What Are Our Armed Forces Doing In Saudi Arabia?

Editor's note: We are reprinting our Front Page story from last week which was Part 1 from Dr. Coleman's July issue of WIR. We here include, this week, the rest of the story, Parts 2-5. You can subscribe to WIR, see box on next page.

[QUOTING, PART 1:]

WHAT ARE OUR ARMED FORCES DOING IN SAUDI ARABIA? A SPECIAL REPORT

The recent tragic loss of life among our servicemen stationed in Saudi Arabia who fell victim to a terrorist bombing of their housing, highlights the need for We, The People to find out exactly what our servicemen and women are doing in Saudi Arabia, so long after the Gulf War (another unconstitutional venture) ended.

On April 5, the United States Navy announced that it had intercepted the 20,000th vessel on the high seas, bound for Iraq. This is not a proud moment for the navy, but an ongoing violation of the Constitution. Forget for a moment whether it is morally right or wrong for the United States to be a part of sanctions efforts against this small country. Let us concentrate on the constitutional issues involved: [H: Grandma does NOT have a corner on unconstitutional issues!]

1. Intercepting ships on the high seas and boarding them is an act of war. The United States is not at war with Iraq, because Congress did not pass a Joint Resolution, declaration of war.
2. The United States Navy is acting under color of a United Nations resolution. Since the United States is NOT a member of the United Nations as to overriding use of their Charter, and is barred by our Constitution from putting the laws of any foreign body above the laws of the United States, any and all actions by the United States Navy and/or any of the other two branches of the armed services against Iraq, are illegal, and must be halted immediately. [H: Please note, however, that the U.S. in actuality has NO Air Force for it has long been shifted into and under the control of the United Nations command.]

It is simple as that. Let us enlarge on the first item, which concerns the fact that no declaration of war was passed by the Congress, therefore, the intercepting and boarding of vessels on the high seas is an act of war, not sanctioned by We, the People. The Constitution is very specific about this. Here follows the proper, Constitutional declaration of war against Germany which appeared in the Congressional Record, House, Page 319, April 1917:

"Whereas the Imperial German Government committed repeated acts of war against the Government of the people of the United States of America; therefore be it resolved by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that a state of war between the United States and the Imperial German Government, which has thus been thrust on the United States is hereby formally declared: and that the President be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to employ the entire naval and military forces against the Imperial German Government; and to bring the conflict to a successful termination all the resources of the country are hereby pledged by the Congress of the United States." [H: I have utilized the emphasis.]

All we need do is substitute "Imperial German Government" with "the Government of Iraq" to see what former President Bush was obliged by law to obtain from the Congress, BEFORE he rushed the American people into the Gulf War. Of course we know that Bush did not get a declaration of war from the Congress. What he got fell far, far short of what the Constitution mandates. The word "declared" as used in the above context was a formal notice to the American people that they were at war with Germany. The real declaration of war came when the Congress AUTHORIZED the President to proceed against the enemy, the Imperial German Government.

THE GULF WAR

In the case of the Gulf War the following steps SHOULD HAVE BEEN TAKEN: [H: We won't even yet speak of the new "war" from the Clintonista Secret Controllers.]

The House and Senate should have first separately passed a resolution declaring that a state of belligerency was in existence between the United States and Iraq.

Then, BOTH the House AND Senate [each] should have passed a resolution that the United States was engaged in a public war with Iraq. A public war means that every man, woman and child in the United States is engaged in war with every man, woman and child in Iraq.

Then, the House and Senate should have passed a Joint Resolution, a declaration of war, in which resolution the President would have received his authority to use all three branches of the armed forces in a war against Iraq.

ONLY when these steps were completed would Bush have had the CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY to go to war against Iraq, using all three branches of the armed forces. In the absence of the foregoing steps having been taken and a proper Joint Resolution declaration of war, Bush had no constitutional right to wage war on Iraq, and I repeat, he should have been

IMPEACHED and TRIED FOR TREASON. The continued presence of our armed forces engaged in acts of war against Iraq is unconstitutional and must be terminated forthwith. [H: Ah, but then there would be no "state of emergency" in that arena and there could be no bombings as just happened, nor could there be blockades, etc., against such a country as Iraq. YOU ARE A SLAVE-STATE, U.S. AND THE AMERICAS!]

NOW IS GOING TO COME ONE OF THE MOST RIGHT AND YET HUMOROUS DEMANDS YET PRINTED IN THE MATTER AND I THINK YOU WILL SEE WHY, AS YOU CONSIDER THE ACTIONS PROBABLE IN ANY EVENT OF THIS NATURE.]

To the American Bar Association, the Supreme Court, the House and Senate, the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the President, WIR says: "DO YOUR CONSTITUTIONAL DUTY AND RECALL OUR ARMED FORCES FROM THE GULF, IMMEDIATELY."

[H: Since THESE are the very parties guilty of allowing such miscarriage of constitutional LAW, it is surely unlikely that they will act otherwise—NOW.]

In his vendetta against Iraq for and on behalf of the British Crown and British Petroleum, Bush violated the United States Constitution "umpteen" times. The only authority Bush had at the time of the Gulf War was to use ONE, AND ONLY ONE, branch of the services against Iraq, for a limited period. If within 60 days of that action, Congress had not passed a declaration of war, then Bush was LEGALLY OBLIGED to withdraw the ONE BRANCH of the services engaged in action, and bring the personnel home. Yet, in violation and defilement of the Constitution, ALL THREE BRANCHES of the armed forces were sent to WAR against Iraq. This is tantamount to TREASON, and Bush should have been impeached and tried for treason.

CLINTON'S OBLIGATION UNDER THE CONSTITUTION

[H: Again, not even considering the recent bombings and attacks against Iraq we continue:]

Clinton is in violation of the Constitution of the United States by FAILING to order ALL THREE BRANCHES of our armed forces to return to the United States immediately. He has failed in his duty to uphold the laws of the United States, and our armed forces are still in Saudi Arabia and in the Gulf, waging war against the nation of Iraq without the necessary and proper congressional declaration of war. As long as this is allowed to continue, THE UNITED STATES IS A LAWLESS NATION. [H: This, in turn, can only mean that the United States is not THE (u)nited States of America you think you recognize! Next you are going to find a fact to be true that is going to blow your UNKNOWING MINDS—the U.S. is NOT a member of the United Nations. Remember that you have TWO U.S.A.s AND ACTUALLY—NEITHER IS REALLY A MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS!]

"Oh well, our armed forces are acting on United Nations resolutions, so they are in compliance with U.S. law," says some. WRONG, 100 PERCENT WRONG. The United States is not now, nor has it ever been, a member of the United Nations.

ABOUT THAT U.S. AND U.N. MEMBERSHIP

In the first instance the United Nations treaty WAS IMPROPERLY RATIFIED. On page 2063-2065 Congressional Record, House, Feb. 22, 1900, is found the following: "A treaty IS NOT SUPERIOR to the Constitution." Previously, in Sept. 1854, the point was squarely made in diplomatic exchanges between the United States ambassador in France and then Secretary of State Marcy: "The Constitution is to prevail over a treaty where the provisions of one conflict with the other..."

U.S. foreign policy is NOT the purview of the United Nations but that of We, the People of the sovereign United States. Consult Vattel's Law of Nations on this point and become convinced. Supposed membership of the United Nations by the United States would particularly violate Article 5 of the Constitution of the United States. If we had LAWFULLY joined the United Nations, a Constitutional AMENDMENT to this effect would have been passed by CONGRESS, and ratified by ALL of the States. This was and has NEVER BEEN DONE. On pages 296-2920 of the Congressional Record, Senate, July 21, 1921, we find it clearly stated that the United States could not join the League of Nations WITHOUT a Constitutional amendment having been passed by the Congress and ratified by all of the States.

[H: Are you beginning to get just an inkling of insight as to the importance of the Constitution being brought back as the LAW OF YOUR LAND? All of these actions of unconstitutional nature are NULL AND VOID and totally UNLAWFUL. If, therefore, you bring back, as the LAW, the Constitution—you will toss out all of the unconstitutional elements which have destroyed your nation as well as that infamous "FEDERAL" nightmare government.]

THIS APPLIES WITH EQUAL FORCE AND EFFECT TO THE UNITED NATIONS TREATY/AGREEMENT WITH ANY OTHER WORLD BODY THAT WOULD SEEK TO PLACE ITS LAWS ABOVE THOSE OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION. The United States MUST STOP the illegal blockade of Iraq. Our forces must return home and cease acting as the police force of those who are coveting the oil riches of Iraq.

Iraq is in a pitiful state as the vicious United Nations embargo enters its fourth year. Food and medicine, although exempt from the embargo, are at their lowest point ever. The whole country is grinding along on cannibalized machines. Lack of spare parts is bringing every sector of the economy to a halt. The Ministry of Health says that 390,000 Iraqi civilians have died as a direct result of the embargo. [H: Does this make you proud of yourself as a HUMANITARIAN COUNTRY? AND NOW, YOU HAVE HAD YOUR CIA SPEND BILLIONS OF DOLLARS JUST TRYING TO ASSASSINATE SADDAM. THIS IS SO BLATANT AS TO CAUSE YOU-THE-U.S. TO SHIP OUT HUNDREDS AND HUNDREDS OF KURDS WHO WORKED WITH YOU—TO GUAM, AND NOW ON TO IMMIGRATION (UNLAWFUL) TO THE U.S. MAINLAND. YOU STOP HELPING YOUR SOUTHERN VISITORS WHILE YOU BRING IN THOSE WHO ACTUALLY PARTICIPATED IN UNLAWFUL AC-TIONS AND INTENT IN GOVERNMENT BLACK OPERATIONS.] This figure was verified by a group of Canadian doctors who are striving to help the victims of United States and United Nations barbarity.

On April 14, 1994, two United States F-15 fighter planes SHOT DOWN TWO UNITED STATES HELICOPTERS, causing the deaths of 26 people. The helicopters were mistakenly identified as belonging to Iraq. The whole tragedy could have been avoided if our President and Congress had simply OBEYED the Constitution they swore to uphold. As explained above, the armed forces of the United States have NO BUSINESS shooting down ANY planes over Iraq, as the United States is NOT AT WAR with the government of that country. It is time that the Congress was ordered BY WE, THE PEOPLE, TO OBEY THE CONSTITUTION AND GET OUR ARMED FORCES OUT OF THE GULF REGION [H: AND OUT OF EVERYBODY ELSE'S BUSINESS!].

[END QUOTING OF PART 1]

IRAQ NO-FLY ZONE

What is this so-called "no fly zone" that our fighter planes were/are patrolling? The Western jackal media says it is a "zone agreed upon by the allies from which Iraqi planes are excluded." But what is the truth? In my investigation of the illegal conduct of Bush, I called the United Nations and asked to be given the number and date of the U.N. resolution that brought this so-called restricted air-space zone into being. I was told, "There is no resolution. This was a UNILATERAL ACTION TAKEN BY PRESIDENT BUSH."

There we have it. The United States can't even hide behind the color of a United Nations resolution, not that it would have any force and effect over our armed forces. Bush, in his hatred of Saddam Hussein, and in his zeal to carry out the wishes of Queen Elizabeth, set this so-called "no fly zone" up on his own volition without any authorization of the ACT OF WAR from Congress. [H: How many of you realize that George Bush is cousin of Khazarian Zionist Q. Elizabeth, only three times removed?]

The feeble excuse is that the exclusion zone was established to protect the Kurds from the Baghdad Government, yet, just across the border, the very same Kurds are engaged in a life-and-death struggle with the Government of Turkey, in which thousands of Kurds have already died. The United States backs Turkey in this struggle. There must be no more delays. The United States Congress must immediately order the recall of all three branches of our armed services in the Gulf region, or else, pass a Joint Resolution of Declaration of War against the Government of Iraq. [H: Don't hold your breath anyone, as since this writing by Coleman there have been more sanctions, more bombings, lessening of Iraq's own spaces, CIA efforts at assassinations, assassinations, unilateral actions and on and on without interruption. Even while your current President SLEPT (literally), Iraq was bombed and Clinton had a REAL TIME wake-up-call that next morning—AFTER THE FACT. Well, Dole and Kemp are in bed with Bush, so WHO DO YOU THINK ORDERED AND CAUSED THE BOMBING?]

This disgraceful flouting of the laws of the United States must be brought to an immediate conclusion. The frenetic rush by Clinton and the Pentagon to defend Kuwait, one of the most baneful and hateful dictatorships in the world (next to, possibly, Saudi Arabia) is indicative of the shocking state of anarchy and chaos that prevails in Washington. The troops and supplies rushed to Kuwait on behalf of British Petroleum and City of London bankers shows to what an advanced level of brainwashing the American public has been exposed. Let's get matters into perspective:

1. Kuwait is not a country. It is an appendage of British Petroleum and City of London bankers. The territory known as Kuwait belonged to Iraq and was recognized as an integral part of Iraq for over 400 years—until the British army marched in, drew a line across the desert sands and declared, "This is now Kuwait." Of course the IMAGINARY border just happened to run through the middle of the richest oilfields in the area, the Rumalia oilfields, that belonged to Iraq and STILL BELONG TO IRAQ. Theft of land never transfers ownership. [H: Just as theft of gold certificates and trillions of dollars from same—does NOT TRANSFER OWNERSHIP OF THE PROPERTY.]

2. Quoting from my book Diplomacy By Deception: "In 1880, the British Government formed a friendship with a tame Arab sheik by the name of Emir Abdullah Al Salam al Sabah. Al Sabah was made their representative in the area along the southern border of Iraq, where the Rumalia oilfields had been discovered inside Iraqi territory. (There was no other COUNTRY but Iraq—all the lands belonged to Iraq. There was no such entity as 'Kuwait')

"The Al Sabah family kept an eye on the rich prize. On behalf of the Committee of 300, on November 25, 1899—the same year the British went to war against the Boer Republics in South Africa—the British Government made a deal with Emir Al Sabah, whereby the lands encroaching on the Rumalia oilfields belonging to Iraq, would be ceded to the British Government, notwithstanding the fact that the land was an integral part of Iraq, nor that Emir Al Sabah had no right to it.

[H: All members of the Committee of 300 are Khazar Zionists and this is truly the world's most POWERFUL POLITICAL PARTY which wields total control over the United Nations.]

"The deal was signed by Sheik Mubarak Al Sabah, who traveled to London in style... 'Kuwait' became a de facto British protectorate. The local population and the Iraq Government had NO SAY in the matter and the Al Sabahs are absolute dictators who soon showed cruel ruthlessness.

[H: Methinks, however, that a lot of things ARE NOT GOING SO WELL BETWEEN AND AMONG THESE PREVIOUSLY RECOGNIZED DICTATORS AND THEIR CONTROLLERS, THE ZIONIST MANIPULATORS. WHEN SUCH AS MUBARAK REALIZES HOW BADLY HE HIMSELF HAS BEEN "TAKEN", THERE IS GOING TO BE ALL HECK TO PAY.]

"In 1915 the British marched into Baghdad and occupied it in what George Bush would have called an act of 'naked aggression'... The British Government set up a self-proclaimed 'mandate' and sent High Commissioner Cox to run it, who named former King Faisal of Syria as head of a puppet regime in Basra. Britain now had a puppet in northern Iraq and another in southern Iraq...

"In 1961 Iraqi Premier Hassan Abdul Kassem fiercely attacked Britain over the Kuwait issue, pointing out that the promised negotiations agreed upon at the Lausanne Conference had not taken place. Kassem declared that the territory called Kuwait had been an integral part of Iraq and was so recognized for more than 400 years by the Ottoman Empire. Instead, the British Government granted Kuwait independence... There is NO ACTUAL BORDER between 'Kuwait' and Iraq; the whole thing is a major swindle.

"Had Kassem succeeded in getting Kuwait back, the British rulers would have lost billions of dollars in oil revenues. But when Kassem vanished after Kuwait got its independence, (there is little doubt that he was murdered by British MI-6 agents) the movement to challenge Britain lost its momentum. By granting independence to Kuwait in 1961, and ignoring the fact that the land was not theirs to give, Britain was able to fend off the just claims of Iraq. We know that the British Government did the same thing in Palestine, India, and later, IN SOUTH AFRICA.

"For the next 30 years Kuwait continued as the vassal state of Great Britain, pouring billions of dollars into British banks, while Iraq got nothing... Britain's seizure of Iraqi land, calling it Kuwait and granting it independence, must rank as one of the most audacious acts of piracy in modern times, and contributed directly to the Gulf War. I have gone to some lengths to explain background events that led to the Gulf War in an attempt to show how unjustly the United States acted toward Iraq, and the power of the Committee of 300." [End quoting] (For further reading, see Diplomacy By Deception, "Who Are The Real Saudi Kings and Kuwaiti Sheiks", "Gulf War Aims Explained" and "The Case Against the Petroleum Industry".)

Former President Bush did not have the slightest constitutional authority for taking this nation to war against Iraq. [H: And the Clintonistas had even LESS.] He should have been impeached and tried for treason. [H: And as for the Clintonistas, they should be impeached, tried for treason, AND all the other crimes committed by BOTH THEM AND THE BUSH BRIGADE. THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE IN THE TWO PARTIES—ALL OF THE POLITICIANS ARE IN THE SAME KETTLE WITH THE ROTTEN FISH.] Congressman Henry Gonzalez did draw up six articles of impeachment, but thanks to "bipartisan co-operation" (the euphemism for SOCIALIST action), the articles never reached the floor of the House.

Now we have Clinton repeating the same 100 percent illegal tactics of the former Bush Administration. It is this sort of behavior that is leading the United States into anarchy and chaos. Will the American people be fooled about Kuwait for a second time? It certainly looks like it.

Meanwhile, Clinton, Madeline Albright and Warren Christopher trumpet that they are acting under U.N. mandate. By so doing, they ADMIT that they have NO CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY, otherwise why would they constantly remind us of the fact that they are breaking their vows to uphold the laws of the United States?

Iraqi women and children are dying by the thousands from diseases and malnutrition. The country has no money to buy food and medical supplies—which the U.N. embargo magnanimously allows. How can Iraq buy these essentials when oil revenues are reduced to below a subsistence level? [H: Moreover, the no-fly zone has been moved ever closer to Baghdad and encompasses even more of the oil-producing land in Iraq which allows the pumping of oil by British Petroleum Co. right out from under even MORE

IRAQI LAND.] Meningitis is raging among children in Baghdad, while Clinton and his One World cabinet play games with the lives of a people that has never harmed the United States. This vicious thuggery against Iraq must cease. There is no justification for it, and it is 100 percent unconstitutional for the United States to be doing the bidding of the United Nations. END THIS MADNESS!

[H: I only have one complaint here. There is always the "End the Madness"? Then comes the barrage of petitions to ME—to end this madness! I am not going to end anything, readers, as you are a free-will people even if you are an enslaved people. YOU HAVE TO END THE MADNESS AND I KNOW, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO CONTINUE TO READ, READ, AND READ SOME MORE ABOUT THE MADNESS, "DO SOMETHING ABOUT THE MADNESS" AND YET, WHAT CAN YOU DO ABOUT IT? For starters: GET INFORMED, and once ENOUGH are informed, you can begin to put a stop to the insanity—IF YOU WANT TO DO SO. YOU HAVE TO DO SOMETHING IN YOUR COUNTRY AND THEN THE REST WILL FOLLOW BY REQUIRING THAT YOUR CRIMINALS GET OUT OF THOSE OTHER NATION'S AFFAIRS! AMERICA: YOU ARE THE EVIL EMPIRE WITH THE EVIL VAMPIRES.]

It is clear that we are using U.S. forces to protect the interests of British Petroleum, the Al Sabahs of Kuwait and to illegally patrol the skies over Iraq without a mandate from the Congress and in violation of the Constitution.

Compounding Saudi Arabia's border disputes with Yemen, which are escalating with each passing day, is the trouble in Riyadh. A serious economic crisis has thus far prevented the Saudis from making good on their promises to pay their share of the bill for the Gulf War. Social spending has had to be drastically cut. The ruling Abdul Aziz family blames its woes on the Gulf War, but former oil minister Sheik Ahmad Zaki Yamani says that the war actually increased Saudi Arabia's income.

There is a slow, and as yet small, movement to throw off Abdul Aziz family rule. Perhaps the failing health of King Fahd has emboldened the opposition led by Dr. Muhammad al-Mas'ari who was forced to flee for his life last April. Mas'ari now heads the Committee for the Defense of Legitimate Rights in Saudi Arabia in exile, after two of his high-level assistants were arrested. In October of 1994, hundreds of Saudis protesting the arrest were themselves arrested and imprisoned.

There are as yet unconfirmed reports that King Fahd is showing increasing disinclination to attend to affairs of state. The fact that Sheik Yamani has come out and publicly contradicted Fahd, and his finance minister's account of the kingdom's finances, may well be the first sign that the long rule of the Abdul Aziz, detailed in my book Diplomacy By Deception, is facing serious opposition.

What will the United States do if the House of Abdul Aziz collapses? So accustomed has the United States become to the family rubber-stamping its foreign policy—or rather—the foreign policy of the American petroleum industry, that the thought of a new entity rising up to take the place of its present partners must be worrisome, especially if a new entity, perhaps a truly Muslim body, gains control and refuses to go along with the situation as it has pertained for decades.

Perhaps this is why Crown Prince Abdallah bin Abdel Aziz made a highly secret trip to meet with President Clinton at the White House on January 15 (1996). Only WIR has thus far provided this information out of all of the "intelligence" newsletters that have proliferated in recent years, as well as the mainstream media.

[H: Well, the mainstream media and political high-wigs are proving their control and intentions this very day in the United States of America

MIXED MEDIA

AGAINST YOU-THE-PEOPLE. Rev. Louis Farrakhan is having a peaceful Day of Atonement memorial at the United Nations on Wednesday 16th October (this week) and what is in the news? Well, as above stated, V.P. Gore and his clowns denounce Farrakhan as an Anti-Semite and accuse him of inciting the Black people to riot—and probably cost the political parties some good old votes from the informed Blacks—so, keep them uninformed is the “all-cost” mandate! YOU ARE SICK, AMERICA!

If we appear to be blowing our own trumpet—we are. Nobody reports intelligence as WIR does, but we seldom if ever, get the credit we deserve. WIR can exclusively report that the crown prince met with Clinton and his National Security Advisor and Secretary of State Warren Christopher. Intelligence sources informed me that the visit lasted about a week, during which Gulf security was discussed, along with the serious escalation of violence along the Saudi-Yemen border.

[H: I don't wish to quarrel with this source because basically this is a true statement about the blackout of news. However, EVERYONE was aware that this person was in the United States—they just claimed it was for EVERY OTHER REASON than meeting with the President!]

This very secretive and highly unusual visit by the crown prince appears to indicate that King Fahd will soon be a non-player in this vital region of the world. [H: Well, don't count on that being so, YET.]

The possibility of such an event ever occurring once seemed remote, but in recent months there are distinct signs that the rule of the Abdul Aziz family is showing signs of fault-lines stress, as detailed in a recent issue of WIR. What if Iran, backed by other Muslim states, including Yemen, decides to move in and overthrow the Aziz dynasty? What would be the reaction of the United States and its close ally, Great Britain?

[END QUOTING OF PART 2]

I need to interrupt here and already I find that we have missed the deadline time for having this entered in this week's paper. We are going to have to consider, when possible, a more frequently published and distributed paper because things are happening so quickly that news becomes old in a day. It is mandatory that you pay attention to the Farrakhan happenings and possibilities in these days and I don't think that even our “hot-line” is publishing an ongoing recording as it is so hard to get the happenings—BUT, I am going to ask, AGAIN, that that hot-line be changed daily and update opportunities to participate in seminars, i.e., Mark and Cathy Trance-Formation, Icke, et al., AND underlying suggestions for FREEDOM as are being presented by such as Farrakhan. THIS IS THE ONLY WAY, TEAM, THAT PEOPLE CAN GET INFORMATION, SO IT BECOMES YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO SHARE AND TELL.

Salu.

10/15/96 #1 HATONN

Let us return to Part 3 of the Coleman article and Special Report on U.S. Armed Forces in Saudi Arabia: From WIR, July 1996, page 26.

[QUOTING, PART 3:]

Intelligence sources told me that the Saudi dispute with Yemen could be the precursor of another Gulf War. There are those in Yemen and Saudi Arabia who wish this would happen, as it would draw Iran into the conflict on the side of Yemen and, no doubt, the United States on the side of the Saudis. [H: Except that now it appears the Turks are unhappy with the Kurdish situation and the Saudis are equally ticked off at the U.S. This ALL bodes badly for the U.S. and Elite

Allies if unification of the Arab Nations is achieved and maintained, and THAT appears to be where everything is headed TODAY. However, things in that area change with the winds, but there is reason to believe that some rather large things are taking place as these Arab Nations awaken and start peeling off the shackles of the Elite Puppet Masters. This is a most critical time in world affairs and it frankly does not look GOOD for you so-called “free people” of the Committee of 300 NEW WORLD ORDER.]

Yemen is looked upon with disfavor by the Aziz family, because it refused to join in the war against Iraq, and has maintained a semblance of democracy on the border of the most authoritarian country in the area—Saudi Arabia. At the heart of the dispute are three oil-rich areas, Aseer, Najran and Jizan, which the Saudis want to take over. It is almost a replay of Kuwait's grab of the oil-rich southern tip of Iran which was backed by British and United States oil interests. [H: NAMELY THE BUSH BOYS.]

Tension is running high on the border of the two countries. The Saudi army has deployed four brigades and the Turki bin Abdul Aziz brigade—a national Guard unit—while Yemen has added its 8th brigade and the 30th Al Shalla brigade.

Unless a deal can be brokered—meaning that Yemen surrenders the three oil-rich areas to the Saudis—the dispute could blow up into a full scale war that will cost thousands of lives and billions of dollars—into which the United States would inevitably be sucked.

If the Republican Party is worthy of the trust the electorate has placed in it, then it must ensure that the United States does not get involved in a shooting war in Yemen, not for any reason. [H: Forget that, friend, the Republican is BUSH RUN and it is for that very reason that you can count on the war happening!] No more Hill and Knowlton big lie scenarios. The American people are entitled to know the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about the dispute between Saudi Arabia and Yemen. [H: Again, NOT LIKELY, since this is whole cloth from the people involved in that Republican Party which actually controls your “Democratic” Party. Surprise? Why would you be surprised? I have told you all along that George Bush is NOT A WIMP but a Satanic World Elitist.]

The Republican Party should insist that Saudi Arabia pays its agreed share of the Gulf War and also pay private businesses and defense contractors the large sums of money it owes them. It is a disgrace that Saudi Arabia continues to welsh on its obligations to the United States. A visit to Riyadh by Defense Secretary Perry and Secretary of State Christopher for the specific purpose of asking for payments to be made, was unsuccessful. [H: I wonder why?]

[SUSPEND QUOTING]

No, this is not the end of the article but it is the end of the correct assumptions regarding the circumstances. I don't know who are the insiders giving information to this resource but the rest of the article is truly a distracting farce of idealistic (if the circumstances were as would be wishfully thought) reference. I will again pick up after the idealism of possible actions and I believe you will find the facts captivating:

[RESUME QUOTING:]

In its ongoing petroleum wars against Arab and Muslim oil-producing states, the petroleum industry is more and more relying on the U.S. military to get involved and fight its greed-for-oil battles. The latest country to be threatened is Libya. Hitherto, all manner of excuses to intervene militarily in Libya have been offered. ALL of them, without exception, have proved to be without merit.

Libya sits on some of the richest crude oil deposits in the world. The quality and quantity of Libyan oil is such that refining it presents a much lower cost structure, meaning a greater field in profits for the oil refineries. Hence, Libya crude is greatly prized and much sought after. The rapacious American petroleum industry would like to get its hands on Libyan oil, but as long as Colonel Moamar Qaddafi stands in the way, they have little chance of realizing their dream.

Particularly active in anti-Libyan rhetoric are the Shell Oil, Exxon, Gulf, AMOCO, ARCO and of course the flagship oil company of the COMMITTEE OF 300, BRITISH PETROLEUM. These are the same petroleum companies who backed butcher-boy George Bush and forced him to start a war in the Persian Gulf, ostensibly to rescue “Kuwait” from the clutches of Iraq. We need to remind ourselves that Iraq has a just and honorable claim to all of Kuwait, which is Iraqi land, stolen by the British Government on behalf of British Petroleum.

There was no war more crooked and depraved than the Gulf War and Bush should have been impeached for treason and sedition against the American people. [H: He still should be!] Recently, American lives were lost when terrorists bombed their barracks in Dahrn. American servicemen ought not be a target for terrorists, but they are an inviting one as long as they remain in Saudi Arabia doing the bidding of George Bush and his oil-rich friends, B.P., the Al Sabahs of Kuwait and corrupt Abdul Aziz Saudi dynasty.

We need to remind ourselves that butcher boy Bush had no constitutional powers to send American troops to fight against Iraq. Only the Congress can declare war, the President, whomever he may be, has zero authority to send troops anywhere and minus zero authority to keep troops stationed in Saudi Arabia in pursuance of war against Iraq. When We, the People, learn to make our leaders accountable, then we will have a chance of avoiding huge American casualties in the coming war over oil.

Thus, Bush who had no authority to send U.S. troops ANYWHERE without Congressional approval, literally got away with a serious crime, that of violating his oath of office. Bush should have been prosecuted for failing to uphold the Constitution and for war crimes, among other things. His wholesale slaughter of Iraqi soldiers withdrawing under a truce agreement, IS A WAR CRIME. Since the United States wants to put Serbian leaders Karadzic and Gen. Lladic on trial for their atrocities in Bosnia, why not file war crimes charged against butcher boy Bush, for the death of millions of soldiers, women and children? [H: My, you couldn't even name ALL the accomplices—right through Clinton who didn't order the most recent bombings of Iraq—but is in the Presidency and thus, HAS RESPONSIBILITY, when he didn't bother to tell you-the-people the truth about it all.]

Rep. Henry Gonzales actually drew up a list of crimes committed by Bush and sought to have him impeached, but his efforts were stalled by both Democrats and Republicans in the House, who thought it disloyal to go against the tide running against Pres. Saddam Hussein, but quite in order to shield Bush from charges of treason, of which he was most certainly guilty. It just goes to show that on vital issues, there is little difference between the two parties. As a result, the foreign policy of the United States has deteriorated into nothing less than anarchy.

AND WHAT ABOUT LIBYA?
(BLOW HER AWAY!)

Emboldened by the success of the excesses of Bush and his anticonstitution mob on Treason Hill, the Defense Department now talks openly about “nuking Libya”, as if the Defense Department has the slightest right to make foreign policy decisions of any kind. Libya's crime for which such drastic punishment must be meted out is that it is constructing what Secretary of Defense, William Perry, calls a chemical weapons plant.” Even if this fabrication were true, Libya, as a sovereign state has every right to construct anything it deems it needs to defend itself against the rapacious attacks of the United States and to at least be able to defend itself if it is attacked. [H: You have to under. and WHY Libya is in such a hateful circumstance—it refuses to join the New World Order!]

What is wrong with Libya having this capability when others already have these weapons plus a nuclear arsenal? Libya is not part of the United States and United States law does not apply to Libya nor any other nation. It is time that the United States stopped acting like a global bully against small nations. Neither the President, nor the Sec. of Defense has the slightest war-making powers and their wings are clipped by the Constitution for the very reason that war-making powers reside SOLELY WITH THE CONGRESS. [H: One day, perhaps again, this will make a difference if you can stop the murder of that Constitution—for it is already on its deathbed.]

When Sec. of Defense Perry began blabbering about attacking Libya, it was mentioned that the United States might have to use nuclear weapons to destroy the underground lab said to be located at Tarhunah, about 40 miles from Tripoli. Assistant Sec. of Defense Kenneth Bacon said that Perry had concluded that a B-6 nuclear weapon would have to be used against the Tarhunah facility. This kind of talk should make one's hair stand on end, but with the Constitution constantly being trampled underfoot by both political parties, it is now more or less standard for any Dick, Tom, or Harry to get up and shout the odds about going to war against nations arbitrarily labeled "rogue states".

[H: I ask you to think about something for a minute: What if Libya simply came and nuclear-bombed every underground facility you have which associates with nuclear enterprise, even electricity production? WHAT WOULD YOU THINK THEN? What if Libya bombed your White House in an open attempt to assassinate your PRESIDENT? People—until you wake up and stop this aggressive behavior, one of these days this is EXACTLY what will happen—but Libya will have the Arab world and the other nations of non-New World Order joined with them and holocaust will be a very mild term for what is going to take place. You have brought this upon yourselves and it is going to happen if you do not wake up and STOP THE INSANITY OF THE WORLD ELITE. YOU WILL SOON PRAY THAT FARRAKHAN CAN CALM SOME WATERS BE-

CAUSE YOU ARE HEADED FOR LOCAL ARMAGEDDON.]

The Bush-Clinton policies against "rogue states" (most of which just happen to be major oil producers) are well known, but suddenly, we have the Defense Department making major threats against other nations. From where does the Defense Department draw its authority for this newly found role? I will answer that. FROM NOWHERE. The openness in which the Pentagon talks about "nuking" Libya shows just what a lawless, bandit state the United States has become. We are perfectly willing to send in our troops to act as mercenaries for ARCO, Phillips, B.P., Chevron, Exxon and Gulf Oil, and what is worse, to take such actions WITHOUT a constitutional declaration of war.

Lately, the Congress has been passing all sorts of unconstitutional legislation under the guise of combating "terrorism". I suggest the Congress rap Perry and the DoD over the knuckles. Any attempt by the United States to interfere in the sovereign affairs of Libya would be seen by the world—and the majority of Americans, as an act of extreme violence, far outstripping in terrorism and utter depravity, any marginal benefit that might accrue from such a terrorist attack on Libya. [H: Sorry, want to bet? The Americans have become totally blood-thirsty terrorists in your own right and would think nothing of blowing away Libya or any other place, including Los Angeles, Chicago, New York—you name it. And stay tuned, John goes on to make my point.]

One of the things that chills me the most is that there has been no public outcry against Sec. Perry for even proposing to use nuclear weapons against small nations and shows just how far this country is on the road to perdition. For thirty years the United States has been saying that the use of nuclear weapons must be banned. Yet, here we have someone who was not elected by the voters, setting this dangerous precedent that it is fine to attack nations with nuclear weapons, as long as those nations are so-called "rouge states" sitting on top of valuable oil reserves. Our military must not be allowed to become attack dogs for the petroleum industry. [H: Too late, John, they already have and that is obvious by the unilateral singular attack by the U.S. on Iraq more recently than the Gulf War. These trial balloons will continue to be launched until you realize that your own U.S. Air Force, as an example, is no longer even under U.S. control—it is 100 percent United Nations war machinery.]

If we take the trouble to study the work of the great constitutional scholar, Judge Joseph Story, Volume III, Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States, and particularly chapter five, there is no mention of the Sec. of Defense and the Pentagon having the power to make and carry out the foreign policy of the United States. Every member of Congress should be forced to read this work, so that they will be in a position to put an end to such flagrant abuses of power as butcher boy Bush and Clinton engage in the Middle East. [H: Well, I don't know, I think it would be nice if the American people COULD READ at all.] Clinton hasn't shown any inclination to be a president for all of the people. His partisanship has reached undreamed heights, but now that an election is upon him, all of a sudden he tries to create the impression that he is a centrist! The U.S. has become a cat's paw for the petroleum industry and it was the petroleum industry that put the nations of Iraq and Iran in the fattening pen, so that they could be slaughtered. This, the petroleum industry thought, would be a good way to weaken both nations, who are major oil producers, and set them up for a quick knock-down.

[END QUOTING OF PART 3]

I want to leave this now while the topic of Libya is on your minds and ask you to think back less than a month as it was refused by the U.S. Government to allow Farrakhan to receive a HUMAN RIGHTS AWARD from Libya and the assistance of Libya to the Christian Nation of Islam movement into Atonement. If this is not as sick as a nation can get—I marvel that any of you are still living at all.

Moreover, and listen to me carefully: THERE IS A PLAN TO ASSASSINATE FARRAKHAN TOMORROW, OCTOBER 16, 1996. IF THIS ATROCITY AND NATIONAL TERRORISM SHOULD SUCCEED, I PITY THE NATION FOR WHEN THE PEOPLE "RECOVER" FROM THE SHOCK OF WHAT THAT WOULD MEAN—LOOK OUT WORLD. I ATTEND THIS MAN PERSONALLY AND I WILL NOT TAKE LIGHTLY TO THE HARMING OF EVEN A TINY HAIR ON THIS MAN'S HEAD. HOLD IT IN YOUR HEARTS, ELITE, FOR YOUR DAYS ARE NUMBERED! I DON'T CARE WHAT THE IGNORANT MASSES ARE TOLD TO BELIEVE—THIS MAN TEACHES ONLY CHRIST-NESS AND GOD ATONEMENT AND YOU HAD BETTER RECONSIDER THE PRONUNCIATION OF MY NAME HATONN WHICH READS BY A "SILENT" SYMBOL IN GREEK WHICH CANNOT BE REPRODUCED HERE EXCEPT BY HAND DRAWING SO WE DON'T NEED IT. MY NAME IS PRONOUNCED RIGHTFULLY AND OFFICIALLY SO: 'ATON'. HOLD IT HIGHER THAN YOUR HEART PLEASE—KEEP IT UPPERMOST IN MIND.

Salu, and may my friends have a very nice week!

[QUOTING, PART 4:]

HATRED FOR IRAQ WITHOUT CAUSE

Then, butcher boy Bush, without the slightest authority from Congress, created a climate of hatred against Iraq so that the U.S. military could have an excuse to engage in war of attrition against the people of Iraq, all for the sole benefit of the petroleum industry. When will this nation learn that the petroleum industry is run by globalists of the One World Government whose GREED knows no bounds? The petroleum industry cannot be trusted—their leaders are real troublemakers who will plunge this nation into all sorts of quagmires, if it is to their benefit. If you have any doubt about this, read my book, DIPLOMACY BY DECEPTION.

The latest casualties among U.S. servicemen in Saudi Arabia is a national disgrace. Our servicemen are not fighting for the United States. They are in Dahran to preserve the status quo and keep the corrupt, utterly corrupt, Abdul Aziz dynasty in place, because theirs is a regime of mountebanks which keeps the petroleum industry safe in Saudi Arabia. No one single American soldier must ever again be sacrificed on the altar of greed of the petroleum industry.

Who put our servicemen in this danger area and by what constitutional authority was this done?

What is at stake is not the rights and wrongs of the issue, but whether or not U.S. policy for the Middle East, and all actions taken pursuant thereto, are constitutional. That is the real issue, and one to which we as a nation must adhere. No matter how just a cause may [H: "seem to"] be, the United States cannot commit itself to unconstitutional acts.

As we have already seen, getting the U.S. involved in the Gulf War, and then continuing to station U.S. forces in Saudi Arabia, and enforcing a boycott against Iraq, WITHOUT a formal declaration of war having been passed by the Congress, VIOLATES the U.S. Constitution. That is why Rep. Gonzales tried to have Pres. Bush impeached—not because he was in favor of Iraq. It is not a matter of taking sides, but one of upholding and defending the U.S. Constitution, and that means defending the U.S. Constitution against policies that are expedient, but unconstitutional.

Ours is an open government as mandated by the Constitution. There is no room in our society for government conducted behind closed doors. Far too much of that took place in the run-up to, and during the Gulf War. The same type of governing in secrecy is rampant in the Clinton Administration. We, the People, have a right to know why decisions are made, especially where those decisions involve the armed forces of this nation. OUR ARMED FORCES ARE NOT THE PLAYTHING OF GOVERNMENT.

If there is real danger to the United States coming from such countries as Libya, Iraq, Iran, Yemen, Algeria and Pakistan, our government is duty bound to tell We, the People, EXACTLY what this danger is and how it poses a threat to the United States. Let there be a return to OPEN GOVERNMENT. We the People, are the true sovereigns, not Perry, Deutch, Clinton and Christopher, the National Security Agency, or any of the multitude of intelligence agencies which have proliferated since the end of WW-II. [H: The problem is, world, that just as does such as Australia, New Zealand, Canada, et al.—you, AMERICA, have a ZOG in power (ZIONIST OCCUPATION GOVERNMENT)!]

Open, honest government is what is needed. We, the People, must demand it. That is what the Constitution demands of government. Behind-closed-doors governing has got to be stopped. If it is not stopped, then the United States will deteriorate into a fascist state, instead of a free state, and there is ample evidence to show this is the way we are going.

If the Bush Administration and the Clinton Administration had followed the constitutional pathway, we would not be in so much trouble today with the Islamic world. We would be enjoying friendly relations with these nations instead of living under a climate of fear that they will take terrorist-type reprisals against the United States because of its misguided, lopsided foreign policy, decisions taken behind closed doors, with no input from We, the People.

[H: Please don't be blind and dumb enough to believe that this "hard-hitting on indiscretions" by the men involved in tonight's "stupidly-called DEBATE" is ANYTHING MORE THAN A DISTRACTION FROM THE REAL POINTS OF CRIMINAL INTENT. This will simply be MUD-SLINGING and never get to the heart of ANY MATTER of worthy note. YOU-the-public are fed this garbage to keep you from seeing THE REAL FACTS AND TRUTHS ON BOTH SIDES. "Oh, it's just politics..." says Clinton and, "...I have a few..." and back and forth while your nation, as we write, slips deeper into the quicksand to destructions of that which you have never envisioned. There is no American Dream, citizens—you HAVE CREATED A NIGHTMARE TO END THEM ALL. The "NEWS" will tout that the questions tonight will come from the audience? Perish the thought—the plans of subject matter have already BEEN FULLY ANNOUNCED along with the small print which reads: "...as approved by the Committee..." WHAT COMMITTEE? Ah, indeed.]

It is this kind of governing in secret that led to the present situation in Saudi Arabia, which resulted in the deaths of 21 of our servicemen. It is this kind of lopsided foreign policy that has led to the Saudi people making it clear that our armed forces are not welcome in their country. One has only to turn to Saudi television to find how widespread is the resentment.

Religious leaders constantly call on all Saudis to scrap their satellite dishes and avoid traveling to the West. The anger is mostly directed against the United States, which is perceived as the upholder of UNJUST policies in the Middle East. Much the same message pours forth from Saudi radio stations and, daily, the clerics, using their mosques as a forum, denounce the presence of U.S. armed forces in the country because it goes contrary to their Islamic faith. [H: HOW MANY OF YOU REALIZE THAT IN THE ISLAMIC, AND OTHER AKIN FAITHS, THERE IS NO ACCEPTANCE OR ALLOWED "INTEREST" (USURY) AND THEREFORE THERE ARE TRILLIONS OF DOLLARS STOLEN FROM THESE PEOPLE CONSTANTLY? WHEN DO YOU THINK THEY WILL WAKE UP AND REALLY SMELL THE BURNING COFFEE? AND WHAT DO YOU THINK THEY WILL DO IN RESPECT TO THEIR HOLY PERCEPTIONS? IT IS COMING, FOR "THEY" KNOW THEY CAN PREVAIL AND STILL KEEP TO THEIR DOCTRINES.]

How is it that, in the rush to protect the greedy petroleum industry, the United States is so insensitive to the religious beliefs of millions of Muslims, and then, we turn around and blame them for giving terrorists a chance to attack our servicemen?

Ever since the British installed the Abdul Aziz-Wahabi dynasty and created "Saudi Arabia" the Islamic world has questioned the Saudi ruler's commitment to their Muslim faith. The United States has always ignored this strong undercurrent, and has constantly propped-up and supported the Abdul Aziz clan in the interests of ARAMCO and B.P., without paying the slightest attention to the feeling of the Saudi people.

Now we are starting to pay the price for our official shortsightedness. The Gulf War brought the stationing of U.S. forces in Saudi Arabia. The war was not approved by the majority of the Saudi people, but they had no forum where they could express their opposition. Likewise the U.S. troops and planes in the country; and this only encouraged a two-faced strategy by the Saudi Government.

For seventy years or more, the Abdul Aziz royal family pursued a two-faced policy to appease the petroleum industry and put billions of dollars in their pockets, often at the cost of the religious beliefs and feelings of their people. The Saudi ruling family sought friendly ties with the West and declared political and economic relations with the nations of the West, particularly, the United States, while all the time, their citizens held a far-different view.

With a population of 18 million under daily instruction by the clerics, the royal family seemed to forget that their official policy toward the West, and especially toward the United States, was at variance with what the religious leaders believed and taught.

The United States and British governments pursued a policy of setting the oil-producing Middle East nations against each other. This deceitful policy climaxed in the Gulf War, but it backfired when the Saudi people realized that much of the danger said to emanate from Iraq and Iran, for example, sprang from opposition to the royal family, and not to the people of Saudi Arabia.

When this realization dawned upon the people of Saudi Arabia and they began to realize that it was simply a "divide and rule" trick, as indeed they realized in the aftermath of the Gulf War, loud voices were raised against the two-track status quo, but critics were called "dissidents" and had to flee for their lives. [H: Ah indeed, is this DIFFERENT FROM WHAT IS HAPPENING TO THE ONES WHO SPEAK OUT IN THE U.S.A. THIS DAY?]

The enormous benefits provided the Saudis by Western companies also brought unwelcome changes and intrusions. A few miles away from the insulated foreign compounds along the sea shores (mainly American, with French and British nationals, also) bikini-clad women lounge; Moslem women, heavily veiled and covered from head to toe, are watched over by the Religious Police, lest decadent Western influence should lead them astray.

There is a climate of fear among the Saudi Muslims; they see their country being occupied by people of a different nationality and religious belief, and they do not like it. For this reason, the two-faced strategy of the Saudi royal family is starting to come apart. Forces even within the royal family are demanding a return to the fundamentals of the Muslim faith.

Is it any wonder then that terrorists are seizing the moment of discontent to carry out their vile bombings of U.S. military establishments? The wonder is that the U.S. Government has been blind to the changes that have swept across the people, changes that will, in all likelihood, sweep the Abdul Aziz ruling family out of power and, with it, more frequent and perhaps deadlier attacks on U.S. installations and military personnel.

There are those who will put up the shop-worn argument that the U.S. military presence in Saudi Arabia is necessary to safeguard vital oil supplies. This idea has long ago been discounted. If the U.S. would end the repressive taxation policies that keep domestic oil producers out of business; if our government would pursue a policy favorable to domestic exploration and drilling, we would not need to be wasting billions of dollars in Saudi Arabia and, at the same time, endangering the lives of our servicemen. [H: Ah, but that would not deliver a ONE WORLD ORDER, would it?]

There is no longer any need to make targets of our servicemen in Saudi Arabia. The United States armed forces are not the tools of the petroleum industry [H:

We are very short of time this morning for writing and I feel the most important thing we can offer is the finish of the particular article we have been using from

Dr. Coleman.

We were just about to mention Turkey and since we only have a wee bit left on the article, let us finish it up this morning.

[QUOTING, PART 5:]

TURKEY

Now U.S. servicemen have a new danger facing them, this time Turkey. With the opposition Welfare Party winning so many seats in the parliament, President Suleyman Demiril was forced to name Necmettin Erbakan as the new Prime Minister who will replace former Prime Minister Tansu Cillier. The Welfare Party is a Muslim fundamentalist party, and it will strive to oust the United States from bases in Turkey. [H: Exactly what they should do.]

The majority of the Turkish people did not approve of Turkey siding with the U.S. in the Gulf War, nor do they approve of the recent deal in terms of which Israeli Air Force planes will be allowed to overfly Turkey, and the United States military bases to be expanded.

This is certain to make U.S. servicemen targets for extremist groups in Turkey. Congress must immediately cancel this arrangement and withdraw all U.S. servicemen not only from Turkey, but from the entire Gulf region also. Ciller's secular government collapsed in September, which led to the recent elections from which the Welfare Party emerged as the chief vote-getter. This could mean the end of the Turkish secular state, which has been in existence since the days of Kimmel Attaturk.

Erbakan says he wants to move Turkey away from Western influence and closer to Muslim states. He has consistently called into question Turkey's pro-U.S.A. stance and clearly, this puts U.S. servicemen, stationed in that country, in real danger. Moreover the Muslim Welfare Party is tired of seeing Turkey as a cat's paw to the United States in using the Kurdish problem to attempt to unseat Pres. Saddam Hussein of Iraq.

It is in pursuance of this policy that Bush, singlehandedly and without one shred of Congressional authority, stationed U.S. servicemen in Saudi Arabia to overfly Iraq airspace, ostensibly to protect the Kurds from attacks by the Iraqi Army. The Welfare Party sees this as a farce. The Welfare Party has said it will reverse this policy as soon as it comes to power, and given the manner in which Islamic fundamentalism has risen in the country, it is only a matter of time before this happens.

While U.S. servicemen and women face daily dangers in Dhahran, in Saudi Arabia, the very people they are supposed to be guarding from attack by Baghdad, the Kurds, are under daily assault by the Turkish Army. The Kurdish Worker Party headquarters in London said in mid-July of 1996 that Turkish soldiers and airplanes killed 50,000 Kurds in 1995, many of whom were women and children. "The Turkish Army and Air Force embarked on a systematic program of destroying all villages along the northern borders with Turkey," the report said.

While the figure of 50,000 may be somewhat overstated, nevertheless this does not detract from the fact that many thousands of Kurds have been killed and many more are likely to be killed, unless the war of attrition against the Kurds by the Turks, supported by the British and American petroleum companies anxious to get their hands on the MOSUL OILFIELDS, and backed by the U.S. and British governments, can be brought to a halt through international pressure.

Meantime, U.S. Armed Forces continue to face the wrath of the Muslim world because of their presence in Saudi Arabia. Our armed forces are there for three purposes.

1. To protect the utterly corrupt Abdul Aziz-Wahabi regime ruling Saudi Arabia.
2. To protect the utterly corrupt and evil Al Sabah regime in Kuwait and keep oil revenues flowing into London banks in the City of London.
3. To make sure that the imbalance of power in the entire Middle East region is maintained.

If President Clinton thinks he has just cause and reason to keep our armed forces in Saudi Arabia—AND ONLY IF IT CAN BE PROVED THAT HE IS ACTING SOLELY IN THE INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES, then let him take his case to the people of the United States, and then, if his actions are approved THROUGH THE PROPER CONSTITUTIONAL PROCEDURAL MEASURES ADOPTED BY THE HOUSE AND SENATE, then let our armed forces remain, but in a properly secured environment and not as sitting ducks for some terrorist group. [H: Well, you KNOW that if it were done properly and constitutionally—there would be no approval, so we begin again at zero, don't we?]

If Clinton does not get permission from Congress to keep our armed forces in Saudi Arabia, then he MUST recall them immediately. If Clinton does not or will not do this, then Congress must cut off funding and compel our servicemen to return to the United States. The time to act is NOW. Don't wait for any more casualties!

[H: Obviously the time is NOW TOO LATE AND SO IT GOES...!]

10/16/96 RAY BILGER

Prior to 1871, the Bureau of Indian Affairs (B.I.A.—a U.S. Government creation; recognized and respected by few Indians) was administered under the War Department (name changed to Dept. of Defense after World War II, although functionally the same as War Dept.). Since 1871 the B.I.A. has been managed by the Department of the Interior.

From time immemorial, the Hopi and Navajo have lived in what is known as the Four Corners Area, where the states of Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and Colorado join. Here are the largest Indian reservations in America. The Hopi and Navajo have traditionally experienced minor disputes between themselves, but have never sought outside help to resolve their differences.

In 1905, under B.I.A. approval, and against Hopi and Navajo wishes, oil and gas exploration began in the Four Corners area. Coal was discovered in 1909. As early as 1921, Standard Oil (a Rockefeller Company) was involved in trying to negotiate approval to exploit vast oil reserves. Eventually, companies like Exxon, Peabody Coal Company, Pittsburg & Midway Coal Mining Company, El Paso Natural Gas Company, and Utah International Inc. would get involved, as the area had substantial deposits of oil, gas, coal, copper and uranium. Today, these companies are ruining the land. The B.I.A. has helped these corporate interests in heavily exploiting the area by fomenting dissension between the Hopi and Navajo and fighting, to this day, for their relocation. The Native peoples do not want relocation and only wish to be left on their own lands. The fight today centers around Big Mountain in Arizona.

Kee Shay, a Navajo Elder, spoke recently of his feelings about the land around Big Mountain and the thought of relocation, (quoting:)

We the people that live here around Big Mountain, we have lived here for many generations from newborns all the way back to old people who go back to Mother Earth when they die of old age...

By the Creator's law this land is ours. This is a holy place for us, Big Mountain. We believe in these things... We are going to stay. By Nature's Law we were instructed to live here. One of our gods lives on the Mountain there. We don't want to leave...

Our religion and our freedom is being taken away from us. Our four sacred Mountains are being taken away from us... Our way of life is being swept away...

These people we call the "Ancient Ones" (the Anasazi) lived here before the Navajo or Hopi ever existed. They have disappeared because they made a mistake. They were taken back by the wind and the fire. We are beginning to understand. (End quoting)

And David Monogye, a Hopi Priest, had this to say regarding the B.I.A. generated problems, (quoting:)

The Great Spirit gave us a symbol of His law in the Sacred Stone Tablets. He told us to take care of the land. The Sacred Stone Tablets are in our possession and that means we still are the caretakers of the hemisphere...

In our religious circles in the kivas, we pray, meditate and conduct ceremonies to keep life in balance. If mineral resources are removed or forests destroyed all life is affected. So we sit here in our circle to pray, meditate, and think of all things that live.

If we neglect our ceremonies, then terrible things may happen. Our prayer and meditation shows that the Spirits still remember us. They still take care of us. But if we fail, then natural disaster may destroy all life. This is why we must hold on to the Hopi way of life and beliefs...

We have mentioned many prophecies. Hopi prophecies and instructions about how to take care of this land for the Great Spirit to keep in balance all the natural elements. If we ignore the Elders advice, sooner or later the natural forces will let us know—cry out and warn us. There may be earthquakes. Wind destructive, cyclone, tidal waves. These are warnings to us. This is already happening and we should realize the danger and go to the leaders to protect the land and life of all people and leave this land alone until the purification takes place...

It's... the Bureau of Indian Affairs that pushes traditional people out. It's the government's program. We're not fighting out here. We're not quarreling. The newspapers create the impression that we are fighting over land. It's not a fight between Navajo and Hopi. It's a fight between all Native people against the government. It's a fight by all Native people who want to continue to live on the land in the traditional way...

Our prophecies foretold that we would come to a stage where we struggle for land and life. The last stages. We cry for help. We call on the world for support to put a stop to these wrong policies that take place all over the world against Native people everywhere.

We will not give up our way of life or belief. We have not turned away from the instructions of the Great Spirit. We still have in our possession the Sacred Stone Tablets that were given to us by the Great Spirit. We are not going to let go of this land and life. (End quoting)

For those who think the Indians had their lands stolen by the White man in some distant time past, and that those days are gone now, think again. And the Hopi and Navajo are not the only Native peoples who suffer today. It is a sad day for America to know that this kind of abuse continues, even as you read this. You can still speak out to our government about this injustice against the Hopi and Navajo. The Great Spirit will honor you for doing so.

The Native people in America today are still abused and exploited for two main reasons. First, they live on lands that the White man has discovered to contain much needed natural resources. And secondly, the Indian cannot easily be trained to be a good, productive slave. He doesn't happily adapt to putting his nose to the grindstone from 9-5, only to then end up giving away half of his pay to the government in the form of taxes. Apparently the rest of you don't seem to mind too much working all day to give half your money away. Or, if you do mind, you certainly have not organized to put a stop to this obscene ritual. Oh well!

As far as the prophecies about earthquakes, etc., for our not living in harmony and balance with all things, it would appear that that time is now upon us. And our Elite Controllers continue to mess with Mother Nature as if she were some toy that will never react. She is beginning to react. Let's continue with our study of weather modification.

Incredible damage was done in Florida and Louisiana from Hurricane Andrew in late August of 1992, thanks to Henry Kissinger (see Part X of this series). A little over two weeks later, on September 13, 1992, Hurricane Iniki slammed into the Hawaiian Islands with winds of 160 M.P.H., and the Islands came under F.E.M.A. (Federal Emergency Management Agency) control. If the reader has ever seen a globe or a map of the Pacific Ocean, you have to know where to look to find the Hawaiian Islands, so small are they. Yet this powerful hurricane found those tiny islands and headed right for them. It was almost as if the hurricane had a mind of its own. All of this is not so difficult to comprehend if ones realize that high-level sources have stated that our weather has been totally controlled and manipulated since at least 1988!!

1993 was an interesting year for weather, not soon to be forgotten. In the week of Saturday, March 13, 1993, what would become known as the "Blizzard of 93" pounded the entire East Coast of America. When it was all over, it left over 172 people dead. Pennsylvania and New Jersey both declared a state of emergency for their entire states. Florida had been hit with 50 tornadoes, and declared a state of emergency in 17 counties. Hurricane force winds were felt in many areas; off the coast of the Carolinas, there were winds of 90 M.P.H. Airports were closed from Atlanta, Georgia to Boston, Massachusetts. All of this occurred in the middle of the Waco, Texas standoff between Branch Davidians and the U.S. Government. The storm served as a bit of a distraction.

In late April and into May of 1993, an unusually high number of tornadoes struck in the Midwest U.S., along the general area of the Mississippi River. For example, on Friday, May 7th, about 50 tornadoes struck from Minnesota all the way down to Texas. This area is called "Tornado Alley". The following day, Saturday, May 8th, there were 30 more twisters. This was about the time the rains started in the area.

Tornadoes continued throughout the month and into June, with June 7th & 8th each seeing about 20 twisters in the same general area. By the end of May it was raining every day, often in torrents.

The July 18, 1993 issue of the New York Times reported that it had already rained 49 straight days, often heavy, all along the area of the Mississippi River. And the rains and flooding continued through July, and August and into September. Satellite pictures July showed so much water that observers said the area resembled a sixth Great Lake.

Meteorologists stated that there was an unusual "Blocking Pattern" in place (that they could not explain) which caused all storms, which normally move from west to east across America, to dump their loads in the same area along the Mississippi.

This author watched The Weather Channel on television throughout the summer of 1993, fully aware of exactly what was happening as it unfolded. You could watch the weather move from the West to the Mississippi area and then dump. Consequently, the east, and especially the southeast, were left dry. What caused all this?

The Russians were operating their powerful "Woodpecker" Electromagnetic E.L.F. pulsing system, and set up a giant standing wave running north to south through the entire region. This acted as a block to prevent any precipitation from traveling east of the target area. One would suspect the use of CosmoSpheres to further cause great amounts of water to be moved into the area. More precipitation was brought up from the Gulf of Mexico in conjunction with manipulation of the jet stream.

Most troubling, however, is the fact that evidence strongly suggests that the U.S. Government acted in concert with the Russians to achieve the devastating effects which were produced. The November 1989 issue of the Bulletin of Atomic Scientists listed some of the locations of the U.S. Government's G.W.E.N.

influence precipitation! Of course, the government will say those towers are only for defense purposes. Really? Readers can believe as they wish. But, has the government told the truth about anything else revealed in this series???

What was the net result of all this activity? The Bolsheviks running our government want to destroy everything, and they did a good job. Crops were destroyed in the entire area from heavy flooding. Crops were destroyed in the Southeast from severe drought. Because of sewer systems overflowing into the flood, diseases were spread everywhere. Of the 791 counties in the nine-state flood zone, 421 were declared Federal disaster areas, and came under F.E.M.A. control. Countless lives and businesses were shattered. The Federal government enjoyed a huge land grab as millions of acres were newly declared as Federal Wetlands, which automatically come under government control. And people were so preoccupied (and distracted) with all this, that they hardly noticed the incredible "suicide" of White House Counsel Vince Foster (on July 20, 1993), who apparently shot himself in the back of the head, not once, but twice! Vince Foster must have been a remarkable man, as most men would be dead with only one shot to the head. This may be the first time in recorded history where a man required two shots to the head to be successfully "suicided".

One other thing was pretty well covered up by all the flooding.

People quickly forgot about the Waco, Texas Massacre on April 19, 1993, wherein 85 men, women and children were incinerated by the U.S.

(Bolshevik-run) Government.

The tornadoes began right after that, with 2 dozen occurring on April 24th & 25th. One of those twisters alone killed at least 10 people in Oklahoma. That was enough to immediately distract attention away from Waco!!

The December 17, 1994 issue of Science News ran an article entitled "Theorists Grapple With High-fly-ing Sprites". As the article states in part, (quoting:)

Physicists are struggling to explain recently discovered forms of atmospheric fireworks so colorful and bizarre that regular lightning looks drab in comparison.

From two airplanes, Davis D. Sentman and colleagues at the University of Alaska at Fairbanks pinpointed where and when the bursts appear, ... at altitudes of 50 to 90 kilometers... above thunderstorms. Ordinary lightning is restricted to the troposphere, at altitudes of less than 20 kilometers.

Researchers unveiled theories to explain the phenomena, dubbed red sprites and blue jets. (End quoting)

Although researchers from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Stanford University, and Los Alamos National Laboratories (New Mexico) offered their detailed opinions of the phenomena, according to Mr. Sentman, "There are still problems with all of these explanations". Nowhere in the article is there any mention of H.A.A.R.P. (High-frequency Active Auroral Research Project), which was active at the time in Alaska. This author believes that it is highly possible that the scientists in Alaska were in fact watching powerful blasts from the ground-based H.A.A.R.P. equipment firing into the ionosphere!

There has been no let-up of manipulation of the weather. We could write volumes on this and still not exhaust the subject, but for the sake of brevity, let's move ahead to 1996.

To more clearly understand the following, we need to understand that one of the functions of the Central Intelligence Agency (C.I.A.), around the world, is to write the version of news events that will be run in major papers. According to the New York Times of December 25, 26 and 27, 1977, the C.I.A. owns outright over 200 newspapers, magazines, wire services, and publishing houses around the world. Since they serve the One World Controllers, do you think the C.I.A. brings us the truth or just more propaganda?

On September 2, 1996, all major (controlled) news sources reported that Saddam Hussein, President of Iraq, ordered three armored divisions of his military to attack Kurdish Rebels in the north of Iraq. In New York City, the United Nations Security Council condemned Hussein's actions. And in Washington, D.C., President Clinton said the U.S. was ready to retaliate if necessary—quite a coordinated response, don't you think? We are the world's policeman, after all. (Funny they never mention the $250 million joint bank account that George Bush and Saddam Hussein held at B.C.C.I—or the $4 billion in illicit loans that Henry Kissinger arranged for Saddam through Banke Nationale de Lavoro—B.N.L.)

We retaliated. On September 3, 1996, the U.S. fired 27 Cruise Missiles into Iraq. The following day, September 4, we fired 13 more.

It is not surprising that Russia considers Iraq to be within her sphere of influence, and was more than a bit upset by the U.S. actions. Imagine how we would feel if Russia fired missiles and inflicted heavy damage across our border in Toronto, Canada, or just south of the Rio Grande in northern Mexico?

On September 5, 1996, Hurricane Fran slammed into the coast of North Carolina with 100 M.P.H. winds and continued to move toward the northwest. It maintained winds of 65 M.P.H. over land, spawned numerous tornadoes, dumped heavy rains which caused major flooding (even in Washington D.C., where our leaders might get the message), and continued as a major storm all the way up to the Great Lakes, leaving 33 people dead! A high-level source has revealed that this was retaliation by Russia for U.S. actions in Iraq.

Immediately after this, another major hurricane was headed toward the southeastern U.S. Coast. Anyone who was able to watch the weather reports on television may have seen the satellite shots of the entire region. Along the whole southern Atlantic coast of America, a continuous strong flow of air moved from west to east. So strong did this appear on television that no hurricane could possibly reach the coast, and the new hurricane moved off to the northeast. Was this a move by the United States to prevent another Russian-made hurricane from doing yet more damage?

We can see that, indeed, whoever controls the weather controls those affected by that weather. For example, the government, working in conjunction with petroleum and power companies, can push up the price of oil, natural gas, and electricity, and then produce extremely cold weather, thereby generating huge profits for a few wealthy individuals. Insidious? Yes, but that's big business today. Their concern is not with making a better world for people, but rather to increase the profit-margin while maintaining absolute control of the masses!!

(Ground Wave Emergency Network) towers. More than a few of these towers were right in the areas of heavy rainfall. The Earth's magnetic field can be altered within a 200 to 250-mile radius of the towers. It is a well documented fact that alterations in that magnetic field can strongly

Enough of weather modification. Let's now explore what has been, and what is being, done in the area of geophysical manipulations. The primary focus here will be human-induced earthquakes, as this is the main area of Elite interest. This is, of course, because earthquakes are so profound and have the most dramatic effects for purposes of controlling populations. Besides, most people may never comprehend the fact that human beings have the capability to produce such things, or that humans would ever do such things to each other. Thus, when an earthquake occurs, very few would even think of asking, "Was that natural or man-made?" Actually, now that we have progressed into a higher level of activity with respect to Earth Changes, it becomes increasingly more difficult to know which is which. In some places the ground seems to be shaking all the time!

As you will recall, in Part V of this series, we mentioned "Tesla's Controlled Earthquakes" of 1935, called by Nikola Tesla "the art of telegeodynamics". Tesla was able to cause "rhythmical vibrations to pass through the Earth with almost no loss of energy", and he could "convey these mechanical effects to the greatest terrestrial distances and produce all kinds of unique effects."

The author has little information on developments over the forty years following 1935, yet something must have been happening because, as mentioned in Part IX of this series, a Senate sub-committee hearing, chaired by Senator Claiborne Pell, stated that "We need a treaty now... before the military leaders of the world start directing storms, manipulating climates and inducing earthquakes against their enemies." Senator Pell would not have spoken in 1975 about inducing earthquakes unless he had some knowledge that such technology existed.

Also reported in Part IX of this series, on December 10, 1976, the General Assembly of the United Nations approved the "Convention on the Prohibition of Military or any Other Hostile Use of Environmental Modification Techniques", and issued a report. Again, such a report would not have been issued if there were not technology in place capable of environmental modification, including the ability to induce earthquakes.

The June 5, 1977 edition of the New York Times described the great earthquake which destroyed Tangshan, China on July 28, 1976, and killed over 650,000 people. "Just before the first tremor at 3:42 a.m., the sky lit up like daylight. The multi-hued lights, mainly white and red, were seen up to 200 miles away. Leaves on many trees were burned to a crisp and growing vegetables were scorched on one side, as if by a fireball."

Some investigators believe these electrical effects were associated with electromagnetic plasma and ball lightning and the strange array of flashes which result from Tesla-style technology and/or H.A.A.R.P. transmissions. Was this brilliant flash of colored light what Tesla was talking about in 1935 when he mentioned "all kinds of unique effects"? Was this earthquake just a test of the system, conducted on the unsuspecting people of China? It certainly does not appear like it was a natural earthquake.

In January of 1978, Dr. Andrija Puharich, M.D., LL.D., issued a detailed research paper entitled "Global Magnetic Warfare—A Layman's View of Certain Artificially Induced Unusual Effects on The Planet Earth During 1976 and 1977". In his paper, Dr. Puharich stated, "Of the many great earthquakes of 1976, there is one that demands special attention—the July 28, 1976 Tangshan, China earthquake."

The January 1978 edition of Specula magazine ran an article which described an incredibly profound and powerful phenomenon that could be produced within the Earth by what is called the "Tesla Effect", originally discovered by Nikola Tesla. According to the article, electromagnetic signals of certain frequencies can be transmitted through the Earth to form standing waves in the Earth itself. In certain cases, coherence to this standing wave can be induced wherein a fraction of the vast, surging electromagnetic current of the Earth itself feeds into and augments the induced standing wave. In other words, "much more energy is now present in the standing wave than the... amount being fed in from the Earth's surface." By interferometer techniques, giant standing waves can be combined to produce a focused beam of very great energy. This can then be used to produce earthquakes induced at distant aiming points.

It might be good to go back and re-read the above paragraph a couple of times. This is one of the things which greatly concerned Mr. Tesla, because this is exactly the type of thing that could easily get out of control once it begins vibrating within the Earth, and could actually cause the Earth to vibrate to pieces!! Our Earth scientists often do not know what they are dealing with. Could the use of this technique have been responsible for the earthquake in Tangshan, China in 1976??

One source (Dr. Peter Beter) has revealed that by 1977 the Russians had placed fission-fusion-fission Superbombs in certain deep undersea trenches around the Philippines. The source believes that the Philippines are in the position of a "keystone" within the giant Pacific Tectonic Plate. Russia had already been setting off lower yield undersea weapons in other areas around the Pacific Ocean, causing strong earthquakes. The source believes the intention was/is to relieve tensions all around the Pacific plate, except the Philippines, where the stresses would build to tremendous levels. Then, at a certain point, the bombs around the Philippines will be set off. It is expected that this will cause incredible earthquakes and tidal waves and ultimately devastate the American West Coast! Volcanoes erupting in the Philippines are an indication that stresses are building in the area. (Readers need to understand that earthquakes and volcanoes are intimately connected and work hand in hand, with the one sometimes triggering the other, and sometimes the other triggering the one. An earthquake can open vents deep in the Earth which allow lava to flow up. In other cases, the stresses driving volcanic activity can also cause earthquakes.)

The January 30, 1981 edition of the Washington Post reported that in 1979 there were 56 significant earthquakes in the world, and that by 1980 the annual figure was up to 71. Coincidentally, in 1980 there was an increase in E.L.F. (Extremely Low frequency) transmissions by both Russia and the United States.

In 1981, Lt. Col. Thomas Bearden, a nuclear engineer and the leading Tesla researcher in the U.S., gave a very interesting lecture before the U.S. Psychotronics Association. In part of his talk he was speaking about the standing waves produced by Tesla Magnifying Transmitters that were also discussed in Specula magazine in 1978. He was, in essence, describing how H.A.A.R.P. works. Mr. Bearden stated in part, (quoting:)

Then what you do is you change the frequency. If you change the frequency one way (by dephasing it), you dump the energy up in the atmosphere beyond the point on the other side of the Earth that you focused upon. As you start ionizing the air, you can change the weather flow patterns, the jet stream, etc. If you dump it gradually, real gradually, you influence the heck out of the weather. It's a great weather machine. If you dump it sharply, you won't get the little ionization like that. You will get flashes and fireballs (plasma) that will come down to the surface of the Earth. You can cause enormous weather changes over entire regions by playing that thing back and forth. (End quoting)

Mr. Bearden almost makes it sound like some kind of weather machine toy that's fun to operate. But it also sounds like Tangshan, China, again, on July 28, 1976.

We will continue with Russian earthquake-generating cobalt bombs buried in the Northeast United States, and see who was responsible for the Kobe, Japan earthquake!

Isn't it sad to see what absolute devastation and havoc the Elite One World Controllers have wreaked upon humanity? Because we allow it, it continues today, only worse.

Author's Note—This author is deeply appreciative of all those who have sent words of praise and support from around the world for this series. Knowing you all care that much only increases the dedication to do a thorough job. Since responding to all of you would only detract from the great amount of time required to accomplish this task, I will take this opportunity to thank you all very much. I live to serve. With every good wish, I remain in Light—R.E.B.

(1) Cry Sacred Ground—Big Mountain, U.S.A., by Anita Parlow, 1988, published by the Sacred Lands Project of the Christic Institute, Washington, D.C. This book eloquently documents the ongoing struggle of the Hopi and Navajo to maintain their ancestral lands in the Four Corners area, under constant pressure from big business and the Government (as if there was any difference between the two).

This author has just received word from Navajo friends that President Bill Clinton has just signed legislation that would force the Navajo to lease their land to big corporations. The struggle continues. If enough of us voiced our outrage to Washington about this injustice, we could turn things around.

The News Desk

10/20/96 DR. AL OVERHOLT

O.J. SIMPSON—INNOCENT OR GUILTY?

Now that the O.J. civil trial is underway and Robert Kardashian, a close associate of his for many years, is giving out his suspicions (on TV and in newspapers) that O.J. is guilty and he failed a lie detector test, thinking people should consider some other possibilities.

Let's assume that O.J. is innocent. If true, how could they have so much evidence to make him appear guilty? According to reports, he made very suspicious actions and he refused to testify to his innocence, but kept insisting he was not guilty.

He also stated he was going to work hard to find the guilty party or parties, but there have been no reports, that I have heard of, that he was doing so.

Let's just suppose that O.J. was in the wrong place at the wrong time and was seen witnessing some things or was told some things, by someone or someones who approached him before or shortly after the fact and warned him of severe consequences if he should talk or indicate he had any personal knowledge of how, why, when and where of the murders of his ex-wife Nicole and Ron Goldman.

Suppose the consequences are that he would never see his children again, or worse, that they would be tortured or/and murdered if he told anyone or indicated he knew anything personally about the murders.

With these suppositions would it not be understandable that he would "flunk" a lie detector test in that he would be trying to hide something and would be very nervous about making statements that might indicate he's hiding knowledge and yet not having any personal knowledge of what happened. Even though he might have hearsay and/or personal knowledge, he could very well be innocent and dare not let it out because of the protection of his children's lives.

Under the above assumptions, could you appear entirely innocent? Certainly, using these assumptions, an innocent person would have an awful time trying to live with himself, and yet—should they put their children's lives in jeopardy by telling what they know? (Have you ever read about the poor protection the law enforcement agencies give you when you witness in court under similar-type situations?)

How would you react if the above scenario were true and you were in O.J.'s position? Do you think you could possibly appear entirely innocent and pass a lie detector test while hiding such an overpowering burden? Could you get on the witness stand, testify in your own defense, without committing perjury and appear innocent while trying to protect your children's lives?

I would also ask you to reconsider these other factors when trying to make sense of what has been and is now going on in this highly controversial trial.

The ex-cop, Mark Fuhrman, (convicted as a felon for lying to the O.J. criminal trial court) who was a major player in obtaining evidence, is highly suspicioned of having planted evidence. Then add to this the fact that blood samples were grossly mishandled (the L.A. Police Department was found to have many discrepancies in their lab procedures), the glove did not fit, the Bronco was not locked up or properly cared for prior to finding a tiny amount of blood evidence in it (gross negligence on the part of the police). (Do you know that they can clone anybody's blood? A tiny drop is all that is necessary to make gallons? How many times in the past do you suppose that doctors have taken a sample of O.J.'s blood—him being a professional football player?) Why wasn't the Bronco smeared with blood?

Now if you think the underworld crime gangs wouldn't use such kinds of blackmail threats—think again. This is a very common kind of threat they use to insure closed mouths under many circumstances. Could you think of a better method to shut someone's mouth without murdering them? If it was done to you, could you really appear innocent when you have the knowledge but cannot risk the lives of your children by speaking out? Would you mount a serious attempt to find the real criminals? Would you have committed suicide or threatened to do so to get out of an overpowering hopelessness of being able to live with this knowledge bottled up within you for the next 40 or more years of life expectancy?

Would you also consider just what the media (who are the Elite) are accomplishing in pushing a guilty verdict down the people's throat when the jury found him not guilty? The Constitution says a man is innocent until found guilty by a legal jury. Do you really think it is constitutional for him to be put in front of another jury to find out if he owes money to somebody when he was pronounced not guilty of the charge for which they are trying to collect the money? If our court system had any justice left in it they could not justify whatsoever putting O.J. on trial again. It is un-Constitutional to put a man on trial more than once for the same charge.

By condoning these actions by the Elite we are condoning our own slavery. There is far more involved in this court case being pushed by the courts and the media than meets the eye. It's best that we all wake-up and stop these miscarriages of justice because it won't be long until any of us may be on the wrong end of this kind of judgement.

I suggest that you really ponder the above before condemning O.J. Furthermore, CONTACT, in issue Vol. 10, #9, Sep. 26, 1995, states, [quoting:]

As the farce moves into its near final show and tell—I remind you of several things of which CONTACT can be quite proud of its work, investigations and presentations.

Why was the lead defense attorney, Johnnie Cochran, in Florida instead of in court in L.A. on one of the most important days of Simpson's trial last week? Perhaps I might point out that we have told you WHO murdered Nicole and Goldman. We told you who was behind the murders and we told you it was completely wrapped up in political manipulation, desire to incite riot, racism and plain old "Mafia-type" CRIME. Why O.J.? Well, he is the perfect showpiece—ISN'T HE?

We had a silent "informer" send information through several other "informers" until we don't have identity of the FIRST, but we do have the first hand-written information note still before us. You will note that we have to spell names according to the way they "sound" because we are dealing with both oriental origins AND Italian-type crime figures. We received this information in May (May 1, 1995) and passed it immediately to every member of the defense team, the prosecution, the media AND Gerry Spence, Rosie Greer, Attny. Grimes, Larry King, and, and, and.... We also told about the set-ups in both the higher political arena, the police AND the FBI. We offered, over and over again, the INVESTIGATIVE REPORTS OF GARY WEAN and sent them to every Tom, Dick and Harry available anywhere—AND YOU CAN NOW SEE THEY ARE TRUTH. You have just had a dose of hidden courtroom work wherein the witnesses (Fiatto[s] [spelled by sound]) (Crime figures) came in to testify. They are in the witness protection program? No, they are simply part of THE operation! At any rate, did anyone notice that ALL methods of recording, audio and pictorial (even sketch artists) were tossed OUT OF THE ROOM? Worse, when Ito swore in the first Fiatto brother, HE HAD FORGOTTEN TO BRING IN THE JURY!

Ah, but what has happened? What has happened is that Nicole's MOUTH (sister, Denise) has had a "relationship" with one of those "nice" brothers? What is going on here? Or, perhaps better, what is coming OFF here? Is O.J. a SAINT? Goodness NO, why do you think they set HIM up? He WILL BE after all this is over!

I suggest everyone go read Gary Wean's writing AGAIN! Then keep this message in mind from May 1, 1995: "Ippolito got out of jail two weeks before the Simpson murders (he is supposed to have escaped!) The week before the murders Ippolito was with Paduano who is the owner of a 'night club', Fat Body Paduano. O.J. Simpson was the financier for Fat Body Paduano's and Paduano himself." O.J.'s "Paula" was sent to Florida where she could have bodyguards and protection when it became obvious the POLICE were a real hazard to her California health. The source of the "ring of operations" is out of Florida and the "opposition" or COMPETITION is out of San Luis Obispo County, Calif. and Los Angeles.

"Paduano's son Anthony was BEST FRIENDS with Ronald Goldman and both had been on the TV show, STUDS."

The message says that "Ippolito had Nicole and Goldman killed, thus eliminating Paduano's son's best friend and Paduano's financier's wife," effectively setting the circumstances for the most hidden underworld war of all time and setting the stage for the worst race riots ever known. This WHOLE thing is THE STAB-BINGS HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD!!

"Sino Salvatori Sighisio WAS THE ACTUAL HIT MAN!" [The spelling of the name may be off just a tad as the "g" may be a "z" in the Surname and the "S" may be a "G" in the "Christian" or first name.] [End quoting]

Hopefully this will make you think and ponder a little harder before coming to any conclusion about INNOCENT OR GUILTY!! And hopefully those words will also help you to search for what is behind the media's purposes for attempting to PUSH their conclusions and explanations for so many happenings.

JUSTICES OK ROADBLOCKS

From The Orlando Sentinel, 10/8/96, [quoting:]

Florida's stopping cars to search for drugs was upheld by the high court.

WASHINGTON—The Supreme Court on Monday let stand a precedent-setting Florida ruling that states may establish roadblocks for the chief purpose of intercepting illegal drugs.

The court rejected a challenge that argued the roadblocks had been established on the pretext of ensuring compliance with traffic laws and violated the constitutional protections against unreasonable searches and seizures.

The case arose out of roadblocks Florida law enforcement officials set up on four state highways near the Georgia border in January 1984.

As part of the two-day operation, Florida saw enforcement officials set up temporary checkpoints along the highways to stop traffic and to use drug-sniffing dogs to check the vehicles.

About 2,100 vehicles passed through the roadblocks, of which about 1,300 were stopped. In all, one person was arrested for the possession of illegal drugs while 61 traffic-related citations were also issued.

The roadblocks lasted for several hours throughout the evening rush, causing backups and delays of up to 45 minutes.

A lawsuit was filed by two people on behalf of all motorists who were stopped. It sought compensatory and punitive damages for violations of their constitutional rights.

A federal judge dismissed the lawsuit and a U.S. Court of Appeals in Atlanta agreed. It said the chief purpose of the operation was to intercept drugs, but ruled the state does have the power to conduct roadblocks to check drivers' licenses and vehicle registrations. [End quoting]

Every day the Elite become bolder in showing us that we have no freedoms left in this country. We are at their mercy, so long as we remain sheep.

MEMO TO GOP: NO NEED TO FEAR CITIZENSHIP DRIVES

From THE DAILY NEWS, 10/10/96, [quoting:]

SACRAMENTO—For months, Republican circles have buzzed with speculation and concern about the Clinton administration's hurry-up effort to naturalize immigrants in California and other states and get them registered for the November election.

There's no doubt that the operation dubbed "citizenship USA", has a political orientation. The administration's goal is to create more than a million new citizens this year, at least a third of them in California.

Leaked administration memorandums indicate that Vice President Al Gore took the leading role in pushing the Immigration and Naturalization Service to speed up citizenship paperwork, often using organizations connected to the Democratic Party to coordinate efforts.

One administration memo obtained by the Associated Press told President Clinton: "INS warns that if we are too aggressive at removing the roadblocks to success, we might be publicly criticized for running a pro-Democratic voter mill and even risk having Congress stop us."

Those GOP fears may be groundless. As registration for the 1996 election closed on Monday, it became evident that Democrats have suffered a sharp decline in the ranks of their voters in California and that the gap between the major parties which has been narrowing for the last two decades, has closed even more. [End quoting]

No need to worry—the vote is probably already counted and ready to be given to the networks for announcing. Have you ever read the book Vote Scam, by James Collier?

WORLD DRUG WAR AND DRUG-BUSTS

The media are stepping up the news about the world-wide drug-busts going on and that Clinton is really cracking down on the drug kings. (Certainly this wouldn't have anything to do with the election coming up in 3 weeks for Clinton and his gang and that Dole claims Clinton is soft on drugs.)

Please see "Colombia's deadly grip" picture from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 10/6/96 on

Wouldn't it be wise to use some common sense to understand what is really going on with these drug-busts and the Elite (who are the real drug kingpins) and how they're working another one of their many scams? Wouldn't it make more sense that they are just doing away with more and more of their competition so they can gain even tighter control. Do you ever hear of one of the Elite being arrested for drug-dealing unless they are a victim of internal rivalry?

Do you ever hear about the amount of drug imports going down? Then where are the billions of dollars given to fight drugs going? Would it be logical in your mind, since you see very little positive results from all the money supposedly going into this "war", that the drug kings are not only making tremendous profits from dealing the drugs but are also pocketing the money from the "war on drugs"? You say, "There's no way they could get away with that." Who do you think owns or controls the companies, foundations, "do-good" organizations, non-profit organizations, etc. that receive the billions of dollars for equipment supplies, personnel, etc., with which to fight the "war on drugs"? Realize that the Elite usually have both sides of a game tied up so that it's a win-win situation—with you, as a taxpayer, always being suckered in as the loser?

You also have to realize that the Elite want drug addicts for making profits and to control whole groups of people.

The CIA drugs-for-guns programs have several objectives bound up into two main ones: greed and control power.

Over, approximately, the last eight years KCET (PBS) TV station out of Los Angeles has aired a documentary, about the history of drugs for the past few centuries, at least 3 times.

This program named the Elite owner/organizers and their drug fiefdoms, how they gained and maintain their control through wars, etc. (that were supposedly fought for goodly purposes), and any other devious methods they can think of in order to overcome any opposition.

These Elite groups involved rulers of many countries including England with their monarchs and top politicians, and U.S. rulers and top politicians. And the same goes for China, Viet Nam, Indonesia, Turkey, France, Colombia, Guatemala, etc., etc. There is hardly a nation on this planet where the top politicians and leaders are not involved in the drug trade.

The "war on drugs" has mainly been the "war FOR drugs" except for some "show and tell" raids for the peons. When will we wake up?

WORDS THAT CHANGE PEOPLE

From GUIDEPOSTS, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512, [quoting:]

Everyone has some source of irritation that seems chronic. Several years ago, mine was taxi drivers. I felt I was forever being overcharged by Washington, D.C. cab drivers, who have no meters to register fares.

Settling back in a cab one day, I suddenly remembered something Dr. Emmet Fox, the famous author and clergyman, had said: "If a problem bothers you, try blessing it." And so, silently I blessed the driver, thinking all the while that he would gyp me. Which he proceeded to do. It didn't occur to me until later that my negative thoughts might have cancelled out my rather hesitant blessing.

But one evening, when traffic was heavy and I stood on the street signaling, three men moved into a better spot ahead of me. Instead of blowing my top as I usually did in such situations, I blessed them. Around the corner came a cab. It passed the three men and pulled up for me. "How did you happen to stop by me?" I asked as I got in.

The driver grinned, "Perhaps the good Lord just intended it!"

Coincidence? Maybe. But try blessing it. Those words changed my whole approach to life. From that day on, I learned that by blessing people—especially those who wrong me—my life can be ruled by understand-

GORBACHEV IS "GIVING BIRTH"

Excerpted from THE FREE AMERICAN, no date given, [quoting:]

The convening of the State of the World Forum, hosted by the Gorbachev Foundation/USA, was not earth-shaking news. Dignitaries treading to the posh Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco from 50 far-flung countries, most paying $5,000 to be a part of the prestigious gathering, was deemed not newsworthy. As a matter of fact, an examination of the two leading San Francisco newspapers revealed very sparse reporting of the Sept. 27th to October 1st event [How about secret planning for what they have in store for us "peons"?]. The Bay area TV coverage was scarce as well, leading one to assume that San Francisco, and the rest of the nation, stifled a collective yawn at the goings on [What a sad state of affairs to be more interested in sports and the idiot box than what Gorby and his gangsters are planning for us.]. This underwhelming response to a group who claim that at this momentous juncture in history, "We are giving birth to the first Global [monster, Satan controlled non-] Civilization" whets the curiosity.

One of the purposes of this, the first of several forums, was to provide meaningful interaction between the participants. The intellectuals get familiar with the business executives. Has-been statespersons (euphemistically called "senior statespersons" by the Forum organizers) get to know the New Age scientists. The New Age spiritualists build up trust with the philosophers. The entertainers get spiritual with the youth. Vietnamese Buddhism meets Mongolian Buddhism meets Cambodian Buddhism. Consensus, and a new view of what reality is, [hell] is born. This was a "by-invitation only get-to-know, trust-each-other/not-for-public-exposure [this is the key—always secrecy—WHY? If they were planning something good for Planet Earth they would want our input.]" kind of meeting.

The five hundred attendees were exclusively hand-picked by Mikhail S. Gorbachev, Convening Chair of the State of the World Forum, and Jim Garrison, President of the Forum. Mr. Garrison, President of the Gorbachev Foundation USA, felt he was assembling "some of the most thoughtful [selfish, power hungry and greedy is far more accurate] individuals in the world...to analyze the current state of the world" and to articulate the fundamental priorities, values and actions necessary to constructively shape our common future [Has anyone asked YOU what YOU want it to be?]. Garrison, founder of the elusive Christic Institute, also is credited with the edict that "we are going to end up with world government" and "we have to govern and regulate human interaction [Notice it is not "WE THE PEOPLE".]

Carefully screened and Forum-accredited reporters

were the only non-participants allowed to witness the likes of Esalen's Michael Murphy, "country boy" John Denver, millionaire motivator, philosopher Tony Robbins, Shirley MacLaine (of Irma LaDouce and Out On A Limb fame) and her sidekick, Dennis Weaver, massage the egos of the Forum's Co-Chairs [Since when do REAL do-gooders need ego-massagers?]: the Presidents of Costa Rica and Kyrgyzstan; prime minister of Turkey; ex-prime ministers of Japan and the Netherlands, Thabo Mbeki, Executive Deputy President of South Africa; Peace Prize winner & Marxist feminist Rigoberta Menchu Tum; and Chairman of the Earth Council Maurice Strong, media tycoon and world citizen Ted Turner, ex-Secretary's of state George Shultz and James Baker III.

[Others present] Ex-senators George Mitchell and Alan Cranston [Still doing his dirty deeds outside the spotlight?] New Age Dr. Deepak Chopra and Jane Fonda.

Zbigniew Brzezinski, President Carter's former National Security Advisor, who earlier explained to a Forum audience how regionalism must come before world government, attempted to explain to a reporter why there were no Christian leaders at the Forum by stating, "I happen to know that President Gorbachev is a very good friend of the Pope—and I am too." His reply, as did Gorbachev's, danced around the question but was revealing just the same. Christianity was not represented because pantheism (everything is god) was the order of the day.

They take their job very seriously, these one-world do-gooders. Evidence the well-fed, pampered Forum audience, at a plenary meeting on Saturday, and how they hung on to every word of New Age guru Sam Keen, who pronounced, "If we cut the world's population by 90% [Not very good odds that you're one of the 10%! Furthermore, would you like to start pondering the kind of torture they'll use to push you into the grave? Come to think of it, the ELITE KHAZARIAN JEWS "have a thing" for GAS OVENS!!], there won't be enough people left to do ecological damage." His proposal received enthusiastic applause [Do you still wonder why the CONTROLLED media didn't give them a lot of publicity?? RATS don't like the light of publicity!!]. The presumption was that Keen's audience would be among the elect, the remaining 10%, the ones chosen to do the "cutting." Another example of this blatant elitism surfaced last year, when Gorbachev was being interviewed by Audubon, when he declared that "Americans have to be more modest in their desires." Coming from someone who lives a lifestyle resplendent with gourmet foods and catered surroundings makes his words reek of pomposity.

How many people buy the globalist government lie? Evidently the Forum promoters were anxious about empty seats that would reflect how meager the number of their committed clique really is [You're a foolish person if you let this fool you into being complacent.]; three incidents reveal this concern. Sprinkled among the illuminaries were average people such as the delegation from South America, who, try as they might, could not account for their being invited to the Forum. Then there was the musician who proudly exhibited the esteemed press pass. He had been asked to play at an evening session and was not paid but was awarded the ID which allowed him entry to the meetings. He chose to partake of only one meeting and admitted the subject matter was beyond his understanding. It would be interesting to know how many others in attendance were simply "fillers", and not really in tune with the "transforming human consciousness" to which Gorbachev referred.

The final bash on Sunday, at the Masonic Hall, involving CNN's Bernard Shaw and former leaders Gorbachev, Bush and Thatcher, revealed hundreds of vacant seats. TV monitors were set up and functioning to accommodate the large empty wing sections, so organizers must have hoped last minute arrivals would pay the $100 to view the one hour "discussion." They didn't. The lack of paying customers and the evidence that there really isn't a large number of these elitists almost made up for the standing ovation the audience gave Gorbachev when he strode onto the stage.

When you burrow to the core of all the rhetoric, you discover how all this will directly affect you. Gorby claims "we must change the nature of consumption" by moving away from a technology-centered way of living. There is only one way to interpret this; his New World Order will dictate every aspect of our lives, forcing civilization back to the barbaric dark ages, before technology replaced human sweat and blood. His time frame gives the social planners five years to redistribute the world's wealth, transfer all armaments to the United Nations peacekeeping FORCE, to further empower the United Nations, initiate a global tax, implement the overpopulation solution, and to eliminate nationalism (read "patriotism") as well as nationhood's border barriers [emphasis mine].

A HERO'S WELCOME

Excerpted from THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE, 10/8/96, [quoting:]

Ex-SOVIET PRESIDENT IS OPTIMISTIC RUSSIA WILL BE ALL RIGHT—SOMEDAY

Mikhail Gorbachev, the ex-Soviet leader who helped engineer one of the most dramatic periods in world history, basked Monday night in yet another brief shining moment of glory.

Before a capacity crowd at the University of Utah's Kingsbury Hall, Mikhail Gorbachev, once Time Magazine's Man of the Year, became Utah's Man of the Hour.

For more than an hour, Gorbachev quickly summarized Russia's immense history, delved into his tumultuous tenure as Soviet president and described a dark future for his homeland unless it undergoes major political changes soon.

"Russia is threatened with a long stagnation, similar to that experienced by most Latin countries in [this] century," Gorbachev said through his longtime interpreter, Pavel Palashenkov.

He said industry and modernization in Russia have deteriorated drastically since he lost power in 1991 to a government that he said now is characterized by a "reckless, total liberalization and decontrol of the economy." [End quoting]

What does this article say about how AWAKE we are when we allow him to "bask in glory" before a capacity audience in our country. Let us remember what an evil man he was as ruler of Russia. Let us remember he was brought over here and given an office at the Presidio in San Francisco to help RULE AND CONTROL US. When will we WAKE UP!

Recognizing The Adversary

10/14/96 #2 HATONN

BLINDNESS IS A CONTAGIOUS DISEASE

Each morning as we sit to write there come the myriads of interruptions, the deadlines, the headlines and always—the legal morass to bog our very beings. I have to now apologize to our layout staff at CONTACT for delays in reaching them with this paper. Since what we write often comes under fire from this one or that one, there is usually a last minute add or delete because we may have trodden WITH TRUTH upon the adversary's toes. THEY HAVE SOMETHING TO HIDE—WE DO NOT!

AMERICA WEST AND CONT(R)ACT (TRUST OR INC.?)

In SPOTLIGHT's advertising section there are TWO advertisements running consecutively in the "want ads". One is for a catalog from America West in Bozeman, MT. and the next is for Mishpucka information from something called in the paper, CONTRACT. The P.O. Box number seems to match with CONTACT but who knows. After all, Green and Anderson set up a CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTRE TRUST and diverted FUNDS through and meant for: CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CENTER CORPORATION, same address, same working space as CLC in Sacramento. Is this more of the same tactics? Please investigate because we KNOW subscriptions, corporation FEES (so be careful who sends you a bill, corporate persons) and such other similar things ARE BEING DIVERTED! Whole corporations have been diverted, thieved, and re-established unlawfully within our own recognized and known business parties. Three were UNLAWFULLY changed out in August of last year—right from under the very shelter of the Nevada Agent—who was NEVER notified, as was never notified the Board or Officers of said corporations. Is this not about as evil as you can get in order to intentionally divert corporations, assets, persons, etc.? It is right there in SPOTLIGHT so I suggest as many of you as take SPOTLIGHT check it out for selves. Typographical error, miscarriage of law by diverting P.O. Boxes to "similar" named corporations? You investigate it! I am weary of being the only one picking up these things. If it is a SPOTLIGHT error, or even if not—NOTIFY THEM OF THE "COINCIDENCE".

Cort will want to follow up first for it was HE who was set-up personally while Green even kept sending poison mail to Cort and Jenny's families with threats and accusations of unlawful activities. He also continues to say that Cort and Jenny got a divorce over this "stuff" with Tehachapi. (???) What has happened is that they have one of the most remarkably good relationships of any couple I have ever met and now have a second precious child whom they BOTH claim.

AL GORE AND ANTI-SEMITISM

Note the first thing out of the mouths of the sniveling scum-suckers is "...is anti-Semitic". You had it again THIS DAY when Al Gore was asked by a wonderful media robot what was going to be done about this "terrible" Louis Farrakhan? Now what has Louis Farrakhan done? Well, he has given honor and humble honor to GOD, CHRIST-ness, ATON-MENT, and gentle non-violent TRUTH and respect to both our NATION and THE BLACK PEOPLE OF THIS OLD GLOBE. And he has visited in friendly places about the world. I have this to say: GOD BLESSES THIS MAN FOR THAT DARING SPIRIT OF TRUTH PRESENTED TO YOU-THE-PEOPLE OF BLIND PERCEPTIONS. MAY GOD HAVE EQUAL MERCY ON YOU-WHO-DEMEAN-AND-LIE IN THE FACE OF TRUTH.

So Al Gore's FIRST STATEMENT WAS "...HE IS ANTI-SEMITIC..." And it is in the works right now to pull Farrakhan's PASSPORT so he CAN'T go visit outside of the United States. This humble and Godly man who preaches non-violence and brotherhood in humanitarian TRUTH—is what kind of a danger, do you suppose, to Gore and Political Buddies? They are trying TO STOP ALL CONNECTIONS WITH THE UNITED NATIONS???

YOUR BLINDNESS IS GOING TO KILL YOU, AMERICA!

WHEN ARE YOU GOING TO RECOGNIZE YOUR ENEMIES?

When, however, the cause of GOD is noted and served, we might well achieve some good changes in this old universe.

has now become the "had man". And NO, I do not feel "sorry" for him—I FEEL SORRY FOR YOU! He was offered the way to avoid, with funds, the takeover and he wasn't brave enough, bold enough, or strong enough to handle it. When a man is ruled by his pants, he often loses his head—keep it in your heart!

FARRAKHAN—CLASS ACTION: CIA/CRACK ETC.

I ask you HELP THIS MAN PURSUE THE FOLLOWING:

THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, October 14, 1996. ASSOCIATED PRESS, WASHINGTON — Louis Farrakhan said he wants the Nation of Islam to file a class-action lawsuit on behalf of crack addicts if the sect's lawyers find evidence that CIA operatives funnelled crack cocaine into America's Black communities. [H: Well, the CIA and Bush, aided and abetted by all the top-wigs, including Clinton, funnelled cocaine, heroin and all sorts of other illegal drugs into the whole of AMERICA—not just the Black communities. However, the full intent was and IS to destroy totally the Black, Hispanic, and Asian communities through the substance availability and downgrading and gang operations in the major cities. Los Angeles is only one small part of this iceberg and is getting the most attention at the "minute"; it is worse in other places, just wait for what is "discovered" in the "DISCOVERY" phase of a suit—if there are strength and funds enough to push such a thing to fruition before it is too late to do so. I can promise you people MORE disappointments, however, as you find one after another of your prior "intelligence informers" move, as in being bought off and turned back to their handlers. Whoever you have enjoyed as journalistic expertise will begin to move back into more massive cover-ups than before. This is going to include some very close contacts, so BEWARE.]

The suit also would include the families of crack addicts "and those who have been victimized by crime as a result of the crack addicts", Farrakhan told Newsweek magazine. Excerpts of the interview were released Sunday.

Farrakhan also said he wants to speak with Jewish leaders while in New York this week for Wednesday's World Day of Atonement, a demonstration he is sponsoring to mark the anniversary of the Million Man March in Washington. Many Jews consider Farrakhan an anti-Semite for statements he has made.

"We really need to sit and talk as civilized and intelligent human beings, and if they can show me where I am in error, then I accept that," Farrakhan told the magazine, which appears on newsstands today. [H: I suggest you not hold your breath while this bears sweet fruit.]

A year ago, Black men converged on Washington's grassy Mall for an emotional day of self-affirmation and spiritual renewal.

Wouldn't it be wonderful IF...?

I would also offer another shot of intelligence in finding valid "tiny" articles of merit in the newspaper. Again, from "2x6" and from the same Orlando Sentinel:

[QUOTING:]

THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, October 14, 1996

CHINA WARNS AGAINST WEST IN DOCUMENT ON VALUES

BEIJING—China's Communist Party, in what it called one of its greatest ever documents, warned Sunday against hostile Western ideas such as parliamentary democracy and capitalism and vowed to fight back with puritan Marxist values. The 15,000-character document, adopted at last week's annual secret plenum of the ruling party elite, marked the latest volley by party chief Jiang Zemin to boost his position by battling corruption, pornography and worship of money while promoting nationalism and hard-line Communist ideology.

[END OF QUOTING]

This is truth mixed with yellow journalism to its highest degree. The MEDIA put the stress on "Communism" and "Marxist values" which are not part of the document. When speaking of "values" there was Marxism brought into the interview but NOT as offered above. You readers have to realize that there are some very GOOD things in some of these doctrines which surpass anything you have in operation today. The facts are that in every EXTREME you will find the unholy at work. The "democracy" and "capitalism" practiced by your "FREE WORLD IDEAS" ARE ABOUT AS BAD AS YOU CAN GET IN BOTH CONCEPT AND PRACTICE. You citizens didn't even notice yourselves becoming SLAVES. This coincides exactly with how Communism began and how it was TOO LATE that people awakened to find themselves enslaved. Now, they are being enslaved by the SAME THING only "called" by a different name, namely, Democracy and Capitalism. These are the ultimate destroyers of any and all nations thus far having historical records remaining. To HIDE this phenomenon, the RECORDS ARE DESTROYED AND BURIED AND HISTORY NOT "REVISED" BUT TOTALLY REWRITTEN TO PROTECT AND ALLOW THE GUILTY TO PREVAIL.

E-BOLA OUTBREAK IN YOUR DOORYARD!

I have not had opportunity to attend much "news" lately and I can't review everything that is put into CONTACT so if we have offered this one—JUST READ IT AGAIN, AND WEEP:

I will leave the source anonymous because it is obviously, at the least, dangerous to life, limb and job if the original speaker is revealed. The information is out of Canada and is in deep secret hiding.

"A friend reports from a major Montreal hospital, located in the downtown area, that two floors have been quarantined to attempt to contain an outbreak of E Bola virus from spreading. Forty two (and counting) patients are now infected and none are allowed to go home. Anti-contaminant garments were spotted in the receiving department by observers. Naturally, for now at least, this entire scenario is being kept hushed by the hospital management and staff as ordered by the government. My friend agreed that someone should know about this, hence the "leak". So please handle this information with care at your discretion."

I apologize for the slippage of our own information and perhaps this could be utilized on the "hot-line" as well. This is about a week old and the circumstances may well have changed—but the threat will not have dissipated entirely. You are still feeling the upstart of the Olympian plan unfolding. All I can suggest is that you keep your Immune systems up and running and I urge all of you to add colloidal vitamins in enhanced base—with the mineral colloids in high frequency solution. When you get careless—you get wiped out, so please attend these warnings for you will be given little media attention until AFTER THE FACT. CNN will soon be of little use to what is actually taking place so pay attention, please.

TODAY'S EARLY AND INTERESTING OBSERVATIONS THE FARRAKHAN EARLY REPORT

Does anyone see anything, AGAIN, nuts about the reporting of the Black gathering in New York? Well, I DO. First of all it was that somehow this gathering ended up TOO CLOSE TO THE ADL to be allowed to continue as scheduled. In addition the United Nations decided NOT TO BACK OR RECOGNIZE THE GATHERING. So, the police said there would be arrests if there continued to be gatherings NEAR the Anti-Defamation League building (which is so close to the U.N. for convenience of RUNNING THE U.N.). The gathering Blacks did hold a quiet and very reverent prayer service near the ADL. Say what, America? CAN'T YOU SEE WHAT YOU ARE DOING AND ALLOWING?

Next came the under-counting and this under-show of Blacks is that the routes to get to the U.N. from all over the city are being BLOCKED, as in "check points" where people heading for the Atonement rally are stopped and disallowed passage.

Will you hear all about this? Not in one piece you won't! The actions taking place in New York should be a lighted symbol to the WORLD this day! Ah indeed, "give to me your heavy laden yearning to be free..."? Free nation? Free people? People of equal rights? WHERE IS YOUR CONSTITUTION THIS DAY, AMERICA? AND, WHERE ARE THE MEDIA CREWS AND WHAT ARE THEY DOING? WELL, THEY ARE GATHERED LIKE VULTURES TO THE KILL OF TWO WHITE LIARS, CHEATS AND MISFITS VYING FOR YOUR NATION'S LEADERSHIP. THEY ARE BUT PUPPETS, BUT WHAT THE HECK? Methinks GOD may be about out of patience with your final choices and lack thereof. Why assist you in your massively evil intent and bashing of your own citizens? Even these Khazarian Attorneys in the O.J. case are criminal elements in the LAW. How is it that his own attorneys know he is not guilty and yet write these JEWISH (yes, JEWISH) books setting O.J. up even worse? BECAUSE THEY ARE LOSING, CITIZENS—UNLESS YOU ALLOW IT. GO BACK AND READ THE WEAN MATERIAL AND YOU WILL FIND WHAT KIND OF A SICK FRIEND IS KARDASHIAN, ET AL. THEY ARE A PART OF THE TEAM RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MURDERS THEMSELVES. They are the JEWISH MISHPUCKA! Shapiro leads the pack from the original trial. Fred Goldman is a MAJOR Mishpucka player—in his own son's murder—he just didn't know they (his buddies) would kill his own son—so you see, there is no honor among them!

I think you may well sicken GOD as He watches Sodom and Gomorrah, U.S.A., THIS VERY DAY!

As you watch whatever is shown to you this day—watch the MEN IN WHITE. What an interesting gathering of Eagles! These, look and weep for your nation's security later—are major leaders from the Arab worlds and Nations of Islam with the free speakers of South Africa come to show respect and speak out. Remember that GOD HAS MERCY ON HIS PEOPLE AND THOSE WHO HAVE TURNED FROM HIM

ARE ON THEIR OWN AT THE HANDS OF THEIR CHOSEN IDOLS AND ICONS OF LUCIFER. God will have mercy this day—but you had best check if you are, or are not, included in His counting of "His people".

EARTHQUAKE ALERT

No, goodness no, this is NOT JUST AN ALERT from E.T. Silly children, this ALERT and shaking you feel beneath is one sung about by your own geophysicists. Distraction? Oh, I don't think so, so, it will behoove all of you straggling along the West Coast, keep your putty stuck and your velcro glue strong. And NO, New York IS NOT SAFE—but Louis Farrakhan IS. You can fly with Eagles or Vultures, readers, BOTH are of God's creation but one has to clean up the mess left by the death of physical beings while the other only attends the LIVING. Symbolic? Yes, but the choosing is NOT.

In Tehachapi, California THIS WEEK was the circling and moving of the massive flocks of buzzards (vultures) headed in the direction (where they sense death) of the West Coastal areas. This happens every time there is an opening of some of the fissures whereat the frequencies and aromas of the deep fissures are released into the atmosphere. Part of what YOU "FEEL", readers, is not pulses or blatant things, but rather, very subtle aromas to which you react because you only THINK you have grown more sophisticated than the local dog who sniffs trouble.

The Phoenix Eagle was here at this typing location this morning and Dharma's heart always skips a beat or two when they show up for they are ONLY present when big events are pending. It is her message of Truth in support of that which we do and of our presence. And no, it is not "just she" who sees them—they circle and show everyone who looks UP, their presence, in magnificent splendor of massive size against the sky. Today they sit and guard this dwelling as we stand watch for this nation this day.

The whole world of Physical beings can deny anything and all things they choose—it makes not a whit of difference to the TRUTH OF WHAT I SPEAK. EVIL IS GOING TO FALL BEFORE THE CROWN OF GOD! And remember, friends, impatience is the proof of lack of faith in THAT GOD of whom we speak. The glass is empty for the turning. It is all happening even if you are not allowed to SEE it. Where will YOUR voice be heard? Which will you attend this day? Where will YOU AND YOUR EAGLE fly this day? These are interesting and worthy questions for your consideration for the politicians have sold out your nation to the vultures of humanity in greed and oppression and you still raise your placards and voices to shout and dance with the devils themselves. Ah yes, how fitting, the last evil encounters of political sham—this near HALLOWEEN! Again, if YOU can't see it, then compassion is being rapidly replaced with pity from my side of the veil.

V.K. Durham VS. Illinois Power

A Tip Of The Iceberg

10/16/96 V.K. DURHAM

Most of you are aware of an ongoing case, in which I am the plaintiff, versus Illinois Power Company. This case, just in case you readers are wondering why I would get involved, at my age, is already won by procedures of law, whereas precedents stand in Res Judicata at Constitutional Common Law of Contracts.

Well, I will tell you why! The case was petitioned under Article III Jurisdiction (Constitutional Law, because the contract involved was executed in 1941) and Article I, Cl. 10 (Prohibition of Irpeping Contracts), Rule 56 (a), the Constitution for the United States, "grandfathered". Marbury vs. Madison, "grandfathered". Fletcher vs. Peck, "grandfathered", Article V and Article VI, Cl. 2.

All are precedents of law, which have never been overturned by "inferior courts at U.S. District Court level", for they are Acts of Congress and the U.S. Supreme Court, which are and have remained, the backbone of Rights cases (there are a lot more, but I chose these).

Also, this case represents (to me) the very essence of law performing at its peak. Why? Well, our Constitution is involved. The case presented was already won by precedents and procedures. The real issue is forcing the court to acknowledge our Constitution. Come Hell or high water, the Constitution must prevail.

"How is the case going?", you ask. Well, it's like this. Back in the 1960s, a group of friends and I went to the race track at Ellis Park in Indiana. The jockeys had "fixed the race". A specific horse was supposed to win. The horses came out of the gate like a bullet. They went around the first turn, then the second, and on the back stretch the horse who was supposed to win stumbled and almost unseated his jockey. The other jockeys slowed their horses down to a slow gallop, until the fixed horse and jockey could regain their stride. When coming along side of the other horses, they all broke loose and ran like hell for the finish line, but the fixed horse won. There was an inquiry and the second place horse won.

In this particular instance of the case which is at issue, the jockey is the Bar Association member (law firm and individuals) representing a club member. So far, they are in default six times, still the court refuses to acknowledge that which was petitioned in the first pleading. The jockey/attorney and firm (constitutionally), are on an entirely different race track, trying to run a race on Thomas Law, or Bar Association Law, while the Constitution has a track all of its very own. And the jockeys are holding up their horses until this six-times-in-default "fixed horse" can regain its stride.

I have no intention of allowing a horse on another track to come onto the track of the "Grandfathered" Constitution, and not follow the rules of the race.

Being a "little long in the tooth" (getting up there in years), to avoid 10-20 or more years of inquiry, a 28 U.S.C.A. ss1361 "Extraordinary Writ of Mandamus" was filed on the court, which orders an officer of the United States District Court to perform his duties of the United States Court, and to execute that which was petitioned.

Just for good measure, the same thing was filed at Appellate level (just to keep the old boys honest, no aces up the sleeve).

Why the Mandamus? Well, our Constitution is at stake, our laws of rights are at stake. As all of us know, the Constitution is laughed at, made a mockery of by judges, clerks, political entities from the top of the heap to the bottom, and laws foreign to our duly constituted laws are unlawfully imposed upon us. The harder We, the People scream the more repugnancies are heaped upon us by unconstitutional acts. Therefore, in the knowing of all this, I dug out my old class books (constitutional law; Administrative Law Text, Hornbook Series, by Kenneth Culp Day, West Publishing Company, 1959) and looked up ss23.09: Mandatory Relief in General, which in essence states: Mandamus intricacies do their deadly deeds, and somehow most federal courts continue to assume that mandamus tradition must be allowed to override what Congress has enacted. (Now 28 U.S.C.A. ss1316, or 28 U.S.C.A. Title V for appeals remedy.)

This method is not to be taken lightly. There is no person on this Earth, that has more respect for the laws of this land than myself. The constitutional laws of this great nation have been my safe harbor. I took an oath to uphold, protect and defend her, for she stands in harm's way, in our conflict of interest, conflict of laws, courts of today.

EVEN MORE REASON FOR MANDAMUS

Remember all those utility bonds which have been, and are being paid for by the taxpayers? Well, take a look at the affixed pages [see list on previous page and this page] exhibit 21 (a), subsidiaries of Illinova Corporation and Illinois Power Company. Approximately 50 companies are either owned, or Illinova/Illinois Power Company has stock in. Also, something else, which I believe is in violation of Illinois corporate law: Four (4) corporate title positions are held by one officer. The chairman of the board, the chief executive officer, the president, and director are one person. Which could possibly pierce the corporate veil.

Something else which bothers me: Back when Illinois Power and Iowa Power merged, Harris Savings and Loan Bank bought the trusteeship for $1.00 (1943-44 public records in Macon County, Illinois).

It is believed by me: A Howard Hughes "umbrella" is existing, which is in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act and the Clayton Act, Section 8 (ss8).

Then, there is another problem. In Illinova/Illinois Power's Annual Report to the Security Exchange Commission (pursuant to section rules and regulations of 1933-1935), prepared by Price Waterhouse, a failure to report UCC-1 Lien, and UCC-9-503, Default and Taking Possession of Collateral Without Judicial Process, are not reported.

Have the taxpayers, paying for the utility bonds (a) had their utility rates decreased, (b) had their taxes reduced, or (c) enjoyed remuneration from these outside investments? No, they have not!

Utility bonds are resought every time something new is needed.

Taxpayer dollars are used for purposes other than collected and paid.

Taking into consideration there are allegedly 250 more of these instruments, like the one I have, out there in the public hands, which, according to the laws of 1941, are lawful tender (Silver Certificates), which are (12 U.S.C. ss411) convertible into lawful money at the U.S. Treasury, and the parity ratio between lawful money and legal tender (FRBNS [Federal Reserve Bank notes]) at $35.00 (lawful money) to $1.00 (legal tender, FRBNS), one would think our Congress or Senate would call an investigation!

Let's look at it this way: That certificate/contract, which I have properly calculated is worth $3,812,792,613.70 in lawful money. Multiply that by 250.

Also, it is a strong suspicion that off-balance-sheet financing has been conducted on these outstanding deposit certificates, creating a secondary financing entity for sub rosa projects (under the table).

The only thing the U.S. Congress can do is rescind the Federal Advisory Committee Act, which allows the President of the United States to keep on keepin' on and doing things with a stroke of his magic pen, which protects these corrupt activities from investigation and/or prosecution. For in his executive orders, one of the first things he protects are utility companies or energy based this-and-that, and then he loves to get involved in contracts. The President of the United States is estopped, barred and precluded by constitutional law from entering into and onto forbidden territory, that being the Bill of Rights!

Do you realize the amount of the outstanding lawful money involved in this?!

This is only one power company. How many more are out there?

There was a war going on from 1941 to 1947 (sic), then came the Korean "thing" (I cannot remember a time when we were not in a war of one kind or another, and I'm 60). People were worried about things other than certificates of deposit.

In my own family we were farmers. We could not kill the livestock for food. We worked our tillies off and when we were not working, we did another form of work, hunting and fishing for food!

We hunted squirrels, rabbits, chicken hawks, crows, but we made it. We would have a chicken on Sunday (that is where the old adage "chicken every Sunday" came from), for we could not often kill our chickens, we needed them for eggs. (Yes, chicken hawks and crows are very good when skinned and soaked in buttermilk overnight.)

We did not have refrigeration (only city folk had electricity), so we would hunt before breakfast, just to have breakfast! (Didn't know that, did you, kids?)

We did not have indoor toilets either, nor toilet tissue! We were the poor folks. We used burdock leaves (no chiggers), red and white corn cobs, and "Monkey Wards" and "Sears Sawbuck" catalogs' black-and-white pages (no slicks).

Electricity was a luxury. We lived 15 miles from the nearest neighbor. Electricity was 25 miles away, but my aunt/mother had electricity.

She had a contract with Illinois Power Company and they defaulted on the contract. She died in near poverty because Illinois Power Company refused to pay on demand that which was due her, when specific performance was demanded.

She put no amount on the demand for payment. She trusted them to do what was right. All she wanted was enough money to get her dentures fitted, to afford quality health care and maintenance, and to die in her own bed.

The Power Company, knowing of her illness and her being bed-ridden, thought, here's an old broad on her last leg, with no children, so "To Hell with the old bitch!"

Well, not so! When she took me from an abusive home, at the age of 3 or 4, with a black eye, blood on my "Buster Browns", blood on my arms from being beaten (photo exists), with only visitation rights to the abusive family, she became my lawful "aunt/mother".

And now, big power company, shall we dance?!

I named the price, the demand for payment (specific performance) was made. Non performance constituted default, upon which there is a secretary of state's recorded lien and default and I have a funny feeling that, that is just what they deserve. As my aunt/mother would have said: "You shouldn't have oughta done that to an 'old folk'."

Lanto: Distracting Pressures Along The Spiritual Path

Editor's note: The following writing is by the Ascended Master known as Lanto, the Sage, of the Second Ray or Aspect of Creator's spectrum, among the seven great "Rainbow Masters" communicating at this time to help us get through Earth-Shan's planetary transition and rebalancing.

In Journal #7, called THE RAINBOW MASTERS, Lanto says: "I have chosen the softness of the yellow refraction as my most comfortable vibration and am most easily identified from my 'past' (as you perceive it to be) experiences. My existence in mortal form brought me to your places that you now geographically identify as the Orient. I was given the great gifts of Insight and Wisdom from our Creator Source to experience upon this planet in the form of many most humble wise ones. My most revered service was to the one who came first as the Christos, The Buddha (brother and one with the Master Esu Jesus)."

For more background on this important group of teachers, plus earlier writings by them, refer to the Back Page for Journal ordering information.

10/19/96 LANTO, THE SAGE

Greetings, my friend, it is I, Lanto, the Sage. I come in the Radiant Oneness of Creator's Magnificent Light.

Lessons shall be a continuous part of your life experience. The only TRUE purpose for expressing in the third-dimensional experience is that of SPIRITUAL GROWTH. You ones who write these messages have a tremendous responsibility, thus the impact of the day-to-day experience is great. The question is: Will you sit and write so that your brother might wake up, or will you get distracted by the daily impact of living? This is perhaps the hardest thing to face for you ones who write these messages.

Let me tell on my scribe. My scribe is relatively young to the physical experience and wishes to have a family someday. The thought of the work ahead allows for nearly no opportunity to pursue this sort of thing. The question as to what is more important will, from time to time, come around to distract ones, like this receiver, from their Higher Purpose.

This is always a problem for Ground Crew in general—especially on a third-dimensional planet, like the one upon which you are now experiencing, where the general moral and ethical standards have degenerated to a pitiful level.

There is, in effect, a substantial "illumination" difference between the energy fields of you of Ground Crew and those who are of this planetary mindset. This difference causes ones to be attracted to you because of your greater Light, much like a moth to a flame. But, just as a moth will get burnt if it gets too close to an open flame, so, too, will YOU burn another (or get burnt by another) if you are not properly suited to one another.

Relationships can be time consuming, energy draining, and distracting—to say the least. My scribe questions me as to why we are addressing such a SEEMINGLY personal topic. But KNOW that this is a matter of great general concern.

There are more and more Ground Crew members waking-up at this time. There are more and more physically young ones who are going through their own personal experiences with relationships and families. There are ones who are feeling lonely and rejected because they cannot seem to find the "right person", or they are trying desperately to make an existing relationship work—when the other doesn't even want to see or hear the Higher messages of spiritual Truth such as are brought forth in the CONTACT newspaper.

You CANNOT force another to see Truth if they are not ready for Truth—especially, of all things, not spiritual Truth! You can offer another a helping hand, but you cannot force another to take it. YOU must be responsible for all YOUR actions and choices. If YOU choose to ignore your "call to service", then YOU must live with that choice.

If you have a spouse who is antagonistic towards your beliefs, then I must ask you: Why did you choose to commit yourself to such a challenge?

Some will become desperate in their attempts to hold a relationship together. They may even bring children into the picture in order to try to "solidify" the family unit. This is yet another responsibility, and if there is not balance PRIOR to the child's conception, then you can rest assured that there will NOT be balance afterwards!

You must seek to understand EXACTLY who you are and why you are here, if you are to find stability. You must find your own inner peace and be happy and content with who you are—for if you are not happy with self, or you do not know what it is that makes you feel so restless, then how can you expect another to "magically" fulfill this for you?

Please know that it is quite natural to want to express within the family unit and have a balanced emotional exchange with another. But please keep in mind that you, if you are Ground Crew, have volunteered to go down there and fulfill a certain mission or role—not get wrapped up in the "typical" experience of the expression.

Many of the ones awakening now are having difficulties with family and friends not accepting them for who they are because these awakening Ground Crew are perceived to have, somehow, "wandered off into some spiritual kick". If another cannot accept you for who you are, then that is THEIR problem, not yours. If YOU choose to react to another's problem, then that is YOUR choice and YOUR problem.

I, Lanto, would suggest that, if another will only accept you IF..., then that person is, in fact, judging (placing conditions upon) you based upon their own prejudices and beliefs. You would do well to consider the LONG TERM implications of remaining in a relationship with such a person, whether it be friend, spouse, or other family members. By making this cautionary observation, I am NOT giving anyone permission or telling anyone to divorce or anything else! YOU must make your own choices and deal with the resulting situations that YOU have created.

Many Ground Crew members get caught up in the day-to-day struggle to "just fit in" or "just be 'normal' ". Did you ever stop to think that you might not be "normal" and that you may NEVER really fit-in to the prevailing "normal" society?

Most of you who are disposed to read these messages are NOT of this world! You have come here to assist your younger (less awake) brothers. You did NOT come here to be LIKE your younger brothers! However, it IS quite normal to sense that you don't "fit in" or that you don't belong.

Realize that, while you are down there, in the physical, you will have ALL the impacting factors of the ego to deal with. Fear is the largest single factor: Fear of embarrassment. Fear of being different. Fear of being wrong. Fear for personal safety or the safety of others. Fear of being alone. We could go on and on.

The point is to show you that these are EGO-generated fears. If you have certainty in Creator God, then you truly have nothing to fear. NOTHING! Stop letting these ego-generated fears control you!

If another is trying to control you with fear, such as by giving ultimatums like, "Do this or that or else...", then I would suggest you look at the actions of such ones and call it to their attention. If they cannot see what it is that they are doing, then YOU need to recognize with whom, exactly, you are dealing, for the adversary's influence is often subtle. Even the best of Ground Crew are not immune to the pressures of the adversary.

I will also caution you who are reading this that you monitor yourselves closely and make sure that you are not trying to use subtle fear tactics to control another. God is not of force; He does NOT use fear to control anyone.

Religions may very well use fear to control their flocks. Governments most certainly do use fear to control the masses. Parents may use fear to control their children. Creator God does NOT!

It is your responsibility to pull yourself out of your own fears. This does not mean that you must do it ALONE. When the time is right, and you are ready, the teacher, guide or wayshower will appear. But you must be ready and accepting of the help when and where it is presented to you.

Remember the prior lessons about how "like attracts like". If you are easily controlled by your fears, then you will attract to you someone who is also insecure with their own self. Thus, you will have two insecure people attempting to find security (from their fears) in one another, instead of finding it within self. And this only creates a larger problem, not balance.

Seek first to know and balance self. Rid yourself of your own fears PRIOR to entering into your next relationship. Then, if such is to be, you will find that you will attract "the person of your dreams" for, in a balanced state, you will naturally see through and repel those who are still trying to play their little control games. To do otherwise, you run the risk of being completely miserable and unfulfilled because you will have distracted yourself from your more important, Higher Purpose.

The adversary will exploit ALL of your weaknesses in an attempt to keep you from realizing your TRUE potential. Using the ego to distract you, such as with fear, is the oldest trick in the book. Why? Because it WORKS!

So, my message to this scribe, and to those of you out there (who are feeling lonely or rejected or have gone through relationship after relationship only to find yourself wanting or needing "more") is to FIRST seek to balance self, heal from your past battle wounds, find your happiness within, and have faith that your Guides and God DO understand and KNOW what it is that you need. However, keep in mind that what you actually need, and what you may think you need, are almost always different.

Go within and ask for that which is for the highest good—and expect an answer. But now a caution: You may not always like the answer that you hear!

Please keep in mind that there are infinite journeys of the soul and that you have existed prior to this experience and that you have done all of this MANY, MANY times before. You HAVE had your families. You will again, if you so desire, have families. Some of you never stop to realize that you are a part of a much larger family out here among the stars. It is just that you are currently assigned to the "starship" Earth-Shan. You are, in effect, "out to sea" and away from "home", on a mission.

So, next time you are feeling lonely or depressed, perhaps a nice trip out away from the city lights to look at the stars would be helpful. Even if you tend to perceive yourself as being alone, you are, in fact, NEVER alone. We of the Higher Realms are ALWAYS there, ready to assist, if you but ask.

These sorts of adversarial attacks are the challenges you must face and overcome. Be persistent in your endeavors to find balance for the adversary will not like that he is losing his grip on you. Keep in mind, also, that even when he cannot control you directly, he can attempt to influence and control those around you. Learn to recognize his subtle trickery and gamesmanship. He is a master of manipulation.

I am Lanto, the Sage. I am your Elder Brother, come at this time as one of the many Hosts of God, so that you might find your way. Salu.

FIRE FROM THE SKY, PART VI The Killing Continues

by Calvin Burgin

THE OKLAHOMA BOMBINGS AND THE RADIOACTIVE COVER-UP

•Conspiracy Nation—Vol. 7, Num. 40, by Sherman H. Skolnick

It is now an accepted fact that the federal government has covered up various past radioactive events. Soldiers were exposed to the deadly rays, as tests, starting in the 1950s. An entire town in Utah—roughly a third of its inhabitants—became deathly sick or died from radioactive fall-out from Nevada atomic testing. The government denied the dangers for some three decades.

These and dozens of other events, white-washed or suppressed, all under the umbrella of so-called "national security". Are not the health and security of the people "national security"?

After the bombings in Oklahoma City, rescue teams were quickly flown in, such as from Maryland. (Bombings, in the plural, is used, because experts on explosives contend one so-called "fertilizer bomb" did not and could not do the damage as seen in pictures.)

A team of sniffing dogs were brought in. Thereafter, one of the dogs died. Another took mysteriously ill. Some observers became suspicious. So the carcass of the deceased dog was dug up and scientists examining the carcass stated the dog's lungs were very radioactive. They warned those who had buried the dog to now quickly cremate the remains using safety precautions as with any highly radioactive materials.

Some of the rescue team members continue their regular work—but are having extreme health problems. They can barely drag themselves to work, coming home mysteriously exhausted. A woman rescue team member can no longer do her regular work. She stays at home, wasting away. She is afraid to talk except in cryptic remarks and whispers. Apparently she is fearful the government doctors will cut her off from all medical attention if she goes public with what she knows about the bombsites and the aftermath.

She apparently is dying from a deadly dose of radioactivity, from having been in the bombsites on a mission of mercy. Government bureaucrats, of various kinds, insult her, saying, "Get out of bed. You're just a malingerer."

This is just a small snapshot of a broader happening. The federal government is doing this like they have done for decades: lying about radioactivity in the name of "national security".

One special team—a very special team—had a portable Geiger counter; it went berserk in the bombsites. A member of that team whispered into the ear of a very knowledgeable investigative journalist, "Tritium", a radioactive material that reacts somehow with water (such as in the lungs of the sniffing dog).

Some try to explain away the cementing over of the bombsites after quickly demolishing the building. Supposedly done to prevent people from falling into the excavation. Why was the federal government in such a hurry to flatten the federal office building? (End quote)

SHERMAN H. SKOLNICK

Skolnick has a reputation among some as being "too far out"; I've heard it said that "he's Jewish, you can't trust him" or "he's a front for the ADL". I don't know—all I know about him, I like. He tries to bring out the truth, without censorship. He has investigated Federal judges and had them put in jail, in spite of their threats to get him. He says he has been put in jail ten times, not for crimes but for "contempt of court", by judges who later ended up in jail for bribery. It takes a remarkable person to do something like that!

There is a Satanist involved in some of this (documented in court cases, written about in Time, etc.) named Michael Aquino, and a Mossad/ADL asset named Chip Berlet. Chip Berlet threatened Skolnick, but Skolnick does not scare easily. For now, I will merely quote what Skolnick said in response to Berlet, from Conspiracy Nation, Vol. 5, Num. 70, (quoting:)

[...]One last point: there was this guy, Michael Aquino, who was very upset that I had posted some material by Dave Emory in which Emory said some unflattering things about Mr. Aquino. You may know that Mr. Aquino reportedly claims to be "The Devil". Anyway, Mr. Aquino was all upset. So what did the mighty, so-called "Devil" do? Did he send his fiendish imps from Hell to torment me with hot pitchforks? No. The alleged "Devil" made noises (as are you [Berlet]) of libel, etc. So I thought to myself, "What kind of puny 'Devil' is this, that goes running to lawyers when he gets in a jam?" (And I also thought, "How can you defame someone who is supposedly going around saying that they are 'The Devil'?" If you've got someone that, allegedly, has claimed to be "The Devil", it seems to me that they have already pretty much "defamed" themselves as much as is possible.)

So you [Berlet] may wonder—"But what does that have to do with me?" Answer: I have locked horns with "The Devil", buddy boy, and compared to him, you ain't sh. (End quote)

You may be interested to know that Skolnick is a paraplegic, confined to a wheelchair (CN 5-39). I think he stands up very well.

NORMAN R. AUGUSTINE

I hear people say something like "There cannot be a conspiracy, why, everybody would have to be in on it!" For instance, in the Oklahoma City bombing, the military or federal agents might keep secrets, but what about all the Red Cross volunteers who worked the disaster? If there were a coverup, surely these civilians would not be in on it!

Q: Who is the head of the Red Cross?

A: The President of the Red Cross is Elizabeth Dole, wife of soon-to-be United States President (he hopes), Senator Bob Dole (now ex-Senator, he wanted to spend more time with his family after being visited by "The Angel of Doom") ("Dole will be President over my dead body," says Clinton, figuratively of course).

Q: Who else is in charge of the Red Cross?

A: The Chairman of the Board of the Red Cross is Norman Augustine.

Q: What other hats does Augustine wear?

A: Norman Augustine is also Chief Executive Officer of Lockheed Martin Corp., formerly Martin-Marietta and Lockheed Missile Corporations, now the largest defense contractor in the world. He is also Vice-Chairman along with Bernard L. Schwartz, who is chairman/CEO of Loral Space And Communications. (Aviation Week & Space Technology, May 6, 1996, p. 8.)

Q: Who is the biggest donor to the Red Cross?

A: Probably the biggest donor is Dwayne Andreas, head of Archer Daniels Midland. He gave nothing at all to the Red Cross until Elizabeth Dole took over, and since then has given over $3 million. He has also given over $200,000 to Bob Dole's election campaign. Archer Daniels Midland is the largest single backer of the Jewish ADL. Andreas is also on the advisory board of the Hollinger Corporation, whose international advisors are Margaret Thatcher, Lord Carrington and Henry Kissinger and which owns the Jerusalem Post. Also on the board are other names you might know: David Brinkley (ABC News), Zbigniew Brzezinski, William Buckley, Lord Rothschild, Paul Volker, Sir James Goldsmith, Richard Perle, and George Will (Newsweek and Washington Post). Andreas is a good friend of Gorbachev. The ADM cartel is THE group through which American grain is sent to the Soviets, who in turn are creating a drought in the U.S. (some say) with their "woodpecker" transmissions. The Canadian Prime Minister Mulroney was also head of ADM. Newsweek magazine called Andreas one of "Gorbachev's prairie pals".

Q: Let's see, when there is a major earthquake or plane crash or bombing, among the first people to arrive to "secure the scene" are the personal representatives of Bob Dole, Lockheed Martin Corp. and Archer Daniels Midland. I don't see any conspiracy there, do you?

A: Nah, of course not. "Psst, hey, wanna' buy a bridge? I'll make you a good deal." (Some information taken from "Politics, charity mix for Red Cross donor," Austin American Statesman, May 2, 1996, p. A4.)

Among the CEO's dying lately was CEO of Texas Instruments, Jerry R. Jenkins who died Wednesday, May 29, 1996, of a heart attack at age 58. The announcement in the Austin American Statesman (May 30, 1996, p. D8.) on May 30 was: "He has had an enormous impact not only on our industry, but on all of those of us who have known him," said Norman Augustine, chief executive of Lockheed Martin, a friend of 25 years."

An article called "Spy Finance and the Black Budget" by Robert Dreyfuss, in the American Prospect, no. 25 (March-April 1996), said: "Making the case for Lockheed Martin [affectionately called Lock-Mart] was Norm Augustine, a longtime Washington insider. A confidant of CIA directors, Secretaries of Defense, and other officials, Augustine was actually mentioned as a possible successor to former CIA Director James Woolsey (himself an ex-director of Martin Marietta) who resigned in 1994. That move never panned out, but Augustine remains close with Deutch who, like Augustine, began his career working for McNamara in the 1960s Pentagon."

If you want to understand what is going on in our country, you'd better pay attention to these people!

This article also states: "Since the earliest days of his career, [Newt] Gingrich has had a close relationship with Lockheed Martin—so close, in fact, that Lockheed Martin officials say they are worried his ties to the company may become a liability." Other quotes: "According to HPSCI [House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence] staffers, Gingrich was not a passive player during 1995, often involving himself in the intricate details of the intelligence-community authorization process. Not only that, but since the HPSCI is a select committee, all of its members were handpicked by Gingrich, and they serve at his pleasure."

"Over the years, Gingrich has benefitted from the financial support of Lockheed Martin. During the 1993-94 election cycle, Lockheed gave Gingrich the $10,000 maximum allowed, and Martin Marietta kicked in another $2,000. In addition, Lockheed contributed $10,000 to the Progress and Freedom Foundation, the think tank that is closely identified with Gingrich.... All of this conferred upon Augustine and Lockheed Martin tremendous clout in the satellite debate." Newton Gingrich, by the way, was born Newton McPherson.

This article mentions that John Deutch, a chemist from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and now head of the CIA, and Secretary of Defense William Perry, had such conflicts of interest with Lockheed and other companies that they "...had to receive a special conflict-of-interest waiver from then-Defense Secretary Les Aspin." Perry, a mathematician, built a company called ESL Inc. and Perry along with Deutch and Paul Kaminski, the undersecretary of defense for acquisitions and technology, own part of Cambridge Research Associates of McLean, Virginia, a company in which they make money by selling technology to themselves in the government at taxpayers' expense ("the troika denies any conflict of interest", then admits conflict of interest by issuing themselves special exemptions!).

Charles R. Smith wrote: "PowerScene, a three-dimensional mapping program used by DOD and the CIA, is built by Cambridge Research Associates based in McLean, Virginia. CRA, however, is owned by DOD Secretary William Perry, CIA Director John Deutch and DOD under secretary for acquisition and technology Paul Kaminski. It is odd that the Defense Department and the CIA are buying software from companies owned by the heads of the Defense Department and the CIA."

"...However, the ethical question of selling something as a contractor to the very same government organization you are an employee in is not in play for anyone else. It is illegal for Federal employees to do so. It is illegal for military folks to do so. Yet, these three have waivers."

The 16 members of the HPSCI supervise the National Reconnaissance Agency, the National Security Agency, and other U.S. intelligence agencies, although there is a smokescreen covering who is really supervising who.

Augustine, after graduation from Princeton, became program manager and chief engineer at Douglas Aircraft. Douglas Aircraft was parent to the RAND Corporation. Augustine joined Martin Marietta in 1977, was Undersecretary of the Army for two years, and is on the board of directors of companies such as Proctor & Gamble, Riggs National Corp. (Paul Cushman, CEO of Riggs, died in the Ron Brown plane crash), and the New American Schools Development Corp. He is also chairman of the Red Cross and executive vice president of the Boy Scouts of America.

Speaking of the Red Cross, remember that the Red Cross is in charge of the nation's blood supply (for instance, they have exclusive rights to conduct blood drives at military installations). Is that bit of information important? You bet it is.

WILLIAM JAMES PERRY

Many people are beginning to "wake up" and have started taking a closer look at our politicians, judges, and other crooks in high places. Overlooked, however, have been our scientists. I strongly suggest you begin to take a look at the scientists, the people, the names, the education, the specialties, and so on of the people who develop our weapons, our spy satellites, and other modern technology. We hear that "scientists" have developed this or that, but those scientists have names. They have educations, backgrounds, specialties, and they like to brag about their projects. If you want to learn about a project, check out the people involved.

Recently, it was revealed that the National Reconnaissance Office had "lost" over $2 billion (the exact amount is classified—now why would they do that?). Congress was so upset that they asked Secretary of Defense William Perry and CIA head John Deutch to do something. So Perry and Deutch fired the head of the NRO, Jeffrey Harris, and replaced him with Keith Hall, one of their own.

Solved that problem, didn't they. Now let's see, Janice Shields wrote an article about Corporate Welfare called "Marietta-Lockheed Subsidies" (25 April 1996) which said: "Defense Secretary William Perry and his deputy, John Deutch, were employed as consultants by Martin Marietta before joining the Pentagon and have close personal relationships with Martin Marietta Chairman Norman Augustine.... Last year, Perry and Deutch, reacting to an appeal by Augustine, secretly reversed the Pentagon's 40-year ban on reimbursing expenses related to defense company acquisitions and mergers so that Martin Marietta could get $330 million in federal payments in connection with the acquisitions of defense subsidiaries...."

Hmm. What are these secret reimbursements? She also wrote: "U. S. taxpayers (via the Defense Dept.) will pay $31 million of the $92 million in bonuses for top officials of Martin Marietta Corp. and Lockheed Corp." By "top officials" she means Perry and Augustine, right?

Didn't we just read above that "Making the case for Lockheed Martin [affectionately called Lock-Mart] was Norm Augustine, a longtime Washington insider. A confidant of CIA directors, secretaries of defense, and other officials, Augustine was actually mentioned as a possible successor to former CIA Director James Woolsey (himself an ex-director of Martin Marietta) who resigned in 1994. That move never panned out, but Augustine remains close with Deutch who, like Augustine, began his career working for McNamara in the 1960s Pentagon." This same article said: "Builder of billion-dollar spy satellites and launchers, the Bethesda-based Lockheed Martin is by far the nation's largest intelligence manufacturer, absorbing all by itself more than half of the estimated $7 billion budget for the National Reconnaissance Office, according to a former senior intelligence official."

Let's see, I'm trying to understand this. The NRO has an unaccounted for $2 billion surplus (the $6 billion figure is supposed to be secret). Half of what the NRO gets goes to Perry's and Augustine's companies. So Congress gets upset and tells Perry to do something, so he fires the head of the NRO and puts his own man in charge. He re-arranges the companies, and charges for it. Shields wrote: "Pentagon spokesperson Ken Bacon claims that, under existing law, companies can apply for reimbursement of certain costs for consolidation. He denies that the government is paying a $1 billion 'subsidy'." Oh, brother. Oh, Big Brother.

William Perry is one person who needs to be watched very closely. He is, after all, our Secretary of War, now called Secretary of Defense. The New High Ground, p. 125, tells of Perry praising the new Global Positioning System (GPS) and telling of trials where craft could land or drop bombs with precision, even at night and flying totally blind, relying only on the GPS.

Perry was Under Secretary of Defense for Research and this was in 1980, just before the helicopters were defeated by a "dust storm" when they invaded Iran to rescue the embassy hostages (Operation Eagle Claw). The first NAVSTAR GPS satellite was launched in 1978, although we already had navigation satellites. Five NAVSTAR GPS satellites were in orbit by 1980. Yet the Operation Eagle Claw assault helicopters got lost in a desert dust storm. Rockwell International, the maker of the NAVSTARs, said the satellites would be used to guide missiles to their targets. The NAVSTAR GPS control center is at USAF Space Command at Falcon Air Force Base, Colorado Springs, Colorado. The city of Dallas, Texas, currently uses GPS to keep track of its city buses, yet we hear of military planes and helicopters getting lost and accidentally straying across borders and such, not to mention all the civilian craft that lose track of where they are. We are told the Air Force cannot afford GPS equipment in all its planes, yet Dallas busses can afford them. They must charge a horrendous bus fare.

In the late 1970s when General George Keegan was warning of the advances the Russians had made, Perry was at the Pentagon working to arrange the nuclear first strike against Russia, what Dr. Beter called NUCLEAR WAR ONE. Earlier Fire From The Sky and Dr. Beter writings told of the American Bolshevik socialist Zionists, working with their Soviet counterparts, who did their best to get us into a nuclear war. Names mentioned included Kissinger, Harold Brown, Brzezinski and such. The co-chairman of the American Security Council was Senator Bob Dole, who appears to be part of the Bolshevik socialists. The Secretary of Defense in the mid-1970's was James Schlesinger and the head of the CIA was William Colby. A name from that period, right-hand man to Harold Brown, that is now prominent is our Secretary of Defense, William Perry.

About this time the Undersecretary of the Air Force and former head of NASA's Ames Research Center was Hans Mark, who was born in Germany. Perry was Undersecretary of Defense for research, engineering, and acquisition. One of his assistants was Seymour L. Zeiberg, who was in charge of space systems research and development. Perry became "right-hand man for research and development" to Harold Brown. Remember that Harold Brown's father was born in Russia. "Brown and Perry, in conjunction with all the military services, were preparing to embark on a crash effort to come up with newer, much smarter, one-shot, one-kill PGMs (Precision-Guided Munitions) that indeed held promise for revolutionizing warfare." (War In Space by James Canan, Harper & Row, 1982, p. 58.)

Working with Perry to develop PGMs was the chairman of the Defense Science Board and vice president for technical operations of Martin Marietta Corp., Norman R. Augustine. Augustine's group developed the Copperhead and other PGMs. Augustine and Perry supervised the development of stealth aircraft and "In August 1980, the Pentagon went public with some details of new technologies that presumably will permit penetrating bombers to remain 'invisible' to enemy anti-aircraft radars until too late for the radar-controlled missiles to strike them. Such aircraft armed with PGMs would be devastating" (War In Space, p. 71).

Perry's job at the Pentagon was to decide who got the money, which meant he decided which weapons and systems were funded and which were not. This gave him tremendous power. War In Space says: "He [Perry] was a product of the 'black', the secret, side of the business, which means, in the main, electronics, OPTICS, and PHOTONICS, all threaded into the space connection and the weapons that shoot from afar" (emphasis mine). When you think lasers, holograms, and related technology, think Perry.

When President Carter canceled the B-1 bomber production program on June 30, 1977, he specified the cruise missile as his preferred alternative. For cruise missiles to work, they have to have very accurate and up-to-date maps. This became one of Perry's specialties, as he was in charge of the Defense Mapping Agency (DMA). He began projects of taking high-resolution photographs by reconnaissance satellites and encoding them in digital form. The key satellite at that time for this purpose was the Keyhole 11, a super-secret program until information about it was given to the Soviets in 1978 by William Kampiles (see earlier information in Fire From The Sky). The KH-11 had the ability to take detailed photographs, encode them digitally (and "doctor" them if necessary) and transmit them back in digitized, encoded form. Some may be interested in knowing that this same technology was used on NASA's Voyager 2 encounters with Saturn and Jupiter.

Perry also began projects to develop the SA-X-10 surface-to-air radar-guided missile, with a goal of deploying it by mid to late 1980s. The X-10 is still in the news lately, disguised as a one-step-into-space missile to replace the Space Shuttle.

In 1979, the Defense Science Board under Harold Brown and William Perry formed a task force of fifty-three scientists to determine the situation with particle beam weapons. "The scientists agreed that the Russians were indeed weaponizing particle beams, and were probably five to seven years ahead of the United States in their workings." (War In Space, James Canan, p. 158.)

Dr. Peter David Beter tried to warn the American public and leadership about what was going on, but only a few listened. One who did listen to Beter was Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Air Force General George S. Brown.

GENERAL GEORGE S. BROWN

On August 19, 1976, after President Gerald Ford made his nomination acceptance speech, he invited Ronald Reagan to come to the speaker's platform and say a few words. Reagan said: "We live in a world in which the great powers have poised and aimed at each other horrible missiles of destruction—nuclear weapons that can in a matter of minutes arrive in each other's country and destroy virtually the civilized world we live in. And suddenly it dawned on me: Those who would read this letter a hundred years from now will know whether those missiles were fired."

Dr. Beter, in one of his audio letters (#16) said of this speech, QUOTE (emphasis mine):

It is no coincidence that nuclear missiles came to Ronald Reagan's mind as he looked at the waters off the California coast. We had been in telephone contact with one another since August 11, and he knew all about the Soviet underwater missiles when he said those words of warning I just quoted. But most of his audience never realized what he was driving at, thanks to the total absence of any other clues about the Soviet threat from the Government or the major media. So the fate of our beloved nation, and therefore of the whole world, rested during the month of August 1976 in the hands of those who heard my charges and acted on them.

Here is what happened: During August the United States Government came under steadily mounting pressure from people like yourself all over the world who sent copies of my tapes, relayed my charges, and demanded action. The first sign that this was beginning to take effect came on August 14, 1976. On that date I learned that a secret code name had been assigned to the Soviet Underwater Missile program. However, action to remove the missiles still had not been approved, and was not going to be approved unless such action was forced by public opinion. Meanwhile the first concrete action in the August Missile Crisis of 1976 was taken—not by the United States, but by Canada.

On August 17, 1976 the Canadian Navy had found the Crescent Beach missile near Vancouver, B.C., but lacked the capability to retrieve it. Prime Minister Trudeau, receiving no cooperation from the United States Government at that time, called Soviet Charge d' Affaires Nikolai Makarov in Ottawa and demanded that the Soviet Union itself come and remove the missile. And remove it they did. On August 25 the Vancouver area was visited by three Soviet ships—two destroyers, the Sposobny and the Gnevny; and a tanker called the Ilim. Rear Admiral Vladimir Varganov arrived aboard one of the ships, using this 'good will' visit as a cover. By the following afternoon, Canadian divers confirmed that the missile was gone.

Meanwhile Great Britain had also begun taking serious action in order to rid herself of the 12 underwater missiles and bombs ringing the British Isles. On August 18, 1976, Prime Minister Callaghan called a special Cabinet meeting at 11:00 A.M. London time. Present were the First Lord of the Admiralty, the First Sea Lord of the Admiralty, and several Fleet Commanders. The purpose of the meeting was to listen to my monthly AUDIO LETTERS Nos. 14 and 15 which had gone to England by diplomatic pouch. They already knew that my information was accurate because of the Soviet missile action. By August 27, 1976, all but one of the missiles had been removed; and that one, too, was retrieved shortly thereafter.

By late August the United States was at last taking action too, prodded into it by still-building public pressure. For once President Gerald Ford acted on his own, over-ruled Rockefeller agent Henry Kissinger and gave the go-ahead for the Soviet bombs and missiles surrounding the United States to be removed.

Having been unleashed at last, the United States Navy worked fast, acting on the information in my monthly AUDIO LETTER No. 15. By the evening of August 26, 1976, seven of the Soviet weapons in our waters—six missiles and one hydrogen bomb—had been removed; and by August 31, 1976, the waters along the American coastline had all been cleared. At this point the threat to the United States that I had spelled out last month had been eliminated at last, using the very information I had made public. But the Government in general, and the Military in particular, were still under heavy public pressure; and under the assumption that the Soviet threat was now over and done with, they chose a technique which has become standard practice in Washington today. It's called "plausible denial"—a particular type of bureaucratic double talk. The Joint Chiefs of Staff and the United States Navy had just completed an operation to remove the missiles around our country, a job potentially so hazardous as to defy imagination. In short, they had done their duty; and the Navy especially deserves our thanks for accomplishing their task without anyone being hurt.

They should be acclaimed as heroes, and our whole nation should be rallying behind them with justified pride. But, my friends, in the nightmare world of step-by-step surrender to the Soviets called "Detente", it doesn't work that way. Even our Military leaders are so thoroughly hemmed in by the "One-World" web that the only way that they can do their duty in the face of such a Soviet threat is to hide the fact that they are doing it. And so, as soon as the missile removal operation had been completed around our shores, "plausible denials" of my charges began being issued by the United States Military. This began on August 31, 1976, when Vice Admiral B. R. [Bobby] Inman, Acting Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency, answered an inquiry sent to the Secretary of Defense Rumsfeld weeks before by Senator Harry F. Byrd, Jr. of Virginia. Admiral Inman's letter gives a number of arguments as to why any prudent government, including the U.S.S.R., would presumably refrain from planting such missiles and bombs in our waters. But the real crux of his plausible denial letter is the following sentence, quote:

"There is currently no evidence indicating the Soviets have placed underwater nuclear devices, including missiles with multiple warheads, within the territorial waters of the United States." Technically, Admiral Inman was telling the truth, because as of August 31, 1976, when he wrote this letter, all of the evidence—the missiles and bombs—had been removed from our waters; but the impact of his letter, if read casually, would seem to be that my charges never had been true!

By the same token, General George S. Brown, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, wrote me the following day on September 1, 1976. His letter has been photocopied and sent all over the world by the Pentagon. I will now read it in its entirety:

"Dear Dr. Beter:

Your recent tape report alleging that Soviet nuclear warheads and hydrogen bombs have been planted in the coastal waters of the United States has been brought to my attention. I have investigated these assertions and find not a shred of truth to any of your statements in this regard. Let me assure you of this country's capability to detect any such aggressive actions by the Soviet Union or any other world power.

We stand ready to evaluate and comment in advance on any such information you may acquire in the future which impinges upon the vital issue of our national security.

Sincerely,
George S. Brown
General, U.S.A.F."

The seeming impact of General Brown's letter, read casually, is that my whole story about the missiles was a fake. But the real key, once again, is the word "find" (present tense). Furthermore, in the last sentence, General Brown actually signaled me that the door would be open if I acquired more such information; and by the time his letter reached me, I had more such information because as I said before, the Soviet Union is not giving up.

Topic #2—On the afternoon of September 7, 1976, I received General Brown's letter of September 1, which I just read you. Ironically, I also learned on the same day, September 7, that "round two" of the Soviet Underwater Missile Crisis was just beginning. Three underwater missiles were now threatening Los Angeles, and San Diego was once again targeted by an underwater missile close by. Accordingly I answered General Brown's letter as follows:

"Dear General Brown:

Today I received your letter of September 1. I fully understand the position you are taking at this time; however other governments have not taken your position. They know the truth, I know the truth, and so does President Ford; and the truth is that during the month of August 1976 a surprise Soviet nuclear attack of world-wide proportions has been partially averted.

Make no mistake, the huge build-up of Soviet nuclear missiles on land and in the sea world-wide, continues to be a clear and present signal for an imminent surprise attack of immense proportions. In 1962 we had a Soviet Missile Crisis in Cuba; in 1971 we had the Soviet Missile Crisis in Canadian and United States territorial waters which was kept from the American people; and now once again, in 1976, the world is experiencing yet another Soviet missile crisis. The world must know of the courage of President Ford as Commander in Chief in moving aside unbelievable obstacles in order to begin to meet the Soviet challenge last month.

In your letter you state that, quote:

In view of this and the urgency of the situation, I respectfully request to meet with you privately in your offices within the next ten (10) days. At that time I will present evidence of the validity of all my charges, and under specific conditions I will advise you of other strategic locations of Soviet nuclear missiles planted in our coastal waters and elsewhere of which you may not be aware and which constitute a clear and present danger to our national security.

Sincerely yours,
Peter Beter"

Shortly after my registered letter reached the Pentagon, Navy Captain Sidney V. Wright, Jr. called on behalf of General Brown to arrange a meeting with the General. We agreed on meeting in General Brown's offices at 3:00 P.M., Thursday, September 16. An associate accompanied me to the meeting as a witness; and promptly at 3:00 P.M. the meeting began with General Brown and Captain Wright, who tape-recorded the meeting with my consent. In spite of the public posture which he has so far had to maintain, General Brown told me that he had overruled his staff in order to meet with me; and although he couched many of his comments with considerable care, our discussion lasted for well over an hour without interruptions, without telephone calls, and without any cutoff because of time.

I gave General Brown a special tape for his ears only, revealing the locations of 48 new missiles threatening the United States, and within two days the United States Navy was already at work removing them. In addition, General Brown made three commitments to me, and I made one to him.

To fulfill my own commitment, I sent the following registered letter to him on September 17, 1976:

"Dear General Brown:

Thank you for affording me the opportunity to meet with you in your offices yesterday for over an hour. During our conversation I mentioned that the Soviet nuclear device which was removed from Seal Harbor, Maine, had been taken to a location near Otis Air Force Base on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, and that it was still there as of the time of my meeting with you yesterday afternoon. You requested that I provide you with details about its location.

The facts are that the Seal Harbor nuclear device was in the process of being retrieved by the United States Navy late Saturday, 28 August 1976, and was on the beach at Seal Harbor waiting transportation by the afternoon of 29 August. That evening it left Seal Harbor by truck, which took it to an airport at Augusta, Maine. On the afternoon of 30 August the nuclear device was flown from Augusta, Maine, to Otis Air Force Base, Cape Cod, where the airplane touched down at 17:13 EDT, 30 August 1976. From Otis Air Force Base this nuclear device was transported to a remote location on the west side of Buzzards Bay. For over two weeks the device stayed in that location, which is between one and two miles east of the small town of Marion, Massachusetts, on a small peninsula, the tip of which is known as Butler's Point. The coordinates are: 41-42-0 North, 70-43-30 West.

The Seal Harbor weapon remained there until about 2200 EDT last night, 16 September 1976; but then less than six (6) hours after my meeting with you yesterday afternoon, it left this location. As of today, this weapon is in a new location about 24 miles west of New London, Connecticut, with the approximate coordinates: 41-19-0 North, 72-31-0 West.

If I had not known about this latest move, the result would have been an echo of your letter to me of 1 September 1976, in which you state that you, quote 'find' no evidence to support my charges. Your letter of 1 September 1976, of course, was written 43 days after I first made my charges and only hours after the Soviet missiles had all been removed by the United States Navy.

Sincerely,
Peter Beter"

My friends, General Brown is laboring under the handicap of an Intelligence gap created by none other than Secretary of State Henry Kissinger. Allied Intelligence sources inform me that they have become gun-shy in sharing some of the information they give me with the official Intelligence community of the United States because invariably Kissinger betrays it immediately into the hands of the Soviet Union. Large segments of the United States Intelligence establishment are so independent that they do not consider themselves accountable even to the President. Instead they work under the direction of Henry Kissinger, who owes his power to the four Rockefeller brothers and who also works in the interest of the Soviet Union.

Of course many of our Intelligence people are still patriotic and loyal to our country and they are doing everything they possibly can to protect our nation. Through their efforts the Joint Chiefs of Staff first learned about 90 days ago that missiles and bombs had been planted in American waters by the Soviet Union; but due to the Intelligence gap, they were unable to obtain complete information about them. Only when I publicly revealed this information last month, did they obtain it; and even then had I related to them privately instead of making it a public issue, Kissinger would still have been able to block any action to remove them.

The signs of our growing Intelligence gap are all around us. A few years ago the United States was believed to be far, far ahead in multiple warhead technology for missiles; yet as far back as 1971, as I revealed in monthly AUDIO LETTER No. 14, short-range Soviet missiles with multiple nuclear warheads were found in our own waters.

A few years ago no real threat in naval aviation was anticipated from Russia, but two months ago, July 1976, the first Soviet Aircraft Carrier Kiev entered the Mediterranean through the Bosphorus Straits, boldly violating the 1936 Montreux Convention as it did so; and instead of the stubby little aircraft the Pentagon had expected, the Kiev carries sleek advanced aircraft comparable to the American F-4 Phantom with the additional capability of vertical take-off! And the Soviets are building at least four more carriers like the Kiev. It is now in the North Sea to bolster Soviet air power, which is a weak spot in that area for them.

The military philosophy of detente as expressed to me by a very high military official is, and I quote: "We watch what they're doing, and they watch what we're doing, and that's good. It prevents miscalculations." But, my friends, this means we are in a perpetual war game with all of our lives at stake; and because of the Intelligence gap that now exists, a miscalculation cannot be prevented. Instead, it becomes inevitable; and with it THERMONUCLEAR WAR.

Topic #3—Yesterday, September 24, 1976, Secretary of the Navy J. William Middendorf II delivered a very important briefing at the News Media luncheon of the American Security Council [co-chaired by Sen. Robert Dole] held at the Army-Navy Club here in Washington. He spoke of things that every American should be alerted about, but the major news media treated it as a non-event. The Baltimore Sun and the Washington Star carried stories which dealt with splinters from Secretary Middendorf's speech but missed the basic thrust of his comments. The Washington Post and the New York Times and the rest of our major media said nothing at all. Here at home another attempt to warn the American people has so far been muffled and silenced!

But half a world away, Radio Australia did give Secretary Middendorf's speech the attention it deserves—and they did not miss the point. Here is what Radio Australia had to say at 8:00 o'clock this morning EDT, quote:

"A warning that the growing strength of the Soviet Navy has created an emergency situation for the United States has been sounded in Washington by the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. William Middendorf. He also said that the emphasis being placed by the Soviet Union on Civil Defense has another ominous trend.

Mr. Middendorf said the Soviet Union now has 345 submarines, many of them nuclear-powered and armed with missiles capable of hitting every city in the United States. In contrast, the United States has only 169 submarines. Mr. Middendorf said that it is evidence by the Soviet Union that the 40,000-ton Kiev-class Aircraft Carriers, with four more believed to be under construction, was another ominous change for the near future. Mr. Middendorf said that while the Soviet Union was producing submarines and warships by leaps and bounds, the United States Navy had been almost cut in half to 474 ships over the past six years."

Is the Secretary of the Navy crying "Wolf"? I submit he is not, knowing what we know. In International Law, mining the harbors of another country is an act of war. The Soviet Union has already invaded our territorial waters, not merely with mines but with hydrogen bombs and multiple-warhead nuclear missiles. By contrast, we have placed no such weapons around the Soviet Union—so the actions already taken by the Soviets are acts of war and pure aggression.

As I say these words, an undeclared submarine war is going on between the Soviet Union and the United States in the waters surrounding our country. So far it is still at the stage of maneuvering for attack on the part of the Soviets, who now have nearly half of their submarine force surrounding the United States. The challenge before us now is to prevent this from escalating into all-out war, as planned by the Soviet Union. To do this, we must all understand what we are up against.

As I explained several months ago in monthly AUDIO LETTER No. 13, WAR DOES NOT JUST HAPPEN! It is planned and triggered deliberately by those whose lust for power is more important to them than the lives of their fellow men. Conspiracy and double-cross are standard practice in such things. The threat of nuclear attack by the Soviet Union that hangs over us right now is tied directly to a three-way power struggle involving the Rockefellers on one side, the Soviet Union on the other, and in the middle Henry Kissinger who serves both sides! (END QUOTE FROM BETER.)

Later, Beter wrote, (quoting:)

On September 16 I gave General Brown a list of 48 new sites around the United States where missiles and bombs have been planted during the first two weeks of September. Two days later the United States Navy was fast at work picking them up, and by now has removed practically all of them; but we pick up one and the Soviets lay down another.

Using their missile-laying submarines, the Soviets have planted seven more missiles in new locations around the United States since my meeting with General Brown. As of yesterday afternoon, the United States Navy had already found and removed two of these new ones—one northeast of Vero Beach, Florida; the other southeast of Jacksonville, Florida.

As of today, four of the other five are still in place in the following locations: Near Miami, Florida, at: 25-19-0 North, 80-12-50 West.

In the southwest end of Pamlico Sound, North Carolina, at: 35-4-20 North, 76-30-20 West.

In the northeast end of Pamlico Sound about 20 miles south of Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, at: 35-40-0 North, 75-38-50 West.

And near Valdez, Alaska, at: 60-51-50 North, 147-5-0 West.

The other new missile was planted Sunday night, September 20, 1976, near Bloodsworth Island in Chesapeake Bay at: 38-12-25 North, 76-11-55 West, but is now being removed.

The Bloodsworth Island missile is a special case, and I will have more to say about it in a moment. Before I do that, though, it is important to mention a diabolical new trick the Soviet Union is now trying in an effort to confuse the United States Navy long enough to replant enough missiles in our waters for an attack. Some sites which have been cleared by the United States Navy are now being used to replant new underwater missiles very close to the exact location used before. The Soviets anticipate that when these locations are given to the United States Navy they will be entered on the Master Plot in use by our Navy, and at that point it will of course be noticed that the new report corresponds to a location where a missile has been removed. The natural assumption would be, therefore, that such a new report was simply a repetition of an earlier report and was now out-of-date. If this happens, the new missile will be overlooked and will not be removed. Just to make sure, however, the Soviet Union is placing the new missiles just far enough from the previous location to prevent our Navy from discovering them by anything less than a complete new search of the area.

As of approximately noon yesterday, I can confirm two new missiles which have been newly planted at old locations this way. One is near Gulfport, Mississippi, at: Latitude 30-17-20 North, Longitude 89-18-25 West.

The other is near Mobile, Alabama, at: Latitude 30-38-40 North, Longitude 87-59-0 West.

Both of these sites are almost identical to the ones which I gave to General Brown on September 16 and which had been cleared by September 21.

A moment ago I mentioned a new underwater missile that was planted last Sunday night, September 20, in Chesapeake Bay near Bloodsworth Island, which is about midway between Baltimore, Maryland, and Norfolk, Virginia. The small missile-laying submarine installed the Bloodsworth Island missile at 10:30 PM EDT, and then headed back south toward Norfolk, Virginia. As of 10:00 AM the following morning, Monday September 21, this small submarine with at least one more thermonuclear weapon on board, was close to the mouth of Chesapeake Bay, but had stopped and was playing possum on the bottom. Its location was about 10 miles northeast of Norfolk, Virginia, at: Latitude 37-6-20 North, Longitude 76-7-10 West.

Upon receiving this information, I immediately called General Brown's office and relayed this information to Captain Sidney V. Wright, Jr.

Here was a chance for the United States Navy to catch one of the Soviet missile-laying submarines red-handed. By the time you hear this, the Bloodsworth Island missile planted last Sunday night by this submarine will be gone, thanks to the action now in progress by the United States Navy; but as of now, the submarine is still there. This Soviet missile-laying submarine will stay there, complete with its cargo of mass destruction, until our Navy pulls it up and takes it away because, my friends, the small Soviet submarine now resting on the bottom of the Chesapeake Bay has become a tomb for its crew. Something went wrong with its power plant, and now the Soviet crew is dead. The sub itself, still loaded with nuclear weapons, has now become a gigantic mine in the waters near the biggest Naval concentration in the United States, and so it will remain unless and until it is removed by the United States Navy.

My friends, the threat of war from the Soviet Union has never before been as great nor as imminent as it is now. But I remain firmly convinced that, even now, a shooting war can still be prevented. Our fate remains in YOUR hands; but now I believe more than ever that the American people, when told the truth, are equal to the task. Congressmen and Senators write letters to President Ford or Henry Kissinger and get no satisfactory response; but YOU, you opened the door for communication between General George S. Brown, who heads our country's military establishment, and myself, and I thank you from the very bottom of my heart.

Now I ask you to get behind General Brown in the same way. This is more important than I can express, because General Brown, handicapped by the Intelligence gap created by Henry Kissinger, is confronted by many opposing forces within the federal government who, unlike General Brown, are not loyal to the United States.

As soon as you finish listening to this tape, I ask you, PLEASE, to send a letter, telegram, or Mailgram to General Brown expressing your support. It took great courage from the standpoint of his own career for General Brown to see me at all, yet he overruled his staff in insisting upon doing so. And under General Brown's command, with the approval of President Ford as Commander in Chief, the United States Navy has acted and has so far been able to fend off the intended surprise nuclear attack by the Soviet Navy.

Send your letters and telegrams to: General George S. Brown, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Washington, D.C. 20301.

Thank him for seeing me, thank him for taking action, and tell him you are behind him. By doing this, my friends, YOU can help strengthen Gen. Brown's hand against those who would rather see inaction or outright surrender to the Soviet Union. Remember: YOUR VOICE COUNTS.

If God will grant us the time and the wisdom to do so, I believe the war which is now so close can still be averted; but I would not be honest if I did not urge you to take such precautions as you can for your own protection in the event war does come. The Soviet Union has a massive Civil Defense program to enable it to survive nuclear war. No such preparations have been made in the United States except for the so-called "Federal Relocation Arc", a network of 96 virtually bomb-proof underground cities in which many of the Government officials, who have betrayed us into war, will be able to ride it out in safety and comfort. So the rest of us, who are considered expendable, are left to fend for ourselves. [End quoting of this tape]

In a later audio letter, Beter said, (quoting:)

Here are my topics for today: Topic #1—RED FRIDAY AND THE CAMPAIGN TO DESTROY GENERAL GEORGE S. BROWN. Topic #2—THE SWINE FLU COVER-UP FOR CHEMICAL WARFARE NOW UNDER WAY. Topic #3—THE PHANTOM ELECTION OF 1976.

Topic #1—Last month, in monthly AUDIO LETTER No. 16, I reviewed for you the events that had taken place in the Soviet Underwater Missile Crisis since recording AUDIO LETTER No. 15 in early August. As I pointed out, Air Force General George S. Brown, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, had so far played a crucial role in preventing a Soviet surprise attack on the United States, thanks to the actions taken by American Armed Forces under his command. In August he had obtained the go-ahead from President Ford, as Commander in Chief, to seek out and remove the Soviet underwater missiles in our coastal waters. A remarkable achievement, because Ford had to overrule Rockefeller agent Henry Kissinger in giving this order!

Using the navigational coordinates I revealed in my August tape, the United States Navy was able to remove all the Soviet missiles in our territorial waters during the latter part of August. On September 1, 1976, with the threat presumed to be over, General Brown wrote me a letter, which was widely publicized, seemingly dismissing my charges, but actually opening the door for communication between us.

On September 7, I had information about a new round of missiles that were being planted by the Soviets. I wrote General Brown to request a meeting, and on September 16, 1976, I met with him at the Pentagon in his office for well over an hour. During that meeting I gave him the navigational coordinates for 48 new Soviet missiles threatening the United States and Canada from locations in our territorial waters—and again he ordered prompt action by the United States Navy to start removing them. But as I warned last month, the Soviet Union is not giving up; and on top of that, General Brown confronts terrible opposition WITHIN the federal government! So I asked you to express your support for General Brown to strengthen his hand for our country's benefit.

Now you can begin to see why. On October 17, 1976, selected excerpts from an interview with General Brown were leaked to the press a week prior to publication. These comments, taken out of context, made it appear that General Brown was disparaging certain of our allies; and instantly General Brown was at the center of a storm of controversy. General Brown is being criticized now for remarks in a six-month-old interview which was rejected for publication then, yet has magically surfaced now! Certain individuals have arranged for the story to be made public at this time as an indirect means of attack that obscures the facts. The real reason for efforts to get rid of him is his dedication to our country's defense.

What is happening now to General Brown is standard practice in Washington today. The idea is to get something on someone, anything, that can be made to look bad by the media, and put it in his dossier for future use. Thus a dark cloud is always handy later on in case it is needed to blackmail, or destroy, or intimidate someone.

In General Brown's case, he was set up with this particular cloud by none other than his boss, Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld, who was the CIA contact man in the White House and is still a CIA operative now.

Last spring a political writer and cartoonist drew a cartoon of Rumsfeld, and Rumsfeld called him to ask if he could have the original. The political writer agreed, and it was also agreed between them that Rumsfeld would get Brown to give the political writer an interview. The interview was not used at that time, six months ago. Even when General Brown was questioned intensively by the Senate two months later when his confirmation for a second two-year term as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff was being decided upon, the interview still did not emerge. But now, after helping prevent thermonuclear war for over two months, by doing his duty Brown is in hot water.

The Rockefeller Brothers are making a desperate effort to put things right back on track with the Soviet Union, and they have decided that Brown must go, as part of the price of reinstating so-called detente. The controversy now surrounding Brown is intended to build up until he resigns, is dismissed, or loses his influence and credibility. This is totally unrelated to the election, contrary to appearances.

In this situation, it is more important than ever that you show your support for General Brown. His enemies are trying to bring him down by means of a battle he must fight with both hands tied behind his back. If he were to publicly reveal one word about the Soviet missile crisis and his role in combatting it—in other words, the real reasons for his present troubles—General Brown could be instantly dismissed, court-martialed, and imprisoned! And speaking out, he would be rewarded with personal disaster; and the major media, under the thumb of the gang of the Four Brothers, would then pull out all the stops in a campaign to discredit whatever he said so that no one would believe it. By the same token, if Senate Bill No. 1, promoted by Attorney General Levi, had passed earlier this year, I, too, could be imprisoned for telling you the truth about the Soviet missiles aimed at you because, my friends, this information is classified "Top Secret", not because the Government wants to keep anything from the Soviets, they know all about their own offensive weapons planted in our waters—it is YOU that the Government wants to keep in the dark for their own protection, not yours!

Even if you have already written to General Brown to express your support, I urge you to do so again by letter, telegram, or Mailgram. My good friend Mr. Edward Durell, an industrialist who lives in Berryville, Virginia, is urging his associates to write their Congressmen showing their support for General Brown, and to send a copy of each letter to:

I think this is an excellent suggestion, and I urge you to do the same. You may want to write to both of your Senators too, and send copies to General Brown as well. Just address your letter to:

The controversy over General Brown, my friends, is only the most visible part of a terrible reversal in our country's fortunes that has occurred this month. The turning point came on October 1, 1976, a "RED Friday" for the United States of America. That was the day that President Gerald Ford caved in to pressure from the Rockefeller-Soviet-Kissinger team.

Two closely related events took place on October 1, 1976: One was the appearance in the Washington Post of a story by Woodward and Bernstein, no less, that the Watergate Special Prosecutor's investigation of President Ford was (quote) "serious". The story, complete with big headlines, shook the Stock Market, where rumors circulated that Ford was about to step down. But, most importantly, Ford himself was given a clear signal that swift political destruction awaited him if he did not play ball with the Rockefellers. Originally, Nelson Rockefeller had arranged for the Watergate-related investigation of Ford as a means of forcing Ford from office and in putting himself in position as "Acting President" under the 25th Amendment to the Constitution; but due to the Soviet Missile Crisis, that scenario has been scrapped because the Watergate Prosecutor's investigation was used instead to apply pressure for a different purpose.

That different purpose had to do with the second major event that took place on Red Friday, October 1—the visit to the White House by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko! It was reported that Gromyko's reception at the White House was the coolest it had ever been since Ford became President—and no wonder. When Gromyko told reporters afterward that he and Ford, quote: "spoke of the most cardinal issues", he was deadly serious. He was referring not to SALT talks or the Middle East but to the threat of war between the Soviet Union and the United States.

When I recorded monthly AUDIO LETTER No. 16 last month on September 25, the second round of Soviet underwater missiles, whose locations I had given to General Brown during our meeting on September 16, had practically all been removed by our Navy. But the Soviets were already beginning to plant a third round of these missiles, using the missile-laying mini-sub I described last month, which are specially designed to elude detection by our coastal sonar defenses.

As of September 25, one of these Soviet mini-sub was resting on the bottom of Chesapeake Bay near Norfolk, Virginia. A mishap had killed the crew, so the mini-sub was resting there like a giant nuclear mine in American waters waiting for the Navy to recover it. Meanwhile over 142 Soviet submarines were deployed in attack positions along the East, West, and Gulf Coasts of the United States. During those last few days of September there were growing indications that the Soviet missile crisis might actually break out into the open for all to see, just as it must do if the Soviet plans for nuclear attack world-wide are to be stopped.

For example, a speech which I mentioned last month delivered on September 24 by Navy Secretary William Middendorf used the word "emergency" three times to describe our present naval plight, and concluded his speech in the words, and I quote:

"Our concern today is the future. The ominous words of Admiral Gorshkov and the cold steel of his ships tell us that we are in an emergency situation right now. Something must be done. The threat is real, and the choice is ours. We must make the right decisions now while we have these few precious moments of freedom left, or be willing to suffer the consequences."

Then on September 27, 1976, the Norfolk, Virginia Ledger-Star newspaper published an article by reporters Garland Bradshaw and Jack Kestner who had flown to Washington on September 23 to interview me about my charges of Soviet underwater missiles. The article did exactly what honest journalism is supposed to do. It exposed the readers of the Ledger-Star to the fact that I have charged the Soviet Union with planting offensive nuclear weapons in our territorial waters, and did so in a fair, objective way. They did not try to convince their readers either to believe or disbelieve my charges, but included background information on both sides as available from their own sources. The important thing is that the Ledger-Star reported fairly about my charges to a readership that can be considered an expert audience about such things, since the Norfolk area is the biggest naval concentration in the United States.

Yes, things were beginning to break into the open—but then came Red Friday, October 1. President Ford and White House aide William Hyland met with Gromyko, Henry Kissinger, and Kissinger's State Department Counselor, Helmut Sonnenfeldt. Gromyko demanded that the Soviet Union be permitted to sneak into Chesapeake Bay to recover their dead missile-laying mini-sub near Norfolk. In return for that, Gromyko said the Soviet submarines deployed at battle stations along our coasts would disperse. Kissinger and Sonnenfeldt counseled Ford to agree to this offer by Gromyko as a reasonable and sound compromise. As always, Ford was confronted with the standard Kissinger option: "Do you want peace? Or war?" And on top of that, Ford knew that the Watergate-related political time bomb was all set to go off if he resisted, and so he caved in and agreed. Blackmail and threats won the day for the Soviet Union!

The same day, Henry Kissinger pressed his advantage and also induced Ford to issue a secret Presidential Order to the Military: from that day onward to flatly deny all my charges when asked about them. In other words, they are now under presidential orders to lie in order to keep the truth about the Soviet missiles from the public. This blackout on the Soviet missile story is not for the purpose of avoiding a confrontation with the Soviets, because that has already occurred; and it is not for the purpose of buying time while we get into a better military posture. Since Red Friday, October 1, the third round of Soviet missiles, which have been newly planted around our country, are still there! The blackout, my friends, is only to keep YOU in the dark.

This situation here stands out even more boldly when compared with the behavior of some of our allies who are now alerted to Soviet plans. Ironically October 1, 1976, the day President Ford caved in to the Soviet Union, was the same day that the Irish Navy successfully concluded a naval confrontation with the Soviets on the high seas. A huge Soviet fishing trawler, so called, was caught operating illegally inside the Irish 12-mile limit near Cork Harbor the previous day, and the Irish fishery protection vessel, L. E. Grenay, went after the trawler to make an arrest. The trawler fled into international waters, but the Irish vessel gave chase, brought the trawler to a halt by firing warning shots across her bow, and sent a boarding party aboard. The Soviet Captain was totally uncooperative, but the Irish sent reinforcements, and ultimately had more than 50 men aboard the Soviet ship. The Soviet trawler entered Cork Harbor under arrest with the Irish boarding party still aboard, and accompanied by two Irish naval vessels. It was correctly reported by the Cork Examiner newspaper for Friday October 1, 1976, that, quote:

"The confrontation was regarded as the biggest and potentially most dangerous that the naval service has faced in its history of fishery protection."

The Irish were prepared to apply whatever force proved to be necessary to arrest the intruding Soviet ship. And why? Because Cork Harbor itself is one of the locations from which a Soviet underwater nuclear weapon was removed by the Royal Navy in August, using information in my monthly AUDIO LETTER No. 15. The Irish now know, quite simply, that no intruding Soviet ship is to be trusted.

But here in the United States the Soviet Navy was allowed to intrude into our waters Monday night, October 4, under the RED FRIDAY AGREEMENT reached between Ford and Gromyko in the White House. At approximately 10:00 PM local time the Soviets retrieved the dead mini-sub from its position on the bottom of Chesapeake Bay outside Norfolk, operating under cover of darkness. The missile-laying mini-sub left the Norfolk area that night in Soviet hands—and with it went what may have been our only chance to learn the details of the technology of the mini-sub and their sonar-defeating system so that we could begin defending ourselves against them. At the same time we lost a golden opportunity to galvanize the whole world into standing with us against an all-out common foe, the Soviet Union, by announcing the capture of the mini-sub, displaying it on television, and revealing what the Soviets had been doing with these subs.

If our country were run today by civilians of integrity, honor, and courage who were trying to serve the people of the United States of America instead of trying to merge our lives with that of the Soviet Union, such a thing could have been done. Swift action could have been taken to do this after I first notified the Pentagon of the presence of the mini-sub near Norfolk on Monday, September 20; but NO, that's not the way it works today. All opportunities for the United States to act sensibly for the good of its people must be suppressed, sabotaged, thrown away. Only in this way can we be ground down to such a low level of life that the goal of the White House Merge Directive can finally be achieved. That Directive, in existence for decades, is to the effect that our lives are to be so altered that they can be comfortably merged with life in the Soviet Union.

By the following day, the Soviet submarines at battle stations along our shores had dispersed, as agreed; but within a few more days they were back again—and they are there now. They are not, at this time, deployed in the precise patterns that they were in a month ago, which indicated readiness for an immediate attack, but they are present in international waters just off our shores in great numbers. As of October 11, 1976, 164 Soviet submarines were on station in the waters near Canada and the United States, including Hawaii; and the situation has not changed significantly since then.

Since Red Friday, October 1, I have been cut off from contact with General Brown, and none of the Soviet underwater missiles in Canadian and American waters have been removed since that day. As of now, 50 Soviet nuclear missiles and bombs are planted in American territorial waters plus the three (3) missiles in the Gulf of Panama whose coordinates I gave last month. In addition, seven (7) missiles are now planted in Canadian waters, whose coordinates I have already given to Canadian Intelligence.

My friends, there will be no effort by the United States Navy to remove the nuclear missiles in our waters unless it is forced by a new surge of public awareness and demand for action, because Nelson Rockefeller's wife arrived in Moscow and on October 12 delivered a personal letter from Nelson Rockefeller to the Kremlin. In this hand-delivered letter Nelson Rockefeller made the following pledges to the Kremlin on behalf of the "Gang of Four", quote:

"There will be no further harassment of your submarines, nor will your underwater missiles and bombs be taken up. The credit squeeze by banking circles will be lifted. You will not be required to sell gold. We will send gold for products delivered. American know-how, grains, and food stuffs will continue to be provided. You must reinstate the 'NUCLEAR SAFE ZONE' agreement."

The coordinates of all the Soviet weapons now in American territorial waters have been transmitted to a number of reliable men in the United States Intelligence community, except for the newest missile, which was planted three days ago in Delaware Bay, at: 39-39-35 North, 75-32-20 West.

Action will therefore be possible if the Military can once again be free to do its job.

At least Great Britain, which had 29 new Soviet nuclear weapons in her waters as of October 11, 1976, is taking action once again to get rid of them. By October 22, four days ago, the Royal Navy had removed all but 10 of them, and is still fast at work. As for Latin America, all the missiles I revealed last month are still there with two exceptions—British Honduras and Guatemala were targeted by one missile each, but these have now been removed.

Our controlled major media tell us nothing at all about the Soviet missile threat that is ready to engulf us in thermonuclear war, but instead divert our attention to the case of the Navy F-14 fighter that plunged off a carrier deck into the North Sea six weeks ago on September 14, 1976. Great attention is being given to the F-14, and we are being fed all sorts of lies that the Soviet MiG-25 Foxbat flown to Japan by a defecting pilot is hopelessly inferior to the F-14. But the Soviet Navy hasn't even bothered to try to retrieve the plane. They already know all about the F-14, and it doesn't worry them.

As for the Phoenix Missile which separated from the F-14 when it hit the water, the Soviets know where it is too, but have not yet picked it up. The Phoenix Missile is resting on an underwater plateau far to the south-southeast of the point where the F-14 was found. The coordinates of the Phoenix Missile are: 61-26-6 North, 1-23-16 West.

And so, my friends, the great war game continues. Our Armed Services are allowed to participate in NATO and other training exercises, but are forbidden by Rockefeller hired hands from doing anything about the real life-and-death threat now lurking within our own territorial waters. We are being made sitting ducks for attack; and, in fact, we have already been attacked by the Soviet Navy because on October 3, two days after Red Friday, the Soviet submarines along our East, West, and Gulf Coasts performed an experiment in radioactive chemical warfare with all of us as the guinea pigs.

Topic #2—On October 5, 1976, just as the so-called "SWINE FLU" inoculation program was getting under way, news reports suddenly told us that we were experiencing fallout from an alleged Chinese atmospheric nuclear blast on September 26. Oddly enough, the initial reports about this came from the East Coast, especially Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, and Connecticut; but certain areas of the Pacific Northwest were soon mentioned as being affected too. We were told that radioactive iodine-131 was showing up in milk at various locations; but we were also assured, as we invariably are whenever any radioactive hazard appears, that there was really no danger.

In the days that followed we continued to hear about the supposed Chinese fallout, but other things probably seemed even more worrisome. For example, elderly people began dying of heart attacks shortly after taking swine flu shots, causing widespread alarm at first. But the Government quickly assured us that their deaths didn't really matter at all, that they would have died anyway; and the swine flu inoculation program went right back into high gear.

And then there were the strange outbreaks of an unknown "mystery illness" at electronics plants in western Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Oregon. The employees, most of them women, experienced headaches, nausea, stomach pains, difficulty in breathing, a feeling of being intoxicated in some cases, and even fainting spells. This time the swine flu vaccine could not be the culprit because the victims had not received it. Instead, some were worried that the swine flu itself had struck. Others remembered, with a shiver, the equally mysterious "Legionnaires' Disease" that had sickened nearly 200 people in Philadelphia and killed more than two dozen of them two months earlier.

My friends, there is actually no mystery at all behind these developments and more like them that you can expect to see. All of these cases I have mentioned are man-made and deliberate, but those who are responsible for them are neither telling you about them nor leaving clues that will be found in normal medical investigations of these episodes. We in the United States are now under attack in a campaign of experimental testing of chemical warfare weapons so that they can be employed later on with precision and devastating effect against us in full scale war—that is, if we let it happen.

For years all the major countries of the world have been in a continuing race against time to discover ever more sophisticated forms of bacterial and chemical weapons, some of them amounting to doomsday weapons capable of destroying all life on this planet. Only mad men would even consider using such weapons, but only mad men deliberately cause wars for their own greedy purposes, too—and war is very near at hand right now.

A few years ago a nerve gas called sarin was perfected in a facility in Colorado. [Update: this is the gas that was supposedly used by the Tokyo "cult." See more below.] A tiny amount escaped, and two shepherds and their 7000 sheep were killed. In response to the public outcry that resulted, a statement was issued that the Chemical Warfare Service had destroyed the sarin gas and was no longer doing such research—but that was a lie. Experimentation still continues today on all kinds of such poisons, and at a furious pace.

As of right now, many hideous lethal ailments can be inflicted on whole populations as operational weapons. These include black plague, smallpox, meningitis, dysentery, gangrene, yellow fever, tetanus, botulism, typhus, hepatitis, Bang's disease, and Q fever. Thirty grams of Q fever is sufficient to infect over 150-million people, and it is considered especially convenient since any individuals who are to be saved in such an attack can first be immunized against it! Such selective immunization could easily be done, for example, under the cover of a mass inoculation program like the swine flu program.

Q fever, though, is mild by comparison to a nuclear gas called AP-7 which is being manufactured in Uruguay and Argentina by American and European subsidiaries of Rockefeller-controlled conglomerate corporations. Two thimblefuls properly distributed could kill 180-million people; and one pound, all life on the face of the Earth. Unless and until these hideous weapons are unleashed on the Earth, they remain in a condition in which they can be destroyed and neutralized; and it is essential that they be destroyed instead of just being handed around from one agency to another, as Senator Frank Church permitted last year in his shellfish toxin shell game. But other types of chemical and biological weapons are also of great interest to weapons researchers which can be used in more selective ways or to produce lower-order effects than the poisons I have just described.

The Soviet KGB, which works hand in hand with the Rockefeller-controlled CIA, now has access to whole families of such chemical weapons which can be adjusted in exact dosage and formula to produce a variety of effects on victims. These were and are intended for use as part of the program to eliminate effective opposition by the people of the United States to the planned Rockefeller dictatorship here in America and our conversion into the most valuable of all slave nations for the Soviet Union.

Before these new weapons can be used with confidence though, they must be tested, and that testing is going on now. As a cover for the periodic episodes of strange illnesses that will occur here and there around the United States while this testing is going on, the trumped-up swine flu threat was developed.

On March 24, 1976, President Ford announced his proposal for the unprecedented nation-wide inoculation program supposedly to fend off the strange swine flu virus. To this very day not a single case of swine flu has been confirmed anywhere in the United States since President Ford's announcement. [End quoting of this tape]

Later, Beter said, (quoting:)

Because the plan now underway requires that military support be arranged for the new Dictatorship, it was essential that General George S. Brown, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, be neutralized as I said he would be in monthly AUDIO LETTER No. 17. General Brown played a pivotal role in preventing a Soviet nuclear surprise attack on the United States during August and September 1976; but that will not happen again, my friends. The campaign which began in October 1976 to render General Brown ineffective in his efforts to protect America has now succeeded. He is no longer able to influence events to any significant extent. That is why when Carter demanded on January 12, 1977, that studies be performed toward eliminating 75% to 80% of our Intercontinental Missiles, General Brown simply agreed to have the studies done. Can you imagine?

My friends, now that we have lost General Brown, there is no one left in the entire United States Government to help us. There are still many patriotic individuals in the Government, of course, but they are not the ones in positions of power. Only massive public pressure—informed, angry, and determined—now has any chance of stopping the carefully-planned war to kill millions of us and enslave the rest. Every one of us must work to bring about public awareness and pressure in whatever time we have left. But suppose we do not succeed—then what?! I believe the time has come to face that question squarely and honestly. (End quoting)

What happened was that the press dug up a quote from an old speech Brown made at Duke University in 1974 in which he said that the Israeli lobby had too much influence in the American government. Israel ordered the ADL to go to work on Brown, and the media began a smear campaign. He was relieved of his command, and General Jones, a boot-licker, was brought in to replace him.

Here is more from Beter, (quoting:)

Now I must tell you what has happened to General Brown as a result. For many months now I have been cut off from direct contact with General Brown; and in recent months General Brown has seemed like a completely different person than in the past whenever he appears in public. In place of the outgoing personality which has been General Brown's trademark in the past, there is nothing but resignation and acceptance of the dictates of his civilian superiors. The change has been so dramatic that it has even been commented upon by syndicated columnists, who are mystified. What has happened to General Brown, my friends, is known to very few. I myself have been able to confirm it only within the past few days. General George S. Brown, the nation's top military officer, is now virtually under house arrest. This is exactly the same kind of confinement that was meted out, for example, to Army Lieutenant William Calley during his court martial for the My Lai massacre in Vietnam. But there are two differences in General Brown's case. First, there has been no court martial. Instead, he is living under the threat of a court martial, for its twisted evidence and perjuring witnesses have already been assembled. Second, General Brown's isolation at the Pentagon and confinement to his Fort Myer residence are not absolute. Instead, they are interspersed with very carefully controlled appearances at official functions, since his absence from these would quickly arouse suspicions that something was terribly wrong. Now, should General Brown attempt again to step out of line and defy those in high places by giving orders to remove the missiles, doing his Constitutional duty, the suspended threat of court martial would instantly come crashing down upon him. By means of the elaborately doctored and falsified evidence I've already mentioned, General Brown would be railroaded into certain conviction for treason for doing his duty. Already alleged statements by General Brown have been published recently to make him appear to be a dangerous man. Were General Brown to be courtmartialed with falsified evidence, it would destroy him personally. It would also prevent his efforts from producing any benefits to America—such as a resumption of the removal of Soviet nuclear missiles from our waters. Any such orders of his would be rescinded; and his courtmartial would be used to make any attempts by him to warn America useless, by destroying his credibility.

As long ago as October, 1976, just a month after my meeting with him, General Brown was given a powerful demonstration of the ability of his enemies to crucify him publicly. As I discussed that month in Audioletter No. 17, a six-month old interview of General Brown was dredged up and used to subject him to intense public embarrassment and criticism. A few alleged statements of his from the interview were made public and played up by the controlled major media to such an extent that he was forced to make a public apology on nationwide television. Can you imagine? All of that for a few relatively insignificant comments which, if he really made them at all, had attracted no attention six months earlier. This episode had just one purpose—to prove to General Brown that if the falsified charges of treason should ever be leveled at him, he would have no chance at all either to defend himself or to do a service to America. His only recourse now would be to himself publicly demand a court-martial, but even that would not be successful without a massive outpouring of public support for him ahead of time—and that, my friends, has so far been denied him to the everlasting shame of our entire nation. Should General Brown come to any physical harm, the responsibility for it will rest squarely on the shoulders of David, Nelson, Laurance, and John D. Rockefeller III; but meanwhile, he's a secret captive, keeping millions of Americans reassured that all is well merely by his presence on the scene. Whenever a public or official appearance or statement by General Brown is called for, it's arranged and carried out under the watchful eyes of a heavy escort, although this is not always apparent. Otherwise the openness, the accessibility, and warmth that has always distinguished General Brown among newspaper reporters is now gone. He's a virtual prisoner at the Pentagon, held practically incommunicado except for the carefully controlled communications and appearances I have already mentioned. As soon as this Audioletter is released, you can expect to see things happen that may seem to disprove what I am telling you—for example, General Brown may become more visible publicly for a while. It is even conceivable, though highly unlikely, that this might even be carried to the point of having General Brown publicly deny that he has come under any new restrictions in recent months as the result, say, of the unfavorable publicity he received some months ago. Should that happen, keep in mind that General Brown is now a prisoner of war, imprisoned by the enemies within our own midst; and we've already seen many examples of the kinds of things American prisoners of war are forced to say for propaganda purposes....

On July 10, 1977, General Brown was taken to CIA headquarters near Washington, D.C., in Virginia. There he was taken to one of the many secret rooms designed into the CIA building by Nelson Rockefeller. The room was a laboratory, and the attempt was made to create a robotoid replacement for General Brown. The techniques employed were far more crude than those used in the Russian process since the CIA process required General Brown to be on the scene. The attempt ended in complete failure. A crude facsimile of General Brown was generated but it refused to come to life. Even so, General Brown could not be allowed to live because now he knew too much; and so on the evening of July 10, 1977, General George S. Brown, the last great patriot in the United States Government, was MURDERED.

A normal human "double" was found for General Brown since a robotoid attempt had failed. This was the man who testified in the role of General Brown at the Congressional hearings on the Panama Canal Treaty, September 27, 1977! At his side throughout, briefing and prompting him, was the Secretary of Defense, Harold Brown. Occasionally the "double" would be flustered by a question and looked down at the table in front of him until the Defense Secretary whispered something in his ear. Then he would look up again, say what he had been told, and so on. Once the Panama Canal hearings were out of the way, the "double" for the late General Brown was seen as little as possible in public. Soon there were stories that he had contracted cancer. Then the Air Force Chief of Staff, General David Jones, began acting as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs months before the end of General Brown's tour of duty. In June 1978 we were told that General Brown was retiring, and last December 5, 1978, we were told that he had died of cancer. At that point the General Brown "double" collected his pay and headed for Frankfurt, West Germany, where he landed on December 11, 1978, at 3:30 AM local time. It is a standing rule that "doubles" for important people never live long, and so at about 7:30 that evening General Brown's "double" was shot to death in the back of the neck. Hatonn provides facts concerning the Governmental cover-up of extraterrestrials visiting and crashing upon Earth, starting in the late 1940s. He discusses various "secret" agencies and societies, such as MJ-12, The Jason Society, The Bilderbergers, the "Grey Men", along with details regarding their strategies and operating methods. Past cover-ups are exposed. Also, we are given clarification about the mission of The Hosts of God vs. Satan during these "end times" and the correlation between Christ and extraterrestrials.

As Choices Are Made

10/18/96 #1 HATONN

WHAT IS GOING ON "UPSTAIRS"?

People, you simply do not want to know in spite of what you consciously think! What you would tout and shout and get your noses into—would get a lot of us killed as heretics and insane citizens.

Just keep your eyes open and you will see Ezekiel's "wheels" all over your skies as "rainbow strobe lights" at night and actual vapor clouds in the day. When the Eagles Fly and the Buzzards move on—then and only then can you read the signs. The time of GOD IS AT HAND! Therefore, realize that there shall not be a long stay in the things which will come to pass unless MANKIND shows great care and redirection. It simply is the way it is and WE SHALL AND DO NOT PLAN TO DO ANYTHING ABOUT IT AS PHYSICAL EXPRESSION WOULD DEFINE ACTIONS. You had best begin to pay CLOSE ATTENTION to that which your friend Farrakhan says and projects because you ARE IN IT! The enemy of your governments ARE NOT MY ENEMIES—THEY BY AND LARGE ARE THE FRIENDS OF MY PEOPLE!

"I would allow and follow a Black man?" I am asked in great anger and tribulation. What makes YOU THINK GOD IS WHITE? GOD IS LIGHT AND "Black" people are NOT BLACK! So, who is nuts in this little scenario? Because a light-skinned person is from one race or another—does not make him anything except pale and usually quite UNHEALTHY. YOU cannot do a damned thing about your color—it became too late the minute your SOUL chose its passage.

God shows the way and presents the opportunities for HIS PEOPLE and it behooves all of HIS PEOPLE to see and hear and know when opportunity is present. I think the nice Rev. Farrakhan can see his calling, his passage, AND HIS OPPORTUNITIES AS SERVED UP ON A PLATTER FROM GOD. Moreover, he is certainly bright enough to protect his sources and resources!! We have to know, impatient ones, when to shut up and WAIT UPON GOD!

What will happen to the liars, cheats and thieves of your lives? They will have their names lost to all history—EXCEPT AS THOSE WHO WILL BE REFERRED TO AS THE EVIL SATANS. THIS IS THE WAY IT WORKS—THE ONLY NAMES RESIDING IN THE BOOK OF LIFE—OF GOD, ARE THOSE WHO GROW BEYOND THE LIMITATIONS OF SATAN'S ANTICS.

Therefore, from where might come God's People's strength and POWER? FROM GOD, AND IT IS SUFFICIENT TO ALL NEEDS!

Let us attend those things which need clearing from our immediate attention zones which are those things which bind up our time into the evil empire. We need to move on, clear the decks and be prepared to receive and grow. Cast off the Evil-mongers and let them bury one another as they see fit. Stand forth in the light of truth and no man nor beast shall offend thee. Any man or woman who has joined with the enemy in ANY willing circumstance, and that means affidavits against my people—let them assume themselves to be joined with those who have ill-intent and let them, if they be offended, go to hold responsible those who have USED them for their own purposes. And yes, indeed, I do speak of local side-winders of joiners. I KNOW YE NOT! Do not come back crying that you "didn't realize" or "didn't understand" or "I didn't mean it to hurt"—I KNOW YE NOT! THE TIME AND OPPORTUNITY FOR THE CHOOSING OF ME OR MINE OR BEING AGAINST ME AND MINE—IS OVER. THE CHOICES ARE, AND HAVE BEEN, MADE. I KNOW YOU NOT, SO TAKE THEE FROM ME. What others do is not my business but they WILL NOT do it IN MY NAME! You know which of you have lied, cheated, and stolen, even goodly names and reputations, from us—so get thee from us lest all your dirty deeds become uncovered for the whole of the world to see and KNOW. Or, stick around, and WATCH YOUR DIRTY DEEDS COME INTO THAT LIGHT OF TRUTH! Always it is YOUR choice.

Is this some sort of a threat for you to turn upon us in a court of law? Nope—is simply the way it is. Nobody is going to damage anyone—you have destroyed and damaged SELVES. What are YOU going to do when the deceivers TURN AGAINST YOU? OH, YES, IT WILL HAPPEN! IT IS ALREADY HAPPENING AS YOU WHO HAVE SUPPORTED THOSE LEADERS OF YOURS IN NEVADA AND MONTANA AND YES, THE ONES OF THE JUDICIAL MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE SYSTEM IN CALIFORNIA. THE ONES YOU CHOSE TO DESTROY US, IN ADDI-TION, ARE ALREADY THE ONES THEY HAVE TRAMPLED AND DESTROYED. These of your chosen leaders are trying to set you up now, to defend themselves as innocent and deceived representatives of your court actions. They are claiming YOU MISLED THEM AND LIED TO THEM AND THEY ARE INNOCENT OF ANY CHARGE OTHER THAN TRYING TO PROTECT YOU. IT IS SUCH AN OLD GAME, PEOPLE. MOREOVER, THE ATTORNEYS IN POINT WILL COME AGAINST YOU FOR PAYMENT FOR THEIR SERVICES—WAIT AND SEE.

You would now come to US and ask favor? No, thank you. Those people you allowed to tempt and drag you on, have already set their wheels in motion to protect themselves and leave you empty and destroyed. You had choices as to whether or not to mess in your nests and you not only chose to do so—but now it runs over. I cannot help you to longer see and hear TRUTH for you have chosen to make THE LIE your guiding lamp.

God tells you that you are either with Him or against Him—AND, that a man is known for his actions and intent—not from the words on his lips. When, in addition, you turn to the GUILTY parties involved in your nasty circumstances, you shall see it is not of God's doing that you have ill-perceived lessons.

I will leave this now as there is much OTHER to be attended while we gather the Light about us and move on. When you choose to crucify God's people—you have "crucified God" as well and the consequences of such choices rest squarely upon yourself! Perhaps as this all unfolds you will turn and SEE who and what has misled you, lied to you, set you up, and when you do, perhaps you will turn and smite them for their terrible abuse of you and the system which was structured to PROTECT, in JUSTNESS, ALL people. Perhaps when you SEE CLEARLY, you will go unto THOSE ONES and ask reclamation and restitution?

I have told you before and I will repeat it here: I do not care who believes I exist or do not. It matters not one whit to me or to the truth of it. I AM and I am exactly what and who I state I AM. Further, you deny me—and I shall deny you before MY FATHER who IS, BY THE WAY, IN THE HEAVENS! Further, you who continue, in spite of all reason and knowing, for greed and evil cause, to deny me—I NO LONGER KNOW THEE AND YE HAD BEST GO WHEREIN YOUR BRETHREN OF KIND CAN FEED AND PROTECT THEE FOR I REPEAT: I KNOW THEE NOT!

Good morning and may you find the Light which shines about you—IN THE NAME AND GRACE—OF GOD. Salu.

for mountains of difficulty to be removed, when what they really need is courage to climb them.

Working Thru The Maze Of Adversarial Traps

10/19/96 #1 HATONN

GOLD IS NOT GOOD OR BAD—
GOLD "JUST" IS
MEN ARE GOOD OR EVIL
WHILE GOLD STILL "JUST" IS.

This holds true for every inanimate thing in physical presentation or manifestation. ONLY the human and/or REASONING, CHOOSING being can be classified as being good or evil. Further, you cannot judge a being other than as by manifest ACTIONS foisted forth through INTENT.

A huge number of beings react to that which is projected in thought patterns, opinions, assumption of some super-insight or another—or just because it seems more prosperous to go with one or another "side" of an issue—especially one which demands total integrity on one side and lack thereof on the other. The stakes are usually that which is desirable in a physical way when contradictions and outright war come to center stage. The differences will be in the trying to acquire things of great "wealth" value and it usually will be that which measures the value of a man's (individual) soul. The other thing which causes man to act in given ways is a failure of ability to control EGO individual. People will follow whoever strokes the ego and rewards the "follower" with bits and pieces of ego salving and/or promises of a big payoff of some kind. Mostly these misfits play in the same ballpark and demand cover-up, lies, secrets, misdirected and incorrect perceptions, perspectives and simply not-KNOWING that of which they do great spouting.

NOTHING HERE?

We can write of "here" because this is where we do our physical outlay of "work" in the production of writings, speaking, etc. However, no matter how much we offer otherwise, how often we tell people there is nothing here which resembles a commune or "religious" following, we still get travelers and seekers. MANY will come directly from being in some sort of "operation" or group communal circumstance. WE HAVE NONE. If there is the perception of one, it is because our friends are welcoming and friendly—nothing more. However, ones come and share, and then it seems they MUST COME HERE, COME HELL OR HIGH-WATER, AND IT SIMPLY DOES NOT WORK HAPPILY EVER AFTER. Most of these anticipating individuals do move on because they are terribly unhappy when they find that we don't operate like a big happy family with everything provided—right through the bath schedules.

Now, you might say, "...yes, but... I hear that you do attend the elderly and make sure they have what they need..." No, we respond in community care and shared responsibility but the facts are that each must attend SELF and if you want friends—you have to go forth and MAKE YOUR OWN FRIENDS, YOUR OWN LIFE INTERCHANGE AND, IF NOT, YOU WILL BE LONELY INDEED, FOR THE ONES HERE ORIGINALLY WORK AROUND THE CLOCK.

An old friendship was restructed this week with a couple of old friends of Ekkers. It had been a most unpleasant parting a few years back as Ekkers moved and now, suddenly, these people are back with a promise from the lady that she was going to just come and visit and visit and visit while the men go out and do whatever men go out and do. How long do you think this relationship can work well? Dharma doesn't even visit with E.J. and doesn't have TIME OFF FOR ANYTHING INCLUDING GOOD BEHAVIOR OR R&R.

People come thinking that we will have meetings and potlucks and all sorts of community things and, yes, if we ever CAN do so, we may well find that possible. But when we have meetings—Dharma is not the preacher but she HAS TO BE THERE, LIKE IT OR NOT. THIS IS OUR LIFE!

Why am I saying this now—again? Because there is a great resurgence of ones wanting to come and experience WITH US. There are also some, at the same time—TAKING LEAVE BECAUSE THEY FAILED TO FIND WHAT THEY WANTED IN RELIGIOUS INTERCHANGE. We actually find some who demand we discharge people filling jobs that they perceive they could do and have waited a long time to get. NO. We don't operate like that and never shall do so. We find that some send stuff for the paper and, when we don't use it or stop using it, they go unhappily away mouthing our inability to recognize brilliance and/or somehow they are snubbed. Where do we put it and just how are we supposed to process it all? Then our most interesting messages come from ones who say "...but you know what I mean..." No, we don't know and what you mean IS YOUR BUSINESS, not ours.

"Ah," but you say, "I would be different." No, you would not be different, for the ones who have claimed undying willingness and pledge to support and serve—DO NOT. They turn at a whim, fall away when the pressures are present, and actually leave us with the empty sack after accepting their promises. I remember an early Thanksgiving dinner wherein a couple of people were going to bring important focus dishes for the dinner but their life changed and there was not even a call of apology from the parties involved, to the hostess, host or any other involved "friends".

When we expect and demand responsibility—then we get that "They certainly don't sound Godly to me!" and then chime in some others who didn't "work out" and it is no stopping the line of garbaging and trashing. Is it that people change on a whim or is it that they DIDN'T understand—ever? Both and all the possibilities. People are each and all looking for a "home", and if you find yourselves having had several "homes", "family" experiences and GET INTO THE SECOND HALF OF LIFE WITHOUT ENJOYABLE ATTACHMENTS AND ACTIVITIES—WHY DO YOU SUPPOSE THAT MIGHT BE? If you have no desire to start and renew, see and love those who came before—you are NOT going to do much except get pretty fed up with us—because we have a MAJOR mission to accomplish and it does not include making sure YOU have a nice outing at YOUR WHIM.

There are other things which are quite obvious as well. John S. is not happy and constantly complains about his placement and, "Who and how are you going to solve my problems?" Ah, but I asked that John be moved out of his place of discomfort by the 15th past, and where is he? What about all of you who inserted yourselves into his care regime to find fault and complain? Why have YOU not taken him with his belongings into your places to attend his wet and poopy pants? Or, why haven't YOU found that other placement which would BE BETTER? Oh, it isn't YOUR responsibility? Whose responsibility is it, perchance? John wants to get some legal things settled after two years of dangling to suit the needs of Abbott, Horton, Guden, et al. Who helps him? Many of you type, could set forth his declarations and affidavits and help him. Praying with and for him is nice but it requires ACTIONS to make the prayers WORK. You just want GOD to do it all while you "analyze" without the personal and physical responsibility. Think of the parties who ARE the caretakers and see how you will enjoy 24-hours-a-day with the responsibility and constant complaining and selfish displeasure while demanding every "do for me". It is sort of like "dating" is fun—marriage is a real whammy! The point is, however, that until you are IN THE MOCCASINS, HOW DARE YOU COMPLAIN ABOUT THE FEET IN THEM? My suggestion is always to take the responsibility, fill the job the other does, and THEN, only THEN, do you assume to know more.

I do continue to suggest that John has a responsible party whom he pays monthly, before everything or anything else, for services. GO GET JOHN WHERE HE IS HAPPY. John uses three ladies here as his escape threat. Well, ladies, when are you moving him in? He pronounces he can just move from one through the others of you—and have all his needs met because you like it so much and never get short or frustrated with him.

Nothing helps scenery like ham and eggs.

A Treasury of Mark Twain

This is manipulation by any term you can apply to its use. Whether it be a child, or elderly person, it is unacceptable when the party KNOWS BETTER and USES THE TANTRUMS TO GET MORE, HIS WAY.

The entire world can't revolve around ONE's wishes—especially when they are so self-focused as to make everyone else a slave to these isolated and demanding attentions. And when is someone going to get JOHN'S PROPERTY BACK TO HIM? Now the Abbott gang, USING Eleanor (who probably knows nothing about the ongoing harangues), wants to get EVERYTHING and leave John even without his pension. Is THIS right? Is it not actually so WRONG as ' merit the labor to get something done instead of noting ill behavior on one day and exceptional behavior on a day when he gets to go out with the girls and be showered with attention? This teaches a child to be more and more naughty in order to get his way. Our task in EVERY CIRCUMSTANCE is to share and teach a BETTER WAY in all things to allow individual RESPONSIBILITY, not kowtow to chosen infirmities on given days. We teach the starving person to grow food or get a job and have that which is necessary to acquire food. We teach the native to raise fish in a pond rather than just dump a couple of cans of fish on his head. THIS IS NO DIFFERENT. Either the man needs to be in a care facility—OR GET HIM FUNCTIONAL AND TO WORK RESPONSIBLY. Remember that there will be as many frailties as necessary to keep as many of you as possible—distracted. John said it himself—to all of us at the last gathering where he said he didn't have a place. He has a place, has HAD a place, and knows better but he wants another place. Well, we learned how to get moved when he got tired of his original place which was totally outfitted right down to his fork and spoon in beauty and comfort—JUST FOR HIM.

You must help a brother when he is down and out and that is called charity. When you allow that other to demand, hype, moan and complain when he is unwilling to "get off welfare"—JUST BECAUSE THIS IS SOME SORT OF A PERCEIVED "COMMUNE"—THINK AGAIN.

If we are ever free of the drain of the baggage we have to carry, we will, among the very first projects, have care facilities of beauty, efficiency, elderly AND convalescent care, and privacy for individual life quality. We can't do that until the blood-sucking STOPS.

THE CLAIMS AND THE MONEY

I find it interesting to note that we are the focus of so much effort to try to get funds, gold, etc. How so?

It is claimed that Leon loaned $120,000? Well, at the same time George Green took $150,000! Then Tuten says she put in about $400,000 and George Green stole all the subscription funds, all the extra cash and gold, AND what is now worth far more than the $400,000. Is there something wrong with this picture? Green also took out false bankruptcy to just keep from paying back his notes AND holds a bunch of books which he was ordered to NOT SELL, some 110,000 volumes, and then in bankruptcy says there are only 40-some-odd thousand copies. Which is it? Those were books of Dharma's which had been signed over to the PHOENIX INSTITUTE. Seems to me if Green simply paid his debts and returned the thieved property—there wouldn't have been a problem. (???) After all, you can count as well as I.

Why is TRUTH so hard to accept, people? Is it to soothe your own egos, who feel they have somehow been deprived, that you have to somehow hold onto a LIE instead of actually saving selves and property from the clutches of the greedy-liars and cheating thieves? Why is it so much easier to believe the liars than the truth-tellers? Well, what happens is you who join with the scallywags and scoundrels get numbered among them and your opinions and observations are tossed off as totally unreliable.

I am bemused by such as the incredible tales George

Green makes up and tells at random about how he deserves to have the gold he STOLE. He goes through everything from blaming others for NOT KNOWING about it, to claiming everybody KNEW ABOUT it—and the fact remains—HE STOLE IT, HE BURIED IT AND NOW HE TRIES TO GET IT AT ALL COSTS TO ANYONE HE SUCKS INTO HIS DEN OF LIES AND THIEVES. And yet—look at the ones who join him—they join with him AGAINST THE OTHER ONES WHO GOT SUCKED INTO HIS PLOTS AND HEAP ON MORE BLAME AND EXPEND COUNTLESS MORE DOLLARS SIDING WITH HIM IN HIS ROT. You don't "JUST HAPPEN TO HAVE" $400,000 WORTH OF GOLD COINS, INTENDED FOR SOMEONE ELSE, HOP ON AS YOU GO BY THE MAILBOXES OR UPS TRUCKS. If Green absconded with secret gold intended for the Institute for the very purpose of paying off lenders and, in addition, borrowed on the same type of promissory note which HE REFUSES TO HONOR—EVEN TO FILING BANKRUPTCY FALSELY—what have you? What is wrong with you people that you do not take this thief to court and get your money from the rightful party? Ekkers didn't use the money—Green did and now claims, in addition, that he put into the Institute another million dollars. USE YOUR BRAINS. You have presented to you the very CREATIVE FINANCING charts and books they kept—where everything the man did was charged off to expenses of the Institute and, in addition to that, the amount he claimed first was like $250,000 and now is well past a MILLION dollars they somehow spent on YOU and is owing over and beyond the thieved property! And STILL you bring suit after suit in desperate actions of the attorneys to do WHAT? You claim you have LOST it all. If you have lost it all, then what think ye to gain? You have been HAD by the very thieves and liars who cheated you in the first place and have paid for years of this desire, as stated by Abbott, their retirement based on YOUR CASES.

Green has told you Ekkers are running off, had run off, to Costa Rica, Peru, etc., WITH ALL YOUR MONEY. What money? Green took and borrowed all he could get away with and, in addition, tried to get you to swing over to him so he could then put it into a more direct route for his use. Then Ence comes along and says Ekkers have all the money stashed and ready to take off to Peru with the loot—and have it all packed with their belongings under the "crawl space of their house". Note that Ekkers HAVE GONE NOWHERE WHILE THE ACCUSERS HAVE RUN ALL ABOUT EVERYWHERE AND DO GOLD BUSINESS IN PUERTO RICO, HOLD COFFEE PLANTATIONS IN COSTA RICA, ARE WORTH FIVE MILLION DOLLARS AND OWN A SHOPPING MALL IN BEVERLY HILLS.

And to some of you clever and naughty people, setting up phoney letters, doing acts of pure vandalism, entering 911 calls to harass others and on and on. Do you really think this makes you look trustworthy and stable? The cops are just about fed up with you around these parts because they "act" at your calling—and it is just getting hot and embarrassing for THEM. You did the last letter for Sharri—do you think the District Attorney is stupid? Typewriters, fingerprints, etc., can be checked out and ARE. I do not say which one because why get you ALL lying even more deeply, but either Tuten did it or somebody else did Tuten's AND Sharri's. OF COURSE WE KNOW WHICH.

You have no honor for you got some, like Phyllis and Centanni, to aid and abet you and they asked to not have their names used—and you betrayed them. You also, Annie-two-shoes, put Buddy Clark into a most nasty position along with Ed Cleary. I guess there may well not be many left wanting to grow old with you when you pass on through the rest of your tack-strewn ritualistic pathway. Even Gerry Sp. is taking a good hard SECOND look at the cases based on the fact that Annie's letter, even to him, was nothing but one KNOWN, even to her, lie piled upon another. So be it. It seems interesting that you use your titles in Leon's corporation to get some sort of prestige—when you claim others who only helped Leon set up a corporation, as a favor, were abused and accused by YOU. You will note that when Leon wanted them off his corporation it was forthcoming instantly. And you use Paul V.? My goodness, he even served legal papers, swore he had no interest in anything—AND WAS PRESIDENT OF INFINITE BALANCE UNTIL THEY TRANSFERRED IT TO YOU. What are YOUR reasons for taking control of Leon and his corporation? Someone here once asked you what you did as a "trade" and you answered that you "...had now found Leon and didn't have to worry..." I wonder if perhaps Leon shouldn't have "worried" when you also announced you were George Green's agent (AGENT). You see, we don't go around talking behind your backs with lies—truth is right out there for all who care to look, including you, Leon. What do YOU plan to do with Esther's money AFTER Esther is gone? Isn't it time you turned around and looked at the vampires still dripping blood and go get it back from the feasting blood-suckers? Why do you suck from the turnip? Perhaps Annie should be back, with others, in Tucson, who dance to that drumbeat. White, Black, Green or Yellow—persons are known by their actions and the company they keep.

Leon rather recently told everyone present that he never looked at the legal stuff Abbott did or had—that he didn't understand it. He should have tried harder to both understand and LOOK AT THE TRUTH TELLERS instead of the foolish liars who MISREPRESENT HIM AND USE HIM. TRUTH IS IN THE DOCUMENTS AND YET YOU CHOOSE TO PRESENT HIM WITH THE LIES. Who is responsible? Each is responsible for self. Choices are made, consequences laid forth, and to him who follows the liar and cheat, are cheated and lied to by those he follows, the cycles are endless. Some of you have abused this man, Leon, in such a way as to be despicable for he offered you unconditional LOVE and you have wasted him. 'Tis you who have deprived his mother and some day it will be KNOWN and he shall not hold it lightly that you have deceived him. The bigger question IS: WHY? Why have you chosen to deceive this goodly man? Is it simply to smite God? Well, go ahead and smite all you choose—for God is not going anywhere save to confront you in your lies. That is the way of God. He tolerates not your deceit and lies without taking note of them. When you use them to bring pain and hurt to others through your power of control—you bring double jeopardy upon self. Will Leon see through the sham? That, too, is his choice. He DOES SEE TRUTH when you are not there feeding more poison.

You write and get others to write that the Institute is just a "mail drop". How do you at Infinite Balance and your Gold corporation DBA, do business? Don't you first have to set up an agent to birth the corporation? What is an agent FOR? What are "original" officers and directors FOR? You, if you are not a resident in Nevada, HAVE TO HAVE A HOME FOR YOUR CORPORATE BIRTHING! If you don't know HOW to set up a corporation or use it—YOU HAVE TO HAVE SOMEBODY WHO CAN SHOW YOU THE WAY, KNOWS THE LAW(S) AND KEEPS YOUR CORPORATE RECORDS PROPERLY. THIS DOES NOT MEAN "RUNNING" YOUR COMPANY'S BUSINESS—THIS MEANS KEEPING RECORDS FOR THE CORPORATION ENTITY. If the law wants to look at silly manipulations with a corporation—try Infinite Balance! And Ann, being a past legal-type secretary is not making you into a very wise or good lawyer but we do note that you are PRACTICING LAW WITHOUT A LICENSE! Worse, you are presenting false information for the attorneys to use and, as officers of the court, they are in big trouble now. They are NOT going to protect you who have fed them lies—they are going to turn and hang you from the highest yard-arm for there is no honor or integrity in them.

Pity the man who only hears the siren's call. Pity more—the Siren, for the dis-eases of the union are borne by both. God did no disservice unto you—YOU DID! Moreover, some of you have lost your way so completely as to not even know in which direction to look again, for God. So be it.

Let us leave this now for when we sort our piles of duties to be accomplished, we find it so terribly painful in the washing phase.

We cannot, nor do we wish to spend time or space in further waste on these topics. I truly agree with E.J.—just copy the materials and anyone who wants the full story can have it. However, you have to be prepared to pay for the copy-work because we just can't spend any more of anything on it. You will need the accompanying myriads of attempts to thwart everything right up through this last totally stupid attempt to hold that gold by using such as Ann Beam and Abbott into a case already ended, having no standing in any form whatsoever and causing the legal court to look like total fools at charades.

The endless claims of our using one suit after another is ludicrous—A CORPORATION IS REQUIRED BY LAW TO HAVE LEGAL COUNSEL. Every dastardly trick has been played which could be played on truth in justice.

The Receivership case, READERS, has been ruled to be in the wrong venue and will be moved to Las Vegas where it belongs. What will happen now? Who knows? Only the greed-mongers set forth to destroy others for their own gain are in decision time. And you bet your bottom twinkie, friends, we do have some big-time, big-name counsel to do everything possible to protect YOUR interests from these corrupted scavengers. The case STARTS OVER in a cleaner playing field. The receivership case was tossed out three times right in Minden AND those misfits were denied stays, etc., by the Supreme Court of the United States and also by the Supreme Court of Nevada. What in the world does it take for you to act in your own behalf, readers and participants? Now they must come to our turf to play and out of the good old boys' "area" where they live and hold such blackmail possibilities over their court jesters. You should realize that the judge in point of their insipid ongoing nightmare even sent out solicitation letters for contributions to HIMSELF from lawyers WHO WOULD BE COMING BEFORE HIS COURT! How does that look to you discerning and inquiring minds?

What will WE DO? Whatever is required for as long as it is necessary. Is infinity too long for your calculations?

May we always stand against WRONG wherever and whenever it is confronting us. Salu.

Farrakhan: Reporting On The Day Of Atonement

FARRAKHAN: AMERICA IS WRONG

In a subsequent official UN press conference requested by Libya, Farrakhan appealed to about 50 international journalists to be "manly" and "womanly" and defy the United States, apparently mistaking them for delegates from UN member nations.

He was flanked by South African political figure Winnie Mandela, who said nothing. Farrakhan said the State Department had imposed silence as a condition of a five-day visa, but the U.S. Mission to the UN professed bafflement.

His plan, he said, was to change U.S. foreign policy—such as reducing Africa to "a footstool"—by rallying a "third political force" made up of 40 million American Blacks, Native Americans, Arabs and Hispanics.

Farrakhan appealed to the UN to act to stop an impending "War of Armageddon", which he warned would take place by the year 2004 if nothing were done to stop it.

He asked the UN to look into 360 years of "genocidal" attacks on Black Americans and Jewish-Arab friction in the Middle East. He said what "the inability of the Palestinians to receive true justice" is behind what some would call terrorism.

"Terrorism, like beauty, is in the eye of the beholder," he said, depicting Libyan leader Moammar Gadhafi as a victim of "European and American evil."

Thousands Rally at United Nations on 'Day of Atonement'

From The New York Times, by Charisse Jones, 10/17/96, [quoting:]

Seeking to show that the momentum sparked a year ago by a huge rally of Black men in Washington remains alive, thousands of people gathered yesterday in the shadow of the United Nations to extol the success of the gathering and to renew its calls for atonement and brotherhood.

In speeches, prayers and personal testimonies yesterday, the memory of last year's gathering—which organizers called the Million Man March—was constantly evoked in Dag Hammarskjöld Plaza, where an estimated 38,000 people convened for an anniversary observance that organizers called the World's Day of Atonement. And though yesterday's rally echoed similar themes, it averted some of the criticism leveled at last year's gathering by inviting women as well as men, and by including Hispanic and Native American speakers who spoke of unity and mutual struggle.

But the central figure at the two rallies was the same: Louis Farrakhan, leader of the Nation of Islam, who was both the magnet for enthusiasm at the gatherings and the lightning rod for criticism. His nearly three-hour speech yesterday began as a sermon on morality and the need for people and nations to atone for violence, murder and war, and soon became a vehement scolding of world leaders, with Mr. Farrakhan lashing out at the United States Government, calling for the lifting of sanctions against Iraq and Cuba, and demanding recognition of the Palestinians' right to sovereignty.

"Somebody has to have the painful duty of pointing out to the kings and rulers and the people where we have gone wrong," said Mr. Farrakhan, whose words were frequently punctuated by applause from the crowd gathered under a sunny, then hazy sky.

Referring to denunciations from Jewish group and others—including Mayor Rudolph W. Giuliani, who said he would not attend because of Mr. Farrakhan's history of anti-Semitic remarks—Mr. Farrakhan said: "I have to tell it, whether the kings like it or not, whether the A.D.L. likes it or not, whether Mayor Giuliani likes it or not. I have to tell the truth."

While Mr. Farrakhan's speech—delivered from behind a bulletproof partition—ranged across the spectrum of international affairs and other topics, most of those in attendance were drawn by more domestic concerns. Some who had not made the trip to Washington last year came yesterday to get a taste of what they had missed, while others gathered to recapture the spirit of that day.

"I felt to keep the spirit of the Million Man March alive, I had to come out today, to continue my atonement," said Harry A. Payton, who said he attended the rally last year. "That was my pledge there. There were times in my life when I wasn't always doing right for my family. I'm trying to make up for that today."

Uhuru McCray, a factory worker from Middlesex County, N.J., watched last year's rally on television. "I made sure I was here today," he said.

Benjamin F. Chavis Jr., national director of the Million Man March Organizing Committee, noted last year's legacy, saying that more than one million Black Americans had registered to vote in the wake of the gathering on the Mall in Washington, while thousands of families heeded a call to adopt Black children.

Mr. Farrakhan also suggested that the spirit of last year's rally had led to a nationwide decline in crime.

"I know Clinton wants to take credit for it," he said. "I know the police want to take credit."

Louis Farrakhan

From Newsday, by staff writer Josh Friedman, 10/17/96, [quoting:]

The Minister Louis Farrakhan used a two-hour speech in front of the United Nations yesterday, and a shorter Libyan-sponsored news conference inside, to paint the United States as an immoral superpower spreading misery across the world, starving young Arab children, enslaving Black Americans with drug addiction and generally plotting against anyone who stands up against it—especially himself and his followers.

"I got a hard job. I got to tell America where she's wrong. That doesn't make me loved," said Farrakhan. "I don't like the job. But when God asked who will go, I said, 'send me'."

Guarded by troops of uniformed and plainclothes security guards from his organization, the Nation of Islam, Farrakhan went through a mostly familiar litany of alleged American misdeeds including the invention of the AIDS virus, deliberate introduction of crack cocaine into Black neighborhoods and economic punishment of his followers.

There was little new in the speech, a mélange of scriptural verse, geopolitical theories and complaints that he is being victimized as one of the few people in the world able to stand up to the U.S. government, which he described as "a bunch of murderers and thieves, liars and deceivers."

Citing a recent investigative series in the San Jose Mercury News, linking the CIA with two men accused of distributing crack to Black gangs in Los Angeles, Farrakhan accused unspecified U.S. presidents with intentionally bringing drugs into Black neighborhoods to weaken Black people. The plot was not carried out by the CIA, he said.

"That's why there are no records in the CIA," he said. "This is not just a smoking gun. It is a smoking cannon that leads straight to the White House."

Farrakhan's keynote at what organizers, principally his followers, termed the World's Day of Atonement offered little personal atonement. He said he would not apologize "for telling the truth". But, if anyone could prove he uttered falsehoods—especially Jewish leaders—he would atone for them, he said.

In his press conference, Farrakhan expressed regret for anything he had said or done to create a climate that led to the assassination of Malcolm X.

Speaking from behind a bulletproof shield, Farrakhan devoted much time calling on world political and religious leaders, especially Arabs, to stand up to the United States. He urged them to defy sanctions the UN has levied on Libya, Iraq and Sudan for threatening their neighbors with terrorism, assassination or unconventional weapons.

"The real truth is that the spirit of the Million Man March should take credit."

The Government estimated that 400,000 men attended last year's rally, though organizers have contended that the number was much higher. Yesterday, the police estimated attendance at 30,000, but organizers once again insisted that the crowd was far larger. "If they tell you 30,000, they're lying," Mr. Farrakhan said. "White men can't jump, and White men can't count."

Second Avenue was closed from 42nd Street to 57th Street as the crowd stretched from the plaza toward Third Avenue and down Second Avenue to 43rd Street. Many in the gathering had to watch the day's events on mammoth television screens because they could not see the stage set up in the plaza by the United Nations.

The global themes sounded by Mr. Farrakhan reflected a world tour he took in the wake of last year's rally—a trip criticized by government officials and many Black Americans for including stops in Libya, Nigeria and other countries denounced as repressive. But rather than apologize for the tour, Mr. Farrakhan told the crowd yesterday that his travels gave him firsthand knowledge of the suffering within countries isolated by the United States.

FARRAKHAN AGAIN IS A MAGNET FOR MANY AND A LIGHTNING ROD FOR CRITICISM.

"I am asking the United Nations to stop using the taxpayers' money to destabilize Iran and the other Muslim nations," said Mr. Farrakhan, who also called on the United States Government to allow him to accept a $1 billion pledge from Col. Muammar el-Qaddafi of Libya. "I am asking the United Nations to stop the superior powers from interfering in the internal affairs of weaker, smaller, African, Caribbean, South American and Central American nations."

Criticism of Mr. Farrakhan's remarks was swift. "There was no atonement, if that's what people were looking for," said Abraham Foxman, national director of the Anti-Defamation League. "While in the past I was very much offended by the attacks on the Jews, this time I'm more outraged by the attacks on the American Government, American institutions, the conspiracy theories that are exaggerated."

About 20 demonstrators from the Coalition for Jewish Concerns carried placards denouncing Mr. Farrakhan yesterday, and one protester, Ronn Torossian, 22, was given a summons by the police for disorderly conduct, police officials said.

But many in the crowd and on the stage said that the broad themes of the rally—reconciliation, personal responsibility and the denouncing of oppression—were more important than any single figure.

"This rally, and this movement and this struggle, is not about one personality," Prof. Cornel West of Harvard University told the crowd. "It's about the fact there's too much pain and suffering in this nation."

Winnie Mandela also attended the rally, but her remarks—which echoed the day's themes of atonement and the battle against repression—were delivered by an aide, who said the South African Government had ordered her not to speak publicly.

Also among the invited guests were relatives of Anthony Baez, who died in a struggle in the Bronx with a police officer in 1994. The officer was acquitted in the case last week.

Though there were overtures across ethnic lines, the crowd was predominantly African-American. And the day's strongest message was one of the Black pride and brotherhood, as the names of legendary Black figures laced prayers and speeches.

Kwame Toure, the Black nationalist, told the throngs to go back to their communities and organize. The comedian and human rights advocate Dick Gregory stirred the crowd with his humor and criticized what many believed to be an official undercount of last year's rally.

And the Rev. Al Sharpton called on President Clinton and Bob Dole to begin an investigation of what he described as possible governmental involvement in the distribution of crack cocaine in Black neighborhoods in California.

But many in the crowd sought a more personal message in the gathering. Joseph McWilliams traveled all the way from San Francisco for the rally, staying at a nearby Y.M.C.A., so he could get a prime spot, but ultimately being forced to watch the rally's speakers on one of the television monitors.

"At one time, I had a very unstable lifestyle," said Mr. McWilliams, who said he once abused drugs.

While he broke those habits five years ago, he said that the struggle to live in a constructive, responsible fashion was constant. "When you have this support," he said, gesturing toward thousands of men around him, "It's a big help. It's a big spiritual uplift."

Farrakhan Leads Rally Near UN

From The Boston Globe, by Colum Lynch, Globe correspondent, 10/17/96, [quoting:]

NEW YORK—One year after the "Million Man March" in Washington, Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan sought yesterday to parlay an anniversary rally outside the United Nations' headquarters into a global appeal for financial assistance for America's inner cities.

During a three-hour speech, Farrakhan vowed to cash in on a $1 billion offer from Libyan leader Moammar Khadafy to help finance Black businesses in America's inner cities. And he urged other governments to follow Libya's example.

The State Department has barred Farrakhan from accepting the money from Libya, which is accused by the United States of sponsoring international terrorism, including the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland, in 1988.

At a news conference at the UN sponsored by the Libyan mission after the rally, Farrakhan characterized Khadafy as a "freedom fighter" and said that "terrorism, like beauty, is in the eye of the beholder."

Winnie Mandela, Rev. Al Sharpton and former NAACP president Benjamin Chavis joined Farrakhan and dozens of other black and Native American speakers at the New York rally, dubbed the World's Day of Atonement.

Kudzu

Speaking from a podium inside a bulletproof shell, Farrakhan assailed the United States for imposing sanctions on Cuba, Libya, Iraq, Sudan, Iran and Nigeria. He said would ask the United Nations to investigate whether the US Government has engaged in genocidal practices against Blacks and Native Americans. He even got in a plug for a second term for UN Secretary General Boutros Boutros-Ghali, whose bid for a reelection may have been doomed by the threat of a veto from the United States.

The event, designed to urge governments to atone for promoting violence, war and slavery, began with an early-morning prayer vigil at the UN building. By noon, nearly 15,000 people filled Dag Hammarskjold Plaza. Thousands more gathered on Second Avenue to watch and listen to speeches displayed on a giant video screen. When the call came for donations they dug into their pockets and filled dozens of boxes and garbage cans. Police estimated the crowd at about 88,000 people.

For many of those attending, there was limited interest in Farrakhan's foreign policy agenda. Most were concerned with more immediate problems—the poverty, drugs and violence that affect many poor Blacks in America.

The crowd roared its approval when Farrakhan talked about news reports linking the CIA with the sale of crack cocaine in Black communities. Farrakhan, who is considering launching a class action lawsuit on behalf of those who have been victims of drug abuse, alleged yesterday that the White House was involved in the scheme but offered no proof.

Annette McGarrak, 54, who participated in the civil rights movement in Boston in the 1960s, said she came to New York because she thought Farrakhan "was the only one saying anything positive about the Black community." Like so many others at the event, she understood Farrakhan's message of self-esteem and economic self-determination among Blacks.

But she differs with Farrakhan on many issues, she said. "I don't think that White people are devils, for instance. But he is the only one who is saying anything positive about the Black community. The message is fine and I'm not going to complain about the messenger."

Kenny Alston, a cook from Queens who attended the Million Man March last year, said yesterday's event paled by comparison with the "electrifying" rally last year. And, he said, he preferred that Black leaders focus on the domestic problems rather than international ones. "We have to worry about the killing in our own neighborhoods," he said.

Farrakhan touched on a range of domestic issues from abortion to adultery. He instructed his audience to live a pure life and he urged couples to attend a rally in Washington in four years where he would preside over 10,000 "divine" marriages.

Minister Louis Farrakhan

Press Conference By Nation Of Islam, Sponsored By Libya

From Press Release received 10/17/96, [Quoting:]

At a Headquarters press conference Wednesday sponsored by Libya, Minister Louis Farrakhan, the leader of the Nation of Islam, told correspondents that he was honored to be at the United Nations, which was dedicated to world peace but was struggling very hard. He said, to mark the anniversary of last year's "Million Man March" held in Washington, D.C., the 16th of October this year had been declared: "A world's day of atonement against violence, murder and warfare".

What was his opinion of the situation in the Sudan where the government persecuted and killed Blacks in the south of the country, a correspondent asked. Minister Farrakhan said the question suggested people in the north were not Black, when the Sudan was a Black nation. He abhorred the killing of any human being by another human being. The long war between the north and south of the Sudan suggested there was a problem which needed to be addressed. He had visited the Sudan during three previous administrations, as well as during the current one of President Omar Hassan Ahmed Al-Bashir. But in all those years, he had never heard the word slavery mentioned. Former President Sadiq Al-Mahdi had given assurances that he could solve the deep problem between the north and the south, but had been unable to do so.

Mr. Farrakhan said he had met with Kenyan President Daniel T. arap Moi in Nairobi last year, after stopping in Ghana and Zambia, to seek the advice of leaders there on how to bring peace to the Sudan. He had also met with Ugandan President Yoweri Museveni and with the leader of the Sudan People's Liberation Army, John Garang. In Khartoum, he met with Sudanese religious leader Hassan Al-Turabi and President Rashir. For a time, it had seemed there might be a breakthrough, but unfortunately that had not happened. In dealing with the problems in the Sudan, the United Nations should not allow itself to be a tool of United States foreign policy objectives. It should not impose Security Council sanctions against an entire people because it was alleged that some of those who had plotted to kill Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak were living somewhere in the Sudan. That was no reason to punish a whole nation of people. He hoped that the United Nations would strive to bring more justice into the dealings of Member nations and so avoid the cataclysmic war which was on the horizon.

Some Muslim Governments and leaders kept their distance and did not treat Minister Farrakhan as a mainstream Muslim leader, and the United States mainstream media portrayed him as an extremist, a correspondent said. Did Minister Farrakhan think there was something wrong with his message, he asked. "Something was wrong with the mainstream, not necessarily with me and my message," Mr. Farrakhan replied. Those of the mainstream seemed to be American puppets and tools and cowered and ran from anyone who spoke the truth. He was like those prophets and messengers of God who spoke the truth, he added. He was not calling himself a prophet or a messenger, but he followed in that tradition. There was nothing wrong with his message. God had given him the assignment to tell the truth.

A correspondent asked for Minister Farrakhan's opinion of the "invasion and continuous occupation of Haiti". Minister Farrakhan said his sympathy had always been with the Haitian people, who had never been able to come out from under Western domination and humiliation. It was wrong and a "mockery" that former Haitian President Jean Bertrand Aristide had been restored to power by America, but had not been allowed to stand for reelection. The Haitians would continue to suffer until someone rose up from the masses with the wisdom, knowledge and understanding to untie them and throw off the yoke of imperialism, colonialism, slavery and dependence that had weakened the country.

What did he think of the new Turkish Prime Minister and his foreign policy, a correspondent asked. Minister Farrakhan said the Turkish leader was showing independence from Western dominance. His visits to Iran, Libya and Nigeria were not the way to curry friendship. Turkey was too great a nation to be cowed by Western powers.

The theme of the Day of Atonement was "Can the United Nations Avoid Armageddon?" Did he think that the United Nations could do that, and if so, how, a correspondent asked. The United Nations could not do it at the moment because it was in a very weak position, Minister Farrakhan replied. He did not understand how the United States still had so much influence and a vote in the Security Council when it owed over a billion dollars in dues. The way the United Nations was going would lead to war, not away from it. There were two major problems in the world. One was the very serious problem between Israel and the Palestinians, which could bring the whole world to war.

Minister Farrakhan said since the United Nations, under a British mandate, had divided Palestine to give Israeli people the right to a homeland, independence and sovereignty, while knowing the Arab world would reject it, the problem had festered. The United Nations must never abandon its role in the peace process to America. It must also recognize the Palestinian people's right to self-governance and independence. The borders of Israel and Palestine would only be secure when there was true justice for the Palestinians. If Israel and its security was the cornerstone of America's foreign policy, then the weaning of the Arab world and pitting Arab nations against each other was also part of that policy. And any peace would not give true justice to the Palestinian people.

The promise behind the Day of Atonement was that even the best people had committed errors which they must confess and seek forgiveness for, a correspondent said. What errors had Minister Farrakhan chosen to confess and seek forgiveness for, he asked. Minister Farrakhan replied that he certainly would not confess to the error of not telling the truth. He would never repent for telling the truth if it hurt the feelings of those who were guilty of injustice. Like all human beings, he was a sinner and he had the right to repent and atone to those whom he had offended by his personal actions. If, however, his actions had offended his own Government which chose to see him as a "hate-monger" and a racist and an anti-semiter, he could not repent for their "evil appellations" and labels. He could only repent for something for which he knew he was guilty.

Minister Farrakhan said he had asked members of the Jewish community to hold a dialogue. If they did not, how would he ever know where they thought he was wrong, he asked. The silly "no talk" policy had gone on between the Israelis and the Palestinians for so long. When Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu had first come to power, he had not wanted to talk with the President of the Palestinian Authority, Yasser Arafat. And he only did so after the blood of 70, 80 or 90 Palestinians and Israelis had been spilled. "Must we bleed and die before human beings act civilly and talk to each other? I am willing to talk to the members of the Jewish community, and if they can show me where I am in error, I am not too proud to say I am sorry and repent and ask forgiveness," he added.

A correspondent asked why Minister Farrakhan had been going to accept a gift from Libyan President Colonel Muammar Al-Qadhafi, who was a sponsor of international terrorism. "I guess terrorism, like beauty, is in the eye of the beholder," Minister Farrakhan replied, adding that he saw President Al-Qadhafi not as a sponsor of international terrorism, but as a victim of European and American evil.

President Al-Qadhafi came to power in a bloodless coup d'etat and nationalized the oil industry, thus making enemies of British and American petroleum companies, Minister Farrakhan continued. He had used Libyan petrodollars to raise the living standards of his people and aid the liberation struggle of people all over the world who had been strangled by the corporate greed of Europe and America. The Libyan leader was a freedom-fighter, and it was the United States Government that was guilty of some of the worst forms of terrorism. He described President Al-Qadhafi as his "friend and brother" who had never done anything against Black people in America, although his own government had proved to be their enemy.

The United Nations should be ashamed for placing economic sanctions against a country on the basis of an allegation which had not yet been proved, he continued. When President Al-Qadhafi offered to let the Libyan nationals, accused of bombing PanAm flight 103, face trial in a third country, the United Nations should have offered to try them in either Lockerbie, Scotland, or in The Hague.

A correspondent asked if the march led by Minister Farrakhan on the United Nations was part of a plan he had always had to bring the issue of racial discrimination in the United States to the attention of the Organization. She also asked why he had his eyes on the Caribbean. Minister Farrakhan said he was from the Caribbean, the home of his parents. It was a vital area and had done much for America. Many great leaders had some connection with the region. He hoped that in America Black people could become politically and economically strong and leverage that strength against America's unjust foreign policy towards the Caribbean. His movement intended to bring not only the question of discrimination, but one of genocide before the United Nations. "If we can prove to the world that our government had and was sponsoring the destruction of the lives and well-being of a whole section of it, people and of the Native Americans and of others, then I think the United Nations should not be cowardly to take up this question of reparations and justice."

What was wrong with the Muslim peoples and governments that they did not speak as he did, a correspondent asked. Minister Farrakhan replied that he loved the Muslim world and its holy houses. Something was wrong with the world of Islam which had nothing to do with Israel or America or the United Kingdom. It had everything to do with the deviation from the principles of the Prophet Mohammed. Because of this weakness, the Western world had destroyed the Muslim world internally. The Muslim world would continue to be whipped by God until it recognized there was no God but Allah, and that Mohammed was his messenger. Minister Farrakhan said he spoke out boldly because he was free and he refused to recognize any God but Allah or any power greater than Him.

If the United Nations did not lift the sanctions against Iraq, Minister Farrakhan said he would ask Muslims to stand up, in the name of Allah, and defy them. Over 500,000 Iraqi children had died and more were dying every day because of the sanctions. They were still in place because America was angry it had not destroyed President Saddam Hussein and the love the Iraqi people had for him. He appealed for the United Nations to lift its sanctions against Libya and let its nationals be tried in a court of law under the supervision of the Organization, so the truth of who really bombed PanAm flight 103 could come out.

How was Minister Farrakhan's position different from that of Martin Luther King or Mahatma Gandhi? Was he now preaching non-violence, the correspondent asked. Minister Farrakhan said the founder of the Nation of Islam, Elijah Muhammed, had always preached non-violence. He had stripped members of guns, knives and other weapons and made them solve their problems by reasoning with each other. There had been some violations of his teachings, but by and large his people were not violent. However, they could not lie down in the face of violence. In keeping with the teachings of the Koran, members of the Nation of Islam could not be the aggressor in word or deed, but they must fight if they were attacked; otherwise people would be overrun by tyrants and oppressors. He respected the philosophy of Gandhi and said Martin Luther King had learned much from him.

In response to another question, Minister Farrakhan said he was sorry for any of his words which had contributed to the atmosphere that led to the death of Malcolm X. As in a divorce, when children were forced to choose between two parents they love, Minister Farrakhan said he had chosen to go with Elijah Muhammed when he separated from Malcolm. When Malcolm attacked the moral character of Elijah Mohammed, Minister Farrakhan said he had felt he must defend his leader. But no one knew that the United States Government and its counter intelligence program was fostering the divisions between the two men. "In our innocence and in our zeal...we spoke words and created an atmosphere that allowed Malcolm X to be killed, and I am heartily sorry for that."

Minister Farrakhan said Nigeria was one of the most important countries in sub-Saharan Africa. No doubt there was corruption and mismanagement of resources, and many Nigerian nationals living in Europe and America were deeply concerned. However, he had been to Nigeria and he saw a bigger picture. European nations had got together last century to carve up Africa, and he believed they had met again and decided to marginalize the continent. And the country with the largest material and economic potential was being decimated. The just crimes of many Nigerian nationals were being manipulated to balkanize Nigeria, making it weak and ineffective, so Africa would always be the footstool of Europe and America. However, with God's help, the continent would rise to take its rightful place in the next century, he added.

A correspondent asked him what he thought of the situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina. Minister Farrakhan said he would like to know more of what went on in that part of the world, as he was a victim of the American mass media's portrayal of events. He could not agree with the ethnic cleansing of any people and would have to condemn it. However, he wondered what the root of the problem was. He hoped peace could be established in Bosnia as all people in the region were basically the same, if not genetically or biologically, then at least in the eyes of God. If there was no peace, the area could trigger a war in all of Europe.

As a private citizen, how did Minister Farrakhan plan to effect change internationally and what were his plans domestically, a correspondent asked. Minister Farrakhan said the little people knew more than the media and understood his trip overseas. "What happened to you, who are under the thumb of our open enemy, that you couldn't understand?" he asked the correspondent. The little people had responded with joy when he went to Africa. He was attempting to get Americans, whom he described as the most learned and educated Black people on Earth, to use their knowledge and education and experience to develop Africa. That kind of strategic alliance was vitally necessary.

Attention must be paid to people in America, he continued. Many organizations were doing that, and the Million Man March spawned many more. But everywhere he went, he had seen the enormous power of the United States, especially since the decline of the Soviet Union. But America was not a moral superpower, so the power of 40 million inside America, united with Hispanics and Arabs and Asians, could yield a leverage that could change the country's objective. Never again would the United States be allowed to develop foreign policies on Africa, the Caribbean and Central and South America without involving people from those regions, he added.

He had learned that 400 American corporations would have given the United States Congress over $1 billion by the end of the year to enact laws in the interest of corporate greed. He could not stand by and watch corporate America dictate how leaders in Africa would run their country and spawn coups which brought into power corrupt leaders who bowed to their will. "We intend to bust all of that up inside America. Watch and see. Our time has come," he added.

ECSTASY TO AGONY THROUGH THE PLAN 2000

In the course of men's lives comes the opportunity to do that which is ungodly or that which epitomizes the intent of GOD. Through the ages of man's experience he has often been brilliant and often become as evil creatures of manufactured robotic actors on the stage called physical life in expression. As unbalance has occurred so has the very planet brought ending to civilizations--some at the hands of the very men who would have rule and kingdomship over all things physical--wisfully efforting to capture the very God-soul of each and all beings. The cycle has come full circle--the time is at hand and YOU must know that which has brought you down. Herein is presented "THE PLAN" for capture by the adversary of God--and that which could have saved your world--had you borne God-Truth as your shield. Where shall YOU go from here?

MANDAMUS

10/19/96 GRANDMA

THINK ABOUT IT

Mandamus: One single word, used since time began, by sovereign people, instructing those either elected or appointed to govern them, meaning order yourself! Order yourself from infringing into and onto our rights. It's a cease and desist order on those who oppress, who practice and impose despotism, by and through acts of tyranny, acts against constitutional policy, and moreover, against public policy of all our adopted laws, which prior to 1972 kept this nation in order.

Today, I picked up a book on Commercial Law (1918), let's take a look at two (2) things in particular, (1) Rights, and (2) Law.

RIGHTS

1. Rights. Men are endowed with certain individual rights. These rights are principally of two classes, personal and property. Men have the right to live in peace and quietude. In so far as it does not interfere with the same privilege on the part of others, they have the right to be unmolested in the pursuit of happiness (the right to work, the right to enjoy one's home in peace and free from intrusion). They have the right to defend themselves against the attacks of others, to satisfy bodily hunger and thirst, and to preserve their bodies in health and strength.

Besides these personal rights, men have the right to acquire and keep property. This right is also subject to the limitation of not interfering with the same privilege on the part of others. Men have the right to acquire property, both chattel and real. For the purpose of rendering their existence and enjoyment secure, they have the right to keep the title and possession of this property in themselves.

In primitive times, property rights were few. Personal rights were recognized and enforced by might. As the requirements of civilized life became more complex, property rights were needed and recognized. Rules of conduct and rules for the holding and transfer of property were recognized and enforced with regard to persons and property. These rules are known as laws.

LAW

2. Law. Law may be defined to be a rule of human conduct. It may be said to embrace all rules of human conduct recognized by courts of law. Laws are necessary to enable men to enforce and enjoy their rights, both personal and property. Customs of men become rules by which human affairs are regulated. Men may disagree as to what their rights are, or as to their exact scope or limitations. In this event, rules of conduct or laws must determine their scope and limitations. Disputes among men arise about their personal or property rights. The rules recognized by the courts in settling these disputes are laws. These rules or laws relate both to persons and property. A law which prohibits murder is a rule by which the state protects the lives of its citizens; a law which prohibits theft is a rule for the protection of property.

DIVISIONS OF THE LAW

There are two great divisions of the law, written and unwritten. The greater portion of the law consists of the customs of the people, as evidenced and preserved by the written decisions of the courts. These customs, to be recognized as law, need not be found in written decisions, but the most important ones have become embodied therein. New customs are necessary and are recognized to meet new and changing conditions. These new customs are continually adding to our unwritten law.

A LITTLE CHANGE IS SOMETIMES GOOD—BUT!
THAT FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT
OF 1972
MUST, BY MANDAMUS IF NECESSARY, BE REPEALED!

The Federal Advisory Committee Act (5 U.S.C.) grants too much power to the Executive [branch of government], the president, his advisory committees, which in turn, by excessive misconstruction and abuse of powers of the office of the President of the United States, which makes laws outside the Congress, outside the sovereign states of the United States, which infringe and impede the inherent, inviolable, perpetual rights of the People, pursuant to an act of Congress, the Bill of Rights.

Recently, our President proposed to allow the Environment Protection Agency to confiscate the assets of suspected polluters. The same as the illegal, unlawful, unconstitutional Assets Forfeiture Law, which currently is employed as a tool for unlawful, repugnant, unconstitutional acts, imposed on the people by the Federal Government under the alleged Maritime Common Law.

THERE AIN'T NO SUCH THING!

Admiralty Law yields to Common Law. Admiralty 1.9. Rhodian Law (Maritime) takes anything in its pathway, as long as an existing law does not exist that can stop it!

Do we have existing law to stop this madness?! Can we get our Constitution back? Yes, we can!

The Federal Procedure Act! ss23.09 and ss23.10. Mandamus!

The Maryland District Courts (Washington, D.C.) inherited the Common Law Jurisdiction. Common Law Jurisdiction for Mandamus. The courts have the power, to override acts of Congress or of the President of the United States, if the Congress refuses to order itself and represent the people.

§ 23.09. Mandatory relief in general. Mandamus intricacies do their deadly deeds not only by denying jurisdiction to district courts to grant mandatory relief when mandatory relief is needed, but also by confusing the law of availability (repugnant laws or oppressive laws) and scope of review. According to the Administrative (sic) Procedure Act, which is surely based upon considerable understanding of modern needs, availability of judicial review does not depend upon any such distinction as the supposed one between ministerial and discretionary action. But according to Mandamus tradition it does. And somehow most federal courts continue to assume that Mandamus tradition must be allowed to override what Congress has enacted.

THINK ABOUT IT

If our Congress refuses to abide by the wishes of the people, Mandamus, properly petitioned by the American citizens across this nation, can resolve and do away with unconstitutional repugnant acts imposed upon them, which impede the rights of the American people.

SOMETHING ELSE TO THINK ABOUT

All this disarming the American people! Well, we watched that same-old-same song-and-dance routine back in the 1930s. All of Europe disarmed. The arms manufacturers kept manufacturing arms. Hitler overran Europe like hot pucky through a hot tin horn. The answer is quit manufacturing the damned things.

Did you ever wonder what would happen if Israel was disarmed, as she disarmed the Palestinians?!

Aw shucks, that would make peace a simple thing. Are you thinkin' about it?!

Grandma Herrman-Herman

"I see. Due to your corrupt mismanagement the people of your country are starving and rebellious, and you urgently require American aid Right. How many machine guns?"

How Far Can We Go In Either Direction?

10/20/96 #1 HATONN

WHERE ARE WE GOING AND WHAT ARE WE GONNA DO?

I need to discuss a few things with you so that you responsible human hands can have a better picture of our next segment of this journey.

I have told you that "basically" we have accomplished funding resources which will allow for some rather magnificent accomplishments. I believe that we are near enough to discuss some of the aspects in a generalized manner.

GRANDMA

It is imperative that we utilize the paper for that which it was intentionally birthed. We needed it to be able to get word out quickly and with a reputation of an immediate reading audience.

You will be given the opportunity to turn this nation of the U.S. into a totally reverse direction politically—IF YOU PAY ATTENTION.

Grandma thrust will be, always, reclamation of a goodly government BASED ON COMMON LAW AND CONSTITUTIONAL (reclaimed) RIGHTS UNDER THAT LAW AND UNDER AND WITH THE LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION.

Does this sound like a job too large for any ONE to handle? Well, since you are ALL fragments of God, we can consider that it certainly IS too large a task for any ONE fragment to accomplish. However, if we of God put our shoulders to the wheel and push together, we can get the cart out of this poisoned mudhole.

This is going to mean we must be supportive, offer in the paper that which lays a foundation upon which to work in civil and political aspects of refounding a nation and redirecting back to God, a nation based on goodness instead of the insipid seepage from the sewer which prevails at this time.

This means that much of the paper will be focused on Common Law and Constitution lessons. You will NOT find it boring—you will be so angry at the usurpation of good law that you will wish to vomit as you realize the extent to which you have allowed degradation to befall you. It will shock some of you AWAKE, perhaps, to an extent of action against what is taking place even as we write.

NEW DECADENCE LAW

Example: Yesterday on CNN news it was reported that Willy Brown, Mayor of San Francisco, had taken to sign into LAW a new proposition for the city and you can bet it will then be acceptable for the State and then the Nation.

The gist of the law is that Gay Group Bath and Public gathering places will be permitted LEGALLY (UNDER THE PROTECTION OF LAW) to ADVERTISE and FUNCTION as open public sex centers. The

"houses" will offer GROUP SEX ACTIVITIES, MASTURBATION FACILITIES, ENFORCED CONDOM USE FOR SODOMY PRACTICES AND A PLACE FOR THOSE WHO WISH TO OBSERVE ALL OR ANY OF THESE ACTIVITIES. The point, as presented, is to allow coverage and places of enforced and protected SAFE sexual activities. Mr. Brown describes it as being a "sort of" "clean needle program" in order to slow the spread of diseases. The only thing left to do before opening is to finish licensing the many petitioners for licenses from the City and to arrange for appropriate lighting regulations, etc.

REPERCUSSIONS

YOU HAVE GONE ABOUT AS FAR AS SODOM AND GOMORRAH, GOOD BUDDIES! Therefore, EXPECT the same treatment as given those cities of evil.

By the way, TODAY YOU HAD BEST GIVE ATTENTION TO THE MAJOR QUAKES IN JAPAN! Those are DIRECTLY across the Sea of Peace from "beautiful downtown" San Francisco by the Bay.

Yes indeed, you have gone about as far as you are going to go. You in the U.S.A. don't seem to understand that the rest of the WORLD is fed up to overflow with YOU and your secret evil and THEY can talk about your mess and evil enterprises AND YOU EVIL PEOPLE WHO DIRECT THIS PASSAGE INTO HELL.

Now that Time-Warner has control of Mr. Turner's networks—you can expect to hear less and less of ANY news, for the "maverick" was taken control of by below-the-belt measures. When you capitulate to the Siren's seduction, you have lost your way. Not only can it be done, it HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED. Turner is now the PUPPET with no ability to longer manage his own strings.

Another thing you should shudder over is Fred Goldman's resignation from his "marketing" business and is going to devote, full time, the remainder of his life to RESTRUCTURING THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM to bring about more restrictions and remove allowances for men to be found innocent. And just WHO do you think is footing the cost for this "retirement" into full-time corrupting of the system? Of course, his buddies whom he serves: THE MISHPUKA! It wasn't enough that they killed his son AND Mrs. Simpson—they are now going to deal the death blow to the judicial system through laws similar in limitations of the Open Bathroom Law of Mr. Brown (Willy). O.J. SIMPSON DID NOT KILL ANYONE! [Editor's note: See this week's News Desk on p. 12 for some thoughtful commentary on this matter by the News Desk's editor.] And I hope that he will be exonerated. The actions of Fred Goldman are beginning to show that he and his vampires are not sure of winning this second and unlawful suit against the innocent man.

I hope that it is so that O.J. has seen God and can measure his own actions against those who brought him to his knees in disgrace and commercial failure. There is, of course, a major place for him to participate on the stage of goodness for All people. All he needs to do is join the RIGHT set of marchers.

God will NEVER give unto any of his children a load too great to bear. Remember it when the going seems rough and delays seem interminable. The task will be always given to THE one best suited to accomplish a given job. Why ONE? Because each task is equally IMPORTANT as any other. I remind you that if EVERY ONE writes there is no one to put to press, no one to read what is printed, and mankind only slips further and further into the morass of confusion.

Why do you think so confounded many books are now written about the Simpson trial—all without merit as to truth and final judgement? Because it is a distractor while the would-be-KINGS take one game piece after another while you attend the absurd and ignore the TRUTH which will allow FREEDOM. This, too, is simply the way it IS.

While the world turns we must also continue to find the best and most qualified life-sustaining products, seeds, grains, paramagnetic earth, electricity pulse conduit substance, etc., to offer a basis for life as you turn about from your cots of sleep. For instance, what do you REALLY KNOW ABOUT SPELTA? What do you know about Adzuki beans? Humm, Hummm, I thought not. What do YOU know about crop rotations and enhanced quality of plant production? Well, SOME-BODY has to do it, don't they? And just WHO might that be? Well, we have found THE one to carry our flag and dig out the information with a pickaxe and meter-boxes. And NO, do not ask me to give you the information, the meters, the products, and then YOU WILL DO SOMETHING ABOUT THIS. We already have someone who has pulled it together for himself and we need waste no more time on the subject. Most of you are waiting for the "magic" while others are creating the miracles. Where is YOUR MIRACLE?

Perhaps, reader, it is right in your hands, as always. A letter to the Nevada Bar Association, et al., may well be your greatest and most miraculous contribution to our work this day, or any day. We can't work if the assaults have tied up everything and everyone involved. But the monster is down now and struggling for survival—so, let us keep him right there under God's foot, please. [Editor's note: See pages 2-3 of the 10/8/96 issue of CONTACT, or pages 34-35 of last week's issue for more on this matter.] The misfits in town are finding that more and more of their dirty tricks are backfiring on themselves. It is no longer such a fun-and-games exercise in "get Hatonn and his people". The only WAY out for them is to move elsewhere and pray extradition is not demanded for the criminal acts of some of the "clan", "cult", "coven", "groupie" (just to choose from a few of the terms used against US). You see, the evil-mongers always use the terms which describe themselves as they begin to lay their trail of deceitful lies. It is the prime descriptive adjective about a Satanic/Luciferian mode of operation. They take a word of beauty, attach it to themselves so that you don't notice what they do, and then they use the terms to "getcha" and suck your blood from your very beings and blight your souls. The "Jews" are NOT SEMITES, so anyone who might well be AGAINST the Jews is NOT ANTI-SEMITIC for they CANNOT BE.

Further, any self-proclaimed practicing Jew IS working under the Kol Nidre (Vow of all vows). The FIRST thing on Atonement Day of the Holy Jewish celebration IS THE TAKING OF THE KOL NIDRE. This is a VOW that all vows of the prior year and the year to come—ARE NULL AND VOID. So, a Jewish attorney who takes the Kol Nidre is bound and ordered to serve under the oath called the Kol Nidre—nullifying all claim to truth or requirements for honesty or integrity. Ah, but how many other lawyers are willing to confront this MISCARRIAGE of all honor in a courtroom to judges who also take the same vow? So, it remains an INSIDE joke to themselves while they diligently and methodically destroy the innocent.

You have a lot to clean up, citizens. And, YES INDEED, it certainly CAN BE DONE. But you have to have "gut strength" in determination and willingness to see every opportunity through to its RIGHT CONCLUSION.

BACK TO GRANDMA!

This beautiful and daring lady not only has won defaults in courts through her own volition, but she continues her relentless efforts tirelessly. The law, the courts, and the corporations breaking the law ignore, laugh at, and find this lady just an amusement. Well, that is a very stupid attitude. Already in her case WON against Illinois Power company she has turned up facts that that one company has shifted off MASSIVE sums to "foreign" corporations and it, itself, is owned by a foreign corporation operating in the State of Illinois, BUT AS A STATE BRANCH OF BUSINESS! THIS IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND AGAINST THE LAW!

How many other states have this problem? ALL OF THEM. How do they get away with it? YOU let them! Why would they dare? Because the Federal Government sets the standards and regulations and all together MAKE LAWS WHICH ARE UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND UNETHICAL AND UNLAWFUL. Remember that politicians are NOT NOTED for integrity. The U.S. Federal "stuff" is NOT GOVERNMENT OWNED OR OPERATED. The Federal Reserve, the IRS, and you name it—are FOREIGN-OWNED, PRIVATE CORPORATIONS. The operative figureheads you vote into slots which seem extensively important—have NO MEANING whatsoever any longer. The President is the lackey of the entire system of corruption to let YOU think you have a democracy (never mind a republic) and some semblance and approximation to that which you call freedom.

VOTE FOR PEROT

Again, this year of elections, my suggestion is to vote for Perot. Why? Well, not any of the reasons you might think: it is because he is the ONLY other choice YOU HAVE. If you-the-citizens would overturn the fixed election boxes, you would at least have a place to begin with enough power and input to cause the newly-elected parties to PAY ATTENTION.

Why have I not spoken about this prior to this late date? Because, if it appears too soon that an alternate choice will be made by you-the-people, THEY have to get rid of the standing President, confuse the elections and/or gain total EMERGENCY control of everything, and move you into a DICTATORIAL COUP—negating all elections.

Can "they" do it? Easily, in one swoop of a pen. And with it will come destruction and death because the "Emergency" that allows for such drastic measures MUST BE MASSIVELY DESTRUCTIVE IN ORDER TO KEEP YOU BLIND-SIDED.

I need to now turn my attention to some pending inquiries which need personal and careful, as well as privately focused, information.

SOIL ADDITIVES

I certainly do want the farm research to be inclusive of necessary additives for perfection in growth potential of plants. However, we have to be practical in considering availability of products. When you get a bit carried away and into the assumption that you have to have a certain magnetic quality or electric pulse frequency—you sometimes overlook the most simple and obvious possibilities.

Let us consider plant needs as being pretty much in opposition to the inherent life needs of, say, man. Man must have oxygen and breathes out carbon dioxide. Plants must have carbon dioxide to "breathe" and give off oxygen. This is compatibility at its best. Plants, as does the human body, have capability of taking what is present in the air and soil to convert from those elements what they need for perfect reproduction and growth—if the elements themselves are WHOLE. Plants have to have nitrates, carbon, all manner of minerals and, in fact, do need additives of acid-producing products. By contrast, a healthier human body is one that is a bit alkaline in pH measurements.

So, as horticulturists work and fiddle, seek and dabble, you will find that you can put together, very simply, products which offer a conversion ratio suitable to a perfect medium.

The addition of sulphur to fields used either in rotation or general planting is mandatory because, as the plant converts its environment through its food source, it must have sulfuric acid, and most soils get depleted in sulphur content and even more rapidly depleted through some particular crops.

Then horticulturists also find a great need for substances derived from Humite and Nitrogen. Both of these substances simply hold high magnetic (or paramagnetic) charges in addition to holding and maintaining a high frequency potential. These also are presented through the line of alterations into Humic and Nitric acids. Since the humates, nitrates and sulphates can be disastrous in their intense form, it stands to reason that you need a carrier or a major ability to dilute the final application to any soil or plant. In other words, a little goes a very long way for too much simply kills the plants and ruins the ground for future use for many generations of rotation of crops.

If applied directly to the soil as in the solid state—you need to consider natural forms of obtaining the substances such as in manure (but from malnourished cows it is pretty worthless). You can have a better understanding if you consider that if urine is also present in the manure compost pile—you will have better fertilizer because of the URIC ACID present. I am not going to be the farmer, however, or the chemist. There are plenty of products available and some of them are so costly as to deplete all budgets before you get started. IF, HOWEVER, YOU HAVE CRYSTALLINE FORM OF ANY OF THESE THINGS AND YOU HAVE AN IRRIGATION SYSTEM, THEY CAN BE DILUTED AND ADDED DIRECTLY THROUGH THE IRRIGATION SUPPLY SYSTEM. The problem becomes one of CAREFUL use, however, because a grain often is sufficient for a gallon of water. By "grain" I mean one crystal grain, not weight. For instance, one silver nitrate crystal will purify a gallon of water—and that is one TINY crystal! If you only want DNA replication in cell perfection—you only need one DNA structure to one molecule and therefore one "grain or crystal" will suffice for hundreds of gallons of programmed water. If you are able to take this same tiny input and VORTEX the water into which you want the substance—you can use only a diluted teaspoonful to many gallons of water in the introduction system.

If, for instance, you put a TINY bit of Gaiandriana, and a crystal of, say, nitrate, or sulfate or whatever, vortex the solution to colloidalize the whole of the liquid—and if you have added the necessary minerals and vitamins—a teaspoonful of this vortexed liquid added to MANY, MANY GALLONS of irrigation water will be sufficient to your needs for the growing season. Further, you will find that the "food" is immediately available in cellular form for instant use without need of conversion by the plant itself—for it is already in cellular form.

Yes indeed, you CAN do enough "concentrated" formula by vortexing with what you have available. In time you need some industrial systems for this colloidalizing processing. Any time you have colloidalized substance, you have instantly useable form of whatever you wish to introduce—and yet it will be in a totally organic/harmless solution which you cannot OVERuse on either animal or plant life. My advice, as a matter of note, is to "overuse" the first few times because the lands are so depleted that the plants may need more of some elements than of others and, just like the body of MAN, the plants will use what they need and discard or leave that which is unnecessary. You can only cross molecule for molecule, cell for cell, etc.

In the startup, I would suggest you use whatever fertilizers are necessary and use the above described solution(s) (your choice) as extra plant additive in the irrigation system. Yes it CAN be done and hydroponic growing is full proof of that phenomenon. You will find that you can get better production and better product from hydroponic systems for producing fruits and vegetables than you can in soil fields. It is pretty impractical for major grain production but could be just as effective as a growing method under the right circumstances. Certainly it is NOT cost effective NOW.

Am I telling you that you CAN grow totally underground in what could be considered an artificial environment? Yes—and there is nothing artificial about it. The methods simply deviate from that to which you have, quite often, foolishly grown accustomed. The light, of course, is necessary for the production of chlorophyll, specifically SUNlight. I really don't want to get into this any deeper at this writing, please.

As you consider your additives—consider your probable or possible circumstance geographically and geophysically—after upheaval and changes in topography. You need things you can use or substitute in every instance should you be cut off for any reason whatsoever from resources. This can be anything from becoming an island mass to having your trucking systems go down. In the Tehachapi area, for instance—you may end up having to go to the dairy areas up toward Stockton for fertilizers of the natural variety—until you get some dairies of your own in your location. You must understand that everything is connected. Chicken, turkey, bird, etc., fertilizer is even better than is bovine or equine dung. You have to be careful, however, for it is also "stronger" and can burn your plants if overdone. Reclaimed and processed sewage sludge (sterilized and caked) makes EXCELLENT soil additive. Better yet, these things are already tested and workable products if you look around. Consider building your own processing facilities so that you always have the products available should any of these other contingencies mentioned above prevent your accessing from other locales.

We must leave this now as we have other responsibilities. Good Morning.

THE WIZARD OF ID—By Brant Parker and Johnny Hart

Call For Special Federal Probe Of Gov't Involvement In Drugs

John H. Ray

916 Swartmore Court
Schaumburg, Illinois 60193

October 19, 1996

Re: Government "Official(s)" and CIA involvement in Drug sales/distribution into United States

Dear Congressman:

On Thursday, October 17, 1996 I watched the Montel Williams TV Show which covered the topic of "government involvement in drug trafficking in America". Of course our "Officials" deny any involvement and claim it is just another issue of black contention. Drugs in America is NOT a "Black issue". It is every citizen's concern as it directly or indirectly effects every race, economic level and the future of our society.

The Federal government has denied any involvement on similar allegations in the past which the evidence eventually proved otherwise. Case in point—for over five years both the Pentagon and the Veterans Administration denied the existence of "Gulf War Illness", but the overwhelming evidence from independent investigators forced them to officially acknowledge our troops were administered experimental inoculations and also exposed to detonated chemical weapons. Just last year it was revealed our Federal government knowingly experimented in the 1960's with L.S.D. drugs on our troops and prisoners and at other times radiated patients, including children, without their knowledge to study effects of radiation on humans. Concerns about government involvement in drug trafficking is not paranoia but well within the realm of reality, especially knowing what some government or military officials are capable of doing.

I have read several books and many magazine/newspaper articles written by active and former CIA and/or DEA agent's "exposing" their Agency's illicit international drug trafficking connections. This to me is the most heinous crime against humanity, especially when our own federal agents and "officials" have declared a war on drugs but have used it against the American people to finance their covert activities and for personal gain. These officials have the audacity to appoint a Drug Czar and brag about the billions of taxpayer dollars they claim to spend controlling the flow of drugs into America. This is absolute hypocrisy!

It is time Federal Legislation is passed to authorize an unprecedented "Special Federal Investigation of Government Involvement in DRUGS". This investigation must be conducted by a Special Prosecutor with full jurisdiction, authority and unrestricted access to highly classified documents, reports, memos, etc.. to investigate, subpoena and indict ANY "Officials", elected or appointed. This includes employees of every Branch of the "Federal Government", its Agencies, and State Officials, for determining the degree of involvement, sanction, or influence exerted in their dealings with any foreign government, drug cartel, drug traffickers, and money laundering. Problem—who is honorable or honest enough to serve and be straight with the people?

I expect an honest response from you as to your position on this serious issue. It is time those responsible for drug trafficking be held accountable for these covert acts of genocide.

Sincerely Concerned,
John H. Ray

TELEPHONE HOTLINE
805-822-0202

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
