GOD Has Offered The ONE Solution

GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION

10/3/02—#1 (16-48)

WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION

STRING PUPPETS

Hatonn—You are so manipulated that it is all but impossible to even see that you are already ENSLAVED.

In America, the U.S.A., you already have a dictatorship which is totally manipulated by the warmongers of global stature.

THERE IS NO TRUTH IN THEM NOR HAS THERE BEEN SINCE THEIR DELIVERY TO THE EARTH ITSELF. THAT IS "WHY" THERE "IS" A PLANET SUCH AS EARTH.

While you scrounge around to find ANY excuse whatsoever to murder and maim, you in the U.S. had best awaken and see what is taking place in your midst.

I remind you that Bush MUST HAVE A WAR on Iraq BEFORE Iraq presents their PROOF of wrongdoing by the ones driving to war.

I also remind you that there is still the major effort to STOP any realization on the part of you-the-people to SEE or HEAR that which is seemingly unimportant to you in a most personal "tiny" capsule of experience. It is fully recognized, and used, by the manipulators that this is so and therefore even the most tiny distraction pulls or pushes in every direction at once.

You must be ready for dastardly diseases and they are NOT Iraqi bugs on the loose—they are Elite bugs of mix-match varieties. We warned you about smallpox MANY years ago and told you it would come to this very day for use in the modern day terrorism games. Ah but—death comes with the games, students.

Now as casually discussed as the weather comes a notice that "Pentagon discusses using chemicals to calm rioters". Read that line again, please. Right from the Associated Press it comes and states that "We decided to step back and make sure the use of calmatives would not violate the Chemicals Weapons Convention," said Marine Capt. Shawn Turner, a spokesman for the Joint Non-Lethal Weapons Directorate.

The point is that the U.S. MILITARY is exploring ways to use "DRUGS SUCH AS VALIUM to calm people without killing them during riots or other crowd-control situations where lethal weapons are inappropriate." Oh yes "they" CAN do it in less than ten minutes, from desire to "done".

Is Saddam Hussein your source of "terror" today? No, he is NOT; think again. He is just "there" and it is not he who pushes for war. Moreover, it is not he who changes the rules just as a game is concluded so that no one COULD meet requirements. Anyone can win if nobody else knows the rules of the game. Moreover and above that fact—will not bombs be somewhat considered "weapons of mass destruction"? No? Oh I see, if it is the "other guy" who is blown away it doesn't count? An Iraqi baby burned to crispy toast has no value? WRONG! THAT IRAQI BABY IS AS IMPORTANT TO GOD AS ANY "ONE" OF "YOURS" WHO CLAIM "IN THE NAME OF CHRIST OR JESUS". It gets a bit sticky when you claim something in "the name of GOD", HOWEVER, doesn't it?

GOD, nor Christ, said it was ever "O.K. TO KILL"! And no, do NOT read me some self- or preacher-interpreted sentence out of mistranslated books scattered about for purposes of MAN, not guidelines of GOD (by whatever label you choose to offer for identification). Satan has ALWAYS known what he was doing, people, and it certainly would appear that the old clown is certainly a long way out there in front of goodness.

I am continually amazed at the lack of discernment as some “mouth” gets on “the most” radio or TV stations and expounds on HIS OPINION of what is meant and sends people off to Hell “IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST”. No “Christ” would send anyone to any such “reward”—and I find it unlikely that any “Jesus” did so either. Then these speakers hedge their bets by saying, “Well, I can’t judge a man, thank goodness—but... THE scriptures say...!” What scriptures? The Koran doesn’t say such a thing.

When challenged the speaker hums and haws and fuddles his way through while protecting “Israel” of the “Jews” claiming all protection of them is mandatory—while they claim not to ever have believed on Jesus. How interesting that each wants to have it “all” ways.

NOW PAY ATTENTION AS WE LOSE SOME “VIEWERS”: GUESS ON WHOSE SIDE GOD WILL BE WHEN YOU BOMB AWAY INNOCENT PEOPLE FOR REASONS OF OIL-GRAB AND COVERUP OF CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES?

You had all best start studying up Again ON THE AREA of Iraq. THAT is from whence we come, my good students.

You better refresh selves on the “Gaia (living goliaths) Giants who inhabited Sumar (by whatever label you give THAT area of Mesopotamia). And THEY are coming back, good friends, and YOU ARE NOT GOING TO SIMPLY “BLOW THEM AWAY”.

BUT WE NEED THE OIL!

You need what? No, you do NOT “need” oil—you need to GROW and use that which has been given you and disallowed your use.

Even E.J. over here in the Philippines KNOWS that the war ready to burst forth here is over control of OIL, MINERALS, METALS AND DEUTERIUM. Deuterium is nothing except a distraction but serves its lethal purpose to the manipulators.

“But, won’t GAIA change everything?”

Not unless someone DOES THE JOB and MAKES IT SO. YOU ARE IN A DEATH-DUEL AND YOU HAVE PLACED YOURSELVES RIGHT WHERE “THEY” WANT YOU.

GUESS WHAT!

Right here, as well, it is interesting what dramas are played out daily in EVERY way, shape and form. Let us take American military presence.

It was just told to us that there is not even ONE American soldier left down south in Sulu—“all gone”. But—

Today’s headline is that “A U.S. soldier was killed yesterday...” in the area.

It is better known by “everybody” that there ARE both construction personnel AND Special Forces troops still building roads and shipping out GOLD—EVERY DAY AND EVERY NIGHT. The roads under construction are DIRECTLY headed for the satellite-mapped “gold sites”.

The CIA seems to be the most active “front” for the shipping by helicopter and transport craft which hauls the gold to appropriate shipping ports. Moreover, some of that gold is simply shifted off by the “shippers” to their own caches scattered around to be processed and “silently” stashed. THERE IS NO SECRET HERE AND STILL THE LIES GO ON, AND ON, AND ON AND EVEN ON.

Well, we are NOT going to get our people into trouble “fighting” or “tattling” or doing anything else about the situation. He who wishes to live in Hell certainly has our permission to do so. The Philippines is not a particularly “select” place for such antics. “TRUTH IS NOT IN THEM.”

PROBLEMS IN PASIG RIVER CITY

I’m sorry to you who write and ask input or reminders of our commitments which somehow come to be “Ekkers” pressure points. We can’t attend them all but neither are you “forgotten”. If, however, we have no “time” to get this task finished and working, we have NOTHING with which to solve “your” or anyone’s economic problems. Ours are totally “out of sight” and a major MOVE looms directly ahead. This Apartel is planned to be razed no later than “March” and replaced by a 40-story Apartel on the site.

Now, the DRAMA is major in impact and is a real call to panic for Ekkers as there simply is no place as well suited for EVERYTHING for which we have needs and the concern and shifting is massively confronting as no reservations, they say directly to Mr. Ekker, past December 31st.

The important consideration is most certainly a lack of funds to recreate even a semblance of operational capability elsewhere and right at a time when many, many things are bursting forth which require fulltime attention.

A place must be sought and yet, what an incredibly unlikely time to have this hotel chain consider a major construction project as it can’t make ends meet NOW. We KNOW one thing for sure: We are not being told the facts or the truth. Oh well. Ekkers will go forth and investigate and yes, they WILL find something which will serve as well or better after we get to an end of the “crab crocks” in this game in play and we have, after all, until December 31st and that in a place where Christmas looks the worst of all-time records in this country—AND YOURS (WHEREVER YOU ARE). Moving on Christmas Day might be a very good time to shift while everyone is in the pits over poverty and heartbreak.

There is a “mass exodus” of Filipinos now trying to get shifted off to the U.S. if they can at all afford a place there in Wonderland. But, the U.S. is putting up more and more barriers including sending thousands of workers “back home” to NOTHING.

This week a Manila mother killed her children because she could no longer bear to see them starving. Ah, but, those people “can’t count”, for they were not Roman Catholic—just people—hungry people with nowhere to turn. This is just one of zillions of examples where the Father had to leave and lives with a “lover” after abandoning all care of some six to eight of his own children. I find it interesting. What would YOU DO? Remember that there is no similar “welfare” department as in the U.S. This mother in point had to suffocate the children with a pillow in their sleep because she had nothing else with which to kill them. Not being in good standing with THE “Church” she could not even leave them at the temple of disinformation.

Where was GOD? Oh, HE was watching YOU to see if anyone would come forward in TRUTH to stop the insanity. You pray, GOD answers, and you ignore. So be it.

BY THE WAY; THERE WENT JERUSALEM

Right before your very eyes the world was changed by a stroke of a pen and hardly anyone even noticed.

George W. Bush just, by signature, recognized Jerusalem as Israel’s capitol. No it isn’t; it is part of PALESTINE. But it is NOW! And the excuse for such incredible doings? To make sure that “CAPITOLS” were recognized in order to pay the annual payoffs where the sum named was $4 billion but of that—$3 billion IS THE ANNUAL CASH PAYOFF TO ISRAEL ITSELF. THAT is a good trick if you can pull it off and by hook or crook, THEY certainly get it done. It’s OK, though, for that “help” is directly from “you-the-people” taxpayers and doesn’t hurt that old rock called FED or IMF/WB. THAT AID DOES NOT COME OUT OF THE BANKERS’ POCKETS—IT GOES “INTO” THOSE POCKETS.

WHY DON’T “THEY” LIKE GLOBAL ALLIANCE?

The question is elementary, Dr. Watson. With this program there will be cutout of interest payments because there is a requirement for purchase of gold to back every project and “loan” for that project. Where would YOU choose to go for funds—15% to 35% compounding interest or Credit for use of ONLY what sums are needed and a growing backup of gold which will shelter the project AND negate these massive interest payments?

There is no place that does THAT, you say. Oh yes there is—it is exactly the fundamental BASIS for any Islamic banking institution. Moreover, our program enhances the stature of the U.S. while supporting good and honorable business which allows for GROWTH and PROSPERITY up and out of the muck of the debt swamp. WOULD GOD OFFER LESS? If you have a struggle with the answer, it is NO.

In the face of losing every stick of everything held, as in “seed grain” even, we must have sufficient time to allow for PROPER unfolding, for we won’t get a second go at this game in play. Please hold it in your hearts at your next “complaint session” with GOD. Change is up to YOU, not Ekkers, not Dr. Coleman, not Col. Martin and not Heysooz Abernathy. In addition, KNOW MORE: Salvation is yours to gain as well and not “another’s” to somehow supply for your convenience and copouts. As an example I will assure you that, for instance, neither Dr. Coleman nor Col. Martin have even the vaguest idea of what we are “about”. And yet, BOTH know that what we have is valid, real and certainly is a solution to economic woes (which seems, after all, to be your biggest notation on the complaint lists). Ah but, everybody wastes time trying to figure a way to get it claimed for “self”, or at the least a big whack—and nobody wants to step that foot into that doorway lest the boogeyman “getsya”.

Most want to line up behind the Ekkers even though they have been bashed every way from Sunday and then the copout goes that “I” am lining up with God so that there is no debate about the lineup. Ah but, I, Hatonn, for instance, am simply in charge of a “program” and my commitment is to WALK WITH YOU, not for you. Gets sticky, doesn’t it?

The closer we get to a breakthrough on this project, the more people we have lining up again—having come back to what they now call “truth after all”. The words mumbled are: “Well, I just didn’t know...”. Fine, whatever is your game, play it, but we will not now go forth and change ours. Again put more succinctly: Your demands are not our commands and never mind GOD in this instance—HE WAS NEVER ELSEWHERE.

You who don't like this "attitude" are not paying attention—and remember that "YOUR DEMANDS ARE NOT GOD'S COMMANDS!" GOD GIVES YOU FREE WILL EVERY TIME AND NOT JUST WHEN THINGS ARE GOING WELL FOR YOU "SELF-MADE" CLAIMANTS.

EVERYTHING IS A CONSEQUENCE OF SOME CHOICE TURNED TO ACTION

The more unfortunate circumstance, however, is that sometimes YOUR choices flop over onto another's experience and the train, so to speak, becomes a "run-away". Even that choice is not IMPORTANT until "action" is brought forth either in concept shared or actual "action" taken. Even then the "other" certainly does have "a choice" whether that choice is to follow your choice or his/her own. EVEN "ATTITUDE" IN ANY GIVEN CIRCUMSTANCE IS "YOUR" CHOICE AND ONLY YOURS. YOU CAN CHOOSE TO BRING FORTH ACTION THAT IS POSITIVE IN ATTITUDE OR NEGATIVE AND MISERABLE IN ITS VERY PRESENTATION. THIS IS SO WHETHER IT BE FROM A PRISON-CELL EXPERIENCE OR A HERMIT IN A CAVE IN THE HIGH MOUNTAINS OF "ANYWHERE". You will be what you DECIDE to be.

Moreover, you will end up HAVING that which you decide to acquire. This is even true to the crown of the head of a nation. The point is usually that no one believes he can achieve such a thing or simply has no wish to attain such an empty symbol. You will BE what you decide to be; you will achieve that which you choose AND you will have your attitude reflect whatever you have chosen.

When you consider yourself to be helpless and faced with the impossibilities of life, you aren't and you haven't. You don't have LACK of anything in such circumstances except "ideas".

When life socks it to you, readers, and you think you have lost something too important to go without—look again, for you WILL go without "it" when you take spiritual leave of your place—even that ever-dissatisfying body you have acquired. In every instance: CHECK YOUR ATTITUDE AND POSSIBILITIES and if you can't turn that "dud" into a wonderment, then you are purely lacking in ideas.

If you must move, as in the Manila instance, you must shape up the attitude so that as you go forth you do so with POSITIVE POSSIBILITIES in the forefront and if funds slow the choices to limitation vs. limitation—then get rid of the limits. YOU ARE WITHIN EASY REACH RIGHT NOW!

I do in this instance suggest that you gain some control over the "crabs" in the game. In the one instance where there is a major U.S. corporation involved—GET THAT NEGOTIATOR OVER TO YOUR PLACE FOR A VERY LONG, HARD VISIT.

We can do business ANYWHERE and if the U.S. maintains its "offish" attitude, there is nothing to prevent all other options which includes getting something serious done in order to do funding from beautiful downtown Manila—as a "foreign" investment in something in the U.S. Oh wow, possibilities never cease. There's a new idea: The Philippines making major investments in the United States of America! This doesn't have anything to do with Ekker-Ekker or Buster Keaton. I suggest on a cutesy note let us consider just as in Olympic games—GO FOR THE GOLD but don't JUST daydream about gold-mines in the sky far away. That is worse than "pie in the sky" cut into bite-sized pieces before you even roll out the crust.

Be rational, people, for you can grab an idea and find clues in everything you see or hear. Example: Yesterday in Manila the government was offered some extensions of IMF guarantees.

That is NOT a big deal, for the debts are strangling everyone as everything goes into the dumpster. The facts are that the Philippines "IS UNABLE TO AFFORD COMMITMENT FEES". By the way, the guarantees would ONLY cover more loans already committed FOR "SERVICING" THE ALREADY UTILIZED LOANS.

Sorry to be a wet and repetitious blanket, readers, but GOD HAS OFFERED THE "ONE" SOLUTION—GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION! That is NOT "NESARA" and not "MAGIC". This is based on pure logic, reason and reality.

If YOU can't see this for the blinders on your eyes and your attitude about involved persons, etc., even myself—sorry, it is what IS. Moreover, if you can't see by the very size of the MIRACLE offered, then the blinders are going to get even more and more painful.

Our PEOPLE can come and they can go and it will not change the facts one iota. Neither does it matter WHAT you call us, for we offer no magic nor manipulations—WHAT YOU SEES IS WHAT YOU GET. But yes indeed, we DO have some "conditions" just as GOD has "conditions". Our intent and love is absolute but our commands certainly do bear "conditions". Once met we leave our "joint venture partner" to manage his own affairs and move on—but our guidelines WILL BE MET AS MANDATORY "CONDITIONS" OF AGREEMENT. We will build no war machines and if a man lies to us and builds his own—it is HIS DOING AND NONE OF OUR OWN.

Man will do what he WANTS to do and that may well be a "want" from a gun to the head but, nonetheless, it is an action change or stay that is based on "want to". Another party may well limit your choices to "his own" in a moment of force but in any instance or encounter—you will make your own choices—EVERY TIME. Wisdom might well be your consideration in these instances of "forced decision-making".

I am quite unimpressed by that old saying: "Willing to die for...!" When you are willing to LIVE FOR something, then I certainly get interested and all the Angels pay attention. How you handle and grow within this present experience determines where and who you will be in your next. Higher knowledge comes to man solely through the unfolding of intelligence within him which leads him to discover the Light of his own divinity and ONENESS with/within GOD.

Let us consider that "failure"/"success" perception you seem trapped within and slip into or out of realization from one thought to the very next idea that pops into the consciousness. The principle reasons for "failure" are lack of confidence and too much effort focused on "self". When you decide that you do not longer want to deal with failure, you are already a success. You KNOW what is "right" and what is "wrong"—for that "knowing" is birthed within your being and dwells in that "soul" who is experiencing within whatever manifestation you present. Therefore you must also KNOW that, as a reminder, "Satan" CANNOT CREATE; he can only play to your free-will choices. Moving on forward, it is then logical that Creating and Creator are your only PURPOSE and, since only goodness "can" "CREATE", IT BEHOOVES EVERY PHYSICAL EXPRESSION TO BE IN AWARENESS OF INTENT AND PURPOSE—AT EVERY MOMENT IN EVERY EXPERIENCE.

"But isn't chaos actually a 'created' circumstance?" Only in misuse of the term "create". Chaos is a result of physical impressions being manipulated or put into disorder. It is NOT creation of anything but a negative manipulation of what already exists and is existing in your conscious perception. IDEA/THOUGHT IS THE CREATOR IN EVERY INSTANCE—SO CLEAN UP YOUR OWN AND FIND A GREAT RELIEF AS YOU TURN TO MAKE ERRORS TO CORRECTION.

THE BIG "FORGIVE"

Stop it, chelas, for that is also a very misused and abused WORD which no longer has meaning.

To "forgive is divine"? No, GOD is "divine" and HE HAS NO NEED TO "FORGIVE", for he has GIVEN unto the perpetrator of any action, free-will choice. For YOU to forgive off the top of your burdened mind is a silly exercise to serve YOUR OWN PURPOSES. And to "forgive" without request is TOTAL ARROGANCE.

If you seek "forgiveness", then first you must atone (make restitution) for that action which now solicits "excuse" and of which makes up the most of mankind's most silly practices: EXCUSES.

"Forgive" as a term, however, is a commonly used word so we are all stuck with use of it.

Forgive SELF? For what, pray tell? If you have done something to necessitate "forgiveness" of self or from another, I suggest that you FIRST make restitution and atonement, for words are great or worth nothing—take your pick. Ah BUT, your words will and do present your reflection as in a lie or in truth but always in expression of a thought put forth in said lie or truth and become a reflection of that which you truly ARE. Your actions will bear out truth no matter how hard you "try" to cover your ill-deeds. And yes, no matter how hard you "try" otherwise, the TRUTH SHALL ULTIMATELY "OUT".

I ask my people who would otherwise be distracted into other paths of attention to please not dwell on the negative actions of others who were and are bent to deceive and damage even our physical aspects—mine included—for it is truly ONLY a distraction of the worst kind. When we succeed, as we shall, we have no further NEED of anything the past has had to offer—except the honorable brotherhood shared and lessons conquered. A thing can be replaced or discarded—do NOT lose sight of VALUES.

I remind you who feel damaged that evil-doers, especially in conspiracy to damage, WILL TURN ON ONE ANOTHER—IT IS A UNIVERSAL LAW. They become as rats when a ship is sinking, they will hang onto whatever might save their own selves at ANY expense to another. It will come through blackmail, actual "telling", and/or to cover their sorry deeds no matter the cost to another. Moreover, he who revels in the damage he has brought against another shall put himself down in the eyes of those he would have receive his boasting. Worse, he errs when he turns and bites the hand that fed him and from whom he would now demand "forgiveness". The cycles are endless wheels of experience with each action a spoke in the wheel, be it sound or weak. Therefore, when there are so many missing spokes from negative actions it is recognized that the whole of the wheel will collapse as surely as day follows night. In that reality all the hiding under the claims of Light and FALSE "love" will boil to the surface and trap you in your own "doing".

Do you REALLY wonder why we "take so long" to perfect our program or are you simply just impatient because of your OWN druthers? You people took a very long, long time to reach this miserable place in which you find self. Now you expect someone else to FIX IT and for goodness sakes (or badness sakes) do it instantly. Fine, we will step back and give YOU opportunity to CREATE THE MIRACLE. Yes indeed, miracles ARE "created"—every time.

We have to observe that people come and then run while actually going out of their way to tear down their very own program and then lie their way through the excuses while sheltering their own lies and wrong (criminal) actions while they say they are purposed to "serve truth in the WORD". And moreover, do it from a tax-free base which is a dead give-away clue in the first place. On what basis, for instance, could SPECTRUM, A STOLEN PAPER and a CORPORATION ENTITY become a non-tax entity? No, YOU TELL ME! It has no foundation of a "church" and therefore you are left with a "cult" status, are you not? It is not a "foundation" or even an association so belonging to Dr. Young and HIS CORPORATION (now a tax-exempt corporation), how did "they" pull off such an offensive cover for selves?

What is meant by "tax-free"?

It is in this instance structured for coverage of anyone donating (DONATING) to them and have ability to use that donation as a tax deduction. They had/have no program for ever being able to repay a "loan" although many of the "donations" were considered loans. Confusing? Not really, if you are playing games with stolen property while trying to make it look legitimate—while hiding from personal income tax probable investigation by the IRS. A loan keeps the receiver free of income as being always indebted for payback and, people, you cannot legitimately have it BOTH WAYS. You can manage the business both ways but the manipulation of such corporate structure is a bit on the investigate-legality of such a plan.

"Ah but," you might ask, "if they never make a profit where do they stand?" Right where they would honorably be if they did not have that "tax-exemption" clause. That too would be fine except that the very corporate structure of "Spectrum" as a corporation is NOT a valid tax-exempt entity. You must be careful how you utilize your corporations. And no, we are not interested in pursuing any kind of attention to our former miscreant friends who make their own rules through their druthers and invisible voices supposedly giving forth instructions—by using MY NAME.

It is too late today to start on the topic of our favorite kind as an update from years ago on Scalar energy, so we will open a new file tomorrow if room-hunting doesn't interfere. Change has to be confronted and the way is to face it and stop wishing it were different. Rather, go forth and see what is available or would be available when necessity locks the door in your face.

Good things are being, yes, created and taking form, so we will keep our sights polished and on target.

Thank you, GCH

Scalar Technology Concepts Revisited

Elite prevent implementation of Scalar Free-Energy methods in order to maintain economic control of the citizens.

10/5/02—#1 (16-50)

RE: SCALAR TECHNOLOGY

IF IT'S ON THE INTERNET, THEN WHY REPEAT?

Hatonn—If a subject is covered on the Internet or simply in "special" journals, most of our people who have been with us for lo these many years won't ever see it. This is the very basic reason our paper was birthed in the first place. This is to give you information and to whom you might look for ongoing information which is denied general establishment publication.

At this point we still can only offer acquaintanceship and future support for ongoing projects which offer truth in "the word", the information, AND in the practical presentation of manifest operations.

At least a dozen years ago we covered Scalar technology and I remind you that "Scalar" is a term presented by Scientist Tom Bearden in an explanation and a label for "Prana" or "Living" electromagnetic energy waves. I can't better describe this than already presented but you need an update because the topic is moving towards getting a lot more attention as wars grow more probable. It seems mankind cannot simply use these wondrous discoveries for potential GOOD but must tamper and destroy at first opportunity. No, GOD will NOT prevent such free-will use from coming to be.

To cover the topic as briefly, for us, as is possible, we will use another's compilation of material and hopefully give credit where due, for there is no intent to "corner" any revelation or take proprietary information. We offer the updated information simply to give educational realization to public attention. We actually gain nothing other than a big headache in the process, so please be patient in our attempt to bring knowledge to your attention.

We are presented with some 66 pages of compiled documents here and to do justice as well as update my own working teams, yea, even in Manila at this keyboard, we will simply type, please, the whole of the package, AS IS, while asking that the information be split into comfortable segments as Mr. Moore sees space availability. No, we do not wish to enlarge the paper in number of pages. This topic is easily and perchance more readily run in segments.

We will make an effort to keep the keyboard tapping but we have personal needs at present in obtaining quarters suitable for a mandated "move" of our facilities so those appointments must be met timely. As we meet the pressures which come each day we will simply take the mandated priorities as they confront us.

We do not play in "politics" and yet everything we touch becomes POLITICAL in this world of confusion and, therefore, we must not make waves but move with the flow of events.

We are making incredible progress and I would hope that even a "move" can be accepted as the progress it represents in spite of the seeming negative impact and the ever-present inconvenience. For my team here it might well represent a need to get SETTLED and operative in new facilities by early in the coming year (2003).

We have laid a foundation from which to have a marvelous working program but the "eggs" must finish incubating. Then, we shall (ARE) beginning to begin interchange and integration with some international companies as well. All of which must be done in low profile, private consideration. We recognize that matter as well as anti-matter will constantly be flung at us continuously just like the flow of Scalar Waves and we must learn to live through and with whatever presents.

Please hold to these documents as they are presented because it is a fact that in this place there will be no space nor storage for much of anything and yet, had we not kept active all that which we have accumulated to this point, we would not have proven-up even on our own program potential. This while ALL THE HELP, friends, in that area of records keeping and management of the nitty-gritty work is of necessity having to be handled 9000 miles away—back "home". And NO, do not tell me that you can't do this or that because after all you are now fifty or even sixty years old—Ellen never misses a day or a deed and she is now 80. Using your mind keeps you "with mind" and together we are going to walk right to the other end of this seeming black hole and into the sunlight of accomplishment. Can we do it? We ARE doing it!

There is no argument, save perhaps by V.K. Durham and other disinformation sources, who even question our holdings. The point is to use it without moving into larger and more bitter wars of massive destruction. We are quite happy to start small, work out the wrinkles and make sure everything becomes win-win. Moreover, the attempts to pull our people FROM THE PATH and drag them into the distractions HAVE NOT WORKED and though the price of the disappointments and hurt are often seemingly too great to endure, WE shall do so and those who would indeed welcome a "visit" will grow, as well, in the process. WHEN A WINDOW IS SHUT—GOD ALWAYS MAKES SURE THAT SEVERAL BETTER OPENINGS PRESENT THEMSELVES. AH, BUT: YOU MUST RECOGNIZE THEM.

We are going to use terms in the next presentations which are going to seem quite wild in overall concept, i.e., "for the sake of the survival of Earth". Nothing is changed except your need to realign perceptions and realizations that "YOU" are not privy to everything so, if uninformed, all you have is your "attitude" or "opinion" which without input of proper information is unworthy of presentation in the first place.

We certainly thank the parties who saw to it that this information was sent to us, for it saves hours of work digging up the research information to see what is available. I DO NOT OFFER REVELATIONS—THAT HAS BEEN DONE AND YOU NEED TRUTH AND FACTS AS ALREADY AVAILABLE—NOT SOME MAGICAL REVELATION TO DEBATE POSSIBILITIES.

You demand something tangible (physical) upon which to base your "confirmations"—so here it is, do with it that which you will.

PART ONE: RE: SCALAR TECHNOLOGY

[QUOTING SCALAR WARS, The Brave New World of Scalar Electromagnetics, by Bill Morgan (Date of writing not given.), received to our attention, 30 September 2002:]

FOR ALL: This is a long (66 pages) paper that is a bit technical, but the author has managed to put most of it in terms novices can understand...But, the entire subject matter is exceptionally dramatic and important.

It is the next level of our upward movement that Technology has been supporting and it may be far more important than the atomic/nuclear breakthrough of more than 50 years ago.

The most important aspect that attaches to it is who is controlling it today! If it gets into the wrong hands, we are facing problems. Read this to get a better understanding of something you only may have heard of in passing.

SCALAR WARS

By Bill Morgan

For the past six months I have been undergoing the greatest paradigm shift I have ever had to go through. It has rattled my nerves and shaken my bones. This intense adjustment of my "world" has come about by studying the information given by Col. Bearden at his Website Cheniére. The new knowledge there has necessitated a total revision of my ideas about physical reality, in the world we live in, and the future of humanity.

This paradigm shifting even actually made me dizzy on certain occasions as I tried to absorb and digest Bearden's vast amount of information. I am not a scientist at all, just a layman, and I have little comprehension of the math and high physics of this new science called "Scalar Electromagnetics". But there is a great deal of information at "Cheniére" which needs to become common knowledge as fast as possible, for the sake of the survival of this Earth.

To that end I have put together this small primer of Bearden's information as a kind of "beginner's guide" to his Website. (I have tried to underline certain words and phrases which are part of the new "jargon" of talking about these "new" phenomena. Also I have taken the liberty of bolding certain words and phrases to help them fit the mind.)

(Note: Throughout "EM" MEANS "electromagnetic", and "LW" means "longitudinal waves". You can download this article in Word format.

1. NEW WAVES DISCOVERED

Longitudinal EM energy fills vacuum of space, the time domain of spacetime, time as compressed energy,  $E=tc^2$ , waves of time, phase conjugate wave pairs.

[H: Many of you who had opportunity to get our "banned" journals on LIGHT and waves as the basis of all expression and "spiral" of seeming "motion" might wish to study up a bit on that which Walter Russell presented regarding the topic. It is, as presented by Dr. Russell, lacking the most valuable "keys" to understanding.

We attempted to bring you some corrections but were brought to the Federal Courts of Injustice by that which called itself the University of Science and Philosophy. You CANNOT, however, fully understand "Scalar" technology without fundamental understanding of the very pulse of life itself. This, however, does not in any way negate this information for your processing.]

"Electric power is everywhere present in unlimited quantities and can drive the world's machinery without the need of coal, oil, gas, or any other of the common fuels."—Nikola Tesla

"At any point and at any time, one can freely and inexpensively extract enormous EM energy flows directly from the active vacuum itself."—Tom Bearden

I guess the first thing to try to comprehend is that a "new" kind of electromagnetic (EM) wave has been discovered in the empty vacuum of space which, when engineered, can be an inexhaustible supply of energy in great magnitude at any place in the universe. The word "new" is in quotes because the discovery really goes back to Nikola Tesla and his discovery of what he called "radiant energy". It is also not "new" because the Russians (KGB) have been working on this technology for over thirty years and have weaponized these "new" longitudinal scalar waves to a great degree.

These are the weapons Nikita Khrushchev spoke of in January 1960.

"By 1957-8 the Soviets had progressed to the point of a giant scalar EM accident in the Urals which exploded nearby atomic wastes, devastating the area. They had also progressed to development of great new superweapons using their new energetics—weapons to which Khrushchev referred in 1960 when he informed the Soviet Presidium of a new, fantastic weapon in development, a weapon so powerful that it could wipe out all life on Earth if unrestrainedly employed."—Tom Bearden

After over 30 years of development, and extensive testing around the globe, these new scalar electromagnetic weapons are up and running and ready to go. Tom Bearden, at his Website "Cheniére", discusses the history of these new scalar electromagnetic weapons in his paper "Historical Background of Scalar EM Weapons."

Some Immediate Implications

The implications of successful engineering of the longitudinal waves are enormous, and will change the world as we know it, one way or another. Among other things, these discoveries mean that:

1. The solutions to the energy crisis and the "oil problem" are in hand. These oil wars are unnecessary. There is endless energy available freely from the domain of time.

2. Unbelievably powerful weapons are not only possible, but are already operating in several nations. The many powers of these weapons are unprecedented and mind-boggling.

3. The cure of diseases such as cancer and AIDS, in fact nearly any disease, has become possible within a few years of sufficient funding. Everyone can be made healthy and stay healthy.

4. Mind control on a mass scale has now become possible, and the machines to do it are already in place in certain nations. It has become possible to mentally enslave whole populations with the twist of a few dials.

So the layman will need to understand that there is a new kind of electromagnetic energy that is altogether different from what he knows, e.g. radio, TV, cell phones, etc. The ordinary EM waves that we have known about are called transverse EM waves, to distinguish them from the new longitudinal EM waves. These scalar waves do not actually exist in our "material" world, but exist only in the vacuum of empty space, or the time domain. And we must keep in mind that this vacuum of space we speak of exists all throughout everything. Even our bodies are mostly empty space between atoms and molecules. [H: Often most notable "between the ears".] So the gateway to this seething ocean of energy can be there at every point in the universe. This seething ocean of energy is all around us and all through us.

EMPTINESS IS FULL

This amazing discovery announces that the "emptiness" of empty space is in fact not empty, but a great ocean of seething energy!

Col. Bearden refers to this ocean of energy as being of the "time domain". Energy out of time? It seems like something from Star Trek but this is the point which the new science of scalar electromagnetics has reached. And where it is going may be beyond anything Star Trek could have dreamed of.

We live in a 3-dimensional world, which physics calls "3-space".

But there is also spacetime, or 4-space, or the "4th dimension". Then suddenly comes this amazing new knowledge that time itself is actually compressed energy. And it is energy which is compressed by exactly the same factor of which matter is considered compressed energy: the speed-of-light squared!

So we have a new companion to the famous  $E=mc^2$ . It is now paired with  $E=tc^2$  (where it is actually "delta-t", or change in time). Or (amaze your family and friends and) say:

"E equals em-see-squared"

And

"E equals delta-tee-see-squared"

It has a nice ring to it, like some freedom bell announcing a new era.

And as the atomic bomb released the compressed energy in matter, so can we now unleash the tremendous energy that is compressed into time itself. It gives a completely new meaning to the term "time bomb".

[H: More than that you might wish to consider what seems so very elusive to various categories of "scientists" that that simply cannot seem to relate such things as densely compressed BLACK HOLES to this very information. It seems there is undue emphasis placed on one scientist's ego needs that are the actual "black holes" which disallows you to KNOW TRUTH. Move beyond these traps lest you be the blunt target of these things and never even know what hit you.]

Some New Terminology of Scalar Electromagnetics

(A new science, several new names)

"Those [Russian] weapon scientists resurrected an old term from the history of electrodynamics, called "energetics". That is their approach to unified field theory, where everything is based on "energetics". This model at its foundations uses a very similar approach to that "single fundamental unit" model, where energy is the unit. If one makes the energy EM in Nature, then one has the Russian energetics approach. This unified approach gathers everything in, including all energy actions and relations in inert matter (the first branch of energetics, called by the same name), all field and matter interactions in living matter (the second branch of energetics, called "bioenergetics"), and all mind-matter interactions (the third branch of energetics, called "psychoenergetics"). [Ed: sometimes also called "psychotronics" by the Russians]

"Note that the weaponeers sliced energetics into three branches, with each branch depending on the nature of the 'targeting'.

“So I took a hint from them, since the stuff and the approach worked. They had already weaponized it highly.” Bearden: <http://www.cheniere.org/correspondence/021502a.htm>

See also “Subdivisions of Soviet Energetics”

Rick Andersen in an article called “What is Scalar Electromagnetics?” describes the new science this way:

“Scalar EM is the brainchild of Lt. Col. (retired) Thomas E. Bearden, a systems analyst and war-games specialist who has been advocating a view of electromagnetics which is based on the notion of a vast, unseen background of scalar energies (as opposed to vector energies) which underlie all physical reality.

“If Bearden is correct in his Scalar EM theory, then we can build devices which would enable us to alter gravity, time, inertia, and the apparent mass of an object. This of course has ENORMOUS implications for military applications, space-vehicle drives, time-travel, teleportation, paranormal phenomena, and just about every other area one can think of.”

“Time-energy, time-currents, and time-structuring play the dominant role in electromagnetics. Time-as-energy eventually becomes engineerable, as easily as is spatial energy now. We are always dealing with spacetime and with spacetime curvature”—Bearden

The scalar energy discovered in the vacuum of space is sometimes called “zero-point” energy. Thomas Valone explains how this term came about.

WHAT DOES “ZERO POINT” MEAN?

“Boyer traces the historical ‘creation of the vacuum’ as proceeding in stages in parallel with the historical development of ideas about the vacuum. To paraphrase, he says that in the 17th Century, it was thought that a totally empty volume of space could be created by simply removing all matter and, in particular, all gases. That was our first concept of the vacuum. Just get rid of all the gas.

“Late in the 19th Century, it became apparent that the region still contained thermal radiation. But it seemed that the radiation might be eliminated by cooling. So the second concept of getting a real vacuum is to cool it down to zero temperature. Just go all the way to absolute zero. Then we’ve got a real vacuum. Right? Well, since then, both theory and experiment have shown that there is non-thermal radiation in the vacuum and that it persists even if the temperature could be lowered to absolute zero. Therefore, it was simply called the “zero point radiation”—Thomas Valone (<http://www.seaspower.com/InsideZeroPoint.htm>)

“For our very survival, it is absolutely imperative that informed citizens be aware of this dramatic change, which is just now starting. The powerful new science and engineering must be controlled and used for humanity’s benefit, not its detriment. Else it will eventually be let loose unrestrainedly, to destroy all life on Earth—a possibility indicated by Nikita Khrushchev in 1960.”—Bearden

[END QUOTING PART ONE, NUMBER ONE]

Please make an effort to understand that OUR mission is not to present this information as in some revelation but rather, as stated up top, to facilitate it reaching as many eyes and ears as is possible.

We received a call this morning from our beloved friend in New Zealand just wanting to make sure that I inform George W. Bush that neither New Zealand nor Australia wants any part of “his war”.

I won’t comment on that attitude other than to say that at this point in your historical evolution you are pretty much stuck with what you get—until we can get a few tracks headed into the opposite direction.

This will certainly make sense better after we address Part 2 of this Scalar presentation. If YOU ARE ALLOWED to uncover the dastardly deeds of these Elite manipulators, it is “endville” arrived. Moreover, if you can’t see that the whole developing war is to gain more and more control over people, nations and oil fields, to make sure you continue in your polluting death-wish, then you are quite blind. The pipeline project over which Afghanistan was invaded IS NOW UNDERWAY IN CONSTRUCTION. So it is not unlikely that you must have other more appropriate diversions and distractions of major kinds while Israel is established as desired, the bankers are entrenched without you having loopholes AND the prophecies of Biblical proportions are dumped on you.

The “dollar” is collapsing as we write. Gold has been stolen and shifted and no currency is now based on “value”—only empty paper. It is SERIOUS time, friends.

This is also WHY it is so dangerous and tedious for our people, be it Bearden, Ekkers, Moore or any other “truthbringer” (much the more, actual scientists with ANSWERS) to survive.

The very term: “Endless free energy” is enough to freeze the blood of YOUR ENEMIES. And yet, everything in manifestation or realization IS “free energy”. And yes, GOD CONTROLS IT IN ITS VERY CREATION AND EXPRESSION. This does not, however, even infer that it is not tampered, utilized and/or established for use in heinous and horrendous negative intent or purposes.

Why doesn’t somebody do something about this? WE ARE! We are paddling this canoe along with all those other canoes in our “team” just as fast as physical action allows. It is a rough sea out here and if you haven’t noticed as much, then I suggest you reread these papers such as is shared here.

We need to attend a meeting so must leave this now.

RE: SCALAR TECHNOLOGY. PART TWO, SEC. TWO

SCALAR WARS THE BRAVE NEW WORLD OF SCALAR ELECTROMAGNETICS

By Bill Morgan

TAPPING THE WAVES

Endless free energy, Tesla’s radiant energy, the dipole as the gateway to the energy of the void, MEG in one year, Bedini, Yakuza, etc. End of Oil, geopolitical chaos, rogue groups.

MOVE OVER GE & BIG OIL, ENERGY IS EVERYWHERE!
THIRD WORLD NATIONS SET TO RISE

“Certain powerful interests did not wish the extended electromagnetics to be discovered or taught. That, after all, would lead to free energy and loss of economic control of the citizens. That was precisely why Nikola Tesla had already been suppressed... Today it is still being suppressed by the orthodox establishment.”—Tom Bearden

The vast seething ocean of energy of the vacuum, the longitudinal scalar EM waves of the time domain, can now be tapped and “transduced” into ordinary (transverse) EM energy in our 3-Space world. The process can be compared to putting a paddlewheel into a river. The energy acquired is free, since the river is there flowing whether we tap it or not. And it is a mighty river, and is not diminished by our paddlewheel.

This means that a permanent solution to the “energy crisis” is at hand, if only those who hold it so secret would give it up to humankind.

It means our species’ insane use of oil is no longer necessary. We can make automobiles that need no fuel at all. We can build motors that power themselves. It means that unlimited electrical power can be available for free anywhere in the world. Every house and even shack can have its own power supply.

Of course there is the cost of the equipment at first, but the energy flow is free for the presumably very long life (no moving parts) of the generator. It will probably take decades to shift over to scalar power.

But the ability to tap the scalar (longitudinal) EM waves of the vacuum (which exists everywhere) also means that unbelievably powerful weapons can be, and already have been developed. In fact these weapons are so dangerous that the fear engendered becomes a psychological obstacle to the grasping of the facts.

I struggled with this myself for months, and even though Tom Bearden had completely convinced me already, it is hard to accept the fact that for everyone on Earth the “worst that might happen” has suddenly gotten much worse. It takes time to deal with that, to realize it and get over it.

Indeed, the possibilities of these new weapons, which are tapping the huge energies of time, are so terrifying it is natural for the mind to simply say: “I don’t want to hear about that.”

And the government, likewise, pretends these weapons do not exist and tries to keep it secret from the people. Because most people would indeed be truly alarmed to know the actual situation. Col. Tom Bearden has decided that the people need to know the truth anyway. As a People on a Planet we must face this now, and ban the use of scalar weapons in war or in mass mind control. The current deployment of these weapons is a world emergency which we must all face.

The physics and mathematics of the longitudinal waves and the time domain are clearly beyond the layman, but I recommend scanning through them anyway just to get a sense of the wonder and the elegance of it all and some of the exotic terms which are used. Two of the most important papers by Col. Bearden are:
Giant Negentropy from the Common Dipole
The Final Secret of Free Energy

Despite the complexity of the science involved, Bearden sums up the essential secret of it all in a few words.

“There is no problem at all in extracting all the energy one wishes from the active vacuum, anywhere in the universe, at any time. Just make a dipole.

“The problem is in (1) catching some of that freely gushing EM energy in a circuit containing a load, and (2) dissipating the caught and collected EM energy in that load to power it, without using half the caught energy to destroy the source dipole’s.

“That is the ONLY real energy problem on the planet, and always has been.”

A dipole could be a battery, which is polarized into negative and positive. Or the terminals of a generator. Or any magnet with its two poles. Or an atom with its positive and negative charges. Or the Earth’s magnetic field, the Sun, and all heavenly bodies. Even a galaxy must be some kind of mega-dipole. Wherever there is a dipole there is already immense scalar EM energy ushering out of and back into the vacuum. And there have already been demonstrated a number of diverse methods for tapping that energy as it flows (John Bedini, Edwin Gray, Bruce de Palma, and others). Bearden provides what he calls a “partial list” on his Website.

In other words, Nature then gladly gives us as much EM energy flow as we need, indefinitely—just for paying a tiny little bit initially to “make the little dipole”. After that, we never have to pay anything again, and Nature will happily keep on pouring out that 3-flow of EM energy for us. This is the giant negentropy mechanism I uncovered, performed in the simplest way imaginable: just make an ordinary little dipole.”—Bearden

HOW TO BUY A FREE ENERGY MACHINE

Answer: Just wait one more year! Then get off the Grid!

Perhaps the most eagerly awaited event now is the marketing of Bearden's Motionless Electromagnetic Generator (MEG) scheduled to begin in about a year's time. This is when the proof will hit the fan. Many people have said to me, when talking about free energy, "I'll believe it when I can go to the store and buy one." Hopefully in a year's time they will be able to order their own MEG. And then they will believe, because it works and is working.

Says Bearden: "I will admit that the chief scientist of an important experimental group in a large company was rather stunned at the type of output we were able to obtain. The MEG may look like just a transformer, but it is not. It is a completely different breed of cat."

Soon the cat will be fully out of the bag. The first MEG units will supply 2.5 kilowatts of free electricity. Forever. Units can be connected together to double or triple the wattage. After that gets going, 10-kilowatt generators are planned. Energy will flow freely from the time domain indefinitely, and there are no moving parts to wear out. This manufacturing project is a heroic effort and will change the world as we know it. For once people are in possession of such devices there can be no further denial from anyone, including the government and/or "secret-government".

[H: Now can't you just picture the U.S. allowing this to take place? That's why you are going to need alternative production capabilities and why you will be very glad that WE are making the preliminary inroads here for some serious funding and facilities for when you are BLOCKED back in wonderland.]

The physics of how the MEG works is explained in the paper "The Motionless Electromagnetic Generator: Extracting Energy from a Permanent Magnet with Energy Replenishment from the Active Vacuum."

The device was successfully replicated by J.L. Naudin in France, and others, like Steve Utne, are also working on their own models. But MAGNETIC ENERGY LIMITED'S MEG is actually scheduled for production soon and looks to be the first commercially available free-energy generator in history!

I imagine it will not take long for tinkerers to put them into their electric cars and make the first fuelless automobiles since Tesla's unheralded (and unheeded) experiments. Or for builders to begin building houses powered by MEGs. Houses which will never see electric bills. How can they ever make enough of these to meet the demand that will suddenly be there? Bearden is right, it needs to be an all-out crash program of the government on the order of the Manhattan Project.

I must include here that Bearden is quick to point out that he is not himself the inventor of the MEG, but is a partner and advisor in bringing it to the public market through Magnetic Energy Limited, Inc. I must also admit that I am praying for the success of this venture, and the ending of the absurd and criminal withholding of this technology from the people by the black-ops military-industrial people. This secrecy has cost the planet over 30 years of unnecessary pollution.

The first units off the assembly line, which is being set up in a "friendly" unnamed nation, will usher the public at last into the new era of scalar electromagnetics.

As of December 2001, the situation with the MEG was described by Bearden in a letter.

"What we presently have with the MEG is a successful laboratory experiment. At least a year's very hard research will have to be done before we will be ready to put a commercial power supply into production.

"Consequently, we have made an agreement with a foreign partner (the National Materials Science Lab of the National Academy of Sciences of a friendly foreign nation) to do that year's research. At the same time, we are trying to make an agreement with one or more large financial partners here in the U.S."

"So we are hopeful that we will be able to start introducing units on the market about a year from now. Quite simply, we will either succeed or we will fail. But we will give it our very best effort."

Bearden has given another technical explanation for how the MEG works here in a letter.

Update: Motionless Electromagnetic Generator, patented 3-26-2002

"In Magnetic Energy Limited, all business discussions and arrangements are taken care of by Dr. Lee Kenny (jikenny@ingr.com), Managing Partner. There are five of us who are co-inventors of the MEG, and two of the others are really the principal inventors."—Bearden

FREE ENERGY HAS BEEN SUPPRESSED
SECRET GOVERNMENT AWARE OF FREE ENERGY

"In this world of contemporary times, all the agencies, CIA, FBI, KGB, NSA, Electric Power Research Institute, DARPA, Brookings Institution, Henry Kissinger, Edward Teller, et al., all are aware of DePalma and his [free-energy research] ideas.

"Because these individuals and institutions are employed by the ruling Elite to forecast the future and satisfy present needs and demands, it is clear that free energy is a threat to the world order constructed by business and the mindset of those who want to own the world.

"Free energy represents Man's aspirations and dreams of freedom and equality, uniform division of resources and the ability to choose one's own future.

"The fact that free energy is suppressed speaks to the greed and self-interest of a ruling Elite which, even in the face of an emergency of global starvation, resource depletion and environmental pollution, will not give one inch if it means loss of control. This is an attitude of paranoid delusion and fantasy which can only arise from the alienation of a class of elitists who, through their money, are completely insulated from the reality of the day-to-day fight for existence of the common man."

(<http://depalma.pair.com/Absurdity/Absurdity07/ProblemOfFreeEnergy.html>)

"Before the turn of the century, Nikola Tesla had discovered and was utilizing a new type of electric wave. Tesla repeatedly stated his waves were non-Hertzian, and his wireless transmissions did not fall off as the square of the distance. His discovery was apparently so fundamental (and his intent to provide free energy to all humankind was so clear) that it was responsible for the withdrawal of his financial backing, his deliberate isolation, and the gradual removal of his name from the history books."—Bearden

Bearden describes one clear case of the suppression of free energy when the Yakuza killed the Kawai engine in his very presence in Huntsville, Alabama.

"That night a jet arrived from Los Angeles, with a Yakuza on board. The next morning Kawai no longer controlled his company, his invention, or his own fate. The Kawai party was in fear and trembling. The Yakuza coldly dissolved the agreement, they packed up the two Kawai engines we had, and left. And that was that."

So it is not only governments who are keeping this revolutionary technology from seeing the light of day. The Yakuza? KGB? The Aum Shinrikyo cult? Our "leaders" need to be honest about what is going on, otherwise they look foolish, acting out a kind of Alice in Wonderland script before the public, a script that has become completely unbelievable.

Concerning the criminal withholding of this scalar technology by the military black-budget people, and the cover-up of the actual situation regarding scalar weapons throughout the world, Tom has this to say:

"The high government officials of the United States of America grossly violated our Constitution and their sworn oaths of office. Our Constitution specifically charges the government of the United States to defend the people of the United States. That means our officials are specifically charged with defending our people. Yet they deliberately agreed not to do so, and they deliberately sacrificed us in advance.

"They committed treason of the highest kind, by deliberately surrendering us to total destruction anytime the big balloon goes up."—Bearden

ENERGY CRISIS SOLVED

One of the "must read" documents at Cheniere is "The Unnecessary Energy Crisis: How to Solve it Quickly", especially since the "oil wars", which Bearden has foreseen for decades, have now already begun.

Here are some clips from that Document:

"To avoid the impending collapse of the world economy and/or the destruction of civilization and the biosphere, we must quickly replace much of the "electrical energy from oil" heart of the crisis at great speed, and simultaneously replace a significant part of the "transportation using oil products" fact also.

"The technical basis for that solution and part of the prototype technology required, are now at hand. We discuss that solution in this paper."—Bearden

And although the solution to the energy problem and the oil wars may be at hand, Bearden suggests there is still an urgent rush that needs to be made to save human civilization from collapse.

"Once the technology hardware solutions are ready for mass production, even with a massive worldwide deployment effort some five years are required to deploy the new systems sufficiently to contain the problem of world economic collapse. This means that, by the end of 2003, those hardware technology solutions must have been completed, and the production replacement power systems must be ready to roll off the assembly lines en masse.

"The 2003 date appears to be the critical "point of no return" for the survival of civilization as we have known it.

"Reaching that point, say, in 2005 will not solve the crisis in time, and the collapse of the world economy as well as the destruction of civilization and the biosphere will still almost certainly occur, even with the solutions in hand.

"The good news is that we now know how to easily initiate continuous and powerful 'electromagnetic winds' from the vacuum at will. Once initiated, each free EM energy wind flows continuously so long as the simple initiator is not deliberately destroyed."

On page 9 he explains the concept of the dipole, and how there is already huge scalar energy flowing in the time domain around any dipole. Hold a magnet or a battery in your hand and you hold a stress in time and a beautiful flowing loop of longitudinal waves!

Bearden decries the scientific community in the West for being unable to let go of their dogma long enough to see that the greatest discovery in human history lies at their feet, but for their stubborn ignorance.

"The present energy crisis then is due totally to that 'conspiracy of ignorance' we referred to, that is maintained by the scientific community, and that has been maintained by it for more than 100 years.

"This is the real situation that the environmentalists must become aware of, if they are to see the correct path into which their energies and efforts should be directed—to solve both the energy crisis and the problem of gigantic pollution of the biosphere.”

As far as anyone in the legislative branch of government ever understanding the profundity of the discovery and engineering of scalar waves, Tom Bearden says they are at a great disadvantage in doing so.

“The non-technical person—e.g., a Senator or a Congressperson—is operating under a distinct disadvantage. If he or she takes the stance that much better electrical power systems can readily be achieved, he or she is in fact opposing almost the entire set of University, Government, Technical, Power Company, Battery company, and Organized Science communities. Further, in most cases his technical advisors are themselves from one or the other of those communities, and likely to go back into that community or those communities when the Senator or Congressperson leaves office, or even before. So the Congress and the non-technical government community at large operate at a great disadvantage.”—Bearden

NATIONAL EMERGENCY DECLARATION IS NEEDED

“The Government Non-Technical community (the Senate and the Congress, in particular) is in far better shape than the Government Technical community, to appreciate the world implications of the pending economic disaster. I am hopeful that both the environmentalists and the Government Non-Technical community will rapidly unite in a common goal to get this vacuum energy program launched, under a National Emergency declaration. If so, then they can solve the energy crisis and the pending economic crisis, in fairly short order, and permanently.”

In the conclusion of his paper “The Unnecessary Energy Crisis: How to Solve It Quickly”, Bearden again states the urgency of replacing our centralized power grids with highly dispersed and local taps on the freely flowing energy of the active vacuum. Given the abilities of the Tesla howitzers, the power grids of all nations are sitting ducks.

“Personally, the present author regards the increasing energy crisis as the greatest strategic threat to the United States in its entire history. I will do anything within my power to help prevent what I perceive to be the looming economic collapse of the Western world, preceded or accompanied by a sudden, explosive, all-out and continuing exchange of the WMD arsenals of most of the world.”

In the name of all humanity, let us begin! Else by the time this first decade of the new millennium ends, much of humanity may not remain to see the second decade.

[END QUOTING PART 2]

In closing this portion I would be remiss if I didn't involve you who have waited so long for some realization that we had not lost direction in our journey to “promised” change.

What I find extremely sad is that this very “Tesla”-type of project was intended to have been the “baby” in development, by Dr. Edwin Young. Yes indeed, THAT one of Spectrum infamy. I hope ALL of you will think very hard on that point, for when you turn into evil activities and let ego demand control of self—you certainly err. I trust that the miscreants in our space will give very careful notice to this, for we are moving along directly, and now, rapidly, toward picking some of those fruits hanging ready in the orchard.

With sincerest love and very best wishes for an awakening, I suggest we close this chapter.—GCH

Elder Space Brothers Have Come To Offer Assistance

(PART 5)

RAPE, RAVAGE, PILLAGE AND PLUNDER OF THE PHOENIX

BY GYEORGOS CERES HATONN

“dharm”

PHOENIX JOURNAL #14 (1990)

CHAPTER 8

REC #1 HATONN

SUN., APRIL 22, 1990 10:00 A.M. YEAR 3 DAY 249

Hatonn present in the Light of Radiance. Good morning on this day dedicated to the greening of your planet. Mankind can clean of his nest if he but continues to grow in awareness. As man begins to give back unto that wondrous birthplace, She will return into abundance, for Nature heals without emotional restraint.

ENERGY

The great display of the billowing poison and sulfuric acid clouds spewing from the power-production plants about your world—and the display of the horrendous problems of nuclear plants and toxic storage, as well as the lessening water flows for your hydroelectric facilities—presents a most formidable plight unto mankind. What alternatives might you have in the production of electricity?

What can you do with the emissions of automobiles that you can clean your nesting place and still have mobility? It is far simpler than you might realize. You work under the assumption that you must invent a “wheel” of some sort to have the technology—nay, nay, nay! It is all invented and into service—just NOT by you the populace. You must look beyond and into the actual factual problems and persons who keep these wondrous things from the people.

There is technology available on your Earth which could place new worlds into space for the relocation of the masses and, in the least, grow food for the continuation of life until perfection could be brought forth upon these outer placements.

A LITTLE NEWS ITEM

In Pleiades alone, are large populations of Earth humans who were relocated at prior time periods for extension of experience and growth. In a way we are the elder brothers who come now to offer assistance and we shall do so openly as soon as you can clean up your aggressive hostility—for hostile energies will not be relocated to innocent star systems. If man cannot look into his perceived “future” and come again into harmony with God, he shall simply march his already projected path to destruction upon your little orb. You are prisoners upon your isolated placement, for the technology for traversing star systems has been denied you.

While the conspirators and treasonists of your planet have utilized technology sufficient to find relocation placement during temporary recovery of Earth, they have denied you the knowledge of the existence of these things.

You have had the method of production of “free” energy since prior to Nikola Tesla’s death of physical being. You have had technology for earth buildings since the hogan was first utilized and you have not used of it.

You have destroyed your planet in every imaginable manner—you as a species have raped, pillaged and plundered until you have destroyed of your own birthplace.

Instead of ceasing behavior that overpopulates your planet, you preach “safe sex” in your third-grade classes or moreover, tout intercourse as the thing to do in all instances. Do you realize that you now have some 6 billion people [April 1990] on your planet (your estimates are indeed low) and you are doubling that population figure every 12 years. That means that by 2002 you will have over 12 billion people [MM: depopulation not withstanding]. You have devastated your atmosphere and ruined your growing fields—how does your future look to you???

Dear friends—look at the other planets in your solar system and see that which is human survival on those places. Human cannot survive on those places as in the garden setting of Earth. You are a long line of planet destroyers. We who come now represent remnants of prior human annihilations. Can you not come into realization that God would not leave you to such fate without sending guidance and solutions for your plight? Most of the planets in your system were as yours, with rivers and fields and they were destroyed—finally—by atmospheric holocaust and heavens of fire.

Can you change your course? Of course—IF YOU WANT TO! But you shall not find it an easy path for, with the afflictions upon you already, there will be a transition of some two-thirds of your populations. But before they go, there will be further devastations of your growing seasons as man and Nature continue to tamper with the seasons and water supplies. You will have created the sequence of events which must now be played out in the reality. Therefore, even if the healing is brought about, which it most certainly can be, there will be great, great loss of life of physical beings and need for pockets of places for survival in good health. A sick people cannot till the fields and build and even repopulate. It is the cycle of dying and renewal—I know of no easy way in which to tell you these things. Hopeless? Oh no, it is total hope, for if change and unification does not come about, all will be lost. You who awaken and hear and move through the trying times will grow in abundance and beauty beyond your imagination. Nature, herself, will bring of herself back into balance with or without you—for she, too, is a living, breathing creation within The Creation and as such, is just as important as any or all of you humans.

HOW CAN YOU DO IT?

You do it by opening your minds and hearing truth, seeing truth and then acting in truth by coming back into the balance of the Laws of God and The Creation. You will have to stop the lustful, greedy, carnal behaviors, teach your children truth and discipline of actions and intent and learn the truth of how it is NOW. You must know the details of the evil conspiracy and then you must stand firm in rising above them who would destroy you. You will do that through knowledge and the use of your God-given rights and powers and the tags and rags of what is remaining of your Constitution. You will stand together as an unbending God-power and demand your God-given freedom and removal of the evil slave-masters.

Yes, the poison has seeped into the very joints of your body of civilization. The evil has consumed all but a tiny remnant—but you have all you need if you will but use of it.

This is our thrust at present. You are not even convinced of our presence—how can you trust us when we say you are God-power in manifestation? You can't—but if we tell you truth and you find it all to be confirmed and re-confirmed as being so—you will trust us and believe us when we tell you of your capabilities. We are but your brethren but we KNOW of our oneness with God and Creation and we can cause you to remember your truth of being—no more and no less. When the mass of man realizes his power, the show will almost instantly change. As a matter of fact, if the blood flow of money [MM: International Banking Cartel (IBC)] were cut off, the conspiracy would begin to crumble instantly—instantly. But you have been convinced you must support the octopi of the slave-masters.

The major question arising from groups in dispute over taxes, for instance, shout out, “But who would support the government if everybody stopped paying taxes?” and “Well, just we little people pay our taxes, the huge corporations and money-holders get all those write-offs and don't pay their share!” Ah, do you not see you have answered your own objection! You are controlled but if you refused to transfuse these leeches with your blood resources—they would die of starvation! But you have been brainwashed and called “cheaters”, ad nauseam.

Can you not look it up for yourselves? For this is just an example—taxation, as handled in your country, is 100 percent (100%) unlawful by Constitutional Law!!!! Does anyone hear me? It is unlawful by your own Constitution! The conspirator slave-masters are diligently, and as quietly as possible, rewriting your Constitution so that you do nothing until you are convinced what they “TELL” you is truth and they make big unlawful fines and incarcerations to prove the lie unto you!

The Justice system has been raped and is your enemy—completely controlled and operated by the conspiracy—but public attention still carries great force because Satan is a worker in the dark, secret and underground routes. He never confronts—he always shoots in the back! Yes, the job is conceptually overwhelming. One step at a time, chelas—one step at a time. First we crawl (but ones have crawled before you and can assist you), then step-by-step and then jog and then run and the race is won. But first must be truth—integrated so you can see it in a lump and go unto your libraries and confirm our messages and then there is no army which can stand against us—for when asked in, in peace, by enough of you brothers, we will stand in form beside you and WE KNOW OUR POWERS. WE HAVE TECHNOLOGY WHICH WILL INSTANTLY HALT THE CONSPIRATORS AND THEY KNOW IT; THAT IS WHY YOU ARE TAUGHT FEAR OF US, FOR THEY KNOW ONCE YOU HAVE ASKED US IN TO SERVE GOD BESIDE YOU—EVIL IS THROUGH!

BUT WHEN?

Ah, the hard part coming up. First you begin by acceptance of truth and recognition of we who are sent to help. Then you must change of your perceptions and some will never give up the ways of the world, so you will have some real emotional hurdles to surmount.

Greed, Power and Lust are your devouring “termites” in your dwelling foundations. You are physical beings and you have been brainwashed into believing all wondrous things come from achievement of fleshly pleasure, money and power and control of the largest numbers of others possible. “Love” has nothing to do with it—sex is used for ALL THE WRONG REASONS—ALL. It is the downfall of mankind. It is used for control, power, lust, abuse, excitement, coercion, mistaken breeding of innocent offspring which are usually murdered at the very hands of the ones creating them—and on and on and on. I repeat that which I have said over and over—homosexual “LOVE” is blessed—homosexual sexual “BEHAVIOR” is abhorrent as is the misuse of sex between any persons on any occasion what-so-ever.

Allow me to point out something which you might check out from a pair of homosexual males, as a for instance. Let us say that homosexual activities of physical experience has now given AIDS unto both partners but one is much more ill than the other. The body is physically drained of energy and I guarantee you that with that drain of physical energy—sex becomes the last desired thing, especially sex of the typical nature of fun and games. DOES THIS MEAN THE RELATIONSHIP OF TRUE LOVE IS GONE? OF COURSE NOT—YOU WILL NOW HAVE FRIENDS IN TRUTH AND LOVE IN TRUE GIVING AND FULFILLMENT RESULTING. THESE ONES WILL HAVE BECOME UNITED IN PURPOSE AND THE EMOTIONAL BONDS REACH BEYOND ANYTHING HUMANLY PHYSICAL. HOW SAD THAT TRUTH MUST COME TOO LATE! THE LIE LED YOU TO DESTRUCTION AND TOO LATE TRUTH PRONOUNCED ITSELF IN FULFILLMENT AS A SOUL EXPERIENCE OF LOVE UNMEASURED. BUT SOMETHING ELSE OCCURS VERY OFTEN IN THE ABSTINENCE OF THE SEXUAL BEHAVIOR AND THE HOPE AND TRUST OF A LOVE RELATIONSHIP AND RISING ABOVE THE BANAL—ONES ARE HEALING, AND HEALING TO TOTAL WHOLENESS. IF THEY RETURN TO THE BANAL BEHAVIOR, THEY ARE AGAIN ATTACKED. IT IS BECAUSE MAN IS ACTING OUT “EXPECTED” BEHAVIOR AND THERE IS NEVER THE TRUTH IN IT.

THEN MAN LASHES OUT IN TERROR AND ANGER AND ACTS-UP AND CAUSES MORE DESTRUCTION IN HIS FRUSTRATION—RATHER THAN COMING INTO PEACE WITHIN AND CHANGINGS OF HIS “ACTIONS”.

WHEN THE ACTIONS AGAIN FLOW IN THE STREAM OF GOD-NESS AND BALANCE COMES AGAIN WITH THE GOD WITHIN—INSTEAD OF THE EFFORT AT HIDING FROM THE GOD-HEALER WITHIN—MAN SHALL RENEW AND REMEMBER THE WAY. WHEN YOU STOP “USING” EACH OTHER FOR YOUR OWN EGO POWER—YE SHALL FIND YOUR WAY. NOTHING CAN THEN STAND AGAINST YOU—FOR GOD IS CREATOR AND CAN UNCREATE ANYTHING WITHIN THE CREATION! SO BE IT!

Will man do these things? Most will not! That is the fact of the probabilities of it. Some shall and it shall be enough! To achieve thy truth and strength of God-ness—you must come again into the remembering of a love that surpassed all understanding and which IS and evermore shall BE! When you have remembered and wipe away the veil of forgetfulness, ye shall rise again as the eagle and soar throughout the heavens in freedom. THAT, BROTHERS, IS THE HOPE AND TRUTH OF IT.

WHY DON'T YOU TELL US ALL THE “STUFF” WRONG ON EARTH DAY?

Your Earth brothers are doing quite well even though the groups of most outstanding notability are now infiltrated by the conspirators.

Further, go to SIPAPU ODYSSEY [Phoenix Journal #1; call 1-800-800-5565 for ordering information] and reread the story. Remember, it is a short story for the purpose of motion picture “treatment” layout. There is a portion which will be a major portion of the movie—in holographic projection—of the plight of your world, and we put it to print over three years ago. We must be allowed to cease the re-writing and you ones do a little re-reading. If a child's whole youth is spent in nothing but potty training, how shall he ever learn to read and write? No one is going to do anything “for” you—you now have available thousands of books by daring authors and researchers who tell truth and are now offering it abundantly and totally unto us for the using. We will project the truth and you will then get the books and confirm for self, we have not time to digest it for each of you—our Journals must be short, shocking and wake you up—then if you give a flip for your perceived future, you will investigate further as we give you resources. We will honor no man who projects lies without conclusion of truth—but we will honor, above all, those who have researched and discovered truth and brought it unto you. God works in mysterious ways, His wonders to perform—there is much of truth in the Holy Books, for that is another trick of Satan. A lot of truth but sock it to you with the lies of lust, etc., and trick you into helplessness. Well, you are not helpless unless you choose to be—that is strictly up to each of you!

Most of you need not even risk thy hair-do to change of things, as these ones must lay their neck across the blade-grooves of the guillotine—for they break of the way for you and clear of the underbrush that the path is open for your feet. They give all and ask naught of you—but their legacy to a planet will be beyond measure. Who will join them? Who will walk beside this publisher and writer and bringers of this truth to humanity? There are others, hundreds of others and contributions are being funnelled into integration in this placement that truth in all areas of perception can be sent forth upon the life waves. Blessed are you who respond in even the most brief notes, for the way is frightening. When the word from a Henry Kissinger to “silence that writer, whoever it is” comes forth, it is terrifying indeed, for these ones hold incredible physical human power. But they cannot hold a candle flicker to the flame of God which surrounds this chela.

What is this scribe like? Does she wear a halo? Perhaps she radiates rainbow lights and has wings? No—she is a 58-year-old grandmother who must dwell in all ways as the human in impact, experience and loneliness for brother sharing. These ones are given no more than are any of you, except that they spend time with us on the other end of the line. Dharma is given to see much and remember much but in the human consciousness, it is mostly removed, for she must not be made to bear such a burden. The others recognize of our presence and honor our friendship and the joy of sharing—we are but your elder brothers.

Dear ones, do not think you protect these ones by hiding of the Journals—no, get as many out as possible. Safety comes in publicity—for murder becomes obvious if the murder is of ones of public knowledge.

Well, what of the horrendous projections of Global warming, greenhouse effect, pollution etc.?

WHAT OF GLOBAL PROBLEMS?

On this day the inquiries rise like a wall of fog. The Global Conspirators tell you that which they desire you to believe. Extraterrestrials, who live in a high concentration of carbon dioxide and synthesize nutrients as plants, were invited and came to your planet—the ships were brought down and the beings incinerated. You are having an increase of carbon dioxide for so many reasons I have not room to outlay in this portion. However, you are not having increased global warming and records of your own scientists over the past decade prove it. You ARE having intensified heating in the summers in many, many locations and more frigid winters. The extremes are compounded by atmospheric and manual manipulation of atmosphere. You will see less and less seasonal changes and more sliding from, say, winter to summer and summer to winter, etc. The “typical” seasons as you would describe them, are all but absent.

With the extreme temperature changes, deforestation, melting of your polar ice caps, etc., there will be catastrophic changes in conditions with increasing wind velocities, irregular rainfalls with extreme droughts and flooding. It will be for protection from the elements, as much as for survival of wars, that your shelter and reserve food storage shall be most useful. You are moving into a time of incredible extremes which man is not evolved sufficiently to withstand. You must have protections, as must your domestic animals and food plants if you are to survive the cycle of change. Do you not see? With care and preparations you can produce in a different and more abundant manner and move through the cycle most comfortably—but it requires “COMMUNITY” action—community of brotherhood and holding on to your resources and carefully utilizing them. We can show you the way—you must do of it! There are already ones upon your place who know how, they have simply not been allowed growth—for with growth and independence comes freedom and the conspirators cannot allow of it. They must thrust upon you rules and regulations which break your back before you can be successful in order to maintain control of you.

For instance, the most suitable and stable building substance in the world is compressed earth and yet the planning commissions all over California refuse to fully permit the use thereof, for it is both cheap as the dirt at the building site and durable into infinity—totally biodegradable as the Earth itself and thus and so. I believe you get the picture? Utilized in domes it both withstands the elements in perfection, regulates the temperature as in a cave and can be radiantly heated for temperature control and cooking facilities through simple solar methods. IT HURTS TOO MANY BUSINESS KINGS. IT IS TOO IMPACTFUL TO THE MARKET-RICH WHO WOULD STRANGLE YOU WITH DEBT, KEEP THE HOMELESS, TO MAINTAIN THEIR CONTROL AND GREED.

Do you not see that underground facilities suitable for emergency shelters could also be set up to house the homeless and that, in exchange for tending of the facilities and other public facilities? Oh blessed ones, I plead with you to SEE!

So be it, Dharma, for our intent is not to overload. I only petition that ones will reach up unto the hands we have extended unto you that we might join with you through this trial of a planet and civilization of man in trouble. If you try to walk the path without God of truth and continue in the way of the misdirectors (even of your churches), you shall not make of it in wholeness. We petition you to allow the words so that you can then base of thine decisions on the merits of the presentation, logic and pure reason. Beware of those ones who refuse to read or hear and petition you to do likewise—they are unwitting tools for your enslavement and destruction—without exception. Only truth can set you free and you must see and hear of it, for there is no other way. Further, it is all by free-will acceptance or denial, for none shall force or coerce—it is simply “here it is, take that which ye will”. Salu.

Let us close this portion in love and grace, for ultimately there is no other.

I take my leave and move to stand-by. May your awakening be gentle and without fear—for God is within and fear is not of God. AHO!

Go in peace,
Hatonn to clear.

CHAPTER 9

REC #2 SANANDA

MON., APRIL 23, 1990 9:45 A.M. YEAR 3 DAY 250

Sananda present in the Light of Holy God.

Dharma, it is time, chela, to speak of the unholy methods of evil in places where it is all but impossible for man to accept. Perhaps this Journal should be entitled RAPE, PILLAGE, PLUNDER AND OTHER OBSCENITIES. We will write this day on this subject which is the unspeakable, for in thy place it is a gentle rain God has sent for renewal and the blossoming of the violet flowers of Man. Honor those violet blooms which are a sign of life and truth unto you ones, for they are more than Spring flowers—these particular ones were a sign from God for specific purpose. So be it.

HONOR AND HUMBLE GRATITUDE TO SISTER CHARLOTTE

Readers, as you proceed herein you will be shocked and offended to the bottom of your senses. It is a time of revealing evil into the lighted public and ones have dearly paid the ultimate sacrifice to bring forth truth. The story we shall tell will be in first person as given forth by Sister Charlotte of a Cloistered Order of the Holy Catholic Church. It speaks of the traditional path and treatment of little girl children entering into a cloistered order.

You will desire to believe it is, at the very least, the exceptional treatment and not the norm. Nay, it is the accepted treatment and those convents which do not function in this manner are the exception.

Prior to losing you readers who cannot swallow the truth of it—I suggest you investigate the “OPENED” convents in Mexico. The convents in your country are still kept in total secrecy. The treatment of the little nuns is so heinous as to defy believability—’tis so, dear ones—’tis so.

Some ones have managed to break free and dare to tell their stories. Most never make it into freedom and if they make it beyond the walls, they are sought after and killed. Sister Charlotte has been murdered. Her soul rests in peace for her ultimate gift to truth.

God and Christ have no place within the halls of evil. The Church of Rome is not of God; it is directly of Satan. Ye who will, deny this truth—but truth will “out”, brethren! We shall speak of many subjects regarding the religious paths but this day we will stay with this subject, for it is heinous indeed and most difficult for this scribe. We have chosen her to pen these things—for she has no knowledge or predisposition to opinion toward the Catholic Church and knows naught of its doctrines or practices.

Who is Sister Charlotte?

Let us first refer to words in the Book of Acts, Chap. 6, vs. 7: “God’s message was preached in ever-widening circles, and the number of disciples increased vastly in Jerusalem; and many of the Jewish priests were converted too....”

The history of the conversion of priests is not new, it was there even before the Roman Catholic Institution was established in its present form.

It was there among the Jewish people, a parallel to the present situation of the Roman Catholic Priesthood. As a matter of fact, the Roman Catholic Priesthood—in its present form with nuns, monks and priests as well as bishops, cardinals and popes—is a tremendous mixture of two religions, Catholicism and Judaism. We will see that even the very experience which comes forth from actual experiences of priests, monks and nuns at this present time brings forth more light in guidelines about the tremendous conspiracy which underlays the very existence of the so-called Church of Christ unto this very day.

Through the presentations of these religious experiences of the lives of priests and nuns you will be given the greatest blessings of truth beyond comprehension. It is through such testimony, such as Sister Charlotte, a former Roman Catholic Nun, that, even though her experience goes back but a few years of your counting, is accurate in description of conditions which exist in the Roman Catholic Institutions at this present day.

PERVERSION OF GOD'S WRITTEN REVELATIONS

In the Bible, it was already recognized that some of the Jewish priests were perverting God's written revelations with the traditions of men. See Matthew 15: 3-6: "... And why do your traditions violate the direct commandments of God?..." Today, the false priests of Rome are doing the same job under the spirit of the anti-christ.

You will find in this testimony that the doctrines of the Church of Rome never change regardless of her claims. The work of the spirit of the anti-christ preparing his bride, the Mother of Harlots (Revelations 17, 18, 19), is religiously clever indeed.

Christians must become informed and alert to the continuing heresies and blasphemies committed by the Roman Catholic Institution—especially over the past six hundred years, starting with the Emperor Constantine the Great as the first Pope and the actual first founder of the Roman Catholic Institution as you would recognize of it. This may not be speaking historically—but is accurate in prophetic terms.

There was a revolution established against the Church of Christ and God Himself. This enemy of God has risen up against the authority of the only true God and Christ—by whatever name you would append unto them. Dear ones, this will not cease until the destruction of the entity as foretold in the Revelation.

In spite of Rome's attempted new image since the Vatican's projection in 1965, her "real" constitution declares and reflects no subjection to the person of the one they, themselves, call Christ—or unto his teachings. Those who claim that Rome is changing will only find very small changes in the form of presentation. The speakers still project the same lies as before and now it is done facing the people and speaking in their own language. There are no substantial changes or any signs of repentance of the blasphemous activities. This is true of the whole of the institution as well as for her Pope, clergy or laymen.

The only significant changes are taking place in the lives of those Roman Catholic priests and laymen who, under the condition of the Holy Spirit of Truth, are obeying God's call to be born again into the truth of his Laws and those of The Creation as handed forth by the Christos energies sent forth as the messenger of Truth.

These, too, are the ones who dare to pronounce truth regarding those things which are perpetrated behind the walls of shrouded secrecy and evil.

Unto the ones who dare to speak truth we dedicate the memory of Sister Charlotte who stood strong in the forefront of truth and was therefore murdered.

You think it cannot be? Oh, dearly beloved ones of the lie, look unto El Salvador and the murdered Jesuit priests—murdered at the hands of the sanctioned troops of the U.S. and the heinous act is continued to be covered up by your own CIA and FBI. I use this example only to present to you the ease of cover-up of any and all things, and the powerful impact of all acts connected to the religious institutions. Terror and control of the masses is the intent. So be it.

I plead with you who read this Journal to go forth and research these presentations and confirm truth in thine own environment and leave this scribe out of your stoning, for she knows not of these things. Come unto me and I shall show of you the way!

These blessed ones who are in deed and fact, the martyrs of the true and blessed Church, are blessed and hallowed as the true Saints of the Body of the Christos. I further hold in reverence and highest honor the men, women and children who have been martyred by the evil Satanic beings who have become the Roman Catholic Institution. I stand before Satan and denounce him for that which he has done unto the body of God. For these things have I come again and so have the Hosts of Heaven and the time is short, my friends, for the day of reckoning is at hand.

I single not out the Roman Catholic Institution—I PRONOUNCE DENOUNCEMENT AND CONFRONTATION UNTO ALL WHO PRONOUNCE THEMSELVES MY BODY—MY CHURCH—AND ACT IN THE MANNER OF EVIL AND WORLDLY DEGRADATION. I SPEAK IN THIS PORTION OF THIS BOOK ABOUT THE CATHOLIC DEBASEMENT, FOR I HONOR ONE WHO WAS OF THEIR ENTRAPMENT. Satan has taken over the pulpits of all the churches as established by the doctrines of man.

HE WHO SETS HIMSELF UP AS THE LAW OF GOD WILL FALL; GOD HAS GIVEN FORTH THE LAWS AND THOSE OF CREATION—AND NO MAN SHALL CHANGE OF THEM AND PASS INTO THE GLORY OF ONENESS WITH CREATOR. SO BE IT AND SELAH!

As the HUMAN is awakening it must be noted that this forthcoming testimony is more pertinent this day than when Sister Charlotte spoke the words unto all who would listen, for she feared not her passage and, as she expected, she was tortured unto a slow and agonizing giving up of spirit. Unfortunately, Satan had already perpetrated all manner of torture unto her frail body physical—there was little left to defile.

I confront you, Satan, for I shall pull your evil out from all the dark recesses and ye shall stand in mine presence and ye shall be smitten and bound. Ye have debased our Father's creations and thine day of judgment is not long in the coming. Heed well mine words, ye who follow after this dark being of evil, for he shall pull you into destruction. I speak as one Sananda, one with and within God, Lord of Lords and Holy of Holies—ye of evil shall not be sustained! The Prince of Darkness shall fall to the Light! So be it, for it shall come to pass in the generation present upon your placement. The day of accounting is nigh.

Unto thine presence, Charlotte, I bow my being in humble honor before thine love and giving as unto others who have suffered and worked in my name and truth. Know that I would take it upon mineself were it to be. Blessed be ye ones of my tribes and flocks.

May your words touch the hearts and truth of all ones who partake of this testimony. Your petition has been heard and is herein honored, that your passage would not stop the Word of Truth from going forth. Your sacrifice shall only serve to spread your words unto the four corners of this troubled planet that your petitions in behalf of the incarcerated brothers and sisters within the prison walls shall bring cause to throw open unto the light of public display that which exists in the places of torture and evil. May you please sit with God as you read. Amen.

SISTER CHARLOTTE

Dharma, write as is given without changes, please, for it was spoken thusly: [QUOTING:]

First of all, I would like to tell you that I am not giving this testimony because I hold bitter feelings in my heart toward the Roman Catholic people. I couldn't be a Christian if I still had bitterness in my heart. God has delivered me from all bitterness and strife and delivered me out of all of that, one day, and made himself real and known unto me.

So, as I give this testimony, I am giving it because God delivered me out of the convent and out of bondage and darkness, and I must give this testimony that others might know what cloistered convents are. So, as you listen carefully, I trust that if I leave one thing in your heart it will be that I carry no burden against the Roman Catholic people.

I don't agree with the things done or the things taught, but I covet this role for Christ. I am interested in the souls of the ones in charge of those church places.

Christ went unto Calvary that you and I might know him, and their souls are just as precious as your soul or mine.

Having been born into Roman Catholicism, not knowing anything else or knowing the word of God, because we did not have a Bible in our home, we knew nothing about a wonderful plan of salvation. Naturally, I grew up in that Roman Catholic home and knew only the catechism and only the sheltered teachings of the Roman Catholic Church. And, because I loved the Lord, and because I wanted to do something for him, I wanted to give him my life. I knew of no other way for a Roman Catholic to give him a life other than entering a convent.

Naturally, as a believing Catholic I came under the influence of my Father Confessor, the Roman Catholic priest who had tremendous influence over my life. One day I made up my mind, through his influence among the influence of others of the faith, that I wanted to be a little Sister. At that time I thought that being a Sister meant an open order. I believed that up until the time I took my "white veil" and, until I was 15½ years-of-age, everything was beautiful. I really had no fear, for everything which was taught to me was along the lines of that which I was taught in the church prior to entering the convent.

And so one day, after having made up my mind to enter the convent, two of the Sisters came home from school with me. They were my teachers and I realized that my Father was home that afternoon and Father Confessor was in my home, likewise. Remember, I was a little girl and little girls were seen and not heard. In my family, you didn't talk when you were a child and adults were present. You did answer promptly if spoken to.

After a long discussion, my Father asked if I could say something and that was a bit out of the ordinary. I said, "Dad, I want to enter a convent." The priests had already been influencing my Father and my Father broke down and began to cry, not from sadness, but from joy. My Mother came over and took me in her arms and she had tears because of happiness. They felt it wonderful that their little girl was giving her life to the convent to save lost humanity. Naturally my family was very thrilled about it and I was, too. But anyway, I didn't go for about a year after that and I got the call and my Mother prepared things for me and they took me forth and I entered the convent.

There was no place near my Mother and Father's home so I was taken about a thousand miles away from home. So I entered a convent boarding school. I lacked about two months of being thirteen years of age. I look back on it today and realize I was so homesick and so were my parents with their little baby away from home. At that time I had never even spent a night away from my Mother and had never gone any place without my family. That was the first time away from my family and I was very lonely and homesick.

After Mother told me good-by, and I shall never forget, and I knew they were traveling a long distance away from me and I had never realized in my life that I would never see them again. I had never planned to be other than a sister in an open order where I would not give up my family. If you listen carefully to this portion of my testimony you will understand why I say some of the things which I will say.

Now, it is that we sometimes say the priest is the body of Christ, because of the way the services were held. At seven years of age I would come into the church and I would first go to the foot of the crucifix and then to the feet of the Virgin Mary and then I would ask the Virgin Mary that I would make a good confession. I was just a child and the priests always prayed for everyone to make a good confession—to keep nothing back, tell everything and then ask absolution from anything which I might have committed. I would then ask Jesus to have me make a good confession.

During that time at school I was to have gotten a high-school education and a college education. Well, I got a high-school education but not much college material. I appreciate that opportunity very, very much even though it was rather difficult for me. After they put me through the crucial training that you must go through to become a little novitiate entry into a convent, that training is rather outstanding as far as a nun is concerned and you know what it is all about after you have been in there for a little while.

INSIGHT INTO THE EARLY TIME OF TRAINING

I want to tell you just a little bit about how we live, how we sleep when we first enter into the convent so that you can understand a bit more about my testimony.

Of course as I entered the convent as a small child, I went on to school and continued in my training. But the day came when I would enter into another segment and here I will tell you about the "white veil". I didn't know very much about it but I had been told that it would be that I would become the bride of Jesus Christ and there would be a ceremony and I would rejoice in the wedding garment.

On a particular morning, they told me that at nine o'clock they would dress me in the wedding garment. Now let me share from where they get the money for the wedding clothes. A letter goes out to the child's father telling them how much money is required and then the wedding gown and the other things necessary are made by the other nuns. The family was always expected to send forth at least a hundred dollars but it was not realized that the clothes were reused and therefore, most all of the money was retained. None was ever sent back, all was kept at the convent.

The time came for me to walk down that isle and I was dressed in the wedding garment. I wanted to be holy and I wanted to be the bride of Jesus Christ. I recited the Rosary and I got down on my knees and crawled the distance of the separate stations of the cross of Jesus on his way to Calvary. Every Friday morning I crawled them, for I thought it would make me Holy and make me worthy of the task that I was to undertake and that is what I wanted more than anything in the world.

I would like to impress on your hearts: Every little girl that enters the convent, that I know anything about, that child has a desire to live for God. That child has a desire to give her heart, mind and soul to God. There are many people who remark that only bad women go into convents; that is not so. There may be many ones who go into convents because they are great sinners but mostly the children are innocent and unknowing and thousands are influenced to enter into the convent to bring forth the money into the church.

The child is just a child when she goes in there and her mind and soul is just as clean as any child could be. I mention this for you hear so many things which are simply not true. Now after the training you become the spouse of Jesus Christ and, realizing the sequence of events, then you can follow me through the rest of the testimony with more understanding.

After the ceremony we are looked upon as married women. We are considered the legal spouse of Jesus Christ. Now every little girl who will take the white veil will become the bride of Christ and it is known that her family will be saved. It doesn't matter how many crimes they commit, banks they rob or how they drink, smoke or carouse; it doesn't make a bit of difference—the family will be saved if we, the little brides, continue in the convent and give our lives to the convent, or to the church. All members of our immediate family will be automatically saved. Many little girls go into a convent because we realize it is immediate salvation for our families. A little child who loves her family so much will feel this is the least she can do to save her family.

Of course you must understand that at that time our minds are totally immature and we don't know anything about life. Ones don't know what is in the hearts and minds of little children and the priest is looked upon, by these little children, as God—the only God we know anything about. I thought the priest was totally infallible, I didn't think he could sin, I didn't think he would lie—I didn't think he could make a mistake. I looked upon the priest as the Holiest of Holies, for I didn't know about God but I did know about the priest. I knew that anything I would ask of God is asked of the priest. For all knowledge the priest was simply God manifested and all would come forth from him.

After taking the "white veil" I was 15½ years of age and everyone is good to me, and I'm living in the convent and I haven't seen anything yet, because a little girl who is brought through the bridal ceremony is subject to a Roman Catholic priest until they are 21 years of age and they are kept in the total control of the Sisters of the order. Now the church will tell you that the little nuns can come out of the convent any time they want to. I tell you this is a lie. I spent twenty-two years there and I did everything I could do to get out and instead of releasing me they sent me into the dungeon and I even tried to dig my way out. I was more imprisoned than you can ever begin to imagine and it is the same with all the little nuns. There is no way out and you are watched constantly and I will tell you of the treatment as we go along in this testimony.

The priest came to me and told me that, "I believe you're the type who would be willing to give up your home, give up mother and daddy, give up everything you love out in the world, and the world so to speak, and hide yourself away behind convent doors; because I believe you are the kind that would hide back there and be willing to sacrifice to live in crucial poverty, that you might pray for lost humanity." He said, "I believe that you are the kind that would be willing to suffer," for we are taught to believe, as nuns, that we suffer for our loved ones and your loved ones that are already in purgatory will be delivered from purgatory sooner because of our suffering. They knew I was willing to suffer, I didn't mind it, I didn't complain—they knew all of that, for they had watched me constantly and knew me and that was why the grand Mother Superior began to tell me about the "Black Veil". Then, of course, you must know that I didn't know much of anything about a cloistered nun. I didn't know anything about their life, I didn't know how they live, I didn't know what they do; but this woman proceeded to tell me.

Now, many ones try to tell me in places I travel today, and Roman Catholics try to tell me all about cloisters and claim to have been in many and try to tell me all about them. But you know, a Roman Catholic can lie to you and they don't have to go to confession and tell the priest about the lie that they told because "they are lying to protect their faith". They are expected to tell any lie they want to, to protect their faith and never go to the confessional box and tell the priest about it—he would only commend them for protecting their faith.

They can do more than that, however, as they can steal up to $40 and they don't have to tell the priest about it. They don't have to say one word about it in the confessional box. They are taught that. Every Roman Catholic knows it and every Roman Catholic would be horrified to know how many of them steal up to that amount. Most of them lie. I have dealt with hundreds and hundreds of them and I have seen a good many of them then cry out to God to save them. Many of them first look into my face, into my eyes and lie to me until God gets a hold of their hearts and then they want to make light of it because they know they have lied. As long as they remain Roman Catholic they are committed to lie, and the sad thing is that you can't expect them to know God because I believe God does not condone sin and, although He forgives sin, I believe that He does not condone sin, yet the truth of God is not taught in the churches. The teachings are specifically dedicated to that which is given to be taught and all the rest is banned from participation, even to the reading. A Catholic is not given permission to even visit in another doctrinal sanctuary without having to confess it as sin.

WAR AGAINST IRAQ NEEDS UN STAMP

By Clyde Prestowitz,
President of the Economic Strategy Institute in Washington, 09/22/02

"If you attack Iraq without adequate United Nations authorization, Indonesia and Malaysia will blow up. With the UN you can manage it. Without the UN it will be a disaster."

Those words, spoken by a prominent Southeast Asian leader at a recent conference on anti-Americanism sponsored by the State Department, were echoed by other participants from virtually every part of the globe and should serve as a reality check for Congress as it considers a possible resolution authorizing a U.S. attack on Iraq.

In the wake of President Bush's appeal to the United Nations to enforce its resolutions calling for Iraq to dismantle its weapons of mass destruction, a great debate has erupted on U.S. editorial pages and within the Democratic and Republican Parties over how long to wait for the UN to act and under what circumstances the United States should be prepared to move without UN authorization and support.

As this debate moves to Congress in the next few weeks, it is critically important for that largely parochial body to gain some inkling of how the rest of the world feels about America and how it might react to a solely American show in Iraq.

Representing a cross section of government, academic and media experts from around the world, conference participants emphasized that sentiment about America has changed dramatically since the outpouring of support that flowed in the immediate wake of Sept. 11.

Then, as American Embassies around the world were buried in flowers, and as candlelight vigils in Tehran were accompanied by expressions of sympathy and support from Chinese President Jiang Zemin, French flags flew at half-staff along the Seine in Paris.

Now, an instinctive affection overseas for Americans as people and an admiration for American institutions and values is being soured by policies and attitudes that conference participants said seem at odds with what the United States has preached in the past as well as with the interests of much of the rest of the world.

Foreign concerns about the United States cover a broad range of issues, but four stand out.

First, in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, the United States is seen by most foreign observers to be favoring Israel. This, coupled with much U.S. media commentary that seems to link Islam and extremism, has inflamed anti-American sentiment throughout the Muslim world by creating the impression that America is attacking Islam itself.

Second, America's attitude toward its allies is often seen as inconsistent and self-serving.

Pakistan, for example, has sometimes felt like a tennis ball as it bounced from being a fast friend during the Cold War to the object of harsh criticism for lack of progress on democracy to being a fast friend again when needed for support of the U.S. strike against Afghanistan and then back to the doghouse again for its conflict with India over Kashmir.

Third, there is also widespread dismay over U.S. unilateralism as demonstrated by U.S. rejection of international treaties such as the Kyoto agreement on global warming, the international agreement to ban chemical and biological weapons, the treaty limiting exports of small arms, the agreement banning use of land mines, and the International Criminal Court, all of which the United States played a large role in initiating.

Many longtime friends of America feel the United States is renegeing on its obligations as a global citizen and turning its back on the whole notion of a global system based on the rule of law and multilateral institutions it has championed since the end of World War II.

This fear is exacerbated by the fourth issue of concern, which is the new doctrine of pre-emptive attack.

No nation in history has had the relative power of the United States, and this power has accrued at a moment when the world has shrunk so that the might of America is omnipresent. Even a benign hegemon with that much power is frightening. A hegemon of such enormity that baldly commits itself to pre-emptive action as it sees fit is frightening.

All of these concerns become fused in the case of Iraq.

While there is no love in the Muslim world for Iraqi President Saddam Hussein, Washington's threats of an attack to achieve regime change are interpreted as just more evidence of American hostility to Islam. Yes, people know Hussein has weapons of mass destruction, but so, they note, do many other nations, including China, North Korea, Russia, India, Pakistan, Iran and Israel.

And yes, they know Iraq is in violation of UN resolutions, but so is Israel.

So why is the U.S. focus only on Iraq, they ask. In the Muslim world, the answer is obvious: U.S. hatred of Islam. There is also fear of American inconsistency. Yes, people know Hussein gassed his own population, but the United States voiced no outrage at the time. Indeed, it continued to back Iraq as a bulwark against Iran.

Will America flip-flop again at some time in the future, leaving its allies in the lurch? Finally, there is fear of setting a dangerous precedent in terms of international law. If the United States decides unilaterally to remove Hussein today, whom will it target tomorrow? Are only countries that embrace Western values to be tolerated?

All these fears are generating opposition to U.S. action against Iraq that can be assuaged only by clear UN backing. Even longtime U.S. allies like Germany are firmly insisting that they will provide no assistance to a U.S. action against Iraq unless it is on the basis of UN authorization.

Rather than being an obstacle, the UN could be an opportunity for the United States.

As one UN ambassador at the conference emphasized: "No country wants to endanger its bilateral relations with America over multilateral institutional matters. The United States can get the blessing it needs if it will only ask."

As evidence of this, he noted that the Security Council had recently granted the United States certain exemptions from the jurisdiction of the new International Criminal Court despite initial opposition by all the non-U.S. members of the council.

In view of this, Congress would be wise to consider the possibility that the fastest and easiest road to Baghdad lies through New York and the UN Security Council and to craft its resolution with that in mind.

U.S. CONCLUSION ON IRAQ ACQUISITION QUESTIONED

By Joby Warrick, Washington Post, 09/20/02

WASHINGTON—A key piece of evidence in the Bush administration's case against Iraq is being challenged in a report by independent experts who question whether thousands of high-strength aluminum tubes recently sought by Iraq were intended for a nuclear weapons program.

The White House last week said attempts by Iraq to acquire the tubes point to a clandestine program to make enriched uranium for nuclear bombs. The experts say that the evidence is ambiguous and in some ways contradicts what is known about Iraq's past nuclear efforts.

The report from the Institute for Science and International Security also contends that the Bush administration is trying to quiet dissent among its own analysts over how to interpret the evidence.

The report, a draft of which was obtained by the Washington Post, was written by David Albright, a physicist who investigated Iraq's nuclear weapons program after the 1991 Persian Gulf War as a member of the International Atomic Energy Agency's inspection team. The institute in Washington is an independent group that studies nuclear and other security issues.

The controversy stems from shipments to Iraq of specialized aluminum metal that were seized en route by governments allied with the United States. A U.S. intelligence official confirmed that at least two such shipments were seized within the last 14 months, although he declined to give details.

There is no evidence that any of the tubes reached Iraq. In its white paper on Iraq released to the United Nations last week, the Bush administration cited the seized shipments as evidence that Iraq is actively seeking to develop nuclear weapons. Bush's national security adviser, Condoleezza Rice, said the tubes "are only really suited for nuclear weapons programs, centrifuge programs."

Since then, U.S. officials have acknowledged differing opinions within the U.S. intelligence community about possible uses for the tubes, with some experts contending that a more plausible explanation was that the aluminum was meant to build launch tubes for Iraq's artillery rockets.

The report questions that conclusion on several grounds, most of them technical. It says the seized tubes were made of a kind of aluminum that is ill-suited for welding. Other specifications of the imported metal are at odds with what is known about Iraq's previous attempts to build centrifuges.

[JR: Well when you want to build your case for a war based on lies and false suppositions it doesn't matter what the experts or reports have to say as to the contrary. This is what the Bush administration is doing to rally support for the invasion of Iraq and all the riches, resources and records it holds for the planners/plotters of the New Middle East. Oh, besides saving the whole world from Saddam, President Bush is also avenging the Iraqis' failed attempt to assassinate his Dad in 1993. This has been written into the resolutions drawn up by Congress declaring its support for Bush's private war to gain control of the world's OIL.]

PICTURE WAR'S HORRORS BEFORE ONE BEGINS

By Lee Goodman, Letter to editor—Pioneer Press, 10/03/02

NORTHBROOK, IL—Picture your children and grandchildren. How many of them are you willing to see maimed and killed in a war George W. Bush wants to start? Don't think it will be just someone else's kids. That's what people always assume, until they get the body back in a bag, if it comes back at all. Then it's real. Then they wail. Then they ask why.

Better to ask now, before the limbs get shredded. Before the skulls get pulverized. Before the guts get ripped apart. Before the lucky ones come home alive but with parts of lungs dissolved by chemicals and flesh melted by flames and eyes destroyed by shrapnel. Better to make the horrid images vivid in your imagination now, before you make them real by letting the killing begin.

Every war has moments when the people back home feel proud and every war is followed by years of sadness, loneliness, regret and suffering when people back home wonder how could we have been so stupid, so reckless, as to do it all again.

Better to think of the destruction now, before it all happens. Because once the shooting starts we will be told it must continue until we are victorious, so the dead will not have died in vain, and so our country will not be dishonored, and so our way of life will be protected and so our ideals will be preserved. And it will continue, until we have killed as many people as our president wants to kill, or until we decide we have lost enough of our children and our grandchildren.

When it is over, our president will say we won, regardless of what we have accomplished. He will say we did the right thing; that we did what had to be done. And as the truth becomes known, as the lost lives weigh upon us, we will feel shame at the realization that there was another way all along, that none of the killing really had to happen at all, and that we are responsible.

[JR: This person writes as though they have been in a war or else he speaks the truth with such clarity and insight as to give pause for thought for all who read it. Many are coming into knowing but you won't see or hear about them in the media. Take heart, all, for the light is shining.]

PROTESTS CHALLENGE IMF, WORLD BANK POLICIES

By Susan Walsh, USA Today, 09/28/02

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thousands of demonstrators angered by AIDS, war and the plight of the poor flooded the streets of downtown Washington on Saturday, banging drums, waving giant puppets and burning American flags. The target of their discontent: the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

After a festive rally on the grounds of the Washington Monument, the protesters set out to surround the headquarters of the two financial institutions, where officials from around the globe were meeting.

"We want them to immediately cancel the debt to all African nations that are suffering from AIDS and allow that money to be spent in those countries to buy drugs to keep people alive," said Paul Zeitz, 40, director of the Washington-based Global AIDS Alliance. ...

The Saturday rally had a carnival atmosphere, as the crowd cheered speakers addressing a variety of causes, from Third World debt to AIDS to possible war against Iraq. By early afternoon, the crowd numbered about 2,000, according to reports to D.C. police. ...

Scattered among the crowd was an inflatable menagerie—a 20-foot-tall pig adorned with the words "Hog-tied corporate glutton" and a shark balloon with a globe in its mouth and a sign, "Stop IMF Loan Sharking." A large rolling Trojan horse had a sign that said: "World Bank Aid."

Protest organizers handed out yellow police tape and biohazard suits.

"We're just trying to quarantine the World Bank because their policies are infectious to the rest of the world," said Melanie Grumman of Burlington, Vermont. ...

En route to the World Bank and IMF headquarters, protesters stopped for another rally at a local park. There, they burned American flags and a doll representing the IMF and World Bank. ...

Police ensured that the protesters would not get too close to the financial meetings, which have become a magnet for demonstrations.

The security perimeter was extended for several blocks from the financial institutions and chain link fences and black-suited security officers in full riot gear were protected the grounds—and the finance ministers meeting inside.

At the District of Columbia Courthouse, a much smaller group of demonstrators challenged the treatment of the 649 people arrested Friday. Most of those detained were charged with failing to obey a police officer or parading without a permit; five were charged with destruction of property. ...

Organizers and legal observers said police did not give protesters a chance to disperse Friday before arresting them.

"They got all the notice they needed to get," Police Chief Charles Ramsey said Saturday. "They knew they had no permit, they knew they had no right to be in the street." ...

He said officials were working as quickly as possible to process those arrested.

At midday, D.C. Superior Court Judge Stephanie Duncan-Peters made arrangements for five people to be inside the courtroom to observe the proceedings.

[JR: The world's most privileged plotters and plunderers always gather in an act of defiance to show their disdain for the protesters and to test their resolve. They don't like to be painted in the image of who and what they truly really are and they don't like it known of the impact their policies have made on the countries they have brought down. Sad to say but these touring schemers are always guaranteed an army of protection. The Chicago area alone sent 300 police officers to assure that these dour-faced deceivers were not inconvenienced from their appointed tasks and plans. Don't know the full total but there had to be a cop for every one demonstrator. The Elite are becoming a bit concerned because too many people and countries are questioning their actions and getting closer to the truth as to how they operate. These men are desperate to hold together this shattered and crumbling world they have created through their own greed and mismanagement. The creative presentations of the protesters with the balloon figures, and the passing out of the biohazard suits was very clever, and their point well made. All was innovative and done with a dash of humor, which is something we all can all use during these trying and frustrating days. Truth can be fun!]

BIGGEST PROTEST IN A GENERATION HEARS CALLS FOR PEACE WITH IRAQ

By Andrew Johnson and Jonathan Thompson,
The Independent—UK, 09/29/02

As many as 350,000 people marched through central London yesterday in one of the biggest peace demonstrations seen in a generation.

Organisers said the numbers protesting against war in Iraq were three times higher than expected, though police put the figure at 150,000.

Led by the Stop The War Coalition and the Muslim Association of Great Britain, protesters marched from the Embankment, made their way past the Houses of Parliament and through Piccadilly to Hyde Park.

There they were met by speakers including former MP Tony Benn, London Mayor Ken Livingstone, former United Nations weapons inspector Scott Ritter, the Bishop of Bath and Wells and the father of the House of Commons, Tam Dalyell.

Mr. Dalyell, a Labour MP, told the crowd: "We are sleep-walking to disaster. The Government's dossier states that Iraq has chemical and biological weapons ready to use. We can be sure they will use them if cornered."

Mr. Livingstone said: "This is all about oil and there is nobody in this country so stupid that they don't realise that."

Hundreds of coaches brought protesters from across Britain, including lecturers, priests, students and Iraqi and Palestinian citizens. The march passed off peacefully.

[JR: There is a stirring in the minds and conscience of the people and it is being reflected in the mega peace demonstration that took place in London. Let us pray that the momentum will build and spread across the world and drown out the war chants coming out of Washington. There are many groups staging small protests in cities across the U.S., with chants for peace, and no more U.S. aid to Israel. The point also coming into focus is that the U.S. push for war is again about oil. We are so fanatical about selling this war to the rest of the world you'd think we were planning an outing in Disneyland. It is also being noticed and noted that our failing economy and growing financial problems are not improving. The Bush administration is floundering and our status in the rest of the world is being diminished. No amount of brute force is going to improve our bullying or our posturing image.]

YIDDISH NOT READY FOR HISTORY BOOK

By Evan Osnos, Tribune, 09/22/02

NEW YORK—Time has not been kind to Yiddish. But for the first time in decades, the language that launched a thousand shticks may have a future.

For a century, the effects of war and assimilation had eroded the usage and culture of the language once spoken by millions of Jews from Vilnius to New York to Chicago. With only an estimated 500,000 speakers remaining today worldwide, the vivid and wry blend of German and Hebrew that gave English klutzes and chutzpah has long been predicted to share the fate of Catskills comics.

Now, spurred by renewed interest in ethnic Jewish identity and a fear of losing the language entirely, a small corps of preservationists is making vast strides in salvaging Yiddish books and recordings. University language programs in Yiddish are thriving, while growing communities of ultra-Orthodox Jews around the world are putting the language to use in grade schools and daily life.

These seeds of a modest Yiddish revival offer a rare bright spot in the winnowing of the world's tongues. Linguists expect half of the world's 6,000 existing languages to disappear within a century. ...

Most Yiddish preservationists have no fantasy of the language returning to its heyday at the turn of the 19th Century, when New York City alone boasted seven Yiddish daily newspapers. Instead, they hope that saving once-imperiled literature and recordings will encourage future generations to maintain a thread of Jewish identity and culture that many had consigned to history.

The effort to save Yiddish has made particular progress in the past year, led by the completion in May of a four-year project to digitize thousands of books on the verge of disintegration. Created by the National Yiddish Book Center in Amherst, Mass., the $3.5 million project allows users who visit www.yiddishbooks.org to order any of 12,000 titles published since 1864.

The project, which is named for its lead sponsor, film director Steven Spielberg, has achieved what many scholars thought was impossible: preserved fully three-quarters of all Yiddish titles ever published.

"One is tempted to use the word miraculous," said Ruth Wisse, a Harvard University professor of Yiddish and comparative literature...

During World War II, half of the world's 11 million Yiddish speakers were killed by the Nazis and their allies. Among Jews who settled in the U.S. and Western Europe, Yiddish faded fast in the mill of assimilation.

Yiddish has always maintained a foothold in ultra-Orthodox communities, mostly in New York, Chicago and Jerusalem—and today, some of those communities are growing fast.

Of greater surprise to Yiddish experts, however, is the growing interest among less religious Jews. Enrollment in Yiddish-language programs has grown steadily over the past two decades at many secular universities, including Columbia and Oxford, said professor Jeremy Dauber, director of Columbia's Yiddish Studies Program.

"These young people... are doing it because it is a way of getting in touch with a culture that they are a part of but... has rapidly disappeared," he said.

Indeed, for many, Yiddish echoes with the early years of Jewish life on the lower east side of Manhattan and Maxwell Street in Chicago, when parents privately doted on children in Yiddish, but publicly downplayed Jewish roots in exchange for acceptance.

To its protectors, Yiddish captures the heart of being Jewish—a language of "quiet humor" and "frightened and hopeful humanity", as the writer Isaac Bashevis Singer put it. It has a richness that English can't help but borrow: *mensch*es for decent and good-hearted folks; *mitzvah*s for blessings and other things we admire; shlock, for things we don't.

"Like for a lot of people, discovering Yiddish for the first time showed me what it means to be Jewish," said radio producer David Isay. ...

"For years, I think, everyone wanted to close the door on Yiddish, but it's scrappy," Isay said. "It doesn't give up."

[JR: When it comes to preserving the false Jews' history and language—no amount of effort, time or money is spared. This is a perfect example of what a minority made up of only 500,000 Yiddish-speaking people can accomplish just by their sheer tenacity and chutzpah. They have in less than a year preserved 12,000 titles of their books that go as far back as 1864. Of course it does help to have rich and powerful friends in high places and in the publishing business. It seems as though Stephen Spielberg is making himself to be the savior of Jewish causes. I wonder if we could get him interested in our crusade for the preservation of TRUTH?]

REMARKS ON ANTI-SEMITISM ROIL HARVARD

By Karen W. Arenson, New York Times, 09/22/02

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—Harvard University's president, Lawrence H. Summers, used a quiet prayer meeting on the first day of classes here last week to condemn what he termed growing anti-Semitism at Harvard and elsewhere.

But while he labeled his remarks unofficial, they are setting off ripples on this campus, where students and professors have demanded that Harvard remove all Israeli investments from its endowment.

While Summers has drawn praise in some quarters for taking a stand, some in the academic community accused him of shutting off discussion.

"We are essentially being told there can be no debate," said John Assad, an assistant professor of neurobiology at Harvard Medical School who signed the Harvard divestment petition. "This is the ugliest statement imaginable to paint critics as anti-Semitic."

Others praised Summers for stepping into the debate. "His remarks were very important," said Abraham Foxman, national director of the Anti-Defamation League. "What's frightening is that we've been seeing the rise in anti-Semitism again, and there are so few people willing to stand up and say anything."

Summers, who described himself in his speech as "Jewish, identified but hardly devout," declined to comment Friday, saying he wanted his remarks to stand on their own.

In his morning prayer address in Harvard's Memorial Church on Tuesday, on the first day of classes, Summers warned that he saw anti-Semitic actions on the rise in academic communities around the world.

"Serious and thoughtful people are advocating and taking actions that are anti-Semitic in their effect if not their intent," said Summers, referring both to the push for divestment and to fundraising by student groups at Harvard and other campuses for organizations found to have ties to terrorist groups.

"Where anti-Semitism and views that are profoundly anti-Israeli have traditionally been the primary preserve of poorly educated right-wing populists," he added, "profoundly anti-Israel views are increasingly finding support in progressive intellectual communities."

His speech, which was reported first in The Harvard Crimson, is posted on Summers' Website, www.president.harvard.edu/speeches/.

Summers said Tuesday that he was making his remarks "not as president of the university but as a concerned member of our community."

But Taha Abdul-Basser, a Harvard graduate student in the department of Near Eastern languages and civilization and a member of the Harvard Islamic Society, questioned whether it was possible to separate the statements from the office.

"I understood his comment that he wished to be understood as an individual speaking, rather than as president, but I doubt that everyone who listened to the speech or read it will be able to make that distinction," he said. "And I was saddened to see that evidently support of the divestment campaign was being equated with something as ugly as anti-Semitism."

While he strongly rejected divestment, Summers reaffirmed the value of open debate and said he was not taking sides.

"There is much to be debated about the Middle East and much in Israel's foreign and defense policy that can be and should be vigorously challenged," he said in his speech.

Those caveats did not persuade critics like Elizabeth Spelke, a Harvard psychology professor who also signed the divestiture petition.

"Labeling the petition anti-Semitic is a strategy to detract from the criticisms of Israel," she said. "It turns the substance of a political debate into a debate of morals and supposed racism."

But Eli Sprecher, a Harvard sophomore, said he welcomed Summers' willingness to speak.

"He's not just the president of a university, he's the president of Harvard," Sprecher said. "If there's a pretty big issue, he should take a stand on it."

"Comparing Israel to apartheid South Africa does border on anti-Semitism," he said.

Earlier this year, nearly 600 professors, students, staff members and alumni from Harvard and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, signed a petition urging Harvard to divest from Israel, and similar efforts have been mounted at about 40 other universities.

The Harvard/MIT petition said "universities ought to use their influence—political and financial—to encourage the United States government and the government of Israel to respect the human rights of the Palestinians" by divesting from Israel and from U.S. companies that sell arms to Israel.

Others at Harvard and MIT fought back with a petition opposing divestment.

[JR: Are things becoming too obvious to ignore and is that what is making Zionists like Foxman of the ADL and Summers a bit uneasy? Let's have a debate but not just about Israeli foreign policy but about the spiteful and disdainful attitudes of the false Jews like Foxman and Summers towards non-Jews. The growing concern is about Zionism, not anti-Semitism.]

'BIOPIRACY' OPENS OLD WOUNDS IN BRAZIL

By Patrice M. Jones, Tribune, 08/30/02

RIO DE JANEIRO—The goal was to determine the commercial value of plants used by Brazil's Kraho Indians that might help with a host of age-old ills—everything from failing memory to common aches and pain. The partnership was heralded as groundbreaking, a teaming up of Brazil's indigenous peoples, academia and industry.

But when a leading university began an important research project to collect medicinal plants and centuries-old knowledge from the Kraho, a nasty debate erupted. What was expected to be a model marriage of ancient culture and modern technology has become another front in the battle between indigenous peoples who claim the right to profit from their "traditional knowledge" and scientists and industry searching for medical breakthroughs.

In a complaint filed with federal prosecutors, lawyers representing an association of Kraho Indians recently asked for $8 million in damages from the Federal University of Sao Paulo as compensation for the extraction of medicinal plants and the collection of knowledge on the plants' uses from Indian shamans and elders.

Complaints about biopiracy—the illegal collection of plants and forest materials for economic gain—have been voiced all over the globe as indigenous peoples have begun to fight back when outsiders cash in on traditional medicines used for generations.

The topic is one of myriad subjects being discussed this week at the World Summit on Sustainable Development in Johannesburg, a follow-up to the Earth Summit held in Rio de Janeiro in 1992.

At the Rio summit, an International Convention on Biological Diversity granted some patent protections to "traditional knowledge". But since then, activists say, the abuses have continued. Several nations, including the United States, have not ratified the accord.

With nearly a quarter of the world's plant species, Brazil has much at stake.

The government has been pushing since the Rio summit to impose stiffer penalties for biopiracy, mainly aimed at foreign pharmaceutical companies, universities and laboratories.

The goal has been to build a homegrown biotech industry from which Brazilians profit. But the Kraho case illustrates the difficulties in policing and promoting such a program, even when the research is conducted by Brazilians and all the parties involved might gain something. ...

"The collective rights of the Indians were not respected in this case," said Fernando Schiavini, who has worked with the Kraho for two decades and is a representative of the Brazilian federal agency protecting Indian rights. ...

The controversy arose after university researcher Eliana Rodrigues, working in cooperation with one of Brazil's leading authorities in pharmacology, Elisaldo Carlini, started the project with the Kraho in 1999.

Rodrigues said she spent months hammering out a preliminary agreement over the ground rules for the research with what she believed was the leadership of the Kraho. She later learned the accord was signed by a small association representing only 250 of the 2,000 ethnic group's members.

The omission of the rest of the group led to political divisions within the Indian community, which inhabits a region of arid land that includes 17 villages.

Once federal prosecutors had been alerted to the case, an investigation was launched, and the research was halted in May.

By then, however, Rodrigues had already collected 400 samples and identified 164 plant species. The university also had begun talks with several national laboratories interested in the research. But those talks ended abruptly, and all laboratory trials have been put on hold.

Ela Wiecko, a federal prosecutor investigating the case, said, "From the evidence obtained, I verified that the researchers did not consult with all of the 17 villages, and therefore there was not informed consent."

Wiecko said the government's role was "to make sure that if any of this collected material is patented, that all of the Indians are going to profit from it."

Some representatives of the Kraho also have complained that the project was proceeding without approval from several government agencies—a new requirement contained in a temporary government decree established last year to provide stricter regulation of such research.

But university officials said their project predated the decree and noted that their work was undertaken with the best of intentions. ...

For many of the Kraho, whose history is typical of Brazil's indigenous population, the incident is seen as just another tragedy in their experiences with the "White man".

First known to have contact with the Portuguese in the late 18th Century, the Kraho survived wars, epidemics and violence along the way, including a massacre at the hands of Brazilian farm settlers in 1940. The Brazilian government legally demarcated lands for the Indian group in 1951.

But researchers at the Federal University of Sao Paulo also say they have their own fears. They say a growing suspicion by governments and indigenous peoples globally has been hampering worthy studies and could halt new discoveries that could benefit the entire planet.

[JR: Until a final and just agreement is reached between the Kraho Indians, the university and the Brazilian government no one will benefit from the research into the healing properties of native plants. Again the Kraho are being made targets for exploitation. In the past the conquistadors were looking for gold and treasure to steal from the indigenous people. Today, the treasure for plunder is the Kraho's knowledge and use of their healing plants. The basic disagreements are over who will control and benefit the most from the research and all the related information. The question is, just how many of these natural drugs of Nature will we ever see or be allowed to benefit from? Maybe this is the whole idea behind all the disagreements and litigation?]

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON CASPIAN PIPELINE

Daily News, 09/19/02

BAKU, Azerbaijan—Construction began Wednesday on a new pipeline to carry oil from the Caspian Sea to the Mediterranean coast of Turkey, bypassing Russia and Iran.

Huge reserves of oil and gas are believed to be recoverable in the Caspian basin, but exploitation of them has been limited in part by the difficult logistics and the politics of transporting the oil to Western markets. The new pipeline, to be built and operated by a consortium led by BP, is expected to begin carrying 375,000 barrels of oil a day by early 2005 and 1 million barrels a day by 2007.

The 1,094-mile pipeline from Azerbaijan's Sangachal terminal, 25 miles south of the capital, Baku, to the Turkish Mediterranean port of Ceyhan, has been under discussion for eight years.

U.S. Energy Secretary Spencer Abraham, Azerbaijani President Geidar Aliev, Turkish President Ahmet Necdet Sezer and Georgian President Eduard Shevardnadze, whose territory the pipeline will cross, participated in the groundbreaking.

"This project guarantees peace, security and stability in the region and still further unites three countries and three peoples," Aliev said.

The pipeline has strong support from the United States, which is eager to find a more stable energy source outside the sway of the Middle East. Aliev said U.S. help in championing the pipeline had been crucial.

Reading a letter from President Bush, Abraham said during Wednesday's ceremony that the project would increase the world's energy security and strengthen the sovereignty and independence of the nations involved.

"Although it will be some time before the first barrel of oil flows through this pipeline, it has already made a significant contribution to the future of this region," Bush said in the letter.

Critics have said that the logic behind the pipeline is geopolitical, not economic. The southern end of the Caspian, near Baku, is not where the most promising energy reserves have been found, and some analysts doubt that the pipeline can be viable if world oil prices fall much below $20 a barrel.

Experts disagree on just how much oil the Caspian contains, and to whom it belongs. The five nations that border the sea—Azerbaijan, Iran, Kazakhstan, Russia and Turkmenistan—have disputed their maritime boundaries for years, and the offshore exploration that has been done lately in undisputed Azerbaijani waters has tended to yield disappointing results.

AFRICA FAMINE THREAT RISES

By Laurie Goering, Tribune, 09/18/02

JOHANNESBURG—The AIDS epidemic, combined with drought and political mismanagement, have slashed agricultural production and worsened the threat of famine in southern Africa, United Nations officials said after a two-week tour of the hardest-hit countries.

About 14.4 million people—a 12 percent rise from the UN's July estimates—face starvation before March's harvest if food aid is not delivered, said James Morris, head of the UN World Food Program.

"The intensity of this crisis is increasing faster than we ever expected," he said Monday after visiting Zimbabwe, Zambia, Malawi, Lesotho, Mozambique and Swaziland.

UN workers found children fainting in school, student enrollment plunging and more families where "mom and dad are gone, grandmother now leads the family or the child leads the family," Morris said.

The most productive members of the family are dying of AIDS, he said, leading to lower family income, less food production and about 4 million orphans in the region.

Morris called it "a crisis of incredible proportions".

One in four people in the affected nations has AIDS or is infected with HIV, the virus that causes AIDS, the UN said.

About half of those threatened with starvation in the region are in Zimbabwe, where government land seizures and economic policies have combined with drought to cripple agricultural production. Because Zimbabwe normally exports food to the region, "the change in output there affects all six countries," Morris said.

Zimbabweans are worst affected in part because the government has fixed food prices at a level below the cost of production, drying up domestic production and private-sector imports of grain. That has left the burden of providing food on President Robert Mugabe's government and on aid groups, UN officials said.

The country's chaotic land reform also ensures Zimbabwe's farm production will remain low for at least another growing season or two. The first harvests are expected in March if rains return.

Graham Farmer, southern African emergency coordinator for the UN Food and Agriculture Organization, said his agency is helping provide seeds and other agricultural assistance to small farmers in Zimbabwe.

World Food Program officials say international donors have come up with about 36 percent of the $507 million in food aid the agency estimates is needed to address the crisis and are close to finishing deals on another 30 percent. The United States has provided nearly 60 percent of the donated grain.

Morris said the furor over aid in the form of genetically-modified corn has largely died away. While most southern African countries have no strong objections to accepting bioengineered corn as food, they want to ensure such imports are milled so the seeds cannot be accidentally or purposely planted. Milling deals have been worked out in most of the countries, Morris said, though Zambia, which has 2.9 million people facing starvation, remains opposed to genetically-modified imports.

Many African countries are seeking to keep their corn crops free of genetically-modified varieties in hope of winning higher prices on the international markets from Europe and Japan, which bar most bioengineered crops.

[JR: The ominous statistics on Africa as to AIDS and deaths and the growing number of orphans is reported yearly by the UN. Africa and the sub-Saharan regions seem to be the areas most susceptible to plagues and famines. Such conditions are allowed to persist because it is part of a plan to rid the planet of unwanted people to reduce populations. Africa has been and is a prime target... for now. It really helps when you have governments that exacerbate this type of situation and Zimbabwe is a prime example of this. This year the UN is faced with an even bigger crisis and will have to provide assistance to relieve the dire conditions in not just one African country but six. We can only hope that the World Food Program won't be a case of too little too late for too big a problem.]

9 CABINET MEMBERS LIST ASSETS IN MILLIONS

By Thomas B. Edsall, Washington Post, 09/19/02

WASHINGTON—When Vice President Dick Cheney and the 14 statutory members of President Bush's Cabinet meet, 10 of them have one thing in common: They are millionaires.

In fact, one-third of the Cabinet members are in the $10 million-plus range and another third are in the $1 million to $5 million range, according to their financial disclosure statements.

The wealthiest is former Alcoa CEO Paul O'Neill, the treasury secretary, who is worth $67 million to $253 million.

Disclosure forms do not give specific price valuations for holdings, but instead require officials to state whether an asset is worth from, for example, $100,000 to $250,000, or $5 million to $25 million.

Like most of his affluent administration colleagues, O'Neill has taken money out of directly owned stocks to avoid allegations of conflicts of interest and placed it in mutual, index and other funds with a wide variety of holdings or into government notes.

O'Neill reported he has $25 million to $50 million in the Vanguard Institutional Index fund, $5 million to $25 million in a Salomon Smith Barney money market fund, and $5 million to $25 million in the Dodge & Cox Stock Fund.

Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld has roughly the same amount of assets. Over the past 25 years, he has been chief executive of G.D. Searle & Co. and General Instrument Corp. He also has served on corporate boards, including Tribune Co.; Kellogg Co.; Sears, Roebuck and Co.; and Allstate Corp.

Rumsfeld reported he is worth between $62.1 million and $115.8 million.

Cheney, former chief executive of Halliburton Cos., is in third place with a reported worth between $22 million and $104.1 million.

Secretary of State Colin Powell, a retired Army general who has made a fortune by making speeches, writing and serving on corporate boards, is worth $14.6 million to $65.5 million, his accounting showed.

Commerce Secretary Donald Evans, former chief executive of Tom Brown Inc., an oil and gas company, is worth $10 million to $47.4 million, his disclosure statement indicates.

After fifth-ranked Evans, there is a sizeable drop in assets. The most affluent woman in the Cabinet is Labor Secretary Elaine Chao, who had served on corporate boards. Married to Sen. Mitch McConnell (R-Ky.), she reported holdings of $100,000 to $500,000 in two Vanguard funds and a Merrill Lynch tax-exempt money market fund.

G.A.O. SEEKS TO END SECRECY
SURROUNDING CHENEY’S ENERGY TASK FORCE

By Don Van Natta Jr., New York Times, 09/27/02

WASHINGTON—Lawyers for the General Accounting Office and Vice President Dick Cheney clashed today before a federal judge over which branch’s claim is paramount—the executive power to keep records confidential or the legislative right to investigate how public money is spent.

For the first time in the 81-year history of the agency, the comptroller general of the United States went to Federal court today to ask a judge to order a member of the executive branch to turn over records to Congress.

Lawyers for David M. Walker, the comptroller general and head of the General Accounting Office, and for the vice president argued over whether a federal judge can force Mr. Cheney to reveal the identities of industry executives who helped the administration develop a national energy policy last year.

Judge John D. Bates, who was appointed to the federal district court in December 2001 by President Bush, did not decide the case from the bench today. A decision is not expected for at least several weeks. After that, whichever side loses is expected to appeal.

The politically charged lawsuit, entitled Walker v. Cheney, raises important constitutional questions, including whether the vice president can ignore a request for information from the GAO without the President’s decision to exercise executive privilege.

Carter G. Phillips, a lawyer for the GAO and a partner in the Washington law firm of Sidley Austin Brown & Wood, argued that if Judge Bates sided with the administration, the decision would have a “devastating” effect on “the GAO’s ability to do its job”.

“It would have an extraordinarily sweeping effect and would significantly halt the Congress’s use of the General Accounting Office to conduct nonpartisan investigations,” Mr. Phillips told Judge Bates.

Mr. Phillips argued that a 22-year-old law allows the comptroller general to “investigate all matters related to the receipt, disbursement and use of public money.” The law also gives the comptroller general the right to obtain all “information the comptroller requires about the duties, powers, activities, organization and financial transactions” of the agency under investigation.

Paul Clement, the principal deputy solicitor general who represents Mr. Cheney, told the judge that the GAO lacks the legal standing to bring the case against the vice president. Mr. Clement also argued that the law cited by Mr. Phillips does not give the GAO the authority to conduct an investigation of the vice president.

“No court that I’m aware of has ever ordered the executive branch to turn over a document to a Congressional agent,” Mr. Clement said. “This is unprecedented.”

Mr. Clement was joined at the Government’s defense table by Solicitor General Theodore Olson, who does not usually attend arguments at the district court level. Indeed, Mr. Cheney was originally going to be represented by the Justice Department’s civil division. Mr. Olson’s role demonstrates the importance of the case to both Mr. Cheney and President Bush, who have said that disclosure of the information would hamper the executive branch’s ability to solicit the advice of outside experts.

[JR: It used to be that the comptroller of the U.S. had the authority to investigate matters related to government spending and to gather information regarding meetings like the ones in which Cheney was the overseer. That was under our old Constitution which seems to have been nullified and is conveniently buried under Presidential Executive Orders. The President/Monarch now makes the laws and is the law! The guarantee of immunity and protection under “executive privilege” is Cheney’s back door from ever being held accountable or to face prosecution. The solicitor general wants us to believe that he is defending the office and not necessarily the man, VP Cheney. This type of defense really enforces Cheney’s defiance to not produce the documents of the secret meetings he held in which he helped rewrite our energy policies. Cheney can flaunt or delay the courts until he is well out of office and receives a presidential pardon for keeping the secret deals secret. It may be hard to find just what underground facility Cheney might be hiding or abiding in as he has had much experience in hiding out until all threats and dangers are over.]

PLAN AFOOT TO RESTORE
STATUE OF KGB’S FOUNDER

By Alex Rodriguez, Tribune, 09/18/02

MOSCOW—Perhaps no moment better captured the unshackling of the Soviet people from their communist rulers than the night of Aug. 22, 1991, when thousands of Russians shrieked in delight as cranes hoisted the 14-ton bronze statue of KGB founder Felix Dzerzhinsky from Lubyanka Square in central Moscow.

Fireworks filled the sky. Euphoric Muscovites swung picks and hammers into the statue’s graffiti-covered pedestal, some screaming, “Die, fascist!” A labor leader that night sized it up this way: “We are cleaning away the waste from our lives.”

Now, in a move some Russians embrace and many recoil from as unthinkable, Moscow Mayor Yuri Luzhkov wants Dzerzhinsky’s glowering likeness put back in the center of Lubyanka Square.

Luzhkov’s idea has ignited a fiery debate over Dzerzhinsky’s place in Russian history—and what place he should have anywhere outside the small riverside park to which his battered statue was exiled 11 years ago. On Monday, a leading Russian legislator began a petition drive against the statue’s restoration.

The debate exposes a dilemma for Russians that has lingered through the nation’s first post-communism decade: Through what prism should Russians view 74 years of Soviet rule?

“We don’t know how to treat our own past,” said Yury Samodurov, executive director of the Moscow-based Andrei Sakharov Foundation, named after the Russian human-rights leader. “We don’t know who we want to become. And Luzhkov belongs to this part of the population that lives in denial of the true past of this country.”

A Polish Catholic from an aristocratic family, Dzerzhinsky was picked by Bolshevik leader Vladimir Ilyich Lenin to head the notorious Cheka, the first Soviet secret police organization that later was known as the NKVD under Josef Stalin, and afterward as the KGB.

It is not known how many deaths can be attributed to Dzerzhinsky, who oversaw the Soviet secret police until 1923. But he himself said terror was police procedure, not a crime.

“We represent, in ourselves, organized terror,” he said of the Cheka.

Today, the 40-foot-tall tribute to “Iron Felix” weathers Moscow winters in the “Graveyard of Fallen Monuments” along the Moscow River. ...

Sensing a backlash, Luzhkov quickly explained that he merely wanted to acknowledge the aesthetic of the statue and the man who created it, sculptor Yevgeny Vuchetich.

But in the same breath he called Dzerzhinsky a misunderstood man who worked to solve Soviet society’s social ills, from child neglect to vagrancy.

“If we put on the scales all the things this man has done, the good will prevail,” Luzhkov said.

By no means is Luzhkov the only Russian who holds that view. Communist Party members of Russia’s parliament brought up the idea of restoring Dzerzhinsky’s statue in 1998 and again in 2000. ...

This week in Lubyanka Square, several Muscovites said they believe the Bolshevik’s legacy of terror has been exaggerated and his contribution to Russian society forgotten.

The nation uses Reconciliation Day to refer to its Nov. 7 holiday that in the Soviet era marked the anniversary of the Bolshevik uprising. Still, on that day some Russians proudly display portraits of Stalin, the Soviet leader responsible for the deaths of millions.

And many older Russians who have struggled economically through post-Soviet years yearn for a return to days when the Soviet system meant free health care and job security. Critics of Luzhkov’s proposal say that, for those Russians, it’s easy to blot out from memory the decades of oppression that helped define the Soviet era.

“A large segment of the population believes that the Soviet system provided equality for everyone—an equality that disappeared with the change of government in 1991,” Samodurov said. “Many people see that change as unjust.”

Luzhkov has said he plans to push hard for the statue’s restoration, despite growing opposition. Boris Nemtsov, a Russian parliament member and leader of the Union of Right Forces Party, began a petition drive Monday against the statue’s restoration. He said he hopes to gather a million signatures.

“Everybody knows that Dzerzhinsky was an executioner,” Nemtsov said. “I believe the call for reinstating the monument is a provocation aimed at splitting Russia.”

[JR: Doesn’t take long for the serpents to come out of their nests to spin their lies and to polish their tarnished images. Luzhkov, the Mayor or the Godfather of Moscow as he is known by, wants to do more than just refurbish the statue of Dzerzhinsky, the founder of the dreaded KGB. Luzhkov is on a campaign to convince Russians that Dzerzhinsky was misunderstood simply because he used police terror tactics to improve the character of the average Soviet citizen. Felix saw to it that any citizen who dared questions the system had their rights suppressed or were exiled to the gulags in Siberia. His victims would debate Luzhkov if any them were still alive to argue the point. Today it could be said that Dzerzhinsky was a true patriot who was only doing his job to save and protect Russia from its enemies. Sound familiar? Luzhkov, was and is an insider who plotted and schemed during Yeltsin's tenure and has strong ties and connections with powerful oligarchs like the schemers Berezovsky and Gusinsky. That does provide enough clues as to his true motive, which is to stir up old passions and emotions to create a rivalry between the reformer Putin and the old Bolshevik/Zionist hard-liners. Boris Nemtsov is considered a reformist, so he knows that the same Bolshevik games of deceit and deception are being played out today to prevent Russia from extricating itself from its Soviet past. History provides all the clues.]

LET'S HAVE A PICNIC FOR PEACE...

By Peggy of Arizona

[JR: This is an excerpt of a letter from a dear friend. We feel it is too beautiful and too insightful not to share.]

If I were the mentor for both George W. Bush and Saddam Hussein, I would not have them come to the discussion table until they had been on my picnic. I would take them to a place like Yosemite, where clear creeks run into a cold Merced River, and high falls come endlessly into vapors over the land, and flat rocks heated in the sun sit like launching pads in the slow places of a river, and tall trees and berry bushes abound. They'd have to wear shorts and tee shirts, and they would go barefoot into the mud, wading, and sit on the flat rocks that talk, and the men would not be talking at all, except in their same feelings, and they would make paper boats and send them into the flow and eat spelt sandwiches and drink icy, clear water, and eat gooseberries from the shore's bushes. They would be like little boys, in one way, but Cosmic children at the same time... and the hawk would circle over them, blessing them, and they, accepting the blessing in the silent place of the heart where all is known. The ancient rocks of the high cliffs would remind them of other times when they walked this Earth in sacred footprints... and all the false, human coatings would be picked up by the breezes and dismissed into the Sun's rays as the oneness of Creation become their reality. Then, when their eyes would meet at the table of human affairs, the interconnectedness would bridge all the steps of the talk, and they would know themselves as brothers and unable to betray LOVE as the reality of ALL THAT IS. And then, they would go back to their home places on Earth... and organize picnics not wars.

GOLD: THE FINAL SOLUTION

By James Sinclair, gold-eagle.com, 09/30/02

In order to comprehend how gold will be utilized to reverse the present economic down spiral we need to build our foundation of reasoning with several fundamental concepts.

First: To understand the key ingredient in this presentation, the dollar, you need to think of it in its essential role as the common share of the United States of America. Just as common shares of corporations fluctuate in the market place, so do currencies, the common shares of countries. Much like a quarterly or annual report, the reported Budget Deficit portrays the quality of economic management of this country. The Trade Surplus or Deficit is akin to the earnings report of the corporation, the U.S.A. The level of the discount rate is the dividend rate of the common shares of the U.S.A. Second: We can track the establishment of the Instant Gratification Economy in the early 70s to its birth in the Nixon Administration. That unfortunate birth took place with the reduction of the requirements of the Gold Cover Clause from 5% to 0%. The function of the Gold Cover is to assure that the size of the money supply does not exceed a given amount of gold cover. That cover is a value number that can increase by obtaining more ounces or a higher quotation when valuing the gold at market rather than the absurd $41 that is used now.

The sterilization of the Gold Cover Clause handed the control of the supply of money in the U.S.A. over to quasi-political special interest control. It was this act that gave birth to the paper economy of the USA, thereby founding the ensuing three generation Instant Gratification Economy. Items that control act as alarms. Gold was a control and an alarm that rang through its price. Currency parities were alarms in terms of market fluctuations to or away from parity rates.

Nixon's sterilization of the Gold Cover Clause accelerated the world economy on a course to a condition devoid of an alarm system. Today's body economic is much like the human body with the disease whereby the body loses its ability to feel pain, thus inadvertently placing itself in harms way. We now live in "Alarmless Casino Society" within the "Instant Gratification Economy", now in the throws of its own demise. That is why the markets have become pure casinos in which a crisis a day sounds no alarm.

An interesting question one might ask themselves is: What post-Nixon Governor of the Federal Reserve has failed to prime the money pump in the U.S.A. during the last two years of an incumbent president's terms in order to grease the wheels of the economy and equity markets, facilitating the incumbent's re-election?

Third: Gold has one primary role in its relation to a currency. That role is not convertibility. Convertibility dealt with gold's role to control Trade Balances. The source of the problem is not trade balances, it is the freedom to create violent changes in the supply of money. Gold has only one monetary function; it acts as a control. Gold could control the very item that stands at the foundation of today's nemesis, the errors in human judgment resulting in mismanagement of the money supply. It is a glaring contradiction for an economic society, built on the ability of free markets to effect economic distribution, to trust a group of 'quasi-political special interest people with titles' with the management of our economy via the expansion or contraction of the money supply, primarily. Communism and socialism are supposedly dead, the U.S.A. is in the process of paying a high price for it is a socialist principle to allow the titled few to manage the economy as has been the case since the reduction of the Gold Cover Clause to Zero.

Fourth: To determine how a group of people with the ability to act will perform in a market crisis, we need only examine their reasoning and action in a previous situation. The recent extreme decline in U.S. equities has been blamed in part on the Imperialistic Attitude of CEOs acting in some cases above and beyond law. In order to attempt to create a return of confidence in the paper assets, the common shares of U.S. corporations, new laws have been passed for mandating corporate management's ethical behavior. This is what is called a Legislated Enforced Ethic. Therefore, one can conclude, that in an economic crisis the minds of those empowered to act will generate towards a solution that includes the utilization of legislated enforced ethics, especially if the means are already legislated and in the system.

Fifth: Definition—A spiral is a grouping of cause and effect that work to accelerate each other towards an event which then empowers the spiral itself.

There exists a clear downward spiral of events, each affecting the other to affect the other with no evidence that this cycle will end. A downward spiral in markets is not much different from a downward spiral in the human experience. In that sense, a downward spiral such as depression requires intervention in order to reverse it. Psychotropic drugs, as an intervention, are often prescribed in order to provide an intervened window that can prevent the depression down spiral from going to its predictable end. Should the patient grasp that opportunity provided by the intervention, taking a more positive look at their circumstance, real progress may occur in their lives. Similarly, to reverse a downward economic spiral of today's proportion, great intervention is necessary to effect a long-term recovery.

Sixth: The most serious potential economic problem is the least understood of all situations today. That problem is the $72 trillion worth at notional value for worldwide derivatives that exists on the books of commercial banks, of which 69.4% of all that unfunded specific performance paper is on the books of U.S. financial institution and 35% of it belongs to JPM. Those that believe that this is not a problem because more derivatives can be written to adjust to circumstances also have to believe that this mountain of unfunded specific performance contracts will never be asked by anyone to perform. The foundation of this assumption is that there will never be any counter party risk, because when a counter party risk occurs derivative traders are no longer in charge, attorneys and accountants take over. When the accountants and attorneys arrive, specific performance will be required, and down comes the unfunded pile of sewage paper. The long-term destructive potential of such an occurrence is unthinkable. Nobody who is sane can take any comfort in such a development of this proportion.

Seventh: Who says that the U.S. dollar, once it closes below 104 on the USDX index, cannot at some time in its 21-month future window of Bear possibilities put on a NASDAQ type decline? We live in Casino market world affecting all markets, played by tranches of money larger than that of the central bank individually or collectively. Nobody in the established investment community expected the NASDAQ to do what it did. Nobody in the established investment community expects the U.S. dollar to do what it will do. The heart of the Down Spiral is the U.S. dollar. To stop the Down Spiral, should it get totally out of hand, before a collapse of the $72 trillion mountain of sewage, unfunded, specific obligation paper, called derivative, the dollar will have to be rescued long-term by some act to resuscitate faith in that paper asset, the U.S. Dollar.

Eighth: The Present Economic Spiral, which will cause a significant rise in the gold price and a significant further drop in the U.S. dollar, is;

In the Environment of an expanding U.S. Budget Deficit we are experiencing an expanding U.S. Trade Deficit, which impacts an expanding U.S. Current Account Deficit which as it arrives at 5% of U.S. Gross Domestic Product produces significant currency adjustments in the U.S. dollar.

A lower U.S. Dollar in Forex Market

As a result of a new decline in the dollar below the first low of 104 as measured by the USDX index, non-U.S. holders of U.S. Government Securities will begin to reduce their purchases. The shift in momentum of purchasing reverses the previous up trend in this market, which will result in a surprise increase in interest rates in the environment of weak business conditions internationally. This results in a further drop in general equities from any recovery level or from the present levels as we have always seen that declining U.S. equity prices are accompanied by further declines in the U.S. Dollar. Therefore a further drop in the U.S. Dollar occurs.

And therefore the down spiral marches on and on. This economic spiral will continue to push gold higher and the dollar lower. Each time it impacts upon itself, the factors in the Down Economic Spiral further impact the holders of U.S. Treasury instrument producing the 5th Element of a Long-term Bull Market in Gold by creating the most unexpected Long Term Bear market in U.S. Treasury instrument due cyclically and fundamentally, as explained above, to occur. Historically U.S. interest rates are not made by the Federal Reserve. Rather, U.S. interest rates are a product of the market level of U.S. Treasury instruments. That is a key concept to keep in mind.

Ninth: As part of the conditioning that has taken place during the experience of the three-generation "Instant Gratification Economy", the majority of market participants, even those akin to gold, believe that governments are more powerful than markets. This is a fallacy about to be proven wrong. Markets are the most powerful economic forces in a world awash in paper money.

Conclusion

I see no solution on the horizon that can reverse the course of the long-term down spiral in the U.S. economy therefore I must conclude that at some point before June of 2004 and possibly much sooner, the U.S. dollar will take a most unexpected decline in value. This will be seen internationally as a loss of confidence in the common shares of the United State and the ability and ethics of its corporate managers, specifically the sitting administration and the Federal Reserve System.

To reinstitute faith in the U.S. dollar, which is now in a decline similar to the common shares of a tech company, there will be a move toward a Legislated Enforced Ethics in the same manner as was utilized for U.S. corporate common shares recently. These ethics already exist as procedural law governing the USD Treasury tools. The name of it is the Gold Cover Clause. The percentage will be raised from Zero as it now stands to whatever is required to show a guaranteed ethical control over the free creation of too many dollars, the root cause of today's problems. It is the case of "too many dollars" that is at the heart of all the problems and is the death rattle of the Instant Gratification Economy in existence from Nixon's administration to the present.

If the Gold Cover Clause is revitalized before gold trades above $529, or before a significant shaking of the $72 trillion mountain of unfunded specific performance contracts known as derivatives by the surprise of increasing interest rates, then severe long-term damage to the system will not occur. The down spiral will be reversed and a new general equities market will take birth. Economies worldwide will recover. The incentive for central banks to see gold lower will be extinguished. Gold will trade above and below the price at which the gold cover clause is revitalized probably by $50, determined by economic conditions. We will not have a return to the recent past in a market sense, but rather an economic environment will exist where growth has to be earned by good management because monetary aggregates will not rise and fall like they have since Nixon gave birth to the deification of paper.

A Warning: If gold trades above $529 without a meaningful intervention that cures the down spiral, then technically gold is destined to play its role as the final market solution to balance the balance sheet of the U.S.A. by trading at $1459 to $1700. This will only occur if there is a meltdown in the derivative market with attendant unthinkable economic implication. The reason gold will perform like that will be the short cover of massive proportions resulting from the unfunded, specific obligation contracts, called gold derivative melting down. Once that short cover is completed, who will pay those prices for gold? No one. Gold will decline from those levels with a vengeance only witnessed in its rise.

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

Respect Your Corporation And Others Will Have To

Budget's "Tip of the Week" #14:

Maintaining Separation Between the Corporation and Yourself

When properly handled, a corporation is a legal "person", separate, distinct and totally apart from you. The key to keeping things that way is to ensure that the corporation is indeed properly treated. The quickest way to lose the protection afforded by your corporate shelter is for you to treat it with disrespect.

One simple thing that many people fail to do on a regular basis—and which can tear down the walls of separation between themselves and a corporation—occurs when they sign documents in behalf of their "brainless child" (corporation). All it takes to do things right is to follow the signature with an indication that you are acting as an agent or officer of the corporation rather than in a personal capacity. If you are acting as a particular officer, as the vice president, for example—follow your signature with, "Vice President" or "VP". In cases where you would rather not disclose any particular position held within the corporation you may sign as "John Doe, Agent", which simply means that you are acting as an agent for the corporation and NOT in a personal capacity.

The above advice applies to ALL situations where you might sign for the corporation, including checks, of course, but also when signing such mundane things as invoices for goods received or services performed. And it certainly applies to any kind of agreement—a lease, purchase or rental agreement, for instance—as well as corporate resolutions. After a while you will find that you do this automatically and thus automatically uphold the fundamental protective insulation of your separateness from the corporate entity.

Failure to adhere to this basic corporate formality "could" allow a prospective litigant to assert that the corporation is nothing more than a "straw man" and that it actually functions only as your "alter ego". We have put the word "could" in parentheses because in Nevada there actually exists only one case in the last quarter-century where a prospective litigant managed to "pierce the corporate veil" and cause liability to be assessed against the corporation's owner/manager—and that was a case of outright and unabashed fraud. It's great to have that measure of protection but you can easily bolster it by developing the good habit of following your signature with a title.

The next essential step in maintaining separation between the corporation and yourself is to always document key decisions made for the corporation in the form of corporate resolutions. If you do not know how to construct a resolution, give us a call and we will be pleased to help out. Meanwhile, if all you do is put a simple memo into the "resolutions" section of your corporate records, you will have taken a MAJOR step toward maintaining your Nevada corporation's unequalled liability protection.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM HATONN

CONTACT OR SPECTRUM?

I want to briefly respond to a most unusual question from a totally "out of the blue" person: "It appears Spectrum will fail, possibly close, so will you go back to writing for CONTACT or what?"

I have never stopped writing for CONTACT—but I have NOT written, nor have my compatriots written for Spectrum. Tails wag a lot of dogs, my friends. Therefore, "or what" has no meaning.
