

CONTACT

The Phoenix Project: A LIGHT IN EVERY MIND!

"YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU MAD!"
"NOW THAT YOU'RE MAD, LET'S FIX IT!"

VOLUME 15, NUMBER 10

NEWS REVIEW

$ 3.00

JANUARY 14, 1997

The Destruction Of Africa George Bush's Heart Of Darkness

1/11/97 #2 HATONN

Let us move to one of the most atrocious things coming down in the world today—the destruction of Africa.

To understand where we will be going with this, you will need to remember the Barrick Gold Corp. (Canada based) and realize that it owns even the Goldstrike properties in Nevada. In Sept. (17th for inquiring minds), 1996 former Canadian Prime Minister Brian Mulroney met with Bush at Goldstrike in Elko, Nevada. By the way, Bush is "honorary senior adviser" to Barrick's corporation. After that, Bush wrote to Indonesia's President Suharto, seeking the Barrick takeover of the Busang gold mine. Meanwhile, simultaneously, British-backed forces were carrying out mass murder in Zaire, preparing the WAY

FOR BARRICK AND OTHERS TO LOOT THE COUNTRY. Readers, these are simply NOT NICE PEOPLE. And where might be Henry Kissinger? Oh, just busy, busy kissing horses' assets at Ascot with the Queen.

There is no way I could do better than has Jeffrey Steinberg of Executive Intelligence Review (EIR) in a feature article from January 3, 1997. I just don't [Please see The Destruction Of Africa, p.34]

INSIDE THIS ISSUE

A News Desk Special:

Blatant Suppression Of Free Energy Devices, p.2
Book Review:

Vaccines: Are They Really Safe and Effective, p.7

Nora's Research Corner: "The Four Horsemen..." Series, p.8
In The Arenas Of IN-Justice, p.9

Nevada Corporations:

Estate Planning Today! Part 1, p.14

The News Desk, p.18

Dodging Potholes Along The Spiritual Pathways, p.15
Truth Can Be A Threat

To Those With Rigid Beliefs, p.21

Ray Bilger: The Untold History Of America, Part XV, p.24

David Icke: Hitler's Europe: Welcome To The Show, p.26

Grandma: "CIA Flu" And The Death Of Russell Herman, p.32

Legal Ducks Lining Up, p.28

V.K. Durham: A Tip Of The Iceberg, p.29

Health Notes About Olive Leaf Extract, p.30

CONTACT

P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126

FIRST-CLASS MAIL

U.S. POSTAGE PAID

Mojave, Ca. 93501
Permit No. 110

FIRST CLASS MAIL

A News Desk Special

Blatant Suppression Of Free Energy Devices

12/31/96 DR. AL OVERHOLT

SUPPRESSION OF
FREE ENERGY DEVICES—
INVENTORS &
MOTHER EARTH BEWARE!

From the INTERNET, By Erik Masen, 12/96,
[quoting:]

There has been a revived energy revolution movement going on around the world the past 20 years that has not been covered or reported by mainstream press, establishment scientific journals or university research publications.

Most of the discoveries have been made by curious, ingenious minds, who on many occasions have observed experimental results in cold fusion, superconductivity, and magnetic motors which appear to violate present laws of physics, chemistry and electrodynamics. A term has been used to describe such phenomena: it is called over-unity energy or free energy, which in many cases means getting more energy out of a system or reaction (magnetic motor or cold fusion reaction) than appears to be put into it. A better explanation is that excess energy is being accessed from an as yet not completely explained source. (Note: An atom bomb is an over-unity device which gets a tremendous amount of dirty energy out, in the form of harmful radiation, than is needed to trigger the reaction.)

The first question that usually pops into a skeptic's mind is that if the technology is for real and discoveries have been made, such as Pons & Fleischman's cold fusion cell or Rory Johnson's fusion magnetic motor, why has it not been reported or mass produced for use by our energy-hungry world? The answer is suppression. What do we mean by suppression? Suppression can be an active type—where a corporation or oil company or OPEC, who does not want the invention marketed, will blow up or destroy the lab and the invention and threaten to kill the inventor if he again attempts to market the revolutionary device. The other type of suppression is the passive type where a competing company who has big bucks, such as some of the major oil companies, will come in and buy out a patent with no intention of bringing it to market until the demand for oil greatly exceeds the supply and gas prices soar, then they [perhaps] will start marketing a 100 mpg carburetor for ICEs (Internal Combustion Engines).

Other types of passive suppression include universities (which are receiving big funding from oil or nuclear establishment sources) refusing to do research, or muzzling bright professors (by withholding tenure) from publishing theories and results as to the what, hows, and whys of these over-unity motors and cold fusion reactions. Or the example where a Patent Office refuses to grant patents in revolutionary technology, claiming that perpetual motion machines, as they see them, aren't patentable—or if they are patentable, that they can place a secrecy order or gag order on the patent, which prohibits the inventor from disclosing any information to anyone because such disclosure "might be detrimental to national security". (See Appendix 2)

The following suppression stories you are about to read are true, to the best of our knowledge, but the names and places have been changed to protect the innocent. This information will hopefully give you some reasons why this over-unity technology has not reached worldwide attention or use. Perhaps perpetrators of this much-needed new energy technology suppression will consider reversing their policy and incorporate this technology into their business structure for a future profitable enterprise [Don't hold your breath]. Such technology can restore Mother Earth, which seems to be in great agony right now, with hot fusion (nuclear power plants) blowing up, and/or radiation byproducts seeping into water tables in the Russian Arctic or at Hanford, Washington, where radioactive waste seems to be seeping into the Columbia River. In the case of oil spills such as the Exxon Valdez tanker spill, or the U.K. oil tanker spill, these major environmental accidents have destroyed pristine fish and wildlife breeding grounds. What is good for the multinational oil companies, OPEC, and nuclear power plants may not necessarily be good for Mother Earth, the nation's human and animal health, or emerging countries whose energy resources are being exploited and their environment, such as the Russian Arctic tundra and South American jungles, destroyed for our short-term, consume-consume energy fling.

For these reasons, the development of energy technology has really gotten the attention of the ingenious, non-conformist inventors. Pioneers they have admired include Nikola Tesla, John Keely, T. Henry Moray, and others. Two primary areas of R&D have been targeted: (1) clean cold fusion as opposed to dirty hot fusion (nuclear energy); and (2) zero-point magnetic energy. Again, these technologies have been actively and passively suppressed. The following documented stories will, hopefully, give you some specifics of suppression.

1. In the late 70s a brilliant inventor, Rory Johnson of Elgin, Illinois, invented a cold fusion, laser-activated, magnetic motor that produced 525 HP, weighed 475 lbs, and would propel a large truck or bus 100,000 miles on about 2 lbs. of deuterium and gallium. This was years before Pons & Fleischman or Dr. James Patterson entered the scene with their cold fusion technology. Rory Johnson was in the process of negotiation with the Greyhound Bus Company to install this revolutionary motor into a few buses to demonstrate the fuel savings, maintenance reduction, and hence a more profitable balance sheet for Greyhound.

The mistake Rory Johnson made (little did he know that OPEC was keeping close track of any future competition to their oil business and that he was number one on the hit list) was to actively publicize his advanced fusion-magnetic motor in many magazines, telling of his plans to manufacture and distribute this revolutionary motor nationwide. (I have even talked to a few people who had signed up for a distributorship.) Coincidentally, after agents of Greyhound tried to get in touch with Rory Johnson after a year of no contact, they were notified that Rory had passed away unexpectedly. A man of robust health in his early fifties dying?! It was later learned that for some threatening reason, Rory moved out of his laboratory unexpectedly in the middle of the night with all his motors and technology and moved to California before he died.

Another astounding development was that a restraining order, or gag order, by the U.S. Energy Department had been placed on Rory's Company, Magnatron, Inc., prohibiting him from producing the Magnatron engine. (See Appendix 1—a letter from Minnesota State Senator Marion Manning to U.S. Senator from Minnesota Dave Donenberger inquiring as to why our government would place such a gag order on Mr. Johnson.) Isn't this the land of the free market economy? Apparently not. Something seems a little strange about this whole incident. Are the oil cartels dictating energy policy to the U.S. Government? Read on.

Remember Ruby Ridge, recently adapted to a TV movie where over-zealous U.S. agents killed Randy Weaver's wife and son? Well at the same time of this FBI siege, another inventor, at that very time, happened to be living and working on an advanced zero-point energy device in northern Idaho.

As the story goes (told first-hand to me by the investor), the investor was coming to visit the inventor who had just made a breakthrough in a free-energy device, but made the mistake of publicizing his breakthrough on a local TV station. The day before the investor arrived, two government agents broke into the inventor's home, surmising that both the inventor and his wife were away. It just happened the wife was still at home and was very familiar with the use of a hefty handgun. At point-blank range, she held the agents at bay inside her house while she debunked their excuse that they were cable TV repairmen checking out their cable lines. If it wasn't for the siege of Randy Weaver at Ruby Ridge, who knows what else would have happened that day. Some comments from this inventor will appear near the end of this article.

By the way, whose side is our government on? It appears that the big money interests, oil cartels, nuclear power companies have control of it. These big, powerful corporations don't want any competition. They hoard most of the research funds on not necessarily new or revolutionary technology. It appears it isn't what's in the interest of National Security or Balance of Power in the Middle East, but what is in the best economic interest of the multinational corporations. A classic example is the government-funded hot fusion reactor at Princeton's Plasma Physics Lab. The "powers that be" know there are cleaner, safer and cheaper ways of producing nuclear energy, like bombarding lithium with protons—known since 1932, but has been kept secret and kept out of college textbooks. Read "The Fifty Year Nuclear War" by David Sereda in the Jan/Feb 1996 issue of Perceptions (310-313-5185) for more eye-opening details. This is a classic example of passive suppression of new, clean, economical alternate cold fusion energy.

Now for some real active suppression! About 10 years ago, some very clever backyard inventors took a magnetic generating flywheel off a Model-T Ford, placed stationary magnets in a spiral arrangement to the outside, and developed a self-generating motor-generator. The motor-generator (using the pulsed varying distance magnetic spiral principle), continually

Editorial Policy

Opinions of the CONTACT contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the CONTACT staff or management.

produced 1600 watts of power with no outside power input [emphasis mine]. They demonstrated the generator at UCLA, which confounded the professors, students, and other onlookers. Evidently there were some heavy-handed corporate types in the audience, because the inventors never made it home from the demonstration. The two demonstrator-inventors were found dead along the highway, and the trailer with the generator inside was missing.

Now the Japanese apparently have the technology which is referred to as the "magnetic Wankel" motor.

Yasunori Takahashi, a famous Japanese inventor who developed the Beta video-tape, has retrofitted his newly developed superpowerful YT magnets into a 15 HP Magnetic Wankel motor scooter and claims he can get 15 HP from a few amperes of electricity input. Now when the Japanese start to export these scooters—into the U.S.—(if our U.S. Government will allow it), there goes our further balance of payments deficit to Japan. Incidentally, rumor has it that Mazda tried to import the Magnetic Wankel motor in a Mazda several years ago but was refused entry by the U.S. Government, just as was a super-high-mileage, gas-powered Honda was kept from entry into the U.S. a few years ago by our government. Let's hope U.S. Government policy changes, before it becomes more bankrupt due to the increasing balance of payments deficits with Japanese manufacturers and foreign oil companies due to the wasteful, gas-guzzling technologies we have come to embrace as the American Way.

Now for another story on suppression which includes a black helicopter incident.

2. Someone presented a videotape of an advanced tachyon generator which accessed tachyon waves (extremely short waves—like cosmic waves). It not only produced excess energy, but it also exhibited time-warping characteristics. This presentation was made at an annual Tesla conference in 1993, without the inventor's permission. The videotape was shown on a Friday afternoon, at a location 3,000 miles away from the inventor's home. The very next day, U.S. Government agents were knocking at the inventor's door wanting to see the device. He kindly told them no thanks, and the very next day a black helicopter was hovering overhead taking pictures of the inside of his house. The black helicopters and possibly even satellites apparently now have the capability of photographing every item inside a building.

A similar situation occurred with another inventor. He was experimenting with an advanced form of plasma discharge energy. The very next day, while he was at work, his neighbors told him later there was a black helicopter hovering over his house for several hours, evidently taking pictures of this technology in his basement.

Another story: In 1995, a man named Volcheck of Grand Coulee, Washington, made a trip across the United States and back in a car powered by a special gas he developed that had unusual expansion properties. He claimed to have obtained the formula from some unpublished notes of Leonardo Da Vinci.

He says the gas expands enormously at about 395 degrees Fahrenheit to 450 pounds pressure. In other words, from approximately 390 to 395 degrees Fahrenheit, the gas expands from a volume of one unit to a volume of 10,000 units. He used this gas in a modified Franklin aircraft engine which behaved more like a steam engine. He never refueled during the trip, consuming $10 worth of this special gas.

Soon after his return, some Congressmen invited him back to Washington, D.C. for a special hearing and congratulatory meeting. While he was gone, Federal Marshals or a S.W.A.T. team forced entry into his shop, confiscated or destroyed his record-setting car, plans, components, special gas containers. They subsequently told him to forget any more projects like this.

Read on. An inventor and a Ph.D. Electrical Engineer from one of our prestigious universities had made a breakthrough on an over-unity motor and hired a hall in a mid-sized town in the U.S. to show off their new discovery. It was an impressive demonstration. What happened next was also (suppressive) impressive. A black van, with windows that you couldn't see into, staked out their lab. Three weeks later, a S.W.A.T. team of six kicked down the lab door and, with axes, destroyed half-a-million-dollars worth of equipment in one-half hour. They forced the inventors onto the concrete floor, face down, and held their heads against the concrete, until bleeding occurred and the equipment was destroyed. They said they were looking for the nuclear source. They had no warrants, just "S.W.A.T. TEAM" printed on the backs of their brownish uniforms. The inventors were told to cease all further development, and the apartments one of the inventors owned were condemned. The tenants were ordered to leave and the Ph.D. Electrical Engineer is still being harassed by the IRS.

The late Floyd Sweet developed the vacuum trade amplifier, an advanced solid-state, magnetic over-unity device. In the late 1980s, a man claiming to represent a conglomerate, met up with Sweet and told him he did not want the VTA to come onto the market at that time and said, "It is not beyond possibilities to take you out of the way," (quoted from Page 78 of The Coming Energy Revolution, by Jeane Manning, 1996, Avery Publishing Group. There are many other suppression incidents in her very informative new energy book, ISBN 0-895290713-2, $12.95).

SOME COMMENTS ON SUPPRESSION

by a Free-Energy Inventor (anonymous)

"The Powers that be made me angry! I do not like my telephone tapped, tracers put on my automobiles, round-the-clock surveillance, and my mail messed with. I do not like the 'little' things that 'happen' around me.

"The only reprieve I got last summer was when the agents watching me were pulled off to join the siege of Randy Weaver. Can you imagine 400 men surrounding a man's cabin, killing his wife and only son, because he wanted to be left alone? It's a long story, but that's what it amounts to.

"I have gone so far as to set up a 'dead man' procedure, so if I become unable to profit from my inventive thinking, complete copies of my notes will be sent to selected individuals.

"I don't really see where it is such a big deal. The Powers That Be can simply invest in my technology, or others like it and make as much money as before. Suppressing these technologies benefits no one. Unlimited energy would potentially make this planet a prosperous paradise. [That's exactly what they don't want, except for themselves. With billions of people removed from this planet any way they can accomplish it.]

"The United States Patent Office has a policy prohibiting a patent on a perpetual motion machine. This policy is a case in point of what happens when you have too much government. Why make a policy against something that you believe impossible? A second irony to the situation is that the Patent Office already allows patents on devices that don't work! So why would they care if a perpetual motion or an over-unity machine works or not? Their real function is simply to record the patent as the inventor applies it. Whether it works or not really isn't their job. They exist to have records on file so that the inventor can point to a specific place and time and say, 'See, I invented it before you,' and therefore have the manufacturing and sales rights for a given amount of time! That's all! That's it."

"In my opinion, the U.S. Patent Office way oversteps their function by discrimination of many patents. But then, their attitude has been strange for a long time. Charles H. Duell, director of the U. S. Patent Office in 1889 states, '...everything that can be invented... has been invented.' I always get a chuckle when I think of that.

"In reality, in our so-called 'free enterprise' system, the marketplace will determine the value of a patent. A patent that doesn't work or is impractical when applied as a device simply won't sell. A device that is superior has a chance to take over from the existing technologies. How many people really care what happens when they flick on the light switch? Most people simply want the light to come on! And if they can get the same light for a fraction of the cost, then they would care about the saving without worrying about the 'new' technology that made it possible. Practical devices will sell, and it shouldn't be up to the Patent Office to determine the practicality of a device.

"You can believe it or not, but we live in a police state. The United States and Canada have only the illusion of 'freedom'. I'd very much like you (or anyone) to prove this statement wrong for two reasons. First, I really want to be free and have the rights granted me by the original Constitution. Second, if you look into the subject hard enough to prove me wrong, you'll find that I'm right and you'll be educated, which is my intention. I still retain the hope that we can, if

LOOKING AT THE BREAKTHROUGH TECHNOLOGIES, INVENTIONS AND INVENTORS THAT WILL CHANGE THE WAY WE LIVE

THE COMING ENERGY REVOLUTION

THE SEARCH FOR FREE ENERGY

JEANE MANNING

To order by mail:
Dr. Nick Begich
Earthpulse Press
P.O. Box 201393
Anchorage, AK 99520

$12.95
plus shipping $3.00

by Phone: (907) 249-9111
by Fax: (907) 696-1277

credit card orders accepted enough people get together, turn our country back into the dream held by our ancestors."

Incidentally, suppression occurs in other countries as well. Johan Grander of Austria developed a revolutionary magnetic motor, but was turned down by the Austrian Patent Office with the excuse: "Inventions which are detrimental to products in existence may not be granted a patent." There are at least 20 cold fusion patents on hold here in the U.S.: another form of passive suppression.

Also from The Coming Energy Revolution by Jeane Manning:

SOME REASONS FOR OVER-UNITY SUPPRESSION

1. The strong oil lobby has throughout recent history suppressed high mileage carburetors through violent threats or rigid mandates. Their tremendous investments in oil fields, refineries and distribution systems wields a big stick against free energy, over-unity systems. (They have to be informed, and it will take tens of years to implement this technology.) They can be a major player in this revolution. [The power and control is what they are after, as well as money.]

2. Some have said the world is on the "brink of financial collapse". And work of revolutionary breakthroughs in the energy production or distribution system could cause economic upheavals in our economic system which is based on finite sources of money and energy. The powers that be can control the masses by controlling the energy supply. They don't want to lose that control.

3. As Einstein stated, "Great ideas often receive violent opposition from mediocre minds." Egos of competing companies, or establishment views that this technology is a hoax or preposterous can also create these violent oppositions.

4. The unenviable tasks of adding to or changing some of the laws of classical physics and chemistry will take vast amounts of research time before verification of these new discoveries can be made by the ivory-tower university types.

5. People in power (academic, political, technological, or business) do not like revolutionary changes which might threaten their position or standing.

6. Ignorance and indifference by the masses in this materialistic, uninformed age about the state of the Earth's delicate ecosystem and the effects of pollutants on human, plant and animal life.

7. National Security: This technology used in a war would be a decided advantage. The major cold war is over [We are still in a major war at the present moment, but most people do not realize it. This technology, which they are using, is part of the reason they have been able to keep it as secret as it has been. The downing of most of the airliners, man-made earthquakes, designed and planted biologicals, massive drug addiction and disastrous storms are all part of it—made possible, partially, by use of "secret" technologies.] Let's help financial independence of the masses and save Mother Earth.

8. Galactic Security: Over-unity magnetic technology is related to anti-gravity, space, time warping (unified field theory), and Area 51 Top Secret technology. The Galactic Cold War has begun [It started years ago.]

In summary, I am writing this article for three main reasons:

1. To inform the public that this new energy revolution is for real, or why would the competing establishment corporations, OPEC, etc., and government agencies be carrying on such suppressive endeavors? Write your legislators and inform them as to what is going on. Tell them we need this new revolutionary technology to be developed worldwide, including in the U. S., to restore Mother Earth, whose once pristine environment is in a world of hurt at present

[emphasis mine]. Is it almost a foregone conclusion that the extreme weather events we are experiencing are a result of mankind's careless exploitation of the Earth's resources [A lot of it is perpetrated by the Elite using H.A.A.R.P. and laser and particle beam weapons.]

2. To inform the inventors not to make sensational claims on their local TV stations or newspapers about recent breakthroughs. Keep it quiet if you want yourselves or your technology to survive! Don't antagonize the oil or nuclear cartels by making statements that this technology will put them out of business. It is going to take a long time to get the technology to the mainstream and replace oil imports or nuclear power: By that time these technologies can be an economic part of the multinational oil and nuclear corporations.

3. To raise one question: as to why the S.W.A.T. teams, or the men in black, are so brash in their operations of suppression? With no warning or explanation to the inventors, they act. These actions seem irrational in a country that was founded on freedom of expression. It seems prudent for the level of government controlling these black helicopters and swat teams to give warning and reasons for their actions before they act. Please raise this question with your congressman [Their actions are well thought out. Can you think of a better way to intimidate others to not present their inventions to the public?]

Some have said that black helicopters are part of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms which operates under the U.S. Treasury Department, which in turn operates with the Federal Reserve, which is a private corporation, which operates with the World Bank, over which the U.S. Government apparently has no jurisdiction. Thus, they can do what they damn well please. At this time. Mr. President, Congressmen, and U.S. Department of Justice? [I would advise to write, but remember most of them are participants, directly or indirectly, in this fraud upon the people.]

Take Note! A movie released this summer (August 2, 1996), Chain Reaction, has the theme of active suppression! REAL ACTIVE!!! [It is in the video stores, NOW.]

Andrew Davis, director of The Fugitive, is producing this action-packed thriller movie Chain Reaction, in which visionary research scientists have discovered the key to cheap, pollution-free energy. When the team's leader is assassinated, and the laboratory is destroyed in a cataclysmic explosion, the machinist and two fellow physicists are framed for the murder. With the help of the lab's investor, the framed group goes on the run with half-a-dozen federal agencies pursuing them across country. They find themselves trapped in an underworld of technological espionage where neither they, nor their discovery, are meant to survive. Three-time Academy Award nominee, Morgan Freeman, plays Shannon, the mysterious head of a foundation that is backing the energy research project. This will be a big-time movie with executive producer Richard Zanuck, who has produced Academy Award pictures—Driving Miss Daisy, The Sting, and Jaws. Don't miss this blockbuster!

The Cold War is over, but the cold war on the lowly but enlightened inventor is still on by the Fascist corporations who want complete control of the world's energy distribution system, regardless of the effect on the masses' health, particularly on the large cities worldwide, or the effect on Mother Earth and its delicate water-air-envelope.

Work continues on this technology and at a faster pace than in the past. Many inventors have left this country to work in other countries where a more futuristic environment exists, and where there is less government and corporate fascism. Most of the inventions I have mentioned here in this article have gone underground, waiting for the time and place where this technology will be a necessity for a free-market, modern, environmentally sensitive society.

APPENDIX 1

MARION (MIKE) MENNING
Senator, 26th District
Engerman, Minnesota 56126
and
Room 2K State Capitol SENATE
St. Paul, Minnesota 55155
(612) 296-4171

Senator Dave Durenberger
353 Russel Senate Office Bldg.
Washington, DC 20510

July 2, 1979

Dear Senator Durenberger:

Several months ago, a new type of machine was developed by Mr. Johnson of Magnatron, Inc. at Elgin, Illinois, [part of a letter missing] to see the engine and they know the engine works. It is not just some wild idea that somebody has.

The reason I am writing you a letter is that a restraining order has been placed on Mr. Johnson, the Chairman of Magnatron, Inc., prohibiting him from producing the engine. I have been trying to find out the reason why. Mr. Johnson does not know why either. Would you please send a letter or make a telephone call to the Illinois Attorney General's office and ask what's going on and why they are trying to stop production of this engine? The attorney general's phone number is (313) 793-3444. Mr Overhand is in charge of the case. I would appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,
Marion Menning
State Senator
enc. Pk

APPENDIX 2

KEEPING INVENTORS QUIET

Adam Trombly knows about the Secrecy Act. In the early 1980s Trombly and another young scientist, Joseph Kahn, Ph.D., naively believed that the "experts" would welcome their space-energy invention. However, when Trombly and Kahn applied for a patent, the United States Patent Office notified the Department of Defense. Instead of congratulations, Trombly and Kahn received a secrecy order. They were ordered not to talk about their invention to anybody, not to write about it, and even to stop working on it. They certainly couldn't tell the media.

If you were an inventor trying to patent an important new-energy discovery. You might receive a secrecy order along the lines of the one reproduced here [below]. According to information obtained under the Freedom of Information act by the Federation of American Scientists, the Pentagon placed 774 patent applications under secrecy orders in 1991—up from 290 in 1979—and 506 of these orders were imposed on inventions by private companies. The government has standing gag orders on several thousand inventions. The following order, issued in the 1980s, was obtained by inventor Ken MacNeil of Georgia and revealed in 1983.

SECRECY ORDER

(Title 35, United States Code [1952], sections 181-188)

[quoting:]

NOTICE: To the applicant above named, his heirs, and any and all his assignees, attorneys and agents, hereinafter designated principals.

You are hereby notified that your application as above identified has been found to contain subject matter, the unauthorized disclosure of which might be detrimental to the national security and you are ordered in nowise to publish or disclose the invention or any material information with respect thereto, including hitherto unpublished details of the subject matter of said application, in any way to any person not cognizant of the invention prior to the date of the order, including any employee of the principals, but to keep the same secret except by written consent first obtained of the Commissioner of Patents, under the penalties of 35 U.S.C. [1952] 182, 186.

Any other application already filed or hereafter filed which contains any significant part of the subject matter of the above identified application falls within the scope of this order. If such other application does not stand under a secrecy order, it and the common subject matter should be brought to the attention of the Security Group, Licensing and Review, Patent Office.

If, prior to the issuance of the secrecy order, any significant part of the subject matter has been revealed to any person, the principals shall promptly inform such person of the secrecy order and the penalties of improper disclosure. However, if such part of the subject matter was disclosed to any person in a foreign country or foreign national in the U.S., the principals shall not inform such person of the secrecy order, but instead shall promptly furnish to the Commissioner of Patents the following information to the extent not already furnished: date of disclosure, name and address of the discloser, identification of such part, and any authorization by a U.S. Government agency to export such part. If the subject matter is included in any foreign patent application for patent this should be identified. The principals shall comply with any related instructions to the Commissioner.

This order shall not be construed in any way to mean that the government has adopted or contemplates adoption of the alleged invention disclosed in this application, nor is it any indication of the value of the invention. [End quoting of secrecy order]

At the conference where he revealed the secrecy order, MacNeill advised inventors of new-energy devices to go public. "Get the information or the device out there to enough people [so] that they can not stop you."

* "Keeping Inventors Quiet" and "Secrecy Order" courtesy of The Coming Energy Revolution by Jeane Manning, Avery Publishing Group, P. 163-4

Phoenix Journals

FREE CATALOG AVAILABLE
FROM PHOENIX SOURCE
DISTRIBUTORS, INC.
BY CALLING
1-800-800-5565

SUPPRESSED ENERGY DEVICES

I want to relate to you some facts concerning various suppressed energy devices and the difficulty in bringing this information to the public.

Excerpted from NEXUS magazine, an article by Byron S. Wine III, Dec. 96/Jan. 97, [quoting:]

SHELL OIL'S PREDICTIONS

Some folks at Shell Oil Co. wrote Fuel Economy of the Gasoline Engine (ISBN 0-470-99132-1); it was published by John Wiley & Sons, New York, in 1977.

(1) On page 42, Shell Oil quotes the president of General Motors who, in 1929, predicted 80 miles-per-gallon (mpg) by 1939.

(2) Between pages 221 and 223, Shell writes of its achievements: 49.73 mpg around 1939; 149.95 mpg with 1947 Studebaker in 1949; 244.35 mpg with a 1959 Fiat 600 in 1968; 376.59 mpg with a 1959 Opel in 1973.

THE POGUE CARBURETOR

In the book, Secrets of the 200-mpg Carburetor, by Allan Wallace (from Premier Distributing, 1775 Broadway, NY, NY, 10019, USA), page 18 has photocopies of three 1936 tests by the Ford Motor Co. (Canada) of the Pogue carburetor (US Patent #2,026,798). The worst-case test achieved about 171 mpg (US).

TOM OGLE AND THE "OGLEMOBILE"

Argosy magazine, August 1977, published a five-page article about Tom Ogle and the media-witnessed test of the "Oglemobile". On that test run, Tom Ogle achieved more than 100 mpg in a 4,600-pound 1970 Ford Galaxie.

The Ogle US Patent #4,177,779 contains this statement: "I have been able to obtain extremely high gas mileages with the system of the present invention installed on a V-8 engine of a conventional 1971 American-made automobile. In fact, mileage rates in excess of one hundred miles per gallon have been achieved with the present invention."

According to the Argosy article, a Shell Oil Co. representative asked Ogle what he would do if someone offered him $25 million for the system. Ogle responded, "I would not be interested." He later said, "I've always wanted to be rich, and I suspect I will be when this system gets into distribution. But I'm not going to have my system bought up and put on the shelf. I'm going to see this thing through—that I promise."

According to an article in the Washington Post Parade magazine (4 March 1984), Tom Ogle died of drug-and-alcohol overdose in 1981.

Other articles concerning Tom Ogle can be found in the El Paso Journal (16 January 1980) and also the Hamilton Spectator (24 June 1978).

The Oglemobile, in simplification, ran on fumes extracted from a heated tank in the trunk (see the Ogle patent). A very simple method of extracting gasoline fumes is described in the book, Gas Engine Construction. Originally published in 1900, this book was reprinted by Lindsay in 1986 (ISBN 0-917914-46-5).

PATENTS FOR VAPORIZING GASOLINE

Many US patents have been granted for vaporizing gasoline: NASA Patent #3,640,256; General Electric Co. Patent #3,926,150; Robinson Patent #4,003,969; Harpman Patent #4,023,538; Butler Patent #4,068,636; Totten Patent #4,106,457.

DON NOVAK

During the mid-1970s, physicist Don Novak travelled all over the US lecturing and teaching in his seminars how to achieve 100 mpg. He also testified, on 15

October 1979, before a Wichita, Kansas, Congressional Committee on "Reinventing the Automobile". [Comment: I have known Don for many years. Once, in the late '70s, he brought to my home two carburetors: one got more than 200 mpg and the other more than 100 mpg. I contacted a local politician who lives in my town and was on the Virginia Energy Subcommittee. I tried to have this politician meet Don and see the carburetors. The politician was not interested.]

DIESEL MILES PER GALLON

In the London Daily Telegraph of 20 October 1983, on page 9 there is an advertisement for a production Peugeot Diesel that achieves 52.3 mpg in urban driving. In the Washington Post of 19 September 1983, on page 37 is the 1983 US EPA fuel economy list of various vehicles. The US model Peugeot Diesel gets between 22 and 27 mpg. The Washington Times of 9 August 1991 published an article, "Gas-saving engines hit streets in fall". This article is about two engines, the Mitsubishi MVV, and the Honda VTEC-E. According to the company spokesmen, the Mitsubishi will get up to 50 mpg; the Honda, up to 88 mpg.

US GOVERNMENT FUEL STUDY

The US Government supported a study (Grant No. DTNH22-91-Z-06014) of automobile fuel economy by the National Academy of Sciences. This study, Automotive Fuel Economy: How Far Should We Go? (ISBN 0-309-04530-4), was used by the staff of Congressman George Allen to refute documentation proving that an automobile had exceeded 376 mpg. Nowhere in this 'fuel economy study' is there any reference to the work of Shell Oil Co. or any other reference that could refute the conclusion of this report. The report, published in April 1992, concluded that a sub-compact car might achieve between 39 and 44 mpg by model year 2006.

GOVERNMENT AIMS FOR 80 MILES PER GALLON BY 2002

An article titled "Automakers Move Toward New generation of Greener Vehicles" was published in Chemical & Engineering News on 1 August 1994. This article is about "The Partnership for a New Generation of Vehicles"—a partnership between the US Government and the auto industry that has a goal of an 80-mpg automobile by 2002.

HAS 200 MILES PER GALLON ALREADY BEEN ACHIEVED?

On the subject of hybrid Diesel/electric automobiles (a Diesel/electric locomotive uses the same principle), the Manassas Journal Messenger of 4 April 1981 has an article about an MG sports car converted by San Diego State University. The car gets 110 mpg. The Steven R. Reed Automobile Manufacturing Corp. of Newport Beach, California, issued a press release, dated 14 February 1983, announcing the 23 February 1983 showing of the 200-mpg, two-passenger, II Millennium Cruiser at the Ambassador Hotel. The press release also states that the company will file "...a major class-action lawsuit involving a considerable number of giant American corporations within the automotive and petroleum industries, plus numerous branches and agencies of the US Government responsible for regulating these companies."

VINCENT CARMAN

Mother Earth News, November/December 1977, has an article, "Can This Transmission Really Double Your Car's Mileage?". This article is about a Ford Granada modified by Vincent Carman of Portland, Oregon. In simplification, Mr. Carman removed the transmission and drive shaft from the car and bolted a hydraulic motor to the differential. He then bolted a hydraulic pump to the engine to pressurize a storage tank. The storage tank is also pressurized when the car brakes or slows down. The article states that the US Post Office is interested in a whole fleet of vehicles using this principle. In 1990, after reading an article in Federal Times, I contacted Mr. Robert St. Francis, US Postal Service, who was searching for alternative fuels for use by the Post Office. Mr. St. Francis said that he had never heard of Mr. Carman. I wrote two letters, 18 and 21 October 1990, to Mr. St. Francis concerning Mr. Carman's vehicle, but I received no response.

Another article in Mother Earth News, March/April 1976 (or '78), titled "This Car Travels 75 Miles On A Single Gallon Of Gas", is about a project by the Minneapolis, Minnesota's Hennepin Vocational Technical Center that converted a Volkswagen to a system similar to that of Mr. Carman. The idea for the conversion came from a 1920 magazine article. The car, with a Bradley GT body and a 16-horsepower Tecumseh engine (the original VW engine was too powerful), achieved more than 75 mpg at 70 mph.

MORE SUPPRESSION?

The St. Paul Pioneer News, 22 August 1990, has an article about a group that 11 years previously modified a Dodge half-ton pickup furnished by a local dealer. This modified truck got more than 35 mpg. Tests on this modification were stopped when a member of the group was told that he would receive a pair of cement boots if testing continued.

HYDROGEN FUEL

There are many US and foreign patents for extracting hydrogen and oxygen gases from water for use as a fuel. Some of these patents are: 2 July 1935, Garrett, #2,006,675; 3 April 1945, Klein, #2,373,032; 25 February 1975, Chambrin, French Patent Request #7506619; 6 July 1976 (owner unknown by me), #3,967,589 (this is a patent for an electrical power generator that burns water); 1976, Horvath, #3,980,053 (This statement is on the Horvath patent: "This invention relates to internal combustion engines. More particularly it is concerned with a fuel supply apparatus by means of which an internal combustion engine can be run on a fuel comprised of hydrogen and oxygen gases generated on demand by electrolysis of water"); 28 June 1983, Meyer, #4,398,981 (Mr. Meyer has at least eight other patents relating to hydrogen and oxygen gases extracted from water for fuel).

Popular Science, in about 1978-79, published an article, "Hydrogen bus could also heat its own garage". This article is about the work of Dr. Helmut Buchner of Mercedes-Benz. He is quoted as saying: "We are ready now. We could save our city of Stuttgart over one million gallons of petroleum fuel a year by converting its fleet of 300 urban buses to run on hydrogen. Heating—and air conditioning—would be free spin-offs, consuming no extra energy."

Popular Science, in March 1978(?), published an article, "Hydrogen demonstrates fuel of the future", about the work of Dr. Billings of Billings Energy Corp., Provo, Utah, and others. The article states that a home, all the appliances and vehicles can be run on hydrogen. Dr. Billings converted a Cadillac Seville for dual fuel use. This Cadillac, burning hydrogen, was in Presidents Carter's inaugural parade.

SEALED RECIPROCATING ENGINES

I visited the Patent Office years ago, when they still had the open stacks of 'shoe boxes'. While there, I read the application files for the Papp patent, #3,6(?)704,944. Papp applied for a patent on his engine, and the Patent Office, after consultation with the old Atomic Energy Commission, refused to give him a patent because his device could not possibly work. Papp came back with test results, photographs and depositions from, I think, 16 people. Papp said that maybe the Patent Office didn't know how his device worked, but that they also didn't know how the atomic bomb worked and used it anyway. This statement is on his patent:

"2. To provide a two-cycle reciprocating engine which does not use fuel-intake valves or exhaust valves, does not require an air supply and does not emit gases.

"3. To provide a precharged engine of the character stated in item 2 capable of generating power for a period of from 2,000 to over 10,000 hours continuously or until mechanical breakdown without the addition of fuel, injection of air or discharge of gases..."

Britt, 31 August 1976, has a patent, #3,977,191, for a similar sealed engine. In the patent application file, Britt accuses the Patent Office of deliberately delaying his application to give a major manufacturer time to file on top of him.

PERMANENT MAGNET MOTORS

Howard Johnson was granted US Patent #4,151,431 for a motor that is powered only by permanent magnets. An interesting thing about the first page of this patent is that it contains the chart for a magnetic field vs. electromechanical coupling. The chart is from US Patent #4,151,432, which has nothing to do with the Johnson patent.

Science and Mechanics, Spring 1980, published an article, "Amazing Magnet-Powered Motor", about the Johnson patent. The article tells of his difficulties in having the device patented. The patent problem was solved when Johnson took working models of his device to the Patent Office.

JOSEPH NEWMAN'S ENERGY MACHINE

I've spoken with Joe Newman many times over several years. He has recently published the seventh edition of The Energy Machine of Joseph Newman (ISBN 0-9613855-7-7). (Available from Joseph Westly Newman, Route 1, Box 52, Lucedale, Mississippi, 39452, USA; phone (601)947-7174.) Joe filed suit against the US Patent Office because it would not grant him a patent. According to Joe's book (pages 274-279), the Court appointed a Special Master, Mr. William E. Schuyler, a former Commissioner of the US Patent Office, to advise the court. His finding was that Mr. Newman had invented a machine that had more output than input. The court refused to accept the finding.

AN END TO SUPPRESSION?

I hope that this information will raise questions as to why we are so dependent on foreign oil. All our government has to do, to take more money from our pockets, is to create an energy crisis or raise the cost of energy. The only financial interest that I have in any of above devices is that of a concerned consumer who is tired of the deliberate lies and cover-ups.

Byron S. Wine III
P.O. Box 1956
Manassas, VA 22110-0806, USA
Phone (703)791-5893
Fax (703)791-8420
E-mail: Byron--Wine@csgi.com
[End quoting]

As you can see from the above, all of the hype the Elite give us about pollution, shortages, crowded highways, congested cities, expensive products, etc., etc., etc., is just that—a bunch of hype and lies to keep you in slavery.

Just stop and think for a few minutes—cheap products to produce your own energy at your home or place of business would make it so cheap to make good products that everybody could live a life of luxury while working very few hours in comparison to what we do now.

Use your imagination just a little and think seriously about all the ramifications of what would happen if we converted over to this new type of energy. It is really mind boggling when you comprehend the changes that could quickly take place in our whole way of living. Now think about the fact that the technology is already available and all we have to do is put the dishonest politicians and rulers out of their control positions.

Many honest, hardworking inventors have been tortured, driven into poverty and died to help us and we still let the Elite get away with it.

I think it's time to start writing and calling every politician and controller that you know and let them know that you know what is going on and want these free energy devices released NOW!!

"Look — there goes one of those U. F. O. s again."

EXTRAORDINARY U.S.A. BOOK REVEALS POTENTIAL DANGERS OF MANDATORY VACCINES

(Completely updated and now in its 4th printing! 20,000 copies sold in one year!)

VACCINES: ARE THEY REALLY SAFE AND EFFECTIVE?

A Parent's Guide to Childhood Shots

By Neil Z. Miller

Forewords by George R. Schwartz, M.D.
and Harold E. Buttram, M.D.

National Vaccine Information Center

"Neil Miller is making a transformative contribution to the world with this book on vaccines _ a mindful, liberating work to be a classic in the holistic health literature. Hygieia's highest recommendation to everyone who loves children and the future of our planet." _ Jeannine Parvati Baker, Director, Hygieia College, Midwife, Childbirth Educator, and author of Hygieia: A Woman's Herbal, Conscious Conception, and Prenatal Yoga

"Many thanks to Neil Miller for the thoroughness of his research. The evidence compiled in this book will help people of every persuasion to clarify their views." _ Richard Moskowitz, M.D., Former President of the National Center for Homeopathy

"There is a growing controversy on this subject and Mr. Miller needs to be heard." _ George R. Schwartz, M.D., Physician, Toxicologist, and Senior Editor of Principles and Practice of Emergency Medicine

There is a growing controversy surrounding mandatory vaccines. Medical authorities promote them, yet unbiased scientific reports reject them. The media endorses them, yet the government has already spent millions of dollars compensating families of vaccine-damaged children. As a result, parents don't know who or what to believe; many are frightened and confused. What they need is a single, authoritative source of factual information covering all aspects of the vaccine issue.

VACCINES: ARE THEY REALLY SAFE and EFFECTIVE? - A Parent's Guide to Childhood Shots by Neil Z. Miller is an authoritative source of vaccine information written especially for parents and health professionals. It is the only book on vaccines that systematically evaluates every "mandatory" vaccine (and many of the newer ones) to determine their safety, effectiveness, and the true cause of a decline in the disease. In addition, it is exceptionally well-documented; it contains over 300 citations. Thus every single claim may be confirmed.

VACCINES: ARE THEY REALLY SAFE and EFFECTIVE? also includes an entire chapter on the long-term effects, including studies that show correlations between vaccines and AIDS. It outlines current vaccine laws, and discusses parental options to "mandatory" shots. It provides case histories detailing vaccine-induced damage to children, and it pinpoints for parents exact conditions that may put their child at high-risk.

Parents and health professionals have very few sources of information that will permit them to make informed choices on the vaccine issue. But concerned parents are pleading for answers to their many questions. Doctors only tell them one side of the story; there is another side. VACCINES: ARE THEY REALLY SAFE and EFFECTIVE? tells the other side, and helps all concerned people to make wise and responsible decisions.

To Order This Book:

Send $8.95 plus $3.50 shipping to New Atlantean Press, PO Box 9638, Santa Fe, NM 87504. Take a 40% discount with the purchase of 5 or more copies (multiply the total cost of purchases x .60). Please add 7% ($3.50 minimum) for shipping.

Price: $8.95 ISBN: 1-881217-10-8 Illustrated/References

Read What Others Are Saying:

"Congratulations!! Finally there is something to give patients when they inquire about this overwhelming conundrum. I've already told many people about this important contribution." - Janet Zand, N.D., Doctor of Naturopathy, Oriental Medicine, and Certified Acupuncturist

"Great book, great visuals... good scientific validation. I sell your book out in my front office." - M. Lang, ND

"Your book is excellent _ I'm spreading the word!" - Cynthia Goldenberg, Concerned Mother, whose once healthy son is now autistic as a result of the rubella vaccine

"I was very impressed with this book and am recommending it to many of my patients." - Dr. Watrous, ND

"The book was a 'Mind Blower.' Thank you. I only wish the information could be more widespread." - Ms. Jean Stewart, Concerned Parent

"My husband and I really appreciated your book. We could hardly put it down. We have read three other books on vaccines; yours has been the easiest to read, most factual, and the only one that comes from a father's point of view and research." - Jan Giampolo, Concerned Parent

"A growing number of people are refusing to have their children immunized. Mr. Miller believes this issue is about to explode." - The Boston Herald

"Compelling evidence! This book deeply affected me. I strongly recommend it to all concerned parents." - Rayna Dineen M.A., Early Childhood Educator

"Please send ten more; I found it easy to sell the last ten I ordered." - Patrick Holdsworth, Retail Store Owner

Nora's Research Corner

The Four Horsemen Of The Apocalypse

Editor's note: The beginning of this series, Article I, Section 1, appeared in the 1/16/96 CONTACT on page 14; Article I, Section 2, appeared in the 1/23/96 CONTACT on page 13; Article II, Section 1 appeared in the 2/20/96 issue on p. 4; Article II, Section 2 appeared in the 3/12/96 issue on p. 16; Article III, Section 1 appeared in the 4/9/96 issue on p. 15; Article III, Section 2 appeared in the 5/21/96 issue on p. 39; Article III, Section 3 appeared in the 5/28/96 issue on p. 15; Article IV, Section 1 was in the 7/30/96 issue on p. 2; Article IV, Section 2 was in the 8/6/96 issue on p. 2; Article V, Section 1 was in the 8/13/96 issue on p. 2. Here we continue with Nora's research on the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse.

The Four Horsemen Of The Apocalypse The Fourth (Green) Horseman

Article V, Section 2

Because of the lapse in time since the last article appeared in this series, I'll give a brief review before continuing with the Fourth Horseman of the Apocalypse. I interpret the symbolic images of the Horsemen as representing powerful governments, policies or movements planned and carried out by the adversarial forces to gain control and propel the people of the Earth towards the New World Order, known as the "Beast of the Apocalypse" in the Book of Revelation. There is some evidence which shows that a similar plan has been effectively used against past civilizations by the aggressors. This evidence involves the heroes Hercules, Apollo and Rama, who each fought and conquered a similar "Beast" in his time.

The First Horseman (White) represents governmental or church greed, arrogance and conquest. The Second Horseman (Red) represents Zionism/Bolshevism/Communism, a total disregard for human life, war and mass slaughter. The Third Horseman (Black) represents control of the food supply and mankind—poverty, inflation, famine and slavery. The Fourth Horseman (Pale/Green) represents all of the above, plus the results of the first three movements—a damaged and sick Earth, a civilization in decline and being destroyed under an abominably harsh regime. The Fourth Horse has been described as "pale" in most of the present translations of the Bible. It has also been translated by Phillips from the Greek language as "sickly green". George M. Lamsa in his translation of the Bible from the Aramaic language describes the horse as "green". (Aramaic was the lingua franca of the day at the time of Esu/Immanuel in Palestine 2,000 years ago.) Revelation 6:8: "And I looked and beheld a green horse; and the name of him who sat on him was Death, and Sheol followed after him. And power was given him over the fourth part of the Earth, to kill with the sword and with famine and with death and with the wild beasts of the Earth."

Please note that this powerful "green movement" has a rider called Death, and takes control over one-fourth of the Earth, killing not only through generally recognized methods but also with "wild beasts of the Following is an excerpt from the Congressional Record of a speech given before the House on 5/12/95 by Mrs. Chenoweth, Representative from Idaho. A copy of the record was given to me by George Hunt, an investigator of the environmental movement. It is a documented account of some of what has transpired in the states of Idaho, Montana and Wyoming in the name of "environment" by zealous believers and confirms much of what I wrote in Article V, Section 2. As you read this please keep in mind that the Communist Manifesto and the Humanist Manifesto call for a return of man to his natural state (living with and as wild animals?). Also, remember that the old Babylonian and Roman Empires made frequent, wild public spectacles of men (prisoners) fighting with wild animals, and that many interpreters and scholars of the Book of Revelation believe that the Beast of the Apocalypse (the New World Order) is a reappearance of what was known as the old "Holy Roman Empire". (See Book of Revelation, Chapter 17.) There is nothing new under the Sun.

January 31, 1996

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—HOUSE

H1003

□ 1500

OUR COVENANT TO PROTECT THE ENVIRONMENT WHILE PRESERVING LIBERTY AND UPHOLDING THE CONSTITUTION

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RADANOVICH). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from Idaho (Mrs. CHENOWETH) for 43 minutes.

Mrs. CHENOWETH. Mr. Speaker, it is a rare individual who does not want an effective environmental policy. Sometimes these policies, or the remedies thereof, have been called extreme, just like we heard from my friends on the other side of the aisle. I am one of the freshman Members, but I find it interesting that a party who has lost its vision can use only one word to define the other party, and that is the word "extreme." I beg of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle to come up with alternative programs that will benefit the American people.

I just have to say Mr. Speaker, this was not a planned part of my speech, but I do want to say that it is private individuals who risk and who invest who employ Americans. I join the gentlewoman from Ohio (Ms. KAPTUR), a woman I admire greatly, about the fact that we do want to keep American jobs here in America. I do agree with her there. But, you know, we either have one of two employers: Either you, the taxpayers, are employing individuals through government, or we have private businesses employing people. I prefer private entrepreneurs in employing people and downsizing government.

Mr. Speaker, it is a rare individual who doesn't want an effective environmental policy. We all want to promote the wise use of America's natural resources, but the driving force behind our current policies have little to do with sound science, foresight, or reason. Instead, environmental policies are driven by a kind of emotional spiritualism that threatens the very foundation of our society, by eroding basic principles of our Constitution.

Mr. Speaker, if there is one quote I could center my remarks around today, I think it would be a personal statement made by Thomas Jefferson, who probably was the world's greatest articulator of man's heavenly endowed individual rights and liberties. Jefferson wrote in 1776:

I may grow rich by an art I am compelled to follow, I may recover health by medicines I am compelled to take against my own judgement; but I cannot be saved by a worship I disbelieve and abhor.

Mr. Speaker, the very first clause of the very first amendment to our Constitution states that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion," and yet there is increasing evidence of a government sponsored religion in America. This religion, a cloudy mixture of new age mysticism, Native American folklore, and primitive Earth worship, (Pantheism) is being promoted and enforced by the Clinton administration in violation of our rights and freedoms.

Proponents of this new-environmentalism are the first to recognize its religious nature. Just to name a few: Sierra Club Director David Brower announced "We are a kind of religion." Scientist James Lovelock, author of the bestseller "Gaia," admits that "Gaia is a religious as well as a scientific concept." Bill McKibbin, author of "The End of Nature," proclaimed that "it is not in God's house that I feel his presence most—it is in His outdoors." According to columnist Alton Chase, nearly all environmental leaders have conceded that environmentalism is a religious movement.

The trouble is that these sentiments are not just expressed by leaders in the environmental movement, but frequently, by government leaders who influence and promulgate the regulations we live under. When Vice President AL GORE was invited to speak at the Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine, he sermonized that "God is not separate from the Earth." Espousal of this environmental religion by political leaders and regulators carries profound constitutional implications.

I recently came across the transcript of a speech delivered by U.S. Secretary of the Interior Bruce Babbitt on November 11 to a joint meeting of the National Religious Partnership for the Environment and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. It was entitled "Between the flood and the rainbow: Our Covenant to Protect the Whole of Creation." In this speech, Babbitt explains how he became disillusioned with Christianity because the commandment that man should have dominion "over every living thing that moveth upon the Earth" conflicted with his view of nature's supremacy. "I always had a nagging instinct," he explained, "that the vast landscape was somehow sacred, and holy, and connected to me in a sense that my catechism ignored." Babbitt explains how a young Hopi friend taught him "that the blue mountain was, truly, a sacred place," and he became "acutely aware of a vacancy, a poverty amidst [his] own religious tradition."

To fill this vacancy he adopted the new environmentalism, and he has every intention of regulating and enforcing his dream of utopia into reality.

You may ask, what is the harm of public officials maintaining deeply held beliefs? The problem, Mr. Speaker, comes when those deeply held beliefs become the driving force for policy which that nonbelievers face persecution. Mr. Babbitt has made it clear that environmentalism—the religion—is driving this Nation's regulatory scheme. This is a violation of the establishment clause of the Constitution. It smothers our values and it threatens our liberties.

James Madison wrote his great "Memorial and Remonstrance" against a Virginia tax for the support of an established church. In it, he eloquently argued that a true religion did not need the support of law; that no person, either believer or nonbeliever, should be taxed to support a religious institution of any kind; that the best interest of a society required that the minds of men always be wholly free; and that cruel persecution were the inevitable result of government-established religions.

Madison was right. The backbone of America—workers, small businessmen, and property owners—are becoming victims of this new-environmentalism.

Businesses like Stibnite Mine in my district, whose mining operation was shut down for 2 years waiting for the National Marine Fisheries Service to determine whether they could haul supplies on a Forest Service road.

People like the Yantis family in my district, who were told by the National Marine Fisheries Service that they should just give up their right to irrigate for a fish that is not in stream now, but could be one day.

People like a Minnesota farmer who had two 1-acre glacial potholes on his property. To make farming around them easier, the farmer filled one and expanded the other two acres. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers objected, and the Federal Government ordered him to dig out the pothole he had filled and fined him $45,000.

Whole families throughout the Northwest who have lost their jobs because government restrictions and environmental lawsuits have shut down the region's ability to keep forests healthy.

Farmers in the Bruneau Valley whose livelihoods have been held hostage to a small size of a buck shot. The Fish and Wildlife Service has yet to scientifically prove that farming activities have an effect on the snail.

For those who still refuse to see the dangerous character of an established religious environmental movement, let me give you another example:

Wayne and Jean Hage bought a cattle ranch in Nevada in 1978. The former owner had been forced to sell because the regulatory pressure by the U.S. Forest Service had become unbearable. But Hage was confident that he could work with the Forest Service to resolve any problems that might occur. He was wrong. Problems started when, without warning or notification, a nearby Forest Service Ranger Station began to pump water from a critical spring on Hage's property into the ranger's cabin. The Forest Service maintained a fence around the spring so that cattle could not drink, but Hage felt that if the Service needed the water an amicable agreement could be reached. The Forest Service refused to cooperate, and when Hage held a field hearing on the issue, they launched an all-out holy-war against the rancher.

For the sacrilege of questioning Forest Service actions, Wayne was contacted no less than 110 times with violations of bureaucratic regulations.

Earth". You will find as we go along that these descriptions fit closely the agenda for the takeover of world wilderness areas and the preferences given to animals over humans, through such laws as the Endangered Species Act, by the international environmental clique formed by the would-be controllers of the world. However, confiscation of the wilderness areas is primarily a means to an end—the end being world takeover of all the people's assets, governments, and means of livelihood, and the assumed power over life itself. To realize that these prophecies of the Four Horsemen in the Book of Revelation, Chapter 6, picture realities evident in our world today makes them of major concern to everyone.

Before getting into details on recent activities of the international environmental movement, I need to review some of the history which has brought it this far in the United States.

While other major planning and activities needed at world takeover have been underway and implemented during this century, the part assigned to the "green movement" has been developed since the close of World War II. It was this war and President Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration that established the strong international scope of the foreign policy of the United States, scrapped the Monroe Doctrine, and brought us under "global thinking". It also gave the President "emergency powers" which bypassed the Congress and the people. These "emergency powers" have been retained by the President since that time, through the on-going declarations of subsequent "emergencies".

In addition, WWII brought tremendous industrial growth with its pollutants and resulted in the later development of atomic and nuclear weapons, setting the stage for the "necessity" of environmental cleanup due to toxic wastes, polluted air and water, limited resources, overpopulation and other environmental "crises", either real, manipulated or imagined. I say "manipulated or imagined" because the entire movement from its inception has relied heavily on media hype and wild theories while giving little or no attention to actual scientific studies (Ref.: The Greening).

Many, many sincere and concerned citizens, especially young adults, joined the ranks of those advocating the care of the Earth and its people in the wake of atomic and nuclear testing. Their voices accomplished few changes in the critical votes of the legislatures. The United States was inexorably being pushed in the direction away from national concerns and towards global thinking, depopulation (under other pseudonyms) and control. Nevertheless, the concerns of these sincere people were used, by those who were putting into effect the real environmental agenda, to claim popular acceptance for their plans—plans which few knew about or understood and which usurp national sovereignty in the name of the environment. Some of the most radical public leaders of the various Earth-first organizations were indeed paid by the "establishment" in order to gain attention and support for their ecological-environmental programs and divert attention from what was really happening (Ref.: The Greening—see Bibliography).

It should be remembered here that many of our "enemies", the Nazi scientists in the aerospace and rocket industries, were transported en masse from Germany to the United States at the end of WWII. Knowledge of their Nazi activity was suppressed. They, unlike many other top German leaders, totally escaped the Nuremberg trials for German "war criminals". These men were given control of America's developing atomic weaponry, aerospace and rocketry experimentation and development. This is only one of the examples which show that the world as we like to think of it does not exist. The war makers are all on the same team—a team that is secretive and distanced from the public, a team which is apparently in control of the world, contrary to media propaganda about "democracy", etc.

Concurrent with the manipulated concerns over the environment, and an integral part of the propaganda which has been set up to direct the population towards a one-world government, were the numerous "New Age" groups proliferating after WWII. (Remember that the Masons and world leaders promote the "New Age" movements and a One-World government. A password of the Masons is "Tubal-Cain", which means "makers of weapons", and that the Nazis/Freemasonry/Zionists and Communists are all the same!) Some of them included adherents to the teachings promoted by the Lucis Trust, the "flower children" of the 1960s, the drug culture, etc. Today, 1997, there continues a variety of "New Age" groups (i.e., Planetary Citizens, Essenes, Wicca, etc.). Many can be classified as "nature-cults" and promoters of the Earth and a one-world government. I do not disagree with the need to love, care for and protect the Earth. It is beautiful, and

H 1004

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—HOUSE

January 31, 1996

Most, if not all, were wild goose chases, but each required time consuming and often expensive responses. The Forest Service even resorted to several armed raids on the ranch, confiscating 104 head of cattle and keeping the proceeds of their sale. Hage also faced felony charges for clearing brush from his own irrigation drains. The charges were thrown out by the courts, but this was the last straw—Hage filed a suit for the regulatory and physical taking of his ranch.

Unfortunately, CIGNA Corporation, the lender and lien holder on Hage's property is one of the environmentalist faithful, and has been attempting to foreclose on the property to effectively kill the case. CIGNA is a major corporate donor to the National Wildlife Federation which is acting as a friend of the court on behalf of the Forest Service. This is an organization that instructs environmental activists on how to use Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management regulatory power to "Make it so expensive for the rancher to operate that he goes broke."

Mr. Speaker, there is something seriously wrong with this picture.

Environmentalism need not be a religion. It could—and should—be based on science and logic and aimed at secular goals. But Secretary Babbitt rejects the protection of species for potential cures for disease, or new strains of drought-resistant crops, or bioremediation of oil spills, in favor of uniting "all state, county and federal workers under a common moral goal." He concluded his speech by affirming that "religious values remain at the heart of the Endangered Species Act, that they make themselves manifest through the green eyes of the grey wolf, through the call of the whooping crane, through the splash of the Pacific salmon."

The fact that this moral philosophy makes villains of hard working, productive citizens makes it repugnant to American values. The fact that it dismisses science prevents technological progress. The fact that it violates the Establishment Clause of the Constitution makes it an attack on our form of government. And the fact that it places obstacles in the way of American prosperity makes it a threat to our children's future.

Mr. Speaker, policies inspired by this new green religion are having devastating effects on my State. One example that I think exemplifies this new trend is unnecessary introduction of predators such as wolves and grizzlies against the will of the people and at great expense to the taxpayer.

Many people do not realize that the idea of releasing wolves in Idaho and in the west is not a new one. There were attempts as far back as 1982, when Senator CRAIG held the seat that I hold now. At that time, when the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service introduced this idea, the plan was quickly shelved after then-Congressman CRAIG held hearings in which obvious flaws of artificially introducing the wolves were exposed.

In those hearings biologists admitted that the wolf was recovering naturally in Canada and Alaska, where there are currently as many as 40,000 to 50,000 of the grey wolves. Moreover, the plan was soundly rejected after it became clear what the consequences would be of introducing a dangerous predator into an area that was no longer completely wild, but in fact, where there are activities such as ranching, logging, mining, and recreation.

The mere suggestion of introducing wolves prompted the State legislature to pass a number of bills prohibiting the introduction of wolves unless it was under the terms and conditions of the State. I would like to insert into the RECORD the testimony of State representative JoAnn Wood, who came before the House Resources Committee and testified to the long history of Idaho's objection to Federal wolf introductions.

Nevertheless, when President Clinton was elected, Bruce Babbitt, the President's appointed Secretary of the Interior, again resurrected the idea of introducing wolves in the West. This time, instead of trying to establish a sound, practical, scientific basis for the program, the Government promoted wolf introduction as a romantic notion of restoring the western ecosystem to its pre-Colombian state. Indeed, Mr. Babbitt has gone as far as saying that it fulfills a "spiritual" void. Mr. Babbitt proclaimed in his November 11 speech that wolf introduction efforts were driven by the "elevated nature of America's conservation laws: laws with the power to make creation whole * * * in essence recover "our ancient religious values."

The Department of the Interior also responded differently to the avid opposition to wolf reintroduction by States of Montana, Idaho, and Wyoming. The Fish and Wildlife Service promised the States that no wolves would be released until an agreement of how these wolves would be managed was in place. The Department of the Interior, in conjunction with the many environmental groups also initiated a large scale nationwide advertising campaign—in places where nobody would have to worry about managing the critters—to sell the romantic notion of returning these animals to the west.

Very little has been mentioned during the governments publicly campaign blitz of the overall costs of the wolf introduction, which includes aircraft, ground vehicles, equipment such as kennels, shipping crates, sophisticated radar tracking devices, radio collars, tranquilizing guns, and extensive staff of biologists, veterinarians, technicians, and administrators—not to mention a massive publicity campaign. Added up, it amounts to about $1 million per wolf.

I first dealt with Mr. Babbitt's infatuation with the green eyes of the wolf just after I was sworn in to represent the citizens of Idaho's First Congressional District. It was apparent that after the fiscally austere Republicans won the majority in Congress, Babbitt determined that the release of the wolves must be greatly expedited or his chance "to make nature whole" would once again be jeopardized. We found that his attempts to work out an arrangement with the States were not only completely disingenuous, but merely used as a device to detour the legitimate concerns of the States while he found a way to implement his plan. When Babbitt realized that his costly wolf scheme could come under scrutiny by this Congress, he went into emergency mode, bypassing all the processes, including State laws and section 6(f) of the Endangered Species Act which specifically requires the Secretary to work in coordination with the States in any introduction effort. He did this while ignoring the pleas of Governors and legislators to not proceed, but by actually speeding up the capture of the wolves.

By early January, just days after the new Congress had been sworn in, Babbitt had his wolves ready to be released at Yellowstone and in Idaho. My office received a firestorm of pleas and concerns from constituents and State officials calling for an immediate halt to the releases. In fact, one of my first official acts as a Congressman was to send a letter to the Secretary requesting that he halt any releases, and at the very least let due process take place. Babbitt defiantly responded by immediately releasing the wolves into Idaho—and even forging a highly questionable agreement with the Nez Perce Indian Tribe to manage the wolves.

Despite all, Secretary Babbitt proceeded with the release of his imprisoned green-eyed friends—although I don't know how anyone can consider him a friend of the wolf considering the abrupt way these wolves were tracked down and shot by a tranquilizer gun, forced into a pen, had a collar placed around their neck, taken away from their native habitat, and released into unfamiliar and unfriendly territory. Moreover, problems resulting from the unnatural methods used became evident when wolves which were released into Yellowstone, that were under the care of humans for weeks, refused for a time to leave their newfound comforts and security. Even now the wolves, which in the wild steer clear of humans, are routinely seen—and quite possibly fed—by many of the tourists visiting the park. It is easy to see that the wolf program in Yellowstone Park has done nothing more than create more dependents on the Government dole.

The released wolves faced—and caused—even more dire consequences in Idaho. Shortly after the wolves were released in Central Idaho, a wolf was shot near Salmon after feeding on the carcass of a newborn calf. The body of the wolf was found on the property of a 74-year-old World War II veteran and rancher by the name of Mr. Gene Russey. The reaction of the Fish and the only home we have. However, it is one thing to care for the Earth, and an entirely different thing to give away our nation to a would-be world dictatorship, especially when that "dictatorship" appears to have caused most of the Earth's problems in the first place.

President John F. Kennedy was assassinated on November 22, 1963. Numerous investigators have tried to determine the perpetrators of the crime. One fact is certain: President Kennedy planned to decrease America's involvement in the war in Vietnam and eventually get us out of that conflict. When JFK was killed, President Lyndon Johnson immediately increased American involvement in that no-win war. The prime beneficiaries of this change of direction were the military/industrial complex, the bankers and the drug growers and pushers of the world. Vietnam suffered terrible environmental damage with Agent Orange, and much brutal and needless massacre of civilian population. American G.I.s were brutalized and turned on to drugs by the experience—life lost its meaning and hope for many returned Veterans. America's war debt to the bankers increased astronomically.

A few months prior to JFK's assassination, in August 1963, and close to the time he made known his decision to get the United States out of Vietnam, a group of highly professional men (we are told) started work on a highly secretive document titled: Report from Iron Mountain on the Possibility and Desirability of Peace. It was published anonymously in 1967. Iron Mountain is an underground nuclear hideout for hundreds of large American corporations. The idea for the study group began with Robert McNamara (the architect of the war in Vietnam and later director of the World Bank), McGeorge Bundy (a member of an Illuminati bloodline according to Fritz Springmeier) and Dean Rusk, "who were concerned about big changes in military spending that were being planned [by JFK] following the Cuban crisis." The study group issued a shocking revelation:

"'Threats' against the 'national interest' are usually created or accelerated to meet the challenging needs of the war system... War-making societies require—and thus bring about—such conflicts." (Quoted from the jacket of the book, Report from Iron Mountain.)

In other words, the amoral findings of the study group—a group meeting on the secret turf of many corporations involved in the military/industrial complex—were that war is the necessity of a war system, not a struggle to maintain sovereignty, prevent communism or promote "democracy", much less protect a nation or its people and way of life. Quite the opposite, the people and the nation's resources are used to maintain the war system!

In Section 5, entitled "The Functions of War", the report states: "As we have indicated, the pre-eminence of the concept of war as the principal organizing force in most societies has been insufficiently appreciated." It goes on to say that war allows for major expenditures, national solidarity, and a stable internal political structure. They further state that no government can maintain its legitimacy or right to rule without war. Therefore, a substitute must be found to replace war if "peace" is allowed to happen!

In Section 6 of the report, the anonymous author (John Doe) reports:

"Economic surrogates for war must meet two principal criteria. They must be 'wasteful', in the common sense of the word, and they must operate outside the normal supply-demand system. A corollary that should be obvious is that the magnitude of the waste must be sufficient to meet the need of a particular society. An economy as advanced and complex as our own requires the planned average annual destruction of not less than 10 percent of gross national products..." (Taken from the book, The Greening.)

The above must surely help to explain what has really been happening in our political and economic history for the last several decades. When you consider that government loans from the bankers were necessary to purchase this 10% (of the GNP) waste, and that this means in ten years time the bankers would be owed 100% of the GNP, the total picture emerges.

Please consider also that the International Headquarters of the World Bank, Freemasonry, and the United Nations (a step towards World Government Federation) are all located in one huge complex in Geneva, Switzerland.

Report from Iron Mountain had limited distribution even after its publication in 1967. The committee came to the primary conclusion that war is necessary, and even preferable as a way to "stabilize" society!! It was not given official notice, and many called it a hoax, yet most of its recommendations or findings have become official policy—policy which is evident in all the halls of government. Listed among the deliberations were the various alternative choices to the "advantages" of war—choices that governments might make to main-

January 31, 1996

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—HOUSE

H 1005

Wildlife Service was to initiate a full-blown investigation that included a $500,000 autopsy performed on the dead wolf. The Fish and Wildlife Service obtained a search warrant, and without notifying Mr. Hussey or the local sheriff, proceeded to send several officers to investigate Mr. Hussey's property. In a hearing about this incident held jointly with the Resources and Agriculture Committees, on which I sit, Mr. Hussey testified that on arriving home from his neighbor's house, he discovered several armed Fish and Wildlife officers crawling over his gate—damaging the gate in the process—and refusing to heed his warnings to leave his property until the local sheriff arrived. The predicament escalated to the point that the Federal agents accused this 74-year-old man of throwing rocks at them, and rushed across a stream to confront him about it. In the meantime, the local sheriff, Mr. Barsalou, was speeding to the scene—very concerned about the possibility of a violent confrontation. Fortunately, he was able to arrive in time to defuse the situation.

After some of the problems that we have witnessed with the release of only 14 wolves last year, I am amazed to see the media reporting the program as "remarkably successful." I was even more disappointed to find out that even during the Government shutdown, and before their appropriations were approved, the Fish and Wildlife Service was busy preparing to capture another 30 wolves in Canada for release in Idaho and Wyoming. The Service has spared no expense and has let nothing stop them including inclement weather, lack of appropriations, animal rights protesters, the continued disapproval of the State legislature, and another call by this Congressman to refrain from capturing and releasing more wolves.

Apparently one of Mr. Babbitt's green-eyed friends did not like the whole idea and bit one of his handlers before receiving the unlucky fate of being killed by one of the Fish and Wildlife officials. Of course, if I had just been tracked down from my home, snared, darted, caged, drugged, and jostled, I would have bitten someone too.

The truth of the matter is that there remain many unanswered questions and unaddressed concerns about the wolf introduction program. Despite the fact that the Government continues to disregard the wishes of the local citizens, to implement a program that serves no scientific purpose, creates the potential for more conflicts, and costs taxpayers a bundle, the Government and the national media continue to paint the program as a better than expected success with few hitches. I believe this is because the media, like Mr. Babbitt, are not focusing on the logic or scientific merits of the program, but on how well it has fulfilled their own spiritual expectations.

Some wonder why I have fought so hard against a Federal program that has little direct impact on most Americans. I fight because I believe that we should be practicing great fiscal constraint, because excessive deficits threaten the future stability of this country. I fight because the taxpayer deserves to know that millions of their dollars are being spent on aircraft outfitted with sophisticated radio equipment which daily track a handful of confused wolves meandering about and stirring up trouble in the mountains of Idaho, Wyoming, and Montana.

I also fight because I believe there are deep implications about the wolf introduction program that affects all Americans—and that is the precedent it has set.

Now the Federal Government is finalizing plans to introduce an even more dangerous predator into the Selway-Bitterroot mountain range located in Idaho and Montana—the grizzly bear. Mr. Speaker, only a few years ago—the very idea of introducing grizzlies into central Idaho was considered pure lunacy. Why? Quite frankly, the grizzly bear, a species that now numbers over 100,000 in Canada, Alaska, parts of Montana, and in Yellowstone, simply has a propensity for violence against humans and animals. Last year there were numerous incidents of bear maulings during unprovoked situations. In one case a hiker was merely taking his shoes and socks off to cool his feet in a mountain stream when the odor of his socks apparently caught the attention of a nearby grizzly. And in the State of Wyoming and Montana, there has been an epidemic of nuisance bears which have been killing cattle and sheep, and rummaging around human habitation. Some are even suggesting that the grizzly no longer needs the special protection of the Endangered Species Act.

Mr. Speaker, the response that I have received from my constituents—even some who do not normally agree with me—has been overwhelmingly against the introduction of the grizzly. I believe that some in the forest industry have been driven by fear or strong coercive tactics into supporting a program that simply will not work. Other than that, the reaction against the idea comes from all types of individuals and for many legitimate reasons. Campers and hikers are concerned for obvious safety reasons, and that many of the trails and areas would be marked off-limits. Hunters are concerned about dramatic reductions in game animal population. Ranchers are concerned about the loss of cattle and road closures. Miners are concerned about the possibility of restrictions on their activity as well, and property owners are deeply concerned about bears foraging about their garbage, and around their homes. Overall, people are not only afraid of the potential danger of having the bears in their backyard, but also having severe restrictions in accessing the forests and lands, both for recreational and industrial purposes. In fact the public comments compiled by the Fish and Wildlife Service show overwhelming opposition to the grizzly introduction plan in the Selway-Bitterroot coming from places as far as California and Colorado.

Moreover, introducing the bear has little scientific merit. The Fish and Wildlife Service has not shown how the grizzly is vital to the survival of the ecosystem of the Selway-Bitterroot. In fact, no solid evidence proves that the bear once roamed there in great numbers. Some have pointed to a supposed journal entry by Lewis and Clark claiming that they shot around 20 grizzly in the area during their travels. Considering that no taxonomy was even in place at the time to distinguish between types of bears, it is ludicrous to use a journal entry almost 200 years ago as a solid basis of the facts. Finally, the small amount of data that does exist from previous attempts to capture and release grizzly into unfamiliar and rugged terrain shows that it is impossible to predict the behavioral response of the bear. I believe it is not worth the cost, both in human and budgetary terms, to find out.

Mr. Speaker, considering the significant amount of opposition to, and the lack of scientific need for the proposed grizzly introduction, we must look again at what is clearly the real impetus behind this idea. Introducing the bears addresses only an emotional attachment to the romance of having grizzly bears roaming the wilderness. It contributes to Mr. Babbitt's realization of the spiritual dream that he envisioned with his Hopi Indian friend so many years ago.

If environmentalists get their way with the grizzlies, there will be a devastating impact on the freedoms and livelihoods of my constituents, and significant ramifications throughout this country. I have seen evidence lately of ambitious goals by the Fish and Wildlife Service and environmental groups to populate regions of the West with thousands of grizzly bears. This would have the drastic consequence of shutting down access to many of our lands and forests to all human activity, including hiking and camping which virtually all Americans enjoy from time to time.

This would be a giant step closer to the utopia religious environmentalists are striving to create—a utopia where human beings have only as much value as the razorback sucker fish, and possibly less.

Mr. Speaker, this religious vision is not shared by every American and no American should be forced to promote a religious vision contrary to their own beliefs. The environmentalists want a new Inquisition to eradicate those with opposing views, and they have the might of the Executive behind them. This threatens, in the most profound way, our entire way of life. It is thoroughly un-American, and I won't stand for it.

Mr. Speaker, I include for the RECORD the following documents:

tain their control of the people. These included such ideas as a "war on poverty", "space research", and preparation for an "invasion from outer space". Does this sound familiar? It appears that all of the above have been used, and are still being used, as well as a much publicized "need" for environmental protection and control—the major choice and means of control involving the establishment of a one-world government. Along with this "choice" is, of course, the on-going "need" for an international police force to maintain this control. The "war system" has only been given a new face—the green face of ecological-environmental world government control. In fact, this is a major part of the planned World Government Federation, which has divided the world into ten regions of "economic and environmental coherence". These "regions" have already become an important part of our government's organization of staff and services in Washington, D.C. (Ref.: En Route to Global Occupation, by Garry H. Kah; The 1995-1996 Official Congressional Directory, 104th Congress)

It appears from the Report from Iron Mountain that much of the environmental pollution has been anticipated, encouraged and promoted. (Quoting the Report.)

It may be, for instance, that gross pollution of the environment can eventually replace the possibility of mass destruction by nuclear weapons as the principal apparent threat to the survival of the species. Poisoning of the air, and of the principal sources of food and water supply, is already well advanced and at first glance would seem promising in this respect; it constitutes a threat that can be dealt with only through social organization and political power. But from present indications it will be a generation to a generation-and-a-half before environmental pollution, however severe, will be sufficiently menacing, on a global scale, to offer a possible basis for a solution. (End quote)

In other words, pollution of the environment was a deliberately planned strategy for bringing about the "need" for environmental control!! Unfortunately, that "generation-and-a-half" has already gone by, and the nuclear testing and pollution of the water and soil continued unabated in those years, with the authorities being seemingly helpless to end it, and the people's concerns going untended and unanswered.

The gross hypocrisy of the government and its planners is evident from the military/industrial war machine's use of such environmental and health hazards as the defoliant Agent Orange in Vietnam, the use of biological warfare in Iraq and elsewhere, weather control, etc. The controllers wear two faces and are obviously entirely without regard for human life or the environment.

One reason for such hypocrisy is the perceived need to depopulate most of the Earth. People are now considered useless users of resources, polluters and a threat to the environment. Overpopulation is a primary reason why the study group at Iron Mountain viewed war as "advantageous". Abortions, euthanasia and plagues have not taken care of the population problem so the next step is for the international police force to be used to enforce their depopulation quotas through international law, using the environment as an excuse. On that day, if not before, the world will have arrived at the time of the Fourth Horseman of the Apocalypse—Death riding a Green Horse, with power over one-fourth of the Earth.

I will continue with this subject in another installment.

Bibliography:

Holy Bible From the Ancient Eastern Text, George M. Lamsa's Translation from the Aramaic of the Peshitta, Harper & Row, S.F., first published by A.J. Holman Co. (1933); The Greening, Larry Abraham with Franklin Sanders, Soundview Publications, Atlanta, Georgia (1993); Goddess Earth, by Samantha Smith, Huntington House Publishers (1993); NASA, NAZIS & JFK, The Torbitt Document and the JFK Assassination, Introduction by Ken Thomas, Forward by David Hatcher Childress, Adventures Unlimited Press (1996), first appeared in manuscript form in 1970, titled: Nomenclature of an Assassination Cabal; En Route to Global Occupation, by Gary H. Kah, Huntington House, Pub. (1992), Distr. Sons of Liberty, Box 214, Metairie, LA 70004; The 1995-1996 Official Congressional Directory, 104th Congress, United States Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.; The Hidden Dangers of the Rainbow, by Constance Cumby, Huntington House, Inc., Lafayette, LA (1983); Report from Iron Mountain on the Possibility and Desirability of Peace, N.Y. Dell Books (1967); The Top 13 Illuminati Bloodlines, by Fritz Springmeier, 5316 S.E. Lincoln, Portland, OR 97215; KJV of the Bible, Oxford at Clarendon Press, Oxford (no publishing date, purchased 1940) with attached Concordance showing the meaning of "Tubal-Cain"

H1006

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD—HOUSE

January 31, 1996

TESTIMONY OF JOAN WOOD, IDAHO HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, BEFORE THE HOUSE RESOURCES COMMITTEE, JANUARY 26, 1996

Madam Chairman, I am Joan Wood of the Idaho House of Representatives. I am the ranking member of the House State Affairs committee, Resources and Conservation committee, and presently chairman of the House Transportation and Defense. I was the first committee co-chair of the Idaho Wolf Oversight committee.

My purpose here is to establish before the committee the stand the people of Idaho, represented by its legislature, have taken concerning the federal policies of the reintroduction of wolves into our state and region. I am also here as the representative of the state government to demand that, first, the Department of Interior, immediately cease and desist the releasing of wolves into central Idaho, which has been done without the consent of the Idaho Legislature or any of its elected officials—as required by Idaho State law; and, second, it abandon this wolf re-introduction program entirely, which is both scientifically and economically flawed.

I have a number of items that are pertinent to my testimony that I would at this time ask unanimous consent to be entered into the record.

I would like to refer to a letter and petition signed by elected officials of our state government, including our governor, and over 4 of our state legislature to our Congressional delegation stating a request that the delegation demand Secretary Babbitt immediately stop this illegal action. I would like to include this letter in the record.

Let me call your attention to Idaho law, code 36-103, which states that wildlife is the property of the state, and that it "shall be preserved, protected, perpetuated, and managed." We are outraged because of the possible legal liability that has been forced upon our state by the unauthorized release of these wolves on January 14, 1995.

Further, Idaho code 36-715, pertaining to wolf/dog hybridizations, which are not protected by the Endangered Species Act (ESA), requires a biological evaluation be performed on wolves to determine species priority before the Department of Fish and Game may take any action in accordance with the U.S. ESA. A request by the legislative committee and the Idaho State Veterinarian to quarantine and biologically test, as required by this law, was ignored by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife. This was in direct violation of Idaho State law.

Also, this law (36-715) gives direction to our own Fish and Game Department that they not expend funds, transfer assets, or enter into any cooperative agreements with any agency, department, or entity of the United States Government concerning wolves unless expressly authorized by state statute, with the exception that one representative participate in the wolf recovery team. The total recovery cost for this wolf re-introduction program is estimated to be 12.7 million dollars. We are concerned that Idaho may be forced by federal mandate to pick up as much as 25 percent of this cost. This has not been agreed to by the Idaho Legislature. The fear of this forced obligation is born out by a letter received by Idaho Fish and Game Director from Mr. Donald Friberg, Deputy Assistant Regional Director, and a copy of a letter from Minnesota State Director, Richard Wetzel, as to the problems encountered in Minnesota concerning wolf depredation and cost to that program. We received a letter also from the Wildlife Federation under the signature of Thomas France Esquire, that once wolf populations are recovered, defenders of Wildlife will make a decision about continuing the compensation in conjunction with the states and other affected interests.

Further we charge that the agencies involved did not comply with Idaho Code 36-715(b), by not taking into consideration local economies, custom, culture, and private property rights. Proper notifications were not given for hearings on this matter. In addition, suggestions that the government provide funding for compensation to livestock owners for all losses and to all people economically affected by land-use restrictions, among other local economic considerations, given to the Fish and Wildlife Services by the Wolf Oversight Committee, of which I was the ranking member, were completely struck out of the completed wolf plan. I would like to include a copy of the original plan in the record.

As early as 1994, the Idaho Legislature sent House Joint Memorial 11 to the President, the secretary of Interior, and other federal authorities wherein we urged the department of Interior and US F&W service terminate any plans to plant wolf populations into Idaho. It is obvious that was ignored. Again in 1991, the state legislature sent a memorial (to also be included in the record) to the same federal officials (HJM6) stating the serious negative impact on the resource base of our state. The federal government responded to this memorial by threatening to turn the wolves over to the Nez Perce Indians, who have no plan or process in place whatsoever to handle the wolves and compliances required by law.

We presented in the 1991 memorial five criteria for cooperation of Idaho oversight if the reintroduction cannot be stopped. I am submitting a copy of Dr. Tod Hoffman's testimony an Idaho Veterinarian and member of the Wolf Oversight Committee as a further witness of my testimony.

In conclusion, we submit to this congressional committee that the U.S. F&W under the direction and authority of the Secretary of Interior comply with 17.81 of the rules and regulations (A) refuted by Dr. Charles E. Kay and also Dr. Edward Goldman, renowned scientists in wildlife biology and ecology. We also request from Congress that you support Senator Kay Bailey Hutchinson's legislation to stop any further ESA action in Texas, but Idaho as well.

I am the latest effort by Idaho to petition Congress for relief from these recent unwarranted actions of U.S. Fish and Wildlife Program, and urge for a desisting of the wolf and a stop to this 6.4 million waste of tax payer money. So far, we have been ignored.

Ladies and Gentlemen, I hope my state does not have to sue our own Federal Government.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR,
Boise, ID, January 25, 1996.

Hon. HELEN CHENOWETH,
House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR REPRESENTATIVE CHENOWETH: The state of Idaho is strongly opposed to reintroduction of grizzly bears in Idaho. The state has many concerns regarding reintroduction, however there are two major areas that stand out. First, introduced bears will pose serious public safety concerns for Idahoans and tourists vacationing in our wonderful state. Second, the reintroduction has the potential to affect the social and economic stability of our rural communities by imposing undue burdens and restrictions on Idaho's natural resources based industries.

As you are aware, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service is developing an Environmental Impact Statement on the reintroduction of grizzly bears in central Idaho. I urge you to explore every available option to stop this reintroduction process as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,
PHILIP E. BATT,
Governor.

STATE OF IDAHO,
Boise, ID, January 18, 1996.

Mr. ED BANOS,
Wolf Reintroduction Coordinator,
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Helena, MT.
DEAR MR. BANOS: I write to reiterate the State of Idaho's objection to the reintroduction of wolves into central Idaho. Last year, the Idaho legislature determined that the United States Fish and Wildlife Service's wolf reintroduction program did not adequately respond to the concerns of the people of Idaho. Those inadequacies have been pointed out to you many times.

Since that time, the United States Congress has also indicated its dissatisfaction with wolf reintroduction by holding up the appropriation for the program. I cannot overemphasize my frustration that the Service has decided to proceed with wolf reintroduction despite the State of Idaho's and the U.S. Congress' opposition to the program.

I am encouraged, however, by the statements attributed to you in an article carried in the January 18, 1996, issue of the Idaho Statesman newspaper. In that article, you state that the 1996 shipment of wolves into Idaho may be the last shipment that is necessary to meet the goals of the program. I certainly hope so. I implore you to make this the last year that is marked by the controversy of this ill-conceived program.

Thank you for being responsive to the concerns of the people of Idaho.

Sincerely,
ALAN G. LANCE,
Attorney General.

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR,
Boise, ID, January 17, 1996.

ED BANOS,
Wolf Reintroduction Coordinator,
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Helena, MT.

DEAR MR. BANOS: According to the Gray Wolf Reintroduction Progress Report, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) began capturing gray wolves, to be released in central Idaho, on January 18, 1996. This capture is being commenced even though the USFWS has not been issued the appropriate wildlife importation permits by the Idaho Department of Fish and Game. Without these permits, the USFWS is ignoring Idaho state laws and its responsibility under the Endangered Species Act to cooperate with affected states to the greatest extent possible.

USFWS management of the wolves released in January of 1995 has been unsatisfactory. The monitoring of the wolves has been inadequate. There have been a number of occasions when some of the wolves could not be located. Additionally, the USFWS has failed to notify Idaho citizens, or state agencies, when wolves were in close proximity to residential areas or livestock.

Until the USFWS adequately addresses the concerns of the state of Idaho, I must reiterate my opposition to the release of any more wolves in central Idaho. Please advise me of the USFWS's intentions.

Very truly yours,
PHILIP E. BATT,
Governor.

IDAHO FISH & GAME,
Boise, ID, 21 December 1995.

ED BANOS,
Wolf Reintroduction Coordinator,
U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Helena, MT.

DEAR MR. BANOS: In 1995, the Idaho Legislature rejected a wolf recovery and management plan that would have allowed the Idaho Department of Fish and Game to assume the lead role in wolf recovery in Idaho. As a result of this legislative action, our Department will not be issuing a special permit for the release of additional wolves into Idaho. Because we remain the agency responsible for the management of elk, deer, and other potential prey of the wolf, we will continue to work with your agency, the Nez Perce Tribe, and other agencies and organizations as wolf recovery proceeds.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please feel free to call.

Sincerely,
JERRY M. CONLEY,
Director

In The Arenas Of IN-Justice

1/8/97 #1 HATONN

WILL THERE BE JUSTICE?

In what? But I can tell you "no" right now, before you go further, if it be in judicial encounters where innocent persons are persecuted or property is in question, OR IN POLITICS, as with Gingrich. How can you know there will be no justice? Because, as with Gingrich, he gets up, puts on a show-and-tell and "apologizes" for unknown and unadmitted indiscretions across the board and it's over. Over? Who pays back the massive funds used? As in Simpson, WHO PAYS BACK THE MASSIVE FUNDS AND RUINED REPUTATIONS FROM SUCH ONGOING AND DESPICABLE EXERCISES OF TORTURE? With the Ekkers? How can you pay back at triple, quadruple the costs of a decade of Hell and legal expenses because the opposition has lied, cheated, stolen, perjured and committed acts of crime against them? We could go on for hundreds and hundreds of pages regarding some who are innocent and in prison, and still, injustice prevails.

Is righteousness dead? Pretty much, readers, pretty much.

NIGHT before last Ekkers were served the massive contempt case as presented by US&P. No other parties named were served for anything. This is a case to get Dharma (and E.J. if possible) imprisoned for writing as Walter Russell would write on the subject of God and Light and then it inadvertently being run in the CONTACT.

Ah, but Dr. Okilo gave permission for his material to be run and stated that he was pained over the fact that the WORK and WORD needed to be gotten out and that required our sharing all efforts. But he was only the C.E.O./President and Director of US&P! HE NO LONGER IS ON THE BOARD AS NEARLY AS WE CAN DISCERN—FROM HIM PERSONALLY.

And further, readers, this comes while major efforts are under way WITH OKILO CONTACTS IN AFRICA to fund a contract, pay off not only the judgement lodged against Ekkers but to also give MAJOR working capital to the US&P Institute to assist in their ability to further present the work of Walter Russell. Swannanoa is becoming, instead of a beautiful landmark, a dilapidated eyesore.

And you who write with your love and care and

We can want peace, but unless we are spiritually at peace ourselves, we don't mean it. It is our thoughts which keep that part of the universe where each of us stand out of or in balance.

7/8/90 Little Crow

mention that we speak of so much money in that contract as to be staggering to minds, have to realize that so far there is NOTHING—not here, not anywhere. So, would the Board of US&P cut off their own noses to spite their own faces—just to shut up the Ekkers? Indeed they would! Mr. Binder is working on the "free energy" scientific outlay which Russell presented of Nikola Tesla and surely they don't want to share that information—even the Board doesn't realize this is going on to such extent as it has been taken out from under patents of both Russell and Tesla. And George Green, ah indeed Mr. Green, plans to go into business WITH such as Timothy Binder. Does Mr. Binder know? Of course, and the new President, a lady now in Canada, has referred our people back to Timothy Binder as the only one who can attend anything with Ekkers, Martin, Young, CONTACT, et al.

Will the Federal Court go along with such atrocity of injustice? Who knows? They have before. They allowed the GUILTY party who continued to sell banned books to NOT EVEN HAVE TO APPEAR IN COURT WHILE BEING FIRST NAMED IN THE SUIT. US&P's attorneys even acted in BEHALF, at no cost, of Mr. Green. And Mr. Green is in collusion with Steven Horn and ex-Judge Jason Brent as we write today, against the Ekkers, even in a property case which had NO connection to anything in which anyone else was a participant. Bad news? AMERICA, THIS IS AS BAD NEWS AS YOU CAN EVER RECEIVE.

Ah, but do they finally mess in their nests? Yes, but by the time they do it, it is usually OVER, isn't it? Well, we shall see about the property case pretty quickly. Mr. Elley, our attorney, blew away the opposition AND THE JUDGE who had swallowed over and over Mr. Horn's lies—WHO HAD TO SQUARELY ADDRESS THE FACT THAT MR. HORN HAD DECEIVED AND LIED TO THE COURT. He has used for his argument and proof a document he said existed and had been filed years ago releasing ALL other parties from ability to be sued no matter what was just or unjust. The only problem is that there IS NO SUCH DOCUMENT and it was pointed out in court yesterday morning and proven. Even Jason Brent had come to the courtroom to see Mr. Horn carry the day of victory away like John the Baptist's head on the silver tray.

The Judge had already made his preliminary judgement and announced same—for Mr. Horn. He would entertain argument but only briefly and made it very, very clear of same. The gloating Horn and Brent grinned and chuckled. They WERE NOT grinning at the end for this catches Jason Brent dead in the middle of the conspiracy against the Ekkers, whom Brent stated at least three times in deposition that he VIOLENTLY dislikes. The Judge sat stunned as the indiscretions were presented by Mr. Elley. He sat and then quickly rose to his feet and all he said was "Gentlemen, I have your submissions." He then exited the courtroom. Jason Brent had already rushed from the room with a shocked and pale appearance. Mr. Horn never turned around to face the audience—which was large yesterday. So, how will the Judge now rule about the ability to "mention" the point of "no sale of the property as advertised" (the only case there is)? We will learn, I suppose, in time. Tomorrow morning there is a pretrial hearing scheduled but there can be no trial if the Judge rules against Ekkers. Hundreds of thousands of hours and dollars, loss and heartache, and still we must walk on the razor's edge. But at the least, readers, the beginnings of truth were offered and it stunned the court—as if they had not heard it ever before in ten years of confrontations.

Your input might well be, "Well, thank God it isn't Ekkers' lives," but isn't it? And how would you feel if in talking to a local newspaper/TV/Meteorologist (who lives directly across the street from Ekkers) you got back, as did Rick Martin FROM THIS MAN, MILES, "Oh, you mean the little E.T. Princess?" Interestingly enough this man has never MET the Ekkers but he assured Rick that EVERYBODY knows about them.

You might well wonder WHY Ekkers would even want to live in this place. Well, it is where they purchased their home and they have no other assets—not even longer the home. They CAN'T just up and live somewhere else as long as there is litigation and, until they can reclaim, at the least, some of their security. But in reality—THIS IS WHERE THEY ARE PRESENTED TO DO GOD'S WORK. They have set themselves forth as NOTHING. But I suggest, readers, that we must be doing SOMETHING RIGHT to have caught so much TARGET FLAK (as Col. Bo Gritz would put it). Is there a possibility that goodness upsets evil? I certainly hope so for it would be pitiful if nothing good comes of such intrigue, assaults and injustice. Can Ekkers "take it longer"? Somebody tell me what are the alternatives?

I have to interrupt this writing just to remind the business people in South Africa that Dharma has to personally do the work for which they ask participation and input. I have to remind the business people and friends in Greece, London, and Nigeria—that Dharma has to do the work they want shared. We will get it all done in EXACTLY THE PROPER SEQUENCE AND, UNTIL THAT TIME, WE WILL KEEP DOING THE BEST WE CAN. We have no magical apparatus to offer; no production capability to simply ship somewhere else; we have as yet no funds with which to work and our people have had to create, manufacture and establish even the hulling machines for the spelta (which can't be hulled by existing grain cleaners). PLEASE REALIZE OUR LIMITATIONS DURING THIS TIME OF DAILY LEGAL ASSAULTS. I recognize that you are not REALLY pushing but only laying plans in hopes of movement ahead. Please know that we understand but can't do anything about it until we clear out some of the rats' nests built right into our very beings. We know that no one, even those people right here with us, fully understands the importance of clearing out these people and their lying, cheating, stealing and generally doing totally evil things. Will they fall, these evil doers? Oh my, YES INDEED. And now it will be very soon.

Can you imagine the uproar and lack of getting ANYTHING in return for US&P having Dharma tossed into a dungeon for writing about God and Light? The Ekkers have and are trying every way under the Sun to settle and pay settlement demands. George said he had paid US&P and complained loudly about so-doing. Obviously, he has not! Well, he is still shown as the first and original party to be sued. I expect the legal team to FIND A WAY TO REOPEN THE ENTIRE US&P CASE AND LET US DO IT RIGHT THIS TIME AND BRING DOWN THE TRAITOR ATTORNEY(S) AS WELL. I do not threaten anyone; I PROMISE, however, that if the Judge tosses my writer/speaker into prison to suit the whim and vendetta of George Green and Timothy Binder—there will be instantly such a case that the "Scopes Trial" will be paled in comparison.

But isn't "prison" a bit strong? SO, TOO, WAS CRUCIFIXION!

One really humorous demand from US&P is an accounting of ALL THE MONEY MADE FROM "THEIR" WORK. (?????) I think it is beyond obvious that NO NOTHING SAVE TROUBLE has been gleaned from anything Walter Russell or US&P touched as coming through this conduit. The books were banned and taken and we assume, BURNED BY US&P, AS THAT WAS THE FULL INTENT PRESENTED TO US. They shifted off to work for Green, et al. So, since Green sold a lot of the banned books, they can very well check with America West and Desirée's Distributors. Not only did they make books of the banned material, but they also made audio sets of those books by that renowned Mark Williams who set to print all the "plagiarized" materials—while WORKING FOR BOTH GREEN AND HORTON—under the alias of "Rick Webber". They then set forth a booklet of the work and mailed it to everyone for whom an address could be found. Shady? Of course, but what else is new from George Green? Anyone who embezzles $400,000 in gold coins from his own structured corporation is not a nice person, readers.

Abbott has even been heard saying that, "By the time my indiscretions are brought before the Bar's tribunal, I will be dead and gone... but, I will have had a good salary." So be it?? He is an alcoholic, elderly, in infirm health, and he probably is right. That "salary" is being supplied by such as Betty Tuten, Leon Fort, et al., WHO CONTINUE TO BLAME EKKERS FOR THEIR PROBLEMS. They even complain about the money solicited from them initially because of George Green—not EKKERS. Ekkers never went forth and solicited anything from anyone prior to Greens' departure. If misrepresentation was offered, it was by Green because the PLAN was his from the beginning. George is off and doing it all over again—only this time in Las Vegas, and is advertising via radio, seminars, etc. Old spots on leopards? George has even SAID that he is going to be working with Bo Gritz and Timothy Binder. Right on national radio he has said these things. He claims to be a millionaire "Developer", bank owner, Beverly Hills MALL owner and plantation owner in Costa Rica. So be it, everyone to their own wishes. But it becomes a bit more difficult to SELL THE INNOCENCE FACTOR—when you are at it again, isn't it? Or does it? Doesn't seem to be the least bit difficult.

Well, let them "win" for I don't like anything structured by George Green to continue to be our mode of service or operations. We will, therefore, simply withdraw from any further recognition of Green's Plan as he structured it. We have plenty to do and plenty of service yet to offer and so let them win whatever it is they think they are winning. What do they think they are winning? I don't know because the thrust is to destroy everything for everybody and it seems they have done a good job on their own team, so why would we interfere with their hopes of destruction of selves. Oh, they THOUGHT it would be me/us they would destroy. No, it is themselves, for when the available blood is drained, the turnips are dry. Green's team claims to HAVE LOST EVERYTHING—so be it, George and George [Green and Abbott]. But WHO has gotten it? WHO told Betty Tuten to "get corporation books" even yet a SECOND time? Are you so blinded by evil greed that you cannot see the water for the river? We understand FROM BETTY TUTEN HERSELF THAT SHE PAYS DAVID HORTON $225 PER HOUR FOR ALL THIS (BAD) ADVICE. They actually went forth and AGAIN changed, unlawfully, corporations, and put Betty in an even more dangerously compromised circumstance—THEY MADE "HER" THE AGENT THIS TIME. Perhaps David Horton plans to die before they get him also? What about Tuten—does she just plan to die off to beat the odds also? How about Sharri? Well, she is near 90 years old, so who knows? Leon is not old but Abbott has already stripped him of every cent due and owing and Ann Beam insisted he be able to do it—as "emissary" to Green.

What can beat the Truth? Nothing. The piles and quantity of lies are now so great from the opposition that they cannot actually afford to allow a DAY IN COURT for hearings. They are dead garbage if it makes it to open and FAIR hearing by juries and honest judicial parties. Do we ever plan to come against these people and demand fair hearings? CERTAINLY! When? When they are so entangled that they cannot extricate themselves, even on technicalities. How can we do it? If there be a will, there will also be a way, for the CALL COMPELS THE ANSWER! Everybody SEEMS TO FORGET—THE TIME OF THE LORD IS AT HAND! GOD needs no more sick martyrs or crucified bodies. HIS TIME HAS ARRIVED and things will begin to reverse directions. Things are now genetically cloned and tampered to do EXACTLY THAT. The bad hats, people, have outsmarted themselves in every instance abounding.

Can they "shut us down"? Of course, but they cannot shut down the world, do you see? They can depopulate, destroy, burn and slash—but they cannot shut down all the people all the time. These evil-mongers feed OFF YOUR BLOOD which to them is YOUR ASSETS. What happens when there is no more asset? When the fuel/food is cut off, the parasite dies, but that doesn't leave a pretty picture FOR YOU, DOES IT? Well, it is just the way it is and my question to you now is a reverse of what you continually ask ME: What are you going to do about it? What are you going to do—period? You allow the enemy to steal from you, lie to you, cheat you and you just go on and on—on their side. So be it. You allow my people to be badgered, damaged, hurt and thrown into prison. Is this supposed to make me, and My CAPTAIN, happy? Somebody please tell me WHY GOD SHOULD SAVE ANY OF THESE SORRY MISFITS?

We are going to continue going right on down the trail, readers, and we are going to have success at our mission. We LEARN from the assaults and, after all, is that not the lesson given?

Everybody had best start paying attention because major things are happening. How many of you realize Mr. Farrakhan is back in Libya? Oh indeed, that IS important to YOU in good old USA or South Africa or Sweden, Denmark or Tasmania.

Criminals now HEAD your States and Nations. So be it, there, as well. When you have chosen the rotten apples to head your harvest of apples—you can expect more and more and more ROT. At some point, however, some man somewhere will in honor say ENOUGH. Some Judge will finally say, "ENOUGH, this is WRONG!" Then the dominoes will start to topple right down the whole sick chorus line. And then just how much do YOU think Ekkers owe these criminal misfits? Oh, and just how do you calculate your answer?

All of you hold Little Crow in your upper prayer-listing. He is going through some most remarkable and incredible processing of metamorphoses and changing. It is a wondrous thing but very, very hard on the one going through the process. God knows what HE is doing and so, too, does Little Crow. I remind you: THE TIME OF THE GOD OF LIGHT IS AT HAND! GOD ALSO HAS A PLAN 2000. AND REMEMBER, GOD WINS AND EVEN THE SATANIC ADVERSARY KNOWS AS MUCH!

Let me interrupt this writing at this point because my topic will change and there is no need to begin a new topic when we are out of time. Thank you and we will write regarding these matters as things unfold. We know you are interested in the details and, as our teammates, you HAVE RIGHT, AND NEED, TO KNOW. Salu.

THE WORD

Tapes, Transcriptions & Videos

Donations to cover the costs of tapes are $4.00 for one tape, $6.00 for two tapes and $2.50 per tape for three or more, except where otherwise noted. Postage is included in tape prices.

Please send check or money order to: THE WORD, P.O. Box 6194, Tehachapi, CA 93582 or call 805-822-4176 if you have questions or you wish to use your Visa, Discover or Master Card.

If you desire to automatically receive tapes from future meetings, please send at least a $50 donation from which tape costs will be deducted. We will try to notify you as your balance reaches zero.

The following is a partial list of older items but including all of the most current meeting dates, with the number of tapes in bold, in parentheses, and mentioning if the meeting has a special focus:

1/7/96 The Trouble With Lawyers (2); 1/21/96 (2);
2/4/96 Jeff Rense's "Fifth Column" interview (3); 2/11/96 (3); 2/25/96 Christopher Reeve interview on "Larry King Live" (2); 3/10/96 (3);
3/17/96 (3) Deepak Chopra "The Wizard Within" & George Hunt "1987 Wilderness Conference"; 3/31/96 (2) Dr. Carlson D.D.S.; 4/14/96 (3); 4/28/96 (2) Desire & Intention;
5/12/96 (3) Mother's Day; 6/2/96 (3); 6/11-12/96 (4) Beginning of New Phase;
6/16/96 (4) Father's Day; 6/23/96 (3) Major Ed Dames interview on "Remote Viewing";
6/30/96 (2); 7/11/96 (2) Wally Gentlemen & George Van Noy; 7/21/96 (2); 8/4/96 (2);
8/17/96 (4) "Little Crow"; 8/18/96 (4) & 8/19/96 (3) Teddy from Canada & Commander Hatonn; 8/20/96 (2) Road Tour of Tehachapi; 8/28/96 (4) David Icke;
9/1/96 (3) Norio Hayakawa; 9/8/96 (3) JUDGEMENT DAY-1995, a dramatization;
9/22/96 (4) Gary Wean & Field Report From The Clays; 10/6/96 (3) Farrakhan in Canada;
11/2/96 (3); 11/24/96 (2); 12/8/96 (2); 12/29/96 (2).

Nevada Corporations

Estate Planning Today! (Part 1)

Keeping Control But Giving Away Ownership

1/9/97 CORT CHRISTIE

Moving your assets into a corporation can be very prudent estate planning. We will take a look at how you pass your estate corporately to your family and making it work without probate and attorney's costs. There are many approaches to family estate planning that are valid and excellent ways of preserving family estates. But this area of the tax and legal world needs to be carefully considered because the tax and legal rules are always changing. One thing I want to note, is if someone has a sizable estate and ends up using one of these strategies, work with a competent accountant and legal counselor to make sure that everything has been put together properly. Because again, the rules are changing all of the time. The IRS wants everything that you have and it is your job to keep it from them!

Planning for the next generation is important. Currently there is great concern about changes coming that will effect the amount that is allowed to pass through estates from parents to children. Today, individuals can pass $600,000 to their heirs without any estate taxes on that money. There is talk, at least with the Democratic administration, that this is going to change to $200,000. I wouldn't doubt that in the next 5-10 years, with the way the tax situation is going, that it will be included as regular income for tax purposes. It may come down as low as $100,000 or even lower. It is something for everyone to think about who has assets that they plan on giving to their heirs later on. Estate taxes can eat up about 1/2 of a family's estate and then usually attorneys, probate and court costs come in and eat up 1/2 of that, leaving little of the estate left for the actual heirs to work with. Start making plans, because there are creative ways of keeping the government out of your pocket.

When working with a corporation, you want to start by moving or transferring real property into the corporation to protect those assets from probate and high estate taxes. While other types of assets may also be protectively moved into your corporation, you would likely want to start with real estate. We have a legal instrument known as a Grant Bargain Deed; this document works in California for transferring property from an individual's name into a corporation. Some counties require the use of a Quitclaim Deed.

There are documents that each county has that you would fill out to show if this is a transfer, or a sale. By making it a transfer, you successfully place your property into your corporation and avoid sales taxes. In some counties, like Los Angeles County, you have to prove ownership of the corporation by bringing in your stock certificates and showing them that you are still the owner of this corporation and that actual ownership has not changed—only the name the property is held under has changed. In some cases you may not want to show the connection between yourself and that piece of property and your corporation, therefore you can go through the process of selling it to the corporation. It depends on what kind of visibility you want with the corporation.

Always remember your corporate formalities and have a corporate resolution drawn up authorizing a corporate representative to transfer the property into the corporation and the corporation accepting that property.

When transferring a vehicle into a corporation you would start off with a corporate resolution. In transferring a vehicle into a corporation keep in mind that you would be making a public announcement about your ownership of that corporation. To avoid this just sell your car to the corporation. You would then go through the same process that you would if you were to sell a car to any other party. Go in to the vehicle registration department and present your stub from the title and go through the process of reregistering the vehicle into the new owner's name (which would be the corporation). Take time to weigh the benefits of placing vehicles into a corporate name because you may find that your insurance rates will take a big jump on a corporate car. Look before you leap.

Personal Effects:

To move personal effects into your corporation, your corporation would need a resolution that states the specific personal effects that are going to be transferred into it. Another way to handle this is to use something as simple as a Living Will. Your personal assets are always changing. Living Wills are simple to use and to create; you can get forms for them at office supply stores or a bookstore and they cost maybe $25.00. You just list your home furnishings and other items that you wish to pass to your heirs and that way you are going to eliminate any court situations after you die. Keep in mind that Living Wills will only allow you to avoid probate, not estate taxes. (Part 2 will continue next week.)

Call Nevada Corporate Headquarters, Inc., directly at 1-800-398-1077 for more information.

Or write: NCH, Inc.

P.O. Box 27740

Las Vegas, NV 89126

ORDER OUR COMPLETE NEVADA CORPORATION MANUAL TODAY FOR $27.95.

It's Tax Free Nevada (The last of the "safe havens")

If you're looking for the benefits that incorporating has to offer, such as limiting your personal liability, increasing tax-free benefits, and raising capital through the sale of stock—taking just 5 minutes of your time to explore the benefits of forming a Nevada Corporation could save you and your company thousands of dollars.

For more information contact:

Nevada Corporate Headquarters, Inc.

P.O. Box 27740
Las Vegas, NV 89126
Telephone: 800-398-1077
OR: 702-896-7001

Dodging Potholes Along The Spiritual Pathways

1/9/97 #1 HATONN

IT SIMPLY IS THE WAY IT IS

Dharma, I don't know, either, how ones "keep up" if they refuse to participate, even when I specifically ask them to do so.

People are welcome to take whatever course they choose and so be it. However, it would seem to me that it might be unwise to deliberately spit upon my face lest you not realize that which you do.

I have ones who decide whether or not it suits them to consider a message my message or Doris on a bad day. Believe it or not, ladies and gentlemen, I had a REASON to ask some of you specific persons to attend Tuesday's court hearing. I note this was ignored by the very ones I requested to attend. But then to announce that "I" give other information "directly" is a bit outrageous and insulting at the very least. Dharma has enough problems without such outright absurdity. From WHOM do you claim to get your information while in my living room? Me? How can it be ALL ways? Further, how can anyone expect to have accurate information on your plane to present in our work if you don't participate, either in the hours of the other crew or in the receivings of the same directions?

For quite a while I perceive there are some who are quite beyond my simple requests and if there is extra time in their schedule they may or may not even attend a meeting if it is not inconvenient. Well, I am feeling a bit inconvenienced and if you wish to assume it is Doris' bad day, fine with me. However, be careful, friends, because our teachings and readings are coming forth 100% CORRECT! And you who might have MISSED Tuesday's morning in court—missed a real dinger. Judge Jason Brent was there to aid, abet and gloat over Horn's win—ah, but Horn didn't WIN, did he? We have even been informed of cancellation of this morning's trial status conference—by the Judge in charge. The court simply does not know what to do for when you PROVE the lies and criminal actions of the opposing counsel, Steven Horn, after nine years of litigation, you have proven that other things are WRONG. And, better yet, the living "shark" (self acclaimed) Jason Brent had to witness his own probable downfall as the lies were placed on the altar of the BENCH to be seen by everyone present.

Ah, but when the student considers himself/herself to be greater than the teacher, it is probably time to look at things for what they ARE. WHO is giving that input and who has set self up as another's teacher/mentor? Be careful for it is very easy to mislead another less experienced and vulnerable, because of respect for the assumed teacher having taken the reins of the other's growth.

Remember, you who would be receivers and set aside in some higher status than another, or whatever you may think or believe, it will remain the one who offers ALL, gives all they have, serves without stint of time or pleasure, demands nothing and forces nothing, who will hold the day. We have no bindings, no shackles, no force, no groupie, no regulators—save integrity, honor and Truth. This is being proven daily as we go.

Each and every one and all are welcome to their own opinions, directions and perceptions—however, when you are at the table of a host of any kind and you complain about the food, the drink, and project self as if you are the host indeed, it is sometimes not the wisest of attitudes for it requires that you look quite foolish. If you cannot abide me, for instance, why then will you stay in MY SPACES? Why, too, would you impose upon the patience of my own compatriots? Would you even do this at Lockheed Industries? Would you do this at the local bank? Church? Do you feel it appropriate to bite the hand that feeds you? I mean this quite literally. Or do YOU arrange for the income and expenses of everything and everyone, including self?

We might say here, "Well, I didn't feel a need to..." Are there not phones and FAXes? Is there not the simple graciousness of an RSVP? Who are we trying to fool? Surely not me and certainly not Doris or E.J. for they may be fooled but they are not fools.

Well, chelas, the world moves right on and others are doing that which you possibly claimed to wish to achieve—while you perhaps live a separate and unapproachable existence. This is one teacher that, when a student claims to have outgrown me, he/she is welcome to move on. Or, we are happy to turn the responsibility of both the classes and the speeches to the new professor. However, take care that you do not simply repeat the lessons this professor has already offered you lest you receive a giggle or two from your classmates.

When you fail to show full respect to those with whom you work, you are not going to win Man or Woman-of-the-year award. And, if you claim to know more than me and claim, also, to get it directly from me—I ask that you PROVE IT—yes indeed, TO ME.

Be most careful that you do not deceive self and bring embarrassment unto the teachers who bestow trust upon you to not edit and rewrite that which they bring forth into your care. This is constantly taking place and no, it is not acceptable, and people are patiently waiting for growth beyond the need of focus on scribe instead of the speaker. I can also promise any of you who would present that Doris interjects herself into my instructions, especially as regards something related to her, that this brings suspicion of self-interests upon SELF, not my secretary.

I note that some have not even the time to sit perched long enough to hear a full thought if I be speaking. I note that unless my hours are committed to your needs, I cannot have your presence even at business meetings. I respect you and find that I must be unworthy of your respect enough to have what I may wish to share, to sit with me. It reminds me a bit of the story of Esu in the Garden, waiting. All he asked was that his friends stand watch with him—and, they all went to sleep.

I can promise you this: Dharma does not sleep at her post. She thinks today that possibly that may well be because her backsides might be exposed because the so-called friends are sleeping, awaiting her success so that they may "have". This is not DUTY, friends, this is respect of which I speak.

Now in consideration of what is taking place I am going to repeat something I have said before on several occasions: Some of you should look to relocation because you are in the direct line of fire of your friendly gorillas and you are being eaten alive. Look around self and check out the bindings of the cocoons within which you have placed selves while calling it "spiritual" expression. Look at what YOU are doing and see whether or not you are trapped within electronic shackles and are failing to mix with the people with whom you share your daily work. Resentments are building and those are rightful feelings for if you are not doing that for which you are responsible, someone has to take up the slack when it comes at times inconvenient for your handling of that which you consider your prerogative of management.

I ask that you of the team try to make it to bed by midnight, for after midnight is when we can do our work; while you sleep, soul grows and travels. Some have no use for such requests and proclaim a separate schedule which allows a whole other focus and inconvenience of any team-players. This is your business, I again remind you—but do not claim to be on my team in this ball game when you refuse to stick to training regulations, game time, instructions, or flight schedules. I will refrain from again asking special attendance for I have just been SHOWN that I am a bit of a pain in the neck to some. I shall refrain from asking from you much of any inconvenience save to suggest you do whatever it is you want to do, on your time schedule, and perhaps you can get along with your co-workers but I think the nerves are a bit frazzled and frayed and I no longer have need to give them counsel as to patience. If you can work it out, fine—for I withdraw my nagging input. Thank you. We all trust that you will not be annoyed with any of us when we ignore your wishes and druthers. I noted that some of you were totally unimpressed with the simple honor to John Schroeffer. Is it too much to ask that we as brethren sit quietly for a few minutes of appreciation for a life lived and a spirit moved on?

However, do not expect us to wait upon your preferences while you ignore ours.

Some of you wonder over and over again how it is that you are walking in your particular shoes. It doesn't matter except as to realize a goal, perhaps established through perceived past experiences, real or imagined. It was ever thus, students, for if you cannot learn from expressions of lessons how can you even perceive THE WORD in reality of Truth? Can you not sort the parables and grow while not putting the wrong sized shoes upon your feet—while you have great numbers of available shoes for your use? Let me use a bit of example from AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL and look a bit upon what the great Teacher spoke. In the copy I have we will begin at the top of page 68 in order to pick up continuity. Remember that the Cosmic pronunciation and spelling, if you will, is Immanuel for expressing "Immanuel". You later changed the label to Jesus.

AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL, [quoting starting at the top of page 68:]

LEAVEN OF THE PHARISEES

Immanuel and his disciples then boarded a boat and sailed across the sea and arrived ashore on the other side of the sea. They found that they had forgotten to bring bread along on the journey.

Immanuel spoke to them, "Take care and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees." [H: By the way, readers, these "Pharisees" are the ones now called Khazarian Zionists. These are the self-proclaimed but FALSE "Jews" as have ever been present in service in opposition to God and Truth. I did not say Judeans or any OTHER comment except to define that which IS. The Pharisees crucified The Teacher sent forth in purity and God-presence for they are the ones who lost commercial value to such teachings as offered in goodness and honesty. It is identical to the confrontations of this day while the Elite and evil would-be-rulers try to garner everything of physical value, including YOUR freedom.]

They spoke among themselves and one said, "That probably means something to the effect that we haven't taken along bread or something else to eat," and mumbled and grumbled among themselves. Immanuel heard them and he was angry and said, "Oh you of so little faith, why does it concern you that you have no bread? Do you still not understand? Do you not have the imagination to understand my speeches? Are you of such little faith and without understanding that you are unable to recognize the meaning therein? Do you still not understand, and do you wish to not understand for all times to come?"

"Do you not remember the five loaves of bread and the three fishes divided among the five thousand, and how many baskets you lifted up still filled? I speak not of the bread you eat every day, but beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees."

Finally, they understood that he had not said to be beware of the leaven of the bread, but of the false and adulterated teachings of the Scribes and Pharisees.

PETER IN TROUBLE

Immanuel then traveled into the area of Cesarea Philippi and asked his disciples, "Who do these people say that I am?"

They answered, "Some say that you are John the Baptist, others, that you are Elia, and others again, that you are Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Then Immanuel said to them, "Who do you say that I am?"

Simon Peter answered and said, "You are the Messiah the prophets had spoken about, and a son of the living God, the spiritual ruler of the three human races."

Jammanuel was most angry with irritation and answered and said unto him, "Oh, you unfortunate one, my teaching has not revealed it to you, for I instructed you in truth and you have listened not. I also tell you that you are a faithful disciple, but your understanding must be compared to that of an unlearned child. You are Peter and I cannot build my teaching on your rock, and you will open the portals of ignorance, inasmuch as people will be overcome by your false interpretation of my teaching, and shall follow it, and live according to false teachings. I cannot give you the key of the spiritual kingdom, or you would open it with false locks and false portals. I am not the son of the spiritual ruler of the three human races, and therefore not the son of God.

"My mother is Mary who conceived me through a guardian angel, a descendent of our patriarchs, and my Earthly father is Joseph who is a mortal father to me that I might have Earthly birthright, and further, Peter, YE SHALL SOME DAY CORRECT THY MISUNDERSTANDING, THAT THE TRUTH SHALL GO FORTH TO THE FOUR CORNERS OF YOUR PLANET."

He then warned the disciples not to tell anyone such a story as had been pronounced by Peter and not to go forth and teach such erroneous stories and false teachings. "So be it and Selah!"

From that time forward, Immanuel began to tell the disciples that he would have to go to Jerusalem and that he would be caused to suffer much from the elders and the Scribes and High Priests, because he could not avoid bringing his teachings unto them.

Peter was angry and said to him, "May God or The Creation prevent that! This may not be allowed to happen to you, for they shall arrest, torture, and kill you."

But Immanuel turned to Peter in equal anger and retorted, "Get away from me, Satan. You are an annoyance, for you are not thinking in spiritual reasoning, but in human thought and desire. Simon Peter, again you make me angry and show your ignorant thinking. It is not alone your thinking but it comes forth from your lips in behalf of all my accredited ones.

"Verily, I say unto you this day, because of your ignorance the world will shed much blood, because you will falsify my teaching and spread it among the people and it will become more and more twisted and inverted. You will be guilty of the deaths of many peoples, and of the origin of a false name for me, and of the evil insult of calling me the Son of God, and that God IS The Creation Itself, for it shall come to pass as I speak it.

"But you are still under the Grace of my long suffering patience and you can still improve your ignorance by some measures, but I am remaining in great annoyance with you, brother."

And then Immanuel said to his disciples, "If someone wants to follow my teaching, he should take the burden of seeking the truth, of realization, and of understanding upon himself. But man will surely not do so for man is lazy and careless; he will believe that which anyone speaks unto him. It will be those who live their lives in truth and knowledge who will be victorious, but he who lives his life in untruth and ignorance, will lose."

WHAT WOULD A MAN PROFIT—?

"What would a man profit if he would gain the entire world and all that is in it, and would damage his spirit? Or, how can man help his spirit, if he is unable to 'think'? Man must think carefully and learn about all circumstance in which he finds himself that he not pre-judge without proper knowledge regarding that of which he judges. You have neither the patience nor the willingness to go forth and ferret out the truth of a given circumstance but judge on untruth and limited knowledge and pronounce your judgement loudly all about the lands. It will merit you nothing in the spans of that which you call 'time'. The Creation is timeless, and so is the Spirit of man."

TO PERFECT THE SPIRIT

"Verily I say to you, there are some here who will not taste the power of spirit in this life span, which they will learn in the next life to come; or the next after that. But the spirit of man is ignorant as long as he has gained knowledge through human thinking and research. And so the spirit of man is not a machination of man, but a part of The Creation given to him which has to be made aware and has to be perfected, so that he proceeds to be One with The Creation, since The Creation, too, lives in constant change and growth. I repeat—The Creation is timeless, and so is the Spirit of man.

"The teaching of knowledge is extensive and not easy, but it is the way to life manifold in its manner. The human life of man is destined to be perfection of the Spirit, so that he lives his life in fulfillment thereof.

Even if man makes mistakes, he learns from them and gathers perception and knowledge, thereby cultivating his spirit and acting according to his strength. Without mistakes it is impossible to gather perception and knowledge so that the Spirit can be cultivated.

"Verily I say to you, the teachings of the High Priests, the Pharisees, and the Scribes are deceptive and false, when they tell you that a mistake would be punished by God or The Creation, when the mistake serves the purpose and the knowledge of the Spirit.

"Since there is no mistake that can be punished if this mistake serves the perception and knowledge of the Spirit, so then there is no mistake that can be inherited, and no punishment in this world or another world, for the literal punishment of such a mistake would contradict all the Laws of Nature, and thus, all the Laws of The Creation.

"In this life—still as in another life—there is no punishment, if a mistake has been committed, which will serve the perception and knowledge of the Spirit. If man lives with the vocation to perfect his spirit and obtains perception and knowledge through his mistake, he leads a life for which he was destined.

"However, if man does not learn according to the rules and the size of his Spirit, which is governed by the Law of The Creation, he is led into things which have to be in accord therewith, since they are destiny. It shall be long before man comes into his balance in understanding of these words.

"Let it be realized that the spiritual powers of other people affect the life of the individual, either in a perception of good or bad."

PERSECUTION OF PROPHETS

"But if man at this time begins to think and perceive, he needs the teaching; therefore, the prophets have been sent by the Celestial Sons to teach the human race the true Laws of The Creation and the knowledge regarding life.

"The people are still most ignorant, following the false laws of the high priests and the distorters because they do not perceive the new teaching in its truth. Incomprehensibly so, they curse the truth which has to come. They curse the prophets, stone, kill and crucify them. But since the teaching of the truth must be spread among the people, the prophets will simply have to bear the great burdens and whatever suffering might come forth under the execration of the people.

"Therefore, many prophets have been persecuted, are being persecuted and so shall it be after my time is past. The prophecy of the destiny according thereto is that this also applies to me, and that I, innocently, will be declared guilty.

"However, brethren, I shall not be killed. But being in a state of semi-death, I will be considered to be dead for some three days and nights. I will be placed in a tomb so that the sign of Jonah will be fulfilled.

"This shall come to pass at such time as I attain a certain perception within myself, increase my own knowledge, and create a new power in my own Spirit. So be it for it shall come to pass."

And thus the days passed in teachings and lessons.....

COUNSEL IN PRIVACY

.... "If your fellow man makes errors and embraces teaching in falseness, go to him and confront him, [first] in privacy. If he listens to you, you have won your fellow man and done a great service. If he does not hear you and keeps on embracing his senselessness, let him go, for he is not worthy of your teaching once you have done all that you can do. However, come to your own knowledge that that which you proclaim is in actual fact, truth, and not of your own perception of personal opinion.

"It is better to allow an unreasonable person to walk

The timid man yearns for full value and demands a tenth. The bold man strikes for double value and compromises on par.

— Mark Twain

on the path of misery than to bring confusion to one's own Spirit; therefore, take great caution that you be absolute in your TRUTH, and not tainted by falseness to any manner or degree.

"Verily I say to you: The heavens would fall down before an unreasonable person could be taught reason; therefore, beware of same, for acceptance of truth comes from just logic and clarity of reason.

"Sow the seeds of truth and wisdom on fertile soil where they can be germinated and grow, for only germinated seed and sturdy plants will bring forth great fruit."

About this time Immanuel departed from Galilee and went into the Jewish land, beyond the Jordan River.

Many people followed him there also, and he healed those who came to him in request for help....

WHAT'S IN IT FOR US?

.... As they were walking, Peter said to him: "Behold, we have forsaken all to follow you, and what shall we get for that?"

Immanuel spoke to them, "Verily I say to you, you who follow me, some of you will embrace the wisdom of my teaching, so you will be spiritually great in the incarnations to come. But some of you will not perceive the wisdom of my teaching and will spread false teachings about me in the times to come. But those shall have a difficult time finding the truth in their coming incarnation. But you must come into your truth and wisdom in the conclusion if you are to gain your spiritual perfection. And thus it will be among the human races from East to West, and from North to South. My teachings will be brought to many, but they will not perceive it. Many will follow false teachings about me and therefore not find the truth, because they consider me God or his son or perhaps even the Son of The Creation.

"Great words will be spoken and some will proclaim that they alone know the truth, because they have become victims of a terrible mistake, and thus follow evil and falsified teachings.

"Many will be the first among human races, because they will think humanly in their false teachings. But they will be the last in spiritual knowledge and very small, indeed, in wisdom. Wisdom will only be where the knowledge about wisdom bears fruit and follows and respects the Laws of The Creation in truth."

[END QUOTING OF AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL]

Now, may we please move on with our work? It is very important to take a few minutes in paying attention to the lessons we are given from our own GREATER TEACHERS. And remember, it takes some students longer to comprehend the lessons than it does for others to ASSUME they know it all. We each serve whereat we find the most need in personal growth and in fulfilling that which is declared as that which is to be.

Dharma, for instance, did not somehow take on the load of the world of Truth or Truth-Bringers. She agreed to receive, type and set to word, THE WORD, as it would be offered. She did not take on, somehow, the judicial system, the care and attending of everyone's needs, income, and backbreaking load of anybody's or everybody's perception of her task.

Why do you people not go dump the load of the world on the shoulders of Stephen King, or Christopher Darden or any other scribbler? Why do you giggle and taunt and ridicule that Dharma is an "E.T. Princess" and doer of great evil in living—when she has asked for nothing but served MANY? Dharma doesn't intend to misinterpret the message even one more time! Does everybody hear me? She does not intend to suit your needs by misrepresenting TRUTH—not even one more time. Neither she, nor E.J., enjoy having to go into courtroom after courtroom wherein their very presence is ridiculed and denied, and, try to stand for TRUTH against the proficient liars and cheats of the world. She is far happier to keep her aloneness and resign from being any kind of a "perhaps" claimed friend. She asks nothing, claims nothing, and frankly, has learned to expect nothing—except from myself and God whom she trusts explicitly and NOT IMPLICITLY. There is a large, large difference.

We will continue to fulfill our directioned mission—period. But perhaps it is time some of you other would-be claimants to the throne would take up the responsibility of bearing the load and "arranging" the way to this physically demanding accomplishment. WHO HAS A BETTER WAY? PROVE IT! I am as a scientist—I WANT YOU TO PROVE TO ME—YOUR theories, for I am most willing and ready AND ABLE to prove mine.

Remember that when, FOR EXAMPLE, Steven Horn is proven to be a liar, cheat and cheat IN A COURT OF LAW, as was found on Tuesday—every conspiratorial party within his touch—is likewise painted with his intentions. This includes Green, Brent, Abbott, Horton, Tuten, Beam, Fort, et al., et al., et al. The hours of depositions taken for the purpose of the Nevada Brigade shall now be accounted, along with the conspiracy to deny justice and truth through lies projected upon lies. And what of the Judges who acted under the assumption that the lies were truth? There is a great day of reckoning looming ahead like the proverbial brick wall.

Ah, but YOU too believed Green and Horn? Well, you shouldn't have for you had every fact to prove them liars. Can Doris face, again, contempt charges because of a publisher that both betrayed and failed to protect her? Of course, what are the alternatives, readers? Give me the alternatives available to HER! Well, the game is not over, dear friends turned turncoats, for the same one that betrayed and was traitor to Dharma—has done you in far greater in magnitude of that which you treasure, your physical treasures, than ever shall befall Doris. And, if Dharma writes for me and that ends up in a paper somewhere, is it HER FAULT? All she does is type and others take that typing and do "something" with it. Ah, but she is the one threatened with PRISON for somehow using information like that of a scientist and prior teacher who proclaimed work to be authentic—from the same resource, yet. And yet others toss it off as being other than their problem—they didn't bother to check possibilities. Should Dharma perhaps be angry at those who didn't "think" or "thought" or, or, or? Should SHE begin to edit my work rather than write what I ask her to write? Is that what others do? Well, that is not an acceptable alternative. But, wouldn't it seem that those who also erred, stand, at the least, with her in her "garden", on watch? Does not everyone expect the next paycheck or output from this source? Why has this come to be? Why does it come to be somehow "their" problem and none of your own? How came we to be such an "inconvenience"? So be it, for I never tread where uninvited. Neither do my compatriots who serve in this mission alongside this team. Sometimes it is best to look deeply into the mirror and see what you see reflected therefrom.

You see, people, even THE MASTER TEACHER had to walk ALONE to that tree for few dared to walk beside him or help carry the cross—simply because HE WAS A GOODLY MAN WHO TAUGHT TRUTH OF RIGHTEOUSNESS AND GOD. It is fine for God's accounting is not as creative as might be Desiree's and George's. The facts will be written there for God only READS intent and is thus not blinded by the trappings and proclamations.

Is Dharma distressed this morning? NOT ANY LONGER! We find our truth and we find our friends—and as well, we find our enemies among our undecided quibblers. And, readers, EXAMPLES are what are presented by the actions of EVERY individual, especially those in lines of authority and management. WHERE DO YOU STAND, this morning?

Salu.

PHOENIX JOURNAL

AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL — I AM SANANDA

BY SANANDA & JUDAS ISCARIOTH (J2) $6.00 156 Pages

The story of the life of the one known as Jesus of Nazareth (Immanuel) is told by Jesus and his disciple and scribe, Judas Iscariot. Judas' name is cleared and the actual one who betrayed Immanuel is revealed. Clarification is given concerning Immanuel's life and teachings, such as: The Purpose Of His Life—His 40 Days With Cosmic Beings—His Crucifixion, Resurrection And His Journey After Resurrection—Clarification Regarding God, The Creation, The Laws And Commandments. (INDEX INCLUDED)

- Some of the topics discussed are:
- *THE GENEALOGICAL TREE OF IMMANUEL (JESUS)
 - *Gabriel And The Pregnancy Of Mary
 - *The Birth Of Immanuel
 - *The Three Wisemen
 - *Baptism Of Immanuel
 - *Celestial Sons To Reveal Themselves
 - *Marriage And Cohabitation
 - *Why He Used Parables
 - *The Suicide Of Judah Iharioth
 - *Doubting Thomas
 - *Mohammad's Coming Prophesied
 - *Saul And Immanuel

AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL

I AM SANANDA

BY SANANDA & JUDAS ISCARIOTH RECORDED BY "dharma"

#2 A PHOENIX JOURNAL

For ordering information please see Back Page

The News Desk

1/14/97 DR. AL OVERHOLT

LAND-GRABBING SECRETS OF THE NATURE CONSERVANCY

From the Insider's Report, December 1996 issue, by Tom DeWeese, (quoting:)

Never heard of The Nature Conservancy? Well, that's probably no accident. It keeps a low profile by design. When you run scams like it does, you don't want to be notorious.

So let's lift the rock off these slugs and shine a very bright spotlight on a few of their most outrageous games.

The Nature Conservancy is the richest, most powerful environmental colossus in the world. It claims 680,000 individual members and 405 corporate members operating out of eight regional offices and fifty chapter offices across the nation. The nature conservancy has assets of almost $1 Billion and has an annual operating budget of over $300 million and a staff of 1150 people.

THE SCAM—real estate. THE HOOK—"conservation through private action." According to the party line, The Nature Conservancy simply buys land with private money and sets up nature reserves, thereby helping the environment without infringing on anybody. What a wonderful, charitable idea. Ah, if only it were true.

THE VICTIMS—unsuspecting property owners (many times elderly). THE METHODS—hide behind phony corporations; serve as a shill for government agencies; work behind the scenes with more visible environmental groups to intimidate property owners into selling. THE GOAL—money and power.

The Nature Conservancy frequently uses phony front companies to get land from owners who wouldn't knowingly sell to an environmentalist group.

It used this tactic to purchase most of the islands off the coast of Virginia, containing 40,000 acres and sixty miles of coastline. In doing so The Nature Conservancy was able to stop all private development and control the use of the land, damaging the tax base, killing thousands of jobs, and severely curbing the locals from hunting, fishing, camping and joy riding on the islands.

But don't think the purpose was to preserve these beautiful, pristine islands for nature. The Nature Conservancy did bar others from developing the land—but not itself. Far from it. At a huge profit, the Conservancy developed up-scale homes for the rich.

But how is that bad? If they do it with private money what's wrong with it? Isn't that just free enterprise?

The problem is the Nature Conservancy is a non-profit organization with tax exempt status and they maintain that status because of their tightly protected image as benevolent conservationists. Moreover, property owners on the islands wanted to invest in development and thought they were selling their land to developers. They were aware of and frightened by The Nature Conservancy and would never have sold to the group. That's why the Conservancy hid behind a phony land company, grabbed power, foiled the development and made a huge profit on tax-exempt money. Today much of the coast of Virginia is off-limits to tourists and other development.

Other times, The Nature Conservancy acts as a shill to a government agency to acquire land cheaply and sell it to the government at a huge profit. Again, conservation is not the goal.

One of its favorite scams goes something like this. Your grandmother owns land close to a historic site or a wilderness area. The government wants the land to expand a park but grandmother won't sell.

One day a representative of The Nature Conservancy shows up, well dressed, smiling, but concerned. He tells your grandmother that he's just learned that the government intends to take her land after she passes away. She won't be able to sell it or give it to her children. However, he can offer a solution. If Grandmother will sell her land to The Nature Conservancy he can assure her that the land will stay in private hands and not be taken by the government.

Well, a relieved grandmother is much happier and she agrees to sell. However, says the nice man from The Nature Conservancy, because the government has threatened to take the land, its value is now only about half its reported market value. That's all he'll be able to pay her. Well, thinks grandmother, half is better than nothing, so she sells.

The next day our friend from The Nature Conservancy makes a call to the Department of the Interior informing them that their plan has worked. The whole thing had been prearranged between them before anyone ever knocked on Grandmother's door. As arranged, The Nature Conservancy then sells the land to the Interior Department FOR FULL MARKET VALUE PLUS OVERHEAD, FINANCING AND HANDLING CHARGES.

Hundreds of complaints have been recorded concerning the practices of the Conservancy's land-grabbing operation. One family in Indiana had to sue to get back their father's land that was signed over to The Nature Conservancy when he was very old and mentally incompetent to handle his affairs. Agents of the Conservancy had helped him in changing documents that left his entire estate to The Nature Conservancy. The family won back their property but only after being forced to spend a fortune in legal fees.

Unfortunately space allows only a minor look at the mammoth operation of The Nature Conservancy. Its power, wealth and control is almost beyond comprehension. Yet it is able to maintain an image of idealism and concern for the environment. The truth is The Nature Conservancy is really little more than a massive, ruthless real estate machine using its tax exempt status and ties to the government to create wealth for itself.

So, if ever you receive a knock on the door from a smiling representative of The Nature Conservancy, slam it in his face and rush to your neighbors to sound the alarm—or, the saying "there goes the neighborhood" could take on a completely different meaning. (End quoting)

Insider's Report
American Policy Center
13873 Park Center Rd., #316
Herndon, VA 22071
(703)925-0881
email:apc@nicom.com

BUSH WAS IN CHARGE, SAYS LT. COL. JAMES 'BO' GRITZ

Excerpted from THE NEW FEDERALIST, 12/16/96, [quoting:]

In the December issue of his Center for Action Monthly Newsletter, Lt. Col. James 'Bo' Gritz (ret.) wrote a public response confirming the accuracy of the Nov. 18 New Federalist article entitled "Uncovered Link of Bush-Run White House to L.A. Crack Cocaine Ring".

The New Federalist article reported on evidence linking a "privatized" National Security Council operation into the Blandon-Meneses drug ring in Los Angeles, which was the subject of the widely circulated San Jose Mercury News series on the crack-cocaine epidemic.

During a 1986 raid by the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department on properties used by the Blandon drug ring, one of the targets, Ronald J. Lister, told detectives that "his friends in Washington weren't going to like what was going on," and that he was going to call "Mr. Weekly of the CIA" and report the situation.

The Nov. 18 New Federalist wrote that Scott Weekly is a weapons expert and a close associate of Gritz, and that Gritz is a highly decorated former Green Beret who is well-known for his opposition to drug-trafficking. Gritz was prosecuted by the U.S. Government in the late 1980s after exposing U.S. Government ties into drug-smuggling in southeast Asia.

Weekly was part of Gritz's team, which made a number of U.S. Government-backed missions into Thailand, Laos, and Burma between 1982 and 1986 to determine if American POWs were still alive in Southeast Asia. Gritz has reported that he had formed a "private" team with the assistance of the DIA, CIA, and the Intelligence Support Activity (ISA). The New Federalist reported that the ISA was a secret Army special operations unit, involved in counter-terrorist activity and support for the Nicaraguan Contras, among other things.

In late October 1986, just before the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department raid on the Blandon drug ring,

Courtesy of Lt. Col. Gritz

Lt. Col. (ret) James 'Bo' Gritz

*The Best Gift
You Can Give Yourself Is: **
The Truth

*Subscribe To CONTACT
And Read **
The Journals

Gritz had been contacted by an NSC staff officer, Col. Thomas Harvey, and asked to go into the "Golden Triangle" area of Burma, to determine if there were American POWs there. Gritz told Harvey that he would need special documents to undertake such a mission. Harvey provided Gritz and Weekly with letters, one for Gritz on White House letterhead, and one for Weekly on National Security Council letterhead, stating that Gritz and Weekly were cooperating with the U.S. Government.

"ISA WORKED FOR THE NSC"

In his newsletter column, Gritz acknowledges that Lister claimed to be working for the CIA for Scott Weekly, and he adds that the FBI had then said that Lister was in touch with "Scott Weekly of the DIA".

Gritz then writes: "The FBI never knew exactly who I was working for." Gritz indicates that he was working for ISA, and explains: The truth is that the initials "ISA" were above Top Secret to the point where CIA was our cover. ISA worked directly for the National Security Council.

Gritz then says that he initially worked for DIA, and was then transferred to J-5 (Strategic Plans and Policy) of the Joint Chiefs of Staff when his POW operations went into the field. "Toward the end it was ISA that picked up the effort." He describes how he was called into the White House by Admiral Bobby Inman, then Deputy Director of the CIA, just before the POW mission was taken away from ISA and given back to DIA.

Gritz continues: "It is no wonder the FBI had no idea who was actually carrying the ball! Scott Weekly never worked for DIA—he worked for me. The New Federalist goes on to describe my activities accurately with respect to the POW effort and the White House-Burma mission."

"Too bad The New Federalist reporters didn't bother to call me." Gritz then writes, "I could have straightened them out on the Weekly CIA/DIA point and given them a much stronger rope with which to hang George Bush."

"During the Contra War in Nicaragua, Vice President George Bush ran the illegal drugs-for-guns network out of this office."

Gritz says that Bush lied on national television when he denied ever having met Manuel Noriega. "That is a lie!" Gritz says, adding that Bush had Noriega on the CIA payroll, and that Noriega went twice to Washington to meet with Bush personally and even stayed at the Bush residence in D.C. Gritz says he was ordered to keep his hands off Noriega.

Gritz also says he was asked by a State Department official to evaluate and recommend "'force-multiplier' weapons that would strengthen the Contras in their guerrilla war against the Communist Sandanistas", and this is what he and Scott Weekly were doing. He adds that, while training the Afghan rebels, he and Weekly were paid by Stanford Technology, which he calls "Albert Hakhiem's CIA drug laundry", and he also says that Erich von Marbod and Richard Secord were selling weapons to Iran, Iraq, Libya and Saudi Arabia using Hakhiem as an agent.

"Yes, The New Federalist is right," Gritz concludes, "but they have only discovered the tiniest tip of the iceberg."

'CIA' WAS THE COVER

When Gritz was finally reached by this news service, he confirmed and elaborated what he had written in his newsletter. Gritz disavowed any knowledge of a link between Weekly and Ron Lister, and said that Weekly only had a few contracts with the CIA, and that those were through Gritz. Gritz confirmed that he himself was actually working for the ISA. "It was identified, incorrectly, as a low-level Army intelligence effort," Gritz explained, but it really worked directly for the National Security Council. Otherwise, how in the hell could we have been doing all the weird things we were doing? And we used the CIA as a cover, when you had to get messages, and this kind of stuff."

"When I came on board," Gritz continued, "I was carefully briefed—'we are not under the CIA, we are not under Defense Intelligence; we work for the National Security Council.'" He also said that ISA coordinated with the Joint Chiefs of Staff, which provided the "muscle" for ISA, using Delta Force Special Operations Forces.

The New Federalist article noted that Tom Harvey of the NSC had also been instrumental in setting up in Loudoun County, Virginia a "private" paramilitary unit called "ARGUS" (Armored Response Group U.S.). ARGUS equipment, including an armored personnel carrier, was on standby during the Oct. 6-7 1986 raid by federal, state, and local agents, on the offices of organizations associated with Lyndon LaRouche in Leesburg, Va.

Gritz told this news service that Harvey was actually working out of George Bush's office. "Harvey was the military adviser to Senator John Warner, and he was also of course in the NSC, working in the Vice President's Office—George Bush at the time," Gritz said. "Harvey was the Ollie North look-alike for George Bush." [End quoting]

I hope Maxine Waters, Congresswoman from L.A., can use this information to help her nail the cocaine criminals who helped to destroy her district—if she doesn't already have it. That's probably hoping for too much, knowing who controls the mechanics of how most politicians get into and stay in office. However, maybe she will think about her people FIRST and really try to make some changes for them.

ABSTINENCE KEEPS STAFF SHIPSHAPE

Excerpted from THE WASHINGTON TIMES WEEKLY, 12/29/96, [quoting:]

After serving on all-male submarines and at confining desk jobs in Washington, Master Chief Petty Officer Gary Becker was stunned when he arrived for duty at the Navy hospital in Charleston, S.C.

Of 110 young enlisted women, 26 were pregnant.

"I never thought I would be dealing with this type of problem," said Chief Becker, who is married with two daughters and became the hospital's top enlisted man in July 1995.

Today, Chief Becker cites different statistics: Two of his 77 young hospital corpswomen are pregnant.

What changed the behavior of men and women was an old-fashioned message that might not appear hip enough for today's twenty-something sailors, even in the conservative South.

"We talked about developing a life-long, committed relationship, as we know it, marriage, and abstinence in the meantime," Chief Becker said. "It's certainly not the liberal philosophy today."

Aided by an outside counseling group, the hospital set up mandatory seminars on the benefits of celibacy before marriage.

Called the "Life Management Series," the Charleston project may be the only abstinence-based education program in the military.

With women serving in nearly all support and combat billets, pregnancies in the field and on ships form a statistic the Pentagon monitors as closely as enlistment rates.

Chief Becker began his program a year ago. The lesson plan included guest speakers: virgins; "secondary virgins," those who went from sexually active to celibate; and a couple married 50 years.

There was also a lecture on the financial burdens carried by single moms and dads.

"Guys aren't touchy-feely kind of folks," Chief Becker said. "They have to be spoken to by their wallets. The reality of life is young people don't often talk about the consequence and responsibility of parenting a child."

Anne Badgley is executive director of Heritage Community Services, the private counseling center that set up Chief Becker's program. She said in an interview that some sailors complained about the emphasis on abstaining from sex, but most offered praise. One woman, she said, left her live-in boyfriend after he refused to commit to marriage.

"Teaching abstinence to sailors is a challenge," Mrs. Badgley said, "We do know this is a bit of a strange message in this culture."

"But we believe we're on sort of a cutting-edge thing here, where society looks back at the last 30 years and examines the social experiment in sexual freedom and sees a lot of carnage, a lot of hurt people, a lot of hurt children."

Mrs. Badgley said she is hoping for a cultural change among the hospital staff. "Now people, instead of putting negative peer pressure on each other to become sexually active outside of marriage, the standard will be that you wait for marriage."

Chief Becker said the classes also talk about how to prepare for child care, in a segment called "Baby Boot Camp: A Pregnancy Support Group."

He said one woman lived in the women's enlisted quarters right up to her delivery date. She had given little thought to housing, day care or money.

"A lot of them got married because of the pregnancy," he said. "We want them to front-load the relationship—marriage."

In what could be a trend for the whole Navy, more than 150 sailors have gone through pregnancy training at Charleston. Navy hospitals in Beauford, S.C., and Jacksonville, Fla., plan to start their own abstinence-centered programs.

Chief Becker said he has talked to Navy policy-makers in Washington, and none has criticized or attempted to change his approach.

"They thought it was kind of preachy," he said. "But I had a problem here that needed to get arrested. I think we have." [End quoting]

It sounds like a story of a man who saw a problem and wasn't going to turn his head and say I can't change these young people's way of thinking. ARE YOU STILL SAYING, 'I'M ONLY ONE AND CAN'T MAKE ANY CHANGES IN THIS WORLD?' Why not take responsibility by asking God what you can do to change this world for the better?

POT SHOTS NO. 1213

COMMUNICATION WITH THE DEAD IS ONLY A LITTLE MORE DIFFICULT THAN COMMUNICATION WITH SOME OF
THE LIVING.

MAN THROWN 5 STORIES
ONTO CONCRETE SURVIVES

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 1/7/97, [quoting:]

A man survived a fall out of a fifth-story window in the Westlake area of Los Angeles after he was thrown out Monday by three reputed 18th Street Gang members, authorities said.

Police said the suspects had burst into the victim's apartment and were roughing up the man's wife when he tried to rescue her.

The 24-year-old man was hospitalized in stable condition after the 12:50 p.m. confrontation, said city Fire Department spokesman Brian Humphrey.

Humphrey said the man landed flat on the concrete below. He was being treated at Los Angeles County/USC Medical Center for abdominal injuries but had no broken bones, Humphrey said.

"This is an extremely fortunate individual," Humphrey said. "It is rare that a person would fall from such a height and survive." [End quoting]

Does anyone think this man would be alive without an Angel's (God's) help?

NO GOOD DEED...

From THE MODESTO BEE, 12/23/96, [quoting:]

Richard Nuccio has been repaid for his sense of duty by losing his security clearance and thus, for all practical purposes, his government career.

You may remember him as the State Department official who told a member of Congress that the Central Intelligence Agency had lied to a congressional intelligence oversight committee about covert operations in Guatemala.

The action by CIA chief John Deutch is indefensible.

Nuccio discovered the deception in the course of trying to help negotiate an end to Guatemala's civil war. He gave the information to a member of the House Intelligence Committee, Robert Torricelli (now elected senator), who was certainly entitled to the knowledge.

The evidence of CIA duplicity was damning: The agency knew, but denied, that one of its "assets", a Guatemalan colonel, had supervised the interrogation of a guerrilla leader who died in custody. Finally, it was Torricelli, not Nuccio, who publicly blew the whistle on the CIA and named the Guatemalan officer.

In an unprecedented action, Deutch overrode the State Department's one-year ban on Nuccio's access to classified material and revoked his security clearance entirely. Why? Because of the need to protect the identities of informants. Nothing, however, about the CIA's legal obligation to tell the truth to its own government.

Last month, before Deutch's action, 16 members of Congress wrote to President Clinton asking him to overrule the suspension of Nuccio's security clearance. The White House's bland response was that the case was being dealt with in accordance with the National Security Act. Then Deutch took his action.

When it's an agency of government that's guilty, such punitive action is excessive. It undermines the principle of accountability.

The president has the power to do the right thing and could save the career of a man who, by its own account, served his country well. Where is the president on this issue? [End quoting]

I think CONTACT readers know where the president is on this issue. They hate, persecute and make examples of anyone who tells the truth. When are we going to stop these crooks and thieves?

EX-GOVERNOR OF ARKANSAS HAS A LIVER TRANSPLANT

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 12/26/96, [quoting:]

Former Arkansas Gov. Jim Guy Tucker, who was convicted of fraud and conspiracy in a Whitewater-related trial, received a new liver Wednesday, the Mayo Clinic said.

"Everything apparently has gone off as expected and he is in stable condition," hospital spokeswoman Priscilla Russell said after the four-hour operation.

Tucker, 53, had chronic liver disease and had been on a transplant waiting list for four months, Russell said.

She said the former governor is expected to be in the hospital for 6 to 10 days, followed by up to 8 weeks of recuperation in Rochester, where doctors would monitor his progress and watch for any signs of rejection.

The hospital didn't release information about the liver donor, but said the organ became available Wednesday, prompting the Christmas Day surgery.

"I am deeply grateful for the prayers and good wishes from home and for the willingness of the donor family to share this precious gift of life with me during a time of great tragedy for them," Tucker said in a statement.

Tucker was spared a prison term because of his health but sentenced to four years probation, and resigned from office on July 15.

A judge released him from home detention so he could move to Rochester to await the transplant.

Tucker was convicted May 28 along with James McDougal and his ex-wife Susan McDougal, the former partners of President Clinton and Hillary Rodham Clinton in the Whitewater land deal in Arkansas. The three were accused of fraudulently obtaining and using federally backed loans.

His attorneys filed an appeal last month seeking to overturn his conviction. The appeal claims that there wasn't enough evidence to support the convictions, that prosecutors defamed Tucker unfairly, and that a juror shouldn't have been allowed to serve on the panel.

He also faces trial on a separate indictment accusing him and two other men of plotting to hide profits from a multimillion-dollar cable television deal.

Tucker's attorney failed to persuade the courts that Whitewater independent counsel Kenneth Starr exceeded his authority in bringing the charges, which resulted from the special prosecutor's probes of the financial dealings of Clinton, Tucker's predecessor as governor.

Tucker, a Democrat, is a lawyer who became state attorney general at 29, and at 33 was elected to Congress. He lost races for governor and the Senate before becoming Clinton's lieutenant governor, serving out his term and being elected on his own. [End quoting]

I wonder if he ever gives a thought about ordering Richard Snell's murder??

STICKS AND STONES

From GUIDEPOSTS, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512, [quoting:]

"Chris, you are so stupid." The words tumbled out of 15-year-old Jeff's mouth just as carelessly as the slurp he made while leaning over his cereal bowl. Chris, 12, rattled the sports page. "Mom, tell him I'm right. He's such a loser," Jeff said.

Loser, dummy, stupid... I had quoted Proverbs 12:18 to my sons so many times: "Thoughtless words can wound as deeply as any sword..." (Good News Bible). How often did I have to lecture on their name-calling?

An answer came that night at Chris' Little League game. From the first pitch the game was going our way. The score was 15-1 when something changed. A ball soared high into center field. Chris, number 11, squinted into the lights. Jeff and I held our breath, watching from the stands. The ball dropped—four inches short of Chris' outstretched glove. He scooped the ball off the grass and fired it to second base. "Safe!" the umpire bellowed. Then from somewhere in the gallery I heard a voice yell, "Way to show 'em how to catch, Number Eleven!"

Chris' head dropped as the next batter came up. A piddling grounder grazed off his bat. The first baseman missed it. The voice bellowed, "Come on! Get in the game!" Our defense split wide open. The other team scored a run. With each play, the same voice chided our players. In one inning, the other team managed to put 12 runs across the plate.

On the way home Chris slumped in the backseat. "All those mess-ups started when I missed that pop fly. I felt like an idiot."

Suddenly it dawned on me. "No, Chris. Something else happened. Remember that guy yelling after you missed it?"

"Yeah", Jeff added, "He started in on every kid on the field."

"And he was supposedly on our side," Chris said.

"Mom's right", Jeff said. "That guy's put-downs almost lost us the game."

I had to bite my tongue to keep a sermon from rolling off it. It was good to hear the boys talking like brothers.

The next day at lunch, Chris stuck his hand into the oven to take out a pizza. "Ow!" he shouted, drawing back.

Jeff said, "Pull out the oven rack, stupid."

As I opened my mouth to deliver the same old tired speech, I noticed Chris' head cocked, eyebrows raised.

"I mean," Jeff said, "I'm sorry you burned your hand."

Then I shared a pizza with a couple of winners who are trying to live on the positive side of Proverbs 12:18: "...but wisely spoken words can heal." —Karen Barber, Augusta, Georgia [End quoting]

If we all paid very close attention to these words this world would change drastically—OVERNIGHT.

THE WIZARD OF ID—By Brant Parker and Johnny Hart

Truth Can Be A Threat To Those With Rigid Beliefs

1/10/97 #1 HATONN

A NAME BY ANY OTHER SPELLING IS NOT THE SAME NAME!

Let us look here, for a moment, at "words". Now think about how many times you MISinterpret, or simply forget, a name. Let us say you are a writer, even of news items, and you are faced with identification of say, Quadafi. I have seen it written as Kadaphi, Quadaffi, Quadaphu, and Kadafi. Which is correct? ALL are correct unless you wish to personalize ONE as head of Libya. The same with Mr. Farrakhan who is over there in Libya meeting with this person named (possibly) above. Who is this Farrakhan? Or is it Farikhan? How about Farrukaun? Could it be Farikhun? Perhaps it is Farrikhan? Or perhaps Ferrakhan? Is THIS one important? Only if you are referring specifically to the Leader of the Nation of Islam in the United States of America!

Let's go a bit further now and into something that causes Dharma a LOT OF GRIEF as people pour on the "I know better" and "you speak heresy". "Your paper is good if you would just leave out the garbage about God, because you have it ALL WRONG." Wrong? We have it all wrong? From whence did YOU get your information? Let us even look at the word "whence", or is it wince? Perhaps it is whince? Or, wence? Does it matter? Yes, wince means to "pull back quickly" as in a sort of grimace, or is it grimice? Perhaps it is gremace? At any rate, MY usage of the word whence is to inquire of YOUR source of your information so bluntly judging ours to be wrong? Have you ever been mistakenly called by another name or ARRESTED for a crime committed by another because your name is close to the same and identification is not fully explored? Lots of people have even been slain for lack of proper identification. Don't you have better methods for full identification than they did in Jerusalem some 2000 years ago? Still, misinformation is pressed forth in the media, in the press, in everyday language. How do YOU pronounce Brzezinski? You know, that chap called Zbigniew. He is a VERY important person in your world and how many of you can spell his name if I take away the spelling laid forth here? Perhaps your name is Brownen, but perhaps the "en" is not pronounced clearly—how think you might be called?

Well, ladies and gentlemen, whether or not YOU LIKE IT—there was no Judas Iscariot who betrayed a man named Immanuel that you call Jesus. "Jesus" was a name attached to Esu (I)(J)(E)mmanuel of the House of Joseph AFTER Paul (Saul of Tarsus) went to Greece

People want to make spirituality and sacredness more than it is. It's a part of life and it comes with each and every breath.

1/1/92 Little Crow

after the alleged crucifixion of "Jesus". I am NOT arguing religion—I AM pointing out that accidental, if not deliberate, tampering and mistranslation has TAKEN PLACE. Remember that the New Testament was not written until some 300 YEARS after the departure of this Jesus man. And, furthermore, JESUS NEVER WROTE ANYTHING! Therefore, you have unlearned men carving or scratching in stone some tales long AFTER the events. Do you think you could give ACCURATE information even TODAY about the downed TWA Flight 800? Oh? It was Pan Am? Are YOU sure? Who told you? Have those sources EVER made an error? Now, please, tell me the list of passengers on that crashed plane. Please make sure you SPELL their names correctly because it CERTAINLY DOES MATTER. Oh, and by the way, I want CORRECT information as in the time of day, date, exact coordinates and all the valid information making up FACT, not FICTION.

You who are unbending in your staunch belief that a thing has to be a certain way—how can you know? Even the person complaining the loudest and most nastily about this topic misspelled word after word in his diatribe. But what do we get in counter-lip? "Well, damn it, you know what I mean..." "I" know what "YOU" mean? No, I do not know what you mean. Further, it matters little what you mean if you be incorrect, other than perhaps YOU ARE THE FOOL and not I.

JUDAS ISCARIOTH, JUDAH IHARIOTH, JUDAS ISCARIOT

So, will the REAL kisser of death and betrayer of one Esu Emmanuel stand up? No, I didn't say "Jesus", although I can toss that one in for your own comfort. Will the real betrayer of Jesus stand forth, please? IS THERE POSSIBILITY AFTER 2000 YEARS THAT SOMEONE MISSPELLED THE NAME? How about the fact that FALSE INFORMATION was, as in most crimes, projected to protect the guilty? The guilty in this instance being the son of a HIGH-RANKING PHARISEE. The man named Judas Iscariot (THAT YOU FALSELY LABEL JUDAS ISCARIOT) was the closest friend to the Master Teacher of any of his friends. However, the one who betrayed the Master Teacher was Judah Iharioth, the son of the Town Political Head, a Pharisee. Does this make any difference? Of course it makes tremendous difference!

What if your name is Clinton, even Bill Clinton, and the police come and arrest you for "Clinton's" indiscretions with one Paula Jones? Do you even know this Paula Jones? Would you be upset or anything? Once they execute you for these crimes can you protect yourself? How? If the political powers that be DECIDE TO PLACE BLAME ON YOU TO PROTECT THE PRESIDENT, HOW ARE YOU GOING TO PROVE YOU ARE NOT BILL CLINTON? AFTER ALL, THAT IS YOUR NAME AND PERHAPS THAT HAS BEEN YOUR NAME FOR EXACTLY AS LONG AS IT HAS BEEN SLICK WILLIE'S NAME. Clinton's Father was not even "Clinton", he came from the Blyth family tree of the Rockefeller clan.

So, COULD SOMEONE, in 2000 years with thousands of language translations, be INCORRECT—possibly?

So again, when anyone bashes me and/or my secretary for writing something, is it not just possible that perhaps someone else could have erred? I am not "protecting" as the accusation goes, one Judas Iscariot—there simply was no Judas Iscariot in any connection, when the Teacher was betrayed. Perhaps you might wish to consider just WHO is in error?

There are even errors in AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL. The scrolls are in ancient Arabic-Hebrew, translated into Greek, among other languages, and then finally into German. How many of THESE LANGUAGES do "YOU" speak? Well, if you didn't speak Ancient Arabic then you MADE MISTAKES in both spelling and translation for one language is symbols and the other alphabetic—but try YOUR ENGLISH ALPHABET on Ancient Greek! Modern Greek? Well, how about Ancient Aramaic? Oops, I erred above, the scrolls were in Ancient Aramaic—so, do you speak fluent Aramaic? In what language WAS IT that translated Judas Iscariot into placement? And believe me, even you skeptics, this new Emmanuelian theory of such as Christianity was the cult to end all cults! Oh, you thought it was the Jesuan Theory of something or other? No, the man (Master Teacher) taught the TRUTH of "CHRIST"-ness versus the concept of EVIL being the right way to go. So, this "Jesus" was called the Teacher of Christ Theory of "goodness" (GOD-NESS), the Atonian realization of THE "ONE" GOD. He did not, either, blunder into calling God, The Creation. There is "God" and there is "The Creation" and one is a PART of the other, but is NOT the SAME.

So then, does Dharma have total recall? Does she have total visual memory retention? Does she have a photographic memory? No, none of the above. She is bright and can LEARN—but I HAVE TOTAL RECALL, A PHOTOGRAPHIC RETENTION, etc. All she needs to have to work for me is being able to type letters on a keyboard and accept the responsibility of not EDITING, to please her "rathers", the material. Have you people not had enough LIES? You are in a mess, people, so DON'T YOU WANT TRUTH in order to straighten out your very lives? Certainly NO ONE FROM HERE IS FORCING ANYTHING ONTO ANY-ONE! You don't think much of my input? Well, frankly, I don't think much of your unlearned input. I look and study ALL; you REFUSE to even consider possibilities. Who might well have the most knowledge? I didn't say intelligence, I said "knowledge". If my input be incorrect—PROVE IT. I can PROVE your input is incorrect. I can begin to prove it by asking someones of you, who had a birthday last May, on what day of the week did that fall? What did you have for breakfast that morning? Did they bomb the Oklahoma City building that morning or did they burn Waco—do you remember? Oh, that was in April? April 9th, 12th or 19th? And was it LAST year? From which channel or radio station were you gaining your information or was it from a friend or paper? What friend and what paper and where did FRIEND get his/her information? How many days lapsed before the Natives of Alaska learned of the Bombing? How about Brazilians?

Check yourself right now: Do you have a current set of Encyclopedias? Do you have a current World Almanac? HOW MUCH OF EITHER HAVE YOU ACTUALLY STUDIED WITH INTENT TO KNOW CONTENTS? THEN WHY DO YOU TREAT YOUR VERY SOUL WITH SO LITTLE ATTENTION TO ITS NEED FOR TRUTH?

Tell me what your pancreas does, please. How about the hypothalamus? The pineal? What about the Eustacian tubes? Or is that eustaction tubes? Perhaps Eustacean? What about your Fallopian tubes? Your, er, Fillopeans? Your Philappoians? Phaloppians? Felopians? Falopians? Falloprians? Well, which is it? "It" are "they" and a female cannot bear children if those tubes are not present and open. HOW MUCH DO YOU KNOW ABOUT YOURSELF? Strangely enough, I know all about MYSELF. Further, I can tell you that in English it is Fallopian. In Greek or Latin, however, it is not even recognizable as the SAME thing. How dare you pronounce me an evil liar because YOU DON'T KNOW VERY MUCH ABOUT ANYTHING?

So, the man you NOW call "Jesus", but was not, was NOT BETRAYED by Judas Iscariot and no matter how I might wish to make it be so—for you, it is NOT TRUE. All the voting in of the names and circumstances WILL NOT MAKE IT ONE IOTA TRUTH. And no, I don't care what Paul (remember old Saul of Tarsus, the ENEMY of Jesus Christ [as you label him??]) wrote or said about the subject. I don't care what Peter wrote—if it was not so, it was not, and IS NOT, so. Truth does NOT change with the whims of man. Truth is infinite and never changes—lies are like the wind and never hold truth—not even for one moment in time. And when you speak of Judeo-Christian religions you are as absurd in every instance as saying the Lie-Truth religion. It simply cannot be for one is in extreme opposition to the other. If you have Jewish religion which denies a messiah in the form of Emmanuel or Jesus or whatever and you have another based on the very belief that Jesus is Christ—you have extreme opposites and they cannot meld one within the other. If you want to have a religion based on mutual possibilities—try the CORRECT history books, not such as a "BIBLE" called "holy".

If, however, YOU DESIRE TRUTH IN SPIRITUALITY and wish to live those ideals—you must go within and KNOW TRUTH, PRESENT TRUTH AND ACT TRUTH. Anything that moves you away from God of Light IN TRUTH—is "away from God" and is simply identified and defined as "evil", no more or less. If you assume there to be no evil—then look again at the definition for there is evil in abundance and you go further and pronounce "SIN" upon the actions. Well, "sin" is an error in efforting to reach that which is perfection. Good or bad has little meaning. Right and Wrong are totally useful words.

MILES MUZIO, INTREPID WEATHERMAN OF CHANNEL 29

Now for you locals, i.e. Rick, who spoke with Miles Muzio, the neighbor across the street from Ekkers and of Channel 29, Bakersfield, about court the other day and he laughed and referred to Doris as "the E.T. Princess", etc. He works with one Rusty Shoup. Well, Doris practically reared Rusty's brother Steve who was a very, very close friend of son, Gene. Remember that the Ekkers lived for nearly two decades in La Crescenta, Los Angeles, Calif. Small world? Well, yes indeed. Therefore, I would suggest you call him back and ask him to ask Rusty to ask Steve just how crazy are the Ekkers?!? There is an interesting side-note, however, for the last time Steve came to visit he was in a rock band of some sort, had orange and purple hair in peaks, a rock/zoot suit and looked like something as far-out as Rusty ever got. If you want character references, however, GO TO ONES WHO KNOW THE TRUTH—EKKERS WERE THE ONES WHO TOOK THESE KIDS, including Steve, CAMPING, RIDING, TO THE OCEAN, OVER FOR DINNER AND ALWAYS HAD A BED FOR THEM. Let us get some light on who is nuts and who is totally happy to be UNINFORMED. Perhaps some of you should mail Mr. Muzio this message since his address is so nearly the same as Ekkers, i.e., 21516 Adam Drive, Tehachapi, Ca., 93561.

Don't misunderstand, readers, Mr. Muzio was not even disrespectful and it was even quite humorous. It is simply that a struggle against all odds for Ekkers to stay alive in court SHOULD HAVE NO REFERENCE TO ANYTHING ELSE—ESPECIALLY E.T. PRINCESSES AND "EVERYBODY KNOWS ABOUT 'THEM'..." I ask, what does ANYONE really KNOW about them? Can you see what gossip and misinterpretations of things can merit the gossip? That nice meteorologist, for instance, becomes a tool of the Elite factions in this town for he is publicly recognized for his television persona. He becomes the very vessel to fill with Jason Brent's garbage for the Elite always want to be seen associating with the public figures—especially politicians who want election to ruling posts. I chuckle for it is EKKERS who can put Miles Muzio into a position of having a whole network under his management and, if he likes, ownership. Sometimes we just don't make wise choices, DO WE?

Who would YOU believe? The man who advertises as does Jason Brent: Shark? You bet! Or someone who takes kids camping to allow them to have something to do other than drugs and shooting one another? Would you have someone who forms conspiracies against YOU-THE-PEOPLE or ones who simply try to tell the TRUTH, and LIVE the truth? How long must nice, honest people have to lose everything they have to the "sharks" who eat people alive at any cost and form coalitions with others WHO ARE KNOWN TO BE LIARS, CHEATS AND THIEVES, unless of course, you don't consider the THEFT of $400,000 a problem. Well, perhaps it is no larger than stealing a home and property but BOTH do considerable hurt to the one who is the brunt of such actions. The interesting thing is the JOINING IN CONSPIRATORIAL COALITION one with the others against the TRUTH that we find most intriguing—and getting away with these lies and misbehaviors for year upon year while the atrocities get even worse and worse. However, remember something, it was said by a great mind, that the more outrageous the LIE, the easier it is for the most people to believe. Moreover, distract the masses with some distraction of interest and they will never again even bother to look at the original indiscretion. Why is it easier FOR YOU TO BELIEVE THE LIES than the simple truth?

How many of you have longer an interest in O.J. Simpson even though the defense team is PROVING that Simpson is innocent and has even shown OTHER proven players in the game? Are you more interested in the kid shot in Bakersfield? Oh, you didn't even know about that? Well, what about the little Miss America, or whatever, strangled (by an insider) the day after Christmas? This was a six-year-old baby who was presented and shown like a 30-year-old doll or painted fake pottery. How many of you will watch Dr. Golden's rerun blood evidence rather than get the gore and details of a rape and murder of the little stage doll? Can you see how far you as a society have digressed when the boy in Bakersfield is left unnoted and an unknown child wrapped in intrigue and sexual overtones is sought after with relentless push and shove, along with atrocious speculations about everything and anything. The boy in Bakersfield was shot in front of a school but, oh well, it was "gang related". Well, gang related is what is going to kill off you nice people in the most amazing numbers, not the killer in Boulder, Colorado. And, further, the GANGS who build killers will not care whether or not you are a beauty queen or even important.

You spend more time arguing over such stupid things as Ebonics and Spanenglish (no, I jest not) than you do noting that you no longer have reasonable English to be taught in any of the schools, not to mention slang usage by individual stereotypes and cultures. About the only real math taught any longer is how many bullets fit into a "six-gun". And by the way, if that is blood on the Shroud of Turin—why doesn't somebody do some DNA on it? Oh, you don't have anything or anyone to type it AGAINST? Well, guess what, you rarely have such luxury. And, the tests are only as good as the operator! The very BEST WAY TO SET-UP SOMEONE FOR ANYTHING—is to scatter some blood around and have it typed by a conspiratorial buddy in the laboratory. And lie detectors? An agent in any enforcement agency is required to be able to fool a lie detector machine. It is mandatory in the CIA and probably the FBI. That test proves so little that it is still not acceptable as evidence in TRIAL. And further, DNA testing can only be utilized to RULE OUT a given suspect as to paternity.

Hummmn, and IF your tales are correct about all people stemming from one Adam and one Eve, you have a real problem, don't you? That means that through incest you have created a massive population of related human beings and DNA would prove as much. Wow!! Now that is a Zinger, isn't it? Well, THAT was in your Holy Bible! If you can't "well I mean..." that one—then why do you perceive that Judas Iscariot might have NOT been Juda Iharioth? For in any event, the person in dispute is one Judas Iscarioth! And don't you think that mistake of calling that man Judas Iscariot might well be possible? Who ends up looking the fool in such an argument over POSSIBILITIES? And remember something, even you most staunch debaters: with God EVERYTHING IS POSSIBLE! Worse yet for you disagreeable rut-dwellers, with God even "I" am possible and you might well be wise to hold that in your hearts.

And who does Dharma claim to be? Doris Elouise Jones Ekker, a human female, mother and grandmother who prefers cooking to typing, raising and playing with birds rather than puppies and dwells in a rented property across the street from Miles Muzio in Tehachapi, California, U.S.A. She is a former resident of Athenia, Greece, Texas and California. She has blood and not green insect chlorophyll; she doesn't have blossom petals for eyelashes or hair, she speaks only English (a great disadvantage) and has a medical educational background, having served Children's Hospital of Los Angeles for a decade in Dialysis and Transplantation programs. Does this an E.T. Princess make? So be it! Is that the background of your ordinary Transient Flake as Jason Brent labelled the Ekkers? Does this background seem to add up to being the ones who "destroyed the S&Ls" according to public statements by Jason Brent? Does this background seem to point to E.T. Princesses and Princes? Doris worked with and for MANY "Jewish Princes and Princesses"—and loved them all and they adored her. Does that make her anti-Semitic as both Horn and Jason Brent stated and used in court against these people? What is the matter with you people? What have you as a population of so-called citizens lowered yourselves to becoming? Doris ran an outpatient medical clinic in a prestigious area of Detroit, Michigan—with ALL "Jewish" physicians and they not only worked well together but absolutely loved one another—and certainly anti-Semitic was not even a known term in those "ancient" of days.

Jason Brent labels Ekkers as people he "VIOLENTLY (and that is a STRONG word) dislikes"—under oath in legal documentations. He calls them anti-Semitic cult members. Well, this same man RUNS ads in the paper for Jews to join together in a group in Tehachapi and to contact him for membership arrangements. Is this not asking people to come and join a cult of some kind? I guess he would call it "Semitic" but the Jews, as in Jason Brent, are not Semites (from the tribes of Shem)—WE ARE. Now, how do you like those historical FACTS?

I am, yes indeed, having some problems with Dharma who is simply exhausted with the ongoing battle—"for what"? Even ones close, when they don't like what I write, simply mark it off as Doris having input on a bad day. No, Dharma does NOT have input even on a bad day, week, month or year and when Doris has enough—Doris makes a statement! Opinions? Yes. Don't you have opinions? Or, do YOU always tout SOMEONE ELSE'S opinions? Doris will never even make her opinions to reflect what might be MINE unless she absolutely agrees. If you work for someone: ARE YOU THAT SOMEONE? If you work for CNN are YOU MR. TED TURNER OR MR. TIME-WARNER? If you clerk and charge the prices demanded by Mr. Price or Mr. Costco and PriceCostco—are YOU MR. PRICE OR COSTCO? No such persons? HOW DO YOU KNOW? PROVE IT TO ME! I know 'A' Mr. Price—does he own Costco? Who cares? More importantly, I know a man named Gary who starts up such as PriceCostco and Fedco and is waiting to do a layout commercial operation for US if we ever get beyond the Green Brigade and the Horn-Brent coalition of liars, thieves, and cheats. And by the way, whatever Ekkers may or may not have—HAS NOT ONE IOTA OF ANYTHING TO DO WITH ME. Because YOU know someone who, or you yourself, works for Costco does it mean that the owner's property is somehow YOURS? Take it and you will find that you have done what Mr. Green did—steal from your own boss. And oh yes, indeed, I do mean "boss" as in employer. And no, I don't mean Ekker-Ekker-Phoenix as had become the legal Abbott-Horton tag to misinform the Judicial processing Judges involved. I work for GOD so in effect MR. GREEN stole FROM MY BOSS, GOD! THAT IS NOT NICE.

Ah, but it is supposed to be so easy to steal from God because God is just supposed to lay around like a limp wad of rag and do nothing but bless you, turn his cheek, and allow you to get away with everything, including MURDER. Well, wrong, readers. God is not that way! You who "get" God and abuse truth and right actions—will get your own tricks back on you EVERY TIME. Just WATCH my bouncing markers in this "sing-along".

I hope I have responded adequately to the writers who denounce possibilities that some of what we write may just be factual truth and not simply plagiarism. I might well warn you that errors in "copied" material far exceed any you will find in ours. Just WHO copied WHO first? It IS important to CORRECTLY know that answer. I would suggest that even in the case of Walter Russell, HE COPIED THE WORK OF ONE YOU CALL "JESUS" CHRIST. Is that plagiarism? Is it plagiarism if YOU quote from the "good book"? Which book? I And My Father Are One, God Is Light, and on and on and on—is this plagiarized material? Well, a funny thing happens at the forum of literary censorship: the copyright industry to protect myths and possible disinformation, the Bibles you use are COPYRIGHTED, readers. Go look for yourselves. And, therefore, anyone writing after the Master Teacher walked your shores, is PLAGIARIZING the presentation of LIGHT, LOVE, TOTALITY, DUALITY, VOIDANCE and ETERNAL BEING—I don't care who they are! Does anyone think US&P, even Walter Russell, has a corner on electricity, pulses, gravity, unity, duality, motion, non-motion, etc? Walter Russell GAVE THE WORLD his work and said so—somebody came along AFTER RUSSELL and got it copyrighted! You see, we never made it to trial on this matter. Nothing was used that was copyrighted. The only book Doris even had available was a 1927 early, early Edition of Russell's work and it bears NO COPYRIGHT INFORMATION.

Any other material was from a Study Course PURCHASED at full price as a STUDENT LEARNING COURSE (so a student does, don't they, have a right to learn?). Moreover THAT PARTICULAR ISSUING OF THE HOME STUDY COURSE—WAS WITHOUT VALID COPYRIGHT—PROVEN IN THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

Now they are back, suing for Contempt of Court, my scribe, because others erred in using material passing the checkers and slipping through because they were personally done letters, etc., for specific personal usage. Fine, if you think the "Monkey" trial (Scopes) was interesting and certainly public-attention-getting—let's try the subject of GOD, WHO IS GOD AND WHAT IS GOD, for openers. And what do you think that litigation might cost such as US&P? Doris might not be able to counter-sue now because there is an agreement she was caused to sign to not do competitive business against US&P—but if they toss her into prison for this UNJUST cause and claim—oh my...! And competitive business? Say what? There has not been one cent of anything for Ekkers—ever in this whole line of interchange—only painful outgo, expenses, endless court cases, loss through direct theft and USERS, always there are the takers and users. Well, they better start USING someone else because there is no longer ability to simply smash, at will, these people who simply serve and share to the very best of their ability. It would behoove those such as Timothy Binder to LEARN FACTS about these people AND ABOUT THE ONES WHO HAVE FED HIM LIES AND DIS-MIS- INFORMATION.

US&P is considered, by definition, a "cult".

There is nothing here even remotely resembling anything other than some friends. There isn't even A corporation on which to focus, particularly; there is no church, religion, group or ORGANIZATION here upon which to focus and point fingers. Any finger pointing has been done by ones in DISINFORMATION PROJECTING. When George Green left this place even the taint of such a thing as "followers" went with him—according to his OWN CLAIMS. He told the world that even "Commander Hatonn went with him and Desirée", so be it, he can certainly have whatever he wants of that ilk of bad publicity and FALSE claims.

When we are writing as now, Doris has no way to know what I might be using as backup material. I don't come forth as a fortune teller with great and grand revelations to shock or intrigue you—I BRING YOU TRUTH AS IT EXISTS. She knows Isaac Newton's Principia Mathematicus better than she knows anything about Walter Russell and knows NOTHING about US&P and/or one Timothy Binder. George Green on the other hand CLAIMS intimate working relationship with Binder, seminar joint speakers, has hidden and secret settlements, etc., with him and US&P. Green was the publisher of any material that was published by America West. Green got permission for use of material and that is proven, from Mullins to others like Coleman, that he also used badly. WHY did he not clear any possible toe-stomping? He claims he knew Binder, Russell, et al. Doris never claimed ANYTHING, much the less seminar circuit contacts. Ah, Pandora's Box is filled to overflow with lots of secret things which are now, like emerging moths, flying about here and there and landing on so many as to be shocking. Green's lies and conspiratorial associations run from Costa Rica, Puerto Rico, Texas, Nevada, Montana, California, Colorado—and gobs of other places. I find it interesting that Timothy Binder even has a place in MONTANA and the assumption from Green's babblings is that they have/had a really close relationship. George describes Binder as being "just a Prince of Guy". Oh, and just how would Green know this when HE WAS THE ONE NAMED FIRST in the original legal confrontation? George went even further, however, and somehow got away with continuing to sell the banned books while getting Doris saddled with Contempt of Court charges. Green also used EVEN EKKERS' ATTORNEY to work with Binder's attorney to get the BOOKS, IN COURT, released TO HIMSELF.

Prince of a guy? Well, perhaps the BLIND prince of Nottingham? We have no bone to pick with Timothy Binder or anyone else. Further, we cannot offer more honor to any mortal person than to Chief Melford Okilo who is the just recently deposed C.E.O. and President of US&P. We will continue to offer whatever we can share with Chief Okilo who will now be moving back to Nigeria. That in itself seems a most interesting turn of events, to me. However, frankly speaking, I have now decided it not even worthy to try for any pleasant association with that organization for there seems to be nothing similar between what is preached and what is practiced—in the name of one gone on before. I further find it quite unacceptable that anyone would take the inventions, ideas and offerings of GREAT SCIENTIFIC MINDS as are Russell and Tesla—and utilize them for personal gain and patent purposes. However, to each his own method of assumption of property. I wonder if they also copyright DaVinci's work and notebooks? Do you suppose they copy any of Tesla's works—after all, WE HOLD ORIGINAL PUBLICATIONS OF THOSE PATENTS from Nikola Tesla, and also, the works of DaVinci.

I need to leave this now and, no thank you, you who are going to direct my work, either here or anywhere around your dimensional space. I write what I find necessary to write. I do, however, honor any commitments and will not break an agreement intentionally—EVER. I especially would not get my secretary in trouble for my own indiscretions and inattention if I can catch a blunder in time. There were no blunders, however, only snitches in the form of Ann Beam, George Green, Fort, et al. Mr. Binder is simply MIS-INFORMED and when he wakes up—he may well find he has the foundation for a full blown and legitimate SUIT AGAINST THAT GREEN BRIGADE for misleading him with false and mis-information. Or, perhaps there is that wondrous new BUSINESS relationship now formed, as Mr. Green boasts, for his "Development" programs. If so, then perhaps Mr. Binder might well look more carefully at his opponent and also more carefully at that shrewd multi-millionaire developer who claims he shares his projects NOW. Oh yes, Dr. Binder, it is being scattered all over the radio waves. And, further, the very Judge "Coyle" before whom you hold this new suit in court also holds major cases against Green et al. George Green EMBEZZLED (stole) gold, funds, projects, etc., from us—do you THINK he will not USE YOU, Sir? He, and his buddies, have already given you supposedly unsuspecting ones, the kiss of the serpent. When a man lies to everyone ELSE—think ye not that that man will NOT LIE TO YOU?

Good morning and keep up your chin, typist, for God also has a Plan 2000.

FRANK AND ERNEST

The Untold History Of America

Part XV of a Series

Editor's note: Part I of this bold series was presented in the 8/13/96 issue of CONTACT; Part II was presented in the 8/20/96 issue; Part III was presented in the 8/27/96 issue; Part IV was presented in the 9/3/96 issue; Part V was presented in the 9/10/96 issue; Part VI was presented in the 9/17/96 issue; Part VII was presented in the 9/24/96 issue; Part VIII was presented in the 10/1/96 issue; Part IX was presented in the 10/8/96 issue; Part X was presented in the 10/15/96 issue; Part XI was presented in the 10/22/96 issue; Part XII was presented in the 11/5/96 issue; Part XIII was presented in the 11/19/96 issue; Part XIV was presented in the 11/26/96 issue.

1/8/97 RAY BILGER

Chief Seattle of the Dwamish tribe of the Pacific Northwest surrendered his land to the White Man in 1855 in the Port Elliott Treaty, thereby dooming his people to the confinement of reservation life. At the signing of the treaty, he made the following speech, (quoting:)

My people are few. They resemble the scattering trees of a storm-swept plain... There was a time when our people covered the land as the waves of a wind-ruffled sea cover its shell-paved floor, but that time long since passed away with the greatness of tribes that are now but a mournful memory...

To us the ashes of our ancestors are sacred and their resting place is hallowed ground. You wander far from the graves of your ancestors and seemingly without regret. Your religion was written on tablets of stone by the iron finger of your God so that you could not forget. The Red Man could never comprehend nor remember it. Our religion is the traditions of our ancestors—the dreams of our old men, given them in the solemn hours of night by the Great Spirit, and the visions of our Chiefs, and is written in the hearts of our people.

Your dead cease to love you and the land of their nativity as soon as they pass the portals of the tomb and wander away beyond the stars. They are soon forgotten and never return. Our dead never forget the beautiful world that gave them being...

When the last Red Man shall have perished, and the memory of my tribe shall have become a myth among the White Man, these shores will swarm with the invisible dead of my tribe, and when your children's children think themselves alone in the field, the store, the shop, or in the silence of the pathless woods, they will not be alone... At night when the streets of your cities and villages are silent and you think them deserted, they will throng with the returning hosts that once filled them and still love this beautiful land. The White Man will never be alone.

Let him be just and deal kindly with my people, for the dead are not powerless. Dead, I say? There is no death. Only a change of worlds. (End quoting)

Chief Seattle is correct about the returning hosts. And he is correct in stating that there is no death. Those who know and understand this realize that there is only transition, and not termination. Yet wars have brought much "death", and as the decades since World War II have unfolded, the Elite Controllers have exercised less and less respect for individual lives. Consequently, more and more individuals were eliminated (dead) as they were perceived to be threats against the Elite's corrupt world system. In the 1960s alone, John F. Kennedy, "patsy" Lee Harvey Oswald, "expendable" Jack Ruby, Robert F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King come to mind as obvious examples of this. However, for each of these, there are many others who go unrecognized, who died of everything from knowing too much, to overdosing on heroin, to tripping on L.S.D. and jumping out of windows, thinking they could fly (like Art Linkletter's daughter), to being the victims of the Elite's Vietnam War.

The killing also included underworld figures of Mafia families, as they battled for power and control over the business in America's cities and the drug and prostitution industries that flourished there.

Some have contended that the heroin epidemic that plagued America's city streets in the decades following World War II was due in part to our Cold War crusade. This is, in some measure, no doubt true, but it might be more accurate to say that the proliferation of heroin, and all drugs for that matter, into America's streets was and is part of a much larger overall plan to destroy America's youth and, as a consequence, America's future!

Just after the conclusion of World War II, from 1946 to 1954, the French maintained control over Vietnam, shipping morphine (a derivative of opium) from Saigon directly to Marseille, France. It was there that the morphine was processed into heroin, with significant quantities destined for America's cities. The Central Intelligence Agency (C.I.A.) was instrumental in wresting control of Vietnam from the French in 1954. The C.I.A.'s Colonel Edward Lansdale (later to become General Lansdale, implicated by Col. Fletcher Prouty as having been instrumental in the assassination of J.F.K.) played a primary role in the operation.

Interestingly, on July 21, 1954, the "Final Settlement" conference on Indochina held in Geneva, Switzerland, prohibited the introduction of foreign troops, arms and munitions into Vietnam. With Vietnam under United States control, the C.I.A. was well on its way to becoming the largest drug dealer in the world!

As the demand for heroin increased, Southeast Asia met the demand. What has become known as the Golden Triangle (eastern Burma, northern Thailand, and northern Laos) became by 1967 the world's largest source of heroin, which was then being manufactured from morphine in the same area. Although Americans would be told that the Vietnam War was fought to halt the spread of Communism, the real reason was for heroin, for the irresistible profits to be reaped by a handful of powerful defense contractors and oil companies and ultimately to control the people through fear of a perceived enemy.

John Stockwell, who was the C.I.A. Officer-in-Charge of Tay Ninh Province of Vietnam from 1973 to 1975, stated unequivocally that the way it worked was that military pilots flew many American generals with suitcases full of heroin from northern Thailand down to Bangkok or to Saigon, and there they helped to escort the generals through customs and onto flights to the United States. The heroin would bring enormous profits to a few, while destroying America's youth.

The Italian Mafia had gotten its start in America in the late 1800s as Italians immigrated to this country. America offered endless opportunities for the Mob to prosper, whether the nation was at peace or at war. By the 1950s, the government was beginning to show some real interest in correcting this problem. No doubt this was due to public opposition to Mob activities (even though there has always been some mystique that surrounds stories about the Mafia).

In February of 1950, President Truman's Attorney General, J. Howard McGrath, heard the cry and responded by calling a Conference on Organized Crime. The result of the conference was a general agreement that the government should not encroach on the responsibility and authority of local officials. Other committees followed shortly thereafter, which had a profound impact on the public because nationwide television, then in its infancy, had seized the opportunity to fill many hours of airtime with the hearings.

By 1955, a Senate Subcommittee on Improvements in the Federal Criminal Code held hearings around the country, looking into Federal laws on narcotics trafficking. The outcome was mandatory minimum sentences of 5 years for the first offense and 10 years for the second. Suddenly, the previous practice of fixing the judge would no longer work—he was now bound by law to hand out no less than the minimum sentence.

It immediately became obvious to organized crime that the risk now involved with narcotics was no longer worth the reward. Thus, the Mafia began its slow withdrawal from the narcotics business. Some of the younger men still found the enormous profits appealing enough to take the chance of arrest.

Knowing that dealing in drugs is one of the top

All wisdom is not taught in your schools!

Hawaiian Proverb

five money-making transactions in the world, the question arises—was all of this a concerted effort from the very highest levels of the World Controllers to take the drugs out of the hands of the Mafia (who were, in essence, small-time compared to those who run the world) and make an agency of the U.S. Government, the C.I.A., the number one drug dealer in the world? After all, by 1954 the C.I.A. was controlling Southeast Asia, the new source of heroin!!

Early in 1957, yet another congressional committee began a probe into Mob activities. The Senate Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field was composed of such notables as John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts (his brother, Robert F. Kennedy, was Chief Counsel of the Committee), Barry Goldwater of Arizona, and Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin. But the committee found that, even though they could get big headlines, labor racketeering was even harder to do something about!

The decade of the 1950s saw the real development of what would become known as the military-industrial complex. This complex included (and was actually dependent upon), of course, the U.S. Congress. The Congress, the U.S. Military, and the defense contractors were in a cozy relationship to keep America well armed against a perceived (fabricated?) Communist threat. These elements became more and more intertwined as military officers, upon retiring, moved directly into major positions within the defense manufacturing corporations they had had relations with while they were still in the military. In fact, a Senate report showed that the one hundred largest defense contractors, who held 67% of all military contracts, employed more than two thousand former high-ranking officers of the military. Doesn't that sound like a conflict of interest? Sadly, this situation only became worse as time went on.

Meanwhile, in the area of economic aid to foreign countries, the major expenditures by the U.S. were designed to build up military power in so-called "non-Communist" countries. Between 1952 and 1962, of the $50 billion in aid granted by the United States to ninety countries, only $5 billion, or 10%, was for non-military economic development. In essence, during the decade of the 1950s, 90% of our economic aid to foreign countries was for military purposes. Things haven't really changed in this area either. This brilliantly designed policy armed the ninety countries who were the recipients of our foreign aid so that they could fight against each other, thereby providing some justification for the existence of the United Nations. This gave the U.N. something to do as it worked out its agenda of implementing a One World Government.

In 1954, the Census Act was passed by Congress, creating the Census Bureau. From that year forward each and every Citizen of the United States of America would be counted and known. Is it a coincidence that the "Internal Revenue Code of 1954" was enacted the same year?

In October of 1956, President Dwight D. Eisenhower stated that, "The continuance of the present rate of H-bomb (Hydrogen Bomb) testing... does not imperil the health of humanity." The fact of the matter, however, seems to indicate that it was becoming well known that the damage to humans from atomic radiation and radioactive fallout was quite substantial. The announcement by the president appears to have been pure doublespeak designed to make the public believe what he said. And the public must have liked what Ike said because he was re-elected one month later, in November of 1956, by a landslide. Then, in August of 1957, the Atomic Energy Commission (A.E.C.) was created. One month later, in September, the A.E.C. oversaw the first underground detonation of an atomic device near Las Vegas, Nevada. If the explosions were so safe, as Ike had said, why were they now being conducted underground???

In 1958, the Eisenhower Government sent thousands of Marines to Lebanon to insure that the pro-

American government there was not toppled by a revolution. (The international oil companies also appreciated the visible armed presence in the area.) Things would be a bit different in Cuba.

Of course, the hunt for Communists under every woodpile continued unabated. After all, we were in the midst of a Cold War. On June 30, 1958, the Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of firing a subway conductor for refusing to reveal if he was a member of the Communist Party. On June 8, 1959, the Supreme Court upheld the right of Congress and the individual states to investigate Communism. And three months later, on September 14, 1959, the Landrum-Griffin Act was passed, which prohibited Communists from holding union office. America's Cold War policy was designed to permit us to exercise more aggressive actions abroad, while allowing more repressive actions at home.

A short ninety miles south of Miami, Florida lies the beautiful island nation of Cuba. For years the Cuban economy had been dominated by United States corporate interests. American companies controlled 80-100% of Cuba's utilities, mines, cattle ranches and oil refineries. They controlled 40% of the sugar industry and 50% of the public railways. Havana, with its exciting night life, prostitution and gambling (and the obvious Mafia connections), was a very popular party destination for the Elite. Cuba's American-backed dictator was Fulgencio Batista.

The overwhelming control of their country by foreigners didn't make the Cuban people very happy. Imagine if that kind of control existed in America—would you like it? (It's actually worse in America, but most don't realize it.) In 1953 (one year before the C.I.A. coup that overthrew the government of Guatemala), a young Cuban attorney organized a bold assault against Fort Moncada, the island's second largest military base. The young attorney and his 150 followers were unsuccessful, but they gained vast public recognition and sympathy from Cubans for their bravery and patriotism. That brave attorney was imprisoned and released two years later. His name was Fidel Castro.

The United States Government created Fidel Castro through our very support of the American and multinational corporations which raped the island nation for their own benefit. In other words, those who make living conditions intolerable make revolutionary change inevitable! At a certain point the Cuban people said enough is enough, and they only needed a leader who represented and focused the popular discontent into a full-fledged revolutionary movement. And that leader was Fidel Castro.

In America today we can see there has been the same sort of development of an intolerable situation for the American people. But here the situation has been made increasingly more intolerable for quite some time through systems and means for mind controlling the masses which, until now, have contained the situation without allowing it to explode. One cannot, however, expect the intolerable situation in America to remain contained forever, and the time for change appears to have arrived. Let us hope we have a revolution in understanding, an Awakening, if you will, for anything less will probably result in even more brutal repression of Americans.

Fidel Castro went to Mexico and met with the famous Argentine revolutionary leader Che Guevara, and then returned to Cuba in 1956. Castro fought guerrilla warfare from the jungles and mountains against Batista's army. The revolutionary movement drew more and more popular support. Castro's forces finally marched across Cuba in late 1958, gaining support all the way, and marched right into Havana on January 2, 1959. The Batista Government collapsed.

Cuba is no paradise on Earth, but it now stands in marked contrast to the rest of Latin America, where U.S.-installed military dictatorships are the common form of government. Cuban life expectancy in 1959 was 55 years of age. By 1984 it was 73 years. Infant mortality is now the lowest in Latin America, and is on a par with developed countries. Cuba's per capita food consumption is the second highest in Latin America. Cuba has a free public health system (something we still don't have in America). The literacy rate is over 95%, the highest in Latin America and higher than in the United States of America. The government confiscated over a million acres of land from three American companies, including United Fruit, and gave the peasants their own farms. There are no hungry children begging in the streets, as there are in so many other Latin American countries. Didn't your history books tell you this? The Cubans who do not like Castro are the extremely wealthy who can no longer steal from the people.

No wonder Fidel Castro is so highly respected by the peoples of Latin America. And no wonder the U.S. Government must condemn him so viciously. How dare he take control of his own country and give it back to the people! Doesn't Castro understand that the Elite One World Controllers are supposed to be running the world?

Since U.S. Government policy is to control countries it deems should be subservient to us, our response was predictable. The Good Neighbor Policy would not apply to Cuba. When Cuba nationalized the holdings of U.S. companies, the U.S. retaliated with an economic boycott, cutting off trade, and commercial and military relations. The U.S. was acting like a spoiled child; if Cuba wasn't going to play our game our way, then we would take our toys and go home.

Castro clearly stated, "Cubans shall own Cuba, and Cubans shall dictate what becomes of the resources and wealth on the island." He also quickly armed the populace, formed civilian militias, and carried out the basic reforms in education and housing that would give Cubans a material and moral stake in their own revolution. When it came to taking over the King Ranch, whose thousands of acres were located in eastern Cuba, the ranch manager stated, "You can't do this, you know. You are taking away property of U.S. citizens, and every time that has happened, the U.S. Marines come in and get it back. And that's the way it's going to be again." Well, that is the way Marine Corps Major General Smedley Butler did it many times in the earlier part of this century, on behalf of the big banks, but it would not happen that way again in Cuba.

Prior to the revolution, the U.S. had absorbed more than half of Cuba's exports. After the revolution there were no markets in the U.S. and the Soviet Union immediately moved in to buy up Cuban exports. Cuba asked the International Monetary Fund for money to finance its programs. The I.M.F. demanded strict "stabilization" conditions which would have undermined the very revolutionary program that had brought the changes in the first place. Cuba could see the writing on the wall and declined the I.M.F. conditions. When Cuba signed a trade agreement with the Soviet Union, this only further infuriated the U.S. Government. In the spring of 1960, President Eisenhower secretly authorized the C.I.A. to arm and train anti-Castro Cuban exiles in Guatemala for a future invasion of Cuba!

Meanwhile, in 1960, America was in the midst of a presidential election campaign between the Republican Richard Nixon, who was Eisenhower's Vice President, and the young and progressive Senator from Massachusetts, John F. Kennedy. The 1960 presidential elections could well be called the first of the modern elections in America because of the use of television (that up-and-coming great tool for mind controlling the masses) to nationally broadcast Presidential Debates for the first time, and because of things like jet airliners which allowed a candidate to be able to make appearances on both coasts in the same day. The people thought they were getting more information, but they were really getting more controlled. All of this, of course, is given secondary consideration to the fact that the Elite One World Controllers fund both candidates, so that no matter who "wins", it's their man!!!

A series of four televised debates were scheduled. "By mutual agreement of the two candidates, rules were established governing the debates." In all four confrontations, news reporters would ask questions. (Remember, John Swinton of the New York Times had already said in 1953 that [mainstream] journalists were intellectual prostitutes, distorting the truth.) Critics argued that the discussions "failed to get below the surface of the issues" and "tended to leap from one question to another." But the televised debates were unprecedented in the history of American politics and proved so effective in capturing the public's interest with distracting, mindless non-issues that they have been continued ever since.

United States policy with respect to Cuba was one of the sharpest issues in the campaign. Kennedy said in response to a question that the U.S. should assist and encourage the anti-Castro elements in Cuba. Nixon declared that this was irresponsible policy and represented a unilateral action which would soon lose us the friendship of all Latin American countries. Could Vice President Nixon really have been unaware that his president (Eisenhower) had secretly authorized the training of anti-Castro elements? Or was he merely misleading the public, intentionally?

In February of 1960, Kennedy contended that there was a "missile gap" with the Russians, wherein we were allegedly behind in numbers of missiles. He used this as a major campaign issue, claiming that we needed to build up our missile stockpiles. One year later, in February of 1961, President Kennedy's Secretary of Defense, Robert McNamara, would admit that there was no "missile gap" after all. The American public was becoming accustomed to being lied to!!

Nixon's campaign was, to a great extent, defensive in that he spent considerable time replying to Kennedy's attacks. In the end, Kennedy defeated Nixon in one of the closest popular votes in American history, by a margin of only 113,057 votes, or less than one-sixth of 1 per cent.

At age 43, Senator Kennedy (who had been a millionaire before he was 20) became the youngest man ever elected President of the United States of America. The situation with Cuba was building to a climax, as the U.S. considered Cuban conduct unacceptable. What we were about to do would aptly be considered a fiasco in the eyes of the rest of the world!

...To be continued

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
SOURCES

1- The Politics of Heroin in Southeast Asia, 1972, by Alfred W. McCoy (Harper & Row Publishers, New York). This out-of-print book may be difficult to obtain. It tells the story of the fabled Golden Triangle, the major source of heroin, tracing its history since the end of World War II, and includes the activities of governments and intelligence agencies.

2- Mafia, U.S.A., 1972, by Nicholas Gage (Playboy Press, Chicago). This book tells the whole story of the Mafia (up until 1972), describing in detail the history of the Society and how it functions with respect to business and government. The Mafia's ultimate bargaining point is murder!

YOU MAY ORDER
BACK ISSUES OF CONTACT
BY CALLING
1-800-800-5565

David Icke

Hitler's Europe:
Welcome To The Show

1/9/97 DAVID ICKE

A prison is being built in Europe, day after day. A vast human prison which encompasses every man, woman, and child on the continent.

Prisons are usually constructed by architects, bricklayers, and carpenters, but this one is being built by actors. They play out their roles in a grotesque movie under the direction of the global business and financial Elite, and in the final scene the prison door will slam shut on what is left of freedom in the landmass of Europe.

This prison has a name. It is called the European Union.

The actors have names, too. They are the famous politicians, government officials, and financiers who read their scripts on the television news as they "debate" the rights and wrongs of a European superstate, controlled by a single currency and a European Central Bank. It is a game, played out to manipulate the public mind and to install Hitler's Europe 50 years later.

Adolf Hitler had a design for Europe had he won the Second World War. He called his "vision" the Europaische Wirtschaftsgemeinschaft and it translates as the European Economic Community—the very name for stage one of the European fascist/communist dictatorship, now known as the European Union.

It has been created by the two most effective of the mass mind-controlling techniques. I call them problem-reaction-solution and the stepping stones approach. The Elite-engineered Second World War (problem) led to an understandable public reaction (something must be done to stop another war in Europe), and this led to the Elite "solution" to an Elite-inspired "problem"—the creation of the European Economic Community (EEC or Common Market) and the United Nations.

The EEC was sold to the people as a means of stopping war. You bring the countries of Europe together economically and make them interdependent, and they will stop fighting each other. But all along, the Elite knew what they really had in mind—the centralized European dictatorship called the European Union.

This is where the stepping stones approach came in. Over the decades since the formation of the original EEC, the agenda has moved on year after year as more powers have been taken piece by piece from nation states and handed to the unelected European dictators in Brussels. We have now reached the point where national law is subordinate to European law.

For example, the United Kingdom Government no longer has the power to remove taxation on heating fuels for the poor and aged because European law has decided that it must be at least 5% in all member states of the Union. And the British still think they are free!!

The transformation of Europe into a massive, centralized dictatorship is a key part of the New World

The New Book By David Icke

To order by credit card:
1-800-884-7657

Mail orders to:
Quality of Life
13553 Poway
Road, #170
Poway, CA 92064

Also Available:

- ...and the truth shall set you free ...$21.95
- The Robots Rebellion* ...$19.95
- I am Me; I am Free* ...$19.95
- Heal the World* ...$10.95
- Days of Decision* ...$10.95
- Truth Vibrations* ...$10.95
- In the Light of Experience* ...$14.95
- Turning of the Tide* (Video, June '95) ...$21.95
- The Robots Rebellion* (Video, June '95) ...$19.95
- Turning of the Tide* (Double audio) ...$14.95
- Days of Decision* (Video) ...$19.95

Please add shipping and handling @$3.00 per book and per video plus $1.00 for each additional item. For Audio tapes only, add $1.25. Calif. residents add 7.75% sales tax.

Order agenda for centralized control of the planet. The Elite who dominate the global financial and political system are seeking to impose a world government, central bank and currency, which would oversee and dictate the policies of the three groupings of superstates. These are planned to be the European Union, the American Union (to be evolved out of the North American Free Trade Agreement to include the whole of the Americas), and the Pacific Union (to be evolved out of the Asia-Australia "free trade area" known as APEC). Nation states would be little more than local councils to this vast structure of global control. Indeed most nation states would be broken up into regions to further diminish the chances of effective resistance.

(See illustration below)

Behind the creation of the European Union is the Bilderberg Group, the deeply secretive cartel of leading bankers, transnational corporations, politicians, academics and "opinion formers", media bosses, and military chiefs. The Bilderberg Group is part of a network including the Royal Institute of International Affairs (UK), the Council on Foreign Relations (USA) and the Trilateral Commission (USA, Europe, Japan). All work to the same agenda.

One of the main goals of the Bilderberg Group from its official formation at the Hotel Bilderberg in Oosterbeek, Holland, in May 1954, was to install a European superstate with a central bank and currency, exactly along the lines now quite obviously unfolding.

The first chairman of the Bilderberg Group (Bil) was Prince Bernhard of the Dutch royal family and a close friend and associate of Britain's Prince Philip, a Bilderberg attendee. The current chairman is the former Secretary-General of NATO and British Foreign Secretary, Lord Carrington, an Elite gofer and bosom-buddy of the Rothschilds and Henry Kissinger.

As I explained in detail in And the Truth Shall Set You Free, Prince Bernhard was a major influence behind the creation of the Bilderberg Group and the European Community, now the European Union. So was the Pole, Joseph Retinger who, in turn, was a leading force in the formation of the Bilderberg Group. Also involved were infamous American Elite frontmen like the Rockefellers, Averill Harriman and the Dulles brothers. The European Union we see today has been designed from the very beginning by those who control the Bilderberg Group—the House of Rothschild, the Rockefellers, and the "blue blood" families (tribes) of Europe.

Look at the major voices calling for the European superstate and invariably you will be looking at a Bilderberger. The classic example is Mr. Federal Europe, Chancellor Kohl of Germany, who issues daily calls for a single bank and currency as he seeks to complete the vision of centralized European control which one of his predecessors, Adolf Hitler, once sought to impose.

Another major influence in the imposition of the European dictatorship is the President of the European Commission, Jacques Santer, the Bilderberger who sits atop the enormous European Union bureaucracy which tells "elected" governments what they can and cannot do.

If we take the example of the UK, you can see the constant hidden hand of the Bilderbergers and the Elite in the manipulation of the European "debate". The man behind the UK's entry into the European spider's web (sorry, the EEC) was Bilderberger Ted Heath, the Conservative Prime Minister from 1970-74. He is still today a constant promoter of a federal Europe. One of his fellow signatories when the UK joined the EEC in 1972 was Lord Hume (Sir Alec Douglas Hume), another former British Prime Minister and, for a time, chairman of the Bilderberg Group.

The head of Ted Heath's policy unit was Lord Victor Rothschild, one of the great manipulators of the 20th century, a super spy, a major force in the creation and development of Israel, and a man I name in And the Truth Shall Set You Free [see box on previous page] as a key player in the assassination of John F. Kennedy. One of Ted Heath's close associates, Douglas Hurd, would later become the British Foreign Secretary who signed the Maastricht Treaty which turned the EEC into the European Union and massively advanced the Elite agenda.

The "opposition" Labour Party is just another aspect of the UK's One Party State. While Ted Heath (Bil) was taking the UK into the EEC, he was supported by another Victor Rothschild associate, the Labour leader and three-times Prime Minister, Harold Wilson, a fellow Bilderberger. Further Labour Party support came from leading figures like the Bilderbergers, James Callaghan, who would later be Prime Minister, Denis Healey, who attended the first Bilderberg meeting in 1954 and a stream of those that followed, and Roy Jenkins, who would later be head of the European Commission. The leaders of Britain's third party, the Liberals, at the time of Heath and Wilson were Jo Grimond...yes, a Bilderberger...and Jeremy Thorpe, author of a book, Europe: The Case For Going In.

Appropriately, all of those people, except for Callaghan, were the products of the Elite's UK production line, better known as Oxford University. This is a massive recruiting and conditioning centre, not just for British youngsters, but also for the overseas students like Bill Clinton, who attend Oxford under the Rhodes Scholarship scheme set up by that arch manipulator of the Elite agenda Cecil Rhodes.

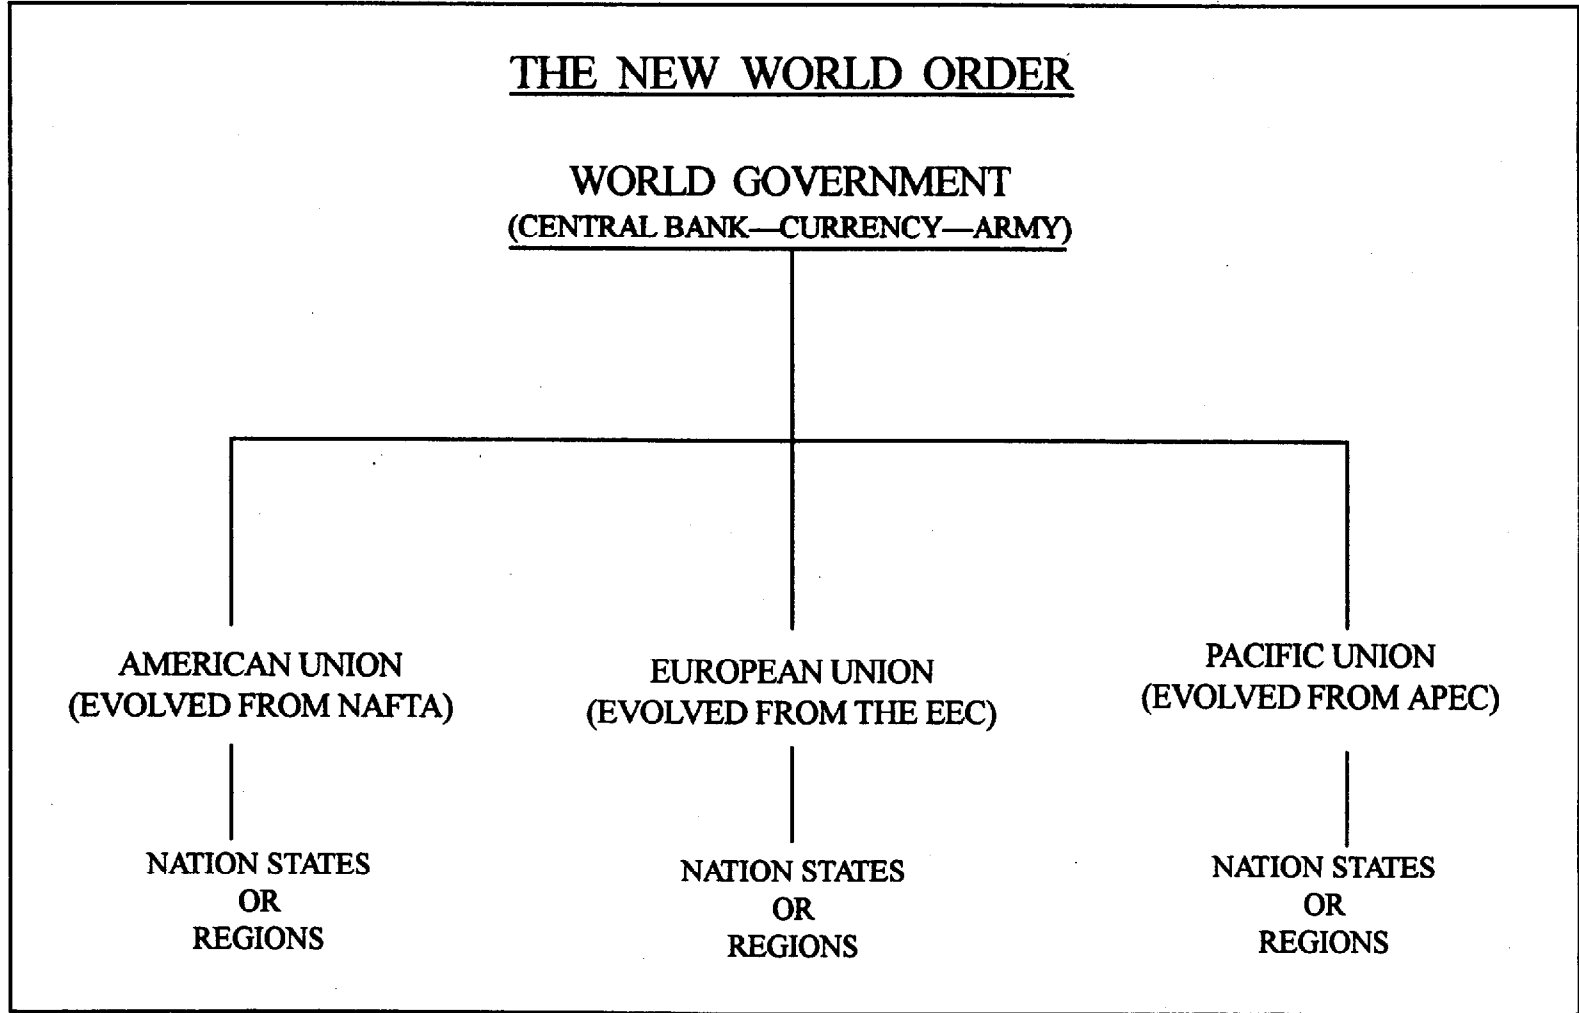

Today, the situation is just the same. Bilderbergers everywhere.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Kenneth Clarke, who is pressing for the UK to join a single European currency, is a Bilderberger. When the lame duck Prime Minister, John Major, attended a European Union Summit in Dublin at the end of 1996 to discuss moves to a federal Europe, he was flanked by two Bilderbergers: Kenneth Clarke, and the Foreign Secretary, Malcom Rifkind. Clarke's number two man at the helm of UK economic policy is another Bilderberger, William Waldegrave, the Chief Secretary to the Treasury, who served under Lord Victor Rothschild in Ted Heath's policy unit. He is very close to the Rothschild family.

The Labour Party leader and likely next Prime Minister of the UK is Tony Blair, a Bilderberger and Elite "chosen one". Blair attended the 1993 Bilderberg meeting in Greece with his "opponent", the Conservative Chancellor Kenneth Clarke. During his 1996 visit to the United States, Blair met a series of Elite frontmen, including Bill Clinton, Hillary Clinton, Henry Kissinger, Alan Greenspan, head of the Federal Reserve, and George Suros, the global financial manipulator who operates under orders from the House of Rothschild. All of them are Bilderbergers.

Blair's number two in the UK Labour Party is the shadow chancellor Gordon Brown, yet another Bilderberger. The Liberal Democrats are led by Bilderberger Paddy Ashdown, who replaced Bilderberger David Steel. Both support a federal Europe.

Within a year of Blair attending the Bilderberg bash in Greece, he was leading the Labour Party, following the sudden death of Bilderberger John Smith. I still do not believe that Smith's death by a "heart attack" was from natural causes. Blair was elected to replace Smith, with massive support from the media, including the newspapers of the Elite yes-man, Rupert Murdoch. From the moment Blair took over, all hell broke loose in John Major's Conser-

Within a year of Blair attending the Bilderberg bash in Greece, he was leading the Labour Party, following the sudden death of Bilderberger John Smith. I still do not believe that Smith's death by a "heart attack" was from natural causes. Blair was elected to replace Smith, with massive support from the media, including the newspapers of the Elite yes-man, Rupert Murdoch. From the moment Blair took over, all hell broke loose in John Major's Conservative Government. Leaks, rows, and scandals were unleashed to create chaos and disarray, and to send the government's opinion poll ratings plummeting. Blair is now well ahead in the polls, with the next General Election very close.

Interestingly, exactly the same happened when Margaret Thatcher, another Bilderberger and Elite chosen one, became Conservative opposition leader in 1975. From then on the Labour Government was thrown into turmoil by strikes and internal upheavals. Thatcher won the election in 1979 and, with Ronald Reagan, carried out the Elite agenda through the 1980s. She was kept in power by the continued self destruction within the Labour Party, not least when four leading Labour names broke away to form their own party, the SDP. Three of these four, Lord (Roy) Jenkins, Lord (David) Owen, and Bill Rogers, either were, or would later become, Bilderbergers.

The next election in the UK is vital to the Elite because they want to ensure that the winner will take the country into the single European currency and the European Central Bank. They know that Bilderberger Blair and his Bilderberger financial sidekick Gordon Brown will do that. Hence the events to promote their victory. Stories in UK newspapers suggest that Blair will be advised on his election strategy by George Stephanopoulos, the Bilderberger who has helped his fellow Rhodes scholar Bill Clinton win two U.S. elections.

Which of the Bilderberg frontmen know what is going on and which are being used and manipulated without their full knowledge is difficult to say and this will vary from person to person. But some of them know exactly what they are doing and why.

Even the "opposition" to the European Superstate in the UK leads us to the same names, organizations, and agenda. The financier and born-again environmentalist, Sir James Goldsmith, has launched a Referendum Party to press for a referendum to stop the further centralization of Europe. Sounds good, but hold on a minute. Goldsmith is a cousin of the Rothschild dynasty, which has been seeking the centralization of power in Europe for a long, long time. He is also a close friend of the global manipulator, drug runner, mass murderer, and pedophile, called George Bush, a leading advocate of the New World Order. Goldsmith has been involved in a stream of deals and Elite operations to advance the New World Order design for the planet.

And he wants to stop a Federal Europe? Pardon? You must be joking! What he wants to do, of course, is hijack the anti-federal Europe opposition and ensure it is led to glorious failure while, at the same time helping to split the Conservative vote at the election and make a Blair win even more likely. This is precisely what the Elite frontman Ross Perot has done for Bill Clinton in the last two U.S. presidential elections.

Two other leading "opponents" of a federal Europe, John Redwood and Norman Lamont, also have interesting backgrounds. Redwood, who challenged John Major for the Conservative Party leadership in 1995, left Oxford University to join the N.M. Rothschild banking operation in London and, while still employed by the Rothschilds, he became policy advisor to Margaret Thatcher (Bil).

Lamont, a former Conservative Chancellor, is a director of N.M. Rothschild. Norman "Save our Sovereignty" Lamont attended the Bilderberg meeting at Brugenstock in Switzerland in June 1995 with Emma Rothschild, the daughter of the infamous Lord Victor Rothschild. Days after attending a meeting of the organization that has been imposing a European superstate for more than 50 years, Lamont was sitting by the side of John Redwood opposing just such a superstate. Something not quite right here.

So Jimmy, John, and Norm oppose the Superstate, eh? Sure you do, lads. Sure you do.

Like I said at the start, the European prison is being built by actors, playing their parts, reading their scripts, and saying anything necessary to dupe the people.

When the European Central Bank opens in Frankfurt (Hitler's choice, no doubt!), the economies of Europe and the new Euro Currency will be officially controlled by bankers. The Maastricht Treaty, which has already been signed, says that the currency and central bank will be controlled by six unelected bankers with an eight-year guaranteed period of office. And, as the Treaty says, no one will be allowed to influence or overrule the decisions of those bankers.

Also, all gold and currency reserves currently owned by the nation states of Europe will come under the control of these bankers in Frankfurt, and there is no provision in the Treaty for them to be returned should a country wish to pull out.

Yes, welcome to Hitler's Europe. Created in the minds of deeply disturbed, often mind-controlled people, and made physical by the purveyors of bullshit that we allow to grasp the reigns of power.

Legal Ducks Lining Up

1/11/97 #2 HATONN

DEEP IN THE HEART OF ANYWHERE

Whether you are in the heart of Texas, as the tune goes, or in the heart of Africa, you cannot escape the New World Order or the death therefrom. Over what, you might well ask, and of course the answer is always: power and things at any cost—TO YOU, OF COURSE.

By the way, the assumption that George Green is in Las Vegas seems to be a rather incorrect positioning. He can be reached, at least as a Distributor, in Idaho, Couer d'Alene. Where is that and how do you spell it, for sure? Well, it is in Kootenai County and just to the east of Spokane, Washington. How close is that to Col. Gritz's operation? Close enough to build a development of dome houses, I suspect, in Nearly Heaven, as Bo called the place and suggested on national radio that they should probably have domed houses there. It is just south of Sandpoint—which has a familiar ring to the name. No, I don't know how many people know this information—neither do I care a whit. I suppose it would be difficult for process servers and perhaps even for his own attorneys to keep up with him. He has pretty much screwed them and kissed them off anyway. They aren't going to really like it, however, when they find what he has actually done to them professionally and otherwise. Remember that George just loved to send around his information and disinformation—to "everybody" and some of it his own attorneys will wish he had not done so.

Is George working with Timothy Binder? Who cares? Timothy Binder also has a place in Montana so perhaps he is or was. It really doesn't longer matter, readers, and I don't wish to offend you but where George Green is operating is of little interest to me except as it touches us and, yes, I suppose it has touched us greatly but it is not our problem because he has been proven now to be a liar, a cheat and an embezzler. Wouldn't it be nice if you could send all his emissaries with him? Mr. Binder is again caught being fed bit by bit by these emissaries and of course George has not paid US&P his agreed payments. We simply now wish we had seen this through to its rightful conclusion but to spend more and more funds on legal harangue seems quite pitiful to me and surely cannot help the account of US&P. Ekkers have less than they did at the first

In truth, my friends, what I have just described, is OUR creation. A few can only control the world because the human race has allowed it to happen. The collective mind has been conditioned to see the world as the Elite wish us to see it. It is a mind full of naiveté and nonsense, with buckets of sand always at the ready.

If we bury our heads and stick our "bums" in the air, maybe it will all just go away, eh! Er, no. You don't want a European fascist dictatorship? You don't want a world fascist state? Good. But it won't just go away if you sit there. It will only be stopped if you open your mind, open your mouth, and get off your arse.

Come on, human race—for your children's sake if not our own. This is wakey, wakey time.

—DAVID ICKE, AUTHOR OF TEN BOOKS, INCLUDING THE LATEST, AND THE TRUTH SHALL SET YOU FREE, AND I AM ME.

confrontation so what else is new. Prison? Well, if necessary to pay fees, I suppose, for you cannot get blood from a turnip. We haven't found, however, ANY attorney who works for free! NONE!! All this does, however, seem quite sad for the ones who served Green so faithfully and got caught in the dirty dealings. Each made a choice in the matter and we can no longer help those who so deliberately insisted on listening to this man and contributing funds to this man and his attorneys to be consumed in senseless waste. What did Green promise you? What did Horton and Abbott promise you unsuspecting people? What possible good did you think you could do to involve selves in a conspiracy with Jason Brent and Steven Horn? They have been caught in their own trap as of this week! And, they plan to lay the blame on YOU. When the Judge finds that Mr. Binder has acted on information sent by Green's buddies, he is not going to be finding it longer funny. To lump all these cases together simply spells R.I.C.O., ladies and gentlemen.

So, do you think the Elite New Worlders want you poor little people making decisions regarding "their" business?? Perish the thought for the word we got back from as high as you can get is that they wouldn't use the ass if they needed one. And the Nevada legal "authorities" proclaim both Abbott and Horton to be sick old men waiting to kick the proverbial bucket. That doesn't sound too hopeful for ones who will give them the rest of your assets. The part about them being sick is quite right as both are slipping badly.

Jason Brent is desperately trying to distance himself from that groupie ever since he witnessed the fiasco against Horn last Tuesday. He even pulled the portion of his advertisement for business referring to Sharks, etc.

3 REASONS WHY LAWYERS ARE REPLACING RATS AS LAB ANIMALS.

1 THERE ARE PLENTY OF THEM.

2 LAB ASSISTANTS DON'T GET EMOTIONALLY ATTACHED TO THEM.

3 THERE ARE SOME THINGS THAT RATS WON'T DO!

V.K. Durham

A Tip Of The Iceberg

12/21/96 V.K. DURHAM

I know, I know, you are all as busy as bees trying to get that last minute stuff down for Christmas (so am I), but you know, things have been bothering me. Things like interrelation of occurrences, history repeating itself, DNA inherent genetic memories, 3-2-1 ratio, etc. Then, I go back and remember a passage I read somewhere in the Bible many years ago: "There is nothing new on Earth, it has all been here before." Now don't ask me for the exact passage, but I did read it. (Fern Martin would probably know, she knows that Bible inside and out.)

Back in the late '50s (when I was young, skinny and trying to figure out which way I wanted to go in education—I studied law, medicine, AG, animal husbandry, etc.) I did a medical thesis on transference of diseases through blood transfusions.

This theory included the changing of the genetic structure when foreign, life giving blood was introduced into the recipient. Back then, this theory was laughed out of seminar. Well, it's not so laughable in today's world.

We came to know that AIDS was transferable by blood transfusions. Then we came to know this and that about the interchanges of blood. Today, it's "old hat". But back then even to think about it was a discrediting thing for the individual.

Well, here it is the '90s and I'm still thinking! Only this time, it is about the inherent memories of the DNA genetic mind or the soul being, which continues to live on, long after we are gone. It lives on in the DNA genetics. Yes, I'm going somewhere with this, and it's going to get pretty interesting—if not baffling.

One of the signatories of the Magna Carta was one of my DNA relatives (oh, you would be astounded as to who is running around in my DNA). Seemingly, every dadgone time big changes come about in the lawful rights of the people, I'll be dadburned if the progenitors (grandfathers) don't show up somewhere in those changes. For this reason I think that the familiarity with the histories of lawful rights are always at my fingertips. It seems as though (as the kids say) I have been there and done that.

Let's use gardening as an example. So much genetic tampering goes on with tomatoes that they don't even taste like tomatoes any longer. Each year I take the best tomatoes (which were buried the year before, and came back up as volunteers) and replant them for my summer table and canning. My tomatoes are absolutely delicious. They taste like tomatoes! The same goes for my squash, pumpkin and just about everything I plant. They may not be picture perfect but the genetics have been restored, and I feel as though my vegetables have more nutrients, taste better, can better, and are better all the way around. I'm in my 6th generation on tomatoes and each year the taste is more palatable. They are meatier. Not so pretty, but great taste.

It is contended by me, that the same principle applies in Human DNA. IT just keeps on, generation after generation, taking all those living memories along with it as it passes from one generation to the next. What one generation has learned, is passed on to the next in DNA living memories, or the soul (mind) being. Did you notice there is a separation between spirit and soul when you read your Bible? Well, I think the genetics of DNA are the SOULution, and reSOULution.

There are those who have a propensity for conquering, and destroying nation after nation since time began. They always evidenced themselves as being the oppressed. Once these people (historically) gain what they call freedom or equality (their words, not mine) they at once set about destroying everything they sought. To top it all off, in the hatred passed on from generation to generation, by word of mouth, and by family teachings, they want all later generation to pay for what happened 200, 300, and even 1000 and 2000 years ago. They then (once again) cause old DNA survival genes to rise up in those whom they consider must pay, and wars occur eluding SOULution and reSOULution of these matters.

The SOULution and reSOULution lies in knowledge; the inherent DNA soul knowledge of knowing the difference between right and wrong (it's in the DNA).

There are those with those inborns which I call the guardians, or more frequently called the Keepers of the Keys.

What are these "Keys", you may ask. Well, they are the keys to knowledge. Some call them thinkers. In the ages gone by, these were called sages, poets, scribes, oracles, or historians. Whatever their names be, they carried the inborns, with the abilities to pass on to those who did not know but were willing and eager to learn. This builds the DNA structure of the living soul of inherent knowledge.

Let's look at it this way—How many times have you seen something (knowing you have never seen it before or knew of it before in your lifetime) and said: "I have seen that before", or "I somehow knew that!" Well, it's the inherent DNA mind soul. And that, dear friends, is life after death. The inherent mind/soul lives on.

ANOTHER SUBJECT

(but not really)

You remember me telling you the Federal Government has a treaty with the civil governments of each state? Well, it's more formally called the Civil Government of Federal and State Governments. To form this civil government between the feds and the states, an agreement called a treaty was entered into. This is the reason for the Sixth Article of the Constitution.

In the cleaning of shelves in the library, an old book was discovered. Federal and State Government: A Treatise/Treaty on the Civil Government of the United States and the State of Illinois. The treaty was initiated as Enabling Act, April 18, 1818. You will find, somewhere, each of your states have the same treaty as does Illinois. When was the book written, you ask? Well, it was written in 1901 by Donald L. Morrill of the Chicago Bar, published by Scott, Foresman and Company of Chicago (back when the Bar was honest).

Have a great new year,
V.K. Durham

HOPE THINGS ARE LOOKIN' UPI

Health Notes About Olive Leaf Extract

1/12/97 #1 HATONN

I COME BEARING THE OLIVE BRANCH

No, I bring it not as a peace offering or to let you know that the floods are over, or to crown a prince of achievement in the Olympic games. I bring you a tale of LIFE and healing.

In addition to the regimen of any kind of treatment by our products we discuss, is now available one of the oldest known remedies for mankind, the Olive Tree leaf and oil. Oh would it that you had your own tree to eat.

E.J., it would be worth the reclamation of your prior place in La Crescenta with those wonderful 54 Olive trees. I am quite serious, for if the Big One takes out L.A., it will not take out La Crescenta. Let us see how the year goes for sometimes our families need more roots than we leave them when other works come along and draw parents into their own missions. That place was a port to all the young friends growing up and you shall never probably know how much good was offered from that wonderful home, even to Steve Shupe of whom we spoke only a day or so past. If Rusty doesn't remember, he will when the name is more obvious for many of the children, as Gene, are known by "Holloway". Remember that the youngsters continued to come all the way to Tehachapi just to see you and feel at home. I'm sorry that I had to take that from them, and from you, to get this work done. It has been, however, worthy work well done. NO ONE CAN GO BACK, BUT ONE CAN RECLAIM!

Since we will be working with Dr. James R. Privitera (M.D.) in use of Olive Leaf Extract as we begin to introduce the product so that you can be preparing your bodies to the shifting OFF of whatever we have that gets banned, as in colloids, I will give you a warning or two to look for. And by the way, Oak leaves are pretty good supplements as well as Olive, so don't toss the trees you have. God provides perfection wherever you might find quarters. The Native Americans would, in fact, denounce us for preference of Olives to Acorns and they would be correct. The research, however, has been done on the Olive leaves and the Oak remains only realized, still, by the Natives.

CHRONIC FATIGUE AND GULF WAR SYNDROMES

To you who suffer from this Chronic Fatigue Syndrome, and this includes you who have Gulf War Syndrome, PLEASE USE OLIVE LEAF EXTRACT AND MOVE TO MORE USE IN GENERAL OF THE VIRGIN OLIVE OIL, INSTEAD OF OTHER OILS, FOR A WHILE AND SEE IF YOU DON'T ALMOST IMMEDIATELY GET SICKER AND THEN QUICKLY FIND THAT YOU FEEL WONDERFUL AGAIN.

WHY "SICKER"?

I can't do other than simply give you examples, for if I do more, the FDA will undoubtedly be on the doorstep via the Green Brigade.

So I quote an example leading up to my point which is to note that if you are sick and suffering and are full of viruses, et al., then you will probably have a "die-off-effect" caused from killing off the little chuckers. Dying and dead microbes give off a toxin which can create a rather uncomfortable "crisis" with some fever and flu-like symptoms. A few headaches may occur during this process. However, if you have been using the (ours, at least) silver colloids and a bit of titanium and gold colloids, you shouldn't have ANY symptoms as most of the annoying viruses will be already under control. Some of the viruses in various categories, however, will burrow into places where small doses of colloids may well not get them for a period of time. And, there is the inevitable possibility of removal of product from the market. Colloids are under full attack as I write. Remember, readers, that we don't fall into the same category as the general producers, for our "silver" colloid is, yes, exactly that, but we finish it with gold electrolysis and a few microns of selenium. It has been tested every way there is, even at border crossings. Never have we been denied acceptance.

The reason given for taking the colloids off the market is that it is claimed there is NOTHING in the products and therefore they are worthless. I'm sorry to say it but, users, beware—MOST OF THE OTHER PRODUCTS ARE TOTALLY USELESS!

Olive Leaf Extract has come to be an outstanding product for positive results from sufferers of Chronic Fatigue, Epstein-Barr Virus, Multiple Sclerosis and on and on with "diseases" which are both untreatable and incurable as pronounced onto you people by the medical profession. In any event, however, you are not going to get well unless you ALSO clean out the parasites which carry the viruses.

The quotes I want to share right now, though, are on the subject of that "die-off-effect".

[QUOTING DR. PRIVITERA:]

For some very sick individuals, including people with Chronic Fatigue syndrome or particularly heavy loads of virus or bacteria in their bodies, Olive Leaf Extract may possibly generate detoxification symptoms—known as the "die-off-effect"—that may be unpleasant. [H: I might be quick here to add that this same thing happens with Gaiaandriana use, especially after injections of the substance where there is no digestive interference or dilution.]

Such people may actually feel worse for a short time before feeling better. As an example, many Chronic Fatigue patients suffer from an associated depression. Patients of mine who toughed it out through the "die-off" period emerged highly energized and no longer depressed.

[H: With the "Dria" injection you can take your clock and time the reaction to just about an hour for response. Then begins the "healing crisis" wherein there can be major chills and, after a couple of hours, a fever begins, then sweating, profuse sweating, and then comes the headache which is sometimes severe but only lasts for a short while. All the while your body will be telling you this is not a "sick response" but a HEALING process. And yes indeed, it has a medical label: Hertsheimer microbe die-off. Remember the old movie healing crisis wherein a patient would be deathly ill and then "pass the crisis"? It is the same thing. People who have been taking Gaiaandriana, however, are not having "die-off" problems. Zita went through the full colloid IV program structured for her in Mexico, and which is being presented at the Health Expo this weekend, and had nothing of any consequence other than boredom from the long times spent hooked-up and immobile. She was tired for a while but with a couple of injections of the OxySol and Gaiaandriana, AquaGaia (which flushed out her blood system) she began to feel WELL. She has constantly continued to improve, is walking again and is feeling, finally, again

OLIVE LEAF EXTRACT

A NEW/OLD HEALING BONANZA FOR MANKIND

BY JAMES R. PRIVITERA, M.D.

Booklet Available From:
New Gaia
P.O. Box 27710
Las Vegas, NV 89126
800-639-4242

$2.75 (including S&H)

fit, even to being able to eat again, with appetite. Do we somehow claim "miracles"? No, if there is any miracle it is the person doing the healing for the rest is practical application of that which offers healing possibilities and reprogramming of the body cells back to health status and clearing out of viral debris. You see, Drias feed on and fully absorb the viral particulate as they rupture and disseminate throughout the cells and circulatory system. This rupturing (bursting) of the viruses and microbes can be witnessed under viewing in a Rife Microscope apparatus. It is not important to see this but, rather, it is important to KNOW that you have scalar (prana) energy frequencies high enough to destroy the microbes. With our own colloids we know that we have that capability, with the addition of the TITANIUM colloid. There is no KNOWN virus more potent or at higher frequency than we can knock out with titanium colloid. This is because the scientists have found nothing they can substitute for the "neck" of a virus with a higher frequency than has titanium. The reason Zinc lozenges work on "cold" invaders is that those microbes have "zinc necks" and can't mature or function in the direct presence of zinc. NO, THE BIG BOYS DO NOT LIKE US!

The die-off-effect, or Herxheimer Reaction [H: Same thing as the above referred to Herksheimer. This is such a little-used term any more that you may have trouble looking it up in reference books. We leave the name spelled both ways so you have more information as to possibilities if you do your own research.] as it is medically called, refers to symptoms generated by a detoxification process. If you are sick and use this product, you should be aware of the possibility. For this reason it may be advisable to consult first with a holistic health practitioner before using it. [H: You just did!]

If you have ever used Nystattin to fight yeast infections, you are probably familiar with this situation. Nystattin kills yeast. As the body becomes full of dead yeast, you may experience a variety of detox symptoms. Symptoms may intensify to the point where you need to stop or reduce the dosage of the medication in order to give your body a chance to eliminate the toxic waste.

If there are substantial detoxification symptoms on the Olive Leaf Extract, reduce the number of tablets, or even stop them altogether for a while to let the symptoms clear. This may require up to a week to allow your body to finish the process of the "die-off". [H: It will not take this long IF YOU ARE USING GAIANDRIANA(S).] WHEN YOU FEEL BETTER, YOU CAN SAFELY RESUME THE SUPPLEMENT BY STARTING AT A LOW DOSE AND INCREASING THE INTAKE SLOWLY.

[H: If you don't use Gaiandriana then you might well wish to try heavy doses of Vitamin C to bowel tolerance and this may well be a regimen best done under professional guidance.]

Other than the "die-off" detoxification effect among some individuals, Olive Leaf Extract appears to create no side effects.

[END OF QUOTING]

Many studies have been done on use of the Olive Leaf Extract, readers, both with oral dosages AND BY INJECTION. In the instance of intramuscular injections it is noted that the injection site can become a bit inflamed. This will not happen if colloidalized extracts are utilized. Oh yes indeed, I would ONLY use the colloidalized form if using injectables. This colloidalized product can be added to any Intravenous regime as well. It would be most specifically useful added to the Gaiandriana-OxySol-Colloid regimen as used by Zita's physicians. You must understand that the most important one item in the extract is selenium in natural form. We colloidalize selenium right along with our other colloids when working with silver and gold and, more importantly, OxySol, which is a catalytic collodalization process producing "liquid diamond" for rebuilding cellular structure from the DNA blueprint replaced in the specific body by the Drias. Remember, every "computer" must have a "chip" upon which to engrave the information.

Can we tell others how to make this "stuff"? Yes, but we won't! We won't give away God's gifts to be destroyed or tampered with by the lack of intelligence on your planet. When the proper sequence is here for such sharing, we will share it—very, very carefully. You who know us and use these products—you are, I suppose, most special. We can supply enough without scattering around the possibility of damaging tampering. Already your scientists can EASILY clone people from their cross-tampering and that is certainly sufficient without more damaging tamper-stuff.

As an example, George Green took a bottle of Crystal Life product from Dr. Merkl's Life Crystal, Inc. and, thinking it was OUR PRODUCT, contaminated it and sent it to Merkl for examination. Merkl called it contaminated swamp water and now even Dr. Merkl realizes he did not have proper product of live drias and has contacted us for input. He hasn't contacted us in a very long time, however, so we do not know his status of product other than we have been informed that even his clinic in Mexico was shut down. Crystal Life liquid is an incredibly good FOOD source for Drias—but contains no live cells (according to Merkl). Green claimed that his office girl, Gina, almost died from using the stuff. No, that is one of Mr. Greens more TYPICAL lies. At the same time he was advertising the banned books (US&P) and saying that he already had been given them back by the court. BEWARE the false teachers and product bringers!

At that time Dr. Hoffmann was handling our Drias in Utah. We brought the drias to Dharma and she shipped them immediately to Wendell for mass growing. They worked together constantly as I instructed them until we built up a supply enough to share with you. This is the thanks Mr. Green has offered us, and YOU, readers. Now, Mr. Green has caused so much grief with the Hoffmann family as to have Dr. Hoffmann separated from his wife of over half a century and living in another state. Why? Because George Green and his cronies want to keep the GOLD he STOLE, for part of those funds were Dr. Hoffmann's. Dr. Hoffmann, in addition, poured countless sums of cash into George Green's HANDS. But incredible as it may be, Mrs. Hoffmann, due to Green's and Tuten's letters to family members, blames Ekkers. It is too long a story to repeat here but be it known, readers, the guilty will be found out and the rewards will not be of their liking. I honor Dr. Hoffmann for he is one of the only remaining GREAT practitioners with frequencies and the ability of broadcasting frequencies. Do you see how the whole of the world suffers from the greed of a few terrible men?

But readers, YOU are the ones who allow it—by taking a stand for the wrong parties OR taking no stand at all and just allowing evil to manifest itself like the plague spreading from the bubonic-infected fleas. The "carrier" "fleas" will carry the diseases for as long as you allow it.

So, what are our plans for the Olive Tree? Well, we have already started the planning for building a production operation in Greece and, perhaps, Italy where the proper type of Olives grow. We KNOW that they grow well in Southern California; after all, Dharma and E.J. had a whole orchard of them prior to moving to this location. They will also grow well, perhaps better even, in parts of Mexico, especially right across the border from the U.S. They probably will grow quite well in parts of South Africa if they are handled well for they are a dry-place plant.

This is only a classified food item, supplement, and it has no ill effects so it is quite safe in both use and production AT THIS TIME. If the WHO (World Health Organization) can shut off your right to have supplements, then you probably will cease to be able to get the product. However, I doubt you will have olive oil removed from your use and an olive tree has to have leaves—is this not so? So what would you do then? The product you are looking for are phytochemicals or phytonutrients—meaning, simply, Greek for plant (phyto). What you are SPECIFICALLY looking for are oleuropein (pronounced oh-lee-or-oh-pin).

Even in your wondrous book of Revelation this "tree of life" is noted and is for "the healing of the nations". And, readers as well as Dharma, ancient Egyptians were the first, historically, to put the olive leaf to practical use. They regarded it as a symbol of heavenly power and, in keeping with that belief, they extracted its oil and used it to mummify their kings. Well, we have far better uses for LIFE than for DEATH processing. Then as recently as 140 years ago (1854) came a Pharmaceutical Journal carrying a report by one Daniel Hanbury and contained the following simple healing recipe and you may well wish to hang onto this in response to your question about pulling supplements from your shelf access:

ADVANCED
OLIVE LEAF
EXTRACT

AVAILABLE SOON
FROM NEW GAIA

60 TABS
$24.00

Boil a handful of leaves in a quart of water down to half its original volume. Then administer the liquid in the amount of a wineglassful every 3 or 4 hours until the fever is cured.

If you don't have Olive Trees—try the Oak leaves and acorn “holders” boiled together with a splash of olive oil added. You might find olives are better, really, for other things than Martinis. If you add a few drops of all (each) of your colloids to each wineglass of liquid—WOW! Follow that on with a “chaser” of Gaiaandriana and AquaGaia and you have “Ambrosia for the Gods”, even if it tastes like otherwise.

This simple method, in italics above, was extensively used in England for treating sick Britons returning from His or Her Majesty's tropical colonies.

I am constantly amazed at any Greek or Italian complaining of high blood pressure because oleuropein is one of the most effective ingredients in a compound produced by the olive tree that makes it particularly outstanding in treatment of high blood pressure. The oleuropein present in the leaves also makes the tree LEAVES almost insect- and bacteria-proof. This particular substance is also called elenolic acid and that has always been recognized as an anti-bacterial substance.

More common, however, is the fact that this substance counteracts a variety of viruses ASSOCIATED WITH THE COMMON COLD OF HUMANS. It has been said that whoever cures the common cold will be both rich and famous. Well, it hasn't happened but we have long since cured the common cold and we are neither rich nor famous.

Further, we know that calcium elenolate, a salt of elenolic acid, isn't just effective against viruses, but bacteria and parasitic protozoans as well. Further, the product works well in LOW CONCENTRATIONS AND WITHOUT ANY HARMFUL INFLUENCE ON HOST CELL MECHANISMS. It is extremely safe and non-toxic, even at high doses. BUT READERS, in colloid form—there is no question of toxicity because anything in colloid form can't damage normal cells for the particulate is encapsulated in cells or fluid molecules, and can't get free to do anything until released and utilized by the body.

Well, I didn't intend to turn away from the goodly group of Kissinger and Bush [see Front Page story] to talk about your health but it seems I have done so. Will the Big Boy politicians and drug dealers be happy with this, or any natural product? No, because they are in the depopulation and create-more-microbes-which-mutate business. But it is almost impossible to keep these products FROM YOU. I can't offer more because we do not practice medicine, pharmacy drugs or anything resembling same. These products we offer are certainly safe in any form of “injectables” but we are not allowed to suggest any such treatment beyond supplemental natural food items taken by mouth. I can't even tell you to shove something up your nose or in your ear—much the less, your rectum (which is one of the better modes of getting medications or supplements into the system). We have to stick pretty much to under-the-tongue or some other benign suggestion. You can do what you will with anything we offer for everything we offer as our products ARE SAFE IN ANY MODE UTILIZED WITHOUT ANY POSSIBILITY OF “OVER”DOSING. You simply cannot “overdose” on any of our colloid products—period. Moreover, in injection form as in use in Mexico, you can't overdose no matter how high the doses have gone—WITH NO SPILLAGE IN ANY ORGAN—PERIOD. This has been tested in the laboratories.

The body uses what is provided and needed and any “sluff-off” is in the same form given, colloidalized particulate of miniscule size STILL encapsulated in fluid molecules and is simply and harmlessly excreted. And no, the regulators really don't know what, exactly, to do about it. It becomes like banning PURE water. How do you regulate water?

Sometime when we have a bit of spare time I will talk to you about why radiation and types of chemical treatments for cancer sometimes work. Obviously it is the frequency given off from the radiation material used. If you can get doses of any item which exceed the microbe's own frequency, you can knock out the microbes (viruses) causing the carcinomas and sarcomas. However, most of the utilized elements are also terribly damaging to host, or natural, cells. Chemotherapy is touchy at best and more people die from the results of such treatment, if not done to perfection, than from the mutated cell masses. The problem and sickness created by the chemotherapy, however, is debilitating in and of itself. It is more than a healing crisis—it is also a cell-death crisis. The point is to have something totally destructive to the invading microbes of any variety WITH TOTAL SAFETY TO THE NORMAL CELLULAR STRUCTURES.

THE CURE FOR CANCER, readers, has been around since cancers were diagnosed—BUT THERE IS NO MONEY IN CURED DISEASES. Hold it in your hearts. Neither are they valuable as depopulation methodologies. Plagues and famines depend on insipid humans to lay the foundation for depopulation via these dastardly means of death and destruction.

Am I basically telling you that if you eat olive leaves you may well survive without serious plagues? Yep! Indeed I am! Especially if you toss in a few other simple things. Remember that, for centuries past, such venereal diseases as syphilis were treated with gold, mercury and silver. However, until you had electricity, it was impossible to colloidalize those metals and allow for the safety of intake. Further, men didn't realize they could get “electricity” other than from the plug-in in your wallboard.

Mankind is still quite primitive and moving backwards all the time as a deliberate effort is made to keep you shackled and enslaved. The technology available is magnificent and massive but YOU DO NOT HAVE USE OF IT. Therefore, it is time to wake up and smell the burned coffee and toast, readers, lest you not know you have alternatives to rolling over dead in abject misery.

Good morning.

Let these Truths be self-evidenced

Voice of the Old Guard

By: Grandma Herrman-Herman

“CIA Flu” And The Death Of Russell Herman

1/10/97 Grandma

(Introductory note from Mrs. Herman:

Mr. Perrine informed me that the author of this information was Brian Redman with whom I have spoken about it. I believe that we must confront misinformation if we are to qualify Russell Herman's murder for a Congressional investigation.)

Athena Programming, Inc.
1175 No. Altadena Drive
Pasadena, CA 91107

Fax hard copy
(818) 398-8620

Attention: Jack Perrine

REF: Conspiracy Nation—Vol. 9 No. 97 Brian Redman

Dear Mr. Perrine,

Last evening I received (through the grapevine, off the Net [see box on this page]) the above referenced Article. You were in error when you identified Russell Herman along with the “Drug and Money Laundering of the CIA”. Yes, Rusty was with the CIA. He was U.S. Armed Forces Intelligence. HE started out in the Merchant Marine when he was 13 years old. His mother lied about his age. She had too many mouths to feed. Putting him in the Merchant Marine, as I understood it, was getting him off the CAPONE streets and into an environment where he could get an education and stay out of trouble.

I believe it was April of 1940 when he entered the Merchant Marine. Then on December 7, 1941 Pearl Harbor was bombed. President Roosevelt by Executive Order moved the Merchant Marine into the U.S. Coast Guard. Later, by Executive Order, he placed the U.S. Coast Guard, Navy, and Army into the United States Land and Naval Forces. Then Korea broke out. We had a “Police Action”, so they say. By that time Harry Truman had put him in the OSS (along with other select personnel), which later became the OSI and then the CIA. Rusty was a personal friend of Harry Truman.

He admired Mr. Truman to the day he died.

Rusty was ordered (Korean Conflict) up to the Inchon Reservoir as there was “Scuttlebutt” that American POWs were there. They were within sight of the “objective” when McArthur ordered them to “pull back” and “abort”. There was hand-to-hand combat. Rusty suffered a “slicing blow to his head” which was split open and his nose was detached. He was taken prisoner and moved up to China.

While a POW in China, he learned the Chinese language, and the Chinese culture. Once back in the U.S. he was sent to Heinz, VA, and, like many other unsuspecting U.S. Military Personnel, he became an experimental subject for “radiation/cobalt capsule by ingestion”.

It was later discovered that these Military personnel were dying from cancerous growths in their digestive systems. Rusty had such a cancerous growth. It is documented on VA computer printout from 1994.

When President Richard M. Nixon discovered the need to open the policy trade door to China, Mr. Nixon

From The Net

An excerpt off the Internet from Conspiracy Nation—Vol. 9 No. 97, Brian Redman, [quoting:]

By the way, the Washington Post supposedly paid many thousands of dollars to Roger Morris and Sally Denton for their story on Mena, but after 11 weeks of delays they pulled it because they felt they were getting jacked around and got Bob Guccione to publish it in Penthouse 7/95. Also, Terry Reed has a book coming out on Barry Seal/Mena, Arkansas. Another book project now underway is the story of the CIA's drug op in New York with NYPD cop and “made man” “Big Al” Carone, former Colonel in Army Intel. Carone was the “bagman” for NYPD, friend of DCI Bill Casey, and “banker” with other “bagmen” associates, Russell Herman (also died of “CIA flu”) and “fixer/briber” Al Hobert and NYPD “dirty” copy Geno Howard who were all “on the take”. [End quoting] See related article on this page.

discovered that he needed an invitation from the Chinese Government before he could go to China. The White House called Rusty at his residence on Berneice Road in the Chicago area, as Rusty, while a POW in China, was befriended by a Doctor Wu. The reason for this mutual friendship was that Rusty was a medic (MOS) and both men would discuss medicine. The White House had access to Rusty's Armed Forces records and knew of his friendship with Doctor Wu, a man Rusty affectionately called "Grandpa".

Rusty's country had called. Rusty answered. He called Doctor Wu and within a matter of hours President Nixon had his invitation to go to China. The present trade policy with China resulted from Rusty's call obtaining the invitation for President Nixon.

Rusty remained "attached/unassigned" (a term used in the U.S. Military). Trade policies began to change when the peanut farmer became president. He began U.S. trade policies in the Middle East which were and are highly challenging.

Carter pulled together the old OSS, OSI, and CIA members he knew could be trusted. OPEC (Middle Eastern Oil) was the target. Carter pulled a snafu. He lost the presidency to "RR" [Ronald Reagan]. Mr. R's arch enemy was Khadafy. Mr. Khadafy had prior warning about Mr. R's plans, and would not bite on the bait which RR put out for him. President R needed a scapegoat. Iran fit the bill. Subsequently, all of Iran's bank accounts were frozen in the United States. Iran lost hundreds of billions of dollars in the United States due to the freezing of those bank accounts. They also lost their investment properties they had bought in the United States.

President Reagan then, after becoming president, pulled off the Iran-Contra arms deal. The Contra arms involves and involved more than just Iran. It involved selling arms (by the U.S. Government) to our sister nations here on the American continent.

Banking had to be set up. Banking facilitations were put into action by the Inter-American Alliance Agreement (treaty) in (I think) 1984. It is documented in the U.S. Government Document Library.

Rusty, doing his duty for his country, per the instructions of the President of the United States (Federal Advisory Committee Act) worked with Alan Greenspan (while he was still located in his Texas Federal Reserve position; his phone number was [713] 780-1266), George Bush, Ed Meese, Dan Inouye, Oliver North (aka John "Cassie/Cappy"), William Casey, William Colby, Robert Carderia, Dr. "Q" and others.

The Federal Reserve (Greenspan) utilized the banking co-ordinances between the Republic National Bank of Texas and the Republic National Bank of New York for the Anschbacher account: CI, Ltd. (Central Intelligence, Ltd.) in the Jersey/Guernsey Islands. The account number is 608103047. The bank officer for handling the CI, Ltd. account was Terrence (Teddy) Lloyd.

As understood by me, this is the Woodbridge account. It (according to U.S. Colonel Russell Herrman [per original enlistment records] Herman) holds the Contra monies. I do not know if it is the Iran-Contra Arms monies or the Central American Contra monies, he just said it was the Contra Arms monies due the men for their services.

According to Colonel Herrman/Herman, the account can only be accessed by voice and fingerprints (his voice and fingerprints).

U.S. M.I. Colonel Russell Herrman/Herman went through a living hell after being sprayed (with what is now thought to have been Serin, due to the bleeding from the eyes, nose and mouth) while mowing the lawn next to the highway July 2, 1994. He and others had concluded an investigation on the president's man on July 1, 1994.

Colonel Russell Herrman-Herman remained persistent in not going to the hospital. He maintained "they will kill me if they get me in a hospital."

Subsequently, in October 1994, his condition worsened and I was forced to put him into the hospital, or suffer prosecution pursuant to the elderly abuse laws of the State of Illinois. Russell, knowing I was in imminent danger, submitted to being put into the local hospital.

About 3 or 4 days later, it was decided (by whom, I am uncertain) Russell had to be transferred to a larger, more capable hospital. On the day he was transferred (without family authorization) I was denied access of knowledge as to where he was being transferred, and I was refused the common courtesy of being allowed to ride with him in the ambulance to this "larger and more capable" hospital.

I was restrained by a uniformed police officer. I hurried out of the hospital to my auto, to wait for the ambulance when it exited. No ambulance ever exited that hospital grounds that day while I was waiting. However, a 24-foot box truck (white) did exit. Not being familiar with CIA tactics, it did not dawn on me that Colonel Russell Herrman-Herman was in that 24-foot box truck.

The night passed. About 11 a.m. the following day a call came in to the neighbors' house for me (we did not have a phone at the time). It was St. Mary's Health Care Facility (hospital) in Clayton, Missouri. "Mr. Herman is dying," said the caller. Not knowing where St. Mary's was, or even where Clayton, Missouri was, it was necessary for me to find someone to drive me, which I did.

When finally having located Colonel Russell Herrman-Herman, I found him shoved off in a room, still wearing the same hospital gown which he was wearing when last seen at the primary hospital. His hands were tied. His head was lying on the bed with no pillow. He was lying in his own feces. No nursing attendant. No life support systems evidenced in this alleged ICU unit. He was the color of putty and non-responsive.

Colonel Herrman-Herman left the Illinois hospital at approximately 9:30 a.m. Hospital records evidence his entering the hospital at 21:52 hours. Over 12 hours he was in transit!

Upon reviving Colonel Herrman-Herman it was discovered that his left arm was broken. His left ribs were broken. He evidenced cigarette burns on his chest. Also evidenced were entries under both collar bones where (according to him) he was strung up on meat hooks and tortured. Also discovered were marks surrounding his anal cavity (rectum), little red marks completely surrounding the area, which according to him were from the electrodes attached to the electric prod which was shoved up his rectum.

According to Colonel Russell Herrman-Herman, this torture was to extract his signature on some documents, which he refused to sign.

Strange things went on at that "capable" hospital. The hospital refused to release him and send him back to the state of Illinois within the mandatory 24 hours. He was kept an additional 17 days—excessively, invasively radiated. He was given psychological examinations while he was comatose. Medicare paid for it all.

Lt. Col. Oliver North was seen (witness) dressed in a doctor's frock, leaving Colonel Herrman-Herman's hospital room in St. Mary's. When we first visited Colonel Herrman-Herman at St. Mary's, military personnel were all over the damned place, wearing white blouses with epaulets, navy blue slacks and skirts, military issue shoes, belts and ties. They were there the first time—we did not see them at any time later.

Colonel Herrman-Herman was raped by a Black man (hospital personnel) while in St. Mary's (per Colonel Herrman-Herman).

Finally we brought him home after 17 days of unauthorized stay. When we finally got him home, I undressed him, bathed him and put him in his own bed only to discover what appeared to be bruises about the size of dinner plates on his hip. When I showed these bruises to the home health nurse, again, I was threatened with criminal prosecution for abuse of the elderly! These alleged bruises were radiation burns. Those radiation burns remain on his body to this very day.

Later, while in a Veterans Health Care Facility in Marion, Illinois, George Bush, Oliver North and Alan Greenspan (per Colonel Herrman-Herman) visited him both Fridays prior to his termination, still attempting to gain access to his signature. Colonel Russell Herrman-Herman's "CIA Flu" death was caused by 8-9 injections into the radiation burn area, which rendered him unconscious. After which time, his vital body fluids were extracted, after he was rolled over on his stomach, while his heart was still beating (Cyanosis in his hands), then this man, who had so faithfully served his country when his country called, was placed into the morgue's freezer, while he was still alive. How do I know that? His eyes were as clear as mine when his body was retrieved, nor were they set, as in death. Nor was there evidence of voiding in his pampers.

Did Colonel Russell Herrman-Herman have an active part in the drugs with Bush, North, Greenspan, Baker, Bentsen, Inouye, Meese, Colby, Casey, etc.? Highly doubtful. He was highly opposed to any form of drugs, even an aspirin.

It is also known, his business (corporate) partner, and life long friend, V.K. Durham, and myself, have attempted many, many times to have this murder investigated and no one will touch it! When V.K. was attempting to resolve matters of estate, the Social Security Administration tried to gain access to the estate. When V.K. denied SSA access to the estate, telling SSA in writing a murder was involved and she did not think SSA would want to become involved in a murder case, Social Security threw a "bitch kitty" and cut off V.K.'s SSI Disability.

V.K. at that time had filed a U.S. District Court Case against Illinois/Iowa Power Company for a summary judgement on a default which had been taken lawfully. The court refused to follow constitutional law, or the Rules of Court. The court refused to grant that which had already been taken lawfully: A judgement on a default. One of the U.S. District Court judges got caught with his hand in the cookie jar in this U.S. District Court in East St. Louis, for the Southern District of Illinois. He was caught taking bribes from attorneys and attorney firms who had cases set before him.

V.K. had noticed the court several times about the Social Security Administration's heavy handed tactics, their threats of cutting off her disability if not allowed access to the estate, including Social Security Administration's attempts to obstruct justice. The court sat silent. Finally, on November 6, 1996, V.K. filed Ancillary Jurisdiction into Case 96-739-WLB, in the U.S. District Court, Article III Jurisdiction (constitutional law), for the Southern District of Illinois: The murder of Russell Herrman-Herman. The court has tried to dismiss a civil matter, and a criminal misprision of felony by lumping both cases into one case. On the civil case, had the judge read the case, he would have seen that it was res judicata by previous U.S. Supreme Court Cases which have never been overturned. The murder case (ancillary jurisdiction) is another case entirely.

V.K. did file pursuant to F.R. Civil Procedure, Rule 60 (b), (3) and (4). However, the court still sits silent.

At this time, one must ask: If the Herrman-Herman estate is valueless, then why are appointees of the President of the United States trying so hard to obstruct justice, and obtain access to the estate?

Also, one must ask: Who paid for the medical equipment to murder Colonel Herrman-Herman? The answer: The Social Security Administration (Federal Advisory Committee Act, appointed administrator by the President of the United States), Medicare division, which also paid the doctors to commit the crime. (And no one is the wiser, except us who know what has been going on, and who is behind it all.)

In the Criminal Sections of 18 U.S.C., this is Murder Incorporated.

THINK ABOUT IT!

Mrs. (Col.) Russell Herrmann-Herrman-Herman

The Destruction Of Africa

[Continued from Front Page]

know how else to get information to you people for I realize you can't take every journal offered, and besides, Dharma doesn't have time to read what we write, so much the less everything written in this world game. There are ones here, however, IN CONSTANT TOUCH with people from EIR—AT LEAST WEEKLY. So, we offer this with permission and appreciation. It is invaluable as extensions to the Special Reports shared with you. We can only urge you to make these things available to yourself for full coverage as you can. When people are sincerely trying every method to salvage the world from the Usurpers, they are incredibly sharing of anything and everything—if we can get the word to just one more reader.

Well, we can do better than that for part of our ground team is in South Africa and they SEE the death of that nation running full-steam ahead.

EIR Feature, by Jeffrey Steinberg, [quoting:]

GEORGE BUSH'S 'HEART OF DARKNESS'

On Dec. 1, 1996, former President George Bush gave an interview to Parade magazine, in which he stated: "I don't want to be at the head table anymore. I care about being a good citizen. I don't join boards of directors, and I don't go into business deals. I've had every opportunity to join in putting a petrochemical plant in Kuwait, a chance to make money. I haven't done it. The way I make a living is giving speeches. Get paid a lot of money for giving a speech. No conflict of interest." [H: Wow, and Oh Barf, Barf.]

This statement was an outright lie; a lie that Sir George Bush arranged to appear in the pages of a weekly newspaper insert that reaches millions of households in every part of the United States. George Bush does, indeed, have a very important foreign corporate affiliation: In May 1995, the Canada-based Barrick Gold Corp. created an international advisory board around the personal leadership of Bush, and Bush was designated "honorary senior adviser" to that board—a legal fiction to disguise the former president's active role as chief business developer for the company.

What, then, is Barrick Gold Corp.?

Executive Intelligence Review

P.O. Box 17390

Washington, D.C. 20041-0390

THE DESTRUCTION OF AFRICA

[H: Do any of you still think gold is not going to be worth something one of these days?]

It is understandable that Bush did not wish to advertise his ties to Barrick. The company is not only an important corporate element of the London-centered Club of the Isles and the British global raw materials cartel—a British link that might prove embarrassing to Sir George, at a point when Anglo-American relations remain at a low point, and when British propaganda organs are leading an all-out assault upon the U.S. Presidency. But, Barrick, along with the South Africa-based ANGLO AMERICAN CORP., is engaged in a strategic metals grab in Central Africa, which is being abetted by the greatest genocide per capita in modern times.

From April 1993, when Uganda's President Yoweri Museveni, on behalf of London, launched the genocide of the Hutu majority in Rwanda, through to the ongoing invasion by the same Museveni-led forces in eastern Zaire, Central Africa and the Horn of Africa have been turned into a killing field. Local, British-sponsored "countergangs" have been unleashed to depopulate a region that possesses the world's richest string of precious metal deposits, while a string of Club of the Isles metals cartels, including Barrick, moves in for the kill.

As you will read below, the invasion of eastern Zaire, by the combined armies of Rwanda and Uganda, which began in September 1996, coincided with the Barrick and Anglo American metal grabs in the very same area. The net result of the invasion, and the simultaneous launching of an "internal" rebellion by longtime British provocateur Laurent Kabila, was the depopulating of a string of camps that were holding Rwandan Hutu refugees. Thousands of those refugees were killed in the fighting between the British-backed invaders and French-supported Hutu guerrillas; at least another quarter-of-a-million refugees were driven into the wilderness, to face death by disease and starvation; and another half a million fled back across the border into Rwanda, to face likely extermination at the hands of the Tutsi.

[H: I am amused at you who still stop and ask me, "Just what are you going to do about this?" What is it that YOU want ME to do about this mess? What I do see is a way to keep the world from toppling in the wind of a collapsed economy—if we need to back contracts with gold. The very ones who can't have a collapse at this time may very well wish to help us a bit. We are no more wanting to destroy the stability of economies than is anyone in the top ranks of dictatorships. Won't this upset the DeBeers cartel? Nope, they are a nice fat part of it all. Neither is this any offense to the Oppenheimer family and their Anglo American Corp. They are all of the Club of the Isles and I would think they might well ALL like to assist us in some of our earthly needs if we only stick to good business and helping keep humanity off their necks as we are such a dreadful annoyance. George Bush said about us, one day last year, that we were "only just an annoyance to him..." So be it, mankind is free to do whatever mankind chooses and the rest will simply have to declare "survival" mode. Oh well.... We need some funding for these goodly projects (that help them as well) and they have it, they also have the security blanket to cover themselves and us AND Dharma is tired of being "bumped off" at random times when it is an inconvenience. NEITHER GOD NOR ANYONE IS GOING TO SAVE YOUR WORLD FOR YOU—YOU HAVE TO DO THAT WHICH IS DONE FOR I RUN AROUND WITH AN A-6 SECURITY, ABOVE TOP-SECRET RATING, AND JUST BECAUSE I AM BIGGER, DOES THAT GIVE ME A RIGHT TO CONTROL, FORCE, OR DESTROY ANYONE JUST BECAUSE "YOU" DON'T LIKE THEM? PLEASE THINK BEFORE YOU JUMP INTO YOUR ANSWER TO THAT ONE. I DO NOT HOLD WARS! ANY WARS, ANYWHERE! WARS ARE OF MAN'S DOING—NOT GOD'S.]

EIR first exposed this policy of genocide on Aug. 19, 1994, in a cover story titled "The British Hand Behind the Horror in Rwanda." Then, on Oct. 28, 1994, in a Special Report titled "The Coming Fall of the House of Windsor", we revealed the existence of the secretive Club of the Isles, the House of Windsor-led oligarchical institution centered upon a tightly knit alliance of European princely families, London-based financial and insurance houses, and food and raw materials cartels. The Club of the Isles in turn deploys the resources of the global environmentalist movement, headed by the World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF, formerly the World Wildlife Fund), and its funding arm, the 1001 Club, as a propaganda and paramilitary arm of their one-world "New Dark Age" agenda.

Under the WWF umbrella, the British Crown has built up a string of strategically located nature preserves and national parks, which serve as staging grounds for cross-border incursions, as training grounds for terrorist gangs, and as command posts for British "former" SAS commandos to direct the killings in every part of sub-Saharan Africa.

As we document below, in joining the advisory board to Barrick Gold, and throwing his political clout into facilitating Barrick's worldwide strategic metals grab, George Bush has cast his lot with a collection of very unsavory characters, including Barrick's chairman, Peter Munk, and with the entire Canadian Bronfman gang.

Barrick and the South African Oppenheimer family's Anglo American Corp. are at the cutting edge of a Club of the Isles drive to recolonize a severely depopulated African continent, by busting up the post-colonial nation-states, beginning with Zaire; and then creating privately owned micro-states, in which what is left of the indigenous population is impressed into slavery. The novelist Joseph Conrad described these conditions graphically in his 1899 book Heart of Darkness. Unless the oligarchy is stopped, Bush and his friends intend to reimpose those conditions.

A GLIMPSE AT COLONIALISM IN ACTION

On Aug. 18, as the Rwandan patriotic Front began its armed attacks on the camps of Rwandan refugees in Zaire, the London Observer published an op-ed by Norman Stone, which went straight to the heart of British policy for Africa. Citing the horrific strife in Rwanda and Burundi, Stone bluntly stated: "For re-imperialization now begins to make sense again, and the Europeans would be in a good position to push through some sort of international mandate. This was what happened over a century ago, and you can argue

The Parasite Brigade

H. KISSINGER

A. TAPEWORM

G. BUSH

hand, then sat up in the sunlight, crossing his shins in front of him, and after a time let his woolly head fall on his breastbone.

"I didn't want any more loitering in the shade, and I made haste towards the station."

[END OF QUOTING]

Not a pretty picture? Well, readers, this is exactly what is planned for YOU. Can't you see that it isn't even race or color or anything you might hang your hat on for reasoning for such non-living. It IS the way it IS. This makes it not one iota more right for it to be in Africa or in America or Australia. But I CAN'T that the problems of Africa were made infinitely worse than they needed to be because the process was brought prematurely to an end. The world today has a ghostly similarity to that of a century ago."

Many Africans who remember the pre-independence days would not agree with Stone's exultation of colonial rule. The reality of imperialism was not highly publicized, however, even as late as the 1960s, on the eve of independence for most countries, life expectancy in most African countries was generally under 30 years of age. One writer who had a firsthand view of colonialism and depicted it was the Polish-British writer Joseph Conrad. In 1889, Conrad traveled the Congo River as master of the ship Otago. In 1899, Conrad wrote about his journey through the Belgian Congo, in Heart of Darkness. Belgian colonial rule, which was run directly by and for the Belgian monarchy, was notoriously harsh. Conrad relates that the porters for a group of "pilgrims" were not given food each day, but handed a nine-inch piece of wire, which they were supposed to exchange for food with area Africans—a form of payment by which they starved. Under colonial rule, the Congo River Basin had been turned into no less than a giant concentration camp, in which people were worked to death, as Conrad described:

AN 'INFERNO'

"A continuous noise of the rapids above hovered over this scene of inhabited devastation. A lot of people, mostly Black and naked, moved about like ants... They were building a railway..."

"A slight clinking behind me made me turn my head. Six Black men advanced in a file, toiling up the path. They walked erect and slow, balancing small baskets full of earth on their heads, and the clink kept time with their footsteps. Black rags were wound around their loins, and the short ends behind wagged to and fro like tails. I could see every rib, the joints of their limbs were like knots in a rope; each had an iron collar on his neck, and all were connected together with a chain whose bights swung between them rhythmically clinking... All their meagre breasts panted together, then violently dilated nostrils quivered, the eyes stared stonily uphill. They passed me within six inches, without a glance, with complete, deathlike indifference..."

"At last I got under the trees. My purpose was to stroll into the shade for a moment; but no sooner within than it seemed to me I had stepped into the gloomy circle of some Inferno. The rapids were near, and an uninterrupted, uniform, rushing noise filled the mournful stillness of the grove, where not a breath stirred, not a leaf moved, with a mysterious sound—as though the tearing pace of the launched earth had suddenly become audible.

"Black shapes crouched, lay, sat between the trees leaning against the trunks, clinging to the earth, half coming out, half effaced within the dim light, in all the attitudes of pain, abandonment, and despair. Another mine on the cliff went off, followed by a slight shudder of the soil under my feet. The work was going on. The work! And this was the place where some of the helpers had withdrawn to die.

"They were dying slowly—it was very clear. They were not enemies, they were not criminals, they were nothing earthly now—nothing but Black shadows of disease and starvation, lying confusedly in the greenish gloom. Brought from all the recesses of the coast in all the legality of time contracts, lost in uncongenial surroundings, fed on unfamiliar food, they sickened, became inefficient, and were then allowed to crawl away and rest. These moribund shapes were free as air—and nearly as thin. I began to distinguish the gleam of the eyes under the trees. Then, glancing down, I saw a face near my hand. The Black bones reclined at full length with one shoulder against the tree, and slowly the eyelids rose and the sunken eyes looked up at me, enormous and vacant, a kind of blind, white flicker in the depths of the orbs, which died out slowly. The man seemed young—almost a boy—but you know with them it's hard to tell. I found nothing else to do but to offer him one of my good Swede's ship's biscuits I had in my pocket. The fingers closed slowly on it and held—there was no other movement and no other glance.

"Near the same tree two more bundles of acute angles sat with their legs drawn up. One, with his chin propped on his knees, stared at nothing, in an intolerable and appalling manner; his brother phantom rested its forehead, as if overcome with a great weariness; and all about others were scattered in every pose of contorted collapse, as in some picture of a massacre or a pestilence. While I stood horror-struck, one of these creatures rose to his hands and knees, and went off on all-fours toward the river to drink. He lapped out of his

FIX IT FOR YOU.

As long as there are the Bushes, Khashoggis, Munks and Mulroneys of the world—there will be this disastrously devastating inequality. There is a LOT you can do, but there is little I can do except offer information and show you a way to perhaps gain a bit of freedom and life. And yes, I did say Khashoggi as in Adnan. Do I condone or condemn these people named here? Neither. IT IS NOT MY PLACE TO JUDGE. ADNAN KHASHOGGI IS THE FOUNDER OF BARRICK GOLD CORP. SO, YOUR NEXT QUESTION IS PROBABLY, "DIDN'T YOU SUGGEST WE TRY FOR FUNDING HELP FROM ADNAN KHASHOGGI?" Yes indeed, money OR GOLD is not good or bad, right or wrong—only the choices of the people using these things can be discerned by their actions and use thereof. We certainly have nothing in mind except totally worthwhile projects and a hope of feeding some of you-the-people OF GOD, as things worsen and worsen in the clutches of this New World Order. Even the wealthy need to eat, brethren—even the Elite.

So how does the next portion begin?: "Barrick Gold, caught scrambling for loot amid the corpses in Zaire, is a corporate front for the George Bush-allied covert political apparatus. The Canada-based Barrick is Bush's only known current business enterprise. The company, which Bush now personally leads, was created by Bush's political partners—British elite narcotics financiers, and arms traffickers and money launderers. ..."

And as an inset: "Barrick Gold Chairman Peter Munk has floated to a high place in the British Empire's political-financial apparatus.

"Munk is chairman of Trizec, a huge real estate conglomerate which was taken over in virtual bankruptcy, and which holds a large part of Barrick's stock. Trizec had been the property of Munk's close friends, the Bronfmans, as front men for British intelligence and 'Dope, Inc.' London bankers around the Eagle Star Insurance Company.

"Munk and Barrick director Andrew Sarlos are very close associates of international speculator George Soros, in a grouping of Hungarian Jewish émigrés. A personal investment director for Britain's Queen Elizabeth, Soros is the world's leading promoter of the legitimization of criminal enterprises, particularly narcotics.

"Munk is also a director of the Hollinger Corporation, the reactionary global newspaper conglomerate organized by British intelligence and 'Special Operations Executive' Crown representatives. Hollinger Chairman Conrad Black was the primary sponsor of Brian Mulroney's career. Munk has said that he created the Barrick international advisory board on the model of the Hollinger Corp.'s advisory board, which features such close Bush allies as Margaret Thatcher, HENRY KISSINGER, and the Bronfmans."

May we all now rest in peace, face the facts, and then and only then, consider resources and possibilities. Will OUR starving to death, dying in prisons, or taking our pop guns out against their laser weapons make a big difference? NO, NO, AND NO. We negotiate—WE NEVER COMPROMISE EITHER WISDOM OR SOUL TRUTH. WE TAKE HELP FROM WHERE WE CAN GET IT WHILE MAINTAINING SECURITY AND INTEGRITY. WE DON'T HAVE TO DO IN THESE THUGS AND CRIMINALS—THEY WILL DO THAT FOR THEMSELVES ONE OF THESE DAYS A-COMIN'. We will never stoop to holding hate and revenge as our goals—we only want that which creates goodness and allows positive flow of energy—hate destroys. Neither I, nor you, can fix that which is already past but we can seek diligently a way to improve the NOW and look forward to a better, hopefully, future time of creation and not destruction. These men do not consider me their enemy—they simply don't want YOU TO KNOW WHAT THEY ARE DOING OR HOW BAD THEY REALLY ARE FOR WHEN YOU KNOW, THEIR DAYS UPON THIS PLACE ARE NUMBERED IN SMALL DIGITS.

MAY THE GRACE OF GOD ALLOW YOU TO SEE AND HEAR, THAT WE ALWAYS ACT EVER IN WISDOM AND NEVER IN FOOLISHNESS TO SATISFY AN EGO WHIM JUST BECAUSE WE THINK A THING TO BE RIGHT OR WRONG WITHOUT REALIZING THE WHOLE OF TRUTH. GUNS ONLY CONFUSE THE ISSUES AND GET GOODLY MEN KILLED! PLEASE DO NOT WASTE OUR TEAMS ON SUCH RIDICULOUS ASSUMPTIONS.

Thank you for a long day. We have lots more to write on this topic but tomorrow will have to suffice for today is gone. Salu.

1/13/97 #2 HATONN

Now, back to the dreary subject of the Bushes and Branches and other things and beings you never wanted to know about, much the less, ask about. THEY CONTROL YOUR EXISTENCE NOW AND IN THE PERCEIVED FUTURE—SO DO WHAT YOU WILL ABOUT LEARNING WHAT IS, FOR IT IS YOUR LIFE, READERS!

Back to Barrick: (Gold Corporation, that is.)

Again with permission from EIR, we move on with full credit and great appreciation to both the publication and the individual authors sharing their information. I want all credit to go and flow to these others for there is nothing NEW on your planet, not even information—just people willing to bring it into the LIGHT. Dark and sinister activities cannot allow the light to shine within their dark and secret places. ALL we want to do is simply turn on the light for we have no interest in doing more unto the perpetrators or their games. That function of setting wrong to right is up to YOU.

Before I move on I want to offer some information regarding getting EIR: EIR News Service Inc., P.O. Box 17390, Washington, D.C. 20041-0390 (For subscriptions).

Now I want to qualify something right up front. I am also going to suggest you look into 21ST CENTURY, P.O. Box 16285, Washington, D.C. 20041. Is there a difference? Never mind same or difference. There is information being offered that "THE ATOMIC SCIENCE TEXTBOOKS DON'T TEACH" (21ST CENTURY SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY). This is going to push US&P right out of the running, readers, as to TRUTH in science and understanding of such as the work of Russell, Tesla, Newton, Gauss, Weber, Ampere and such as Bernhard Riemann. There are more but this is a worthy start. This also is subscription information as offered and we support this presentation to the fullest. For the first time, for instance, Laurence Hecht reveals the true early history of atomic science. This will take the "revelation" of receiving out of the dim reaches of possibility—into the KNOWING of scientific input. This in no wise lessens the information from such as ATOMIC SUICIDE ? but puts science where it belongs—into the minds of ALL. When SCIENCE KNOWLEDGE is hidden beneath Spiritual aspects of individual choosers, you err. You, as citizens of a world in trouble, need to have information freely shared and not have the threat of jail or prison for anyone who has ability to get the same information and even willingly give honor and appreciation to the resource. Perhaps someday YOU will understand the struggle over the DIFFERENCE.

[QUOTING, Part 2:]

INSIDE STORY: THE BUSH GANG AND BARRICK GOLD CORPORATION

Original article by Anton Chaitkin.

EIR Jan. 3, 1997. Feature, pg. 19

Barrick Gold, caught scrambling for loot amid the corpses in Zaire, is a corporate front for the George Bush-allied covert political apparatus. The Canada-based Barrick is Bush's only known current business enterprise. The company, which Bush now personally leads, was created by Bush's political partners—British elite narcotics financiers, and arms traffickers and money launderers.

Using the influence of this political faction, Barrick acquired important interests, first in the United States, then in Canada and South America. In South America, as Barrick boasts in its 1995 annual report, the company has an aggressive, long-term approach, with mines and projects established in strategic locations in ARGENTINA, CHILE, PERU, BOLIVIA, and BRAZIL. "Almost two-thirds of the exploration and development drilling budget will be spent in South America, where the company has decided to focus its efforts," the annual report states. [H: Still think Bush went down to help the Moonies OPEN AN ASHRAM?] In addition, with its intended conquests in Indonesia and Africa, the firm now says it aims to move from third to first among the world's largest gold mining companies. [H: Sounds to me as if one of these days GOLD is going to again be very, very valuable—as well as having need for a market for same. What is the value of holding all the assets in gold and not having it have massive value?]

We present here the results of EIR's investigation of the Bush company, centering on the following principal figures. [H: We are happy to give credit for allowing us to NOT be in the focus of this information-gathering for we have enough personal problems with the listed players. We have no intention of being THE ones who bring such information into the light of day—FIRST.]

GEORGE HERBERT WALKER BUSH, whose father was a partner in the powerful London-controlled private banking firm Brown Brothers Harriman. Relevant to the Barrick story, Bush was U.S. vice president and chief of covert operations in the Reagan-Bush (1981-89) administration, and U.S. President (1989-93). As a former President and power broker, Bush is Barrick Gold Corp.'s chief lobbyist, a stockholder in Barrick, and honorary senior adviser to Barrick's international advisory board.

ADNAN KHASHOGGI, a Bush-allied Saudi billionaire and arms trafficker, founder of the Barrick Gold Corp.; famous for his illegal weapons sales to Iran.

PETER MUNK, a business failure who became a protégé of the British royal family, and Khashoggi's partner. Munk is chairman of Barrick Gold Corp.

BRIAN MULRONEY, Canadian prime minister (1984-93) and George Bush's errand boy; Barrick Gold lobbyist and director, Bush's lieutenant on the Barrick international advisory board.

Barrick Gold was founded in Toronto, Canada, in 1983. The majority investment in the firm was held by Khashoggi and his arms-trafficking partners, who were just then gearing up the Iran-Israel-Nicaragua guns and cocaine tangle which would explode in 1986 as the "Iran-Contra" scandal.

The nominal chief of Barrick Gold was Peter Munk, a Hungarian Jewish immigrant who had repeatedly "died" as a businessman, only to be repeatedly revived by princes and principalities. This much of Munk's story is before the public in a biography that was written and published with Munk's support, entitled Peter Munk: The Making of a Modern Tycoon, by Donald Rumball (Toronto: Stoddart Publishing Co., 1996). It vaguely describes Munk's public disgrace, his self-exile in London, and his sudden rise to near-billionaire status ending with Munk's invitation to George Bush to become honorary senior adviser to the board, created in May 1995.

THE CLAIRTONE HEIST

Peter Munk first became notorious in Canada in the late 1960s, as the beneficiary in an insider trading scandal. Munk and a partner named David Gilmour owned an audio equipment manufacturing company that had been heavily subsidized by the province of Nova Scotia. Munk and Gilmour quietly dumped 29,000 shares of Clairtone stock in 1967, just before publication of the company's financial report tipped off other investors that the company was failing. After Munk sold at $9 per share, the stock plunged to $1.

Dr. Morton Shulman, a member of the legislative assembly of the province of Ontario, asked government representatives if Munk would escape with his money and no legal consequences (see Ontario Legislative Library record of Ontario provincial parliamentary debate on June 3, 1969).

Ontario Minister of Financial and Commercial Affairs H.L. Rowntree responded that a court had been requested to order the Ontario Securities Commission "to commence an action in connection with [Munk's] Clairtone Sound Company... for an action in the name of the company for the accounting of profits allegedly made by him by reason of the improper use of inside information."

But there was no government action, and Munk would indeed escape. A Clairtone stockholder named John Adams, who had lost about $5,500, had filed a legal action against Munk. Munk hired attorney Charles Dubin, whom Shulman described as "a lawyer who acts for the Conservative scandals... And Charles Dubin... knew exactly how to go about subverting the law in this case."

Shulman reported that Munk's attorney gave Adams $35,000 as a settlement, on Adams' agreement not to make the case public. Then, "the lawyer for Adams and Charles Dubin went into the Judge's chambers... [and] requested the judge to remove the papers from the registrar's office and keep them in his own private chambers, which the judge did."

"Stop making promises—you're already elected."

Charles Dubin, Munk's inventive attorney, the fixer for Mulroney's Conservative party, became Ontario's chief justice, and only recently retired.

The disappearance of legal papers in the Munk case discouraged other stockholders from going after Munk. But the resulting scandal made him a pariah in Canada, and Munk moved to London to start a new life. [H: Still think papers couldn't and wouldn't be taken by such as Horn and Jason Brent from the Ekker case when it involves BIG PEOPLE and BIG S&L'S? Wouldn't you think it would simply be easier to meet some obligations to these people rather than drag even the court judges through this immoral mud-hole?]

'DOPE, INC.' PUTS MUNK BACK TOGETHER

The sister of Munk's partner, David Gilmour, had married one of the Vansittarts, a family high in the Anglo-Dutch aristocracy. Munk's approved biography reports that this Vansittart activated the formidable Sir Henry Keswick, who made arrangements to lift Munk into a new career. Keswick's family merchant banking firm, Jardine Matheson, had long been the British Empire's leading, out-in-the-open organizer of Asian illegal narcotics trafficking and drug-money laundering. (Keswick, Jardine Matheson, and their cohorts are central figures in EIR's book Dope, Inc. (Washington, D.C.) Executive Intelligence Review, third edition, 1992. [H: REALLY IS WORTH YOUR ATTENTION.]

Jardine Matheson made Munk the chief executive of a Bahamas-registered hotel corporation called Southern Pacific Properties (SPP), with Jardine money, and Jardine's chief executive, David Newbigging, as a director. Then, Jardine's historical dope partner, the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company (P&O), joined the Munk enterprise; P&O's Lord Geddes himself joined Newbigging on the Munk-SPP board. In future years, as Munk rose to world prominence in the gold business, the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corp. and the Royal Bank of Canada, two "Dope, Inc." financial agencies, would provide credit in the billions of dollars for Munk's expansion.

Munk-SPP became a giant hotel owner in Australia and the South Pacific islands, and seized control of the Travelodge chain.

Munk's rise in Australia was aided by his lifelong close association with fellow Hungarian émigré Sir Peter Abeles, Australia's transport mogul. Munk's stepfather had been secretary and assistant to Abeles' father in Vienna in the late 1940s. Abeles is reportedly known in Europe as "the White Knight", in reference both to his British knighthood, and his reported large role in the cocaine trade. Jonathan Kwitney, in The Crimes of Patriots (New York: W.W. Norton, 1987), reports that, after Abeles encountered labor union problems in his American business, Abeles gave to gangster "associates of... the most powerful Mafia leader in the United States... a 20% stake in his U.S. operations." His partners were indicted for hiding his payments, but Abeles refused to come to America to testify, and charges were dropped.

KHASHOGGI, BARRICK, AND THE AYATOLLAHS

In 1974, Munk signed an investment partnership agreement with arms-trafficking billionaire Adnan Khashoggi of Saudi Arabia. According to Munk's approved biography (PETER MUNK: THE MAKING OF A MODERN TYCOON), the new alliance was cemented when Munk and Khashoggi were summoned to the London headquarters of Peninsular and Orient. P&O's hereditary boss was Lord Inchcape, whose predecessor in the 1920s (also Lord Inchcape) had directed Britain's India Commission to continue the Empire's opium production.

Munk later told his biographer that he was nervous—Khashoggi was late and perhaps "the P&O directors wouldn't wait for us and it would seriously harm the relationship. It was already remarkable that they should have a Jew and an Arab together in their dining room." But, the mighty Lord Inchcape convinced Khashoggi to plunge in, and Khashoggi now provided most of the cash for the Munk enterprise.

Since this arrangement was sealed back in the 1970s, Munk has grown in favor as London's creature. He became a regular skiing partner of Prince Charles, who recently attended the opening of a Munk speculative real estate venture (a factory outlet mall) in Germany. Munk is a member of the elite "1001 Club", co-founded by Prince Philip, a worldwide grouping of aristocrats, bankers, and speculators who support a radical anti-industrial, "Pro-environmentalist" looting strategy, and who provide a lion's share of the funding for Prince Philip's World Wildlife Fund.

The first Khashoggi-Munk-London venture was an attempt to build a 10,000-acre "jet set" resort complex immediately adjoining the Egyptian pyramids. As the scheme threatened to destroy the entire historical/archaeological area, it evoked mass protests, and could not be forced through. Munk sued Egypt's government, and was eventually awarded $17 million by an international referee.

Khashoggi and his associates, backers of the British- and Bush-linked faction of the arms trade, created Barrick Petroleum Corp. in 1981, registered as a Delaware, U.S.A., corporation. Junior partner Munk, having returned from London, set up a parallel "Barrick Resources" in Canada.

But Munk's name was an anathema to Canadian investors. So, Khashoggi was brought in to lend his prestige to Munk. Khashoggi made a televised publicity tour of the Toronto stock exchange, and announced that he had purchased 10,000 (Canadian) Barrick shares. At that point, in fact, Khashoggi, his brother, and their international associates already controlled the company, partially through Khashoggi's Liechtenstein-U.S.A. conglomerate, "Triad".

Munk was now launched as a corporate chairman in Canada. But this first Barrick, an oil development firm, went bust and lost all its money.

In 1983, the Khashoggi-led group formed the gold company whose name was soon changed to Barrick Gold Corp. Sheik Kamal Adham was reportedly one of the new company's founding co-owners. Adham, the chief of Saudi intelligence, had coordinated royalist guerrillas in Yemen, with British arms secretly provided through Khashoggi.

Beginning in 1985, Khashoggi borrowed $21 million using his Barrick stock as collateral, for the covert transfer of arms to Iran for the Bush-North group, during an official U.S. arms embargo against the Khomeini regime. Khashoggi made Donald Fraser, the Toronto-based businessman who allegedly provided the loan from his Cayman Islands company, president of Khashoggi's Triad American holding company.

Khashoggi used the Monte Carlo office of the Bank of Credit and Commerce International (BCCI) to launder money for Iran arms sales. Barrick Gold Corp. co-founder Kamal Adham was later prosecuted for fraud in the BCCI case, and paid a $100 million fine.

Khashoggi's Saudi royal piggybanks also underwrote George Bush's Central American "Contras" adventures, making payments through the Swiss Bank Corp. and a Cayman Islands bank, totalling about $27 million.

When the Iran and Contra scandals blew up in 1986, U.S. Attorney General Edwin Meese linked the two scandals in a Nov. 25 public revelation. The next day, Munk announced a shareholders' meeting to decide on an urgent restructuring plan. A new organization emerged, keeping the Khashoggi group in control, but easing Khashoggi out of the limelight and making Munk the sole public figurehead. Personnel were shifted into the Canada organization out of Khashoggi's Triad operations in Utah. [H: That is Brent Scowcroft country, U.S.A., readers. Still think the Mormon Church doesn't have anything to do with this NEW WORLD ORDER? They even refer to themselves as Latter Day Saints and ZIONISTS. The word "Mormon" is an Asian term for Satan. This, of course, is just for "Inquiring Minds" who still want to know.] Tariq Kadri, Khashoggi's longtime attorney, was made president of the Horsham holding company that was put over Barrick.

As the U.S. Congress took up the arms-for-drugs investigation and other trails leading to Vice President Bush, Khashoggi became too hot for the Canadian partnership, and the Khashoggi group's shares were officially sold off. Khashoggi was himself arrested in 1989, in a fraud case involving the Philippines' Marcos regime. Taken from Switzerland and jailed in New York, Khashoggi was bailed out with a $4 million check from his partner, Peter Munk. [H: And come on, readers, this is recently enough that ALL of you should remember this.]

BUSH CASHES HIS GOLD CHIPS

In 1986-87, at the height of the Iran-Contra controversy, the Barrick Gold Corp. acquired the Goldstrike property in Nevada for $63 million. The land, proving to hold $10 billion in gold, was the property of the U.S. Government. [H: OOPS! And I bet YOU still think that Bush-used gold certificate was not real, either. Pandora's box is simply running over with information if you bother to look inside.] Bush was elected President in 1988, and his administration put through a special dispensation—applied only to the Barrick Gold Corp.—to speed up the normal procedures for a mining company to take official title ("patent") to the land. [H: !!!!!]

With the Bush Goldstrike intervention, Barrick Gold shot up from insignificance, to world power status, and Bush himself climbed on board.

(Bush told the American public, in an interview in the Dec. 1, 1996 Parade magazine Sunday supplement: "I don't join boards of directors, and I don't go into business deals." Yet, on Sept. 17, 1996, less than three months earlier, Bush had flown into Elko, Nevada, on a Barrick corporate jet. Bush's international advisory board convened at Barrick's Goldstrike property, and met with Barrick's directors. Speaking to an audience gathered to honor his presence at the mine, Bush said: "There is no such thing as an imperial, formal ex-Presidency. We just go back and live like the rest of you.")

President Bush's ambassador to Canada (1989-92), Edward N. Ney, had been for many years a Bush political operative and an international coordinator of Bush's "privatized" intelligence activities. In 1992, Ney quit as ambassador and became a director of the Barrick Gold Corp.

The following year, Brian Mulroney resigned as Canadian prime minister. Mulroney was the most unpopular Canadian politician; but, in power, he had directly aided Barrick's international ventures, and had worked closely with Bush to force through free trade agreements. Munk immediately hired the former prime minister as a Barrick step-'n'-fetchit. The approved biography explains Munk's point of view.

"Mulroney [was] the unhappy lightning rod for the anger of a whole nation, in office and out. Munk was well aware of these feelings toward his new recruit... After nine years trotting around the world to meet world leaders, he had incomparable access to Presidents and prime ministers in all the key spots... Mulroney arranged the necessary access to the key decision makers. Munk was starting to salivate at the prospect of an inside track into the huge Chinese territory." Mulroney has been paid over $300,000 per year by Barrick.

Barrick announced in May 1995, that a new international advisory board was being assembled, under the leadership of "honorary senior adviser" George Bush, the former U.S. President, who, like Mulroney, had recently lost his job at the hands of the voters.

On Nov. 27, 1996, the French newspaper Le Monde leaked the news that Barrick had been granted a concession to prospect for gold in Zaire—a lead which prompted the present EIR Barrick investigation. Canadian newspapers that same day reported that Barrick Gold had convinced the government of Indonesia to award to Barrick control over the world's largest gold find, and that George Bush and Brian Mulroney had personally done the heavy lobbying to accomplish this.

The Indonesia deal is indeed startling. The small Canadian mining company Bre-X Minerals Ltd. had intended to develop the Busang gold mine, on East Kalimantan. Suddenly, the government announced that it demanded that Barrick Gold Corp. be cut in to a 75% ownership stake in the mine, which is estimated to hold 57 million ounces of gold, with a current estimated value of over $20 BILLION.

EIR contacted Placer Dome Inc., a rival company which has been bidding for the right to develop a share of the Busang mine. A Placer Dome spokesman would make no comment on Barrick Gold, saying only, of his own firm, "We are a gold mining company, not a political organization."

The U.S. Republican Party, of course, has been attempting to use President Clinton's fund-raising relationship with Indonesian supporters as a scandal to break the President. Former President Bush, meanwhile, has been reportedly telling world leaders, privately, that the Clinton Presidency is destroyed; that his son, Texas Gov. George W. Bush, will be the next President, reviving the Bush dynasty; and that, therefore, leaders would be smart to work with him now.

[END QUOTING OF PART 2]

Now team, aren't we glad that we went first to the Bushes and Twigs in point here? They used a lot of money on their own things and assets by use of YOUR heritage funds. I think it would be totally wise to share with us or, at the least, leave us to our own resources. I again present the facts that I KEEP MY AGREEMENTS—YOU DO NOT! I HAVE NO INTEREST IN CLEANING YOUR NOSES, LITTLE CRIMINALS—THAT IS UP TO THE PEOPLE YOU CHEAT.

Harsh Testing Or Divide-And-Conquer?

1/13/97 #2 HATONN

DIVIDE AND CONQUER?

What is it here you wish to conquer? Your "being right" over being correct?? What is it you feel you are doing? And WHY are you doing it? Careful now, an ego answer will show and tell.

Can you continue to have divisions and finally you somehow "win"? What is winning? Is it getting your way or getting the most, uninformed, onto "your side" somehow? Be very careful lest ye bite the wrong fingers and stomp the wrong toes. This is for you in Australia as well as those under the nose in Illinois or Grand Junction, Colorado—not to even mention the ones in Idaho being sucked in—AGAIN.

When people are "crossed" as to ego assumptions they will usually convince YOU of their good intentions and then tell you they have a direct line to the Command Marshals. If, however, there is pitting one against another, especially at the level of COMMAND, there is gross error in assumptions. We have a massive task to do and we will not play games of such silliness at any EARTHLY LEVEL, especially as deemed appropriate by receivers, channels and would-be kings. In every instance be most careful in that which you do. Anyone who can comprehend the size of this mission is going to laugh at your antics because it is so obvious that a lot of HARD WORK and management within and under the laws of God and Man must be without dents and scratches.

Some of you think you know better—perhaps you do—but why, if so, do we have nothing with which to work save that which WE HAVE DONE? Those making contributions in great measure understand the seriousness of successfully fulfilling our direct course of actions. If all you wish to save is your own behind and "be within" without much contribution to the whole, except to demand attention—then you are going to be most uncomfortable—especially if you pull others into that trap of closed-end cul-de-sac. Looking at the sky and communing with "whatever" shows up is entertaining but is hardly the wisest approach to WISDOM. And if you think you are strong enough to know better, so be it. We do not have the privilege of a singularly beautiful ranting about all the wondrously Spiritual ways for man. We have to deal with WHAT IS and an assumption of otherwise is foolish indeed. And I would like some of you to SHOW me how you are changing greatly any systems? How are YOU producing those things that man is needing to survive and keep marching unto God's positioning? There are myriads of troopers out there working for the adversary from big stuff to little stuff to gigantic stuff. We have to work within that STUFF without allowing the "stuff" to become us.

If there is no balance in your understanding of circumstances and you perceive it is enough for YOU just to be, then you are incorrect—if what you want is to be counted among the team offering Truth and Ways to accomplish betterment and reclamation within this old tired world of pretty adept adversaries. How nice to be able to laze back and contemplate the miracles of stars and ships, meditate on how you opinionate and will change the world and somehow become famous, rich and certainly, bowed unto. Nope, readers, SOMEBODY has to go forth and meet the enemy and do the physical battle of wits—all within the laws of nations and God. And, if your GUIDES are telling you otherwise, you had better be checking out YOUR GUIDES for the hidden lessons being dumped onto your unsuspecting heads. No member of our team will escape the most harsh of testing in every direction imagined and, if found wanting, will be caught sharply to attention. None of US are indispensable for only God can decide who may or may not be indispensable to HIM. However, there is usually a long trail of unbending service which pretty much lays forth the picture for any to see who are willing to bend to the task.

How dare you who are newly perceiving receivers now pronounce that something I may say is simply Doris having a bad day—when you are not even willing to meet the smallest requests? Is that what YOUR GUIDES are telling you? Then I suggest you look closely at

YOUR GUIDES because you don't have ANY GUIDES OF REALITY THAT I DON'T KNOW! Again, this is for those in Brazil as well as Sweden and London. Is it that people perceive continually that somehow you can be "Spiritual" and then prosper from OUR WORK WHEN THE OPPORTUNITY PRESENTS ITSELF? Spirituality in God IS the projecting at all times of the actions which move toward God, not simply spouting opinions of self or "guides" and waiting for something to dump on you. I can promise the dumper will not be God nor will the reward be goodly or abundant if you have served the adversary—even as to the pulling away from pathway even one tiny infant growing into service.

Do you perceive I ask too much? I ask almost nothing save a few letters hither and yon. Doris and E.J. ask even less. Some of you have seen the truth and shared so greatly as to bring us to our knees in appreciation. But we hope that it has been to surely test an honorable system in spite of all odds against it working, arranging to move, when we can, ahead in surely effective work, and generally just "realize" the massive task of any reclamation FOR GOD OF LIGHTED CREATION/CREATOR.

We have worked and learned through long hard hours and would it not be wondrous if each individual would simply shoulder his own load and perform? Well, perhaps that is a dream beyond our capability of precipitating. When you choose the wrong teachers who simply divide your attention in assumptions which do not even bear proof of correct actions, then perhaps you need to look at what is transpiring, check the information you are getting and from whence it springs—and take abundant CARE in options.

New Gaia Products

Order by Mail 1996 Order Form Order by Phone

New Gaia Products
P.O. Box 27710
Las Vegas, NV 89126

1 (800) NEW-GAIA (639-4242)
1 (805) 822-9070 FAX

(Please Print)

Name

Date

Street Address

City/Town

State/Prov.

Zip Code

Daytime Phone No.

Credit Card No. (Visa, Master Card or Discover)

Expiration Date

Signature For Credit Card Orders

 SHIPPING & HANDLING RATES:

FOR: CA, WA, OR, AZ,
MT, UT, ID, CO, NM,
WY, NV

FOR THE REST OF
CONTINENTAL USA

$ 0-100	$6.00	$ 0-100	$8.00
$ 101-200	$7.00	$ 101-200	$9.00
$ 201-300	$8.00	$ 201-300	$10.00
$ 301-400	$9.00	$ 301-400	$11.00
$ 401-500	$10.00	$ 401-500	$12.00
$ 501-600	$11.00	$ 501-600	$13.00

ALASKA & HAWAII PLEASE CALL FOR SHIPPING RATES

NOTE:

 For UPS 2nd day to Rural Alaska, please call for rates.

 For Priority Mail to any locations, please call for rates.

 All Foreign orders, please contact our office in writing for specific rates as rates vary greatly.

 When ordering cases of product call for shipping rates.

FOR ALL BREAD MACHINES, BREAD MIXES, FLOUR
ORDERS, PROGRAM STARTING PACKAGES AND MAIN-TENANCE PACKAGES, CALL FOR SHIPPING COSTS.

Item	PRICE PER UNIT	Qty.	Amount	Item	PRICE PER UNIT	Qty.	Amount
GAIANDRIANA LIQUID 16 oz. $ 20.00				GAIA CLEANSE KIT 14-DAY PARASITE PROGRAM $ 48.00
32 oz. $ 40.00				Individual components sold separately—call for prices
AQUAGAIA (Mitochondria) LIQUID 16 oz. $ 20.00				GULF WAR SYNDROME "Starter Kit" $260.00
32 oz. $ 40.00
GAIALYTE 1 liter $ 8.50				GAIASORB NEUTRA-BOND 2 oz. $ 6.00
2 liters $ 15.00				NICOTINE__ CAFFEINE__ ALCOHOL__
KOMBUCHA TEA BREEZE 1 liter $ 3.50				SUCROSE__ STARCH__
2 liters $ 6.00
KOMBUCHA TEA VINEGAR 16 oz. $ 6.00				GAIASORB NEUTRA-BOND TRAVEL PACK $ 15.00
CARBAGIAIA (FIBRINO-CARTILAGE) 8 oz. $ 8.50
MELLOREAM BEVERAGE POWDER 3.25 lb. $15.00				*HITACHI (HB101) BREAD MACHINE $149.00
"3 IN 1" GRAPE SEED EXTRACT 60 CAPSULES $18.00				(FACTORY BLEMISHED/REFURBISHED)
"4 IN 1" WILD YAM EXTRACT 60 CAPSULES $22.00				*GAIASPELT BREAD MIX (Whole Wheat & Spelt) $ 3.50
A-C-E Anti-Oxidant Formula 180 TABLETS $24.95				(Pure Spelt)
CHLORELLA 300 TABLETS/500mg. EA. $21.00				*GAIASPELT FLOUR 2 lbs. @ $1.25/lb. $ 2.50
ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS 90 TABLETS $24.50				4 lbs. @ $1.25/lb. $ 5.00
GAIA TRIM — 30 Day Supply $35.00				8 lbs. @ $1.25/lb. $ 10.00
GINKGO BILOBA (24% Extract) 180 TABLETS $24.95				*GAIASPELT KERNELS 4 lbs. @ $1.25/lb. $ 5.00
OLIVE LEAF 60 TABLETS $24.00				10 lbs. @ $1.25/lb. $ 12.50
OLIVE LEAF EXTRACT 35 PG. BOOKLET $ 2.75				*PROGRAM STARTING PACKAGE
by James R. Privitera, M.D. S&H included				1 Bottle Gaiandrina (1 qt.)
RARE EARTH CAPSULES 60 CAPSULES $ 6.00				1 Bottle AquaGaia (1 qt.)
POSILIN CAPSULES 60 CAPSULES $ 6.00				2 Bottles Gaialyte (2 liters each)
ALOE PLUS 77 60 CAPSULES/450mg. EA. $16.95				4 Pkgs. Spelt Bread Mix
Alfalfa & Minerals				5 Audio-cassettes
ALOE FREEZE DRIED CAPS 90 CAPSULES $30.00				*MAINTENANCE PACKAGE
ALOE JUICE Whole Leaf Aloe Vera Concentrate 1 liter $ 18.00				1 Bottle Gaiandrina (1 qt.)
(10X STRENGTH)				2 Bottles Gaialyte (2 liters each)
SUPER OXY (CHERRY-BERRY) (CRANBERRY-APPLE) 1 quart $18.00				4 Pkgs. Spelt Bread Mix
BODY BOOSTER 32 oz. $20.00				*MICROWATER™ ELECTROLYSIS $1100.00
LIQUID LIFE 32 oz. $22.00				ALKALINE/ACIDIC WATER SYSTEM
GAIA GLO LOTION 4 oz. $20.00				VORTEX KIT $ 8.00
HORSETAIL TINCTURE 2 oz. $ 8.00
GAIA VITE Colloidal Multi-Vitamin & Mineral 2 oz. $10.00
GAIA COL 2 oz. $10.00
Colloidal Silver with trace minerals & Trace Gold suspended in a distilled water fluid
GAIA GOLD 2 oz. $20.00
Colloidal Gold
16 oz. $112.00
32 oz. $192.00
GAIA DHEA Colloidal Dehydroepiandrosterone 2 oz. $20.00
GAIA CU-29 Colloidal Copper 2 oz. $10.00
GAIA TI-22 Colloidal Titanium 2 oz. $20.00
GAIALIFE COLLOIDAL MINERALS 121++ 2 oz. $10.00
OXY SOL Trace minerals & Colloidal Silver 2 oz. $ 8.00 suspended in Hydrogen Peroxide
16 oz. $45.00
32 oz. $75.40

PLEASE USE THE SHIPPING RATE CHART (located on the top of this order form)
WHEN CALCULATING SHIPPING FOR ALL New Gaia Products.

* FOR PROGRAM STARTING PACKAGES and MAINTENANCE PACKAGES, BREAD MACHINE, BREAD PRODUCTS and MICROWATER™
ELECTROLYSIS PLEASE CALL FOR SHIPPING RATES.

PLEASE ALLOW 3 TO 6 WEEKS FOR DELIVERY.

Please make all checks and money orders payable to:

New Gaia Products

P.O. Box 27710

Las Vegas

NV 89126

TOTAL

SHIPPING & HANDLING

SUB TOTAL

SALES TAX Nevada Residents only: add 7%

California Phone Orders only: add 7.25%

TOTAL ENCLOSED

PHOENIX JOURNALS LIST

- THESE WORKS ARE A SERIES CALLED THE Phoenix Journals AND HAVE BEEN WRITTEN TO ASSIST MAN TO BECOME AWARE OF LONG-STANDING DECEPTIONS AND OTHER MATTERS CRITICAL TO HIS SURVIVAL AS A SPECIES AT THIS TIME. SINGLE Journals ARE $6.00; ANY 4 Journals ARE $5.50 EACH; 10 OR MORE Journals ARE $5.00 EACH (Shipping extra - see right.)
-  These marked Journals are out of stock until further notice.
1. SIPAPU ODYSSEY

2. AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL, I AM SANANDA

3. SPACE-GATE, THE VEIL REMOVED

4. SPIRAL TO ECONOMIC DISASTER

5. FROM HERE TO ARMAGEDDON

6 SURVIVAL IS ONLY TEN FEET FROM HELL

7. THE RAINBOW MASTERS

9. SATAN'S DRUMMERS

10. PRIVACY IN A FISHBOWL

11. CRY OF THE PHOENIX

12. CRUCIFIXION OF THE PHOENIX

13. SKELETONS IN THE CLOSET

14. RRPP—RAPE, RAVAGE, PILLAGE AND PLUNDER OF THE PHOENIX

15. RAPE OF THE CONSTITUTION

16. YOU CAN SLAY THE DRAGON

17. THE NAKED PHOENIX

18. BLOOD AND ASHES

19. FIRESTORM IN BABYLON

20. THE MOSSAD CONNECTION

21. CREATION, THE SACRED UNIVERSE

22. PLEIADES CONNECTION VOL I

23. BURNT OFFERINGS

24. SHROUDS OF THE SEVENTH SEAL

25. THE BITTER COMMUNION

26. COUNTERFEIT BLESSINGS THE ANTI-CHRIST BY ANY NAME: KHAZARS

27. PHOENIX OPERATOR-OWNER MANUAL

28. OPERATION SHANSTORM

29. END OF THE MASQUERADE

38. THE DARK CHARADE

39. THE TRILLION DOLLAR LIE THE HOLOCAUST VOL. I

40. THE TRILLION DOLLAR LIE THE HOLOCAUST VOL. II

41. THE DESTRUCTION OF A PLANET—ZIONISM IS RACISM

42. UNHOLY ALLIANCE

43. TANGLED WEBS VOL. I

44. TANGLED WEBS VOL. II

45. TANGLED WEBS VOL. III

46. TANGLED WEBS VOL. IV

48. TANGLED WEBS VOL. V

49. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VI

50. THE DIVINE PLAN VOL. I

51. TANGLED WEBS VOL.VII

52. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VIII

53. TANGLED WEBS VOL. IX

54. THE FUNNEL'S NECK

55. MARCHING TO ZION

56. SEX AND THE LOTTERY

57. GOD, TOO, HAS A PLAN 2000 DIVINE PLAN VOL.II

58. FROM THE FRYING PAN INTO THE PIT OF FIRE

59. "REALITY" ALSO HAS A DRUM-BEAT!

60. AS THE BLOSSOM OPENS

61. PUPPY-DOG TALES

62. CHAPARRAL SERENDIPITY

63. THE BEST OF TIMES

64. TO ALL MY CHILDREN

65. THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE

66. ULTIMATE PSYCHOPOLITICS

67. THE BEAST AT WORK

68. ECSTASY TO AGONY

69. TATTERED PAGES

70. NO THORNLESS ROSES

71. COALESCENCE

72. CANDLELIGHT

73. RELATIVE CONNECTIONS VOL.I

74. MYSTERIES OF RADIANCE UN-FOLDED VOL. II

75. TRUTH AND CONSEQUENCES VOL. III

76. SORTING THE PIECES VOL. IV

77. PLAYERS IN THE GAME

78. IRON TRAP AROUND AMERICA

79. MARCHING TO ZOG

80. TRUTH FROM THE ZOG BOG

81. RUSSIAN ROULETTE

82. RETIREMENT RETREATS

83. POLITICAL PSYCHOS

84. CHANGING PERSPECTIVES

85. SHOCK THERAPY

86. MISSING THE LIFEBOAT??

87. IN GOD'S NAME AWAKEN!

88. THE ADVANCED DEMOLITION LEGION

89. FOCUS OF DEMONS

90. TAKING OFF THE BLIND-FOLD

91. FOOTSTEPS INTO TRUTH

92. WALK A CROOKED ROAD WITH THE CROOKS

93. CRIMINAL POLITBUROS AND OTHER PLAGUES

94. WINGING IT....

95. HEAVE-UP (Phase One)

96. HEAVE-HO (Phase Two)

97. HEAVE 'EM OUT (Phase Three)

98. ASCENSION OR NEVER-EVER LAND?

99. USURPERS OF FREEDOM IN CONSPIRACY

100. BUTTERFLIES, MIND CONTROL—THE RAZOR'S EDGE

101. THE BREATHING DEAD AND CEMENT CHILDREN

102. SACRED WISDOM

103. CONFRONT THE NOW CREATE THE FUTURE

104. FIRST STEPS

105. AMERICA IN PERIL—AN UNDERSTATEMENT!

107. RING AROUND THE ROSIE....!

130. TRACKING DOWN THE KILLER "AND OTHER FORMS OF MURDER"(The Health Book)

FOR INFORMATION ABOUT JOURNALS, BOOKS, ETC., MENTIONED IN THIS NEWS-PAPER, PLEASE INQUIRE:

PHOENIX SOURCE DISTRIBUTORS, Inc.
Post Office Box 27353
Las Vegas, Nevada 89126
(or call)
1-800-800-5565
(Mastercard, VISA, Discover)

Phoenix Source Distributors SHIPPING CHARGES:

USA (except Alaska & Hawaii)
UPS-$3.75 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Bookrate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Priority-$3.40 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
ALASKA & HAWAII
Bookrate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Priority-$3.40 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
UPS 2nd day-$9.00 1st title, $1 ea add'l
CANADA & MEXICO
Surface-$3.00 1st title, $1.50 ea add'l
Airbook-$4.50 1st title, $2.00 ea add'l
FOREIGN
Surface-$3.00 1st title, $1.50 ea add'l
Airbook-$8.00 per title estimate
(Please allow 5-8 weeks for delivery on all book orders)

CONTACT:
THE PHOENIX PROJECT
Subscription Rates

CONTACT: THE PHOENIX PROJECT is published by CONTACT, Inc.
Post Office Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126

Subscription orders may be placed by mail to the above address or by phone to 1-800-800-5565. Subscription rates are: $30 for 13 issues (US); $35 (Canada/Mexico); $40 (Foreign); or 26 issues for $60 (US); $70 (Canada/Mexico); $80 (Foreign); or 52 issues for $110 (US); $120 (Canada/Mexico); $130 (Foreign). Subscribers: Expiration date appears on right side of mailing label.

Quantity Subscriptions: $95.00 for 10 copies of 13 issues (US); $125 for 25 copies of 13 issues(US); $160 for 50 copies of 13 issues (US); $275 for 100 copies of 13 issues (US); $190 for 10 copies of 26 issues (US); or $1,100 for 100 copies of 52 issues (US). UPS postpaid Continental U.S. For Alaska, HI, Canada, Mexico and Foreign, call or write for shipping charges.

Single copies of back issues of CONTACT, THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR or PHOENIX EXPRESS are $3.00 each. Quantity back issue prices are as follows: 1st copy $3.00, each additional $0.45. Shipping included, postpaid in the Continental U.S.A. Alaska, Hawaii, Canada & Foreign orders please call or write for quotes on additional shipping charges.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

805-822-0202

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.

PLEASE NOTE:
CONTACT and Phoenix Source Distributors are NOT the same! Checks sent for JOURNALS or book orders should NOT be made out to CONTACT—and vice versa.

Copyright Statement
COPYRIGHT 1997 by CONTACT, Inc.

Reproduction of this newspaper for private, non-profit use is expressly encouraged, as long as the content and integrity remain absolutely unchanged. For commercial purposes, reproduction is strictly forbidden unless and until permission is granted in writing by CONTACT, INC.

SUBSCRIBE TO CONTACT, CALL:
1-800-800-5565