Elite-Driven Terrorists Foment Destabilization

5/22/00—#2 (13-280)

BOMBS OF ALL KINDS

Hatonn—Things are pretty stressed in places such as Manila, where again, yesterday, a massive bomb was detonated in the “Megamall”. So, expect at least one in EVERY mall, would be the suggested attention. And yes, this is outright terrorism, regardless of WHO is responsible. I can tell you, however, it is NOT the work of Muslims, as in Quran (Koran) Muslims. This becomes an obvious last-ditch attempt to salvage the Philippines from loss by the Big World-Order Elite. Terror is their mode of operations and always has been.

It is important to tear any given country under siege asunder and dump it into economic collapse and chaos.

It doesn't HAVE TO WORK THIS WAY, but it is the way of the orchestrated blueprint for takeover. It is time now to see if the leadership of the Philippines is strong and daring enough to gain control of these criminal elements.

This can now be accomplished easily through the Global ALLIANCE [GAIA] for a fundamental focus and resource. It has nothing to do with individual entities except in legalities but we can now establish a sound and secure resource, association with neighbors and brothers—AND leave individual participants out of the public focus. GAIA has no wish for publicity other than to simply represent viable options and resources made available. The parties want no publicity and only demand that later, when inquiries come forward as to possible participation from other nations, that the participation is represented properly—which does not even suggest sharing of business privacy but only authentication of the “product”.

It would certainly appear, however, since all Southeast Asian—and Asian—nations are under total attack by world powers, that an Alliance be recognized to offer assistance to the brotherhood of nations. This can, as intended, reach globally, while allowing

THE PEOPLE to control their own projects and, therefore, their own stability and assurance of funding from outside the corrupted governments usually involved. The governments themselves, as the incorporated agencies they are, can apply for and receive their own funding, which will ensure public transparency as well as negating the ability for such corruption as is now collapsing nations. Public projects can be funded and worked—as BUSINESS must be handled and OUTSIDE of the possible corruption of individual graft and malignant immorality of politicians and would-be depravity.

This can all be structured to individual “needs” but, as well, remain totally private. This privacy ensures ability to work a clean, clear plan of use as well as bring no notoriety to cause open warfare in the marketplace or banking communities. And YES, this CAN BE ACCOMPLISHED via a Head of State. This can be swift, quiet and immediate. All laws and constitutional authority are already IN PLACE—without need for further death-dealing committee boggling or amendments to anything—and thus the Program can be put in place instantly.

I really don't want to focus this writing on GAIA as such, for there are so many important issues to consider as to overwhelm if you don't realize that all the happenings are orchestrated and connected to one intent: the taking of World Control by the Elitists.

I do want to give great and honorable recognition to the fact that there are brilliant minds available and, in the Philippines, there are a few who actually observe what is taking place and dare to write TRUTH, as they witness it taking place. Yellow journalism, however, has seeped into the papers and media to the point of negating individual journalists as reliable resources.

I honor and appreciate Erick San Juan for having bothered to do his homework, and his observations and research connections are quite sound—and his perceptions, excellent.

With that in mind, we will offer a couple of current letters (writings) which are excellent in presentation. We greatly appreciate the permission to use these documents for our own readers' information, instead of the global media-controlled hogwash. When a person can connect that which takes place half a world distant with that which is taking place in his own dooryard, you have exceptionally good input, and unless you get correct input—your perception can be no better than the data “in”.

GLOBAL BALKANIZATION PLAN

In referring to this information, I ask you to consider both the Philippines and Kosovo, and you might wish to title this: Global Balkanization Plan.

It will also bring up “Bosnia”, at which point you who are United States Citizens will RECOGNIZE that Bosnia was and is the current reference for the continuation of the War Powers Act and the National Emergency which is annually extended to give the President authority to rule through Executive Order and maintain Martial Law. Bosnia continues to be used as the reason and it is simply annually extended as such, so that there is no distraction or note by Congress. There will be a small annual note published but no focus or debate will take place—only in that it is “renewed” or “extended”.

[QUOTING, letter from Erick San Juan:]

19 May 2000

Dear Sir:

Manong Max Soliven's brilliant article on the hostage drama and the ongoing conflict between the AFP and the MILF (STAR, 01 May) clearly shows that controversial Harvard Prof. Samuel P. Huntington's “clash of civilizations” scenario is now in progress here. In a word, the globalists' plan to “Balkanize” the Philippines, just like its Indonesian neighbor, has begun.

The former “mujahideens” turned “terrorists” and their fanatical Islamic “fundamentalist” brothers used to be a part of the 4,000 Muslims from over two dozen Islamic countries who saw action in BOSNIA.

In 1997, the U.S. State Department released [a list of] 30 Foreign Terrorist Organizations (FTOs) banned from operating on U.S. soil, in compliance with the Anti-Terrorist Act of 1998. Of the 30 groups named, six maintain headquarters in Britain. These are: the Islamic Group (Egypt), Al-Jihad (Egypt), Hamas (Israel, Palestine Authority), Armed Islamic Group (Algeria, France), Kurdish Workers party (Turkey) and the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (Sri Lanka).

In addition to the six FTOs whose headquarters are located in Britain, an additional 16 groups on the State Department's 1997 list either receive funding from groups based in Britain, or receive military training and logistical support from groups operating freely from British soil. Those groups are: the Abu Nidal Organization (Palestinian Authority), Harkat ul-Ansar (India), Mujahideen e Khalq (Iran), Kach (Israel, Palestinian Authority), Kahane Chai (Israel, Palestinian Authority), Abu Sayyaf (Philippines), Hezbollah (Israel, Lebanon), Khmer Rouge (Cambodia), ELN (Colombia), Shining Path (Peru), MRTA (Peru), Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine (Israel, Palestinian Authority) and PFLP-General Command (Israel, Palestinian Authority).

These paid hacks masquerading as “mujahideens” and “fundamentalist freedom fighters” are dragging the faithful followers of Islam into a bloody conflict which may yet turn global.

The situation we are all about to be in—unless most of us wake up—is not new. As Prof. Huntington correctly surmised, “Conflict along the fault line between Western and Islamic civilizations has been going on for 1300 years. The lines drawn in the eastern boundary of Western “Christianity” during the Middle Ages are again being re-drawn by the descendants of those who initiated it in the year 1500. “This line runs along what are now the boundaries between Finland and Russia and between the Baltic states and Russia, (and) cuts through Belarus and Ukraine, separating the more “Catholic” western Ukraine from Orthodox eastern Ukraine. In short, the peoples to the north and west of this line are protestant or Catholic, while the peoples to the east and south of this line are Orthodox and Muslim.

[H: I would like to remind you that these are “religions” and are not spiritually, God Creator-oriented “organizations”. They were structured for control and remain the leading tools for maintaining control or creating chaos. This structure is to induce chaos, not spiritual brotherhood—EVER. GOD DOES NOT CONDONE WAR—EVER—UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES. GOD IS FREEDOM AND MAN INDIVIDUAL IS SOVEREIGN. ALL ELSE IS MANMADE AND IS USED TO ENSURE ENSLAVEMENT, WHILE THE ONLY REMAINING ARGUMENT IS AS TO WHO WILL BE THE SLAVE-MASTER.]

“It is the West against Islam,” says Safar Al-Hawaii, Dean of Islamic Studies at the Umm Al-Qra University in Mecca. However, from East Asia to the Middle East, there is a slight variation. “A Confucian-Islamic military connection has come into being,” writes Huntington. “The flow of weapons and weapons technology is generally from East Asia to the Middle East. There is, however, some movement in the reverse direction; China has received Stinger missiles from Pakistan to counter the military power of the West,” he adds. [H: I would take exception to this presentation but this suffices for this writing. Most of the arms are “through” Israel, which is the biggest ARMS DEALER in the world.]

In view of these latest developments in the field of geopolitics, it becomes imperative for us to appeal to the OIC member-states to mediate in Mindanao to avoid a total clash between Christians and Muslims. The OIC is known to be objective, unlike the son of the Libyan leader, who propagates “fundamentalism”.

[END OF QUOTING]

VOLUNTEERS

Before we move into our topic this morning as regards the upheavals and actual warfare taking place in the Philippines, I want to remind EVERYONE of something very important: “Ekkers” are VOLUNTEERS in this foreign experience and ongoing contribution. From time to time, as bombs blast through the mall across the street and storms lash even the hotel to the point of pouring rain into the 12th-floor rooms, it is somewhat less than pleasant as a rest and recreation retreat.

Some funds set aside with others—into “security” holding—have been used and are no longer available now that the hard times have hit. A corporation such as NCH—which was started at the Phoenix Institute's expense for 50% of the company itself—has been usurped and taken 100% by parties claiming it for selves—after never helping in any ongoing needs of the Institute itself. Still, Ekkers are blamed and actually confronted in court because of lack of more production to pay the parasites who took over other properties.

Next, there is a wonderment and spate of badmouthing and actual THEFTS to prove the intent of seizing businesses—and actually setting up shameful accusations and presenting outright lies internationally and continuing theft of property through the international Internet. Still, everybody waits for Ekkers to somehow “fix it”. NO, that is NOT THE WAY IT WORKS in A JUST world. We are working toward a JUST WORLD and not more of the mushmouth overlooking of the evil deeds men (and women, if you can't know grammar) do. To CALL lies “TRUTH” does not truth make!

Oh, it is fact that we shall endeavor to reach all goals established and, indeed, pour funds into ventures which give men opportunity for building and growing, but it is obvious that there is no peace in personal wealth, as in “money”. The thieves will always steal, lie and cheat to get it from you. You who serve God will understand this and manage your gains or assets properly within the laws of the land AND God, and find a bit of security in the doing.

And yes, indeed, for you who are inquiring constantly now: We will move out of NCH but yes, indeed, we will confront the mismanagement team who have damaged beyond counting in the process of their mischief. Surely, a few fees—as agreed upon when the corporation was started for the parties involved—would not even have been noted in the ongoing business gained. The PI circumstance of resignation by Cort Christie and hidden lack of payment of fees WILL BE CONFRONTED AND

THIS WILL NOT BE LIGHTLY OVERLOOKED! There was no way for Ekkers to have KNOWN that there was any problem at all in the ongoing corporate structure or fees due. THAT escapade was INTENTIONAL and shall be met as such.

There is now no question as to who took them and why the files and records of the Institute were stolen and/or destroyed.

I SUGGEST IT IS TIME THAT SOME PEOPLE WHO “KNOW” START TALKING CLEARLY AND LOUDLY, EVEN IF YOU ARE INVOLVED IN THE SUBTERFUGE, FOR THE BOTTOM OF THE GLASS SHALL BE REACHED AND THE DEEDS MAGNIFIED AS THE FOCUS INTENSIFIES.

Rick Martin-Cortright wrote that “...you don’t want me for an enemy...”. Well, let me assure you that YOU DON’T WANT ME FOR AN ENEMY...! WHEN YOU SUCCUMB TO BECOMING SCUM WHILE WORKING WITH THE SCUM OR SCUM-SUCKERS, YOU HAVE REALLY STOOPED LOW IN YOUR OWN MORAL INTEGRITY—AND IT IS CERTAINLY TIME TO COME OUT OF THE HOLES AND CLEAR THE WATER. YOU WHO SIMPLY WANT TO BE UNINVOLVED? I HAVE TERRIBLE NEWS FOR YOU—YOU ARE THE MOST INVOLVED, FOR YOU HAVE LIED EVEN TO SELF.

I suggest that you who have ignorantly bumbled along and into this conspiracy of “kill the Institute and Ekkers” realize your position and the damage you present to such as the Millers—in service to those with nothing to offer in the first place but who have been total parasites on your own backs. “Just want to get the word out?” HOW BLIND CAN YOU GET? THIS IS NOT A GAME OF SOME KIND, KIDDIES—THIS IS CRIMINAL ACTIVITY, AND JUST “KNOWING” ABOUT IT IS AIDING AND ABETTING THE CRIMINALS IN MANAGEMENT AND SHALL BE TREATED AS SUCH. IF YOU KNOW WHAT HAPPENED AND WHO ORCHESTRATED THE VARIOUS INCIDENTS—IT IS TIME FOR YOUR OWN GOOD AND YOUR FAMILIES INVOLVED—AS IN CHILDREN AND SPOUSES—THAT YOU START TELLING THE TRUTH.

And, Rick, it is certainly time you confront your association and ongoing connection with “Manny”, as you tried to shift off right to claim and gain—or, at the least, this is what “Manny” now claims far and wide. You, Gail—and Charles—never should have betrayed us, for in so doing you set selves up for a very big “fall”. So be it. You can kill the Ekkers; you CANNOT KILL TRUTH. Moreover, God works in such mysterious ways that some things you thought were false—were and ARE total truth! Now, isn’t that just the way of it? Even Russell Herman fooled the whole lot of you conniving, would-be-grabbers.

I bring this up here and now because we seem to be to the point of further publicity that somehow Ekkers are claiming fame and wealth and get-rich-quick schemes. And no, we have not escaped the efforts for same—but even that serves us very well, indeed, as we move on ahead.

EKKERS HAVE VOLUNTEERED THEIR TIME AND BEYOND THAT HAVE PAID FOR THE VERY EXPERIENCE, HAVING BORROWED

INTO ETERNAL DEBT TO MAKE THIS ONE MAJOR EFFORT TO ALLOW FOR POSSIBILITY OF CHANGE. ALL SUPPORT SENT TO CONTACT HAS GONE TO PAYING ABSOLUTE EXPENSES IN ORDER TO SECURE THE PROPERTY ON THE LEASED FARM AND THE OFFICE COMPLEX, WHICH HOUSES THE PAPER. EVERY CENT OF PERSONAL SOCIAL-SECURITY INCOME HAS GONE INTO PAYING BILLS BACK IN THE STATES AND BARE EXISTENCE COSTS IN THE PHILIPPINES. THERE ARE NO FRONT PAYOFFS OF ANY SIZE, ZERO MONETARY PAYMENTS, FROM ANYTHING—ANYWHERE.

THE FULL COST OF THE VENTURE HAS BEEN TOTALLY PAID FOR BY THE LEGAL SUIT SETTLED IN THE EKKERS’ PROPERTY CASE. EVERY ONE OF THE LOCAL FRIENDS (NOW ENEMIES, AS WELL) WAS PRESENT WHEN THE DECISION WAS MADE TO MAKE THIS JOURNEY, WITH ATTORNEY, TO DO EXACTLY WHAT IS BEING ACCOMPLISHED. HOW LONG, CHELAS, WILL YOU SEVER YOUR OWN HEADS AT YOUR OWN NECKS, WHILE REALLY HURTING YOUR NEIGHBOR? WORSE, YOU CALL IT “GOODNESS” IN YOUR WARPED PERCEPTIONS OF SELF-IMPORTANCE. AN EXAMPLE, MY FRIENDS, HAS ALWAYS BEEN PROVEN TO BE EVER SO MUCH MORE IMPORTANT THAN TEN THOUSAND WORDS ISSUED FROM IGNORANCE OR OPINION. WHAT HAVE YOU DONE LATELY THAT YOU WOULD LIKE TO HIDE OR KEEP HIDDEN? UMMHUMMNN, I THOUGHT SO!

This is again being stated here because the assault on us now is through suggestions that somehow old lenders to the Institute are footing some kind of bill for two old folks to adventure and vacation in Paradise.

We will now turn back to a continuation of yesterday’s writing and specifically Erick’s reference to Max V. Soliven’s column of May 1, 2000 in the Philippine Star—which Max, by the way, publishes.

Please note that somehow, however, even the touters of great wisdom and observation from this, the Philippines, spend so much of their time in the United States cavorting with the rich and famous as to negate their very input but, nonetheless, this is a respected journalist whose claim to fame was bashing Marcos—because he was incarcerated by said “Strongman”.

We are cautious to always present the whole picture wherein we can do so and, therefore, simply offer what we can to flesh out the whole story. This takes space we would devote to other topics but we choose to stay to our intent of good input.

[QUOTING Max V. Soliven, Monday, May 1, 2000, “By the Way”, The Philippine Star, “OPINION”, page 10:]

ON BANK RUNS, ALSO-RANS AND BAD HOSTAGE DRAMAS

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS—Today’s holiday, Monday, meaning “Labor Day”, ought to give us time for the jitters being experienced by bank depositors to subside. As I write, the panic caused by the collapse of Urban Bank has already begun to evaporate.

No shock waves were felt here in the United States, which is usually sensitive to bank and market meltdowns in Asian countries (so interlinked globally have nations’ economies become). Even the “early news” that the Philippine Stock Exchange [PSE] had dropped to an 18-month low last weekend as a result of the bank jitters in Manila did not register over here. (The PSE is always falling nowadays, it seems.) [H: Yes, indeed, both the Peso AND the Stock Market in the Philippines are at their very low lows and falling. However, even having Mr. Soliven back in Manila has not solved a thing—not even a tiny thing.]

When a few people at our Internationals Press Institute (IPI) 50th World Congress here at Boston’s Seaport Hotel and World Trade Center inquired about the Philippines, it was about the “hostage” situation regarding the 21 people (including 10 foreign tourists from their countries) who were kidnapped by Moro bandits of the Abu Sayyaf from the luxury resort of Semporna (Sipadan island) in Malaysia.

[H: Oops, Mr. Soliven, this is not quite fair. Most of the hostages taken are Malaysian and you leave the international impression by your use of “in Malaysia” that this somehow must be near, somehow, Kuala Lumpur or something. No, this is a very upscale “diving” resort but is far closer to the Philippines than to big old Malaysia. The place in point is SABAH, remember? And Sabah is “old Borneo”—remember those old tales of the “Wildmen of Borneo”? Well these are not “wild” men, Max, THESE ARE TRAINED BY THE CIA AND BRITISH INTELLIGENCE COOL KATS (SEAL TYPE), ARMED BY WEAPONRY FROM ISRAEL AND THE CIA. SO, LET’S NOT OVERDO THE BLAME TOSSING.]

Now that the Abu Sayyaf mujahideen have discovered that they can milk the abduction of foreign tourists for maximum international publicity, we’ll have to brace ourselves for more intrusions and high-profile kidnap operations to come. Kidnapping, pillaging and piracy, after all, have been a tradition among Moro raiders for centuries. It’s a cottage industry down in the Sulu archipelago. [H: This is pure slang to lump a whole group into one huge lump of bad guys—and THIS IS WHAT RACISM, FANATICISM AND YELLOW JOURNALISM ARE ALL ABOUT.]

The round-up of 600 Filipinos in Mabul Island by Malaysian police (who are embarrassed that Moro “invaders” could so easily penetrate one of their world-famous beach resorts) is a clear case of overkill. However, who can blame the Malaysians? It’s been confirmed that the Moro bandits had come from Basilan. Therefore, the almost half a million Moros (and some Christians) living and working—many illegally—in Malaysian Borneo (Sabah) are the first to fall under suspicion.

The Abu Sayyaf, on the other hand, aren’t concerned about what happens in retaliation to their Muslim brethren. They’re after lurid headlines and “ransom” money. Banditry is alive and well in our southern archipelago under the guise of a religious jihad and the goal of carving an Islamic state out of our rich island of Mindanao.

[H: I am curious as to just how anyone, including Mr. Soliven, can tell the difference between a camouflage-uniformed Filipino Christian and a camouflage-uniformed Muslim? And, moreover, how do you tell a Filipino Moro from a Filipino Moro?]

Our armed forces have to press their offensive into the Basilan heartland of the Islamic insurgency, even if thus far they've not come upon any hideout where the hostages abducted from Semporna last Sunday are being held. Keep the pressure on, keep the bandits on the run—eventually they'll be flushed out of one of their island lairs.

[H: Easy for you, Mr. Soliven, in Boston, Massachusetts, U.S.A.?)]

The NEW YORK TIMES yesterday (Sunday) ran as its banner headline on the front page a timely story: "South Asia Called Major Terror Hub in a Survey by U.S." [H: Oh, my goodness, the New York Times, yet!]

The highly-prestigious daily quoted a 107-page report which [H: take note] had been provided the TIMES a DAY BEFORE its OFFICIAL RELEASE BY THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT. [H: Can anyone count at least ten things WRONG with this sentence?]

The article by Judith Miller stated: "The State Department has for the first time identified south Asia as a major hub of international terrorism, accusing Pakistan, a traditional American ally, and especially Afghanistan of providing safe haven and support to international terrorist groups."

The report said that Americans today face greater threats from "loose networks" of groups and individuals "motivated more by religion or ideology than by politics, and financed increasingly by drug trafficking, crime and illegal trade". [H: Well, perhaps—but then, WHO exactly heads the list of same?]

Listed in the report as aiding "terrorism" were the same seven countries that Washington, D.C. has been accusing of harboring and aiding terrorist since 1993: Cuba, Iran, Iraq, Libya, North Korea, Sudan and Syria. "But," the article goes on to say, "Afghanistan also poses 'a major terrorist threat' by, among other things, continuing to shelter the Saudi exile Osama bin Laden, who is wanted in the 1998 bombings of two American embassies in Africa (Kenya and Tanzania), as well as other Afghan-trained Islamic militants sought by the (U.S.) Administration." [H: Boy, that bin Laden must be almost as much of a superman as Saddam to control the entire world of groups set up and trained with orchestrated wars by the Israeli-U.S. and the CIA-British Intelligence "Judeo-Christians"! He just seems to be everywhere, even where he has NEVER even visited.]

This is what we've been shouting from the rooftops in this corner for months—that Osama bin Laden, Youssef Ramzi and their terrorist network have been supporting and training the Moro Abu Sayyaf for many years. No wonder the violence in Basilan, Zamboanga del Sur and del Norte, the Sulu archipelago and elsewhere in Mindanao, like Maguindanao, Cotabato and Lanao, has escalated so dramatically.

The irony of it is that many of the weapons being shipped to Mindanao from Afghanistan and Pakistan

(and through cooperative Malaysian Muslim quarters) were originally provided by the Americans, Brits and other "friendly" Western sources when the Afghans were resisting Soviet Russian invasion. [H: Yes, indeed, you have shouted this from the rooftops and have accomplished nothing save hiding the real culprits behind your protective words as distracters.]

In those days, they were hailed by the Western press as "freedom fighters". These days, they are the feared "terrorists" and fanatical Islamic "fundamentalists". The report identifies 28 groups as "foreign terrorist organizations".

[H: YES, INDEED, THIS IS CERTAINLY A FACT BUT IN "FOREIGN", ISN'T THAT SIMPLY A WORD FOR "FOREIGN TO A GIVEN LOCATION OR NATION"? WELL, THE FACTS ARE, FOR YOU INQUIRING MINDS: RUSSELL HERMAN DIED BECAUSE HE WAS A CASUALTY IN THE WORKINGS OF THIS "FOREIGN" TERRORIST GANG WHO HAPPENED TO BE THE CIA, THE U.S. "ADMINISTRATION"—WITH HIGHEST LEVEL CABINET MEMBERS TO THE PRESIDENT OF SAME—AND SAID IT WOULD BE EXACTLY "THIS WAY". HE EVEN HELPED TRAIN THE TEAMS IN THE PLOT AND WHEN HE PULLED OUT IN THE FACE OF SUCH EVIL INTENT—HE WAS RADIATED AND TORTURED TO DEATH OVER A PERIOD OF THE NEXT SEVERAL YEARS. AND THIS IS WHY YOU PEOPLE ARE NOW FINDING, AVAILABLE TO YOUR USE, THAT WHICH HE WAS ABLE TO BRING INTO SECURITY FOR YOU TODAY. HE TOLD IT ALL AND RECORDED IT ALL IN A SECURE FASHION, AND NO, EKKERS DO NOT KNOW ANYTHING MORE ABOUT IT—AT ALL! THEY ONLY AGREED TO HIM PERSONALLY TO GET THE INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS TO THE PEOPLE—ESPECIALLY OF THE PHILIPPINES, WHERE THIS HORRENDOUS TAKEOVER WOULD PRECIPITATE IN ITS MOST VICIOUS FORM. WHAT WILL HAPPEN NOW? THAT IS STRICTLY UP TO THE LEADERSHIP OF THE PHILIPPINES, FOR WE HAVE DONE OUR AGREED-UPON SERVICE IN A PROMISE TO A DYING MAN WHO JUST HAPPENS TO HAVE BEEN: THE RICHEST MAN EVER ON THE FACE OF THE EARTH—AND THAT HAVING BEEN PUT TO LAW THROUGH A NICE GEORGE HERBERT WALKER BUSH, SR. AND HIS ENTOURAGE OF MANIPULATORS TO GET A "WORLD SUPERFUND". SO, YOU CAN BLAME THE WRONG PEOPLE ALL THE TIME AND IT WILL NOT MAKE A WHIT OF DIFFERENCE TO THE TRUTH OF THE MATTER IN POINT.]

Mark my words.

The restive Muslim Albanian Kosovars whom the Americans and North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) warplanes and K-FOR troops rescued from the depredations of the Christian Serb bullies will be blowing up U.S. embassies and attacking United Nations and NATO peacekeepers soon enough—as the wave of Islamic fundamentalism and jihad (religious war) sweeps through Muslim communities in a mix of zeal and resentment.

The prophet Mohammad may have preached "peace" and that Allah is "all-powerful and all-merciful" but, alas, Imams, Ustadzes, Ayatollahs and Muslim preachers seem to be calling for a war against the infidels. In case you missed the reference, that's us. [H: So, you, Mr. Soliven, suggest getting to the war FIRST with the most bloodletting against "them"—when you haven't the foggiest idea, from Boston, Mass., who is actually involved in the arrangements OR THE FACTUAL ACTIVITIES. It appears here that you, Max, should be arrested and tried for "incitement to riot" or, at the least, "inciting civil disobedience". Your own "opinion" column is as close to inciting war as anything short of the other columnists involved in the mouthing mess for which the media controls the minds of the people. THESE THINGS ARE NOT OF GOD—AND YOU ARE NOT OF GOD WHEN YOU SUGGEST SUCH RETALIATIONS—AND OH, YES, YOU DO IN THE VERY COMPLAINTS AGAINST ELECTED LEADERS IN YOUR "OFF WITH HIS HEAD" ATTACKS ON THE PRESIDENT HIMSELF. YOU ARE VOICING "OPINION" AND IT IS SIMPLY NOT VALID IN CONTENT IN ALMOST ALL TIMES—AND YOU AND YOUR BULLIES HIDE BEHIND "JOURNALISTIC PRIVACY" AND MEDIA MANIPULATION. If there was NO MEDIA INPUT—THERE WOULD BE NO CONFLICT—THINK ABOUT IT!]

IRRESPONSIBLE NEWSPAPER "RUMORS" AND WIDESPREAD "TEXTING" OF DOOM-AND-GLOOM MESSAGES PROVOKED A BANK RUN LAST FRIDAY THAT THREATENED TO SWAMP—IN A DOMINO-EFFECT—OUR ENTIRE BANKING SYSTEM....

[END OF QUOTING]

I will not finish quoting the article because this covered the referenced focus. However, Mr. Soliven does make one more statement at the start of the next paragraph: "...WE ARE OUR OWN WORST ENEMY...". So be it; he said it, I didn't, and he said it from Boston, Mass., U.S.A. yet. You know, that place from which the Philippines V.P. just returned from a long vacation and former President Ramos who graduated from West Point is making the rounds of speech-giving right now! And the Philippines thinks it has trouble with some Moro tribal people? These are not Muslim or Christian and nobody practicing war COULD BE EITHER! So, who holds the dirty laundry? Oh, indeed, the ones hiding behind the slave-whitewashed sheets with holes for eyes, i.e., you know, like unto the K.K.K. Satanists.

You are NOT dealing with low-class terrorists, people; YOU ARE DEALING WITH HIGH-LEVEL TERRORISTS OF THE WORST KIND!

YOU CAN CHANGE YOUR PLIGHT, IF YOU WANT TO—BUT, YOU MUST REALLY WANT TO. IT IS YOUR CHOICE!

5/24/00 (13-282)

RE: PHILIPPINES, GLOBAL ASSETS, and EX-PRES.
RAMOS' PLAN TO TAKE DOWN ESTRADA

TOTAL CHAOS AND CRISIS IN THE PHILIPPINES

THE WORST IS YET TO COME!?

Hatonn—If Mr. Joseph Estrada, today, can't see the handwriting on his wall, he should consider "reconsideration".

The focus has turned to punishing Estrada, as President, through his family—as his own eldest son was ambushed yesterday and escaped with his life while fellow persons were not so fortunate.

There are bombs going off and a list of intended bombings eight or ten inches long has been published. And yes, we do take such things personally—since the first Mall bombing was within mere feet of our people in Manila.

So, what is afoot? Well, in June or very early July of 1998 we ran in CONTACT an article on the Philippines from The SPOTLIGHT (newspaper), headlined: "DANGER LOOMS IN PHILIPPINES; A power play in the Philippines could lead to a U.S.-backed dictatorship". This presented the plan, even unto destabilization of the Philippine Government and pulling down Estrada—as in the word used, "overthrow".

Now, come to today and note that while President Estrada was in China on State matters, Fidel Valdez Ramos was in the United States (his second home) giving speeches about democracy and the NEW WORLD ORDER. The Philippine Star, whose publisher was also in the U.S. recently, took the opportunity of running the article in the ABSENCE of Estrada from home.

Doesn't ANYONE in the Philippines remember that Ramos followed Cory Aquino AS PRESIDENT OF THE PHILIPPINES and Estrada has not yet had even 24 months in the President's chair? Ramos was considered—by the world "free" media—as about the most corrupt president the Philippines ever experienced, inclusive of one, Ferdinand Marcos.

Joseph Estrada has been blamed for everything from car heists to cronyism (where the cronies are somehow like Ramos himself) and yet, Ramos has never stopped running for the slot of President of the Philippines UNDER THE NEW WORLD ORDER AS ORCHESTRATED FROM THE BASE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. Let the press lie enough and the world follows that piper like blind mice.

NOW, ABOUT GLOBAL ALLIANCE, ETC.

The ultimate plan is to stop Estrada from being able to utilize the instruments GAIA holds for instant use—to ensure that Ramos or his choice is in the SEAT, and then it will be claimed as a massive stroke of genius as Ramos approves and then uses the funds in behalf of the New World Order.

It would appear that these things are coming to pass very soon and yes, indeed, Joseph Estrada can immediately and instantly turn this miserable takeover tidal wave hitting the Philippines ASIDE—in prosperity and incredible growth. It remains up to him but surely he can see that his delays are ensuring his own demise as a Head of State. IF HE ACTS NOW AND IN SUCH A POSITIVE WAY, THE PEOPLE HAVE THE ASSETS HOLDING IN THEIR HANDS TO MOVE FORWARD—OR, THEY ALSO HAVE THE POWER NOW TO CHANGE THINGS, INCLUDING HEAD OF STATE.

We are allowed no input to preference or intervention. We present what we have and have no intention of doing more. We offer assistance in a massive financial way, brought through an Alliance and handled by persons taking no pay or perks for being the messengers and couriers. They volunteer their services and time as retired individuals having accepted the responsibility of the holder-owner of the asset itself, now deceased. The owner was murdered in 1994 by, basically, members of this NEW WORLD ORDER BANKING CARTEL OF POWER ELITE.

The GAIA assets are totally registered and authenticated and we are prepared to offer more "personal" documents which tell the tale as we have time to do so. Sometimes the story itself is more interesting than the legal registrations. This story, in its better format, might far better be offered through such as Erick San Juan to suit the needs of location of the day "today". The intrigue is incredible—as in "massive"—and if Estrada doesn't think a LOT OF TIME has been spent with Ramos in Washington, D.C. considering this Global asset, then he had best THINK AGAIN.

Estrada is in a position to act NOW, or forever forfeit the moment to the adversary. GOD ALWAYS LEAVES THE CHOICE WITH THE INDIVIDUAL WHO CAN MAKE THE DIFFERENCE. GOD IS FREEDOM, THE EVIL LEADERSHIP INSISTS ON FURTHER AND TOTAL ENSLAVEMENT—AND YES, THE CHOICE IS "YOURS"! GOD PROVIDES THE WAY TO THOSE CLAIMING TO BE IN THE SERVICE OF GOODNESS BUT THE ACCOMPLISHMENT MUST BE THROUGH THE HUMAN ASPECT OF THOSE WHO CAN DO THE JOB.

I want to make a point here—in that CONTACT has already run the information years ago regarding this topic—but I want to give you the advantage of SEEING the lies, before or after, offering the SPOTLIGHT article again to show you the emptiness of such speeches as Ramos just made in Washington, D.C. on Freedom, Growth, Asia—AND DEMOCRACY-GLOBALIZATION, as we will offer first. And, readers, please check out as to whether or not you think America's Boy Ramos isn't running for President (Dictatorship, possibly?) of the Philippines! WELL, NO, HE HAS BEEN PROMISED THE POSITION OF HEAD OF THE ASIAN SECTOR, AS THE PLANS ARE TO DIVIDE THE NATIONS INTO SEGMENTS

WHICH WILL COME UNDER ONE THING "SIMILAR TO" THE UNITED NATIONS—BUT EVERYTHING WILL HAVE NICE NEW NAMES TO CONFUSE THE LANGUAGE AND PERCEPTION AS THE NEW WORLD ORDER TAKES TOTAL CONTROL.

I would like Joseph Estrada to consider what was happening to him in the middle of the demand for this "cha-cha", "con-con" game. He was to pursue and get an amendment to the Constitution which would allow foreign interests to OWN 100% OF, IN ACTUALITY, THE PHILIPPINES. FURTHER, HE WAS TO GET CHANGES IN THE LAW LIMITING THE TERMS OF SUCH AS THE PRESIDENCY TO ALLOW FOR MORE THAN THE ALLOTTED CURRENT ALLOWANCE. AH, INDEED, BOTH ARE TOTALLY IN PREPARATION FOR PUTTING INTO OFFICE THE NEXT DICTATOR UNDER THE NEW WORLD ORDER RULE AFTER CALLING THE DEBT OF THE PHILIPPINES, WHICH WOULD, IN TURN, TAKE OVER THE PHILIPPINES HOOK, LINE AND ALL ISLANDS.

THE CIA IS NOW RECOGNIZED TO BE BEHIND AND ORCHESTRATING THE MINDANAO CHAOS, AS WELL AS HAVING—WITH ITS PARTNERS IN SUCH CRIME—SUPPLIED THE WEAPONS FOR THE VERY WAR UNDER WAY AS OF NOW. DOESN'T ANYONE REALIZE THAT RAMOS WAS HOOKED, AS WELL, TO THE CIA?

RECORDS SHOW: "RAMOS IS HIMSELF A MASTER TRAITOR, WHO HAS IN HIS LIFETIME BETRAYED HIS COUSIN AND BENEFACTOR, FERDINAND MARCOS, IN 1986 IN HIS CAPACITY AS A CIA ASSET AND INFORMER. HE HAS BETRAYED THE LEGAL GOVERNMENT HE WAS SWORN TO UPHOLD AND BETRAYED THE PHILIPPINE PEOPLE BY HELPING TO STEAL THE 1986 ELECTION... HE HAS BETRAYED HIS WIFE BY SUPPORTING A MISTRESS IN LAVISH STYLE AT TAXPAYERS' EXPENSE."—Paul Motier, The SPOTLIGHT

[QUOTING from the Philippine Star, Friday, May 19, 2000 (a speech delivered by former President Fidel Valdez Ramos, May 17 [2000], during Morning Newsmakers news conference at the NATIONAL PRESS CLUB of the U.S. in Washington, D.C.):]

[H: PERHAPS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING TO KNOW REGARDING THIS SPEECH OF RAMOS IS THAT THE SPEECH ITSELF WAS WRITTEN FOR HIM TO GIVE—BY THE SPEECH WRITERS FOR BILL CLINTON IN HIS POLITICAL PRESENTATIONS "FOR THE MEDIA", REPRESENTING THE NEW WORLD ORDER CARTEL.]

Over these next 20 years, Asia's weight in the world should increase—as its economies recover from financial crisis and its political systems emerge from authoritarian rule.

Replacing authoritarian regimes with representative systems appears to have been the relatively easy part. But the rule of law and people empowerment do not necessarily mean good government or good governance.

While democracy's trappings—elections, parliaments, free newspapers, independent judiciaries—are easy enough to assemble, making them work properly for ordinary people requires a long learning process, for which leaders often have little patience.

In ethnically diverse and multi-religious societies still burdened by mass poverty, unbridled political mobilization generates no-holds-barred struggles for power, which can overwhelm still weak and immature states.

Then there is the equally-complex problem of reconciling the egalitarian democratic ideology with cultures where authority still rests on the personal power exercised by dominant personalities.

Taiwan, South Korea and Thailand have shed generations of military rule. Indonesia has held its first free election in 44 years. Even in China, the “softening” of totalitarianism seems well along, although a greater diversity of political interests and opinion seems unavoidable in China’s future—and its rulers realize it. That is why they are suppressing individual dissidence so firmly.

In 1992, the World Bank had projected that, by 2020, six Asian economies would be among the 10 largest in the world. Just now, this expectation seems hopelessly optimistic. Yet, Asia’s fundamentals remain sound. And I for one believe it can become a model of economic vigor again.

In societies made up of “big people” and “small people”, the common folk have extravagant expectations of government. Thus, a 1993 survey found 85% of Filipino respondents saying it is government’s obligation to provide jobs for all and 84% saying it is government’s task to provide decent incomes for all. [H: And WHO was president of the Philippines at that time?]

Populist politicians who outdo each other in the lavishness of their political promises can easily turn such a representative system into what Peter Drucker calls “the pork-barrel state”. [H: AGAIN, NOW: WHO WAS PRESIDENT AT THAT TIME?]

Democracy, it seems, develops best where it develops incrementally—by piecemeal reforms in the political and civic landscape instigated by economic change.

In the West, electorates were enfranchised gradually—their participation hedged by gender, wealth and literacy qualifications. It took Britain almost 150 years to develop a middle-class parliament. By contrast, the advent of democracy in the Third World has been a telescoped revolution.

MAKING DEMOCRACY WORK

Making democracy work, especially for ordinary, poor people, I see as Asia’s biggest challenge over the next 20 years. Fortunately, democracy has become part of the spirit of the new millennium. Even authoritarian regimes must pretend they are acting on behalf of their captive peoples. And, even more fortunately, there are outside forces to shore up Asian democracy where it falters.

Foremost among these is the market system, which has changed East Asia dramatically over this last generation. Among us, open markets have not merely brought faster and more sustained growth. Markets have also been a liberative force. Just as, in Western Europe, early Capitalism subverted Feudalism, so has the commercial way of the life eroded authoritarian regimes in East Asia.

In the era of globalization, even foreign investments can become a democratizing influence. Consider how Beijing is being compelled to establish the rule of law—as the basis of foreigners to do business in China and to assure the sanctity of contracts—as part of its efforts to attract outside investments, trade and technology.

Much of the new technology—notably that related to the emerging knowledge society—makes more difficult the state’s control of people’s political views. Indeed, information technology—whose key resource is intellectual capital—requires for its evolution a drastic expansion of individual freedom in any given country.

Even now, across differences in history and culture, the financial crisis is compelling East Asian states to establish their authority less and less on coercion and cronyism—and more and more on transparency, accountability and consensus, and for a simple reason: As the example of the former Soviet Union instructs us, a government whose political authority is founded on coercion cannot run an economy that is expected to work at world standards.

Another weighty influence on the side of open markets and democratic systems is the United States. As the main market of the East Asian economies, its entrepreneurial economy is Asia-Pacific’s engine of growth. American military presence underpins Asian stability, and its “soft power” helps to share our popular cultures.

ACCOMMODATING THE AMBITIONS OF THE RISING POWERS

To give Asian democracy the time it needs to mature, our statesmen must—in concert—create the spacious environment that stimulates economic development and the rise of civil society. We must never forget that peace and development must coexist as the two sides of the same coin, if both are to endure.

[H: AND DON’T YOU JUST IMAGINE, HOWEVER, THAT THE FIRST ACT OF THE NEXT POWER—I.E. RAMOS (IN THE PHILIPPINES)—WILL BE TO CALL WHAT HE WILL CALL A “TEMPORARY” STATE OF EMERGENCY, MARTIAL LAW. THE PEOPLE WILL “DEMAND” IT TO STOP THE BOMBINGS AND CHAOS AND THEN, PEOPLE OF THE WORLD—IT IS OVER, DONE, FINISHED AND COMPLETED FOR THE NEW WORLD ORDER. THE PHILIPPINES WILL JOIN THE RANKS OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER SLAVE COLONY. HISTORY IS SIMPLY “REPEATING” ITSELF, WITH THE SAME TYRANTS IN CHARGE.]

I see as the key to enduring peace in the new century the accommodation of the legitimate ambitions of the rising powers—China, foremost among them—for influence in regional and global affairs. [H: So, if you doubt my input—HE JUST SAID IT FOR YOU!]

FINDING A PRACTICAL WAY OF DOING THIS WILL NOT BE EASY. PROVIDENTIALLY, NONE OF THE GREAT POWERS FACES AN IMMEDIATE THREAT, AND RIVALRY AMONG THEM HAS LOST ITS IDEOLOGICAL EDGE.

[H: If you don’t believe what I suggested above, then pay attention to what comes next, i.e. even the term “we”, for it does have great meaning.]

As part of the concerted effort, WE must cool down the periodic crises in Kashmir, the Korean Peninsula and the Taiwan Straits. [H: WE? (???) WE, WHO?] Also, WE must put the conflicting claims over the Spratleys into a more cooperative framework—because the South China Sea is the maritime heartland of Southeast Asia. [H: Where was Mr. Ramos when the problems were already present? Ah, indeed! IT APPEARS THAT, AS A FACT, JOSEPH ESTRADA JUST THIS WEEK TRIED TO WORK OUT SOME FAVORABLE SOLUTIONS FOR THE SPRATLEY ISLANDS. WHAT EXACTLY DID RAMOS DO ABOUT THE ALREADY INCREASING PROBLEM? CAN YOU SEE HOW MANIPULATIVE THESE “SPEECHES” ARE, IN FACT?]

Specific efforts in this direction by the great powers, the ASEAN Regional forum and APEC, will be bolstered by the expansion of interregional trade and investment. Economic interdependence may not guarantee peace and stability but it does create a powerful incentive for avoiding violent conflicts by its promise of shared benefits.

EAST ASIAN DEMOCRACY IS A WORK IN PROGRESS

In most of our countries, we have already built “the bared bones of democracy”. We can change our rulers without too much violence. And procedural or transitional democracy of this kind can lead to a truly people-empowered democracy.

My own bottom-line requirements for a transitional democracy are three: free elections, free media and free markets—and a good measure of social justice for the poorer segments of the community. [H: If this doesn’t give you shivers, you are already too dead to notice the chill.]

Free elections guarantee there is open competition for political power. And every successful election helps consolidate democracy.

Free media helps to ensure that people are able to make their choices wisely.

And free markets—by nurturing civil society—stimulate popular demands for the rule of law and the protection of human rights.

And these concepts should be accompanied by consultation, consensus, fairness, transparency, efficiency and accountability in governance: a level playing field for enterprises. And, on the part of citizens, civic consciousness and civic responsibility.

If we work together to promote these basic concepts and values in our respective national societies and in our relations as nations and as economic groupings, then our countries could harvest a better future, with benefits and opportunities for the great majority of humankind.

DANGER LOOMS IN PHILIPPINES

A POWER PLAY IN THE PHILIPPINES COULD LEAD TO A U.S.-BACKED DICTATORSHIP

Exclusive to The SPOTLIGHT, by Paul Motier

MANILA, PHILIPPINES—In a stunning move that shocked the nation, outgoing Philippine President Fidel Ramos fired Solicitor General Romeo de la Cruz just two weeks before the inauguration of populist President-elect Jose Erap Estrada.

The unprecedented move was in retaliation to the 34-page report which de la Cruz had filed with the Philippine Supreme Court stating that there was no evidence to back up the conviction and 12-year jail sentence of former first lady Imelda Romualdez Marcos. The charge: She had illegally built a hospital with non-Government funds.

De la Cruz urged the top Court to reverse the conviction which everyone in the Philippines knows was made by a politicized Court under the influence of Ramos and his revolutionary predecessor, Corazon C. Aquino.

What so infuriated Ramos was that he had appointed de la Cruz as Solicitor General and saw the report as “high treason”.

Ramos is himself a master traitor who has in his lifetime betrayed his cousin and benefactor, Ferdinand Marcos, in 1986 in his capacity as a CIA asset and informer. He has betrayed the legal Government he was sworn to uphold and betrayed the Philippine people by helping to steal the 1986 election.

He has betrayed his wife by supporting a mistress in lavish style at taxpayers' expense.

Ramos apparently never imagined that de la Cruz would do his job honestly.

Under the unconstitutional and unlawful Aquino and Ramos regimes of the last 12 years, the unforeseen appearance of an honest and courageous justice official must have been traumatic, indeed.

As soon as de la Cruz's Supreme Court report became known by the cabal that has been running the Philippines since it overthrew the Marcos Government in 1986, Ramos got his marching orders by cabal spokesman Stephen Bosworth, the U.S. State Department functionary who organized the kidnapping of the Marcos family into forced exile and detainment that year.

Bosworth was backed by U.S. Federal Judge Manuel Real, the Lyndon Johnson appointee known for his communist sympathies, his violent temper and tyrannical ways, as well as having the dubious distinction of being the most overturned judge in American legal history.

Ramos, now a lame duck with no political future, was told to fire de la Cruz and to find a way to overturn the election of the populist and popularly-elected Estrada.

CALAMITY FOR GLOBALISTS

The Estrada election was a calamity for the globalists and State Department Brahmins; Estrada was elected because former first lady Imelda Marcos withdrew from the presidential race and asked the 6 million-strong Marcos loyalists to support Estrada.

The swift move did not leave enough time for the Aquino-Ramos-State Department cabal to rig the election as they counted on the split Marcos-Estrada vote to have their own nominees elected.

The plutocrats frantically spent in excess of $260 million to secure the elections for their flunkies. In this they received full logistical support from the State Department and various U.S. agencies such as the CIA under the direction of Bosworth and Real—the two predators who have relentlessly tried to steal the Marcos asset for the past 12 years.

It was a sign of great sophistication from the Philippine electorate that they were not bamboozled by the anti-Estrada media blitz and all the anti-Marcos machinations and went on to elect Estrada by a landslide. Also elected with wide pluralities were Ferdinand Marcos, Jr. (the son of the late President) as Governor of the key Ilocos Norte province, Imee Marcos to Congress and all the Romualdez (relatives of Imelda) candidates to the offices they were seeking.

Estrada, a charismatic and popular candidate, is known to be a populist of independent mind who is unswayed by plutocrat blandishments.

OVERTHROW ORDERED

Ramos has been instructed to take all steps to overthrow the Estrada presidency, just as he and the seditious Enrile and Aquino overthrew the just-elected Marcos Government in 1986.

Aquino had already made the threat to use “people power” to overthrow the Estrada Government if Marcos is buried on July 11 in the Cemetery of Heroes, a burial to which he is entitled because of his heroic World War II record. He fought the Japanese, while the Aquinos served in the Japanese puppet government.

“People power” was the catch word which was coined by the Madison Avenue public-relations firm in charge of destabilizing and overthrowing the Marcos Government, and used by the media to justify the illegal coup against the legally elected Marcos.

In fact, there was never any “people power” except in the scripts from Madison Avenue and their press handouts. The Filipino people were victims of a massive globalist power-grab by violent means.

The plutocrat Aquino is once more calling on her communist allies headed by the rich Red boss, Ma Sisson. It was Sisson who organized, with Ninoy Aquino, the Plaza Miranda bombing which massacred the entire political opposition to the Marcos Government, thus leaving Aquino as the sole opposition leader.

Whether [or not] the Clinton Administration will be able to contain the Bosworth-Michael Armacost-Real cabal and avoid yet another massive intrusion in the affairs of another sovereign country is still to be ascertained.

This time, “people power” may manifest itself by stopping the Aquino-Ramos efforts just as all the Aquino-Ramos candidates were defeated at the polls.

Should Estrada be assassinated, apparently with the hope that Vice President Arroyo Macapagal would replace him, political observers are certain civil war would erupt. The voters may have had enough of plutocratic intervention in Philippine affairs.

[END OF QUOTING]

I suggest that anyone in the Philippines who is interested be supplied a copy of the article from The SPOTLIGHT for verification of accuracy. The jottings at the top of the page of “copy” are simply our own file references as to when it was put to disk for running in the next edition of CONTACT.

I do not wish to make further editorial comments on this document because it is our full intent and purpose to NOT insert ourselves into any political circumstance in ANY SOVEREIGN NATION, inclusive of the Philippines and the United States of America.

I will note here and now, however, that with bombs going off in the dooryard of our team in Manila and the massive delays in handling the “GAIA” matters, we are ready to allow our people to return home. If action is not taken within a reasonable period of time from now, we will withdraw any offers to the Philippines beyond honoring those Deeds of Assignment already in the hands of the citizens. This is somewhere in the neighborhood of some 1,100 such Deeds with signed Memorandums of Agreement.

SPEAKING OF THE “CONTRACT” IN POINT

We will make an effort to offer some information regarding that “Bonus Contract” which has already been made public but of interest may well be found to be entertaining to “inquiring minds”, as well as remind everyone that this is not a fly-by-night game and has been paid for by blood, sweat and, yes, tears.

We made a commitment to Russell Herman, holder/owner of the asset, and he specifically asked that we take this sequence of actions in his own personal efforts to return something to the Philippines which he participated in structuring, which would ultimately, if in the wrong hands, destroy the Philippines as a sovereign nation.

We have kept our commitment and we will in no way, shape or form KNOWINGLY contribute to the further destruction of said nation. All you need do is look to Indonesia as a prime example—to see and realize the impact of this Bilderberg-Trilateral Commission-Elitist WORLD ORDER—as orchestrated by such as high-ranking officer and director Henry Kissinger, who was recently hired by Indonesia to structure their affairs. Hungry foxes? No, grabbing reptilian viper jackals.

If THIS IS THE LIFE the people choose, so be it! But you must understand something very important: THIS IS NOT WHAT THE PEOPLE WANT AND YOU CAN SEE, ALREADY, THAT THEY ARE WILLING TO DIE TO PREVENT SUCH LOSS OF DIGNITY AND FREEDOM ALREADY COME UPON THEM.

All we intend to do is offer—and then we shall simply go our way to those waiting eagerly to partake of God's Grace and HIS GIFTS.

Now, in taking leave, I would like to offer something from the Philippine Star, Thursday, May 18, 2000, page 12, which all are requested to study very, very carefully: [QUOTING:]

EX-ABU SAYYAF MAN SPEAKS

I should have kept silent about the matter, but with the provocative statements issued by Senator Aquilino Pimentel in the article “Pimentel-CIA may be behind creation of Abu Sayyaf” published in the May 9 issue of the Philippine Star, I think it is my moral obligation to share my experiences and observations regarding the matter.

In early 1990s, I was involved for more than three years with the Abu Sayyaf. During my stint with the group, I observed that our daily needs such as foods, medicines and clothes arrived in large quantities. Even our war materials and ammunitions were in bulk and can be considered top-if-the-line brands. I would like to stress that this early, we are to be considered only the development stage. I surmised that we might have well financed and generous benefactors who are providing us with practically everything we need.

Sometime in early 1993, the group's former leader, the late Abdulrajak Jajalani, informed us that our sponsors wanted us to conduct activities like kidnapping, extortion and others. Although I was not able to uncover the truth, allow me to point out some facts which might be helpful to Senator Pimentel that the Abu Sayyaf became logistically strong DURING THE RAMOS ADMINISTRATION AND EVERYONE KNOWS THAT RAMOS IS AN AMBOY and that Mr. Ramos was backed up by former Gen. Jose Almonte as his chief strategist. We cannot recall any all-out military action that was conducted against us despite some international incidents such as the bombing of a foreign vessel (floating library) docked in Zamboanga.

I therefore encourage Senator Pimentel, other senators and congressmen to conduct a speedy and truthful investigation on the issue and punish those who were responsible in creating a monster in Abu Sayyaf.

[H: The statement was signed but I will not give this further notoriety, in protection of the person who authored this. His location was not given.]

[END OF QUOTING]

I would further note that there have been many more responses to this Pimentel speculation but we will not present them in this writing, although they are equally worthy of attention.

Salu and good morning.

Solution For Freedom Is Now Fully Matured

RE: GLOBAL ALLIANCE: A BIT OF INSIGHT

WHEN YOU THINK YOU HAVE EXHAUSTED
ALL POSSIBILITIES
AND ALTERNATIVES

REMEMBER THIS,
YOU HAVEN'T!

AND, FURTHERMORE,
WHEN YOU THINK YOU KNOW IT ALL—
YOU DON'T!

Hatonn—How long has been the so-called “battle” betwixt GOOD and EVIL?

Since before man was made manifest in human form and given the gifts of reason, logical thought, creativity AND ego. Man is a soul housed in a physical frame to experience within the limitations of physical expression. Physical manifestation is not “man” having some kind of a “soul” experience. Through the experience AS “man human”, soul is experiencing that which allows growth and ultimately becomes ONE with Creator, or that which—in your limited realization and consciousness—you call “God” (by whatever label you choose as culture and language present).

Furthermore, ALL that is “created” from God THOUGHT—which is all and connected to all—CREATOR CAN UNCREATE WITH HIS “THOUGHT”.

How does evolvment then occur?

Through the thought processes expressed in physical consciousness or recognition as to the physical-recognized “senses” of man manifest. MIND IS ALL THERE IS, BUT HUMAN IS TRAPPED WITHIN THE LIMITATIONS OF THE ACCEPTED BOUNDARIES OF SENSING APPARATUS “AND” PERCEPTION-EGO OPINION. WORSE, YOU ARE LEFT TO FORM THOSE OPINIONS BY WHAT YOU PHYSICALLY EXPERIENCE OR ARE SHOWN OR TOLD TO SEE OR BELIEVE. FOR EXAMPLE, IF YOU ARE “ONLY” SHOWN PICTURES OF CROCUS BLOSSOMING ON EARLY SPRING STEMS PUSHING THROUGH THE ICE AND SNOW—YOU WILL FIND THAT IN YOUR “REALIZATION OF CONSCIOUSNESS” THAT CROCUS CAN “ONLY” EXPRESS IN THAT MANNER AND NEVER MIND THE TROPICAL CROCUS BULB WHICH BLOOMS IN GRAND ARRAY WHERE THERE HAS NEVER BEEN ICE OR SNOW—AND, THEREFORE, MUST HAVE A DIFFERENT LABEL. BUT AS WITH

THE ROSE—“BY ANY OTHER NAME”—IT IS BUT A ROSE.

What happens along the way with such as “Global Bonds”?

I use this example because it can so easily be recognized in such as the Philippines, because the “Global Bonds” are floated constantly when push comes to shove. The finance department of a nation in conjunction with a central bank will come forth and offer bonds—which here are called “Global Bonds”. And guess what, they are “oversubscribed”—no matter in what condition might be the offering nation. Over and over again it happens, and the papers rave about the good paper and investment income and you name the nonsense what you like.

The ones who “oversubscribe” are who? Well, the Elitist brokerage houses, of course. These are the Goldman-Sachs and those very Elite who control the markets, the economy—THE WORLD.

Somehow, the payback just “fades away” unless something can be gained by the world Elite by FORECLOSING. When that happens, more “loans” are floated at whatever percentage of interest is desired in order to “break” a nation—and away you go again in the endless cycle of “getcha” and dead you. This is always, these days, through the IMF-semi-superfund and World Banksters.

But WHY would these little Global Bond issues be approved? Because there are some very big Superfund reserves backing them and what might that be? Well, today, we call it “GAIA”. But prior to that it was called “the” Superfund or simply “Bonus 3392N181”.

That asset, AT THE TIME MOST USED was, in addition to other grab games, used as holding reserves in international banks and bankos established for the purpose, along with such as the Deposit Trust Corporation and Inter American Investment Corporation and “Development” banks—to LAUNDER DIRTY MONEY. This means CRIMINAL monies. That became predominantly DRUG MONEY. The controllers of that particular commodity flow became the prime product of the CIA right out of top Administration parties in the United States, where the “Global” assets were stashed and verified with totally limited access by the highest criminals on the globe.

The big question then arises as to WHO changed the game? Well, as with all “revisionists”, the criminals FIRST changed the rules to suit themselves—FROM THAT WHICH WAS THOUGHT BY PARTICIPANTS TO BE THE GAME. THAT WAS A FRAUD BUT IT SUCKED A WORLD INTO THE TRAP. AND, THEREFORE, WHAT HAPPENED THAT PLACED THE PLAN INTO REVISION MODE AS

TO “GOD’S PLAN”? WELL, I GUESS I HAVE TO TAKE THAT RESPONSIBILITY: GYEORGOS CERES HATONN.

Now, I don’t want you to come to think I also have a giant (pun intended) ego need for recognition, for I don’t and I don’t want my teammates in any presentation of danger or take-out. We have been there and done that—and it didn’t work “then” and it is not going to work NOW.

Any high-level intelligence group in the “inside” can check out that my files are above top secret—in about the level of A-6 or above. I represent something that is so large that even the Satan himself has to take note and mind his agreements, even if it takes a while.

When it came around to dealing with the mess the Elitists had concocted from the “bonus certificate” and the plan became evident, people like Ferdinand Marcos, as example, didn’t want to die or be negated. He had done his job and the wealth flowed like water to everywhere the hoodlums chose to have it sent. Ah, but Marcos never relinquished “final” control and, therefore, much of the wealth has had to be STOLEN a second or third—or even fourth—time around. When it came to, finally, Russell Herman—the Thugs had made some VERY BIG ERRORS. He had been the one to willingly take the responsibility of “holding” the assets “because” he held the certificate and the Elite bums thought they could totally control him and everything he did.

HOWEVER, I WAS ALREADY WORKING WITH RUSSELL HERMAN. When it became obvious that the Thugs were murdering him and he was ordered to sign off the instruments, there were billions of dollars already involved—even into the trillions of dollars—and they were going into arms and banks to cover drug money, war and chaos. So, Russell was betrayed, Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing corporation, in Nevada—which was Herman’s corporation and held the certificate—was STOLEN by the “Bush Players” with the direct assistance of the Nevada Secretary of State “del Pappa” and it was thought that the stolen certificate was valid and in good hands with Allbush [Allstate?]. Oops, Russell found out about the snatch and demanded a return of the thieved company pursuant to original incorporation regulations. That was accomplished—and at the same time, the certificate was changed out, by Russell Herman, into a CONTRACT/JURAT identifying ownership. This was then established within THE ANNALS OF THE LAW IN THE LEGAL REGISTRATION OF STATES AND THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, TREASURY DEPARTMENT, FEDERAL RESERVE, ETC. IN FACT, THE FEDERAL RESERVE IN LOS ANGELES VALUED THE CONTRACT. IT WAS SAID AT THE TIME, HOWEVER, THAT AT ANY ONE TIME ONLY 2.4 BILLION DOLLARS WOULD BE HONORED WITHOUT ATTENTION.

Bush and Bunch went forth before that, however, and placed “bunches” of stuff in this amount—all over everywhere—and, as well, destroyed directly the Savings and Loans and cost the citizens of America trillions of dollars and the world, uncountable sums.

This has also been the underlying theme with derivatives, roll-overs, nasty money dealing and so-called high-yield trading programs based on WORTHLESS FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES (based on hot air, not any kind of “commodity value”).

After regaining control of the instruments upon which the funds were based, Russell Herman (and yes, V.K. Durham) needed a secure place to put the contract. I was meeting with them and it was decided that Russell was not going to survive the radiation he experienced and be able to do anything, so it was turned over to ME, GCH, to attend the thing. It was planned and accomplished that the flow would be to MY PEOPLE (my scribe) so that protection could be brought from a bigger source than the Elite Controllers.

It was recognized, in 1993, that the time had arrived to move the documents and “ownership”. V.K. was showing signs of stress beyond that which she was going to be able to overcome because, as the next-in-line person to sign-off on the thing, she was immediately put under intense, mind-warping radiation herself along with a negation of even “living” funds due and owing her. She had, after all, served in the Presidential Security Forces and would have had a large pension, as would have Russell, had he not been “sheep-dipped” and his “history” removed from all records.

Next, as a sideline distraction, came the attack on what the Ekkers were doing and, as well, people in the Phoenix Institute who were publishing our Journals, etc. The point was to destroy all credibility of any organization involved and make the people involved look like nuts in a crazy asylum—you know, the old “booby hatch”.

By August of 1993, it was obvious that the change-over had to take place because the bombardment on Herman was getting so heavy that it was recognized that he was becoming totally incapacitated and would die regardless—and it was then realized that a full-out effort would be made to murder him.

It was arranged that Rick Martin-Cortright, as agent for the Phoenix Institute, would travel back “East” to receive the transfer. He was to return it and place it in a totally secure place while allowing the other programs to proceed without interruption. This was done and, until after Russell Herman’s demise, it was not brought forth in an effort to simply assist the KNOWN parties to, hopefully, be able to achieve recognition through V.K. Durham.

It had already been KNOWN that if V.K. bogged down, the full ownership would be then transferred to GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION and ultimately under the responsibility of that corporation, E.J. and Doris Ekker. Our preliminary plans were discussed and confirmed before that first transfer was made to Rick Martin and Rick was NOT informed other than through his own conversations with Russell and V.K.

Every possible effort to assist V.K. was forthcoming, including live-in assistance in her home. She finally got so entangled in control that the whole program had to be “bagged” is, I believe, your term.

That meant that the follow-up plan had to be set into motion and thus the GAIA holdings. Everything in the U.S. or for the U.S. “people” was left totally in V.K.’s hands and at that time agreements were established with the POWERS that be, i.e. Treasury, Fed, IMF, etc.

As the shift began, even prior to turn-over to GAIA, George Bush was personally consulted to work out a program and he simply said: “I’m not ready to deal AT THIS TIME...”.

Fine, no need to push rivers around and flood the world with worse bloodshed. And he personally suggested Ekkers retire to a quiet island with a fishing boat—for old-age security. He also said that we are just an “annoyance”. AND WE LIKE IT THAT WAY, FOR OUR INTENT IS NOT TO OFFEND “ANYONE” NOR TOPPLE ANYTHING—IF PEOPLE DON’T LIKE WHAT THEY HAVE IN POLITICS OR LIFE-STYLE, IT IS THEN UP TO “THEM” TO CHANGE IT—NOT US. WE ARE “SELLING” NOTHING AND WE DO NOT EVEN LIKE THE CONCEPT THAT WE MIGHT BE DOING SO.

Ekkers, for instance, simply VOLUNTEER their time and services and have paid their own way from their own personal holdings. The investment has been great—the return, ZILCH.

They agreed and made a commitment, TO ME, to deliver the “Program” as messengers and couriers without involvement of any kind in politics or religious matters. WE have been TOTALLY open and all dealings are public and totally non-secretive in any way. Anyone wishing to participate does so with meeting a full set of REGULATIONS and under the LAW. Deviation from that process merits immediate cancellation of any agreements, etc. And YES, INDEED, trillions of dollars in progressing have been cancelled because we were lied to or set up, or efforts were made to misuse the assets in criminal manners.

What happens to those assets whose potential seems lost? They are simply retained in the allowed “reserve” for more valid projects.

We happily limit the amount of offerings to disallow any potential collapse of nations or people, and we require a full backing in hard-metal gold upon which the value is based—not empty paper with a bunch of conjured printing by the Illuminati.

This seems too outrageous? Well, that is YOUR problem of limitation—NOT OURS.

My team has been hit with everything dirty and mean that could be pushed against them, including ridicule, legal harassment, theft of their very home and property, businesses and you name it, even to the attempted murder of a son. So, Mr. Estrada, it doesn’t do any good to say: “Get me if you will but leave my family alone.” These people want to destroy you and they do it through the most horrendous and terrifying means available—and getting “your family” is the primary thrust.

With “Global” assets you are not playing with a NEW game or even NEW PAPER—only a way to stabilize and value that which you now can use validly and positively FOR THE PEOPLE AND YOUR NATION. Even the “product” has already been validated AND USED—go back and read the part about “Global Bonds” and “bond issues”. It is ever so much larger than that, however. The entire IMF is based on THIS ASSET. The point is, however, it has nothing

BACKING IT, as the gold has been shifted totally AWAY in the process of taking the world. The assets are being gathered in the foreclosure processes without anyone realizing until TOO LATE what has hit them.

So again, who is Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn? Well, let’s just say that “God sent me” and here we are! And again, I suggest you check it/me out through your intelligence resources. My team, however, is getting impatient with wars, assaults, insults and overload of work—and after nearly two years at this in Manila—they want to go home. Ah, but—their home was taken, so they don’t have a “house/home”, business, or goods, nor income, save pension. It is so that goodness usually costs everything of considered value in the material world—to accomplish abundance and achievement of the very things you thought you lost. When you change your focus—you change the world. I had to say to self: “If not me—who?” and here is old GCH. Now, I ask YOU: “If not you—who?” And after all, friends, you have ME to plow before you, to set the order of the rows to be plowed.

The thing I want you all to KNOW is that there can be NO NEGATING our documents, for THEY HAVE ALREADY BEEN VALIDATED AND USED. We can’t help it if they were, unfortunately, used incorrectly, with subterfuge, or even unlawfully or illegally. (Yes, these have different meanings: “Legal is anything the power-boys say is legal. Lawful is what is Constitutionally lawful.” So, anything the Elite Controllers do is deemed “legal” even if “unlawful”.)

YOU ARE ALL UNDER CONTROL OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER—YOU JUST FAILED TO NOTICE! WE OFFER WHAT WILL OPEN THOSE CELL DOORS INTO FREEDOM BUT, YOU KNOW WHAT, AND THE ELITE KNOW IT: MOST WILL NOT EVEN VENTURE TO LEAVE THE CELL AND WILL PLEAD TO HAVE THE DOOR LOCKED AGAIN.

It has taken years to reach this point of replacing concepts and accepted LIES. One big one is how to handle economies. The bankers are trained to adhere to the “new regulations” no matter HOW ABSURD and go to their very deaths rather than cross the fool in charge.

Worse, as in the Philippines, the Roman Catholic leader, Cardinal Sin, is actively in full political collusion and conspiracy working constantly to DESTROY the Administration and makes no motion to be other than blatant about it while siding with, in his coalition, the prior corrupted controllers while murdering a man who happened to be elected to his position. Sick? Yes, and it is global in FACT. And what do you do? You keep praying for help while denying every response God offers. This is the bigger lie in that all you have to do is pray and somehow God works magic. NO, YOU HAVE TO WORK THE MAGIC—GOD PROVIDES.

This is enough to get started, Dharma, on this tale of worlds in conflict and the solution for freedom and order in HONOR.

Yes, indeed, we have documentation to back up time slots and sequence of events—by the very ones who now deny validity. Wow, God works in mysterious ways HIS WONDERS TO PERFORM. Smile, team, you are on candid camera!

Salu, old GCH

MANILA LOG

I sit to this computer so overfilled with happenings as to be unable to contain it all—and yet still in a position of not being able to share the really “big stuff” because of the games people play.

Just when you think things are in good order, God pokes a finger in the ribs and says to “someone” on our side: “Better check the...”. And, surely enough, when checked, the little rat poo is all over the fan blades.

What the nerdniks through NCH have this time tried to pull off is as disgusting as anything we have yet witnessed, and this time with none other than Phoenix Institute. I will, however, leave that to PI President and Board Director Ron Kirzinger and our attorney to reveal “more timely” what they wish to be made public.

My writings of the past few days have had to deal with those items back in Limbo-land, so this too will be somewhat guarded.

I can only ask that you who know what is taking place in the Tuten case support our team in any way you can, for it could end soon with the playing of the right cards.

No, we don't know what is taking place with the Adam Drive property, which now seems to have a very tall fence (rent-a-fence type) and seems to be in “holding” of some sort. But NO, we do not believe it is some evil trip for Millers. We think Millers were totally overwhelmed with wrong information from the “Young Group” (this is a reference to what the lawyer called them in the court documents, as they tried to settle out their case of last year).

We don't know all the players on that other side but it appears Ed got some elderly friends to move to Tehachapi and he begs running-funds from them on a regular basis. Fine, that is certainly none of our business. There are also some “payoff” funds which had been pouring in but it appears that may well have stopped—as the criminal games got more evident and the higher players didn't want to be caught supporting the mavericks.

By the way, in having to respond to the “Bellringer” INTERNATIONAL putdown, the receivers of the brunt of that information have now met with E.J. with packages in hand—and they have gathered PROOF of the content of LIES from the Bellringer material that was deliberately scattered around the globe. In other words, THE PROOF OF A FULL-BLOWN LEGAL SUIT IS NOW LAID IN FRONT OF US WITH MYRIADS OF WITNESSES.

The best is, however, yet to come. LIFE MAY NOT BE FAIR—BUT GOD IS GOOD and of all the unexpected things to come along out of this entire drama, GOD PROVIDED THE EXACT PUZZLE PIECE SEARCHED FOR BY THE TOP BANKING/GOVERNING AUTHORITIES FOR OVER A YEAR AND A HALF—YESTERDAY. Thank you, Ron, and we await tomorrow for the “dunk” part of the “slam-”. THERE ARE HAPPY, SMILING FACES ON EVERY LIGHT POST.

I would write a bit of a suggestion to you who are friends (or enemies), who may yet think we languish in luxury and devil-take-the-lead lifestyle in “beautiful” downtown Manila: Get the following movie film which probably can still be rented. I guess it is an old production of some kind that I just happened onto on HBO a week ago. It is called LEGACY and stars David Hasselhoff and Rod Steiger (just for rental info).

The plot is nothing save a greedy grab for money, gold, etc. but the setting is lovely Manila with its insanity, filth, typical street scenes and a total disregard for life, liberty or the pursuit of happiness.

This is the dirtiest place I have ever been, including Detroit in 1952, when all the energy production, heating, etc. was done with COAL and fuel oil of the worst kind. And yet, here in Manila we have typhoons in the middle of monsoons and with the first rains this season all of Metro Manila was totally flooded out, drowning people in the middle of downtown. Oh, well...! Rick and Charles could well remember that they tried to go somewhere on a Manila street with water sloshing in the floorboards of their taxi—WITH THEIR FEET IN WATER.

People coming in to meet with us with a usual trip of, say, half to three-quarters of an hour driving time on a bad-traffic day (every day, actually) this week took over four hours.

Ekkers are staying close because a few days ago in the most up-scale mall in Makati a bomb was detonated in the next aisle, in the “hub” of the center BACKING THE PLACE WE HAVE TO DO OUR OFFICE STUFF AND E-MAIL. The only thing that saved the day for that place in point was that the idiots with the bomb placed it so it blew in the opposite direction and sent shattered glass all over the side street while taking out of commission some 17 children and injuring countless citizens. The bomb was on the third floor of the mall itself and blew out toward the Shangri-La Hotel and Landmark side of the main mall on the side nearest the Gilarmi, which is directly across the street (Ayala) and shook heck out of our little dwelling place.

There were many critically injured people but we have not heard of immediate deaths. Neither do we Pollyannas think it was aimed at us but, with the war in full force, it was certainly a message, if nothing else. Oh, yes, indeed, there was a second bomb, which was defused, and we have no information as to its “direction intent”. We had heard a blast earlier in the day but we can't find out ANYTHING about that one—but all were in Glorietta.

God love these wonderful people, though, as we are assured by security guards that “it is safe” today—whatever day we go in to do the computer mail.

This is certainly not a job for the faint of heart—which includes ME as being about as faint as Rick has described from time to time. Tainted? No, just so foolish as to trust God, HIS WISDOM, and keep his bubble around us at all times and keep right on pushing in HIS directions within HIS directives. Amazing things, you could call them miracles, pour upon us constantly.

Let me share with you ones doing the load at home one of the sweetest things we have had happen. In follow-up regarding one of the most beautiful housing development projects at Baguio, we were given a book of home drawings and we could have “A LITTLE LOG CABIN” that is amazing—and only about 6+ thousand square feet.

Then, the sweetest of all: A man came in (I don't know his name or position, other than that he owns an island or something) and he wants to give us a prime piece of land there. He is giving an equal piece to the “Mayor” of our recognition who would, I suppose, tend ours. We declined but the Mayor is doing whatever and it would be: FOR USE BY OUR “PEOPLE”. This is supposed to be one of the most beautiful spots in the Islands. I wouldn't know. However, I laughed to E.J. and said, “Well, we could maybe put up that log cabin ‘there’ and have a retreat for worn-out PI-GLOBAL tribes-people.” Ah, but the TRIBES to the south also want us to retreat with them. Goodness, and the way I love mosquitoes and wilderness jungles, we can't count on an income there but “retreat”?—yes, indeed. It is the HOPE, friends. These sincere people have been given, through us—by God—HOPE. From total hopelessness they now have ABUNDANT HOPE and they want to share.

There is simply no way short of death itself that would stop us from finishing this job—and we know NOW that some of you would push right on through replacing us, if it should become necessary.

The terrorist activities are without interruption now and a lot was orchestrated to hit while “Erap” (President Estrada) was in China. Ah, but Erap is BACK now and we are confident he has new info from Nevada, and he actually smiles and says he and Zemin of China are now “GOOD FRIENDS”. Estrada actually cut his China visit short to get back to Manila to attend other things of pressing concern to start clearing up major problems. He has “aborted”, as well, his trip to France and Britain next month. I suggest he may well be in a position by July to tell Billy in the U.S. that if he wishes a meeting, Billy should get his assets over here. It truly turns out that even Russell Herman REALLY DID HIS JOB WELL! We shall have to wait and see because everything over here is run by the CIA, British Intelligence, Mossad, IMF/WB and the infamous consultants of Henry Kissinger Associates.

When I turn again to writing, I will dig up some of the proof of the statement above. As I write, it is reported that there are at least two high-ranking military officers/CIA operatives and some British Intelligence people known to be involved in the Mindanao mess of hostages, murder and mayhem trying to incite to full-out WAR that would come between Muslims and Christians—of which NEITHER OF THE INVOLVED SEGMENTS “IS”.

And, oh dear, friends, if we thought we had a bit of “yellow” journalism in the U.S.—this is greenish brown over here, as the journalists and commentators are really showing their bloody colors. They are really having to “try harder” to destabilize, as strength becomes the prime tool for the Administration just opening its eyes to possibilities.

I can go a step further in this morning's headline of the “MILF is gearing up to retake Hi-way”. Oh, gosh, perhaps I have lost it, for I didn't even perceive a “gearing up of”. My brain engaged on “Hi-way”. THERE ARE NO REAL “HI-WAYS” IN THIS PART OF SOUTHEAST ASIA (!) and much the less in Tribal Mindanao.

Another FUNNY one is this new idiocy about genetic alteration of plants (crop seeds, plants, etc.). The big demand is to go back to the “Good and dependable HYBRIDS”. WHAT EXACTLY IS A HYBRID? Go, please, and look it up! Without hybrids we wouldn't even have things like tangerines, nectarines, popcorn, etc.

But the good one this week is all the arguing and haggling over corn, as in the “970IN” vs. the “970Bt”. The 970IN is almost a loss to the corn borer with nubbins instead of beautiful 970Bt BEAUTIFUL corn sans vermin of any kind and was able to be raised WITHOUT pesticides and half the additives required by the other. SO, WE MUST GO BACK TO THE INFESTED VARIETY WITH

THE PESTICIDES OF KNOWN POISON BECAUSE THIS OTHER THING IS DANGEROUS—"MAYBE"? My first comment was much as with the dead grub-worm in the bottle of imported Tequila—"him who drinks this Tequila will never die of grub-worms". Well, I think the WORST thing that could happen by eating that new stuff without pesticides and poison additives would be a lack of dying of grub-worm corn borers.

How do we get so totally nuts and take the good and toss it out to insist on the oppressive destruction of the powerful agricultural industry? You know, why not eat poisoned smutted wheat rather than use a hybrid, which keeps the smut away? Have we actually joined the totally insane to demand our own executions? And WHY, in goodness' name, do we think that somehow we will be genetically or DNA-altered by eating an ear of corn? I doubt there is any corn around any more that is not hybrid and, thus, TAMPERED.

My golly, friends, we are dying of disease from resistant strains of microbes—because so much poison and pesticides along with antibiotics have been fed to our "natural" resources. Would it not seem a bit of wisdom to eat nothing save the tampered varieties, which do not so quickly rot, while feeding the very microbes by treating with KNOWN pesticides which obviously have not stopped the diseases? Why do we think a tomato that is altered to stay fresh, have better flavor, etc. is somehow a negative thing, rather than a BETTER WAY TO GO? Microbes grow like mad in rotting flesh or plants. ARE NOT THE "NATURAL" TOMATOES ACTUALLY "HYBRIDS"?

Now the biggie is to take off the market any potato product which has been subject to modern technology? How many of us realize that the tomato and the potato are from the same FAMILY? They are both "nightshade" family members and the genetic alterations actually took OUT the poison that is present in a potato skin which is turning "greenish". DO WE ACTUALLY LINE UP TO KILL OURSELVES? IT SEEMS SO.

We have the valid evidence of the "big boys" and greed-mongers grabbing the very things that are of God, FOR his people. Such as the NEEM tree so recently in point—well, for you who may not know, that tree is more important than we could have possibly imagined. There were actually those who PATENTED that tree to KEEP IT FROM YOU-THE-PEOPLE. That was overturned in court in some places, but there you have it. If the LORDS of the LAND can't have total control of product and prices, they can't hold on, CAN THEY? And they are not going to let go of agriculture control aimed at depopulation—so you WILL eat smutted grain and infested corn or you will buy their products and pesticides to make sure you poison yourself while they smile all the way to the Banksters' vaults.

Now, before I leave this keyboard, I wish to note some things which are so dear to us as to make the difficulty of visiting all but out of the question and a real hurtful consequence of this job at hand.

I wish to thank Marilyn Miller for sending the pictures she rescued from the pile of personal things dumped out by the Spectrum crew that were almost totally destroyed. These pictures were irreplaceable as they are of the grandchildren (but only two of the children). ALL THE REST OF THE PERSONAL AND IRREPLACEABLE PICTURES AND PAPERS WERE LOST, STOLEN AND SOME PUBLICLY PRINTED AND MAILED ABOUT BY RAY BILGER AND THE "WATCHERS". All of the pictures and memories of the children's growing years, pets and things long gone are GONE, mostly destroyed in the winter rains and snow.

My children had to see their full journey through childhood floating in a box of water, from loved pets to first prom pictures and a home they spent near 20 years in living, growing and loving—taken. Then when they went to rescue wood from OUR LOT, where the Spectrum thieves were taking it and burning it in, yes, OUR fireplace, Ray Bilger came out with camera and cops. The officers agreed that there should be charges brought against these interloper trespassers—but you know how hard and expensive it is to confront these things. It is also known that because of the Adam Drive SCENE, people are actually moving away from the location. Is this because of the Millers? NO!

Next, it must be noted that those working desperately to DESTROY or GRAB the Institute are DELIBERATELY HURTING MILLERS far worse than any transgression thus far in property matters.

There has NEVER been any other intent as regards PI than to make GOOD any loans when they reach MATURITY. And anyone who claims to "not know that there were conditions" on loans might well look at their own note and explain to themselves and to others what "maturity" MEANS on the very note itself. BUT, IF GREEN, HORTON AND ABBOTT, THROUGH BETTY TUTEN, CAN GET THE INSTITUTE INTO FORCED LIQUIDATION OR RECEIVERSHIP (and those dudes asked for George Green to be one of the "receivers"), all involved, including Millers, LOSE BIG-TIME. Tuten has not only had the Institute tied up from being able to do proper business other than ongoing expenses, but has tied it up through such a massive drop in gold prices as to be staggering. The average price of Institute gold holdings was some $374/oz. It is now $274 and dropping daily. Maybe it is headed back to the $100s range? The Institute was NEVER in the investment or gold business—EVER. The loan paybacks were BASED on gold and on gold prices to set a "maturity" value. NO PERSON through the Institute ever "owned" gold—the Institute used the loans to get gold for collateral upon which to base value for projects funding. And the facts are, people, you were dumped on by Green—who now calls HIS OWN PROGRAM a PONZI scheme. No, it worked until Betty Tuten saw to it that the collateral was simply taken by the bank—with the gold.

The NEXT story on EXTRA might well be very different from the ones played and the TV shams pulled by Tuten, Bilger, Dominick, Neil, Spectrum, et al. Those people involved on the media side are flaming mad to have been so badly used and we have gained some supporters.

Now, with the more recent games at NCH, we have a case which will be a joy to experience because we can depose every associated party and FIND OUT THE TRUTH AND WHO DID WHAT TO WHOM.

So all of you who were at the EXTRA rebuttal taping and had on your tape players for the exposé of the interviewer—please get copies and get together for the memory jogging because the "host" and producer of that program were present and that "host", when I said I didn't know who "Bethel" is or even, at that time, what was Betty's last name (Tuten), he shook his head and said something to the effect that he couldn't "do this any more". When asked how EXTRA BECAME INVOLVED, he said: BETTY TUTEN.

Most of you were right there in the room and now I am quite sure the only reason we did that segment was for the witnesses present. I can remember easily most of you from right there in town watching every word of the taping and the interview. It was the same with the Channel 27 news crew "rebuttal" of the same time, which did run and the later one set forth by ED YOUNG, in which it was his program but the only thing they did on Young was to tape him speaking of high technology as in "survival ifs...", pointing to a gas tank and saying, "...this is a butane tank...". He was so mad he wrote nasty letters to the station master. Doris had ONLY participated at all on his and Rick's urging and assurance that the program was with Ed and not Doris, Dharma, Ekker or whatever. Commander did a most gracious thing there, as well, and granted a meeting—WOW.

"Rebecca", who was called in to the Farm thing, supposed to be with some staged things by Bilger to do that "Waco-type story", is not in Bakersfield longer and did, in fact, turn up in Las Vegas at, strangely enough, a hearing on the Tuten case. My, my, and she wanted an interview with Elley, who was gracious but didn't have time to linger and talk at the moment—having the opposing counsel failing to show until the end of the hearing itself. Rebecca got an earful and eyeful from RIGHT IN THE COURT—and makes A DANDY WITNESS, and most especially, RON, a wonderful depose-ee! How could you get better than that? She has no need to pull "journalistic" secrecy because it is all on public tape.

And, if you need some "reputation" information from Bakersfield—try the old channel that did the "Heavens-Gate" thing with/alongside the EXTRA "THING" and did later come and do that nice rebuttal. That was involving, later in the rebuttal, Miles Musio, who used to live directly across Adam Drive from us, and Rusty Shupe, news anchor and a 25-year friend of Ekkers, who had no idea this nonsense was taking place. Our son, Gene, had stayed in Rusty's home, they were such close friends. Ekkers nearly "raised" his brother, Steve, along with our own children. So we have some pretty good references as to not being con-people, nasty cheaters, nor having any kind of a reputation other than doing a bit of good along the way and having very reputable and high-level respected positions in Transamerica, Children's Hospital of Los Angeles, and being good parents who took the kids, including Shupe's, on all the camping and riding outings that came along. We are NOT noted "Satanists" with tainted halos or weirdoes. Since all of this involves BETTY TUTEN, I am going to suggest that all these people touching on anything possibly being involved be deposed and some called as witnesses in this case.

God said this would be "tried in the public" and I now assume that is exactly what that meant! These turncoats did everything damaging as far back as supplying information to Steven Horn which had nothing whatsoever to do with the case in point but did have everything to do with all else before or after. This INCLUDES Jason Brent with a concerted effort on Green's part to get Brent to "do in" the Ekkers. Let's run the letter, please, of Jason Brent, along with Rick's write-up of current "find". The reason for that is that Jason Brent wanted 10% of at least $2.5 million dollars from each prospective litigant (and that includes Betty Tuten), to DESTROY the Ekkers (and thus the Institute). It was important enough for Brent to LIE IN DEPOSITION regarding the matter!

That information is there with YOU and their stealing the PI files, etc. should not keep the INFORMATION from being available if you simply search it out. Surely, someone can pull up the information on these matters BECAUSE, WITH COMPLAINTS IN HAND, WE PUBLISHED IT ALL—ALL ALONG THE WAY. IT IS IN THE CONTACT RECORDS AND THAT JUST MAY BE A REASON, IN RETROSPECT, AS TO WHY THEY WANTED TO STEAL THE PAPER ITSELF—TO GET CONTROL OF AND DESTROY THESE VERY RECORDS.

Ah, indeed, life may well not SEEM fair, but GOD IS good! I even appreciate Suzy Ward's last wordy flings because she repeats information she could ONLY have gotten from the miscreants, inclusive of Laurie Anteau. One day soon I might guess that Laurie is going to open her eyes and find she has been USED, BIG TIME! And that, in addition, there was and is a full-blown intent of destruction of the Institute, along with wiping out of not only her own "whatever she called her thousand dollars", but Joan Singer's, Dominick's and THE FUNDS OF EVERYONE ELSE, INCLUDING HER MOTHER'S. IF THAT IS THE WAY SHE WISHES TO LIVE HER LIFE, ALONG WITH HER TEAM OF PLAYERS, FINE, BUT IT SEEMS AT THE VERY LEAST UNCARING AND UNGRACIOUS OF WITH REGARD TO HER VERY OWN PARENT. And then, to further damage Millers in the "house matter" seems all but unforgivable, if not, at the greater, unconscionable, unholy and outrageous. [E.J.: Ah, she is warming to the task, and we are only to page 9.]

These Spectrum groupie members actually STOLE, looted and destroyed PROPERTY from Adam Drive for which Millers must stand responsible. And, even under legal counsel requirements, not one thing (until these dozen pictures came) has been returned—not documents and not property. Bilgers actually took up part-time residency in the house and Bilger is a now recognized thief and scam-person. The culprits tell on themselves and it is "said" that "Ekkers will be surprised to find that the police will find drugs in the dwelling if they should find their way back into the house, even overnight."

So, no thank you, people. With friends like this, do Millers really need more enemies? Well, not from over here! And now, guess what: This bunch of nasty kids is expecting Millers to help foot the bill to defend themselves. My goodness, does naughty trickery never end? They say, "After all, we don't have any money to pay for anything, so Millers will have to...". No, I DO NOT think so! ALL THESE PEOPLE [Millers] HAVE TO DO IS TELL THE TRUTH AND THE CULPRITS WILL UNCOVER THEMSELVES. And no, the house matters have nothing to do with the Institute—except for what was deliberately used to help destroy the Institute itself.

Damn, this typhoon-monsoon storm of storms just took the power out along with part of this writing.

God blesses us so abundantly that these distractions are surely annoying but are getting MORE INTERESTING as the case comes to confrontation again NOW. Team, please keep digging up everything you even think pertains to or focuses on Betty Tuten and her joint escapades because the facts are going to be—YOU KNOW FAR MORE THAN EKKERS ABOUT THIS MATTER, WHEN PEOPLE JUST DIDN'T WANT TO GET INVOLVED OR SAY THINGS.

I will tell you now that you should not limit yourself because you think that, well, "They were always nice to me." NO, starting with Charles Neil—they are not and were never NICE to you or about you.

And, please, as we leave this as far as note holders—please do NOT forget Dingmans, who had to go back to Canada—they lived out at that farm for a long time and learned about Bilger and his first girlfriend, whom he tried sneaking into the mobile home while the children wondered about the "unmarried live-in" visitations. We had to require that Bilger cease and desist such flagrant activities in front of the little children. And since Betty Tuten is now proven to be teamed up with Bilger—we have a lot of support from there and not just with "Maturity" understandings with lenders.

But, you might ask, didn't Rick or Charles understand the workings of PI? Neither put a cent into the Institute—theirs was ALWAYS on the taking side! So, yes, indeed, it IS certainly most interesting that Rick and Ray snatched the files and actually incriminated themselves by publishing things that could ONLY have come from said stolen files and were, at best, only "private", not "secret". And what of Kathy and Karen? No doubt we will find out.

And yes, indeed, I demand that Charles Neil be found and deposed—for with the gun incident at the farm, partially structured with the media with Betty Tuten, he is going to answer to his activities and involvement. Charles said to us personally that Rick couldn't tell the truth if it hit him in the mouth and was "the most immature person" he had ever met. So how is it that suddenly Rick's presentations, along with those of the misfits, were honored—when Charles could KNOW the claims were NOT TRUE.

THIS INQUIRING MIND WANTS TO KNOW!

THIS "BETTY TUTEN CASE" MAY NEVER END, IF I HAVE ANYTHING TO SAY ABOUT IT—AND SINCE I AM PERSONALLY NAMED, I THINK I CAN POSSIBLY HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY ABOUT IT.

But to happier things, there is no way to thank Berends enough for their gift of "life" in the form of the apparatus just received here. What really blows us out is that Janis and Randy managed to get that attended AND HAVE A FULL TRANSPLANT OF AT LEAST TWO ORGANS IN THE MEANWHILE.

I will say that the apparatus lends a new dimension to "boob" attention, as in a good bra is a necessity. I think the laugh did as much good as the apparatus! Do we feel more oxygenated after two uses? I have no idea!

And, I bet the Rays would never have guessed that this crystal flower changes with the light. It is usually reflecting beautiful blue but in the inclement weather, its reflection is soft, rose-colored, tinged with golden hues. It is my treasure and sits on my screen table with Debbie's "roses" and brings total love and joy. I am reminded all the time of my LOSS of the angel from Mark and Della that I always had at my computer and I have missed dearly every time I sit to type. I often wonder if I ever will have any of those "support crutches" again, for they had to be dumped into whatever was handy to just get it all out of the house. I suppose that some day it will turn up, probably in Ellen's or Debbie's shifting boxes.

INDEED, LIFE OFTEN SEEMS UNFAIR AND THEN IT SEEMS SO ABUNDANT AS TO STUN US IN OUR COMPLAINTS—AND "GOD IS CERTAINLY GOOD".

Love to all and I promise to get back to work tomorrow, for Erick San Juan has sent over a couple of really important papers.

And to stress the importance of some of these things, I would tell you that Coleman's article of long ago on the Philippines Betrayed is in the hands of Marcos' children and the response, is "Oh, my God, this will clear our name...!" So, to John C.: Thank you for the permission to use the material and yes, indeed, soon it will be that your hurting days are over as we get rolling. If we make it—YOU MAKE IT, so please say a word to upstairs for success. This success here will allow all authors to get their work out—Phillips, Stich, etc.—you name it. BECAUSE we already have the publishers chomping in readiness AND in know-how to at the least distribute here—even if banned in the U.S.—for we don't have to use the U.S. for same. The reason I asked for just a couple of copies of "300" is to give it, through a request, to the President himself and to that nice Marcos group of children who have had to live under this shroud of corruption and lies for all these years and, in spite of it, one of the daughters has achieved being a Senator and the son is the Governor in Ilocos Norte—one of the most important provinces in the Philippines. Remember also that AFTER the fall, as they say, even Imelda by popular demand was a Senator and did, in fact, run for the presidency twice, the last against Estrada and because of the international badgering she stepped down and Estrada easily won by more "popular vote" than anyone ever has before pulled.

Former President Ramos is still in the U.S. spouting off to everyone his string-pullers' (graduate of West Point, you know) demands and tearing down his own nation. All the destroyers spend more time in Washington, D.C. than in Manila. Wow, and oh, my! And my, my, indeed, it is no longer very "wise" of those known players to take out Ekkers or Global. THIS "THING" WE HAVE IS NOW APPARENTLY APPROVED AND VALIDATED WITHOUT QUESTION IN THE U.S. WITH THE "ONLY" QUESTION POSSIBLY BEING "PERCENTAGE" OF HOLDINGS. WELL, WITH THIS SIZE OF FOCUS, ANY PERCENTAGE IS PRETTY GOOD AND CAN HELP A LOT OF HUMANITY.

When E.J. stated a reminder to any party in Mindanao that there will be no approval if anything from GAIA goes for even one gun, the response will blow you out, as well as the facts: "Oh, no, with approval of GAIA and funds, the war will be INSTANTLY over. And, as to arms, the outside forces—through the Middle East and intelligence agencies—have provided over a billion-and-a-half dollars in arms AVAILABLE and already in the area, and the misfit organized rebels are trained in guerilla terrorism by these same teams of international agencies. And NO, sorry, Americans who believe that such as Libya and Bin Laden are responsible—the only things given to the Mindanao circle in southeast Asia are for rice and food. The people in Mindanao are in so much poverty as to shock even the United Nations leadership who did, after all, experience the Indonesian methodical destruction aided and abetted by their newly announced advisors, Henry Kissinger—and Associates.

Further, NO, we are not into politics AT ALL and neither are we into Religions—AT ALL. And I guess it is all pretty interesting when the intelligence agencies go to check on the state of Ekkers to find that the entire Ekker world is GONE. That "palatial compound" somehow has no connection to Ekkers—but through theft and participation, the Spectrum groupie came to and are under full attention. Ah, yes, God is GOOD!

It has been too long between writings and updates and that makes for my too-lengthy input. However, it would seem so important, especially to us, to let all of you know of our unlimited and boundless (same thing) appreciation.

We hear regularly, every day, with a call or faxes or something from our dear family friend, 2 X 0, and he has helped so much financially that we are totally indebted. He says he has no family? No, not so, we have no others except the friends who have stayed this course and our own blood families and we treasure and cherish each of you who ARE OUR FAMILY. Our only way to return that trust and support IS TO MAKE THIS WORK AND DO IT IN GOD'S PERFECTION. And yes, the Institute can hang on long enough to get this started—and it will be just fine because it has to protect itself by legal counsel. Then Ekkers should have enough to take it the rest of the way while unearthing all of this mess—which very well might turn into the unearthing of criminal activities, for which the "system" can adjudge.

Love and our very greatest appreciation to you all, Doris

GAIA Chronology Of Events

RE: INFO. ON GAIA, CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS, V.K. DURHAM/HERMAN AND REQUESTED SUPPORT MATERIAL FOR 3392N181

REGARDING THIS SERIES OF WRITINGS

These writings are going to be information taken from a file which was brought to Manila, the Philippines for use as reference for dates, etc. related to Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA) and information in our files which has been published but most of which is not in our "package" of support materials. This is not to find the information unimportant but to render it in some quantity allowing better use of same.

We do get such a myriad of questions regarding so many things—mostly just from curiosity—that GCH requests that we get what we can onto "our" disk, so that at least what we do have can be utilized.

Please remember, you who know the story, that Rick Martin was a vital part of the loop with V.K. Durham as well as with Russell Herman while he was still alive.

In the pressures of trying to type V.K.'s material with which she flooded us, as in a total bombardment, I, Doris, finally had to turn it over to someone else to handle. It was so difficult to sort and type, correct spelling and get ready for publishing that nobody, after a while, would touch it. So, SOMEWHERE—BACK THERE in U.S.-Land—are files and files of V.K.'s "sharings".

Much was kept at Ekkers' but all of that has now been dumped or removed, moved or outright stolen when the grab for CONTACT was made by the now "Spectrum" group. We have no idea what is left and, at best, Rick has it.

Since our disconnection from V.K. Durham, we have no information regarding her location or present state of health or contact information. The clarification of these statements will be shown as we print or reprint correspondence, lines of events as offered by V.K. herself as well as from Russell Herman. V.K. KNEW about the connections of Ekkers-Martin-CONTACT at the time of the contacts while Russell was still alive but it appears she chose to rewrite the script after Russell's death. Did she know about Russell's transfer to us? I, Doris, don't know the answer to that, and it appears that she may well have not known because Russell built in a period of time to allow her to get the job accomplished—with our help.

She was so angry when we finally had to publish the transfer that she screamed fraud, forgery, etc., even of Russell's signature. We did not realize or know until the documents were validated and registered that the transfers from Russell to Rick to GAIA were actually preceding the documents and things of V.K.'s holdings. Well, we can't sort that, so we followed through as we were instructed by some of the same people with whom V.K. also dealt in a big, big way.

Please understand that I am not a "happy camper" having to retype all these documents and this correspondence but I can also see the need to do so and at the same time offer, again, the public presentation, for we have no way to research old files, nor staff to do so.

I apologize right here, up front for lack of dates and writers on much of the material, for Rick had extracted relevant material and just stuck it in a file and much of it will not have information regarding dates, etc. I will comment if I can remember "about when", etc. but that is the best I can do. I believe, however, that you can piece together the approximate time and every so often [H] has commented.

It appears to me to be best to start with a bit of a chronology and personal things from V.K. and/or Russell Herman and where possible, flesh out the information with actual public notice copies of relevant material.

It should be noted that this will be "copy", so to question me about these things is not appropriate since, in some instances, such as the "Timeline" now first offered, I had no input but will have a comment or two as we get to late July and the first few days of August 1993. You will please note that Russell was failing but was actually still very bright and functional. He also had the use of his hands, in contradiction to V.K.'s claim that he "could not have signed anything because he had a broken arm". At the time of the transfer, there was NOTHING wrong with Russell's arm or hand, although he was very weak.

V.K. has had "enough already" and I can't imagine that V.K. could remember everything while in the horrendous and terrifying middle of her "husband" being killed. Yes, indeed, this would be a story for a series of motion pictures to surpass anything Bond has done to date.

Anyone who can't believe our wondrous Government in the Land of the Free, and the CIA, would do this to "one of their own", I suggest you go to the movie rental store and get a film on a man named Barry Seal and just watch. There are hundreds just like him—hundreds. Then I suggest you get the reference materials and books offered in these writings. It is NOT a nice world.

V.K., you will see, has said that "this is of God, it HAS to be"—and yes, it COULD ONLY BE SO.

With this all said, off we go.

[QUOTING, "TIMELINE", as constructed by Rick Martin, 10/22/97:]

[D: Some of the names throughout the entire series will be "phonetically" spelled because often times we would not have the correct spelling. For example: In Rick's first few paragraphs there is a Dare SHAUT, and a Dare SCHAUT. I dare shout that I don't know which is correct. BUT, I DO WELL REMEMBER DARE SHAUT/SCHAUT. FURTHERMORE: ANDY NICHOLAW WILL KEEP POPPING UP IN ALL THE WRONG AND MYSTERIOUS PLACES THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE TIME PERIOD.]

1. Hatonn writes about Dare Shaut and COSMOS on Dec. 10, 1992 in Vol. 21, #9 of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

2. In a writing dated Dec. 16, 1992, Hatonn states, Re: COSMOS: "I am not going to discuss details about this ongoing situation. I cannot jeopardize my people or the project by loose speaking. Suffice it to say that things ARE happening and if you pay attention you will see what many of them ARE!"

3. THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, Vol. 21, #12, page 28, Nord Davis writes an article regarding the Nov. 27, 1992, Dare Schaut/(Dr.) Andy Nicholaw "conference" call concerning Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd. The address for COSMOS was given over the air as being RR1, Box 171, Okawville, IL 62271 (V.K. Durham's address).

4. In a letter TO HATONN dated Jan. 20, 1993 FROM Charles Dare Schaut, Schaut cries libel at the information written about COSMOS (appearing in Vol. 22, #1 of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR). In another letter written by V.K. Durham and signed BY RUSSELL HERMAN, CEO/CB and V.K. Durham, CO/CEO/CB for Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd., she ends the letter with the following statement: "By the way, it surely must be real or George Bush would have not tried to obtain $2B410M for Iran in 1989. Of course, we, Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd. refused him collateral."

5. On page 16 of Vol. 22, #3 of THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, is a letter dated Jan. 29, 1993 addressed to Mister Rick Martin (please print).

[Quoting:]

We are in receipt of your Jan. 26, 1993 edition wherein you did print our response. Thank you.

We would like to apologize to our lateness in response as, on Christmas Day, we were in an auto accident which left us in a state of disarray. These things happen, however we do apologize for our lateness in responding.

[Still quoting, later on:]

To keep you on an update, we (Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd.) forwarded on to President Bill Clinton on the 19th day of January 1993 our offer to assist in the restoration of the Republic; this consisted of 18 pages which originally was intended to THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR to publish so all of you could read what we had to say. We are holding it up for 30 days to allow our new president, Bill Clinton, time to peruse our letter. If there is no response in 30 days, we shall send this on for publication so you will be informed.

[End of quoting]

It was initialed by V.K. and Russell.

[D: We later DID publish the offer.]

[D: The next is referring to "things", valuable artifacts, held by Russell and V.K. Knecht was trying to sell them for V.K. We have no idea of the final disposition of the things. However, we did have MANY conversations with Robert Knecht. He is a well-recognized expert in art, gold, etc. We have seen reference to "Dr. Knecht" even in Southeast Asia in an international publication. He told us, personally, that he was helping V.K. and that he was acting as executor for that reason and, of course, the valuable holdings. He further said that he had "many" Peruvian certificates but the BONUS 3392-181 was in a "class of its own". He said, however, that if we sent the information from the "Russell Will", that he would see that the $40 million bequest would be made to CONTACT. The full information was sent but in the meanwhile he had some major dispute with V.K. Durham, after which he said, "She has now really botched it; she has filed murder charges against Bush and his associates (named) and nothing can be distributed from the 'Will' itself until that is under control..."]

In a continuous flow of correspondence and phone calls,

V.K. continued to assure us that she was within days of receiving massive sums for those items. However, when Knecht would get a buyer, V.K. would set other conditions on the sale and delays were constant. V.K. had promised that if CONTACT would assist her with funds, she would be paying them all back through this separate resource. [D: This never happened.]

6. In a conversation [D: With permission, Rick taped the conversation.] with Houston-based attorney Dr. Robert Knecht, on 9-24-97, he said:

[QUOTING:]

He brought it out of Burma. These are temple objects that have been there for thousands of years in these temples. And when Russia attacked, that blew up the temples, and the government, with General Herman and General Dwire, brought all this stuff out. And then when General Herman was murdered... the case came up to me and I opened up these vaults by winning the case and all these artifacts for V.K., and she was almost killed. She was in a coma for a year, and I surfaced with these and they've been appraised out by the government people in the case at 316 million—about that....

... and I discounted it. I said, for a quick, say, 250 million for all of them. Get it out of here. And I wanted to close that case, and everybody comes in here and wants this to be a museum and that's not how you close a case.

Question: What is the nature of the objects?

The Ming-Hu robe of 1500 AD, that's of the Ming-Hu family. Ming being a dynasty, and there's two, there were three of them. And we have one and two of them are in the museum in Beijing.

And they're going at 50 million a piece, over there. We have one of them here, in the vault. I also have a 300-karat diamond which was taken out of the Buddha's eye. It's 54-facet, 300 karat of V6. And then there's a black diamond that was found in the temple, and also a goblet from about 1800 years old that was used for a sacrificial goblet—a blood goblet made all out of ivory. Then there's two tapestries from Belgium. How they got over there, I don't know. I opened this case; I put it out for 250 million. Everybody comes in here, and "Oh, I want this, I want that...". You can't do that in a case.

[Still quoting, later on:]

But see, Dwire and the other one, General Dwire and Schenault, were on the Burma Road.

[End of quoting]

7. THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR and CONTACT [D: After George Green tried to take the Liberator and assets to Nevada, it was found that Green had also taken about $400,000 in gold intended for the Phoenix Institute and buried it in his back yard. It became necessary to merge the paper and the name was changed to CONTACT. We have never been able to establish the extent of Green's thefts but we do know of much, much more.] Received (documented) telephone calls from Russell Herman and V.K. Durham on, initially, the following dates: 9/21/93, 12/3/93/ 12/10/93, 12/15/93, 12/27/93, 12/30/93, 1/3/94, 1/6/94, 1/14/94, 1/15/94, 1/18/94, 1/19/94, 1/20/94, 1/21/94, 1/24/94, 1/29/94. [D: Ekkers probably received twice, at least, as many calls (almost daily and sometimes two or three daily) but we did not have any reason to document them.]

8. On May 26, 1995, CONTACT received the following information from V.K. Durham:

[Quoting:]

Received your paper and the article on killer germs. Most impressive. However, curiously, this killer germ identified as Cryptosporidiosis is almost identical to the resident germ in the bathroom commode in this house Russell and I have inhabited.

[Still quoting, later on:]

I believe there is cause and reason to believe this is the origination of the illness of Russell Herman, and later he was gassed by Serin [sic] out in the yard in front of the house.

Reasoning: Prior to the incident of the "gassing", Russell had been swelling profusely in the abdominal region, as a matter of fact, the swelling was so profuse, he would have to split the seams in his jeans to accommodate the swelling. He was exhibiting bloody stools, and kidney difficulties with extreme pain in the mid-section.

Immediately after the gassing, he perspired profusely. He was bleeding from the eyes, nose, ears, spitting up blood, nauseated and disoriented and did lose consciousness. The combination of the two made him ill enough for the first encounter with the hospital "United Nations medics", all employees/personnel in St. Mary's were wearing dark blue slacks/shirts, white blouses, black ties with epaulettes on the shoulders in the wing in which Russell was taken.

Russell, while missing from 9:30 a.m. on October 28th, 1993 until 21:27:52 hours that date, was strung up like a piece of beef with a pair of hooks under the shoulder blades with a cross bar across the shoulders in the back, he was burned with cigarettes, and beaten to the point of his left rib cage being broken, as was the left arm from the shoulder to the elbow.

Evidenced on Russell's rectum were marks where a prod had been placed up his rectum, with entry areas around the anal area as though wires had been inserted in addition to the initial prod.

After leaving St. Mary's, Russell expelled what looked like tobacco in his feces. From appearances, pure tobacco had been shoved up his ass, up and through the intestines to reach the liver area which would cause abnormal liver functioning (the evidence exists).

Still, this did not kill on the desired time level, nor did he cooperate with them, they never did get what they wanted, and that was his signature to sign off on the certificate/contract. Russ could not have signed off had he wanted to, he did not have that capacity.

[D: More than V.K. knew, he couldn't sign off on the documents, for he had already transferred them "even" out of V.K.'s ability to do anything with them. I probably would have died of terror had I actually realized the extent of this incredible intrigue. We didn't actually have enough recognition to try to run or hide. We did have several attempts on our very lives, cars in chases, etc., and we just marked it up to nuts from the U. of Science and Philosophy that was suing us because of George Green. Agents were CAUGHT tapping phones (total idiots) and were also caught with listening devices to the windows at the "office", spying on Rick, et al. The "Powers" knew Russell had transferred the "CONTRACT" but they ran smack into Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, and had to back off.]

Being unable to walk to and fro to the bathroom facilities here at home, it became necessary to use a urine bottle. After a while the same killer germ, Cryptosporidiosis, began to cultivate in the urine bottles. (The evidence exists.)

All the cancer tests were negative. Accuracy rate 75-80%. Still radiation and chemotherapy was given, the burns are evidenced on his hips. Now we have excessive invasive radiation.

Well, that did not kill him. Hospice decided with the doctors that I was to give him 10 mgs of morphine every four hours with a 2 hour break-through, and I was supposed to rub it into his gums even if he was asleep (then I would have been guilty of murder).

Russ and I wised up to the morphine in a hurry. He cold turkeyed all the way. Much to their consternation, that little guy still was alive. He still had not died.

I truly feel as though I let him down, and I was too exhausted to care for him and I put him back into the hospital where he could be given proper care, while I got some well needed rest. I had told the hospital and doctors on Sunday, "I am going to take him home on Tuesday, as he is doing so well." On that Monday, he was murdered. His vital body fluids were extracted while he was still alive, the redness is from morphine and the accompanying fear.

[End of quoting]

9. On Jan. 4, 1995, Grandma wrote to CONTACT.

[Quoting:]

Please be assured; in the event I can get that portion of my own processed [D: referencing the Herman Will], the CONTACT will indeed get $40 million dollars out of my own, this will be in Federal Reserve notes, and the gold bequeathing shall not be affected.

(This was addressed to Rick and to E.J.)

Russell Herman and I decided too many years ago, how very important this CONTACT paper is to the people, and we both, the two of us, made a free choice to assist this paper in the event we were able to do so. This is the reason the Will of Russell Herman left such a bequest.

[End of quoting]

[D: This is another very good and logical reason why Rick and Ed (Young) would actually STEAL the paper itself, CONTACT. Spectrum is not the same thing as CONTACT any way you spell it. They had to get rid of files and they had to have the name because when we validate this contract—it brings the Will of Russell Herman to bear, and $40 million will have to be paid. So, you might see that stealing the paper and the bank accounts were no "little" thefts. Ed had already been dismissed from ANY connection with the paper and yet they went forward and published three additional editions, which damaged beyond recovery the paper itself. Then they started Spectrum using mailing lists and stolen material. Rick (and Charles Neil) were neither longer "anything" to Global Alliance Investment Association, having threatened Ekkers, used extortion, announced themselves "enemies" and resigned quite legally and lawfully from all association with said GAIA. They did, however, apparently think that $40 million might tide them over for a while, if all else failed.]

10. On Sept. 12, 1994, Grandma wrote to Rick & Readers the following:

[Quoting, Portions:]

Frankly, when we picked up Grandpa's frozen body, it was unlike anything I had ever seen. First, all of us have seen the death camps of Auschwitz and Dachau [sic], and know of the emaciation of the bodies which were nothing but skin stretched over bones. This was the way Grandpa was. But something different here—Grandpa's frozen body had a skin color just as good as my own—his "buns" were red as fire, there were "scratch marks" on his face which were not there when I last saw him, and the blood was still blood red. Then, there were the 'scalpel' marks, just tiny incisions between the shoulder blades, and down mid lower back, ever so slight, but as though something had been inserted, after a tiny piece of skin had been pulled back, then the skin put back in place, this area was yellowish in color where the invasions occurred—no "voiding" in his Pampers.

Those "scratches on his face, on the left side" bother me... it's as though Russ had been put into the freezer still alive and had scratched his face in desperation for air. I just do not know. But I do know something very strange went on here. A forensic autopsy would evidence his skin under his fingernails if this bore up as fact.

[Still quoting, later on:]

They tried to tell me the marks on Papa's back was skin tissue breakdown/bedsores. Bullshit! I rubbed his back the day before with talcum powder and it was as clear as it could be, no marks!

[End of quoting]

[END OF PART 1]

GAIA Chronology Of Events

(Part 2)

5/26/00—#2 (13-284)

RE: TIMELINE: RUSSELL HERMAN

CONTINUING FROM EARLIER 5/26/00—#1 WRITING (COPY):

11. In a legal notice/letter dated Dec. 14, 1993, addressed to Medicare & Mutual of Omaha, Mrs. Russell Herman writes,

[Quoting:]

On the date of October 28, 1993, Mr. Russell Herman was taken across the state line, from Illinois to Missouri, without his permission, or the wife's permission; and

Unauthorized invasive treatments were performed on the subject's person/body without authorization from either himself and/or the wife; and

Said procedures were performed without said person being admitted into the St. Mary's Hospital Care Facility, and Mr. Herman, upon entering said hospital, without authorization either from him or his wife; was suffering from the following (see unsigned registration/admission sheet of 10/28/93.)

- A) Gastrointestinal bleeding;
- B) Intestinal obstruction;
- C) Suspected "D" (diverticulitis), and
- D) Abnormal liver function.

There was no mention of "any" life threatening illness.

[End of quoting]

12. In a document dated Feb. 4, 1994, titled Declaration at Common Law, Notice to Beneficiaries; Addendum to Establishment of Beneficiaries Russell Edward Herrman/Herman and/or V.K. Durham, we read the following: [Quoting:]

E) A very small gutsy newspaper exists in Phoenix, Arizona, a bequest is herein identified as $40MM (million gold dollars, gold coin, gold bullion, gold) is also made to this small paper identified as the CONTACT, INC. NEWS for "its" projects.

[End of quoting]

[D: It is noted here that the "location" given as Arizona was an error and was immediately corrected by V.K. Durham and the correction run as a Public Notice of correction and also, we were informed, corrected in the State filings.]

13. In a letter addressed to "20-20" dated Sept. 6, 1994, Mrs. Russell Herman writes.

[Quoting:]

Russell Edward Herrman, born July 2, 1927. On the 9th day of April 1940, at the age of 13, his mother lied about his age, and egged him into the United States Coast Guard. It was getting rid of an extra mouth to feed.

Russell Edward Herrman/Herman's serial number #E630724. He started out an ordinary seaman, in the engine room of steamers, on the Great Lakes, at 13 years old.

On April 9, 1945, he did continue into the Coast Guard. Finally, Donny, his brother, who was on the Denver, coaxed Russell into the WW II. Russell enlisted into the Army in 1946 and out in '47. Re-enlisted in 1947, out in 1950, re-enlisted in 1950, out in 1953, re-enlisted in 1953, out in 1957, then back into the U.S.

Coast Guard. From 1957, U.S. Coast Guard went well past "Discharge time of 20 years" to 1993. Fifty-three (53) years, in the service of this nation. A nation that does not even know who the man is, or was, nor can his records be determined.

As the story goes: General MacArthur had gotten wind of there being some POWs behind the enemy lines, at the INCHON RESERVOIR. Russie's unit was sent out to "Seek and Identify" these POWs. The unit got within between 80 or 180 yards of the objective, and was told to "PULL OUT, ABORT AND PULL BACK", leaving the POWs still behind enemy lines during this 'scouting venture'. Russell sustained a blow to the head, causing a need for 217 stitches, and his nose had to be re-attached; he lost the use of the right eye.

Of course, this Coast Guardsman, or this "Medics" or this Serviceman's true historic events, somehow got lost when the fail-safe record department was destroyed by fire in St. Louis, Missouri(?).

[End of quoting]

15. In a letter published in the Sept. 10, '96 CONTACT addressed to: Dear Rick and Readers, dated Sept. 10, 1994, Grandma writes.

[Quoting:]

First, I want you to know, Grandpa was buried on the 6th of September 1994.

For the Services, which were held graveside, first our wedding vows were re-affirmed and read by Pastor Johnson. Second, the poem written by Russell's dearest female friend Cecelia Xalis entitled "In Flanders Fields do Poppys Still Grow". Third, Grandpa's "Notice to All Beneficiaries" was read. And do you young ones know what happened when this was going on? Well, a gentle breeze began to blow through the trees and the corn fields... over the hills... throughout the cemetery... and all the while this butterfly fluttered over Grandpa's casket. Then, taps was played, and the echo came again... from another bugle... far over the hill... the Honor Guard fired their Salutes to Russell Edward Herrman/Herman.

[End of quoting]

16. From the same issue of CONTACT we read Grandma.

[Quoting:]

The day we sent the letters to the President of the United States of America offering to assist the nation back in July of 1993, the two of us commented; "We have just signed our death warrants." Then, we both got our acts together to protect you young ones... our Last Will and Testaments were IN ORDER.

The CONTACT, Inc. News has a paper trail which "IF" followed will show, the dates, what occurred after those dates... but just to fill you in, it goes like this:

* 1992—we offered to assist the young President, William Jefferson Clinton in restoring the nation, and

* 1993—we offered to assist the nation, rebuild after those disastrous floods. This was in July.

* 1993—August we extended the offer to assist. Papa was ill from the "smoke/fog".

[D: It was in early August that the transfer of the contract was made for interim holding by Rick Martin. We paid for Rick's trip for that purpose and Rick reported back with documents signed and in hand, to be secured. He reported some "interesting" things about the circumstances but we do not have further input as to how or what actually took place. The request from Herman was to hold in security the documents until such time as it would be necessary and/or appropriate to transfer the contract further into some "Global" corporation which would by then be established. It was established as Global Alliance Investment Association so that its label would be GAIA.]

* 1993—October 13th, took the Interest into Boatmen's National Bank and in accordance with Title 17 of the Illinois Banking Laws and the proper UCCs, tried to draw down on the accrued interest due and payable on Bonus 3392-181.

* 1993—November 1st, we issued a letter demanding a turn back across state lines whereupon Russell Herman could be sent to Marion, Illinois Veterans Health Care Facility. It was stamped received. (Russell was never admitted to St. Marys in Clayton, Missouri, on the 28th or any following date. He was kept illegally until the 17th day of November 1993.)

* 1993—November 3rd, Boatmen's National Bank in Belleville/St. Louis, Missouri did attempt to use another Certificate identified by the Peruvian Embassy as Certificate 1065, whose alleged owners were M.O.H. Enterprises. They denied payment, as rightfully they should have, as this 1065 was one of the Dreyfus contract, which was a contract of suspect, as they would tell the Peruvian Government "We shipped out 10 tonnes"...when, in fact, they "shipped out 30 tonnes"...and did not pay the Peruvian Government what was actually owed to them. So, the Government cancelled those Certificates and rightly so.

* 1993 We filed Ex-Parte in Federal District Court on Boatmen's National Bank..."Violations of Title 17, and the UCCs."

* 1993—The Judge called, said he was not familiar with the UCCs, and recused himself. No other judge has been assigned, nor have we been noticed of assignment of said judge. (Of course we have one year, and in all probability an Ancillary will be filed, citing murder (no statute of limitations of time).

* 1993—December 10th, Illinois Department of Veterans Affairs; came to the house and after gleaning all the information stood up and said: "Well, Mrs. Herman, if you plan on getting some of these bills paid, don't look to us. And I suggest to you, after he is dead, go take bankruptcy." This was at 10:15 A.M. on the 10th.

* 1993—Hospice was called in to assist.

* 1993—Hospice demanded I give Russell 10 mg of Morphine every 4 hours with a 2 hour break-through, and he had to take it even if I had to rub it into his gums while he was sleeping. Hospice was told by me, "I will not be a party to murdering my husband, as I know with these amounts of dosages, he will become anorexic, dehydrate and go into pulmonary cardiac arrest." Needless to say, that was the end of Hospice.

This battle with Hospice went on from November 1993 up to about February 1994.

* 1994—March. Russell was admitted into the Marion Veterans Hospital in Marion, Illinois. (God what a little trooper he was.)

Little did I realize, even though I had won the battle over the morphine, they had snuck another one in on me which old dumb-ass me, did not fully know about—"Lasix/Furosemide". The son of a bitches had been giving him the aforementioned in his IVs. And he had prescriptions here at home. Recently I discovered, now this is straight from the manufacturer's printout: "Adverse Reaction: Gastrointestinal system reactions: 1) anorexia 2) oral and gastric irritation 3) nausea 4) vomiting 5) cramping 6) diarrhea 7) constipation 8) jaundice (intrahepatic cholestatic jaundice) 9) pancreatitis.”

Let's go backwards—The initial diagnosis was: gastrointestinal bleeding, suspected bowel obstruction, liver malfunction. This is the diagnosis of October 28, 1994, Washington County Hospital in Nashville, Illinois (Lasix/furosemide?)

Veterans Administration printout of June 1994 diagnosis: Gastrointestinal cancer. He was receiving Lasix in his IVs.

* 1994—From March to the day Russell Herman died, we were being told Cancer of the Prostate, blip blip, bla bla.

Russell Herman's Death Certificate: Cancer of the Mets, and the death certificate is signed by an unknown doctor, not the primary doctor Dr. Hyde of the Marion Veterans Hospital. (?)

I requested an autopsy, in writing, from the Veterans Hospital. This was vehemently and adamantly denied on the fact: “We will not do an autopsy that can or could be used in ANY court of law in this country.” Quote, end quote, Dr. Petith (Petoo).

Dr. Petith stated: “Mrs. Herman, you are not a medical person, and you do not know what you are talking about.”

[End of quoting]

At the end of the same document we read,

[Quoting:]

Both Grandpa and I, Grandma, knew the consequences when we came out and did what we intended to do, back in 1989, we both knew we would be casualties of defense of America and defense and support of the American people whereas and whereby, they could once again wrest themselves from the same things identified in the great and inestimable Declaration of Independence, oppression, despotism and tyranny from a tyrannical government. Also, Grandpa and Grandma were willing to pay the ultimate price, with our lives if necessary. Grandpa has lost his life... in an honest and faithful attempt to restore this once great nation to its former status. Let's not let him have died in vain and allow his wishes to go unfulfilled.

[D: My own thoughts are that when V.K. realized that that mess was dumped onto our shoulders, she may have tried to protect us by denying the possibilities present in the transfer of that cursed document. We have, since being in Manila, heard a couple of things: 1. That V.K. had made a deal with her portion and got some funds. (I wish I felt that to be so but the last input was:) 2. V.K. Durham was declared mentally incompetent and nobody seems to know anything about it or where she might have been placed.]

* 1994—August 28th, Russell Herman wrote, “Our lives are shaped by those who love us and their lives are shaped by our love for them.”

 1994—August 29th, Russell Herman died.

[End of quoting]

17. I (Rick Martin) can't be specific as to the actual date these conversations took place, or the actual date of the event, but on several occasions both Russell Herman and V.K. Durham expressed their concern, as well as disapproval of the activities of Dr. Andy Nicholaw. Sometime between August 1993 and April 1994, Andy went to see Russell and V.K. When he entered the Illinois home, Russell said to V.K., “He's been sent here to kill us.”

When Andy, later, said he was going to the bathroom,

V.K. Durham—with a handgun in her hand—said to Andy, “When you come out of there you'd better only have your pecker in your hand because if you have anything else in it I'm going to shoot you where you stand.”

On other occasions, V.K. has confided in me that Andy Nicholaw was the one who “set Russell up for take-out”. Russell and V.K. were both very, very concerned over Andy's activities with the certificate and they did not feel safe around him.

Andy continued for months “peddling the Peruvians” in the Los Angeles area and is, in all probability, still working with Dr. Robert Knecht to this very day, on them.

* 18—CONTACT received a fax dated June 22, 1996, from V.K., which is an agenda for “The Saturday Morning Breakfast Club—A Constitutional Forum” in Tucson, Arizona. On the agenda for Jan. 7 is: “Andy Nicholaw: The possessor of a gold certificate that is worth millions, that he claims he will use to buy the Federal Reserve.”

* 19—In a fax dated Sept. 20, 1994 and addressed by “Grandma” to “Julian”, we read.

[Quoting:]

I suppose the most simplistic way to define the “Grandpa's Will” is: Grandpa and Grandma and Andy knew a long time ago that there's gold in them thar vaults, weren't recalling belonging to those scutters that took it... it belonged to the American peoples as it rightly was their'n affore the funny munny and monopoly stuff was put into illegal law back in the olden days of Grandpa and Grandma, and Grandma's and Grandpa's Grandma, and Grandpa (Get it?).

Now Julian, it's like this: It ain't nice to steal, and there really is a RIGHT and a WRONG, even though our politicals don't know the difference, but it is there and it ain't right to take that which don't belong to them away from the old folks, the youngins, and the less fortunate who don't know they had something or tuther worth sumpthin... wurth stealin in the furst plase... but they stole it anyway, and that ain't sittin well.

[End of quoting]

* 20—In a faxed letter from Grandma Writes Rights dated Sept. 24, 1994, addressed to CONTACT, INC. NEWS, Dear Friends and Concerned Americans, we read.

[Quoting:]

First, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your evidenced concern. I also am concerned, but there is a task set in motion, and at hand which must be completed and that task is restoration of this nation, in peace if possible.

I must tell you, when we first started out there were 26 of us. Now, due to “deaths” there are only 2 left. But in the true course of history, our forefathers pledged their lives, their fortunes, their plight to ensure Americans safety of a free and harmonious, liberated society.

Unfortunately, we have lost twenty-four from our “group”, even Grandpa (making it 25), but we all have but one regret: We only have one life to give.

[End of quoting]

* 21—In a letter from Grandma dated Sept. 5, 1994, addressed to CONTACT, INC. NEWS, Dear Rick and Readers:

[Quoting:]

We are unable to obtain a proper autopsy to determine the cause of Grandpa's death. They kept throwing blockades in the pathway. We all know who “they” are.

I'm going through Grandpa's things so we would all know what to do, what not to do, what goes where, what does not go where, and so on, we ran across a set of documents that Grandpa and Grandma made out last February when he was so ill. After all that poor soul has gone through, I came close, oh so damned close to tearing the damned thing up, because I suppose because the marrow of my ones hurt over what has happened to Grandpa.

I, in sitting and talking with Andy Nicholaw, and the two of us hashing out the mess, Andy calmed me down and told me to “Get my crap together, as the American people were too damned important for me to feel sorry for myself!”

[D: Does anyone find anything strange about this Andy Nicholaw dude and Grandma's continuation with the nerd “sent to kill them”?]

I am affixing to this page, five pages of Grandma's and Grandpa's “Notice to all beneficiaries” for you to publish, as one of the “owners/signatories” has passed on.

[End of quoting]

* 22—In a telephone conversation with Jack Jones on the week of 10/13/97, Jack confided that Grandma currently receives a telephone call from Andy Nicholaw about once a month. [D: Jack Jones is a friend who literally moved into Grandma's house with her to help her and to see to what she needed.]

* 23—In a faxed letter dated Oct. 6, 1994 from Grandma Writes Rights, addressed to The Phoenix Project and All Americans, and other nations, Committee of 50 States, we read.

[Quoting:]

While we were sitting there looking over the river, we began to discuss the Certificate and Grandpa said, “Ma, think about what I am going to say very carefully. How many pairs of shoes can we wear, how many houses can we live in, how many pairs of clothes do we need, how many cars can we drive?”

I replied, “One at a time”.

He then continued, “You know, that Certificate represents nothing but death and trouble. It's been trouble, through wars, more trouble ever since it was written.”

I said, “Yes, I know, and it's a damned shame.”

He then continued, “Are you thinking the same thing I'm thinking?”

I laughed and said, “Count on it. Let's put it where it can do the most good.”

We sat there enjoying that beautiful golden fall day when the whole world seems to be at peace within its self, and we continued on discussing how this accrued interest or the major portion of the accrued interest really belonged to the American people...

You know, when we started out with this Certificate, after 6 years of research and discovering it was real as hell, there were 26 of us. All have died and/or been murdered over this damned thing. Two are left. (And now there's only one.)

How did “I” come by it, you ask? It was a gift from “GOD”.

[End of quoting]

* 24—In a letter from Mrs. Russell E. Herrmann-Herrman-Herman, dated May 21, 1996 and addressed to Chairman Robert Joost, U.S. Dept. of Transportation, Office of the Secretary of Transportation in Washington, D.C., we read.

[Quoting:]

I have waited, and waited, for you to respond in compliance with my just and lawful request for (a) my husband's five pensions from the five military branches, and (b) his five insurance policies which are, I am told $200,000 K per each, and nothing has happened but “shuffling of the proverbial buck”, in your instance.

Some of the men who were in the service's who knew my husband are coming up with dates, military operations such as Christmas Tree, Bay of Pigs—The Submarine Base at Black's Beach—the unusual goings on at Black's Beach Sub Base—in concert with Scripts. Then, there are matters of my husband being on a submarine with Manuel Noriega, and Trujillo, all in U.S. Navy garb. Tape recordings, affirming my husband's involvement in Greece, as a trainer of military intelligence groups in Greece. Then, there are affidavits of his being in the service much, much later than you are accounting for, which leads me to question, "What are you in the U.S. Coast Guard, U.S. Treasury, covering up?"

It's amazing how many suicides of men that Herrman-Herman knew are occurring. For instance, William Colby had lunch with myself and my husband, the week of April 20, 1993. My husband was working on U.S. Treasury Operation Swordfish. Colby knew about Swordfish, so do you! Now, there is the matter of my husband enlisting Colby's assistance in straightening out his military records, as another Russell Herman was drawing Russell Herrman's military pay. Allegedly, there is a "computer glitch". Also, allegedly, the records had burned in St. Louis. Per Colby, "that is a load, if ever there was a load. Those records were hauled off to underground tunnels in Colorado, Pennsylvania and the Virginias."

Then, Colby continued, "As screwed up and as crooked as those SOBs in the Pentagon are, if anything happens to either one of us, 10 to 1, our widows will have to go on welfare!"

* 25—In a letter dated April 23, 1996, from Mrs. Russell E. Herrmann-Herrman-Herman, addressed to Col. John Terry, we read.

[Quoting:]

Please advise the Lt. Cmdr. "G", another Naval Personnel was terminated at St. Mary's Hospital in Clayton, Missouri, when Herrman-Herman was kidnapped and taken across state lines in October 1993.

This man was also a U.S. Naval Cmdr., we had all known him from Coronado. I can not recall his name, however, he was in Russell's room as a roommate, in St. Mary's Health Care Facility.

The day we saw North (Col. Oliver) in the doctor's frock, this Naval Cmdr. was an occupant in Russell's room, the "doctor" and I, having met the officer out in San Diego area knew who he was, as did Russell. We had a nice conversation. He and Russell recounted and recanted "old Navy days". When we left, he was jovial, as was Russell (the week of Nov. 17, 1993).

Russell and he were discussing the "meat hook marks" under Russell's collar bones which Russell had been suspended (from) and had the hell beaten out of him when the attempts were made to make him sign off on the Contra accounts in the Guernsey Islands Woodbridge Account, and the old gold Certificate. The two men discussed the "methods" employed by what the two of them noted verbally as "Dirty Agents in the U.S. military intelligence community".

The Cmdr. related to Russell, "So far, I have been luckier than you."

We left the facility, to return the next day.

The next day when we arrived, the Cmdr. was strapped to his bed, in the hallway. He had tubes down his mouth and his mouth was taped shut. Not realizing anything was wrong, we greeted him with familiarities. He began to make noises, and he pointed his strapped hands/fingers to the end of the hallway. His blue eyes evidenced "fear".

At the end of the hallway, there sat the female hospital administrator with the Cmdr's wife, bartering for the Cmdr's body parts was ongoing. His eyes were as wild as a horse on locoweed. His wife then came over and stated to him, "Now, you son of a bitch, I'll not have to worry about when you're coming home." The Cmdr. disappeared. We were told "he passed away" in one instance, and in another instance that "He left the hospital."

[END OF QUOTING]

This brings us to the end of this TIMELINE and it seems an excellent place to take a break.

RE: CONTACTS WITH U.S. DEPT. OF TREASURY

HELLENIC EXPRESS INTERNATIONAL, INC.
(HEII)

We are now being asked for verification of some things which have occurred and how we got from "there" to "here". This gives us an opportunity to now share some of that pathway and the journey along the way. Rick Martin did a wonderful job of documenting things as would a journalist and for that we are grateful.

In offering this backup documentation we are also showing how far off was "Bellringer" in his Four Winds/Watcher trashing of Ekkers as relative to "dark tinges" and CONTACT atrocities. His errors, omissions and LIES have traveled around the globe over and over again and have come back to us in Manila from so many sources as to be staggering to us who didn't think anyone noticed. CONTACT was never involved in anything but a personal bequest from Russell Herman. Bellringer passed on information which was so incorrect as to make us feel that perhaps the Internet should sue such parties who misuse the very system itself. However, it is that Ed Young shows as responsible party on those Internet sites. Not good, readers.

This is "Big", people, and it is FOR THE PEOPLE, so how can a person claiming to act out of patriotism—as a spokesman for God and Country—do such things to try and ensure total failure of whatever we might have going? Because we are dealing with TOTAL EVIL INTENT.

After Russell Herman's death, CONTACT (we and immediate friends) stepped in and actually supported V.K. Durham in every way—including monthly financial support. The Government had dumped her with NOTHING! Yes, indeed, she had the CONTRACT from that Peruvian Gold Certificate but she was assaulted at every turn, records went missing and were destroyed before her eyes and she was generally in terrible shape.

Our commitment to Russell Herman was that we would do what we could to assist V.K. in her efforts to handle, totally, the asset and then, if she could not get it working, we would have to assume the responsibility of the thing and see what we could do. The intent was to simply leave all of the U.S. portion to V.K. and we would only do our business outside of the domestic U.S. This was in order to protect the Treasury itself. We did, in fact, have a very cordial relationship with people in the Treasury Department and some had been there some 35 or so years. Our contacts were with Mr. Russell Munk and Mr. Lawrence Summers (yes, the one who is now Secretary of the Treasury).

I am not here to comment on many of these things because it is still so sensitive as to bring possible heavier burden to V.K. Durham. We have our agreements and we adhere to them as far as GAIA is concerned. We have no current information as to any other activities.

After Russell's death and as V.K. was working to solidify some avenues of activity, she asked to send someone out to Illinois to meet with her. At that time, John and Jean Ray were spending a LOT of time with V.K., trying to assist her in any way they could while Jack Jones was actually living in her house trying to attend all the other things around the place—garden, etc.

She needed to work within an international corporation and we had one, Hellenic Express International, Inc. (HEII). So, it was going to be structured as a joint participation with V.K. Durham, who claimed she was doing a "Holding Trust" just as soon as Ekker-CONTACT would get her funding for same. She had done, she claimed, the "first phase", which seemed to have been limited to choosing a name and appointing some acting "trustees". Among the trustees were both Jean and John Ray.

Armed with this information, Rick was sent back to Illinois to structure whatever V.K. had in mind. So, on May 27, 1996, Rick traveled to Okawville, Illinois to meet with V.K. Durham.

It had been discussed that V.K. wanted to issue ONE "Pledge & Assign Contract" for/to Hellenic Express International, Inc. in the amount of 2.5 billion dollars. V.K. Durham suggested and agreed to such a contract but valued at 10 billion U.S. dollars and it was broken down into specific percentages per V.K.'s instructions.

At the same time V.K. offered a Pledge and Assign in the amount of 4 million U.S. dollars, with the idea in mind that a smaller P&A might be easier to fund at upstart.

The story and the "timeline" of that can be offered later in Rick's own declaration regarding other documents.

With this brief explanation, we can offer Rick's notes as compiled on 9/1/97 for convenience of quick reference to dates and contacts.

This is offered to clearly show that there were no dark secret dealings on any matter regarding these contacts.

[QUOTING:]

HELLENIC EXPRESS INTERNATIONAL, INC.

CHRONOLOGY OF CONTACT WITH U.S. DEPARTMENT OF TREASURY
MR. RUSSELL MUNK/MR. LAWRENCE SUMMERS
1500 PENNSYLVANIA AVE. NW
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20220
(202) 622-1899
FAX: (202) 622-1956

PREPARED ON: 9/1/97

* On July 30, 1996, a certified claim (demand for collection) on behalf of Hellenic Express International, Inc. was submitted to the U.S. Department of the Treasury, to one Lawrence Summers. Delivery was confirmed on August 2, 1996, delivered to Mr. Summers at room 3326.

* Under separate cover, on July 30, 1996, a certified Public Notice was sent to the U.S. Department of the Treasury, to one Lawrence Summers. Delivery was confirmed on August 2, 1996.

* On August 29, 1996, V.K. Durham ("Grandma") sent via FAX a letter to Russell Munk, in follow-up to her telephone conversation with him, with five pages of attachments consisting of the Corollary to the Monroe Doctrine.

* On August 29, 1996, Russell Munk telephoned Rick Martin concerning the "Peruvian" contract issued to Hellenic Express International, Inc. and stated that Hellenic Express International was in a very unique position. He also stated that the documentation concerning the "Peruvian" contract had gone far within the Department of the Treasury. He did not elaborate further on that statement.

* On August 30, 1996, Rick Martin responded to Russell Munk's telephone call by refaxing V.K.'s back-up historical documents from Tehachapi, with a cover-letter requesting that the demand for payment to HEII be expedited.

* A second letter dated August 30, 1996 written by Rick Martin on behalf of CONTACT was also faxed to Russell Munk concerning and reasserting the September 25, 1994 Beneficiary Claim (Bequest) for $40 million in gold, gold coin, American gold dollars, and/or gold bullion, per the final wishes of one, Russell Herman.

* On August 31, 1996, Doris and E.J. Ekker received a telephone call from an individual represented to be "very high-up in Treasury". This individual made an offer of $250 million dollars on behalf of the Department of the Treasury in an effort "to make the entire (Peruvian) Contract 'go away'". In this same telephone conversation, it was stated that if the offer were not accepted, the contract would be "black-balled" internationally after May 28, 1997, and that anyone handling or traveling with these contract documents would be arrested by Interpol.

On August 31, 1996, V.K. Durham was consulted after this telephone call and the offer was declined by V.K. Durham and HEII.

* On September 3, 1996, Rick Martin wrote to Russell Munk on behalf of HEII to reiterate the demand for payment and to point out that Russell Herman included $6 trillion dollars in his Last Will & Testament for the U.S. Department of the Treasury.

* On September 3, 1996, V.K. Durham wrote to HEII and to Russell Munk concerning the Russell Will.

* Following this an agreement was made between the U.S. Department of the Treasury and Hellenic Express International, Inc. One of the terms of the agreement was: HEII agreed not to call the debt AT THIS TIME. In exchange for this, Treasury agreed not to blackball the contract internationally under the condition that financing for the contract be sought in the private sector, not with the Federal Reserve banks. [D: As a domestic transaction. Offshore transactions were also suggested.]

[END OF QUOTING]

I think the most appropriate thing to do next is offer Rick's Affidavit of July 9, 1997 because things had really begun to deteriorate and finally it was obvious there was no way to work longer with V.K.

We will offer backup information for that deterioration but Rick's timeline pretty much tells the tale. We all assume there was a lot of input from someone, possibly even Nicholaw, as he always had something going and from some of his activities a lot of people ended up jailed for one game or another. We were really busy just trying to get through our own myriad of problems and V.K.'s demands were more and more aggressive and constant. But, first things first:

AFFIDAVIT OF RICK MARTIN

JULY 9, 1997

I, RICK MARTIN, BEING FIRST DULY SWORN UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY, DEPOSE AND SAY THE FOLLOWING, TO WHICH I HAVE DIRECT KNOWLEDGE OF THE FACTS CONTAINED HEREIN AND AM COMPETENT TO TESTIFY TO SAME:

1. On May 27, 1996, I traveled to Okawville, Illinois to meet with V.K. Durham to discuss securing ONE Pledge & Assign Contract for Hellenic Express International, Inc. in the amount of 2.5 billion dollars. V.K. Durham agreed to such a contract [but] valued at 10 billion U.S. dollars and broken down into specific percentages; 2.5 billion was pledged to Hellenic Express International, Inc. The term of the Pledge & Assign was for one year, ending on May 28, 1997.

2. V.K. also agreed to a Pledge & Assign in the total amount of 4 million U.S. dollars, with the idea in mind that a smaller Pledge & Assign might be easier to fund in the beginning.

3. After some discussion and editing of the contract document, early in the morning of May 28, 1996, I typed a revised Pledge & Assign Contract on V.K.'s electronic typewriter at her home.

4. There were two "witnesses" present at V.K.'s at this time and they were John Ray and Jack Jones.

5. On the morning of May 28, 1996, V.K. Durham, myself, John Ray and Jack Jones drove into Nashville, Illinois in the county of Gallatin to sign the Pledge & Assign in the presence of a notary located at the Magna Bank in Nashville.

6. Prior to entering the bank where the notary was present, Jack and I walked one block down the street to a photocopy place of business and had several copies of the documents reproduced, an equal number of 10Bs and 4Ms. The actual number is a matter of public record with the notary.

7. I requested from V.K., in the presence of these two witnesses, that we sign all copies which had been reproduced in blue ink, and have all copies notarized. Hellenic Express International, Inc. would then have a number of "originals" with which to work, rather than working from plain photocopied documents. V.K. agreed to this concept.

8. After all present signed in blue ink all of the Pledge & Assign documents, they were then each notarized. V.K. Durham asked for one blue-ink original for her files. I gave her one of the 10B and one of the 4M, very reluctantly.

9. At no time within my presence, prior to consummating these Pledge & Assigns, did V.K. Durham enter into discussion (or documentation) concerning the issue of the need for, or desirability of, full disclosure.

Contained within the text of the Pledge & Assigns is the following statement: "I do hereby make this assignment and pledge contract of my own free will, in good faith, as owner-Signatory of Peruvian gold Contract & Bonus Contract-Certificate Number 3392-N-181. Said pledge and assignment is FINAL."

10. Upon returning [to California], financial packages were compiled, including copies of the Pledge & Assign contract. These packages were first sent to George Bush. Word came back to HEII that George Bush was not ready to deal "at this time".

11. Then other world leaders and influential people received these financial packages, including former Senators Baker and Bentsen, and Alan Greenspan, to name just a few.

12. "Claims" were made by HEII for $40 billion, 16 million U.S. dollars to the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco, the Federal Reserve System in New York City, the World Bank and several others. The claim which had been submitted to the Federal Reserve Bank San Francisco was returned with a letter from the Vice President (counsel) stating that if this or any other documents were resent to the Fed, they would be immediately thrown away.

13. Over the months that followed, many contacts were made world wide, and many financial packages were mailed out, in the pursuit of achieving financial associates who could finalize funding for this Pledge & Assign Contract.

14. At V.K.'s request of HEII, I wrote a Limited Power of Attorney to her friend and associate Dr. Robert Knecht. In addition to providing a Limited Power of Attorney to represent our Pledge & Assign Contract for a period of one year, beginning January 30, 1997, at V.K.'s direct request of HEII, I provided Dr. Knecht with an "original" 10 billion dollar Pledge & Assign Contract.

15. On June 30, 1997, having heard no word from Dr. Knecht, HEII revoked Dr. Knecht's Limited Power of Attorney and it was requested that all documents (including the one original instrument in his possession) be immediately returned to HEII. As of this date it has not happened. [D: As of today, it still has not been returned!]

16. On July 9, 1997, I spoke with Dr. Knecht in follow-up to the prior day's conversation and Hellenic Express International Board concluded to discontinue any attempt at funding through Dr. Knecht. This was confirmed with Dr. Knecht by me on the telephone and all action on behalf of HEII has now ceased.

17. Throughout many months of telephone conversations with V.K. Durham, she continually pleaded with me "not to talk on the phone" about business or the contracts. Further, she continually pleaded with me "not to fax any documents or information about the contracts". Complying with her request, we stopped communicating with her about any of the ongoing series of events. When we did share with her, it was merely out of courtesy, not a requirement of some kind.

18. On April 11, 1997, as journalist for the Las Vegas newspaper CONTACT: THE PHOENIX PROJECT, I wrote to Ms. Laurie Logan at the State Department, Office of Passport Policy & Advisory Services, to request permission to enter the country of Libya to interview President Muammar al-Qaddafi.

19. Permission to travel to Libya was granted by the State Department and my passport was returned with the necessary approval stamped within my passport.

20. On May 14, 1997, I received a letter from the Libyan Embassy requesting more specific information from me concerning the proposed trip to Libya. I responded on May 26, 1997 with a 5-page letter. As of this date there has been no response from the Libyan Embassy concerning this proposed trip to interview the President.

21. On May 20, 1997, I telephoned Ms. Laurie Logan at the State Department to ask for specific printed information concerning the Libyan embargo. I was referred to the U.S. Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control division, fax-on-demand service. On May 20, 1997, I received from the U.S. Department of the Treasury, specifics concerning the embargo against Libya and Iraq. I also obtained information on Iran. The language contained within these documents is very clear in restricting any business ventures with these embargo countries. Prior to any travel in this region I wanted clear specifics as to what may or may not be permitted of me, AS A JOURNALIST.

22. During the months of May 1997, V.K. Durham offered billions of dollars from the Peruvian Gold Certificate/Contract to help Iran's [earthquake] disaster victims. After advising V.K. about the Department of the Treasury's restrictions concerning Iran, this offer was then cancelled.

23. On May 28, 1997, V.K. Durham issued an extension to the Pledge & Assigns, also witnessed by John Ray and Jack Jones, and sent to HEII five "original" extensions to those contracts.

24. On May 28, 1997, HEII again made a claim against the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco in the amount of $40 billion, 16 million dollars. As of this date there has been no response.

25. On June 10, on From the Desk of V.K. Durham letterhead, I received a letter addressed to me c/o: HEII in which V.K. discusses setting up a parallel "trust" separate from her "living trust". I have no idea what she is referring to, as there has not been any discussion of this. V.K. goes on to place a demand on HEII for an accounting of all Pledge & Assigns in numerical order, even though none of the contracts were numbered and she has no right to place such a demand.

26. Further, in her letter of June 10, V.K. places a demand on HEII to return all Pledge & Assigns in our possession. HEII did not and does not acknowledge V.K.'s right to make such a demand.

27. On June 16, 1997, I received a faxed letter on never-before-seen letterhead titled "Durham International Ltd.; Holding Trust, addressed to me c/o HEII. The thrust of the letter was accusatory. In this letter, V.K. states "the first leg of the trust was filed this date". She goes on to state there has been no accounting of the original Pledge & Assigns (for which none was due). She accused the Koreans of making off with contracts (plural), and says that "one is missing". The whole while, of course, V.K. did not acknowledge the one original in her possession or the original she asked that HEII send to Dr. Knecht.

28. Continuing with the June 16 letter, V.K. accuses HEII of withholding funds and that one, she suspects,

"has been cashed". She then goes on to demand full disclosure, for which none is due nor any mutual agreement to do so made. Such accusatory accusations concerning withholding of funds took all at HEII by surprise, and I might add, disappointment.

29. V.K. goes on to say it will take $5,000 to complete the trust, as if we are supposed to supply the funds. (?)

30. Additionally, she makes loose reference to the two contracts assigned to Inter-American Investment Corporation and then says she will reassign, with "Q" numbers, five Pledge & Assigns to HEII under the condition that we turn over the newly incorporated Inter-American Investment Corporation to Durham International Ltd.; Holding Trust. There is no basis upon which to make such a demand, which is ludicrous at best.

31. V.K. then gives HEII five days to respond to her demands.

32. On June 17, 1997, I responded to V.K. by addressing the letter to Durham International Ltd., Holding Trust. My letter was specific and to the point.

33. On June 21, I received a faxed letter on From the Desk of V.K. Durham letterhead, addressed to Russell Herman Estate "Matters", in which she says the Herman estate is now held in a "holding trust".

34. On June 26, I wrote to V.K. Durham informing her that we are at rock bottom financially and we would pursue funding via individual projects, as we had done before the Pledge & Assigns. I also informed her that there were individuals around the globe working on the contracts and if one should fund, we would honor our end of the agreement with her.

35. On June 27, 1997, I received a letter addressed to me on V.K. Durham, Signatory letterhead, with a NEW proposed format for the Pledge & Assigns to HEII.

36. On June 30, 1997, I wrote a letter to V.K. Durham and to Durham International Ltd., Holding Trust, and requested, on behalf of HEII, the return of the original contract in her possession. I also informed her that we had requested a return of the original in Dr. Robert Knecht's possession.

37. On July 2, 1997, HEII received a faxed letter from V.K. Durham in which she reiterates her cancellation, cease and desist and termination as of May 28, 1996 to the Pledge & Assigns. Said demand, of course, is not acknowledged by HEII as valid as the Pledge & Assigns were "PERMANENT" from the moment of signing.

38. Further, V.K. goes on to make a series of erroneous statements, including that there was only one contract for 4 million dollars signed. She goes on to say that Mr. Knecht has nothing to do with her, even though he was her contact and friend and it was only through her and her demands that we attempted funding through his offices, and her request of us that we send him an original, which we did.

[D: In that same line of thought, it should be noted here that we spent half an hour with a frustrated and harassed Dr. Knecht when he called after being on the phone with "that woman" and he planned to never do business with her ever again, for it was "making me sick" (literally). He stated that he felt he had tried every way under the Sun to help her with the art objects and she would never even cooperate in the "showings". He said quite frankly that he thought she had gone "insane". This was simply a "term" and certainly not a medical evaluation of any kind but he had HAD ENOUGH. Well, so had we, as my own letter to our own Board of Directors regarding the matter of V.K.'s demands will attest and I will offer it later.]

39. Further, V.K. continues by placing a further demand upon HEII for full disclosure, even though HEII does not acknowledge her legal right to do so.

40. Further, V.K. then attempted to cancel, withdraw, and make null and void the "permanent" Pledge & Assigns signed on May 28, 1996 and extended on May 28, 1997 for a period of one year.

41. In a certified letter sent to the corporate headquarters for HEII, V.K. Durham continues her series of erroneous statements. She brings into discussion my planned trip to Libya to interview President Quaddafi as if there was a hidden agenda with the Pledge & Assigns. She does not take into account that I contacted the State Department and the U.S. Department of the Treasury to secure information about the embargo to avoid any such questions concerning my agenda with Libya, which was and is STRICTLY AS A JOURNALIST CONDUCTING AN INTERVIEW WITH A WORLD LEADER.

42. V.K. goes on, accusatorily, to state that suddenly the State Department came up with $2.5 billion at the same time my trip to Libya was approved. I, (nor HEII), have NO IDEA what she is referring to and I believe it to be "the rantings of an insane mind". She goes on to, again, attempt to cancel and make void the Pledge & Assigns.

43. She ends her letter of July 2nd with talk of an "international incident". Again, we do not know what she is referring to.

44. HEII has accounted for all of the blue-ink original contracts which were assigned.

I have made the foregoing statements of my own free will and they direct knowledge. Further, I make these statements under penalty of perjury in the state of California.

[END OF QUOTING]

I would like to back Rick as to what he has stated here and add some information. He was not going to just romp over to meet anyone in Libya. We had established a crew and corporation in South Africa and another in Athens, Greece. We were also talking to high-level persons in Egypt. Rick felt since it would be only a day side-trip for him in that journey to those associates, he would check out permits, visa requirements and get full U.S. State Department coverage. Remember that through the embargo there were no flights in or out of Libya and yet, you could go across the border from Egypt and it would be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for a journalist. Whatever else might be said about Rick Martin in some negative attitude or another, HE IS A GREAT JOURNALIST AND WAS ALWAYS RESPECTED EVERYWHERE WE HAVE BEEN, INCLUDING APEC IN MALAYSIA AND IN EVERY EMBASSY VISITED.

And, furthermore, end of this writing. DJE

GOVERNMENT LIES ABOUND

By L. H. Rockwell, Jr., WorldNetDaily.com, 5/18/00

Here it is 10 years after the Gulf War, and the lies told by the U.S. Government are still pouring in. Most recently, Seymour Hersh writes in The New Yorker that a two-star general ordered a massacre against a five-mile line of retreating Iraqi soldiers and did so two days after a cease-fire went into effect. Hundreds of soldiers were murdered, men and boys who posed no threat and didn't know the War was still on. Many civilians, including children, were also shot. The numbers are still unclear because the corpses were buried quickly by the tank-bulldozers.

This is no speculative piece. Hersh quotes many eyewitnesses to the attack and the carnage on the record, one of whom was very close to the general, and musters irrefutable evidence, gleaned from more than 300 interviews, of war crimes (a phrase used by an anonymous leaker inside the military). American soldiers called it a turkey shoot that ended up destroying 700 tanks, armored cars and trucks. The allegations have been made before and examined in four separate Government reports. But Hersh goes through them and, in the course of an exhaustive and terrifying 25,000-word article, shows that each one is a whitewash.

Why was this bloodshed not reported at the time? There were no media around to witness it. They were operating under the military's rules—accepted by a press said to be jealous of its liberties—against any unsupervised reporting in postwar Iraq. The general, meanwhile, told journalists about the incident and spoon-fed them tales about dangerous Iraqis attempting suicidal post-cease-fire attacks. He said it was a proportional retaliation, a claim that Hersh completely demolishes with the help of people inside the military who could be silent no longer.

Is it any wonder that the U.S. is hated in huge swaths of the Gulf region? So much for George Washington's ideal of being a beacon of liberty to the world. To many, the U.S. is nothing but a torrent of helicopter gunships unleashing hell on retreating soldiers and innocent civilians. This is not only a repudiation of America's founding principles; it is a flagrant violation of every rule of warfare agreed upon by every civilized country from the Middle Ages to the present day. This is the behavior of a murderous rogue state, not an indispensable nation.

And who is the two-star, now four-star, general responsible for the war crimes? None other than Clinton drug czar Barry McCaffrey, the man charged with using Government power to keep drugs from besotting American society. It is an interesting change of jobs: from one hot war to another. Just as he was careless with the rules of war during battle, he has been careless with liberties in the drug war. And just as the Iraq War did not achieve its objective of ousting Saddam, but has resulted in the deaths of millions of civilians, the drug war has not achieved its objective, but has resulted in the jailing and looting of innocents.

The lasting effect of the Gulf War has been to spread disease and death all over Iraq via a cruel policy of sanctions punctuated by periodic bombings. The final domestic effect was to prop up military spending at home at a time when it should have and could have been cut. It's still a dangerous world out there, we are constantly told, so we need the firepower to blow away retreating soldiers anytime we wish. Then there's the Oklahoma bombing: Timothy McVeigh learned how to devalue life during his stint as a tank operator in the Iraq War. [While we're talking about lies: Timothy McVeigh is NOT responsible for the damage done to the Murrah Building, which was so extensive that it MUST have been caused by much more than a simple fertilizer bomb.]

But here's what really interests me. This is only the latest report of lies. For 10 years, we've had streams of reports that together show that the U.S. lied about nearly every aspect of that War. We were told about the effectiveness of U.S. smart bombs, when in fact most didn't work or didn't hit their targets. We were told that civilians weren't targeted, when they were. We were told that Iraq had nukes but none have been found. We were told that Iraq's invasion of Kuwait was a surprise, but it turned out the U.S. had effectively given the go-ahead.

And it's not only the Iraq War. The same pattern repeats itself on Kosovo. A recent report from Newsweek showed that the U.S. did very little damage to the Serbian military and instead smashed the civilian sector (another war crime). Other reports have shown that U.S. atrocity stories were trumped up, that the mass graves were mostly filled with Serbs whom we declared to be the enemy, that the most dangerous element in the postwar period has proven to be the KLA—our ally in the War.

Again and again, the truth about U.S. wars has turned out to be exactly the opposite of Pentagon press releases. And yet, these credible revisionist accounts don't make interesting reading for the masses. The American public long ago lost interest in Iraq and Kosovo. Once the propaganda engines were turned off, most people stopped paying attention. Hence, the version of events that continues to survive in the popular mind is one of a heroic and spotless U.S. laying waste to a demonic enemy.

If we were to develop an axiom about war informed by the last several, it would be this: Believe nothing (nothing!) that the Government tells you while the war is going on. Assume that it is all a lie, that the enemy is not nearly as evil as the Pentagon says, and that the U.S. is behaving a darn-sight worse than the evening news claims. Go ahead and believe the worst about the U.S. while the battle is going on and, 10 years hence, you won't be far off the mark.

That the U.S. is lying after the War must also be presumed. But the tendency is exactly the opposite. During and after war, Government controls the news. The media echo Government reports because those are the only kind of reports there are, because they know that any questioning of the Official Line of the day will lead to a loss of access, and because they are fundamentally pro-state [and because the major media are controlled by the Khazarian Elite Thugs].

Of course, there will always be debunkers during war, a handful of people who will say outrageous things like: "Mass graves? I don't believe it"; "Milosevic is no Hitler"; "The Kosovars are ruled by a criminal band of drug runners." During the War, these debunkers are denounced as unpatriotic and told to produce their sources. But sometimes they cannot. They doubt the Official Line because they have developed an instinct for spotting the wartime lie.

The evidence to back their claims only starts pouring in a year and 10 years after discussion about the War has been closed down. Fair? Certainly not. But it is the reality. And, tragically, the feds can count on this holding true for any war they start.

There is, however, something that can be done about it. Hold McCaffrey responsible for the massacre and don't let the man who employs him off the hook either. Bone up on past wars and acquaint yourself with the lies and the new truths about those wars. Stand up for journalists who dare to stand up to the Power Elite; Lord knows, it doesn't happen very often. Examine the history of warfare to understand how the state uses it to destroy liberty.

And when the next war breaks out, prepare to discount every bit of information you hear about it. Read Antiwar.com. Speak out on behalf of writers and commentators who take an independent stand. Oppose U.S. military intervention in any foreign conflict. Above all, ascribe no decent motives to the federal Government. Always and everywhere, it is the enemy of truth.

[JR: Compare this article with the above New York Times article on this issue and see the difference in perception from spin to independent thinking in news reporting. As GCH/Ace Journalist has said (paraphrasing): "Listen to the news, but believe the opposite and you'll know the truth." The above confirms His wisdom.]

UN PREPARES WORLD LEADERS FOR GLOBAL GOVERNANCE

By Michael S. Coffman, DiscerningToday.org, 5/17/00

United Nations Secretary General Kofi Annan has issued his Millennium Report to prepare world leaders to begin implementing global governance at the UN Millennium Summit September 6-9. The Millennium Summit is being touted by the UN as "the largest single gathering of heads of state and/or government ever held in the world".

The report outlines the need for a complete restructuring of the UN and a change in the UN Charter to permit it to legally enforce global governance, a euphemism for world government. The UN, said Annan during the press conference for the release, proposes to do nothing less than "chart a course for the world's peoples in the first decades of the new millennium".

In usual UN style, Annan's report is very vague in its language, overly optimistic in its goals, short on substance and drastically distorts its true intent—to restructure the UN into a world government.

Global governance, insists Annan, "does not mean world government". Instead, he uses classic UN doublespeak by saying that global governance is a loose group of international "decision-making structures" which articulates and advances the "cause of common humanity", within a "robust international legal order" and the “principles and practices of multilateralism”. According to Webster’s New World Dictionary, however, government is “the exercise of authority over a state...”, “the right, function or power of governing” or “a system of political administration by which... nation[s]... [are] governed”. Government, no matter how hard the UN tries to redefine it, is still government.

One of the first tasks of the UN once it has the power to govern is to “lift more than 1 billion people out of [poverty] by 2015” by “ensuring that people in all developing countries can benefit from globalization”. This will be done, according to the report, by “rich countries... opening their markets to poor countries’ products”, providing them with “deeper and faster debt relief” and giving “more and better focused development assistance”.

Annan affirms that “economic success depends in considerable measure on the quality of governance a country enjoys. Good governance comprises the rule of law, effective state institutions, transparency and accountability in the management of public affairs, respect for human rights and the participation of all citizens in the decisions that affect their lives.” A casual reader would believe that this is what the UN is creating. But, it is not. Nowhere in any UN or NGO document is there any mention of a structure of governance that would permit real checks and balances to absolute power. There will be absolutely no direct accountability to the people governed. Instead, the “emerging global legal order” is based upon signing and ratifying “international treaties and conventions”.

Citizens must also be protected from themselves. “Security” has been redefined from meaning security from “external attacks” to security “of communities and individuals from internal violence”. Hence, asserts Annan, “The Security Council has a moral duty to act on behalf of the international community.” In other words, the UN should intervene militarily like NATO did in Kosovo. Even so, small arms “endanger peacekeepers and humanitarian workers” and benefit terrorists and “perpetrators of organized crime”. Of course, Annan’s one-dimensional solution is gun control and the time-honored practice of all tyrants, the establishment of a global police state.

The greatest justification for global governance, according to Annan, is the need to protect the environment. Annan calls for the immediate ratification of the Kyoto Protocol, which he claims will reduce the global carbon dioxide (CO₂) to “5 percent below 1990 levels”. However, because only the industrialized nations are [to be] bound by the [proposed] treaty, leaving developing nations free to increase their emissions, the Kyoto Protocol is not designed to accomplish any CO₂ reduction. The Kyoto Protocol is nothing more than the greatest massive income redistribution plan ever conceived in the mind of a socialist. Annan would also create what is called “green accounting” to integrate the environment into “mainstream economic policy” to make sure all human activity and development is “sustainable”.

Annan’s solution to the world’s problems is to bring every human activity under the control of the UN. The root causes of poverty, war and environmental destruction are greed, power, hatred and corruption [Khazarian “virtues”]. These are issues of the soul and spirit. Although they can be curtailed at the point of a gun, no amount of governance can ever change it. Only God can do that by changing the heart.

The plan to implement global governance is so diabolical it can come only from one source—Satan (diabolos), the father of all lies. Unless God intervenes, humanity is on a collision course with disaster.

[JR: Alarm bells are going off here. As Clinton says: “Define ‘IS.’” Define the difference between global governance and global government. It’s ONLY in the spelling.]

BUSH AND CLINTON UNITE TO BLOCK KOSOVO PULLOUT

By Martin Kettle, The Guardian—UK, 5/18/00

WASHINGTON—Senate Republicans who are pressing to set a date for the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Kosovo have been ambushed by an unlikely alliance between President Clinton and the Republican presidential candidate, George W. Bush. [No, this alliance is totally “likely”, in that Bush, Sr. controls Clinton and the current excuse for the maintenance of martial law in the United States is STILL the annually renewed “state of emergency” related to Kosovo.]

The two political opponents have joined together in a last-ditch effort to prevent the passage of a bill which would cut off funds for the 5,900 U.S. troops in Kosovo by July 1, 2001 and which observers believe was on the verge of winning majority support in the Republican-controlled Senate.

The bill, jointly sponsored by the Republican Armed Services Committee Chairman, Senator John Warner, and the veteran Democrat Senator Robert Byrd [Cathy O’Brien completely exposed this would-be slave-master in Trance Formation of America.], would pull the U.S. troops out unless Mr. Clinton or his successor obtains congressional approval for continued deployment.

The President would also be required to put forward a timetable for the transfer of responsibility for peacekeeping in Kosovo to European nations, and to certify that all NATO countries are paying their share for the operations.

The Byrd-Warner bill has been described as “a de facto pull-out decision by the United States” by the former NATO Supreme Commander, General Wesley Clark, and is viewed with alarm in most European capitals.

Domestic political opposition to the bill has mainly come from Democrats, who are in a minority in the Senate, and from Republican Senator John McCain, who warned this week that the bill would “send the message to NATO that the United States is an unreliable ally”.

Until yesterday, momentum had seemed to be growing for the bill, with most Republicans assuming that the plan had the support of Mr. Bush, the Texas Governor. But the Republican Senate leadership was taken by surprise by Mr. Bush’s statement this week that the bill interferes with the constitutional powers of the presidency.

“The Clinton-Gore Administration has failed to instill trust in Congress and the American people when it comes to our military and deployment of troops overseas, but the Governor does not believe that this provision is the way to resolve the lack of presidential leadership,” the statement said. “Governor Bush views it as a legislative overreach on powers of the presidency.”

Senior members of the Clinton Administration kept up the pressure against the bill yesterday. The plan to withdraw U.S. troops was “playing with fire”, the Secretary of State, Madeleine Albright, said. [And this hound from hell ought to know all about playing with fire.] “We are more than bookkeepers and spectators. We are leaders.”

Meanwhile, the Defence Secretary, William Cohen, said that President Clinton might have to veto the bill, even though that would jeopardise $8.6 billion (£5.76 billion) worth of new defence-spending projects contained in separate sections of the bill.

[JR: G.W. Bush is already acting like he has won the presidency. But I would guess ol’ dad is coaching him in his foreign-policy decisions.]

SOLZHENITSYN: RUSSIA ROOTED IN ROT

NewsMax.com, 5/16/00

For 20 years, Alexander Solzhenitsyn was the conscience of Russia, speaking out from exile in the United States against the brutal Soviet communist system and calling on his beloved Russia to cast aside the Moscow dictatorship and turn to democracy.

Today, with the collapse of the communist regime a reality, Solzhenitsyn is home in Russia and once again speaking out against the Government—this time the one that replaced the hated communist dictatorship, a new regime he says is utterly corrupt and destroying his homeland.

“Our whole apparatus is rotten,” he told the newspaper Novaya Gazeta. “Corruption has caused everything else to rot. Not one step has been made against corruption. Why? Because they’re all involved. They are drenched in it, and there’s no way out,” Solzhenitsyn raged.

“The huge reforms that were hailed have left half the country’s population in poverty. And now we are hearing the same words from the new power. What an encouraging conclusion.”

The famed 81-year-old is the author of the Nobel Prize-winning book The Gulag Archipelago, an account of his life in the dreaded concentration camps in which he was imprisoned for criticizing the Soviet dictatorship. He returned to Russia in 1994 and has been devastated by what has happened to Russia since the old communist regime fell, only to be followed by internal chaos.

He blames Russia’s sorry internal state on a criminal conspiracy led by former communist officials, who stole vast Government-owned industries and have continued to mercilessly loot them while the nation’s economy crumbles.

He has insisted that the 20th Century was disastrous for his homeland, and he places much of the blame on former President Boris Yeltsin, who he charges wrecked the country with so-called economic reforms that allowed the looting to take place.

And he puts little hope for a turnaround under President Vladimir Putin: “The new President said we will continue with the reforms. What does this mean? That we will continue looting and destroying Russia till the end? Everyone knows that hidden financial magnates control the Kremlin. We haven’t yet heard that the new power will stop this way of working.” [Let us HOPE that Mr. Putin sees the Light and makes choices to deparasitize his great nation.]

He reserved some of his harshest criticism for the financial oligarchs, who have proposed to change Russian law to allow the free sale of agricultural land, nationalized since 1917. He says these people will buy up the land at bargain-basement prices with the fortunes they have stolen, leaving most Russians landless.

“All we have left is the land. The magnates’ greedy hands are now reaching out for Russian land. Having stolen billions of dollars, they now need to hide it somewhere. It is obvious that the law is being prepared for the magnates. What normal person can afford to buy even a tiny piece of land?” he asked, answering his own question glumly: “No one.”

“Privatization has meant that our valuable national companies have been given away for 1 to 2 percent of their actual worth. Nobody tells us whether the stolen 98 percent will ever be returned or if it is already lying somewhere in a foreign bank," Solzhenitsyn said, warning that the worst may be yet to come.

"Russia desperately needs to be saved. The international machinations of the new power have still not emerged, and that is frightening."

[JR: The same players are in control. They just changed the name from Communism to Capitalism and are protected by an autocratic democracy. The same thing is happening in the U.S. as regards the land grabs.]

OTTAWA DEFENDS "BIG BROTHER" DATABASE

By Andrew McIntosh, National Post, 5/17/00

OTTAWA—Human Resources Development Canada, already reeling from criticism that it has mismanaged its $1 billion job-creation programs for years, yesterday was accused by a federal privacy watchdog of building an Orwellian computer database whose [sic] existence puts the privacy of millions of Canadians at risk.

Bruce Phillips, the Privacy Commissioner of Canada, revealed in his annual report to Parliament that HRDC has quietly compiled "an extraordinarily detailed" and "relatively invisible" database that contains unprecedented amounts of personal and financial information on 33 million living and deceased Canadians.

Mr. Phillips expressed "profound concern" that information from the database has been shared with companies and researchers outside of the Government without the Canadian public's knowledge or informed consent.

"Successive privacy commissioners have assured Canadians that there was no single federal Government file or profile about them," Mr. Phillips wrote. "We were wrong—or not right enough for comfort."

Opposition MPs expressed shock and concern about the existence of one, single massive Government database.

"This is scary stuff," said Maurice Vellacott, a Canadian Alliance MP and human resources critic. "It sounds like the future, like the Big Brother described in the science fiction books, but none of us realized it was occurring right now."

Jean Dube, the Conservative human-resources critic, was stunned. "It's wrong and not acceptable," he said.

Outside the Commons, Jane Stewart, the Human Resources Minister, defended the collection of such massive amounts of personal information, saying it began in 1985 and "is fully permitted by the laws of Canada".

"When we're talking about building public policy for Canadians, it's wise to make sure we are testing the impact to see if changes to Canada pensions and disabilities, for example, are doing what they were supposed to do. That's how the information is used," she said.

She refused to answer further questions.

Mr. Phillips said he finds it difficult to accept that all the information in the HRDC database is relevant to the Department's programs and policy activities, as Ms. Stewart claimed.

The information is never purged once collected, he added, which explains why the files on Canadians totaled 33.7 million at last count. The current population of Canada is about 30.4 million.

If the prospect of an HRDC database is terrifying, its name is innocuous—the "Longitudinal Labour Force File".

Mr. Phillips said HRDC did not try to hide its existence from taxpayers, but the Department never made any attempt to communicate to the public just how much information it has collected about each person.

The database contains up to 2,000 different details about Canadians—alive and dead—including their personal income tax information, records of their employment, citizenship, travels and immigration matters, as well as their ethnicity and use of provincial and municipal social and employment assistance benefits.

The database also contains information about a person's education, marital and family status, disabilities, language and mobility across the country, among other things.

"Canadians don't know how much information is being collected about them and the extent to which it is being integrated and shared with others. How many Canadians know their tax information is in an HRDC profile?" Mr. Phillips wrote: "Continually centralizing and integrating so much personal data on almost every person in Canada poses significant risks to our privacy."

The Privacy Commissioner's report states that he has spent the past two years unsuccessfully trying to persuade HRDC that the existence of such a database threatens Canadians' right to personal privacy and he suggested that the data should be kept in several different databases, if it is compiled and stored at all.

Despite his deep concerns about the database and the information collected in it, Mr. Phillips said HRDC is now proposing to expand it to include more data on social assistance recipients from provinces and new territories, as well as information about student loans, retirement pensions and old-age security benefits.

He said HRDC is emphasizing that its data are stored securely and coded in such a way that nobody could be identified when they are shared with private research firms and other governments for research purposes. HRDC also says its practices meet "minimum legal provisions".

Mr. Phillips said the emphasis on data security ignores serious privacy concerns.

"The Department's response is inadequate... Surely, a higher duty than that is imposed," he said of HRDC's declaration that it has met minimum legal provisions.

"This is a difficult time for HRDC and we don't want to be seen as piling it on," Mr. Phillips added, referring to the job creation grants crisis and the strain it has placed on all HRDC employees.

"But it's now more than two years since this discussion began. It is time to open it up to include all those whose information the Department is systematically mining in the interests of 'social policy development'," he added.

Ms. Stewart said her officials will create a working group to study what HRDC can do to alleviate the privacy concerns.

[JR: This is intrusion and there is more data being collected than any government is ever required to know. Some statisticians are probably in percentile paradise with all the data available to them. We aren't people anymore—we are Human Resources for governments, in more ways than one.]

AIDS VACCINE TO BE TESTED IN UGANDA

By Alex Dominguez, Washington Post, 5/20/00

BALTIMORE—An oral AIDS vaccine is expected to undergo human tests in Uganda in as little as 18 months, and could provide an inexpensive form of prevention in poor countries hit hard by the disease. [Right up front, let's remember that what we are dealing with here is a recombinant retro-virus that can mutate into something "different" in every new host. THERE IS NO WAY

TO DEVELOP AN EFFECTIVE VACCINE FOR A RECOMBINANT RETROVIRUS.]

The vaccine, which could cost $1 per dose or less, is being developed by the institute headed by Dr. Robert Gallo, one of the co-discoverers of AIDS [who ought to and no doubt does know better than to expect this oral vaccine to be effective].

Uganda health officials said Friday that the vaccine is the only hope against the AIDS pandemic that affects millions in the country.

"I don't feel this announcement is the answer to AIDS, but it's a very important additional step toward the next line of HIV prevention candidates," said Gallo, who heads the University of Maryland's Institute of Human Virology. [So it is at best ineffective—and, at worst, Dr. Mengele—er, ah, Gallo?]

The oral vaccine, which uses the common salmonella bacteria, could be a cheap and easy means of preventing the deadly disease. [So let's give the AIDS sufferers a little bit of salmonella and see what THAT does for them. Is this called "practicing medicine", or what?]

"This has the potential to be as cheap as any vaccine," said Seth Berkley, President of the International AIDS Vaccine Initiative, a non-profit which is providing at least $3 million over three years to complete development of the vaccine. [And funded by whom to effect this genocide?]

It is one of several vaccines expected to be tested in Uganda, according to Gallo's institute and the International AIDS Vaccine Initiative.

Once in full production, the salmonella bacteria used to make the vaccine could be grown in mass quantities, Berkley said.

Nearly 70 percent of the world's 33.6 million HIV-infected people live in sub-Saharan Africa. Current efforts to slow the spread of the virus by eliminating risky behavior are not enough because many people do not know they are infected, said Francis Omaswa, Uganda's Director General of Health Services.

"Even with an 80 percent cut in the prices of drugs, they will still be too expensive for our people" Omaswa said. "That brings us back again to a vaccine. It is for this reason that we have associated ourselves with this initiative." [And why don't you just dig your own graves and pay the Elite for the privilege?]

The strain of salmonella bacteria responsible for typhoid is genetically altered to be less infectious and to carry portions of the DNA of the HIV virus, which causes AIDS, into the body. [In short: a salmonella retro-virus.]

Once the salmonella bacteria invade intestinal cells, the bacteria die, their cells break apart and the HIV DNA they carry is released.

The infected intestinal cells are then hijacked by the HIV and produce a part of the HIV virus, which is not harmful but causes an immune response. Researchers hope that will allow the body to fight off an attack by the real HIV virus.

More than two dozen potential AIDS vaccines have been tried worldwide. Only one, however, has advanced to large-scale testing, the researchers said.

Results of trials of that vaccine, produced by Vaxgen, should be available in late 2002 or early 2003, said Dr. Peggy Johnston, Assistant Director for AIDS vaccines at the National Institutes of Allergy and Infectious Diseases, a part of the National Institutes of Health.

[JR: How effective can a salmonella retro-virus be in eliminating AIDS through the intestines? I wonder if the UN has ever checked the success of Verodene P058 by Cryopreservation Technologies developed in South Africa (CONTACT, 3/11/97).]

TELEPHONE HOTLINE (Discontinued)

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.
