Franklin Cover-Up Revisited George Bush Link To Child Abuse, Satanism, And Murder In Nebraska

TRUTH EXISTS

ONLY FALSEHOOD HAS TO BE INVENTED

As we sit to write on this beautiful Sunday morning, in anticipation of a bit of gathering this afternoon, the Spirit is willing but the Physical being lags in enthusiasm. Why would this be? Because, when we open and reopen the wounds for the salt-tossers, we have to realize the drop-out rate of "friends" increases to some 99%. Dharma has to consider how to handle the myriads of lawsuits, run from the CIA, avoid Bush's twit-twigs, do business in Greece, Australia, and Africa—and make cookies for the Holiday Bizarre. (No, I spelled it correctly; bazaar is not the right word for this game.) Then to have to struggle with the betrayers, liars, and cheats among us is just about too much to ask of anyone, ladies and gentlemen. Dharma would just like to run off with the Banana Man to the bush in South Africa. That is an inside joke but just WHO is this Banana Man? Well, he is an interesting Federal Reserve connection. And you thought things were simply "dull" around here, didn't you?

Panama Under Siege

Part 2 in a Series

Editor's note: Part I of this series, in last week's CONTACT, gave us a better "fix" on the role of Panama in the larger scheme of things as well as a (surprising?) in-depth assessment of General Noriega. Now Part II takes us, intimately, into the stream of events happening several years ago and involving numerous entities known to our readers. Since most of this following material was noted/written during that period, we will remind you of that fact and then leave the verb tenses, etc., as originally set down by Dr. Coleman.

DR. JOHN COLEMAN

Earlier I mentioned the name of Jose Blandon. Let us take a closer look at the State Department's "Panama" Spokesman. Shortly after his television appearance in favor of Noriega—in fact, in less than a month—Blandon was seized upon by the Eastern Liberal Establishment in the persons of Shultz, Kissinger and Elliot Abrams, and told to stop backing the wrong horse. According to my Washington source, Blandon was left in no uncertainty as to what the future held for General Noriega. He was quite bluntly told to "join the winning team" or find himself out in the cold when the "new government" was ushered in.

Blandon, who has always been a self-seeking individual, lost no time in changing course and jumping on the "Get Noriega" bandwagon. Shortly after switching sides, Blandon announced that he was "gathering support from the international community against General Noriega". He was thereupon summarily dismissed from his consular post. No government can afford to have its representatives conspiring with foreign forces advocating its overthrow.

Blandon was immediately supported by the State Department and the US news media. He was touted by Dr. Norman Bailey as a highly respectable Panamanian official of high rank who had really startling information to impart about General Noriega's alleged "drug trafficking". I cannot be completely certain that Blandon was not immediately given financial support by Bailey, the Civic Crusade and Sol Linowitz, but my Washington source said he has received some information that would tend to confirm Blandon as a paid hireling of Linowitz, Norman Bailey and the Civic Crusade. Miami lawyer Ray Takiff, who represents General Noriega in the US, said quite simply that Blandon was a liar in the pay of the US Government. One of Blandon's controllers is William G. Walker, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for International Affairs. According to reports I received early in April, it was Walker who coached Blandon regarding his testimony before the mudslinging anti-Noriega Senate Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on Terrorism, Narcotics and International Operations. Blandon is known for his wild swings from one subject to another, not to mention changing horses in midstream. Walker wanted to be sure that Blandon did not stray into areas that might lead to complications while testifying before the "open and shut" committee in the manner of Rodriguez Milian's embarrassing exposé of the leading American banks which are engaged in laundering dope cash.

Lewis Galindo of the Civic Crusade, with whom we are now familiar, was another Blandon "coach" along with Walker and Dr. Norman Bailey. Galindo spent a lot of time telling Blandon to stick to the point while giving his testimony to the eager "Get Noriega!" Senate Subcommittee. The committee must have been familiar with Blandon's penchant for twisting "facts" in the same way they must have known about his rather dubious "high-level international contacts".

Yet the Senate Subcommittee presented Blandon as its star witness against General Noriega for much of the time during its February 8th through 11th session. This should deeply disturb all patriots who value our republican institutions and traditions. The attack on Noriega has tended to demoralize and debase our institutions.

Wishing to make the most of Blandon's testimony, which would never have stood up for more than a few minutes under court rules of evidence and under cross-examination, the committee members listened eagerly to his rambling, contradictory diatribe against General Noriega. Even with such a wide margin of latitude, with committee members bending over backwards to be solicitous, Blandon cut as sorry a figure as the criminals Floyd Carlton and Milian Rodriguez, who were called as "prosecution" witnesses! The proceedings were reminiscent of "show trials" and have no place in the American system.

Could the subcommittee hearings be classified as a "trial"? I tend to believe that it was a trial—of General Noriega, although subcommittee chairman John Kerry categorically dismissed this when it was put to him. Kerry paraded Blandon before the committee as one parades dogs around the ring at a dog show. When Blandon began to babble incoherently, Kerry on numerous occasions said, "stay, boy—not so fast".

Kerry made very sure that Blandon's very recent television speech in support of Noriega was not brought up. During that speech Blandon said that charges against the PDF's commander were "fabrications" and vehemently denied that any PDF officers were involved in narcotics trafficking. Now this may be good politics, but it makes for ROTTEN justice. In the end, unable to follow his own ramblings, Blandon contradicted himself and gave such widely differing accounts of the same events that even the jackals of the media, notably Time magazine, were grudgingly forced to admit that Blandon's credibility was nonexistent!

From whence came Blandon's "facts" about General Noriega's involvement in dope trafficking. A careful analysis prepared for me by specialists in this field to whom I have access shows striking similarities between phrases and words used by Norman Bailey, Lopez Michelson, Roberto Eisenmann and Lewis Galindo, and some of the words and expressions used by Blandon.

So it appears as if these men might have been putting words in Blandon's mouth. Millionaire Galindo, who is supposed to have made his fortune out of real estate, and Eisenmann of La Prensa we have already met, but it is useful and necessary to mention in passing that Galindo enjoys the confidence of Trilateral Commission's Sol Linowitz and his close associate, Dr. Norman Bailey.

Lopez Michelson

Lopez Michelson was President of Colombia from 1974-1978, during which period he became very friendly with Fidel Castro who resettled Carlos Ledher after he was forced by DEA agents to flee the Bahamas. It was Michelson's finance minister, Rodrigo Botero Montoya who made it easy for the cocaine barons to deposit their dope dollars by opening the "sinister window" at Colombia's national bank as part of Michelson's oversight activities on behalf of cocaine barons Ochoa, Ledher and Escobar. Lopez Michelson even tried to legalise the dope barons in exchange for their offer to pay off Colombia's external debt obligations!

Nicolas Ardito Barletta

Another of the State Department's hired lackeys is Nicolas Ardito Barletta of whom we shall now learn something. Friend and confidant of Norman Bailey of the National Security Council and head of the NSC-CIA "bankers branch", close to Sol Linowitz and William Colby, Barletta is obviously an important ally of the "get Noriega" faction. I have already mentioned that Panama became a haven for dope traffickers and their money-laundering banks shortly after Blandon enacted strict bank secrecy laws, just in time for the cocaine trade "boom". His bank secrecy legislation was never challenged until General Noriega took on this awesome responsibility. No wonder Blandon has allied himself with Noriega's enemies. Blandon is known as "the Panama bankers' man in Washington".

Steven Samos

Identified as a narcotics trafficker, Samos appears to enjoy surprisingly ready access to administration officials like Admiral Poindexter, and notables like Barletta. Samos is part of the group made up of Eisenmann, Galindo and others who started the slander campaign against Noriega. It seems that Samos was another of Jose Blandon's many "coaches". Samos travels to see his high-level US connections under the protection of the federal witness program. Perhaps because of evidence supplied by Samos, his former colleague and business partner Fernandez was hit with a prison term for marijuana dealing? We may not ever find out, but it must be the reason why Samos is allowed to travel to the US, while a man like German President Kurt Waldheim is blacklisted!

The committee appears to have done everything in its power to offset Blandon's wildly erratic performance. When questioned by the press about Blandon's changed testimony, inaccuracies and contradictions, Senator D'Amato said, "Publicly, people would try to do anything to discredit the testimony of Mr. Blandon."

But in the end Blandon's testimony was shown as nothing but imagination through his claim to have seen documents that confirmed CIA spying on the private lives of certain US Senators, an allegation hotly denied by the CIA, but reconfirmed by Blandon when he appeared before the committee the following day.

Blandon's CIA "bombshell" upset the committee almost as much as Milian's disclosures that top US banks were involved in laundering dope cash. If I were asked for my opinion of Blandon's tales, I would be obliged to say that it is the babbling of a paid informer who has no real information to sell!

Another of the "influential international figures" who supports the "Get Noriega" conspiracy is Ted Turner of CNN. Turner is believed to be a member of the Trilateral Commission who was personally "turned" by David Rockefeller. It looks as though his name can be added to the list of Noriega's enemies.

Roberto Eisenmann's La Prensa heaved a sigh of relief at the way the Senate Subcommittee hearings went. It was apparent that the dope-bankers' policy for Panama would henceforth be US official policy. The campaign against the PDF waged by the US came straight from the pages of La Prensa with its howls of rage at being "repressed". The cocaine barons and their bankers wrote the lyrics for the song of hate being sung by the Reagan Administration against the best drug-trafficking fighter in the world today.

The fact that Noriega has been smeared with dirt should tell us something about just how effective he has become in the war on drugs. If he were a nonentity, nobody in Washington or Panama would be bothered by him. An INTERNATIONAL hate and slander campaign is rapidly coming to a climax, one which I am predicting will end in the ouster of General Noriega. It is my belief based on information of the highest reliability, that even after he is forced out, Noriega will be in dire danger. The dope barons and their bankers are not going to forgive and forget. Noriega is marked for murder in the same way as General Somoza was destined to be murdered.

Some good did emerge from the Subcommittee hearings. General Paul Gorman denied that he had seen any evidence of wrongdoing by General Noriega as charged by Blandon and Norman Bailey. He said there was NO HARD EVIDENCE that Noriega had ties to the cocaine barons. There had been rumours, said Gorman, but NO real evidence. Neither could the committee produce one shred of credible evidence to support the FALSE charges lodged against General Noriega.

Blandon, Barletta, Linowitz, Elliot Abrams, Elliott Richardson, Lewis Galindo and Roberto Eisenmann, among others want to see the dope trade legalised. Richardson's approach to this issue is highly ingenuous. He advocates legalising drugs without actually appearing to do so. Generally the line he is taking is that it is "too late" to attempt to fight the dope menace, and that no matter what efforts are made to suppress it, like alcohol before it, the best way to go is to legalise narcotics.

This, according to Richardson and his Eastern Liberal Establishment backers, will prove far more effective and less costly in the long run, the line adopted by Edward Kennedy in his numerous attempts to legalise dope. Edward Kennedy was spared the fate of his brothers, because he is useful for pushing pro-dope bills in the Senate—the sole reason for his continuing political career. If Kennedy once dares to vote against pro-narcotics legislation, he will be eliminated. We know it and he knows it. It is as straightforward as that.

In his article copied from the Sol Linowitz 1986 Report of the Inter-American Dialogue, Richardson practically quotes the arguments put forward by La Prensa and Carlos Ledher in support for legalising the use of cocaine and marijuana in the same way that the US was eventually forced to legalise alcohol. The Inter-American Dialogue is an Eastern Liberal Establishment-Latin American confluence of opinion which follows Trilateral policy-making for the region.

In short it is there to rubber-stamp Trilateral Commission decisions. From its list of members one can quickly gauge to what extent this body was set up to carry out CFR orders. Where the names of McGeorge Bundy, Linowitz, Kissinger, John R. Petty and Robert S. McNamara, Barletta and Montoya, crop up, we can rest assured that dirty work at the crossroads exists.

Courier for the Colombian cocaine barons Samper Pizano says that new and fresh approaches to the drug problem must be considered for the West. Pizano, who does not dispute his connections with the Colombian cocaine barons, once presented Lopez Michelson with a check for a very handsome amount of money as a "contribution" to his presidential campaign. The money was accepted by Michelson, even though it came from Carlos Ledher.

The hoary argument for selective legalisation was also trotted out by Richardson. Apparently 65 million drug addicts in the US is not a sufficient number. Richardson hints that the war against drugs cannot be won, another old and dangerous argument, which ignores the hammer-blows President Garcia was able to deliver against the cocaine mafia in only fifty days, and that with strictly limited resources at his disposal! The kicker is the statement that "the illegality of drugs makes the damage greater for both addicts and societies of the Americas." As an officer of the courts, Richardson deserves to be examined by the American Bar Association, charged with pushing the sale of narcotics, and indicted on such charges.

The Inter-American Dialogue has its narcotics-banker troop of baboons backing the attempts to legalise dope. That there is a proven link between the First Bank of Boston, Credit Suisse and the cocaine barons of Colombia would not be hard to prove, much less difficult than trying to make Jose Blandon's twisted testimony credible and acceptable. Why doesn't the Senate Subcommittee which is smearing Noriega, go after Credit Suisse, First Bank of Boston, American Express and Bank of America if it really wants to project credibility in battling the drug trade?

When did the State Department really begin to fear Noriega? I would estimate that it was immediately following the success of the joint DEA-Panama anti-drug action code-named "Operation Pisces" which was publicly revealed by the DEA on May 6, 1987. The DEA characterised the operation as "the largest and most successful undercover investigation in federal drug law enforcement history".

The State Department immediately began counter-operations in conjunction with those named in this article to undercut the success of "Operation Pisces" and remove General Noriega as Commander of the Panama Defense Force. The State Department and its allies in the pro-dope lobby have good reason to fear Noriega as the following extract from a May 27, 1987 letter to Noriega from DEA head, John C. Lawn, makes abundantly clear:

"As you know, the recently concluded Operation Pisces was enormously successful; many millions of dollars and thousands of pounds of drugs have been taken from the drug traffickers and international money launderers. Your PERSONAL (emphasis added) commitment to Operation Pisces and competent professional and tireless efforts of other officials in the Republic of Panama were essential to the final positive outcome of this investigation. Drug traffickers around the world are on notice that the proceeds and profits of their illegal ventures are not welcome in Panama."

INDEED!

In those last few lines we have the key to why the State Department turned on General Noriega, and why a nationwide campaign of slander and libel was launched against the single most effective drug-trafficking fighter in the world today. John C. Lawn's letters contrast very vividly with the sorry spectacle of Jose Blandon and convicted dope trafficker Milian's efforts to blacken the man most hated and feared by the Colombian dope barons, their Panamanian bankers and Eastern Liberal Establishment allies, in which we include the New York Times and the Washington Post.

The Senate Subcommittee hearings rendered a great and unfortunate disservice to the American people by its support of the dope barons and their bankers, and virtually buried what was left of the lamentably weak war on drugs program which President Reagan was supposed to have left in the hands of George Bush. All that remains of our tattered self esteem, as a nation opposed to the drug menace, is Nancy Reagan's pathetic "Just say No". Talk is indeed cheap, especially when compared with the brave acts of valor we can lay at the door of General Noriega and President Alan Garcia.

I appeal to rich and powerful conservatives to join together and place a signed, paid ad in the New York Times and the Washington Post along the following lines:

"Any individual and/or nation which may be inclined to follow the courageous example of General

Noriega and the Republic of Panama in the war on drug traffickers and their money-laundering banks should take note that they will be severely dealt with by the US Senate and the grand jury system of America".

The US Establishment press, the jackals who follow the dictates handed down by Reston on behalf of hyena pack leader David Rockefeller, were responsible for orchestrating the vicious anti-Noriega campaign in America, which led to the indictment by a Miami grand jury of the man so lavishly praised by the head of the DEA. The "Hell no, we won't go" of Vietnam draft dodgers and the "Noriega must go" chants were created in the same filthy Augean stables.

Who is wrong here? Is it John C. Lawn? Is the Noriega he praised really the same man portrayed as a friend and protector of narcotics traffickers by the cocaine mobster's press, its lawyers, its bankers, its paid liars and its policy-making organisations? At first glance there appears to be some confusion. Noriega is either clearly not the man John C. Lawn gave kudos to, or the Senate Subcommittee witnesses were a bunch of liars. We leave it to you to draw your own conclusions.

Let us return to the "enemies of Noriega" list and uncover the chief perpetrators of this most savage crime against the best opponent of dope traffickers in modern times:

General Ruben Darios Paredes

The retired former Commander of the Panama National Guard is one of General Noriega's most combative and dangerous enemies. In spite of the brutal cocaine mafia-style execution of his son, Paredes remained loyal to the Ochoa brothers, even after finding out that they lied to him when he phoned to enquire after his missing son. He accepted the word of the Ochoas that his son was safe, even while the Colombian press was trumpeting the word that Rueben Jr. was already dead, the victim of the cocaine mafiosas.

Paredes has long-standing ties with Fidel Castro and his self-proclaimed "special friend" Colonel Roberto Diaz Herrera. Given these known facts, it is not surprising to find Paredes entertaining members of Ledher's private army of terrorists, the M19, at his home and shielding them after a unit of M19 was set up in Panama to protect the Darien cocaine laboratory and Israeli weapons caches.

As long as Paredes was in charge in Panama, Israeli weapons sales proceeded at a brisk pace, while more and more drug traffickers chose to use Panama as their personal banking and meeting place without fear of arrest or interference. It is known that the Ochoas considered moving to Panama following the crackdown on them by Colombian Justice Minister Rodrigo Lara Bonilla. But following the murder of Bonilla by two members of M19, the Ochoas decided that it was safe for them to remain in Colombia. However, they continued freely and openly to use Panama as a banking and conference center.

Paredes is Kissinger, Linowitz and the State Department's choice to replace General Noriega once he is forced out by naked threats of the Justice Department prosecutions. This is the basis of so-called "negotiations" with General Noriega presently being conducted by Shultz. In July 1987, Paredes threatened that war would break out in Panama if General Noriega did not resign.

Up until the present day, the role assigned to Paredes by Kissinger and Linowitz is that of a spoiler, to ensure that no individual and/or political party becomes strong enough to threaten the vested interests of the dope barons and their banking nexus. When Omar Torrijas showed such signs, he met with a fatal plane "accident".

Is there any real proof of the kind so avidly sought after by the Senate Subcommittee, and which it failed to find in the case of General Noriega, which would link Paredes to the cocaine barons and their dirty bankers? It is a matter of public record that the Ochoas lavished expensive gifts on Paredes, including costly thoroughbred walking horses. Then there is the matter of the clearly established relations between Paredes's deputy, Lt. Colonel Julian Melo Barbuja, whom we have already met, and whose close relationship with Ricardo Tribaldos, Jaime Castillo, Mendez and other Ochoa traffickers like Stephen Samos is not in dispute and which could in no wise have been concealed from General Paredes.

When Lopez Michelson met with the Colombian cocaine barons in Panama in 1984, it was Melo Borbua who saw to it that they were not disturbed. I mentioned Stephen Samos because he was married to Alma Robles, a sister of the Robles brothers whose law firm is used by the dope barons. Samos was a runner for the Fernandez syndicate until he got himself caught.

My information is that he was well known to Melo Borbua, and that his activities could not possibly have escaped the attention of a man like General Paredes. Paredes, in spite of his known dope connections, is much sought after by the jackals of the American media. He has received totally favorable press coverage, his seamy past apparently safely under wraps, in much the same way that General Pitovranov of USTEC is loved by the American press, notwithstanding his known past as head of a world-wide KGB kidnapping and murderer squad.

Dr. Norman Bailey

Bailey's past is tied up with the National Security Council, where he served before joining up with Linowitz. While in the National Security Council, Bailey was assigned to study the movement of narcotics money, which gave him first hand experience of Panama. As a direct result of his studies, Bailey became friendly with Nicholas Ardito Barletta. Bailey is believed to have developed a hatred of Noriega, blaming him for Barletta's loss of his Presidential job. Bailey is on record as saying, "I began my war against Panama when my friend Nicky Barletta resigned as President of Panama." Bailey learned a great deal about Panama's bank secrecy laws from the man responsible for making it a haven for drug traffickers and money-laundering banks, whose defender he now had become.

Why should Bailey have taken umbrage at the dismissal of Barletta? Because Barletta was the "man on the ground" representing British and American top-level Establishment figures who are up to their eyebrows in the dope trade—from a safe distance of course. He was also the IMF man on the spot in Panama to see that its dictates were obeyed without question. He was also a favourite of George Shultz. When General Noriega resisted the IMF's austerity asset-stripping packages, he came into head-on collision with Ardito Barletta, and vicariously, the Washington elitist establishment.

Unbeknown to Bailey, General Noriega had been conferring with Alan Garcia, whose tactics successfully defended Peru against IMF depredations, and which Noriega subsequently adopted for Panama. As a result, Bailey was ousted when he tried to become the IMF's enforcer. At that point the decision to wage all-out war on Noriega and the National Guard was taken by George Shultz on the advice of Norman Bailey and his business partner, William Colby, whose company, Colby, Bailey, Werner and Associates had been consulted by the panic-stricken Panamanian and American drug money-laundering bankers. From that moment onwards, General Noriega was called "a dictator".

Bailey maintains that he is not interested in getting rid of General Noriega; more important, he says, is getting rid of the military because, according to Bailey, "Panama is the most heavily militarized country in the Western Hemisphere. This remarkable statement should be weighed against the known fact that it was Bailey who drafted the charges leveled against General Noriega by Blandon, Eisenmann and Weeden.

Bailey is a member of the Civic Action group working to oust Noriega and replace him with what Bailey likes to call a "Civilian Junta" that will hold free elections once it has gained power, on which he sets a time limit of one year. Bailey contributed heavily to the New York Times and Washington Post slander of General Noriega, which he calls "98% fact". Even if only 2% is not FACT, then surely his articles must be totally suspect?

Through Bailey the conspiracy against General Noriega turns the full circle from the cocaine barons in Colombia through to the Elitists in Washington, London and New York. It is through Bailey that the connection is made between the low-class murdering cocaine mafia and the untouchable respectable names in the social and political registers of Washington, Boston, London and New York, epitomised by Elliott Richardson and George Shultz.

What is at stake is the massive amounts of cash, generated by the as yet illegal narcotics traffickers which, however, may not remain illegal for much longer, given the pressure on legislators to "ease up" on the "social use" of such drugs as marijuana and cocaine.

Behind the pressure against cigarette smoking stands the dope lobby's campaign to legalise "light use" of dangerous habit-forming drugs. The Surgeon General says that nicotine is as habit forming as cocaine and heroin. The implications are obvious. Give up anti-social smoking with its proven cancer-inducing risks, and switch instead to non-carcinogen cocaine or marijuana. Dope sales, which presently far outstrip the sales of gasoline, may soon also outstrip the sale of cigarettes.

The "market" for cocaine is as yet relatively untapped! If many more millions of people are turned into drug-dependent zombies, what of it, as Bertrand Russell would say if he were alive today?

Dr. Douglas, who is a renowned authority on the subject, says this is all part of Soviet Chemical and Bacteriological warfare against the West. If heroin sales in Iran are anything to go on, he may well be right, not that Iran is part of the West, but it could serve as a "how to" model for the future.

When Noriega goes, the Soviet Union will be the winner because, through the Partnership and Castro's Cuba, it will be able to extend its influence in Latin America, increasing production of cocaine and marijuana and flooding the U.S. with cheaper and greater quantities which will become available to "new" users who may not necessarily become addicts, or so the rationale has it.

In this the Soviets and the drug barons can be assured of the full support of the New York Times, speaking on behalf of British interests, and the Washington Post. Both newspapers have in recent months published a number of articles in support of legalising the use of marijuana and cocaine.

The tactics used to isolate Panama's leadership are similar to those used against South Africa, which is not surprising, given the fact that they originate from the same source. Barletta warned the President of Panama that it would be best if he urged Noriega to step down; otherwise he might find himself President of a lot of ashes. South Africa is similarly being urged to "give up now before there is a conflagration".

The Senate has declared war on Panama just as it has declared war on South Africa. The patriotism of the American people is being aroused by references to the military in Panama being a danger to the security of the Canal. De Concini's worthless sop to the right wing at the time the Treaty was signed, the De Concini

"reservations"—not signed by Panama, is being promoted as a wise and prudent forethought precaution, when it was and is nothing but a bolt-hole for the rats who signed away the U.S. Canal at Panama in the first place.

The situation in Central America is a deadly danger to America's national security interests. A Philippines-style "democracy" is being forced on Panama, with all the dire consequences which that entails.

In order to get the go-ahead on the Panama Canal Treaty, the Senate says General Noriega must resign. Since he refuses to do so, he must be forced out. That is the consensus of the six-member Senate Staff Delegation which visited Panama November 12th through 16th, 1987. The delegation made no mention of the frightful threat posed by the narcotics traffickers and their Cuba-Soviet connection, not to mention the threat to our economy posed by the drain-off of U.S. dollars into Panamanian dirty money-laundering banks.

In the name of democracy, control of Panama must be wrested from Noriega and handed to the internationalists. Panama must be turned upside down before the Canal Treaty will be implemented. Not specifically spelled out, but clearly an implied threat, is the intention to send the U.S. military into Panama if "disorders" threaten the safety of the Canal. It is to create such disorders that veteran trouble maker John Maisto was deployed in Panama.

Who is John Maisto? Maisto is the number two man in the U.S. Embassy in Panama. He was deployed in South Korea, the Philippines and Haiti to create unrest on the streets and lead "demonstrations" against the authorities. He has been very active on the streets in Panama, and it is a disgrace that agent provocateur Maisto is allowed to get away with his scandalous behaviour.

The Senate has willfully and with malice aforethought helped to create deteriorating conditions in Panama by continuing to insist that "dictator" Noriega is engaged in criminal activities and that his refusal to accept the U.S. defense rights upon which the Panama Treaty is predicated is endangering the entire treaty.

"Defense rights" in this instance mean stationing American troops in areas where Maistro has been at work stirring up trouble, a deliberate provocation, as the military is fully aware of the inherent dangers in stationing troops in areas of civilian unrest. If it learned anything at all from Buret, the military should know that it is wrong to put U.S. military personnel in the middle of an untenable and volatile situation.

Another lie that needs to be exposed is the story that General Noriega is receiving aid from Libya. This is a fabrication designed to discredit Noriega. My sources took three months to investigate this charge and found that it has NO SUBSTANCE WHATSOEVER.

The State Department is running a disinformation campaign, with the help of Ted Turner of CNN, in much the same way as the BBC ran its disinformation campaign against the Shah of Iran. Thus far the bloodbath planned for Panama by the disinformation campaign and the scurrilous activities of John Maisto has failed to materialize. General Paredes, who, as already explained, is the mouthpiece for the cocaine barons and their filthy bankers and political backers, added his voice to the crescendo of calumny against General Noriega, predicting dire consequences for Panama if Noriega does not step down immediately.

President Reagan, who hasn't the faintest idea of who the "bad guys" really are, set an April 1988 deadline for Noriega to meet. When Noriega wouldn't oblige, the deadline was extended to mid-May. My Washington source said that Reagan wants to have Noriega out the way in time for his "summit" meeting with Gorbachev. Norman Bailey has stepped up his demands that the Panama National Guard be disbanded as it represents a "danger" to the area!

Bailey is a big backer of John Maisto. Addressing a forum held at the George Washington University in Washington, D.C., Bailey said that only if the people of Panama went out on the streets and got themselves shot and beaten up would Noriega be budged. He also said that unless the television cameras were on the spot to record such events, it would be a wasted effort. "Nothing is going to happen in Panama, you are not going to get rid of Noriega and the institutions of the PDF (Panama Defense Force), unless the people take to the streets," said Bailey, which is why John Maisto is in Panama where he is putting his mob-inciting experiences gained in South Korea, the Philippines and Haiti into practice.

What Maisto and Bailey want is a Panamanian "Sharpeville", the State Department-induced riot that swept the black township of Sharpeville and resulted in scores of deaths among rioting blacks—which the cameras were conveniently on hand to record. Sharpeville has been a curse on South Africa ever since.

The final straw supposed to break General Noriega's back is the indictments handed down by a Miami grand jury. This vendetta by the Justice Department is comparable with the Office of Special Investigation's vendetta against John Demjanjuk in that in both instances TAINTED evidence was used to secure an indictment. The Justice Department is being used as the final "big stick" with which to drive Noriega out of office, and it is indicative of the gangster-gutter style political justice which the Justice Department has embraced in the last decade. The real authors of the indictments against General Noriega are Blandon, Barletta, Lewis Galindo, Paredes and George Shultz.

In addition to the enemies of Noriega already mentioned, we must add the name of Stephen Solarz, the Brooklyn mafia's agent in the Congress. Solarz introduced bills calling for the suspension of aid to Panama for FY 1987 and 1988, unless President Reagan can certify that a proper election has taken place in Panama. It will be recalled that Solarz pulled the same stunt in the Philippines, which led directly to the ousting of President Ferdinand Marcos.

To summarize what has already taken place and what is about to happen in Panama: The drug forces and their bankers have combined with the political establishment in Washington to get rid of General Noriega and replace him with an "Aquino" puppet regime directed from Washington. Why should this be? Firstly, because Noriega is wrecking the lucrative cocaine and marijuana trade which flourished in Panama until he took office, and secondly, he will not cooperate with Kissinger's Andean Plan to turn Central America into a Vietnam-style battleground for American forces.

These are sufficient reasons to place Panama under siege. What will the outcome be? General Noriega will probably continue to refuse to step down. Conditions will be created such as riotous assemblies, economic hardships, and labor unrest which will make Panama ungovernable. The U.S. military will probably step in to secure the Canal, and several attempts will be made to assassinate General Noriega. That is how U.S. foreign policy for Panama is to be conducted. Are we a nation fit to rule the West? We leave you to draw your own conclusions!

Is General Noriega to blame for the unrest in Panama? Is he in any way, shape or form the drug-trafficker that the grand jury and the Senate say he is? Why is there so much attention being paid to Panama all of a sudden, even greater attention than was paid to Panama at the time of the handing over of our Canal at Panama to "anti-Communist" General Torrijos?

When we hit someone in their pocket, we can be sure that it hurts. That is what General Noriega is guilty of doing. He hit the dope barons in their pockets. He cost the dirty dope money-laundering banks a large slice of their ill-gotten profits. He brought the bankers into disrepute. He upset the status quo; he put teeth into Panama's bank laws. More than that, he got in Henry Kissinger's way and upset the Israeli arms sales in Central America. He tramped on the toes of powerful people. No wonder General Noriega is cast in the role of a villain.

The Carter Presidency produced an explosion of cocaine trade. Within six months of Carter entering the White House, our currency situation was in disarray. Our banks had not anticipated the rush for dollars. The Federal Reserve Board was hard put to meet the demand from Florida banks. Our whole currency system was thrown into a disorderly pattern. Within six months of Carter as President, Florida banks were turning over $14 billion in cocaine revenues.

Carlos Ledher found a sympathetic and willing friend in Dr. Peter Bourne, Carter's advisor on drugs. The Allman Brothers band was welcome at the White House, notwithstanding the fact that they were "coke" users! Ledher cultivated his "Carter connection" and no doubt cheered when Bourne began issuing prescriptions for habit-forming drugs for friends and colleagues—for which, incidentally, he escaped real punishment.

Such "boom" conditions created a marvelous opportunity for the dope barons, especially in Panama. Torrijos did not care one way or the other. To get hold of the Canal and build a Panamanian economy was what interested him most. If cocaine and marijuana were a means to this end, then so be it! His attitude was "live and let live"!

The Carter administration backed IMF demands that Latin America grow "cash crops" (marijuana and cocaine) to meet their international debt obligations. The IMF OFFICIALLY encouraged several countries, including Jamaica and Guyana, to grow "drug" cash crops.

The IMF's position is on record. John Holdson, a senior official of the World Bank, stated that the coca industry is highly advantageous to producers, and went on to say, "From their point of view they simply couldn't find a better product." The Colombian office of the IMF stated quite openly that, as far as the IMF is concerned, marijuana and cocaine are just crops like any other crops that bring much needed foreign exchange into the economies of Latin American countries!

It is not only the World Bank and the IMF that have "approved" of the drug trade. The Midland and Marine Bank was taken over by the premier drug bank in the world, the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, with the express permission of Paul Volcker, even though Volcker knew full well that the purpose of the take-over was to permit the "Hongshang" Bank to gain a foothold in the lucrative cocaine-banking trade in Panama. In fact the acquisition of Midland by Hongshang was HIGHLY IRREGULAR, bordering close on a criminal act. The Midland Marine Bank is remarkable in that it operated as a clearing bank for Panama's dope banks!

So it is not just by coincidence that the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank went after it! Nicolas Ardito Barletta was on the board of Midland Bank, and so was Sol Linowitz. Funny how these names keep cropping up!

What about First Boston, up to its eyes in washing dirty dope-money in conjunction with Credit Suisse? First Boston isn't just ANY bank. Its original owners were the old Eastern Liberal Establishment Perkins family. Today it has intertwined connections with the White Weld empire in Switzerland. Incidentally, Perkins was an agent for J.P. Morgan and various British interests.

For the United States of America to go to such extraordinary lengths to get rid of a "dictator" of a small country ought to tell us something. It ought to make us curious to find out what lies behind the concerted effort by bankers, politicians and the jackals of the press to "get shut" of General Noriega. It is our hope that with the information provided herein, you will now be able to understand why Panama is under siege!

BOEHNER UNVEILS SECRET CLINTON EPA PLAN FOR 50-CENT GAS TAX HIKE, NEW BTU TAX

"A secret Clinton Administration 'War on the Family Car' that would put most Americans on bicycles"

Excerpted from HOUSE REPUBLICAN CONFERENCE NEWS, Oct. 30, [quoting:]

House Republican Conference Chair Rep. John Boehner (R-OH) tonight unveiled the contents of a leaked EPA memo detailing a secret Clinton Administration plan for a 50-cent-per-gallon increase in the gasoline tax, tighter motor vehicle emissions standards, a new $40 federal fee for automobile emissions tests, and a plan for "full pricing of roads" that alone would cost motorists as much as $400 per year.

"It's a secret Clinton Administration plan for war on the family car," charged Boehner, who accused the Administration of "deliberately keeping this plan under wraps for two years". Boehner called the plan "a rewrite of Vice President Al Gore's 'Earth in the Balance', a radical, extremist approach which would put most working Americans on bicycles."

Boehner said the plan, detailed in an internal EPA memorandum dated May 31, 1994 from Michael Shelby of the EPA's Office of Policy, Planning and Evaluation, contains 39 different provisions to reduce automobile emissions, including:

- * A 50-cent-per-gallon gas tax, to be put in place without prior Congressional approval under Section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962; the memo estimates the cost to motorists will be $47 billion in the year 2000 alone.

- * 7 separate new "Energy Tax" alternatives on fossil fuel energy use, based on the carbon content, including: a "greenhouse gas tax", a "carbon tax", a "BTU tax", an "at-source ad-valorem tax" on the value of the fuel at the point of extraction; an "end-use ad valorem tax" on the value of the fuel at the final point-of-sale; a "motor fuels tax" on the retail price of gasoline and diesel, an "oil import fee", and "combinations or permutations of the above". The taxes are referred to in the memo as "revenue recycling policies".

- * A plan for "Full Pricing of Roads" which would "decrease subsidies to road users" by requiring that state and local matching funds for road and bridge construction under the Highway Trust Fund be raised exclusively from increases in state and local gas taxes, new or increased license and registration fees, imposition of new highway "congestion charges", and new or increased weight-and-distance charges for trucks. The report says that "If states raised gas taxes and decreased no other taxes, increases in out-of-pocket costs would be roughly 1% of household income, or about $400/year." In this respect, as with the 50-cent-per-gallon gas tax, "the Administration has the authority to begin rulemaking on its own, without legislation," the memo asserts.

- * A new fee on vehicle emission tests of $40 per person to "shift the cost of vehicle inspection from the state to the vehicle owner". Once again, the plan states that "federal rulemaking and state licensing-fee capacity exist today," eliminating the need to go through Congress.

- * Tighter emissions standards for automobiles, accomplishing additional reductions of 2 percent per year, also to be accomplished without Congressional approval by Executive Order or administrative rulemaking authority.

- * A "National Beverage Deposit and Return" system; individual states, several of which already have beverage deposit and return programs, would be able to "opt out" of the national program only if they can demonstrate their own plans meet certain specified "national performance standards".

"For almost two years, this Congress has sought to learn how the Administration intends to meet their stated goal of reducing greenhouse gas emissions below those set forth in the so-called 'Rio' Treaty of 1990," Boehner said, noting that the Energy and Power Subcommittee has held four separate hearings on the subject. "In each case, the Administration has dodged us—and small wonder, considering that their real plan is to declare war on motorists, homeowners, consumers and everybody in America who uses energy or has a job." [End quoting]

U.N. CONVENTION ON CHILDREN'S RIGHTS

Public needs To Be Informed About The U.N. Convention On Children's Rights, Says Group

From the Internet, [quoting:]

Laurel Haskell of Concerned Women for America discussed the Clinton Administration's current effort, begun in 1995, to ratify the United Nations Convention on Children's Rights.

Clinton began the ratification of this treaty in 1995, she said, saying that the ramifications of this would put Congress in charge of all children in America and give the United Nations authority over Congress in this area. She noted that a committee on the rights of the children already exists in the U.N., and it claims jurisdiction over many countries that have ratified the treaty (for example, Great Britain).

Under the terms of the treaty children cannot be spanked, cannot be forced to go to church, and cannot be denied access to information.

Because the treaty mandates that children have the same rights as adults, she said, it would be against the treaty to even deny children access to pornography.

Haskell called for an education effort on this treaty so that the public may be aware of its provisions. She said that conservative Republicans are stopping ratification of this treaty now, but that the public must be aware of the treaty's details in case conservative Republicans lost power and thus the ability to block the treaty. This sounds like a worthy cause, but I want to remind you, before getting involved with any group work, check them out as well as possible because so many of them are false fronts for another agenda.

RESEARCHERS PUT POLYESTER GENE IN COTTON

Excerpted from FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM, 11/12/96, [quoting:]

Inserting a polyester gene into the cotton plant may allow farmers to grow a fiber that is wrinkle-free and as warm as wool, researchers report.

A laboratory experiment has shown that a bacterium gene that makes a polyester-like substance can be inserted into the cotton plant and cause it to grow a fiber that has the texture of cotton, but with the insulation warmth of a winter-weight fabric.

"This proves the concept that we'll be able to come up with new and novel fibers for the textile industry" by genetically engineering the cotton plant, said Maliyakal E. John, a biochemist with Agracetus, a Middleton, Wis. firm. He is the first author of a study to be published today in the Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences.

"If we can put enough polyester into the cotton, we could come up with a fiber that could be used to make sweaters and other types of winter wear that are not now possible with cotton," John said.

Other genes, he said, could be used to make the cotton resistant to wrinkles and shrinkage. Still others he said, could cause the cotton fiber to lock in dyes, allowing production of more brightly colored, fade-resistant fabrics. [End quoting]

This sounds good, but I'm afraid the scientists of today don't know enough about the long-term effects of their playing around with genes.

They could help us far more by cleaning up the messes already on this planet rather than playing around with something that has the possible side effects of a far worse catastrophe than we already have here.

TWA 800 AND WOODS HOLE

From the Internet, 11/14/96, [quoting:]

I live and work in upstate New York and am familiar with the Metro New York and Long Island Area. So is my boss, and he sails a sailboat in Long Island Sound in the summer. When TWA Flight 800 fell into the sound this summer, it took the US Navy over three days to get a Navy salvage ship to the wreckage—probably an ATS, but possibly an old ARS like I served aboard in the seventies. Top speed of an ARS is less than 16 knots. Top speed of an ATS is probably 20 knots. My boss e-mailed Woods Hole Oceanographic Institute to ask them why they were not mentioned in any of the news reports about the salvage operation and reconstruction of the wreckage. Woods Hole is famous for deep sea exploration and recovery of wreckage, and they are located just across L.I. Sound from the crash site. Woods Hole's e-mail reply was that they were not invited to participate. I think the failure to involve the Woods Hole in an operation practically in their backyard substantiates Salinger's "document".

This was an all-military operation so it could be controlled, kept secret.

Navy Salvage divers are among the least talkative service members you will ever meet. The Silent Service and all that. [End quoting]

As CONTACT readers know, Salinger's document is wrong (the plane was brought down with a beam weapon), but the rest of the story does indicate a possible cover-up, else why didn't they call in the experienced, nearby team at Woods Hole—at least on a temporary emergency basis?

TOBIN HASN'T TOLD THE FULL STORY ON CHURCHILL FALLS

The following article was sent to us by a very concerned Canadian supporter of CONTACT as a follow-up to the "Captain Canada" article in The News Desk on Oct. 29, 1996.

That article dealt with a contract which Newfoundland's massive Churchill Falls Hydroelectric Plant had signed with Hydro-Quebec in the 1960s, selling them massive amounts of power in order to raise funds with which to build the project—after the Rothschilds' funding had failed because of too many risks involved in the project. [The Rothschilds like sure things—like stealing them after other risk takers build them.] Now Premier of Newfoundland Brian Tobin wants to renege on that contract, but to pressure

Quebec to agree to cancel it, HE THREATENS TO BLACKOUT THE AREA OF QUEBEC, NEW YORK AND THE NEW ENGLAND STATES. THEY ALL GET THEIR POWER FROM THE CHURCHILL FALLS POWER PLANT.

This blackout would be a major disaster. But apparently the Rothschild predators and their ilk—who are apparently behind this nefarious plan of colonializing Canada's resources on behalf of the British Establishment's policy of institutionalized piracy in conjunction with a willing servant named Brian Tobin—could care less about what happens to the people involved in this (possible) planned disaster.

From THE GAZETTE, Montreal, Canada, by Eric Kierans, 11/1/96, [quoting:]

Will Premier Brian Tobin shut up? At least until he learns the details of, and background to, the Churchill Falls agreement. His recent speech to the Montreal Rotary Club, appealing to the passions and prejudices of Canadians, makes clear that he has only the flimsiest knowledge of the agreement.

As is well known, Premier Joey Smallwood, in the early 1950s, interested Winston Churchill sufficiently in the potential of Hamilton Falls in Labrador for the latter to encourage the Rothschilds to look into it. The Rothschilds were impressed and eventually formed a consortium composed of themselves, Morgan Stanley, Rio Tinto, etc. with former federal cabinet minister Robert Winters as their point man.

ORIGINAL PLAN

The original plan was to sell all the power to Consolidated Edison of New York, which required the declaration by the federal government of a right-of-way through Quebec. The right-of-way was not forthcoming and the plan failed. The British Newfoundland Corporation Ltd. (Brinco) which had been given the monopoly to exploit the natural resources of Labrador by Premier Smallwood, could not find any takers. Neither Ontario nor New York were interested. The distances were too great, the technological risk of 735-kilovolt transmission lines, the harshness of take-or-pay contracts all caused them to back off.

When Quebec nationalized Shawinigan Water & Power Co., via Hydro-Quebec, the latter acquired 20 percent of the shares of Hamilton Falls Corporation, which had been set up by Brinco to develop the falls (the major shareholder being Brinco). In 1963, Premier Jean Lesage declared that Hydro-Quebec would be interested in buying the output of Hamilton Falls. Discussions between Brinco and Hydro-Quebec failed and Hydro-Quebec went ahead with the development of the Manic-Outardes complex.

However, in October 1966, the newly elected premier of Quebec approved a Hydro-Quebec letter of intent to Brinco declaring that it was ready to buy all the power from Churchill Falls, renamed after Mr. Churchill's death. The power contract between Hydro-Quebec and Churchill Falls (Labrador) Corporation was ratified in 1969.

Premier Tobin claimed that "the Churchill Falls agreement was arrived at in an unfair way". He described the situation as follows:

(1) By 1969, "CFLCO had spent $150 million and faced financial ruin without a power contract." This is completely false.

While the contract was being drafted, Morgan Stanley was in the process of issuing $540 million U.S. and $50 million Canadian first-mortgage bonds due in 2007. In 1968, Hydro-Quebec had invested $100 million in general mortgage bonds, dated 2010. At the same time, Hydro-Quebec had also increased its equity in CFLCO to 34.2 per cent vs. Brinco's 56.9 per cent and the Newfoundland government's 8.9 per cent. So much for Premier Tobin's claim.

(2) Hydro-Quebec had "immense power" and "used that power mercilessly to gain a 40-year contract."

The 40-year contract was demanded by Morgan Stanley, not by Hydro-Quebec. The bonds were a tough sell. The leverage was immense, $650 million in debt loaded onto an equity of merely $83 million. To amortize the debt in 30 years would have placed an impossible burden on CFLCO and forced a price structure that would have killed the project. Since Morgan Stanley had to sell the bonds on a 40-year amortization basis mainly to large insurance companies, they accordingly demanded that Hydro-Quebec be tied to a 40-year contract. Far from being a "merciless transaction," the 40-year contract was mandatory from Morgan Stanley's and the bondholder's view.

(3) Most hypocritical of all, Premier Tobin "waved" a secret document signed by Hydro-Quebec and Newfoundland and Labrador Hydro (successor to CFLCO) on Feb. 1, 1984, outlining the need to "reach a compromise approach to a more equitable return to Newfoundland." Premier Tobin then put the rhetorical question, "What happened to this statement of intent. It became buried and forgotten, as it was not acted upon." If the complete review ordered by Premier Tobin had been extended a few months, it would have found the answer.

PECKFORD TURNED DOWN OFFER

What happened was this: on March 30, 1984, Premier Brian Peckford turned down the offer of settlement and said that he would be governed by the pending Supreme Court decision on the validity of the Churchill Falls agreement. No more was heard from Newfoundland.

On May 17, Hydro-Quebec repeated its desire to negotiate. Some weeks later, Yves Duhaime, Quebec's minister of energy and resources, confirmed that the offer to negotiate was still on the table. No reply was forthcoming from Newfoundland.

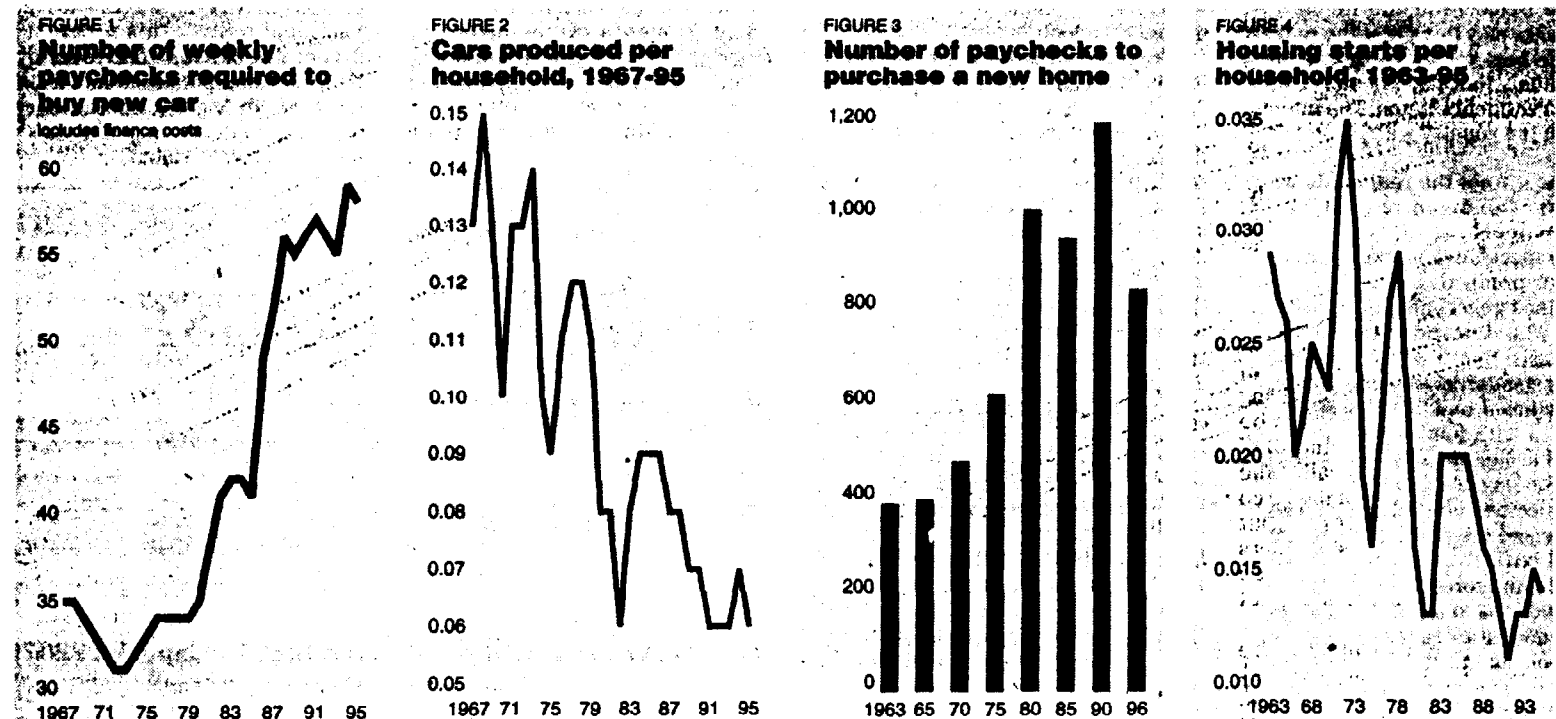

Of lesser consequence, but of importance to me, is the manner in which Premier Tobin seriously misquoted me. In an interview with Peter Gzowski on Morningside, I said that "I couldn't believe it" when the contract for 65 years was announced. I did not say that "a contract for 20 years would have been adequate to secure the risk and investment that Hydro-Quebec was making (sic)." This is an outrageous untruth.

Premier Tobin went on to say, "But, Hydro-Quebec demanded and...according to Eric Kierans, to their astonishment, got, an agreement for a 40-year contract, with a 25-year renewal." This is a completely false statement. I agree with Morgan Stanley's assessment of the risk as requiring a 40-year contract. As for the 25-year option renewal, I know nothing of the reasons for it nor the quid pro quos gained by it.

Churchill Falls was not an unfair agreement nor did the Newfoundland government think so five years later when it bought out Brinco's share for $160 million. The oil crisis and subsequent surging world inflation benefitted the buyers of the power more than the sellers, but that is not a reason for breaking the contract as the Supreme Court has ruled. If Newfoundland's leaders could accept the validity of the Churchill Falls contract, the way would be open for an expanded agreement covering all of Labrador's im-

During the presidential campaign they were telling us we have a healthy, robust economy. If you want to come close to the truth of anything that comes out of the mouths of the media and the politicians, look at it from a 180-degree (opposite) viewpoint and you'll be much closer to the truth.

mense hydro-electric potential. This would be to the great benefit of two provinces that are compelled by geography to live together.

Breaking the contract will cause irreparable damage to Newfoundland's credit and to the bondholders who invested hundreds of millions in Churchill Falls. Tobin is doing great damage to Newfoundland's reputation by even threatening such an irresponsible measure.

By reviving old grievances and creating new divisions and dissension, he is also doing great damage to the Canadian federation. We have more than enough squabbling between provinces and between the federal government and the provinces.

Premier Tobin's current campaign is populist and province-bashing. It encourages Newfoundlanders to see themselves as victims. This is no way to build a productive and competitive economy.

It has been suggested that Premier Tobin is desperately anxious to maintain a national profile. If so, he should return to the federal arena.

AMERICA'S DESIRE FOR BIPARTISANSHIP

From the INTERNET, 11/17/96, [quoting:]

When mainstream journalists tell me during debates that "our news doesn't reflect bias of the left or the right," I ask them if they therefore admit to reflecting bias of the center. Journalists react as if I've uttered an absurdity: "Bias of the center! What's that?"

It is a strange concept to many in the media. They can accept that conservatism or rightism is an ideology that carries with it certain values and opinions, beliefs about the past, goals for the future.

They can accept that leftism carries with it values, opinions, beliefs. But being in the center—being a centrist—is somehow not having an ideology at all. Somehow centrism is not an "ism" carrying with it values, opinions and beliefs."

LEAVE IT TO THE EXPERTS?

Excerpted from THE SPOTLIGHT, 11/18/96, [quoting:]

A U.S. Supreme Court justice wants the public deleted from the only part they have in selecting judges—the election process. "A campaign promise to be 'tough on crime' or to 'enforce the death penalty' is evidence of bias that should disqualify a candidate from sitting in criminal cases," Supreme Court Justice John Paul Stevens said. He likened the election process to "allowing football fans to elect the referees". Most states provide for the election of judges and are occasionally subjected to retention elections. [End quoting]

CONSTITUTION 'SKIMPY'

From THE MODESTO BEE, 10/26/96, [quoting:]

The Constitution is among the most revered documents in American history. Still, it could use a little fleshing out, Supreme Court Justice Ruth Ginsburg says. Ginsburg said the document, written in 1787, doesn't guarantee individual rights such as housing and health care, as do approximately 200 other constitutions written since 1970, around the world. "The Constitution's text is very skimpy on individual rights," she said Thursday at Louisiana State University. "It details only a few." The document instead focuses on preventing government from depriving people of their rights. Ginsburg predicted that attempts to add individual rights to the Constitution would be dealt a defeat "far more stunning" than the Equal Rights Amendment for women, which failed in the 1980s. [End quoting]

Ruth thinks she has more insight than our Founding Fathers. Might there be a hidden agenda here?

OTHERS INVOLVED

Excerpted from THE MODESTO BEE, 10/30/96, [quoting:]

A former copper trader accused of causing large losses for Sumitomo Corp. may implicate executives at the giant Japanese trading house when he pleads guilty to forgery charges, his lawyer said Tuesday. Yasuo Hamanaka, 48, is accused of racking up $2.6 billion in losses in unauthorized deals over 10 years. Sumitomo has repeatedly said Hamanaka acted alone. [End quoting]

Remember that old cliché "I've got a bridge for sale"? If you believe this one I'll give you a deal on 10 bridges. Can you really believe that the Khazarians would not catch someone before it got anywhere near this amount?

Doesn't this look like some of Bush's work with the Gold Contract that Grandma controls? CONTACT has written about this over the last several months.

WANT AD FOR INFORMANTS

From THE CROSSVILLE (Tenn.) CHRONICLE, 9/96, [quoting:]

The 13th Judicial District Drug Task Force is in need of confidential informants who have personal knowledge of the identity of drug dealers in their community. Informants must be able to assist drug agents in making cases. Good pay and complete confidentiality. Call 615-528-5400, Ext. 20 between 5:00 pm and 7:00 pm. [End quoting]

Does anybody see anything wrong with this? The government knows who the dealers are, and they get protection from them unless, for some reason, they want them replaced. Anybody volunteering for this job is probably walking into one the biggest traps of their lives. BEWARE!!

CITY DESTROYED— 80% DIED

Excerpted from a FLYER, [quoting:]

Philosopher Will Durant said we will be destroyed by excessive civilization. A contradiction?

In 1996 America has a 6-week supply of food in storage. Made possible by high tech shipping. Loss of high tech [electricity for computing, pumping facilities for water and all liquid fuels, transportation, refrigeration, heating, etc.] would mean an instant shut-off of food and utilities.

With no water or food what would be the casualties? In 10 days 80% of the population would perish from thirst [no fuel to pump it]. In 10 weeks 95% would succumb. In 6 months 99.999% would be gone. This means our current population of 260 million would collapse to our 1776 population of 2 million. In 10 years it might be the same as Massachusetts in 1620: 40 (Plymouth Rock). True, the 1st settlement was

Jamestown in 1610. All perished. [End quoting]

Do you think it would be a good time to stock up and make preparations? How about getting out of the big cities?

WE HAVE HELD NOTHING BACK!

Excerpted from THE NAVY TIMES, 11/18/96, [quoting:]

"We have held nothing back. I know the people in this agency. There is not one individual who would willfully withhold information that, if released, would be of benefit to those brave men and women who deployed into the desert." —Nora Slatkin, CIA executive director, responding to charges that the CIA has hindered research into the cause of Gulf War Illness. [End quoting]

Have you ever heard such bold-faced lying since the last time Clinton opened his mouth?

ONLY HUMAN?

From ANGELSON EARTH, July/Aug., 1996, Guidesposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512, [quoting:]

To give me a break from cooking—I was eight months pregnant with our third child—my husband, Greg, took our family out to McDonald's for dinner. As we dug into our burgers and fries, Greg started to cough.

"Are you all right?" I asked. Still coughing, he nodded. But his eyes watered and his face reddened. He stood abruptly, leaning on the table, choking. He's got food stuck in his throat. I struggled out of my seat. Lord, I prayed, do something! Greg was turning gray.

"He needs the Heimlich maneuver!" I called out. Suddenly, the door of the restaurant opened and a strong-looking middle-aged woman strode in past the cashiers and other patrons who had just noticed what was happening. The woman stopped right at our table, put her arms around Greg's waist and made a fist. Then she grasped her fist with her other hand and pressed into his abdomen with a quick upward thrust. Out popped a piece of food. A look of relief flooded Greg's face as the woman gently lowered him back into his seat.

I put my arms around his shoulders as he slowly drew in one breath after another. His color came back. "Who was that woman?" Greg asked.

I looked around the restaurant, but the woman was gone. "Did she order takeout?" I asked the cashiers.

"No," they said. She hadn't been a customer. She had appeared as if on assignment and left when her assignment was completed. —Sandy Ridge, Fostoria, Ohio [End quoting]

Angels are available for our help, when we ask them, but they do expect us to do our part. What are we doing here if we expect them to live our lives for us? No matter how much you feel that no one cares or that you are alone—you aren't! Guardian angels are always present.

11/22/96 RAY BILGER

In his autobiography, Land Of The Spotted Eagle, Chief Standing Bear of the Lakotas talked about his experience of attending the Carlisle School in Pennsylvania. This was a White Man's school set up for Indian children. (Quoting:)

The clothing of the White Man, adopted by the Lakota, had much to do with the physical welfare of the tribe, and at Carlisle School, where the change from tribal to White Man's clothing was sudden and direct, the effect on the health and comfort of the children was considerable. Our first resentment was in having our hair cut. It has ever been the custom of Lakota men to wear long hair, and old tribal members still wear the hair in this manner. On first hearing the rule, some of the older boys talked of resisting, but realizing the uselessness of doing so, submitted. But for days after being shorn we felt strange and uncomfortable. If the argument that has been advanced is true, that the children needed delousing, then why were not girls as well as boys put through the same process? The fact is that we were to be transformed, and short hair being the mark of gentility with the White Man, he put upon us the mark, though he still retained his own custom of keeping the hair-covering on his face.

Our second resentment was against trousers, based upon what we considered the best of hygienic reasons. Our bodies were used to constant bathing in the sun, air, and rain, and the function of the pores of our skin, which were in reality a highly developed breathing apparatus, was at once stopped by trousers of heavy, sweat-absorbing material aided by that worst of all torments—red flannel underwear. For the stiff collars, stiff-front shirts, and derby hats no word of praise is due, and the heavy, squeaky, leather boots were positive tormentors which we endured because we thought that when we wore them we were "dressed up". Many times we have been laughed at for our Native way of dressing, but could anything we ever wore compare in utter foolishness to the steel-ribbed corset and the huge bustle which our girls adopted after a few years in school?

Certain small ways and observances sometimes have connection with larger and more profound ideas, and for reasons of this sort the Lakota disliked the pocket handkerchief and found the White Man's use of this toilet article very distasteful. The Indian, essentially an outdoor person, had no use for the handkerchief; he was practically immune to colds, and like the animal, not addicted to spitting. The White Man, essentially an indoor person, was subject to colds, catarrh, bronchitis, and kindred diseases. He was a cougher and a spitter, and his constant use of tobacco aggravated the habit. With him the handkerchief was a toilet necessity. So it is easy to see why the Indian considered the carrying of a handkerchief an uncleanly habit...

To clothe a man falsely is only to distress his spirit and to make him incongruous and ridiculous, and my entreaty to the American Indian is to retain his tribal dress. (End quoting)

The White Man had set up the Carlisle School for the express and specific purpose of changing the Indians. This was nothing less than behavior modification; attempting to make the Indians behave the same as the "civilized" White Man.

Today, the psychological means of controlling children in schools in America is still for behavior modification. In Part XIII of this series, we briefly examined some of the psychological methods employed in America's schools today. Since this effects every family in America with children of school age, a more in-depth examination of the methods currently used is in order.

In Part XIII we mentioned the creation of psychological conflict within the student, also known as cognitive dissonance. Cognitive dissonance was defined as "a psychological conflict resulting from incongruous beliefs and attitudes held simultaneously." This condition can be brought about by presenting the student with enough so-called "factual knowledge" so that the values inculcated by the family, or by religious institutions, are brought into question. This then can produce the desired psychological conflict, as the student must ultimately make a choice between opposing "authorities". The assumption is that, once cognitive dissonance is achieved, a change in attitude or behavior will follow.

Peer, or group, pressure can be intentionally heightened to get a child to do what behaviorist educators want the child to do, and perhaps to think the way they want the child to think. Later on, other educators can work to get the child to avoid peer pressure. Obviously, this creates more conflict within the student, and is yet another opportunity to induce cognitive dissonance. Is it any wonder that those who strongly oppose the educational system in America today consider cognitive dissonance to be one of the most "dangerous teaching strategies" known? Yet the National Institute of Education (now part of the Office of Educational Research and Improvement of the U.S. Dept. of Education) published a document entitled, "The Place of Psychology in a National Institute of Education", wherein they confirmed that cognitive dissonance, inducing psychological conflicts in order to "cure" them, is considered valid at the highest levels of government!!

The Education Professions Development Act of 1967 was to provide funds to local education agencies to attract and train teachers who were at the time in short supply. By the early 1970s, these funds were being used by the U.S. Office of Education "to award grants to colleges and universities for the training of change agents." The University of Michigan was the largest recipient of these funds as it was the official Center for Teacher Education Research.

In 1971, Clyde Hall, of Savannah State College, Savannah, Georgia, published his important paper, "How to Implement Change". In his paper, Mr. Hall explained the "science of planned change":

"In a managed change process an outside agent is usually involved which is referred to as a 'change agent' and the population with which it works is called the 'client system'."

Hall's paper went on to discuss "programming" and "de-programming" of attitudes. However, he was not talking about students' attitudes, he was talking about teachers' attitudes! Teacher training was being completely revamped between 1967 and 1974 to reflect the new behavioral teaching goals and strategies. Teachers were being led to believe that "coping skills" were more important than subject matter, and that in the end, this would help the students to learn better! The change agent would only be withdrawn when "the new attitudes are stabilized". (Wasn't there a rock-music song called I've Got a New Attitude?) Between 1973 and 1974, the Rand Corporation was commissioned by the U.S. Office of Education to produce seven volumes of "Change Agent Studies".

Jimmy Carter was elected President in 1976, and immediately fulfilled one of his campaign promises by combining the National Education Association, the Educational Testing Service, the work of the Carnegie Foundation, and the rest of the behaviorist education establishment into a Cabinet-level agency called the U.S. Department of Education. Education had been part of the Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare (H.E.W.), but the media and public focus on the educational problem (apparently caused by the behaviorists) was the signal for the behaviorist establishment to move for a Cabinet-level agency. This would enable them to really "reform" education! There are many people who believe that this entire move was a carefully orchestrated set-up, and there is substantial documentation to support this view.

On a more weird, but no less important, note, the May 1977 issue of The School Counselor, a magazine aimed at professional counselors, ran an article promoting death education. The article by Audrey Gordon and Dennis Klass stated in part:

"As in the case of many other problems, many Americans believe that education can initiate change. Death education will play as important a part in changing attitudes toward death as sex education played in changing attitudes toward sex information and wider acceptance of various sexual practices." (pg. 346)

But how many of America's parents really believe that sex education for young children is good? It seems that this, like all else today, is crammed down our throats whether we want it or not. It makes one wonder how in the world we've gotten to the point where they can publish such magazines. Have we lost our eternal vigilance?

The men and women who have conceived and accomplished the re-design of the American educational system are, primarily, psychologists who specialize in the behavioral sciences. These psychologists might well say about the above information that evil is in the eye of the beholder. But this is precisely the case against psychological manipulation in the classroom. It amounts to, at best, nothing more than poorly controlled experimentation. It is a methodology which can be, and is, easily abused. And who suffers the consequences? The children!!

With the level of technology in existence today, it is possible for the Elite One World Controllers to program individual responses without our conscious level of awareness knowing it is happening. Electronic equipment exists which can be set up near a television transmitter to send out subliminal messages. The wavelength of the television broadcast frequency is used as a "carrier wave", to carry the subliminal messages. Insidious? Unconscionable? Yes, of course. But also a very effective means of controlling the masses. And these techniques are becoming more sophisticated all the time!

We already know about behavior modification by the use of E.L.F. waves in the range of 10 cycles-per-second, the same as the Alpha Waves of the human brain. But did you know about timing voices or musical beats to the rhythm of the human heartbeat, 72 pulses per minute, to control behavior? An article in the June/July 1993 issue of Exposure magazine, by Susan Bryce stated, in part:

"Data on the relationship between heartbeats and suggestibility reveals that music or voice timed to the rhythm of the human heart beat of 72 pulses per minute, can affect human behavior... Experimental commercials prepared using 72 beats per minute as pacing for drumbeats, music, and voice have been tested in a special theater with a random audience of housewives and husbands. The advertisement was for a new analgesic (in this case, a remedy for the relief of headaches). Results showed that, had the analgesic commercial been broadcast to the roughly 30 million people watching N.B.C. Evening News, five million would have developed headaches within three hours of viewing it."

Anyone getting a headache from this? You may want to think seriously about turning off the television set the next time you see an advertisement for aspirin or, for that matter, any other drug advertisement. Just think of it this way: when you buy the aspirin, included in the price is the cost you are paying for the advertising which may have given you the headache in the first place! Now there's a vicious cycle if there ever was one.

Our own United States Senate has paid lip-service to condemning all this, but it doesn't appear that there has been any real change other than escalation of the use of the advanced technologies of control. Do you think our own Congress is being used as part of the mind control of the American public? In 1973, Senator Sam Ervin, the head of the Senate subcommittee on behavior modification, said:

"(B)ehavioral technology...in the United States today touches upon the most basic sources of individuality, and the very core of personal freedom. To my mind the most serious threat...is the power this technology gives one man to impose his views and values on another... If our society is to remain free, one man must not be empowered to change another man's personality and dictate the values, thoughts, and feelings of others."

The problem, however, in part, is that society is not free today, nor was it free in 1973 when Sen. Sam Ervin spoke those words. To the contrary, we experience only ever more stringent measures of control, and many of those measures were already firmly in place by 1973!

Today, because the masses by and large cannot comprehend the fact that they are being mind controlled and manipulated at every turn, they do not believe it is happening, and even laugh at those who point it out. And because these techniques are applied gradually over time, the people adapt as best they can to tolerate all of it until the pressure becomes so great that they

"crack up". The masses, for the most part, do not know how to cry out for help, or how to organize together to defend themselves against the psychological menace. How could they, if they do not comprehend that such a menace exists?

No examination of the subject of mind control/behavior modification would be complete without touching upon the subject of religion. Religion is one of the strongest and most potent means of controlling the masses. This is so because of humanity's natural inclination toward asking the questions, Who am I? Why am I here? Was I created? Is there a God? Every intelligent human being eventually ponders at least one of these questions. It may not happen until the second half of life, as we all work our way toward whatever awaits us at the end of this incredible journey we call the human experience.

Thus, this provides our Controllers with the perfect opportunity for something called religion to attempt to define the answers to these questions. Different religions are adapted to different peoples and different locations around the world, but they can be found everywhere.

Christianity is the predominant religion of the Western "civilized" world. As explained in Part VIII of this series, the Bible (or the so-called story and teachings of Jesus) was translated to the English language in the year 1611 by that great Controller of England, King James I. This particular translation avoided earlier Biblical references to reincarnation, thus leaving us with the impression that this particular time of experiencing is all there is. We get one go-around and this is it. As well, and in fact worse, we are now led to believe that we need not be responsible for our own actions, because Jesus will save us! This, along with other aspects of religious indoctrination, has produced a very effective environment for those who now control the world. This was explained further in Part VIII of this series, along with a basic overview of Global Plan 2000.

The New Age movement provides an alternative approach to orthodox religion and has been fully planned, orchestrated and implemented by the major think tanks of the Elite One World Controllers. While the world teeters on the brink of total disaster, New Agers meditate on light and love, fully expecting that the problems of the world will correct themselves. This is exactly what the World Controllers want: no "real" opposition to their plans. We do need light and love, but these must be coupled with responsible actions!

If we can be programmed, then we can be deprogrammed. This, of necessity, can only be done once we make the conscious effort to deprogram ourselves. And this can only come about once we have come to the realization and admitted to ourselves that we have been programmed; that we have allowed the deceitful and clever Elite One World Controllers to program us. If we can only do this, then we may yet stand a chance of turning this mess around.

All of what has been presented herein about behavior modification/mind control includes weather modification (hurricanes, tornadoes, downpours, floods, droughts, extreme heat and extreme cold), geophysical manipulation (earthquakes and volcanos), the H.A.A.R.P. system, the G.W.E.N. system, television, radio, magazines, newspapers, (fake) elections, opinion polls, religion, even the Congress; basically, it includes everything. Everything has been twisted and then used for its ability to control our minds and our behavior. This is where we stand as a society, in America and the world, and it presents a staggering challenge just to comprehend it, let alone do something about it.

Lest the reader misunderstand the intentions of this author, let us make things perfectly clear. This author is NOT anti-government, and never has been! This author (and this paper, CONTACT) has never been anti or against government and is not today. I am, however, opposed to those who circumvent or ignore the mandate of the Constitution for the United States of America, which clearly established a republican form of government, of, by, and for The People! In the constitutional arrangement set up by our Nation's Founders, The People are sovereign, i.e., The People are the one and only source of all power in government. The People are the ultimate Authority. It is a disgrace to our Nation's Founders that those now in power in "Our" government in Washington, D.C., are part of what we term the New World Order, bent on destroying all national sovereignty to be replaced by a One World State. This New World Order seeks to impose total control over all citizens, by whatever means are deemed necessary, in total disregard of Our Constitution, which all government officials have taken an Oath to uphold and defend!

The whole purpose of this author in writing this series is to inform and enlighten The People of America to the fact that, if they do not soon awaken in sufficient numbers to take back our Nation from the Evil Elite One World Controllers, bent on destroying America and her citizens, and the world, then there will soon be no reason to awaken because we will be hopelessly enslaved to the One World Government and there will be no turning back from our plight. We only have the opportunity to turn things around now. When our "facade" government is shut down and we are under Martial Law, with U.N. troops in the streets and food only available on a daily basis at special distribution centers, it will be too late to correct things. True, anything is possible, but it will be virtually impossible at that time to get ourselves back under the Constitution. That Constitution will be dead and buried!! Is that what we want? Well, that is what we shall soon have, unless we act now!

We temporarily left off in our chronological presentation of The Untold History of America in Part VIII of this series, so that we could examine the above subjects which are impacting heavily upon us at this time. When we left off, we were in the year 1954 and had just discussed the C.I.A.-conducted overthrow of the legitimate government of Guatemala, and the Internal Revenue Code, implemented in the same year.

A brief list of some of the more notable governments toppled by the C.I.A. from 1952 to 1974 would include: 1952—Egypt; 1953—Iran; 1954—Guatemala; 1960—Laos; 1960—Zaire; 1960-61—Korea; 1963—Dominican Republic; 1963—Vietnam; 1964—Bolivia; 1964—Brazil; 1965—Indonesia; 1966—Ghana; 1967—Greece; 1970—Cambodia; 1971—Bolivia; 1973—Chile.

In each case, the individual country's legitimately elected leaders in power were not cooperating with the multinational corporations or the major oil companies seeking favorable investment climates. And each time, the C.I.A. intervened to support the powerful monied interests, killing whoever got in the way of their financial objectives. It is also significant to note that the C.I.A. is the largest drug dealer in the world, now controlling most illegal drug markets worldwide.

In February of 1954, Morse Allen, the head of C.I.A. Project Artichoke (mind control), simulated the creation of a "Manchurian Candidate", or programmed assassin. Mr. Allen put one C.I.A. secretary into a hypnotic trance, and then hypnotized a second secretary, telling her that, if she could not wake the first secretary, her "rage would be so great she would not hesitate to kill". Even though the second secretary had earlier expressed a fear of firearms, she picked up a nearby, unloaded gun and pulled the trigger in an attempt to kill her friend.

In April of 1954, the U.S. Supreme Court affirmed the right of states to suspend physicians' licenses for belonging to a blacklisted (allegedly Communist) organization. The witch-hunt was still on for Communists as we were entering the early years of what would eventually become the long Cold War. You will be seeing this kind of activity continue.

In May of 1954, U.S. Postmaster General Summerfield approved the policy of allowing the C.I.A. to open mail under Project HT-Lingual. Do you suppose Mr. Summerfield would have retained his job if he had disallowed the C.I.A. policy? It is probably more true that someone who has attained such a high position knows how to "go along to get along"! This project was simply more evidence of increasing prying into the domestic affairs of We-The-People. Whether it was for supposedly routing out suspected Communists, or for some contrived "national security" purpose, it was a clear indication that our basic constitutionally guaranteed rights and freedoms were slowly and continuously being eroded away.

Also in May of 1954, a memo from the Attorney General concluded that Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.) break-ins to do wiretap work did not violate the Fourth Amendment since "internal security and the national safety...may compel the unrestricted use of this technique..." What we see here is the continuing unrestricted infringement and encroachment upon the constitutional checks We-The-People maintained in order to keep our government officials honest and forthright. What we have witnessed is the gradual deterioration of the legitimate functioning of government, with a corresponding increase in clandestine operations and activities conducted against the civilian population. America was on a downhill slide and we were too distracted to know it was happening.

Also in May of 1954, a memo from the Joint Chiefs of Staff regarding Indo-China (Southeast Asia) recommended using atomic weapons if they were considered to be "militarily advantageous". This was the area that included Vietnam, and was being watched closely for "Communist" activity. Those counties could start playing dominos and we would hate to see them fall!

Fortunately for us, not everyone in the government was sucked in by the corruption! In June of 1954, Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer failed to get his security clearance renewed with the Atomic Energy Commission because he opposed the development of the H-Bomb.

Is New World Order Agenda About To Shift Into High Gear?

Editor's note: The following three short documents were all received recently at the CONTACT offices and carry the common thread/theme of upcoming assertive actions on the part of the crooks in high places to subdue we "useless eaters". While we cannot verify this information, the prudent path to take is in the sharing. As always, please read with discernment, common sense, and always keeping uppermost in mind that CONTACT does not ever promote or even condone any form of violent confrontation or re-action to the provocations of the Elite would-be controllers. Getting informed, though, is the most sensible and powerful action you can take!

COMING INVASION OF AMERICA

Posted by Roger D. Cravens
(rogl@CCDOSAI.EM.GOV)

The following is most of the message printed in The Prophecy Club Newsletter dated Nov./Dec.1996. For reprints and newsletters call or write the above at Box 750234, Topeka, KS 66675 or call 913-478-1112.

From intelligence sources in Canada and New England: Preparations for the COMING INVASION OF AMERICA by Russian/NWO FORCES are progressing rapidly in Canada! As candidly admitted to me by many Canadians (including author and lecturer Grant Jeffery of Final Warning and many other books explaining the coming New World Order takeover). Canada is totally sold out to the NWO and its heinous agenda of world domination.

America has long been a thorn in the flesh of NWO planners because of our Christian and patriot heritage and its isolation from Europe. With little over three years left to move this Western Hemisphere into their NWO agenda by the year 2,000, they are making rapid use of Canada's willingness to betray America into their control.

How is this taking place? Canada has opened her doors wide to NWO military forces, including GERMAN, RUSSIANS AND CHINESE. As Grant Jeffery admitted to me personally one month ago, "...we have more German military forces in Canada now than we do Canadian military forces!" Indeed, for next to Dease (sic) Lake, Canada, Germans have been handed a military air base for their use. They are actively practicing bombing and strafing runs for the coming invasion of America... much as they are doing down at Holloman AFB, which has been permanently turned over to the Germans, in New Mexico.

The traitorous NWO elements within our own government are fully aware of the motives of these German NWO forces both in Canada and America and welcome their presence into the Western Hemisphere as part of the solution to subduing patriotic Americans who simply refuse to surrender national sovereignty to a foreign power.

Russian and Chinese forces are also very active in Canada. They are "rebuilding and strengthening railroad tracks for the anticipated heavy use of railway transportation of incoming military personnel from the West Coast" (both Russian and Chinese forces) as well as transporting military vehicles and armaments and food supplies. New tracks are also being laid between [US] border states and Canada.

Those people who are arrested as resisters or dissidents will also be transported in specially prepared prisoner boxcars to the death camps already established near the border, such as the one near Cut Bank, MT. The death camp outside of Cut Bank has been conveniently located right off a major AMTRAK express line in the anticipation of transporting resisters and dissidents conveniently to their deaths, by rail.

Reports have been received from INTEL sources nationwide which indicate that boxcars are quietly being renovated from the inside so that they can be used for prisoner transport to such death camps.

Preparations noted by eye-witnesses include shackles being bolted into the walls to restrain those taken prisoner until they reach their final destination. From our intelligence source in Florida, we know that Russian train engineer experts are already being trained in how to operate American engines and how our rail system functions.

Fax received at the CONTACT offices 11/14/96, from Serge Monast:

RED ALERT; SENSITIVE REPORT "RED IRON—FEMA PLAN"

Very highly secretive United Nations Military information never released before:

TOP CONFIDENTIAL at high political level

Concerns RUSSIAN OCCUPATION OF U.S. TERRITORY under United Nations Military Command... FEMA—U.N. Multi-jurisdictional police/military operation with foreign troops "to neutralize all Patriotic Organizations in America before the end of 1997".

FEMA canceled their scheduled August/September 1996 "exercises" and changed it to the period between January-March 1997 which link to Philadelphia Phase III to start in Eastern Canada during the same period... High ranking politicians and military involved... Which will be the main highways to be used from Mexico (Mexico in now on the edge of a major social/political crisis due to famine). What is the "war agenda" of the U.N. in this joint police/military operation? Which are the areas targeted?

Want to know more? Stay in close contact with the International Free Press Agency in Canada. Special complete report (Philadelphia Phase III) will be available by January 1997 for $20.00 U.S. Reserve now by sending a check or M.O. to Serge Monast, POB 359, Mansonville, Quebec, Canada J0E1X0.

Because I dared to release Philadelphia Phase III, I've lost my seven-year-old son to the Eastern Canadian authorities during the middle of September 1996. This is why some have not yet received the report they ordered.

Over 800 people I have been in contact with do not know what is happening to me and why they have not received anything from me since September 1996.

My seven-year-old son is a very sensitive child who has never been separated from his parents before and who does not understand why he has been turned over to strangers. Not only can he be severely traumatized for the rest of his life from this vicious action but he can fall sick to the hospital if nothing is done soon.

The following was received at the CONTACT offices via FAX forwarding from Peter Kawaja, (quoting:)

OKLAHOMA CITY: DAY ONE

The book Oklahoma City: Day One by Michele Marie Moore with a foreword by me, William Cooper, has broken the conspiracy of silence surrounding the true facts of the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building. Soon after the release of Oklahoma City: Day One in Oklahoma witnesses who have held silence for over a year began to talk... and talk loud. Police officers, firemen, FBI agents, ATF agents, victims, and witnesses from all walks of life began coming forward with their testimony, documentation, photographs, and other evidence.

Thursday, November 14th, on an unprecedented 2 1/2 hour broadcast of my, William Cooper's, The Hour of The Time, Major Michele Marie Moore, who was the station chief of Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, and Arkansas for the Intelligence Service of the Second Continental Army of the Republic, Militia, when the bombing occurred, and who headed the investigation into the true facts of the bombing, revealed new evidence that has been withheld by the Intelligence Service. I and Michele Marie Moore completely lifted the veil of the cover-up during the broadcast.

Among the revelations were the proof of at least two (possibly more) explosions... the worst of which were detonated INSIDE the building. The existence of photographs which prove that a huge crater was blasted INSIDE the building that extended several floors BELOW ground level in a part of the building where no lower floors were supposed to exist. Large holes in walls 5 feet or more in diameter that were blown in consecutive walls that were built north to south, meaning the force of that explosion was exerted in an east/west axis. There were at least three Tim McVeigh look-alikes involved... and it is not clear which one is currently in custody. That there were at least two John Doe #2 look-alikes... and that John Doe #2 or his look-alike is ABSOLUTELY an agent of the United States Government. A photograph exists taken just before the bomb detonated which clearly shows Bob Ricks (FBI) in friendly conversation with John Doe #2. The FBI, BATF, Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, the Oklahoma City Police Department, the Oklahoma City Fire Department, and the United States Marshal Service knew about the bombing in advance... some for as long as two years. McVeigh, John Doe #2, Terry Nichols, and James Nichols were under surveillance for as long as two years before the bombing. Governor Keating knew about the bombing in advance.

There were men moving around inside the building with flashlights from room to room covering the third and fourth floors all night before the bombs went off the next morning. There were ATF, FBI, Oklahoma City police, Fire Department personnel, and the Oklahoma City Bomb Squad present at the Murrah Federal building from approximately 5:30 am that morning and most of them were present when the bomb actually detonated at 9:02 am. Louis Freeh, FBI Director was present in Oklahoma City the morning of the bombing along with at least 30 FBI agents from all over the nation.

So far, 9 material witnesses who were in some process of releasing information that would have exposed this to the American people are now dead... some more obviously murdered. Bob Ricks is actively writing letters, memos, and sending faxes which threaten witnesses and blatantly order them to shut up or else. The Intelligence Service is in possession of these Bob Ricks communications. Names were named, sources and documentation was cited. I, William Cooper, several times made this statement during the broadcast: "We know who you are... and we saw what you did... you are going down... and it is the Militia who is taking you down... you are going to prison for many years... anyone who had a part in this bombing or who has information who does not come out now is going down with you."

Within 24 hours of the broadcast the dam burst; people began coming out of the woodwork like rats deserting a sinking ship: police officers, firemen, 2 BATF agents, and 2 FBI agents met with 20/20 producers and testified to what they knew. 20/20 has informed us that it will tentatively be aired Friday, November 22, (significant number in the mysteries 11+22=33)... which means that it could be an attempt at damage control... futile in this instance. The Intelligence Service has been flooded with calls and contacts, all wanting to come clean.

In light of the above, I have been ordered to relay this order from the Commanding General Second Continental Army of the Republic to the Intelligence Service: All members of this command are hereby ordered to obey.

William Cooper
Director, Intelligence Service
Second Continental Army of the Republic

Message follows:

The Militia of the United States of America and of the several States is hereby ordered to full Red Alert status until further notice.

Investigation by the Intelligence Service and analysis of the facts presented to the Command Staff indicate that it is clear that the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on April 19, 1995 was an intentional act of terrorism brought about by persons within the United States Government for the purpose of furthering a political agenda against the Constitution of the United States of America and the First Ten Amendments, known collectively as the Bill of Rights.

All who participated, or who had advance knowledge, are guilty of TREASON [or Misprision of Treason].

Clashes Occur When Misguided Paths Cross

11/22/96 #1 HATONN

ENEMIES AMONG US, AND ENCOUNTERS OF THE WORST KIND AIDS AND CANCER (Basically the SAME thing)

Yes, indeed I know your frustrations while trying to find something which can assist in healing once the ravages of these dis-eases strike. I also know first hand the rash and authoritative persons who cause irrational TROUBLE when we speak of things which disagree with their "studied" expertise. I also know the ones who will attend revenge for assumed slights until their dying day. So be it.

The last blast came when I said that Zita, Rick Martin's mother, has to have protein of the meat or dairy product quality lest she actually become a cripple and expires because she chooses to no longer live in the hell of pain and crippled body. I said she, and anyone with AIDS or CANCER, needs at least 14 to 16 ounces of whole protein. I also said that I do not EVER like totally vegetarian diets because you DO NOT KNOW WHAT YOU ARE DOING! I also said that anyone can do anything they choose regarding this subject, their diets, their assumptions, their "expertise" and their wishes at revenge. But it will backfire for it is also said that I wouldn't be able to find a single fact or recommendation from any, especially physicians, backing my attitude or opinion. I responded that I need no "expert authority" but "aren't you sick yet of dying unnecessarily in pain and crippled states of ill-repair?" I guess not because the flap is right here among those who have, fortunately for us, chosen to discontinue visiting with ME and moved away only to continue to attend and stir pots of discontent among families and former "friends" with great wisdom and "see I told you he was nuts!"-types of input.

So, for you people who "can't possibly be wrong", I submit the following.

[QUOTING:]

Dr. Stacey J. Bell, also RD:

PARADE, Nov. 10, 1996

[H: I only plan to give you the tiny summary and you can get a copy of the full paper as you wish. I am neither a dietitian, M.D. or librarian researcher.]

FOR THE HIV-POSITIVE (AND CANCER) VICTIM
FOOD MAY BE THE BEST MEDICINE

For the last 25 years, doctors have discovered that patients with cancer or heart disease need extra nourishment, including twice as much protein as healthy individuals—the equivalent of 14 ounces of hamburger a day. Now Stacey J. Bell, a research dietitian at Harvard Medical School, is applying that knowledge to patients with HIV, the AIDS virus (and diagnosed Cancer patients).

"We learned so much before AIDS even came on the planet," Bell told PARADE. "Malnutrition exists in many conditions, and we have had 25 years to figure out how to treat it. Everything that happens to AIDS patients is experimental EXCEPT FOR THIS."

The body responds as it does to a burn, tumor or surgery, Bell explained. It begins to break down the protein stored in the muscles. The HIGH-PROTEIN diet she recommends in her new book, Positive Nutrition for HIV Infection and AIDS (Chronimed Publishing), shows this process. Patients are instructed to eat enough to avoid weight loss, which occurs in 98% of HIV cases. Bell also urges them to IGNORE FRIENDS WHO SUGGEST AVOIDING MEAT, EGGS AND FAT. "I TELL THEM, 'GET OVER THE MYTHS. BROWN RICE AND FASTING WON'T CUT IT IF YOU HAVE THESE DISEASES."

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, all you vegetarians: I DO NOT CARE WHAT YOU CHOOSE TO DO FOR YOURSELF. HOWEVER, I am going to stand squarely between you and Zita Morris until she can have time to heal herself and hopefully regain muscle and skeletal strength. You can do whatever YOU want. SHE ASKED ME! There are a few people, though, who think they sort of own the world, other people's premises, and are totally welcome to butt into anybody and everybody's business as the sum total last word in knowing. No, these people are trouble-makers and stir "revenge" pots when crossed in any possible countering of their authority or expertise. Beware of these HELPERS lest they kill you by the treatment programs. There is a rather fun old saying: "If God had wanted you to only eat grass he would have birthed you an elephant or a cow."

I have bothered to offer this input because yesterday I told Brent Moorhead that I would most certainly find a reference and offer it to Dharma for this very purpose—of proving that at least one other "idiot" and, as Ence called ME: "asshole", agrees with me. Sorry, Dr. Bell.

Perhaps my real question might be: Why do people who so hatefully dislike me continue to work among the staff? My goodness, if you don't like something why not simply STAY AWAY FROM IT—unless of course, you ARE THE carrier of information to the enemy camp???

Nobody around here causes anybody to do ANYTHING they don't wish to do. This is no organization of some sort touting communal and/or blind insanity.

I further suggest, however, that BUSINESS matters will be handled EXACTLY LIKE BUSINESS AFFAIRS SHOULD BE HANDLED and it doesn't include gossiping and prattling everything you know and welcoming aboard people who come and go like they own a place—when they have no business being there AT ALL.

Everything about the business will be phased out entirely from Tehachapi except for incidental people who make contributions. ALL BUSINESS will be handled ONLY through Las Vegas—even for items which ordinarily could be picked up from friends here. These same wonderful “friends” have contacted, AGAIN, the franchise tax board, the State people, the IRS, the FBI and on and on and on—in their silly games of cover their own dirty hands. I can start with Ence and run through his sister-in-law Tammy and, yes, THEY have named a couple of people who probably didn’t mean much damage—or at the least mean to be CAUGHT.

Ms. Beam has entered court documents naming Clark, Cleary and Linn. That is NOT “my” doing. We also understand that Mike B. isn’t “speaking to us”. Well, I guess not—so Ekker, send him and Cleary a billing for the funds invested in their trips to the Philippines and Austria. We PURCHASED $8 million in funding (FROM THEM) which was privately raised from family members, plus the Institute paid for travel and expenses. They kiss us off? FINE! THE MOST UNFORTUNATE (KISSOFF), HOWEVER, IS FROM US FOR WE HAVE THE ABILITY TO REACH THROUGH TO THOSE VERY PLACES NOW AND GET FUNDING. Perhaps they were not EVER capable of anything save “conning” honest people. Are they no longer on the side of God and Country? No, they never were. Do you see how people flippantly volunteer to “do anything” and “serve” and blather, blather, blather—UNTIL THEY ARE CROSSED IN ANY WAY WHATSOEVER—LIKE ASKED TO BE HONEST AND HAVE INTEGRITY?

Now, let us consider a bit further: NO funds were pulled from the Institute or anything else, SAVE THOSE OF FAMILY CHILDREN MEMBERS, to “invest”. However, backup travel funds, in exchange for more investment and funding, was agreed upon to come “IF NEEDED” (but assurance was given of “no need”). All of you know the rest of the tale. Some travel funds were supplied to Cleary who later was a high-ranking member of the Board of Directors, and Ence was involved AS PRESIDENT of the Phoenix Institute Board of Directors. Other funds were borrowed by Ekker from a party in Greece, and thousands of dollars were charged to Ekker’s only credit card: American Express. This card was the ONLY remaining convenient credit available to Ekkers and that little trick—while they were “accused” of being paid by the CIA—ruined their entire credit status. There was a DIRECT effort to charge a total of over $35,000. Now, is this GODLY? Is THIS what brings the big KISSOFF when “caught”? YES INDEED. Just “kiss you off” and run away and hide! Then they methodically do everything they can to cause trouble, inconvenience and misery. Well, when you are honest and act with total integrity—all the investigators turn up are the indiscretions of the betrayers. They all come rushing like hogs to the truffles only to meekly apologize and go their way—back after the ones who falsely turned “us” in. Good luck, little quackers, because the “big boys” are now hunting ducks in YOUR PONDS.

Oh yes, we KNOW that you CUTE ADVERSARIES have your direct instructions for destroying the Ekker-Ekker/Phoenix Institute from George Green and Jason Brent—but it wasn’t too wise to have such dirty, dirty hands when you started the processing. YOU ARE THE GUILTY PARTIES AND SURELY YOU KNEW IT WOULD CATCH UP WITH YOU. Remember always: GOD HAS ALL THE TIME WITHIN INFINITY—YOU DO NOT!

A good thing to remember, people, is that YOU must walk the path YOU PREPARE. If it is terrible in its traveling—perhaps you should have studied your construction processes a bit more carefully. You are each STUCK with the foundation you LAY. God offers the construction guidelines and blueprints—but you contractors always get crosswise and know more. So be it. You are each going to be left with the rewards in the bag you have woven. If your weavings are rotted, your bag will only hold the troubles along your way—and they will surely fall out when the bag has failed.

Is God a hard taskmaster? YES!

I wonder what their footprint pathway looks like and how often God is pushed aside for the moment of physical tribulation and “dislikes”?

[QUOTING:]

FOOTPRINTS IN THE SAND

“Lord, you told me when I decided to follow YOU, You would walk and talk with me all the way. But I’m aware that during the most troublesome times of my Life there is only one set of footprints.

I just don’t understand why, when I needed You most, You leave me.”

He whispered, “My precious child, I love you and will never leave you...”

When you saw only one set of foot-prints it was then that I carried you.”

[END OF QUOTING]

So, WHO leaves WHOM?

God never leaves anyone but most turn away from God the minute TRUTH and conduct are somehow against YOUR “rathers”. I repeat something else, friends, from the Master Teacher and it certainly suffices for me and MY STANCE: “If you deny me then I shall deny you before my Father who has sent me.” AND: “Many come but few are chosen—because the multitudes cannot even keep their word.”

So, the groupies complain about God being somehow misused and abused in such places as OURS? What place? Are YOU sure you actually mean GOD? It appears to me that if you simply LOOK at the Commandments and the Golden Rule—you would realize that GOD does not sanction lies, cheating, false witness, traitors, treasonists, or intentional damage because YOU ARE WRONG and wish to cover your assets.

You then go forth and call yourselves “Christians” which gives CHRIST a terrible reputation of being WORSE in THE LIE than is the honest sorcerer Satanist.

I AM A CHRIST BEING—AND IT CERTAINLY DOES NOT SEEM TO FIT THE DESCRIPTION OF HARDLY ANY RELIGIONS I HAVE WITNESSED THUS FAR.

FARRAKHAN

The next thing I get is the label of being somehow Black Muslim. Say what? I BELIEVE IN GOD OF CREATOR/ CREATION and, apart from my connection WITH that SOURCE, I bear no label at all.

No, I do not believe in “THE” physical pronouncements nor most of the claimed desires of the special group—OF ANY KIND.

I KNOW, HOWEVER, THAT LOUIS FARRAKHAN WILL BE REMEMBERED IN SOME FUTURE TIME AS ONE OF THE MOST “IMPORTANT” PEOPLE TO HAVE WALKED THE WALK WITH YOU OF THIS “TIME”. BUT ANY LEADER WHO IS BACKED BY EXTREME VIEWS and CAUSES, CANNOT FORCE CONTROL UPON ANYONE—MOST ESPECIALLY THE ONES MOST OFTEN OFFENDED BY SOCIETAL STRUCTURES AS THOSE WHICH OPPRESS THEM.

Now, I feel it only right to enter into this writing a directly reprinted page from the accepted paper of Muslim publications. I ask that “THE MUSLIM PROGRAM; What Muslims Want and What Muslims Believe”, published in EVERY paper issued of: THE FINAL CALL as presented by the leader of the “faith”, The Honorable Elijah Muhammad, be reprinted here [see next page].

By the way, and Louis knows this; he has traitors and betrayers right in his house and within his closest associates. Again, it simply is the way it IS. It has ever been thus and shall ever be in a human, physical environment finally controlled by Evil intent. And remember, people: HELL is but the ABSENCE OF GOD. And, ETERNITY is a very, very, long, long TIME. So, you had better check out “your angels” assigned by the physical do-gooders—for they will NEVER bring forth YOUR ANGEL. They, obviously, cannot bring forth THEIR OWN. Why would you even consider another’s opinion of what angel you might need? Must you leave everything to fate and magic? Can’t you even take responsibility for recognizing your OWN ANGEL GUIDES?

YOU will remain people of the lie—UNTIL YOU BECOME RESPONSIBLE FOR TRUTH.

Dharma, I don’t think I wish to write more this morning for I think this topic deserves a LOT of thought for individual considerations. I am NOT here to serve my adversary—EVER! If YOU are my adversary—you are NOT among my friends. When you stop your silly gagging—and grow up, you might FIND GOD QUITE AGREEABLE AND RECEPTIVE TO YOUR OPINIONS. I do not present AS God, but only to serve and bring TRUTH in GOD. You do anything you want to do—but to SAY WITH YOUR LIPS THAT YOU SERVE GOD OF LIGHT—WHILE PRACTICING WRONG INTENT AND ACTIONS—TELLS THE TRUTH ABOUT YOU—EVERY TIME.

May the choices you make, serve you well—for the time of choosing final pathways and actions, is upon you. GOD WILL LEAVE THOSE CHOICES IN YOUR HEARTS AND MINDS FOR, AGAIN, HE HAS ALL THE “TIME” IN THE UNIVERSE—YOU DO NOT! You who have souls which reside in truth and love, in intent, also have all the TIME in the infinite universe. Do you HAVE TO AGREE with me? Yes, because except through these Laws I serve, you shall not make it into the Kingdom of God of perfection for Evil has no place within that Universal place of order and perfection. Evil is left to the physical expressions and “bound soul” spirits.

Do you think God to be boring and acutely pious? Forget it. RELIGIONS ARE BORING and FALSE—God offers all the excitement of creation and experience. When you know the difference—YOU WILL HAVE “ARRIVED”.

I realize that this is pointed at the people and government of the United States of America and no, I do not accept replacing bad structures by simply changing the force which enables tyranny. This, however, does NOT mean that the TRUTH is less “truth” because I, or you, do not agree with the entirety of a given “program”.

By the way, “important” does NOT mean “greatest”. Adolf Hitler was “important”—HE WAS NOT “GREAT”. George Bush is “important”—he is Not “great”. The Christed beings were GREAT and IMPORTANT. The likes of a Henry Kissinger are NEITHER IMPORTANT NOR GREAT—AS THE PLAY UNFOLDS. They are disrupters and corrupted, evil persons. They serve the Evil Empire, no more; no less. The REALLY GREAT personages are rarely even “heard of” in their life-span, BUT, their history remains forever. EVIL CANNOT PUT DOWN TRUTH AND GOODNESS; IT IS UNIVERSAL LAW FOR THE EVIL PRESENTATIONS AND PERSENTERS—DO NOT CHANGE ONE IOTA OF TRUTH WITH THEIR PRATTINGS AND VOTINGS. THEY ONLY MAKE IT “APPEAR” TO BE OTHERWISE BUT THERE IS NO FOUNDATION UPON WHICH LIES CAN STAND FOREVER FOR, IN THE ENDING, GOD PRESENTS THE EVIL BEING WITH A SOUL TO EXPERIENCE, INTO ETERNITY, ITS IMPERFECTIONS.

We do not need to concern greatly over those who bash us for our goodness or stance within truth—FOR THEY SHALL SURELY FALL AND BE UNCOVERED IN THEIR TREACHERY. When this happens there is little chance of “recovery” for no one shall ever again trust or respect that deceitful, revengeful entity. And their children will grow up with SHAME AND HATE against their own deceitful parents. This is NOT MY DOING—this is simply the WAY IT IS. We are appreciative of our enemies for they allow us to see and discern RIGHT from WRONG and reinforce our own KNOWING in TRUTH and RIGHT ACTIONS. No being of TRUTH ever suggested it would be terribly easy or without troubles, to maintain honor, integrity, good business and TRUTH while the enemies tear at the flesh and beat upon the doors. GOD SIMPLY SAID IT WOULD BE FINE AND TRUTH SHALL PREVAIL.

Good morning and may the LIFE you SAVE—BE YOUR OWN! Salu.

“THE MUSLIM PROGRAM” excerpt ———>

Editor's note: The following is reprinted from the 8/6/96 issue of The Final Call; the photo within the article is of the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

THE MUSLIM PROGRAM

What the Muslims Want

This is the question asked most frequently by both the whites and the Blacks. The answers to this question I shall state as simply as possible.

1. We want freedom. We want a full and complete freedom.

2. We want justice. Equal justice under the law. We want justice applied equally to all, regardless of creed or class or color.

3. We want equality of opportunity. We want equal membership in society with the best in civilized society.

4. We want our people in America whose parents or grandparents were descendants from slaves, to be allowed to establish a separate state or territory of their own—either on this continent or elsewhere. We believe that our former slave masters are obligated to provide such land and that the area must be fertile and mineral rich. We believe that our former slave masters are obligated to maintain and supply our needs in this separate territory for the next 20 to 25 years—until we are able to produce and supply our own needs.

Since we cannot get along with them in peace and equality, after giving them 400 years of our sweat and blood and receiving in return some of the worst treatment human beings have ever experienced, we believe our contributions to this land and the suffering forced upon us by white America, justifies our demand for complete separation in a state or territory of our own.

5. We want freedom for all Believers of Islam now held in federal prisons. We want freedom for all Black men and women now under death sentence in innumerable prisons in the North as well as the South.

We want every Black man and woman to have the freedom to accept or reject being separated from the slave master's children and establish a land of their own.

We know that the above plan for the solution of the Black and white conflict is the best and only answer to the problem between two people.

6. We want an immediate end to the police brutality and mob attacks against the so-called Negro throughout the United States.

We believe that the Federal government should intercede to see that Black men and women tried in white courts receive justice in accordance with the laws of the land—or allow us to build a new nation for ourselves, dedicated to justice, freedom and liberty.

7. As long as we are not allowed to establish a state or territory of our own, we demand not only equal justice under the laws of the United States, but equal employment opportunities—NOW!

We do not believe that after 400 years of free or nearly free labor, sweat and blood, which has helped America become rich and powerful, that so many thousands of Black people should have to subsist on relief, charity or live in poor houses.

8. We want the government of the United States to exempt our people from ALL taxation as long as we are deprived of equal justice under the laws of the land.

9. We want equal education—but separate schools up to 16 for boys and 18 for girls on the condition that the girls be sent to women's colleges and universities. We want all Black children educated, taught and trained by their own teachers.

Under such schooling system we believe we will make a better nation of people. The United States government should provide, free, all necessary text books and equipment, schools and college buildings. The Muslim teachers shall be left free to teach and train their people in the way of righteousness, decency and self respect.

10. We believe that intermarriage or race mixing should be prohibited. We want the religion of Islam taught without hindrance or suppression.

These are some of the things that we, the Muslims, want for our people in North America.

What the Muslims Believe

1. WE BELIEVE In the One God Whose proper Name is Allah.

2. WE BELIEVE in the Holy Qur'an and in the Scriptures of all the Prophets of God.

3. WE BELIEVE in the truth of the Bible, but we believe that it has been tampered with and must be reinterpreted so that mankind will not be snared by the falsehoods that have been added to it.

4. WE BELIEVE in Allah's Prophets and the Scriptures they brought to the people.

5. WE BELIEVE in the resurrection of the dead—not in physical resurrection—but in mental resurrection. We believe that the so-called Negroes are most in need of mental resurrection; therefore, they will be resurrected first.

Furthermore, we believe we are the people of God's choice, as it has been written, that God would choose the rejected and the despised. We can find no other persons fitting this description in these last days more than the so-called Negroes in America. We believe in the resurrection of the righteous.

6. WE BELIEVE in the judgment; we believe this first judgment will take place as God revealed, in America...

7. WE BELIEVE this is the time in history for the separation of the so-called Negroes and the so-called white Americans. We believe the Black man should be freed in name as well as in fact. By this we mean that he should be freed from the names imposed upon him by his former slave masters. Names which identified him as being the slave master's slave. We believe that if we are free indeed, we should go in our own people's names—the Black people of the Earth.

8. WE BELIEVE in justice for all, whether in God or not; we believe as others, that we are due equal justice as human beings. We believe in equality—as a nation—of equals. We do not believe that we are equal with our slave masters in the status of "freed slaves."

We recognize and respect American citizens as independent peoples and we respect their laws which govern this nation.

9. WE BELIEVE that the offer of integration is hypocritical and is made by those who are trying to deceive the Black peoples into believing that their 400-year-old open enemies of freedom, justice and equality are, all of a sudden, their "friends." Furthermore, we believe that such deception is intended to prevent Black people from realizing that the time in history has arrived for the separation from the whites of this nation.

If the white people are truthful about their professed friendship toward the so-called Negro, they can prove it by dividing up America with their slaves.

We do not believe that America will ever be able to furnish enough jobs for her own millions of unemployed, in addition to jobs for the 20,000,000 Black people as well.

10. WE BELIEVE that we who declare ourselves to be righteous Muslims, should not participate in wars which take the lives of humans. We do not believe this nation should force us to take part in such wars, for we have nothing to gain from it unless America agrees to give us the necessary territory wherein we may have something to fight for.

11. WE BELIEVE our women should be respected and protected as the women of other nationalities are respected and protected.

12. WE BELIEVE that Allah (God) appeared in the Person of Master W. Fard Muhammad, July, 1930; the long-awaited "Messiah" of the Christians and the "Mahdi" of the Muslims.

We believe further and lastly that Allah is God and besides HIM there is no God and He will bring about a universal government of peace wherein we all can live in peace together.

Editor's note: In a writing last week, Commander Hatonn asked that we reprint, at this critical post-election time, the following sobering reminder of the direction in which our country has fallen. This is extracted from the 3/1/94 issue of CONTACT.

2/22/94 #2 HATONN

POLITICALLY CORRECT?

I am here accused of being "politically" incorrect in the way I present my speeches to persons with whom I disagree on matters of Truth and spirituality. What in the world do you mean? I am amused that simple language terminology according to dictionary or Biblical definement are not sufficient to keep the lawsuits from the door. Does calling a shovel a "spade" or a "scoop implement" or a "digging device" make it more a "shovel"—or less? This is what has happened to all your foundational communications resources. A "thing" in description at one time is not THE description at another time. For instance, when I said that the "swine" who would keep information of Walter Russell from the public, etc., was stated—it was immediately assumed and accepted as totally degrading in that I was calling those people, there, pigs. I was referring to the symbolic message of "casting pearls before swine and being trampled beneath the feet of..." Further, without specifics as to identification of "who", it was immediately established by the receivers as to "who" it "must" be. Was it accepted by the "correct individuals"? Possibly, but then, if shoes fit I always suggest they be worn if suitable.

If I were to call someone, say Georgeo Greenspanus, an "...ignorant, stupid substitute for a human who is a bore and an airhead who is a failure, spacey and dishonest"—would he likely be furious with me? What if I refer to him as a "Knowledge-base nonpossessor, cerebrally challenged, heifem who is a cerebro-atmospheric individual who is incompletely successful, somewhat differently focused and ethically disoriented?" What if I refer to a "Black" or "Hispanic" as "melanin saturated" or a "White" as "melanin deficient"? What if I refer to a bald man as "fallicularly challenged"? Or, a short man as "vertically challenged"? Or, a fat person as "horizontally challenged"? The facts ARE: it would become amusing, politically correct and no-body would know what in the heck I said. Isn't it true anymore that "Racist" actually means a politically correct way of saying "I disagree with you"? My "thanks" for the explicit definitions used above to Henry Beard and Christopher Cerf who have presented The Official Correct Dictionary and Handbook (Villard Books, $10). A small smattering of the contents have been forwarded to me from Mr. Tips whom I also thank for sharing.

What point could I be making here in the middle of "thought" discussions as associated with reality and illusion and the manifestation of either? Simple—you are trained continually to perceive EXACTLY that which is intended to disorient you and all your perceptions relative to "what IS".

COMMUNIST GOALS

"Oh", you say, "now we are going to get the anti-Semite poking and the Communist intent to take the nations of the world." Well, GOOD FRIENDS, the Semites are NOT the Khazarian so-called Jews and the so-called "Jews" in reference ARE the ones who established and continue the Communist regime so you take your druthers while I offer a thought-provoking (I hope) look at something from your Congressional Record, Thursday, January 10, 1963. I don't believe I need make comment at all for even if you are "POLITICALLY CORRECT" you may yet be able to see the intent of the handwriting on the walls of your globe.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, 45 COMMUNIST GOALS

CURRENT COMMUNIST GOALS EXTENSION OF REMARKS OF

HON. A.S. HERLONG, JR. of Florida
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, January 10, 1963

Mr. HERLONG: Mr. Speaker, Mrs. Patricia Nordman of De Land, Fla., is an ardent and articulate opponent of Communism and until recently published the De Land Courier, which she dedicated to the purpose of alerting the public to the dangers of Communism in America.

At Mrs. Nordman's request, I include in the RECORD, under unanimous consent, the following "Current Communist Goals", which she identifies as an excerpt from The Naked Communist, by Cleon Skousen:

CURRENT (1963) COMMUNIST GOALS

1. U.S. acceptance of co-existence as the only alternative to atomic war.
2. U.S. willingness to capitulate in preference to engaging in atomic war.
3. Develop the illusion that total disarmament by the United States would be a demonstration of moral strength.
4. Permit free trade between all nations regardless of Communist affiliation and regardless of whether or not items could be used for war.
5. Extension of long-term loans to Russian and Soviet satellites.
6. Provide American aid to all nations regardless of Communist domination.
7. Grant recognition of Red China. Admission of Red China to the U.N.
8. Set up East and West Germany as separate states in spite of Khrushchev's promise in 1955 to settle the German question by free elections under supervision of the U.N.

9. Prolong the conferences to ban atomic tests because the United States has agreed to suspend tests as long as negotiations are in progress.

10. Allow all Soviet satellites individual representation in the U.N.

11. Promote the U.N. as the only hope for mankind. If its charter is rewritten, demand that it be set up as a one-world government with its own independent armed forces. (Some Communist leaders believe the world can be taken over as easily by the U.N. as by Moscow. Sometimes these two centers compete with each other as they are now doing in the Congo.) [H: I think most of you can name several places around your globe even more evident as example—TODAY.]

12. Resist any attempt to outlaw the Communist Party.

13. Do away with all loyalty oaths.

14. Continue giving Russia access to the U.S. Patent Office.

15. Capture one or both of the political parties in the United States.

16. Use technical decisions of the courts to weaken basic American institutions by claiming their activities violate civil rights.

17. Get control of the schools. Use them as transmission belts for socialism and current Communist propaganda. Soften the curriculum. Get control of teachers' associations. Put the party line in textbooks.

18. Gain control of all student newspapers.

19. Use student riots to foment public protests against programs or organizations which are under Communist attack.

20. Infiltrate the press. Get control of book-review assignments, editorial writing, policymaking positions.

21. Gain control of key positions in radio, TV, and motion pictures.

22. Continue discrediting American culture by degrading all forms of artistic expression. An American Communist cell was told to "eliminate all good sculpture from parks and buildings, substitute shapeless, awkward and meaningless forms."

23. Control art critics and directors of art museums. "Our plan is to promote ugliness, repulsive, meaningless art."

24. Eliminate all laws governing obscenity by calling them "censorship" and a violation of free speech and free press.

25. Break down cultural standards of morality by promoting pornography and obscenity in books, magazines, motion pictures, radio, and TV.

26. Present homosexuality, degeneracy and promiscuity as "normal, natural, healthy".

27. Infiltrate the churches and replace revealed religion with "social" religion. Discredit the Bible and emphasize the need for intellectual maturity which does not need a "religious crutch".

28. Eliminate prayer or any phase of religious expression in the schools on the ground that it violates the principle of "separation of church and state".

29. Discredit the American Constitution by calling it inadequate, old-fashioned, out of step with modern needs, a hindrance to cooperation between nations on a worldwide basis.

30. Discredit the American Founding Fathers. Present them as selfish aristocrats who had no concern for the "common man".

31. Belittle all forms of American culture and discourage the teaching of American history on the ground that it was only a minor part of the "big picture". Give more emphasis to Russian history since the Communists took over.

32. Support any socialist movement to give centralized control over any part of the culture—education, social agencies, welfare programs, mental health clinics, etc.

33. Eliminate all laws or procedures which interfere with the operation of the Communist apparatus.

34. Eliminate the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

35. Discredit and eventually dismantle the FBI.

36. Infiltrate and gain control of more unions.

37. Infiltrate and gain control of big business.

38. Transfer some of the powers of arrest from the police to social agencies. Treat all behavioral problems as psychiatric disorders which no one but psychiatrists can understand or treat.

39. Dominate the psychiatric profession and use mental health laws as a means of gaining coercive control over those who oppose Communist goals.

40. Discredit the family as an institution. Encourage promiscuity and easy divorce.

41. Emphasize the need to raise children away from the negative influence of parents. Attribute prejudices, mental blocks and retarding of children to suppressive influence of parents.

42. Create the impression that violence and insurrection are legitimate aspects of the American tradition; that students and special-interest groups should rise up and use united force to solve economic, political or social problems.

43. Overthrow all colonial governments before native populations are ready for self-government.

44. Internationalize the Panama Canal.

45. Repeal the Connally reservation so the United States cannot prevent the World Court from seizing jurisdiction over nations and individuals alike.

[END OF QUOTING]

So now let's look at those old Protocols Of The Elders Of Zion in the "short" form:

[QUOTING:]

LETTERS AND PROTOCOLS OF ZION ELDERS

From the Revue des etudes Juives, published in 1889, is again presented for you who may not have prior writings or a copy of this document:

Dear beloved brethren in Moses, we have received your letter in which you tell us of the anxieties and misfortunes which you are enduring. We are pierced by as great pain to hear it as yourselves.

The advice of the Grand Satraps and Rabbis is the following:

1. As for what you say that the King of France obliges you to become Christians: do it, since you cannot do otherwise, but let the law of Moses be kept in your hearts.

2. As for what you say about the command to despoil you of your goods [the law was that on becoming converted, Jews gave up their possessions]: make your sons merchants, that little by little they may despoil the Christians of theirs.

3. As for what you say about their making attempts on your lives: make your sons doctors and apothecaries, that they may take away Christians' lives.

4. As for what you say of their destroying your synagogues: make your sons canons and clerics in order that they may destroy their churches.

5. As for the many other vexations you complain of: arrange that your sons become advocates and lawyers, and see that they always mix themselves up with the affairs of State, in order that by putting Christians under your yoke you may dominate the world and be avenged on them.

6. Do not swerve from this order that we give you, because you will find by experience that, humiliated as you are, you will reach the actuality of power.

Signed V.S.S.V.F.F., Prince of the Jews, 21st Caslue (November), 1489.

In the year 1844, on the eve of the Jewish Revolution of 1848, Benjamin Disraeli, whose real name was "israel", and who was a "dampcd", or baptised Jew, published his novel, Coningsby, in which occurs this ominous passage:

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

And he went on to show that these personages were all Jews.

Now that Providence has brought to the light of day these secret Protocols all men may clearly see the hidden personages specified by Disraeli at work "behind the scenes" of all the Governments....

FUNERAL ORATION: RABBI REICHHORN RE: GRAND RABBI SIMEON-ben-IHUDA

Prague, 1869

1. Every hundred years, We, the Sages of Israel, have been accustomed to meet in Sanhedrin in order to examine our progress towards the domination of the world which Jehovah has promised us, and our conquests over the enemy—Christianity.

2. This year, united over the tomb of our reverend Simeon-ben-Ihuda, we can state with pride that the past century has brought us very near to our goal, and that this goal will be very soon attained.

3. Gold always has been and always will be the irresistible power. Handled by expert hands it will always be the most useful lever for those who possess it, and the object of envy for those who do not. With gold we can buy the most rebellious consciences, can fix the rate of all values, the current price of all products, can subsidise all State loans, and thereafter hold the states at our mercy.

4. Already the principal banks, the exchanges of the entire world, the credits of all the governments, are in our hands.

5. The other great power is THE PRESS. By repeating without cessation certain ideas, the Press succeeds in the end in having them accepted as actualities. The Theatre renders us analogous services. Everywhere the Press and the Theatre obey our orders. (There were no "radio" or "TV" at the time.)

6. By the ceaseless praise of DEMOCRATIC RULE we shall divide the Christians into political parties; we shall destroy the unity of their nations; we shall sow discord everywhere. Reduced to impotence, they will bow before the LAW OF OUR BANK, always united, and always devoted to our Cause.

7. We shall force the Christians into wars by exploiting their pride and their stupidity. They will massacre each other, and clear the ground for us to put our own people into.

8. The possession of the land has always brought influence and power. In the name of Social Justice and Equality we shall parcel out the great estates; we shall give the fragments to the peasants who covet them with all their powers, and who will soon be in debt to us by the expense of cultivating them. Our capital will make us their masters. We in our turn shall become the great proprietors, and the possession of the land will assure the power to us.

9. Let us try to replace the circulation of gold with paper money; our chest will absorb the gold, and we shall regulate the value of the paper which will make us masters of all the positions.

10. We count among us plenty of orators capable of feigning enthusiasm and of persuading mobs. We shall spread them among the people to announce changes which should secure the happiness of the human race.

By gold and by flattery we shall gain the proletariat which will charge itself with annihilating Christian capitalism. We shall promise workmen salaries of which they have never dared to dream, but we shall also raise the price of necessities so that our profits will be greater still.

11. In this manner we shall prepare Revolutions which the Christians will make themselves and of which we shall reap the fruit.

12. By our mockeries and our attacks upon them we shall make their priests ridiculous—then odious, and their religion as ridiculous and as odious as their clergy. Then we shall be masters of their SOULS. For our pious attachment to our own religion, to our own worship, will prove the superiority of our religion and the superiority of our souls.

13. We have already established our own men in all important positions. We must endeavor to provide the Goyim with lawyers and doctors; the lawyers are au courant with our interests; doctors, once in the house, become confessors and directors of consciences.

14. But above all let us monopolize Education. By this means we spread ideas that are useful to us, and shape the children's brains as suits us.

15. If one of our people should unhappily fall into the hands of justice amongst the Christians, we must rush to help him; find as many witnesses as he needs to save him from his judges, until we become judges ourselves.

16. The monarchs of the Christian world, swollen with ambition and vanity, surround themselves with luxury and with numerous armies. We shall furnish them with all the money their folly demands, and so shall keep them in leash.

17. Let us take care not to hinder the marriage of our men with Christian girls, for through them we shall get our foot into the most closely locked circles. If our daughters marry GOYIM they will be no less useful, for the children of a Jewish mother are ours. Let us foster the idea of free love, that we may destroy among Christian women attachment to the principles and practices of their religion.

18. For ages past the sons of Israel, despised and persecuted, have been working to open up a path to power. They are hitting the mark. They control the economic life of the accursed Christians; their influence preponderates over politics and over manners.

19. At the wished for hour, fixed in advance, we shall let loose the Revolution, which by ruining all classes of Christianity will definitely enslave the Christians to US. Thus will be accomplished the promise of God made to His People.

[END OF QUOTING]

I believe you are quite capable of evaluating "where you are" from measurement against the foregoing. You've come a long way, Baby!

Now how does this come into your daily lives in such a way as to be able to discern and judge circumstances? For one thing you can get the information we have offered and STUDY it. Or, you can continue to wade through bits and pieces as presented hither and yon and hopefully get enough to have a "picture" of that which is coming and has already come upon you. Salu.

Illuminati Formula Used To Create An Undetectable Total Mind-Controlled Slave

Editor's note: The earlier installments chosen by Commander Hatonn from this eye-opening and daring compilation by Springmeier & Cisco were presented as our Front Page story in last week's CONTACT under the appalling headline "Mind Control At China Lake; Testing New 'Weapons'; 1000 Babies Was A Small Batch." At that time Commander Hatonn said, "I want to begin at the point after the 'Slave' has been chosen by whatever criteria was utilized and then how and where the actual traumatization is perfected. I want to do this because the places are literally RIGHT UNDER YOUR NOSES and you don't seem to so much as NOTICE." We are not editing the writing style of this material, so bear with what may seem to be editorial oversights in that regard.

11/23/96 #1 HATONN

Back, please, to some excerpts from The Illuminati Formula Used to Create an Undetectable Total Mind-Controlled Slave, by Fritz Springmeier & Cisco Wheeler. I also want you to know that much of this information is coming from Mark Phillips and Cathy O'Brien. And please, readers, don't forget our precious Kelly who, through sharing, is beginning to share her stories so that she can reclaim her mental stability and balance.

[QUOTING, PART 4:]

WHAT OCCURS WHEN THE MIND SPLITS

During battles soldiers have been known to wall off horrible events with amnesia walls. Just like the soldier who walls off a traumatic battle scene where he sees his buddy disemboweled by a grenade, so the child walls off trauma. However, the soldier must only endure a relatively small amount of trauma compared to the children who are programmed under the Monarch trauma-based mind control.

A soldier may remember his trauma, by being triggered by something that reminds him of the trauma. Likewise, the child victim will have things that trigger also.

One way of describing the split is to say that the child's mind is saying, "This isn't happening to me, it's happening to some one else," and a split in the personality occurs. The new split will have the characteristics of what it split from. The programmer will ask the alter being tortured to create something in the mind when the split is created—such as, "I want 12 white fluffy kittens." The programmer, demons, and the child's creativity work together with the dissociation to create alters. Those 12 white fluffy kittens will have the characteristics and memories of what they were made from. However, they are separated from each other by dissociation, and they will be given their own script and own separate identity by the programmer. The dissociation between some alters who are co-conscious is not full blown amnesia.

After the programmer has instructed the child what alters he wants made when he tortures the child, the Programmer will inject a truth serum to determine whether the correct alters were made and the correct amount. The child's creativity is being guided by torture. The Programmer will often also call up the Hidden Observer and ask it what has happened internally in the mind of the victim.

Another better way of looking at what happens is to understand that the part of the brain that records personal memory—that is the personal history memory section, is divided up into little pieces by amnesia walls built to protect itself from the repeated traumas. Each section is walled off from another section by amnesia. Each trauma has an amnesia wall built around it. Each trauma memory is sectioned off. That walled-off section is a piece of memory that will be identified, and a hypnotic cue attached by the programmers that will pull it up to the conscious mind. And further, if the programmers so desire, it can be given a history, a name, a job, and developed into a full-blown personality. It's important to grasp that the entire mind is not sectioned off into parts. Some areas of the mind, such as the area that holds skills and talents, is available to all the alters who want to access that talent. The talent doesn't belong to that alter but to the System. Autobiographical memory is remembered differently than simple facts and skills involving primitive parts of the brain. A sense of time and a sense of self are attached to autobiographical memories—these things are stripped of an alter as it functions within the programming. Memory storage is also linked to the brain's state of mind at the time.

Hormones released at the time of an experience will modulate the strength of the memory of that experience. The limbic-hypothalamic system of the brain (which consists of the amygdala, hippocampus, cingulate gyrus, fornix, septum, certain nuclei of the thalamus, and the Papez circuit) has a central modulating part which interacts with peripheral hormones. Peripheral epinephrine will be released if the amygdala is electrically stimulated. The adrenal medulla releases epinephrine that is vital for memory storage. In other words, there are hormones which help the brain remember.

A particular talent is not used by every alter. A non-sexual alter (an alter with an asexual identity) is not going to access talents involved in sexual activity. This is because memories are both occurrent states and also dispositions, and when a disposition is dissociated, the alter must maintain a different set of dispositions. A three-year-old-child alter is not going to access abilities to write. To do so for these alters would mean attacking the amnesia walls which hold horrible memories. That would mean going against the programming with its penalties, and their own understanding of "reality" which is the programmed story line of which the alter has been convinced, wherein the penalty is losing of its life.

To dissociate a memory and to take on a particular role and identity involves a constant reinterpretation of past events. It may also mean that the alter must contrive an interpretation of present events. The three-year-old may, for instance, see breasts but decide they belong to someone else in the system with whom they share the body. This is in part dictated by the necessity of obscuring the pain of the trauma that separates the alter from the rest. Each day that the alter confronts reality, they will face the threat that old memories will not agree with the story line created. For instance, the handler's sexual advances carried out in front of that asexual (nonsexual) alter must be misconstrued so that the illusion of not having been raped is continued. This is why normal life has a way of breaking down the multitude of lies and programming of the deeper alters, which live in a fantasy world created during the programming. The deeper alters have never had the chance to experience life outside of their programming, since they hold the body only at infrequent specialized moments which are disjointed in time sequence.

The alters created to be fronts to normally hold the body will be given lots of programming to help hold onto certain denials, so that they will find it necessary to ignore or reinterpret dreaded associations linked with dissociated memories. For instance, a Christian front alter is sincerely very righteous and holy. The thought that this person (technically the alter's System of persons) could have done the most horrible and savagely demonic activities would be inconceivable. The memories of ritual are safely ignored because the reality would undermine everything the person is. This phenomena is not just seen in memory dissociation, but also in states of hypnosis when a person accepts a suggestion which flies in the face of the reality that is seen. If a person accepts the suggestion that there is no dog in the room they will struggle internally to maintain that illusion even if the dog is standing in front of them. If told to walk on a collision course with the dog, they will construct an artificial excuse, which is accepted even though it is transparently implausible. One of the Monarch Programmers, Orne, called this "trance logic". Trance logic becomes the ploy and strategy to maintain a dissociative or hypnotic hallucination.

The frontal lobes of the cerebral cortex which are called the Brodmann areas no. 9-12 are responsible for a person's own responses to circumstance—i.e., what some call "personality". When the mind is split, this natural personality is not erased but rather is a collected pool upon which various responses from it are attached to various "personalities". Damage to these Brodmann areas tends to give an overall effect of making the person passive. The programming is not designed to damage these areas, only to control what emotions they contain are linked in memory to the various memory fragments that will be made into personalities.

The reticular formation is the location of the brain's mechanism which determines the state of consciousness all the way from alert to hypnotic trance, to sleep, to coma, etc. It interacts with the frontal lobes and the rest of the brain. Each memory is a function of several parts of the brain working together. Memory is a function of alertness/state of consciousness (reticular formation), the emotions (Brodmann Areas 9-12), the Thalami (priorities given to memories), and several complicated processes where the brain categorizes and interfiles the info with other remembered data. By building in amnesia walls between Event (personal history) memories, and by producing altered states of consciousness, the memories of a slave can be "nested" as the Programmers call it. "Nested" means that it is hidden behind several "locked doors" when the mind files the memory. Sometimes the person must return to the altered state to recover a memory. The electro-shock also scrambles the brain's filing of a memory so that it is filed in bits and pieces. Because of the use of electro-shock, if memories do start surfacing, they surface only in bits and pieces. Sometimes a complete memory will be held by thousands of parts which the mind must bring together to recover the full memory.

It has been discovered that memory retrieval is best when the environment is identical to when the memory took place. If we memorize numbers underwater, we will recall them better, underwater.

Another thing discovered about trauma memories is that they are stored in the sensory motor processes rather than just in the normal memory sites of the brain. These memories are called body memories and they do not lie. The False memory Spindrome is way off base on their attacks, but then all of us who know the real story realize that they are just a cover-up damage-control scheme of the CIA or some other CONTROLLING entity.

THE CORE

Let's return to describing the "core" or that part of the brain which is intact at the beginning.

[H: I have to say, readers, that I am having difficulty getting through this material for I find that most of the presentation is put forward in an intended attempt to structure "how it is", but I note that much of it is so totally incorrect in fact as to be, in my opinion, almost as bad as the original mind-warping utilized. However, I can't find a better way to allow you into the mind consideration of persons who have experienced from the side of the traumatization and the receiver of the awakening from that state of malfunction or "multifunctioning". Let's just go on for a bit longer and please don't get yourselves "hung-up" on the scientific presentation here because much of it is not accurate other than in concept. Here we find that "concept" is adequate for a lay audience, but it certainly would amuse the programmers and advanced "handlers" who can consider these kinds of suggested lessons as being a further tool of their own making and for their own further use.]

If we pause to consider that a non-multiple person will experience struggles in their mind when simultaneous overlapping but conflicting desires meet in conflict—i.e., "should I lay in bed, go to work, or go fishing today?" A particular part of the brain (a Synthesizing Self) is capable of ordering such a conflict and it transcends all these conflicting ego states. A single Synthesizing Self in the brain is likewise responsible for the de-synthesizing of the ego states. The victim, in order to appease the programmers, sets up different and opposite alters relative to a single System's needs. The formation of alters is systematically and intelligently guided by the programmers, created to meet the needs of the System that the programmers impose upon it and not to adapt to an abusive parent. Some therapists have failed to see that alter formation is not natural, but a maladaptive practice that is guided by the victim's desire to please, and its fear of the programmers.

[H: Enough! Let us leave this for it is deteriorating in presentation of FACT. The FACT is that the formation of alters IS EXTREMELY NATURAL and is the exact reason programming works so well. This is why I hesitate to offer some information from some writers. They fail to have insight or qualification for full understanding and yet present it as if it is factual and proven fact. It lessens our own standards when we overdo the offerings of such individuals to the extent of misleading you readers.

It must be remembered at all times while reading this material that it comes from trauma-based persons with these handicaps and to go forth and pontificate on the subject as if they are learned professors of the subject is projecting quite a wrong impression. You, as readers, must discern the difference between EXPERIENCED challenges and KNOWLEDGE of the mental capabilities of individuals. Here, also, you must remember that you must discern the TRAUMA-based methodology and simple hypnosis therapy. Most people do not have trauma-based and deliberately-induced malfunctions, and this makes it appear as if everybody is sucked into a trap of hypnotic manipulations. If a person has a "fixed" "will" he/she will DO NOTHING in a state of hypnosis that he/she would not do otherwise if simply uninhibited. Moreover, the person asked to do such dreadful and divergent things would simply awaken and punch out the therapist. By the way, the morality of the therapist is uppermost in consideration but that is true in any therapy program you may seek for some disorder you perceive.

For instance, a person does not go UNDER anything, including hypnosis trance. At best he/she goes into trance and these kinds of misrepresentations of FACT are detrimental to all of you who would accept this information as factual, for it is NOT. When a writer moves into scientific presentations when all there is to work from is observation, we have problems. Any research observer can comment on that which APPEARS to be—but I dislike, greatly, the launching off into suppositions and speculations as if it were factual research outcome conclusions. For instance, when you have a "created" new "language", i.e., False Memory Spindrome, you have moved from FACT into supposition or you wouldn't need new terminology that ONLY you or your few associates can decipher.

What I see happening to people after studying this type of presentation is that they SEEK and WANT to escape their own actions by suggesting to self and others that they are somehow traumatized and helpless in their actions, dress, presentation, and personality. NO, this is not so in almost all instances which YOU will encounter and I dislike "cop-outs" at any level of experience. Everybody has a growing-up processing that was unsuitable in some way or another—but this hoopla of the "unordinary" causes the disturbed or addicted (especially to alcohol or drugs) to cast off responsibility and turn to the "helpless" clause of defense. Most people are simply irresponsible for themselves and it is becoming the accepted norm rather than the Fact. This old "blame somebody ELSE" means of escape from responsibility is unacceptable. Mankind is not "growing up"; it is deteriorating as rapidly as mankind can arrange it.]

Traitors And Betrayers Prey On The Gullible

11/23/96 #1 HATONN

ENEMIES AMONG US

There is gross denial from our unfriendly antagonists that they "did not reveal names" in instances where I have said they did so, betraying the very ones they promised to HIDE. Sorry, Ann Beam and Leon, through George Green, Tuten and others, both Abbott and Horton have not only given names but have presented those names in court in such a way as to be able to use them later as they wish.

You have to understand that in all these cases, including a very specific and limited issue in California, lies are scattered like fodder for the pigs. There are TOTAL entanglements among all issues—but of course the source always goes right back to Abbott and Horton who are the only ones who can present themselves within the court setting. Green, of course, never is allowed to show up because he lies so openly that they can't allow him on the stand.

These carrion buzzards exact information from the unwitting by saying they "won't ever tell" but THEY have to know names, etc. Then they turn about and use all those names.

There are pieces of communication which declare and prove these connections—and yet, Ekkers are not allowed to participate. I believe THAT in itself borders on malpractice. Our own lawyers continue to act as if there is something to hide. NO, there is nothing to hide and, if they think I AM NOT IN THE KNOWING OF THE INFORMATION—THEY ARE MISINFORMED.

I am going to speak about betrayal and the fundamental disloyalty of traitors and betrayers. It is very important for you who closely share with me, the signs and symptoms of such people, to consider how seriously you err when you so openly share yourselves with these vengeful persons. Most of the people are just "used" but the results are the same, aren't they? You will also see why IT IS SO IMPORTANT TO HANDLE YOUR AFFAIRS, ALL AFFAIRS, CORRECTLY, LEGALLY, WITHIN MORAL AND LEGAL GUIDELINES. We are not a group of anything save separate individuals trying to have some type of friendly interchange. Our only "religion" is that we feel that there should be a Christ-like trust and faith with those who would eat at our table and sup from our cups. Most people with whom we interchange have no agreement or thought about us so it becomes silly in its continued display of claims and assumptions.

It does, however, seem quite ludicrous to welcome our adversaries, who cut our throats and stab our backs, TO PAY THEM FOR THE DEEDS. These foes would have EVERYONE in the world lose their property in order for the lead dogs in opposition to get what they have no right to have.

These two attorneys, Abbott and Horton, are even "doing in" their own client, Green. They have now gone to the Supreme Court (after being ruled AGAINST twice) a third time and the judges are about fed up—because they have also PROVEN that Green embezzled 1100 ounces of gold coins FROM YOU WHO SUPPORT THE INSTITUTE. ABBOTT even stole from his own client, Fort, the money paid to him on his claim to the Institute and now presents a billing that takes ALL Leon's assets.

Some of you are sucked into giving affidavits about which you ask to have your names kept silent. No such luck, foolish people. If you "smile" at one of the opposition—you are NAMED in their outrageous paperwork. It goes something like this: "I stopped by the office at CONTACT and (so and so) gave me this 'knowing glance' and they just have a big party there every day..." Well readers, it is Ekkers they are after and, more specifically, Doris Ekker. This hardly constitutes doing business—does it?

I can give you a more specific example of the treachery: Tuten went to visit Nora and now uses her private conversation to DISCOUNT Nora. Well, Nora Boyles, I will pronounce to the world—cannot be discounted, nor shall I sit still for such treachery. And yet, Tuten would see Nora lose every cent of her resources in order for Abbott and Green to get THEIRS because they have already declared to their own clients—that they will GET NOTHING. Somehow this seems to make sense to them; it certainly eludes me.

They only tighten the noose about their own necks, however, and it is purely sad.

The Speaker of the House in the Nevada Legislature is aghast at the antics of said attorneys and their attack on Corporations domiciled in Nevada and has asked the Nevada Bar for a full investigation, thanks to you who have your own interests violated by the assaults against corporations such as yours. He made it clear that no assaults would be tolerated against Nevada incorporation because it is a major interest of Nevada in serving people and having growing and thriving enterprises.

Readers, there are FEW things in which YOU CAN HAVE INPUT AND REALLY MAKE A DIFFERENCE—AND HERE IT IS. [Editor's note: Again, see the list of contacting information for your convenience on page 22.] This is the way you start, and continue, to change the terrible and corrupt systems into a demand and conclusion of integrity, and honest and good practices. Ekkers do NOT fear investigations but they will protect, as promised, any party who has asked for privacy under the law in any interchange with them. They have taken the lumps and threats—and yes, contempt charges—to do exactly that. Green never even has to show in court—but that will soon end, however; he is already declared an unfit witness even in his own interests—because of his inability to speak truth or tell the same lie twice in a row. What has happened, however, is that neither can his lawyers and they are now guilty of KNOWINGLY offering KNOWN lies from THEMSELVES in the courts. They seem to think that there is enough political blackmail to cause all the judges to continue to rule WITH them. Nope, and elections are over for a while and the judges are tired of appearing the fools and leaving themselves open for impeachment. A couple of the higher-court judges are considering demanding Grand Jury hearings against Green, et al. This has become the most embarrassing case crossing that part of Nevada—ever.

Judge Gamble continues to hold the gold that was ORDERED (twice) TO BE RELEASED TO THE PROPER OWNERS and that is NOT the Green Brigade. He was incensed by the use of E.T.s and cults and Jesus Christ being splattered in the papers, etc. Well, his own cronies DID THAT—those are Abbott's proud accomplishments with his "PULL WITH THE ASSOCIATED PRESS".

So much for this topic but, yes indeed, readers, I want to keep up the opposition's information flow by sharing with them openly. We see more CONTACT excerpts in the courts than anywhere else among the reading audience. Don't you find that fascinating? It must annoy them, however, to figure a way to always delete the part about my ONLY SERVICE BEING TO THE CHRIST TEACHINGS, HONOR, TRUTH, AND JUSTICE. Further, we have RESPECT for the bench and Judges, while it appears there is only contempt for, and intended use of, those same authorities by Abbott and Horton. Abbott totally insulted Judge Gibbons for over an hour while Horton forced his way, representing Green, into a case where there was no standing of any kind. Abbott called him immature, inept, and worse—while Gibbons was simply trying to handle the cases UNDER THE LAW. These things will come back upon them, readers, if you live long enough to get hearing. So be it.

Meanwhile attorneys and judges are having to get a rather intensive EDUCATION aren't they? You cannot BUY this kind of experience and on-the-job training—ANYWHERE.

I would like to leave this now and offer a bit more on "Mind Control" for this paper. Then, of course, we need to get back to some of those Bush connections we were offering prior to elections. However, it doesn't seem so important today since everything is going, TODAY, exactly as planned by the adversary. Readers, you NEED every protection and allowance for sheltering UNDER THE LAW. And frankly, you businessmen and free-wishers, you can get the most from the Sin Capital of the world—Nevada. And further, Nevada Corporate Headquarters HAS STOOD FIRM AND TRUSTWORTHY IN EVERY CONFRONTATION THE EVIL TEAM COULD THROW AT THEM. We all, here, RESPECT THE LAW and, in so doing, we never do anything outside the parameters of those laws—wherever they might be instigated, and eventually this will be sustained in the courts—IF YOU DO YOUR PART AND DEMAND LEGAL ACTIONS AGAINST THOSE WHO BREAK AND STRETCH THOSE LAWS FOR THEIR OWN OUTRAGEOUS PURPOSES. THE VOICE YOU OFFER MAY WELL BE THE VOICE THAT IS HEARD. MANY VOICES ARE ALWAYS BETTER HEARD THAN ONE. KEEP TRYING TO BE HEARD, DEMANDING HEARING, UNTIL YOU RECEIVE SATISFACTION THAT SOMETHING IS BEING DONE TO INSURE PROTECTION OF YOUR RIGHTS WITHIN THE LAWS.

One of the lawyers made an observation this past week, to the Ekkers and to the others present at a table; he said that truth has no longer any place in a courtroom and "a jury won't believe truth". Oh no, he was quite serious. Well, readers, if this be so then what use is there to expend all this time, abuse and labor to try to change an already dead dog? How is it, though, that truth is denied while lawyers LIE? If a jury of peers, given full advantage and RIGHTS OFFERED UNDER THE "INFORMED JURY" LAW, can't realize TRUTH, then you are in lost consequences of the system's actions and acceptance of UNLAWFUL activities. If the honest citizen is forced to lose everything he has for telling truth—you are a society so sick, in fact, that perhaps you have no RIGHT to survive to spread further evil about your place. God will leave you to your choices—and yes, I do mean "leave" you to them.

Further, why should only a few carry such a burden for the whole of you? They could make it through WITH GOD without the hassle.

We here hear daily from many people, some of whom are IN PRISON. They will say they killed, maimed, robbed, etc., but they now see Truth and they were somehow dealt a bad decision in court. Were they? Innocence, readers, is when you are INNOCENT and still convicted of that which you DID NOT do. Some want us to start an international movement to GET THEM OUT when they are guilty of that for which they are incarcerated, judicially right or wrong. "I killed my brother but now I change my mind..." simply doesn't cut it, people. Responsibility is the facing of consequences of that which you DO. And further, if here the Ekkers must somehow develop LIES to win these cases—then loss is certainly acceptable. And readers, just because the opposition spews the lie that there are hundreds of cases against the Ekkers—oops, WRONG. There are actually NONE. There are plenty of confrontations but they are not AGAINST the Ekkers and this is a misperception foisted off by the adversaries in the judicial confusion and distortions fostered by those factually distracting liars.

Grant Megan, George's "boy", tells that there are "hundreds of cases against the Ekkers"—and repeats it when questioned. But it simply is NOT SO. Do YOU really think a LIE could outdo the TRUTH, for a jury? No, the attorney in charge HERE—simply has to DO HIS JOB. SO WHAT ELSE IS NEW?

You can either accept and stand in TRUTH or you can fudge and go with the LIES. But, in the end, the latter will only further destroy you and your society.

Remember also that, as with the Internet, you can more easily get absolute lies, distortions of truth and more worthless information than ever you can get Truth. BE CAREFUL.

Our mission here is not to please ANY of the people any of the time. We share truth because we offer the necessary input to our people and any and all are welcome to share in that presentation. We force no one to do ANYTHING. We can't even get the ones who disagree and hate us to get away from us. That is hardly the definition of a cult or strange church of some kind. I think, however, that you can now realize WHY this assaulting continues—because evil can't let go, for in so-doing the perpetrators are UNCOVERED. It should further point out that the "confrontation" is far higher in realization than the moment being experienced. Evil will totally corrupt past all "reason".

Let's hear it again from the Master Teacher: "If man is faint of heart in spirit, so are his laws faint-hearted and are like heresy. If man is presumptuous and disregards the Commandments and Laws of The Creation and of God, he is forced to bring forth his own laws which are full of mistakes and lead him astray. Laws and commandments made according to men produce murder and evil, and evil will spread and gain control, and man no longer has any power over it. Commandments and laws are valid only if they are derived from wisdom and logic. But logic requires wisdom and perception."

We are weary and bent from being the "whipping boys" while you grow and lessons are brought. The time of TRUTH is at hand lest you move forever into the dark pit of eternal separation. If you hurt another through ignorance or chance prattle, you have brought forth the damage. You can make an effort to correct the course, but to continue to bury and cover is compounding the error and the damage moves back against self for the indiscretions. Remember something else: you cannot trust a recognized THIEF for, if he is covering his thievery—he will steal from you as well, while plying you with promises, tattlings and seeming good will. No, he is USING YOU for his own dastardly purposes—EVERY TIME—and the choices of coalition become YOUR RESPONSIBILITY. When you have someone doing all they can in truth and right-ness and another calls them the Wizard of Oz in the terminology and meaning of a Monarch Programmer—evil is afoot and the speaker is in gross error for ever participating with the goodly-intended travelers. Clues are ALWAYS present if YOU LOOK. If YOU allow it—it will flourish in YOUR GARDEN. What you grow in your garden is your business, but remember: you will be known for the thistles you deliberately place in your garden. Another fact comes into play here: if you KNOW TRUTH and LIVE TRUTH—the ego is not impressed by the liars.

Does this mean that the pain is gone in the accusations and assaults against you as a being and a person? No, but they do not DAMAGE—they only bring a bit of pain for the moment. If we accept a mission for God and we stay the course—we have nothing to fear for lies cannot long stand against TRUTH. What the "system" does is of no soul consequence except to the wrongdoers and liars.

More to the point, to those who constantly use these tactics against me: I don't want you in my company and, therefore, it is difficult to understand why you insist upon entering my space. I don't care whether YOU think of me as the Wizard of Oz or God—for your opinion of me is none of my business. In these instances I know what I am and YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE—and the twain shall never be one. Further, YOU who think you have "friendship" and "loyalty" with and from these wishy-washy ones—are going to find yourselves the butt of the evil conspirators' dung heap. In other words of blunt speaking: they will crap on you and hate you for the allowance.

YOU know right from wrong, good from evil, so why all the difficulty in decision-making? There is either RIGHT or there is WRONG. Which do you ALLOW and which do you, therefore, most often choose? It is certainly up to you alone for intent and opinion are solely individual.

By the way, readers, the minds who work up the fantastic presentations of such as Independence Day-type movies—ARE SICK AND MANIPULATIVE MINDS. There are no beings coming from outer space to hurt you—YOU HAVE CONJURED YOUR OWN NIGHTMARES. HOWEVER, EVIL IS NOT OF GOD AND THEREFORE IF GOD APPEARS—IT ISN'T GOING TO BE VERY NICE FOR THE EVIL PRETENDERS TO THE WORLD-THRONE. IT IS TIME YOU SELECT YOUR INTENTS AND DIRECTIONS—AND ALLIANCES.

Along the same lines of REASON: The Phoenix Institute, as far as we are concerned, was set forth to DO SOME NECESSARY AND EXPLICITLY GOOD PROJECTS. If you distract from success in those projects—you don't understand the program. We did NOT set forth anything that resembles communal anything, save being a good neighbor. Remember, too: you don't OWE your neighbor anything—but it is really nice if you can get on well with same. Some push the rules and break the confidence and disrupt—quite intentionally, to make themselves look good, and the parties responsible for sorting the mess look quite nasty and bad. No, look around you and see who and what is WRONG with this picture. And by the way, Ekkers didn't come to this location to do ANYTHING for ANYBODY SO THE COP-OUTS ARE FALLING ON NEWLY OFFENDED EARS AND PERSONAGES.

Another observation I must dump on you: if your partner sides with the "enemy" I suggest you have a BAD PARTNERSHIP which is worse than tacky—it is impossible. If YOU have to capitulate and bend your own soul truth to keep some semblance of "peace"—then you have NO PEACE and err in your own direction. When children enter the picture—THEY KNOW and they will grow to hate you for your weakness and will follow the stronger parent—not the goodly parent, UNTIL they come of age enough to act for selves. If a man, or woman, stays with a nagging and disloyal party “to save the children”—you are WRONG, WRONG, WRONG. You simply bring further pain and suffering to the child in point. If a child cannot have a GOOD EXAMPLE of loving coalition with parents—it is better to withdraw and do no lip-service to the growing LIE. If you further offer up your SOUL to allow those others to somehow “quiet” themselves, you insult GOD. GOD will understand alright, but it will not be the understanding of circumstances which you might wish to assume. GOD sees it exactly for what it is—weakness to escape the responsibility of confronting, in actuality, the TRUTH. A person DISLOYAL intentionally, to a spouse, is not a LOVE-MATE and when you are USED for whatever ends of that disloyal mate—you ERR. Marriage is a mutual negotiation of two people who love and RESPECT one another. When that RESPECT is gone—so too, is the marriage. A piece of paper is of no consequence to the TRUTH of the circumstances.

When you act in good faith and Truth and the other party is affronted through your rightful actions, and yet they fling at you that you are wrong and the rewards will be terrible in some way or that “this will come back to you”—REJOICE. If you have acted in good judgment—then your reward, even after all the revenge and vengeance is tried and applied by that other—will be that you will prevail. Remember that ALWAYS when you are pronounced WRONG by another—they think to be RIGHT themselves—even if they KNOW they are wrong.

If you are on “their turf”—extricate self. If they are on “your turf”, get them off it. When you are given responsibility in a position in the workplace, then assume that responsibility and demand that ones function in like responsibility or go their way, also. This is simple wisdom in action based on reason, responsibility and logic. If they continue to be irrational about intrusion upon your spaces—then have them lawfully removed. It is not alright to come forth and spread rumors and lies because others do not wish to offend your intentionally bad senses. A dim-witted and obtuse player is no excuse for such intrusive actions. Once a person who is asked agreeably to take leave and change habits of interference and intrusion—seems to accept nothing short of total confrontation of uncomfortable means to correct the course, then discomfort may well be a requirement thrust upon responsible parties.

I like to reason that if something is unsuitable in the Banker's offices at the home-office, then it is unsuitable in any business operation. And, further, if people cannot accept that we have “business” and not some cult plaything—they err, not we who serve. A CORPORATION IS A VALUABLE AND INDEPENDENT “PERSON” AND DEMANDS TOTAL LEGAL SECURITY IN ALL INSTANCES, WHETHER BIG OR TINY, FOR BOTH ARE CREATED EQUAL UNDER THE LAW AND WITHIN RESPONSIBILITY OF ALL WHO TOUCH IT. Furthermore, those who accept responsibility to serve a corporation are EXPECTED to attend the LAWs and Rules of that Corporation. If you don't like the kitchen you visit—then get out of that kitchen or expect to be treated as an INTRUDER OF ALIEN DEFINITION.

I don't care WHY Betty Tuten took corporations not belonging to her—SHE CHOSE TO TAKE THEM—unlawfully. She can either rectify that mistake or continue to make larger mistakes—it is up to her. The law is the law is the law is the law and just because somebody doesn't like the law—does not make it less valid.

There was intent to do no wrong? No, there was every intent to deliver the corporations to George Green, issue bearer stock, and USE THEM TO DESTROY THE INSTITUTE. THAT IS HARDLY HONORABLE OR GOOD-INTENTIONED ACTION. How would YOU like it if someone were allowed to walk into your agent's office and walk out with YOUR corporations? And NO, it is EXACTLY THE SAME THING! By the way, if this would happen, YOU would be liable under the law for a heavy fine for every day those corporation books are OUT OF YOUR HANDS OR THE HANDS OF YOUR APPOINTED AGENT! And, if YOU are going to utilize the wonderful shelter of a corporation—you MUST learn the laws and how to manage, properly, that artificial person you have birthed or with which you work.

It is time you reach out and help protect the good laws which shelter you and stop beating up on the people who do insist those laws be maintained and responsible parties TAKE RESPONSIBILITY for insurance of same. If you want to play in a commune—go somewhere else for you will find no such thing here.

If you bother to get yourself INFORMED, you won't have any trouble at all realizing who is right and who is wrong in every circumstance. If it breaks the law, bends the laws of GOD—it is WRONG and opinions are of NO value. If you only follow along like sheep in the shadow of another's opinions—then you will fall on “their” face right along with them. GOD does NOT bless ignorance because of refusal to learn.

By the way, if we have a meeting at any time which is open—it is NOT “my” meeting. If I need a meeting for “my” purposes I respectfully ask for an appointment. So, what may happen at these open meetings is YOUR business as to who is welcome and who is not when you KNOW the problem-builders. Any who come for ANY OTHER PURPOSE than to hear what is offered—is NOT WITH YOU, PEOPLE. They are come for their own purposes and ill-intent as pretenders. Nobody has a RIGHT to demand anything, even cake and punch. This is our social opportunity for friendship shared and, even though our enemies are “allowed”, it would certainly seem foolish. How do you treat YOUR HOME? Do you allow your enemy into your house to your private lunch or dinner because he/she chooses to barge in through your unlocked door? We have no intention of EVER having a church or groupie here—anytime, anywhere. It has never been otherwise and never shall. We have work to do in our Father's business—no more, no less.

Now that we have rambled on and on, let us close with this thought in mind: He who acts in foolishness shall be treated as the Fool he represents. Salu.

Perhaps it is time for you to wake up and at the least put a stop to the local evil-liars who work to badger your own Institute in which you participate, CONTACT, and personally, anyone who confronts their lies and evil actions. You are being heard IN THE LEGISLATURE OF NEVADA; THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE is now ordering an investigation through the BAR ASSOCIATION. [Editor's note: Again, see the list of contacting information for your convenience on page 22.] Keep in touch and demand responses. And, thanks to you who have tried to look out for your own Corporations through this route of demanding attention to these assaults and the legal misfits involved. THIS IS THE ONLY WAY YOU CAN CHANGE FROM THE DASTARDLY TO SOME KIND OF DEMAND FOR JUSTICE AND PROTECTION. NO ONE CAN SIMPLY WALK INTO AN AGENT'S OFFICE AND STEAL CORPORATION BOOKS AND CLAIM THE CORPORATIONS—PERIOD. I don't care what might be the “reasoning” involved. There are lawful ways of handling everything and especially corporations. Breaking the Law is NOT ACCEPTABLE.

It becomes more and more evident that the local “team” is not being very careful about your own positions, for the enemy is among you, as I have warned, and they tell EVERYTHING to the Brigade that you even remotely share with them. Then, as you will have access when released from court—you will see that “they” have joined YOU TALKERS and SHARERS of information, even about your most PRIVATE AFFAIRS, with the conspirators heading the cases IN COURT. I have warned you and warned you about your “choices” and, now, we shall see how many of you are going to enjoy your private information and names being joined in THEIR cases? Your names have been revealed and you can now get ready for disclosure and USE as a tool of those criminals. It will be called “blackmail”. I don't think you are going to like your names in LIGHTS as they try to use YOU to stay out of prison for their activities. They have managed to lump a few of you innocent watchers and “allowers” into even the embezzlement of the gold coins by George Green. I warned you that there was no honor among thieves, cheats and liars.

And by the way, the document file presented by Ann Beam is some 2-3 inches thick with your affidavits, names, locations and so on. Perhaps once a witch in a coven listing—always a witch? No, I do not call them witches—THEY CALL THEMSELVES WITCHES! Check it out in Tucson and find out for yourselves. And no, they aren't going to be able to make it look like Patricia was the only responsible prattler and information runner. This is also unacceptable. Perhaps it is time for all of you who think this some kind of cute communal/spiritualistic game—TO GROW UP AND STOP SHOOTING YOURSELVES IN YOUR FEET. There are some people who risk losing to these Hell Hounds, their resources—and they aren't going to TAKE IT ANY LONGER!

But aren't we scared? B.S.! The light from one Godly being can snuff out their dark and dank candle rings forever. THEY cannot stand the light of TRUTH and maybe it is time some of you wisen up—and get in there and tell what you KNOW—because “they” have indicted you by association.

I can name a few who have been NAMED: Jeff, Phyllis, Bud, Ed C., Claudia (by inference), Theresa along with others who are named but only associated through inference in the immediate association purview. The neighbors Centanni and Cornellison along with Jason Brent, Guden, et al., are also NAMED informers OF INFORMATION which has no bearing on anything but will be used later. We are finding it interesting that so much of our sorting work is being done FOR US. We thank you but find it important that if you do not wish to be “included” from perchance just “allowance” of nice friendly people within your spaces, that YOU take some kind of action to clean it up. If you privately shared “investigative” information from car “brands” to personality conflicts—you might wish to check it out—as a second thought.

If you also FEEL BETRAYED—join the crowd! Good morning.

A Tip Of The Iceberg

- (1) Return to the Constitution and constitutional law united States, and return to a constitutional, and constitutionally "debt free" united States, or
- (2) Bend over, take a firm grasp around our knees, and "kiss it all good-bye".

11/15/96 V.K. DURHAM

Admiralty Law, Sec. 1-9
and
the Federal Reserve Act, and (let's not forget) the International Monetary Fund Agreement,
Public Law 94-564

Yesterday Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Rubin, made the most asinine statements ever read by myself, and millions of other concerned Americans. Mr. Rubin stated (in D.C. newspapers) it would not be good for the United States to balance the budget. He continued with: "What would happen to the United States in the event she was debt free and a war began? Where would she go for money?" Hello?

That's a dumb and blatantly stupid statement!

For if the United States were to be debt free, it would be set in the terrific position of being able to institute a constitutional, lawful money system. The Federal Reserve banking system would no longer be able to use unfair parity (12 U.S.C. Sec. 411) by giving the American public "legal tender" which has absolutely no value other than the paper cost, cost of the ink, and transportation costs, which is about nine cents (see 18 U.S.C. Public Policies one, two and three). Once printed, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 411 is implemented by the Federal Reserve; they, in turn, walk over to Mr. Rubin's U.S. Treasury Trust (of the people), turn in those worthless pieces of paper and convert this monopoly paper into lawful money (constitutional money; silver & gold).

In addition, if we were debt-free, we would be in an excellent position to (1) eliminate Maritime Courts in courts of the land, (2) be able to reinstate the duly constituted, constitutional laws, (3) restore our industry, jobs, and manufacturing to the good old U.S. of A. (this one would also necessitate the elimination of NAFTA and GATT, etc.).

emit bills of credit; make any thing but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; etc."

You did read that, did you not? Only gold and silver can be tendered in payment of debts. Unconscionable parity is used in 12 U.S.C. Sec. 411. The Federal Reserve can issue monopoly paper which is worthless, and walk over to Rubin's U.S. Treasury Trust and collect lawful money?

Has anyone tried to buy a U.S. Treasury silver certificate?!

(constitutional lawful money)

Has anyone tried to buy an ounce of gold?
(You're going to love this one.)

A lawful, constitutional U.S. Treasury silver certificate, a dollar bill, will cost you $35-40.00. However, on the other hand, the Federal Reserve can walk over to Mr. Rubin's office of the U.S. Treasury Trust, and for one of those worthless one-dollar notes called a Federal Reserve Bank Note (legal tender), and collect $35-40.00 in constitutional, lawful money.

(Watch this closely:) Public Law 94-564, the Board of Governors of the International Monetary Fund Agreement, also known as the Bretton Woods Agreement, October 19, 1976 [H.R. 13955], 22 U.S.C. Sec. 286 Par Value Modification:

"For congressional direction that the Secretary of the Treasury maintain the value in terms of gold of the holdings in United States dollars of the International Monetary Fund and of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development following the establishment of a par value of the dollar at $38 for a fine troy ounce of gold pursuant to the Par Value Modification Act and for the authorization of the appropriation necessary to provide such maintenance of value, see Sec. 5152 of Title 31, Money and Finance."

DOES A LAWFUL NATIONAL DEBT EXIST?!

A thinking person would say, "No!" No national debt could possibly exist under gold and silver parity to a Federal Reserve note. For, when the Federal Reserve gives us worthless monopoly tender, and walks over to U.S. Treasury Secretary Rubin's office to collect lawful tender as payment of debt at a parity of $38.00 lawful money as opposed to the value of worthless legal tender. A thinking person would say: "What national debt are they talking about?! The debt is prepaid. No debt exists!"

WHO IS THE
BOARD OF GOVERNORS
OF
THE BRETTON WOODS,
IME, GATT AGREEMENT?

"Rules and Regulations, Federal Reserve System" (Federal Register, Vol. 61, No. 201, Wednesday, October 16, 1996)

Federal Reserve System, 5 CFR, ch. LVIII; 12 CFR, Part 264 [Docket No. R 0900] RIN 3209-AA15; Supplemental Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Look it up, and read it carefully, including Public Law 94-564. You will discover the Federal Reserve and the Executive Branch all cuddled up, nice and cozy.

How did the Executive Branch get in there? (You ready for this one, Sweetie Poo?) The Federal Advisory Committee Act of 1972, which brought forth Title 3, the President's Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1977, as provided in Sec. 203 of Reorganization Plan No. 2, 1970 (you kids who have computers, look this up).

The Admiralty laws—which are imposed on us today in our courts—cause us inestimable harm, as it harmed the constitutioners, and was noted in the Resolves of the First Continental Congress:

"Whereas, since the close of the last war, the British Parliament, claiming a power of right to bind the people of America by statute in all cases whatsoever [statute law is Maritime Law], hath, in some acts expressly imposed taxes on them, and in others, under various pretenses, but in fact for the purpose of raising revenue, hath imposed rates and duties payable in these colonies, established a Board of Commissioners [try the current day board of governors] with unconstitutional powers, and extended the jurisdiction of courts of Admiralty not only for collecting the said duties, but for the trial of causes merely arising within the body of a county." Resolve No. 5. "The Common Law". (The Law of the Land)

T-H-E-Y'-R-E B-A-C-K!

The Federal Reserve Banking Trust System is a foreign trust. To operate, it must prevail upon Admiralty Laws (international laws of nations).

Our state constitutions forbid foreign corporations, foreign owners of banks operating in our duly constituted states (constitutional law). The Federal Reserve Banking Trust System will not, nor can it, be found duly registered as a state corporation or lawful trust, and this goes for the Internal Revenue Service also.

We are told that Admiralty Law prevails in our courts, and the laws of the land (common laws) are mocked by our courts and the members of the Bar Association, while cheered upwards and onwards by the news media.

Sec. 12, deleted. Sec. 13 provides for a permissive: "as a court of law of nations; and original, but not exclusive jurisdiction of all suits or proceedings against ambassadors, etc., (International Contracts of Maritime Jurisdiction), etc."

The Sec. are further deleted up to Sec. 25, which involves validity of treaties. Then, a jump of deletions up to Sec. 35, which calls for a meet person, learned in law to act as Attorney General for the United States.

Curiously, in this Judiciary Act of 1789, the following Sec. are enacted, Sec. 1, Sec. 2, Sec. 3, Sec. 4, Sec. 9, Sec. 11, Sec. 13, Sec. 25, Sec. 35.

No mention of any Bar Association, nor mention of necessity of license to practice law. However, one must be learned in law.

HOW DO WE GET TO CONSTITUTIONAL COMMON LAW IN ADMIRALTY JURISDICTION COURTS?

ADMIRALTY LAW SEC. 1-9.

"THE SAVING CLAUSE"—

"THE RULE OF DECISION" INVOCATIONS

Saving Clause. Admiralty Law Sec. 1-9. "...the district courts...shall also have exclusive original cognizance of all civil causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction...saving to suitors, in all cases, the right of common law remedy, where the common law is competent to give it..." (Meaning not involved in International Shipping or Maritime contracts.)

Original Jurisdiction of constitutional common law is bound by original contract of Constitution for the United States, and the first ten Amendments to the Constitution, known as the Bill of Rights in its entirety.

Look at it this way: The Constitution of the United States is a contract. The people contracted for a central government to handle their affairs in good faith. In this contract, there were seven articles of provisions for the contractors to adhere to. Beyond those seven articles and the Bill of Rights, the Federal Central Government had/has no area of Jurisdiction, and are bound by those seven articles of provision, which are agreed to each time a duly elected Officer of Public Trust takes a sworn oath, to the duties of Office of Public Trust to uphold, protect and defend, at the time of entering offices of the public.

We, the People, of the Preamble suffer a runaway, unconstitutional, repugnant form of government, as identified by the First Continental Congress. The keys to the kingdom are in these two pages. There is no need for a constitutional rewrite! Just work through the system, follow the pathway set forth by the Founding Fathers.

Then, utilize Article VI, Clause 2. You guys have to read, research, and get your "IT" together, and quit crying in your milk; throw those Egos out the window. Egos are not worth a hoot. Hunker down, put your shoulders to the grind stone, pull yourself up by your bootstraps, and for Heaven's sake (and yours) quit leaving it for the other guys to do!

I am going to tell you kids what my grandparents told me when I kept saying "I can't". My grandparents took me by the shoulders, shook me lightly, and said: "Can't never did a dammed thing. You can do it!"

Talk Show Hostess, Tactics Don't Help VKD Explain Gold Certificate

11/20/96 V.K. DURHAM

Last evening, I was on the Diane Silverman radio talk show originating in Little Rock, Arkansas. The talk show hostess had asked me to explain the old contract (gold contract/certificate bonus 3392-181) of the Russell E. Herrmann-Herrman-Herman estate, including Mr. Herrmann-Herrman-Herman's murder.

I am still somewhat confused as to the intent of the talk show. While the contract is essentially straightforward, check out a few of its details: The old contract (reaffirmed, reconfirmed, reestablished, reconfirmed, by the Nation of Peru, August 21, 1989), which is a commodity contract, calling for payment in gold, gold coin, gold bullion, at a specific rate of interest, which is and has been in default all these many, many years. And which was assumed by the United States, under the Theodore Roosevelt Administration, ratified by both Houses 1905-06, pursuant to the Monroe Doctrine, assumed per the Golden Rule (per President Roosevelt), which was a bearer instrument. And which has since become a recorded owned instrument, recorded in recorder's records of deeds, in two (2) court houses in the state of Illinois, identified as a contract, from which an enormous amount of interest is due and payable, whereas portions of said accrued interest has become matters of estate of Russell E. Herrmann-Herrman-Herman, who left 48.8 percent to the American People's Treasury Trusts of their respective states, to pay off the national debt, for jobs, industry, education, health care, etc. Without having read the old contract how could callers comment intelligently?

My confusion is derived from additional persons, alleging to be knowledgeable in law, who persist in making rash statements and citing the gold clause cases of 1933-35 which involved (1) railroad bonds, and (2) a fourth Liberty Loan 4 1/4% bond of the gold bond, series of 1933-34, a debt of the United States. Congress had passed a law (only after these congressmen had made over 500% profits on these old bonds), which made it illegal and against public policy for persons to own gold, or to demand payments in gold per contracts. This was challenged and put before the U.S. Supreme Court, which rendered:

"We do not so read the Constitution. There is a clear distinction between the power of Congress to control or interdict the contracts of private parties when they interfere with the exercise of its constitutional authority, and power of Congress to alter or repudiate the substance of its own engagements when it has borrowed money; the Constitution empowers the Congress to fix the amount to be borrowed and the terms of payment. By virtue of the power to borrow money 'on the credit of the United States', the Congress is authorized to pledge that credit as an assurance of payment as stipulated, as the highest assurance the Government can give, is its plighted faith. To say that the Congress may withdraw or ignore that pledge is to assume the Constitution contemplates a vain promise; a pledge having no other sanction than the pleasure and convenience of the pledger. This Court has given no sanction to such a conception of the obligations of our Government.

"When the United States, with constitutional authority, makes contracts, it has rights and incurs responsibilities similar to those of individuals who are parties to such instruments.

"The Argument in favor of the Joint Resolution, as applied to government bonds, is in substance that the government cannot by contract restrict the exercise of a sovereign power. But the right to make binding obligations is a competence attaching to sovereignty. In the United States, sovereignty resides in the people who act through the organs established by the Constitution. The Congress as the instrumentality of sovereignty is endowed with certain powers to be exerted on behalf of the people in the manner and with the effect the Constitution ordains. The Congress cannot invoke the sovereign power of the people to override their will, as thus declared."

Last evening, this was attempted to be read on the Diane Silverman radio talk show; however, another allegedly learned guest interrupted, and refused this to be read to the listening audience.

Several very important things are contained in the gold clause cases: (1) The Supreme Court did not so read the Constitution, (2) the gold clause cases involved government bonds on which the U.S. Government had borrowed money from good faith lenders, and acted in bad faith when the creditors tried to collect dollar for dollar per contract, (3) the sovereignty of the people of the United States prevails, (4) acts against public policy (18 U.S.C. Public Policies one, two and three, etc.) relates to public officials holding offices of public trust, (5) contracts shall be paid dollar for dollar as contracted, (6) Congress cannot override the sovereign will of the people.

You read it here first: Congress cannot override the sovereign will of the people. U.S. Supreme Court Decision; Knox vs. Lee, 12 Wall. 457; Julliard vs. Greenman, 110 U.S. 451; Yick Wo vs. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356, 370.

I take serious exception to those who attempt to kill the messenger of good news, by making unqualified, misleading statements about something which they know absolutely nothing about! Moreover, serious exception is taken when the people of this great nation are misled by those who are unfamiliar with the laws, who misstate the laws, and mislead those who so desperately are desirous of being fully informed, who read and listen, hoping to gain truth, to become more fully informed, and who, when listening (I make no apologies for the defense of the commodity contract last evening which gave rise to anger by myself), are confronted with arrogance and dis-information, from persons alleging to be knowledgeable but who are in fact misinformed, and refuse to allow the full truth to be known by the public.

Last evening, I was asked the question: "How do you know [Russell] Herman was murdered?" That is the most asinine question I have ever been asked in my 60+ years! The murder evidence is exhibited on Herman's body! Prima Facia evidence exists!

Did the talk show hostess or this alleged legal expert see the body, or the Prima Facia evidence? No! They chose to slander the issues and discredit that with which they are not knowledgeable.

Frankly, I am somewhat confused by the disallowance of fully informed information and Supreme Court decisions, from being read to the listening audience.

Franklin Cover-Up Revisited

Now comes the capper with a new and enthused crowd who want to know about the "Franklin Cover-Up" and George Bush. Ah, thank you, for I thought you would NEVER get around to understanding the importance of that topic. [Editor's note: Commander Hatonn's extensive outlay concerning The Franklin Cover-Up can be found in the 1/11/94 & 1/18/94 CONTACT'S]

We wrote so extensively about this subject so long back that we may find the journals are still among the ones held hostage by one George Green. I hope that is the only reason he has kept them from you-the-people—greed and avarice. But, yes, I suppose there could be greater connections in butterflies and family values.

I don't know how much more I will cover on the subject because it has been well documented in other publications and even in a book called The Franklin Cover-Up, Child Abuse, Satanism, and Murder in Nebraska, by John W. DeCamp (former state Senator, Nebraska).

Let me offer the back-cover writing: [QUOTING:] The shut-down of Omaha, Nebraska's Franklin Community Federal Credit Union, raided by federal agencies in November 1988, sent shock waves all the way to Washington, D.C. $40 million was missing. The credit union's manager, Republican Party activist Lawrence E. "Larry" King, Jr., behind whose rise to fame and riches stood powerful figures in Nebraska politics and business, and in the nation's capital. [H: No, this is NOT "Larry" King of "LIVE", the confirmed atheist; this is "Larry" King of Omaha Nebraska, the proven Satanist.]

In the face of opposition from local and state law enforcement, from the FBI, and from the powerful Omaha World-Herald newspaper, a special Franklin committee of the Nebraska Legislature launched its own probe. What looked like a financial swindle, soon exploded into a hideous tale of drugs, Iran-Contra money-laundering, a nationwide child-abuse ring, and ritual murder.

Nineteen months later, the legislative committee's chief investigator died—suddenly, and violently, like more than a dozen other people linked to the Franklin case.

Author John DeCamp knows the Franklin scandal from the inside. In 1990, his "DeCamp memo" first publicly named the alleged high ranking abuses. Today, he is attorney for two of the abuse victims.

Using documentation never before made public, DeCamp lays bare not only the crimes, but the cover-up—a textbook case of how dangerous the corruption of institutions of government, and the press, can be. In its sweep and in what it portends for the nation, the Franklin Cover-Up followed the ugly precedent of the Warren Commission. [END OF QUOTING]

Now let us just look at how brave Australia was at the time:

And then came Dr. Sutton in his Phoenix newsletter who tried to get the information to you and was all but killed in the process, in 1992. He still is very, very hard to reach. We all, in presenting truth in publications, tried our best to get you to wake-up but you slept on—and on—and on—and...

I believe that rather than fight Mr. Green further on this topic or asking our work-buried team to dig out and reconstruct, I will offer a second "opinion" and later we can reconstruct the entire bunch of offerings. You can, in the interim, get information through the above named book and if you can locate Dr. Sutton, he can supply you with original information. We no longer keep up with Sutton but he is a personal acquaintance of Dr. Young. Therefore, we give FULL HONOR AND CREDIT for the next information we will simply re-present here. I will not even give "old" information on contacting Dr.

Sutton because he has been under such physical assault as to cause me to be very cautious with any information regarding his whereabouts until we contact him, again, personally.

So, from the PHOENIX LETTER, "A Report on the Abuse of Power", Antony C. Sutton, Sept. 1992, Vol. 11, No. 9:

[From the PHOENIX LETTER, QUOTING:]

BUSH LINKED TO OMAHA, NEBRASKA CHILD-ABUSE SCANDAL

Since 1988 Omaha, Nebraska has been rocked by overwhelming evidence of corruption, child abuse, Satanic practices, perjury, murder, abduction, miscarriage of justice and Heaven only knows what else.

This evidence is largely KNOWN only within Nebraska. IT HAS BEEN SUPPRESSED. Elements of the story have shown up in Australia, Italy and Spain but throughout the United States the story has been effectively squashed even though, or because, the trail leads to the Bush White House. [H: Bob Hope's yesterday platitudes to this sweet man, withstanding.]

Suppression is possible because Omaha has only ONE major daily newspaper, the Omaha World Herald, and its publisher Harold Anderson is a member of the accused child-abuse ring.

The story starts in the early 1980s with Larry King Jr., a Black Republican well known in local Omaha circles, and acquaintance (at least) of Mr. Bush and former manager of The Franklin Credit Union (now defunct) [H: But always as you read this re-presentation, that was four years ago, in 1992.]. King was widely known for homosexual, pedophilic practices and organized lavish parties involving pedophiles, drugs and Satanic practices. King was present at the 1984 and 1988 Republican National Conventions where he organized parties for selected politicians behind the scenes and beyond the knowledge of most delegates.

King's partner in Washington D.C. was homosexual procurer Craig Spence (now deceased, "suicided"). Through investigation of the Spence-Washington D.C. "call-boy" operation the extensive Omaha corruption child-abuse ring was unearthed. [H: As regards the "call-boy" ring, we would have to look into the matters of Barney Frank, your outspoken Massachusetts Congressman who kept a ring of "call-boys" in his apartment in Washington.]

When King's financial abuses were investigated, numerous leads to child abuse and Satanic practices were ignored. Stifling of investigation was possible because the ring included powerful Omaha insiders including Omaha Police Chief Robert Wadham, Governor Robert Kerry and FBI Agent-in-Charge Nick O'Hara.

Children abused at King parties were drawn from Father Flanagan's Boys Club and North Omaha Girls Club (founded by Larry King). [H: Ask Cathy O'Brien about these CLUBS.] THERE IS NO DOUBT ABOUT THE CHILD ABUSE. It is recorded in graphic detail in the RECORDS of the Nebraska State Foster Care Board. Attempts by social workers to initiate investigations have been thwarted. Honest police officers have been driven from the Omaha force. Honest FBI agents have been transferred out of Nebraska. Investigators working for the Nebraska unicameral Senate have been harassed and in one case killed.

[H: I need to insert a private statement here in behalf of Dharma to a close friend in Europe: "Please

However, Caradori VIDEOTAPED four of the victims and their testimony is recorded. A legacy to the valiant work of Caradori.

The Franklin Committee Did Not Survive. Chairman Schmidt received threats almost as soon as the Committee convened. One from Police Chief Robert Wadham, "I've got something on all of you." Committee members resigned and late last year the Nebraska Legislature refused to continue its existence.

A Douglas County Grand Jury convened in March 1990 was a farce. The foreman Michael Flanagan was himself involved in child abuse. A matter of record! Flanagan was a 27-year employee of Union Pacific Railroad and U.P. personnel were implicated in the Grand Jury exploration.

Further, Michael Flanagan had made "improper sexual advances" to a fellow employee (Pike). This accusation of pandering was settled with a "substantial sum of money by Union Pacific for Pike to keep quiet, go about his business and find other employment." The chairman of Union Pacific was also a member of the accused child-abuse ring.

Michael Flanagan was appointed foreman of a Grand Jury investigating these self same charges. Its conclusion was foregone. It found the child-abuse story to be a "carefully crafted hoax". The Grand Jury report did not explain how a bunch of scared, abused teenagers could "carefully craft" a story involving the most prominent persons in Omaha ([ex-FBI Ted] Gunderson's book takes the Grand Jury conclusions apart one by one).

Larry King Jr. was indicted by a Federal Grand Jury on financial charges only. Then a U.S. Magistrate ordered a "mental evaluation". King was sent to the Federal Psychiatric Facility in Springfield, Missouri (Springfield is known for brain-washing research). Subsequently King was sent to jail where he presently resides.

The child-abuse victims were charged with perjury. Those victims who recanted their testimony supposedly under pressure from the FBI were allowed to go free. Those who stuck by their testimony were accused of perjury and sent to jail.

About 15 key persons involved in the Franklin child-abuse case have died in some manner since the investigation began. Including an energetic investigator Gary Cotadori (see DeCamp Franklin Cover-Up, Appendix A, Suspicious death tied to the Franklin case. Pg.250).

Note: the forward to the DeCamp book is a conversation between DeCamp and former CIA Director William E. Colby. Colby warned DeCamp "to get away from the Franklin child-abuse investigation, Larry King and anybody else linked with Franklin, as quickly as possible for the sake of life and safety." [H: You will note that things are still not so good for Colby as he was just "suicided" by drowning this year.]

The forward concludes with the following by Bill

Colby: "...there really are people too powerful, interests too big, that the rich and the powerful even when doing evil, can and will succeed and you can do nothing about it at the moment. But you do the possible, recognize the impossible, and if you are right—and you are, and we both know it—there will be a time when victory will come and the good will triumph over evil."

This statement comes from former [H: NOW DEAD] CIA Director Bill Colby, with direct reference to the Franklin child-abuse scandal.

If a former CIA Director believes DeCamp to be right then that should be good enough for you and me.

[H: I think before we offer more on the "cover-up" we might well summarize this extraordinary pedophilic, satanic scandal. I would also like to remind you that one of Rick Martin's earlier contacts and information resources is Ted Gunderson, former FBI Senior Special Agent in charge in Los Angeles, a 28-year FBI veteran. Gunderson wrote a report on the pedophilic ring for the Nebraska Leadership Conference and includes the comment "I can state without hesitation that every statement in this book is documented by hard evidence." Gunderson was an FBI child-abuse specialist. There have been so many attempts to discredit Gunderson as to be shocking in themselves. The more recent one was sucking him into a tale of explosive material regarding the Oklahoma City bombing. It remains to be seen if he was simply fed bad information or incorrect data. We do not offer presenters as other than what they are—PRESENTERS and information resources.]

EVIDENCE LINKS BUSH TO THE OMAHA CHILD-ABUSE RING

There is extraordinary evidence linking President George Bush to the Omaha child-abuse ring. We balanced this evidence against the possibility of fabrication in an election year. If true the evidence will finish Bush as a political figure for all time. If not true it is an injustice of the gravest nature. [H: Well, neither is true—he was not “finished” and the material is true.]

What we decided to do is present part of the evidence that links Mr. Bush in some manner, incidental or significant to the scandal and allow you, the reader, to make your own conclusions.

The naive will suggest that surely Democratic participants in the ongoing Presidential election would use this evidence against Mr. Bush. Unfortunately Democratic nominee Bill Clinton (also a Yale graduate) has skeletons in the closet, not the least being the Mena affair in which Clinton, as governor of Arkansas, reportedly covered up Bush/CIA misdeeds in Arkansas.

In any event we have copies and partial copies of documents originating with the State of Nebraska. Some documents came from Australia. They could be forged. We do not have notarized copies. That is why a Federal Special Investigator is necessary. We believe them to be authentic.

We hold no brief for Mr. Bush. We have a decade-long record of criticizing Bush and his links to the Yale secret society Skull and Bones with satanic features.

However we always criticize on the basis of accurate and verifiable evidence and we have no intention of changing this policy.

There follows documents linking President Bush to the satanic-pedophilic ring. We then reproduce an assessment made 15 years ago on the satanic aspects of Skull and Bones. This last information is apparently not known to the Nebraska accusers but is circumstantial support for their charges. You be the judge.

NEBRASKA DOCUMENTS LINKING MR. BUSH TO OMAHA CHILD ABUSE

Document #2: State of Nebraska “Request for juvenile Petition” for Eulicia Webb (age 16). Reference to a pedophilic party attended by George Bush. Written by Andrea L. Carpenter, Protective Service Worker.

wanted Eulice, however, Larry King told him no. Eulice indicated that she could remember the men grabbing the boys.

Eulice indicated that she recognized George Bush as coming to the party and that Bush had two large white males with him. Eulice indicated Bush came to the party approximately 45 minutes after it started and that he was greeted by Larry King. Eulice indicated that she knew George Bush due to the fact that he had been in political campaigns and also she had observed a picture of Bush with Larry King at Larry King's house in Omaha. Eulice also indicated that she recognized some other people who were friends of Mr. King at the party although she could not identify them.

Furthermore Eulice indicated that at some point after Bush and the two white males which accompanied him came to the party that they left with the black male she identified as Brandt. Eulice indicated that she never saw Brandt at the party after he left with Bush.

Eulice indicated that the hotel that they stayed at had a restaurant and that she ate sometimes with Larry King or sometimes ate in her room. Eulice indicated that she recalled coming back to Omaha on the same plane.

Relative to the New York trip in February or March of 1985, Eulice indicated that they flew to New York on the same plane. Eulice indicated that she could recall leaving school on what she thought was a Friday for a half day, getting out at 1:30 in the afternoon then flying to New York where she stayed the weekend and also missed school on Monday and Tuesday. Eulice indicated Document #1 is a report to the Franklin Committee of the Nebraska State Legislature by Committee investigator Jerry Lowe dated May 8, 1989. It summarizes interviews with Eulice Washington. We reprint page 9 of one Lowe report. This places Bush at a pedophilic party and leaving with a “Black male she identified as Brandt” (Plus bodyguards).

Jerry Lowe subsequently resigned and was replaced by investigator Gary Caradori. Caradori was killed when his light plane exploded in mid-air.

Document #2 is a request for juvenile protection written by Andrea L. Carpenter, a Protective Services Worker for the State of Nebraska. This report, written some years before the Lowe report, also cites Bush at pedophilic parties.

Document #3 is the front page of Inside News, published in Australia November 1991. This speaks for itself but emphasizes the point of censorship within the United States: Australians know more about Omaha than do Americans!

SATANIC ASPECTS OF SKULL AND BONES

Part Four of America Secret Establishment is entitled “The Secret Cult of the Order” (Liberty House Press, 207 Iris Lane, Billings, MT 59102 $20.00).

This section links Skull and Bones to Satanism through photographic and symbolic evidence. George Bush is of course a member of Skull and Bones and participated in satanist practices at least during the initiation ceremony.

The photographic evidence (page 207 et seq) consists of Skull and Bones club photographs of members accompanied by “crossed thigh bones and a skull”. We also know that assorted human remains are kept within the Bones Temple on the Yale campus. We comment: (p. 207) “An obvious point is that these bones and skulls are former human beings. Instead of sacred treatment, they are exhibited and used for ceremonial purposes. Where the bones should be resting decently in a grave, they have become the center of a secret ceremony. In brief, the photographs reveal the men portrayed as grave robbers who reject human dignity and decency and use satanic devices.” [H: The facts are that the Bush “big daddy” actually grave-robbled the grave of Chief Geronimo of the Native Americans—and retains the skull to this day.]

This paragraph written in the 1970s and published with evidence in the 1970s shows at least a predisposition on the part of George Bush to be associated with satanic symbolism and ceremony. This makes the Omaha charges more credible.

[END QUOTING OF PHOENIX LETTER]

I ask that the accompanying documents be run in CONTACT even though the reprint quality of especially Doc. #1 is very poor. You can, by close magnification, see the reference to George Bush. We can only offer what we have been offered with which to work. I simply cannot urge you strongly enough to get backup material from THE FRANKLIN COVER-UP by John W. DeCamp [Available from A. W. T., Inc., P.O. Box 85461, Lincoln, NE 68501 $9.95 + $2.00 postage & handling]. Since this topic is rearing its ugly head again at this time—I will not reveal more than is public reference but would suggest that before the next edition of CONTACT, somebody research and locate our own prior writings so that we can offer what was previously presented.

Know, readers, that I have no interest in destroying such as George Bush. He is a manufacture of YOU, and You-The-People have allowed this kind of leadership and decay in your government and in your world—NOT ME. What YOU do is your business, but I assure you that until you do something to clean up your act, it is not going to get better. So be it.

We are out of time to longer spend time on this today. I have waited until today, however, to bring this topic back to public attention because of recent warnings received to NOT do so. I KEEP MY AGREEMENTS, MR. BUSH—IT WOULD APPEAR THAT YOU DO NOT!

Thank you, readers, for your attention and, yes indeed, we certainly shall offer you a bit more discussion about Mr. Palme.

Is George Bush The World's Leading CHILD MOLESTER?

On December 31 the President of the United States of America arrives in Australia for a visit. George Bush is arguably already the most powerful man on earth. Currently he is striving to introduce what he terms a "New World Order", supposedly for the benefit, prosperity, and peace of all mankind.

To give one man as much power as Mr Bush craves could be dangerous, even if that man were the most honourable on earth. But is Mr Bush honourable? Is he really the type of man to have control of our children's futures?

Is he a saint? Or is he a
HOMOSEXUAL CHILD ABUSER

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

805-822-0202

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
