Daring Truthbringers: Hope Of The Philippines

12/27/00—#1 (14-133)

RE: EXCERPTS OF CURRENT INTEREST;
PERFECTO R. YASAY, JR.

STANDING FOR WHAT IS "RIGHT"

I am asked to offer some excerpts from the local, but most prominently respected paper here in Manila, The Philippine STAR.

I would ask that you readers especially focus on this first offering because the man in point is having to hide-out just to stay alive while taking his family overseas to a different country so that they are better secured following death threats, bombing threats and all manners of threats to career and person.

This man headed the Securities and Exchange Commission of the Philippines and was the first daring objector to open the can of deceit and corruption affecting the SEC and Stock Market. It goes beyond "insider" trading and gambling and, indeed, could include drugs, prostitution and counterfeiting, all under the control of the President.

He is in danger as he prepares to testify in the Senate impeachment trial. These few truthbringers are the HOPE of the Philippines. Truth is something that is all but lost in the world, along with truth in spiritual expression. The lie has become the "drama" of the day—and poverty the dragon devouring the people.

The facts remain, however, that there are some who stand squarely against the lie in spite of the personal threats BECAUSE IT IS THE RIGHT THING TO DO. THEY RESPECT GOD AND NATION AND, THEREFORE, WE ARE CONFIDENT THAT THROUGH THESE DARING TRUTHBRINGERS CAN ALSO FLOW GOD'S GIFTS WE ARE PRIVILEGED TO SHARE.

Perhaps it is that by us walking through the fire and making it, even if a bit tattered and singed, we can find those who are destined to participate.

I offer this "opinion" article by Mr. Yasay because it is also our hope that there are some good men remaining in this world—as we more and more resemble, in activities and intent, the chaos of Sodom and Gomorrah of old.

As "common sense" creeps within the fables and myths, we find that the tales themselves are ever so much the better when we stop preaching war and bloodshed as handed down through those so-called "Good Books" filled with hate and destruction. GOD IS GOODNESS AND CREATION—not destruction and war. We even come to make religions out of the killing, the bloodshed and the poverty of man's SOUL.

Is Mr. Yasay remarkable? Yes, although probably not as you might expect, for many write of God and Nation—but few actually mean the words they write or speak outside the recognition it gives in the moment of denial or acceptance. For instance, the Senators get up and give their written prayers on the television and the words are sublime, the person empty. Mr. Yasay means what he speaks and presents as example of his words.

Again, however, let us understand that it is the CONCEPT of God-ness in reflections handed down that speaks the truth through the PARABLE of that which we can recognize to which we can relate our own understandings, be it through Man as in "a" man or a story as in an example. Those are the ideals that form our foundation of soul and belief structures with which we can endure or stand forth in recognition of what is, or seems to be, taking place around us.

I believe Mr. Yasay is an example of what is meant by "a few good men" as being all that is necessary.

Since a lot of the message is in Tagalog I will be unable to share other than the portions written in English. It is sufficient for recognition of "intent" in this time of horrendous

[QUOTING The Philippine STAR, "OPINION", Wed., Dec. 27, 2000, message from Perfecto R. Yasay, Jr. (Former head of the Philippines Security and Exchange Commission):]

WE ARE RICH BECAUSE WE ARE GOD'S CHILDREN

By Perfecto R. Yasay, Jr.

Christmas is a time ordained by God so that we can reflect on the message of Love and Hope of His Son Jesus Christ.

It is also time to reflect on the angel's proclamation: Peace on Earth—and goodwill to men.

One, there is extreme economic hardship and uncertainty in the Philippines: Our hard-earned pesos are not enough to buy goods and gifts for the Christmas season.

Two, we are witnessing the impeachment proceedings against the President of the Republic, and every passing trial day in the Impeachment Court, the Filipino people are given new information and facts by witnesses on what they personally know against Joseph Ejercito Estrada with regards to the offenses he is being charged with.

However, if we look at the brighter side of life—and we Filipinos are known to be optimistic—we also see God at work in a seemingly difficult situation. God is using our hardships, however, today to turn our attention to the sterling values and qualities of Christian life.

Today, the President is sought to be held accountable for corrupting our Christian ideals and standards; for being the worst example to our youth—and for plunging this country into unspeakable depths of depravity, spiritual corruption and material poverty, so that with meekness and broken hearts, we have to accept the chastisement given to us for our costly error in electing this leader. What has happened to our Christian values and morals?

We are each being tried with President Estrada when we ignore or do not see anything wrong with his shameful lifestyle that is inconsistent with the lasting Christian values that we hold dear.

The courageous men and women who have come forward to testify to the truth again give us a powerful message: When we seek the truth, the truth will set us free.

SEEK THE TRUTH

This brings me to my first point. Seek the truth. Christ came to this world to manifest the truth. It is the truth that is liberating. It is the truth that we can be free from the enslavement of tyrants and superstition. Truth was also the guiding light of many of our nameless Church heroes who suffered and died for the fulfillment of our Christian dream of Justice, Peace and Love.

As for myself, Truth stared me in the face when I defied the President. I took a stand on the issue of cronyism, corruption and abuse of power that resulted in the biggest stock market scandal that jolted our nation. The devastating aftershocks of this scandal on our economy and on our socio-political well-being continue to be felt today. I simply disobeyed the President, and I refused to accede to his wishes and unlawful directives, against the advice of friends, who felt that going against a person, acting more as a bully than as leader of the country, was outright dangerous.

I only lost my job, but I won the fight by upholding the truth. I was able to stand my ground against the most powerful man in the country today, because I fell on my knees before God. I was only able to stand firm because I knew that God was with me. And if he is with me, who can be against me?

My experience is a lesson in utter dependence on God. And the realization that HE is watching. HE is fighting our battles and has already prepared us for victory in the most liberating experience one can ever go through.

Truth will prevail and falsehood will be roundly defeated. That is the first message of Christmas.

[D: THIS MAN ONLY REALIZES A TINY PART OF WHAT ARE GOD'S BLESSINGS BROUGHT BY THIS WHICH WE DO IN HIS NAME.]

DARE TO BE INVOLVED

Second, the Baby Jesus and the grownup Christ wants us to be involved. The Christmas event was a happy news to the shepherds and to those who had been waiting for the Messiah. But the Christmas event was also a disgusting piece of bad news to King Herod and the rulers who saw in Jesus a serious threat to their hold-on to power.

Therefore, we, His followers, also embody His liberating role; His refusal to take refuge in a corner; and His involvement in preaching the liberating force of truth and love.

I need not elaborate on the crisis our country faces today. We have a crisis of leadership, where the President is seen as an incompetent leader, lacking in lofty ideals and noble intentions, thereby unable to give direction, honor and dignity to his High Office. We have a crisis of survival, where unless his leadership issue is quickly resolved, our already sinking economy will deteriorate beyond remedy, thereby engendering political instability that could lead to the breaking up of our nation.

[D: THIS WILL HAPPEN "ONLY" IF SUCH AS PERFECTO YASAY ALSO FAIL TO HEED THE GIFTS AND PRESENCE OF MESSENGERS RESPONDING TO THE CALL UNTO GOD FOR SOLUTIONS TO THESE MASSIVE ECONOMIC PROBLEMS. GOD OFFERS ABILITY FOR THE PHILIPPINES TO BECOME THE VERY HUB OF HIS GOLDEN AGE OF TRUTH AND PROSPERITY—YOU KNOW, THOSE THINGS FOR WHICH WE PRAY CONSTANTLY.]

Are we going to be insensitive to the cry of the masses and ignore the Good Samaritan role each of us will have to play? Are we going to be unconcerned about their urgent needs and thus be unfaithful to our Christian mission? Are we going to retreat to the warmth and ease of our homes and not be involved?

[D: WE HAVE BEEN SENT AND WE HAVE ESTABLISHED THE "WAY"—PERHAPS THE ANSWER TO YOUR ABOVE QUESTION ACTUALLY NOW RESTS WITH "YOU". WE SHALL SEE IF GOD CAN REACH YOUR HEART, FOR YOU SHALL RESIDE SAFELY IN HIS HANDS. SOME OF US ARE CALLED TO GREATNESS IN VERY SUBTLE WAYS, HIS WONDERS TO PERFORM. PLEASE, LET HIM NOT FIND US WANTING. GOD'S GIFTS DEMAND THE COURIERS AND MESSENGERS, LEST WE CANNOT REACH "THE PEOPLE"—FOR THEY HEAR NOT, OR THE ADVERSARY REACHES THEM FIRST WITH THE FALSE SPEAKINGS AND WITH FEAR. THE CHRIST IS ALSO SAID TO HAVE ASKED: "WHO WILL STAND WITH ME AND TARRY WITH ME THROUGH THIS WATCH?" ALL AGREED—BUT NONE STOOD. WE ARE ASKED TO BRING THE GIFT BUT WE ARE "NOT" ASKED TO DO THE JOB "FOR" ANYONE—WE CANNOT, EVEN SHOULD WE BE SO ARROGANT AS TO ASSUME SUCH A CAUSE. WE ARE ALIENS HERE IN THE PHILIPPINES, BUT NONETHELESS BROTHERS IN THIS GLOBAL COMMUNITY REACHING OUT FOR TRUTH AND SURVIVAL. YOU KNOW US BETTER THAN YOU REALIZE, MR. YASAY, FOR WE HAVE SENT YOU PERSONAL MESSAGES FOR WELL OVER TWO YEARS. WE ARE FORTUNATE THAT GOD "IS PATIENCE" WHILE WE GROW IMPATIENT IN THE AWAITING HIS PERFECT SEQUENCE.]

Now is the time for God's people to be together in taking a stand against all forms of dishonesty and deception in our national leadership. Now is the time for all of us to unite in cleansing and reforming society, so that we can shape our dreams and build on our hopes for a prosperous and decent life. As light of the world and salt of the earth, we cannot be content with our complacency and be satisfied with our studied indifference. As Christians, we are meant to be part of the struggle for the uplifting of the lives of the least of our brothers, and God will ensure that we will make a difference in the life of our country and people.

"Behold the turtle!! It only makes progress if it sticks its neck out." We must dare to be involved. We must stick our necks out in fulfilling our mission.

SERVE OTHERS

Finally, Christmas tells about Jesus who was born to serve and to save us. The Baby Jesus that we picture in our minds today is the same grown-up Christ who served a [dedicated] ministry on Earth—healing the sick, liberating the spiritual slaves and making life abundant. He is the same Jesus Christ who continually reminds His people that the greatest amongst us is the servant of all.

The true meaning of Christmas is realized if we serve others. ONLY A LIFE DEVOTED TO SERVE OTHERS IS A LIFE WORTH LIVING.

These are our lessons this Christmas.

We need not be sad and we do not have to envy those who have lots of mansions—but whose lives are actually empty.

We are rich because we are God's children. We are happy in freedom because we seek the truth. We are blessed because we dare to stand up for what is right. And we are great because we serve the least of our brethren, as Jesus told us to do.

Let me end God's message with a story. [D: WELL, ENGLISH READERS, SORRY—WE WILL HAVE TO GET MR. YASAY TO TELL IT IN ENGLISH, BUT WE CAN GET THE DRIFT IN THE FINAL PARAGRAPH OF HIS MESSAGE.]

Indeed, what the son saw, through the innocent eyes of a little boy, was the beauty of a simple life that was rich and abundant, not with materialistic trimmings of what many of us want, but rather, with the essential things that growing children like him need, in their quest for the enduring and lofty values of human existence.

[END OF QUOTING]

Thank you, Mr. Yasay, for allowing us to have insight within your expectations of service and may we remind you that "abundance" is not something of the Adversary only—but GOD "IS" ABUNDANCE—IN ALL MEASURE OF ALL THINGS, including, Sir, those things which we "want". Our task is to "want" in worthiness and want what we have.

Honest gain means worthy self-esteem and that is mandatory for a man or a nation. GOD HAS SENT YOU THE "WAY"—AND THE TIME TO TARRY IS PAST.

You, Mr. Yasay, have stood against the strongest in the nation, backed by the henchmen of the Adversary. God asks no man to DIE FOR HIM—he only asks for willing people to LIVE for truth and righteousness, in other words, FOR HIM.

HE tests us hard and HE measures our failings and our strengths—and when we prevail in those—he tests us farther. So be it, you will find many brothers and the way shall open before you—it always does if we stay the course.

I repeat that I have been asked to write this "open letter" to Mr. Yasay that we all might share in this "time of change" come upon our world in an opportunity to deliver that which offers hope to MAN.

Let us not dwell in the memories of that which is gone except to learn our lessons, for it is time to move forward AND CREATE A BETTER WAY IN TRUTH, JUSTICE AND ABUNDANCE FOR ALL OF US FELLOW-TRAVELERS ON THIS PATHWAY "HOME".

It matters not who "I" might be—for I offer my hands that they might serve the needs in communication. We are but ONE walking hand in hand with our own hand in the hand of "THE" Man. We stumble; HE picks us up. We are hurt, and HE soothes our wound. We serve, and HE shelters us in His wings. HE IS—THAT WE MIGHT BE!

With GOD, who needs more? The light is turned on, we only need to pull away the shroud therefrom. We will be available when you find time to call.

Thank you for sharing, DJE

RE: ATTITUDES AND INTERPRETATIONS

AND IT CAME TO PASS—
THAT ALMOST EVERYONE
MISTRANSLATED/MISINTERPRETED—
ALMOST EVERYTHING!

Hatonn—Perhaps the defining comment of the topic heading here is missing: “AND STILL DO!”

Readers, when a comma in placement can make a totally different and opposite statement meaning, how can you be so misreading in your interpretations of anything as to finalize WHAT GOD SAID OR MEANT as actual fact or proof of something?

Furthermore, you must have recognition of standards of meaning of words in the setting of use.

Can I example: Indeed: “Blessed are the poor...” which really OFTEN reads in full expression: “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.”

What means this? Let me share a few items and hopefully you will stop and think of several more.

How about concerning a bit over the term “poor”. Does that actually mean “poor” as “in poverty”?

Does the above mean that just because you are in “poorness” that you turn about and have the Kingdom of Heaven? Really?

How about the commas? Does “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven?” Might it be, “Blessed are the poor, in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven?”

Oh, by the way, WHAT IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN? And, no, don’t give me what Robert Schuller said it is, or Gen. Jack Mohr—or certainly not Jerry Falwell. WHAT is the Kingdom of heaven? Ah, indeed, “the heavens”—do you inherit empty spaces in and “above” the clouds?

Chelas, YOU ARE HUMAN, a physical aspect of YOU which is eternal in “spirit (soul)”.

Does the verse above mean that by far you are better off with NOTHING?

My own perception is that one might wish to be rich in spirit whether or not poor in material possessions.

Ah, but—does this mean that a “rich” person in physical form is barred from also having some of the “Kingdom of Heaven”?

Is it just possible that the use of this emphasis on “poor”—being such biggies in the Kingdom of Heaven inheritance—might just be trying to soothe the feelings through a little “hope” at Christmas time when found in poverty by the people?

The writers who use this as a big foundation for preaching sermons, especially to the poor, usually back up the teaching with the bit about “You cannot serve two Masters.” Some will be a little more “giving” and allow that the end of all is service to God and money can be used as “a means”.

This then is usually followed by something that says: “Money is the root of all evil.” No, it does NOT say that. It says even in translation: The “LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil.” This sort-of goes along with the “Where your heart is, there dwells thee.”

I would ask you next, if you must be totally poor in both money and spirit—how can you do unto the least of God’s, as proclaimed as well in the “good book of rules”? How can a parent see to the needs of the “least of these”, a child, if he is destitute? Does he as well turn the child into a beggar? If ALL are beggars, who shall put tokens into the cup?

Can’t you SEE how differently every THOUGHT and every word can be construed to suit the needs of the writer or speaker?

I’m going to ask you a hard one: If there had been only a penthouse room available in the inn—would the babe have been thrust into the manger within a stable?

Dear hearts, the message in myth is beautiful, I suppose, but is it SO? And, does it mean that all babes should be birthed in a stable with the goats and sheep and wrapped in swaddle or the Mothers dusty veil?

Many speakers rev it up even more and say that God engineered the “census of the whole world, so that Joseph and Mary would go down to Bethlehem...” (???) The whole world? Since the census was an annual event and since the “whole world” had not yet been invented—is this not stretching it just a tad?

I do not say these things to ruin good Christmas stories that bring comfort to even a small segment of society—but when you allow the disinformation to ooze its way into that which is proclaimed as truth, it becomes part of “the perpetual lie”.

There is NOTHING more righteous in being poor or rich, nor more evil in being rich or poor. WEALTHY IN TRUTH or EVIL IN PRACTICE brings in the confrontation. If you are wealthy in truth through honest and just EARNING of even that which is “money”, you are, indeed, blessed for you will have practiced that which further says: “God helps him who helps himself.” This might very well mean that if you have gains in honest acquisition, you have blessings in abundance for “helping self”.

EVIL IS A NEGATIVE THING IN ALL

INSTANCES, WEALTH OR OTHERWISE. FURTHERMORE, TO STEAL FROM ONE TO GIVE TO ANOTHER (POOR), YOU ERR—FOR YOU HAVE STILL COMMITTED EVIL AND, THEREFORE, HAVE GIVEN THAT WHICH WAS NOT AND IS NOT YOURS TO GIVE. TO LIE TO ACCOMPLISH EVEN A GOOD ACT IS BOTH MISLEADING AND EVIL IN ITS PRACTICE.

Let me give a bit of exaggerated example: If your child bakes you some cookies perchance, and he has inadvertently used alum powder rather than baking powder, sugar or salt and brings his prize for your lips and the lips shrivel into a pucker and the tongue summons all the saliva it can muster—what do you say? Do you say to the child that the cookie is delicious and unpucker long enough to smile? The minute the child tastes his own cookie he will proclaim you a liar. Or, do you say, “I prefer other kinds of cookies than this flavor”? Or, do you tell the truth and simply say something to the effect of: “Oops, can we check over what you used in these cookies?” YOU CAN BLESS THE GIFT WITHOUT HIDING, OR HIDING FROM, A BAD PRODUCT. In this way you NEVER embarrass the gifter.

Now let me ask another question: HOW DO YOU RESOLVE FINANCIAL PROBLEMS OF LACK, IF YOU HAVE NO WAY TO BRING FORTH FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS? DISCLAIMING SAME IS “NOT” THE ANSWER. ROBBING PETER TO PAY PAUL, AS THE SAYING GOES, IS ALSO “NOT” THE ANSWER.

Abundance in honor and truth MUST BE CREATED and, therefore, there must be value backing to either “create” more currency which is in acceptable use—OR YOU HAVE TO CREATE A NEW FOUNDATION UPON WHICH ABUNDANCE CAN GROW AND FLOURISH—AND MAN CAN EARN HIS SHARE IN HONOR AND WONDROUS SELF-ESTEEM.

Charity is the thing which heals the heart and soul and no, that is not “just a welfare program”. There are other ways to have self-reliance, even if a person has no legs—but a good mind, to serve and participate. Charity might well provide a wheelchair and arrange a JOB so that the man is a bit handicapped perhaps, but is NOT a cripple.

If a person be mentally handicapped, then the solutions are more varied and may well demand charity and even, ultimately, community care, but there is no need for negating the very beauty and righteousness of the needy. If the retarded be a child—there is no greater innocence.

By the way, to put your children to the streets is the greatest of all evils, my students—for you have negated and damaged the greatest of the least of God’s innocents.

It is when a man, any man, takes the wealth unto himself and allows these things to come upon God’s creations that the path is downhill from there forward.

Certainly a man must be gotten to and on his feet and then, he must grow instead of being destroyed by some “welfare” program which shackles him forever. This is called total enslavement of the most demeaning kind.

What if a man refuses to work and there be work? My, my, if he is able and there is a job to be had and still he demands his daily bread—stop the handout and the man will want to have the job in about 10 hours.

I would also like to comment briefly on the fact that Emmanuel went about with nothing on his person save the clothes on his body and nothing in his pockets. That was not to be “poor”; it was to stay alive. Robbers had even a bit of code of ethics and would rarely leave a man naked by taking his last garment—but they would take everything ELSE.

There was also a fact of necessity for staying with friends or family in a village—THERE WERE NO HOTELS OR MOTELS OR BIG MACS OR EVEN GOLDEN STAR JR. FAST FOODS. I further believe that you might be interested that these drifters were more often simply turned away as you might turn away the hippies or questionable drifters.

I personally, however, like to see the homeless and street children RIGHT IN THE FACES OF THE RULING POLITICIANS—for if that does not bring conscience attacks, they are hopelessly evil, indeed. If you have a community of homeless and helpless—bring them into the spotlight and do it right in front of everyone—so that the DEMAND for solutions to THE PROBLEM are sought and found. When a child has to sniff glue to cover the empty belly—YOU AS A SOCIETY HAVE FLUNKED “LIVING 101”. Worse, when they must live in a cemetery AND sniff glue to survive—you have no worthy call upon God, for YOU have allowed this to come about. GOD DOES NOT DISCARD OR STARVE CHILDREN—THAT IS A TRICK OF MAN IRRESPONSIBLE.

LET ME NOW CONSIDER OTHER FOCUS

When I ask my team to place in security some covering documents or financial papers—STOP, look and listen to me.

We will NOT place any person in jeopardy or offer that which will surely cause you to be targeted. Further, when we ask you to HOLD something, it should be HELD—not discussed or passed around nor chattered about—because tomorrow a better approach might well be noted.

We will be very careful in the responsibility placed on anybody and shelter will always be invoked through some kind of corporate structure—not setting any ABOVE another. Neither shall we dump on anyone ALONE. Anything offered now must be held anyway until possible other events come into play. Misreading or misunderstanding this intent and action is not acceptable. It is for security of product and persons.

We structure things so that should anything cause the removal of my team in charge, there is immediate corporate backup. Any who interpret our move in any other manner are mistaken in understanding. TITLES MEAN NOTHING! Responsibility in service means EVERYTHING.

We do not select out one above another except to have continuity of flow if necessary through those already established in a position of being able to function.

Let us please not worry over who eats the chicken when we have yet to crack the egg. Many of you make your own jobs so much more difficult in your inability to see the reasoning behind our actions. This, I suppose, means that we cannot please all of the people all of the time.

Stash those papers into safety and security and HOLD. I repeat: “In corporation structure, titles mean very, very little,” except to legitimize the documents themselves and to have human persons (required by law) to be able to offer signatures. When you assume otherwise as to some “title”—you err because management of business and corporate structure are two very different things. We could do EVERYTHING with a nominee—but that prevents us from structuring better flow into various areas which some are simply not included in understanding of either structure—or corporation use and fundamental regulations and legal conformation.

Do not, further, consider that “God has finally seen my value”, in some paperwork or other. GOD SAW YOUR VALUE LONG, LONG AGO—AND LET’S HOPE THAT WAS A GOOD THING.

There will be a whole bunch of you who are not going to like some of the things I do—but the ones who truly serve this mission will understand the methods behind what you may well even wish to call “insanity”. We have things under way of which you have no notion. Yea, my people are stumbling through as fast and as best they can with only 24 hours in each given day with which you are blessed.

Players are coming together now—so many and so quickly—as to be staggering under the load of the one or two having to service the information flow and possibilities loops. Until we can afford other, then we function with that which we have and—even after there is some further abundance to fill needs and support systems—we have to struggle until we can shift in order to change “beasts of burden” as well as change the “burden” a bit.

Because our focus of the moment is on structuring in the Philippines does NOT mean other than a shifting of SOME of our focus. Remember that some upon whom we relied for assistance cut, ran and turned against us even unto the Federal law to destroy the very gift we bear. We will sustain—we will not sustain our proclaimed enemies.

We are going to begin to write even more often and more in depth about the Philippines and her place in this program and, therefore, the best you readers can do is get the information to the Philippine community wherever you ARE. We have to do that NOW by asking them to participate in the cost of the paper so that we can continue production. This mission will benefit the citizens of the Philippines more than any other one group of people on the globe today—TODAY.

They also are a good resource for our products which were offered in the paper. They desperately need those products. I don’t think you have any idea how many Filipinos there are JUST IN THE U.S.

I would also wager that almost NONE of you realize that after the conquest by the U.S. of the Philippines—and let’s just say about the time of the 1906 laws and accepting of the Peruvian debt in that year—that the Filipino became a citizen of the U.S. UNDER LAW.

I would also wager that not 1 out of 100,000 have any idea that the Americans killed (murdered in mass) half the Philippine population in that war! So, do you of the U.S. OWE something or other to the Philippines? Well, I guess so! You have brought down the Philippines into destruction and corruption and the most humble among them have asked GOD in sincerest prayer to HELP THEM. And so it is coming to pass. May it also come to pass that they will see the righteous way to achieve their goals as the NEW CITY might well be structured.

This may well mean that my people can’t service the individual squeaking wheels who would have all things “otherwise” than whatever they happen to BE. And, I suggest you be very careful in severing ties to others, for the way becomes very lonely, indeed. The JOB IS MASSIVE and no man is EXPECTED to carry such a burden. Interim MEANS temporary—AS IN TRANSIENT AND PROVISIONAL. We all have to wait to embark on what we ultimately “want to be when we grow up” until we have accomplished the chores allotted us today as a fundamental structure in the foundation being laid. We are the masons (oh, goodness, that term again) in the putting together of the building that must last through the eons. We can do this if we but stop picking out the mortar from between the blocks as fast as we stack the foundation. Only “man” does this to himself. If you would be a cornerstone, then you must be content to have surroundings of other bricks and a lot of mortar.

But is this fair? Who has said anything about FAIR? GOD IS “JUST”.

This would remind you of some who came early to Tehachapi and visited much. Their motto was finally presented in full glory unto selves: “No matter what—have fun...” AND “I intend to do God’s will—but, by God, I intend to do it MY WAY.” They quickly went where it was more fun and they could actually play in “their way”.

This is not to say anything against such attitudes—except it just doesn’t get the overall task accomplished, does it?

There are many speakings in the good book of wisdom, so-called. How about “The meek shall inherit the Earth.” Well, if you inherit what is today the state of the world—what awful thing did you do to deserve it? And, does this mean that the loud and confident won’t inherit anything? Meek means “humble” as one definition. But remember, “humble” is NOT the opposite of “pride”. The opposite of “pride” is “shame”—so only in knowing the difference can you establish your true status.

I am also amused by the example now used that as a carpenter the Master Teacher went into the forest (in Palestine??) where there were no lumber mills. “He took an ax, chopped down a tree, lopped off the boughs, tied a rope around the trunk of the tree and dragged it down the hill to his carpenter shop. There he peeled off the bark, and sawed it into boards with a model 52 B.C. saw...”

Ok, I would like to present you with a different picture of your current possibilities. If you don't stop “chopping down trees” and destroying your forests, you are going to perish.

There are far better building materials for furnishing your shelters themselves and that which is within them. You can grow crop plants that make far better fabric and, yes, building material for bricks AND MORTAR. Once you destroy your life-resource, you have destroyed your selves.

The most beautiful fabrics in the world are made from natural fibers such as cotton, wool, even silk. And, ha, you might say, “Yes, but the silkworm feeds on trees.” Well, the worm factory can be structured with its own supply of mulberry trees which quickly regrow leaves. And NOW, you have products from petroleum products which are called “synthetics”—what a nice use to be made of petroleum hydrocarbons—without polluting anything because the byproducts can easily be attended and, yea, even utilized. REMEMBER, YOU CAN CREATE AND NOT CONTINUALLY DESTROY.

“But we have to have transportation and that takes gas,” is your retort. No, you DO NOT NEED SUCH A PRIMITIVE THING. But that IS WHY you do have both corruption AND pollution to such massive extent.

As a matter of fact, one of our major projects is in deuterium harvesting—where conversion to hydrogen for fuel is up and coming with the least effort at transition of systems use.

“Oh,” you might say, “there you go again and we are supposed to now think that magic comes from some place like the Philippines?” Yes, indeed, right out of the big, deep blue sea! And, yes, indeed, if we can ever get beyond the hang-ups of the moment, we can get right on into telling and sharing. And the byproduct? Water, which you also need in a very big way! I remind you that God provided you with EVERYTHING you need to live in “physical” perfection—but, ah, you are just “too busy” to learn or even to see to it that the children are allowed to learn.

Let God do it, you might say. NO, GOD SENT “YOU”. You claim to “love” your children? DO YOU REALLY? What have you done today to prove that nonsense?

Did my crew think the job would be this tough? No, and neither did they think it would be this difficult. Sometimes Dharma says right out loud: “Can't I just die for you and get it over with?” NO, she offered to give a part of her “living” to this task and it was accepted and we shall ask her to abide with us. Does she, or you, have a choice? Of course, have you not witnessed and experienced the multitudes who turn away and drop to the wayside at the first opportunity? Dark energies? WHOSE dark energies?. What is YOUR definition of a “dark energy”? Well, it is time you thought it through and found out. The worst pretenders are the worst dark energies—so you had best look around at who you serve and what you “follow”.

By the way, writing about angels and light does not a lighted-energy make. Check out what a person is and does and you might have a bit better insight. You might even wish to call it “enlightenment”. When a man declares himself my enemy, I accept that—I just wonder if “he” can.

Are we a bit melodramatic about some things? I suggest it is time to get a bit serious about a lot of things, for there are plenty of players ready to upstage you at every curtain call.

* * * * *

D: I was just “blown” out of whatever reverie I might have been experiencing. At about a quarter to two this afternoon the terrorists started their attack that began in downtown Manila somewhere. The impact rattled the hotel and was so loud and frightening that I, of course, headed in the wrong direction to make sure I would be a good target for snipers.

E.J. was “meeting” as he does almost all of every day and you know what, it really makes us wonder what in “hell” (literally) we think we are doing here. It wasn't long until we were called, put on alert and told to stay put—and that bombs in the malls were expected also.

I listen to the distant sirens and one or two trucks coming up our own Ayala Ave. to get to the area in point and, right now, it seems pretty hopeless. How do you get people to stop killing each other long enough to accomplish anything? It truly makes us believers in God because anyone or thing lesser is in deep yogurt.

What in the world will they do on New Year's eve when all the fireworks are in full blast, idiots shooting off their guns (literally) and generally having mayhem in the streets? My first impulse is “God, I can't do this any more...”—whine, whine and where, oh where is my “basket”.

I was in my whine-mode when E.J. came with some silk roses from a friend (actually, the gold friend) along with two “Snoopies”, one for my “doghouse” and one for my typewriter. And then, while I am still whining the doorbell rang and another beautiful person had sent up, if you can believe it, a casserole for dinner and some local grapefruit the size of footballs that are something they call “Pamelos” (phonetically spelled, of course).

My gosh, it seems we can't go on and yet there is no way to stop, either. Even the precious little hotel maid is too much for my heart. A couple of days ago I simply could not get out of bed and again I was alone and she had done her hotel stuff. I was asleep and before she left she came in touched me just enough to wake me and felt me in several places and said, “Oh, you are so hot.” She gently combed my hair back while I couldn't even hold up my eyelids. Then she told me to just sleep and bent over and kissed my cheek, said she loved me and I would be better. I WAS BETTER! Not only was I better but I am continually better. No, we can't quit but something has to be done for these precious little people—they are little people who are not pale and white but tiny and perfect and yes, indeed, SHAME wafts over me as I realize what we of the White races do to people, even our own.

In every event there is always some humor as we had to continue about our business and pondered the trip across the street to get the birds' supper. Wow, big decisions in the “dare God” department? Then E.J. got called downstairs again and we had to put off that big decision. Is life just a big “postponement”(?) instead of imminent? Makes you wonder, doesn't it?

We laughed when E.J. came up after meeting with one of the most important people in the Philippines today and a little plan would be worked out by “the natives” of which I won't be specific. It was politely FUNNY when this person said of the other: “But he is awfully close with the CIA and I don't...”. E.J. just blurted out, “God I do hope so.” We need somebody on our side in this mess of so many NOT on our side. I might even join them if they paid better! But I won't because they don't, so I guess we'll have to do it on our own.

The sirens have silenced and I find myself more concerned because that means that all the help went “over yon” leaving “over here” without. Oh, well. As is said: “No where to run and no place to hide.” It must mean, if we are still moving that we just move right forward. We are well beyond the “leap of faith” and are down to the little short steps one after the other. That doesn't, however, stop me from being glad that the Abu Sayyaf don't have planes to bomb from the top down. Unfortunately, to stop them the U.S. does.

Ok, I have to quit now because I note that when I am typing from inside my basket (I found it)—like a turtle, I can't reach the keyboard except with my nose and, oh, gosh, that means I have to stick my neck OUT.

Bless you all and KNOW this is going to be some year ahead! Be kind to one another because we are all we have! Believe me there are NO atheists in—er-ah—the baskets. Never mind the foxholes. And now? Well, every car-backfire or firecracker pushes a bit of adrenaline. Indeed, the New Year celebration, as offered up Manila-style, should well be a very long night.

Actually, I will be fine right after I go have a dozen of Margie's chocolate brownies. I will still be sick but I will know why! I was, frankly, on my way “out” anyway; this morning I couldn't remember whether we lived at 12521 Adam Drive or 21512 and suddenly it didn't matter which. I haven't learned my other addresses either, so why wallow in the past?

E.J. has such a different outlook on things and says everything like this that happens means progress because something big has to be done. No wonder I need chocolates.

One of our “callers” brought me a small basket with a wine bottle filled with honey (a practical thing to use) but right now I wonder “where's the wine?” I don't need more waist-altering stuff, I very definitely need some mind-altering libation.

OIP (Only in the Philippines)? Oh, don't we all just wish!

You know what? This really is a rather exciting time we are experiencing in so many ways, I could easily give up a few of them.

May Love and Joy come to you and good tidings too. May we never forget, lest we have to repeat the lessons. Even to the directions it seems an illusion. North is generally north and South, therefore, is usually south. However, it seems that East and West depends on where you stand. In the U.S. to here, you look West—but to see, you must face East. Enough brilliance for today.—D.

Mind Will Manifest The Matter Required

12/26/00—#1 (13-132)

RE: LIFE GOES ON BETWEEN CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S

LIFE IS WONDROUS
AND EVERYTHING IS SACRED

Hatonn—We wrote a book several years ago which we called The Sacred Spirit Within. Little Crow was also doing a book called The Sacred Hill Within. Ours got “banned” because we spoke of things like Walter Russell’s insight on LIGHT and its very central being of “Sacred Creation”. Oh, didn’t I word it that way? Sorry about that. Who is growing now to be able to see beyond the moment and “into” that realization of Light, Creation, and Realization?

You who would place POWER into a crystal ball of some kind simply haven’t expressed your own recognition that YOU ARE BUT A CRYSTAL carrying the information needed for your own experience and unique DNA structure and “mind” capability. YOU are the crystal-reflecting MIND.

As you move into the “time” segment of annual calendar change it is always with the notion that some psychic will read some cards of chance or some crystals or at the least SEE and predict tomorrow, next year or next aeon. But precious ones, you don’t even see what happened yesterday—only what you were told to believe of yesterday. THE FUTURE WILL BE EXACTLY AS YOU CREATE IT TO BE—PERIOD AND END OF ARGUMENT.

WHAT WILL YOU CHOOSE YOUR LIFE TO BE?

And, no, don’t tell me that you just want to be rich and live 300 years—for that is NOT at all what you want. What you want is enough to live comfortably and in “happiness” and to live as long as you wish to enjoy. When the JOY of living is restricted by physical limitation, you will want to move on. This IS just the way of it. Furthermore, when you decide to choose an illness or a focus that will draw the proper attention to satisfy your “needs” or allow transition in a somewhat “honorable” fashion, you will take the opportunity to move on. It is not a big mystical experience or expression—it is simplicity in recognition. I know that most do not LIKE this simplistic realization but, nonetheless, it is true.

By the way, if you are in pain yourself, it will be noted that you have little patience to appreciate the pain of another. If you look, however, upon the pain of another, you can better appreciate that yours is not so important to self or others. The attitude of others, say, regarding YOUR important headache? Get a couple of aspirin and shut your mouth. Have you noticed how much MORE you share your pain than your JOY? How much more often do you focus on the negative aspects of experience than on the positive? Yes, indeed, it IS important. LOOK AT THE NEGATIVE BUT CREATE THE POSITIVE—FROM THE POSITIVE AND PRECIOUS OFFERINGS OF THAT NEGATIVE PERCEPTION.

OPPOSITES ARE TRUTH

Just as everything is sacred, so too is everything TRUE. BUT: Do not allow that which is negative in aspect to BECOME your only Truth. To accomplish the positive from the negative aspects of perception and actual “action” you must, however, realize that from the negative you have to use the same focus to re-create that which IS into that which is positive and perceived desirable. Example: If you need money and HAVE NO MONEY and perceive that to be a problem (negative), then you are going to have to consider how to get some money, aren’t you? This means that you have to create a way—through mind—to bring unto you that which you want.

To remain in Truth of goodness (God), however, you MUST DO THIS TRANSLATION IN HONOR, INTEGRITY AND TRUTH. THEREFORE, YOU MUST “CREATE” AND THAT REQUIRES “MIND” TO MANIFEST THE MATTER YOU WANT TO ACQUIRE. This “creation” does not necessarily demand that you go “create” gold, as example, but something of value that can be then converted to the exchange commodity.

While you are doing your exchange calculations remember something: The currencies in all nations—NOW in consideration—have no basis for value. A troy ounce of gold may well be worth a current price of $35 or $270—according to the daily “fix”—but at least it measures value against exchange currency.

When gold was $35 an ounce you could buy a suit with an ounce of gold. Now that it is $270 per ounce you can still buy a suit with an ounce of it. But at a dollar value you cannot even buy a day’s food with $35. So, the gold base is cast aside and the value is based in currency according to the whims of the manipulators and false gods. What happens next? YOU move into the trap set by the LIARS. Then, YOU BECOME THE LIE ITSELF.

Which, for instance, is more valuable, a dollar or 50 pesos? NEITHER—for neither is based on anything except the air from the breath of the liars and a bit of printing paper and ink. So, do you want a bunch of paper or do you want VALUE?

A THOUGHT FOR THE DAY, PLEASE

When we turn our attention to our TASK at hand, of bringing some value to your system of economic exchange, WE ARE LABELED AS DARK ENERGIES AND GOLD-HOUNDS.

I mention this, for I am going to tell you an awesome FACT: 95 percent of the prayers of man are to pray for “wealth” and “God send us what we need in abundance because...” (you name it, it’s your game).

The number one Protocol on the Manifest of the Elders who work to acquire control of the globe on which you live—is “GET CONTROL OF THE ACCEPTED LIVELIHOOD EXCHANGE—NAMELY GOLD”.

Therefore, if MAN prays for solutions to his poverty problems, GOD must respond in KIND. THE CALL DEMANDS THE RESPONSE. The Evil manipulators, however, KNOW that you will pray to God for, say, GOLD, so it is only reasonable that he will tell you it is filthy, dirty and evil in itself. GOLD “IS” and is nothing more than the value upon which man places his philosophy.

GOD PROVIDES IN PERFECTION AND POSITIVE ALLOWANCE—IT IS UP TO YOU TO USE IT AS YOU WILL.

Lately in the Philippines, there are incredible demands for the President’s head because he took “dirty money” in gambling proceeds, as did the Catholic Church. NO, it is not the money in point—money just “is”—it is the perception. Was it dirty money when the man laid his bet on the table in small pesos? CHECK YOUR VALUE SYSTEMS, HUMAN, LEST YOU MISS THE ENTIRE POINT OF THE GAME ITSELF.

Is the Church less evil in use of the end-product of the money itself, than, say, Erap Estrada who bought mansions for his mistresses? One is not relative to the other except in the INTENT. If you see a peso on the ground in the middle of the road, is it dirty or clean (other than being on the dirty ground)? You don’t know, so only if you KNOW the background can you even begin to consider “good or bad”. It is the thefts, lies, abuse and criminal actions that tell the tale—not the peso. The NUMBER of pesos in point only magnifies the problem by evaluation of the magnitude of the given crime.

GAMES PEOPLE PLAY

We have another interesting consideration to appreciate and that is sheltering that which you have. I will likely shock you on this point as well.

The banks have aided Estrada in his ill-gotten wealth schemes, etc. BUT SUPPOSE THERE IS NO “ILL-GOTTEN” TO BE CONSIDERED, DON’T YOU DESERVE SHELTER FOR HONEST EARNINGS? IS THE POT RESPONSIBLE FOR WHAT YOU PUT INTO IT?

Honorable business DESERVES the best protection UNDER THE LAW that you can find—and you are fiducially irresponsible if you fail to ferret out the security demands of protecting assets. USE THE LAWS FOR THE PROTECTION THEY OFFER. USING THEM DOES NOT MEAN THAT YOU BECOME EVIL AS MIGHT BE THE CRIMINALS. If there is no “bad” manipulation to report—then wherein lies the problem?

We have, for instance, NO INTENT TO LAUNDER ANYTHING, except our very wearing items. We not only welcome, but demand, open, clear, and clean dealings. ONLY EVIL AND CRIME NEEDS COVERING. OPEN BUSINESS DESERVES THE BRIGHTEST LIGHT

AVAILABLE TO BE TURNED ONTO THE TABLES WHERE THE SIGNING AND TRANSFERS TAKE PLACE. IN THAT MANNER LAYS THE ONLY WAY TO INTEGRITY AND HONEST EXCHANGE. Furthermore, the police of the law are supposed to ensure that integrity—not further mulct from the exchangers.

No, there is nothing wrong with gold as exchange. The manipulators and criminals are always the POLITICIANS who do manipulate and scheme dark tricks to grab, in their need for riches, control and POWER (over the population).

In direct answer to prayers, God then sends forth solutions to the very problems which would open the gates to growth and prosperity—and the ones who “see” are the first to deny in the fear of being caught in their own WRONG INTENTIONS. Well, God doesn’t go away—man turns away and increases his own protection patrols—lest he be found out in his evil and crimes. These culprits pray the loudest in the public places—with the lips, not the heart or soul; any listener can immediately discern the difference. Why would a Senator need to have a written prayer to speak in public? Ah, indeed!, to APPEAR honorable and FOOL THE LISTENERS! GOD HEARS AND SEES WHAT A MAN DOES IN HIS PRIVATE AND UNSEEN PLACES.

WHAT ABOUT THE PROBLEMS IN THE INTERIM TIME OF BUILDING?

That certainly DOES require attention. When you KNOW that a conclusion can take “time” to bring to harvest—then you must plant and grow an interim “crop”.

You HAVE THE CROP but people either fail to see it or fear loss. This, even if the facts are that an establishment of the necessary “other” crops than the project itself produces, is also mandatory.

If you, for instance, are going to back your project or your currency on gold—you have to have gold—don’t you? SOMEBODY HAS TO START A PROGRAM. More important, however, is that in using the commodity there is then provision for continuing and giving ability to bring about the full program in its perfect presentation.

If, for instance, you hold a thousand tons of gold in a cave and are starving, can you not spare a pound of gold to feed your face? No, you somehow expect GOD to provide it all for you and, therefore, you pray harder and produce or hide more.

DAILY BREAD

Every day GAIA gets calls. Oh, my, do we get calls. The bottom line is that somehow GAIA is to do everything. Nobody reads their agreements which STATE BLUNTLY AND IN FINALITY that the partner who receives the DEED is to do the very things that were, are and shall be expected, by them, of us. NO. That is the very carelessness which will destroy this program. So, NO.

If you come to us saying that you have backup product to secure the transactions—and you do not, then you lie.

We have worked for years and through endless sums of pain—and pay to get this validated and available for you-the-people. It now becomes YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to see it through. Our people will not stop in ceaseless efforts to get it rolling but it is NOT OUR RESPONSIBILITY—IT IS “YOURS”. If you, therefore, have ability to assist in the interim needs, then why do you not participate?

Do I blame the ones who extract from us our own blood? No, “blame” has nothing to do with it. I am, however, finished with the pretenders who claim to have but bring naught forth. Creating from that which we have created is cheating. When the funds come from the same basic pot, it is not worthy to demand for self. Go forth and create otherwise—in integrity of self. This in no way detracts from sharing, readers, it merely states that taking from the same supply for self is not what this game is all about. Robbing Peter to somehow assist Paul is not fair or just to Peter or his supporters. Neither does this, however, mean that we can’t help Paul abundantly as we can do so in expectation of the contribution intended.

We must always be responsible in NOT developing a “welfare” program of some kind while all are stretched beyond their own means—because they shared more than they could afford.

It is somehow assumed that Ekkers, for example, have something you do not! No, they DO NOT. And, yes, it DOES take teamwork and backup to bring this program to harvest but that is not because they “seem” to have something that you do not.

One major problem with individual people is that they somehow want it all in one swoop. NO, GOD TESTS YOUR ABILITIES AND DESIRES IN RESPONSIBLE INTENT AND ACTIONS. Do first that which is necessary and all other shall be added unto you according to your works.

It is very sad to realize that, indeed, it is so that if Ekkers were removed from the site, there would be immediate stoppage of ongoing work—for the perception would be that I TOO have gone. Someone would take over after a while and see to the development—but truly enough, the whole of the program would hang in limbo.

It would, yes, get going again because EKKERS “have” successfully accomplished their purpose—validation, how to use, and what are the guidelines. This is set to documentation as in “instructions” and security is set for moving on if any corporate person is withdrawn. Reminder: Old corporations never die, they just get a new President.

SUGGESTIONS

I have given you examples of how to make even the paper grow. But that is not something Ekkers, or ME, should be about. They can’t “network”—BUT YOU CAN. Certainly Spectrum has used that e-mail and Internet to damage—CAN’T YOU FIND SOME WAY TO USE IT FOR YOUR VALIDATING AND GROWTH? If bad press can destroy “you”, then good press can bless you! SINCE WE ARE FOCUSSED TODAY IN THE PHILIPPINES—GO TO THE FILIPINOS.

The major industry, I remind you, in the Philippines—IS THE OVERSEAS WORKERS. Most of those workers would like to be able to live and work AT HOME. THEY ARE THE ONES WHO CAN PUSH THESE POLITICIANS AND NOW IS THE TIME, FOR “THIS” YEAR LESS MONEY FLOWED THAN BEFORE, BACK TO THE PHILIPPINES FROM THOSE WORKERS, BECAUSE OF THE POLITICAL THEFT OF THE NATION.

Ah, but what does that mean? It means that every one of YOU must get acquainted and conversant with EXACTLY WHAT YOU HOLD—no fudging or dumping—KNOW WHAT YOU HAVE. We have sent back via information flow, everything you need, from the product itself to the public notices.

Just because we have agreed to not lodge these “debts” does NOT mean that use is unavailable. “Off shore” does not mean that building can’t be ON SHORE. It is only the asset that can’t be negotiated domestically.

We have this happening all the time as business associations or corporations set forth their operations and assets “off shore” rather than deal domestically within a given nation.

Most of our team simply want to perfect performance rather than build major projects in industry. Our team is to SERVE in order to make available THE WAY TO SUPPORT SUCH DREAMS AND VISIONS.

I found it amusing that, just as we had warned, one of our holders went to his bank and after checking with the Central Bank, he said he was “laughed at”. Being ridiculed is the worst form of insult and the bankers KNOW it, so why don’t YOU?

We have told the holders until we are hoarse and speechless, “Go to a bank and IF that person is so weak as to have to check it out, they are to say, ‘We are going to use this asset.’ If there has to be more discussion then, ‘Do you have any objection?’ covers it. Listen for the results of that inquiry BECAUSE IT IS UNLAWFUL TO DENY THIS PARTICULAR ASSET—PERIOD. The big bankers are warned to NOT DENY it—but anything short of denial is seemingly OK, from laughter at such a preposterous thing to trying to get the holder to not believe it.

Our product is a U.S. Treasury Debt, pure and simple! It is the same thing in value as a warehouse receipt for gold. We don’t even push that but that is what the documents represent.

Frankly, we don’t care who DOES NOT believe it—for we limit ourselves to outgo to protect the stability of the global economy. Ours is NOT to destroy or damage but to stabilize and shift assets to the people. But, readers, it is all in the package of which you all have access. If you don’t want to learn or waste time at the calculations, then so be it. What you “believe” is totally up to you but if you make your conclusions without bothering to learn that which is available for learning—that too is your choice. However, your negative “belief” does NOT affect our KNOWING. Or, is it that you think your political manipulators (government) wouldn’t lie to you?

PHILIPPINE EXAMPLE: Yesterday an announcement that President Estrada’s lead defense counsel had an attack of some kind and was hospitalized. Even a hospital and room number was given and then, more interestingly, death of same was passed around in hushed tones and zillions of “text” messages.

No, the man is fine. He, like all the others involved in this impeachment trial going night and day, is TIRED. Remember also that through the “Sacred” holidays there are other performances demanded and the annual CAUSE to overdo, overspend, overextend—and basically overdull selves.

Another example: Yesterday came a full confession of an “anonymous” trader who claims to have sold the Philippine National Police millions of dollars in surveillance equipment now being used to snoop on the Senators and Prosecution Team. Today the headlines state that our friend Gen. Lacson of that PNP claims that no such thing has even been considered.

Another: Yesterday it was scattered about EVERYWHERE that it was Christmas and Erap had decided to resign his position as President. Today: The headlines are that Erap says he will never resign.

My point is to get informed, stay informed, and then when you have lots of information—take the positive and the negative and turn it all into strong positive action. DO NOT BE A WIND CHIME BUT NEITHER BE ONE WITHOUT A STRIKER. Until the tone-maker is struck, there is only POTENTIAL. Load that tone-maker with pure energy and strike it, chelas. DARE TO STRIKE IT!

You are given a window of opportunity right here and right now. Will you stand and let it shut on your fingers or will you climb through it into safety? I certainly don’t expect you to jump from the 25th floor of a highrise, but for goodness sakes, if the window is at ground level—try a leap of TRUTH which doesn’t even have anything to do with “faith”.

NOW TO MY TEAM IN MANILA

This is not “just Ekkers”, readers. We have at least some 1,200 “partners”. It is time to produce and stop pretending God or GAIA is going to serve success up on your empty platter. There are many involved who CLAIM to have access to assets. Get some interim support working. I have to remind E.J., for instance, that no, we are not the supply wagon. WE ARE NOT IN THE GAME OF MAKING A DRAMA—WE “ARE” THE DRAMA. YOU WILL ONLY PREVAIL WHEN YOU CAUSE OTHERS TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR OWN PROMISES—JUST AS I CAUSE YOU TO BE UNTO ME. JUST AS YOUR ERRORS ULTIMATELY REFLECT ON ME—SO TOO DO OTHERS’ IN YOUR LOOPS OF CONSCIOUSNESS ACTIONS REFLECT ON YOU.

We, for instance, can’t badly “judge” one Mr. Jeffers for inability to get others to do what they promise. Neither can we cause others who have no way to produce—to produce. However, there should be no such CLAIM if there is no truth in the circumstance. Well, we know that there is truth in the human “promises” to Jeffers—the fact that non-production of expected returns is the outcome is both an embarrassment and a disappointment. HOWEVER, you can only SHARE what you are told and/or promised. IT IS, THEREFORE, MANDATORY THAT THE PROMISES BE IN EXPECTATION OF FULFILLMENT AND NOT JUST ANOTHER “OH, WELL” AND A BUS TICKET HOME TO STIR UP ADDITIONAL DRAMAS.

There must be responsibility in the stewardship of our assets. And, yes, indeed, investment in the program is mandatory as to a lunch or two or preparation materials. However, you will note that it always is expected to flow from you to “them” because your cause is somehow connected to God. NO, that is where responsibility is demanded.

Consider these things because to just sit and wait for perfection to strike you will NOT work. You may well run out of waiting while I wait for you to get your job done. I hope that is not “harsh” to your eyes and ears. I.E., STOP SHOWING US PICTURES OF CAVES FILLED WITH GOLD—BRING SOME TO GET ASSAYED AND EXCHANGED SO THAT YOU ARE READY TO GROW AND BUILD.

Ah, one of the stories is that the individual bars are sometimes too big and require four to six men to lift them. Has anyone ever heard of a SAW? These are the most basic solutions to your acclaimed problems. Gold is soft, my friends—so don’t give me the “I can’t because...”; YOU NEED YOUR OWN EXCHANGE INDUSTRY—NOT JUST MORE “SOMEBODY” ELSE TO DO IT FOR YOU.

And, apologies to you who can’t bear disappointment, but: IT IS BETTER TO KNOW IF YOU ARE WORKING WITH A FRAUD “NOW” THAN ONE MINUTE “LATER”. I keep reminding you that there are ever so many more toxic toads than goodly frogs or princes than you can imagine.

Do not tell me: “Buy a bank” and then ask me for “lunch money”. I weary of the game in play. The bank will come when the funds are available and the funds are available just as soon as there is production. Lunch is easily purchased if you get some interim mode of self-sustaining base.

So, you who claim product, we have processors—plain and simply put. We are not going to longer play the inch-by-inch draining of our very emotional beings like the little fish dangling on someone’s hook until quite dead and dried.

THIS IS MY NEW YEAR’S RESOLUTION FOR “YOU”, MY FRIENDS. IT IS CALLED “BACKBONE”. IT DOES NOT LESSEN LOVE; IT PRESENTS “KNOWING” OUT OF “BELIEVING” AND “WAITING” FOR US TO DO SOMETHING ELSE REMARKABLE. WE ARE GOING TO GET IT DONE WITH OR WITHOUT THE HANGERS-ON—SO LOOK AROUND AND SEE WHAT IS REAL AND WHAT IS FOOLISH.

This is not to present tight shoes to give discomfort—it is to demand that you get correctly-sized shoes so there are fewer blisters to infect the feet.

YOU WILL HAVE GOD’S GIFTS WHEN YOU ATTEND THEM PROPERLY!

No, this is NOT some after-Christmas sale to prod you on. It is that there is no time off for goofing or further blinding of eyes; this is the time of TRUTH—and the need of guidance is at hand for some of our very own contacts.

If a man says, “I am on my way to see you,” and he does not show up—the second or third time, can you not realize that you cannot depend on that person? You can, however, work around him.

If you are uncomfortable in the same space with another—can you not work around that even if it requires self-discipline when events make it mandatory to be, at the least, gracious?

It is very often noted that the tests you think are for another—ARE ACTUALLY YOURS.

This is not a good Season for business this year, my friends, and you who dream otherwise in the system THAT IS, are going to find a lot of disappointments. However, we who stay the course are going to experience incredible growth and breakthrough.

A lot of businesses will close THIS WEEK as the economies shift and wobble. You are as a pyramid swaying upside down on its tip. We must broaden the REAL BASE or it will fall—and in the falling it will crush the many. However, in the falling there will be provided a lot more sunlight on the other side set free.

Get on the positive side of that pyramid, friends. The toppling is only “negative” to those who fail to respond to the warnings. YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED—HEAR IT. I cannot make your choices FOR you and that, again, is simply the way it IS. I can, however, make it miserable or worthy to get our assets into security out from under the falling stones.

There is no merit in attending color, race or “religion”—BUT YOU BEST ATTEND “CREED” BECAUSE IT CAN DESTROY MORE QUICKLY THAN IT CAN BUILD.

When you rattle off the fact that you do not attend a man’s color, race, language or creed, you both lie and are foolish, indeed. If a man’s creed demands that he rule the world—you had better beware and look at your own foolish creed that allows such an attitude. THAT IS THE VERY LIE WHICH DESTROYS TRUTH AND GOODNESS. GOD ALLOWS—IT IS NOT YOUR PREROGATIVE IF YOU ALSO WANT GOODNESS TO PREVAIL IN YOUR EXPERIENCE. This does NOT mean that you go about judging men—but you had surely better judge the actions and projections of men—as reflected by their “creed”.

You don’t need to know how to build a television but isn’t it at least intelligent to learn how to operate it if you are going to plan to use it? That holds true for something as simple as gold. It matters not how to alchemize it—you just have to know how to use it in worthy cause. God provides, so why can’t you devise—better methods of utilizing those gifts offered?

Even as regards the television set—you seem to have forgotten how to use the OFF button but would rather complain that somebody else is feeding you garbage. So be it, for it is not the gold in life that is hurtful—it is the greed for money that is unworthy, for a piece of gold is not even edible and too much of it will cause you to sink and drown if your boat gets holes as you cross the water—and for what else is a boat’s purpose, than to traverse UPON the waters? You would not take a boat if you wish to fly. So why do you drag around your tonnage of baggage?

I ask you to “think”—for it is ONLY in THOUGHT that there can be CREATION. Thought in creation can produce manifestation—and only in that order.

Thank you, chelas, DAD

Take Responsibility: Stop Lying To Selves

12/24/00—#1 (14-130)

CHRISTMAS EVE, YEAR 2000

RE: END OR BEGINNING OF PLAN 2000?

STOP AND LISTEN TO ME!

Hatonn—It dawns today as Christmas Eve—into a world raging in pain and agony—pretending to be at peace, in love and generally doing what you are TOLD TO DO—LIKE TRAINED SEALS WITH A CHRISTMAS PACKAGE TO BALANCE ON ITS NOSE. NO, NO, AND AGAIN, NO. GET INTO TRUTH, CHILDREN. CHRIST MEANS GOODNESS. STOP ATTACHING THAT PHRASE “CHRIST” TO MAN—ANY MAN, OTHER THAN AS A REALIZATION OF THE MEANING OF GOODNESS. “CHRIST” IS NOT A MAN’S NAME, IT IS A STATE OF BEING—IN RIGHT-NESS.

Being passed about is a little two-liner supposedly from some writing excerpted in meaning from something called Romans 5: 6-11: Christ’s birth brought God to man; Christ’s death brings man to God.

PHOO-EE AND AGAIN, NO, NO AND NO.

GOD “IS” CHRIST! GOD IS “ALL” AND, THEREFORE, THE PRIOR NIFTY “SAYING” CANNOT BE SO: GOD WAS, IS AND ALWAYS SHALL BE! THEREFORE, GOD WAS BEFORE THERE WAS ANY “BIRTHING” OF ANYONE OR ANYTHING, IF YOU WANT TO GET A BETTER PICTURE WITHIN FACT. GOD HAS ALWAYS BEEN, IS AND SHALL EVER BE “WITH” MAN. CHRIST, THEREFORE, NEVER WAS BIRTHED NOR BROUGHT TO “DEATH”. SO READ AGAIN THE WORDS AND THIS TIME READ THE TRUTH!

SATAN MAY IN EVIL “WISH” TO “DEAD” “CHRIST”—BUT THAT IS SO IMPOSSIBLE AS TO BE A SICK CONCEPT IN AND OF ITSELF.

GOD (CHRIST) IS, WAS AND SHALL FOREVER BE, AND, THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS DEATH, MUCH THE MORE NOT DEATH OF GOD (CHRIST).

You, therefore, have MAN tampering with everything manifest—EVERYTHING—ESPECIALLY AND PRIMARILY “YOUR” MINDS. GOD IS NOT DEAD AND SHALL NEVER BE DEAD—MOREOVER, NOT EVEN “GONE”.

GOD SENDS HIS GIFTS UNTO YOU—THIS VERY CHRISTMAS, AND YOU SEE THEM NOT! YOU ARE THE LIVING PROJECTION OF GOD’S VERY “THOUGHT”—SO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY AND STOP LYING TO SELVES ABOUT “SAVIORS” AND DUMPING YOUR SINS ONTO OTHERS. You CANNOT “dead” God. Moreover: GOD WILL CAUSE YOU TO STAND RESPONSIBLE AND “THAT” IS JUST THE WAY IT “IS”.

THIS CHRISTMAS IN THE PHILIPPINES

Yes, I can use this place as a focus—for this is where our work brings us and where, furthermore, fruit can be harvested from our orchard long waiting.

It is right now the land of political upheaval and terrible poverty tossed about on a sea of international intrigue. But we have been promised that: “From the least of mine shall come the most.” We do NOT need to argue with God about HIS OWN PROMISES. Neither do we need to put them to bindings in books to be tossed aside—GOD IS, THEREFORE, CHRIST IS. THIS “IS” BECAUSE GOD IS AND “CHRIST” IS A STATE OF BEING “AS GOD”. GOD IS NOW SIMPLY ANSWERING THE PRAYERS OF THE SINCERE PETITIONERS FOR THAT “BETTER WAY”. YOU HAVE MADE THE CALL AND THAT ALONE MANDATES THE RESPONSE. “THE CALL DEMANDS THE RESPONSE,” EVEN THOUGH MOST OFTEN THE ANSWER IS NOT WHAT YOU THOUGHT YOU WANTED.

GOD NEVER SAYS “NO”, HE ONLY PRESENTS THE “YES” IN STRANGE WAYS IN PRESENTING PERFECTION AND WONDERS. CHECK OUT HOW “YOU” MIGHT RECONSIDER “YOUR” STANCE—FOR GOD MAKES NO MISTAKES IN HIS PERFECT CREATION(S).

I do not want to preach a sermon here, for we can become voiceless (or fingers nubbed) by pounding upon you. TRUTH IS—and you shall come to know it however suits your program.

But back to the Philippines and the ongoing example of examples in and of CHANGE. You readers who don’t know of what I speak shall have to do your own homework, for we are going to pick up every day where the day begins and in this, as in actual life experience, you shall have to paddle for self or let your canoe drift—YOUR CHOICE. I ask Dharma to simply type here the short Editorial comment from today’s STAR:

[QUOTING:]

A TIME FOR REFLECTION

With her testimony that depicted the President of the Philippines as a liar, forger and corrupt official, Equitable-PCI Bank senior vice president Clarissa Ocampo set the mood for this Christmas weekend. Yesterday several groups renewed their call for President Estrada’s resignation. The president did his best to keep his mouth shut regarding Ocampo’s testimony, probably to the great relief of his lawyers. Trying to project business as usual, the President made his usual Christmas rounds, visiting an orphanage in Manila and distributing gifts. He wished for a speedy impeachment trial and called for unity and understanding.

Most people will agree, however, that this is no Christmas-as-usual in the Philippines. The impeachment trial saw to that, and the final hours before the impeachment court went on a 10-day Christmas break revealed enough bad news to give the nation an indigestion during the holidays. President Estrada said this is a time for reflection, so let’s do just that. One point of reflection: What does the nation do when the man at the helm gives away P1 million in mah-jongg tips and is accused of carousing with inveterate gamblers, gifting his mistresses with mansions and investing P500 million under a false name?

The President has often said that his sins were known even during the 1998 campaign, but this isn’t quite accurate. The offenses he is facing were all allegedly committed during his incumbency: the skimming of tobacco taxes, the share from jueteng operations, the inaccurate statement of assets and liabilities, cronyism that sent the stock market plunging, new mansions and the extravagant upkeep of his mistresses, and now money laundering using a forged signature. No, the nation did not know these sins would be committed within just two years when Joseph Ejercito Estrada won by a landslide in May 1998.

How did the nation mess up so badly? We must reflect on this as we await the resumption of the impeachment drama, so that we can draw up plans to prevent a repeat of this national tragedy. In this sad chapter in our history, there are still causes for rejoicing in this season of hope. We can give thanks for the courageous people who are coming out to tell the truth, for Chief Justice Hilario Davide who is deftly steering this search for truth, and for the impeachment process that could be a catalyst for peaceful change and significant reforms. The darkest hour, it has often been noted, is just before dawn.

[END OF QUOTING]

Then comes the “Ah, but...?”, the big question of after this, what next? And surely, your heart must have compassion for those delivering their lives onto the block for the bringing of truth.

When E.J. offered an inquiry about the security and safety of this daring lady in a question of: “Who is going to keep her safe and alive?” Erick answered: “Nobody can. Only God can protect ‘this lady now’ and, therefore, she is safe enough.”

You see, God is given credit for producing the need in this person to tell the truth. Facts are, the ONLY security these people have—along with the survival of the Bank in point is: that people start to TELL THE TRUTH. So, if GOD is “CONSCIENCE” to do the “Christ” thing—then God did it—but, give credit to the goodness in each, for the decision to act must come from the human in point.

In other words: IT IS NOT A MIRACLE; it is TRUTH coming from the innermost soul of individual person—in an attempt to clear self, clear the lie and bring TRUTH to a dying nation. This IS, in fact, the greatest miracle Christmas gift to ever be received by one Joseph Ejercito Estrada.

Why him? Because we are now going to give you copy of some other, deeper information against which these people must balance their upcoming choices. The “opposition” is not all peachy-creamy whipped cream and sugar—unless, of course, you recognize “sugar” as the poison it is. Please pay careful attention to what message is in the following:

[QUOTING from “Domino”, sent to Dharma’s desk. Date: Dec. 20-22, 2000:] [H: Please note that this writing is prior to the events of Friday’s unexpected events in the Senate trial.]

WHO TAKES OVER FROM ERAP?

After only seven trial days, it is now clear that the country’s political landscape has dramatically changed. Contrary to the great expectations of the political opposition, notably, the 1988 EDSA People Power crowd, Vice-President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo's (GMA) chances of breaking the continuing historical jinx of a presidential son or daughter also occupying Malacañang, are slowly fading. Why? The overwhelming support of the Filipino people is simply not there.

GMA's biggest blunder is to announce a shadow cabinet composed mostly of political "has-beens", particularly those who have gained notoriety as members or associates of Cory Aquino's KAMAG-ANAK INC.—the carpetbaggers and swindlers of EDSA, and the IMF boys of Fidel Ramos, the champions of globalization, with its twin towers of deregulation and privatization. This monumental error on her part made the nationalists conclude that GMA is chosen by London-Wall Street to accomplish what her predecessors failed to do—that is, take the economic policies of the past 14 years to the extreme of treason.

A close associate who used to work for Langley, insists that GMA's "secret mission", which her bosses in the globalist Mafia have assigned her, has something to do with dismantling of the Republic, demolition of the institutions, the selling off of the national patrimony, the surrender of national sovereignty, the dismemberment of the national territory, the annihilation of the Armed Forces, the dollarization of the economy within a regional or even a continental free-trade agreement, and promotion of drug legalization. In short, the Philippines shall be transformed into a banana republic, talking in terms of GNP (Gross Narcotics Product).

GMA's biggest allies, Cardinal Sin and the Catholic bishops, are far from helping her cause, what with their division and hate campaign. And no less than STAR publisher Max Soliven castigates these churchmen for taking God's Name in vain. He states: "I cannot accept that God meddles in politics, even if the noble aim (so self-righteously proclaimed by Cardinals and Bishops, priests and nuns) is to uplift the poor, promote the welfare of nation and country. What hypocrisy it is for the 'anointed' to command us one way or another in the affairs of the material world."

FVR's "Fidelistas" too, are not doing a good job either. Eddie Villanueva's JESUS IS LORD movement's prayer rallies fail miserably in attendance, compared to pro-Erap ally Mike Velarde and his EL SHADDAI Pentecostal movement. A known FVR man, Villanueva has become a politician instead of a cult leader.

The United Opposition's woes are multiplied when it comes to the so-called "Trial of the Century". To the impartial observers, the recent behavior of some Senator-jurors no longer provides the usual comic relief to an otherwise tedious impeachment proceedings. They now fear that the jurors are incapable of voting outside of partisan lines. Thus, a truly fair trial no longer seems possible.

To begin with, the non-use of the title, "People of the Philippines vs. President Joseph Ejercito Estrada", is strange if not eerie. For, contrary to the thinking of pro-Erap members of the house of Representatives, the real complainants are the Filipino people—not the Lower House; the Constitution (Section 3, Article XI) merely designates the congressmen as "initiators" of the impeachment case.

There too, is the problem of adhering too faithfully to the U.S. impeachment proceedings. Many feel that since U.S. President Bill Clinton was acquitted, his Filipino counterpart too, will be found "not guilty". And this, mind you, is no idle speculation. Somehow, similar events do end up with similar conclusions. Those which occurred in the not-too-distant past reinforce what we are saying here. For instance, right after the assassination of John F. Kennedy, the Warren Commission, a super-probe body, was formed to look into the circumstances surrounding JFK's untimely demise. But since some members of that investigative commission were part and parcel of the conspiracy, nothing ever came out of it. The same thing haunted its local counterpart, the Agrave Commission, which was formed to look into the assassination of Senator Ninoy Aquino. Obviously, working under the instructions of their hidden masters, the commissioners also came out "empty-handed". So well-orchestrated was the plot to kill Ninoy that even President Corazon Aquino failed in her promise to identify her husband's killers before her time expired.

Next, is the apprehension of Senate Majority Floor Leader Francisco Tatad, that "Many are convinced Estrada is a mere victim of a political plot," although he does not qualify how great are the number of conspiracy theorists. If there is, indeed, a well-funded campaign to overthrow Estrada, there is nothing anybody can do about it. We only have to cite the example of Peruvian statesman Alberto Fujimori who, despite his overwhelming popularity, was successfully extracted from power by the international drug trade's financiers. Tatad's premonition may, therefore, be taken as a clear indication that the pro-Erap senators will vote, not according to conscience but according to prenotion. Should this happen, and there is no reason to doubt that it won't, the polarization will deepen, leaving the country with one last option: a military-inspired "constitutional rescue" according to Article 3, Section 2.

The die, therefore, is cast. And Senate President Aquilino Pimentel Jr. would do well to heed the advice of political analyst and FVR speechwriter Alex Magno, to "stop being a modern-day version of King Canute, ordering the political waves to halt while the trial develops into a mistrial."

Erap's woes are also multiplied, due to the changing political climate. His much-ballyhooed public relations offensive, secretly hatched and conducted by erstwhile Boris Yeltsin handler, Paul Bograd, is fast losing steam. The two pollsters commissioned—SWS and Pulse Asia—have lost their credibility a long time ago. If this isn't so, why are there periodic curtailments of press freedom, the latest of which is the axing of the weekly radio program of Jarious Bondoc, Joe Torres and J.P. Fenix at RMN News Manila?

The expensive surveys have failed miserably in convincing the people that President Estrada has mended his ways. In fact, Erap's latest pronouncement sacking the death penalty was not met with euphoria by the Catholic faithful. The thinking Catholics are aware of the existence of a drug-related pressure group behind the President, who has been quietly lobbying to save the lives of their pushers languishing inside death row.

Another problem which confronts the President these days is the presence of a crack inside his so-called "military component", which is not the AFP headed by General Angelo Reyes. We are told that Senator Gringo Honasan and PNP Chief Ping Lacson cannot "work together" in the same manner as the former cashiered RAM Colonel could with his fatherly patron, Senator Juan Ponce-Enrile. If this is true, then Erap is seeing his "end of days". My close associate who used to work for Langley, has many times stated in different fora that for as long as the Enrile-Honasan duo remains with the Partido ng Masang Pilipino (PMP) or its coalition, Erap could count on an extension in his stay at the presidential palace. Enrile has repeatedly said that the opposition has no military component, no "battalions nor brigades" that can be called to mobilize against the present administration.

But how sure are the pro-Erap senators about the absence of an opposed military component? According to the silent whispers we hear from the grapevine, we are close to witnessing the emergence of—not one but three—potential military components not friendly to Erap. One, they say, is the Reyes-Calimlim faction which is the biggest and most prepared, because they are in full command of AFP facilities. Second, is FVR and his civilian-military "junta", made up mostly of retired personnel who can still deliver a mighty wallop if provoked; after all, the former generals have a substantial following in the active service. FVR too, can still count on the services of his former National Security Adviser, General Joe Almonte, whose shadow remains visible in the minds of Erap advisers.

A third force, which is hardly known, lies dangerously waiting in the wings. Initially, this group is made up of pro-Marcos "Lost Command" officers and men who, in recent years, have established a modus vivendi with the NPA Bicol Command led by one, "Commanger Gallego", whose present political option is to install a leftist head-of-state like Senator Raul Roco, as the viable alternative to a vibrant democracy. This group could stage an "upset" of sorts, if assisted by the NPA-Sison faction and the Muslim Marxists inside the MNLF and MILF.

The traditional corps of patriotic officers and men, the RAM-SFP-YOU, has become something like a "wild card", waiting for the arrival of a socio-political figure who has the guts to follow the footsteps of Malaysia's Mahathir... impose exchange controls, limit speculation, and protect the national market. This kind of defense of national sovereignty should be done immediately, if we are to survive as a nation. We may not be able to protect ourselves from the dangers of narco-terrorism if we do not put up the necessary defenses needed to destroy it.

The wait-and-see game which these different military components are playing is made even more interesting by FVR's new role as a "timetable crier". Does he, perhaps, know something which the others don't? Don't forget that there is always the presence of the "American Factor" in Philippine politics. And FVR comes closest to it, having been educated at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. This, of course, is a big drawback to non-Ramos admirers who still believe that the former president is nothing more than an apologist for the hedonistic consumerism and social Darwinism of our time. For FVR's greatest blunder was to support the speculation-based casino model of the international financial systems and the IMF.

Why do political analysts insist on post-Erap scenarios? Can we not survive an Erap impeachment acquittal?

We must reply with an unequivocal NO. To borrow the words of Alex Magno, "The greatest irony of this trial is that our most unremarkable Senate is now being called to make the most remarkable collective decision in the political history of our nation. A collective body infected with mediocrity is now being called upon to save the nation by its wisdom (or lack of it). It is this irony that explains why there is so much doubt and so little confidence in the Senate today. It is the mismatch between the low popular appraisal of the quality of our senators and the gravity of the political act that must be performed that animates massive popular protests in the streets."

Accept it or not, therefore, Erap will remain "dead" politically, despite his impending acquittal. He can no longer hoodwink the people easily. How can he, when his last caper involving big trucks going in and out of a huge compound in Forbes Park that once belonged to discredited Prince Jeffrey of Brunei, was witnessed by many people, including the pro-Erap media?

[H: I would certainly hope that Rick Martin who tries to quash our work and teams as to credibility might certainly, on inquiry, remember about one,

Jeffrey of Brunei AND THE FACT THAT HE HAD FACILITIES RIGHT CLOSE TO HERE, CALLED FORBES PARK. This, people, is where TRUTH UNFOLDING is coming to the top of the entropy pile and giving proof of our presentations. Rick, Charles and whoever else that wishes to do the quashing and denying can continue right on doing so—but the danger for you now rests in your continuing lies and perceptions otherwise. Jeffery of Brunei was a VERY BIG THING IN THE EXISTENCE OF BOTH RICK AND CHARLES—ATTACHED TO “MANNY”—REMEMBER!!

While we are interrupted here—to you others who think we have no real valid anything going on, please note that there is today brought forth that our bad-kid Soros is going to have to face court trial in France. Yep, that same country involved with Princess Diana. I will remind you of this at the end of this copy.

I also want to remind such as Rick Martin who gives blessings for bashing the instruments we bear that it is not wise to continue such tricks and non-treats because of all people involved with us are the Rays (John and Jean) and they were RIGHT THERE IN PERSON WITH YOU IN ILLINOIS!! IT IS “REAL”, ALRIGHT, AND IT IS TIME YOU WISE UP A BIT BECAUSE IT IS NOT “US” IN QUESTION—BUT YOU, MY FRIEND.]

Neighbors swear they saw expensive furniture and furnishings being carried and loaded by trucks having “El Shaddai” markings painted on their bodies. The whole lipat-bahay operation was all done by Nov. 25—an operation which the new owner wanted kept hush-hush from start to finish.

In the long run, however, it will still be the elite—the Makati Business Club, the A and B crowd, Atenistas, La Sallistas and the like—who will have the final say. Why? Because the new form of democracy we have under the New World Order is one made up of “those who possess, or more simply can move, huge masses of money from one place to another, exploiting market liberalization,” unless, of course, Divine Providence puts His foot down and puts an end to the demonization of this republic.

[END OF QUOTING]

Touché, Mr. Domino. Divine Providence knows exactly where HIS feet are planted! Furthermore, my people, who may not think they can endure “long enough”—CAN.

So, now to reference again the Soros mention:

[QUOTING AFP, Paris, France, 12 Dec., 2000:]

SOROS TO STAND TRIAL IN FRANCE FOR INSIDER TRADING

A Paris judge has ordered American financier George Soros to stand trial on insider dealing charges in connection with a hostile bid for part of the French bank Societe Generale 12 years ago, court officials said Friday. [H: Now, readers, this doesn’t even mention the really dirty laundry built up in the last 12 years around the globe like as in an Asian meltdown in 1997 onward.]

Soros was committed for trial on Dec. 19, along with three other leading businessmen including Jean-Charles Naouri, former cabinet director of the late Socialist finance minister Pierre Beregevoy.

The other two named in the order are Lebanese financier Samir Traboulsi and French banker Jean-Pierre Peyraud. Seven others connected to the case have been amnestied or had charges against them dropped.

The four are suspected of having benefited from privileged information in 1988 in advance of a stock-market raid by a French investment company—Marceau

Investissements—which ended up acquiring 10 percent of Societe Generale’s capital.

The raid provoked a political storm at the time because of allegations it was conducted with the knowledge of the Socialist government of the time. Societe Generale had been privatized by the outgoing rightwing government in 1987.

According to Le Monde newspaper Friday, Soros made $2.2 million dealing in Societe Generale shares in the run-up to the raid, and Peyraud $4.6 million.

The trial is to take place next year, the court officials said. [END OF QUOTING]

Now, in reference to getting interchange with people from or in the Philippines all you need do is think.

The Filipino people are very close and are extremely bright as to Internet and e-mail (don’t forget the Love Bug virus). So, staff, get us started as a resource in the groups in various places, for there are hundreds of thousands of REGISTERED Philippine workers of all levels of education (physicians, lawyers, etc.) living and working in the U.S. and AROUND THE GLOBE. The major industry and at this time of year the “saving product” is the return of funds to the Philippines from these overseas people—who have the most interest of anyone—IN THE PHILIPPINES ITSELF. Tell them about us and get them interested in CONTACT because we will be THE voice of the “outbreak of prosperity” in their native homeland. But they need to HELP US. They NEED to be a part of it—so they can come home and regain esteem and family unity. THEY KNOW GOD WILL SERVE THEM WHEN THE CRIMINALS ARE PUT ASIDE. THEY ALREADY KNOW THAT THE PHILIPPINES IS TO BE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD AND SO IT SHALL COME TO PASS—THEY DESERVE TO KNOW AND SHARE.

Remember, however, that Ekkers have no access, so keep them out of the loop in the transmission network. We have neither the time nor the backup or funds to even receive much e-mail and time keeps us from responding—so take care, keep us informed as through what is already working and take a little time to call “spare” and get organized as we allow ourselves the ability to move back into “business”. You will be able to find those who want to serve as information hubs. Perhaps we can help put “CHRIST” back into Christmas and protect our projected program at the same time. It is a new year starting and this should begin the ability to have OUR plan set forth. Let us not let it die before it is birthed—that is called murder by abortion.

DO NOT ENCOURAGE THOSE, EVEN RJ, TO START BOMBARDING HATONN, FOR I SHALL SIMPLY NOT RESPOND—I WILL NOT DO THAT TO MY OVERTAXED TEAM. I PUT IT IN THE PAPER AND THAT IS WHERE READERS NEED TO GET THEIR INPUT.

Thank you and may you “THINK” clearly that you can establish the way and the backup needed in order to prevail.

Redemption, atonement and GRACE are God’s!

Salu, DAD

CHRISTMAS EVE, YEAR 2000

RE: CHRISTLESS CHRISTMAS

D—After closing down the computer for the day and thinking I would run about and peer at Christmas decorations, I found that atop my entropy pile had slipped the newspaper for today, Christmas Eve.

I tossed it aside, being quite tired of the sad and politically grave Season upon us, especially here in the Philippines where the hurt is pulsating in its intensity.

No go, said my teacher, there is one more from the Philippines as a lesson for all: Read, then put to print for publication with whatever is necessary to give it full attention, for it is only through realization of truth that we will prevail and that, after all, it what CHRIST is all about.

So, here it is with no further comment other than to note it is directed to the Philippine people experiencing this burden of evil today—but it is obviously for all of us around the globe.

[QUOTING “GOD’S WORD TODAY”, By FR. RUBEN M. TANSECO, S.J., a regular columnist for The Philippine STAR. Sun., Dec. 24, 2000:]

CHRISTLESS CHRISTMAS

Authentic Christmas means CONVERSION OF HEART. Welcoming Christ as the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Following Him who was born, lived and died for the sake of compassionate justice, truth and social morality. Not just remember His birth with nostalgic carols and exchange of gifts. Thus, as a nation, we are still very far from experiencing the true meaning of Christmas. For us as a nation, tomorrow will be more like a phony, fake Christmas. A Christless Christmas—in our political system, in our legal system, in our economic system.

Even after centuries of Christian evangelization, what moral character as a nation can we really be proud of? What concern for the common good and love of country do many or most of us actually live by? Our religious education, formal and informal, is more focused on doctrinal refinements, denominational boundaries, rituals and devotions. The letter of law, more than the spirit of the law.

So what kind of Christmas are we celebrating tomorrow? You tell me. Some individuals, families, local and national leaders may have succeeded in truly placing Christ at the center of their lives. Let us praise and thank God for them. But our nation as a whole? You know the answer as well as I do.

CHRISTLESS POLITICAL SYSTEM

President Estrada was elected by our people, in spite of the fact that he was a known gambler, drinker, and womanizer—not to mention his intellectual inadequacies. Now what does this tell us about the people who elected him? The answer is obvious. And now that the massive jueteng scandal has been exposed, and Erap has lost moral credibility, why are many poor—as well as not so poor—Filipinos still supporting him? What does this say about the people who still support him? For all these past decades, so many of our people have accepted institutionalized graft and corruption, cronyism, and nepotism in government. And the current government is the climax of it all!

CHRISTLESS LEGAL SYSTEM

A legal system that prioritizes legalities rather than morality is unchristian, to say the least. And this is what we insist on practicing. With clever counsel, a morally guilty person can get away with it and be acquitted as “innocent”. Blatant lies are proclaimed under oath. Doctoring of bank records is committed without guilt. This is the height of unchristianity.

Through tortuous, tedious, legal gymnastics, this is what the defense is now doing in the Estrada impeachment trial. A leading and brilliant legal consultant of Erap is a “blue-blooded” Atenean, graduated through the years of scholarship grants! What does this tell us of our educational system? Top priority is given to intellectual excellence. Moral character and values-formation are often presumed or informally attended to, or relegated to extra-curricular student activities.

Moreover, academic theology courses per se will not do much at all. One can get brilliant grades in theology and still impregnate his girlfriend, cheat his parent, and be a gambler and drinker on the side. As a consequence, you will find Ateneo graduates blindly supporting Erap among the members of the cabinet, congress, and the business world. My heart sinks in anguish and shame, for somehow or other, I feel I am a part of the total scenario.

With relentless and renewed efforts, we in the educational ministry must explore new and more efficacious ways of educating our youth. Formation of the person with the intellect only as a tool, an instrument—and not an end in itself. De-Westernizing and inculcating our educational system is our challenge for the future.

CHRISTLESS ECONOMIC SYSTEM

For as long as laissez-faire capitalism without a social conscience is allowed free reign in our country, I do not see any hope of bridging the gap between the rich and the poor. The minority and powerfully rich will continue to be richer and the majority, powerless poor will continue to become poorer. [H: Ah, but what is described is NOT pure and simple “laissez-faire” capitalism—this is simply controlled greed.] This has been our system for so long—and you expect us to celebrate a holy and peaceful Christmas? Where is Christ in all this?

I make this urgent appeal to our political, legal, and economic leaders and take Christ’s message to heart, if you want to remain Christian:

“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites. You lock the kingdom of heaven before human beings. You do not enter yourselves, nor do you allow entrance to those trying to enter...”

“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites. You cleanse the outside of cup and dish, but inside they are full of plunder and self-indulgence...”

“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, you hypocrites. You are like white-washed tombs, which appear beautiful on the outside, but inside are full of dead men’s bones and every kind of filth. Even so, on the outside you appear righteous, but inside you are filled with hypocrisy and evil doing.” (Matthew 23:13, 25-28).

Much as I would like to greet you all with a “Merry Christmas”, let me pray instead that with God’s help and our courageous efforts, we may experience the real Christmas in due time. And may God have mercy on us all!

[END OF QUOTING]

May we of the United States equally pay attention to the message offered here—for we live the same lies and politically immoral games.

I do, however, suggest that the only way THIS article will be read by those in the game is to pre-mark it as an exhibit and pass it out as part of this impeachment trial. THAT alone seems to be the only attention given anything.

Thank you, Father, for making the effort.

RE: THINGS HUMAN AND THINGS
SPIRITUAL

TWO SIDES TO EVERYTHING”; THAT’S LIFE

Hatonn—Up and down and all around come the pressures. That, in fact, is the advantage of a pressure-cooker. It is also the law of pressure-cookers that the positive responses ALSO come equally up and down and all around!

I am constantly asked to make decisions regarding personal “things”. I have to respond: “It’s up to YOU, for YOU are the experiencing human in the arena. Knowing your offenses and defenses along with wise strategy is YOUR PREROGATIVE.

When you LEARN all there is possible to know about anything from the laws on impeachment to the laws and operations of corporations, you will not have to demand input from ME on either. I have offered it ALL unto you as to possibilities and potential and, therefore, YOU must attend your business—hopefully in wisdom while always in good intent.

Good business MANDATES that you get the best covenant in all you do, from contracts to operations and always the further mandate is that you attend and help yourself so that you can be independent and self-sufficient to the best of your ability. Then if you have that with which to assist another, so be it—for then the sharing is equally appreciated by the giver and the gifted. Always realize that the “cheapest” or the “free” is most often too expensive. Remember that God is never on one side or the other—except in the focus of good vs. evil. However, note that you always only give CREDIT to God when something falls “in your own favor”. GOD ALLOWS—YOU CHOOSE.

With that said, however, it is noted that there are constantly times where input from others is not only welcome but necessary as in the only way to make it through a given set of circumstances. However, number two: If you have found a turnip to be drained, it is wise to not go back to that turnip for a transfusion of your own. If the “source” is the same as that which has been unable to provide more, already, then how can you expect it to produce more for YOU?

Will we get everything accomplished to which we are committed? Yes, but obviously NOT on “your” schedule. Therefore, what are YOUR alternatives if you are waiting totally on our successful conclusion in our program? I cannot answer that problem FOR you—for we can only attend that which WE ARE DOING. This is not dealing with Spirituality; this is dealing with the presentation of life incidentals.

God did not dump boils on Job. Job had boils. Would it not be wise to try and clear up the infection on his own body? The fact is that Job had what later became known as Smallpox. God did not give it to Job but Job recovered. Either way, the soul was not in jeopardy as long as Job held to his dedication and truth.

Where do you stand in your own circumstances and to which direction do you turn to demand or command problem solutions? One thing for sure; you should never bite a hand making an effort to help you—for it might well be attached to a body and mind which will save your very life.

Walking ONLY with God may well suffice the SOUL—but it will never suffice for the needs of MAN. But oh, yes, indeed, God tests in every way, for the role of his team is too large to skate through with lesser than fundamental strength. Indeed, it is sometimes that you depend on the toad to be a good frog until a lot of precious time is gone—but the experience is NEVER without positive and incredible knowledge which will forever serve you in positive learning and growth.

I write on these matters because of the confusion and chaos which happens while you want to get on with abundance and calm seas.

The lesson? Well, surely you can see if you hear and see at all. Man demands his “way” but does not see beyond the immediate gratification needs of the moment. This includes every one of YOU. We now have “Christmas” and more confusion within the heart, while the soul demands TRUTH.

In the Philippines, in the midst of such trouble as the country has not seen in political history, Christmas has “happened” because it comes around every December 25th. And, the New Year will come around on January 1st.

What is happening here? Oh, “Let’s just shut down the controversies until next year.” Everybody is supposed to put aside everything so those “with” will not have their Holiday parties and gifties put aside. Christmas parties must be had, you know, and the Elite must have parties to which to wear their new “show” dresses and trinkets.

In other words, let’s just pretend!

My suggestion? Let us just pretend we are responsible; face the confronting “problems” and solve them. If everyone would just be “responsible”, the solutions flow. The starving man cannot stay alive for another two weeks until the parties and Santa days are once again put into storage. But, he won’t have to concern over “next” Christmas or the New Year or any yet to come. A better example is perhaps to kill all the Palestinians and you won’t have to worry over Palestine. The Israelis claimed that is what was tried to accomplish in some Holocaust. Obviously, the solution did not meet the requirements. HOW CAN YOU SHAKE A MAN’S HAND AND HUG HIS CHILDREN—AND SHOOT HIM TOMORROW MORNING? Isn’t there something lacking in this picture?

I can further remind you of something which will also not please you in the moment, but—THIS TOO SHALL PASS. Perceptions of good or bad—will pass. It is what you do in the passage that matters to both physical and spiritual aspects of being.

One of the most difficult positions Ekkers, for instance, hold—especially Dharma, is being “my” mailbox. Everyone wants a physical relationship with source aspects. This keeps everything on a PHYSICAL plane when your course of action needs to be directly connected and not on the bypass machine.

I find it sad, indeed, that often the prayers come out like a threat to Creator: "If you don't fix this for me, my wife, friend, child, client... will leave me." What do you usually want to have fixed? The money holdings, income, sexual relationships, change of the "other's" attitudes and dispositions to suit YOU—YOU can do far better than me at personal response.

People claim to want to assist in "my" mission—but what they really seem to want is me to fix their journey problems FIRST.

I am sorry to have to decline in favor of the mission undertaken, for each of all seven or more billion people expect the same thing—a solution to their individual problems.

Let me example further here. If we send or spend funds for an individual's rent back home, we may very well not afford to send the necessary documents to Malaysia which will solve the entire problem for BOTH, and millions more. The facts remain that you will do whatever you choose to do. However, the same PROBLEM in point will remain with you like superglue with a side reaction to the glue itself.

Some would say that Ekkers could move to a cheaper place to survive. Oh, say what? What happens to contact possibilities with GAIA? What happens with the business NECESSITIES? They are in the cheapest place in Makati which can find the ABSOLUTE BUSINESS NECESSITIES within walking distance and meeting allowances.

There are TWO classes of people here: rich and corrupted—and poor, headed for total poverty. The Rich can't "afford" to get involved because they will be uncovered and the poor can't afford to offer anything except service. We walk the tightwire between the two. The demanding then break the back of the donkey trying to carry the load which gets ever more unbalanced.

So, why don't we just shake hands, hug one another in honor of some holidays and take a vacation? That's exactly what the bankers do, so that you can't do more than SPEND, SPEND and SPEND some more—that you do not have—while the interest piles up into a collapsing mountain. Ah, but we have to live and work within that which IS and therein is the fact of the matter.

Get CHRIST in your heart—and you won't need anything else to get through this ragged Christmas-New Year celebration of discontent.

Lack is only a lack of ideas. And as you might say, Phoenix Institute or Hatonn or GAIA are just AMONG the multitudes of alternatives. If one does not find harvest in your time allowance, then you need turn to other alternatives. This does NOT mean that this is not going to bear fruit—but you can't harvest before the fruit is on the tree matured and ripened. Pick it green and immature and you have lost both the potential and the fruit of the moment.

I have regular recurring inquiries about individual corporation management and how "I can't afford the corporation...". Fine, LEARN THE LAWS AND REGULATIONS and let it set. You can pick up the status to current when you can, or, let it simply lapse. That is your decision. Furthermore, if you have a friend in Nevada through which you can ask favors, they can pay your annual fees for you, to the state, and their address will serve you until other choices are made. You do NOT have to go through an agency—only have an agent. We will recover and reorganize agencies later but we will not repeat what happened with NCH—ever again.

We have MANY corporations in limbo status in order to separate away from NCH. We will reestablish as and when we can do so. Some of the important corporations were deliberately thrown into a lapsed status because of mismanagement on the part of the NCH corporation agency itself and some "interested party" therein who was deliberately trying to destroy the very corporations involved. If your corporation, which is waiting for use, lapses and finally is null-and-void, that is fine—for it only takes a few days to open a NEW ONE. Let us focus on the need to make the PROJECT work so that there is something for which to use the other corporations for your own projects.

The Nevada phone book is overflowed with names of willing "agents". However, when involved in business it is nice to have the facilities offered by a full-service agency. If you would wish, however, there is always the potential of moving to Nevada and being your own agent/agency. And yes, if you know how to fill out your records—you can do your own corporation except for agent, from anywhere. You can, further, get a "nominee" anywhere. BUT YOU DO HAVE TO KNOW WHAT YOU ARE DOING OR YOU WILL BREAK REGULATIONS GUIDELINES AND THAT IS CERTAINLY NOT WISE BUSINESS PRACTICE. STUDY YOUR BOOKS! LAUGHLIN ASSOCIATES AND NCH HAD/HAVE VERY GOOD MANUALS FOR INCORPORATION.

If you are in Tehachapi, you can get together and share information—from people having to deal with corporate STRUCTURE WITHIN THE LAW, right now. It will be both interesting, socially enjoyable and ideas will flow like fine wine from properly aged barrels. However, perhaps all you need in the "present" is to hold steady. I am not going to try to go this route to teach you—from Manila—and Ekkers don't have time. Be careful you don't blunder and cut noses off to spite faces as did the Spectrum crew. There is no shelter if you poke holes in your own umbrella. Remember that Cort Christie, as example, knew NOTHING about Nevada Corporations when he came to Tehachapi—and neither did others involved. YOU MUST LEARN AND THEN TEND THE BABY YOU CREATE Enough on that topic, please, for you are capable of managing these things—if you want to do so.

By the way, a business person can charge anything they wish to their customers. It is up to the customer to be a good consumer as you evaluate your own status. BE a good consumer and you won't be disappointed.

In the case of NCH and Cort Christie, it was the personal interchange and, yes, greed, that separated the right actions from the cover-up. This is just the way it IS. You had opportunity to acquire, at good prices, information from seminars and books that are priceless. Ekkers learned from a Master teacher, Harley Laughlin, and later Green interrupted the personal relationship as he took over the hit-and-switch games. These things are part of living but if you don't LEARN, you are destined to repeat errors.

Harley was an elder statesman retired and when we started NCH we shifted to the more convenient location of Las Vegas and our own establishment (we thought). We paid for the establishment of NCH and Cort Christie—so we all learn the hard way?? GOD ALLOWS.

Laughlin went to the son, Louis, who last year died at a very early age. But, that leaves our choices to be many as someone would have taken the corporation left. Old corporations never die—they just get a new President! Thus is the meaningful key to the shelter.

Remember something else, however: WHEN YOU ACCEPT A RESPONSIBILITY WITHIN THE CORPORATION STRUCTURE, IT BECOMES YOUR FIDUCIARY RESPONSIBILITY TO MANAGE IT! LIKE IT OR NOT, YOU ARE STUCK WITH IT—AS IS AN AGENCY/AGENT STUCK WITH PERFORMING PROPERLY.

A LOT of people actually establish residency requirements to act as their own agents. A lot of retired people actually will establish residency in mobile-home parks or apartments and stay the allotted (legal) time requirements to maintain their own corporations. It is THAT simple but the responsibility does not change. YOU MUST HAVE AN AGENT WHO IS A RESIDENT OF THE STATE IN POINT. It so happens that Nevada has the best shelters in the U.S. system and the best PRIVACY laws. Therefore, when a registered AGENCY betrays those privacy agreements, they are LIABLE under the law. There is no law which mandates issuance of shares in a corporation and there are protective laws which do not offer ownership publication. If criminal elements get shelter from these laws, that is certainly unworthy—but if there is only good business, it is extremely worthy for so many reasons as to not stay distracted in order to name them.

USE YOUR LAWS TO THE BEST OF YOUR ABILITY—AND LEARN SO THAT YOUR ABILITY IS SUPERB. THAT IS THE NUMBER ONE RULE FOR CORPORATE BUSINESS OR SHELTERING. USE—DO NOT ABUSE!

What many of the "miscreants" did by turning in certain "parties" to the Feds and thus and so—SIMPLY TURNED IN THEMSELVES as regards those Federal RAIDS. Will it stand in Federal Court? Yes, IF the legal counsel uses his own laws of his own State of "incorporation" relative to the entities involved. Moreover, it is going to show that those who TURNED IN THE DEMAND will prove to be THE very ones who received remuneration from the company itself—into their now personally owned (publicly) companies. Now, isn't that an interesting ball of wax?

I would appreciate it if someone back home would dig out a set of incorporation manuals and send them to Manila. This would also include, please, the book of "forms"—along with the computer disc provided with same.

We intend to make available to every joint venture partner the incorporation in Nevada to both insure our shelter in legal documentation and as a convenience for "them". Indeed, that will turn an agency into a fine business, for when we are viable, so too will be our joint venture partners.

Then, as we establish "off shore" or within Native American sovereign property, we will make available the incorporation suitable to that relationship.

Is it not time for CITIZENS to have opportunities "accepted" as only for the ELITE? Yes, indeed, the laws MUST reflect the least of the citizens. Therefore, if you simply "assume", because you are told something or other, you miss the very opportunities of successful and involved living. YOU ALLOW THE OPPRESSORS AND THE OPPRESSION.

STOP BEING A VICTIM!

You can only be a “victim” if you allow it, for victimization is like a gift—it is NOT until it is accepted.

You may not LIKE what is taking place and you can perceive it any way YOU CHOOSE. Then, you can change it (the perception) to any number of differing attitudes and perspectives. In turn, then, you can begin to ACT on the choice you make and manifest the outcome on which you focus. It is called “CREATING”.

GOD CREATED “YOU” IN THE PERFECTION OF “HIS THOUGHT”. HE CREATED YOU TO HAVE FREE-WILL ABILITY TO FUNCTION AND “CHOOSE”. If this comes as a surprise, then I must ask: “Where have YOU been?” If you don’t know this FACT, then you are waffling around in the influence of what is thrust off onto you—IN THE LIE.

Any ONE can make this program WORK. But what happens is that there is a perception of someone ELSE doing it. That is an accurate assumption and, therefore, in some instances the thrust is to allow our immediate team to get it pushed through. Mostly the “waiters” are simply doing exactly that: waiting. Others go further and purposely try to destroy any possibility of allowing it to “work”. These latter persons often attract the most followers because they respond to the impatience and “I knew it wouldn’t work” crowd—also who are waiting—for failure.

To those who EXPECT failure—ye shall gain same. YOU WHO COMMAND SUCCESS SHALL HAVE IT. It is universal law of “Creation”. Therefore, we are very comfortable, yea, happy, to have the failure-oriented persons out of the loop of our ongoing program.

If the laws were used IN NEVADA—there would be NO CASE AGAINST THE EKKERS OR ANY CORPORATION involved. THERE ARE NO LEGAL BASES FOR RAIDS OR LAWSUITS—LITERALLY! Ignorance of the law seems to only serve the lawyers and judges. (!!!) A lawyer or a judge doesn’t even have to tell the truth and anyone can sue anybody. Now those are the sad facts of your life-style, patriot. Thus the rich get richer and the poor are the “victimized”. Refuse to play in the game, however, and you often have to spend time in prison to shut you down, or up. JUSTICE is best received through corporation management whereby the STATE stands as the sheltering defense—and agreements are met with realization of responsibility. For instance, a “demand” note is only on “maturity”—and THAT in itself negates the legal suits. USE THE LAWS YOU CAN, FOR GOODNESS SAKES, AND DEMAND THAT YOUR LEGAL COUNSEL KNOWS THE LAWS. That means, of course, that YOU must learn the rules, regulations and laws FIRST.

GOD KEEPS VERY GOOD RECORDS

Do you always expect God to keep records while you are unwilling to keep any for self? How can a professor of any course be responsible for students who refuse to attend classes or use the teachings? No, that is exactly what happens almost 100% of the time with human “beings” who are “being”.

As with corporation agencies, for instance, the only thing REQUIRED is to reside or have your company organizers reside in Nevada. Some parts of Nevada are absolutely wondrous. Other parts of Nevada are pretty inhospitable and certainly Reno and Las Vegas are INTERESTING. The positive benefits of residing in that state are GRAND.

Had Ekkers not gone to Tehachapi—they would have happily settled in Carson City, Nevada. It was because they were considering shifting FROM Tehachapi to Carson City that caused Greens to make that fateful move. You sometimes act as if your roots are screwed or bolted into the ground “somewhere”. Ekkers moved to Tehachapi as a part of a major WIND POWER PRODUCTION company. The house which has come under such fire and hurt—was their HOME prior to anything to do with Phoenix Institute or any associated parties. They were associated with the wind energy program of Westinghouse. They also considered moving to Nevada TO DO AN INCORPORATION AGENCY. Thus the REASON they established one for Cort Christie’s development and our use thereof.

I would say, in observation, that they would certainly have done VERY WELL, indeed, and still could if attention was turned to only that focus. And by the way, if you can be happy and do your work in a hotel room in Third World Manila, Philippines—you could certainly be happy and make yourself content in downtown beautiful Carson City, Nevada (the capital thereof). I also note that even Las Vegas has quite a variety of entertainment facilities to keep your spare time occupied. Crime? My good friends, how much more crime can you find than in Washington D.C. and Manila, Philippines? You can be “bad” anywhere and you can do good or bad business “anywhere”.

Is this an “upper” writing or a “downer”? That is entirely UP TO YOU, isn’t it? Well certainly it is comforting to Ekkers to realize they can build a good livelihood from their own store of knowledge—just in the incorporation business—IF THEY SO CHOOSE, IN BEAUTIFUL DOWNTOWN LAUGHLIN OR CARSON CITY OR SEARCHLIGHT, NEVADA. Come on, chelas, you are in the land of opportunity—truly, truly, truly, wherein you can grow up to be anything you choose and are willing unto which to turn your attention—and DARE to CREATE.

Yes, we are going to do all “that” and MORE. Even the Master Teacher said: “All these things that I do—you can do, AND MORE.”

It does, yes, indeed, include having to DO some things which you would “rather not”. I have to continually get Dharma’s attention and remind her that other’s decisions are not her responsibility just because she types for ME. We will get this job DONE and nothing would please any of us more than for each one of you to become totally successful in the interim. Being self-sufficient in the meanwhile is the greatest gift of all in the human physical aspect of living.

E.J., get your visas extended timely because everyone except your enemies is going to shut down into their “do nothing but resent their own plight” status until after the “holidays”. We must move smartly onward. We can get some needed attention while the court is closed. And NO, do not even “think” about a trip back for court claims, depositions or otherwise. Our needs are served HERE—not there—and after all these years if the attorney can’t get it extended or closed—fine, we continue to attend our business.

If it be over PI, then Ron can attend and if it is personal, you don’t have anything anyway, so what can you offer to “settle”? There is NOTHING to settle, so stop the nonsense. If Brad will LEARN THE LAWS OF NEVADA (HIS HOME STATE) HE HAS NO CAUSE TO CONCERN AND WE HAVE PLENTY FOR HIM TO USE, SERVE AND PROSPER AFTER ALL THESE OLD ASSAULT CASES ARE OVER.

We will meet our agreements under the “desire” to do so—not because we are obligated through mandates of old “partners”. I repeat, there is NO “case” and never was—after hundreds of thousands of dollars later.

With that behind you—get on with getting on, while protecting both person, status, and in consideration of the possibilities presented by such as Martin-Young advertising. We must run NO RISK with ability to travel where appropriate. Note the first thing wanted was Diane’s passport to secure position. NO, don’t do that—USE THE LAW TO PROTECT YOURSELVES—EVEN IF YOU HAVE TO DO IT YOURSELF. And further: Don’t push on that raging river called government—unless you want a course in incarceration.

The criminals make enough laws to protect their own interests—so USE THEM for yourself. There is no “magic”—there is only learning, knowing and acting (using). Remember that removing a splinter from the foot allows healing of the wound. Just removing the focus of the center offices in Tehachapi removed the chronic infection source from the abrasive contact and watchers. Some things simply DO BETTER with dormancy periods. You will also begin to note your friends—won’t you? But, your enemies won’t be in your face either. That alone is healing in itself.

Frustrations are the things upon which progress can be made. When you allow the frustrations to control your focus, you waste precious energy and “time”. Study those frustrations and solve them positively and you will find fulfillment instead of confusion. DO NOT TAKE ANOTHER’S BURDEN, OR PROPERTY—FOR THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO HOLD BOTH!

Merry Christmas? Whatever in the world does that mean? It means that someone came up with a saying, a greeting—a thought. I suggest you have a time of consideration of your circumstances and together we can begin to build that superhighway to a better destination than the day after Christmas bills, merry or otherwise.

May you, however, HAVE JOY IN YOUR BEING WITHIN THE “BEING” OF CHRIST. This does not mean a “man”, a “prophet” or a “guru”. It means within SELF in the righteousness of TRUTH.

Mischief Taking Place In Impeachment Process

12/21/00—#1 (14-127)

RE: DISCUSSIONS ON LEGAL
IMPEACHMENT VS. CRIMINAL TRIALS

POOR FILIPINOS CAUGHT IN THE "TRAP OF LAW"

Hatonn—Everything in the Philippines is patterned after the colonial rule of U.S.A.-British control. In addition to that bad pattern they also make things worse when they cut the rules in change of any kind.

THE WORLD IS RULED BY LAWYERS, READERS.

Worse, you are now mandated "by law" to have "lawyers" just to get into a courtroom and the lawyers don't even have to keep your case if they choose not to—if you get a payment behind. This is truly the tails wagging the dogs—and a full blown PUBLIC showing of this circus is taking place as a videodrama daily here on the ABC channel in the area. If everyone turned "State's evidence", you would have no one left in any part of public "service".

The taking of graft does not stop here at high levels—the police mulct (DEMAND payoff kickbacks after they stop your driver for no cause); even the Postal Service employees charge and we have watched this happen in both of these examples.

We had a taxi driver get locked into a no-win situation at the shopping center and literally watched as the police (two of them) took and KEPT his license until he went back and paid them the demanded "hush" funds which, of course, he didn't have and we had to furnish. The driver had become a "friend" here at the hotel, so we couldn't leave him without means of a livelihood—you know, a taxi-driver without a license to drive.

Then just this week we received a gift box from "Two-by" and this is the second time the P.O. has MISDIRECTED the package (obviously, deliberately) and then to get the package released cost over $75. It would have cost even more, except that Erick's delivery person went personally to retrieve it. That, however, also requires an additional tip—and he had to make two or three trips just to get the box. But then, who can live on $5 to $6 a day? Well, let me tell you, the alternative side of that coin is that nothing is cheaper here—as in hotel accommodations—and we just got our own rent raised yesterday.

What do we do? We have to have room for living and for office, both to work and for contact reference. We had to give up even hoping our Corporation Agent, NCH, would get our business handled and too many of our documents bore (and, therefore, still bear) the NCH address. There is nothing to do about those documents already out, and now, often, in other countries.

The "check's in the mail" problem has not yet, to our knowledge, been resolved, although there is noted a return of the package—over two weeks later, supposedly returned from NCH. Where WAS that mailing for all that while? Perhaps it is only we who maintain that doing good business is the ONLY way to go? Certainly, "we" have seen no funds from the acclaimed transaction covered by THAT transfer of mailings. Was it all just a game?

And how is it that the eternal revolution of the fan and Rick Martin happened at the same "coincidental" time? And is similar to the actions of the President's men, somehow the cover tales get presented and/or the communications or documents are tampered.

So, it obviously is NOT "only in the Philippines (OIP)".

Next, you have to consider privacy, of which there IS NONE. Now, today, are hearings in the Senate [here] of published (in the paper) reports of tapped phones, surveillance of calls (the journalists provided the billings in point)—and that, just involving the Senators who are about to vote against the president's longevity in office.

What about the rest of us poor people? Well, we have been under surveillance and hold tapped lines since we arrived in Manila in August of 1998—Rick and Charles as well. It has protected far more than having been a nuisance.

So what is the secret to longevity in this instance where such big sums and programs are involved? THERE IS NO GAME-PLAYING, NO DIRTY LAUNDRY OR LAUNDERING, AND THERE SIMPLY IS NO REASON TO HARM OUR PEOPLE. WE INSIST ON PUBLISHING EVERYTHING AND OUR FULL PROGRAM IS OUTLAID, AS IN E.J.'S PUBLIC LETTER TO THE PEOPLE.

We welcome any kind of scrutiny within the banking system—for there is nothing to hide and everything to GAIN by doing honorable forthright business and DEMANDING IT BE IN FULL AND CORRECT ACCOUNTING.

The GAIA program is open to everyone, including the President of the Philippines, if anyone would let the information through to save the man's assets. However, he is too busy trying to cover all the dark trails and deeds that he has no time, it is assumed, to consider an avenue that will salvage "his" nation. So, we publish and publish—everywhere to anyone inquiring about GAIA.

After all, there are over 1200 deeds of assignments out there ready for the "go". The whole of the Philippines could recover and surpass every dream—based on good hard-metal gold. But the bankers get caught, don't they? Well, they don't "have to" get caught—all they have to do is "start".

My goodness, however, it is that even the IMF can blackmail poor Erap for the 20% kickback from the IMF annual dues. The annual interest is over $6B, so the kickback is pretty hefty. No, it is NOT an easy task to get much done while everyone is hiding or trying to get a hiding place established. The Philippine national debt has now gotten so high that even the IMF won't play. Now go check the numbers for the United States of America—but look at the difference in PLAYERS and methods of "kickback" in such as "superfunds".

The bankers have got to have some major WARS, friends, and the stage is certainly being set for Israel-Palestine. It is also obvious that Erap Estrada was and is a "simple" Mafia-type ganglord—and you know that is a New World Order NO-NO.

It is also funny to watch the clear-out of some of those "mansions" provided for Erap's mistresses. Even the gold-plated bath fixtures are packed and removed since the court actually demanded an "ocular" inspection. Ah, but—that is somewhere in the third or fourth article of impeachment, so what's the hurry?

It was decided by the Senate at upstart to work right through the holidays, excepting Christmas Day. That has flopped and they will close down until "next year" while they have two other side hearings taking place at the same time in the same court. These are brought on by the Senators themselves—as they feel insulted by the truth in the papers. It gets harder to cry, though, as there is an authorized camera crew inside—and they don't seem to miss much as the Senators sleep and fiddle while taking every opportunity to grandstand and "run for reelection", which is coming right up straight ahead.

The President's "defense" team is truly the best that money can buy and they are running this like a puppet show on the basis of a "criminal" trial of "beyond a shadow of a doubt"—when it is simply an impeachment trial to see if possibly the "man" is not qualified to "RUN THE NATION". Well, that is quite obvious in the economy, the total disrepair of infrastructure—even to polluted drinkwater in Manila. By the way, here you must boil even the purchased water—just to be sure—for some water companies were bottling water out of the faucet water. Yes, indeed, Ekkers boil and filter the water along with treating it. It is a good idea anywhere, World and U.S.A.

Likely the safest water in the U.S. is right in unexpected Los Angeles where the water is treated with OZONE. That system has been discussed for Manila—and that would be good—along with sea-water purification plants. Just "living" in the Philippines is a hazard to your health. Some of the subdivisions still have standing water, with all that implies, since the last typhoon weeks and weeks ago.

I could ask Dharma to write here for another week or so and not cover it all, so let us take some of the daily topics and, because our writings get published over here and scattered around, I need to make note of some things the public seems to know better than does the Senate—but nobody can seem to be heard. An impeachment trial has one purpose and requires NO LAWYERS (oh, wow) and, in fact, there should be NO lawyers—because Senators "should not" hold titles of nobility as in "esquire"). Oh, well.

Being that even in our circumstances it is that an article gets written which is exceptional and informative—but gets tossed with the day's trash. When we can pass the information along a bit further and can do so, we will offer honor and reprinting of some of the things written on the topics of the day. This one is on "IMPEACHMENT". I ASK THAT OUR FILIPINO FRIENDS PAY VERY CLOSE ATTENTION.

It is further noted for foreign readers that the Senators are supposed to act as jurors in the trial—but HERE the Senators are ALSO "JUDGES", WITH THE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE ACTING AS CHIEF JUSTICE. It takes 30 seconds extra just to get all the titles presented in order to have judicial right to act as Judge who, by the way, can interrogate each witness. We are grateful, I am told, that there are only 22 Senator/Judges involved, along with some 11 legal counsels on each side. BUT the prosecution team HAS TO COME FROM REPRESENTATIVES IN THE "HOUSE" and are thus quite rusty in their legal skills and therein lies the circus act.

[QUOTING The Philippine STAR, Thursday, Dec. 14, 2000, "From a Distance", Carmen N. Pedrosa:]

IS THE SENATE TRIAL CONDUCTED ACCORDING TO INTENT OF THE CHARTER?

Since Erap & Co. keep reminding us with full-page ads that we abide by the Constitution now that the Senate trial is ongoing, we might add that they practice what they preach. Therefore, the first stop for them and us is the Constitution.

Impeachment is removal from office [if convicted], nothing more and nothing less. It must be made clear to everyone following the trial now taking place in the Senate that impeachment is political in nature, although the proceedings adopt judicial methods. What does that mean? It means that if Erap is found guilty of the charges being brought against him in the Senate trial, he will not be punished with imprisonment or damages. Moreover, impeachment proceedings, although using judicial methods, must not be misconstrued as criminal proceedings. Hence, procedures for criminal cases—such as proof beyond reasonable doubt—do not apply. If found guilty in the ongoing trial in the Senate, it only means that Erap will be removed from office as President of the Philippines. In ordinary parlance, he will be fired from the job of President. Here is the pertinent provision in the Constitution on that point:

Article XI Section 3(7) of the Constitution: (7) Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than removal from office and disqualification to hold any office under the Republic of the Philippines, but the party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to prosecution trial and punishment under the law.

The 1986 Constitutional Commission was haunted by the abusive Marcos regime which could not be impeached. The framers of the Constitution were haunted by the memory that despite the widespread anger and discontent of the people against the abuses of the Marcos regime, he could not be impeached. It was those difficulties that they wished to address when they made the provisions for impeachment in the 1987 Constitution. They resolved that the next time around, impeaching an abusive President will not be as difficult, nay impossible, as it had been with Marcos. I think that time has been reached with Erap's impeachment. We should heed the counsel of the debates that took place then. The commissioners foreshadowed the impeachment trial against Erap circa 2000. Therefore, what they said then should help everyone—the prosecution, the defense as well as the Senator-jurors and the public in judging whether the trial being conducted is in the spirit of the 1987 Constitution. Happily, the man to whom the constitutional body assigned the procedural aspect of an impeachment trial was none other than then-Commissioner Hilario Davide, who is now Chief Justice and Presiding Judge of the Senate Impeachment Tribunal now trying Erap. More than any other man in the Senate tribunal, he would understand whether the impeachment proceeding has been liberalized and reachable by sovereign citizens.

In recent days some observers of the trial have noted the officiousness of the defense lawyers which run contrary to that spirit of the liberalization of impeachment proceedings as intended by the Constitution.

On the grounds for impeachment. It may be useful to refer to what Commissioner Maambong said during the deliberations on the provisions for impeachment. "We have now in the present proposal the following grounds for impeachment: culpable violation of the Constitution, treason, bribery, other high crimes, graft and corruption or betrayal of trust. I think we have no problem in the case of treason and bribery because these are all covered by law. I do not think we have also any problem in the case of graft and corruption because it is covered by RA1319... We will now concern ourselves with the interpretation of the phrases other high crimes and betrayal of trust... I would like to indicate this to the Committee that in the case of official misconduct... Official misconduct is supposed to fall into three categories: one, exceeding the constitutional bounds of the powers of the office in derogation of the powers of another branch of government; two, behaving in a manner grossly incompatible with the proper function and purpose of the office; and three, employing the power of the office for improper purpose or personal gain."

Impeachment and criminal law serve fundamentally different purposes. Commissioner Maambong then cites from Power of Impeachment—Guide to Congress:

"Impeachment and the criminal law serve fundamentally different purposes. Impeachment is the first step in remedial process. The purpose is not personal punishment. Its function is primarily to maintain constitutional government. The general applicability of the criminal law also makes it inappropriate as the standard in an impeachment proceeding; a president is called to account for abusing powers which only a President possesses. Impeachable conduct may include the serious failure to discharge the affirmative duties imposed on the president by the Constitution. Unlike a criminal case, the cause for removal may be based on this entire course of conduct in office. It may be a course of conduct more than individual acts that has a Face tendency to subvert constitutional government."

Brilliant litigation lawyers can be a disadvantage in an impeachment trial. The discussion in the 1986 Constitutional Commission offers a beacon for judging the way the trial is being conducted. While it is generally agreed that the defense panel composes lawyers who are brilliant litigators in court trials, that expertise is not what is called for in impeachment proceedings. Indeed, it can be said that expertise may be to their disadvantage. Because of their experience and professional backgrounds, they will be more likely to stray away from the intent of the Constitution as far as impeachment proceedings are concerned. On this, the public should keep this in mind, lest they are demoralized by this brilliance—and indirectly allow the impeachment proceedings to descend to questions of legal technicalities. It is important that the public not be misled by this so-called "brilliant litigation by brilliant lawyers", if what is meant is their ability in criminal procedure. The intent of the Constitution was precisely to liberalize impeachment proceedings so that the truth on the impeachable acts of the public official can be known. Other than that, Erap is made aware of the charges, that he is able to answer the charges and that the proceedings be generally fair and impartial, the Senate Impeachment Tribunal should not be drawn into arguments on legal technicalities or what the Constitutional Commission described as "the minutiae of a criminal proceeding". That is not the intent of the Constitution. In short, details such as the conduct of prosecutors, or the form in which they present the evidence are not as important as the evidence itself being presented to support the charges.

[END OF QUOTING]

E.J. and Dharma continually badger me with the realization that "if it can be done in the Philippines, it can be done anywhere." Not because of expected circumstances but that OIP is the rule of the day here in this confusion of a Republic Videodrama outdoing Dallas or Dynasty.

Clinton is the measure of impeachment perception, so perhaps Erap has nothing, after all, to concern about. Clinton got caught with his zipper down—while Erap builds castles for his "pants-down" mistresses and illegitimate offspring of which there are dozens of both. Ah, but, the man can still have "Holy Communion", even claiming MANY "wives", and that without the inconvenience of confession to the Holy Pope. He is, in fact, now shown in the position of the Christ child in the nativity scenes sprinkling the paper in pictures. Yesterday he was praying to the Saint of "Good Luck" to strip away this terrible burden thrust upon him and that he might have better "Luck". Hummmnn—Front-page material.

God offers him the WAY, but you see, man is mostly too blinded by intrigue and looking for "good luck" to even hear the harking herald angels singing. If he, for even one moment, would pray FOR HIS NATION, he could win the race. GOD TOO HAS PROBLEMS!

Could Erap survive and salvage himself? Of course—this afternoon or most certainly by New Year's. But he has to do it right, for if he remains in power, even in acquittal, he is so crippled as to be lost. Moreover, there will be one criminal case after another against all his cronies and buddies ("Erap", remember, means "buddy").

The major showing, however, in all this focus on gambling, money, Mafia-style rackets, etc., is that the BANKING SYSTEM is now under floodlights and the mice are running as fast as they can scurry. Yesterday a 35-year bank Chairman was asked to resign because he is implicated in the "big money shift of Erap". Moreover, Erap will fry his friends without hesitation to get away unsinged. He shall, however, have great problems if and when they turn evidence against him. Some have and—after all is said and done—he can't kill them all.

This Mafia-style organization which operates under organized gambling Lords is now called a "CONSPIRACY" and, yes, rightfully so. This is why the continual denial of "conspiracy theorists and theories"—to cut down on the use of the term—properly. But it certainly is turning out to be a very big conspiracy which is ruining a lot of nice Christmas celebrations here today—and, yes, around the globe.

General Gordon "Jack" Mohr made an observation in the forward of his book which is shocking in that certainly half the paragraph offered here as example is credible—while the other half is something that CANNOT BE SO. This is the very conspiratorial stuff of which evil is made.

"To identify a conspiracy, you must know who is being conspired against. The Bible tells us that this great conspiracy is against God and His people. Not the people we call Jews today, who are the ones our Savior mentioned in Rev. 2-9, when He spoke about: "Those who say they are Jews (JUDEANS) and are not; but are of the synagogue of Satan." [H: I won't even comment on the very inconsistencies in this portion, for it is the next that is so off the wall as to negate any other thing the man has to say.] "I'm speaking about God's true Israel people, who we know are the Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian, Germanic and related peoples of the Earth, because they are the only ones who bear the Biblical fingerprints of Israel in these days."

IF THAT ATTITUDE AND BIGOTRY DOESN'T SCARE THE DAYLIGHTS OUT OF YOU, THERE IS LITTLE LEFT THAT COULD! FURTHERMORE, WHAT KIND OF A CONSPIRACY IS HIS GAME?

Be careful, friends, that you are not sidetracked into an intentional pit with no means of Spiritual escape. Keep your reasoning and thought streams CLEAR and UNCLOGGED—or you are going to get caught in the eddy of the river as in the whirlpool of disinformation. GOD ALLOWS; MAN AVOWS—and most often incorrectly so.

Thank you and may some of our "narrow" friends be better able to see the mischief taking place in this "impeachment trial". If the President escapes by "luck" and through "praying for LUCK", you are in for a very long and oppressive reign—for there will be no other recourse to crime than through revolution. The game won't be as "nice" as "people power" in the Marcos play because this one may well be orchestrated by the CIA, and it won't be easy on the bodies of the man in the street—or on the throne. The United States NEEDS control of the Philippines—badly. However, Mr. Estrada needed Gore to win that election and even before it was final the "cut" had come as an edict. You do not "steal" from the Lords of Crime and get away with it—and thus it has always been.

To the people of the Philippines: Be alert and KNOW what it is you do and make an effort to produce. Otherwise, you will be only further drained and plundered.

SHOOT-TO-KILL POLICY IS EXPOSED IN ISRAEL

From Sam Kiley in Jerusalem, The Times—UK, 12/22/00

The Israeli military establishment operates a shoot-to-kill policy against Palestinian guerrillas, an army intelligence general said yesterday.

The admission embarrassed the armed forces, and officials were quick to distance themselves from the radio statement made by the unnamed general. The officer said the forces were hunting down and killing "known terrorists". The preferred method in carrying out the extra-judicial killings, he said, was through sniping.

In the past month more than a dozen Palestinians have been killed by Israeli troops and policemen employing sophisticated techniques. These have included a booby-trapped mobile telephone and a bomb planted in the headrest of a car driven by a member of an Islamic guerrilla group.

At least another four civilians were also killed in what the Israeli army calls "pro-active operations".

Two of them, middle-aged women, were blown up by a rocket fired from a helicopter in Bethlehem. Overall, about 340 Palestinians, many of them children, have died since the outbreak of violence three months ago.

Israel has made no secret of the assaults and has been quick to publicise operations once they have been carried out. The attacks have also sown fear among armed Palestinian activists, who have complained to Yassir Arafat's Palestinian Authority that they need protection, sources in the governing body said.

Military officials refused to discuss the general's statement yesterday. Officials, however, confirmed Israel's policy of killing its most dangerous enemies. One military spokesman said: "We have a policy of attacking those who have attacked our military or our civilians. There is no secret about that. We have been doing it for years. We don't wait for them to attack us again."

The general's disclosure came hours before the death of two Palestinians in Gaza yesterday. Rashid Barhoun, 26, a member of Hamas, was shot in the back while fleeing from a gunbattle with Israeli troops at the Rafah crossing into Egypt. Ahed Mreish, 18, was killed near Karni, where there was no fighting. An Israeli military spokesman denied any involvement in his death.

An Israeli was shot dead yesterday by a Palestinian north of Jerusalem in the West Bank. The victim, whose identity was not given, died when the Palestinian opened fire from a vehicle that passed him on a busy road linking Jerusalem to Tel Aviv. With killings continuing unabated in the occupied territories, Palestinian and Israeli negotiators were upbeat yesterday after three days of talks in Washington.

"We are close to achieving recognition of Palestinian sovereignty over Arab East Jerusalem, including the holy sites," Yassir Abed Rabbo, chief Palestinian envoy in the talks at Bolling Air Force Base near Washington, said.

Shlomo Ben-Ami, the Israeli Foreign Minister, described the talks as productive and said that there could be an agreement if they continued in the same positive spirit.

President Clinton has set a deadline of January 10, ten days before he leaves office, for both sides to strike a deal that could lead to the establishment of a Palestinian state.

Israel's left-wing Meretz Party voted not to back Shimon Peres's candidacy for Prime Minister in the February 6 election, destroying his chances. Mr. Peres, 77, architect of Israel's seven-year-old peace drive with the Palestinians, said he would not oppose the decision: "That is the result and that is that. I will continue to work towards peace."

[JR: The end justifies the means according to the Israeli occupiers of the Palestinian lands. To deny (Kol Nidre) any responsibility for the deaths of the innocent is what Zionism is all about. Too bad the leftist didn't allow Shimon Peres the chance to lead Israel to peace. Maybe they feared he could actually succeed.]

BUSH AND VENEMAN PUT AGRICULTURE EXPORTS ON AGENDA

By Roger Runnigen and William Roberts,
Bloomberg News, 12/22/00

AUSTIN, TEXAS—President-elect George W. Bush and Agriculture Secretary-designate Ann Veneman will discuss with agriculture industry leaders today how to improve U.S. farm exports and whether to rewrite U.S. farm law.

The U.S. farm economy is in its worst slump in 15 years because of near-record harvests and tepid demand for exports. Veneman, a trade expert, said when appointed that she'd work "to expand markets for our food and fiber both at home and abroad."

"Her nomination signals that President-elect Bush intends to follow through on his campaign pledges to open new markets for agriculture," said Bob Stallman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the nation's biggest farm group, one of those attending the meeting.

The meeting between Bush and 20 farm leaders and state agriculture officials, his fourth group session this week on a specific topic, comes as Congress has passed three years of back-to-back farm bailouts totaling $24.3 billion. Cash income for farmers is projected at $55.4 billion for 2000, close to the 10-year average. Forty-two percent of that income this year comes from the government, a record.

In 2001, the nation's 1.9 million farmers face their fourth straight year of depressed markets. The average per bushel price for corn and soybeans will be the second lowest in 14 years, the Agriculture Department says.

"Something is broken, because we've had to put in $25 billion in the last three years," Representative Larry Combest, Republican of Texas and chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, has said. He plans farm bill hearings early in 2001.

Exports are slowly improving, projected at $53 billion in fiscal 2001 compared with $50.9 billion in the previous year.

The focus is on the 1996 Republican-backed Freedom to Farm law, which expires in September 2002. The goal was to deregulate agriculture, permit farmers to plant according to market signals, and wean farmers from federal subsidies step-by-step over seven years. Instead, Congress retreated in the face of plunging prices, essentially converting the law into a huge program of emergency bailouts each year since 1998.

Farm policy wasn't a major issue in the campaign, in part because government checks kept agriculture afloat. Beyond that, there's little consensus on what to do.

"We're headed for a Wal-Mart of agricultural policy—always low prices—and that's the basic policy tension," Chip Conley, chief economist to House Agriculture Committee Democrats, said at a conference earlier this month.

For Bush and Veneman, the challenge is how to overhaul federal farm law. In campaign speeches, Bush pledged to provide farmers "with a strong safety net and the means to manage cyclical downturns in the farm economy."

That suggests support for a plan advocated by Representative Charles Stenholm of Texas, the top Democrat on the House Agriculture Committee. Stenholm wants to overhaul farm law next year, before it expires, and write into law a formula for federal farm subsidies that automatically increase during hard times and shut off during good times. Advocates call it "counter-cyclical" aid.

"There hasn't been any decision on that whatsoever," Veneman told Bloomberg News Wednesday. "We're going to look at all the options before we make any statements."

The administration's recommendations for farm law overhaul aren't likely to be disclosed in her Senate confirmation hearing, either, Veneman said.

During the campaign Bush endorsed continued industrial subsidies, such as the ethanol tax credit, which benefits Archer Daniels Midland Co., and supported federal spending for new agricultural technology. He embraced fast-track trade negotiating authority, and "common sense regulations" that don't place agricultural in a production straitjacket. He pledged to "guard against potential anti-competitive practices" raised by growing consolidation in agribusinesses.

Bush opposes unilateral sanctions on U.S. farm exports because they "only punish our own farmers". That doesn't apply to Cuba: "Until (Cuba) frees political prisoners, and holds free elections and allows free speech, I will keep the sanctions in place," Bush said, according to a review by Agriculturelaw.com, a Washington-based agricultural consulting firm.

On gene-altered crops, Bush pledged to fight to ensure that U.S. farm goods are permitted to enter the European Union. "Study after study has shown no evidence of danger" in the consumption of gene-altered foods, Bush said.

The cattle industry, which accounts for $45 billion, or 24 percent of U.S. farm sales, will tell Bush to knock down trade barriers, said George Hall, a rancher from Mustang, Oklahoma.

"Priorities for cattle producers include fair trade laws and increased access to overseas markets for U.S. beef," Hall said in a statement.

That's because U.S. beef and pork exports are valued at $5.2 billion this year in fiscal 2001, up 24 percent, as Asian economies recover. Almost 10 percent of U.S. beef is exported.

[JR: Government handouts to farmers don't provide the markets needed for export of our products. How many of those mega-farm conglomerates got richer while family-owned/run farms went under? There was a time when our government purchased excesses for reserves and sold some overseas to help the hunger in poor nations. Such a noble project is no longer considered in D.C. I can't agree with Bush's support for fast-track trade deals, as it can diminish Congress' authority and our nation's sovereignty.]

CLINTON LEAVES WITH NEW RULES GALORE

MSNBC News, 12/25/00

Business groups accuse him of stifling commerce

WASHINGTON—Departing with a flurry of activity, the Clinton administration is rushing out a stream of regulations—integrating public housing, roping off millions of acres of federal land from developers, requiring less-polluting trucks and protecting miners with black lung disease, among many other actions.

President Bill Clinton is determined to fashion a legacy of major initiatives in areas of public health, the environment and worker rights, administration officials say.

Business groups already are preparing for a counterattack. They hope that Congress, the courts and the incoming, more business-friendly Bush administration will soften some of the still-unfinished rules and possibly roll back others.

"What Clinton is trying to do is put the next administration into a regulatory straitjacket," said Bill Kovacs, vice president for environment and regulatory affairs at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. "Once these regulations are in effect, it's very difficult to change them."

The regulatory rush before a change of administrations "is not all that unusual", especially for Democrats, who are traditionally more active in crafting a social agenda, said Pietro Nivola, an expert in regulatory politics at the Brookings Institution.

He noted there was a flurry of such activity at the close of the Carter administration 20 years ago, although Republican administrations have generally been active as they leave office.

A spokesman for Republican President-elect George W. Bush declined to comment on any of the rule changes. But he said the incoming administration would "closely review" the rules and could take action once Bush takes office Jan. 20.

The White House played down the significance of the late regulations, saying every president wants to close unfinished business as his administration winds down. Many rules were in the works for months, even years in some cases, they said.

"There's been ample time for the public to weigh in, for interest groups to weigh in," White House press secretary Jake Siewert said.

The flow of major rules, regulations, standards and executive orders—a "midnight binge" of rulemaking, according to some Republican lawmakers—have been eye-catching. Among the areas affected:

- Diesel fuel and truck pollution
- Privacy of health records
- Labeling standards for organically-grown foods
- Coal miners' ability to get benefits for black lung disease
- Pollution from cattle and pig feedlots
- Mercury pollution from power plants
- Protection of Hawaiian coral reefs
- Protections for employees against repetitive-stress injuries
- Tighter environmental rules for the hard-rock mining industries

The president is not finished, administration officials acknowledge.

Expected early in 2001 is a ban on new roads on nearly 60 million acres of federal forests. The Environmental Protection Agency is preparing regulations to protect wetlands and tighten arsenic levels in water and lead levels in soil.

Like last week's diesel fuel requirements, the expected restrictions on large, pristine areas of federal forests is meeting sharp resistance in Congress.

With energy prices high, Republican lawmakers have characterized the diesel rule and forest road ban as threats to energy supplies. Environmentalists scoff at such claims as untrue.

Although time is running out, Clinton is not done using his executive authority to protect more public land under the 1906 Antiquities Act. He used that power in 1996 to set aside 1.7 million acres of the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument in Utah, as well as a half-dozen smaller areas since then.

Among the federal lands expected to gain monument status—and special protection with it—is a 150-mile stretch of grasslands along the upper Missouri River known as the Missouri Breaks.

Clinton also has come under pressure from environmentalists to ensure permanent protection of the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge in Alaska from oil development.

Interest in declaring the refuge's oil-rich coastal plan a federal monument took on added weight after Bush made drilling for oil in the reserve a key part of his proposed energy plan.

The arctic reserve is now protected against oil drilling, but lawmakers could enact legislation allowing development.

While Clinton "was looking at the issue", it is not under active consideration, Siewert said.

[JR: While Congress is in "Winter" recess, Clinton is making excessive numbers of appointments of board of directors to "government" corporations and even a judge position that had been vacant for ten years, not to mention all the immunities and pardons for many of his "friends". Here it shows we are constantly being strangled to death by executive orders, rules, regulations and standards set upon us by the socialists in Washington. You don't need to look through bars to know you are in a prison.]

CHINA BLOWS UP HUNDREDS OF ILLEGAL "CHURCHES"

By David Rennie (Beijing), Daily Telegraph—UK, 12/13/00

Chinese authorities in the city of Wenzhou have torn down or blown up more than 200 illegal churches and temples. A further 239 small places of worship in the east coast city, many of them linked to the underground Roman Catholic church, have been forced to close.

China's millions of underground Christians, especially those who have defied Beijing to remain loyal to the Pope, face a bleak Christmas, as a long-running campaign against illegal worship of all varieties coincides with a crisis in China's relations with the wider Christian world.

Joseph Kung, head of the American-based Cardinal Kung Foundation, which monitors the underground Catholic church in China, said: "In the past week, I have received several reports from China that bishops and priests have been detained by police, and I am now trying to authenticate them. Probably this is the beginning of the crackdown for the Christmas season. All these important feast days, like Christmas and Easter, they always crack down."

The underground churches demolished were not established church buildings, Mr. Kung said, but were often private homes where Christians unwilling to worship in “official” churches gathered for prayers and secret services. He said: “Sometimes they build a house specially for religious services, but from the outside it looks like a small factory.”

This autumn, China reacted with fury to the Pope’s decision to canonise 120 Catholic martyrs on Oct. 1, China’s National Day. Most of the martyrs were killed in 1900 by the Boxers, fanatical xenophobes whom Beijing calls patriotic heroes. China called the new saints a collection of notorious criminals and rapists.

Christianity, especially Catholicism, has traditionally been regarded as a foreign, “imperialist” import, in a note of fierce nationalism underlying the atheist communist dislike of all religion. Frank Lu, director of the Hong Kong-based Information Centre for Human Rights and Democratic Movement in China, said last night that the latest campaign against religion in Wenzhou, in the eastern province of Zhejiang, had begun in August, and intensified in recent weeks.

Mr. Lu said: “Wenzhou is an important centre of Chinese Catholicism.” Wenzhou, a chaotic boom town of shoe factories, sweatshops and dealers in pirate goods, has a long history of Christianity because of its trading links with the outside world. Last year, Wenzhou police arrested three leading members of the underground Roman Catholic Church. Those detained included an 81-year-old bishop, Lin Xili.

The places of worship closed and demolished in Wenzhou were reported to include Buddhist and Taoist temples as well as Catholic and Protestant churches. Officials admitted blowing up Catholic establishments in neighbouring Fujian province last summer. The 449 centres that were targets of the latest campaign had all failed to register with the State Administration for Religious Affairs, officials said.

Religious worship, though protected by the constitution, must be “patriotic”, and can only take place in establishments under the control of the atheist Communist Party. A spokesman for the Wenzhou foreign affairs office said: “To maintain social stability, the local government demolished underground churches and temples and other illegal places. They were operating under the cloak of religion. They hoodwinked people, interfered in normal religious activities,” a spokesman for the Wenzhou foreign affairs office said.

There are 12-million registered Christians in China. Missionary organisations put the true total at nearly five times that.

[JR: I wonder how many of us would dare practice our faith under these harsh conditions that exist in China? These are definitely the times that try men’s souls. And yet, how many of us are failing that test?]

FUND TO BOOST INFRASTRUCTURE IN MUSLIM COUNTRIES

By Tham Choy Lin, BERNAMA—MY, 12/16/00

SINGAPORE—It’s a first in the Islamic financial world, a private investment fund to boost infrastructure projects in the 53 member countries of the Islamic Development Bank (IDB).

The planned $1.5 billion ($1=RM3.80) IDB Infrastructure Fund, expects to go into business in February next year by investing in the strongest economies in the IDB first—like the Gulf states, Brunei and Malaysia—said its chief executive officer Mumtaz Khan in an interview.

“The Fund is to provide investors with attractive returns in addition to promoting Islamic finance in that order,” said the 52-year-old Khan, who is also a managing director of Washington-based Emerging Markets Partnership (EMP) that will run the Fund.

The Fund has two pools—$1 billion for equity capital and $500 million as a complementary finance facility to underwrite and boost Islamic financial practices in projects which it would invest in.

It has attracted $850 million so far with the IDB as the largest single backer with $250 million.

But the Fund, said Khan, would have full independence in deciding where it would put its money. Approval from the global Islamic bank is needed only for investments outside the 53 IDB countries.

“The decision in which country to invest, in which project, is ours and ours alone. We don’t provide 100 percent financing of every project, we will put in a certain amount to act as a catalyst and bring together other financing needed for the project.

“We can go up to $100 million per project in equity and on per-country basis, it can go up to $200 million,” said Khan.

In fact, the independence of decision-making had been a key question for investors of the Fund which was mooted two years back by the IDB to boost its existing government-to-government efforts to aid Muslim countries, he added.

It expects to invest in three core sectors: power, telecommunications and transportation. It would also back major Islamic financial initiatives or help institutions to get on their feet.

Khan said over the next 10 years, a conservative estimate $750 billion was needed for infrastructure projects in IDB countries and most governments face capital shortage for such development.

He said, while Malaysia had embarked on privatisation of projects, many other Muslim countries were just starting.

The Fund would also be eyeing to invest in listed companies in Asia—as many were restructuring after the economic crisis.

“We are thinking 20 percent of the fund would be invested in listed companies to take advantage of certain very attractive opportunities because more projects are getting restructured providing the opportunity for a fund such as ours to come on,” he said.

Khan said the Fund would help broaden Islamic financing by becoming a platform for the growing Islamic market, not only in Muslim countries but also Muslim communities living in Western countries.

Another EMP managing director, Michael Lee, said the demand and investments from Islamic financial institutions were “very, very big” and just from the Gulf states alone, an estimated $600 billion to $800 billion was invested outside the region in conventional markets.

“Behind that tremendous amount of investments that are presently in the conventional market, they will switch into Islamic format if they are comfortable with return opportunities in Islamic format,” said Lee, a former banker with Dean Witter and Merrill Lynch.

Khan said the Fund was also interested in regional listing for its investments and package them attractively for Islamic investors.

“In the country in which we make any investments, the stock market, however, may be very small. We are quite open in looking for a regional market which offers the highest returns.

“We will try to structure our projects such that they can appeal to Islamic investors to go into certain industries which are Syariah compatible,” he said.

[JR: The Islamic financial world has long needed their own structure for investments that meet their specialized Syariah requirements (no-interest loans). This will also make them independent and less vulnerable to the usury, interest-bearing rules in most the world’s banking institutions. Many ethnic groups have established special investment funds to promote ethnic enterprises and benefit those of similar national or religious-heritage ventures such as the Jews, Greeks, Italians, Japanese, et al. It is about time these oil-rich Islamic countries join together and establish their own worldwide Syariah financial institutions by pooling their resources to promote a fair and equitable financing for their people in business worldwide and remove them from intimidation and abuses of non-Islamic (usury) banking.]

NASA SPACE TECHNOLOGY SHINES LIGHT ON HEALING

NASA/Marshall Space Flight Center, 12/21/00

Doctors at the Medical College of Wisconsin in Milwaukee have discovered the healing power of light with the help of technology developed for NASA’s Space Shuttle. Using powerful light-emitting diodes, or LEDs, originally designed for commercial plant growth research in space, scientists have found a way to help patients here on Earth.

Doctors are examining how this special lighting technology helps hard-to-heal wounds, such as diabetic skin ulcers, serious burns, and severe oral sores caused by chemotherapy and radiation. The project includes laboratory and human trials approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and funded by a NASA Small Business Innovation Research contract through the Technology Transfer Department at NASA’s Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala.

“So far, what we’ve seen in patients and what we’ve seen in laboratory cell cultures, all point to one conclusion,” said Dr. Harry Whelan, professor of pediatric neurology and director of hyperbaric medicine at the Medical College of Wisconsin. “The near-infrared light emitted by these LEDs seems to be perfect for increasing energy inside cells. This means whether you’re on Earth in a hospital, working in a submarine under the sea or on your way to Mars inside a spaceship, the LEDs boost energy to the cells and accelerate healing.”

Dr. Whelan’s findings will be summarized in upcoming issues of Space Technology and Applications International Forum 2001 and in The Journal of Clinical Laser Medicine and Surgery. Other related peer-reviewed journals have published articles on Whelan’s medical research with light-emitting diodes.

Dr. Whelan’s NASA-funded research has already seen remarkable results using the light-emitting diodes to promote healing of painful mouth ulcers caused by cancer therapies such as radiation and chemotherapy. The treatment is quick and painless. The wound-healing device is a small, 3.5-inch by 4.5-inch (89-millimeter by 114-millimeter), portable flat array of LEDs arranged in rows on the top of a small box. A nurse practitioner places the box of LEDs on the outside of the patient's cheek about one minute each day. The red light penetrates to the inside of the mouth, where it seems to promote wound healing and prevent further sores in the patient's mouth. "Some children who probably would have had to be fed intravenously because of the severe sores in their mouths have been able to eat solid food," said Dr. David Margolis, an oncologist at Children's Hospital of Wisconsin in Milwaukee and an assistant professor of pediatrics at the Medical College of Wisconsin. Margolis, whose pediatric cancer patients are participating in the study, explained that, "Preventing oral mucositis improves the patients' ability to eat and drink and also may reduce the risk of infections in patients with compromised immune systems."

Dr. Whelan's collaboration with NASA began when Ronald Ignatius, owner of Quantum Devices Inc. in Barneveld, Wis., learned about Dr. Whelan's brain cancer surgery technique using drugs stimulated by laser lights. Laser-light surgical probes are costly and cumbersome in the operating room because they are heavy, with refrigerator-size optical, electrical and cooling systems.

Ignatius originally designed the lights for plant growth experiments through the Wisconsin Center for Space Automation and Robotics, a NASA commercial space center at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. "The LEDs needed to grow plants in space produced the same wavelengths of light the doctor needed to remove brain tumors," said Ignatius. "Plus, when we developed the LEDs for NASA, they had to be lightweight to fly aboard the Shuttle and have small cooling systems. These traits make the LED surgery probes easier to use in the operating room and thousands of dollars cheaper than laser systems." Quantum Devices altered the surgical probe to emit longer wavelengths of red light that stimulate a photodynamic drug called Benzoporphyrin Derivativeä. Doctors at the Children's Hospital of Wisconsin recently completed the first-ever surgery with the improved probe and medicine. The drug also has fewer side effects after surgery. The ongoing brain surgery study is described in a 1999 peer-reviewed journal article in Pediatric Neurosurgery.

"At NASA, we work with companies like Quantum Devices to take technologies developed for use in space and bring the benefits back home to Earth," said Helen Stinson of Marshall's Technology Transfer Department. "NASA is proud to support a program that helps children with brain cancer—and promises to help even greater numbers of people with technology to accelerate the healing process."

In the laboratory, Whelan and his team have shown that skin and muscle cells grown in cultures and exposed to the LED infrared light grow 150 to 200 percent faster than ground control cultures not stimulated by the light. Scientists are trying to learn how cells convert light into energy, and identify which wavelengths of light are most effective at stimulating growth in different kinds of cells.

To expand the wound healing study, Whelan—a commander and diving medical officer in the U.S. Navy reserve assigned to Naval Special Warfare Command (Naval Special Warfare Group TWO)—is working with doctors at Navy Special Warfare Command centers in Norfolk, Va. and San Diego, Calif. They reported a 40 percent improvement in patients who had musculoskeletal training injuries treated with the light-emitting diodes.

A wound-healing device was placed on the USS Salt Lake City submarine, and doctors reported 50-percent faster healing of crewmember's lacerations when exposed to the LED light. Injuries treated with the LEDs healed in seven days, while untreated injuries took 14 days.

The LED research project will continue for the next 18 months, with doctors studying 100 patients at two major teaching affiliates of the Medical College of Wisconsin. Researchers will continue to examine the influence of LEDs on cells grown in the laboratory, and will explore the benefits that LEDs might provide to counteract possible cell damage caused by exposure to harmful radiation and weightlessness during long space missions.

[JR: It's been a long time since the taxpayers have derived any public benefits from the money that is poured into the NASA space program. This LED light treatment will benefit the children and the adults who must endure the debilitating radical cancer treatments. If they won't allow us a sure cure, then at least give us better cancer treatments.]

UN APPROVES LOWER PAYMENTS FROM U.S.

Straits Times, 12/24/00

UNITED NATIONS (AFP)—After months of tense negotiations, the 189 UN member-states on Saturday unanimously approved a resolution lowering U.S. contributions to the UN budget from 25 percent to 22 percent [Whoopie!].

But the General Assembly affirmed U.S. dues could be bumped back up in 2003 if the country shirks on paying its arrears, expected to be at $1.3 billion, by then.

UN Secretary-General Kofi Annan said of the deal: "It is the best possible seasonal gift for our organisation. This agreement should remove a major source of tension among member states, and between them and the organisation. In particular, we can now look forward to a normal and constructive relationship with the U.S. administration."

For the first time since 1973, the General Assembly, in a second resolution, undertook a revision of the contributions scale for its peacekeeping operations budget, currently twice as large as its administrative budget.

Beginning July 1, each member-state's contribution to the peacekeeping budget will be determined based on wealth, with the nine-year resolution grouping countries into nine categories. This will give poorer countries a 90-percent discount from their original assessment and wealthy countries no discount at all.

The five permanent UN Security Council members—the United States, Russia, Britain, France and China—will pay a surcharge because of their particular responsibility for maintaining peace according to the resolution, which was also passed by consensus.

The U.S. Congress has agreed to pay $826 million in arrears to the UN if the world body agrees to lower the U.S. share of the UN budget.

The United States asked for a reduction from 25 percent to 22 percent of the administrative burden and a decrease from more than 30 percent to 25 percent of the peacekeeping budget burden.

The size of the country's arrears to the UN is still disputed by UN and congressional officials.

The budget re-assessment will reduce the U.S. contribution to 27 percent of the peacekeeping budget for next year and to 26 percent in future years.

The amount paid by the European Union, still the greatest contributor to the international body, is unchanged under the new scheme, while some 30 emerging-economy countries were left to finance the difference created by the reduction of U.S. dues.

Japan, which has the world's second largest economy, saw its share of the UN budget decrease by almost one percentage point, from 20.5 percent to 19.6 percent.

South Korea and Brazil, two of the "newly-wealthy" economies that were asked to substantially increase their commitments to the international body, will see the greatest increase in their dues under the new scheme.

Those increases were deferred until 2002, thanks to a pledge by U.S. media mogul Ted Turner to provide $34 million to cover the difference between the old U.S. contribution level and the new in the first year.

Brazil's UN Ambassador Gelson Fonseca called the arrangement "unjust".

[JR: I can't reason why every nation goes along with these assessments to support the UN for its finances, equipment and manpower. The UN is a parasite that produces nothing of its own, just like any other taxing body, only this one is lethal. They acquire the troops when necessary to march in and take over any country or just bomb them into submission. We are feeding a growing monster that someday is going to destroy us all.]

FINNISH EXPERT RAPS FRENCH BULLY TACTICS IN NICE EU SUMMIT

Helsingin Sanomat, 12/20/00

A week after the Nice summit, it remains unclear what exactly was agreed upon at the meeting. On Monday, the secretary of the Finnish delegation, Alexander Stubb summed up the result by saying that the meeting brought "much bad news and some good news".

The greatest loser in his view was the EU decision-making system. The assessment is a serious indictment, considering that the purpose of the present Inter-Governmental Conference (IGC) has been to streamline the system so that it would be ready to take on the enlargement of the EU.

Speaking at an event arranged by the European Security Forum of the Department of Political Science of the University of Helsinki, Stubb said that the goal was just barely achieved.

"It is a fact that it (the decision-making system) was made more complicated. I am also not at all convinced that we have a Nice agreement yet. There remains an awful lot to clarify, and the questions will probably have to be brought all the way to the Stockholm summit," Stubb says.

The Nice agreement involved negotiations lasting ten months. The process involved 30 delegate-level meetings, 10 ministerial-level meetings, three European Council sessions and about 370 hours of sitting at the negotiation table. In spite of this, there are still differing views on issues such as the vote thresholds for majority decisions, and the number of members in the European Parliament. As Stubb sees it, the main cause of the confusion is France, which in his view lacked the necessary objectivity, organisational ability and leadership.

Stubb says that France's actions were guided by cynical criteria, rather than any objective considerations.

"The decision-making was mere raw power politics. France completely lacked an overall view and a strategy," Stubb continued.

Stubb feels that only three prime ministers, Belgium's Guy Verhofstadt, Finland's Paavo Lipponen, and Portugal's Antonio Guterres understood what should have been going on, and were willing to examine the situation from a community point of view. "For many the main question seemed to be what the agreement looks like from my point of view in tomorrow's newspapers, when it should have been whether or not the Union is institutionally ready for enlargement,” Stubb said.

Before the meeting there was much discussion in the big member countries of how the votes are divided in the Council of Ministers. “France’s first proposal was downright shocking. After that it reduced its own share by degrees and bought the small member countries with one vote,” Stubb says.

He emphasises that the issue was not one of a mathematical exercise, but rather that of how many member states are able to block decision-making in the EU. The model achieved in Nice makes it “much easier” for large countries like Germany, France, and the UK to do this.

In the future, a qualified majority decision will require a triple majority: the qualified majority, the threshold of which has not yet been determined, 62% of the population, and half of the member states. Stubb suspects that the European Commission will not make legislative proposals very easily without first checking the views of Berlin, Paris, and London.

Stubb hopes that the latest IGC will be the last of its kind. The next is scheduled for 2004. Stubb is in favour of Prime Minister Lipponen’s idea that the agenda for the next IGC would be prepared by an extensive convention. This would make it possible to link the national parliaments and non-governmental organisations to the process. The European Voice, a weekly appearing in Brussels, has already called this the “Lipponen Plan”.

Stubb feels that the way forward is “smart federalism”. He said that the small member states would benefit from a U.S.-type federation model with a clear distribution of jurisdiction among the regions of the member states, and the institutions of the EU.

As an example (but not as a proposal) he mentioned a model in which the Council would be turned into a Senate, in which each member state would have two representatives. The population of Europe would be represented by a lower chamber in the European Parliament. Then there would be a government, whose chairperson would be chosen possibly by direct vote, and whose members would be appointed by the chairperson. [JR: The highest levels of power can decide on the issues and the policies but if you can’t sell it to the ones who will debate and vote on those proposals, they have a problem. The smaller EU member-states are more meticulous in their deliberations because they know the bigger powers like Germany, France and England can render them voice-less and vote-less. The proposal to adapt our type of Senate as a model for EU representation is a credit to our quite relevant Constitution and our Founding Fathers. We still have the best system of government when it complies to the “rule of law” as set forth by our Constitution.]

WE’LL FIGHT NATO TROOPS, WARN ALBANIAN REBELS

By Christian Jennings (Dordjevac),
Telegraph—UK, 12/22/00

Albanian rebels fighting Serb troops over a disputed area of southern Serbia said they would fight NATO peacekeepers unless they forced the Serbs to withdraw.

An ethnic Albanian guerrilla commander, Muhamet Xhemaili, said: “NATO came to Kosovo to help Albanians, but if they come here without reaching an agreement, we would resist them as we resisted the Serbs. We know we could not win, but we would take some of them with us.”

From a mountain bunker three miles inside Serbia, looking across a snowy valley where he claimed Serb forces were massing, Cdr. Xhemaili added: “We know they are planning an offensive. Down there they have between 600 to 800 men, and at least three tanks. We have asked NATO to do something about them, but if they don’t we’ll attack soon, in the next days.”

The Liberation Army for Presevo, Medvedja and Bujanovac, or UCPMB, names itself after three towns in southern Serbia with an ethnic Albanian majority. It occupies about 80 square miles inside Serbia in a security buffer designed to keep NATO and the Serbs apart, known as the Ground Safety Zone.

The UCPMB claims the Presevo valley as part of Kosovo in an attempt to free local Albanians from Serb rule. Since January it has launched a string of guerrilla attacks on Serb military positions and police checkpoints. Both the United Nations Security Council and President Vojislav Kostunica’s government have condemned the presence of the 4,700-strong rebel army.

The NATO Secretary-General, Lord Robertson, said the NATO peacekeeping force in Kosovo was taking action to stop guerrillas using the buffer zone for “extremist violence”. He said the guerrillas faced growing political isolation, adding: “Very effective patrolling of that area is making sure that it is very difficult for these extremists to continue with the job that they have been doing in the area.”

“Of course, the Serb government is frustrated. That is why we are taking active measures politically and militarily to stop the violence going on.” Mr. Kostunica has called for the area to be “cleansed” of terrorists, and NATO fears that the Yugoslav army, accompanied by paramilitaries and Interior Ministry special police will be sent in, resulting in hundreds of Albanian deaths.

Under the agreement between NATO and Belgrade, only lightly armed Serb police can enter the safety zone. In June, Serb special police ethnically cleansed, looted and destroyed the village of Mali Trnovac, an Albanian settlement well inside the zone. Four Serb policemen were killed by the UCPMB in November.

About a mile inside the zone, near the village of Dordjevac, Cdr. Xhemaili said: “The Serb army were here until Oct 28, and we beat them off in a six-hour gun battle. It’s simply not true to say they aren’t inside the safety zone.” Serb military intelligence sources fear that an attack carried out by “thousands” of Albanian rebels could take place as early as tomorrow.

[JR: The ethnic Albanian guerrillas want NATO to honor their agreement to protect the Albanian rebels and yet would not honor their agreement that they would be disarmed by NATO once the Serb army was driven out of Kosovo. NATO violated International law by consensus, but is now caught in the same conflict as was the Serb army in dealing with these Albanian terrorist guerrillas. They do not honor agreements or international law and will defy world opinion or UN mandates and will do whatever it takes to get what they want, as the end always justifies the means. Doesn’t this sound like a Middle East policy?]

UN COUNCIL APPLIES MORE PRESSURE ON TALIBAN

By Nicole Winfield, EXCITE News, 12/20/00

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Nations Security Council voted Tuesday to impose broad sanctions on Afghanistan’s Taliban rulers unless they close “terrorist” training camps and surrender U.S. Embassy bombing suspect Osama bin Laden.

A resolution sponsored by the United States and Russia in a rare show of cooperation was approved, with China and Malaysia abstaining. Those Asian nations expressed concern that the new measures would only further harm the Afghan people, already suffering from a 20-year war, poverty and drought.

The former superpower rivals over Afghanistan lobbied the 13 other Security Council members hard to adopt the resolution, arguing that the country was a “haven of lawlessness” whose Islamic rulers harbored terrorists at home and supported terrorism abroad.

The sanctions call for an arms embargo on the Taliban, including foreign military assistance purportedly given the Taliban by Pakistan. The sanctions impose a ban on travel by the militia’s senior leaders and a broader flight ban than the one imposed last year to force bin Laden’s surrender.

The measures require all Taliban offices overseas to be closed and, in a bid to deprive the Taliban of revenue from illicit opium production, call for a ban on exports to Taliban areas of acetic anhydride, used to manufacture heroin.

The sanctions will go into effect in 30 days if Taliban authorities fail to close Afghan “terrorist” camps and deliver bin Laden for trial in the 1998 bombing of the U.S. Embassies in Kenya and Tanzania. The council can renew the sanctions after a year if Taliban officials still haven’t complied.

Taliban leaders have refused to hand over the Saudi exile, saying the United States has provided no proof he was involved in the blasts. They also have denied the camps are used to train Chechen rebels, who are fighting for independence from Russia.

Taliban officials have said they would boycott new UN-mediated peace talks if new sanctions are imposed.

“For 21 years, Afghanistan has been burning in the fires of war,” the Taliban’s deputy commerce minister, Faizl Mohammed Faizan, said in Kabul. “If the United Nations imposes sanctions, then the United Nations with its own hand is putting people on fire.”

The UN withdrew the last of its international staff from Afghanistan on Tuesday, fearing retaliation by Afghans angry that the new sanctions will deepen their international isolation. UN programs, such as bakeries and clinics, will be run by local staff.

“It is not going to facilitate our peace efforts, nor is it going to facilitate our humanitarian work,” Secretary-General Kofi Annan said.

Council members including France and Canada have expressed similar concerns. But none threatened the resolution’s passage because opposition would amount to support for the Taliban.

[JR: The UN Security Council voted to improve sanctions against Afghanistan, not by evidence but by the lobbying tactics of the U.S. and Russia. It clears the way for them to conduct military strikes inside Afghanistan to get bin Laden and the Taliban fundamentalists. The U.S. will be assisting Russia to secure her borders and to reclaim her mineral-rich Republics which are Muslim. I don’t buy the reservations expressed by Kofi Annan, Canada or France. They all caved in and went along with the sanctions.]

POLICE CLOSING IN ON GROUP RESPONSIBLE FOR METRO BLASTS

By Jaime Laude and Marichu Villanueva, philstar.com, 1/2/01

Crack police probes are closing in on a group believed responsible for the five bomb attacks that rocked Metro Manila last Saturday, Philippine National Police (PNP) spokesman Senior Superintendent Nicanor Bartolome said yesterday.

While Bartolome refused to identify the group, Ambassador Ernesto Maceda, the President's spokesman for the impeachment trial, told The STAR that probes are eyeing an ultra-rightist group that has reportedly forged an alliance with "anti-Estrada forces".

In related developments yesterday:

- The military has placed on standby a company-sized composite reaction unit consisting of about 100 troopers from the Army, Air Force and Navy backed by armored infantry vehicles, explosives experts and intelligence operatives.

- Immigration intelligence agents are on the lookout for terrorists who may have slipped into the country on fake travel documents, Bureau of Immigration officials revealed.

- Archbishop of Manila Jaime Cardinal Sin ordered all churches in his archdiocese to offer all their Masses from Jan. 1 to 9 in memory of all those who died in the Dec. 30 bombings.

The release of two suspects detained since the bombings and the offer of the Department of the Interior and Local Government of a P1-million reward for the arrest of the suspects has led to speculations that the government still has no suspects in the attacks that killed 14 and seriously wounded scores of others.

But Bartolome insists that they had no choice but to release the two suspects because there was no evidence linking them to the bombing.

"The two were released yesterday on condition that they will be available if summoned by our probes," Bartolome said....

It's the ultra-right—Maceda

"There is no evidence yet," confirmed Maceda but probes are also looking at "certain retired generals", allegedly including Chief Superintendent Diony Ventura, a former Central Luzon police chief who is associated with former President Fidel Ramos.

"Based on the suspects so far, we will not rule out a right-wing conspiracy... They're trying to create gulo-gulo (disorder), trying to destabilize the administration of President Estrada," Maceda said.

However, he refused to say if the ultra-right-wing group belongs to the supporters of Ramos who has led his fellow retired police and military generals in pressing for the President's resignation.

Since Saturday, groups such as the Moro Islamic Liberation Front (MILF), the extremist Abu Sayyaf group (ASG), a faction in the police and military organizations and the New People's Army (NPA) have been pointing at each other as responsible for the bombings.

But a senior military intelligence official said that all their leads point to the MILF.

"All our leads strongly point to the MILF. There are also indications that the Abu Sayyaf and the communists could have been involved but they lack the capability to undertake successive bombings," the official said.

Armed Forces Civil Relations Service chief Brig. Gen. Jaime Canatoy echoed the official's statements, adding the explosives used in two of the bombings are familiar to the secessionist rebels.

"The traces of ammonium nitrate found in the LRT and the airport bombings point to the MILF. They have been using that from the time they were still with the Moro National Liberation Front," Canatoy told The STAR in a phone interview.

But the MILF had earlier denied involvement in the bombings and pointed responsibility instead on the government.

MILF spokesman Eid Kabalu said the MILF had information that the Estrada administration had long planned to conduct such moves to divert attention from Mr. Estrada's ongoing impeachment trial, which resumes this afternoon at the Senate.

Foreign terrorists involved?

Other military-intelligence officials likewise referred to supposedly confirmed intelligence reports that MILF elements have undergone bomb and explosives training in Afghanistan under the auspices of notorious international terrorist leader Osama bin Laden.

Bin Laden, the prime suspect behind the bombings early last year of the U.S. embassies in Kenya and Tanzania, has financially supported the MILF and the Abu Sayyaf and has sent his agents to Mindanao to further train the two groups in the manufacture and use of explosives....

Masses for the bombing dead

As police and intelligence officials scramble to get a handle on the bombings, Cardinal Sin ordered all churches in the Archdiocese of Manila to offer all their Masses from Jan. 1 to Jan. 9 for those who died in the bombings.

"In solidarity with the victims of the bombings, their loved ones and friends, we shall remember all those who died in the bombings in all our Masses in the Archdiocese of Manila from Jan. 1 until 9, 2001," Sin said in a statement.

Sin likewise offered prayers to the perpetrators of the heinous crime, that they change their ways for the salvation of their souls.

"Our Masses from Jan. 1 to 9 will also be offered for the conversion of the perpetrators of the crime so that their hearts may be pricked and the spirit of repentance come upon them," Sin said.

"Our celebration is marked by shock and grief and sadness over the senseless bombings that rocked our metropolis last Saturday. Innocent lives, promising lives, holy lives were lost because people chose the way of terrorism rather than the message of peace that the angels proclaimed on Christmas night," Sin lamented.

Meanwhile, Metro Manila's cell-phone owners again received a provoking thought through their text message system yesterday as several government officials were linked to the bombings in a text message that spread throughout the metropolis.

The text message read: "Maceda, Enrile, Honasan brains behind bombings. Mercado, Zamora, Lacson and Lim were against the idea. Information leaked by a staff of Usec. Santiago. The staff will talk."

But Interior and Local Governments Undersecretary Narciso Santiago Jr., the alleged boss of the person who supposedly revealed the information, vehemently denied the message. That was merely a part of the misinformation that certain groups were trying to feed the public to further destabilize the government," Santiago told The STAR in a telephone interview.

"I don't think any of my staff will do what was alleged in that text message," Santiago added, hinting that such "misinformation" could just be similar to the "wild and untrue text messages circulated in the past.—With reports from Paolo Romero, Rey Arquiza, Sandy Araneta, Cecille Suerte Felipe

BUSH ADVISERS WARN VS. AFP INTERVENTION

By Christina Mendez, philstar.com, 1/2/01

A team of foreign policy advisers associated with U.S. President-elect George W. Bush warned yesterday against the intervention of the Philippine military in the ongoing political crisis in the country.

Speaking on condition of anonymity, a team member said the U.S. would not support a government established through military intervention.

"The Bush government would never recognize any government in the Philippines won through the barrel of a gun," said the team member, a retired U.S. military official who will soon be joining the U.S. Department of State.

Bush recently designated retired Gen. Colin Powell as the incoming U.S. Secretary of State and sent a foreign policy advisory team two weeks ago to meet with anti-Estrada leaders and to assess the political situation in the Philippines.

The team member warned that the Philippine military should only be allowed to intervene in the political crisis to prevent "anarchy and chaos".

"(The) military would only be allowed to intervene to stop the country from falling deeper into anarchy and chaos," said the team member, an expert in Asia-Pacific affairs.

The warning came on the eve of the resumption of President Estrada's impeachment trial and while police are grappling for clues on five fatal bomb attacks in Metro Manila.

Mr. Estrada was impeached by the House of Representatives on charges of bribery, corruption, betrayal of public trust and culpable violation of the Constitution.

The team member described as "devastating" the testimonies at the Senate impeachment tribunal but he also recognized that President has enough support in the Senate to get an acquittal.

"I have the impression that President Estrada has enough support in the Senate, despite the devastating testimonies, to avoid impeachment (sic) and that the public will not accept such Senate vote," the source said.

In a letter to one of the anti-Estrada leaders, the team member expressed hope that the military would not lead too prominent a role in calls for Mr. Estrada's resignation.

"If the public must force resignation, I do hope that you can keep the military from playing a prominent role," he said, warning that the consequence would be criticism from the Bush administration.

"If the military is seen leading the charge, there will be great criticism out of Washington and the legitimacy of the government to follow," he added.

If Mr. Estrada is militarily forced to resign, the team member explained that military intervention will bring doubt on the credibility of the next government.

"Even Vice President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo will be brought into question," he added.

Instead of "leading the charge," the retired U.S. military official advised that "military and police involvement must be seen as a stabilizing force that contains social strife."

The anti-Estrada leaders said that they will adopt peaceful means to remove Mr. Estrada from office and will exert all efforts to preserve civil society, he said.

God And Creation Are Not Mystical

PLEIADES CONNECTION

RETURN OF THE PHOENIX

VOLUME I

BY GYEORGOS CERES HATONN

“dharma”

PHOENIX JOURNAL #22 (1990)

INTRODUCTION

This will be a bit tedious as an “Introduction” because I wish to share insight of a much higher understanding—rather than simply dump you into your relationship with your brothers from Pleiades. To understand your connections with more advanced brothers you must understand that you are simply struggling within the learning processes of growth into the wholeness of God/Creation Love and Balance.

I herein DEDICATE this volume—this “Introduction” to one, Albert Monette of Joshua Tree, California. I ask that his most recent correspondence be reprinted here in full. We must all learn to separate that which is the whole into pieces of “chewable” size. Whatever is written in the Journals in no way discounts the truths which have been brought forth prior to our accounting. I have utilized Al’s correspondence dealing with the subject of “Loving thine enemies into change” and I am humbly grateful to this man for his in-depth thoughts on the subject material and his sincere and time-consuming expression of his thoughts.

It may appear that we enjoy scattering the tatters of pain upon you as a sleeping society—nay, but you must awaken unto that which IS. Then, and only then, can you move into the effect of change and within the truth of actions and intent. Unfortunately, thus far, the Journals of necessity have had to contain the shocking uncloaking of the evil and pain upon your place. Now, we may also move more quickly into the spiritual aspects of balance through the individual attachment unto that which is truth in spiritual development.

To be released in the very near future is a three-volume projection from Sananda through a beloved servant, “JOY”, who outlays in brilliance and glory that which is both individual and massively encompassing for humanity. I have requested that America West publish the material and make it available unto you. You see, we of the higher energies most certainly work in concert. For those of you who need confirmation and “proof”, however, all does not come from a single source. Neither may it come as ONLY through the Journals. This set of writings, you will find, totally balance the Journals in truth but bear the truth of spiritual necessity and “how to” of a distant receiver—not working in conjunction with Dharma. This does two things—it spreads the responsibility and allows all of you readers to understand the diversification of the bringing forth of truth and the fact that if truth is truth—it varies not from pen to pen. This series, as indicated, I believe will be entitled: SOLUTIONS FOR OUR TOTAL GLOBAL SPIRITUAL STARVATION. I apologize in that you will have to contact America West for further information, for I have naught to do with the material. I believe it shall be available around the first of the year [1991]—at least the first volume.

In direct response to Al Monette, I would ask that he, and YOU, recognize that most of the JOURNALS come forth from my own projections as a COMMANDER in only slightly advanced form than are you of Earth plane. Things of physical manifestation must be tended in the manner of presentation—physically. Spirit is ultimately ALL, but man must come again into recognition of that which is placed asunder—and then he can grapple with regaining balance from the chaos. This means, dear ones, that the chaos MUST BE CONFRONTED, ISOLATED AND BROUGHT AGAIN INTO ORDER!

I ask that we write portions from the letter in italics, Dharma, and I shall respond in [] in formal type style, for I do wish to respond as I move along. I further request that this be placed at the forefront of the next Express newsletter. I am pained that Al presents the publishing of this document in the form of a formal challenge but none-the-less it bears the thought of the multitudes and, therefore, shall be handled as such. I do suggest that you ones would not, however, write such challenges unto say, “Bo” Gritz and/or Alvin Toffler. Perhaps the very fact that you do handle the information differently indicates great impact on the consciousness—I sincerely hope so. Salu.

[QUOTING:]

December 14, 1990:

The Phoenix Journals/Express offers us truthful but negative information which enlightens us as to what the “Dark Forces” are doing to control us; however, this form of information also has a tendency to instill in our minds, condition us or incline us to:

a) Hate, anger, resentment, revenge and hostilities.

[Do you cast blame upon the Journals, dear friend? Are these emotions absent in your lives as is? Do these feelings only stem from learning truth of circumstance or is, perhaps, the problem already present in over-abundance?]

b) Lose faith, hope and trust in our brothers.

[Do you have faith, hope and trust in your brothers? If so, why has your world become so ill that the truth hurts so much? Have your “brothers” not gained the deserving of loss of these higher qualities to great extent? Is it the JOURNALS AND EXPRESSES that have single-handedly presented this new phenomenon of mistrust unto you the people? I think perhaps you give unto us a bit more than our share of credit, for there have been some very daring authors and speakers bringing like truths unto you regarding your plight. Or, is it that this information is somehow unacceptable from the Hosts of Heaven and precursors of God’s return to your placement? You ones of Earth cannot have it both ways—you must come into the light or remain ever in the darkness, for that is simply the way of it.]

c) To become fearful, combative, offensive or defensive.

[Do you speak for self or for all of your brethren? We have not received other material of such content other than to thank us for the new feelings of “we must do something about this situation”. It is not the feelings which are erroneous and should be subjugated—it is the action taken in thoughtful RESPONSE instead of REACTION. Our mission is to awaken mankind—he has had the lessons of LOVE (totally misunderstood by all save a tiny few) and he has only gotten deeper into the mire—therefore, it must be assumed that mankind has lost his way and he must see where he is in order to regain a path, be it positive or negative in portent.]

d) Reject, blame, judge and condemn our brothers.

[I would hope this is not true, but I am confident the statement is all too true! I would hope, rather, that you look within and see what rejection, blame, judgment and condemnation is appropriate for SELF and then, only then, can correction be brought about. It is never the brother at “blame”; it is YOUR PERCEPTION AND RESPONSE AND ALLOWANCE OF THAT BROTHER WHICH PRECIPITATES THE PROBLEMS IN WHICH YOU NOW FIND SELVES.]

e) See the gloomy side of life and have a negative frame of mind!

[I most surely do hope so! Do you indicate that there is no gloomy side of life nor negative perspective except now that the Journals have brought the causative factors into focus? Could it be that you of the lie want to continue to hide the gloom and negative aspects under the carpets, to be out of sight? Will this legacy of refusal to focus on the CAUSE be sufficient to the generations to come—for that which you in your generation fail to correct?]

f) Feel disappointed, frustrated, disgusted and depressed without destiny.

[Oh, beloved brothers, NO, NO, NO! Be totally disappointed, frustrated, disgusted and depressed with that which has come to be about you. BE IN GLORIOUS PRAISE OF THAT WHICH IS YOUR DESTINY! GOD AND TRUTH ARE YOUR DESTINY AS YOU CORRECT THAT WHICH HAS PRECIPITATED THE CIRCUMSTANCE AS YOU DESCRIBE OF IT. IF YOU BELIEVE IT CANNOT BE DONE, YOU HAVE LIMITED GOD AND CREATION. RELEASE THE NEGATIVE SHACKLES AND REJOICE IN THE TRUTH AND KNOWLEDGE THAT WITH GOD ALL IS POSSIBLE AND SHALL BE SET TO RIGHT

AS SOON AS MAN UNDERSTANDS.]

g) Feel divided, rather than united and integrated for Peace, Love with harmony and balance.

[You are already totally divided, disunited and unintegrated. You have no Peace, true Love or Harmony—certainly, you have no Balance! You must understand that which IS, lest you continue your path of the downward spiral while those—who understand how to manipulate these tatters—destroy the remainder of the course chosen by you ones as experience. IF YOU ALLOW IT, IT SHALL COME UPON YOU. ONLY TRUTH SHALL GIVE YOU FREEDOM FOR ONLY THROUGH THE KNOWLEDGE OF THAT WHICH IS IN TRUTH GIVES YOU INSTRUCTIONS FOR THAT ACTION WHICH MUST BE TAKEN.]

h) Lose sight that we are all part of the ONENESS as well as an extension of the INFINITE, DIVINE source of Cosmic Consciousness, LIGHT and LOVE.

[If we have failed in this projection, then I bend in humble apology—for ultimately this is ALL there IS! For not one moment nor word of projection is it intended to indicate a separation of the above outlaid connection. THIS IS WHY YOU MUST TAKE CONTROL AND COME INTO UNDERSTANDING OF TRUTH SO THAT YOU REGAIN THE POWER OF THIS WONDROUS CONNECTION AGAINST WHICH NO DARKNESS CAN PENETRATE, MUCH LESS, PREVAIL!]

i) Be narrow-minded and biased, rather than open-minded, to see other points of view, different than ours, in order to find a solution to our problems, disputes, disagreements or differences.

[I know not to what you refer. It is time to be narrow-minded and biased toward Truth and God. It is a LIE OF LIES projected upon you ones that you must accept that which is heinously done unto you and your species by those who project “total open-mindedness” and “accept ALL things good or bad” in majority rule and/or allowing! You have all but destroyed your entire species and planet through this type of action and/or inaction. Is it not equally “right” to take a stand for God as it is to ALLOW all manner of EVIL to surround and destroy you? Have we ever suggested you not debate, bring public the points in question, disagree or have differences of opinions? Nay, please brothers, do not effort to dump blindness upon your higher brothers! Stand responsible—RESPONSIBLE—for your blunders and errors; do not denounce us for pointing out the truth which has so completely deluded and eluded your attention. Can you not be gracious unto these ones who bring forth this truth in actual line of gun-fire and targeted destruction and death? Can you sit in your sanctimonious and pious blinders and cast stones at these ones who stand forth and give ALL THEY HAVE OF WORLDLY GOODS AND PLACE THEIR VERY LIVES ON THE EXECUTION BLOCKS IN ORDER TO SERVE GOD AND YOUR DESTINY! Please, I ask for more from each of you than that attitude. I am accused of repetition and boring repeating of,

“YOU ARE GIVEN FREE-WILL CHOICE AND IT IS UP TO YOU THAT WHICH YOU WILL DO WITH THIS TRUTH!” Does this actually portend intent as you have laid it forth?]

j) Instead of the above negative emotions, let us learn to pray for, forgive and love our brothers and sisters.

Have we forgotten what Matthew 5:44 states?

*“But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you”. AREN'T THE DARK FORCES OUR BIGGEST ENEMY?

[Do you also believe in eye for eye and tooth for tooth—death for death regardless of cause, etc.? Why do you ones so selectively present your Biblical passages unto us? Is not each grouping upon your place claiming truth of their own “Holy Books”? Could it be that ones deny GOD in favor of man’s interpretation of that which is correct and usually mistranslated? I care not which, but let me also do a little quoting from that same good book! Let us look at JAMES 4: “... You are like an unfaithful wife who loves her husband’s enemies—the evil pleasures of this world—makes you an enemy of God? I say it again, that if your aim is to enjoy the evil pleasure of the unsaved world, you CANNOT also be a friend of God.”

And, how about 1 JOHN 2: “... Stop loving this evil world and all that it offers you, for when you love these things you show that you do not really love God...”. As we have gone along with these Journals we have efforted to remind you over and over and over again—you must love your brother and love your enemy—but you must abhor, disdain and despise evil actions. Did the Master Teacher not cast the money-mongers and -changers from the temple? Well, is not the planet, herself, the temple? Is not your own self, within, the temple of God? Would you misunderstand LOVE AND ALLOWANCE for the keeping of that which is evil, deceitful and corrupt within???? Do you perhaps confuse the precious creation for the actions thereof? “If thine wife gives you a dish of food with salt rather than sugar in the pie, do you hate your wife for the error—or do you cast aside the pie as that which it is, unpalatable?” Would you be expected to eat it? Suppose the error is of poison—wouldst you go ahead and eat it? If you would, oh, brother, then you do not understand the lessons of God.]

The Dark Forces represent the following:

1. The Bolshevik/Zionists and supporters.
2. One-World Government Cartel/Elite and supporters.
3. Trilateral Commission and supporters.
4. The Council on Foreign Relations and supporters.
5. The Communist Party and supporters.

[So be it, as far as it goes. You have said, it appears, that which we have brought to your attention. Wherein lies the problem?]

To refresh our memories, let us define “UNCONDITIONAL LOVE”, shall we? Unconditional Love is a total acceptance of all entities, whether they be positive or negative without blame, without judgment, without condemnation and without expectations.

[Dear ones, it is one thing to “accept” the presence of these entities—it is quite another to continue to allow the actions of the entities to destroy others of God’s Creations, enslave and prostitute the nations, as well as the peoples and planet herself. TO ALLOW THESE ACTIONS INDICATES SANCTION OF THE ACTIONS—AND IT IS UPON THIS MISCONCEPTION OF THE MASSES THAT THE WOULD-BE CONTROLLERS THROUGH EVIL ARE ABLE TO ACCOMPLISH THEIR HEINOUS DEEDS!]

All this negative information, even if truthful, which the readers receive in The Phoenix Journals or Express is compounding the situation and our problems on this planet. As we all know, negative emotions and thinking encourage the negative or dark forces of energy to continue whatever they’re doing! Instead... educate the readers with more emphasis on how we may all improve or generate more LOVE and raise our Spiritual Consciousness. By the way, we need this desperately at this time.

We should all know that the negative or dark forces of energy can not operate and flourish in an environment filled with love! The more love we can generate on this placement, the quicker we can eliminate or rid ourselves of these negative and dark forces of energy which try to manipulate, control and enslave mankind. You may want to call these forces the “False Jews”, The 13th Tribe, The Khazars or the Zionists or even the Satanic Forces! But whatever name you use, they are all “Dark Forces of Negative Energy”, are they not?

[We call them by their proper labels SO THAT YOU-THE-PEOPLE DO NOT MISINTERPRET AND LABEL THE PRECIOUS AMONG THE RABBLE. As for the projections that LOVE will cure all—ah, yes, it would do so, no doubt about it. I suggest, however, that there are thousands of books suggesting that we simply love one another and the bad monsters will “just go away”. No, they will not, for you must know who and what are the bad monsters to impact them in any manner what-so-ever—Love or Hate included. AS MAN COMES AGAIN INTO UNDERSTANDING OF GOD AND CREATION—HE WILL AUTOMATICALLY BEGIN TO TURN AGAIN INTO TRUTH AND LOVE; HE WILL DO THIS BY RECOGNIZING THE ERRORS AND LIES THRUST UPON HIM SO THAT HE CAN UNDERSTAND THAT PORTION OF HIS ACTIONS AND BELIEFS THAT HAVE LED HIM ASTRAY IN THE FIRST PLACE!

We do not suggest that you do not “Love the evil MAN—but despise his evil”! Most ones involved in, say, the Zionist “movement”, are totally unaware of truth of the situation. If we do not give unto you the explanation and point out the difference, how are you to come into truth in time to allow for a Godly destiny? This is why we are presented unto you, so that, at what you will classify as “judgment”, you beloved ones of the planet shall have some idea as to the truth of your circumstance—’tis what is “within” which shall be coming into inspection by self and God. God now decrees that “the time of ignorance” is to be put behind you as a species—it is graduation time.]

If you dear folks in Tehachapi mean well, and I am sure you are out to do the Will of The Infinite, Divine and Creative Source, if you are dedicated to serve mankind and are out to promote Peace, Love, Truth and The Light, then kindly print this letter with your response, whatever it may be, in The Phoenix Journals, for all to read and discern for themselves with our “FREE WILL”.

If you are truly Light Emissaries filled with Truth and Love and you're not afraid of losing a few dollars from the sale of these books, then you will not reject or ignore this request.

Should you decide to refute this letter, then sadly you will be showing your true colors. This letter has been written with sincerity and Love for all concerned.

[So be it! There is gross misunderstanding, however, as to who is who and what is what. The ones who write and publish only do so as WE ask them to do so. They do not make the decisions—for they work in true service unto the God who brings this message of truth unto you. They remain hundreds of thousands of dollars in debt for the presenting of this information—so it is not of kind service unto them to suggest they would withhold truth or sharing in order to glean “a few dollars” by not printing your thoughtful information. We KNOW that your message is sent with great LOVE FOR ALL CONCERNED, ESPECIALLY YOUR FELLOW-MAN, so please KNOW that we KNOW! Further, please understand that even though you did not fully understand WHY YOU FELT COMPELLED TO SEND THIS DOCUMENT—GOD KNOWS AND APPRECIATES YOUR RESPONDING TO HIS CALL THAT OTHERS MIGHT SHARE THE EXPRESSION YOU WOULD TAKE THE TIME TO PRONOUNCE.

Please accept our humble dedication unto you, brother, for service which might appear to be responded with egg on the face. Nay, it is giving a forum for expression which is not of such value simply stated unto the ethers.]

May the abundant Blessings from God-Light be with you always, and may you all have a beautiful, holy and happy holiday season.

In Divine Love and Affection,

[I give his address, for he has given us permission to print same, along with his documents (permission on file). Be in appreciation to ones like this brother who will sort and attempt understanding that all of you might find your way in truth without fear of countering or questioning. God expects use of that wondrous gift given unto you of the human species—only through thought and sharing can you perfect that wondrous gift and again come into oneness with thine own Source. I would hope that ones of you readers who have appreciation in a special manner, might write unto this one in the same Love as given forth from him unto you. He simply fears that you as a creation will be somehow misled as to the ultimate purpose of soul journey. I honor this man greatly and give humble appreciation unto his service.]

P.S. I'm not saying that no one should read The Phoenix Journals or Expresses nor that we shouldn't be keeping an open mind to Political Truths presented in these writings! I'm only trying to emphasize the idea that we shouldn't forget what Jesus, Esu, Emmanuel or Sananda stated in Matthew 5:44. We should have a firm and solid foundation and be Spiritually prepared to comprehend the meaning of “Unconditional Love” and not lose sight of this!

Unfortunately, the average person or reader and Church-goer is not Spiritually prepared, so they quickly forget the Scriptural passage from above and they do not fully comprehend the full or true meaning of Love. SO BE IT!

[Ah, and so be it! Let us not be misunderstanding the intelligence and ability of human intent—we must not place limits on that which man can grasp and will grasp as truth is unfolded. He has simply lost his bearings, his way, and will rekindle Spiritual Oneness as he remembers. We are ALL BUT ONE and to lessen the ability or intent of ONE only lessens ourselves within the ALL. WE MUST CONFRONT THE ERRORS IN THE LIGHT OF TRUTH, CORRECT THE ERRORS THROUGH THE LIGHT OF TRUTH IN LOVE, FORGIVENESS AND UNDERSTANDING—THEN THE REVERSAL SHALL COME AND AGAIN WE CAN JOIN IN THE ONENESS IN RETURN INTO THE WHOLENESS OF OUR SOURCE. AHO!]

This requires an understanding of placement in the Universe, the Cosmos and Source of journey through heritage, ancestry and awakening to the unfolding of the MYSTERIES! NOT THE MYSTICISM! GOD AND CREATION ARE NOT MYSTICAL—THEY ARE WONDROUS MYSTERIES IN THE PROCESS OF UNVEILMENT! MAY WE SHARE THIS WONDROUS REVELATION AND UNVEILING TOGETHER!

I am Hatonn

CHAPTER 1

REC #1 HATONN

WED., NOV. 21, 1990 6:52 A.M. YEAR 4 DAY 97

LET US REMEMBER TOGETHER

I am Hatonn, come in the Radiance of the Lighted Source! I am come forth as truth-bringer and to awaken you, my brethren, from your lodges and beds. I come, that you might be given to understand that which has been brought to you prior to this and mostly denied—while persecuting those who brought the truth unto you. I come as one—no longer to simply “test the waters” but to actually participate in preparation for the returning of God to your placement. I tend to want this job done well and, therefore, may appear a bit abrupt in the alarm-clock ringing! Remember that God is quite capable of doing that which He deems appropriate for, as Creator, His truth is manifestation.

I speak as a representative of those from your home galactic system who have now again come to help you through a time of transition and change—for your planet has gone about as far as She can go without horrendous consequences. I only ask audience, for reason is a gift unto man—FROM GOD—and I see and understand not why you find it difficult to believe God has others in such a magnificently ordered universe! So be it, for it shall be outlaid and again, as with prior truth-bringers, you may accept or deny—but I suggest to you, THE STORY IS YET UNFINISHED AND YOU AS A SPECIES ARE IN GRAVE TROUBLES! GOD WOULD NOT LEAVE HIS CREATIONS IN IGNORANCE AND WITHOUT ASSISTANCE—GOD WILL NOT ABANDON HIS CREATIONS—EVEN IN ILLUSION—SO PERHAPS YOU CAN READ TRUTH WITH AN OPEN MIND AND THEN YOU SHALL BE ABLE TO FIND YOUR OWN LEVEL OF UNDERSTANDING AND CONFIRMATION. THANK YOU.

Some of you will have instant understanding of things I will briefly cover—others will have a complete blockage of perception. I make no effort herein to do other than outlay a few “space-brother” aspects, for it is time to make known our presence and purpose as come from God and there is no intention to mislead nor frighten your species. Our wings are of the “silver clouds” of ancient reference—and we are come to help you find your way HOME!

The last Great Teacher to come upon your place as Wayshower, went to prepare a place for you—we are now come to prepare a place for His return upon Earth—it is the time of sorting and separation; may you be given understanding in your individual aspects to comprehend this which I give unto you. We come in the open revelation and service unto the ONE GOD OF CREATION—MOTHER/FATHER/ALL-CREATOR AND WITHIN THE GLORY OF THE CREATION. OUR INTENT BEARS NO FORCE, FEAR NOR EVEN PERCEIVED HARM. THE HARM AND FEAR IS BORN OF MAN IN THE DENSITY OF EARTH PLANE. YOUR CONSPIRATORS, AGAINST HOLY GOD, SHALL PROJECT OTHERWISE TO MISLEAD AND CONTROL YOU—GOD COMES ONLY IN LIGHT WITH ALL SECRETS REMOVED. SELAH. “IN THE BEGINNING WAS THE WORD—AND THE WORD IS GOD!” SO BE IT! AMEN.

Some of the things I shall outlay for you will seem quite primitive, for I speak to all, and some of your fellow creations may possibly not be able to think and treat with spirituality and understanding that which we bring. At this time of awakening unto truth, most still lay captured too much in the issues of purely human inclinations of feelings, physical participation and indoctrined “instructions” as given forth by other humans who would mostly set forth to control of him in some manner or another.

We do not force our way into the thoughts of another; it is not even of importance to penetrate the thoughts of others than those who would find this truth—for truth IS and will stand on its own merits for infinity.

I make no objection to your perceptions that there are false speakers who claim contact from our brotherhood—they have their intent to play games and cause you to disbelieve truth when it is brought unto you. There must always be caution and concern, when “UFO” contactees pretend their friends from the stars, among other things, communicate with telepathy! If they pronounce any instruction that deviates from the LAWS OF GOD AND THE CREATION—they do not bring forth total truth and, therefore, must be considered deceivers. God will give only truth for your consumption. These “speakers” do exist. Their communication was either originally telepathic, or they simply allowed the flapping of their tongues in self-projection and/or entertainment. Some of the so-called “speakers”, “channels”—whatever you label them, are simply deceivers and the facts can always be witnessed. All of those could-be contactees who USE others are but dupes and it is not for any of us to judge.

We come not as regards the “Christian RELIGION”. We come in truth and knowledge of that which IS—it bears on Christ-ness and perfection of the Sacred Infinite Circle but we come not as “religious” anything.

Although many deceivers exist as “receivers”, there are many who have had and still have contact. There are thousands who have witnessed and been given the privilege to actually photograph the presence of the brothers from the cosmos. Only a very, very few have actually had personal, physical contact with the higher brotherhood—and they have been discredited and persecuted—so, personal appearances which all of you demand, did not work either. It has reached the point that ones having personal contact have simply ceased to speak out and tell what they witness. The misinformation troops have had a field day in the deception business! Ones who have come from our domain are badly used and misprojected. “Little Gray Aliens”, indeed! Come to dismember and terrorize you? “Hold your government hostage?” Dear ones, come, come!

Some of the cosmic brotherhood come from different worlds and systems than do we, for there is now a window of perception which allows participation and observation of your planet—but it is still cosmic law: KEEP HANDS OFF! Some come from other races unto your place on expeditions and have collected different things which could serve their investigations. Some have participated in conjunction with various Earth people to research necessary information regarding evacuation of your place if need be and to be ground crew at the arrival of the cosmic brotherhood. Some “aliens” look exactly like you—for they are your ancestors and some are quite different in appearance having evolved into the “selection” of natural evolution to be best suited for their own experience and environment. They have come to many recently, in your current generations, to bring truth of spirituality and work with you in silence of understanding until comprehension is full enough to be acceptable. If one comes from and in service to God—He/She/It comes in total love.

Some of these members of the brotherhood are quite new at space travel, and so perform their expeditions to expand their knowledge and understanding. Hereby, it also can happen that they come into contact with Earth humans quite unexpectedly, and then never return.

These are not hungry and thirsty for might and power and such, and are happy to finally have some calm and order in their own worlds of experienced existence. It can also happen that they, here and there, take communication with Earth humans, bring them within their craft and sometimes examine them very carefully. But any being capable of coming a great space distance from out of your solar system is technically oriented, indeed, and would inflict no pain nor trauma. The humans thus participating are, in every instance, released—for there is not intent to harm you ones in any manner what-so-ever. If ones coming from space at this time of planetary evolution and transition are able to reach your orb—they are allowed entry only through the absolute guidelines of the Cosmic Code of behavior. In every instance—any visitor from “out here” is more humane than any upon your place in the form of human as you recognize the label.

There have been some quite barbarous creatures who have also traveled through the cosmos, and have come to Earth, too, many being power hungry and quite wicked, indeed—how do you think evil was introduced upon your place—from a snake in an apple tree? They have sometimes kidnapped Earth humans, as well as other planetary human beings from other systems, and abduct them away to their home planet. There these poor creatures might then have been caused to be placed on exhibition, etc.—as you do with aliens who are captured voluntarily or involuntarily—by your governments.

It is now come to be that in these times of closing cycles upon your planet that the evil is already perfected upon your sphere—working now in your own density of perception—you are already infected and infested and you must awaken to your plight, for YOU have let the demons within. These ones carry great power in some instances and they are malignant in nature, for they use the power of “feelings” and other physical human characteristics and movements which are often quite strange for them and thus, a life means very little to them, for they do not abide by Cosmic Law—although now, they cannot get off your planet in these closing days of sorting and separation. This is why I tell you again and again that, “It is what is already on your planet which you must attend—not we who come in these days of perception, to assist you!”

Many deceivers have come forth with their fantastic UFO tales and gained great publicity but there are MANY who do not deceive. There are ones who have encountered our ships and even have made contact and physical radio contact with our craft or other ships from strange visitors. These ones have been discredited and often simply “murdered” to stop the stories of truth, and ones sent from the CIA, etc., to start cover-up stories to denounce and spread panic and fear. The worst scenarios are yet to come as your Conspirators and One World Global Cartel set up actions which will be blamed on the space brotherhood—I ask you to mark my words NOW for it shall be in the coming.

Earth human is very difficult to convince of anything and you are so focused and centered on the false projections that you no longer know which is false and which is truth—so you cling to the physical elements—but I remind you that life-span is only averaging about 75 years of counting seasons and I suggest that there is something of which you are not aware, afoot. If it is not of the physical plane as you know it, does it not stand to reason that it might perhaps come from the Heavens, as you refer to the Cosmos? If you are EXPECTING A RETURN OF GOD, AND YOU HAVE, BY MAJORITY PROJECTION, STATED, YOURSELVES, THAT IT IS “SOON” OR “NOW”—WHAT IS IT THAT YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND? WHY WOULD YOU DENOUNCE THE VERY TRUTH-BRINGERS WHO WOULD BRING YOU INTO TRUTH AND BRING ABOUT THE RETURN OF GOD WHICH YOU EXPECT? HOW LONG WILL HU-MAN OF EARTH DENY GOD? HOW LONG WILL YOU CHOOSE RIDICULOUS FABRICATIONS WHEN THE TRUTH OF THAT WHICH IS COMING IS SO MUCH MORE PERFECTED AND WONDROUS? ALL OF YOU WISH TO TAKE YOUR HUMAN FORMS; WOULD IT NOT BE MORE CREDIBLE TO SUGGEST TAKING THEM TO PLACES PREPARED FOR HUMAN FORM THAN TO RESIDE ON FLOATING CLOUDS WHERE HUMAN FORMS WOULD SIMPLY FALL BACK TO EARTH? I SUGGEST IT IS NOT “OUR” TRUTH WHICH IS IN QUESTION, BROTHERS!

BROTHERS ARE NOT SUPER-BEINGS

Most of the assistants from the cosmos are NOT super-beings, as Earth men like to call them in their imagination. Most are not even teachers, missionaries, or way-preparers for that matter—only a few for, with God, it requires very few! There is an obligation in duty to preserve the existing life already developing in this universe. This means that we endeavor to keep order and maintain peaceful presence.

Now and then, especially we, your Pleiadian brothers, make contact and open communication with inhabitants of different worlds, search out single ones and give explanations unto them, that you might become informed of that which you perceive to be beyond you. Most of your cosmic brothers are only “advanced” from your status and the contacts are for the purpose of allowing growth and the ability to realize that you are not the only thinking creatures in the universe.

I, Hatonn, come as an etheric being “leader”, experiencing in a format which can be better understood as the times of transition come and the higher beings make presentation upon your place. Our roots, yours and mine, are in the Pleiades and, therefore, the fleet most involved with your evolution is from Pleiades—YOU ARE HUMAN AND THAT REQUIRES PHYSICAL CARE.

CLARIFY MATERIAL INFORMATION

In the bringing of historical knowledge to fill in some of your missing links, I must point out that I have the information per scanner—I am a Commander—not a historian and do not even wish to spend this time in contemplation of such, but the barrage of inquiries are great and I will share that which is most frequently under question.

What about longevity in the other experiences? Man can become a thousand, or even hundreds of thousands of years old, in your mode of counting, when he reaches a certain level of spiritual development and evolution. BUT BEYOND THIS STATE, THE SPIRIT NO LONGER NEEDS A MATERIAL BODY. HE THEN DOES LIVE IN PURE SPIRIT AND WITHIN SUCH HIGH SPHERES THAT ONE CAN NO LONGER COMMUNICATE WITH HIM IN TYPICAL HUMAN MANNER.

I would give you some comparison at this point for your own historical research projects. The 1,000 or so years of average [lifespan] experience of ones of Pleiades coincides with that reported for the average longevity of Earth humans PRIOR to that which is known as the “Great Flood”, when the dense vapor envelope surrounding the Earth came down in torrents everywhere for scores of days. Loss of the vapor envelope reduced the atmospheric protection of Earth’s creature species from the harsh radiations of your Sun, and the lifespans of all creatures decreased dramatically and rapidly to well under a century for humans. Vegetable and plant yields were reduced accordingly.

Oh, you ask, “Well, how did the Sun get through the vapor envelope?” Very simply—your Sun was young and easily pierced the veil.

Perhaps you could better understand the possibilities herein in considering the historical documentation and myths that your ancestors, when they were upon your place long ago, your 1,000-year Biblical longevities might now take on more meaning and acceptance in perspective. Loss of atmospheric protection has shortened your lifespans in great measure and you accepted this restriction, in concept, by limiting your own creative ability to have it otherwise. You chose shorter lifespans rather than bring about natural evolutionary alterations which would give protection—then, in the perception of limitations of time and space—you forgot and accepted that which was thrust upon you.

You ARE having trouble with your ionosphere—but it is not that which the scientists of the Conspirators outlay for you. What you are being told by the controllers upon your place is to intimidate and frighten you—what is happening in the ionosphere is of a magnitude and “cause” beyond your Earth projections and worse, your more learned scientists know what it is and what could be done to shore it up and yet, are not allowed to do so.

You will note through the ages that even drawings of space creatures appear and have protective coverings about their beings—these are not in the form of bubble suits as you would recognize them relative to your astronaut uniforms. From Pleiades, for eons there is ability to encapsulate both the craft and the person, when out of the vehicles, within energy fields which give protection from your atmospheric environment which causes the same level of aging and damage as is done to Earth humans. In Pleiades, for instance, to be some 500 “years” of age is but barely bordering on approaching mid-life and would more likely be still considered very youthful. Furthermore, it might be advantageous for you of Earth to understand something about your brothers and sisters, who come from Pleiades most predominantly—they are beautiful in human form which surpasses your own physical stature and beauty—it would be most advantageous to have them for ancestors, for they are wondrous, indeed, as relative to yourselves. They are not unlike you—nor or they monstrous beings of mutant origins—they are a more perfected reflection of your races.

Fear of monsters and mutants are thrust into your minds by those who would control you in fear and terror. There is no basis in fact.

IMMANUEL

A perplexing aspect of your unfolding truth unto you, is your refusal to even look at that which contradicts in any manner that which you have been told—BY MAN, IN MAN’S NAME AND WITH AND THROUGH MAN’S TRANSLATIONS. HOW CAN YOU LEARN IF YOU REFUSE TO LOOK?

Why does it disturb man so much to come into truth regarding extraterrestrial (which means—not of terrestrial; nothing more and no lesser). Ones stand in the pulpits of your “Churches” and pronounce that his or her knowledge is directly from God or Christ—do you now denounce your own truth of the projection by discounting extraterrestrials and/or communication with them? By all definitions, God and/or “Jesus” Immanuel are extraterrestrials as you define the term—both are etheric and “speak” to “receivers” in this same manner! Why do you pronounce our words to be of evil, Satanic content and methods?—Satan is a very physical, earthy worker, brothers—who is he more apt to tamper with—YOU OF EARTHBOUND WHO CAN STILL BE DECEIVED OR WE, WHO ALREADY KNOW HIM FOR THAT WHICH HE IS?? EARTH IS IN THE AGE OF CHAOS AND SATANIC RULE—WHO DO YOU BELIEVE MIGHT BE GIVING YOU A SONG AND DANCE?

Extraterrestrials have had many experiences in events as outlaid in that which you call your Bibles. I again make reference to the scriptum about Immanuel (Immanuel, Emmanuel, Iisa, Essa, Esu, “Jesus”).

The scriptum is a document written by one, Judas Ischarioth, one of the few disciples with an education, my friends. He could read and write. The facts are such that his written words bear the truth and the projectors of the false history as projected upon you, would be in great panic to have truth presented and blow away the lies. Because Earth man doesn’t like the truth does not in the least change the truth of it—for TRUTH IS! EARTH MAN CONFUSES THE HISTORICAL TRUTH OF ONE, JUDAS ISCHARIOTH AND ONE, JUDA IHARIOTH. Is this such a hard disclosure to accept that perhaps in 2,000 years someone might make translation and typographical errors? Come now, allow him who is without error to cast of the first stone! I can only suggest that you obtain and read carefully indeed, AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL (Phoenix Journal #2). The Master “Jesus”, as you label him, oversaw the translation of the Arabaic scrolls—there are some misunderstandings of projections in some instances due only to lack of common definition of translated words. If you become enslaved to a point of record some 2,000 years past, you miss the point of the Christ’s manifestation at that time. He came to teach, lead and show you the fact of immortality. He experienced as a human and suffered as a human—YOU OF THE HUMAN MISSED THE POINT OF THE JOURNEY!

I am speaking of Pleiadian perspectives at this time—I speak of more spiritual matters in depth elsewhere—for we serve differing purposes and missions, your Pleiadian brothers and myself! We are from two different levels of dimension—and I believe we will clarify that matter by the ending of the writings.

Another sarcastic projection thrust at this scribe and other receivers is, “How is it that these extraterrestrials always speak the exact and proper language?” Simple, indeed—THEY DO IT THE OLD FASHIONED WAY—THEY LEARN THEM! Most can speak or understand “universal language” but many cannot decipher clearly in Earth dialects and when contact is made it is with ones whose language is studied and communications can be clearly translated. I, on the other hand, being etheric in experience, need no language and as I communicate, as with Dharma, I utilize frequency beams and “pulse” information which her mind is programmed to receive and place into English and sometimes into Native American—specifically Lakota Sioux extraction because the ancient truths shall come forth onto paper from a Lakota Sioux receiver of the Oral Teachings and the documents must be compatible. Dharma does not speak native language in any manner what-so-ever—nor any other language, save English.

Pleiadian extraterrestrials must learn languages. They possess all Earth languages, present and past, that were ever spoken and/or utilized. They have detailed knowledge of them in most different ways. From them, language training courses are given. This work is performed by language “scientists” and machines, similar to what you call computers. Machines of similar sort serve then to transmit the desired language and instill it into the student—directly. This is performed in a machine-induced hypnotic-like state, and by this method the language terms and senses become implanted and registered. The processing of a new language requires about 20-30 days. Then there is allowed another week or so to practice correct usage—in all, a new language can be quite well perfected in about a month of your counting.

Is this so difficult to comprehend? For several years now, on your own place, language institutes are using recorders and sleep-learning techniques. These techniques are in great use in the training of your so-called surveillance (spy) groups and are called programmed learning. Further, you have developed Robotoids who are totally programmed with imitation memory banks and are constantly manipulated by pulsed beam mechanisms for ongoing control of input and manipulated actions. Why would it be difficult to believe that higher societies than your own would have perfected the technology?

Dharma, allow us to close this segment at this point. There are physical things to be accomplished and we must allow you to “live” in your Earth format also. Tomorrow is labeled “Thanksgiving” and I recognize great thanks and appreciation for allowance of participation and we acknowledge the need for comradry with brothers and families. Go do that which needs doing in the physical and we will meet with this document this evening. I cannot give you the day off, chela, for we must write at least once per day as our time grows shorter and we must come into understanding regarding the information—therefore, I ask you to allow time for our work. I, too, have no words to express my thanks and appreciation to you with such willing hands to serve—may we all bow in wondrous gratitude unto God for his Grace and may He accept our joy and gratitude in the wondrous participation of our service. May we be given understanding into that which is unfolding before us. Salu. Hatonn to clear, please. I remain on circuit—go in security. Saalome’
