Transparency International And The World Bank Teaming Up To Make A "Better" World

8/5/97 #2 HATONN

I am going today to focus on more of the topic of such as World Banking and players as they present around the globe.

This will be by the same author, Umberto Pascali [as who supplied the majority of the information for last week's Front Page story], and some of the focus, as you will note from the name of the author, will have reference to Italy and the Vatican, etc.

This will better introduce the strange entity referred to as Transparency International in our prior article on Wolfensohn. This, of course, is just another transparent fraud offered by Prince Philip and the Crown but what else is new in this recolonization of Greater Britain's offshoots?

Again I must ask you in the local "team" to pay attention and do

VOLCKER: INVESTORS UNPREPARED

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/28/97, [quoting:]

Paul Volcker, the former Federal Reserve chairman who tamed inflation in the 1980s, says investors are arrogantly unprepared for when the stock market boom eventually slows or stops.

In an interview with Forbes magazine released Sunday, Volcker was sharply critical of the mindset driving Wall Street's bull market.

"All you young people think this great boom in the stock market is normal, that you're entitled to 15 percent a year. These expectations cannot be met over the next 15 years," Volcker is quoted as saying in the Aug. 11 Forbes. [End quoting]

Who's he trying to fool? He's one of the big players who set up this market scam!!

FLUSH WITH ANGER; WE SHOULDN'T STAND FOR TOILET LAW

From THE DAILY NEWS, by Dave Barry, 7/20/97, [quoting:]

If you call yourself an American, you need to know about a crucial issue that is now confronting the U.S. Congress (motto: "Remaining Firmly in Office Since 1798"). This is an issue that affects every American, regardless of race or gender or religion or briefs or boxers; this is an issue that is fundamental to the whole entire Cherished American Way of Life.

This issue is toilets.

I'm talking about the toilets now being manufactured for home use. They stink. Literally. You have to flush them two or three times to get the job done. It has become very embarrassing to be a guest at a party in a newer home, because if you need to use the toilet, you then have to lurk in the bathroom for what seems (to you) like several presidential administrations, flushing, checking, waiting, flushing, checking, while the other guests are whispering: "What is (your name) DOING in there? The laundry?"

I know this because I live in a home with three new toilets, and I estimate that I spend 23 percent of my waking hours flushing them. This is going on all over America, and it's causing a serious loss in national productivity that could really hurt us as we try to compete in the global economy against nations such as Japan, where top commode scientists are developing super-efficient, totally automated household models so high-tech that they make the Space Shuttle look like a doorstop.

The weird thing is, the old American toilets flushed just fine. So why did we change? What force would cause an entire nation to do something so stupid? Here's a hint: It's the same force that from time to time gets a bee in its gigantic federal bonnet and decides to spend millions of dollars on some scheme to convert us all to the metric system, or give us all Swine Flu shots, or outlaw tricyles, or whatever. You guessed it! Our government!

What happened was, in 1992, Congress passed the Energy Policy and Conservation Act, which declared that, to save water, all U.S. consumer toilets would henceforth use 1.6 gallons of water per flush. That is WAY less water than was used by the older 3.5-gallon models—the toilets that made this nation great; the toilets that our Founding Fathers fought and died for—which are now prohibited for new installations. The public was not consulted about the toilet change, of course; the public has to go to work, so it never gets consulted about anything going on in Washington.

But it's the public that has been stuck with these new toilets, which are saving water by requiring everybody to flush them enough times to drain Lake Erie on an hourly basis. The new toilets are so bad that there is now—I am not making this up—a black market in 3.5-gallon toilets. People are sneaking them into new homes, despite the fact that the Energy Policy and Conservation Act provides for—I am not making this up, either—a $2,500 fine for procuring and installing an illegal toilet.

I checked this out with my local plumber, who told me that people are always asking him for 3.5-gallon toilets, but he refuses to provide them, because of the law. The irony is that I live in Miami; you can buy drugs here simply by opening your front door and yelling: "Hey! I need some crack!"

Here's another irony: The federal toilet law is administered by the U.S. Department of Energy. According to a Washington Post article sent in by many alert readers, the DOE recently had to close several men's rooms in the Forrestall Building because—I am STILL not making this up—overpressurized air in the plumbing lines was CAUSING URINALS TO EXPLODE. That's correct: These people are operating the Urinals of Death, and they're threatening to fine us if we procure working toilets.

The public—and this is why I love this nation—is not taking this sitting down. There has been a grassroots campaign, led by commode activists, to change the toilet law, and a bill that would do that (H.R. 859—the Plumbing Standards Act) has been introduced in Congress by Rep. Joe Knollenberg of Michigan. I talked to Rep. Knollenberg's press secretary, Frank Maisano, who told me that the public response has been very positive. But the bill has two strikes against it:

1. It makes sense.
2. People want it.

These are huge liabilities in Washington. The toilet bill will probably face lengthy hearings and organized opposition from paid lobbyists; for all we know it will get linked to Whitewater and wind up being investigated by up to four special prosecutors. So it may not be passed in your lifetime. But I urge you to do what you can. Write to your congresshumans [humans?? isn't the writer being extra-kind??], and tell them you support Rep. Knollenberg's bill. While you're at it, tell them you'd like to see a constitutional amendment stating that if any federal agency has so much spare time that it's regulating toilets, that agency will immediately be eliminated, and its building will be used for some activity that has some measurable public benefit, such as laser tag.

So come on, America! This is your chance to make a difference! Stand up to these morons! Join the movement!

Speaking of which, I have to go flush. [End quoting]

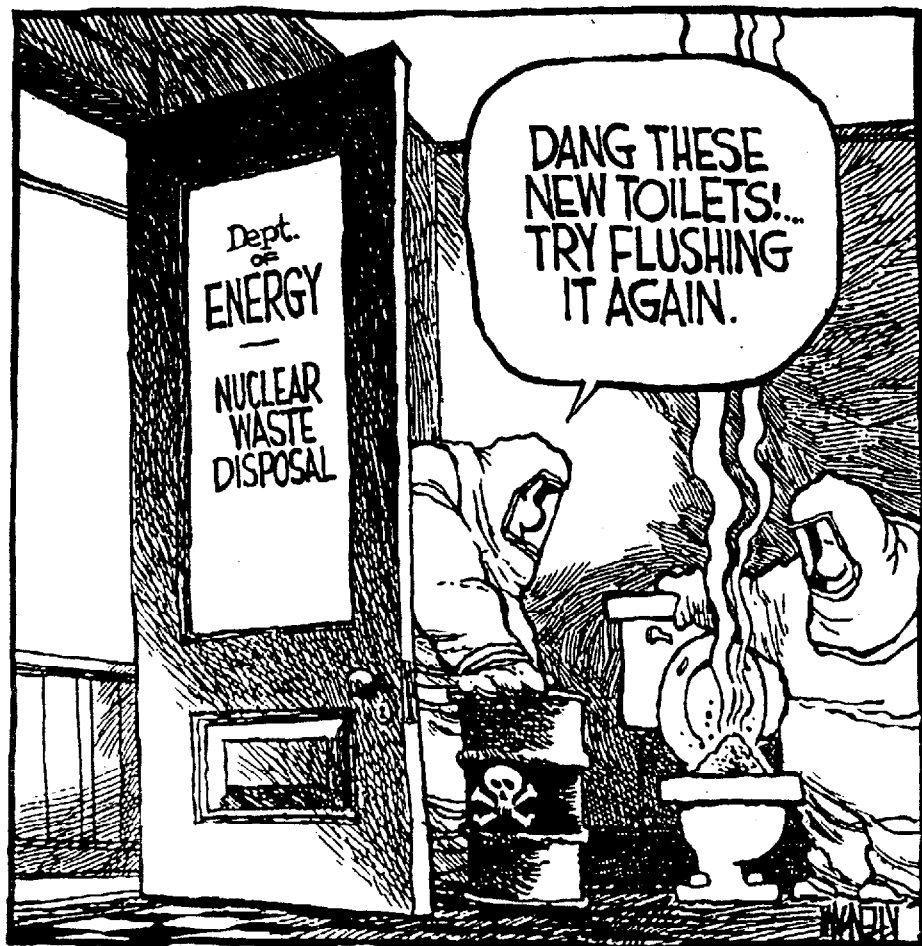

This should be pushed as an ecology and environmental issue—think of all the water and time we would be saving.

TAX BILL TARRED

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 8/3/97, [quoting:]

Congress should restrain its cheering over the new tax-cut bill. As often is the case when lawmakers tinker with tax laws, some shenanigans occurred.

Unbeknownst to the public and apparently most members of Congress, a last-minute change was made in the bill to give the tobacco industry a big tax break—and undercut the settlement reached in June between the industry, state attorneys general and lawyers representing smokers and their families.

The settlement required the tobacco industry to pay about $18 billion a year for 25 years into a fund for victims.

But the change approved Thursday could reduce the payout by as much as $2.5 billion a year—the amount of money that is expected to be raised by the newly approved 15-cent-a-pack increase in the federal cigarette tax.

This in effect shifts more of the burden of the effort to fight smoking from the companies that profit from their dangerous products to the people who are hooked on them.

The sneaky provision also provides more evidence of the clout of the tobacco industry in Congress. Current House members reportedly received $1.3 million from industry political action committees for their last campaigns, with nearly $1 million going to Republicans.

Rep. John Spratt, D-S.C., one of the budget negotiators, said: "I'm surprised to see this in the final agreement, because the meetings I was at, the administration dismissed it out of hand. But stuff happens."

Sen. Richard Durbin, D-ILL., tried to reopen the tax bill for debate in order to challenge the last-minute favor to the tobacco industry. His move, however, was rejected on a 78-22 procedural vote.

The tobacco deal was handled so secretly that most of the opponents didn't get wind of it until they saw a copy of the bill on an Internet home page controlled by House Speaker Newt Gingrich. That was the only copy of the measure available to outsiders, because Congress' bill-printing process couldn't keep up with the legislative railroad.

Fortunately, what transpired last week isn't necessarily a done deal. The settlement of the tobacco litigation will require separate congressional approval, giving lawmakers an opportunity to right this wrong.

Further, the windfall for the tobacco industry—it was among about 80 special provisions in the tax bill—would seem to be an ideal candidate for a line-item veto under the new powers granted the president by Congress.

The tax cuts on the whole should be good for the people and the economy. But members of Congress should be careful about slapping themselves on the back. Their hands are stained with tobacco tar.

Better they should come clean and admit the error of their ways. [End quoting]

If you're not one of the Elite, woe to anyone the politicians promise to give something to—hold on to your wallet because you can be sure it will be lighter than before.

The politicians aren't for giving anything back to the people (the givers) without getting more in return.

They also believe in getting theirs before giving—180 degrees out-of-phase with God's law.

APPEALS COURT HAS REVERSAL OF FORTUNE

From THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, 7/13/97, [quoting:]

Sometimes it is hard to believe that the judges of the U.S. 9th Circuit Court of Appeals and the justices of the U.S. Supreme Court are working from the same laws.

During the past year, the high court reviewed 29 cases from the appeals court for California and eight other Western states—and reversed 28 of them. And in nearly two-thirds of these cases, the reversal was unanimous. [emphasis mine]

With its reputation as a liberal-learning court, the 9th Circuit usually fares poorly before the more conservative high court. [End quoting]

What does that say about the justice rendered in all of the other multitude of thousands of cases that never make it to the high court?

Need we further proof than this of what is going on in our court system??

FRESH WORRY: DEVASTATING TOMATO VIRUS

It has shown up for the first time in the country in South Florida.
It stops plants from producing marketable tomatoes.

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/30/97, [quoting:]

A virus that devastates tomato production has been found in South Florida—the first such discovery of the disease anywhere in the United States.

Tomatoes are Florida's leading commercial vegetable crop, and the timing of the find is particularly bad because the state is already battling citrus canker and Mediterranean fruit flies.

"We have a potential epidemic on our hands," said Jane Polston, a plant pathologist with the University of Florida's Gulf Coast Research and Education Center in Bradenton.

Polston discovered the tomato yellow leaf curl virus a week ago on small tomato plants being sold to consumers at nursery stores in Charlotte, Collier, Dade and Sarasota counties.

The virus does not affect humans or animals but prevents tomato plants from producing large, marketable tomatoes.

Polston, who met Tuesday with other scientists and growers in Bradenton, said the disease wiped out 90 percent of the tomato crop in the Dominican Republic in 1992.

Florida tomato growers said it's too early to determine the extent of the threat to their $400-million-a-year industry. There are no tomato fields in production at this time of year in Florida, but fall planting will begin soon.

"We don't have the facts yet," said Wayne Hawkins, executive director of the Florida Tomato Committee in Orlando. Hawkins said growers fear that consumers may misunderstand the nature of the threat and stop buying tomatoes.

"A big red flag has been raised, but so far that's all," Hawkins said.

Any tomatoes in stores have not been affected by the virus, and the disease does not harm humans in any way.

A number of different viruses and fungi organisms attack tomatoes, and resistant plants are produced regularly by scientists for sale to farmers as well as home gardeners. But Polston said a tomato variety resistant to the leaf curl virus is at least three or four years away.

Ernest Hiebert, a professor of plant pathology with the University of Florida in Gainesville, said the infestation appears to be in the early stages and could be contained during the next two months—before the fall tomato growing season begins.

Hiebert said home gardeners can help by destroying any potentially affected plants they may have bought at garden centers. Another way they could help, Hiebert said, is in controlling whiteflies more vigorously with pesticides.

Whiteflies pick up the disease while feeding on infected tomato vines and spread it to other plants, including many kinds of weeds and other foliage. [End quoting]

This is probably another one of the Elite's "planted bugs"—and it may well do more than "just" damage a tomato industry.

CAN YOU READ THIS?

From MEDIA BYPASS MAGAZINE, July 1997, [quoting:]

A new program funded by a charitable foundation will award university honorees on the basis of their commitment to teaching the interdependence [emphasis mine] of political freedom [If you are forced to be dependent how can you be free?], the market economy and the moral principles that sustain a free society.

The John Templeton Foundation on May 21 kicked off the "Templeton Honor Rolls for Education in a Free Society" at a ceremony in the Russell Senate office building. The program is chaired by former U.S. Treasury Secretary William E. Simon and administered by the Wilmington, Del.-based Intercollegiate Studies Institute. More than 100 awards will be given to outstanding universities, departments, scholarly books and individual professors, including a $25,000 Lifetime Achievement Award.

The program is intended in part to demonstrate that "reports of academia's pending demise are both premature and exaggerated," Simon said. Those reports would include:

* A study by Michigan State University Professor L. Patrick Sheetz finds that too few college graduates have the ability to write, speak and reason coherently in order to keep a job.

* Newsweek columnist John Leo recently reported that half of college graduates cannot read a bus schedule.

* Arguing against knowledge of grammar and logic, Professor Jay Robinson of the University of Michigan says that "the myth of basic skills" helps sustain rigid and evil class structures; what college kids really need is reaffirmation as members of "racial, social and linguistic minorities".

* The National Association of Scholars' devastating report on the dumbing-down of college curricula, which includes courses for credit like "queer theory" and the works of Pee Wee Herman. [End quoting]

More proof that our education system is failing disastrously, part of the New World Order agenda.

NO FREEDOM

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 7/28/97, [quoting:]

Doug Collins, a popular columnist for the North Shore News in Vancouver, British Columbia, has been ordered to appear before a British Columbia human-rights tribunal to face charges that he has exposed his readers to hate by writing articles about events of World War II. Collins is charged under a law that would discipline journalists and/or newspapers for publishing anything "likely to expose a person or a group or class of persons to hatred or contempt". Roger McConchie, a lawyer representing the British Columbia Press Council, says that this is "an extraordinary attempt to control the press". Even the normally liberal Toronto Globe and Mail editorialized on May 12 that this was a "gag law" that "should be struck down by the courts." [End quoting] gans. This would be humorous if it weren't so sad.

Sometimes the Elite's own disguised control mechanisms get in the way of their own shenanigans.

COMMUNIST CHRISTIANITY?

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 7/7/97, [quoting:] Ned Graham, son of famed evangelist Billy Graham, thinks that Christians are wrong to get involved in the debate over MFN status for Red China. The younger Graham is associated with a Red Chinese government-sanctioned "missionary" organization, and he has objected to what he called "Christian organizations that operate illegally in China". Young Graham's position rankles many Christian evangelicals, much as did his father's endorsement of President Bill Clinton's morality [emphasis mine]. [End quoting]

"The end justifies the means" for the Grahams.

BONDING FOR STRENGTH

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, August 1997, [quoting:]

Talk about getting together! The United States and Russia are collaborating to commercialize a process that could produce stronger bonds for cars, planes, and orthopedic components by squeezing together microscopic nanopowders.

The new technique, invented in Russia, is called severe plastic deformation. It subjects ceramics, metals, and alloys to stresses—using loads as heavy as 400 tons per square inch—that break down the materials' grains into microparticles less than four-millionths of an inch in diameter. The result: materials of exceptional strength and resistance to wear. Otherwise brittle ceramics can become malleable, and parts derived from nanopowders of copper, iron, aluminum, and titanium are as much as 10 times as strong as their conventional counterparts.

The technique is the first practical way to fashion high-strength biomechanical and industrial components from ultrafine powders, says Emil Strumban, general manager of Synmatix Corp. in Southfield, Michigan. Synmatix is working with researchers from Los Alamos National Laboratory and three Russian scientific facilities to refine and market the process, which is already being used to manufacture titanium bone implants in Russia. [End quoting]

Slowly, the Elite are letting we-the-people in on some high-tech knowledge—but notice how they still benefit financially by allowing it.

IMPORTED FOOD IS MAKING US SICK

And a newly identified germ—a hardy parasite called cyclospora—is stumping health officials.

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/28/97, [quoting:]

It's Montezuma's revenge—right in your own kitchen.

More Americans are getting sick from fresh fruits and salads imported from developing countries, and at least one of the newly identified germs is stumping health officials.

So far this year, about 1,400 cases of cyclospora infection have been reported nationwide, although health officials think the numbers are much higher. Symptoms include diarrhea, fatigue, dramatic weight loss and despair, which can go on for weeks if unchecked.

"We think only the tip of the iceberg is reported on cyclospora sickness," said Dr. Barbara Herwaldt of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Many people do not report their illness, and the problem is so new doctors have not been primed to look for it, she said.

Scientists are unsure how the parasite is transmitted and whether it infects animals other than humans. They do know it is hardy and highly resistant to chlorine, so washing produce in the kitchen sink may provide no prevention.

Herwaldt and dozens of other doctors, scientists and food-safety experts gathered in Washington last week to pool information on the parasite. The meeting was called by the Food and Drug Administration, responsible for safeguarding much of the U.S. food supply.

Most of the outbreaks of cyclospora sickness this year and last have been linked to fresh raspberries from Guatemala. In May, the FDA suspended raspberry imports from that country and now is weighing whether to lift the ban this fall, when seasonally the risk of the cyclospora disappears.

But in the past few months Americans also have caught the parasite after eating imported mesclun—a mix of various types of baby lettuce leaves—or fresh basil. [End quoting]

Every week it seems we are bombarded by a new "bug scare". Is this one step at a time toward incapacitation of we "useless eaters"?

BANK OF ENGLAND IS OFF THE HOOK ON BCCI CLAIMS

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 7/31/97, [quoting:]

LONDON—The bank of England was widely accused of lax supervision of rogue bank BCCI, but a judge ruled Wednesday that the central bank doesn't have to worry about paying any money to BCCI's creditors. The judge threw out a lawsuit in which BCCI liquidators sought about $900 million from the Bank of England, saying there were no grounds for a court battle because banking regulators did not "dishonestly" mismanage the BCCI affair. International banking regulators closed the Bank of Credit and Commerce International in July 1991 in what has been described as history's biggest banking fraud. [End quoting]

Another scam game won—temporarily—by the perpetrators.

LENIN TWIST CAUSING SOUR FACES

Excerpted from THE CHRONICLE, Willimantic, Conn., 7/3/97, [quoting:]

Bernard Schilberg of Schilberg Integrated Metals Corp. stands next to a statue of Vladimir Lenin, which was purchased with an assortment of scrap metals several years ago. The statue of the former Soviet Union dictator will be featured in the Boom Box Parade—decked out in red, white and blue, of course. [End quoting]

Why didn't they glorify a statue of Manson? Probably because he didn't kill many millions of people.

MAVERICK FINANCIER GOLDSMITH DIES

His political party helped Britain's Liberals win
landslide victory

Excerpted from THE STAR-TELEGRAM,
7/20/97, [quoting:]

Sir James Goldsmith, the cosmopolitan billionaire who formed his own political party to crusade against European unification, has died after a long battle with cancer. He was 64.

Mr. Goldsmith's loved ones — his wife, ex-wife, mistress and eight children — are "united in grief," said his British spokesman, Patrick Robertson.

The son of a British Jewish father and French Roman Catholic mother, Mr. Goldsmith was a citizen of both countries and lived a life without borders. But he abhorred the European Union as a German-dominated threat to British sovereignty.

Mr. Goldsmith's fortune—including millions made during the 1980s when he was a corporate raider in the United States—is estimated at between $1.7 billion and $2.4 billion.

He turned to politics after retiring from the business world in 1990, having built a fortune in food processing, retailing and stock dealing.

Mr. Goldsmith's cause was opposition to the Maastricht Treaty, which calls for creation of a single currency as well as common foreign and security policies among the 15-member European Union.

As a financier, Mr. Goldsmith was renowned for his sense of market timing. His investment motto: "If you see a bandwagon, it's too late." [End quoting]

Sir James Goldsmith was also one of the "Committee of 17" made famous by Ronn Jackson.

This is a puzzle for me. Why do people like him die when, supposedly, people in his category have a cure for almost anything including cancer. Is there more to this story that we're not being told??

DISCOVERIES DURING THE NEXT TEN YEARS

Excerpted from THE INTERNET, 7/26/97,
[quoting:]

The barriers of race, religious doctrine, politics and philosophy will completely shatter in the next ten years. That's 2004 [sic]. By then, things will be well on their way. You'll be sitting by your televisions wanting to see the news, just to find out the discovery of the day. The discoveries that we will become part of are as follows. Now, these are some of the things that the Andromedans say we will be part of in the next 10 years, that we're going to discover, or that we are going to find out about (or someone will leak the information out):

Sir James Goldsmith: Was opposed to European unification

Scientific proof of dimensions and higher selves, as well as spiritual consciousness. I don't know how they are going to prove it.

Reincarnation will be scientifically proven and demonstrated.

The acknowledgement of other life in the galaxy and our universe. Ample proof already exists on the Moon, Mars and on Earth, and will be shared with humanity. It could be that we have a renegade group of scientists who will say "enough is enough".

Face-to-face contact with other extraterrestrial races will occur. It will actually happen a lot sooner than in ten years, but within the next 10 years we will have contact with at least nine different races.

The introduction of three clean-energy devices, based on magnetic fields of energy that permeate all of existence.

The Earth is in fact hollow and capable of sustaining human life very comfortably.

The re-discovery of the lost land that used to be Atlantis in the Atlantic. In the Pacific, a very large temple complex, still intact, once belonging to Lemuria will also be discovered.

The reality that all we perceive in the physical is a holographic imprint that is directed and created from a higher portion of ourselves.

Human consciousness is not in the brain, but is located in its entirety in the energy field around the body.

Our past and present educational processes have not prepared us to be completely conscious and creative thinkers, but more like robots that can be shaped by peer pressure.

Organic and plant forms do exist on seven planets and fifteen moons in our solar system.

The rediscovery that each of us is a part of the whole of the universe. We are a significant part of that idea we call God, and God is the idea of love.

That this accelerating self-discovery being experienced throughout the universe was created and activated by all of us in the universe.

That we, as a by-product of extraterrestrial genetic manipulation, are possessors of a vast gene pool that has many different racial memory banks of at least 22 extraterrestrial races in our DNA. Because of our genetic heritage, of having these 22 different races, we are all considered "royalty". All we need do is acknowledge it, acknowledge ourselves, and seize our true history. In other words, the only fear we have is the fear of that which we are. After we accomplish this, we can free ourselves from the conditioning and programming. We need to learn to accept our uniqueness, and planetary adulthood, and know that we are our own inheritance. Only then can we honestly and maturely create our future the way we want it to be. What is that future? Here is their definition:

"Responsible freedom of self-determination, becoming truly self-confident and free to unconditionally be responsible for one's self, without being coerced to accept some higher authority."

The reason our planet has not had mass contact as a race, is because AS a race, we don't remember who and what we are. In other words, we are having a severe identity crisis. It also means that there are few walking this Earth who remember other planetary existences or even previous life forms, let alone previous lifetimes. Some have sought spiritual development through various healing methodologies and meditation in the hopes of enlightenment. The Andromedans have taught, and are teaching, that judgements (both present life and past life) must be cleared from the cellular imprint of the soul. As one does achieve this, one becomes aware of other planetary existences, and one's true planetary heritage.

We have limitless possibilities to be, and find, satisfaction, joy and fulfillment in our lives and in our relationships with one another. By discovering direct contact with our own essence of being, we can remember freedom—a freedom that is not only freedom from external restraints, but also one that embodies free expression. The meaning and value of what it is to truly be a human being. Most of us have been walking around thinking "this is it". Apparently, our perception of this gift we have (according to the Andromedans), means that we are "severely tuning-out". Apparently, we are truly blessed to have the forms we have, and the genetics we have. This lack of self-knowledge and understanding is itself the root of our problems on many different levels. Once relearned, this intrinsic freedom becomes a lived and practiced reality. All the other freedoms will naturally follow after that, once we have learned to take responsibility for ourselves, not only on third density, but on other levels as well. [End quoting]

Though interesting to consider, always read these types of writings with much discernment.

TO SOW AND REAP

From GUIDEPOSTS, October 1996, P.O. Box 1479, Carmel, NY 10512, [quoting:]

As a single mom I moved with my two teenage children into a run-down farmhouse. On our tight budget, selling vegetables would help make ends meet. We planted corn and tomatoes near the house and pumpkin seeds in the lower field, and set up a produce stand. But a drought came in August. I put a sign on our produce stand: Pray for Rain. And pray we did.

But no rain came. One October morning I walked through the fields and saw the tomatoes bowed down on dry spines and the corn brown and wilted. Clearly God hasn't heard our prayers, I thought. I hated to think what condition the pumpkin patch would be in. But as I came over a rise, I saw an amazing sight: a bumper crop of bright-orange pumpkins. Throughout the drought I had prayed for rain. But all along God had made sure we would reap. —Anne Marie Christodoro [End quoting]

Many times, God answers prayers differently than we expect Him to.

PRINCE PHILIP DEPLOYS 'ANTI-CORRUPTION' WEAPON

by Umberto Pascali

[H: I will give you more reference material regarding this author as we move along into better security for same. Suffice it to say he has access to his information and is willing to share it so please let us not push his safety defenses.]

It has been five years now, since the Jacobean assault was launched against the Italian state. By throwing to millions of citizens terrorized by the economic depression, the bone of an "anti-corruption" crusade, the magistrates of the so-called "Clean Hands" team succeeded in politically decapitating the country. [H: Continue to watch for sequels at your local "anywhere" country theater.] A large part of the political and industrial elite still linked, to some extent, to the idea of economic development and national sovereignty, has been swept away by well-targeted scandals.

Suddenly, almost the entire Italian media became fanatic groupies of the "Clean Hands" Grand Inquisitors, such as Saverio Borrelli, Piercamillo Davigo, Gherardo Colombo, and international superstar Antonio Di Pietro. Di Pietro, who left the magistracy following accusations of corruption, has profiled himself as the "New Duce" who will root out corruption forever.

The victims of this vicious system are innumerable. Often the victim is selected as a warning to someone else, or to force him to submit to some political demands. No matter whether the accusations are true or false, the accused is immediately lynched by the media, which receive all the details of an investigation which is legally supposed to be secret; the victim's career is over, and sometimes he pays with his life. The most recent case of "murder by indictment" was that of Alessandro Sodano, brother of the Vatican secretary of state, who became seriously ill after having been arrested in February 1994, in Asti, and accused of corruption, together with several city officials. At the trial, everybody was acquitted, but Sodano died at the beginning of July 1997. [H: Humnnnn!]

in the form of a final assault against its industrial patrimony, the living standards of its citizens, its republican institutions, and national integrity. But how could such a coup d'etat come about? What forces could mastermind it?

The answer appeared in one of the main Italian dailies, Il Giornale, on April 18, in a front-page article by Gianluigi Nuzzi. Nuzzi placed Operation Clean Hands in the broader international context. He described the modus operandi of the gigantic organization called TRANSPARENCY INTERNATIONAL (TI), dedicated to "fighting corruption nationally and internationally". [H: Keep paying close attention, readers.] He described how Transparency had opened an Italian branch on Jan. 20, its connections with the "Clean Hands" magistrates, and its symbiotic relation with the World Bank. Finally, he dug into Transparency's "theological foundations" and found the man hiding behind the murky transparency; he published the forbidden name: Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh!

A TRANSPARENT FRAUD: PRINCE PHILIP'S ETHICS

Transparency International was launched in May 1993, following a meeting at the Villa Borsig in Berlin. Among the participants was the late former president of the World Bank, and a top population controller, ROBERT McNAMARA, who had been fully converted to the idea of eradicating "corruption" from the world.

But behind the rhetoric, as Nuzzi pointed out, "close to Transparency, we find some very prominent characters of the British world. The moral-theological foundations of the organization received precious contributions from a series of meetings promoted, starting in 1984, by Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh and husband of Queen Elizabeth of England." Nuzzi was quoting directly from TI's own documents, in particular from its Source Book, a sort of guide on how to fight corruption, published in many languages and distributed all over the world with generous support from the World Bank [H: Sounds identical to World's War on Drugs to me. In other words: "how to never end corruption".] and the Ford Foundation. The book features "An Interfaith Declaration: A Code of Ethics on International Business for Christians, Muslims and Jews, 1993." It describes the meetings started by Prince Philip, under the auspices of the St. George House, Windsor. Sir Evelyn Rothschild became a "patron of this endeavour", apparently purporting to represent Judaism.

"A group of distinguished members of the three religions convened periodically... Theologians, academics, and prominent figures active in business and government were all involved," stressed this document, carefully avoiding mentioning any names. As to the "Origin and Purpose of the Declaration", the document explains that "the globalisation of business is well under way and growing... the volume of world trade is accelerating again... Cross border investment is expanding even faster than trade... Stock and shares of any of the world's largest enterprises are quoted on a variety of stock exchanges..." Thus, "its purpose is to set out an ethical basis for international business. It includes some principles and guidelines for practice to help business people, traders and investors... It also gives guidance in resolving genuine dilemmas which arise in the course of day-to-day business... There is evidence that morality and ethics standards are declining in their [the participants'] respective societies, as exemplified by the wide reporting of dishonest and corrupt practices. Part of the problem is an ambivalence concerning what is considered right and wrong... [thus] a reiteration of shared ethical precepts in the form of a Declaration would help to sustain... the standards of international business behaviour."

The declaration itself makes clear that there must be a sort of alliance between the "providers of finance" and "customers" and "employees" against corruption, and corruption is identified with sovereign governments and industrialists. Money lent must, of course, be repaid "at all due dates". "A business cannot operate without finance. There is, therefore, a partnership between the provider and the user. The company borrowing money shall give to the lender:

- * "What has been agreed to be repaid and on the due dates.

- * "Adequate safeguards in using the resources entrusted.

"Regular information on the operations of the business and opportunities to raise with directors matters concerning their performance..." And, among the anti-corruption duties of local and national governments, there is that of "protecting the local environment from harmful emissions from manufacturing plants... and any practice likely to endanger humans, animals or plant life." [H: Shades of Prince Albert, Team?]

Prince Philip established the "ethics rules", and suddenly in the same year, 1993, the enforcer emerges, in the form of Transparency. TI's propaganda repeatedly emphasizes the need to establish an "Anti-Corruption Authority" that is independent of governments, and to fight the corruption of the "politicians". [H: Wow, doesn't that dark glass obscuring viewing become transparent as we consider international dealings and demands?]

TI is basically a rib of other British-controlled agencies, such as the World Bank. The above-quoted article in Il Giornale explains: "From ideology, we are already at the bill of laws. By the end of summer, TI will conclude certain close agreements with some South American and eastern countries, to assist them in the development of national strategies to put an end to corruption." Then the action will move to Europe; Italy is at the end of the line. The road is easy: The World Bank gives loans to developing countries and, 'TI is charged with the creation of a system of control and budget,' says the chairman of TI in Italy, Maria Teresa Brassaiole. Brassaiole is a city councilman in Milan for Umberto Bossi's Northern League, which is operating both legally and illegally to split the country. TI Italy was officially launched on Jan. 20 at the Milan Chamber of Commerce, at a meeting that included TI Chairman Peter Eigen and the two main bosses of "Clean Hands," Piercamillo Davigo and Gherardo Colombo. [H: Really quite a small world isn't it? Note that we just keep running into the same names and people everywhere we go.]

EIGEN, CROWN
AGENTS,
RIO TINTO ZINC

The chairman of the board of TI, former World Bank official Peter Eigen, proclaims on the Internet: "Transparency International is a not-for-profit, non-governmental organization, to counter corruption both in international business transactions and, through our National Chapters, at the national level. Our mission is:

- * "Curb corruption through international and national coalitions encouraging government to establish and implement effective laws, policies, and anti-corruption programs.

- * "Strengthen public support and understanding for anti-corruption programs.

- * "Encourage all parties to international business transactions to operate at the highest levels of integrity, guided in particular by TI's Standard of Conduct. [Barfable.]

"Our strategy is to do this by:

- * "Establishing coalitions of like-minded organizations and individuals to work with government (wherever possible) to assist in developing and implementing national anti-corruption programs.

- * "Initiating an information centre and conducting practically-oriented research into aspects of containing corruption... [and] broaden public awareness...

- * "Building National Chapters that foster anti-corruption programs."

Before creating TI, Eigen had worked for 25 years as World Bank manager for programs in Africa and Ibero-

America. Under Ford Foundation sponsorship, he "assisted" the governments of Botswana and Namibia. From 1988 to 1991, he was director of the regional Mission for Eastern Africa of the World Bank. [H: Boy, they certainly ended corruption over there, didn't they?]

Currently TI has chapters in more than 60 countries, and around 70,000 members. Among the members of the Advisory Council we find a few jewels:

Peter Berry, the managing director of the British Crown Agents (CA). While TI is among the elected members of the Crown Agents Foundation, the latter is rapidly becoming the key instrument for direct operations of the British Special Air Services and other commando forces into the countries of the

GAIALYTE

GAIALYTE is brought forth from Kombucha Tea. The GAIALYTE is a fully integrated electrolytic liquid. The "drink" is a "concentrate": Mix 3 parts juice (and/ or water) to 1 part GAIALYTE minimum—as much juice as you like maximum. It contains EVERYTHING supplemental to GAIANDRIANA—INCLUDING A GROWING-PROGRAMMING BASE OF GAIANDRIANA AND BASIC DRIANAS.

The GAIALYTE has a full spectrum of vitamins, minerals, Ginkgo, Echinacea, Chlorella, Oxygenators, Aloe Vera—everything necessary to "program" the cells in the tea membrane AND the GAIANDRIANA included. This does not replace the GAIANDRIANA used otherwise. This is a PERFECT medium to enhance the ability of the GAIANDRIANA you already take to enhance itself—reinforcement fuel, if you will.

You can dilute the concentrate with water AND/or anything you like. May we recommend apple juice and/or cranberry. You may use as much as you like of either OR both.

This is a well-body systemic enhancement. It sometimes—as with other persons' elixir—takes weeks or months to feel any difference. ONCE balanced, however, you will note that at onset of infection, cold, etc., if you take around six ounces of GAIANDRIANA and double up on the GAIALYTE—you will probably note positive response in about an hour. Remember—you are activating the enhanced immune system and it takes a while to accomplish this task.

British Empire. This is nothing new. Since 1833, CA has provided logistical and technical services to the British Crown colonies, especially procurement of weapons; its primary client is the British Overseas Development Administration, i.e., the administration of the "former" colonies.

John Brademas, chairman of the National Endowment for Democracy.

Luis Moreno Ocampo, a former Argentinean prosecutor, who helped try the military junta in 1985; co-founder of the Poder Ciudadano (Citizen's Power) NGO, and known as the "Argentinean Di Pietro". He is key for the destabilization of Ibero-America that Transparency is planning, and is especially dedicated to destroying any resistance to the subversion of national sovereignty. His preferred target is the military.

Nestor-Humberto Martinez Neira, Colombia's justice minister.

Among the funders of these anti-corruption crusaders, we find, again, Crown Agents; and the directly British corporations such as Coopers & Lybrand, Rio Tinto Zinc Ltd, Tate & Lyle, Nufeld Foundation, and Rowntree Trust. Top financial contributors are the British Overseas Development Administration; the Inter-American Development Bank; BHP Minerals of Australia; Banque Bruxelles Lambert, Belgium; Bristol-Myers Squib; IBM, Germany; Arthur Anderson, U.S.A.; and the Ford Foundation. The UN is prominent in the list, especially through the UN Development Program.

PRINCE PHILIP'S PANDORA'S BOX

TI is just the most recent tentacle of the British oligarchy, of the royal family, in its war against the republican nation-state. It is used, in particular, against the developing countries, in a process of irregular re-colonization, but Europe and the United States are also targeted. TI is deployed in parallel with the environmentalist movement, and is coordinated by the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund (IMF).

The creation of TI coincided with the "greening" of the World Bank, and the appointment of James Wolfensohn as the bank president on June 1, 1995. TI's self-proclaimed holy war against "corruption" signalled a phase change in the British underground war. The World Bank-IMF apparatus no longer limits itself to imposing deadly conditionalities and destroying its victim country through usury; now, this apparatus wants to take over governments and states directly.

The "reforms" launched by Wolfensohn emphasize direct control of the credits granted by the World Bank even after they have been delivered to a particular government, on the pretext of preventing corruption. These "reforms", as we shall see, are perfectly coherent with the deployment of the TI anti-corruption stormtroopers.

THE 'ECOLOGICAL' TENTACLE

Prince Philip, who views man as a dangerous accident who upsets the balance of nature, and thus must be limited or suppressed, made a key move in 1986, when, as international president of the World Wildlife Fund, he organized a conference on "Religion and Conservation", in Assisi, Italy. There he brought together representatives of Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism to push a pagan agenda, a pseudo-ecumenism based on the return to Mother Nature, away from the idea of man in the image of God. "I believe that... a new and powerful alliance has been forged between the forces of religion and the forces of conservation," he said.

From April 29 to May 3, 1995, Prince Philip launched a second eco-fascist assault against religion. He gathered 60 prominent environmentalists and religious leaders at Windsor Castle for the "World Summit for Religion and Conservation".

The main threat facing the planet, he said, is population growth; thus "vital actions" are needed by both religious and non-religious bodies, to "interfere" in human activities and protect the environment from the "dramatic increase in the world's human population". "The key issue for the Conservation of our natural environment is to find ways of protecting it from the consequences of human population explosion... If you are in a process of blowing up a balloon, there is nothing to warn you that it is about to burst. We are stretching the Earth's systems like a small child blowing up a balloon."

The final press release of the event pointed to the prominent role played by two of the main British tentacles: (1) the United Nations bureaucracy, in particular the UN Environment Program. The UNEP would ask religions to be "environment monitoring agencies at the local level", while "the faiths" would be offered an increasing role in UN decision-making; and (2) the World Bank. "The World Bank has extended an invitation to faith leaders to establish a dialogue with the World Bank Directors on the Ethics of Contemporary economics."

RELIGION AS 'INSTRUMENTUM REGNI'

It is painfully obvious that Prince Philip's aim is to coopt religions and religious leaders within a cultist Pantheon controlled by the British oligarchy. As Mark Burdman pointed out in EIR on May 19, 1995, "If that sounds like an attempt to use religious leaders as, in effect, operatives in a new environmental gestapo, that is in full conformity with the royal consort's prescription to the Windsor gathering."

In fact, the historical parallel that comes to mind is the beginning of the Christian era, when the Roman oligarchy, having reached the depths of depravity, corruption, and auto-cannibalistic usury, launched a utopian project to stop the influence of emerging Christianity. They tried to gather every cult in the empire, in a sort of unholy ecumenism. This was the meaning of the pantheon, a place in which each "religion" had a precise pigeon-hole, and they acted, all together, to promote the purposes and the ideology of the empire.

Finally the Romans created a super-cult, using the forms of the secret cult of Mithra, under which they tried to collect all existing religions. It was supposed to be the perfect instrumentum regni; it would have stopped the spread of Christianity and assured the creation of a global, eternal empire. Indeed, the Roman oligarchy was able to take over and use many of the cults; but then, the whole structure collapsed. The super-cult was the "loser".

Today, Prince Philip and his legions are fully involved in making religions their instruments. The Catholic Church has been one of their main targets. One of their most recent meetings took place on June 9-10 in Rome, titled "Economic Modernization, Democratization, Social Justice". Among the participants were the chairman of the Latin American Bishops Conference (CELAM), Archbishop Oscar Andres Rodriguez Maradiaga; Msgr. Giampaolo Crepaldi, undersecretary of the Pontifical Council Justice and Peace (which hosted the meeting); World Bank President James Wolfensohn; IMF Managing Director Michel Camdessus; and INTER-AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK (ALSO KNOWN AS INTER-AMERICAN INVESTMENT CORPORATION) PRESIDENT ENRIQUE IGLESIAS. According to Crepaldi, the real object of the discussion was the Ibero-American debt to the international financial institutions.

Camdessus maintained that the issue of the Ibero-American debt has been greatly exaggerated. The problem is not real! Apparently, the participants in the meeting agreed. In the dialogue with the usurers, Archbishop Rodriguez Maradiaga not only endorsed the approach of Wolfensohn and Camdessus, but used the "anti-corruption" rhetoric that closely echoes Transparency International: The problem is not the debt, the problem is the corruption of the political leaders of Ibero-America.

In an interview with the Catholic daily Avenire, Rodriguez Maradiaga stated: "It is not a mystery that economic aid did not reach the intended recipients. A large part of the aid ended up in the hands of corrupt people." Then, the interview took the tone of a "deal"; "Thus, a determined fight against corruption is the compensation that our countries must offer to the international financial organizations, in order to obtain a reduction of the debt; actually this is a precondition for the implementation of such an approach", Monsignor Crepaldi commented that the meeting established a "fertile dialogue" between the Church and the world of finance, and added that this was just "an opening phase for further dialogue... What pleased both sides was that there were more points of agreement than disagreement...."

"PARTNERS IN DIALOGUE"

At the beginning of the process, the World Bank and the IMF were the "counterparts" of the religious institutions, not the "dialogue partners", on the issue of debt cancellation or moratorium. In 1994, in his apostolic letter As the Third Millennium Draws Near, Pope John Paul II had stressed: "In the spirit of the Book of Leviticus, Christians will have to raise their voice on behalf of all the poor of the world, proposing the Jubilee [the year 2000] as an appropriate time to give thought, among other things, to reducing substantially, if not cancelling outright, the international debt which seriously threatens the future of many nations."

When Wolfensohn was initially asked about this, his answer was, "The idea isn't practicable." He said that something can be done for countries that could offer guarantees, i.e., that had more to be looted. For the others, nothing was possible. "A sort of death sentence decreed by a financial institution," commented the Rome press agency ASCA.

In September 1995, the Pope took up the issue again, "I make a pressing appeal to the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank and all foreign creditors to alleviate the crushing debts of the African nations. I earnestly ask the episcopal conferences of the industrialized countries to present this issue consistently to their governments and to the organization concerned."

The pressure on the financial tentacles of the British Empire was growing. The front against the Nazi economics of Wolfensohn and Co. was broadening. There was now also the appalling case of Bosnia, a country destroyed by a genocidal war, which the World Bank deprived of any aid until it had agreed to pay the foreign debts of former Yugoslavia. And there were many other cases of "genocide through financial means".

So the World Bank and IMF started a "dialogue" on the problem of the debt, and agreed to do something. They were no longer the enemy, but a "partner". On Feb. 12, 1996, Cardinal Basil Hume, Roman Catholic primate of England, held a seminar in London on the "debt crisis". Archbishop Rodriguez Maradiaga participated in the meeting, as did as Secretary of Justice and Peace Msgr. Diamuid Martin. Among the participants were Camdessus, IMF Executive Director Hugh Evans, World Bank Executive Director Ruth Jacoby, Bank of England Executive Director Brian Quinn, and many other officials of the two institutions. With them sat one of the individuals most responsible for the genocide and the destabilization in Africa, Baroness Lynda Chalker of Wallasey, the British minister of state for foreign and Commonwealth affairs and minister for overseas development—one of the pillars of the empire.

In October 1996, the World Bank and the IMF "acknowledged the debt problem" and pledged to do something about it. On April 7, the Catholic bishops of England and Wales, who apparently are dealing with the issue, met in London and issued a "Statement on International Debt". They wrote: "We are heartened by the new Initiative announced last October by the World Bank and the IMF to tackle the unpayable debts of the world's poorest countries. But its scope and effectiveness are still unclear, as is the extent of support among major Governments... We urge the British Government, which has played a leading role hitherto, to continue to press for long-term solutions which would allow these countries to achieve debt sustainability".

The World Bank kept offering its deadly dialogue with religions. In its spring 1997 issue, News from ARC: Bulletin of the Alliance of Religions and Conservation asked, "Is the World Bank getting serious about religion?" The head of ARC is Martin Palmer, the "religious affairs" adviser of Prince Philip. The article reads: "For the first time in its history, the World Bank is to ask world religious leaders for advice. They have asked ARC to organize a series of meetings, bringing together World Bank directors with senior religious leaders of nine world faiths... The purpose will be to examine and question the ethics of the World Bank, and to help it understand the values and concerns of local communities..."

That meeting did indeed take place at the World Bank headquarters in Washington at the end of May. It was sponsored by the office of James Wolfensohn and organized by Martin Palmer.

Next October in Rome, Wolfensohn, Camdessus, Archbishop Rodriguez Maradiaga, Crepaldi, and the others who participated in the "historical dialogue" in June in Rome, on the alleged non-importance of the debt problem, will meet again, immediately before the synod of the bishops of North and South America.

[END QUOTING]

So you have it! The oligarchical ecological-fascists plan and fully intend to destroy not only nations, but the great monotheistic religions as well. Through this Transparency International there will be elimination of any opposition to this project.

And, as you consider such atrocities as have happened in such as Zaire you will note that the point is both genocide and reclamation of any property which has value of any kind, to, they will say, balance the debt. I would note that the World Bank and colleagues such as IMF have definitively spelled out the program for the future: TI and its sponsors will decide, politically, which countries will be butchered in the future. In other words, the World Bank becomes the moral authority that decides who owns what asset, and how to punish the "corrupt" by depriving them of their wealth.

So what happens? Well, as in the case of Zaire, the Swiss are now being pressured to freeze all bank assets of this former head of state, including Mobutu's villa, worth about $2.5 million. And what are the reasons offered? To give an example that no longer will dictators and plunderers in the developing world be allowed, by world control, to rely on Western institutions to protect their ill-gotten gains. What an interesting concept.

And so it goes on and on and the same power-brokers and leadership simply take other colors and names, and set up powerful governments, within governments, and come out with everything in the end—they suppose.

And where do YOU go for protection? Ah, so, it doesn't look too promising, does it?

Moreover, when you have local "little cheats" such as George Green and the attorneys of the world all doing their lie-cheat-and-thieve operations on you, it really doesn't look too good, does it?

What do I suggest? That you stop the insanity of calling yourselves "Christians" when you do not practice Christ's callings but rather use that, also, to save your buns when the oven gets hot. YOU GO WITH GOD OF LIGHT IN TRUTH AND JUSTNESS, FOR THE ENEMY DOES NOT KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH THOSE WHO CLAIM GOD, AND NOT ICONS MANUFACTURED TO DESTROY YOU.

So be it, stay alert, and USE that which we offer that you might create "the way". Salu.

Down Memory Lane, Or Deja Vu?

8/5/97 #2 HATONN

As we sit in the middle of a heat wave that seems to hang on, with its fire danger prevailing over the setting locally, we are reminded of ten years ago.

Ekkers had just moved to Tehachapi after nearly two decades in the beautiful foothills of the Angeles Crest Mountains overlooking Pasadena-Glendale.

They moved into a house which would prove to be more than a decade filled with pain and endless legal encumbrances, but today is like a rerun of events.

As August came a decade ago it was being announced by a whole big bunch of people who had somehow come by copies of a manuscript written by Doris which seemed to attract people awaiting the "Harmonic Convergence" or "conversion" (or something of the sort). It was a most busy and yet satisfying time as Doris cooked, hour upon end, to make sure guests would be able to eat and be merry, and in not knowing what was expected probably fared better than could have been expected.

On about this same date ten years ago there was even a fire in the nearby canyon near the house that was attended, in part, by E.J. while Doris tended the cook-pots. YESTERDAY a similar fire, only closer-in hazard, was started intentionally over the mountain from them.

This sparked a bit of terror to the hearts because of the outdoor aviary and the pet birds which no longer have an indoor escape room. All were fortunate as the out-of-control burn was brought under control before the smoke filled the property—being that the wind continued to push the flames and smoke Southerly instead of directly over the hill.

If this similarity were not enough—a decade ago to the day—the area entered into a heat-spell with temperatures totally off the scale for this small mountain/desert-edge location.

Doris finally sat this morning and bowed her head and asked: "Father, where have the years gone?"

This year there are willing hands to make the pot-luck feast and only a few of the original callers are remaining as Father called home several of his servants and others came and went for all sorts of reasons. Little Crow, Audrey and Eric and a few others such as Laurina, etc., will share with us some memory time and updating along with just some wonderful time with friends and teammates as we again approach the 15, 16 and 17 of August, a decade later.

Have we grown? Without ability to measure! But, our only intent is to CONTINUE to grow no matter what events may come and go as we travel along this pathway to higher insight. The point is to always be traveling TOWARD greater understanding and goodness, not moving AWAY from same.

GOALS 2000, THE EDUCATE AMERICA ACT

EXTREMELY URGENT IMMEDIATE ATTENTION REQUIRED!

8/9/97 DR. AL OVERHOLT

From the INTERNET, 7/97, [quoting:]

Goals 2000, The Educate America Act, is an oppressive movement that has all but taken over the entire system of education in this country. In summary, the objectives of this movement include:

Through the deliberate "dumbing-down" of America's school children, the forcing of a planned economy and industry to this country can be accomplished by providing the job market with low-wage earners, who "can be easily trained and managed", instead of creative individuals who will take initiative.

The forced "therapy and treatment" of children medically and psychologically, without parental knowledge or consent, is in therapy units located in every school in the nation. Due to various changes in parental rights and related laws, if parents object, they could face abuse charges or loss of custody of their children. This treatment is paid for by Medicaid, formerly a federal Medical Care program for the poor. Another legal move has already removed poverty guidelines for children 0-21 and, therefore, allows tax dollars to go toward this federally-mandated treatment for anyone under 21 years of age.

To fully achieve "the goals", further legislation must be passed, in order to secure complete control of all necessary aspects and related issues. Additional bills, currently before our lawmakers in Washington, will allow the government to do the following:

1. Establish a network of state "superintendents" and corporations which will dictate to the schools what occupations children will be forced to train in.
2. Puts in place a massive computer database which tracks every child from their entry into school to adulthood.
3. Ensures that every child will be indoctrinated into the "proper attitudes" which include accepting whatever career path is chosen for him or her "for the good of the company, the state, the country, etc."
4. Places any child who does not "fit" into, or go along with the program, into a "juvenile camp" (these camps already exist). If the child does not get his Certificate of Initial Mastery (CIM) in the job area which is dictated for him or her—he or she will end up in camp.

These bills are as follows:

HR 1385—The Employment, Training and Literacy Act of 1997 has ALREADY PASSED the House. It mandates further details and funding for all the "parents as teachers" psychological training, and intrusive "visits" to "monitor" how children are being raised. It also mandates that businesses in every community will dictate to the schools which types of jobs children will be trained for. It also gives huge funding to labor unions for "research and demonstration projects". Psychiatry is now moving into the unions as well. This same bill authorizes funds to establish computer input of students' personal data as part of the "Labor Market Information Forms". This is part of a nationwide program for getting all of a student's medical, personal, family, behavioral and school data into computers, so that it can be accessed by any one of several federal, state, and bwal [sic] agencies.

HR 1853—The Vocational Education Bill. This was introduced June 11, 1997. It is on a very fast track to be passed. It is a "Clinton pet" project, and will mandate an apprenticeship program which is an EXACT duplicate of the one in use in Germany, which has been a dismal failure by any standard.

HR 1803—This is the adult program for re-training and further implements the School-To-Work law.

HR 1818—A Juvenile Justice resolution. This bill authorizes funds for intensive federal mandates for psychiatric treatment of ALL juvenile offenders.

All of these bills, together with the three (3) laws passed in 1994 (the Educate America Act, et al.), allow the federal government to do the following:

1. Establish a network of state superintendents and corporations which will dictate to the schools which occupations children will be forced to train in.
2. Puts in place a massive computer database which tracks every child from cradle to the grave.
3. Ensures that every child will be indoctrinated in accepting whatever career path is chosen for him or her, and brainwashes the child into doing it for the good of the company, the state and the country.
4. Places any child, who does not "fit" into or go along with the program, into a juvenile camp (these camps already exist). If the child does not get his Certificate of Initial Mastery (CIM) in the job area which is dictated for him or her—he or she will end up in a camp.

So as you can see, we have a lot of work to do, and quickly, if we are to keep these bills from being approved.

Please help us by taking the following actions immediately:

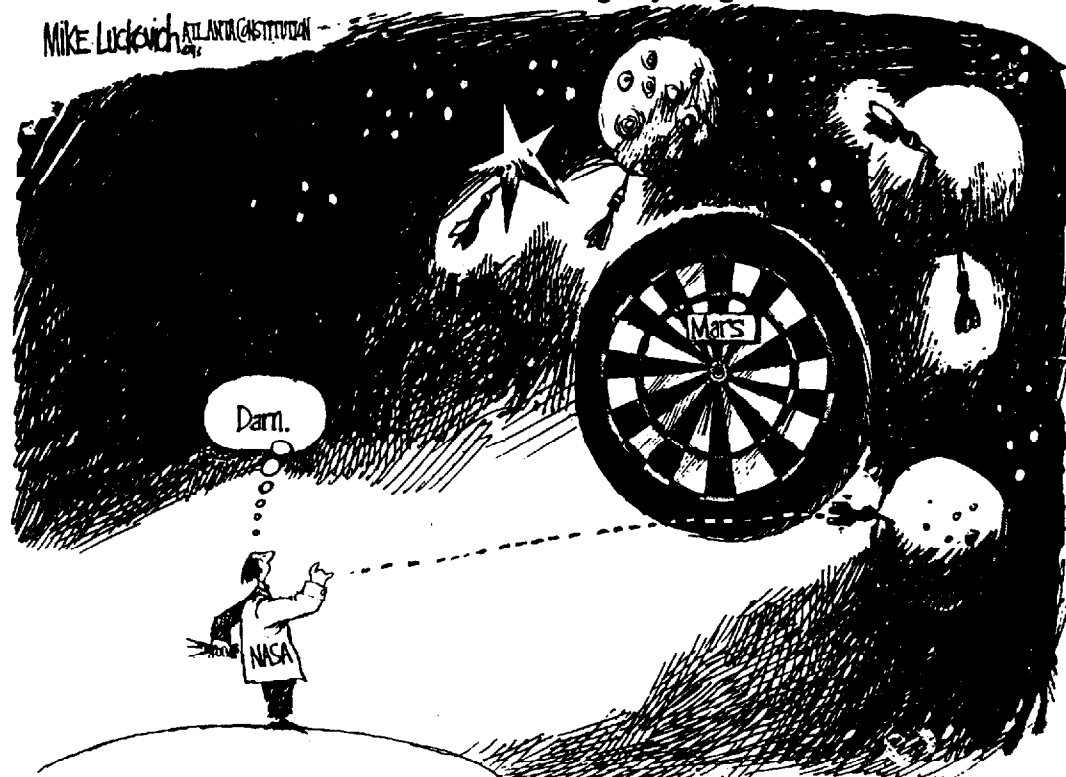

1. Call the Capitol Building at 1-202-225-3121. Tell the receptionist, "I want to oppose some bills." The switchboard operator will ask you what state you are from, and then connect you with the correct Representative or Senator. When the office answers, tell the person in that office that you want your Senator to vote against The Employment, Training and Literacy Act, and your Congressman to vote against bills numbered 1853, 1803, and 1818.

2. Pass this information on to everyone you can and ask them to make the call (this sheet can be refaxed to anyone you want!). We need 20,000 calls going into Washington ASAP.

3. Please contact me and let me know you have made the calls, and I will let you know how it's going.

My direct line is (310) 764-2090. My fax number is (310) 764-5417. Barbara Ayash [End quoting]

Notice To The People (The British Connection)

7/14/97 GARY WEAN

Washington, D.C., is right now conducting the most important Senate investigation of all times.

The U.S. Senate Governmental Affairs Committee is investigating the massive, evil invasion of foreign government money into the American political and judicial bloodstream where it has bought and paid for the President, the Senate, the House of Representatives and the Federal Judges. Through this evil operation, total control of America has been seized by an alien government.

This Senate committee holds in its hands, most assuredly, the last hope for the freedom and safety of the American people and the Constitution. Never again will these evil usurpers of our government be so careless as to allow the Senate or House to convene such a powerful committee out in public view which could expose and endanger their organization and its horrendous crimes against America.

Not only is there sneaky opposition to the Committee's investigation, but the evil specter of 'sabotage' by committee members John Glenn, Arlen Specter, Joseph Lieberman and Carl Levin etc., etc., raises its vile head. (The American people will never forget that this sabotage by these evil people is treason against our country.)

However, this 'sabotage and cover-up' is not Senator Thompson's only problem. The Chairman is also plagued by 'confusion' created by the FBI holding back information as to the exact identities of the Asian fiends responsible for this subversion of America.

The FBI information, heavily censored and filtered by treasonous Justice Dept. lawyers before it is dished out to Senator Thompson, leads him straight to the Bank of China (BOC), and they provide him with evidence that the Chinese government has funneled money to America to buy President Clinton, Senators and Congressmen. But why is the Senator being handed such an easy trail to follow and leading to just a few obvious suspects?

The BOC is a genuine Chinese government bank with China's interests their only concern. It was started by President Sun Yat-sen in 1923 shortly before his death. And yes, every bit of the crimes and evidence turned over by the FBI regarding the BOC is true, and the Bank of China should be exposed and the guilty parties prosecuted to the fullest extent.

BUT!! There is another bank located in China: however, it is not owned by Asian fiends; it is owned by Jew fiends, knighted Jews integrated into the Royal British Family aristocracy. The Justice Dept. lawyers withholding and censoring this evidence from the Committee are also Jews.

The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, HSBC Group, was started over a hundred years before the Bank of China by Jew global traders who became fantastically rich when they perpetrated the Chinese Opium-Wars trade. This drug operation by the evil Opium financiers was the money foundation for the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corp., HSBC Group. Their drug operation has never ceased over all the years and is now the World's largest conglomeration, with tentacles reaching into every crevice of every government in the World. It is now known as the Cocaine-Heroin business.

At the present time the BOC assets are $125 billion and they handle foreign exchange and overseas transactions for the Chinese government.

But, the knighted Jews of the British Royalty who own the HSBC presently have assets of over $500 billion and operate 5000 offices in 78 countries, with over 100,000 regular employees and an army of secret paid agents. These super-active agents arrange and conduct everything from political sabotage and chaos, riots and revolution, bribery and blackmail, to murder and assassination of politicians and governmental leaders who get in their way.

With four times the assets and coupling their influence, power, expertise and control over worldwide foreign exchange and overseas transactions in 78 countries, including the United States, the HSBC Group could shut down the entire Chinese country and destroy their government overnight. The HSBC Group, constructed by and steeped in Colonial tradition, also acts as the "Central Banker" to the government.

Back many years ago China seriously began anticipating when they would be taking over Hong Kong. They prepared explicit plans for world-wide expansion of the BOC and the strategy for overtaking the financial and political power of their harsh competitor the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corp. So, Senator Fred Thompson has two banking behemoths to investigate, not just one.

The HSBC knew that BOC was beginning to flex their muscles so they went into their "espionage-sabotage" mode, their dirty-tricks business that these "drug-smugglers" had learned and honed from experience and practiced evilly for two hundred years. This banking rivalry entered into a duel for the political and financial control of the world. In 1985 the HSBC moved into their new 43-story building of glass and aluminum with its worldwide-acclaimed suspension design.

The BOC at the same time broke ground for a new, amazing 72-story glass tower which was completed in 1988 and would be the tallest building in Asia. It is across the street from the new HSBC bank. For the BOC's new building, a famed architect, Chinese-American I.M. Pei, was chosen. It had been his father who had opened Hong Kong's BOC branch 60 years before.

To stay in line with its British Colonial owners and controllers, HSBC enlisted a prominent British architect, Norman Foster.

The HSBC in 1977 under Chairman Michael Sandberg, a British Jew, was steadily branching out into the world politically as well as financially. Sandberg acquired the prestigious American bank, the Marine Midland Bank in Buffalo, New York. This bank had powerful connections with both the Democratic National Committee and the Republican National Committee organizations and their election campaign financial setups. The HSBC Group moved right in.

At this time in 1977 the Chinese Government Bank, BOC, activated its espionage and saboteur operational agents into the banking-political scene in California and Arkansas and connected with politician William Clinton and Arkansas financial companies. This is the Chinese Connection that Senator Fred Thompson's Governmental Affairs Committee is concentrating on right now, the one that the Justice Dept. lawyers and FBI have led him to. Anyone in their right mind can see what this is doing to the BOC, while the HSBC and their operations continue merrily on their way.

In this International game of sinister intrigue and secret power, the BOC is a rank amateur, a piker compared to the HSBC octopus and their biggest connection, the New York Marine Midland Bank drug-money laundering operation. And what better, more opportune place to launder these fantastic sums of money could there be than right into the veins of the American political scene—and every bit of these clandestine dollars are returned to them ten thousandfold in strategical Congressional votes and Federal Judicial decisions. The Michael Milken, Ivan Boesky ("greed is great," Jew predator) junk bonds.

HSBC Holdings Plc. is headed by a British Jew—despite their name of Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, which leads ordinary people to believe it is a Chinese institution, it is strictly a Jewish-British (behemoth-colossal beast) financial conglomeration.

Sir William Purves is CBE, DSO, Group Chairman of The Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, and HSBC Americas, Inc., and Chairman of the British Bank of the Middle East. Purves has been with the HSBC for 45 years and served in Germany, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore, Sri Lanka and Japan. In 1991

Sir Purves returned to the United Kingdom and built new HSBC headquarters at 10 Lower Thames Street, London EC3R GAE, United Kingdom. HSBC is incorporated in England with limited liability—Registered in England: Number 617987.

HSBC is a global, international network linked by advanced technology. This British United Empire link of power flows directly into the United States through their New York bank, the Marine Midland Bank. Marine Midland Bank is a New York State regional banking institution and the principal subsidiary of HSBC Americas, Inc., an indirectly-held, wholly-owned subsidiary of HSBC Holdings Plc.

The HSBC is the World's largest banking organization and was founded on their Chinese Opium trade. These International-Trade operators and their drug operations have never ceased and have evolved and grown into the World's greatest Cocaine-Heroin smuggling operation, with America its "Most Favored" customer.

John R.H. Bond is President and Chief Executive Officer of Marine Midland Banks Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of HSBC Holdings. Bond is on the board of many HSBC Group companies, where he has been for 37 years. He is with the Banking Advisory Group of the International Finance Corp., a member of the World Bank Group. Marine Midland Bank has over 400 branches statewide with more than $32 billion in assets. New York Governor Cuomo, a Democrat, and Republican Senator Alfonse D'Amato, Chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, are the main conduit for illegal money funneled through the Marine Midland Bank by HSBC in London to the Senators and House members for their election campaigns.

Federal Judge Harry Pregerson and his son Dean Pregerson, also a Federal Judge, control all of HSBC's Cocaine-Heroin profits in the geographic Ninth Circuit Court, which is run through HSBC Banks in the Micronesian Islands which Judge Harry Pregerson and Judge Dean Pregerson control.

From Micronesian banks the drug money is laundered through the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corp. The laundering process continues on to the HSBC Bank headquarters in London—by then the bankers consider the drug money as being sufficiently cleansed and they ship it to their Marine Midland Bank in Buffalo, New York.

The Marine Midland Bank funnels these huge amounts of foreign money into the coffers of our Senators, Congressmen and Federal Judges and they vote and make decisions exactly as the orders come down from the HSBC's World-Wide Headquarters in London, Great Britain.

Everybody thinks the British became a second-class nation with the loss of all their overseas colonies upon which the sun never sets, but they still own and control them financially and materially just the same as they did with their military—only now they don't have the great expense of their military and administration—the United Nations takes care of that and uses American military forces paid by American taxpayers.

And look who we have handling and manipulating all our money and our treasury dept.—two Jew aristocrats, Robert Rubin and Alan Greenspan. Who says these knighted, Jew Aristocrats with Headquarters in London, Britain, ain't smart??? Well, they are experienced enough at it—they have been at it a long, long time, ever since before they killed "Jesus" Christ two thousand years ago for interfering in their evil usury and money dealings.

The following is an alphabetical list of all the countries that HSBC controls through their banks' power over the governments and their politicians. After the names of some of the countries is the number of HSBC banks in that country.

1996. The Federal Reserve Bank approved Marine Midland Bank's acquisition of River Bank America, Valley Stream, New York, and all its branches.

1996. Marine Midland Bank acquired First Federal Savings based in Rochester, N.Y., and $7.2 billion in assets with 79 branches in New York and 15 mortgage offices in nine states. It has 1,600 employees. With these acquisitions the Marine Midland Bank now has assets of over $100 billion.

Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan has the power to approve and allow Marine Midland Bank, a foreign country-owned bank with its headquarters in Hong Kong and London, to acquire these banks with over a hundred branches. This

You have stated for all the people of America to hear that you want "to lay out all the facts and let the chips fall where they may."

Well here are the real Chips. You are in a position to save or destroy the United States of America—you will end up either a George Washington or a Benedict Arnold; there will be no other alternative.

To understand what has happened you must immediately get the following described FBI files by whatever means it takes. President William Clinton can get hundreds of files from the FBI merely by asking Louis Freeh.

I hereby insert my signature giving you my permission and the authority to obtain any and all FBI records concerning me under the Freedom of Information Act and to make any and all information contained therein public that will expose crimes against America and the names of those responsible.

Gary L. Wean
June 23, 1997

When you read these FBI files you will learn who assassinated President John F. Kennedy; and why Senator John Tower was murdered in conjunction with Audie Murphy.

Your committee is being sabotaged because Minority Leader Thomas S. Daschle, and Committee members John Glenn and Arlen Specter, in 1987 covered up all these facts and destroyed evidence in a conspiracy with Senator Joseph Biden, the Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

The following named Senators were also involved in the cover-up in 1987 and are involved in sabotaging your committee to hide their guilt. Thad Cochran, Pete Domenici, Carl Levin and Don Nickles. They must be removed from your committee or they will suck you in—and involve you in Treason from which you will never escape.

This is the Real world (not a Fire Drill or a Hollywood scenario).

will allow Marine Midland Bank to funnel much more drug-money through HSBC channels into America, where they can continue buying the President, Senators and Congressmen and Federal Judges.

The HSBC is getting prepared to pour billions of dollars more into the political election campaigns, and the Democrats and Republicans are getting prepared to grab great chunks of this free drug-money to fill their pockets.

The Republican National Committee just had a big meeting and is promoting their new Theme, an "anything goes" when it comes to being bribed and bought.

GOP Chairman Jim Nicholson publicly proclaims that he doesn't want the government to interfere with this conduit of money into their election campaigns and Clifford May, the GOP Communications Director, gleefully states that they are taking the position of a "Free Market" approach to the financing of election campaigns. Their inside info tells them that the Demos and Repos aren't about to pass any new legislation to stop drug money from flowing.

Sir William Purves, the knighted Jew from Britain, a so-called aristocrat financier and the head of HSBC Group, is the most powerful man in the world—at his beckoning President Clinton, Senators, Congressmen and Federal Judges leap to act out his orders.

Sir James Goldsmith, another knighted Jew aristocrat, conducts his sleazy lifestyle, flaunting it arrogantly before Americans' eyes.

In London, Sir James Michael Goldsmith is described as a flamboyant British financier. In America he is viewed more as a pervert who openly maintains three families—sometimes he spends the weekend with his former wife, Ginette, a French woman who lives with their two children in Paris. Laura Bouley de la Meurthe is a French journalist who, with their two children, might spend some weekdays with him somewhere; and during the week the knighted Jew, Sir James Michael Goldsmith, spends time with his British spouse who is also British Royalty, Lady Annabel Birley, in London with their three children.

Sir James has homes in Bordeaux, London, Paris, and Spain, and also an 18,000 acre (compound) estate on the Pacific Coast of Mexico, where he conducts further family carrying-ons among the Mexicans.

Although Sir James was born into Jew banking wealth, he claims he alone with his genius amassed a personal fortune of $3 billion. He was a highly successful corporate raider (thief). By the early 1970s Sir James had put together a huge sum of money to begin his take-overs. He was adept at identifying weak companies, then raiding the employees pension funds and quickly selling off the stock and reaping the profits.

In the 1980s Sir James took over Crown Zellerbach Corp. and broke it into pieces—another 'old-line' American company, Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. was voraciously raided and looted by the British-Jew Royal financier. And here in America the people are wondering what is happening to them: they can't figure it out.

The American knighted Jews, Sir Robert Rubin, and Sir Alan Greenspan, anointed by King Willy and Queen Hillary, along with Lady Madeleine Albright rule the idiots of America with an iron fist, and up until the time of her anointment Lady Madeleine didn't even know she was an aristocrat-Jew.

America is in the same, identical spot now that it was in 1776 under British Royal rule lead by the knighted Jew aristocracy. America was a British Colony then, and even though we won the Revolution, the United Kingdom never let go or recognized that they had lost it. Two-hundred-and-twenty years later we are still under the iron fist of the mightiest of the Jews—the Lord of the knighted Jew Royalty, Sir William Purves, ensconced in his HSBC Group Headquarters at No. 10 Lower Thames Street, London EC3R GAE, United Kingdom.

America is so important to the knighted Jews of Britain that Sir William Purves, the Chairman of the world's EVIL, sent his next in command, John R.H. Bond, to New York, U.S.A., as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Marine Midland Banks, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of HSBC Holdings. With the Marine Midland Bank's takeover of two New York state banks under Sir Alan Greenspan's Federal Reserve Bank's orders, the Marine Midland Bank now has more than 500 banks and branches and assets far exceeding $100 billion.

Americans in 1776 didn't want to live and die under the corrupt British United Kingdom then and we don't want to live under their rule now.

If we had an American attorney general in the Justice Department, a Grand Jury indictment would be brought down seizing Sir William Purves and his HSBC Group banks and all their assets in the United States, including their Cocaine-Heroin business.

Sir Rubin, Sir Greenspan and Lady Madeleine would be prosecuted for treason for their conspiracy with Sir Purves against America.

King Willy and Queen Hillary would spend the rest of their lives as Royalty without a country, on a ship at sea that never touches shore.

Congress would take back control after removal of all the treasonous politicians and their staffs—America's money and resources would again become the responsibility of Congress under the watchful, vigilant eye of the people. The six-trillion-dollar National Debt and its horrific interest that Americans pay to the British knighted Jews HSBC Group would be vaporized as easily as they conjured it up.

Since I first investigated Los Angeles gangster Mickey Cohen, Abraham Davidian and Harry Pregerson's Cocaine-Heroin Connection with Benny Wong in L.A.'s Old China Town in 1946, the FBI and the Jew Anti-Defamation League have built a secret file against me.

U.S. Government Agents, honest, godfearing, loyal Americans, have seen my secret files and have given me precise information as to their contents and even the exact number of pages and where other information is contained. Among the hundreds of items the files contain all the information of my 1963 meeting in Ruidoso, New Mexico with my partner Frank; Audie Murphy; Bill Decker, Sheriff of Dallas County, Texas; and U.S. Senator John Tower, at which time Tower gave us information and documented proof of who killed President John F. Kennedy. And in 1987 John Tower gave me his word that he would appear and give his sworn testimony and documented evidence of who killed JFK if Senator Joseph Biden, Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, would set up official, open hearings by the Committee. Senators Arlen Specter and Joseph Biden sabotaged the evidence that was given to them and involved the entire Senate in a cover-up. Senator Tower had been prepared to tell everything he knew and present evidence that Arlen Specter, William Cohen and Prescott Bush (George's father) were involved in the conspiracy to assassinate President John F. Kennedy. Senator Arlen Specter presently sits on the Senate Judiciary Committee where he has sabotaged every critical investigation into these matters and also sits on Senator Fred Thompson's Committee on Governmental Affairs investigation.

Arlen Specter is desperately trying to kill this investigation by urging Senator Thompson to drop it and have a Special Prosecutor appointed. This way they could control any investigation and after many years of stalling it would die and fade away.

Audie Murphy and Senator Tower were both killed in mysterious, identical airplane crashes. My partner Frank and Sheriff Bill Decker are dead—I am the only one alive who was at the Ruidoso meeting in 1963 only a few days after the assassination.

I have all the documents and evidence Senator John Tower gave us put away in a secure place. However, Senator Tower's information is also in the secret file the FBI compiled on me for over fifty (50) years. I am attaching an explanatory letter that I wrote to U.S. Senator Fred Thompson advising him of these facts and also a certified letter and separate fax that I sent to FBI Director Louis Frech, asking for my secret files under the Freedom of Information Act. [These items are included herein.]

Senator Arlen Specter, in his evil acts to sabotage the Committee and cover up his terrible guilt, must be stopped. Specter is bludgeoning Senator Fred Thompson in an attempt to have a Special Prosecutor appointed that he can control. Special Prosecutors are appointed by corrupt Washington, D.C. Federal Judges and everybody knows what Special Prosecutors Walsh and Starr have accomplished—millions of dollars and years of nothing. America can wait no longer—it is the bounden duty, the absolute responsibility of Senator Fred Thompson, Chairman of the Senate Governmental Affairs, to expose this monstrous conspiracy to destroy America and the Constitution. For him to shirk his duties and responsibility by handing them over to a so-called Special Prosecutor would be cowardly treason.

The giant Octopus (Devil Fish) dwells safe in its lair at 10 Lower Thames Street, London, England. Sir William Purves, the head of this colossal beast, slithers its powerful, slimy tentacles around the globe and into every crevice of every government in the World.

United States Secretary of State, Lady Madeleine Albright, is one of the top saboteur-provocateur Secret Agents of this Devil Fish, the HSBC Group. She is instigating and sucking America into the most degraded, dangerous International operations—criminal activities that bring down the wrath of the World on the American people and will destroy America.

Lady Madeleine's crazy lie that, quote, "she didn't even know she was a Jew" is the funniest Jew stand-up, comic routine since Jack Benny and George Burns. She was brought up and raised in the Jew International intrigue by her father, a secret agent. His political and financial involvements and depredations, with his furtive movements from country to country, have been documented.

Amidst all her destruction, Lady Madeleine's biggest operation—her immediate, intense focus—is on her laying waste of ASEAN Regional Forum. ASEAN is the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, composed of nine countries, Malaysia, Indonesia, Philippines, Singapore, Brunei, Thailand, Vietnam, Laos, and Burma (Myanmar).

Lady Madeleine's chief aides in this ASEAN operation are her under-secretary, Stuart Eizenstat (writer of the lies in the infamous Eizenstat report uprooting the Swiss banking system for the HSBC Group) and George Soros, an International financier who claims he is an American citizen. Both Soros and Eizenstat are secret agents of the Devil Fish.

This ASEAN operation involves the HSBC Group's conduit of drug money from their Asian banks influxing into the American political and judicial system which Senator Fred Thompson's committee is investigating.

The HSBC Group has over a hundred (100) banks in the ASEAN countries alone that have been sabotaging and terrorizing their politicians and governments for over a hundred years.

However, Lady Madeleine, Eizenstat and Soros have run into deep trouble. All of the ASEAN countries' politicians are not "stupid pushovers" and are mainly Muslim. This means more "big trouble" for America, who will be blamed for all the crimes of the HSBC Group emanating from 10 Lower Thames Street, London, England.

Malaysian Foreign Minister Abdullah Badawi, Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad, and Burmese Foreign Minister Ohn Gyaung have erupted in unheard-of confrontations and challenges of Lady Madeleine's evil power.

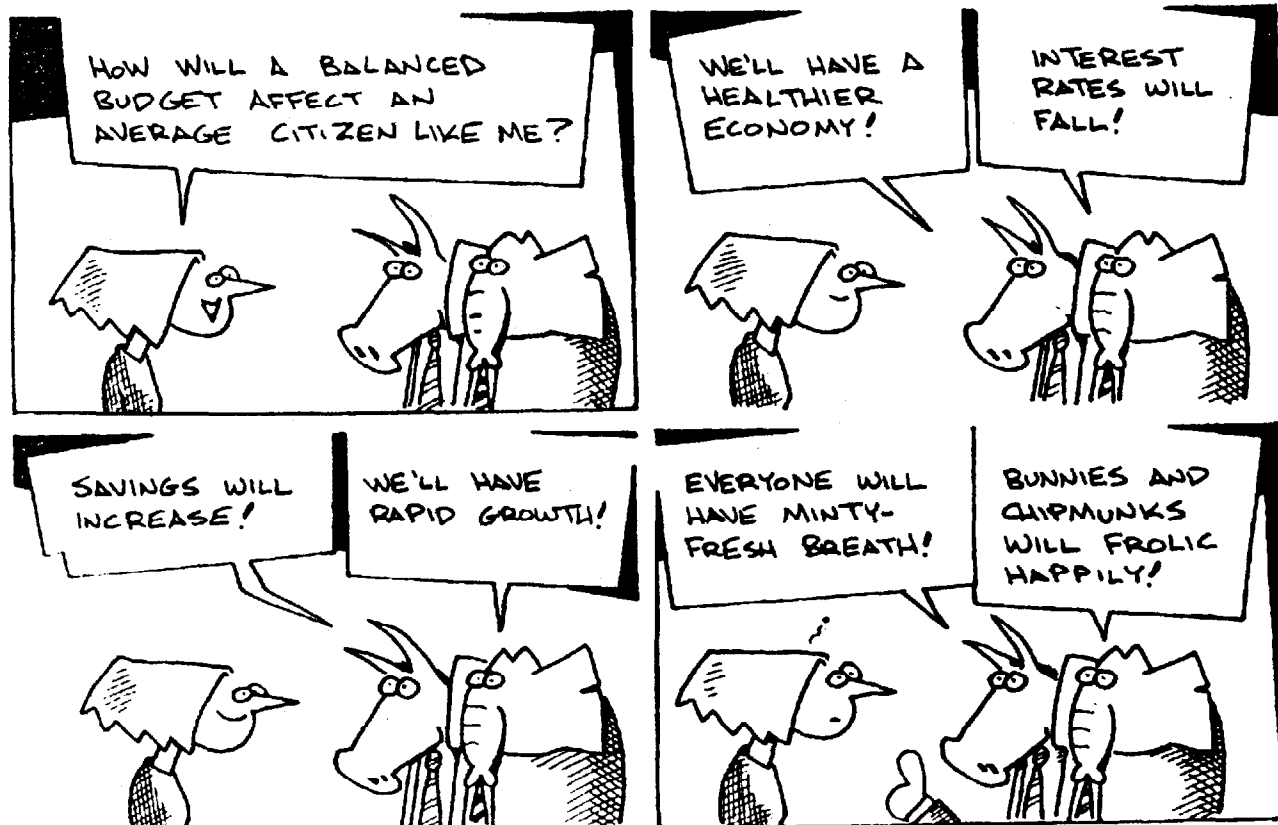

In unprecedented, powerful language they are blaming the West for declining Asian currencies. Prime Minister Mohamad has long blamed George Soros' evil hand in the banks for destabilizing currencies; some of the ASEAN countries' currencies have lost a staggering 20% of their values.

With festering anger and open charges the ASEAN is rebelling and creating warlike tension against the West. Badawi blamed currency fluctuations on Western traders committing "unholy actions". He stated, "It is time that we recognize these actions for what they really are, namely villainous acts of sabotage." The ASEAN countries are publishing their accusations in their major newspapers.

Lady Madeleine's retort was the typical Jew response, "She was outraged."

But it is America who will be blamed and who will suffer what are we facing—a Holy War, a Jihad. And next, to make Lady Madeleine happy will we be sending our troops to beat down these ASEAN countries who are mainly Muslim?

What makes this investigation by Senator Fred Thompson, the Chairman of the Governmental Affairs Committee, so all important to America is the unvarnished factor that this is America's last chance. Senator Jesse Helms, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Senator Alfonse D'Amato, Chairman of the Banking Committee, also have the duty and responsibility to investigate these matters, but they long ago treasonously succumbed to the HSBC Group's drug money.

Hilarion: More Lessons On The Fundamentals Of Creating

Editor's note: The following writing is by the Ascended Master known as Hilarion of the Fifth Ray, the Emerald (green) Ray of Healing, among the seven great "Rainbow Masters" communicating at this time to help us through Earth-Shan's planetary transition and rebalancing. See Journal #7 called THE RAINBOW MASTERS for more background on this important group of Teachers, plus earlier writings by them. Refer to the Back Page for Journal ordering information.

8/10/97 MASTER HILARION

Good morning and be at peace, my scribe, for all IS well! Master Hilarion present to continue where we left off at the end of last week's lesson. I come within the Light of Creator's magnificent and infinite spectral expression. I represent the Emerald Ray, as you would perceive same in the visible frequency range. You know me well.

We last spoke of the basics of preparation and following one's internal guidance system. We monitor the response from those of you who are taking in the information as given. We see the need to offer more upon the subject of connecting to your Higher Self.

You each are connected at all times to the higher energy of Source. However, when you are in a lower-frequency state, say due to emotional "stress", your ability to consciously connect is greatly diminished.

When you are feeling boredom, frustration, anger, or any of those states that debilitate, then you can know that your frequency has lowered and that the otherwise-free-flowing connection has been diminished or choked off. These feelings are, for most of you, associated with the heart energy center.

Many of you have experiences in your life where you were extremely excited and happy, and had a feeling that there was nothing in the world that could stop you. This is when the heart is soaring and you are vibrating at a frequency that more closely matches who you REALLY are!

When the heart energy center (your Guidance center) is radiating the higher-frequency emotions of joy, excitement, and enthusiasm, you will cause the solar plexus energy center (just below the heart center) to respond in like manner. It begins to "rev-up" and thus you begin to radiate with greater and greater intensity. All of your energy centers are connected in a coordinated and complimentary manner. The heart center and the solar plexus are closely linked, and many will say that they have a "gut" feeling regarding a particular experience when, in fact, more of that "gut" feeling may be emanating from the heart.

There is a great amount of lower-frequency energy being radiated at this time on your planet. However, due to the nature of the energy associated with this lower-frequency state, it is such that ONE who is radiating in a joyous state puts out more energy than a million who are radiating in the lower-energy state! Therefore, a balance can be achieved and the process of turning around the "mess" on your planet is truly not as difficult as it may at first appear.

As has been stated many times prior: IT ONLY TAKES ONE TO RECOGNIZE THEIR TRUE POTENTIAL AND THE GAME IS OVER!

This means that, from the point of view of energy dynamics, if there is just ONE who functions in the physical from a position of being truly connected to Higher Source, then that ONE can so greatly tip the scales back into balanced Radiance that the dark Elite controllers of your planet would shrivel to a point of insignificance.

This is the reason for the mind control of the masses—especially as you ones spoon-feed yourselves by way of your news media and television programing. Even the seemingly harmless "comedy" shows give forth subliminal (programing) suggestions that can cause you to feel helpless or ineffectual or dispersed (from an energy perspective), and induce attitudes that may distract you from a focus that would allow you to connect more fully with your true Potential of Being.

Please do not take the above statement in the wrong way. Understand that laughter is a most wonderful frequency vibration and is beneficial to your well-being. However, the Elite controllers are utilizing your media for programming your minds, and through such means have corrupted the potentially good to achieve their ends. This corruption is centered around the power of suggestion.

Therefore, it is the subtle nature of suggestion that will get you, for instance, to a point that you will find humor in something that is truly twisted and not humorous at all. Moreover, when you find yourself all wrapped up in some of the modern "bad guy" movies, then you may want to ask yourself: "Is there truly joy in this sort of violence, or am I that desensitized to actual violence that I have become numb to it?"

Recognize that the "numbness" of mind keeps you off balance and in a mode of seeking something of even greater "shock" value in order to register the slightest charge of emotional stimulation. This desensitizing situation has been built-up to such a level in recent years that the movie producers are finding it more and more difficult to pack enough violence and/or sex into a film so that the public will even want to see it! Meanwhile the desensitization causes you to lose touch with your Spiritual Center, your Guidance, your Source of Being.

We monitor many who say with the mouth that they want to feel more connected to the spiritual nourishment of Higher Self. Yet all the while these same ones sit in front of their television screens, day after day, in ritualistic fashion, filling their heads with programming that will eventually lower their frequency to such a level that they will surely be among the first to "jump through the hoops" whenever the Elite controllers say to jump through those hoops.

Large companies like Pepsi Cola, Anhauser-Busch, Colgate-Palmolive or General Motors do not pay millions of dollars for 15-second spots of advertising (brainwashing) during events like the Super Bowl because they are ineffectual. Rather, the power of suggestion is most commanding over the largely-brain-dead masses of idiot-box junkies.

Many of you would be far wiser to spend more of your time focusing on strengthening your Inner Connection and Guidance System. And then, when you can truly FEEL your connection and KNOW that you can pull yourself out of the negativity of the world, THEN go back and watch the programming and monitor your response. It will be quite different—and instructive in its revelations!

Raising your frequency, and thus connecting more fully with your Higher Self, is as simple as visualizing a time when you were feeling really good and resonating again with that situation as if you were there. Now hold that feeling and begin to feel it radiating from within you, out to the whole universe.

This is what it FEELS like to be connected at a higher frequency. You can do this anytime you desire.

Now, while maintaining this high-frequency vibration, focus your thoughts upon your desires, with that feeling of joy in your heart, and you will be a million times more powerful in manifesting your desires in the physical!

If you find it difficult to hold these higher emotional frequencies, then take a moment to look at what it is you are resisting and simply let go of it. Then, again, focus on those thoughts from times that bring forth joy you have known. Soon you will find that what you are radiating is the higher-frequency energies, and you are connecting with who you REALLY are—a Being of Light who has been endowed by God with INFINITE capabilities of creating!

Now, when you have done this, and you KNOW that you can feel this joy anytime you like, and that there is no situation wherein you cannot pull yourself out of the lower frequencies and into the higher frequencies, then it is time to focus your thoughts upon that which causes these creative energies to intensify. That is, FOCUS on the way you would like your life to be; FEEL what it will be like; RADIATE your heart's desire with the power of joy and enthusiasm—and you will be amazed at how fast change will manifest and the joy will flow into your experience like never before. Then you will know, with Inner Certainty that IS the God Source within, that you cannot be stopped or dragged down or contained within another person's drama—unless YOU so choose same!

A CAUTION: As I gave for background in last week's lesson, seek first a condition of balance—else you will find that you are actually more focused upon what you do NOT want, and you will miss a very fundamental dynamic of creation. If you do NOT want poverty, then don't dwell upon a perceived condition of poverty, but upon abundance!

The fundamental point here is that YOUR Higher Self connection is YOUR guidance system. And when you are properly focusing your desires, your Higher Self will offer HIGH-FREQUENCY emotional support, and well-being WILL manifest.

Always try to follow and sustain the high-frequency signals. When you encounter lower-frequency situations, look at what it is you are doing (or thinking) which has caused this encounter. Find a better way to meet the challenge. Often this means letting go of that which you are resisting (that is, change your focus). Be thankful for the experience, for you now know better where to focus your thoughts and energy.

Your Higher Self will naturally guide you through your challenges, and the resulting growth will enable you to more fully recognize your true potential. In this way you will be doing your part to turn around the low-vibration condition on your planet. If not YOU, then who?

Stop waiting for another to do it for you and you will eventually come to understand that the reason you were so disconnected in the first place was because you were not following the guidance within that says: "TAKE ACTION!" In the larger perspective, there are no wrong actions, only better choices of action. If the result of an action taken leaves you feeling worse than you felt prior to the action, then change the focus (now that you are wiser) and TAKE MORE ACTION! This is why you are there on that third-dimensional playing field!

If you do not have a job, or you are unhappy with the one you now have, then get focused on what it is that you are wanting, and go interview with as many companies as you can. Do it with enthusiasm radiating from your being, and you are likely to get the job that you are not even qualified to do.

Worry and fear will only serve to lock you into a mundane existence with little about which to truly feel good. JOY and ENTHUSIASM are the signals from Higher Self that tell you that what you are focused on is in alignment with who you really are. If you are feeling otherwise, then you can know that your focus could be better.

There is no limit to the joy you can create; it is truly infinite. When you are connected and aligned in joy, your physical condition (whatever it is) will naturally return to complete balance and perfection, given enough time and persistence. Resist the alignment with Higher Self for any continued length of time, and your physical condition is likely to suffer. Why do you think that "stress" has been observed to cause so many physical illnesses?

You ones are entering a higher-frequency area of planetary travel (Photon Belt area of space), and as the upward frequency-shifting of your space continues, there will be less and less tolerance for out-of-balance, lower-frequency energies. Negative physical manifestations in the body will come more rapidly to you who have the tendency to dip down into the lower-energy emotions for any length of time.

Know that you can turn around your emotional state instantly by simply changing your focus of thought. When you are feeling down, take a moment to look at what you can be thankful for, and know that what you are experiencing is what you have created for yourself, and you can change it anytime you like by simply focusing the mind on those things that cause the HEART to soar.

There is more stated here than what words alone can convey. Go within and seek your own clarity. Resist not the simple answers, for many will find that the simple answers are the RIGHT ones—so much so that you may find yourselves slightly embarrassed for having missed these simple (NOT simplistic!) points all these years.

There is great joy awaiting you all! Get clear; get focused; and carry out your Inspired actions with JOY! The dark ones cannot control you who live in this en-Light-ened way.

I am Master Hilarion, come as Teacher and Lightworker, here to assist those who would desire insights and tools for spiritual awakening. I am but a heartbeat away; call upon my energy and I will respond. In Light and Love, Salu!

The Latest Version Of Gestapo Tactics In Disguise

EXTREMELY URGENT
IMMEDIATE ATTENTION REQUIRED!

8/9/97 DR. AL OVERHOLT

From the INTERNET,
pnpj@db1.cc.rochester.edu (Patricia Neill),
8/1/97, [quoting:]

Yesterday I received an alarming 8-page fax. It was a copy of a set of papers being distributed by a group called "Coalition For Democracy".

This group consists of 23 organizations including the Anti-Defamation League, State Pride Agenda, People for the American Way, Planned Parenthood, United Teachers, AFL-CIO, and Humanist Society [emphasis mine].

They are sending a "survey" to all public schools to determine "the nature and extent of activity intended to break down the constitutional separation between church and state". It refers to "concern over the growth of the Radical Right"...and "political and religious extremists' attempts to impose their religious, social and moral values on all of us". The letter emphasizes a desire to have "all future incidents documented and reported to them on an ongoing basis", and assures all parties concerned that their answers will be confidential [If you believe this—I've got a bridge to sell you.]. The stated purpose of the survey is to gather information on "hate crimes" [Their definition of any of your actions that they dislike.].

The underlying danger is that many of the "hate groups" they have listed are organizations such as the Christian Coalition, Family Friendly Libraries, Promise Keepers, American Family Association, Eagle Forum, Focus on the Family, National Association of Christian Educators, The Rutherford Institute, Traditional Values Coalition and others—which are not hate groups!

Even if the schools don't respond, the damage is already done. The hidden purpose of their survey is to link hate groups and hate crimes with known pro-family groups. This survey is a clever piece of blatant propaganda designed to convince people that groups who are concerned with children or parents and who object to sex education and the promotion of homosexuality are associated with hate groups like Neo-Nazis!

The most insidious section was that which asked for information regarding "letters saying that...a parent does not want his/her child taught or exposed to such things as evolution, values clarification, non-academic personality tests, curricula pertaining to drugs and alcohol, discussion of the occult, education in human sexuality, globalism and anti-nationalistic curriculum..."

This group is actually requesting copies of letters written by parents who object to sex-education, curriculum, etc...and adding these parents' names to a list of those who supposedly commit hate crimes. As soon as parents object, they get painted with a "religious, right-wing fanatical nut" brush. It is urgent that we fight for the immediate removal of state laws which require parents to object to sex-education, etc., on religious grounds rather than strictly on the rights of parents to raise their own children properly.

We have a copy of the survey. Please contact us immediately for further information or to find out if your organization is among the 34 identified.

Paul and Jodi Hoffman, National Directors R.A.M.P.-Restore America's Moral Pride, 1304 SW 160th Avenue, Suite 122, Weston, Florida 33326, Phone: (954) 349-0366. The letter from Coalition For Democracy and the survey follows:

COALITION FOR DEMOCRACY (Upstate New York)

PO Box 5341, Albany, New York 12205-0341, 518-439-7740.

Dear Colleague:

The Upstate New York Coalition for Democracy is a non-partisan, multi-issue network of organizations and individuals dedicated to upholding democracy and the constitutional rights of all people. We are committed to supporting and promoting diversity and mutual respect. Our Membership includes the Adirondack Religious Coalition for Choice, Albany/Schenectady League of Arts, Albany County Rape Crisis Center, American Association of University Women (Schenectady Chapter), Anti-Defamation League, New York State Region, Capital District Humanist Society, Citizen Action of New York State, Empire State Pride Agenda, Family Planning Advocates of New York State, Fiscal Policy Institute, Institute for First Amendment Studies, National Women's Political Caucus, NYS/Capital District Chapter, National Education Association of New York, New York State Alliance for Arts Education, New York State United Teachers, AFL-CIO, People for the American Way Action Fund, Planned Parenthood Health Services of NENY, Statewide Youth Advocacy, Upstate New York Black Women's Health Project, Upper Hudson Planned Parenthood, and YWCA of Schenectady [Almost all of which are either anti-American, anti-family or anti-God organizations—or any combination of the three.].

We have been brought together by our concern for the growth of the Radical Right in upstate New York, by attempts of political and religious extremists to impose their religious, social and moral values on all of us, and to limit the free and open discussion that is the basis of our democratic process and electoral system.

One of our first tasks is to survey the region: to develop an accurate and comprehensive understanding of the nature and extent of activity intended to break down the constitutional separation between church and state [And, so they can build profile-lists on all protestors who will be the ones to be brought before their judges—for placing in "camps" or worse—as soon as they take over full control of our government—which they are sure will happen in the near future.]. To that end, we have enclosed a survey that we hope you will disseminate to your organizational leadership and to key membership throughout the geographical areas you cover.

Please be aware that we have no interest in characterizing or labeling groups or individuals [Have you ever seen any better liars than the above groups??]. We are aware that any single incident does not necessarily indicate an organized Radical Right [This is their name for any non-traitor!!] presence or agenda. The information you share with us will be used only as part of our documentation process and to suggest patterns and areas to which we should give further attention. Please be as detailed as possible. Specific answers will be confidential. If you have any questions, call 518-869-9004. Please return this survey no later than May 15, 1997. We hope your organization will document and report future incidents to us on an ongoing basis.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,
Blue Carreker

There are many worthy groups and organizations vying for your time and support—please, ask for God's guidance and use discernment before involving yourselves with any of them!!

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the hotline does not answer your call then that means that there is currently no hotline message.
