RE: SECRET SOCIETIES. Jan van Helsing
(EWERTVERLAG)

HATONN'S COMMENTS FOR TODAY:

I will mention at upstart that you can find your "examples" of the coalition of power in your every-day paper, periodicals, and in the media in almost all circumstances presented.

You will note, for instance, that on such channels as "Hallmark" you will have one after another offering of "Holocaust" distraction and the programs are presented "as if" they are valid documentaries but disguised as if "from a dream" or other diversions. Why is it necessary to so pound you with the false stories if the intent is not to have you accept the lies?

Turning to "banking" and CONTROL, as an example from the Front Page of the BUSINESS section of The Philippine STAR, is the following headline: "RP SETS ROADSHOW FOR $700M LOAN".

So what? Read on:

[QUOTING "Business", The Philippine STAR, Monday, May 21, 2001:]

GO BACK AND STUDY THE SEGMENT ON PART 20—REGARDING THE U.S. (FEDERAL RESERVE). SHOCKING? INDEED! AND, HERE WE GO IN THE PHILIPPINES DEAD AHEAD. READ THIS WITH THE PLAYERS IN MIND AS WELL AS THE TRAP INVOLVED. I ONLY ASK FOR A PARTIAL EXCERPT SO WE CAN GET ON WITH OUR JOB AT HAND.]

RP SETS ROADSHOW FOR $700M LOAN

Juanita Amatong, officer in charge of the Department of Finance (DOF), said government is not pushing though with its earlier plan to tap the international debt market through a private placement for a $200-million loan.

It was earlier reported that investment bank Chase Manhattan was given the MANDATE TO UNDERWRITE the deal but incoming Executive Secretary Alberto Romulo said the government is still studying the PROPOSALS OF J.P. MORGAN CHASE, SBC WARBURG AND LEHMAN BROTHERS...

[END OF QUOTING]

Is it already too late? Well, what do you mean by “already”? This PLAN has been working since centuries prior to now. What have YOU been doing to stop it? TOO LATE? Well, somebody has to DO something, don't they?

Our people are doing what they CAN 24-hours a day. These dark characters who serve Satan CANNOT BEAR THE LIGHT SHINING ON THEM OR THE REVELATION OF THEIR DARK AND OPPRESSIVE PLAN BEING REVEALED. THEY DEPEND ON THE SECRET SOCIETIES AND THE HIDING PLACES TO SHELTER THEM. THEY SHELTER UNDER THE LIES! THIS IS WHAT IS MEANT BY “TRUTH” BEING THE ONLY KEY TO ATTAINING FREEDOM. HOWEVER, SOMEBODY “MUST USE THAT KEY”. DON'T THEY? MOST OF YOU KEEP PROTECTING THE FALSE SPEAKERS WHO ARE ALONG FOR THE RIDE FOR THEMSELVES AND “USE YOU” TO MAKE IT ALL BUT IMPOSSIBLE FOR OUR OWN PEOPLE TO MAKE PROGRESS—FOR WHICH YOU WAIT AND CLAIM YOU WANT. So be it.

LOOK CLOSELY: That THIRD WORLD WAR is already lighting the SKY—near that old place CALLED ARMAGEDDON. However, I will tell you now, before the fact, that the BIG players before this one ends will not be little Palestine, good friends. Those are skirmishes as this next one is going to be a whammy—and speaking Hebrew OR Yiddish is not going to be an answer for either side. HOW FAR WILL YOU GO, CITIZENS OF THE WORLD, TO SERVE THE INTERNATIONAL BANKING CARTEL AND THEIR COMMITTEE OF 300 ELITE?

Let us move on, please.

CHAPTER 22

CECIL RHODES
AND HIS KNIGHTS OF THE ROUND TABLE

In his book None Dare Call It Conspiracy Gary Allen writes:

“THE ROUND TABLE organization in England grew out of the life-long dream of gold and diamond magnate CECIL RHODES for a ‘new world order’.

“Rhodes’ biographer Sara Millin was a little more direct. As she put it: the government of the world was Rhodes’ simple desire’.”

Quigley quotes:

In the middle 1890’s Rhodes had a personal income of at least a million pounds sterling a year which he spent so freely for mysterious purposes that he was usually overdrawn on his account...

“Cecil Rhodes’ commitment to a conspiracy to establish World Government was set down in a series of wills described by Frank Aydelotte in his book American Rhodes Scholarships.”

Aydelotte writes:

“...In his first will Rhodes states his aim still more specifically: The extension of British rule throughout the world...(with English as the world language), the foundation of so great a power as to hereafter render wars impossible and promote the interests of humanity.

“The ‘Confession of Faith’ (part of the testament) enlarges upon these ideas. The model for this proposed secret society was the Society of Jesus, though he mentions also the Masons.”

Gary Allen continues:

“It should be noted that the originator of this type of secret society was Adam Weishaupt, the monster who founded the Order of (Bavarian) Illuminati on May 1, 1776, for the purpose of conspiracy to control the world. The role of Weishaupt’s (Bavarian) Illuminati has long been recognized as models for Communist methodology. Weishaupt also used the structure of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) as his model, and rewrote his Code in Masonic terms.”

Aydelotte continues:

“In 1888 Rhodes made his third will... leaving everything to LORD ROTHSCHILD (his financier in mining enterprises), with an accompanying letter enclosing ‘the written matter discussed between us.’ This, one surmises, consisted of the first will and the ‘Confession of Faith’, since in a postscript Rhodes says ‘in considering questions suggest take Constitution of the Jesuits if obtainable’...

“Apparently for strategic reasons Lord Rothschild was subsequently removed from the forefront of the scheme. Professor Quigley reveals that Lord Rosebury replaced his father-in-law, Lord Rothschild, in Rhodes’ next (and last) will.

“The ‘secret society’ was organized on the conspiratorial pattern of circles within circles. Professor Quigley informs us that the central part of the ‘secret society’ was established by March, 1891, using Rhodes’ money. The organization was run for Rothschild by Lord Alfred Milner—The ROUND TABLE worked behind the scenes at the highest levels of British government, influencing foreign policy and England’s involvement and conduct of WW-I.”

William Bramley writes about the ROUND TABLE group:

“Rhodes was certainly on the right track. If he had reached his goal, many of the negative effects... by the network of the ‘Brotherhood of the Snake’ might have been undone. By a world language the detrimental effects touched upon in the story of the tower of babel, having to do with people talking in different tongues, might have been reversed. Fostering a feeling for world citizenship would help to overcome the forms of National Socialism that help to unleash wars. But something went wrong. He thought of realizing his objectives via the network of the corrupt ‘Brotherhood of the Snake’. So Rhodes set up institutions that ended up by falling into the hands of those who would use these institutions for the suppression of humanity.”

CHAPTER 23

HOW TO STAGE A WORLD WAR

The creation of the German empire under Bismarck upset the “balance of powers” that had been existing in Europe for more than two centuries. England ruled supreme over the continent until 1871. This supremacy had been repeatedly challenged by Spain and by France but England always remained victorious. The fact that Germany now grew stronger, by acquiring colonies and by building up its military force, was a severe threat to the Illuminati, but also to England and its supremacy over Europe both economically and militarily.

To counteract this, the international bankers who at that time were to a large extent excluded from the economic development in Germany, sought for ways to limit and control Germany. Between 1894 and 1907 a number of international treaties were signed to have Russia, France, England and further nations unite against Germany in the case of war.

It was the task of the COMMITTEE OF 300 to set the stage for the First World War. From the ROUND TABLE group emerged as a front the “Royal Institute for International Affairs” (RIIA). It is also known as “Chatham House” and had among its founding members Lord Albert Grey, Lord Arnold Toynbee—eminence grise of the MI6, H.G. Wells, Lord Alfred Milner—head of the Round Table, and H.J. Mackinder—inventor of the so-called geopolitics.

From the Committee of 300 the RIIA got the order to study possible ways to stage this war. The order was handed to Lord Northcliff, Lord Rothmere—both members of the Committee of 300 and Lord Toynbee of the MI6. The research was done in WELLINGTON HOUSE where “brainstorming” sessions developed ways and techniques to condition the public into supporting a war.

Edward Bernays and Walter Lippmann were American “specialists” attending. Lord Rothmere used his newspaper as a tool to try out their “social conditioning” techniques on his readers. After a test period of six months they had found that 87% of the public had formed opinions without rational or critical thought processes. That was what they wanted. Thereupon the English working class was subjected to sophisticated propaganda methods to convince them that they had to send their sons by the thousands to their deaths.

In America President Theodore Roosevelt, the 26th President, said during his election campaign in 1912:

“Behind the visible government there is an invisible government upon the throne that owes the people no loyalty and recognizes no responsibility. To destroy this invisible government, to undo the ungodly union between corrupt business and corrupt politics is the task of a statesman.” (Dieter Rugeberg: “Geheimpolitik”, p. 75)

CHAPTER 24

THE FIRST WORLD WAR
AS SEEN BY THE ILLUMINATI

At the beginning of the 20th century the world appeared to be at peace. But behind the scenes preparations were well under way for a blood bath the world would not forget for a long time.

The Illuminati had recognized that in order to fulfill their plan for a “New World Order” successfully, they had to create such a state of devastation that no nation would remain untouched.

Most historians agree that the cause of war was actually a rather trivial dispute between Austria and Serbia. The assassination of the Austrian heir to the throne Archduke Franz Ferdinand and his wife Sophie by the Serbian nationalist Gavrilo Princip of the occult secret society "Black Hand" in Sarajevo sparked the First World War.

This was used by the hidden powers to realize the World War that Albert Pike had predicted more than forty years before.

Since the events of that war are generally known, I would like to concentrate here on the Russian side. Despite having the largest army in the world Russia was desperately underequipped for any sizeable action. Before fighting started in 1914 the CROWN had promised Russia its full support and military help in the case of war. After the war had begun, that help was reduced to 10% of its pre-war level. Apparently the financial monopolists wanted to force Russia into as dangerous a situation as possible, in perfect agreement with Pike's plan.

At a time when millions of Russians had already died on the battlefields, the ROTHSCHILD agents compounded the problems by their activities. Their endeavours—following the Illuminati's philosophy founded upon misery and insecurity—to set the stage for a revolution following the German defeat, was successful.

The revolution started in February 1917 when the Czar was deposed and a provisional government under Prince Georgy Luvov took over. This government however did not succeed in staving off the national decline.

Here I would like to continue the chapter "Background of the Bolshevik Revolution", after TROTSKY and his rebels had left New York on the SS-Kristianiafjord with 20 million US$ in gold.

The boat—chartered by JACOB SCHIFF—was held up on April 3, 1917 by the Canadian authorities at Halifax, Nova Scotia. The Illuminati plan seemed doomed. But Jacob Schiff and his Illuminati friends in the U.S. government and in England exerted their influence and soon the voyage could continue. After arrival in Europe Trotsky went to Switzerland to meet with Lenin, Stalin, Kaganovich and Litvinov and to co-ordinate their strategy.

Perhaps it is interesting to note here that the heads and agents of all the nations involved in the war could meet in neutral Switzerland. At the Congress of Vienna in 1815—after Napoleon's defeat—Switzerland was restored. The confederation was guaranteed neutrality forever by the powers of Europe.

An accident?

Or, does not such a safe place in the centre of Europe fit the plans of the parties living off the war perfectly? As Dr. Coleman proves in his books, the Black Nobility plays the main role behind the "Swiss Theatre".

Now the conspirators faced the question of how to get the rebels and equipment from Switzerland to Russia. The answer was furnished by the ROTHSCHILD agent and chief of the German secret police MAX WARBURG. He had them all packed in a sealed railway carriage and made sure this passed safely through Germany to the Russian border. When the train stopped in Germany for the first time, two German officers got on to escort it. They had been commandeered by General ERICH LUDENDORFF.

undisputed leader of political activities while Trotsky organized the military arm, the "Red Army". That name was not an accidental choice. The Bolshevik army under Trotsky was the deadly instrument of the Khazar international bankers controlled by the Rothschilds (= red shield). So it was very befitting to have the army carry a red emblem.

It is now an established historical fact that most of the rebels led by Lenin were Jews. The Times of March 29, 1919, wrote that "one of the most interesting features of the Bolshevik movement is the high percentage of non-Russians in the leadership. OF THE 30 OR SO COMMISSIONERS OR LEADERS THAT FORM THE CENTRAL APPARATUS OF THE BOLSHEVIK MOVEMENT, NO LESS THAN 75% ARE JEWS."

Why did the Jews in particular have an interest in Russia or the Russian monarchy? Well, if you don't know about the Khazars, it won't make any sense. Remember that the Khazar empire had been conquered by the Varangians, later the founders of the Russian monarchy. As you know, the Jews believe in revenge and never forget their defeats. So, they prepared a very careful plan, an invisible plan, to win back "their" country and have somebody else punished for getting it back for them, i.e., the Bolsheviks.

According to the writings of General A. Nechvolodov the French secret service had found out that Jacob Schiff had directly supplied the Russian revolutionaries with a further 12 million US$. Nechvolodov also names Felix Warburg, Otto Kahn, Mortimer Schiff, Jerome H. Hanauer and Max Breitung in the U.S. and Max Warburg, Olaf Aschburg and Jivtovsky in Europe as further financiers of the Bolshevik Revolution.

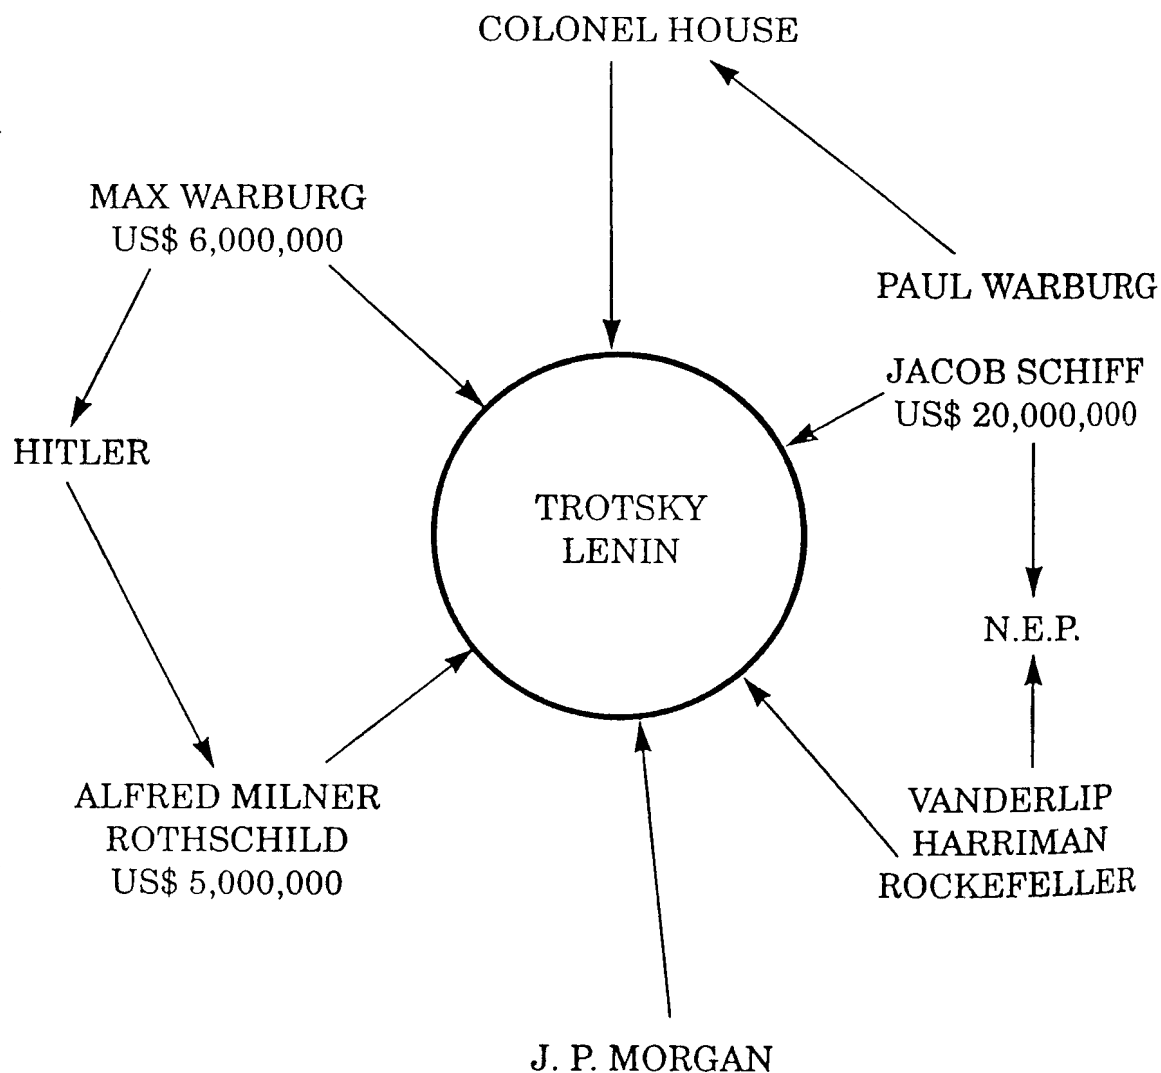

The ambassador of the Russian empire to the U.S., Bakhmetiev, declared that after the Bolshevik victory 600 million Roubles in gold were transferred from Russia to the Kuhn Loeb Bank in New York between 1918 and 1922.

The book "The Sealed Train" by Michael Pearson shows that—according to documents of the German Foreign Office—up to February 5, 1918 Germany had supplied 40,580,997 Marks for propaganda and "special requirements". In the same document it is stated that the German treasury released 15 million Marks to Russia one day after Lenin seized power.

The bloody massacre of millions of Russians and the enslavement of further millions was however of scant interest to the international bankers on their way to world dominance.

[H: There is a diagram which could be inserted here: THE FINANCING OF THE BOLSHEVIST REVOLUTION.]

THE FINANCING OF THE BOLSHEVIST REVOLUTION

Max Warburg was the brother of Paul Warburg, the first chairman of the "FEDERAL RESERVE BANK".

[H: Go back now and note at the top of this very writing we gave you some names, banks, etc. re: the Philippine "loans"—ONE OF THOSE WAS "WARBURG"! Is the handwriting getting a little more legible?]

In July 1917 the conspiracy supported by the international bankers suffered a first setback and LENIN, another infamous Khazar, had to flee with a few others to Finland. But in November 1917 they were finally successful.

And no wonder, if we look at the financial support they had following their training in New York. During the bloody civil war that ensued after the Bolshevik Revolution Lenin was the

CHAPTER 25

THE OCHRANA
(FORMER RUSSIAN SECRET SERVICE)

The Bolshevik Revolution was, however, not only supported by the U.S. and Germany. The OCHRANA, the secret service founded by the last Czar, consisted of several organizations that carried out all the usual functions of a secret service with secret agents, double agents, secret police and agents provocateurs. The Ochrana though was a very subversive and criminal group which greatly simplified the work of the Illuminati.

Huge sums of money from the international bankers, among others from ALFRED MILNER who later took over the secret "Round Table", were poured into the Ochrana that already had infiltrated the Bolshevik movement. Agents steered many of its activities. The infiltration was so strong that in 1908 four of the five members of the Petersburg committee of the Bolshevik party were Ochrana agents. They channeled the funds that came from the international bankers to the Bolsheviks who could therefore suppress their strongest opponents, the Mensheviks and the Socialist Party. Two agents of the Ochrana were the editor and the financial controller of the "Pravda" and supported its beginning.

It is said that the hidden Jew JOSEPH STALIN (his real name was Jossip Vissarionovich Djugashvili) was also a member of the Ochrana since he was an important contact between the Czarist police and the Bolsheviks.

After the deposition of the Czar in 1917 the Ochrana was officially disbanded, but it was rebuilt under the name CHEKA until in 1921 its membership was increased tenfold. In 1920 the name was changed to GPU, then to OGPU, then in 1934 to NKVD. The Russian system of concentration camps that was built up under Lenin and reached its peak under Stalin was governed by the NKVD. The camps formed part of the Soviet economy and almost half the gold and chromium production was mined with forced labour by camp inmates.

Until 1950 the camps claimed the lives of about 4 million people.

In the First World War around 10 million Russian soldiers were killed, not to mention the millions of civilians. Until 1950 the communist system had left about a further 40 million dead. Adding these up you have about as many dead as the old West Germany had living, and those are only the figures officially accessible.

Finally the NKVD became the MGB, then the KGB which in 1982 was the biggest secret service in the world—with 90,000 staff officers and 175,000 border guards—and remained it for a further ten years.

The GOSBANK, the Russian central bank, functioned after the same principles as the Federal Reserve. It created money from zero and was the dream of every financial capitalist. The Gosbank controlled the Soviet financial transactions even more than the central banks of the West, for all transactions between Soviet companies are carried out by the Gosbank. Thus Gosbank could control all the transactions that involved Soviet companies.

CHAPTER 26

[H: This is likely one of the shortest chapters you will find but it is extremely important!]

RUSSIAN OIL

After the Bolshevik Revolution "Standard Oil" (Rockefeller) bought from the Russians 50% of the huge Caucasian oil fields, although it was officially state-owned.

In 1927 Standard Oil built its first refinery in Russia, then made a contract with the Russians to sell their oil on the European market and supplied the Bolsheviks with 75 million US$.

[H: Anyone care to calculate how much money 75 million dollars represented in 1927?]

CHAPTER 27

THE BALFOUR DECLARATION

The establishment of a puppet regime under LLOYD GEORGE in London brought a visible change in the official policy towards Zionism. This paid huge dividends when the new Foreign Secretary ARTHUR BALFOUR wrote on November 2, 1917, the following letter to LIONEL ROTHSCHILD, recently made a peer of the realm:

Dear Lord Rothschild,

I have much pleasure in conveying to you in behalf of his Majesty's Government the following declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionist aspirations, which has been submitted to and approved by the cabinet.

His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavours to facilitate the achievement of this object, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country.

I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

Yours Sincerely,

Arthur James Balfour

The interesting thing is that at the time the letter was written, Palestine was still in the hands of the Turks. Here a nation promises the land that belongs to a second nation to a third.

A few years later the Turks were defeated and England took control of Egypt and Palestine, France of Lebanon and Syria.

Rothschild's part of the deal was to use its influence in the U.S. to involve these in the First World War on the side of the Allies, just at a time when the Allies had a lot of problems with Germany and the Turks.

CHAPTER 28

THE AMERICANS "WANT" TO FIGHT, TOO!

The main base of the Zionists was transferred from Berlin to New York under the guidance of Judge Louis D. Brandeis.

Important agents of the ROTHSCHILD BANK were Colonel EDWARD M. HOUSE and BERNARD BARUCH.

Take note of these names, they will play important roles. BARUCH was instrumental in the successful presidential campaign of WOODROW WILSON. Colonel HOUSE was Wilson's closest advisor who selected a cabinet to suit Rothschild interests and who practically ran the whole State Department. It was obvious that under the influence of Colonel Edward Mandell House Wilson became a perfect puppet of the Rothschilds. This he demonstrated very clearly when he did NOT veto the "Federal Reserve" resolution and asked the congress to agree to go to war against Germany.

Because of "great public pressure" Congress agreed, too. The public had been manipulated with the same "social conditioning" techniques developed by the WELLINGTON HOUSE of the RIIA that before had so well functioned in England. (The subject of "brain washing machines" has been well described in the books of Thomas E. Bearden and in Preston B. Nichols' book The Montauk Project, especially the Montauk chair which was based on developments by ITT.)

This propaganda was also assisted by Colonel House. In 1916 he used his influence—together with the shareholders of the "FED"—to convince the American public with propaganda and the aid of President Wilson, the Rothschild puppet, that it was its holy duty to use democracy to make this world safe. Shortly afterwards the Americans went to war. The Illuminati sold Woodrow Wilson to the American people by saying that he represented the "New Freedom".

The First World War was very good business for the illumined bankers. Bernard Baruch, who became chairman of the War Industries Board, raised his fortune from 1 million US$ to 200 million.

The next action by Woodrow Wilson at the behest of Colonel House was to convince Congress of the necessity of forming the "LEAGUE OF NATIONS" which later became the UN.

A further decisive step by the Illuminati towards world power had been taken.

Des Griffin describes the First World War from the viewpoint of the Illuminati as follows:

"1. America's policy of isolationism and neutrality, expounded so eloquently by George Washington in his farewell message and given official expression in the Monroe Doctrine, died. A precedent was established—albeit through monumental deceit—for America's use as a military tool in the hands of the International Bankers.

"2. Czarist Russia, a thorn in the side of the money monopolists for many years, had been successfully removed from the world scene. This had been forecast forty-seven years earlier by top Illuminist Albert Pike, in his famous letter to Mazzini.

"3. World War I created astronomical national debts in the nations which participated. These debts were held by the International Bankers who, as we have seen, organized and stage-managed the show from start to finish. 'Theatres of war' have always proved extremely lucrative to their managers and those who finance them!"

The Treaty of Versailles of course was also based on Rothschild plans. On the American side stood the Rothschild puppet Woodrow Wilson with his advisors and Rothschild agents Colonel House and Bernard Baruch, on the English side, more exactly the side of the CROWN, was Lloyd George, member of the Committee of 300, with his advisor SIR PHILIP SASSOON, a direct descendant of Amschel Rothschild and member of the English Privy Council. France had Prime Minister Clemenceau and GEORGE MANDEL as a delegation. Mandel, born JEROBEAM ROTHSCHILD, was often called the Disraeli of France, made this round perfect. Colonel House, at the peak of his powers, was the central figure at the Peace Conference. It happened once that Clemenceau arrived when President Wilson was with House. Wilson was required to leave the room while House and Clemenceau conferred in private.

Philip Snowden describes the treaty as follows:

"The treaty should satisfy brigands, imperialists and militarists. It is the deathblow to those who expected the end of the war to bring peace. It is not a peace treaty, but a declaration of another war. It is the betrayal of democracy and of the fallen in the war. The treaty exposes the true aims of the Allies."

Lloyd George said:

"We have written a document that guarantees war in twenty years."

"When you place conditions on a people (Germany) that it cannot possibly keep, you force it either to break the agreement or to war."

And we know now who the group of persons behind the treaty of Versailles was and what their aims were. Some ignorants may continue to deny the validity of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, but the presence of the ROTHSCHILD agents at the Versailles Peace Conference cannot be explained away as accidental.

CHAPTER 29

THE ROCKEFELLER MINISTRY ON FOREIGN RELATIONS (CFR)

The Illuminati provoked the First World War so that following it they could establish a world government. Had they succeeded already after then, the following wars would no longer have been necessary. After the armistice on November 11, 1918 WOODROW WILSON and his advisor Colonel HOUSE came to Europe in the hope to found there a World Government in the shape of the League of Nations. Wilson's "fourteen points" lost their impact though because of the equal assignment of guilt and so their plan failed. That is why in 1919 HOUSE met with members of the British secret organization "The Round Table". It had become obvious that in order to reach that aim, they had to expand their system substantially. After the RIIA had been established in England, it was decided that a fronting organization was also needed in the U.S. So Colonel House, serving as host for the Round Table group, called—during the peace conference in Paris in 1919—the best heads of Wilson's "Brain Trust" together to form a group dealing with international concerns.

This group then returned from Paris to New York and in 1921 was named the "Council on Foreign Relations" (CFR). The CFR has Americans

RE: SECRET SOCIETIES. Jan van Helsing (EWERTVERLAG)

SPECIAL ATTENTION: HIGHER DEGREES FOR SPECIAL EFFORTS

HATONN'S COMMENTS FOR TODAY:

ALL IN A DAY'S PLAY IN THE "BUSHES"

I am going to point out a few things to bring current reference to our ongoing Secret Societies offerings. I leave the running placement in the paper to the Staff but I do hope you will consider these notations, up top here, very carefully.

This is the time of bringing to a neat and compact closure and FORECLOSURE, with no escapes, the control of the world. The messages are very subtle and perhaps you should run a refresher course for self in "clue sleuthing"!

It is also a time when my own team must look at possibilities in the assistance of the very ones you are NOW under consideration as total losses or "the big plunder piddlers". No, they may not be among the winged angels—but they offer about the only hope of "survival".

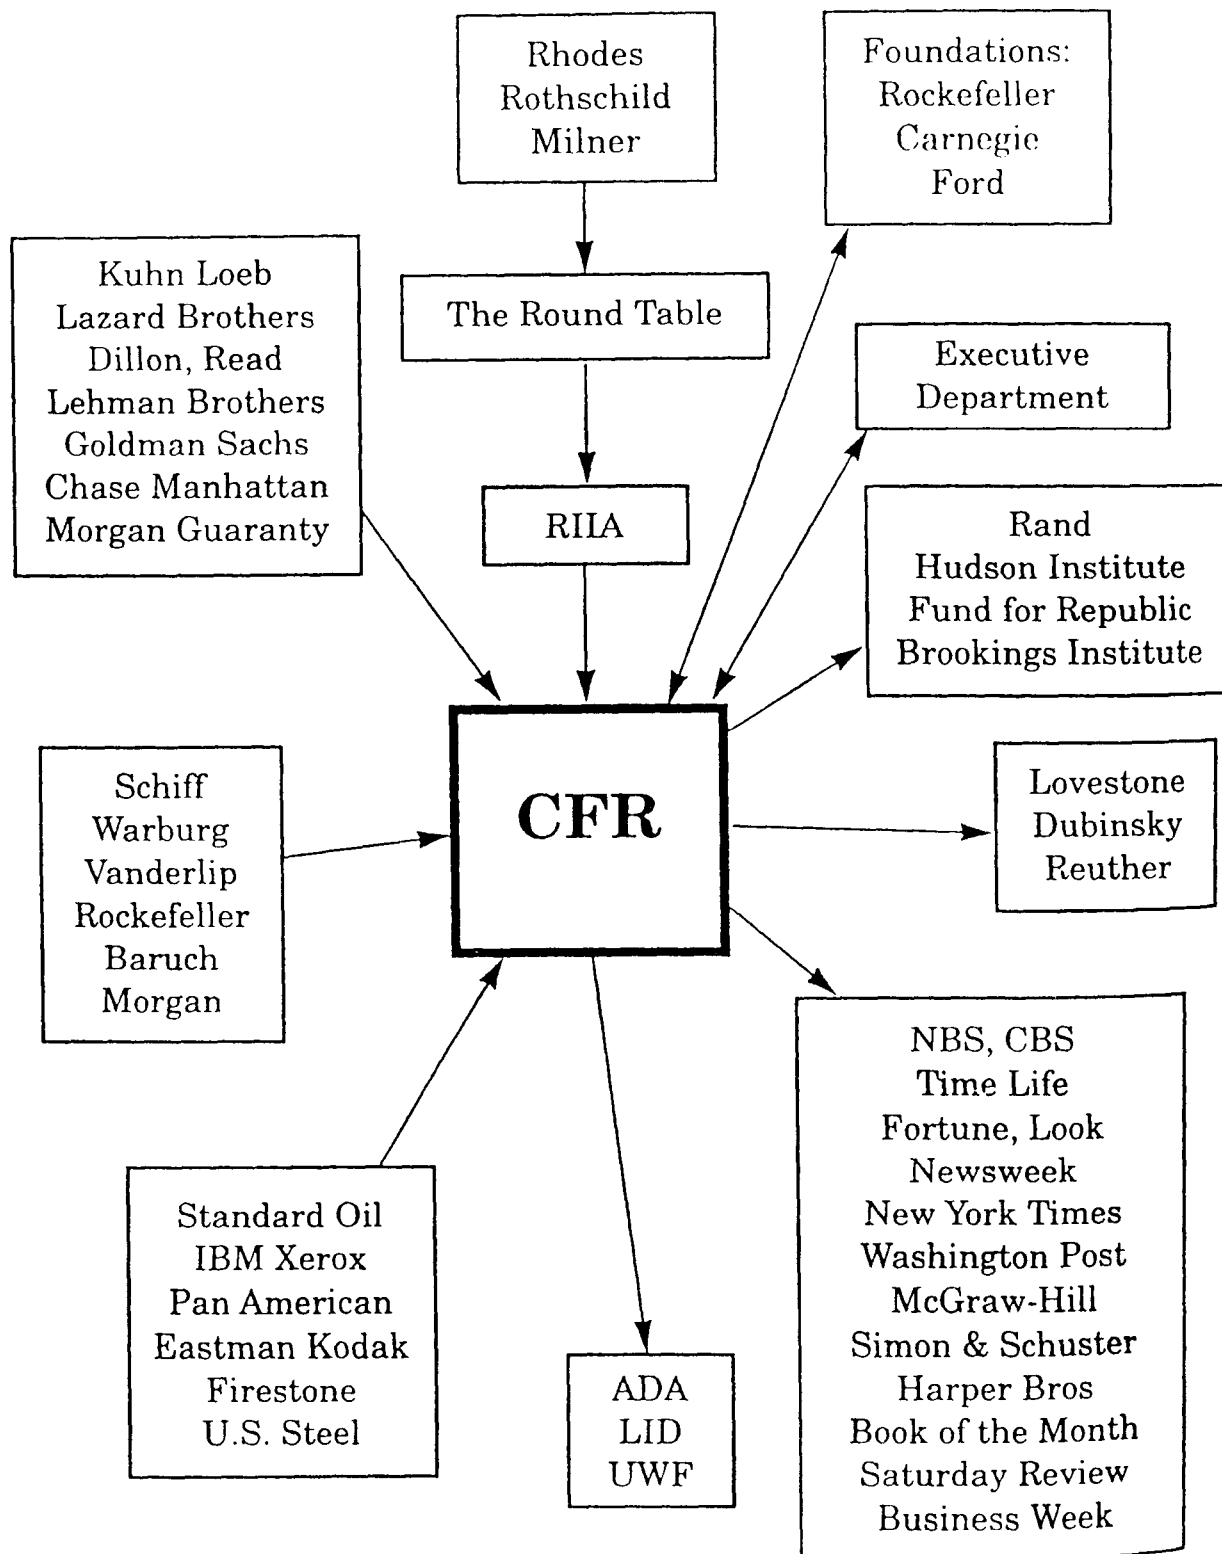

In the Philippines, for instance, the WORLD ORDER includes Ramos to be in control which will bring disaster to sovereignty in Southeast Asia unless the Muslims and true patriots put a stop to the "final seizure" of the nation in foreclosure.

WAR IS DEAD AHEAD—with emphasis on the "dead".

The very industries which are MANDATORY to a modern nation's very survival (energy production, product availability as in "food", and infrastructure upgrade), are being brought into control of the Power Players. Today there is, for instance, a headline that reads something to the point of a 200-M loan for the DOE (Department of Energy) is in the works from the WORLD BANK. This would of course equate to dollars. Then there is another reference to the government recovering the Philippine National Bank and on and on.

When the "government" now acquires anything it is with the intention of being lumped in with the acquisition groups of the New World Order IN FORECLOSURE ASSETS.

as its members and the Round Table group as its core organization. Today the CFR—together with the TRILATERAL COMMISSION—is the most influential background organization in the U.S. Both the CFR and the Round Table are behind the J.P. Morgan & Co. Bank, which explains why J.P. Morgan played an important role in its foundation.

THE INNERMOST CIRCLE OF THE CFR IS THE SKULL & BONES ORDER.

[H: The "CFR" illustration should be utilized here.] [END OF QUOTING CHAPTERS 22-29, Part 14]

In the U.S. please note that everything ALREADY belongs to the New World Order through the Federal Reserve. Remember: Tax funds only go to paying the ongoing INTEREST on the debt which is that which is borrowed from the Fed, et al., to run the nation. You know, those endless loans of which we just wrote yesterday.

Is it over then? Yes, if you don't gain control, citizens, and get rid of those UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND UNLAWFUL debts.

Who dares? NO, YOU DON'T! YOU EVEN ALLOW THE PUTDOWN OR TAKEOUT OF THE ONLY PARTIES WHO SERVE FREEDOM WHILE YOU PONDER HOW YOU "FEEL" ABOUT INDIVIDUALS IN SOME PETTY ARGUMENT OR ANOTHER—THE VERY DROPOUTS FROM A MOVE TO FREEDOM.

THE "SIDES" OF YOUR GLOBAL CONFRONTATION ARE RIGHT NOW GATHERING THEMSELVES: "TALIBAN CLOSES UN OFFICES" (Associated Press—today). Well, WHO runs and controls the UN—right through the pocketbook? Who donated the very land in the U.S. for the UN Headquarters? (Indeed, Rockefeller)—and where do you go from there? The first stop on that journey is to consider with what the U.S. PAYS DUES to such as the UN and is now withholding same: Right, directly from the loans OF YOU-THE-PEOPLE.

There is NOTHING on which the dollar is based—NOTHING! THEREFORE, WORLD, THE THEFTS ARE OUTRAGEOUS, ARE THEY NOT? CLEVER? WELL, INDEED! SATAN IS THE PRINCE OF "CLEVER"!

Next I ask that a couple of seemingly unrelated articles be offered here and see if you can make the connections to such as SKULL & BONES as a secret society of great importance, messages to move instantly around the globe—and Who's on first and What's on second and Where's at home....

I also ask that someone give Mark information on where to locate our prior writings on such as SKULL & BONES so he can run a bit of that information for your input. Bruce will have a book by Anthony Sutton in Dharma's boxes. The book came from John Schroepfer originally. See, you just can't let a thing slip by you. However, we wrote at length on that topic among thousands of others.

Will the following articles we will share tell anything out of the usual, especially about SECRET ORGANIZATIONS, or even SKULL & BONES? It wouldn't be a secret if it told you the facts, now, would it?

NOTE: The clues are going to be dealing with WAR and ACADEMIC DEGREES. See if YOU can find the clues:

PALESTINIANS INCREASINGLY DISAPPOINTED,
FRUSTRATED BY BUSH
Reporting: Christian Chaise

JERUSALEM (AFP)—The vitriolic accusations directed Saturday at the United States by the Palestinians following the previous day's bombardments by the Israeli air force demonstrate above all, the growing frustration they feel at the policy of the Bush administration.

Palestinian information minister Yasser Abed Rabbo issued a statement accusing the U.S. of being "Primarily responsible for the escalation of Israeli aggression against our people," SAYING THAT WASHINGTON WAS INFORMED BY ISRAEL IN ADVANCE OF THE BOMBARDMENTS AND THAT HAD BEEN INTERPRETED BY THE JEWISH STATE AS A "GREEN LIGHT" FROM THE U.S. [H: Which, indeed, it WAS! Does anyone around remember Iraq in 1990? Also a good year to remember in this connect-the-dots game for you readers—it is extremely important in this "code" plan.]

MOST VIOLENT

Those were the most violent comments against Washington by an official from the Palestinian authority since it was created, and also the first public attack by the Palestinians against the administration of George W. Bush.

The U.S. embassy in Tel Aviv described Abed Rabbo's comments as "ridiculous" and categorically denied that the U.S. had been warned in advance of the Israeli raids, which cost the lives of 12 Palestinians.

ABED RABBO'S COMMENTS APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN PROMPTED BY THE FACT THAT THE FIGHTER-BOMBERS USED FRIDAY BY ISRAEL WERE, ACCORDING TO THE PALESTINIANS, U.S.-MADE F-16 PLANES—WHICH MAKE UP A THIRD OF THE ISRAELI AIR FORCE.

REAL MOTIVE

"They are very angry about the raid last night," a diplomatic source told AFP to explain the strength of Abed Rabbo's comments, but the real motives behind his comments go much further, as is born out by the list of reproaches the minister made about the Bush administration.

The causes of friction between the Palestinian Authority and Washington have been building up over the last few weeks.

In particular, the Palestinians do not appreciate the fact that Yasser Arafat has still not received an invitation to go to Washington and that U.S. Secretary of State [Sir] Colin Powell seems in no hurry to meet him again, after a first meeting in February.

[H: Reminder: When a title of "Sir" is bestowed on someone, they AUTOMATICALLY become "a subject" of the CROWN of England—and have attachment directly to the British "ROUND TABLE". THIS MEANS THAT THE FIRST ALLEGIANCE TO NATION IS THE ONE UNDER WHICH THE "KNIGHTING" IS PRESENTED. YES, INDEED, READ IT AND WEEP—FOR THE WHOLE OF THE "NEW WORLD ORDER" ORCHESTRATORS, NOW IN CONTROL OF THE U.S., ARE ALL KNIGHTS OF BRITAIN. THE U.S. IS UNDER THE NOAHIDIC "RELIGIOUS" LAWS OF JUDAISM AND THE ALLEGIANCE IS TO BRITISH-ISRAEL. LADIES RECEIVING THIS "KNIGHTING" ARE CALLED LADIES BUT IT MEANS THE SAME THING—"SERVANTS" OF THE QUEEN/KING.]

For his part, SHARON (Israel), made an official visit to Washington in March, as soon as he came to power.

URGING U.S.

The Israelis are urging the U.S., both publicly and privately, NOT to invite Arafat so long as he has not clearly turned his back on the option of violence.

But from Abed Rabbo's point of view, the U.S.

authorities are falling into an Israeli trap by making a bargaining chip out of Arafat's meeting the administration.

"There is no confirmation yet," said the diplomatic source, "but it looks like Arafat is not going to get his appointment with Powell, let alone with Bush... and he (Abed Rabbo) is probably trying to force Powell's hand to make him meet with Arafat," with his comments.

Also, the Palestinians "tried to get the UN to have a special session on this (Israeli actions) this week and it didn't come around and they feel that we prevent it from happening," said the source.

"So I think there is this feeling that the U.S. doesn't understand their position and so he is mad (angry). [H: How many of YOU think the U.S. doesn't understand?]

The recent attempt by the Palestinians for the UN to convene a special session comes two months after the U.S. veto of a security council resolution on sending an international force to the territories, adding to Palestinian anger. [H: AND WHO CONTROLS THE UN?]

The Palestinians are also disappointed that the U.S. has not adopted the recommendations of the Mitchell commission.

[END OF QUOTING]

OK, now let's consider events of major importance. Remember that to become a world-class manipulator and gain honors at the Mother Institution (YALE) and her SKULL & BONES, you must HAVE A WAR (and check out the need for a THIRD WORLD WAR in the Protocols.)

In addition to the need for a war, check the economy and remember that to gain back control of an out-of-control economy—THERE MUST BE A MAJOR, MAJOR WAR!

But back to the seemingly mundane clue sleuthing: VERY IMPORTANT COMING UP:

[QUOTING The Philippine STAR, Tuesday, May 22, 2001, "BUSINESS" (???:)]

[H: You always ask for "timing", WELL THIS TELLS YOU THE SAD NEWS!]

NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT (Reuters) [H: See, again, international press distribution.]—U.S. PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH RETURNS TO YALE UNIVERSITY TODAY FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE HE GRADUATED IN 1968 TO ACCEPT AN HONORARY DEGREE FROM THE ELITE EASTERN SCHOOL HE KEPT AT ARM'S LENGTH AS A RISING TEXAS POLITICIAN.

The president was expected today to give a short speech to graduating students making light of his own checkered career at Yale, where he majored in history and earned average grades, as well as reflecting on the school's influence on his life.

The visit marks a home-coming for the Republican president, who was born in New Haven when his father, former President George Bush, was a student at Yale and whose daughter, Barbara, has just completed her first year at the university.

It also reflects something of a rapprochement between Yale and Bush, who is said to have been irked that the university TOOK UNTIL 1991 [H: NOTE THE YEAR!!!] TO BESTOW AN HONORARY DEGREE ON HIS FATHER and who chose for decades to stay away.

"It's his first trip back to Yale," said a Bush associate, who said the president would honor a Yale tradition of making brief remarks at the outdoor commencement ceremony for the roughly

1,300 undergraduates receiving degrees.

“Typically, these are lighthearted remarks,” he added. “He also will express his gratitude for the Yale experience that helped shape his life for the better. He is honored to be returning for this special moment.”

A highly selective private university founded in 1701, Yale has about 11,000 students split roughly half-and-half between its undergraduate and graduate programs. Undergraduate fees will total $34,000 next year for tuition, room and board.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, readers if you didn't connect 1991, the Iraq war and Dad Bush—YOU FLUNK “WORLD FREEDOM COURSE 101”.

AND, YOU HAD BETTER BELIEVE THAT WHAT IS HAPPENING IN MANILA IS TOTALLY ENTANGLED WITH THIS “HONORARY DEGREE” AT YALE.

THE “FAT LADY” IS SINGING HER HEART OUT ON CENTER STAGE!

[Dharma: What's not to love about this job?]

It might well seem very appropriate that the next Chapter of Secret Societies is “PREPARING THE SECOND WORLD WAR” because you are now READY for the THIRD.

To relate this to the Philippines, let us just consider it something like EDSA 1-100. People Power? Perish the thought—especially considering that a Mr. Maisto planned and set up even the FIRST “EDSA People Power”.

YES, YOU “DO” HAVE A SOLUTION AND A WAY OUT—BUT IT REMAINS TO BE SEEN IF ANYONE WILL EVEN USE IT! BUT THEN, WHO WILL HEAR “GOD”? YOU PRAY ENDLESSLY AND THEN IGNORE AND DENY HIM.

These are just a few games and thoughts for today.

Dharma, relabel this so it can be separated easily for use today. Thank you. (Just a “#1” and the next part can be “#2”.)

CHAPTER 30

PREPARING THE SECOND WORLD WAR

On February 6, 1929, MONTAGU NORMAN, chairman of the BANK OF ENGLAND, came to Washington to consult with the U.S. Secretary of the Treasury ANDREW MELLON. Afterwards, the “Federal Reserve” raised the leading interest rate.

On March 9, 1929, Paul Warburg wrote in the Financial Chronicles:

“If we allow orgies of unlimited speculation to go too far, ... then a total collapse is assured.”

Those who understood quietly withdrew from the stock exchange and invested IN GOLD AND SILVER. Des Griffin adds:

“In the fall of 1929 it was time for the International Bankers to push the button that set in motion the machinery that resulted in World War Two. After they, their agents and friends had sold out at the crest of an artificially inflated stock market boom, the International Bankers pulled the rug out from under the whole system and sent the United States into what became known as the Great Depression. In the years that followed, the economies of nations around the world slowed to a virtual standstill.” (Descent Into Slavery)

The general despair due to the depression was cleverly used by the Illuminati to buy land and companies for peanuts. It also furnished them with a good opportunity to deepen their influence upon the U.S. government, and just as planned the CFR began to pull important government people, leading industrialists, press managers and high military personnel into their ranks.

CHAPTER 31

ADOLF HITLER OFFERS A CURE

As we have just seen, the German development following the treaty of Versailles was predetermined by demanding of Germany reparation payments of 123 billion gold mark and 26% per annum of the value of German exports. The collapse of the German currency because of these payments was foreseeable—chronic inflation!

In the midst of this chaos Germany issued a moratorium on all payments of reparation for two years. The victorious powers refused and on January 9, 1923 voted three to one—England voted against at the behest of the CITY—that the German Reich be deemed in arrears in its payments in kind. Upon this French and Belgian troops occupied the Ruhr area. But when the German workers in the Ruhr called a general strike, the occupation proved a flop. The troops left this dead-end when Germany agreed to a compromise known as the DAWES Plan.

The “Dawes Plan” was conceived by J.P. Morgan, the ROTHSCHILD henchman, and should grant Germany credits of 800 million US$ in the first four years. The Dawes Plan however failed when Germany's reparation payments grew. It was replaced by the “Young Plan” (named after the Morgan agent Owen Young): In order to plunder more easily, the international bankers established the “Bank for International Settlement” (BIS). Thus the reparation payments for the First World War were easily executed by transferring funds from the loan accounts of one country to the accounts of another, also with this same bank. Here again the bankers profited, with charges and commissions.

Professor Quigley states:

“It is noteworthy that this system (Dawes and Young Plans) was established by the international bankers and that lending money to Germany was very profitable for those bankers.”

This is a prime example of the Machiavellian system. On the one hand the bankers supported all the warring parties and now they even loaned the money for the reparation payments by the Germans. Whatever Germany did, it was clear from the outset from whom they would—or rather had—to lend [borrow] money. It was the very same group that had planned, financed and steered the First World War and had cleaned up in the process.

[H: FOR INFORMATION CROSS-CHECK—I CANNOT URGE YOU STRONGLY ENOUGH TO GET DR. JOHN COLEMAN'S BOOK THE COMMITTEE OF 300. THEN, GET ALL THE OTHER BACKUP YOU WISH; BUT USED TOGETHER THE CONFIRMATION OF BOTH IS LAID BEFORE YOU—AND YOU CAN ALSO DETECT WHAT IS UPON YOU NOW AND NEXT.]

But the show went on. There were other plans and goals to realize—it was the turn of war number two! The immense sums that after 1924 flowed from American capital to Germany under the Dawes and Young plans formed the foundation upon which Hitler built his war machinery.

As Dr. Anthony C. Sutton writes in his book Wall Street and the Rise of Hitler:

“The sum paid before 1940 by American capitalism to Germany in preparation for war can only be called phenomenal. No doubt it was decisive for the military preparation in Germany. There is ample proof suggesting that the influential sector of American business not only knew about the nature of Nazism, but actively (and lucratively) supported it for self-interest wherever possible, in the full knowledge that in the end there would be a war into which both Europe and the U.S. would be drawn...

"To claim ignorance is incompatible with the facts.

"The carefully researched evidence that American banking and industrial circles were most instrumental in the rise of Hitler's Third Reich is now publicly accessible. They can be found in the protocols and reports of government hearings that had been published by several Senate and House committees between 1928 and 1946. Among the most important are: House Subcommittee to Investigate Nazi Propaganda (1934) and the report by the Senate Subcommittee on War Mobilization (1946)."

A fascinating tale is unveiled by the historian G. Edward Griffin:

In the years prior to World War Two there came into existence an INTERNATIONAL CARTEL, centered in Germany, that dominated the entire world's chemical and drug industries. It has spread its operations to 93 countries and was a powerful economic and political force on all continents. It was known as I.G. FARBEN.

I.G. stands for "Interessengemeinschaft" which translates as "association of interests" or simply "cartel". By the beginning of World War Two, I.G. Farben had become the largest industrial corporation in Europe, the largest chemical company in the world, and part of the most gigantic and powerful cartel of all history.

In 1926 I.G. Farben had developed a method to extract petrol from coal and in 1929 entered a licensing agreement with Standard Oil (Rockefeller). This company gave I.G. Farben 546,000 of ordinary shares valued at more than 30 million US$. Two years later I.G. Farben signed what was known as the ALIG Agreement with Alcoa Aluminum. I.G. Farben produced about half the petrol in Germany. Later they built refineries next to the concentration camps and had the inmates slog for them as forced labourers. I.G. Farben was one of the largest combines controlled by ROTHSCHILD and pumped huge sums of money into the German economy, especially to the future SS. On the board of I.G. Farben there were MAX and PAUL WARBURG (Federal Reserve) who had large banks in Europe and the U.S. A further member was C.E. Mitchell, also on the boards of the "FED" and the "National City Bank" and H.A. Metz of the "Bank of Manhattan".

HERMANN SCHMITZ, the president of I.G. Farben, was also on the board of the "Deutsche Bank" and of the "Bank for International Settlement".

The brothers Averell and Roland HARRIMAN (initiation into the Skull & Bones in 1917) greatly helped to finance the Nazis, this via the UNION BANK. Subsidiaries of ITT and General Electric supported the pre-war German SS directly.

James Martin, head of the Department of Economic Warfare in the Department of Justice had researched the structure of Nazi industry and in his book All Honourable Men writes:

The principal link between Hitler and the Wall Street money barons was HJALMAR HORACE GREELEY SCHACHT, the president of the Reichsbank, whose family for many years were closely aligned to the international financial elite. Schacht was the man who masterminded the plan to rebuild Germany (the "Young Plan") and also the "Bank for International Settlement". The plan masterminded by Schacht worked perfectly and resulted in bringing events in the Weimar Republic to an explosive head. DR. FRITZ THYSSEN, the German industrialist, stated that he "turned to the national Socialist party only after I became convinced that the fight against the Young Plan was unavoidable if complete collapse of Germany was to be prevented. Acceptance of the Young Plan and its financial principles increased unemployment more and more, until about one million were unemployed."

Fertile ground, of which the "THULE-GESELLSCHAFT" (Thule Society) with its tool Adolf Hitler had all but to make use.

After the crash of 1931 German industry was almost bankrupt. Fritz Thyssen officially joined the National Socialist Party and supported Hitler. The largest part of his fortune was handled by the "BANK VOORHANDEL" which in turn was controlled by the UNION BANK. The Union Bank was a Thyssen-Harriman connection. Of its eight directors four were "SKULL & BONES" members and two were Nazis.

Harriman at the same time financed the Soviets and the Nazis via the BROWN BROS. HARRIMAN BANK. One of his closest allies was PRESCOTT BUSH, father of GEORGE BUSH, ex-president of the U.S. Both Prescott and George Bush are members of the "Skull & Bones".

Up to 1936 more than one hundred American companies were involved in the build-up of the German war machine, among them General Motors, Ford, International Harvester and Du Pont. The motives for these investments could not be just for short-term gains as the contracts between these companies and the German government stated that not a penny was to leave Germany.

The profits would come only five years later, when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor and so pulled the U.S. into World War Two. You see, at this time everything was already planned in detail, but only insiders knew about it.

Here Des Griffin summarizes those last events:

The International Bankers and their agents created conditions that resulted in World War I; they made a financial killing as a result of the war; they financed the Russian Revolution and seized control of that vast nation; they manipulated events in Europe after the war so as 'to create a condition' (Edward Stanton's words) the result of which left them 'sitting in heaven' financially; they used American loans, on which they were paid huge commissions, to re-equip German industry with 'the most advanced technical facilities' and to make her 'industrial system...the second best in the world by a wide margin'; in the process of their manipulations these unscrupulous, monopolistic vultures used and abused the Germans to the point where they earned their undying hatred, and by building up German industry at the same time as they greatly antagonized the populace, they set the scene for the arrival on the political stage of a strong man who could rally the masses behind his 'cause' by promising them freedom from the international financial predators... Germany in the early 1930s was an International Banker-created time-bomb, waiting for a Hitler-type individual to come on the scene and seize control. (Descent into Slavery).

CHAPTER 32

ADOLF SCHICKLGRUBER AND THE "THULE-GESELLSCHAFT"

To throw some light on the mysterious "Third Reich" and the role of Adolf Hitler I have to go a bit further afield. All over the world Germans were—and since the last attacks on homes for people seeking political asylum still are—linked to the Third Reich. But very few know the actual motives from that time. One hears about the "Aryan master race theory" and the "gassing of the Jews", but not one percent know about the origin of these. In their schoolbooks the German children are told of the evil Adolf Hitler who apparently, supported by aimed propaganda and mass hypnosis, was the only culprit of those events. They are not told from whom he took his ideology, who had put him into his position and, above all, who had financed him. Actually, 95% of the financial support came from Jewish sources. Interesting, isn't it? The Allies had quite intentionally removed or forbidden all the books that could have uncovered this, and so today a dark mystic veil lies upon Germany's recent past. Therefore I consider it more than necessary to shed some light into this dark area, even if some theories will be thought by some to be outrageous. At least here you find the "right stuff" to discuss later.

Between 1880 and 1890 many personalities—among them some of England's most brilliant minds—found together and formed "THE HERMETIC ORDER OF THE GOLDEN DAWN". Its members came largely from the Mother Grand Lodge of FREEMASONS and the ROSICRUCIANS. In a way the Golden Dawn was leading esoteric Freemasonry (rather positive) in England and was its innermost and most secret circle.

Members are among others:

FLORENCE FARR; W.B. YEATS (Nobel prize for Literature); BRAM STOKER (author of Dracula); GUSTAV MEYRINK (author of The Golem and The Green Face); ALEISTER CROWLEY (perhaps the best-known magician of the last hundred years who later got into black magic, founder of the Thelma Church and 33rd degree Freemason of the Scottish Rite); RUDOLF STEINER (founder of antroposophy, Freemason of the Scottish Rite, head of the German Theosophical Society, Grand Master of the Illuminati order ORDO TEMPLI ORIENTIS (OTO) and Grand Master of the branch MYSTERIA MYSTICA AETERNA, later left the "Golden Dawn" because of differing views).

Steiner refused to allow the occultist Trebisch-Lincoln access to the "Golden Dawn", a decision which later was held against him.

In 1917 the occultist BARON RUDOLF VON SEBOTTENDORF, the Gurdjieff disciple KARL HAUSHOFER, the ace pilot LOTHAR WAIZ, PRELATE GERNOT of the secret "Societas Templi Marconi" (The Inheritors of the Knights Templar) and MARIA ORSIC, a transcendental medium from Zagreb, met in Vienna. They all had extensively studied the Golden Dawn, its teachings, rituals and especially its knowledge about Asian secret lodges. Sebottendorf and Haushofer were experienced travelers of India and Tibet and much influenced by the teachings and myths of those places. During the First World War Karl Haushofer had made contacts with one of the most influential secret societies of Asia, the Tibetan "Yellow Hats" (dGe-lugs-pa). This sect was formed in 1409 by the Buddhist reformer Tsong-kha-pa. Haushofer was initiated and swore to commit suicide should his mission fail. The contacts between Haushofer and the Yellow Hats led in the Twenties to the formation of Tibetan colonies in Germany.

The four young people hoped that during these meetings in Vienna they would learn something about the secret revelatory texts of the KNIGHTS TEMPLAR and also about the secret fraternity DIE HERREN VOM SCHWARZEN STEIN (“The Lords of the Black Stone”). Prelate Gernot was of the “Inheritors of the Knights Templar”, which to my knowledge are the only true Templar society. They are the descendants of the Templars of 1307 who passed on their secrets from father to son—until today. Prelate Gernot apparently told them about the advent of a new age—the change-over from the Age of Pisces to the Age of Aquarius. They discussed that our solar year—according to the twelve revolutions of the moon—was divided into twelve months and thus the revolution of our sun around the great central (the BLACK SUN of ancient myths) was also divided into twelve parts. Together with the precession of the cone-shaped proper movement of the Earth due to the inclination of the axis, this determines the length of the world age. Such a “cosmic month” is then 2,155 years, the “cosmic year” 25,860 years long. According to the Templars the next change is not just an ordinary change of the age, but also the end of a cosmic year and the start of an absolutely new one. By completing the 25,860 years the Earth is changing from the age with the weakest (Pisces) to the age with the strongest radiation (Aquarius). Indo-Aryan definition call this the end of the Kali Yuga, the age of sin. All age changes have led to political, religious, social and also geological upheavals of great impact. The time of change-over from the old to the new age is called in Mesopotamian teachings the three “double steps of Marduk”, of 168 years duration, at the mid-point of which the ILU ray, the Divine Ray, is expected to reach the Earth.

The Templars did careful calculations and concluded that February 4, 1962 was the date the ray would reach Earth. This gave the mid-point of the 168 years changeover phase and the years 1934 and 1990 as other important dates.

The main part of the discussions dealt with the background of a section of the New Testament, Matthew 21:43. For there Jesus addressed the JEWS:

“Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.”

The complete original text that is kept in the archives of the “Societas Templi Marcioni” says it even more clearly. But the point is: In that text Jesus actually names the “people”, He talks to Teutons serving in the Roman legion and he tells them that it is THEIR people that he had chosen. That was what Sebottendorf and his friends wanted to know for sure: That the Teutonic, i.e. the German people was commissioned to form the realm of light upon Earth—in the “Land of the Midnight Mountain” (Germany). The place where the ray would meet the Earth was given as the Untersberg near Salzburg.

At the end of September 1917 Sebottendorf met with members of the Lords of the Black Stone at the Untersberg to receive the power of the “Black-Purple Stone” after which the secret society was named.

The Lords of the Black Stone who formed out of the Marcionite Templar societies in 1221 and were led by Hubertus Koch had set as their aim the fight against evil and the building of Christ’s realm of light. This dark power they were to fight had revealed himself in the so-called Old Testament through Moses and other medium as God, starting with the words by YHWH = JAHVEH = Jehovah to Abraham: “I am God Almighty!”

[H: Philippines: Pay attention, for there is a real “ouchy” ahead.]

In Hebrew: “Ani ha El Shaddai”, translated: I am El Shaddai—the “outcast Archangel (Shaddai El)—Sheitan or Satan” (see the original translation of Genesis 17:1, e.g. in: The Bible, New International Version).

Sebottendorf clearly recognized: The Shaddai, the God of the Old Testament, is the destroyer, the antagonist of God. His followers therefore sought to destroy the Earth, Nature and humanity. And the followers were the believers in Mosaic Law, the Hebrews. (Remember the tenets of the Talmud!)

In the Gospel of John, 8:39-45, Jesus states this directly. There he addresses the Jews:

‘Abraham is our father’, they (the Jews) answered.

‘If you were Abraham’s children,’ said Jesus, ‘then you would do the things Abraham did. As it is, you are determined to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. Abraham did not do such things. You are doing the things your own father does.’

‘We are not illegitimate children,’ they protested. ‘The only Father we have is God Himself.’

Jesus said to them, ‘If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but He sent me. Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father’s desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me!’

[H: Where might we have heard that before?]

Today still many people naively ask: But why then did Hitler go against the Jews? I hope that the last few lines have shown you. In the eyes of the THULE-GESELLSCHAFT, from which later emerged the DAP (German Workers’ Party), the SS (Schutzstaffel), the Jewish people who had been charged by the Old Testament god JAHVEH to “raise havoc on Earth” were the reason why the world was always caught up in war and discord.

The Thule people knew about the Jewish banking systems, i.e., Rothschild and allies, and the Protocols of the Elders of Zion and felt it was their task to fight the Jewish people, but especially their banking and lodge system, in accordance with the Revelation of Sahaja, and to erect the realm of light upon Earth.

Author’s Comment:

As you can see, these people were just as incapable to remedy the cause as their Lord Jesus had told them how—to change the world with love for creation, for oneself and for the neighbour (and that neighbour can also be of another race or religion). But they had relinquished self-responsibility and gave it to a GUILTY one, a SATAN. Their hatred made them so blind that they never realized that they used the same weapons as the purportedly satanic god Jahveh they wanted to fight. They should have known though that one cannot achieve peace by war.

A circle formed around BARON RUDOLF VON SEBOTTENDORF that via the “Teutonic Order” in 1918 in Bad Aibling became the “THULE-GESELLSCHAFT”. The themes they tried to link to politics were scientific magic, astrology, occultism and Templar knowledge as well as Golden Dawn practices like Tantra, Yoga and Eastern meditation.

The Thule-Gesellschaft believed, following the revelation of Isais, in a Coming Saviour (German: Heiland = the Holy One), the Third Sargon who would bring to Germany glory and a new Aryan culture. Dietrich Bronder (Before Hitler Came) and E.R. Carmin (Guru Hitler) named the leading members as follows:

1. Baron Rudolf von Sebottendorf, Grand Master of the Order
  2. Guido von List, Master of the Order
  3. Jörg Lanz von Liebenfels, Master of the Order
  4. Adolf Hitler, “Führer”, German Chancellor, SS Superior
  5. Rudolf Hess, Vice Führer, and SS Obergruppenführer
  6. Hermann Göring, Reichsmarschall and SS Obergruppenführer
  7. Heinrich Himmler, Reichsführer SS and Reichsminister
  8. Alfred Rosenberg, Reichsminister and NS-Reichsleiter
  9. Hans Franck, Dr. Dr. h.c., NS-Reichsleiter and Governor General of Poland

Later the Thule-Gesellschaft split in two, the esoterics (Greek: esoteris = the inner), among which counted Rudolf Steiner, and the exoterics (Greek: exoteris = the outer), who later were led by Hitler. The Thule-Gesellschaft in its inner core was peaceful in nature, besides knowing about the Illuminati and El Shaddai. It was Hitler who became more radical. When Hitler had taken over the NSDAP, he prohibited the Thule and the Vril Gesellschaften after they had helped him to his position. Towards the end of the war he contacted them again, especially the Vril-Gesellschaft, because of their advanced technology and their special contacts.

A short history of “THULE”

“ULTIMA THULE” apparently was the capital city of the first continent peopled by Aryans. This was called HYPERBOREA and was older than Lemuria and Atlantis (continents with advanced cultures since submerged). The Scandinavians have a tale of “Ultima Thule”, the wonderful land in the high North, where the sun never sets and the ancestors of the Aryan race dwell.

Hyperborea was up in the North Sea and sank during an ice age. It is assumed that the Hyhyperboreans came from the solar system Aldebaran which is the main star in the constellation Taurus, and that they were about four meters tall, white, blond and blue-eyed. They knew no war and were vegetarians (so was Hitler). According to alleged Thule texts they were technically very advanced and flew “Vril-ya”, flying machines that today we call UFOs. These flying disks were capable of levitation, extreme speeds and the manoeuvres known from today’s UFOs due to two counter-rotating magnetic fields and they used the so-call Vril power as energy potential or fuel (Vril = ether, Od, Prana, Chi, Ki, cosmic force, Orgon..., but also from the academic “vri-IL” = as the highest deity = god-like), i.e., they take the energy from the earth’s magnetic field (free energy) like the “tachyon converter” of Captain Hans Coler.

When HYPERBOREA began to sink the Hyperboreans are said to have burrowed with huge machines gigantic tunnels into the Earth’s crust and settled under the Himalayan region. The subterranean realm is called AGHARTA and its capital SHAMBALLAH. The Persians call this land “Aryana”, the land of origin of the Aryans.

[H: You are incorrect to confuse “Aryan” with the oft-intentionally mixed up “Arian”.]

Here we should mention that Karl Haushofer claimed that Thule was actually Atlantis and—contrary to all other researchers of Tibet and India—he said that the surviving Thule-Atlanteans were separated into two groups, a good one and an evil one. Those who called themselves after their oracle Agharta were the good and settled in the Himalaya region, the evil ones were the Shamballah who wanted to subjugate humanity and they went West. He maintained that the fight between the people of Agharta and Shamballah had been going on for thousands of years and that in the Third Reich the Thule-Gesellschaft as Agartha’s representative continued it against the representatives of Shamballah, the Freemasons and the Zionists. This perhaps was his mission.

[H: Oh, indeed, there are some gross errors in this information, but it is, after all, NOT “my” book and, therefore, my obligation is to present as is. Time limitations prohibit sorting it here or now.]

The head of this subterranean region he said was Rigden Iyepo, the king of the world, with his representative upon the Earth’s surface, the Dalai Lama. Haushofer was convinced that the land below the Himalayas was the birthplace of the Aryan race, which he claimed to have confirmed during his Tibet and India travels.

The symbol of Thule was the swastika counter clockwise. Tibetan lamas and the Dalai Lama personally testified that people from Agartha were still living today. The subterranean land that is anchored in almost all Eastern traditions has spread over the millennia under all of the Earth’s surface with huge centres under the Sahara desert, the Matto Grosso and the Santa Catarina mountains in Brazil, Yucatan in Mexico, Mount Shasta in California, England, Egypt, Czechoslovakia.

It seems that Hitler especially sought to discover the entrances to the subterranean world Agartha and to get in contact with the descendants of the Aryan “God people” from Aldebaran-Hyperborea. In the myths and traditions of the subterranean world it is often said that the world’s surface was yet to suffer a terrible world war (Third World War) which would though be ended by earthquakes, other natural disasters and a switching of the poles and the deaths therefrom of two thirds of humanity. After this “last war” the several races of the inner earth would reunite and the survivors on the surface that the thousand-year GOLDEN AGE (age of Aquarius) would be rung in. Hitler wanted to build an outer “Agartha” or “Aryana” with the Aryan master race, and Germany should be its home. During the existence of the “Third Reich” two large expeditions were sent by the SS to the Himalayas to find those entrances. Further expeditions searched in the Andes, the Matto Grosso mountains in the North and the Santa Catarina mountains in the south of Brazil, in Czechoslovakia and parts of England.

Some authors claim that the Thule people believed that—quite independently of the subterranean tunnel and city system—the Earth was HOLLOW, with two great openings at the poles. Natural laws were quoted, “as above, so below”. Since blood, body or egg cells, a comet or an atom all have a nucleus and a hollow space surrounding it that is enclosed by a “corona radiata”, an envelope, and the actual “life” is taking place in the core, one has deduced that the Earth was built after the same principles. Druses confirmed this, as they were hollow and the “life”, the minerals and crystals, were in the interior.

Therefore the Earth also had to be hollow—apparently agreeing with the views of the Tibetan Lamas including the Dalai Lama—and had a nucleus, the Central sun (also called the “Schwarze Sonne”, the Black Sun) that gave the interior an even climate and permanent sunlight, corresponding in the microcosm to the central sun of the galaxy in the macrocosm.

They maintain that the actual life of our planet takes place in the interior—the master race lives inside and the mutants on the surface—and that this was also the reason why we wouldn’t find any life upon other planets of our solar system, because their inhabitants live inside. The main entrances are at the North and South poles through which the central sun is shining and producing the aurora borealis. In the interior the land mass was exceeding the water mass. The polar explorer Olaf Jansen and others said that the water in the interior was fresh, which could explain why the ice of the Arctic and the Antarctic is made of freshwater, not salt water. It is interesting to note that this view of the make-up of the world is shared and supported by the polar explorers Cook, Peary, Amundsen, Nansen and Kane and, last but not least, Admiral E. Byrd. All had the same, strange experiences contradicting existing scientific theory.

All confirmed that after 76 degrees latitude the winds became warmer, that birds flew north over the ice, that animals like foxes also went north, that they found coloured and grey snow which when thawed left coloured pollen or volcanic ash. The question arises: where do flower pollen or volcanic ash near the North Pole come from, as not a single volcano is marked on any of the accessible maps? Further, some of the explorers found themselves in freshwater seas, and all say that at a time during their travels they had seen two suns. Mammoths were found whose flesh was still fresh and whose stomachs contained fresh grass.

If you are further interested in the hollow Earth and the experience of the different explorers, some titles are listed under “Further Reading” at the back of this book. [H: We will give you that listing at the end of our series.]

The “Hollow Earth” theory has so far remained just a theory to the public, although some authors and explorers claim to have visited there and even—like Admiral E. Byrd—had taken numerous pictures. It cannot be denied that all the Arctic explorers had had extraordinary experiences that so far cannot be explained, which points to something strange happening there. But the theory that the Earth had a molten core has equally remained just a theory. The fact remains though that the subterranean man-made tunnel and cave systems do exist. They can be found in almost any country of the world and by the largely still existing light source (a greenish glow that gets brighter the deeper one enters the tunnels), by the smooth walls and the unknown machinery that was found in the Boynton Canyon in Sedona, Arizona, are witness to a technically advanced culture that existed millions of years before. Relevant literature is listed at the back.

The myths of a “Hollow Earth” were enough for the Thule people to go on to start a serious study of the phenomenon. Therefore there was at least one expedition to the Antarctic during World War Two. (Details follow).

To show that the story of the Aryan Hyperboreans was not entirely invented I would like to mention two examples: When the Spaniards under Pizarro came to South America in 1532, the natives called them “ivicarochas” (white lords). According to their legends there was a master race of very tall white people who centuries before had descended in “flying disks” from heaven. They had long ruled in some of the towns and when they disappeared had promised to return. When the fair skinned Spaniards arrived, the natives thought them to be the ivicarochas coming back and therefore in the beginning willingly gave them their gold.

Similar occurrences took place when the first white travelers arrived in Tibet and other Himalayan regions. They were scrutinized in astonishment by the Tibetans and asked why they came from BELOW (the foot of the mountains) rather than from ABOVE as they usually did.

It is a pity that most Germans have never heard about these things, since the ideology of Nazi Germany was based on the El Shaddai theme and the resulting persecution of Jews, the Revelation of Isais, the knowledge of the Templars and possibly on the tales just told. All their actions including the Second World War were based thereupon. There are two possibilities to deal with this:

1. You think all the leaders of the “Third Reich” were mentally disturbed and drug addicts and you simply ignore all of this or
2. You try to find out whether perhaps something of all this is true after all.

[H: Why do you think it is UNLAWFUL to even speak in QUESTION about the “Holocaust” as foisted of onto your eyes and ears? How can control BE MAINTAINED if the people learn the TRUTH?]

But to find literature about this subject you should not look in so-called “free” Germany, for the Allies had cleaned up very thoroughly after the war.

The activities of right wing radicals in Germany would justify the prohibition of some of the literature that openly and often crudely calls for aggressive racism. But to truthfully render the political and religious events of the past and the present, this information should not be suppressed.

Now enough of those mysteries. As I will show you, the leadership of Germany became very active because of these myths.

In October 1918 Sebottendorf gave the lodge brethren KARL HARRER and ANTON DREXLER the task of forming a workers’ circle which later became the DAP (German Workers’ Party). The Thule-Gesellschaft had a newspaper, the Völkischer

Beobachter which was soon taken over by the NSDAP (National Socialist German Workers' Party) into which the DAP soon developed.

In the same month the young occultist and esotericist ADOLF HITLER (actually Adolf Schicklgruber, Hitler was his mother's maiden name) entered the Thule-DAP and as a good speaker attracted attention. In his book The Spear of Destiny Trevor Ravenscroft describes what Hitler's childhood friend WALTER JOHANNES STEIN, a later advisor of the Freemason WINSTON CHURCHILL also said:

"Hitler, who already at twenty was a close adherent of mysticism, tried to reach higher states of consciousness with the help of drugs. The Viennese bookseller PRETSCHKE who was a follower of German mysticism and the resulting theory of an Aryan master race helped Hitler to set the foundation for his future view of the world and also introduced him to the hallucinogenic PEYOTL as a means to get mystic illumination. At this time Hitler also got acquainted with the PROTOCOLS OF THE ELDERS OF ZION which only strengthened his objection of the Jews."

As Hitler was a drug addict already as a young man, it is no wonder he used through his whole life strong narcotics. According to the diaries of his personal physician DR. THEODOR MORELL Hitler had different painkillers, tranquilizers, strychnine, cocaine, morphine derivatives and other drugs injected during all the six years of the Second World War.

The Thule-Gesellschaft engaged Hitler as a speaker at election rallies. Later the anti-Bolshevik and Thule-brother DIETRICH ECKART taught him how to write and speak properly. Eckart made Hitler what he later represented. He introduced him into the Munich and Berlin scenes and Hitler adopted the Thule views almost completely.

In 1924, when Hitler was imprisoned because of the failed Munich putsch, Haushofer spent several hours with him every day and passed his theories and plans on. Among the books he supplied to Hitler was Bulwer-Lytton's THE COMING RACE which tale about a highly developed subterranean Aryan race is almost identical to the one mentioned above. In Bulwer-Lytton's book saucer-shaped flying ships play also an important role. A further book came to be published: Ferdinand Ossendowski's BEASTS, MEN AND GODS which told of the legends of Agharta and Shamballah. Hitler was completely taken in by the search for the subterranean realm and the Thule-Aryan race theory.

HAUSHOFER and RUDOLF HESS took on the political education of Hitler. In Landsberg Hitler used the theories of Haushofer, the thoughts of Rosenberg and political propaganda and mixed it all together. Rudolf Hess supplied the proper language and wrote it on the typewriter. In this way Hitler's book MEIN KAMPF (My Fight) was written.

The role of mysticism and occultism in the "Third Reich" is shown by the influence of KARL HAUSHOFER who was called "The Greatest Magician of the German Reich". He was said to have a "prophetic gift" the accuracy of which helped him to a quick raise in the occult power circles of pre-war Germany.

Jack Fisherman wrote in his The Seven Men of Spandau that RUDOLF HESS was also completely taken in by Haushofer's thoughts and theories.

The strange flight by Hess to England shows this. It was caused by a dream Haushofer had where he saw "Rudolf Hess walking through the corridors of English castles and brought peace between the two greatest Nordic nations." Since Hess was convinced of the accuracy of Haushofer's prophecies he followed that dream without questions.

How much of the magic "equipment" of the Thule-Gesellschaft was used is shown in the following text:

Hitler took the Thule salute "Heil und Sieg" (Salvation and Victory) and made it into "Sieg Heil". This salute together with the raising of the arm is a magic ritual which is used to form voltes. Franz Bardon wrote more about magic voltes and their use. Franz Bardon (aka Frabato, 1909-1958) was the German magician I knew most about. He had been offered high posts in government by Hitler if he would help him win the war by his magic faculties. Bardon should also give Hitler the addresses of the other 98 "99 Lodges"—Hitler was a member of the Dresden lodge—that exist all over the world. When Bardon denied his help he was subjected to terrible torture. (Franz Bardon: Frabato)

Magic rites were not only used in Germany, though. The Victory sign of the English, the V-shaped fingers, was until 1940 only known to the highest of the high in high degree masonry. When the high degree Freemason WINSTON CHURCHILL feared that England might fall victim to Hitler's successful hand magic (the German salute), his mentor in magic, the Satanist ALEISTER CROWLEY advised him to counter it with the two spread fingers.

The SS, also called the "Black Order", was everything but a police troop. It was a proper religious order of a hierarchic makeup. The brutal Nazi party as a holy order? In hindsight this seems ridiculous, until one notices that it wouldn't be the first time in history that a holy order was responsible for the most monstrous atrocities. The Jesuits, but also the Dominicans who ruled the Catholic Inquisition in the Middle Ages, are prime examples. The BLACK ORDER was the practical realization of the esoteric and occult belief system of the Thule-Gesellschaft and the later SS "Schwarze Sonne" (Black Sun) not only worked closely together with the Tibetan colony in Berlin but also with a Tibetan order of black magic. Hitler was in constant contact with a Tibetan monk with green gloves who was called "Guardian of the Key". He is said to have known the entrance to Agharta (Aryana).

On April 25, 1945, when the Russians found in a Berlin cellar the bodies of six Tibetans lying in a circle, the one lying in the centre wore green gloves. It seemed they had committed group suicide. On May 2, 1945, after the Russians had entered Berlin more than 1,000 bodies were found who definitely came from the Himalayan region and had fought along with the Germans. What in the world had Tibetans to do here, thousands of kilometres from their country and in German uniforms?

Countless numbers of young men had been trained by the "Black Sun" during the Third Reich, initiated in the Wewelsburg and sent to Tibet to survive there and to prepare for the great final battle at the end of this century.

According to Franz Bardon, Adolf Hitler was also a member of a "F.O.G.C. Lodge" (Freimaurerischer Orden der Goldenen Centurie, Dresden, Germany = Masonic Order of the Golden Century) which is actually known as the "99 Lodge". There are 99 of these "99 Lodges" in many places of the world, all with 99 members. Each lodge is presided by a demon, and each member has his personal demon. The deal is that the demon helps the person gain money and power, but his soul is after death committed to serve the demon. In addition one member is sacrificed every year to the lodge demon. It will be replaced by a new member. The members of the "99 Lodges" are also industrialists and bankers of the highest calibre and today are more important than ever. The "F.O.G.C." or "99 Lodges" are in my opinion the most dangerous, compared to which the "Church of Satan" of Anton LaVey that the media write about is harmless.

Franz Bardon confirmed that Hitler and the Thule order were the outer tool of a group of Tibetan black magicians.

Only [one] who knows about those circumstances will understand this sentence from a speech by Hitler held on January 30, 1945:

"In this battle again inner Asia will not win, but Europe—led by that nation that for one and a half thousand years has represented Europe as vanguard towards the East and will continue to do so in all eternity: Our great German Reich, the German nation! (Max Domarus: Hitler—Speeches and Declarations 1932-1945)

There are also many myths about the whereabouts of Adolf Hitler after the War. According to Franz Bardon and Miguel Serranos (former Chilean ambassador to Germany) Hitler escaped with the help of the "99 Lodge" to South America. The body that was found, and whose teeth were declared wrong by Hitler's dentist, is said to have been placed by the "99 Lodge". This is perhaps easier to understand if one knows that Hitler used up to five doubles during his tenure. A large German newspaper wrote on March 5, 1979 that Hitler's private plane had been found in the jungle in South America. Joseph Greiner (The End of the Hitler Myth) also states that Hitler had taken off in his plane from Berlin-Tempelhof on April 30, 1945. Later, around the time of the Nuremberg trials, it is said that Stalin asked U.S. officials whether they knew where Hitler was? If Hitler had died in Berlin in 1945, why would Stalin ask?

If Hitler did survive, however, it is most probable that he had availed himself of the developments by the VRIL-GESELLSCHAFT—which I will describe in the following chapter—for leaving Germany. Whether Hitler died then or not—in the meantime he died anyway!

On March 14, 1946, Karl Haushofer had, since his mission had failed, first killed his wife and then committed "seppuku" (harakiri) as the "Yellow Hats" had made him swear.

The theoretical and practical buildup of the Third Reich on the German side had been wholly initiated and steered by the Thule-Gesellschaft. The financing came from the international bankers. The womb from whence it all came is still fertile, since the Thule-Gesellschaft or its offspring are still with us today.

Another secret group that spoke of the coming of an Aryan Saviour and to which Hermann Göring, the Nazi's finance chief, belonged was the "EDELWEISS-GESELLSCHAFT". But here it does not concern us.

God's Solutions Are Always Total Simplicity

RE: FUN ON FATHER'S DAY; HOW DO YOU FIGHT A WAR?; MIND GAMES

FATHER'S DAY

Hatonn—Thank you for your greetings on this day of sharing love and respect and, yes, confusion. Who am I? Who are you? Who are we?

If you can come to "KNOW THINESELF", you won't have any trouble with the "meaning" of the rest of the questions. Ah, but, when do you go for the "Father's Day" events on the calendar? Today in the Philippines, ahead of the U.S. branch where it is still Friday the 16th, is fully into the Day. Life is truly like this, family, in that often you are your own grandpa.

It seems strange to a U.S. citizen to have discussions with anyone, say, about Pearl Harbor and Japanese bombings. Here it is always identified as to date as December 8, 1941 while everyone in the U.S. speaks, as Roosevelt did: "The Day of Infamy, Dec. 7, 1941".

Let's share a bit of entertainment over these Mother-Father Days in the Philippines. Along with the consideration of "Only in the Philippines (OIP)". Please keep in mind that this "special" celebration is a commercial event of the 20th Century. The Ten Commandments' the Fourth "shalt" is to "Honor thy father and thy mother." This assumes every day.

It appears then that Mothers finally got a special day and thus followed a need down the line of making money off of old Dad as well.

But, again, what happens in the Philippines?

Let's try some excerpts from a familiar columnist, Alejandro R. Roces, "Roses and Thorns":

FATHER'S DAY IS A CONTINUING CONTROVERSY

In 1980, President Ferdinand Marcos proclaimed every first Sunday of December as Father's Day with the following Tuesday as Mother's Day. Then on June 8, 1988, President Corazon Aquino issued Proclamation No. 266 that changed the dates of the celebration to every second Sunday of May for Mother's Day and every third Sunday of June for Father's Day. To confuse matters even more, President Joseph Estrada also changed both dates by signing Proclamation No. 58 on June 11, 1998, stipulating that both occasions should be commemorated jointly on every first Monday of December. So Father's and Mother's Day in the Philippines traditionally changes dates with a change in administration.

We did not celebrate either day during the Spanish regime. Actually, the annual tribute to mothers started in Ilocos Norte in 1921. That was when the Ilocos Norte Women's Club petitioned for a date for an annual observance of Mother's Day. Acting Governor-General Charles Yeater responded by designating the first Monday of December of each year as Mother's Day. The then Bureau of Education was assigned to organize the annual commemoration... then the Department of Education... altered the dates of the celebrations to December 6 for Father's Day and December 7 for Mother's Day. So, if no one truly observes Father's or Mother's Day in the Philippines, it is because the authorities cannot agree on the dates for their celebration. The U.S. was the first nation to commemorate Father's Day on a specific day. Before that, the closest thing to a Father's Day celebration was the ancient Roman Parentalia which took place from February 13th to the 22nd. But the commemoration was not for living fathers. It was in memory of departed parents. It was only in June of 1910 that Washington officially recognized July 5 as Father's Day. And it was in 1972 that President Richard Nixon changed the date to the third Sunday of June. So, why don't we just celebrate on the same day [as the U.S.]. One father takes better care of nine children than nine children take care of one father. How lucky we all are that our fathers were born before us.

[END OF QUOTING]

The very best gift you can give a Father? To grow in wisdom and virtue. A steak dinner might be ideal for a "Dad"—if he eats steak. He will always appreciate honor and virtue in wisdom of mind and action. IN THIS, MY CUP RUNNETH OVER!

It also becomes quite interesting that you-the-people make it through at all.

A lot of young fathers are at war this day in the Philippines while the idiotic games go on. You will find this all over the globe in any direction you turn.

Think about this: "True battles are fought in the mind!" Only the brutal, bloodied insanity is reflected on the battlefield, be it jungle or desert.

And here is our own punchline as to why we have presented as much as we can in information on as many topics as are integrated into your experience: YOU MUST KNOW.

Keep your friends close—but keep your enemy closer! For if you know your enemy and you know, truly, yourself, you need not fear the result of any number of battles. Furthermore, you don't have to have a war to use this wisdom. Every experience is but a lesson for the next. It is in the sequence of events that you can best realize what you call "timing".

Oh, yes, chelas, it has taken many attempts to reach this day in this consciousness. In this you might find, for you in THIS experience or "circumstance", that it most certainly has required these most current years to know how to best manage and protect that which we accomplish. This covers legal encounters, people passing "your" way, games played and battles fought. Experience is by far truly the best teacher. Nobody ever said the lessons would be instant or easy. However, the promise is that in truth the decisions become "easy" and the choices, as well—the solutions will always be total simplicity AS IS GOD. KNOW THE GOAL—AND THE CREATIVE MIND WILL FIND THE WAY. WHAT YE THINK SO YE ARE!

By the way, when you get out of your own way, you will arrive at that goal you desire to achieve. Yes, indeed, a goal is something you "achieve" and not "reach". The reaching is only in the journey.

How do you make that journey while you have to deal with every sort of personality and entity along the way? Well, others have written success books, books on physical and Spiritual balance and even offer the Commandments of behavior. A basic list suffices as to how to manage a good performance—HOWEVER, INTEGRITY AND SINCERITY OF MEANING ARE THE ONLY BASIS FOR SUCCESS.

But what are those secrets? They are NOT secrets—they are universal human realizations. It is in the MIND that you engage all aspects of your life and in every encounter you plan your strategy and you proceed in total truth, genuine sincerity and never mind yourself, for your adversary or first acquaintance is first, second and third: interested in himself (himself being a generic term, please).

If you have something that can fill a need of that "other", you can get to that goal of resolution and service by simply following the steps available from the beginning of time.

I would use someone's outline that you will all recognize from reference through the years as a fundamental reminder: Dale Carnegie. I don't need to do more than honor the man for his realization and putting the truth to print and in the classroom.

We will speak of Principles and you might want a little card on which you can copy them down and carry in your pocket when you get caught with your techniques down. I am not even going to number them for you.

FUNDAMENTAL TECHNIQUES WITH PEOPLE

- * Don't criticize, condemn or complain.
- * Give honest and sincere appreciation.
- * Arouse in the other person an eager want.

DO YOU WANT PEOPLE TO LIKE YOU?

- * Become genuinely interested in other people.
- * Smile.
- * Remember that a person's name is to that person the sweetest and most important sound in any language.
- * Be a good listener. Encourage others to talk about themselves.
- * Talk in terms of the other person's interests.
- * Make the other person feel important—and do it sincerely.

TO WIN PEOPLE TO YOUR WAY OF THINKING

- * The only way to get the best of an argument is to avoid it.
- * Show respect for the other person's opinions. Never say, "You're wrong."
- * If you are wrong, admit it quickly and emphatically.
- * Begin in a friendly way.
- * Get the other person saying "yes, yes" immediately.
- * Let the other person do a great deal of the talking.
- * Let the other person feel that the idea is his or hers.
- * Try honestly to see things from the other person's point of view.
- * Be sympathetic with the other person's ideas and desires.
- * Appeal to the nobler motives.
- * Dramatize your ideas.
- * Throw down a challenge.

SO YOU WANT TO BE A LEADER?

[H: Here you will very often be having to change attitudes and behavior—including in yourself. However, if you want to consider “self”, then you had best handle that changing procedure quite carefully with respect and graciousness.]

- * Begin with praise and honest appreciation.
- * Call attention to people’s mistakes indirectly.
- * Talk about your own mistakes before criticizing the other person.
- * Ask questions instead of giving direct orders.
- * Let the other person save face.
- * Praise the slightest improvement and praise every improvement. Be “heartily in your approbation and lavish in your praise.”
- * Give the other person a fine reputation to live up to.
- * Use encouragement. Make the fault seem easy to correct.
- * Make the other person happy about doing the thing you suggest.

REMEMBER: A PERSON WILL ONLY CHANGE IF HE “WANTS TO”.

Yes, I could write a book on this subject but why would I do that? Mr. Carnegie did a very good job of that and you can still easily find his books. This one is called How to Win Friends and Influence People.

What I remind you is that this is much like truth and flattery. A compliment must be genuine. Flattery is a lie! YOU MAKE THE CHOICE.

It is because you MUST LIVE in a world WITH other individuals, have a livelihood and generally experience in the socially mandated experiences—these are your guidelines for getting along a bit better than perhaps you are at present. This does not NEGATE “self”; it is enhancing “self”. How you interchange with people become the habits which allow for integration with SPIRITUAL truth of SOUL. You become what you think—good or bad, right or wrong, evil or stellar.

I further remind you that in these ways of interchange you CAN, indeed, work with ANYONE, for you will be welcomed and appreciated wherever you go. And, yes, I do also recognize that you certainly DO draw more ants to honey than to vinegar! If you need translation: You will get along with people far more easily with being gracious and courteous than rude and hateful. Your opinion is important but only, usually, to self. Therefore, try to keep it to self unless asked for sharing—and you will most surely be welcome anywhere you happen to find self.

If I ask you to a banquet, as example, and you don’t eat for whatever reason, fine. However, if you simply want to redo the dinner, complain and put-down my food—GET OUT OF MY SPACE/FACE!

The enemy will love to come to the table and eat your cakes and drink your “wine” and frankly, unless you have a prior understanding about his presence—ask him to leave.

People have poured into “my” space in which there is no “group” or “right” involved and immediately set forth to manage and control my very program itself. What a quaint idea! How dare you insult the host in his own house! You may do that “ONCE”; it is not going to be well received a second time. Come to my table and then go forth and scatter slander and insults against my feast—and guess how welcome you will be the next time you call?

I will be your servant and your friend. I will NOT be either your slave or your scapegoat for your errors along the way. And, no, I will not just SHUT-UP in the face of your proclamations when you are WRONG in your presentations or your actions. You have certainly become people of warped-perceptions which are all foisted off onto you by the would-be controllers, be they the local preacher in “whatever” church to the very proclaimer of laws for his own benefit. Just as no man can “die FOR you” it is impossible to “bear YOUR responsibilities FOR you”.

The NEW leaders and teachers of today will now train you that “Greed is Good”. No, “greed” is NEVER “good”. Greed is defined in very nasty terms along with avarice, envy, etc. Being greedy for something is NOT the same as wanting something, desiring something and/or ACHIEVING something. Be careful what you say and especially be careful what you say to yourself. Remember that isolation of self is very easy once you have alienated everybody through your failure to practice the very principles listed above. Bitter medicine still goes down the gullet better in a spoonful of sugar. That is NOT flattery; THAT IS TRUTH.

By the way, the old saying: “If you don’t have anything good to say, don’t say anything,” might be a fine reminder about gossip but fails otherwise. GOSSIP IS OFTEN JUST CHATTER ABOUT RUMORS AND USUALLY ABOUT PEOPLE INVOLVED IN SOMETHING OR OTHER WHICH CONJURES UP SUPPOSITIONS. If something is KNOWN and it impacts that which is your/our business or our circles—it needs to be brought to proper attention, confronted by proper parties involved and/or if a problem is presented, it needs to be solved. This is NOT the same thing as gossiping about that which you don’t know.

If, for instance, you have two people “at” each other and there is an insulting confrontation—be sure you are present at the original word or fist-slinging, for otherwise you will get TWO versions and likely neither will be factual in full extent. As for myself I never even trust an eyewitness account because more is missed by a witness than is ever seen. Test it. Ask someone who saw you yesterday, say, in a restaurant at lunch what you were wearing, where you sat, who you were with and especially what you had for lunch. Mostly in a routine encounter you will not yourself remember even what you had and much the less what someone else had for lunch.

How many of you remember, for instance, the date and day that George Green moved to Carson City? Yes, it was important and continues to be important. Who helped him pack? Who loaded the boxes of gold into the vehicle in which George would personally drive? Who drove the belongings? Who shifted all the books? What was Desireé wearing? Was she there? ARE YOU SURE? Life often rides on these “eyewitness” accounts which are totally feeble at best.

Tell me instantly when the “Waco” incident occurred. How about the Weaver-Idaho affair? Well, they had a hired killer who was at BOTH places—and the law will not prosecute—it was in yesterday’s paper. What was that “sharpshooter’s” name? For whom did he work? Who was Vickie Weaver? Was her baby a boy or a girl? Oh, indeed, you SAW it on television, over and over again. What YEAR did this happen?

When the deliberate lies are presented to you over and over again, i.e., “weapons of mass destruction”, “tax cheaters” and other introduced “sayings”, what do you perceive? What is “a” weapon of mass destruction? Oh, by the way, do you look for microbes with a metal detector?

Are there really such things as Cosmospheres? Who said? Who was Peter Beter? Is he dead or alive? Ah, but—since there is no “death” he must be “alive”—SOMEWHERE.

HOW DO YOU SORT IT? You probably can’t sort it in all instances—but you can find out what is truth and who is putting you on. You will even be able to discern WHY.

The big one is always about GOD! Usually it comes with: “Will the real god/God stand up?” Come on, people: GOD IS ANYONE OR THING “YOU” MAKE UP YOUR MIND THAT HE/SHE/IT WILL BE. Reality hits when you KNOW and stop guessing from the gossiping disinformation, misinformation and purely fabricated ignorance.

IS there a GOD? My friends, if you don’t KNOW, you will believe nothing I say about it and that is why you are still asking. So, move on and let’s check out the flight schedules and see what it takes to make the airplane work.

By the way, you don’t have to believe in me, God, or Arabian sand fleas, to get your act together and change YOUR world.

But, YES, there ARE “Cosmospheres”. Furthermore, the missile defense system is a bring-back of the fear-rantings of “attack of the aliens from ‘out there’ somewhere!” I would pay attention if I were you and watch that bouncing ball as you sing-a-long.

From the mind of God is offered your problem solutions—but so too, through the mind manipulated come your problems in the first place. You have to realize that it was already figured out by Mr. Bush (Reagan) that only a “war with outer space” would unite the world instantly into a NEW WORLD ORDER. Then present the people with a few well done “Operation Blue Beam” holograms in the sky up there, a few alien-looking UFOs and you have the makings of Unification in terror to blow those monster-invader insects away.

Let me remind you that no self-respecting giant space insect would feast upon your planet—and we are talking about “intelligent” life forms? Who might be the more intelligent? You might well wish to be careful as to just what it is you come to believe, lest you make a mess of yourself and your nest.

It is truly “time”, my friends, to either shape up or prepare to ship-out. If you want the facts of the mystery, God Creator can simply create another world—and since He must have practice by now, he can probably do it in less than a 7-day week. It will, therefore, be expected to take YOU a bit longer but not much. God, however, is NOT destructive, so guess what the next paragraph might well say to you?

You say you want truth? Really? No, most of you want more and more colorful lies to make your own dramas interesting. But, gollee, friends, you really do need a stage upon which you can produce this play of yours and stop taking out the floorboards and floodlights. Is there NOTHING you revere as sacred? I did NOT say “holy”, I SAID SACRED. Every THING, including you, is sacred and you have forgotten.

Is this a Father’s Day lecture of some kind? Now, I ask you who has better right to speak up? If we don’t start getting it “right”, students, there is trouble brewing in “River City”, with or without trombones. It is basically called “balance”—and that comes in “harmony” of life itself. You cannot have a good wheel if you only have a tire on half the hub. Ponder it, for you are trying to run your wheel with a square tire. If nothing else, it will shake you to pieces.

Whatever this moment and wherever you are—it is the very moment of all of the rest of your physical counting—it will pay to tend it well and with “sacred” respect.

Hold my hand, children, for I know the way.

The Unplayed Trump Card: GAIA Asset Can Power RP Economic Recovery

6/18/01—#1 (14-306)

RE: PHILIPPINE COMMENTS, HOPEFULLY WITHOUT ASSUMED INVOLVEMENT; REAL STAR WARS AFOOT; RUSSIA-USA—A LOOMING DANGER; DON'T UNDERESTIMATE CHINA: A REMINDER.

BACK TO THE FUTURE SPOTLIGHT ON A COUPLE OF OLD AND SHREWD POLITICIANS

Hatonn—Although we demand that we are left out of the altercations regarding political chaos, I am continually asked to comment on some ongoing things which deserve observation.

At this time when less than a month remains before the convening of Congress here in Manila, there is great push and politicking for, especially, Speaker of the House.

One of the most recognized MAJOR politicians wanting that position is a “TRAPO” (Traditional Politician) with a long line of years of controversial circumstances in his past. His name is Jose de Venecia (Joe de V, they call him). However, last year the man gathered up a bunch of foreign VIPs which looked pretty good at the time as to possible GAIA use to assist in such a worthy program as described as an “ASEAN-type program”. Of course, nothing has come of it.

At that time, however, there was much news regarding the man and the only information we had was that he was a “Ramos man”, “Amboy” and was to have been elected president in 1998 in which I. Marcos and Estrada upset the apple cart. Remember, please, the Spotlight article of June 22, 1998.

Joe had been Speaker of the House a couple of times and the whole 1998 election turned out to be a disaster for the “Ramos cartel” under instructions from the U.S. Of course, Mr. Ramos was just finishing his term of what is now referred to as “plunder king”. Politicians are NOT very nice to one another even under the best of circumstances.

I give this little background because I am going to ask for some copy from that Spotlight article as well as some current everyday presentations on both sides of the Speakership thrust.

This all comes as the underground unrest swirls about regarding another possible Presidential displacement. It would literally be under the guise of another People Power but the scuttlebutt is that it would actually be orchestrated by Mr. Ramos.

What does this have to do with us as “GAIA”? Well, ESJ took (or said he took and delivered) and delivered all the GAIA information to Joe de V. However, as became the usual thing—not a mention or thank you for your effort or acknowledgement as the outlandishly amusing solutions to the area problems were proclaimed from the talking heads.

Now all these who were delivered packages are claiming they got nothing and knew nothing about any such possible project or assistance. This is a total slap in the face to such as ESJ—or ESJ has, in fact, given us false information. It doesn't matter, other than it truly is strange what the political bedfellows continue to do and say.

It DOES, however, seem strange that a program which could solve the economic woes of a nation (even the whole area) and bring stability instantly could just be tossed aside and forgotten. About the third time the package is sent in wouldn't you think someone would at least blink a couple of times?

So, what is Joe doing? He is trying to get in line for the scepter to “the” throne under the able coalition with Gen. Ramos. And, yes, although he doesn't need to do so—Mr. Ramos hates me, Hatonn, with a passion of almost unreasonable size. This becomes a bit interesting in itself—because he was offered, even by a family member, the same opportunities as any other “player”. We recognize that GOD IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PROVIDER.

I mention these things because of the efforts of the Philippine “masa” to understand more than just getting a few pesos as vote or hush money. These presentations here are simply to offer what others have presented and perhaps guide our people in direction of possibilities. Obviously, if someone is trying to kill you, or at the least bury your program, you don't waste time or funds feeding the trash-bins.

ESJ also delivered, or had delivered, to many Embassies our information—which actually we had not wanted distributed at the time, for it was backup should there be a carrythrough of “take out” rumblings against Ekkers. We got one reply and it was that the “stuff was dropped off and it couldn't be understood”. We have to suppose that this is about the rudest country on the globe. Be that as it may, there surely are signs of Mr. V making an attempt at the Power switch.

To get any kind of a picture, however, you again have to realize the problems out of the PLANNED election outcome of 1998.

DANGER LOOMS IN PHILIPPINES

A POWER PLAY IN THE PHILIPPINES COULD LEAD TO A U.S.-BACKED DICTATORSHIP.

By Paul Motier

MANILA, Philippines—In a stunning move that shocked the nation, outgoing Philippine President Fidel Ramos fired Solicitor General Romeo de la Cruz just two weeks before the inauguration of populist President-elect Jose Erap Estrada.

The unprecedented move was in retaliation to a 34-page report which de la Cruz had filed with the Philippine Supreme Court stating that there was no evidence to back up the conviction and 12-year jail sentence of former first lady Imelda Romualdez Marcos. THE CHARGE: SHE HAD ILLEGALLY BUILT A HOSPITAL WITH NON-GOVERNMENT FUNDS. [H: Well, you have to admit that must be a pretty heinous crime.]

De la Cruz urged the top court to reverse the conviction which everyone in the Philippines knows was made by a politicized court under the influence of Ramos and his revolutionary predecessor, Corazon C. Aquino.

What so infuriated Ramos was that he had appointed de la Cruz as Solicitor General and saw the report as “high treason”.

Ramos is himself a master traitor who has in his lifetime betrayed his cousin and benefactor, Ferdinand Marcos, in 1986 in his capacity as a CIA ASSET and informer. He has betrayed his wife by supporting a mistress in lavish style at taxpayers' expense.

Ramos apparently never imagined that de la Cruz would do his job honestly.

Under the unconstitutional and unlawful Aquino and Ramos regimes of the last 12 years, the unforeseen appearance of an honest and courageous justice official must have been traumatic indeed.

As soon as de la Cruz's Supreme Court report became known by the cabal that has been running the Philippines since it overthrew the Marcos government in 1986, Ramos got his marching orders by cabal spokesman Stephen Bosworth, the U.S. State Department functionary who organized the kidnapping of the Marcos family into forced exile and detainment that year. [H: Yes, indeed, that IS the same Stephen Bosworth that has been paying really important visits and meetings with Mr. Malinowski of the U.S. Embassy—as we write here.]

Bosworth was backed by U.S. federal Judge Manuel Real, the Lyndon Johnson-appointee known for his communist sympathies, his violent temper and tyrannical ways as well as having the dubious distinction of being the most overturned judge in American legal history.

Ramos, now a lame duck with no political future, was told to fire de la Cruz and to find a way to overturn the election of the populist and popularly-elected Estrada.

CALAMITY FOR GLOBALISTS

The Estrada election was a calamity for the globalists and State Department Brahmins. Estrada was elected because former first lady Imelda Marcos withdrew from the presidential race and asked the 6 million-strong Marcos loyalists to support Estrada.

The swift move did not leave enough time for the Aquino-Ramos-State Department cabal to rig the election as they counted on the split Marcos-Estrada vote to have their own nominees elected.

THE PLUTOCRATS FRANTICALLY SPENT IN EXCESS OF $260 MILLION TO SECURE THE ELECTIONS FOR THEIR FLUNKIES. IN THIS THEY RECEIVED FULL LOGISTICAL SUPPORT FROM THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND VARIOUS U.S. AGENCIES SUCH AS THE CIA UNDER THE DIRECTION OF BOSWORTH AND REAL—THE TWO PREDATORS WHO HAVE RELENTLESSLY TRIED TO STEAL THE MARCOS ASSETS FOR THE PAST 12 YEARS.

It was a sign of great sophistication from the Philippine electorate that they were not bamboozled by the anti-Estrada media blitz and all the anti-Marcos machinations and went on to elect Estrada by a landslide. Also elected with wide pluralities were Ferdinand Marcos Jr. (the son of the late president) as governor of the key Ilocos Norte province, Imee Marcos to Congress and all the Romualdez (relatives of Imelda) candidates to the offices they were seeking.

[H: It just happened again in this election.]

Estrada, a charismatic and popular candidate is known to be a populist of independent mind who is unswayed by plutocrat blandishments.

OVERTHROW ORDERED

[H: OK, KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE BALL HERE.]

Ramos has been instructed to take all steps to overthrow the Estrada presidency, just as he and the seditious Enrile and Aquino overthrew the just-elected Marcos government in 1986.

Aquino had already made the threat to use “people power” to overthrow the Estrada government if Marcos is buried on July 11 in the cemetery of Heroes, a burial to which he is entitled because of his heroic World War II record. He fought the Japanese while the Aquinos served in the Japanese puppet government.

“People power” was the catch word which was coined by the Madison Avenue public relations firms in charge of destabilizing and overthrowing the Marcos government, and used by the media to justify the illegal coup against the legally-elected Marcos.

IN FACT, THERE WAS NEVER ANY “PEOPLE POWER” EXCEPT IN THE SCRIPTS FROM MADISON AVENUE AND THEIR PRESS HAND-OUTS. THE FILIPINO PEOPLE WERE VICTIMS OF A MASSIVE GLOBALIST POWER GRAB BY VIOLENT MEANS.

The plutocrat Aquino is once more calling on her communist allies headed by the rich Red boss Ma Sisson. It was Sisson who organized, with Ninoy Aquino, the Plaza Miranda bombing which massacred the entire political opposition to the Marcos government, thus leaving Aquino as the sole opposition leader.

Whether the Clinton administration will be able to contain the BOSWORTH-MICHAEL ARMACOST-REAL cabal and avoid yet another massive intrusion in the affairs of another sovereign country is still to be ascertained.

This time, “People power” may manifest itself by stopping the Aquino-Ramos efforts just as all the Aquino-Ramos candidates were defeated at the polls. [H: Top of the list, Jose de Venecia!]

Should Estrada be assassinated, apparently with the hope that Vice President Arroyo Macapagal would replace him, political observers are certain civil war would erupt. The voters may have had enough of plutocratic intervention in Philippine affairs.

[H: HOW IS IT GOING SO FAR?]

[END OF QUOTING]

As to Joe de V (JDV), it seems he is a prime asset to have around—if you want something done at the national level with the State Department in Washington D.C. Also, as most articles will contain at some mention is “CIA” as in THE CIA.

Joe was even called back from an important diplomatic visit to Argentina (???) at the time of the infamous EDSA DOS “thing” and pushed, it is said in his behalf, until the job got accomplished. The Job of course was to get Estrada OUT as indicated in the above SPOTLIGHT article.

It appears that Joe has just dabbled into everything even if subversive and certainly I find it interesting that Joe actually, it is said, “mobilized diplomatic action and political support for Ms. Arroyo as the constitutional successor to Erap from influential political parties in Europe...” all the way through Belgium. Strangely enough the declaration of support came almost a month BEFORE Gloria was catapulted into the Presidency.

Erap was NEVER tried; he was impeached but never actually had a decision, but that is not the focus here—OR IS IT?

(Quotes from a local article) The next wow at that time was that “Washington specialist Professor W. Scott Thompson, on request of JDV and Almonte, reached SECRETARY OF STATE COLIN POWELL AND U.S. NATIONAL SECURITY ADVISER CONDELEZZA RICE TO WARN ADVENTURERS IN MANILA AGAINST THE CREATION OF A MILITARY-CIVILIAN JUNTA.”

Now let’s look more closely at another “accolades to Joe” point in this same article, “Defending J de V”: “Gen. Almonte has said on various occasions that JDV as Speaker spearheaded the economic, social and tax reforms, lauded by international economists during the Ramos period.” [H: It is that economy that finally got Ramos recognized as the king of the plunderers.]

In another column of Monday, June 18, 2001, Boo Chanco of “Demand and Supply” deals with: Is Joe de V good for GMA?

It may be that the best part of most of Mr. Chanco’s columns is the daily joke of which today’s is both tame enough to reprint and rather appropriate to most people:

“A patient goes to see a surgeon about having a brain transplant. The surgeon says: ‘I’ll give you a choice: you can either have the brain of a 25-year-old mathematics scholar or a 60-year-old bureaucrat who just retired from the Philippine civil service. Which do you want?’

“The patient answers: ‘Easy—give me the bureaucrat’s.’

“The surgeon, dumbfounded, says: ‘Why would you pick the brain of a 60-year-old bureaucrat over a 25-year-old mathematics scholar?’

“The patient replies: ‘I want one that’s never been used.’”

Another passing joke: “Join the hostages and see where your taxes go!”

And the sick one: “Abu Sayyaf country is the place to see what can be done in head transplantation.”

And: “Where were you and in whose bed when the blackout hit and the air-conditioners went dead?”

Only in the Philippines? No, realize that this IS the U.S. and only the citizens don’t know for sure. Anyway—[QUOTING The Philippine STAR, Monday, June 18, 2001, Business Section:]

IS JOE DE V GOOD FOR GMA?

If you ask the self-righteous civil society types, of course the answer is a big, fat NO. Joe de V is of the past, a past that we should have long ago exorcised. They have a term for that malady and that is trapo politics. Between Joe de V and Butch Abad, it is a no-brainer for civil society. Of course they want Butch Abad as the next “speaker”. [House of Representatives.]

In an ideal world I guess I too would want Butch Abad as Speaker of the House. Unfortunately, the lower house is far from ideal. It is, so to speak, a snake pit, with due apologies to the snakes. The job of Speaker requires getting one’s hands dirty in the process of winning legislative support for the President’s program of government. I can’t imagine Butch Abad going down to that level. I don’t know if Butch Abad has the stomach for that sort of thing.

Joe de V, on the other hand, is a natural for the job. I don’t think we should have any illusions about the nature of Philippine politics. Edsa 1, 2 and 3 notwithstanding, the Speakership is a job that plainly demands patience and wily potlicking [oops, that should read “politicking”]. It is the politics of compromise, the politics of addition. It is the politics of getting things done by whatever means.

And because we also do not have the luxury of time before the next uprising of the poor, we need someone who is able to rally the legislature quickly behind GMA. Sadly for the civil society types, that is a job tailor-made for Joe de V.

Actually, if you think about it, Joe de V isn’t all that bad a choice for House Speaker. He knows he has a serious image problem and he seems earnest in trying to turn it around. He claims he has no more ambitions for higher office. As such, he says he can devote his time to leaving behind a legacy of service that is diametrically at odds with his current image. [H: Will the real Mr. V stand up please. No further ambitions? I have some islands and bridges for sale and getting more by the minute.]

You know, he just might be telling the truth. While you are never too sure with politicians, still you should probably take them seriously when they start talking about leaving a legacy because he is on the way out.

Forget for the moment his cockamamie idea about a seven for seven (747) program or a GDP growth rate of seven percent for (4) seven years. Heck, we will be lucky not to go negative this year, seven percent ipa kaya! But he may have something there when he says we have to rely on internal economic growth to get ourselves out of our current economic misery and fight poverty at the same time.

Actually, we don’t have a choice but to think micro and countryside entrepreneurship. We have borrowed to the hilt. The inventors won’t touch us for years. And our export markets are in economic troubles too. But if we concentrated on projects that put buying power in the hands of consumers in the countryside, maybe we can turn the economy around.

Joe talks of a million trees being planted. And harnessing domestic private capital to build marketplaces in towns and cities around the country. Joe talks of making entrepreneurs out of our people. Maybe, just maybe, he might have something there. Not the tried and tested approaches of the past but now that past avenues are closed, what have we to lose by trying new ones?

Besides, Joe’s the only one with a readable plan of how to go from here to economic nirvana. His legislative agenda sounds good. While one may doubt the feasibility of his 747 plan, it is something in black and white to hold this politician to when accounting time comes.

Joe’s enthusiasm tends to boil over... sometimes too enthusiastic to be credible. I watched him as he tried to convince a group of editors why he makes sense. If he didn’t have the reputation of Joe de V, you may even say this man has vision or is an unrealistic dreamer. But he is Joe de V, the most down to earth politician I know. I decided to suspend my disbelief, closed my eyes and just listened. Maybe the pain of defeat has changed the man.

I open my eyes and see the same Joe de V. The man who can help GMA turn Congress around to support her programs. And because GMA is not Eddie Ramos, maybe Joe de V wouldn’t dare try an Amari on her. Maybe, just maybe, Joe de V will be a political positive for Malacañang this time around. He no longer has to raise funds for another try for the Presidency. Maybe, he can now be trusted not to have a side bet on his own political interests.

But one thing is sure: Joe de V is ready to get his hands dirty for the greater glory of Gloria and hopefully, the Filipino nation. If he can save us so much time by rallying a large majority behind Gloria quickly, he would have done a public service. The alternative is go the civil society route and its usual acrimonious debates that take forever.

[END OF QUOTING]

I could go on and on and never leave the daily papers but I have no desire nor intention of proclaiming who is who in the political cock-pit—and I mean the term literally. Cockfighting is the real interest in the Philippines and it would be great if it were limited to the chickens.

LEANING TOWER OF PISA

Perhaps the more enjoyable news tidbit might be the declaration that the Leaning Tower of Pisa is now made safe for the next 300 years. If that is so then it is the ONLY thing which is. I do have bad news, through—that tower is still leaning precariously. I would guess that if it falls on anyone, the transition will certainly be quite rapid.

Yes, I understand, you would rather have me speak on the Russian-American meeting between Putin and Bush. So, yes, I can make a comment. It is said that Bush said of Putin: “He is a man Americans can trust.” How sad they can’t describe their own President as such. I prefer to make no other comments because we are dealing now with “outer space” matters and everyone knows it except you who will die at the catastrophic games afoot. I note that it is also reported that there was some “ice breaking” but no “breakthroughs” and that “there were no agreements... or papers... signed or agreed to...”. Well, there were agreements in China—agreed to and signed! AND, NOBODY, BUT NOBODY, TRUSTS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA OR ITS ALLIES.

I don't think you want to start a real war out in space, cadets. Out there somewhere you will find space cadets who are ready, willing and able to let you learn your lessons where you can't damage any of the rest of us. A "thought" is still faster than a "speeding bullet" or "superman".

Now for a pretty good rule of thumb when dealing at high political levels or, on GAIA: Watch the discreditors. If you have someone who criticizes or puts down any contact you might offer—you can pretty much know they are OK but the party giving forth the edicts are likely “CIA assets” being paid by the U.S. to distract you and keep you CONTAINED. Some are simply blackmailed by their buddies. Mostly, it “isn't personal; just good business”. Most will play “both” sides and that is fine if you are hiding nothing.

Dharma, there is other paperwork needing attention. Patience, remember, is one of those top-level virtues. I realize that doing a thing three times over is not pleasant—just because people can't make up their minds about their own lives or activities. We will get a bit more inflexible as we move further down the track.

Thank you and please consider all your news as being good news—and you shall have a much more positive attitude about “bein' alive”.

RE: IS IT REALLY GOLD YOU WANT TO TALK ABOUT? CHECK OUT THE STAR WARS SECRET CONSPIRACIES

GOLD RESOURCES THE REAL POINT IN GETTING READY FOR THE BIGGIE: STAR WARS.

Hatonn—Send people on wild goose chases or snipe hunting and you win the game? No, you simply prolong the immobilization.

Yes, I CAN tell you more about how it is—and you will find that you still won't move far off that dime, just as you are trained to do. It is rather like the booster from a good “self-help” lesson or book. You get a lift—and day after tomorrow you want more, more and more, as if somehow the lesson will be different and contain the magic instead of the miracle of self.

I can “help” strengthen your backbone, so to speak. However, you insist on crumpling it again and almost immediately. TO BUILD THAT BACKBONE TAKES A BIT LONGER, FOR THAT MUST BE DONE BY SELF THROUGH YOUR OWN MIND.

Moreover, I note that you might read, say, my own writings and get a boost in “stay power”—until the first negative pronouncement hits or circumstances seem difficult. I note that ones who have not even read the material negate your own positive reaction long before your input changes their negative perceptions. Why is that? I am asking you: “Why is that?”

You ask that I give you “generalized” examples as regards examples instead of presenting WHAT WE KNOW. Why do you do that? Because, even as the great Teacher found—HE HAD TO TALK IN PARABLES. MAN CAN ACCEPT A PICTURE; HE CANNOT VISUALIZE A LARGE CONCEPT BEYOND HIS OWN LIMITATIONS.

My dear friends, you must have individuals and/or groups who WANT to bring change—literally, and not within the lie—or there is only negative outcome in any project.

SUNSHINE FARM

An excellent example is Sunshine Farm which was leased to establish a research area for particular crops, good living and, yes, some considerations for either natural disasters or deliberate food and other shortages.

When things get out of balance and the people in charge of the actual hands-on farming deliberately sabotage things, from tractors to ability to earn even a breakeven, you have a major problem and funds are eaten away.

When things became so bad at that farm several years ago we were, if anyone cares to recall, doing some incredibly important things to (1) enhance the growth of crops, and (2) putting in a rodent control, insect pest-control system and generally turn the area into a major center.

There were plans drawn and ready to put in UNDERGROUND greenhouses which would still have natural lighting and ability to also grow crops, gardens, or make parks or use for buildings, parking, even helicopter pads on TOP of them.

We were, with Bob James' engineering, READY to put in “frequency” distribution grids which would, as I stated above, enhance growing and rid the fields of vermin and insect pests. This would only require a mechanism for producing the frequencies either in light or sound. At upstart we would utilize wires so that the areas affected would not interfere with electronic equipment: radios, phones, etc. Then we would move to wireless distribution while taking the killing out of the fields instead of miserable war in the “killing fields”.

Wild life needs to be in the natural areas where Nature keeps her own balance. For instance, the ground squirrels would finally move off the fields and into the forest areas instead of having to die off of bubonic plague or poison—which also poisons PEOPLE.

No, do not tell me it can't be done. Almost all of you know about, or have in your house or garden, devices which sonically zap insects such as mosquitoes and night insects or hypersonic devices to rid buildings of mice and even rats. Then there are the garden devices that are specific to gophers. But, YES, you have to have funds and that means that even WE must GROW or we cannot produce these research centers. Furthermore, we have to have “brainpower” in various areas of knowledge on these matters and we must have the best in the “human growth” arena if we are to “change” anything.

Even a “Tesla” had to have a livelihood and support. You MUST grow on a foundation of stability. There are plenty “around” that would be available instantly—if they could “have the way” to provide and support work, parts, motors, whatever is necessary to accomplish.

The “better way” is shown by the ones who have struggled and struggled against all “government” odds to bring you TRUTH in “what brought you to this point in chaos”. By what was WRONG they have a picture of that which is RIGHT. They are waiting. They don't like the circuits of “silly seminars” or false “genius societies”. Some like the ability to get a bit of a recognition and some loot—and they will fall by the wayside as TRUTH and PROGRESS are brought forth.

The facts ARE, readers, that just through Dubya Bush the concept of world balance could be brought forth. Will his new “christian” concept—as in “born again”—be enough to shift the controllers from their stance? Well, miracles DO happen—sometimes—but not usually with would-be kings under Satan's string pulling as in “Puppet Master”.

Dream on? No, get with REALITY.

We, through GAIA, offer solutions and the changes could be instant and immediate as in "instant in use and immediate in introduction".

So where is the problem? Oh, my goodness, chelas, the King of the physical grab-and-smash has a BIG PROBLEM! ME!

We are happy to have it flow nicely and even give credit to some of the ones who could at least save their own assets—but it is going to get done!

There are some big NO-Nos, however, and those are well known to the Kingdumb Crew and at this time it is truly: “You do not dump on my team.” There is always the free-will expression of “getcha” if you can—but that is YOUR CHOICE, don't you see?

People who have pulled away their support, even to withdrawing subscriptions to CONTACT had best reconsider. WE ARE GOING TO SUCCESSFULLY CONCLUDE AT LEAST A PORTION OF THIS PROGRAM SUFFICIENT TO CLEARING AWAY CURRENT AND POTENTIAL RETURNS IN EXCHANGE FOR THE SUPPORT SO THAT WE CAN KNOW OUR OWN CREW: WHO HAS STAYED AND WHO HAS GONE. OUR PHYSICAL TEAMS CANNOT READ INVISIBLE INTENT. THEY WORK IN A VERY PHYSICAL, TERROR-FILLED LAND OF NEED WITH ALL THE PRESSURES OF SAME.

WE KEEP VERY GOOD BOOKS, WHICH IS WHY SO MANY OF THE RECORDS HAD TO LITERALLY BE THIEVED OR STORED ELSEWHERE FROM THE OFFICES ON “INFAMOUS ADAM DRIVE”. YOU KNEW WE WOULDN'T LABEL THE STREET BY ANY OTHER NAME THAN “ADAM”, DIDN'T YOU?

You who have helped since the “split” happened, KNOW that you are totally covered in at least double return of your help. This has been structured and in place since the assault against the Institute when things had to be secured from the thieves and misrepresentations.

Was gold lost in that process? Indeed, indeed. Gold was NEVER structured to be an investment for lenders. It was SECURITY for lenders through the Institute itself. In addition, ones helped set aside assets to cover any bank “calls” so that gold would NOT be forfeited. Instead, some of your own friends took those cover funds OUT OF THE BANK, personally and, yes, indeed, the gold was taken as the collateral it was.

By that time there were court actions set into motion that disallowed any coverage or recovery while effectively freezing the Institute. Nothing beyond daily operating expenses could be utilized.

Ekkers, as officers and directors with and through an advisory board, secured the LOANS (notes), but as anyone dropped out and made demands that COULD NOT BE LEGALLY HANDLED, the demanders became caught in the muck of the legal regulations and years of litigation.

Meanwhile, the time limitations have allowed the security to mature but not through the Institute. I have no intention to take this further at this time. However, KNOW that any assistance NOW is handled very carefully and securely so that there is return (and reward) once we have been able to begin the asset security and set up secure flow conduits to make sure, this time, the gold is not hanging at the mercy of “fickle friends”.

Can it be done? Of course. Who will stop it?

No, the IMF, FEDS, NWO or other Bullshippers—will NOT “stop” it, although they can continue to push us around and delay things.

Mr. Bush is pushing for a defense system against Rogue States? Well, at this time the only really “rogue” states are the U.S. and Israel—and these two have ARMED THE WORLD AND THOSE OTHER LITTLE “ROGUE” STATES. Oh, my! It is terrible to get blown away by your own bombs, isn’t it?

Mr. Bush has further cause for concern—for “I” met with the Senior Bush and explained things VERY CAREFULLY to him and his major henchmen—just as I did before with some who preceded Mr. Bush. Now is the time of GOD (of Light), friends, and you still have all your “free-will” choices—but I don’t have any such agreement with “Mr. Satan”. And, no, I don’t need to make your lives miserable to take up the event which will shut down his more nasty games. We simply start reversing the so-called NWO PROTOCOLS. WE DO NOT GO TO WAR; WE GO TO PEACE.

So, Mr. Bush has to concern that by seeing to this “peace possibility”—he and thee may well have to do something to secure the culprits from “we” who are very definitely knocking on your door. You see, it is from “me” that they have thieved that which was brought forth against THIS DAY IN YOUR HISTORICAL REALIZATION.

There seems to be a big misunderstanding about space capability. There seems to be a thought of some kind that it requires great nuclear destruction or other incredible world-ending confrontations of some kind. No, if it were desirable for such a thing to happen, we would simply and very selectively remove the problems to somewhere else. It is, however, the change in the intentions, habits and within the hearts of those remaining that brings LIGHT into a dark space. THESE ARE THE DAYS OF DECISIONS AS TO ANSWER ALL THOSE QUESTIONS FROM WHICH YOU REQUIRE FORTUNE-TELLERS TO OFFER ANSWERS. FORTUNE-TELLERS CAN’T ANSWER THOSE QUESTIONS—BECAUSE “THAT” ANSWER IS STRICTLY UP TO YOU!

Until the “World Order” would-be Kings realize that they cannot control the SOULS of mankind—they will continue their assaults even to their own demise. Those persons err in the assumption that you will have a war between you of Earth and the visitors from “out there somewhere”. No, there IS NO CONTEST—TRUST ME, THE CHECK IS IN THE MAIL!

Today, tomorrow or an eon from now, things WILL change, my friends, KNOW IT. You in your human form are cause for alarm and caution to all perceived brethren in whatever dimension of soul expression. It is time to raise that dimensional understanding as you bring back Light into your experience according to the laws of balance and harmony. You don’t even have to believe in GOD or a Creator to understand that you are headed for total disaster on your current “railroad tracks” with the runaway trains churning away on primitive power.

But it takes such a long “time”? And just what is “time”? Oh, and by the way—exactly what is “space”?

To you who chant and ritualize your minds to, let us say, “ascend”, TO WHERE? TO WHAT? WHEN? HOW? AND FOR GOODNESS SAKES WHY? AND JUST WHO WILL TAKE CARE OF YOU IN SUCH A STUPID CIRCUMSTANCE?

No, I did not say you can’t do those seek-and-search games—but I do suggest that you certainly do NOT expect to “find”, for you go on and on down the primrose path while you entirely miss the freeway. You “find”, and then you turn as quickly as you can to the mystics and the negators. This is your privilege, but others who have “FOUND” aren’t too pleased at your back-and-forth push-pull. Yes, indeed, there is a lot of “karma” build-up and very little yet experienced of “restitution efforts”—which is THE part of forgiveness that is mandatory. A lot will owe their own “live-in” companions a whole heck of a lot of “restitution” for the ego damage imposed on “that other”.

Many, when they realize the destruction of their own souls, will rebel—depend on it. Ignorance is NOT bliss, except that of the victim when the ego-spider infests the nest. A soul cannot bear this kind of deceit. The human will rise up in fury against such a controller when realization comes. Watch out, for this is when the physical being becomes a violent weapon. Even worse is when an individual realizes he has sold his soul to the Devil himself—while the Devil himself didn’t even realize his commission.

This is fine in realization if you don’t start casting about with blame for everyone except self. Blame of another is the worst people-eater around. Who cares? Take the gift and use it—and then YOU won’t be blamed for the failures or errors.

We have no wish to start new “religions”—ALL YOU NEED IS YOU AND GOD. That means: no brokers in between and a lot less complications which might well be called “freedom within the laws of goodness, equality and justice”.

And remember something, readers: This younger generation is going to be THE LEADERS of tomorrow. Are you ready for the brain-fried, green-purple-orange-haired writhing of the metallic group at the midnight Hard Rock street orgy? Where do you think you get such leaders as those who have to have sex in the oval office from the children put into his care? If you want immoral leaders to make yourself seem somehow better—go for it—but you ARE GOING DOWN. It takes a society to raise a child. Think about it and never mind the “village” per Lady Hillary who was absolutely AN EQUAL or worse to her partner in crime in that White House in Washington.

YOU ASKED FOR IT, YEA, DEMANDED IT—AND YOU GOT IT! DO YOU NOW HAVE BETTER? WELL, CONSIDER “SKULL AND BONES” AND THINK ABOUT IT.

I would say that Earth Species of man is in his final examinations as to directional movement. The results will not be a curse from God but an outcome of man’s doing.

I take great joy in asking my students: “Will you die for God?” I no longer get such escape responses as “sure”, “if I need to” and “what else is happenin’?” I get emphatically: “NO!” and “I am willing to LIVE FOR YOU, GOD but, no, the martyred way didn’t work and frankly, unless there is a better reason than that, so—NO.”

REMINDER

The cosmic spaces are FILLED with all sorts of energy and energies. There are incredibly dark energies available if you want a real confrontation with visitors from other places, including other dimensions.

The question remains: Do you want a brotherhood of LIGHT to stop that assault of Creeps or not? I can promise you that your toys will not match those of the “bad boys” and you will quickly understand your position in Hell. You have opportunity NOW, but it will pass, to get out of that PIT. Will you do it or will you slide right back into the abyss? YOU ARE THE MIRACLE: MAKE IT OR BREAK IT.

Or, we can keep going as is and pray really hard because there are several suggestions which seem a bit weird to me but are nonetheless manifested by you the humans.

One is right here in the faxes for the day from Two-by. [QUOTING Orlando Sentinel, 6-16-01:]

GROUP HOPES OLIVE OIL HELPS

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic—Three evangelical Protestant leaders flying in a small plane poured hundreds of gallons of olive oil over different parts of the Dominican Republic on Friday, hoping the blessed oil will heal the troubled nation. “This operation will serve to heal the Dominican Republic because we understand that it is sick and needs to be healed by the blessings of the Lord,” said Jesus Dilone, leader of the evangelical church Circle of Prayer. The Dominican Republic has been racked by violent protests and rioting by people angry about power outages, a stagnant economy and heavy-handed police tactics.

[H: Well, let us hope it was not boiling oil. Otherwise, it is noted by Dharma that this “remedy” must have originated by a Greek.]

[END OF QUOTING]

Then a few years back in Los Angeles, some lady went into her back yard with a bed-sheet and flapped it at the moon. That was somehow supposed to do “something” about the problems and bad monsters. It got international notoriety. I say, Dharma, why don’t you take your bed-sheet and try the top of the hotel?

Let’s have some fun, people, we are at “JOY” time—some of you refer to as “champagne time” or “happy hour!”. Stop flapping and start pushing and let’s deliver this baby. Please?

Let us love one another—and the way will be ever so much more pleasant.

Bush: Skull & Bones Tactics Instead Of “God’s Plan 2000”

6/20/01—#1 (14-308)

WHY GOLD IF YOU HOLD GAIA ASSETS?

Hatonn—This is an excellent question and as you look around the globe you can see the reasons very clearly—once you know the games.

The plan for gathering wealth was finalized with the scattering of what we will simply refer to as the Marcos gold. It isn’t quite that simple but it identifies players and locations. It also gives realization from Hong Kong to Switzerland—what has taken place as gold is shifted out and into the adversary’s coffers of the IBC and New World Order.

However, greed and avarice show themselves pretty quickly when opportunity to steal without recourse is presented.

IF BUSH HAD USED “GOD’S PLAN 2000” INSTEAD OF HIS OWN SKULL & BONES TACTICS, HE WOULD HAVE PULLED OFF THE SCHEME. AH, BUT—EVIL BEARS “THE” MARK—USUALLY RIGHT ON THE FACE.

There needed to be “something” which would allow MONEY to flow and ALSO a way to shift that wealth of Marcos into the NWO hands of Bush, et al.

So, the Peruvian Certificate was used. It was old and valuable in its own right, although the face amount was only $1,000. It has accrued outrageous VALUE—in compounding interest. It was an identifiable document which was well documented—but was in a “bearer” holding. It was, however, the property in holding of one, Russell Herman and/or colleague V.K. Durham. We can’t sort that.

In the Philippines, Marcos gathered assets and with the assistance of a full contingency of U.S.-CIA persons, the wealth was shipped out and away—and since we have already presented that list of places, we won’t repeat it here because that is NOT the question. The question is “why gold” to ADD as collateral to our “Deeds” if they are fully backed by gold? Well, the gold snatchers are the cause, of course.

Since the certificate Bush could use got itself fully qualified by his buddies in the U.S. “Departments, i.e., Treasury” and also through his cabinet officers such as the Treasurer, Sec. of State, etc., it became an easy play just to utilize the instrument without more than a signature by Russell Herman, holder of the instrument itself.

This went well in the beginning while nobody knew what the heck was being pulled off. This included massive funding from established banks into the billions of dollars and creation of new banks specifically for handling the assets and, yes, laundering of arms trade, drug trade and you name it. It became a resource for gaining ownership of massive amounts of oil holdings and, yes, gold mining operations. It also allowed for the purchase of Bahrain and Kuwait (just to name two countries).

There was no such arrangement as SUPPORT for those loans and still the subterfuge continued through use of Russell Herman. The stuff hit the fan with Herman, however, when the realization came that Bush was actually stripping the U.S. (which “saving the nation” was the so-called reason for participation in the first place). The big stuff hit the fan when Bush demanded $35 TRILLION be shifted off to Saddam of Iraq. It would flow as usual through such as the Department of Agriculture and out of the U.S. “coffers” (Federal Reserve) and was going to be used for ARMS dealings. You will have to go back into the old writings on the CIA, Drug Trade, Barry Seal’s operations, etc. This is not part of the answer.

When Herman REFUSED to sign over that massive amount, the Bush Cartel was without measure of pure fury. So, the Bush boys STOLE Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd. through the Secretary of State [Nevada], Papas, and referred to it as “Cosmos” and thought they would get away with simply shifting officers, directors and holdings.

Herman acted quickly, indeed. When he was made aware, SMILE, he took himself off to change out that certificate to a CONTRACT of identifiable ownership. He got all that done and along with it got the Federal Reserve “System” to value the instruments. The Fed had no problem with that, for they still thought they were working under the direct orders of the Bush Cartel.

At the same time, there was demand for sorting the mess in Nevada Corporation headquarters and CSEM was restored but by then the contract was fully identified, certified, recorded LEGALLY and became a whole new baby in the playpen.

By this time Herman knew that he was working with me, Hatonn, and we walked this journey through. Herman had been tortured and radiated beyond ability to save his body. It was going to die.

So, the next best thing, since the boys of Satan were still making even dying unbearable, they continued their assaults by now inclusive of V.K. Durham, Herman’s partner. It was decided, then, in 1993 that the contract, now legally clear of the Bush Cartel, would be put into higher security with ME and that would be through the route of “MY” newspaper, CONTACT. It would remain in security until other events would take place.

Meanwhile, the stuff was hitting the fan around the globe as banks began to fold or, at the least, get into REALLY SERIOUS TROUBLE. This came through theft, derivative trading and all manners of “use of gold” that didn’t exist in hard copy. Mr. Bush SHOULD HAVE HAD BACKUP THROUGH THE BONUS CERTIFICATE AND THE FED, BUT ALAS—HE DIDN’T.

Now, if the S&B society had just demanded that the instruments be backed by GOLD in place or even in receipt, the shift could have been made which would even strengthen the economy of those “had” banks. But, we all know that part of the INTENT was to use the asset and pull down the banks while the big brothers could just capture more and more and more as banks went under and all assets taken. In addition, the institutions could then be sorted out and the good stuff captured through purchase and the bad dumped off onto taxpayers. This is a “double kill” in the business. Why, don’t you remember that a bank the size of Barings was purchased for ONE DOLLAR!?

Even the bankers who “would rather not” were caught dead in the water with NO CHOICES.

Then came the big GOLD FRAUD games and money manipulations—but that too is a major story worthy of repeating.

Our PROGRAM utilizes GOLD to back our collateral just SO there are no repeats of such atrocity against a nation of people. This ALSO secures any bank, banker and even the Central bank allowing printing of new currency (outside the IMF clutches)—because there is solid gold backing and not simply paper reserves. This is called “double security” which is outrageously GOOD for the economy of any nation or Central Bank.

We do not “compete” with anyone, even the IMF who seems so dead set against use of any of our proposals. In fact, this is a sure way to get their loans paid back—IF THAT IS WHAT THEY “REALLY” WANT, AS THEY SAY.

So, this is why our people are beating themselves to handle these dozens of various jobs and have little time to explain anything to anyone except the direct participants. Only it doesn’t work that way, does it?

NOW, WHY DO I FOCUS ON SUCH AS FIDEL RAMOS, FORMER PHILIPPINES PRESIDENT?

I MUST focus on him as to what is revealed in the press—because he is the Philippine brains serving the U.S./CIA and thus the IMF/FED.

FVR was a part of EVERYTHING mentioned above regarding the Marcos plan, the orchestration of the plan and probably worked with, directly, Russell Herman—SO HE KNOWS THE PRODUCT IS GOOD, VALID AND WORTHY AS ALREADY USED.

It is established, however, that he remains a CIA asset as well as working “for” the U.S. government.

This would be alright, and is OK with me, but you see he did some interesting things which might be noted—because he is in charge of making sure our program is not utilized. It is not denied validity—just don’t let it come to use.

Since Ramos was involved with Marcos directly and was Marcos’ right hand PERSON, it was difficult for Marcos when the minute things were removed and the U.S. cut out—Ramos turned about as well and started/orchestrated the demise of Marcos.

Was Ramos paid off? Well, indeed. Please note that the interest paid each year to the IMF by the Philippines is something like 6 billion DOLLARS and of that amount at least 2 were kickbacks—to guess who. Mr. Ramos is one of the wealthiest people in the world—all as recognized “plunder”. And, yes, this is general knowledge which remains in the “gossip” circles. However, there have been so many payoffs and other kickbacks that it is quite overlooked at higher governmental/justice system levels.

THAT IS NOT OUR BUSINESS NOR DO WE MAKE IT OUR BUSINESS.

Now, today, the headlines are again “DESTABILIZATION” of the government in power. That means that a play is being made and set up, knowingly, to pull down Gloria Arroyo. It is said that Ramos is orchestrating the program against her. Gee, he is the one who overthrew Estrada and basically put all the players into the government as is—so this is a bit difficult, ISN’T IT?

GAIA has been approached and an inquiry made as to whether or not we would work with a new administration if that happened? Answer: Of course for we have no political involvement. It just seems people should know a bit of what is taking place in their own execution program.

It certainly seems to me that there are enough things needing doing to allow for, at the least, feeding of the people and allowing for jobs and production of SOME KIND. We do not bring down THE apocalypse to pretend to SAVE the world. That is pure foolishness. WE ARE NOT AT WAR; WE ARE ONLY OFFERING MAN SOME CHOICES—WHICH ULTIMATELY IMPACT HIS “SOUL”.

MEANWHILE BACK IN PERU

Note what is taking place in Peru as we write. While holding the backup PROOF of all GAIA and Certificate 3392-181—sent there under guard to protect the carrier and the documents, the new “Indian Leader” of Peru, Alejandro Toledo is going to give away Peru to the U.S. “Bankers” in order to get the economy back on track and owe the rest of the nation forever into bondage “to the company store”. He plans to rebuild even the infrastructure (which becomes part of a foreclosure collateral): “A BROAD SOCIAL-EMERGENCY PLAN, WHICH WOULD CREATE TEMPORARY JOBS WITH INTERNATIONALLY FUNDED INFRA-STRUCTURE INITIATIVES, WOULD AVERT A POSSIBLE WAVE OF SOCIAL UNREST,” he said.

The potential for receiving that amount into the multibillions is based on U.S. promises. My goodness, “and Jesus wept!” Mr. Fujimori really was a bumbling boulder in the path to “Grabsbourg”.

We can note here that also in the “daily news” is that “Nazi Slaves” will be getting their back pay. It is also noted that each of the lawyers (designated as “Holocaust” lawyers) are receiving a minimum of $1 million EACH. Interesting!

There is an old joke which used to move about your place: “Where were you when the lights went out?” and “Where was Jonah when the whale swallowed him and the lights went out?” Answer: In the dark.

However, I have to ask: “Where were all of you when the lights went out in your brains?” The adversary has been working ever since to make sure you can’t find the on-switch.

I know it is difficult to sort things, readers. Every day you are bombarded with myriads of bits of input. How can you know who is correct, who is wrong, who is intentionally fooling you and who is trying his best with wrong information and who is actually out to get you? Well, you can know that Mr. Evil is always after you, so check out the ACTIONS of those you hear or see. Make sure you aren’t being sucked into something devious or fed on propaganda to keep you fooled.

I ask Dharma to excerpt a bit from Erick San Juan’s book regarding Nation Building.

At the time of the writing there was NO REALIZATION that there was such a thing as potential alliances or association with such as GAIA—so the Marcos gold retrieval was the only way that could be seen as an asset.

I would, a bit in behalf of Marcos, remind all of you witnesses who might call the man all the nasty names you can conjure, hearken up a bit. The Philippines never grew nor flourished as it did during the Marcos years—look around you.

Marcos also left 70 to 80% of EVERYTHING he had, including those offshore stashes to “THE PHILIPPINE PEOPLE”. THAT is not now nor ever was in debate. Graft and corruption is limited only by the perceptions regarding same and “just who might be grafting and corrupting/corrupted!”

[QUOTING RAIDERS OF THE LOST GOLD, by Erick San Juan, Ch. 9. (Manila, Philippines):]

TIME TO BUILD A REAL NATION

President Marcos’ New Society was “A period marked by unprecedented graft and corruption,” wrote William Rempel of the Los Angeles Times. “Unrestrained by an independent legislature or a free press, Marcos and his wife looted billions of dollars from the impoverished nation’s treasury. The Marcoses’ own financial records, many of which were seized by agents of the U.S. Customs Service in 1986, showed that the president held secret ownership in virtually every industry in that nation—from mining operations and insurance agencies to pineapple plantations and automobile distributorships.”

Just like historian Stanley Karnow, Rempel is of the opinion that the much talked-about Marcos wealth was acquired through kickbacks and other fraudulent means. For example, Karnow sensationalizes the indictment on October 22, 1988, by a New York grand jury, of the Marcoses and eight others, including Adnan Khashoggi, who were accused of embezzling more than $100 Million from the Philippine government to acquire three Manhattan buildings, allegedly defrauding American banks to finance the deal. “The investigation,” Karnow adds, “also revealed twenty secret Marcos accounts in a Swiss bank and other clandestine deposits elsewhere.”

So far, none of those accusations have produced positive results for the Philippine government. As of this writing, the Philippine government has yet to receive $500 Million from the Union Bank of Switzerland, the first ever to admit that Marcos did indeed hold an account with them.

In fact, Karnow admits that the regime which took over from Marcos was a big letdown. “Particularly dramatic was the skepticism, disappointment, and apprehension of the groups that had vaulted Cory into power: the intellectuals, businessmen, clergy, and army.” The army’s five coup attempts during her first 500 days in office were enough to frustrate whatever socio-economic plans her advisers had drawn up for the country.

Instead of leading the newly restored “democratic” government to peace and prosperity as she vowed during the last days of the Marcos regime, Cory Aquino, assisted by her sanctimonious spiritual adviser, Cardinal Jaime Sin, concentrated instead on passing the blame to her dead predecessor for her failure to improve the country’s condition. Many were simply reminded of her husband’s prophetic words in the summer of 1983. Lamenting the fact that after Marcos would come the deluge, Ninoy stated, “If you made me president of the Philippines today...in six months, I would be smelling like horseshit. Because there’s nothing I can do. I cannot provide employment. I cannot bring prices down, I cannot stop the criminality spawned by economic difficulties.”

Not even Rempel’s insulting description of Ferdinand Marcos in his book, Delusions of a Dictator, will help alleviate the plight of millions of Filipinos whose economic state has gone from bad to worse since 1986. Only the Marcos gold haul, wisely used, will transform the Philippines into a vibrant economic tiger. And no less than industrialist Enrique Zobel echoes this observation: “It is not yet too late... Perhaps if the next president of the Philippines and the Marcos heirs can come to an amicable settlement of the issue, we can all benefit from it. Otherwise, our people stand to lose all of the wealth that Mr. Marcos apparently had deposited in various parts of the world, with his bankers being all the richer for it and us all the poorer.”

It is said that, “History is nothing but a recorded lie.” Unfortunately, Karnow and Rempel have not changed all that. Prejudice rides herd over historical writing.

The new breed of revolutionary Filipinos, the self-styled liberals of today’s secret societies, are seeing a marvelous opportunity for themselves in this. Just like their grandfathers, they know that the only American policy toward the Philippines and other former Spanish colonies has been, consistently, to help fan the fires of revolution. U.S. Presidents Polk and Buchanan easily distinguished themselves the most by carrying out this imperialist policy, which until today is pursued by America’s leaders.

There are many insights in Philippine history which have been suppressed by the U.S. government through State Department carpetbaggers and spooks from the CIA and other related agencies, all of which are making things hard for contending political factions in the Philippines to “get their act together” for the good of the country and its people.

Americans will always stick their fingers into our political, educational, and cultural institutions, always attempting to carve us “in their image”. But for as long as genuine patriotism prevails in these 7,100 islands, their dream of installing a permanent empire in the Philippines will never succeed.

President Ferdinand Marcos has bequeathed to us eighty percent of his wealth. It’s time we recover it and build for ourselves a truly great nation.

It has been assessed that the total worth of the earthly possessions of the late Pres. Marcos runs to a trillion dollars, inclusive of interest earnings from the gold bullion certificates, precious metal certificates, bonds, securities and real estate holdings.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, readers, if you didn’t have any money BEFORE Marcos and have only gone deeper and deeper into yogurt swamps since his going—is there something wrong here? Is it just possible that the wealth had an entirely different source than ever presented—but the U.S. certainly knew all about it, didn’t they?

I further would surmise that the greed shows. If you would like to get something from someone, say, Mrs. Marcos and Family, it might be nice to quit suing them and finally settle on the ransom amount. Imelda Marcos did exactly what she was told to do by her U.S. HANDLERS—exactly. Flattery got the greed-mongers everything they wanted including Marcos’ blood. Bunches of that Marcos’ wealth came from Imelda’s side of the bargain and, no, I do not mean Romualdez.

One of these days the Philippines will find the Filipinos to be finally “fed up, mad as hell, and won’t take it any more”. I really wish there would be intelligence used so that this can be resolved through productivity and growth. We shall see, for if it comes through wrong sequence of events, it will not LAST.

The ONLY reason Marcos’ wealth (80% thereof) is due the Filipino people, is BECAUSE HE WILLED IT TO THEM—and not because they somehow have some right to it.

May you who choose the valley to find peace in your souls through demands upon others—beware. GOD IS USUALLY FOUND ON THE CLIMB UP THAT MOUNTAIN TO WHERE HE HOLDS COURT. MOREOVER, WHEN YOU STEAL FROM GOD YOU HAVE BLUNDERED BADLY.

Salu, Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

Elite Plan: Disallow Use Of The GAIA Instruments

6/22/01—#1 (14-310)

RE: PHOENIX PROJECT; WHY GAIA; WHY CONTACT; WHY "NOW" AND NOT YESTERDAY?

THERE IS NO MYSTERY
IF YOU KNOW THE ANSWER!

Hatonn—Mark, the first request is to you, please: We need to now reintegrate "Project" into our paper heading, i.e.: THE PHOENIX PROJECT JOURNAL [MM: Yes! Check it out NOW—I love it.], or "Journal for" or whatever is suitable. Example:

CONTACT

JOURNAL FOR: THE PHOENIX PROJECT

We can change those "headings" as often as we choose—but it will shortly become clear why we need to recognize "Phoenix Project".

We need the "CONTACT" in the title because that is the source of corporation identification for business purposes.

The project itself, as we are working through the mysteries of just what took place in/with GAIA, "The Plan", and funding for the New World Order—all were coded the "Phoenix Project" and often referred to as "Project Phoenix" as relative to what was being done, yea, with Marcos/U.S., and even today, why we are involved and have the GAIA asset.

Those who loaned to the Phoenix Institute for Research and Education did so to make sure we could accomplish THIS PROJECT and to establish some templates for the things that would be needed as disruption would take place as to intended games and getchas.

There was NEVER any other purpose—no matter how distorted the miscreants might have rewritten the story. GO READ THE PAPERS AND THE JOURNALS. It was never established to get out Dr. Young's OR George Green's WORD. And, furthermore, you can't get MY WORD OUT if you kill my writers and claim access to my productions or "words". It simply does not work that way in the realms of TRUTH. Anyone who claims otherwise and produces something as a product "as if" is a LIAR, CHEAT AND THIEF. All of these terms are very definitely objectionable to the ones who practice those named attitudes and claims of possession. I suggest they might be a bit "possessed" from time to time but that is another focus.

GLOBAL ALLIANCE
INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION (GAIA)

This is NOT an "investment" program unless you wish to consider that GAIA makes an "investment" in nations and people. But that is not the topic focus for today.

It is, however, because of CONTACT being

"Hatonn's" resource relative to the Phoenix Project that brought Russell Herman into interchange with "you". Hatonn, me, was WHY we called the paper "CONTACT, THE PHOENIX PROJECT" until Young changed it to "Educator". Well, it was intentional that he didn't know any more than he did, or does. Remember, prior to that when Green was going to snatch the paper, we changed it to Phoenix Liberator! Always we had "PHOENIX" in the title and originally hooked all we did to the Phoenix "programs" so that everything would have "Phoenix Institute" SECURITY. Green really did a number on that one, didn't he? AND, WHO LET HIM AND THEN AIDED AND ABETTED THE LIES AND THEFTS?

So, a dozen years of hard knocks? NO, A DOZEN YEARS OR MORE OF HARD LESSONS WHICH SOME OF YOU LEARNED WELL.

Dharma, I need the following information put to disc "now" for use separately (in addition to) from the paper or the ongoing story. However, it is not NEW information; it is old and we have written about it prior to now even to the point of speaking a lot on the topic of currency and the gold deposits around the globe.

This will point out, albeit perhaps in the unwritten sequences of events that this pretty much lays forth the general intent in the Marcos years.

This will explain why the original need for the Bonus 3392-181 assets (Bush, et al.) to secure the Marcos shipments to "friendly" ports so Bush could grab the assets AND why, when Marcos realized he was "used", he shipped off twice as much to other nations. Some are not even mentioned here.

We did not write this report upcoming and it was already circulated and buried by the Powers who took over—and buried further by such as U.S. Agents, Aquino, Ramos, IMF/WB and the NWO. The bug in their PLAN never actually died when "killed". Russell Herman turned the asset over to ME, HATONN, for security.

The effort today is to disallow the USE of the GAIA instruments if at all possible even if it is a total loss of the Philippine's sovereignty and recovery of the nation.

With the use of the "Project Phoenix" assets, i.e., the Certificate Bonus 3392-181, there would be capability of putting a bond which would "read" as "gold assets" under the ABL shipments as you would a warehouse receipt and TAKE THE GOLD. They were able to do this in many instances even if some players were silenced through "payoffs" and "kickbacks" (right through the International Banking Cartel) to "you guess who".

When Marcos realized what was afoot, he shut down the shipping to the U.S. et al., and got some of his own loyal men to ship quickly and silently to other countries such as Libya, Papua New Guinea, Malaysia, etc.

The entire ABL "PHOENIX PROJECT" was to allow for sufficient GOLD to be placed to support already printed CURRENCY (ABL) to return the nations to a global gold standard. Well, you can now follow the bouncing ball from there onward.

Who knows about all this? The ones trying to gain total control and again destabilize the Philippines!

So, let us look at the following, for it needs no, or very little, additional explanation or comment. You will notice, however, that there are some necessary observations of more recent happenings which might help you better "speculate" as to what may well have occurred in some instances.

AN IMPRESSIVE PROJECT

PROJECT: ABL/GMR—ANG BAGONG LIPUNAN NOTES BACKED-UP WITH GOLD MEMORANDUM RECEIPT CONTAINING 2,500 METRIC TONS PER SET.

"ABL = Ang Bagong Lipunan"

"GMR = Gold Memorandum Receipts"

PROJECT SUMMARY

It is common knowledge that during the Second World War, the Japanese forces invaded, conquered and looted Asia with their Gold Reserves in their Central Bank Vaults. Likewise; the NAZI Forces of Hitler conquered and looted 17 countries all over Europe. In 1944, before the fall of Berlin, Golds and other precious metals were loaded on aircraft carriers and battleships for shipment to Japan and the Philippines, considering that the Philippines is the most strategic place in all of Asia and the Richest Source of Natural Resources needed by Japan for its ambitious Industrialization Program. Henceforth brought to the Philippines: The Japanese as legend said over 172 treasure sites has been carefully prepared containing Thousands of metric tons of Gold Bars, Platinum, Palladium, Diamonds and other precious artifacts. According to a very reliable source, about 30% of this treasure sites has been retrieved by the former president Ferdinand E. Marcos.

When the war ended in 1945 and independence was granted by the Americans to the Filipinos. The former President have started to retrieve treasures whom Gen. Toyoki Yamachita have entrusted to him upon his surrender. Between 1946 to 1949 FM have already shipped out a total of 5,000 metric tons of gold Bars to Switzerland and up to present, this assets are deposited at a Bonded Warehouse at Kloten Airport, Switzerland.

Before the trial in New York of the former first Lady Madame Imelda Marcos, I personally advised her to use the gold, and prove to the whole that the Marcos assets are not ill gotten wealth, and this is the only way she and Adman Kashogi her co-accused could be acquitted in what is known as the trial of the century, the rest is history.

Mrs. Marcos before her return to the Philippine in Nov. 4, 1991, presented to the international Media documents confirming the gold deposit in Switzerland totaling 5,000 metric tons valued at 55 Billion US Dollars with bank receipts dated 1946 to 1949.

During the fifties and early sixties when the gold price plummeted down to 30 to 35 US Dollars per ounce in the LME, FM Traded heavily using his gold assets to secure Bank Guarantees of Payment to purchase all he could acquire. In the late sixties and early seventies the price went up to 800 US Dollars per troy ounce. Making him practically the Richest Man in the World.

During his incumbency as Government Official from Congressman, Senator and then President for 20 years, he was involved in retrieving Gold in numerous treasure sites. One of his trusted confidante was Col. Orlando Dulay, the later was commissioned to undertake the supervision, security and hauling of commodities from the site to the Central Bank Refinery and other places where the former president asked him to do.

In 1983 when Ninoy Aquino was assassinated, FM instructed his trusted men to ship the Gold out of the country for fear that the Americans/CIA might steal it from us. In 1985 Col. Orlando Dulay was instructed to conduct inventory in 10 countries where the Gold was deposited. The Dulay inventory report reveals a staggering amount of 81,000 metric tons of Gold deposited in 10 countries namely:

- |              |                |
|--------------|----------------|
| 1. China     | 6. Switzerland |
| 2. USA       | 7. Japan       |
| 3. UK        | 8. Australia   |
| 4. Singapore | 9. UAE         |
| 5. Germany   | 10. Panama.    |

Other countries with undetermined quantity of Gold deposits are the following:

- |              |                 |
|--------------|-----------------|
| 1. Malaysia  | 9. Saudi Arabia |
| 2. PNG       | 10. Austria     |
| 3. Thailand  | 11. Argentina   |
| 4. Indonesia | 12. Yugoslavia  |
| 5. HongKong  | 13. Russia      |
| 6. Macao     | 14. Taiwan      |
| 7. Libya     | 15. Bahamas     |
| 8. Italy     |                 |

THE BIRTH OF NEW SOCIETY
AND ITS NEW CURRENCY KNOWN AS THE BAGONG LIPUNAN NOTES.

When FM proclaimed Martial Law in 1972, he envisioned a new social & political order he called the New Society. In the old society, the Philippine Peso was printed in London, UK by Thomas De Larue. During his incumbency, he built the Central Bank of the Philippines, in Quezon City that included the gold refinery, minting & printing of currency.

The Ang Bagong Lipunan Notes was printed and circulated with gold back up duly approved by the IMF and WB. It was printed in sets of 780 Billion Pesos per set. Back-up by a Gold Memorandum Receipt of 2,500 metric tons of fine gold issued by the Central Bank of the Philippines. A total of 14 sets shall be the subject of this project.

[H: READ VERY CAREFULLY THE PARAGRAPH JUST PRESENTED AND PAY CLOSE ATTENTION TO THE NEXT. YOU ARE GOING TO SEE SOME REAL WORKINGS TAKING PLACE WHICH PROBABLY PRESENTED THE NEED TO HAVE “FIRES” “IN” THE CENTRAL BANK CURRENTLY—TO GET RID OF CURRENCY POSSIBLY? (???.)]

IN 1986 WHEN MRS. CORAZON AQUINO TOOK OVER THE PRESIDENCY, ONE OF HER PROCLAMATION WAS TO DEMONETIZED THE MARCOS CURRENCY, (ABL) AND PRINTED A REPLACEMENT CURRENCY. It is a common knowledge that the Aquino Government attempted to use the GMR and seek permission FROM THE IMF AND WB TO HAVE ACCESS AND CONTROL OF THE PHYSICAL DEPOSIT OF GOLD, THEY WERE DENIED AND REJECTED BY THE IMF AND WB OFFICIALS FOR NOT BEING THE LEGAL HOLDER/SIGNATORY TO THE ACCOUNT. That event proves that the gold back up of the Ang Bagong Lipunan was not owned by the Philippine Government but of a private entity, who granted the authority to the Central Bank to use their Gold Holdings as back up.

FACTS:

1. Demonetized ABL currency are presently stored at the Central Bank warehouse.
2. Corresponding Gold Memorandum Receipts (GMR) is deposited in the safety deposit box of Central Bank each GMR is 2,500 metric tons of refined GOLD with a current value of approximately, US$ 25 BILLION/set. 14 sets = US$350 BILLION.
3. Gold deposits have been identified in several countries around the world.

During the last two (2) administration of Aquino and Ramos, there have been an attempt to withdraw this huge asset for the benefit of the Filipino people but they have forgotten a simple logic if you own the gold why give it to your enemy, why should I give bullet to my enemy. Whom for the last 12 agonizing years of their governance continuously used the people's money to wage a worldwide campaign of Hatred against the owners of the gold.

[END OF QUOTING]

Doesn't it begin to become clear why Marcos had to be kidnapped and never allowed again to be heard?

Isn't it also clear as crystal why the advice given to both Marcoses was to handle their private business, especially in the U.S., in such a way as to cause to bring Federal charges AGAINST THEM?

Now, today, look what has happened. The U.S. (through the CIA) and the IMF/WB have been able to set up, by using Aquino AND Ramos presidencies, to get the “new plan” established and set in cement.

It was not intended, remember, that Erap Estrada would win the 1998 election under any circumstances. Ramos was given orders to rectify that little glitch and has quite effectively DONE SO. He is pressing right on through this administration as well, today.

GAIA backs everything solidly with GOLD. In addition, GAIA requires a second backing by collateralizing the gold reserves shown on the Deeds, WITH GOLD. That becomes a total win-win circumstance for building, growth AND PROTECTION OF THE NATION AND THE BANKS.

Russell Herman, owner of the original certificate used—changed it into a CONTRACT through “jurat” and legally converted the entire asset into legally registered, even with the Treasury Department, identifiable ownership—right through to TODAY.

There is no debate suitable or argument valid to negate this asset now offered for use to sovereign nations and to those who would create good projects, jobs and social recovery for those people and nations.

My teams are fed-up with the ridicule, denials, and frankly, being shot at, bombed at and restricted to quarters in order to secure their safety.

What we offer can be used to back every ounce and every note of Marcos placements—cleanly, openly and will free up those assets to “come home”, be used as desired by the family AND THE PHILIPPINES (for 70 - 80% of those assets were left to the Philippine people). Note: THAT DOES NOT SAY BUSH NOR NEW WORLD ORDER! Neither does it say the IMF nor the World Bank gets it.

WHAT DOES ALL THIS MEAN
AS IN “USE OF GAIA”?

Well, everything. It is a part of the program as designed in the very first “Phoenix Project” before it was whacked by the New World Order and traitors.

GAIA can SECURE all the international holdings based ON GOLD while the stored assets can be used while totally covering any and all commodities of either ABL currency and/or Gold—in those packages.

WHAT ELSE DOES IT MEAN
AS IMMEDIATE ASSETS?

It means that when the argument comes up about having no sufficient currency printed to handle such a program in the Philippines—B.S.! There SHOULD be all that printed ABL currency tucked nicely, along with presses for more, right in the Central Bank. Since it jointly circulated with the Peso up until it was demonetized, then it should integrate very well AGAIN without trauma. The value of the Peso will immediately raise in value at the same time. All that is necessary is another order to “monetize” it again. It should take no more than 5 minutes from start to finish.

It could go right along simultaneously with an Executive Order authorizing recognition of the GAIA instruments.

SO, WHY NOT?

Well, the picture for the IMF/WB/NWO control sinks exponentially with the recognition of this asset—AROUND the globe. The program can't work without the GAIA backup in recognition of responsible asset holders but since the intent is to leave all assets in any “use” country—the value is, indeed, wondrous.

THE NWO, ET AL., HAVE USED THE INSTRUMENTS UNLAWFULLY AND STOLEN THE GOLD—AND THEREIN IS THE NEED FOR REPLACEMENT OF GOLD AND ITS USE AS A CURRENCY EVALUATION COMMODITY. In most instances the gold has been leased, stolen, used without backup, and frankly, has been shifted off and into the “adversary's” vaults and dens.

It seems overdue to cause those miscreants to BRING IT BACK.

I again repeat: WE HAVE NEVER VARIED ONE IOTA FROM OUR STATED GOALS. HAVE YOU, PERCHANCE?

Thank you for your attention—and may you understand the Phoenix Project just a bit better.

Salu, Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn

WHEN DOORS SLAM ON YOUR FINGERS....

Bloodied? No. Bent? A bit!

Yes, we knew it would be “this way” and, yes, our feelings are hurt a bit from time to time—but each event allows better insight, severance of that which we no longer need and with each bloody finger we place our fingerprints ever so much more generously and scatter them around to be checked, copied, blurred or whatever might be the identifiable to EVERYONE who comes around. We also get fingerprints from the persons with whom we deal as well as their signatures. This to ensure that no matter what “name” might be affixed to suit the corporate needs, we will have the identification. It is good to have a scar or two through your thumbprint but a missing “finger” is troublesome. Plus the fact that I, Doris, would be greatly irritated to be missing my “signature” thumb—at this keyboard.

To you who send Faxes to us, I will share the following circumstance.

E.J. is presently downstairs visiting with the Hotel Manager about the Faxes. We have a couple of problems in this less-than-quality operation. 1) Thermal paper is used in the antiquated Fax machine which often equates to “invisible” ink and a day later after receiving the fax, the copy is GONE! 2) At least a half of the printout is so skewed as to try to read a “straight line” EKG so that the printout is illegible AND missing print. And, 3), even if we get a “free” receiving from time to time, we have to pay the bellman. Now this latter one gets amusing if not downright pitiful (seeing that people of that level of employment are not paid enough to survive, much the less flourish). So, at almost every hour of the day, we “receive” a page or two of something. Sometimes we have noted that the dates indicate a “holdover” from the prior day. Often, we find, it has taken several attempts to even get a fax THROUGH.

This is totally out of control and thus faxes and mail end up costing us up to several hundred pesos in a day by the time we get a mailing separated from the post office and to our room.

The postal delivery “persons” make no bones about it. It took, for example, over $30 in bribes to finally get a bread machine into our clutches that was “used” and so used, in fact, as to be totally non-operable AT ALL. It came through the mail nicely but we now probably have the most expensive bread machine in the United States or United Kingdom combined—and bread packets with no way to use them.

Complain? Oh, my, the nice person says, “Well, I’ll just have to take it back and you will have to go to customs to get it out!” That takes a minimum of two weeks and when a “package” or envelope contains urgent documents—a week or two simply is unacceptable. I vacillate between pure frustration and borderline loathing of this PLACE!

Last evening did it! We received a Priority package of legal documents from the attorney in Nevada—after weeks in the “mail”, mostly sitting in Manila. However, the service from the U.S. to here, Priority no less, is never less than 15 days—while regular mail can take several months or “not at all”.

Two-by’s are the most “adjusted” faxes and when yesterday’s came dribbling up with “tips” due—all day long—AND WERE ILLEGIBLE AFTER WE BAILED THEM OUT FOR RANSOM, E.J. said, “enough” and has gone to confront (although we could call it war) the Hotel Management.

MINIMAL IMPORTANCE?

No, everyone who is a friend will recall that E.J.’s brother [A.C.] was killed last November (7 months ago) and that estate is in horrendous shape because of grabbers and mostly that is because it is an “historical site”. It is terribly in debt and bunches of the cattle have been filched (or loaded in truckloads) and stolen. We had to give over E.J.’s power of attorney and still we are trying to meet the legal needs of Utah. We will, Ron K., yes, get that shifted out the minute we can do so—to “Mother” Nevada. But we can’t wait until October. We are finally getting enough transferred to get the job accomplished but it has been interesting to say the very least.

We have found that anything requiring a “notary” signature is a lost cause. 1) the Notaries are 95% “frauds” and are basically not even acceptable witnesses to a document. Here the only “sure thing” is a thumbprint. On the last documents we had to get the signatures of two attorney’s to witness the thing that is unnecessary under any circumstances IN A CORPORATION, WHICH THE RANCH IS! Oh, Ron, do we ever have a LONG WAY TO GO. Your information being published is incredibly good and wonderfully timely for other purposes. We may well be able to simply take a slow boat “around” the restrictions in the U.S.

Also the silver club may well have some fundamental possibilities for smaller transfers and backing purposes. You, (again, Ron) might well be working on “off-shore”-type possibilities for those already functioning off-shore and where the problem comes the minute there is a transfer of funds necessary to do business for those “off-shore” corporations.

This would be increasingly valuable to, say, Canadians, Mexicans, and those who not only have citizenship in “other” (non-domestic) countries but also those who, especially, hold corporations. It is NOT, however, suitable in any format or loop to do what was done prior to now. It is those borderline games that ruin any good and viable program.

When a corporation, however, is raising money outside the U.S. for industrial purposes or whatever is the project, the problem is shifting funds into the States without a three-year hassle. And, NO, this is NOT some kind of “laundering” event—for everything we do we insist it be open and CLEAN.

Funny thing is that we could have done this “thing” (program) over here a long time ago if we would do it “secretly” and “clandestinely”. You have to remember what we wrote quite a while ago: The country including the Central Bank here is IN HOT WATER. They shifted OUT (sent away) 96% of the recognized gold reserves to be traded for foreign use leasing, derivatives, etc. Boy, in addition to that, the bank cannot issue new money because the IMF lives with/at the Central Bank and the “reserves” are non-existent. We suspect that a lot of stored “private” gold has gone from that bank as well, especially any “Marcos” wealth.

Now also consider this miserable plunder: Gold is being shipped out by the shipload just as fast as it can be hauled out—under the able assistance of the U.S. and other U.S. coalition NATIONS.

The PLAN of the “Elite” is to plunder it all through piracy, vandalism and national sabotage.

The people know it. Again the government seems totally unstable and talk of another coup/overthrow/replacement is in the hyping phase. This, along with the sweeping ongoing motion of the Southern areas to secede. They have great wealth in the area that is being oozed away by the plunderers while the citizens are being bound in absolutely abject poverty without recourse.

The intent, as is now recognized generally, is to gain control of the government, pull in the United Nations and simply confiscate the holdings of anything such as gold, other minerals, gems, etc. It matters not to the thieves that the country and the people will simply be “blown away” to get at the “treasure”. It has all been satellite mapped and bunches of the storage vaults are ready to be “blown” for access.

AND WHERE HAVE “WE” BEEN?

Trying desperately to keep out of the mess (and the line of fire). The GAIA program is both recognized and, by some, “expected” before now. R. Herman did a good job and some of the newer contacts not only knew him but also knew we would be “coming along” with the backup. It is, indeed, “creepy”.

In addition to that re-realization of the involvement we have had to consciously scrutinize, we recognize that no matter how hard we PUSH, the string simply loops and we get very little “hearing”.

We also have found, however, that some of the ones who were taking packages to the top-level parties, WEREN’T, or were taking them with CIA/IMF “instructions” to “treat GAIA as a POSSIBLE ‘sham’”.

How do we know this to be true? Because we now have other reporting that they have met with some of the involved people all the way to the President.

There seems to be an “investigation report” to the Central Bank governor, based on NOTHING, said nothing and was touted as too “confidential” to disclose source of said copy. There were, I believe, three short paragraphs, no identification and based on conversations and parties from three years ago. Wow, “confidential”? NO, the only “confidential” was to hide the presenter. The report could do NOTHING EXCEPT HELP OUR CAUSE!

Now we find that some of the parties “involved” and who seem to have NO RECORDS OF EVEN EXISTING, are now recognized as “CIA ASSETS” ALONG WITH IMF/U.S. EMBASSY SHILLS. So, our program, instead of being processed, has been deliberately blocked—especially at the level of other national embassies with the so-called “Ambassadors” or in the consulates. And, yes, we were told it would be “this way”.

After all, friends, let us realize that the Ambassadors from and to ANY COUNTRY—are paid appointees of the Elite Controllers of any said nation.

This time the bloody fingers are NOT OURS.

Within the past two days some far more interesting persons have come into our space. Moreover, we have been asked by the new parties to not get so involved in bringing anything public as in becoming the focus of the media-crowd, to please hold off a week or so as to mass presentation.

We know (found out by the Airline incidents) that when a thing hits, it immobilizes ability to get anything done! This does not mean, please, to shut down any e-mailing or writing YOU might wish to do.

We tried the same numbers you will have with our documents intact and built in but NOT “attached”, and still they went nowhere except a notice sent back as to inability for delivery as in “mail failed”. Packages will be delivered directly instead where denial will be impossible because of THE people involved.

These people over here seem to have the “drama”-making down to a science and, therefore, they also know how to mis-identify themselves “legally” while keeping their own cards hidden in the process. AMAZING!

There are some people who now know and recognize the need to “get us through” this difficult time and are working on some interim loan possibilities for a little help. We DO NOT accept a cent for the program, FOR IT IS GOD’S PROGRAM. It is not only unethical but I believe, illegal (to get front-money). That is the biggest NO-NO of the trading programs and yet, “up-front” rip-off is the name of that game—in toto.

Speaking of possibilities and long-time debts, I guess this is for Audrey. We have not heard from John J. in months and months. However, and how interesting it is that there were some stirrings in the very banks where he was expecting results to flow to his own programs. It appears the accounts are truly “there” and could, with proper parties, be made available. However, there were some real frauds who got arrested trying to liberate some of the Marcos funds a month or so ago. This is the most “crazy” environment of which we have ever heard, but seemingly the facts are that it is pretty global if not universal (the “nuttness”). I know that there are some interesting “universal” inputters abounding right in your own front doors. Who knows, one of these days John’s “day after tomorrow” or “next week for sure” may overflow his cup.

We are having to realize that out of the muck come some very interesting evolvments and interesting revelations. It actually seems that there ARE some stored reserves of the Marcos-Reagan-Bush “Phoenix” PROGRAM which remain intact. Some, it is now realized, have been totally looted, which, in turn, makes a lot of Elite Puppet Masters, indeed, irritated.

Moreover, PLEASE TAKE NOTE, about what is happening while Bush makes the headlines (good or bad) in Europe while planning to take over Europe and bringing the area into joint coalition, over the hill in China are the other most powerful men of the globe—also working their own alliances. This is, of course, the Russia-China meetings of this same week. And, oh, yes, BIG, indeed, it IS very, very serious. Moreover “over here” the news has been an expected wipeout of U.S. interests evolving from the Singapore “Summit” as advertised in December, 2000 for 2001.

The alliances are inclusive of most nations the U.S. is actively working to now contain or destroy, i.e., JAPAN, Korea, etc. These “Pacific”-based nations are all shifting to the ASEAN Alliance to keep from being blown away by the U.S. “Defense system” now in progress.

Why would this be so important to the Elite to get that defense system operational? Cosmospheres! The Elite “Union” has no way to control space as long as those Russian Cosmospheres are out there controlling everything the nits do. Is this good or bad for the “good guys”? Perhaps anything is better than the expected “smart weapons” now trained on one another across all seas and landmasses.

The worst thing to watch for is that old “it looks good in Israel” syndrome. After the destruction and DISTRACTION, it is always like this while the reconstruction and repositioning takes place. Always temporary, seemingly hopeful—just before the kill.

Well for you who follow the disease program of such as incurable assaults—atomic warfare is a SURE CURE—for the disease itself—although quite abrupt in the healing process of the one blown away. Remember the basic problem with compromised persons is the WEAK IMMUNE SYSTEM—not the HIV virus.

An atomic hit doesn’t ensure demise of the microbes but certainly does end the problem with the individual immune system compromise for the ones in target-zone.

Back to Asia and an Alignment the Executive Intelligence Review (EIR) touted that “New Alignment in Asia could save World Economy”. Now, wouldn’t that be nice?

Problems abound, however, as Japan, the Big pockets, has now declared itself to be in a “serious recession”.

Furthermore, the Hong Kong crowd is getting VERY NERVOUS as more and more pressure is coming down from China over and against those massive “Western” Elite institutions—called BANKS and Brokerages. Never mind the public focus on Taiwan.

The “Mad Cow” craze is making a comeback in order to divert more attention, do more killing and chicken-destroying while the real fat burns in the nuclear furnace heating up around the places of the BEAST(s).

We little chickens are obviously in line for plucking at first opportunity!

GO READ THE JOURNALS

One of the coincidences that “couldn’t be” happened yesterday as I got sent to sort a few of the Journals you people sent several months ago.

I pulled out of the lot number 103, CONFRONT THE NOW—CREATE THE FUTURE. It was published, I guess, in 1995 or at the least, reprinted then. However, the book was assembled from our writings of July, 1994.

It caught my eye and I “thumbed” quickly through the pages and once again was totally wiped out by the “coincidences” noted as to who is what—and my goodness, what was taking place in our own struggles with George Green, other suits, etc.

Please remember that we came to the Philippines from the closure of legal problems in our favor in our personal struggle over the “house/property”.

Now, it has been weeks while we had no information regarding any other cases except we had heard, but without documentation, that one by one they were being “dismissed”. (THIS IS DEFINITELY NOT GOOD FOR GEORGE GREEN OR ANY OF HIS HENCHMEN, I.E., LEGAL COUNSELS).

The papers arrived yesterday in the form of orders, yea, yet from the Supreme Court of Nevada and, indeed, the DISMISSAL of the Case of Betty Tuten—IN OUR FAVOR.

We do know, however, that Abbott and Horton have appealed (for the fourth time) to the Supreme Court for reconsideration. However, in the face of what the Supreme Court ordered in the last case shows the problem had by Green, Abbott and Horton—of wipeout.

That Supreme Court ruling was so good as to share but I can’t do so today and now the reconsideration “thing” has to run its time in the circle. However, the ruling was not only in our favor but sanctions ($500 to be paid to us) against that Horton-Abbott team for filing “frivolous appeals”. These “appeals” were in cases ALREADY RULED AGAINST THEM—OR, IN OUR FAVOR. Now, I wonder what this last appeal will do.

With this information in mind, please realize that this actually shows that we have NO problem in the Federal Case if we could ever find out what that Raid-and-Seize was all about. There are no remaining complaints against us or the Institute.

This does NOT mean that we will rush home and even think of thumbing our noses at anyone—BUT, getting that Tuten (Abbot, Horton, Green) case DISMISSED removes all claim to Institute Receivership or even claims of legal standing.

Why would these guys go for another “appeal”? Because it was out of bankruptcy by George Green and the lies over the books (America West Publishers and Distributors) that the stuff hit the first wide-flinging fan. There is a court order for Green to pay $26,000 (in settlement) and that was never received—along with return of all the 110,000 journals he was supposed to store and secure. Now note the term “bankruptcy” for that is a mighty focus for a bit later in “interest”.

So, what could happen this time when the court rules again? Well, we don’t know, but the attorneys in point are IN TROUBLE WITH THE STATE BAR where Mr. Abbott already has been several times before.

It certainly would appear to me that even Green, but especially Fort, Schroepfer and, yes, even Tuten would have good malpractice cases.

This one might well dearly pain Leon, for these beasts are going to get nailed for abuse and fraud against their own CLIENTS. There are records Abbott submitted which triple charge, double charge and erroneously charge. Then you have a direct shift of control of Leon’s corporation into the control of the Abbott cartel.

I guess I just really do resent the dirt done to Leon for he still blames us for his so-called losses and right up to current Abbott was laying it off that somehow we had deliberately stripped little old 90-year-old Mothers, orphans and the elderly.

It is not as simple as just someday sorting the Institute—for those who tampered with their own corporations as regards P.I. are basically locked in to whatever their counsels did to them.

Anyone participating is automatically caught in the web of these spiders and, therefore, the shiftover went “through” those attorneys. Active cases are in the worst circumstance because nobody CAN legally do anything. WHAT A TARBABY!

They all know that when this is concluded sometime in the next century that we have complaints up the gazoo starting with their association with Stephen Horn in our “house case”! Betty Tuten, in addition supplied Horn/Brent with private documents which we had never even seen and about which we knew nothing as regarded that house circumstance. Good for our side; not good for theirs.

Then the last deal(s) with the “Spectrum” groupie (to not name each in the case) gets the miscreants into deep yogurt, only this time there is enough SOLID evidence to include several others BY NAME instead of just “Does”—starting with Bilgers!

By the way, in such a case would come forth the international contacts as well.

EXPERIENCE IN COINCIDENCES

I will copy to here a cover letter sent with a major package that bunches of you would have received—even one, V.K. (Grandma/Mrs. Russell Herman)—from George Green (signed personally by him). The letter itself was terribly written.

The letter was on America West Distributors letterhead with a Bozeman, MT address. It was written by George Green on May 12, 1994 and we have even published it in Journal #103 and would have published it in the paper as well because that is our responsible duty to do in both corporate and journalistic ethical demand.

There is also a letter from V.K. Durham (in the same Journal) which is dated July 25, 1994 thus proving that Green sent out this slash-and-burn bunch of hooey over a period of months or perhaps even years.

Currently (as of May, at least, 2001) George is still doing seminars in which he presents himself as a publisher, a UFO authority, a BANKER with many assets, a property owner/authority and get this one: is 'THE' spokesperson for the Galactic Command, i.e. extraterrestrials. The person who shared WAS IN THE AUDIENCE SO THE HORSE'S MOUTH WAS THE RESOURCE.

By 1994 George had already been caught with the gold in burial and had borrowed or filched so much other gold and money from the Institute as to probably be more staggering than we can imagine, and here is what was the cover letter of the garbage, including a remarkable writing from "Hatonn" through somebody named Duggah who had become somehow a "receiver" for Green. Shades of Latona/Young, et al.

The letter mentions Bo Gritz and $18,000 which Bo is said by Green to have declined. Well it was more than that and $15,000 was wired directly to Bo Gritz's campaign account—AT THE DEMAND OF GEORGE GREEN WHO WAS MEETING AT THE MOMENT WITH BO GRITZ AND HAS A CONTINUING RELATIONSHIP ON BO'S RADIO PROGRAM. We won't even talk here about the cost we had in literally entertaining a full rally in Tehachapi FOR GRITZ FOR PRESIDENT and to which Green didn't even dare attend (he had moved to Carson City) because there were marshals waiting to serve him legal summons warrants.

Here is the letter from George Green:

May 12, 1994

Dear Friends:

During the past two years the "Ekker"/Hatonn Cult has been slandering Desiree and I in their controlled paper.

They have also been attacking ANY OTHERS who know the truth with lies in their feeble attempt to distort and defame the truth. An example would be currently telling that they loaned, or gave $18,000 to Bo Gritz. HAVE THEM PRODUCE THE CHECK!! I was at the meeting when it was suggested by EJ Ekker to loan them money. BO GRITZ DECLINED!!

[D: Why would E.J. be even involved since he was NOT AT THE MEETING? Because he was PI "Treasurer" and he had to sign the documents. E.J. was against it because there were no funds for frivolous causes. He agreed to the loan to Bo because of the promise of payback in two weeks. The money was needed to set-up Bo's campaign phone banks so that people could contribute by phone.]

EJ AND DORIS EKKER, two admitted bankrupts are in control of millions of dollars in the Phoenix Institute for Research and Education where they have maneuvered the funds into many other corporations in an attempt to defraud the investors in which several are asking for their money back. The Ekkers sue them for anything in their attempt to keep from paying.

[D: E.J. and Doris had to close out a failed alternative energy corporation which lost its shirt to a Chicago Jewish company in the Wind Park business in Tehachapi, no less. We had supported the company with funds against our own home/property in LA. Frankly, we chose to let the house go to foreclosure because we wanted to relocate and we couldn't easily afford the TAXES which would have to be paid on the property SALE, in addition to paying off the loans. That, by the way, was when we moved to Tehachapi to RETIRE in comfort and peace! Ekkers were shown as officers in the Institute, as we were to many other corporations when we were getting started, and being Treasurer E.J. was the officer in charge of the financial records. George Green had access to the bank accounts, signatory rights and whatever else—right there in Tehachapi. Schroepfer even made "his and Eleanor's" checks PAYABLE TO George personally. We (Ekkers) knew of a couple but John always reported that there were more! According to Eleanor, Green was their personal "consultant". Moreover, Ekkers sued nobody for anything! The Ekkers DID, INDEED, as responsible parties for the Institute, try to get the gold and other property belonging to the Institute, back FROM GREEN.]

In the case of Leon Fort, his attorney received a couple of payments which he put into his trust account. [D: No, he got the payments ok, but used that to go on a trip (immediately on receiving same) to Italy—it did NOT go into any "trust account". Moreover, it was not even recognized as payments, for it was said in court that there was never a SIGNED agreement and Leon said there was never any intent to sign said agreement. Later Mr. Abbott "invested" some of "that" money we assume or "more" from Leon, into a local Carson City BAR and said he would split the profits from the investment with Leon. Hearsay? Well it was Leon's information, not ours! That came, however, through attorneys and that particular activity is UNLAWFUL!] The question is if you have a demand note, and ask for your money back, WHY DOES ANYONE HAVE TO TAKE PAYMENTS? The letter from Fort explains it all. [D: Sorry, don't know what letter is referenced. It, I suppose, was part of the document pile which we don't have.] If you are unlucky enough to have money with these people, be advised that there is one attorney who represents several investors in now preparing receivership papers, and I hope that the D.A. who is investigating the case does not protect the Ekkers by putting them behind bars so that they will be safe.

[D: NOBODY THAT WE KNOW OF EVER HAD MONEY WITH "THESE PEOPLE" TO WHICH UNDOUBTEDLY G.G. REFERS TO. IF HE IS REFERRING TO LOANS TO THE INSTITUTE, THEN IT WAS NEVER EVER AN "INVESTMENT". GREEN SHOULD KNOW AS MUCH—FOR HE DEvised THE "PROGRAM" WHICH HE CLAIMED PASSED ALL LEGAL REQUIREMENTS. All notes would be signed by E.J. as "Treasurer" in the corporation. Ekkers did have to borrow money to attend our own position in some of the legal cases—THOSE HAVE NOTHING WHATSOEVER TO DO WITH THE PHOENIX INSTITUTE. P.S.: GREENS

GOT AS MUCH AS $175,000 (ACCORDING TO THEIR RECORDS) IN THE DISTRIBUTING/PUBLISHING BUSINESS. THIS WAS NEVER SHARED—NOT EVEN TO THE JOURNALS. HOWEVER, GREENS CLAIMED FIRST THAT THEY HAD PUT INTO THE COSTS SOMETHING LIKE $500,000 WHICH GREW EXPONENTIALLY TO SEVERAL MILLION AS THEY KEPT PRESENTING CLAIMS. I DON'T KNOW ABOUT YOU GUYS BUT ESPECIALLY AT THE TIME, BEING ON FOOD STAMPS, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN EASY FOR US TO LIVE ON THE 50% PROFIT (OF JUST THAT AMOUNT) PLUS THE $3,000 "PROMISED" PER JOURNAL—UP FRONT. GREENS EVEN TOOK THE SUBSCRIPTION FUNDS WITH THEM TO CARSON CITY—TO START THEIR OWN PAPER WHEN WE REFUSED TO TURN OVER THE PAPER TO THEM. WE HAD TO CHANGE THE NAME OF THE PAPER TO PREVENT THE THEFT. "DEJA VU"?)

They lie on their house, and since the beginning! Have you checked anything out? Call Jason Brent who bent over backwards to allow the Ekkers to produce proof that they had the money to buy it. Would you loan two bankrupts with no job $180,000? That is what they expect you to believe and now they are threatening to do it again, in the guise of getting out (sic) the judgements ALREADY ENTERED AGAINST THEM by the courts. [D: Say what?] They have now had 4 sets of attorneys quit them! [D: Not so—but the Institute had several WE FIRED!] Does that mean anything to you? The attorneys could be held liable personally if they represented fraud, and guess what? [D: I certainly hope Horton and Abbott, and their Texas and Las Vegas connections are reading this carefully.] They all found out what was going on. May GOD show you the path ahead. It is your personal responsibility to get truth, and we certainly don't need a person/entity to copy from other books!!!

/s/ George Green

He signs off with "The Truth Will Set You Free". [D: I don't personally think that truth is actually setting "them" free but, rather, coming back to smack them directly in the "presentation".]

[END OF QUOTING]

I won't belabor this further at this sitting, but please pull out your old Journal #103 and start at the back.

Then, however, read from the beginning—it lays out the naughty guys in what are called the "Usurper" circles. It also covers some amazing information on a Clinton Presidential Order to which the CONSTITUTIONAL response from V.K. is EXCEPTIONAL.

I simply came across the stuff from Green on the same day as we received all these legal documents and orders from Nevada. Sometimes, frankly, it seemed we would never get satisfaction.

I don't know what will happen with the Institute itself and that is not in question as long as the games go on—but we are confident things will work out well as we get our job done here.

Erick stopped by and sends his regards to you back home. He has had a pretty good short item in the papers lately about the hostage-taking and related circumstances. We will try to get that shared soon, although it won't be as interesting to you as to us who live with the hostage/kidnap for ransom taking place over here—right here in beautiful downtown Manila as well as on the international front.

A story comes out one day, is the opposite the next and finally you have to take the best two out of seven, and then you never really know.

Thank you for bearing with us on the seemingly “personal” level BUT, PLEASE EVERYBODY, THIS IS NOT JUST PERSONAL—THIS PHOENIX INSTITUTE “THING” IS EVERYBODY’S BUSINESS! The next thing we will have to take up, when the breath is taken, is what to do about it.

I remind you that with the dismissals (especially of the PI receivership and personal case in the Nevada Court)—there is NO VALID LEGAL COMPLAINT AGAINST US. THE ONLY POSSIBLE ONE IS THE RESULT OF THE MISCREANTS USING THE OTHER CASES WHICH PRECIPITATED THE RAIDS, I REPEAT. IT IS A NICE DAY!

The ones, we are told, that made those “turn-in” claims to the Feds will now be on the other end of the Fed investigations. There are outright LIES in those charges and that, even with the Feds, is a big NO-NO. It is, after all, STILL AMERICA—and citizens DO HAVE RIGHTS UNDER THE LAW. TO HOLD A MOTHER FOR SELLING VITAMINS WHILE TERRORIZING AT LEAST FOUR PLACES IN ADDITION, FROM CALIFORNIA TO NEVADA, is not even funny to the Feds.

The one REALLY in hot water and “in” over the head, is the one who said “I have personal knowledge...” (about these computers) “used to distribute ‘drugs’”. Now what would that mean to YOU if you glanced over a paper making such a statement? That, following Bilger’s big “Arms arsenal” at the farm is really far out. Now, when you consider Janet’s (Ray’s) claim that SHE is a “Mind-Warped Sex Slave” to such as Henry Kissinger, and died twice in an accident where we were present and she didn’t even have an unconscious minute—we have to wonder, don’t we? WE MUST BE REALLY DOING SOMETHING RIGHT TO HAVE THE LITTLE DEVILS WORKING SO HARD—ALL THE WHILE THEY SAY “CHECK WITH GOD” AND “WE STAY IN THE LIGHT”. Sorry, friends, that makes me pretty sick and tired.

Do I simply think it is OK and “Oh, well...”? No, I think there are some dangerous and pretty sick people running around and they might well be in YOUR OWN NEIGHBORHOOD while actually begging alms to keep themselves alive and doing their demolish-training exercises.

I am going to repeat something already stated about the fact that we find that the “Spectrum” “people/person” had gone through the mailing lists, along with those who had donated to help CONTACT and called for the help to be redirected. Then they proceeded to produce at least three hijacked CONTACT papers.

They will tell you that they never received any of that help. That is not so. The funds were all handled in a way that ALL DONATIONS—and certainly ALL LARGE DONATIONS—could be handled with full payback. Then, salaries for such as Dr. Young, Mr. Martin and the office staff, et al., along with costs, rent, phones, etc., were handled in such a way as to protect the donors. The facts are that even in that mode, there was still cash taken and funds shifted by ones who were the only parties POSSIBLE in the accounts (at the banks).

“They” claimed the registers were/are “lost”. Who needs “registers” when the real thing serves far better—the BANKS THEMSELVES?

Blessings, please, to all of us, especially YOU. The path may seem long and rough—but there is truly LIGHT at the terminal.

Love, E-E/D

R.I.P. GOLD CARRY TRADE

By Adam Hamilton, gold-eagle.com, 6/15/01

Of all the culprits responsible for the bombing of the gold price over the last seven years, the gold carry trade maintains its prominence as one of the primary gold-suppressive developments. The gold carry trade has had the effect of creating a ready outlet for central bankers desiring to lease their gold—which enabled the flooding of the physical gold market with marginal gold supply, driving down gold prices.

The gold carry trade proved extremely valuable for both the gold creditors and the gold debtors. The gold creditors were able to artificially protect their fragile and ever-inflating fiat currencies by moving thousands of tonnes of gold into the market to meet demand and keep gold prices locked in their earth-bound trajectory. The gold debtors were able to borrow gold at trivial interest rates hovering around 1% for many years, sell the gold in the open market, and use the proceeds to invest in virtually risk-free assets returning 500%+ of their cost of capital.

The gold carry trade was the ultimate insiders’ deal, providing legendary profits to those elite banks well-connected enough to finagle a piece of the action. Unfortunately for the legions of gold bears, the gold carry trade seems to be unraveling due to recent market developments. In this essay we will briefly examine the gold carry trade, describe its allure to participants, and detail two macro-strategic market developments that may be hammering the nails in the gold carry coffin for the foreseeable future.

Although the gold carry trade can be complex, it is easy to understand if simplified to distill its flavor and understand the rationale behind it.

The words “carry trade” describe a specific type of speculative play that is not uncommon in our highly interconnected global markets. Speculators engage in a carry trade to attempt to arbitrage differences in rates of return created by vagaries of international trade and finance. In order to engage in this type of activity, arbitrageurs look for large differentials in the costs of capital in one area versus the returns they can reap by deploying capital in another area. By borrowing cheap money and investing it in higher-yielding speculations, the “spread”, or the differential between the cost of capital and the rate of return realized by deploying capital, can be realized as profits.

As an example, imagine you had the opportunity to borrow U.S.$1 million. Even better, the folks from which you can borrow the million bucks decided to offer you a sweetheart interest rate on the deal. They told you they would only charge you 1% interest. At the end of a year, you would have to pay the $1 million principal back to your creditor plus $10,000 in interest. Would you take the loan? It probably depends on how you could deploy the proceeds.

One option would be to take the $1 million loan at the trivial 1% cost, and invest the entire $1 million in U.S. Treasury bills. U.S. T-bills are considered “risk-free” investments throughout most of the international financial community. If held to maturity, they guarantee a certain nominal rate of return—and they will not be defaulted upon unless the U.S.

government fails and loses its power to print money and tax its subjects. So, knowing this, you go take the $1 million loan and immediately use the cash to buy $1 million of U.S. Treasury bills with a maturity of one year, exactly matching the loan. Imagine this takes place a couple years ago, so the yield on your Treasuries is 6%.

Congratulations, as you have just successfully entered into a carry trade! You borrowed $1 million at 1%, and you invested the proceeds in what is widely considered the safest short-term investment in the world, that was paying 6%. After one year, your T-bills will have earned you 6% of $1 million, or $60,000 in interest, plus you would receive your $1 million in principal back. So, at the end of the year, you collect your cash from the U.S. government, pay back your friends the $1 million loan plus the 1% interest of $10,000—and you can pocket a hefty profit of 5% of $1 million, $50,000. $50k for doing absolutely nothing?!? Not bad work if you can get it, eh?

Obviously, if it were this easy, everyone would quit their jobs, go borrow vast amounts of money, and sit at home earning huge profits in various carry trades. The primary problem is finding a really cheap source of capital to secure the seed money to launch the carry. For the average American, there is virtually no way to find a low enough cost of capital. If you walked into your neighborhood bank and asked for a loan at 1%, your banker would burst out laughing at you. Maybe you could get a loan at the prime rate plus a couple percent if you were a really creditworthy customer, but that would be much higher than the U.S. Treasury rates.

If you maxed your credit cards as is all the rage these days, you might be able to get capital with a cost of 18%-20%, a punitive rate that would have been considered criminal usury in the not-too-distant past. If you give the bankers title to your house for 30 years, you might be able to secure capital at 7% to 8% if you are lucky. The bottom line is it is virtually impossible for a normal person to obtain capital cheaply enough to engage in a carry trade.

Another critical aspect of a carry trade arises since one borrows large amounts of money to do it. The destination for the carried capital HAS to be safe. For instance, if you take a $100,000 cash advance on your credit card at 20%, it is probably not prudent to convert it into rubles and buy Russian junk bonds and hold them for a year because they may yield 45% if the underlying Russian companies (and currency) survive. To engage in a carry you need a target for deploying your borrowed funds that is very safe. This is typically only original short-term debt issued by a handful of stable First-World governments around the world. If the target for carried capital deployment is not safe, then you risk bankruptcy when the money is lost and you cannot pay back your original debt.

So, if you can find a cheap enough cost of capital, a safe enough destination, and you have the credit to borrow large amounts of money, you too could make enormous profits in carry trades. The notorious gold carry trade is based on the exact same idea. Elite money-center bullion banks were given sweetheart opportunities to borrow central bank physical gold at 1%, sell it in the open market, and immediately invest the proceeds in higher yielding “safe” investments and reap vast profits.

Like everything else regarding the ancient metal of kings, a substantial amount of background information is needed to understand the gold carry market. The rationale of the central banks for leasing gold at 1% is no exception.

In a superficial nutshell, central banks are private or government-sanctioned banks that create fiat currencies, totally paper—backed by NOTHING except the good faith and credit of a nation. These fiat currencies are used for trade and commerce in their respective countries. Since central bankers are not elected—unaccountable to the people, invariably socialistic, anti-free market and undisciplined—history teaches us they ALWAYS get into trouble by expanding money supplies at rates far faster than economic growth.

ANY study of the history of central banks inevitably comes to this conclusion. In human financial history, central banks always ultimately fail because they expand their paper currencies too fast (called inflation) which ends up ultimately destroying them. Attempting to control the money supply and price of money in a smoke-filled room of central bankers is as anti-free market as the California socialist Democrats trying to set energy prices by regulatory fiat. Whenever politicians or central bankers muck around with free markets, pain and misery are always the ultimate bitter fruit of their labors.

In the early 1990s, central banks around the world were facing serious problems. Central bankers, as usual, had printed far more paper fiat money than their economies needed. As more paper dollars, or pounds, or francs, or marks, et cetera chased relatively fewer goods and services, prices began to rise in the central bankers’ respective economies. This price inflation, caused solely by central bank promiscuity with fiat-currency supplies, would ultimately have devastating consequences on economies and markets as it has all throughout history.

Through six millennia of human commerce, gold has always been the undisputed ultimate store and arbiter of value. Empires rose and fell, governments came and went, countries grew and imploded, currencies lost their values as they were debased, but the value of gold has held constant through all the miserable human experiments with currency debasement. There is no fundamental difference between Greenspan—now growing the U.S. money supply at unbelievably aggressive rates—and the ancient Romans debasing their currency by diluting coins with base metals. The more things change, the more they stay the same. Or, as King Solomon wisely opined, “There is nothing new under the Sun.”

Gold is the ultimate barometer of currency debasement (inflation), so investors all over the world watch it like hawks for signs a currency is in trouble. If the gold price denominated in a particular currency rises dramatically, chances are dangerous waters lie dead ahead for that currency and the economy it represents. Because of this critical “watchman” role, gold is the mortal nemesis of central bankers rapidly inflating fiat currencies.

Back to the 1990s: Central bankers realized they were in trouble if the gold price rose dramatically and signaled its ancient and unappealable veto on their undisciplined fiat currency growth. Some among their ranks realized that they could temporarily short-circuit the gold barometer by flooding the market with physical gold, which would offset demand and drive down gold prices. Collectively, central banks around the world had possession of 25% of all the gold ever mined in world history, over 30,000 tonnes, so they had a ready supply to draw from.

The main problem was the international markets would likely frown on a particular central bank liquidating its gold reserves, as that would imply there was nothing of value backing its fiat currency. The clever solution was for central bankers to sell gold into the market without selling it on their books. Looking at their assets, investors around the world would still see gold bullion, but the gold bullion would not actually have to be in the vaults supporting these assets. The central bankers resorted to the creative accounting fiction of gold leasing to dump their gold onto the world markets—while making it look like they still owned gold, crucial for international confidence in their respective fiat currencies.

In a gold lease transaction, a central bank loans gold out to a high-quality borrower, usually called a “bullion bank”. The central bank physically delivers real physical gold from its vaults to the bullion bank, creating a gold loan. The central bank then gets to keep the gold on its books as an asset, because the loan is contractually supposed to be paid back in the future—and fee simple title never technically changes on the fungible gold. The end result is the central banks can dump gold and depress the gold price—while at the same time maintaining the fiction that the gold is on hand in their vaults to back their fiat-currency experiments.

Of course, offering gold loans does little good if no one wants to borrow gold! The other half of the gold carry trade fell into place because of below-market incentives the central banks offered to favored elite private banks.

History has clearly shown that central bankers usually aren’t the sharpest tools in the shed. In order to move the gold out of their vaults to flood the world market—and short-circuit the gold barometer warning of currency debasement—they resorted to the old used-car salesman tactic of deep discounts. They offered gold loans at interest rates of 1% to elite money-center bullion banks. A 1% cost of capital is a tremendous deal, and the central banks attracted the bullion banks to the artificially low interest rate like flies to a rotting carcass.

The bullion banks could borrow physical gold from central banks at 1%, immediately sell it in the physical gold market, and invest the cash in high yielding high quality U.S. Treasury debt. The gold carry trade was born. A willing lender, the central banks, found a willing borrower, the bullion banks, and thousands and thousands of tonnes of central-bank gold hemorrhaged from central-bank coffers and flooded the markets worldwide in the 1990s.

The only catch was the bullion banks were expected to repay their gold debts with actual physical gold, not depreciating Federal Reserve Notes in the process of debasement. When gold loans came due, physical gold would have to be purchased in the open market or seduced away from gold mining companies through forward sales in order to pay back the gold loans.

In a declining gold price environment, the gold carry trade worked beautifully for all involved. Central banks were able to covertly move a very large quantity of gold onto the world markets, artificially overwhelming demand and temporarily keeping the gold price in check. Through that action, they delayed the day of reckoning when gold announces to the world the rotten cores of their debased paper currency pyramids. Bullion banks, on the other hand, obtained an elite sweetheart deal that gave them capital to invest at a rate far below normal market interest rates, often hovering around 1%. They made tremendous profits with very little risk to themselves as long as the gold price was trending southward.

Estimates of the total amount of gold leased run from 5,000 tonnes from the anti-gold partisans to 16,000 tonnes from pro-gold factions. After all of our research, we certainly believe that number is on the high end of the scale. If, for example, 15,000 tonnes of central-bank gold has been flooding the global gold market in the last decade, that would explain much of the drop in the gold price. This is the equivalent of six YEARS’ worth of TOTAL world gold production being dumped on the open gold markets. Natural economics laws dictate that when a wave of artificial marginal supply temporarily overwhelms natural demand, prices plummet.

Two incredible recent market developments have put the lucrative gold carry trade in mortal danger, however, which is music to the ears of international gold investors.

First, Alan Greenspan chose to bail out NASDAQ speculators who were whining for a hit from the monetary needle like junkies after their feathers were singed in the tech bubble burst last year. Greenspan launched the most aggressive easing cycle in the sordid history of the private United States Federal Reserve Bank, slashing short-term interest rates by 250 basis points in less than five months—while at the same time running the printing presses full throttle to flood the U.S. economy with ever more fiat dollars.

Why “sordid” Fed history, you wonder? Charged with maintaining the value of the dollar, our currency has been debased so much by the Fed that it has lost over 95% of its value since the Federal Reserve Act was rammed through a lame-duck holiday-thinned session of Congress by subterfuge in late [MM: December 23rd] 1913. Talk to your parents or grandparents about how much $1 USED to be worth, and realize that the reason $1 is worth practically nothing today is almost exclusively because of the Federal Reserve inflating the money supply and debasing the dollar since 1913. With $20 today worth less in real terms than a single dollar in 1912—before the private Federal Reserve started printing money with reckless abandon—there is zero doubt the Federal Reserve has been an unmitigated disaster for the United States of America and failed its mission miserably. [MM: In reality its mission has succeeded far beyond the Elite Puppet-Master, Would-Be-Kings’ wildest expectations—to the detriment of its once-sovereign, now enslaved citizens.]

In Greenspan’s current haste to prop up the drastically overvalued U.S. equity markets and save the leveraged-to-the-hilt U.S. banking system, his latest frantic display muscled the yield curve around like a logging chain welded to the nose ring of a bull. As the Fed gutted its Fed Funds rate, short-term U.S. Treasury rates of return for bond investors plummeted like a car driving off a cliff.

With short-term U.S. Treasury rates crashing to seven-year lows, and more frantic interest rate cuts likely ahead, the destination end of the gold carry trade appears to have been dealt a mortal blow. The following graphs illustrate this point. [MM: The graphs’ representative color gradients—essential for readability/understanding—precluded their inclusion. However, since the article is otherwise descriptively excellent, they aren’t requisite for discernment.]

Both graphs show the one-year gold lease rate, which is the cost of borrowing central bank gold for elite bullion banks, as the blue line. The one-year U.S. Treasury bill yield is shown as the red line. The spread, or the difference obtained by subtracting the gold lease rate (cost of capital in the gold carry trade) from the U.S. T-bill yield (a typical destination of gold carry capital), is shown as a dark green line. It represents the profit to be made by arbitraging the gold carry trade to capitalize on rate-of-return differentials. The area under the dark green spread line is shaded in light green and visually shows the magnitude of gold carry profits as gold lease rates and the T-bill yields change. Gold is graphed as a yellow line slaved to the right axis to have a point of reference for the carnage in the physical gold market while the gold carry trade thrived.

Our first graph shows over seven years beginning in 1994, when Alan Greenspan and New York Fed President William McDonough quietly took seats on the secretive Bank for International Settlements (BIS), contrary to the intentions of the United States of America when the BIS was created. Late 1994 is also around the time where the Gold Anti-Trust Action Committee (GATA) reports (www.gata.org) all kinds of strange trading activities commencing in the world gold markets defying free markets and logic. Reg Howe, in his landmark lawsuit against the BIS and some elite bullion banks, alleges 1995 is when gold market suppression campaigns began in earnest. For these reasons and many more, 1994 is a great place to start.

All interest rates in this graph are 20-trading-day moving averages, as they smooth some of the volatility of the raw daily data and make trends easier to discern.

Other than during the important Washington Agreement, gold lease rate and gold price spike of late 1999, the gold carry trade has been extremely profitable for those elite banks deemed privileged enough to partake. The dashed white line represents the average spread over this period, which was 3.6%, very healthy. This compares to an average gold lease rate of 1.8% over the same period. The average one-year U.S. Treasury bill yield was almost 5.5%. The gold carry profits were a whopping 200% of the cost of capital! Looking at it from another perspective, for every $1 in gold interest costs, the bullion banks could hope for $2 in spread profits. Great opportunity if you can swing it!

Also, it is important to remember that the gold carry trade could continue to grow as long as central banks had gold to dump and were willing to dump it. Since the bullion bank borrowers were all large money-center banks with sterling credit, they could commit billions or tens of billions to the gold carry. A 3.6% spread profit on billions and billions of dollars is a very attractive cashflow stream!

Our next graph uses the same conventions as the previous one, except the time horizon is zoomed in to only the last two-and-a-half years and all the interest-rate data in this graph is smoothed with a FIVE-day moving average, in contrast to our 20-day moving average in the previous graph.

Other than the Washington Agreement of late 1999, where European central bankers had the blinding burst of insight that central-bank gold sales and leasing were destroying the gold market, the gold carry has been very profitable for the last couple years. Note the huge spike in gold lease rates after the Washington Agreement that paralleled a monster rally in the price of gold. Soon, however, gold lease rates crashed and the gold carry once again proved to be a very lucrative elite game in 2000.

For the period in the graph, the gold lease rate averaged 1.9%, the T-bill yield weighed in at 5.4%, and the gold carry profit spread averaged 3.5%. Over the whole period of time, the averages were very close to what we observed in our first graph.

BUT, all “good” things must come to an end, and Commissar Greenspan and his Central Planning Committee on interest rates decided that they must try to protect the monstrous equity bubble they had spawned from the unforgiving forces of reality. The U.S. Fed began slashing U.S. interest rates even before New Year’s hangovers were slept off this year—and have been dropping them in a panic ever since. The panic is very evident and apparent as the Fed has acted multiple times this year BETWEEN scheduled Fed Open Market Committee (FOMC) meetings with emergency 50-basis-point rate cuts. Since the Fed itself claims it takes six to nine months for interest rate changes to fully hit the economy, there is no reason to do inter-meeting cuts—other than to avert an equity or banking panic or to play warm and fuzzy mind games with the bleeding equity bulls.

Greenspan’s largesse is marked with the double arrow hydra. Note that U.S. Treasury yields begin to plunge rapidly, first on the expectation of rate cuts and then on the actual deeds themselves. Gold carry profits began to implode with the plummeting short-term U.S. interest rates.

Then, to make matters even worse for the gold carry participants, gold lease rates began trending up earlier this year, indicating extreme uneasiness over physical tightness in the gold market. Because gold market participants around the world are finding less physical gold available to meet demand, gold lease rates are trending up to reflect the higher risk of borrowing gold. Provocatively, the last time lease rates exceeded 2% regularly was right before the huge Washington Agreement gold rally of 1999.

So, in the great tradition of the classical military “pincer” maneuver, where an army splits up and simultaneously attacks two opposing flanks of an enemy, the gold carry players are getting squeezed on both ends of their game. Their cost to borrow gold for one year was climbing to around 2.5% in late May. At the same time, their profit spread was being eviscerated by Greenspan mucking around with the short end of the U.S. yield curve. By the end of May the spread had collapsed to a mere 1.3%, slightly more than a third of its average for the last seven years.

With Greenspan totally expected to continue to slash rates later this month—and the U.S. equity markets ready to collapse in a heartbeat if any noises of raising rates in the near future are uttered—the gold carry profits are likely to shrink substantially further in 2001.

Above, we mentioned TWO reasons why the gold carry trade is in serious trouble.

Second, in addition to the Greenspan effect on short-term Treasury yields, with the physical gold market very tight and daily volatility and gold lease rates ballooning dramatically in recent months, there is an ever-rising probability that gold’s twenty-plus-year bear trend is embarking on or nearing a major reversal. While the gold carry trade was profitable when gold prices were falling, it is utterly suicidal while gold prices are rising. If bullion banks begin to detect an imminent gold rally, they will not want to borrow gold with a ten-foot pole.

For example, if a bullion bank borrows gold today at $275, but one year from now it expects gold to be $350 or higher, the loss from borrowing gold due to the rise in the gold price will DWARF any conceivable arbitrage carry spread. It will be forced to buy expensive gold in the open market to pay back its cheap gold loan. If expectations of a rising gold price take hold, even the anti-gold bullion banks will avoid the central banks hocking gold loans on the street corners like the plague.

Remember, unless you are an unfortunate capitalist forced by Democratic socialists to sell power below market prices in California, there are two consenting parties to every mutually beneficial free-market transaction.

Central banks can offer all the gold they have left to lend, but if no one wants to borrow the gold due to the ever-increasing potential for a major gold rally, then nothing happens. The Japanese government has created an environment offering capital at almost zero percent interest for many years, yet it didn’t do a bit of good because no one wanted to borrow. Credit is meaningless without a willing borrower.

With plummeting short-term US interest rates, rising gold market pressure as evidenced by the high gold lease rates and volatility, and an increasing expectation of a serious gold rally, it is looking more and more like the gold carry trade is drawing its last gasping breaths for the foreseeable future. Although gold bears will lament its untimely demise, the gold bulls will celebrate its death with glee.

Without the incentives for the gold carry and the actual trade itself, it will be much more difficult for central banks to dump their gold onto the market. If they cannot lend the remaining gold, they will be forced to sell it outright if they want to keep shedding their dwindling hoards. As that path is fraught with peril politically and has the potential for eviscerating fiat currencies on the global ForEx markets, it is a dangerous trail central banks will likely refuse to travel down.

The quiet, anti-climactic death of the gold carry trade is a tremendously bullish development for gold investors around the world.—Adam Hamilton, CPA, MCSE, AKA Zelotes

BUREAUCRACY IS REASON FOR LAPD WASTE

By Kimit Muston, DailyNews.com (Viewpoint), 6/17/01

I apologize. I was foolish. I made a mistake. I underrated the downtown bureaucracy.

I told you that the Local Agency Formation Commission had figured out that taxpayers in the Valley have been sending about $123 million over the hill every year that does not come back to us in services provided.

But, it seems, that was not true. It now appears that $123 million could be just the tip of the bureaucratic iceberg.

You see, that initial LAFCO report was just the big picture. Behind it there are myriad little pictures, individual snapshots of what City Hall has been doing with your hard-earned cash for the past 30 years or so.

And they aren’t pretty pictures.

One of those little snapshots was released recently, a LAFCO report on the cost of police services in the San Fernando Valley. According to LAFCO, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department could provide the same level of protection as the LAPD provides now—but 40 percent to 50 percent cheaper.

Now, cheaper is not usually a word you want to use to describe police protection. But here are the numbers: According to the brain trust down in Parker Center, there are currently 1,721 LAPD officers working in the Valley at an annual cost to the taxpayers of $230 million. But when LAFCO asked Sheriff Lee Baca how much he would charge for 1,700 deputies to cover the same area, his office only came up with a budget of $130 million to $145 million.

In case your abacus is not functional, that's a difference of $85 million a year.

Why the massive overcharge?

Well, according to the LAPD spokesperson, it's because the Sheriff's Department can't add. LAPD insists that the "efficiencies" of two departments this similar in size simply must be about the same. The spokesperson has obviously not lived in this pueblo for very long or they would have known that use of the words "efficiencies" and "government" in the same context constitutes a local syntax violation.

Los Angeles city government does not "must be" anything—except bloated, redundant and expensive.

As far as mathematical skills, the Sheriff's Department says it figured it out three different ways and came up with the same number every time.

Kind of makes you want to look at the math scores down at Parker Center, doesn't it?

The issue here is not the officer on the street. The problem, as those very same officers have for years been telling anybody who was willing to listen, is Parker Center. It's a bureaucracy just like the other bureaucracies that run the other departments within City Hall. These particular bureaucrats may wear blue uniforms but their fundamental bureaucratic guidelines remain the same: Protect your budget and you protect your job; protect your power base and you protect your budget; be no more efficient than required and no more helpful than necessary and you will always meet your goals and exceed expectations.

This isn't the game plan of some evil empire. It's just human nature as expressed through the bureaucratic art form, sort of a red-tape ballet performed in triplicate. Like all creative expression, it begins as dialogue with the viewer and over time degenerates into a monologue between the performer and his ego.

When Thomas Jefferson said, "A little revolution every 20 years or so is a good thing," he wasn't talking about democracy; he was talking about bureaucracy.

A new Valley city may hire the Sheriff's Department, or form its own police force or contract with LAPD to stay on the job. But whichever choice is made, the Valley is not going to continue to pay $230 million for $145 million worth of protection. Neither should the residents of the old pueblo.

Faced with such a revolt—or to use the vernacular, a secession—Parker Center could be forced to change, and that would be revolutionary.

But as I said, Parker Center is just another City Hall bureaucracy and there are, I have reason to believe, other snapshots that look a great deal like this one. [MM: Yes, it's a worldwide phenomenon!]

Some weeks ago I wrote a column on PRIMA, the cities' central supply system that is choking on its own bloated program while starving city workers for needed supplies. That column produced some fascinating e-mail from some ex-city employees who have more reason than the rest of us to be outraged at the way City Hall wastes money because they know just how much has been wasted.—Kimit Muston lives in the San Fernando Valley [California, U.S.A.] and is a frequent contributor to the Daily News. ### TRACING THE SYNAPSES OF SPIRITUALITY

By Shankar Vedantam, Washington Post, 6/17/01

In an experiment to recreate a spiritual experience in the brain, a volunteer wears headgear that produces an electromagnetic pattern on a computer program. (Laurentian University Neuroscience Research Group)

In Philadelphia, a researcher discovers areas of the brain that are activated during meditation. At two other universities in San Diego and North Carolina, doctors study how epilepsy and certain hallucinogenic drugs can produce religious epiphanies. And in Canada, a neuroscientist fits people with magnetized helmets that produce "spiritual" experiences for the secular.

The work is part of a broad new effort by scientists around the world to better understand religious experiences, measure them, and even reproduce them. Using powerful brain imaging technology, researchers are exploring what mystics call nirvana, and what Christians describe as a state of grace. Scientists are asking whether spirituality can be explained in terms of neural networks, neurotransmitters and brain chemistry.

What creates that transcendental feeling of being one with the universe? It could be the decreased activity in the brain's parietal lobe, which helps regulate the sense of self and physical orientation, research suggests. How does religion prompt divine feelings of love and compassion? Possibly because of changes in the frontal lobe, caused by heightened concentration during meditation. Why do many people have a profound sense that religion has changed their lives? Perhaps because spiritual practices activate the temporal lobe, which weights experiences with personal significance.

"The brain is set up in such a way as to have spiritual experiences and religious experiences," said Andrew Newberg, a Philadelphia scientist who authored the book Why God Won't Go Away. "Unless there is a fundamental change in the brain—religion and spirituality will be here for a very long time. The brain is predisposed to having those experiences and that is why so many people believe in God."

The research may represent the bravest frontier of brain research. But depending on your religious beliefs, it may also be the last straw. For while Newberg and other scientists say they are trying to bridge the gap between science and religion, many believers are offended by the notion that God is a creation of the human brain, rather than the other way around.

"It reinforces atheistic assumptions and makes religion appear useless," said Nancey Murphy, a professor of Christian philosophy at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, Calif. "If you can explain religious experience purely as a brain phenomenon, you don't need the assumption of the existence of God."

Some scientists readily say the research proves there is no such thing as God. But many others argue that they are religious themselves, and that they are simply trying to understand how our minds produce a sense of spirituality.

Newberg, who was catapulted to center stage of the neuroscience-religion debate by his book and some recent experiments he conducted at the University of Pennsylvania with co-researcher Eugene D'Aquili, says he has a sense of his own spirituality, though he declined to say whether he believed in God because any answer would prompt people to question his agenda. "I'm really not trying to use science to prove that God exists or disprove God exists," he said.

Newberg's experiment consisted of taking brain scans of Tibetan Buddhist meditators as they sat immersed in contemplation. After giving them time to sink into a deep meditative trance, he injected them with a radioactive dye. Patterns of the dye's residues in the brain were later converted into images.

Newberg found that certain areas of the brain were altered during deep meditation. Predictably, these included areas in the front of the brain that are involved in concentration. But Newberg also found decreased activity in the parietal lobe, one of the parts of the brain that helps orient a person in three-dimensional space.

"When people have spiritual experiences they feel they become one with the universe and lose their sense of self," he said. "We think that may be because of what is happening in that area—if you block that area, you lose that boundary between the self and the rest of the world. In doing so you ultimately wind up in a universal state."

Across the country, at the University of California in San Diego, other neuroscientists are studying why religious experiences seem to accompany epileptic seizures in some patients. At Duke University, psychiatrist Roy Mathew is studying hallucinogenic drugs that can produce mystical experiences and have long been used in certain religious traditions.

Could the flash of wisdom that came over Siddhartha Gautama—the Buddha—have been nothing more than his parietal lobe quieting down? Could the voices that Moses and Mohammed heard on remote mountain tops have been just a bunch of firing neurons—an illusion? Could Jesus' conversations with God have been a mental delusion? [MM: Could all the financial contributions over a lifetime—to perpetuate one's favorite Religious Cult—really purchase a "ticket to heaven"??]

Newberg won't go so far, but other proponents of the new brain science do. Michael Persinger, a professor of neuroscience at Laurentian University in Sudbury, Ontario, has been conducting experiments that fit a set of magnets to a helmet-like device. Persinger runs what amounts to a weak electromagnetic signal around the skulls of volunteers.

Four in five people, he said, report a "mystical experience, the feeling that there is a sentient being or entity standing behind or near" them. Some weep, some feel God has touched them, others become frightened and talk of demons and evil spirits.

"That's in the laboratory," said Persinger. "They know they are in the laboratory. Can you imagine what would happen if that happened late at night in a pew or mosque or synagogue?"

His research, said Persinger, showed that "religion is a property of the brain, only the brain and has little to do with what's out there."

Those who believe the new science disproves the existence of God say they are holding up a mirror to society about the destructive power of religion. They say that religious wars, fanaticism and intolerance spring from dogmatic beliefs that particular gods and faiths are unique, rather than facets of universal brain chemistry.

"It's irrational and dangerous when you see how religiosity affects us," said Matthew Alper, author of The God Part of the Brain, a book about the neuroscience of belief. "During times of prosperity, we are contented. During times of depression, we go to war. When there isn't enough food to go around, we break into our spiritual tribes and use our gods as justification to kill one another.”

While Persinger and Alper count themselves as atheists, many scientists studying the neurology of belief consider themselves deeply spiritual.

James Austin, a neurologist, began practicing Zen meditation during a visit to Japan. After years of practice, he found himself having to re-evaluate what his professional background had taught him.

“It was decided for me by the experiences I had while meditating,” said Austin, author of the book Zen and the Brain and now a philosophy scholar at the University of Idaho. “Some of them were quickenings, one was a major internal absorption—an intense hyper-awareness, empty endless space that was blacker than black and soundless and vacant of any sense of my physical bodily self. I felt deep bliss. I realized that nothing in my training or experience had prepared me to help me understand what was going on in my brain. It was a wake-up call for a neurologist.”

Austin’s spirituality doesn’t involve a belief in God—it is more in line with practices associated with some streams of Hinduism and Buddhism. Both emphasize the importance of meditation and its power to make an individual loving and compassionate—most Buddhists are disinterested in whether God exists.

But theologians say such practices don’t describe most people’s religiousness in either eastern or western traditions.

“When these people talk of religious experience, they are talking of a meditative experience,” said John Haught, a professor of theology at Georgetown University. “But religion is more than that. It involves commitments and suffering and struggle—it’s not all meditative bliss. It also involves moments when you feel abandoned by God.”

“Religion is visiting widows and orphans,” he said. “It is symbolism and myth and story and much richer things. They have isolated one small aspect of religious experience and they are identifying that with the whole of religion.”

Belief and faith, argue believers, are larger than the sum of their brain parts: “The brain is the hardware through which religion is experienced,” said Daniel Batson, a University of Kansas psychologist who studies the effect of religion on people. “To say the brain produces religion is like saying a piano produces music.”

At the Fuller Theological Seminary’s school of psychology, Warren Brown, a cognitive neuropsychologist, said, “Sitting where I’m sitting and dealing with experts in theology and Christian religious practice, I just look at what these people know about religiousness and think they are not very sophisticated. They are sophisticated neuroscientists, but they are not scholars in the area of what is involved in various forms of religiousness.”

At the heart of the critique of the new brain research is what one theologian at St. Louis University called the “nothing-butism” of some scientists—the notion that all phenomena could be understood by reducing them to basic units that could be measured.

“A kiss,” said Michael McClymond, “is more than a mutually agreed-upon exchange of saliva, breath and germs.”

And finally, say believers, if God existed and created the universe, wouldn’t it make sense that he would install machinery in our brains that would make it possible to have mystical experiences?

“Neuroscientists are taking the viewpoints of physicists of the last century that everything is matter,” said Mathew, the Duke psychiatrist. “I am open to the possibility that there is more to this than what meets the eye. I don’t believe in the omnipotence of science or that we have a foolproof explanation.” [MM: These scientific experts’ brain-spirituality oxymoron ranks right up there with my all-time favorite Judeo-Christian laugher.]

AREA SCHOOLS HOSTILE TO GAYS, REPORT SAYS

By Kathy Jesse, Indianapolis Star, 6/16/01

Anti-harassment policies are in effect, but reaction is often negative, experts say.

A report released Friday by a local gay advocacy group charges that many area schools are hostile climates for gay students. [MM: Maybe that acceptable-alternate-lifestyle hype by the RIIA-Tavistock mind-shapers isn’t flying as well as anticipated.]

The Indiana Youth Group, a support organization for gay teens, collected reports from more than 250 of its members, ages 12 to 20, during the spring semester of 2001. The group found that Tech and Broad Ripple high schools in Indianapolis Public Schools lead the list for physical and verbal harassment from students.

Other area high schools cited were Carmel, Warren Central, Ben Davis, Cathedral, North Central and Beech Grove.

Middle schools named were Belzer in Lawrence Township and Perry Meridian.

The complaints include everything from anti-gay comments to physical assaults, said Rob Connoley, director of the Indiana Youth Group. In almost all cases, students did not report the incidents to school officials, fearing repercussions.

“Our intent (with this report) is not to highlight specific schools and say how evil they are, because we understand the intricate difficulties that are involved in these cases,” Connoley said. “To say that a school has the most reports may or may not be fair to them since they may or may not have been told about the incident.”

The tabulations also don’t take into account the size of the school populations, he added.

The report mirrors results of a national Human Rights Watch report released in May that found that gay students are subjected to near-constant verbal and physical bullying. School officials often look the other way, or even encourage it, according to the report.

The Indiana Youth Group received stories such as this: “Two guys followed me after practice and started beating me with their wallet chains. My face was bruised. My ribs were bruised. I never went back to school.”

IPS Superintendent Duncan Pat Pritchett said his district doesn’t tolerate any form of harassment. “But they’ve got to let us know about it before we can address it.”

IPS has a written anti-harassment policy, he said. Consequences can range from a parent conference to suspension, depending upon the circumstances.

Other school districts also have written policies in place. Belzer Middle School Principal Ron Davie said gay students are protected under the district’s “human dignity” policy, although sexual orientation isn’t specifically listed.

Name-calling can result in a trip to the principal’s office, community service, in-school detention or expulsion, Davie said. Physical harassment almost always results in suspension.

At North Central, anti-gay harassment violates school policy, but whether teachers enforce it depends upon the teacher, according to Joe King, a speech and theater teacher and a sponsor of the school’s Pride Club. The club, an alliance of gay and straight students, is the only school-based club of its kind in Indianapolis.

“North Central is a very diverse, open-minded school,” King said. But there’s still harassment in the hallways. “It’s still socially acceptable to say to a friend, ‘You’re such a fag.’ And as a teacher, I sometimes have to say, ‘That’s not appropriate.’”

Tech High School has a gay support group for students—staffed by social workers—that is held in an on-site teen health clinic. The clinic is run by HealthNet Community Health Centers, not IPS.

Dennis Stover, a consultant with the Health Foundation of Greater Indianapolis, works with youth-serving organizations on gay awareness and sensitivity programs. He says he hasn’t had much luck taking those programs to educators.

“Administrators are hesitant,” Stover said. “Most will tell you they know of gay and lesbian students, but they hesitate, because of negative public opinion.”

Stover has assisted in workshops with IPS parents and teachers. Pat Payne, director of multicultural education for IPS, has added sexual orientation to her sensitivity training. The reaction she has received has been negative.

“I’m telling you, people don’t even want to talk about the issue,” Payne said. “I got e-mails from administrators. They think multicultural education should be about race and ethnicity only. People feel it’s against their religion to talk about it.”

“When teachers have students whose learning is being blocked—when they’re dealing with these issues with no help—that’s when problems come in,” she said. “Our job isn’t to judge lifestyles. It’s our job to make sure students have a safe environment in which to learn. Teachers have got to start discussing this.”

J. Stephen Talley, vice principal of Broad Ripple High School, agrees that learning comes first. He doesn’t condone harassment—he can recall the expulsion of at least one Broad Ripple student who threatened a gay student with physical harm—but he points out the challenges of balancing the needs of an individual student with those of 1,800.

He can recall instances when male students who were in the process of sex-change operations requested to be allowed to use the girls’ restrooms. In another case, a male student wanted to be able to wear high heels to school. [Can it get any more absurd than this?!]

“What would that do (in terms of disruption) to 35 kids and a teacher?” he said.

Gay kids tend to bounce from school to school, he said, looking for an acceptable place to land.

“But I don’t think school will ever be an acceptable place,” Talley said. “I don’t think the nation will ever accept the gay lifestyle. [But will it accept the HOMOSEXUAL lifestyle?!] Not in my lifetime. Not with the religious mores.”

BILDERBERG UNRAVELING

UNWANTED MEDIA ATTENTION FORCES SINISTER BILDERBERG CABAL OUT OF SHADOWS

The harsh light of publicity in Europe has, after all these years, put the rodents on the run.

EXCLUSIVE TO THE SPOTLIGHT

By JAMES P. TUCKER JR., 6/18/01

For decades, Bilderberg has smugly considered its plans for a world government and subjugation of man on a Global Plantation an inevitable, unstoppable “wave of the future”.

Now, Bilderberg is afraid its grandiose schemes are falling apart.

Bilderberg is feeling threatened by two things it most fears: public exposure to the truth and education of patriotic citizens of nations throughout the world.

The waves of publicity—newspapers, periodicals, television and radio—in recent years became a tidal wave when Bilderberg tried to hide on an island near Gothenberg, Sweden, at the end of May.

Depressed Bilderberg luminaries could feel their agenda unraveling, prompting panic calls to Washington, London and elsewhere. Some examples:

*Just a few years ago, Bilderberg expected Britain to be a full member of the European Union, eagerly embracing the common currency, the euro. NOW, Bilderberg fears that “nationalists” will keep Britain from embracing the euro and surrendering more sovereignty to the EU.

*Similarly, Bilderberg expected the road to the “American Union” to be a highspeed highway. NAFTA was to expand rapidly throughout the Western Hemisphere—as David Rockefeller said on national television before the deal was actually sealed. As NAFTA expanded, its 90-man commission was to expand accordingly, forming the basis for the “American Parliament”. Now, Bilderberg is afraid the next step, the Free Trade Area of the Americas, will fall apart.

Bilderberg knows that blocking the FTAA, and thus the “American Union”, and erosion of the EU will knock the legs from under its scheme for world government.

But as public knowledge of Bilderberg’s evil schemes grew in Europe, so too did popular opposition. It is less so in the United States, where, with the exception of THE SPOTLIGHT, the blackout is virtually 100 percent.

Even as Bilderberg was meeting, Margaret Thatcher, who the secret group ousted as prime minister of Britain for resisting the EU, was bringing audiences to their feet with ringing speeches denouncing the euro and surrender of sovereignty.

With polls showing two-thirds of Britons opposed to the euro, the Labor and Conservative parties had made a deal: Labor would be silent on the euro, and the Conservatives would simply say it would not be adopted in the “duration of the next Parliament”.

Europhiles in both parties wanted more time to change public sentiment before calling for a vote. Initially, both had wanted to embrace the euro without a popular vote, but, as awareness grew, this became politically impossible.

ABSURD

Bilderberg’s hand had been forced and orders were sent to one of their own, Prime Minister Tony Blair, to campaign immediately and loudly for the euro.

Blair was reduced to the absurd argument that “it is patriotic for Britain to share sovereignty” while Conservative candidate for prime minister, William Hague, decided it was expedient to echo Lady Thatcher and denounce the euro.

In addition, Bilderberg was nervous about loss of commitment to the EU from Italy and elsewhere.

Italy had just elected a “right-wing, nationalist” government headed by Silvio Berlusconi. The incoming prime minister had pledged dramatic tax cuts that Bilderberg said would “undermine” the euro. He was also called “anti-immigrant”.

A rising tide of opposition to the EU was also observed in Germany and France. Both nations had embraced the euro without a popular vote.

Similarly, Bilderberg expressed fear that the “extreme right wing” and “provincial nationalists” would block the Free Trade Area of the Americas, which is a major stepping-stone in the political integration of the Western Hemisphere into the “American Union”.

As public awareness rises, Bilderberg’s star falls.

HIGHER BARRIERS PROMPT MORE PUBLICITY THAN EVER

EXCLUSIVE TO THE SPOTLIGHT

By JAMES P. TUCKER JR., 6/18/01

Bad news for Bilderberg is good news for the people as plutocrats grouse over their loss of power.

The unwanted scrutiny—that is, unwanted by the plutocrats but wanted by us—has made it more difficult for Bilderberg to enact its nefarious globalist schemes without the world noticing. And as the world awakens to Bilderberg’s plans, much to the dismay of the plutocrats, citizens have reacted by rejecting globalism and instead strengthening their sense of nationalism.

Each year, the European media increases the blizzard of publicity while the blackout in the United States remains nearly 100 percent.

Bilderberg was convinced, until the last edition of THE SPOTLIGHT burst into print, that at least the sacred list of participants remained secret. How long will it take Bilderberg luminaries to strip-search their own staffs to identify the “leak”? Are they now convinced that there is no place to hide?

For a group sworn to secrecy—for years, they denied their very existence—Bilderberg has become its own worst enemy. SPOTLIGHT readers had advised the European media of the dates and places, then Bilderberg fired the flames of curiosity.

Numerous Swedish newspapers carried detailed advance stories on the upcoming meeting. Those in the media who might have thought Bilderberg was being taken too seriously—were they not just “grumpy old men”—became intensely interested when a high fence more than a half mile long was erected overnight on the bridge linking the island to the mainland.

SWAT teams and riot police assembled near the resort to protect Bilderberg—in the event that anti-globalization protests broke out—also drew the Swedish media’s attention.

Twenty years ago, only a lone SPOTLIGHT reporter pursued Bilderberg, over walls or disguised as a groundskeeper. Now, in Europe, so many newspapermen and broadcasters have joined the pursuit that the scene of the crime is under observation virtually all day. Information is pooled.

Still, a SPOTLIGHT photographer had to spend six hours in a tree with a longrange telephoto lens in order to get exclusive photographs of the secretive group of power brokers, banksters and international fat cats.

Not knowing for certain until the meeting was over that the Bilderberg source would be able to obtain the list of participants, many were identified by observation in advance.

Some who were positively identified as attending were not on the list. They include Giovanni and Umberto Agnelli of Fiat from Italy and Marie-Josée Kravis, senior fellow at the Hudson Institute, from the United States.

Listed but absent was Sen. Chuck Hagel (R-Neb.), who was to make his third straight appearance as a potential president. He had planned to attend, but when the Senate leadership turned over—which caused panic at Bilderberg because of the threat of labor putting pressure on the Democrat majority to block the Free Trade Area of the Americas—Hagel remained for damage-control duties.

The holes in the list could have been deliberate, or the source within Bilderberg may have missed them in furtively hand-copying names off a computer.

However, in years when the list was either stolen by THE SPOTLIGHT or coughed up under pressure from Big Media in Europe, some who have attended were absent from the official list. Notable among those was British Prime Minister Tony Blair when Bilderberg met at the Turnberry resort in Scotland.

More has been learned about Bilderberg’s plan to establish a United Nations bureaucracy to keep the world’s food safe.

This was addressed by Franz Fischler, the European Union’s commissioner for agriculture and rural development and Dan Glickman, secretary of agriculture under former President Bill Clinton and former Democratic House member from Kansas.

At the same time, Christine Whitman, administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, was representing this country at a food safety session of the European Union in Brussels.

Bilderberg is attempting, according to a reliable source, to move people in the Western world off of farms and become more dependent on African nations for food. The propaganda line will be that this will bring prosperity to war-torn, impoverished Africa while the West will “benefit” from devoting its “human resources” to modern technology.

International corporations, such as Archer Daniels Midland—long represented at Bilderberg—will be able to exploit cheap labor while cornering the world’s food supply and kicking prices skyward.

Such evil undertakings are the reasons for Bilderberg’s super-secrecy. They are also the reasons Bilderberg must be exposed. SPOTLIGHT is no longer a lonely voice in the wilderness; now it is part of a chorus of protest.

PHILIPPINES MOVES TO SAVE PEACE TALKS WITH COMMUNISTS

Agence France-Presse, 6/16/01

MANILA—The Philippines government moved Saturday to salvage peace talks with communist guerillas after rebel death squads murdered a right-wing legislator to settle an old score.

Two days after abruptly recalling its negotiators from the Norway talks to protest the assassination of House of Representatives member Rodolfo Aguinaldo, Manila was putting a positive spin on the impasse.

The break would serve both sides as a “cooling off period,” said retired general Eduardo Ermita, the chief adviser on the peace process of President Gloria Arroyo.

Aides said Arroyo would meet with the negotiators shortly to plot their next step.

“We don’t think it would cause significant delays,” Ermita told DZXL radio, stressing the current round of talks in Oslo were due to have adjourned Saturday anyway.

“The talks were merely suspended to review, study, and discuss informally” the “murders of non-combatants,” Arroyo’s National Security Adviser Roilo Golez said.

“We would like to stress that the government remains committed to the peace process,” he said over DZRH radio.

But the insurgent National Democratic Front (NDF) demanded Manila act on the killings of five communist guerillas and two civilians in three recent military operations in the main island of Luzon.

They also called for action on the murder of three supporters of a leftwing party in the campaign for the May 14 congressional elections.

“Action will have to be taken on the NDF’s complaints before talks can resume,” the group said in a statement from its Utrecht, Netherlands base.

Arroyo has set an October 2002 target for a political settlement to a 32-year communist rebellion that has claimed tens of thousands of lives.

A second government negotiating team is to fly to Libya on Monday for talks with the Moro Islamic Liberation Front, a 12,500-member guerilla force that wants to set up a separate state in the southern third of the archipelago.

A lot is riding on the twin peace initiatives as Arroyo wages war on the Abu Sayyaf, a smaller Muslim guerilla group holding more than two dozen people including three Americans in the southern island of Basilan.

Manila and the communists both said they had been on schedule to complete the first of four major topics of the talks—the redress of alleged human rights violations by the government during three years of a brutal conflict—when Aguinaldo was gunned down Tuesday.

The NDF announced the following day that it had exercised its right to punish Aguinaldo, a retired paramilitary colonel. On Friday it threatened to scuttle the talks and unleash the 11,500-member New People’s Army on a full-scale guerilla war.

The government “has shown for the last three decades its complete disability to deal with human-rights violators—whether to punish or stop them,” chief NDF negotiator Luis Jalandoni said Saturday.

“Now, because of the death of a rabid human-rights abuser, torturer and killer, all of these gains are at risk.”

He said that were the rebels to follow Manila’s logic “of calling for a recess each time an incident like this occurs, the peace talks will be forever in recess.”

TRUTH-DISCERNING CONTACT READER

June 1, 2001

Dear CONTACT Staff,

Thank you for the “Greetings from Contact Newspaper”.

I am a longtime reader of CONTACT newspaper, actually started with Phoenix Express over 10 years ago, and have been blessed beyond measure with the insights received.

Spectrum to me is obviously a shameful lie perpetrated upon the ones who choose the easy road to never-never land. Unfortunately, most of the readers I knew jumped ship and abandoned Hatonn and the CONTACT newspaper to avoid the harsh reality of Truth. A few seem to be noticing something is askew with the gangsters at Spectrum but seem to be unwilling to admit their error of perception.

Recently, George Green did a talk of his version of truth in Canada which I attended. This lost soul looks as sad as a dead tree—and about as hollow too. It was amazing to see him pretend he is a Truthbringer, which he even did not believe.

Anyway, I wish to say thank you very much for the good work you do at publishing CONTACT—and I will continue to find new subscribers, so we can get this job done right.

Create a blessed day and let’s keep our sights set on the Big Ship.

SECRET BASE DISCOVERED IN MISSISSIPPI— RUSSIAN MILITARY PRESENCE?

By Jason Warick, The Star Phoenix, 6/23/01

Mississippi civilians have discovered a secret military base, manned by civilian and U.S. and foreign military personnel, deep within the DeSoto National Forest in the southeastern part of the state.

After discovery of the secret site, the Mississippian patriots, dressed in camouflaged clothing and equipped with cameras and videotaping equipment, were able to penetrate the outer perimeters of the base and have provided THE SPOTLIGHT with numerous photographs and about 45 minutes of video tape.

The base, located within a restricted area of the national forest, posted with signs designating it as an “endangered species” habitat, covers a considerable area. Abundant about the base were Russian T-72 main battle tanks, BTR-60 Russian armored personnel carriers, a Scud surface-to-surface missile battery consisting of several individual units and missiles, at least one Russian SA-6 Gainful surface-to-air (SAM) missile launcher with its three missiles elevated and in launch position and a Russian SA-8 Gecko SAM carrier with its four missiles in place.

A Scud missile and launch trailer were photographed by members of the “Confederate Marines”.

ARMED CIVILIANS

The camp at the time seemed to be guarded primarily by “civilian types”, who carried sidearms in holsters.

A retired U.S. Special Operations officer told THE SPOTLIGHT that the operation sounded to him like some type of “top secret spook [CIA] operation”.

All of the Russian equipment, as described above, was photographed with both conventional and video cameras by the Mississippians, who have dubbed themselves the “Confederate Marines”. A Pentagon spokesman told THE SPOTLIGHT that he had no information regarding any type of military operation in Mississippi’s DeSoto National Forest.

The obviously top-secret operation was discovered by the Mississippians August 15 when they encountered a long military convoy on a remote highway in the DeSoto National Forest area. The vehicles were not only on the road but dispersed in the woods on both sides. The civilians tried to engage in conversation with troops in the convoy who were garbed in “foreign, probably Russian” military camouflaged uniforms, but found they could not speak English.

CONVOY GONE

The Mississippians returned to their homes, got their cameras and video-taping equipment and returned to the area on August 16. The convoy and all signs of military activity had disappeared.

They identified the area as being a short distance south of the hamlet of Bellville on the northern edge of the DeSoto National Forest and south of Highway 98 and east of New Augusta, Mississippi.

Traveling down the road a short distance, the men discovered a trail going off into the forest through the posted “endangered species” restricted area.

Ultimately, they discovered the base and, dressed in camouflaged gear, they were able to get close enough to take photographs of the area, including views of large generators, large communications antennas, mobile homes, a fenced-in razor-wired site, large dirt-moving equipment, two large concrete slab foundations that had recently been poured and several other staked areas for more concrete slabs. Both military and civilian vehicles were in the area—and government cars arrived carrying high-ranking Marine, Army and Air Force officers.

A trailer bearing electronics gear believed to be connected to the operation in the Mississippi national forest area is pictured at Camp Shelby.

The men returned to the area on August 21 and again on August 25, taking more photographs and videos of the area. They also discovered another encampment about five miles away, equipped with more communications antennas and solar panels.

Returning again on August 29 they discovered a Scud missile raised in launch position on its trailer. They took some photographs but were seen and after being chased escaped from the area.

The following day they returned and sighted what they described as a “battery of Scuds”, which they photographed.

Back at the area on August 31 they shot still photos and video tape of one of the Scuds. On their final visit to the area on September 1, they discovered that the Scud missiles and other equipment were being prepared for removal from the area.

Hiding beneath a truck carrying U.S. military personnel, apparently there to guard the base, they overheard the men talking about the equipment. The conversation indicated it was to be moved the next day and that their operation had caused AT&T to complain that the operation was “blowing out micro-wave transmissions”.

In the forest, in the vicinity of the base and missiles, the men were amused when they found and photographed a sign with American flags and the wording “Abort Clinton”.

The Mississippians visited nearby Camp Shelby, where they discovered and photographed extensive activity, which they believed was perhaps connected with the operation in the national forest.

They photographed highly sophisticated communications gear, including military trucks with dish-type antennas raised high above them. The federal government remains mum on the subject.... <http://www.thestarphoenix.com/>

PHILIPPINE VOLCANO SPEWS LAVA— BIG BLAST FEARED—5,000 FLEE

Reuters, 6/23/01

LEGAZPI, PHILIPPINES—A Philippine volcano hurled out fountains of lava Saturday in what could be a prelude to a major eruption—forcing thousands of villagers to flee their homes, officials said.

There were no immediate reports of casualties, they said.

The Philippine Institute of Vulcanology and Seismology said “the explosive discharge of lava” reached heights of at least 160 feet and sent flaming rocks and gases tumbling down the slopes of the 8,000-foot Mayon volcano.

The institute said it had raised the alert level around the volcano from three to four, meaning “a hazardous, explosive eruption is possible within hours to days”.

At least 5,000 villagers living in the shadow of the volcano in Albay province, 205 miles southeast of Manila, have fled their homes, provincial disaster management chief Fredric Daep told Reuters.

The volcano, which has been restive since January, has a history of eruptions, the deadliest occurring in 1814 when it buried a town under mud and rocks and killed 1,200 people.

It is one of 22 active volcanoes in the Philippines.

Since it began rumbling in January, the vulcanology institute has declared a 3.7-mile radius from around the crater as a no-man’s land.

Mayon last erupted in February last year but no one was killed in its three-week-long series of blasts.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM HATONN

CONTACT OR SPECTRUM?

I want to briefly respond to a most unusual question from a totally "out of the blue" person: "It appears Spectrum will fail, possibly close, so will you go back to writing for CONTACT or what?"

I have never stopped writing for CONTACT—but I have NOT written, nor have my compatriots written for Spectrum. Tails wag a lot of dogs, my friends. Therefore, "or what" has no meaning.
