To Heads Of State: It's Time To CHOOSE

IN BEHALF OF TRUTH

Hatonn—It is hard to awaken in a foreign land, face the slings and arrows of what IS, run through the list of things which must be attended, should be attended and, finally, move to attend them.

Messengers have a most interesting and intriguing position in the evolving world, for they must keep OUT of as much as they are allowed in which to participate. It takes years to come to the point of being able to set aside ego-self and reach out in a total focus on humanity's needs in order to bring about the necessary ability to change.

Further, when dealing with such great potential as we hold, it is such a responsibility—while all the con-artists, scam-agents and outright thieves and criminals try to steal, ravage and pillage. It truly is like walking through a field of wildflowers in full bloom without stepping on even the grass. Meanwhile, of course, when you are involved in that which is goodly, the antagonists of worldly greed and avarice are always and constantly trying their best to topple you, even at the expense of their own downfall. It becomes easier with which to deal, however, as you experience and, finally, out of the seemingly hard/bad experiences comes instant realization of actions from each circumstance.

What you seem to want to always accomplish is the goal, which is that pot at the end of some rainbow. NO, YOU ARE DOING THAT WHICH IS THE EXCITING AND WONDROUS ADVENTURE—AS YOU SOLVE THAT WHICH PRESENTS IN NEGATIVE FORM AND MOVE IT INTO GOODLY AND POSITIVE REALITY. WHEN YOU ARE PREPARED TO HANDLE THESE THINGS PRESENTED, YOU WILL MOVE CLEANLY AND POSITIVELY RIGHT THROUGH AND INTO ABILITY TO MANAGE THE TASKS OF THE PRESENT, AS WELL AS KNOW HOW TO UTILIZE THE POTENTIAL OF SOME "FUTURE" EXPERIENCE. SINCE ALL IS "EXPERIENCE",

WINGS, FLEDGLINGS, AS YOU LEARN TO TURN THE POTENTIAL INTO WONDROUS CREATION.

We watch in sadness that which takes place in the political whirlwinds of governments and manipulations. We witness, everywhere on the globe, the concerted efforts of the Elite manipulators to totally destabilize nations and economies, and destroy the would-be goodly leaders.

In the Philippines, for instance, you have a man who was duly elected, who is in the process of being methodically torn apart. Does the man in point make errors? Yes, indeed—HOWEVER—he is so surrounded by thieves, corruption and liars, cheats and manipulators as to render him all but unable to take actions, FOR HE IS NOT TOLD TRUTH; HE IS NOT GIVEN INFORMATION; HE IS LIVING IN A PRISON OF NON-INFORMATION OF THE VERY THINGS WHICH COULD OVERNIGHT CHANGE EVERYTHING.

WE OFFER THE GLOBAL ASSET FOR POSITIVE USE AND IT IS BASED ON ASSETS FULLY STRETCH YOUR

ALREADY AVAILABLE WITHIN THE NATION AND IN THE HANDS OF THOSE WHO ONLY WISH TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE NATION AND THEIR HUMAN BROTHERHOOD—AND THE PRESIDENT HAS BEEN DENIED EVEN GAINING THE INFORMATION SENT OVER AND OVER AGAIN TO HIS ATTENTION—FOR WELL OVER A YEAR AND A HALF. HE IS STUNNED WHEN IT FINALLY IS HANDED TO HIM THROUGH SOME PERSONAL CONTACT WITH SOMEONE WHO FINALLY IS CLOSE ENOUGH TO REACH OUT AND LOVES ENOUGH TO CARE.

The man is a good soul and wants desperately to bring forth that which allows growth and blossoming of this nation, and as one thing after another is placed deliberately to block any positive flow, he is left not only blamed for the negative events but dumped on by media, cohorts and, yes, even his closest advisors. THIS IS, HOWEVER, WHEN GOD IS FINALLY HEARD!

You who believe there is no “conspiracy”, listen up. I will remind you that even in the Philippines the VICE PRESIDENT, a lovely lady, was an OXFORD classmate of Clinton. Moreover, out of that class of Oxford-manipulated “students”, there are now nine heads of State in “power”—each manipulated by their own puppet-masters!

HOW DO YOU RECOGNIZE SATAN?

Just experience and you will see Satan at work EVERYWHERE. Satan takes on the costumes and the very NAMES of the goodly to infiltrate, confuse and destroy for his own games of destruction. He is served by every level of society, through the most tiny to the largest acts of deception, snitching, graft and corruption—the most obvious of which I will now briefly address and I ask that you think about it very seriously.

Let us take the circumstances in Mindanao (the largest island of the Philippines), which is steeped in terror, mayhem, anger and actual war/killing, hostage-taking and horror. Even though this is a tiny, tiny segment of persons involved, it absorbs every fiber of every being.

It is obvious from observation that the ongoing arms supplies are being shipped in—and most of them are sent in from a resource and source, not from a terrorist bin Laden—from Israeli/U.S. sources. These are programs of trainers from the international intelligence operations right out of the CIA and Mossad. The signs are all over every act committed. And yet, what is said? “The Islamic group...”, or “The Christians...” or “The Muslims...”, “The Moros...”, etc.

THESE ARE NOT ISLAMIC, MUSLIM, CHRISTIAN OR MOROS!!! THEY ARE TERRORIST CRIMINALS WALKING IN DISGUISE OF BEING A RELIGION, OR A RACE OR A CREED. THEY ARE WALKING SATANISTS AND THEY DIRTY THE NAMES THEY STEAL FOR THEMSELVES TO FURTHER DESTABILIZE AND BRING FURTHER RIFTS AMONG THE PEOPLE. THEY ARE NOT IN ANY MEASURE ANY REMNANT OF GOD.

Until you can get this straight, citizens, you are going to be in misery and spiraling disaster, steadily and increasingly, as you try to revenge one groupie after another—that has NOTHING to do with these evil criminals. These uprisings are PLANNED and orchestrated for the most terrible impact on a society, so that the people beg for more and more “protection” and enslavement out of total fear and terror. And yes, indeed, it is serious and the plan works—every time—for as long as mankind has been stumbling around in the darkness.

We have even made attempts to get information to, say, Mr. Estrada, via Brother Mike—but it is obvious that it either made it no further than the good brother, or—more likely—it NEVER WAS PRESENTED EVEN TO THE FIRST PARTY. We have no involvement with affairs of State or within politics—we only have an offer to present FOR THE PEOPLE. IT MUST BE A GOOD OFFER OR IT WOULD NOT BE STOPPED AT ALL COSTS! (???)

VICTIMS

I am going to burst a grand New Age idea that there are no “victims”. This is another word misused and abused. There may well be only “choices” of some kind—BUT LET ME PLEASE ASSURE YOU: THERE ARE VICTIMS! Anyone set upon, for good or bad, is a “victim”—if they are not a conscious collaborator. Any act against another while the other is in “ignorance” causes that other to be a VICTIM. So, please stop your nonsense and foolishness. Whatever else Mr. Estrada, for instance, might be, HE IS A VICTIM OF THE TEAMS OF CONSPIRATORS WHO ARE OUT TO DESTROY HIM AND THE NATION OF THE PHILIPPINES AND SERVE THE HEAD OF THE NATION ITSELF ON THE GOLDEN PLATTER AT THE FEET OF THE MOST SATANIC ELITE.

Can an Estrada make a difference if he chose to do so? Of course. He could, overnight, set a whole new and wondrous course into positive movement. Will he do so? ONLY HE AND GOD KNOW WHAT THE CHOICES FOR ACTION WILL BE—BUT HE MUST SEE THAT IF HE DOES NOT MAKE SUCH A POSITIVE MOVE, HE IS LOST TO DESTRUCTION ANYWAY. HE IS RULED AND CONTROLLED BY FEAR AND A NEED TO KEEP PROMISES TO THOSE HE THOUGHT SERVED HIM.

A MAN MAY WELL BE AT HIS WEAKEST POINT BEFORE HE MAKES A CHOICE TO TAKE UP HIS POWER AND TAKE CONTROL, OR CHOOSE TO GO DOWN IN SHAME. THE OPPOSITE-MEANING WORD FOR “PRIDE” IS “SHAME”, NOT HUMILITY. HUMILITY IS THAT STATE OF BEING THAT EXISTS WHEN YOU ASK GOD FOR HELP AND ACCEPT IT! AT THAT POINT, BOTH PRIDE AND SHAME VANISH. STRENGTH REPLACES HELPLESSNESS AND A WHOLE NEW VISION OF TRUTH OPENS—IN THE VERY FACES OF THE CITIZENS THEMSELVES.

It is such a SHAME that man considers that God’s Plan only deals with spiritual matters. Spiritual TRUTH is only the first step for full utilization of the PLAN. GOD PROVIDES THE WAY! THEREFORE, WHEN THE TRAPPINGS OF ACCEPTED FEAR AND WEAKNESS ARE THROWN OFF—THE WAY OPENS, AS A TABLE, FOR THE FEAST IS SPREAD FOR THE TAKING. BUT FIRST THE GIFTS OF GOD AND BROTHER—TRUE BROTHER—MUST BE ACCEPTED. WHEN THE GIFT AND RESPONSIBILITY ARE ACCEPTED, THERE IS NOTHING ON EARTH OR IN THE ETHERS THAT CAN STOP THE MANIFESTATION OF GOODNESS AND POSITIVE GROWTH. NO ENERGY, NO HUMAN, NO BEING CAN STAND IN THE LIGHT OF GOD CREATOR, AND WHEN MAN TAKES THAT GIFT AND USES IT

WISELY AND HONORABLY—THERE IS NOTHING THAT CAN STOP IT.

Remember something, chelas, as you walk through your awakening: You are looking at a time when you stand on the brink of disaster on one side, and growth and realized majesty on the other. You hear about Mother Earth cleaning herself? Well, YOU are the hands and feet that will measure the fields and plant those trees. YOU are the stewards sent to prevent exactly what has come to pass upon the world. You fiddled while your “Rome” burned to the ground. There is no “cross” to drag, nor are there sacrifices to be made; GET UP OFF THOSE KNEES AND TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR PLANET AND YOUR LIVES MANIFEST UPON IT. You will be manipulated and enslaved as long as you allow it. And, NO, you do not need to kill anything, hurt anything or bash anything—you just need to take what God presents and USE IT.

KNOW, HOWEVER, THAT YOU WHO MISUSE THESE GIFTS OFFERED IN THE FORM OF THE GAIA ASSETS WILL NOT FLOURISH. USE THE GIFT IN GREED OR AVARICE AND THE PLANS WILL NOT WORK OUT FOR YOU; YOU WILL NEGATE YOUR ABILITY TO “HAVE” AND YOU WILL BE REWARDED WITH THAT EVIL WHICH YOU PUT FORTH—IN KIND. PLANT THE WRONG TREE IN AN ORCHARD AND IT WILL BEAR BAD FRUIT.

Certainly, “Ekkers” are not in the sorting business—although I AM. Many will pass through as the pathway is opened and participants find their way, and very rapidly the masses will follow the BETTER WAY. PLAY NASTY OR GREEDY GAMES WITH GOD—AND YOU SHALL REAP THE REWARDS OF SUCH UNWISE ACTIVITY. AND NOTE, PLEASE: YOU ARE JUST ABOUT OUT OF INDIVIDUAL CHANCES TO MOVE IN JUSTICE AND POSITIVE GROWTH—AND, INDEED, THERE ARE GETTING TO BE FEWER AND FEWER CHANCES TO BLOW YOUR PROMISES. SOME HAVE ONLY ONE CHANCE LEFT. SOME ARE DESTINED FOR GREATNESS AND SOMETIMES IT IS PAINFUL TO STAND BY AND ALLOW THAT ONE—WHO WILL CHOOSE THE RIGHT WAY—TO DRAG ALONG IN THE PAINFULLY AGONIZING DECISION-MAKING PROCESS.

YES, INDEED, this is written directly for some HEADS OF STATE—starting this day, with this writing to one, Joseph Estrada. He can reach out to every other Head of State in Southeast Asia, and among them—just by utilizing this GAIA gift—they can bring peace, harmony, wealth and growth unseen before to this God Blessed New Center of Greatness. For instance, things are in such disarray in the Philippines that there is a state of National Emergency and there need not be Martial Law—but there can certainly be Presidential decrees and Executive Orders issued which permit the use of said assets based on use of national assets, which will stabilize and support the economy instantly. All the rest will follow as stability settles on all the nations of the area. Once established on a solid foundation of monetary stability—the very Heavens become the only limit—and even that cannot be limited in the goodness and creative potential within GOD.

NO, I DID NOT SAY “CHURCH” OR “RELIGION”, FOR THOSE ARE MAN-MANUFACTURED CONTROL STRUCTURES WITH TOTAL LIMITATION. I SAID “GOD”, WHICH BOILS DOWN TO YOU AND GOD, CITIZEN, WITH NO BROKERS, NO CONTROLLERS, NO PAY-YOUR-WAY-IN AND NO LIMITATIONS—

FREEDOM!

Laws of God must balance the behavior of mankind but not through a religious ritual—only through the heart of man to God in RIGHT INTENT AND ACTIONS.

The “Law of the Land” must come to be that which presents ORDERLY function of man as he goes about his FREE-WILL choices, while negating the ability of evil players from usurping the rights of others for their own greedy purposes.

When man sees what needs doing to bring goodness upon the lands and seizes the opportunities offered, the negative aspects will drop away.

We look at Manila and see the junkyard castoffs of other nations and the building of pollution through use of those killer items. Let us focus on old buses and Jeepneys. Why can't there be affordable rapid-transit systems, NEW AND CLEAN BUSES and NEW Jeepneys for the picturesque system noted for tourists? There could be amazing Jeepney services to areas of picking up the mass-transit-system vehicles, and all could make a living as drivers and carriers.

What of the old buses and such? Dump them in strategic places in the ocean to be utilized as artificial reefs. The old frames could be cleaned and actually bought by artificial reef builders for that very purpose. You can recycle and use everything without dumping more eyesores and junk on Mother Earth's face. If one nation will make that move to serve Nature and mankind at the lowest level of citizenship, the greatest will be served more abundantly.

Stop blowing up your reefs and killing your oceans but while you reclaim—use that which is abundant, as in ships and buses which have no use to better serve both Nature and man. This is such a tiny example that it is an embarrassment to offer it—but this is what reclaims, the tiny-most effort.

Enough deeds of assignment are OUT in the Philippines—with more available for the asking, with good projects for the people presented for the building—that it would now carry the entire load of funding burden. The Government ONLY should be in place to see to the ability of the PEOPLE to grow in honor and present their own projects, to have jobs and self-worth. Government must be serving the citizens and not self-serving, corrupt parasites sucking the very lives from the people. THE ELITE MANIPULATORS HAVE ALL BUT SUCKED THE LIVES FROM THE VERY CITIZENS AND FABRIC OF THE WORLD ITSELF.

When my team becomes discouraged and weary after years of just making an effort to deliver the very assets themselves, I must remind them that the very beings of unseen presence are never-ceasing workers to allow this wondrous evolvement. By “unseen” I mean both energy forms who present in “thought” and more specifically I refer to very manifest beings that you just don't know—other than from pictures or recognition of presence in human form. Let us consider Mr. Estrada, as an example. How many of you, right now, in the same city for a very long time, have SEEN Mr. Estrada and would you recognize him if you did? Stop your nonsense and you will realize that a person can only take up the space of his physical presence—ALL ELSE IS ILLUSION. Moreover, being “dead” doesn't mean a person is no longer alive. THOUGHT is that which lives FOREVER, and what thought remains within the physical world is that which results from thought placed into action. May your legacy be great in evolvement of goodness upon this place, which has given you life and the ability to experience. Evil dissolves before goodness and there is no argument about it—for EVIL CANNOT EXIST IN THE LIGHT OF GOODNESS!

It is now time on the Earth for the rising of those who have been put down through force and tyranny placed against them. Those Heads of States, wherein the suffering has been greatest, can now come forth in some type of unity to act in peace and abundance.

So be it and the time is NOW. Abundance is yours for the accepting and stability within reach of all who will accept it. Therefore, may YOU keep counsel and council with those who SEE and HEAR truth, and turn from those who destroy, lie, cheat and steal even from themselves for the moment of ego gratification.

GOD CARES NOT WHAT A MAN WAS. GOD ONLY NOTES THAT WHICH A MAN IS AND READS HIS THOUGHTS AS TO WHAT INTENTS RESIDE IN THE HEART—WITHIN THE SOUL OF THE INDIVIDUAL—TOWARD THE POTENTIAL POSSIBILITIES OF “FUTURE” EXPECTATIONS. WITH GOD, ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE, AND WITH RIGHT INTENT IN ACTION, WILL BE MADE MANIFEST.

May this be the time for the awakening through the possibilities offered. In brotherhood, I remain available to the call,

GAIA'S PREMIUM GLUCOSAMINE SULFATE

Relief from joint pain

Glucosamine sulfate is an essential component of joint, cartilage and synovial fluid, and it is required for the normal repair and regeneration of connective tissue. Deficiencies in glucosamine can lead to tissue weakness and a decrease in the cushioning ingredient of the joint fluids and surrounding tissues. Supplementation with 100% glucosamine sulfate has been associated with providing relief from joint problems and with exerting a healing effect on arthritic symptoms.

Lack of natural glucosamine in the body can leave cartilage unable to function as a shock absorber. This can cause joint pain and swelling. The body's inability to produce enough glucosamine sulfate is considered a major factor for the development of osteoporosis and osteoarthritis.

Benefits of Using The GAIA “Plan”

5/8/00—#1 (13-266)

RE: WHY THE GAIA “PLAN”: GOLD, SECURITY GUARANTEED, ABILITY TO USE IN ANY CIRCUMSTANCE APPROPRIATE, INTERNATIONAL CAPABILITY

MAY YOU WALK IN THE SHELTER OF HIS LIGHT, THAT NO SHADOW CAN FALL UPON YOUR BEING

May you also act in this your journey in such a manner that when your blessed Mother moves on, her legacy shall be that she bore you! The greatest gift a parent can receive is that their children reflect God, as they become the good shepherds of that which is entrusted unto them. Allow in every decision, that which you know would be an offering worthy of GOD as a Mother's gift unto that GOD CREATOR. Remember Mother's Day and keep it Holy, lest there is shame in her gift unto God.

Honor thy Father and thy Mother, that your days may be long and fruitful from the good and sweet tree of the orchard. As a Father and a Mother would lay down their very lives that you might have life—bring glory unto their name and a flame of dignity and self-worth in the reflection of that which you ARE.

And unto your children, bear well in mind, give them such honor unto yourself that they may present as the fine example to lead a world to freedom, as they assume their rightful legacy. “Things” have no value beyond the moment, but honor and respect endure through the eons of eternity.

YOU CANNOT CHANGE THE PAST—EXCEPT TO MAKE RESTITUTION IF YE HAVE WRONGED ANOTHER IN ANY WAY. HOWEVER, YOU SHALL NEVER BE TOO OLD TO SERVE GOD IN SUCH A WAY AS TO LEAVE A LEGACY UNTO ALL WHO COME AFTER YOU, THAT GOODNESS CAN REIGN UPON THE EARTH BECAUSE “YOU” PASSED THIS WAY!

Hatonn—Turning now to field some questions which continually are asked regarding GAIA shared assets:

LET US SPEAK OF GOLD IN THE FORM OF HARD METAL

It is obvious that the very substance of gold represents value upon which man has long based his measure of worth and which is a standard—global in recognition. So, we do not need to beat that topic into the ground further at this writing.

WHY DOES THE GAIA ASSET REQUIRE GOLD, IF THE VERY VALUE OF THE CONTRACT ITSELF IS BASED IN GOLD?

Because MAN is corrupt and will steal his very own assets while also denying all things, in order to hold for himself any worthy assets which might be connected to money or currency.

GAIA assets ARE GOLD, as in a “warehouse receipt”, but note, please, that in today's corrupted bankster system and derivative-type of speculation and gold manipulation, the warehouses are “short”, the banks are “short”, and it is now time to “show me the gold” while “never minding the money”. The GOLD has been stashed for and by the Elite, while the world people are stripped of all fundamental ability for “value” upon which to base their economic structures. Shifting around worthless paper pieces does not present anything except worthless pieces of paper.

The GAIA asset, for practical description of value, is a receipt for GOLD in the U.S. Treasury/Federal Reserve system. A Deed of Assignment is a representation of an amount of GOLD in warehouse, against the commodity itself. IT IS EXACTLY LIKE A WAREHOUSE RECEIPT OR VALUE RECEIPT FOR THE HARD METAL IT REPRESENTS. The OBLIGATION of the U.S.T./FED is to always HOLD IN SECURITY enough HARD GOLD to cover 100% the principle and interest accrued on the rightful debt—accepted and congressionally approved—of the GAIA holdings.

It is now proven, however, that such manipulation has taken place globally as to find that regardless of the laws, there is lacking almost all of the gold reserves for ANY purpose. Therefore, if a nation—say, the U.S. and/or the Federal Reserve—should bankrupt and come forth to say, “Oh, well, the gold is gone and we are bankrupt, so what are you going to do about it?”—you can, as holders and purchasers of gold equal to the amount of the Deed of Assignment in point, say, “Fine, you just work it out, Mr. FED, because we have our own collateral to back up the represented funds involved and to cover as collateral the projects funded, so you do whatever you wish but the debt is still due and owing.”

Bankruptcy does not negate the GAIA value and it cannot be “voted out” by Congress or any other entity on the face of the Earth. It stands, solidly based on GOLD.

Gold can be purchased from holders and HELD as hard collateral, while the deeds themselves can be presented as RESERVES. This may well present as “belt and suspenders” caretaking, but it removes any and all ability to manipulate, further, the assets, especially while establishing stability and shoring up the holding system to secure all transactions and bring forth total disclosure.

GAIA has no interest in what came BEFORE, but only, rather, in keeping total and detailed records and monitoring of that which is NOW established.

GAIA is prepared to offer as a guarantee to “gold holders” the security of a Deed of Assignment to INSURE protection, to allow for transfer, testing and security for all parties involved of the accounting, storage, transfer or warehousing of the gold presented as “collateral” for further backing, so that reserves are secured in the banking system to allow funds for projects to flow easily and properly, as credit lines backed by these collateral assignments. This allows the banks to hold the value, guarantee their own reserves and produce currency as needed for all building, construction and growth—as in projects—in increments, so that the projects are not buried in debt through interest on monies not necessary except when needed for use.

WHY DOES GAIA GET 50%?

GAIA doesn't get 50%. The country of funding literally gets a minimum of 90% for immediate value.

GAIA's “share” is held by the funding institution to back each project or Deed of Assignment issued, until such time as the instruments are secured and a working plan can be established in conjunction with the needs of any lender, funder or participant.

As gold increases in value—and it shall—the profits of such increase in value will be divided when gold doubles in market value. This becomes a major asset when growth—as expectations are that gold could easily reach even beyond $5,000/oz as value, globally—is established.

GAIA is a Global ALLIANCE being established and GAIA's portion will be utilized to fund same—globally. This demands equal equity in order to back nations and people who have need and projects but have no gold reserves or availability. This will ensure the ability of purchasing gold or precious commodities on the open market upon which to base any nation's economy.

GAIA demands that the concept of “free lunch” or “something for nothing” is wiped from the face of the Earth as a “concept”—for a Welfare State is a State enslaved by the Elite Manipulators.

GAIA has agreed with the Powers-that-Be that it shall not do domestic (U.S.) business at this time because of the MASSIVE size of the U.S. debt, and there is, frankly, nothing available in the U.S. upon which to base a gold system at the present moment. Arrangements have been established to resolve the problems in the U.S. through this property but without the overload of a demand, which could only be met with “Bankruptcy”. The fact is: The U.S. has been bankrupt, of record, since the 1930s. All “wealth” represented now is DEBT to the Elite Banksters now calling for FORECLOSURES.

The status of Constitutional Law is gone, readers. Constitutional requirements have been set aside since the onset of something(s) called “National Emergency”, “Domestic Emergency”, “War Powers Act”, etc.

In the United States of America, in the 1930s, Martial Law became the law and has never been reversed. This is continued annually by Presidential Decree, and in the U.S. it is based, lately, on BOSNIA and Kosovo and is extended annually to avoid congressional note. It is now an established part of the functioning Government.

GAIA assets allow a fundamental guarantee, while shoring it up WITH GOLD IN HARD METAL to stop any form of manipulation because the debt itself is PAYABLE IN GOLD.

The validity and value of the GAIA assets were established in the U.S. (and globally) through Executive Order/Presidential Decree, that any bonus bonds would be honored by the U.S. Government via congressional law on any such instruments issued prior to 1913 and the Federal Reserve Act. This has been tested by/through the Supreme Court of the United States of America.

Most documents, to protect guilty manipulators, have been destroyed, burned or buried—BUT THE RECORDS REMAIN, EVEN THOUGH SOME HAVE LITERALLY BEEN EXPUNGED FROM THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD ITSELF.

The GAIA assets were unlawfully used by President Bush and his colleagues. This does not negate the fact that the property is valid. The reserves are STILL being used unlawfully by some of the very most Elite manipulators.

THIS DOES NOT NEGATE IN ANY MEASURE THE LAWFUL OWNERSHIP OF GAIA. THIS LAWFUL OWNERSHIP HAS BEEN ENTERED INTO THE RECORDS OF VARIOUS STATES IN THE UNITED STATES AND THE APPROPRIATE NOTIFICATION AND DEMAND MADE AGAINST THE ASSETS REPRESENTED BY CONTRACT NO. 3392-181.

Gold is the basis of lawful payment of the debt and, therefore, gold will continue to be a base for evaluation of same as relative to ANY currency of any realm, thus standardizing the very value of any currency utilized.

WHAT IS THE VALUE OF USE OF SUCH RESERVE OR COLLATERAL?

Use of this GAIA “program” will cause any currency based thereon to have market “value”, which can be accepted anywhere on the globe as market currency and exchange.

THE GAIA DEEDS ONLY REQUIRE A STATEMENT—BY THE HEAD OF STATE, CENTRAL BANK, THE PEOPLE, THE “LENDERS”, ANYONE—THAT THEY ARE VALID HOLDINGS AS RESERVES AND/OR EXCHANGE.

In a national circumstance, let us example the Philippines: THE PRESIDENT CAN SIMPLY ANNOUNCE THAT GAIA RESERVES (DEEDS OF ASSIGNMENT) WILL BE ACCEPTED AS U.S. DEBT. THIS CAN BE INSTANTLY ACCOMPLISHED THROUGH EXECUTIVE ORDER OR PRESIDENTIAL DECREE.

This can also be established through the same declaration by the Central Bank of any nation. Or, it can be simply utilized “as is” by any bank—but must be honored through the Central Bank for the issuance of currency of the realm. The Philippines is a SOVEREIGN NATION but that is often overlooked, as the control by the foreign powers is so restricting as to be de facto government.

So, actually, the only act required in explanation is to DECLARE the documents valid and binding. The facts are that this establishes the VALUE consideration and with the use for the purchase of gold to also be placed for security, it never has to be considered further between the U.S. and any other agency or organization.

It would appear to the bearers of these instruments that, even accepting Philippine “time” as a basis for consideration, it is time for President Estrada to step forward and reclaim the SOVEREIGN NATION called the Philippines, DECLARE HIS ASSETS AND START REBUILDING THIS WONDERFUL NATION WITH THE WEALTH IT CONTAINS STASHED IN CAVES TO LATER BE STOLEN BY THE POWER-MASTERS.

This program gets assets into security, INCLUDING GOLD.

SUBSTITUTE IMF-TYPE OF CONSORTIUMS

Indeed, the very group forming in Southeast Asia—now being 13 nations in the area joining in coalition to assist one another through these difficult times of outside manipulation and take-over—can be totally, fully, 100% backed by GAIA reserves for the express purpose of strength, available wealth for building, securing and defending the economies and project potential of all involved nations. This type of coalition will be honored as a part of the Global Alliance Association as to backup support but GAIA will NOT involve itself within the actual use or operations of said coalition.

YOU DO NOT WANT TO—EVEN IF YOU THINK YOU DO—REPLACE A SYSTEM THAT COULD, WITH CHANGE OF PARTICIPANTS, EVOLVE A TYRANNICAL POWER TO SUPPLANT THE ONE ALREADY IN POWER.

THERE MUST BE ESTABLISHED THROUGH PUBLIC LAW, WELL MONITORED AND TOTALLY OPEN FOR SCRUTINY, A SYSTEM OF PROTECTION OF SOVEREIGN NATIONS AND THEIR ECONOMIES.

MAN IS THE SOVEREIGN ONE INDIVIDUAL TO BE HELD IN CONSIDERATION THROUGH THESE “LAWS” AND REGULATIONS. THE COALITION AND “VALUE” IS FOR “MAN”—NOT FOR GOVERNMENTS. IT MUST, HOWEVER, BEGIN WITH A NATION DECLARING SOVEREIGNTY.

WHEN EACH NATION IS WEALTHY IN ITSELF, IT NEEDS NO WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION WHICH CAN DESTROY IT IN A FELL-SWOOP OF ENTANGLEMENTS AND STRANGULATIONS, AS PERPETRATED AT THE WHIM OF POWER BROKERS.

HOW DO YOU START SUCH A MASSIVE PROGRAM?

No problem! There are in the Philippines enough documents (DEEDS) out—and ready for beginning of construction, industrialization, public improvements through private corporations, foundations and co-ops—to serve the entire area of Southeast Asia, including the Government debts and concerns.

GAIA and THE PEOPLE have already structured a fully organized plan by individual citizens to move, THIS VERY DAY, totally based on value with recognition of resources of backup gold availability—to literally start building TODAY.

This will totally wipe out poverty in the time it takes to get food to those poor citizens and get organized to give them jobs in building their own nation from its infrastructure up through its glory as the new NATION under God, with liberty and JUSTICE for ALL.

IF MAN IS NOT WILLING TO DO THIS JOB— GOD IS!

When the “ability” for corruption is REMOVED, the corruption will stop, for MAN wants to be productive, honorable and have self-esteem—so the corrupters, WITH THE CORRUPTION, will fall away as they are replaced by total integrity and VALUE. The grafters and manipulators will fall away—or even, as remote as it may seem, get a job and earn their way.

If there are debts owed to those who supported political campaigns, etc., let us get them paid and released, and then never again should any politician run for office in the manners now established. Let us release the leaders from the terrible hostage bondage of political terrorism.

WILL THIS SOLVE PROBLEMS SUCH AS EXIST IN MINDANAO?

YES. When the citizens have enough on which to feed and grow, the allowance of terrorists and criminal elements will be disallowed. The “excuses” presented by the Evil Satanic groups will be totally negated to null and void, and they shall be exposed as the honorable men and women they ARE—or they shall expose themselves as the Demonic Terrorists they ARE.

When this happens and the foreign manipulators, providers and enablers are recognized and put out, the unrest and destruction will cease. The foreign support in arms for the Mindanao rebels is NOT COMING FROM SOMETHING SO WATCHED AS A BIN LADEN, SILLY OBSERVERS. The power, AND THE ARMS, are being supplied DIRECTLY from such as Israel and the United States of America. If an army has NO GUNS OR AMMUNITION, there is no war, my friends, for no rebel is caring enough to go to war these days with spears and sticks. Only the patriot or man with self-esteem will defend with such weapons—and thus the need for the removal of all defensive things from the hands of the citizens.

WHO IS WILLING TO TAKE A STAND IN RIGHTEOUSNESS? I GUESS WE HAVE YET TO SEE, HAVEN'T WE?

“The time of the Lord” as taught in every religion, even Satanism, IS AT HAND! MAN IS DESTINED TO PREVAIL IN HIS RIGHTEOUS WAY—IF HE BUT ACCEPTS THAT WHICH GOD OFFERS UNTO HIM FOR HIS USE IN THIS DAY OF RECKONING.

God walks with you, you know, so isn't it time you took HIS hand and walked with HIM?

Salu and good morning,

Messages, Instructions To Immediate Coworkers

5/9/00—#1 (13-267)

RE: VISITS, COLEMAN WRITINGS/BOOKS, GAIANDRIANA, MOTORHOME REQUESTS, PROPERTY (TEHA), ETC.

Hatonn—We would like to cover quite a few topics this morning to allow us a little closer view of this mountain we are climbing. While some wait, we simply have to take one step at a time and it will help if we all head off in the same direction—without, preferably, pushing one another off the side of the mountain.

VISITS TO MANILA BY ANY COWORKERS DO NOT PUSH THIS RIVER—AT ALL!

We have not sent forth a general invitation to anyone and this is for security. Some are now “in touch” with us, ready, willing and able to descend on Manila “to help”, “vacation”, “flow” (whatever that might mean) and yet, at this moment, THIS IS THE MOST DANGEROUS THING YOU—ANY OF YOU—COULD POSSIBLY DO. NO, PLEASE!

Thank you, who work directly with us daily, for getting travel requirements attended—HOWEVER, at this time, there are NO FUNDS and with the push to get passports and visas, there is a “behind-the-scenes by surveillance people” reported “intention of mass push for movement of the Phoenix people”. This is a hazard to the people and a true setback to our immediate work.

Just get things in order if you would consider a visit, or whatever, and certainly—when the time is appropriate—there can be a type of group tour AS TOURISTS that would require very, very few visits, even with Ekkers.

At the present time, the ones most willing to travel to help us in Manila are really not getting along in Tehachapi and under these stresses it would be a made-to-order—by the enemy—explosion of tempers, self-defense and, frankly, offense.

My suggestion is, to the “crew”: Don’t waste a centavo or 10 seconds on such considerations as some kind of migration flight to an expected Paradise, when you are going to encounter some type of hell.

ONLY intended news gets to the U.S. and almost all of that is MISSED. Right now, U.S. citizens (including visitors) are targets under full fire and are asked to NOT TRAVEL IN THE PHILIPPINES. So, all, at best, that could be offered is a trip to the Mall across the street, which looks more like downtown Bakersfield than Southeast Asia.

We are working DIRECTLY with the top-level people in this country and security will NOT be jeopardized.

The “terrorists” mean what they say and the sordid facts are that they plan a major offensive reaching beyond Mindanao. Get a map, so you know what that means. These nice and gentle guys and dolls do the following little tricks while terrifying with games of “kill you”. They behead captives—AFTER they mutilate the bodies, which are still alive and well. They have now gouged out eyes (both), so that the prisoners are blind; they pull out the toenails and fingernails in pure acts of brutality; they have cut off the breasts of female teachers whom they have hostage.

They have hostages still in bathing suits, with no protection against elements or insects; they march the people from jungle/mountain place to place barefoot; they feed, if at all, only once daily a bit of rice without potable water and you can guess what they are doing to the young girls and boys. (They took hostage “students”.) These games are not to extract information, as in war. This is just for kicks.

You need to know that the last batch of 20-something is a group of visitors to Sabah (Borneo) in one of their best resorts and then moved to the Jungles of Sulu, divided up and are now stashed here and there in unknown places but held in incredibly bad situations. They have allowed a doctor in and a few pictures with a promise to kill the hostages photographed. When a hostage gets bothersome, they are tortured and then executed by beheading or a shot to the nape of the neck.

There can be no notice of anyone visiting, for Ekkers are under 24-hours-a-day surveillance and guard, and any excuse whatsoever necessary would be used to stop visitation, and the inspections at the airport would be intense. It already takes at least two hours to get through airport clearance and now the security has been so beefed up as to negate anybody’s “vacation” ideas. At the present time, they have doubled up on bomb-sniffer AND drug-sniffer dogs, whereat the airport more nearly resembles a police-dog training ground.

I would suggest that when you come visit, finally, that you get ALL NEW luggage, especially if anyone else you don’t KNOW has borrowed it. One whiff of pot or illegal drug of ANY KIND and the party is immediately held, the luggage literally TORN UP—AND EXPLANATIONS DON’T COUNT. If there are “suspects”, then, at your own expense, you will undergo urine tests and then blood tests, if any positive substance is noted.

No, this is not a joke and was set into regulation this past Saturday, for there have been major threats and the terrorists have literally published a list of where they will strike and so far they have hit every target.

Therefore, if one or two businesspersons came it might be appropriate, but not to visit Ekkers more than casually. You will soon see WHY.

We will be getting “there” soon enough but as far as “plans” go, there can’t be any made with any hope at all of keeping to a schedule. So, since passports are issued in 10-year increments, just be prepared if you would wish to visit, while also remembering that until we get funding, there are no resources to assist anyone with anything—and most especially not with a “vacation trip to paradise”.

Some of the meanest things dumped on the people currently are meningitis and bubonic carrying (intentionally infected) mosquitoes to coincide with the nice summer vacations, when you are prior to monsoon and the temperatures are in the upper 90s. Manila and Makati are suffering daily “brownouts” to add to the misery. THE PHILIPPINES IS UNDER ATTACK FROM EVERY DIRECTION WITH ALL THE AMMUNITION THAT CAN BE GARNERED BY THE “NEW WORLD” THUGS. THE MAJOR INCIDENTS ARE INTENDED TO TOPPLE THE ADMINISTRATION AND IT IS UGLY.

This needs documenting please, Ron. AGAIN, NCH has done a nasty number on us. PRESIDENT ESTRADA SENT PEOPLE TO NCH TO GET INFORMATION AS TO THE STATUS OF GAIA. OH, WOW, NOBODY EVER HEARD OF THE CORPORATION. This is not amusing: We have people working daily with legal teams and investigators. One reason it has taken a full additional year to get anything done was because there were prior visits to NCH—where the same thing happened, if anyone cares to recall it.

This is now a full-blown focus on the business dealings of one, NCH, for the information can be verified through the State. However, this is one more poison arrow which cannot be overlooked THIS TIME. AND, it only took an hour to get back to source. THIS IS BAD BUSINESS, MR. CHRISTIE.

Worse, on a PERSONAL BASIS, RON KIRZINGER: There were special inquiries about “Ron” and the answers were NOT GOOD. I would think that some of you would most certainly get your bellies full of this crap and consider some “action”, if nothing more than a good hard talk with Mr. Christie. It is not appropriate that we do anything in Manila about this matter, lest we look so foolish as to collapse the good, sound bridge now RE-built from the bombs of NCH’s other, prior hits.

Who is responsible? If you own a company, YOU ARE!

I will tell you what is determined here regarding this incident in point. It is recognized through registration and standing that GAIA is in good shape—but NCH, INC. is recognized as a PROBABLE intelligence operation and screen. I am not going to offer details, for security reasons—just document a “general” incident. CORT IS A FRONT SET-UP AND DOESN’T EVEN SEEM TO KNOW IT. Those nice “inquirers” were directly from Mr.

Estrada, the PRESIDENT, sleepyheads, of the Philippines, and probably only one of the most important single persons in Southeast Asia. The question right now might well be: "Is anybody in there?"

As to ongoing problems with funds, I have two pieces of input. The twin [plane] of Dr. Bart's is not worth the price of fixing up until it can be done right and, therefore, would be of little interim help as to immediate cash.

The other should be used—NOT sold. We are working out something to help but right now we just need a little relief.

Having talked with Chuck on Sunday, we are also now aware that in the "dumped" stuff on the south lot on Adam Drive were the pictures of family events from the children's childhood and personal events. Chuck's prom pictures, etc. were ruined, he said, and couldn't be salvaged. It is probable that those pictures referred to could be saved, even if in bad condition.

As to the possible sale of the property, I cannot believe that such outright breach of legal matters "could" take place, but who knows—and the deeper they dig the hole, fine!

As to the coach—DO NOT SELL. Please ask Gene to see to getting the smaller things fixed, i.e. the ignition and whatever else it might need of small things. EKKERS WILL LIVE IN IT, PREFERABLY IN FRONT OF THE DWELLINGS OF OUR FRIENDS ON A ROTATING BASIS AND, AS WELL, ON THE SOUTH LOT, WHERE THEY CAN PULL POWER FROM THE GENERATOR POWERED BY THE FUEL IN THE DIESEL TANK. That would reduce the contents for moving the thing and provide power to the coach. Part of the time the coach can be set up right at the Apple Center parking lot for the world to witness. In fact, it could occasionally be parked there, if desirable. Either way, we do not wish to sell it now, for it will have good use as interim "housing".

Gene has told us that the junk is now off the south lot—BUT, there were some things (perhaps 20% of the things) that would have been WANTED BUT ARE NOW GONE. All had sat in the weather for at least four months, so were likely greatly damaged, as there were some rainstorms.

Gene and Chuck were asked to go pick up the remaining FIREWOOD which was on the south property and BELONGED TO US but was being constantly used by such as Bilger, et al. When they went to get it, Bilger was at the house and did come out and take pictures and CALLED THE POLICE. The officers were nice but document this, for there was also a GOOD wood rack, which is now gone. That south lot is IESC property and this is just one more thing to document. Most of the wood had been taken and used.

Ron, please get in touch with Coleman and ask for written permission (e-mail is fine) to print his "Betrayal of the Philippines" article here in Manila.

We can give permission, but it would be a real feather in Coleman's cap and well rewarded out there quite shortly if he gave a personal permission statement. It should say: "E.J. Ekker has my express authorization to offer and utilize my article written in 1985 entitled 'Betrayal of the Philippines' in any way that is beneficial to the Philippines as he so deems it, with the expectation that I will be commensurately compensated."

This is something all of you must always realize when you seemingly bat "0" all the time. But it is that which is unexpected that fits the puzzle that makes 100% positive input to the overall realization of TRUTH. And no, this is not connected, at the least not yet, with Erick San Juan, so don't err in recognizing him personally.

It would be really good for us to have a few "300" books to share and John's other books on hand. We can't deal with the load of newsletters, for we are bombed out in workload. I am speaking of only one of the "others" and a couple, say, of "300".

It is hoped to conclude some minor assistance plans before or by the end of this month, which would help with rentals, phone bills, etc. Just hold strong, God's delays are not HIS denials. We have to attend one thing at a time as we move into more comprehensive potentials.

There should now be consideration given to the possibility of mounting that generator at Adam Drive ON WHEELS, as in a small, heavy-duty trailer to make it better utilized as a mobile unit, at the least for the coach. There will be plenty of other uses if it is made available and movable. The trailer should "fit" the size and not just be mounted on the first trailer available. This is not a rush, so let's do it RIGHT, please. And further, do not spend any needed funds on same. We are moving right along now and these are just good things to be working on when convenient. Gene and Chuck can work out removal—when the time comes—with Millers, and leave the antagonism out of it, as to Tehachapi players. They (Millers) will NOT be hateful, except on the surface, to immediate Ekker family. At present, we WANT those tanks and that generator right where they ARE, please.

Please, Margie or Ellen, call Debbie and thank her for "Mom's" letter and card, along with the bouquet of roses.

Also please thank John and Jean R. for the beautiful crystal. I ask that E-E refrain from direct acknowledgement on the e-mail until such time as the hacking is better under control here. [E.J.: The crystal is beyond my words—she carries it with her, it is so beautiful.]

The NEWS DESK is so pertinent these days that it would be a real cherry plucked to block ability to present that information. Also, we have to protect the "product" and keep that "distancing" from V.K. Durham because the Big Boys are all over her trail and she has finally been pronounced "crazy". And NO, they are not pronouncing us as anything but valid and serious, which is ever so much the more hazardous.

PERSONAL, TO E.J.: KEEP YOUR HANDS

OFF ANY "COMMODITY" PRESENTED FOR YOUR INSPECTION. YOU WILL NOT BE IN ANY LOOP OF ANY TRANSACTIONS AS TO PERSONAL INVOLVEMENT. NONE!!

All business MUST be totally open and secured by proper transactions limited to the input you ordinarily offer. You will not be able to tell a fraudulent manipulation/sting operation from a clean and good one, so stay out of it—totally—and make sure every player is fully informed of same. Privacy is not in point, your personal participation IS. RESTUDY the rules of the play and who is responsible for what portion of a given venture and STAY OUT OF THE LOOP OF THE OTHER SIDE'S RESPONSIBILITIES—CLEAN AND CLEAR! We are IN THE HOME STRETCH and we will allow NOTHING foolish to jeopardize ANYTHING.

You can offer "the way" as to how it works and could work, and make recommendations as to participants, BUT YOU WILL STAY OUT OF ANY PERSONAL CONSIDERATIONS. FURTHERMORE, IT IS NOT YOUR BUSINESS WHO BUYS OR SELLS GOLD. IF OUR PEOPLE KNOW OF BUYERS AND THE PARTIES HOLDING COMMODITIES PREFER TO NOT TRUST THE CENTRAL BANK OR OTHER BANKS, THEN DO NOT HOLD OUT FOR CENTRAL BANK—EXCEPT FOR STATING THE DESIRABILITY OF HELPING THE PHILIPPINES. YOU ARE BEING PERSONALLY OBSERVED AND TESTED, SO STAY OUT OF THOSE TYPES OF NEGOTIATIONS, OTHER THAN WITH AN "OPINION" OF HOW A THING MIGHT BE BETTER HANDLED. THIS IS URGENTLY IMPORTANT, FOR I SEE YOU BEING PUT IN A POSITION OF MAKING STATEMENTS AND HAVING SOME—EVEN IF MINOR—INVOLVEMENT IN TRANSFERS. THE ONLY THING WE TRANSFER ARE MOAs AND VALID DEEDS OF ASSIGNMENT! [E.J.: AYE, AYE, SIR, SUCH A PLEASURE FOR ME.]

There are more than plenty of Philippine citizens to handle anything that might come up without your involvement. [E.J.: AMEN.]

This is sufficient for personal input, because it is now coming OUT in the paper by the top-level military officers that it is now fully recognized that the CIA may be behind all the horror and terror in Mindanao. I want this documented in our own writings, Dharma, so let us plan to cover some bits and pieces of the news presented here and NOW. Estrada will be coming back shortly from his inspection of the "war zone" and we will get on with our task at hand. These things will strengthen his commitment and realization more than anything we could ever offer on the matter.

Mark was to look into some matters for Ekkers and we should have heard back but have not, so, Rex, please follow up.

Thank you and, again, hold strong, we are getting there! GCH

IMF, WTO And Banking Observations From Asia

PHILIPPINE OBSERVATIONS

Hatonn—Being totally uninvolved other than as visitors in a foreign land, it appears that nobody can actually see what is taking place or, at the least, connect the dots to one another to form a picture.

Some days the simple task of getting up to witness the next daylight version of the massive and overwhelming concert being played out by orchestras in full discord is too much for the brain to handle in the sorting process. To cover it all adequately would require a thousand-page book a day, which would then ensure that NOBODY would read it.

So, to a bit of humor, perhaps, in the viewing while realizing that nothing is “funny” but is totally outrageous.

I don't have to go very far to see the absurdities presented and probably neither does anyone else, except the poor folk, like the President of the country who is, after all, just trying his best to simply survive, while the enemies in his own Cabinet and Government try to dump him on the trash heap, undermine everything he does, the media attempt to destroy him and yea, after all, what else is taking place.

Example item:

[QUOTING, excerpts from the Press, Philippines, May 11, 2000:]

$1.1-BILLION SAN ROQUE DAM NOT ECONOMICALLY FEASIBLE, SAYS STUDY

The $1.1-BILLION San Roque Multipurpose Project is not economically feasible and will only result in the Government paying P400 million [$10 million] A MONTH to a private consortium “regardless of whether [or not] there is sufficient water available to generate power”.

[H: In addition, get the following, and it will really mean something to anyone who is in the energy business or more especially the “alternative” energy business. But what does a nation do when the contracts have already been signed?]

Under a Power Purchase Agreement (PPA), the Philippine Government through the National Power Corp. (NAPOCOR) will be buying electricity from the San Roque Power Corp. (SRPC) at P13 to P21 per kilowatt-hour (kWh). THE SAME ELECTRICITY WILL BE SOLD BY NAPOCOR IN ITS LUZON GRID (highest among the grids) AT ROUGHLY P3 per kWh. [P1 roughly equals $0.025.]

“The Project is a publicly-subsidized construction contract, which will compensate the developer during project life even in the event of low generation and/or absence of a market for the produced power,” White said. “Not only does the private-sector participation not demonstrate economic viability, the reliance on subsidy suggests that the project is not economically feasible in its own right.”

NAPOCOR was scheduled to draw $210 million last December as the first tranche of a $400 million loan from the Japan Export-Import Bank (JEXIM). Another $600 million is programmed for the non-power component of the San Roque Multipurpose Project, which will reportedly be extended by the Overseas Economic Cooperation Fund (OECF).

Other Government agencies involved in the San Roque Project are the National Irrigation Administration, the Department of Public Works and Highways, the Department of Finance, the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and the Department of Budget and Management.

The private consortium is composed of Marubeni Corp. of Japan, Sithe Philippines Holdings (A DIVISION OF SITHE ENERGIES OF THE U.S. and Kansai Electric Corp. of Japan).

White pointed out that despite the impending privatization of NAPOCOR, “The Philippine Government WILL STILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR GUARANTEEING THAT THE SAN ROQUE PROJECT GETS PAID ACCORDING TO THE ONEROUS TERMS UNDER THE PPA.”

The anticipated losses resulting from the onerous contract between the Independent Power Producer (IPP) and NAPOCOR will add to the already ballooning stranded costs the Government will have to shoulder due to the nearly 40 IPP contracts, the study said.

Of the more than P625 billion NAPOCOR liabilities, roughly a third is said to be made up of stranded costs directly related to its contractual obligations with the IPPs.

Dr. Wayne White of the Foresight Associates, U.S.A. [commented] on the multipurpose project, which includes a dam and power plant located at the Agno River in Pangasinan. The power plant will have a generation capacity of 245-megawatts (MW).

[END OF QUOTING]

Does anyone REALLY wonder at the poor decisions made by the Native Americans in their dealings with the Big White Brothers? Oh, and by the way—don't be misled by Japan-U.S. “stuff”—IT IS ALL THE VERY SAME THING, JUST SCATTERED TO PROTECT THE GUILTY. NO FOREIGN INVESTOR CAN OWN MORE THAN 60 PERCENT OF A COMPANY IN THE PHILIPPINES—OR IF YOU ARE NOT A CORPORATION IN THE PHILIPPINES, YOU CAN ONLY OWN 40 PERCENT. HENCE, THE PUSH OF ESTRADA SOME MONTHS AGO TO GET AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION TO ALLOW FULL, 100% OWNERSHIP OF COMPANIES IN THE PHILIPPINES—AND, OF COURSE, THE PRIVATIZATION OF CORPORATIONS, BANKS, ETC.

CHINA

Ah, so, what of China in the mega-bank mess? Well, it is all entangled with Spratley Islands problems, Taiwan problems and some kind of a working agreement regarding BANKS.

But how does it generally work out? Well: [QUOTING, “NOT BUSINESS AS USUAL”, By Margaret Jao-Grey:]

ANYBODY BUT MR. ESTRADA'S FRIEND

Banks notes 1: As an act of courtesy, the Central Bank of the People's Republic of China has asked President Estrada to name the Philippine commercial bank which will be allowed to engage in full-branch banking in China. Naturally, Mr. Estrada has asked for the recommendation of the Economic Coordinating Committee (ECC), among whose members are the country's top two economic managers—Bangko Sentral Gov. Rafael Buenaventura and Finance Secretary Jose Pardo.

Well, the ECC has made its recommendation and Mr. Estrada has approved the choice. One of the criteria set by the ECC is that, as much as possible, its recommendee-bank will not be criticized for having gotten the China license because of close personal ties to the President.

The documents allowing one Philippine commercial bank to do business in China and one China commercial bank to do business in the Philippines will be formally signed during Mr. Estrada's state visit next week to China. Included in the President's entourage are ALLIED BANKING CORP., MAJORITY STOCKHOLDER LUCIO TAN AND THE METROPOLITAN BANK AND TRUST CO. MAJORITY STOCKHOLDER, GEORGE S.K. TY. Mr. Tan, who is concurrent President of the Federation of Filipino-Chinese Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Inc., has significant investments in China. [H: Well, yes, I guess so, as Mr. Tan is Chinese and a MAJOR TAIWAN.] With four branches, Mr. Ty's Metrobank has the strongest Philippine bank network in Taiwan (considered by China AS ONE OF ITS PROVINCES).

[END OF QUOTING]

Anyone recognize the rock and/or the hard place? NEXT, we shall look at the third point on the triangle of rock, hard place and total picket fence.

You are also going to SEE CLEARLY why there was a push and need to bring 100% foreign ownership of businesses in the Philippines. Look for the clues and keep your pencils ready to draw those lines between the dots. PLEASE NOTE THE PLAYERS:

[QUOTING from the Philippine Star, Business Section, May 12, 2000:]

GOV'T. DEFERS SALE OF PNB

Government has decided to postpone the privatization of Philippine National Bank (PNB) for one month, or from the original schedule of May 26 to June 26, to give interested buyers more time to conduct a due diligence on the bank and await the signing into law of the General Banking Act (GBA), Finance Secretary Jose T. Pardo announced yesterday.

Government has asked the International Monetary Fund (IMF) to agree to an extension, while Taipan LUCIO TAN, who holds 30 percent of PNB, will also be asked to agree to an extension.

The IMF, Pardo said, has agreed to the postponement to ensure a transparent and successful sale of the former Government bank. [H: Anyone who believes that, I have some bridges...]

The revised GBA must be in effect before the sale is conducted, so the prospective foreign bidders could qualify for 100-percent foreign ownership. Under existing laws, foreign ownership of a local bank is allowed only to a maximum of 60 percent IF THE FOREIGN ENTITY INCORPORATES LOCALLY, or just up to 40 percent if it is a purchase of equity.

Pardo said the schedule for prequalification and payment for any bidding fees will also be moved accordingly.

He said that at least one local bank had paid the fee to the Government but several interested bidders have expressed interest in PNB.

To date, there are two local banks interested in bidding for PNB, PLUS TWO U.S.-BASED entities, one of which is a bank and the other is a financial-services firm.

Meanwhile, the SEC is exempting the PNB from its tender-offer rules, which require investors buying more than 51 percent of a listed company to offer shares to minority shareholders.

The Commission En Banc said it approved PNB's exemption from the tender-offer rules to be consistent with its previous positions in the case of earlier bank buyouts and mergers such as the acquisition of 72 percent of Philippine Commercial International Bank (PCI Bank) by Equitable Bank, the merger of Bank of the Philippine Islands and Far East Bank and Trust Co. and, more recently, Metropolitan Bank and Trust Co.'s acquisition of Solidbank Corp.

With the approval, the winning bidder for PNB will not be required to undertake a post-acquisition tender offer to minority shareholders.

Finance Undersecretary Cornelio Gison asked SEC Chairman Lilia Bautista through the money-market operations of the regulator, that the tender-offer rules should not apply to the sale by PNB and tycoon Lucio Tan or their respective buyers.

The SEC's approval on the exemption from tender-offer rules is required, especially since the SEC has yet to come up with revisions of the existing tender-offer rules that would ensure fair play for parties interested in acquiring shares of a company.

[END OF QUOTING]

Meanwhile, back at the war in Mindanao: The foreigners have replaced the Philippine officials dealing with the criminals holding hostages—

WHICH, by the way—there will be much more coming out in the storm of SCANDAL, because....

Ah, yes, it is now fully clear to the people that there was a major Intelligence Operation which took place in the seizure of hostages from Borneo (Sabah, Malaysia), and guess what: It is that the CIA and affiliates structured the abductions in connection with some Filipino workers and "possibly" the American couple, who happened to be the ONLY ones not captured and who somehow just got away into hiding while everyone else was TAKEN. Malaysia is upset and has tossed out hundreds of Filipinos (undocumented) from the area and put a gunship offshore.

Now, this is not so very interesting in its own light, but the facts that the "old" crew of the Government and the Vice President are fresh back from U.S. tutoring and Ms. V.P. was to have handled the Mindanao events while Ex-President Ramos just gave advice after advice THROUGH THE PAPERS AND MEDIA, pushing Estrada into a focus of absurdity right down to knocking the badge on his uniform, which states Commander in Chief.

There is SHAME to be shared in the Philippines but it is not of the President. Now, with the above writings in point, regarding such a major, important move with China, the push is to confuse Estrada's necessary trip to China as being without merit and show that he is somehow "running out" on his nation in trouble; while, by the way, leaving the mess in the capable hands of this V.P., set, it is said, to topple Mr. Estrada.

Oh, no, I am NOT kidding. Let us offer just a bit on that topic from the Internet.

[QUOTING, Stratfor.com, May 4, 2000:]

CONFUSION IN MANILASummary

Philippine Vice President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo was set to meet with hostage-takers in the southern Philippines, despite objections by President Joseph Estrada. While most of the first set of hostages held by the extremist Abu Sayyaf have now been released, it appears that the group is very astutely playing on divisions within the Government in Manila, as are leaders of other Muslim groups. The rebels are hoping that the current crisis can be used to alter the power structure in Manila.

Analysis

On May 3, extremist Abu Sayyaf group's spokesman, Abu Sabaya, contacted Philippine Vice President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo by telephone to discuss the release of Philippine hostages being held by the group on the southern island of Basilan. The group offered to release the hostages being held on Basilan to Arroyo so that negotiations can focus next on a group of foreign hostages on the southern island of Jolo.

Macapagal-Arroyo's participation in the negotiations was abruptly cut short by Estrada. Press Sec. Ronaldo Puno told reporters that Macapagal-Arroyo had permission to talk to Abu Sayyaf and deliver messages to Estrada—but nothing more. A firefight between the military and hostage-takers has since led to the release of 15 captives on Basilan. And Macapagal-Arroyo's involvement became a "non issue", her spokesman, Bobby Capco, told Business World.

THE HOSTAGE SITUATION IN THE SOUTH APPEARS TO ADD STRESS TO THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND HIS VICE PRESIDENT. FOR SOME TIME, MACAPAGAL-ARROYO HAD ADOPTED A LOW-PROFILE ROLE BEHIND ESTRADA. BUT FOLLOWING A TRIP ABROAD IN EARLY APRIL, SHE HAS RECENTLY BECOME MORE VOCAL, CALLING ON THE GOVERNMENT TO ASSESS WHETHER IT IS ADEQUATELY ADDRESSING THE NEEDS OF THE POOR OR JUST THE POWERFUL. SOME OF ESTRADA'S PARTY MEMBERS ARE CONCERNED THAT ARROYO IS CLANDESTINELY WORKING TO BRING DOWN THE PRESIDENT.

Beleaguered by accusations of cronyism, tepid foreign investment and an escalating conflict in the south, Estrada faces a potential challenge from Macapagal-Arroyo. His popular Vice President also happens to be from the OPPOSITION Lakas Party. Giving Macapagal-Arroyo a prominent role in any negotiations would only add to her popular support if she were able to accomplish an end to the standoff that Estrada—through the military—has been unable to achieve.

Abu Sayyaf is not the only group using the hostilities to take advantage of the political instability in Manila. The established Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF) broke a cease-fire with the Government on April 30 after the military continued to mass forces around its base, Camp Abubakar. MILF leaders have reportedly said that they are preparing to defend themselves against the Government.

[END OF QUOTING]

I have chosen to end the quoting [of that report] at this point, for I am not interested in causing any more grief than is already fomenting in this painful operation to "Take the Philippines".

It is so much easier to see the game in play from a better vantage point than 9000 miles away. Now you get some idea of how a foreign journalist or analyst has to juggle and struggle to put any kind of order into the ongoing chaos.

Now we are going to move on to the real problems and take a good, square and, hopefully, objective look at who is doing this unsettling operation—the actual puppet-master at work.

For this next observation I will just present an article by James Harrer from The SPOTLIGHT, May 1, 2000.

WORLD BANKERSWANT FREE REIGN OVER WORLD

TREASURY CHIEF, BANKERS, GOP BIGWIGS SCHEME TO REFLOAT SUNKEN MULTILATERAL AGREEMENT ON INVESTMENT (MAI).

U.S. Treasury Secretary Lawrence Summers, in an alliance with Republican congressional leaders, is trying to bring back the discredited Multilateral Agreement on Investment (MAI) through a hidden trapdoor.

A congressionally chartered Washington braintrust known as the International Financial Institution Advisory Commission (IFIAC) chaired by Prof. Allan Meltzer, an arch-conservative economist, has come up with a set of proposed reforms designed to “improve” the way the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank operate. This comes just in time for the spring meeting of these two institutions.

Behind the closed doors of their Washington headquarters, the assembled global bankers held “intense” discussions of the changes proposed by the congressional reform commission.

A pivotal measure proposed by the Meltzer commission would mandate that in the future the IMF and the World Bank (WHOSE NAME WOULD BE CHANGED TO WORLD DEVELOPMENT AGENCY) could extend loans or grants only to applicants that “pre-qualify” for funding.

To “pre-qualify”, a nation must agree to lift all domestic curbs or regulatory limitations on the free flow of international investments, precisely the key issue on which MAI was floated by the global financial elites—and sunk by opponents defending their national jurisdictions.

WHY MAI ALREADY FAILED

“The global financial initiative known as MAI is their favorite project,” said retired bond analyst Roger Luckman. “It would wipe out the limited authority governments may still possess to curb frenzied speculation, flimflam junk-bond swindles, market-rigging, currency manipulation and similar popular scams in their jurisdictions.”

Under MAI, regulatory structures would be abolished or suspended to ensure that international capital enjoys unfettered free flow around the world. These banking regulations were administered by public officials whose job it is to maintain a measure of order and fairness in the financial markets.

But well aware that this would make them vulnerable to predatory hot-money schemes, raids by Wall Street speculators intent on wrecking the payments systems of smaller economies and other schemes of the global financial elites, enough nations opposed MAI to defeat the measure last year.

In response to the initiative, Dr. Walid Nashabi, a former World Bank economist, now financial adviser to a group of Lebanese financial firms in New York City, warned: “This is another cunning, underhanded ‘cover and deception’ operation by Larry Summers, the most devious American Treasury chief I can remember. It must be resisted, just as MAI was.”

[END OF QUOTING]

Well, “the most devious...” is a bit of an overstatement, since such as Mr. Bentsen with George Bush got some things accomplished that ensured they could direct the entire package through a “SuperFund” they established but which somehow ended up in “Global’s” hands. But I think it becomes pretty obvious that nobody dares buck the “system” and thus they keep everything pretty well “contained”.

World, welcome to slavery.

Ah, but some of the world does NOT want to move into another Puppet-Masters’ slave camp—they want their own operation.

A warning: China is interesting in ongoing operations and remember that a gracious Chinaman may well bow and smile right to you—but I suggest you not get carried away.

The U.S. has the ultimate problems in confrontation. You have the Israelis having taken top-secret weapons directions and sold them, as is their method around the globe, and the Chinese can now nuclear bomb even the United States without needing to go abroad.

As for the Philippines in this picture? Well, the U.S. HAS NO OTHER POSSIBILITY OF BASES IN SOUTHEAST ASIA—SHORT OF AUSTRALIA, ETC. This is very serious, indeed. And, ah, but—

Doesn’t anyone KNOW that a military base, airport, etc., is being brought right up to top-level technology for the U.S. at General Santos City, Philippines? Oh, no? A big NAVAL BASE (U.S.) is also being built right there also. Golly-gee-whiz, isn’t it amazing what nobody knows—especially the leaders of your own nations?

By the way, number two: The Mindanao “war” is staged to do exactly what is happening in the Middle East—TO START A MAJOR CIVIL WAR, so that U.S. or UN troops can be “begged for intervention”. It is obviously spread before you, as you who have paid attention through the years to actual happenings can see this one a mile away, coming like an out-of-control bulldozer.

But, with all the blather and name changes, etc., WHAT EXACTLY ARE THE WORLD BANK, IMF, WTO? Starting with the:

WORLD BANK GROUP

Founded in 1944 at the Bretton Woods meeting, the World Bank Group was originally tasked with providing loans to assist in post-WW II reconstruction. It is made up of five institutions: the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the International Development Association, the International Finance Corporation, the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency and the International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes. Since then, the World Bank has become a huge, bloated financial institution, lending nearly $30 billion to poor countries annually. Critics of the World Bank charge that the Bank is managed by a staff of incompetents who operate in utter secrecy and answer to no one. By lending to debtor nations where criminal investors and international thieves wantonly pillage the financial systems, detractors say it wastes U.S. taxpayers’ dollars and worsens the economies of countries.

INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND

The IMF was created in 1944 at Bretton Woods as the so-called “guardian of the global economy”, ensuring that nations’ exchange rates pegged to the gold standard stayed within set values. But after Richard Nixon suspended the gold standard, the IMF lost its raison d’être. Since then, the Fund has primarily become a lender of last resort for cash-strapped countries.

Much of the criticism of the IMF stems from its practice of conditioning loans on a country’s willingness to abide by a set of strict economic conditions for broad sectors of its economy. This “restructuring” undermines a country’s right to self-government and opens it up to speculative feeding frenzies by international speculators such as George Soros. The IMF’s international power grab has consistently been endorsed by the U.S. Treasury Department as a way of furthering U.S. economic foreign policy. The U.S. is the largest financial contributor to the IMF and has the largest share of votes—18 percent.

THE WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION

The WTO sets, administers and enforces the rules of global trade. The group includes a legislature, called the Ministerial Conference, which consists of 135 nations, each with one vote. It also has an executive branch consisting of a director-general, an unelected multinational bureaucracy with a secretariat, committees, councils; dispute panels and review bodies; and a supreme court of trade, called the Dispute Settlement Board, that decides trade disputes but its rulings cannot be vetoed by any member nation. The United States has only one vote, as does Cuba, Haiti, Rwanda and Somalia. The majority of the member nations are dictatorships and are not friends of the U.S. They consider international organizations as vehicles to finance their socialist economies and ruling classes using U.S. wealth and technology. Under the WTO, the member nations must abide by the judgments of the Dispute Settlement Board, which deliberates and votes in secret. The WTO can impose financial penalties and sanctions if the WTO decides that our laws don’t fully obey its dictates. Under WTO, the multinational corporations may shift their operations anywhere in the world, where there are no fair labor or environmental regulations and 50 workers can be hired for the wage of one American and then enjoy duty-free access back to the U.S.

Ah, indeed, it was going to be such an easy thing, these controllers thought, to simply turn the beasts loose and totally wipe out Southeast Asia, as methodically as making a pie crust with a rolling pin. Malaysia blew the plan and thus is paying dearly now as such as the U.S., through the likes of Gore, Albright, Cohen, et al. tried to topple Mahathir. Then came the UN to attend Indonesia, along with and through the directions of HENRY KISSINGER, who would advise the nation through his Kissinger Associates. Then poor Taiwan vs. the Dragon, China, while all the while Taiwan is a Casino toy of Ho, et al. But yes, it is a part of China. And, people, China holds a VERY BIG STICK, and has Taipans and managers throughout Southeast Asia and cannot be overlooked in any sense of wise reckoning.

Do you actually think, in just this little bit of “insight” offered here, that there can be conflict avoided at a very major operation scale?

E.J. has stated it well: “It takes guts to be a Hero,” and perhaps there are simply not enough guts to serve the day. However, never underestimate that God can be the Hero, as “wind beneath the wings”—if change is truly sought.

Satan had a plan 2000 and HE IS RIGHT ON SCHEDULE. THIS IS YEAR 2000 AS YOU HAVE PRONOUNCED IT TO BE. What did you think would happen?

GOD OFFERS A COUNTER-PLAN OF THE SAME, EQUAL MAGNITUDE FOR THE USING.

So be it. Salu

Of Mother's Day And Miscreants

5/14/00—#1 (13-272)

MOTHER'S DAY

Hatonn—I don't have much comment regarding Mother's Day, as the calendar reads, for that day marked is a day of advertising to further exchange commercial items set forth by the very players who deceive and steal from you every other day of the year as well. Therefore, I won't be a party to the day of note except as a reminder that any day that sets one day apart from the sameness of the others is valuable in keeping mental notes isolated from the sameness of the other days in experience. For example, this Mother here in Manila at this keyboard may come to realize that this is about the "time" that she began to first "enjoy Manila".

What would this mean, in particular? Well, things are moving outside the range of human recognition but this is a day when other "fragments" of the human children honor their Mothers as well, for it is expected that the ones in leadership positions will give honor to their own Mothers or those Mothers will be given attention by the grande citizenry—and who knows what goodness or darkness lurks in those private moments between a Father or Mother and a Son or Daughter? But this is a very good day for the Philippines! That said, it is a good day for Mommy Doris and all you people who pause to look around, for after you see all the blot of evil—beneath the shroud of darkness—you will, if you direct your mind to TRUTH, see Light and The Way.

The point I wish to make here is that EVERY DAY you must act in goodness and Light that your days may be WORTHY upon the Earth that God AND YOU have created for your play as the "key role" player. Act in such a manner that you ARE and not just another robotic actor having memorized the lines.

Do your own children hang on every word or deed you as parents present? NO, AND RIGHTFULLY SO, FOR THEY ARE NOT YOU! They must live their lives and yes, indeed, even make their own errors and transgressions—which is CALLED "EXPERIENCE". We here, for instance, write so much that unless your very experience is glued to ours in focus, there is no time to live AND study all things sent. THIS IS CALLED "LIFE".

Just know, my most close cast of players, that things are moving right along and far larger a play emerges than you have been able to contemplate. Will the cavalry arrive in time to save the damsel from the oncoming train as she is shackled to the tracks? Sometimes yes and sometimes no—BUT, HAVE NOT ENOUGH VILLAINS SACRIFICED ENOUGH SUCH DAMSELS ALREADY? THE POINT IS TO STOP THE BRUTES SO THAT SHACKLING STOPS—AND NOT CONTINUE TO SAVE, ONE BY ONE, THE DAMSELS.

And, readers, please remember that every damsel or player is a product of a Mother and Father—even if a cloned imitation.

I am constantly asked about homosexuality and what is right and what is wrong. There is no right or wrong except in the "acting out" of experience. Is the sterile tree not as lovely in bloom as is that one which is fertile? The flowers are often even more grand but the allowance of bearing FRUIT is that which requires the male AND female, to allow reproduction. It is the term of "Mother" and/or "Father" which is often in error, for all other circumstances, even in adoption, represent incorrectly of the TRUE use of the terms Mother and Father. However, there are so many recognitions of the terms that we need not further the distraction. For he or she who becomes the nurturer of a child—be the child a person, a nation or even the Earth herself—it is quite suitable to do honors for the appreciation of recognition.

If you wish to take it only one step further and debate the issue, consider the "clone". Is the cloned reproduction the product of the scientific minds that crossed the DNA-genetic structure? No, that was the enabler—the Father AND the Mother are those who were used in the "crossing". Ah, but that in turn is the further crossing of ALL that came before and, therefore, a clone is but a pause which creates a "like" entity instead of moving on in the chain of individual structuring. The clone, however, is NO LESS "UNIQUE".

If you would hear just one line of advice from me this day: DO NOT TRY TO REPLICATE ANOTHER—FIND YOUR OWN WONDROUS PURPOSE AND NEVER LOSE SIGHT OF YOUR APPLICATION OF THAT PURPOSE—TO YOURSELF.

This is what is meant by HONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER in those Commandments of God, Who realizes that one day EACH of you must come to recognition of that which allowed for your own creation—perceived by you to be good or bad. In a "lifetime" experience, you cannot change that which is fact, so let us focus on that which offers freedom and understanding. And yes, I can again example as to connections:

Janis Berend just received a transplanted kidney and other things from an "unrelated donor". Or is the donor actually unrelated? No, there can be NO SUCH THING AS "UNRELATED". Now, however, she bears the genetic DNA structure of the entire tree of the donor which came prior to this transplant and now takes on the full load of genetic and DNA structure of the entire line prior to the donor. WOW?

NEVER MIND SOME CONJURED "ADAM" AND "EVE", SILLY CHILDREN—YOU ARE ALL THE SAME—IF HUMAN, YOU ARE HUMAN; IF A PETUNIA YOU ARE A PETUNIA. IT IS ALL IN THE "MIND", FOR IF YOU HAVE A GRAFT FROM, SAY, A PIG—WHICH IS NOW THE BIG CLONE CARRIER—YOU DO NOT BECOME A PIG FROM THE GRAFT NOR DOES THE PIG BECOME A HUMAN. BUT, IN A CROSS FROM A PIG TO PIG OR A HUMAN TO HUMAN, THE "MIND" IS WHAT DESIGNATES THE TWO—AND YOU CANNOT GRASP THE WHOLE OF "MIND". YOU CAN'T EVEN TOUCH THE "WHOLE" OF INDIVIDUAL "MIND" EXCEPT TO WARP IT IN ITS HUMAN, PHYSICAL EXPERIENCE.

It is you who must walk the walk, talk the talk and LIVE THE TRUTH, if you are to leave a legacy of greatness for having walked this way. The best way to accomplish that recognition is to do such worthy things that in summation of your live experience (for no "ending" ends "lifestream"), those who come next will honor you for that which you left in GOODNESS. That which you leave in pain and evil upon the journey will live in infamy, perhaps, even for that which you did not commit. BLAME IS A SHROUD WOVEN BY HUMANS MANIFEST AND IS ALWAYS THE ULTIMATE LIE TO NEGATE PERSONAL "RESPONSIBILITY" FOR THE ACTS AND THOUGHTS OF "SELF".

A thing is not "true" because someone said it; a thing is TRUE because it is TRUE and YOU MUST REALIZE IT FOR SELF. FURTHER, IF YOU FAIL TO GET INFORMED, YOU WILL BE MISLED—FOR THAT IS THE INTENTION OF THE LIE AND THE LIAR. SO BE IT.

SO, CHANGE OF FOCUS, PLEASE

E.J., please, write up a statement to be included in the packages you are presenting regarding the alternative resources for locating you and Global (GAIA) in Asia. Because of the immediately recent fiasco at Nevada Corporate Headquarters, there is again necessity of redirecting corporation contact capability.

We are NOT going to change the addresses to suit the miscreants who do not do their proper business jobs and we will yet have to probably bring charges for the irresponsible activities of NCH.

The last incidents came forth last week when the President of the Philippines sent reps (investigators) to Las Vegas, Nevada to check out the status of incorporation of GAIA. They were not only given incorrect information, no information—as in “Never have heard of them...” and “we don’t represent any such company as ‘Global (GAIA)’...”—but also “badmouthed” the one who no longer is associated with NCH but who IS THE RESPONSIBLE CONTACT FOR GAIA.

Ron Kirzinger is that party in point and he literally caused nothing but growth to NCH and yet was FIRED for doing his job because the ill-directed people of the Spectrum cult of misfits—with an entity, Brent Moorhead, within NCH—chose to turncoat and were willing to destroy NCH AND CORT CHRISTIE just to do their dastardly deeds. Cort chose to fire the honorable man and keep the dishonorable party. Fine, that measures a man’s personal integrity. So be it.

There are far too many documents out and about to change locations or focus, and surely the standing of the corporation itself can be checked with the State of Nevada, but the responsibility here lies with NCH, which is IN BUSINESS AS A CORPORATE AGENT.

Since this (GAIA) is probably the biggest business on the globe today, including measuring the IMF and FED combined, it is annoying to continually, time after time, have this kind of irresponsible information flow from NCH. WE EXPECT IT TO BE CLEARED AND IF IT SHOULD HAPPEN AGAIN, THERE WILL BE IMMEDIATE LEGAL CONFRONTATION. Without these types of distractions right in the line of ordinary “business”, we would have accomplished our task over a year ago. A lot of people have paid dear prices for this nonsensical mismanagement.

If it becomes necessary to clear the matter, we will have to bring legal confrontation for having misappropriated the NCH corporation itself. And no, we do NOT SERVE THE EVIL MASTER—EVER. We will attend the mismanagement when it is more convenient, but our status needs clearing by a directive with information of how to contact Ron K. directly, and the status of the Corporation itself can be checked immediately through the Nevada Secretary of State’s “Incorporation Division”.

GAIA has no functioning COMPLEX or building, for we have no intention of doing business other than through the sites whereat we are structuring interchange. IT IS OUR INTENTION TO DO IT EXACTLY IN THAT MANNER. THE FACTS ARE THAT CORT CHRISTIE TOOK CONTROL OF A CORPORATION THAT WAS NOT HIS IN THE FIRST PLACE AND FURTHER NEGATED THE VERY REASON THE COMPANY WAS ESTABLISHED IN THE FIRST PLACE—THROUGH THE PHOENIX INSTITUTE. WE MOST CERTAINLY DO NOT WANT TO CHANGE OUR HOME LOCATION TO FURTHER EASE THE DISCOMFORT OF THE UNLAWFUL PERPETRATORS.

It would appear to me that no business doing such shoddy service to any customer should be in business or allowed to continue in such a business as established under the regulations and service codes of the “Incorporation” agency regulators. Incorporation is one of the largest businesses in the State of Nevada, and yes, we can change agents, but we have chosen to NOT DO SO! AND, NO, IF NCH WISHES TO DROP GAIA AS A CUSTOMER—THEN THEY SHALL CERTAINLY BE REQUIRED TO GO OUT OF BUSINESS FIRST, FOR THEY ARE NOW TREADING ON INTERNATIONAL TOES OF GREAT IMPORTANCE. AND NO, WE ARE “NOT” GOING TO SUPPLY THE LAWYERS WITH TIDBITS TO BE COVERED SOMEHOW IN SLIME AND OOZE. WE HAVE UNDERGONE A YEAR OF THIS GARBAGE LEFT FERMENTING—AND THE METHANE HAS BEEN PRODUCED AND THE EXPLOSION IS AT HAND.

It is much as with the gold left by wonderful David Overton—the lawyers end up with everything—including the value of the gold. It has cost so much to defend the gold that the COST is outrageous and so much in excess of the gold itself—in four little boxes the size of a small Kleenex container (with Kleenex packing still in place)—as to be amusing, if it were not so WRONG. There is now a full-blown show going on in Texas, as we write, to give a presentation to the media over the matter. The Judge and attorneys want their picture in the paper and to perpetuate the nonsense. The legal insanity has gone on for almost a decade, until the worth is GONE and debts are now accrued beyond twice the value of the few coins. And, interestingly enough, the hounds from Nevada are still pulling every desperate ploy they can to get their hands on the meager holdings. And yes, indeed, people—you DO HAVE TO GO THROUGH THESE THINGS, LEST YOU FAIL TO SEE “HOW IT IS” and CLEAR ALL ROT FROM THE BARREL, SO THAT WE MIGHT PASS ON THROUGH THE MUCK AND UNTO THE ROCK OF GOD’S FOUNDATION UPON WHICH WE SHALL BUILD HIS HOUSES. Ah, indeed, the Teacher once said to his “Peter” that he (Peter) would be the “... rock upon which he would build his Kingdom”, or well, anyway, something like that! So, Pete, let’s just keep building with those rocks, please, and let the sand sift on through. GOD DIDN’T SAY “WHEN” THAT WOULD HAPPEN, DID HE? WELL, IN A NO TIME-NO SPACE ENVIRONMENT, NOW IS AS GOOD AS ANY, AND IT MIGHT JUST MAKE YOUR DAY TODAY TO REALIZE THAT NOW IS FINE TO STAND ON THAT ROCK AND PUT THINGS INTO PERSPECTIVE.

Oh, “Who is Peter,” you ask? All of you who are laying those rocks and bricks in and for the foundation of this “New Jerusalem” thing so talked about. And yes, we plan to also build the “golden city” on bricks of gold. Ah, how interesting becomes life in the repairing of the “bumpy” lane in order to redirect traffic flow.

Ah, and indeed, you who have such a focus will have ONLY that which you need to get this accomplished, so that no man can longer STEAL FROM YOU, and his lying and cheating will become the focus for gossips—while you move into protection of the TRUTH, upon which will shine LIGHT. YOU DON’T NEED ANY MORE CRUCIFIXIONS NOR SHOULD YOU EVEN CONSIDER ALLOWING SAME—WE’VE BEEN THERE AND DONE THAT AND IT DIDN’T WORK THEN NOR SHALL IT NOW. LET US JUST DO OUR WONDROUS CREATING AND MOVE ON. THOSE WHO WISH TO REMAIN IN THE RUBBLE WITH THOSE WHO HAVE PRODUCED THE RUBBLE ARE WELCOME TO CONTINUE THEIR DIGGING IN THE GARBAGE—AND THE REST OF US WILL GO OUR WAY IN WONDER AND GLORY.

Responsibilities rest so heavily on the shoulders of the few who MUST keep going in spite of the barriers and detours, blame and constant push, so to those I give support and hopefully, soon, some rest in the recognition that there actually are THOSE WHO WILL ENDURE AND SHALL PREVAIL.

So, to you, Peter, wherever you all are, I salute you for jobs well done, and please allow yourselves the VISION to know that what you do is worthy of God, Planet and Nations—which through your works can become ONE “under God”, with liberty and justice for ALL. An unattainable dream? No, a sure bet!

ARE YOU ALRIGHT IN THIS MOMENT? THEN YOU ARE ALRIGHT FOREVER! THINK ABOUT IT, FOR UPON THIS MOMENT IS ALL ETERNITY.

By the way, it is not Ekkers who are clearing away the miscreants, dropouts and naughty kids—it is God confronting EVIL, my dears, and which way YOU GO is your choice. It would behoove you each to look very carefully at whom you might SERVE because it is coming down hard—NOW.

You can die, that body manifest, in an earthquake of great natural cataclysm and be fine—but to DIE IN EVIL IS A VERY HARD TRIP—FOR A FEW MOMENTS OF EGO GRATIFICATION WHICH IS NOT EVEN HAPPY IN THE MIDST OF YOUR ILL-DEEDS, SHALL, LEFT UNATTENDED AND WITHOUT RESTITUTION TO THOSE YOU HAVE DAMAGED, LAST THROUGH ETERNITY UNTIL IT IS RESOLVED.

“Here today and gone tomorrow”? (???) Why don’t you try: GONE TODAY AND HERE TOMORROW!

YOUR VISION MUST REACH FAR BEYOND THAT WHICH “SEEMS” TO BE, FOR YOU CANNOT SEE FAR IN THE PHYSICAL MANIFESTATION OR ACTUAL “BRAIN” LIMITATIONS OF THAT MANIFEST STATE. KNOW GOD AND YOU KNOW THE TRUTH OF THAT WHICH IS. AND, FURTHERMORE, YOU MUST EXPERIENCE IT TO KNOW IT!

WHAT DO YOU DREAM? WHAT ARE YOUR VISIONS? WHY?

Indeed, the monthly rent must be paid—but each individual must consider the priority of the moment—if HE/SHE is responsible for many rentals. Keep that which allows us to finish the task of priority—and if all else goes aside, SO BE IT! DO NOT EVEN WALLOW IN THE “CONFUSION” OF CHOOSING—FOR WE MUST ACCOMPLISH OUR TASK, EVEN IF THERE BE NO GRANARY OR OFFICE “BACK HOME” SOMEWHERE. WITH CONCLUSION OF OUR MISSION, ALL THINGS COME TO BE IN BALANCE—AND YES, EVEN RENT PAYMENTS. “KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE PRIZE” IS NOT A BAD SLOGAN, MY DEAR ONES.

What if you DO lose all that is of the world in goods and products? If you gain that which is TRUTH—you shall have all that is in the world (OF TRUE VALUE) and MORE. Remember! WE, TOGETHER, CREATE THE WAY OF MANIFESTATION, AND WE TAKE NOTHING LESSER THAN PERFECTION AS OUR BLUEPRINT AND ALL ELSE OF GOODNESS MUST FOLLOW.

You can follow the path to greatness OR the path to failure within the mire of that which is presented unto you. And always KNOW that the ones in the mud pit will try to keep you mired, so that they share their SHAME. If “they” see you grow in goodness and abundance in righteousness, the responsibility of failure rests ever more heavy upon them, themselves. People who look for “something for nothing” get ultimately their rewards: nothing.

I like to think of an example for your perception, so let us consider knitting with yarn in which you build a picture as well as a worthy garment. If you make errors, your garment may fray and fall to a pile of string when pulled upon in the careless washing machine of life. If you place incorrect stitches, your picture may be distorted and it becomes necessary to CORRECT the knitting itself. We do not use “weaving” in this example, for in weaving, the errors may show but left intact pretty much, the fabric will not pull as in a knitted string. So, all dropped stitches and broken strands MUST BE SHORED UP ALONG THE WAY or it is more difficult to go BACK IN and repair the garment or the picture.

Often times, however, you must pull the threads of the whole and bring it back to a pile of thread, rewind the balls of yarn and START OVER, so that your first rows of knitting are sound, the yarn strong and the foundation of your work will stand. WE HAVE THE THING UNWOUND AND THE YARN REWOUND IN OUR OWN PICTURE—SO NOW WE MUST SET THAT FOUNDATION AND START KNITTING. WE MUST KNIT IN SUCH A WAY THAT THE GARMENT CAN GROW AND THE PICTURE ENLARGE—EVER GROW AND EVER ENLARGE, FOR THAT IS LIFE.

Will YOU be the strength of the yarn itself or will you be the weak strand that destroys the integrity of the finished product? Oh yes, it IS just that simple! Moreover, if the yarn is all one color, you can have NO PICTURE. If you wish a red rose, then the other components and shadowing must be of different colored threads. It simply, again, is the way it IS. You must choose the pattern and add the colors of YOUR LIFE, so that your picture comes out as you would wish it through the eyes of the Creator—YOU. Therefore: The point is to be that strand in the fabric of Creator which gives the vision reality of the perfection ultimately to be drawn and manifest.

You cannot be an Angel of God if you present and act as the Devil. You can lie, cheat and steal, but the presentation is an imitation of reality, which shall be uncovered as that which IS real when the knitting guards are removed. THE OUTCOME WILL ALWAYS REFLECT THE CHOICES MADE.

The fact is, beloved friend, that if you just KEEP THE LIGHT ON, there is no darkness—just make sure the light is of all spectrum rays, lest you end up with only “black light” (which actually is the BEST light under which to reflect white in the darkness of the invisible world). Darkness cannot actually even EXIST! For the void of light cannot exist in its truest form or you would not be able to witness it. Not even a “black hole” is devoid of lighted expansion—it is only a PERCEPTION, incorrectly presented.

ANOTHER HIT FROM BELLRINGER

This has everything to do with the topic of light and darkness. AGAIN, from Bellringer and Spectrum Cult Buddies came the perception that Ekkers and “this” Hatonn are no longer with “CONTACT”, et al.—“...it said so on the Internet...”, the visitor said. This was YESTERDAY, May 13, year 2000. And, “if you are still with CONTACT, can you show me?” Oh, indeed, the most important thing of the day could be shared right in the last edition of the paper we had received. “Oh, my God...”, came the expressed shock, “I had no idea how far along we are...”. How long do you suppose it might take to UNDO the damages of such actions as let loose by the four or five guilty idiots in this game? Well, it is not over until it IS undone—is it?

ARE YOU SURE YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE DOING? BETTER CHECK IT AGAIN!

Note that the bringer of bad observations was not responsive in disbelief, only in that he had not realized that we have moved so far ahead in spite of the misinformation. So, little mischief-makers, you are harming selves more diligently than we could ever present against you. We WILL, however, keep your deeds within the LIGHT, so that all may SEE what it is you do in your miserable little activities. And those you pull down with you may well rise against you to smite you for that which you have personally done unto them—and, as surely as we breathe, we do sincerely hope that Millers will see what you have done to them in your dirty-tricks games. Oh, yes, indeed, I suggest that begin with demands to show cause for RAY BILGER and yes, indeed, BETTY TUTEN of the dirty-tricks brigade. Ray has even stolen from those who have paid the most dearly, the Native Americans, as the liar and cheat used that which was goodly from the Native Americans and plastered his authorship on the repeatings in his dark inkstains. Judgment of the man? NO, OBVIOUS DISCERNMENT AND JUDGMENT OF THE ACTIONS OF THE MAN. So be it, for the world is filled to overflow with betrayers of all sizes and shapes who live as the lie with their bloodsucking parasitism.

The point here might well be: “How trustworthy is all that hype and information you get poured on you through the—now under attack by the parasites—Internet?” If it can happen to the least among you—how think you that most of you can grasp and hold truth? You can’t, so you simply have to be informed enough and armed with TRUTH, and then you can, at the least, draw some tentative conclusions.

As to our work? At this point in time we don’t want the masses descending on us for their share of some perceived pie. We have no “spare” time to study industries or projects on an individual basis, so if YOU present a proposal to us—it had better be finished with details and worthy REASON to use our resources, for we need no more attention. We scattered the proper seeds and some fell in FERTILE SOIL, and from that crop shall we prevail and, yes, feed the world. The pile-on—now that the job is accomplished—is not worthy of very much of our attention, for the ones who need to come forth SHALL DO SO. The players who have run the gauntlet through the painful years shall have abundance and the rest are strictly on their own to reap whatever they sow. And yes, this runs around the globe! It is called “TAKING RESPONSIBILITY”. That which is proper, for instance, in South Africa is out of our line of focus in Manila, the Philippines. We are NOT in project appraisals, for that is for another to take responsibility. We have a focus to validate that which we have—and from that, all other can be drawn. If it is goodly, it shall be—if not, it won’t BE, except for the further lessons it brings unto the masses. The point is never in “making money”; it is for the betterment of humankind—so if you keep that IN MIND, you will discern pretty wisely that which shall come to pass. MY PEOPLE CANNOT “SEE”—I CAN!

I would leave this now with my most blessing on MOTHER Earth, who has offered you LIFE and now struggles to make a good and positive life possible for her CHILDREN to survive and exist. THAT ULTIMATE CHOICE IS UP TO YOU, THE CHILDREN.

Salu, and God blesses you each and all. Good morning.

Gold And Other Interesting Things

(Part 11)

2/26/00—#1

Hatonn—OK, E.J., so the IMF is going to get tough? I don't think so. I suggest you counsel your clients with the Big assets in Hong Kong (or wherever it all is stored) to SIMPLY BYPASS THE PHILIPPINES AND DO THE BUSINESS RIGHT THERE, WHERE IT IS PLACED FOR FUNDING. Hardball? Fine! This is simply going to uncover the truth as I have presented it to you—AS FACTUAL. IF THE IMF CONTROLS THE LINES OF FLOW SO THAT THEY ALLOW NO MORE THAN A FLOW OF $10 MILLION INTO THE PHILIPPINES—HOW MUCH MORE PROOF DO YOU NEED FOR ESTRADA? IT IS TIME TO STAND LIKE CITIZENS, GET MAD AS HELL—AND NOT TAKE IT ANY MORE. IF ALL THE TRANSACTIONS HAVE TO BE DONE “OFF-SHORE”, I THINK THE POINT WILL BE SEEN FOR EXACTLY WHAT IT IS.

CHANGE? ALWAYS THE SAME! IN ONE WAY OR ANOTHER

Have you noticed that the changes that happen in Man's political arena are usually only that which is put to public viewing?

Yesterday, in the Philippines, was a great “holiday” called EDSA Revolution Day. There was a small amount of gathering and mostly, as the papers unfold today, we find the President had to fly over Mayon Volcano and was too tired to attend the hoopla. Little is said about the fact that some of the oppressed and incarcerated participants 14 years ago were incarcerated in the best hotels in Manila and, in general, nothing but show-and-tell happened—exactly as planned and orchestrated by the CIA. This was not only the most easily achieved coup in history—not to even mention “revolution”—but also it was that nobody really knew they had had either a coup or a revolution and STILL DON'T. Much like the Holocaust numbers, the number of people attending the revolution walk on the Palace 14 years ago keeps growing with each passing year and political circumstance.

The general overall comment is, however: “THE PHILIPPINES ARE IN WORSE CIRCUMSTANCES THAN EITHER DURING MARTIAL LAW OR AFTER, AND THE ONLY MISSING PERSON FROM THE DASTARDLY POLITICAL CONTROL PUPPET-MASTERS IS ONE, FERDINAND MARCOS, WHO IS NOW BEGINNING TO LOOK PRETTY GOOD TO THESE CITIZENS. EVEN THE MARCOS FAMILY HAS NEVER LOST RESPECT, AS ONE IS A GOVERNOR OF A RATHER WELL RECOGNIZED PROVINCE, ONE IS A SENATOR AND ON GOES THE SAYING. EVEN IMELDA DID RUN FOR PRESIDENT IN THE LAST ELECTION AND WOULD HAVE WON—I MIGHT WELL PERSONALLY ADD—IF SHE HADN'T BEEN AGAIN HOG-TIED BY THE ABUSERS. FURTHER, I GO ON RECORD, PLEASE, AS RECOGNIZING THAT FOR THE NATION AS A WHOLE, MARCOS WILL BE THE RESOURCE FOR THEIR RECOVERY—AND LET US

HOPE THIS TOO SHALL BE A BLOODLESS RESTRUCTURING AS FUNDS BEGIN TO FLOW BACK INTO THIS LAND.

With that in mind, let us please continue to put this manuscript to disk. Thank you.

[QUOTING, GOLD AND OTHER INTERESTING THINGS, PART 11:]

CHAPTER 32

THE SWISS CONNECTION

During the Second World War, the three big defenders of Roman Catholicism—Hitler, Mussolini and Franco—enjoyed concordats with the Vatican. One of them was then even known to have proudly stated, “I learned much from the Order of the Jesuits. Until now, there has never been anything more grandiose, on the Earth, than the hierarchical organization into my own party.”

Walter Schellenberg, former chief of Nazi counter-espionage, confirmed his fuehrer's statement: “The S.S. organization had been constituted by Himmler according to the principles of the Jesuit Order. [H: OUCH!] Their regulations and the Spiritual Exercises prescribed by Ignatius of Loyola were the model Himmler tried to copy EXACTLY. Himmler's title as Supreme Chief of the S.S. was to be the equivalent of the Jesuits' ‘General’ and the whole structure was a close imitation of the Catholic Church's hierarchical order.”

When World War II ended, the Vatican, after supporting the Nazi war machine, found itself jumping to the other side of the fence where General Eisenhower was. The reason was obvious: The Papal State didn't want its wealth included in the “Black Eagle” category, or it would face financial ruin.

By 1946, declassified intelligence reports revealed that Swiss banks had accepted gold looted from the national treasuries of Nazi-occupied countries and from dead Jews, too. In return, Swiss banks supplied the foreign currency that the Third Reich needed to purchase vital war material. They also financed foreign intelligence operations by providing funds for German front companies in Spain and Portugal.

“Switzerland was neutral,” wrote Adam LeBor, author of the explosive book Hitler's Secret Bankers, “but it was an ambiguous, expedient kind of neutrality, which, like most foreign policies, was ultimately based far more on national self-interest than adherence to any abstract, let alone moral, principle.” Thus, it was not surprising to see descendants of Holocaust victims having a difficult time recovering their parents' wartime deposits.

“Money is the god of Swiss bankers,” said Katalin Csillage, a Hungarian Jew seeking reparation for her family's wealth deposited in a Swiss bank. And this, according to researchers like LeBor, has always been the real reason behind the “myth of Swiss neutrality”.

LeBor, whose findings have been based on extensive research employing several types of sources, could probably be of valuable assistance to Philippine authorities. We need someone as thorough as LeBor to help us recover the Marcos Gold Haul. Ours could prove to be a more difficult task than that of the Holocaust survivors and their descendants. We do not have an Edgar Bronfman and a World Jewish Congress to pressure the Swiss bankers to agree to return the Marcos fortune back to the Philippines. Moreover, what we are trying to recover was once part of the “Vatican Billions”.

[H: WHY WOULD YOU WANT TO “FORCE” THE ASSETS OF MARCOS TO BE TAKEN BY MORE FORCE AND RETURNED TO ANYWHERE? WHY DO YOU NOT JUST DO IT CORRECTLY AND ALLOW THE MARCOS FUNDS TO BE OPENLY USED AND BASED ON GOLD, SO THAT ALL CAN GROW AND THE MAN'S NAME CAN BE CLEARED? MUST MAN ALWAYS TURN TO “FORCE” TO ACCOMPLISH HIS DEEDS? DO YOU WANT A BETTER WORLD OR DO YOU WANT ENDLESS WARS AND CONTROL BY FORCE? IN EVERY INSTANCE, MARCOS SET UP THE VERY WAY TO RECLAIM THE ASSETS, AS IN FUNDS, AND IN THE GOLD-COLLATERAL HOLDINGS OF WEALTH. HE LITERALLY BUILT IN THE VERY LEGAL MEANS BY WHICH THIS CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED AND WE OFFER THE TOOLS WITH WHICH IT CAN BE EASILY ACCOMPLISHED. SO BE IT.]

We could and should have actually undertaken this right after the EDSA People Power cum military mutiny in 1986. At that time, the world had fully accepted and recognized Cory Aquino's takeover of government but what went wrong? Instead of the expected full recovery of the Marcos accounts, some of the key people in Cory's Cabinet went as far as conniving with the Marcos cronies, thus, enriching themselves while in power. To make matters worse, the cause-oriented leaders and the leftists metamorphosed into nouveau-riche and cash-oriented groups, their “left” pockets full of pieces of the action.

In fairness to the Ramos Administration, despite the non-cooperation of the Marcos family, President Fidel Ramos, through his trusted lieutenants National Security Adviser Jose Almonte and PCGG Chairman Magtanggol Gunigundo, opened a can of worms through the initial transfer of more than U.S.$300 million from Switzerland to the PNB (Philippine National Bank). And has it ever crossed your mind that despite our huge debt, the IMF has allowed us to successfully exit from IMF bondage in March 1998? What could have been the irresistibly convenient QUID PRO QUO with the banking mafia?

Are the Swiss bankers, Swiss Guards and, by extension, Switzerland itself, interlocked? Why do papal guards traditionally come from Switzerland? Are they part of the services offered by the financial oligarchy which is secretly in control of the world's wealth?

In 1983, Chick Publications of California published the following information which, according to Jack T. Chick, appeared on the pages of Avro Manhattan's Vatican Billions. It read:

“The Vatican has large investments with the Rothschilds of Britain, France and America, with the Hambros Bank, with the Credit Suisse in London and Zurich. In the United States, it has large investments with the Morgan Bank, the Chase-Manhattan Bank, the First National Bank of New York, the Bankers Trust Company and others. The Vatican has billions of shares in the most powerful international corporations such as Gulf Oil, Shell, General Motors, Bethlehem Steel, General Electric, International Business Machines, TWA, etc.

“The Vatican's treasure of solid gold bars has been estimated by the United Nations World Magazine to amount to several billion dollars. A large bulk of this is (now) stored with the U.S. Federal Reserve Bank, while banks in England and Switzerland hold the rest. But this is just a small portion of the wealth of the Vatican which, in the U.S. alone, is greater than the five wealthiest corporations of the country.

“The Catholic Church is the biggest financial power, wealth accumulator and property owner in existence. She is a greater possessor of material riches than any other single institution, corporation, bank, giant trust, government or state of the whole globe. The Pope, as the visible ruler of this immense amassment of wealth, is consequently the richest individual of the Twentieth Century. No one can realistically assess how much he is worth in terms of billions of dollars.”

This explains why Pope John Paul II is forced to ride in bulletproof “popemobiles” each time he travels. This also spells out the reason why, while even in his home, he is still guarded and surrounded by UZI-wielding Swiss Guards.

There is a definite connection to all the events which led to Marcos’ ouster from power. His tampering with the “Vatican Bullion” incurred the ire of the Vatican. It is no secret that Cardinal Jaime Sin and his Jesuit propagandists had been specifically sent by John Paul II to “punish” Marcos for running away with Peter’s Pence. [H: I happen to think it rather nice that “Peter” can assist in reclaiming his “pence”!]

Some may surely ask: If the Vatican enjoys a Swiss connection, why can’t Rome get its lost fortune directly from the Swiss bankers?

“Insulated by decades of political neutrality and historical isolation, buttressed by the massive amounts of the world’s questionably-acquired wealth that still lies in the Swiss banks’ vaults, the bankers didn’t understand why they should have to answer questions from anybody, let alone from claimants without the proper paperwork,” LeBor explained. “Rules were rules; that was how Swiss banks had always operated and that is how they always would.”

As of this writing, the Catholic Bishops Conference of the Philippines (CBCP) has suddenly announced its concurrence with President-elect Joseph Ejercito’s [Estrada’s] decision to bury Marcos “with full military honors befitting a hero”. Perhaps a deal has been struck between the heirs of the late head-of-state and the Vatican, or with F.M.’s Umbrella foundation.

CHAPTER 33

FVR AND THE “ROLEX 12”

President Fidel V. Ramos and the so-called “Rolex 12” certainly knew about the sale of the Marcos gold. This is the gist of the story written by Donna S. Cueto of the Philippine Daily Inquirer on October 2, 1997. “President Ramos was informed of the Marcos gold accounts, valued at at least $13 billion, and (he) knew of the movements of the laundered $466 million gold account at a Swiss bank up to August this year,” wrote Cueto.

Derisively called the “Rolex 12” for having helped to implement Martial Law, and rewarded with the expensive watches were: Juan Ponce Enrile [H: Who, now “caught” in the intrigue, claims that “the watch was only a replica”.], General Romeo Espino, Major General Fidel Ramos [H: Yes, the same as became President.], Major General Jose Rancudo, Admiral Hilario Ruiz, Major General Fabian Ver, Colonel Ignacio Paz, General Tomas Diaz, Colonel Alfredo Montoya, Colonel Romeo Gatan, Ambassador Danding Cojuangco, and Major General Rafael Zagala.

According to sources and letters obtained by the Inquirer, close aides of Mr. Ramos had been secretly in touch with Reiner Jacobi, PCGG’s discredited operative. In fact, the latter even sent two letters to FVR summarizing the movements of the Marcos assets. This information virtually belied claims by the Government that it had excluded Jacobi in its efforts to recover the Marcos gold.

In his initial letter to the President, Jacobi sought compensation for his work in the elusive search for the Marcos gold which began in 1988 in a secret mission code-named Operation Domino. It was only recently, however, that Jacobi succeeded in obtaining the Marcos’ coded accounts of their gold bullions. Inquirer sources said that Jacobi passed on the information to the Philippine Government on May 27, 1997. “The laundering of at least $466 million of the Marcos gold accounts was done at the Bank Julius Baer & Co., Ltd., from June 28 to July,” stated Cueto in the same article.

In seeking payment for his sleuthing, Jacobi said in his first letter, “For too long, my family’s interest has come second only to the protection of the national interest of the Philippines. For too long, I have risked my personal safety through my various travels, through periods of incarceration in three different countries for crimes I did not commit, ultimately costing me and my wife the life of one of our children, all in the name of national interest... I hope you can see your way clear to understand that my own agenda is now limited to the protection of the future of my five children and my wife.”

[H: I wonder how many of you readers wonder how many times Ekkers have reached this very point of choices along this journey in behalf of Truth and Freedom? I also remind you that everything available—including the DEATH OF A CHILD—has been presented to STOP them, and this does not even reflect the “STOP EKKERS AT ALL COSTS” OF SOME “ORACLE” WHO WORKS FOR SPECTRUM CRIMINALS. AH, INDEED, THE PRICE OF TRUTH AND FREEDOM IS EXPENSIVE, INDEED, AND—SINCE MANKIND’S CREATION—IT HAS BEEN THAT MANY HAVE PAID THIS ULTIMATE PRICE TO BRING TRUTH. Is it not time to pay attention toward your own individual position?]

Jacobi’s first letter to President Ramos, dated July 18, 1997, was sent through PCGG Chairman Gunigundo. The second letter, dated August 8, 1997, was sent directly to the Office of the President in Malacanang. It was acknowledged to have been received by the President’s Office on August 11 at one-thirty in the afternoon.

“Attached is a summary of the movements of the Marcos assets that I described in earlier reports to the Chairman (Gunigundo),” Jacobi wrote in the second letter. “Said movements took place over the last two months and point to a systematic operation to sell gold bullion assets in their (the Marcoses’) name, while at the same time engaging in money-laundering operations with respect to the cash accounts.”

Jacobi told FVR that he had supplemented his intelligence report dated February 28, 1997 concerning the Sandy Foundation, the dummy corporation created by Marcos, which controlled the Marcos Swiss deposits and the gold accounts.

The documents, Jacobi said, were entitled “Legal Intelligence Assessment Re: Marcos Operation Domino”, which he claimed to have submitted to President Ramos through Gunigundo, together with a report by a certain Dr. Chalkin dated September 30, 1996, concerning Oplan Domino. This second report was reportedly sent to the President through the Office of the Ombudsman sometime in 1996. Under U.S. and Swiss laws, money laundering is a crime. With his discovery of the laundered accounts, which Jacobi placed at $500 million, the PCGG operative is entitled to a 10 percent reward, as promised. “While admittedly, the sum represents an amount only in excess of $50 million, it is better than nothing at this point in time,” Jacobi wrote FVR on July 18.

In her published story, Cueto revealed that Jacobi received no response to his letters. Neither did the Philippine Government stop laundering despite the advance information on the money transfers. Instead, sources said, it was the lawyers of the victims of human-rights abuses who sought to stop the laundering after learning of it in August. “This could only mean one thing, the Philippine Government is a party to the transaction. If they are not with the Swiss Banks, why are they now helping them? The only way they would want to protect the Swiss is if they themselves are in bed with the Swiss,” an Inquirer source insisted.

Cueto further added that this “collusion” enabled the laundering of at least 32 tons of legendary Marcos gold bullion, which human-rights advocates mistakenly placed at 1,241 tons.

Another mystery unlocked by the Inquirer was how, allegedly, the Swiss Banks, particularly the Union Bank of Switzerland (UBS) which handled the Marcos gold accounts, and the Bank Julius Baer & Co., Ltd., got hold of the witness, Peter Ritter, a lawyer and former Swiss Judge who handled the Marcos gold accounts. Ritter executed a memorandum for Robert Swift, the lead counsel in the human-rights class [-action] suit against the Marcos estate, spelling out in detail the Marcos gold accounts and telling of the supposed secret bank account reportedly of President Ramos in the same bank where the $466 million laundered Marcos gold account was deposited.

Swift said he faxed the same memo to General Almonte, who he said must have sent it to the Swiss Government and eventually to the concerned Swiss banks, which were then able to locate Ritter. The banks, however, received an affidavit from Ritter saying that the memorandum he gave to Swift was forged.

“Swift suspected that top Philippine Government officials had a hand in this retraction,” Cueto explained.

CHAPTER 34

IMELDA’S “TRUTH” REPEATED A THOUSAND TIMES

On November 9, 1990, The People’s Journal carried the banner headline, “$200 M from Meldy to RP”. According to Yul Baritugo, who wrote the story: “After only four years and eight months of exile, former First Lady Imelda Marcos has agreed to return 60 percent of the Marcos family funds in five Hong Kong banks, in return for her country’s dropping of multi-billion dollar suits against her in the United States.”

Baritugo claims to have obtained his information from “a self-declared witness to the pact”. The witness turned out to be Liberal Party (Young Turks) official Rey Fajardo, who claimed that Mrs. Marcos authorized then Manila Bulletin President Alejandro Roces to represent her in transferring the funds to the Philippine Government.

In his report to President Cory Aquino the day before the Journal came out with the story, PCGG’s David Castro disclosed that the final deal would involve a 60-40 arrangement, including a 35 percent tax on all the Hong Kong accounts. Forty percent of the Marcos money would be transferred to unidentified “other parties”.

“Fajardo said he witnessed the signing of the agreement between Mrs. Marcos and Castro in Los Angeles, California,” wrote Baritugo. “Castro said in a press briefing later that Mrs. Aquino wants a 75-25 split of the Marcos money deposited in Swiss accounts.”

The lawyers of Mrs. Marcos earlier offered to give the PCGG $170 million from the Marcos money in Swiss accounts, but the PCGG rejected this since the offer would automatically nullify the claims filed by the Philippines now pending before various Swiss courts. “It’s too silly to consider,” Castro said of the proposal. He told media reporters that the Zurich bank account of the Marcoses alone is worth $340 million.

Castro admitted that the PCGG had no idea how much money was in the Hong Kong accounts, despite the fact that Fajardo presented documents to newsmen showing that the Marcos accounts were with the Standard Chartered Trustee, Ltd., Hong Kong-Shanghai Bank, Wing Lung Bank, Wing Hang Bank and the Bank de l'Indochine et Suez.

Seven years thereafter, then Representative Imelda Marcos (KBL, Leyte) still had not given the Philippine Government a single centavo of what she promised. Instead, she came out with a story confirming the existence of the Marcos gold "even used as walls of the family house in Batac, Ilocos Norte, in the 1950s".

[H: DON'T ANY OF YOU UNDERSTAND THAT SHE HAS NOT BEEN "ALLOWED" TO GIVE ANYTHING TO ANYBODY—PERIOD? IF THE IMF CAN CONTROL AS CLEARLY UNETHICALLY AND UNLAWFULLY AS SHOWN IN THE FIRST PARAGRAPH OF THIS WRITING, HOW DO YOU THINK SOME "MELDY" MARCOS COULD FIGHT "THAT" "CITY HALL"?]

In her privilege speech in Congress, Mrs. Marcos was quoted as saying that she learned of the gold only after she and her husband arrived from their honeymoon in 1954. "Several of the walls were knocked down and the brick dividers were thrown in the backyard. When Ferdinand saw what I had done, instead of being gratified at my initiative, he was flabbergasted and asked what I had done with all those bricks," she said.—Inquirer, 14 October 1997, Martin Marfil and Cathy Canares.

Mrs. Marcos asserted that her husband started acquiring gold in 1946 but that it was only in 1954, shortly before the wedding, that she first saw the cache. She said that it was hoarded in a branch of the First National City Bank of New York located near Jones Bridge (Escolta) where Marcos opened a joint account.

She narrated how Marcos brought her to a vault inside the bank where she saw "piles of money and gold, from which he drew P30,000 for the wedding."

During their year-long honeymoon, Mrs. Marcos said that her husband held talks with international gold traders. She added that he bought more gold in 1957 and that they traded gold in succeeding years. As the price of gold soared from $32 per ounce to $700 in the 1970s, she said it netted them a "substantial profit".

To prove her fantabulous tale, Mrs. Marcos informed the forum that two weeks prior to her privilege speech, several old men claiming to have taken part in the diggings approached her while she was visiting the mausoleum housing the remains of the former President. According to her surprise visitors, the spot where the mausoleum stood yielded gold!

For the nth time, Mrs. Marcos denied that the gold and her family's wealth were ill-gotten, claiming further that President Marcos even used the gold to invigorate the anemic Philippine economy in several instances, such as in 1983, after the assassination of Senator Ninoy Aquino.

This, she said, was confirmed by then Central Bank Governor Jaime Laya when he confessed to a U.S. court that he did not know who owned the dollars that began to flow into the country at the time. "And none shall ever know where those assets came from or how they got there, because Ferdinand, who made those calls in 1983, is dead. His lips are sealed by death," Mrs. Marcos said.

Corroborating his mother's statement, Ferdinand (Bongbong) Marcos, Jr. was quoted by the Inquirer as saying [stories of] the Gold Hoard allegedly stashed abroad "were based more on fiction than facts".

[END OF QUOTING, PART 11]

I do hope that you readers are beginning to really see that TRUTH IS SO MUCH STRANGER THAN FICTION.

THE OVERPOPULATION LIE

By Anthony C. LoBaido, WorldNet magazine, 5/5/00

It is perhaps the single greatest disinformation campaign in human history: The planet is grossly overpopulated, and unless something is done to limit human population growth, calamity will ensue.

Hunger, famine and resource depletion are often mentioned as the major reasons to justify limiting human reproduction. Unfortunately, few can summon the facts to repudiate this erroneous, non-scientific assumption.

Paul Ehrlich, mentor of U.S. Vice President Al Gore, wrote a landmark book in 1968 called The Population Bomb. He predicted, "We will breed ourselves into oblivion."

Based on this assumption, American taxpayers are spending billions of dollars on population-control programs around the world—most of them in Third World countries populated by people with brown, yellow, red and black skin....

...Thomas Malthus is a British historical figure of great note. His most studied work, An Essay on the Principle of Population as it Affects the Future Improvements of Society, with Remarks on the Speculations of M. Godwin, M. Condorcet and Other Writers, was first published in 1798. Its thesis—that overpopulation would destroy the world unless war, famine and disease rose to check human growth—has proven to be dead wrong.

Malthus reasoned that since people increase exponentially and food production only increases arithmetically, food production could not possibly hope to keep up with more and more empty stomachs. Ironically, he predicted mass starvation on the eve of one of the biggest farming expansions the world has ever seen. For free countries, hunger has effectively been eliminated.

Rather than booming, as one might expect in the face of such plenty, the world's population is aging and in decline. As fertility rates fall and abortion, contraception and life spans increase, the world will soon enter a new paradigm in which the elderly outnumber the young. In 1975, the mean global age was 22. In 2050, it will be 38. Europe, South Korea and Japan will be particularly hard-hit by this phenomenon.

With fertility rates low and anti-foreigner sentiment rising in Europe, the United Nations recently released a study that suggests Europe will need mass migration from the Third World to populate it. The report, written by the United Nations Population Division, states that South Korea, Japan, Europe and Russia are facing population crunches.

By 2050, the population of Russia will be down to 150 million. In the 1970s, Russia's population rivaled America's, at more than 225 million people.

In 1950, 32 percent of the world's population lived in developed countries in the West, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. Today that figure has shrunk to 12 percent. Europe had 25 percent of the world's population in 1900. By 2050, Europe will have only seven percent. In 1900, Europe had three times the population of Africa. By 2050, Africa will have three times the population of Europe.

When it comes to the overpopulation lie, Spain serves as a prime example. Abortion is rampant in that nation, one that in relatively recent history helped to spread the Catholic faith to the four corners of the Earth. Today, however, Spain is caught in a moral decline. It is legal, for example, for grown men to have homosexual sex with children as young as 12 years of age.

While in the past generation, Spain "blossomed" from a right-wing dictatorship to a liberal democracy, it has also plunged to the bottom on the United Nations report of worldwide birth and replacement rates.

"Spain is in last place," says Florentina Alvarez, a demographer at the National Statistics Institute. Spanish women have on average 1.07 children, far below the 2.1 needed to maintain the population. Spain has today 39.4 million people, a figure that will begin to drop in coming decades. As recently as 1976, under the much-maligned reign of Francisco Franco, Spain had a fertility rate of 2.6.

The major cities in Asia—Bangkok, Seoul, Singapore, Tokyo and Hong Kong—are overpopulated, but prosperous nevertheless. Overpopulation does not lead to poverty. For example, Hong Kong, Singapore and Taiwan are very densely populated and are some of the richest nations in Asia, if not the world. Taiwan has a population density of 1,460 per square mile, while China has a population density of 360 per square mile. Yet, according to the CIA's World Factbook 1999, Taiwan's per capita gross domestic product (GDP) is $16,500, while China's is $3,600.

The communist Government of China has had a one-child policy for much of its history, but even now the Chinese Government is beginning to question that policy. As most Chinese want sons, they abort the females on a massive scale. It is not uncommon for a Chinese family to murder its two- or three-year-old daughter if the mother becomes pregnant again with a boy. Within 100 years, China will have far more boys than girls. Will the men then decide to become homosexuals, or will they march out of China, as did the Mongol horde, in search of wives?

South Korea faces a similar problem. Because of abortion of females, kindergartens in Seoul today have around 60 percent boys. In the future, South Korean boys may well have to marry North Korean girls to perpetuate their race.

The U.S. State Department and the United Nations are major players in this population game. Their measures are funded in large part by top U.S. foundations like Ford and Rockefeller. Ted Turner, founder of CNN, is also a major population-control sugar daddy for the United Nations, having cut a $1 billion check to the world body when conservatives in the U.S. Congress threatened not to pay off America's back dues to the UN if those dues would be used to set up abortion clinics overseas.

Make no mistake: Abortion and depopulation are a top priority for the powers-that-be in the West. And it's not just about women's sexual freedom and independence, as many claim....

[JR: The stats here verify what has been stated since 1996 regarding depopulation. The UN's depopulation goals are being reached through higher abortion rates, infertility, same-sex relationships, famines, severe weather and diseases—all manipulated by the Elite. I question the indicated rise in Africa's population, due to the HIV/AIDS pandemic there. Western Europe's stats reflect a downturn of morals and values and not just lower birth rates.]

CLINTON APPROVES OIL-PRICE HIKES

By Charles Smith, WorldNetDaily, 5/9/00

Oil ministers from OPEC nations have quietly told national-security advisors on Capitol Hill that the oil production cutbacks—and resulting price increases—are being implemented at the request of the Clinton Administration on behalf of Russia, Indonesia, Mexico and Iran. [Cui Bono? The OIL COMPANIES, which just reported RECORD profits! No doubt, some Texas oil-men and other Elite players are beaming broadly as they rake in the loot.]

Russia, Mexico and Indonesia are reported to be directing their increased oil profits toward paying back overdue Western loans. According to one government defense advisor, the windfall profits are part of a larger scheme to use the American public to pay off failed and corrupt investment schemes in the three countries.

“The American public is paying off bad loans to bad countries made by bad bankers,” stated the national-security advisor.

According to Vice President Al Gore, the recent hike in gas prices is due not to a shortage of oil, but rather to the Clinton Administration's deliberate move to encourage an oil price increase.

“I think the reason is because we more or less asked the Organization of Petroleum [Exporting] Countries [OPEC] to raise oil prices in helping Russia develop its economy,” stated Gore on March 1 in response to a question about rising gas prices.

The largest Middle Eastern oil producers reportedly agreed on the cutback of oil production in order to increase income for weapons purchases. Several oil states have announced major weapons buys from the West, including a recent multi-billion-dollar purchase of Lockheed-Martin F-16 fighter jets.

“Iran is also trading oil to China in exchange for missile technology,” stated the national-security advisor.

The gas hike has raised several concerns about the Clinton energy policy and U.S. national security.

In recent years, OPEC has flooded the market with oil, lowering prices worldwide. The lower prices, according to Denise Bode, a commissioner on the Oklahoma Corporation Commission, were designed to discourage investors in U.S. domestic oil production, maintaining a world monopoly for OPEC.

“The OPEC cartel clearly understands that the Clinton energy policy is based on instant gratification,” stated Bode, “seeking low gasoline prices and ignoring future consequences with a foreign cartel in charge of our national energy resources.

“In 1997, OPEC acted to consolidate the American market by sending much cheaper oil, dumping it at historically low prices. The most significant energy policy initiated by the Clinton Administration is a 4.3 cent increase in the gasoline tax,” said Bode.

“Another 30,000 Americans have lost their jobs. Domestic oil production has moved from holding steady, to a 5.4 percent decline. Even though OPEC has recently cut back production and raised the price of oil to $30 a barrel, there has been no increase in domestic production.”

“It's very clear what OPEC should do if they want to retain control,” stated Donald Hodel, former Secretary of Energy and Secretary of the Interior during the Reagan Administration.

“Periodically, they should announce they are going to produce excess volumes of crude oil. The announcement itself will scare away some capital investment from new production. Secondly, if that doesn't work, and from time to time to prove their point, they would have to overproduce, [driving] the price down dramatically, so that marginal wells in the United States [would] be shut down and new investment [would] be shut down worldwide.”

According to Hodel, the “green” movement has combined with OPEC to “erect straw arguments” against the U.S. energy industry.

“I've never met anyone who said I want to breathe dirty air or drink polluted water,” noted Hodel. “Yet, the green movement has succeeded in using clean air, clean water and garbage control as a means to seek de-industrialization in the U.S.”

“The problem is that the schools have been captured by the flaming environmentalists,” noted Hodel. “We are not doing a decent job of getting the educational establishment to acknowledge the facts about the importance of energy production to our economy.

“If we were rational about our energy policy, we would have a growing component in our society of nuclear power. The people who fought nuclear power have successfully stopped coal. They are now turning toward natural gas and oil. We made the point over and over that offshore drilling is less of an environmental hazard than transporting imported oil by tanker.”

Hodel concluded, “Our dependency on foreign oil affects our national security and our environment.”

[JR: There is no one more willing or more expert at destroying our U.S. production capabilities and inflating prices than Clinton and his Khazar Zionist cohorts in D.C. This blatantly shows that Clinton can and will openly devastate our U.S. economy with impunity to benefit foreign governments for fulfillment of the policies of the NWO. We are ready for the plucking by the vultures circling over our carcasses.]

WORKER UNREST, PRESS CRACKDOWN SIGNAL BEIJING'S FRAGILE HOLD

NewsMax.com, 5/6/00

A growing workers' rights movement, violent protests, an unprecedented rash of strikes and scores of bankrupt industries are causing panic in Beijing's brutal communist leadership.

Mainland China's communist leaders, frightened by the kind of unrest that sparked the Solidarity movement in Poland and led to the fall of the communist governments there and in the Eastern Bloc captive nations, have taken steps to douse the flames of near-rebellion now breaking out around the nation.

The Government stretched the traditional Labor Day workers' holiday for China's 300 million urban workers to a full week in a reported attempt to quiet widespread worker unrest. And in an obvious effort to keep the dangerous situation from attracting worldwide attention to the problem, the Government has restricted travel by foreign journalists.

The new ban on journalists' almost unrestricted travel rights within China's vast landmass, observers say, is one sign of how desperate Beijing has become in the face of worker unrest and economic troubles, since it could provoke the U.S. Congress to take steps to kill plans to allow China full access to U.S. markets after China joins the World Trade Organization.

In a blockbuster exposé of China's internal chaos, Britain's Electronic Telegraph outlined the extent of the economic troubles besetting China's commercial interests and the sometimes violent reaction of workers to Depression-era conditions and wages that often go unpaid.

According to the Telegraph, in 1999 alone, there were a mind-boggling 120,000 strikes, an increase of 14 times the number just five years ago.

In some cities northeast of Beijing, such as Shenyang, tens of thousands of laid-off factory workers are idle and wandering the streets, reciting their grievances to foreign journalists at the drop of a hat. In one recent incident involving 20,000 miners in Yangjiazhanzi, 250 miles northeast of Beijing, cars were smashed, shops looted and fuel stores set on fire during a three-day battle between miners and soldiers—after it was announced that the largest local employer, a molybdenum mine, was closing down. At one point in the battle, miners raided the mine's explosives warehouse.

Adding fuel to the fire was a decision by management to offer a mere $300 or $400 in severance pay to workers who had worked at the mines all their lives. In one case cited by the Telegraph, one man and his wife were given just $500 to make up for their lost earnings, pension and health care earned over a combined 70 years of work at the mine.

The growing unrest is a sign of the frustrations among employees once given promises of jobs for life but now faced with the collapse of inefficient and outmoded heavy industries. Many employers have stopped regular salary and benefit payments—putting a heavy burden on workers.

Many of those laid off are forced to hawk their household possessions in the streets merely to earn enough money to live from day to day. One elderly Chinese Army veteran who went to work in a factory after being discharged back in the 1950s told the newspaper that hardship was increasing, even for those lucky enough to still be on payrolls.

“Pensions and salaries aren't going up, but rents and electricity prices are,” he said. “If you paid for enough electricity to heat your home, you couldn't eat. So people have to steal the electricity.”

These harsh conditions have created almost uniform worker bitterness against officials and company managers who have managed to enrich themselves from their jobs. Yet, despite the rising unrest, corruption is flourishing. [And how do you suppose the Kissinger-associated, Khazarian Taipans are making out? Like bandits!]

One Hong Kong expert guesses that management of state-run factories appointed by the Communist Party are able to divert more than $9 billion into their own offshore bank accounts every year, and party officials are exerting every effort to distract public attention from the failing economy and rampant corruption just as Europe's Communist Bloc did when its governments were collapsing as the result of similar conditions.

Beijing's crackdown on travel by foreign journalists is one sign of the dangerous internal conditions threatening the Government, observers say.

According to Hong Kong's South China Morning Post, Beijing has stopped issuing individual tourist visas to foreign journalists in an attempt to tighten controls on the press, reversing a decade-old policy that usually allowed foreign journalists to travel freely in China on their own time. Under the new restrictions, according to a Chinese Government official in Hong Kong, journalists may only travel in Government-supervised tour groups.

The new visa restrictions are part of a campaign to purge liberal Chinese academics, restrain foreign correspondents in Beijing and dissuade the Hong Kong press from covering advocates of Taiwanese independence.

"These new measures are completely unreasonable," Mak Yin-Tang, head of the Hong Kong Journalists Association, told the Post. "As journalists, we are also citizens and these kinds of controls infringe on freedom of movement."

The implications and enforcement of the new regulations were still uncertain, said Francis Moriarty, Chairman of the press freedom sub-committee of the Foreign Correspondents' Club in Hong Kong. "We don't know what this means yet, but obviously this is clearly not a step in the right direction," he told the newspaper.

He added it would be unusual for the mainland to crack down on journalists when a few votes in the U.S. Congress could sway a decision on whether [or not] to grant China normal access to the American market after it joins the World Trade Organization (WTO).

Margaret Ng Ngoi-Yee, a press-affiliated spokeswoman, added: "I find it unbelievable that this should happen, especially at such a time with China being admitted to the WTO."

[JR: When a country like China is faced with hard economic times, they can become hostile and invade another territory (like Taiwan) or declare war on an obvious adversary. A war would provide work for its citizens, quell the internal unrest, keep the Elite in power and give pride to the masses.]

UN FORCE CRUMBLES BEFORE CHILD ARMY

By Corinna Schuler, National Post, 5/8/00

FREETOWN, SIERRA LEONE—The United Nations' biggest peacekeeping mission slid into panic and chaos on the weekend with foreigners fleeing in evacuation helicopters and the international body's blue-helmeted troops barricading themselves into the seaside capital against a rebel onslaught that never came.

At the same time, the UN admitted that it has more than 500 of its troops either missing or captured by the rebel Revolutionary United Front forces. In addition to the 318 soldiers who have been seized, 226 Zambian blue-berets are unaccounted for and believed either to have been captured or to have fled.

The UN triggered fear in hundreds of its staff members and untold numbers of locals when it warned that the RUF had advanced to within 20 kilometres of Freetown, the scene of a rebel occupation last year in which more than 5,000 people were killed.

Panic ensued late Saturday as hundreds of UN staff were ordered to pack their bags, flee their homes and amass for a sleepless night in the lobby of a heavily guarded hotel. Peacekeepers raced to defend city roadblocks. Generals arrived in UN vehicles with flashing lights. Helicopters airlifted UN personnel to Conakry, the capital of neighbouring Equatorial Guinea.

But yesterday morning the United Nations admitted it had goofed.

"It was a grievous mistake," conceded General Mohammed Garbo, the second-in-command of the UN force. "It caused panic to the whole world... Nobody is above a mistake." The rebels had marched to within 80 kilometres of Freetown, but had not even come close to invading the city.

Nevertheless, it is widely agreed that the United Nations' mistakes in Sierra Leone are making a mockery of the peacekeeping force that was supposed to restore its pride in the wake of deadly bungling in Somalia and Rwanda. Over and above their hostage taking, the RUF forces have been able to rob the peacekeepers of their tanks, uniforms and even their hallmark sky-blue headgear.

"This mission is a disaster, an absolute disgrace," said one senior UN staffer who refused to be named for fear of losing his job. "Our force is crumbling in the face of a bunch of child soldiers. We deceived the people of Sierra Leone by giving them a sense of security and then failing to defend them..."

...The first British paratroops were due later today in neighbouring Senegal after Britain's decision yesterday to send five warships and about 1,600 soldiers to West Africa to help any of its citizens who may need to be airlifted out.

The UN special representative for Sierra Leone, Oluwemi Adeniji, told reporters in Freetown last night that a joint rebel-UN mission would go today to areas where the peacekeepers were believed to be held to try to negotiate their release.

The United Nations has so far dispatched 8,699 troops to enforce a peace deal between Sierra Leone's democratically elected Government and the most feared rebel force in Africa. The UN force, which is under the command of General Vijay Jetley of India, has an authorized strength of 11,100 and, if fully deployed, will be the largest current peacekeeping operation.

Peacekeepers are dealing with a force that has terrorized the people of this country for eight years. They burned families alive in their homes, gang-raped little girls and hacked the hands off an estimated 10,000 civilians. And the rebels are experts in bush warfare.

"The UN peacekeeping mission cannot force people to stop fighting," says spokesman Philip Winslow. "It is there to keep a peace that has already been agreed. Peacekeeping relies on neutrality, diplomacy and persuasion."

But rebels still control much of the north and the country's diamond-rich east...

"It's like the rebels were testing the UN, saying: 'Let's see what you are made of'," said one Western diplomat.

The fight broke out last Monday after 10 young bush fighters handed over their firearms at a UN camp in the rebel-controlled town of Makeni...

...The unarmed workers raced away while Kenyan peacekeepers moved to defend the camp. Shots rang out. The rebels won the gun battle and looted the camp.

When about 200 Zambians were dispatched to reinforce the peacekeeping troops in Makeni on Wednesday, they were ambushed by rebels on the road. The worker who talked to the National Post yesterday said he later saw rebels driving a UN personnel carrier in Makeni. Other white UN tanks were along the road.

"There were RUF rebels wearing the blue UN caps and Zambian uniforms and [they] had brand new rifles. If this UN force is not going to fight back, RUF is going to run this country," he said.

Zambia's President, Frederick Chiluba, defended his soldiers' poor performance on Saturday, saying they had "been taken into that area a little prematurely"—without proper equipment or updated maps.

But it was the false alarm issued on Saturday night that frightened the people of Freetown most.

The last time rebels invaded the city, on Jan. 11, 1999, they executed hundreds of people and attacked so many others with machetes that hospitals were forced to throw severed limbs into waste baskets.

In the early hours of the morning yesterday, the BBC World Service was broadcasting reports that the rebels were closing in on Freetown—again...

...UN security officials anxiously pored over lists of their civilian staff members and unarmed observers, dispatching cars to "bring them in!" Close to 300 people slept on couches and floors while commanders conducted meetings in UN offices three floors above...

...The highly touted "joint mission" did reveal that the rebels had advanced to within 80 kilometres of Freetown early yesterday. Burned-out huts could be seen from the air above a town called Rogburi and the road beyond was crowded with people.

"They are fleeing the rebels," one UN staffer explained...

[JR: Is the use of the UN as a peacekeeping force turning into a Keystone Cops comedy or what? Instead of defending the citizens of Sierra Leone, UN personnel retreat to secure hotels protected by the UN, with helicopters at the ready for a hasty evacuation. The people are scared to death and the RUF rebels now have the UN equipment and blue helmets to go with the uniform.]

GREENSPAN LECTURES BANKERS

By Melissa Wahl, Chicago Tribune, 5/5/00

Some of the less-heralded changes brought on by last year's sweeping overhaul of federal banking law pose significant risks for banks, Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan warned Thursday.

Although much of the impetus for the overhaul was to give banks the ability to get into securities underwriting and insurance, Greenspan warned about banks' expanded ability to invest in non-financial companies, often referred to as merchant banking.

"Most bad commercial loans are made during prolonged periods of prosperity. I suspect the experience of bank equity investment has been similar," Greenspan told bankers and regulators Thursday at the annual spring banking conference of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago.

Although investors and traders were following the speech closely, Greenspan didn't offer clues about interest-rate policy, keeping his focus on banking issues. He discussed the risks of derivatives investments, which have become a major part of some banks' business, and his belief that the Government would allow any financial institution—no matter how big—to fail if it found itself in serious financial trouble.

He hedged his comment by saying that, in some cases, the Government would manage "an orderly liquidation" of a failed entity, but shareholders would not be protected and deposits not guaranteed by the Government, likely would be "discounted".

Greenspan's assertion that large financial institutions would be allowed to fail if they got into serious trouble is "intellectually dishonest", said Bert Ely, a bank consultant from Alexandria, Virginia who attended the conference.

"The markets know that if a big financial institution gets in trouble, the Government is going to save it. They [regulators and Greenspan] don't want to admit it," Ely said, pointing to the Fed-orchestrated unwinding of the Long-Term Capital Management (LTCM) hedge fund in 1998.

Long-Term Capital Management nearly collapsed because of its risky derivatives investments.

Derivatives—financial instruments whose values are based on the performance of underlying assets—experienced credit losses amid the 1998 third quarter's liquidity crisis, but those losses were well below losses in banks' loan portfolios at that time, Greenspan said.

And derivatives' credit exposures are very small compared with credit exposures on traditional assets, such as banks' loans, he said.

Despite that good historical record, it is possible that market participants are too complacent about their exposure to market turbulence, Greenspan said before posing a rhetorical question: "One is compelled to ask: Has the financial system become more stable, or has it simply not been tested?"

Greenspan also voiced concerns about risk in banks' equity investments in non-financial companies, which he expects will increase because of new federal laws.

Banks have been players in the equity markets for decades. They were a dominant source of venture capital in the early 1960s, Greenspan said, and still account for about 10 to 15 percent of the country's private equity market.

A few large banks are major merchant bankers now, with investments beyond just venture capital. But Greenspan said he expects the new laws to attract more players and deepen participation of existing players in merchant banking.

Although the new business will create value for the economy and shareholders, it also brings risks that, "during some periods in the future, will create reduced returns," Greenspan said.

He added: "However, the same might be said about portfolios of loans."

[JR: When a personage like Greenspan—who runs the Fed, manipulates other central banks and even banking around the world—"hedged" on his veiled comments, you know we're in a dark tunnel with no light ahead.]

DIALOGUE IN BELLARIA

By Zecharia Sitchin, Centrex News, 5/4/00

In what must be a historic first, a high official of the Vatican and a Hebrew scholar discussed the issue of extraterrestrials and the Creation of Man, and though different from each other in upbringing, background, religion and methodology, nevertheless arrived at common conclusions:

Yes, extraterrestrials can and do exist on other planets.

Yes, they can be more advanced than us.

Yes, materially, Man could have been fashioned from a pre-existing sentient being.

The Participants

The high Vatican official was Monsignor Corrado Balducci, a Catholic theologian with impressive credentials: a member of the Curia of the Roman Catholic Church; a Prelate of the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples and the Propagation of the Faith; leading exorcist of the Archdiocese of Rome; a member of the Vatican's Beatification Committee; an expert on Demonology; and the author of several books. Appointed in the Vatican to deal with the issue of UFOs and extraterrestrials, he has made in recent years pronouncements indicating a tolerance of the subjects; but he has never before met and had a dialogue with a Hebrew scholar, and gone beyond prescribed formulations to include the touchy issue of the Creation of Man.

The Hebrew scholar was me—Zecharia Sitchin: a researcher of ancient civilizations; a biblical archaeologist; a descendant of Abraham...

...we were scheduled to meet in Bellaria, Italy, at a conference whose theme was "The Mystery of Human Existence"....

Sitchin's Presentation

My talk, ably translated by my Italian editor, Tuvia Fogel, included a slide presentation that added a pictorial dimension to the evidence from ancient times in support of Sumerian texts, on which my eight books based the following conclusions:

We are not alone—not just in the vast universe, but in our own solar system; there is one more planet in our solar system, orbiting beyond Pluto but nearing Earth periodically; advanced "extraterrestrials"—the Sumerians called them Anunnaki, the Bible Nefilim—started to visit our planet some 450,000 years ago; and, some 300,000 years ago, they engaged in genetic engineering to upgrade Earth's hominids and fashion Homo sapiens, the Adam. In that, they acted as emissaries for the Universal Creator—God.

The Dialogue

"We have much to talk about," Msgr. Balducci said to me as he came forward to congratulate me on my presentation. "I have great esteem for your scholarship," he said.

We returned to the hotel for lunch. Our table was surrounded in a semicircle by my American fans, intent on not missing a word of the forthcoming dialogue. In the hours-long session, Msgr. Balducci outlined the positions he was going to state, from a prepared text, in his talk the next day. While my approach was based on physical evidence, his was a purely Roman Catholic theological-philosophical one, seeking the spiritual aspects. Yet, our conclusions converged.

Msgr. Balducci's Positions

On UFOs: "There must be something in it." The hundreds and thousands of eyewitness reports leave no room for denying that there is a measure of truth in them, even allowing for optical illusions, atmospheric phenomena and so on. As a Catholic theologian, such witnessing cannot be dismissed. "Witnessing is one way of transmitting truth, and in the case of the Christian religion, we are talking about a Divine Revelation in which witnessing is crucial to the credibility of our faith."

On life on other planets: "That life may exist on other planets is certainly possible... The Bible does not rule out that possibility. On the basis of scripture and on the basis of our knowledge of God's omnipotence, His wisdom being limitless, we must affirm that life on other planets is possible." Moreover, this is not only possible, but also credible and even probable. "Cardinal Nicolo Cusano (1401-1464) wrote that there is not a single star in the sky about which we can rule out the existence of life, even if different from ours."

On intelligent extraterrestrials: "When I talk about extraterrestrials, we must think of beings who are like us—more probably, beings more advanced than us, in that their nature is an association of a material part and a spiritual part, a body and a soul, although in different proportions than human beings on Earth." Angels are beings who are purely spiritual, devoid of bodies, while we are made up of spirit and matter but still at a low level. "It is entirely credible that in the enormous distance between Angels and humans, there could be found some middle stage, that is, beings with a body like ours but more elevated spiritually. If such intelligent beings really exist on other planets, only science will be able to prove; but in spite of what some people think, we would be in a position to reconcile their existence with the Redemption that Christ has brought us."

The Anunnaki and the Creation of Man

Well, then, I asked Msgr. Balducci, does it mean that my presentation was no great revelation to you? We appear to agree, I said, that more advanced extraterrestrials can exist, and I use science to evidence their coming to Earth... I then quote the Sumerian texts that say that the Anunnaki ("Those who from Heaven to Earth came") genetically improved an existing being on Earth to create the being that the Bible calls Adam.

My conclusion regarding your presentation, Msgr. Balducci answered, is that more than anything else your whole approach is based on physical evidence, it concerns itself with matter, not with spirit. This is an important distinction, "because if this distinction is made, I can bring up the view of the great theologian, Professor Father Marakoff, who is still alive and is greatly respected by the Church. He formulated the hypothesis that when God created Man and put the soul into him, perhaps what is meant is not that Man was created from mud or lime, but from something pre-existing, even from a sentient being capable of feeling and perception. So the idea of taking a pre-man or hominid and creating someone who is aware of himself, is something that Christianity is coming around to... The key is the distinction between the material body and the soul granted by God."

From Anunnaki to God

Yes, I responded to the Vatican theologian, in my writings I deal with the physical evidence; but already in my first book (The 12th Planet), the very last sentence of the last paragraph raises the question: If the extraterrestrials "created" us, who created them on their planet?

From this, my own thinking and the contents of my subsequent books evolved toward the spiritual or "divine" aspects. The Anunnaki, I have explained, were just emissaries (and that is what the Hebrew word Malachim, translated Angels, means). They thought that it was their decision to come here for selfish reasons and to fashion us because they needed workers; but in truth they only carried out the Almighty God's wishes and plans.

If such extraterrestrials were so involved, Msgr. Balducci said, even by your own interpretation they had to do with Man's physics, body and rationality; but God alone had to do with the Soul!...

...We ended the dialogue as friends, determined to stay in touch and continue.

[JR: Yes, the Anunnaki are our ancestors, who did improve our species. Yes, extraterrestrials are evolved, intelligent beings and not the alien lizard monsters depicted by Hollywood. Our Cosmic Brothers are with us now and will assist those who will work for the greater good of all of mankind.]

MISSILE-KILLING LASER DEVELOPED BY U.S. AND ISRAEL PASSES INITIAL TEST

By James Glanz, Chicago Tribune, 5/4/00

(New York Times News Service)—A powerful laser developed by Israel and the United States to shoot down rockets has passed its first test at the White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico, hitting a stationary target, American military officials said this week.

If it eventually is deployed, the system apparently would be the first anti-missile defense of any kind based on lasers.

"To my knowledge, no nation has ever deployed an anti-missile system based on a laser," said Lt. Col. Rick Lehner, a spokesman for the Ballistic Missile Defense Organization at the Pentagon.

Designed and built by the California contractor TRW for Israel and the U.S. Army, the laser and its tracking system were tested last week against stationary targets, said Lt. Gen. John Costello, commander of the U.S. Army Space and Missile Defense Command.

Costello said the system, the Tactical High Energy Laser, probably will be tested this month against a moving Katyusha rocket. If that test is successful, he said, the system will be shipped to Israel for further testing and deployment.

"It will be the first engagement of the Katyusha rocket by a tactical, high-energy laser, something that is militarily useful," the General said.

The Israeli Defense Ministry said it plans to deploy the system along its northern border to halt guerrilla rockets after Israel withdraws from Southern Lebanon this summer. A spokesman for the Ministry, Dan Weinreich, said the weapon was in the final stages of testing in the United States and Israel.

A spokesman for the Space and Missile Defense Command, Marco Morales, said the cost to develop the system through the first attempted shoot-down was $190 million.

At a missile-defense briefing this week in Huntsville, Alabama, Costello said developing the system over five years "could, in fact, revolutionize warfare" by protecting troops from rockets, mortars and other artillery. But he said using lasers in rain and fog needs special experiments.

The possible deployment of the laser, although its geographic range is modest, represents a striking turnaround for an anti-missile technology that was criticized as unworkable in the Strategic Defense Initiative of the 1980s.

Since then, most American anti-missile systems have turned to "hit-to-kill" technology. That means that a rocket-propelled vehicle maneuvers toward an incoming missile to collide with and destroy it. But the U.S. military has also continued long-term research and development on laser-based systems.

Those include the Israeli-American program for intercepting short-range missiles, an Air Force program to shoot down ballistic missiles such as Iraqi Scuds using a laser mounted on a Boeing 747 jumbo jet, and a joint venture by the Air Force and the Ballistic Missile Defense Organization to develop lasers that could be fired from space to destroy intercontinental ballistic missiles.

All those lasers would derive their energy from powerful chemical reactions and destroy the missiles by heating them to high temperatures. Although the Israeli-American laser, if successful, would intercept rockets in the middle or end of their flights, the others would try to destroy missiles earlier, as their boosters fired.

"The technology has come a long way since the early 'Star Wars' days in terms of developing lasers that could in the future destroy a ballistic missile," said Lehner, a spokesman for the Ballistic Missile Defense Organization.

Costello suggested the laser will have an initial range of 4 miles. "Frankly," he added, "we've designed it with the Israelis because of the threat to northern Israel."

[JR: This technology will provide the protection Israel will require when she withdraws from her occupation of Southern Lebanon in July. The money to pay TRW will, of course, be paid for by the goyim (gentile) taxpayers of the U.S.]

LUFTWAFFE FLYING IN U.S. ILLEGALLY?

By Jon E. Dougherty, WorldNetDaily.com, 5/5/00

Elements of the German Air Force—better known as the Luftwaffe—operating out of U.S. Air Force bases and conducting training over American soil may be illegal, according to a Government watchdog organization based in New Mexico, where Luftwaffe planes are stationed.

The Paragon Foundation says low-level flight training being conducted by German air units out of Holloman Air Force Base near Alamogordo, New Mexico since April 1996 "may prove to have been unauthorized from the start because the Secretary of State and Congress did not approve them".

At the center of the controversy is a lawsuit originally filed in September 1998 by Otero County rancher Charlie Lee, the Otero County Grazing Association, Otero Cattleman, Lincoln Forest Permittees and others. The suit, which is being financed primarily by Paragon, seeks to block construction of a target complex and low-level flights on Otero Mesa in southeast New Mexico and west Texas.

The controversy worsened a year later, when two German Tornado fighters collided in mid-air outside Carlsbad, New Mexico, barely missing the Marathon Indian Basin Gas Processing Plant and a local ranch. The resulting crash investigation was conducted entirely by German Air Force personnel—and its findings have not been made available to the American public, even after a memorandum passed in the New Mexico Senate demanding details of the crash and German operational and investigative procedures, Paragon officials told WorldNetDaily.

On Monday, U.S. District Judge Bruce D. Black "changed the complexion" of the case by granting permission to "allow an amendment to the lawsuit challenging the legitimacy of the German Air Force presence in the U.S.," said Bob Jones, President of the Paragon Foundation.

"American Air Force officials have not followed proper channels in allowing foreign troops to train in America. This has gone on since the [initial] agreement [in the early 1990s] between former President George Bush and German Chancellor Helmut Kohl. There has never been congressional approval of this foreign training," Jones said.

"This is a big break in this case. Judge Black's decision will allow the plaintiffs to depose U.S. State Department and Air Force officials," said Frank Bond, the lead Paragon attorney in the case. "We can challenge the legal premise for the German Air Force presence at Holloman. Our team will show that the Secretary of State and Congress had not authorized the German Air Force to be conducting operations there."

State Department officials had no comment and referred the matter to the Pentagon. Air Force officials there said they were looking into the matter, but were unable to locate staffers who had the most recent information, a spokesman told WorldNetDaily.

Meanwhile, a public-relations official at Holloman told Paragon he didn't believe the Judge's ruling would have an impact on German operations there, adding that German officials haven't replied to the New Mexico Senate's request because "it doesn't have the force of law".

German Air Force spokesman Cmdr. Eckhard Sowoda, also at Holloman, had no comment on the ruling or the German Ministry of Defense's failure to provide the materials requested by New Mexico lawmakers, the group said.

"The threshold question is whether the United States Air Force legally brought the Germans to Holloman," said Bond. "The Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) between the U.S. Air Force and the German Ministry of Defense may be illegal because it was not submitted to the Secretary of State. Once approved by State, the MOA has to be transmitted to Congress."

He also said that a Memorandum of Agreement is not a legal document, and that the Germans are operating under a "Letter of Diplomatic Approval" instead.

"That letter doesn't permit the transport of hazardous material," Bond said, adding that "the Germans are now using live weapons while training" by carrying bombs, rockets and flares.

[JR: Bush and Kohl could provide the answers as to how this mirage of an agreement came to be without the approval of Congress or Secretary of State. Most of these agreements are made by our President (acting unilaterally) through Executive Orders, New World Orders, the War Powers Act or OWA (orders w/o authority). There may be many others we don't know about—yet.]

PRESIDENT, SENIOR OFFICIALS BRIEFED ON POSSIBLE "PENETRATION" OF WHITE HOUSE PHONES

By Carl Cameron, Fox News, 5/5/00

WASHINGTON—The White House telephone system may have been penetrated by an employee of an Israeli-owned telecommunications billing company that helped install new telephone lines there three years ago, Fox News has learned.

The FBI, which has briefed President Clinton, CIA Director George Tenet, FBI Director Louis Freeh and Attorney General Janet Reno, is investigating what sources told Fox News was a "penetration of the U.S. Government telephone system".

The breach may have involved the "real-time" interception of telephone conversations inside the White House and other Government offices. It does not involve the secure lines that the President uses for calls to foreign leaders or the military, the sources said.

For the past 18 months, the FBI has been investigating Bell Atlantic and Amdocs, a Chesterfield, Missouri telecommunications billing company, Fox News has learned. Amdocs helped Bell Atlantic install new telephone lines in the White House in 1997.

Amdocs, once a small Israeli software company, is the world's leader in the $20 billion telecommunications billing-software industry, with expected revenues this year of $1.1 billion, said Debra Katz, an analyst with Gerard, Klaur and Mattison in New York. The company employs 5,600 people worldwide and is run by "an amazingly high caliber of people".

Dan Ginsburg, a spokesman for Amdocs, said that the company has not been notified of any FBI investigation and only heard of the probe from news reporters Thursday night. Bell Atlantic officials declined comment.

In 1997, the White House had a new, state-of-the-art phone system installed by Bell Atlantic. The system installed was not a secure, military-installed system for classified conversations but rather a commercially secure phone system. The classified phone lines presumably remain secure and are not involved in the alleged breach, sources said.

Sources said the investigators told the President that a senior-level employee of Amdocs had a separate T1 data phone line installed from his base outside of St. Louis that was connected directly to Israel.

Investigators are looking into whether the owner of the T1 line had a "real-time" capacity to intercept phone calls from both the White House and other Government offices around Washington, and sustained the line for some time, sources said.

Sources familiar with the investigation say FBI agents on the case sought an arrest warrant for the St. Louis employee but Justice Department officials quashed it. Fox News has learned that Chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee Richard Shelby was briefed, along with Senator Richard Bryan, D-Nev., a ranking Democrat on the Committee. Several other lawmakers on key committees with jurisdiction over these matters have never been briefed.

White House spokesman Joe Lockhart told Fox News he was not aware of any such investigation. A senior law-enforcement official at the Justice Department said Friday evening that “to suggest that the phones at the White House have been penetrated is not supported by the facts, and the FBI has not identified anyone it plans to arrest”.

Amdocs provides billing and customer services to telecommunications companies around the world, including Bell Atlantic, BellSouth, Sprint and Vodafone. The Israeli-owned company has grown at an incredible rate since opening an American base in 1997, tripling its U.S. revenues to more than $600 million in 1999.

Amdocs software handles 50 percent of all local calls in the United States and 90 percent of all local calls in Germany.

[JR: This certainly sounds like a sweetheart deal as possible payback for political contributions, as well as accolades for this phenomenal company. If a foreign-owned company were to install unsecured phone lines in the White House, wouldn't you have those lines checked out and cleaned by a Secret Service surveillance team? Why are the CIA, FBI and Reno only concerned about Fox News sources? Perhaps Israel has set up its own Echelon worldwide communications surveillance system through Amdocs. This Amdocs company's success story shows that it can happen in Amerika, as long as there are connections to Israel.]

HOUSE COMMITTEE OKS 5-YEAR EXTENSION OF INTERNET TAX BAN

Chicago Tribune News Services, 5/5/00

WASHINGTON, D.C.—A five-year extension of the moratorium on taxes that target the Internet quickly cleared a House committee Thursday. It is one of three bills Republican leaders and the high-tech industry are pushing to reduce or prevent taxes in cyberspace.

Even though the current moratorium does not end until October 2001, the House Judiciary Committee rushed through the extension bill without hearings and despite complaints that Congress was ignoring the central issue of how state sales taxes apply to electronic commerce.

As Republicans and Democrats battle for political support and campaign contributions from the high-tech sector, House GOP leaders plan a floor vote next week on the moratorium bill.

Also expected to move soon in the House are bills to permanently prohibit any tax on Internet access and to repeal the 3 percent telephone excise tax first enacted to finance the Spanish-American War [of 1898].

The Bill, which was passed 29-8 by the Judiciary Committee, would extend through October 2006 the freeze on any new state, local or federal Internet tax and on those that single out the Internet. The legislation also would repeal a clause that allows some states to retain Internet taxes on their books as of Oct. 1, 1998.

All three measures are supported by a coalition of 11 industry groups.

[JR: Both parties are deferring decisions on this issue until they can put a much better spin on things. I noticed that five years would extend it beyond the next president's term of office and his re-election. Do you suppose a solution would be imposing a National Sales

Tax? It's a cast that could net a lot more fish.]

CLINTON'S "WAG THE DOG" DID LITTLE DAMAGE TO MILOSEVIC'S FORCES

PRNewswire, 5/8/00

A suppressed U.S. Air Force report obtained by Newsweek shows that the number of targets verifiably destroyed by high-altitude bombing in the Kosovo War was a tiny fraction of what top military officers publicly claimed.

The report shows there were 14 tanks destroyed, not 120; 18 armored personnel carriers, not 220; and 20 artillery pieces, not 450. And instead of the 744 “confirmed” strikes by NATO pilots during the War, the Air Force investigators, who spent weeks combing Kosovo, found evidence of just 58 strikes. The damage report has been buried by top military officers and Pentagon officials, who, in interviews with Newsweek over the last three weeks, were still glossing over or denying its significance. General Wesley Clark, the top NATO commander during the War, tried—at least at first—to gain an accurate picture of the bombing, Newsweek reports in the current issue. At the end of June, Clark dispatched a team to do an on-the-ground survey in Kosovo. The 30 experts were known as the Munitions Effectiveness Assessment Team, or MEAT.

The bombing, they discovered, was highly accurate against fixed targets, like bunkers and bridges. “But we were spoofed a lot,” said one team member. The Serbs protected one bridge from the high-flying NATO bombers by constructing, 300 yards upstream, a fake bridge made of polyethylene sheeting stretched over the river. NATO “destroyed” the phony bridge many times.

In addition, artillery pieces were faked out of long black logs stuck on old truck wheels. A two-thirds scale SA-9 anti-aircraft missile launcher was fabricated from the metal-lined paper used to make European milk cartons. “It would have looked perfect from three miles up,” said a MEAT analyst. The team found dozens of burnt-out cars, buses and trucks—but very few tanks, and no indications that hit tanks had been hauled away.

When Clark heard this news, he ordered the inspectors to walk the terrain, report National Security Correspondent John Barry and Assistant Managing Editor Evan Thomas in the May 15 issue (on newsstands Monday, May 8). They came back with 2,600 photographs and briefed the commanders. “What do you mean we didn't hit tanks?” said General Walter Begert, the Air Force Deputy Commander in Europe. Clark said, “This can't be. I don't believe it.”

The Air Force was ordered to prepare a new report and in a month, Brigadier General John Corley was able to turn around a survey that pleased Clark. It asserted that NATO had successfully struck 93 tanks, close to the 120 claimed by General Shelton at the end of the War, and 153 armored personnel carriers, not far off the 220 touted by Shelton. But Corley's team did not do any actual field research. Rather, it looked for any support for pilots' claims. “The methodology is rock solid,” said Corley, who strongly denied any attempt to obfuscate. “Smoke and mirrors” is more like it, according to a senior officer at NATO headquarters who examined the data, Newsweek reports. NATO sources also say two of Clark's officers cautioned him not to accept Corley's numbers. The U.S. intelligence community, too, was doubtful. “Nobody is very keen to talk about this topic,” a CIA official told Newsweek. Over-rating the Kosovo bombing could lead to fundamentally flawed strategies in future similar conflicts, Newsweek notes.

[JR: Lying and the fabrication of supposed facts have been and are systematic with this Clinton Administration. NATO isn't any more credible about its target successes according to the MEAT report compiled by the military. When are we going to grow tired of being lied to?]

2 MORE JEWS ADMIT BEING ISRAELI SPIES IN IRAN TRIAL

Chicago Tribune, 5/4/00

SHIRAZ, IRAN (AP)—Two more Iranian Jews admitted Wednesday that they spied for Israel, bringing to three the number of defendants who have confessed to espionage in a trial that has attracted international concern.

Defense lawyers for the 13 Jews on trial for alleged spying questioned the validity of the confessions and criticized the court, in which the judge acts as prosecutor and judge.

Israel condemned the latest confessions as “loathsome”. It denies that any of the 13 Iranian Jews on trial for espionage in this southern city are spies.

The provincial judiciary chief, Hossein Ali Amiri, said the three confessed to spying for Israeli's Mossad intelligence service and “were driven by financial and religious motivations”.

If convicted, the defendants could be sentenced to death for passing secret information that damages national security. Two Jews were hanged three years ago on similar charges.

Amiri said, “All I can predict is that their sentences may not be execution.” He said the young ages of the defendants would be taken in account.

In the latest confessions, Shahrokh Paknahad, 30, a religion teacher, and Ramin Nematizadeh, 27, a shop clerk, told the court they had spied for Israel.

The first defendant to confess, Dani Tefilin, a shoe salesman, told reporters outside the court he was under no duress when he confessed Monday. He was shown on state television saying he had received espionage training during a visit to Israel.

Tefilin and Paknahad, brought briefly before reporters, were calm, unshackled and wearing gray prison uniforms printed with the scales of justice. Journalists aren't allowed in the court.

Defense lawyers have questioned the fairness of the proceedings and the validity of a confession made on television. Western nations have expressed concern about the prosecution of the 13 Jews and the fairness of their trial.

In a statement issued by its Foreign Ministry in Jerusalem, Israel said Wednesday: “The entire trial, conducted behind closed doors—in violation of Iran's promises to the international community—in which the judge is also the prosecutor and investigator, and the accused immediately and publicly confess their alleged guilt to the media, is reminiscent of show trials from the dark periods of modern history.”

The Iranian judiciary is dominated by conservatives opposed to the reformist policy of President Mohammad Khatami, who favors rapprochement with the West.

Defense lawyer Esmail Naseri, who represents the three men who confessed, said their defense is based on proving that no classified information changed hands. He said none of the defendants had access to secret information.

Describing the court proceedings, Naseri said: “The judge makes the accusation of espionage, but when we ask for evidence, he remains silent.”

Paknahad told reporters he was a ringleader who had helped set up a spy network for Israel in the city of Isfahan, 200 miles northwest of Shiraz. Paknahad said he had asked for clemency.

Naseri said Nematizadeh told the court he had given defense information, gathered during his mandatory military service, to his Israeli superiors.

Naseri said Tefilin refused to retract his confession despite Judge Sadeq Nourani's providing him with an opportunity Wednesday.

“The Judge said: ‘If truly you are telling lies, if you are influenced by any matter, if someone has made promises to you and if you have exaggerated any confession, now is the time to correct the matter.’” Naseri told reporters.

[JR: The Mossad actively recruits and has its contacts through many sources. One such is the “sayan” which means Jewish volunteers living outside of Israel. There are also the “marats”, who are listeners and the “bodels”, who are go-between messengers between safe-houses and embassies. Israel’s denials (remember, lies are excused under the Kol Nidre) do not refute the facts.]

HAS TAIWAN GONE NUCLEAR?

NewsMax.com, 5/12/00

If a report in a prestigious publication dealing with defense issues is correct, Taiwan has joined the nuclear-weapons club, and the strategic situation in the Taiwan Straits has changed drastically.

According to a report in the authoritative Defence and Foreign Affairs journal, the Taiwanese military have gotten their hands on two nuclear warheads and put them on a pair of medium-range ballistic missiles aimed at the mainland.

The journal, published by the International Strategic Studies Association in Washington, reports that the nukes, originally owned by South Africa, were obtained in an under-the-counter deal brokered by a so-called “intermediary Middle Eastern country”. [Israel, which is the arms merchant of the world?]

Taiwanese officials strongly denied the report and said they didn't have any “medium-range surface-to-surface missiles” that could carry nuclear warheads and, thanks to restrictions on exports of missile technology, couldn't develop their own arsenal of ballistic missiles if they wanted to.

Nevertheless, if the report is true, the entire strategic situation vis-a-vis the Taiwan-Mainland China standoff has changed drastically. China has made no secret about their plans to invade Taiwan should the island's Government declare independence.

Published reports from the official People's Liberation Army [PLA] have outlined a blitzkrieg-like attack on Taiwan, with hundred of thousands of PLA troops landing on the island and overwhelming Taiwanese defenses. The lightning-like invasion would effectively preclude U.S. participation in the early stages of the war, and China bluntly warned the United States that they would not hesitate to use their own nuclear arsenal against the United States, should the United States attempt to use nuclear weapons in retaliation against China.

But, if Taiwan does have even as few as two nuclear missiles aimed at the mainland, they could stop a Chinese invasion dead in its tracks. It could be back to the drawing board for Chinese strategic planners, and a toning down of the war of words Beijing has been waging.

[This has all the earmarks of an intelligence-agency destabilization program.]

PUTIN BEGINS CRACKDOWN ON RUSSIA'S OLIGARCHS

Stratfor.com, 5/11/00

Russian tax police raided oligarch Vladimir Gusinsky's Media-MOST offices in Moscow on the morning of May 11. The Russian press is playing up the incident as a violation of democracy and free speech. More important, it is President Vladimir Putin's first official offensive against the corrupt upper tier of Russian businessmen. To prove his impartiality, however, Putin will next need to launch an equally strict operation against Gusinsky's rival, Boris Berezovsky.

Armed with submachine guns and axes, tax police, Interior Ministry troops and investigators from the Prosecutor General's office evacuated and searched the Media-MOST office. Media-MOST is a holding company founded by Gusinsky that operates the NTV independent television station, the Echo of Moscow radio [station] and the Segodnya newspaper. The Prosecutor General's office released a statement that said prosecutors had discovered information on Media-MOST employees while investigating the embezzlement of Government money. Last November, Media-MOST was also confronted by the Yeltsin Administration for failing to pay a $42 million debt.

On the surface, it appears that Putin is resorting to tactics most Western observers had hoped he would resist: using the Federal Security Services (FSB) to rough up his political opposition. Russian media immediately accused the Kremlin of Stalin-style intimidation and censorship. There are several factors that support this argument. Gusinsky's media outlets oppose Putin and his Administration. NTV and Segodnya often publish features critical of the Government, the War in Chechnya and Putin's rise to power.

Also, Gusinsky does not primarily own commodities, which are the profitable industries that must be pulled out of the oligarchs' reach. Putin's goal is to separate the oligarchs from industries where they can steal enough money to damage the entire economy. In light of this goal, Gusinsky does not seem to fit the profile.

But, through Media-MOST's connection to Gazprom, Gusinsky and his companies do have the power to pass on a significant financial burden, the effects of which will seep back to the national economy. In 1996, Gazprom bought 30 percent of the shares in Media-MOST. Since then, Media-MOST has accrued approximately $1 billion worth of foreign debt, for which Gazprom is liable. Should Media-MOST default, or should Gusinsky reallocate some funds to his personal accounts, Gazprom—in which the State has the largest stake—will have to pick up the debt. And the federal Government, which relies on Gazprom's profit to cover more than 25 percent of Government revenues, is not willing to sacrifice a billion dollars for Gusinsky.

Finally, as a result of a rift among the powerful oligarchs who used to surround former President Boris Yeltsin, Gusinsky is Berezovsky's rival. Observers who believe Putin is in some way allied with or indebted to Berezovsky have already hinted that Putin is doing Berezovsky both a personal and professional favor, as Berezovsky owns several competing media companies. In order to prove he is prepared to systematically remove all of the oligarchs from powerful positions, Putin will next have to confront Berezovsky. Thus, in light of Putin's plan to use the secret services and tax police to wipe out the oligarchs, it becomes apparent that the raid on Gusinsky's companies was more than just a Kremlin attack on its political opponents.

TRIBAL COUNCIL ATTEMPTS TO QUASH RELEASE OF AUDIT REPORT!

By “Wild Horse”, from the Internet, 5/12/00

RED CLOUD BUILDING, PINE RIDGE INDIAN RESERVATION, SD—With the recently completed audit of the Oglala Sioux Tribe's 1999 Indirect Cost Fund on its way to the BIA regional office in Aberdeen, members of the Tribal Council are pleading with BIA officials to suppress the report from public distribution.

In an executive session of the Tribe's Finance Committee yesterday, BIA Superintendent Robert Ecoffey explained to the Committee that the audit findings must and will be made available to tribal members. Committee members, comprised of Tribal Council representatives, are gravely concerned about the latest audit findings, as the Indirect Cost Fund pertains to federal program monies that are funneled to the Tribe for specific uses. Misappropriation of these funds carries a felony charge. Grass Roots Oyate spokespeople are convinced that this audit report [will] be as incriminating as the General Fund audit.

In an illegal session of the Tribal Council last week held in Rapid City, council representatives rebuked BIA-appointed auditor Jaime Arobba for releasing the 1999 General Fund audit to the general public. Arobba assured the Council that he followed procedure by giving the report to his client, the BIA, and upon review, it was the BIA that released the report to tribal members. For years, tribal Government officials have kept closed books at the Red Cloud Building, leaving tribal members to wonder where their money is being spent. With what resembles a Third World country [approach], tribal members are confident that the funds are not being spent on them.

In a document obtained by the Grass Roots Oyate, White House staff members, high-ranking, influential senators and a team of attorneys have been meeting secretly with the accused tribal Government officials. While White House officials and Senate members refuse to recognize the Oyate's efforts for justice and [tribal] Government reform, they are conducting weekly meetings with Tribal Treasurer Wesley C. Jacobs and members of the Tribal Council in an attempt to protect President Clinton's promise of millions of dollars in federal funding through the “New Market Initiatives/Empowerment Zone Program”. Obviously, Senate Minority Leader Tom Daschle, whose home state is South Dakota, has much to lose if tribal members are successful at blocking the Empowerment Zone project.

Without garnering majority support from their constituents, Tribal Council members took it upon themselves to accept the Empowerment Zone project. Tribal elders are not blinded by the short-term benefits of this offer. They believe in the philosophy that “there is no such thing as a free lunch”. Historically, the U.S. has shown [itself] to be interested solely in the land that the Oglala Lakota people have cared for. Grass Roots Oyate spokesmen say the Empowerment Zone is the equivalent to the infamous “Trojan Horse”. They may appear to want to help the indigenous peoples, but over the long term, elders believe that much of their treaty land will be comprised and fall under state jurisdiction. Senator Daschle has proven that he has no regard for the active 1868 Fort Laramie Treaty that the U.S. made with the Great Sioux Nation. He has been widely criticized for his Mitigation Act bill, which effectively transferred over 100,000 acres of treaty land to the State of South Dakota. U.S. officials are promising jobs and a better future, but at what cost to the Oglala Lakota people?

Under the guidelines of the 1868 Treaty at Fort Laramie, the Grass Roots Oyate have proclaimed their sovereign immunity and have maintained peaceful control of the Red Cloud Building since January 16th. Their quest has gained international attention and forced the United States Government to dust off and re-learn century-old treaties that are still recognized as the supreme law of this country.
