Guess Who Gets To Bail Out The Asian Economy? Remember The IMF Owns US!

1/3/98 #1 HATONN

SO. WHAT IS A SUPERFUND?

Like anything else of which we might speak there are often many facets to what is ACTUALLY taking place. When we talk of superfunds, what would that possibly mean? Well, obviously it is larger, bigger, more important, or more set-aside, more flexible, etc. than a "fund" of some kind.

We have spoken often within the past three years of George Bush's "Superfund" and that, of course, was/is based on a Bonus Gold Certificate/Contract originally from Peru. Also, during the Iran-Contra fiasco, there were billions of dollars stashed in "Bush"-type accounts and those were mostly located in the Cow Islands. You know, that old coalition between factions of the British mob and the Bush mob. So, there are many resources from which to set up and draw

SUIT CHALLENGES GOVERNMENT'S ROLE IN MEDICARE OPTION

UPDATE ON THIS STORY

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 12/31/97: [quoting]

A new federal law scheduled to take effect Thursday has set off a fierce dispute over the right of elderly people to choose their own health care and to negotiate fees with their doctors.

A conservative group that represents more than a half-million elderly people filed suit in Federal District Court here Tuesday to block the law, which was included in the balanced-budget bill signed last summer by President Clinton.

Republicans originally drafted the legislation to guarantee that doctors could sign private contracts with Medicare beneficiaries willing to pay more than the fees set by the government. But in an effort to protect elderly people against price gouging by doctors, Democrats insisted that Congress impose many restrictions on the use of such private contracts.

Plaintiffs in the lawsuit, led by the United Seniors Association, contend that the law, rather than protecting elderly patients, severely limits their right to use their own money to buy more health care, or pay higher fees, than Medicare deems appropriate.

The lawsuit is the opening salvo in what promises to be a long-running battle in federal courts and in Congress over the new law.

Sandra Butler, president of the association, asserted that the law would destroy "seniors' ability to pay the doctor of their choice, for services of their choice, without the interference of the federal government."

Medicare pays doctors according to a fee schedule and strictly limits their ability to charge higher fees even if Medicare patients are willing to pay more. Doctors say that patients are sometimes willing to pay two or three times the Medicare fee for the services of an eminent specialist.

Butler and many Republican members of Congress contend that Medicare beneficiaries need an unfettered right to sign private contracts with their doctors, even for services that would otherwise be covered by Medicare. They say such contracts will become increasingly important as the government is tempted to control costs by rationing care.

But Rep. Pete Stark, D-Calif., said that private contracts exposed patients to "extortion" by doctors. Sick patients, fighting for their lives, are in a weak bargaining position and have no realistic opportunity to negotiate the terms of contracts with their doctors, Stark said.

Medicare finances health care for 38 million people who are elderly or disabled. It has a pervasive influence on the practice of medicine, extending far beyond the elderly, because most doctors receive some payments from Medicare.

The new law, the Balanced Budget Act of 1997, says a doctor may enter a private contract with a Medicare beneficiary for a specific item or service only if the doctor signs an affidavit promising not to file any claims with Medicare for any services provided to any patients for two years.

In other words, a doctor who signs even one private contract must agree to stay completely out of the Medicare program for two years. Few doctors are willing to make such a financial sacrifice. [End quoting]

Who do you trust the most, your doctor or the government? I feel most doctors would be far more trustworthy today if the government and the Rockefellers had kept their greedy hands out of the medical field.

I feel safer trusting a doctor, even today, more than I trust a greedy, lying, power-hungry government agent.

They didn't do this to protect the elderly—it was to cut money for Medicare and gain further control over the elderly.

ON JIANG ZEMIN'S VISIT

From THE FREE AMERICAN, Dec. 1997: [quoting]

On October 27, the stock market dropped 541.26 points. Bill Gates of Microsoft lost 1.75 BILLION dollars in a single day. As I write this, the market is supposedly rallying. This is primarily due to the large corporations, like IBM and AT&T, and investment funds buying back their own stocks to bolster confidence in the market. It may be that the crash we all expect, has been held off for a few more months, or even years, but I find the sudden drop extremely suspicious in lieu of the source of this mini-panic.

The talking heads on TV are all abuzz about this "market correction". The origin of this "domino effect" was a crash of the Hong Kong stock market. This news coincided with the arrival in the U.S. of Jiang Zemin, the "President" of the Republic of China.

Was this mini-crash created in much the same manner that the stock market crash of 1929 was engineered? It was reported that J.P. Morgan brought Winston Churchill to the floor of the stock market to witness the crash as a demonstration of the banker's power. Was this drop in the market the result of China flexing its economic muscle?

The free world (if there really is such an animal) watched silently as China assumed control of Hong Kong. Was the market crash there a result of that takeover or did China use its control to influence the market? Since China's Communist government controls most of the industry within its borders, and heavily influenced our own elections with its wealth, this scenario cannot be ruled out.

It appears that Clinton is enamored of Jiang if not indebted to him.

President Clinton has warned American (the dissenting citizens) not to interfere with Jiang's visit. Demonstrations are being allowed but out of sight of Jiang. Clinton doesn't want the American people, still angry over Tiananmen Square, to publicly disagree with the architects of the revolution which killed and imprisoned millions of innocent Chinese people.

China is currently making a bundle on the American people (check out the tags on all of the merchandise in Walmart and the trade deficit between US and China) while rapidly acquiring our technology (ask Boeing how their plant in China is coming along), by stealth (ask the sales people in the booths at the electronic trade shows how closely they have to watch their Chinese shoppers) or by blatant influence buying. (See Senator Thompson's hearing transcripts if you require further proof!)

Likewise, the international corporations view China as the next great market. (After all, YOU already have a car, a toaster, a TV and a microwave.) To them, it is both a source of cheap labor and an unlimited new market. (Check the latest population figures for China, compare to the US.)

The question then arises, "Are we leading China down the road to democracy and freedom for the millions of Chinese people or are we being gently herded into the Chinese/Russian version of a 'New World Order'?"

Jiang was quoted as saying prior to his trip, "I hope the American people will understand that the U.S. democracy and freedom are not absolute concepts, and they must be brought into consistency with the economic development, history, cultural traditions and education of the people."

Freedom is not an absolute concept? Why must we be brought into consistency? Which people? Whose traditions? Whose History?

Following in the footsteps of his associates, like Wang Jun, Jiang is having tea with Clinton today. How many of you reading this are confident that your president is standing up to Jiang, telling him how OUR history and cultural traditions are far superior to the more recent standards imposed on the people of China by his revolution? Do you think Clinton is hammering Jiang to release the political prisoners rotting in Chinese jails? Grant more freedoms? Hold honest elections? Quit backing North Korea's nuclear bomb projects? Give up on re-acquiring Taiwan?

I don't think so!

A more likely scenario:

Jiang: "Is it OK to talk in here?"

Clinton: "You think I'm an idiot like Nixon? No way. I have the KGB come in and sweep the place twice a day. Haven't had any problems since I got rid of that damn Aldrich. He was always hassling my guys, about shit like security clearances."

Jiang: "My congratulations on your election."

Clinton: "Couldn't have done it without your help. Americans are so tight these days."

Jiang: "We are pleased with your progress. The implementation of the internal security is going right on schedule. The demonization and demoralization of the nationalists is going well. We are also impressed with the balance of trade and the realignment of industry to our sector. I am a little disappointed with the failure to institute the ID-card systems and the removal of weapons from your people."

Clinton: "Hey, I've done more than the last three presidents, haven't I?" I got the Terrorist Bill pushed through! I've managed to get enough new federal crimes on the books that it won't be long before no American will be able to own a gun. They won't be able to spit without getting a felony on their record. Hell, I've already got more of 'em in our work camps than you do!"

Jiang: "Speaking of the Terrorist Bill, initially, I thought the bombing was a master stroke, but there is still entirely too much personal freedom here. The story is unraveling. The state of Oklahoma is investigating your investigators."

Magazines like this Free American are appearing on the newsstands beside Time and Newsweek."

Clinton: "I'm aware of the problem. He sends me one every month. But I've got this guy listed as 'armed and dangerous'. The FBI's Domestic Terrorist Task Force is almost together. I could send them in but, hell, the guy doesn't print that many and, he lives way out in the desert."

Jiang: "Why are you making excuses?"

Clinton: "Hell, I like the way he writes! OK?" [End quoting]

Why should Clinton hammer at any other country about civil rights after what he did at Ruby Ridge, Waco and Oklahoma City? This is political double-speak at its finest.

ANOTHER GOVERNMENT ASSAULT/INSULT

Be Aware Of "Dirty-Tricksters-Banksters"!

From a FAX sent by Angie Carlson, 12/17/97: [quoting]

It's an interesting trap—and one that is very dangerous. The banks have to report the transaction, but they don't have to tell you that you do, also. You have to report it—or you're a criminal.

And, the teller can make a bundle for turning you in.

Early in 1997, the latest in a string of government regulations that target ordinary citizens took effect. Because of this you could be liable for serious trouble without any idea you had done anything. Imagine this scenario:

You need to send your brother money for a family emergency.

You walk into your bank and purchase a $3500 money order, with money from your savings account. The teller handles your transaction and says nothing. You drop it in the mail and quickly forget about it. A few days later, you're arrested; and every penny in your savings account—your major life savings—is seized.

You're convicted of a felony—failure to file a "currency transaction report" (CTR), IRS Form 4789. The bank could have done it for you, but under the law it's your responsibility—and the teller stands to make a fortune if you don't report it. [End quoting]

This is one more law to rob you and at the same time make you a criminal so they can legally enslave you. They are passing many of these kinds of laws so that you can't possibly live without becoming a criminal.

BIG TROUBLE—COMING FAST!

Excerpted from CONSPIRACY NATION, 12/97: [quoting]

...I wonder whether when J. Anthony Lukas decided on the title Big Trouble for his book, about the assassination of Idaho ex-Governor Frank Steunenberg in 1905, he was thinking "Big Trouble then; Big Trouble now". (The book is about much more than the assassination. It takes several detours in which it sketches labor troubles of that time.) We certainly have "big trouble" these days, with the working people of America struggling to make ends meet. True, there is plenty of "money" and credit being pumped into the economy (unlike ca. 1866-1893), so Bill Clinton and other flunkies can say, "Hey. The economy is good." Good for whom? According to The Nation magazine (10/20/97), "The estimated combined wealth of the Forbes 400 increased 31 percent, from $477 billion in 1996 to upwards of $624 billion this year." Meanwhile, from dire necessity, millions of American families must have both husband and wife now as wage-earners. This situation is touted as a bold New Day(tm), with the women now "liberated" to work outside the home. Over 1 million Americans are warehoused in prisons, and more prisons are being built. The "good" economy uses many of these prisoners as dirt-cheap labor. They compete with illegal immigrants who, along with "liberated" women, have hugely increased the labor pool. But with over a million bankruptcies last year, it seems the "good times" are ending. We've got Big Trouble. [End quoting]

It is always encouraging to find others spreading the truth.

THE FOUR STAGES OF LIFE AFTER DEATH

From NEW DAWN, Nov./Dec. 1997: [quoting] Despite rumors to the contrary, Elizabeth Kubler-Ross, the Swiss psychiatrist whose 1969 book, On Death and Dying, brought the subject to the mainstream, is still very much alive and well. In fact, she has just written her autobiography, The Wheel Of Life. In it, she marks the four stages of life after death, based on her interviews with more than 20,000 patients:

—Phase 1: Leave the physical body. No matter what the cause of death, the recently deceased are aware of the scene they just left. They assume an ethereal existence and experience a wholeness.

—Phase 2: Meet guides. Leaving body behind, the deceased enter a state defined as "spirit and energy". Angels or guides comfort them and introduce them to previously deceased relatives and friends. It is a time of "cheerful reunion".

—Phase 3: Enter the tunnel. People report feeling excitement, tranquillity and the anticipation of going home. No matter what their religious background, all agree that seeing the light taught them there is only one explanation for the meaning of life, and that is love.

—Phase 4: In the presence of a higher Source. In this state, people go through a life review to see what they made of God's greatest gift—free will. They are asked: "What service have you rendered?" Their answer determines whether or not they learned the lessons they were supposed to learn, the ultimate being unconditional love.

After her many years of working with the dying, Kubler-Ross leaves us with these thoughts on the subject: "I have no doubt that there's life after death. I always say that death can be one of the greatest experiences ever. It's like walking through a door and to the next room, except the next room is much, much better than this one. There's no pain and no anxiety. Live honestly and full so that you don't look back and regret that you've wasted your life." [End quoting]

She's painting a rosy picture which I feel for many won't be true.

We will receive on the other side of the veil what we earned on this side of it. If you are honest with yourself you'll know this. Is it any wonder there are so many people who are afraid of dying, considering their behavior?

RUSSIAN MAC ATTACK

From NEW DAWN, Nov./Dec. 1997: [quoting]

The leader of Russia's Liberal Democratic Party Vladimir Zhirinovsky made known his distaste for damaging Western food imports by tearing apart and trampling on a Big Mac.

As part of a campaign to limit imports of poor quality foodstuffs, Mr. Zhirinovsky said his party would demand the expulsion of ambassadors from Britain and Belgium, "the main exporters of poisonous beef".

He was referring to the 'mad cow' disease crisis earlier this year and reports that British beef had been illegally exported to Russia through Belgium.

In front of a McDonald's restaurant in central Moscow on 27 August, Mr. Zhirinovsky declared that the golden arches were a symbol of Western decadence.

"This is not real meat," he said as he ripped apart the burger. [End quoting]

No wonder Zhirinovsky is such a dark horse among Soviet politicians.

BILL CLINTON'S NEW FRIENDS

From NEW DAWN, Nov./Dec. 1997: [quoting]

There's good news for those of you who have lain awake worrying about whether U.S. President Bill Clinton will find happiness after his term expires.

The President has been making new friends. On top of the many bonds he has made in political circles, he has now made what the Wall Street Journal describes as "a remarkable circle of wealthy friends" who vacation with him regularly at Martha's Vineyard. The Journal says there has been a real "synergy to these relationships" with leading financiers and CEO's leading to a virtual "tycoon lovefest".

This rebirth of Woodstock is a result, they say, of mutual admiration. The rich respect what Clinton has done for them. The President "relishes the lifestyle these people lead," so much so, that the President is described as "diligently networking for the next phase of his life".

[It is] (s)o instructive to learn that whoever you are, networking with those higher up the foodchain remains important. [End quoting]

CALIFORNIA DREAMIN'

From THE AMERICAN SPECTATOR, The Prowler section, Jan. 1998: [quoting]

Enroute to the former Soviet Union in November, first lady Hillary Clinton told staffers on her plane that husband Bill is favoring a move to California after he leaves the White House. As well as being closer to Chelsea at Stanford, and the opportunity for year-round golf, California offers an abundance of high-end, corporate law practices that will pay to have his name on the door. "We've got to go where the money is," Hillary said, "but we don't want to live in Washington." Wherever they go, they'll have to buy a house—the only residence they own is the president's mother's cabin. The Prowler hears that Clinton pals in both Hollywood and Santa Barbara have offered to help finance a new home for the loving couple. The thinking seems to be, if Ron and Nancy got away with it, why shouldn't they? [End quoting]

Bill and Hillary—Always Sniff Out And Go For The MONEY, no matter the cost!

Didn't the Clintons' buddies tell them their plans to drop California and a bunch of their Khazarain buddies into the ocean before the year 2000?

"LIAR BILL" TELLS THE TRUTH Can you believe it?

From THE FREE AMERICAN, Dec. 1997: [quoting]

"Nearly everyone will lie to you given the right circumstances." —Bill Clinton, Time magazine

Bill, of all people, ought to know! [End quoting]

UPDATE ON NEW RIVER

From a FAX, sent by Jerry White, 12/22/97: [quoting]

Las Vegas, Nevada, 21 December 1997

Joseph M. Arpaio
Maricopa County Sheriff
102 West Madison
Phoenix, Arizona 85003

Re: NEW RIVER, ARIZONA, MARICOPA COUNTY

Dear Sheriff Joe,

I have read in many publications over the years that you claim to be the "TOUGHEST SHERIFF IN AMERICA". In as much as John McGaw and his jack-booted raiders have unlawfully invaded your county, NOW IS THE TIME FOR YOU TO PROVE THAT YOU HAVEN'T BEEN JUST BRAGGING. I would say that it is time for you "to either fish or cut bait". If you did not have your fingers crossed when you took your oath of office, then you are now in violation of your oath. Right now you should show the people of Maricopa County that you have the TESTICLES to handle the sheriff's job or start wearing a dress so it will be easier for you to squat to urinate. If you do not understand the duties of a county sheriff, then I would suggest that you might contact the sheriff of BIG HORN COUNTY, WYOMING and/or the sheriff of OWYHEE COUNTY, IDAHO. These two sheriffs and possibly/probably many more in these States, united, have gone on record as understanding their duties and their intentions of upholding their oath of office when it comes to protecting the sovereignty of their individual counties.

It appears that the Governor of Arizona, JANE DEE HULL, has shown more fortitude than you have in this case, and as far as I know, she has never bragged about how TOUGH she is.

SHERIFF JOE, YOU ARE THE FINAL LAW OF MARICOPA COUNTY if you have the "GUTS" that it takes to be a county sheriff.

I sincerely hope that you either decide to act as a Sheriff or admit that you do not have what it takes to be a County Sheriff and resign so that someone that might have what it takes can assume your vacated office. YOU HAVE THE POWER TO PREVENT ANOTHER "RUBY RIDGE" OR "WACO"—TWO SLAUGHTERS THAT WERE CAUSED BY THE B.A.T.F.

Respectfully,
Jerry White
1888 Catalpa Trail
Las Vegas, Nevada 89108

cc to: [Many others] [End quoting]

There seem to be very few sheriffs who have the guts to stand up against the Feds and their intimidation and blackmail even if they don't agree with them.

Don't forget the great excuse for shirking their duty: "I have a family and kids to think about."

THE GLOBAL POVERTY INITIATIVE

From THE FREE AMERICAN, Dec. 1997: [quoting]

The UN Development Program has a new plan to erase poverty worldwide. The "Global Poverty Initiative" will bring 100 cities together in a call for action. World wide wealth is estimated at $25 trillion even while there is more poverty than ever. [End quoting]

This plan to erase poverty includes killing off more than 80% of the population over the next couple of years. All of the poverty and the bugs—viruses, etc.—the UN and others are creating and using are part of this plan.

ANOTHER EARTH FOUND IN OUR SOLAR SYSTEM

From THE STRATEGY, Australia, Nov. 1997: [quoting]

The Australian, New Zealand and the Pacific UFO Hotline, monitored today at 10:15 UTC the following statement from Russia's Voice of Russia, World News Service.

VoR reports that information to hand says our solar system has two EARTHS. The information said, a planet whose mass and dimensions equal our home planet is located behind the Sun, on the other side of the solar system, it never shows up because it takes it, and EARTH exactly the same time to orbit the Sun. None the less, it can be seen if a space satellite with a telescope aboard is launched towards MARS or VENUS.

To hear a copy of this statement call Ross Dowe on 190-224-3529. [End quoting]

Hatonn gave us this information many years ago.

It's good that others are willing to put forth

this information.

I wonder how the astrologers will handle this. It seems to me it will mess up all of their charts.

MONKEYS ARE GIVEN HEAD TRANSPLANTS

From THE STRATEGY, Australia, Nov. 1997: [quoting]

Surgeons have transplanted monkeys' heads on to fresh bodies, paving the way for a new era in human transplant technology.

By maintaining the brain stem, which deals with reflexes such as breathing, heart function and digestion, the research team has been able to keep the new brain supplied with fresh, oxygenated blood.

A series of experiments involving up to 30 animals has allowed surgeons to perfect a technique of minimizing loss of blood supply to the heads during severance operations.

The researchers also believe there was little disturbance to the monkeys' higher brain functions as a result of the procedure.

The animals were able to maintain the cycle of waking and sleeping. They were capable of visually tracking laboratory staff and could react to voices and noises.

Their facial nerves were still operational and they could eat and drink normally.

THINK ABOUT IT! WHAT NEXT? [End quoting]

A month or two ago there was an episode on The Learning Channel (TLC) on TV about this and they showed them working on the monkeys in the lab.

Why aren't the animal-rights groups yelling their heads off over this?

NASA PLANS MEGA BALLOON

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 12/23/97: [quoting]

A balloon taller than a 30-story building and wider than 100 yards will be built by NASA to carry instruments to near the edge of space.

The balloon will carry more weight higher and fly longer than any other scientific balloon, said Jack Tueller, a Goddard Space Flight Center astrophysicist and chief project scientist for the Ultra Long Duration Balloon Project.

The balloon would lift about 3,000 pounds more than 22 miles high and would stay aloft for 100 days, long enough to circle the globe about five times if the winds are right. [End quoting]

Can you imagine them using "horse and buggy" technology in the spaceage? What shows the Elite will put on to keep their advanced technology under cover from the sheeple.

MAYOR SAVES TOWN MONEY BY ENDING PROPERTY TAX

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 12/23/97: [quoting]

FORT LAWN, S.C.—Mayor Earl Thrailkill wanted to save taxpayers a few dollars. And he found just the ticket: a whole year without property taxes for this town of 780 residents in Chester County. Thrailkill said town officials discovered that abolishing the property tax actually would save money. Fort Lawn collects $42,000 in a local sales tax and about $20,000 in property taxes. But the town must give more than $20,000 of the sales tax to the state. If the town doesn't have a property tax, it can keep all $42,000 of the local sales tax. [End quoting]

Maybe many other local governments can find similar laws that will save some of the enslavement taxes for their citizens.

GLOBAL WARMING PACT IS SHELVED

Sensing Anger On Hill, Clinton Delays Action

From a FAX sent by N. McLaughlin, 12/18/97: [quoting]

The Clinton administration will delay submitting a global climate pact to a hostile Congress indefinitely while it rounds up more promises from developing countries to match U.S. emissions cuts.

"As we said from the very beginning, we will not submit this agreement for ratification until key developing nations participate in this effort," Vice President Al Gore said on Dec. 11, briefing reporters on the 160-plus-nation deal reached in Kyoto, Japan, hours earlier.

The administration "will bring it up in '99 when the details of Kyoto are forgotten," said one GOP aide privately.

Senate Republican leadership aides said that putting the treaty on ice gives Mr. Gore and the administration a chance to sell the plan, delays a potentially embarrassing vote for Democrats, and keeps the issue alive for the 2000 presidential election. [End quoting]

Don't think he'll give up. Bill and his henchmen will probably get together in the middle of the night sometime soon and pass it—we'll never know about it until we see the results.

MINIMUM SELF-STEERING ABS

From Popular Science, Jan. 1998: [quoting]

An advanced generation of antilock brakes developed by ITT's automotive division provides yet more control in stopping a vehicle under slippery conditions.

The new system senses when a car is oversteering (starting to spin out) or understeering (losing steering control) under hard braking on slippery roads. The system corrects the understeer by reducing the braking force on the front wheels. It corrects oversteer by braking one rear wheel harder than the other.

Key to the system is a yaw sensor, developed by ITT, that determines the rate the car is turning.

A test on ice demonstrated the ability to maintain steering control under hard braking, dramatically improving the ability to avoid an obstacle while slowing down. [End quoting]

Sounds great—especially for front-wheel-drive vehicles.

VOLUSIA SCHOOLCHILDREN DIG UP SOME FOUL STUFF

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 12/8/97: [quoting]

Students at Discovery Elementary prepared embalmed fryer chickens last year as a class project. Wednesday they dug them up. Their aim was recreate the ancient Egyptian practice of mummification.

"I wanted the students to get a basic understanding of ancient cultures and some of the customs," said teacher Deborah Marino, who organized the lesson for two third-grade classes last year.

There were no elaborate tombs for burying the four raw chickens, just holes in the ground at the Deltona school.

Parent Jean Walker, who uncovered the bird dubbed "King Tut" grasped the chicken by its wings, holding it up for all to see.

The fowl was brownish black and smelled like fermented garbage, which had children plugging their noses and pulling shirts over their faces.

"It's disgusting," said Candice Sereneta, 9.

In spite of the stench, the kids were excited.

"It's fun finding stuff," said Justin Rhodes, 9. [End quoting]

Why can't teachers use the little time they have with their students to teach them about living and life instead of ancient methods of burial. Instead the students come out of school and can't read or add well and many are not even able to get a decent job.

THAT MAN IN HEAVEN

From THE NORTHWEST ARKANSAS OPINION, 8/13/97: [quoting]

Nearly five years have passed since the event I like to think of as "Hillary's Revelation".

No, I'm not talking about that Hillary. I mean little Hillary Stone, the precocious daughter of our county reporter Lori Harrison Stone.

At the time, Hillary was not quite 3. She and her mother were having a discussion about Heaven in which Hillary was explaining how she looked forward to returning to Heaven one day.

Lori was humoring her when from out of the blue, her little girl added, "That man in Heaven told me to pick you out."

Confused, Lori asked, "What man?"

"That man in the picture in the hallway," Hillary said.

Lori asked Hillary to show her the picture she was talking about.

They walked around the corner together where Hillary pointed to a picture of Lori's late father, Bill Harrison. He had died four years earlier, or a year before Hillary had been born.

"Him, Mommy, that's the man who told me when I was still back in Heaven to pick you out, so I did," she said.

Hillary, now 8, doesn't recall that day, I suppose much like none of us recall learning to walk.

But the message understandably remains with Lori each day. And now that I have told you, it is also something for you to save. [End quoting]

"Out of the mouth of babes" comes much truth.

LIVING PROOF

From ANGELS ON EARTH, JAN/FEB 1998, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

"No Chad," I snapped, spotting my energetic little boy racing for the front door as it closed. "You can't go with your sister." Chad ran to the window and knocked on the glass. Shauna waved before she ran off down the street to play with her friends. At two-and-a-half, Chad was a handful. Trying to keep him out of mischief and danger, I'd nailed drawers shut, built a wooden box over the TV knobs and duct-taped safety plugs into the electrical outlets. For nearly two years, since I'd suffered a slipped disk and had to leave my job, Chad and Shauna had been my responsibility at home. My wife, Lori, worked at her gift shop, which specialized in angel items: books, cards, ceramics, jewelry—everything she could find to offer her customers some of the glory she found in these heavenly beings. Lori saw angels as symbols of God's love; to me they were merely a source of income. My day was consumed by more practical matters; namely, making sure Chad stayed out of trouble or worse.

I watched him at the window that morning, tears welling up in his green eyes. I'll never be good at this househusband thing, I thought.

Suddenly Chad streaked away from the window and up the stairs. Just walking was an effort since my injury; running was out of the question. I went after my son as fast as I could. It was another long day.

When we picked up Lori in the evening, I decided to treat my family to dinner at the Burger King near her shop. After we finished eating, Lori and I talked while Shauna and Chad played around a partition near our table. Then Shauna came back and plopped down in her chair. I got up to get Chad.

The second I reached the partition I heard the restaurant's door click shut. I looked across the dining room through the wall of glass windows at the traffic streaming by on Lincoln Avenue. There was Chad. He'd already bounded across the sidewalk and was ready to step into the street.

I'd never get to him in time. "Please, God," I begged, "he's just a baby. Don't take him now." Instinctively, I started to run, and amazingly, my body obeyed. But I couldn't feel my feet hit the floor. A force seemed to lift me by the seat of my pants, propelling me toward the door. I kept my eyes on Chad. He stepped off the curb, and headlights loomed toward him in the dark. "No!"

In the blink of an eye I reached Chad. I scooped him up with one arm, whirled and made for the curb. The car sped past, missing us by inches.

Neither Lori nor I could find words to talk about the incident. The next day seemed like any other. I tried keeping pace with Chad, my body struggling with the limitations I knew so well. How had I suddenly become so agile and strong in those crucial moments the night before? My son was living proof that it had happened. When we picked up Lori that night at her shop I asked her to tell me more about angels. Surely God had told them about me. —Mark Shields [End quoting]

Part VI In A Series

The following is Part VI of the excellent investigative historical series from Calvin Burgin which began in the 11/18/97 issue of CONTACT as the Front Page story.

ASSASSINATION ATTEMPTS ON FORD

Sara Jane Moore took a shot at President Ford in San Francisco on September 22, 1975. Unlike the incident 17 days earlier with "Squeaky" Fromme, the attempt by Mrs. Moore was real. Had President Ford gone across the street as planned to mingle with the crowd, he would have gone exactly where she stood patiently waiting with her gun, which she had picked out for purchase the previous day with a United States Treasury agent by her side. You may have heard of all the accounts of her attempts to get arrested ahead of time and her unsuccessful efforts to stop herself. But she truly could not help herself, because she was electronically brainwashed and programmed as an assassin by Rockefeller Intelligence agents.

On October 14, 1975, still another odd occurrence happened to President Ford. He was involved in a traffic accident, so-called, as his motorcade drove through downtown Hartford, Connecticut. And for the third time in a row, an apparent brush with possible death by the President was caught beautifully by the TV news cameras which just happened to be riding in the motorcade this time, three cars behind the President. The limousine President Ford was riding in was supposedly the same one J.F.K. rode in when he was killed, but 90% rebuilt. Due to the accident, it would, of course, have to go into the Ford Motor Company shops for repair in Detroit. Did it return to service, outfitted once again as a murder car as it was that day of November 22, 1963, in Dallas? After all, the Rockefeller Brothers have a habit of using any trick that proves successful over and over again.

Meanwhile, the Fort Knox Gold story had taken a deadly new turn; and, as before, Congress was doing absolutely nothing about it. The Central Core Vault of the Bullion Depository at Fort Knox contained canisters of liquid radioactive superpoison processed from Plutonium 239, the deadliest substance imaginable. These canisters were leaking due to corrosion, and the radioactive leakage was escaping through the porous concrete walls of the Vault and through the dehumidifying system and getting out into the countryside to be carried away on the winds, contrary to what officials tell you. The prevailing winds in that area for the past several years had been very unusual—from essentially due west rather than from the northwest, as is more common. As a result, the thin invisible fog of radioactive poison from Fort Knox was being carried from the Depository (which is located south of Louisville) eastward in the general direction of Lexington and West Virginia, and onward approximately toward Washington, D.C.; and this leakage has already been going on for several years in sufficient quantity to be having an initial impact on health statistics now.

Beter said that his own investigators reported to him that many doctors in the region east of Fort Knox were baffled by a large increase in the incidence of cancers of all types; and on November 7, 1975, the Government itself released statistics that show the same thing. The National Cancer Institute announced that so far that year the cancer death rate nation-wide was up by 5.2%. This is five times the rate of increase that has prevailed over a period of many years, and they frankly admitted that they were at a loss to explain it. But buried in those same official Government statistics is a regional breakdown, and that east-central states containing Fort Knox and the area east of it shows an astronomical 17 to 18% increase!

On November 12, 1975, the Louisville Courier-Journal broke the Fort Knox plutonium story on its front page, in the best traditions of newspaper reporting. Another publication that covered the story was Myers Finance and Energy.

In his Oct. 31, 1975 issue Mr. Myers capped off a story on Fort Knox by quoting the following letter of an associate of Dr. Beter, Mr. Ed Durell, to the Acting Director of the Mint:

"I now ask you for the record, please, to confirm or deny the existence of the Central Core Vault at the U.S. Bullion Depository at Fort Knox, Ky. I refer to the single, large, centrally located underground chamber serviced by elevator.

"Why can't the Acting Director of the Mint answer simply YES or NO? The whole nation is asking a question. Why won't they answer?"

They received a dead silence from the Government. Myers also asked: "What then is Congress doing? Is it, too, just writing off 9,000,000 people rather than sound the alarm and get the deadly situation at Fort Knox corrected?"

The United States Government has to this day never admitted the existence of the Central Core Vault, which was not mentioned to the 100-odd visitors of Fort Knox on September 23, 1974. To admit its existence would all by itself prove that the so-called "Gold Inspection Visit" by Congressmen and newsmen was a total fraud, and also the so-called "Audit" done by the GAO and the Treasury together. And since the Central Core Vault is where the leaking plutonium poison is, they want desperately to keep you from knowing that the Vault exists.

In mid September Beter held private discussions with Congressman Pike about the situation at Fort Knox. At that time Beter did not yet know about the plutonium poison stored there, but did know that the CIA and FBI were tied in with the theft of America's gold from Fort Knox on behalf of the Rockefeller Brothers. Pike appeared to be generally interested and courageous as well—a quality which has virtually disappeared from the United States Congress today; but his major sticking point which he came back to time and time again was the Central Core Vault at Fort Knox. Its existence had never been admitted by the Government, so Congressman Pike could not believe that it did exist. The No. 1 requirement that he placed on Beter was, therefore, to prove that the Central Core Vault does exist.

Beter said: "So on September 26, 1975, we met again with Congressman Pike and two of his top staffers in his office, and this time we had with us no less than a former Commanding General of Fort Knox, Lieut. General John L. Ryan, Jr., U.S. Army (retired). General Ryan commanded Fort Knox from 1956 to 1959. He had also served two earlier tours at Fort Knox, the first being in the late 1930's when he was placed in charge of the Army contingent that was assigned to help store the nation's gold in the Bullion Depository for the very first time. All of the gold was put in the Central Core Vault at that time, it having been constructed specifically for that purpose. The many small jail-cell-like storage compartments seen by the Fort Knox visitors last year were also in existence at that time but were not intended for the storage of gold but for other valuables. General Ryan stated that for the entire duration of his long experience with Fort Knox, the gold was always kept in the Central Core Vault. He also said he was mystified as to why the gold would ever have been removed from the Central Core Vault and placed in the small jail-cell compartments on the levels above, which offer a much lower degree of security.

"Congressman Pike then asked us for certain further information, including specific connections between the Fort Knox affair and the Intelligence community which is within the jurisdiction of Congressman Pike's Committee. We agreed to provide what he asked, and it was in following up the connection between Fort Knox and the Intelligence industry that my sources informed me of the hideous plutonium poison in the Bullion Depository at Fort Knox.

"But when we returned to Congressman Pike ready to provide witnesses and other evidence about the plutonium and other things, Mr. Pike's response had changed. It is now the classical position that is always used to say 'good-bye' on Capitol Hill, quote: 'We're too busy to work on this.'"

THE PLUTONIUM SAGA CONTINUES

During the early and mid 1960s, over 200 pounds of plutonium superpoison was made for the CIA and FBI Intelligence communities. It was processed in four plants—two in Louisville, Kentucky, one in North Dakota, and one in Southern California. One thing it is handy for, in very small doses, is putting troublesome individuals out of the way. But why so much plutonium poison? For political blackmail!

In 1966 the CIA divided up this poison and sent about 60 pounds to each of four Latin American countries—Peru, Panama, Bolivia, and Argentina. There threats were made that it would be used to contaminate United States-planned and built water aqueduct systems—can you imagine?—unless certain political and economic actions were taken. In Argentina this successfully laid the foundation for the return to power of the Peron group; and then the poison was no longer needed there, and so it was returned to the United States in 1968.

But a problem arose: where to store this illegal nuclear poison? CIA agents within the Treasury, however, knew that the Central Core Vault at the Fort Knox Bullion Depository was being emptied of gold and suggested that it be stored there. This was done with all but 12 grams (less than half an ounce), which the CIA extracted from one canister to experiment with. This 12-gram sample of the plutonium poison, whose full effects still were not fully understood at that time, was taken to the White Sands Proving Grounds in New Mexico for evaluation purposes.

During the experiment there, about 3 grams 'accidentally' leaked into an underground water supply which was being used by 12 families in that sparsely settled area. All of them died quickly from the poison; and the CIA mounted an elaborate cover-up, burying those innocent victims secretly. Perhaps you will recall, in fact, some strange news items several years ago about the sudden disappearance of some ranch folk out West, a disappearance that never was explained. Well, now you know what happened.

November 8, 1975, a secret meeting was held in the White House to discuss alternative means of disposing of the deadly poison. The discussion included some ideas that would be as insane as the poison itself—such as dumping all 60 pounds of it into the underground streams that lie under Fort Knox. Not only might this allow the poison to spread uncontrollably from there, but it could possibly also cause contamination of any of the huge underground caverns under Fort Knox which are used for natural gas storage. Now if this were to happen, natural gas could carry traces of the radioactive plutonium poison straight into the industrial plants and homes of thousands of people in that area. The deadly plutonium radiation would be unaffected by passing through gas flames, after which it could be inhaled or set on to food.

Beter received updated information to the effect that the poison is now spreading throughout the entire Southeast of the United States and even beginning to enter the Gulf of Mexico.

POISONING OFFICIALLY DENIED

Beter was able to extract a letter from Mrs. Mary Brooks, the Director of the Mint, dated November 21, 1975, indirectly through Congressman Kenneth Robinson of Virginia.

As you read the letter, try, if you can, to find any clear-cut YES-or-NO-type answer to anything. You will only find one to the effect that a certain statement, and I quote: "is simply not true." But the statement referred was a carefully selected misstatement of charges by someone else. Now here's the letter: [quoting]

Dear Mr. Robinson:

Thank you for your letter of November 10, 1975, concerning allegations that plutonium-239 was stored in the so-called Central Core Vault at the United States Bullion Depository, Fort Knox, Kentucky.

We do not store plutonium-239 or any other radioactive substance at the Depository, and have no reason to believe that it is stored there by other government agencies. We authorized the Military at Fort Knox to make radiation tests in the Depository last week. We were informed that the tests did not disclose any evidence of radioactive material.

The allegations relating to the so-called Central Core Vault are carried in a Swiss Newsletter entitled Myers Finance and Energy that is currently being circulated by those who have persisted with all the wild allegations about the Bullion Depository at Fort Knox. The Newsletter discusses Dr. Peter D. Beter's allegations and states (and the letter quotes as follows):

"In 1942-43 Major Stanley Tatom designed and oversaw the construction of a Central Core Vault below the Main Vault. To get to this ultrasafe vault, an elevator had to be installed and it used up the space occupied by 12 of the former Vault compartments. This explains why the numbering in the Vault compartments upstairs had a 12-digit gap.

"This statement is simply not true. There were no major alterations to the Vault after construction of the Depository was completed in 1936. The elevator was installed at the time the Depository was constructed. We have no record of Major Stanley Tatom designing or overseeing the construction of a Central Core Vault. In fact we do not, and find no record that we ever did, refer to any part of the Depository by that name.

"The Visitors Log at the Depository does show the name of Major Daniel F. Tatum as calling on the officer in charge on July 29, 1942. We also have records which show that a steel door was erected by the Champion Wire & Iron Works, Louisville, Kentucky, at the entrance to the corridor that leads to Compartments numbered 1 through 14 in the basement level of the Depository. This work was completed on January 7, 1942, and the No. 15 was assigned to the door. After this work was completed, gold was stored in the corridor for a time during which the door was locked and sealed." Still quoting from her letter:

The allegation that there is a 12-digit gap in the numbering of compartments is also inaccurate. Our records show that the Depository had 28 compartments, 14 on the lower level and 14 on the upper level at the time of construction. The compartments on the lower level were numbered 1 through 14, and the corridor door was numbered 15 when it was added in 1942. The compartments on the upper level were numbered 21 through 34. There is no record of the numbers 16 through 20 ever being used on Vault compartments of the Depository.

If I could be of further assistance in this matter, please let me know.

Sincerely,
/s/Mary Brooks,
Director of the Mint
[End quoting]

This letter was the product of a year-and-a-half of continuous effort on their part to refine their story and put their very best foot forward. It was written with great care, with careful choice of every word. The letter was not even written by Mary Brooks alone. Much of it was written by an official in the General Accounting Office who has ties to the Intelligence industry. The GAO itself is implicated in the Fort Knox cover-up through the falsified Gold Audit done in the fall of 1974, so this letter is important, and it deserves closer examination.

find someone else's misstatement of the Bullion Depository modifications so that they can attack that instead of refuting Beter's own statements? As Beter clearly stated, the Central Core Vault was built into the Depository at the start. Major Tatom's job later on was to build a rapid retrieval system into the Gold Vault, not to build the Vault itself. He also explained that there is a gap of six digits, not 12, on each floor of Vault compartments.

Notice also, in trying to wave aside references to Major Stanley Tatom, how cleverly it is done! We can prove that he was there and did oversee the work on the rapid retrieval system, and apparently the Government knows we can. Therefore the following sentence is used to mislead without actually lying:

"We have no record of Major Stanley Tatom designing or overseeing the construction of a Central Core Vault." Of course they don't, because that is just not what he did. He built a rapid retrieval system to give access to the Central Core Vault. The writers of the letter included one other item which was intended to help throw everyone off the track, but actually does just the opposite. According to Beter's sources, during the work on the rapid retrieval system in 1942-43, the disruption was so great that the gold was taken out of the Central Core Vault and, quote: piled around in the corridors. Now we are told in this letter about the strange corridor door, which was installed for unstated reasons. Listen again to these astonishing words from Mrs. Brooks' letter:

"This work was completed on January 7, 1942, and the No. 15 was assigned to the door. After this work was completed, gold was stored in the corridor for a time during which the door was locked and sealed." Mrs. Brooks does not tell us for how long a time, much less why!

Look at all the assertions and denials that are all couched in the words, quote: "Our records show..." or "We have no record..."—this coming from the same office whose records were so suspect in other ways.

Records of the quality of gold stored in Fort Knox and elsewhere, disagreed with one another in glaring ways. The official Mint records omit shipments. Even the case of the missing experimental aluminum pennies is another example of the 'dependability' of United States Mint records.

But notice also that the letter spends the least time on the most important matter of all—the radioactive plutonium poison stored in the Central Core Vault. It is stated that the radiation tests by the Military, quote: "...did not disclose any evidence of radioactive material." In much the same vein, and with similar bureaucratic phrases like, quote: "We have no evidence..." the Kentucky Department of Human Resources claims that there is nothing to worry about. But, my friend, plutonium radiation is very hard to detect, yet very deadly if it gets inside your body. Experts sum it up with the phrase:

"If there is enough plutonium to detect, it is already too much." Therefore nothing less than a serious, comprehensive, honest check by top experts with the best equipment available can be considered satisfactory. The stakes for over 36-million Americans in the Southeast United States are too high to settle for less. The United States Government expects you to just take their word for it regardless of what they may tell you. No proof, no criteria, just believe what they say.

It's sad that we have to look overseas to see any meaningful reporting about the Fort Knox plutonium disaster. In the Financial Times of London for Thursday December 11, 1975, the story was broken by C. Gordon Tether, whose financial column was read the world over. In his article titled "A New Twist Of Fort Knox Saga", he reviews the Fort Knox Gold Scandal cover-up and then informs his readers of the latest charges concerning plutonium. He ends the article with words that no columnist of his stature in America has yet dared to write, and I quote:

"But whatever the cost in terms of loss of face, might not the United States authorities be well advised to do whatever is necessary to demonstrate that there is no Ft. Knox cover-up? In the light of what is happening in the United States during the past few years, deeds inevitably now speak louder than words; and the refusal to prove that they have nothing to hide is inevitably destined to go on fostering precisely the opposite impression."

WILLIAM SIMON'S LETTER

In a letter to a friend of Beter's dated December 10, 1975, former Secretary of the Treasury William Simon said the following:

"The allegation that plutonium 239 is, or ever has been stored at Fort Knox in a central core vault is false, and the Army has just conducted an extensive test of the Bullion Depository and has found no evidence of radioactivity. I should add that there is no such thing as the Central Core Vault."

Notice that Simon's denial of the presence of plutonium-239 at the Depository is tied right in with his denial of the existence of the Central Core Vault. Obviously if there is no Central Core Vault, then it cannot contain plutonium-239! But on the other hand, to have any faith that his denial about the plutonium is truthful, you must also believe his assertion that there exists no Central Core Vault at the Depository. If he would lie about one, he would lie about the other.

GENERAL JOHN RYAN EXPOSES SIMON'S LIE

With that in mind, see this letter written to one of Beter's associates by a retired Lieutenant General, John L. Ryan, Jr., a former Commanding General of Fort Knox. General Ryan probably knows more about the Depository than anyone else who ever commanded Fort Knox. He spent two tours of duty there before he returned a third time as the Commanding General; and when the gold was moved to Fort Knox to be stored there for the very first time in 1937, it was he who was placed in charge of the actual physical movement of the incoming gold into the Depository. With regard to the disputed Central Core Vault, he says, quote:

"When I use the word 'vault' I am referring to the central core of the Depository where the bullion was stored. This vault was below ground level and could be entered only through a specially constructed bank-type door that opened onto a screw lift. This door was in the Receiving-Shipping area of the Depository. The Receiving-Shipping room was above ground level. The vault was below ground level. Around the vault proper, or central core, below ground level was a passageway. On this passageway were a number of cell-like compartments. There was no means of entering the vault from this passageway."

The passageway with its compartments are all that the visitors saw in September 1974. The existence of the Central Core Vault, which is where the gold, if any, should have been, is absolutely confirmed by General Ryan; and as his letter makes clear, the 1974 visitors had no chance of finding out about it while wandering around in the passageway and looking at the small compartments you heard and read about in the news.

THE POISON LEAK COVERUP

In the same way, a cover-up campaign was launched in regard to the leakage of the plutonium-239 super poison from Fort Knox. On January 12, 1976, exactly two months after the Louisville Courier-Journal broke the Fort Knox plutonium story on its front page, a truck carrying radioactive waste just "happened" to have an accident in eastern Kentucky, smack in the heart of the area now most heavily affected by radioactive poison leakage from Fort Knox. Fourteen of the 32 drums of waste on the truck fell off, and 8 of them broke open and leaked. The newspaper stories around there about it contained the usual assurances that there was no danger, that it had been cleaned up, etc., but leakage had occurred.

Just six days later on January 18 newspapers contained big articles about still another alleged radioactive waste leakage problem in Kentucky.

The truck mentioned had been on its way to a nuclear waste dumping ground at Maxey Flats,

Kentucky, which had been in use since 1963, and then we were suddenly told that the leakage is occurring there too. Federal investigators, those wonderful watchdogs we are supposed to trust and admire, claimed that radioactive waste in steel, wooden, and even cardboard drums has been just dropped into trenches and covered up with dirt; and after 12 years they have just now abruptly discovered that some of it has gotten loose and is spreading through the ground, through the water, and through the air. And a study by the General Accounting Office, while it gave the standard assurance that there is no immediate danger, recommended a crash program to correct the situation and develop systematic standards for safe disposal of radioactive waste.

Now, why all of this sudden concern about leakage of radioactive contamination? And why did the spotlight on actual leakage cases just happen to be on Kentucky? After all, there were vastly more serious problems of this sort elsewhere in the United States, for example, in New York State—but so why Kentucky?

ED DURELL'S LETTER

Here is a letter to Congressman Conlan of Arizona from Mr. Edward Durell, dated January 7, 1976: [quoting]

Dear Mr. Conlan,

Your letters of December 5, 1975, to Mrs. Mary Barrow and Mr. Art Bentley both of Lake Havasu City, Arizona, have been sent to me for comment. To that end I write direct to you, with copies to them and other interested parties.

In your letter to Mrs. Barrow you state among other things that, quote: Grand Juries are empaneled to investigate criminal wrongdoing, and that if, quote: you personally have evidence of crimes committed in connection with our nation's gold holdings, please let me know so that I can put you directly in touch with appropriate officials of the United States Justice Department who would have jurisdiction in this matter.

In your letter to Mr. Bentley you state among other things that while you have, quote: some misgivings about the gold situation, quote: I can assure you that exposure to any radioactive poison would have caused me serious illness. Neither I nor anyone else who went to Fort Knox has suffered any such illness.

Please allow us firstly to answer your letter to Mr. Bentley. It is common knowledge in nuclear medicine that if one is exposed to alpha particle radiation of plutonium, death due to cancer can come in a matter of months or years. It all depends upon dosage level and duration of exposure. In this respect we would suggest that you contact Dr. John Gofman, former professor of Medical Physics emeritus, University of California at Berkeley; or listen to him by way of a one-hour tape cassette obtainable from AUDIO BOOKS, INC., P. O. [old address deleted]; special tape No. 2 for $6.00 postpaid.

In this tape Dr. Gofman speaks on the effects of radioactive poison, among other things.

In addition, over 18% increase in cancer deaths in the first seven (7) months this year over last year has taken place in the central-eastern states, which has left medical authorities in the dark as to the cause. They felt they had made such tremendous cancer advancements in the last few years, and then to have such a high upsurge in the first seven months this year over last year in that area alone, is baffling.

One more thing about this radioactive poison in the United States Bullion Depository at Fort Knox—hereinafter called 'Fort Knox'. We know from sources in the Intelligence industry that this plutonium poison was part of the plutonium-239 stolen by members of the Intelligence community in 1966 and that this most deadly substance was processed in four plants—two in Kentucky, one in North Dakota, and one in California—into radioactive liquid poison. It was then taken—60 pounds each—to Peru, Panama, Bolivia, and Argentina under cover of a multinational cement corporation by a CIA officer, Harold Leroy White, for the sole purpose of threatening to contaminate the United States-planned and built water aqueduct systems in those countries for political and economic pressure. Sixty pounds, however, intended for use in Argentina, was brought back by Mr. White and placed in the Central Core Vault at Fort Knox where it has been stored ever since late 1968. The casks are now corroding, causing leakage and contamination over the entire areas east and southeast of Kentucky, and as far away as Cuba. This contamination is endangering the lives of over 40 million people in this country. Can we afford to allow these people to be expendable?

The federal government has now publicly admitted our charges that opium and morphine—150,000 pounds and 24,000 pounds respectively—are stored at Fort Knox. Why will it not admit the existence of the plutonium?

It is suggested that to do so might subject the Government to thousands of legal actions involving hundreds of millions of dollars under the Federal Tort Claims Act and/or the Price Anderson Act, the 1954 Atomic Energy Act as amended; Title 42 Section 2011 and following for, quote: 'extraordinary nuclear occurrence'—[to avoid] that is, quote: 'any event causing a discharge or dispersal of source, special nuclear or by-product material from its intended place of confinement in amounts off site or causing radiation levels off site and which has resulted or will probably result in substantial damages to persons off site or property off site.'

And why will it not admit the loss of our gold reserves? For the same reasons—[to avoid] legal actions including those criminal in nature. And in the latter connection, we would like here to pursue your suggestion to Mrs. Barrow and list the charges of the high crimes committed relative to disappearance of the people's gold reserves.

On behalf of the American people it is herein charged that the United States Treasury Department—hereinafter called 'Treasury'—in violation of its Constitutional duty to protect the people's gold and in violation of its Constitutional duty to take care that the laws relative to the safeguarding and custody of said gold be faithfully executed, has failed so to do in that between January 1, 1961, and January 1, 1974, prior and subsequent thereto, Treasury engaged itself through its officers/agents and in concert with others in America's corridors of financial power in a course of conduct or plan designed to convert unto themselves the people's gold entrusted to it for safekeeping for the avowed purpose of profiting unjust enrichment; and in a course of conduct or plan designed to cover up, conceal and protect those responsible and to conceal the existence and scope of other unlawful covert activities.

The means used to implement this conduct or plan have included one or more of the following: 1. Treasury has failed to render a true account of the amount of gold shipped out from the United States Bullion Depositories from 1961 to 1968 under color of the 'London Gold Pool Agreement'; 2. Treasury has failed to reveal the true prices, if any, received for the sale of said gold or reveal the names of the ultimate purchasers of said gold; 3. Treasury has failed to give a true account of the amount of gold shipped out of the United States Bullion Depositories from 1968 to 1974 under color of an ad hoc committee composed of the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, the Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, the Chairman of the White House Council on International Economic Policy, the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of Treasury, among others; 4. Treasury has issued a statement dated August 31, 1974, purporting to list 24 million ounces of good delivery gold at Fort Knox when in actual fact the Secretary of the Treasury admitted December 3, 1974, that such listing is false or misleading; 5. Treasury has taken, December 9, 1974, without lawful authority, two million ounces of gold from the Exchange Stabilization Fund by a simple bookkeeping device and four days later announced by way of the General Services Administration that there would be an auction of two million ounces of gold on an 'as is' basis January 6, 1975. In addition, a Dutch auction was held June 30, 1975, with the remainder of said gold based on a price not considered best for the taxpayers of America; 6. Treasury has caused a statement to be issued April 11, 1975, which is false or misleading in that it purports to list all of the gold shipments out of Fort Knox when in actual fact such list omitted among other things a shipment of gold consisting of four (4) tractor-trailer loads on January 20, 1965, which shipment consisted of 1.762-million ounces valued at over sixty-one million dollars ($61,000,000) at $35.00 per troy ounce—the par value for official gold at that time; 7. Treasury has in its immediate possession and control the necessary keys, combination numbers, and time-control data for the vaults, depositories, and their mechanisms. It thus has the highest duty to take care that its trust be faithfully executed, but it has acted in a manner contrary to its trust and subversive of responsible government to the great prejudice and to the manifest injury of the people of the United States by acting in concert with others to aid and abet, to surreptitiously remove the gold under the cover of legal right; 8. Treasury has made false or misleading statements for the purpose of deceiving the people of the United States into believing that a thorough and complete inspection and audit have been conducted with respect to allegations that Fort Knox contains no significant amounts of gold and not accounted for, in that an inspection trip to Fort Knox September 23, 1974, revealed one (1) cell-like compartment, No. 33, to contain only copper-hued bars. Mrs. Mary Brooks, the Director of the Mint, Treasury, said, quote: 'It's all here.' Her statement is analogous to the so-called Audit of October 1974 of only three (3) of the cell-like compartments at Fort Knox, which Audit calls the Report to be submitted to Congress February 10, 1975—also based on a belief that, quote: 'It's all here.'

Further, the inference given by the inspection trip and the Audit was that the gold at Fort Knox was of good delivery form and the remaining ten (10) cell-like compartments were full of good delivery gold; 9. Treasury is withholding relevant and material evidence or information from the American people in total disregard or violation of the Constitutional right of the people to know what has happened to its gold reserves and to its right of freedom of information for purposes unrelated to national security, the enforcement of laws, or any other lawful functions of Treasury in that the Central Core Vault at Fort Knox was concealed from the inspection group of over 100 news media people, six (6) Representatives, and one (1) Senator of the United States Congress; 10. Treasury has unlawfully utilized its authority to cause the General Accounting Office to fail to take care that the laws be faithfully executed in that the General Accounting Office, a legislative entity, was forced to have only two (2) of its own people on a settlement committee to audit the alleged gold at Fort Knox, whereas Treasury had thirteen (13) of its own people on said committee; 11. Treasury has not caused to be made an annual physical inventory of the people's gold since 1953. Thus Treasury has failed to take care that Title 31 USC be faithfully executed by failing to make the required annual physical inventories.

In all of this and more, Treasury has acted in a manner contrary to its trust and subversive of Constitutional government to the great prejudice of law and justice and to the manifest injury of the people of the United States; wherefore, Treasury through its officers, agents and others in concert with it, by such conduct or plan, warrant such parties be brought before appropriate legal authorities to answer these charges; and, further, for the restitution of the people's gold except that portion which is contaminated by radioactive poison in which case said parties shall be ordered to pay the current market gold price and for such other appropriate action as may be deemed just and proper in the premises.

In support of the charges, please be informed that former Congressman Frank Chelf's AFFIDAVIT dated April 7, 1975, in which he deposes and says among other things, and I quote: that the United States government was moving quietly as a church mouse out of Fort Knox; and that the gold was, quote: constantly and surreptitiously on the move.

Fort Knox is located in former Congressman Chelf's Congressional District. He further deposes and says that, quote: 'In response to my previous requests for gold removal information, Treasury officials had been courteous and most friendly but always non-committal or evasive.' Mr. Chelf had earlier made the same charges on the floor of the House of Representatives, but to no avail. (See Congressional Record page 15522—August 21, 1963.)

Further, Lt. General John L. Ryan, Jr., US Army (Ret.), in his statement of September 26, 1975 before Congressman Otis G. Pike in his office, has proved the existence of the Central Core Vault and in fact has drawn sketches of it. In view of this, there is no valid reason for the Secretary of Treasury to continue to deny the existence of the Central Core Vault at Fort Knox unless there is something deeply secret stored therein. There admittedly may have been the necessity for some secrecy in the 1960's when all of the gold at Fort Knox was stored in the Central Core Vault. Why the secrecy now, since the Comptroller General has stated on February 10, 1975, quote: As of June 30, 1974 about 55% of the gold claimed by the Treasury was stored in thirteen (13) sealed compartments at the United States Bullion Depository at Fort Knox, Kentucky?

As further evidence, we call your attention to the balance sheets of the 12 Federal Reserve

Banks, which carry Gold Certificate accounts as an asset to reflect a stated amount of gold which, in turn, is reflected as a liability on Treasury balance sheets; however it is submitted these Gold Certificate accounts reflect assets—gold—which do not in fact exist in Treasury vaults. This same situation prevailed in 1943 relative to silver when, quote: '14,000 tons of silver from the Treasury reserve backing American paper money was secretly taken from Treasury vaults although carried publicly on the Treasury balance sheets', cited in Tragedy and Hope by Professor Carol Quigley, page 855, 1966/1974.

We could go on, but suffice it to say that Treasury during our 18 months investigations has not moved to refute by evidence the basic charges outlined above. Meanwhile our economy is suffering by those twin disasters, inflation and deflation—high prices with high unemployment—initially caused by the disposing of our gold reserves in secret and its attendant game plan.

Mr. C. Gordon Tether, in his December 11, 1975 article 'A NEW TWIST OF FORT KNOX SAGA' in the Financial Times of London, stated: [quoting]

But whatever the cost in terms of loss of face, might not the United States authorities be well advised to do whatever is necessary to demonstrate that there is no Fort Knox cover-up? In the light of what has happened in the United States during the past few years, deeds inevitably now speak louder than words; and the refusal to prove that they have nothing to hide, is inevitably destined to go on fostering precisely the opposite impression.

Considering all of the above, would you please be so kind as to put the undersigned and Dr. Peter Beter, as you offered to do for Mrs. Barrow, 'directly in touch with appropriate officials of the United States Justice Department who would have jurisdiction in this matter'? I am authorized to state that Dr. Beter concurs with the contents of this letter and is fully prepared to give further evidence before a United States Grand Jury and any Congressional investigating committee in confirmation of the charges herein cited, among others.

Further, I would suggest you personally bring this letter to the attention of the Chairman of the House Banking Committee of which you are a member, for appropriate action. Failure on your part to do so will lend credence to the fact you, yourself, have become part and parcel of the cover-up on this vital matter; and failure on the part of the Chairman of said Committee to take such action will further lend credence to the fact that he himself is in league with those underlying forces at work in America's corridors of financial power.

Most respectfully,
/s/Edward Durell
[End quoting]

Here is Congressman Conlan's reply in its entirety, dated February 26, 1976—seven weeks after the date of Mr. Ed Durell's certified letter: [quoting]

Dear Mr. Durell,
Following up receipt of your certified Open Letter to me, I wanted to bring you up-to-date on my actions. I have written to the Chairman of the House Banking, Currency, and Housing Committee Henry Reuss; Chairman of the House Domestic Monetary Policy Committee Wright Patman; and Chairman of the House Government Operations Committee, Jack Brooks. I will let you know when I receive their replies.

Also, I am enclosing a copy of my letter to Secretary Simon in which I request a complete inventory of United States gold holdings. I have asked him to let me know what action he plans to take in this regard.

It is unfortunate that there are not more Congressmen and people in the Administration and the Attorney General's office who are more interested in clarifying this matter. I am just one sincere Congressman, Mr. Durell; and much as you and I would like to think, I cannot order official Washington to do yours and my bidding. If I could, Henry Kissinger and others would have been replaced a long time ago.

Cordially,
John B. Conlan
Member of Congress

And that is apparently that, as far as John Conlan was concerned. He continually professed to be concerned about Fort Knox, yet there was not even the token of an attempt to open any doors for a good investigation into the matter—no speeches on the House floor, no press conference, no real follow-up to Mr. Durell's letter in any way—just a very intimate letter to William Simon, Treasury Secretary, who himself is party to the cover-up. Why didn't John Conlan tell us what Bill Simon told him on the night of January 5, 1975, in private?

There have been many articles lately about the fact that the government routinely covered up and lied about nuclear radiation experiments and leaks; one example is the Austin American Statesman article of December 15, 1994, p. A8, titled: "Legal, publicity fears spurred radiation secrecy, files show".

Another example article is one titled: "Plutonium numbers don't jibe, council says. Discrepancy between U. S., private figures is enough for 300 nuclear bombs" by William J. Broad, New York Times News Service (Austin American Statesman, May 20, 1994, p. A17). This article tells of 1.5 metric tons of plutonium that has disappeared. Perhaps someone dropped a cigarette on it and it went up in smoke? Or maybe mice ate it?

DON'T RAIN ON MY CHARADE

The Carter Administration became so concerned about the plutonium and the missing gold controversy that on July 28, 1977, Treasury Secretary Blumenthal took the extreme step of going to the Fort Knox Bullion Depository himself.

The rewards of the difficult life of honesty and dedication to the truth are continual growth, effective intimate relationships, and the knowledge that one has served as a source of illumination and clarification to the world.

-M. Scott Peck, M.D.
(The Road Less Traveled)

He had himself photographed by Time magazine sitting on the same stack of warmed-over junk gold bars viewed at Fort Knox in Compartment No. 33 in September 1974. Then he went to Louisville to deliver his speech prepared before he left Washington, saying how impressed he was with the wonderful hoard of gold he had just inspected at Fort Knox. Former Treasury Secretary William Simon knew better than to go there personally, even at the height of the public controversy over Fort Knox three years ago. Instead he sent poor Mrs. Mary Brooks, the unsuspecting head of the Bureau of the Mint, to tell the world, "It's all here." But now extreme measures were called for in the name of "cover-up" because, while the public slept, the powerful financial community showed signs of awakening with a roar.

The United States Treasury Department had been aware for some time that something would have to be done about the resurgence of concern about Fort Knox, so during 1977 about 1.5 million ounces of gold were obtained from Portugal. This, plus other assorted reserves of mostly junk gold that had been scraped together, brought America's true gold stock to just over 3-1/2 million ounces. This was a mere pittance compared with the 277 million ounces on official Treasury books, but it did provide something to use for psychological gold sales once again. Then the Treasury made a big deal of announcing that the United States will hold six monthly auctions of gold amounting to 300,000 ounces each. At this rate, if the United States really had the claimed stocks of gold, auctions could be held monthly for 77 years—yet the Treasury offered to do so only for six months, as a psychological ploy.

GOLDFINGER WAS REAL

Ian Fleming, in his book Goldfinger, devised a fictional scheme to show that Fort Knox might not be impregnable after all. He raised the question: "What would happen to the dollar and other currencies if the Fort Knox gold were no longer available?" And he proposed the unthinkable thought that someone, if they were rich enough and greedy enough, might want to get their hands on America's gold.

The actual Goldfinger story, of course, was fiction; but the basic points which were just mentioned were fact. Goldfinger was published in 1959; and barely two years later in 1961, the hemorrhaging of America's monetary gold supply began. Agents of David Rockefeller within the United States Government provided a cloak of authority called the "London Gold Pool Agreement"; and then for seven years until 1968, big Army trucks loaded with gold bullion rolled out of Fort Knox constantly—and all without a word to the public!

Some of the gold shipments during those seven years were recorded on a list kept by the United States Mint. Almost without exception the shipments listed went to the New York Assay Office, where they disappeared without any further accounting. The New York Assay Office was the focus of a scandal in December 1978 involving missing gold. Over 5,000 ounces had simply disappeared; but that was a very small tip of a very large iceberg, and so the controversy over the missing millions in gold at the New York Assay Office was quickly smoothed over and covered up. They could not afford to allow any real investigation which might let the public know the truth. According to the official list of shipments, a large fraction of America's monetary gold went to the New York Assay Office in the 60s. There it disappeared, never to be seen again.

But the real situation was even worse. Long ago Beter's sources gave him hard evidence of many large gold shipments from Fort Knox which were not even listed. In Audio Letter No. 2 he revealed a specific example of this. It was a shipment on January 20, 1965, in which four (4) tractor-trailers loaded up at Fort Knox and then headed for railroad tracks across the river at Jeffersonville, Indiana. His sources provided him with details, including photographs, of the operation. But the shipment was one of many which did not show on any official Government list of shipments.

In June 1975, Mr. Edward Durell and his other associates were able to confront officials of the United States Mint with this example of missing shipments, and for once the confrontation took place under circumstances in which the Mint was under great pressure to respond. In the most specific terms the Bureau of the Mint was asked what was shipped out of Fort Knox in the four tractor-trailers on January 20, 1965. The written answer dated June 19, 1975 came from the then Director of the United States Mint, Mrs. Mary Brooks. She confirmed that this unlisted shipment amounted to more than one-and-three-quarter (1-3/4) million ounces of gold—and it was not junk gold melted down from old coins which were confiscated from Americans in 1934. The shipment was part of America's true monetary gold, good delivery gold which is .995 fine or better. After this admission in writing about an enormous secret shipment of gold out of Fort Knox, one would have thought that there would be fireworks, but not so!

This is the attitude Beter encountered when he began giving public warnings about deliberate plans for economic chaos. He was first alerted to the Fort Knox Gold Scandal by none other than British Intelligence in London after completing a secret mission for Queen Elizabeth in Zaire; and in his book The Conspiracy Against The Dollar, he outlined the overall plan, including the unseen role of America's gold. He had one major advantage which Ian Fleming did not have. The United States does not yet have an Official Secrets Act like that of Britain, and so he was not forced to fictionalize. Instead he was able to give the real plans and real names of those responsible for things to come.

The prototype for Ian Fleming's Goldfinger was none other than David Rockefeller, and in his book Beter showed in detail how Rockefeller played his kingpin role in the plan to destroy our economy. He described how this was leading to a collapsing dollar, skyrocketing gold prices, a stagnating economy, spiraling financial problems for State and local governments, urban unrest, and eventually a planned nuclear war. But when David Rockefeller himself was interviewed about Beter's book, even he resorted to the technique "Fictionalize to close eyes". His comment about The Conspiracy Against The Dollar was: "Interesting science fiction."

ROGER BABSON'S WARNING

In 1961 the so-called "London Gold Pool Agreement" was set up. It was an informal agreement that was never authorized by Congress; and under that agreement, our gold started flowing out of the United States in a hemorrhage that lasted nearly 7 years. One courageous Congressman, Frank Chelf of Kentucky, spoke repeatedly on the floor of Congress about what was happening to our gold.

The Fort Knox Gold Scandal was predictable long ago for those with eyes to see. The famous prophet of the 1929 Stock Market Crash, Roger Ward Babson, gave a clear warning of things to come while the Fort Knox Bullion Depository was still being built. There was an article about his warnings in the Literary Digest for August 29, 1936. The article described Babson's objections in the words, quote:

"By dumping most of America's gold hoard into a steel and concrete strong box in the mountain fortress at Fort Knox, Kentucky, Uncle Sam is putting too many of his eggs in one basket." Two very relevant questions posed by Babson were also mentioned: (1) Is not the United States as liable to have internal revolution as to be attacked by foreign nations? And (2) Are not gold and commodities much safer distributed among millions of people than stored in Russian fashion under the control of politicians?" The article quoted Babson as he thundered:

"To secure control of nearly one-half the world's total gold supply requires only securing control of the White House. The key to these great vaults is hanging on the wall of the President's private office."

Dr. John Coleman:

The Black Nobility Unmasked Worldwide

On the Front Page of the 9/2/97 issue of CONTACT, before anyone else dared to even suggest "murder" or "assassination", we used those words to describe what had just befallen Princess Diana a few days earlier. That Front Page headline screamed "Desperate Move By Monarchy's House Of Windsor to Preserve The 'Grand Plan'". And that "Grand Plan" goes back a long way.

Indeed, in the context of introducing our Front Page story for the 9/16/97 CONTACT, titled "More Clues About Murder Of Princess Diana; Dark Connections Go Back A Long Way", I reminded that ones not forget the central role of the "Black Nobility" in this unsavory event. Many had forgotten to whom I was referring.

I suggested that everybody go back and review Dr. John Coleman's revelations about this subject of the Dark Nobility brotherhood because of the House of Windsor's roots tracing back to the Venetian Black Guelphs branch of that nasty bunch of aristocratic crooks.

To help with understanding this critical piece in the larger puzzle, we are here reprinting a superb research monograph by Dr. Coleman, originally written in January of 1986 and reprinted in the October 1997 issue of his publication World In Review. (Maybe this fortuitous recent publishing event was due to our mid-September mention of the subject?)

In any event, pay close attention to just how extensive is this black web of intertwined families wielding tremendous power.

—Dr. Edwin M. Young, Editor-In-Chief

10/86 DR. JOHN COLEMAN

When I first introduced this term [Black Nobility] to the U.S. in 1969, few if any people knew what it meant. My experience with this group was first hand, on location, which gave me a real insight into who they were and what they stood for. Since then, others have been mentioning this group, but it is still a mystery to a great number of people. With this in mind I am elaborating on the subject for the benefit of those who are new to my work.

I remember when I first began to publish my work on the conspiracy, the Council on Foreign Relations and the Wall Street connection to the Bolshevik Revolution, what a time I had. No one would pay the slightest attention to what I had to say; in short, I was simply not believed. But times have changed. All of these secret societies, the Illuminati, the Bilderbergers, etc., have become fairly well exposed. Then I began to dig even deeper, and in a five-year period, beginning around 1970, I came up with some new information that had previously not been touched upon by anyone writing about the conspiracy. I discovered that there was a loosely-knit group of people with immense wealth, who would stop at nothing to gain their ends. They made the Mafia look like chicken feed by comparison. While researching old books in London on the subject of ancient noble families, I came across a phrase I had not seen before, "the Black Nobility". Now after some nine years of research, I know what that term really means. This message is about the Black Nobility and its immense power. During the course of this message I hope to show you how the Black Nobility is intertwined with the Illuminati, the Jesuits, the Freemasons and the Council on Foreign Relations, and what a devastatingly evil influence it has had, and still has, upon world events. I want to mention in passing that in many of the books I researched, most vital information appeared on page 666 of the books. Coincidence perhaps.

In my opinion, based upon intensive research, the most powerful of the Black Nobility families are located in Italy, Germany, Switzerland, Britain, Holland and Greece in that order, with Denmark forming an important linkage. There are other families, such as the notorious Braganzas, living in Brazil, who may one day return to Portugal. Therefore I will deal with the Braganzas as a separate entity from the powerful Black Nobility families of Europe. Please be aware that the foregoing is a broad and general classification. There are individual families in Britain for example, who are immensely rich and powerful, but for the sake of good order, I will endeavor to stick with my general classification, although, as you will observe, with the interlocking networks and intermarriage, that will not always be possible.

The Black Nobility is very much alive and kicking in January 1986, as I write this message. In many respects they are more powerful today than they were in the Middle Ages. Just as an example, take a look at the Grosvenor family in England. This Black Nobility family has existed for centuries on ground rent. Today the family owns at least 300 acres of land in the heart of London. The land is never sold, but leased on a 99-year leasehold agreement—the ground rent of the Middle Ages. Grosvenor Square, in which is located the American Embassy, belongs to the Grosvenor family, as does Eaton Square. In Eaton Square apartments are rented out at the going rate of twenty-five-thousand pounds a month, and that does not include maintenance costs. This will give you some idea of the immense wealth the Grosvenor family has from ground rents, and it will help you to understand why the Black Nobility wants to get rid of industrial progress along with the excess population it supports according to the Black Nobility and its puppet organizations, such as the Council on Foreign Relations, and the Royal Institute for International Affairs. The Black Nobility adds up to immense wealth, immense power, and an immense capacity for dirty tricks. Because of the notorious successes of the Italian Black Nobility in carrying out black tricks, such as murder, robbery, rape, etc., on a grand scale, it earned the name "Black Nobility".

The Black Nobility dates back to the early part of the 12th century, so it has been around for a long time, and is very well entrenched in power, influence and above all, it is immensely wealthy. Money is power, and if that be the case, then the Black Nobility is all powerful. One of the earliest and most important displays of its power came in the period 1122 to 1126, when John Comnenus, a ruler of high moral character, tried to unseat the Venetian oligarchists. The war with Venice stemmed from John's refusal to renew the privileged trading rights (monopolies) held by the Venetian oligarchical families, because of the shameless manner in which they had exploited and abused these privileges. The Venetian fleet attacked John's ships, and ravaged the Aegean, occupying Corfu and forcing John to renew their blatant privileges. Nothing has changed since the 12th century. Just try opposing the Grosvenors, the Braganzas or the Savoyes and see what becomes of you. No matter whether you are the head of state, or whatever your title and position may be, you are bound to come off second best. In 1155, trade privileges were granted to the Genoese Black Nobility which they still hold today. Anybody who attempted to cross the Venetians paid a heavy price for it, as the Byzantine emperor discovered to his cost when he tried to wrest trade from the Venetian oligarchists between 1170 and 1177. The emperor had to pay an enormous indemnity to the Venetian oligarchical families for his failure to break their grip on monopolies. The Mafia could learn a great deal from the early Venetian noble families, and probably did!

Venice is so important when it comes to the Black Nobility, that I must devote more time to it than any other oligarchical group. The first of three crusades established the power of the Venetian Black Nobility, from 1063 to 1123, and solidified the power of the wealthy ruling class. The Black Nobility aristocracy achieved complete control of Venice in 1771, when the appointment of the doge was transferred to what was known as the Great Council, which consisted of members of the commercial aristocracy, a complete triumph for them. Venice has remained in their hands ever since, but the power and influence of the Venetian Black Nobility extends far beyond its borders, and today in 1986, is felt in every corner of the globe. In 1204 the oligarchical family parcelled out feudal enclaves to their members, and from this epoch dates the great building of power and pressure until the government became a closed corporation of the leading Black Nobility families.

A few words about the Great Council, because it still operates in much the same way as it did back in 1171. The Great Council, then as now, is restricted in membership to those who belong to the oligarchical families. In 1297, it was restricted in membership to those who had been members within the preceding year. A so-called commission added other names, and then the Council was closed to new members, except by heredity. This effectively excluded the citizens of Venice from having any say in a government of the small group of hereditary commercial oligarchical families, i.e., the Black Nobility. The Black Nobility earned its title through dirty tricks, so when the population revolted against oligarchical monopoly in government as well as everything else, its leaders were quickly seized and brutally hanged. Tiepolos Rebellion, as it came to be known, was the only uprising in the history of Venice. Secret assassinations, bankrupting of citizens, kidnapping and rape of female members of families who had revolted against the oligarchists, was all part of the "black" bag of tricks used to stifle oppositions to its rule. Much of today's terrorist tactics spring from the manner in which these disgusting families conducted their affairs. They brooked no opposition to their rule, and from their families sprang most of the "royal" lineage of European oligarchical families as we shall see.

One such Venetian Black Nobility family is the Guelphs, from which the present Queen of England, Elizabeth II, comes. This ancient line includes names like Ethico, Henry, Rudolph, Cunigunda, Azoll, Queen Victoria, her house being the House of Este Guelph. The name Este comes from the Marquis of Este, of Venice, also known as the House of Albert Azoll. This line is connected to the Welfs, which is not a title but a name, and can be traced back to Cunigunda, Prince of Welf, one of whom was the celebrated King of Italy, Odaocer. Empress Judith, ancestress of the Prince Consort, is called Judith of Welf (Guelph). Judith, the Welf, means "Lady of Judah" of the Hebrew princely family. The Welfs migrated into Venice, and the Estes are an offshoot of this family. Other names in the Guelph dynasty include the Count of Lucca, and the Finaldo family.

The Guelphs are so intertwined with the German aristocracy through the House of Hanover, that it would take several messages such as this one to name them all. Suffice to say that the name Guelph carried considerable power, and the family took great care, using whatever methods, however unsavory, it deemed necessary, to keep its power and great influence. Of such stuff is the Venetian Black Nobility made. It is small wonder that Prince Charles and his wife visited Venice a short while ago. The circumstances surrounding the visit were kept under wraps, but it would appear that it was undertaken to renew the ties that bind the Venetian oligarchists and the British dynasty. (They went to visit the Frescobaldi.) These and thousand like them, scattered throughout Europe, the oligarchical elite, keep their secrets, so we shall never know what Charles and his dear wife were up to during their Venetian visit, other than to visit the Frescobaldi. The Hanoverian English King George I came from the duchy of Luneberg, a part of Germany, which had been governed by the Guelph family since the 12th century.

These "noble" families are behind most, if not all, of the wrongly named pro-environmentalist movements of the world, which are [to] curb population growth (of ALL nations). Prince Philip and Prince Charles are the most visible symbols of this movement; and both have often spoken with the utmost callousness about the need to rid the world of unwanted people. The Princes live off ground rents and therefore are a true part of the conspiracy to destroy industry and take the world back to the New Dark Ages. I may be bold to say that the noble families are up to their noble eyebrows in the drug trade, but not directly, mind you. They are always most careful to see that there are plenty of willing intermediaries to do the dirty work for them. Certain old aristocratic families in England, Canada and the USA are definitely controlling this massive trade, and that is why it cannot be wiped out. When President Nixon embarked upon a program that was guaranteed to stamp out drug trade, he found out who was boss. The Tavistock Institute set up an elaborate plan to get rid of Nixon, and humiliate him as no world leader has ever been humiliated. At the same time, the Tavistock Institute designed its Watergate plot in such away that, for awhile, Americans lost faith in their cherished institutions and the foundation of this nation was shaken as never before. This is the power of the Black Nobility. Never underestimate it.

Cooperating with the European noble families are American families like the Harrimans, the McGeorge Bundys and dozens of others we have come to be known as the Eastern Liberal Establishment. The Club of Rome was formed to brainwash Americans and it played a key role in the downing of Nixon, by mass brainwashing of the American public, carried out through the pages of the despicable Washington Post and the New York Times. The royalty of Europe very much favors the Club of Rome, and was secretly delighted in the part it played in humiliating Richard Nixon and the American people. Of course their delight had to be concealed, but one monarch, Queen Juliana of the Netherlands, ordered an exhibition of the ideas of the Club of Rome to be put up in Rotterdam. The royal houses of Europe have never forgiven the Americans for defeating them in 1776. While it was primarily the British that lost the war, so intertwined are these Black Nobility oligarchists, that in reality, the American Republic represented a threat to them all, and still is a threat to their Dark Ages feudal ideas.

Among these noble families are to be found leading Freemasons, practitioners of witchcraft, black magic, occultism and a historical connection, of course, with the Jesuits. The history of the magician Cagliostro shows just how strong this was. Cardinal deRoban, a Jesuit prince of the Bourbon family, spent his time drinking and hunting women. He fell in love with Marie Antoinette, but she despised him. The noble de Roban approached Cagliostro for help in seducing Marie Antoinette. Cagliostro was a Mason, and he used Masonic rituals in some of his spells and incantations. Other nobles who sought out Cagliostro for his magical secrets were Baroness D'Oberkirch, the Marquise de LaSalle, Prince de Soubise and dozens of others from the Black Nobility. We must remember that while professing Christianity, the oligarchical families, or at least the greater part of them, actually despise it in secret. That is why so many of them are Masons.

As I said in one of my messages, Masonry gave them a sense of purpose. Among the ordinary people, the feeling of helplessness is not always overcome by Christianity. It is not that Christianity is a fault; it is because we are under a barbarous Babylonian system wrongly called Capitalism. In many cases, the Christian faith can only promise better days to come in the world hereafter, and the less strong among us are unable to grasp the message of Christ that his kingdom is not this world. The feelings of helplessness in the face of earthly adversity is perhaps best expressed by the Danish philosopher, Kierkegaard, who wrote: "Where am I? Who am I? How did I come to be here? What is this thing called the world? And if I am compelled to take part in it, where is the director? I want to see the director." There is in so many of us a sense of being cast up, high and dry and helpless. The oligarchical Black Nobility live for this world only—not for them the deprivations and its expected rewards in the life to come. They do not believe in a life to come, and they demand and take their cake now and eat it now. That is what made the Italian Black Nobility so utterly ruthless in its climb to power; it cared naught for Christian beliefs! These Black Nobility and royal families are influenced greatly by the Book of Creation, the Zohar, written by a Spaniard, Moses de Leon. Occultism, witchcraft and black magic. Masonry—that is their true religion—not Christianity at all. Their symbol is the snake. In some cases, the story slips out. A popular soap opera running on American television is All My Children. One section of it dealt with "the Cobra" and referred extensively to a drug smuggling organization calling itself by that name. It is not strange to relate that among themselves, the royal and noble families are known as "the crowned Cobras of Europe". It is no secret either, as I said earlier, that so many of these oligarchs are in the drug trade through well-distanced intermediaries. All evidence of the roles played by the Black Nobility in arming, financing, and encouraging synthetic revolutions, the Liberation Theology movement and other elements that go to make up the world revolutionary movement, is very well hidden. Once in awhile, a Black Nobility name floats to the scum on the surface of the troubled waters, like that of Hugo Spadafora, who announced in the New York Times in December of 1980 that he was forming an international brigade to fight anywhere in Central America "where the armed struggle is the only avenue left for the people". Spadafora comes from a long line of the Italian Black Nobility, and he says that there has got to be "authentic unity" of all revolutionaries, Marxist, Catholic (Liberation Theology), Social Democrats and what he calls "progressive Christian Democrats". All this is very good for the arms trade, from which the Black Nobility derives an enormous income, while at the same time helping to wipe out the useless eaters they want to rid the world of.

But mostly the Black Nobility stays out of sight. When I read in 1980 what Spadafora said, I was amazed at his boldness in coming out into the open. Frankly I expected his fellow Black Nobility to get rid of him as a threat to their well-oiled, luxurious existence; but it did not happen. Not all Black Nobility are royal houses, but just for the record, nearby is a list of the royal families of Europe.

I have purposely excluded the Romanovs, because of the murder of the entire family of the Tsar. A number of the above-mentioned royal families no longer have thrones to sit on, but that does not mean that they have no power. On the contrary, many of them are more powerful than they were while actually ruling their respective countries. In some cases, they themselves miscalculated, and were deposed. A case in point is that of King Constantine of Greece, who is very closely related to British and Danish royalty. King Peter promoted the Greek "colonels" coup in 1967, but after quarreling with his protégés, they kicked him out in 1973. Crown Prince Alexander of Yugoslavia was deposed by Fitzroy MacLean so that he could be used by British intelligence during the Second World War. His brother, Prince Andrej, runs the Order of St. John, a Black Nobility order, which operates in various parts of the world, including the USA, as an agent for British intelligence and a cover for drug-smuggling operations, notably the dope-for-diamonds part of the trade.

Most, if not all, of the crowned and uncrowned beads of these dynasties enjoy huge incomes from ground rents. All favor the Global 2000 Report, Project 80s, and ending industrial progress. All are opposed to nuclear power. The reason is obvious enough; they want the world to return to what it was when they were its absolute rulers, that is, they ardently desire a return to a Feudal system. The Swiss banks owe their existence to these families and, of course, to the fortunes made by the non-royal members of the Black Nobility, especially in the last twelve years, when dollars from the drug trade have swamped Swiss banks. Another important point: Swiss banks are Masonic-controlled, and are NOT as secret as we have been led to believe, but more about that in my upcoming message on that subject.

The so-called northern tier of the oligarchy consisting of Britain, Belgium, Scandinavia, Germany and the Netherlands is "royal" but the "southern tier" is not. Nevertheless the southern tier has as much money, power and influence as its northern cousins, even though many of its royal households no longer exist, that is to say, they do not exist officially in countries like Italy for example. Switzerland is their haven, something they have in common. Switzerland's perpetual neutrality was guaranteed by the influence of the Jesuits who established a seminary at Lucerne. In 1815 the Jesuits and their Freemason allies among the crowned heads of Europe, held the Congress of Vienna on March 20th and March 29th, 1815, two Acts were passed which forever guaranteed Swiss neutrality. This was done so that no matter how many times they quarrelled with each other, no matter how many times they provoked wars in which the common man had to do the fighting, by the 1815 special agreement, their money in Switzerland would always be safe from plunder. That is why Switzerland has always been able to remain outside of wars going on all around her. Not because any of the warring nations were afraid of the Swiss military, but because the crowned heads of Europe and the uncrowned Black Nobility entered into an agreement in 1815, that no nation should interfere with Switzerland. The 1815 agreement is the reason why Switzerland exists today. It protects the ill-gotten gains of Europe's royalty as well as the wealth of the non-royal members of the Black Nobility.

At the time of the Italian financial crisis a few years ago, the Italian government clamped down on currency leaving the country. Every car leaving Italy for Switzerland was carefully searched. Airports were checked; in short, the Italian government thought it had stopped the speculation killing the lira. But not so. The Black Nobility ignored the Customs and police, safe under royal patronage, they took lira out of Italy by the truckload! Laws are not made for the Black Nobility! Only the common people have to obey the laws of the country and that goes for well ordered, lawful Switzerland as well. If it were not so, how was it possible that Gelli "escaped" from a prison that was like a fortress. Why did the Justice Minister resign in unseemingly haste when a bomb went off outside his house? The Justice Minister had made the mistake off failing to obey Masonic orders and he was brought to heel. If you think your money is safe in Switzerland, think again, unless you are a Mason, a member of the Black Nobility or one of the "royal" families. Or if your name is Pallavicini or Colonnas or Agnelli, then lineage from the Geulphs to the forces that stopped Charlemagne and Frederick II.

You would soon be discovered if you used any of these names, as the Venetian Black Nobility has its own super secret intelligence service, and I am not talking about Heydrich's hangover, alias Interpol, which is the private preserve of Mr. David Rockefeller. I am talking about a killer network of intelligence agents paid by the Thurn and Taxis families. I have it on good authority that Prince Louis Ferdinand Hohenzollern is being used by the Soviets to sell the idea of a neutral Germany, on the promise that if he can deliver, then the Soviets will reunite Germany and see to it that all "royal houses" are restored to their rightful place. This is part of the decoupling of Europe from America plan, and at least this section of the Black Nobility is working alongside the Soviets, using vassals like Kissinger to do the actual work.

The Black Nobility is ever busy on the financial front. As I said, billions of dollars flow into their safe haven, Switzerland, something like $280 billion per annum in flight capital and drug money. Now the British are perfecting the Euromarket system, a Black Nobility fraud scheme of immense proportions, which when fully operational, will give the Black Nobility virtual control of most nations. The Masonic P2 Lodge and the Jesuits play a great role in this dirty operation. The 1974 oil-shortage hoax netted the Black Nobility hundreds of millions of dollars, which was further bloated by the so-called Eurodollar scam, another of their dirty tricks. Against such forces, conventional governments are powerless. The Black Nobility has the power to make or break ANY government as they showed America by getting rid of Nixon.

The British Geulphs rule by dominating the raw materials markets, and for years have "fixed" (a very good description) the price of gold, a commodity they do not produce or own. The House of Windsor (Geulph Black Nobility) also controls the price of copper, zinc, lead, and tin. It is no accident that the principle commodity exchanges are located in London. The House of Windsor can make or break the price of any commodity, or control it at a desired level. South Africa is just making this discovery. The price of gold remains at an artificially low level, and will stay there until the South African economy is ruined or the South Africans give up control of their country to some communist barbarian, as happened in Rhodesia. (Mrs. Thatcher's "democracy" in the heart of Africa.)

These operations are carried out by Black Nobility-run companies like Lonrho and Oppenheimer, Philbro, British Petroleum and several smaller companies. These companies have bought into the United States in a way that should alarm every patriotic American. We must not allow ourselves to forget that it was the Black Nobility House of Windsor (Geulph) that ordered Henry Kissinger to activate the 1974 oil hoax, which victimized the American consumer in a most cruel fashion. It is because of things like these that our world is in such a financial mess. It is because of these gigantic frauds that struggling people have lost faith in Christianity, and blame capitalism for their misery, when it is not capitalism or Christianity that are to blame, but the selfish piggishness, the unbelievable arrogance of the Black Nobility and the royal families that are responsible for this sad state of affairs.

Almost all the leading financial and raw material institutions are in the hands of the Black Nobility oligarchists. These elite few exercise power beyond the control of normal governments, and are a law unto themselves. It is they who are responsible for the shortages, the inflationary cycles, the high prices, the poverty, and suffering so many are forced to endure. They have destroyed the God-given dignity of man, they have taken away the right of human beings to be treated as human beings, thereby destroying the plan of God that says we are all individuals with a right to individual human dignity. But one cannot be dignified in the face of hopeless economic circumstances.

Don't blame it on Christianity and capitalism. Blame it on the Black Nobility and the crowned heads of Europe and the Eastern Liberal Establishment in the USA, you steelworkers, you auto industry and housing industry workers in America who do not have a job. To the unemployed in England, I say, look to your House of Windsor and to the Josephs and their vassal, Mrs. Thatcher, to find the source of your misery. Do not blame it on Christianity or Capitalism. While millions are out of work, the Black Nobility Duke of Grosvenor had the audacity to say that he does not ask people to rent his apartments at 25,000 pounds per month—they seek him out, he proudly says. This man has never done any real productive work in his life. He lives off an immense income from ground rents of his real estate holdings in the heart of London. He is part of the Black Nobility bent on making a wasteland of British industry, already almost totally destroyed.

One of the most blatant examples of oligarchical power is Monaco, where the royal house of Grimaldi, which traces its ancestry back to the Grimaldis of Genoa, hold sway. It is a private paradise for the oligarchists of Europe. Its base was established at the turn of the century by the Societe Bains de Mer, a company that controls everything that moves in the principality. Edward Blanc, a relative of Prince Rainier, was the founder of the company, and he married into the oligarchical Rainiers, who, in turn, are run by the Thurn and Taxis Black Nobility. Prince Rainier suffered a sharp reminder that he is only nominally in charge when his wife was killed in an "accident". Prominent Black Nobility personalities who are involved in the business end of Monte Carlo are Prince Trubetzkoy and the Portanovas from the Venetian oligarchy.

But we should not think that it is only in the field of money that the Black Nobility operates. The Braganza family, which has its roots in the Venetian Black Nobility, was deeply involved in the attempt to destabilize Poland, as were the Jesuits through Cardinal Hoffner and Monsignor Utz. The object with Poland was to destroy a nation state, just as the Braganzas are now destroying the nation states of South and Central America. The Hapsburgs want a united Poland, Austria and Hungary, and the Soviets have promised it to them, if they will help in decoupling Europe from America.

The von Thurn and Taxis families were also deeply implicated in the "solidarist" plot to overthrow the Polish government and bring in a Moscow puppet regime. Other Black Nobility families involved in Poland were the Hohenzollerns, the Hapsburgs, the Wittelsbachs and the Wittgenstein families. All these families have histories that take them back to their roots in the Venetian and Genoese Black Nobility families. The role played by the Jesuits in the solidarity affair in Poland is perhaps not so clear, but the Jesuits did play a leading role in keeping personal contact with the KGB until General Jaruzelski smashed their contact man, Kania.

There are so many Black Nobility names that I can mention, but space does not permit it. I do want to include in this list of haughty aristocrats the name of the largest landowner in Germany, Prince Weldburg Zeil, whose family tree also has its beginnings among the Venetian Black Nobility. This agent of the One World Government CFR-Trilateral group has publicly backed the Global 2000 Report, and is one of the leading opponents of revitalizing German industry, which like British industry, is already partially destroyed and beyond recall. Again, it is ground rent that gives him his enormous fortune, and as I said, this is the life style the Black Nobility want to see restored, so, away with industry and away with excess population! Going to the other extreme, Alfred Hitchcock was another operative widely used by the Black Nobility. Hitchcock worked for British intelligence, and significantly, was trained at a Jesuit school. Hitchcock was used by the British to mass-brainwash audiences through the medium of the film industry. His movies are supposed to generate a sense of fear. Of himself, Hitchcock said: "I feel it is tremendously satisfying to use the cinematic art to achieve something of a mass emotion. I was put into a Jesuit school in London. It was probably during this period with the Jesuits that a strong sense of fear developed." Spellbound was the first Hitchcock movie to use a satanistic theme, which is, of course, much loved by the Masons and therefore the Black Nobility and the oligarchists, as a means of causing us to fear their power.

So from Hitchcock to Cardinal Beneli of Florence who worked for the Colonna and Pallavicini Venetian Black Nobility families, the Black Nobility demonstrates its ability to make use of all types to do its work. What does the Black Nobility hope to achieve?

The answer is very simple. It wants to return the world to the New Dark Ages, where the elite few families will rule the world. What they consider excess population will be killed off by famine, epidemics of disease, and wars. Those that escape the holocaust will survive under a feudal system. Industry, which is the chief villain, at least according to the Black Nobility, must be shut down completely. This will help to curb population growth. The world will be a smaller and better place to live in, they say. While that may be true for this elite power group, the rest of us are going to have a pretty thin time of it, if the plans of the Black Nobility ever succeed. Given the fact that the Black Nobility and the royal houses of Europe have cut a deal with the Soviet Union, and the Geulphs of Britain are keeping their options open through backdoor negotiations with Moscow via Mrs. Thatcher, the plans of the Black Nobility, which at first sight appear to be farfetched, are beginning to take on the look of a grim reality. Only by exposing the machinations of this dirty group can we hope to stop them in their tracks. Educating patriotic Americans is the only way we can do this, and by that I mean, educating our people to the reality of the Black Nobility and its worldwide plan to destroy the USA as we know it today. It is only the USA and Christianity that stand in the way of success for them, that is why both must be destroyed!

* Berryville: FEMA facility located east of Eureka on hwy 62. Mark Korneke claims that it is located near [chicken-man] Tyson's property.

* Omaha: FEMA facility located on Hwy 65 south of old wood-processing plant. It is on an old dirt road that leads to a toxic-waste dump. Note: The facility in MS. is also located on an old toxic-waste dump.

Colorado:

* Trinidad: WWII German/Italian POW camp

now being renovated.

* Prowers County, Granada: Renovated WWII Japanese-American special internment detention facility.

California:

* Oakdale, CA: 90 miles East of San Francisco on HWY 120. Holds a minimum of 15,000 people, REX 84 program, Emergency Custodial Facility.

* Vandenberg AFB: Located midway between San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara. The base is on HWY 1 and close to HWY 101. REX 84 program, Emergency Custodial Facility.

* Ft. Irwin: Irwin is a remote mountain region south of Death Valley National Monument. This base is designated as inactive; however, there is a concentration camp located at this facility about 30 miles from Interstate 15 in Barstow.

* Inyo County, Manzanar: Renovated WWII Japanese-American special internment detention center.

* Modoc County, Tule Lake: Renovated WWII Japanese-American special internment detention facility.

* Sacramento Army Depot: No specific data at this time.

Florida:

* Avon Park: No data available

* Camp Krome: Located near Miami Dept. of Justice detention and interrogation facility.

* Eglin AFB: This base is greater than 50 miles long extending from Pensacola Bay to HWY 331 in De Funiak Springs. It is adjacent to Interstate 10 on the north and the Fort Walton Beach vacation spot. REX 84 program, Emergency Custodial Facility.

Georgia:

* Ft. Benning: Located East of Columbia near the Georgia/Alabama state line. REX 84 program, Emergency Custodial Facility. Prisoners from all over the U.S. may be brought in via Lawson Army airfield.

* Unadilla, Ga., Macon County: Located on East Railroad Street. Plunket road leads into the facility 1-1/2 miles from Unadilla on county road 230. This is a FEMA prison, manned and staffed, but no prisoners.

* Oglethorpe, Ga., Macon County: Facility is located five miles from Montezuma, three miles from Oglethorpe. Traveling south on highway 49, located on the west side of the highway. This FEMA prison has no staff and no prisoners.

* Morgan, Ga., Calhoun County: I-75 exit 32 to 300 south to Albany. Take highway 234 to Morgan. Go through Morgan taking highway 45 south. The FEMA facility is 1-1/2 miles on the right (west) side of highway 45. This FEMA facility is fully manned and staffed but no prisoners.

* Camilla, Ga., Mitchell County: from Camilla take highway 19 south, travel 5.4 miles from 37/19 junction to Mount Zion Road, turn left (east) on Mount Zion Road. The FEMA facility is located on Mount Zion Road, approx. 5.7 miles south of Camilla. This facility is not manned or staffed and there are no prisoners.

* Hawkinsville, Ga., Pulaski County: Located on fire road 100/Upper River Road, 2 miles west from alternate 129 north 257/112 east. Five miles east of Hawkinsville. This FEMA facility is fully manned and staffed but no prisoners.

* Abbeyville, Ga., Wilcox County: South side of Abbeyville on highway 129 (Broad Street) off highway 280 (Main Street). This FEMA facility is fully manned and staffed but no prisoners.

* McRae, Ga., Telfair County: 1.5 miles west of McRae on highway 134 (8th street). The FEMA facility is on Irwinton Ave. off 8th street. This facility is fully manned and staffed but no prisoners.

Frequencies: 153.7400 Georgia State Correctional Institutions; 154.9050 Intrastate Coordinating (car-to-car/state wide); 154.9350 Intrastate Coordinating (base-to-base/state wide); 155.3700 Georgia Police Intersystem (state wide)

Idaho:

* Jerome County, Minipoka: Renovated WWII Japanese-American special internment detention facility.

* Kooski PLUS 50 miles East... Near Lolo Pass Moose Creek. Unmanned and there is a nearby landing strip in or near a national forest.

Illinois:

* Marseilles: It is located on the Illinois River off Interstate 80 on HWY 6. It is a relatively small facility with a capacity of 1400 prisoners. Though it is small it is designed like other concentration camp facilities with high fences topped with barbed wire and guard towers. Being located on the Illinois River it is possible that prisoners will be brought in by water, air and ground. Note: This facility is relatively close to Chicago, Illinois.

Indiana:

* Thousands of acres located just out of Indianapolis, Indiana, holds a large concentration camp facility complete with barracks, high fence, razor wire, towers, turnstiles, a railroad, helicopter landing pads, and what appears to be three large furnaces with 3-inch mains on one of the buildings.

This is a massive facility, still under construction with a completion date sometime in 1996.

* Ft. Benjamin Harrison: A U.S. Army facility located on the outskirts of Indianapolis will be used to hold prisoners of the NWO.

* Ft. Wayne: FEMA detention facility

* Terre Haute: FEMA detention facility

Kansas:

* Leavenworth: U.S. Marshal's Fed Holding Facility PFP.

* Concordia: WWII German/Italian POW camp being renovated.

* El Dorado: Federal prison to be converted to U.N. forced labor facility.

* Topeka: 80 acres converted to a holding camp for anti-New World Order prisoners.

Kentucky:

* Louisville: FEMA detention facility

* Lexington: FEMA detention facility

Louisiana:

* Livingston: WWII German/Italian POW camp being renovated.

Maine:

* Houlton: WWII German/Italian POW camp being renovated.

Missouri:

* Richards, Gebaur AFB: This facility is located in Grandview. A large civilian internment facility has been built on this facility, and base personnel are restricted from the area.

Michigan:

* Bay City: Sits on Saginaw Bay which connects to Lake Huron. Prisoners may be brought in by ship from either the United States or Canada. This facility has high fencing, barbed wire and guard towers.

* Grayling Camp, Grayling, Michigan: National Guard Base. Detention facility. Guard towers, razor wire. See the photographs at <<http://www.flash.net/~msmith01>>

* Southwest area of the state: FEMA detention facility

* Central part of the state: FEMA detention facility

* Detroit: FEMA detention facility

Mississippi:

* Hancock County: The NASA facility at this location has two camps, the first being located at the end of Kiln road at Waveland, and then the next road after ammo road at the Post Office. The second camp is located in the center of a rest station back from the Interstate. Inmates from the Hancock County Jail claim they have worked details involving the delivery of food to these camps under the supervision of U.N. guards. One individual claims that one of these camps is full of Europeans: men, women and children all within the same compound. He said that the U.N. guards stationed there were severely beating the prisoners who appeared to be involved in forced labor.

Though it is impossible to verify this information at this time I did hear a recorded interview with this inmate, and he sounded very sincere.

Nebraska:

* Scottsbluff: WWII German/Italian POW camp being renovated.

* Northwest corner of state: FEMA detention facility

* Northeast corner of state: FEMA detention facility

* South Central Hastings area: FEMA detention facility

Nevada:

* Elco: There is a prison facility 10 miles out of Elco.

* Wells Camp is located in the O'Neil Basin area, 40 miles North of Wells, and west off HWY 93, 25 miles.

* Winnemucca Camp is located at the I-80 mile-marker 112, on the south side of the road and 3/4 miles off of the road.

* Wells/Winnemucca Camp is located near the base line of the mountains.

* Reno, Nevada: PLUS 150 miles east, south side of road if you're headed west, 150 yards off the road.

New York:

* Ft. Drum located in upstate New York, probable location for Eastern area processing of people, located near the St. Lawrence River and access to Lake Ontario. Both waterways may be used for transport. Located very close to Canada.

* Watertown: FEMA detention facility

* Albany FEMA: detention facility

* Buffalo: FEMA detention facility

Ohio:

* Cleveland: FEMA detention facility

* Columbus: FEMA detention facility

* Cincinnati: FEMA detention facility

* Lima: FEMA detention facility

Oklahoma:

* Oklahoma City: Tinker AFB—this is a civilian detention facility, all base personnel are prohibited from going near the area, and the area is under constant guard.

* McAlester: WWII German/Italian POW camp being renovated.

* Will Rogers Air Port: This is a newly constructed FEMA facility, and it is believed that it will be used as a primary processing center for prisoners West of the Mississippi River.

Pennsylvania:

* Indiantown Gap Military Reservation: Located North of Harrisburg, Pa. Used for WWII POW camp and renovated by Pres. Jimmy Carter. Was used to hold Cubans during Mariel boat lift.

* Camp Hill: Camp Hill, Pa., located off I-15, sits across the navigable Susquehanna River from Harrisburg. Close to Cumberland Army Depot and the Camp Hill Correctional Facility.

* Crossville: WWII German/Italian POW Camp being renovated.

Texas:

* Ft. Hood: Ft. Hood has a newly-built concentration camp, constructed complete with towers, high fencing, and barbed wire.

* Mexia: WWII German/Italian POW camp

being renovated.

* Amarillo: FEMA detention facility

Utah:

* Millard County—Central Utah: Renovated WWII Japanese-American special internment detention facility.

* Skull Valley Camp: Williams property—west of the old bombing range south/southwestern portion of Camp Williams. This camp was discovered by a man and his son who were rabbit hunting; they were discovered and apprehended.

* Utah Lake: 15 miles south of Saratoga Recreation Center, 200-300 yards off the road, black wire 40-to-50 feet tall, made to look something like a golf driving range.

* Cedar City: East of Cedar City, Utah—no more data.

Washington:

* Okanogan County: Borders Canada and is a site for a massive concentration camp capable of holding hundreds of thousands of people who will be used for slave labor. This is probably one of the locations that will be used to hold hardcore patriots who will be held captive for the rest of their lives.

Wisconsin:

* Ft. McCoy: Located in western Wisconsin 30 miles East of LaCrosse between the point [sic] where 90 and 94 intersect. REX 84 program, Emergency Custodial Facility.

* Central part of the state: FEMA detention facility.

Wyoming:

* Park County-Hart Mountain: Renovated WWII Japanese-American special internment detention facilities.

* North Central part of the state: FEMA detention facility

* Southeast part of the state: FEMA detention facility

* Southwest part of the state: FEMA detention facility

* East Yellowstone: Manned facility—investigators were apprehended by European soldiers, unable to identify the language used by the foreign soldiers; American government helped clear the situation.

I haven't verified any of this, but thought it should be brought to your attention even so.

Very interesting how many of these places are staffed and prepared but no prisoners. They must be expecting to use them soon! ☹

New Year's Note From Doris Ekker

1/1/98 DORIS EKKER

Please, let me take a few minutes to thank you wonderful friends who have remembered us with everything from lung herbs to chocolate-nut fudge. Guess which I liked best?! I was, however, asked to pass around the fudge and did so in order to live with my conscience.

Believe me when I say the paper crew needed the love and nurturing far more than I during this past week.

I lose track of time so I think it to have been last Friday that Jack T. found water running out of the meeting room door. That only classifies the room in case you have been here. It is where the paper gets done, the paper gets STORED in a thousand boxes from floor to half way to the ceiling—and other events take place. Water was also running down the back storage area where so much stuff is stored that the heart skips a beat as to what kind of damage confronted us.

We have to realize that the temperature got pretty cold a couple of days last week, BUT since it was 55 degrees at nine o'clock last night and even the trailer lines have not frozen, there is a bit of nasty possibilities afoot. We will, for the record HERE, assume the pipes froze and burst. However, Charles says he believed the pipes were "broken" in more than one place and that smacks of other than the "natural hand of God". Oh well.

The bottom boxes were, of course, destroyed, carpets either wasted or we have to see how they fare after drying. The whole thing has required so much work and now half the people here are sick with colds and flu from being in frigid water, mopping. Our hearts go out to flood victims even more generously than before.

A lot of damage was done because the complex is an L-shaped mini-mall, but it appears the damage was confined mainly to the mid-section, which we pray will only damage papers, books, products, and hopefully not have permanently damaged electronics, etc. It appears no other businesses were damaged, which is a relief IF the wet wires haven't shorted out electric circuits.

Our team is so thoughtful of our own problems with court battles weekly that "somehow" E.J. and I were informed only after the fact. However, we note that the dampness and chill will probably keep us from any meetings for a couple of weeks and, therefore, I am taking this opportunity to write instead—just in case.

People sometimes do terrible things when they think they won't be caught because of good cover-up sheltering and, yes, it would be easy for those who have been with us to meetings, worked in the building, or any other set of circumstances to get something like this done. Usually it is a "burning" that happens to the Word of God or in Patriot Games, but we wait and we WILL FIND OUT—WE ALWAYS DO, AND IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE THROUGH ANYTHING MYSTICAL OR INVISIBLE.

We have had some friends write and ask if Dharma is able to do any writing at all. Oh yes, the facts are that I have done MORE writing than even early-on. It, however, must be from the instructions to the immediate involved financial people, to whatever can go into the paper and/or Journals. We have global involvement these days and the privacy factor is great indeed. We have some extremely good receivers filling in Kortan, Soltec, THE Masters of the Seven Rays, and short messages from Cmdr. Hatonn. Esu Sananda (The Master Teacher recognized most often in current days as "Jesus") is writing daily and sometimes many times daily as we get closer to happenings days. This, of course, is with Thomas and we are caused to realize, or at the least be reminded, that things are coming to a heavy broil and HE, after all, (Esu, not Thomas) is the Captain of that intermediary ship of God's State. We witness things happening in and of the sky and it is quite unnerving, even if you know what is going on. But it is getting more and more widespread as to witnesses so we attend our business, mostly, and therefore miss most of the action. However, from time to time we are in the right place at the right time and can't seem to miss the events.

We were driving back from Reno, Nevada (a 9-hour drive) from court night before last and we watched as a blue-ish, green-ish ball of energy was literally loosed from somewhere up there to a very fast and hard down-thrust to Earth. It seems that there were many of these witnessed and during the two hours following the events there was a breakdown of the 911 Emergency services—during the most incredibly busy time of Los Angeles. The outage was widespread in Southern California and we don't know how much farther it encompassed. We were at the area of China Lake Naval Weapons Center on a major freeway between L.A. and Mammoth Lakes, Tahoe and, of course, Reno, Nevada.

Something else that was so disquieting that I could not imagine people pouring into some of the areas like Mammoth and outside Reno where there were literally massive vents belching volcanic steam from cracks right through the ground. We have been there many times—but this time the steam was pouring forth and you could, in a closed car, smell the fumes so badly as to want to cover your face. "Oh well," came the skiers' response to, "Aren't you nervous"? Or you get something like, "We don't care, we got the kids snowmobiles and we are going to die having fun if that's what it means." And nice deal to go with it—probably a breakdown in the Emergency Services systems and there will be NOBODY to even hear the cries for help.

Last week came through a MAJOR statement by one of the CBS network's local daughter stations. The word from San Francisco geologists was that there was a probable quake to hit on the Hayward Fault (Oakland) cutting under both San Francisco and the Bay area. Massive rocks had been shoved up through the fault intersections and an early WARNING went out that a 7-point, or larger, quake was expected ANY MOMENT. This was repeated ONCE and Dr. Young, who monitors the quake maps like superglue—could actually find no mention of it even the following day. What goes on? EVERYTHING. It is, after all, Bowl Time and Parade Time and "WE DO NOTHING TO PANIC THE PUBLIC TOURISTS", came down the word. Fine, just dump millions of people in the rubble but don't panic the people? Happy New Year!

JOY IN FEDERAL COURT!

There is so much going on in the courts that drag us in and out until we can't seem to keep even the court of the day in mind. However it is hard to forget a major hearing set for December 30! This is a tactic of attorneys and our first hearing of any kind was Dec. 28, 1988, starting ten years of Hell. [9 of which are behind us—don't ask me how she knows there are 10—EJ]. But, BOY, have we learned a lot not taught in schools.

We had about decided not to attend this particular hearing since it was so "cut and dried" in our favor—but that alone gave cause to go into shock, so the better part of wisdom—even if inconvenient and miserable—was BE THERE. It was worth it.

George Green's attorney Horton came with his objections but didn't bother to bring Green since he "had it sewed up" to simply bury the case and get a major continuance. He went blank when he saw E.J. and me sitting across from him. It got worse—FOR HIM. He said he had filed an "opposition" paper but somehow it "must have gotten lost around the court during the holidays". The Judge checked and no, none had been filed and even the one loaned to him at the bench by Horton HAD NOT BEEN STAMPED "FILED". In other words, this dirty bounder was lying one lie after another and this time the judge nailed him. The judge went back through the cases and found that "on the eve of trial" Green and Horton had filed their first bankruptcy and now, they had "done it again". The judge was not amused!

Since the trustee was not present, the long and short of the outcome, since we had come such a long way, was to remove the stay of process SO WE CAN GET THE CASE BACK INTO STATE COURT AND GREEN AND HORTON, ALONG WITH ABBOTT (WHO HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THE CASE EXCEPT BUTT-IN) ARE IN HOT WATER. We expect other games but it appears the games are getting rougher and harder ON THEM EACH TIME THEY DO SOMETHING LIKE THIS.

[From EJ: To clarify, Horton had served his opposition on Elley but didn't send it to the Court, relying on the good nature of the Court to give him a continuance to send in another copy, easily wasting another 30 days. Two things tripped him up: We were there, and Elley said, "Your Honor, my clients drove all the way up here from Southern California. If you give Mr. Horton a continuance I believe it appropriate that he pay 'sanctions' to my client since it will necessitate another trip." In summary His Honor said, "It appears this bankruptcy was not filed in good faith and therefore I am going to grant your request for release from the 'stay'. Also I note that Mr. Horton's opposition was not filed timely which is further reason not to delay your action in State court."

Will "justice" prevail? Well, it would be more like: "Can justice be rebirthed, even handicapped?" Let us not expect too much from those Nevada court judges who have totally compromised themselves for the past 5-6 YEARS. Now their corruption and lies have slopped over to the Texas system [which doesn't seem to need much help].

Abbott and Horton have been caught with the lies in their mouths—THIS WEEK. The court has been notified as of a filing yesterday in good old Judge Gamble's court in Minden, Nevada. We know because we filed the papers for Mr. Elley as we went through town.

Now we ask you: Who could possibly be having more fun? God said have JOY and seek not revenge—but he did NOT say we couldn't enjoy a bit of return for lies rendered in the reaping as the sowing was cast forth.

David Overton, of the infamous gold stash, was already heartbroken over the pressures applied to further steal his property. Let us always remember Dave as offering us the best in education possible and who allowed us to learn in a way unsurpassed as God always teaches BEST through example. Through that connection, and me being an old Texas girl, we have made such contacts as Cal Burgin. He was the very one working with Dave at the very time of Dave's death. Cal had set up appointments with a Notary and was a special and good friend of Dave's—Dave having bought the gold in the first place from Cal and the gold dealer, Larry Spence. Want an interesting bit of information out of all this? Abbott and Horton are the ones trying even harder than George Green to get their dirty thieving hands on those coins. Is this despicable or what?

We are being provided A WAY to eventually get our projects done and long ago we stopped thinking the "gold" would help us according to Dave's wishes. So, we trust and work and the trees are about ready for harvesting the first perfect fruit.

YOU, OUT THERE, HAVE PROVIDED THE WAY TO GET TO HERE FOR WE SEE NO OTHER WAY IT COULD HAVE BEEN ACCOMPLISHED. Mark GilBoyne (Gil Boyne), the noted Master Teacher of Hypnotherapy, said, as he physically took on a nasty and adverse heckler in a class graduation, that sometimes you have to meet the adversary and Evil "head on". Now readers, Gil has to be in his seventies and this nerd was probably 40-something. Gil THREW this man bodily out of the room. This was over a decade ago and only NOW do I realize what happened in that room—THAT DAY! It took three men to just separate Gil from this blowhard.

Pogo once said in the funny-paper that "I have met the enemy and it is me." Well, we have now met our own enemy—AND IT IS NOT OURSELVES, so the choices become less and less difficult to discern and judge.

I just wanted to briefly catch up with a few items that many of you ask about as in "where are we?" I expect we will be getting more information on that topic as these change-over days continue so I, like you, will have to wait. I know a lot of things are "working", and probably better without us, so we can only reach out and thank you for all you have done to share with us and we hope you had a wonderful time through the holidays and have renewed hope as we step into this New Year.

With great love and appreciation, Doris. ✨

Political Chess Moves As The New Year Begins

1/1/98 HATONN

THE INCREDIBLE BEAUTY OF A NEW YEAR

Please do not miss the major positive information coming from your "days of counting" and the seemingly passing of cyclic dates and days. We may well not have interest in such days and hours passing and only attend sequential events which impact our purpose—but remember!—on Earth and within the human experience of physical planning and expectation—EVERYTHING is based on that old clock and calendar. We can thereby watch and monitor progress or seeming set-backs and move right on with realization of how it REALLY is going beyond the propaganda-scattering of controllers upon a world in confusion.

CHICKENS IN HONG KONG

Needless killing of ANY of God's creations is a cause for sadness and the slaughter of the Hong Kong Chicken (and all market fowl) is abhorrent to our senses. Then we watch with both amusement and amazement at the fact that the "church" religious leaders did in fact have a special prayer meeting for the "souls" of these murdered animals. Did I find it amusing? NO! I did not, for there is a consciousness within all living things, and to wipe out millions of any living creature is without conscience. The action was a political move, and flu viruses didn't have anything to do with it, but now think of what will happen to the massive market for food supplies! Hardship comes most treacherously from the "pecking order" of political manipulations.

Two things stand out above the obvious, and one is that a cooked chicken IS SAFE without ability to pass on the virus. Could not the dead chickens have been processed into food, at the least for needy and hungry masses? This has been a typical show-and-tell of the media, politicians, and World Health Organization. What is going to be the NEXT thrust? Well, if according to prior habits, there will be a vaccination program wherein every person in Hong Kong and, eventually, in the world, will be inoculated—WITH THE SHORT-LIVED VIRUS WHICH WILL THEN MUTATE AND INDIVIDUALIZE AND YOU WILL HAVE SOMETHING AKIN TO ANTHRAX. HAPPY NEW YEAR.

What was appalling is the fact that a spiritual practice and tradition was not only scorned, but became the ridicule rally-point of the media. The Natives of every nation, in their appreciation for the fruits of a world for their use, ALWAYS gave, and give, appreciation to the animal of lesser stature than man, for sustenance. What are you going to do, citizens, as most little city children only recognize Kentucky Fried Chicken pieces and have no idea of living entities which give eggs and healthy meat. This does not even take into consideration the feathers which pad your pillows and your beds in some places that you might lay your head upon softness instead of the stone from the pathway.

ALIEN ENCOUNTER

I spoke a while back on the book entitled ALIEN ENCOUNTER which was being featured on the Trinity Broadcasting Station (recognized somehow as the Christian network). I had no information, but in the wee hours of one morning Rick happened to see a rerun of the program and jotted down the contact number for your use. No, we don't have the volume but I can say that Rick was stunned as well as were others watching the misinformation play right into the hands of those who would have you "good Christians" throw away your lives, both here and "there". If you want the volume, then you will have to get information from (714) 731-1000.

I find it interesting that Rick used, as a notepad, a copy of The Final Call from our friends, Farrakhan, et al. And, on the front cover is reference to inside material wherein the headline reads "CBC [see below] seeks Ron Brown death inquiry".

For you of short memories, which is all of us, we have to remind you that Ron Brown was a Presidential (U.S.) Cabinet member and was killed, supposedly when the plane within which he and other passengers were riding collided with a mountain. There were DAYS of mourning and homage-paying to this man who all along the way was MURDERED. Now facts have it that this man actually died of a gunshot to the head. This passed through, and out of, the news lately and now an investigation is demanded. Why? The body is gone; the lies are told, and what else is new?

By the way, the CBC is Congressional Black Caucus. The Blacks are finally beginning to stop overlooking everything. But, they are not the ones breaking the news of this story. The facts are that in December there were major media reports which raised questions about the death of the Commerce Secretary (Ron Brown). The reports surfaced first in the Pittsburgh Tribune Review, based on statements from TWO Air Force MEDICAL EXAMINERS about a bullet wound in Mr. Brown's head.

The location of the "possible" bullet wound was located in such strategic placement (execution style) that it is highly doubtful if Ron Brown was doing his usual jogging and speech-making WITH THE THING IN HIM.

Ah but—the pictures proving the bullet hole and lead fragments have "mysteriously disappeared". Oh, by the way number two: Photographs showed the black-box recorder being found and removed from the scene. The public was told that there was no black box and nothing was recovered.

I am presenting this brief notation because you people who read CONTACT have the best information resource ON THE GLOBE! Because it is the best resource, we will not ruin that ongoing resource by telling too much, but you can go back some year or so and you will find that even our beloved friend Cal Burgin wrote a major paper on this happening, as did such as Gary Wean and MYSELF.

The published information showed that each story, of which there were many, changed with every telling and presentation. When proof came there was not bad weather—change the tale and thus and so. The people involved, such as the Medical Examiners, WERE PLACED UNDER GAG ORDER FOR A MINIMUM OF A YEAR-AND-A-HALF AND THAT BEING UNDER THREAT OF TREASON AND IMPRISONMENT. Would you have released such information? Be sure about that because would you really? This is a hard world, readers, and one in which death is as easily contracted as a bad case of headache.

THINGS TO NOTICE IN THE MIDDLE EAST

LOUIS FARRAKHAN'S TREK TO THE HOLY LANDS

Why dwell on Louis Farrakhan any further? Well, why dwell on Clinton, Arafat, Saddam Hussein, Billy Graham, Hal Lindsey or any other "important" person? For THAT very reason: "He is important!"

Mr. Farrakhan made a trip to help, if he could do so, bring some negotiations and assistance to the plight at stalemate between Israel and the Palestinians. BUT, AS USUAL, THE ISRAELIS REJECTED ALL PROPOSALS AND DENOUNCED, ALSO AS USUAL, FARRAKHAN AND ARAFAT.

But you Christians don't abide the Muslims? What do YOU know about the Muslims? What of Islam? What of the TRUTH of your own so-called RELIGION? Note: I did not say, "Spiritual Path of Truth"—I said: RELIGION!

The Master Teacher, at his own condemnation day a very long time ago, warned the Jews (Pharisees, as they were called in that day) that a Man would come along and he would also be misunderstood and his messages twisted, but that he would bring unending and eternal trials and sorrow unto the people who would do this dastardly deed. IT IS SO! It was said then and I will refresh your memory: "His name will be Prophet Muhammad (by any spelling you wish)." This Prophet said in his many teachings that "...one is not a Muslim, one is not a righteous person, until one loves for his brother, what he loves for himself..."

I am not writing here to give you your religious or non-religious lessons—YOU KNOW THE RULES. However, it is important to realize how "Holy" wars come into being and this is how—one dirty move following another pushed off on the masses while property and rights AS HUMANS are taken away. Therefore the "people" do whatever is allowed within the religious guidelines as by other human manipulators and "prophets" to distract and move you into physical violence. It is coming, beloved friends; my goodness—is it ever coming, and it will be a confrontation beyond all prior times.

I want to point out that you are in the midst of the HOLY DAYS of Mecca, recognized as Ramadan. As these visits as above are joined within major leadership "summits", you will likely find a lot of decisions coming out of the meetings during this time of unification of the people in that area of the Middle East as confrontation of circumstances are met and plans laid forth. May GOD have mercy for when the major entities clash it shall be hard—and many, many will die.

Could so-called "freedom" and progress be attained through non-war? Yes, but it is not according to the religious teachings that such should come totally to pass.

Will this suck in the Blacks around the globe? Yes, and that will, even if not in the line of fire, take in the Nation of Islam. It is a hard time for MAN for he has been told and taught WRONG concepts. However, it IS the way of mankind and so shall it be whatever mankind decides to choose as to direction for his journey.

Did Farrakhan, as touted, go right into Iraq? Of course—WOULDN'T YOU AS A PEACEFUL LEADER GO INTO IRAQ? Oh, FEAR keeps you from going and doing that which is RIGHT? Then don't complain about anyone else until you have DONE WHAT IS THE RIGHT THING TO DO!

Farrakhan is simply on a world friendship tour to 50 nations. It is not a political or military journey and is it not worthy to go on friendship tours and go beyond the hype and lies of media disinformation?

I want to share with you some of the speech given by this honorable man in Baghdad, Iraq, and see what YOU find wrong with it.

You will note the approach of lifting the U.S. (stop lying to self and calling it U.N.) sanctions which are murdering in massacre numbers, the innocent VICTIMS of your dire and hideous death-dealing politics of this New World Order of the Elite and GODLESS (except Satanic Luciferian) ORDER.

This is shared with us by THE FINAL CALL, December 23, 1997. The speech was offered on December 10, also 1997.

[QUOTING:]

BLOOD OF THE INNOCENT

FARRAKHAN CALLS FOR LIFTING OF IRAQI SANCTIONS.

by Louis Farrakhan

In the Name of Allah [H: Sorry folks, also recognized as "Aton", "ATON", THE One Light, and GOD—WOW!], the Beneficent, the Merciful.

AMERICA IS LEADING THE WORLD today in a campaign against terrorism. Terrorism is described as acts of violence that take the lives of innocent men, women and children for political purposes. Those who engage in acts of terrorism do so because they see no redress for their grievances in the halls of justice that have been set up to give justice to those who are aggrieved.

All acts of violence for political purposes against the innocent must cease. If the Muslim world unites, then our voice will be heard and there will be no need for any Muslim individual or group to engage in such activity. If we become the voice of all who are deprived of justice, they will have no need to engage in the killing of innocent people to achieve political ends. Our unity on the basis of the Holy Qur'an is the end of all acts of terror.

In this regard, sanctions are a weapon of mass destruction and should be viewed by the nations as the greatest form of terrorism, for sanctions kill the innocent people to achieve a political end. Since the conclusion of the Gulf War, 1.4 million lives have been lost in Iraq. If you take the total of lives lost as a percentage against the total Iraqi population and compare that loss, percentagewise, to the population of America, if similar sanctions were imposed on America, her losses would total 18 million people. How can we remain silent in the face of this slaughter? What nation has suffered more than 10 times as many losses after the war was over than during the war?

Would any Muslim like to be charged by God with being an accomplice to murder because we remain silent in the face of this slaughter? Allah says in the Qur'an: "Persecution is worse than slaughter." Therefore, all civilized nations must reject terrorism in all its forms as evil, and the Muslim nations must forbid what is evil and guide to what is best! Therefore, we are asking the representatives of the Organization of Islamic Conference (OIC) to call on the United Nations Secretary General Kofi Annan to urge the lifting of UN sanctions on Iraq, Libya, and the Sudan, and to call on Britain and the United States to lift sanctions against Iran, Nigeria, Cuba, and North Korea.

The OIC must demand of the Secretary General of the United Nations that the two Libyan nationals charged with the bombings of Pan Am Flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland, be tried in a neutral country, that their guilt or innocence may be ascertained. The families of the victims deserve closure to this, and certainly the Libyan people should not suffer if there has been no proof in a court of law that her citizens are guilty of such an act. Sanctions should be lifted from Libya because innocent people should not suffer these acts of terror for political purposes.

The UN must not be the instrument of the foreign policy objectives of the only remaining superpower. If the UN fails to respond to the OIC, then the Muslim world must act and defy these sanctions. Some may say: "But the West will use its power against us." But, there is a verse in the Bible that says: "Let the Kings of the East dry up the River Euphrates." The Kings of the East cannot dry up the water in the River Euphrates, but there is a river that the West depends on, which the Kings of the East CAN dry up. [H: Oh precious readers, the "Kings" can dry up the river waters because all it requires is the turning of closure valves at the now famous dam ON THE EUPHRATES. The Kings would have to get their henchmen within the country to accomplish this feat, but indeed it can AND WILL be done. Don't you EVER underestimate the power coming now from the FAR EAST! I do, however, concur that there is a more immediately important "river" that can be dried and it would toss such a cog in the spokes of the Western wheels as to rattle your brains.]

I call on the world, from this Cradle of Civilization, to cry out against this reign of terror. Member nations of the OIC should contribute to build a center in Mecca that features an Institute For the Resolution of Conflict among Muslim states and organizations that never again should Muslims shed the blood of Muslims.

As America and the West are entering the Christmas season, where the celebration of Jesus Christ as the Prince of Peace is heralded, the theme at Christmas is "Peace on Earth, goodwill toward men." As we, the Muslims, are entering the Holy Month of Ramadan, where we sacrifice things that are natural—food, water and sex during the daylight hours—to attain closeness to God, what better season to appeal to the nations for peace?

The American people stood against the killing of children in Vietnam by United States forces. [H: Well, sort of.] Some even sang in the streets of America: "Hey, Hey, LBJ, LBJ, how many Vietnamese children have you killed today?" President Clinton, in your youth you had the moral courage to oppose the war in Vietnam. Would you want history to write of you as the killer of babies through sanctions? Where is your courage today? [H: Was THAT courage back then or purely cowardice?]

I believe it is time for the American administration to sit down with President Saddam Hussein to begin a dialogue. Knowing that each party has terms for peace, sit down and reason together and determine what is just. If we follow the course of justice, peace will surely follow.

The 21st century can be a century of peace, if we move back the clouds of war. President Clinton said he wanted to build a bridge to the 21st century. Will it be a bridge over a river of blood, revolution and war; or can we build a bridge over these troubled waters toward peace?

If you, Mr. Clinton, cannot hear my appeal because I am a Muslim, a descendant of slaves, and Black, will you listen to His Holiness the Pope, who has called for a political solution to the problems of Iraq and has called for an end to sanctions? I hope that as His Holiness goes to Cuba, that the bridge of reconciliation that he builds will affect your policy toward that nation.

In closing, let me say to the Muslims from the Qur'an: "And hold fast by the covenant of Allah, all together, and be not disunited. And remember Allah's favor to you when you were enemies, then He united your hearts, so, by His favor you became brethren. And you were on the brink of a pit of fire, and He saved you from it. Thus, Allah makes clear to you His Messages that you may be guided."

TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, I know that some of my country will say: "Farrakhan is a traitor, and we should try him for treason for giving aid and comfort to our enemies." However, if Mother Teresa or Lady Diana came to Baghdad and went to the Saddam Hussein Hospital for Children, and cradled a baby dying for the lack of medicine due to sanctions, you would call her a Saint. But because I am a descendant of slaves, because I am a Muslim, and because I appear to be defiant, some will say that I should be dealt with harshly.

I am not defiant. I am obedient to God's command. I feel the pain and the suffering of my Muslim brothers and sisters, wherever they suffer on this Earth, and I feel the pain of human beings wherever they suffer. As a servant of God and an emissary of peace, should I not feel the pain of those who suffer and visit them and offer them comfort?

Sometimes the most patriotic citizens are those who love their country enough to stand against the will of their leaders, if they believe the will of their leaders is wrong. A Canadian woman stood up against the destruction and maiming of innocent life by land mines. [H: And of course, Diana died because of her pleas for stopping the insanity.] A few days ago, 125 nations signed a treaty against the use of such weapons. [H: But the United States of America DID NOT SIGN THE TREATY.] As a citizen of the United States I have a duty to America, but my FIRST DUTY is to GOD. I have a duty to all humanity, whether they are Muslims or not. As it is written in the Qur'an as a command for me and for all Muslims: "Keep your duty to Allah as it ought to be kept, and die not unless you are a Muslim." [H: And wow, we were doing so well until we put on the restrictions of one sect against another!]

* * *

The new century can be a century of peace. May Allah (God) grant the President of the United States the desire to please God. May Allah grant the people of Iraq and all those who suffer under sanctions to remain steadfast in faith, and remember that after difficulty comes ease. May Allah grant us the ability to remove the scales from the eyes of the spiritual leaders of the world, that we will give direction to the Caesars of the world, that we may render unto Caesar what is Caesar's, and render under God what is God's. [H: We lose him here also for EVERYTHING is GOD CREATOR'S.]

As I return to the United States in the future, will you receive me as one who has grown up in your midst by the Power of God to bring peace to your land and to the world? Will you see me as a great emissary of peace, born from you, and blessing to you from God? Or will you receive me as a villain, and enemy? Will you receive me as some wicked person and deal with me thusly? The choice is yours.

Whatever is your decision, I will come home to face it; but I say, with all humility, God and the nations are watching how you act.

[END OF QUOTING]

I want all of you to realize that every important or great man has to walk the gauntlet of these hazings and castigations. So, as a MAN grows into manhood, what has he with which to base his life directions as he seeks God and Truth? He has whatever he has—and nothing more. Are YOU willing to place your righteousness on the line and stand forth to possibly be hanged or shot for treason? NO, YOU ARE NOT OR YOU WOULD HAVE NEVER ALLOWED THESE ATROCITIES TO HAVE OCCURRED IN THE FIRST PLACE.

I would remind all of you, for about this time you begin to question me and our team's commitment to WHATEVER. Stop it. We bring Truth and we acknowledge errors and we do not go to war against anything for our purpose and our mission is to BUILD AND CREATE UNDER GOD A BETTER WAY. DESTRUCTION THROUGH WAR OR CONFLAGRATION IS OF EVIL AND NOT OF GOD. ALLAH. ATON OR ANY OTHER BEING OF LIGHT AND TRUTH. Therefore, we proceed with the gifts from and of God that we can find that perfect passage within HIS pathway and allow HIS other creatures, great and small, choices of their own acceptance. And, YES, we CAN find that inroad to positive experience and expression—obviously while the adversaries make war and bring conflict and pain one upon the other.

I do NOT have any dragons for the slaying, for the dragon, at best, is only a man-conjured symbol of danger and evil while long forgotten as a wondrous creature of the living world of physical manifestation. No, I do not kill dragons, nor chickens, nor do I kill people, animals or any other of God's magnificent gifts to the physical experience. Sorry about this new look at Saint George and his sword-wielding dragon-persecutor. And, do you really think killing a lizard would make one a "Saint"? Perhaps going into persecution territories and bringing love and peace might qualify for a dignified recognition but certainly not slaying lizards. It is the CONCEPT which is at point and not the bloodletting. The evil of any species or race, creed or color shall kill itself, for nothing evil can prevail, ultimately, in the perfection of CREATOR'S PLACES.

How many of you are actually aware that Princess Diana was in the process of becoming Moslem? So, wasn't that a "dainty dish to set before the King/Queen". Are you beginning, readers, to realize the ENEMY? Oh indeed, the enemy is not only among you—HE IS CONTROLLING EVERY LAST DETAIL OF YOUR LIVING EXPRESSION.

I would like, please, for you to ponder upon these things and come to KNOW what is taking place, for ignorance is the thief of freedom.

I realize it is also difficult for you to realize the different designations of, say, Islam and Muslim and other similarly-sounding definitions of some of these RELIGIONS. Let me be specific as to, say, Nation of Islam as is encompassing of such as Farrakhan. You will have to do some research for I am not going to do your homework FOR you.

Just as the current-day self-proclaimed Khazarian Empire Pharisees and now-called Jews have now declared the United States of America to be the new Israeli homeland, so too does the Nation of Islam claim the United States of America. Now isn't that a stand-off?

The triangle area which forms the Base of the Lost-Found Nation of Islam in North America, is Milwaukee, Detroit and Chicago. These are all cities which are now accepted under Islamic leadership as "the" diagram of the focus of this "nation".

Do I agree? NO! The entirety of the lands of America are the heritage, now stolen, from the aboriginal people of GOD. No matter who you might claim to be or what property which might be CLAIMED erroneously "purchased" has no meaning in REALITY. You can fight over, thief over, kill and maim over—whatever you choose, but it does not make it SO.

Is God reclaiming HIS lands in this "second coming" by whatever your chosen label might read? NO, HE IS COME THAT HE CAN GATHER HIS PEOPLE AND CLEANSE THE EARTH OF THE RUBBISH YOU HAVE THRUST UPON THE PERFECTION OF HIS CREATION.

And, furthermore, the Hosts of HIS Truth shall be the ones coming among you as Captains of HIS ships—whatever you wish to call them, as well. But never mind the angels, ships, and other perceptions of the old yin-yang theory of confusion. All you need is TRUTH and within that truth shall you accomplish FREEDOM. Do we know the WAY? Yes indeed.

Good morning, Salu, and Happy New Year for it should be a real zinger. ☸

WOW...Thank You All And Happy New Year, Too!

DR. EDWIN M. YOUNG
Editor-In-Chief

It is not very often that I'm at a loss for words. However, to the amusement of my co-workers, I have frequently been speechless over the past few weeks as your miraculous notes and cards have flooded the CONTACT offices in response to my request for financial help (on page 14 of the 12/9/97 issue).

Your generosity has been overwhelming—so much so that we have far exceeded the several-thousand-dollar amount for which I described an immediate need. And that's good, because there's always the unexpected.

Like the flood late Christmas night in the room that serves as local storage for the newspapers and Phoenix Journals, as well as doubling as a large meeting room. Due to the recent cold weather, a pipe burst in the ceiling, which then rained down upon the papers, and didn't reveal itself until a lake of water was spotted, the next afternoon, pouring out of the entryway doors to the room.

This is life. But aren't we fortunate to have the compensation from so many of you who were moved to help us. As a result of the funds you sent, we are making much-needed improvements to the newspaper storage arrangement, in the process of cleaning up the mess.

Maybe the single most important gift you gave us—while you thought you were “just helping out a bit” financially—is the vote of confidence in what we are trying to do. Speaking on behalf of the entire staff, we have all been greatly buoyed-up emotionally by the kindness and warmth and encouragement of the notes that have been accompanying even the most “anonymous” of contributions.

Maybe the funniest note so far came from A.S. in Boulder, CO. He wrote:

“Dear Dr. Young,

“Every time I receive a new CONTACT my thanks go out to God for leading me to it. Every week I look forward to the next issue.

“To me it is the most important information available as to what is going on.

“So, please accept the enclosed and use it for any needs you may have. What the hell, it will all go down the drain soon anyway.

“Thank you for publishing such an excellent paper.”

Or, as Ms. V.H. wrote from Auburn, WA: “Keep CONTACT coming. Keep (red) hair intact. Hope lots of folks respond.”

Well, they have responded—and still are responding—with some of the contributions up in the $2000, $1000, and $500 categories. Can you believe that?!

This level of help allows us to continue to address the needs of, for instance, those in prisons who regularly write to us pleading for “any old copies” of CONTACT which they, in turn, share with possibly 30 or 40 others who have plenty of desire (and time) on their hands to learn more about the rotten system within which they have become ensnared.

How do you measure CONTACT's distribution or effect as a teaching tool under such dispersive conditions? You can't count those 30 or 40 prisoners as being on the mailing list. And yet who knows what difference, what contribution they may eventually make—like when a security company hires a reformed burglar as an expert consultant.

So many of you expressed your sentiments to me, in one or another kind of wording, as did Ms. E.P. in Red Bluff, CA, who sent quite a sizeable contribution along with these warm and gracious words:

“Thank you for the opportunity to give. I love Truth!”

Listen to that. She thanks US for allowing her to help the cause. Or as Mrs. G.B. in Emporia, KS, put the same sentiment:

“I'm so glad you made your requests known. It is my pleasure to help out what little I can.”

Well, there's no such thing as “little” help and, indeed, Truth IS the goal for all of us.

But—getting Truth out the door each week has often been a chess game of wits with the adversarial forces, who try mightily to stop CONTACT through whatever means possible. At least now we have a bit of a buffer to better handle the exploding water pipes, the computer hemorrhages, the surprise publication costs, and other adversarial distractions which are just a “normal” part of doing a most unusual business.

And while we're on the subject of giving and our appreciation for same, we here at CONTACT do not for one moment wish to overlook those of you who, because of the tight economy and maybe a very restricted retirement income, could not make a financial contribution at this time. Your warm and sincere notes of encouragement during this Holiday Season decorate and enliven the walls of the CONTACT offices, radiating the TRUE spirit of this season of hope.

Those prayer-energies and good-intention-energies sent our way are just as important a contribution avenue. Everyone has something different and unique to “bring to the party” and we would like to be quick to acknowledge that not everyone is in a position to contribute to CONTACT financially, though we know you most certainly would help out if you could.

I had originally entertained the thought of personally responding to all of you who responded to my 12/9/97 plea for help. But when what I thought would be a trickle rose to the wonderful level of a deluge, it became obvious that such was not going to be possible. Thus the necessity for this public reply route.

So, on behalf of the CONTACT team, let me take this opportunity to thank all of you who heard “the call” and responded in one way or another. Since energy must always flow in its utilization from the limitless abundance of Creator Source, we look forward, with some measure of excitement, to how such gracious giving MUST likewise flow back, greatly multiplied, to each of you as we enter the new year. ✨

Remember The IMF Owns US!

from a "Superfund". However, the specific Bonus Contract in point is a more interesting endeavor than most "secret" funds because it is legitimate and the structuring party, registering party, controlling party, was none other than Russell Hermann-Herman who was Bush's PARTNER.

My point is not to speak of contracts, Herman, or Bush, so let us consider what I might have in mind when I choose to speak of current events and such funding resources. We don't have any way, nor do we intend to make any effort, to shut down these Elite Wheeler-Dealers (with your lives and freedom) for if you want these things changed into some truth and honesty—YOU HAVE TO DO IT.

Since the United States of America declared bankruptcy in the early 1930s and the Federal Reserve was formed in the early part of this century now drawing to a close—there had to be money poured in to use as power and control.

Within the past five years the U.S. Congress had to AGAIN ANNOUNCE BANKRUPTCY. What does this mean? Well, it means the United States as an original nation under the original Constitution no longer would function as a free nation. People would be taxed, loans made from the NEW ORDER of the Federal Reserve, International Monetary Fund, World Bank, etc., using THEIR RULES AND REGULATIONS. It is a very simplistic plan—they get everything, including YOU. YOU, the PERSONS within the U.S., are NOT FREE. If you have even one piece of anything for which you are taxed—be it sales tax, property, auto, or whatever and/or it can be seized at the whim of the police for suspected unlawful activities, you are a bondage slave, no more and certainly no less.

Ah, but Grandma V.K. Durham, who claims to be the widow of Russell Herman, or at the least, his PARTNER and co-owner of the said "Bonus Contract, OWNS THE VALUE IN THAT CONTRACT? Has not V.K. written volumes on this topic and tried to buy or threaten her way through Congress and the U.S. Big Boys? Yes, she has, and it has brought her zilch other than a lot of animosity and a refusal of anyone hearing from or of her to announce that "if that woman is in any deal, we will not even talk about it". And they finished one very high-level discussion by stating flatly that they would consider working with someone with a level head and reasonable approaches to such a massive fund THROUGH the side of Russell Herman. Great, you couldn't ask for a better and more reasonable approach. This would allow the Fed, the IMF and the Banksters some modicum of reasonable allowance to continue to use what they are ALREADY utilizing. The last part of that statement above would curdle the heart however: "...we'll just let 'er die." The obvious point would, of course, be the contract as held by this person—not the person herself—but KNOWING how "they" function, it would include letting V.K. just "fade away" by never giving her the time of day or funds for even her most basic care as a U.S. citizen.

But how do we know that there is still a big Superfund? That part is easy because other investigators who do not even acknowledge any such certificates, contracts, or other values around—know of and speak about "Secret Funds", "Superfunds" and "Confidential Funds", "Black Ops" and thus and so. Remember something, readers: you do not need become your enemy to get truth and confirmation from their activities or attitudes.

Can I give you an example to clarify this position? I think so and one that will make "current" sense in the telling. Let us just consider the "Asian Crisis" where the big boy corporations and industrialists are buying up businesses by the dozens as they fold in every Asian location in the news. The IMF is in there thrusting off money as loans to these nations who THEY KNOW WILL SIMPLY MOVE INTO DEFAULT AND LOSE THE ENTIRE NATION IN RECEIVERSHIP. Oh, you nice taxpayers won't realize the switcheroo, but it will, nonetheless, come to be as the New World Order sweeps the available world if the available world allows same. Moreover, the WAGS AND WIGS in Washington want YOU to finance the Asian bailout so those fat cat speculators and banks, as usual, won't feel any pinch or slowup in gaining everything there is to vacuum into their little nest-pots.

Do YOU know about Alan Greenspan's (that guru of the Federal Reserve) "Superfund"? No? Oh my, we do get behind with our homework, don't we? No, it is not a secret, really, just not known. Moreover, for every dollar publicly recognized, there are about 10 available. Those numbers get very big and they get very big very quickly. You have trouble believing that which we put forth for your attention so I always try, when possible, to offer something from somewhere that can allow you to accept some of the material, and then you can begin to do a bit of personal listening, watching and research and piece the rest together nicely.

Let's try on for size a reference to Greenspan's closet funds as were quite openly discussed by Warren Hough on the front page of The Spotlight on December 22, 1997. This goes with other recognized manipulations for the acquisition by the wealthy Banksters of all property possible in these Asian nations. The funds, however, are not restricted in use and never seem to run out, and we find a bottomless pit of assets. Of course, for one thing, the Fed can simply affix a value to a "note" and print as many as are necessary for their needs at any one moment. However, there always needs be a BACKUP collateral upon which to BASE SUCH PRINTINGS—real or imagined, so you play judge.

[QUOTING:]

THE GLOBAL PLANTATION IS
TAPPING U.S. COFFERS TO BAIL OUT
WALL STREET—AGAIN

[H: Please note the change from Asian focus to WALL STREET. One would think this to be a different topic but don't fool selves—it is the SAME THING. Remember that all the tentacles of a Giant Squid make up the whole of the squid, and the "whole" finds it functions quite well interchangeably and can grow back its tentacles with each damage perpetrated on any one of the limbs.]

According to the official figures, American taxpayers contribute some $39 BILLION to the International Monetary Fund's (IMF) total capitalization of about $200 billion.

"But the IMF is masterful at obfuscating and doctoring such data," says Dr. Reinhardt Bodenhausen, an economic expert on global financial institutions.

"For one thing, here in the U.S. [Federal Reserve Chairman Alan] Greenspan has a confidential fund of $40 BILLION at his unrestricted disposal," the economist said. "He uses it to 'jump-start' IMF bailouts whenever the interests of his allies, the Goldman, Sachs investment bank, or one of the currency funds RUN BY speculator George Soros require it."

The secretive slush fund managed by the Fed, known to initiates as the Exchange Stabilization Fund, is "one of the largest unregulated cash stashes in the world", says business writer Roberta Dunkin, who covers international finance.

For another, the Clinton administration occasionally requests "supplementary quota extensions"—that is, additional funding—for the IMF. This year, after endorsing a $2 billion extra subsidy for the IMF, Congress balked at approving a second handout of $3.5 billion. [H: Please note, in addition, that if "laws" get in the way you will find, I REMIND YOU, that the Attorney General AND the Secretary of Treasury (among others), are full-time PAID EMPLOYEES (paid DIRECTLY) by the International Monetary Fund—so where oh where has the money gone?]

The IMF is the lead bank in a bailout consortium that includes the World Bank ($16 billion) and the United States individually ($8 billion), according to James Glassman, a fellow at the American Enterprise Institute.

"But by hook or crook, Greenspan and [Treasury Secretary Robert] Rubin will see to it that the IMF doesn't run short," says Miss Dunkin. "With Asian economies on the rocks, they have some big bailouts to finance next year." [H: Are you beginning to get the real picture? There is no shortage of "funds" so come into the picture the "Superfunds".]

According to the IMF's accounts, it has undertaken to grant Thailand a $17.5 billion bailout, Indonesia has signed up for a $41 billion

IMF refinancing and South Korea has agreed to a harsh IMF restructuring of its economy in exchange for what has been reported as a $57 billion rescue package. That's $115.5 BILLION and counting. [H: Note "billions" are spoken of as you used to speak of amounts in dollars.]

"These numbers, however, merely represent what we call the 'official story'," says Bodenhagen. "No one really knows how much these salvage operations will really cost, although American taxpayers can already prepare for what will be at least a $40 billion bloodletting over the coming year."

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, readers, what with the jobs decreasing and inability to continue welfare as established, Social Security as established, and NAFTA taking jobs totally out of the country, while aliens from the north and south pour into the U.S.—what could possibly be taking place? Come on, people, get those yellow ribbons and hate stripes painted over—for Saddam, et al.—and get with the program.

"But we hear that the Bonus Contract was black-balled." Oh? How could that be? The Treasury Department checks regularly and, no, it isn't. My dears, IF there was such foolish action as to "black-ball" (destroy, bury) that contract—it would blow the whole operation for the Superfunds themselves. Just because we have some possibilities here, there is no reason for the Goose to lose his own golden eggs but, rather, try to gather them into his coffers for his own singular use as the hassle and harassment overtake any lawful use of said documents.

Unfortunately, most of the unlawful "users" of said documents are as criminal in intent as are the Big Boys. But, they don't have the clout to do more than simply rake off a bundle of Fed Reserve notes, retire the original false documents, and go away.

The only participants who can make a big difference have no intention of actually offending anyone or anything. Any projects in which we might find involvement would only increase the visible assumption of making the very boys in play look good. There need to be some projects, even if they fail, to back any visible input of funds or assistance in any measure. Therefore, any funds we might glean would be immediately and, hopefully, backed by collateral in hard substance. The Big Boys don't need to worry much about such little annoyances because they have cornered the gold, etc., markets and product. We are demanding our help be based on loans against gold holding BECAUSE it is the only way to do business in this world of valueless foundations.

The unfortunate realization will come about one day soon when it is realized by the "Order" that TAKING away and taking away and destroying the very builders—will take away everything, finally, that is worthy of material note. God creates and gives and gives and gives some more and the abundance finally becomes without measure. Moreover, everyone practicing such good business ventures will reap greatly from any participation. Furthermore, good business shelters will strictly be accorded use. The Adversary always affords himself loop-holes and unsuspecting laws for protection of himself and his goods. So, if there be laws pertaining to business, we work totally, but creatively, within ALL of those laws. We do not break, nor do we ever intend to break, or even bend, any laws of the land OR OF GOD.

Will all the people who come within our circles be so careful and informed? No, but they WILL learn that it pays them not to act otherwise than as we agree to act within all those endless regulations laid forth by the crooks and criminals to protect themselves.

But, can we accomplish anything in this manner? Of course, we can accomplish everything in this manner which also creates a better citizen, community, county, state, nation, or global environment. The Big Boys will finally get so involved with their intrigues and Godless focus as to eventually wipe one another from the face of the Earth. This will not happen, however, until concerted efforts are undertaken to wipe everything goodly and suspect of Christ-ness away first.

You foolish people who believe that somehow a returned MAN is going to somehow rapture you to the heavens and place you to the right hand of God—are going to find it very DIFFERENT on that day in history.

WHAT OF CITIZENSHIP?

I note a lot of recent babble about citizenship, how to gain citizenship and a wish to get more and more control over and of the Native Americans.

Native Americans are not only citizens of their own Sovereign Tribal nations, but also are citizens of the United States of America.

I see several things happening: There is a push to increase police paid for by the Federal U.S. Government on Indian Reservations under the guise of "increased and abundant crime now out of control".

I foresee a day when, if the Native Americans do not protect their sovereignty (already almost gone), there will be no Native cultures—anywhere—save in the primitive aboriginal outbacks.

I do, however, see that as those wishing to become citizens and workers within America and, more specifically the U.S., that there will be citizenship offerings through the Sovereign Nations to provide shelter for incoming "aliens".

This would be ever so much the more useful than to have the often described method of gaining citizenship through arranged marriages which only further destroy family circles already in bad shape.

What would be required? Very little other than a registration department within every Native Sovereign Nation. From South of the Border you would find those natives most suitable to lineage to offer citizenship to those wishing to, say, be allowed to work or live within the U.S. national boundaries.

My greater problem with these circumstances is that if everyone from what might appear a less desirable placement, comes to this, or any other, nation—both become losers in the transition. The person making the change often forgets to go back to and bring forth a better nation of his own. Further, acceptance of lesser goodly ways of growth and citizenship become the accepted normal behavior and "the lie" becomes even more widespread. Do it RIGHT. Become a citizen of a Sovereign Nation and you can then become a citizen within the population surrounding you—or at the least, have papers which protect you from deportation.

You must be careful to not kill the golden goose with those nice golden eggs through abuse and misuse of any system. If YOU make a change, must you see to it that you overflow the very nation offering you better opportunities with every other alien you can gather? It is already destroying the assistance programs, and when that system fails, so too will the opportunities for jobs and placements.

Moving across even the most unrestricted (NOW) borders will become totally unavailable in the near future. You can TALK a big game, but the ways of accomplishment of such ventures are going to lessen until the very effort will confront the perpetrators with international CRIME status.

What of marriages of convenience? Well, once again, if marriage means so little in the overall structure of a society, then I am not going to put a stop to it anyway, am I? My opinion is of little value either way.

I would note, however, that more and more attention is placed on this activity and more and more negative articles are being printed in papers while, yes, there still takes place a lot of CONVENIENT alternatives.

In the December 29th issue of The Spotlight, there is a small article on this very topic. It points out the negative side of these arranged coalitions.

[QUOTING:]

ALIENS MARRY AMERICANS TO STAY HERE

by Fred Blahut, Spotlight writer.

Attention illegal aliens: Take a trip to the altar and get a bonus; a Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR) card.

Some year ago a young lady of this author's acquaintance was romanced by and married a foreign national. The months that followed were difficult for the young woman. Her new husband seemed less than ambitious, and she worked at menial jobs to support them both while he waited for his Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR; formerly green, now pink) card.

"You haven't taken me one damn place since that quickie trip to New Mexico back in '47."

Then the card arrived and she was relieved; he would be able to find a good job legally. After all, she was six months pregnant and looking forward to his taking over as primary wage-earner.

Less than a week later he disappeared. And he had also absconded with the rent money. Her mother, a divorcee with two younger children, sent her bus fare. Later she received divorce papers in the mail. Disillusioned and discouraged, and unable to fund a protracted legal battle, she signed off on that part of her life with a child to raise.

A sad story, but true. And it is all too common.

COMMERCIAL ENTERPRISE

But there is yet another story of marriage and "pink card" that is even more disturbing; that is, marriage for profit. It's a lot more widespread than most people know and constitutes fraud.

Here's how it works: Entrepreneurs find foreigners who want to come to the U.S. or those here on temporary visas who want to get permanent legal status. Then they find women—many times on college campuses—who want to make a few hundred dollars.

A marriage is arranged, a pink card obtained, and the couple discover "irreconcilable differences". A divorce follows.

One case which made the papers in the Southwest involved Texas University, three Pakistani and two Indian students. Forming an illegal partnership, the five went into the marriage-for-profit business, putting together illegals wanting in and women wanting money.

The scam was revealed when one of the women found out she had been paid only about $400, but the man she married and divorced had paid about $35,000. According to published reports she blew the whistle on the East Indian partners when they refused to up her cut.

End of story? Not nearly. The students moved out of town, then out of state and finally out of the country. But they are still in business, according to reports, and are not alone in the illegal enterprise.

The problem is that there is no specific legislation directed at the scam nor does the Immigration and Naturalization Service have the power or personnel to investigate all divorces from unions between a U.S. citizen and a foreign national.

To date, no bill has been introduced in Congress to specifically address the problem.

[END OF QUOTING]

Readers, there will always be methods of accomplishing, through devious means, any end result, I suppose. But you must consider carefully what these alternatives may eventually COST YOU. A price is sometimes TOO HIGH, even if "free". And for goodness sakes, if you have a contractual arrangement ONLY, then make sure you are in full compliance, and that means—no screwing around. I hope you all understand EXACTLY my point. Adults can play games—but it is NOT OK to dink around with lives of children and innocent bystanders. Marriages of convenience rarely last and almost never in this modern age of simply ripping it asunder at a whim. Every couple has unreconcilable differences. But when a child is at point of focus, it becomes so painful as to seem to be a never-ending nightmare of hostage-taking and miserable games-playing.

I am astounded that men cannot keep their pants zipped and the lady, herself covered. Marriages can never be successfully formed through duress and some romp in the hay. I promise you that there is little more painful than those break-up days which seem to always come (and probably rightfully so) where the child is pushed and pulled, stolen or rejected and there seems only endless legal encounters and ALL end up totally without balance, love or reason. Shotgun marriages are never good when either for convenience or unsuspected surprises.

If an "alien" takes on responsibility to gain self a place—there become attachments and will YOU be able to watch YOUR CHILD, now become your own even if not originally so, be snatched away? You will pay for something and you will dearly pay and the others will simply TAKE for that is what a youngster is trained to do in these modern societies.

Furthermore, if an employer is fooled or made responsible for that which he knows not—it is WRONG and will cost all possibilities of a continuing relationship in trust and value.

Most people, if they can, will SPONSOR young people who wish to work and gain legal status—but all other arrangements can merit everyone a very bad situation.

Why do I even speak of these things? Because there are possibilities of misunderstandings regarding business functions as we move into projects, etc. We have no employees so it is not of note here. There has been no problem because there has been no ability to have workers, financially speaking, much the less from anywhere else.

It would seem more than obvious that if a youngster really wants to be a contributing citizen he must go to school and that can easily be on a student visa arrangement, become trained and valuable and then a nation WANTS to find a way to include the person. It would be that nations can't take on the responsibilities of more and more untrained persons. It would further seem logical that if a person really wishes participation in any nation, he must learn the language and become fluent in same. These are just ideas which merit attention and as more and more consideration of Sovereign Indian Nations become a focus—let us consider possibilities which might allow for those wishing a contributing place in any society.

This is all brought to focus by the new regulations coming into effect right in Southern California wherein the laws will be such that all welfare recipients and food-stamps receivers MUST DO SO MUCH WORK THROUGH THE SOCIAL SYSTEM. It will be called community services but what is KNOWN will happen is that aliens will be cut from the agriculture rolls in favor of these mandatory hired welfare persons. The farmers know THAT they will get cheaper labor or free labor and what will then happen to the illegal aliens who depend on welfare and farm jobs for survival? The laws and law enforcement will get ever increasingly hard on both the workers and the possible employers. This may, in fact, be the end of the agricultural business as you know it. Each of you must look to the LONG-TERM realities of your actions and those of the governments which involve you in any possible fashion.

Please remember that the ones you may wish to fool are those who are trained in deception and dirty tricks by the Prince of Darkness and Pranks,

Be guilty of that which the enemy accuses and there is little or nothing the friends can do to help you and you must not expect anything more.

We have met many so-called "patriots" who have had to break this very charge and do it "their way". We have people in prisons asking for assistance—but the ones in prison BROKE THE LAWS, DID IMMORAL THINGS, AND THERE IS NOTHING WE WANT TO DO SAVE HOPE THEY FARE WELL AND CAN SOMEHOW MAKE IT THROUGH THE PRESSURES WITH SOME SEMBLANCE OF LESSONS LEARNED. How many "patriots" have set themselves up to be delivered to the hangman, such as Nichols and McVeigh? It no longer is a matter of "who actually did it"—if the Big Boys need a scapegoat they can always find one among the falsely informed, ignorant bigots.

Neither God nor Hosts condone immorality or any kind of lawbreaking activities. Don't expect to find solace or shelter behind some UFO or Host's robe—for it simply is NOT AVAILABLE. And furthermore, we will not take lightly to ANYONE even suggesting anything remotely otherwise.

We are not interested in political conspiracies or the taking of wealth and nations—those of your ilk and wishes. You have to be informed to even KNOW THE DIFFERENCE. We keep our agreements and contracts, and if you think otherwise—go elsewhere than in the shadow of our mountains. Moreover, when YOU THINK YOU KNOW MORE OF SUCH AS SPIRITUALITY OR WHAT IS MEANT BY..., I SUGGEST YOU! ALSO LEAVE US OUT OF YOUR CIRCLE OF PREACHING.

When you feel a need to specifically place a label on me, for instance, I suggest you do NOT because you should know better, if you recognize me AT ALL, that I will not bear your labels. You must have your connection within the laws and Truth of God and those rules are laid forth both in your available printings AND within your very soul essence. You have only ONE ACCEPTABLE WAY TO GO—according to the laws of God and Creation, so fudging super-knowledge and insight otherwise will only point you out to be the fool you ARE!

May you pay attention to these warnings which seem removed from your own attention—for they are NOT removed from you—only hidden from you. The Order hopes for your blundering and you WILL BLUNDER if you take not heed of Truth.

Thank you and good morning. ☸

Beware Of Aaron Russo Running For Gov. Of Nevada

1/4/98 #1 HATONN

LIFE BEGINS AT 40-SOMETHING

Why don't you try some reasonable number of half-life to fit the Truth of your circumstances: "LIFE BEGINS AT 4 BILLION, 238 MILLION, 56 THOUSAND, 4 HUNDRED AND 40-SOMETHING. Now that you have your expression better in perspective, let us look at what is said to BEGIN at 40-something.

"You BEGIN to fall apart,
You BEGIN to lose your hearing,
You BEGIN to lose your eyesight,
You jst generally BEGIN to, yes, fall apart."

After all, it appears 40-years of age is the generally accepted TRUE "middle-age". After that it seems that there goes out the decree that you are over the hill, up the creek, and are useless baggage! Now tell me just HOW you are going to change a fact if the fact is that you are either "going on" forty, after 40, or generally in the range of years inclusive? The only way you can truthfully answer this question is to inquire, "WHERE is it that I am over forty?" Or, you can say, "Don't ask me to help—I am over forty."

Next comes along a 70-something politician who is now running for Presidential King of the Hill and is totally trained in wrong concepts, how to take away Constitution and RIGHTS of the people, and is a total liar, cheat, and thief—or he would not be a politician! This ONE now tells you "over-the-hilliers" what you need to do to wish away the wrong concepts HE LAYS FORTH and all will be dandy ever after. It is never dandy any time after. All YOU have done is to elect another FOOL and TYRANT who will do anything to GET MORE AND MORE FROM YOU and bring down more and more rules against you until YOU ARE ENSLAVED ACCORDING TO HIS PROGRAM.

Readers, you can boast about your changing politicians and that "I helped get that good man into power", and thus and so, but I ask you: WHAT DO YOU REALLY KNOW ABOUT THESE RUNNERS FOR YOUR NEW MASTERSHIP?

Example? Always is necessary an example. So, with that in mind let us take an independent State from where most of you dwell—Nevada.

There is a man, Aaron Russo, now on the scene in his rather globular way, preaching "corporation restructuring", protection of privacy, down with I-D cards as mandated by Public Law 104-208, down with use of Social Security numbers and thus and so. This is ample to make my point. When you go after the ONE SHELTERING ENTITY IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA LEFT TO YOU-THE-PEOPLE, THE CORPORATION STRUCTURE IN NEVADA—YOU DESTROY THE LAST PRIVACY ASSURED FOR YOUR USE.

Corporations are NOT for the big boys only. Small corporations in Nevada give the very privacy and shelter of personal self that you claim you want and everyone under or over 40-something can participate, even singularly if you Go forth and gain Gary Wean's writings [see the 12/2/97 CONTACT p.8] on the investigation of this VERY PERSON, AARON RUSSO, MISHPUCKA PUPPET-MASTER.

I have used this as an example because it is typical of the methods of TAKE-OVER WHILE the blind listen and are trained puppets and your nation goes down with all its freedoms bound into the noose of wish. Old corporations never die—they just get taxing people's tips in Nevada." Therefore, if you have a new President. statement number one about closing down these corporation shelters—it is a direct and opposite statement of anything to come afterwards.

Do YOU really think you will get rid of the use of SS card numbers? Do you not look forward to the protection you have and the income from Social Security? What are YOU going to be doing that the use of your recognized identity will harm you? No, readers, think about this and quit falling for the lies and distortions.

Are not GOOD LAWS that which keeps ORDER in a society, freedom in a society, and denies chaos and anarchy?

I would further point out to you in, say, Texas, that Mr. Russo "traded his HOLLYWOOD base FOR NEVADA". In other words you have a built-in Hollywood Khazarian witch of the North moving to Nevada to work with such as GEORGE GREEN, JASON BRENT AND THEIR COLLEAGUES to "pull down Nevada and gain control of the politics in that State"—THEIR WORDS AND CLAIMS, NOT MINE.

This man and his pushers claim to be TOTALLY Constitutionalists. Are they? WHOSE constitution? Your Constitution or his own "cover-ass" Constitutional rights?

One example of this man's examples of how bad it is: "I met one waitress," says Russo, "who was working sixteen hours a day and she was living in a car with her five-year-old child because the government pre-assumes how much money she's making in tips and takes it out of her paycheck."

LOOK AT THAT STATEMENT AND THEN BARF AT THE GOO FED YOU. Do you actually think that in a State with modest personal income tax and good support systems for people qualified for welfare, it is simply because the government assumes a percentage of some tips, that this woman lives in a car with a five-year-old child? My dears, the child welfare services WOULD ALREADY HAVE TAKEN THAT CHILD INTO PROTECTIVE CUSTODY TO MAKE SURE IT DIDN'T HAVE TO LIVE IN A CAR. And, if a mother works sixteen hours a day, even at minimum wage, wouldn't you think SOMETHING is wrong with this tale of woe?

Russo goes on: "She earns nine hundred dollars every two weeks and TAKES HOME A HUNDRED-SIXTY-SEVEN DOLLARS AFTER TAXES." Are we nuts, blind, unable to count or where does Mr. Russo get his education that he is so qualified to protect you within your Constitution? So, goes on Mr. Russo: "I am going to go to the Supreme Court and STOP the IRS from things? Because look at Nevada—it is a State based on services of this type in every business arrangement of real value to the State itself.

How dare him even say such outright false

Besides, if these people had their own properly run corporations established in Nevada—it would be only a savings program and every centavo would be reclaimed, at the least, annually.

YOU BOTCH YOUR OWN ABILITIES TO PROTECT SELVES WHILE ALLOWING THESE IDIOTS TO LEAD YOU DOWN THE PRIMROSE PATHWAY WHILE FEEDING YOU RUBBISH. And no, don't give me the old: "But I don't live in Nevada!" YOU DO NOT HAVE TO LIVE IN NEVADA TO DO YOUR BEST BUSINESS IN NEVADA. Get in touch with Nevada Corporate Headquarters and stop the whining about things of which you have NO KNOWLEDGE OR INFORMATION.

Now, I ask you another question: Why would a "Hollywood" movie person move out of his State of California to go to Nevada and start tearing down THEIR laws? Is there not something WRONG with this picture?

YOU CAN WORK AND LIVE NICELY EVEN WITHIN THE LAWS AND SYSTEMS ESTABLISHED BY THE PUPPET-MASTERS IF YOU GET INFORMED. USE THE LEGAL TOOLS AT YOUR DISPOSAL, AND GET REAL INFORMATION INSTEAD OF FEASTING ON THE RABBLE AND RUBBLE OF LIES AND FALSE INFORMATION.

Nevada has more "States RIGHTS" established for the State and the PEOPLE than any other state in the union or abroad.

When asked what he'd like to accomplish, Aaron Russo says to "stop the tide of the federal government's encroachment on everybody's life. If I can do that and light a spark in America, other states can see that it can be stopped. That would be a significant contribution."

OK, you can see for yourself that the man is a cheat and liar from the start. What is he going to do? His intent is to bring the State of Nevada into a cross reference WITHIN THE IRS and nail anyone intelligent enough to gain the protection of privacy in an already superbly working corporate network—wherein the veils of privacy in these corporations are held in CONSTITUTIONAL security—ALREADY!

Go forth and gain Gary Wean's writings on the investigation [See the 12/2/97 CONTACT p.8] of this VERY PERSON, AARON RUSSO, MISHPUCKA PUPPET-MASTER.

I have used this as an example because it is typical of the methods of TAKE-OVER WHILE the blind listen and are trained puppets and your nation goes down with all its freedoms bound into the noose of ignorance.

Readers, until YOU KNOW what is even in YOUR CONSTITUTION, how dare you take up crosses to burn on another's lawn? Tell me fully, what are the implications of this

Public Law (you have already forgotten the numbers) as relative to Amendments 1, 2 and 14 of YOUR CONSTITUTION? WHAT DOES YOUR LOCAL STATE CONSTITUTION HAVE TO PRESENT TO PROTECT YOU? AH, IT GETS PERSONAL NOW, DOESN'T IT?

Oh, by the way, Russo is running for Governor of Nevada. Just an "afterthought", I suppose. Did you even notice I had not mentioned that little point? Oh well.

THE WAY IT IS!

Am I trying to tell you that through Truth, Honesty, and Self-Discipline with the laws of God and the laws of Man, AS ESTABLISHED IN ALL THEIR POSSIBLE ERRORS, YOU CAN STILL MAKE A POSITIVE DIFFERENCE? Yes indeed, if you get informed, take actions as are laid forth under your Constitutions, and gain knowledge. Truth shall set you FREE but only if you practice it. People like Russo should be laughed all the way back to the Hollywood circus-circus for his impudent and disinformative lies—but will that happen? Probably not for these guys play to the audiences of a movie, or a State, and are dangerous to the very FREEDOMS you claim to want.

Do you actually think such a "business mogul" would go and tear down the very shelters set forth to protect corporate big business? Perish the thought, he would just tighten that noose about the already strained necks of you-the-people. Again, I repeat, this is Any State, Any Where, U.S.A. or within the Global Alliance.

"But this man also objects to the placement of nuclear waste north of Las Vegas in Yucca Mountain?" Oh? And do you think he is going to stop that venture which is already set and receiving? There is a method of neutralization of nuclear waste so effective that it is DISALLOWED use to insure nobody touches that "waste" which is stored for WAR PURPOSES and power generation reclamation. Now, surely, you must have known that!

"But, isn't it probable that any major Earth or war upheaval may break the 'Big Dam' somewhere around Las Vegas?" Oh indeed, so they will need a renewal source of power, won't they? The problem is downstream (SOUTH) of Vegas, and it is arranged that even if the dam fails, there will only be a short interruption of power supply as the cross-lines are set and structured to FEED BOTH DIRECTIONS. Somebody did some planning. If I were going to move anyone to anywhere, it would be to the SECURITY of Las Vegas. We already have our own business hubs set right there in Nevada.

Am I trying to "sell" you on Nevada? No, because I don't really want to spoil the good shelters, which come from Nevada, for our people. Most of our team will have dual State citizenship or simply move INLAND. This will not be a big rush to anything for we (YOU) can live nicely ANYWHERE you happen to be parked—if you know what in heck you're doing! Safety in the eye of Scallion? Well, are you drowned NOW? Do YOU know when you are going to get drowned? Then why don't you go within self and ask God where you might best BE OF SERVICE TO HIM! Since you don't need, probably, to run risks of moving anywhere—why don't you turn your attitude adjustment program to your more positive reality and stop hop-skippping around? If you can't "make it" where you ARE, why think ye that you can "make it" at someone else's expense elsewhere? Nobody wants proven "failures" in their employ, or in their midst, and I don't care WHO you are or think you ARE. Also, when Nature or Master-Heads STRIKE in any form or fashion, people need thinking, acting leadership—not air-heads with their fantasies in Dreamland. They will need someone with colloids, bandages and a pot of beans and, hopefully, an attitude of brotherhood for the ones who have dwelled in the house of the Devil in his meditative input for lo, these years of lack of participation. What do you think Aaron will do for those poor suckers? For that matter, what will YOU be doing—begging or helping?

Can foreigners (aliens) have Corporations in Nevada? Of course, it is Nevada's most important industry. If you meet the investment requirements you can, if foreign, have an open-ended "alien card" to allow you to go and come to attend your business—any time for as long as need be. ☸

Big Chicken Caper And Other New Year Assaults

1/4/98 #1 HATONN

READ IT AND WEEP

I trust that all you people worried about the Governor of Nevada [see story on p.26] NOW realize what a set-up is prepared for your next disaster—from Hong Kong.

The Big Chicken Caper has set up the world-wide spread and destruction of you-the-people through open and non-contradictory circumstances just pulled off in the typical governmental fiasco of your century.

Number one, the chickens were not all killed. Secondly, and thus and so, they were not then burned or buried. The living and dead were tossed into sacks and dumped at the land fill without so much as coverage. Now, the rotting corpses become the lethal weapons intended. The rats, dogs and PEOPLE carted away the chickens for their own use and the next meal—so you have any microbes now spread to the WINDS. If there were no microbes present—THERE WILL BE NOW!

Just like the infections moving through your nations RIGHT NOW that seem like flu and colds—consider what the next assault will be like as the mutated microbes become more individualized and WITHOUT KNOWN TREATMENT. Add this to the man-made microbes in those Bird-flu circuits which will also mutate immediately, and consider where YOU STAND NOW.

Do I simply want to scare you? Oh how I wish I could! Nothing seems to scare you except having to present a Social Security number. They HAVE YOUR NUMBER, readers, so get with the program.

Will the colloids still work on these microbes? YES. But if you think you just think about them and it will clear your head—IT WILL NOT. Oh, you can't afford them? Well, how much do hospitals, doctors, and funerals cost? So be it. We can't "afford" it either, but what we can afford and what we get are entirely two separate THINGS.

Worse yet, the colloids can offer a hit on the microbes but if you don't get that auto-immune system into working and holding condition—you still can't survive the intentional assault of non-treatable microbes and crosses of viral-bacteriological microbes. WHY DO YOU THINK AIDS WAS PRESENTED FIRST?

If you really want to get some input—go back to last week's paper (CONTACT) and read the Front Page interview with Dr. Horowitz. It came between Christmas and New Year's blind-you dates, so be careful and don't use the paper to pack away your useless pretties for next year. If you did that then get another copy. I will petition Dr. Young to rerun that interview in the next weeks, after you settle down a bit from your current flu and emotional confusion. YOU NEED THE INFORMATION AND YOU PARENTS NEED TO KNOW YOUR RESOURCES REGARDING THE DELIBERATE INFECTING OF YOUR CHILDREN THROUGH VACCINATIONS AND INOCULATIONS. You HAVE Constitutional RIGHTS; you just don't use them.

By the way, when you say you have no way to afford colloids when you just overwhelmed your credit cards for overspending on the Satan's days, you complain and whine to the wrong party if you complain to ME. We are NOT in the life-saving business for we provide information and "the way". If you want to save lives, like your own, then right there is where to do it—for you can only save SELF. You can only assist with any other being. God does NOT insist that you be informed or use anything HE sends. Our obligations in your free-will circumstances are simply to provide information and possibilities. You are responsible for YOUR choices.

THE MOVIE CONTACT

Here I speak of a movie of said label. What about this perception of possibilities as presented in Contact? My observation is that it is a rather boring movie, nothing more. LIFE is "out here", friends, and your illusionary PLAY is where you are in that physical expression. You can get informed or you can "dream on" and nothing will change. If it takes outrageously ineffective apparatus for you to perceive GOD—as presented in the movie—you are a long way from being ready for anything coming at you as prepared for you to experience in even the local plan 2000. I am disappointed in the projection of technologies in the motion picture. It causes me to wonder if Aaron Russo had anything to do with its production. If you are going to be gone for over 50 years in a physical manifestation, then a chair in the middle of a capsule with no accompanying supplies for those 50 years is MORE than a misleading concept or presentation. But is it a good start toward opening eyes? No, it is total misrepresentation of living human manifestation. ALL YOU, ANYONE, HAS TO DO TO EXPERIENCE THE POSSIBILITIES AND PERFECTIONS OF GOD—IS KEEP HIS LAWS AND PRACTICE TOWARD THE PERFECTION OF THAT WISDOM AND YOU WILL EXPERIENCE, FIRST HAND, DIRECTLY, THE PRESENCE OF GOD CREATOR AND CREATION.

In addition, to present such silly and totally stupid apparatus while inferring it came forth from your BROTHERS (ON YOUR SIDE) FROM SPACE SOMEWHERE, is without conscience. I feel like making headlines: "DON'T TRY THIS AT HOME".

WHEN YOU SEEK GOD-OF-ENERGY IN

A SILLY SEAT OF CONFUSION OF MISINFORMATION RESOURCE, YOU CAN'T FIND GOD.

Remember something RIGHT HERE: You asked my opinion and this is my opinion but, more important, STUDY YOUR OWN OPINION! And, do you think that anyone close enough to GOD to travel across a Universe would send silly dot-dot-dash radio beeps? We communicate and TRAVEL instantly to any place from any where—and we don't have to "move" a thing. DO NOT BE STUPIDLY MISLED BY THE TALES OF "CONTACTING" SOME SPACE ALIENS WITH THOSE RADAR, RADIO, SONAR, AND FREQUENCY BOWLS—THEY ARE FOR CONTROLLING YOUR WORLD THROUGH SATELLITE HOOKUPS AND HAVE NOTHING AT ALL TO DO WITH ALIENS OR COMMUNICATION WITH SAME. YOU ARE PEOPLE OF THE LIE!

What does it take to awaken you-the-people? I'm not in the business of awakening ALL THE MASSES, so I'm sure it doesn't matter. My task is to bring to the attention of our remnant, some facts for consideration. Billions of beings will simply recycle around and around—but that is free-will choice for the Truth will be available IF MAN WISHES TO USE IT. GOD, FURTHERMORE, IS GREATER THAN ALL THE SUM TOTAL OF THE ADVERSARY'S TOOLS OR BEINGS. KNOW IT.

If you wish to share in the Truth of God's presence, welcome aboard. If you simply wish to live a bit longer in your doubts and fears while expecting someone else to attend you—step aside, for "aboard" is not where you are going to find yourself manifest. Others have tried and failed, and so may you if your intentions are to be an "insider" somehow or make a position for self. Ekkers are quickly moving OUT of the circle of attention and it becomes a whole different factual outlay in every court in the land as the ones who have used OUR TRUTH to feather their nests and lie, cheat and steal have nothing upon which to support their accusations.

We NEVER came to this place or any other place to build churches, cults, or a following of stragglers. If Green planned to make a fortune otherwise—so be it and let him find, the hard way—that he is WRONG. His followers and worse thieves and misfits, will find out Truth as well, as time moves on further into remoteness dilution. We are going right on ABOUT OUR FATHER'S WORK and it includes NOT the misfits, cheats and liars. These are best learned through actual experience and need to attend proper business and direction. It has also allowed our own teams and crew to gather in unity—and not in signing up for membership in a guru cult.

What are UFOs? How many aircraft or airborne objects can YOU actually identify? So, you answer your own inquiry and what difference does it make? If God travels about, why in the world would you think HIM to need a manufactured vessel? If others can make it into your air-space, then these are basically still only manufactured entities. Human manifestation, as well as animal, plant or other MANIFEST form or thing—needs things of physical coalition to exist in the state of being, human. If human is cast aside, then automatically SPIRIT is the focus. Sometimes the transition and insurance for remnant survival REQUIRES BOTH! Where are YOU now? Within God, you will evolve properly or you will not for things will be exactly as they will be. You can write your own desired scenario or be trapped in another's perceptions—waiting for the savior which you will then send away. THINK ABOUT THAT "RAPTURE"! YOU HAD BEST GET ON WITH MEETING RESPONSIBILITY! Spirit can sit on the clouds—HUMAN CAN NOT! Spirit and Human are at the two opposing ends of the pole.

As we write on, AND confront the ongoing perceived problems, we will speak more and more on these topics, but we will not wallow you in goo for you are not going to be able to fly with the goo binding you to your shackles. TRUTH is for those ready, willing, and able to KNOW it when they find it. You who complain and distract are simply complaining, whining, uninformed distractors of SELF and those upon whom you foist false information and irresponsible opinions. We certainly do NOT need you running our businesses when you can't even run your daily existence. Yes indeed, get prepared, for things are going to change. You can have any opinion you wish—but you will NOT run our businesses with YOUR, ALREADY PROVEN WRONG, opinions. Always ask yourself: "Would The Donald or Turner hire me to run their business empire?" Act according to your own response. If you have not reached the level of either in business, then save us and self from butting into ours.

Harsh? You are darned right! We are talking about THE businesses and THE survival of planets and people. What are YOU talking about?

Is there a seat on the train for you? You bet, but I wonder how many will even use their seats or their waiting tickets? Oh, friends, it won't be crowded enough to annoy your need for privacy. All are chosen, all are welcome, if they are within the guidelines—BUT ALMOST NONE ACTUALLY COME ABOARD.

We do not have to "fight" ANY beast. If the beast be of the Adversary, it cannot long endure within the creative LIGHT of Truth and GOD. Do you actually want the serial murderer and self-appointed adversarial malcontent as a bedfellow or long-journey seat partner? Have we not been misled along this primrose tulip-lined pathway long enough?

Ask not God what He can do for you—Ask what you can do for God! This is always a very good approach in all instances.

A funny one came to me lately: "Can you walk on water, Sir?" Why in the world would I want to walk on water? I walk on the very air and soar with the Eagles and beyond. Why in the Universe would I need walk on water? WHO CARES?

However, to my fellow "swimmers": may we always simply serve in the way God wills it to be and it will be sufficient unto ALL OUR NEEDS.

Good morning and I salute you awakening students back from vacation and school-break. The exchange-gift program is over so let us get back to our lessons and you get on with YOUR HOMEWORK. Get again caught up with the program lest you have to drop out right before graduation. And remember something—I am not going to repeat and repeat instructions. You have been given instructions for everything from how to protect selves to how to travel safely and within all laws. If you speed, for instance, whose lives do YOU jeopardize? When you take a risk, even in passing another car, WHO ARE YOU RISKING TO OUR PURPOSE? It is not "OK" to rush hither and yon as if you are of no value, or are just hurried, wasted, and useless (for service). THINK, or I WILL GROUND YOU. Chances are for gamblers—we need no gamblers among us and therefore we KNOW what we do at ALL TIMES and chance-taking is not longer acceptable just because YOU may have an urge to get past the car in front. What's your all-fired hurry? I see, get to your destination so you can WAIT! So be it but you may NOT take chances, especially with my team.

Now, let us settle down into that which IS and prove the workability of succeeding in that environment as it IS! YOU PROVE NOTHING BY YOUR ANTICS AND SELF-PROCLAIMED SUPERIOR OPINIONS. Our opponents would like nothing better than to KILL you while it appears to be God-action or your own independent foolishness. EVERY encounter is now of urgent importance and I weary of your attitudes, even in my own circle. Again I ask: WHAT IS YOUR ALL-FIRED HURRY? IF GOD NEEDED YOU OTHER THAN AS YOU ARE, HE WOULD HAVE GIVEN YOU WINGS OR OTHER TOOLS. When "our own" get with the program we can move on instantly and in perfection of protection. Think about it, team, and then let us get on with our service unto God that He may, in turn, reward our worthy actions and intentions. If we act like children we shall surely be treated as same. Have YOU matured beyond the "druthers" of self? I wonder, and surely we will see, won't we? WHO, perchance, is holding up the finalizing of our proposals and projects? Is it ALWAYS "someone else"? I don't think so. Salu. ☸

Are you a subscriber who forgets to renew your CONTACT subscription by its expiration date?

Here's some help:

Checking Your Expiration Date

You can always easily check your subscription expiration date! It appears at the top left-hand side of your mailing label (e.g., 010698 = 01/06/98).

Automatic Renewal

Automatically renewing your subscription with a credit card is an easy way to get around remembering! Just give us a call at (800)800-5565, allow us to have your credit-card number on file, and one month before your subscription expires we will charge your credit card the amount you specify (e.g., $30, $60 or $110).

Of course, you can always cancel the automatic renewal at any time. Renew automatically for a year and you still see a $10 savings compared to 3-month and 6-month subscriptions!

Automatic renewal is an easy and cost-effective way to renew!

Aton: A Reminder To Those Walking The "Truth Bearer" Path

1/3/98 ATON

Good morning, little one. It is I, Aton, the One Light. Be at peace, for there is no need for alarm. You are quite able to translate My Energy!

There are many reasons for this interaction at this time. I have ones all around your globe bringing forth these messages. What is taking place in the U.S. is a very focused part of a much larger picture. There is, indeed, great pressure on those of you who have chosen to walk the path of "Truth bearer".

I have chosen my crew for this mission for very PERFECT reasons. You each volunteered to participate at this time—some, for very specific roles, and others on an "as needed" basis. Some of you have been (or will be) filling-in for ones who fail to respond to the call. In that event, you will find that you will be given to remember past abilities and talents. If need be, I shall carry you until such time as you can walk on your own.

With such an event, there is often inner confusion as a result of the fast-paced "ramp-up" cycle often associated with awakening these abilities. Many of you have been groomed from early childhood for the roles that you are now playing. This is to say that, for a good many of you, you had to face great adversarial attacks at an early physical age.

For every one of you who made it this far, there are three or more who did not. But, so too are there others waiting and ready to "step up" if and when the need arises. Never underestimate the depth of planning of this mission.

The path that you have chosen is one of service unto your brethren. This is a most difficult challenge for the majority of the physically oriented crew. There are great EXTERNAL pressures pulling on you—pressures to prove your physical worth to family, neighbors, and friends. Your opponent is a master at exploiting any and all insecurities. If you allow, even for a moment, your shielding to drop (frequency to lower), the adversary will attack in a manner consistent with that of a trapped animal.

When you catch yourself feeling angry or short tempered with one another, please take a moment to breathe in and be thankful for the breath that brings you life. In the moment of TRUE heart-felt appreciation for those things that are seemingly small and subtle, you will not be able to maintain your anger with another Lighted soul, and the resultant upward frequency shift will cause the departure of the dark energy trying to cause division among you.

You will soon be reaping your just rewards (returned energy flow) for the years (lifetimes, in most cases) that you ones have spent in preparation in order to get to your current level of perception and understanding. When you lift up another and help them to their feet, so too shall you be lifted up by others. When you ignore the cry of one in need, so too shall you be ignored.

There is a speed-up at this time in which you ones will be witness to near instant manifestation of returned energy flow. This can work for you or against you, depending upon your alignment with the flow of Creation itself.

You can no longer hide your true self from the world, for if you harbor within yourself any measure of ill intent, animosity, anger and such for another, it will come back to you amplified so quickly that the resultant drain is likely to cause severe reactions as the energy seeks its natural balance. Let go of the past and move forward! Be quick to forgive and others will be equally quick to respond to your lighter, more en-Light-ened state.

Those with ample energy are often the ones using their available energy to deliberately help another. Thus energy comes back multiplied, and the result is often very fulfilling to all involved. The focus upon others, rather than upon self, in a BALANCED interaction, is the single most important lesson you can perfect in that physical domain of experience.

On a related subject, I see that many of our physically-oriented crew members are being very lax in their conscious and deliberate efforts to maintain a high-frequency emotional state. NO ONE IS BEYOND THE REACH OF THE ADVERSARY'S INFLUENCE AT THIS TIME! THE GREATER THE TEACHER, THE GREATER THE ATTACKS.

I HAVE SENT MY MESSENGERS TO ASSIST YOU THROUGH THESE MATTERS, AND I SEE THAT THE MESSAGE MUST BE REPEATED OVER AND OVER. WHY? BECAUSE MANY OF YOU "THINK" THAT YOU ARE BEYOND THE REACH OF THE ADVERSARY AND THAT THE MESSAGE DOES NOT APPLY TO YOU! NO! YOU UNDERESTIMATE THE INFLUENCE AND MASTERY OF THESE DARK ONES. THESE ONES CAN AND WILL EXPLOIT ANY AND EVERY WEAKNESS YOU HAVE. NONE ARE BEYOND THIS TESTING. NONE!

This caution I have sent forth over and over to you ones. Take this message within and seek deliberate understanding. Learn to FEEL the adversary around you.

The more direct your level of participation, the greater the attacks will be. My public receivers are among the most heavily attacked ones at this time. I ask that these ones be especially attentive to their emotional states. Be not offended by another, for you need not the distractions. Allow the offensive ones to pass through your experience and resist not. The resistance only keeps these ones around much longer and will only serve to drain you of your time and energy. Always effort to maintain the greater perspective on why it is that you are here at this time.

Hold your heads up when you walk, and be quick to find reason to offer another assistance, even if it only be a smile of appreciation. I know that many of you are getting tired, and I also know the inner strength and perseverance that you are capable of drawing upon, even if you yourself do not.

I am Aton, the One Light. I am Creator. I AM! ✨

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then that means there is currently no Hotline message.
