“Big Brother” Hovering Over The Philippines

5/30/01—#1 (14-287)

RE: SECRET SOCIETIES. Jan van Helsing (EWERTVERLAG)

HATONN COMMENTS: In the Philippines there is a major move for the U.S. to be indispensable in all things falling apart and which, by the way, are orchestrated by that Big Brother from upstart.

Mr. Pascual of The Philippine STAR has it right: “Ask Ramos to explain the power mess.” It was through his doing in his administration that the mold was set and this is the outcome which is planned to get ever so much worse under the assumption that through new laws and “giving away” the production systems it will somehow magically clean up itself. No, it will NOT and it will render the nation totally helpless under the newly presented plans for “assistance”.

As for the kidnappings (hostages taken) in Mindanao, the picture gets worse and worse and is so obviously orchestrated by such as CIA, FBI, etc., as to be somewhat sickening at the manipulation.

The U.S. “just happened” to have a dozen sophisticated aircraft enter and land near Manila (for refueling). They had been on “joint exercises” with the Philippines and were headed, so they announced, to Okinawa. Know they are here because of the hostages—because they made an announcement that they were NOT.

It is said they were to have refueled in Palawan (where the hostages were snatched) but flew to Manila so there would be no question of participation in Palawan’s crisis. They have about 135 troops with them and nobody seems to know where they are TODAY.

Number 2: The Philippines has stated that there are FBI investigators, etc., IN THE AREA. THIS IS THE SAME FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION THAT IS SUPPOSEDLY LIMITED TO THE U.S. AS TO ACTIVITIES. Oh, well.

There are, after all, a couple of people who are Supposedly American citizens. Two are a married couple who have been living in the Philippines for over a decade, are missionaries and say they are being treated well. Now, nobody seems to be able to locate the group in point, takers or taken, BUT there are interviews being held over the phone—cell phones, of course.

There is also a notice to all U.S. citizens from the U.S. that they (our team included) are NOT to travel.

The Secretary of Tourism, Mr. Gordon, is petitioning for a news blackout so as not to further injure the tourist business. I guess he wishes to encourage more hostage-taking.

Well, I am here suggesting, E.J., that we go directly to the source of such problems. Offer Mr. Gordon a solution directly WITH DEED IN PRESENTATION. Offer Sec. Comacho a solution Deed to cover the problems with the Power company—but do one or more also for the Distribution Co., the Independent producers, etc., and make sure Mr. Pascual gets copied. We will simply have to go public and that is going to require the members of the Press who would actually like to see the nation survive.

The hue and cry here is always to let the “foreigners” FIX things. Ok, let us make sure that the “foreigners” have that opportunity—through the FREEDOM of the citizens themselves with our backup.

OURS? YES, INDEED, JUST WHO DO YOU THINK IS BEHIND GAIA? IT IS TIME PEOPLE BECAME A BIT MORE COMFORTABLE WITH THAT “FACT”.

We will continue right on with our information flow—and people can make up their own minds about possibilities. But the major thing I want to see is information to those of the OIC (Organization of Islamic Countries) upcoming.

These people have to do it, team, and I know that is very difficult for you who feel so responsible, but involvement in a nation’s business is unacceptable for outsiders, including GOD. We offer, we present and, yes, we can PROVIDE—but the citizens must be THE ones who “DO”.

You have some good people who can now confer and begin to present alternatives THROUGH THE LEGAL CHANNELS. You have attorneys in the picture and you need to stop all the delays and investigations and carefully, WITHIN ALL LAWS, “ACT”. THE ONES WITH THE “PETITIONS” AND THE “NAME LISTS” NEED TO COMBINE EFFORTS SO THAT THERE IS A UNIFIED UNDERTAKING.

IF THERE IS NO ACTION IMMEDIATELY FORTHCOMING, THE LIFEBLOOD OF THE NATION WILL BE UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE MANIPULATORS. WHEN ALL THE ENERGY, WATER AND LIFE-BLOOD OF THE NATION IS GONE, IT IS THEN TOO LATE TO SOLVE THE PROBLEMS—JUST SUFFER OVER WHAT “MIGHT HAVE BEEN—IF!”

Please let us move on with the presentation in progress.

SECRET SOCIETIES AND THEIR POWER IN THE 20TH CENTURY

[QUOTING SECRET SOCIETIES:]

(PART 24)

CHAPTER 54

WHAT ABOUT THE SERBS?

The developments around the campaign of conquest the Serbs started in 1991 would not have been possible without the backing by Moscow and by the Bush administration. The U.S. deputy secretary of state at the time, LAWRENCE EAGLEBURGER, a prominent partner in the consulting firm

KISSINGER ASSOCIATES, together with another Kiss Ass partner, LORD CARRINGTON, saw to it that Belgrade got a free hand for ethnic cleansing and genocide. At the same time mechanisms for massive illegal money transfers to Belgrade were set up to finance this campaign and to pay for the import of arms, oil and other goods.

In the last two years private banks in Belgrade surprised with interest offers of 15% per month for foreign currency and of 200% for Dinar deposits, in view of a yearly inflation rate of 2,000%. Considering the massive unemployment and the large number of people without income this interest offer looked like a political trick to counteract the growing discontent in the populace about the economic hardships the war brought them. An observer said: “Somebody is financing a covert welfare system.”

Some aspects of these practises came to light when in March 1993 the Belgrade banker Jesdomir Vasiljevic, the head of the JUGOSKANDIC BANK, cleared off to Israel. The press disclosed that this bank had almost 4 million accounts with deposits of almost 2 billion US$. Where did these sums come from? [H: DO WE REALLY NEED TO ASK?] Before the war Yugoslavia had had a flourishing tourist trade and an armaments industry manufacturing mainly light arms for export, but after the repayment of 14 billion US$ in foreign debt there was not much left over. Tourism has since foundered and the arms production is used in the war.

The Serbian government also profits from the spoils from the conquered areas, but this, too, is little compared to the actual need. Russian oil and arms are delivered only against cash. Western oil, e.g. from the MOBIL OIL refinery at Thessaloniki in Greece enters the country at black market prices that can be 400% above the market value.

With its role in the drug trade via the Balkan route, Belgrade had got access to the off-shore money laundering system, and this is where the source of the funds is to be found. The growing activities by the SERBIAN MAFIA steered from Belgrade in Western Europe is surely another one. In Belgrade there is a school for burglary which obviously is protected by the secret services and whose graduates are posted all over Europe where they hand the stolen goods to a well-organized network of receivers. Yet it is difficult to imagine that this money source should suffice to meet the Serbian war bill, even considering the growing importance of the Serbian Mafia on the Western European drug market.

Clueless commentators had repeatedly compared the practises by the JUGOSKANDIC and its most important competitor, the DAFIMENT BANK, to the usual investment swindlers who promise regular high interest payments on real estate and other investments to pull the money out of the people’s pocket.

But reality is different. It is not small Serbia that is getting the funds out of the big shots on the international hot money markets. The same powers that gave the green light for the war also arranged the financing. Serbia is not organizing this flow of funds; it is its beneficiary. There are arrangements where local banks in Belgrade or offshore channels have been used—for a fee—to launder on a monthly basis part of the cash income from the international drug trade. Belgrade’s profits were not bad at all. Standard interest for laundering is between 3 and 7%, but in view of the enormous sums made in the world-wide drug trade dealers can pay up to 30% without smarting.

Israel Kelman from Tel Aviv holds 25% of the stock of Defina Milanovic’s DAFIMENT BANK in Belgrade. The fact that Vasiljevic of the JUGOSKANDIC cleared off to Israel points to his key role in the war financing technique inspired by Anglo-American interests.

In a similar way the U.S. banks had saved themselves from bankruptcy by a massive infusion of drug money in the 1982 Latin-American debt crisis. This has little to do with a free-market economy. According to German police sources it was learned while investigating the Serbian Mafioso in Germany that Belgrade did not offer any international police co-operation and therefore is probably an easier place to launder money than Switzerland. Cyprus, a well-developed offshore banking centre, is the most important operating base for the bankers of Belgrade.

The obviously successful financing of the war that was effected by financial interests behind EAGLEBURGER and CARRINGTON (Committee of 300) is not due to excessive secrecy, but to inactivity by the West. After observing the activities of the Belgrade banks for eighteen months, everyone including the diplomats there knew that something was amiss. It was known the banks were represented on Cyprus. Nothing was done, although the UN sanctions also included financial transfers to Serbia with the exception of funds for medical and other humanitarian purposes. Only in April of 1993 it was admitted by the UN sanctions committee that one had neglected to consult the Cypriot administration about the Serbian banking connections. There had been “too little concrete information”.

The banker Vasiljevic had spent fifteen to twenty years abroad, predominantly in Australia and was well-known for his dealings in the “war zones of the Far East”, as the British Observer put it.

CHAPTER 55

THE PRESENT SITUATION

The Illuminati have the world in their grip, through the international bankers together with the elite societies mentioned and the empires built by them. They are in the process of strengthening their possession of this planet. Their main means of control are the national debts. And then there is the international police force to keep independent nations like Libya and Iran at bay—the UN troops. Because Libya is independent of international control it remains a challenge for the new World Order. MUAMMAR AL-QADDAFI is presented in the media as a terrorist to justify aggression towards Libya. Brainwashing once again!

GEORGE [H.W.] BUSH WAS ONE OF THE BEST COLLABORATORS THE ILLUMINATI EVER HAD, AND DUE TO HIS STRONG TIES TO THE ILLEGAL DRUG TRADE HE WILL HAVE TO GO ON UNTIL HIS LAST BREATH (NO. 8 OF THE PROTOCOLS).

BUSH IS A FORMER CIA CHIEF, FORMER CFR CHIEF, MEMBER OF THE SKULL & BONES ORDER, MEMBER OF THE TRILATERAL COMMISSION AND MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE OF 300.

[H: OH, INDEED, THIS IS THE SAME BUSH WHO WOULD BURY US AND THIS GLOBAL ALLIANCE (GAIA) IF AT ALL POSSIBLE—AND OF COURSE HE THINKS HE CAN DO THAT WITHOUT DOING MORE THAN JUST STONEWALLING. HE DOES, HOWEVER, PERSONALLY KNOW ME, CMDR. HATONN, AND I BELIEVE WE HAVE A FAIRLY GOOD UNDERSTANDING OF HIS OWN LIMITATIONS IN ACCEPTABLE BEHAVIOR. PEOPLE, THESE MANIPULATORS ARE DEPENDING ON YOU TO BLOW ALL YOUR OWN CHANCES, AND DIRECTLY SO THROUGH GREED AND AVARICE ON YOUR OWN PART.]

His opponent in the 1992 presidential election, BILL CLINTON, is a member of the CFR, of the Bilderbergers and a life-long member of the Masonic Order of De Molay. Since the early Eighties Clinton is also a member of the Trilateral Commission. His closest advisors with the best chances at leading positions in the administration also come from the Trilateral Commission: His foremost economic advisor Felix Rohatyn from the New York banking house Lazard Brothers, Paul Volcker, under Carter head of the Federal Reserve Board, Robert Hormats from the New York bank Goldman Sachs, and advisor for trade Paul Stern and his advisor on foreign policy, Warren Christopher. Also included in the closer team are leading personalities of the CFR and the Brookings Institute. The bankers Peter Petersen, Robert Rubin and Roger Altman are the most important among them.

This means that both opponents are 100% Illuminati collaborators and the U.S. citizens were now called upon to choose between the two. This strongly reminds us of elections of the Socialist Unity Party in East Germany.

The same goes for Germany and its Chancellor: Willy Brandt was a member of the Committee of 300 and of the Bilderbergers, Helmut Schmidt and Helmut Kohl both are members of the Bilderbergers. Bjorn Engholm is also with the Bilderbergers and with DGAP, and if he had not stepped down he would have been Kohl's opponent in the Chancellor election.

The U.S. government is recognizing the UN charter as "law of the world". The founding of a One World Government recognized by all nations of the world is very near (see No. 9 of the Protocols).

The Russian coup, too, was a success. Boris Yeltsin took over from Gorbachev. The so-called breaking-up of the Soviet Union is actually just a name-change. The military apparatus has not only remained the same, it actually became mightier than ever before. One of the last deeds by Bush was a US$ 12 million financial "injection" to enlarge the military machine. Have you not noticed that despite the huge sums that also Clinton is sending, the people are still starving? Do you know what could be ameliorated with these sums? But all goes to the arms production and the secret services. According to the Vertrauliche Mitteilungen (Confidential Reports) of October 12, 1003 [1993?], arms exports by Russia have fallen by only 1.8 billion dollars. That is only about 6% of the $26 billion exports reached in the peak year 1986.

When the CIS (Commonwealth of Independent States) will be united with the U.S. Army in the UN troops people will believe that the two largest super powers who for decades had been enemies (in reality they never were) would unite. Other nations will join voluntarily or they will be coerced by the future world army.

Eduard Shevardnadze, former Georgian minister for international affairs and major general of the KGB involved in torture and political suppression, is suddenly a close friend of U.S. Secretary of State James Baker and was proposed by the mass media, e.g. the New York Times, as secretary general of the UN (That takes the biscuit!).

The IMF is increasingly becoming the driving force in the local economies of the states of the Commonwealth. Under its guidance the price of petrol has risen from 4 Rubles to 30 Rubles a gallon in April 1992. The congress of Russian deputies is on the verge of protest against the IMF because Russia is already in a miserable state.

As mentioned previously, the war in Yugoslavia is also part of the scenario of the Illuminati. A "second Near East" in the southern flank of Europe is wished for, to prevent a possible Eurasian reordering. Should Germany try to get out from under the control by the Illuminati it could easily be stopped by an attack by the Serbs. In the Greater Serbian propaganda Germany has already been named the number one enemy.

To lend more credence to this I would like to quote from the Vertrauliche Mitteilungen of July 20, 1993:

"In the former Olympic Village in Pale, near Sarajevo, an enigmatic British personality has been allotted one of the nicest apartments next door to the office of the Serbian leader KARADJIC. We speak of SIR ALFRED SHERMAN.

"In Great Britain Sherman is known as the 'inventor of Margaret Thatcher'. When the Conservatives were in a crisis following the departure of Edward Heath, it was Sherman who proposed the subsequently very successful Prime Minister as party leader. Together with Margaret Thatcher he founded the Centre for Policy Studies. Mrs. Thatcher got Sherman knighted—it is said out of gratefulness.

"Formally Sherman appeared in Pale as a PR advisor to Karadjic. Actually the leader of the Serbs co-ordinates all his political moves with Sherman. Local observers say that not a day goes by without Karadjic and Sherman conferring."

The BILDERBERGERS are one of the mightiest organizations of internationalists who work towards a One World Government, and they keep so secret that some members of the Bundestag still maintain that they do not exist, whether this be pig-headed ignorance or active covering-up notwithstanding.

In May 1973, at the meeting in Salsjobaden in Sweden (estate owned by the Swedish bankers family Wallenberg) 84 participants aimed at restoring the dwindling predominance of the Anglo-American financial interests and to return to them the control of the world-wide financial transactions. To this end they reverted to the well-tried oil weapon and decided to raise the price by 400%, to support the U.S. currency with the petro-dollars, which is just what happened. (Spotlight)

It is perhaps interesting to note that the organizer of the Saltsjobaden meeting was ROBERT D. MURPHY. He has an interesting past history: Robert D. Murphy as consul general of the U.S. had met Hitler for the first time in 1922 and had sent a very favourable report to Washington about the meeting and Hitler's capabilities. The same Murphy worked in 1944 as political advisor to the U.S. government for Germany and in 1945 as political advisor at the U.S. military government in Germany.

In 1988 the meeting was held in Telfz near Innsbruck, Austria, and German Chancellor Helmut Kohl was attending.

From June 6 to 9, 1990 the Bilderbergers met in Baden-Baden, Germany. One of the topics was the Marshall plan that proposed a 100 billion dollar assistance to the CIA and in return demanded that the CIS states adopt the free-market rules. Here it was also decided for Saddam to invade Kuwait.

The last meeting I know about was held on May 20, 1992, at the Hotel Ermitage in Evian, France. The main topic at this meeting was the Agenda 2000, the world government planned for the year 2000.

As you can see, this subject is very topical, even if outwardly it does not appear to be so.

I would like to interject here that WILLY BRANDT, the deceased Jewish ex-chancellor, a member of the Bilderbergers and of the Committee of 300 had written a book called Nord-Sud, ein Überlebensprogramm (North-South, a Programme for Survival), where he describes a world government by the UN (by the year 2000). And it is also interesting to note that the UN-banner has the same colours as the banner of Israel! Remember, the Illuminati speak in symbols!

The ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE (ADL) by the B'NAI B'RITH is a non-accredited foreign agency for Israel, who in the last years has leveled many charges against researchers, especially against Spotlight. It collaborates with the SCOTTISH RITE OF FREEMASONRY, which could explain why they are such strong supporters of the Albert Pike memorial and so strongly opposed to economic scientist and repeated presidential candidate Lyndon LaRouche. From January 29, 1989 LaRouche was a political prisoner in Minnesota after having been sentenced to 15 years imprisonment in a judicial scandal staged by the American establishment. He was however freed in 1994.

In the eyes of the Illuminati LaRouche had become a very awkward adversary since he discovered and laid open the entanglements between the establishment, the Ku Klux Klan, the ADL, the B'nai B'rith, the Scottish Rite, the CFR, the Trilateral Commission... etc. From the large-scale propaganda by the ADL against LaRouche most know him as a right-wing extremist, although he is the main advocate for the removal of Albert Pike's statue in Washington.

Gary Allen writes:

"One major reason for the historical blackout on the role of the international bankers in political history is that the Rothschilds were Jewish. Anti-Semites have played into the hands of the conspiracy by trying to portray the entire conspiracy as Jewish. Nothing could be farther from the truth. The traditionally Anglo-Saxon J.P. Morgan and Rockefeller international banking institutions have played a key role in the conspiracy. But there is no denying the importance of the Rothschilds and their satellites. However, it is just as unreasonable and immoral to blame all Jews for the crimes of the Rothschilds as it is to hold all Baptists accountable for the crimes of the Rockefellers.

"The Jewish members of the conspiracy have used an organization called the Anti-Defamation League as an instrument to try to convince everyone that any mention of the Rothschilds or their allies is an attack on all Jews. In this way they have stifled almost all honest scholarship on international bankers and made the subject taboo within universities.

"Any individual or book exploring this subject is immediately attacked by hundreds of ADL communities all over the country. The ADL has never let truth or logic interfere with its highly professional smear jobs. Actually, nobody has a right to be more angry at the Rothschild clique than their fellow Jews. The Warburgs, part of the Rothschild empire, helped finance Adolf Hitler..." (None Dare Call It Conspiracy)

Here we should also look at JAPAN. For many experts Japan is the country that is best prepared for the global changes of the next century brought about by technology. The fact that Japanese managers are represented in the TRILATERAL COMMISSION does not mean that Japan is 100% infiltrated. The Japanese elite itself is very strongly interlaced with secret lodges that the Anglo-American multinationals so far have only had very limited influence on the Japanese economy. This is expressed very clearly in the book The Japan that Can Say NO by SONY boss AKIO MORITA and the leading Japanese politician SHINTARO ISHIHARA. The book intended only for the Japanese has quite an explosive power. It characterizes America as the unloved friend, as a racist country and it hints at Japan planning to retaliate for the capitulation conditions forced upon it.

The authors describe the U.S. from a Japanese viewpoint as a tottering, rotting, dying colossus, mortally wounded under its star-spangled banner serving as a shroud. According to them Japan has de facto forced the American economic system to capitulate. Ishihara and Morita openly state in their book what hitherto Japanese businessmen only dared voice in private circles and on the quiet:

"During the Second World War the U.S. air force bombarded civil targets in Germany, but only on Japan which was ready to capitulate atom bombs were dropped for testing reasons. This was a terrible case of racism."

This enforces statements by some leading Japanese personalities that destruction of the American economy was targeted as retaliation for Hiroshima and Nagasaki. It was said:

"Japan is at war with the U.S. We will conquer America economically and retaliate for the loss of face in the Pacific caused to us by the U.S.!" (C.O.D.E. No. 2, February 1990).

[H: And, just what do you think they are about NOW?]

According to an article in the Wall Street Journal in September 1991 almost one third of the world's 100 largest banks and four of five leading insurance companies are Japanese. A large portion of New Zealand real estate, most hotels and big companies on the Australian east coast and a large part of Canadian forest belong to the Japanese. Just how far the Japanese are actually controlled and used by the Illuminati the future will show.

A further organization that presents an outward picture at variance with what it actually goes on is the USAID. According to Anton Chaitkin and Jessica Primack in A Strategy of Tension USAID not only serves as a traditional cover for spy operations by the CIA, but it is also largely responsible for Anglo-American interventions in all parts of the world. There is for instance a USAID programme with a 300 million dollars budget for birth control in third world countries whose main mission is the sterilisation of the coloured population.

Another personality of international influence is French president FRANCOIS MITTERAND who is grand master of the Grand Orient Masonic lodge. This is the largest lodge of France. He is also a member of the Committee of 300.

On the subject of Freemasons and also of Church Christians I would like to state here that perhaps 90% of the members of these organizations are used by the elites and have not an inkling of what happens in the upper echelons. The same goes for the Lions Club, the Rotary Club (Rotary International was founded in 1905 by the high degree Mason Paul Harris on behalf of the B'nai B'rith lodge in Chicago. Lions International was founded by the B'nai B'rith in Chicago in 1917. See C.O.D.E. 1/88)

In the lower degrees of the hierarchy these organizations are much into social work and present really good programmes. The normal Freemason or Church Christian are normal people trying to give their presence a positive impulse to daily life. At least most try hard to give that impressions (what can be seen in Northern Ireland by the Christians killing each other off). What goes on with a person becomes often only evident after prolonged observation.

"By their fruits ye shall know them."

In principle though one can say that the higher in the pyramid (hierarchy) you climb, to where the real secrets are kept, the more one finds the opposite of the beginning grades.

Jacob Schiff was a high member of the B'nai B'rith and the secret director behind the Bolshevik revolution.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Grand Master of Freemasons, had during his tenure started so many programmes, but he was also the man who pulled the U.S. into the Second World War and helped plan the attack on Pearl Harbor. It was also he who conspired in "three great meetings" with Churchill and Stalin to sell Eastern Europe to the communists.

As you can see, secrecy is a very effective and often used instrument.

[END OF QUOTING CHAPTER 55, Part 24]

* * *

The next chapter deals with George Soros and that connection with the Rothschild cabal, so let us finish this and have a rest before doing that portion.

I cannot stress strongly enough the importance of this summary of information, readers. You really can't do much if you have no idea of what, actually, is wrong and who is "doing it to you".

Even knowing about such important things as pulse systems, HAARP manipulations, etc., is of little value if you don't know WHO is behind the atrocities come upon you. Just going to war against an invisible enemy is useless, for you will always hit the wrong party—for it is PLANNED TO BE THAT WAY.

Keep that "possibility mind" open and I further suggest you get your hands on as many Phoenix Journals as are available and if you have read them once—do it again and STUDY THEM WELL.

The time is at hand to take some kinds of action as you get informed—and they will neither be violent nor without the laws of God and, frankly, nor the laws of man and/or nations. But you must start undoing that which has been done according to the plans as outlaid to you—to take the WORLD.—GCH Dharma

(PART 25)

CHAPTER 56

GEORGE SOROS AND THE ROTHSCHILD CONNECTION

Who was George Soros?

[H: Better yet: Who IS this man? Meet one of the most prominent of the players in your downfall. He very much "was" but he also IS and did, in fact, wreck the economy of Southeast Asia in very short order. He is a top player in such as Bilderbergers and all the other controlling groups while doing nothing "illegal". But then no one can do anything illegal if you and your colleagues make the laws.]

The now sixty-four year old Hungarian with a U.S. passport is the super star amidst the great speculators. When the last Forbes list of the best-paid managers and financiers was published, Soros was in the lead by a huge margin. In the last year he earned 550 million US$, twenty times as much as the Disney boss. When Soros opens the hunt, the international money markets get moving and the reserve banks start worrying. In September 1993 he succeeded over the Bank of England. He was certain that the bank would have to take the pound that came under pressure out of the European exchange mechanism and devalue it. He gambled ten billion US$—with success. He made one billion US$ which the British taxpayers now have to come up with. He himself openly likes to be known as the man who wants to influence the big money markets of the world. This is a very unusual stance for an investor to take, who should rather be interested in using situations unobservedly that the competitors have not yet discovered. In March 1993 Soros' activities became known when he predicted a rise in the price of gold. It is assumed—since this started a buying spree in precious metals—that this drove the price up 20% over the highest price since the Gulf War. In the beginning of June 1993 he wrote an open letter to the business editor of the London Times, Anatole Kaletsky, announcing that he intended to urge the money markets to sell large amounts of German government bonds in favour of French stocks. Which means: Down with the German mark and attack on the Bundesbank!

In several newspapers across the world Soros is praised as a kind of Robin Hood of the Computer Age since by speculation he takes from the rich nations in grand style to hand out to Eastern Europe and Russia via several Soros Foundations, to prepare the way for “democracy” in those “poor” countries that had been bled dry by Communism.

Who then is Soros? the official story says that he was born in 1930 to Jewish parents and as a teenager had been chased from Budapest by the Nazis. He enrolled at the London School of Economics and in the mid-50's came to the U.S. There he was magically drawn to Wall Street, but his career until 1969 was rather unspectacular. Then with a partner he took over an investment fund. He sold stocks he didn't own as futures, hoping that their price would fall nearer the qualifying date and that he could acquire them at a price lower than his selling price.

From this fund the Quantum Group evolved, a family of investment funds operating from the Dutch West Indies. Quantum is one of the most impressive “investment machines” in the world. In eight of the last twenty-four years it made an “official” profit of over 50%, in two of those years even over 100%. In the meantime Soros handed business over to a group of managers and limits himself to designing the “great campaigns”. He put down his principles in the book The Alchemy of Finance, where he says what “financial speculators think is more important than real economic facts”.

But this is but the picture the media—and we know who owns them—paint of him. Who is he in reality?

William Engdahl knows this to say about him:

“Soros speculates on the world's financial markets via his secret off-shore company Quantum Fund NV, a private Investment fund that handles a portfolio of four to seven billion US$ for several “clients”. The Quantum Fund is registered in the tax haven of the Netherlands Antilles in the Caribbean. In order to evade control of his financial activities by the U.S. administration not a single U.S. citizen sits on the board of Quantum. Its directors are a curious mixture of Swiss and Italian financiers.

“Soros has been identified as a front man of the Anglo-French Rothschild banking group. Understandably neither he nor the Rothschilds want this important fact to be public, so the tight links to his friends in the London ‘City’, in the British foreign ministry, in the state of Israel and to his mighty friends in the American Establishment would stay concealed.”

Among the members of the board of the Quantum Fund is one Richard Katz. He is at the same time head of the Rothschild Italia S.p.A. in Milan and is also on the board of the commercial bank N.M. Rothschild & Sons in London. Another member of the board is Nils O. Taube. He is a partner in the London investment group St. James' Place Capital which counts Lord Rothschild among its main partners. A frequent partner of Soros in several of his speculations—especially in the driving up of the gold quotation—is Sir James Goldsmith, a relative of the Rothschild dynasty. On the board of Quantum we also find the heads of some highly “discreet” Swiss private banks (who help the syndicates of organised crime—weapons and drugs—to launder their money). Then there is Edgar D. de Picciotto, head of the Geneva private bank CBI-TDB Union Bancaire Privee, a main player on the gold and investment markets, Isidoro Albertini, head of the Milan stockbroking company Albertini & Co., Beat Notz of the private bank Banque

Worms at Geneva, Alberto Foglia, head of the Banca del Ceresio at Lugano. In the course of the recent political corruption scandals in Italy it was found that several Italian politicians kept their money at the Banca del Ceresio. Apparently Soros had more than just insider knowledge about the weak points in Italian politics when he attacked the lira in September 1994.

William Engdahl explains: “Soros' connection to the ultra-secret international finance circles of the Rothschilds is not just an ordinary or accidental banking connection. The extraordinary success Soros has on the high-risk financial markets cannot simply be explained with “gambler's luck”. Soros has access to the “insider track” of the world's most important information channels, both government and private.

Ever since the Second World War the Rothschild family tried to disseminate an aura of insignificance about themselves. But behind this [is] one of the mightiest and most obscure financial groups of the world. The Rothschilds spend a lot of money to cultivate the picture of a wealthy aristocratic family leading a quiet life where one loves French wines and another engages in charitable trusts.

To experts on the “City” N.M. Rothschild & Sons is most influential in the faction of the British secret service establishment closely linked with the neo-liberal Thatcher wing of the Tory party. In the 80s N.M. Rothschild & Sons made several billion US$ from the privatization of British state-owned industries they conducted for Mrs. Thatcher. The Rothschild bank is also at the centre of world gold trade: In this bank the gold price is fixed twice a day by the five most influential gold trading banks.

But N.M. Rothschild & Sons is also entangled in some very dirty secret service operations dealing with drugs vs. arms. Because of its good relations to the highest places in the British secret services the Rothschilds succeeded in preventing that their complicity with one of the worst illegal secret service networks, the BCCI (Bank of Credit and Commerce International) was never mentioned. In reality the Rothschild bank belonged to the inner circle of these international money laundering banks of the CIA and MI6 that financed in the 70s and 80s CIA projects like the Contras in Nicaragua.

[H: Please a brief interruption on the topic of BCCI and GEORGE BUSH, Russell Herman, V.K. Durham, et al.: One day Mr. George Bush needed a Herman signature on a document which would also include that of V.K. Durham. He called and reached V.K. who asked “What the Hell” did he want? In the conversation the names got a bit worse and finally the question was asked as to where Mr. Bush was at the time. He said he was sitting at his desk in “MY BANK—BCCI”. This was strange since in being President it was hardly “kosher” to have a bank, etc. The signatures were not forthcoming and that shortened Mr. Herman's life-span by quite a bit.

I will also note that we personally wrote to Mr. George Soros within the past three years when Mr. Soros was weeping and wailing about the damage having been done to Southeastern Asia through his antics, and thus and so. We offered to share with him in exchange for participating in bringing back stability to the area. Son-of-a-gun, you know what? He declined! JUST AS HAS MR. BUSH, ET AL.

Gee whiz, and they want to help so much—they say. At the present time George W. Bush Jr. and Secretary of State (U.S. of course) Colin Powell addressed the Council of the Americas—the group of financiers and corporate Elite behind the drive to expand NAFTA into a continental trading bloc. This is being well orchestrated by Bilderbergers such as David Rockefeller with the string-pulling. My goodness, readers, there is so much to share and so little time, I think the saying goes.]

William Engdahl: “Was steckt hinter den Währungskriegen des George Soros?” (What is behind the currency wars of George Soros?), EIRNA-Studie “Derivate—Die finanzielle Wasserstoffbombe der 90er Jahre” (Derivatives—The Financial Hydrogen Bomb of the 90s).

[H: Oh, by the way, the whole intent of this large American bloc which will eat up everyone in reach is to place everything under the “dollar”. You know that “dollar” which has NO VALUE, NO BACKING AND NO OPPOSITION!]

The influential chairman of the banking commission in the U.S. House of Representatives, Henry Gonzales, chided the Bush and Reagan administrations for refusing to prosecute the BCCI. In addition the Department of Justice repeatedly declined to cooperate in the Congressional investigations into the BCCI scandal and the closely linked scandal of the Banca Nazionale del Lavoro (BNL). This bank had made billions of dollars from loans that Bush had granted the Iraqi government shortly before the Gulf War. [H: CHOKE, CHOKE, CHOKE—AND FROM WHERE DID BUSH GET THE FUNDS? WOW, COULD IT BE: BONUS 3392-181? As a matter of fact, Bush and Saddam had at least one JOINT ACCOUNT with around $250 billion in its little account. When will you wake up, chelas?]

Gonzales said that the Bush administration had had a Department of Justice which he thought “the most corrupt, most unbelievably corrupt Department of Justice that I have ever experienced during my 32 years in Congress”. [H: And, yes, indeed, we did try to get Mr. Gonzales involved—but we suppose he chose to simply stay alive a bit longer.]

After the BCCI had been openly accused in the media for transgression of several laws, the New York prosecuting attorney Henry Morgenthau announced official charges against the BCCI. Morgenthau accused the BCCI of “the biggest banking fraud of the financial world. The BCCI during its nineteen year history operated as a corrupt criminal organization.”

One of the directors of the BCCI, the Saudi-Arabian Sheikh Kamal Adham, had been the head of the Saudi secret service during the time Bush headed the CIA.

[H: I don't want you to go away under the perspective that we somehow got no cooperation. WE DID! Our people found out how to deal with the Big Boys and even work out agreements—which we certainly followed to the letter of the instructions. Mostly in exchange for not naming the advisors. Among those contacts were some very high-level players who asked to not be identified. I don't mean just “little boys”; I mean players on an international level of the big loop.]

Not a single Western newspaper has so far uncovered the fact that the Rothschild group linked with George Soros was at the hub of the vast illegal network of the BCCI. The key person in these activities was Dr. Alfred Hartmann, the managing director of the Swiss branch of the BCCI (Banque de Commerce et de Placement SA), head of the Zurich Rothschild Bank AG and the member of the board of N.M. Rothschild & Sons in London. He was also on the board of the Swiss branch of the Italian BNL and was vice-chairman of the N.Y. Inter Maritime Bank in Geneva. A friendly former secret service man who had worked on the Soros case disclosed that in September 1993 Soros had amassed—together with a mighty group of “silent partners”—a fortune in excess of 10 billion dollars to use as a lever to unhinge the European currencies. AMONG THE PARTNERS APPARENTLY WERE THE LITTLE KNOWN METAL AND OIL DEALER MARC RICH [H: Now where have we heard about Mr. Rich lately, attached to Mr. Billy Clinton possibly?] AND THE ISRAELI ARMS DEALER SHAUL EISENBERG. For decades Eisenberg has been working for the Israeli secret service and has important arms deals in all of Asia and in the near East. A third partner of Soros is Rafi Eytan who before was the Mossad connection to the British secret service in London.

Basically George Soros is another tool for economic and political warfare in the hands of the Rothschilds. He is among those circles who three years ago started a malicious “Fourth Reich” campaign against the reunited Germany; Soros is very anti-German. In his 1991 autobiography Underwriting Democracy Soros warned of the danger that a reunited Germany could disturb the (power) balance in Europe. It is easy to see how the situation that existed between the wars could come up again. A reunited Germany becomes the strongest economic power and develops Eastern Europe as its habitat... “a terrible witches’ brew”.

His U.S. contacts put Soros very close to the financial and secret service circles around George Bush. His most important deposit bank and the main lender during attack on the European monetary system in September 1993 was CITICORP, America’s largest bank. Soros called upon the international investors to unhinge the Deutsche Mark. When in late 1989 a reunification became probable, a high-ranking Citicorp manager who before had been advisor in the Dukakis campaign said: “German unity will be catastrophic for our interests. We have to take action to ensure a decline of the Deutsche Mark by about 30% so that Germany will not be able to build up Eastern Germany to become the economic factor with a new Europe.”

According to his associates Soros has “an incredible ego”. He described how during the war in occupied Hungary he could not have survived as Jew, so he had taken on a second identity. What he did not say, however, was that he let a man shield him from persecution who did wealthy Jews out of their possessions, and that Soros lent him a hand. This is how he “survived” the war, leaving Budapest only two years after it had ended. Although he himself and the Jewish-owned media are quick in attacking all his opponents, especially in Eastern Europe, as anti-Semitic, his Jewishness is based on parts of the Talmud rather than on his links with Jewish religion or the Jewish people.

Outwardly Soros supports a whole spate of social activities, like “peace concerts” with Joan Baez, stipends in Oxford for young Eastern Europeans, etc.

But reality presents a different picture. Soros is personally responsible for the chaos the “shock therapy” caused in Eastern Europe after 1989. He foisted ludicrous draconian measures upon the weak governments there, which enabled him to buy up resources in wide parts of Eastern Europe and [at] rock bottom prices.

Take Poland as an example:

At the end of 1989 Soros organized a secret meeting between the Communist regime of Rakowski with the leaders of the then illegal opposition union organization Solidarnosc. The plan he presented to both sides was as follows:

- The Communists should let the opposition Solidarnosc take over the government to win the confidence of the people.

- Then the state should deliberately drive its own state industries and agricultural businesses to ruin by applying astronomical interest rates, by withholding the necessary state loans and by lumbering the companies with debt they could never repay.

- Then Soros would get his rich international business friends to come to Poland and buy up the now privatized state companies.

The most recent example is the huge steel company Huta Warszawa which today, so steel experts say, would cost about 3 to 4 billion US$ to build if it was built by Western companies. A few months ago the Polish government agreed to take over the “debts” of Huta Warszawa and to sell the company now free of debts for 30 million US$ to the Milan company Lucchini. [H: That’s the way it works, chelas.]

To instigate his plan Soros used a young friend, the Polish-Jewish economic advisor Jeffrey Sachs who however could not begin his advisory work in Poland because so far he could only show advisory work he did in Bolivia. So Soros set up another one of his many foundations, the Stefan Batory Foundation which then in turn was the official client for the advisory work of Sachs in Poland (1989/90).

In Soros’ own words he has worked or still works with the main advisor of Lech Walesa, Bronislaw Geremek, with General Jaruzelski, Professor Trzeciakowski, a secret advisor to the new Polish minister for finance and economy Leszecz Balcerowicz, and with the latter himself. Soros admits that he had known that his economic “shock therapy” in Poland would lead to severe unemployment, to the closing of factories and to social tensions. That is why he insisted that Solidarnosc take over the government. Through his foundation he could approach the most important opinion makers in the media, like Adam Michnik, and his collaboration with the U.S. embassy in Warsaw enable him to censor the media which proceeded one-sidedly to support his “shock therapy” and opposed any criticism.

What do you say now? Isn’t that the old Talmud-Illuminati strategy?

Russia and the CIS states:

Soros led a delegation to Russia, where he had been collaborating with Raissa Gorbacheva since the 80s, to set up a further Soros foundation, The Cultural Initiative Foundation. This is a further vehicle for him and his Western cronies to enter the highest political echelons tax-free and proceed to “buy” the most important political and economic personalities of the country.

After a failed attempt with Gorbachev 1988 to 1991 he changed over to the circles around Yeltsin. And again it was Soros who introduced his “shock therapy” aided and abetted by his friend Jeffrey Sachs.

From January 2, 1992 onwards Sachs’ “shock therapy” brought an unprecedented chaos and a foreseeable hyper-inflation to Russia which was followed by the best scientific research institutes fleeing to the West. Under the Soros plan Igor Gajdar and the Yeltsin government shortened subsidies to industry and agriculture drastically, despite all of economy being a state economy. The goal announced was a deficit-free budget within three months. There were no more loans for industry; the companies accrued astronomical debts and the ruble inflation went out of control.

Soros and his friends immediately profited from the situation. MARC RICH, THE WORLD’S LARGEST ALUMINUM DEALER, STARTED TO BUY UP A LOT OF RUSSIAN ALUMINUM AT INCREDIBLY LOW PRICES WITH WHICH IN 1993 HE PROCEEDED TO FLOOD THE MARKET IN THE INDUSTRIALIZED COUNTRIES AND THUS CAUSED THE PRICE FOR ALUMINUM TO PLUMMET BY 30%. This is just one example of the Soros exploitation.

[H: How many of you STILL think Bill Clinton just accidentally pardoned poor old suffering Marc Rich?]

Hungary:

When Istvan Csurka, parliamentarian of the national-socialist opposition tried to protest the destruction of the Hungarian economy by the strategies of Soros and his friends, he was branded an “anti-Semite” and in June was excluded from the governing Democratic Forum.

Yugoslavia:

At the beginning of 1990 Soros—in cooperation with the IMF—in what was then still Yugoslavia put down the gauntlet for what then escalated into a war. Soros is also a friend of the then deputy secretary of state Lawrence Eagleburger, the former ambassador to Belgrade and patron of Slobodan Milosevic. Eagleburger was formerly chairman of Kissinger Associates on whose board Lord Carrington (Committee of 300 member) also sits. The latter’s mediations have directly fuelled the Serbian aggression against the Croats and the Bosnians. Today Soros has foundations in Bosnia, Croatia, Slovenia and a Yugoslav Soros Foundation in Belgrade/Serbia. In Croatia he uses funds from his foundation to hire influential journalists or to discredit opponents of his “shock therapy” as anti-Semites or neo-Nazis. (From the EIRNA study “Derivatives”)

You see how helpful it was for the Jewry to have introduced the term “anti-Semitism”?

How long do YOU think it takes to change a world, reader? Then please, don’t be too impatient or hard on the crew doing the front-line march. It has been a somewhat painful journey at best.

RE: MESSAGE LOUD AND CLEAR, YOU GUYS CAN GO BACK TO SLEEP IF YOU WISH BUT PLEASE DON'T

GUILT LEVEL DOWN A BIT TODAY

We got another lesson on ABDICATION of the "we" kind and I am grateful, I suppose, that the teacher knows this student better than I know myself.

I take everything PERSONALLY and as if somehow I am not carrying my load, my trip, my baggage, or my responsibilities very well. I tend to, forgive me, take on everyone's "trip". I simply don't know what else to do. I have had a past which brings with it today the fact that if you didn't take on all of it, whatever it might be, it would not be done, accomplished or whatever the goal results might be. I know a whole bunch of people in that same "fix".

So, when I am drooping and there are questions flowing about my portion or responsibilities, I jump through the highest hoop available, especially if it be ablaze.

My biggest "dump site" comes with any contradiction or seemingly incorrect information which may flow from this keyboard for, yes, I DO know that if it is received objectionably by anyone I will get something like Rick Martin stated about several things: "It looks like Doris is having a tantrum...". I have a very strong tendency to not want to send some of the writings because I just don't want to hear it. I don't want anyone(s) to find need to explain, defend or find discomfort in anything.

I have to face my own GUILT in every instance, friends, and to you who are NOT friends, rejoice.

I am, yes, wounded but stronger. I can't tell you how actually relieved I was to not have to do "bread", spelta or otherwise, because I had no facilities. I can go further and actually admit in embarrassment that I did not want even one more job—especially a Spelta project. I further have to admit that from Manila I couldn't make anyone go over and check the electric flow to the confounded flourmill in Tehachapi.

I found myself weeping, literally, over the shutdown of SPOTLIGHT and actually felt like I would welcome a shutdown of CONTACT.

My only "outings" back in Tehachapi in those latter years before this trip was to go to COURT—somewhere. I actually welcomed a court hearing in Carson City—because I love Carson City and the drive was always beautiful, even in the snow.

After 14 years of writing one to four times a day, for HOURS, I simply get to the point of I don't care anymore, I am tired, put upon and totally fed-up with this job.

Worse, I don't WANT to save anything and certainly I am totally tired of FIGHTING to save anything no matter how tiny or insignificant.

Hours upon hours are spent here with people who have grown so dependent on us as to never have even a quiet lunch anymore. Some of the people want to get ahead a bit so they can move into this building so they would "always be available". Cmdr. says "No way. Been there and done that and it was a disaster!" We are able to use this place because "they" are NOT here.

I confess that this is not my idea(1) of spending our final few years.

Then, I shake my head and realize that it is EXACTLY THE WAY WE HAVE CHOSEN TO SPEND OUR FINAL FEW YEARS. EXACTLY!! What I then next realize that it is the frustration over not moving on MY schedule and having to go through the disappointments from outright lies to inability to produce because a typhoon has destroyed half of the Philippines.

As of last night everything on hold was claimed to be clearing enough to continue and there seems to be some backup to indicate that there is a possibility "for next week..."—as is always the case, either next week, next Tuesday, tomorrow and "sorry I missed my appointment and forgot to call you" to "Let's do a joint venture—you put up the money and I'll go find some gold...". Laugh now, it gets that ridiculous—again, just yesterday!

U.S. head of all military operations in this part of the world, Adm. Blair, is staying just across the street from us at the Intercontinental Hotel. Blair doesn't scare me—the fact that he is not popular with anyone over here frightens the daylights out of me.

This morning there was a "parade" of the most "hog" motorcycles I have ever seen. It went past our place then turned right to show-and-tell by the Intercontinental Hotel and it looked like something I would expect from "Mad Max". We don't know a thing about it but it didn't sit well on the ends of already frazzled nerves exposed to the oncoming monsoon right now as lightning struck within this block and the thunder sounded like it was in the computer in front of me.

E.J. and I both stopped and he asked me what I was writing that would get such a zapping and instantaneous reaction from the heavens. I owned up that I was trying to get out of the bread business but, instantly, as I have done before, I told God I didn't mean it, really. I also instantly agreed to make bread, take a hammer and pound spelt grain, write until my nubbies were more nubbed and said I wouldn't complain again. HE knew that was a lie and rumbled again in exasperation with "If not you—WHO?" If you don't want to do it, do you actually think others want to do the chores? Well, no, I'm pretty sure that NOBODY wants to do the chores, including me.

I do have some insight on quitting, however, GOD WILL LET YOU! HE will not, however, spare you an iota of GUILT-tripping at the moment or afterward.

I am very torn, friends, over such as Admiral Blair being here in behalf of the United States. I AM A CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND I WOULD FIGHT TO THE BLOODY END FOR THAT RIGHT AND THAT "PRIVILEGE". I DON'T EVEN HATE THE NEW WORLD ORDER—NOT EVEN A GEORGE H.W. BUSH, SR. OR JR.

AND ZIONISM IS NOT JUDAISM. I "HATE" WHAT HAS COME TO BE IN OUR WORLD AND THAT DOES INCLUDE THE U.S.A. HOWEVER, THE MOST HURT I HAVE EVER EXPERIENCED HAS BEEN FROM THOSE WHO CLAIMED TO BE PATRIOTS, FRIENDS AND ACTUAL PARTNERS. GEORGE BUSH HAS NEVER DONE ANYTHING TO ME EXCEPT INFER THAT THOSE EKKERS SHOULD BE READY TO RETIRE AND GO FISHING. I AM, I AM!

I don't want you people who do share with us to think us to be some kind of polly-goodie-two-shoes. WE SERVE GOD and in that service we do that which we can in honor, integrity and truth—no more. We have not been asked to JUDGE or participate in political anything—and we are prevented from doing, or attempting to do, anything FOR ANYONE.

The first thing we did when participating with "Grandma" was to go directly to George Bush Sr. and the entire bunch in Washington with Jr., immediately. We went to the Treasury as well, along with the Fed. Reserve, Greenspan personally, and the IMF and World Bank.

Bush responded through Commander Al Martin, that "I am not ready to deal at this time!" Well, we all heard it.

We were, however, offered by a Treasury Dept. honcho $250M to make the problem "go away". There was no way to make anything go away any more than we can make it "go away" now or ever. The contract was entered, registered and recorded. Besides, we all know to whom it really belongs.

I really can't understand even though I KNOW why, the powers-that-be are so all-fired nasty. It seems to me that this one positive thing on this globe is good for them as well as for the rest of us little slaves. I realize, of course, the answer to that is that the higher up the ladder, the less the players think of THEMSELVES as being SLAVES—but ARE!

Whatever the answers might be, we have the BEST guidance system. We can whine, complain, and beat ourselves up over the job at hand but it doesn't do anything but make us unhappy in the moment. I know, and I hope you know, WE WILL STAY THIS COURSE UNTIL THE COURSE IS REMOVED OR WE ARE. We have experienced enough here in these years to KNOW we have the real thing and are backed totally by the RIGHT REAL THING.

Nothing will happen to us if I refuse to make spelt bread and frankly, nothing will happen to us if we just turn in our tickets and call it quits.

I would guess that certainly Mark could produce a paper a week for the next fifteen years at least without even missing old Doris. After a while perhaps even "Dharma" might well not be missed.

Now, is it just "goodness" that keeps us keeping on? Of course not. We have to make this THING work because we have everything we have and are lying on this lifeboat. And, as long as my guide/teacher has faith in me, I can certainly keep hitting alphabet keys. And, friends, some of the things coming out of this keyboard would blow your minds, for they certainly blow mine. Cmdr. never gets us in trouble with some ridiculous fortune-telling but has provided step by step the very things and people we have needed—without exception. It is NEVER fast enough for us but in looking back we not only see it but are in awe of it.

We are told that this needs to bear fruit in the Philippines. Certainly, considering all things as a whole, it does actually make logical sense. If there were to be a 51st state to the U.S., it would be a grab for the Philippines. ALTHOUGH, the U.S. DOES NOT want the RESPONSIBILITY of what is left of the Philippines, only a right to use it as a bombing base, etc. Certainly, there will be no effort to “save” the Philippines as it is today. There will be token efforts involved with the hostage-takers and thus and so, and little token loans—but that is all, as the Nation itself sinks deeper and deeper into the muck.

Unfortunately, the U.S. itself as a Nation no longer controls itself. It is hook, line and now the sinker, into total bankruptcy to that very New World Order Banking Cartel. That is to the tune of trillions upon trillions of dollars. Is anyone brave enough in the government to break away and cut those bindings? Well, Bush COULD but it isn't likely, is it? On the other hand, the Bushes KNOW there is an alternative—but will they simply continue to preserve their own CONTROLLERS' interests to keep from uncovering their own prior indiscretions?

Where does Sir Henry Kissinger fit into this rag-tag operation? Well, he and his plunderers are right on the spot here in Southeast Asia stirring the pot. Is he doing this for the U.S. or for Mr. Bush? Perish the thought! GOD KNOWS THE END OF THE ROAD, NOT WE. I don't even know the name of the street that runs to the rear of this hotel building. I don't even know what to call this place, for it is not exactly a “hotel”—although it is used that way but all the rooms we have seen except the “just overnight” rooms have a little kitchen with a stove with oven (which does not work) and a refrigerator of varying grades of “pretty bad”. In our place there is a stainless steel sink in the kitchen which, in fact, is quite nice with mixed tile floors (mixed because of age and abuse) and with marble counters. This is not the run-of-the-mill room. Most of the kitchens are very definitely with chipped sinks of the 1930's variety and that ilk. We very definitely have an “apartment”. We don't know much about the rest of the hotel except that it all needs completely redoing and upgrading. Not likely the way it is and again there are rumblings about the “end” coming in or around December.

We had to have larger facilities, since we seem to do more business than the hotel. So, we had to have more space plus ability, NOW, to have a phone if we can ever get a line, etc.

The Coffee Shop crew got us four OLD stored small tables which act as pedestals for plywood slabs, the largest of which I covered with two matching shower curtains (dark green) with wine-colored trim. That is the computer base. The other is on the opposite wall and it is covered with corner-to-corner papers. Everything else in the room, on furniture, in closet, under tables, you name it, is filled with papers, papers and for goodness sakes, more papers. The thought of moving this time is more than I can even contemplate.

E.J. says I will go to any lengths to not have to move, even stay in Manila. Well, probably so, for in the moves back home I would have ended up in a puddle—for I could hardly get through those moves even being in Manila. I guess we would have struggled against the storm had we been there and yet I am now confident, GOD DOES KNOW BEST. We ARE DOING what we need to do and not back there arguing over the petunias. When we get this done, as we are continually told, we can get more petunias—THIS OPPORTUNITY WILL COME ONLY ONCE!

No one would have benefited from us rushing back to tend assumed circumstances and Federal raids which probably would have shut us down. We have this job to do and there is not even discussion about that fact. Here, doing THIS job is where we are at, FOR ALL OF US. And, indeed, if it needs be, I'll make bread as long as I have the mix with which to do so. I think God is trying to tell us that we CAN, if we have to, live on bread and water?

Just being in THIS place is proof enough that “upstairs” had a finger in the pie. We would never have even known to choose this place. It suffices for our living needs, is large so as not to feel like you are in a bathroom banging your head to get out.

Being on the top floor, there are glassed-in balcony areas BUT, one end is filled with sparrows all the time and the coolers are in those areas, so outside is “out” basically. It is never nice enough in Manila on the Ayala Avenue side of this place to consider being out or about more than absolutely necessary.

What I guess I'm trying to say is that the building itself could be redone and basically be a “Home Office Base, Manila” when that time comes and would also present a nice place for visitors, business “rotations” or whatever we Phoenix fledglings need to do. It has allowed us everything we “must have” to get our job done with ability to get across the street for e-mail, groceries, etc., at THIS end of the mall itself. Certainly, we have not yet missed having a car, for it would be insane to drive over here—and we aren't allowed away from right here anyway.

If we ever get to tour anywhere, I'm sure the most fun way will be to just get a tour bus and guide. Of course, remember, foreigners are told to not come over here at all. Right now the Abus have sent out their warnings that they are in the market for some new U.S. hostages.

It is also a place where kidnappings and murder are the run of the mill—even here in this “upscale” business center. One very important person you will have heard of, a Mr. Dacer, was kidnapped along with his driver, within blocks of us. Both were taken and killed and then burned.

Another game these “killers” have going is to dump a person in a barrel and fill it with cement. The body of course, still alive at onset of the cementing. Then, of course, is the going way of doing-in down South called “beheading” wherein the head is severed at the neck with the body put in one place and the head in another. It is absolutely amazing how difficult it is to identify a body with no head—or find a barrel of body and cement in the bottom of a river or at the foot of a dam. I wish I could say this is unusual but unfortunately it gets more and more “usual”.

Oh, well, the other place looming before us is Papua New Guinea where there is the tribe of native citizens who eat their kin when they die, assisted or otherwise, and spread “mad cow disease” whatever the human version is called.

Then come the tourist ads, just like in the U.S. for the Rose Parade in Pasadena. That only happens on New Year's Day but so what, it is a big draw in the ads. The ads make it look truly like Paradise here. The only problem is that the ads don't seem to mention the kidnappings from the most modern resorts on a rather regular basis. They don't tell you that you will find NO BATHROOMS on your treks to anywhere. And, when you find them you will immediately wish you hadn't. You go anywhere, even across the street, with a half-roll of toilet paper and handi-wipes of the anti-bacterial type in your pocket or purse. It is, however, all you DARE take in your pocket or purse.

Yes, I am writing this because we are continually asked about it and mostly by “family” because they worry. We tend our business, following the regulations, meet our visa extensions on time and without, frankly, fuss over the inconvenience. We are treated grandly everywhere we go, even to the market. The manager seeks us out and it is hug-time. Our little people here at this hotel get together to see how to make sure nothing happens “bad” to us and, yes, that may be because, barring total shut down, we intend to help the employees buy this building, rebuild it and we will lease from them. Change must start at home—and this is home. We will be able one of these days to do that—and by doing that we can have offices here as a permanent type of base and we will have ability to keep the laundry service, room services, kitchen (restaurant), etc., for the convenience of those using the facilities. It wouldn't cost as much as having extravagant offices in extravagant buildings elsewhere.

We personally do our own laundry. Sheets, towels and that sort of thing are with the hotel and thus “they” do that along with keeping the rooms “cleaned”. Never mind the term “cleaned”—but the intent is excellent and we don't leave much room around to “clean”.

I saw advertised a few times—and got—one of those hand “Miracle Wash” things that runs on arm power, but it is wondrous for this purpose for us. As I said, we do our own laundry because the service (well, you pay dearly for it) destroys the clothes after the second go-through and whatever they use as detergent, or probably the water itself, broke E.J. out in head-to-toe itch-rash. In other words, back to the cave days sans modern appliances. The water supply or heaters couldn't handle the load anyway.

This is not complaint time, so don't misunderstand. This is a wonderful place for us—if you have to be over here. We love the place and we love the people RIGHT HERE. Christmas is especially pretty and cozy with a huge tree in the lobby (which is actually just a nice sitting area perhaps the size of a double, large living room. The beams are visible in the ceiling so they are draped with greens and baubles to match the tree. And here it is July and time, already I suppose, to put up those things again.

All of the furniture in the lobby and everywhere is “rattan” and needs replacing. Everybody and thing is holding on as best they can until some “magic” happens to afford repairs and upgrading.

One of the MAJOR hotels recently announced a total revamping program in anticipation of the upsurge of business activities in this area. The week later it was OFF because they couldn't get a loan against such a foolish expectation. Now, friends, when that happens to be THE hotel in the whole city, you have a really big problem with future “investments”, and such.

Do WE doubt getting this accomplished? NO, NEVER. That is not ever at issue—only “when”. Perhaps we had to experience it in order to understand and I don't even have to leave my room to now understand. I can't believe even the New World Order considered this kind of national calamity to be very helpful to their cause. Even those nerds need water in the faucets, power in the lines—and for goodness sakes, something to eat in their fancy dining rooms. Or maybe they feast only on power and control and enjoy watching the people gladiate before them in their misery.

No, I do NOT want to fix it, for I cannot. And growing Spelta? Well, if we get this part of the job done, we can probably bring the Dingmans over to deal in Spelta growing. To get to there means we will also have funds to bring in equipment for the job—and certainly, willing hands just waiting to serve and build anyway they can are waiting right here and right now. Right now, however, it might demand “hazard pay” but that too will go away when potential changes for these people.

I am following along with whatever Larry King Live has to offer on the Congressman from Modesto and the missing “intern” in Washington, D.C. Sad? Well, I don't know because over here several girls a month are snatched right at their schools and disappeared. Some are held for ransom, most are sent off into the “White slavery” rings. So what of Congressman Condit and Miss Levy? I have no comment other than THAT IS WHERE WE ARE AND WHAT WE HAVE COME TO BE.

So, I say to myself that I should be home attending my babies, only to realize that I can't tend any such thing. I can't even change it there—what I do here may very well, however, change a lot of things for all of us, including those babies of mine and yours. This may well include my Willie, Tillie, Billie, Rosey and Ringo. And if you think I am trying to whistle in the dark to shore up my courage—RIGHT! Please laugh with me, or even at me, but please don't tell me I am “alone in this feeling”.

I am interrupted here; after being expected since morning, the people are here to plug in and hopefully make work, the new printer equipment.

This is E.J. to finish-off four hours later. The new printer experience is typical of all of our computer experiences. Part of it works on the first try. The rest will have to wait until next week for more a senior programmer to get the Brother Printer to talk to our Compaq laptop. In the meantime, we are no worse off than before with the expectation that, especially if we can get a direct telephone line installed, we will be much better able to communicate—e-mail and fax from here instead of going to the place across the street. The street crossing is a challenge. It is nine lanes wide and the light, when operating, is barely long enough to cross four lanes. There is a little narrow island, usually filled with trapped pedestrians, waiting for a break in the traffic to get on across. What usually happens is, when enough people get on the island, they all gang up and force the traffic to stop. About as frequent, and a lot safer, is when the whole street is grid-locked and the pedestrians just weave their way among the cars.

Doris made mention above of the improvement expected in the weather. We were expecting some gold to be brought in about three weeks ago but the typhoons messed up the roads—and the people can't get to where it is stashed. Maybe this week will see a break-through.

Love to all from the EEs.

UPDATE ON TOPICAL SUBJECTS

Hatonn—I know you are a bit hooked on Papua New Guinea and, yes, we have more “dragging feet” material but I need to not lose focus on the Philippines when we get perspectives from dependable but “other” outside sources. Therefore, I want to share observations from EIR from late May.

First, I want you to not only be aware that SPOTLIGHT has been shut down it seems. I will also note that even EIR, an expensive publication magazine, is running behind in deliveries due to lack of funding.

It is very difficult to buck the power-people and in addition, people get removed from the information flow—and it is amazing how quickly the very desire to know truth fades into the ethers.

As you read the following information you may well begin to better see the problems our team is up against every minute of every day. Also, it can be noted how little help we receive from anyone, even these closing publications.

LaRouche has opened, or established, an office here in Manila but it is very difficult on the face of it to determine if that is good or negative for us. Things have changed greatly from the days I asked to contact those people. We do not intend to lose any control over this project. These “leaders” of the level of LaRouche can't see anything beyond his own projections. Good for him—but he won't prevail in that egotistical mode. My own input is that he has been pretty much “neutralized” as to value or as to damage to the adversary.

This is a good article, however, and I ask to share it. [QUOTING EIR, May 25, 2001, pg. 60, “International”:]

BUSH ADMINISTRATION BACKS POLICE-STATE MEASURES IN THE PHILIPPINES

By Michael Billington

In January, reading from the same U.S.-authored script used to overthrow Philippines President Ferdinand Marcos in 1986, the Filipino financial oligarchy, the press, and the appropriately named Cardinal Sin, orchestrated mass “middle-class” demonstrations in Manila against the popularly elected government of President Joseph Estrada. The “anti-corruption” demonstrations provided a cover for a military coup, placing Vice President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo in the Presidency. Behind the overthrow was former President GEN. FIDEL RAMOS, who had also served as Washington's tool in the operation to overthrow the Marcos regime in 1986 and, at the end of his own Presidential term in 1998, had attempted unsuccessfully to change the Constitution to allow himself another term.

Then, in April, after deposed President Estrada was placed under arrest, hundreds of thousands of Filipinos, mostly from the poorest layers of society, mounted huge demonstrations in support of Estrada and against the unconstitutional January coup. On May 1, thousands of demonstrators marched on the Presidential Palace, demanding Estrada's release from incarceration.

The January events were described by the U.S. government and press as “democracy in action”, while those in April and May have been characterized as an insurrectionary plot, supposedly justifying the declaration of a “State of Rebellion” by President Macapagal-Arroyo and the arrest without warrants of the leading opposition figures, including three members of the Senate and other Senatorial candidates, even though the election was only days away, on May 14.

How can such police-state actions be defended under the guise of “democracy”? This hypocrisy is evident to all, and is haunting Macapagal-Arroyo and her backers. The uprising against the Ramos/Macapagal-Arroyo junta has been dubbed “EDSA III”—for Epiphany of the Saints Avenue, which commemorates the independence movement against Spain in the 19th Century, and is the site which served as the gathering point for the 1985 demonstrations against Marcos, as well as the January demonstrations against Estrada (EDSA II), and now the demonstrations defending Estrada and the Constitution (EDSA III). The brutal military crackdown on EDSA III killed six and injured more than 100. President Macapagal-Arroyo, on the day of the crackdown, speaking with the cocksure attitude of a little Hitler, told an emissary of Estrada: “Take your best shot. Come here now, strike now, so I can crush you.” [H: Yes, sure did. Thus far this is as good a general write-up as we have seen.] She warned the demonstrators she would “beat them to a pulp. Even the enemies of the state did not realize that this wisp of a girl can be tough.” She told the press that she had modeled herself on Britain's “Iron Lady”, former Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher.

Opposition leader Juan Ponce Enrile and former Ambassador to the United States Ernesto Maceda were taken into custody, while nine others were ordered arrested. Two of those targeted for arrest, Sen. Gregorio “Gringo” Honasan, a longtime opponent of Ramos and his circles, and former Police Chief Panfilo Lacson, went into hiding. Sources in the Philippines indicate that these two have good reason to fear for their lives. The new Police [Intelligence] Chief, Reynaldo Barroya [H: Just “transferred” out of that position yesterday.], was once successfully prosecuted, under Estrada's direction (as head of an anti-crime task force during the Ramos Administration), for complicity with the gangs that were kidnapping Chinese-Filipinos for ransom. Ramos later released Barroya from prison, just as Estrada was mounting his campaign for the Presidency.

However, just days before the May 14 election, under widespread accusation that she had subverted the elections by jailing her opponents, Macapagal-Arroyo lifted the “State of Rebellion”, and announced a “safe conduct” for the fugitives to come out of hiding, to campaign without fear of arrest. As the “offer” may not have been enforced by Police Chief Barroya, it was not accepted.

NO CLEAN SWEEP

Nonetheless, as of May 16, based on unofficial results coming in from the May 14 elections, all three of the Senatorial candidates charged with rebellion have been re-elected, along with the election of Estrada's wife, Luisa Ejercito. Although official results will not be in for several days, the attempt by Macapagal-Arroyo to gain a "clean sweep" in the elections, in order to legitimize the police-state measures, has been defeated. A more contrite President has now changed her tune, pleading: "Let's be united again. It's time for healing." Asked if that included the opposition leaders who face charges of rebellion, she said, "I'll pray on that."

What most frightens the President and her controllers, foreign and domestic, was expressed in a May 4 column in the Manilla Times by Herman Tiu Laurel (who often carries reports from EIR), entitled "The Situation Is Excellent": "EDSA III brought us a truly historic moment, and the country will never be the same again. Overnight, the nation realized: Philippine democracy has become a myth, the freedom and integrity of the mainstream press and media is a lie; the Catholic Church is of the rich and not of the poor... The military institutions are in a quandary. They have generals who kowtowed to a minority and withdrew support from the constitutionally established order, only to stake claims to juicy posts. Turncoat military officers and suspected rogue police officers are ensconced in positions of information and power. Civil liberties are threatened with warrant-less arrests. The Left is thrown into confusion as its popular symbols are defending the RAMOS-GMA [Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo] fascist regime from the masses." [H: I suggest that the ones in Manila re-study this information.]

Just as the idiocy and recklessness of the Bush Administration is forcing populations and political leaders around the world to re-examine their acceptance of Anglo-American dictates, so also the Philippine population is beginning to show that they can only be pushed so far. It is increasingly apparent that the nation has lost much of its sovereignty, that decisions affecting the welfare of the nation are being made in Washington—at the International Monetary Fund (IMF) headquarters, the State Department, or the White House. Was it mere coincidence that General Ramos was visiting with Bush Administration officials in Washington during EDSA III, while longtime ally of former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and "Philippines handler" Hank Greenberg of AIG was having tea with Macapagal-Arroyo in the Palace?

The policy of the Bush Administration toward Asia is a tired re-run of "divide and conquer" tactics. Blundering forward with destabilizations and the "confrontation of China" policy espoused by Administration fanatics around Paul Wolfowitz and Richard Armitage, Asian nations are being told, directly or indirectly, that they must "take sides" on the manufactured U.S.-China conflict. Australia has already sided with the United States, offering up its territory for the deployment of the provocative National Missile Defense being pushed by the Bush team. Those who resist such Cold War tactics are liable to get the Indonesia treatment, where the IMF has suspended support, while Western governments and the press are using the economic crisis to further aggravate ethnic, religious, and separatist tensions.

MORE OF THE IMF PROGRAM

In the Philippines, the Ramos/Arroyo regime is rushing to implement the IMF program for selling off national industries to foreign bidders, privatizing the electric power grid, and otherwise sacrificing the general welfare to the gods of globalization. On China, the new National Security Adviser to Macapagal-Arroyo, Roilo Golez, a longtime collaborator of knee-jerk conservative U.S. Rep. Dana Rohrbacher (R-Calif.), is orchestrating provocations against China over the contested Spratley Islands. Golez has reversed Manila's policy of engagement with China followed by the Estrada regime, declaring China to be "too close for comfort" and a strategic threat.

The extensive "Left" in the Philippines has been left in a quandary by the police-state measures taken against EDSA III, as expressed by Walden Bello of the Focus on the Global South, a guru of the non-governmental organizations. He reported in a column in the Philippines Inquirer that he had heeded Macapagal-Arroyo's appeal to call out his forces to defend her against the mob, but was most uncomfortable about the fact "that we, supposedly a mass party for the masses, were ranged against masses mobilized by almost millenarian fervor." As to the Catholic Church under the direction of Cardinal Sin, Bello admitted: "Recent events underlined how badly out of synch it is with the vast masses of Filipinos. Indeed, along with President Arroyo and former Presidents Cory Aquino and Fidel Ramos, Cardinal Jaime Sin was one of the principal figures of the so-called EDSA III's rogues' gallery," Bello concluded: "The traditional elite in this country is notorious for its lack of a truly enlightened faction, and with much of the political counter-elite consolidated around Estrada's bankrupt populism, a Filipino Franklin D. Roosevelt simply is not in the cards."

Ironically, there is in fact a growing movement in the Philippines in the tradition of FDR—that of the LaRouche Society of the Philippines, named after Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr., the founding editor of EIR and a Democratic U.S. Presidential pre-candidate for 2004. LaRouche's economic, political, and cultural ideas are spreading in the Philippines, supported by a weekly radio show in Manila, hosted by Herman Tiu Laurel, which interviews LaRouche or one of his associates from EIR each week. LaRouche has warned that the sovereignty of the nation, like that of many nations around the world today, has been subverted through foreign controls over the economy, and increasingly over the political process itself. To regain the nation's sovereignty, Philippine leaders must move outside the controlled local environment, to join with the emerging alliance of Eurasian nations, as represented at the historic Schiller Institute conference in Bad Schwalbach, Germany on May 4-6, to build a new world financial system and launch the development of the Eurasian continent as a whole.

The Philippines, as a nation itself shaped in part by the policies of FDR, and as the only Catholic nation in Asia, has a particularly crucial role to play in bringing about that new world economic order. The role of Pope John Paul II over the past weeks, in his mission of peace to Greece and Syria, "in the footsteps of the Apostle Paul", and in his defense of the "the common good" against the ravages of globalization, are in stark contrast to the policies of political intrigue and collaboration with the financial oligarchy carried out by Cardinal Sin. The policies of LaRouche, in conjunction with those of the Pope, provide the global framework for the people of the Philippines to regain their sovereignty and save their national heritage.

[END OF QUOTING]

Your question, first of all, is to ask if I concur with the very last sentence above. As a matter of fact, in this context I certainly do in both instances.

You might well come back at me with "but one is totally a religion and the other is iffy at best." Well, isn't everything "iffy"—and you need help to get to the right parties to help get this to the people who CAN DO SOMETHING. For instance, through this article Ekkers can know they need to get in touch pronto with several people named herein. A few will simply be a recall circumstance. Herman Tiu Laurel will, however, be well recognized by several people now in ongoing cooperation. The enemy of my friend may well not become my best friend, but I can certainly assume some measure of assistance when it serves both very well.

As to the Pope of the Roman Catholic Church. The facts are that we have several parties approaching the "Vatican" and who supposedly, in turn, asked for different sized documents—now also supposedly long on their way.

The point here is: THE PHILIPPINES IS CONSIDERED A ROMAN CATHOLIC NATION! The people are already now at odds with Cardinal Sin because of his political (and Communist) affiliations but he still runs the show. The alternatives in and around this area are interesting, indeed—one being El Shaddai, and Jesuits. Most of the Muslims are in Southern Mindanao. A lot of the people are INDIGENOUS AND DISLIKE EVERY ONE OF THE INVADERS. THEY CERTAINLY, HOWEVER, DETEST THE ROMAN CATHOLICS. NICE WORLD YOU HAVE BUILT, CHELAS.

The Congress is just about to be inducted and let us see how it shakes out as to "fall-out" from the political mess.

I will tell you right off here that things which were to have been delivered last Fall, WERE NOT and now we have to start again, from outside the loop so to speak. However, we don't start from "scratch" anymore.

Let us get all the help we can garner—even if we don't agree with the parties as individuals. We actually need to abort the next "coup" and destabilization underway here. We don't "DO" or interfere or even insert ourselves—but we recall some old acquaintances and circumvent others who have gone to sleep with the enemy.

It is truly recognized that we need to get information to these nations of the region in a serious way—but that is going to require someone who CAN DO IT. WE CANNOT! WE ARE UNDER FULL SURVEILLANCE AND SOMEBODY ELSE HAS TO "CARRY THE MAIL".

Not surprisingly, the connections through Mr. Laurel could open a lot of doors through people who have already walked through them at least once. Check it out, however, through Manila and some of the other contacts you have established.

Go right on forward with the collateral-location project, for we intend to remove all arguments as they rear their heads. Let other things unfold timely, please. I can't imagine that someone couldn't get within the inner sanctum of Indonesia, the closest neighbor as well as getting some support, even if from LaRouche, in Malaysia. Believe me, team, the Bad Boyz of the 'Hood do not want us in any way associated with LaRouche because of the Kissinger Associates Association. All the more reason to establish said cooperation.

That "New Silk Road" needs to be established across Asia and we need Allies. We need to start that Association (alliance) so that we can move on.

This is quite a short writing (for us) but it is important, indeed. Thank you for your attention.

SPOTLIGHT'S Closing Snuffs A Major Light

7/12/01—#1 (14-330)

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME!

Hatonn—If you practice such charity as might be considered an “assumed” responsibility while failing to meet your agreements and commitments AT HOME, you err, my friends.

When you overlook “family” in paying preference to others outside that loop, you are making grave mistakes. When the family is always the one to be caused to make contributions, even if it be in time usurped for another cause or person, you are extending your priorities to “others” and sorely neglecting your own responsibilities. IF YOU DO NOT DEFEND YOUR OWN, YOU WILL “NOT” DEFEND RIGHTEOUSNESS. IT SIMPLY IS THE WAY IT EVOLVES.

Can I use examples? Yes, but when we use personal examples we are called “dark”—and if I reproach anyone for better consideration of personal facts and perceptions, we always end up with some feeling personal affront and then usually seriously flawed perspectives result.

I find that it becomes more and more difficult to suggest things which “I” find necessary to take another step into laying projects and I get more and more responses as to why it can’t be done.

I can use an example that shouldn’t hurt anyone’s feelings: I asked for a bread machine for the use here in Manila to have SPELT samples to share with some of our agricultural “partners” before they get the land and go fill it with unsuitable plants.

A while back we did get a bread machine sent to us which was obviously broken for several years. Then a second one was pirated for a belt which now renders the second machine useless. The machine is now in a shop somewhere, totally useless while a belt didn’t fix it nor does the Philippines have parts for same.

So, Dharma smiled and said enough is enough, we can’t AFFORD another machine to have customs hold hostage. Ok? No, not OK.

So, where are we? Well, there are some 8 machines “somewhere” that belong to Ekkers but are obviously now stashed and difficult to locate and are probably separated, at best, from the instructions book. Also, there are no such things here in Manila as “mixes” and certainly not spelt mixes.

Next, it is “too difficult” to locate any of the machines and there is no money to get another one at the market. And, besides, the power was somehow off to the flour mill.

Surely, there was SOMEONE somewhere out there who would get a machine to Manila, even if on LOAN. There are NO facilities for Ekkers to bake anything, especially bread. They could make whole spelt and/or porridge but that isn’t feasible since they have no spelta and no way to practically crack it for porridge if they did have it. There is also a heavy-duty grinder in Ekkers’ “stuff” but we would never in the world dare ask for that item.

We can’t work like this, friends. We have to have office facilities, and now are to the point we have to run a phone line separate from the hotel into the room for there is too much load on everyone as is.

There is easily $150 in “copy” costs running now sometimes twice weekly and that is not even handy to the hotel as “in the hotel” and costs are cut to avoid the higher costs in the hotel.

We had to have another printer—we have literally worn out the one we have and they can’t get parts with which to fix it. Bless you, Two-by, a replacement is on order and it will also, if a phone is ever brought into the room, also allow for e-mail use.

I literally had someone ask what Dharma does since Hatonn does the writing, etc. (???) Every letter is put through these keyboards and I have bewildered people here.

The load is heavy back home and people are tired and need income and certainly some peace of mind—but if we have to close this operation down in order to attend all the other things, there simply is not enough Social Security to cover things, people. This does not in any way infer that people don’t help—but I think no one yet has a picture of the pressures of responsibility felt on top of the daily pressures of just working to get something done which ABSOLUTELY CONFRONTS THE NEW WORLD ORDER, IMF AND COMMITTEE OF 300 DIRECTLY.

And, yes, we have been the route of having others “help” with this program as to Deeds and other projects and, like the “African Lion King”, totally botch everything and then BLAME us for his insidious ignorance AFTER LYING ABOUT THE ENTIRE EPISODE.

Ekkers are no longer willing, nor am I, to go to any explanation to anyone, especially the Feds.

I ask you to look around, please. It seems the SPOTLIGHT has been shut down, EIR and the NEW FEDERALIST are in serious financial trouble and every Patriot press or program is in the same circumstances. When you are ready to give it up, readers, it can be accomplished in just a couple of minutes.

We too are weary of being under attack constantly. We are totally fatigued with begging and the ones carrying the load other than here are exhausted from the load. Nerves are frazzled is about the best way I can state it.

I gave Ron K. gratitude for marching ahead with business and honored him for assisting with the Paper and actually being in charge after the split. [MM: After the “split”, Bruce Tracy (Editor-In-Chief) and I were in charge of the paper. Ron at that time had no input regarding the paper, period. When Bruce quit (after six issues, I believe), I was in charge. Ron was in charge of paper layout, receiving the finished content from me (Princeton’s input included). If I had been given the publishing software (PageMaker 6.5) to download as expected when received by Bruce (June 3, 1999), I would’ve been doing the layout also at that time.] That complement was unacceptable to Mark who feels he did it all himself from conception [MM: Yes, “conception” being after Ron’s untimely quitting, commencing with the layout of CONTACT issue (Volume 28, Number 13) of July 19, 2000] to today.

This was a direct dispute to what “I” had just stated. I don’t mind contradictions but I’m sorry, people, I did not make a mis-statement. [MM: Nor did I.] Sometimes, friends, you make your own road too difficult to use.

When you can’t work together with that which we have left to us, then we aren’t going to make it in “that” arena. When there is no cooperation or allowance for sharing, we have problems and they don’t come from the enemies who split away.

CONTACT had dwindled to an unworthy offering prior to any theft of Young and Martin. Martin, in fact SAID he was going back home to get the paper under control. Joining in the theft isn’t quite what anyone had in mind. Ed Young was holding our writings, if pertinent, and putting more and more of the other material, after his editing, into the paper and that source has continued in their SPECTRUM. They did what they did, so be it. We must now do whatever we do.

Nobody “else” has to report on every last detail or centavo from or to that which is in their lives. But there is no privacy here—even to the depths of feelings within the souls. Nothing is private and a fax to a child, for instance, was circulated far and wide by that group of thieves. From Manila even a note to a grandchild has to go the route through the e-mail list. No, it is not fair, Dharma, but God is Good—not always “fair” in the moment.

Let me, however, show you what happens. Because the first few get a writing ahead of time for publication and things are discussed and needs presented, there is an assumption that the first receivers have to do the task presented. And, yes, usually it is to those we write from whom the response needs to come. What is difficult, beyond the funds which might be involved, is a seeming resentment of Ekkers’ own children. WHAT YOU DON’T KNOW WOULD FILL A THOUSAND BOOKS AND SOME OF THE THINGS WHICH ANNOY THE ONLOOKERS ARE “MY” DOING FOR REASONS FAR BEYOND WHAT YOU EVEN REMEMBER, IF YOU WERE EVER INVOLVED.

Mostly, it is from people without the vaguest idea of which they speak who do the loudest speaking. People can’t even do what I ask them to do for recognition of the bashing that will come back. It has ever been thus and it appears shall ever be so. This is the VERY concern we have to have regarding offering solutions to a drowning world. If it never is better than this as to mankind, Father, what then are we doing?

Well, Father promised and HE is keeping those promises, chelas, and that means WE WILL SERVE OR WE WILL GET OUT OF THE WAY. IT ALSO INDICATES THAT MAN IS NOW MAKING SOME PRETTY FINAL CHOICES AND YOU/WE HAPPEN TO BE “IN THE WAY” OF IT. “WE” are the couriers. Can we handle it? Yes—but we have to want to do so.

Sometimes, students, when the power is off—only the circuit breaker is turned off. So be it.

To my beloved team, I simply have to ask your patience; it is all that can be offered in any event. If we speak of things untimely, we have instant “BLOCK”. The way is treacherous enough—and if we only write of negative things and mostly about THIS project, it is because it IS THE project capable of making major changes.

I don’t care a whit, myself, if we just squeak through, for we owe allegiance to GOD (number one) and the project (number two) and then all the other things can fall into place. And, we have to stay the course IN THIS PLACE until we get the ball over the touchdown line. That must be MY focus and in that very order. We SHALL get it done and, no, if I could give you a “time” schedule, I WOULD NOT.

The Manila people just got another blow this very day when they went to pick up passports and visa extension which comes every other month. They are told that the year span for “leaving” the country to re-establish visa credibility NOW is changed from a year to every six months. So, before you turn twice around, the immigration is down your neck. No big deal except in inconvenience of a constant toothache variety and expensive in a very dollar-wise variety. The nearest validating country is China (Hong Kong). And if they are having a typhoon on your day for renewal, too bad for you! And today they are getting the residuals of the Philippine typhoon which just stopped dead our work for this week. I have already told you why that is so and there you have it. Believe me, Dharma doesn't want to even "hear" "Bread", Spelta, or "Let's write, please." Dharma made it to the lobby of this building today to go pick up the passports with renewals—the FIRST AND ONLY TIME IN MORE THAN TWO WEEKS. This is the amount of fun and games being had over in Paradise. E.J. got out of the block, further than the e-mail, once—and it was in a bulletproof armored vehicle. Ah, indeed, vacation in Paradise for sure.

Then when we take time to cover these topics, it is painful—for it seems negative somehow. YOU ARE NOT ROBOTS, CHELAS; IF WE WANT ROBOTS, WE WILL RECONSTRUCT THE PLAYERS IN THE NEW WORLD ORDER. Our work is for the HUMANS abounding on the planet and which it seems, EVERYONE forgets in the rush to the "me-central".

We are in a "time era" where the LIE is the way of life and living. When the truth serves better, the lie still is offered. I have told you, in addition, that everything within must evolve outward—and if you work on a project, you will have to work in opposition (directly) to that which the adversary has structured in order to seize the world and all in it. THAT is the game, not your druthers, not your beliefs, not your best wishes—this is the way of it.

Number uno PROTOCOL is to get control of the money supply and wealth—i.e., the value upon which money is based, usually gold. This is what Mr. Rothschild told you at creation of the world: Let me have control of the money—and I will control the world. I don't quote here because the quote is worse. But if Mr. Rothschild can control your money, which he does, HE CONTROLS YOU! Now, YOU think about it very carefully. In undoing that, we have to reverse that reality—DON'T WE?

SO, how do YOU intend that little task?

So, God provides a way, a method, based on value. Do you think Mr. Rothschild and all his bankers are going to smile at you who try to use it? No, they aren't smiling today anywhere around the globe. They are having to present distractions everywhere on the globe while they try to find a way out of their own mess.

Therefore, all of you should have literally wept with the final edition of Spotlight. A LIGHT went out. A major LIGHT was extinguished. Why? THEY DARED CONFRONT SUCH AS THE BILDERBERGS! AND, THEY DARED CONFRONT THE ADL. Now, all of the mailing lists, etc., will go directly into the hands of that very entity.

Should you all drop this program and rush to help Spotlight? NO. They can begin again because you do stick with the project and make IT work—then together we can rebuild in more careful protection, that voice of freedom and truth. At that time, we will, if we stay this course, be able to not only rebuild them properly in the protection of that which we have learned in doing good corporate business, but we will be able to afford to support, well, those writers and journalists.

I told you from the beginning of our journey together that we would have to have abundance without limitation to get this very physical job done. So, we must create that abundance and then we SHARE IT ABUNDANTLY. We don't have to wait the centuries that it required to build this prison of yours IF WE KEEP PRIORITIES UPPERMOST AT ALL TIMES

THROUGH THESE DAYS OF SEEMING HOPELESSNESS.

How many of you subscribers would continue to subscribe to CONTACT if Dharma closes the keyboard to me? WHY? Well, most of her dearest people don't even bother to read enough to get even the personal writings—you know, "Mother and Dad left and we never hear," go the kids and family members, while every thought and action flows to the world. And yet the feedback from even the readers is all but zero. The logical question is: Why are we doing this, Sir?

RESPONSE: BECAUSE IT IS GOD'S WORK AND WE AGREED TO DO IT ABOVE ALL ELSE THAT MIGHT IMPACT US. IT WAS A CHOICE MADE, A VISION GIVEN, AND LESS WOULD NOT SUFFICE.

I would like all of you to pause a minute at this point and think a minute: WHO ELSE HAS GONE THIS FAR? AND, YES, I INCLUDE "YOU". "WE" HAVE COME THIS FAR BEYOND ALL OTHER POSSIBILITIES AND POTENTIAL ON THE GLOBE TODAY. WHAT IS IT YOU HAVE TO HAVE, CHELAS? YES, I KNOW, SUCCESS! AH, BUT—WHAT IS SUCCESS? CHECK IT OUT CAREFULLY. GOD WINS EITHER WAY—BUT WILL "YOU" RECOGNIZE IT?

It is often, as now, that Dharma, for instance, will say to me: "Enough, just enough, to get the burdens cleared, my responsibilities met and the load gone for a while—just a while."

No, chela, NOT ENOUGH. Relieving just YOUR load is not THE answer, don't you see, even though that "load of yours" is encompassing bunches of you and yes, that might be a bit of success, but NOT THE SUCCESS. Just meeting those obligations you feel are yours does not feed the street children of Manila or Manchuria nor does it build shelters to cover their heads. THAT IS GOD'S SUCCESS! Do you understand just a wee bit better now?

Furthermore, who is it you want to read our paper? My goodness, you have the central headquarters of the New World Order, the various and sundry Intelligence agencies inclusive of the FBI, the IMF/WB heads of same and Heads of State in your various countries who would prefer you not accomplish this task. I would say on a worldly level—that is a pretty prestigious audience.

GOD'S DELAYS ARE NOT GOD'S DENIALS—UNLESS, OF COURSE, YOU DIDN'T MEAN WHAT YOU SAID IN THE FIRST PLACE!

Is it not yet clear to you that "I" stand between them and you? How do ye think ye survive? I WORK WITH/FOR GOD CREATOR—AND GUESS WHAT? AGAIN—WHO WINS?

To Wendell H.: Please recognize that we do not overlook your inquiries regarding the damaging frequencies going forth from the hidden-message music. Can you interfere with the frequencies? Yes, but you simply do not have sufficient apparatus to do so. It can no longer be handled in "just" a mental pattern. We have to change the "receivers" of said impacting noise. The frequencies are being broadcast already and the receivers are willing registers. Every positive frequency you send forth, however, touches or disrupts some of the energies, so do not be discouraged because it seems you get no massive feedback. Facts are that the manipulation is lessening already as people are getting quite BORED and into overload. That condition is both good and also quite negative—but when there is a better way to go, there is also ability to reach through to those receivers.

Will you, or CAN you, perceive that the greatest asset we hold in the Philippines is THAT WE HAVE BEEN HERE FOR THREE YEARS.

The first impression might well be that if it takes so long, is it really valid? My dear readers, if it were not valid would we still be here? THAT is the consideration. Lawyers by the dozens have studied this project which has never varied in intent from first presentation, except to become more secured for all, inclusive of the banks themselves.

How long can it go on, though? As long as it needs be. What is your big hurry? Most of you don't even want to talk about spelta and much the less about getting the weeds out of the fields. Great, what is it that you DO want? Is it just possible that you want GOD to do it ALL while you supervise your own priorities?

Well, if you can get God to do that FOR YOU, give me your secret, for I have had to work far differently during my rather extensive journeys through space and time, attitude and focus.

Now, Dharma can quit typing and everyone else involved can quit whatever they want to quit doing or not doing. But, I can guarantee if E.J. quits doing what he is doing—it is over. Why? Because there is nobody else to step into the role without gearing up.

Let us look at SPOTLIGHT. The adversary will end up ruining the day they closed that paper. They won nothing. The team will simply try harder and if enough people want freedom, the race has just been made worthy of the running.

I like to KNOW that if we are damaged, we come back stronger and in greater perfection in ability to recreate and serve, ever better and in learning of ways toward protection and in ways to allow for continued freedom within protection. Chelas, there is no place to run and no place to hide. There is now only being; running and hiding merits nothing. God has said it would be this way and so it has. Moreover, however, how damaged have you become? You haven't even "lost" anything until you QUIT!

If a man invests in the stock market—he has neither lost nor gained anything until he moves out and sells, quits, forfeits or walks away.

When anyone who participated in the Phoenix Institute says he/she lost, it is not correct. IT SIMPLY IS NOT CORRECT UNLESS THAT PERSON CHOSE TO LOSE SOMETHING. THAT TOO IS SIMPLY THE WAY IT IS. You have not even reached the line of consideration but blame anyway—and even then you blame the WRONG PARTIES.

That old saw about "Sticks and stones may break my bones but words will never hurt me..." is B.S. of the highest order. Words can hurt worse than any stick hit or stone received. Think about it.

Is this just another writing to somehow pull Dharma up off the floor? No, because Dharma is not the only one feeling distress and never-ending responsibilities. If you are alive, you have responsibilities; so, accept those which you can carry and release those which are not yours or can be shared. In this sense, words cannot hurt you. What another thinks of you, if you be true, IS NOT YOUR BUSINESS.

What none of you understand, for you do not KNOW, but you are far further ahead in this task than you could even begin to accept. If that is called "faith", good. However, it is not "blind faith" in some unseen energy—it is because the "seen" have done their jobs and the resulting "payoff" is getting closer and closer. What will you do then, chelas? Are you actually READY FOR SUCCESS? It is hard to stay up on that step, isn't it? Oh, well, make an effort and stop "trying".

Do "I" get "down"? NO, only in your distress. Remember that I can see both ends of the road—and, yes, indeed, GOD (our boss) actually does WIN.

Spelta: Perfect Grain TO SUSTAIN LIFE

7/15/01—#1 (14-333)

RE: THE "TIME" OF REVELATIONS ABOUT REVELATION

Hatonn—YOU: "BUT, WHY DON'T WE STICK TO REVELATIONS?"

ME: "WE DO!"

What you are really asking with a question like this one is:
"Why don't we get some NEW revelations from you, Sir?"

New REVELATIONS? There are NO new revelations.

There aren't "verifiably" old revelations. Your "Revelations", as prophecies, are writings which suited and still suit the "revelators" to achieve an end suited to their purposes.

Are you in these "times" as revealed by the ancients?
Yes—IF YOU DON'T DO SOMETHING MORE POSITIVE THAN IT SEEMS AT PRESENT.

Look around you as you have more and more instant reporting from around the globe in split-second communications. What is happening?

You have more and more immediate realization of a typhoon in Taiwan, floods in Bangladesh, wars in Macedonia and Palestine and even instant catch-up of hostages in Mindanao. You even have the latest non-news on a missing Intern in Washington, D.C., around the world in less than 5 minutes. Is it just possible that there have always been these things happening and you just didn't have access to that information?

Is it not also possible that you are fed what the supervisors WANT YOU TO KNOW? However, isn't it also a fact that some of it is valid and real information—even somewhat truthful?

Therefore, what do we consider in overall priorities if we put aside the personal distractions?
And THIS, without lessening importance of a missing Intern in Washington, D.C.

You have a focus on a Congressman, Condit of California, and "the" now infamous missing Intern.
To those persons this is 100% focus—but does it feed the starving citizens of North Korea? Which do YOU attend most quickly as you watch the news?
You will note that ONE missing child gets more focus than thousands of dying children in North Korea.

CHECK PRIORITIES

Why is there a famine in North Korea? Oh, yes, I see, it is because of drought, crop failure, too many mouths to feed, inability to trade back and forth with other nations—you name it. BUT,
HOW MANY POINTS ARE TRULY VALID? NOT
MANY. It also depends on what is taking place.

If you don't have rain, can't you irrigate? Of course, if you have source for same and delivery systems for same. But, worse, you have failure of crops which are staples of the area. People get just far enough ahead in their crop understanding to shift over to poorly reproducing species of basic crops.
This means that as needs increase, growing products are less and then finally failure of crops and on and on in the cycle of deterioration.

So, let us talk of hybrids and genetically-altered products.
It does not matter that you EAT genetically different products unless the product produces poison of some kind—it is NOT the genetically-altered genes that "getcha".

The problem IS, and now, look to the New World Order at work: When you have these altered stocks, you have no way to recreate your crops suitably. If the produced grains, for instance, are not actually sterile, they are poor at reproduction. And, if you can't get good seeds, you can't have good crops and if you can't get water to whatever you have, you can't produce harvests worthy of feeding the population of any nation and much the less contribute to the needs of others as in "trade" or "sharing".

As the people become weak and in poverty the cycle brings inability to attend the fields and there is no funding for mechanical apparatus to do the labor.

Where poverty is the worst, the food supplies are the poorest, especially in quality. The people sell what is good and try to live off the worst.

THIS is the terror and actuality of results of altering genes and hybridizing—NOT THE EATING OF SAID PRODUCE.

If you can control the reproduction of foods which form the very foundation of food intake, you control everything IF you also control the MONEY necessary to buy worthy seeds and supplementation needs.

The public will get behind allowing genetically-altered foods onto the shelves, calling it "possibly" bad, while the facts are that many of the alterations make the food FAR BETTER as a nutritional resource.

SO WHY HARP ON SPELTA?

It is all but impossible to hybridize spelta grain. It is very difficult to hybridize lentils. These are just two examples. Spelta was the first recognized food grain on the planet. That does not mean or say: wheat.
Therefore, wheat was actually a hybridized plant at its own beginning. Likewise, many of the other basic food crops and certainly all your orchard fruits and nuts.

Finally, however, you have reached a point whereat your hybridized plants reproduce poorly or not at all.
This ensures the companies who supply SEEDS get a corner on the global seed business because farmers can't use their own harvest to plant again for NEXT SEASON.

If you grow Spelta, which is a very flexible grain plant, you have a lot of things going for you, even if not major quantity harvests. That quantity depends on many things but you will not produce inferior product. A Spelta gain might well be smaller than in a good year—or there may well be less harvest—but the product will have the same nutrition values, for it simply is the way of it.

It has less gluten than wheat, so there is not the fine finished product from the bakery oven—even though the flour of Spelta is a bit sweeter and by far more nourishing.
In fact, it IS the perfect grain to sustain LIFE.

The greens are superb for animal feed and the cracked grain is excellent, as well, for domestic feed. Furthermore, the grain is so strong and self-protected as to protect the grain itself even from high levels of radiation. The hulls provide the best insulation material of ANYTHING on the globe.

The grain can be stored without deterioration for centuries if you can gain vermin-proof, dry storage facilities.

The grain is an ideal crop for "dry" farming.
It was THE crop of old Sumar and all through the so-called "Holy Lands". So THIS is why I "harp" on Spelta, bread machines/mixes and let's get started right in order to AVOID the miserable cycles of starvation which follow international chosen SANCTIONS of nations against nations.

Rice has become more and more difficult to raise in abundance for many reasons—but poor seed quality is among the primary causes. Next you have a processing which leaves basically empty food product. The processing pulls away the very parts of the grain which actually sustain life, prevent Beri-Beri and allow for other system nutrition. You are killing yourselves—for a cup of empty rice in the belly might feel better but is of little nutritional value. Whole spelta will sustain life in maximum nutritive grain value.

Since spelta was always a basic "dry farming" crop, it flourished on regular dry spells. It was planted in the Fall and wintered to grow then the next Spring, so its maturing cycle is long in your world of several crops per year from hybrid crops.
So, if you don't get started NOW, you will not have what you need when you already need it.

Will typhoons ruin the crops? Yes, if the fields are washed out or have long-standing water—just like anything else under water for an undue period of time. It will, however, withstand winds better than wheat or corn or the other grain crops—except rye. Even better than barley.

If you lose your season as to grain as the finished harvest product, you can turn the domestic animals onto the fields for pasture as the greens are even better than alfalfa.

Will it grow in the tropics. OF COURSE—
EVERYTHING GROWS BETTER IN THE TROPICS, EVEN NON-HYBRID FRUITS WHICH DO BETTER IN WINTERING CLIMATES, SUCH AS APPLES.

The larger problem in the tropics is keeping down the pests—and here you have spelta again filling the best position in insect resistance.

Why don't you have this and other product crops of which we have spoken prior to now and over and over again? Because the Big Boy Bankers DON'T WANT YOU TO HAVE THEM!

Where would spelta grow well otherwise in, say, the Philippines as now presenting? Right up in those falling-apart rice paddies, in the famous rice terraces.
Furthermore, with good equipment the terraces can be improved and those large destructive earthworms turned into assets rather than destructive liabilities.
The two things would form a symbiotic relationship worthy of nurturing. It could save the terraces and later there could be excellent crop rotation.

Lahar (volcanic ash) could be utilized to enrich the soil as to mineral supplementation. This could also allow for root crop and legume rotation of fields. Those volcanoes are also the source of LIFE, chelas, not just a rain upon you of death, fire and destruction. To grow good crops you must have SULFUR supplementation—and there is no place on Earth that presents more sulfur than active volcanoes. Volcanic ash is rich, as in "rare earth" minerals. God provides incredible diversity of industry and natural resources if you but realize it. And, no, you do not need longer have the harsh circumstances of harvesting sulfur as in those old favorite Biblical times.

In addition to these values, places like the Philippines with her volcanoes offers full potential for geothermal power production of a massive scale. Neither do well-managed dams destroy the rivers but rather can enhance them. It depends, totally, on what you are willing to do, friends. If you just SIT while waiting for wealth and prosperity to overflow you—YOU WILL ONE DAY BE HUNGRY!

Oh, but you need funding? So be it. We have it and can't even GIVE IT AWAY! Humans are interesting aren't they?

Oh, yes, and by the way, spelta "cake" or pellets make excellent, near perfect in fact, FISH FOOD and on a more important scale it would seem: pet food for animals from birds to beasts. Oh, well.

This is why, however, I tend to nag you to stay at the farm, for that is where our seed spelt is located. When we have abundance we can have it cleaned to insure no undue infestation and ship it for trial plantings. But that is out of the question at the moment. But we can use a lot of bread mix here even if we only have one machine. I would hope when Diane has better interchange with her new employer that the advertising will pick up so that there is a major demand for the flour and mixes. You don't have to have a bread machine to make bread—but Ekkers do, in Manila, because other facilities are not available.

You who choose to use the bread-making apparatus or handmade product, use honey or simple syrups for the yeast fuel (sugar) and butter as the oil additive (there are products in BUTTER that are not available in the other vegetable oils which bind with products in the spelta flour. But that is for another lesson.

If you will get a little spelta book published a few years ago, and get it to us, I will ask that a write-up again be made, for no one can seem to locate the one we offered long ago on the topic as we got into the spelta production. Dharma's problem is lack of scientific labels, food contents, etc. WE MUST ALWAYS REMEMBER TO NOT OVERSTEP ANY BOUNDS REQUIRED BY THE FDA! IT IS SIMPLY NOT EFFECTIVE TO SAY: "HATONN SAID...". If you meet a Federal Raider, just ask him about it.

I remind all of you that you could LIVE NICELY on spelt bread/toast with a bit of BUTTER, good water (boiled and filtered to get rid of any possible parasites) and Melloram—a couple or three glasses a day with the bread. Add a few dishes of beans, preferably lentils or Adzukis—and you could live indefinitely during a famine or hardship period. It would, yes, get boring but if you provide for stock, chickens, etc. you will be quite fine.

If you have stored other products in well sealed containers to finish out a very basic "diet", you can make it, friends. And, if you would use these products and less of everything else you stuff into your face, you would certainly be far healthier. Spelt will actually enhance the immune system beyond expectation. Add some edible algae as supplements, take your Gaiandriana and you are going to be feeling better right away.

No, I DON'T expect you to give up your junk-food junking. It is a foolish person who would expect that, so we have to work around that new-found addiction. Of all the things I am, I am aware of your readily imposed self-abuses.

When our own team, however, can't see a "way", it is truly difficult to face this gargantuan task.

And, yes, any distraction from what is being attempted in, for instance, the Philippines, is a KNOWN setback in the project itself. First, people must GROW before the spelt will be grown. Mention spelta to even health store people and they are totally without recognition. They will ask if it is a new grain of some kind? No, the oldest on the Earth—BROUGHT BACK FOR YOUR USE AT THIS TIME OF HISTORICAL EXPECTATION FOR HUMAN SURVIVAL/GROWTH.

It goes right along with Gaiandriana and the "drias". God has sent you BACK SOME MIRACLES FOR YOUR USE—but the true miracle is to get YOU to even consider using them. Stop blaming God for everything and get off your assets and see what FUN you can have.

You can, for instance, use Spelta flour for cookies and heavier cakes but mostly you will not enjoy it unless you have tried-and-true recipes. It is drier, more granular and generally not as pleasing except when extremely fresh out of the oven. In other words you will have lots more "crumble" to the cookie and that is simply the way of it. Moreover, why would you do that while you have wheat readily available to tempt you? I have a theory for you people: If you are going to indulge in junk food—really enjoy with the best you can get and satisfy self. It is like groveling—if you must do so—do it well and REALLY grovel.

Self-flagellation may serve a need for some on a trip in public to some cross or another for show-and-tell—it is neither a pleasant nor productive thing to do. When you feel like doing such a foolish thing or making sacrifices to the gods requiring blood—stop, look and go paint someone's house, fix their roof, wash the walls, sew a shirt, mend the socks or do something which makes you feel pitiful to self but helps someone ELSE. It will help SELF more than you can ever measure. Ah, but—do it without expectation of reward or return but because it is the right thing to do. Beats a self-beating every time. In fact whapping some yeast bread dough around can do wonders for you. There is little WRONG WITH YOU except pure boredom and total frustration. YOU know it and I KNOW THAT YOU KNOW IT.

GOLD TRACKS

Will our Phoenix Project have anything to do with actual gold handling? Probably not as you think of it—but, yes, as I think of it.

The problem in places like the Philippines where gold is stashed hither and yon for protection of same, even into the dark and land-mined caves, it needs special handling. It MUST be processed at least to the extent of branding it and presentation of, at the least, a rough assay. This means there is a need for production of the product and the people. The banks have so consistently CHEATED the people and discounted to the point of disallowing business. This means that there have to be flow lines for the collateral backing of GAIA which offer full value, or better, and security.

A processor needs facilities for melting the metal itself and marking the bars properly as to weight, karat rating, etc. Our processor can handle, in our perspective, a lot per day—but as is, not enough. So there will be need for "gearing up" to handle more flow-through—while at the same time working a program with the banks themselves. And, yes, we already have people (well, a person) within our own team back home, who could oversee that operation and thoroughly enjoy the processing experience. Then as shipments become available, some of the commodity will be shipped out to other places, including the Native Nations of the Americas who are on Sovereign Territories. Possibilities are INFINITE, chelas, but few people are persistent or patient enough to accomplish their own dreams.

Will this break through in the Philippines? It will or as the saying goes: Use it or lose it. Sometimes, readers, it is far harder to accept freedom than the known continuation of slavery.

As to reading the prophecies, why depend on some interpreter of such, as Nostradamus? There is no way to interpret that which is only in the MIND of another.

If you are shooting off rockets where two out of three FAIL to hit their targets, you don't really have much of a defense system, do you? This is especially true if you are threatening long-distance space aliens—who NEVER MISS. Moreover, who can hit you with power that is not missile-material to be blown up by impacting it. YOUR ROCKETS ARE WORTHLESS AGAINST LASER WEAPONS OF ADVANCED "ALIEN" MANUFACTURE, OR ESPECIALLY, ALIEN "CREATION".

You of Earth are getting set up for the war so that economies can grow—remember, there is money in war! People get so distracted that they don't even notice they have been slain by the big bad wolf right in the dooryard or local bank. Anyone who thinks George Dubya Bush can't declare total military war or control is dreaming on the wrong rainbow or wishing star. WHO IS GOING TO STOP HIM? Congress? They are the ones who have provided his very right to act. Yes, you know, just like the one who is missing the Intern.

Politicians are NOT funny, friends—THEY ARE YOUR VERY EXECUTIONERS.

As we write here: You are experiencing droughts, floods, earthquakes, mudslides, tornadoes, typhoons, famines and failures of all sorts. What more do you need regarding PROPHECIES?

Look and you will see that obscene and pornographic papers are allowed to continue as "freedom of the press/speech" while a paper like SPOTLIGHT is forced into silence and demise to hide truth and prevent that very freedom in your Constitution. You get God out of the schools and courts while your Constitution SAYS: One nation under GOD. And you go dancing (gyrating) to a noise box, drink and make merry—or Mary, whichever shows up first.

Does this please me? No, but that is your business, not mine. If you think so little of self as to demand this kind of "relaxation" and "pleasure", how dare I suggest worthy work to allow your enjoyment on a continuing basis? You will do whatever it is you choose to do—and it will be for SELF, so please do not lie and tell me otherwise.

I repeat and repeat and repeat: TRUTH will not set you free—for freedom requires action. Truth is the first key—no more or less. Once you know truth, why then, don't you move to do something or open the way for those who have the solution to come through?

Yes, indeed, I will keep right on writing about what is wrong—while offering TRUTH—for man learns slowly it seems, and moves even more slowly. People will "rally" to overthrow a government which means one politician over another—but few will actually rally to bring truth and realization—even when it is right before them. I find that quite amazing but a continuation of how it always is.

Everybody wants a job? No, not at all. Only if there is not other way to "get", do they want to work. If they can't get through graft, corruption, petty crimes or handouts, then they will consider work if you hit them over the head with a job. Mainly "handouts" are the joy of the day Not a bit of charity do I speak—I speak of welfare, getting something from someone else, i.e., the Marcos treasure handed out to "we-the-people". We-the-WHO? Ill-gotten wealth? What is this old operation under way for these years since 1986? Human-rights violations? What human RIGHTS? If you question these people claiming “human-rights violations”, they can’t even give you an answer—and without the politician’s opinion will have no two responses the same.

It is as the holocaust “victims” claim to whatever. There are more claimants than there were “so-called” victims in the world. Nobody seems to even notice! And STILL you wonder what is wrong—and why they should have the “get” and not you. I observe the “getters” somehow getting from the old Nazis when the Nazis WERE THE MASTERS. It is spelled AshkeNAZI. Where were YOU when the “holocaust” came down? When people think of holocaust these days it is only something out of Spielberg’s Star tales. And note that the poor deceived are always “Jewish”. And yet, no one who is not a “Jew” may have the privilege of even using the term.

In fact, to you who continue to deal with the “holocaust”—WHEN, EXACTLY, WAS IT? Let’s see, the Pearl Harbor Japanese “thingie” started on December 7/8 (depending on your location on the globe) 1941. Off the top of your head, YOU, READER, give me some dates and things, times and who was involved? All of it was financed by the SAME INTERNATIONAL BANKERS but what else was taking place?

Do you have an answer because you know facts and have done research or experienced—OR—do you “think” you know something from watching Schlinder’s List? Mr. Spielberg made that movie and SAID it was FICTION. How did it then become a documentary of “non-fiction”?

“History” is what you are told IS HISTORY—after a total revision/rewriting of same. When truth comes forth after the fact, it is called “revisionist” to maintain the lie and bury the truth. And, yes, it is always the same Satanic base of presenters. And, no, they certainly are not all “Jewish”. Very few, in fact, are even related to “Jewish”.

You will come to see that “Jewish” or “White” or “Black” doesn’t mean a confounded thing. There is goodly or evil “intent” or “practices”. This indicates roughly “Godly” or “Satanic” and that resides within the very essence of individual man, woman or child. And the attitudes come from BEING TAUGHT the attitudes themselves. Even a babe in the womb hears every attitude expressed around and about him.

I will close this with a little tale which was observed this week: A young woman wrote to a “help” column. She was 16, in love and now betrothed to a 20-year-old male. Problem? The family was fully against the relationship. This is not because the child was only 16 but because “she is Catholic and he is a born-again Christian”. Advice given in the column? End the relationship instantly, it will never work because these are “differences” which can’t be overcome? Catholic? Christian? Are we possibly MISSING something here in the so-called belief of said churches? Is CHRIST not supposed to be a part and parcel of BOTH? If you honor the “Virgin” Mother, is there not something missing if you dishonor the son? Is everybody nuts? Possibly!

God bless you all, chelas, for you have come about as far as you can with these attitudes. Why not just crucify them both and end the misery?

I love YOU, but I do not relish this job any more than do you.

POSTSCRIPT: THERE AREN’T ANY NEW REVELATIONS—ONLY THOSE YOU DON’T YET PERHAPS RECOGNIZE.

Hope For Saving Our Civilization: Restoring A System Of Good Ethics

7/16/01—#1 (14-334)

LIFE IS UNFAIR BUT GOD IS JUST

Hatonn—Let us not confuse things by mixing mud with snow not yet on the ground, chelas, lest you end up with muddy rain.

It is not EVER that God is either unfair or is SHE/HE/IT unjust. Shake your brains awake now, please: GOD IS! AND, FURTHERMORE: GOD IS GOOD! I did not make an error in using that term a few days ago.

So, is Satan then a “bad” dude? Surprise: SATAN “IS”! Moreover, Satan works totally THROUGH mortal, manifest, physical MAN. (Man is a generic term for human.)

Therefore, we need a bit of a refresher course on good vs. evil and God vs. Satan. We will then have to take up the topic of “Creator-Creation”, won’t we?

Just as the Protocols of Zion are the guidelines for taking and controlling the world, the goodly commandments are for living in such a way as to find SOUL righteousness. Neither thing “makes you do anything”. YOU make your choices and those choices are made through the data information you hold to make those options upon which you decide. Always, the responsibility rests with YOU.

When someone pronounces that another is somehow “tinged” or has become “dark”—what is meant here with this indictment? Well, for one thing, it MEANS NOTHING except that someone is ranting on in ignorance one way or the other to deliberately deceive. Even if the edict or declaration be true—and the pronouncer thinks he knows, WHAT DO YOU KNOW? Right, you are thrust into assuming what the speaker says to be so. THAT IS ALMOST ALWAYS NOT TRUTH YOU HEAR BUT “OPINION” BY SOMEONE WHO IS SURELY WORKING “ON THE DARK SIDE”. This is proven by anyone who pronounces a person, receiver, or speaker to be a LIE but continues to claim same for SELF. Remember that life is unfair but God is good. In that fairness and in that goodness you will be allowed your own discernment and, yes, you had best CONSIDER THE ACTIONS. BE CAUTIOUS OF ANYONE WHO DENOUNCES ANOTHER WHILE ACTUALLY “ACTING” IN UNLAWFUL WAYS HIS NEW PROJECT TO ACQUIRE WHILE DESTROYING THE THING AND PARTIES FROM WHICH HE STEALS.

I have terrible news for you who just drift along on total assumption of what you are told without actually finding any facet of truth—you err. THE WORLD IS MADE UP OF MANIFEST DARK ENERGY FORMS. YOU CANNOT LIVE IN THIS WORLD

WITHOUT BEING IMPACTED BY DARK ENERGIES OR NEGATIVE ASSUMPTIONS. THIS IS CALLED EVALUATION AND PROCESSING IN A MORTAL WORLD. IT IS AS NECESSARY AS BREATHING.

Each human “being” (be-ing) is exactly what it says: BE-ING whatever he/she might be at the moment. And, recall now: you only HAVE the “moment” being experienced. The past is a memory; the future not yet presented. LEARN FROM THE MEMORIES; ANTICIPATE THE BEST IN THE FUTURE POTENTIAL. THIS MEANS THAT YOU MUST LIVE THE “NOW” BECAUSE THAT IS ALL YOU HAVE—SO CHOOSE YOUR THOUGHTS, DESIRES AND ACTIONS AS 100% WHAT YOU “ARE”.

This is why I have often said that God doesn’t care what you were—HE only notes what you ARE and waits to see what, actually, you WILL BE. That is called “INTENT”.

This would indicate that once you do something, i.e., mail that letter, e-mail that note, print that thought, speak your words, act your acts—it is set into historical journals. This is an act of commission of a physical act drawn from an intangible thing called “thought”.

By the way, good people, God is not the only one who can read your thoughts. Your THOUGHTS, TODAY, “can” be not only “read” by recording devices BUT, INDEED, PHOTOGRAPHED. This is not NEW! This was a photographic process being worked through for Sipapu Odyssey filming by no less than Wally Gentleman. I gave him the information, so you can perhaps see the loss YOU have gained by his untimely demise. From direct “thought” the frequencies are first coalesced into energy into a holographic image which can then be manifest and captured on film. Interesting? No, not very, unless you still think it is all somehow “magic”.

There will come the day where motion pictures can be totally done by thought projection. It can be DONE NOW. BUT, guess what, the problem comes with use of various persons who feel their images are somewhat individual, i.e. Julia Roberts, Robert Redford, et al.

Be careful about the movies you witness, chelas. This is ALL you get when you attend a motion picture viewing or a TV program—peoples’ thoughts made manifest and sent through energy frequencies and spectrum colors to a box or screen in your locale. This is why it is so easy to fool all the people almost all of the time!

Yesterday it is said that the U.S. defense-shield rocket hit a projected missile out there somewhere. It was a successful hit, you are told, like a bullet hitting a bullet. WHO SAID? WOULD YOU IN YOUR LOCATION KNOW WHETHER OR NOT THEY “HIT” OR COULD YOU JUST BE VICTIMIZED BY MORE HYPE AND GARBAGE?

I CAN promise you one thing—that puny game is about as useless as that old funny about the lady flapping her bedsheet at the Moon. You can’t TOUCH an incoming anything from outer space as in “alien” projectile because it wouldn’t be a projectile but only a projection. Moreover, both the Russians and the Chinese have allowed as how the U.S. has broken the treaties and, therefore, they will have to gear up with “multi-headed” missiles. These are pretty deadly games, people.

YOU ARE A WARRING PLANET AND COSMIC BROTHERS DO NOT WANT YOU IN SPACE-COSMOS.

You can prepare RIGHT NOW to be saturated with movies and TV show-and-tell about “aliens” and “alien invaders” of the most miserable kind. It is scare-you-to-panic, good viewers.

So, what do you want me to do about all this? Stop it, did you say? I DID NOT HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH STARTING IT AND YOU HAVE FREE WILL CHOICES TO BE AND DO WHAT YOU WILL. THE BEST I CAN AND SHALL DO FOR YOU IS PROVIDE THAT WHICH YOU NEED TO CHANGE THINGS.

I do note, however, that many of the terribly horrendous things which seem to be gut-wrenchers are actually the very tools which will make it quite easy for goodness thoughts to be transmitted. These systems, even the early-warning systems, are already in place, along with the mind-control networks as established. Those are the VERY THINGS we can utilize in a far more advanced system and frequency range than you even recognize.

We have another ace in the hole, friends; we can cut off every electronic system on your globe in one circuit breaker switch.

When that sort of thing happens, chelas, planes don’t fly, subs will sink, communications systems will be dead, no lights, no electric thing will function. Aliens in advanced cosmic presentation will simply “UNPLUG” your circuits. Probably, in addition, you will lose your data storage capabilities.

Can anything be retrieved? That depends on several things and higher INTENT.

Now isn’t that a good prospective time to withdraw holding beams from the fault lines, unplug the volcano next door, and let the weather go its way instead of being shoved around by the controllers?

I don’t think any of you think BIG ENOUGH.

Would the Big Controllers go down? Well, it is finally a fair game, isn’t it?

Remember that people pray for HELP constantly and these are goodly people who CARE about MANKIND. However, as to cosmic possibilities—shudder now and DIG OUT YOUR JOURNALS. WHEN YOU TURN YOUR WEAPONS OF DESTRUCTION ON THE COSMOS—YOU HAVE MADE A VERY, VERY LARGE MISTAKE. It is rather like the ants thinking it worthy to take over the anteater’s den. It simply is NOT wise!

A lot of this technology is being under experimentation right in California, U.S.A., and other places where large segments of area are put into blackout mode. All of THAT kind of game can already be totally controlled from your satellites. Surely, you didn’t think all those satellites were just so you could see Sex in the City, did you?

Is this a “moral” discussion? Why? Are you concerned somehow that if you don’t know truth—it is still your “right” to pronounce right or wrong intent? I am telling you “what is”.

Dear friends, “morality” is not simply action; it is indwelling belief in honorable things, actions, and thoughts.

By the way, students, the very point of lessons is not to have to repeat them—but I find that lessons unlearned far exceed those learned the first time around. My suggestion is to never cease to learn and I recommend that you be bigger than your problems in knowing, then you will be given nothing greater than your ability to bear—or to learn. There is nothing of a mystic nature herein—only possibly a mystery or two. But I remind you that the fairest thing you can experience is the “mysterious”. It is the fundamental emotion which stands at the cradle of true art and true science—and truth itself. And yet, mystery is only mystery until REVEALED. Revelation is that which finally is perceived and experienced in REALITY.

What happens along about here in your journey is that you will be manipulated with great wisdom from self-proclaimed “wise” individuals who put themselves at least on a level of the “Masters”—and pronounce as much on the weary “follow alongs”.

I warn you to be careful, very careful, for when you decide that your wisdom is greater than God’s, BEWARE, because you are within the illusion and reality strikes like a major-sized 2x4 across your own realization—SOONER OR LATER.

A really wise person will not project such nonsense upon viewers or listeners unless he feels you will not confront him in his human ego, then he will usually become very “unwise” and blow himself right out with his own horn.

Ego is a strange beast—it destroys its host as the parasite on the tree. Know that responsible intent and actions are the keys to success. All else is greed and irresponsible behavior focused on ego desires.

SO LOOK AT SATAN VS. GOD CREATOR

Satan cannot create; he can only play to your free-will choices. So IF your desire is truly to create instead of playing in your ego trap, remember that only GOODNESS can “create”, so it behooves every physical expression to be in awareness of intent and purpose—at every moment in every experience.

I enjoy your perceptions which present as: “The only thing sure is death and taxes.” Cute but totally incorrect. There is no “death” and in a righteous world there are no “taxes”.

Better perception: The only thing SURE about living and perceived passage of time is change in perceptions about anything and everything; that is called growth. You can have growth or be retarded and again, gosh: it is up to you. You must come to KNOW that physical living is simply a schoolroom—and handling of circumstances and making choices are the testings for graduation or “hold-back”.

I would leave the philosophical rhetoric with one more thought before unplugging the circuit: Since the future is only your thoughts becoming manifest in front of you as you exist, it stands to reason, students, that by taking control of your thoughts, you take control of your future.

When our thoughts coalesce into something offering love, harmony, balance, peace and JOY, we shall prevail, for there is nothing less that can manifest.

You will note that regardless of individual perspectives Nature does not cheat, lie, or steal. It only gives and regives. When man learns that lesson from Nature, his civilization will be as eternal as Nature is eternal. It comes then that until human relations are based on the love principle of giving and regiving, which God gave as His One Law, mankind will be on the descending direction of self-annihilation.

EGO TRAPPINGS (AS IN TRAPPED)

When the things manifested by ego in YOUR life, or lives, are brought before you on the screen for viewing: what color will you be? By that I mean: Will you be red from embarrassment? Will you be pale at the realization of your mischief(s)? Will you even notice that you were played the fool? OR, will your ego come behind bearing the light that TRUTH will have been shared and be the servant it was intended to be to higher MIND? It is always fun to witness at what comes forth on graduation day or, non-graduation day, whichever is achieved first.

You want revelations? Well, here they are being dropped on your minds again. YOU WILL GET EXACTLY WHAT YOU EXPECT TO GET. CHANGE THE MIND AND YOU CAN AND SHALL CHANGE THE WORLD.

God’s cosmic people are not insects nor are they mutant turtles or monsters. They are simply figments of warped fiction writers to either entertain immature minds or willing terrorists. Satan presents monsters and hideous images. God sends angels who will always resemble the BEST ASPECT OF YOURSELF.

Know that when you defend someone with “excuses” for whatever errors they have made, including self, you are walking over your angels in your thrust to serve evil. Excuses are excuses and not REASONS and when YOU begin to know the truth of this statement, I expect a lot of old friends to “call home”. Angels are never invasive, only available. And, no, the angels are not considered the “hosts” of God—but perhaps are better explained as “ambassadors” OF God AND Hosts. A lot of you claim association and yet I find that you can live with, work with, and share with—and still overlook the presence of same. Sometimes it is VERY DIFFICULT for an angel to serve in a physical environment because of those who CLAIM association with same.

Angels are very often very visible human expressions doing a JOB while you turn into the path of the egotistical pretenders. People, the sorting is of SELF BY SELF. When you KNOW as much through realization and continue the charade, you are but a bungling pretender. Why? Because you are BORN KNOWING BETTER! THAT IS WHAT COMES AT BIRTH INTO A NEW EXPERIENCE. YOU ARE PROVIDED WITH NATURAL KNOWING OF RIGHT AND WRONG AND THIS IS WHY YOU HIDE FROM SOME THINGS IN THE DARK PLACES.

Now, what exactly do you want as “revelations”? If it is a rundown of activities having matured as in “prophecies”—LOOK AROUND YOU. If it is true “revelation” of what you might call the “mysteries of God”, I might be able to help you. All other things are “things” and mostly are controlled and manipulated by MAN. The physical world is one thing; the spiritual quite another. YOU ARE BOTH, so what is it that you REALLY REQUEST? Think about it, for I am not writing here for MY benefit. I find it as boring as do some of you.

You have as many interpretations of “Revelation” as there are presenters. Why would I clutter with MORE? Will you take action or just wait and see? The latter my friends, the latter! I witness it over and over again.

If I say “Get ready”, you may or may not even read the suggestion. A few will work like mad to check supplies, water, food, bedding, and generally check preparations depending on what I suggest. However, it all fades as quickly and moves back into the “moment” trying, usually, to figure out how best NOT to do something or other. Human nature? Yes, but it is a very difficult way to get anything constructive accomplished. Everyone has their druthers and excuses why something they don’t wish to do goes undone. No, I am NOT picking on anyone, for this is the practice of Man as has evolved in your world today. There is a great searching and seeking of a way to be a part of something without risk or real participation with any kind of investment of self. “Investment” is rarely “money”, readers.

I can example this: Global Alliance Investment Association is NOT a “financial” investment house of some kind. It is an investment of energy (of all sorts) into an Alliance or an Association of people or nations to present a better way to live on your globe.

We happen to base the program on something established forever ago called the Phoenix Project. It is somewhat akin to the Project Phoenix of SETI and all the communication farce with extraterrestrials which will again be pushed in your faces for its attention distraction. First of all, SETI looks for responses in a lower frequency band than is utilized even in crude communications systems. SO THE PURPOSE OF THOSE RADIO DISHES IS NOT WHAT IS CLAIMED. WE DO NOT HAVE DIFFICULTY COMMUNICATING WITH ANYONE, ANYWHERE!

The big question that is asked is: “Do you believe in...?” It doesn’t matter what you believe, readers. Things either are or they are not, and by a large majority, NOT. Any communications systems that are not “thought” systems are too primitive to consider for visiting aliens. Even thought frequencies are too slow for recognition of sound systems or visualization. Therefore, the games are silly at best, nothing in scientific recognition—nor is it intended for transmitting and receiving communications with “aliens”. What you “believe” is neither here nor there as to TRUTH or KNOWING. Anyone who tells you otherwise is dreaming on his/her own time, not REAL TIME.

Are there visitors from “out there” to “in here”? Of course. How arrogant is man to think himself to be the ONLY gift of life. It is equally arrogant to consider “death” as some ending of the energy called soul. Only a body changes as life force is removed therefrom. Man does not experience “death”. A physical housing experiences changes which you choose to call death in your lack of knowledge, for it, too, is only changed into energy form of one sort or another—back into its original components of elemental matter and energy. The man within, which is the reflection of God, is that which is immortal. In either event there is only change—not death. When you come to this realization, then you will also come to KNOW that there is joy, positive creative possibilities AND GOD in every event or perception.

I would note that if the coming into understanding and TRUTH causes you singularly to be uncomfortable with your prior concepts, attitudes and “side-taking”, GOOD! It is time, for goodness’ sake, that if you are going to acclaim insight, love and light; that you get some of each. You claim constantly to want to bring love and truth to this hurting world and yes, there is a way to do that but the responsibility of participation is yours: The only hope now for saving your civilization is by restoring a system of good ethics which will rebuild character, bring forth honor, dignity, and righteousness into/within the human race/species.

You always ask for a “revelation” of what you WILL be when you make some kind of transition? Well, how you handle and grow within this present experience determines where and who you will be in your next. You must establish yourself and if need be, clean up your act now, for you will not even recognize the change if facts be known, when you take up the soul experience—AGAIN. It is also too arrogant to consider anyone who thinks he has but experienced once and this is it! LIFE is not that simple, pilgrim. However, man MUST WANT TO CHANGE or he shall not. He also must come to realize that there is something far greater to which to aspire than contemplated by the present experience to be able to understand or comprehend evolvement. YOU did not come from fish nor fowl or from the monkeys of the trees—you are the greatest creation of singular form presented by CREATOR. Have you been a good steward or custodian of the miracles of creation placed before you?

Have you usurped, taken that which is NOT yours, brought pain or hurt to others along your way? WHY? Why have you done that? What brings you to bring pain to other man or beast? “Just good business” is a very egotistical response. Do you simply “give” until you change your mind when you have sworn a contract? Is it another’s “fault” if you change your mind? Is there no respect even for the laws which govern your “business” activities? There is much to be sorted and I am caused to stop and ask you if you are really ready for more responsibilities.

Knowledge does NOT spring from “wishful thinking”. KNOWLEDGE comes from being responsible enough to learn all you can and more. I urge you to think carefully about this statement, for GAIA is not a hand-out program for the “wanting”—and giving WRONG INFORMATION CAN GET YOU INTO SHACKLES. I will not protect you from your own ignorance when you have access to facts and truth.

We are not here to serve your singular “wish list”. We have been there and done that and IT DID NOT WORK OUT WELL.

Are there guidelines for grading your level of understanding, say, of the GAIA project/program? Indeed, and anyone who still refers to the contract as “certificate” DOES NOT UNDERSTAND THE FIRST BASIC FUNDAMENTAL FACT.

You can get a hundred copies of some Peruvian certificate, even 3392-181—and that will have no meaning or relevance to our GAIA program. There is a copy of that certificate in its original form signed by Hurtado in your package of information. Neither do other things which seem in demand have relevance but it is all there, provided to allow intelligent understanding of what IS IMPORTANT. Where were you in class 101-Understanding? Oh, “you” depend on me to sort it out? Well, strangely enough I depend on you to sort it out. People, some of you walked out on us, not “we walked out on you”. Study this carefully.

You who are impatient and yet don’t understand this program, please consider the little Filipino who has to understand it in order to make it work with the backing it needs. Well, they are “getting it” and are starting to understand the value of working with us toward a better end to their circumstances. By the way: GOD MEANS SOMETHING PRETTY SPECIAL TO THEM—AND THAT IS NOT A RELIGION, IT IS TRUTH RECOGNIZED.

You who would get irritated at any kind of an abrupt response to your ongoing questions coming from lack of knowing what this GAIA is all about, I suggest you rethink that supposition. You do the wrong thing with something as intricate and large as this program and a stay in the “put away” rehab program could be very long, indeed. Just calling our documents as “certificate” is the first and serious misrepresentation. We present a global nightmare. That in itself is sad because we present nothing except a better way—for “them” included.

Work as hard as you can to perfect whatever product or program you have working—and it will have its opportunity for expression. Just shifting a bunch of money around among manipulative business entities is NOT the name of the game now or ever. I can work with anyone but few of the “Elite” want my participation—KNOW IT.

We experience and gain all possibilities from the now but we must also prepare “as if” for tomorrow and utilize that potential to move forward.

Look for God in the small things as well as the miracle that knocks you down. Most miracles will not even be recognized in the moment but are easily seen as you look back at some of the experiences YOU have expressed.

GOD IS GOOD EVEN THOUGH LIFE IS NOT “FAIR”.

VIRGINIA BEACH MAY BE NEXT TO INSTALL FACE-SCANNING CAMERAS

By Agnes Blum, The Virginian-Pilot, 7/8/01

VIRGINIA BEACH—Instead of relying on officers who may harbor prejudices about hair style, skin color or clothing, the software would compare less subjective traits: the distance between the tip of the nose and the bottom lip, the circumference of one's irises, and the distance between the pupils, for example.

Virginia Beach will learn next week if it will become the nation's second city—Tampa, Florida was the first—to use facial-recognition software to help officers snare criminals and find runaways, police said.

New software that can analyze a face may transform the sometimes imprecise art of identifying criminals—comparing mug shots to people on the street—into a science, police say.

The Beach has used closed-circuit TV cameras to watch the Oceanfront from the 2nd Police Precinct since 1993, largely for checking traffic and observing crowds.

Under the new system, the 10 cameras would feed images of people as they strolled along the Oceanfront to monitors, where the software would sort faces against a database of mugshots, looking for a match, said Capt. Gregory G. Mullen of the Special Investigations Department.

Beach police said the database includes about 2,500 outstanding felony warrants as well as pictures of runaways and missing people, he said.

The software generally works by creating a "map" of the face and then identifying 80 distinctive points. To achieve a match, 14 of those points must align with a database picture, often a mugshot, Mullen said.

By comparison, fingerprints only require 11 points to match the whorls and ridges that make up each person's unique print.

Once the computer spits out a match, an officer at the 2nd precinct would radio an officer on the street for further action.

"A match will not give officers probable cause to arrest," Mullen said. "Only enough to stop and question them."

In laboratory tests, under ideal lighting, the software had a 99.3 percent accuracy rate. It is unknown what the accuracy rate would be on the streets with varying weather and lighting conditions.

"It's no different than a policeman holding a mug shot in his hand on the corner as people go by," said Police Chief A.M. Jacocks. "In fact, it's more efficient."

It is not clear how the new technology will be accepted by the courts once someone is arrested because of computer identification.

Several vacationers at the Oceanfront said that while public safety is a priority, they would be concerned about cases of mistaken identity.

"There are plenty of people that look alike," said Sterling Harris of Richmond, as he paused outside a shop on Atlantic Avenue on Thursday. "I hope they don't sit behind the cameras looking for people to mess with."

Police insisted that the opposite is true. Allowing a computer program to identify someone takes the human error out of the equation, Mullen said.

But Kent Willis, director of the Virginia American Civil Liberties Union, worries about privacy implications and the Big Brother overtones. "This is simply the newest in a long series of new technologies that allow the government to invade our private space," said Willis.

Photographing people as they lick ice cream on the Boardwalk is similar to dusting park benches and other public surfaces for fingerprints, he said. The motive may be admirable but the result is the same—government invading people's privacy and collecting information on citizens.

The police said they would toss out any pictures that didn't match, but Willis called those promises slippery. Once the police started using the technology, they might decide it would be helpful to keep photos on file.

"There's a long history of government abusing information it has gathered," Willis said.

Private industries, such as casinos and check-cashing businesses, have used facial recognition technology for years, but the software garnered nationwide attention when it was used on more than 100,000 faces at the Super Bowl last year without people's knowledge. No arrests were made.

Beach police will hear next week whether they'll get a $150,000 grant—they will ask the City Council to chip in $50,000. If the money comes through, the program should be up and running by spring of 2002.

"It'll be worth it if they get the right people," said Michelle Porter-Loftin, as she shopped with her two children at the Oceanfront. "Makes me wonder. I'd be worried about mistaken identity. We'll see."

THE FEDERAL RESERVE IS ALL ABOUT STUPIDITY

By Charley Reese, The Orlando Sentinel, 7/9/01

In the late 1960s, you could buy four or five heavy bags of groceries at a supermarket for about $17. Today, you can carry $17 worth groceries in a plastic sack hooked around your little finger. Ever wondered why the change? It's simple. Our currency has been devalued. When a nation's currency is devalued, businesses and professions can raise prices and fees to compensate for the loss of value. It's the working men and women who get the shaft.

America's money and credit system is deliberately confusing. The people who designed it were logically afraid that if people understood it, they would never put up with it.

Let's start with the money in your pocket.

You will notice that it is a Federal Reserve Note. It is redeemable in nothing. It is backed up by nothing. Its exchange value, or purchasing power, is determined by the volume in circulation in comparison with the goods and services available at any given time. What makes the scam possible are those 11 little words tucked away in small type: "This note is legal tender for all debts, public and private."

Without a legal-tender law, people could defend themselves against devaluation by simply switching to gold or silver or even to a more-stable foreign currency, such as the Swiss franc. In the early days of the Republic, there were many different kinds of money in use.

The next step in figuring all this out is to realize that the Federal Reserve System is a privately-owned central bank. It was made confusing deliberately. There are 12 regional Federal Reserve Banks, each one private and owned by the commercial banks. As in George Orwell's Animal Farm, all the Federal Reserve Banks are equal, but the New York Federal Reserve Bank is more equal than the others are. It handles the government bonds, and its president has a permanent seat on the Federal Reserve Board. This board, whose members are appointed by the president, is a quasi-governmental organization. More quasi than governmental, I assure you.

So here is how your money is devalued. When Congress wants to spend $50 billion more than it collects in taxes, it goes to the Federal Reserve. The government gives the Federal Reserve $50 billion in government bonds—and the Federal Reserve adds $50 billion to the government's checking account.

Seems reasonable. But there is a catch. Where does the Federal Reserve get the $50 billion to put into the government's checking account?

It creates it out of nothing, with a keystroke. The bonds and the interest due on them are paid for with taxes, which is to say the sweat and labor of the American people.

In the meantime, to stay with our example, $50 billion in new money has been put into the system. In addition to that, the Federal Reserve can manipulate the economy. To put more money into the system, always in the form of debt at interest, it lowers interest rates; to take money out of the system, it raises interest rates.

But always the Federal Reserve acts in the interests of banks—not in the interests of the people or the country.

Ignorant reporters have recently elevated the current Federal Reserve chairman, Alan Greenspan, to folk-hero status. Nothing is more absurd.

Still, as another American hero said, "Stupid is as stupid does."—Charley Reese; creese@orlandosentinel.com

RAELIANS MAY SUE FDA OVER HUMAN CLONING

By Chriss Swaney, Reuters, 7/9/01

PITTSBURGH—The lead scientist of a UFO cult that believes life on Earth was genetically engineered by visitors from outer space says she may go to court to protect her human cloning project from U.S. government scrutiny.

Brigitte Boisselier, a French biochemist who belongs to the international Raelian Movement, told Reuters on Tuesday that her company Clonaid still plans to produce a cloned child within the next year despite a recent crackdown by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

"I do not want to infringe on the law. But we may have to go to federal court to challenge the jurisdiction of FDA agents, or any ruling that would hurt us from cloning a human being," said Boisselier, who is Clonaid's science director.

Rael, the leader of the Swiss-based Raelian Movement, founded Clonaid in the Bahamas with a group of investors in 1997, the same year that Scottish scientists announced the cloning of the sheep Dolly.

The Raelians, who are atheists, view cloning as the means for humankind to achieve eternal life and said at the time of Clonaid's launch that the service would offer infertile or homosexual couples the chance to have children.

Boisselier said Clonaid has two labs, one near Syracuse, New York and another at an undisclosed site outside the United States.

The potential for human cloning, which aims to reproduce human beings by inserting their DNA into unfertilized eggs, has been widely condemned on moral grounds and banned in some parts of the globe.

CONCERNS RAISED

BY RESEARCHERS AND ETHICISTS

Some researchers and ethicists also have raised concerns because of a high rate of failures and deformities among the animal clones that have followed in Dolly's wake.

"I have had death threats, but I continue to pursue my goal of making science work for the improvement of mankind," said Boisselier, who maintains that her private company has a philosophical link but no economic ties with the Raelians.

"We are doing nothing wrong. We are trying to help mankind. And we are not going to be stopped, even if I have to take a bullet," she added.

In the United States, the FDA has said that human cloning experiments need its approval, which the agency will not give for the time being because of safety concerns. Members of Congress, concerned that FDA authority does not go far enough, have introduced legislation to ban human cloning for reproduction.

FDA officials inspected Clonaid's Syracuse lab after Boisselier testified about the company's activities before a congressional panel in March. An FDA spokesman said she has agreed in writing not to conduct human cloning experiments or pursue research involving human eggs in the United States.

But Boisselier, who is now traveling the country and speaking to journalists in hopes of drumming up public support for cloning, said she will not be deterred.

"I have five scientists working around the clock," she said. "(Human cloning) may happen here in the United States, or at our other lab. It all depends on how we and our work are accepted in this country—and how we progress with our plan to have a child cloned within the next year or so."

Billed as the world's largest UFO-related nonprofit group with 55,000 members in 84 countries, the Raelian Movement claims that ancient extraterrestrial scientists, whom the Bible refers to as Elohim, created all life on Earth through genetic engineering, including human beings whom they made in their own image.

Group founder Rael was formerly known as French journalist Claude Vorilhon before he reported being contacted by the Elohim in 1973.

"I know that usually people laugh at that. But, to me, this scientific creation theory is probably the most rational one—not believing in any almighty God, not believing in evolution without explaining the links," Boisselier said.

"We do not plan to create an army of clones but rather we want to help families who have lost children or want desperately to have a child," she added. "I want to use science for the creation of life, not death. I want to make babies, not bombs."

Recent press reports have said that Clonaid's financial backers include a couple whose baby died at 10 months and who hope their child can be reproduced through human cloning.

"I know there have been ethical issues raised about cloning. But within 10 years, cloning will be available to everyone," she said. [MM: I'm sure David Rockefeller, Henry Kissinger, George Bush, et al. will be overjoyed hearing about this NEW TECHNOLOGICAL revelation!]

FALLON'S NOTES ON ISOFLAVONES

ACRES U.S.A., May 2001

Are phytoestrogens a panacea or a poison? Sally Fallon and her co-author, Mary G. Enig, Ph.D., presented some astounding findings at the Third International Symposium, relying on soybean use in bird feed as a base for discussion.

First, it is noted that the male species of tropical birds live with drab colors until the spectrum emerges at maturity. New Zealand bird breeders put their birds on soybean protein. The birds "colored up" after only a few months. Feed fabricators took pride in the fact that parrots "colored up" in weeks, not months and years. The price for this plumage wasn't paid to the provender, but in diminished fertility, stunted, deformed and stillborn babies, and faltering longevity. As a consequence, aviary populations declined, as did the bottom line. Bone problems, goiter, immune system cancellation and pathological behavior followed. Necropsy examination revealed organ disintegration. The findings recited here were transported to human babies fed soy formulas in the wake of hype equating GMO soy products as the wave of the future.

The inventory of mischief linked to soy consumption includes infertility, cancer and leukemia. Genistein in soy can cause endocrine destruction in animals.

Needless to say, the bird feed mentioned above was loaded with phytoestrogens.

Japanese researchers have found that as little as 30 grains (2 tablespoons) of soy per day for a month resulted in thyroid-stimulating hormones. Constipation, fatigue and lethargy were noted.

Far from being a health food, the use of meat extender in hamburger has the estrogen effect of "the pill" for each 100 grams, according to Swiss researchers.

Too much soy blocks calcium, according to the Fallon and associates paper. It can cause vitamin D deficiencies. Substitution of soy oil for butter has been indicted as a cause of osteoporosis.

Isoflavones in infant formula, courtesy of the GMO soybean, give 25 percent of U.S. exclusively bottle-fed infants the estrogenic equivalent of five birth control pills a day. By way of contrast, almost no phytoestrogens are detected in cow's milk or human milk.

Fallon believes soy will one day join tobacco, fluoride, and toxic technology as a class action big enough to topple administrations, even governments. Anything less will see civilization go into a decline reminiscent of the Dark Ages. [MM: For ACRES U.S.A. subscription information call 1-800-355-5313 toll-free.]

COMMENT ON THE PERCY SCHMEISER DECISION

By E. Ann Clark, ACRES U.S.A., May 2001

E. Ann Clark, a professor of plant agriculture at the University of Guelph in Ontario, Canada, offers her perspective on the Canadian federal court ruling against Percy Schmeiser.

To all the farmers and farm organizations that applauded the prosecution of Schmeiser two years ago and have since sat back and watched him swinging in the wind waiting for judgment:

a. He was not found guilty of brown bagging or improperly buying or stealing Monsanto seed—indeed, those highly publicized allegations were dropped at the actual hearing stage due to a complete lack of evidence;

b. He was found guilty of having Monsanto genetics on his land;

c. It's doubtful whether there's a farm anywhere in western Canada that does not have Monsanto Roundup Ready canola seed in its soil;

d. If you have it, you are to call Monsanto and they are to come out and deal with it. How, pray tell, are they going to do this—by plucking out the offending plants one by one—for up to 10 years after each contamination event occurred (canola seed can remain dormant under western Canadian conditions, including no-till)—during which time you are disallowed from growing canola because if you do, and volunteer Monsanto canola emerges, sets seed, and shatters, it all starts over again?

e. Is Monsanto going to come out to your fields not just in the spring prior to planting, but throughout the season, because canola can germinate anytime? Are they going to absorb all costs of these service calls, or will they charge you for it?

f. If you have it—and you call Monsanto to come and clean out your Monsanto genetics—what is to stop them from prosecuting you, as they did Schmeiser?

g. If you do not join in an appeal of this decision—and ensure that the judge that hears the appeal has at least a rudimentary understanding of plant reproductive biology and has heard of StarLink corn and that a scientifically sound and defensible decision is made—then you deserve what will most surely happen to you and your neighbors.

To put this into a perspective that everyone can visualize, imagine that the government were to come up with a new law, stating a) that all male calves shall remain intact (not castrated) and b) that all fences must come down.

Imagine further that two-thirds of these calves carry a deleterious trait that reduces the valuation of their progeny. Consider the chaos that would result in the beef and dairy industries.

This is an apt analogy for what government has done by prematurely authorizing the release of transgenic, open-pollinated crops—like corn and canola. Pollen moves, as do bulls. There is no way to build a fence high enough to keep pollen—whether from StarLink corn or from herbicide-tolerant canola—from moving into your land from neighboring fields. Pollen carries transgenic as well as natural traits, and two-thirds of the canola sown in Canada last year was herbicide-tolerant. Pollen has always moved, but for the first time in history, pollen carries deleterious traits—both because of the traits themselves but also because the pollen carries proprietary genes.

Wake up folks, and see the writing on the wall, as revealed by this remarkably incomprehensible judgment.—E. Ann Clark, Associate Professor of Plant Agriculture, University of Guelph, Guelph, Ontario, Canada

FALLING BANKS & RISING GOLD

By Clif Droke, gold-eagle.com (Gold Digest), 7/16/01

U.S. banks approach the "zero hour"; gold, discounting news, to soar in value

The recent hostile takeover attempt between Sun Trust, First Union and Wachovia underscores a problem that will soon become America's worst nightmare involving a domino of U.S. banking house collapses in 2002 and beyond.

The issue in question is one that is making great waves throughout the banking sector and headlines in the financial press. It centers around the bid made by First Union Corp. (FTU) in April to acquire Wachovia Corp. (WB), a major southeastern region bank for $14 billion. In May, the Board of Directors of Sun Trust Banks (STI) countered First Union's proposal with a $14.4 billion merger proposal of its own. Sun Trust Banks, headquartered in Atlanta, Ga., is the nation's ninth-largest commercial banking organization. SunTrust has total assets of $103.7 billion versus $171 billion for First Union.

As testimony to the acrimonious nature of the corporate battle, First Union has taken out a full-page advertisement in newspapers across the Southeast. The ads urge Wachovia shareholders to vote for the Wachovia/First Union merger via proxy. Such extreme tactics from normally staunch and conservative financial institutions highlight the high stakes involved, not only for this proposed merger in particular, but for the entire U.S. banking sector in general.

The battle for Wachovia has spilled over into the law courts, with First Union filing suit against Sun Trust over its hostile takeover bid. The Federal Reserve Board is being dragged into the midst of the duel. Even Wall Street analysts are in on the action, issuing statements to the effect that one or other of the two warring factions has the greater chance of taking control of Wachovia. The war of words at this point is moot, however. The battle has already been decided, and it will become official when it is announced that Sun Trust has gained control over Wachovia.

Wachovia was saved from certain collapse by its two warring suitors, one of which (Sun Trust) will rescue it from the financial oblivion it was certain to face within one year had it not been targeted for takeover. The battle over Wachovia is part of a much bigger battle being waged across the entire banking sector as dozens of banking establishments, including some well-known major regional banks, face certain destruction in 2002. In anticipation of this wave of bank failures, several high-ranking board members of various banks have already announced untimely retirements. What you are reading now is an advance version of what you will be positively pelted with next year in news headlines around the country. It concerns massive derivatives exposure on the precipice of unwinding as well as major scandals involving illicit financial investments. Call it "Bank Scam".

A comprehensive analysis of most major U.S. bank portfolios will show what the primary catalyst for this chain-collapse event will be. It centers mainly around the fact that funds from U.S. depositors are being used, quite illicitly by several major banking institutions for financing numerous communist Chinese enterprises, including huge infusions of cash to Chinese military operations. In short, U.S. bank depositors are unwittingly funding the “Great Red Dragon” for the Chinese menace.

To add insult to injury, China continues to receive openly favorable political and economic treatment from the U.S. government and most recently was gifted with being chosen as the host country for the 2008 Olympics (History repeats! Once again America’s #1 military foe ends up getting to host an Olympiad just before major war breaks out (e.g., Nazi Germany in 1936). Based on recent events—most prominently one of our top-secret military planes captured by China and returned piecemeal to the U.S. in humiliating fashion—it is obvious that the President, his administration and the Congress will be forced to kowtow to Chinese government demands from here out. All of this was made possible by the hard-earned savings and deposits of the U.S. citizen.

We now know which banks are going to go down... not merely banks which are “vulnerable” to collapse, but banks which are actually going to collapse and are merely keeping up appearances until the fateful “zero hour” approaches.

Citigroup © is one bank up to its eyeballs in the use of domestic bank deposits for illicit purposes. The banking establishment was fortunate to overcome a major scandal a couple of years back when two of Mexico’s top drug kingpins were caught in a money-laundering scheme involving Citigroup. The bank is also involved in the China scandal and cover-up and will undoubtedly be granted top priority status from the Fed as it moves to protect one of its major banks from the coming domino-collapse of smaller banking houses next year. The larger banks that are in danger of collapsing are being made the target for mergers and hostile takeover attempts, such as the one presently involving Wachovia.

In other bank-related news, on July 1, a new law went into effect called the Financial Modernization Act, a.k.a., “Know Your Customers”. It may just as well be the “Know Your Enemies Act”, since banks treat their customers in the aggregate as enemies whose money they steal and use against their best interests. The legislation allows banks and all other U.S. financial institutions to share information with each other regarding their clients, i.e., U.S. citizens. They will be able to sell this information for their own financial benefit—a multi-billion dollar use of our personal data.

The U.S. banking scandal has been brewing for many years and only now is it about to come to a head. Americans have been conned by the banking scam of lending their hard-earned money to internationalists who use their money to fund communist military, economic and government projects against their own best interest as Americans. In return they are given pathetic interest returns for the “privilege” of lending the scam artists money to invest in irresponsible and anti-American ventures. Moreover, the customer gets lousy service, is practically treated like a potential criminal at the teller line, and has limitations on how much of his or her own money can be withdrawn at a single transaction.

As the U.S. banking system prepares for its worst nightmare in 2002—and as the government prepares to lead us into a wartime economy—you are faced with a set of monumentally important decisions. What will you do to prepare? Gold—or lack thereof—is one reason why U.S. banks are about to fail en masse. Get your funds out of banks and into gold. Gold, in the years to come, will be the prime monetary asset as the U.S. dollar and most equities crumble in value. There will also be value and safety in a financial portfolio composed of select precious and base metal mining/fabricating stocks, certain commodities and, of course, physical gold itself. The key is knowing what to buy and when to buy it.

It is time to de-fund U.S. banks and “repatriate” our money—to our own pockets and out of internationalist, pro-communist, anti-American hands. It’s time Americans sent an emphatic message to the major banks. And since the only message that bankers understand is the message of money, let’s take our hard-earned money away from the bankers and take control of over our own finances rather than entrusting it to them. If you do not take charge of your finances, you face a high chance of losing it anyway as the great bank collapse begins in earnest in 2002. You owe it to your country, to your families, and to yourself.—Clif Droke is the editor of the weekly Internet Stock Forecast (www.istockforecast.com) newsletter and the author of several books on trading and technical analysis, including Technical Analysis Simplified and Moving Averages Simplified (Traders Library). cdroke9819@aol.com

GOLD POTPOURRI

By Robert Chapman,
gold-eagle.com (Gold Digest), 7/16/01

The U.S. Treasury adamantly continues to refuse to explain why 1,700 tons of the Treasury’s gold bullion reserve was reclassified custodial gold in August of last year. It wouldn’t even honor the requests for an answer from senators and representatives. A new development is that gold at mint locations is now either called deep storage or working stock and is labeled Treasury-owned gold. This, of course, is verbal legerdemain or semantics, otherwise known as evasion and obfuscation. This leads us to believe that all or part of our gold is being held for others. We see this as an extension of a government that holds itself above the law.

Any silly excuse will do to keep the masses shut up. The reflection of a totalitarian fascist government, unanswerable to anyone. We expect Treasury Secretary O’Neill would work quite comfortably in a Nazi SS uniform.

The manipulation of gold cannot go on indefinitely. You can’t vaporize a short position of over 15,000 tons. As the criminality continues, gold mines all over the world are shutting down. If this continues, production will fall and upward pressure will surge forward forcing prices higher. We expect in the fall we will hear from the Federal Court in Boston whether Reg Howe’s lawsuit will go to trial. If it does not, you will have then been put on notice that the court system is not at the public’s disposal to pursue redress. If that becomes reality, we than have but one course to follow.

St. Petersburg, Russia, July 9, 2001 (A&G news via Comtex?) The gold coins minted in the ’20s are now a legitimate means of payment along with the coins minted after January 1, 1998. As a result, Russia obtained a new financial tool, capable of becoming an alternative of a dollar. The gold pieces of the Bank of Russia have a higher degree of liquidity than collectible coins also minted by the Bank of Russia. Firstly, paragraph 149 of the second part of the Tax Code allows the VAT exemption to the operations involving the gold pieces. Secondly, the Central Bank (CB) intends to regularly quote the gold pieces. From the CB press release it becomes clear that commercial banks will be the first ones to receive precious coins from its deposits and will make regular deals with the clients based upon current quotations.

The Bank of England threw away more wealth of the long-suffering British citizen having held their latest gold auction. 643,600 ounces or about 20 metric tons were sold at a price of $267.25 an ounce. The auction was oversubscribed by 4 to 1. The last auction’s oversubscription was 3.77 times. As a result gold was up $1.80 on the day and shares were up 3.5 to 4%.

London Bullion Market Association monthly gold clearing turnover figures for June fell 28.5% from the previous month, the LBMA said Thursday. The daily average value fell sharply as well, down 29.5% from May at $5.5 billion, based on a monthly average fixing of $270.4167 a troy ounce. The number of transfers did not decline so sharply, dropping 10% to 844.

Our sources tell us there is tremendous support for gold at $265 an ounce. The gold syndicate is there catching not reaching as yet. Lease rates are back to 1%, so there is a big bank—offering rates. It could be as a last resort that the U.S. Treasury may be the offeree, secretly disposing of America’s gold in order to keep the monetary system afloat.

The South African Miners Union, NUM, may go on strike for the first time in 14 years. This would have a dramatic effect on production supply wherein S. Africa produces 25% of the world’s gold. It would have a salutary effect on gold prices, but could be devastating to South African mining share prices, at least temporarily. The Union is well aware of the elitist manipulation of gold prices. Miners are paid $128 a month and they are demanding $213 a month. A raise of this magnitude could shut some mines down and make surviving mine shares less attractive. Meetings are being held this week and we suspect they will cause higher gold prices. As you know we are in our 4th short of the S. African rand. The weaker rand causes inflation and thus demands for higher pay to maintain living standards.

Silver Bonanza: How to Profit from the Coming Bull Market in Silver

This classic book by James U. Blanchard III and Franklin Sanders was published in 1993 by Jefferson Financial, and originally sold for as much as $75 a copy. Since silver hit $50 per ounce in 1980, the market has had a few spurts up, only to disappoint the bulls.

Now there are signs the market could take off again, and this book provides a comprehensive overview of the opportunity. A complete history of this amazing metal is discussed, including the supply deficit situation, how consumption exceeds mine production by a wide margin, and why demand keeps increasing because of silver’s amazing properties.

Las Cristinas and Venezuela

North American investor speculations are running high on news of a special speech on Venezuelan mining projects and developments to be delivered next Monday afternoon (July 16) by Energy & Mines (MEM) Minister Alvaro Silva Calderon. The key speech will come just 24 hours after a one-year extension of a Mineras Las Cristinas (MINCA) joint venture contract between the Venezuelan Guayana Corporation (CVG) and Canadian gold miner Placer Dome (PDG) runs out on July 15. PDG has already officially informed the Venezuelan government of its decision not to proceed on the Las Cristinas project where it had written off its investment more than a year ago. Meanwhile, Vancouver-based Crystallex International Corporation (KRY), recognized as the legitimate owner of the Las Cristinas 4 & 6 sections of South America’s reputedly richest gold reserves, has been in talks with senior government officials on a multi-million-dollar plan to reactivate LC and other Venezuelan goldmines with the least possible delay. (Monday, July 9, 2001?) VheadlineNews.

Las Cristinas: CVG to Ditch Placer Dome—Venezuela—Friday, July 13, 2001 Venezuela’s state-owned heavy industry holding, CVG, has decided to end an agreement with Vancouver-based Placer Dome (NYSE: PDG) covering the Las Cristinas gold project in southeast Venezuela’s Bolivar state, CVG president Francisco Rangel Gomez said.

“CVG has taken a decision, but we will announce it to the board on Saturday before going public. Las Cristinas is going ahead, but not with Placer Dome,” he said in a statement issued late Thursday.

The official deadline to decide whether to proceed with the 70:30 joint venture between Placer Dome and CVG’s gold unit Minerven is this Sunday (July 15).

Placer suspended construction of Las Cristinas, potentially one of Latin America’s largest gold mines, two years ago because of low prices. Gold has rarely been above U.S.$280/oz since, against U.S.$330/oz or more during earlier work on the project.

CVG subsequently agreed to two 12-month suspensions on construction with Placer maintaining its share in the venture. Under the original plan, development would cost U.S.$575 million for 570,000 Mozpy [MM: Mozpy: million ounce potential yield?] gold production plus “significant” copper credits.

In the meantime Crystallex (Amex: KRY), also based in Vancouver, has pursued its legal claims to ownership of concessions 4 & 6 at Las Cristinas. Speculation has increased that a court settlement of the issue is imminent.

Crystallex has a three-stage mining plan for Las Cristinas, and says it has maintained close ties with CVG. The first U.S.$150 million phase could start immediately if a court ruling goes in its favor, the company says. CVG has set up a working team with Crystallex to analyze the proposals.

No one at either Placer Dome or Crystallex was immediately available for comment. BNamericas.com

In a major last-minute, Placer Dome (PDG) face-saving ploy, the Canadian mining giant has issued a press release late Friday afternoon July 13, 2001, announcing that it has sold its shares in Placer Dome de Venezuela C.A. (PDV) to a subsidiary of Vanessa Ventures. Interestingly enough, Vanessa director Luca M. Riccio is also vice president in charge of exploration at Crystallex International Corporation (KRY).—THE INTERNATIONAL FORECASTER, An international financial, economic, political and social commentary. RECESSION, WHAT RECESSION?

By Doug McIntosh, gold-eagle.com (Gold Digest), 7/18/01

The American economy will have collapsed before the powers that be admit there is even a problem. You have to admire Mr. Magoo and his comic relief team in their fetish-like refusal to say the R word. Mr. Magoo may be old and in my opinion exhibiting early stages of what I call Mad Economist Disease, but the man is going to play his cards until he falls into the abyss. Unlike Wily Coyote of Roadrunner cartoon fame, when the American economy and Mr. Magoo go over the Grand Canyon ledge it will hurt. No cartoon-like puff of dirt when the economy smashes into the ground. No Wily Coyote getting up out of a six-foot crater and dusting himself off. Nope, this time Wily will need a Medevac helicopter and swift access to a trauma center.

You would never know the American economy is even struggling by reading the mainline New World Order media. Oh sure, if you have the time and willingness, like I do on your behalf, to actually read the whole article you find out the truth. Or at least the rumors behind the news as Fireside Theater used to say back in my youth. You will find out things like American manufacturing jobs now equal the level of 1965 for instance. Things like manufacturing capacity is around 77%, or the index is way below 50%, or manufacturing has been in technical recession for the last eight months. The economic reality expressed by these facts is usually glossed over with a thin veneer of optimism that things will soon get better. Now that the mythical second-half recovery has failed to appear we are being told we need to wait till 2002. After the 2002 first-half recovery doesn't appear we will dutifully be told to wait for the second half. By that time we should all be living in debtor's prisons and eating Top Ramen Noodles over our dog food.

The summer travel season hasn't turned out quite as planned either. It seems airlines are not selling tickets, hotels and motels are not selling rooms and people are actually cutting back spending on travel and tourism. Not to worry say the bulls because none of this objective economic reality will show up in reduced earnings for the companies providing these services. And certainly, the bulls assure us, not in their stocks. I guess you have to be a doom-and-gloomer to realize reduced corporate earnings lead to a reduced stock price.

Life is strange and mysterious in many ways. One of the ways it's strange is the sudden ethical purity of Wall Street stock researchers. How many television ads have I seen touting the honesty and integrity of stock researchers in the last few weeks? My personal favorite is the one where the guy looks straight in the camera and says “buy means buy and sell means sell”. Not exactly. Buy means whatever stock the Wall Street Firm is pushing and sell means whatever stock they have already gotten out of so they don't care. Interesting that a wave of lawsuits is now heading towards Wall Street brokerage firms, charging investors were manipulated and conned. Not that I think Wall Street and the stock market is corrupt or rigged or anything mind you. If it were corrupt and rigged it would be like the precious metals market, and we know the government would never allow that.

It must be a character defect of mine that I actually think qualities like honor, integrity and truthfulness actually matter out here in the real world. So it's with a sense of morbid fascination I watch the circling of the wagons on Wall Street. The Lords of Wall Street and corporate America are starting to get nervous at the prospect of a post-bubble society. The corrupt status quo has been very good to them and they are worried the rabble will get roused once the economy gets really bad. The elite control the politicians, judges, media and the rest of the system now. What they are worried about is a genuine Great Depression that shakes people out of their apathy and reawakens their lust for placing blame. It's a historical fact that the elite in charge at the time of the 1929 stock market crash and ensuing Great Depression didn't fare too well. Once the unemployment rate goes over 10% even the dazed and confused American populace will start to get restless. The American people will tolerate almost anything as long as the economy is good, but when the economy is bad, they will tolerate nothing.

The Great Economic Withering is what I've decided to call it. It's been going on for nearly thirty years in terms of declining fiat-money purchasing power. In August 1971 President Nixon committed economic treason by repudiating the gold standard. The 30th shameful anniversary is soon upon us. In that 30 years the purchasing value of the fiat dollar has declined nearly 700% by my feeble reckoning for the things that actual people really use. Not the fantasy figures released by the economic jesters in the Labor Department, but the cars, houses, food and entertainment people buy. For instance, in 1972 we bought a Ford 1-ton truck for $4000; anybody think you could get it for under $30,000 now? By my reckoning, the American people have been sodomized by the Federal Reserve and the hack politicians and are too stupid to even notice.

People are starting to notice even crap jobs are getting harder to find. They are noticing their 401k plans are losing money and stocks have lost big money. At what point the debt-fueled economic fantasy comes to a grinding halt is unclear. But it will all come crashing down around our debt-bound heads one of these days. Charles Dickens once said that “to own a man's debt is to own the man”. Words to the wise in these days of political squalor, economic debauchery and a looming MidEast war. Look to your defenses, economic, physical and spiritual and then enjoy life as best you can.

chblue.com, 7/18/01

SHENYANG (Reuters)—Chinese police have arrested a butcher accused of hacking to death four food inspectors and seriously wounding three after they confiscated his meat, newspapers and officials said on Friday.

It took 700 policemen 14 hours to catch Guan Jiadong, 35, who fled on a motorbike after running amok, chasing terrified inspectors down the street with a long knife in each hand and turning back at one point to hack at two writhing in blood, they said.

About 50 inspectors going over an open-air market in the northeastern city of Shenyang on Thursday morning found Guan did not have a license for his stall and deemed his meat not up to standard, the Liaoshen Evening News said.

It quoted witnesses as saying the outraged butcher plunged into the group and struck down one inspector.

The other inspectors fled with Guan chasing them down the street, hacking and stabbing at them, the witnesses were quoted as saying.

Police confirmed four inspectors lay dead as Guan dropped his knives and rode off. Hospital officials said the three wounded sustained serious wounds but were in stable condition.

“We brought him in last night and he is now being interrogated,” said one police official. “He does not appear to be mentally ill.”

“The punishment for such serious crimes is usually quick and severe,” the police official said, suggesting Guan would be executed if found guilty.

GATA AUTHOR ARTHUR HAILEY APPEALS TO FOX NEWS' O'REILLY TO REVIEW GOLD ISSUE

GATAComm@aol.com, 7/20/01

Dear Friend of GATA and Gold:

The author Arthur Hailey, a longtime supporter of GATA, has sent the letter below to Fox News' Bill O'Reilly, and we couldn't be more grateful.—CHRIS POWELL, Secretary/Treasurer, Gold Anti-Trust Action Committee Inc.

July 19, 2001

Dear Bill:

Since your kindly and generous reference to me on Page 139 of your book The O'Reilly Factor, I have basked in countless congratulations, including many from people I do not know and will probably never see. I have also become a devotee of your excellent TV program, frequently agreeing with you, though not always—but you don't expect that anyway, since you are a living legend for the belief in free thought and speech.

Anyway, I take the liberty of bringing up a subject—gold.

For a long time now, I have been a strong and active supporter of GATA and its chairman, Bill Murphy and believe the time is coming when Murphy will be regarded as both a hero and one who has protected the ethics of sound money internationally.

And, yes, I am a strong believer in gold, and am convinced there has been—and still is in existence—a strong program to hold the price, unethically and unconstitutionally, down.

An old book of mine (circa 1975), The Moneychangers, which has already appeared in multi-millions of copies worldwide, is shortly to be republished and—in a new Author's Foreword—I have written:

“There are some who believe—and this author is one—that the only real, honest money that has ever existed is based on gold, a fact that the history of centuries confirms and even now (in 2001) evidence is accumulating that gold's monetary eminence will be acknowledged once more.”

There's more; I'll send you a copy of the book when published. (Incidentally, two others of my old books—Airport and Hotel—have been republished, also with new Author Forewords and are selling well... all quite exciting in my 82nd year. (Enough!)

Anyway, I am sending this note in support of the GATA request that you look into the subject they are bringing to your attention and hope too that you will apply to it your remarkable and honest investigative talent.

With salutation and warm regards,

ARTHUR HAILEY

Nevada Sec. of State Increases Filing Fees

By Ron Kirzinger, 7/18/01

NEW CORPORATIONS TO COST $190 MORE

In previous installments we focused on the tremendous impact of SB51—which, among other things, will make it possible for foreign entities to essentially “clone” themselves here in Nevada. For the most part, the provisions of SB51 do not come into effect until October 1. In this article we will focus primarily on Senate Bill 577, which has been passed into law and will become effective August 1, 2001.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE SECRETARY OF STATE IS INCREASING ITS BASIC CORPORATION FILING FEE AND ITS EXPEDITE FEE BY $50 EACH, EFFECTIVE AUGUST 1, 2001. In addition, the fee for filing the initial list of officers has been increased by $80 to $165. All Budget incorporation prices will be increased on August 1 to reflect these changes. Due to these increases in State fees the average expedited corporation will cost $190 more to form after August 1, 2001. By the time you have a chance to read this, you will have only a very brief opportunity to act prior to the deadline. Act immediately if you are interested in establishing a corporation at the old rates: Call Budget Corporate Renewals at (702) 870-5351 before Friday, July 27.

ANNUAL LISTS REQUIRE BUSINESS LICENSE

In addition, effective August 1, 2001, all annual lists must be accompanied by a statement under penalty of perjury that the entity is in compliance with NRS 364A, which requires every business to have a business license. For your convenience, forms for the State business license application are located on the Budget Corporate Renewals web-site. We will also be pleased to provide these forms by e-mail if you address your request to BCR@BudgetCorporateRenewals.com.

A very simple, one-page business license form may be used by any Nevada entity that does not have any employees in Nevada and does not effect any sales in this state. This form requires a one-time payment of $25 to the Nevada Department of Taxation. In cases where the business does have employees in Nevada or effects sales in this state, the much more complex and invasive Nevada Business Registration Form is required, along with quarterly payments related to the number of employees (at $25 per employee).

The information provided on the Nevada Business Registration Form (which must also be accompanied by a Child Support Supplement) is guaranteed to be “confidential and private” and will not be disclosed to any casual outside inquirer. On the other hand, an exception to this confidentiality is made with regard to the Internal Revenue Service, which we must assume would have complete access to the information provided. (So much for corporate privacy at the taxation level.) Thus, in any case that fits (no employees or sales in Nevada) we highly recommend the use of the simple form.

[QUOTING, selected excerpts:]

SUMMARY OF CHANGES EFFECTIVE 8/1/01

The following information is taken from the Secretary of State’s web-site and may be downloaded in Adobe Acrobat (PDF) format there.

- Included in this summary are:
- New documents to be filed
 - New services provided
 - Changes in existing filings

- Changes in fees
- Changes in certain filing dates

Please be advised that the attached is merely a summary and does not purport to specifically set forth all new statutory requirements. Please consult SB 51 and SB 577 for specific requirements.

There may be other statutory changes made by the 2001 Nevada Legislature that are not included in SB 51, SB 577 or this summary, but may affect your entity. Please refer to the Nevada State Legislature bills web page for additional information.

NEW DOCUMENTS TO BE FILED

[RK: The new documents referred to in this section relate to the special provisions of SB51 discussed at length in previous articles. Any foreign (non-Nevada, even non-U.S.) entity can convert itself into a Nevada entity by filing these documents, which will be available through the Nevada Secretary of State.]

Articles of Conversion (Sections 108-114 of SB 51; will be a new section in NRS 92A)

1. Allows for the conversion of a domestic general partnership or a domestic entity into another domestic or foreign entity under certain conditions;
2. Allows for the conversion of a foreign entity or a foreign general partnership into a domestic entity under certain conditions.
3. If the resulting entity is a domestic entity, the constituent entity must file the following with the Secretary of State:

- a) Articles of Conversion (See section 114 of SB51);
 - b) A constituent document (See section 114 of SB51);
 - c) A Certificate of Acceptance of Resident Agent (See section 114 of SB51); and
 - d) Must pay the requisite fee to the Secretary of State.
4. If the resulting entity is a foreign entity, the constituent entity must file Articles of Conversion with the Secretary of State and pay the requisite filing fee.

Articles of Domestication (Section 115 of SB 51; will be a new section in NRS 92A)

1. Allows any undomesticated (non-U.S.) organization to be domesticated in this state.
2. Articles of Domestication executed by an authorized representative of the undomesticated entity must be filed with the Secretary of State and must contain:
 - (1) Date when and jurisdiction where the undomesticated organization was first formed, incorporated... or otherwise created;
 - (2) Name of undomesticated organization immediately before filing of Articles of Domestication;
 - (3) Name and type of domestic entity;
 - (4) Jurisdiction that constituted the principal place of business or central administration of the undomesticated organization immediately before filing of Article of Domestication.

3. Must file appropriate constituent document for the type of domestic entity.

4. Must file a Certificate of Acceptance of Resident Agent.

5. Must pay the requisite fee to the Secretary of State.

Initial List of “Officers” now required for all entities [RK: That’s right, now LLCs and even limited partnerships and partnerships, which have no officers, will be required to file initial lists—and at the increased fee of $165 versus $85. This appears to be a revenue grab by the State of Nevada, though we will be thankful if the level of service improves as a result.]

Effective 8/1/2001, all entities will be required to file an “initial list” similar to the lists required of corporations. Fees and due dates will mirror those for corporations. See SB51 and SB577.

Certificate of Correction

Certificate of Correction may now be filed for all entities pursuant to the provisions of SB51 and SB577. Previously, certificates of correction could only be filed for corporate documents.

Replacement Pages

Replacement pages may now be accepted, prior to the actual filing, for all entity types.

Certificate of Termination of Amendment

1. A Certificate of Termination may be filed terminating the effectiveness of a certificate. Must be filed pursuant to the provisions of sections 15, 28 or 29 of SB51.

NEW SERVICES PROVIDED

2-Hour Expedited Service

The Secretary of State will be offering 2-hour expedited service. Documents will be processed and an acknowledgement faxed or e-mailed within 2 hours of receipt. Expedite time begins when the filing is received in “fileable” condition. See new fee schedules for more information. [RK: This service will cost $500 in State fees alone.] Request forms will be made available by the Secretary of State.

CHANGES IN EXISTING FILING REQUIREMENTS

Amendments, Designations, Restated Articles no longer need President or Vice president and Secretary or Assistant Secretary Signature

Restated Articles must now be signed by an officer of the corporation pursuant to Sections 11, 12 or 30 of SB51. Certificates of Designation no longer need to be acknowledged.

LP, L.P. Valid Limited Partnership Endings

LP and L.P. are now valid endings for limited partnership. It is no longer a requirement that Limited Partnership be spelled out.

Annual List to Contain New Declaration

Each annual or initial list must contain a declaration under penalty of perjury that the corporation has complied with the provisions of 364A of NRS. This declaration will be printed on the forms provided by the Secretary of State. [RK: This appears to be the result of some collusion between the IRS and the State of Nevada, since the IRS appears to have been granted access to the information on all business license filings.]

CHANGES IN FEES

There are considerable changes to the fee schedules pursuant to SB577. PLEASE SEE THE ATTACHED SCHEDULES FOR THESE CHANGES. Unless otherwise noted, all fee changes are effective 8/1/2001.

CHANGES IN FILING DATES, TIME PERIODS

Date on Which Entities Will Go Revoked

Prior to 8/1/2001, entities in default would go into revocation on “the first day of the 9th month following the date in which the filing was required”. After 8/1/2001, date of revocation will be the day following the anniversary of the due date (one year and one day, i.e., due June 30, 2001, would go revoked on July 1, 2002). [RK: I erroneously reported this in previous articles as “2 years” when in fact the point in time of revocation is “the first day of the second year”—1 year plus one day.]

Date Original Articles Filed No Longer Necessary On Amendments

Time Period for Foreign Corporation to File Amendments or Merger

The time period for foreign corporations to file amendment or merger documents increases to 90 days from 30 days.

OTHER PROVISIONSPenalties For Filing Fraudulent Documents in the Office of the Secretary of State

SB 356 sets forth the penalties for filing a false or forged instrument in the office of the Secretary of State. [RK: This should prevent the filing of a false "change of resident agent" form, for example, as was done by Betty Tuten in her attempts to usurp control of a couple of key corporations.]

INITIAL FILING FEE FOR DOMESTIC ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND FOREIGN QUALIFICATION:

(Fee based on the value (par) of the total number of authorized shares stated in the Articles of Incorporation)

$75,000 or less, $175.00
 $75,001 and not over $200,000, $225.00
 $200,001 and not over $500,000, $325.00
 $500,001 and not over $1,000,000, $425.00
 OVER $1,000,000:

For the first $1,000,000, $425.00

For each additional $500,000 or fraction thereof, $225.00
 Maximum fee, $25,000.00

For the purpose of computing the filing fee, the value (capital) represented by the total number of shares authorized in the Articles of Incorporation is determined by computing the:

A. total authorized shares multiplied by their par value; or
 B. total authorized shares without par value multiplied by $1.00; or

C. the sum of (a) and (b) above if both par and no-par shares.

Filing fees are calculated on a minimum par value of one-tenth of a cent (.001), regardless if the stated par value is less.

[END OF QUOTING]

A rough calculation indicates that the Secretary of State of Nevada will about DOUBLE its revenues as a result of these fee changes. As noted above, a typical corporation setup will now cost $190 more in State fees alone, including the filing of the initial list of officers at the new rate of $165. Setup costs for an expedited corporation will now total $460 in State fees versus $270 previously.

Reinstatements will now cost $200, an increase of 400% over the old fee of $50. Late filing fees jump to $50, an increase of 333%. Clearly, it will be best to maintain corporations in good standing.

On the positive side, existing shelf corporations should experience a slight boost in their values to reflect the increase in replacement costs. Once again, we ask that any of you who have shelf corporations and wish to turn them into some cash please contact us so that we might put them on consignment. Such corporations should be in good standing, with Employer Identification Numbers. An active bank account also adds value. Please contact Budget Corporate Renewals at (702) 870-5351 if you are interested in exploring the possibilities.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM HATONN

CONTACT OR SPECTRUM?

I want to briefly respond to a most unusual question from a totally "out of the blue" person: "It appears Spectrum will fail, possibly close, so will you go back to writing for CONTACT or what?"

I have never stopped writing for CONTACT—but I have NOT written, nor have my compatriots written for Spectrum. Tails wag a lot of dogs, my friends. Therefore, "or what" has no meaning.
