I want to acknowledge the confirmation in writing from Lana Cantrell for the use of her marvelous work presented in The Greatest Story NEVER Told. In fact, I find the work so excellent in perception as to offer more of that topic before we move on to other subjects. I do not ever want to take liberties with other writer's material and we shall be far more careful so that we do not cross the very ones we think of most highly. Let it be realized here, however, that we cannot always discern, at first, the intent of others in whom we must place trust for our own actions. We write journals, not books as such. We never want to take liberties with "books", just present that which we can offer in good conscience for your own discernment and acquisition.

The Brotherhood Of Man Within A Universe Of Light

We are very pleased to have been granted permission from Chief Melford Okilo to reprint his introductory message as the new President of The University Of Science & Philosophy. Many of you will find his message to be an uplifting and inspiring blend of scientific depth and spiritual truth. This is taken from the Vol. XII, 1996 issue of US&P's Newsletter Light Waves (P.O. Box 520, Waynesboro VA 22980; 540-942-5161). I found Chief Okilo to have a warm and very wise personality during my recent talk with him. He is the former Governor of Rivers State in Nigeria as well as the former Minister of Commerce and Tourism of Nigeria. If you find as much refreshment in his words as we do, I'm sure he would appreciate hearing from you in, say, a brief written note of appreciation.

—Dr. Edwin M. Young, Editor-In-Chief

FROM THE INCOMING PRESIDENT

Brotherhood of Mankind

There are not two separate or separable beings in the Universe. All are indissolubly united. All are one.
The Divine Iliad

There is no separateness. All mankind is an extension of the one idea of man, for man is but one in the light of his source in God. From the one man idea, God seemingly divided His one light into two lights (father-mother or positive-negative pairs of light) which are then united again to create more pairs of father-mother bodies to continue the work of creation.

Likewise, the one light of God cannot be divided, but the extensions of the one light can appear to divide it. For example, the spots of sunlight upon the floor of some buildings are many, but they are all extensions of the one light of their source in the Sun. In other words, the uncreated spiritual light in all men is one, but the extensions or the created physical bodies are many.

Nature has a separating process which constantly expresses the universal desire for change and multiplicity, and there is likewise a constant leveling process which forever expresses the universal desire for oneness. Man and God are one. Man may not be apart from God at any time, nor can any part of Creation be apart from God at any time. Man's awareness of the Light of God within will give him all knowledge and power.

This universe of countless parts is wired together by an electric flux of "nerves" which informs each man or part of the universe of the ever-changing condition of every other part. This shows that the world of man is all one brotherhood. What any man does to another, he does to all men. Each person is the same person because all are connected by light. Everything in the universe is electrically connected to every other thing. Mind or light of love knows this and could see it with its extrasensory vision. The aura which connects every object in the universe with every other object is also visible to it. It is the light in man that makes all men and things as one and indissolubly united.

Each man of Earth, therefore, extends from and through the other, and this relationship is the scientific meaning of the brotherhood of mankind. No man is separate and apart from other men.

We are living in an orderly God-controlled universe of law where man is as inexorably bound within fixed limitations as the planets are bound to definite paths in their orbits.

The world is in its present dangerous condition because of the casual manner in which such vital principles of truth as: "We Are All One," "The Golden Rule," "The Brotherhood of Man," and "Unity" have been taken assuming that man's free will gave him choice of action in regard to them. These seemingly abstract statements constitute God's inviolate law of love upon which the universe itself is founded.

LAW OF LOVE

God created mankind and His Universe with light, and extended His universal mind-light to the center of every man and object in order to teach, protect, control or govern them. He created everything into pairs of opposites. He seemingly divided His one still light into two moving lights of opposite conditions (male/female or positive/negative) which are then united as one balanced whole to simulate His oneness—HIS ONE LIGHT.

We also observe that the universe is externally balanced, and anything God creates is always balanced to maintain His universal balance. God, therefore, commanded all creating things to create only balanced things and actions in all their dealings with each other.

To keep His universe in balance, God made this command into the inviolate law of balance which commands that all transactions of all nature between mate-pairs or pairs of opposite conditions in nature or between men MUST BE EQUAL AND BALANCED. There should be no cheating whatsoever. Any unbalance or inequality resulting from such transactions or dealings brings immediate penalties for violating the law.

God's command is that every unit of His creation must give to its opposite, and that opposite must give equally. This is balanced interchange—equal giving and equal regiving. Out of this one command came God's one law of love which states that there must be a balanced interchange between all pairs of opposites in every unit of creation. The law states that there must be a rhythmic balanced interchange between all givings and regivings or between mate-pairs throughout the universe. The giving and equal regiving make up what love really means.

The measure given is the measure regiven. Action and reaction are equal and opposite. One opposite of the divided pair balances its gift with its other opposite. To him who gives little, little must be regiven, but its value must be equal to the value given. And to him who gives much, much must be regiven.

In Nature, the law says: "For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction." But in human relations it reads, "For every transaction between two men, or man and woman, or groups, or nations of people, every action and reaction MUST BE EQUAL AND BALANCED." The law, like every other law, has its own sanctions. Its obedience brings its own reward and blessings while its disobedience brings its own punishment and butting.

UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD

Universal brotherhood is the last weapon left to man to use to save the human race lest we destroy ourselves. The time has come when man must work to bring unity into the world or perish by his own hand.

The Egyptian Pharaoh, Akhenaton, and other Egyptian fathers were the first in recorded history to moot the idea of the brotherhood of man about 5000 BC before it was later followed by other spiritual messengers who also gave it to their people.

Laotzu and Confucius gave it to the Chinese, and Buddha told it to the Hindus. Mohammed told it to the Arabians. The unknown mystic who wrote The Bhagavad Gita told it to the Persians, and God's beloved son, Jesus Christ, the greatest of all the illumined mystics, gave it to the world—the idea of universal brotherhood of man.

Jesus said, "Love ye one another" and "Do ye unto one another as ye would have them do unto you," but few since that day have known what He meant or have practiced it in their daily lives. This injunction is based on the principle of oneness of all men and things with God. This means rhythmic balanced interchange between all

THE GOLDEN RULE

The world has never understood that the Golden Rule is a law which must be obeyed as much as the law of gravity must be obeyed, else it would break one as surely as though one threw himself over a cliff in defiance of the law of gravity. People consider it just an ideal for practice in close family and social relations but not for business dealings.

No one had discovered that the laws of equal interchange between all pairs of opposites in human relations demanded the same equality as those in nature. Just as the piston stroke of compression must equal the expansion stroke in an engine or in one's heart-beat, so must that which every man receives from another, or from nature, be equaled by what he gives.

When the world practices the giving of service first instead of taking first, wars will be impossible between nations or between any pair of opposites like capital and labor, buyer and seller, husband and wife, or government and people.

If, for example, a manufacturer desires prosperity, he must first give prosperity by going out to his factories and seeing to it that those who are working for his enrichment are themselves made prosperous. That is the way the law of equal interchange works the golden rule is that law.

US&P

This University was founded for the purpose of unifying mankind through greater knowledge of God and the law of love and to create a civilization based upon love through knowledge of the light in man.

CONCLUSION

In the heart of every man is the desire for love, happiness, peace and prosperity. In the hearts of the nations of man is the one world desire for international unity. Universal brotherhood is the ultimate world goal.

The human race is far away from this goal. The distance can be measured by the yardstick of love, but love has not yet entered the doorway of human relations and will not enter until unity opens the door for it to come in.

Unity means oneness. Unity balances the matehood of all pairs of people and equalizes their transactions in giving and regiving.

Civilization has not progressed to that point where unity through giving and regiving of love can be understood by more than a few of man's millions.

Man's greatest lesson is to learn how to give. We are still in the age of taking—even of taking life. The spiritual age is dawning however. Its doors are slightly ajar, but our world-house is still erected upon the sands of disunity. The product of disunity is fear. A house divided against itself by disunity and fear must fall. Peace, happiness and prosperity cannot enter a divided house of fear. They will only do so when the light of love unites all men as one, and that shall come to pass only when man ceases to create fear and embraces the brotherhood of man.

The scientific meaning of the brotherhood of man could be added to all religious teachings, for man's comprehension is ready and waiting for this new knowledge. When all religious groups concede that all men are the children of God, regardless of their race, color or creed, then God will at last be recognized by all men as the only power in the world, and the worship of personalities will cease. When there is universal understanding of the one God whom all men worship alike, religion will then be the most powerful force in the world.

The US&P was dedicated to the purpose of disseminating this great Divine Iliad message for the saving of the human race throughout the world through our books, the Home Study Course, other recommended books, seminars and Homecomings.

Potential & Torque

Working Toward Being All That You Can Be

4/23/96 #1 HATONN

POTENTIAL AND TORQUE

As we move into speaking more about the individual life-form potential, we cannot leave out the "torque" as might define those pressures which come against that individual mechanism.

You don't need to be a rocket scientist to understand that any mechanical or moving object is affected by the pressures applied and the circumstances present in the environment. In living human individuals you MUST enter into the calculations of impact on the mechanism the FREE WILL

CHOICES AND THOUGHT REASONING gifts of Creator to the specific species called MAN. Torque is simplistically used here to define the "turning force"; potential is the all inclusive realization possibilities. If you have an electric motor you might consider many possibilities for use and/or power magnitudes.

However, in MAN there is present, at upstart, 100% potential for ALL things, unlimited. This is because Man is simply a refracted realization of God who is ALL. Each individual, therefore, is brought forth with 100% potential. You pick up "torque" as you move through the environment and growth stages of development.

You will have two potentials as you realize that you are as an electric motor in that you have potential for mechanical use and yet you move beyond the mechanical into the wondrous and YOUR element of MIND-SOUL. There is infinite diversity of life but underneath all this diversity there is only ONE all-pervasive SPIRIT. Moreover there is NO separation between you from this infinite field of energy. So, in calculating your potential, you MUST realize that this field of pure potentiality is your very own SELF.

If you move yourself into the condition of rare contact with Natural and Spiritual possibilities and lock in onto the mechanical and physical things of manifestation, you move further from the magnificent perfection of your field of pure potentiality. You will begin to utilize that which is a product of another's potential, be locked away from that which is your pure potential, and relegated into the trap as laid for mankind's torque-building structure.

There is no need to discuss further steps in growth of Soul if you don't at some point face the REALITY of your POTENTIAL and its unlimited presence. You and only YOU can realize your own pure potential. There are hundreds of ways to express the lessons and yet the fullness or acceptance or denial of the processes of realization and total consciousness reside individually within the ONE now represented by the individual YOU.

I am continually amused by ones I observe searching, seeking, ever looking to "find oneself". You CAN'T get lost so there is nowhere to go to "find" self. Moreover, the Self you "find" is also wherein resides this totally unlimited POTENTIALITY.

Since there is nowhere to "go" to find self, then you must therefore realize that your internal reference point is within your own SPIRIT and never in the objects of your experience. Every "object" will have as individual a referenced perception according to the individual Spirit.

APPROVAL OF "OTHERS" FOOTHOLD OF THE EGO

Wow, this is a biggie for as a babe grows he begins to seek approval of others around him in order to get what he wants. This is LEARNED behavior and it is identified as EGO. In object-referral you are always influenced by objects outside the Self, which include situations, circumstances, people, and things. There is no way in physical manifestation to avoid this impact. You can learn to disallow affectation by these impacting objects, but if you are human you are under impact. Therefore, it must be realized that in object-referral, your internal reference point is your EGO.

Since there is nowhere to "go" to find self, then you must therefore realize that your internal reference point is within your own SPIRIT and never in the objects of your experience. Every "object" will have as individual a referenced perception according to the individual Spirit.

What is most difficult to separate, however, is

Ego FROM Self. The ego becomes your own limited perception called self-image. This, readers, is a nasty hand dealt to you for it is your "SOCIAL" PRESENCE, chosen through object-training, of Self. It is, if you will, the "MASK" (camouflage, costume) you present and sometimes that becomes the image you imprint even on SOUL. You begin to "play a role" as if in a play and then ego begins to direct your acting and as you express you will fall into the trap of allowing your ego to direct all of your experience. Your "pretend player" thrives greatly on approval—of OTHERS—for in the reflected approval of "others" the ego finds its revelation of status. Ego is sustained by POWER. It is sustained by POWER because it lives constantly in FEAR.

FREEDOM FROM THIS FEAR

As you drift into the consciousness of only one aspect of your experience—the physical ego world, you stop in the growing realization of the FACT that your true Self, which is your spirit, your soul, is completely free of those things. It is totally immune to criticism; it is unfearful of challenges, no matter what they be or how they present themselves. In this state of SOUL "being" there is no level of status structure as in being "beneath" the quality or expression of ANY other. There is no "class consciousness". If you can achieve PURE CONSCIOUSNESS you are recognizing PURE POTENTIAL.

A very strange thing begins to happen, however, when you begin to touch on the pure experience and realization in consciousness. You begin to experience humility and the realization is that you cease to feel or need to be, superior to NO ONE. Why? Because you will realize that you are the same as all others for SPIRIT only presents in different "disguises". There IS NO other PURE SPIRIT than that of GOD in LIGHT. When you realize PURE SPIRIT you have Self POWER which can only be defined properly as TRUE power.

Remembering that ego is based on object reference and need of social recognition and approval, even if blatantly false approval, you then are faced with having to KNOW that there in your SOUL is totality of expression and unlimited potential being hidden, yea shackled, by the human physical limitations and environment. Ego, therefore, is limited and transient while your SELF is without limitation and permanent in both realization and performance capabilities. It has to be this way, for without limitations of torque force upon the mechanism, there is present ONLY "pure" potential within ALL.

In "observing" this attribute you might well wish to consider some characteristics which are always presented by this, let us call it, Self-power. People are drawn TO the entity who presents Self-power. This attribute magnetizes others and if you are expressing this Self-power you will find people drawn to you along with the necessary circumstances and format to support your desires, for your desires will present as sought-after desires of ones who seek Self-power and not just Ego-power limited by the force of physical impact. You will enjoy great bonds with others and others will seek out that bonding which only strengthens and multiplies the potential of the bonded union. Therefore, without reference to potential, you have to realize that POWER is an element of that potential but is NOT the potential. Your "power" in reference to others is surely that of bonding and that bonding can only come from true love. We do not need even refer to such as is tossed around erroneously of such as "unconditional" LOVE. There is truly no such thing as pure potential in "unconditional" anything. Pure LOVE will not judge and therefore places no conditions but conditions ARE placed on the physical expression of "being". Most people who use the term "unconditional Love" are actually MEAN-ING "conditioned reaction" for they will express the term while actually acting in unlimited disapproval and hate reference. Just as "allowing" and "acceptance" are two very different terms in pure meaning, so too is "unconditional love" and "absolute love" as is GOD.

When someone claims and touts "unconditional love" while working day and night to destroy the one he/she claims to unconditionally love, is it not oxymoronic? The next thing presented by these destroyers is a full reliance speech about God and Godly "stuff". Now I ask you a sincere question: If you petition God to help you destroy someone else, in that you have judged them to be evil and unallowing and therefore terrible in your judgement, what have you done? Perhaps in your ignorance you have misjudged? Now, if God helps you in your destruction, have you not placed GOD in the position of being EVIL? You have, in this instance, asked God to bless and reward your own Evil ignorance. So, who is God apt to comfort, the destroyer or that one being unjustly destroyed? God's comfort, by the way, comes in PEACE WITHIN, forgiving, loving, but with recognition of CONDITIONS as laid forth in the LAWS OF GOD AND CREATION. These are NOT conditions learned—THEY ARE "CONDITIONS" KNOWN. It is staying within these recognized guidelines which allows for pure potential to flow and CREATE.

BUT HOW DO YOU GET THIS POTENTIAL "STUFF"?

This wondrous and unlimited potential is just always "THERE", so obviously, if you don't "realize" it within Self, then you haven't recognized the way to reach through to it. If you question the "how", then you must want to enjoy the unlimited benefits of this field of energy waiting in 100% potentiality for your realization. This is represented, in other words, as the CREATIVITY INHERENT IN PURE CONSCIOUSNESS WHICH CERTAINLY DOES HAVE TO BE ACCESSED IF IT IS TO HAVE REALIZATION.

The access requirements, however, are those things which you KNOW and yet do not usually practice in EGO-living. You will have to come into the realization of silence, non-judgment, and spend time with Self. You are going to have to practice diligently if you are already bogged into the mire of ego-manifestation. You might want to spend some time, even if at first you loathe the idea, with Nature where you can realize the perfection of Nature itself for Nature simply presents as it is at any "time" under whatever circumstances placed upon its being. It, even to the most tiny flower, simply IS. It is infinite and free for it perceives no other "thing". A plant that sprouts and grows in a sidewalk crack doesn't plan its journey to annoy YOU. It grows where its seed sprouts and it is there until something changes its presence. A gopher in your garden did not come to the garden to annoy YOU; it came there to eat the roots and plants which sustain its life. Your "druthers" do not enter the picture until you impact the gopher's freedom of living quarters or lunch menu.

ACHIEVEMENT OF DESIRES

This is a difficult idea to convey in words for encompassed within the explanation are the separations out of that which is Spiritual and that which is purely

Physical in recognition. The "idea" and plan for achievement of either evil or goodness is the same—therefore the goal must be decided in the full recognition of worthiness of DESIRE. The POTENTIAL is the same. Until you can come to recognize the goodness within your Spiritual Power, you will continually blunder into the Ego-limitations of physical presentation. Until your desires revolve around others, in giving, you CANNOT receive other than those things which bind you more intensely to the physical realization. Remember that there is NO REALITY in the ego-guided experience—there is only illusion and perceptions as pictures painted by the brush of the ego. Only in Soul is there perfect REALITY.

Most are so prone to espouse their endless opinions and perceptions as to never shut up long enough to have silence enough to HEAR. You get so busy in your opinions of the preaching that you fail to be able to HEAR the message, much less THINK on possibilities of the message. If you wish to tap into this unlimited POTENTIAL, you are going to have to access it the only way there is available, through your SELF. This in turn means you are going to have to spend some TIME IN SILENCE WITH SELF! You can only tap into realization of your goals and desires through the thought realization, which then in its own sequence will be spontaneously presented. Get still and talk to God. Talk? Yes, ask God in separation from that dense physical set of sensing devices to show you truth and HE WILL DO SO—IF, you sit quietly and LISTEN without reference to that Ego Self and in behalf of others. In the realization of your potential it will come to be seen that it is unlimited ONLY when YOU TAKE OFF THE SHACKLES OF ILLUSION AND LIES. You must move away from the constant ongoing evaluating, labeling, analyzing and indexing through classifications, all THINGS in your experience in order to achieve the ultimate insider information in truth. The constant chaos and entropy of physical motion and focus are the constrictions and restrictions of the wondrous flow of energy between YOU and the field of that which is purely potential in availability.

Wouldn't it be interesting if for just one hour in any given day, you truly judged not? If you do NOT judge there is a creation of a silence in the mind which ALLOWS. To achieve this available silence you must have discipline in opening the flow-gates to experience without limiting the perceptions by pre-fabricated expectations. Can you not look at a blossom without judging it against any other thing or flower? Mostly your judgements are against artificial elements of your environment. An example is your perception of how an artificial flower of silk replaces the real flower which is only a representation of species AT BEST! If YOU, then, are the representation of species, what kind of seeds will YOU leave behind? It is seriously important to think on that legacy. Will the seeds of your sprouting, growing, production and harvest be worthy or unworthy of that PURE POTENTIAL available or be but a passing, one-more-zombie plant, or worse, along the wind-rows of blurred mass?

OPPOSITES

As you move into taking time to have some silence you need to take a bit of that space to think about something for the mind will not simply "blank out" itself and, since you want to hear from PURE MIND, why would you want to continue to "blank it out"? Begin to ponder on such things as opposites. There are many opposites: black and white, christ and evil, science and societal philosophy, spirit and physical, etc. If I have someone impacting my experience, as a for instance, I want to know if that person is "anti-christ" or "anti-Jesus" before I move off onto a theological discussion for the difference is SO BIG as to boggle Man's ability to realize. If Dharma is asked as to her being or not being "anti-Semitic", how can she answer? She is a lineaged "Semite" but she is not, as is now defined, a Jew. Jew and Semite are total OPPOSITES. Do you begin to see what I try to teach? You cannot know your potential until and unless you KNOW what you are! Argument, debate, changing definitions, or voting-in a thing does not the THING make. There are actual SCIENTIFIC answers to all questions—the problem is that within those answers there is still MYSTERY. Mysticism and Science are opposites, so you have to realize that until something is Scientifically KNOWN, it is mysterious with only a “false perception” of mysticism. Simply because your scientists have not been able to scientifically PROVE something does not mean it is unprovable—only the proof is not YET revealed.

Until you as a species can figure out yourself, how do you expect to figure out the universe? If you are wrong about SELF, you will be WRONG ABOUT EVERYTHING ELSE! Most of you don't have the remotest idea what the thymus gland in your own body does—so how can you recognize the realization of a star system? If you allow a “mystic” to explain the use of the thymus, rather than a scientific, proven use through professors who have studied and learned, how dare you to speculate on God's Creation in Universe on the basis of a UFO nut who concludes a UFO is somehow synonymous with “space aliens”? And further, WHY DO YOU ALLOW YOURSELF TO BELIEVE THE MALARKEY ABOUT ALIENS BEING SOMEHOW MONSTROUSLY BAD GUYS? How many aliens have you met? These elusive visitors never seem to leave any trash around to identify with and, when you find a “Kleenex” on the site of a “crash”, be highly suspicious of the origin of the craft OR the entities presented. A beer can is even more revealing.

What I especially find amusing is the presentation, unquestioned, that at a crash site in New Mexico the craft was, they said, incinerated. Everything, they said, was so charred as to be unrecognizable. BUT, they reported, there were human body parts. There were noses, anuses, reproduction organs, etc.... Oh? Now, if everything is so charred as to be unidentifiable, then how, pray tell, can you identify an anus? What do you suppose you REALLY had at the scene, anuses or living anuses?

WHY THIS SUBJECT?

Why do I speak on “potential”? Because until you recognize you HAVE potential in unlimited quantity—you will produce only that which you deem within possible limitations. You have no limitations in 100% potential. If you can conceive a thing—YOU CAN ACHIEVE THAT CONCEPT! REMEMBER!! If your goal is great you CAN, if you use your potential, achieve and attain that goal. If you want to be a licensed medical doctor you must learn medicine practices, anatomy, and thus and so. If you wish to attain SPIRITUAL SOUL ATTAINMENT IN ITS HIGHER PERFECTION you have to, at the VERY LEAST, recognize that it exists. You don't get it through SOMEONE ELSE'S experience or blatherings—you have to learn and then experience within SELF without EGO to consciously realize that unlimited available potential. You may well have physical potential and desire to build a house, but you are going to have a very strange house if you do not at least learn to use a measuring stick. If you fail to mix cement into your sand for your floor, you are going to have only a sandbox. If then, you decide to go to class and learn something, but you go to music classes instead of building classes, what kind of a house will you have? Look what you do while you are wishing you were “something else”.

Witness the choices you make in each moment, chelas. Bring them to your conscious attention and awareness—LOOK AT THEM. In this way you can see what you need, and the best way to prepare for moments in the future. To prepare for any future expectations you must be conscious of SELF in the present for the present is that which you HAVE while all else is past memory and future speculation.

You must make choices at every turn of your expression, even to breathing. Can't you stop, especially with important choices of such as life direction, to check out the possible consequences of your choices? If you turn in your brother for some act or perceived deed, to the authorities, had you best consider the skeletons hanging in your own dark closet? There is no such thing as “secret witness” programs, lambs to slaughter! If you bear FALSE WITNESS against your brother it is worse for GOD is witness AND GOD IS ALL YOU NEED!

In every choice you must consider consequences and whether or not the choice will bring fulfillment and happiness in the end, to SELF and TO SOUL. Next, you must consider carefully the impact on those who are affected by your choice(s).

If you do some deed in wrong intent and your child experiences it, what then have you done to the whole experiencing lifetime(s) of your child? If you example “wrongness” you will either produce a child who produces wrong and/or a child who despises you.

The ultimate responsibility remains and that is to go within and ask within your heart and soul for guidance and then be guided by the choice which brings comfort and well-being to the Spirit AND Self. This is not a decision for Ego gratification for Ego passes; SOUL IS ETERNAL.

Can you linger long enough to check the “comfort level” of your choice? If, for instance, you have reality reasons for a lawsuit against someone and it seems there is no other choice than to file the case, what have you done? Well, nothing except bring the case to open and public attention of confrontation. There is always the ability to later conclude and resolve the confrontation differently than by all out legal war. If the opponent chooses to push it on into final viewing by jury, so be it. If YOU are acting on the full potential of Soul expression, you will have to win, will you not? If the “other” is acting out of ego-gratification and physical force, lies and immorality, you have no REAL battle do you?? If you have preponderance of truth and he has preponderance of lies, truth shall prevail. Truth with witness sustains for the liars can never remember the matching tales of fabrication, and witnesses for pay is unlawful which in itself builds its own eventual guilt and FEAR within the paid-liar. These paid liars will betray the payor far more quickly than the unknown party for they don't even know WHAT to betray against the innocent party as victim of their lies. These people will ALWAYS blackmail the payor at some time along the subsequent routing of living experience, to cover their own rear end. Most “observers” will first listen to the liar, but when coming into realization of the victim, will see truth and find it very difficult to confront the offended party. If you put these “witnesses” on a stand they will blow like windmills in the storm.

If you live in a house which comes with the landlord's chair, you have one scenario. If that chair is given TO YOU, then you have another circumstance. Now, if you vacate the house and take the chair you have, perhaps, dispute. But, if you take the kitchen sink, there is no dispute—you are a thief. Only the examples CHANGE, readers. ONLY THE EXAMPLES.

If you are going to argue in court—AND WIN, use examples which the jury can understand for it is imperative that the jurors UNDERSTAND the point of the trial. If, for instance, the trial, as with Ekkers, revolves SOLELY around the event of a sale which DID NOT TAKE PLACE but the opposing lawyer skips off to whether or not Mrs. Ekker is “anti-Semitic”, you have a problem. KEEP THE SUBJECT FOCUSED and ALWAYS MAKE SURE YOUR PETITION TO THE JURY IS SIMPLE, SUCCINCT, AND LEAVE NO AVAILABILITY FOR MISINTERPRETATION.

If OUR lawyers would believe us as fully as they believe their own opposition, we wouldn't have a case delay at all. If your own lawyer believes your enemy, you might as well have no lawyer for he will surely lose your case. Worse, you will never know whether or not he was in the PAY of YOUR opponent! Is his loyalty to the “club”, or to YOU, the hapless victim? I suggest YOU learn all you can about the LAW, readers, for you CAN'T KNOW WHAT TAKES PLACE IN THAT DARK SECRET SOCIETY OF BLACK-ROBES! How many of you litigants live in “fear” of your lawyer leaving you? Well, what would you do if you got a call a week before trial and found that the lawyer had died? Check it out! The CHOICES are ALWAYS YOURS. Often, further, you will find that the court is much more sympathetic to the disadvantaged while, also, the higher law demands respect and assistance to you who come in inability to have an attorney. Surely you may well lose the case, but mostly honest cases are lost because of the structure of the unjust system and not on the merits of the case in point. So what else is new? WHO CAN BETTER PLEAD YOUR CASE IN SINCERE DESIRE THAN SELF, AND WHEN SOUL IS “RIGHT” THERE IS REAL ADVANTAGE TO THE EMOTIONAL TRUTH WHICH IS LAID FORTH BEFORE THE JUDGING BODY.

Which do you feel is more sensitive in this equation: Dharma watching the hawk catch and kill her birds which had to be released because the property was taken, or a debate over whether or not the lawyer had received his full billing and dropped the case? The latter happens all the time, readers, so perhaps the Ekkers would not have such fear of loss if they considered things very carefully. To be held hostage by your own attorneys is far worse than simply losing a case because of honest effort from the heart and soul in presentation.

What I want you each to realize is that you must make your own choices, and it behooves you to consider them carefully, so that when you make them you realize the consequences and then make the very most of each plus as consequences circle back, and make sure those consequences of choices are always positive steps instead of destructive fabrications of false assumptions. To go forth to just “getcha” another will ALWAYS come back to “Getcher” Self.

I would close this writing with respect and approbation to one Deepak Chopra for his insightful and easily accepted understanding of the Universe and GOD. He makes a statement, “The universal mind choreographs everything that is happening in the billions of galaxies with elegant precision and unfaltering intelligence. Its intelligence is ultimate and supreme, and it permeates every fiber of existence: from the smallest to the largest, from the atom to the cosmos. Everything that is alive is an expression of this intelligence.” Is that not enough, readers?

Albert Einstein also made a magnificent observation: “I want to know God's thoughts... the rest are details.”

Good morning.

MALNUTRITION A KEY TO MUTANT VIRUSES

From the April 17 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—Doctors have long known that malnourished people are more vulnerable to viruses, but new research shows malnutrition can actually help those viruses mutate to become dangerous enough to sicken the healthy, too. Last year, [Dr. Melinda Beck of the University of North Carolina] reported the first such link with nutrition, finding that normal coxsackie mutated to become deadly once inside selenium-deprived mice. Now she has taken that research further, infecting healthy mice with the new strain that evolved inside their malnourished cousins. The healthy mice could fight off normal coxsackie but not the new strain. Selenium isn't the magical nutrient—it happened in mice who ate too little vitamin E too, Beck will report today at the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology meeting here. [And WE are a nation of malnourished people—not because of a shortage of food, but because our soil is depleted of the nutrients needed to produce health-sustaining crops.

If this gambit WASN'T designed by the depopulation gang, it certainly does fit well with their plans. This story also serves to divert our attention from the fact that some of the designer viruses are created in laboratory boutiques!]

She genetically tested the virus in four different experiments to see if the evolution was random, but the same six mutations occurred every time. People probably experience the same effects, as do other viruses, said virologist Dr. Stephen Morse of Rockefeller University. If so, it would mean that catching a virus from the person sitting next to you could be a lot more dangerous if that person were malnourished—even if you were healthy.

Now doctors must look for further evidence in emerging diseases that suddenly attack people, Morse said. At least 29 new or newly evolved diseases have emerged in the last two decades. For example, measles struck African children last year in a bizarre way, causing unusual immunity problems and mystifying doctors. Maybe malnutrition played a role, he speculated. "This is an entirely new way of looking at host factors," he said. New international research shows viruses mutate a million times more often than cells in the average organism, and that antioxidant nutrients like vitamin E and selenium might play a protective role.

FLESH-EATING BACTERIA KILLS 3 HEROIN ADDICTS

Speaking of designer diseases, this comes from the April 21 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

Flesh-eating bacteria have stricken nearly 30 heroin addicts in the San Francisco area, killing three and prompting warnings by public health departments, a newspaper reported Saturday. The San Francisco Chronicle said public health authorities suspect a contaminated batch of Mexican black-tar heroin is responsible for the cases, which may have peaked in March and appear to be subsiding. Seventeen cases of the bacterial infection have been logged this year in San Francisco, eight in nearby Contra Costa County and at least three in Alameda County, the report said. It said doctors suspect the cases of necrotizing fasciitis are caused by any of three different organism, sometimes called flesh-eating bacteria, contaminating the heroin. The most likely one in this outbreak is thought to be Clostridia sordelli, a cousin of the bacteria that cause botulism, it said.

These bacteria multiply quickly and can cause severe tissue damage within 12 hours after the first appearance of symptoms, which include reddening of the skin, tenderness and pain, the Chronicle reported. Without treatment, victims of flesh-eating bacteria require surgical removal of infected skin, muscle and connective tissue, the Chronicle said. Several patients have lost arms or legs. Two San Francisco heroin users infected by the Bacteria died of septic shock, when toxins produced by the bacteria cause a drop in blood pressure and organ failure, the paper said. Another patient died of necrotizing fasciitis this year in Martinez, 30 miles east of San Francisco.

GERMAN HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL DELAYED

From the April 25 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

BERLIN—The cornerstone for Germany's Holocaust memorial will be laid in 1999, but only after a new design is found to replace the one that displeased Chancellor Helmut Kohl, officials said Wednesday. The head of the Central Council of Jews in Germany criticized the latest delay in plans to erect a memorial in the heart of Berlin. "Two years should have been long enough to get it built," Ignatz Bubis said. The idea for a monument came from a largely non-Jewish [Shabbez goi?] group of top industrialists, academics and others. They have argued for years that Germany had a duty to erect a prominent national memorial to the annihilation of European Jewry.

A government-sponsored competition that opened in 1994 attracted more than 500 entries. Berlin artist Christine Jakob-Marks and her team won in June with a plan for a 1,000-square-foot, sloping stone plate to be engraved with the names of millions of Jews slain by the Nazis. But some artists and German newspapers sniped at the design as too grandiose and lacking educational value. Those supporting the design counter the Nazis' killing of 6 million European Jews requires such a large memorial. A few days after the announcement was made, Kohl's office called for considering other designs.

To develop the new model, a colloquium will be held this summer with the top seven finalists as well as historians, philosophers, city planners, youth groups and representatives of the Jewish community. A decision is expected by spring 1997, said a spokesman for Berlin's culture ministry and the cornerstone will be laid on Germany's Holocaust Memorial Day on Jan. 27, 1999. The memorial's estimated $22-million cost is to be shared by the government, the city of Berlin and the public, through donations.

LOTS OF EVIDENCE FOR SUCH A TINY CABIN!

This cartoon says it all, substantiated by this line from a recent issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

The arrest itself took only moments. Now comes weeks of painstaking, unglamorous laboratory work to determine—with certainty—whether the TRUCKLOADS OF EVIDENCE taken from Theodore Kaczynski's remote [and small: 10'x12'] Montana cabin link him to the 17-year string of Unabomber attacks.

HOLOCAUST FIGURES DWINDLE

This more-to-the-point article on the same subject comes from the April 22 issue of THE SPOTLIGHT (1-800-522-6292), [quoting:]

Germany is going into major convulsions when it comes to the number of Holocaust memorials to be placed in various cities. The focal point is Berlin. It has been decreed that Berlin must construct the largest Holocaust memorial ever to be built. The city of Berlin commissioned architects to create an edifice that will cover the length and width of three football fields. This is to be placed on some of the most expensive real estate in Europe, next to the famous, symbolic Brandenburg Gate. The memorial will consist of plaques placed on the ground with the inscribed names of the six million Jewish victims of the holocaust.

Needless to say, this undertaking has created great controversy among Germans. Even Chancellor Helmut Kohl found it to be too large. However, the main problem seems to be the inability to come up with enough legitimate names of the dead. Since 1989, the number of inmates killed at Auschwitz, originally set at eight million, has undergone repeated revisions, all downward. Let us look at the numbers claimed since the end of the war.

In 1945, a French "Bureau to Uncover War Crimes" stated the number of eight million deaths at Auschwitz was not an exaggeration. The Soviet Auschwitz Commission gave the number at 5.5 million. Until 1990 the official number given by the Polish government was four million. This number was accepted as the definitive number and used in all publications worldwide when disseminating stories about the number of Jews killed at Auschwitz.

A sensational report by the Jerusalem Post on September 30, 1989 broke the taboo. The essence of the report was, in the paper's words: "There never were four million victims at Auschwitz. Well known French researcher Georges Wellers gave the figure 1.6 million. This includes all causes of death from gassings in Birkenau, as well as from starvation, torture, executions and illness in Auschwitz and its auxiliary camps." The Jewish newspaper Aufbau, published in New York, wrote on August 3, 1990, referring to the head of the Auschwitz museum, and the information given by him: "Therefore, the number of victims amounts to 1.1 million, including 900,000 Jews."

In 1993, an article in the German paper Die Welt mentioned the French Center of Scientific Research had arrived at the conclusion that the total number of dead at Auschwitz was 800,000. In April 1990, Dr. Franciszek Piper, director of the Auschwitz Museum, used hammers and chisels to eradicate inscriptions on stone plaques commemorating four million deaths at Auschwitz. There were 19 plaques in 19 different languages. He felt the four million figure could no longer be maintained. A Frenchman, Claude Pressac, doing his own research while being financed by the Klarsfeld Foundation, avid Nazi hunters, was forced to accept figures of 631,000 to 711,000. This is the latest official version in the numbers game.

All this revision of commonly-accepted figures is damaging enough to the planners but the worst blow has been the discovery of the death certificates. It appears the meticulous Germans kept records of all deaths at Auschwitz and the death certificates were found in the KGB archives in Moscow. Kept in annual bound volumes, but with two years missing, the total number of deaths, including infants and those who died of old age, appears to be around 75,000.

In an article in the April 8-14 issue of THE WASH- INGTON TIMES, NATIONAL WEEKLY EDITION, Richard Grenier makes this important point about the relativity of figures, [quoting:]

According to Mr. Goldhagen [author of the controversial book Hitler's Willing Executioners: Ordinary Germans and the Holocaust] the Holocaust is "the most shocking event of the 20th century." But is it? With all due respect for the suffering Jews in the Final Solution, what if we were to move our field of examination some hundreds of miles to the east—to the Gulag. Solzhenitsyn's figure, widely accepted now even in Russia, is that 86 million people perished in the Gulag. This controversy will never be settled by grade-school arithmetic. But besting the Gulag's 86 million could take some doing. [How about China's purging with the takeover of the Communists under Mao? It's about time we gave up the dangerous notion of the Jews as the ultimate victims!]

EARTH DAY THEATRICALS

The picture on this page appeared with the following caption in the April 23 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

President Clinton teams with Vice President Gore and Earth Day volunteers Monday at the C&O Canal in Great Falls National Park, north of the capital in Maryland, to clear flood debris. [Just how long do you think this effort was really sustained by these two guys? Until the click of the camera, no doubt.] The path is popular with hikers and bikers. Clinton also announced a package, National Parks for Tomorrow, intended to boost the U.S. parks system [i.e., turn more and more of the country over to the feds, who will in turn restrict its use to exclude You, the People], which is under severe strain from increased visitation. The plan would expand a park in California and one on the New York-New Jersey border. Also, the administration announced plans to curb commercial flights over national parks and to increase the amount of land designated as wilderness.

"FREEDOM TO FARM" IS CANDY-COATED FOOD SOCIALISM

This article from the LOS ANGELES TIMES was reprinted in the MODESTO BEE on March 12. It was written by Llewellyn H. Rockwell Jr., president of the Ludwig von Mises Institute in Auburn, Ala., [quoting:]

First lady Hillary Rodham Clinton should have called her health bill "Freedom to Heal". Then Congress might have passed it as restoring the free market in medicine. If you don't believe such a trick would have worked, take a look at the "Freedom to Farm" bill that just sailed into law.

Official propaganda says this bill restores a free market in agriculture, ending 60 years of subsidies and planning. But ask yourself: If this were really true, wouldn't farmers on the dole and the media be in hysterics? Of course, and a close examination of the bill backs up this suspicion. The existing scheme, based on New Deal programs modeled on the old Soviet system, is retained in all its essentials. After this bill expires in seven years, the 1949 law that now oppresses us again will be the law of the land. Not that the new bill is peanuts. With a $47 billion price tag, it allocates even more money to subsidies initially and to crazy new liberal programs. But in seven years, we're told, price supports and subsidies will be "phased out".

This farm bill is typical of a Congress that can't bring itself to cut a dime of federal spending, yet passes reams of "revolutionary" laws promising to cut, slash, abolish and otherwise establish a libertarian heaven on Earth—sometime in the next millennium. But here and now, the bill retains price supports for peanuts and sugar as well as price-fixing for milk. It renews a program preventing 36 million acres from being farmed. And it throws away $1.4 billion on more regulations, $200 million on a Florida swamp and $200 million on "rural development".

All in all, this bill could have been written by President Clinton, which is why he's glad to sign it. The Democrats particularly like the food stamp and school lunch provisions. Why, you may ask, are these part of a farm bill? Because those who benefit, along with "the poor", are wealthy agribusinessmen. Why this bill? Why now? Crop prices are at a 10-year high, and under the current subsidy formula, payments would be low. So by merest happenstance, this bill changes the price-based system into flat subsidy: $3 billion to $4 billion more will be spent for farm welfare immediately. Supporters say the bill eliminates many set-asides, acreage controls and crop mandates. That would be glorious only if the industry weren't subsidized and protected from competition. "Freedom to farm"—with other people's money.

The farm program is one of the oldest federal scandals. The troubles began a century and half ago, when tariffs were set to favor industry at the expense of agriculture. Then in World War I, the government pumped up the price of wheat and other products and tried to keep them that way after the war. That failed, and after two devastating recessions in 1919 and 1921, officials turned to more protectionism and outright planning. By the time of the Great Depression, the Jeffersonian ideal of the independent yeoman farmer was banished. As president, Hoover set out to keep prices high by subsidies, trade restrictions and planting controls at the very time when market pressures were forcing them to fall.

But Hoover was small potatoes compared with farm dictator Franklin D. Roosevelt. Agriculture has become a virtual ward of the state, with the feds holding more than half of all farm debt. There still are independent farmers, and they avoid Washington at all costs. Agriculture is dominated by subsidized agribusiness, its lobbyists and its pet politicians. The victims of food socialism are consumers and taxpayers, who shell out billions directly and in the form of artificially high prices every year. Also harmed are the remaining independent farmers, whose livelihoods are threatened by subsidized industrial-scale competition. That's why Congress should pass a real Freedom to Farm Act. It would abolish the whole of the existing system and subject the sector to the same competition and price dictates that free industries face. Congress also should stop concocting tricky new ways to prop up big government with misnamed bills.

MOUNTIES DECLARE WAR ON FARMERS

Is the situation any better in Canada? This article by Lorne Gunter appeared in the April 28 edition of the EDMONTON (Alberta, Canada) JOURNAL, [quoting:]

Before dawn on April 10 five Mounties and 10 Customs officers burst into the Baldur, Man., farm home of Norm and Edith Desrochers. Their warrant did not allow them to search the Desrochers' house, only the family's "farmyard and outbuildings". But federal agents crashed into the house anyway without knocking and asking permission, or even identifying themselves. The official excuse they offered after the fact? They didn't search the house, they just entered it. Therefore, they didn't overstep the search warrant. [Classic government logic!] Besides, they were merely securing the situation for the safety of all involved, including the Desrochers. Once inside, one of the Mounties promptly disconnected the family's telephone. Wouldn't want to complicate things by letting them call their lawyer or anything. Norm Desrochers and his son Clayton, 22, were then herded into the back seat of an RCMP cruiser, though police had no warrant for their arrest, had not placed them under arrest, and neither had threatened anyone.

Customs officers then tried to tow away three of the Desrochers vehicles, including one not covered by the warrant. So, you may be asking, the Desrochers are drug smugglers, right? No. Gun runners? Nope. Importers of illegal tobacco or alcohol? Uh-uh. Murderers? Child pornographers? Kidnappers? Terrorist bombers? No. No. No. And, not yet. They're barley growers. And the full force of federal law enforcement has been brought down on their heads because they have committed the heinous crime of selling their own crops to American buyers without the permission of the Canadian Wheat Board.

Like the 18 Alberta farmers who refused to turn over their trucks to Customs officers at Coulls on Tuesday, the Desrochers are part of a growing movement among Prairie farmers to break the CWB's monopoly over wheat, barley and oats sales. Prairie producers must sell all grain destined for foreign markets and non human domestic consumption to the CWB unless they have a permit from the board to sell independently. But permits are expensive, usually costing more than the additional profits that can be made from independent marketing. So most farmers don't bother.

By the way, the Wheat Board Act applies only to Westerners farming between B.C.'s Peace country and Lakehead in Ontario. Southern Ontario and Quebec grain farmers are free to sell the product of their toil to whomever they wish. So in the past few years, more and more western grain producers have simply hauled their grain to the United States (where prices are often higher by 25 percent or more) without a permit.

Now because their numbers are threatening the CWB's iron grip (and, by extension, Ottawa's iron grip) over Prairie agriculture, the Liberal federal government, led by Agriculture Minister Ralph Goodale, has declared war on these insubordinate farmers. And it is using a legal technicality as its main tool. [Attention, all you budding pro per legal eagles!]

Having become increasingly convinced that the Wheat Board Act is unenforceable because it does not apply equally to all farmers across the country, Ottawa is using the Customs Act to go after grain runners. It is an offence under customs legislation to export a product without a license required by any other act. And once an offence against the Customs Act is alleged, federal agents have far greater power to search and seize than they do under most other laws. (The Desrochers raid, as offensive as it was, was probably legal.) The Customs Act also carries much stiffer penalties than the Wheat Board Act.

This time last year, two weeks after the Oklahoma City bombing, we were being deafened by mewling about how the rise of conservative politicians had encouraged outrageous expressions of anti-government hatred. Nonsense. The motivation comes from the persistence of intrusive governments that, in the face of reason and the will of the people (the majority of Prairie farmers no longer want to be bound by the Wheat Board Act), insist they alone know best how citizens should raise their families, run their farms and businesses, and generally live their lives. Unless Ottawa wants to see the rise of the Manitoba Patriotic Militia or the Alberta Freeman, it had better end the CWB's monopoly and stop using law enforcement techniques out of all proportion to the seriousness of the offences allegedly committed by grain runners.

E-MAIL LIFELINE HELPS SUICIDAL MEN

This article comes from the March 12 issue of THE SUNDAY TELEGRAPH, which comes from "up there" in Canada, [quoting:]

The Samaritans are reaching a highly vulnerable section of society, suicidal young men and boys, through the Internet. Since the charity began offering counselling services on-line, e-mail messages have flooded in from young males. Many are using computer terminals in their schools and colleges to vent silent cries for help. The Samaritans hope the e-mail link will help to stall the worrying trend in suicide among young men. The number of 15 to 24-year-olds killing themselves has risen from seven per 100,000 in 1982 to 12 per 100,000 in 1992. Some 500 took their own lives in 1992 compared with 320 in 1982. In the 25-34 age bracket, the number rose from 576 to 785. The figures for women show little change over the same period.

Leo Leibovici, the Samaritans' e-mail co-ordinator, believes the Internet service enables vulnerable people who would never otherwise seek help to obtain support. He said young men and boys often found it difficult to talk about their problems. [Men aren't supposed to HAVE problems—it's not macho. Also it's dangerous to let your guard down in a dog-eat-dog world. As opposed to women, who thrive on problems. (I learned all this from Men Are From Mars, Women Are From Venus, or some such source!...)]

Messages are distributed among volunteers at the charity's nine on-line branches. Another four branches will have a full Internet capability shortly, and the charity plans to continue expanding the service until demand slackens. All messages are answered personally within 24 hours. Most "conversations" last six to eight messages. The service can be contacted on jo@samaritans.org or the anonymous address is samaritans@anon.penet.fi.

Awareness comes on two different levels—conscious and subconscious. The conscious mind controls your speech, thinking and the things you remember seeing. The subconscious mind controls your body's actions, likes and dislikes, memory, etc. The subconscious picks up anything your eyes and ears may miss; things you see in your peripheral vision that you don't pay any attention to are recorded and stored away by your subconscious. If you are in a room full of people carrying on separate conversations simultaneously and you are focused on one or two people speaking, your subconscious picks up every other word that is said in that room. The purpose of subliminal advertising is to send out a message that only your subconscious mind will pick up and that is what I want to make you aware of.

In the 1950s, one of the first experiments with subliminal advertising was done. In a theatre somewhere in the northwestern part of the U.S.A., an unsuspecting crowd sat down to watch a movie. About halfway into the movie, a Coca-Cola symbol was flashed on the screen for two frames (faster than you could blink). Within ten minutes, three-fourths of the crowd left their seats to refresh themselves with a Coke. Since then, not only was it outlawed, but certain factories and corporations have improved the methods and have subjected every one of us who sit patiently through commercials to the mind-manipulations.

Recently, Disney has gotten in on the "fun". On the popular movie The Lion King, we were subjected and "allowed" to associate the pleasures of sex with the movie. How? Simple. When Simba (the main character) became discouraged and sat down heavily on the grass, the seeds that blow to Rafiki (the medicine monkey) spell-out "sex" in one frame. For anyone who can play the tape on slow, frame by frame, try to find it and you will see that I speak the truth. Why would Disney, one of the most productive enterprises in the movie industry that focuses on the children want to corrupt the young minds as they have? It couldn't be for mass production or to sell out. They have more money than they know what to do with. I believe that it was experimental, to see how children who aren't sexually active would react to this crude suggestion. It doesn't stop here for Disney, however.

In the legendary box-office smash Aladdin, they tried it again. In the smoke of Genie, it spells out "good sex" for one frame. They also repeat "Good teenagers have sex" underneath the sound-effects. If you could cut out the instruments, etc., you can hear the voice of the debased human saying this.

The Disney movie Powder was made and written by a proven child sexual abuser. Every person who goes to see this movie is paying the man for molesting an innocent child. Not necessarily for that act specifically, but why pay him anything for something his depraved mind has created.

Subliminals don't have to be a thing from the movies—they are found in commercials also. It has been openly noted that things such as alcoholic beverages have been associated with sex or feeling good. They project it like if you drink, smoke, eat, or use their product you will be cool, popular and have all of the attractive guys/girls. Reality check!! Those aren't vitally subliminals per se, but rather, false association.

A much debated commercial would be the Mentos advertisements. Mentos as been on the market for years with a pretty high success rate: surely enough for a commercial. However, not until their most recent commercials has there been a blow-up in sales. All of a sudden millions of people are ranting and raving about Mentos. The alternative band Foo Fighters have a video, "Big Me", that includes their own version of the broadcast for Mentos. Even the much talked about movie Clueless has something to do with the candy. One of the characters, Ty, is seen singing the theme song for the candy. The funny thing is that the commercials aren't exactly something to really notice. They are not well made, they have cheesy acting that even the local drunk could do, and have stupid addleheaded plots that could have been made by a child out of kindergarten. But people still love it. Why? The Inside Edition asked them just that. Incredibly enough, they refused to comment. Either this is the work of supreme subliminal advertising or it is the effect of the artificial sweetener/drug known as aspartame. It is a highly addictive, cancer-causing brain manipulator. It increases your susceptibility to things like subliminal messages.

The first advertisement I have ever seen that openly speaks about subliminal advertising was a Sprite commercial. It shows a glass of Sprite on a plain black background. A women's voice says, "Look closely....do you see a subliminal message in the ice?" The frame moves closer to the glass. "Do you see a naked woman smiling seductively at you?" The frame moves closer still. "If you do, you probably just need a girlfriend!!" I'm not sure when or where or in what, but ice cubes have been used as a message carrier in several instances.

Another series of advertisements is the Skittles commercials. Specifically the one where the farmer is planting the Skittles. At the end a child whispers "Skittles...taste the rainbow". What's the big secret? A rainbow can't be reached, much less touched or tasted. I can't tell you exactly what the subliminal is like I have with the Disney movies, however, you can rest assured that it is there. Because of the psychological abuse I have suffered, my mind is more sensitive and can usually catch the subliminals. If I can't pick them out, I just become uneasy and it makes me dislike the commercial. Call it a sixth sense, if you will.

The most predictable series of advertisements would be the commercials for the Army, Air Force, Navy, etc. In a way, it couldn't be more obvious, considering the fact that it's the government that encourages the mind misdirection. They would (and do) pay vast amounts of money to get more oblivious victims to experiment on and manipulate. A specific instance where the government used subliminals is in the Navy commercial consisting of the chess pieces. They include quick flashes of light containing who knows what messages. Also, when the ground liquefies and then becomes solid around the Marines feet, it contains numerous directions. Again, I do not know the exact words or phrases, but it gives me an extreme sense of discomfort. These are the ones to be the most cautious of because these are the people that invented subliminals and have the funds to make it more complex and concealed.

Power is in the secrets and hidden information. By exposing the plots and methods used to disturb our minds, not only are we taking the power away from them, but we are also protecting ourselves from further corruption. When we are aware of what is, or could be, in the movies or commercials, we are preventing the subliminals from reaching our subconscious minds and doing what may result in long-term damage. Stay alert and never underestimate the authority of suggestion.

KARMA: CAUSE AND EFFECT

"Every action generates a force of energy that returns to us in like kind. . . what we sow is what we reap."

"And when we choose actions that bring happiness and success to others, the fruit of our karma is happiness and success." Deepak Chopra

How can I possibly discuss this in such a way as to "differently" present it so that you as readers can relate to the discussion a bit more personally than just examples of tales and lessons in hypothesis? Well, I do seem to have a new "cutie pie" example of my adversary's intelligent interchange—right after his team players have decided they will attack again, my scribe, through US&P. I don't think so, ladies and gentlemen. To you who destroy a brother for doing his/her honest duty in fiduciary and Spiritual responsibility, I hope you understand your position. And, I thank you, Annie, for your interesting input and the level of "intelligence" offered to we illiterates. Assuming you were writing the missile, it is our assumption that YOU, at the least of your clan (cult), come from Sola, Uam, the 7th star from Alcyone where you spent your final days as a WORM?

Your FAX, Ms. Beam, reads that you took this "unconditional love" reference from the book, Lisi. We assume you have written permission to reprint this Earth Research research paper? I am sure that Dr. Young has the right to REPRINT your reprint since you gave no reference information from that "source", other than "Disiree Stevens Green, President, America West Distributors and George Greed, President, America West Publishers." Since you are listed as their Research Assistant and Agent, we assume you had their permission to forward this for press in CONTACT? We also assume that it is permissible with Mr. Leon Fort who is listed as the Owner Operator of Infinite Balance, Inc. for which YOU are President, Ms. Beam, for full permission to you to reveal his business credentials and allow public presentation of this marvelous piece of research. Since you gave no phone reference or address information we further have to assume that you would be unavailable for comment. Therefore, since it was abundantly dispersed through the public Fax system we must assume that it is suitable to reprint this research paper in a public newspaper as long as we give "credits" for the work and resource.

Since, however, Ms. Beam, you have used my name profusely in incorrect recognition I shall have to offer, in equally unconditional love, that you err, for surely the thesis is going to cause you to fail your course in journalism. Unless, of course, you are referring to "the" Hatonn which is claimed to have accompanied his "new" scribe, George Green, and other scribe, Desirée Green, to Nevada. Also, since the description of the interesting parties fit their description, I am quite amazed that they would have enjoyed your pointing to them in this manner of outlay of their less than wonderful characteristics.

The most interesting concept, however, is your reference to Ubanga, Africa as your source of racism in that the Ubangi of Africa have not had the wondrous opportunity to grow intellectually as have, obviously, you. I think this will surely endear you to the NEW PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND PHILOSOPHY, DR./CHIEF MILFORD OKILO OF NIGERIA, AFRICA. I hope you will carefully read Dr. Okilo's "President's Message" in this week's CONTACT [see p. 2] and NOTE CAREFULLY, PLEASE, that Dr. Young got full permission PERSONALLY from Dr. Okilo to reprint the information, and who is not impressed with the garbage you have forwarded to US&P to try to start more warfare and further deprive the public of this information of Scientific and Spiritual TRUTH.

Mr. Green, as publisher of prior material, could have as easily made proper connections with permissions granted from his "old friend" (as Green has so often stated), Dr. Binder. But no, Mr. Green felt it unworthy of coverage for his writer. Moreover, he cost everyone a LOT of money in the process. I do, however, find it most appalling that you so carelessly write degrading information in reference on the stupidity of the Ugandan people. Should your own ignorance become the cry of your associates as well? Your writing, Ann et al., suggests you are actually equally as "anti-Christ", and perhaps that is because of the Wicca mysticism you have practiced while in Arizona. To each his/her own...! Coming from that background surely you did not expect me to think otherwise. I would share a definition of "Witch": (1) An ugly and repulsive old woman, in a wicked league with the devil. (2) A beautiful and attractive young woman, in wickedness league beyond the devil." (The Devil's Dictionary, Ambrose Bierce, Peter Pauper Press, Mount Vernon, NY. 1958.) Hatonn did not tattle on you, Annie, your PRIOR friends and traveling companion did. There is ALWAYS someone who will tell when you WRONG THEM.

Being inclusive of the readers, since this is the topic of Karmic reference, we will reprint the "research paper":

[QUOTING:]

[No date other than the Fax machine of Apr. 23, 1996. No address or phone number—or Fax number! No heading so that we can give full honor and credit to all research assistants in this project. We shall reprint DIRECTLY as written without changes, even for missed punctuation.]

MY FINAL DAYS AS A GRUB were spent in Sola, Uam, on the 3rd planet from the 7th star from Alcyone if you count the other six as [Editors, do not correct this perfected layout] orbiting around it.

[H: Remember, this is from a person who blasts MY use of "brain-damaged" English.]

They don't, of course, but one of the locals on Planet Three decided to drum up a batcha new believers to milk lotsa belief-juice from. So she pretended she was a no-show spacelord named hatonn. Hatonn in Ubangi means here-to-save-you. [H: I knew right HERE that she is not referring to me for I am not here to save anyone!] In English it means the opposite of Hats Off, but she wanted a wider audience. [H: Why? Obviously you are her audience and is that not quite enough?]

Actually she wasn't a no-show spacelord named Hatonn. [H: Researcher, make up your mind!] She was a plagiarist embezzler named in several lawsuits later on. [H: Ah, now we describe the real culprit and it wasn't, after all, who we thought you had identified. Dharma was NEVER recognized as a plagiarist EVEN IN COURT. Check your own SETTLEMENT papers, researcher. If there is anything I cannot abide it is a false-research self-proclaimed reporter for Earth Research. We certainly do recognize the "embezzlers", however, do we not? I further believe you will find that Dharma, if that be your target, is not "named" in very many lawsuits except by YOUR attorney Abbott, trying to keep the gold after lying to all of you, his clients, and taking your money, if indeed you consider Infinite Balance, Inc. YOUR responsibility.] Her worst crime, however, was a mishmash of illiterate ravings purporting to warn the reader what's really about to happen on Planet Three. [H: It certainly seems that someone should.] "Hatonn" then proceeds to quote from more industrious peoples homework azzzo it were his own, while knocking all other sources including the one he's quoting from as errant, misleading, inaccurate, and spiritually inferior. [H: Surely you must be referring to prior writings you have shared with us for THIS Hatonn only gives credit and accolades to those felt deserving. Therefore you must be referring, Annie, to Green's "Hatton" as printed in UFO magazines.] This always leads to Hatonn painting himself as the only true harbinger of good, and the reader as damned. [H: Oh my goodness, I find that this reader can't show any attainment of knowledge or factual perception so I feel her/their research might well be lacking in full unbiased scientific fact.] Each item and issue of mishmash therefore starts out as the model of paternal omniscience, and ends up cursing the very ones it sets out to save. [H: Won't sell, for THIS Hatonn has no intention to SAVE anyone and neither does (if this be your intent) Doris. It seems the very ones who need saving are those of your ilk and ignorance and therefore we have no wish to struggle against you to save you. We certainly do NOT want ones such as you, our dedicated enemy, to be WITH us. Our biggest question to you and yours is how in the world do we get rid of you from our miserable and wretched lives? YOU SEEM TO BE VERY WELL SITUATED WITH YOUR NEW GOD GREEN AND HATTON, SO HANG IN THERE, KITTEN. GREEN IS CERTAINLY "TAKING CARE OF" YOU AND YOURS! With your racist and anti-Semitic, anti-Black, anti-unfortunates attitudes, it is going to be quite difficult to have you long as a friend. So, please, go with the ones you serve!]

"Ye hath strayed!" it raves illiterately, in pseudo biblical Ubangi. [H: Who is "it"? Also, do you now insult biblical Ubangi?] (Which, interestingly reads like brain-damaged English.) [H: How could YOU possibly know? Your own English reads like BRAIN-DAMAGED English.] Maybe that was ok, since most Planet Three believers were raving illiterates anyway. —SOMEONE bought the papers. [H: Well, obviously you DO NOT, you read, steal and blast so how dare you speak of any honest readers who might "buy" the papers? Do you, as well as do research, now wish to limit the reader's ability to have free press and free speech without insult as to mental brain-capacity? YOU READ IT SO WHY DO YOU DENY OTHERS THE RIGHT OF THE SAME FAILINGS?]

[END OF QUOTING]

Thank you for this wondrous bit of intelligent and literary and scholarly representation of your attitudes about Spiritual Truth and those who have tried to share with you. It is not our ignorance and stupidity which shows in this illiterate composition. It is, however, NOW, a matter of cause and effect presented in a most respectable example. The "effect of your notation gives me cause" to respond. Therefore, let us see what we have here: "Every action generates a force of energy that returns to us in like kind. . . what we sow is what we reap." AND, "And when we choose actions that bring happiness and success to others, the fruit of our karma is happiness and success." Therefore we must assume that this brings YOU happiness and success, senders, for it most certainly is KARMIC return. I wonder, today, if Timothy Binder, ex-President of US&P, is as happy with you as I am?!? He had a lot to offer the world before he met his albatross and I wish him well in his upcoming endeavors to try and reach through in holistic healing and free energy research, to such open-minded, fair and just, public Judges. Now, children, if it appears here that I am Judging the parties in play, perish the thought. There is so much other STUFF to "judge" that I don't have to attend the writers of such erudite intelligence information. By their actions have they JUDGED THEMSELVES!

With permission we will use and give unlimited credit to Deepak Chopra for sharing his insight, that is, for those who appreciate his wondrous gift of teaching. I suggest that our more dis-earning friends don't bother to read the explanation herein given as "copy" lest you soil your brains.

How wondrous it is to have a REASON to get personally acquainted with the most insightful persons on your globe through having to get permission to reprint and, use as teaching guides, such wonderful information [as Chief Okilo's writing on p. 2]. Thank you who ridicule and snivel, sneak and snitch, for we now have the golden key for CONTACT! By the way, foolish wits, it gives Dr. Young a chance to interchange with his PEERS in education and dedication to worthiness. I consider such as wonderful company to keep.

[QUOTING from The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success, by Deepak Chopra; based on Creating Affluence, New World Library, 58 Paul Drive, San Rafael, CA 94903:]

You are what your deep, driving desire is.

As your desire is, so is your will.

As your will is, so is your deed.

As your deed is, so is your destiny.

Brihadaranyaka Upanishad IV.4.5

THE LAW OF KARMA

(p.39)

Karma is the eternal assertion of human freedom. . . . Our thoughts, our words, and deeds are the threads of the net which we throw around ourselves.

Swami Vivekananda

The third spiritual law of success is the Law of Karma. "Karma" is both action and the consequence of that action; it is cause and effect simultaneously, because every action generates a force of energy that returns to us in like kind. There is nothing unfamiliar about the Law of Karma. Everyone has heard the expression, "What you sow is what you reap." Obviously, if we want to create happiness in our lives, we must learn to sow the seeds of happiness. Therefore, karma implies the action of conscious choice-making.

You and I are essentially infinite choice-makers. In every moment of our existence, we are in that field of all possibilities where we have access to an infinity of choices. Some of these choices are made consciously, while others are made unconsciously. But the best way to understand and maximize the use of karmic law is to become consciously aware of the choices we make in every moment.

Whether you like it or not, everything that is happening at this moment is a result of the choices you've made in the past. Unfortunately, a lot of us make choices unconsciously, and therefore we don't think they are choices—and yet, they are.

If I were to insult you, you would most likely make the choice of being offended. If I were to pay you a compliment, you would most likely make the choice of being pleased or flattered. But think about it: it's still a choice.

I could offend you and I could insult you, and you could make the choice of not being offended. I could pay you a compliment and you could make the choice of not letting that flatter you either.

In other words, most of us—even though we are infinite choice-makers—have become bundles of conditioned reflexes that are constantly being triggered by people and circumstances into predictable outcomes of behavior. These conditioned reflexes are like Pavlovian conditioning. Pavlov is famous for demonstrating that if you give a dog something to eat every time you ring a bell, soon the dog starts to salivate when you just ring the bell, because it has associated one stimulus with the other.

Most of us, as a result of conditioning, have repetitious and predictable responses to the stimuli in our environment. Our reactions seem to be automatically triggered by people and circumstances, and we forget that these are still choices that we are making in every moment of our existence. We are simply making these choices unconsciously.

If you step back for a moment and witness the choices you are making as you make those choices, then in just this act of witnessing, you take the whole process from the unconscious realm into the conscious realm. This procedure of conscious choice-making and witnessing is very empowering.

When you make any choice—any choice at all—you can ask yourself two things: First of all, "What are the consequences of this choice that I'm making?" In your heart you will immediately know what these are. Secondly, "Will this choice that I'm making now bring happiness to me and to those around me?" If the answer is yes, then go ahead with that choice. If the answer is no, if that choice brings distress either to you or to those around you, then don't make that choice. It's as simple as that.

There is only one choice, out of the infinity of choices available in every second, that will create happiness for you as well as for those around you. And when you make that one choice, it will result in a form of behavior that is called spontaneous right action. Spontaneous right action is the right action at the right moment. It's the right response to every situation as it happens. It's the action that nourishes you and everyone else who is influenced by that action.

There is a very interesting mechanism that the universe has to help you make spontaneously correct choices. The mechanism has to do with sensations in your body. Your body experiences two kinds of sensations: one is a sensation of comfort, the other is a sensation of discomfort. At the moment you consciously make a choice, pay attention to your body and ask your body, "If I make this choice, what happens?" If your body sends a message of comfort, that's the right moment. And in the mere witnessing of these choices, I will bring them to my conscious awareness. I will know that the best way to prepare for any moment in the future is to be fully conscious in the present.

To transcend karma is to become independent of it. The way to transcend karma is to keep experiencing the gap, the Self, the Spirit. It's like washing a dirty piece of cloth in a stream of water. Every time you wash it, you take away a few stains. You keep

(3) I will then ask my heart for guidance and be guided by its message of comfort or discomfort. If the choice feels comfortable, I will plunge ahead with abandon. If the choice feels uncomfortable, I will pause and see the consequences of my action with my inner vision. This guidance will enable me to make spontaneously correct choices for myself and for all those around me.

Thank you, Professor Chopra.

Doris (dharma) asks about how can those whom she has not damaged be so intent upon destruction of her? Well, student, it is obviously straightforward that the enemy (evil) is out to getcha. It is OK, for look at the lessons in opportunity and the lessons given voice by the experience. Evil is always in battle against goodness, lies against truth, and sensing against Spiritual goodness. I believe you have learned something else this day: the value and use of Karmic expression. You see, to sit stupidly and mutely aside while the enemy in evil discredits and takes you down, is WRONG. Justice is NOT served through lack of countering the assaults. GOD IS JUST. What is sent forth is returned IN KIND. Until you all learn the LAWS, you cannot possibly accomplish the magnificent task before us. What another "believes" is none of our business, do you see? When others wish to destroy their brothers to suit their own evil greed, it is WRONG, no more and no less. I shall not stand aside without recourse, readers. My job is not to SAVE anyone nor actually, any thing. My job is to get the TRUTH of LIFE before you through the conduits of KNOWING from those who have come to KNOW. I must get a remnant through and the others of the place are none of my business. I shall counter EVIL wherein I meet it or it is thrust into my space.

All actions are karmic episodes. Drinking a cup of coffee is a karmic episode. That action generates memory, and memory has the ability or the potentiality to generate desire. And desire generates action again. The operational software of your soul is karma, memory, and desire. Your soul is a bundle of consciousness that has the seeds of karma, memory, and desire. By becoming conscious of these seeds of manifestation, you become a conscious generator of reality. By becoming a conscious choice-maker, you begin to generate actions that are evolutionary for you and for those that are around you. And that's all you need to do.

As long as karma is evolutionary—for both the Self and everyone affected by the Self—then the fruit of karma will be happiness and success.

I will put the Law of Karma into effect by making a commitment to take the following steps:

What about past karma and how it is influencing you now? There are three things you can do about past karma. One is to pay your karmic debts. Most people choose to do that—unconsciously, of course. This may be a choice you make, also. Sometimes there's a lot of suffering involved in the payment of those debts, but the Law of Karma says no debt in the universe ever goes unpaid. There is a perfect accounting system in the universe, and everything is a constant "to and fro" exchange of energy.

The second thing you can do is to transmute or transfer your karma to a more desirable experience. This is a very interesting process in which you ask yourself, as you're paying your karmic debt, "What can I learn from this experience? Why is this happening and what is the message that the universe is giving to me? How can I make this experience useful to my fellow human beings?"

By doing this, you look for the seed of opportunity and then tie that seed of opportunity with your dharma, with your purpose in life, which we'll talk about in the Seventh Spiritual Law of Success. This allows you to transmute the karma to new expression.

For example, if you break your leg while playing sports, you might ask, "What can I learn from this experience? What is the message that the universe is giving me?" Perhaps the message is that you need to slow down and be more careful or attentive to your body the next time. And if your dharma is to teach others what you know, then by asking, "How can I make this experience useful to my fellow human beings?", you may decide to share what you learned by writing a book about playing sports safely. Or you may design a special shoe or leg support that prevents the kind of injury you experienced.

This way, while paying your karmic debt, you will have also converted the adversity into a benefit that

Part VI

Timeless Reminder Offered From Esu "Jesus" Sananda

Editor's note: We have elected to share, once again, writings which appeared from Esu "Jesus" Sananda some years ago, specifically in 1991. The message rings as true today as it did then, and we hope that you will spend some serious "quiet time" in reading and reflecting on his generous offerings in wisdom. Many of us readers are guilty of wanting "new" information, "more" information when, in truth, if we really read, reread, and studied that which has already been offered, we would constantly receive new insight. Since these writings from Sananda are lengthy, we have chosen to break them into a series of several installments.

We here at CONTACT would like to take a moment to PUBLICLY thank Sananda for his TRUE LIGHT AND LIGHTED WISDOM AND GENEROSITY IN SHARING SUCH TRUTH WITH US. THANK YOU!

Part I of this series began in our 3/19/96 CONTACT on p. 28; Part II was on p. 20 of the 3/26/96 issue; Part III was on p. 15 of the 4/2/96 issue; Part IV was on p. 5 of the 4/9/96 issue; Part V was on p. 11 of the 4/23/96 issue.

6/11/91 #1 HATONN/SANANDA

Hatonn present. Please allow us to come into sharing that understanding flows as well as "words".

I am asked, these days of Sananda's writings, how is it that I presume to make introduction? Why indeed. Dharma would enjoy being the one to tell you but part of the reason is for her own protection.

As the Truth comes forth after over 2000 plus years of gigantic LIE, it is both dangerous and extremely impactful to the receivers of that Truth. Do not believe that simply because you become a scribe, that the shock and pain are somehow vanquished. We do fine for the period of writing but as she witnesses, then, the product, it is sobering indeed. This is the most important gathering of information in your universe and cuts through the very fiber of all you have expected and trusted throughout your life experiences. It is hard to realize you are people of the lie from the beginning—and worse, to know that the adversary will not like this information very much. I remind you: TRUTH WILL STAND INTO INFINITY AND WE BRING TRUTH SO WE WELCOME ANY MAN TO CONTRADICT THAT WHICH HE WILL BUT HE HAD BETTER COME WITH SOME INCREDIBLE "REASONING". WE ARE NOW DEALING WITH YOUR INFINITE SOUL ENERGY AND THE SHOE IS ON THE OTHER FOOT—MAN IS NOW EXPECTED TO "PROVE" THAT WHICH HE PROJECTS AND SINCE THE PHYSICAL IS A PASSING ILLUSION—HE CAN NOT DO SO!

Suzy, thank you for the crystal pendant for it does, indeed, radiate the love expressed in the sharing. I say sharing, for a creation of God can only be shared and the gifting of such can only be the sharing of "expression". I would tell you a bit about this particular crystal in its growth patterns. Just as a crystal "chip" bears a programmed frequency so, also, does a crystal. As some crystals grow, they will push out what appear to be fractures but this is NOT so. They are the root system from which a crystals grows into its flower-like "clump". It houses the very source of the DNA/RNA of the "thing" which it shall become. Since man cannot seem to leave them in their intended location for he desires to hold both the beauty and the life-form, the root itself is usually quite ugly in appearance—but those wondrous "children" of the parent are divine indeed. The one you sent is old, old and bears its own inner child and has become as "hard" as diamond for any "practical" purpose. Some of these little beauties are missed for they will often bear a lot of the root and will have ugly malformations which man does not like in his trinkets.

We have left your message intact for its intended projection and then we reprogrammed the "starburst" within. It now bears the assorted frequencies of the various Masters and in the sunlight will actually "sing" as the light is reflected and refracted from within the central root core.

The major problem with Man taking and rearranging crystals is that they are expected to do something which they cannot do and they are ALWAYS located where they serve a great purpose in the overall order of the planet. From these little jewels come the very refracting frequencies that do such things as break down stone into earth for the reclaiming of life sustenance. This elder crystal comes from a place wherein most of the task of the mineral projection is finished for the nurturing of surface life forms. The removal from the "new" western world locations is more tragic, however, for they are for the purpose of breaking down dying minerals such as uranium, etc. Man does not realize that which he does when he takes up those dying minerals and stockpiles them for their purpose is to break down, through radiation and refraction bursts, the very world which is originally presented in solid, compact rock-type formations. You can see the mechanism more readily within the lava flows which are eventually broken down and become fertile soil. So be it for the mineral lesson of this day.

I want to again thank you, Suzy, for the sharing for I have much more to say regarding this and it is not yet time. Misused, these gem-stones can literally break down the health of ones believing them to be giving nourishment—Man seems to always need to tinker with that which he understands not.

CRYSTAL VIRUS

I must have you understand that a virus is also just a crystalline product. This is WHY it can be considered that bombardment with certain frequencies will break it (explode it)—just like a crystal chalice. The DNA/RNA structure of every cell is constructed from this crystalline substance which is programmed and bears the holographic structure of whatever will become from that seed. When Man began to tinker with these things of the very program substance of the universe—he walked in well over his head—for evil will always take that which could be wondrous and turn it to the physical—HOPING ALWAYS TO FIND IMMORTALITY WHICH ELUDES HIS EFFORTS FOR THAT HAS THUS FAR ONLY BEEN ENABLED BY THE GOD CREATOR AS ORCHESTRATED BY NATURE (NATURAL CREATION).

The physical aspect of man always reaches the point to which your civilizations have reached and efforts at immortality—and the object, of course, is to create life immortal and get rid of all the unwanted competition. It never works out well, for his greed and fleshly desires drive him through his ego into the destructive paths so that all he actually accomplishes is some sort of "duplication imitation". But these are effective indeed for destruction of species.

I wish to thank T.D. for sharing with us. It is always difficult for Dharma for me to give information of which she has no resource and information is always well received on various subjects which you ones will bother to go and research. Along the lines of life duplication and viral DNA possibilities, I suggest you who have time and inclination, get the book The Biological Time Bomb by Gordon Rattray Taylor from the World Publishing Co., New York and Cleveland. T.D. has sent me excerpts from that book and it will curl all you straight-haired entities. Your researchers have had nearly a century to work on these things—having found the base structure of a virus and how they "work", sometime in the "twenties", as recorded. (In your own publications.)

Now, keeping in mind what I have said about viruses being crystal formations let me just read you a bit of interesting "stuff":

"But seven years later a genuine transformation, claimed as the first ever to be achieved except in bacteria was announced by A. S. Fox and S. B. Yoon of Wisconsin University. They treated a strain of fruit flies—the geneticist's stock laboratory animal—with DNA extracted from flies of a different strain. The offspring of some of these flies varied genetically from their parents, and the variation bred true for up to seven generations, after which it vanished again. This announcement drew a reply from Professor Serge Gershenson, head of the Virology section of the Zabolotny Institute of Microbiology and Virology of the Academy of Sciences in the Ukraine. He, it appeared, had treated Drosophila with DNA derived from the thymus glands of calves thirty years ago, and had published his results in 1939. (At that time all DNA was believed to be identical, and he used calf DNA merely because there was a convenient technique available for obtaining it.) He found that the treatment produced stable mutations, but, unlike those produced by X-rays and so forth....[and more:]

"Moreover, we now know that viruses do their work by entering cells and substituting their own nucleic acid for the cell's nucleic acid, thus forcing the cell machinery to make viruses and not what the cell usually makes. And in the fifties it became clear that viruses can even pick up bits of nucleic acid from the cell they enter, adopt it into their own system and later deposit this 'rogue DNA' in another host cell—a phenomenon known as transduction".

Do you still want to deny and argue with me that duplication and mutation is not possible? Stop blaming little gray space aliens for the trouble you have—YOU HAVE DONE IT YOURSELVES QUITE ADEQUATELY WITHOUT ANY SPECIAL HELP.

To other inquiries, I would like to say that it has been quite easy to get Hatonn's cellular sample for we have been in and out of there for many, many years.

As to the Rajiv Gandhi assassination, it will become very clear as to why he was murdered. I believe, in fact, that I have already covered it well enough to get the picture.

Now as to the Pleiadean Command pulling out all their installations on Earth as you inquired. I believe that is not in any manner that which should be discussed here or anywhere. Suffice it to say that Pleiades Command NEEDS NO BASES ON YOUR EARTH—WE WORK VERY WELL FROM OUR OWN OFF-SURFACE FACILITIES AND WOULD NEVER HAVE MORE THAN CONTACT POINTS AT ANY RATE—AT ANY TIME. Now, T.D., this comes from someone other than yourself—for YOU know better than that! You also know better than to test me regarding Vegans, Lyra, etc. If they were considering active intervention to protect you from your demise with the AB's, I would not respond—BUT, remember something—INTERVENTION IS A NO-NO! TO GO AGAINST COSMIC LAW AND INTERFERE WITH PLANETARY ACTIONS EXCEPT IN SPECIFIC PERMITTED AREAS OF EXPECTED DAMAGE TO THE OUTER ORDER WOULD NOT BE A WISE MANEUVER ON THE PART OF ANY OUTSIDE COMMAND—AND WOULD BRING DOWN A GREAT BUNDLE OF TROUBLE FROM FLEET COMMAND OF WHICH I HEAD.

I will speak of Alaska regarding the inquiry regarding what might be happening there. I ask Dharma to simply leave the following without label and reprint the letter from the entity in Alaska who has personally become entangled in some very interesting maneuvers regarding the Russians.

"Hatonn has written some time ago 'Can Russia Invade the U.S.?' and elsewhere that the Russian 'business men' etc., are swarming all over America.

"I would say that Russia has already invaded and is continuing to do so. These so-called business men are coming over to Alaska via Nome to Anchorage and wherever on a regular basis. They do not stay in hotels and such, but they stay in private individuals' homes through do-gooders organizations such as the Rotary Club, Unity Church, etc. And the people welcome them with open arms! I have some acquaintances who are members of these organizations that have and are hosting these people. They stay maybe a few days or so while 'someone' comes to pick them up during their stay and they are shown around wherever and whatever they want to investigate—anything.

"BUT the capper is this: A group of Russian boys, complete with their smart military-styled uniforms showed up at the recent State Boy Scouts Jamboree unannounced and PARTICIPATED. The Scout organization had no advance warning that they were coming!!!

"I am not a letter writer and seldom ever write letters to the editor but I thought I would pass this little tid-bit to you."

So—to whom it may concern. It is as if mass insanity has been loosed upon you—and so it has. I would write one more short instruction—from Dante unto his followers: "....and then he said: 'Now it is time to quit this edge of shade: follow close after me along the rill, and do not stray from it; for the unburning margins form a lane, and by them we may cross the burning plain.' "

Dante, in pity, restores the torn leaves to the soul of this countryman and the Poets move on to the next round, a great Plain of burning sand upon which there descends an eternal slow rain of fire. Here, scorched by fire from above and below, are three classes of sinners suffering differing degrees of exposure to the fire. The blasphemers (the violent against God) are stretched supine upon the sand, the Sodomites (the violent against Nature) run in endless circles, and the Usurers (the violent against Art, which is the grandchild of God) huddle on the sands.

The Poets find Capaneus stretched out on the sands, the chief sinner of that place. He is still blaspheming God. They continue along the edge of the Wood of the Suicides and come to a blood-red rill which flows boiling from the Wood and crosses the burning plain. Virgil explains the miraculous power of its waters and discourses on the origin of all the rivers of Hell.

So what? The symbolism of the burning plain is centered in sterility and wrath. Blasphemy, sodomy, and usury are all unnatural and sterile actions: thus the unbearing desert is the eternity of these sinners; and thus the rain, which naturally should be fertile and cool, descends as fire. And what of this Capaneus? He is subjected not only to the wrath of Nature (the sands below) and the wrath from above (the fire from above), but is also tortured most by his own inner violence, which is the root of blasphemy.

And that, chelas, is where you are AT. You are between the rock and the hard place and you refuse to see and hear that which has brought you to this brink of pain and decision. It is seemingly easier to continue in the agony and chaos than to turn into Truth which would shower the cool life-spring of waters upon the barren lands. It is always the INNER refusal to understand and turn into KNOWING which is destructive unto the very soul of Man. So be it. For herein I shall turn this forum unto the Christed hands. You, precious creations, are at the crossroads and the path through is very narrow indeed and closing quickly. I ask that you "fear not" but turn from your ignorance into Truth that we might get on with that which is at hand.

Oh yes, early on we asked, why has Hatonn the audacity to MC the information and speakers? Because I AM ATON come with MY SON TO RECLAIM MY KINGDOM AND YOU, MY BLESSED CHILDREN, IT WILL BE MOST SUITABLE IF YOU WISH TO CONSIDER ME "THE HORSE'S MOUTH" rather than the other end of the horse where most still desire to place me. Salu.

ESU SANANDA:

Blessings and peace unto you ones. May we bring clarity and understanding in our WORDS.

While I lived, the disciples shared my belief in God—for it seemed the thing to do at the time and my own faith was great enough to bear them up. They even believed in the Kingdom of Heaven—as well as that there would be an ending to the world as it was then known. When I was no longer present, they, like ones now, dispersed. There was, however a regathering as they realized that I was not "gone". How do we get over the hurdle of having to have some form of illusion in physical formation to convince the beings of the illu-

They thought they had seen me dead—for it never occurred to them otherwise—then, it was obvious that they saw me “no longer dead”, so what could it mean? It mattered not that which I said unto them about life and death and thus and so—for they had seen me “dead” and now “no longer dead” so THEY HAD OBVIOUSLY SEEN ME RISE FROM THE DEAD—OR SOMETHING!

Now, we moved on into the heart of the matter which could later be misconstrued, lied about and made into a religion—now they no longer believed with me in God, but without this man, Esu (Jesus)—in Christ arisen. The step had been taken from the religion proclaimed by me, the man, a “prophet” of the Hebrew religion, to the Christian religion. While I lived, there was no such thing. The step was one easily taken but would have died completely out had Saul not turned up the steam in the cooker and saw a good way to make a sweeping change in the very structure of man’s existence. Poor Saul, he actually believed he did “good” and yet he knew no better than to cram and force this new doctrine upon the masses, thus creating the bloodbaths of Hell upon a planet. Let it be recognized that at the time it was not “One man called Jesus or Esu Emmanuel” that basically changed a world—it was at the hands of the ignorant and deceivers through conjured stories and pronouncements, rules and regulations that a planet was changed. I believe if you look about the degenerating world—that it lacked and still lacks almost all Godly expression. You act in the name of God—but it is NOT the Holy God of Divine Truth and Light within the Divine and Balanced Natural Creation. Now you had best go back and start re-reading the Khazarian history as given unto you. For it was with the upstart of the Holy Church of Rome that the real clamps came down in the most evil eras that would ever befall a people.

TODAY, YOU CAN WITNESS THE “FATHER” OF THAT VERY CHURCH—PUSH THE “NEW WORLD—ONE WORLD—ORDER”.

Further, the followers of the man Esu, the first “Christians”, withdrew from the area of historic perception, for the supporters of Christ became an utterly intangible thing, oscillating ambiguously between being and nonbeing. It was Saul (Paul) who first led “Christianity” into the sphere of history. It is a total delusion to make Christianity begin with one called Jesus, Esu or Emmanuel—as a historical individual.

The history of Christianity is not yet complete. Because of the part played by the Church in remaking a Western world that had fallen into barbarism, and because the entire spiritual life of Latin and Germanic Europe is permeated with motifs originating in Christianity, all Christian churches seem to have something in common. This common element forms a bond between the many Christian churches that have fought each other to the death, the orthodox and the heretics, and even the indifferent who have grown up in the Christian world. But it is not permissible to define the common element as the “essence” of Christianity and on the basis of such a definition to judge what is Christian and what is not. From a historical point of view, such definitions can never be anything more than speculative ideal types of Christianity or dogmatic tenets on the strength of which particular churches or groups claim to be the sole repositories of Christianity, while all others are no better than heretics or heathen. Thus, insofar as the Western world is “Christian” if you wish to label it that, this Christian element, when it is not usurped by limited groups from the Roman Catholic Church to the Protestant sects, can only be the Biblical religion, which encompasses all Christian faiths as well as the so-called Jews and those who believe with a Church, and even in some way those who expressly abjure all faith. Re-read that please. Note that you have become a world of factions based on various BIBLES, not based on Godness nor anything of higher understanding. You have limited your existence to that of the physical plane and have efforted to completely sever your attachment to the Truth which you are.

Biblical religion thus becomes the all-embracing whole, reaching through the millennia from Abraham to our own day; no Westerner can disregard it, but no one is entitled to claim it for his own possession. Every man who lives in a bond with the Biblical religion finds his sustenance in it, selecting and stressing what he wishes. It is only when all the figures of the Biblical religion have been forgotten that the Christian West will be at an end. You see, that will not be too long in coming—for the one you remember, this “Jesus”, was not—for he was a conjured fabrication of Saul of Tarsus. The Christ was missed just as he is missed in every journey through your expression. The “Christ” is actually “christ” which is a state of being and is NOT a physical manifestation. CHRIST—IS A STATE OF BEING! YOU CANNOT HOLD TO GOD OR CHRIST THROUGH ANY MAN! The expression of God as human physical projection is NOT GOD NOR CHRIST NOR, NOR—FOR THOSE THINGS ARE NOT OF THE PHYSICAL EXPRESSION.

The man in point is one element in the “BIBLICAL” religion, an element of paramount importance for those who believe that one to be the Christ. Yet though Jesus Christ was somehow considered the beginning and center of this creed, the man himself, even in the Christian world, is only a component of Christianity; he was not its “founder” and through him alone it would not have come into being in any manner. The reality of the man was overlaid by ideas that were totally alien to the man himself, or to his emotional spiritual beliefs—only a tiny vestige of his own reality has remained in the “let’s pretend world” of the Biblical society. This is why I chuckle at the very prospects of “appearing” as some of you demand—to prove myself. Who would recognize of me? Would Dharma be enough to prove a thing? I doubt it greatly, since most ones pronounce her insane at best. Well, I can promise you of my beloved few—you WILL recognize ME when I arrive this time! Will I be angel? How about a bird? Might I be a space-man? How about a cow? You of mine, shall know me and there shall be no mistaking my presence. So be it.

One labeled “Jesus” the Christ, is somehow the beginning and center of this creed, though the man, himself, would not recognize that which is said of him. That poor man’s influence can be summarized along a couple of separate lines: He was transformed from the man into the Christ, the Son of God, from a human reality to an object of faith and secondly, the man himself was taken as a model for behavior.

His disciples took a first step when they began to believe not only in his message but also in him. Subsequently, they came to believe in him as the Messiah, as the Son of God, then, as God Himself. With this the human reality became irrelevant, except for two points: that he had actually lived the human flesh and that he had been crucified. It is characteristic that in the Credo the human reality of the “man” disappears. Its second article is a profession of faith in “God’s only begotten Son”, our Lord, conceived of the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary. After this transcendent introduction nothing is said of that man’s life except that he somehow suffered under Pontius Pilate, that he was crucified, died, and was buried. After that, you return to the transcendent: he descends to hell, rises from the dead on the third day, ascends to heaven, sits at God’s right hand, whence he will come again to judge the living and the dead. YOU WOULDN’T ALLOW YOUR DAUGHTER, HOPEFULLY, TO GO ON A DATE WITH ONE YOU KNOW SO LITTLE OF, WOULD YOU? AND YET, YOU BASE YOUR ETERNAL AND INFINITE EXPERIENCE ON THE LIE!

WHAT OF THE CONSEQUENCE?

All that matters is that God was in the world and was crucified? The historical reality is somehow irrelevant for faith. The study of the New Testament is superfluous for faith, and moreover, quite disturbing. For faith is not based on a historical reality that can be ascertained by critical investigation. Even the faith of his contemporaries, who was the man in the flesh, who knew his life, his gestures, actions, words, WAS NOT A PRODUCT OF THE REALITY.

This belief in the “Christ” was not inaugurated by ME, the one Saul labeled Jesus, nor Esu nor Emmanuel, but sprang up after the passing of the man himself. I say “passing” for you are going to have to amend your thinking in another manner—I was not killed on a cross. I survived and lived out my days away from the accursed and so-called Holy Lands. Did I sacrifice myself on a cross in any event? Of course not—it took seven or eight men to bind me while THEY EFFORTED TO MURDER MY PHYSICAL BEING.

Let us, herein, simply look again at that which the historian says regarding the aspects of the experience as to influence:

"...The first step was belief in the resurrection, based on the visions of Mary Magdalene and several of the apostles. Next, the shameful death on the cross was transformed into an act of sacrifice. Finally, with the outpouring of the Holy Ghost, the meaning of the company of believers was actualized and became the Church. The Gospel narrative of the Last Supper became the basis of a cult. The sacrament of the Last Supper was the end of a development; had Jesus established it, it would necessarily have been the beginning. 'Jesus did not make himself into a sacrament'."

"The articles of faith: Christ's sacrificial death; the redemption of all believers through his death, wherein Christ took their sins upon himself; justification by faith; Christ as the second Person in the Trinity; Christ as Logos (world reason), participating in the creation of the world and guiding the people of "Israel" through the desert; the Church as Christ's corpus mysticum; Christ as the second Adam, historical beginning of a new mankind; all these tenets and many more that mark the rich history of Christian dogma have nothing to do with Jesus. Christ was a new reality that was to produce the most overwhelming effects in history.

"Without the churches, Christianity could not have developed through the centuries. If Jesus kept a place amid the innumerable motifs that entered into this development, it was thanks to the canon of the Christian Scriptures. While even so early a Christian as Paul had no interest in Jesus the man, the Gospels remained a part of the New Testament. The Christian canon, including the books of the Old Testament, is so rich in contradictory themes that there is no justification for trying to find anywhere in it the key to the Gospel, to the message of Jesus, to the Biblical religion. Even Jesus is not the key, but it was his reality that gave the impetus wherever the idea of the imitation of Jesus has arisen.

"Here and there, men have taken a radical view of 'imitation'. They have tried to put the Sermon on the Mount into practice by turning the other cheek, to follow Jesus' instructions to the apostles by wandering in poverty, to follow the Passion by provoking their own ruin in the world, in short, to achieve the truth of martyrdom by actively imitating Jesus' most extreme actions and sayings.

"Or else, the imitation of Jesus has been interpreted as the transfiguration of the suffering that comes to us unsummoned, in the course of events. The Passion of Jesus becomes a model, teaching us to bear the most unjust and inexplicable suffering, not to despair when we are forsaken, to find God, the last and only foothold, at that source of all things, to bear our cross with patience. For all suffering is sanctified through Jesus.

"The imitation of Jesus takes on still another meaning when his ethical imperatives are taken as a norm, when purity and love are seen as God's will. This attitude compels knowledge: even at best we experience our ethical inadequacy.

"But an orientation by Jesus is possible without imitation. For Jesus gave the example of a life whose meaning was not nullified by failure in the world, but enhanced, not to be sure as an unequivocal directive but as a manifest possibility. He showed how a man could become free from the fear inherent in life by taking his cross upon himself. His message teaches men to keep their eyes open for absolute evil in the world and forbids complacency; it reminds men of the existence of a higher authority. The absurdities in his words and actions can exert a liberating effect.

"Many men in the world of Biblical religion have managed to discern Jesus through all the successive layers of tradition. In his actions and words he spoke as himself. Because of his radicalism, which has never ceased to be meaningful, the contemplation of Jesus the man has always been a source of inspiration. He has remained a powerful force in opposition to the Christianity that made him into its foundation, the dynamite which has threatened so often to shatter the congealed, worldly Christianity of the churches. He is invoked by the heretics who take their radicalism seriously.

"Enormous intellectual efforts have been made to confine the contradictory flow of this man's life and thought in a systematic whole. In their drive toward worldly order, the churches have tried, often with considerable success, to muffle his explosive power, to limit and direct the flame. But from time to time it has broken loose, bringing new hopes and fears of the catastrophe that would usher in the Kingdom of Heaven.

"This origin has created peculiar difficulties for Church dogma and policy, and these never-resolved difficulties in turn have been responsible for the lack of clarity, but also for the vitality and wonderful truthfulness of Christianity.

"The difficulty began when the world failed to end. In the new situation, thought and action had to be revised. In practice, the place of the expected kingdom was taken by the Church. Jesus, the herald of the end, became the institutor of the sacrament. But once the kingdom of God that would end history was drawn into history, its whole character inevitably changed. The application of a message springing from the most extreme of situations to the tasks of this world, to the shaping of existence, the promotion of knowledge, art, letters, gave rise to the insoluble antinomies that mark any discussion of "Christianity and Culture". Rebels and dogmatists have formed equally rigid and narrow conceptions of Jesus, the man and his teaching. The rebels' interests lead them to seek grounds on which to deny everything in the world, as justification for their destructive drive for power. The advocates of Church dogma are led by their interests to moderate what is explosive and extreme by finding a place for it within the eternal, unchanging truth of Christianity. Thus they cannot acknowledge that the failure of the world to end produced a revision of Christian thinking.

"In regard to the historic knowledge of Jesus, orthodox faith may favor a radical skepticism which makes it possible to fill in the empty space where the historic reality has been, with a life of Christ based solely on faith and immune to historical criticism because it is not empirical but transcendent. Or, on the contrary, it may recognize the whole Gospel narrative as a historic reality to be believed without critical investigation. In the first case, historical knowledge is quite logically eschewed as irrelevant to faith. In the second, critical investigation is limited to secondary matters, for it is not permitted to alter so much as a jot in the revealed, absolutely certain empirical reality of the Biblical accounts.

"The historic reality of Jesus, the man, which is so extremely important for us in the history of philosophy, is without interest to the doctors of the faith, either among the rebels or the orthodox believers."

Perhaps it might be advantageous to reread this last portion quite a few times and then allow it to digest.

When you, as Man, can separate that which is lie from that which is Reason and Truth, only then can you begin to come into the wondrous realms of that which is God and further your understanding of how and what IS this wondrous Creation in which you find yourself experiencing.

You see, you can now put aside your hate and mongering against Khazars and anti-Jesus assaults, etc. If you come into understanding and KNOWING OF GOD YOU HAVE IT ALL! Physical Man has set up the scheme to suit his own needs in the attainment of power over other Men—for he cannot gain power over that which he desires—GOD AND/OR NATURE CREATION. He can destroy and tear away at the fragments of both—but he cannot even begin to touch the being of God nor of the Creation in balance and total order. He can only wreak havoc among the ones and spaces of his intimate little tiny segment of experience.

IF YOU HAVE GOD—YOU HAVE POWER AND THAT, DEAR ONES, IS SIMPLY ALL THERE IS TO IT. FORGET THE TRAPPINGS, THE RITUALS, THE FOOLISHNESS—AND THE FEAR BROUGHT THROUGH THE LIES. IF YOU HAVE GOD—YOU HAVE POWER ABOVE ALL. AS LONG AS YOU BEAR THE LIGHT IN YOUR OWN PRESENCE—NOTHING THAT STANDS AGAINST GOD CAN ENDURE—NOTHING. THINGS DO NOT HAVE TO END AS YOU PERCEIVE THEM—IS IT NOT TIME TO WAKE UP?

Let us close this segment for it is quite a heavy load to drag until it can be sorted. Blessings upon ye ones who come into Truth. Saalome'.

I AM.

More From: The Greatest Story Never Told

We offered Part One of this material referenced from Chapter One of the book [as the Front Page story in the 4/16/96 issue of CONTACT]. We will pick up right where we left off and perhaps, even though the part one was on April 10th, you can perhaps catch up by looking up that writing. The Editors will have to give further instructions for locating that writing, for as we have to cut back in the paper we find it difficult to keep continuity. In our "perfect world" we could simply offer and you would obtain. However, as books are removed from library shelves and banned from publication, it becomes most difficult to get some of these great and truthful documents. There is actually no way to tell for how long we shall be able to share them but we will try for as long as we are given allowance.

Information: THE GREATEST STORY NEVER TOLD, by Lana Corrine Cantrell, Biohistorical Press, 8512 Belden Blvd., Cottage Grove, MN 55016. ISBN 9-620749-0-X, Library of Congress: 88-071213.

Lana Cantrell is an exceptionally beautiful lady, "...born in Salzburg, Austria and now lives in a suburb of the Twin Cities with her parents and cocker spaniel, Scarlett. This is her second book, her first was written when she was in senior high school of which she was nominated in the literary section of the Cowboy Hall of Fame. This endeavor is her doctorate for college credit. She is a member of The American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Institute of Biological Sciences, American Holistic Medical Foundation, Paleopathology Association and the Ancient Astronaut Society. Her hobbies are writing, painting, sewing and healthfood cooking."

[H: To our Editors. Please do not change verbiage or punctuation. Our job is to accurately reproduce material in the style of the author. It should be noted that the most remarkable criticism of this work is NOT in the research or truth but rather, that Miss Cantrell does not properly use grammar and structure in her non-native tongue. What a sad thing has come upon your people that acceptance is based on sentence structure and not the structure of insight and truth in research. Is that, in addition, the responsibility of Editors and NOT the number one responsibility of the writer in the first go-through? Be kind and you will learn ever so much more! Please remember that this is written in English when possibly the first language is Austrian-German. Thank you, and I shall effort to clarify what I can in anything we reproduce. The book itself is your responsibility to structure appropriately.]

THOSE MAGNIFICENT GODS IN THEIR FLYING MACHINES

[QUOTING, Continued from Chapter One, PART 2: (To preserve the exact flavor of the document, no effort will be made to correct grammar and punctuation.)]

GORDON COOPER

Then there is the case of astronaut Gordon Cooper that arouses curiosity for more than one reason. He was the pilot of Mercury 9 in 1963 and of Gemini 5 in 1965, and he was unquestionably one of our most skilled space pilots, yet he never flew an Apollo. Gordon Cooper, now manufacturing skydiving parachutes after having quit the space program, has never told anybody outside NASA what he saw in space. But there are those who think NASA may have removed him from the Apollo flights because he had seen too much. It is also curious that this man, who is not only an astronaut but is also a scientist, has now become a firm believer in extraterrestrial life and civilizations and is convinced that space visitors to earth have been around for a long time, from the most distant past up to this very day. Not long ago Gordon Cooper participated in an archaeological expedition to South America that discovered the remnants of a very old and very advanced civilization dating back more than five thousand years. Pottery, sculptures, and hieroglyphs very similar to Egyptian artifacts of the same period, were discovered, confirming once more the theory that Egyptian and American cultures had a common origin. It is quite natural for a famous astronaut to be interested in ancient astronauts but one may still wonder whether Cooper did not acquire his sudden interest in extraterrestrial civilizations by seeing for himself in space things that he did not have the right to tell us about.

Why is it the Saganites deny all this while those that have been there are all moved body and soul? Chatelain's book, as so many by some of these authors who seem to be in the know, saw only short publication and are rather hard to locate now. As far as the Ancient Astronaut theory goes, there is great demand for literature here in America but only in Europe where the roots are deeper, do we find it as accepted by the scientists more and the public still demands the publications. Here, it is as if a veil has been put over the people, well executed by the Saganites, who make or feel almost ashamed to do research in it until one finds out just how unschooled and uneducated they truly are. There is so much to be learned here and studied it would really take scores of years as there are just too many questions. We laugh at star revelations in the so-called rag-journals, such as the NATIONAL ENQUIRER, which seems to be sensationalized, but that seems to be what is hiding the reason more people do not believe in them for I have found that many of these stories do have validity behind them but we have since birth been brought up with another side of man's history that masks all that we were meant to know. Other peoples in the world are lucky as the Veda has been studied by them for years as well as literature from areas of the Orient. India is finally discovering her history is much richer than ever believed.

One Professor Duncan Lunan of the Glasgow University lab has come right out and stated that someone has placed a space craft in orbit about the moon. This report was published in the British JOURNAL OF INTERPLANETARY SOCIETY which said the craft was broadcasting signals; perhaps this was one of the things our astronauts saw. This is strange for in the mid-60s astronomers did discover a small body orbiting the moon as they bounced radio and radar signals from it. They went back to other unexplained radio messages in 1928 and 1934 that confirmed same. Three other European researchers transmitted radio signals and received two answering echoes. One took seven seconds to return which meant it was bounced off the ionospheric layer while the other took fifteen seconds, much too long for the law of physics to ascertain. What professor Lunan found was that the code was a broadcast of a star map, the dots and dashes corresponding to the constellation Bootes. Other star maps were found by other researchers and most believe as Chatelain that the moon has been visited many times and perhaps our Apollo astronauts found that out first hand. Why, for instance, did we stop going to the moon with all the research to be done there? Russian Astronomers have unabashedly come right out and stated Mars has man-made satellites orbiting as supposed moons. Why do so many people feel the government is hiding the real story? Is there something deep in our psyche in genetic memory, that tells us we were once amongst the Gods? Do we look up to the heavens because there was once someone there to look up to? Did someone use to come to our defense when we prayed? Are we like little kittens who, before they even are aware of birds, if you play a recording of songbirds they automatically look up? Why are such stories as of the Hollow Earth debunked by the Saganites yet Admiral Byrd's nephew has just announced a confirmation of his uncle's findings and is trying to launch expeditions to find it himself? Why do the ancients constantly speak of it? There are so many areas to be explored on this earth and in the seas below that to deny flatly anything we cannot physically register or see is very naive.

The debates over the existence of the ancient astronauts are not new. The ancients themselves were in hot debate over the issue as to the belief that the Gods once walked the earth and intervened in man's affairs and often they sound like archaic versions of harangues between Eric Von Daniken and Carl Sagan. The first of the known debates began in 300 BCE and the theory of 'euhemerism' came into being for Euhemerus of Messene proposed that the reason people worshiped the Gods was that they once ruled the lands and this was done in gratitude. By far, however, are the best debates in Cicero's (106-43 BCE) treatise, THE NATURE OF THE GODS, the first published debate of the pros and cons of the existence of the Gods I have found to date. To the Greeks, the Gods were a way of life they tried to emulate. He opens the book by stating something the Saganites should take to heart.

"There is nothing worse than a hasty judgment, and nothing could be more unworthy of the dignity and integrity of a philosopher than uncritically to adopt a false opinion or to maintain as certain some theory which has not been fully explored and understood."

As to our own question most philosophers have affirmed the existence of the gods and indeed such an assertion is plausible and one to which we are all naturally inclined. Protagoras however professed himself in doubt on the matter, and Diagoras of Melos and Theodorus of Cyrene did not believe them to exist at all. But even among those who assert that gods exist there is such variety and conflict of opinions that it would be tedious to list all of them. There are many different theories about the shapes in which the gods appear, about their homes and habitations, about the manner of their lives, and all of these theories are the subject of constant dispute among philosophers. But the crux and center of the argument is the question whether or not the gods do nothing, care for nothing and take their ease detached from all concern with the care and government of the world; or whether or not on the contrary all things have been created and formed by them from the dawn of time, and will be ruled and governed by them to all eternity. So at the outset of our inquiry we are faced with the fundamental differences of opinion. Unless these differences can be resolved, mankind will continue to live in the grossest error and ignorance of what they most desire to know.

For thousands of years man had been used to having the gods around them as this study will prove and suddenly there was an abandonment for which these people were very much unprepared. Their great-grandparents knew of them but now the stories were very much blurred and no one seemed to really know the true story.

There is no subject on which there is so much difference of opinion among the learned and the ignorant. But in this medley of conflicting opinions, one thing is certain: Though it is possible that they are all of them false, is it impossible that more than one of them is true? [H: Yes, for you plagiarists in full-blown investigation, I did change the sentence to read CORRECTLY! I.e., she wrote: "But in the medley of conflicting opinions, one thing is certain. Though it is possible that they are all of them false, it is impossible that more than one of them is true." I know this subject far better than does even Miss Cantrell. She doesn't object to clarification of misspeak so why do YOU? She has done great research in order to share a compiled reference for you—if you take exception to presentation you shall surely be the loser in this documentation of your connections with your ancestors. I agree that it is disconcerting to leave out a "not" here and there, but are we not all just a BIT IMPERFECT? To whom do you take this kind of a book for publication? Who will offer the truth to you? We have to have help where it is offered and available lest the truth be forever kept FROM YOU. How would YOU do in German translation?]

This is how I feel, for what if 99% of what we find is only normal phenomenon like the debate over the face on the moon, supposedly rock hewn out by a higher intelligence and also the pyramid shapes found there. What of that one little 1%? We cannot say, yes, the ancient Astronaut theory is false, because no one KNOWS for sure. Cicero points out that Philo said, that all our knowledge is only the knowledge of our own ignorance; this is what we have to raise above, ignorance. The entire book of Cicero's is a collection of essays by different philosophers on the subject of the gods and their relationship to man. By that time in history the gods more or less reflected the weaknesses of man in his life for they became someone on whom they could lay the blame, rather than on themselves which we yet do today in religion and in the sciences with the theory of genetic evolution. They too found that many of the stories just got to the point of being ridiculous as man translated his own baseness onto the gods from whom he sprang, as one philosopher stated.

So far I have been dealing in a general way not so much with the opinions of philosophers as with the fantasies of lunatics which are nearly as absurd as the poisonous honey of the poets, who present us with gods afire with rage or mad with lust, and make us the spectators of their wars, their battles, their violence and wounds; of their hates, quarrels, altercations, and also of their births and deaths. They are depicted through complaints and lamentation, their lusts erupting into excess of every kind; adultery, captivity, and intercourse with human beings to that extent that mortals may have gods for parents. To these fictions of the poets we may add the wonder of the magicians in that the similar extravagances of the Egyptians are exposed. This is not to even mention the superstitions of the masses which are held only in the ignorance of truth.

As we will see, a great deal of the above held truth but man went to excesses excusing his misdeeds through his own nature as relative to the Gods. But Epicurus believed as myself, that a genetic memory had been forged into our beings and brains from the most ancient of times and for this reason we find the gods familiar and fascinating to us. The fact that people all over the world have the same legends and myths of those times displays a common JUDGMENT, of the inborn knowledge of the mind that today we call genetic memory. There are many debates as in the following rebuttal against one who denied the existences of the "gods" which proves my point that we cannot deny something we have not as yet seen.

"Did you ever actually see a god? Then why do you believe that gods exist? So let us abolish everything which we only know by hearsay or by some new hypothesis of our reason. This is as though people who dwell inland should refuse to believe in the existence of the sea. Such is your narrowness of mind that if you had been born in Seriphus and had never left this island, where you saw daily only little hares and foxes, you would refuse to believe in the existence of lions and panthers, when they were described to you. And if anyone told you about an elephant, you would think he was pulling your leg!"

Has any of the Saganites seen a God? Apparently, the Astronauts did, or came closer than most. I never have seen same so I cannot sit here and deny they exist. I do not believe the Gods came from another planet and mated with primitive man but I do believe these people came right from here. Debator Lucilius was quick to remind all of instances which occurred, and still do, which were most unusual and which they could not explain, and which we cannot yet explain today.

And so, both in our own country and in others, the worship of the gods and the sanctity of religion grow firmer and more fair day by day. This does not happen blindly or by chance but because the gods time and again declared their presence.

For example, at Lake Regillus in the Latin War, when Aulus Postumius was in command in the battle against Octavius Mamilius of Tusculum, Castor and Pollux were seen fighting on horseback in our ranks. And in more recent times they appeared to announce the defeat of Perses of Macedon. When Publius Vatinius, the grandfather of one young contemporary, was traveling by night to Rome from Crete, of which he was governor, two young men on white horses told him that Perses had been captured that very day, and when he arrived in Rome he announced it to the Senate. Whereupon he was promptly thrown into prison for contempt of the assembly. But afterwards, when dispatches from Paulus confirmed the king's capture on that very day, this same Vatinius was granted lands and special privileges by senatorial decree. Again, when the Locrians defeated the men of Croton in a great battle on the river Sagra, tradition records that news of this battle was heard the same day at the Olympic games. Often men have heard the voice of fauns in the forests and the gods have often appeared in many forms so as to compel anybody who is not a fool or a worldling to admit that they are present among us.

There is also argument as to how everyone had their own versions of the stories of Hercules, Apollo, Achilles, Orpheus, Hera and the family of the gods and how they needed to find the basis of these stories for uninformed philosophers, poets and priests were making fools of the people as everyone had lost the validity of the nature of the gods as real beings. [H: Do you see that the tales have to be considered as are all myths to integrate possible truth within the fabric of the tapestry? How many of you have gone forth and STUDIED and re-studied the ancient myths and interchange with possibilities? We are greatly indebted to such as Miss Cantrell who was willing to do that laborious task in the same fashion as does Nora Boyles for our own work.] "Philosophy is the child of ignorance" as one book so wisely opens. One thing they did argue over quite adamantly was what the Gods looked like in relationship to themselves. The story was told of how Dionysius ordered the golden beard taken off Aeseulapius at Epidaurus as the son of Apollo had no beard like his father which as we will see has some truth. Aristotle spoke of the "Divine Child" who had features unlike the brachycephalic and dolichocephalic features of most people. Everyone searched amongst the peoples for those closest in features to the gods and we will attempt to explore the mysteries of the human body that lends credence to this. The important thing to remember is that the elders knew that to explore the world and its lifeforms would take holistic reasoning.

We must see that the “parts” of the world (for there is nothing in the world which is not a part of the universe as a whole) have sense and reason. So these must be present to a higher and greater degree in that part which provides the organizing principle of the world as a whole. The universe must be a rational being and the Nature which emanates and embraces all things must be endowed with reason in its highest form.

They called this great power of Nature just that, “the power” which if George Lucas were living back then he would have said “may the power be with you”! But if said to us of God, as we will see, I think they would have turned around with their lotus eyes and said in all earnestness, “I am the force,” for they did not believe in Fate as “they” were “the power” that is, the culmination of the forces of nature converged to make a whole ONE, in this case we can know them as “power-man”.

These elders believed that the earth was a living organism, Gaia, and that all the universe as well is living. We are finding today that this is true....

[END OF QUOTING]

This is far too tedious to continue in this method of presentation so I shall have to ask that if you want all the details of this volume, please obtain it. I wish Lana could have had the expertise of excellent Editors for the reading would be so much the more flowing and easily integrated. We are, however, appreciative of such insight and research as has been poured into this volume of work. It is quite surprising that it has even made it to public forum.

My intent is never to relay information that states in fact that which is unknown for that is indeed foolish. My intent is to bring to your attention possibilities and allow you to gather enough information to make informed opinions regarding questionable focus. Conclusions of right perception can only be recognized through the myriads of sorted material. I herein ask that a copy of the TABLE OF CONTENTS of this book be reprinted so that you can make an informed decision as to the value you feel might be acquired to self [see to right]. To get a full picture of your OWN PRESENT DIRECTION—YOU MUST COME TO LEARN ABOUT EGYPT IN ANCIENT TIMES. YOU CANNOT KNOW GOD IN THE PERFECTION OF LIGHT WITHOUT REALIZING THE IMPACT ON ALL SINCE THAT TIME AS RELATIVE TO FUTURE GENERATIONS OF MAN.

You will find great continuity in our own presentation and that of ancient Aton and Akhenaton as you trace your sequence and participation in THIS PLAY. Where did, do, you fit? Perhaps you can better see as the play unfolds.

What do I mean by saying “as the play unfolds”? Well, readers in the transition of being, I would offer some rather blunt observations from Little Crow:

“Ain’t none of us going to hell, ain’t none of us going to heaven. What we are doing is going into the infinity of our being, the infinity of our creation, which is energy—energy and that’s it. Energy has always existed, always shall exist and always has existed and will continue to exist whether we have that realization or not....”

If we cannot take this wisdom from our ancient TEACHERS, then how can we define that which is reality from the illusion? When you stop trying to get something from nothing you shall see, perhaps, the need for service and realization. When you get out of your own way—you will be a long way down the path- way to KNOWING! Salu.

How Desire & Intention Power Our Creativity

4/28/96 #1 HATONN

THIS TOO SHALL PASS

In the never-ending cycles of sequenced interchange of the electric universe it is always wise to look and then remind self that "this too shall pass" in its proper disposition. It is also wise to realize that those unseen things and invisible energies are always the most potentially useful. However, when you learn to connect the invisible with the clues and fragments of the visible ongoing sequence of events, you can come to KNOW everything for in the clues lie the proper conclusions. Also, however, therein lay the improper conclusions so always take exceptional care that you realize differences.

What are clues? They are mostly the MISSED things of happenings which ebb and flow throughout your living experience which, if you connect your "dots" carefully and thoughtfully, a pattern begins to emerge.

For instance, if you KNOW that you have a so-called enemy in your midst, but you have no idea who that might be, but you get an accidental message left on your answering machine to a known enemy, you might suspect that the calling party, even though it is a wrong number or accidental dialing, is, at the least, doing something undesired for you to know. When this happens you can know right off that it was an accident in the one instance but you will also begin to look at the other things which have transpired and which then take place later. On what basis do you speculate possibilities? Well, if a caller is using frequently dialed numbers it is easy to hit numbers out of sequence, i.e., perhaps one party is number 36 and yours in their directory is 35 or 37. Do you see how easy it is to misdial? All you may have is a pattern establishing itself but it gives clues and, after all, clues are all you need if the enemy is within.

Then there is intuition—always there is intuition, so why not use it? Check out what and how you feel about a given incident or what you are told about the incident and see if there are excuses given for the accident or was it simply a misfire. If you want to know truth, the mind will find its way. If you really want to accomplish something—the mind will find the way. THE MIND IS THE IMPORTANT FACTOR HERE, FOR IT WILL ALWAYS FIND OR CREATE A "WAY" TO ACCOMPLISH WHAT YOUR THOUGHTS EXPRESS IN DESIRE.

If you have NO goal, NO dream, NO vision, then there is nothing to accomplish and therefore you will never accomplish much of anything worthwhile. Why? Because you will lock yourselves into the mass of "zombie doers" just moving along a track which enslaves you to the ordinary.

WHAT IS DESIRE?

Desire is "prayer"! Further, it is NOT the thing believed in that brings an answer to man's prayer; the answer to prayer results when the individual's subconscious mind responds to the mental picture or thought in his mind. This law, and yes it is a law, of beliefs operates in all religions of the world and is the reason why they are psychologically true. As a man thinks, feels, and believes, so is the condition of his mind, body, and circumstances. A technique, a methodology based on an understanding of what you are doing and why you are doing it will always help you to bring about a subconscious embodiment of all the good things of life. Essentially, readers, answered prayer is the realization of your heart's desire. If you do not limit the manner or sequence of realization, you will ALWAYS get your petition answered. The call compels the answer!

Desire is that which causes you to focus unrelentingly onto your goal. However, it is not enough just to want something—you must desire the goal actually be fulfilled. You may wish to lose 10 pounds but until you really desire to lose that 10 pounds you probably will not for it doesn't really have much importance to you. When, however, you make up your mind to accomplish your goal—there is no way that you will NOT do it.

In the same line of recognition, until you decide that the most important thing in your existence is your oneness with GOD, you shall be tossed on the sea of all other impacts along the way. God does NOT hit you like lightning as a usual habit of His gaining your attention for HIS is to allow you to make your free-will choices and experience the consequences of those choices.

FULFILL YOUR DESIRES

First let us look at why people "fail". The principle reasons for failure are: lack of confidence and too much effort. Many people block answers to their prayers by failing to fully comprehend the workings of their subconscious mind. When you know how your mind functions, you gain confidence. Right answers are inevitable when thoughts are positive, constructive, and loving. From this it is perfectly obvious that the only thing you need do in order to overcome failure is to get your subconscious mind to accept your idea or request by feeling its reality NOW, and the law of your mind will do the rest. Turn over your request with faith and confidence, and your subconscious will take over and answer for you.

I do not, students, speak of using coercion, mental or otherwise. The facts are that NO coercion is of God. Your subconscious, in fact, does not respond positively to coercion; it responds to faith or conscious mind acceptance.

As I deal with Dharma's experiencing through the maze of legal encounters we have to constantly work to overcome the first floods of negativity. The negatives are, "Not more, I can't stand more of this garbage." "Things are getting worse, not better." "I just don't know what else to do..." When these attitudes come forth, and until you can get your goals reestablished and uppermost in mind, then you will get no response or cooperation from your subconscious mind. You will not move forward nor backward—you will simply be stymied in the moment.

Let us consider that if you get into a taxi and you immediately give a half dozen different directions to the driver in the first three minutes, he would become hopelessly confused and probably would simply refuse to take you anywhere. It is the same thing when working with your subconscious mind. There must be a clear-cut idea in your mind. You must arrive at the definite decision that there IS a way out, a solution to the vexing problem which pops up in every turn of your life. When you reach that clear-cut conclusion in your conscious mind, your mind is then made up, so to speak, and according to your BELIEF it is done unto you.

THOUGHT GUIDES

In using your subconscious mind you infer NO OPPONENT, you use NO WILL POWER. You imagine the end and the freedom state. You will find your intellect trying to get in the way, but persist in maintaining a simple, childlike, miracle-making faith. Picture yourself without the ailment or botheration. Imagine the emotional accompaniment of the freedom state you crave in that problem solution. Cut away the entanglements of the "red tape" approach for the SIMPLE way is always the BEST way.

You are going to have to DISCIPLINE your mind. Here is where science must enter into the equation. The facts are that the most wonderful way to get a response from your subconscious mind is through disciplined imagination. As previously pointed out, your subconscious mind is the builder of the body and controls all its vital functions. Remember the old and good advice: Whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive. To believe is to accept something as true, or to live in the state of being it. As you sustain this mood, you shall experience the joy of the answered prayer!

The three steps to achievement of this end never vary:

1. Take a look at the problem.
2. Turn to the solution or way out known only to the subconscious mind.
3. Rest in a sense of deep conviction that it is done.

If you are sick, for instance, do NOT weaken your prayer by saying confusing and negative things like, "I wish I might be healed," or, "I hope so." Your feeling about the work to be done is "the boss". Harmony is yours. Know that health is yours. Become intelligent by becoming a vehicle for the infinite healing power of the subconscious mind. Pass on the idea of good health to your subconscious mind to the point of conviction; then relax and accept the healing. Get yourself out of your way. Say to the condition and circumstance, "This, too, shall pass." And, "I expect the best answers in the sequence best established." Then let it go while never overlooking the feedback. Through relaxation you impress upon your subconscious mind the enabling and kinetic energy behind the idea to take over and bring it into realization. If you, further, always ask in a way to have the highest good presented—then you shall be able to accept whatever "thing" comes as the best way and all you need to further do is USE IT TO BEST ADVANTAGE.

If, as with Dharma this day, there are more looming depositions with a most unlikable fellow at the helm of the dingy-boat question-machine. This shrewd twister of all answers, to his advantage, while leaving out all accompanying material, is a pain in the you-know-where—BUT REMEMBER THAT THE ACCOMPANYING MATERIAL IS ALSO RIGHT THERE FOR YOUR ATTORNEY TO USE! The point is to insure that your attorney USES IT wisely and properly. If, however, you simply bog self in the "dread" you can have no positive gain from the encounter. Remember YOUR goal and use his entré to whatever happens. His focus will be the total OPPOSITE of yours in whatever confrontation so turn about the information to use for SELF. If your cause is just and right—the right use and attitudes will accomplish your task and the lying, cheating adversary will NOT PREVAIL according to YOUR GOAL. If you expect the enemy to win, he will...!

This brings us to:

THE LAW OF REVERSE EFFORT AND OPPOSITES

When your desires and imagination are in conflict your imagination invariably gains the day. Let us example: if, say, you had wide planks on your floor and you were asked to walk one of the planks, you would do so without question. But now suppose that plank were placed 50 feet in the air between two buildings. Would you walk it? Your desire to walk it would be counteracted by your imagination or fear of falling and would dominate your ability to trust your balance. Your DOMINANT idea, which would be the picture of falling, would surely conquer. However, a highwire walker would think NOTHING of walking a 12-inch-wide plank. Consider your aptitudes and talents in every instance so that WISDOM is your guide but the "moment" of reaction is not your driving force.

Remember that your desire, will, or effort is reversed in such choices and the dominant idea of failure would be reinforced.

Mental effort is invariably self-defeated, eventuating always in the opposite of what is desired. The suggestions of powerlessness to overcome the condition dominate the mind; your subconscious is always controlled by the dominant idea. Your subconscious will accept the strongest of two contradictory propositions. The effortless way is the better.

A student under pressure in a circumstance of examination can often find his knowledge has suddenly deserted him. The mind becomes an appalling blank and inability to recall a single relevant thought is all the mind can comprehend in its overload and, no matter how much effort is exerted, until the "mental block" is overcome, relaxation is present, and forced "thought" is abandoned, the mind will remain focused on the blank instead of recall. How many times have YOU left an examination table only to almost immediately remember the facts? Trying to force memory is the very cause of the memory failure. This is an example of the law of reversed effort whereby you get the opposite of what you asked or so diligently prayed. Focus on failure and you cannot win—focus on winning and you cannot fail—IF, you accept EVERY happening as an answer in part to your goal achievement.

CONFLICT

If you are to succeed in reaching your desire, you must reconcile that desire with imagination. To use mental force is to presuppose that there is opposition. When your mind is concentrated on the means to overcome a problem, it is no longer concerned with the obstacle. When harmonious union or agreement exists between your conscious and subconscious on any idea, desire, or mental image, your prayer will be answered for there is no longer a quarrel in either part of your mind.

When you try solving problems you indicate, right from the beginning, failure. When you ALLOW problem solutions to come, consider, evaluate objectively, etc., you will have plenty of alternatives from which to choose. Remember that when you think you have exhausted all possibilities and alternatives—YOU HAVEN'T!

Let us consider Ekkers' encounters in the moment. Mr. Horn is working directly with the Green Brigade so it would seem that the disadvantages far outweigh the limited scope allowed Ekkers in a non-related case. Not so! You now have PROOF of all connections and this will serve you later to such a great extent as to be even worth the losing of any ONE case in point. Set the goal to winning ALL, however, and you can as easily win them all as to consider any ONE of them. When the enemy teams up—you have the advantage, even if it is elusive to you at the moment. Allow the WAY to unfold, consider each factor and aspect, and use each encounter to further prove the conspiracy connections. REMEMBER THE FOCUS OF EACH CASE AND CAUSE YOUR ATTORNEY TO FOCUS ON THE POINT AND ALLOW ONLY THE OTHER DISTRACTIONS TO ENHANCE OTHER CASES. Look at advantages here as we are even finding the little side-attachments which are simply considerations of little consequence. However, once you know to watch your position from every direction, you will begin to find the friend, the half-friend, and the aiding and abetting stand-ins. None can serve two masters. You can tinker around in both camps until you are discovered, but no person can serve two masters. The result is a commercial venture of choices. If little bridges are kept open for the convenience of acquaintanceship, you will find a pattern of coalitions. If you note one adversarial acquaintance and then another and yet another—beware—for that party who can't seem to choose has OBVIOUSLY CHOSEN.

I wonder how many of you who follow the way of the Biblical Psalmists know of what is written there in those often wise statements? Let us look at Psalms 19:14 with a bit of wise consideration: "Let the words of my mouth [feeling, nature, emotion] be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord [the law of your subconscious mind], my strength, and my redeemer [the power and wisdom of your subconscious mind can redeem you from sickness, bondage, and misery]."

ANOTHER VIEW FROM THE MOUNTAIN

Inherent in every intention and desire is the mechanics for its fulfillment. Intention and desire in the field of pure potentiality have infinite organizing POWER. When you introduce an intention in the fertile ground of potentiality you put this infinite organizing power to work—FOR you. Further, it will be through the law of least effort as spoken of above, that you accomplish. Nature's intelligence functions with effortless ease, readers, with carefreeness, harmony, and love. When you harness the forces of this harmony, joy, and love, you create success and good fortune with likewise effortless ease.

When you confront that which seems to represent a problem of some kind, put yourself into relaxation and recall ideas which work FOR you. Line up these ideas so that they become a part of each consideration in problem solving.

1. Mental coercion or too much effort shows anxiety and fear which block your answer. Easy does it!

2. When your mind is relaxed and you accept an idea, your subconscious goes to work to execute the idea.

3. Think and plan independently of traditional methods. Know that there is always an answer and a solution to every problem.

4. Do not be overly concerned with the beating of your heart, with the breathing of your lungs, or the functions of any part of your anatomy. Lean heavily upon your subconscious and proclaim frequently that Divine right action is taking place.

5. The feeling of health produces health, the feeling of wealth produces wealth. How do you feel?

6. Imagination is your most powerful faculty. Imagine what is lovely and of good report. You are what you imagine yourself to be.

7. You avoid conflict between your conscious and subconscious in the sleepy state. Imagine the fulfillment of your desire over and over again prior to sleep. Sleep in peace and awaken in joy.

HIGHER REALIZATION

In the wondrous journey through the physical experience it becomes imperative that you learn to achieve and receive GUIDANCE and help from your "older brothers" in the next dimension. This is as necessary as breathing for if you cannot accept that there IS higher guidance then you will never move far enough away from that conscious limitation to have realization of desires and wants. Throughout history in literature speaking of the unknown there runs the thread of the concept of the Divine Hierarchy. This Divine Hierarchy is said to be an organization of members of the spirit world, headed by the Ascended Masters and staffed with many devoted workers whose last Earth lives were spent in study and earnest spiritual service to mankind. The express purpose of this so-called organization is the upliftment of mankind and the furthering of its progress or evolution along spiritual lines. You need to realize that in your conscious state of being you are totally impacted by that which is around and about you and therefore objective observation is lacking. Therefore, to stand ASIDE of this conscious brain action you must consider a "higher being", a higher intelligence, or SOMETHING to which you can shift the gears of consciousness. In other words, you have to learn to let go and let God.

Contact with the Hierarchy can be most beneficial along material as well as spiritual paths. When you have identified your own teacher and clearly established your contact, you can expect tangible help of any sort you need. Ah, but how do you get that teacher?

Your own "higher self" is the best means of introduction to your spirit teacher. Go to your quiet place and contact your higher self through relaxation and allowance of subconscious being. Then ask yourself to introduce you to your teacher. The reason for having a label on the teacher is to assure the clearance of energy streams into instant recognition. You must form both a subconscious and, then, a conscious contact.

Since your spirit teacher is himself a complete entity in itself, the method of response may be much more varied than the normally internal response in that you might very well get a physical response of some kind or another. You may see light or sparks, feel a temperature change, feel a breeze or any number of electrical responses pass through your body, or you may simply be impressed with a new thought of some kind. Don't focus on a "certain kind" of response lest you miss your introduction.

When you recognize that first response, answer immediately. Don't get all choked up with fear and anxiety. This is a normal and natural occurrence. Answer with a heartfelt, "Thank you," and, "It's wonderful to know you are here." Then ask for the name of your teacher and the recognition symbol he will send to let you know of his presence. As you progress and practice you will undoubtedly attract many teachers. Each will have his own recognition symbol so you can know who is with you at all times.

This is far from being "hogwash", you skeptics; the spirit world has more REALITY than anything in the material world, and it is certainly as important to you if not ever so much more so. I suggest you do not err in dismissing this as nonsense. From where do YOU think you get inspiration?

How do beings from another dimension help you? To make the how a bit more easily understood we should look briefly at the particular why. Why should beings from another dimension want to help you? The answer comes clearly from the concept of ONE GOD, one universe, one life, and one consciousness. Dwellers in the spirit world, not blinded by the demands of your kind of physical existence, naturally understand this. They know that you are all ONE in essence, and their individual progress is best furthered by contributing to the overall progress of the species. This begins to become a reality of thought progression of "As you turn to God, God turns to you." Therefore, if you turn to the spirit world in right connection, it eagerly responds to you. The avenue of growth for those on the spirit side of life is to actively help and participate in the evolution of those souls who are currently struggling for growth within the confines of a material body. Thus you can be sure of the wonderful mutuality of spirit relationships—helping you helps them!

INTENTION

Intention lays the groundwork for the effortless, spontaneous, frictionless flow of pure potentiality seeking expression from the unmanifest to the manifest. This is easily recognized as through God and Self judging INTENT. IT IS THROUGH INTENT THAT ALL IS MANIFEST. Desire has no power save through INTENTION. Intention is the valid power behind desire. Intent alone is very powerful, because intent is desire without attachment to the outcome. Desire alone is weak, because desire in most people is attention with attachment. Intent is desire with strict adherence to all the other laws, but particularly it is an adherence to DETACHMENT. If you are to be successful you must detach self from the moment to be objective and allow intent to push through to fulfillment of the "desire".

It is important to remember something RIGHT HERE: Intention combined with detachment leads to life-centered, present-moment awareness. And when action is performed in present-moment awareness, it is most effective. Your intent is for the future, but your attention is in the present which is all you actually have—the present. Therefore, you must accept the present as it IS and intend the future. The future is something you can always CREATE through detached intention, but you should never struggle against the present for it simply IS. Remember that the past, present, and future are all simply properties of consciousness. The past is only recollection, memory; the future is anticipation; the present is awareness. Therefore time is the movement of thought. Both past and future are born in the imagination; only the present, which is awareness, is real and eternal. It IS. It is the potentiality for space-time, matter, and energy. It is an eternal field of possibilities experiencing itself as abstract forces, whether they be light, heat, electricity, magnetism, or gravity. These forces are neither in the past nor in the future—THEY JUST ARE.

You are going to have to step out there into the field of all possibilities and anticipate the excitement that can occur when you remain open to an infinity of choices. In this way you can then CHOOSE the best solution and choice. This allows for the experiencing of all the fun, adventure, magic, and mystery of life to expression. When you get your dharma (purpose in life) connected through your pure potential with your giving and regiving, noting the cause and effect of each thought and action, recognize the karmic influences at play, take the least effort in objective intention and desire while remaining detached, you shall be back around to CREATING and fulfilling of your PURPOSE. Your PURPOSE will always be in SERVICE!

In conclusion of this particular focus on desire of successful fulfillment of any goal let us consider a good list of things to use.

1. List your desire(s). Carry that list physically and/or mentally wherever you go. Look at that list before you go into silence or meditation. Look at it before you go to sleep for this is especially a good time to poke in your wishes. Look at them again when you awaken and see what thoughts you have to offer regarding same.

2. Release this list of desires and surrender it to Creation, trusting that when things don't seem to go your way, there is a reason, and that the cosmic plan has designs for you which are much grander than even those that you have conceived for Self.

3. Remind yourself to practice present-moment awareness in all your actions. Refuse to allow obstacles to consume and dissipate the quality of your attention in the present moment. Accept the present AS IT IS, and manifest the future through your deepest, most cherished intentions and desires—while allowing detachment to the thing in point.

In detachment lies the wisdom of uncertainty, friends. In the wisdom of uncertainty lies the freedom from the past, from the known, which is the prison of past conditioning.

You must be willing to step off into the unknown, that field of all possibilities, in order to surrender yourselves to the creative mind that orchestrates the whole movement of the universe.

There is no merit in FORCING solutions on problems for in force there is only the creation of new problems. Participate in everything with detached involvement and the solutions will pass for your inspection.

You need to factor in uncertainty as an essential ingredient of your experience. This allows you the very fundamental ability to create what you desire, for in the uncertainty you have flexibility. Be willing to accept uncertainty for, as stated, solutions will spontaneously emerge out of the problem, out of the confusion, disorder, and chaos. The more uncertain things seem to be, the more secure you can feel, because uncertainty is your path to freedom. It may seem to be a contradiction but it is through the very wisdom of uncertainty that you will find your security. Why? Because you are not LOCKED into an outcome.

You are going to have to step out there into the field of all possibilities and anticipate the excitement that can occur when you remain open to an infinity of choices. In this way you can then CHOOSE the best solution and choice. This allows for the experiencing of all the fun, adventure, magic, and mystery of life to expression. When you get your dharma (purpose in life) connected through your pure potential with your giving and regiving, noting the cause and effect of each thought and action, recognize the karmic influences at play, take the least effort in objective intention and desire while remaining detached, you shall be back around to CREATING and fulfilling of your PURPOSE. Your PURPOSE will always be in SERVICE! In Service to others you find the perfection of harmony and balance. Just remember that sitting in the middle of the fence is NOT harmony and balance; it is just having made the WRONG CHOICE. You may well function on either side of the fence as need arises but to live on that fence is temporary in every concept. Gold (money) is not evil or good—the USE OF THE COMMODITY MAKES THE DECISION AS TO ITS VALUE. If you think you can relate and experience evil without having it rub off on you, think again. If you are not actively changing evil intent of another with whom you are experiencing, then you are accepting the evil as surely as if you are in training to teach same. Remember that the simple nodding of the head indicates concurrence and will be used as such when you least expect it, by the one to whom you nodded. It also sets "appearances of circumstances" and ones are always judged by the company they keep and the actions performed. If I, for instance, see you laughing with and nodding (as in agreement) with someone I know serves evil intent—then I am going to ASSUME you are in coalition and agreement with that adversary. I have no other thing upon which to base my conclusion for if you choose my adversary's company you have chosen to NOT HAVE MINE—except perchance to use me in some manner.

I would hope that you can sort your feelings in positive activities from the fragments of input from these lessons for when you can you will have grown in limitless leaps and bounds. If you think you can experience in BOTH worlds of expression—think again for you are birthed to be ALL things but experiencing in one dimension at a time in order that you might LEARN. Please remember that unconditional experience is NOT the same thing as absolute experience, just as is unconditional love NOT the same as ABSOLUTE LOVE. All things, all beings HAVE CONDITIONS! When you properly "condition" your desires and intentions—you will have ability to win whatever prize you seek.

Good morning.

"I'm afraid I can't represent you. After all, I AM the guy you mugged."

FOREWORD

Please be patient with us as we use the opportunity of a "Foreword" being hewn from a "writing". We have to pull double duty because we have had some physical problems which I probably should share with you friends, which has caused us to miss a couple of days of writing. This is not, unfortunately, due to more court hearings or depositions (they are all waiting there by the multitudes), but Doris sustained a couple of nasty Black Widow spider bites late last week and that was followed on by multiple bites from a beetle which was found in her bed. The reactions have been incapacitating. The beetle is of the "blister beetle" family so the bites have created swollen hands, face, and nervous system reaction. Following on to the spider bites, it has been debilitating and just today are we back able to type.

LIFESAVER!

I don't want to over stress the importance of keeping up with your intake of those things which enhance the immune system. Doris has come out of both these without MAJOR problems of systemic nature. Local swelling and painful itching has about been the extent of it, along with fever and some chills as the response of the immune system took over its rightful task. We noted that the thing that absolutely saved her life, probably, was the use, for some three weeks now, of a small frequency device which she was using for joint discomfort [see box at right]. She had been using the device right up to the night the spider bite happened as a testing procedure. The negative charge to the cells and to the toxin injected prevented the toxin from doing more than superficial integration with the system and allowed the immune system to immediately respond to the invasion. Since both insects are "nervous system" attackers, it doubled up on the load to the system but instead of worsening the circumstances, the latter bites (some 7-8 of them) found the immune system already in action, so that although the immediate reactions were great, the duration of debilitation is seemingly only about two days instead of two weeks to a month or more in recovery. The more important thing to note, however, is the lack of tissue reaction to necrosis as is usually the case with both insect bite results. Readers, at 64 years of age this is an incredible happening whether or not you realize it as such.

There seems to be another side-benefit to the frequency introduction which is the inability of parasites to flourish in the "charged" cells environment. This seems to come along with a normalization of the system as regards fat which is the storage mechanism of the parasitic community. I have no comment about worthiness for any one or all, but it has been shown right here and right now that "something" happens which changes terrible damage potential from toxic insects, snake-bites, etc., into an uncomfortable couple of days with a couple of days of varying spells if minor itching.

Here, Doris also took some over-the-counter antihistamine immediately, along with aspirin to reduce the fever to manageable levels. If one of the bites had not been on the hand we would never have missed a typewriter strike.

I have asked that there be attained some supply of these devices for we have witnessed the results in comfort in an immediately dangerous circumstance. I believe that New Gaia is seeking a supplier since it has also noted a large number of inquiries regarding the devices. If there is an update I would appreciate a special item in the paper if possible.

You are also going to be getting some "bad" grain products which are going to have toxic results in the digestive system. If you can enhance your immune system AND charge the cellular structure of your blood and lymph systems, you might well be able to handle those toxins from the smut fungus-virus which is invading the international wheat crops.

Do I suggest cures and healings? No thank you! These are devices which can change your systemic pattern enough to allow some help to your comfort zone if nothing more. You must KNOW that we do not advertise nor suggest cures. At best YOU are the only one who can bring healing to Self. What has really been notable is the feeling of better-being as depression seems to improve in only a couple of days without any changes in substance intake of any kind. What this indicates is a nervous system response in receptors and connection capacity of the nerve connections. Since the source of "power" is from small batteries it is, first of all, safe. I just bring you this information for your personal consideration. I certainly am not in the medical business and I am not trying to sell you anything. All I am suggesting is that these devices have been around for decades, so if someone among us will find a resource we would be grateful.

GOLD INVESTMENTS

Dharma and E.J. have been through hours of grueling depositions on the topic of "gold investments" as presented to the opposition attorney, Mr. Horn, from the Green Brigade. Do I suggest gold investment? Does Mr. Ekker suggest gold INVESTMENTS? Yes and NO. We certainly, like any other financial writer, suggest you buffer your reserves with some gold and silver. We also handle or suggest gold and silver colloidal solutions but we are not now, nor ever have been, in any INVESTMENT business of any kind.

It is obvious that Mr. Green tries to TRAP us into somehow representing investments. No, there is no metals dealing here and there are no investments. There IS an opportunity to lend funds to the Phoenix Institute For Research & Education, Ltd. in exchange for notes. There are agreements and one of which is an agreement to NOT WITHDRAW funds until the price of gold is doubled from loan date. There is nothing unique about this nor is it an investment product—although it would be a good investment if you are willing to use the rules and honor your agreements. It is a simple method for borrowing money, purchasing gold as collateral for the notes, and then borrowing funds for ongoing costs, press, printing, manpower and project development. This is all that within which the Institute or Ekkers have ever involved themselves. We have stated over and over and over again that there is no precious metal investment program here. What Green NOW wishes to proclaim is not our business. Green's plans may well have been the "ponzi scheme" he now claims, but him saying so does not make it so. Him trying to destroy the Institute through use of HIS OWN PLAN is despicable but is also not our business for him "saying" something makes it even more discreditable.

As to corporation structure, the Ekkers for a while served as an interim agent for the Nevada Agent in "birthing" corporations—for paperwork purposes ONLY. They have never involved themselves with ownership or business management of ANY corporation set up in this manner. During a time of NO INCOME it was helpful to be able to get a tiny fee for the services. Ekkers did not and do not know who owns any corporation for which they did this service unless they continued as officers and/or directors at the request of the corporate business entities. This is/was for the limited use of structuring a corporation's birthing only in paperwork. Moreover, the Ekkers get NOTHING from serving on the Board of Directors of the Phoenix Institute or any other corporation. Mr. Ekker is also treasurer for a tiny few corporations, including the Institute, for he has the connections for Gold transactions and banking authorizations. Mr. Green also requested that arrangement before he realized, we suppose, that Ekkers were honest and would not scam the people as obviously has Mr. Green, even to stealing from his own corporation. So too did Mr. Ence/Enz. It is illegal, readers, to sit on a Board of Directors and be an Officer of the Corporation and secretly make "insider deals" for personal and secret use. Moreover, in these instances it was not even "subtle" management; it was outright theft.

We are not going to sit silent and have great losses for friends who have helped because a few crooks and embezzlers have come against us. If the plan was ever called an investment program, then that came from "them" and NOT FROM HERE. What George Green told people on his seminar tours is not in our information banks nor is what he may have told them privately. The only problems, however, have been transactions handled by Green and the misunderstanding thereof. Some of the errors have been from direct demand of parties personally to withdraw corporate funds—in gold yet—through instructions directly from Green, we are informed, to give to Green to "roll-over" tax free and reinvest in Green's thieved (from the Institute, Ekkers and Martin) projects. This was WHILE MR. GREEN WAS A DIRECTOR AND OFFICER OF THE INSTITUTE. THIS IS WRONG! This is not a gold holding company. Gold is ONLY used for interim collateral for the loans to the Institute. There is no MISunderstanding except with Green's misfits to whom he suggests "saving" less than 10 cents on the dollar. Why would anyone do such a thing with their loans when, if they follow the agreement and gold doubles—they get over 100% return of funds inputted and, when gold goes higher, to 800 dollars/oz. there is a major PROFIT. Left alone the return will be more than tenfold—not 10 cents per dollar. You who follow

Mr. Green are notably not the wiser "thinkers" of your generation.

Mr. Green says "this ponzi scheme" was not "his"? I think if you inquire you can get a full description and outline of the program ON MR. GREEN'S "FINANCIAL COMPANY" DOCUMENT PAPERS [see box on this page and the next].

Green tells you, to whom he sends his packets of misinformation, that you need to put the Institute into "receivership". Then there is documentation of HIS OWN SPEAKING saying that "Well, it means informal LIQUIDATION at probably no more than 10-25 cents on the dollar." Well, people, which do you want—10 cents or ten-fold on the dollar? The choices are YOURS. This is NOT difficult to understand in either concept or reality.

Dear Friends,

Thanks you for your inquiry into the Phoenix Institute. The Institute has put together a method for providing fundings for our projects, which we feel will benefit you as help us reach the programs which are given to us from the Command. We of course will accept donations at any time.

Because of the large quantity of money required, your personal requirements of safety and direction, both E.J. Ekker and myself as directors have instigated a program to plan a bit for you on an individual basis.

We have arranged for a bank in Minneapolis to act as a holding department for our gold. We will be purchasing... gold for your Corporation account to be placed in a Holding Corporation. You will be given a receipt for the number of Gold or type purchased. We will only purchase base gold items (no numismatics). This is your gold, we will only have use of it with your permission either for general projects or as you direct.

The bank will allow us to borrow against the gold up to 70% of spot. This will allow us to proceed with our building projects, movie, and other things that are presented to us. WHEN, the gold goes up, and after you have been consulted we will sell the gold and purchase Treasury bills, or whatever you desire with your moneys and retire the notes. Our corporations in the projects will participate with you in 50% of the profits in relationship to the overall requirements. The balance will be in the Phoenix Institute to carry on with our projects. In the case of any project that we have built or developed, you will get back 100% of the capital contribution before we share in the profit. If we utilize the funds for promotion you will be credited with a return of 8% interest for the time of use. (THE INCREASE OF GOLD VALUE IS ENTIRELY YOURS)

The program always has some risk, as the direction of gold does happen to be level at the moment, but our feeling as well as other experts appears it will exceed $2000. per oz.

The restaurant, hotel, movie studio, etc. projects will be run by experts in the field. Their credentials are more than adequate to do the jobs as required.

Thanks,

George Green

such things as "contributions", "gave to...", "give", "major investment", "small investment", etc. We find it interesting that even as with the property corporation of which Ekkers had no input or connection, that the parties in point held/hold mortgage trust deeds. There was no GIFT, GIVING OR ANYTHING ELSE SO SILLY. That circumstance could be called an INVESTMENT, for the property itself is the COLLATERAL and the collateral is SECURE TO EVERYONE INVOLVED EXCEPT THE EKKERS. There had to be some way to fund lawyers and this incredible legal process from Hell. The price of the property handled it nicely without fear of loss to helpers. Ekkers did not, have not, nor shall they, gain anything save "time" from any such transactions—NOR DO THEY OWN THE PROPERTY! Ekkers are the last to have been informed about the mechanism structured and are humbly grateful to insightful people who were willing to do this. Ekkers have had nothing to do with the structure or management of that transaction. You who claim otherwise will find documentation PROVES you WRONG.

Now, for you would-be slayers-of-rightness: it is noted that there are long lines of prior incidents involving yourselves which are pretty tacky as they are unfolded and uncovered. Green has a LONG LINE of offenses; Ence/Enz has numerous nasty dealings prior to coming to Tehachapi. Those are NOT our business but they smack of less-than-honest activities. Ekkers are flattered that you seem to think they are the sole thinkers and actors in full power control of EVERYTHING—but alas, it simply isn't so. However, where there was no control, it is now assumed that if the blame is going to be placed wrongfully onto these shoulders, they WILL TAKE CONTROL OF THEIR OWN DESTINY REGARDING THESE THINGS AND USE EVERY FORUM AVAILABLE TO COUNTER THE LIES AND OUTRIGHT UNLAWFUL ACTIONS.

What the opposition HAS PROVEN is that Ekkers could have acted lawfully and purchased the house many times over HAD THEY BEEN IMMORAL, UNETHICAL OR OUT TO GET SOMETHING FOR NOTHING. THEY didn't run or hide or steal or thief, lie or cheat. They are right where they started, struggling at their work, having lost everything of personal material goods. Green still says he is a multimillionaire property owner and admits he TOOK THE GOLD COINS. Which parties do you feel most comfortable with, readers? Ones who are going to cost you everything except MAYBE 10 cents on your dollar, or will you hang in there until the price of gold doubles and you get a generous return for your loans?
Mr. Green has written to everyone he could contact from his unlawful listings of addresses to join him to destroy the Institute and he would spearhead it. Well, Ekkers offer now to hang in there and, if you wish to join the "cause", they will spearhead the defense of the Institute. If YOU have loaned them or the Institute any funds at all, you are eligible for a cause of action to stop these bastard destroyers. AND, EVERY LIE, CHEATING ACTION, THEFT OR MISSTATEMENT COMING TO OUR ATTENTION WILL BE COUNTERED WITH THE TRUTH. WE WILL NO LONGER PROTECT ANY PARTY TO THE UNJUST CAUSES—EVEN IN INNOCENT MISPERCEPTIONS. IT IS NOT ALRIGHT TO DESTROY OTHERS TO SOOTHE YOUR OWN EGO RUFFLES. IT NO LONGER MATTERS WHAT EXCUSE YOU USE.

I will now change the subject entirely and respond to some inquiries about some things I have said prior to now about the plagues upon your grain crops etc. The best way, I think, is to simply rerun an article from TAKING AIM, Vol. 3, Issue No. 1, April, 1996, page 15:

[QUOTING:]
MASSIVE FOOD SHORTAGE LOOMS

"Texas Wheat, the state's forth-largest cash crop, is withering under a months-long

OUTLINE

E.J. Ekker's background in finance and financial planning is as follows :

George Green has been licensed for over 25 years in the following positions. Registered FINANCIAL PRINCIPAL, National Association of Security Dealers (NASD) Registered Broker/Dealer NASD, Licensed Insurance broker (All Lines) including Life, Accident and Health, Annuities, Casualty, and Bonds, Licensed General Contractor, and registered Mortgage Broker. and Investment Planner.

Texas drought and other unusual weather including temperature extremes."

So reads the first paragraph in an article appearing in the Sunday, March 17, 1996 issue of the El Paso Times.

As of now the preliminary forecasts show that at best, unless Texas receives some rain, harvest will be at least fifty percent off of normal this year.

"Kansas: Drought, blown out wheat, greenbugs, winter-killed wheat, high feed grain prices and new planting flexibility in farm law have one thing in common.

"They are all factors behind tight supplies of some varieties of hybrid grain sorghum and corn this spring, as hard-hit farmers in the Southern Plains from Texas into Kansas press seed dealers to come up with appropriate varieties for their geographies.

"Last year's slack crops hurt seed production companies, too, but the September freeze came too late to increase plantings in South America, where United States seed firms have winter backup production."

These were the beginning paragraphs of an article appearing in the Topeka Capital-Journal, Topeka, Kansas.

As was shown, American suppliers have not been able to rely upon South America as a back up this year.

On January 5, 1996 PMS Foods Incorporated, from Hutchinson, Kansas issued a letter to its customers detailing a price increase on all of its soy products, to go into effect on February 1, 1996. Price increase amounted to one-cent per pound across the board on all soy products.

The letter stated, "As we mentioned in our October and December letters, weather in the central United States has played havoc on grain and bean crops this season. Now reports from South America indicate dry conditions there will make for a 15% reduction in their crops. On the basis of these factors, soybean meal, from which we base our prices of Ultra-Soy, has risen another $20 per ton since our last letter to you on December 8th. This amounts to a total increase of more than $60 per ton since September. We are, consequently, compelled to pass along the increase."

In another letter from a major California grain distribution company, which receives its information from Quaker Oats Corp., to a customer concerning oats:

"Since you are one of our valued customers, I wanted to inform you on the oat market. The market on oats is very strong right now. This rise in price can attribute to various reasons. First of all, this has been the smallest oat crop in history. This lowers the supply, thus increasing demand. Second, the wet springs in the upper Midwest has contributed to the rise in price. Finally, the rise in the market on the corn and soy beans can bring the price up on the oats.

"This is also to inform you of a price increase to look for in the near future."

An then we received a letter from a patriot in the state of Pennsylvania.

"Fellow Patriots,

"I have checked with local farmers & feed companies and have some scary news (if you don't already know it). Shelled corn which was selling for $80 per ton last year is now selling for $182 per ton to more than $200 per ton. Imagine what this will do to food prices.... Tom"

One last note on the food shortage.

We have been notified that the state of Texas has lost most of its peaches, plums, pears and apricots. If they receive one more hard frost they will lose the apple crop also.

If this were not enough the ranchers and farmers in all of Arizona, parts of New Mexico and Texas have had their wheat fields quarantined to prevent a crop-destroying fungus from spreading. We have heard that areas of California may also be infected.

As a result the USDA suspended wheat exports to 21 countries, including China, on Wednesday, March 13.

We have been told that if this fungus is able to take root in a field, this field would not be able to grow wheat for up to seven years.

It is also only affecting hybrid varieties of wheat. The original, organic variety is not affected. [H: Neither is Spelta.]

[END OF QUOTING]

Please continue to pay close attention to the Montana Freeman situation(s). We simply don't have space or time to keep you totally current on the happenings [but Eustace Mullins' explanation of the situation on p. 17 of the 4/23/96 issue of CONTACT covers the basic truth of the matter quite well]. We are trying to keep a very low profile in these types of incidents lest we be somehow lumped into the militia morass. It is with great honor that I offer appreciation to the militias who have KEPT CALM during this major threat to national order. If you can get fair hearing in this set of circumstances you are going to find that the people involved ARE WITHIN ALL CONSTITUTIONAL LAWS OF THE LAND FROM CURRENCY EXCHANGE, NOTE

EXCHANGE, TO SETTING UP THEIR OWN TOWNSHIP. BE SUPPORTIVE AS THIS UNFOLDS BUT PLEASE DO NOT GET CARELESS WITH GUNPLAY OF ANY KIND—THIS IS TRULY A CASE FOR CLOSE WATCHING IN THE COURTS AND LEGISLATURE.

You citizens must come to realize that, whether or not you like it, almost all of the militias are infiltrated by the Feds. The Tri-States Militia, as a for instance, has been receiving FBI funding for many months and the leader, John Parsons, was personally receiving, directly, funds from the FBI. Don't do rash and unlawful actions, citizens. Please take the route of RIGHT action which is to publicly require the courts to honor JUSTICE. You don't gain by going to war—you win by taking an uncompromising stand through the LAW. If you can't win through LAW then you are certainly NOT GOING TO WIN WITH WEAPONS FOR "THEY" HAVE THE BIGGER WEAPONS WITH WHICH TO SIMPLY BLOW YOU AWAY! The Schweitzer circumstances are now in as good of hands as is possible for, regardless of other aims, the very ones to help in this particular incident are there, i.e., Gritz, McLamb, Weaver AND GERRY SPENCE. If anyone can reach through to juries and legislative bodies, it is Spence. You will find that that group of citizens in point have done NOTHING UNLAWFUL OR UNCONSTITUTIONAL although it may be "illegal" for, remember, ANYTHING is legal if the big guns say so! The best help you can offer is TO STAY INFORMED AND DEMAND HEARING ON EVERY STEP OF THIS PROCESS. There will be massive efforts to distract and bury the happenings in other incidents to shift news from the Montana focus. DON'T LET THEM DO IT—KEEP DEMANDING HEARINGS AND VIEWING! The guns of the citizens may well not prevail—BUT THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE SHALL, IF YOU UNIFY.

Dharma, close this please for you are needed for legal matters which cannot wait longer. Thank you.

This journal will be identified for reference:

THIS TOO SHALL PASS

In the passage of seemingly endless assaults from all directions it is that ONE THING will prevail in all instances: "This too shall pass." All things, all circumstances have one thing surely and infinitely present—the passage of sequence into something different from the moment in awareness. You must BE AWARE of the moment, work from the memories and lessons of the past—and always move in mental POWER to the potential of the perceived and anticipated future. In the realization of TRUTH you shall find the Divine.

Taking Care Of Those "Little" Things

4/27/96 #1 HATONN

*IF YOU CONCENTRATE ON TAKING CARE OF
THE LITTLE THINGS, THE BIG THINGS WILL TAKE CARE OF THEMSELVES! G.C.H.*

I offer here a brief but especially meaningful short-form message from Germain: "The world is grossly ignorant of its greatest essential—CHARACTER. You are continuing to build a criminal, immoral world of fear and licentiousness because your concept of values is 'material'. The Soul which ties man to God is not only allowed to sleep, but is forced to sleep by a civilization which is forever trying to 'gain the whole world at the price of losing its own Soul'. I ask that you stamp these next four paragraphs upon your Consciousness with indelible ink:

"1. The most important thing in life is what you DO to your neighbor.

"2. The least important thing in life is what you or your neighbor believe.

"3. He who gives of himself to his neighbor enriches his Soul and builds character, but he who takes from his neighbor seals his Soul in its tomb and enslaves his body to the world-treadmill from which there is no escape other than the awakening of his Soul.

"4. The most important and noble attribute of man is CHARACTER, and;

"The greatest of all underlying principles of a living universe is BALANCE. God has said that if He could give one word unto man that he might KNOW, it is the one word—BALANCE. And if man requires two words, those two words would be BALANCED INTERCHANGE." [H: Walter Russell had the best expression of balanced interchange of any RECENT philosopher. Please see to getting Russell's theory on LIGHT from the University of Science and Philosophy.] "And if man needs three words instead of two, those three words would be RHYTHMIC BALANCED INTERCHANGE." [H: The latter sentence is directly from Walter Russell to whom we humbly give great honor for his willingness to buck an entire political and scientific circle to present his ideas to a spiritually deteriorating world. The price of speaking up and out is surely plentiful and painful.]

Within the thought reference to political and scientific limitation through force and FEAR we can perhaps better relate to that which brings, more closely, realization of a couple of very, very important factors. These are LOVE and FORGIVENESS. These, in simplistic presentation, also have their "laws" and these laws of forgiveness and love contain greater power than atomic or laser bombs. Those end in flashes of destruction but the power of love and forgiveness belongs to any who choose to use them and endure forever. Not even a fragment of either can be lost or destroyed. These laws of God belong to ALL, to rich and to poor, strong and weak, ruler or slave. And to each who fulfills them the ineffable (inability to express in language (words)) power of eternal freedom and majesty is waiting and the robes of glorified light will be his, not the Black Robes of Societal Orders. The shame of his own nakedness, the very shame of his own errors and weakness will be completely dissolved in the power of forgiveness. This IS balanced interchange in its highest form in perfect rhythmic harmony.

Readers, God never gave even one law for His own personal glory or satisfaction. But every law is given that they might glorify man as HIMSELF, clothing him in light and majesty of KNOWING. The "LAWS" are given that man might use his own free agency in becoming perfect, even as God is perfect. These laws are that man might receive power even as God has power in that he can and may CREATE that which exceeds his realization in his mortal form.

Perhaps a thought might here be considered regarding your so-called enemies: IF YOU LOVE AND FORGIVE YOUR ENEMY—THE ENEMY IS DELIVERED UNTO YOU! I would also continue by stating that if your enemy would leave off his attack of those who already put the adversary out of his acceptance as meaningful, he would cease to EXIST. You must counter those attacks each and every time—but in total balanced interchange while not giving energy to that adversary. If you be right and the "enemy" presents other attitudes, then you can KNOW your eventual "win" is guaranteed within the rhythmic balanced interchange with Higher Source. Therefore, if you take care to attend the little things, the big one will take care of itself and probably you won't even recognize it as being "big". The SHARING of great information will give eternal legacy to that greatness while the stingy holding of same will merit no attention at all in the ongoing stream of recognition.

John C. Adams offers this excerpt from an Easter thought and it is worthy of again repeating here:
From The Master Teacher:

"I would have one thought to share, above and beyond that which has already been said.

"You rapidly approach the time of re-birth, brought to pass each year at the day called Easter, in your society.

"This year we would ask each of you to immerse yourselves completely in this death of the physical; and re-birth of that which is real. Accept in your lives the crucifixion, the setting aside, the dying, if you will, of that which is illusion and the re-birth of that which is true.

"Each year at this time, this very earth is re-born, literally. Rejoice in it; enjoy it, and know it."

May we all take a long, hard look at Spring's arrival and watch as Nature recycles from her Winter silence and refolding. She brings with her own awakening the realization of the wondrous things of LIFE as presented in its most wondrous unfolding of the great and grand mysteries of the infinite cycling of living expression.

AS WE MOVE ALONG

We always need to allow for updating and yet continue with our ongoing offerings lest we irritate our readers. With that in mind I will tell you of an upcoming treat for you old friends as soon as we can clear the desk a bit. We have an exceptional presentation from and by Calvin C. Burgin called The Hoax of JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY. We need to, however, decide how best to break up the material. He has generously shared computer discs, but knowing my own interest in the topic, I want to share a bit of higher input as we move along with that particular topic so please be patient with us as we have to deal with the dungeons and dragons along our own earthly pathway.

I want to thank you readers for sharing with us as you come across the "interesting" antics of our friendly enemy fire of Green et al. I have one really interesting message in front of me:

"I was listening to a radio show today (4/26/1996), station KOA out of Denver, Colorado. There was a radio show host on called Rick Barber and he was making fun of Hatonn and Doris with a fake Russian Accent.... He is in the pocket of George Green.... George Green has sent me a packet of information in the past after the America West problem.... He also contacted a friend of mine to solicit $70,000."

THE WIZARD OF ID—By Brant Parker and Johnny Hart

Succinct Perspective On Khazarian Religious Stronghold

5/1/96 #2 HATONN

In the beauty and wonder of each new day our considerations must always turn to how we can offer the most service unto God and unto our brethren. All we can ever do in Service to God is offer information which may or may not be accepted, but it is our responsibility to present different aspects of possibilities for those who wish to KNOW more than what is generally offered. KNOW, likewise, that those who are compelled to write on such subjects as we will take up today—are fulfilling their PURPOSE in service.

The person who has written the following information thesis is no less than a CLOSE friend of our brother Dave Overton (yes indeed, of the "gold" fame/George Green theft). His name is, with permission for use, Calvin C. Burgin and he dares to speak of "the hoax of Judeo-Christianity". This topic is most often considered to be "anti-Semitic" but obviously that cannot be so. In that vein of thought, however, I believe that I will ask Dharma to please offer the letter to Dr. Fields from E. Marre. Mr. Marre has done a succinct job of organizing information regarding the "Jew" as a TERM and in speaking of the Khazar/Ashkenazi Zionists. Until you can realize that we speak of many things and not just have focus on a singular people, you cannot realize TRUTH for you have no foundation upon which to base your conclusions. There is no lesser-than or greater-than people, only people with differing perceptions and realizations.

[QUOTING:]

April 15, 1996
From: E. Marre
To: Dr. E.R. Fields

Dear Dr. Fields,

Thank you for the material your organization sent me including "Truth at Last". I perceive it to be truth. In a couple of areas my opinion/perception differs.

The word "Jew" which is pronounced "You" was coined around 1765 A.D. The word "Jew" did not exist until that time. Zionist Jews by race are Khazars/Ashkenazi who hail from an area near the Caspian and Black Sea as stated in the JUDAICA ENCYCLOPEDIA. By "Religion" they are Talmudists/Pharaseeists. Khazars are the anti-Christ element. The Committee of 300 is the anti-Christ group also known as The Club of Rome, also known as the Olympians. Many Zionists are not Jews. Many involved in the Satanic New World Order are not Jews OR Zionists. They are but puppets whose strings are pulled by the Sanhedrin who are Zionist Khazars who follow the Protocols of Zion. There are at least two factions vying for control within the Zionist group.

The Khazars/AshkeNAZI are descendants of Ham the Canaanite (Phoenicians, Venetians) and others. The Khazars adopted Judaism/Talmudism in 745 A.D. under King Bulan. One of their Kings in the 10th century was named Hanukkah. They call themselves the "Serpent People".

Since the 11th century they hide their lineage behind the Kol Nidre taken on the day of Atonement. It negates all vows, oaths and pledges in the following year.

When one speaks of the "anti-Christ" group, those in opposition to the Laws of God/Creator, one must understand the true meaning of the word "Christ". "Christ" is not a name or title. It is a "State of Being" of soul, goodly (Godly) intent of Soul, just as anti-christ is a state of being.

Paul (Rabbi), AKA Saul of Tarsus changed the name of the Christed Teacher "Esu Immanuel (Emmanuel)" to Jesus "Christ" while on his travels in Greece. Immanuel spoke Aramaic. Paul wrote over half of the New Testament and was the enemy of Immanuel (Jesus). Both Testaments were written by those who follow the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. The Bible is Satan's warbook, no more and no less. There is some truth within, but in my opinion, very little. It was written by Zionist Talmudic Phariseic parasites, to confuse and confound Christians and to lead them down the primrose path, so to speak. They are in total opposition to God/Creator, the One Light, SOURCE.

The Zionist Khazarian Talmudic parasites are behind Freemasonry, Communism, Bolshevism, Socialism, Fabianism, the Illuminati, etc., ad nauseam. Adam Weishaupt, the founder of the Illuminati, was a so-called, self-styled Jew and a Jesuit. He was also Satan incarnate and did some work on the Protocols of Zion.

The Rockefellers are Sephardic Jews by origin; the Rothschilds are Ashkenazi Jews by origin. Most Jews in Israel are Ashkenazi. The Rothschilds control "The City" in London to a great extent. Mayer Amschel Rothschild was a seller of second-hand clothes and flew a Red flag in front of his shop. This is how he got his name "Rothschild" (Reg Flag, Red Shield). Thus the Bolshevik flag was red with a five-pointed star, an inverted pentagram symbolizing the Goat of Mendes, the Baphomet.

The following were/are Zionist Jews: Roosevelt, Eisenhower, Clinton, Churchill, Stalin, Lenin, Trotsky, Sigmund Freud, Albert Einstein (whose theory of relativity is hogwash), Yuri Andropov, Khrushchev (real name Solomon Pearlmuter), Jack Ruby (AKA Jack Rubenstein), Bernard Baruch (was head of the Sanhedrin), Karl Marx, Joseph Engels, Adam Weishaupt, Adolph Hitler... When one understands that Roosevelt, Churchill, Stalin, Hitler were all Zionists, the financing for both sides of WW-II were from Zionist Luciferian Bankers, the arms merchants were controlled by Zionists on both sides, one begins to see the light.

Phillip Sasoon (AKA the NASI—The Prince of Captivity), was a Zionist Jew involved in the East India Co. and its opium control just as the Rockefellers own huge opium fields in South America.

About 80% of the so-called, self-styled Jews are Khazars, by race. Most or many follow the Babylonian Talmud, one of the most vile, hateful anti-Christian texts on the face of the globe. As one studies the Talmud and the Judaica Encyclopedia one is amazed at the "hutzpah" of these parasites. The Halacha gives license to slaughter Goyim.

Jews speak Yiddish using Hebrew letters. They are not Hebrews. The closest thing to actual Hebrew is spoken in Wales, descendants of Eber via Sem.

The ADL-B'nai B'rith (sons of the covenant) is an arm of the Zionist-controlled British Intelligence.

The Mishpucka (the Family) is the Israeli organized crime family and dwarfs such as La Cosa Nostra and others. The ADL-Mishpucka agents were behind the Ron Goldman/Nicole Simpson "Ritual" murders to foment race violence to bring down martial law. Fay Resnick and Kato Kaelin and Ron Goldman were/are PAID ADL agents. The ADL is an unregistered agency of a foreign government, the Marxist/Zionist "State" of Israel (of which we are a colony) dedicated to destroying our Constitutional Republic under God Creator.

Bill Clinton is a Zionist Jew and a puppet. He belongs to a Masonic Order of Jacques De Molay who was a homosexual traitor in France and executed for treason during the middle ages. This Order engaged among other things in ritual homosexuality and child sacrifice. The Order was of the Knights Templars which changed its name to the Knights of Malta. Change the names to protect the guilty. Mr. Clinton belongs to a witches' coven as does Hillary. Both are bi-sexuals.

George Bush belongs to the Skull and Bones, AKA the Brotherhood of Death. He is/was a part of the Committee of 300, and is involved with Clinton, Tyson, Wal-Mart and others in massive drug smuggling, arms smuggling, etc. However, I don't believe he is a Zionist. Mr. Bush on 3/20/91 signed into law "Education Day USA" legislation, Public Law 102-14, passed by voice vote which established a national religion, the "Seven Noahide Laws" which applies to the Goyim (non-Jews) and wholly violates the First Amendment. This is Rabbinical law and legally removes God/Creator. Our Constitutional Republic was founded under God-Creator.

One must keep in mind many Zionists are not Jews, and many Jews are not part of this Satanic Zionist Novos Ordo Seclorum. Many Jews have written and spoken publicly of the Jewish Ritual Murder, Child Sacrifice (blood put in unleavened bread for Passover), the Protocols, the Sanhedrin, etc. There are many goodly so-called, self-styled Jews who vehemently OPPOSE the Zionist Goals for a One World Government.

Jews are not Semites. Jews use "anti-Semitic" to scare their critics and truthbringers through intimidation.

I AM Semitic (descended from Sem (Shem), one of Noah's sons). I AM NOT Jewish, Judean, Zionist, etc. Most Caucasians are descended from Sem. Sem is of the lineage of Semjase (an archangel if you will).

We are the people of the LIE. We are buried under edifice and edifice of lies, half truths and disinformation.

We are each, in my opinion, a thought of God/Creator, projected into a physical manifestation. All things and experiences are but perception. God is LIGHT. All is LIGHT. This essence of Soul is LIGHT. There is no such thing as death or hell as we are brainwashed to perceive. We are here to serve our Creator's will, to learn our lessons, grow spiritually and hopefully graduate to the next level or "grade". If you don't then you return to the 3rd dimension and for many of us this cycle becomes a downward spiral, wherein we are fixed on the physical perception and lost in the lies. The Third Dimension is an illusion, a schoolroom, a testing place.

God has many names. To some Native Americans it is Wakan Tanka. I recognize the One Light, our Creator (as "ATON", The ONE LIGHT). I recognize Immanuel (Jesus) name which is borne as the "new name" as Sananda, which simply means, ONE WITH GOD. Our destiny is to be Co-Creators with God [when we attain the perfection which allows our being WITH God in HIS perfection]. We are each a fragment of God thought, a reflection (image) of the ONE LIGHT, ONE SOURCE, ONE LIFE—GOD.

With the Light of Truth, we shall shine it on the evil deeds of our controllers. With pen and Truth we will restore our Constitutional Republic under GOD/CREATOR based on God's Laws, Natural Law and Common Law.

We must keep in mind as we focus on these Elite would-be-kings to judge their behavior and actions, not the person. But for the Grace of God there go I. Our enemy or adversary tests our will, our convictions and helps us to grow in Spirit, in Wisdom, in Knowing.

I enclose a copy of CONTACT Inc. and some other material I hope you find of interest.

May all mankind come to KNOW TRUTH, and may we all find the Lighted path home to God/Creator.

In Love, Light and Truth. E. Marre.

[END OF QUOTING]

Thank you, E.M., for sometimes we can hear the words of a brother far better than we can hear the voice of Angels.

I would now like to move directly into Part One of the manuscript above noted:

[QUOTING, PART ONE:]

CHAPTER ONE

THE HOAX OF CHRISTIANITY

by Calvin C. Burgin

Dear Christian, Is Your Bible the Word of God? "If the King James Version Bible was good enough for the Apostles, it is good enough for me!"

"God Wrote the King James Bible," says Texe Marrs' recent Flashpoint newsletter (March 1996) headline.

"Astounded scientists have no explanation for the new, mind-boggling, scientific discovery of three highly respected professors from the Jerusalem College of Technology and the Hebrew University in Israel. The authoritative research of these scholars, published in two prestigious scientific journals, proves conclusively that the Holy Bible (King James Version) could only have been written by God Himself."

Wow! He continues: "The three scholars, all mathematicians, used an advanced computer to painstakingly and scientifically analyze the Bible's book of Genesis. The results left them stunned and in shock. They discovered hidden words encoded in the original Hebrew text that could not have been accidental, nor placed there by human hand.

"Even more amazing was the discovery that some of the words found included numerous names and personal data of people living today in the 20th century. What's more, the decoded text predicted actual events which have happened in the lives of the named men. This in spite of the fact that Genesis was written thousands of years ago!"

Double Wow!! Marrs goes on to point out that Editor Hershel Shanks of Bible Review magazine (Oct. 1995, p. 4) is very impressed and says "The odds of this happening by chance" are mathematically "one in 50,000,000,000,000,000." [H: Triple WOW!!!]

Hershel Shanks is also editor of the Biblical Archaeology Review as well as Bible Review, and both are brainwashing tools of the Tavistock Institute (through the non-profit Biblical Archaeology Society), see page 242 of Conspirators' Hierarchy: The Story of the Committee of 300 by John Coleman, (WIR, 2553 No. Carson St., Carson City, NV 89706). Marrs quotes the preface of the August 1994 edition of Statistical Science which says: "Professors Doron Witztum, Eliyahu Rips and Yoav Rosenberg searched the Book of Genesis looking for pairs of words spelled by picking out every dth letter, where d is some integer. The pairs of words were names of personalities and dates of their birth or death taken from the Encyclopedia of Great Men in Israel. When the authors used a randomization test to see how rarely the patterns they found might arise by chance alone they obtained a very highly significant result, with p=0.000016. Our referees were baffled: their prior beliefs made them think the Book of Genesis could not possibly contain meaningful references to modern-day individuals, yet when the authors carried our additional analyses and checks the effect persisted. The paper is thus offered to Statistical Science readers as a challenging puzzle."

Marrs quotes Dr. Jeffrey Satinover, who reviewed the Hebrew University study and reported on it in Bible Review, and who said they, "worked from the Hebrew text... They focused on the Book of Genesis as transmitted in the Jewish Orthodox tradition the textus receptus, or Masoretic text)." [H: Ah but right there—what does that do to good old King James??] Satinover [H: Wow 4th: Look again at this name, which means "ever with Satan"] said "...I think the implication is clear that the authorship of Genesis is not human."

"God only wrote one Bible!" says Marrs, quoting the title of a book written in 1955 by Jasper James Ray.

I have never met Texe even though he lives only a few blocks from me, but I like what I know of him and I enjoy reading his newsletter. Personally, I think I can say I agree with Texe Marrs. I did a study over 15 years ago and wrote a paper concerning a book by Jerry Lucas and Del Washburn on much this same subject, called Theomatics, God's Best Kept Secret Revealed" ... scientifically proves that a Mind—far beyond human capabilities and understanding—planned, constructed, and formed every word in the Bible." Years prior to that I studied the Ivan Panin Bible, a version translated [H: This is the key-word in all books of any kind, readers.] according to these "sacred number codes". This whole theme is a very old one, originating in the Jewish "Cabala" (Kabbalah, Qabbala) teachings of secret numbers and mystery codes, etc., having a common origin with Masonry. These secret groups are called "Cabals", or "Cabs" of "Al" or "El", or "Ca" or "Ka" of "Baal".

I became a champion of this point of view— UNTIL I discovered THE TRAP.

THE TRAP

There is a great brainwashing trap involved here. When you are considering which is the Bible of God, and if you want to understand "The Trap," ask yourself (or ask Texe Marrs), "Which God?"

I think I can predict that Marrs and others would say, "the Great Creator God of the Universe, of all Creation!"

My answer to them is, "Hogwash (brainwash?), I thought you were quoting the Hebrew Masoretic text?" Because the Hebrew Masoretic text does not say that.

Preachers do not tell you the truth (if preachers told the truth, they would not be preachers).

Why not check into this for yourself? Would you like some clues to get you started?

WHO IS YOUR GOD?

Who is God? What is God? These are questions that have been asked for ages, and there are answers for those who want the answers, but look around you, are they the right answers? Christians say that we are a Christian nation, or at least we started out as a Christian nation, or we endeavored to become a Christian nation. Yet we have gone backwards from the ideals of Christianity. Something is wrong. It would seem that God is a real loser. I hope you see (if you care) that something major is wrong and you had better re-think your fundamentals if you want to try to figure out what are the real problems!

When I was a kid I started out to prove to myself that God does not exist, but ended up proving otherwise. I noted that (as far as I could determine) the Bible is the only book that claims to be the word OF God, other books claim to be ABOUT God, and I accepted the Bible as the WORD OF GOD. I made an effort to study the word of God, and I wanted to "get it right".

Hardly anybody actually reads the Bible, but I did and found immediately that the Bible does not say what the preachers say it says! Example—show me anywhere in the Bible that it says that "going to Heaven" is the "reward of the saved!" I can show you many places where it says that the rewards are physical stuff—becoming kings and priests, ruling over nations, having your own lands, with lions and lambs living together, etc.

I found that people, churches, religions invariably "pick and choose" what they want to believe, and reject what does not fit their program.

I decided that to be a Christian, I must keep the Ten Commandments. Do you agree? Most don't agree, for most people Christianity is something you do for 30 minutes on Sunday and the rest of the week you do whatever you want. I am not writing to those people, I am writing to those who might be considered "hard core Christians".

SOME BASIC PROBLEMS

Right off there was a problem. The fourth commandment says to keep the seventh day holy. The seventh day is Saturday. I have studied every argument imaginable for years about the Sabbath question, and the bottom line is that the Bible clearly says keep the seventh day (sabbath is a Hebrew word meaning seventh), the day we call Saturday. If you want to research this subject just ask a Seventh Day Adventist or a Catholic priest. Yes, Catholic priests are "authorities" on the subject of the Sabbath, they will tell you that Saturday is (was) the Sabbath. They say the Pope has the authority over our calendar and holy days, and the Pope, not the Bible, changed the day to Sunday.

So if you strictly follow the Bible, we should keep a seventh day Sabbath. But I found another problem. Read 1 Chron. 13:21 "...in the sabbath, in the new moons..."; 2 Chron. 2:4 "...on the sabbaths, and on the new moons..."; 2 Chron. 8:13; Neh. 10:13; Psa. 81:3: "blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day..."; Isa. 1:13; Isa. 1:14; Isa. 66:23: "And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another..."; Ezek. 45:17: "...and in the new moons, and in the sabbath..."; Ezek. 46:1; Ezek. 46:3: "Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the lord in the sabbaths and in the new moons"; Hosea 2:11; Amos 8:5; Col. 2:16; etc. These are some of the verses in which it says "sabbaths and new moons" in the same breath in the same sentence. Not even the Seventh Day Adventists keep a "new moon". Here again, a case of "pick and choose". Do you follow the Bible, or do you not? I will tell you what you do (not what you should do, but what you actually do)—you turn to someone in "authority" and follow what he tells you!

AUTHORITY IS NOT TRUTH

This is the trap! You make "authority" your truth, your source of truth! Truth is truth is truth, authority has nothing to do with it! I would hope that by now you know that authorities LIE! Authority is necessary to maintain order, but authorities and rules and the need for orders change. Truth is eternal. One of the biggest mistakes we—all of us—routinely make is to make authority our truth! We accept something because it is told to us by one with authority, one with a license or a uniform or a backwards collar or a degree. Or someone with prestige. Why is it that ball players are experts on cars, soap, deodorants, underwear, shoes and everything else?

Mostly we want someone with a "degree" (isn't that a rank in Masonry?).

Degrees are nothing but certificates of brainwashing. Oh, the more degrees you have, the more MONEY you can make, the more AUTHORITY you will have. Well-trained dogs and bears and seals and humans are rewarded by their trainers over their lesser trained, freer thinking neighbors. Once you come to realize that the Controllers control education, you should begin to see that education is brainwashing. Education is brainwashing. The more educated you are, the more brainwashed you are. YOU WILL BE ESPECIALLY BRAINWASHED IN THE AREA OF YOUR EXPERTISE!

For instance, it is very difficult to show doctors the truth about good health practices! Weather men (excuse me, weather perSONS) cannot understand "weather war" ("It's only natural," they say). Lawyers do not understand real law, real rights and wrongs. NASA scientists cannot understand why anyone would doubt the stories of the Apollo moon landings. Druggists cannot understand that drugs are poison.

When I speak of education, I am talking about society's universal, general education, the kind where you memorize whatever your controllers tell you to memorize and then repeat it back so that you can get a certificate of brainwashing and a pat on the head.

Real education comes from experiencing, teaching yourself, and coming to understanding. It is not automatic responses to programmed brainwashing. It is not merely the ability to repeat "facts" from a list, a list which keeps changing depending on whomever is the current king-of-the-hill.

I have a friend named Eddie who is a very wise man. He is in his 80s. He says that education is vomit. He says the Controllers force-feed you "facts" and then you regurgitate them on command.

He says that people are like cattle. When cattle become restless, or stampede, the Herders "turn-em" and pressure them to turn right or left so that they go around in a circle and wear themselves out and end up back where they started. He says that when the public begins to get restless, like they did after President Kennedy's assassination, the Herders come in and "turn-em" and they go around in circles until they calm down. I see this all the time, and one of the main tools used to "turn-em" most certainly IS RELIGION.

[END OF QUOTING]

Before we close this writing you might find another thing sent by Calvin to be most interesting:

"Hatun Raymi: The great feast of the ancient Peruvian Indians, celebrated especially at Cuzco at the end of August. It was a thanksgiving for the harvest. Praises were offered to the supreme deity and to the Sun, Moon, and lesser divinities. There were solemn dances and processions from the Temple of the Sun, and the feasting and rejoicing lasted many days..."

Yes, I can relate to that particular circumstance. I would note to you who search for some of "El Dorado" that you will find it in PERU. I suggest you connect your "dots" and you might find some interesting revelations.

May the force be with you. Good morning.

Beware HR-3103

"Health" Bill Alert!

Editor's note: We recently received the following at the CONTACT offices and feel compelled to share same with all you health-conscious readers.

April 13, 1996

Dear Friends,

We are in deep trouble! Our government (our paid representatives), supposedly of the people, by the people, for the people, is trying to take away our right to choose how we are medically treated and, in a capsule, if we live or die.

For the past year and a half I have been fighting cancer. I chose to go the alternative route for my healing and have had marvelous results. Nicholas J. Gonzalez, M.D. is my doctor and has treated me with an alternative and nutritional program. If Health Care Bill HR3103 goes through, his treatment will most likely be classified as "unapproved" therapy and will be labeled as fraud, punishable by imprisonment from ten years to life.

Over the past two years seven of my friends, who were diagnosed as having cancer, chose orthodox treatments of radiation and chemotherapy. All seven have died and I am the only survivor. Of course a lot of factors enter in, however, the bottom line for me is that I was the only one of us eight who chose alternative medicine and I am the only survivor.

I have been so grateful to live in a country where I could make a choice of treatment. If this choice is taken from us it will be a sure sign that we are under a dictatorship government. Are we going to sit back and let it happen? This not only affects me but every citizen of our nation. If we allow "them" to take away our right to choose alternative and nutritional medicine we will have given away our freedom in every area because "they" will not stop there, but they will proceed to take away all our choices and freedom. We will be a Socialist or Communist country by all description.

Please read the following letter I received today from my doctor in New York City and act immediately. Pass this letter on to someone else and impress upon them the urgency of the situation.

Thank you,
/s/ Harriet Ann

Latest Update From

Peter Kawaja

Dear Friends:

Funds do not afford me the luxury of calling each and every one of you personally (right now) to say hello and hear your voice. The story of my move to North Carolina is lengthy, especially if you have not kept up with my latest radio shows and documents—a few were printed in CONTACT newspaper I am told.

I will be putting out a letter to you soon—about my FORCED move APRIL 19, under threat.

For now I am safe, very exhausted from packing, loading and moving, then unpacking and still doing so—for weeks to come. Have you got this phone line—voice & fax? Hopefully, I will be able to get a separate fax line later. Please stay in TOUCH. I miss you all. Do not be put out by a general letter, as it is; I have perhaps a hundred people to notify via fax immediately, and several hundred and more to follow up by letter, so it is going to cost me more than you know for LD fax calls and postage. I am still funding International Gulf War Illness Coalition and the Gulf WAR CRIMES exposé. My phone number is (704)349-4285 V+F.

April 10, 1996

Dear Patients:

I am writing to you all about a matter of utmost urgency, that within weeks could affect the availability of your therapy. As some of you may know, last week the U.S. House of Representatives passed a Health Care Bill, HR3103. This bill is the companion to Senate Bill S1028. What most Americans do not know is that, under the guise of "consumer protection", the rabid anti-nutrition forces in Congress very quietly wrote into the bill a section that could quickly and completely outlaw alternative and nutritional medicine in the U.S. The House and Senate bills classify any "unapproved" therapy (that is, not formally approved by the FDA or equivalent agency)—including nutritional therapy—as fraud, punishable by imprisonment from ten years to life. Basically, should the Senate bill pass and be written into law by President Clinton, it will be impossible for any nutritional or alternative practitioner to stay open. This could happen very quickly unless all those concerned about their health freedoms mobilize.

You must call and fax the Washington offices of your Representatives and Senators. There isn't much time, so faxing and calling are the best ways to approach this. Speak to the office personnel, let them know what you think about these bills. The phone number for the Senate is (202) 224-3121; for the House of Representatives, (202) 225-3121. You can get the number for your specific elected officials by calling these numbers. You could also register your deep concern to the following:

Senator Robert Dole
(202) 224-6521 Fax (202) 228-1245

President Clinton/VP Gore
(202) 456-1414 Fax (202) 456-2461
Att: Agency Liaison Room 6

You must act promptly or alternative medicine may cease to exist in America. Demand your freedom of choice in the strongest language possible (be polite of course).

Sincerely,
/s/ Nicholas J. Gonzalez, M.D.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

805-822-0202

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
