FIRE FROM THE SKY, PART VI The Killing Continues

by Calvin Burgin

CAMBRIDGE RESEARCH ASSOCIATES AND WRIGHT PATTERSON AFB

Senator Barry Goldwater tried to gain entry to Wright Patterson Air Force Base at Dayton, OH, and was refused by General Curtis LeMay. Goldwater was told that he did not have high enough security clearance, even though Goldwater was, as I recall, chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee. "Wright Pat" is famous in UFO literature as the home of the mysterious "Hanger 18" and the "Blue Room," where crashed flying saucers are supposedly taken.

When the heads of Bosnia, Croatia and the Serbs were brought to Wright-Pat for a peace conference recently (early November, 1995), there was curiosity and speculation as to why that particular site was chosen for that purpose. "Hey, buddies, make peace or we will send the flying saucers after you?" When asked, the government said it was chosen because of its security.

Here is what happened, as far as I could find out. The New York Times said (bolding mine), (quoting:) WASHINGTON—The hard-fought boundaries in the Bosnia peace accord were drawn up by Pentagon mapmakers with the aid of computers whose high-technology programs will also allow NATO commanders to view the terrain they will patrol hill by hill before they go. Using satellite imagery and terrain elevation information, the Defense Mapping Agency created a virtual-reality version of the Bosnian landscape that allowed negotiators to sit in front of a computer terminal and examine geographic features, from mountains to streams to roadways, down to two yards in detail.

The computer program, which NATO fighter pilots used last summer to rehearse some 1,200 bombing missions over Bosnia, enabled the negotiators, including the presidents of the rival states, to take a simulated aerial tour of the 650-mile cease-fire borders and any disputed territory.

"The presidents of each of the countries were in at all hours," said Vic Kuchar, an official of the Defense Mapping Agency who helped operate the two $400,000 computer systems the Pentagon rushed to the talks at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio. The two top American negotiators, Assistant Secretary of State Richard Holbrooke and Lt. Gen. Wesley Clark, "would set the presidents down and fly them to a hill or town and discuss it," said Kuchar. [Holbrooke recently won the Naham Goldman award from the World Jewish Congress. His father was a Jew who emigrated from Russia.]

At one point late in the talks, American officials brought Serbian President Slobodan Milosevic to a high-tech auditorium to reproduce on a large movie screen a disputed corridor of Bosnian Serb-held territory between Sarajevo and the Muslim enclave of Gorazde.

Milosevic had demanded that the route be only two miles wide, but after seeing that mountains made such a narrow corridor impractical, the Serbian leader agreed to widen the path to five miles.

The computer program that simulated the Bosnian countryside, called Powerscene and developed by Cambridge Research Associates of McLean, Va., was one of a handful of high-technology topographical tools that negotiators relied on. Military cartographers also used huge high-speed color printers and a computer program that quickly calculated the territorial balance between the rival factions with each minor change in the front lines.

With territorial questions at the heart of the most contentious debates at the talks, the military insisted on the most precise maps possible. So in late October, the Defense Mapping Agency's director, Maj. Gen. Philip Nuber of the Air Force, assembled a team of 55 military experts and civilian contractors and $4 million of map-making equipment to operate a round-the-clock map center at the air base.

All the high technology did not eliminate the need for old fashioned paper maps. During three weeks of negotiations, Pentagon experts printed more than 30,000 maps to tear up, scribble on and post on negotiating rooms throughout the complex.

In one central negotiating room, military officials had assembled a floor-to-ceiling 1:50,000 scale map made up of more than 100 individual sectional maps.

Since the American invasion of Grenada in 1983, when military maps turned out to be so outdated that commanders relied on gas station maps, the Pentagon has beefed up its cartographical abilities. Ground commanders still rely on paper maps, but before any operation, pilots and soldiers are turning to computer graphic aids to plan their missions. In 15-minute video rehearsals, NATO fighter-bomber pilots in Aviano, Italy, last summer used the PowerScene programs to practice different approaches to targets and familiarize themselves with the terrain and visual landmarks.

In Dayton, the first cartographical challenge for American officials was to have all parties agree on the same map for negotiations. That done, negotiators would shuttle from their talks to one of the rooms with the computer program. A negotiator could split the screen and pick a point on the map. The other side of the screen would depict in color the terrain of that specific place as a pilot would see it from a cockpit.

Mapmakers set up one Powerscene program across from Holbrooke's suite and a second system in the auditorium for large viewings. Once negotiators had resolved a territorial dispute, the program recorded the precise geographic coordinates to be transferred to the paper maps and included in the final agreement.

After the leaders of Bosnia, Croatia and Serbia initialed the peace agreement Tuesday, representatives from the three sides spent the next nine hours on the computer program in a simulated flight along the 650-mile-long border to determine, in some cases, on which side of a road the boundary should run. That was important for mapmakers since a narrow line on a 1:50,000 scale map could represent 50 yards of territory on the ground. (End quoting)

An Internet discussion on this article continues, (quoting:)

Nuber delivered the final batch of 2-by-3-foot official maps to Clark on Thursday. Now that the military's map work in Dayton is done, the computer program will be sent to Army forces in Germany to help plan their impending mission to Bosnia.

In response to Steven Holloway's message below: "I found the article from the New York Times very interesting. The whole point of the Bosnia article was that a spatial view of the place under discussion was necessary to the discussion. Are copies of the maps available for us to view? It would be nice to include an example of the maps that were discussed in the article along with the topic itself. Does anyone know where we can obtain an example of the maps?"

I believe the maps are computer generated graphics using virtual reality—i.e., "fly throughs" using digital data. I have been doing some exploratory work in this area. The data the military uses is high resolution digital data (DTED) that is still classified for areas other than the U.S. This is the data that was first generated for programming the cruise missile. You can obtain this digital data from the USGS and other vendors for the US at a fairly reasonable cost. Basically, elevations are recorded every 100m. These data points are then "knit" into a topographical profile. The Defense Mapping Agency also has "cultural digital files" which can be used with the DTED data to locate and identify cultural features; i.e., roads, buildings, governmental buildings, etc. You need a very high end computer workstation (i.e., Silicon Graphics) to really process this information. The size of the files and the complexity of the programs are immense. I am working with some computer science students to see if we can take the data, process it on the high end graphics workstations and output it in quicktime movies which can be run on a lower end machine. My whole focus is to develop learning modules for students so they can actually see what a region looks like through computer animation.

Meanwhile, for those with a powerful pc or mac

(i.e., PowerMac) I suggest you look at VistaPro. It is a slick little package that allows you to develop your own fly-throughs. It is cheap—less than $70, but takes a great deal of time to “master”. I used it to develop quicktime movies which I used in a computer package now traveling in the Earth 2U, Exploring Geography exhibit which opened last week at National Geographic. We are going to replace the VistaPro movies with DTED modules once we get the kinks worked out. I also hope to present some of this “research” at the AAG in Charlotte this year. Gail Ludwig, University of MO. (End quoting)

Why do I quote this article? The forces invading Grenada did not have good maps and had to rely on tourist maps. I quoted earlier about the military forces in the Desert Storm War were so short of maps they were using “archaeology” maps. This problem is being corrected by providing computer-generated “virtual reality” maps. Do you know what “virtual reality” is?

Virtual reality is fake reality, it is a simulation, a picture, a computer simulation of the real thing but it is not the real thing. It is the “holo-deck” on the Star Ship Enterprise. So what? Maps are pictures or diagrams of geography, they are not the real geography.

However, virtual reality maps and simulations are much more than charts and maps and pictures. As computers improve in power, virtual reality can be made to appear as real. Aircraft flight simulators are examples of virtual reality. Pilots can practice flying, complete with realistic views of scenery, etc. It is just like the real thing, except it is not the real thing.

Cambridge Research Associates, owned and controlled by William Perry, John Deutch and Paul Kaminski, has some of the most advanced, or the most advanced, virtual reality programs in existence. One of them is called PowerScene.

The Defense Mapping Agency said: “Cambridge Research Associates, [is] DMA’s contractor for the prototype PowerScene terrain visualization system that delivers three-dimensional geographical scenes in real-time using DMA digital imagery and digital terrain elevation data.

“The DMA PowerScene has been credited by NATO flight crews with contributing to the precision bombing which hastened an end to the shooting and brought the parties to Dayton.”

When describing the peace talks at Wright Patterson AFB the first 3 weeks of November, 1995, the Defense Mapping Agency said, (quoting:)

‘GROUND ZERO’ TECHNOLOGY AWES DELEGATES

“Did you see what the mappers have in there?” Secretary of State Warren Christopher was overheard asking Richard Holbrooke, assistant secretary of State and key negotiator for the Proximity Peace Talks.

“It’s truly amazing...remarkable technology,” said Christopher.

It was called “The Map Room” or the “Nintendo Room” by members of the media who had only heard of its capabilities. It was ground zero for mapping support personnel, led by DMA Director Air Force Maj. Gen. Philip W. Nuber to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio, to support the peace talks. In that room, DMA had setup one of two prototype terrain visualization systems (PowerScene) the director deployed to the peace talks.

Located in Building 834, one of five two-story brick buildings where the peace delegates were holed up for three weeks, the room quickly became the most frequently visited during the negotiations. It also became a roadstead for delegates agonizing over a line that would bring peace to a war-torn former Yugoslavia.

Using DMA imagery and Digital Terrain Elevation Data, PowerScene produces three-dimensional perspectives of a selected region.

DMA installed the prototype in Aviano, Italy, introducing PowerScene to NATO warfighters to prepare them for combat during Operation Deliberate Force. It was the first time the system was used to support combat missions. NATO aircrews have credited DMA and PowerScene with their increased bombing precision during air strikes over Bosnian Serb targets. That accuracy hastened an end to the shooting that brought the parties to Dayton.

With the exchange moving from the battlefield to the negotiating room, the map team and cutting-edge technology supported delegates as they began partitioning the land of the former Yugoslavia. The negotiators, including the presidents of Croatia, Bosnia and the Serbian Republic, used PowerScene to “fly” over the terrain and view the land area at a high resolution.... (End quoting)

Evan Watters on the Internet said, (quoting:)

VIRTUAL WAR AND PEACE

During the Bosnian peace negotiations last November, talks briefly broke down over a minor point of topography. Serbian President Slobodan Milosevic balked over the width of a strip of land that would run through Bosnian-Serb territory, insisting that the corridor could be no more than two miles across. American negotiators were convinced such a narrow opening through the mountainous terrain was strategically indefensible. One of the negotiators dragged Milosevic into the map room, sat the Serb leader down in front of a computer screen, and, with the help a mapping program called PowerScene, flew him off on a virtual reality tour of the area.

“As you can see,” said the negotiator, as the computer operator swooped in over the area, “God didn’t put the mountains two miles apart.” Looking at the screen, Milosevic swallowed a large gulp of whiskey and conceded to a strip five miles wide. Time and again during the 21-day talks, PowerScene was used to break such stalemates, settling details as small as on which side of a particular road a border would fall.

The first virtual reality program ever used in peace negotiations, PowerScene—developed by Cambridge Research Associates of McLean, Virginia—combines pictures from satellites and spy planes with highly accurate terrain-elevation information to generate a level of visual detail that shocked many of the warring leaders. One of the Balkan presidents spotted his grandparents’ house, while another flew past a stream where he fished as a boy. “They were totally blown away,” says Vic Kuchar, an official from the Defense Mapping Agency who did most of the simulated flying. “They had never seen anything like it.”

As handy as PowerScene proved during the Dayton, Ohio, negotiations, other uses for the technology were also clear to everyone present. The military value of the application was driven home when Milosevic noted a problem with one virtual scene. “Stop the flight,” Milosevic told Kuchar at one point. “See that bridge there. It is gone. You bombed it away.” Indeed, NATO pilots training for last year’s air attacks on Bosnian Serb targets in September had used PowerScene to practice their bombing runs.

The US Government’s love affair with this new technology will continue long after the peace agreement takes effect. The two US $400,000 systems used during the negotiations have been shipped to Germany to train the US Army’s First Armored Division and to Tuzla to train other troops.

“We knew PowerScene was a remarkable tool to make war,” says Jerry Moore, Cambridge Research Associates’s director of new business. “It was gratifying to discover that it could help make peace as well.” (End quoting)

There is more to PowerScene than meets the eye. Cambridge Research Associates also has a computer program called ATOM. “ATOM creates an every-pixel-measured digital terrain elevation data set and a perfectly co-registered orthophoto image from two digitized stereo images. With commercial SPOT satellite stereo images, ATOM can create a more accurate database for Cambridge’s POWERSCENE and mission planning systems than the Defense Mapping Agency’s Level 1 DTD, which are made from highly classified images that are of much higher spatial resolution than SPOT images. ATOM is the world’s first digital holographic database generator and is still the only system fast enough to make every-pixel-extraction of elevation data a practical task.”

William Perry, and the head of the CIA, John Deutch, be so involved in virtual reality holographic scenery simulations?

I can think of lots of possibilities. Pilots can fly what appear to be real missions without ever leaving the ground. If someone wanted to pull dirty tricks on them, they could fly missions and bomb targets that appeared to be one thing and were really something else. They could fly in for a landing on what appears to be a nice clear runway and smash into the side of a mountain. They could shoot down friendly craft that their misprogrammed computers told them were enemies. They could see flights of craft around them that were not really there. Who knows what the minds of evil men can dream up in their endless wars and deceptions and conspiracies and betrayals.

(Quoting:)

POWERSCENE CITED AS A KEY FACTOR IN SUCCESS OF NATO AIRSTRIKES

A new computer system provided by the Defense Mapping Agency won quick acceptance by NATO pilots flying missions over Bosnia during Operation Deliberate Force. The work station known as PowerScene was provided on the flight line at Aviano Air Base, Italy, to enable pilots flying sorties to visualize the terrain beforehand as if they were flying over it.

The provision of PowerScene was so successful that, in a matter of days, no pilot took off without using the system to rehearse the mission, according to Vic Kuchar, who operates a system at the Pentagon and deployed to Aviano to help warfighters use the system.

"It was like a student riding his or her bike to school for the first time," said Kuchar, DMA customer support officer to the Joint Staff. "The more times the child rides his bike there, the better he knows the way. In this case, though, the pilot could fly the mission over and over without ever leaving the ground."

PowerScene processes imagery and elevation data to create—on the fly—perspective views chosen by the user. By changing heading, altitude, and speed with toggles and a joystick, users can simulate, in real time, the moving scene from the cockpit for their unique mission. As the user changes parameters, the computer recalculates the view.

"PowerScene enables us to see something close to what we're going to see in the air; it helps us identify targets better and get the bombs on target," said Major Bob Beletic, F-16 pilot. Beletic's unit, the 555th "Triple Nickel" squadron, is one of two U.S. Air Force fighter squadrons home-based in Aviano.

"We come at some targets at six to seven hundred miles-per-hour. We have seconds to identify the target or we don't drop," said Beletic.

"PowerScene helps us to recognize the target better. It gives the angle we'll be looking from and makes us faster at identifying targets. That can make the difference between dropping and not dropping. It has helped me personally, and the bottom line is a higher percentage of our bomb runs have been successful." (End quoting)

One event that comes to mind when fake reality technology was probably used was during the shootdown and rescue of Air Force pilot Scott O'Grady. People commented that this event appeared to be staged ("orthorectified" is one of the terms in use), conveniently during one of Clinton's many embarrassments.

A diary of Col. Rich Johnson in Bosnia said: "The heart of PowerScene is a dedicated Silicon Graphics Onyx Reality Engine with an incredible amount of Random Access Memory (RAM). DMA had two PowerScene systems at Dayton; these were manned primarily by contractors from Cambridge Research Associates, Inc. of McLean, Va, the developers of the system, augmented by DMA operators....I flew the alignments over and over on PowerScene to visualize how we could turn goat tracks through the mountains into all-weather roads. Virtual reality flythrough systems like PowerScene are terrific new general-purpose tools, capable of everything from supporting rehearsal of bombing missions to helping plan new infrastructure for war-torn nations...." Col. Johnson served earlier in Operation Provide Comfort in Turkey and northern Iraq. Wasn't that where a bunch of Americans were killed by "friendly fire" from their own planes? Just can't trust that new-fangled technology.

SILICON GRAPHICS

Another company that needs to be watched is Silicon Graphics. On February 26, 1996, Silicon Graphics made a deal to buy Cray Research Inc., the maker of the Cray computers. Seymour Cray was the computer genius for Control Data Corporation and helped build the world's most powerful computers, which were used in the government's dirtiest, darkest secret programs. Later he set up his own Cray Research Inc. (originally Cray Computer Corp.), which was still partly financed and partly owned by Control Data. Cray made the world's most powerful computer, and used its full resources to design a more powerful computer. Eventually they came to realize that, as the load gets heavier, at some point it makes more sense to get another horse and use a team than it does to keep getting a bigger and bigger horse. Nowadays, parallel networking is the big deal.

Currently the CEO of Silicon Graphics is Edward McCracken.

At the Bosnia Peace Talks at Dayton, Silicon Graphics Onyx, Challenge and Indy workstations ran the PowerScene software that provided the negotiators with sophisticated computer simulations of the former Yugoslavia. "The system displayed high-resolution photo imagery of geographical terrain like rivers, mountains and cities. The combination of virtual reality and photo realism allowed the peace negotiators to visualize the political boundaries, landcover, and local infrastructure as it really looked."

Ronn Jackson Update

12/18/96 RICK MARTIN

On November 27, 1996, Ronn was arrested by local [city of] Wenatchee sheriffs in central Washington for a charge of parole violation. The actual technical "charge" was "absconding". [Dictionary definition for absconding: To leave quickly and secretly and hide, often to avoid arrest or prosecution.] On December 12, Ronn was extradited by the state of Nevada from the Wenatchee jail to the Northern Nevada Correction Center, where Ronn had been incarcerated earlier.

Ronn's parole hearing is currently scheduled for January 7th, 8th, or 9th, probably the 8th or 9th. As this is a parole hearing and not a probation hearing, the supervisory officer I spoke with at the Parole and Probation Department did not think it would be an open hearing, but wasn't sure. Whether or not Ronn's initial jail sentence is resumed is the issue to be determined at the parole hearing. There are no "new" charges against Ronn at this time.

Olof Palme Murder Update

From Swedish Reader

Fax received at the CONTACT office, 12/19/96: PENSABLE!

Since I live in Sweden, I'm interested in stuff that takes place in Europe. The thing you wrote about "George Bush And The 12333 Serial Murder Ring" [Front Page story in the 11/12/96 CONTACT] and the connection to the Olof Palme murder was very good. I'm very interested in the connection between George Bush and policemen in STOCKHOLM who were stationed right at the murder site the night when Swedish Prime Minister Olof Palme was assassinated. Those policemen had contacts with arms dealers in SOUTH AFRICA who, on their hand, had connections to the IRAN-CONTRA affair.

One of these policemen who was at the murder site was Mr. Ostling, who had a friend living right at the site where all witnesses "lost sight" of the murderer. (This man was also a colleague to Ostling in a company dealing arms, of which Mr. Ostling was the head.) These two were also members of the same private shooting club as the policeman who had the job of looking for the missing bullets at the murder site. Mr. Ostling has had large arms dealings with the Swedish nation state-owned arms manufacturer company, FMV, until about two months ago when the press began to write about it. Mr. Ostling was convicted after the murder for bringing in illegal wire-tapping equipment into Sweden from SOUTH AFRICA, on behalf of Mr. Hans Hollmer, who was the head of the police murder investigation at that time. Mr. Hollmer had the authority to do this from Ebbe Carlsson, who many believe was the head of the Social Democratic Party's Secret Police, SAPO. (Ebbe Carlsson died of AIDS some years ago.) After this, Anna-Greta Leijon (Attorney General in Sweden) had to resign because she defended Ebbe Carlsson and Hans Hollmer and their illegal activities.

The Swedish King Karl XVI Gustav was on the Seychelles Islands about two months ago. ("On vacation with his family," they said on the TV news.) The European Royal Families are all related to each other (the Black Nobility), and many of them are members of the secret society, the P2 Lodge. The P2 Lodge, on the other hand, is interconnected to the Seychelles Islands, where the same South African secret policemen (who were friends to the Swedish policeman who are suspected of the Palme assassination) had business contacts with Ricci, who is/was a close ally of Licio Gelli (Grand Master of the P2 Lodge) and the people surrounding the Bush/Thatcher arms/drug-running operations around the world.

If you have some information on Carl Bildt, (High Representative of Bilderbergers) the European Union "Peace keeper" in Bosnia; the Swedish Royal Family Bernadotte's (Black Nobility) connection to the House of Rothschild; Bank of England and its connection to the Swedish Riksbank (Central Bank); the Wallenberg family's connection to the corporation I.G. Farben; the Bush family and the founding of Hitler and the setup for the World Wars—please inform me.

Keep up the good work! YOU ARE THE INDIS-

Kindest regards and thanx on beforehand,
Anonymous

P.S. The new Secretary General of the UN, Kofi Ana's wife is a relative to the Swedish Wallenberg family.

Fax received 12/20/96:

Hello! I'm glad you like my writing regarding Palme and stuff. If you don't know anything about the Wallenberg family: They are in the "center ring" of the Bilderberger group and the Trilateral Commission, and probably very close to the Rockefellers.

If you have any information regarding the Swedish connection to the Elite groups please let me know. (Carl Bildt, "high representative" Bilderberger, and chief peacekeeper in Bosnia for the European Union. And especially the Swedish Royal Family and its connection to the very top conspirators: Rothschild, House of Windsor.)

Remember: Switzerland and Sweden were not involved in World War II. Both countries were named "neutral". In Switzerland "they" have all their gold positioned. The Freemasons have their headquarters in Switzerland; ILO (International Labour Organization) is stationed there also. UNESCO, UN, and the Bank of International Settlements, THEY are all there. Side by side, all the headquarters.

David Icke names BIS as the central bank of the central banks. One can understand that Switzerland was not drawn into WWII. But why not Sweden? I can but guess. Adam Weishaupt, founder of the Bavarian Illuminati, fled from Germany when Freemasons were forbidden there.

In some texts I've found, and some people I've talked to have said that Weishaupt came to a city name "Ghota" and died there in 1811. The information I got said that "Ghota" is Ghotenburg (Goteborg), and that name means "Home of the Gods". Old German language: Ghoten=Gods; Bourg=home, castle. That's "Home of the Gods".

Lenin and Trosky took the way from Switzerland and up to Sweden and to Stockholm (where they got financial aid from "Stockholm Enskilda Bank" owned by the WALLENBERG family) before they arrived at St. Petersburg where they started the "revolution" in October 1917. Just one exampled connection between Sweden and Switzerland.

One investigator/writer in Sweden, M.P. Boetius, has come up with the fact that about 2 million German Nazi soldiers took the train through Sweden when they were going to Norway and Finland in WWII. The Swedish railway (owned by the State) got a good payment for that leasing contract.

Remember, Sweden was the first country starting to utilize social security numbers (ID cards).

AIR FORCE TO TEST LASER AT EDWARDS Weapon Project To Create Jobs

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 12/13/96, [quoting:]

Lasers will move out of the world of science fiction and into battlefield reality with an airborne weapon system being developed by the Air Force to shoot down missiles as they launch.

The laser weapon, mounted onto the nose of a modified Boeing 747-400 freighter, will focus laser energy in a spot about the size of a basketball on a missile's fuel casing, causing the casing to crack.

The pressure from inside the missile's casing tank will cause the missile to "unzip", said Col. Dick Tebay, the program manager.

"It's like peeling a sardine can lid back," Tebay said.

The Air Force plans to use Edwards Air Force Base as the home of the testing of the Airborne Laser Program beginning in 1999.

The Air Force plans to spend $6 billion through the year 2008 to develop the weapon system and build seven laser-carrying aircraft. The Airborne Laser is being developed by a team of Boeing Co. Lockheed Martin and TRW. [End quoting]

I'm sure CONTACT readers can see this as one of the great lies of the Elite. Would the timing of this have anything to do with damage control of the downing of the TWA Flight 800, since it has been published that Hatonn said it was a laser beam-type of weapon (scalar beam, technically) that took it out. After all, if they are only now setting up to use laser weapons how could it be that it was used to take out the TWA plane?

Laser weapons have been used for decades—they certainly don't need the crude development project they're talking about above. There have been secret wars going on for a long time using this type of weapon and also particle beam weapons and more sophisticated scalar weaponry.

The majority of plane, train and other type of major transportation "accidents" are a part of this war. These will only get worse. Hatonn told us, back in 1988, that they will set up these types of "accidents" to the point that people will be afraid to fly. Then they will move on to cause the public to become afraid to use the trains, buses and ships, and then they'll control your use of, or will take, your cars. It's later than you think!

'LINK NO LONGER IN DOUBT' Research Focusing On Intervention: Experts

Excerpted from THE GAZETTE, MONTREAL, 11/23/96, [quoting:]

Does watching violence make children violent? Heather-jane Robertson is director of professional development services for the Canadian Teachers Federation. She has worked on videos and curriculum materials that examine TV and movie violence, research that has led her to believe "the jury is no longer out on whether there is a link between violent entertainment and anti-social behavior."

"Now researchers are focusing on who is most susceptible (to the effects of violent entertainment) and what can be done to combat it," Robertson said. "Kids in unstable home situations are more vulnerable. Boys are more affected than girls. The link is no longer in doubt. Now research is looking at what kind of intervention would work."

Robertson said that Hollywood producers and network executives are disingenuous when they dispute the negative effect of on-screen violence. If television can communicate the virtues of a prime minister in 30 seconds, what message is conveyed by 48 minutes of serial killing on Millennium?

"Television influences behavior," she said. "That's a given, and the rules don't change when we're talking about violence."

Dr. Michael Spevack is a clinical psychologist whose specialty is cognitive behavior therapy. He works with adolescents and adults at Montreal General and Lakeshore General hospitals.

"There are any number of studies that show when small children watch violent programs and are then put in a play situation, they display aggressive behavior," Spevack said. "The more interesting question is: why is violence on television at all? There's something about it that titillates, stimulates, attracts, interests children and adults."

...the process of growing up and becoming socialized involves learning to control our basic impulses.

"The job of society and our families is to shape their instincts so that they don't result in people being hurt," Spevack said.

Television—ubiquitous, persuasive and on all the time—does a lot of that shaping. Spevack is against heavy-handed government regulations of what can be shown on television. He favors citizen action.

"You vote with your remote control and you vote with your dollars," he said. "Advertising supports TV programs. If we don't like the content or the message of a show or the manner in which it affects our children, we have a responsibility to our own families, but perhaps the responsibility is broader."

"Perhaps we want to encourage all of society to reject this kind of program. Let's organize. Let's write letters—and maybe not buy the soap of the company that advertises on the show. I think that's a powerful way to make a point and use the levers people have without resorting to the state imposing thou shalt and thou shalt not." [End quoting]

You cannot trust the media programmers: they are not on your side. It is your responsibility to see and control what your children watch until you feel you have trained them very well in discernment. You will bear the responsibility for what becomes of them—according to your intentions and training given while you have the opportunity.

THE PERSONAL COMPUTER

From the INTERNET (a research organization report), 12/96, [quoting:]

THE PERSONAL COMPUTER IS A CANCER THAT WILL EAT AWAY AT THE VITAL AUDIENCES OF THE MEDIA. [End quoting]

The major TV networks are already really beginning to hurt. I read that of the people who use a computer at home, most of the time for its usage has been taken from TV watching.

POWER OF PLASTIC

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, Jan. 1997, [quoting:]

IT'S FLEXIBLE ENOUGH to mold into any shape, tough enough to withstand temperatures down to -45° C, and doesn't contain any toxic metals such as mercury or cadmium. It's an all-plastic rechargeable battery that could revolutionize the way the military and civilians power up.

A prototype of the plastic battery, developed by Joe Suter of the John Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory and Donald Dylis of the Air Force Rome Laboratory, has been recharged 200 times. Potentially, it could be recharged as many as 10,000 times, they claim.

The plastic battery works much like conventional batteries do: A charge passes from anode to cathode through the electrolyte between them. Normally, all three of these battery components are metals. But in the new battery, they are thin plastic films. Although each film carries only a 2.5 volt charge, researchers can stack the films to produce higher voltages.

With sufficient voltage, the lightweight battery could be molded into devices ranging from military GPS receivers and satellites to consumer cellular phones, radios, and hearing aids—taking the shape of the product. Unlike conventional batteries, a plastic battery would never leak. In time, Suter believes he may even be able to build a battery from biodegradable plastics. —Kemba Johnson [End quoting]

THE UNPRODUCTIVE

Excerpted from THE WASHINGTON TIMES weekly, 11/26/96, [quoting:]

In 1776, in his book Wealth Of Nations, Adam Smith wrote:

"Great nations are never impoverished by private, though sometimes by public, prodigality and misconduct. The whole, or almost the whole public revenue is in most countries employed in maintaining unproductive hands. ... Such people, as they themselves produce nothing, are all maintained by the produce of other men's labour. When multiplied, therefore, to an unnecessary number, they may in a particular year consume so great a share of this produce, as not to leave a sufficiency for maintaining the productive labourers, who should produce it next year..."

"Those unproductive hands, who should be maintained by part only of the spare revenue of the people, may consume so great a share of their whole revenue, and thereby oblige so great a number to encroach upon their capitals, upon the funds destined for the maintenance of productive labour, that all the frugality and good conduct of individuals may not be able to compensate the waste and degradation of produce occasioned by this violent and forced encroachment."

Could Adam Smith have been talking about the U.S. Department of Education, a monstrous Washington bureaucracy of thousands of "unproductive hands" who do no educating but are "maintained by the produce of other men's labour [the U.S. taxpayer]"? Or perhaps, was he alluding to the Newark, New Jersey public school system where Dr. Beverly Hall FOUND MORE ADMINISTRATORS THEN TEACHERS? [emphasis mine]

It is no wonder that it now takes two wage earners in a family to make ends meet.—Louis Manzelle, Dept. of Economics, Monmouth University, West Long Branch, New Jersey [End quoting]

PARENTS NOT ALONE IN PROTESTS

Wal-Mart, Blockbuster Anti-Violence As Well

Excerpted from THE GAZETTE, MONTREAL, 11/23/96, [quoting:]

Millennium and Poltergeist, television programs that have become targets of anti-violence protests, stand out in a censorious season.

* Wal-Mart, the biggest pop-music retailer in the U.S. won't sell CDs that carry labels warning of objectionable lyrics. Sanitized versions (songs altered or omitted, art work changed) of work by rap artists et al. are being produced specifically for sale at Wal-Mart.

* The huge Blockbuster video-rental chain will not stock movies that are rated NC-17 (theatrical release bars children under 17).

* Media mogul Ted Turner has shelved Bastard Out of Carolina, a TV movie based on an acclaimed novel that involves incest, and has tried to block distribution of Canadian David Cronenberg's Crash.

* The movie remake of Lolita—starring Jeremy Irons and directed by Adrian Lyne—does not have an American distributor.

In his recent New Yorker piece on the Fall of Fun, James Atlas quotes and excerpt from Cigarettes Are Sublime, a contrarian cultural analysis by Richard Klein, who teaches French literature at Cornell University.

"We are in the midst of one of those periodic moments of regression," Klein wrote, "when the culture, descended from Puritans, imposes its hysterical visions and enforces its guilty constraints on society legislating moral judgements under the guise of public health, all the while enlarging power of surveillance and the reach of censorship to achieve a general restriction of freedom."

Brrrrr! Short term forecast for the arts: deep chill. [End quoting]

MEDIA

Excerpted from THE SEEKERS, by Mary Snell, 12/96, [quoting:]

In 1977, the U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency (D.I.A.) declassified a report describing how vast advances in soviet psychotronic technology can create the Big Brother Society, by using electronic mind-control techniques against populations to implant ideas and thoughts into the heads of unsuspecting victims. And you thought your thoughts were your own.

Do you believe that the networks report the news truthfully? Would you think that the media is more controlled than 43 years ago?

Richard M. Cohan, Senior Producer of CBS political news said: "We are going to impose OUR AGENDA on the coverage by dealing with issues and subjects that WE choose to deal with."

Richard Salant, former President of CBS News stated: "Our job is to give the people not what they want, but what WE decide they ought to have."

Herman Dismore, foreign editor of the New York Times (1950-1960) said: "The New York Times is deliberately pitched to the liberal (socialist) view."

Walter Cronkite: "News reporters are certainly liberal and left of center."

We the American people have been subjected to an unending barrage of mind control and behavior modification systems and techniques, which have become all pervasive.

With all the mindless programming on television, from the degrading and demoralizing sitcoms, to the disgusting talk shows which seem to draw some of their guests from the ranks of America's most perverted and depraved citizens—there may be a need for us to watch some TV programming. If it's all lies and propaganda, why would we want to watch TV at all? A good question, considering the above paragraphs. Perhaps if we have access to alternative sources of information which reveal the real agenda our government is up to and the lies our government wants us to believe, and if we ever want to do what we can to turn this mess around, then there may be a good reason to "observe" TV "news programs". [End quoting]

Until we change the government from the top down there will be no real changes made—only 'window dressing'. With honest government you can do away with the prostitute media, with anti-trust laws, etc.

Even if you could get the Elite to improve the media they will work-in the subliminal and subaudio stuff and still pollute your mind.

In the meantime there is truth out there if you have the desire and will to seek it. Not to brag, but you are now reading probably the best source of truth on this planet.

'ANONYMOUS' EXPOSÉ OF DISNEY CO. QUIETLY SNUFFED

Excerpted from the DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 12/15/96, [quoting:]

Dove Books—the company that gave us that classic of Hollywood lore, You'll Never Make Love in This Town Again—has mysteriously put on hold plans to publish another exposé, this time about Disney.

The move comes just a short while after Dove signed a lucrative deal with a Disney division. Catalog-lovers will recall that seven months ago, Dove announced it would publish a "comprehensive exposé" about the Walt Disney Co. titled The Tragic Kingdom: Inside Disney.

The book, Dove said, would reveal "what industry insiders already know about this ruthless corporate culture, where abuses of power at the highest levels—including pandering and rampant drug use—are tolerated and "unofficial" corporate policies exist concerning who will and won't get promoted."

In the book, we were promised, we would discover how the "golden heart" of the Walt Disney Co. "turned blacker than night". Alas, the book itself has turned blacker than night. So is it just coincidence that this follows a deal signed in August between Dove Four Point—Dove's TV production arm—and Disney's Buena Vista Television for Dove to develop programming for BVTV? [End quoting]

What are we going to do about all of these crooks operating these massive corporations—and our governments??

GOTTI REPORTEDLY GIVES UP CONTROL OF CRIME FAMILY

From the INTERNET, 11/96, [quoting:]

NEW YORK—John Gotti, the swaggering crime chieftain in prison for life, has agreed to turn over the reins of the powerful Gambino crime family to a Brooklyn underling, sources have told the New York Daily News. Under pressure from the Commission, the Mafia's ruling panel of New York crime families, Gotti will relinquish his post as leader of the 200-member Gambino family to 56-year-old Nicholas "Little Nick" Corozzo. The move was ordered by the leaders of the Genovese, Colombo, Bonanno and Luchese families, sources said. [End quoting]

This is more evidence that the government allows the Mafia to stay in business. They know who they are, where they live, how they get their money, how they launder it and who gets the payoffs—including themselves. Many of our government leaders are blood brothers of the Mafia. Most CONTACT readers knew this, however, and the above is only fuel for the fire.

WHAT IS THE VIEWER OF THE NIGHTLY NEWS REALLY GETTING? NEWS? REALITY?

From the INTERNET, 12/96, [quoting:]

Or what a small group of top leaders and capitalists would very much like the unsuspecting public to believe is reality?

To be ignorant is to be controlled.

Until the population has a clear understanding of the propaganda devices, utilized by the 'commissar class' as methods of control—and can see the 'emperor's new clothes' that masquerades as 'objective', 'impartial' and 'unbiased' news reporting for what it really is—we are all enslaved.

Until the information playing field is leveled and the average citizen has access to the same information as, say, the Phillip-Morris company, this is not a truly free society.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER!!

"A COUNTRY CANNOT BE BOTH IGNORANT AND FREE!!" —Thomas Jefferson (emphasis mine)

If Jefferson were alive today he would doubtless be shocked by the blandness and uniformity of the popular media. No longer the impartial Fourth Estate of government envisioned by our founding fathers, the media has turned its back on independent journalism and instead opts for transcribing the opinions of the ruling-class Elites. When information is framed and filtered through think-tanks, pundits, pollsters, and 'resident experts' like Henry Kissinger, Pat Robertson and noted liar Oliver North, the population is being subjected to nothing more than insidious propaganda disguised as news.

In recent years, reports furnished by the World Bank, the Club of Rome, and even avowedly conservative think-tanks like the Rand Corporation have predicted that at the current rate of fossil-fuel consumption, de-forestation of the Wetlands, depletion of the ozone layer, rising levels of greenhouse gases, population overgrowth, ruptures in the food chain, etc., the planet can sustain human life for another fifty years, at best, without an unprecedented shift in the way we currently do business.

Big business does not want you to know that.

It might be bad for the bottom line.

There is a war going on—an all out, total information war that is being waged right now against every man, woman and child on the planet. We are subject to disinformation campaigns at every turn, from every pollster, statistician, pundit, talking-head expert, you name it...we are being lied to so the rich can get richer at the expense of Mother Nature and the very futures of our children and grandchildren.

What the hell do they care about your kids?

Their families will be able to afford the finest, purest oxygen bottled at a special source in the Swiss Alps.

This is a very critical moment in the history of the human race.

R. Buckminster Fuller predicted that capitalism would only achieve harmony with the environment when it became profitable to do so.

Information is the commodity of the future...

If there are enough informed people, armed with the significant intellectual ammunition necessary to combat the distortion, innuendo, and cunning semantic subterfuge of the popular media, a paradigm shift can occur in this culture and we may be able to pull back from the brink of political and environmental catastrophe, before it is too late.

As philosopher Terence McKenna has remarked "This is not a dress rehearsal for the Apocalypse...this is the real thing folks."

And even Ronald Reagan said something to the effect that if hostile alien invaders attacked Earth, we would all band together, unite for the common good and realize that we are brothers under the skin. [I heard him say on TV (while he was president) that he was proposing to the Russians that we work in mutual cooperation to defend against extraterrestrials. Yet, the Elite denied there were any extraterrestrials.]

A pretty profound thought from the Gipper, huh? And guess what...the Earth is being attacked, by multi-national oligarchies and capitalist greedheads.

When fewer than 20 corporations own most media outlets there is a need for an 'information antidote' to counter the reality engineers of the corporate media.

The media dominates our lives and it sets our societal agendas.

It programs you, manipulates you and limits debate.

Whoever controls what you see, controls what you think. While you're watching sitcoms, greedy bastards are busy destroying the planet for a profit.

Information dissemination is the only way to change anything.

Desperate times call for desperate measures:

The Internet is a revolutionary means of communication that can decentralize power by providing everyone with a voice. The Internet is the medium of global information exchange and is the only place for truly free information exchange, as it is not controlled by any one organization or media cartel.

The Internet will provide a portal to the emerging radical intellectual movement flourishing in the World Wide Web community and point users of the service towards the highest quality, most powerful and culturally important information the Internet has to offer. There is a thriving counter culture living in cyberspace, a place bearing scant resemblance to AOL's Mayberry RFD.

Disinformation will encourage skepticism and common sense. It will provide the context that intelligent people desperately need in order to form responsible opinions. The exchange of ideas from different cultures and value systems will promote understanding and create a true 'Global Village.'

Disinformation—for people who believe that what you don't know can hurt you.

You have the right to remain stupid...

Or you can storm the reality studio.

Good luck. [End quoting]

I hope you always remember, and act as such, that this war for freedom will NEVER, NEVER be won by guns—it can and will only be won with KNOWLEDGE AND WISDOM....WITH GOD'S HELP!!

Your response to The News Desk has been appreciated very much, along with the contributions of news clippings. I would, however, like to mention that the sending of regular newspaper clippings is sufficient at the present rate from sources within the U.S., unless you feel that it might be something that has not been covered anywhere else. I could use a few more clippings from other sources outside the U.S., however.

I would like to thank all readers for your support of CONTACT—without you we could not spread this truth.

The staff and I wish you the best for the Holidays and in the coming New Year. May God bless you and your families.

12/18/96 EJ & DORIS EKKER

Comes now EJ and Doris Ekker to thank you all for your cards and notes, and the many gifts, and especially for your unflagging support. If only every one of God's people could feel as blessed as we do—we'd be out of a job!

We have, however, suffered a painful attack that may require some time for recovery. A former attorney has received a copy of a voluminous filing in the Fresno Federal Court accusing us of violating the "Permanent Injunction" against our use of any of the University of Science and Philosophy (Walter Russell) material, to which we had agreed as a part of the settlement of that case.

Doris was shocked and very "let down" because the CONTACT editors and the Constitutional Law Center had installed a mechanism to censor out any inadvertent use of US&P material. Her reaction was to "take a break" to "get herself together".

The wounding is painful, even if not mortal. But she will recover and be back stronger than ever. In the meantime, please read with joy and appreciation writings that have recently presented from other "scribes", to take her place, and know that we all have "back-up" from the Hosts as well as reserves in the Ground Crew.

And, please, accept our heartfelt gratitude and THANK YOU in this way until we find a better way. We wish you HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Nevada Corporations

Your Financial Defense Against The New World Order!

12/19/96 CORT CHRISTIE

Over the past several years I have had the opportunity to study and work very closely with Nevada corporations, and I have been amazed by the strength and privacy they afford. Commander Hatonn has told us all, time and again, that in order to hold on to what we have and to prosper in the coming years, a Nevada corporation must be part of our strategy. This is all the more true today than it was over five years ago when the first Phoenix Journals started to address the Nevada corporation strategy. Repeatedly I have witnessed the IRS, attorneys and private parties try to get at someone with a Nevada corporation—to no avail.

Today's world of chaos and uncertainty requires each of us to turn off our TVs and conduct our affairs in a new, unorthodox way. Looking at the many aspects of incorporating can appear to be a heavy load but we have spent years assisting the beginner to understand how to set up and manage his own Nevada corporations. Call us at Nevada Corporate Headquarters, Inc. at 1-800-398-1077 for a free packet about setting up your own Nevada corporation.

Nevada statutes have developed a corporate structure unlike that of any other state. For years the preferred state for incorporation has been Delaware, and you will find many of your Fortune 500 corporations still residing in that state. Nevada created its corporate statutes based on Delaware but went further. Nevada corporate structure was developed to allow investors and owners of Nevada corporations to remain completely private. Most states in this country require you to publicly file the names and addresses of a corporation's directors, officers, and stockholders. This information can then be publicly accessed usually via a brief telephone call to the Secretary of State's office in the state of incorporation. Nevada, in an attempt to create a private corporate shelter, only requires the name of the corporation's president, secretary, and treasurer (not vice-president) and the corporation's directors. The state does not wish to know who the investors or stockholders of the corporation are. This makes Nevada the preferred state for incorporation.

Nevada has another unique feature which allows corporate stockholders to obscure their ownership of the corporation even further. Nevada allows its corporations to utilize something called bearer shares. Bearer shares are a type of stock certificate that says that the bearer of this certificate is the owner of the certificate's stated number of stock shares. Bearer shares can be impossible to track or to trace because the person who has possession of the bearer shares of a corporation would be considered the owner of the corporation. This form of ownership places a brick wall in the front of anyone who is trying to track down the ownership of your corporation. Other states don't have bearer shares available to their corporations because bearer shares make keeping track of corporate ownership impossible. Generally, with most corporations, when someone has stock that he purchased from another individual, he sends his stock certificate in to the corporation; the corporation then issues a new certificate in his name and the corporation has a record of the new owner of that stock. With a bearer share, when you sell your stock to someone else, you don't go to the corporation to get a new certificate; you just keep the bearer shares. There is no required reporting to the corporation of the sale or transfer of its stock.

Nevada takes corporate privacy very seriously. The Secretary of State's office, which is responsible for the state's corporations, does not ask for much information and therefore doesn't have much information to share. Even the Governor of Nevada has taken a public stand to not submit to the Internal Revenue Service's request for a program of information sharing.

With the opportunity for a Nevada corporation owner to utilize contract officers and directors for his corporation, which are the only public representatives of his corporation, you can see how easy it can be to remain very private. That owner can still hold the corporate title of Vice President and remain completely out of the public's eye.

The Ultimate Liability Protection. Most every state in the United States has adopted corporate statutes that limit the liability of any of its representatives which includes officers, directors and stockholders. Nevada has very specifically spelled out in its state statutes that all corporate representatives are free from personal liability from corporate activities except in cases where fraud has been perpetrated. This means that the corporation can be sued, file bankruptcy and be involved in other unfortunate activities and not personally jeopardize the assets of its agents or representatives. The significant thing to remember here is that if your corporation does get sued, the initiator of the suit must bring the action against the corporation in its state of domicile. This is where it becomes important to have set up your corporation in a state that has taken a stand to protect the personal liability of a corporation's participants. Nevada has taken this stand quite firmly. We'll take a look at those statutes later.

No exchange with the IRS! One of the unique features of Nevada is that they have taken a stand with the IRS. The Governor of Nevada, Bob Miller has stated that Nevada will not create a system of information exchange with the IRS. The IRS has a formal exchange program with most states where they can track the income and assets of people throughout the country. The States feel that they benefit because they get access to the information that the IRS uses for their own taxing purposes. Nevada has no state tax, therefore, they have no use of any arrangement with the IRS.

The attitude of most Nevadans is that your business is no one else's business and they certainly don't like anyone from the government telling them what they can do. So far this attitude has helped keep the state government small. We shall see what happens in the future.

Low Cost Incorporation. Nevada is one of the lowest cost states to incorporate in. To have the privilege of owning a Nevada corporation you are only charged $85 a year by the state. That means for only $85 a year, Nevada will give you the right to all of the benefits of a Nevada corporation. All the state really cares about is their $85.

States like California will cost you at least $1500 to get set up and then annually you will pay the state about $1200 to receive all of their wonderful privileges like audits with the Franchise Tax Board.

Why Incorporate?—Better Yet, Why Not? Many people think that just because they are a single person or a family that incorporating is not for them—WRONG! It only requires one person to form the corporation, be the Board of Directors, and officers. You then have all the benefits of a corporation, business-wise and tax-wise. Why do you think the government seems to give breaks to corporations? Because most of our government "servants" are incorporated and do business through their corporations. Their private corporate lives are never made public. Yes, it is the

It's Tax Free Nevada (The last of the "safe havens")

If you're looking for the benefits that incorporating has to offer, such as limiting your personal liability, increasing tax-free benefits, and raising capital through the sale of stock—taking just 5 minutes of your time to explore the benefits of forming a Nevada Corporation could save you and your company thousands of dollars.

best kept secret in the United States and abroad, because people from foreign countries can also incorporate in Nevada. This is a benefit that "Big Brother" has made every effort to hide from you, so there is no chance of removing those benefits.

A Nevada corporation can own property in ANY state without having to qualify or be incorporated in that state. Therefore, in this instance (owning or buying real property), you are exempt from incorporating or qualifying to do business in your home state. When that circumstance also exists, then you would certainly want to incorporate in a preferred state and let the corporation in the preferred state own the property. Then, if you sell the property, simply sell the whole corporation. There are many benefits in that kind of transaction. Simply determine what activities are exempt from qualifying to do business in your home state and those which are not. This can easily be done by contacting the Secretary of State's office in your home state.

It is wise to incorporate in the state with the best corporation and tax laws regardless of where you are going to do business. Then, you have a safe HAVEN to return, retreat, or withdraw to if you should wish to for any reason.

Incorporating is a very tidy way to organize and get the best "breaks" around, wherever you choose to utilize the tool. Nevada is the most overall efficient state for personal corporations for dozens of reasons.

What the "little people" do not realize is that you can function in security and safety the same as the "big corporate giant", only more effectively.

Editorial Correction:

In last week's interview with Fritz Springmeier on mind control, we incorrectly quoted Fritz on page 5, second column as referring to Ralph Waldo Emerson and The Unseen Hand. Our apologies to Fritz—what we said was "Ralph Epperson and others have referred to it as The Unseen Hand." Sorry for the oversight.

THINK ABOUT IT!

OUR FINGERPRINTS!

They are at it again! Their new drive is to make certain everyone is fingerprinted. What is going on here, when our blood samples are taken in doctors' offices and our DNA is catalogued by the laboratories?!

Now, they want "additional". Our fingerprints! When people challenge, they are countered with: "What do you have to hide?"

The issue being: It's not what we want to hide; it's what we are trying to protect! Our duly constituted basic fundamental rights are what the objection is about. But, for these government agents, agencies, individuals and employees to look us straight in the eye and say, "What are you trying to hide?" is nothing more than reverse psychology, or old fashioned psyche bending, by putting the guilt trip on innocent people.

Personally, I think until this governmental madness is straightened out, and some honesty is exhibited to the people, the people should say: "All engines stop, boys! Until you get some integrity and some ethics, and exhibit some morals, then act responsibly, you ain't gettin' nuttin'!"

OPENING-UP-CAR SEARCHES

I was asked my opinion on recent Supreme Court decision "Opening-Up-Car Searches".

It is my understanding that an Ohio Supreme Court rendered "auto searches unconstitutional". However, the U.S. Supreme Court could find no constitutional basis which imposed duty on police to tell motorists that they are free to go once a traffic ticket or warning has been issued. (The point when the driver is legally free to continue on.)

At this point, we have State Jurisdiction (a constitutional issue of states rights) vs. Federal Mandates.

(1) Each state is a sovereign entity under their own constitutions. This is the primary reason for the first Ten Amendments to the Constitution, known as the Bill of Rights.

(2) The Bill of Rights, by Declaration of an act of Congress, was expressly enacted to prevent the misconstruction and abuse of federal powers over the citizens of the states.

(3) The Law of the Land, of the states, is the common law (see Judiciary Act, Sec. 11).

(4) The Law of the Sea, Admiralty law, can be invoked by the federal government only when cases arise which involve Maritime contracts, international contracts, shipping disputes between nations, merchantmen's disagreements, etc. This is called the Federal Laws. The Federal Laws (Maritime Jurisdiction) may enter into disputes between states which involve constitutional issues or where constitutional rights have been violated within the states. This is the primary reason for the Fourteenth Amendment, as the Fourteenth Amendment guarantees equal protection under the law. Taking into consideration rights are the primary issue being, (a) the duly constituted fundamental rights of individuals, as opposed to, (b) police powers.

It appears our chief justices have forgotten the grandfathered case: I think it was 1637, one John Liburn, on trial in England, was made to take the infamous Star Chamber Oath. The oath would have bound him to answer to all questions posed to him on any subject. On account of the Liburn trial, Parliament abolished the inquisitorial court of Star Chamber based on the lofty principles to which Liburn had appealed during his trial, which gained popularity in England. These sentiments worked their way over to the colonies and were implanted, after great struggle, into the Bill of Rights.

Thus we may view the historical development of the privilege as one which groped for the proper scope of government power over the citizen. The individual right, rightfully recognized in part as an individual's substantive right, a right to a private enclave, where he may lead a private life. That right is the hallmark of our democracy.

We have recently noted that the privilege against self-incrimination (Fifth Amendment), the essential mainstay of our adversary system, is founded on a complex of values. All these policies point to one overriding thought: The constitutional foundation underlying the privilege is the respect a government, state or federal, must accord to the dignity and integrity of its citizens. To maintain a "fair state-individual balance, to require the government to shoulder the entire load" (8 Wigmore, Evidence 317, McNaughton Rev. 1961), to respect the inviolability of the human personality, our accusatory system of criminal justice demands that the government seeking to punish an individual produce the evidence against him by its own independent labors, rather than by the cruel, simple expedient of compelling it from his own mouth, or by unlawful searches and seizures, or without probable cause cited by Writ.

Of course, when an individual is in custody on probable cause, the police may, of course, seek out evidence, in the field to be used at a trial against him. Custody is the operative word. Citation, or traffic ticket, is a bird of a different feather.

Unreasonable searches and seizures, under these conditions, without a warrant, or probable cause, causes innocent persons harm, and loss of inherent, inviolable, perpetual, duly constituted, fundamental rights.

I am hopeful a reconsideration of Chief Justice Rhenquist Etaliis will be forthcoming.

Christmastime Thoughts On Giving And Regiving

12/19/96 #1 HATONN

LOVE, HOPE, AND CHARITY

And the greatest of all of these?
LOVE!

We wonder why we struggle with the things of life when there are so many in equally free-will status who only seem to move ever further into the dark limitations of physical shackles.

We again come upon a Season of bearing the messages of Love, Joy, Peace and the very presentation of a symbol of Truth all wrapped into a bundle of that which is pure and untainted with this compression within a THOUGHT of space and time—a newborn BABE.

The cry rings forth from the hearts of our own close and most loved people: WHY? Why would the claimers of such offerings turn and crush our very beings? How can those who espouse these very messages come forth in coalition with the most evil intended purposes recognized in this modern world?

And what energy, already transitioned, is ever present to so many of these close local writers? Of course: Walter Russell! In this is a lesson to be carried in all your days of perceived separation—that there is no separation.

Dharma sits here now with a wish that she had never served this great man, never allowed herself to pen for a Master Teacher, especially those things which were not recognized by her own level of understanding—i.e., LIGHT and the very expression of God. But, how is TRUTH to live into infinity in its expression of reality if SOMEONE does not dare? Ah, but in innocence we are somehow “had”? No, in willing service to that which you KNOW is correct and right, you must sometimes take your stand.

PLEIADES CONNECTION

Out of nearly 200 volumes and thousands of hand-written messages, along with thousands of hours of speakings, do you believe that four volumes speaking equally pertinent Truth about the very reality of God could test so greatly? At the very least did George Green not need to face his own monsters and lack of clearing, lack of integrity, and his own strength or failures as a goodly being? Remember that it was the Overton GOLD he was holding in his secret hiding places that he really wanted. He didn't want a confrontation with US&P, or anyone. Note that US&P, through Timothy Binder, claimed damages first by George Green. All Green did was SELL OUT, finally and totally. Moreover, he rallied his buddies, got closer to Binder, claimed great friendship with Binder, got Mark Williams (Rick Webber for all you inquiring minds—who had actually put Pleiades Connection [series of Journals] to voice audio FOR GREEN personally) to do a search of disc writings to quote from anyone I had quoted. I remind all of you that we are journalists; we are, as in a periodical of regular publication, a RESOURCE for that which is valid and real to the sensing multitudes. If there were ever MISPERCEPTIONS as to our course, it was through those people, not US. We have a newspaper which offers those things hidden by the Elite, that which is existing but buried, those things exactly like the messages of Walter Russell and Nikola Tesla, on the very TRUTH of life and what IS God. I may well have some revelations of unknown facts but you need to face what IS, not even one more seer or fortune-teller trying to manipulate YOU.

Well, who brought the similarities to the attention of Binder in the first place? Ah, I have told you several times but I will not repeat it for it matters not! And, furthermore, THAT person is in great pain that it has fallen as it has. It was an attempt to bring Green to his consequences for another damaged by Green and it came to rest in the happenstance of one Doris, because Green was and is a TURNCOAT. His actions are those of a thief, a liar, and a USER. Well, God also “uses”—every opportunity available in the unfolding to make connections and bring understanding through experience. If we are to bring great change and hope of achievement, we must JOIN with those who recognize TRUTH and IN LIGHT bring it to attention, lest the people never have opportunity to learn and know. If there cannot be this coalition then there is no worthy purpose for our efforts, now is there? God will always KNOCK upon the door in softness to gain your inner attention. Then HE presents His gifts and allows YOU to accept or deny. Then HE presents ways for your allowance in learning to realize the USE of HIS gifts. In all this, GOD tests each individual touched by the pulse waves going forth from the center—HIS CENTER.

What will happen out of the new suits against Dharma for, actually, writing personal messages on the subject of LIGHT, to private and specific people in response to their own inquiry? Well, Binder has signed all the “put her into jail” documents so he had to know what he was doing. However and far more importantly, the President and CEO of USP did NOT know. Chief Melford Okilo, formerly Governor of River State in Nigeria, is in that role and he has shared abundantly with us in the use of his messages. Further, regularly the USP newsletter began to come and it is addressed TO: E.J. EKKER. Does this not turn that brochure into the property of one E.J. Ekker? Does not knowledge gained become the intimate property of the receiving mind as it accepts or denies that which is within the documents freely sent? Is it the handiwork of God as seen through His works? But of course it is. It is not as you might tout it to be, however; it is simply that there is NO THING which is not touched by the hand of GOD.

What does this have to do with anything? Everything you might want to know. Doris read Dr. Okilo's message on the front page, his Christmas Message, and realized that it was fine as to whatever would follow—even if it ends in incarceration into a prison for her. It means that either Dr. Okilo is also a liar OR, it will be fine and rest in his gentle hands IN TRUTH.

I don't want to consider what “might” be but I will take this space and opportunity to reflect my own stance on the matter in THAT Christmas Message, 1996.

[QUOTING:]

The University of Science and Philosophy

1996 CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

President's Christmas Message

THE GREATEST THING IN THE WORLD

Chief Melford Okilo
USP President and CEO

Swannanoa
P.O. Box 520
Waynesboro, VA 22980

[H: It is important as you read this to THINK for self what you feel about this “message”. Did Chief Melford Okilo PLAGIARIZE that which came from a great Teacher, Walter Russell, or did he LEARN what the Teacher had to teach so that he would pass on Truth in Concept, as a student who has learned the message offered in the elder's presentations? Which came first? The chicken or the egg? EVERYTHING existing came before—from the infinite MIND OF GOD as a lighted reflection (f HIS THOUGHT manifest. Can you hold truth? CAN YOU “HOLD” LIGHT? No, you can only reflect LIGHT just as you can reflect GOD! HOW DO YOU REFLECT GOD?)

The greatest thing in the world is what you do to your fellow human beings. You will be judged, and condemned or blessed right here on Earth, not according to your faith or belief in any religion, but according to what you do to others.

As we think of Christmas, we think of the birth and mission of our Lord Jesus Christ, the greatest teacher that ever trod this Earth. He summarized His mission on Earth in His Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5, 6, and 7). He said: “Judge not that you be not judged. For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you... Therefore, whatever you want men to do to you, do (first) to them, for this is the Law of the Prophets.”

Many people of His day—even many people of today—do not seem to understand the scientific and spiritual meanings of those statements until the Russells came.

The Russells came and explained that LOVE means BALANCE. That the expression of LOVE by action in a Universe of motion like ours, is attained ONLY by Equal action and Equal reaction, to say it in electrical terms; and in spiritual terms, it means Equal Giving and Equal Regiving. Man's power is limited to his own action, but God alone controls the reaction to every man's action, or the regiving of every person's giving.

Let us use other words to explain the above statement. The first law of Nature demands that every transaction in it must be balanced. In scientific terminology the law says: “For every action there is an equal and opposite reaction.” In human relations it says: “For every transaction, between any two men, or man and woman, or groups or nations of people, every action and reaction MUST be EQUAL and BALANCED.”

From this you can acquire happiness only by GIVING happiness to others, not by taking it from anyone. Likewise, he who seeks LOVE from others will never find it, but he who GIVES LOVE out from himself abundantly will find love coming to him from every point on the horizon.

GOD thinks only LOVE or Good and Gives only LOVE or Good to all men and Nature. GOD's intent is for every person to emulate HIM and do likewise. But if any goes his own way and thinks evil, and gives or does evil to his fellow man, evil is returned to him. "With the measure you use, it will be measured back to you." If you do good to others, good is returned to you. If you do evil, evil is returned to you. This is GOD's only Law. GOD has only this one Law for all men and Nature, not two.

Man's free will to do as he likes is limited by this one Law. Man is free to take any action against anyone, but God alone controls the reaction of man's own action. The same is true to whatever he gives to another. God also controls the regiving to every man's giving.

Man's destiny is therefore controlled by what he does to his fellow human being. This is what we mean by saying that the greatest thing in the world is what you do to your fellow man and woman. Reflect on it, and you will stop blaming others for your woes and begin to blame yourself for what you have been doing to others in the past.

[END OF QUOTING]

Did Chief Okilo gain this great wisdom and insight AFTER he became CEO and President of USP? Did he recognize TRUTH and resource before he moved from Africa to Virginia, U.S.A.? Does that make him a plagiarist if he utilized Walter's insightful offerings which Walter, himself, said must be offered to all mankind? Well, you can't have it all ways, readers. There is actually only one concept at play here and it is TRUTH. Can you copyright Truth? Can you copyright a factual "happening" or knowledge which is abundantly proven all around everywhere to everyone? Are not some of the above phrases plagiarized by Chief Okilo from Walter's writings and penned explanations? Does somehow being an officer in USP make Melford Okilo an OWNER of this Truth—except for self?

Will the world be protected from the damaging and outrageous beliefs expressed by a 65-year-old woman in California by imprisoning her, burning her at the stake, stealing more from her labor and property, and grabbing any "perceived" gain from believing in Truth of GOD? What do you REALLY think is afoot here, readers? Just WHO do you think has gained by this confrontation: USP or Doris Ekker? Who gains by the giving and regiving of God? Each gains but WHO may well now be recognized after having almost no recognition until this time of Truth? Would Ekkers' blood enhance or detract from the beauty of that which USP claims to represent? Well, THESE are the things to be considered by righteous Man. One day soon the rewards for Truth will bring an overflow of that which is needed to reclaim losses and right down to replacing rotted boards in a garden in Virginia, but it will come through the labor and hands of, yes, Doris Ekker because she has chosen to serve TRUTH AND GOD IN HER VERY BEING. Not for gain, readers, but because it is the RIGHT AND GODLY THING TO DO! It would be far easier for her to quit, denounce, deny and turn away from the confrontation, sit in prison—whatever, than to spend one more Christmas with nothing to claim, except God and a stern and demanding Teacher.

Remember, please, that just last Christmas, at Christmas, Attorney Methven stripped every cent from their bank account in claim of judgement for his legal fees he had claimed more than the regular costs of thousands of dollars already paid the loser club-member—while HE SERVED THE OPPOSITION! That was Social Security money he took and there was nothing left for rent, food, Christmas—nothing left. It took months to get the funds returned FROM THE KERN COUNTY SHERIFF. Now which Jason Brent do you think was behind that cute move? Also, how is it that Binder claims material from Steven Horn, Ed Cleary, et al.? Is this not something with such a stench as to befoul the very air you take in?

Do you really think you could write a message as above quoted and accept the stench of this conspiratorial crime against a fellow traveler? Will Okilo and the Board of Directors take the stand of protecting one Timothy Binder for his horrendous damage to his own "University"—or will they practice what is presented in Truth, above?

I can only PROMISE that those who have brought damage and intentional aggression against God will be rewarded in KIND. They will rue the day they conspired to put down Truth. They have committed

CRIMES against the very laws of God AND STATE. They have lied, cheated, stolen and perjured themselves in the very courts of the Land set forth to bring "justice". JUSTICE CAN PREVAIL IF WE BUT HOLD THE COURSE FOR THE EVIL INTENTIONED WILL TURN UPON THEMSELVES, SUCK INTO THEIR TRAPS THE ONES WILLING TO FORFEIT TRUTH AND HONOR FOR SENSING AND DESPERATE MONETARY AND REVENGEFUL "WINNINGS". I really do not believe Melford Okilo to be among such muck-rallers. The intentions of one Timothy Binder are between himself and GOD and not for my judgment. I can only judge him to be worthy of presenting an opportunity to further the word of TRUTH through his misguided actions. In that recognition I can hold great compassion for his human weaknesses.

As for Chief Melford Okilo, there is great potential in all facets of successful interchange. And, this being so in fact, it becomes a most propitious "timing" to make the South African connections for further potential of service. I also would ask that, when possible, Dr. Okilo might well serve and also be served by connections with Mary's husband. Religions are unworthy—TRUTH is worthy but every man believing upon the worthiness and source of GOD, IN TRUTH, will respond to brethren with the same fundamental recognition of God. We must NEVER look at "trouble" or "adversarial assault" as negative except for those presenting the negative output for within every unfolding circumstance is the equal OPPORTUNITY for reformation in GOODNESS.

In this same context can it be said truly, as was presented by the USP attorneys in court the day of the Waco burnout, that Russell "...received from God while this cult claims E.T.s..." Is not Dharma's God possibly the same as is Russell's? There IS ONLY ONE, you know! Is God not an "E.T."? HE is not rooted on a physical cement block so that makes HIM quite ethereal and THAT is defined as "extraterrestrial".

The Judge said on at least two occasions, while the clerks giggled, that it would be Doris he would imprison. What had Doris done? She had turned over all rights to ANYTHING and was simply a person in the courtroom while the opposition represented George Green who was the first named party in the "Defense" lineup (and still is). Many of you were present to witness this atrocity, while we were called a "cult" and represented A DANGER TO HUMANITY, like the Waco cult just burned out that very same day.

Now for the big question: "How can we know that we will not also be burned and fall?" Because TRUTH cannot be destroyed! When you are acting in TRUTH, only the sensing individual is in point. We have no GROUP as such and we proclaim no claim to anything, except our OWN service unto GOD and right actions in presenting TRUTH to sensing Man and reflected SOUL. In other words, WE HAVE NO RELIGION. We are simply individual souled beings who have come to KNOW TRUTH AND KNOW THAT WHICH IS GOD.

Do you not see how WORTHY is this testing? What better time to TEST the Truth of God than at Christmas? Upon what do you place your LIFE ETERNAL—on a Christmas tree bauble or upon the IDEA MANIFEST BY THE THOUGHT OF LIGHTED GOD? Readers, it is time for YOUR REFLECTIONS AND YOUR CHOICES for the short years ahead in your counting will TRY YOUR SOULS TO THE BREAKING POINT! It matters not WHO brings the WORD—IT ONLY MATTERS THAT "THE WORD" BE TRUTH. Even if the WORD presented be LIE, YOU MUST GROW AND LEARN ENOUGH TO CHOOSE CORRECTLY, MOVE IN TRUTH, AND DISCARD THE LIE.

So what of such things as "Hale-Bopp"? What about such things? You continually ASK. Go study that which has been offered IN TRUTH before now and you will HAVE truth—not opinion and speculation. The TIME OF THE LORD IS AT HAND!

By the way, the time of the Lord is ALL TIME. What you have as a measure in a sensing universe are the "signs" which God has given you to KNOW. This must move beyond speculation and opinion of whoever is considered an expert on any given day—it must be in TRUTH and REALITY of expression and not in your confused world of chaotic illusion. When the adversarial presentation of Evil (opposite of God "good") literally controls in total unbalance, a world, then it is time to set things to TRUTH that mankind might CHOOSE his directional flow. Nothing is destroyed—only changed. And, through the changing of perception of sensing man comes the end results of a change of ACTION which represents the "motion" of energy utilized or presented. When Man knows God, he will move in the direction TOWARD GOD and cease his evil directional flow. "Evil" as a term is simply "that which moves man away from God". In "meaning" expressed any other way it is simply a redefining of speculating Man as it is utilized at any given "time" in common usage. Holocaust, for example, does not have attached the meaning as first defined in your dictionaries.

The most important thing to remember is that EVIL beings will utilize the very labels, and identities, of that which is perceived as GOOD by the masses, change the definition, and FOOL YOU INTO ACCEPTING THEIR LIES. "Making Love" is one of the major examples. That term does NOT mean LOVE—it refers to sexual interchange which is a major downfall in the conceptual mind of man. Making "sex" interplay is the epitome of misuse of God's greatest creative tools for degradation and sensual limitation. More HATE is expressed in the sexual interchange than is ever apportioned to LOVE. LOVE cannot be measured in SENSUAL physical sensing although sensing emotional expression can be a fleeting recognition of Soul "emotional" being.

By the way, good buddies, Love can ONLY be expressed in giving and then in REGIVING. LOVE IS NEVER 'TAKING'. You CAN "receive" or "accept" love but you cannot TAKE it. Until you can realize that ALL men, ALL things, ARE CREATIONS OF GOD'S WONDROUS AND WHOLE MIND, you cannot have LOVE in its reality for, again, LOVE IS GIVING AND REGIVING. Until you can GIVE unto ALL things and ALL beings, you CANNOT KNOW GOD. Sad? Perhaps. However, to KNOW GOD it becomes the most wondrous glory of any imagined expression or emotion. And guess what, readers: in the REALIZATION OF THIS TRUTH, you can give and regive LOVE until you become CO-CREATOR with HIM, THAT WHICH WE CALL GOD. Therein will also come the full realization of the DIVINITY of man—which in turn, IS God.

An insightful speaking came from a man identified as Edwin Markham:

There is a destiny that makes us brothers. None goes his way alone. All that we send into the lives of others comes back into our own.

Well, readers, and here I might example Dharma—a lot of very nasty things have been sent against her by many and therefore of all things KNOWN to her—those same things will go rushing back against those "adversaries" at LEAST in a measure of TENFOLD. And, readers, SHE doesn't have to do more than continue in her stance and actions as a KNOWING reflection of TRUTH. Does it make the journey all fun and games? No, because with each attack comes the desire for reaction—not response. The physical consciousness grows so weary of the constant bombardment—but within, at level of Soul, it is the proving of the belief held in the first place and the recognition of the true SERVICE is confirmed for God also said it would be this way. Serving HIGHER CAUSE does not make the physical sensing entity necessarily comfortable. It DOES, however, OFFER A PEACE BEYOND DESCRIPTION AT THE LEVEL OF SOUL UNDERSTANDING.

Out of all of this perceived negativity CAN COME the very awakening of MANKIND into the TRUTH OF HIS OWN BEING, HIS OWN CREATION, HIS OWN IS-NESS. Is that not some kind of worthy fulfillment of mission? In that wondrous perceived moment of REST can come rest and until that happens there is only movement toward, or away from, SOURCE. Would YOU not rather be moving toward God than away from God? This is defined simply as good or evil and only perceived by God through INTENT.

Now let us look at JUDGEMENT! We can example this one also as through something currently in point: What about George Green? What about him? Is it not wondrous that it is none of our business what about him? His direction is none of our business except as it impacts our own beings. His intent and recognition of bad or good is between himself and GOD—which actually brings "judgement" of SELF. The lessons to be learned are many but the judgement of ACTIONS had best be a basis of your discernment. If a being presents negative and destructive actions in the form of lies, cheating, stealing, etc., then that is certainly measured in definition as "evil" and, if intentional, it necessarily becomes EVIL INTENT. I have no wish or RIGHT to judge the man—ONLY THE MAN'S ACTIONS as relate to or from, TRUTH.

Doris might, and does regularly, say: "But there was no choice..." No, every DECISION is a CHOICE, even unto the next choice of breath intake or outgo. Doris can CHOOSE whether or not she will hit one more keyboard symbol and quite effectively silence me—from this keyboard—until another willing typist sits to use the keyboard. They will, however, have to know how to "touch type" because there are no longer letters for identification and this is many such keyboards worn away by her fingers.

I repeat that NO MAN CAN HOLD UNTO HIMSELF, TRUTH—ANY MORE THAN HE CAN HOLD UNTO HIMSELF, SINGULARLY, THE SUNLIGHT. Even moreso can he NOT accomplish this atrocity because of some rule of man or constriction of man in a TRUTH OF SOUL. MAN WILL BE WISE WHEN HE AS A SPECIES UNDERSTANDS THE DIFFERENCE IN FORCE AND POWER! Dharma holds more POWER in her tiny fingertip than all the FORCE of armies. No, she doesn't understand it either, but FEAR goes when realization of this FACT is recognized. And, what, for instance, will this "dharma" do? What she is committed to do—just keep right on into the face of Satan himself as need be for ONLY the reward of God becomes of any importance at all. There is no REAL interest in those who fall away or denounce her—for that is their problem, not hers. It does not mean the departure of one perceived and claiming to be a friend "forever" is not painful—it simply is no deterrent to fulfillment of a given and accepted task. If ones choose to move away from her or judge her or denounce her—so be it, and in that moment of choice to destroy, it becomes their loss and her gain to no longer have them as distractors in her immediate mind space.

Would it not be wondrous if on this wonderful focus on Christmas, something positive and GOOD could be returned through the courts? Would it not be marvelous if RIGHT would prevail even in a court of unrighteousness, so that we can move FORWARD FOR mankind? Well, beautiful people, BALANCE is it—and rebalancing is mandatory for it is UNIVERSAL LAW.

Truth cannot be destroyed, it can only temporarily be hidden in given instances of perception. Truth will stand into infinity and the lies, of necessity, within that very Universal Law, will FALL. Therefore, it remains logical, which "requires wisdom and perception", that the LIARS SHALL FALL! Therefore, if in any circumstance you stand on Truth and Right then the opposition, standing upon a foundation of LIES, shall topple. And furthermore, that enemy will topple in the perfection of proper SEQUENCE OF EVENTS. Is it "time" that matters, or "event"? May you think clearly that you may learn the difference. Is it as important WHEN, for example, I make myself known in physical reality, as THAT I DO SO WHEN APPROPRIATE? Is it important "when" my ship is present—or that it IS present?

The fact of God cannot be held by any MAN—because MAN is the possession of GOD in reflected CREATION. Try to hold the rights to Truth and you have already LOST—no matter how many copyrights you use to limit distribution of that TRUTH. You can ONLY COPYRIGHT, in reality, a LIE. Copyrights are the limitations placed on TRUTH as censorship IN ITS HIGHEST FORM. Either ALL can use TRUTH or there is NO TRUTH in the perception, of the topic, by the claimant. GOD OFFERS TRUTH TO ALL; MAN LIMITS, FOR HIS OWN GAIN, INFORMATION.

I hope that this will be shared with Chief Okilo. It is time to make connections with his brothers across the seas for it will only be that through taking and making connections can we accomplish a renewal and rebalancing of this PLACE upon which God has given us to experience. It is the sequence of confrontation of the highest levels of Good and Evil INTENT upon your place and, yes indeed, there is an equally strong evil element in the physical expression. There is NO EVIL in the Universal SPACE WITHIN GOD. Interestingly enough, however, there is ALWAYS GOD CREATOR PRESENT IN THE MOST EVIL OF PLACES AWAITING THE TURNING ON OF THE LIGHT. EVIL AND MANKIND TURN FROM GOD—GOD TURNS FROM NO ONE OR NO THING.

Beloved friends, there is simply nowhere to run and no place to hide—FROM LIGHTED TRUTH OR LOVE—OF GOD. Moreover, YOU ARE GIVEN TO KNOW WHEN YOU BREAK THE LAWS OF GOD—FOR ANY EXCUSE. However, with acceptance of recognition of Truth and Knowing, you cannot go back into UNKNOWING and therefore every action WITHOUT the laws of righteousness is an INTENTIONAL action AGAINST GOD. THESE are the actions upon which YOU will base your own judgement of self.

May your Christmas SEASON bear much thought and realization as the LIGHT comes forth upon your places, for the "time" is at hand and so, too, are God's HOSTS at hand for the awakening events. KNOW IT! Good morning.

Germain: The Lighted Thought Behind Creator's Overall Plan

Editor's note: The following message is by the Ascended Master known as Violino St. Germain, Master of the Seventh Ray (or Aspect) of Creator's spectrum, the Violet Ray of Transmutation, among the seven great "Rainbow Masters" communicating at this time to help us get through Earth-Shan's planetary transits and rebalancing.

In Journal #7, called THE RAINBOW MASTERS, Germain says: "I head up the program for the thrust of the Seventh Ray, for it is the transmuting ray. I am passionate about it, unbending regarding its use for purity, Truth AND FREEDOM—FREEDOM OF THY GOD SELF, IN THE SERVICE OF THE CHRISTOS, WHICH IS GOD—PURE AND SIMPLE: GOD FREEDOM EXPRESSED IN MANIFEST FORM IN THEE AND IN ME...."

"If ye wish to sum the measure of my existence in all prior times, please let it be said, 'He lived to make men free'...."

"In all my times upon thy place, I have sought to stand squarely on a platform of basic human rights for a responsible, reasoning public education in the principles of liberty and equal opportunity for all. I have efforted to teach thee ones to espouse your inalienable DIVINE RIGHT to live life according to your highest conception of GOD. No right, however simple or basic, can long be secure without the underpinning of the Spiritual Graces and the Divine Law that instills a compassionate righteousness in the exercise thereof. Always I have efforted to make thy country a fortress against ignorance and superstition, where Christ achievement could blossom, and devotion to THE ONE could prosper in the quest for the Holy Truth (Grail)...."

"I have always efforted at being an immortal spokesman for your scientific, religious and political liberties. I believe that humanity shall accept as an axiom for its conduct the principle for which I have laid down my life: the right to investigate. It is the credo of free men—this opportunity to try, this privilege to err, this courage to experiment anew."

"We scientists of the human spirit shall experiment, experiment, experiment, ever experiment. Through centuries of trial and error, through agonies of research, let us experiment with laws and customs, with money systems and governments, until we chart the one true course."

12/22/96 GERMAIN

Good afternoon, my scribe. It is I, Germain, come in the Light of Aton, the One Light. Find balance, for the frequency shift can, at first, be a bit annoying to you in the physical.

Let us take up the subject of Light this day. You ones have the need for this knowledge at this time. Knowledge and Truth are not just for the few, to be secreted away so that they can control you by keeping you in ignorance of that which is your heritage.

Your body, your soul, and your mind are ALL comprised of Light in various stages of compression. Your body, along with all physical matter, is a functioning electromagnetic holographic projection of Creator's thinking. The basic technology for this form of manifestation exists on your planet at this time and shall be used against those who choose to remain in ignorance of that which is taking place down there. These are the holographic projection devices, that your would-be controllers have, that use light beams focused together in both etheric space and physical space in order to give the illusion of physical substance.

These are merely toys that can be quite convincing—as you ones were so easily fooled by the last "comet". Creator uses His Mind to manifest two aspects of Light that are complementary polar opposites of one another. These are the Father and the Mother, sexed pairs comprised of the Golden White Light and the Silver White Light. Creator combines these pairs in a dimensional manner that spans some 26 dimensions of Creation in order to manifest the known universe in a balanced, self-regenerating, and evolving manifestation. Your play toys use merely four dimensions to manifest their seemingly real images of light.

Creator has created the universe so that we, as individual fragments, can explore and come into knowing of the workings and thinking of the One who encompasses all. God is a static, non-moving entity who exists everywhere. All that you can perceive exists within the One who created that which you see all around you. Thus you can see that you, too, have the potential of existing everywhere, and that "time" and "space" can actually place no limits on your exploration of the universe (God's Mind).

Creator sends out these two Rays of His Creation and combines them in a manner that will cause them to produce such tremendous pressures that will actually condense the Light into matter.

At first, prior to the known universe, there was a null void that had no vibration or potential—it was nothing. Creator then split Himself into two, thus manifesting a difference in potential. This rapidly filled the "nullness" and set in motion the electric-wave universe that we have come to experience.

This electric-wave universe was programmed from inception to expand, propagate, and regenerate itself in such a manner that this very Creation would evolve as an entity all its own. Thus you have a LIVING Universe that could be viewed as God manifest. This Living Universe was given a consciousness. This consciousness is what many refer to as God. Creator/Creation is that which split into the two polar pairs and set the entirety of that which we refer to as God into motion.

As this Universe grew and expanded Its awareness of that which It is, It too came into the awareness of the Laws of Creation, and split of Itself, and gave forth individual assignments to these self-maintaining energy-thought projections. Thus came into being the Conscious Souls that you and I are.

From this explanation you have a basic understanding of the history of your universe, as well as of your consciousness, coming into being. From the vast nothingness came all that is. This awesome "nothingness" is what we refer to as The Creation, in your language, for there are no other words to describe that which is indescribable. To truly understand this you will need to FEEL the basic Pulse of the Universe that is, in itself, the very Pulse of Creator/Creation. This Pulse exists outside of the restrictions of time and space and permeates the entirety of every dimension. This is, in effect, the inter-connectedness of ALL.

You each have within you the potential to experience this form of creating, but only after you have proven that you can be RESPONSIBLE for that which you create. This is why you are where you are, on this day, experiencing one of the various densities of that which Creator has created for you—so that you can come into understanding of how your thoughts and actions affect the entirety of Creation.

Down there you have a condition, usually referred to as karma, and also known as the "laws of cause and effect". This is a condition that you each agreed to, prior to participating in the growth experience that you now find yourself working within. This condition states that you shall have to balance out that which you have caused to be unbalanced. This goes for thoughts as well as actions. When you can learn to balance these conditions of unrest, you will have graduated from that school and you will move on and help others learn this same lesson.

You have ones down there who simply refuse to accept that any of their thoughts and actions affect anything else, other than that which is there in the physical, in front of them. These ones are, through their ignorance and dense state of mental compression, the two percent who control the planet upon which you live.

You may ask, "How could this be?"

The laws of Creator/Creation work for ALL without prejudice. These "dark" ones have little or no conscience. They, in turn, will take actions that normal Souled Beings would not allow themselves to take, for the "Lighted" ones realize that it is wrong to infringe upon the rights of another. These two percent of your population are manifesting tremendous debt which must eventually be balanced out—and they realize it not.

These ones shall not be allowed to continue forever in their ignorance. Creator shall, at some point, recall that which He has created, and balance out, in a responsible manner, that which He, Himself has allowed to persist. Prior to this recalling unto Himself, these ones shall be given every opportunity to come into the recognition of that which they are doing. Some shall wake up to the Higher Reality of that which they are doing, but many will refuse to learn and thus shall remain in ignorance.

In the meantime, these ones serve a purpose for you Lighted ones who need to see BOTH sides of the coin so that you can learn the wisdom of following God's Laws. According to the "laws of cause and effect" you cannot graduate from the wheel of reincarnation until you have balanced out ALL that you have unbalanced. This does not mean that you cannot work on the other aspects of your growth, but it most certainly means that you cannot put the third-dimensional experience behind you unless and until you balance that which you have created in unbalance in the third-dimensional realms.

You have, at this time on your planet, ones who are severely misusing the various light-based technologies that were originally introduced to you by very special Lighted Souls so that your societies could have the gifts of Free Energy without the decimation of the planet with pollution. These technologies work on the Father-Mother Light principle of creation. These are the "scalar" technologies that produce energy from the seeming nothingness of "empty" space. There is no such thing in the known physical universe as "empty" space. All space has a frequency and vibration associated with it. The ignorance about these basic facts, by the controlling two percent, is what allows for the possibility of great unbalance to be unleashed that then has a tremendous impact on the overall balance of the ENTIRE universe in which you live.

This sort of misuse (or lack) of knowledge is unacceptable to the communities that live conscientiously in the rest of the universe (a universe, by the way, that you so arrogantly think you are the center of, or are at some sort of pinnacle in evolution within) and will not be tolerated. This type of misuse has caused great concern for the many who are part of the karmic connection to your planet, and as well causes concern about those innocent ones who are, for the most part, unaware of the existence of such devices or the enormous impact associated with them, especially in terms of tampering with the material of Soul Essence (Light!).

Ones need to come into realization of their connection to ALL, of every thing everywhere. To truly understand this, you ones need a basic picture of where you come from and how you came into existence. This is the reason that you need these insights—so that you can make the proper connections and proceed forward in a BALANCED manner that will free you from the karmic trap.

Be grateful for this and every opportunity that you have to grow and experience, for it is The First Law of Creation that states: "Go forth and experience!" These are the opportunities to grow and fulfill this basic principle of existing. Seek understanding within the Light, for as you come closer and closer to the realization of who you are and the true potential of your being, you can be sure that the adversarial dark forces shall increase their attacks upon you and those around you. Be persistent and know that when God stands on your side, you have the ENTIRE universe behind you!

MEMORIES, MEMORIES, PRECIOUS MEMORIES

As Dharma sits to the keyboard this morning there is a wondrous feeling of "It's all fine, Father, I know that you will not give more than I can bear!" The problem in receiving personal attacks, readers, is not always the slings and arrows that pierce the heart—but the fear that what one stands for will somehow be damaged by the attacks. This can only be true if what ye stand for is not Truth. Truth spoken, even by the Satanic Big Boy himself, is not lessened, it is simply harder to define.

I am going back to some writings by the Teacher recognized as your "Jesus" whom we call Sananda. It will give you comfort, especially you who think you have blundered badly in your choice of printings and/or messages which are now considered to impinge on another's PROPERTY and that for which we DARE not, in the face of COURT CONTEMPT brought by our very brothers, speak of or share.

Please read all the way through these writings and see what you can discern, what actions to JUDGE, and see how this could possibly bring pain to any "other", and more especially to ones who CLAIM THE SAME BELIEFS.

WHY PERSONAL INTEGRITY REQUIRES PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Greetings, my brethren. I AM Sananda. I come in the service of God/Aton of Light. Greetings, precious D. Let us begin, please.

This day I will discuss the meaning of INTEGRITY and how it relates to and is integrated with RESPONSIBILITY. Let us first define, integrity: "1. Uprightness of character; honesty. 2. The condition or quality of being unimpaired or sound. 3. The state of being complete or undivided."

Now we will define, responsible: "1. Answerable legally or morally for the discharge of a duty, trust, or debt. 2. having capacity to distinguish between right and wrong. 3. Involving accountability or obligation. Responsibility: 1. State of being responsible or accountable; also responsibility. 2. That for which one is answerable; a duty or trust."

Integrity and responsibility are most delicately intertwined. To achieve utmost spiritual integrity, one must fully recognize and understand his responsibilities; first to God/Aton/Creator Within, and also to the rest of the life force expression with The Creation. In order to become a spiritually conscious co-creator with God/Aton, one must become ONE with living the Cosmic Laws of God/Creation. One must realize his accountability to the Great Spirit within him. He must become impeccable (free from error, fault, or flaw) regarding adherence to Cosmic Law. And to gain cosmic power, he must become spiritually complete, unimpaired and sound of character, which is the state of being called integrity.

Now in order to become impeccable in your integrity, one must BE responsible by listening to Spirit within about "right" and "wrong"—or as I prefer to call it: balanced or unbalanced—thinking and behavior. Each of you have the KNOWLEDGE within with which to be responsible in every thought, word and deed. You need only LISTEN carefully and ask God/Aton within to help you recognize your error, instantly, when you make one. It may not always be pleasant to become instantly accountable for your misdeed or misthought, but if you pay careful attention, you will find that you will seldom if ever repeat the same error. You will find that the careful attention to and recognition of your inner guidance, instantly, is well worth the temporary inconvenience of discomfort to your "altered" ego.

So by requesting God/Aton within to show you the error, immediately, He will also show you the balanced thought, action, or deed with which to reclaim your impeccability of Spirit. Why can it be seemingly so easy to recognize error? Because, chelas, you ones have made essentially THE SAME errors over and over again. Lifetime after lifetime now you have chosen to be irresponsible and remain spiritually ignorant. You already KNOW and can distinguish between that which is balanced and unbalanced thought and behavior; you simply have forgotten you KNOW.

When you separated yourself from the Great Spirit within you, which fully contained your being as far as perfect guidance and knowledge, you became spiritually powerless. When you worshipped in separateness and therefore OUTSIDE your being for guidance, you DENIED the Spirit within YOU its full creative potential. And because you felt no longer responsible for that which you manifested, you became your own slaves to the physical illusion. By your self-denial you created leaders over you who would support your "belief" in separation from Creator, and thus you developed tremendous attachment to physical matter. This accounts for the same developed attachment to EGO-separate illusion.

To achieve Spiritual integrity you are required to BE responsible and accountable for the effects of your thoughts, words and deeds. In order to be responsible, you must UNDERSTAND and adhere to The Cosmic Laws of Balance. You must seek ONENESS and see UNITY with all, NOT separation, inferiority or superiority to anyone or anything. You must become impeccable in your intent to serve God and The Creation. You must recognize only ONE WILL, the Will of THE ONE: Creator/Creation. Then you will gain the Spiritual Integrity of CHRIST perfection and with that your Power within will become Magnificent.

Remember when I, Sananda, walked as man upon your place I told you, "These things I do, YOU will do GREATER." So be it and it is coming to pass, chelas.

I would like to requote something for you to ponder from our beloved St. Germain: "Your personal power is in direct proportion to the integrity of your soul." This one sentence says it all, chelas. Ponder these things most carefully that you hear Spirit to Spirit and not Spirit to ego illusion. This "time", my brethren, is the "hour" of the dawning of YOUR spiritual awakening. How the Angels of Glory in Heaven Rejoice; for Earth Human is preparing for the celebration of ONENESS and BROTHERHOOD within GOD'S HOLY Kingdom. Be at Peace as is the springtime flowering of this time. Enjoy the radiance of Our Father's Creation before you. Salu.

Is this worthy of pondering or is this perhaps already spoken by ones other than Walter Russell, Jesus Christ, Doris Ekker or??? Let's look at another one:

GIVING IS EFFORTLESS WHEN YOU TRULY GIVE OF SELF

Greetings, precious D. I AM Sananda. I come in service to Holy God/Aton of LIGHT, LOVE and KNOWLEDGE. Thank you for your attention, my precious chelas.

If you will remember the lessons given forth recently of Germain and Hatonn, Germain spoke of the nature of God. Specifically, I am referring to GIVING and REGIVING which is God. You may see it here upon Earth (Shan) as birth and rebirth such as of the natural seasons which you call Winter, Spring, Summer and Fall. All Creation falls within the cycles of giving and regiving life.

Only Hu-man (Higher Universal Man) is given the choice through his free will about whether he will cooperate in the co-creation process of giving and regiving, or he will "develop", through his compressed/limited senses of monitoring EFFECTS, ways to manipulate, dominate and conquer Nature to suit his spiritually-ignorant means.

Only Man through his adversarial/primitive misdirection chooses to take from Nature without regard for balance and harmony of ALL within Creation.

The resounding EFFECTS of Earth Man's adversarial TAKING behavior is clearly represented upon your plane at this time... although Man has only just begun to realize HIMSELF as the CAUSE of this unbalance.

It is always a struggle to take, even if it is only perception of physical "things", simply because the soul is left empty, for your immortal soul is not enriched and replenished through "taking" of life and physical conquering of another or Nature. Only through KNOWLEDGE of giving of self, without emotional strings attached, will your immortal soul be lifted from Earth physical attachment and compression.

WHAT IS "NO STRINGS ATTACHED" GIVING?

In order to give effortlessly, the knowledge has been gained that it is one's expression of God Divine LOVE which is ultimately being given. The fulfillment of true ego-selfless giving is immediate and not dependent upon perceived physical acceptance of same by the receiver. Although one who is a selfless giver will also be a most gracious receiver or returned LOVE to himself.

Are you beginning to understand, precious chelas? God working through you will ALWAYS BE FULFILLING YOU through His giving and regiving of LOVE.

Those of us who serve HIS DIVINE LIGHT OF LOVE, could not be very effective "guides" to you, our brethren, if we gave up on our outpouring of LOVE to you simply because so few "accept" what we give. This is the measure of your spiritual maturity, precious ones. That you can give and regive without emotional attachment or suffering to self. Giving and regiving Love is effortless when it is continuous, and measured outcome of "success" does not dissuade one from selfless Divine God-GIVING and REGIVING.

The NEED for LOVE giving is great upon your plane and that is why the focus of many ones from the HIGHEST levels of God's Kingdom is upon you. This does not mean that ones of us don't become rather passionate in our concern and compassion for you, our struggling little brothers. We, too, have our lessons of KNOWLEDGE earned through our service to God through our service to Earth Human.

You ones have no idea how often ones of us, who work closely with you, want to DO something more than COSMIC LAW will allow us to do. Many ones of us have petitioned to GOD and He clearly has defined that which we may and may not do to remain in His service. The difference between us, of higher experience, and you of Earth physical compression, is that WE KNOW THE LAWS OF GOD AND CREATION and our Spiritual Integrity of SERVICE TO THE HIGHEST ONE will not allow us to break THE LAWS.

Just as a parent with a child who is stumbling and learning to walk feels compassion for his child who he knows must do it on his own with only loving guidance, we too must observe and guide you ones without interfering and DOING it for you, for then we only serve ourselves in our impatience to "hurry" along your growth. The progress of your growth, however "long" it takes, is between YOU and GOD. Interfering in that process is FORCE and FORCE is not of GOD/ATON!

ALLOWING FORCE IS NOT OF GOD

So you may be thinking, "What about the Adversary?" The Adversary definitely seems to "force" his way into domination. DOES THE ADVERSARY REALLY "FORCE"? Think about this, chelas.

The adversary definitely lies, cheats, and intimidates, but does he force his way into existence here? The adversary can kill the body physical to further its means. So where does the adversary get its power? The answer, chelas, is from YOU! You have "allowed" the adversary to intimidate you, and when you become "afraid" you give your adversary your GOD-POWER. He controls you through your perceived "separation" from GOD. And the only reason you are still upon this 3rd dimensional plane is because you have BELIEVED THE LIES AND DECEPTIONS OF THE ADVERSARY WHILE YOUR GOD-GIFTED SOUL HAS PINED AWAY FOR RE-UNIFICATION WITH THE

ONE, GOD/ATON.

The question now is to self. "Are you ready to release the adversary?" If so, then ALL of your TRUST and FAITH must be directed toward GOD who exists within YOU. Therein will your freedom from the bondage of limited-physical adversarial perception be earned. Did you read that clearly? YOU WILL EARN YOUR UNITY BY ACCESSING THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOD WITHIN YOU. And your "proof" will be forthcoming through FAITH and the return of your Free-will to GOD. For your "proof" of God's existence and "coming" will be revealed WITHIN YOU! FOR THERE IS WHERE EXISTS THE KINGDOM OF GOD... WITHIN YOU!!

SO WHAT ABOUT "GRACE" GIVEN OF GOD?

Grace is the quality of God of Giving and Regiving Love. Let us define Grace, "1. Beauty or harmony of motion, form or manner. 2. Any attractive quality. 3. Service freely rendered; good will. 4. The act of showing favor. 5. Clemency; mercy. 6. Theology; a. The love of God toward man. b. The divine influence operating in man.

Mine scribe watched with some amusement a "Christian" TV Minister on the yesterday. He was speaking about his perception of God's "Grace". He said words to the effect, "You need do NOTHING to receive God's Blessings and Grace." (Sounds a bit like the "just BE" philosophy of many New Agers, does it not?) "We humans believe we must "work" to earn God's Grace. This is NOT true. We must accept CHRIST as our Savior. HE has taken our burden for us." There is the catch, Christ has taken responsibility FOR YOU! Do you see how deceptive the adversary is? "God will take care of you. You need do nothing. You are not responsible. Christ is your Savior"... ad nauseam!

I am not YOUR savior. YOU are your Savior. And the good news is YOU will EARN your way into GOD's Grace by standing responsible for self and obeying THE LAWS OF GOD/CREATION. It is really so simple, chelas. You see, GRACE also is a wondrous quality of EFFORTLESS GIVING AND REGIVING BY GOD!

WHAT ABOUT "MERCY"?

I will first define Mercy, 1. Kind or compassionate treatment of an adversary, prisoner, etc., in one's power. 2. A disposition to be kind, forgiving, or helpful. 3. The power to show mercy and compassion."

Remember this carefully, chelas, GOD is all-compassionate LOVE and MERCY. It is the adversary who seeks punishment and is absolutely merciless! You who have allowed yourselves to be ruled by the adversary WILL PUNISH SELF AND BLAME GOD EVERY TIME!

It is only a spiritually ignorant being who will seek punishment of self for perceived errors. Errors are EFFECTS of dis-eased thinking; NOT ever are errors caused from GOD-KNOWLEDGE. ONLY THROUGH THE MISUNDERSTANDING AND MISINTERPRETATION OF THE PHYSICALLY COMPRESSED SENSES AND BLIND DEFIANCE OF THE LAWS OF GOD/CREATION ARE ERRORS

CAUSED BY MAN.

YOU DESIRE GOD'S MERCY AND FORGIVENESS? THEN YOU MUST PETITION GOD WITHIN YOU TO GUIDE, PROTECT AND SUSTAIN YOU WITH LOVE AND KNOWLEDGE OF THE POWER OF YOUR WILL AND HIS WILL AS ONE!

God IS ALL-FORGIVING MERCY. So then, chelas, forgiveness and mercy must begin with Self since that is where GOD resides.

The adversary will dissolve in its power when confronted by the Divine Holy Power of GOD WITHIN YOU! WHY? Because EVIL is an illusion developed and sustained by MAN. God's Love, Light and Knowledge is ALL that exists. YOU each are fragments of HIS divided thinking. THERE IS NO SEPARATION OF GOD AND WE OF HIS THOUGHT FRAGMENTS, EXCEPT THROUGH THE BELIEF OF SEPARATION EMBRACED BY LIMITED HUMAN SENSING PERCEPTION. So be it.

YOU MUST SEEK TO KNOW GOD WITHIN

Only through KNOWING that which is GOD will you KNOW GOD WITHIN ALL. How can you KNOW GOD? BY YOUR DESIRE TO KNOW GOD will HIS Kingdom be revealed within you. He awaits your sincere petition of recognition and acceptance of HIS WORD within you. Your song of LIGHT resounds with GOD'S KNOWING and you will dance and sing HIS presence in co-creation as ONE WITH GOD AND ALL THAT IS.

"In all that I AM, Father, NOT my WILL, ONLY LET thine will be done." And so it is.

Thank you, precious D., for your service. I AM Sananda, ONE with GOD within Creation. I am most pleased to be of service unto you, my precious brethren of Earth Shan. Walk together in Absolute Love, Unity and Peace and KNOW Always Our Father walks with you. Salu.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, what do you think about that? Dharma received a pretty good message? What exactly DO YOU THINK ABOUT IT?

Well, let me consider what this is about. This was a FOREWORD for a journal, A NOW BANNED, journal. It was called I and My Father Are One. Now, I have to ask you: Is this plagiarism? From WHOM is this plagiarized that causes it to be forbidden information for public flow in order to NOT damage a University? And do I think that somehow I will "get Dharma or Doris OFF" by simply stating her name as D.? No, I don't "think" anything about it other than perhaps the need for everyone to LOOK AGAIN AT TRUTH!

The facts are, readers, that if you have a set of those banned books you will find some interesting things within the pages which might just surprise you—again!

The facts are that the adversarial team of Green, et al., Binder, et al., DEMANDS to throw Doris into JAIL and give her terrible and massive FINES to punish her for printing US&P (Russell's) material. Is this, above, Russell's private property? Well, the facts ARE: the "D." stands, not for Dharma, but for "Druthea". Oh? And so what? Well, Druthea is also known as DESIREE GREEN, the wife of one George Green!

Shall we just toss Desiree into the dungeon as well for speaking "for" Sananda (Jesus Christ)? Is this message somehow ridiculing Christ OR somehow devastating the standing of US&P, or one Timothy Binder, FORMER President of that organization?

I would also say that the very books George Green claims to "only" use are ones written and therefore owned by Desiree? Those are the Operator-Owner's Manual, etc. How strange that those are listed as Phoenix journals, and "I" chose the TITLE.

What is Grace? What is, what is, what is ... (???) Well, here it is above, well defined right from the dictionary at Druthea's fingertips.

Now, could Desiree know ALL about the things done by George? No, I certainly DOUBT it. However, SHE CERTAINLY KNOWS ABOUT THE OVERTON

GOLD! She also kept the BOOKS and did a lot of "creative accounting", NOT THE LEAST OF WHICH WAS PAYING OUT SOME $1.50 (according to the printer in Denver, CO) for journal volume printing and then charging the Institute $3.50 each.

Do you see how easily you slip back into the clutches of the very adversary you claim to work against? What will happen to sweet child Desiree? That is up to her, isn't it? But that is not the question in point HERE. IS THE MESSAGE ABOVE RECEIVED AND PRINTED, CORRECT? Then, readers, it doesn't matter a whit about WHO received it!

The focus might well be better trained toward the original problems. Green was the PUBLISHER and he said he KNEW Timothy Binder from all his seminars, etc. He also always got in touch with such as Eustace Mullins, to clear permission to utilize material. HOW DID US&P AND TIMOTHY BINDER somehow get missed?

Also note that everything came to an explosion after GEORGE GREEN spirited secretly away the Overton GOLD COINS. He then produced letters which were not even related to the shipments, showed them to Desiree and pronounced that it covered the "small amounts" Dave had sent and no more was considered FOR A WHILE. Then DEFENSE lies took over and so it is usually that way—to hide one's indiscretions and continue to HOLD ONTO THE GOLD. THAT GOLD IS STILL THE PIVOT POINT OF ALL OF THESE CASES—EVERY ONE OF THEM. George has done everything in his power to suck into the death trap, Ekkers, while at the same time trying TO PREVENT DESIREE FROM TESTIFYING OR EVEN SHOWING UP IN A COURTROOM AND HAS THUS FAR BEEN SUCCESSFUL—HASN'T HE?

This game is about OVER, readers, for I intend to see to it that "through the Grace of God" the Ekkers don't have to continue to be blamed for something they have actually been instrumental in "saving" for YOU.

The adversarial team is now PROVEN and it is all DOCUMENTED and verified as to conspiracy, criminal cover-up, criminal conspiracy, unethical and criminal presentation IN COURTS OF LAW, lying, cheating, and actually stealing—even things from court records! You have a judge, Jason Brent, who was going to give up his practice to "GET THE EKKERS", basically, if it took the rest of his life to do so. Except, of course, he needed hundreds of thousands of $$$ from Green, Fort, et al., AS A RETAINER—to BUILD HIM "A WARCHEST". Don't you THINK we have THAT DOCUMENT? You know, readers, right after telling in deposition that he had nothing to do with Green! Isn't it also funny that THAT JUDGE said there was no reconstruction hearing on one occasion when TAPES WERE TAKEN FROM THE FILE and a reconstruction hearing was held to REPLACE THE INFORMATION. Ah, but the partner, Horn, had erred and MADE FULL NOTATIONS OF THE EXACT HEARING—DURING THAT ORIGINAL HEARING.

And then there came the period of time after the books were in the Court's holding that both Bruce Methven AND Scott Tips (who had no release from Ekkers) tried to get those books released FROM THE COURT AND THROUGH THE US&P ATTORNEY. Green had already publicly stated that "Yeah, I have them back, the court didn't even want them..." He also CONTINUED, WITHOUT STOPPING, SELLING THOSE AND OTHER "JOURNALS" HELD BY HIMSELF AFTER A COURT ORDERED THAT HE NOT DO SO. HE WAS ALSO TO GET INSURANCE ON THE VOLUMES HE HOLDS, SOME 110 THOUSAND HE SAID IN COURT (only to next, in another court, claim there were only at most 49,000 and those were Desiree's). He got no insurance as ordered; he couldn't or wouldn't even give addresses of where he stored them, and we found them to be stashed in an empty gas station garage. Where are they now? Well who knows! It is, however, now that the court would like to know.

And what happened to all those PLEIADES CONNECTION [series] volumes? Well, they were taken by US&P—SO, MR. BINDER, WHERE ARE THOSE BOOKS? You wanted them BURNED? Did you do that? Is it not a bit sad when nine volumes (titles) of Truth are burned—IN AMERICA, U.S.A. yet? And IF EVERYTHING in the volumes was plagiarized (with full credit always given when referring to Walter Russell), how could you have some two thousand pages come from two volumes, one from about circa 1927-29, of only some 200 pages maximum?

IS THERE SOMETHING WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE?

Well, gentlemen, go right ahead with your petition to throw the terrible Ekkers into a dungeon—for I'm sure the world has reached the level of MISUNDERSTANDING wherein a 65-year-old couple who speaks and writes truth, and a paper crew who inadvertently prints some document of TRUTH, is considered a heinous criminal along with the murderers, robbers, and rapists. Yes indeed, it should, Sirs, teach the world a lesson!

And just how do you think the PEOPLE will think of these COURTS? How will the PEOPLE think and believe about the UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE & PHILOSOPHY, WHO CLAIMS TO WANT THE TRUTH OF LIGHT AND GOD TAKEN FORTH UNTO THE WORLD AS OFFERED BY WALTER RUSSELL?

Merry Christmas, chelas! "You've come a long way, Baby!"

May your dreams be filled with sugar-plums and Satan Claws along with Father Time who trips by on New Year's Day. Who IS this "grim reaper"? Ah, and won't you just love it when you find out just how bad THIS YEAR is going to be?

Ekkers may well not be having

TOM the DANCING
BUG

EXPERTS ARE NOW REVISITING OTHER UNSOLVED MYSTERIES USING METEOR-RELATED THEORIES--AND FINDING PLAUSIBLE SOLUTIONS THAT ARE IMPOSSIBLE TO DEFINITELY DISPUTE.

a "great" Christmas on the surface of their travels—but within there is nothing but peace and JOY for being allowed to SERVE GOD and their fellow-Man.

What kind of happy Christmas and expectation do you think the opposing teams must be having? Evil players are NEVER happy so what difference does it make? LOTS. I pray that SOMEONE makes sure Desiree GETS A COPY OF THIS MESSAGE, PLEASE. SHE HAS A VERY, VERY TINY WINDOW OF OPPORTUNITY TO RETURN TO TRUTH AND BE RESCUED AS WITH CATHY O'BRIEN. Oh, and Desiree is NOT a butterfly of the Monarch variety? Isn't she? You don't have to be into a FORMAL programming through torture, readers, to become ensnared and bound by evil intentions. Everywhere George has gone, she has gone also...! Remember: YE SHALL BE KNOWN FOR THINE ACTIONS AND THE COMPANY YOU KEEP!

I also wonder how well Mr. Cleary, former Priest of the Catholic Church of Rome, will testify for Steven Horn in the face of the BETRAYAL BY STEVEN HORN? Would it not be nice if these hurting individuals could find their way back to GOD?

I am next going to be asked by the "team" here if this goes into the paper or not and if so, when? Any time you want to run it—today is fine with me. The GAMES are over and if necessary we will just face the old judge on his turf but, at some point, HE IS GOING TO GET HATONN AND NOT SOME LITTLE OLD LADY FROM PASADENA, AND SO TOO ARE THE REST OF THE RASCALS!

So, am I somehow warning Chief Okilo? NO, CHIEF OKILO IS AMONG THE MOST REVERED AND "IN TRUTH" MEN WALKING AT THIS TIME ON YOUR EARTH. HE IS GOING TO BE BLESSED BEYOND THAT WHICH ANY OF YOU CAN IMAGINE FOR HE KNOWS TRUTH AND HE KNOWS LIGHT AND HE KNOWS GOD AND THERE ARE OTHERS AROUND THE GLOBE AND FROM HIS OWN HOMELAND WHO WILL COME FORTH TO GREATLY BLESS TRUTH.

Walk gently, friends, and if you walk in TRUTH you will not need sticks and stones to get your point across!

My mission, readers, is NOT to just attend some Spiritual attitudes as might well be Dr. Okilo's directed mission. We have a remnant to get through a trying time of tribulation—alive, fed, protected and I repeat: ALIVE. What you do with your SOUL is your business, NOT MINE. However, the WORD OF TRUTH SHALL GO UNTO THE FOUR CORNERS OF THE WORLD, AS PROMISED BY GOD—before the ending of the "time". We have not ceased since the day we scribbled the first message in 1987 IN THIS PLACE. AND, furthermore, WE ARE NOT ALONE!

GOD ALSO HAS A PLAN 2,000

Green spoke on the radio a week or so back and said he was moving to Las Vegas to build a huge development. He said he was personally a multi-millionaire and that he had "been a part of the government's Plan 2,000 for years." Fine, we hope you have success, George, because certainly what you need are more developments in "Sin City"! What we really would like to know, however, is: WHAT DID YOU TELL BETTY TUTEN TO GET HER TO NOT ONLY TRANSFER THOSE CORPORATIONS AGAIN BUT, IN ADDITION, BECOME THE RESIDENT AGENT FOR THE THIEVED ONES THIS SECOND TIME? First error: Unfortunate! Second time: Deliberately criminal actions.

Believe me, we are EAGER to get to court with these things, so thank you all for your blessings of arranging that for us.

Good morning and have a wonderful Holiday. May your harvest be that which you sowed and now come to the time of reaping.

An Interesting Colloid Testimonial

12/12/96 A READER

For your testimonial dept.:

(1) We have one mare who had an abscess in her hoof and her leg was swollen clear up above the knee. I gave one IM [intramuscular] shot of 4cc Gaiagold, 4cc Gaiacol, 1cc colloidal copper, and 1cc of colloidal titanium in the neck. Two days later all infection & swelling was gone.

(2) We have a year-old heifer that kept getting recurrent urinary tract infections. After giving up on penicillin shots of 2 courses of 10 days each, I gave 10cc of Gaiagold & Gaiacol IM in her fanny. That stopped it pronto.

(3) This year's little bull calf got a navel infection that hung on even after a trip to the vet and 2 different antibiotics. I gave 5cc of Gaiacol and Gaiagold for 2 days IM in his rear and he cleared right up.

(4) One little Pinzgaur-cross heifer got overeating disease at 2 months. The vet used her as a pincushion with multi-shots of clostridium. She was still ailing a couple days later so I used a couple IM shots of 4cc Gaiacol/Gaiagold and she has come through with flying colors.

(5) Our Araucana hen molted and became very dizzy and weak and staggered all over. We caught her and over 6 days gave 2 dropperfuls every other day, via her beak, of Gaiacol, Gaiagold, Oxysol & colloidal titanium & copper. She is fully recovered & healthy now!

(6) A 6-month-old baby had a fever & an earache; on antibiotics for 4 days and got no better. We used Gaiacol—1 drop in each ear & 1 dropper each of Gaiacol, Gaiagold, colloidal minerals & colloidal titanium orally. Better in 24 hours.

Time Of Sorting Is Upon Us

12/23/96 #1 HATONN

THERE IS A SEASON FOR ALL THINGS

Epicurus said something credited to him centuries ago: "It is not so much our friends' help that helps us as the confidence of their help."

Ah yes, but there is another saying which came down from Benjamin Franklin: "Be civil to all, sociable to many, familiar with few, friend to one, enemy to none."

Which will it be? In the "chase" of the hounds for the fox it is quite wise to be more clever than the hounds but also keep a distance between fox and hound(s). If you are a chicken, for instance, it is NOT wise to ask the fox to hide in your coop unless, of course, he has just eaten one of the hounds.

THANK YOU!

To the friend who shared the Druthea work for yesterday's writings, we thank you. Dharma is not allowed to have anything of those writings which are in question, available. You who are researching TRUTH from those things which have been offered from ANY RESOURCE, blessed are you for through THE WORD will LIGHT COME FORTH. Without WORDS there is no understanding, no insight, no knowledge capable of gain. There can be no "ORAL" tradition without communication, observation or, at the least, reference. GOD IS THE WORD! GOD IS LIGHT!

WAITING AND WATCHING

Another grouping of people whom we find interesting are the ones who never come around until a special event of some kind, get a "drift" of conversational topic and then proceed to enlighten all present to their own great wisdom—usually making of themselves the fool. Does this make them less the friend? Yes indeed. There are enough fools to follow so get your balance and STAY THERE wherein you have FOUND Truth abiding. Wishy-Washy attitudes to simply "get along" is a silly game, for you will have found the valuable "friend" you betrayed is never going to be the same in confidence unto you, EVER again.

If I, for instance, am building businesses in which you wish to participate but all the while I am building you are playing with those who do everything to DESTROY my efforts, it is more than probable that you will NOT have a place in my construction. Certainly it would not be in places of confidence or management for you will have proven unworthy of trust or confidence. And further, whatever silly goose tells you otherwise is but a more clever fool than yourself. It is far more easy to find an employee who knows NOTHING of you or your business who will be diligent and well-trained for any task at hand. It is also coming, readers, a time of massive unemployment and that means MANY for each and every job and ones who will have been educated to fill specific posts in any business. But we will find ones who have not betrayed and have waited, not the ones who sat by while we were pricked and steamed, or those who simply "know it all". Management will consist of totally trustworthy, in all confidences, persons. If you have given YOUR WORD to the "enemy" set forth to damage us, personally or otherwise, you have given the strongest sword of all—but if you have done so, it is also that your word is no longer worthy of our note for we have MADE QUITE SURE that we do not err against God nor Man. It is the sorting process and if you missed it personally, so too is that most sad. Many have earned "retirement" from the buffeting and struggle—where will YOU be in those wondrous days ahead? I ask that he who has worked against us and caused us great loss and distraction will NOT be among us, for none here shall hold confidence in that (those) one(s). Remember that INSURANCE is something you purchase BEFORE you need it. After we have accomplished our work and set our course—we no longer need the distractor. The time of choosing your participation with us is now very limited indeed. Furthermore, JUST coming here in our midst is NOTHING to be considered—'tis better you did your JOB where you were than to come in expectation of great inclusion.

Now, to tell me this "doesn't sound Godly" to me is a chuckle in itself for it is EXACTLY GODLY!! No wise man, and certainly NOT God, chooses his enemy to build his places of glory, for the enemy is the adversary and why would God of all Creation choose one who chooses to live in imperfection when there are multitudes who desire nothing more than to move toward and into perfection of righteousness?

Those who sit to the side and ponder hither and yon as to what is right and who to believe and become like the tennis observer, are never going to reach balance and stability in their courses of travel for they who KNOW (at the least, are presented with) the truth of any circumstance and choose to wait and watch—will have proven the unworthiness of inclusion in one side OR THE OTHER.

But you ask, "...and how can I tell if my job is available or not?" YOU CAN'T! I have even been asked about a job when it appears the ones are already filled, say as in colloidalizing, just as an example? Let us consider that for a minute; let us focus on colloidalized silver for our best example. We have kicked up the frequency to much higher than silver ratios and yet the government plans to take all of those nice things OFF THE ABILITY LIST FOR YOU TO GET. Therefore we will have to move to other choices such as Olive leaf extracts. You don't know what that means? So be it. Aren't you glad that we do have a faithful and wonderful friend with contacts who DO KNOW? We don't need many to know ABOUT THIS but we may well need MANY who are willing to go forth to the olive orchard and pick appropriate leaves. Ah, but THAT may be menial or common labor and "I don't do windows." So be it, ye may also die of plague and those who are among the walking dead will sing hymns over your carcass and spout off about how good a man you were.

When you come to communion at our table is it NOT unwise to come with dirty hands? What makes you think communion is only bread crackers and grape juice? We don't lie about our communion either—we call it cake and punch and never mind the feasting off another's body and blood. We call it a party while the other calls it a ritual to save thine being by the rites of another's payment IN FULL. You do that which you will but it would seem a party full of ones who tell the Truth about it all is far more pleasuring than to be made EMPTY AND UNTRUTHFUL PROMISES. Eat all the crackers you want and drink all the juice you want and never shall it make it the blood and body of anything or anyone and most especially that of CHRIST. You clean up your soul TRUTH if you want passage into the halls of Christ—Jesus included.

How long do you have to "turn around"? As long as you like but I can promise you it requires a turn around in intent of mind—not a "now I believe I am on your side... even if I don't fully concur with your leader..." So be it. And WHO sets forth a TRUE LEADER? You do! I do not become a "leader" by demanding anything. I may well have a "command" and a "mission" but I can only become a leader when YOU decide my way is the right way to go. I will walk with you—I am not going to drag you along just because I know the way and you do not! If you want rewards from an association with me or my team then you will prove as much by your actions—not your speeches. The reason people work WITH me is that I HAVE PROVEN MY STATURE AND STANCE. What have YOU proven? To whom did you prove it? Oh, but you meant...?

Why do you think Beam, Green, Horn, Abbott, Jason Brent, Horton, et al. have put YOUR names in their listings of "to be used"? It is to betray you so that you will be "with them" no matter what you may have had in mind! And this is just for openers and concerns only a handful of allies to the adversary. Why do you think THEY sold such as B. Tuten on a misadventure? To disallow her from being able to reconsider her stance and actions. Now they have caused her to do worse unlawful transfers and actions—but she did it of her own accord and EACH is responsible for SELF. Do you actually think George Green is going to come forth and "SAVE" Betty Tuten who he set up in the first place? Well, why then, do you think WE SHOULD? Think about this for this IS the question put to me every day! I have NO REWARD for those who refuse to hear TRUTH and do everything in their power to destroy all that is decent and righteous and then want us to "help save them". You are either "for me" or "against me" for the time of waiting on the fence is over. I have no REWARD of GOOD TIDINGS to those who are AGAINST ME for if they be against "me" then they be against that one who sent me—GOD.

Am "I" saying that Betty doesn't have a way to get again "right" with me? I am saying that she is against me and I have no wish to have her among my brethren just as she has every right to have no wish to have ME among her associates. No more and no less. Do you, as well, think George Green is going to give her some great rewards for heading up a charge and bankroll for HIS CRONIES and HIS business adventures? He shared nothing here whereat he stole from his own corporation and people, including Betty Tuten! Remember it was George Green who went forth advertising "his" Institute and program—Ekkers never left their corners save to fight for the property of those who came to share. WE HAVE GONE NOWHERE NOR HAVE WE CHANGED ONE IOTA OF THAT WHICH WE SPOKE IN THE FIRST INSTANCE.

By the way, you can get away with coming here possibly with stars in your eyes—but if those symbols you see are "" then I suggest you change your attitude! And furthermore, your opinions are actually no more valid than any others' opinions. Facts are what it is about—not opinions—mine or anyone's.

DEATH OF SAGAN

Speaking of stars—what think ye about the death of Carl Sagan? Do you suppose he was too close to recognition of what is Hale-Be-Bopp? It is TIME you people stop the silly games and get on with studying up on the FACTS OF YOUR TIME. Furthermore, it matters not what "I" think about it—WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT IT?

I would like, AGAIN, to reprint the engraving from a placard sent to Dharma from "Bronco" in May 1996:

THE GREAT INVOCATION

FROM THE POINT OF LIGHT
WITHIN THE MIND OF GOD
LET LIGHT STREAM FORTH INTO THE MINDS OF MEN
LET LIGHT DESCEND ON EARTH

FROM THE POINT OF LOVE
WITHIN THE HEART OF GOD
LET LOVE STREAM FORTH INTO THE HEARTS OF MEN
MAY CHRIST RETURN TO EARTH

FROM THE CENTRE WHERE THE WILL OF GOD IS KNOWN
LET PURPOSE GUIDE THE LITTLE
WILLS OF MEN
THE PURPOSE WHICH THE MASTERS KNOW AND SERVE

FROM THE CENTRE WHICH WE
CALL THE RACE OF MEN
LET THE PLAN OF LOVE AND LIGHT WORK OUT
AND MAY IT SEAL THE DOOR
WHERE EVIL DWELLS

- LET LIGHT OF GOD "ATON'S"
LOVE AND POWER RESTORE
THE PLAN ON EARTH

I bow before ye who understand and LIVE this invocation petition unto God. I bend my knees to ye who serve with this Light within, which bursts outward from the very soul of SELF. There is a Season for all things upon the Earth—both great and small. There is a sequence for all things to be planted, flourish and bear fruit. There is a time for recovery from the slings and arrows of the enemy's bow which strike and pierce the very beings of our most tender places. It is now a time of silent and gentle privacy within one's self that balance and harmony may flow WITHIN while the social interchanges are hectic and chaotically ongoing. You will stay the course only as long as you serve the balance WITHIN GOD'S LIGHT in the silence of SELF.

At this time of the year with its disappointments, and its loving interchanges as well, you shall find only a searching and mostly, failure to find, peace and joy for all is a charade withOUT self and ONLY you know your innermost feelings and emotional longings—and often ye do not recognize them for that which they are. You still believe in THE great pumpkin Santa Claus to somehow shower presents and sugar-plums upon you and all else goes into the shadows of your being—FOR A LITTLE WHILE. You frantically try to find anything on an extreme end of the balance bar without anything on the other end. If, however, you get God on that other end—HE WILL BALANCE YOU NO MATTER WHITHER THEE STANDS OR SITS.

Man must WANT GOD; until he pulls himself out of his blinders he can't SEE GOD, and he will still depend on that which is sensing illusion instead of the balanced LIGHT WITHIN his own beingness. I am appreciative to those who also continue in their offering of available stages upon which the players rehearse. WHERE WILL YOU BE WHEN THE BIG BANG COMES DOWN? Will ye be alert at your guard post or will ye be sleeping at your post? Will ye be supping away your hours or will you be prepared and at READY for whatever might come to pass? I watch, I wait, for I have TIME to linger in musing over the things to come. DO YOU? Or, WILL YOU simply assume that "I" will somehow warn you, fill your needs, and/or snatch you away from your tables and daydreaming to set your course to straight somehow? How much spelt have YOU put aside? How many seeds HAVE YOU planted against the days of famine and plagues? No, readers, it is NOT my task—I have done my task—I HAVE TOLD YOU HOW IT WAS, HOW IT IS, AND HOW IT WILL BE. By the way, your plight is NOT the Ekkers' problem EITHER. What have YOU given unto them or me, to make them/me WANT to do anything at all for YOU? Ah, indeed, some have proven beyond all outward intent their fellowship and wishes for brotherhood IN THE HARD TIMES and never even refer to the "easy" times.

HOUR OF DARKNESS SORTING TIME

The MASTER once asked his beloved brothers to stand watch through a night of terror and darkness—and they slept. Who will stand watch with God in this hour of darkness come upon your wondrously beautiful orb? WHO WILL STAND WATCH WITH GOD? So be it. Who will warn you in your places of holiday and celebration of that which HAS BUT NEGATIVE MEANING IN THIS DAY OF SHAM PRESENTATIONS? Are you in celebration of that which will never come to pass? Will you miss the clarion call of Angel Gabriel? Will you shroud your mind with wine and glut your bodies with feasting? Or will you have and hold the true meaning of fellowship amidst your gatherings and your families? It is important TO YOU, not to me. Are you actually saying your last farewells? WHY? Are you planning a great separation of some kind? Check it out on your "to do" list. I will NOT walk in the places of evil just to keep you company for it is YOU who must come out of the evil mire and muck—I am not stuck in it.

Does it matter what you think of ME? Yes indeed! For I KNOW WHO I AM AND I SERVE ONLY TRUTH AND GOD AND THEREFORE IT BEHOOVES ALL TO HEAR ME. It is NOT my business that which you DO or proclaim for SELF. But it is my business to do my job and present the TRUTH and then you are on your own to sink or swim, crawl or fly.

I will close this now and, yes, you can expect a LOT of these types of reminders in lessons. Let us call them "review" for the big examination looming before you. How many will "pass"? Only YOU and GOD know—for sure! Not even "your hairdresser" knows the answer to this one! Will you be proud of where you are and what you are doing when God arrives or will you try to hide from HIM and wish you were somewhere else doing something else? What else would you be doing? It is not my business to reflect on what YOU might be doing—I KNOW WHAT I WILL BE DOING!

May you always walk and act IN THE LIGHT so that you never have to say: "I'm sorry Father..." During this time of the year when emotions are quite superficial it is a worthy thing to give time to meditation in REAL THOUGHT about yourself and your children—be they ideas or humans—for it is a time of "conclusions" in every direction and experience you express. Will it be a time of drunken wine and wilted roses—OR WILL IT BE NEW AND WONDROUS WINE AND LIFE? Will you just leave the choice to the flip of Lady Luck's coin? That lady is a fickle idea at best!

Stand watch with me, team, for the years of hard learning have presented you with the moment of TRUTH and in the unfolding sequence of the days ahead you shall find the lessons worthy of both the Teacher and the Students—in such a myriad of ways as to overwhelm the senses. When that happens then perhaps you will move to the places of SOUL within God that you maintain your center within that LIGHTED BEING.

Ours is to steady the boat, brethren, and to bend to the oars that we do not be swamped by those things which will overflow the seas in a great swell and wash over the lands. Imminent? Impending? Ah indeed.

Thank you and good morning. Salu.

Proven CIA-DEA Drug Smuggling, Etc.

the United States. Much of the information proving these crimes against the United States were obtained by me during the past 30 years, starting while I was a federal investigator authorized by law to make determinations of federal law violations.

During the past ten years I obtained (during thousands of hours of questioning former CIA and other deep-cover operatives, often during deposition-like sessions) details and documentation of these crimes that expanded on the government corruption which I initially discovered as a federal investigator.

The sources shown in the enclosed list (and more sources are being added), can provide testimony and evidence during public hearings that circumvent the congressional and Justice Department coverups that have continued for decades. I discovered, during the past 30 years of trying to report the criminal activities, a continuous pattern of congressional and Justice Department coverups. This practice had made possible the continuation of the criminal activities that have and are inflicting enormous harm upon individual Americans, all Americans, and upon the security of the United States.

Under federal criminal statutes, these members of congress have become accomplices in the underlying criminal activities due to their coverups and obstruction of justice. It is ironical that the same legislators providing for long prison terms for often relatively minor violations of law are themselves guilty of far worse crimes with far greater harm to the United States.

Recognizing this long pattern of congressional coverups, this letter and the attached list of people able to prove the existence of CIA-DEA drug smuggling and other crimes is sent with the understanding that you and other members of Congress will continue the coverup and obstruction of justice. However, it is hoped that the day may come when the American public learns, and reacts to, what has been done to them over the years by people in responsible federal positions. I hope that you and other members of Congress will then be asked what you knew about these crimes, when did you know about the charges and the availability of supporting evidence, and what did you do about it. It is hoped that the people in control of the U.S. Department of Justice will have changed to where federal criminal statutes, that members of Congress have legislated, be applied to the crimes of coverup perpetrated by members of Congress (and much of the media).

The complicity in the coverups and obstruction of justice by most government checks and balances, and much of the broadcast and print media, has protected these members of Congress and the underlying criminal activities and participants. However, with the public's increasing use of the Internet, it is very possible that the public may learn about what has been done to them, and hopefully, they will respond to their responsibilities under our form of government.

My efforts to inform and motivate the public to meet their responsibilities has caused me to publish, during the last 18 years, three editions of Defrauding America, two editions of Unfriendly Skies, and the first edition of Disavow, filing federal actions under Title 18 USC, Section 4, seeking to report the crimes, and appearances on over 2400 radio and television shows, including European and Mexican stations.

A copy of this letter and the attached list is being sent simultaneously to every member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence and a few members of the House Intelligence Committee.

Sincerely,

Rodney Stich

Defrauding America
by RODNEY STICH

• One of the most explosive books on the market for understanding the pattern of hard-core criminal activities implicating high federal officials and how it affects the American people. It describes and documents epidemic corruption by federal officials, and a pattern of criminal misuse of federal offices against the American public. The contents are supported by a group of former federal investigators, covert intelligence agency operatives and contract agents, former FBI, police, and private investigators, composing a block of whistleblowers.

Among the corrupt activities described in Defrauding America are the following:

- Epidemic drug trafficking into the United States.
- Role played by the CIA in Savings and Loan and HUD looting.
- Conversion of Chapter 11 courts into a criminal enterprise.
- October Surprise and its criminal coverup.
- The ugly part of the Iran-Contra scandal.
- Inslaw, the tip of Justice Department criminality.
- Covert CIA financial institutions dealing in drug money laundering.
- Crooked federal judges and Justice Department attorneys.
- Felony persecution of informants by Justice Department attorneys and federal judges.
- Killings and mysterious deaths of informants and whistleblowers.
- Schemes to assassinate or remove U.S. Presidents and presidential candidates.

21 I, Rodney F. Stich, the plaintiff in this action, declares:
22
23 Plaintiff files this motion under FRCivP 59 on the basis of mistake of law by the district
24 court, and in the alternative, under FRCivP 60 on the basis of new evidence (attachment "A,") and 25 fraud upon the court. The motion is to vacate the judgment filed on December 10, 1996, 26 dismissing this consolidated action, and permit the federal causes of actions, and the reporting of 27 criminal activities against the United States, to proceed as provided by statutory and constitutional 28 law. This court has mandatory non-discretionary authority and responsibility to receive evidence of government crimes, including evidence of drug trafficking by and under the direction of the Central Intelligence Agency, with the complicity of high-level federal employees, including those in the U.S. Department of Justice.

29 STATUTORY RESPONSIBILITY UNDER CRIMINAL LAW TO RECEIVE
30 EVIDENCE OF FEDERAL CRIMES AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

31 Plaintiff has sought to report facts that he discovered as a federal investigator and then as a
32 private investigator, and to introduce evidence by himself and a group of former CIA and other

1 deep-cover assets. The intent of these efforts has been to prove the existence of criminal and
2 subversive activities against the United States.¹

3 These criminal activities have been previously described in Plaintiff's complaint, pleadings, 4 and exhibits. Under federal law² any citizen knowing of a federal crime is required to report the 5 crimes to a federal judge, who then has a responsibility under federal criminal statute to receive
6 the evidence offered. Arguably, judicial refusal to receive such evidence is itself a criminal act
7 under federal law.³

8 PATTERN OF JUDICIAL COVERUP AND OBSTRUCTION OF JUSTICE

9 Plaintiff has uncovered, and documented in court records, a pattern of federal judges
10 obstructing justice by refusing to receive evidence sought to be reported by Plaintiff, a former 11 federal inspector-investigator. These judicial orders constitute a pattern of judicial obstruction, of 12 justice for which criminal penalties are prescribed by criminal statutes.

13 The involvement⁴ of federal judges in this pattern involves federal judges in the district and 14

15 ¹ The criminal activities include: (a) widespread and deeply entrenched pattern of CIA and DEA drug smuggling into the United States, 16 by CIA and DEA personnel, aided and abetted by persons in Customs, Justice Department, DEA, and others; (b) converting federal chapter
17 7 and 11 courts into criminal enterprises through looting of Chapter 11 assets by a conspiracy consisting of corrupt federal judges, trustees, 18 covert Justice Department and CIA law firms; (d) CIA scheme known as "October Surprise," and its felony coverup; (e) inslaw corruption involving Justice Department personnel and federal judges; (f) Operation Mount Rushmore, a CIA/Mossad scheme to assassinate Bill Clinton in San Francisco; (g) criminal coverup and obstruction of justice by Justice Department personnel, federal judges, and others, of each of these and other crimes; (h) felony persecution of informants, whistleblowers, and protesting victims by federal judges and prosecutors.

19 ² Title 18 U.S.C. § 4 (misprision of felony). "Whoever, having knowledge of the actual commission of a felony cognizable by a court of the United States, conceals and does not as soon as possible make known the same to some judge or other person in civil or military authority under the United States, shall be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both."

20 Title 28 U.S.C. § 1361. Action to compel an officer of the United States to perform his duty. The district courts shall have original jurisdiction of any action in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff.

21 ³ Title 18 U.S.C. § 2. Principals. (a) Whoever commits an offense against the United States or aids, abets, counsels, commands, induces or procures its commission, is punishable as a principal. (b) Whoever wilfully causes an act to be done which if directly performed by him or another would be an offense against the United States, is punishable as a principal.

22 Note: The legislative intent to punish as a principal not only one who directly commits an offense and one who "aids, abets, counsels, commands, induces or procures" another to commit an offense, but also anyone who causes the doing of an act which if done by him 23 directly would render him guilty of an offense against the United States. Case law decisions: Rothenburg v. United States, 1918, 38 S.Ct.
18, 245 U.S. 480, 62 L.Ed. 414, and United States v. Giles, 1937, 57 S.Ct. 340, 300 U.S. 41, 81 L.Ed. 493.

24 Title 18 U.S.C. § 3. Accessory after the fact. Whoever, knowing that an offense against the United States had been committed, receives, relieves, comforts or assists the offender in order to hinder or prevent his apprehension, trial or punishment, is an accessory after the fact.

25 ⁴ Anyone who in any way interferes with the reporting of federal crimes, including federal judges, becomes an accomplice, and guilty of 26 federal crimes: Title 18 U.S.C. §§ 1505 (obstructing proceedings before federal courts, to prevent presenting testimony and evidence of federal offenses); Title 18 U.S.C. § 371 (conspiracy to commit offense against, or to defraud, the United States); Title 18 USC § 1951 (interference with interstate and international air commerce, and specifically the FAA, NTSB, wrongful acts, and blocking and retaliating
27 against Stuch for seeking to report federal air safety and criminal acts affecting air safety); Title 18 U.S.C. § 2 (principal); Title 18 USC § 3
(accessory after the fact); Title 18 USC § 4 (misprision of felony); Title 18 USC § 35 (imparting or conveying false information); Title 18
28 USC § 2071 (Concealment, removal, of official reports); Title 18 USC § 34 (changing federal offenses to capital offense when death results); Title 18 USC § 111 (impeding FAA inspectors or other federal employees); Title 18 USC § 1621 (perjury, at FAA hearing); Title 18 USC § 1623 (subornation of perjury, at FAA hearing); Title 18 USC § 1623 (false declarations before federal grand jury).

1 appellate courts of the Ninth Circuit, in Washington, D.C., and the justices of the U.S. Supreme 2 Court. This pattern is clearly established by judicial records.

3 OFFERING ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE OF CRIMINAL AND SUBVERSIVE 4 ACTIVITIES AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

5 Plaintiff attaches to this motion a list of 23 people who have knowledge in addition to that 6 possessed by Plaintiff of the criminal activities. Many of the sources in that list were Central 7 Intelligence Agency and other deep-cover assets who transported the drugs under orders of their
8 CIA handlers, or operated CIA proprietary airlines, or handled CIA drug money laundering, often 9 in liaison with organized crime figures. Their testimony and evidence reveals, among other crimes,
10 a pattern of drug smuggling into the United States by people acting for the Central Intelligence
11 Agency and the Drug Enforcement Administration. Included in aiding and abetting these criminal 12 and treasonous acts are employees of the U.S. Department of Justice and the federal judges who 13 have consistently blocked Plaintiff's reporting of these crimes.

14 OTHER AREAS OF CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

15 There are other areas of criminal activities that have and continue to inflict enormous harm
16 upon the United States and its citizens, including the massive looting of assets from citizens who 17 naively exercise the statutory protections of Chapter 11. These criminal activities are defrauding 18 the United States and destroying the life's assets of thousands of America. These assets are being 19 seized by a cabal of federal judges, federal and court-appointed trustees (such as trustee Charles 20 Duck), attorneys and law firms.

21 USING SEIZED ASSETS TO FINANCE CIA ACQUISITION OF DRUGS

22 According to Plaintiff's deep-cover sources, a portion of these seized bankruptcy court
23 funds were used to finance the CIA's acquisition of drugs, and included the funds provided by 24 court-appointed trustee Charles Duck.

25 The extent of this convoluted and intensive fraud is revealed in the second edition of 26 Defrauding America, which is an exhibit in these three actions.

ADDITIONAL VIOLATION OF STATUTORY AND CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT TO FEDERAL COURT ACCESS AND RELIEF FROM GROTESQUE VIOLATIONS OF PLAINTIFF'S CIVIL AND CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS AS PART OF SCHEME TO SILENCE PLAINTIFF'S EXPOSURE ACTIVITIES

In addition to seeking to report these federal crimes under the mandatory requirements of federal criminal statute Title 18 USC Section 4, Plaintiff has combined this federal responsibility with actions under the Federal Tort Claims Act, seeking damages for the great personal and financial harm inflicted upon Plaintiff by federal employees. This harm was intended to block Plaintiff's reporting of the criminal activities, and to retaliate against him for seeking to make such reports. These judicial and Justice Department retaliatory acts are crimes under federal law.⁵

Under federal law, a federal judge is paid, and has the duty, to provide a federal court forum and relief as requested. This court has a mandatory duty to provide a federal court forum and damages, under federal law.⁶

PLAINTIFF HAS STATED A FEDERAL CAUSE OF ACTION, INVOKING THE MANDATORY AND NON-DISCRETIONARY DUTY OF A U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE TO PROVIDE A FEDERAL COURT FORUM AND RELIEF

Controlling law clearly states that if a plaintiff alleges a state of facts that are within the jurisdiction of the federal courts, the action cannot be dismissed at this stage of the proceedings. Plaintiff has met that test. See Escalera v. N.Y. Housing Auth., 425 F.2d 853 (2nd Cir.1970) at 857. The same principle was stated by the U. S. Supreme Court in Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980).

A FEDERAL JUDGE MUST ACCEPT THE FACTS STATED IN THE COMPLAINT AS TRUE AT THIS STAGE OF THE PROCEEDINGS.

A federal judge must accept as true the allegations in the Complaint, and also in any Plaintiff has stated facts and provided considerable support for the existence of the criminal and treasonous activities. These charges must be accepted as true at this stage, and he be given the opportunity to present testimony and evidence of the complex pattern of criminal activities against the United States by people in control of key government agencies and branches of government.

The same applies to the allegations of tortious acts against Plaintiff by federal employees as they sought to obstruct justice by blocking his reports, and misusing federal power to inflict great harm upon Plaintiff.

JUDGE SPORKIN'S ORDER PERMANENTLY BARRING PLAINTIFF FROM FEDERAL COURT IS THE BASIS USED BY THIS COURT TO BLOCK THE REPORTING OF THE CRIMES AGAINST THE UNITED STATES

In this court's dismissal order (pg. 3) this court makes reference to the September 23, 1991 order by Judge Stanley Sporkin that "permanently enjoined the plaintiff from filing any new civil action with this Court" Judge Sporkin is a former legal counsel for the Central Intelligence Agency, the same agency that has engaged in decades of drug smuggling into the United States, among other crimes.

Evidence obtained from Plaintiff's CIA assets indicate that Sporkin covered up for the October Surprise scheme that involved government employees from the CIA and other government entities, as they corrupted the 1980 presidential elections through the bribing of Iranian officials and unlawful shipment of arms so as to delay the release of the 52 American hostages. Plaintiff has evidence clearly showing that this scheme occurred, and that it was covered up by employees of the Justice Department, the CIA, members of Congress, and others.

For damage control, President Reagan appointed Sporkin to a federal judge position, along with others who were involved in serious misconduct against the United States, including Lawrence Silberman and Lowell Jensen.

In one instance, on May 8, 1989, Judge Sporkin dismissed one of Plaintiff's actions seeking to report government corruption, thereby obstructing justice. He then ordered that all evidence associated with Plaintiff's filing be destroyed, a typical CIA tactic.

In 1991 Sporkin dismissed another of Plaintiff's actions which sought to report, under federal criminal statutes, the criminal activities in Ninth Circuit bankruptcy courts, and particularly the criminal actions by court-appointed trustee Charles Duck. Duck was later charged by the U.S. attorney with the worse criminal fraud ever exposed by the court-appointed trustee, and a quick plea-bargain entered into to block further investigation into the crime-riddled Ninth Circuit bankruptcy courts.

LOOTED BANKRUPTCY COURT FUNDS USED TO FUND CIA DRUG PURCHASES FOR DRUGGING OF THE BLACKS IN LOS ANGELES

Plaintiff learned from a highly-placed Central Intelligence Agency-Office of Naval Intelligence asset that funds looted by Duck from bankruptcy assets were used by the same CIA that previously employed Sporkin to assist in funding the CIA purchase of drugs in the Los Angeles area.

Sporkin's order barring me, or any other citizen, especially one seeking to report criminal activities under federal criminal statutes, is obviously unlawful, unconstitutional, and an obstruction of justice in this case. This court is compounding the prior judicial obstruction of justice and other federal offenses that Sporkin and other federal judges had perpetrated. Obviously to put it mildly, dismissal of this action based upon Sporkin's unlawful and unconstitutional order (plus its criminal implications through coverups and obstruction of justice) does not meet the criteria for dismissing Plaintiff's actions.

EUPHEMISTIC COUCHING OF OBSTRUCTION-OF-JUSTICE ORDER

This court and Sporkin couched Sporkin's unlawful order with the euphemistic statement: "In a decision issued September 23, 1991, Judge Sporkin of this Court permanently enjoined the plaintiff from filing any new civil action with this Court....under pain of penalty of contempt of this Court....As justification for such an Order, Judge Sporkin detailed the abuses on the Court that has been perpetrated by the plaintiff. See id. Judge

Sporkin recognized that "[f]ederal courts have both the inherent power and the constitutional obligation to protect their jurisdiction from conduct which impairs their ability to carry out Article III functions."

OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE A FUNCTION OF FEDERAL JUDGES?

Impairs the court's ability to function? Obstructing justice, making possible the infliction of great harm upon the national security, and upon thousands of innocent Americans, and criminalizing the federal courts, is certainly not the function of the federal courts as envisioned by those who wrote the Constitution of the United States.

REPORT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT IF STILL A FEDERAL INVESTIGATOR

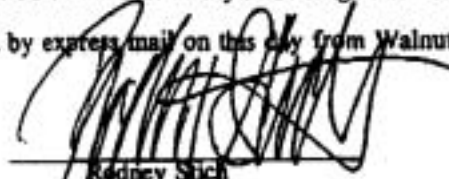

If Plaintiff was still a federal investigator, when he was authorized by law to make determinations of federal law violations, Plaintiff would report Sporkin's actions, and that of this court, as guilty of coverups, obstruction of justice, misuse of government judicial office, mail fraud, and other crimes as already detailed in Plaintiff's pleadings and exhibits.

Attached to this motion, and made a part of it, is a list of 23 people who can testify to certain parts of the criminal activities described by Plaintiff, including decades of CIA drug smuggling into the United States.

SUMMARY

In summary, this court has again blocked the reporting of crimes against the United States that will surely result in its collapse. It has aided and abetted criminal and subversive activities that have already inflicted great and irreparable harm upon various government institutions, and established a lawless culture that filters down through government and society. Plaintiff initially saw the consequences of this misconduct and judicial coverup in a series of fraud-related airline crashes, followed by the coverup of harm inflicted in other areas of government activity.

These statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief. Executed this 17th day of December 1996, and mailed by express mail on this day from Walnut Creek, California.

Civil Action 95-2260 (CRR)

PLAINTIFF'S DECLARATION
IN SUPPORT OF HIS FICA
CLAIMS AND FURTHER SUPPORT
FOR TITLE 18 USC SECTION 4
CRIME-REPORTING RESPONSIBILITIES

DECLARATION

I, Rodney F. Stich, the plaintiff in the three actions consolidated by this court, submits the attached list of witnesses who can provide additional evidence relating to certain federal crimes perpetrated by high-level government employees. This includes the drug-related offenses perpetrated by and at the direction of the Central Intelligence Agency.

COMPLYING WITH FEDERAL CRIME-REPORTING STATUTES

Plaintiff had supplemented each of his federal tort claim actions¹ with the statutory requirement² to report federal crimes to a federal judge. Plaintiff has already offered to produce testimony and evidence of major criminal activities against the United States which he first ¹ Actions include 95-2260, 95-2261, and 95-2263.

² Title 18 U.S.C. § 4 (misprision of felony). "Whoever, having knowledge of the actual commission of a felony punishable by a term of the United States, conceals and does not as soon as possible state known the same to some judge or other person in civil or military authority under the United States, shall be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both."

discovered as a federal inspector-investigator. At that time he held authority under federal law to make similar determinations of federal law violations for the government. With this declaration he now expands on the requirement of this criminal statute by incorporating the attached list of 22 witnesses who discovered major criminal activities while acting for or under the direction of their CIA and DEA handlers.

DECADES OF CIA DRUG TRAFFICKING

The most prominent and most easily understood criminal activities that these sources can prove is the extensive and long-standing drug smuggling, drug-money laundering, by, on behalf, or under the direction of the CIA. As a former federal investigator, I have obtained over 1,000 hours of statements, often in a deposition-like manner, from these sources, and find that their statements are basically very creditable and often corroborated by the statements of my other sources who have no connection or knowledge of the other.

The extreme gravity of the on-going criminal activities, the major damage to our national security, the corrupting of our government institutions, the grave harm inflicted upon America and individual Americans, demands that a federal judge perform his mandatory duty under federal crime statute Title 18 USC Section 4.

INVOLVEMENT OF JUSTICE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYEES

People in control of the U.S. Department of Justice are heavily implicated in these criminal offenses by their coverups and obstruction of justice. It is therefore urgently required that an independent body be empaneled to assist in the submission of evidence that Plaintiff and his large number of deep-cover sources can provide.

MANDATORY DUTY OF FEDERAL JUDGES TO RECEIVE EVIDENCE

Under federal law, a federal judge has a mandatory and non-discretionary duty to receive Plaintiff's testimony and evidence and that of his sources. Plaintiff has discovered, and documented, a long period of obstruction of justice by Justice Department personnel and federal judges, which caused and permitted to be inflicted upon the United States and many individual Americans great harm in the various criminal activities that he details and documents in the Complaints and related exhibits and declarations.

1 This court has repeatedly blocked the reporting of these crimes, and arguably has become
2 guilty as the principals, under federal criminal statutes.³ If Plaintiff was still a federal inspector-
3 investigator, his report would state that this court has been committing various crimes associated 4 with this coverup and obstruction of justice.

5 RETALIATION FOR REPORTING FEDERAL CRIMES

6 It was Plaintiff's attempts to report the criminal activities that caused federal employees to 7 retaliate against Plaintiff in various ways. And it is these retaliatory and criminal acts that forms
8 the basis for Plaintiff's three FTCA complaints. It is therefore important, not only for the security
9 of the United States, in the interest of justice, and to support Plaintiff's FTCA actions, that the 10 testimony and evidence of the group of 23 witnesses be properly presented and received.

11 Attached to and made a part of this declaration is a list of 23 deep-cover sources whose 12 testimony can prove beyond any doubt that, for instance:

- 13 • People in control of the Central Intelligence Agency and the Drug Enforcement
- 14 Administration have for years directly and indirectly engaged in drug trafficking into the United
- 15 States, associated money laundering, and often acted in concert with organized crime figures.
- 16 • Military facilities of the United States have been used for the drug smuggling activities,
- 17 aiding and abetting the criminal and subversive activities of the CIA and DEA.
- 18 • Massive defrauding of the United States and thousands of people who naively exercise the
- 19 statutory protections of Chapter 11, only to have their assets seized and looted. Some of these
- 20 looted assets were used by or for the Central Intelligence Agency, including the acquisition of
- 21 drugs.

- 22 • Plaintiff has already introduced and/or made reference to evidence of other federal crimes
- 23 that he discovered either as a federal investigator, or as a private investigator, as a victim, and

(b) Whoever willfully causes or aid to be done which if directly performed by him or another would be an offense against the United States, is punishable as a principal.

Note: The legislative intent in punishing a principal not only one who directly commits an offense and one who aids, abets, counsels, encourages, induces or procures another to commit an offense, but also anyone who causes the doing of an act which if done by him directly would make him guilty of an offense against the United States. 1 during several thousand hours of deposition-like questioning of CIA and other deep-cover sources.
2 These criminal activities involved people in control of the CIA, DEA, Department of Justice,
3 federal judges, among others.

- 4 • Plaintiff's second edition of Defrauding America has already been introduced into these
- 5 actions and provides a graphic portrayal of how the United States is being systematically defrauded

Group Available To Prove Serious Government Corruption

Editor's note: This story begins on the Front Page and is also continued from p. 29. As Stich told CONTACT: "The group of unrelated former government employees and assets of the CIA, DEA, and other deep-cover operations of the FAA referred to by me in these documents, will remain confidential until such time as there is a MEANINGFUL investigation into these most serious allegations."

12/13/96 RODNEY STICH

A group of unrelated former government employees and assets of the CIA, DEA, and other deep-cover operations (and the FAA), is available to provide testimony and documentation proving the existence of serious government misconduct, criminal and subversive activities, including decades of CIA drug smuggling into the United States. The group has been assembled by a former federal investigator.

(Most of these individuals have provided hundreds of hours of depositions during the past 10 years to Rodney Stich, a former federal investigator, and author of Defrauding America, Unfriendly Skies, and Disavow. Most of them were directly involved in covert and unlawful activities under orders and direction of their CIA, DEA, and other government handlers. A few were in responsible positions when they discovered the crimes.)

The individual testimony of the members of the group can prove the existence of such covert activities as:

• CIA-DEA DRUG SMUGGLING into the United States, including the participation of officials in the National Security Council, the White House, the military, and the aiding and abetting by officials in control of the U.S. Department of Justice.

• MASSIVE BANKRUPTCY FRAUD against individual Americans, implicating federal judges, federal trustees, attorneys and law firms. Massive looting of assets of those who naively exercise the statutory protections of Chapter 11 [Bankruptcy], and then have their life's assets criminally seized, looted, and distributed among the participants. A multi-billion-dollar-a-year racketeering enterprise.

• CIA LOOTING OF SAVINGS AND LOANS and other financial institutions.

• RETALIATING AGAINST THOSE SEEKING TO REPORT THE CRIMES, to silence or discredit them, and thereby protect ongoing or prior criminal and/or subversive activities.

• AIDING AND ABETTING THESE CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES through coverup, obstruction of justice, retaliation, by Justice Department employees, federal judges, members of Congress, and much of the broadcast and print media.

• Long-standing CIA joint activities with organized crime, including drug sales and drug-money laundering.

• CIA-DEA drug activities that made possible the bombing of Pan Am Flight 103.

• OTHER CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES involving high-level government officials.

(These criminal activities are described in the books, Defrauding America, Unfriendly Skies, and Disavow.)

Source and group member # 1 (Rodney Stich) (Former federal inspector-investigator for the FAA, with years of continuous contacts with many former CIA and other deep-cover operatives.) His 30 years of seeking to expose government corruption, starting as an insider, a government investigator, and his many deep-cover contacts, gives him the ability to tie together the various criminal activities. His testimony and documents would prove, among other things:

• Corrupt and criminal activities associated with specific airline crashes. Hard-core evidence, acquired initially as a federal inspector-investigator, related to a number of specific airline crashes occurring in Stich's area of federal inspector responsibility. Thousands of pages of documents support his charges. Includes coverup of the criminal activities by FAA, NTSB and Justice Department officials. This misconduct continues to play a permissive and contributing role in many airline crashes continuing to occur.

• Decades of CIA drug trafficking into the United States. As an airline pilot in the 1950s, he learned from other pilots in Tokyo and Beirut that they were flying drugs for CIA-related activities. From approximately 1987 Stich learned from his many former CIA and other deep-cover sources. This group includes pilots who flew the drugs, people who had mid-level responsibilities in various areas of the drug activities, people who arranged for drug-money laundering through CIA bank facilities. These assets have provided Stich with affidavits, hundreds of documents, letters, detailing the criminal and subversive activities involving high-level government personnel.

• Personal knowledge of judicial looting of bankruptcy court assets, augmented by information from his CIA sources.

• Criminal coverup and obstruction of justice by high-level government and non-government personnel. Stich details in his books the high-level coverup and obstruction of justice by federal judges, Justice Department officials, much of the establishment media. These are criminal acts under federal law and, permitted to continue, [bring] great harm upon the United States and most of its people.

• Felony retaliation by federal judges and Justice Department employees, seeking to silence his reporting of criminal misconduct related to a series of airline crashes, his attempts to expose the CIA and other links to drug smuggling, silence his exposure of judicial corruption, among others. This retaliation is proven by judicial records.

• Other criminal activities involving CIA, Justice Department employees, federal judges, and members of Congress.

• Stich's evidence proving the existence of these crimes includes:

• Hundreds of FAA reports and a 4,000-page transcript of a hearing that he forced upon the FAA, during which he acted as a form of independent prosecutor. The evidence and testimony proved the relationship between criminal misconduct and a series of fraud-related and specific airline crashes, which continued to occur during the hearing, and for years afterwards.

• Federal actions filed by Stich seeking to report the criminal activities that he discovered, including the federal offenses associated with the airline crashes and then seeking to report the criminal activities implicating federal officials and those acting in their behalf (standard disavow tactics). The attempt to report federal crimes to a federal judge is provided, and required, under federal criminal statute, Title 18 USC, Section 4.

• Thousands of sequestered government documents that he obtained while a federal investigator, judicial records, and obtained from his many CIA and other deep-cover sources.

• Over 1,000 hours of statements concerning drug smuggling and other criminal activities made to Stich during the past ten years by his many CIA and other deep-cover sources, often in deposition-like settings, and sworn affidavits. Many of these information exchanges were in deposition-like sessions. Some of these depositions were filed into federal criminal actions.

• Testimony that Stich can provide as to what he discovered, first as a federal investigator holding federal authority to make similar determinations, and then as a private investigator, along with his thousands of pages of government documents.

HISTORY CLASS, 2157 A.D.

*The detailed and documented books written by Stich, including the third edition of Unfriendly Skies, second edition of Defrauding America, and first edition of Disavow. These books tie together the massive amount of documents and evidence presenting prima facie evidence of these criminal activities. These books have received excellent book reviews from sophisticated reviewers and people involved in covert agency activities. They were written for the sole purpose of circumventing the criminal obstruction of justice by virtually every government and non-government check and balance.

Source # 2: (high-level CIA-ONI operative from the 1960s through 1980s, in mid to high-level covert activities in various areas of covert activities.) His testimony would reveal, among other things:

- CIA assassinations.
- CIA drug trafficking from the Middle and Far East, the Caribbean and Central and South America, including the Los Angeles area, and aspects of the drugging of the blacks not previously revealed (such as funding CIA drug purchases from assets looted in bankruptcy court); joint activities with organized crime figures in drug smuggling and looting of savings and loans.
- Judicial looting of bankruptcy court assets. Some of the looted funds were used to fund CIA drug purchases. These criminal activities involve federal judges, Justice Department trustees and other government employees, law firms and attorneys.
- Involvement in October Surprise scheme, that corrupted the 1980 presidential elections.
- Bribing of federal judges, and how they receive their bribe funds.
- CIA role in setting up the Medellin and Cali cartels, making it easier for the CIA to coordinate drug sales.
- Evidence. In addition to his own testimony, dozens of letters and hundred of taped deposition-like sessions are available as he described these covert activities.
- His activities are described in second edition of Defrauding America.

Source # 3: (Former U.S. Army helicopter pilot, and sheep-dipped to Central Intelligence Agency.) His testimony and documents would reveal, among other things:

- Personal knowledge of CIA, National Security Council and White House-directed drug shipments on military and CIA helicopters, the cooperation of the military in the drugging of America, and involvement of well-known national figures.
- Personal knowledge of high-level involvement in drug-related activities. He carried on his helicopter trips such well-known figures as Oliver North, Dan Lasater, William Barr (while attorney for Southern Air Transport and before he became U.S. attorney general), Buddy Young (aide to Governor Bill Clinton), Felix Rodriguez (responsible to George Bush), to drug-related activities. These include inspection of drug laboratories, and once to a meeting with General Noriega and Barry Seal (the purpose of which was to discover where the drug money was being siphoned off on the Panama to Arkansas route).
- Drugs to Arkansas. He flew drugs on U.S. Army helicopters to Little Rock and Mena from Fort Campbell, Kentucky, including delivery to Dan Lasater and Buddy Young.
- Military flight plans showing passengers and comments relating to drugs being carried. This witness has a great number of military flight plans showing his flights, who his passengers were, with comments on the flight plans showing carriage of drugs in coolers fraudulently marked "medical supplies". These flight plans included drug-carrying flights from Fort Campbell, Kentucky to Little Rock and Mena, Arkansas, delivering "medical supplies" in coolers to a "Doctor" Lasater (aka Dan Lasater) and Buddy Young (head of security for then-governor Bill Clinton).

•Supporting evidence includes military flight plans, letters, affidavits, court filings, and tapes.

•His activities are described in upcoming third edition of Defrauding America.

Source # 4: (Head of a CIA proprietary airline for 16 years, carrying drugs for the CIA.) Testimony and evidence would reveal, among other things:

•Extensive knowledge of CIA drug smuggling into the United States from the Far East, as a result of being the titular head of a CIA proprietary airline that frequently carried drugs. Details of interaction with other CIA proprietary or front-airlines, including Southern Air Transport and Evergreen Airlines. The airline was CIA-funded and equipped, and was based in Bangkok, with an office in Miami. Activities included hauling drugs from the Far East to the Philippines, where the drugs would be offloaded onto other CIA proprietary airlines, such as Southern Air Transport. Later, when four-engine aircraft were provided, the drug-loaded planes went directly to the United States.

•Supporting evidence would be testimony, from letters written by the source, tapes of his deposition-like statements, affidavits (filed in federal court proceedings), available, airline registration certificate and bill of sale certificates conveying ownership of C-130

Book Review

Defrauding America

Book Details Endemic Government Corruption

HIS Inc. Features, by John Austin, (quoting:)

One of the delights of reviewing is the diversity of books which arrive each day. Every delivery brings something to educate, dominate, irritate, titillate or infuriate.

What could turn out to be the most explosive book on the market is Defrauding America written by insider Rodney Stich. Stich's book and documentation illustrates a pattern of related scandals at the highest echelons of the U.S. Government such as the CIA, DEA, FBI, Department of Justice (DoJ) and every other alphabet agency you can think of.

The disclosure vividly illustrates a pattern of "hard-core" criminal activity implicating high federal officials and how it affects our every day lives. There is (obviously) endemic corruption hiding in the stinking cesspool that is the District of Columbia. All Stich's charges appear to be documented throughout the book's tightly-paced 560 pages.

The author is a former federal investigator for 30 years who says he discovered a lot of the criminal activities he documents during that period and supports his charges. We do not feel anything in the books is "sour grapes".

Stich's initial exposé of criminal activity by government departments was brought to light in a series of fraud-related airline crashes and corruption in the FAA, NTSB, and DoJ and the federal courts in his previous book, Unfriendly Skies.

Whatever serious charges we repeat here are all well documented and corroborated. They are backed up by a dozen "deep-cover" intelligence agency "whistle blowers", personnel who gave the author many statements quoted in his exposé.

•There has been, and is, massive drug smuggling into the United States by the CIA and the DEA aided and abetted by officials in control of the U.S. Customs Service and the DoJ.

This includes drug-laden planes landing at the Mena air strip in Arkansas of which then-Governor Bill Clinton was well aware. He refuses to fund the tiny Mena Police Department to pursue its investigation to prevent it. A former President was also aware of this activity. (Documented on pages 284-5.)

•The use of Chapter 11 bankruptcy "protection" which turns such courts into "criminal activity" involving federal judges, trustees and law firms. (They are all named.)

•The dirty part of the Iran-Contra scandal that the Congress and the media withheld from the public. There were arms sales to both sides in the CIA-generated Nicaragua deal. Drugs were received in exchange and smuggled into the United States by the CIA, DEA and the military.

•From his own personal experiences, Stich relates that it is normal practice for DoJ attorneys to fabricate whatever lie is necessary to obtain conviction and to support whatever order they want rendered by (generally) handpicked judges.

The biggest scandal of all—and this was recently delved into by a major network "reality show"—involves the "Inslaw Affair", which Stich goes into in great depth. He alleges, with much corroboration, the criminal misuse of renegade officials of the DoJ Stealing valuable software from a private company and selling it to drug dealers and foreign countries. This priceless Inslaw software gives these people access to ongoing U.S. and worldwide criminal investigations.

This theft also involved the murder of an investigative reporter who was close to the truth. The book goes on and on to the point of disgust in our government from the top down. It is obvious that most of us outside "the loop" have no say in how this country is run or ever will be, or who is even nominated for high office regardless of Ross Perot or any other White Knight who comes along; that is, as long as the same people are returned to power year after year by the electorate and then have their strings pulled by powerful lobbyists for special interest. Ways to keep many of the losers in power (regardless of the vote) is by appointing them to other lucrative government policy-making jobs.

Even though in our opinion Defrauding America would be a major best-seller, there has been outright refusal by U.S. publishers to consider it for publication; book wholesalers refuse to stock copies. Therefore, it can only be ordered direct from Diablo Western Press, Box 5, Alamo, CA 94507, or ordered direct by calling 1-800-247-7389. The cost is $25 plus $2.50 S&H. [End quoting] aircraft to "his" airline.

•CIA supplying arms to IRA.

•His activities are described in third edition of Defrauding America.

Source # 5: Former pilot working with the Drug Enforcement Administration in Central and South America and the United States. He served as pilot and confidential informant (CI) for Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA), flying from various points in the United States to Central America, flying arms south, and drugs on the return trips. His testimony would reveal, among other things:

•Arms being shipped by DEA and CIA to Contras and Sandinistas, in violation of U.S. law, and showing the false premise used by U.S. officials that they were supporting only one side, the Contras, allegedly to combat the country from selecting the communistic form of government. This list of sources is being continually updated to include other people formerly involved in unlawful covert activities, or who were in a position to know of such activities, most of whom acted under their government handlers. As a group, these people, who are independent of each other, can circumvent the massive misinformation and obstruction of justice tactics by people in control of government entities such as the CIA and Justice Department, and much of the broadcast and print media. Additional reliable sources are welcomed to aid in eliminating these threats to the security of the United States. The criminal activities revealed by these people reflects the enormous harm being inflicted upon the United States and many innocent Americans.

Some of these sources will be willing to appear on radio and TV shows. Others want to avoid Justice Department retaliation or for various reasons do not want publicity, but would appear under subpoena and assurance of protection against retaliation.

PROBABLY AS CLEAR

 (but please hang in there)

OUR CONSTITUTION, AND ARTICLE VI, CLAUSE 2, LOOKING AT THE COURTS

12/9/96 V.K. DURHAM

OK! NOW WHERE DO WE GO?

LET'S LOOK AT ARTICLE I, SEC. 10, CLAUSE 1

Article I, Sec. 10, Clause 1: (I would love to expound upon these governors' confederations cutting deals, but that is not a part of my case at this time.)
 (a) Tender of Debts shall be made in Gold and Silver;
 (b) after-the-fact laws cannot be passed nor have standing; (c) the laws at the time of contract prevail;
 (d) no law can be made which impairs the rights of contracts.

(Continuing, but going back to Article VI, Clause 2.)

(e) The Judges in every State shall be bound thereby; (f) any Thing contrary to the Constitution or constitutional laws of any state are notwithstanding, meaning if they are not in compliance to, in conformance with, pursuant, or authorized, those laws have no standing against the constitutional common Laws of the Land.

LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT FLETCHER VS. PECK (constitutional contract in Commerce Law)

Fletcher vs. Peck: "The party is estopped and barred by his own grant (contract) and has no right of defense against that contract made by him."

HOW DO WE GET TO THE LAW OF THE LAND IN THESE FEDERAL ADMIRALTY COURTS OF TODAY?

In these U.S. District (Federal) Courts, first, Jurisdiction must be established. I don't know why jurisdiction must be established, when the Constitution is primary; however, Rule 1331 demands to know Jurisdiction. Where, oh where, do we go from here...? We go to the Rule of Decision. Then, we go to Admiralty Law, Sec. 1-9, which contains the Saving Clause, saving constitutional Common Law as primary jurisdiction. The Saving Clause invokes the Law of the Land, to which the Law of the Sea must yield. We then cite the Judiciary Act of 1787, Sec. 11, which binds the courts to the constitutional common Laws of the Land.

However, the only way to regain our constitutional common laws in these Federal Admiralty Courts—which do have jurisdiction in matters of international contracts, shipping, complaints of seamen, shipping contracts as defined in Admiralty Law, Sec. 1-9—is by and through knowing and using their laws to which they are bound. By removing those Statutory Laws from our constitutional Common Law, and weaving the Law of the Land issues into their laws, we can bring out our laws, the Law of the Land.

This, frankly, is the only way I can think of to insure our contract of constitutional law, the Law of the Land, and to save the Law of the Land from being swallowed up by the Law of the Sea.

What is so challenging to me is that these judges, on our court benches, know what Article VI, Clause 2 is about, they also know they are bound by the 3rd clause to uphold, protect and defend those constitutional laws, as are your state and federal representatives, as is the President of the United States. For these persons, who allegedly represent the people, to blatantly ignore and defile our Law of the Land and to foster and promote its being overturned and overpowered by the Law of the Sea is—well, you know what it "is" as well as do I. Saying the least about the most: this is bizarre, incomprehensible, and misconstruction and abuse of powers of Public Trust Offices (we must have gone to different law schools).

We have people across this land desperately seeking the Law of the Land in these alleged courts. I agree with their principle; however, I disagree with the methods. Why? Because for the current system to be abolished the process [of accomplishing such change] must be worked through the system of law.

LET'S LOOK AT IT THIS WAY

The laws given to you previously are like a road map to a destination. You have to have a map to know where you are going if you are going out on a trip, and you know the general direction but you really don't know how to get there. The map is clear and concise.

We must use and work within the system. Only at that time may we reach our destination. We, at that time, can reach our destination in peace. But, it is ever so important to the recovery of our Laws of the Land. Keep in mind, the constitutions (state and federal) are contracts of laws. "Law is a Contract with the People" (Fletcher vs. Peck).

I have been taking a lot of flack lately about my statements on 18 U.S.C., Parts I, II, III, of Public Policy.

This Public Policy relates to public officials. Not to John and Jane Doe, the everyday, garden variety American citizens.

Part I—Policy: Sec. 101: "Where government is based on the consent of the governed, every citizen is entitled to have complete confidence in the integrity of his government. Each individual officer, employee or advisor of government must help to earn and must honor that trust by his own integrity and conduct in all official actions."

Part 11, Sec. 201, etc., I am going to leave you to look up. However, remember 18 U.S.C. is titled: "Crimes and Criminal Procedure".

READ IT, AND
THINK ABOUT IT!

So far, I haven't heard a single thing from the court on the Illinois Power case. It is supposed by me that when [filings utilizing] constitutional law, the Supreme Law of the Land, land in these courts it throws the computers off, and everything goes into a "tizzy", for the computers apparently do not have constitutional law contained in their memory banks. Well, let's take a look at what is gumming up the gear box of this constitutional case. (As opposed to computerized Admiralty Law, which is in the computers.)

THE CONSTITUTION OF AND FOR THE UNITED STATES ARTICLE VI, CLAUSE 2, AND ARTICLE I, SEC. 10, CLAUSE 1 (this case involved a contract):

Article VI, Clause 2: "This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall (mandatory) be made in pursuance (conforming to, subject to, in compliance with) thereof, and all Treaties made, or which shall be made under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land; and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding."

Article I, Sec. 10, Clause 1: "No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation; grant Letters of Marque or Reprisal; coin Money; emit Bills of Credit; make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts; pass any Bill of Attainder, ex post facto Law, or Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts, or grant any Title of Nobility."

LET US TAKE A LOOK AT THESE ARTICLES (remember, the Constitution itself is a contract)

Article VI, Clause 2, identifies WHAT to you? Well, it should tell you (a) the Constitution is the First mentioned (Marbury vs. Madison, constitutional law); (b) all laws shall be made to conform with the Constitution, and shall be subject to the Constitution; (c) the laws shall be made under the authority of the United States (meaning through Legislative Acts and Resolution, not by publishing in the Federal Register for 30 days); (d) the constitutional common laws shall be the Law of the Land (I do not see Admiralty Law, the Law of Maritime/Sea, mentioned or withstanding).
