you both and also bring down the Institute are REAL in the planning. However, you will note that you were warned and now you KNOW your enemies as well as those claimed to have helped set-you-up.

The major thrust is to close the voice of myself and the speakers in CONTACT and the stupid assumption is that to imprison my scribe will accomplish that fact.

No it won't—it will only strengthen the desire of the speakers of truth and citizens efforting to move back into freedom to make it a flaming torch as a voice for freedom.

I have worse news for you ones and that is that documentation will be arriving which will PROVE the association of Gary Anderson with the Treasury Department and Gritz et al.'s association as inside troopers FOR THE GOV-ERNMENT AND IRS. TRANSCRIPTION

The following is a transcription of a taped clues and then wisdom shall be your passage telephone call received yesterday, April 30, in the CONTACT office.

It was requested by the calling party that information will also be covered by staff at the $\,$ the $\,$ conversation be recorded with witnesses due to the inability to get "faxed" hard copy sent from his location—which is in prison in Carson City, Nevada. The calling party is Ronn Jackson with whom we are now all famil-As the "big boys" tear their hair and rent iar and we believe him to have credible information in a DIRECT conduit.

Since there are now other warnings of the line—for the offensive plays, including the same information coming all the way from the winning of the game, is at hand if you can West Coast (Northwest), I believe this should warned you of the intention contained within the message-two days ago-and was all but ignored by you in efforting to please your socalled "defense" attorney.

I will tell you, further, that the "enemy camp" was already privy to the intention of Mr. Dickey to "dump you" as clients. By this I mean the ongoing cases regarding the Phoenix Institute. I believe that point can also be verified by witnesses.

These acts of "unconditional love" as being expressed against the Ekkers and the Institute are a bit overwhelming. Especially since it seems the unconditional love part of this B.S. is given to the adversary and to the very one who has received funds FOR Leon Fort and now claims he DID NOT. The endorsed and deposited checks seem to make no impact on our "unconditional love" status.

Does this all mean that "our" attorney, Mr. Dickey, is playing with the very enemy he claims to be serving you against? I won't answer that one FOR you-but the results are the same under any circumstances. I find that what is actually happening is that Mr. Dickey is terrified on two counts-one, because the cards are stacked against you by the thugs, court and opposing federal criminals, the other that he has been convinced you will not HAVE FUNDS TO PAY HIM ADEQUATELY. For what? So far there has not been even ONE evidence of anything positive from him. Now, with all the time and money expended he says he wants "OUT" prior to the next hearing scheduled for next Thursday because Ekkers prefer to not go to Carson City?? And, that somehow "communications" have broken down and you don't fully "trust" him.

It becomes evident that Mr. Dickey was not a good reader of CONTACT or he would have noted that there will be available several million dollars JUST FOR THESE LAW SUITS!

Why all the focus on the destruction of the Ekkers? Because the ASSUMPTION is that it is through their being "taken out" that the CONTACT can be silenced. It is assumed that no further information will be coming forth about the turncoat ("Judasgoat"-Mr. Gritz's favorite term for me) activities of Sir Gritz and his legions of immediate cohorts, Gary Anderson et al. As the revelations pour in from our writers WHO KNOW THE WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S WHAT-THE STUFF IS IN THE FAN-AND IT IS GETTING IN THE FAN THROUGH THE NOW WORLD-RENOWNED CONTACT. CALLS FROM VERY HIGH-LEVEL "SUBJECTS" HAVE BEEN MADE TO THREATEN, DEAL, BRIBE, ETC., THE PARTIES INVOLVED IN THESE "REVELATIONS".

from the tape as received by Mr. Rick Martin at CONTACT yesterday, from Mr. Ronn Jackson. This is being transcribed to facilitate having "hard copy". Mr. Jackson will put the information to signed documentation as well, but time being of the utmost importance, he handled the warning in this manner [quoting tape]:

RM: Today is April 30, 1993. [Error in date of year in point. It was actually April cry, "No trust in mel" is the epitome of the 30, 1994.

RM: Ok, Ronn, go ahead.

RJ: Hey, ah, you better record this, Rick, if you would.

RM: Ok, hang on one second.

RJ: Alright.

RM: Ok, we're ready.

RJ: Ok-I understand you, with some of your legal problems—E.J. is having a court pated in the Institute that if you fail to demand be the focus of our attention. I had already appearance in the State [of Nevada], next of the authorities in the State of Nevada to week. The word is that they are gonna arrest cause them to cease and desist with this garhim when he comes into the State.

RM: Oh, is that right?

usually my source is pretty good! So, I would certainly look at it, and there might be a little conspiracy going on. Some people might be wanting to, you know, get a little heat off themselves and they might "roll over" on you if you're not careful.

RM: I appreciate the warning.

RJ: Ok, I thought you should know that. What's going on over there? Anything?

RM: Let me turn the recorder off-hang on one second...[end of taped message].

Alright now, nice people, in view of the above information from someone who is about as high in the "know" as anyone, coupled with at least two other warnings from entirely different locations-WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF YOU WERE EKKERS AND-OR THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE PHOENIX INSTITUTE? How would YOU feel if your attorney was resigning if you didn't show up in Nevada? What would YOU do if he did, in fact, already have his withdrawal papers ready to file on Monday? What would YOU do under these circumstances when the "opposition" is indicating that Dickey, Dixon AND Tips were "working" with your enemy? Well, if "God be with you, who can stand against you?" That is a nice "saying" but it is valid only if you ACT appropriately!

The case in point was an Order to Show Cause as to why these notes of Green's should not be enforced and the books, which he holds hostage, returned. The trial itself is not set until January, 1995. The books, as such, because of the now outdated material (magazine-type of dating) and all of the books would have to be rebound to remove America West's authority and property rights statements could these certain RISKS be taken? There is so much valid and solid evidence available that the entire confrontation is totally absurd.

The intent would be, you see, to arrest Ekkers BEFORE ABILITY TO TESTIFY! ALSO, TO SERVE PAPERS WHICH REPRESENT FED-ERAL RICO AND MANDATORY RECEIVERSHIP PAPERS ON ANY AND-OR ALL MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE INSTI-

How many of you STILL THINK you are in a "nice" world filled with loving people with "unconditional love"? These individuals will cost everyone every cent they have—including themselves to destroy others (any and all others) to maintain their own lies, deceit and greed. .

You are told that, "Well, we need Ekker to At any rate the following is a transcription testify as to 'exactly' the circumstances of Green's notes, etc." Oh? Why? There ARE the valid NOTES all nicely dated and signed and to prove further the intent of the notes-check drafts made out to America West(s), Green, and thus and so-endorsed and DEPOSITED OR CASHED. What in the world would attorneys need? Unless, of course, they are in cahoots with the enemy camp? And then to oxymoronic assumption that there are attorneys who would not lie or deceive. And WHY would this demand for attendance be forthcoming under threat less than a week prior to court hearing? There was never any intent of the Ekkers going to Nevada for this hearing and the attorney in point—KNEW IT.

I'm reminding all of you who have particibage—perhaps we have to assume you wish to Ekkers have kept you covered safely RJ: I don't know how accurate it is, but within the laws and further steps are under way to INSURE security. This is one reason the opposition needs to act this week—so that the Ekkers will be "away" and unable to finalize the documents. Well, I believe with this warning under way-we will make some arrangements for some kind of coverage by third parties-JUST IN CASE. Thank you, E.J.

What will you do for an attorney? Well, I think that there will be at least one other who can see the case from, if nothing else, the possible bank account. I would even suggest that Mr. Tips may well want to finally answer the incredible position in which he is bound by his own moral ethics. There is NO REASON he can't represent all of you and actually be In-House Counsel for the Institute. Mr. Green, through devious deceit, got Mr. Tips to attempt some actions in his behalf which were both unethical and actually enough to cost a lawyer his Bar Club ticket.

The point it that a "corporation" is RE-OUIRED by the courts to have authorized legal counsel in good Bar standing. So, what if you can't get a lawyer? Well, my, isn't that an interesting question? Indeed, I believe that if you ever FIND your original 13TH AMEND-MENT and hang all the lawyers, judges and legal politicians-it will be a real interesting circumstance.

So, who are involved in the action AGAINST Ekkers and the Institute? Luke Perry, George Green, Rod McBroom (Eleanor Schroepfer), George Abbott, Esq., David Horton, Esq. and Leon Fort. Of course George Green claims he has NOTHING to do with anything!

Luke Perry's efforts have been thrown out of court for trying to get his stepmother's retirement money for himself. Rod McBroom is Eleanor's son who HAS NO CONNECTION TO ANYTHING but was proclaimed John's Conservator (unlawfully) and I will speak to this issue later, and, of course, Leon Fort who was supposed to be receiving his money as returned THROUGH HIS ATTORNEY, ABBOTT. Abbott certainly cashed, somehow, the checks from the Institute. Mr. Abbott has been disciplined by the Nevada Court AND the Bar Association for past indiscretions and an addiction to alcohol which brought disciplinary action. Is THIS the "unconditional LOVE" that requires total love and allegiance to the adversary and persecution to the truth-bearers? The Institute will make all loans "good" and was doing so in the case of Leon Fort-until THEY broke all the agreements and George Green scattered some information around which would be "criminal" in nature regarding the Institute-in his little "deceit packages"sent to EVERYBODY. The "Wilmington Trust" statements COULD ONLY HAVE COME FROM ABBOTT OR FORT-DIRECTLY TO GREEN.

Whether George wishes to admit to same, and has in fact denied any relationship with the Institute-HE WAS AN OFFICER AND DI-RECTOR!! HE TOOK $350,000 IN GOLD SENT TO THE INSTITUTE, KEPT IT HIDDEN AND THEN TOOK IT SECRETLY TO NEVADA AND BURIED IT. STILL, WITH ALL THIS-IT HAS GONE ON NOW INTO TWO YEARS-AND NOTH-ING IS DONE. WHY? BECAUSE GEORGE GREEN CLAIMS TO BE IN SERVICE OF ONE OF THE INTELLIGENCE GROUPS—ALONG WITH OTHER TREASONISTS.

What else is the "scuttlebutt"? Who else, then? Well, the facts are now coming forth that Gary Anderson, for instance, made a "deal" with the Government Treasury Dept., and [Gritz's]SPIKE courses are set up to get lists of names-and when trusts are set up, etc., they are watched and then the IRS swoops down like arresting buzzards. He was entangled with a bunch in an operation which might be referred as "Wolfgang", etc., and it seems that over $60 million (or billion, who knows?) was stolen somehow. Now, as to nice Mr. Gritz? The word out is that Gritz is in coalition with the IRS and other Government strong-arms. It is told to us by others-we have no way to check on validity as of yet—but we are assured that validation is available that, for instance, it is planned that soon there will be special SPIKE training sessions in Idaho. These would handle bunches of a hundred participants or so, we are told-and all will be arrested at the ending of the sessions so word won't leak out-but arrested none the less and then another 100 will be run through, etc. Is this true? Well, I won't comment on that aspect of this story-because, after all, Gritz claims I am just a 9-1/2 foot lizard who looks like Doris Ekker. I certainly, then, would not wish to cause Doris Ekker any further problems. It is certainly insulting enough to be labeled as looking like a lizard—and as was already said by him (Gritz) to not be as easy on the eyes or as entertaining as J.Z. Knight of Ramtha! It is also said it (Gritz et al.'s operation) is all working through a White Supremist bookstore which is somehow tangled up with a Mr. Flowers or some similar name. I believe there are other names which you would recognize, such as Gillespie, Anderson and so forth.

I am reminded of my friend from out of state who used to share with you readers her Nostradamus information. Her initials were D.J.E. and she was "right on" every time. She did, in fact, write warnings to both Green and Gritz—at least two YEARS ago—that what they were doing would be "jail-time" activities. Those warnings were sent DIRECTLY from here to them. They both thought them to be "funny".

I believe that my own attempt at "prophecy" in these particular instances is that "jailtime" is a foolish assumption as long as the serpents are in power. HOWEVER, when the citizens of this nation ACTUALLY get the drift of what is going on and WHO IS ACTUALLY DOING YOU IN-they may well WISH for simply "jail-time". To me, citizens, there is no greater traitor than he who claims GOD and NATION in FREEDOM at all costs—while having sold out to the demons themselves, the very brothers who trusted them. Is there no honor even among thieves? I guess not. Man has generally allowed himself to become unworthy of trust. GOD ALONE BEARS RIGHT OF TRUST AND FAITH—AND IT IS UP TO YOU TO DISCERN THE BRINGERS OF TRUTH. YOU HAD BEST TAKE ANOTHER LOOK AT THE REAL "LAWS OF GOD AND CREATION"

Let us leave this. At the meeting this afternoon we will discuss with the other Board members, and businesses which might be involved, this circumstance. I would appreciate any and all questions from those present regarding this writing while I am present to respond. Decisions, however, as to actions are going to be left, ultimately, up to YOU. I will offer any information which is AVAILABLE for your consideration—but I shall not now—or ever—act as a fortune-teller unless it involves the direct safety and security of my immediate workers! So be it.

to me but I will say this, with my knowledge of the seamier side of this flaky and unconstitutional different parts of the political spectrum. Last government, the chances are that your "founder" stepped on the wrong toes. If a print-out of the Justice Department files on his case will help, please let me know. I had the entire files transferred to another location that is safe and post was joined shortly after the Clinton in au-

Paragraph #4 mentions the former FBI Director, William Sessions. As a Judge in Texas he administered a couple of loyalty oaths on some projects in which I was involved (to me).

While the media reported that his removal was due to his run-in with William Barr and his abuses of his business expenditures, the real reason for his removal was a statement made to my former "employer" about his plans for accessing Social Security and other files. While government is planning to make all those files available to all of government and others, Mr. Sessions had the atypical Government Big-Mouth Syndrome which is not in vogue with the leftist philosophies of the current administration. (That is, unless you are in the inner-circle of the "Clintons". Number 2, Mr. Talbott and #3, Ms. Acheson of Justice who are students of Lenin and Hegel.)

I do not know Mr. Anthony Summers nor have I read his book on J. Edgar Hoover—nor did I ever speak to Mr. Hoover or Mr. Tolson; however, on page 34, 3rd paragraph, there were not 2 men. There were four and they worked for Bill Casey. There were two (2) file cabinets and they contained 2,319 Alpha Files. Casey gave them to me and the contents of those files will be the basis for a book, The Death of Camelot, Book 5, THE HOOVER FILES. Both Susan Rosensteil, Joe McCarthy, and the rest of the garbage at the time are in those files. The book will be on the market in 1995.

The last 4 paragraphs on page 36, Column 2, state: "We told you so." I have to apologize for not seeing or hearing your words. In the next few months I shall rectify several injustices perpetrated on the citizens of our Great Country and perhaps I can assist Mr. LaRouche. Please continue with your excellent magazine and, with the spirit of the Constitution on our side, we will bury all forms of tyranny—I do so solemnly swear.

JUDICIAL CORRUPTION:
IT DIDN'T END WITH
J. EDGAR HOOVER
by Jeffrey Steinberg

Calls for a cleanout of the U.S. judiciary different parts of the political spectrum. Last autumn, the Washington Post ran a six-part series cataloguing a horrifying pattern of prosecutorial abuses by the Department of Justice (DOJ) and its chief investigative arm, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). The Post was joined shortly after the Clinton inauguration by Time magazine, which ran a fourpage story warning the new President that his greatest challenge would be reform of the Justice Department and FBI. Such ideologically diverse publications as Forbes and Mother Jones magazines have joined the drumbeat with recent cover stories; and Rep. Jack Brooks (D-Tex.), chairman of the powerful House Judiciary Committee, has mooted the creation of a congressional select committee to probe corruption in the federal judicial system.

An ongoing probe of the Justice Department's handling of the Inslaw case, involving DOJ trickery, fraud, and deceit leading to the bankrupting of a small Washington computer firm, could lead to the appointment of an independent counsel to look into that scandal further.

And, most important, Congress and the Executive branch are being inundated with calls and letters from the United States and abroad, demanding a reversal of the judicial railroading of political economist Lyndon LaRouche, carried out on orders of the Bush White House over four years ago. LaRouche is now in his fifth year of a 15-year federal prison sentence, on totally invented conspiracy charges.

Over at the J. Edgar Hoover Building in Washington, D.C., FBI director William Sessions is facing an internal revolt, led by oldtime Hooverites, who are reportedly furious about-among other things-his support for Black and Hispanic agents battling against Bureau discrimination. On the eve of the presidential elections, Sessions earned the wrath of President Bush and Attorney General William Barr, for probing a DOJ cover-up of the Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (BNL) banking scandal, to conceal U.S. and Italian government high-level collusion in the secret arming of Iraq. Barr counterattacked against Sessions by dredging up a string of petty allegations about personal corruption by the FBI boss and his senior aides, based largely on leaks from Bureau "old boys" out to regain control over "The House That Hoover Built". President Clinton is now faced with the decision whether or not to fire Sessions, who is midway through a 10-year appointment. [H: Of course we all NOW know what happened as that was done.]

In the midst of this swirl of corruption charges, new revelations about the FBIs legendary former director, John Edgar Hoover, have surfaced, providing a crucial framework for understanding how it was possible that the federal government's judicial and police functions could fall into such a state of malaise. Twenty-one years after Hoover's death, a small army of eyewitness has at long last come forward to recount horror stories about the FBI under Hoover. Thousands of pages of previously classified documents have been released under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), corroborating much of the eyewitness reporting.

The Boston Globe, in an editorial published on Feb. 9 (the day that the Public Broadcasting Service televised an hour-long documentary about the Hoover era), appropriately warned its readers against thinking that the Hoover exposé was a matter of history: "The demystifying of Hoover should not be classified as an academic history lesson. It also offers a political moral. The better Americans understand how this crime fighter of legend was really a pawn of organized crime, the devoted civil servant a blackmailer of elected Presidents, the chief defender against subversion the ultimate subversive, the better they will know how to guard themselves against the Hoovers of the future."

'OFFICIAL AND CONFIDENTIAL'

The source of many of the revelations is a just-published biography of J. Edgar Hoover by British investigative journalist Anthony Summers. Summers spent over four years gathering the material of Official and Confidential: The Secret Life of J. Edgar Hoover (New York: G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1993). The book is a damning indictment of Hoover and the entire FBI. It reveals that the federal agency responsible for combatting organized crime was led for 48 years by a man deeply tied to Meyer Lansky, the chairman of the board of the National Crime Syndicate. Hoover's marriage to the mob afforded him access to blackmail material on every top elected official in Washington, material he used frequently and ruthlessly. Yet Hoover himself was addicted to gambling and was a notorious homosexual. Photographs and other evidence of Hoover's Lansky, the Office of Strategic Services (OSS), and its postwar successor, the CIA.

Although Summers does not provide any direct documentation, it is impossible to conceive that the Soviet intelligence services were not equally aware of Hoover's obscene sexual and gambling appetites. The implications of such Soviet access to the "Hoover File" should force a reassessment of some of the most significant events of the Cold War.

The picture that emerges from the Hoover story is a tragedy. Presidents, senators, and congressmen were ruled for decades by fear and extortion. Some of the most profound decisions affecting the future of the United States were made, not on the basis of principles or the merits of argument, but were based upon secret police methods of coercion. See the box on Page 33 for more comments on the appalling antics of J. Edgar Hoover.

There is a strong implication in the Summers book that, when the traditional blackmail and extortion methods did not work, Hoover had no qualms about resorting to murder. Hoover's power struggle with the Kennedy brothers, John and Robert, were resolved only by assassins' bullets. An even stronger case is made by Summers that Hoover was in some way involved in the assassination of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. While it would be foolish, in light of all the evidence now publicly available, to presume that Hoover was solely responsible for those three tragic murders, the vital role of the Hoover FBI in covering up the assassinations was so important that it is hard to conceive that he was not a least a major player in setting up the executions in the first place. [H: Bear with us, readers, as we unfold the "CAMELOT" story as offered by Ronn Jackson so that we are not side-tracked by these particular observations. We can only do so much in a day and present even less in a paper—so please allow us continued focus without interruptions for interrupting side-details. Thank you. It is all going to get told!]

Hoover's personal attitude toward the Kennedy brothers and Martin Luther King was demonstrated by the director's itinerary the days after John Kennedy and Martin Luther King were shot: he went to the race track, armin-arm with his sometime homosexual lover, FBI Deputy Director Clyde Tolson. [H: It is important to go back NOW and refer to the line of power within Clinton's inner-circle as refers to TOLSON and Ms. ACHESON "of Justice". You are going to really get annoyed and nauseated as you read on....]

THE ANAL-SADISTIC PERSONALITY

The strongest feature of Summer's biography of Hoover is the deep insight it provides into the director's personality, largely through the eyewitness accounts of people who were integral to Hoover's career and private life.

Born in 1895 and raised in Washington, D.C., Hoover was the youngest of four children of Anna and Dickerson Hoover. His mother was from a well-to-do Swiss Calvinist family. His father was a government print-maker who had a mental breakdown during World War I and spent much of the rest of his life in and out of mental institutions. He died of his mental illness in 1921, and Hoover never discussed his father, not even with his most intimate associates.

Hoover got his first job at the Department sexual escapades were in the files of Meyer of Justice through family connections (his mother's cousin was a top DOJ attorney, soon to be appointed to a federal judgeship). Hoover's first substantive work involved the pursuit of aliens, particularly German aliens. It was the eve of the Red Scares and the Palmer Raids of the early 1920s. Hoover's zealous pursuit of aliens earned him a job with the engaged in homosexual acts with young men.

> FUZZDICK, T'VE GOT A TOUGH ONE FOR YOU. HAVE TO ACT! LIKE A HUMAN

FBI man "Fearless Fuzzdick" was the star of a 1970s cartoon series published in New Solidarity newspaper. The paper was shut down by the federal government in an "involuntary bankruptcy" action in 1987-later ruled illegal.

FBI. His personal role in the 1919-20 Palmer Raids positioned him to win the directorship in May 1924.

Forty-eight years later, Hoover was still the FBI director, despite widespread belief throughout official Washington that he had become completely senile. Nearly deranged and prone to rambling diatribes about the "commie menace" and the sex lives of prominent Washingtonians, Hoover nevertheless remained in office. The key to his power was the private blackmail files he maintained on the nation's most powerful figures.

The night that Hoover died, his closest aides showed up at his home and at his office and carted off truckloads of those secret smut files. Their continued existence assured that the Hoover legacy would survive, even after the director himself was laid in the ground.

Through scores of interviews with longtime friends and enemies of the director, Summers established beyond a doubt that J. Edgar Hoover was a very particular brand of homosexual; the kind that in public maintained a fanatically puritanical code of morality and conducted brutal purges of suspected homosexuals in the government, while in private engaging in the most degrading and obscene

One principal source of this information used by Summers was Susan Rosensteil, the wife of Lansky syndicate operative Louis Rosensteil. A Prohibition-era bootlegger, Rosensteil used his ill-gotten gains to found Schenley's Liquor Company. Despite his nominally legitimate business ventures, Rosensteil remained a front-man for the Lansky Syndicate, laundering black market money and handling the illegal bookmaking for some of America's power elite. According to his widow, Rosensteil was J. Edgar Hoover's bookie. He, along with former Joe McCarthy aide and mob lawyer Roy Cohn, was also Hoover's pimp.

In a televised interview with PBSs Frontline and in a sworn statement to Anthony Summers, Susan Rosensteil described two separate instances in which she was present at parties at the Plaza Hotel in New York City, where Hoover dressed in women's clothes and

The second incident described by Mrs. Rosensteil was particularly noteworthy: "A year later, according to Susan, Rosensteil asked her to accompany him to the Plaza again. She agreed, in return for an expensive pair of earrings from Harry Winston's, and the procedure was the same as on the previous occasion. Cohn ushered them into a suite to find Edgar, again attired in female finery. His clothing this time was even more outlandish. 'He had a red dress on,' Susan recalled, 'and a black feather boa around his neck. He was dressed like an old flapper, like you see on old

"After about half an hour, some boys came, like before. This time they're dressed in leather. And Hoover had a Bible. He wanted one of the boys to read from the Bible. And he read, I forget which passage, and the other boy played with him, wearing rubber gloves. And then Hoover grabbed the Bible, threw it down and told the second boy to join in the sex."

The incident described by Susan Rosensteil took place in 1959, at the very height of Hoover's power. Just a few years earlier, Hoover had been initiated into the 33rd degree of the Southern Jurisdiction Scottish Rite Freemasonic Lodge. Hoover had been a Mason since the early 1920s, and many MAY 3, 1994 of his most trusted hands at the Bureau were did not do so. also members of the secret society.

Louis Rosensteil was more than just a pimp and a bookie for Hoover. So intimate were the two men, that Hoover deployed his chief FBI publicist, Lou Nichols, to work for Schenley's as vice president in charge of public relations. Rosensteil also set up the J. Edgar Hoover Foundation, and it was the foundation that financed the building of a memorial room to honor Hoover at the Scottish Rite Temple a few blocks from the White House.

WHAT SUMMERS OVERLOOKS

On many occasions during Hoover's 48 years at the helm of the FBI, victims of his wrath drew the parallel between Hoover's FBI, Hitler's Gestapo, and Stalin's NKVD. His personality was certainly that of a Heinrich Himmler or a Lavrenti Beria.

Hoover was a known entity. His homosexuality was the worst kept secret in America. Every winter, he and Clyde Tolson vacationed at the southern California resort hotel of Texas oilmen Clint Murchison and Sid Richardson. They hobnobbed openly with well-known gangsters. The Lansky Syndicate covered all of Hoover's horse track bets. When he won, they paid him off, and when he lost, they "forgave" his debts. Hoover and Tolson attended the horse races at Del Mar, sitting in a VIP box at the finish line. The owner of the box was the head of the Mattachine Society, one of the first homosexual organizations in America, founded by members of the Communist Party U.S.A. All of the regulars at Del Mar knew that anyone sitting in that box was a "fairy"—to use the terminology of the day. The Soviet intelli-gence services and the FBI coexisted inside the Communist Party and, according to some historians of the Cold War, used the CPUSA as a back channel for intelligence collusion.

In other words, even though Hoover's exploits were kept from the general public until long after his death in May 1972, his homosexuality, his protection of the mob, and his blackmailing of public officials were all well known among members of the establishment, East and West. To presume, as Summers does, that the key to the Hoover file was his blackmail by organized crime, is to miss the fundamental nature of the beast.

Hoover was installed in power at the point that the United States was falling under the domination of an Anglo-American oligarchical cabal, out to overturn everything positive that the United States had once stood for. The creation of the FBI, like the creation of the Federal Reserve System and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, all at the same time, signaled the consolidation of enormous power by this faction.

J. Edgar Hoover was groomed and elevated into the FBI director's job because of his obscene profile. He shaped an institution around that profile, and the institution carried forward that profile after Hoover's own demise.

WE TOLD YOU SO ...

In 1979, when the Carter administration Justice Department and FBI launched Operations Abscam and Brilab, Lyndon LaRouche warned that this was the beginning of the end of representative self-government in the United States. He called upon Congress and the labor movement to stand up and resist the blackmail and frameups by the federal police. They

Earlier, in the mid-1970s, LaRouche and his associates had mocked the FBI and Hoover in a series of political cartoons recounting the tales of a mythical FBI man, "Fearless Fuzzdick". In several of the cartoon strips, FBI men were portrayed as transvestites.

Neither LaRouche nor any of his associates had been enlightened by Susan Rosensteil or any of the other witnesses to the Hoover drag shows. It was self-evident in the nature of the FBI's political operations that, as individuals, the top FBI people were depraved.

The Summers book [see box below]does an admirable job of documenting that depravity. What remains to be seen is whether the Congress, the White House, and the American people will launch a genuine effort to restore the Constitution and dismantle the police-state [END QUOTING] apparatus.

Let us leave this now as we have other pressing needs. Thank you for sticking with me, chela. I know it is getting more difficult as this day progresses. However, I think it wise if you go forth and do other things as well. Rome was not built in a day and neither is FREEDOM easy to acquire and it is ever so much more difficult to maintain. Walk with me, friends, I have a very large hand...! In brotherhood, Salu.

SUMMERS: DISMANTLE THE FBI'S BLACKMAIL FILES

Author Anthony Summers released the following comments on his probe of J. Edgar Hoover on Feb. 16:

Readers will be appalled, first, to discover for themselves that Hoover's abuses were every bit as bad as his critics claimed. And once they take that on board, I think it will dawn on them that, for decade after decade, this man succeeded in pulling the wool over the eyes of the American people. They will realize the leading role he played in using the threat of Communism within the United States—a threat which even he came to dismiss in private—to keep the nation in a state of panic. This was a pervasive fear, one which distorts American political life to this day. Readers will realize, too, that the man who held himself up as a God-fearing standard-bearer of morality, democracy and the American Way was in reality the very opposite—a hypocritical, corrupt man who institutionalized the suppression of essen-

Hoover was able to pressure Presidents and make them aware of his power in such a way that even when they wanted to remove him, they couldn't. Hoover created his own massive propaganda department at the Bureau, building himself up, through the '30s and '40s, as a national figure. As one President after another discovered, you can't just turn around and fire a national icon. More importantly, Hoover became an asset to those in power. Every President from Roosevelt to Nixon-Eisenhower came closest to being the honorable exception-used the FBI in ways that, if known at the time, would have seemed unacceptable to most citizens. By doing so, those leaders essentially delivered themselves into Hoover's hands.

Newly released White House tapes show that the Nixon administration had been worrying-panicking even-about what Hoover probes, investigators were told there had beliefs or associations.

A rally in support of Sen. Harrison Williams (D-N.J.), victim of the Justice Department's Operation Abscam, in March 1982. Williams was subject to an FBI "sting," framed up, and driven from office. Lyndon LaRouche called this the beginning of the end of representative self-government in America.

been plans to break into Hoover's home before he died-perhaps even to murder the man. The morning Hoover died, when the undertakers arrived, they found men swarming through his house, ransacking the place. Hours earlier, according to neighbors, two men were seen removing a heavy load wrapped in a quilt. Someone, evidently, thought the director had squirreled away some of his secrets at home. [H: Please refer to Jackson letter (starting on Front Page].] Meanwhile, despite orders to seal his office, many files were spirited away from FBI headquarters before Nixon's new acting director could get to them. Some were destroyed by Hoover's longtime assistant Helen Gandy. Others were reportedly kept by his aide and lover Clyde Tolson, and retrieved by the FBI when he in turn died.

THE LESSON TO BE LEARNED

A congressional inquiry failed to find out for sure what happened to the secret and sensitive files that were removed from headquarters. I suspect most were destroyed. But there's no doubt that the massive file systems still maintained at the FBI contain information that should never have been collected in a democratic society. Some of it would probably harm prominent people still alive, and certainly there is data that could smear the memory of revered politicians now dead. It is small consolation that much of the information the FBI gathered was baseless gossip. I would second the call Anthony Lewis made in the New York Times recently, that the Clinton administration should promptly force all agencies to disgorge their files on American citizens on request of the citizens involved. This should be the case anyway-had the Reagan and Bush administration not castrated the Freedom of Information Act. Finally, and most important, we must show that the lesson of Hoover's abuses has been learned. We should prohibit the had in his files. Later, during the Watergate investigation of Americans because of their

It was originally intended to be outstanding for a period of 6 months or less. While the terms show on the reverse side as being 1-1/ 4 % interest, that rate was only applicable if the debt was retired within the time frame of 6 months. If the debt exceeded the 6 months, a penalty of 24.5% was to be assessed to one year and the interest paid. The note could go on indefinitely with interest rising 1% point each 10 year period. Currently, the interest rate is 16.5% with the note or "Obligation" being in the 27th year and the face value of the 33 billion dollar note on 4-11-94 is: $803,299,650,005.84. What this shows is the irresponsibility of our leaders on a national level and the fraud being perpetrated on and against all of us—on a daily basis.

While three officers of government filed affidavits stating the document, and others, are a scam, why would this and other like documents be shown on the "TREASURY" and "FRB" (Federal Reserve Board) computer systems as OBLIGATIONS? WE KNOW WHY!

CRIMINAL POLITBUROS KILLING YOUR WORLD

This journal shall be identified as:

CRIMINAL POLITBUROS AND OTHER PLAGUES

As we speak of that which is smothering your world you will find that crime and corruption are so widespread as to overwhelm the minds of citizens of every nation. Within the pages of these current journals we will offer the work of others who have PROOF and DOCU-MENTATION of these things of which we write. It will run the list of Camelot, dead fish in the injustice system, judgments regarding that which was previously hidden and the integration within the U.S. et al. of Criminal Politburos from Russia and other places, as well as the players in your own game of disaster. This will take several volumes which will bear separate identification labels for ease of subject choices rather than volume numbers. Readers will need to refer to their own sequence accounting; we are not publishers, only "magazine" type of dated material presentations.

DEDICATION

I am unable to do other than thank writers for contributions and sharing of such critical and eyepopping information. As will be found in this issue, we especially thank and honor:

INTRODUCTION

I am going to waste no time in blatherings this morning as too much is transpiring to attend the time required for more than brief personal comments.

Recently we have shared information regarding the crime scene in Russia and it comes to my attention that more and more is being seen in your American press regarding such crime. Is it accurate? Well, you have to know about YOUR PRESS and then assume SOME OF IT may be quite accurate. However, as long as you have some members of the journalistic crew of the Associated Press who print total lies to "set people up" as in the Ekker, Phoenix Institute for Research & Education and myself, in the case of the Institute vs. George Green in Nevada, you can't depend on any representation from that resource. However, this article which will now be offered seems to it here that you might see things are coming to

CIA WARNS OF "CRIMINAL POLITBURO" IN RUSSIA

WASHINGTON—Organized criminals from Russia, China and Africa are forging ties with old European and Latin American crime groups to threaten national economies and world security, the CIA director told Congress on Wednesday

(April 20, 1994).

R. James Woolsey said a Russian "criminal politburo* could emerge as a powerful adversary with the network and resources to deal in nuclear warheads, while violent drug traffickers and other criminal groups are spreading and coordinating activities throughout the world. [H: Please realize that this is coming forth AND IS VERY IMPOR-TANT, READERS. This is actually saying that there is a FACTION which is now in competition with that which has been totally controlled by the "COMMITTEES" of power up to this point and now is setting up even stronger "arms" against the traditional power-brokers. You are simply witnessing a rising-up of one of the "Titans" of power who will be confronting the other "Titanic" powers that already "be". It is for this focus and confirmation of that which we have brought you prior to this that causes me to choose to offer this bit of press.]

Dear Senator Gorton and Senator Murray:

Taking the above in their numbered sequence of order, I am in receipt of a FAX communication from a Mr. Jack T. Shindler, Vice President of the Thomas Company, 3890 Swenson, Suite #924, Las Vegas, Nevada 89119, which purports that he has received reports from Ukrainian refugees in Canada, that Korean Airlines Flight 007 did not crash in 1983 as reported by the media, but was instead forced to make a "water landing" and that the 269 passengers, the Korean pilots, and United States Congressman Larry McDonald are being held captive in a Siberia prison camp. The FAX report indicated that Congressman McDonald is thin, but well, and goes on to indicate that some 175 other persons, primarily United States military officers, are also being held in this camp.

I received the FAX communication on January 19, 1994, but needed to acquire further data to confirm the report. Now, after reviewing other information concerning circumstances brought to bear from additional sources, I believe there is compelling evidence to suggest that the FAX communication I received in January is genuine. And if true, there is not one United States Senator or Representative, or American Citizen, that could not be subjected to the same fate, either through some ill conceived covert operation gone wrong, or outright blackmail.

We have grave concern that internal or external components of the United States Government and a complicit news media have covered up the fate of those aboard KAL 007, in similar measure as to what occurred concerning the fatal plane crash in Gander, Newfoundland on December 12, 1985. This tragic crash claimed the lives of 248 men and women of the U.S. Army's 101st Airborne Division and the 8 crewmembers of the Arrow Air, Inc. charter airline carrying them.

As you may recall, the troops that died in that plane disaster were returning from a 6-month tour of duty in the Sinai Peninsula as "peacekeeping forces" pursuant to the Camp David Accords. The aircraft had departed Cairo, Egypt, the day before and made an intermediate refueling stop in Cologne, Germany, before flying on to Gander, Newfoundland. Shortly after 6 a.m. it was taking off in the predawn darkness for its final leg to Fort Campbell, the home base of the 101st Airborne Division. The plane was airborne only about 15-seconds when it crashed into a ravine a half mile from the runway. All 256 persons on board perished.

In the Newfoundland incident, an oversight hearing was conducted by the Subcommittee on Crime of the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives of the 101st Congress, Second Session, on December 4 and 5, 1990. It is apparent from reviewing this 907 page document, including the "Dissenting Opinion" of the Canadian Government contained therein, of the inescapable conclusion that a massive cover-up has been perpetrated by those agencies of the United States Government with regard to the actual cause of the Gander, Newfoundland DC-8 plane crash. It is clearly apparent that the Canadian investigation was much more thorough than that of the United States, and that the aircraft did not crash because of purported ice contamination on the wings, this being only a theoretical presumption. In fact, the majority adduced there was no evidence of ice on any of the aerodynamic surfaces of the Arrow Air DC-8, except for a small amount on an unheated edge of a windshield, which could not have affected the flight. Instead, the proof is conclusive that this aircraft suffered an in-flight explosion prior to impact, that the power to the engines was lost prior to the crash, and that an in-flight fire was observed emerging from the right side of the aircraft, which as further witnesses testified, because of the physical evidence at the crash site, could only have originated from within the cargo compartment. The conclusive evidence of the Canadian Government proves beyond any shadow of doubt that the Arrow Air DC-8 suffered "an in-flight fire that may have resulted from detonations of undetermined origin which brought about catastrophic system failures."

This December, four years will have elapsed since the crash of the DC-8 at Gander, Newfoundland. How long, Senator's, must the American people wait, before it is determined who placed the detonation device aboard the ill fated DC-8, and those responsible for the murders of 256 men and women? When will the perpetrators be brought to the bar of justice? What were the political ramifications of those persons returning from the Sinal Peninsula or perhaps the cargo or documents aboard that aircraft that it was conceded by some bureaucrat to eliminate evidence of wrong doing?

In like manner, eleven years have elapsed since the crash of KAL 007 near Sakhalin Island which allegedly claimed the lives of 269 people, including several American Citizens and a United States Congressman. How long, Senator's, must the American people wait, before the true fate of those aboard is determined and if a cover-up has been perpetrated? When will those responsible be brought to justice?

How many more death trails will be allowed to be continued and covered up by complicit elements attempting to hide the truth? Who were the real perpetrators of Pan Am Flight 103, which was blown out of the sky over Lockerbee. Scotland with several CIA operatives aboard, including U.S. Army General McKee and other military personnel, whom we know were coming back to the United States to testify against George Bush and the October Surprise - Iran/contra? What of the highly secret intelligence group called "Pegasus" that gave files on the CIA criminal activities from 1976 to 1982 to a member of the Joint Armed Services Committee, Congressman Larry McDonald? [See: Defrauding America by Rodney Stitch] These files revealed corrupt activities by several U.S. presidents, federal officials, the CIA, and other members of Who was Trenton Parker, and why did the CIA and the Justice Government. Department sacrifice him in 1982? Was his incarceration to aid and abet, and protect an on going government secret scheme called Operation Snow Cone, the CIA's identification for the several drug trafficking operations in Central and South America. under which other covert drug operations were operated, such as Operation Watch Tower? Why was he kept in solitary confinement in a federal prison for four years . . . to keep him from blowing the whistle to the media? Where is he now? I have seen the CIA confidential document showing Parker's ONI and CIA status, which is contained within the book Defrauding America. Trenton Parker stated that Congressman McDonald let it be known to the press that he was going to reveal the startling evidence upon his return from the Far East, showing that the CIA and certain high-ranking public officials were part of an operation responsible for drug trafficking into the United States since 1963 from Southeast Asia. Of course, McDonald boarded KAL Flight 007 for his trip to the Far East, that was allegedly shot down by the Soviets. We now understand that the alleged "shoot down" was a fake, orchestrated by highly placed government officials both in the United States and the Soviet Union.

It is truly abhorrent that the United States Government, or shadow components within it, in concert with known communist nations have for years been formenting violence and terrorism worldwide in the deceptive march toward a New World Order and the centralization of powers. While on the one hand the government makes its surface appearance that of a benevolent "big brother", the incontrovertible evidence proves conclusively that the United States Government has indeed been waging a declared war of immense proportions under the scope and purview of subsection (b) of Section 5 of the Trading With The Enemy Act of October 6, 1917. That act is presently codified at Title 12 USCS, Section 95b, to wit: "The actions, regulations, rules, licenses, orders and proclamations heretofore or hereafter taken, promulgated, made, or issued by the President of the United States or the Secretary of the Treasury since March 4, 1933, pursuant to the authority conferred by subsection (b) of section 5 of the Act of October 6, 1917, as amended [12 USCS Section 95a], are hereby approved and confirmed." (Mar. 9, 1933, c. 1, Title I, Section 1, 48 Stat. 1.)

It is quite clear from the foregoing that the American people are the declared enemy. And because of the declared state of "national emergency" under which America has labored for over sixty years, these broad Executive powers that have been delegated to the President have effectively placed the American people in abject slavery, by nationalizing the vital industries of this nation and removing the common law from our court system. Additionally, because of the war being waged against the American people, the Constitution for the United States of America has been effectively placed in a state of suspension, and as evidenced by Senate Report 93-549, dated November 19, 1973, the American people have lived under four declared state's of "national emergency" for the past 61-years, beginning March 9, 1933.

The Supreme Court once sald, "It is not the function of our government to keep the Citizen from falling into error; it is the function of the Citizen to keep our government from falling into error". As such, I hereby charge you to repeal Proclamations 2039 and 2040, and 12 USC 95(a) and 95(b), and re-establish the Constitution for the United States of America to its rightful position in our government and to its rightful owners - We, the People.

If there is any fiber of truth left within either of your capacitles as American's first, and as United States Senator's second. I would urge both of you to investigate the foregoing atrocities, and if you can not or will not carry out the duties and actions required of your oath of office, then please, tender your resignation now so that another may take your place who is willing and/or able to do what you are incapable of doing. I remind you both, that under Article III, Section 3 of the Constitution, "Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying War against them, or in adhering to their Enemies, giving them Aid and Comfort." Need we say more?

SIPAPU ODYSSEY

excerpt, from pages 41-44 (last excerpt is in the 4/19/94 CONTACT), of the very first work by "Dharma" called SIPAPU ODYSSEY. At the time of its writing, about seven years ago, it was thought to be a work of Fantasy. However, as time passes, SIPAPU is appreciated for its vivid message from God's Hosts and its "timing" clues for various events in the major planetary transition now well underway on Earth-Shan. ANCIENT REVELATIONS

By Dorushka Maerd ("Dharma")

It was evening when the groups began to gather up the canyon for holograms and speakers. As Steve and the Earth group joined the audience they noted many people whom they had not seen before. The gathering was situated in a widened area and those in attendance sat clustered facing a sheer cliff wall with an outcropping of rock at its base. As the natural light faded, it was replaced by a "spot-light" from the space craft which lit the "stage" area. It was wonderful as the sky was visible above the stream of light. They could watch the stars take their places in the universe while waiting for the session to begin.

Spotted Eagle climbed to a point near the middle of the rock outcropping and raised his hands to the Heavens. There was the scent of smoke wafting on the air and Spotted Eagle carried some feathered items, in addition to a beautifully decorated, longstemmed pipe. The audience fell into immediate silence as he took his place and prepared to speak.

Spotted Eagle spoke of the Ancient Ones and of the relationships of every creation on Earth; of the relationship of humans to all of those creations. He spoke of the beauty and harmony of Earth as our mother, and as he spoke the cliff became a huge screen" upon which was projected a collage of action pictures. He continued to narrate as scene after scene was illuminated before the group. The projections showed the devastation perpetrated by man on the two beautiful continents known as the Americas. Among those things shown were consequences of acid rain with dozens of examples of streams, rivers, large and small lakes, and oceans being polluted and destroyed; there were pictures of forests being poisoned by pollution, devastated by man for industry and cleared for agriculture. The consequential terrible flooding from the stripped watersheds was shown. He showed pictures of dozens of electric power plants, oil refineries, chemical and industrial plants belching forth pollution. He showed the destruction resulting from mining activities (there were also demonstrations of earth collapse into some of the underground mine shafts as the earth shifted). The examples seemed endless.

Spotted Eagle even showed examples of

Editor's note: The following is another man's desecration of Earth's most sacred areas; the human faces carved onto the face of magnificent Black Hills (one of the Indian's most sacred spiritual places). Diana was openly sobbing and Bob could not stop the flow of tears from his eyes. Somehow he knew the subject matter would not get easier as the evening progressed. He would be correct in that assumption.

FUTURE REVELATIONS

John, too, was accompanied by projected visual holograms which made an individual have the feeling of actual participation within the scene itself. As he spoke, appropriate visualizations moved with his verbal illusions.

He said he would simply be giving a de-scription of things as directly handed down to him, without personal comment. He then launched into his teachings.

And it is said there shall be winds, and there shall be, in the time when it is winter; and the trees shall bow down their boughs, and the winds shall sting with the cold; and there be upon the Earth which shall escape there shall be great suffering among the people and they shall fall down and cry for mercy.

And there shall be a mighty earthquake and it shall split in twain the country of North America, and it shall be as nothing the world has known before, for it shall be that there shall be a great part of the great land of the North Continent go down and a great sea shall form within her center part from the Dominion of Canada into the Gulf of Mexico.

"And there shall be great ocean liners, liners which shall travel within its waters, which will be propelled by solar energy of the next age. But with this they shall be unable to travel east to west or from west to east, through what is now the Atlantic Ocean, for it shall have a mountain range which has been thrown up from the bottom of the Atlantic; and it shall be extended into the air to the altitude of ten thousand feet and it shall be the City of old, for present.

it was the Light of the world. She went down amid a great shock and a great wave; and it shall be that she shall come up the same way as she went down.

"And the west side be as the sheer side of granite, and it shall be without foothold; and the way shall be as the eagle flies from the place which is Upper Virginia three hundred miles due east; and at this point it shall be one thousand and eight hundred feet from the waters; and not an entrance through the land shall there be to the east, for it is not for them, which are to be the remnants, to communicate by water; for it shall be with a new science, and a new method shall be given unto them. For there is not a place which is that shall remain the same in its present state.

"And not a person shall be left which is not prepared for that which shall be. And there are many called but few are chosen: for there are none which have been chosen which have not been carefully prepared; and they have been unto themselves true, and they have given credit where credit is due. And now it is given unto them to be the seed of the new Civilization which shall come upon the Earth.

And within the time which is left before this shall come upon the Earth, it shall be that many will be called: and they shall doubt; and they shall fear; and they shall faint; and they shall fall by the way; and they shall be in no wise, for it is given unto man to fear that which he does not understand—and for that does he

> "And it is said there shall be winds, and there shall be the winds, and they shall be as none the Earth has known; and they shall be as the winds from the sea and from the land all rolled into one great tempest. And they shall be as the winds of the North and the South and East and the West, and they shall tear that which is in their path and they shall be as the reaper who mows down that which is in his path. And they shall sing with the bitterness of the cold. And they shall be as the elements of the Earth, for they shall contain both rain and wind; and the hail shall be as big as bird eggs, and it shall split that which it hits.

> "And it shall be that the suffering shall be great upon the Earth, for it is given unto man to know suffering. And he has not known such suffering before, and, when it is come upon him, he shall fall down and shall cry for mercy.

> "And it shall be that the winds too small be great upon the Earth—they shall blow East, West, North and South and not a place shall the winds which bloweth; and when this tribulation has come upon the Earth, it shall be that there shall be many who have kept within

"And with the coming of the winds and belching of fire from within the Earth there shall be-MORE!"

John continued by telling of how things would be. He said that no one would be responsible for the words of another nor would any man take upon himself that which would be done by another. Each entity would be responsible for his own. He said man had lost his identity with the Father God which had sent him and that if he would not awaken and return to the Father he would surely perish.

John spoke on for a very long time giving illustration after illustration. He concluded by saying it was time to talk more about the

New Gaia Products

GAIANDRIANA

Gaiandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of well-being by, of course, being well.

The Gaiandriana (commonly referred to as "chondriana" in the Biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a "pac-man" operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the viand cumulative levels of so-called "background' radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiandriana liquid is made entire' from wholesome natural ingredients.

AQUAGAIA

Complementary to the Gaiandriana product, AquaGaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic "foods" to help cells, weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

AquaGaia contains mitochondria. These are the major biochemical energy "processors" within cellular metabolism. First, enzymes begin the breakdown process of organic nutrients (like fats, carbohydrates and proteins) to intermediate substances such as amino and pyruvic acids. Then, in the next "bucket brigade" step, these various acid molecules are processed within the mitochondria to release chemical energy recognized as adenosine triphosphate (ATP).

About 95% of the energy needed to "run the machinery" that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called "background" radiation in our modern environment, These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of AquaGaia, with its assimilatable supply of healthy mitochondria - like "fresh batteries" for the body's cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders.

2/11/93 #2 HATONN

GAIANDRIANA & AQUAGAIA

To help in understanding the workings of these organic "pac-men" you must realize that

The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc WHAT takes place within the cellular strucatom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA-in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

AquaGaia, in conjunction with the Gaiandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple "charge" change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of "parts" of the Gaiandriana male-female DNA structure which releases many working variants but frees the Gaiandrionettes or "killers" to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the "cap", the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells-further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochon-

Healthy cells are not affected because they

These "Gaia" compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a "messenger" molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell's DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved wellbeing and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

recovery, following infection by other viruses, than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondrianas (living crys- Tea. This IS the basic component of MO-GU tal forms). We, again, make no medical claimsthere is a protein covering "cap" on viruses. we are simply reporting in an effort to explain tures of living organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor - it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference-refrigerate after opening and reclosing.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiandriana and AquaGaia, together for storage as the AquaGaia (mitochondria) are aggressive and begin to "eat" the Gaiandriana for fuel. Once ingested, they go about their appointed tasks, but in bottle prisons they are not particularly compatible once the available fuel supply is exhausted. Juices are excellent to take with the AquaGaia because the mitochondria must have the fuel derived from same, the most effective juice being from the tropical "Guava" fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the "initial" program is completed, and the The obvious conclusion is that there might maintenance level of intake is being folwell be good reports of better health and faster lowed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

GaiaLyte is a fully integrated electrolytic liquid. The "drink" is a "concentrate" (3 to 1 minimum—as much to one as you like maximum). It contains EVERYTHING supplemental to Gaiandriana—INCLUDING A GROWING-PROGRAMMING BASE OF GAIANDRIANA AND BASIC DRIANAS. It also contains enough Carbragaia to equal a full schedule of what is being used in Mexico-(shark-fin cartilage). If you are using MO-GU—keep on—it can only enhance your full-rounded intake—but it WILL NOT be the same. However, the "new" drink will supply all you need without it. This is NOT A MEDICAL PROGRAM OF ANY KIND. We are not physicians as in Medical Doctor; we are not anything-except hopefully, sharers of in-

The GaiaLyte has a full spectrum of vitamins, minerals, Ginkgo, Echinacea, Chlorella, Oxygenators, Aloe Vera—everything necessary to "program" the cells in the tea membrane AND the Gaiandriana included. This does not replace the Gaiandriana used otherwise. This is a PERFECT medium to enhance the ability of the Gaiandriana you already take to enhance itself-reinforcement fuel, if you will.

You can dilute the concentrate with water AND/or anything you like. May we recommend apple juice and/or Cranberry. The apple juice is to flush out the gallbladder and the cranberry juice flushes out the bladder (urine). You may use as much as you like of either OR both and we would hope you would do so on a continuing basis because of the value of these two products and their focus of use.

We believe you will find it a very tasty beverage but we ask that no matter how "good", just keep to the "program" amounts or you may find yourself a bit "woozy" immediately after intake. This is due more to the Aloe Vera present than the tea itself—but as you know, even the MO-GU tea can make you quite lightheaded. There is no alcohol in the beverage although you may very well think so as the body rushes to uptake the fuel supply. This is not a medical-chemical concoction so you could take the entire bottle without damage or hazard—but you might well not feel so great for a bit afterward and it is totally UNNECESSARY for any expected positive response.

This is not like taking an antibiotic with flu or sore-throat. This is a well-body systemic enhancement. It sometimes, as with other persons' elixir-takes weeks or months to feel any difference. ONCE balanced, however, you will note that at onset of infection, cold, etc., if you take around GaiaLyte—you will probably note positive response in about an hour. Remember—you are activating the enhanced immune system and it takes a while to accomplish this task.

ALOE JUICE (Whole Leaf, Cold Pressed Aloe Vera Concentrate)

Aloe Vera has a long and impressive history that spans hundreds of centuries, countries and cultures, and appears in countless "folk remedies" as a plant revered for its healing qualities.

Aloe Juice is a whole-leaf concentrate prepared from the freshly harvested leaves of the Barbadensis Miller Aloe Vera plant. Aloe Juice guarantees a minimum of 10,000 mg. of mucopolysaccharides per

The nutrients reported in Aloe Vera include mucopolysaccharides and polysaccharides (glucomannans), glycoproteins, glucose, mannose, galactose, xylose, arabinose, tannins, steroids, organic acids, antibiotic principles, glucuronic acids, enzymes (oxidase, catalase and amylase), trace sugars, calcium oxalate, a protein containing 18 amino acids, "wound healing" hormones, biogenic stimulators, saponins, vitamins B1, B2, niacin, B6, choline, folic acid, chloride, sulfate, iron, calcium, copper, sodium, potassium, silicon, manganese, plus many other metabolism-assisting components.

CHLORELLA

Chlorella is a nutritionally balanced whole food and contributes to the health and growth of human cells like no single vitamin or mineral possibly can.

Chlorella is extremely high in protein (60%) and contains more than 20 vitamins and minerals, 19 of the 22 essential and non-essential amino acids, enzymes and chlorella growth factor. It is one of the richest sources of RNA and DNA known and has twenty times as much chlorophyll as alfalfa, 10 times more than other edible algae including spirulina, and 10 times more than barley grass.

Chlorella is a natural vitality enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll-A, chlorophyll-B, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoic acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. The minerals include: phosphorus, potassium, iodine, magnesium, sulphur, iron, calcium, manganese, copper, zinc and cobalt.

The amino acids include: lysine, histidine, arginine, aspartic acid, threoinine, serine, glutamic acid, six ounces of Gaiandriana and double up on the proline, glycine, alanine, cystine, valine, methionine, isoleucine, leucine, tyrsine, phenylalanine, ornithine, tryptophan.

The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day.

ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS (with American Ginseng)

In recent years few medicinal plants have garnered as much attention as Echinacea (Echinacea Purpurea and Echinacea Angustifolia).

Echinacea is a non-specific stimulant to the immune system. Claims for Echinacea include: stimulation of leukocytes, mild antibiotic activity, anti-inflammatory activity, stimulation of the adrenal cortex, stimulation of the proper-din-complement system, interferon-like activity, stimulation of general cellular immunity, and antiviral activity. Internal preparations are said to assist in alleviating cold and flu symptoms, respiratory infections, and arthritis, to name a few.

Goldenseal (Hydrastis Canadensis) is among the most popular herbs in the American health food market. Uses are numerous, including but not limited to: antiseptic, hemostatic, diuretic, laxative, and tonic/anti-inflammatory for the mucous membranes, hemorrhoids, nasal congestion, mouth and gum sores and eye afflictions.

Few medicinal plants in the world possess Ginseng's near-legendary status. Dating back thousands of years, its history of use in the Orient records therapeutic properties so wide ranging that it was first dismissed by Western doctors as a "panacea". When fatigued, Ginseng reportedly restores both physical and mental functions to peak efficiency and, with regular use, improves resistance to disease and stress. American Ginseng's genus name is Panax Quinquefolius.

Over 40,000 species of mushrooms exist, many of which are used as medicines. Of particular note are such remedies as penicillin- and ergot-based ex-tracts used in migraine treatment, to name a few. Extensive research has been done with one mushroom in particular, namely, Reishi. This mushroom is now considered a tried and true immune system fortifier.
