Where There's Smoke, There's Fire Possible Montana Connection To International Drug Trafficking

Editor's note: As we keep an eye on the Freeman situation in Montana, one can but also wonder about its value as a distraction from some other larger-picture goes-on. Maybe we need to be diverted from noticing the impending collapse of a very unstable stock market. Maybe attention needs to be drawn away from the engineered demise of the Clintons' reign through Whitewater and other sordid escapades. Maybe. Maybe.

And then there is the following information, which has been widely circulating since at least early February of this year. This version is extracted from the Internet. The subject matter concerns, "The north-central American state, Montana, [which] has for a long time served as a principal channel for the drug traffickers passing from Canada into the United States." Hmmm.

While CONTACT cannot verify the accuracy of the following report, we share it with you readers for whatever merit it may have as a possible contribution to the bigger picture and for supplying possibly yet another "convenient" reason for a strong Federal presence in Montana at this particular time. Coincidence? Only time will tell as the truth will, eventually, come out. However, considering our government's longstanding covert involvement in the international drug business (Clinton and Mena, Arkansas; Ollie North and Iran-Contra; etc.) one can not help but entertain the thought of connecting some very interesting dots.

Possible Montana Connection To International Drug Trafficking

DRUGS ARE TRAFFICKED FROM CANADA TO THE U.S.

This article was transmitted to a major Montana newspaper who had contacted the AP to research an article published in Sofia on February 1, 1996. I can attest that most of the info in the article is absolutely true. [Attorney Arnie] Hove, Jeanne Wolfe, Richard Hobbs, editor of the Chinook Opinion can be contacted and will give you bits of info; nobody knows about the article. Please be advised that my identity cannot be disclosed at this time but I am from Montana. MAC MAN

P.S. Please try to get this out to as many people as possible.

Follows the text of the article published on the 1st February in my paper, the monthly Bulgaria Confidential. Yesterday I was approached by the local correspondents of AP. But they are very unprofessional and even do not know where Montana is. Because they have problems with the translation from Bulgarian into English they will be "checking the reliability of the newspaper". What idiots—they should check first of all the article but they do not have the slightest idea about those things. More than that, one of the local AP people is connected to the money laundering through an insurance institution. That is why if there is some interest please contact me directly. At the end there is a short CV of mine just for the record and if there are some questions. Contact me by fax/phone 011-359-2 72 80 79 or my office 011-359-2-87 21 78. Please have in mind that I have already some expenses and further information should be paid.

DRUGS ARE TRAFFICKED FROM CANADA TO THE U.S.

by Krassimir Ivandjiiski

Bulgaria Confidential disclosures, published for the first time incriminatory information about the traffic of drugs in the state of Montana /USA; local officials are involved; the scandal can shake the entire North America.

The following disclosures were made with the assistance of tens of people in the U.S., Canada and Europe, fighting against drug trafficking and international terrorism. Today some of them are not alive. Others continue the struggle, and have sought (sic) the cooperation of Bulgaria Confidential. In this way we assist the FBI, CIA, and Interpol. When we speak about the biggest enemy of the modern world—the Mafia and narcotraffic, there are no former enemies. There is a present human interaction. The following lines have been written wearily and tiresomely. But that is exactly what the fight with drug trafficking looks like.

The north-central American state, Montana, has for a long time served as a principal channel for the drug traffickers passing from Canada into the United States. The small American cities on the Montana-Canada border—Libby, Conrad, Havre, Chinook, and Sidney—have long been well known to the federal agencies as depots and destinations in the smuggling of heroin, cocaine and marijuana from the Canada-based Sicilian, Columbian, and Chinese Mafia. They execute their operations from Vancouver, in Canadian British Columbia. From there the Mafia directs its criminal activity within USA and Latin America.

The strategy of the drug traffickers is simple. The border of the state of Montana, famous for its clean environment, and untouched national parks and game reserves, stretches vastly and is almost unguarded. The traffickers also utilize the lack of border surveillance of the Canadian (sic) and Canadian border provincial governments. But more important to the Mafia is the availability of police protection from corrupt state and local government connections.

Sidney, Montana

From a closed police investigation in 1991, instituted by the police commissioner in the town of Sidney—Richard Hobbs linked the former deputy county attorney Phillip Carter and police detective David Schettine in large-scale Montana smuggling operations since the early 1980s. The drug operations in Sidney are also associated with the mysterious deaths of at least three people, who have known about the traffic and have cooperated with the FBI in its investigation: Jerry Herdt, Michael Wolfe, and Bruce Madsen. Michael Wolfe is alleged to have told acquaintances that he will be murdered by David Schettine shortly before he was found burned to death across the North Dakota border, not far from Sidney. Other numerous witnesses have been harassed and falsely arrested after it was found that they had given information to the Montana criminal investigation bureau and the FBI.

Havre-Chinook, Montana

Since the 1980s the former Chinook County Attorney Donald Ranstrom has been linked to a large scale crime operation involving tons of cocaine and marijuana. Eye witnesses from the Chinook area have reported to the FBI that they have seen attorney Ranstrom unload hundreds of large packages of cocaine from a private airplane at the Chinook airport. Confidential information obtained recently has attributed statements to two Montana state prison inmates, Mr. James Wilson and Mr. David Bone that they had been directed to execute Chinook drug dealer Richard Cowan and his wife Bernadette in 1987. The killings occurred after the couple had threatened to go to the police to expose the drug operations in Chinook. The Cowans advised their friends that if anything should happen to them, "It would be because attorney Donald Ranstrom had ordered it." The conversation was recorded and has been made available to the FBI in the United States.

Attorney Dan Ranstrom is also closely associated with a president of Chinook's Montana Bank branch. The Montana Bank has offices through the state, and has been fined for its role in bankrolling the Kurth family drug operations. Two former employees of the Chinook, Montana Bank have provided information given to the FBI regarding money laundering operations of drug profits by Mr. Bill Larson and Donald Ranstrom. To date the information has not lead to any arrests in the U.S. One theory is that attorney Ranstrom has used his influential contact with popular republican governor, Marc Racicot to obstruct any investigations.

Libby, Montana

Libby-Eureka, in northeast Montana, has for a long time served as a drug depot, sent by the Sicilian Mafia of Joseph Bonanno from Canada. After a clandestine landing strip was established in the region, for planes shipping the drugs, local Montana Highway Patrol Officer Michael Remz began to stop the Bonanno vehicles over a three-month period, until one day he was found shot dead by his patrol car. To date we have no information whether Bonanno has abandoned the drug-smuggling operations at the Libby-Eureka landing strip.

Lambert, Montana

Clinton Mullen is the owner of a successful business in Lambert, Montana. During the spring of 1994 he sought the legal advice of Sidney attorney Phillip Carter. In his office Carter approached the Mullen family to haul drugs from Los Angeles to Sidney, Montana. Mullen declined the offer. Carter warned Mullen that he would make life for him "A Living Hell". Soon after, the Mullen firm was vandalized and burglarized, and the local police would not assist the Mullens. A few weeks later the Mullens were stalked and attacked outside a nightclub. Mr. and Mrs. Mullen placed reports with the local Police that an attorney and close friend of Phillip Carter, Gary Ryder had ordered the attack while in the nightclub. More than eight witnesses gave statements under oath to the local police confirming the Mullens' story. The Montana attorney general's office was called in to investigate the reports and did not clear attorney Ryder. At the same time the Mullens made their report Mr. Gary Ryder harassed the Mullens, the ir (sic) witnesses and their attorney Mr. Arnie Hove at the local police station. Afterwards the Mullens hired a private investigator from Phoenix, Arizona to gather information. He travelled to Sidney in an unmarked car and found that he was followed by a police car, when he went to talk to witnesses. One witness, Anita Tomalino, received threats on her telephone that if she continued to talk, she would be killed. A recording of the threats made on the answering machine, was given to the FBI. By this time Clinton Mullen had retained Circle, Montana attorney Arnie Hove to sue Phillip Carter, Gary Ryder for attempted murder and robbery. During the same period Hove began to provide information to the FBI about attorney Carter and other individuals involved in drug operations in Sidney and eastern Montana. Both Hove and Mullen are now being sued in civil court by attorney Ryder. Hove has complained privately that he is now targeted in the Montana supreme court's commission on practice by Ryder, to lose his license because Ryder is on the commission on practice board.

Helena, Montana

Helena is the state capital of Montana. Here Governor Marc Racicot has a residence. Before the governor election in 1992, Racicot had been Montana Attorney General. It is from his office that the order to ignore all signals of drug trafficking in Sidney, Chinook, Lambert, Havre, and Libby was issued. Afterwards Racicot was elected state governor. Despite numerous witnesses who came forward with information Racicot advised news reporters he could find no evidence implicating those suspected of drug trafficking. During the investigation more than 20 witnesses were arrested on questionable charges. They were threatened by attorney Carter and Police Officer Schettine. Several witnesses died under mysterious circumstances. News stories by newspapers in Billings, Butte, Miles City and Chinook have implied that there may be a Helena influence protecting the drug operations. Racicot is a popular politician in Montana. Few, however know Racicot's history of substance abuse. He explains it by admitting he is a recovering alcoholic. Other information will also indicate long time involvement with attorney Donald Ranstrom and Phillip Carter. Marc Racicot has expressed privately his ambitions for the republican nomination for vice-president in 2000, despite that beneath his governor's window passes one of the biggest drug channels. If in the near future the expected arrests take place a national scandal will erupt in Montana, which will lead to the destruction of one of the big drug channels from Europe to Canada through the USA, Mexico and Columbia...

A big tragedy is hidden behind these statistical sentences. The tentacles of the "octopus" pass from Canada through the vast in territory, but inhabited by only 800,000 people, state of Montana. Because of its beauty and nature, it is desired by the American millionaires. But the octopus has already nested its lair here, and expects new victims. For the first time in the history of drug trafficking, through this publication, Bulgaria truly assists in the destruction of the global narco-web. For understandable reasons, we have not published all the information that we possess.

1996 FREE SPEECH MONTANA GOVERNOR THREATENS LIABLE ACTION

Office of the Governor
State of Montana
April 25, 1996

Free Speech Newspaper
18631 N. 19th Avenue
Suite 128-200
Phoenix, AZ 85027

I have been sent a copy of Volume 1, Number 1, of a publication entitled Free Speech. On the front page of the issue is an article by Krassimir Ivandjiiski, purporting to describe drug trafficking in Montana. I also understand that the article is accessible on the Internet. A number of libelous statements and defamatory untruths are included in the article, including statements that I have a history of drug abuse and that I am a recovering alcoholic.

By this letter I am demanding a retraction of the article's contents, an explanation for its publication, and a reason why further legal action should not be taken against you and your newspaper.

Sincerely,
MARC RACICOT
Governor

Re: "Drugs Are Trafficked from Canada to US" by Krassimir Ivandjiiski, Top Secret—Bulgaria Confidential, February 1, 1996.

Dear Governor Racicot:

I am in receipt of your letter of April 25, 1996 to Free Speech Newspaper demanding a retraction of the reprinted article we published from the February, 1996 Top Secret—Bulgaria Confidential by Krassimir Ivandjiiski. I am surprised that you have contacted Free Speech Newspaper. From what I understand the article has also been published by a wire service in England, a publication in Vancouver, B.C., in Australia, and has been extensively republished on the internet.

The thrust of the article is that there is unchecked political corruption in Montana involving drugs and law enforcement personnel. The conclusion reached by journalist Krassimir Ivandjiiski is that you have had personal knowledge and/or culpability in the covering up of investigations while you were Attorney General and during the course of your term as Governor, and that you have either ignored the reports or actively participated in the suppression of the witnesses.

Prior to publishing the article one of our staff researchers contacted sources in Montana which corroborated key premises of the Ivandjiiski article as to drug trafficking around the Havre area and the Sidney-Fairview-Lambert area. Our researcher, who has investigated extensively the Bonanno crime family operations in Arizona, also contacted investigator Michael Roe after he obtained a copy of the second report which was transferred to the FBI in Montana. Investigator Roe was adamant that his contact in the Montana Attorney General's office told him that you had given specific instructions that the files be ignored. Numerous other individuals in Montana also very freely gave Free speech Newspaper similar accounts.

It is clear to Free Speech Newspaper that you should answer some questions regarding your role in the investigations:

(1) Did you not approve of a complaint made by Sidney attorney Phillip N. Carter to the FBI, after affidavits and witness statements emerged, claiming Sidney attorney T.R. Halvorson attempted to illegally wiretap or employ electronic surveillance on the office of Phillip N. Carter, allegedly to gather information concerning Mr. Carter's supposed involvement in drug trafficking?

(2) Did you not personally prosecute Chinook Police Chief Bernie Brost, after he had begun an investigation of then Blaine County Attorney Donald Ranstrom? Did you as, required by law, disclose to the defense exculpatory information that Police Chief Brost had allegedly observed, along with several other local policemen, drug flights into the Chinook airport, which were allegedly destined for and supervised by Blaine County Attorney Ranstrom?

(3) Were you not ultimately responsible to supervise the 1991 investigation of alleged drug allegations made originally by Sidney City Councilman Richard Hobbs? Did you in fact know that investigator Dan Skultetich advised many of the witnesses he was "not interested in any incidents beyond three years old", concerning the targeted lawyers and law enforcement personnel?

(4) Did you not personally investigate allegations of criminal wrong doing against Blaine County Attorney Donald Ranstrom in Chinook, Montana and in so doing refused to question or interview many of the witnesses?

These are the most fundamental questions raised from the information which we have received and which we believe you are personally and ethically responsible for. You have apparently used your "prosecutorial discretion" for the advantage of personal friends and as a result enough bodies have accumulated to cause you problems.

The Bismarck Tribune carried a front page article April 14, 1996 about the Wolfe-Madsen murders in the Sidney area. The bodies were found in North Dakota, 1.1 miles across the state line. According to the article you are in receipt of petitions from area residents with 2,555 signatures requesting a look at the deaths. Since the publication of the article in Free Speech Newspaper we have received overwhelming responses from Eastern Montana concerning the deaths. Mr. James Horrack has made an affidavit advising that Mr. Michael Wolfe told him he was fearful attorney Phillip N. Carter and Officer David Schettine were going to kill him. Michael Wolfe wrote a similar letter to his mother, and he told at least four friends that he "would be murdered by David Schettine" only days before his death.

We have also found that James Horack was interviewed under pretext in a most unusual fashion by Deputy County Attorney Gary Ryder in February, 1995 before Mr. Ryder left the Sidney area. Newspaper accounts from the Sidney Herald indicate both the Wolfe home and their attorney's office were burglarized during the course of their inquiry into the death of Michael Wolfe.

Our newspaper, like most small newspapers, does not have enough resources to turn over every stone. But we know that voluminous documentation supports the Michael Roe Report. We also know attorney Arnie Hove of Circle, Montana has additional independent material corroborating similar drug allegations made in Sidney, Lambert, and Fairview against Phillip N. Carter and David Schettine. We are aware that libel actions have been filed against at least ten witnesses who have had the courage to come forward. Most of the actions have not been prosecuted which means they were likely filed to shut up the witnesses and warn the press not to get involved. We are aware that many of the Sidney witnesses who gave statements to the Montana Criminal Investigation Bureau were then prosecuted by Mr. Carter and Mr. Ryder assisted by Officer Schettine.

We are aware that Lambert trucker Clinton Mullen and his wife Rena testified under oath that they were approached by Phillip N. Carter to haul drugs for them. They respectfully declined. They were subsequently beaten outside a Sidney nightspot and numerous witnesses claim that Mr. Carter's close friend Gary Ryder instigated the beating. Shortly afterward while the investigation into the beating had not been resolved, County Attorney Ryder prosecuted Clinton Mullen on a ludicrous felony theft charge, and then after the charge was thrown out in District Court, Mr. Ryder appealed the decision to the Montana Supreme Court where it was also disregarded. Mr. Ryder is now suing Clinton Mullen and his former attorney Arnie Hove for allegedly ruining his "reputation".

We are aware that two Montana prison inmates have implicated individuals around Havre including Donald Ranstrom, in the murders of Richard Cowan and his common law wife Bernadette Doiron. We are aware that reports of drug flights to Lambert, Montana were ignored in the investigation made by your office when you were Attorney General. We are aware that your investigator Dan Skultetich told Sidney City Councilmen Richard Hobbs that an eye witness admitted to using illegal drugs with attorney Carter while he was prosecutor. We are aware that the resultant report stated effectively that "no evidence of criminal involvement was found". We believe this statement is false and calculated to protect a drug ring and a series of killings linked to several attorneys and police officers in Montana.

The pattern of lawsuits and harassment of witnesses by the suspects will not be tolerated by the world press. Free Speech Newspaper will not be bullied Governor Racicot. We stand by Krassimir Ivandjiiski and believe his article to be a well researched, well written product of good journalism. We take your threat seriously and we intend to make sure no person in Montana is allowed to suppress the news of the drug trafficking and killings. Free Speech Newspaper will publish continued articles concerning clear official duplicity in the "Hi-Line Murders". We offer you an opportunity to publish your response to the above inquiries and the Ivandjiiski article. In the event you do not respond within ten days of the date of this letter we assume that you do not further dispute the assertions in the Ivandjiiski article and this letter. We will print your reply uncensored.

Very truly yours,
Ron Paulson

ROE REPORT

THIS IS THE FIRST OF 45 AFFIDAVITS AND REPORTS CIRCULATING AROUND MONTANA CONCERNING THE MONTANA DRUG SCANDAL. THE KEY DATES ARE THAT THE ROE INVESTIGATION BEGAN IN SUMMER OF 1992. THE INVESTIGATOR WAS MET WITH UNUSUALLY ACTIVE SURVEILLANCE...THE WOLFE-MADSEN MURDERS OCCURRED MID-DECEMBER 1993 PRIOR TO THE SECOND REPORT'S SUBMISSION.

NOTE: The following document has been scanned from the original. Certain names have been omitted. Some scanning errors may remain.

ROE INVESTIGATIONS

To: Mr. James Wilson, Federal Bureau of Investigation, P.O. box 2647, Great Falls, Montana 59403

February 2, 1994

Re: Alleged Criminal wrongdoings in the State of Montana.

Dear Sir: This is the second report that I have put together regarding the above entitled matter. Our first report, according to Mr. Alexander, did not reach you.

This investigator first became involved with the following investigation in the summer of 1992 when I was hired by a Mr. Russell Haugen to investigate civil complaint that he had against a banker in Chinook, Montana by the name of Bill Larson. Mr. Larson is the President of the Chinook Branch of the Bank of Montana.

In the course of the investigation, a number of people that I interviewed indicated to me that they did not want to get involved by testifying against Mr. Larson as they were afraid of the subject as he was "protected" and Mr. Larson was alleged to be involved in any number of things including: (1) The laundering of drug money through his bank. (2) Personal drug usage. (3) Conspiracy in the murder of two people in Chinook—a man by the name of Richard Cowan and his girlfriend Bernadette Doiron who were killed on or around January 21, 1987. Two people were convicted in the killings, Lloyd James Wilson and Robert Henry Bone. (4) The subject was alleged to be involved in the transportation of narcotics. In the course of my investigation this investigator found two people who will be invaluable in helping in any investigation you may decide to conduct. Both of these people know the potential witnesses and can help get these witnesses to talk to you. They also know where these witness may be contacted. These two people are:

(1) Mike Perry: Mr. Perry is the editor of the Chinook Opinion newspaper. Mr. Perry can be contacted at 406-357-2680. Mr. Perry can be of immense help in substantiating the material relative to this in the Chinook/Havre area of Montana.

(2) (Name Withheld): Mr. (Name Withheld) is an attorney in (Location Withheld) Montana and can help with the witnesses in this area. (Name Withheld) can be contacted at 406XXXX

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

In the course of this investigation the general allegations were that Mr. Larson is and has been involved with a man by the name of Don Ranstrom who is the Blaine County Attorney, in the importation, use and sale of narcotics, in the murder previously mentioned, and in laundering funds for Ranstrom & the other people involved in the narcotics operation. Much of the information we report here is very dated and the statute has run. However if you interview these people, most will tell you that the people involved are still involved and these witnesses may be able to lead you to current involvement.

I will not go through a step-by-step, day-by-day record of my investigation but will list the people you may wish to be interviewed and a brief overview as to what they can testify to. In the interest of brevity we will not include anything as to the civil case we first started with unless it has something to do with the alleged criminal activity.

POTENTIAL WITNESSES

Mr. Mark Harshman: Chinook, Montana, (406) 357-311. Mr. Harshman is the attorney for Lloyd James Wilson, one of the men who pled guilty to the murder of Richard Cowan. From other witnesses this investigator was led to believe that the killing of Mr. Cowan was on the orders of Mr. Ranstrom, the Blaine County Attorney. In conversations that I have had with Mr. Harshman he states that Mr. Wilson will testify that he and Mr. Bone killed Richard Cowan on the orders of two local drug dealers, brothers by the names of Pete and Fred Dion. These two people are alleged to be the people who run the narcotics for, and under the protection of, Mr. Ranstrom. Mr. Wilson now states that everyone knew that Ranstrom was running the narcotics but he has no personal knowledge.

Mr. Lloyd James Wilson: Can be contacted through his attorney Mr. Harshman. Currently serving his sentence at the Montana State Prison at Deer Lodge, Montana. See section above under the heading of Mark Harshman. He is alleged to have killed Mr. Cowan to keep Mr. Cowan quiet. Mr. Cowan had a court hearing and had bragged to friends that he was not going to go to jail and that he had threatened Ranstrom with exposure if Ranstrom didn't help him.

Mr. Robert Henry Bone: Mr. Bone has kept quiet about his involvement until just recently. Mr. Bone is now, I understand, willing to talk about the killing of Mr. Cowan and Miss Doiron. Mr. Bone is also willing to state that he ran packages of either dope or money from Mr. Dion to Mr. Ranstrom's house prior to the killing of Mr. Cowan. Mr. Bone states that he realized who the man was that he delivered the package to (Mr. Ranstrom), after he and Mr. Wilson had been arrested and taken into custody and they were [taken to Mr. Ranstrom's home after his arrest. It is this investigator's understanding that he is willing to testify to this and more concerning the drug dealing in the area of Havre and Chinook and can indeed provide more information on the activities of the Dion brothers and others, possibly including Mr. Ranstrom. I would suggest that the first contacts involving Mr. Bone might also be made through Mr. Mark Harshman.

Mr. Jamie Sharples: Mr. Sharples is a Jeweler in the town of Chinook and was, and may still be a major drug dealer in Chinook. Mr. Sharples recently informed Mr. Mike Perry, editor of the Chinook Opinion, that he (Mr. Sharples) would be willing to go undercover for the "feds" to nail the Dions, Ranstrom, another drug dealer by the name of Gail (Pegleg) Schulte, and others involved in the drug trade in Havre and Chinook. Mr. Sharples may be having current problems with law enforcement and may be looking for a way out. I would suggest that you contact Mr. Sharples through (name omitted).

Mr. Bernie Goldman: Mr. Goldman is a former attorney in Missoula who was caught and convicted of possession for resale and who became a government witness against several of his former associates in the drug business. According to statements of several witnesses, Mr. Goldman dealt with and has evidence that would incriminate both Mr. Ranstrom and another attorney by the name of Phillip Carter who lives in Sidney, Montana. Mr. Carter is the former County Attorney in Sidney and is the owner of a bowling alley in Havre, Montana which, according to witnesses, has been used as a meeting place to set up drug deals. There are allegations that Mr. Carter and Mr. Ranstrom are tied together in the drug business. It is my understanding that Mr. Goldman is now in the Witness Protection Program.

(Name Withheld): (Name Withheld) XXXXXXXXXXXX lives with her husband, XXXXX on a XXXXXXX of Chinook Montana and she works as the XXXXXXX in Chinook and is one of the assistants to Bill Larson, President. In my interview with XXXXXXX she was very guarded in her answers as to any improprieties on the part of Mr. Larson. XXXXXXX is very loyal to the bank, but detests Mr. Larson. After interviewing her for some time she stated that she knows for fact that Mr. Larson has been involved in any number of illegal or improper activities involving the bank, and states that she has these improprieties documented, but refused to allow this investigator to see these documents and stated that she was saving them and, as soon as she retired from the bank, was going to use them to "get" Mr. Larson. At the time of my interview with XXXXXXX she stated that the Bank Auditors were auditing the bank and that Mr. Larson was "scared to death" about something. She also states that several years ago another banker in Montana was arrested for laundering money and that this banker died shortly after his arrest when he fell down a mountain and that Mr. Larson became very paranoid after this incident and began to worry so much that he actually lost his hair. If the information I have received is true and there is a weak link in this operation it would be Mr. Larson. It is this investigator's opinion, based upon what have been told that a thorough criminal audit of this bank branch might well uncover any of the alleged wrong doings by Mr. Larson. I also believe that direct contact by yourself with XXXXXXXXXXXX would force her to bring forth any documentation she has.

XXXXXXXXXX: (Name Omitted) worked for the Bank of Montana at Chinook and now resides in the Salt Lake City, Utah area. She stated to Mike Perry that the Chinook Bank, run by Mr. Larson was "the dirtiest bank she had ever seen." She initially quit the bank because of the improprieties she noted because she didn't want to be involved.

Mr. Bernie Brost: Mr. Brost is still living in Montana and can be contacted at 406-765-151g (sic). I would contact Mr. Brost either through Mr. (Omitted) or through (Omitted). In my interview with Mr. Brost he came across as very honest but very paranoid. Mr. Brost stated that he was the former Chief of Police in Chinook, Montana and that as such he attempted to do his job in a professional and honest manner. He stated that he had started an investigation into the possibility of illegal activities, possibly involving drugs, on the parts of various people in Chinook, including Mr. Larson, Mr. Ranstrom, Chinook Police Officer, Alan Delk and others when he was called into the office of the mayor and fired for no reason. Mr. Brost stated that he knows of two other police officers who have been fired, forced off of the Chinook department because of their investigation into the activities of some of these people. He stated that an Officer Jim Wagoner and Officer John McCracken as well as the former Chief of Police Jerry Liese were fired for attempting to investigate Ranstrom and Larson and another man by the name of Kurt Hebbelman, whose father John Hebbelman Jr., owns a flying service in Chinook. According to Mr. Brost these officers observed a man whom they believed to be Mr. Larson pick up a briefcase from a person identified as Mr. Hebbelman, at the Chinook Airport, and delivered this briefcase to the residence of Mr. Ranstrom. The transfer of the briefcase took place in the early morning hours and the airplane landed in the dark, with no landing lights on. They felt this was very suspicious and instituted the investigation that eventually got them fired. Brost then informed this investigator about the conversation he had with Kelly Sawyer (See enclosed addendum "A", the data given this investigator by Mike Perry). This subject states that he has documentation to prove much of what he has said, but also indicated that he is very worried about possible retaliation against himself by Mr. Ranstrom.

NOTE: PLEASE STUDY THE ENCLOSED ADDENDUM "A" REFERRED TO ABOVE, GIVEN THIS INVESTIGATOR BY XXXXXXXXXXXX FOR ADDITIONAL PERTINENT INFORMATION.

Darrel And Ramona Doney: They can be contacted thru Mr. Mike Perry in Chinook, Montana. They have personal knowledge of the people involved in the drug trafficking and the murders in and around Chinook.

Mike Perry: Mike Perry can be reached at the Chinook Opinion in Chinook, Montana at 406-357-2680. Mr. Perry's address is P.O. 80 9 (sic), Chinook, Montana 59523. Mr. Perry has been investigating the various allegations of improprieties in the area of Chinook for the past 11 years. Mr. Perry has many people, in addition to those above, who are willing to talk and testify. For example, Mr. Perry has information on a man by the name of Harshaw who allegedly killed his girlfriend and then killed himself. Mr. Perry has one or more people who maintain that Harshaw was killed on the orders of (Name Omitted).

There is also a man by the name of Rocky Kallousa who committed suicide in the Havre City Jail, who, according to some of Mr. Perry's sources, was killed to keep him quiet. Although Mike Perry is a newspaper man he can be counted on to help and at the same time maintain his silence about any investigation. He can be totally trusted. In the course of my investigation, there were allegations that several other County Attorneys in Montana were involved with Mr. Ranstrom in the narcotics business.

Based upon information received we also conducted an investigation in the Sidney, Montana area and interviewed several people who state as follows:

(Name Omitted) is an attorney in (Omitted). And can be contacted at (Omitted). His address is (Omitted). Much of the following information in this report, comes from, or as a result of (Omitted).

BACKGROUND, INFORMATION, & ALLEGATIONS IN SIDNEY, MONTANA

This investigator was sent to Sidney, Montana in an attempt to substantiate charges that a former County Attorney (and now City Attorney) by the name of Phillip Carter was involved in the illegal harassment of a man by the name of Clint Mullen Jr. and was as well as being heavily involved in illegal drug trafficking in the Sidney, Montana area. This investigator was hired by Clint Mullen Jr., through his attorney, Mr. Arnie Hove who is the County Attorney in Circle, Montana.

Mr. Clint Mullen Jr.: Clint lives in Sidney, Montana with his wife and son and can be contacted at 408-708-3327, and 406-798-3680 (h). Mr. Mullen owns a trucking company by the name of Mullen Trucking. Mr. Mullen is a hard working individual who, except for a few minor brushes with the law enforcement as a teenager, has led a rather normal life.

Mr. Mullen informed this investigator that he had no problem with the law until after he was approached by Philip Carter, then County Attorney in Sidney at which time Mr. Carter suggested that Clint haul drugs for him around the country. Clint refused and Carter informed him that he (Carter) could make Clint's life a living hell, at which time Clint told Carter to "go to hell".

Since that time Mr. Carter has interfered with Mr. Mullens' business, filed law suits against him, and according to Mr. Mullen may be the person behind the physical assault against Mr. Mullen that happened at a Sidney bar by the name of The Triangle Club. Owned by (Name Omitted). This assault may be important to you because if indeed it was instigated by members of the County Attorney's office, it would be a major violation of Mr. Mullen's Civil Rights, and abuse of power, by those involved.

The assault took place in the morning hours of September 12, 1993 when another member of the County Attorney's office in Sidney, a man by the name of Gary Ryder was in the Bar when Mr. Mullen, his wife Rena, her mother Cathy Berglund, Cathy's half-brother Darryl Berglund and Clint's brother Clay walked into the bar. After Mr. Mullen and his friends sat down in the bar they noticed Mr. Ryder going from table to table and pointing to and gesturing at the Mullens party and laughing. He was approached by Philip Carter, then County Attorney in Sidney, at which time Mr. Carter suggested that Clint haul drugs for him around the country. Clint refused and Carter informed him that he (Carter) could make Clint's life a living hell, at which time Clint told Carter to "go to hell".

When the bar closed, a group of people who Mr. Ryder had been talking to and to whom he had pointed out Mr. Mullen to, jumped Mr. Mullen and his brother and attempted to beat them severely. This group of people were Sidney area residents and include the following:

(1) Monte Schade who lives in Sidney and is a former football player for Montana State University and the Canadian Football League. Mr. Schade is alleged to be very close to Mr. Ryder and to Phillip Carter as he is currently attempting to become a Probation Officer in Sidney, Montana.

(2) Marty Schade (Monte's brother) is a college student and works at the Yellowstone Mercantile in Sidney and lives at 302 Pleasant Avenue, Fairview, Montana.

(3) Guy Meldy who lives in Sidney at 815 4th S.W. and is the athletic coach at the Sidney High School.

The assault was witnessed by the following people:

(1) Cathy Berglund, Rena Mullens' mother. She resides at 621 4th Street, Sidney, Montana. She states that the Schade brothers started the fight without warning by just walking up to Clint Mullen Jr. and hitting him without saying anything.

(2) Darryl Berglund, Rena Mullens' half brother, states he did not see what started the fight but looked over and saw three men, the two Schade brothers and Guy Meldy on top of Clint Mullen Jr.

(3) Dan Miller, who lives with Darryl Berglund in Sidney, states that he did not see who threw the first punch, but saw the fight and saw three men on top of Clint Mullen Jr.

(4) Anita Tomalina can be contacted at 406-482-5142. She works at the Auto Parts Store in Sidney and lives behind the Sidney Pocket. She states that she saw the three men jump on top of Clint Mullen, in the parking lot of the Triangle Club and start to hit him. She stated that she did not see Clint do anything to start the fight and in fact she saw Clint backing up and telling the three men he did not want to fight. Please note that after talking to me Ms. Tomalina went home for lunch and found a message on her answering machine from an unknown male telling her that she had better keep her mouth shut about the assault on Mullen or she would be next. The only people who could have known that I was talking to Ms. Tomalina were the Sidney Police Department who had me under surveillance.

Please note that on the last day of my investigation in Sidney, Montana, this investigator approached the sheriff of the county who was very angry and upset that I attempted to interview one of his deputies without his (the sheriff's) permission. After discussing the situation with the sheriff, the sheriff cooled down and explained that he had nothing against me, but had no use for the Mullens' attorney, Arnie Hove and was very bitter about being named as a defendant by Mr. Hove in a lawsuit against the county. Eventually, the sheriff adopted the attitude that he would cooperate any way he could but, as the County was a Defendant in the lawsuit, he felt that the County Attorney should be present at any interview with he or his deputy, Mr. Rankin. It was at this point that I first found out that a lawsuit had been filed by Mr. Hove on the part of the Mullens against the County, on alleged prior bad acts, prior to the assault.

Mr. Jack Lorenz: This investigator met with Mr. Jack Lorenz in Sidney, Montana. Mr. Lorenz can be contacted at 406-747-5600 in Fairview, Montana. Mr. Lorenz stated that he has evidence of drug involvement on the part of Mr. Carter and a Sidney detective by the name of David Schettine. He stated that would only give this information to a Federal Agency, as he knew better than to trust local, county or state agencies. He stated that he had firm evidence of wrong doing.

Mr. Andy Hollom: Mr. Hollom was, many years ago, a very close friend of Clint Mullen Jr's brother Clay Mullen. Clay and I attempted to locate Mr. Hollom at his family farm outside of Sidney but could not locate him. It appeared that there was no electricity at the farm, but there was ample evidence that someone was living there. We spent a great deal of time looking for Mr. Hollom as it was generally acknowledged that he has worked for Mr. Carter selling drugs. The people we spoke to who knew Mr. Hollom stated that he had stated this on more than one occasion but stated that Andy was in hiding because he was afraid of Mr. Carter.

We spoke to Andy's brother-in-law, Randy Schleve in Williston who stated that he grew up with Mr. Hollom and that he has been involved in drug dealing all of his life. According to Randy, Andy was present at a raid at his (Andy's) uncle's house when the "Narcs" broke through the door and arrested Andy's uncle and would have arrested Andy also except Andy ran through the back of the house and disappeared into the night. Randy states that Andy is OK, but is really spooked at this point and stated that he may be up on the Indian reservation letting things "cool off".

We also spoke with Andy's sister-in-law Gaylee Hollom who is married to Andy's brother Bill. She stated that she would try to get a message through to Andy to call this investigator. However, we never did receive a call from Andy.

(Name Omitted): Mr. XXXXXX is a photo journalist and lives in Sidney. He can be contacted at 406-

XXX-XXXX. This investigator had a detailed conversation with this individual and he stated that he is a former drug user and pusher. He states that he is very close to the drug community and would be willing to go undercover for a federal agency to purchase drugs from Carter and other "dirty" police officers in Sidney. He stated he would only work with a federal agency as he did not trust any of the local or state officers. He stated that his reason is that he now knows how stupid that drugs are and he is seeing younger and younger kids starting to use dope and it has to stop.

Billy Joe Mullen: She lives at MCR 84, Box 3, Lambert, Montana and is the sister of Clint Mullen Jr. She states that when Mr. Carter was the County Attorney he was buying her drinks in a local bar when he knew that she was only 16 years old.

ADDITIONAL GENERAL INFORMATION

In the course of this investigation we talked to and interviewed many other people, who either refuse to give any information or who talked to us with the understanding that they would not be called on to testify and stated that they would deny even talking to this investigator if approached by an attorney or a law enforcement agent, regardless of the circumstances. Be advised as follows.

Mr. Arnie Hove has a secretary who we met with in the presence of Mr. Hove. The secretary did not give this investigator her name but stated that she, her husband and children live across the street from a man by the name of Kenny Phillips. Mr. Phillips lives at HCR 57, Box 4018. She states that Mr. Phillips has a weed control business with a Sidney Police Officer by the name of Smitty and that one week a month Mr. Phillips drives to Louisiana and returns and that, after returning, 20 to 40 people drive into Mr. Phillips' driveway, every day for "days on end", walk up to the door, stay 2-3 minutes and come out with a brown bag. She further states that several days after his return she has seen this police officer by the name of Smitty drive into Mr. Phillips' driveway go up to the door, talk to Mr. Phillips and then, leave with a larger brown bag. She states that "everyone knows that Smitty and Mr. Phillips are in the drug business together". She states also that her children play with the Phillips children and that her children have told her that the Phillips talk about drugs all the time. This potential witness states that she is very scared and does not want to do anything that will get Smitty or Carter after her or her family.

There are a number of people in the Sidney, Montana area who are alleged to be drug dealers working for Mr. Carter, including the following:

1. Darby Dahl, Stockman Bar, Sidney, Montana.
2. Keith Stouts who recently moved to Klackamas, Oregon.
3. Terry Brownell Lives in Sidney at Lincoln & 5th S.W.
4. Sam Simard, lives south of Sidney.

Enclosed herein is a report this investigator received from Mr. (Name Omitted). This report was completed by Darrel Chenoweth and details information on drug activity in the area of Sidney, Montana. We will not detail this information as we are attempting to reduce duplicate information that you have been, or should have been, given by (Name Omitted) or others.

The following is a list of names of people who came up in our investigation and their alleged knowledge or involvement with Philip Carter in the drug scene in the Sidney area.

Ron Welnel, Montana State Prison, Deer Lodge, alleged to have been a dealer for Phillip Carter.

Ron Transrud lives in Grassy Butte, North Dakota, parents live in Soby, Montana, has information that will tie Phillip Carter to drug activity in the Sidney area.

Lonnie Boschee, works for Holly Sugar in Sidney. Alleged to have drug information ties to Carter.

(Name Omitted), lives south of Sidney, 406-482-

8605, allegedly involved in drugs with Carter.

Ms. Terry Lee (maiden name Alanouette), lives in Denver, Colorado, has ties to Carter.

Allen Burke, lives 204 11th Ave. S.W., Sidney, has alleged ties to Carter and drugs.

Wendy Valle, a card dealer from Canada, lives in Miles City, Montana, has information on Carter and is willing to go undercover to nail Carter.

Becky Tyler, her husband works for the County Dump and she is a (omitted) in Great Falls, Montana. Has information on Carter.

David Linde, Sidney, Montana, 747-5039. Info on the drug scene in Sidney.

John Welnel, owns Triangle bar, his brother Ron Welnel is a prisoner at Deer Lodge.

"Taco" Oliveras, at Deer Lodge, has direct tie to Carter and drugs. In conclusion, regarding the possible violation of Civil Rights on the part of Mr. Carter against Clint Mullen Jr: I ran a check on the civil suits filed against Mr. Mullen, many of them involving Mr. Carter and we find that in the 16 civil suits we uncovered, there is no affidavit of service on file showing that Mr. Mullen had knowledge of the suits in 8 of these suits and the files in two more show service by regular mail. Mr. Mullen claims that he was never notified of these lawsuits, until after judgement had been entered against him. The suits with no affidavits of service are as follows: DV93-00S, D03-042, DVG-121 Dval-aDo DY92-02tt, DV92-063 DVS2-075 and D'193-019. The two suits where service was shown by mail are 1)V93-034 and DVg1-124. If indeed there is a pattern of harassment and denial of due process this could be part of that pattern.

There were many other people, as we mentioned before, who were interviewed but refused to talk to us, or denied knowledge of any wrongdoing. We have not detailed the conversations with these people.

We will discontinue this report at this point. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Michael W. Roe, Phoenix, AZ

The No-Sale Ekker Home Lawsuit

Editor's note: Article I of this series appeared in the 6/4/96 issue of CONTACT on pg. 7. We continue here with Article II.

Article II

"Do You Know What A Cult Is, Mr. Ekker?"

The above question was posed to Mr. Eddyjo Ekker by attorney for the defense, Steven Horn, and is recorded on line 8 of page 297 of Mr. Ekker's deposition, Volume II, in the lawsuit brought by the Ekkers against Santa Barbara Savings and Loan, Santa Barbara Financial Corporation, the RTC, Mr. Mitchell (the auctioneer), as well as some others. Ekkers are charging this group with fraud for declaring that an auctioneer's sale was held on their home, when it was not held. This non-sale was to have occurred on 5/24/88, prior to any involvement of the Ekkers with the Phoenix Journals, the Phoenix Institute or George Green. The Ekkers did not know George Green at that time. It has now been eight years since the "no-sale", and the Ekkers have yet to have their day in court. They have not even been recognized in court, much less had an opportunity to present their case. At this point, May of 1996, Doris Ekker has scribed over 168 Journals. Mr. Horn, for example, demanded in her deposition that she tell him the subject matter of all those journals. I believe this gives you an idea of how far afield Mr. Horn strays from subjects and issues relevant to the no-sale house case. The subject of the meaning of the word "cult", as well as "apocalypse" and "religion" in this example alone covered well over 18 typed pages of Mr. Ekker's deposition, Volume II. There were a total of three volumes for both Mr. and Mrs. Ekker, all costing $700 an hour to conduct, over a period of several days.

I will present to you the definition of "cult" from several dictionaries; not all agree in total, and several are not detailed in explanation. Mr. Horn used Webster's Dictionary which was on a lap computer available during the deposition. He attempted to have it provide the accepted foundation for the meaning of "cult". However, as most students are aware, the information can be very condensed and limited on lap computers. Therefore, to arrive at a better understanding, if possible, I believe that several dictionaries are called for.

The number one, or primary meaning of the word, "cult", in each dictionary I used, is as follows:

I. Webster's New World Dictionary of the American Language, Pocket-size (1959): "n. 1. a system of religious worship".

II. American College Dictionary (1962): "n. 1. a particular system of religious worship, esp. with reference to its rites and ceremonies".

III. Webster's Third New International Dictionary (1971): "1. religious practice: worship."

IV. The Oxford English Dictionary, Second Edition (1989): "1. worship; reverential homage rendered to a divine being or beings. Obs. (exc. as in sense 2)."

V. Random House Webster's College Dictionary (1995): "n. 1. a particular system of religious worship, esp. with reference to its rites and ceremonies."

The number two definition given in these dictionaries, as numbered above, are quoted below:

I. "2. devoted attachment to a person, principle, etc."

II. "2. an instance of an almost religious veneration for a person or thing, esp. as manifested by a body of admirers."

III. "2. a system of beliefs and rituals connected with the worship of a deity, a spirit, or a group of deities or spirits <the cult of Apollo> <the earth cult>."

IV. "2. a. A particular form or system of religious worship; esp. in reference to its external rites and ceremonies". (This dictionary provided examples of the literary use of the word.)

"2. b. Now freq. used attrib. by writers on cultic ritual and the archaeology of primitive cults." (see number one definition above from this dictionary.)

V. "2. a group that devotes itself to or venerates a person, ideal, fad, etc."

The number three definition taken from each of these dictionaries follows:

I. "3. a sect." (this ends the definitions in this dictionary)

II. "3. the object of such devotion."

III. "3. a. the rites, ceremonies and practices of a religion; the formal aspect of religious experience...

3. b. Roman Catholicism: reverence and ceremonial veneration paid to God or to the Virgin Mary or the saints or to objects that otherwise symbolize or represent them (as the crucifix or statue)—called also cultus."

IV. "3. transf. Devotion or homage paid to a particular person or thing, now esp. as paid by a body or professed adherents or admirers." (This ends the definitions provided in this dictionary.)

V. "3. a. a religion or sect considered to be false, unorthodox, or extremist. b. the members of such a religion or sect." (This ends the definitions for the noun in this dictionary.)

The following dictionaries carry additional definitions as quoted:

II. "4. Social. a group having an exclusive sacred ideology and a series of rites centering around their sacred symbols [t. L: s. cultus care, worship]."

III. "4: a religion regarded as unorthodox or spurious; also: a minority religious group holding beliefs regarded as unorthodox or spurious: sect. 5: a system for the cure of disease based on the dogma, tenets or principles set forth by its promulgator to the exclusion of scientific experience or demonstration 6: a: great or excessive devotion or dedication to some person, idea, or thing <the cult of success>: esp. such devotion regarded as a literary or intellectual fad or fetish <the cult of art for art's sake> b: the object of such devotion <square dancing has developed into something of a cult—R.L. Taylor>. c (1): a body of persons characterized by such devotion <America's growing cult of home fixer uppers—Wall Street Journal> (2): a usually small or narrow circle or persons united by devotion or allegiance to some artistic or intellectual program, tendency, or figure <as one of limited popular appeal> <the exclusive cult of those who profess to admire his esoteric verse> syn see religion."

The word "cult" is derived from Latin "cultus", meaning care, cultivation, culture, adoration. The French cultus, which is a past participle of colere means to till, cultivate, dwell, inhabit, worship", according to information in the larger dictionaries. Cult is actually a synonym for religion, and was used that way as late as 1925 according to an example of the Levitical (Jewish) Services under the word "cultic" in the Oxford Dictionary. You will note in the number one definition for "cult" in the Oxford Dictionary that the use of the word to mean "worship: reverential homage rendered to a divine being or beings" was said by them to be obsolete at the time this edition of their dictionary was published in 1989, contrary to the other dictionaries. This dictionary is published internationally and is one of the most detailed available. However, you see here the changes occurring in this dictionary's use of words and their meanings. It will be very interesting to see what Webster does with the word "cult" in any new edition of their dictionary. Will they also obsolete the use of the meaning of religious worship for the word "cult" and/or will it soon apply only to Roman Catholic services (the only "orthodox" religion mentioned by Websters)? In reading all of the "literary" examples shown which used the word, and which the dictionary editors used in turn to arrive at their interpretations of the meaning of the word, it becomes very easy to see how control of the media can bring about vast changes in culture, education and understanding over a period of a few decades. Meanings no longer derive from a root word, but from any usage of the word whatsoever. The word "cult", or its derivatives, has been used to describe the Levitical services of the Jews, also the worship of the Catholics as well as other groups not now considered "orthodox". This means that most of the religions with any history at all will have been called a "cult" at one time because the word is used as a synonym for the word "religion". It appears that usage is now undergoing purposeful changes.

Given all of the other meanings that have now been added to it, especially by Websters, one can sense that the word "cult" is presently being applied by them to those involved in external rites and ceremonies rendered to a divine being as well as "rites and ceremonies" of very different sorts (i.e., dancing, etc.). These definitions do not necessarily imply the meaning of the original Latin word, cultus. If one is to accept these definitions, one must conclude that all religions and any other groups or non-groups of persons having a shared interest or activity of whatever sort will sooner or later be categorized as an example of that particular "literary" usage. How can this happen? The editors of dictionaries are not constrained by any public, authoritative overseer. Their only constraints appear to be the acceptance of their book by the paying public, and/or the people who pay their salaries. One wonders, in regard to all of this, if the world is gradually being set up by these "international" entities to eventually view the one world religion as the only "orthodox" and accepted form, with all other groups or non-groups becoming classed as "cults", now having become either a derogatory or meaningless word. Take time to read more closely those international dictionaries of Webster and Oxford. As Hatonn has stated many times, the "Elite" do tell us what they are about, we have just been too trusting and too sleepy to really understand. Our culture (i.e., cultus) is fast being eroded before our eyes.

Now that you know the definitions of the word "cult", you will appreciate Mr. Ekker's response to Mr. Horn: "There are many definitions of a cult so—". At this point Ekker's attorney, Mr. Elley, voices his objection to Horn's line of questioning.

A long argument follows between the attorneys over the admissibility of Horn's questioning, which Elley believes is of a religious nature and thus not appropriate. I take up again at line 11, page 301, Volume II of Mr. Ekker's deposition. (Quote):

MR. ELLEY: Your Honor, I think we're going too far afield. If Mr. Ekker is a Christian and he believes that Christ was crucified and died on Good Friday is he going to attack Mr. Ekker for this religious belief? Is he going to say it's a fraud by disseminating such belief to others?

MR. HORN: It's not a fraud. That's subject to belief. But there is purported statements made both in publications and under oath that there is this ability to communicate with extraterrestrials and communicate in the name of Jesus Christ. Certainly that opens the door. And Mrs. Ekker has testified ad nauseam about her ability to do that.

MR. ELLEY: I believe it does not open the door, Your Honor. I think that is exactly why we cannot continue to probe with this area. It has nothing to do with whether or not that sale occurred on that date in May years ago.

MR. HORN: It sure does. If he has no credibility and the jury doesn't believe Mr. Ekker then his lawsuit doesn't succeed.

MR. ELLEY: But, Mr. Horn, this country is founded on regarding religious matters and you cannot examine someone on religious matters at trial and—

MR. HORN: You seem to be focusing on the matter of religion. Cults can be financial as well.

MR. ELLEY: I'm not aware of that. Is that in Ms. Webster's dictionary?

MR. HORN: It sure is.

MR. ELLEY: Are we talking about an investment club?

DISCOVERY REFEREE: Why don't we explore the definition of the word "cult", okay.

Q. BY MR. HORN: I'm going to show you a document, Mr. Ekker, that we marked as Defendants' DD and the word "cult" there is defined. Please read it. (Defendants' Exhibit DD was marked for identification.)

MR. ELLEY: I presume you're referring, then, to possibly definitions 4 and 5 rather than definitions 1, 2 and 3.

THE WITNESS: I don't see any financial relationship there.

MR. ELLEY: I don't see anything that indicates there is such a thing as financial cult as you indicated.

MR. HORN: "A great devotion to a person, idea or thing, especially such devotion regarded as a literary or intellectual fad. b: A usually small circle or persons united by devotion or allegiance to an artistic or intellectual movement or figure." "Person, idea or thing."

MR. ELLEY: I don't see any reference to a financial cult. I see reference to intellectual or artistic matters or literary.

MR. HORN: It's a small group of people who band together with certain ideologies or beliefs. I don't want to paraphrase what the definition is, but—

MR. ELLEY: That's my point. You just did. You're not interested in the primary definition regarding religion. You're interested in a non-religious cult definition which would be 4 or 5.

MR. HORN: I'm not sure I understand what you just said, but I've given this definition so that there's a common ground for examination.

DISCOVERY REFEREE: Why don't we see what questions he would ask in this area and then I can rule on each individual question. (Discussion held off the record between the deponent and his counsel.) (End quoting.)

"Cults can be financial"—so says Mr. Steven Horn, Attorney representing the Santa Barbara Savings and Loan, Santa Barbara Financial Corporation, the RTC, etc.(!) I wonder if Mr. Horn's clients know they can become known (for example) as the "financial cult" of Santa Barbara Savings and Loan, thanks to Mr. Horn's "literary" talents? In a way, I believe Mr. Horn has a point, according to some of today's usage, in stating that "cults can be financial". Money has certainly been the object of worship for a great many people. How about King Midas in his counting house? Or King Solomon and his gold mines? Or the "cult" of the international bankers? Watch for the next edition of Webster's dictionary!

Also watch to see how this case unfolds. Will the American people lose their constitutional rights to freedom of religion and freedom of speech? This is a critical question for every citizen today. I believe Mr. Ekker gave a fine, reasoned response to Mr. Horn's further ("irrelevant") questions on the "apocalypse", being "saved", etc., starting on page 313, line 10 of the deposition. (Quote):

Q. Has Mrs. Ekker ever transmitted any message from Cmdr. Hatonn, Cmdr. Soltec or Cmdr. Kortan that those who want to be saved from a cataclysm in which the end of the world might be destroyed should invest in the Phoenix Institute as a method or manner in which to be saved?

A. Not to my understanding.

Q. Has Mrs. Ekker ever communicated a transmission from Cmdr. Hatonn, Kortan or Soltec anything about how to be saved when the end of the world or the destruction of the world might occur?

A. Cmdr. Hatonn is one of the heavenly hosts otherwise known as the Host of the Lighted God Aton, A-T-O-N. As a Heavenly Host, generally speaking, Hatonn, Soltec and Germain, Kortan are not solely interested in our physical bodies. They're more interested in our souls. There is a physical aspect. When you say "saved" I'm presuming that you mean saved having to do with the soul. There's no saving the body. The body is going to go at some point in time. It's imperfect.

The word "apocalypse" is a New Testament biblical term from John. And while it may have been ill-advised for you to use it, it connotes, as you have further explained, the end of the world. Well, the end of the world has probably come and gone several times. One of them, possibly the more recent, would be the one characterized as Noah and his ark.

The problem as I view it personally—I'm not speaking for him. The problem is to provide for the human element for a period of time up until we have, shall we call it, an apocalypse or an end time. There is no relationship between lending money to the Phoenix Institute to purchase gold and, shall we say, the destruction of the Earth. If you're interested in why the Cmdr. Hatonn would counsel people to put a portion of their assets in gold at this time it would have more to do with the fact that the stock market is above 5500 and is at some point in time probably going to collapse. At least there are many, many economic newsletter writers making that same prediction. And it's a well-known axiom in financial circles that when stock markets collapse the so-called hard assets, such as gold and precious metals, are a better store of value. So I think any attempt on your part to make a connection between the advice to invest in gold at this time is without foundation as far as apocalypse or the end of the world or that kind of stuff. They don't connect. Purchasing gold at this time is—just makes good sense, at least with a certain portion of your assets. And that's a business decision. (End quote.)

I hope the judge takes time to read the above. With six volumes of depositions to cover, I believe this may be wishful thinking. One is left with the sense that one does not yet know, of course, the real or total purpose behind Horn's line of questioning, especially in a case involving the non-sale of some real estate in May, 1988. In my opinion, it is certainly curious that Santa Barbara Savings and Loan, and its affiliates, did not themselves sue the auctioneer, instead of including him under what appears to be the umbrella of their own defense.

CALLED TO TASK

After yesterday's writing [on p. 21] I am called to task about several things and explanations are demanded—and not too nicely so. I am told that "Well, YOU quote from the Bible..." and other such reprimand for the writings which question "some" of the Bible's contents. Yes, like maybe most of it! Why? Because, partly, of the following information.

Keep in mind that the Zionists are NOT the same in assumption as the Judean people. Zionists are not necessarily even of Israeli connections—but ALL are of Israeli alliance. This is an explicit statement which does not mean (i)srael for it indicates a State of Israel.

Israel was taken FROM Palestine and VOTED IN as a State in about the year 1948 by the United Nations permanent member council of some five member-nations, two of which were totally communistic (And WHO birthed Communism?).

Most of you objected when I pointed out that you are now declared by Congress to have a national religion—under the Noahidic laws. This is FORBIDDEN by Constitutional LAW. BUT IT WAS VOTED IN AND NOTEVEN A WRITTEN VOTE WAS CALLED—ONLY AN ORAL MUMBLE WITH THE HALL ALMOST EMPTY. Fine, if that is what you want, it should be what you get, but I wonder how many of you have any idea at all what it means?

Ah, but now come the Zionists calling themselves Christian Zionists (two opposing words in meaning) and have their "Congress" meeting wherein a few words are changed and guess what you come out with for your world presentation:

Received June 4, 1996.

[QUOTING:]

PROCLAMATION

THIRD INTERNATIONAL CHRISTIAN ZIONIST CONGRESS

The following Proclamation was adopted unanimously at the Third International Christian Zionist Congress, convened in Jerusalem from February 25th to the 29th, 1996.

PREAMBLE

We, the delegates to the Third International Christian Zionist Congress, have assembled in Jerusalem this 29th day of February, 1996. This Congress coincides with the 3,000th anniversary celebration of the Jewish presence in Jerusalem, the Holy City of God. Confident in the favour of God upon our endeavours, we have convened for the following purposes:

- To join the celebration of Jerusalem 3,000;
- To pray for the peace of Jerusalem and to declare our firm position on the future status of the city;
- To demonstrate Christian concern for Israel and the Jewish People;
- To commit our fervent efforts to instruct and persuade Christians and men everywhere of the revealed truths pertaining to Israel and the Jewish People in the Testaments of God as enlightened by the Holy Spirit;
- To deliberate on the positions and measures which we must take to assist Israel and the Jewish People in facing the challenges before them, particularly in response to the Agreements and final-status talks with the Palestinian Arabs, the bi-lateral talks with Syria, and the need for continuing Aliyah;
- To express our deep concern with and to seek to address the increasing threat posed by radical Islam to Israel, to Christian minorities in the Middle East and to the world, while offering compassionate prayer for those millions of people now in the Islamic faith, and
- To determine the priorities for Christian Zionist efforts in the future.

AFFIRMATION OF CHRISTIAN ZIONISM

After careful consideration and prayer, we join with one heart and mind to declare and decree our firm belief that:

1. The Bible is the inspired Word of God and is the basis of our faith as Christians following the teachings of our Lord and the Apostles and the source of our motivation as Zionists.
2. God the Father, Almighty, chose the ancient nation and people of Israel, the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to reveal His plan of redemption for the world. They remain elect of God, and without the Jewish nation His redemptive purposes for the world will not be completed.
3. Jesus of Nazareth is the Messiah and has promised to return to Jerusalem, to Israel and to the world.
4. It is reprehensible that generations of Jewish Peoples have been killed and persecuted in the name of our Lord, and we challenge the Church to repent of any sins of commission or omission against them.
5. The scattering of the Jewish People throughout the centuries of the Diaspora was ordained by the Lord as corrective, as were previous exiles, and redemptive, bringing the knowledge of the one true God of Israel unto the Gentile nations.
6. The modern Ingathering of the Jewish People to Eretz Israel and the rebirth of the nation of Israel are in fulfillment of biblical prophecies, as written in both the Old and New Testaments.
7. Christian believers are instructed by Scripture to acknowledge the Hebraic roots of their faith and to actively assist and participate in the plan of God for the ingathering of the Jewish People and the restoration of the nation of Israel in our day.

8. The Lord in His zealous love for Israel and the Jewish People blesses and curses peoples and judges nations based upon their treatment of the Chosen People of Israel.

9. Concerning Jerusalem: It is the Holy City of the Jewish People and those of biblical faith. At the time appointed by God, Messiah will return to sit on the everlasting Throne of David in Jerusalem and will reign over all the world in righteousness and peace.

10. According to God's distribution of nations, the Land of Israel has been given to the Jewish People by God as an everlasting possession by an eternal covenant. The Jewish People have the absolute right to possess and dwell in the Land, including Judea, Samaria, Gaza and the Golan.

11. Christians should oppose all forms of discrimination and prejudice (anti-Semitism) against the Jewish People and the Jewish State and should seek to be a comfort and a friend to them.

12. God's choice of Israel was a means to reach the world with His love, Word and redemption. Therefore, fulfilling the Great Commission is vital and flows out of our commitment to Israel.

SENSE OF THE CONGRESS RESOLUTIONS

Further, we are persuaded by the clear unction of our God to express the sense of this Congress on the following concerns before us this day:

1. Because of the sovereign purposes of God for the City, Jerusalem must remain undivided, under Israeli sovereignty, open to all peoples, the capitol of Israel only, and all nations should so concur and place their embassies here.

2. As a faith bound to love and forgiveness we are appreciative of the attempts by the Government of

NON SEQUITUR / By Wiley

Israel to work tirelessly for peace. However, the truths of God are sovereign and it is written that the Land which He promised to His People is not to be partitioned. It is our moral sense that Israel and the nations err in according favour and status to the current leadership of the Palestine LIBERATION Organization and in placing in their hands land and people that are precious to God. It would be further error for the nations to recognize a Palestinian state in any part of Eretz.

3. To the extent the Palestinian Covenant or any successor instrument calls for the elimination of Israel or denies the right of Israel to exist within secure borders in Eretz Israel, it should be abolished.

4. The Golan is part of biblical Israel and is a vital strategic asset necessary for the security and defense of the entire country, no bilateral or multilateral agreements with Syria should give consent to, either expressly or by implication, Syria's continued occupation of Lebanon and oppression of its Christian community.

5. Israel has the clear and lawful right to defend itself.

6. Regarding Islam, we express the following concerns with Muslim attitudes towards Jews and Christians out of a sense of compassion for the millions of people who believe that they follow in the faith of Abraham by way of Islam, and with a commitment to intercede for them, that the Spirit of Truth will reveal to them the true nature of the faith of Abraham:

A. We are convinced from a biblical standpoint that the Muslim concept of OAllah is an anti-Jewish and anti-Christian distortion of how God revealed Himself to the Patriarchs, Kings and Prophets of Israel, and how God has revealed Himself through our Lord. We find these attitudes have their source in the portions of the QurAean which accuse Jews and Christians of having falsified the revelation of God given in Scripture.

B. Those elements within the Islamic faith which promote hatred of Israel and of Jewish peoples bring spiritual bondage, evil and confusion upon themselves, their followers and their nations. Christian compassion demands that all Christians actively seek to free them from any such hatred towards Israel and the Jewish People.

C. The Islamic claim to Jerusalem, including its exclusive claim to the Temple Mount, is in direct contradiction to the clear biblical and historical significance of the city and its holiest site, and this claim is of later religio-political origin rather than arising from any QurAeanic text or early Muslim tradition.

D. We condemn that radical view now ascendant within Islam which, by its own tenets, advocates violence and Jihad (holy war) as a legitimate means to spread the Islamic faith and advance the Islamic world view. We find the most pernicious expression of such radical views is the belief that a Muslim who sacrifices his very life to kill a Jew receives the reward of instant entry into Paradise. The practice of such beliefs poses an increasingly unacceptable peril to Israel and a grave threat to both the Muslim and non-Muslim peoples throughout the world. These threats must be opposed and challenged by all.

7. While Gentile believers have been grafted into that household of faith which is of Abraham (the commonwealth of Israel), replacement theology within the Christian faith, which does not recognize the ongoing biblical purposes for Israel and the Jewish People, is doctrinal error.

8. Regarding Aliyah, we remain concerned for the fate of imperiled Jewish People in diverse places, and seek to encourage and assist in the continuing process of Return of the Exiles to Eretz Israel. To this end we commit to work with Israel and to encourage the Diaspora to fulfill the vision and goal of gathering to Israel the greater majority of all Jewish People from throughout the world.

PLEDGE

We recognize that in making and declaring this Proclamation, we engage fully in matters of great weight and concern to the nations. As Christians we are commanded to love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength and to love our neighbor as our self. Bound by His Divine love, we are yielded to a ministry of reconciliation which yearns to reconcile humankind to our Creator and people to each other. Therefore, we make this Proclamation with a sense of purpose and destiny, and with pure conscience, knowing that the mercies of our Lord are ever toward us and are available to all men everywhere, and that He will perform all that He has promised to do. Therefore, we pledge the unwavering commitment of our lives and resources to accomplish the goals and purposes set forth herein.

APPENDIX

We rely on the following specific Scriptures, among others, as the basis for our firm beliefs:

AFFIRMATIONS:

1. Deuteronomy 8:3; Psalms 119:103, 105; Matthew 4:4; Acts 2:42; 2 Peter 1:20-21; 2 Timothy 3:16.
2. Genesis 12:1-3; Romans 11:1-2; Romans 11:28.
3. Isaiah 7:14; Isaiah 9:6; Isaiah 53; Psalms 22; Romans 15:1.
4. Luke 24:47.
5. Joshua 16:1; Luke 21:24; Romans 11:28-30.
6. Jeremiah 23:3,7,8; Jeremiah 31:8-10,23; Amos 9:13.
7. Psalms 80; Isaiah 40:1; Isaiah 49:22-23; Isaiah 60:10-12; Romans 11:17, 25.
8. Genesis 12:1-3; Joel 3:1-3; Matthew 25:36.
9. Isaiah 2; Isaiah 11; Jeremiah 3:17; Zechariah 14; Revelation 2:26-27.
10. Genesis 17:1-8; Joel 3:1-3.
11. Isaiah 40:1; Zechariah 2:8; Matthew 5:1-12.
12. Genesis 12:1; Romans 9:4-5.

[END OF QUOTING]

Does anyone begin to see just how easy it really is to fool the world almost all the time? And, furthermore, can you see how handy it is to have a Kol Nidre? BUT, can you also see that the greatest weapon you have over your enemy is TRUTH?

This greatly reminds me of George Green and George Abbott along with David Horton sending forth the lies foisted off in their first legal pleadings. Then those records written by themselves are used as if the first lies were truth. Keep your eyes open, readers, for you ARE now run as a subsidiary of Israel.

Jesus, you see, is the NAMED entity to be head of the Illuminati and right on down the line. Remember that the Jesus you think you get is NOT. Think carefully: What's in a NAME? The above "sounds good"? Look carefully; then weep for your world. Remember that it is never the first cancer cells that kill but, rather, the last acquired. However, of course it is the first one that is the deadly one for from that multiplying mutation comes all the rest. It is absolutely within your rights and freedom to believe anything you wish but, if you take such as "this" above at face value as something about loving the neighbor and living in peace—forget it.

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country's special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, "As goes the United States, so goes the world."

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn's most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other enlightening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the "Evil Empire" forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "up from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial "book" format of the PHOENIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR's motto reminded all that "The Truth Will Set You Free", the CONTACT's motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!"

The "Phoenix Project" is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the *CONTACT*ing with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project "ground crew" continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

Some Thoughts On Free-Men U.S.A.

6/5/96 #1 HATONN

I do wonder, however, as to just how such narrow proclamations can be offered TO THE WORLD [as is presented in the article on p. 9 called "Proclamation Of The Third International Christian Zionist Congress"] when a handful of Freemen can't sit and mind their own business in Montana, U.S.A. and, frankly, why a handful of separatists in a land birthed on the freedom of being a separatist and religious "anything" is given that freedom in your very Constitution and cannot exist, much the less, express. I do not speak of law-breaking hoodlums—I speak of quiet people like Weavers of Idaho, etc., who build their cabins on remote hilltops and bother no one. But no, it is NOT alright to take from a neighbor or foist off on anyone or any neighbor that which is forced by your mouth or hand.

You make a big fuss over "informed consent" and "informed rights"—have you any REAL idea of that which you babble? Until you ARE informed, you have no "right" or "right to make consent"—FOR ANOTHER! YOU have every right to make your own errors or correct passage for SELF and NO other. And, furthermore, you WILL SOMEDAY STAND RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FOOLISH ERROR OF BEING UNINFORMED.

Readers, you CLAIM to want "freedom" but you don't want the responsibility of freedom. You want "freedom" only for self in your own perception. THAT is NOT freedom—that is wanting to control, in your own justified status of decision-maker—not responsible leadership. How many of you are like Dr. Leary's suggested stance: "Turn on, Tune in, Drop out."? You don't have to have or use drugs to do any of these things. All you have to do to accomplish such nonsense is to simply be irresponsible in your own circumstance, stay uninformed, and bellow your opinions without any knowledge whatsoever of that which you spout and spew forth.

I find the announcement about one of the Freemen's neighbors who said: "We are Christian people up here and demand the laws be enforced. The FBI should go in there and blast those kooks off the map!" A Christian like that, I would guess, would make a CHRIST awfully proud of His teaching success as to "right" and "wrong". I would certainly like to meet the "preacher" of that man's Sunday church. Well, you might say, "...but that man is a Mormon..." Oh, I thought the title of the Mormon Church was/is Church of JESUS CHRIST of Latter Day Saints! Can't you people make up your minds? You want me to come there and pull off a pressure coup and make things right? How can you make things right when you people already think you are right? No thank you—you do whatever you are going to do and leave me out of it. Certainly you do not want God-Creator to witness your Kali (total chaos). You don't mind having "Jesus" witness your bloodletting for you dumped your sins, after all, onto him and so he should certainly understand. However, and pay attention—that JESUS you crucify is NOT THE MAN

OF GALILEE NAMED EMMANUEL (BY ANY SPELLING). THAT man of Galilee would be in that ranch/farm bringing out the people and standing with them in the courts to defend their "rights" or explain their mistakes. How many of YOU are willing to do that? Martyrdom? No, foolishness! If they be right, all the DYING in the world will not prove a thing, for after you are dead there is nothing to prove your truth—only myths about what may or may not have happened in any given experience. The people of Justus, Montana may well be totally right—but, if nothing changes in circumstances, they are going to be DEAD RIGHT.

These could be compared to little ducks on a little pond in example—distracting while the BIG ducks on the BIGGER pond do their own thing. The REALLY MEGA-ducks are enjoying the distraction while getting their own deadly games won or their artillery aligned to take the play.

I trust that CONTACT is updating the events at Justus on the phone line for things change so quickly as to be non-news by the time the paper is published. Peter Kawaja is now appointed a spokesperson for the updates of the Montana group and also there are daily updates in other writings. I hope you are being able to obtain those for I am unable to keep abreast of those for you.

There is fear by the Government that there are documents which can support the group and bring down the FBI, in that "compound". I like that term representing a 900-acre farm site. (Note also that those military armed war machines are now called Rescue vehicles.) Of course there are documents to prove the "right" of the citizens—not the least of which is called the CONSTITUTION.

Peter's last paragraph in his "update" is the stunner, however: "I have heard that these people inside the ranch are not going to lay down if there is an assault, like WACO. So that has got the yella belly slime worried about their butts even though they are trained assassins with the highest tech/powerful military hardware." No, Peter, you are WRONG. They most certainly are NOT WORRIED. They are simply waiting until you-the-people demand "law and order" to take them out and save face. You have to understand something: TODAY you don't have to have a bloodbath to pick off the offending parties and call it suicide. You people are still in the handgun mentality while your enemy is in the technical age of mass genocide. If they want to show you "terror" they will accomplish their mission one way. If they want to hide their atrocities they will do it another way. I can promise you that, as it is going, the Freemen can't stay in isolation forever and certainly the culprits of injustice can't stand a FAIR trial or any other HEARING. Don't you realize, readers, that one lobbed-in virus-tipped shell can take out Justus, Montana and everyone in the "compound" in less than an hour and it will be called Hanta-virus or something equally as silly? Then it will be "an act of God" and you will all praise the fine leadership who isolated those poor people so they couldn't spread that terrible patriot disease to you-the-people.

But, don't I have enemies? I am asked this over and over again and I repeat over and over again: NO! I only have opposition players in this game of expression. Why do I call it a game? Because all life in contradiction or confrontation is but a game of one idea against the idea of another. I KNOW that "soul" is far more advanced and higher in existence than any PHYSICAL being and therefore I hold the ultimate weapons of this game. Since I demand nothing of anyone it behooves my "so-called enemies" to help me so that I can STAY OUT OF THEIR AFFAIRS. It especially behooves them to keep their agreements WITH ME for I can be a most nasty opponent or a veritable bottomless container of agreeableness. I DO NOT COMPROMISE but I most certainly DO NEGOTIATE—and YOU need to learn the difference.

I think you noted, as did I, the necessity of destruction of a most important Arian missile launch yesterday. Hummmnn—and what, exactly, do you-the-people think was aboard that aborted flight save THREE satellites? Don't you notice that every Shuttle launch is accompanied before, during, or after, by an Arian launch? Why do you think that would be? Ah, the intrigue with its myriads of distractions is seemingly endless. So be it. Ah, may you walk in beauty...er, well, may you find some beauty somewhere in which you might hide. "But it has come to pass in the time of the Sleepers that there came to be no place to run and nowhere to hide—save in the Hollow of God's hand and most living human beings know not GOD."—an old saying by Me.

Ludwig von Mises in Planned Chaos stated it very well, that elusive ever-changing illusion of stability, when he observed the following:

THE LIBERATION OF THE DEMONS

The history of mankind is the history of ideas. For it is ideas, theories, and doctrines that guide human action, determine the ultimate ends men aim at and the choice of the means employed for the attainment of these ends. The sensational events which stir the emotions and catch the interest of superficial observers are merely the consummation of ideological changes. There are no such things as abrupt sweeping transformations of human affairs. What is called, in rather misleading terms, a "turning point in history", is the coming on the scene of forces which were already for a long time at work behind the scene. New ideologies, which had already long since superseded the old ones, throw off their last veil, and even the dullest people become aware of the changes which they did not notice before.

Mad Cow Syndrome And Thoughts On Responsible Action

Does the 6-6-'96 mean anything? I am asked this quite often this month. Yes indeed, it means it is June 6th, 1996. It had more meaning on 6-6-year 6! And, how many people do you know off hand with 6 fingers on their hands? Could it be that there is not a lot to attend on any such calculations—other than that the dead avengers of the LIVING are at work with their games and trickery to distract you? Satan chooses up “unlucky” and “lucky” days—GOD PRESENTS YOU A WORLD FOR YOUR CREATING! MAKE IT ANYTHING YOU LIKE. IF YOU COME UP WITH A CELEBRATION DAY OF THE ADVERSARY—PAY ATTENTION AND TAKE CARE OF YOURSELVES. THE BIG BAD WOLVES ARE GOING TO BE MAKING MORE AND MORE ASSAULTS ON YOU, THE GOOD LITTLE FOXIES AS THEY RUN SHORTER ON TIME FOR THEIR WORLD 2000.

What do you have to look forward to in the remainder of this decade? 100-to-200-mile-an-hour winds blowing almost constantly at that speed for days upon end. Growing crops will be all but impossible above ground. With the changing “pressures” there will be tornadoes unheard of prior to these days and they will be devastating for so much damage will be done by the wind as to leave the lands stripped. As the fields are devastated, the topsoil will blow for thousands of miles and fires will burn out of control and soil erosion will be appalling.

By the way, you will wish you had not contributed to the mass murder of citizens of America. You have become the world's most atrocious killers and mass murderers. Oh yes, YOU HAVE; you kill thousands of unborn babies every year as if it were birth-control cream. You have allowed the Constitutional Anarchists to take America and become the greatest and most infamous mass serial killers in world history. You have killed deliberately, and for convenience, more people than either Joseph Stalin or Hitler—Stalin being responsible for far more murdering than Hitler ever thought about. Is it not nice for the Mothers and Fathers of the children? They don't have to worry about a son or daughter being slain in battle for Freedom—they murder them in the womb or in the birth canal. Do you actually think Billy Clyde Clintonista and his butterfly, Billiary Bonnie Rodham, give a damn about your children? They use children for the ritual plucking of the virginal flower.

Women's RIGHTS? Right to choose? Freedom of CHOICE? Come now, ladies and gentlemen—you have destroyed the RIGHT to have acceptance by GOD for your actions—AND THAT, FRIENDS, WAS AND IS—YOUR CHOICE. When you can line up to have murder committed on your very own flesh and blood offspring—there is no level of non-caring left in which to sink. When you destroy your offspring for an illicit romp in the hay—you have gone about as far as you can go!!

No, people, you have asked and I am going to answer! You have made this bed in which you now lie and all the King's horses (asses) and all the King's men, cannot put the beds together again. So NOW, you want GOD CREATOR to “fix” it! No thank you; you did it—you fix it!

Why do I bring up abortion and make you feel guilty? Because you are in the radiation belt—call it whatever you like and your babies are going to become blighted and will be unable to survive well even if you let them be born. They will be sickly and mutated after a while from the terrible radiation of, YES, the Photon Belt rays. Those added to the increased deliberate pulsing from the artificial frequency grid about your planet. And don't think the Elite Hogswill will suffer—they will live out their days, most of them anyway, in security bunkers feasting on your food put away against the days of your starvation. At the rate you are moving toward the whirlpool of trouble—you are IN THE FAMINE STAGE and don't even seem to take notice except to worry about your appearance and your waistline. You will relish having those fat pads in the not-too-distant future looming directly ahead of you. If you can't grow food—you will starve because all the artificial “stuff” you cram into your faces will become the things that kill you. Remember Marie Antoinette who claimed that if the “rabble” didn't have bread to eat, in France, “let them eat cake”. I suppose she also said, as her head rolled forth on the block; “...but I needed those teeth to eat cake!”?

Do I come to show the way through? Yes, but such as George Green, et al., stole your “present” in stealing your property, funds and equipment. You have had a loss for those first precious years on the farm, then the farmer took the equipment paid for by one of your own readers, and then turned in the farm owner because he had a toilet in an extra room for use as a visitor bedroom. There was also a cemented-and-shored-up root cellar for storage and safety as the winds pick up and soon begin to form tornado funnels. These places are and were for grain storage rooms, safe from the vermin—but he said they were without permit (and after all, readers, HE WAS A LICENSED CONTRACTOR AND THEREFORE KNEW BETTER?). While George Abbott buys his vodka and mix—will you have had the funds to buy another month's supply of grain? Well, this is THE way it reads, people. Your choices have been expensive while those toads continue to try to destroy everything YOU HAVE WORKED AND SHARED FOR. This is the plight of the whole of the WORLD, not just here in a small township where the dying lizards continue their efforts to stay alive themselves while feasting upon your bodies after sucking all the blood from your veins.

While standing off the Freeman, the FBI alone is stopping the growing of hundreds of tons of grain, cattle, and other products that only FARMS such as the Freeman's can produce. Remember this when your tummy aches and your children beg for food. Starvation brings people into total CONTROL.

Maybe I should interrupt the ongoing Saggy of who and what you are and your origins, to offer you a rerun of an article by Dr. John Coleman on Mad Cow Disease.

[QUOTING, WORLD IN REVIEW: April 1996:]

“IS SOMEONE TRYING TO KILL US?”

Elsewhere we report on the wildfire spread of infectious disease and the horrifying rise in deaths from AIDS. It is with this in mind that we report on the following serious danger facing the citizens of the United States.

The American people are great meat eaters, with more and more of it being consumed each year. Meat, as far-fetched as it seems, may be the next vehicle for a great plague in the land; all the signs are there if we want to see them. What makes for concern, is that so many of the Committee of 300 companies are engaged in the food growing and processing industry. Recently, I had occasion to look at the range of products made by Nestle; there was not one of them that should go into the human body, yet Nestle has a multi-billion dollar turnover in the U.S.

One of the companies to watch closely is Monsanto, a major producer of agricultural chemicals and supplements for meat and chicken. One of Monsanto's products is genetically engineered bovine growth hormone (BGH). What is BGH? It is the first of several genetically engineered products in animal growth. Research is said to have cost Monsanto $1 billion, and as soon as the FDA approves it, pharmaceutical giants like Upjohn, Eli Lilly (Dan Quayle's family has a large stockholding in this company) [H: And did you know that Danny Quayle is a distant cousin to George Bush?], and American Cyanamid, have their own brand of genetically engineered BGH ready and waiting.

BGH produces an insulin-type growth factor (IGF-1), which is the same in cattle and humans. There has been virtually no testing of BGH and IGF, so that nobody knows what these do to the human body when ingested. The FDA's Center for Veterinary Medicine is stacked with industry supporters who are there to make sure that there is no attempt made in the future to regulate totally unregulated drugs for the animals industry. It is a free-for-all as matters stand. Moreover, the agency says it lacks the manpower and money to do a thorough job of overseeing animal remedies and drugs. [H: So once again it is YOUR FAULT because you just don't supply enough MONEY to the thugs, in taxes.]

How safe is the meat we eat by the thousands of tons each year? The answer lies in whether you are in the camp of the dairy and meat industry, or just a consumer seeking the truth. Thus far in 1993, there have been sporadic outbreaks of groups of people going down like ninepins after eating at fast food restaurants. We need to keep in mind that there are thousands of cases where individuals have taken ill after eating hamburgers, who have not reported their condition to any authority charged with supervising the restaurant business. Nobody knows just how many people have been infected, but Consumer Union reckons the number to be “very substantial”.

Researching for this article was difficult; the industry is not willing to provide anything of a contrary nature to its position, namely that the U.S. has the best-regulated food industry in the world. A colleague of mine in England, to whom I turned for help, sent me information of great value, which gave a comprehensive history of animal disease epidemics in Great Britain, starting in 1955, when a strange disease struck flocks of sheep.

In 1985, research at the British CAB facility at Porton Down, turned up information that sheep were dying of a brain disease known as "scrapie". Research was ordered because in that year, an epidemic of scrapie appeared in cows. The researchers named the disease, bovine spongiform encephalopathy (BSE), because it appears like a sponge full of holes in the brains of infected animals. The disease literally creates holes in the brains of infected cattle and sheep, and is transmittable.

Since BSE first appeared in Great Britain in 1985, government figures show that approximately 105,000 cows have died from it. My source said, "The figure is probably understated as is usual in cases of this kind." Generic research was immediately conducted by the pharmaceutical giant, Upjohn. Although the U.S. Government denies that there are any cases of BSE in the United States, thus far the USDA has not proved its position, most probably because the disease appears to manifest itself differently here.

My source told me:

"In England, cows infected with BSE stagger around as if they had gone mad before dying, which gave rise to the term 'mad cow' disease. Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries reports describe the last hours before death as rushing around, weird movements that farmers described as 'crazy, and very troubling to witness'. What we have is an epidemic of BSE, which has spread throughout Europe."

Following an outpouring of public anxiety, the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries claimed that research it had ordered showed that the disease was not transmittable, because cows were a "dead end host". What was NOT revealed to the public was that tests done outside of government laboratories proved beyond a doubt that far from being a "dead end host", cows could, and did, transmit BSE to goats, sheep, pigs and laboratory rats.

[H: "They" also told you that you couldn't spread AIDS by kissing, etc. NOW they come forth and present you with a test for AIDS using saliva from the MOUTH. Isn't it time to "wise up"?]

The FDA and the USDA say there are no cases of BSE among cattle in the U.S., but acknowledges cases of what is known as "downer cow syndrome"—cows simply falling to the ground, unable to get up, but without any signs of "mad cow syndrome" which precedes death of cattle infected with BSE as it occurs in England. As far as I was able to ascertain, it seems that about, in the U.S., at least, 100,000 cows die from downer cow syndrome every year.

A report entitled "Transmissible Mink Encephalopathy, Scrapie and Downer Cow Disease—Potential Links", prepared by the University of Wisconsin's Veterinary Department, under the direction of veterinarian scientist, Richard Marsh, is one of the most important scientific papers of its kind in the past decade. Marsh discusses the 1985 Stentonsville epidemic of mink encephalopathy where thousands of mink were killed by BSE. Based on experiments at Mission, Texas and Ames, Iowa, Marsh says he believes that a different strain of BSE—but still BSE—is infecting cattle in the U.S., and he believes that in Wisconsin, cows are dying from BSE-downer cow syndrome at the rate of 30,000 or more every year.

What are the known causes of BSE and downer cow syndrome, what happens to the dead cattle, and are these two closely-linked diseases transmissible to man? Let me turn again to the report I received from my British colleague.

"In a classified report, Porton Down stated that BSE started when cows begin to be fed with protein high-energy supplements now known to have contained meat and bones from scrapie-infected sheep, rendered into bonemeal. The purpose of high-supplement feed is to increase milk production in dairy herds, and for maximum rapid growth in beef cattle."

From 1980, animal meat and bone rendering companies in Great Britain 'sterilized' their bone meal by using high temperatures and solvents—these chemical solvents were never tested for their effect on human beings—they might well have been carcinogenic. But the method was altered in 1985—lower temperature and no solvents—when BSE came to the attention of the British public. What is not clear is whether or not the low temperature now being used kills the virus suspected of causing BSE, or indeed, whether or not the very high temperatures used before 1985 did actually kill the BSE-causing virus in animal carcasses delivered for rendering.

One thing is certain: there is no doubt that the 1985 process did not stop the spread of infection, whether caused by a virus or some other form, which allowed the contaminated supplement to enter the food chain. Porton Down scientists apparently did indeed convince the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries that contaminated supplements should be banned from human consumption and, in 1989, the ministry passed a prohibition on human consumption of ruminant organs and brains. The ban included ruminants from "any even-toed hoofed cud chewing quadrupeds, including cattle and deer". At the same time the ministry prohibited cattle feed supplements containing bonemeal rendered from animal brains and organs—yet, strangely enough, no prohibition on eating animal organs such as kidneys and livers was issued.

In spite of precautions, BSE began appearing in cats, and quickly spread over Denmark, France, Germany, Ireland and Switzerland. Thus, there seems to be a case to meet; in spite of the sterilization methods adopted in 1985—or perhaps because of them—BSE is not being contained and may very well have crossed the ocean to the U.S.

While Porton Down and the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries insist that BSE is not a disease that can jump the animal-human barrier, we need to remind ourselves that this was almost exactly what was previously said of meda visna virus, which when deliberately contaminated with the HIV virus, was able to make the jump. Chemical and biological warfare laboratories, such as exist at Porton Down and Fort Detrick in the U.S., could quite well be experimenting in new CAB weapons involving transmission of BSE to humans. The possibility of this happening is not as remote as it may at first sound, given what we now know about how the HIV virus was first created, and then transmitted.

Available Now!

We have combined two of our most popular products, Aloe Vera & Body Booster Minerals, into one fabulous product: "Aloe Plus 77". It contains all of the required vitamins and 77 minerals derived in a nonmetallic, colloidal form, photosynthesized from plants millions of years old. With the addition of Alfalfa (which contains unusually high amounts of vitamins U, D, K, A and E, and eight important digestive enzymes) we believe this is a product you can count on. Two to three capsules daily as a dietary supplement will give you the same benefits as 1 oz. of the liquids.

In the U.S. the practice of making bone meal from meat and bones of dead cows is widespread and is, surprisingly, not considered a risk factor by the USDA and the FDA—this, in spite of the fact that BSE is known, as the results of experiments carried out at Porton Down—to have a long incubation period and is ALWAYS fatal. Then there is the question of the actual virus that causes BSE. No one knows for certain whether or not the virus is passed on to healthy cattle in the feed supplements, or whether or not it really is destroyed by "sterilization".

FEEDING CATTLE WITH BSE INFECTED SUPPLEMENTS WHICH MAY, OR MAY NOT, ALSO CARRY THE VIRUS THAT CAUSES IT, IS THE MOST EFFICIENT WAY TO SPREAD THE DISEASE. THERE IS NOTHING AS YET TO PROVE THAT A NEW INFECTIOUS AGENT HASN'T ENTERED THE FOOD CHAIN. It is the opinion of a group of British veterinarians that a form of BSE is already present in human beings. This is based on research done into the death of a British farmer who died from Creutzfeldt-Jakob (CFJ), a virtually unknown disease outside of certain areas of New Guinea and Africa. CFJ is a human form of spongiform encephalopa. The farmer who died was accustomed to drinking milk obtained from his dairy cows, several of which had gone down with mad cow disease. (End of intelligence information.)

Are Americans getting infected with BSE-CSJ? Is this why so many people are complaining of severe illness after eating hamburgers at fast food restaurants? Is E-coli bacteria the sole cause of their illness? After hard lobbying by Monsanto, the FDA's Veterinarian Medicine Advisory Committee ruled that increased levels of bovine growth hormone and resultant use of antibiotics did not create a risk to human health. The ruling merely followed the line of Monsanto and other big pharmaceutical companies.

Does such a ban on ruminants from cows that died of downer cow syndrome exist in the United States, or are people eating meat, liver and kidneys from diseased downer cows? Recently a major food processing plant in Oakland, California making beef hamburger patties and sausages was suddenly shut down by FDA and USDA inspectors. The plant was a major contractor to the U.S. Army. From the scanty news reports of the event, it appeared that the plant was processing meat declared unfit for human consumption. A few days later, the plant burned to the ground in a mysterious fire.

The Food and Drug Administration's Veterinary Medicine Advisory Committee has approved BGH. Is it any wonder that strange illnesses are appearing much more frequently all across the land; illness having an unknown origin? All pointers seem to indicate that the mystery disease sweeping Cuba may originate from ingesting infected meat and milk.

One needs to ask the question: "How could the VMA Committee approve Monsanto's BGH, when $30 million worth of BGH stockpiles rotted on company shelves? How could the FDA approve a product that rots the udders of milk cows, when it does not know what the effect is on milk contaminated in this manner?" There can be little doubt that the residue of antibiotics fed to dairy cows does enter milk and this alone could be the cause of illness. I cannot say that this is absolutely the case because, incredibly, no studies have been done, or if there have been any studies, the USDA and the FDA are not saying anything about them.

Monsanto's GBH is injected into dairy cows to increase milk production, which it does in a dramatic way, but, as mentioned, it causes mastitis, an infection of cows' teats. I have learned that if the product is passed by the full FDA board (and it very likely will be passed), milk and meat containing BGH will not be required to bear a warning label. How can one come to understand the reasoning here, unless, as my intelligence source indicated, "someone is trying to kill us". Bearing in mind the provisions of Global 2000, this does not appear to be an unreasonable question.

Meat consumption, especially the cheaper grades, is up, as are sales at fast food restaurants with McDonald's leading with millions of hamburgers sold each year. Add to that the sales of all other hamburger outlets, and it does not take much to see that the possibility of a new plague of devastating proportions could be in the making. Are the USDA and the FDA paying any attention to this potentially grave threat? Thus far, there is no indication that either agency is about to undertake a detailed study of the threat to humans posed by meat tainted by BSE-BGH-CID, nor is there any indication that a warning bulletin will be issued, at least, not in the immediate future.

[END OF QUOTING]

Still hungry? To knock out the virus cross in this disease requires heat high enough to knock out titanium—which withstands great heat temperatures, or, something with a "frequency" too high to allow the molecule holding the cap to the crystalline virus form to stay intact. "It is simple deduction, Dr. Watson!"

I would point out to you that among your dairy herds these days one of the most prevalent problems is "inflamed udders" with concurrent decrease in milk production. Douching the udders with Gaiacol silver colloid will clear the problem IF you can also inject some into the animal. The "usual" colloidal silver is "iffy" because of the viral DNA structure of the new man-made organisms. The "usual" silver colloid simply does not have sufficiently high frequency to take out titanium molecules. Worse, the bad guys in the black hats are working on an even higher frequency "neck" for the viruses.

Do "we" consider this circumstance? Oh indeed, and catalyzed OxySol is used in great quantity in the Dria formulae in order to pick up the Iridium frequency and DNA structure, which raises the colloid to the 9th octave of frequency and residency. We also use Iridium in the Silver Colloidalization process. The Gold colloid is left unchanged except for the addition of a couple of drops of minerals per five gallon colloidalizing container which will then pick up the proper "charge" and when added to the Gaiandriana will produce monatomic (mono-atom) gold. This is the source of LIFE, friends.

It would seem imperative to me that we be allowed to continue to work on the grains and legumes which can feed you and do so properly—so, it would be nice if we could get more help in solving the problems abounding around my people. If we can't do the research—you won't have the products; it is that simple. Each may think this Green Brigade stuff is somehow just an argument between two parties in the courts. No, it is the difference in basic ability to have what you need to confront the days ahead—OR NOT. My team here is getting to the point that they don't really care much any more one way or the other. I am amazed at how much people use to support bad habits which are killing you and yet can't or won't help us in offering LIFE. You feed your adversary while your very life-bringers go begging and die on the vines of drought.

Remember that there is a very high price for turning to our adversaries for help—for "they" will put limitations on our production and work. So be it. What they will do is put funds into our work and then when it is completed they will take it away for their own use.

So be that also, for we will have done what we came to do and choices will be very, very limited as to what my team can do beyond our instructions.

Until some of you speak out, step forward and bring your own counter-moves against the adversary, even to the Green Brigade, YOU have not solved your major problem of how to move beyond the corruption and even have the small things of progress and security.

Just yesterday the news bore the fact that Medicare will be totally gone by 2001 and Social Security will be gone no later than 2026. No, it will all be GONE long before those dates. We can, yes, build a safe place and be in quite a lot of security—but not ALONE!

We have no need to build, for we have security and we can gain more from our very adversarial Kings. But we have no need to do this if YOU do not care what happens to your children and grandchildren for perhaps the best after all is to never allow them to be born into such circumstances as lie ahead if you do not change the course now set.

There is no longer question about my "being". I have the most security records on file with your Security Departments than any other one party. My files are placed in security beyond even the reach of your President and National Leadership. Oh yes, indeed, if you have "insiders"—they most certainly CAN verify THIS INFORMATION. I DO NOT MAKE CONTACT PERSONALLY FOR THE LAWS STATE THAT THOSE WHOM I TOUCH WILL BE INCARCERATED AND/OR SLAIN.

Therefore, to you who demand we "show up" and "prove" something or other—no thank you. We HAVE NOTHING TO PROVE! IT IS YOU WHO HAVE EVERYTHING TO LOSE—NOT ME! Therefore, go forth and pronounce or denounce me, throw stones, tell tales, hug your trees and complain that God is unfair—it is of no consequence to ME. Go right on soothing the feelings of the offended thieves and robbers who get uncovered in their dirty little deeds—it is of no consequence to me. My soul is NOT IN QUESTION—but YOURS certainly IS. You who "betray" will not find solace within our shelter—ever again—for you cannot be trusted. Neither will you be content in our space for you shall ultimately wear the public mark of the betrayer. Think hard upon these things, I urge you, before you take a move to damage further MY PEOPLE. Age is of no consequence for you, if you are elderly, SHOULD HAVE LEARNED TRUTH AND INTEGRITY. If YOU mislead the elderly and infirm in their errors of wise judgement then you shall reap the rewards of that further BETRAYAL, forevermore upon your souls. You who follow and aid and abet the traitor is MORE THE TRAITOR THAN THE TRAITOR HIMSELF.

I would leave this now for we have many things to accomplish this day. Thank you and good morning.

A Look At Some Ongoing Shenanigans In Middle East

6/6/96 #2 HATONN

INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM

ISRAELI-TURKISH ALLIANCE

I am taking up this subject for our Greek friends, seeing that they have been the most damaged nation by the Turks all along their more historically recent evolution. It will be noted that Vina may well be right when she says "...well, all the Greek banks are headed by a Turk and that bodes bad news for any nation..." We shall see, won't we?

This information will go all the way back to mid 1992 when John Coleman wrote about this alliance.

[QUOTING WORLD IN REVIEW, April 1996:]

...Now, that original report is CONFIRMED by a SECRET agreement between the governments of Turkey and Israel that will allow Israeli jets to operate from Turkish airfields. There are other aspects to this secret agreement which were not disclosed. The announcement by Gen. Cevik Bir of the Turkish Armed Forces came at a closed-door meeting held in March at the Washington-based Institute For Near East Policies think tank, chaired by Alan Makpovsky, who was billed as "an expert on Turkey".

Here are extracts from WIR of June 1992:

"Ankara-Tel Aviv Betrothal Planned."

Of all the strangest things that have happened in the Middle East since the Gulf War, the suddenly announced betrothal plans for Turkey and Israel tops the billing. How could two such ancient enemies think of marriage? We hope to unravel the mystery in the course of these pages and show you how the stage is being set for the long-desired war in the region. (The Gulf War didn't cut it; the reluctant Russian military stepped back at the last minute.)

On April 27 this year (1992) a black tie dinner was arranged by the newly-formed QUINCENNTENIAL FOUNDATION of New York, described as a bridge between East and West. The highlight of the evening was a double award of honor presented to President Turgot Ozal and Prime Minister Suleiman Demerril by Committee of 300 agent, Henry Kissinger.

What are the intentions of the newly-betrothed couple? What does the Committee of 300 hope to achieve? Basically, it is the intention of the One World Government-New World Order to use Turkey's impressive military strength as a battering ram against any alliance between Iran, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon and Jordan. This is very much in the cards. Such an alliance would pose a serious threat to Israel and menace U.S. oil supremacy in the Middle East.

The Turks do not yet know it, but once they have served their purpose, they will find themselves on the receiving end of the One World Government's plans to topple all governments in the region (with the exception of Israel) who could be a threat to the new World

Order plans for the region. [H: And remember that Bush controls the newly recognized "Sweet Crude" fields in Turkey.]

Shortly after the marriage plans were announced, using the Kurdish "problem" as an excuse, Pres. Ozal quietly ordered 10 divisions deployed along Turkey's borders with Iran. An all-out war loomed large, but nothing was reported by the U.S. news media, but SABAH, Istanbul's largest daily newspaper reported the threat. Pres. Ozal told Syrian Pres. Assad that if needs be, Turkey would attack "terrorists" in the Bekka Valley—Syria's military base of operations in Lebanon.

On April 14, 1992, Izmet Sezgin, who doubles as foreign minister and personal envoy for Ozal, carried a secret message to Pres. Assad. The text of the message was never released, but my intelligence source told me that it contained a threat by Ozal that the waters of the Euphrates River would be diverted, "unless the terrorist training camps are closed down immediately".

Syrian intelligence, possibly warned by Vatican Intelligence, advised Pres. Assad to be ready for anything, including deployment of its long-range SCUDS supplied by China, some of which were known to be TIPPED WITH CHEMICAL AND BACTERIOLOGICAL WARHEADS. Although the attack did not materialize, nevertheless, the danger of war in the region remains high. Iran was also threatened by Turkish troop movements along the border.

The new secret agreement announced is a logical extension of relations between Israel and Turkey which began in earnest in 1992. The Clinton Administration is said to have been "surprised" at the development, but WIR subscribers would not have been caught unawares, thanks to our WIR issue of June, 1992. [H: Neither would CONTACT readers!]

The agreement disclosed by Gen. Bir embraces the exchange of intelligence information between the two countries, is a slap at Syria, which does not enjoy good relations with Ankara's secular administration. Turkey will allow units of the Israeli Mossad to "listen in" on Iran from listening posts strung up along its border with Iran. Turkish jets will be able to fly over Israel and Israeli planes will have "safe haven" status to land in Turkey.

In Teheran, Pasdaran leaders have threatened to attack the electronic eavesdropping posts on the borders with Turkey. Guide of the Revolution, Khamenei, and Pasdarans' chief Moshen Rezai, threatened reprisals against Turkey. "The secret is out. No wonder they (the Turkish government) were so anxious about an Islamic victory." [H: Now, people, perhaps it makes more sense as to just WHY the U.S. would up and just "forgive" 7 billion dollars of debt owed by Turkey??]

They knew that they had a dirty deal in motion which would not have been continued if the corrupt Ankara regime had been defeated. Rezai was even stronger in his denouncement of the Israeli-Turkish agreement. "They (the Turkish government) will find that we can strike anywhere. They are not immune from Islamic wrath."

Washington Institute would not respond to our call for information, but my source told me that, generally, the pact was spurred by the fact that the Turkish secular government almost came to an end in the last general election.

Had this happened, the Muslim fundamentalists would have formed yet another group targeting Israel, and the prospect of this happening was much on the minds of the Ankara government. Moreover, Turkey has its hands full with the Workers Party of Kurdistan (PKK) and, although there has been little publicity about it, 20,000 people have died since the army decided to wipe out the Kurds.

Here we have another sordid piece of Bush treachery. U.S. war planes routinely invade Iraqi air space, this without any authority from the legislature. Even though it is of little consequence, since the U.S. is NOT a member of the U.N., the U.N. declined to pass a resolution authorizing such violation of Iraq's airspace. (Ed Note: Please remember, we are quoting.) This was Bush at his worst; instituting these flights without the slightest authority from the Congress. The purpose is said to be to protect the Kurds from Pres. Saddam Hussein. Yet a scant few miles away, the Turkish army is engaged in a war to exterminate the Kurds, WITH the tacit approval of the Clinton administration. [H: Is Bush truly this powerful? Indeed!! But he has needs also and by "also" I indicate all of us having needs of one sort or another. I, readers, don't have to BECOME my adversary to deal with my adversary. DO YOU? If so, then please keep thee away from me!]

I well remember the hue and cry when some poison gas shells fell on a village, said to have been fired by Iraqi gunners. The press was full of photos of dead women and children, "victims of Iraqi brutality" as it was described. The whole thing turned out to be another Bush Big Lie. Iran was the guilty party in this instance. The point is that there has been no protest, no pictures of the dead Kurds, victims of Turkish brutality in the establishment media.

My source who called the Turkish embassy in Washington and spoke with third secretary, Levent Gumrucku, told me that Gumrucku said, "It is the same type of agreement that Turkey has with the U.S. and several other countries."

Both Khamenei and Rezai work very closely with Syria in controlling the actions of the Hezbollah, which is waging war on the Israeli "exclusion zone" inside Lebanon under the direction of Syrian Army General Ali Aslane. Others who have threatened reprisals against the Turkish government are Sobhi Tufaili, an inner-circle member of Pres. Rafsanjani. They have denounced the agreement, saying, "It has brought Zionism to Iran's door." Syrian officials have joined the chorus, lambasting the Ankara regime and threatening "countermeasures".

Seemingly startled by the ferocity of the verbal bombardment from Syria and Iran, the Turkish cabinet announced that there is "no significance" to the new ties with Israel, and that "they themselves sought it" and strongly denied the report about listening posts being made available to the Israeli Mossad. The agreement will allow Israel vital elbow room in the skies which hitherto it has lacked, being surrounded by states mostly hostile to it.

To get a proper perspective of the war of extermination being waged by Turkey against the Kurdish people, we can do no better than print more extracts from June, 1992 WIR:

The key to understanding the newly-proposed union of the House of Ankara and the House of Tel Aviv is OIL, LOTS OF OIL. To get to the heart of the matter we need to examine just where this oil bonanza is located and then we shall also look at the broker who arranged the betrothal.

The prologue to the marriage of convenience began in 1899 with the advent of Mr. William K. D'Arcy and Admiral William Chester. The prize they sought was the Mosul oil fields. D'Arcy got a huge concession from the Shah of Iran (for British oil interests) but Sultan Abdul Hamid wouldn't let go of the vilayets of Mosul and Baghdad to Admiral Chester. In the end, D'Arcy triumphed; the Sultan was swept out of power by the Young Turks, thanks to the hidden hand of British Intelligence MI6 and a company that later became known as British Petroleum.

There was much skulduggery on the go over the Mosul oil fields in 1914; the First World War had some if its causations here. Winston Churchill made no secret of acquiring not only the Mosul fields (which lie under Kurdish lands) but all of the oil in Iraq...In 1913, one year before WW-I broke out, the British government increased ownership in the Turkish Petroleum Company, completely shutting out the Turks who controlled the Mosul area which is Kurdish-owned land.

Now we know why seventy years later the Bush administration showed so much concern for the Kurds. The concerns over the fate of the Kurds were acts of sheer hypocrisies. Turkey struggled for fifty years to get back what it had lost in the Mosul region, not that Turkey owned it in the first place—it is the homeland of the Kurds.

How about the rights of the Kurds? Stirred up to revolt against the Turks by British Intelligence MI6, the Kurdish rebellion of February, 1925 ended in the deaths of thousands of Kurds and the execution of their leaders. The Kurds experienced generations of uprisings, never suspecting that their supposed mentors were indeed the cause of their problem.

Nothing has changed since the 1920s. In the wake of the Gulf War, U.S. intelligence agencies provoked the Kurds to revolt against Saddam Hussein. They did, and were promptly abandoned by the U.S. government when the rebellion failed. The Kurds still sat stubbornly on the land over the most valuable Mosul fields. [H: Does this remind you of how the U.S. betrayed Greece at Cyprus? How about in Hungary? Readers, these are powerful PLAYERS! They believe themselves to be the strongest in all Heaven and Earth—and in part, they ARE. Why do we DARE write on these things? Because it is nothing new and you may as well know what YOU ARE UP AGAINST IN ANY ATTEMPT AT BREAKING FREE. In a sick sort of way I do them a favor in informing you for they fully understand their position on Earth—they don't have much pull in HEAVEN, but then, neither do many of YOU. How much hope do you find in your reasoning minds for the "Freemen" in Montana saving the day and living happily ever after? Get out of LA-LA-LAND and into the play, readers; you cannot win through WAR!]

The wholesale slaughter of Kurds going on in Turkey and along its borders with Kurdistan (northern Iraq) is an absolute disgrace. The Kurds are being exterminated because of the oil greed of the U.S. and Britain. They have long lusted after the rich prize of the Mosul. Turkey entered into its new agreement with Israel on the promise of being rewarded a piece of the Mosul, once the Kurds are finished off—just as the Armenians were slaughtered when Turkey tried to grab the oil-rich Karabakh region—with the blessing of the United States.

Just as the war against the Kurds has intensified because of lust for the Mosul oil fields, so are the Armenians experiencing a new wave of terror for the oil in Karabakh. When the desperate Armenians, on the verge of starvation, approached the U.S. for help, they were told by Margaret Tutweiler of the State Department they would get no help: "We cannot permit a violation of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE) principles without strong condemnation."

At last in 1992, the Turks saw their long yearning for the control of Mosul coming closer to reality. But unlike the Armenians and the Kurds, they could see that Turkey was being used by its London and Washington mentors. The glittering prize of the Mosul totally blinded the government in Ankara.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now it would appear there might well be interest into the subject of Lebanon also, since Lebanon is under siege. What will now happen that the NEW power is in Israel? Well, perhaps the Shadow knows but I would suspect that all of you can guess pretty accurately the outcome of all nations regarding Israeli confrontations.

[QUOTING from the same source, WIR, April 1996:] [H: Thank you, John. Your work has continued to excel and surpass that of any other publication claiming "inside" information.]

LEBANON UNDER SIEGE

There is more to what meets the eye in the current war raging between the Hezbollah and Israel over the so-called "exclusion zone" occupation of Lebanon. The "zone" unilaterally established by Israel and which Hezbollah says is merely an Israeli excuse to occupy part of Lebanon, has long been a bone of contention. "I know of no other country in the world where the United States endorses and encourages occupation of one nation's territory by another and then sanctifies such illegal occupation by favorable treatment and backing, political and financial, of the aggressor nation," said Hassan Nasrallah. "Hezbollah has repeatedly stated that it would cease attacks on Israel if its forces would withdraw and end this unlawful occupation of Lebanon," he added.

My source in intelligence monitoring of economic events told me that the current round of fighting has as its ultimate goal the destruction of Lebanon's economy and an end to its bid to become "Swiss bankers of the Middle East", a goal it was fast realizing. "Israel has always feared competition to its export trade from Lebanon and is using the current fighting to deal a mortal blow to Lebanon's booming economy," he said. This is sad, because Lebanon has been struggling for many years to overcome the effects of the invasion by Israeli forces in 1983.

Speaking on French television, Lebanon's President Hraoui said that Israel continues to defy a United Nations resolution to get out of Lebanon. He also disclosed that he had offered to place 35,000 Lebanese soldiers along Israel's border with Lebanon, once the Israelis left Lebanon. "We told them (the Israeli government) that we would stop any and all attacks against Israel coming from this region," he added. The Lebanese ambassador to Washington also mentioned the offer, which, he said, has thus far been declined by Israel. He concluded that Israel will have to come to understand that their presence in Lebanon is the reason why Hezbollah attacks have increased. "If you have an occupation the occupied will resist," was the gist of his remarks on French television.

ISRAEL

There are voices being raised in Israel for the recall of former Defense Minister Ariel Sharon, who was put out to pasture following the withdrawal of Israeli forces at the end of the war that began 1983 with the invasion of Lebanon. Sharon appeals to certain sections of the Israeli political scene because of his willingness to use massive military fire power against any nation he perceives as a threat to Israel. Muzzled and kept on a leash for years, Sharon's revival may not be that far off, and if he is recalled we may expect to see a much wider conflict come out of the present struggle by Hezbollah to dislodge Israel from its self-proclaimed "security zone", he told me.

According to Seth Gittel, a Jewish reporter, Sharon told him, "Israel is in a war in Jerusalem, in Tel Aviv, along the northern border." Gittel says that "a recent rash of suicide bombers has put the spotlight on Mr. Sharon." Another Israeli writer Rael Isaa, said, "He (Gen. Sharon) has a proven record, better than anyone else's in dealing with terror. I don't think there are any questions about that."

Gittel quotes Sidney Zion, a Daily News columnist as saying, "Prime Minister Peres must make Mr. Sharon his tsar in the war against terrorism. There is a longing to get a guy in there who will know how to deal with this issue. People want the thing to end. You can't have a country where you can't even walk on Dizengoff Street." Commenting on what Sharon thinks, Gittel writes:

"When asked what he would do to end violence, Mr. Sharon, a member of the Knesset, zeroed in on the "B" areas where Israel shares responsibility with the Palestinians, Arabs. Israel should immediately regain full control of these areas, exactly according to the agreement (The Oslo Agreement). I think severe steps would be taken against the terrorists, the infrastructure of Hamas and the Islamic Jihad... the military side of the organ of these forces, the political leadership, the spiritual leadership, the financial organizations."

"We know the targets, we have to act... I don't believe this international meeting will save even one human's life, because most of the things are known. Altogether it seems this international conference, which will take place one day, is more in order to help Mr. Peres win the elections." Complaining at having been silenced and sidelined for all of these years, Sharon said, "I believe that I could have been a real help to solve this problem. I think I've got more experience than anyone else in this field, but I was not asked."

Sharon says his main task is to help Benjamin Netanyahu win the election, "because the main goal is to remove this dangerous government... It is the current government that ties the hands of the army and security services because of the agreement that they signed." [H: There you have it readers, AND the new election of this week!] If Sharon is returned to power, look for a rapid escalation of hostilities which is likely to spread through the entire Middle East like an out-of-control brush fire.

The Jewish Telegraphic Agency (JTA) reports that serious in-fighting between Orthodox and Reform Jews in Israel has spilled over to the United States. The JTA report states:

In another salvo in the battle between Orthodox and non-Orthodox leadership over religious plurality in Israel, Rabbi Eric Yoffie called for the Israeli government to dismantle the office of the chief rabbinate. "The chief rabbinate is a foreign implant established by the British (in pre-state days) to gain greater control over the Jewish population," Rabbi Yoffie said. "It is now part of the corrupt political and religious bureaucracy. The chief rabbinate has no legitimacy, no religious standing in Israel. Have the truly distinguished rabbinical leaders of Israel in recent years served as chief rabbis? No. Because it's all a corrupt political process," said Rabbi Yoffie. [H: Well goodness, now, good American and World readers, listen to what the man says because it is as with the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) of B'nai B'rith—IT IS A BRANCH OF BRITISH INTELLIGENCE!]

LIBYA

In the face of repeated accusations that Libya was involved in the bombing of Pan Am 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland, the People's Congress—Libya's parliament—voted to keep Colonel Abubaker Younes as its defense minister and chief of the armed services. Col. Muammar Qaddafi is concerned about preserving the so-called "second generation" of the revolution in top posts in his cabinet.

These men are now in their 40s and 50s and they are unswerving in their loyalty to Qaddafi. Chief of the Revolutionary Committees is Mohammed al Mabzub. The Security Battalions which patrol all cities and which are equipped with the best equipment Libya's oil revenues can buy, are under the command of Khalifa Ahneiche while the Jamahariya Security Agency is under the command of Col. Abdallah Sanussi al Migrahl.

Clearly, Libya's leadership is upset by the continuing threats against its security, the latest coming from the U.S. Secretary of Defense William Perry who claims that Libya is building some kind of an underground nuclear facility near Rabat. As far as the U.S. Constitution is the law of the land, it does not allow for the kind of threat BEING MADE BY PERRY AGAINST LIBYA.

RUSSIA

All the big guns are being thrown behind Boris Yeltsin. Like Peres, facing a crucial election in Israel, Yeltsin must win in June. If Yeltsin fails, it will be at total disaster for Clinton, while even if Peres does not make it [H: And he didn't.], Clinton's strong alliance with leaders of the two main political parties in that country will see him through. Hence Clinton's trip to Moscow and the meeting of G7 held in the Russian capital a few weeks ago.

Though not on his public agenda, Clinton will try to find out what is going on at the huge complex under control of the military, said to have been "recently discovered", presumably by the NRO and the NSA. WIR subscribers will know that this is not a new facility. In March, 1995 WIR gave a good deal of information about what the Russians are doing in this regard. [H: I will remind you how to get WIR at the end of this writing.] [see box on p. 14]

The latest intelligence report we were expecting concerning the Russian facility allegedly just recently discovered by the U.S. did not arrive in time for this issue. It will appear later. I believe this complex is being used to carry out advanced chemical and biological warfare experiments, work on the megajules transmitters and even hydronuclear testing.

MEXICO

A secretive Carlos Salinas, former president of Mexico and chief architect along with George Bush of the NAFTA trade agreement is apparently in semi-seclusion in Ireland. Salinas was accosted by a reporter for the Mexican newspaper Reforma when he attended a board meeting of Dow Jones stockholders of which he is a member. The Reforma reporter asked Salinas point blank, "Where are you living now?" To which Salinas responded, "I live in Ireland now." Reforma has repeatedly accused Salinas of conduct that did harm to Mexico during his term of office and his name is today reviled throughout Mexico, where the country's economy remains on a knife-edge.

With the murder of Jose Arturo Ochoa, the Zedillo Administration is in deeper trouble than ever. Ochoa was shot several times while jogging in a Tijuana park on Wednesday, April 17th (1996). Ochoa was the lead investigator into the murder of Louis Donaldo Colosio and the affairs of a former prosecutor, Mario Ruiz Massieu, said to have benefited from large "donations" from Mexican drug trade kingpins.

SYRIA

There is much diplomatic activity centered on Syria mostly in an effort to bring a halt of the dueling by Israeli 155 mm artillery and 500 pound ariel bombs and Katyusha rockets fired by the Hezbollah. Katyusha rockets are supplied by Iran which turns out a version of the type developed by the Soviets during WW-II. The rockets are fired in salvos from mobile launchers. Generally, they are notoriously inaccurate and make more noise than their warhead has punch. Unlike the U.S.-supplied 155 howitzers, they can only be aimed by pointing the launch vehicle in the direction of the target. The present fighting is a result of a breakdown of the Hezbollah-Rabin 1993 agreement when the parties agreed to stop shelling civilian targets in both states. It seems that Hezbollah began to escalate attacks on the northern border of Israel, after moving its bases out of reach of Israeli gunners, but not their bombers.

Israel has to seriously consider withdrawing from the so-called "occupied zone" to avoid direct confrontation with Syria. If there is progress in this direction then there is hope that Assad will call off Hezbollah fighters and come to terms with Israel. According to my source, this sticking point is one of the main reasons why Warren Christopher's shuttle visits to Damascus have thus far come up empty-handed. Assad will also have to make significant concessions if a trade-off is to be arranged and my sources say the price for an Israeli withdrawal from the occupied zone will be costly in political terms for the Syrian president.

GREAT BRITAIN

Prime Minister John Major is hanging onto power by one vote. A recent bi-election saw the Tory candidate defeated by a huge margin. It seems as though John Major will be obliged to call for general elections in a few weeks, because two Tory MPs have threatened to quit the party. If they do, that would be the end of the Major government.

[END OF QUOTING]

I think it must be apparent that we have access to information, readers, but we don't plan to carry this load along without support. We have to make choices as to what material we publish and it is, confound it, difficult for my writer to be shot at, bashed and badgered, and then go forth and tell you the insider news. Until Green got greedy we had Dr. Coleman as a neighbor, literally, and supplied him and his computers, etc. Green even GAVE the computer setup, which belonged to Phoenix Institute, purchased by Ekker specifically for John, and then when John took the gift away with him, let John take the brunt of the "removal of property". Indeed, Green fails at almost every test of integrity and loyalty. I cannot help the confrontations of others against one another—I can only accept what are the choices of individuals. It seems John had enough problems without getting the shaft from Green, however. He (John) certainly did know where to hit back—but alas, that too, fell to Ekker-Ekkers—but, readers, Ekker-Ekkers are getting a bit tired of the tedium and insult upon their senses and property—AND I PLAN TO FULLY HELP THEM PUT A HARD STOP TO THIS GARBAGE ONGOING FOR EIGHT YEARS.

There is an old Biblical saying that needs attending: The Christ is supposed to have said, "Deny me and I shall deny you to and before my Father". So be it and consider it done! I don't have to go very FAR to pull that off for we weary of the evil in intent calling upon the name of God to save their sorry assets. And to you who cling to that dying vine: A PERSON IS KNOWN FOR THE COMPANY HE KEEPS AND THE MASTER HE SERVES!

* WORLD INTELLIGENCE REVIEW (WIR), 2533 N. Carson, Carson City, NV 89706.

I apologize, readers, for having no further information but I should explain to all of you that the information does not come directly from John. It is sent to "me" via Australia. We are indebted to Mr. Smith. We have standing permission to use any of John's work and one day before long perhaps we can reward him greatly for his risks that YOU might KNOW. It is certainly NOT an easy task to be "a messenger" in this age of Kali. While you check out WIR, please check out the books written by Coleman. Because of security there is NO CONTACT AT ALL with John or any of his connections and Dharma. There is great respect and, for now, that suffices.

Thank you, Dharma, for a long, long day. And to you who disbelieve that I am who I AM, I suggest you go right on with your games—AND MAKE MY DAY! This doesn't sound like God either? So be it, you worry about God and I shall worry about me—but THEE had possibly best consider worrying about BOTH ME AND HE! My wings, precious, shall give you rise and we shall fly beyond these bindings. Man plays his silly games and clips his own wings of glory. So be it for this too shall pass as all things pass and become but memories on a screen of KNOWING. Please, to all of you beloved friends: KNOW THAT I AM! Salu.

FOREWORD

I STOOD ASIDE

by Alyn H. Denham

I stood aside and silently watched while the once greatest, most civilized and most humane nation in history was converted into a jungle.

I stood aside and silently watched while this "Land of the Free and Home of the Brave" was conditioned by traitors to seek peace at any price... even at the price of independence and freedom.

I stood aside and silently watched while our courts pampered and our media glorified wanton criminals.

I stood aside and silently watched while our universities were taken over by Marxist Professors, and by misguided students with not the slightest understanding of the civilization they have inherited, or the evil forces by which they have been duped.

I stood aside and silently watched while our religious institutions were transformed into cesspools of liberalism and unGodly teachings.

I stood aside and silently watched while our government leaders conspired to enslave millions by reshaping free societies into despotic one-party dictatorships.

I stood aside and silently watched while liberal hucksters, using our television media, our motion picture screens and our news stands, brought about a breakdown of morality that is reducing Americans to the level of lower animals.

I stood aside and silently watched while basic human loyalties, ...Loyalty to God, Loyalty to Country, and Loyalty to Family... were destroyed by evil forces that now permeate every segment of American life.

AND NOW, I HAVE HAD ENOUGH! I AM ONLY ONE PERSON, BUT I SHALL NO LONGER HESITATE TO SPEAK OUT OR GET INVOLVED.

How much longer will YOU stand aside and remain silent?!

There is little I can say that is not said above regarding your position in life as it is passing by your sleepy eyes. How much will you miss while your eyes are focused on Atlanta in late Summer? Do you think the people in Justus, Montana are watching the "Summer Games" today? I can promise you that they are NOT.

Since legislatures and politicians cannot dictate morality, do you not think it is time to stop standing aside and silently watching and take up your pens and express dismay at what you have become as a nation? You will feel ever so much better for having had at least ONE outspoken opinion out of the confusion of mindset.

6/3/96 #1 HATONN

Because this will be a very short week for writing and long on other mind-boggling judicial harangues, let us get part of Calvin Burgin's book to use as this "Foreword" and also to allow us to not get too far in arrears in offering this information. I want you to realize that we are always asking that you gain knowledge and WISDOM, not take up arms. If, however, you stand forth and speak—let it be with informed knowledge and not just more lies and false perceptions.

A lie which is foisted off by good men in their false beliefs does NOT A TRUTH MAKE! Slavery exists when and where MAN does not KNOW truth.

THE HOAX OF JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY

by Calvin C. Burgin

[QUOTING, PART 5:]

CHAPTER 4

SOME ORIGINAL BELIEFS

CATHOLIC (universal) PAGANISM

The Roman Catholic religion is a nearly perfect copy of the older "pagan" religions, substituting "Christian" names, with it's pontifex maximus, college of high priests, cardinals, primates, archbishops, bishops, parsons, curates, priests, vestals/nuns. One order of ancient pagan priests, now called chaplains, was originally called parasati (parasites). In the original Aramaic alphabet, PRST could be spelled PREIST or "PARASITE"; it was the same word either way.

[H: I hope that you who believe Dharma and myself to be anti-Jewish will carefully read this bit of research into truth because if you have ignorantly dubbed us "anti-Semitic" (which actually means of the Angel realms), you err if you connect the term with "Jewish".]

The Original Bible Project, headed by James Tabor of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte (Tabor was the consultant to David Koresh of Waco, helping Koresh translate his description of the Seals of Revelation), and Robert L. Kuhn, (yes, as in Kuhn/Loeb) are now making an up-to-date translation of the Bible. James D. Tabor is an associate professor in the Department of Religious Studies at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte; has taught at the University of Notre Dame and the College of William and Mary; has been quoted as a Biblical language expert by US News & World Report, Wall Street Journal, New York Times, The Jerusalem Post, Time Magazine and Biblical Archaeology Review. You can contact him at The Original Bible Project, 408 S. Pasadena Avenue, Suite 4, Pasadena, CA 91105. I have been involved with The Original Bible Project from before its official inception, going back 20 or 30 years. The project was conceived by Ernest Martin, who was my pastor, because he saw that the Bible was badly translated and needed to be corrected. Martin is often mentioned in Biblical Archaeology magazine.

They have recently completed a preliminary new translation of the Old Testament. In this translation, Gen. 4:1 says, speaking of Eve's comment on the conception of Cain: "I have gotten a man by YHVH", then the footnote says the Hebrew literally says with the help of YHVH (1 Chron. 2:18), showing that the Hebrew literally says that YHVH (elsewhere defined as Satan, 1 John 3:12) got her pregnant. Verse 2 says, "And she continued to bear his brother, Abel," then the footnote says, "The expression possibly implies that they were twins." How could a black child and a white child be twins? The only explanation (unless it is a total hoax) is they had the same mother at the same time, but had different fathers! Cain was the original Tammuz, as this word means "twin", and later shows up as Thomas (Tammuz) and in the New Testament as Thomas Didymas "Thomas the Twin". Is this THE TRUTH, or is it messed up? The preachers do not dare tell you the truth about what these scriptures actually say, so they have to argue over "interpretations".

Among the Dead Sea Scrolls is a document called The Genesis Apocryphon. This is translated in a book called The Dead Sea Scrolls in English and on p. 216: "Behold, I thought then within my heart that conception was due to the Watchers and the Holy Ones... and to the Giants... and my heart was troubled within me because of this child. Then I, Lamech, approached Barthenosh [my] wife in haste..." She then protests that the child was not conceived by an angel/Watcher but "...that this seed is yours and that [this] conception is from you. This fruit was planted by you... and by no stranger or Watcher or Son of Heaven..." Here is more proof of the fact of angels (Watchers, aliens, extraterrestrials, or whatever you wish to call them) giving birth to half human, half alien children. Or facts of the perceptions of such events. Most of the Dead Sea Scrolls have been locked away for over 40 years in the Rockefeller Museum in Jerusalem and their contents have never been revealed to the public. I have documents from people who say that the reason for this is that the contents have to do with extraterrestrials dealing with humans, and with flying "saucers", and give proof that the Jews are NOT who they claim to be. The information would upset Jews, Christians, scientists, everybody; so for the "good of mankind" they have been kept secret. The documents that are now being revealed to the public have had 40 years of secret manipulations—who can trust their translations? The translators themselves are highly brainwashed!

BEASTS OF THE FIELD

The Bible speaks of "beasts of the field" as being different from animals, as having hands, as speaking and worshipping God, etc. These "beasts of the field" should have been translated as pre-Adamic humans! Apparently, Adam and Eve were NOT the first humans, they were merely an advanced type of human, who were to RE-plenish the earth!

In Gen. 1:24, 25; 30; 2:19, 20, etc., the "beasts of the field" are presented as different from the cattle or other animals. In Gen. 3:1 Satan is said to be "more subtle" than any other "beast of the field". Does this mean that Satan is smarter than a mule? Or does it mean that Satan is a very smart "beast of the field"? or what?

In Gen. 2:19 God brought the "beasts of the field" before Adam to see if a suitable wife could be found. Do you really think He brought a toad, giraffe, elephant, warthog, even a monkey to Adam to see if he found them attractive? Could this be a bad translation of what was really going on here?

In Gen. 3:14 beasts of the field are presented as different from cattle, and in Verse 15 it says that there would clearly be two genetic lines with enmity towards each other, the seed of the woman (Eve) and the seed of the Serpent! If you think you understand what the seed of Eve was, then explain to me what the other "seed" was that was to be the enemy! Oh, I have heard all the attempts by preachers to "spiritualize" the explanation. There are two, and only two, genealogies given before the Flood, the serpent/satanic seed of Cain in Genesis 4 and the authorized "seed of God" through Seth in Genesis 5! Read it! These genetic lines got mixed up through race-mixing, so God destroyed humanity with a Flood, except for Noah whose "generations" were "perfect", according to the ancient stories.

The Hebrew word for "cattle" or four footed beasts is "behemah". The word for pre-Adamic humanoids is "chayyah", a word which means a living being and sometimes, but not always, can include sub-human animals.

Job 5:23 speaks of the beast of the field being at peace. Dan. 4:16 tells of Nebuchadnezzar being given the heart of a beast, in Dan. 5:21 it says that other beasts fed him like they feed oxen, in Hosea 2:18 God makes a covenant with the beasts of the field separate from creeping animals, in Zephaniah 2:14 it is said that beasts make up nations, etc. Jere. 31:27: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will sow the House of Israel and the House of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast." What is this "seed of beast" that is being mixed with the "seed of man"?

The Bible is not at all clear on what the "beasts of the field" really are, but in view of other information it seems likely that has purposely been doctored to hide the truth, the truth of what the original documents said, which may or may not have been in themselves true.

MORE BEASTLY EXPLANATIONS

The "seedline" preachers say that in some instances when the Bible speaks of "beasts of the field" it is referring to nonwhite humans. Some say this is really getting far out! But what about Gen. 1:24: "And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so." It would seem that "living creature" and "cattle" and "creeping thing" would just about cover everything, but then the Bible adds "beast of the earth". The Hebrew word here translated "beast": is "chayyah". Psalms 74:19: "O deliver not the soul of thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked..." The Hebrew for "multitude of the wicked" is again "chayyah", here referring to humans and in other places translated "beast". Strong's says the term can be translated "alive", "beast", "company", "congregations", "troop", etc. [H: Oops! And "cult"???

There are several Hebrew words translated as "man", which confuses the issue. For instance, Psalms 90:3: "Thou turnest man [enosh] to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men [adam]." Ezek. 34:31: "And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men [adam], and I am your God, saith the Lord God." Deut. 13:13: "Certain men [enosh], the children of Belial...." Prov. 28:5: "Evil men [enosh] understand not judgment..." Gen. 2:7: "And the Lord formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man [adam] became a living [chaiyah] soul."

A HATED DOCTRINE

"Ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake" (Matt. 10:22). "Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake" (Matt. 24:9).

These are but two of the many scriptures saying that true disciples of God will be hated and persecuted. Are you a Christian? If you answer, yes, then I ask you, are you hated and persecuted, is anyone trying to kill you? If not, what's the problem? [H: Perhaps you are only a SEMI-CHRISTIAN?]

Look a little closer. "Then shall THEY deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall KILL you: and ye shall be HATED of ALL NATIONS for MY NAMES SAKE." I ask you, what people, who have the name of Christians, are hated, persecuted and KILLED for their beliefs? You may answer, oh, the Christians are hated by those rotten A-rabs, the Islamic nations even persecute and kill Christians. If I had asked you this question a few years ago, you would have said it was the Communists that were persecuting and killing Christians, but nowadays the former "commies" are our "friends" and it is the dirty rotten camel-jockeys that kill "us Christians".

Who are "THEY" in Matt. 24:9 that "...shall KILL you"? "They" are not Arabs (and frankly, 99% of Americans do not even know what an "Arab" is), but are identified a few verses earlier (v.5) as "many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." It is the MANY (false, deceiving) teachers of Christ, that come in Christ's name, who persecute and KILL the true believers!

How can this be? you ask. What people claiming to be Christians are persecuting and killing other Christians? No such thing exists, you say. The sad fact is, this situation really does exist and most people are totally unaware of it. Just ask the friends and families of Gordon Kahl, Randy Weaver, Richard Snell, the list could go on and on but most of the names would mean nothing to most people. One thing these names and more I have not listed all have in common is the fact that they were all persecuted at one time or another by people claiming to be "Christians".

Something else common to many of these persecuted people is (or was) a belief in varying degrees of a doctrine commonly called the "Seed of Satan" doctrine. This is a belief that Satan produced physical offspring through Eve and Satan's fallen angels produced offspring through human females at the time of Noah.

I have read much literature condemning this doctrine, yet without exception the writers who condemn the doctrine obviously do not even understand the doctrine in the first place, and thus are certainly not qualified to disprove it.

ADAM And EVE

Genesis 1:27 tells of God's creation of male and female man, and v. 28 (He) commands them to "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth." My Random House College Dictionary says "plenish: to fill up, stock, furnish and replenish to make complete or full AGAIN". So for Adam and Eve to REplenish the earth, there had to be humans or humanoids before them, right?

Therefore Eve may not have been the mother of ALL the races, as it generally is taught. As a matter of fact, the word "Adam" (See Strong's Concordance, #119, 120 & 121) means "to show blood (in the face), i.e., flush or turn rosy". The word "Adam" could only have applied to the white race, other races do not flush (blush). If you check Young's Concordance, you will see that the word "Adam" is sometimes translated "be ruddy", "be dyed red", "be red", "be made red", etc. The word "Edom" is a variant of "Adam" and also means "red". Gesenius' Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon to the Old Testament, which is coded to the numbers in Strong's Concordance, says, "to be red, ruddy" and says, "The Arabs distinguish two races of men; one red, ruddy, which we call 'white', the other 'black'."

Unger's Bible Dictionary under "Adam" says "the first man... (Heb. 'adam, red; hence adamah, the ground)".

Josephus, Ant. Bk. I, Chap. I, v. 2 says "This man was called Adam, which in the Hebrew tongue signifies one that is red, because he was formed out of red earth..."

Gen. 1:27: "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them." The word here translated "man" is the Hebrew word "adam", so Eve was also called "adam" (Gen. 5:2: "Male and female created He them; and blessed them, and called THEIR name Adam...") [H: So how do you like them apples so far?] Adam and Eve, per the Bible, were clearly of the white (or more accurately, RED) race. Later in the Bible the word

"man" means mankind in general, and includes various races, women, and children. Nowadays, the word "man" is considered by some to be a sexist term. [H: So just how do you think the NEXT TRANSLATIONS will read?]

Eve COULD have been created with the ovum necessary to give birth to the different races, but there is no proof of that. The Bible clearly says "kind" reproduces after "kind" and for the white couple to produce a black child would seem to be violation of that natural law. The question then comes to mind, what is the origin of the black races? Of course, if a white and a black were to cross-breed, then the progeny could be either or somewhere in between.

Nevertheless, some insist that all races came from Eve: "And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living," (Gen. 3:20). I think you will agree that this verse does not really mean she was the mother of ALL living (was she mother of bacteria, worms, elephants, flowers; you get the point?). What you probably don't know, though, is that there is some doubt that Gen. 3:20 is even part of the original manuscripts. The Moffatt translation of the Bible, for instance, puts the verse in double brackets, and explains in the introduction that double brackets "denoted, throughout the entire Old Testament, passages which are either editorial additions or later interpolations". Frankly, if you can face it with an open mind, the evidence seems to indicate that the god of Adam and Eve was the creator of white (or red "ruddy" red faced, probably red-headed also) race. But let's look at some more data before you start making decisions.

[END QUOTING OF PART 5]

Is this look at historical FACT somehow a meaningful "hate" campaign against what other people you don't reflect? Of course not, for you cannot judge anything or discern correctly, anyone, if you don't have the slightest idea of what the TRUTH of presentation might be. Does THIS somehow mean that the "White" is somehow worse or better than the "Black"? What B.S.! There is absolutely NOTHING upon which to base such foolish consideration! MAN is in the IMAGE OF GOD-CREATOR. GOD CREATOR IS LIGHT! HE IS ESSENCE OF ENERGY IN AN ARRAY OF THE MOST PERFECT VIBRATION OF ALL COLORS, ALL TONES, ALL THINGS AND ALL BEINGS. THAT CANNOT BE DESCRIBED AS WHITE OR BLACK OR IN-BETWEEN. GOD IS! It doesn't matter worth an ice cube in Hell what I might "druther" have it or YOU might "drather" have it. GOD IS! And by the way, BROTHERS, you had better start looking around you for when the snit hits de fan, you had better be wishing you had made some "OTHER" possible decisions about your own standing!

Yesterday we had a small meeting to share some thoughts and we had some visitors who respected us enough to come and share an hour or so in friendship. They were of a different color than are most of those present (YOU CAN'T KNOW FOR SURE WHAT COLOR AM I) and it was so necessary to have shared reverence with them as "brothers" in the logical sense of the word—"fellow humans". Dharma is having to FACE the fact that someone VERY CLOSE is betraying her at every move—while these people cared enough to come and share in respect and reverence for, at the least, our own brotherhood one to another.

I'm sorry that local problems must be discussed at any meeting we might have but that is the only real reason WE, AROUND HERE, have meetings. We can then share other topics but we don't have a church, or a gathering, or a cult, or a regularly-set meeting. We just ARE and those who wish to share whatever is the topic are welcome to "break cookies" with us.

I found the report of a person yesterday quite fun and would share: It was said, "I always sleep through anything and especially through lectures or speeches—but I am a bit angry for I couldn't even doze off and tune out the truth." How many of YOU are "just angry" with US because we interrupt your sleep? When we interrupt your heart-soul perceptions then, and only then, will we have offered worthy material for your digestion.

And Dharma, please dear, remember that in all relay races—someone has to carry the baton for the FIRST few laps before the race is even under way!

Good morning.

BETRAYAL

He who would betray a "friend" was NEVER a friend! Moreover, that one would betray his own Mother, Sister, Father or Brother.

From the very doctrine of equality and liberty and humanity comes our belief in the brotherhood of man, through the Fatherhood of God. Within God there are no bindings of ritual or fraternity of oaths and prattlings—only the truth of trust, faith and friendship. When that brotherhood is broken by even the most thoughtless deed, the trust is forever broken, while replaced with suspicion and doubts in ALL further connections.

Ye who would betray us to suit some need for your own concern or, "I'll show you..." attitudes are not kept covered by those you serve—for THEY TELL ALL, AND BOAST OF THE CONQUEST OF YOUR INTEGRITY.

I remind all of you who would read this writing that NOBODY can abide a snitch for they, too, know that you will as quickly betray them to whom you tattle. The one who sent legally private documents to the opposing legal "takers" are less respected than the outright thieves for there are NONE left who will trust you—especially those you served. This should always be considered because, in the ending, everyone needs someone upon whom to lean and share. To move in with ones who claim unconditional love while they destroy and hate are but players of charades to betray YOU also. Proof of this statement? You have already been "told on" and tossed into the arena. Just remember also that juries do not like liars, fakes, or snitches—either. Remember it well for forgiveness is not in consideration here, remembering lessons is of all importance. To ask forgiveness to simply continue to cover the misdeeds is silly around these parts for no one is NOT FORGIVEN even before the act. Forgiveness of SELF may be considered, however, for the deed and damage is done when in the "thinking" stage for the thought is THE measurement of God—the acts only the silly, or wise, whichever, of physical people.

Beyond all in considering your actions as in serving information out of context, and when you tamper with client-attorney privilege—you SERIOUSLY err for YOU become the criminal in action and the judge will toss you out of court. If, however, your intent is to bring hurt and damage to Dharma, for instance, you succeeded but not for the reasons you might think. She realizes that when you betray HER—you betray GOD for she serves no other team. Most of all, however, you betray SELF and those who have trusted you and abide with you.

Don't flatter yourself that friendship authorizes you to say disagreeable things to your intimates. The nearer you come into relation with a person, the more necessary do tact and courtesy become.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

We shall turn to the next chapter in our ongoing presentation which is entitled FALLEN ANGELS. It seems appropriate somehow. We can only hope the deeds bring joy into your consciousness as you ponder your own worth as a friend and team-mate. I know that, when you betray anyone here, the intent is to betray ME. Well, I do not wish to longer look upon your countenance for I can never trust your intentions—either. You shall have to learn your lessons in the ignorance of your own narrow opinions—of self. Go with those who sit and share their tricks and proclaim, falsely, their innocence while the proof of their trickery is all over the public desks and documents in the failure of their own integrity. Go forth and share with those ones for they shall appreciate your cleverness and give you accolades for your wisdom in choosing evil intent as your actions as you join into their brotherhood. When you betray your own brother there is nothing left over which to argue or even discuss. It is the time of "sorting" of selves into your chosen categories of growth—in or out of goodness, loyalty, honesty, integrity and direction of travel while in this brief state of perception. You will end up walking quite alone for the one you betrayed is ever more your friend than those to whom you served up the betrayed. They will NEVER want you among them for they know that if you will betray the good, you will more quickly betray the wrong intenders when THEY cross you for the cover of their own greedy, guilty deeds. Remember always that those who practice in ungodly matters expose a more pious countenance and prattle than ever could an honest and goodly person struck dumb by the attackers. YOU shall pay dearly who betray anyone for you can serve up excuses for actions but SELF knows—SELF ALWAYS KNOWS.

[QUOTING, PART 6:]

CHAPTER 5

FALLEN ANGELS

A TREE IS A TREE IS A...

Gen. 2:17 says Adam and Eve were not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Does a tree have knowledge? Was this a real tree or was it symbolic of something else? When someone says the Bible does not really mean what it actually says, I generally say, "hold your horses" (well, something like that). It has been my experience that most often the people who say that really mean they don't like what the Bible says and therefore will re-interpret it into whatever they want it to say. This is what has created so many different churches. Yet, I have to agree, that sometimes the Bible really is speaking symbolically and not in a literal sense.

What about in this case, does the word tree ever mean anything except a literal tree? Ezekiel 31, starting in verse 3: "Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.... Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field... and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.... The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty. I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him. Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because thou has lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him... all the trees of the field faint for him. I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in nether parts of the earth. They also went down into hell with him unto them that he slain with the sword... to whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God." [H: Now, Editors, please don't tamper with the writing above—it is, after all, from the Holy Bible in exactness and there could not possibly be error. (???)]

This gets a bit hard to follow for most people, but I am specifically writing for the "educated" preachers and hard core, Bible-studying Christians who take to heart the command to "study to show thyself approved unto God". These verses in Ezekiel are comparing the Pharaoh of Egypt to "the Assyrian" who was a tree in the Garden of Eden, a reference to Satan according to the commentators. This is another example of how the translators lie, for the Hebrew actually does not say "the Assyrian", it says "Ashur". The Ferrar Fenton Bible correctly translates it: "You saw Ashur was a cedar in Lebanon....the cedars in the garden of God could not hide him..." If you will check Strong's Concordance, you will find that word translate "the Assyrian" in the King James Version is the word "Ashur", see Strong's #804 and #806, the exact same word as translated in "I am that I am", the Ashur who gave Moses the ten commandments. Thus saith your inspired Masoretic text word of God. Bullinger's Companion Bible note on this verse says "the Assyrian. Ginsburg thinks this should read ashshur" and in the preface to his Bible says, "In the Old Testament all the important readings will be given according to Dr. C.D. Ginsburg's Masoretico-Critical Text of the Hebrew Bible." [H: Right there you have your information that the "Bible" is not a "Christian" book—it is a Hebrew book.]

The rebellious angel we know as Satan the Devil, the "tree" in the Garden of Eden (the fruit of which caused Eve to become ashamed of her body), was the god who gave Moses the 10 commandments! Like it or not, that's what it says and I DARE you to check it out. But don't check it out to prove me wrong; I would hope you check it out to determine what is the truth! Can you face the truth?

Satan (Ashur) is being talked about in Ezekiel 31, and he is presented as a tree in the Garden of Eden that was cast down to hell into the pit. In Isaiah 28:12, Satan is represented by the King of Tyre, and is pictured as "Thou sealest up the sum, FULL OF WISDOM, and perfect in BEAUTY. Thou has BEEN IN EDEN the garden of God... thou was upon the holy mountain of God..."

Isa. 61:3 tells of people who become "trees of righteousness".

So we see that the word "tree" CAN apply to a person, and the Bible specifically speaks of Satan as a tree in the Garden of Eden, and says his name was Asher if you have eyes to see. If you study these mentioned chapters, you will see they are speaking of the rebellious Satan who was pictured as a tree in the Garden of Eden, full of wisdom and beauty, who was envied by other "trees" and other NATIONS, indicating there were other nations in existence at the time Satan was in the Garden of Eden. Although we usually say "Garden OF Eden", actually the Bible speaks of the "Garden IN Eden" (Gen. 2:8), indicating Eden was bigger than the Garden. When Cain was expelled from Eden, he went to the land of Nod, where he married someone who was (possibly) already there in a land or nation that already had a name. When God sent Cain away from Eden, Cain complained that "every one that findeth me shall slay me." Why would Cain say that, if he were being driven out into the wilderness where no one else lived? "And the Lord set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him. And Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden. And Cain knew his wife..." If Cain were driven into an uninhabited wilderness, why did it have a name, and where did he get his wife?

Not only did he find a wife, but the same verse says he built a city! Who helped him build the city—did he build it all by himself? Who occupied the city, his wife and children?

Of course, we "know" that it was an uninhabited wilderness, so we reason around and come up with possible answers. But do we REALLY KNOW what we THINK we know, or are we overlooking the truth and reading something into the scripture that is not there? One preacher, who wrote an article condemning the "seedline preachers", made a big deal of accusing them of practicing what educated preachers called "eisegesis" (reading something into the text that is not there). That word is so esoteric that it is not even in many dictionaries. Why do so many preachers try to impress the world with big words (I myself execrate such prehensible habitude and eschew the exorbitant obfuscation of eschatological exposition, electing the more pragmatic use of the exemplificative exemplum)? [H: Me too! And doesn't it sound like an attorney in full blossom?] Name-calling is another favorite practice of this love-your-neighbor-or-die crowd. These addeleated nincompoops have been sucked in by Satanic brainwashing and spew out slop (do I sound like a preacher?).

WHAT WAS EVE'S SIN?

In Gen. 3:3. Adam and Eve are forbidden to eat of the tree "in the midst of the garden... Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die." The next time the word "touch" is used in the Bible is in Gen. 20:6 where it refers to Abimelech the King of Gerar being prevented from having sex with (touching) Abraham's wife/sister Sarah.

The Hebrew word "naga" which is here translated "touch", according to Strong's Concordance #5060 is a euphemism for "to lie with a woman". Prov. 6:29: "So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent." Also see #5066, "nagash", which also is a euphemism for "to lie with a woman".

[H: Into every language, remember, these words have to have translation, so what do you have when, say, a Lakota Sioux translates or uses his language to describe "naga"? The word used in that language for "the Spirit, soul, essence" is "NAGI" and sometimes is spelled in represented English as "naga". Can you possibly begin to realize that translations can do what deliberate TAMPERING can never accomplish? Take BOTH, however, and you end up with a tool of Satan himself!]

Anybody reading Genesis for the first time will wonder why eating a fruit they were told not to eat would make Adam and Eve ashamed of their bodies. It seems obvious that there is some kind of sexual sin involved here. Having illicit sex has always been classified as eating "forbidden fruit".

Then the question arises, did Eve have sex with Satan? Some feel that this is the obvious explanation of the situation. Others are too highly brainwashed to even consider such possibility. I do not know for sure what the truth is, but I am willing to pursue the possibilities, including the possibility that the whole story is a total fabrication. All I know for sure is that SOME-BODY IS LYING.

Above I said that "nagash" (Strong's #5066) means "to lie with a woman". Eve was beguiled by a serpent, which in Hebrew is "nachash", Strong's #5175. Another meaning of "nachash" is "enchanter" or "seducer". Eve said, "The serpent (nachash) beguiled (nasha - Strong's #5377) me" which seems to be a play on words. Strong's says "nasha" means "seduced". Interestingly, Strong's says another meaning for "nasha" ("Beguiled") is to "lend on interest" or "exact usury". I'm not a Hebrew language scholar, but it certainly appears to me that these words have a common root, and that they have to do with sexual sin.

SO WHO WAS CAIN'S FATHER?

"And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the Lord. And she again bare his brother Abel" (Gen. 4:1,2).

The "seedline" preachers say that Cain was the son of Satan's seduction of Eve. "Mainline" preachers say that this verse plainly says that Adam was the father. I say that we should not eieio, er, what was that word, oh yes, eisegate. Does this verse say Adam was the father? Perhaps only Eve knew for sure who the father was, and she blamed it on the Lord. [H: Oh, don't we all blame everything we do on the Lord, from tornados to self-destruction?] Do you think Adam bought it? Now if the verse had said "Adam begat Cain," there could have been no argument. The Bible is full of "begats" but the word is not used of Adam until 5:3: "And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth."

Please take note that when Cain was born, Eve said, "I have gotten a man from the Lord." In almost the same breath, the Bible says, "She again bare his brother Abel." Nothing is mentioned about another conception, just that she gave birth to Cain then she gave birth to Abel. Could Cain and Abel have been twins? There is a very good possibility that they were, in the original story, and some scholars have indicated such. But notice what was said of the next son: "Adam... begat a son in his OWN LIKENESS, after HIS IMAGE, and called his name Seth." It was not said of Cain that he was in Adam's own image, and saying that of Seth indicates a contrast to what was said of Cain.

I suggest that, if we assume the story to be true, there is a very real possibility that Cain and Abel were twins, with the same mother and different fathers. If you know your biology you know that, while relatively rare, this is something that can and does occur. Eve was specifically created to "be fruitful". Cain may have been the son of Satan and may have been dark of color, part of the reason for the friction between Cain and Abel. The Seth line continued on down to Noah, who was "perfect in his generations" (Gen. 6:9). Bullinger's Companion Bible says "Heb. tamim, without blemish as to breed or pedigree" then in Appendix 26 he explains that this refers to genetic perfection, not moral perfection, and says, "This shows that Gen. 6:9 does not speak of Noah's moral perfection, but tells us that he and his family alone had preserved their pedigree and kept it pure..." Gesenius (#8435) says the word "generations" means RACE. Let's tell it like it is, shall we: it means Noah was not polluted by race-mixing. The other line listed in the Bible at that time, the line of Cain, was genetically crossed or, in the words of the professors, "polluted", and was destroyed by the Flood. [H: So NOW, let's look at the possibilities which destroy, TOTALLY, the assumption of so many who would set "White" above "Dark" races—how so do you account for the fact that once destroyed there is "again", if nothing more—a great MANY Dark people—both in the sense of dark intent and dark skin? Could it be that nobody yet has it RIGHT?] The fact that the Bible says Noah's pedigree was pure and for that reason he was saved from the Flood, is proof that the other pedigree was mongrelized (mixed) and thus deserved to be killed. [H: Is that what you WANT your BIBLE to teach? Do you believe it to be truthful? HOW DO YOU KNOW? OH, WHO TOLD YOU??? Was it Jerry Falwell who proclaimed, "I am a Zionist and proud of it!" and nagas with prostitutes? How about little Jimmy Bakker who just sort of perverts around and now writes again his sick memoirs? The time of finding out TRUTH is passing quickly, readers, very quickly indeed. He who dies in the lie is destined to repeat it!]

Wake up, people, if you are not too far gone already! God destroyed the world once for race-mixing. THAT IS, IF YOU WANT TO CONTINUE TO BELIEVE EVERYTHING YOU READ IN THAT BIBLE AND BELIEVE THAT IS WHAT THE BIBLE ACTUALLY SAYS. Frankly, I believe (and remember that what I "believe" means nothing, especially to YOU) that the story of Adam and Eve is all messed up and is probably not true at all. I am not preaching race hatred; I am searching for TRUTH. We take pride in the pedigrees of our Clydesdales and Appaloosas, our Afghans and our Chihuahuas, even our chickens and our pigs! But we seem to lose our sanity when we turn to human breeding, especially if we are white by some quirk of our parent's decisions. This race thing is all messed up now, and probably was also back "in the beginning".

I remind you, Ezek. 31:3: "Behold the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon..." then in verse 8 it says "The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him... nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty." We saw that this represented Satan in type as a tree in the garden of God (also called the garden of Eden in verses 16 and 18) who was later cast down into hell and the pit (v. 16). Get out your concordance and you will find the word "Assyrian" in from the Hebrew "Asshur" or "Ashchuwr" then look up that word (Strong's #806) and you will see that the word means "Black", from the root word (Strong's #7835) "shachar" which means "to be dim or dark in color—be Black". This Asshur was the God of Moses! Think about it! [H: Now let us consider that Cain may well have been "Black" and of another race from Eve—does that mean that all "Black" people are cursed and responsible for ill-deeds? Of course not, it only means that if Cain was a bad kid, Cain was a bad kid. Until you can stop your bigotry, people, you can't even BEGIN to step into the true realms of Creator, or the Source, Overmind, ALL. There is simply no way to work in a position, be it laboratory scientist, or whatever, to fill the task requirements if you are stupid or refuse to do your lessons! I also beg you to remember the creed of the great and foolish Mensa Society writer, Jason Brent: "People may as well get used to the FACT that the elderly, infirm and stupid must be dispatched" (killed).]

Gen. 3:14: "And the Lord God said unto the serpent: Because thou has done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between THY SEED and HER SEED; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel."

This is the "Protevangeliem" as taught in the seminaries. Don't you love these big words? Seminaries are the same as other trade unions, with their secret words, languages, rituals, ceremonies, etc., reserved for their elite.

Protevangeliem: "the first gospel". Many preachers agree that the promise of the seed of the woman in verse 15 refers to Christ (see Gal. 3:16) as a physical descendant of the woman, but nearly everybody overlooks the part that says that the serpent (Satan) would also have physical seed. Or should we say that one part of the verse is literal and the other part is figurative?

"Oh, come on, try the Apple"

Isn't that fudging? Henry Morris, in The Genesis Record, explains it another way: "Neither Satan, who is a spirit, nor the woman would be able to produce actual seed; only the man was created physically to do this. These two seeds, therefore, must refer primarily to spiritual progeny" (p. 121). For some reason, most women have a hard time accepting that only men can produce seed. Perhaps because the dictionary says "seed" means descendants, offspring, children, ovum, etc.

1 John 3:12: "Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother" (KJV). "We must not be like Cain; he belonged to the Evil One, and murdered his own brother" (Today's English Version). "Do not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and murdered his brother" (New International Version). "...not to be like Cain, who belonged to the Evil One and cut his brother's throat;" (Jerusalem Bible). "...unlike Cain, who was a child of the evil one and murdered his brother" (New English Bible). "We are none of us to have the spirit of Cain, who was a son of the evil one and murdered his brother" (Phillips Modern English). Excuse me, am I eieioing again, or does the Bible say that Cain was son of the Evil One?

[H: I personally would hazard a big guess and say that there is absolutely no way to tell just WHAT is said for if no "bible" says the same thing—all save one, OR NONE, are correct!]

CAUSE OF FLOOD

In Genesis 6, we read "And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them. That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. And the Lord said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years [from the time God spoke, until the Flood. This may have nothing to do with the normal lifespan of man, as some commentators say]. There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. [H: Does anything sound a bit pithy and self-appreciating—if you happened to be one of these "heretics"? "The Gods found the women to be fair..."? Say what? Does this mean that there are no fair women in the Godly realm and just how could an etheric being have "naga" with a physical being? Does this not sound like the prattlings of rather foolish MEN?]

And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

"And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God." [H: Well, perhaps God just liked Noah's generosity to animals that he would build a boat to hold a whole bunch of them—being true to his "generations". Maybe Noah's boat never happened and perhaps Noah was only being an example of a bigot's pen? You cannot know from the history books called "bibles" for MAN makes the instructions books HIS OWN TOOLS! We could, in fact, debate the phrase "walked with God" for thousands of pages. Did Noah actually walk WITH God? Did God toddle along with Noah? Did Noah get arrested for conferring with extraterrestrials? How about "touching" extraterrestrials? Where did the Southern Texas Catfish come from? Did Noah take it aboard his dry boat two by two? I think you might be like our good friend in Florida and consider the

"two by six" across the mid forehead to get your attention! It becomes quite obvious that a "two by four" is not large enough for some of you!]

Why should God destroy the world, because people were eating and drinking, and marrying and giving in marriage? [H: Oh yes, THAT is WHAT it says.] Is eating or drinking worthy of sinful death penalties? Is marriage a sin? Some say that these verses are merely expressions meaning that people were "doing their own thing" and ignoring God, going their own way. [H: Golly gee whiz, that is WHAT God does and allows—Man going his own way, learning his lessons, and growing—good or bad. Should God destroy all things and all people because YOU were a bad boy? Does that actually sound like an intelligent thing to do or even, for that matter, the actions of a GOD-CREATOR? GOD-CREATOR CREATES—DESTROYERS DESTROY!]

If God destroyed the world for that reason, then he should have destroyed it BEFORE Noah, and should have destroyed it a million or billions of times, since then. The only explanation that makes sense is the term "sons of God" refers to "fallen angels". Angels sometimes are shown to eat and drink, and appear as human men. Job 1:6 tells of the sons of God, the same words used in Genesis, including Satan, reporting to God in Heaven: "Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them." Job 2: "Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also..." These sons of God were present at the creation of the world. Job 38:7: "When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy."

"STRANGE FLESH"

Jude 6 tells of the "angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation" and as a result "He hath reserved (them) in everlasting chains under darkness unto judgement of the great day, Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and GOING AFTER STRANGE FLESH, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." [H: Can you people ACTUALLY BELIEVE that God's angels seek after a "roll in the hay" with a cute little bunny-hopper? Are you so blind as to think and then actually believe that God would destroy a world for the sins of a few jerks who have no moral credibility and abuse women, fornicate and rape? Would it not be a bit more likely that you nice people would be blamed for the dirty-minds and hands of the unGodly? You know what I mean: "...she asked for it by the way she dressed and smiled..." Well, friends, a whole bunch walk with Satan—and few walk WITH GOD! How can I pronounce such a conclusion? Because you don't have the vaguest idea of what is or who is—GOD! Neither do you know what is or who is—Satan! One is of Spirit-Flesh and one is OF SPIRIT—yours!]

The Greek word here (and only here) translated "habitation" is "oiketerion", Strong's #3613, from the root "oikeios", Strong's #3609, which Strong's says means "those of his own household". Now, friend, look up the word "house" in Strong's Concordance, find the entry for 2 Cor. 5:2 and you will see that the Greek word here translated "house" is Strong's #3613, exactly the same word translated "habitation" in Jude 6. Now let's read 2 Cor. 5:2: "For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked." These are the only two places in the Bible where this Greek word is used, and it refers to the physical and spiritual body. It does NOT refer to a building, a location, a situation, or any of the other false explanations of the term. The Bible plainly, in the original, says that the (fallen) angels left their own bodies and went "after strange flesh". Vine's Exposi- tory Dictionary of New Testament Words says that the Greek word translated "habitation" means "figuratively of the spiritual bodies..."

The Greek Diaglott says the words translated "strange flesh" are really "flesh of another", "sarx" (#4561) "heteros" (#2087). Strong's says heteros means "other or different". There is evidence that the humans were doing the same thing in principal as the angels were doing—the humans were going after "strange flesh" by having sex with animals (as well as with angels).

Some brainwashed preachers say these verses mean "God-fearing men married the daughters of men who did not fear God." Many commentators use this explanation, simply because they will not face-up to the truth of what is said. This is a stupid, sexist, explanation. How come the men were righteous, and the women were not? Since when did mixed-faith marriages produce aberrant "giant" offspring?

In 2 Peter 2:4, Peter writes of these fallen angels: "For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell (Tartarus), and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgement; And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly..."

The fallen angels were taking human wives and fathering giants (IF we take the story at face value). They were also eating and drinking, which was forbidden for them and thus a sin for them but not for humans. Some preachers say it is not possible for angels to reproduce with women, but the Bible only says that they do not marry in Heaven. It does not say they cannot reproduce, it only says they are not allowed to marry in Heaven. Besides, if human men are involved here, why were they giving birth to giants and mighty men? Genesis 6:4: "There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth... And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth... And the Lord said, I will destroy man... But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord... Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations [Noah's genetic line was not polluted by the fallen angels. However, some of the wives carried the latent genes of the fallen angels and giants appeared for some time after the flood]. [H: Wow! What a bunch of hogwash.]

After all, God reproduced through a human woman [H: Didn't he? Read on...] and she gave birth to Emmanuel, whom we call Jesus. We are of the same "kind" as God, just as are the angels. "Of whom [God] the whole family in heaven and earth is named" (Eph. 3:15).

Is it possible for "angels" to have sex with humans, and produce offspring? Both Josephus (Antiquities of the Jews, Book I, Chap. 3, v. 1) and the Septuagint, the Bible of the time of Christ, plainly say that fallen ANGELS were giving birth to giant men. They do not say "sons of God", they say "angels". This was the clear understanding prior to and during the time of the early Christians.

BOOK OF ENOCH

Further proof that the common perception was that fallen angels were fathering children with human women is given in the Book of Enoch. Enoch 6:1,2: "And it came to pass, when the children of men had multiplied, in those days there were born to them beautiful and comely daughters. And watchers [angels, see Daniel 4:13, 23], children of heaven, saw them and desired them, and lusted after them; and they said one to another, 'Come, let us choose for ourselves wives from the daughters of earth, and let us beget us children.'" [H: Boy, this doesn't bode well for God fathering a child with a virgin later on to clear up the matter of infidelity, does it? Could there be something missing in the MAN's speculation about how things might be? WHO ACTUALLY WROTE THE WORDS IN THE BIBLE? GOD ONLY "SPAKE" AND THAT MEANS "MAN" DID THE SCRIBBLING—BEING PHYSICAL, YOU KNOW. WHAT DO YOU PEOPLE DO WITH THOSE WONDROUS "BRAINS" GOD GAVE AS A MOST WONDROUS GIFT? GOD HAS NO NEED TO PLAY AROUND WITH HIS PRIVATE PARTS TO GET A KICK OUT OF LIVING—THAT IS A TRUE MARK OF MAN "THE BEAST". YOU make your choices about what you do with those silly toys of yours and to write myriads of Bibles to cover your lack of discretion and your foolish actions is insipid.]

Enoch 7:1-4: "These (leaders) and all the rest (of the two hundred watchers) took for themselves wives from all whom they chose; and they began to cohabit with them and to defile themselves with them, and they taught them sorcery and spells and showed them the cutting of roots and herbs. And they became pregnant by them and bore great giants of three thousand cubits; and there were born upon earth off-spring. These devoured the entire fruits of men's labour, and men were unable to sustain them. [H: Poor little helpless men sucked into the mire by the wicked spirits who "made them do it"—ah, perchance "the Devil made me do it"?] Then the giants treated them violently and began to slay mankind." [H: I could also consider that the only slain men around are slain by MEN, not by Gods. Ah, but is it not HANDY to blame the gods, of whatever color or caste?]

Granted, Enoch is not part of THE Bible, but Jude considered it worth quoting from. We saw above that Jude told of the fallen angels "going after strange flesh". Jude 14 and 15 are direct quotes from the Book of Enoch. Jude said he was quoting from Enoch (Jude 14). If Jude did not believe Enoch to be true, he would not have quoted from it. Parts of the Book of Enoch were found among the Dead Sea Scrolls (dated to 100 B.C.), proving that our modern copy is the same as the ancient one, and by comparing it to what Jude said, it proves he was quoting from it. This is explained in Bible Review magazine, 1987, Vol. III, #2, article "Don't Let Pseudepigrapha Scare You." In the same issue is an article called "When the Sons of God Cavorted with the Daughters of Men", in which the author, Ronald S. Hendel, says "For thousands of years this story has scandalized the grain of our traditional understanding of biblical religion. But the story is there, and since it is, perhaps our traditional understanding is what's wrong." Hendel is assistant professor of religious studies at Southern Methodist University. [H: Ah, and perhaps he knows our own friend, the expert witness, Lonny Kleiver who studied Dharma and our experience? Dr. Kleiver pronounced us "real" and you will find that HATONN has a file in the security department of the United States of America which is so top-level security as to be ABOVE THE LEVEL OF ATTAINMENT OF THE FILE BY THE PRESIDENT! CHECK IT OUT! Doesn't it scare you as to WHO might then have access to such information? Ah so.]

1 Peter 3:18-20: "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins... by which also He went and preached unto the spirits in prison; Which sometimes were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing..." This says that while Noah was building the ark, Christ intervened and locked these particular rebellious angels in a condition of restraint (Tartarus, translated as hell in the King James Bible) until their time of judgement. [H: How can this possibly square away with "Jesus"? Noah was a long time BEFORE the Man in Galilee.] During the days of Noah they further disobeyed, as is evidenced by their being locked in Tartarus. What was their additional sin, if not the sin of taking women? The Bible clearly (in the original languages) says what their sin was if you are not too prejudiced and brain-washed to see it.

ANGELS OR DEMONS?

One preacher said, "Seedline preachers tell us that the 'sons of God' were angels... They assume that because the expression 'sons of God' is used of angels a few times in the Old Testament, it must be speaking of angels in this passage. However, they entirely overlook the fact that the expression 'sons of God' (or Children of God) is used far more often of HUMAN BEINGS—particular God-fearing human beings—than of angels. Further, it never seems to occur to seedline proponents that 'sons of God' is hardly an appropriate expression for demonic spirits!" (emphasis his) It seems totally appropriate to me to call demonic spirits "sons of God", since that is what they are, and that is what the Bible calls them. May I remind these preachers that the words "demon" or "demons" are not in the Bible; the rebellious angels are called ANGELS and SONS OF GOD.

In the scriptures that existed during the time of Christ, what we call the Old Testament, the phrase "sons of God" occurs in only these places: Genesis 6:2 and 4, the verses we have just read. Job 1:6 and 2:1, where the sons of God "came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also..." And Job 38:7, while God was creating the earth, "When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy." That's it, folks. Those are the only places the phrase "sons of God" is used, and it ALWAYS means angels. You might want to include the "Son of god" used in Daniel 3:25, speaking of an angel in the fiery furnace with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Can you show me any place in the Old Testament where the "sons of God" refers to humans? Switching from Hebrew to Greek and including the Greek terms for "children of God" is cheating and does not count. Where in the Old Testament does the term "sons of God" EVER refer to humans (with the exception of the created son of God, Adam)?

There is one more verse I want to mention. Deut. 32:8: "When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel." Since Israel did not exist until long after this, and this is speaking of all nations (not just Israel), this verse does not make sense. However, some authorities have recognized this problem and use a different reading: "...according to the number of the Sons of God" (Revised Standard Version). "He assigned the realms of the nations to the various deities" (American Translation). "...how one by one he fixed the folks, each with its guardian angel" (Moffatt). "...he set the bounds of the nations according to the number of the angels of God" (Septuagint). This appears to me to be saying that each nation has its own god or angel.

A fragment of Deuteronomy was found among the Dead Sea Scrolls which contains this text and it says "the Sons of God". Dead Sea Scroll texts use the words "sons of God" also in Duet. 32:43 and in the same verse also calls them "angels of God". So here are two more uses of the term "sons of God", and they clearly refer to angels. Bullinger's Companion Bible says "This is why angels are called 'sons of God' in every other place where the expression is used in the Old Testament... We have no authority or right to take the expression in Gen. 6, 2, 4, in any other sense."

[END QUOTING OF PART 6]

I want you to consider WHO tells you not to read my presentations? Oh? Could it be the ones who have decided in their opinion WHICH of the myriads of "VERSIONS" of a bunch of MAN-CHOSEN documents to shower upon your thoughtless minds? Note that the versions foisted off onto your non-thinking brain apparatus are NOT EVEN REASONABLE.

I can tell you right now that I have more respect for the THINKING adversary than for the brainwashed and still dripping, sheeple of the Lies. Does this NOT sound like a teacher of God? How would you know when you can only believe the garbage dumped upon you from the opinions of usually "guilty of perversion" men? "Perversion" also means "evil" in its most true perception because perversion, like evil, is simply that which "draws or pulls you away from your passage TO GOD OF LIGHTED TRUTH".

Always, readers, take careful note of that which you do in the secret darkness of desire to NOT be discovered—and you will find the "fallen angels" and I would suggest that you may well find yourself among MEN, not angels at all. Angels DO NOT FALL—they DELIBERATELY do that which they do and, please, stop confusing the two ideas. The Devil can't make you do anything—in Spirit. If you allow him to mark your soul—that becomes YOUR problem as well. You can call the words anything you choose—just know that concept and meaning are not changed by your opinion.

Thank you. Good morning

[QUOTING, PART 7:]

CHAPTER 6

KNOWLEDGE FROM THE ANCIENTS NEPHILIM

The word "Nefilim" stems from the Semitic root NFL which means "to cast down". The word "nefilim", which is left untranslated in Genesis 6:4 in some versions of the Bible, means "those who were cast down upon the earth", or in other words, it means the fallen angels. Young's Concordance says that the word "naphal" (from the root NFL) means be cast down, fall, fall down, be fallen, etc. These "sons of God" who were marrying "daughters of men" and producing giant children were fallen angels, what some now call demons. Strong's Concordance says the word "nephilim" (#5303) comes from the root #5307, "naphal", which he says means "fall" or "cast down", and says the Chaldean equivalent (#5308) means "fall down". Don't take my word for it; look it up and prove it for yourself.

Ronald Hendel, in the article previously quoted, says "nephilim literally means the 'fallen ones'" and said they were "half god, half human".

Think about what that means. The fathers of these beings COULD FLY! At one time, they attempted to take over God's throne (according to the story). They were there when the earth was created! They knew about what we now call Australia and America. They knew how many planets were in the solar system. Noah talked to these beings. He knew them personally. He was one of them! The Babylonians said they learned about astronomy from the Sumerians, and the Sumerians were Noah's family! Either this is true, or the stories are not true and you may as well throw away your Bible.

In studying the archaeology of ancient Sumer and Babylon, you will find many statues and carvings of larger than normal men, some of them being depicted with wings. THESE WERE REPRESENTATIONS OF REAL PEOPLE. People such as Gilgamesh, Utnapishtam, etc., really existed, and the so-called myths telling about these people were based on real events and facts. The ancient cuneiform tablets say that Gilgamesh was part god and part human. This was the truth, in the fact that his ancestor was an angel (fallen) and his mother was human. Again I say, this is the truth IF you believe the stories.

C. Leonard Wooley was one of the world's foremost archaeologists. He wrote a book called The Sumerians in which he showed quite clearly that when Egyptian civilization was just beginning, Sumerian civilization was already old. He directed the excavation of Ur of the Chaldees and found many cuneiform tablets. Among his finds were lists of the kings of Sumer. Larsa list #1 gives the names of one line of kings BEFORE the Flood! I shall list them here in the following order: Name, city, and length of reign.

The tablet says, "When kingship was lowered from Heaven kingship was first in Eridu." Then it lists the following:

A-lu-lim, Nunki, 28,800 years.
A-la(l)-gar, Nunki, 36,000
En-me-en-lu-an-na, Bad-tabira, 43,200
En-me-en-gal-an-na, Bad-tabria, 28,800
Dumuzi "the shepherd" [thus was the original Tammuz],
Bad-tabira, 36,000
En-Sib-zi-an-na, Larak, 28,800
En-me-en-dur-an-na, Sippar, 21,000
(?)du-du, Suruppak, 18,600

Then the list says, "The Flood came. After the Flood came, kingship was sent down from on high." The Larsa list then continues with 23 more names of the kings of the First Dynasty of Kish, after the flood.

Samuel Dramer, in The Sumerians, Their History, Culture and Character, p. 92 said the Sumerians counted by sixes, not by tens. They had a particular character for the number 6, a different character for the number 60, and another character for the number 600. For instance, to express 3600, they used another symbol, not 6 x 600 as we do.

This 600, 60 and 6 can be traced from Sumer to Babylon and then on down to the Roman Empire ("Mystery, Babylon the Great" and "his number is six hundred threescore and six"). We still preserve this system with our 360 degrees in a circle, 60 seconds in a minute, and 60 minutes in an hour.

THE ANUNNAKI

[H: Yes, I really DO suggest you pay attention.] Zecharia Sitchin in The 12th Planet, which was the first of a series of books he wrote on ancient Sumeria, tells of stories that have been translated about the ancient Anunnaki. Who were these people the Sumerians called the Anunnaki?

Sitchin, in his second volume, p. 100, said the Anunnaki were "Those of Heaven Who Are On Earth". Christian O'Brien makes it plainer. Christian was head of the Iranian oil industry when he retired in 1970 and was an explorations geologist. He discovered and excavated the Tchoga Zambil ziggurat. He wrote a book called The Genius of the Few and on page 37 he says: "The Anannage [also called Anunnaki], therefore, were the Sumerian equivalents of the biblical Angels." There are THOUSANDS of clay tablets that tell of these ("fallen") angels. One group, the Library of Ashurbanipal, contained over 25,000 clay tablets, arranged in order by subject. Once you understand that these tablets tell stories about angels, you can learn some fascinating information about them. Most historians consider these tablets to be mythological stories and are blind to the reality of what is before them.

The fallen angels married human women and produced offspring called "giants", "Nefilim", and "men of renown" in Bible translations. Sitchin, p. 171, says: "What, then, does the term Nefilim mean? Stemming from the Semitic root NFL ('to be cast down'), it means exactly what it says: It means those who were cast down upon Earth!" The term apparently at times applies both to the fallen angels and the offspring they produced.

I had always been taught in church that angels could not have sex, and that no one knew for sure just what the Nefilim were. After doing my own research, I was surprised to learn that there are many thousands of written (cuneiform) records of these nefilim. Young's Concordance (and Strong's) says the Hebrew word "naphal" means "cast down", "to cause to fall", "be cast down", "fall down", "be fallen", etc., and Bullinger's Companion Bible in Appendix 23 and 25 gives plenty of proof that the "sons of God" in Genesis 6:2 were fallen angels and he says (p. 28 of Appendices) "nephilim, which means fallen ones (from Hebrew naphal, to fall)." [H: Perhaps one of your problems in visualization of the meaning of this message is in what you probably perceive rather than what is reality in presentation and manifestation. Do YOU think of these "angels" as flapping-around winged vapors? Perhaps if you think of them as becoming solid form, as in physical form, you might better understand the circumstances enough to get over the mystical magic of the moment and realize the possibilities inherent in truth.]

Bullinger also quotes the Bible: "There were Nephilim in the earth in those days (i.e., in the days of Noah); and also AFTER THAT, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men and they bare children to them, the same became (the) mighty men (Heb. gibbor, the heroes) which were of old, men of renown (lit. men of the name, i.e., who got a name and were renowned for their ungodliness)." When Bullinger says "men of the name" he is speaking of "men of shem" as he says shem means name, but Sitchin says it means space men or men of the rockets (or men of the planets, per Godfrey Higgins).

The Moffatt Bible says Gen. 6:1: "Now when men began to multiply over all the world and had daughters born to them, the angels noticed that the daughters of men were beautiful, and they married any one of them that they chose... (It was in these days that the Nephilim giants arose on earth, as well as afterwards, whenever angels had intercourse with the daughters of men and had children born to them; these were the heroes who were famous in the days of old.)"

The Bethel Edition of the Sacred Names Scriptures by Jacob O. Meyer says: "And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the ground, and daughters were born unto them, that the sons of Elohim saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all that they chose. And Yahweh said, My Spirit shall not strive with man for ever, for that he also is flesh, yet shall his days be a hundred and twenty years. The Nephilim were in the earth in those days, and also after that, when the sons of Elohim came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them; the same were the mighty men that were of old, the men of greater abilities than ordinary humans, they were not always of gigantic physical height, although they often were. Also, we count by tens because we have ten fingers and ten toes. Some (many, all?) of the Nephilim had six fingers and six toes on each hand or foot (see 2 Sam. 21:20, 1 Chron. 20:6), which would indicate why they counted by sixes and twelves, and is where we got our number systems of dozens, 12 (and 24) hours in a day, 360 degrees in a circle, why we buy eggs by the dozen instead of tens, etc. This is the ultimate origin of the "666" system of Satan.

One of the Nefilim was Gilgamesh, a prominent name in Sumerian and Babylonian literature. Another was Goliath, who was slain by David. In Genesis 25, the descendants of Abraham's other wife Keturah are listed. Verse 3: "And Jokshan begot Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim...." Young's Concordance says the word Asshurim means "mighty ones".

[H: This does get a bit far-fetched seeing that the UNUSUAL circumstance and considered "freak" is to have six fingers or toes and, if these descriptions be accurate, would there not be more people exhibiting 6 digits on hand and foot? Let us now consider the depiction of aliens (space) who seem to present with only three fingers and possibly a thumb. That would add up to four—so perhaps there is more to this story than is presented here. Let us see if and how this is accounted for as we move on.]

ANCIENT KNOWLEDGE

These fallen angels, called Nefilim (Nephilim, Naphalim, Nafalim, etc.) in the Bible and Anunnaki or Anannage [H: Goodness me, do you think "Anasazi" could fit in here somewhere?] in the clay tablets, passed on information to humans that was otherwise impossible for humans to know. One group of tablets told of three different ways of calculating distance between stars. Some told of Bode's Law, a "modern" astronomical law by which one can predict the orbit of planets. Our modern Zodiac was originated by these beings. They identified constellations in the Southern sky (as revealed by the ancient tablets), which they (that is, normal humans in Mesopotamia) could not have seen. The tablets show that they knew the world was round.

[H: Since these visitors seem to act pretty stupid and uninformed, having to count with toes and fingers, think ye that possibly there is more to this story of evolvment and placement than meets YOUR eyes? These seem to represent pretty primitive groups TO ME. Is it possible that groups are placed according to "grade level" growth in any physical manifestation? Some will grow and learn while some will remain in the ignorance of mythology, mysticism, drug cultures and act in robotic-prisoner fashion. Is it just possible that God Creator KNOWS WHAT HE IS DOING? To be worthy of Creator in greater knowing—there has to be a learning progression. In this sense any planet of physical dimension (third) will only offer that very dimension in order to complete the "course". These third-dimension planets are referred to by your term: Prisons. You can and could get "off" but you DON'T KNOW HOW! Your level of civilization cannot function in a higher place where intelligence, balance, and knowing prevail. You cannot put the second grade bully in charge of the blowing-up of the world. Oh, yes indeed, that is as far as you have gone, friends. You still reside in the world of plunking anything that will or won't hold still with your protuberances and call it fun regardless of the consequences to the "other" involved. You are still in the penile stage of development which is so primitive to the developed peoples of the cosmos as to find you disgusting.]

NON SEQUITUR

BY WILEY MILLER

Professor H.V. Hilprecht (The Babylonian Expedition of the University of Pennsylvania), after studying several thousands of tablets, said that "all the multiplication and division tables from the temple libraries of Nippur and Sippar, and from the library of Ashurbanipal (in Nineveh) are based upon [the number] 12,960,000." The precession of the equinoxes is called a Great Year and is a cycle of 25,920 years. The number 25,920 divides into 12,960,000 exactly 500 times. [H: Yes, and some apples are red, some are green and others are yellow. Some are even rotten.] This not only is evidence of their knowledge of the Great Year, but indicates that their numbering system was set up 12,960,000 years earlier. This is information that was "impossible" for the Sumerians to know, and was also totally useless information. So how did they learn it? [H: Perhaps the same way all useless information is conjured!]

The 25,920 cycle is also sometimes called the "Platonic Year," which means Plato knew about it. [H: Ah, but more important, did Socrates agree? Plato developed HIS OWN references—even to the Socratonian philosophy - by Plato.] He (Plato) no doubt learned it ultimately from the Sumerians.

One tablet identified as AO.648 (Sitchin, p. 197) lists the twenty six major stars visible along the Tropic of Cancer, and gives the distances between them measured in three different ways. One is measured by a unit called "mana shukultu" which means "measured and weighed". Compare this with the ancient Aramaic term "Mene" in Daniel 5:25, which means "God hath numbered thy kingdom" (v.26). Our word "money" can be traced back to the Sumerian word "mana" (through the goddess Moneta). The Sumerian term was related to the weight of escaping water over the passage of time. The second column of figures gave the distance between the stars in degrees of arc, and the third column gave the distance in "beru ina shame" each one of which was equal to 11,693 yards.

Ezek. 28:13 says that Satan was in charge of the earth and there was commerce going on, perhaps musical instruments were being made and gold and gemstones were being mined. Sitchin, The 12th Planet, p. 327, paperback edition, says: "The ancient texts described the Anunnaki as the rank-and-file gods who had been involved in the settlement of Earth—the gods 'who performed the tasks'," then he has several pages of quotes from the tablets about the mining activities that were going on, for gold and other metals and minerals.

Genesis 4:22 says Tubalcain was "an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron". Note that there was no such thing as a bronze age and an iron age—they were contemporary. There were bronze CULTURES and iron CULTURES, just like in modern Australia where there is, or at least was a few years back, a stone-age culture or pre-stone age culture along side a modern iron age culture (perhaps we should call it a steel age culture).

KHAR-SAG

According to O'Brien, the Garden of Eden was called Khar-sag in the tablets. Enoch 6:6 says: "Altogether, they were two hundred who descended in the days of Jared, on the summit of Mount Hermon." Jared was ancestor of Noah.

Kharsag [H: Doesn't that term sort of scare heck out of you?] was originally at Nippur, southeast of where the modern ruins of Babylon are now. Nippur was where the Garden of Eden was (according to most "authorities"). When they were driven from the Garden, Kharsag was moved to Mt. Hermon, a mountain on the northeastern border of Palestine near Lebanon and Syria. There is a modern village in Lebanon called Ehdin (Eden).

People have wondered for ages where the Garden of Eden was located. This POSSIBLE answer is simple when you learn that the word for "heads" in Genesis 2:10 is what we now call "mouths". People have been looking at the rivers backwards. Gen. 2:8: "And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden..." The Garden of Eden faced to the East, that is you had to enter on the East side and I think that is what this verse means. Gen. 2:10: "and a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads. The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone. And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia. And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates."

If you get a good map of Iraq, you will see a river to the right of the Tigris that intersects, best I remember, roughly about Basra. This was the Pison. If it is a really good map, you will see a Wadi to the left of the Euphrates that intersects at roughly the same area. This was the Gihon, and is now a river only when it rains. The Hiddekel is now called the Tigris. Havilah is located in Gen. 25:18 and 1 Sam. 15:7. The rivers entered Eden then came to a head into one river which then exited Eden into the ocean. The shoreline is much farther away today than it was back then, because of silting.

Ethiopia used to include Saudi Arabia. The Queen of Sheba, who was Queen of Ethiopia, actually lived in what is now called Yemen. My explanation of the Garden of Eden's location is only a possibility, and I have some doubts.

[END QUOTING OF PART 7]

I think this is a good place to break this writing for the chapter is too long to include in total in this writing. We will take up with the Epics of Kharsag when we again have time to devote to this topic.

I ask that all of you have patience before you draw undue conclusions.

You close to me have already been waiting for the return of the Anunnaki, haven't you? Well, own up to what you think! I weary of you hopping to conclusions and then denying that you did so. Does return of the Anunnaki mean the return of GOD'S PEOPLE (hosts)? Does the return of such as the Anunnaki mean return of Space cadets? Does it actually mean anything at all and will the Anunnaki even represent anything at all that you EXPECT? Are they nice people or dastardly dragons of some kind? Does ancient history make a thing "right"? Does contacting a spirit soul in another dimension mean you have a GOOD AND PERFECT contact? Of course not. Are you next going to turn around and ask GOD to deliver and save you from those awful (or goodly) Anunnakis? Do you remember the book that Nora writes ABOUT? It is called the Babylonian Talmud! You had better be finding out about these travelers because the "GAMES" are about to begin and it would behoove you to find out to which team you are assigned! Will you be on the Christian-Zionist Biblicist list, The Christian-Zionist Talmudic list, The Zionist Talmudic Khazarian list of disaster seekers, or just drifting in a stupor trying to chase rainbows and hug trees? This doesn't even include the Islamic, Hindu, et al. of all religions—just the ones you hear squeaking the most. Will your next raper be tall like Bush or little like Shamir? Will you have a Talmud to protect you, a Koran, a Torah, or a Bible of some kind like the hundreds of versions to thrust against your visitors—OR WILL YOU HAVE GOD? Oh yes, indeed, you DO have a choice. You who live in constant reference to the worldly greed and physical expression shall be consumed by it. It is exactly THAT SIMPLE.

It does not matter WHO IS RIGHT OR WRONG in assigning historical data to this one or that one—it matters only WHAT IS RIGHT AND WHAT IS WRONG AND WHAT YOU DO WITH IT. WHAT AND WHO IS god VS. GOD? A "god" will enslave you—GOD OFFERS FREEDOM. The choice is up to you individually. I can give you a clue as to recognition as to name versus truth—Aton and Amun are very different terms. One serves the physical and dark side of form—Aton is the One Light of Source. "G-o-d" is simply a label, nothing more. It is for identification just as is king, diety, jackrabbit or turkey buzzard. So why do we bother you with Sumerian texts and myths? Because it is a long time past WISE to not know your roots and your history! Trust me!

God creates and never "destroys". He can and does "uncreate" in that the doing is lost to all data—all recordings. GOD DOES NOT MAKE MISTAKES! You can KNOW you have error in source if someone touts that God said He erred in, for instance, making "man". GOD DOES NOT MAKE MISTAKES! MAN MAKES MISTAKES. GOD DOES NOT JUDGE—MAN JUDGES.

Will man change enough while casting off the evil intentions sufficiently to allow God to divert the planet of Bitterness from your place? We shall see for when the return of the brothers comes again it shall be a bitter cup indeed. And brethren, you cannot find your way if you have no idea where you want to go! You can lay quite comfortably on a bed of two-foot spikes if they be glued together in quantity enough—but to lie upon ONE two-foot spike in the area of the heart—you shall surely find pain and die. All you have gained in your failure to see and hear—is that you have accomplished the laying upon a bed of nails wherein you cannot note the offensive ONE which kills. You have become people upon a sea of ever-changing illusions and shifting tales which you come to believe simply because they are presented unto you. You fail to place your anchor in TRUTH so that you can stabilize and glean from the water your sustenance and LIFE. If your soul be not anchored in its source—it is but another dingy on the sea of shifting waters waiting in the lost vastness of the wilderness. Where do you cast your anchor this day? It behooves you to consider that very carefully. You can have a very long tether to your anchor and rise and fall as the tides wash in and out—but if you are solidly anchored you shall not drift far from your chosen station. May you come to use wisdom in all your choices.

Thank you and good day.

"OK, I agree these 100 commandments clarify your point of view, but I'm going to have circulation problems, not to mention the public's short attention span, so we'll have to condense them wa-a-ay-down."

Nevada Corporations

The Benefits Of Incorporating

WHAT IS A CORPORATION?

A corporation is an entity in and of itself and can be thought of as an artificial person, a child that resides in the state of its birth (incorporation). It has its own identity, rights and relationship with respect to the laws of its birthplace, separate and apart from its "parents," or incorporators. Further, a corporation is a distinct legal entity separate and apart from its members: stockholders, directors, officers and agents. Despite its separate identity, a corporation can not act "on its own", but only through its members.

A stockholder is the holder of shares of stock representing ownership of the corporation, and is isolated from liability in excess of his "share" of the corporation. A stockholder is not considered to be the employer of those working for the corporation, nor is the stockholder the owner of corporate property.

The corporate "child" is a citizen of the state in which it was created. A corporation does not cease to be a citizen of the state in which it is incorporated by engaging in business or by acquiring property in another state. As a creature of statute law, the powers of a corporation are derived from the statutes of the state in which it was incorporated. As an artificial person, a corporation is considered to have its "home", or domicile, in the state of its "birth" or incorporation. The "parents" of the corporation can live anywhere they choose, in any state or country.

A corporation is inherently immortal. The ongoing existence of the corporation is not affected by the death or bankruptcy of a shareholder, officer or director. The corporation remains immortal for as long as it conforms to the requirements of the state in which it resides, unless its owners choose to dissolve it.

WHO SHOULD INCORPORATE?

If you have ever wondered if you have anything to gain by incorporating, then the odds are high that forming a corporation could be a good move, or a great one.

If you are a consultant, a proprietor, a contractor, a renter, a property owner or a realtor, an investor, an entertainer, a vendor of any kind or a networker; if you want more legal tax deductions for your Import-Export business, your mail order business or almost any other kind of business; if you're an over-taxed professional in need of some relief, a doctor, a lawyer, a dentist, an accountant or CPA — in short, if you have any measure of control over your income, and your income is not earned solely in the form of employee wages — you probably should incorporate to take advantage of the tremendous benefits afforded only to corporations.

When To Incorporate?

Some say that you should only incorporate when the income of the business exceeds a certain level, or when potential liabilities are excessive.

The plain truth is that most people throw away thousands of dollars in lost taxes, unfortunate liabilities and opportunities before finally setting up a corporation. Indeed, with the very low cost of forming a corporation relative to its potential benefits, the real answer to this question is, most often, "yesterday".

LIMITED LIABILITY

Unlike a sole proprietorship or even a partnership, the corporate business structure provides liability protection to everyone involved in corporate activities, except in the case of outright fraud. The debts of a corporation are not the debts of the participants in the corporation, and faults of the corporation do not weigh against its members beyond the value of their investment. Officers and directors of the corporation are isolated from the corporation's liabilities.

Many strategies have been developed to protect assets of businesses with potential lawsuit risk. Other strategies have been designed to protect the assets of individuals from our increasingly litigious society.

TAX SAVINGS

Corporations are entitled by law to many tax deductions that are not available to individuals. Virtually any expense incurred in the operation of a business is deductible against the income of the business. Many of the tax benefits that accrue to a corporation can end up greatly benefiting corporate owners. In addition, corporations have a lower federal tax rate at all levels of income compared to individual rates.

The law states that it is the responsibility of each individual to structure their business affairs in such a manner as to minimize the amount of tax payable. The use of a corporation is very often the best tool available for accomplishing this end. While tax evasion is a serious crime, legal tax avoidance saving thousands of dollars in taxes is the duty of the individual. There are many proven and effective strategies that can be easily employed through the corporate business structure to save large amounts of taxes worth many times the cost of incorporating. Because the corporation is a creature of the statute laws of the state in which it is formed, it makes sense to incorporate in a state that does not tax its corporate citizens. There are only four such states in the United States today: Nevada, South Dakota, Washington and Wyoming. Other states that do not have an income tax have other taxes based, for instance, on the value of the corporation.

RAISING CAPITAL

Another primary purpose for a corporation is the function of raising capital for a business or a project. Corporations allow investors an opportunity to participate in the day-to-day workings of the business, and without liability beyond their investment. Through the sale of stock to investors, a corporation is able to raise capital at all phases of its life cycle.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

A corporation provides a well-defined business structure, as the articles and bylaws of the corporation precisely define the powers and limitations of power for the corporation and each of its members. The corporation's bylaws define the role of each of the officers. This well-defined structure has the advantage of eliminating many misunderstandings that could otherwise occur in the operation of a business.

WHY NEVADA?

NO TAXES

Nevada has no corporate or personal income tax, no franchise tax, no capital stock tax, no stock transfer fee or tax, no succession taxes, and no tax on corporate shares.

Nevada-based corporations are still subject to federal income tax, which is only 15% on the first $50,000

It's Tax Free Nevada (The last of the "safe havens")

If you're looking for the benefits that incorporating has to offer, such as limiting your personal liability, increasing tax-free benefits, and raising capital through the sale of stock—taking just 5 minutes of your time to explore the benefits of forming a Nevada Corporation could save you and your company thousands of dollars.

of income.

FINANCIAL PRIVACY

Nevada is a small state in terms of population, and makes no real effort to keep track of its natural or corporate citizens.

- State statutes do not require stockholders to register with the state.

- Nevada is the only state that allows the use of bearer shares for privacy of ownership.

- The state does not require a corporation to list the position of vice-president. A vice-president using bearer shares can have complete control and ownership while remaining anonymous.

- The Supreme Court of Nevada has consistently taken a very strong stand to protect corporate privacy.

In his 900-page book, Piercing the Corporate Veil, Stephen B. Presser, an attorney who specializes in such matters, devotes just 7 pages to the state of Nevada, with good reason. In his evaluation of the Nevada Supreme Court case of Rowland v. LePire (1983), Presser concludes:

"In that case there was clearly inadequate initial capital, the corporation had a negative net worth at the time of the trial, there were no formal directors or shareholders meetings ever held, no dividends were paid to the shareholders, nor did the officers or directors receive salaries. There was no corporate minute book, nor was there any evidence that minutes were kept..."

"...In such a case, it would seem, there is not an abuse of the corporate form of a kind calling for piercing of the veil, and use of the corporate form to shield the shareholders from liability is precisely what the corporate form is supposed to do."

NO RECIPROCITY WITH THE IRS

Unlike most other states, Nevada has steadfastly refused to exchange confidential information regarding its corporate citizens with the IRS.

UNBEATABLE LIABILITY PROTECTION

Nevada's laws insulate all corporate representatives from liability except in the case of outright fraud. The privacy inherent in Nevada corporations, and backed up by the state Supreme Court, takes asset protection to a new level. Strategic possibilities for asset protection through a Nevada corporation are almost limitless!

ONLY ONE PERSON REQUIRED

Unlike many other states, Nevada allows for only one person to form the corporation and to be all of its officers and directors.

OUT-OF-STATE INCORPORATORS WELCOME

You don't have to live in Nevada to incorporate in Nevada, and you don't even have to visit Nevada to set up your corporation—it can all be handled over the telephone.

The business of incorporating is a money-making proposition for this tax-free state, and the Secretary of State's office openly encourages out-of-state incorporations.

LOW COST

Annual fees for operating your corporation in Nevada are just $85, versus $1200 or more in a state such as California.

ESTATE BENEFITS

Many creative estate planning strategies have been developed to take advantage of the unique characteristics of Nevada corporations. Certain strategies allow an estate to be passed on to the heirs without going through probate.

Estate plans where trusts have traditionally been used can often be restructured more effectively using Nevada corporations. Remember, a corporation never dies — it just gets a new President!

NEVADA VS. "OFFSHORE"

Nevada is unique in that it not only offers a high degree of privacy, but also ready access to your capital that is not likely to be denied in even the most extreme turmoil that COULD develop in the world's financial markets. It is entirely possible that, in a real emergency, offshore funds would be inaccessible, depriving the owners of those assets the use of their capital precisely when they most need it.

By contrast, it is possible to set up voice-activated wire transfer of funds from your corporation's Nevada bank account, and many banks now offer inter-state banking services. For any situation where ready access to your capital is required, and especially if you wish to work with your capital, the Nevada corporation is THE answer.

BEATS DELAWARE HANDS DOWN

Unlike Nevada, Delaware: has a state corporate tax amounting to 8.7%; requires disclosure of the principal places of doing business outside of the state; requires the corporation to report the actual number and value of its stock; freely exchanges information with the IRS; and Delaware does NOT have bearer shares for privacy.

NO STARTUP CAPITAL REQUIRED

Nevada does not set any minimum amount required for startup capital.

GREAT PLACE TO VISIT & ENJOY

Exciting, sunny Las Vegas has long been a favored destination for relaxation and some fun in the sun. Who says you can't mix business with pleasure?

ADDITIONAL ADVANTAGES

- Directors need not be stockholders.
- A Nevada corporation may purchase, hold, sell or transfer shares of its own stock.
- Nevada corporations may issue stock for capital, services, personal property or real estate, including leases and options. The directors may determine the value of any of these transactions, and their decision is final.

Microwater™

Turn Your Tap Into A Fountain Of Wellness.

The Microwater™ Series One machine produces a healthful and refreshing high altitude, electron-rich, free radical scavenging, alkaline water. It also breaks up larger-clustered water. It is actually "wetter", and therefore able to go to more places in the body, nurturing the organs, while removing acid wastes, one of the causes of numerous diseases. This type of water is usually found only in high-altitude mountain streams, twisting and turning, bubbling over rocks, where it picks up its electrons. Microwater is alive, and it functions as a powerful antioxidant. In Japan, this water has been successfully used to treat high blood pressure, diabetes mellitus, constipation and diarrhea, acidosis, and a wide variety of skin conditions. Although we make no medical claims, try the water for yourself and see what happens.

And The New World Order

6/4/96 RAY BILGER

There is to be observed today a great unhappiness and unrest among the general population with the way things are in the world: wars, famine, disease, violence, plagues, murder, suicide, unemployment, hate, chaos and confusion, etc., in most places. It might actually be more accurate to say: unhappy with the way things have been intentionally created for us. It is most interesting to note (and this paper is an examination of it) that a mere 3% of the world's population has done (and is doing) this to the other 97% of us.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (hereinafter F.E.M.A.) was originally formed as a national executive branch agency at the very end of the Carter Administration. Its purpose was to do nothing more than coordinate national flood relief, hurricane relief, the Red Cross, etc. These various relief agencies would now all be under one umbrella to better coordinate their functions in the event of a national emergency.

After Ronald Reagan was elected to the presidency he installed Louis Giuffrida as the head of F.E.M.A. Giuffrida was an old cold warrior from Reagan's California days, whose specialty was supervision of unrest and dissent. Giuffrida, U.S.M.C. Lt. Col. Oliver North and Vice President George Bush began to turn F.E.M.A. into an instrument of domestic anti-terrorism.

During the early 1980s when plans were discussed for a possible direct military strike into Central America (remember the Sandinistas were running Nicaragua, with the U.S. supporting the Contras), there were concomitant plans for the United States involving domestic military exercises or a war games scenario called "REX 84", or Readiness Exercise, 1984. The operational plan of REX 84 was undertaken under F.E.M.A. The main rationale of REX 84 was to round up 400,000 undocumented Central American aliens, and then incarcerate them in ten military detention camps.

This plan was thoroughly rehearsed. However, if you have rehearsed the rounding up of half-a-million aliens, you have also rehearsed the rounding up of half-a-million critics of the administration or the government. We must remember that those who would conduct this sort of activity comprise a group of people who have equated political dissent with treason. It would appear they are apparently unable to differentiate between emergency procedures, which everyone agrees are necessary, and suppressing political dissent.

Recall, if you will, the Iran-Contra Hearings held by Congress and aired nationwide on television. At one point in the hearings, Representative Jack Brooks of Texas was questioning Lt. Col. Oliver North as follows:

[QUOTING:]

Rep. Jack Brooks:

"Col. North, in your work at the N.S.C. were you not assigned at one time to work on plans for the continuity of government in the event of a major disaster?"

Col. North's Attorney:

"Mr. Chairman!"

Sen. Daniel Inouye(Chairman):

"I believe that question touches on a highly sensitive and classified area, so may I request that you not touch upon that, sir?"

Rep. Jack Brooks:

"I was particularly concerned, Mr. Chairman, because I read in Miami papers and several others, that there had been a plan developed by that same agency, a contingency plan in the event of an emergency that would suspend the American Constitution, and I was deeply concerned about that. I'm wondering if that was the area in which he had worked. I believed that it was..."

Sen. Daniel Inouye:

"May I most respectfully request that that matter not be touched upon at this stage. If we wish to get into this, I'm certain that arrangements can be made for executive session."

[END OF QUOTING]

And, of course, we know that executive session means they go behind closed doors to discuss what they don't want the general public to hear about. But if they are discussing suspending the Constitution of the United States of America, doesn't every citizen have a full right to know exactly what they are talking about, right now? We would have that right if we were functioning under the Constitution. What most people have not yet realized is that we have been functioning in the New World Order (hereinafter N.W.O.) for many years, and, as such, we function under the United Nations Charter, within the Treaty Power of the Constitution. (Please see the case of Sei Fujii v. State, 217 P.2d 481, from California, 1950)

Those who are aware of what is happening will know that they were talking about REX 84 and the F.E.M.A. plans. So what was operation REX 84, really? Silencing of all dissidents. Mass detention facilities, otherwise known as concentration camps, have been set up in a number of major U.S. military installations on the secret order of ex-President Reagan. The Executive Orders which established these camps have been canceled because the camps are now in place. The White House issued a highly classified National Security Decision Directive (N.S.D.D.) which set forth urgent instructions which "activated" 10 huge prison camps at key defense command locations across America.

Two trustworthy sources (career Army officers) revealed that this would involve an unprecedented roundup of "security suspects", coast to coast. They also said this vast police operation would apply "C&C" (capture and custody) measures against political opponents, resisters, and outspoken critics whom our government considers "dangerous".

Four of the principle civilian concentration camps are located at Ft. Chaffee, Arkansas; Ft. Drum, New York; Ft. Indiantown Gap, Pennsylvania; and, Camp A.P. Hill, Virginia. Each camp is designed to hold at least 25,000 prisoners. Additional facilities are being readied at Oakdale, California; Eglin A.F.B., So. Florida; Vandenburg A.F.B., California; Ft. McCoy, Wisconsin; Ft. Benning, Georgia; Ft. Huachuca, Arizona; and in the Justice Dept. detention and interrogation center at Camp Krome, Miami, Florida.

Federal agencies involved would include F.B.I., C.I.A., U.S. Marshals, I.N.S., U.S. Customs, U.S. Coast Guard, National Guard, and local and state police. According to a military source, it will begin with aliens and refugees, but that may expand quickly. Another source close to the program claims another target will be "major, organized tax resisters".

Through his own sources, the author of this paper has confirmed this as very valid information. The information is not intended to scare us, but rather to enlighten us into action which might reverse this.

Not a single one of the sources just mentioned could cite a constitutional or legal precedent for such a staggering mass roundup of civilians by American authorities during "peacetime". Of course, most informed people know we are not in peacetime but rather in full Martial Law. Note the gold-fringed flag the next time you are in or near a courtroom, or notice it in the Senate and House of Representatives. You will see it behind the President when he speaks. This is not the flag of the United States of America, which is red, white and blue. The gold-fringe denotes the Admiralty/Maritime flag and it definitely confers a jurisdiction alien to the U.S. of A. It is the "Executive" flag of Martial Law.

The majority of Americans have lived all their lives under Martial Law and don't even know it. Under the powers delegated to the President in a declared state of emergency the office of the Presidency wields powers ordinarily exercised only by Congress. This vast range of powers confers enough authority to rule the country without reference to normal constitutional processes.

To better understand how all of this fits into the N.W.O. and the United Nations (hereinafter U.N.) it is necessary to first examine an extremely powerful organization called the Council on Foreign Relations (hereinafter C.F.R.).

On May 30, 1919, several members of the delegations to the Paris Peace Conference (which was dominated by Baron Edmond de Rothschild of France) met at the Hotel Majestic in Paris to discuss setting up a group which would advise their respective governments on international affairs. At a subsequent meeting on June 5, 1919, it was decided that it would be best to have separate organizations cooperating with each other. Consequently, these planners organized the C.F.R. which would be based in New York. It was not officially founded until July 29, 1921.

Money for the founding of the C.F.R. came from J.P. Morgan, Paul Warburg and John D. Rockefeller, among others. This was the same group of wealthy men who were instrumental in forming the Federal Reserve. The C.F.R. was, and still is, the most powerful private organization which advises the government of the United States on foreign policy. It is worth noting that all of President Bill Clinton's cabinet members are current active members of the C.F.R. Have you ever even heard the C.F.R. mentioned in public?

In 1945, at the founding conference of the U.N., held in San Francisco, California, 47 members of the C.F.R. were in the United States delegation. To make certain that the United States would not back out of joining the U.N., as it did with the League of Nations, the international body would this time be located on American soil. It was determined that this would make the American public less resistant to the move. The land for the U.N. building was "graciously" donated by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. The land had been a slaughterhouse and the soil where the U.N. buildings now stand had been fully saturated with the blood of slaughtered animals. If we fully understand the real purpose of the U.N., we will realize that no place else could be more fitting.

With the establishment of the U.N., the C.F.R. had accomplished a major step toward the eventual achievement of a one world government (the N.W.O.). Thus, the immediate purpose of the U.N. was merely to warm Americans up to the idea of global government. Many Americans today continue to view the U.N. as a "good organization". It is truly amazing what a thorough media publicity campaign can accomplish. Anyone who may still think the U.N. has any good intentions should read the U.N. Charter in its entirety.

The term New World Order has been used privately by the C.F.R. since it was founded to describe the coming one world government. In the last few years, however, C.F.R. members, for the first time, began using the term publicly to start the conditioning process necessary so that the unsuspecting public might brace and prepare themselves for what lies ahead. The C.F.R. believes that if the American people hear the term often enough, they will be less likely to resist or feel threatened when that fateful day arrives.

How many people realize that one of the symbols portraying the term "New World Order" was placed on the back of our one dollar bill during the Franklin D. Roosevelt Administration? Check it out, it's still there today. It consists of a multipart message including the pyramid containing the eye of Osiris. Under the pyramid, written in Latin, we find the words "Novus Ordo Seclorum". Translated from the Latin it means "New World Order".

David Rockefeller, one of the directors of the C.F.R. from 1949 to 1985, speaking in June 1991, at a Bilderberger (another N.W.O. group) meeting in Germany, stated, "We are grateful to the Washington Post, the New York Times, Time magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years". He went on to explain, "It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during those years. But, the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual Elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national autodetermination practiced in past centuries".

The complicity of the media in concealing the plans of the C.F.R. from the public is easy to understand when we realize that C.F.R.'s 2,670 current active members include the top echelon of all the major media organizations (including, along with those already mentioned, Newsweek magazine, the Wall Street Journal, National Review, C.B.S., N.B.C., A.B.C., C.N.N., P.B.S., A.P., U.P.I., Reuters, the Boston Globe, Los Angeles Times, the Baltimore Sun and the Washington Times—have we missed anyone?).

The membership of the C.F.R. also includes the top echelon from all the major oil companies, major industry (including the Big 3 automakers), all the major banks, college and university presidents, major figures from all the branches and affiliations of the military, the Dept. Of State, foreign ambassadors, many agencies of our government, as mentioned before, all of the President's cabinet members, and, of course, the Federal Reserve System, the House of Representatives, and the U.S. Senate!

As far as enforcing the plans of the N.W.O., the National Guard has been enlisted into the plan as well as all other police and government agencies, all in the name of maintaining the peace, of course. People will certainly be upset and should be expected to retaliate. But as more people have become aware of these evil plans it became obvious that some of our own people in these different policing agencies could not be counted on to cooperate with such illegal and unconstitutional activities of government. Thus, the final card has now been played, the United Nations Peace Keeping Force, an international police force. It has long been known that foreign troops could do what resident troops could not or would not do—arrest and imprison their own innocent friends and neighbors. How many Americans realize that for some time now there have been stationed on American soil, foreign U.N. troops including, among others, Chinese soldiers? Just don't expect any officials to ever admit this. But they are there when they need them.

As James Paul Warburg, foreign agent of the Rothschilds, in his testimony before the U.S. Senate on February 17, 1950, stated confidently, "We shall have World government, whether or not we like it. The only question is whether world government will be achieved by conquest or consent."

Those who follow what is happening in the news (which is more often than not exactly the opposite of what they tell us) should have noticed that on October 22, 1993, President Bill Clinton announced that he would like to use National Guard troops to help fight crime in the streets of Washington, D.C. He also suggested that this is not the only place where this could be done. He said he would like to strengthen police forces in cities nationwide by 100,000. He requested the Justice Dept. to determine if his actions would be legal. With the understanding you should now have from reading this far, think of the implications of Bill Clinton's remarks. By the way, he is a member of the C.F.R.

For those who may wonder about the expansion of emergency plans under F.E.M.A., persons living in Pennsylvania, for example, should realize that there is a Pennsylvania Emergency Management Agency (P.E.M.A.) which will coordinate under F.E.M.A. Also, for example, for those who live in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, there is a Bucks County Emergency Management Agency (B.E.M.A.), which will coordinate under P.E.M.A. These State and Local agencies appear to be everywhere, again, ostensibly for emergency preparedness, but we know what the government really has in mind for them, and us.

To conclude this, and to show that the "One World Controllers" have missed nothing in orchestrating their plans, here is a quote from the Thursday, September 23, 1993, issue of the Dallas Morning Star: "The United States is one of the most dangerous places in the world for young people, according to a United Nations report released last week. And while many other places are getting better, the United States is getting worse. A report from the United Nations Children's Fund called 'The Progress of Nations' said that 9 out of 10 young people murdered in industrialized countries are slain in the United States."

While the U.N. report may not be accurate (statistics are almost always manipulated and fabricated to produce a desired public opinion), don't be too surprised when the President requests those U.N. troops, and the National Guard, and others, to police the streets of America. The Founders of the United States of America could never in their wildest nightmares have imagined a One World Government based upon the enslavement of its peoples. It would do well for everyone to get informed, and then inform others, as to what is actually happening to our country. We must tell our government that we want them to govern with our consent.

SIGNS OF ESCALATION AT JUSTUS TOWNSHIP

From the May 30 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

JORDAN, Mont.—The FBI ordered reporters and cameramen to leave their hillside vantage point overlooking the Freeman compound Wednesday but said it was not a prelude [with the government, a denial is as good as a confirmation!] to a move against the anti-government extremists [how's that for "objective reporting"?].

Officials said they decided to evict the media after a Fox Television news crew went to a fence around the compound Tuesday night and negotiated for interviews with the Freeman without telling the government beforehand. But Fox Chairman Roger Ailes claimed the journalists were being used as scapegoats, adding in a statement that the FBI had planned to remove the media well before his staff made contact with the Freeman.

The very next day, the same newspaper reports the arrival of black armored cars and a rescue helicopter to its staging area, including this statement, [quoting:]

A source familiar with the FBI strategy said the highly publicized arrival of the armored vehicles and helicopter was not a sign that authorities plan to move on the Freeman immediately.

CORPSES PILE UP IN NATION'S CAPITAL

A recent Associated Press articles makes this report, [quoting:]

WASHINGTON—Insect infestation, fetid air and stacked bodies plague (interesting choice of words!) the District of Columbia morgue, the latest city office to fall victim to the mounting cash shortage in the nation's capital. City officials said that it will cost about $800,000 to make immediate repairs and that $3 million will ultimately be needed to improve conditions at the morgue. But that may be hard to come by for a city with an

The FBI says it does not want news crews interfering in the negotiations. [Read between the lines a la Waco: FBI doesn't want documentation of its actions.]

accumulated deficit of $378 million. "We should have these body bags, but we don't," said autopsy technician Andrew Mason. "What is a morgue without a body bag? We have to use sheets."

The Washington Post reported Saturday that because the facility's crematorium broke down a month ago, 74 corpses, more than three times the facility's intended capacity, were stockpiled throughout the facility. The cash-strapped city has no other way to dispose of corpses and this week the air conditioning went out in the facility. Many bodies were stored on tattered fiberglass racks or rusted gurneys, the Post said. One body was on the floor, and some were in body bags that had split open, exposing the faces of the dead.

HIPPOCRATIC OATH UNDERGOES SURGERY

From the June 2 issue of THE WASHINGTON TIMES, NATIONAL WEEKLY EDITION, [quoting:]

The HIPPOCRATIC oath has been revised extensively for political correctness and other purposes in recent years, and some doctors charge this has weakened and stripped the oath of the "father of medicine" of its focus. Dr. Paul R. McHugh, Henry Phipps professor and director of the department of psychiatry and behavioral sciences at Johns Hopkins, expressed his concerns about oaths being recited in medical school commencements in a commentary published this May in the journal Nature Medicine. He argued that some of the revised versions of the 2,500-year-old oath, including those now in use at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine and Harvard, tend to be more self-centered than patient-centered and are ridden with a lot of "vague precept". Dr. McHugh's commentary examines deletions his institution made in the Hippocratic oath, beginning in the '60s, and scrutinizes substitute versions drafted at Johns Hopkins in 1985 and 1994. His analysis also looked at revised versions of the Hippocratic oath that were recited by Harvard University medical school students beginning in 1989 and 1994.

Dr. McHugh said the "custom of amending" the Hippocratic oath at Johns Hopkins was prompted by the "uproar" that followed the 1968 medical school graduation, when students recited the original Hippocratic oath, in which they pledged "not to give a woman an abortive remedy".

Dr. [Bernard] Nathanson said Dr. Louis Lasagna, a former professor of medicine, pharmacology and experimental therapeutics at Hopkins, "sanitized the classic oath, eliminating the reference to abortion." "Lasagna's version...also purged the strictures against euthanasia, sexual relations with patients, specific obligations to those who taught him...and the crystalline sense of obligation to do good and avoid harming those in his charge," said Dr. Nathanson, a former abortion doctor who now is a leading abortion foe.

Dr. McHugh also cited one big change in language between Johns Hopkins' 1985 and 1994 oaths. In the earlier oath, doctors promised they will perform "no operation for a criminal purpose". But in 1994, they changed that to say they will perform "no operation without a justifiable purpose." [And people are capable of justifying just about ANYTHING!] He criticizes Harvard's decision, at the start of its 1989 and 1994 oaths, to "replace the Hippocratic aim—the benefit of the sick—with the 'service of humanity'". Serving humanity may conflict with "the benefit of the sick", he said, particularly if sick people are identified as burdens. [These changes dovetail nastily with the depopulation schemes of the power-mongering Elite.]

MAD COWS WORK AS AD COWS

From the May 28 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

LONDON—A farmer hit by the mad cow ban on British beef put his cows to work Monday as billboards.

"This is a bit of a gimmick but an interesting one," said Harry Goode as he fitted eight cows with specially made plastic coats. The cows, who are advertising ice cream, graze in a field beside a highway near Birmingham so they are seen daily by thousands of motorists. Goode has been unable to find a buyer for his cattle as the European Union has slapped a worldwide ban on British beef in fear of mad cow disease.

WHITE BUFFALO CALF BORN

From the May 22 issue of the RAPID CITY (South Dakota) JOURNAL, [quoting:]

PINE RIDGE—A white buffalo calf reportedly has been born on the Joe Merrival ranch near Oglala. Merrival doesn't pretend to understand how or why his small herd has given life to what Great Plains tribes regard as the most rare and sacred of animals. He knows only this: It has now happened twice within two weeks. His first white buffalo calf was born on April 27. It soon developed scours, a diarrhea-like condition, and died 25 hours later. The second, born 13 days later, is healthy and nursing at the side of its 1,200 pound mother.

Before April 27, two white buffalo calves had been born this century. The first, a white buffalo bull named Big Medicine, was born in Montana in 1933 and died 26 years later in 1959. The second, a female calf named Miracle, was born Aug. 20, 1994 in an exotic-animal farm in Janesville, Wis.

Merrival's two white buffalo calves are said to be the first born on Indian lands in an Indian herd owned by an American Indian rancher. It is an event not lost on the elders and spiritual leaders of the Pine Ridge Reservation. The White Buffalo Calf Woman legend holds that she is one of their most sacred symbols. She gave the tribe the Sacred Buffalo Calf Pipe and taught the Lakota their seven sacred ceremonies and four great virtues: courage, wisdom, generosity, and fortitude. According to traditional Lakota beliefs, the people, the buffalo and White Buffalo Calf Woman all came from Wind Cave in the Black Hills.

The first calf left the people, said the medicine men, because the people are weak and divided. The second white calf is a symbol for unity, a message for Indian people, and all people, to repair life's Sacred Hoop. It is also a reminder, they said, that all nations must stop the destruction of Mother Earth and that Indian people must begin healing themselves by returning to traditional ways.

In the rush of stories following the 1994 birth of the Wisconsin calf, some reported the odds of a white buffalo birth to be one in 6 billion. Others said it was 10 million to one or a million to one.

FIRE HOUSE HISTORIAN SUES GINGRICH

From the May 26 issue of the THE WASHINGTON TIMES, NATIONAL WEEKLY EDITION, [quoting:]

Fired House historian Christina Jeffrey has filed suit against Speaker Newt Gingrich and three House Democrats for $16.7 million, accusing them of falsely portraying her as harboring Nazi sympathies. The lawsuit, filed May 15 in U.S. District Court in Washington, seeks damages from Mr. Gingrich, his press secretary, Tony Blankley, and three Democratic representatives, Charles E. Schumer of New York, Barney Frank of Massachusetts, and Maxine Walters of California. It demands a jury trial.

Mr. Gingrich had no immediate comment on the lawsuit, which also accuses him of breach of contract and violating Mrs. Jeffrey's constitutional rights. Mr. Gingrich hired Mrs. Jeffrey, then a history professor at Kennesaw State College in Georgia, for the $85,000-a-year historian job shortly after he was elected speaker in 1995. He fired her a few days later after complaints that her 1986 review of a Holocaust course for the Education Department had criticized it for not presenting Nazi and Ku Klux Klan views. The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, which attacked her at the time, has since become an ally in her drive to reclaim her reputation [What's the angle?]
