Heavenly Elements Complement GAIA's Key Thrust/Mission

6/21/02—#1 (15-309)

RE: "OTHER" FEDERATION INFORMATION.
TIME FOR BEGINNING INTEGRATION.
DON'T CHANGE FOCUS—BUT KNOW
YOU AREN'T "THE ONLY ONES".

LIKE WINE—EVERYTHING
IN ITS PERFECT TIME

Hatonn—It is time to acknowledge another "receiver" with input to this "time" in sequence of events. The receiver's label is Sheldon Nidle about which I have NO FURTHER OUTPUT, PLEASE. We are not in "receiver" business but are in the business of giving information which impacts our own project ongoing. It is time to recognize, in appropriate sequence, other "players" and SHARE what they are presenting.

This neither projects total perfection of reporting nor shall all information be relevant to OUR MISSION. It IS!

There is constant reference given from the Federation of "abundance" to handle the necessary changes and happenings unfolding—and that dumps a massive load onto our backs as we hold the key to that "abundance" necessary. There are NOT any magical playmates going to get you covered through such as NESARA—WE HAVE TO PRODUCE OUR OWN, don't you know?

Ekkers have not wasted ten minutes of the last years to get this program into service—nor shall they rest on their oars NOW. BUT, it is also time to allow them, as well as you, to get some other input/output WHICH MEANS A GREAT DEAL TO YOU SKY-WATCHERS (that is BEYOND the games played on you-the-people).

"We" would never dump such a massive load on one receiver and have never even suggested as much—EVER. Dharma is "my" secretary and serves in THIS particular focus of this assignment. That is WHY we have even REGISTERED LEGALLY the name Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn under her authorization and that does not give any other the right to snatch it.

WHY? Because in the legal limitations of human experience—you must have a warm body to conduct business and facilitate acceptable activities.

Example: If Norey Latona would go to use Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn as his label of ANY KIND in a banking, business or otherwise human environment—he will be STOPPED and cited for fraud. It is quite simply in both concept and function. It does not mean that "Hatonn" is not presenting anywhere chosen or believed. But to others I would never identify, for legal acceptance, my label except to Doris if I wish to do BUSINESS.

This is my identification for these special purposes—and my identification "in business" is also utilizing HER thumbprint and signature. How else, readers, do you PROTECT anything on Planet Earth where both Evil and Fraud are more common than justice and righteousness in Truth? Information can be DISCERNED at random—business cannot! Therefore we have structured the program to suit

WHAT IS in the land of the living bodies.

This annoys so many of your walking and brain-challenged people as to be quite amusing if not irksome. However, anyone who can't UNDERSTAND this is surely missing a link with reality, for enlightenment is not synonymous with ascending of some kind. Enlightenment is a development of emotion (mind) into REALITY and recognition that "God" would do no less than meet your needs APPROPRIATELY and CORRECTLY and not play further games with WHAT IS against what you are fed as lies and misinformation.

Doris says she does, yes, hear from God. This is somehow placed into a category of "cult" class nonsense. Who do you think she might talk to? Who do the servants of the churches great and small claim as their source? Do you think she actually gets her information from President Bush? Come now, readers, be sensible. She claims NOTHING lesser nor greater than YOU. Neither, I greatly suspect, does a "Sheldon Nidle" who works in an entirely DIFFERENT team for an entirely different reason of presentation. GOD CREATOR IS "ONE" BUT THE REST OF "US" ARE MANY!

I have asked for some recent writings from Nidle and I am asking Dharma to retype them—for her own information. We do not dwell on these things for our mission here is simply too heavy. But I would like for Mark to make a connection with Nidle and see if he would like to have his information run occasionally, or even regularly if something worthy is sent through, in CONTACT.

We want you readers to have better input from other resources but we simply could not afford to do other than what we have done to stay afloat. That continues until we can do otherwise and THAT is not yet today.

Anyone working honestly and honorably will ask for nothing more than the opportunity to serve and THAT will always present.

Sheldon Nidle always marks his writings as UPDATES and offers whatever he gets and that, readers, is all any "receiver" CAN do—or fudge into nothingness of blarney and personal recital.

Do the commanders we have shared over the years have receivers and do the interesting "masters" have audience? Of course, and they are all over the globe—but they NEVER "steal" from one another in false recognition as has been developed here in our instance. There is an assumption that somehow all is up for the taking according to YOUR attitude. NO, IT IS NOT! Moreover, your "takers" set us up at every turn and opportunity—but they are being uncovered and their nakedness is apparent for full display.

It is why, if Diane will simply demand a trial after all these months of trying to coerce her through fear and misery, she will not only prevail BUT UNCOVER FURTHER THE NETWORK OF THIEVES AND LIARS. So be it, for that is way of TRUTH.

Is doing this job hard? No, dealing with Satan and his crew is the difficult part of the journey and as we draw near bearing fruit the assaults and the coy offers get more and more incredible. MOREOVER, EVERY ONE OF THEM PRESENT AS "SERVING GOD". That, however, is no business of ours. Yes, we can give examples and shall with one offer to support the most insipid evil you could conjure with even signatures to belong to their "group" signed in BLOOD. And no, it is NOT from some little unknown ritualistic group—IT IS FROM THE KNIGHTS OF MALTA.

I don't want to do that now, however, I want to share some Federation expected happenings set for the not too distant future. Dharma despises the word "imminent", so I won't use it although Mr. Nidle does from time to time.

UPDATE—SHELDON NIDLE

[QUOTING Update by Sheldon Nidle for the Spiritual Hierarchy and the Galactic Federation, for May 21, 2002 (10 Cib, 19 Moan, 10 Caban):]

[H: No I can't translate meaning. It is not my code or language.] [MM: It is representative of agalactic calendar date (day count) derived from the actual Mayan calendar that's been specifically modified for accuracy. A more detailed explanation is included at the conclusion of this update.]

Greetings! We arrive, dear Hearts! As a number of momentous events build toward their inevitable disclosure, let us continue a discussion of our fleet and what lies ahead for you. At present, our fleet is primarily engaged in two activities. The first part involves the widespread, careful monitoring of your planet and its peoples. The second concerns the overseeing of certain events that will be needed before we commence our long-awaited first contact operations. [MM: Sheldon Nidle's New Book Selamat Ja! expounding on first contact and other matters is available now by calling 1-888-393-7622! Just $12.00 U.S. plus Shipping & Handling.] We consider first contact, inevitably, to be a three-stage procedure. The first phase occurred when you undertook the final steps of your Ascension/Transformation in the late 1980s. The second began the present configuration of our first contact mission, and was formerly authorized by the Galactic Federation of Light's Main Council in the mid-1990s. The third stage started when we entered into negotiations with our earthly allies and this planet's secret cabals in the latter part of the galactic year of Eight Manic. These talks advanced a number of important subjects dear to our hearts, which include the ending of a global UFO cover-up.

The formal announcement of our benevolent existence is of immeasurable importance to us. It will end the official belief upon your world that we do not exist and, at the same time, will permit a wealth of useful technology, which your secret governments have either developed or suppressed, to be put into use. These devices will quickly revolutionize your energy production and rapidly advance your various methods of transportation. Once they have been used, aircraft as you now know them will disappear. You will move toward "magnetic lifters", as well as primitive craft that resemble our own. The large electrical power plants that now fuel your cities and industries will disappear. In their place will be decentralized units connected to every factory, building and home. Such advances will be accompanied by a radical change in your present religious struggles. The many great heavenly Masters who were instrumental in creating these philosophies will return, transforming conflict and division and creating a new unity. This extraordinary process will commence soon after the formal and public announcement of our existence.

With the conclusion of these announcements, we shall make our own. Several possible scenarios are now being considered. The main one is to begin flyovers above certain cities. Included in these plans are television broadcasts, originating from our scouts or from our large Motherships. It is important that we show you our technology and that you realize that we are here only to observe and interact, according to the direction of the Spiritual Hierarchy. The extent of our initial contacts will be restricted by the wishes of our heavenly supervisors. Another crucial factor is the condition of Mother Earth. Her Spiritual Hierarchy is ready, when necessary, to request a mass intervention. The existence of these options has allowed us to prepare several different liaison teams, which will act with the local and regional units that you will have provided us. Remember, dear Ones, that you remain the focal point in this entire procedure. You, who have incarnated upon this realm, are our primary concern. Thus, we ask you to join together and form groups that are dedicated to serve humanity and your beautiful, fragile home.

These groups will become a link between your communities, you and us. Together, dear Hearts, let us dedicate ourselves to communicate what is taking place. Around your world, many important events are about to be revealed. Once this occurs, you must be ready to spring into action. You must be prepared to become both an informant and a support resource for your community. Events will proceed quickly and sporadically. That is, divine timing is responsible for these present occurrences. Some events will need to remain secret while others will require complete disclosure. Your task will be to assist local residents in coping with whatever transpires. Our task will be to aid you. Our liaison teams resemble the medical teams we have deployed to your world for more than a decade. Their lead will be the decrees of the Spiritual Hierarchy and the messages that we will deliver to your world. Most important, the length of this stage of our contact mission will depend upon the timing for Mother Earth's changes.

Changes in Mother Earth's surface will be very dramatic. Thus, it is crucial that you not be on her surface when they occur. We regard your living planet's acute need to change as a turning point in your interaction with us. We intend to limit this association until it is time for us to move you either to the ships, or a new habitat in Inner Earth. In this regard, look upon these dwellings as if they were surrounded by force fields, holographic technology and a Loving resolve you have not yet encountered. You may exist in an environment that resembles your present one but that is both independent of, and a living adjunct to, this world. Consequently, it will be safe from any dangers this world presents. Within this cocoon, you will transform into fully conscious Beings. Once you have completed this process, you will be able to begin your next assignment on this world as the physical Angels that you truly are.

As physical Angels, you will create a unique galactic society that will be a glorious blend of all those that have preceded it. You will transform the barbarity and discord of your present world. We have foretold you these things in many earlier messages. [H: And right here the rest was cut off, so too shall we.]

[QUOTING information on the referenced galactic calendar from PAO's Website:]

Long ago, great timekeepers from the Arcturian Dominion and the Pleiadean Star League gave our planet a highly accurate galactic calendar to synchronize the indigenous people of Mexico and Central America with the unfolding of Creation. To maintain an accurate day count through the decades, tribal timekeepers studied the movement of the stars using their sacred observatories.

Every 52 years, when the calendar became inaccurate, the tribal timekeepers met to discuss their corrected calculations and arrive at an accurate day count. Through the centuries—due to the cultural and religious dominance of the Spanish Conquistadors—the tribal timekeepers were forbidden, under penalty of death, to keep the accuracy of these sacred counts. As a result, the calendar usage was greatly reduced to a partially accurate oral tradition. Today, over 21 different calendars exist, each with its own interpretation of the “accurate” day count.

In recent years, the galactic timekeepers from the Arcturian Dominion and the Pleiadean Star League have returned to give a corrected day count and a means by which to interpret their work. That knowledge is reflected in this galactic calendar. Through the traditional Mayan elements contained in this calendar, you will more clearly understand the concept of galactic time. By using this calendar, you can choose to flow with the rhythm of the galaxy, the solar system, and the planet. (Gregorian dates are also included for easy reference.)

The Galactic Year of 11 IK begins on July 26th when the star Sirius greets Lord Sun at dawn (above the Mayan pyramid of Chichen Itza, and above Maui's volcano, Mount Haleakala). This annual event honors the memory of the ancient civilization of Lemuria and its coming rebirth in your civilization. Such an event is an important sign to anyone who can see the cosmic rhythm of the galactic year.

Experience galactic time. Align with the movement in the galaxy. Feel the pulse of the solar system and especially the rhythm of Mother Earth. Ride the wave of time and go with the flow of its purpose. Have fun with it!

[END OF QUOTING]

[QUOTING Update by Sheldon Nidle for the Spiritual Hierarchy and the Galactic Federation, June 4, 2002 (11 Oc, 13 Pax, 10 Caban):]

Selamat Jarin! We bring you more interesting facts and welcome information. As you are aware, many astounding things are happening. Your major governments are in the midst of a great internal conflict that soon will result in the rise of new regimes in many areas of your globe. A new financial system also will be born that will bring widespread abundance to your realm. We ask you simply, dear Hearts, to remain patient, committed and focused upon your inevitable victory over tyranny. The cabal that long has ruled your world is teetering and its last futile efforts to clutch at power will fail. Moreover, announcements concerning our existence are soon to appear in your media. This pleases us immensely. The vast fleet surrounding your world awaits this moment to appear before you. As always, this process is subject to divine timing. We know that it has reached the point when the events that we have foretold will truly happen. The moment for the great shift in your consciousness draws nearer, as well.

Those who are completing the struggle for power within your various major governments are aware of the truth of these facts. Our earthly allies have fought a highly courageous and exceedingly lengthy conflict with the cabal that has ruled your realm since the last years of WW II. This group has been able to set in place an agenda that was not thwarted until recently. Even now, aspects of these agendas are wrecking havoc upon your global society. They are about to be stopped. At this very moment, the new financial, economic and political parts of your forthcoming transitional realm are being decided. Although it has taken longer for us to complete these tasks than we had at first jointly calculated, these events will come to pass quite soon. Know simply that your world is changing. We have labored together to ensure that those who are striving to establish a dark and limited world will not succeed. We commend all of the brave souls who are working diligently to guarantee that those who wish to enslave you are destined, inevitably, to fail. They can also turn to our good offices for help.

We in the Galactic Federation of Light have sent our various liaison teams to assure that those agreements, so eagerly signed with us, are carried out according to plan. We are most grateful for the assistance of certain European, African, Latin American and Asian governments. In addition, many major financial and military elements with these governments have strongly supported us, permitting a number of international legal decisions to be made during the past year. Although these remain covert, their effect on the present balance of power had been considerable. Given what already has taken place, we are confident that the necessary positive actions are being taken. The present phony war on terrorism is merely a smokescreen for this cabal. It knows that its days are numbered and that its collapse is imminent. Furthermore, be assured that its attempts to destroy your liberties are unacceptable. Once again, we warn this cabal that martial law is not an option. Such action will lead only to our prompt arrival on your shores.

This brings us to the matter of first contact. First contact, officially, is imminent. This means that we are busy preparing our fleet for its various first open appearances in your skies. These sightings will be your first notice that we are here. Another concerns the numerous broadcasts we intend to produce in the coming days. As noted earlier, our first reporters will be liaisons chosen from several primarily human off-world galactic societies. These individuals have been prepared to give a detailed true history of your world and of this first contact mission. In addition, we intend to land in a number of designated spots. Throughout Latin America, in the past decade, we have prepared for this mission. We have discovered some of your lingering fears and also witnessed your great Love. Out of this, we have formed a special team designed to reveal your coming future to you in the most familiar way. This operation will end, once and for all, the cover-up of our existence. It will show our benevolence and open you to galactic citizenship.

Our purpose is simply to continue to act as guides and teachers for your coming transitional period. This period will last for a short time, or no longer than 16 months. Mother Earth and her Spiritual Hierarchy will determine its exact length. We must repeat that the reality that surrounds you is becoming very fragile. Time continues to accelerate. Your scientists have noted many disparities in time that remain largely unknown to the general public. Earth's atmosphere and her tectonic plates are near collapse, creating circumstances that can lead to massive earthquakes, tsunami, sinister storms and bizarre weather patterns. Our scientists are closely monitoring these conditions and are allowing Mother Earth to alleviate her great internal pressures as little as possible. However, your planet's increasingly delicate condition means that the final interval, during which your global society will dwell upon her surface, will not last long.

Our fleet has increased its number of subterranean bases. We are carefully monitoring the conditions of your ailing planet. Remember, dear Hearts, that your world needs to be a fitting residence, once your full consciousness has been restored. This means that a new reality will be fashioned and will finally manifest before you. In many previous messages, we have discussed that new reality and how it is silently forming around you. You lack only the collective consensus to see it. Thus, for the moment, it remains hidden from you. In addition, your science is coming to realize that the universe is alive and composed of many unique and closely connected parts. It is crucial to transcend the concepts of quantum physics and learn more about the wonders of consciousness. In consciousness are found the keys that will unlock the true secrets of this divine Creation.

Now, we are taking the final few steps before our arrival. You play a major role in this operation. Your task is to continue to hold the energies for change, and to support in your hearts the transition that is occurring in your governments. It will change your views of yourselves and of the world. It will transform the operation of your technology and reveal exactly what your secret governments have hidden from you for so long.

It will force you to examine philosophies that have governed your life and realize Truths that long have been hidden from you. It will shock, enrage and dismay you. We ask you to remain positive and in a state of divine grace. Those in power have merely acted out of the self-interest and arrogance that they have learned from their former overlords—the Annunaki. Beneath, they are as fragile and as human as you.

The cabal that now controls you is very much in fear. The world that they intended to create is crashing down upon them. Even the great event of last September, which they had meant to use to keep them in power, is beginning to unravel. These circumstances, and the intense pressure being surreptitiously applied by cabals who previously were their allies in Europe, Asia and the Americas, greatly trouble them. Thus, realizing that they are alone, some of them wish to pursue a type of “scorched earth” policy. This has resulted in a number of moves that have greatly exacerbated conflicts in areas such as the Middle East and in South Asia. Our earthly allies and our liaisons have worked, often heroically, to minimize any serious expansion of these conflicts. These actions, also, are doomed to failure. Remember, always, that together, we shall be victorious!

Today, we have talked about some of the factors that are forming your approaching new reality. Be ever aware that you are a free and sovereign Being. At present, you are passing through the final chaos that usually engulfs those who watch as one reality makes way for another. This process will lead you to a marvelous destiny and your return to full consciousness. It will also result in a reunion with your spiritual and space families. We now take our leave. Blessings, dear Hearts! Know, deep in your heart of hearts, that Heaven’s countless Abundance and Prosperity is indeed yours! Amen. Selamat Gajun! Selamat Ja! (Sirian for Be One! Be in Joy!) [H: And, Selamat Mabuhay (Filipino for greetings and thank you).]

[END OF QUOTING]

[QUOTING Update by Sheldan Nidle for the Spiritual Hierarchy and the Galactic Federation, June 11, 2002 (5 Caban, O Kayab, 10 Caban):]

[H: Ask Mr. Nidle, not me, please.]

Salamat Jarin! We arrive, dear Ones, with more information about your coming first contact with us. Your galactic family watches lovingly as you grow more aware, each day, of who you are. This process has brought us to a point at which some truly wonderful events can finally manifest. Above you sits an enormous fleet of ships from every part of this galaxy. This fleet has been divided into two main aspects. First, there are the ships from many different human galactic societies. These are the Beings who initially will welcome you into the Galactic Federation of Light. The remaining ships belong to other sentient Beings who will greet you somewhat later. We are fully aware of how long you have been isolated from us and of how fearful and anxious you must be. Thus, we have established procedures that will enable us to land quickly, once we receive divine permission. This brings us to a description of the main first contact scenarios. They are designed to operate with or without the full cooperation of your major governments. We have, however, worked hard to obtain that cooperation.

Right now, there exists a three-fold program for contact. The first part has been to communicate, and then negotiate, with your governments and our earthly allies. This part of the procedure has exposed us to varied political nuances and to the power struggles of those who rule you. These negotiations are carried out under the direct supervision of your Ascended Masters. On previous occasions, these Beings of Light have formulated ways in which your world could be dramatically altered. This is a time in your history when those most closely allied with Spirit can join us in implementing these programs. Technology, financial and spiritual resources are now the major determinants of change in your world. Those who secretly rule you have fragmented these elements. Our present course lies in unifying these elements in such a way that Heaven’s Divine Plan can be revealed. This has led us to enter into a number of key agreements with our dearest earthly allies. Our overriding purpose is to shape a new government that serves your sovereignty and your freedom. Its ultimate authority will be your Ascended Masters.

The second part, to assist your local Spiritual Hierarchy with your transformation, has resulted in the formation of our Galactic Federation medical teams. Using this data, we have also compiled a dossier on each one of you. Our database clearly shows the acceleration in your changes and how well this massive integration is having its desired effect on you. An interesting side effect of this research is the way Mother Earth has timed her alterations to your own. A final consideration is the manner in which the Sun has allowed her changes to mirror yours. Such symbiosis is proof of how truly related you are to the environment that surrounds you. You are, in fact, its mighty co-creators, which means that your reality changes only as fast as you are divinely pushed forward by your Heavenly Hosts. We have witnessed how lovingly you are ‘pushed’. A special timetable is in operation, however, that indicates that you will complete this project very soon. Thus, we know that the moment for first contact is approaching. This knowledge has enabled us to organize a new type of medical team that will reveal itself to you when our existence is formally announced.

The new medical teams are set up to assist you, and to explain the changes that you are experiencing. Your physical bodies are transforming most dramatically. Most of you have not heard, or been given the opportunity to learn directly, about these alterations. Our technology can display these changes and show you your progress. As always, our medical teams merely complement our earthly and heavenly counterparts. Our goal is to give you a better understanding of how these procedures are carried out and how you can alleviate the situation within, on and around your physical body. We also wish to explain several new techniques that can increase your awareness of the magnitude of events that surround you and your reality. In this way, you can better appreciate how Heaven is transforming you and the operation of your reality. With that information, you will discover better ways to interface with the technology that we intend to give you.

The third part is to prepare your reality for its move into full consciousness. This means that we need to stabilize your environment and prevent incidents that could lead you back into the dark delusions that long have run your world. This procedure has put us at odds with the remaining dark cabal, which wishes to enforce its oppressive agenda. This group has been able to create a number of potential incidents. They, in turn, could have triggered others that would have escalated the turmoil needed by the cabals to manifest their evil agendas. As a result, we implemented a counter-strategy that has been in affect for nearly 14 galactic months. In this way, we have greatly contained the actions of this cabal. We have shown them that this activity has its limits and cannot result in the outcome they desire. Our aim, also, is to put our earthly allies in a position to bring to an end the source of this obstinate cabal’s power.

Yet another part of this proceeding concerns the arrival of a new financial system of abundance to your world. Our plans are based upon those initially begun centuries ago by your Ascended Masters. For them to be carried out required the major European and Asian powers to realize that a new financial system was necessary to bring greater power to themselves and their progeny. Within these structures were planted the seeds for a new reality, which was scheduled to germinate in this present decade. Now, a number of events are occurring that will bring about the pressures needed to manifest this new system. We are encouraged by the way this process is unfolding. Presently, a grand crescendo of forces is encroaching upon this cabal to make possible the necessary changes. With this act, one of our final obstacles will have been transformed.

To us, first contact is inevitable. It is part of the great integration that you are in the process of accomplishing. First contact means that you are ending your separation from Spirit and acknowledging that you are not alone. It means that you are expanding your present perception of physicality and returning your global society to the purpose that it lost just before the fiery death of Atlantis. You are accepting your divine responsibilities and, through this, you are allowing a new, fully conscious reality to be born. Our part is to act as the divine intruder and catalyst for what lies ahead. In doing so, we are guiding you into a reality that is your natural state of being. You are physical Angels, dear Hearts, preparing once again to spread your mighty wings and joyfully help physicality to achieve its divine purpose.

We solemnly renew our pledge to carry this divine intervention to its inevitable and successful conclusion. Our allies on your world appreciate this, and are aware of the incalculable depth of our sincerity. Our fleet has arrived to carry out a task that, for us, has become a passion. We fully understand Heaven’s dedication to the divine completion of this mission. We also know that the components that will be needed to complete this assignment are taking shape upon your world. This process has led us to the conclusion that first contact is truly near. Thus, we have increased our efforts to assist our earthly allies and ensure their triumph. We have instructed our liaisons to apply the requisite pressure to all elements of your world that can activate this first contact. We are resolved to celebrate our shared reunion. Remember that, together, we shall be victorious!

In this message, we have discussed our strategy for first contact and our commitment to its success. We call upon you to remain committed, focused and prepared to assist us in this divine and glorious undertaking. Our success, dear Ones, grows close. With the time available, let us bring together groups and do whatever is necessary to create your wondrous new reality. We now take our leave. Blessings! Know in your heart of hearts that the unbounded Prosperity and Abundance of Heaven is yours! Amen. Selamat Gajun! Selamat Ja!

[Quoting Update by Sheldan Nidle for the Spiritual Hierarchy and the Galactic Federation, June 18, 2002 (12 Kan, 7 Kayab, 10 Caban):]

Greetings! We arrive with more to tell you. In this message, we will continue the review of our fleet and of our preparations for the approaching completion of our first contact mission. As we have mentioned many times before, first contact is the event that most singularly acts as the line that separates the last 13 millennia of your life on Earth from your glorious future. Thus, we understand the vast implications of what we are about to accomplish together. To this end, we have encouraged our personnel to carry out the orders of Heavens as painstakingly as possible. This continuing command has led our forces to intervene directly in your affairs only to the extent they are allowed. In doing so, we have never killed or physically interfered with those on your world who opposed these decrees. Instead, we have left such degrees of interference to Heaven's more than capable hands. Our purpose is merely to serve, and not give you reason to think that we are less than we appear to be—benevolent Beings of Light. This concept stands at the very core of the protocols followed by this first contact mission.

A major point of misinformation is the extent to which we are portrayed, in your press, television and cinema, as malevolent torturers who abduct great numbers of your populace at will or as alien conquerors bent on overtaking your world. Both of these concepts are patently false. The oft-heard rumors concerning an off-world takeover and the current 'abductions' originate with your world's secret governments, to instill fear and distrust and simply to control your opinions of us. This propaganda has severely restricted many of our actions and has forced us to substantially increase the levels of secrecy we use in contacts with your governments and our earthly allies. Carried out too openly, these communications could be dismissed as part of the 'world takeover' storylines that they have planted so cleverly in your movies, television, books and magazine articles over the past five decades. What these writings do not tell you is how your secret government has manipulated its covert contacts with us. Nor has the technology that we have given them ever been revealed.

Until the middle of your last decade, two groups of off-worlders existed upon your world. We, the first group, were limited by Heaven and by the dictates of our main ruling body. The second group was a dark alliance that made a series of special pacts with your true secret rulers, the Anunnaki, permitting them to interfere with the Anunnaki's earthly minions. These acts resulted in technologies that, in some cases, may still sound to you like science fiction—advanced magnetic propulsions, solid-state electronics, drugs for mind control, 'free energy' generators, cloning, time travel, and so on. To allow your secret government to carry out a future planned direct takeover of your world, a blueprint was drawn up using these then-dark off-worlders to scan your world's population. The results of these studies were intrinsic to your dark lords' plan. The final stage, directed by your secret governments, was to be an invasion from outer space that initially would enrage the populace and later allow your governments to declare worldwide martial law.

The last phase of this scenario—a planned off-world invasion—was attempted many times over the past two decades. In each case, it failed abysmally, as a result of our direct interference under the close supervision of Heaven. Moreover, the fear promoted by your secret governments, involving bizarre abductions, animal and human mutilations and other related phenomena, is based upon technologies they received from their former off-world allies. In the middle of the last decade, an agreement was reached, ending problems with the star-nations and galactic empires that have bitterly opposed us in this galaxy. The crux of this treaty of peace involves Mother Earth. Your heartening progress toward the Light and the fulfillment of your magnificent destiny have made all of this possible. The result has been the Treaty of Anchara, which ends the possibility that your dark rulers' evil agenda ever could succeed.

In the years since this treaty was signed, your secret government endeavored to implement its agenda but has encountered the opposition of Heaven and of several earthly allies, as well as our own. This grand coalition has been able to obtain victories that have moved us ever closer to first contact. However, the most obstinate of these covert 'overlord' groups has taken control of one of your major governments and used its acquired resources to temporarily delay our inevitable success. This one group controls a major cache of secret weaponry and technology. It also contrived a scheme that resulted in an unspeakable disaster and traumatized many on your world. The degree of fear possessed by this one cabal is unimaginable. It fears that full disclosure of its actions will result in its utter destruction. That fear has caused them, time and again, to renege on their agreements. It also has created the need to limit them.

Our strategy is to fulfill Heaven's plan and encourage the success of our earthly allies. It has caused us to watch closely the actions of this one cabal. Our first step is to limit its governmental terrorism, which has included biological and nuclear weaponry, against its own people. We have neutralized their various efforts to carry out this horrible deed. Further, they have revived the concept of a staged invasion, which our forces are also monitoring. We have the technology to neutralize any vehicles or holographic devices that they may employ. We also are observing their use of time travel and teleportation technologies. No ploy will be permitted that allows them to expand the 'beach head' that Heaven already has given them. It was granted only to expose their vile intentions and to limit their effects on your destiny.

A major concern of your secret government is the large planet-like vehicle that is now headed toward you. This vehicle's purpose is not to destroy your world, but is simply a heavenly sign to this cabal that its time in power is very limited. This celestial object's purpose is not to create a vast catastrophe of epic proportions. It will not give rise to an enormous worldwide flood or cause massive casualties. It is a divine weapon that demonstrates their need to surrender and to allow grand abundance and a new reality to manifest upon your world. We are benevolent and do not wish to seriously endanger that which we desire for you. Soon, however, we will do what we must to remove this obstacle from our path. Until that moment of heavenly consent, we will permit our earthly allies their right to be heard.

This moment in your history is a time of transformation. Remember, dear Hearts, that you are witnessing the final stages of a vast and chaotic state of being. Never lose sight of what is actually unfolding. Your world has a destiny that is being watched over by Heaven. Your potential will be realized. Do not be discouraged by what you may believe to be real or celebrate prematurely what is not. We ask you to simply remain focused and fully committed to your victory. That victory will demand constant vigilance. Let your heart be aware of what is truly taking place. Use your inner 'knowing' to judge what is before you. Understand that the next steps in your journey are based upon that inner 'knowing'. Heaven bestows this upon you for a purpose—to help you navigate successfully the route that lies ahead. Use it carefully and do not let your head lead you astray.

Today, we have discussed what is unfolding and how to examine it intelligently. Do not let rumor or misinformation lead you around like lost sheep. Be prudent and wise. Look within and discover, there, the Truth. We are here simply to guide and help you to reach Heaven's goal—your return to full consciousness. We now take our leave. Blessings! Know deeply that the infinite Abundance and Prosperity of Heaven is indeed yours! Amen. Selamat Gajun! Selamat Ja! (Sirian for Be One! Be in Joy!)

[QUOTING Update by Sheldan Nidle for the Spiritual Hierarchy and the Galactic Federation, June 25, 2002 (6 Batz, 14 Kayab, 10 Caban):]

Salamat Jarin! We arrive with more to tell you. Many of you may wonder how we have set up our various fleets in your solar system. You may also have asked yourselves how each fleet's functions interrelate. To begin with, our fleets are positioned in three rings. The first ring surrounds Mother Earth and her artificial companion, your Moon. This fleet contains over one million ships, most of which are small, unarmed scout and transport vehicles. Their task is to observe you and your world, to oversee fleet operations and to transport certain types of supplies that cannot be teleported to our bases. Our bases, located beneath all of your continents, oceans and seas, are linked to a vast array of crystal cities and communities that comprise Inner Earth. Yet another group of bases is to be found on your Moon, which contains a huge network of command and research facilities. These stations provide the means for us to monitor your secret government's collection of space, time and inter-dimensional weaponry. They pose no potential threat to us.

Surrounding this first, or inner ring are several spokes that consist of a number of special liaison and defense fleets. Their purpose is, first, to supervise and, then, to take effective countermeasures whenever necessary. Our purpose is to refuse your secret government continued use of any weaponry that may pose a threat to our earthly allies. We have set up interplanetary 'stations' to close any inter-dimensional star-gates and to carefully monitor any artificially created distortions in time's natural waves. Here, bear in mind that physicality is actually an illusion created by its inhabitants' collective core belief and the dictates of the divine plan. In this, natural patterns occur in the way Time and Light coalesce to form 'space'—the stuff that produces realities. Dark, limited-conscious societies have used these natural patterns to construct fearsome weapons that alter realities, mutate dimensions and warp or constrict the flow of time. Your secret government has co-opted the work of many of your inventors and scientists, and merged it with a number of off-world technologies.

Other secret government technologies are capable of altering your physical, mental and emotional bodies. Their vile purpose is to bring about the eventual control of your minds. Then, they can complete the genetic alterations left undone by the fall of Atlantis some 13 millennia ago. Our mission is to neutralize and prevent any large-scale adoptions of these technologies. Every day, Heaven is working to finish, on schedule, the long process that will return you to full consciousness. Once again, we put on warning those in your secret government who continue to harbor the belief that they can hinder this sacred operation. We WILL NOT tolerate such attempts. Accordingly, we have established a full team of scientists and corresponding liaisons who are on the lookout for these programs and are then limiting their effectiveness. Properly applied, these technologies can substantially assist what Heaven is creating. Dear Friends, we most sincerely welcome a full disclosure of the covert acts, committed during most of Earth's last two centuries, that have hindered your return to full consciousness.

The second ring of fleet components is headquartered on Mars. These support groups consist mainly of sentient Beings who are not human in form. Many of them will be introduced to you soon after the beginning of first contact. Others will wait until you are restored to full consciousness. Within this second series of fleets are included some small, planetoid-sized Motherships, whose purpose is to augment the research and observations being done by the innermost ring of ships. They also have a number of tasks involving the weaponry and technology that, in the course of the past decades, has been given to your secret government. Most of this technology was supplied by the off-world star-nations, star leagues and star empires whose ships are to be found here. On Mars, a network of underground and surface bases acts as the 'control and command' segment of this exceedingly diverse fleet. These Galactic Federation personnel are also busily preparing Mother Mars for your arrival en masse, after your journey to full consciousness is completed.

Between the second and third rings are a large number of special, planet-sized command ships from our Science and Exploration (S&E) fleets. They will serve as the main command ships for this first contact mission. Standard procedure is to cloak these ships and keep them away from the prying eye of your many space telescopes. Their aim, essentially, is to find us. From time to time, we very briefly uncloak some of these Motherships in order to show your secret government that we are still here and do not intend to go away. We know that infrequent sightings of these ships by your astronomers go unreported. They fear reprisal, either by their peers or by those who give them their grants. Your secret government fears these ships the most because they fully realize the capability of such a fleet and the insignificance of any response they could mount. Here, we repeat that we are benevolent and operating under the full supervision of Heaven.

The outermost ring of our vast fleet is, by far, the largest. It contains millions of immensely varied ships, ranging from Motherships the size of large ocean liners to those nearly the size of Neptune or Uranus. These Motherships are simply our final back-up, serving as components that will enter the second ring only when necessary. They proclaim to all potential adversaries that Mother Earth and your solar system are clearly experiencing a transformation that no Being, corporeal or non-corporeal in form, can prevent. Within this ring are the main transport stations that lead back to our vast profusion of home-worlds. Here, as well, are to be found the traffic coordinators for this immense fleet of ships. They serve to move all ships between these rings and back into interstellar or intergalactic space.

Our fleet is divided into two components, as well. The first, and the smaller, has a very long duty cycle that includes our main command personnel, as well as our many medical and planetary teams. The second group, which is deliberately more temporary, consists of member fleets of the Galactic Federation of Light that dearly wish to be part of the most significant event in recent galactic history. We deeply understand that the need to watch over you is one of our greatest challenges, yet also one of our greatest joys. Every medical and planetary team is fully aware of what Mother Earth and you are undergoing. We have carefully observed and, when Heaven allows, have intervened. Every action of our fleet arises from events occurring on your world. Our entire team awaits first contact and what it means—the starting point for the next great step in our galaxy's history.

Our first contact command team, which contains all of our liaison boards and fleet commanders, is in charge of this immense fleet. There is also a special segment that comprises your local Spiritual Hierarchy. Remember, dear Friends, that our purpose for coming here is divine. Heaven summoned us and we came. To control such vast, diverse fleets is highly unusual in a first contact operation. Normally, a single S&E fleet accomplishes this mission in very short order. This mission, however, is unique and of vital significance. It has drawn immense attention and lasted much longer than usual. We have found room for such a wide diversity of ships and yet remained capable of fulfilling this mission. Be confident, dear Friends, that this mission will be achieved and that first contact draws nearer every day.

Today, we have briefly reviewed how we have amassed our first contact fleets. They are poised and ready to complete first contact. This mission is operating according to the divine right order and timing of Heaven. Therefore, we ask you to remain focused and committed to your inevitable success. Know, dear Friends, that soon we shall meet and at last be able to celebrate all that it implies. We now take our leave. Blessings! Know, dear Ones, in your heart of hearts, that Heaven's boundless Abundance and Prosperity is truly yours! Amen. Selamat Gajun! Selamat Ja! (Sirian for Be One! Be in Joy!)

[END OF QUOTING]

And thank you for several things—some of which are yet to be accomplished, please. We are asking to share this with YOU so that yes, you can have input from other resources. However, I ask you please: Let this unfold in its own proper sequence.

We DO NOT speak for Mr. Nidle and if he is like we, he can only repeat over and over again what he is given and writes. To pump for more and more and more is quite devastating to valid receivers, for they can't give you more without interpreting FOR THEIR SPEAKERS.

Along this same line, Dharma cannot give you more on the topic and I WON'T. This team is working around the clock and I ask that not one more straw be added to their load during this exceptionally critical time here in our segment of this ultimate mission. Mark will be very capable of handling direct visitation and I won't further comment anyway. LET US PLEASE NOT KILL OUR MESSENGERS, FOR THE ADVERSARY IS WORKING AROUND THE CLOCK TO SAVE HIS OWN ASSETS AND THEREFORE EVERYONE PAYS DEARLY FOR SERVICE. ALL OF YOU SHOULD HAVE KNOWN IT WOULD BE THIS WAY AND FOUND OUT, MANY OF YOU, THAT IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE FOR "YOU" TO REMAIN IN SERVICE OF LIGHTED CHANGE. THIS IS FINE BUT IT IS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO HELP THE ADVERSARIES FURTHER BASH AND TRASH THESE WILLING HANDS WHO SERVE, WHETHER IT BE IN SOUTH AFRICA, NEW ZEALAND, HAWAII OR MANILA. PLEASE, THEREFOR, DON'T PRESS OUR MESSENGERS AND RECEIVERS FOR EVER MORE AND MORE—THEY OFFER ALL THEY ARE GIVEN!

Salu, and may you find WITHIN that realization of great and wondrous things ahead. Know, however, that proper bridges had to and yet must be built and a proper sequence of progression made. We are happy to share anything we have but would never assume to dump any of our load onto, example: Mr. Nidle. He receives what he needs and we have what we need and ours is not just in "information" sharing, so we beg tolerance.

Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn—[I too serve that Federation Council in a rather prominent capacity, so I respect every other's task and I will not cross into another's authority. Please understand this or we shall withdraw and continue in our job. You must understand that we each must walk our own path and do our own accepted task to bring conclusions of positive aspect to the goals assigned.]

PHOENIX JOURNAL #13 (1990)

CHAPTER 4

REC #1 HATONN

WED., MAR. 7, 1990 7:15 A.M. YEAR 3 DAY 203

PERSPECTIVE: FACE IT!

Hatonn in Radiance, Dharma. We will take one step at a time, chela—one step at a time. This first portion is personal for this date but it needs to be shared with all receivers of these Journals and Express literature.

We plead “human overload” and petition for “patience” as we sort how best to be able to respond in a timely manner to ALL, for we cherish ALL and will respond to ALL!

George, with the next mailings, please enclose a simple check-off form with room for suggestions, please. Let us ask the recipients how best we can be of more service in an orderly manner. And, herein, let me respond to one or two petitions to which I shall more extensively respond a bit later on a personal basis.

We invite correspondence, for so many of the more pertinent queries are covered and they are usually inclusive of information that all are asking in one way or another. Would you please designate if a separate small Journal on a regular basis containing “correspondence” material, would be desired? Some of the material will be placed in the Journals themselves and/or bits and pieces in the Express but we are inundated and Dharma has only 24 hours per day and therefore, human restrictions apply. Perhaps if I outline our problems as they currently exist, it would help you dear ones to understand.

Request after request comes forth for the material to be put to audiotape. We realize that it would be most advantageous, for many ones have vision problems and messages can now easily be listened to during other activities—worse, a poll was done in the U.S. within the month showing that well above 60% of the people in the U.S. do not read books. Still worse, the educational system is out to deprive your population of basic abilities such as the ability to read, write and handle mathematics.

We can only beg indulgence with the taping, for we simply have no time at present and ones who have volunteered to assist have no means of support and must, therefore, be paid for the service.

Further, to produce the sets of tapes is financially out of the question until such time as the publication expenses are balanced. It would help greatly to have a response from you ones in that we might consider the best and most expedient route to take. It has simply come to the point where we must have feedback regarding your desires. Great appreciation to C.M. of Brasstown, N.C. and I shall make a personal response a bit later. I accept your intent and we are most grateful indeed but we are forced by circumstances to take one step at a time. These dear ones are being threatened daily with lawsuits and business problems and we must place our thrust where it can reach the most persons. We will also need translators into other languages as early-on as possible. These ones are not interested in “doing it all” but rather, there is no further funding available in this location for these services. So be it, for all shall come forth in its time. In behalf of my “team” on this side, I humbly thank you for your willing offers. As it can be afforded there must be a press and readers—all the component personnel to further the Word in every manner—in the interim, we shall do that which we can and ask that you ones share statistics which will allow us to serve in the best manner possible. I bless you for your unselfish considerations.

In the clash of events and denouncements of ones who had originally been receivers, some of our most beloved contacts have been too filled with fear to continue. So be it. Blessings unto them and we thank them for their services unto this point. It is terrifying when not only the CIA and government—but the religious community and now, the Satanists threaten and badger.

For over three years now, Dharma and Oberli have devoted 100% of their time and all assets unto this mission while struggling against all odds to simply remain in their dwelling. The formatter of the writings has given every cent he has and/or will have along with 100% of his time to this information dispersion. We have one young lady, Elizabeth, who has given 100% of her time but now must take outside employment, for her reserves have been exhausted. We have another two who have assisted greatly in any manner of service within their ability to share as well as family members who have basically supported these parents.

The publisher has found this to be greater than he and his wife’s ability to cover the load, for the two of them handle publication, as well as distribution, from the central source while expending thousands upon thousands of dollars in publishing expenses. Thus far, brethren, there has been not one cent from this information which has not been turned right back into the very printing and disbursement expenses. Those ones who taunt and shout “riches” are foolish indeed. Further, Foundations are being established to allocate monies into research projects to perfect apparatus for specific purposes. Please be gentle when ye hear of them being denounced and battered. KNOW those are the responses of our enemies who know of the truth of these documents; and be patient with our inability to respond instantly to your requests and input. We shall effort to not allow more than a week to pass without personal response. Blessings unto you who are so willing to assist and, as we move along, ye shall begin to see of thy place within the plan, for we shall need ones from every walk of life, including the retired who wish security and service—age is only an asset of knowledge and your children are begging for a return to knowledge and “how to”. Your children cannot survive with the information being given unto them—they cannot cook of their food without microwaves and they vegetate in front of a TV which gives them poison. Ah, even an infirm body does not hamper the mind—the mind only grows insufficient because it has nothing upon which to feed in thy old ages, for the body wearies of the journey of nothingness. However, income must be built into the system so that all can survive, hopefully in comfort and fulfillment of needs, for there will ultimately be no help from a government in collapse and turmoil.

Therefore, we must build a foundation of business whereby income can be garnered or barter established. It becomes more difficult because your reserve food supplies have been emptied and given unto your enemies—your silos are all but empty. To some of your questions as to what to do and how to manage—there will be no answers. We are not magicians nor mystics—there simply will be no wondrous answers but we will do all we can to inform you as to the probabilities of the best route to take as we discern it. We can do no more, beloved ones, and remember, you must ask for our input—for God nor the Universal Laws allow intervention or force.

SEEMS HOPELESS?

It would appear, therefore, that God has the lesser stick, for Satan seems to have it all. Well, he cannot use force either—he works directly through humans and plays to the earthly greed, terror and all manner of physical desires. God allows, for man must turn unto God and come again into righteousness lest he perish in the void of evil thrusts. We can only show you the way and allow you to see the destruction already upon you and where it is headed if it is not stopped. The probability of stopping the evil marchers upon your placement short of disastrous consequences is slim to minus. That does not mean that God and his Truth shall not prevail—GOD WILL PREVAIL IN GOODNESS AND BALANCE, FOR THE DRAGON SERPENT SHALL ULTIMATELY CONSUME OF ITSELF—YOUR PORTION IS TO ALLOW THE PASSAGE WITHOUT BEING CONSUMED ALONG WITH IT.

The question always arises as to, “How can you see to it that the new businesses and studios and communications centers are not simply confiscated?” WE CAN’T and THEY PROBABLY WILL BE—BUT NOT BEFORE OUR WORK IS LAID AND UNDER WAY. DO NOT EXPECT 6 BILLION PHYSICAL PEOPLE TO REMAIN ON EARTH AND THE WHOLE SYSTEM REVERSE INTO PURITY—READ THY PROPHECIES. IT IS MANDATORY

HOWEVER THAT SEGMENTS OF PEOPLE SURVIVE THE TRANSITION AND SO SHALL IT BE—NEVER WILL YOU BE TOLD BY ANY OF THE HOSTS OF HEAVEN THAT IT WILL BE EASY NOR WITHOUT PAIN OR DIFFICULTY—IT WILL, HOWEVER, BE ACCOMPLISHED.

Ones come unto us and ask how they can protect all their assets, money, etc. You can do some things to help yourselves—if you are simply trying to hide large sums of wealth so that you don't lose of it—forget it—the evil plan is too efficient. You can do those things which we point out unto you and they will help for a period of time but, brothers, you will probably not escape unscathed. Some will, most will not—it depends on how willing you are to act and prepare.

The secret of business will basically be in the allowing of the bankers, etc., to build of the businesses and then when they confiscate them, you can allow of their repossession without great losses. You must operate within the guidelines and laws of the “planners” themselves and it will allow you quite a nice period of time to gain a foundation. It will be THE WORD going forth and the army of awakened humanity that ultimately make the operation successful. Man has been duped for such a long time that he is all but helpless and he only knows to do that which is about him—act in foolish and hurtful demonstrations which only cause the Conspirators to come down very hard on the groups of rioters.

HOPE VS. FALSE HOPE

You will note that we are called doomsayers and gloom bearers. Would you rather us tell you to sit in a circle and hold hands and wait and it will change about? Yes, you would—the facts are it would be a lie. Then when they come to shoot you, we simply say, “Whoops, sorry, we told you that which you wanted to hear—sorry about your life and enslavement—we THOUGHT the chants might work and someone would do of the work—so be it!”

What about those pulse beams out there? What about the list of possible retreat and survival goods? What about a breakdown of the various systems of the Global Plan 2000 One World Conspiracy? Ones before Hatonn have written it down but have ALL partaken of the information?

USE OF INFORMATION

Well, brethren, we come at the request of hundreds of thousands of you people and we will sort and scan all information going forth unto you and give credit unto those who give you valid assistance and will not give of you information in these Journals which is not of valid perspective.

Information and documents we recommend unto you are done so because, at least portions thereof, are indeed credible truth. It will never mean we support ALL THAT AUTHOR'S INFORMATION UNLESS WE DO AND WE SHALL ANNOUNCE THAT LOUDLY OR GIVE UNTO YOU SOME LIMITS OF INPUT. ANY AUTHOR WE RECOMMEND, YOU WOULD DO WELL TO HONOR HIM/HER AND SUPPORT THEIR WORK AND AVAIL YOURSELVES OF THEIR INFORMATION. YOU MUST ALWAYS READ ALL INFORMATION WITH DISCERNMENT IN THE PRESENCE OF GOD INSIGHT AND DO THE PROPER WEEDING FOR SELF—WE WILL NOT DIGEST THE INTAKE FOR YOU. IF WE ERR AND UTILIZE COPYRIGHTED INFORMATION, IT WILL NEVER BE WITH INTENT TO TAKE ANOTHER'S PROPERTY NOR WITH INTENT TO FAIL TO GIVE CREDIT—WE SHALL NEVER GIVE “CREDIT FOR TRUTH” FROM FALSE WRITINGS OR SPEAKINGS. SOME WILL DO WELL TO NOT PUSH FOR RECOGNITION, FOR WE SHALL TELL IT EXACTLY LIKE IT IS!!!! IF ONES COME FORTH STATING THAT THEY WILL DO ALL TO GET THEIR INFORMATION OUT TO THE PUBLIC—ESPECIALLY UTILIZING THE NAME OF GOD OR CHRIST—GOD OR CHRIST ARE GOING TO USE IT, FOR THE INFORMATION WAS THEREBY GIVEN INTO THE HANDS HEREOF. THE PUBLISHER OF THIS MATERIAL AND/OR DHARMA AND OBERLI ARE REAPING NOTHING BUT HEADACHES FROM THIS WORK AND MATERIAL—SUE ALL YOU LIKE, ENEMY OF THE TRUTH! YOU SHALL GAIN OF NOTHING BUT CONTROVERSY, DISCREDIT AND BETRAYAL OF SELF AND THOSE WORKING WITH YOU TO PULL GOD DOWN.

Back now, to the writing, Dharma. The most often asked question regarding preparation is a breakdown of items, possible safety measures, etc. We will take time herein to devote the remainder of this chapter to perspectives on preparations. It is not new information but it will give ones an idea of involvement and some ideas of well-thought-out methods, quantities and shelters for adequate survival. As gun control, monetary changes, economic collapse, etc., come upon you, yes, it shall be harder and it is even more difficult for me to tell you one-on-one that which you should do—in the saving of time I can only refer you back unto the Journals on the subject and beg patience until we can enlarge on certain subjects. Remember—first you must know the problem as it confronts you and then, and only then, can you counter and work out solutions. That does not mean you must wait to begin—begin wherein you can, for we have efforted to lay out the Journals in sequence which lays foundations first and then increases with the really hard lumps to swallow.

We shall just lay down some listings herein and will work far more extensively subsequently.

THE PLAN: TOTAL SUBJUGATION

Now, how are they going to accomplish this? Let us define terminology before we go further. Let us call all of these groups of Elite controllers “Conspirators” to simplify writing and so you will know, in general, to whom we refer—most often we will refer to them as “they” and you as “you”, so that we might move right along with this portion. Thank you.

As to personnel the Conspirators will be counting on all those people at the hard core of all the organizations controlled by them. They will count on those in the drug culture, the rock-music culture, the motorcycle gangs, the White prisoners in the prisons, and a standing army now recruited and trained for revolution—now this, of course, is more along the lines of the Illuminati, rather than the Bolsheviks and/or Banker's Cartel. But it will suffice for this purpose and therefore this list is mostly organized in such manner as if you only had the Illuminati with which to contend. When you get into the Bolshevik plan for nuclear holocaust and beam destruction and economic devastation of the Bankers Central Elite—there needs be alterations to suit needs and locations.

I refer to “White prisoners” because if you refer to the appendix “letter from Satan”, No. 2, you will understand. This does not mean “ONLY” it means “MAJORITY”.

If the plans for gun control and martial law are voted into law, then they will have all of your nation's military forces and national guard at their disposal. The plan is most simple. After disarming the citizenry they simply order their revolutionaries to begin mass terror and murder in the streets. When the citizenry objects and cries out to the President he declares martial law, disbands Congress, mobilizes the National Guard—and you have an instant dictatorship with roughly one out of every five people in the population belonging to the military.

Although we do not concede the Illuminati's plan will work, we do believe the probabilities are excellent that if you counter those, you will be well on your way to positive protection in a physical manner and allow perpetuation of the message of truth. It has been the lesson of history that when deceivers have gained dictatorial control through conspiracy, subversion and then force, that it is not long before the citizenry realizes they have been deceived and are willing to work for a return to a society with moral behavior and principles.

To that end we offer the following material for you to consider as to what you might do to begin to prepare for the highly probable time of riot and revolution.

REFER TO YOUR HOLY BOOKS

What did the Lord's people do in Bible days during times of riot and revolution? It is instructive to ponder the behavior in manifold times of oppression.

You must pay attention to the help which is given unto you, for the truth has not changed in all the generations.

Jesus foretold the destruction of Jerusalem. He commanded His disciples to flee to the mountains when they saw Jerusalem encompassed with armies (Luke 21: 20-24). By obeying Christ there was not one Christian killed when Titus launched his second attack against Jerusalem.

Jesus has also foretold a great persecution that will come against His people in the days of the Tribulation. He has also commanded those who are believers in that time to flee for refuge into the mountains. (Matthew 24: 15-22; Mark 13: 14-20).

During the great persecution against the church in apostolic days it is recorded that the Christians found it necessary to flee for the preservation of their lives (Acts 8: 1-3).

Farther back, Nehemiah was the man who led the Jews to rebuild the walls around Jerusalem. The people found it necessary to labor with a trowel in one hand and a sword strapped to their side. BROTHERS, GOD HAS NEVER TOLD YOU TO STAND IDLY BY AND DEFEND NOT THINESELF IF IN FURTHER DEFENSE OF THINE OWN PEOPLES AND LIFE. READ IN PRAYERFUL DISCERNMENT THAT WHICH SHALL ALLOW YOU TO ENDURE DURING THE TIMES THAT SATAN SHALL ATTEMPT TO ANNIHILATE ALL DEFENSELESS PEOPLES OF GOODNESS.

CONSIDER PRIORITIES AS AMERICA FACES RIOT AND REVOLUTION

1. Set your own house in order spiritually and stay right with God constantly.
2. Pray earnestly for revival and the defeat of Satan's plan.
3. Serve the Lord the most effectively you can in spreading the word of truth, edifying God's people and strengthening His people.
4. Seek to expose the plan of Satan for world takeover in a discreet manner.
5. Resist the political objectives of the Conspirators by seeking to influence state and federal politicians in a way that will work WITH them. Oppose legislation that promotes the Conspirator's plans.
6. Prepare for civil disorders that will grow in intensity:

(1) Trucker strikes, coal and oil producer strikes, steel strikes, rail strikes and so forth, that will produce food and other shortages.

(2) Terror tactics that will be designed to produce a fear hysteria among the citizenry.

(3) Riots growing in size and intensity.

(4) Revolution.

7. The survival preparations in order of priority are:

(1) A retreat located away from the major cities. In the beginning a rural home of relatives or friends may suffice (but make pre-arrangements and contribute to the resources). At the end, it will require an "armed" camp, if the Conspirators are successful in achieving their goals. A group retreat in which each family is responsible for their own home or shelter, food and arms is by far the best.

(2) Food, water and supplies. Dehydrated food is best. It lasts indefinitely along with well-stored supplements.

(3) This one is going to get harder and harder to accomplish: Sufficient arms to protect your loved ones against those who would maliciously harm them. Killing to protect loved ones and even yourself when life is threatened is the moral thing to do on behalf of your loved ones and on behalf of innocent society whose lives are endangered by a person or persons who would kill and destroy them. There must be live humans to make this transition, beloved ones.

MORALITY OF KILLING TO PROTECT INNOCENT LIFE

When an aggressor attacks an innocent person, he not only threatens that person's life but he and his actions threaten innocent society as a whole.

QUALIFICATIONS

1. The defender (or those he is defending) must be the object of an unjust action. (Killing a properly authorized officer in his justified duties of arrest would not qualify.)

2. The defender must use only the force necessary to prevent the threatened unjust aggression.

3. The defender's primary intent must be to stop the aggression rather than to kill or injure and all alternatives must be utilized—first.

* What chance does a 115-pound woman or child have against a 250-pound man whose intent is to assault, rape or kill? Practically none—short of some form of firearm.

RETREATS

I. LOCATION

A. Ideally—200 miles from any major city and frankly, for you dear Southerners in the case of the Illuminati—get your safety place north of the alleged Mason-Dixon Line.

B. Ideally—30 miles from a major multi-lane highway (freeway). Population density should be less than 10 per square mile unless the population is in cooperation with the retreat.

C. Ideally—the retreat should be located where retreaters can make the trip from home to the retreat in daylight hours of one day.

D. Ideally—the retreat should not be in a nuclear target area or in the wind-fall area of nuclear fall-out.

E. Ideally—the retreat should not be located in an area that would flood should a dam be destroyed or be endangered from any type of hazard such as that.

F. Ideally—it should be located on the highest point of elevation over the immediate surrounding area, or near a summit whereby the backside of the retreat is protected by hillside. A placement of this type with its own water supply is ideal.

II. FACILITIES

A. Housing

There are three basic concepts:

1. An isolated single dwelling

2. A large condominium or apartment type dwelling with housing on top floor and preferably built "down" instead of "up". Common-purpose quarters should be at a low or underground level.

3. Family dwelling built in the form of groupings with dome-type structuring.

a. Homes should be built in the concept of the "wagon train or snowflake circle" for community as well as defense.

b. A community building can be built in the center of the housing area for meetings and other group needs.

c. Upstairs is for living quarters of daily use; lower "basement" is for storage and more intensive protection periods. This area would have pantries for foods, freezers for frozen foods and allow ample storage of dehydrated foods, water containers, etc.

d. The outward-facing wall of homes should be built so as to be defensible from attack. Concrete or compressed block, small windows (bullet proof or covered by steel plate). Patio with planter boxes (attached in sequence) a minimum of three feet high and at least two feet in thickness of the same material—preferably compressed "shan-stone" brick. Carefully laid natural rocks can also be utilized.

e. Wood or alternative-fuel stoves for heating and cooking must be supplied. If storage facilities are adequate, then butane or propane might be stored, however, be prepared to have ability to convert to natural plant or solar ability. This will be covered at a later date.

f. Cast-iron cooking utensils. These are the most efficient and durable if cooking is required on open fires.

g. Lighting should be provided by high efficiency gas lamps which use fuel oil but fuel oil must then be stored in quantity. Electric lighting may be installed but may fail and therefore be prepared with backup generators—these will also require large storage of fuel.

h. High intensity floodlights should be mounted facing outward from the front of homes.

i. Some type of protective housing should be provided for animals (perhaps community building). This will be covered greatly in the portions planned for sheltering facilities.

B. Grounds

1. Garden area should be located behind house.

2. Front of property should include grass-grazing area and a "Safety Zone" of 350 yards cleared completely for defensive purposes.

3. Effort should be made to insure that traffic on an incoming road should be visible.

III. WEAPONS

A. An arsenal to store weapons, powder, ammunition and etc. should be separate from main structure and buried underground. It should be concealed so as not to be capable of being located by search.

B. Suggested Guns

1. Defense Rifles. Mostly this shall be left up to your discretion. Obviously, you should have at least as good as you can obtain to match that which will be in the hands of the enemy.

.223 Caliber (AR-14; Ruger Mini 14, etc.)

.308 Caliber (MIA: M14; H & K 91)

30.06 Caliber (Surplus Military Rifles)

2. Hunting Rifles

30.06 Caliber (Remington 760 or 700 etc.)

.308 Caliber (Remington 760 or 700 etc.)

30/30 Caliber (Marlin 336 etc.)

.22 Caliber (Any reliable make semi-automatic)

3. Shotguns

12 gauge—Remington 870 Pump with long magazine for extra shells is recommended. This gun can be equipped with different barrels.

4. Pistols

.357 Ruger, Dan Wesson, Colt and etc.

.45 Caliber Colt 1917 Government Model Mark 4 (Accurized if possible)

C. 1000 rounds of ammunition per gun (or more), or equivalent in reloading components

D. Reloading equipment and supplies for your guns

IV. STORABLE FOODS

A. One-year's supply of storable food is recommended.

1. The Central Valley of California produces about 25% of the United States food supply and more than 40% of your vegetables. (You can count on a failure of growing seasons if for no other reason than disruption of irrigation facilities.)

2. Canada and U.S. produce 70% of the total food exports in the world.

3. The average home in U.S. has less than one week's food supply.

4. The average U.S. city has a food supply of only 8 days.

5. Should there be crop failure, riots, strikes, etc., that slow or stop food supply to the cities, then food costs would become exorbitant.

6. Should there be revolution there will be no food available from stores.

7. At such a time food would only be available from:

- a. supplies previously stocked
- b. bartering
- c. foraging
- d. plundering
- e. gardening (and that takes "time")

8. Excess food for bartering and humanitarian purposes is worth much consideration and planning. The investment will ultimately be more valuable than gold.

B. The Method of Stocking Food

1. The easiest method is purchasing a 1-year food supply from one of the manufacturer's suppliers.

2. Buy a sample pack of food from a reliable supplier. Then pick foods that suit your taste.

3. Area suppliers may be located by checking with camping stores, health food stores, and sporting goods stores. We also highly recommend the Mormon Church advisors, for they have excellent food storage plans already laid forth. We have also recommended one prior to this but there are many and if you wish to share the information as you locate good suppliers, we will be most happy to print the information. This holds true for any information you wish to share with your brethren.

4. The Basic Plan

a. Three-months supply of "wet pack" (this is Super Market canned food). Record a typical week of food for your use then multiple by 13. This must be dated. It will only be good for about 3 years and should be turned upside down every month.

b. A portable three-month supply of freeze-dried foods. This will have a shelf life of about 15 years (unopened).

c. Supply for long-time storage should include:

Grains, non-instant powdered milk (100 lbs. per person.), freeze-dried meats and some vegetables (freeze-dried is the most expensive but is necessary for some vegetables).

 Also some TVP (textured vegetable protein) as a supplement. (Air-drying is least expensive and is adequate for many fruits and vegetables.) Air-dried fruits and some vegetables. (Least expensive method)

d. A pure water supply

 If water source is questionable, then a thermos-size PCP from a survival source will handle some 1500 gals.

e. Wheat, flour, sugar, honey, salt and salad oil—all vacuum packed. Butter powder, shortening powder and peanut-butter powder may be mixed with salad oil or shortening to add variety to menus.

f. Sourdough Mix

g. Yogurt Starter

h. Multi-vitamins/minerals

i. Vitamin C in large quantity.

j. Seasonings: Pepper, Chili powder, curry powder, allspice, basil, thyme, oregano, cinnamon, paprika and seasoned salt and, of course, plain salt (pref. sea salt).

C. Economical Long-Term Food Storage

The basic four foods:

1. 300 pounds of hard Red Winter Wheat
2. 100 pounds of powdered milk (non-inst.)
3. 100 pounds of honey
4. 8 pounds of salt

 These basics plus vitamins B+, C, D, E, and K will sustain one person for one year with 2000 calories per day.

The wheat must be clean and uncracked (to preserve germ) with low moisture and at least a 12% protein content (15% is better).

The milk should be non-fat and non-instant and commercially packed. To enhance flavor get a supply of imitation cream powder.

The other items should be vacuum packed in AN INERT NITROGEN ATMOSPHERE. NEW 5-GALLON CANS MADE OUT OF ENAMELED STEEL WILL WORK. It takes 9 cans for each 300 pounds of wheat.

Directions: Place a fist-size piece of dry ice in the bottom of the can. Fill the can with wheat, grain or beans, put the lid on loosely in place. When the lid stops "burping" tighten the lid quickly so that it seals.

 Purchase a small wheat grinder—hand operated.

 Supplement above diet with fish, fowl, and game taken by fishing, hunting, and trapping or however—you might use barter, and also use additional fruit, vegetables, meats or meat substitutes, liquids, bread or cereal.

D. Water Sources:

1. Swimming pool
2. Water Beds
3. Water stored in containers, cistern, etc
4. Pure water stream or spring (water purification may be provided by water purifying tabs available at drug stores) or:

a. 8 drops (5.25%) of Chlorine Bleach per gallon in stored water will preserve it. Questionable water should receive twice as much and allowed to stand ½ hour. Do not be disturbed over chlorine taste.

b. Tincture of iodine or iodine crystals:

12 drops per gallon normally or 24 drops for questionable water with 30-minute waiting

c. Boiling

d. Silver-ion purifiers

e. Charcoal purifiers

f. PCP purifiers sold commercially

E. Medicines

1. Aspirins
2. First Aid Kits
3. Surgical Kit
4. Medicine required by individual retreaters
5. Extra bandages and bandage materials
6. Alcohol
7. Hydrogen Peroxide
8. Pain relievers without aspirin
9. Other available medicines which would control vomiting, diarrhea, etc., as might be obtainable

V. PROVISIONS

A. Garden Seeds: An adequate supply of grain and vegetable seeds chosen according to retreaters' preference with attention given to a balanced diet. Do not choose hybrid seeds as they deteriorate in quality with each generation and some only produce one time.

B. Garden Tools

C. Ample and Suitable Clothing. * It should be durable and comfortable such as cotton underclothing and woolen outerwear. If flamed, man-made fibers will melt and the heated substance can cause serious burns beyond the flaming. Woolen outerwear is excellent. But utilize what you can obtain because protection from the elements must be first consideration. Get good outdoor work shoes. Warm hats or caps. For storage the clothing can be packed in plastic with an insulation layer of brown paper. Include mothballs and packets of silica jell (for moisture control). The mothballs control pests in the natural-fiber cloth.

D. GET AN OLD-FASHIONED TREADLE SEWING MACHINE AND SOME BOLTS OF MATERIAL. YOU WILL PROBABLY BE WITHOUT ELECTRICITY AT SOME TIME. IF THERE ARE SEVERAL FAMILIES—SHARE.

E. A footlocker in the car with survival items provides a measure of instant mobility if necessary and will tide persons over until they can reach the retreat or safety.

F. Communication Equipment:

CBs—Base Unit and mobile unit
Walkie Talkie (Realistic combines quality and economy)
Power Pack—Generator (absolutely mandatory)

G. Canning Equipment

Pressure Cooker
Canning jars, lids and large extra supply seal lids

INFIGHTING SLOWS HUNT FOR HIDDEN AL-QAIDA ASSETS

By Karen DeYoung and Douglas Farah,
The Washington Post, 06/18/02

The U.S.-led effort to track money belonging to terrorist groups has been hobbled by bureaucratic infighting and a growing understanding by investigators that most of al-Qaida's money is not in banks but in untraceable commodities, including gold and diamonds, according to U.S. and international officials.

The transfer of al-Qaida's assets, the scale of which is only now becoming clear, has left much of the organization's financial network untouched by the Bush administration's campaign to freeze terrorist funds around the globe.

At the same time, the efforts to shut down terrorist financing, one of the key components of President Bush's counterterrorism strategy, have been hindered by interagency turf battles in the U.S. government, sources in various agencies said.

The disputes mirror those that have plagued intelligence-sharing efforts between the CIA and the FBI. ...

According to dozens of investigators and financial sources interviewed in Asia, Africa and the United States, al-Qaida operatives long before Sept. 11 began shifting money out of bank accounts that could be traced and into untraceable gold and precious stones such as diamonds, tanzanite and sapphires. But the move went largely unrecognized.

"It was a paradigm shift in the financial organization that we missed," said one European financial investigator. "Everyone was trying to find bank accounts in Geneva when al-Qaida was greatly reducing their exposure in the formal financial sector. Now we are finding tentacles into all kinds of precious stones and metals."

Such commodities are small and easy to store and transport, and they hold their value over time. They can also be released in small amounts on the market without arousing attention. Monitoring the shift of millions of dollars into precious stones was made even more difficult because the U.S. government has still not developed a central database on what is known about al-Qaida's financial network.

The government's effort is marred by other problems as well. Senior officials from the Treasury and Justice departments and their component agencies, along with the CIA and the Pentagon, began weekly interagency meetings within days after Sept. 11. ...

Some of the worst conflicts have been between Treasury and Justice. Asset-tracking task forces within the Customs Service at Treasury and the FBI's financial review group inside Justice have nearly identical investigative missions. But they have been so resistant to cooperation that, until recently, they did not fill designated chairs at each other's tables.

Though not disputing that there have been problems with coordination and information sharing, a number of officials throughout the government argue that the situation has greatly improved since Sept. 11. They note that the Foreign Terrorist Asset Tracking Center, established under Treasury's auspices in late September, was moved in April to CIA headquarters in Langley to improve coordination. Overall, officials say, competing, often conflicting, investigations are no longer among their biggest problems....

Deputy Treasury Secretary Kenneth W. Dam, who heads a high-level National Security Council strategy group that sets policy for the financial campaign, said the biggest problem is a lack of information. "No agency knows as much as it would like to know," he said.

The biggest unknown is what happened to the hundreds of millions of dollars the Bush administration initially suggested was in the coffers of al-Qaida and organizations allied to it.

"These terrorists are intelligent, adaptable people, and they realize that putting money in bank accounts, particularly in the United States or Western Europe, is not a very good way to make sure it's available when you want it," Dam said.

Ordered by Bush in late September to "starve the terrorists of funding", the Treasury-led financial war was marked by well-publicized early success. The government mobilized vast domestic resources, and executive orders and legislation speedily approved by Congress gave the government new arrest and seizure powers. The administration enlisted international organizations, from the United Nations, the European Union and NATO to more obscure economic bodies such as the 29-nation Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering. The initial goal was to block bank accounts linked to individuals and organizations on a U.S. list that began with 27 names and has grown to 210. By February, more than $100 million in alleged terrorist money was frozen in financial institutions in the United States and abroad.

But since that low-hanging fruit was harvested—virtually all of it from a few countries among the 161 the administration says are cooperating with the effort—pickings have been slim....

At the same time, Dam and others acknowledged that there has been less than full cooperation from some parts of the world. "Frankly, there's been a little falling off in the alacrity with which some countries" have adhered to the list, particularly in Southeast Asia, Dam said in a speech last month.

Although all 189 UN member nations were obligated to submit reports last winter detailing their compliance with a September Security Council resolution on terrorist assets, only 43 have done so. The majority of the 43, including countries such as Indonesia and Syria, believed by the administration to be centers of terrorist finance, have said they found no money to freeze.

A number of countries lack the technological resources to search bank accounts or the legal framework to seize money that has not been tied to a crime. Eager to help install new computer systems or write the necessary laws, Treasury has dispatched dozens of "jump teams", consisting of technicians, legal experts and senior officials, to countries since October. Senior officials, including Treasury Secretary Paul H. O'Neill and Dam, have made

Add to your list as you ponder it and keep it handy for inspirational items such as candles, tape, rope, string, etc., etc. I can only give you an idea at this point and basic necessities. For instance, those matches will have to have waterproof containers—you must carefully think of things you would need if you were alone indefinitely. I gave you several good resources for listings and outlines in SURVIVAL, so I shall spare Dharma the further listing in this portion. We can ask ones later to put together a specific guide—several of you who are adept in this subject could assemble a comprehensive guide which we could put forth as a Journal and/or supplement.

I am well aware that this is not sufficient for your needs but there is plenty of available information and as you ones begin to network you will be able to form partnerships for the production of various and specific needs. At this time, if you write in with your talents and desires, we can share the listings for you and you can work by mail, etc. Much can be accomplished even at great distances while there is still a system within which to function—and relocations can be accomplished later if necessary or desirable. Use that technology which is available.

If you are willing to share your talents or resources, let us know and we can get connections made as to close locations, etc. We must come into "Community" to succeed—that does not necessarily mean proximity—it means exactly that which it says—COMMUNITY—not commune—COMMUNITY!

hundreds of calls and visits to their counterparts around the world to push the campaign. ...

"The financial front of the war on terrorism," Dam announced in a speech to the Council on Foreign Relations early this month, "has entered a new phase." Its focus, he said, will be on "means of financing terrorism outside of the mainstream financial system."

Many financial investigators are sharply revising estimates of the personal fortune of al-Qaida leader Osama bin Laden, who used a great deal of his own money to start the organization. ...

U.S. officials believe al-Qaida derives much of its current funding from two sources: what Dam called "informal methods of moving their money," through Islamic charities and private remittance systems called hawalas, and storing money in "commodities like gold or diamonds, converting the commodities to cash only as needed."

Going after the charities "is an important and sensitive issue," Dam acknowledged in a reflection of criticism from a number of Islamic countries. The administration recognizes that "hawala dealers provide an important service" in low-cost money transfers to Muslim populations, particularly in parts of Africa with no access to formal financial services, he said. "We do not think that banning hawalas altogether is the answer."

One source who has dealt with Taliban and al-Qaida financial matters said that bin Laden's chief financial officers began a serious shift in assets from banks to commodities after the United States froze $254 million in Taliban money in 1998 following the attacks on two U.S. embassies in East Africa by al-Qaida operatives.

A recent UN report on al-Qaida and Taliban money movements found that, as a result of global efforts to crack down on terrorist funds, al-Qaida "may be diversifying financial aspects of its logistical support by converting parts of its assets into gold, diamonds and other precious stones".

The shift to commodities underscores how little was understood about how al-Qaida's finances operated, or how much money the network had at its disposal.

Financial investigators and intelligence sources acknowledge that even after months of intense, global investigations, they have no clear idea of how much money al-Qaida needs to operate each year or how much money it is able to access....

[JR: First off, the reason for the lack of cooperation between these alphabet agencies in locating bin Laden, al-Qaida or Taliban bank records is that the left hand doesn't want the right hand to have an advantage. They are all after the same assets for "legal (RICO) confiscation" and don't want to share the spoils ($) of this "war on terrorism". Secondly, since the U.S. has a history of freezing the assets of even sovereign nations that refuse to play on their team—like Iran, Iraq, Libya, Yugoslavia, et al.—it is obviously common sense for these terrorists to move their assets into safe havens, out of the reach and control of the international bankers. Thirdly, the intelligence community is frustrated that some Middle Eastern terrorist group can make them look... not so intelligent.]

ON U.S. PREPARATIONS TO TOPPLE SADDAM HUSSEIN

Iraq-USA, Politics, ArabicNews, 02/15/02

The Kuwaiti daily al-Seyassah issued on Wednesday received information which stated that the U.S. administration has prepared the Iraqi retired Maj. Gen. Najib al-Salehi for the presidency of an Iraqi provisional government after toppling Iraq current president Saddam Hussein.

The paper quoted diplomatic sources in Amman as saying that al-Salehi left recently for the U.S. in a work visit during which he will be meeting with high ranking American officials at the White House and the CIA director George Tenet with the aim of briefing him with the details of the American project to topple Saddam Hussein and his role in the presidency of the provisional government in his being the strongest candidate to play the role of Hameed Karazai in Iraq within the framework of preparations to prepare the region and the world for a large-scale military operation to topple the Iraqi regime.

These sources said that the American plan to topple Saddam states that the American air military operation is to be coincided with a creep for the Iraqi opposition forces from the north and the south towards the capital Baghdad and to establish a provisional government to be chaired by al-Salehi, at the consent of the coalition of the Iraqi opposition, and on top of them is Lt. Gen. Nizar al-Khazraji.

The sources said that the Bush administration intends to bring Saddam Hussein, if he will be arrested alive, to the war crimes court.

The sources explained that Washington asked the Arab leaders who will be meeting at Beirut's summit to adopt a decision recognizing Israel and maintain relations with it for its pullout to the June 4, 1967 border lines and to closing the Iraqi file. [JR: What a stroke of luck! The future leader of Iraq just happens to live in the U.S. President Bush's public disclosure of U.S. plans to replace Saddam even if it means his assassination has to be a bit of a shock to his supporters. Our President seems to have adopted a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde complex or maybe he is just projecting his true personality. Is the U.S. now operating from the pages of Israel's book of non-diplomacy in which the end will justify the means? This announcement by Bush makes it appear as though Bush is Sharon's man in the White House and that the U.S. is committed to promoting Zionist interests anywhere in the world. Sharon has his own plans for the removal of Arafat—so are the U.S. plans for Iraq's future a test to gauge how well the world will accept the elimination of leaders whom the Elite players disapprove of. It is known that Saddam has made uses of doubles during his public appearances so how will we be sure where the real Saddam is? Since we have announced Saddam's removal or demise you have to expect that Saddam is and always has been making plans for his survival?]

Iraq, Politics, aribicnews.com, 02/18/02

Maj. Gen. Najib al-Salehi who was nominated by certain Iraqi opposition forces to be the President of Iraq has stressed his care to open a new page of relations with countries adjoining his country.

In a telephone statement to the Kuwaiti daily al-Rai al-Aam issued on Saturday from his residence in the U.S., al-Salehi said that solving pending issues with the neighboring states will be one of the first priorities of Iraq's foreign policy in the phase aftermath Saddam, noting the misdeeds made by the Iraqi regime to the neighboring states, foremost being Kuwait.

He also called on the countries neighboring Iraq to honor the desire felt by the Iraqi people to choose its political system freely, stressing that Iraq is an integrated part of the Arab nation and will work for improving its relations with its nation and with all countries of the world.

He said that the Iraqi opposition forces have increased the volume of coordination among themselves in order to cope with successive developments whose indicators incline towards toppling the regime of Saddam Hussein.

He added that there is a common perception of these "Iraqi opposition forces" for the phase after the change of the Iraqi regime, noting that the next Iraqi leadership will be of democratic attitude and will work for the founding of civil establishments.

He expressed his conviction that the Iraqi army has a role in controlling the condition during the process of changing the regime. He stressed the rejection of the opposition forces to found a military regime in Iraq and said that such a rule will not ensure security to Iraq and to the Iraqi people.

Worthy mentioning that al-Salehi was a commander for the tanks contingent which occupied Kuwait in 1990. [JR: Gen. al-Salehi, the nominee to replace Saddam, seems informed and assured (or most likely is programmed) to believe that American interference will help stabilize and restore Iraq so that it can again take its place among Arab nations. If the military has a role in "controlling" the transition, how can a military regime not be avoided? If the military is supportive in replacing Saddam why haven't they done so thus far? What has not been addressed here by al-Salehi is how the Iraqi people will accept him as America's puppet to rule over them and their country? The Iraqi people have paid a heavy price because of the imposed American and British embargo and the daily fly-overs. They don't need to have to bear the sorrow of their country being taken over by their oppressors.]

U. S. MARINES STUDYING ISRAELI URBAN WARFARE METHODS AT JENIN

WORLD TRIBUNE.COM, 06/06/02

The U.S. Marine Corps and Israeli military commanders are studying the capture of the Palestinian refugee camp outside the West Bank city of Jenin. The three-day battle left 23 Israelis and more than 50 Palestinians dead.

The Marines want to learn from the Israeli experience in urban warfare and the recent massive search-and-destroy operations for Palestinian insurgents in the West Bank.

Marine Lt. Col. Dave Booth, who oversees the Marine Corps-Israeli Defense Force exchanges, said his service meets with commanders from Israel and other countries to exchange information and hone skills. Booth said this benefits both the United States and its allies.

"We're interested in what they're developing, especially since Sept. 11," Booth told the Marine Corps Times. "We're interested in their past experience in fighting terrorism. So there's a lot of things we could learn from them."

The U.S. military weekly said the Marine Corps Warfighting Lab plans to revise the corps' urban warfare doctrine after an examination of Israeli tactics. This includes adapting Israeli methods in the deployment of air and armor in urban areas.

The military talks took place in both Israel and the United States. Marine Corps commanders watched Israeli exercises and Israeli officers viewed a U.S. exercise in urban warfare last month.

The United States also sent a delegation from the Joint Chiefs of Staff last month to review Operation Defensive Shield, the term used for the month-long offensive against Palestinian insurgents in the West Bank.

The marines, struggling to reduce casualties in urban warfare simulations, have experimented with handheld satellite phones and rugged laptop computers to coordinate attacks on cities. In Operation Defensive Shield, Israel used unmanned air vehicles and attack helicopters along with armored vehicles.

Israel and the United States have also been discussing ideas for a security buffer zone meant to detect insurgents. Next week, Israel plans to launch tenders to establish a zone based on sensors, command and control and electronic fences in the first stage of a project estimated at $65 million.

[JR: Our U.S. Marines are going to “hone their skills” in urban warfare and adopt Israeli methods to contain and control civilian populations here in America and overseas. Most importantly they will learn the art of employing the methods of fear and suppression used so successfully by the Israeli military in the land of Zion. Prime Minister Sharon has to be quite pleased how quickly we are adapting to the Zionist way of doing things here in Israel/USA. It proves that our government and our military regard U.S. citizens as a potential target of operations and are prepared to use force by any means to protect their unnatural world of disorder. Our leaders fear that they cannot trust that we will remain stupid for very long because their acts of control are becoming rather obvious. Hopefully you will not experience an Israeli military-style operation in an area near you in the very near future. Big Brother is not only watching you but now he has become armed and dangerous and speaks Yiddish (dialect of the false Jews)!]

ISRAEL COMES CLOSE TO KILLING ARAFAT

By Ben Lynfield in Jerusalem, thescotsman.co.uk, 06/07/02

Underscoring its message that Yasser Arafat should be excluded from any diplomatic initiatives, Israel went to the brink of killing the Palestinian leader yesterday, as troops fired a shell that struck only five feet from his bed.

In their first such assault since an army siege was lifted last month, Israeli troops who invaded Ramallah blew up three other buildings in Mr. Arafat's compound and killed one member of the Palestinian security forces.

The army said the shelling was not intended to harm Mr. Arafat. The Ramallah attack came after a devastating Palestinian suicide bombing on Wednesday at Megiddo, in northern Israel.

Mr. Arafat, pointing to the remains of his sleeping quarters, said: “I was supposed to sleep here but I had work to do downstairs and did not go to sleep. They shelled this room wanting me to be here.”...

“Sharon feels that things are moving too quickly towards an international conference, with the establishment of a Palestinian state and that this should not be done while Arafat is still around,” says Leslie Susser, diplomatic correspondent of the Jerusalem Report magazine.

“He is saying to Bush: ‘You are putting the cart before the horse and if you give the Palestinians these concessions, there will be no incentive for them to carry out reforms and to get rid of Arafat.’”...

At stake is not only Mr. Arafat's role but the tone of an international conference that could start as early as July. Will it be in line with Mr. Sharon's view of a general exchange of ideas on promoting regional stability, or in line with the Saudi, Egyptian and Jordanian aim for significant progress on the Palestinian track that would entail Israeli concessions?

Mr. Sharon asked for the talks with Mr. Bush as a way of offsetting Arab input into the U.S. administration's decision making, analysts say. But even if Mr. Bush is persuaded to dilute the conference and concludes Mr. Arafat's demise is desirable, the U.S. Administration and Mr. Sharon will still face a major problem: Mr. Arafat's continued strong position at home.

“All of the time that Arafat is around, I doubt there will be any Palestinian who will say ‘I am an alternative’,” says Wadi Abu Nasser, a Haifa-based political analyst. “When Arafat is challenged, as he was today, people forget about corruption in the Palestinian Authority and remember their national hero,” he added.

“America has been talking for ten years about the need to replace Saddam, but there is no Iraqi to do that mission,” Mr. Abu Nasser said. “Bush's problem is that he cannot rule Ramallah. He would have to find a Palestinian to do that.”...

Nabil Kukali, a Palestinian pollster, said yesterday his latest surveys indicate 46 per cent public support for Mr. Arafat, compared with 55 per cent before Israel's West Bank offensive in April and 81 per cent during the siege in Ramallah. Support for Mr. Arafat reached a low ebb of 33 per cent a year ago, he said.

“The Palestinians may disagree with him, but they respect him. For the time being, people see no other leader,” Mr. Kukali said.

[JR: Sharon will continue his stall of the peace process because his plan is that there will be no Palestinian state within Israel and no Palestinians left to live in that state. Sharon's goal is to diminish Arafat as a leader by ignoring him and to push him into a forced exile, or better yet, that Arafat should meet with an accident like an errant missile hitting its intended target. The future of the Middle East rests in the hands of the U.S. and Israel unless Arab leaders are guided to GAIA and the promises it holds for the Muslim people.]

BREAKING INTERNATIONAL LAW, BRITAIN SELLS CHEMICAL WEAPONS TO THE WORLD

By Neil Mackay, Sunday Herald—UK, 06/13/02

BRITAIN is supplying chemical warfare technology to 26 countries including Libya, Syria, Israel and Iran—which was labelled part of the ‘axis of evil’ by the United States.

A Sunday Herald investigation has revealed that the UK is allowing the export of the lethal chemicals, which are illegal under international law and controlled under the chemical weapons convention because they can be used in weapons of mass destruction.

The Department of Trade and Industry (DTI), which authorised the sales, has admitted that it does not know whether the exports will be used to create chemical weapons once they are exported, or not.

Among the countries to which Britain is exporting ‘toxic chemical precursors’ (TCPs) is Sudan. The U.S.

bombed a factory in the Sudanese capital Khartoum in 1998 with the full support of the Blair government for allegedly producing the deadly VX nerve agent.

The UK is also exporting chemical weapons technology to countries that are not signatories to the chemical weapons convention and therefore do not recognise the international ban on chemical warfare.

Sudan and Jordan, which the UK also exports to, have signed the convention but not ratified it, making the treaty virtually meaningless there. The other nations Britain exports TCPs to are: Cyprus, India, Kenya, Kuwait, Malaysia, Nigeria, Oman, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, Slovenia, South Africa, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, Tanzania, Thailand, Turkey, Uganda and Yemen.

TCPs are known as ‘dual-use chemicals’ as they can be used for harmless activities like farming or adapted or turned into chemical weapons. The DTI admitted the sales were on-going, but said the weapons were sold ‘in the belief’ that they would be used ‘benignly’ in agriculture or as detergents.

The DTI said it relied on assurances from foreign governments in the form of ‘end user undertakings’ that they would not use British TCPs to make chemical weapons. A spokesman agreed that this was in effect nothing more than a promise that could be broken. ...

Labour MP Ann Clwyd, who sits on international development, human rights and arms export committees, is to raise the Sunday Herald investigation with the Prime Minister in the Commons.

She wants the Arms Export Bill, which is currently going through parliament, to be amended to give MPs the right to scrutinise and approve all weapons exports before they leave the UK. The government has so far refused to give MPs these powers. ...

Richard Bingley, of the group Campaign Against the Arms Trade, warned that Britain was selling chemical weapons technology to regimes that could one day turn the capabilities Britain is giving to them back against it and its allies. ...

[JR: England, our ally and partner in crime and deception, is selling chemical weapons to unstable governments and rogue states for profit and to assist rival countries in eliminating each other. While being profitable it also fits well into the UN and the NWO plans for culling the planet of people they consider worthless. The fact that the British Dept. of Trade and Industry sells chemical weapons indiscriminately to anyone with or without a treaty supports such speculations. Either the DTI is rather naïve in worldly matters or they show a total lack of responsibility and good sense. The treaties and agreements signed between nations tend in time to be ignored, modified or corrected especially by the Western superpowers like the U.S. and England.]

WATCH OUT KOFI ANNAN: WASHINGTON'S NEW WITCH HUNT

By Ian Williams, Foreign Policy In Focus, 06/07/02

At one time many of us were worried that the U.S. would pull out of the UN and other international organizations in a fit of isolationism. As it happens, almost as frightening is an equally xenophobic American determination to stay in and hack them to our own image under the war cry of “Do as we say, not do as we do.” The administration wants the world to realize: America is the only Superpower and its decisions on the rules are final. Watch out, Kofi Annan.

Leading the charge for the U.S. supremacist activists is John Bolton, whom the Senate confirmed as Under Secretary of State for Disarmament and International Security last year. In sending Bolton's nomination to the Senate and imposing this right-wing ideologue on the State Department, President Bush signaled the direction of his foreign policy, namely that the U.S. doesn't intend to exercise global leadership or participate in global partnerships. Instead, we intend to do our own thing notwithstanding what anybody else thinks about it.

In 1999 Mr. Bolton himself had attacked "Kofi Annan's UN Power Grab", which he alleged was based on trying to establish the supremacy of UN forces. But why should reactionary bluster from an obscure State Department appointee signal any real threat? As events over the past few months have made clear, Bolton and other right-wing ideologues in the administration are methodically pursuing an agenda aimed at undermining multilateralism as a principle for managing global affairs.

At first glance, it may seem that Bolton's unprecedented unsigning of the agreement establishing the International Criminal Court is the ultimate in challenges to our allies and to any hopes of a multilateral order based on law and consensus. However, withdrawal from an international body may not be the worst thing the administration can do to it. Indeed, once it became plain that the U.S. was pulling out of the ICC, the rest of the world rushed to ratify the treaty with unprecedented speed to ensure the Court's organizational and financial security.

Under the Bush administration, it is becoming increasingly evident that the U.S. can cause more damage to multilateral organizations by staying in them and shaping them to its ends. We have ample demonstration of this strategy in the successful lobbying by the U.S. to oust Mary Robinson as UN High Commissioner for Human Rights, its removal of Robert Watson as head of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, and most ominously of all, the ouster of Jose Bustani as head of the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons.

Just before he was dismissed, Bustani eloquently warned: "By dismissing me, an international precedent will have been established whereby any duly elected head of any international organization would at any point during his or her tenure remain vulnerable to the whims of one or a few major contributors. They would be in a position to remove any Director General, or Secretary General, from office at any point in time."

It is not only personnel decisions that can be perverted. For example, in April the U.S. was moving resolutions in the Security Council, while actually allowing and indeed encouraging Israel to thwart their content, thus undermining the credibility of the United Nations, and indeed of American diplomacy. This duplicity is, of course, in line with what Bolton himself describes as the Bush doctrine. The U.S. should recognize obligations only when it's in our interest.

Indeed, in part as a result of those resolutions, rumblings from the new Christian Right/Likud Axis suggest that the next in the frame for firing may be Peter Hansen, the director of UNRWA, for his temerity in describing the effects of Israeli military incursions on the Palestinian refugees under his care. There have already been congressional hearings on scurrilous allegations against the refugee organization threatening the U.S. contribution of $90 million. Similarly Kofi Annan has now been scapegoated in right-wing circles for saying what the rest of the world thinks about the American go-it-alone approach to international engagement.

Washington is waging more than a war on terrorism. We are also seeing an international witch-hunt targeting international officials whose devotion to duty and multilateralism make them targets of U.S. wrath.

[JR: Once you allow the bully on the block to intimidate and dominate you it is difficult to rein in his bad behavior. If Kofi Annan wants to retain his lofty position as head of the UN, he will have to play the game with the new rules as written by the U.S. Game-masters. You can call the new rules the Bush Doctrine but it really is the Zionists' plan for the control of world affairs. The U.S. and Israel are mirror images of each other. We have been assimilated so that there is no difference between our government and the one the Zionists control in Israel. The U.S. has become selfish, intractable, greedy, mistrustful, demanding, deceitful and uncooperative in our dealings with the rest of the world. The Zionist infiltrators have taken over and have turned the U.S. into enforcers with the cooperation of our President and our Knesset/Congress. The U.S. now has the dubious distinction of being the number-one target for every country we have had relations with in the past decade. Our leaders have gotten us into this mess—and it's time we stop giving them our support.]

CANADA 'ALL BUT UNDEFENDED'

By Chris Wattie, National Post—CA, 06/11/02

Canada's military has withered so thoroughly the country is practically defenceless, according to a study released yesterday by the C.D. Howe Institute.

"Whether Canadians realize it or not, Canada is now all but undefended at a time of danger," Dr. Jack Granatstein writes for the institute.

Dr. Granatstein is a noted York University historian and chairman of the Council for Canadian Security in the 21st Century, a non-partisan group based in Calgary that advocates a greater government emphasis on defence.

However, Dr. Granatstein argues that the real threat posed by the deterioration of Canada's army, navy and air force is not from foreign invaders or terrorists, but from the United States.

He said Canada's military impotence threatens Canadian sovereignty because it invites the U.S. to take steps to defend itself against terrorist attacks, even to the point of sending troops onto Canadian soil.

"Although terrorism poses a real threat, it is not the most serious crisis," he wrote. "The danger lies in wearing blinkers about the United States at a time it is in a vengeful, anxious mood."

"The Chrétien government seems either oblivious to the danger or else it has given up."

Dr. Granatstein said it is even possible—if Canada does not co-operate with Washington's continental security plans—that the Americans could seal the Canada-U.S. border and deploy their armed forces in our territory if they felt it necessary.

"The United States is deadly serious about homeland defence, and only utterly foolish Canadians can ignore this concern," he wrote. "The Americans will act—alone if necessary."...

Dr. Granatstein writes in his study that Canada must address U.S. defence initiatives such as the missile defence shield or the proposed Northern Command if it wishes to have some say in continental defence matters.

To do that, he says the Canadian Forces must be rebuilt.

"Canadians thus have the choice of standing back and allowing the Americans to plan for the protection of Canadian territory or of participating in the decisions," he writes.

"Do we want some consultation or none on matters that concern Canada's security every bit as much as the United States'?"

"A weak Canadian military means that we must rely on the United States for homeland defence and defence against external threats ... If Canada maintains a credible military, we will have a voice and options that weakness cannot provide."...

The study calls for a cash infusion of $2.5-billion in addition to the $12-billion now spent on defence, and another $10-billion for at least the next five years...

A report for the Conference of Defence Associations last month concluded the Canadian Forces are 15 years away from "mass extinction" as a capable fighting force unless the government invests billions in new equipment...

And last week, the Liberal-dominated Commons defence committee said the Canadian Forces are critically underfunded and need an $18-billion infusion in order to avoid massive troop burnout.

[JR: It would appear that the Canadian government plans to allow its military to play a secondary role in its defense. If this were not a probability, why has the U.S. included Canada as part of our Northern Defense System if there were no understanding or agreement between Pres. Chrétien and the Bush administration? The fact that a U.S. invasion of Canada is being mentioned as a possibility, shows that Canadians are becoming concerned about their own vulnerability as next-door neighbors. How Canadians would feel about an American presence in their homeland has not been considered or addressed in this article. The U.S. has adopted a policy of invading other countries to protect our homeland from threats planned or imagined. Does our U.S. Homeland Defense make us invaders, conquerors, or peacekeepers?]

U.S. SEEKS TO EASE DUTCH FEARS OVER COURT

Washington Post, 06/13/02

AMSTERDAM (Reuters)—U.S. officials today sought to allay concerns among Dutch politicians after the Senate approved a measure authorizing use of force if a U.S. citizen is held by the International Criminal Court in The Hague.

Some Dutch politicians reacted with dismay at the Senate's action to authorize the president to use "all means necessary" on behalf of U.S. detainees.

But the U.S. Embassy in The Hague said in a statement that officials could not imagine such a situation. "Obviously, we cannot envisage circumstances under which the United States would need to resort to military action against the Netherlands or another ally," the statement said.

In case a matter of controversy develops with the court's host country, the issue would be resolved in a constructive manner, it said.

The United States in May declined any obligation to cooperate with the court when it comes into force July 1.

Several members of the Dutch parliament expressed concern over the Senate's approval on Friday of the so-called American Servicemembers' Protection Act.

"It will probably not get to the point where the U.S. will actually invade the Netherlands, but it is serious in the way that it is a warning the U.S. under no circumstances wants a trial of U.S. citizens" at the court, said Tom van der Lee, a spokesman for the Green Left party.

Maxime Verhagen, a Christian Democrat member of parliament, said it was the Netherlands' responsibility to protect the court, adding that the message from the Senate was worrisome.

[JR: The Senate approval of the American Servicemembers Protection Act is to insure that our military will be protected while serving to promote U.S. interests overseas. This also insures our ability to use lethal force against our enemies or the countries that question our policies or who are unresponsive to our demands. The U.S. would not hesitate to attack the Netherlands should they attempt to hold any Americans for trial in the World Court. The Zionists are now in control of the U.S. and run our country just like they do Israel. Many Americans are beginning to sense that our government no longer answers to its people and that we have lost the esteem and respect the world once held for us. We stand for nothing of value and are a cheap imitation of what we once were. For the majority who haven't noticed or don't care, they have a government they deserve. For CONTACT readers and all those who spend their time, energy and meager resources to make a difference, they do deserve better in these chaotic times.]

KFOR'S VEHICLE INSPECTION PROTOTYPE IS TESTED

By Gregory Piatt, Stars & Stripes, 06/13/02

FERIZAJ, Kosovo—Traffic backed up on the main road that runs north and south through Kosovo on Tuesday as U.S. and other KFOR peacekeepers pulled over semi-tractor trailers and other vehicles just outside the town.

Dogs searched the vehicles for drugs and explosives, soldiers with metal detection wands checked out the drivers, and a golf cart and a Humvee, each with strange gear on the back, stood by.

Signs on the roadway read: "Danger Radiation."

Had peacekeepers found a dirty bomb?

No. U.S. military policemen from the 630th MP Company were testing a prototype of the Military Mobile Vehicle and Cargo Inspection System.

"We are scanning for contraband and weapons," Staff Sgt. Gene Woodcock said of the mobile X-ray system he was operating.

The mobile X-ray machine, the first used anywhere, was put into action during a Kosovo Force operation called Iron Fist V. The five-day operation demonstrated KFOR's ability to move troops from one sector to another and to quickly disrupt possible criminal activity, said KFOR's commander, French Lt. Gen. Marcel Valentin, at a news conference on Tuesday.

"This town is a crossroads where criminals pass through," Valentin said in explaining why the road checks were set up outside Ferizaj.

The Army has wanted something like this $1.3 million machine built by Science Application International Corp. since the company's field engineer, Frank Arriola, served as a U.S. peacekeeper in Kosovo last fall. Arriola's company built it to Army specifications.

X-rays shot from the equipment on the cart pass through the vehicle and are picked up by the equipment on the Humvee. A soldier in the Humvee watches a monitor and can see what is in the truck and in any hidden compartments, Arriola said.

"It takes a while to find out what the images are [on the screen]," said Woodcock, one of eight MPs in Kosovo trained on the equipment.

The soldiers aren't exposed to the radiation because of safeguards that shut off the rays if they get too close to the Humvee driver. And the radiation is low dose, lower than "flying at 30,000 feet for 15 minutes," Arriola said....

[JR: Perhaps this new mobile X-ray system could be used to check all the NAFTA trucks now freely passing across our unsecured U.S. borders. This technology could also be utilized for domestic surveillance and monitoring of our interstate road system for security and control purposes much like at our airports. Why do we need a mobile system when we have a spy-in-the-sky satellite system that can zero in and track anything above as well as below ground? Also we have the unmanned airborne drones that were used so successfully in Afghanistan in hunting down our enemies. This system is not cheap at $1.3 million. Someone at the Science Application System must have close connections with the government and now stands to make billions at the very least. It is the one who carries the briefcases that gains and profits during a war and not the one that carries the gun.]

RISING ANGER BOOSTS ARGENTINE LEGISLATOR

By Hector Tobar, Los Angeles Times, 06/16/02

BUENOS AIRES—For months, the news here has been dominated by a recurring image: the harried faces of Argentine officials explaining again and again what their country must do to please the technocrats at the International Monetary Fund, seemingly the only force capable of rescuing this troubled nation from economic catastrophe.

As the country sullenly waits with cap in hand for an IMF bailout, many Argentines are looking for another kind of savior. And they think they've found one in a chain-smoking single mother who promises to restore Argentina's wounded honor.

"It's embarrassing to see our government officials in Washington, getting on their knees and acting submissive," said Elisa "Lilita" Carrio, a member of Congress from Argentina's impoverished north and the leader in recent polls. "A country with even a minimum amount of dignity cannot allow this."

Carrio's quick rise from backwater lawmaker to presidential front-runner is a measure of the growing anger toward the IMF, the Bush administration and the Argentine political elite—three forces that Carrio is famous for skewering with wit and eloquence.

In a country where few establishment politicians can step out in public without being booed or worse, Carrio is happy to accept the mantle of outsider. She revels in being a "fat woman" and "a provincial who never shuts up". And unlike the current president, Carrio says, she would never kowtow to the United States.

With Argentina's banking system in ruins and a quarter of the workforce unemployed, the government of President Eduardo Duhalde has been trying since January to secure an emergency loan from IMF officials. Those Washington-based administrators, echoing the policies of the Bush administration, are demanding sharp budget cuts and key legal reforms in exchange for bailout funding.

When the Argentine Senate debated one of the reforms demanded by the fund last month, several legislators wondered aloud who was really running the country: Duhalde or Anne Krueger, a top IMF official whose comments on the Argentine crisis are a fixture in the media here.

The IMF, among other things, was demanding that Argentina revoke the Law of Economic Subversion, which is being used to prosecute bankers charged with spiriting money out of the country as the financial system collapsed last year.

IMF officials have said that such prosecutions are politically motivated and chill the investment climate. But many Argentines see the IMF's insistence on repealing the law as an attempt to help its friends in the banking community, including a handful of jailed executives.

The Senate eventually overturned the law by a single vote.

Carrio has said she would reinstate the law because the IMF had "coerced" Congress into revoking it.

In the most recent polls here, Carrio is far ahead of the candidates of the Peronist party. A Marxist activist, Ruben Zamora, isn't far behind in second place. Zamora has called on Argentina to break off all negotiations with the IMF.

Most observers anticipate a presidential election sometime this year.

Dismissed by many as an annoying gadfly just a few months ago, the 45-year-old Carrio is gaining support in the tense, increasingly nationalistic climate. She is the politician most closely identified with the argument that Argentina's economic crash was caused by corrupt politicians and businessmen.

"This country has to choose between truth or lies, between justice and impunity, between the hard way or the easy way," says Carrio, who led a congressional committee that investigated money laundering by Argentina's business elite. "We have to choose whether it's worth fighting for this country."

[JR: What a prickly predicament the Carrio's candidacy presents for the U.S./IMF ghouls who want to hurry along the death throes of Argentina's economy so they can finish stealing what is left. You can bet that the IMF's enforcer Krueger is manipulating the government to make sure it's impossible for Duhalde to succeed with his reforms to free the country from the stranglehold its corrupt leaders and bankers have put around its neck. The IMF's success in repealing the Law of Economic Subversion shows how much they fear the risk of disclosure as to their participation in bringing about the economic collapse and downfall of Argentina. If the men now in power are not up to the task of clearing out the garbage and cleaning up the corruption, then perhaps Carrio is the only candidate who is up to the grimy task. There is nothing more satisfying than a clean and orderly house.]

PLUTONIUM SHIPMENTS HEADING TO S. CAROLINA

By Jacob Jordan, NewsDay, 06/14/02

AIKEN, S.C. (AP)—A federal judge on Thursday denied the governor's request to block shipments of weapons-grade plutonium, which could begin arriving in South Carolina this weekend.

Gov. Jim Hodges has threatened to have state troopers set up road blockades into the Savannah River Site nuclear weapons complex. He also said he would lie down in the road if necessary to stop the plutonium-carrying trucks.

Attorney William Want, representing Hodges, said an appeal was likely.

The U.S. Department of Energy has said it intends to begin shipping plutonium as early as Saturday from its Rocky Flats weapons installation in Colorado to the Savannah River Site, where the material would be converted into fuel for nuclear reactors over the next two decades.

Hodges sued to prevent the shipments for fear the government would not find the money to convert the plutonium, leaving the unprocessed radioactive material in South Carolina. He warned that the plutonium would "paint a bull's-eye on South Carolina" in making it a terrorist target.

The state argued Thursday that the Energy Department failed to complete environmental impact statements—a process that can take years—and backed out of signing an agreement that the plutonium would be stored in the state only temporarily.

"We don't know the most basic thing about what they're planning to do," Want told U.S. District Judge Cameron Currie.

However, the judge ruled that the state had not provided enough proof of violations to stop the plutonium from being shipped.

Energy Department Secretary Spencer Abraham said the decision allowed for the shipments of about 6.5 tons of plutonium to move forward.

After the ruling, Hodges dodged questions about lying down in front of the shipments. His spokesman, Morton Brilliant, later said the governor is considering all options, including issuing an executive order effectively closing state roads to plutonium shipments.

Rep. Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.) said the ruling was sound and that Hodges should work with the state's congressional delegation on legislation addressing the issue.

"It is time for the governor to work with the delegation in a constructive manner," he said.

The plutonium had been set to begin arriving May 15, but the first shipment was postponed after the governor sued the Energy Department on May 1.

The agency argued that Hodges' attempts to block the shipments were unconstitutional and were preventing the federal government from cleaning up and closing Rocky Flats.

An Energy Department employee from Rocky Flats told the judge that 600 cans of the material were ready for transport.

While at the Savannah River Site, employee Allen Gunter said that two facilities are under construction to stabilize and package the plutonium. He said one should be operational by May 2003 and the second six months later....

However, federal officials said the nuclear material would be under constant guard, with the shipment routes and arrival times kept secret.

[JR: The trend is for federal judges to make rulings that support the federal government's right to override and supercede state laws. These decisions are arbitrary and are based on biased assumptions favoring the government's position on state issues. Maybe South Carolina didn't provide adequate proof of violations to satisfy Judge Currie. The judge in his ruling failed in his duty to address the state's concerns about the plutonium being a possible security risk for the citizens of South Carolina. The fact that the facilities to house this hazardous material won't be completed until next year should have weighed heavily in the judge's decision to rule against the state. The Energy Dept. has no right nor the authority to charge Gov. Hodges with actions that violate the Constitution. Gov. Hodges is exercising the rights of the state of South Carolina to protest in order to protect its rights and its citizens as guaranteed by the 10th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. The Energy Dept. as well as our Congress needs to review our Constitution to know the limits of their powers.]

MAYORS PANEL RAISES CONCERNS ON NEVADA NUCLEAR WASTE SITE

NewsDay.com, 06/16/02

MADISON, Wisconsin (AP)—A committee of mayors voted Saturday to oppose transporting high-level nuclear waste to a national repository unless federal officials can guarantee the safety of all cities along proposed routes.

The resolution, adopted on a unanimous voice vote, stopped short of opposing the creation of a nuclear waste repository in Nevada's Yucca Mountain. Three Western mayors had urged their counterparts earlier in the day to oppose the repository, saying that shipping radioactive waste to the site would threaten the entire country.

Las Vegas Mayor Oscar Goodman said an earthquake Friday centered 12.5 miles from the proposed site at Yucca Mountain reinforced his concern that the site was unsafe for storing nuclear waste.

"That's our problem," Goodman told the U.S. Conference of Mayors. "The nation, however, has a problem with transportation."

Goodman, Salt Lake City Mayor Ross Anderson and Reno Mayor Jeff Griffin said the government had not done enough to study the risks posed by shipping nuclear waste to the proposed site by highway or rail.

The federal plan would bury 77,000 tons of nuclear waste in tunnels inside Yucca Mountain, where it would remain radioactive for more than 10,000 years. The House already has approved the plan; the Senate has to vote on it by July 26.

The conference energy committee's resolution calls on Congress to prohibit moving the nuclear waste until cities along its route have adequate funding, training and equipment in the event of an accident.

The conference, which drew about 250 mayors, includes meetings on issues ranging from affordable housing to the environment.

The mayors also approved a resolution urging Washington to distribute homeland security block grants directly to cities and counties. President Bush has proposed sending about $3.5 billion in such grants to states, with three-fourths of it targeted for local governments.

"There should be no middlemen. It should go directly to the cities," said Boston Mayor Thomas Menino, a Democrat who is president of the group.

Health and Human Services Secretary Tommy Thompson told the mayors that distributing money through the states was the quickest way.

"If we had to do this with all of the cities, we probably wouldn't have been able to do it," said Thompson, who was governor of Wisconsin for 14 years.

A survey of 122 mayors found that three-fourths were concerned about the threat of a chemical or biological attack, and almost four out of five said they had inadequate funding to detect threats. Three out of four said they do not have enough money for emergency response equipment or programs to protect city infrastructure.

[JR: The consensus of these mayors was that transportation concerns must be addressed before nuclear waste is transported to the new repository at Yucca Mountain. Of course few opposed the Federal government's plan and none are independent enough from federal subsidies to outright refuse to permit this dangerous nuclear waste from passing through their cities and placing their citizens in danger. They did however agree to put pressure on Washington to provide the funding to the cities to prepare for such emergencies. It is always politically safe to run to Washington for funding instead of allocating the money from local taxes. The reason the Federal government is allowed to dictate to local governments is the fact that each state, county and city is so dependent on funding from Washington that they fear the consequences should they ever say no. You either do what the Federal government says or face major reductions in funding, so forget about "states rights". It's as simple as that. Accepting Federal funding for every little project places every local government in the union on Federal welfare and no longer autonomous, or sovereign. Think about it!]

TERROR WAR AND MORE
RAISE QUESTIONS ABOUT WHETHER GOVERNMENT IS TESTING,
EVEN OVERSTEPPING LEGAL LIMITS

By Nancy Benac, Boston Globe, 6/15/02

WASHINGTON (AP)—Select any moment in American history and you can find agitation about the meaning of the Constitution. Right now, though, the pondering, probing and hand-wringing have reached something of a constitutional clamor.

Secret detentions, wiretaps on lawyers' conversations with clients, military tribunals, monitoring of ordinary Americans. Each day seems to bring new worries about this or that constitutional freedom being infringed, a concern shared in some cases by judges who have blocked the government's course.

American Jose Padilla, suspected of intending to explode a radioactive dirty bomb, is being held indefinitely in the United States as an "enemy combatant", charged with nothing. Another American-born suspect, captured in Afghanistan, is held stateside in similar circumstances. ...

What's going on here? Is the Constitution under assault? Is the Bill of Rights under siege? Or is this just the normal give-and-take of a society that is always redefining its relationship with government?

Civil libertarians say the Bush administration has proposed and imposed a whole series of measures that threaten constitutional rights.

"The Constitution is always at risk in times of crisis, and our history has taught us that there is a tendency to overreach on security, and then with hindsight to regret what we have done," said Steven Shapiro, legal director for the American Civil Liberties Union.

They say the get-tough mindset was there before Sept. 11 and that the terror attacks have emboldened the administration to push for things it would not have dared to try previously. ...

"There are a series of unresolved issues, but the president and the attorney general have not come close to attacking the Constitution," said Cass

Sunstein, a liberal University of Chicago law professor. "It's more accurate to say we have new legal issues where people are not sure how to think..."

Ordinary Americans seem willing to surrender some civil liberties if they think that will make them more secure, surveys find. But they think the loss of liberty will infringe on somebody else's rights not theirs, says Michael Traugott, a research scientist at the University of Michigan's Center for Political Studies.

"They think they won't be affected, and implicitly, they think it's relatively short term: 'The Constitution is not going away; we're just not going to pay attention to some parts of it for a little while.'"

That is a dangerous attitude, in the view of Yale University law professor Jack Balkin. He says Americans need to speak out as the first line of defense for their personal freedoms.

In wartime, courts tend to give the president leeway. But this time, a few court rulings already have gone against the administration, a display of judicial backbone surprising to Balkin.

In Michigan and New Jersey, federal district judges have ruled against the government on keeping deportation hearings secret, although a New Jersey state appeals court said last week the government could not be forced to release names of detainees.

In Virginia, a federal judge ordered the government to let an American-born prisoner captured in Afghanistan meet privately with an attorney.

In the latter case, the government had contended that as a captured combatant, Yaser Esam Hamdi can be held indefinitely and is not entitled to a lawyer because he has not been charged with anything.

"That sounds idiotic, doesn't it?" asked U.S. District Judge Robert G. Doumar. His ruling is under appeal.

A similar challenge is forming over Padilla, arrested upon his arrival in the United States.

"My client is a citizen," said attorney Donna R. Newman, objecting to his transfer to the twilight zone of military detention. "He still has constitutional rights the right to counsel, the right to be charged by a grand jury. ... And they have not charged him..."

Constitutional protections are constantly measured for their fit with new issues and the prevailing philosophy in Washington. A few recent examples:

Last month, the Supreme Court partially upheld a federal law meant to keep Internet pornography from children, but it kept alive a fight over whether the measure was an unconstitutional intrusion on free speech.

New restrictions on campaign contributions and spending, reluctantly signed into law by Bush, are being challenged on free speech grounds by Democrats and Republicans alike.

The Bush administration last month reversed a decades-old Justice Department policy by arguing to the Supreme Court that the Second Amendment protects an individual's right, rather than a collective right, to possess firearms.

Beyond questions about what is in the Constitution, there is constant pressure to change it.

Nearly two dozen proposed constitutional amendments were introduced in just the first 20 days of the current congressional session. Bush has endorsed one that would guarantee rights to crime victims.

But only 17 amendments have been approved over more than 200 years.

The last one, about pay raises for members of Congress, was ratified in 1992. It was first proposed in 1789.

WHERE IS JOHN GALT?

By John Bottoms, strike-the-root.com, 06/13/02

... now that we really need him? In her brilliantly prophetic 1957 novel Atlas Shrugged, Ayn Rand portrayed a hero who vows to "stop the motor of the world", calling on America's most productive men to go on strike against an entrenched parasitical power Elite and their myriad hangers-on. This important work of classic science fiction envisioned a future or alternate reality in which a morally bankrupt America is suffering through the final stages of collapse. In the book, business, industry, science and the arts have been co-opted by the growing fascist state apparatus, and the deepening "national emergency" is used to justify ever more government control over people's lives, which inevitably exacerbates the crisis. At the intellectual heart of the corruption is the philosophy of collectivism. Sound familiar?

Unfortunately, military adventurism was not included, probably because Rand wanted to concentrate on events at home. But other than that, America today is to a shocking degree spiritually, economically and politically (but not culturally) similar to Rand's portrait of a great society in decline. While the novel's fictional Americans manifest their anxiety and resignation by rhetorically asking, "Who is John Galt?" Today we just wait for the next "inevitable" attack. The American people wear a shallow patriotism like bad face paint to hide their knowledge of the government's lies and the nature of their society.

Industry is increasingly dedicated to making weapons of war and otherwise dependent on government contracts, subsidies and bailouts. High tech companies writing database software for the government, and especially Oracle's Larry "Your Papers Please" Ellison, come to mind. Corporate top brass with close ties to government use accounting tricks to enhance the short-term bottom line at the expense of the long-term health of the company, its employees and shareholders, cashing out and moving on before the damage is revealed. Dick Cheney's Halliburton and of course Enron are at the top of the list. The airlines, energy companies, corporate farms and steel companies are increasingly subsidized and controlled by government, while schooling is being effectively nationalized by the Department of Education. Scientists, sequestered in the black world of secret programs, are dedicated to developing new weapons of mass destruction, the existence of which will only become public when they're trotted out for the next war or civil insurrection. As in the novel, Europe's decades of socialism have made them economically weak and politically irrelevant.

The recession which followed the collapse of the high-tech stock bubble refuses to subside, and may worsen as the long-term effects of the government's inflationary police/welfare/warfare state settle in. Some economists are predicting a flight from the dollar over the next few years, accompanied by a spiral into an Argentina-like financial collapse. Time will tell.

Like all fictional heroes, John Galt is a distillation of the heroic potential in each of us. While Galt actively organized the strike of "the men of the mind", many other characters just quit their jobs and effectively divorced themselves from a society that treated them as slaves. Is this happening today? The media tell us that fewer people are flying commercial airlines due to the weak economy and concerns over terrorism, but clearly some of the thousands of people who choose to drive long distances or just stay home are really "on strike" against the subsidized airlines, unreliable service, and demeaning treatment they'll receive from both airline employees and federalized security guards. Families who homeschool their children are on strike against the government's youth drug-and-propaganda camps. Americans who grow, sell or trade marijuana as medicine or for recreation are on strike against the government's discredited drug war. And how many people out there have simply chosen to retire early or work fewer hours or not as hard, simply because they no longer care to support a nation dedicated to death, destruction and despotism.

It's not hard to envision "Dubya" Bush as Mr. Thompson, Head of the State, deluding himself that his latest power grab will get us (and him) out of the mess which he and his predecessors caused by decades of irresponsible and shortsighted actions. "But can we get away with it?" Mr. Thompson nervously queries his fellow thugs before rolling out some particularly outrageous new set of regulations, while our president organizes secret meetings in bunker-offices under the White House to design the new Department of Homeland Security.

Even terrorism is introduced in the novel. One of the chief strikers is the infamous pirate Ragnar Danneskjöld, who steals from the government and destroys their tax-funded creations. Like real-world terrorists, Ragnar uses violence to change the political climate, but unlike our brutal real world, he's careful not to hurt anyone.

Predictably, upon its initial release, the book was received by the press with universal derision. Reviewers were unable to see beyond the book's limited character development and unfortunate preachiness to a wonderfully drawn apocalyptic dystopia more powerful and insightful than Orwell's famous 1984. But the book quickly became a bestseller, and can still be found on the shelves of most bookstores 45 years later. While the rustbelt industrial setting, as well as the sexual morality and limited cultural diversity of the characters is very 50s (and very Rand), the heart of the story shines through as an unheeded warning from the past, and a roadmap to a better future.

Where is John Galt? Maybe he's right here, on the Internet, in the hearts and souls and minds of the thousands of writers, editors, publishers and, of course, readers of pro-freedom Websites.

[JR: John Galt is most assuredly in the hearts, souls and minds of our dedicated CONTACT readers.]

THE 911 GERMAN INTELLIGENCE REPORT (FULL ENGLISH TEXT)

Internet Exclusive, 6/15/02

[Translation of BND Report on September 11, 2001]

TOP SECRET

Background Report on 9/11/2001

On Monday, August 6, 2001, at 17:50, [German] Ambassador Ischinger personally notified the President of the United States that information developed by the Bundesamt für Verfassungsschutz [German domestic secret service] as well as the BND [Bundesnachrichtendienst, German foreign secret service] indicated that an attack by a radical Arab group partially based in Germany was to occur on 10-11 September 2001. The President was at that time in residence at his farm in Texas. Our [the German's] Ambassador was acting in direct response to instructions from Foreign Minister Fischer.

This information was developed from official surveillance of Arab extremist groups operating in the Federal Republic as well as from intercepted communications between the Embassy of Israel and the Israeli Foreign Ministry in Tel Aviv concerning this matter.

The information was "gratefully received" by the U.S. President who stated at the time that he was also aware of the same pending assaults.

Subsequent to the attack, the office of the U.S. President, through the U.S. Department of State, made an urgent request to the government of the Federal Republic of Germany that no reference whatsoever should be made to the official warnings given by Ambassador Ischinger.

In order to clarify the background of this matter, this Gesamtübersicht [overall survey] of the events leading to the assault was prepared, basing on extracts of reports from our [BND's] foreign stations.

Overall, it is evident that the American authorities were aware of the pending attacks. Why they did nothing, is explained in the following.

Background: General Overview

Because of the Bush family's involvement in oil (Zapata Oil Company), many important and wealthy individuals and corporations with oil interests financially supported the Bush political career. Today, the Bush administration is therefore strongly influenced by major American business groups.

The candidate for American Vice President, Richard "Dick" Cheney, had been the Chief Director of the Halliburton Company. This company, based in Dallas, Texas, where Bush was Governor, is the largest oil service company in the world.

Between 1991 and 1997, such important American oil companies as Texaco, Unocal, Shell, BP Amoco, Chevron and Exxon-Mobil became involved with the former Soviet state of Kazakhstan who holds enormous oil reserves. The government of Kazakhstan was eventually paid over $3 millions of corporate money to allow these companies to secure oil rights. At the same time, these companies agreed further to give the sums of $35 billion in investments in plant and equipment to the Kazakhstan projects. A confidential project report of said U.S. firms announced that the gas and oil reserves in Kazakhstan would amount to $4 trillion.

The United States is not self-sufficient in oil and 50% of their supply is imported from various foreign sources. Some 80% of oil imported to the U.S. comes from OPEC Countries, the Arabian oil cartel. Because of the unconditional support by American political leaders of the state of Israel, these Arab governments have a very strained relationship with the U.S.A.

A further small percentage of oil imported to the U.S. comes from Venezuela. Just recently, the U.S. government has been attempting to overthrow the government of Chavez with the help of the CIA and replace it with a government "more sympathetic to American oil needs".

A position paper prepared by the office of the later-Vice President Cheney states that the Kazakhstan oil reserves would be "more than sufficient to supply U.S. needs for at least a decade" and would further "reduce American dependence on OPEC."

Unocal Oil Company signed an agreement with the reigning Taliban forces as well as their opponents, the Northern Alliance, in order to permit an oil pipeline to be built through Afghanistan direct through Pakistan to the Indian Ocean. By this, the exorbitant rates charged by the Russians to use their pipelines would be avoided. Unocal then opened official offices in Uzbekistan, Pakistan, Turkmenistan and Kazakhstan to facilitate the construction of this oil pipeline.

In December of 1997, official Taliban representatives were in the United States to attend a conference at Unocal headquarters in Texas to discuss the Afghanistan pipeline. These talks failed because the Taliban made what Unocal felt were excessive financial demands.

In 1998, internal strife in Afghanistan and inherent instability in Pakistan reached such levels as to render the pipeline project impossible to execute. In the same year, the Houston, Texas based firm of Enron suggested instead to build a $3 billion oil pipeline parallel to the Russian pipelines, running westwards rather than taking the shorter but more problematic route south.

In a secret memorandum by Cheney, it is stated that the Unocal company was prepared to finance the southern route. According to this, this project would take five years to complete and its annual revenues from the successful completion of this pipeline would approximate $2 billion. However, and this had been the subject of a number of secret American reports, the only thing standing in the way of the construction of the pipeline was the basic opposition of the Afghanistan government and its political supporters.

On May 8, 2001, the U.S. Department of State, in the name of Secretary of State Powell, gave 43 million U.S. Dollars to the Taliban in order to facilitate their cooperation in the pipeline project.

On June 10, 2001, the BND warned the CIA office in the U.S. Embassy to the Federal Republic [of Germany] that certain Arab terrorists were planning to seize American commercial aircraft for use as weapons of destruction against significant American symbols. This was considered a general warning only. The Federal Republic's warning of August 6, however, was specific as to date, time and places of the attacks.

On July 11, 2001, in Berlin, U.S. officials: Thomas Simmons, a former American Ambassador to Pakistan, Lee Coldren, State Department expert on Asian matters, and Karl Inderfurth, Assistant Secretary of State for Asian matters met with Russian and Pakistani intelligence officers. At this meeting, which was under surveillance, it was stated by the Americans that the United States planned to launch military strikes against Afghanistan in October of that year. The purpose of these strikes was to topple the Afghanistan government and the Taliban in order to replace it with a government "more sensitive to the needs of American oil interests".

In mid-August 2001, President of the Russian Federation, Putin ordered that the American authorities be warned of pending attacks on government buildings inside the United States. This warning was conveyed to the U.S. Ambassador in Moscow and via the Russian Ambassadors office directly to the U.S. President.

On August 20, the Government of France, through the American Embassy in Paris and their Embassy in Washington, issued a more specific warning. This warning specified the exact date, time and places of the attacks.

On September 11, President Bush and top aides flew to the state of Florida so that the President could speak with children in a kindergarten. Also at that time, Vice President Cheney absented himself from Washington and went to the safety of the Presidential compound in the mountains of Maryland.

It was noted in Washington that Cheney remained sequestered in Maryland for some time and only appeared in public surrounded by heavy security.

The role of the Israeli Mossad in the terrorist attacks

Note: The following two sections are considered to be extremely sensitive due to the special relationship between the Federal Republic [of Germany] and its Jewish citizens as well as the State of Israel. This material is compiled from German and American sources.

During the term of President George H.W. Bush, the government of Israel made an official, but very secret, request to the American president. This request was to permit agents of the Mossad, Israeli Foreign Intelligence, to enter the United States and conduct surveillance operations against various Arab groups residing in that country.

The stated purpose of this surveillance was to permit Israeli early warning of terrorist plots against their country. Permission for this surveillance was granted with the caveat that the Mossad would have a liaison with the FBI and report any and all findings to that agency.

However, these conditions were not observed. The Mossad not only did not inform the FBI of any of its findings, it is known to have engaged in commerce with several groups of Israeli criminals of Russian backgrounds. These groups were engaged in extensive criminal activities inside the United States, to include the smuggling of the Ecstasy drug. Mossad agents were able to subvert American criminal investigations through their knowledge of American telephone surveillance of such groups.

It is very evident from surveillance conducted against Mossad agents in the Federal Republic as well as interceptions of Israeli diplomatic communication from the Federal Republic to Tel Aviv, that the Mossad has successfully penetrated various extremist Arab groups in both the Federal Republic and the United States.

These investigations disclosed in late May of 2001 that an attack was to be made against certain specified targets in the American cities of Washington and New York. But it was apparent that the Mossad was not only fully aware of these attacks well in advance but actually, though their own agents inside these Arab groups, assisted in the planning and the eventual execution of the attacks.

That the Israeli government was fully aware of these attacks is absolutely certain and proven. Diplomatic traffic between the Israeli Embassy in the Federal Republic and the Israeli Foreign Office made it very clear that Minister President Sharon was fully aware of this pending attack and urgently wished that no attempt was made to prevent the attacks.

Although the Israeli officials were instructed to warn the American intelligence community that some kind of an attack might be possible, at no time were the specific dates and targets (known at that time to Israeli officials) to be given to the Americans.

The rationale for this attitude was expressed in a conversation on August 1, 2001, between the Israeli Military Attache in the Federal Republic to a member of the Israeli General Staff. There it was stated that Israel believed an attack on the continental United States would so inflame American public opinion that they would permit Israel to "cleanse" their state of "Arab terrorists and those who support such terrorists". This "cleansing" was explained as the expulsion of all Arabs, and even Christian groups, from the Palestine area.

American intelligence officials have repeatedly expressed great concern in meeting with our people that the Israeli government, through a company called Amdocs, was able to conduct surveillance of all telephone communications within the United States. It was categorically stated that this Israeli-based firm was given the American contract with 25 of the largest American telephone companies. This contract was granted over the objections and concerns of the American intelligence community.

The official reason given for this extraordinary arrangement that permitted Israeli agencies to observe all highly confidential investigative telephone calls was that the United States has a "special relationship" with the State of Israel and they had requested this.

The Israeli Political Influence in the United States

It should be noted here that the professional Israeli lobby in America is huge in size and is considered even by our American colleagues to be a very powerful and entirely dominant factor in American politics.

The American Israel Public Affairs Committee is the largest foreign lobby in Washington and fourth most powerful lobby in the country. Other Israeli groups also include the Anti-Defamation League (from whose national offices, along with the Israel Trade Mission and the many Israeli Consulates, many Mossad agents were working,) the Jewish Institute for National Security Affairs and the Committee for Accuracy in Middle East Reporting in America.

These groups, in conjunction with Jewish-dominated media giants like the New York Times, the Washington Post, Newsweek Magazine, the Los Angeles Times, Time-Warner-AOL and their CNN news network, basically control the dissemination of news in the United States.

It is therefore almost impossible for any news that would be considered in opposition to Israeli interests to appear before the American public, although such stories are readily available in most European media.

The Role of the Christian Fundamentalists in American Politics

The so-called "Christian Right" consists of Protestant fundamentalists, where the so-called Pentecostals play a dominant role. This is a very fanatical and aggressively missionary denomination that believes in the return of a living Christ to Earth and the subsequent elevation of its members to heavenly paradise.

In order for this appearance of Christ to occur, several factors must be in place according to the views of this denomination. In the first place, a number of Jews must convert to Christianity, and, in the second, there must be a rebuilding of the Jewish temple in Jerusalem. As the site of this temple is now occupied by a major Islamic mosque, it will be necessary to destroy this building.

Starting as an Episcopalian, Bush tried other Protestant denominations before joining the Pentecostals. Apart from U.S. President Bush and his Attorney General John Ashcroft, other members of his administration are members of this denomination, too, which is the second largest Christian denomination after the Catholic Church. As a considerable part of the American public sentiment is strongly opposed to religious fanatics, these facts have been kept very quiet.

Bush and his entourage are very strong supporters of the State of Israel because of their belief, that the founding of this nation is viewed as another requirement for the return of Christ. For this reason, Bush unconditionally supports any program put forward by the Israeli government and is a devoted follower and supporter of Sharon, the Israeli right wing extremist Minister President.

Attorney General Ashcroft has stated in a public sermon (he is a lay preacher of the Pentecostal church) that Muslims are "agents of the Anti-Christ" and must be destroyed in the so-called "Battle of Armageddon". According to the beliefs of fundamentalist Christians, this battle will be fought over Israel's existence and will lead to the end of the world and the return of Christ.

It is generally known in Washington that Bush is entirely guided by his religious beliefs and that he has been attempting repeatedly to force his views onto the American public by means of various disguised programs, such as religious control of charities, unconditional support of Israel, and so forth.

Summary and Outlook

The terrorist attacks on American targets were fully known to many entities well in advance. The U.S. President was fully informed as to the nature and exact time of these attacks.

The U.S. government in general and the U.S. President in specific have become subservient to the wishes and plans of the Israeli government. As these plans encompass the removal of the Arab population of Israel and adjoining territories, it is evident that the population of the United States is being pushed into a situation that could easily result in more, and terrible, attacks on their home country.

In view of this possibility, the U.S. authorities are determined to limit any discussion of the 11 September attacks to the official version as it appears regularly in the U.S. media.

It also appears from confidential sources that Bush's plan to attack Iraq is based mainly on a desire on the part of Israel to remove Saddam Hussein. Tel Aviv views Hussein as a real threat and has already attacked that country before.

There is also evidence that if Hussein is toppled by American military forces, the oil resources of Iraq would be put under the control of a consortium of the American oil interests that so avidly support the Bush administration.

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

Another Privacy Measure: "Uncertificated" Stock

Budget's "Tip of the Week" #19:

NRS 78.235: "Issuing Stock" Without a Certificate

Another special provision of Nevada's corporate laws is the ability to use what the statutes refer to as "uncertificated" stock. That's right, here in Nevada it is perfectly permissible to have "phantom" stock certificates. And now you know why our Budget kit leaves out the stock certificates, which are not needed to operate your corporation fully within the law.

As a general rule of good Nevada corporation management (maintaining privacy of ownership), it is often better to not issue stock, relying on NRS 78.197 (which specifies that debt holders may have the rights of stockholders). But when stock must be issued, why not issue phantom certificates? Note that Section 5 of NRS 78.235 (excerpts below) requires that the corporation "shall send the stockholder a written statement containing the information required on the certificates". This provision is obviously intended to protect the interests of the stockholders for other than one-person corporations and it is hard to imagine running into any problems for failing to notify yourself in writing once a year. Note that the corporation's bylaws could be written to waive any penalty for failure of notification.

NRS 78.235 Stock certificates: Validation; facsimile signatures; uncertificated shares and informational statements; replacement.

....4. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, the board of directors may authorize the issuance of uncertificated shares of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series. The issuance of uncertificated shares has no effect on existing certificates for shares until surrendered to the corporation, or on the respective rights and obligations of the stockholders. Unless otherwise provided by a specific statute, the rights and obligations of stockholders are identical whether or not their shares of stock are represented by certificates.

5. Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of shares without certificates, the corporation shall send the stockholder a written statement containing the information required on the certificates pursuant to subsection 1. At least annually thereafter, the corporation shall provide to its stockholders of record, a written statement confirming the information contained in the informational statement previously sent pursuant to this subsection....

When added to the mix of other privacy-of-ownership provisions available in Nevada, it is easy to see why it is impossible for anyone on the outside of the corporation to know who owns it—unless the owner tells them. Combining "uncertificated" stock with the concept of bearer shares, it is fully understandable how ownership of a Nevada corporation can change hands merely through entries made in its stock ledger, without any need for recourse to stock certificates.

In the next "Tip of the Week" we will discuss the benefits of "attorney-client privilege".
