THE "FEELIES" AT LAST

[H: A FEW COMMENTS BEFORE MOVING ON.

While needing to recognize the passage of events and daily attention-shifters, we get a bit lax about re-offering that which is "old" but too timely to ignore. We also understand that many of you are quite tired of some of the reruns. However, when the topics come to the surface and now that the very items and people to which we have referred come to the forefront and focus of that which is happening to you currently, we would be too remiss in not reminding you of your circumstance.

We know that you are weary of hearing about Zionists and International Bankers—but people: THIS IS YOUR LIFE! There are people preaching Christianity and other doctrines who also claim such hogwash as to offer that, for instance, "Judeo-Christian" is some kind of "term". NO, IT IS A RELATIVELY "NEW" TERM AND A FAR MORE DANGEROUS "CONCEPT".

Moreover, the ones who conjure these ideas to dump on you also push wars to accomplish change and fulfill "prophecies" to the extent that you become too confused to be able to long sort the rubbish from the collectors' items.

When the evangelists get up and denounce one people and have other nations than their own as the first to be advantaged—you have bigotry in action. THINK ABOUT IT.

Meanwhile you seem to sleep on while space objects are hurdling at you, Earth upheavals are getting more and more frequent and devastating and still you want to argue over your opinion of what to wear to the ballgame on Saturday.

I must resubmit the material on "Scalar" technology because there is a new plethora of arguments AGAINST any validity to such "waves" and actually with INCORRECT mathematical overkill, it is stated there "IS NO SUCH THING".

Yes there IS such a thing, by whatever name you wish to call it—because to deny the "longitudinal waves", for instance, you deny that there ARE such waves, pulses or frequencies. I don't care what you want to call them.

Yes, I know you would rather have my opinion regarding the Moscow hostage circumstance but I don't need to make "revelations" on such a happening. Nor do you need to know the "secret gas" used. The point is that you had over 800 people in a place in which the hostage-takers stated that they were starting to kill the hostages and planned that if no demands were met, the entire complex would be blown away with the hostages and themselves (hostage-takers). WHAT WOULD YOU DO? NOW CONSIDER WHAT YOU WOULD DO IF YOU COULD SAVE THE LARGEST NUMBERS, QUELL THE CRIMINALS AND AT THE LEAST SAVE "SOME" PEOPLE? TRUE TERRORISTS ARE SIMPLY NOT NICE PEOPLE AND WHAT IS HAPPENING IN YOUR WORLD IS ALSO "NOT NICE".

YOU "ALL" KNEW IT WOULD BE THIS WAY, READERS, ALL ALONG THE WAY. THIS CANNOT BE A SURPRISE AND NO, GOD WILL NOT FIX IT FOR YOU, SOMEHOW! HE WILL PROVIDE "A WAY" AND YOU USE IT, FIX IT, OR FORGET IT AND LET WHATEVER COMES ALONG "HAPPEN" TO YOU. THESE CHOICES ARE TOTALLY YOURS. GOD AND HOSTS ARE "AT READY" WHEN YOU MAKE UP YOUR MINDS THAT YOU WANT "BETTER" AND A BIT OF "GOODNESS" INTO YOUR CONTINUING LIVES.

Now, please, back to the topic at hand.]

[QUOTING:] (Perhaps after so many frightening topics a slight break is in order here to consider the lighter side of psychoenergetics. For example, what will be the ultimate impact on the entertainment industry?)

Psychoenergetics will be able to bring about at last, for better or for worse, Aldous Huxley's fanciful idea in his novel Brave New World, an entertainment format which he called "The Feelies". Those were something you went to, like going to the movies, but you would experience all the actual feelings themselves, as if the depicted events were actually happening to you. Although our "leaders" seem too dim to grasp what is going on in the world of scalar electromagnetics, it should not take some young Hollywood genius too long to understand that The Feelies are now possible, and that the immense megabucks of potential profit more than justify heavy investment in bringing it to market.

One can imagine that first "Feelie" theater, "The Huxley" perhaps, a large comfortable area surrounded by nine giant screens (not just one!), which become 3-D if you put on your headset. And The Huxley is fitted with the finest sound, and oh, by the way, a modest-sized scalar interferometer with computer. And there are one or more new tracks now recorded on the film next to the sound track. These are the digital patterns of thoughts, feelings and ideas to be fed into the theater's interferometer. And these thoughts and feelings and ideas will be felt by the audience as if they were their own thoughts and ideas. It is an entirely new art form: Psychevision.

As important (and no doubt famous) as the actors would be the "feelers", those from whose minds the feelings were lifted in the original programming of the Feelie tracks. Because, for example, Brad Pitt might be a good and handsome actor, but can he really feel it? Like the dubbing of foreign language films, it might be necessary to dub the "emotional track" using a deeper and more profound person's feelings, thoughts and ideas.

It might even be engineered so that if you sat on one side of the theater you would feel like the hero, and on the other side you would feel exactly like the bad guy! What would that lead to?

We have all cried at a movie some time, most people have, though they might not want to admit it. But this would be deep sobbing and a flood of tears, if the director so desired it. You would feel it at your core. Or, take a big chase scene, you would be terrified. They are breathing down your neck! You would be gripped by panic.

For that matter, the whole genre of Horror-Feelie would be too much for many people to take.

Do I really want to feel that an actual vampire is tearing at my throat with his fangs?

A Religious Feelie would make you feel the exaltation of a saint at his prayers, or give you the definite feeling that you are Christ suffering on the cross. All the pain could be there too. The stickiness of the blood. The very feeling itself: "Why hast thou forsaken me?" Who among us could come up that despair for scanning? Had this been developed a hit earlier we might watch a documentary of, say, Mother Theresa, containing her own actual deep sense of compassion, which we would feel arising in us as our own.

Then again, a Psychedelic Feelie could induce an LSD-like state and simply blow the audience's minds.

Even in its simplest most primitive mode, the hyponogogic trance induction with its increased suggestibility, would completely alter the experience of even ordinary current movie-going.

AS IT STANDS—2002

"Anyway, it's presently a 'Mexican stand-off' with the various parties maneuvering with check and countercheck. That is the real 'balance of terror' that is held by such a fragile balance."

"You can see the implications if such weapons fall into the hands of the radical terrorists. Ordinary positive energy EMP shooters can be made fairly readily and cheaply from nearly just Radio Shack parts or surplus parts. It just takes some know-how... When and if the Yakuza (Japanese mafia) gets those (and they will, it's just a question of time), you can begin to appreciate some of the turns this present terrorism and our war on it will take."—Bearden

The very thought of the building of one of these howitzers—by "some lone-nut gunman" from Radio Shack parts—makes one realize how serious it is for humanity to face the crisis it has come to.

Once again, as at the dawn of the nuclear era, humanity finds itself at the crossroads of Heaven and Hell. As a species, we must stop and consider. And there is at least one real difference between this visit to the crossroads and the last: This time there is a very real possibility of a true "earthly heaven" on the Heaven side.

The poor nations could come to a good life. Disease could be largely eliminated. Fossil fuel pollution could be managed in a humane way, bringing water where there is drought, and sunny skies where there is flood. Scalar interferometry would be there to avert any possible hits by asteroids or comets. Mars could be colonized and terraformed. Everyone would be highly educated through psychoenergetic downloading of knowledge. And the wisdom of the wise could be realized directly through scalar connection to their minds and hearts.

These stunning sudden possibilities give me pause to think: If our species has reached this crossroads in such a short span of centuries, then surely other species in the vast universe have passed this way before and long ago. And of those who chose the path to "planetary heaven", what is their life like now? It might be good if some of them were with us now, to guide us through this last struggle over this pesky old good-and-evil problem. [H: THEY "ARE", AND CERTAINLY THEY MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO AFFORD YOU WHAT YOU NEED AND THAT, FRANKLY, WHICH YOU ASK. YOU, HOWEVER, KILL THE MESSENGER AND COMPLAIN ABOUT YOUR PLIGHT WHILE THE EVIL "ONE" SMILES AND PATS YOU ON THE BACK FOR YOUR NON-INTELLIGENT REACTIONS. NOBODY ACTUALLY WISHES TO "DIE" BUT RATHER, TO

LIVE EXACTLY AS THE MIND PERCEIVES WOULD BE A PERFECT WORLD AT YOUR OWN DISPOSAL BUT WITHOUT ANY NEED FOR EFFORT TO "MAKE IT SO".] It is our last chance to choose the path which benefits the whole species, and not just some elite group or faction.

[H: NOW TELL ME, HOW DO YOU MAKE IT SO IN ACCOMPLISHMENT? YOU MUST HAVE FOUNDATIONAL FUNDING IN A MASSIVE WAY TO CONFRONT THE BEAST WHICH HAS OVERTAKEN YOU. YOU HAVE LOST THE VOICE THAT COMES WITH "MEDIA" OF ANY KIND WHILE "MOUTHING" SOME "WE HAVE TOS" STOPS WITH THE SPEAKER, WRITER OR CERTAINLY WITH THE READERS OR LISTENERS WHILE THEY MAKE UP THEIR MINDS WHETHER OR NOT YOU ARE "REAL, FALSE, OR—PLAY TO THEIR PIPER'S DRUMBEAT"!

JUST LOOK AGAIN AT THAT SENTENCE: "It is our last chance to choose the path which benefits the whole species, and not just some elite group or faction." Ah so—and what does the author of this document do? He won't, probably, ever be exposed to THIS possibility. Oh yes indeed, the fakes are a dime a dozen and beat their chests on every street corner while pointing out there somewhere.

YOU have to DO something if you would change "the whole species".

If you support us sufficiently to get this portion going/rolling—then the PLAN can and shall work its miracles—but WHO believes that "this" is it? I thought not. So, we work ever onward while you are told by more "popular" speakers and soothsayers that magic will hit through some dingbat idea about "Dove of Oneness" or worse. But how can you know? Well, you start with that which has fundamentally REASONABLE AND LOGICAL structure. It is neither reasonable nor logical that some Elite banking system is going to surrender and hand over the loot they have already stolen and then "LOST", both from books and accountability.

"Don't you play the same game?" go the questions. NO! We have legally proven documentation and legal courses of action which present physical backup for everything we do from validity of agreements, documentation AND a way to back up the entire process with physical commodity which has somehow "disappeared" as if by magic. It doesn't, however, MATTER because "they" have to bring back what they have stolen and thus the commodity remains valid even if "displaced".

In the case of the NESARA, for instance, you have nothing basing a repayment. The funds stolen had no basis of value and NEITHER DOES THAT WHICH IS DEMANDED AS "PAYBACK". YOU CANNOT HAVE IT "ALL WAYS", MY FICKLE FRIENDS OF THE SUMMER WINDS.

DO I JUST CONTINUE TO PLEAD OUR CASE? NO, FOR I DON'T WANT THE SNEAKY LEECHES BACK ON OUR BODIES SUCKING OUR BLOOD FOR THEIR TRANSFUSIONS.

LAST CHANCE? FOR WHAT? WHAT EXACTLY IS IT THAT "YOU WANT"?

Will "scalar" anything change your lives? No, this particular energy already "IS". We note a return to focus on a project years and years ago in detonation of a "bomb" fueled by deuterium. Nothing is new, my friends, only the uses thereof and therefore are as evil or goodly as the "handlers" decide it shall be.]

THE DISCLOSURE PROJECT

One person working tirelessly to bring these technologies into the open is Dr. Stephen Greer of the Disclosure Project, which is calling for congressional hearings into the issues of UFOs and the free-energy technology that was, perhaps in part, reverse-engineered from them.

“Once abundant and nearly-free, energy is available in impoverished areas for agriculture, transportation, construction, manufacturing and electrification, there is no limit to what humanity can achieve. It is ridiculous—obscene even—that mind-boggling poverty and famine exists in the world while we sit on classified technologies that could completely reverse this situation.

“So why not release these technologies? Because the social, economic and geopolitical order of the world would be greatly altered. Every deep insider with whom I have met has emphasized that this would be the greatest change in known human history. The matter is so highly classified not because it is so silly, but because its implications are so profound and far reaching. By nature, those who control such projects do not like change. And here we are talking about the biggest economic, technological, social and geopolitical change in known human history. Hence, the status quo is maintained, even as our civilization hurtles towards oblivion...

“With the types of weapons currently in the covert arsenal—weapons more fearsome even than thermonuclear devices—there is no possibility of a survivable conflict. Yet in the darkness of secrecy, actions have been taken on behalf of every human that may endanger our future. Only a full, honest disclosure will correct this situation. It is not possible for me to convey in words the urgency of this.”

Dr. Stephen Greer: <http://www.disclosureproject.org/ES-DisclosureImplications-2.htm>

Greer and his team have assembled hundreds of witnesses, many of whom are military or ex-military, who are ready to testify to congressional hearings what they know about the covert black projects which have kept free-energy and antigravity propulsion technology secret from the people.

Greer points out the need to regulate these technologies so they are limited to peaceful uses, but this is of course difficult when the government simply chooses to pretend they do not exist. In the meantime, as the President and the Defense Department continue the charade of war-as-usual, those scalar (longitudinal wave) installations which DO exist continue to fall into ever more sinister hands. And there is no reporter in the press brave enough to ask, “Mr. Secretary of Defense, what steps are you taking to defend our MINDS from attack by the big Russian longitudinal interferometers?”

[H: And THAT is the very point we must face, for even the question is incorrect? Russia is your enemy? Where have you been sleeping, little sheep?]

LONGITUDINAL INTERFEROMETERS
ARE PROLIFERATING

In a later statement Bearden reveals that in fact the YAKUZA (Japanese mafia) has already leased some of the interferometers with a nearly $1 billion “down payment”:

“After the collapse of the Soviet Union’s economy, lots of things got available for lease or purchase that would never have been under the old system. That happened in the resulting economic chaos. The Russian Mafia rose to prominence, as did some wheeling and dealing entrepreneurs who played both ends against the middle.

“In that atmosphere, and in the need for money, the KGB allowed leasing of the earlier longitudinal EM wave interferometers to a consortium of the Yakuza and Aum Shinriko. They did this only after they had tested and deployed their great new quantum potential weapons. That class of weapon is the dominant weapon on Earth. Five nations now have it: Brazil, Russia (KGB), China, and two nations friendly to the U.S. The deal to lease many of the earlier LWIs (longitudinal wave interferometers) to the Japanese Yakuza and Aum Shinrikyo was consummated at the end of 1989, with a down payment of $900 million in gold bullion as “up front” money. I don’t know what the lease per year was and is, but probably something like a billion dollars a year. So the rogue Japanese acquired longitudinal EM weapons and that technical know-how. In fact, the Yakuza is producing certain kinds of those in its own facilities in Japan now.”

Personally, I am a little uncomfortable with the knowledge that the Japanese mafia may now be able to insert things into my mind. I’d like to sleep at night knowing that my dreams are my own, such as they may be, and not some weird fantastic visions cooked up by a criminal organization. This is a WORLD emergency.

And in Bearden’s analysis, it all comes back to the issue of energy. It is the energy crisis which is now provoking the current “oil wars”, since oil production has hit the “Hubbard Peak” and will decline. And the electrical power grids must be replaced with scalar power as fast as possible, for these grids are now totally vulnerable to any possessor of longitudinal interferometers. They can all be wiped out in minutes, by anyone who possesses or controls a Tesla howitzer.

“Anyway, in my personal view, we should have a national Manhattan Project right now, to develop decentralized electrical power systems taking their energy from the vacuum... The MEG is real and so are several other systems invented by private investors and colleagues. All these efforts should be massively funded and massively and quickly developed. The survival of this nation is going to depend upon it. ... There are many other facets, but the major point is that our scientific apparatus and the public are still unaware of what a desperate struggle we have entered, since it was thrust upon us, 9-11 was a wake-up call. It was certainly bad enough, and one grieves for those lost American lives. But I fear the worst is yet to come, and it is coming at us like a runaway train hurtling right down the track at us.

“The electromagnetic weapons mentioned by the Secretary of Defense in April 1997 are in terrorists hands also. That rogue group leased those earlier weapons on site in Russia, from the KGB, at the end of 1989. The SecDef stated that such weapons were being used to initiate earthquakes, initiate volcanoes into eruption, and control and engineer the weather. Quite true. And presently there is a truly massive set of weather engineering operations going on over North America, from that rogue Japanese group manning the weapons in Russia. [H: Stop it, for that is pure hogwash!] Some ten nations of the world now have the type of longitudinal EM wave interferometer weapons (which are what the SecDef was most probably referring to). There are other even more fearsome weapons, possessed by five nations. So a great deal of the state of the world is not covered in the news at all, and will not be...

“We have been in an undeclared war of an eerie kind for some decades. That war seems now to have started to heat up also. The destructive capability of some of these weapons is awesome, and far greater than nuclear.

“In that sense, the first phase of WW III is already completed. Now we are only waiting for Phase II.

“It is against that backdrop that I think one must ‘analyze’ such things as how fast we will be replacing the power grid (it’s going to go anyway, and catastrophically, the terrorists will see to that). And everything we have is critically dependent upon energy, from the economy to jobs, to mobility, to the millions of trucks that transport our goods every day, etc.

“As far as I am concerned, we are already late in declaring a great national emergency in energy, because of the coming destruction of the present energy infrastructure. The scientific community should lead, follow, or get out of the way. The emergency is not in seeking ‘alternative but conventional’ systems. It is in developing ‘energy from the vacuum’ on an emergency, crash basis.

“Unfortunately, everywhere I look I just see business as usual. Most Americans (and news media) seem to think, hey, Afghanistan is finished except for a bit of cleanup, and it’s just about over.

“It isn’t. It has only just begun.”—Bearden

BEYOND THE HOWITZERS:
QUANTUM POTENTIAL WEAPONS

DO NOT USE EM PROPAGATION THROUGH SPACE

As more and more nations acquire the scalar interferometers, Bearden speculates on the next generation of longitudinal weapons called “quantum potential” (QP) weapons.

“The quantum potential weapons are presently only held by three nations: Russia (in the hands of the KGB, which is now known by its new name), Brazil, and the ‘friendly little nation’ Red China may be working on them, but is just at the beginning. [H: Oh doesn’t he wish!]

“The QP weapons have been highly reserved by the Russians. However, the complete extent of their capabilities is still being figured out...

“The quantum potential weaponry (possessed by only three nations) is supreme, because it uses multiple connected spacetime, and DOES NOT involve propagation of EM energy through space as does the longitudinal EM wave interferometers.

“The operational deployment of full-scale strategic QP weapons on site in Russia occurred at the end of 1989, which is when the formal weapons first went operational. These weapons are not in the inventory of the regular Russian armed forces, but all research and development, manufacturing deployment, and manning and employment is under the ruthless control of the KGB. Shortly thereafter (within weeks), the KGB leased many of their earlier longitudinal EM wave interferometer (LWI) weapons to a rogue Japanese group comprised of the Aum Shinrikyo and Yakuza.”—Bearden

In another paper, “Time Polarization—Significance and Weaponization”, Bearden tells the story of how a KGB longitudinal wave attack was averted by the longitudinal weapons of a “friendly small nation”.

So as it stands, it is precarious. Not until the people demand an end of what author Jim Marrs has dubbed the “RULE BY SECRECY”, can the people’s representatives tackle the big problems of a worldwide ban on Scalar Wars and the shifting over to an essentially oil-free economy.

LATEST UPDATE FROM TOM BEARDEN—MARCH 2002

The whole situation is changing so fast that when I asked Tom to look over this article he mentioned the seeming contradiction when some of the above statements are taken together. At different times the information he has is updated so one has to keep a kind of running track. He was kind enough to clear up the confusion here with the situation as it stands as of March 2002.

“We knew of three nations having the QP weapons for some time. Then we found out last year that five nations had it. So that explains my using the figure “three” first (which represented what I knew at the time). Later I found out about the other two nations. China, e.g., only deployed its QP weapon this past year. So that explains the apparent contradiction between me using “five” in later papers and “three” in earlier ones. It was the best information I had at that time. Might I mention that so the reader will understand the apparent discrepancy.”—Tom Bearden

[H: And might I please amend this to read—“already outdated”. We CANNOT, however, keep repeating and repeating ad nauseam because we will never be able to move forward if we keep having to go back and “catch up” or “change & update” every statement we, or anyone else makes. We too wish it would be different but we are stuck dealing with “what is”. WE WROTE ABOUT ALL OF THIS IN INCREDIBLE DETAIL IN 1989, SO WE WILL NOT GO BACK OVER A DECADE AND EITHER REINVENT THE PRODUCT OR START OUR CLASSES AGAIN AT PRE-SCHOOL. OUR TASK WAS TO GET INFORMED, TRAINED IN WHAT “IS” SO THAT WE CAN GET THIS MISSION ACCOMPLISHED WITH AS MUCH INFORMATION UNDER OUR BELTS OR BETWEEN OUR EARS AS IS HUMANLY POSSIBLE. AND YES INDEED, IT HAS TAKEN AS LONG AS IT HAS TO ACCOMPLISH THIS GOAL—BUT YES INDEED, WE ARE MAKING IT WORK AND IT IS FOUND THAT EVERY EXPERIENCE, EVERY LESSON AND EVERY DISAPPOINTMENT WAS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY!]

EMPTINESS IS FULL OF ENERGY

“The Tao is an empty vessel; it is used, but never filled. Oh unfathomable source of ten thousand things!

“Oh, hidden deep but ever present! I do not know from whence it comes. IT IS THE FOREFATHER OF THE GODS.”—Lao Tzu—Tao te Ching

AFTERWORD

Because of the extreme seriousness of the topics brought forward in this article, I asked Tom Bearden to look it over to make sure I had not gotten anything too terribly wrong or mixed up. I did not want to pass on any misunderstanding of my own. I felt a little nervous writing to an eminent scientist, and hoped I had not presumed upon his time.

But Tom was so kind as to answer immediately, and to my relief I had not gotten anything too terribly wrong. Here is his letter, in which he clears up a misunderstanding, and reports on his current health treatment, and gives a call to the young grad students to turn themselves loose in the whole new field of scalar electromagnetics and free energy.

SUBJECT: RE: Article on Tom Bearden and “Scalar Wars”

Date: Fri, 22 Mar 2002 22:54:01—0600

[QUOTING:]

Bill,

Well, I must say I’m astounded at your persistence and hard work in congealing all that together. My compliments on a hard job quite well done.

Couple tiny things: In the area mentioning Kervran and Kaznachejev: Kervran was French; Kaznachejev was and is Russian. Little typo of “spredding” the immune system. Should be “spreading”.

We knew of three nations having the QP weapons for some time. Then we found out last year that five nations had it. So that explains my using the figure “three” first (which represented what I knew at the time). Later I found out about the other two nations, China, e.g., only deployed its QP weapon this past year. So that explains the apparent contradiction between me using “five” in later papers and “three” in earlier ones. It was the best information I had at that time. Might mention that so the reader will understand the apparent discrepancy. Otherwise, it’s pretty accurate.

Just now I’m letting the weapons take care of themselves; have to, as I will be recovering now for nearly a year from the heart attack last year and discovering that I had contracted mycoplasma (the BW modified kind) in Canada in 1968. Finally got a test which confirmed the chronic mycoplasma (which I had for 33 years!). The stuff burrows inside one’s red corpuscles, then draws nutrients from the hemoglobin, hardening it and reducing its ability to take on oxygen (by as much as 50% or more). The resulting symptom is loss of endurance (which I had for that 33 years)—the so-called “chronic fatigue syndrome”.

Many of the Gulf War veterans who are sick also have it, though they apparently have other complicating factors as well. A very high percentage of persons with chronic fatigue syndrome also have mycoplasma. The treatment for the long-standing mycoplasma infection of that nature is to stay on antibiotics for a year. The only time the mycoplasma is vulnerable is when one wears out a red cell in normal usage, and the body makes a new red cell to replace it. The mycoplasma comes out of the dying cell to infect the new replacement cell, so it is exposed and vulnerable at that specific time and that time only. The antibiotics kills it at that time. Hence the necessity to stay on antibiotics for such a long time so it is continuously in your bloodstream (I’ve already been on antibiotics for over two months, and have at least 10 more months to go). We also take a little medical oxygen every day.

Another symptom of the mycoplasma infection is the association of runaway fibrillation of the heart. To stop that, there are pills one takes, and they stop it. But they also further reduce the volume of blood pumped by the heart, so that this projects one right back into the hypoxia, dizzy, loss of balance, etc., catch-22 situation; the fibrillation will build and cause heart attack, stroke, etc., if not stopped, and if stopped it puts you back in the hypoxia which can cause many things! With the conventional treatment, you’re damned if you do and damned if you don’t. Hence the need for a little extra medical oxygen, so you can take the “heart clamp” pill and stop the fibrillation, but also augment the oxygen enough to continue to survive without a stroke or some such. Interestingly, it’s very difficult to even obtain a mycoplasma test, and Medicare fights you tooth-and-nail over paying for the oxygen. Either they will pay for it or I’ll pay for it myself; it is absolutely necessary.

After a heart attack, one is treated in the heart clinic by specialists who are very caring and excellent practitioners, but know nothing of mycoplasma infection, so do not even consider it a part of “heart disease”, and who are rather puzzled when one has no clogging of the arteries, has the right count of red corpuscles (largely nonfunctional, of course, but there), pumps the right amount of blood, etc. So they identify and treat only the runaway fibrillation, do not prescribe the oxygen—and essentially place you on a regime as best they know, but one that is guaranteed to kill or maim you or turn you into a totally disabled person or human vegetable via stroke, paralysis, etc. Fortunately my family doctor will prescribe the oxygen anyway, though I may have to pay for it myself. Whatever works!

However, I’m slowly improving little by little, working as much as I’m able to and trying to finish my book: Energy from the Vacuum: Concepts and Principles, and get it to the publisher for publication later this year. Hopefully the book will turn all the interested young grad students and post-docs loose in the free-energy area. They will not have to spend 30 agonizing years to get to where I am, and where a few others are, but can simply start here and go forward. Since speed to develop energy from the vacuum is of the essence because of the world situation, I’m moving on it as fast as I am physically able to.

Meanwhile, working with the AIAS (Alpha Foundation’s Institute for Advanced Study)—the AIAS (15 authors) has now gotten about 20 scientific papers published in leading journals (Foundations of Physics, Foundations of Physics Letters, Physical Scripta, Optik, etc.) dealing with electromagnetic energy from the vacuum. Several more are either approved for publication or in the review process also. So slowly we are getting it into the mainstream scientific literature. Hopefully it will be in time, but it’s cutting it close.

Very best wishes,

Tom Bearden

[END OF QUOTING]

We need to leave this now and turn our own attention to other matters.

We are grateful to this author for sharing his work and take seriously his expressed wishes to share with as many as is possible. It represents a myriad of hours in research and study just to present a document choosing information and in this way, however, you can stand “on the shoulders of giants” that you might see further and farther. Note, however, that one cannot be accomplished without the other—progress in this game of games. This is WHY no ONE person is privy to ALL. It requires the input and sharing of ALL to accomplish the whole of REALIZATION.

It truly IS more than “patience”—for SOMEONE has to do the work, pay the Piper and meet the enemy HEAD ON! WE CAN DO THIS JOB, FRIENDS—YOU AND WE!

Salu, GCH

[DJE: Please make a note, Mark, that we may well be off line for a while because of the need to shift all of the systems. We consider that we are simply “too old for this” but guess what—we go right on and get it done it seems. It will mean, however, that we may well be out of the writing loop as to the paper for a while and perhaps you could take that “down time” of ours and flesh out any new updates on these Internet sites. I’m confident that it might well be nice to remind Mr. Bearden and Mr. Bedini that “old Hatonn” is still around, alive and MOVING FORWARD. Never mind those who suggest OTHERWISE. We are each “living proof” of what we preach, so to speak.]

Satanic Cabal Extending Its Sphere Of Influence

[MM: The following insightful letter and subsequent timely responsive inclusion of the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion (from out-of-print Phoenix Journal #20, THE MOSSAD CONNECTION, Chapters 17-19, pages 150-190), reaffirm that the implementation of the Zionists' utopian New World Order plan for a global plantation of subjugated Goyim slaves is rapidly progressing on all fronts worldwide.

Of course, to intimately understand the "real world"—follow the money—controlled from behind the scenes by the "Olympian" Elite puppeteers pulling the strings of the world's marionette heads of state, one must become educated in the mechanization of private central banking (or correctly stated: fiat, fractional-reserve, debt-money systems) as orchestrated by the International Banking Cartel (IBC). IMHO, the entirety of mankind's plight can be directly or indirectly attributed to the parasitical practices of the aforementioned Synagogue of Satan's IBC on host nations throughout world. The latter was succinctly and eloquently stated by the infamous Mayer Amschel (Bauer) Rothschild (1743-1812), the Godfather of the Rothschild Banking Cartel of Europe: "Give me control of a nation's money and I care not who makes its laws." Subsequently perpetuating this Zionist family's extortion racket, the Rothschild Brothers of London elaborated on June 25, 1863: "The few who understand the system, will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favors that there will be no opposition from that class. The great body of people, mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantages, will bear its burden without complaint."]

BALI, AUSTRALIA & THE MOSSAD

Commentary By Rose Cohen (Sydney, Australia),
Rense.com, 10/17/02

It could be that Moslems really did the Bali bombing, but I doubt it, it's too perfect.

To be honest, I speculated that something would happen against the Australians after our PM broke the total international isolation of Bush and Blair. EVERY SINGLE AUSTRALIAN whom I talked to, disagrees with our government—AND I MEAN EVERY SINGLE AUSTRALIAN including the Editorial of the Sydney Morning Herald... this has NEVER happened before!

As ABC National Australia Radio and many Australian papers mentioned, our government practically invited such a terrible event by 'sticking our neck out' far beyond ANY international codes of behavior. As a result, we lost a one-billion-dollar wheat deal with Iraq, while our 'friends' the Americans are increasing their taxes on Australian farm products!!! Outrageous? NO, Mister Rense, this is the 'normal' international code of behavior which selfish Bush and his NWO mob are trying to impose on the rest of the world.

Israel, IMHO [in my humble opinion] tricked

Australia, and forced our government into supporting Bush blindly in order to generate Islamic hatred towards Australia. Once this hate is established the rest is 'clear sailing' and they can use their Mossad contacts among radical Moslem groups to blow up Australians. These are CLASSIC MOSSAD PROTOCOLS. Now Bush can easily request the Indonesian government (which is in his pocket to the tune of $600 million dollars at least—and Australia trained Indonesia's military) to "join the war against terrorism". This tactic is NOT a speculation, it is written almost word-for-word in the Protocols Of The Elders Of Zion (<<http://aztlan.net/protocols.htm>><http://aztlan.net/protocols.htm>). Yes, I am an Israeli-born Jew but I am NOT a Zionist. Many efforts have been made to dismiss the Protocols as a hoax... frankly, it matters not whether they are or aren't because of their astonishing reflection of reality. Read them and decide for yourself.

Israel has an advantage that NO other country has (not to mention unlimited, free American money): Israelis can SPEAK Moslem languages just as good as the local Moslems do. Mossad networks inside Moslem countries have had a lot of publicity in the past, but whatever we heard is just the tip of an iceberg. The Mossad can 'motivate' any Moslem group to become 'terrorists'... since they have all the 'spiritual' justifications for it: THE AMERICANS ARE REALLY THE BASTARDS. The Mossad does not have to work hard to convince the Moslems about the 'bad' Americans: Bush, Giuliani, Condoleezza [Rice] and Fox News are doing it VERY well.

The poor, unsophisticated Moslems will never realize who is really pulling their strings. And the whole thing is, of course, being financed with unlimited American taxpayer money. Saddam got his BioChem WMD supplies and instructions from America and the Mossad is using American money to control the U.S. It is all quite brilliant and few will ever figure it out. Make NO mistake about it... and if you want to sugar-coat it to quiet your conscience... do it, and call it what you wish. And don't forget, Sharon is the only current head of state who was found responsible for war crime massacres (Sabra & Shatila, 3000 dead Palestinian women and children) by a commission of his own Israeli government !!!

Israel has a network of spies worldwide among Jews living in these countries too. I MEAN IN ALMOST EVERY COUNTRY WORLDWIDE. Think carefully about that. Read what an ex-Mossad agent has disclosed: http://www.mideastfacts.com/ostrovsky_111097.html

Israel has a SPY INDUSTRY which is unparalleled worldwide. Israel is leading the world by its nose towards WW3 and most gentiles have no brain to realize it: <http://www.rense.com/general25/you.htm>

As Sharon and Bush just reaffirmed in the White House, Israel will let Bush and the U.S. fight a war for it, removing Saddam and taking Iraq's oil. Bush said he expects Israel will retaliate if attacked by Iraq. Who knows, Israel may nuke Iraq AND the Americans in the upcoming Desert Storm II... EXACTLY as it did with the USS Liberty (<http://www.rense.com/general26/ally.htm>).

The reason I continue to maintain that it was probably a Mossad-involved operation in Bali, is because of the perfection 'job'... it takes a Jew to understand the Zionist mind as reflected in the reviled 'Elders'. Without reading this officially scorned and hated book, no one can EVER understand the Mossad and/or Israel. This is why we in Israel have been always forbidden to read the Protocols and the government maintained a 50-plus year campaign among Israelis to discredit the Protocols as a fraud. I had an Israeli professor as a guest in my house recently here in Sydney. He, too, was absolutely certain the Protocols are a fraud, but he readily admitted that he has NEVER read them! When I commented that whether the Protocols are legitimate or not, we Jews have actually behaved and accomplished almost 100% of what is written in them. He could not believe it. Ignorance is bliss, I guess he can sleep at night. However, in the interest of fairness to the professor, I should add that in the last 45 years of my research in this subject, I have yet to meet a single Israeli who actually read the Protocols.

The Moslems are often emotional and unsophisticated... rather lousy 'material' for terrorists. They bomb and then usually declare to the whole world that they did it.

WHICH IS EXACTLY WHAT THE MOSSAD WANTED THEM TO DO! Or, instructed them to do.

Most of what we read about al-Qaida and bin Laden is a CIA/Mossad fiction, always based on fictional 'informed sources'. Al Jazeera is now a CIA asset (based on my research). IMHO, they are designed to funnel hatred towards bin Laden and stimulate the fictional 'terrorism' mania gripping American now.

BIN LADEN IS JEWISH, full stop. A very close friend and a MOST eminent Israeli journalist told me recently, that according to Jewish law—bin Laden is Jewish, as his mother is Jewish(!).

AND—if that is not enough, this irrefutably honest Israeli journalist, disclosed to me personally that bin Laden's mother's family lives in Israel (I will not print here the exact address which he provided me). I knew that bin Laden was Jewish a long time ago, but with the current war hysteria I never mentioned to anyone except to my husband. The fact that bin Laden is Jewish, is known in Israel, but the 'free' 'democratic' 'press' of Israel will NOT publish it, as we have to continue to promote the myth that he is a 'villain'.

Actually, I will not be surprised if bin Laden is living now in Israel, and the Mossad is 'laughing all the way to the bank'! When Israel and Bush finally will control all the world's countries, I am confident that bin Laden will be invited as an honored guest.

We (should I say they?) the Jews NEVER brag about what we are doing, and the public (here and in Israel) is totally innocent and uninformed about the amount of terror that we are manipulating and releasing on the whole world at the moment.

The strategy is simple: attempt to make our enemies suspect each other and then fight it out. It saves us the work. Keep in mind that our enemies are ANYONE WHO IS NOT JEWISH.

The USS Liberty nearly happened again in the attempted bombing of the Mexican Congress some months ago and the Jewish-controlled American 'press' never even reported it. Only you, Mister Rense, saved the honor of America, by being the only one in the American-English press to post it (<http://www.rense.com/general17/mossadagentsarrested.htm>).

The Mossad was somehow involved in the 9-11 attacks... another USS Liberty? And NO ONE WOULD BELIEVE IT. (Even when those Mossad kids were caught dancing with glee on Manhattan roofs! What more do you want?) As usual, 'by chance', both Barak and Netanyahu, former Israeli Prime Ministers, 'just happened' to be in the U.S.A. at the time. They conducted a massive speaking tour all over the U.S.A. and appeared on every TV program which agreed to accept them. THEY, NOT Bush, launched the "war on Terror"... when the WTC iron was still hot. But then, Americans never realized what was happening under their noses because they never read the Protocols!

NO ONE WILL EVER BELIEVE IT IF THE ZIONIST PUPPET MASTERS WOULD BE INVOLVED IN NUCLEAR TERROR ATTACK ON LOS ANGELES, PARIS OR SYDNEY... just wait. Americans will jump like lemmings off the cliff believing every word they hear on Fox News and CNN.

As I always said, we are now in a never-ending cycle of destruction, a proven recipe for world Zionist domination:

1. We are always told to trust the 'news media'.
2. The 'news media' tells us to trust the politicians.
3. The politicians are always using the old trick of saying that they base their decisions on information from the 'intelligence agencies'.

IMHO, most American politicians are on the Mossad payroll or are certainly otherwise compromised by Zionist/Israeli lobbies and power brokers.

The vote in the Congress giving Bush war powers over Iraq is INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE for those who maintain American 'representatives' are nothing more than American traitors. Consider that the few who have the integrity to discuss it admit phone calls to their offices are running about 90% against the Iraq war. One honest Congressman admitted last week that his phone calls are 99 to one AGAINST Bush's war.

4. The 'news media' NEVER tell the public that the Intelligence agencies are usually at the core of the problem—as these agencies are the ones which invent such trickery as 'The Gulf of Tonkin' and the vile 'Operation Northwoods'. These treasonous acts and many others like them are done at the behest of the NWO-Zionist-Banker-Transnational cartels.

5. Spending tremendous time on search engines, I can sense that the Mossad is spending a LOT of effort to remove much data about the Mossad from search engines and the Internet in general.

6. The Mossad is reading every single e-mail around the world, including this one, and they can manipulate politicians and journalists to their best advantage with ease. While many joke that Bush's speeches seem to be written by Sharon and the Mossad, I am not sure that it is not actually a reality in some cases. Just look at who his closest advisors are.

7. The NSA refused to release the satellite photos of Manhattan during 9/11. If they would, I am confident we could see the dancing Israelis on the top of the Manhattan roof.

8. There are rampant accusations over the Internet that the Maryland Shooter could be only a CIA or Mossad-trained, since he is so professional. AGAIN, the NSA was requested to release satellite videos of Washington, D.C. area, and they refused. It is no secret that the NSA is monitoring that area by satellites and reviews of the tapes could show the 'White Van' and its destinations. If the NSA could read a coin on the ground from a satellite, as they boasted, they should be able to identify the White Van, too.

7. In short, events will only escalate downhill for as long as we let the fox guard the chickens.

CLOSING STATEMENT

Mister Rense,

First, let me thank you for letting me have my say. I have been holding this inside for a long time.

The most ironic part of it all is that we Jews taught the world that the Moslems are evil. This is a totally false concept. I visited many Moslem countries and they are a most gentle people... primarily because of their religion. Moslems are praying 5 times a day, they do not have time to play Pokemon, go on drive-by shootings, or watch another Jewish TV 'documentary'. ONLY when I visited Moslem countries, did I realize how massively corrupt our Western culture is.

We are now the most evil culture in the history of our civilization. Our children are little more than brainless idiots, criminals and prostitutes... and we have the audacity to criticize the Moslem culture?

AND Bush is 'saving our civilization'? I can see the Elders bursting with laughter in their graves. My husband always said that as long as we Jews control your TV, you American dummies will believe anything!

MY CONCLUSION

(as a simple housewife from Sydney)

Since it is indisputable that most politicians in most countries are lying, if we want to reverse the present decline of our society, we must administer a polygraph test to every politician worldwide once a month and take appropriate and immediate action if they are found to be lying. Imagine the turnover!

Again, thank you for taking the time to read this. Keep up your wonderful work.

Sincerely,

Rose Cohen

CHAPTER 17

REC #1 HATONN

SUN., OCT. 14, 1990 8:20 A.M. YEAR 4 DAY 59

WE DIDN'T SAY "JEWS"

As we have gotten more attention in the current circumstance of Middle Eastern/U.S./Arab/Israeli involvement teetering on the brink of nuclear war, it is again time to define terms. I am Hatonn, to present Truth in the Light of higher knowledge; no more and no less. I bend not to the objections of special interest groups who would deceive you and neither do I allow injustice towards groups who, in most instances, know not the facts regarding themselves.

ZIONISTS VS. "JEWISH RACES"

I experienced upon your placement as a "Jew" and I know of that which I project. I am NOT, herein, speaking of "Jews"; I speak herein of what is known as the Khazars' Thirteenth Tribe who would settle in the area of Palestine and Lebanon in the latter days—known as Israel.

It is time to repeat the PROTOCOLS OF THE MEETINGS OF THE ZIONIST MEN OF WISDOM. I did not label these ones—THEY labeled themselves with this title. I simply give unto you the projection of those "protocols" that you might evaluate for self, the truth of it.

(I ask that the portion of "WHO ARE THE KHAZARS?" be affixed to the writing preface for identification.)

We are utilizing this information in Express format because of the use of the term "Zionists". When we refer to the Zionists, the stones and rocks start being flung at our people and it is a part of the plan of disinformation; however, the stones strike and give pain to all human forms.

ISRAEL/PALESTINE—THIS DAY, 10/14/90

LISTEN to what is being given forth on this day as Israel denounces condemnation from the nations regarding brutality of 10/08/90. The Arab world feels the statements are not nearly strong enough—I will write a scenario from 1982, in the current Journal, wherein you can see that all that has changed is a name here and there. Precious ones, you have placed "war" in your cycles; why do you think it would simply go away without attention?

The building of the Zionist Temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem is also a portion of the prophecies and the Cornerstones were just laid forth this week. It was covered up in the Establishment media but truth is "slipping out"—even from the Israelis.

Just today an ambassador from Israel stated that, "It was a 'fringe element' of ISRAELI'S, called 'ZIONISTS' who went to the Holy place in efforts to 'lay the cornerstones for the new temple' but most 'JEWS' were simply 'at the wall' to honor the Jewish Holy day." I know not how you get more definitive than that! The Arab world peoples have now been barred from their most Holy placement—therefore, what think you is going on behind those barricades? The Holy Mosque is atop what the Jews call "Temple Mount" and belongs to the Palestinians. YOU BE THE JUDGE!

The "JEWS" of today are more and more controlled—in ignorance of the fact—by the Zionists. THE JEWS WILL BE THE ONES TO SUFFER THE GREATEST PAIN AT THE HANDS OF THESE UNGODLY MEN—IT IS ALREADY SO AND HAS BEEN FOR CENTURIES. ONLY NOW IS IT SO BLATANTLY OBVIOUS AS YOU MOVE INTO THE FINAL PROJECTIONS OF THE PROPHECIES. SO BE IT. WE HEREIN REPRINT THE PROTOCOLS; PLEASE READ CAREFULLY WITHOUT CASTING BLAME AT THE PRINTERS, FOR THEY DID NOT WRITE OF THEM! THEY WERE WRITTEN BY THE LEADERS OF THE ZIONIST NATION OF PEOPLE BIRTHED FROM THE KHAZARS WHO ASSUMED (TOOK) THE TITLE OF "JEWS"—THEY ARE NOT OF THE TRIBES OF "JEWISH ISRAEL". THEY "FIRST" STOLE THE JEWISH BIRTHRIGHT AND THEN THEIR LANDS AND PROPERTY—THEIR INTENT IS TO OWN AND RULE THE ENTIRE OF THE WORLD.*

May you read with an open and discerning mind that which follows. Look into the eyes of the "Israeli 'LEADERS'" who speak on your idiot box this day and you shall be given to SEE the truth of these words!

5/5/90—HATONN

Proverbs 29:18 says:

WHERE THERE IS NO VISION, THE PEOPLE PERISH.

Hatonn present in the Light of Radiance. May we share a bit more vision so that the way becomes more lighted. Thank you.

BECAUSE IT'S NOT HOW YOU THINK IT IS!

Why do I implore you to look at the ugly instead of what the New Age Movement would have you look? Because they pronounce falseness unto you and if the vision is incorrect or there is no vision in truth, man shall perish. No more and no less. You must awaken unto the truth of your existence and know the players in the game of control and you must do so before it becomes too late to longer matter.

KHAZARS

Prior to unfolding more of the story as pertains to Israel and the Zionists, you must realize that I am speaking not of the beloved Jewish "people" of your world, any more than I would have you believe all Catholic priests and nuns practice (or even know of) the activities within the walls of a cloistered convent. For instance, we have one with us who served as a Catholic priest for more than thirty years with a parish of some 10-15,000 parishioners. He was only in a cloistered convent on one occasion and that was for a white veil ceremony. Of course you ones know not these things—that is precisely WHY I am telling you these tales of unpleasant and seemingly paranoid circumstances.

If you do not know what it is you need to correct, how can you be in the correcting of it?

You cannot begin to understand world circumstance in any segment of geographical location without some knowledge about the past seven decades of struggle for control of the Kremlin. But that struggle, in turn, is a portion of an even bigger historical picture. You are still witnessing in full flower the ongoing and climaxing of a war of more than a millennium between the two most bitter enemies on Earth. It is the war between Russia and the Khazars. And, dear ones, how many of you have even the vaguest notion of who or what are Khazars?

The kingdom of the Khazars vanished from the map of the world many centuries ago, but their impact is greater this day than in any prior time segment. Today most people have never even heard of them or their lands, so you need not bow your head in embarrassment. If you do not continue and then follow up with a bit of research to prove my words unto self—then bow your head in embarrassment before God who would delight in seeing you of his creations come into truth.

In its day the Khazar Kingdom was a very major power indeed, holding sway over a large empire of subjugated peoples. It had to be reckoned with by the two neighboring superpowers of that day. To the south and west of Khazaria, the Byzantine Empire was in full flower with its Eastern Orthodox Christian civilization. To the southeast, the Khazar Kingdom bordered on the expanding Moslem Empire of the Arab Caliphs. The Khazars influenced the histories of both of these other empires but, far more importantly, the Khazar Kingdom occupied what was later to become a southern portion of Russia between the Black and Caspian Seas. As a result, the historical destinies of the Russians and the Khazars became intertwined in ways which have persisted down to the present day.

I suggest that if you have trouble with this information and also in locating information regarding these people, you should get a book by a British writer/historian about the Khazars: THE 13TH TRIBE—THE KHAZAR EMPIRE AND ITS HERITAGE by Arthur Koestler. No, Dharma, do not get it, for I shall give you all you need know about it. But for others, let me see—yes, Random House, New York should be a source.

The Khazars were derived from a mixture of Finns, Turks and Mongols (this latter is important when considering the projections of one, Nostradamus, as to the anti-Christ). As early as the Third Century AD, they were identifiable in constant warfare in the areas of Persia and Armenia. Later, in the 5th Century, the Khazars were among the devastating hordes of Attila, the Hun. Around 550 AD, the nomadic Khazars began settling themselves in the area around the northern Caucasus between the Black and Caspian Seas. The Khazar capital of Itil was established at the mouth of the Volga River, where it emptied into the Caspian, in order to control the river traffic. The Khazars then extracted a toll of 10% on any and all cargo which passed Itil on the River. Ah yes, taxways all the way to the 5th Century. Anyone who refused to pay the tax (toll) was immediately attacked and slaughtered—not greatly different from today.

With their kingdom firmly established in the Caucasus, the Khazars gradually began to create an empire of subjugated peoples. Other tribes, who were comparatively peaceful, were promptly attacked and conquered. They then became attached as portions of the Khazar Empire, required to pay tribute continually to the Khazar Kingdom and to the Khazar coffers.

This is not different in concept, for all conquered peoples have had to give tribute to the conquering Empire, but I assure you, not in the manner of the Khazars. The so-called great empires of the world always gave something in return for the tribute they extracted. Rome, for example, made citizens of those they conquered, and in return for the taxes they levied, they brought civilization, order and protection against attack from would-be invaders.

Not so in the Khazar Empire. The peoples who were subject to the Khazars received only one thing in return for their payments of tribute, and that was only one thin and shaky promise that the Khazars would refrain from further attacks and pillage—so long as the tributes were paid. The subjects of the Khazar Empire, therefore, were simply nothing more than victims of a giant Mafia-type protection racket. The Khazar overlords were therefore resented universally and bitterly throughout their domain, but they were also feared because of the merciless way in which they dealt with anyone who stood up to them. And so the Khazar Empire expanded until it occupied large areas of what is now Russia and southeastern Europe. By the Eighth Century, the Khazar Empire extended northward to Kiev and westward to include the Magyars, the ancestors of modern Hungary.

Then a stunning event took place in the mid-700s AD. The Khazars had been under continual pressure from their Byzantine and Moslem neighbors to adopt either Christianity or Islam; but the Khazar ruler, called the Khakan, had heard of a third religion called Judaism. Apparently for political reasons of independence, the Khakan announced that the Khazars were adopting Judaism as their authorized religion.

Overnight an entirely new group of people, the warlike Khazars, suddenly proclaimed themselves to be Jews—adoptive Jews—and formed their tribe straight away. The Khazar Kingdom began to be described as the "Kingdom of the Jews" by historians of the day. Succeeding Khazar rulers took Jewish names, and during the late Ninth Century the Khazar Kingdom became a haven for Jews from other lands.

Meanwhile, the brutal Khazar domination over other peoples continued quite unchanged. But then a new factor appeared on the scene. During the 8th Century they came coursing down the great rivers, the Dnieper, the Don, the Volga. They were the eastern branch of the Vikings—ouch! They were known as the Varangians, or as the Rus. Like other Vikings, the Rus were bold adventurers and fierce fighters but, when they tangled with the Khazars, the Rus often ended up paying tribute like everyone else. When two titans meet, it is always interesting, for the probabilities change moment by moment. Now, isn't all this history fascinating? You started your journey of hate and confrontation and enslavement so far back it, too, is forgotten.

About 862 a Rus leader name Rurik founded the city of Novgorod, and the Russian Nation was born. The Rus Vikings settled among the Slavonic tribes under Khazar domination, and the struggle between Vikings and Khazars changed in character. It then became a struggle by the emerging nation of Russia for independence from Khazar oppression.

Over a century after the founding of Russia's first city, another momentous event took place. Russia's leader, Prince Vladimir of Kiev, accepted baptism as a Christian in the year 989 and a big to-do was made of it, of course. He then actively promoted Christianity in Russia, and his memory is revered by Russians today as "Saint Vladimir"—and so, over a thousand years ago, Russia's tradition as a Christian nation began. How many of you know this? How many of you children realize that Russia is a Christian nation? You all teach and proffer that the Russians are atheistic—those are the Soviets, my friends, who are preaching the no-God theories.

Vladimir's conversion also brought Russia into alliance with Byzantium. The Byzantine rulers had always feared the Khazars, and the Russians were still struggling to free themselves. And so, in the year 1016, combined Russian and Byzantine forces attacked the Khazar Kingdom. The Khazar Empire was shattered, and the kingdom of the Khazars itself fell into decline. Eventually most of the Khazar Jews migrated to other areas. Many of them wound up in Eastern Europe, where they mingled and intermarried with other Jews. Like the Semitic Jews some 1000 years earlier, the Khazar Jews became dispersed. The kingdom of the Khazars was no more.

As they moved and lived among the Jewish people, the Khazar Jews passed on a distinct heritage in a militant form—known as ZIONISM! You thought I wasn't going to get there, didn't you? This was passed on from generation to generation and became more and more militant and reached out in every direction in its efforts to consume and control. This particular group all but consumed Germany in the early third of this century of your counting. In the view of Khazar Jews, the land occupied by ancient Israel is to be retaken—not by miracle but by armed force. This is what is meant by "Zionism" today—and this is the force that created the nation which today calls itself Israel.

The other major ingredient of the Khazar Jew heritage is total hatred for Christianity, and for the Russian people as the champions of the Christian faith. Christianity is viewed as the force which caused the ancient so-called Kingdom of the Jews, the Khazar Kingdom, to collapse. Having once dominated much of what is present-day Russia, the Khazar Jews still want to reestablish that domination—and for a millennium they have been trying continually to do just that.

In 1917 the Khazar Jews passed a major milestone toward the creation of their own state in Palestine. That same year they also created the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia—financed by some very familiar foundations out of America. Be patient and you shall begin to see the linkage of the secret societies and moneychangers.

There, of course, followed a Christian Holocaust, the likes of which the world has never seen. The Khazar Jews were once again in control of Russia after more than 900 years, and they set about the task of destroying Christianity by destroying Christians—over 100,000,000 of them (almost makes the projections from Germany look feeble, does it not?). Worse, and in addition, Godly Jews everywhere take note; at the same time over 20,000,000 religious Jews also died at the hands of their own proclaimed people, the Khazar Jews.

This is what, my friends, the Russian Christians were up against in their half-century-plus struggle to overthrow the atheistic Bolsheviks, but they finally succeeded in their overthrow program, and now the 1000-year-old war between the Russian Christians and Khazar Zionist Jews is reaching a climax. The majority of those displaced Bolsheviks relocated immediately to America. At stake is not only the future of Russia, and of Christianity, albeit it totally corrupted in any event, but also of the Jewish people as a whole—and the Jewish people as a whole haven't the vaguest idea that this is happening to them. They follow along thinking that someday soon they will have their nation back—oh no, you Godly Jews of the tribes of Abraham will be sacrificed as never seen before upon your placement. It will be the Jews who will pay the ultimate price at the hands of the Zionists—and they will kill you while you stand in protection of them.

There was a leader of the Jewish people that we would give tribute now; Rabbi Joel Teitelbaum, who died in New York in 1979. Interestingly enough—he died in the morning, and was buried the same afternoon. Yet, over 100,000 Jewish men arrived in time for the funeral. It is hard to imagine how many more would have come if time had been longer. The services were pushed ahead to prevent the crowds and the investigation into the cause of death.

A tribute was later given in the New York Times and clearly it spoke for myriads of Jewish people. Among the words within the tribute was a phrase I would share; “He was the undisputed leader of all Jews everywhere who had not been infected by Zionism”; and also, quote, “With a courage all too rare in our time, he called the Zionist state a work of Satan, a sacrilege, and a blasphemy.” The shedding of blood for the sake of the Zionist state was abhorrent to him. He was also removed, for he was a troublemaker and troublemakers and bringers of truth are “taken out”. Hence my scribe's nervous indigestion. Well, God wants no more martyrs—the time for the impact of martyrs is finished—God wants alert, thinking and “living” people.

That tribute, however, was given and the words were spoken by Orthodox Jews mourning for their fallen leader. And the new Christian rulers of Russia would agree, for they, too, regard the Zionist state of Israel as a counterfeit, a cruel and dangerous hoax for Christian and Jew alike. The Khazar state, called the “Kingdom of the Jews” over a thousand years ago, was a total, deadly parasite, living on the tribute from conquered peoples. Likewise today, Israel depends for its survival on a never-ending flow of support from outside. Guess where almost all of it comes from! Left unchecked, the Russians believe that the Khazar Jews will destroy Christianity by means of Zionism, and Russia through Bolshevism; so Russia's Christian rulers are on the offensive against their enemies of over a thousand years—the Zionist Khazars.

Americans, who call yourselves Christians, have not cared enough to open your eyes to effort at saving your own country, or to defend your faith—

you just walk out on it rather than repair and come back into the Christness. So now your land has become the battleground of the Christian Russians and their deadly enemies—the Bolsheviks and the Zionists. Like it or not, dear ones, you are caught in a total all-holds-open war. This, Oberli, is why the war this time will be in your Hemisphere. America is the new crown jewel in the global Zion.

KHAZARS IN COLOMBIA?

Does it not make sense why the cosmospheres are sitting above Panama and why Israeli arms have ended up in Colombia? Oh dear people of the lies—please hear our call before it is too late to make impact. If you do not, 'tis important that you do know WHY it has come upon you!

No, dear ones, I do not jest—Dharma, please copy the article from yesterday's paper.

ISRAELI ARMS SHIPMENT ENDS UP IN COLOMBIA

New York Times, May 5, 1990

“A supply of Uzi machine guns and other weapons, approved by the Israeli government last year for shipment to the eastern Caribbean island of Antigua, wound up instead in the hands of one of Colombia's most notorious drug traffickers. [Hatonn: Remember the Israeli Mossad trains those cartel fighters.]

“The Colombian authorities discovered the Israeli-made weapons and hundreds of thousands of rounds of ammunition when they searched the ranch of Jose Rodriguez Gacha three months ago, after he was ambushed and killed by Colombian police.

“The mystery of how they made their way there has set off a number of investigations, roiled the ruling family of Antigua and posed a sensitive diplomatic problem for Washington and Jerusalem, U.S. officials say.

“Israel has said only that it approved the arms for sale to the Antiguan government.

“Antiguan officials say they neither ordered nor received the arms.

“Evidence recently uncovered by a government investigation there traced the shipment to two former Israeli army officers, U.S. and Antiguan officials say.

“One of the two, officials say, is wanted in Colombia on charges that he imported arms illegally and trained narcotics traffickers in armed tactics; the other is being sought by the United States because his produce company in Antigua defaulted on $1.3 million in loans from the United States.”

And so the time bomb ticks!

Dharma, allow us a break please because I desire that the PROTOCOLS OF THE MEETINGS OF THE ZIONIST MEN OF WISDOM and the comparative U.S. of A. “SECRET NEW CONSTITUTION SUMMARY” be in a separate segment.

I hear your frustration, chela, as to how we can get all this timely information integrated and out to the people. Yes it would appear that everything needs to be in a daily Express. Perhaps we'll have to move to a Book of the Month Club. We will do that which we can and retain your sanity, dear one. You ask how some other information was given to “mysterious” ones prior to now—from me! From Jesus Sananda! and from God!—specifically and exactly as you receive it—directly as you write it, you are not alone! It all checks out in Earth material so rest easy and gently, dear ones. It would be good to note herein, however, that ones prior had need of ego to utilize their own identities and it was costly indeed. In the beginning of our contacts and work it seems innocuous indeed and choices are not always heard clearly as to outcome. So be it. All the information checks out in very physical manifestation and therefore, ones know the truth of the writings and then it moves beyond dangerous in scope. Your work is indeed important.

I hold you most closely in my shield in that you might not walk in constant terror—but do not lose thy caution unto carelessness for ye, too, are given into free-will choices. Be ever in the “remembering” and we will manage. I again caution all of you who walk in this space—to take care and do not become careless in this placement, for the comradery often overshines the degree of caution necessary. And keep off that telephone! This is but a reminder to pay attention, for Dharma lives in two dimensions and is at total risk. Her work is no more important than another's but it must come first in sequence so she is at first and prior risk. So be it; always, a word to the wise should be sufficient. We must effort to remove some of the pressures of life from her, for she is emotionally failing—we desire no robots. Let us please work diligently at the projects, for this dwelling is again at immediately impending legal risk and the distraction is too costly to our work. To have to even temporarily relocate this scribe is unthinkable. Salu.

I stand aside while you close out this portion. Hatonn to clear, please.

CHAPTER 18

THE PROTOCOLS OF THE MEETINGS OF THE ZIONIST MEN OF WISDOM

The following is taken from the Protocols of the Meetings of the Zionist Men of Wisdom, from a book published in 1920 by Small, Maynard and Co., using the Protocols from Nilus which first appeared around 1884. [QUOTING:]

PROTOCOL NO. I

Let us put aside phraseology and discuss the inner meaning of every thought; by comparison and deductions let us illuminate the situation. In this way I will describe our system both from our own point of view and from that of the Goys (Gentiles).

It must be remembered that people with base instincts are more numerous than those with noble ones; therefore, THE BEST RESULTS IN GOVERNING ARE ACHIEVED THROUGH VIOLENCE AND INTIMIDATION AND NOT THROUGH ACADEMIC DISCUSSION.

In the early stages of social life they submitted to brute and blind force; afterwards—to the Law, which is the same force but disguised. I deduce from this that according to the laws of Nature, RIGHT LIES IN MIGHT.

POLITICAL FREEDOM IS NOT A FACT BUT AN IDEA. ONE MUST KNOW HOW TO EMPLOY THIS IDEA...

In our day the power of gold has replaced liberal rulers. There was a time when faith ruled. THE IDEA OF FREEDOM CANNOT BE REALIZED BECAUSE NO ONE KNOWS HOW TO MAKE REASONABLE USE OF IT.

The DESPOTISM OF CAPITAL, which is entirely in our hands, holds out to it a straw which THE STATE MUST GRASP, although against its will, or otherwise fall into the abyss.

POLITICS HAVE NOTHING IN COMMON WITH MORALS...

He who desires to rule must resort to cunning and hypocrisy. The great popular qualities—honesty and frankness—become vices in politics... These qualities must be the attributes of Goy countries; but we by no means should be guided by them.

Our right lies in might. The word "RIGHT" IS AN ABSTRACT IDEA, unsusceptible of proof. This word means nothing more than: Give me what I desire so that I may have evidence that I am stronger than you.

With the present instability of all authority our power will be more unassailable than any other, BECAUSE IT WILL BE INVISIBLE UNTIL IT IS SO WELL ROOTED THAT NO CUNNING CAN UNDERMINE IT.

THE END JUSTIFIES THE MEANS. In laying our plans we must turn our attention not so much to the good and moral as to the necessary and useful. Before us lies a plan in which a strategic line is shown, from which we must not deviate on pain of risking the collapse of many centuries of work.

ONLY A PERSON PREPARED FROM CHILDHOOD to autocracy can understand the words which are formed by political letters.

Only an autocrat can outline great and clear plans which allocate in an orderly manner all the parts of the mechanism of the government machinery.

Look at those beasts, steeped in alcohol, stupefied by wine, the unlimited use of which is granted by liberty.

Surely you cannot allow our own people to come to this. The people of the GOYS ARE STUPEFIED BY SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS: THEIR YOUTH IS DRIVEN INSANE through excessive study of the classics, and vice to which they have been instigated by our agents—tutors, valets, governesses—in rich houses, by clerks, and so forth, and by our women in the pleasure places of the Goys.

Our motto is POWER AND HYPOCRISY. Only power can conquer in politics. VIOLENCE MUST BE THE PRINCIPLE; HYPOCRISY AND CUNNING THE RULE of those governments which do not wish to lay down their crowns at the feet of the agents of some new power. THIS EVIL IS THE SOLE MEANS OF ATTAINING THE GOAL OF GOOD. For this reason WE MUST NOT HESITATE AT BRIBERY, FRAUD AND TREASON when these can help us to reach our end. In politics it is necessary to SEIZE THE PROPERTY OF OTHERS WITHOUT HESITATION if in so doing we attain submission and power.

We must follow a program of violence and hypocrisy, not only for the sake of profit, but also as a duty and for the sake of victory.

Even in olden times we shouted among the people the words "Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity." These words have been repeated so many times since by unconscious parrots, which, flocking from all sides to the bait, have ruined the prosperity of the world and true individual freedom...

On the ruins of natural and hereditary aristocracy we built an aristocracy of our intellectual class—THE MONEY ARISTOCRACY. We have established this new aristocracy on the qualification of wealth, which is dependent upon us, and also upon science, which is promoted by our wise men.

... We always played upon the most sensitive chords of the human mind, namely, GREED, AND THE INSATIABLE SELFISH DESIRES OF MAN.

The fact that the representatives of the nation can be deposed, delivers them into our power and practically places their appointment in our hands.

PROTOCOL NO. II

It is necessary for us that wars, whenever possible, should bring no territorial advantages; this will SHIFT WAR TO AN ECONOMIC BASIS and force nations to realize the strength of our predominance; such a situation will put both sides at the mercy of our million-eyed international agency, which will be unhampered by any frontiers. THEN OUR INTERNATIONAL RIGHTS WILL DO AWAY WITH NATIONAL RIGHTS.

The Administrators chosen by us from among the people in accordance with their capacity for servility will not be experienced in the art of government, and consequently THEY WILL EASILY BECOME PAWNS IN OUR GAME, in the hands of our scientists and wise counselors, specialists trained from early childhood for governing the world. ... The Goys are not guided by the practice of impartial historical observation... Therefore, we need give them no consideration. Until the time comes LET THEM AMUSE THEMSELVES, OR LIVE IN THE HOPE OF NEW AMUSEMENTS OR IN THE MEMORIES OF THOSE PAST. ... Intelligent Goys will boast of their knowledge, and verifying it logically, they will put into practice all scientific information compiled by our agents for the purpose of educating their minds in the direction which we require.

Do not think that our assertions are without foundation: The successes of Darwinism, Marxism and Nietzscheism were engineered by us. The demoralizing effects of these doctrines upon the minds of the Goys should be already obvious to us.

There is one great force in the hands of modern states which arouses thought movements among the people. That is THE PRESS... but governments were unable to profit by this power and IT HAS FALLEN INTO OUR HANDS. Through it we have attained influence, while remaining in the background. Thanks to the press, WE HAVE GATHERED GOLD IN OUR HANDS, ALTHOUGH WE HAD TO TAKE IT FROM RIVERS OF BLOOD AND TEARS.

But it cost us the sacrifice of many of our own people. EVERY SACRIFICE ON OUR PART IS WORTH A THOUSAND GOYS BEFORE GOD.

PROTOCOL NO. III

Today I can tell you that our goal is close at hand. Only a small distance remains, AND THE CYCLE OF THE SYMBOLIC SERPENT—THE SYMBOL OF OUR PEOPLE—WILL BE COMPLETE. When this circle is completed, then all the European states will be closed in it as in strong claws.

To induce all lovers of authority to abuse their power, we have PLACED ALL THE FORCES IN OPPOSITION TO EACH OTHER... WE HAVE ARMED ALL THE PARTIES... WE HAVE OPENED THE ARENAS IN DIFFERENT STATES, WHERE REVOLTS ARE NOW OCCURRING, AND DISORDERS AND BANKRUPTCY WILL SHORTLY APPEAR EVERYWHERE.

People are shackled by poverty to heavy labor more surely than they were by slavery and serfdom. They could liberate themselves from those in one way or another, whereas they cannot free themselves from misery. We have included in constitutions rights, which for the people are fictitious and are not actual rights. All the so-called "rights of the people" can exist only in the abstract and can never be realized in practice. What difference does it make to the toiling proletarian, bent double by heavy toil, oppressed by his fate, that the babblers receive the right to talk, journalists the right to mix nonsense with reason in their writings, if the proletariat has no other gain from the constitution than the miserable crumbs which we throw from our table in return for his vote to elect our agents. REPUBLICAN RIGHTS ARE BITTER IRONY TO THE POOR MAN, FOR THE NECESSITY OF ALMOST DAILY LABOR PREVENTS HIM FROM USING THEM...

We will present ourselves in the guise of SAVIORS OF THE WORKERS from this oppression... The aristocracy which benefited by the labor of the people by right have interest that the workers should be well fed, healthy and strong.

We, on the contrary, are concerned in the opposite—in the degeneration of the Goys. Our power lies in the CHRONIC MALNUTRITION AND IN THE WEAKNESS OF THE WORKER, BECAUSE THROUGH THIS HE FALLS UNDER OUR POWER AND IS UNABLE TO FIND EITHER STRENGTH OR ENERGY TO COMBAT IT.

When the time comes for our universal ruler to be crowned, the same hands will sweep away everything which may be an obstacle in our way.

The Goys are NO LONGER ACCUSTOMED TO THINKING without our scientific advice. Consequently, they do not see the imperative need of upholding that which we will sustain by all means, when our kingdom is established, namely, the teaching in the schools of the only true science, the first of all sciences—the science of the construction of human life, of social existence, which requires the division of labor and, consequently, the separation of people into classes and castes. It is necessary that all should know that equality cannot exist, owing to the different nature of various kinds of work; that there cannot be (equal responsibility before the law).

... occupation and labor must be differentiated so as not to cause human suffering by the discrepancy between education and work. ... The people, in their ignorance, blindly believing the printed word, and owing to the misconceptions which have been fostered by us, feel a hatred towards all classes whom they consider superior to themselves since they do not understand the importance of each caste.

This hatred will be still more ACCENTUATED BY THE ECONOMIC CRISIS, which will stop financial transactions and all industrial life. Having organized a general economic crisis by all possible underhand means—and with the help of gold which is all in our hands—we will throw great crowds of workmen into the street, simultaneously, in all countries in Europe. These crowds will gladly shed the blood of those of whom they, in the simplicity of their ignorance, have been jealous since childhood and whose property they will then be able to loot.

THEY WILL NOT HARM OUR PEOPLE BECAUSE WE WILL KNOW OF THE TIME OF THE ATTACK AND WE WILL TAKE MEASURES TO PROTECT THEM.

Remember the French Revolution... the secrets of its preparation are well known to us, for it was the work of our hands.

Since then we have carried the masses from one disappointment to another, so that they will renounce even us in favor of a DESPOT SOVEREIGN OF ZIONIST BLOOD, WHOM WE ARE PREPARING FOR THE WORLD.

At present, as an international force, WE ARE INVULNERABLE...

Of course, they are not told that this unification will be achieved only under our rule. Thus, the people condemn the just and acquit the unjust, MORE AND MORE CONVINCED THAT THEY CAN DO WHAT THEY PLEASE. Owing to this, the people destroy all stability and create disorder on every occasion.

The word "Liberty" brings all societies into conflict with all authority, be it that of God or Nature. This is why, at the moment of our enthronement, WE SHALL STRIKE THIS WORD FROM THE DICTIONARY...

PROTOCOL NO. IV

WHO AND WHAT CAN OVERTHROW AN UNSEEN POWER? For such is the character of our power. External Masonry acts as a screen for it and its aims, but the plan of action of this power, and its very headquarters, will always remain unknown to the people.

It is for this reason that we must UNDERMINE FAITH, tearing from the minds of the Goys the very principal of God and Soul, and SUBSTITUTING MATHEMATICAL FORMULAS AND MATERIAL NEEDS.

In order that the minds of the Goys may HAVE NO TIME TO THINK AND NOTICE THINGS, it is necessary to divert them in the direction of industry and commerce. Thus all nations will seek their own profit, and while engaged in the struggle, THEY WILL NOT NOTICE THEIR COMMON ENEMY.

The intense struggle for supremacy, the shocks to economic life, will create, moreover have already created, disappointed disgust for high politics and religion. Their only guide will be calculation, i.e. gold, for which they will have a real cult because of the material delights which it can supply. It will be at that stage that the lower classes of the Goys, not for the sake of doing good, nor even for the sake of wealth, but solely BECAUSE OF THEIR HATRED TOWARDS THE PRIVILEGED, WILL FOLLOW US AGAINST OUR COMPETITORS FOR POWER, THE INTELLIGENT GOYS.

PROTOCOL NO. V

What form of government can be given to societies in which bribery has penetrated everywhere, where riches are obtained only by clever trick and semi-fraudulent means, where corruption reigns, where morality is sustained by punitive measures and where cosmopolitan convictions have eliminated patriotic feelings and religion? WHAT FORM OF GOVERNMENT CAN BE GIVEN TO SUCH SOCIETIES OTHER THAN A DESPOTISM SUCH AS I SHALL DESCRIBE?

We will mechanically regulate all the functions of political life of our subjects BY NEW LAWS. These laws will gradually ELIMINATE ALL THE CONCESSIONS AND LIBERTIES PERMITTED BY THE GOYS. Our kingdom will be crowned by such a majestic despotism that it will be able, at all times and in all places, to crush both antagonistic and discontented Goys.

At the time when people considered rulers as an incarnation of the will of God, they subjected themselves without murmur to the autocracy of the sovereigns... when we deprived them of their belief in God, then authority was thrown into the street, all, is it not the same to the world who will be its master—whether it be the head of Catholicism or our despot of Zionist blood? To us, however, the Chosen People, it is by no means a matter of indifference. TEMPORARILY, A WORLD COALITION OF THE GOYS WOULD BE ABLE TO HOLD US IN CHECK, BUT WE ARE INSURED AGAINST THIS BY ROOTS OF DISSENSION SO DEEP AMONG THEM THAT THEY CANNOT NOW BE EXTRACTED. We have set at variance the personal and national interests of the Goys; we have incited religious and race hatred, nurtured by us in their hearts for twenty centuries. Owing to all this, no state will obtain the help it asks for from any side because each of them shall think that a coalition against us will be disadvantageous to it. We are too powerful—we must be taken into consideration. No country can reach even an insignificant private understanding without our being a secret party to it.

THE PROPHETS HAVE TOLD US THAT WE WERE CHOSEN BY GOD HIMSELF TO REIGN OVER THE WORLD. God endowed us with genius to enable us to cope with the problem. Were there a genius in the opposing camp, he would struggle against us, but a newcomer is not equal to an old inhabitant. The struggle between us would be of such a merciless nature as the world has never seen before; moreover their genius would be too late.

All the wheels of government mechanism move by the action of the motor which is in our hands, and THAT MOTOR IS GOLD.

The most important problem of our government is to weaken the popular mind by criticism; to disaccustom it to thought, which creates opposition; TO DEFLECT THE POWER OF THOUGHT into mere empty eloquence.

At all times both peoples and individuals have mistaken words for deeds....

We will appropriate to ourselves... all shades of opinion, and we will provide our orators with the same aspect, and they will talk so much that they will EXHAUST THE PEOPLE by their speeches and cause them to turn away from orators in disgust.

To control public opinion it is necessary to perplex it by the expression of numerous contradictory opinions UNTIL THE GOYS GET LOST IN THE LABRYINTH, AND COME TO UNDERSTAND THAT IT IS BEST TO HAVE NO OPINION ON POLITICAL QUESTIONS.

Such questions are not intended to be understood by the people, since only he who rules knows them. This is the first secret.

The second secret necessary for the success of governing consists in so multiplying popular failings, habits, passions, and conventional laws that no one will be able to disentangle himself in the chaos, and consequently, PEOPLE WILL CEASE TO UNDERSTAND EACH OTHER. This measure would help us to sow dissension within all parties, TO DISINTEGRATE ALL THOSE COLLECTIVE FORCES WHICH STILL DO NOT WISH TO SUBJUGATE THEMSELVES TO US; TO DISCOURAGE ALL INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE WHICH MIGHT IN ANY DEGREE HAMPER OUR WORK.

THERE IS NOTHING MORE DANGEROUS THAN INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE. IF IT HAS A TOUCH OF GENIUS IT CAN ACCOMPLISH MORE THAN A MILLION PEOPLE AMONG WHOM WE HAVE SOWN DISSENSIONS. We must direct the education of the Goy societies so that their arms will drop hopelessly when they face every task where initiative is required.

We will so tire the Goys by all this that we will force them to offer us an international power, which by its position will enable us conveniently to absorb, without destroying, all governmental forces of the world and thus to form a MONSTER WHICH WILL BE CALLED THE SUPER-GOVERNMENTAL ADMINISTRATION. Its hands will be stretched out like pincers in every direction so that this colossal organization cannot fail to conquer all the peoples.

PROTOCOL NO. VI

We will soon begin to ESTABLISH GREAT MONOPOLIES—reservoirs of huge wealth, upon which even the large fortunes of the Goys will depend to such an extent that they will be drowned, together with the governmental credits, on the day following the political catastrophe.

The aristocracy of the Goys as a political force is dead. We do not need to take it into consideration; BUT AS LAND-OWNERS THEY ARE HARMFUL TO US BECAUSE THEY CAN BE INDEPENDENT IN THEIR RESOURCES OF LIFE. FOR THIS REASON WE MUST DEPRIVE THEM OF THEIR LAND AT ANY COST.

It is necessary that industry should suck out of the land both labor and capital and through speculation deliver into our hands all the money of the world, thus throwing all the Goys into the ranks of the proletarians. THEN THE GOYS WILL BOW BEFORE US IN ORDER TO OBTAIN THE MERE RIGHT OF EXISTENCE.

To destroy Goy industry we will create among the Goys, as an aid to speculation, the STRONG DEMAND FOR BOUNDLESS LUXURY which we have already developed.

Let us raise wages which, however, will be of no benefit to the workers, for we will simultaneously cause the rise in prices of first necessity under the pretext that this is due to the decadence of agriculture, and of the cattle industry.

We will also artfully and deeply undermine the sources of production BY TEACHING THE WORKMEN ANARCHY AND THE USE OF ALCOHOL, AT THE SAME TIME TAKING MEASURES TO EXPEL ALL THE INTELLIGENT GOYS FROM THE LAND.

That the true situation SHOULD NOT BE NOTICED BY THE GOYS UNTIL THE PROPER TIME, we will mask it by a pretended desire to help the working classes, and great economic principles, an active propaganda of which principles is being carried on through the dissemination of our economic theories.

PROTOCOL NO. VII

THE INTENSIFICATION OF ARMAMENT AND THE INCREASE OF THE POLICE FORCE ARE ESSENTIAL TO THE REALIZATION OF THE ABOVE-MENTIONED PLANS. It is necessary that there should be, besides ourselves, in all countries ONLY THE MASS OF THE PROLETARIAT, A FEW MILLIONAIRES DEVOTED TO US, POLICEMEN, AND SOLDIERS.

WE MUST CREATE UNREST, DISSENSIONS AND HATRED throughout Europe and through European affiliations, also on other continents. ... They will realize that we have the power to create disorder or to restore order whenever we wish. ... We will entangle by intrigues all the threads stretched by us into all the governmental bodies by means of politics, economic treaties, or financial obligations. ... In this way the peoples and the governments of the Goys, taught by us TO REGARD ONLY THE SURFACE OF THAT WHICH WE SHOW THEM, will look upon us as benefactors and saviors of mankind.

We must be able to OVERCOME ALL OPPOSITION BY PROVOKING A WAR by the neighbors of that country which dares to oppose us. Should, however, those neighbors, in their turn, decide to unite against us we must RESPOND BY A WORLD WAR.

In short, to sum up our system of shackling the Goy governments of Europe, WE WILL SHOW OUR POWER TO ONE OF THEM BY ASSASSINATION AND TERRORISM, AND WOULD THERE BE A POSSIBILITY OF ALL OF THEM RISING AGAINST US, WE WILL ANSWER THEM WITH AMERICAN, CHINESE OR JAPANESE GUNS.

PROTOCOL NO. VIII

Our government must be surrounded... with publicists, experienced lawyers, administrators, diplomats and, finally, people educated along special lines in our special advanced schools.

These people will be familiar with the reverse side of human nature, with all its sensitive chords, upon which they must know how to play. These chords are the STRUCTURE OF THE INTELLECTS OF THE GOYS, THEIR TENDENCIES, THEIR FAILINGS, THEIR VICIES AND THEIR VIRTUES, the peculiarities of classes and castes.

It is for this reason that ECONOMICS IS THE CHIEF SCIENCE TAUGHT BY THE JEWS. We will be surrounded by a crowd of bankers, traders, capitalists and, most important of all, by millionaires, because in essence EVERYTHING WILL BE DECIDED BY A QUESTION OF FIGURES.

PROTOCOL NO. IX

... because their anti-Semitism is necessary TO ENABLE US TO CONTROL OUR SMALLER BROTHERS. I will not further explain this, as it has already been the object of numerous discussions.

In reality, THERE ARE NO OBSTACLES BEFORE US. Our super-government exists under such extra-legal conditions that it is common to designate it by an energetic and strong word—a Dictatorship.

I can honestly state that, at the present time, WE ARE LAWMAKERS; WE ARE THE JUDGES AND INFLICT PUNISHMENT; WE EXECUTE AND PARDON; WE AS THE CHIEF OF ALL OUR ARMIES, RIDE THE LEADER'S HORSE. ... WE POSSESS BOUNDLESS AMBITION, BURNING GREED FOR MERCILESS REVENGE, AND BITTER HATRED.

From us emanates an all-embracing terror. People of all opinions and of all doctrines are in our service; people who desire to restore monarchies, demagogues, socialists, communists and other utopians. ... ALL THE GOVERNMENTS HAVE BEEN TORTURED BY THIS PROCEDURE; THEY BEG FOR PEACE, AND FOR THE SAKE OF PEACE ARE PREPARED TO MAKE ANY SACRIFICE, BUT WE WILL NOT GIVE THEM PEACE UNTIL THEY RECOGNIZE OUR INTERNATIONAL SUPER-GOVERNMENT OPENLY AND WITH SUBMISSION.

The division into parties has delivered all of them to us, because in order to conduct a party struggle money is required, and we have it all.

We have affected legal procedure, electoral law, the press, personal freedom, and, MOST IMPORTANT,

THE CORNERSTONE OF FREE EXISTENCE.

WE HAVE MISLED, CORRUPTED, FOOLED AND DEMORALIZED THE YOUTH of the Goys by education along principles and theories known by us to be false, but which we ourselves have inspired.

You may say that there will be an armed rising against us if our plans are discovered prematurely; but in anticipation of this we have such a terrorizing manoeuvre in the West that even the bravest soul will shudder.

Underground passages will be established by that time in all capitals, from where THEY CAN BE EXPLODED, together with all their institutions and national documents.

PROTOCOL NO. X

I beg you to remember that the government and the masses are satisfied with VISIBLE RESULTS IN POLITICS. It is important to know one detail in our policy. It will help us in discussing division of authority, freedom of speech, of the press, of religion (faith), the right of assembly, equality before the law, inviolability of property and of the home, indirect taxes and the retrospective force of law. ALL SUCH QUESTIONS SHOULD NEVER BE DIRECTLY AND OPENLY DISCUSSED before the masses. When it becomes necessary for us to discuss them, they should not be elaborated but merely mentioned, without going into details, pointing out that modern legal principles are being accepted by us. The significance of this reticence lies in the fact that a principle which has not been openly declared gives us freedom of action to exclude, unnoticed, one point or another, whereas if elaborated the principle becomes as good as established.

WHEN WE ACCOMPLISH OUR COUP D'ETAT, WE WILL SAY TO THE PEOPLES: "EVERYTHING WENT BADLY; ALL OF YOU HAVE SUFFERED. WE WILL ABOLISH THE CAUSE OF YOUR SUFFERINGS, THAT IS TO SAY, NATIONALITIES, FRONTIERS AND NATIONAL CURRENCIES. OF COURSE YOU ARE FREE TO CONDEMN US, BUT WOULD YOUR JUDGEMENT BE JUST IF YOU WERE TO PRONOUNCE IT BEFORE GIVING A TRIAL TO WHAT WE WILL GIVE YOU?" THEREAFTER THEY WILL EXALT US WITH A SENTIMENT OF UNANIMOUS DELIGHT AND HOPE. THE VOTING SYSTEM WHICH WE HAVE USED AS A TOOL FOR OUR ENTHRONEMENT—AND TO WHICH WE HAVE ACCUSTOMED EVEN THE PREARRANGED AGREEMENTS—WILL HAVE PERFORMED ITS LAST SERVICE AND WILL MAKE ITS LAST APPEARANCE IN THE EXPRESSION OF A UNANIMOUS DESIRE TO BECOME MORE CLOSELY ACQUAINTED WITH US BEFORE HAVING PRONOUNCED A JUDGEMENT.

To attain this we must FORCE ALL TO VOTE, without class discrimination, to establish the autocracy of the majority, which cannot be obtained from the intellectual classes alone. ... WE WILL NOT ALLOW THE FORMATION OF INDIVIDUAL MINDS... We will thus create such a blind power that it will be unable to move without the guidance of our agents, sent by us to replace their leaders.

THE MASSES WILL SUBMIT TO THIS REGIME BECAUSE THEY WILL KNOW THAT THEIR EARNINGS, PERQUISITES, AND OTHER BENEFITS DEPEND UPON THESE LEADERS.

The plan of government must EMANATE ALREADY FORMED from one head... Consequently, the inspired work of our leaders must not be thrown to the mercy of the mob or even of a limited group.

These plans will not immediately upset contemporary institutions. They will only alter their organization...

... it is not the institutions that are important, but their functions.

When we injected the poison of liberalism into the state organism, its entire political complexion changed; the states became infected with a mortal disease, namely, the decomposition of the blood. IT IS ONLY NECESSARY TO AWAIT THE END OF THEIR AGONY.

... the constitution, as you well know, is nothing more than a school for dispute, discussion, disagreement, fruitless party agitation, dissention, party tendencies—in other words, a school for everything which weakens the efficiency of government.... A president chosen from the mob, from among our creatures, our slaves.

To accomplish our plan, we will engineer the election of presidents whose past record contains some hidden scandal, some "Panama"—then they will be FAITHFUL EXECUTORS OF OUR ORDERS FROM FEAR OF EXPOSURE, and from the natural desire of every man who has reached authority to retain the privileges, advantages and dignity connected with the position of president. The chamber of Deputies will elect, protect and screen the president, but we will deprive it of the right of initiating laws or of amending them, for THIS RIGHT WILL BE GRANTED BY US TO THE RESPONSIBLE PRESIDENT, A PUPPET IN OUR HANDS. ... We will justify this prerogative under the pretext that the president, as chief of the national army, must control it in order to protect the new republican constitution, which he, as a responsible representative of this constitution, is bound to defend.

... THE KEYS TO THE SHRINE WILL BE IN OUR HANDS...

We will also take away from the Chamber, with the introduction of the new republican constitution, the right of interpellation (questioning) in regard to governmental measures, under the pretext that political secrets must be preserved. WITH THE AID OF THIS NEW CONSTITUTION WE WILL REDUCE THE NUMBER OF REPRESENTATIVES TO THE MINIMUM, thus also reducing to the same extent political passions and passion for politics.

Moreover, the president, as chief executive, will have the right to CONVENE OR DISSOLVE PARLIAMENT, and in the case of dissolution, DEFER THE APPOINTMENT OF A NEW PARLIAMENT. ... Under our guidance the president will interpret in ambiguous ways such existing laws as it is possible to so interpret. Moreover, he will annul them when the need is pointed out to him by us; HE WILL ALSO HAVE THE RIGHT TO PROPOSE TEMPORARY LAWS AND EVEN MODIFICATION IN THE CONSTITUTIONAL WORK OF THE GOVERNMENT, alleging as the motive for so doing, the exigencies of the welfare of the country.

BY SUCH MEASURES WE WILL BE ABLE TO DESTROY GRADUALLY, STEP BY STEP, EVERYTHING THAT, UPON ENTERING INTO OUR RIGHTS, WE WERE OBLIGED TO INTRODUCE INTO GOVERNMENT CONSTITUTIONS AS A TRANSITION TO THE IMPERCEPTIBLE ABOLITION OF ALL CONSTITUTIONS, WHEN THE TIME COMES TO CONVERT ALL GOVERNMENTS INTO OUR AUTOCRACY.

But you know well that to render such a universal expression of desire possible, IT IS NECESSARY CONTINUOUSLY TO DISTURB THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE PEOPLE AND THE GOVERNMENT IN ALL COUNTRIES, AND SO TO EXHAUST EVERYBODY BY THE DISSENSION, INOCULATION OF DISEASES AND MISERY, AND TO MAKE THE GOYS SEE NO OTHER SOLUTION THAN AN APPEAL TO OUR MONEY AND COMPLETE RULE.

Should we give the people a rest, however, the longed for moment will probably never arrive.

PROTOCOL NO. XI

BY THESE MEASURES, I MEAN THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, THE RIGHT OF ASSEMBLY, RELIGIOUS FREEDOM, ELECTORAL RIGHTS, AND MANY OTHER THINGS WHICH MUST DISAPPEAR FROM THE HUMAN REPERTOIRE, OR MUST BE FUNDAMENTALLY ALTERED ON THE DAY FOLLOWING THE DECLARATION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

IT IS NECESSARY FOR US THAT, FROM THE FIRST MOMENT OF ITS PROCLAMATION, WHEN THE PEOPLE ARE STILL DUMFOUND BY THE ACCOMPLISHED REVOLUTION AND ARE IN A STATE OF TERROR AND SURPRISE, THEY SHOULD REALIZE WE ARE SO STRONG, SO INVULNERABLE, AND SO MIGHTY THAT WE SHALL IN NO CASE PAY ATTENTION TO THEM, AND NOT ONLY WILL WE IGNORE THEIR OPINIONS AND DESIRES, BUT BE READY TO AND CAPABLE OF SUPPRESSING AT ANY MOMENT OR PLACE ANY SIGN OF OPPOSITION WITH INDISPUTABLE AUTHORITY. WE SHALL WANT THE PEOPLE TO REALIZE THAT WE HAVE TAKEN AT ONCE EVERYTHING WE WANTED, AND THAT WE SHALL UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHARE OUR POWER WITH THEM. THEN THEY WILL CLOSE THEIR EYES TO EVERYTHING OUT OF FEAR AND WILL AWAIT FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.

The Goys are like a flock of sheep—we are wolves. Do you know what happens to sheep when wolves get into the fold?

They will also close their eyes to everything because we will PROMISE TO RETURN TO THEM ALL THEIR LIBERTIES after the enemies of peace have been subjugated and all the parties pacified.

Is it necessary to say how long they would have to wait for the return of their liberties?

Why have we conceived and inspired this policy for the Goys without giving them an opportunity to examine its inner meaning if not for the purpose of ATTAINING BY A CIRCUITOUS METHOD WHAT IS UNATTAINABLE FOR OUR SCATTERED RACE BY A DIRECT ROAD?

This constituted a base for our organization of secret Masonry which is not known to and whose aims are not even suspected by these cattle, the Goys. They have been decoyed by us into our numerous ostensible organizations, which appear to be Masonic Lodges, so as to DIVERT THE ATTENTION of their coreligionists.

GOD HAS GIVEN US, HIS CHOSEN PEOPLE, THE POWER TO SCATTER, AND WHAT TO ALL APPEARS TO BE OUR WEAKNESS, HAS PROVED TO BE OUR STRENGTH, AND HAS NOW BROUGHT US TO THE THRESHOLD OF UNIVERSAL RULE.

LITTLE REMAINS TO BE BUILT ON THESE FOUNDATIONS.

PROTOCOL NO. XII

Not one notice will be made public without our control. This is already being done by us, since the NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD IS RECEIVED THROUGH SEVERAL AGENCIES IN WHICH IT IS CENTRALIZED.

... we have already managed to subjugate the minds of the Goys to such an extent that almost ALL OF THEM SEE WORLD EVENTS THROUGH COLORED GLASSES WHICH WE PUT OVER THEIR EYES...

All our newspapers will represent different tendencies, namely, aristocratic, republican, revolutionary, even anarchistic, so long of course as the constitution lasts. Like the Indian God Vishnu, these periodicals will have one hundred arms, each of which will reach the pulse of every group of public opinion. When the pulse beats faster, these arms will guide opinion toward our aims, SINCE THE EXCITED PERSON LOSES THE POWER OF REASONING AND IS EASILY LED. Those fools who believe that they repeat the opinion expressed by the newspapers of their party will be repeating our opinions or those which we desire them to have. Imagining that they are following the press of their party, they will follow the flag which we will fly for them.

These attacks against us will also seem to CONVINCED THE PEOPLE THAT COMPLETE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS STILL EXISTS, and it will give our agents the opportunity to declare that the papers opposing us are mere wind-bags, since they are unable to find any real ground to refute our orders.

With such measures, thought will become an educational instrument in the hands of our government, which WILL NOT ALLOW THE PEOPLE TO BE LED ASTRAY into realms of fancy and dreams about beneficent progress.

We will surely conquer our enemies, because THEY WILL NOT HAVE THE PRESS AT THEIR DISPOSAL in which to express themselves in full. Moreover, with the above-mentioned plans against the press, we will not even need to refute them seriously.

PROTOCOL NO. XIII

The need of daily bread forces the Goys to silence and compels them to remain our obedient servants.

To prevent them from reaching any independent decisions, WE WILL DIVERT THEIR MINDS BY AMUSEMENTS, GAMES, PASTIMES, PASSIONS AND CULTURAL CENTERS FOR THE PUBLIC. WE WILL SOON BEGIN TO OFFER PRIZE CONTESTS... Such attractions will definitely deflect the mind from problems over which we would otherwise have to fight with the people. By losing more and more the custom of independent thought, they will begin to talk in unison with us, because we alone will provide new lines of thought through persons with whom, of course, we will presumably have no connection.

The role of liberal Utopians will be definitely terminated when our government is recognized. ... For it was by the word "progress" that we have successfully turned the brains of the stupid Goys. There are no brains among the Goys to realize that this word is but a cover for digression from the truth, unless it is applied to material inventions, since there is but one truth and there is no room for progress.

When our kingdom is established, our orators will discuss the great problems which have stirred humanity for the purpose of bringing it finally under our blessed rule.

WHO WILL THEN SUSPECT THAT ALL THESE PROBLEMS WERE INSTIGATED BY US, ACCORDING TO A POLITICAL PLAN WHICH HAS NOT BEEN DISCLOSED BY ANY ONE DURING SO MANY CENTURIES?

PROTOCOL NO. XIV

WHEN WE BECOME RULERS WE WILL NOT TOLERATE THE EXISTENCE OF ANY OTHER RELIGION EXCEPT OUR OWN, WHICH PROCLAIMS ONE GOD, WITH WHOM OUR FATE IS BOUND UP BECAUSE WE ARE THE CHOSEN PEOPLE, AND OUR FATE HAS DETERMINED THE FATE OF THE WORLD. FOR THIS REASON WE MUST DESTROY ALL OTHER RELIGIONS.

The benefits of peace, although attained through centuries of unrest, will serve to demonstrate the beneficial character of our rule. ... The useless changes of government, to which we ourselves prompted the Goys, when we were undermining their governmental apparatus, will become such a nuisance to the people by that time, that THEY WILL PREFER TO ENDURE ANYTHING FROM US RATHER THAN RISK A REPETITION OF FORMER UNREST AND HARDSHIPS.

Our philosophers will discuss all the shortcomings of the Goy religion, but nobody will ever discuss our religion IN THE LIGHT OF ITS TRUE ASPECT, AND NOBODY WILL EVER THOROUGHLY UNDERSTAND IT, except our own people, who will never dare to disclose its secrets.

PROTOCOL NO. XV

When we finally become rulers by means of revolutions, which will be arranged so that they shall take place simultaneously in all countries and immediately after all existing governments shall have been officially pronounced as incapable (which may not happen soon, perhaps not before a whole century), WE WILL SEE TO IT THAT NO PLOTS ARE HATCHED AGAINST US. TO EFFECT THIS, WE WILL KILL HEARTLESSLY ALL WHO TAKE UP ARMS AGAINST THE ESTABLISHMENT OF OUR RULE.

THE ESTABLISHMENT OF ANY NEW SECRET SOCIETY WILL BE MET BY THE DEATH PENALTY, and those societies which now exist and are known to us and either work or have worked for us, will be disbanded and their members exiled to continents far removed from Europe.

We will deal in the same manner with those Masons among the Goys who know too much.

This is only obtained by its majestic and unshakable power, which will convey the impression that it is inviolable BECAUSE OF ITS MYSTICAL NATURE, NAMELY, BECAUSE CHOSEN BY GOD. Such, until recently has been the Russian Autocracy—our ONLY DANGEROUS ENEMY throughout the world, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE POPE.

Meanwhile, until our rule is established, we, on the contrary, will organize and multiply free Masonic lodges in all the countries of the world. WE WILL ATTRACT TO THEM ALL THOSE WHO ARE AND WHO MAY BECOME PUBLIC-SPIRITED, because in these lodges will be the chief source of information and from them will emanate our influence. ... these lodges will be administered by our wise men.

You have no idea how easy it is to bring even the most intelligent Goys to a state of unconscious credulity... To the same extent as our people ignore success for the sake of carrying out their plans, so are the Goys ready to sacrifice all their plans for the sake of success. Their psychology makes the problem of direction easier for us. Those tigers in appearance have the souls of sheep and nonsense filters through their heads. As a hobby we have given them the dream of submerging human individualism through the symbolic idea of collectivism.

They have not yet discovered and will not discover that this hobby IS A CLEAR INFRINGEMENT ON THE PRINCIPAL LAW OF NATURE, WHICH, FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE WORLD, CREATED A BEING UNLIKE ALL OTHERS, PRECISELY FOR THE SAKE OF EXPRESSING HIS INDIVIDUALITY.

If we were able to lead them to such insane and blind beliefs, does it not obviously prove the low level of development of the Goy mind as compared to our mind? IT IS PRECISELY THE THING WHICH GUARANTEES OUR SUCCESS.

How far-sighted were our wise men of old when they said that to attain a serious object ONE MUST NOT STOP AT THE MEANS, NOR SHOULD ONE COUNT THE VICTIMS SACRIFICED TO THE CAUSE. We have not counted the victims from among the Goys, those seeds of cattle. Although we have sacrificed many of our own peoples, we have already given them in return a formerly undreamed-of position on Earth. THE COMPARATIVELY FEW VICTIMS FROM AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE HAVE SAVED OUR RACE FROM DESTRUCTION.

Death is the unavoidable end of all. IT WOULD BE BETTER TO ACCELERATE THIS END FOR THOSE WHO INTERFERE WITH OUR CAUSE THAN FOR OUR PEOPLE OR FOR US, OURSELVES, THE CREATORS OF THIS CAUSE, TO DIE. We kill Masons in such a way that none but the brothers suspect, not even the victims; they all die when it is necessary, apparently from a natural death.

... The purely animal mind of the Goys is incapable of analysis and observation...

It is through this difference in the process of reasoning between us and the Goys that it becomes possible clearly to demonstrate the stamp of God's elect as compared to the instinctive and bestial mentality of the Goys. They see, but they cannot foresee, and they cannot invent anything except material things. IT IS CLEAR, THEREFORE, THAT NATURE HERSELF INTENDED US TO RULE AND GUIDE THE WORLD.

OUR LAWS WILL BE SHORT, CLEAR, IRREVOCABLE, AND REQUIRING NO INTERPRETATION, so that everybody will be able to know them thoroughly. The chief point emphasized in them will be a HIGHLY DEVELOPED OBEDIENCE TO AUTHORITY, which will eliminate all abuses, for all without exception will be responsible before the supreme power vested in the highest authority.

For instance: Our judges will know that by attempting to show stupid mercy, they overstep the law of justice, which was created solely for exemplary punishment of crimes and not for the manifestation of moral qualities on the part of the judge. Such qualities are commendable in private, but not in public life, which constitutes the educational forum of human life.

... ALL THE WORLD'S MONEY WILL BE CONCENTRATED IN OUR HANDS; consequently, our government need not fear expense.

Our autocracy will be consistent in every respect, and consequently every manifestation of our great power will be respected and unconditionally obeyed.

Thus, they will become imbued with the idea that it is impossible for them to do without this guardian and guide if they wish to live in a world of peace and quiet. They will recognize the autocracy of our sovereign, whom they will respect and almost deify... With regard to the secrets of our political plans, BOTH THE MASSES AND THEIR ADMINISTRATION ARE LIKE LITTLE CHILDREN.

IT IS THE RIGHT OF THE STRONG TO UTILIZE HIS POWER IN ORDER TO LEAD HUMANITY TOWARDS A SOCIAL ORDER ESTABLISHED BY THE LAW OF NATURE, NAMELY, OBEDIENCE. ... Consequently, let us be the strongest for the common good.

WE MUST SACRIFICE WITHOUT HESITATION THOSE INDIVIDUALS WHO VIOLATE THE EXISTING ORDER, for in exemplary punishment of evil there lies a great educational process.

WHEN THE KING OF ISRAEL PLACES THE CROWN OFFERED TO HIM BY EUROPE ON HIS SACRED HEAD, HE WILL BECOME THE PATRIARCH OF THE WORLD. The necessary sacrifices made by him will never equal the number of victims sacrificed to the mania of greatness during the centuries of rivalry between the Goy governments.

Our sovereign will be in constant communication with the people, delivering from tribunes addresses which will be spread to all parts of the world.

PROTOCOL NO. XVI

It was necessary for us to infiltrate into their educational system such principles as have successfully broken down their social order.

We will obliterate from the memory of the people all those facts pertaining to former centuries which are not to our advantage, leaving only those which emphasize the mistakes of the Goy governments. THE STUDY OF PRACTICAL LIFE, OF OBLIGATORY SOCIAL ORDER, OF THE INTER-RELATIONSHIP OF HUMAN BEINGS, THE AVOIDANCE OF EVIL, EGOTISTICAL EXAMPLES THAT PLANT THE SEED OF EVIL, AND OTHER QUESTIONS OF A PEDAGOGICAL NATURE, WILL HEAD THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM. This program will differ for each caste, never allowing education to be of a uniform character. Such a system is of special importance.

EACH CASTE MUST BE EDUCATED WITH STRICT LIMITATIONS according to its particular occupation and the nature of the work. Accidental genius has always been able and always will be able to rise to a higher caste, but, for the sake of this rare exception, to open the door to the inefficient, and to admit them to higher castes or ranks, enabling them to occupy positions of others born and trained to fill them—is absolute insanity. You, yourself, know what happened to the Goys when they yielded to this nonsense.

... teachers will read supposedly unbiased lectures on problems of human relationship, on the law of imitation, on the cruelty of unrestricted competition, and finally, on new philosophical theories which have not yet been disclosed to the world.

In short, knowing from the experience of many centuries that MEN LIVE AND ARE GUIDED BY IDEAS, that these ideas are imbued only by means of education given to persons of all ages... WE WILL ABSORB AND APPROPRIATE TO OUR OWN ADVANTAGE THE LAST

TRACES OF INDEPENDENT THOUGHT, WHICH FOR A LONG TIME HAVE BEEN DIRECTED TO THE GOAL AND TO THE IDEAS NECESSARY TO US. THE SYSTEM OF ENSLAVING THOUGHT IS ALREADY IN ACTION THROUGH SO-CALLED VISUAL EDUCATION.

THIS SYSTEM TENDS TO TURN THE GOYS INTO THOUGHTLESS, OBEDIENT ANIMALS, EXPECTING TO SEE IN ORDER TO UNDERSTAND. In France, one of our best agents, Bourgeois, has already announced a new program of visual education.

PROTOCOL NO. XVII

Lawyers... will receive a salary, regardless of whether the defense has been successful or not.

... it is only a question of a few years before the complete collapse of Christendom. It will be still easier to deal with other religions, but it is too early to discuss this problem.

When the moment comes to ANNIHILATE THE VATICAN COMPLETELY, an invisible hand, pointing towards this court, will guide the masses in their assault.

The King of Israel will become the real Pope of the Universe, the Patriarch of the International Church.

According to our program, ONE-THIRD OF OUR SUBJECTS WILL WATCH THE OTHERS from a pure sense of duty, as volunteers for the government. Then it will not be considered disgraceful to be a spy and an informer; on the contrary, it will be regarded as praiseworthy. Unfounded reports, however, will be severely punished to prevent abuse of this privilege.

PROTOCOL NO. XVIII

We have forced the rulers to admit their own weakness by adopting open measure of police protection, and thereby we have ruined the prestige of their authority.

TO GUARD THE SOVEREIGN OPENLY IS EQUIVALENT TO AN ADMISSION OF THE WEAKNESS OF HIS GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATION.

We will arrest criminals upon the first more or less well founded suspicion.

PROTOCOL NO. XIX

Sedition is nothing but the barking of a lap dog at an elephant. From the point of view of the government which is well organized, not from the police standpoint but with regards to its social basis, the lap dog barks at the elephant because he does not realize his strength. It is only necessary for the elephant to show his strength once and the dog barks no more; he begins to wag his tail the moment he sees the elephant.

PROTOCOL NO. XX

... THE RESULT OF OUR ACTIONS IS MEASURED IN FIGURES.

In our government the sovereign will have the legal fiction of OWNING EVERYTHING IN HIS KINGDOM (which is easily put into practice), and can resort to LEGAL CONFISCATION OF ALL MONEY in order to regulate its circulation throughout the country. Consequently, the best method of taxation is the levying of a PROGRESSIVE TAX ON PROPERTY.

Progressive taxation, assessed according to the amount of capital, will produce a much greater revenue than the present system of taxing every one at an equal rate, which is useful to us now ONLY AS A MEANS OF EXCITING REVOLT AND DISCONTENT AMONG THE GOYS. The power of our sovereign will rest mainly in equilibrium and in guarantees of peace. ... Public needs must be met by those who can best afford to do so and by those from whom there is something to take.

Such a measure will eliminate the hatred of the poor towards the rich...

Even small sums in excess of a certain definite and broadly calculated fund, should not be allowed to be kept in the state treasury, because MONEY IS INTENDED TO CIRCULATE, and every impediment to circulation is detrimental to the governmental mechanism, which the money lubricates; the congestion of lubricating substances can stop the proper functioning of the mechanism.

THE ECONOMIC CRISES WERE CREATED BY US FOR THE GOYS ONLY BY THE WITHDRAWAL OF MONEY FROM CIRCULATION. Huge amounts of capital were kept idle and were taken away from the nations, which were thus compelled to apply to us for loans. Payment of interest on these loans burdened the state finances and made the states subservient to capital. The concentration of industry HAVING TAKEN PRODUCTION OUT OF THE HANDS OF THE ARTISAN AND PUT IT INTO THE HANDS OF CAPITALISTS, SUCKED ALL THE POWER OUT OF THE PEOPLE AND ALSO OUT OF THE STATE.

... SINCE WE TOOK AS MUCH GOLD AS POSSIBLE OUT OF CIRCULATION.

The budget of revenues and the budget of expenditures will be PLACED SIDE BY SIDE, in order that they may always be compared with each other.

THE PERIOD OF LOANS FOLLOWED AND... BROUGHT ALL THE GOY STATES TO BANKRUPTCY.

You can well understand that such a management of financial affairs as we induced the Goys to pursue cannot be adopted by us.

Indeed, what is a loan, especially a foreign loan, if not a leech?

SO LONG AS THE LOANS WERE DOMESTIC, THE GOYS ONLY SHIFTED THE MONEY FROM THE POCKETS OF THE POOR INTO THOSE OF THE RICH; BUT WHEN WE BRIBED THE PROPER PERSONS TO MAKE THE LOANS FOREIGN, THEN THE NATIONAL RICHES Poured INTO OUR HANDS AND ALL THE GOYS BEGAN TO PAY US THE TRIBUTE OF SUBJECTS.

... has forced their countries into debt to our banks to such an extent that THEY CAN NEVER PAY OFF THEIR DEBTS. It should be realized, however, that we have gone to great pains in order to bring about such a state of affairs.

THIS PROVES THE GENIUS OF OUR DISTINGUISHED MIND, for we were able to present the question of loans to them in such a light that they saw in loans an advantage for themselves.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO GOVERN WITHOUT A DEFINITE PLAN.

PROTOCOL NO. XXI

... we will also DESTROY ALL STOCK EXCHANGES, for we will not allow the prestige of our authority to be shaken by the shifting of the prices of our securities. We will fix the full price of their value legally without any possibility of its fluctuation. (A rise leads to a fall, and this was precisely what we did to the Goy stocks and bonds at the beginning.)

We will replace the stock exchanges by great government credit institutions... These institutions will be in a position to throw daily on the market 500,000,000 shares of industrial stocks, or to buy up a like amount. Thus all industrial enterprises will become dependent upon us. YOU CAN WELL IMAGINE WHAT POWER THAT WILL GIVE US.

PROTOCOL NO. XXII

In all that I have hitherto reported to you I have carefully tried to show you a true picture of the mystery of present events, as also of those of the past, which all flow into the stream of great events, the results of which will be seen in the near future. I have exposed our secret plans which govern our relations with the Goys, as well as our financial policy. There remains but little to add.

We hold in our hands the greatest modern power—gold. In the course of two days we can get it from our treasuries in any desired quantity.

Is there any more need for us to prove that our rule is decreed by God? DO WE NOT PROVE BY SUCH WEALTH THAT ALL THE EVIL WHICH WE WERE FORCED TO DO DURING SO MANY CENTURIES HAS SERVED IN THE END TO TRUE HAPPINESS—TO THE RESTORATION OF ORDER? ... We will be able to prove that we are benefactors, who have brought true welfare and individual freedom to the tortured world, insuring at the same time the possibility of enjoying peace, quiet, and dignity of relationships, UPON THE SOLE CONDITION, OF COURSE, THAT OBEDIENCE TO THE LAWS ESTABLISHED BY US IS PRACTICED.

Our power will be glorious because it will be mighty; it will rule and guide, and not helplessly crawl after leaders and orators, shouting insane words which they call great principles, and which in reality are simply Utopian. OUR POWER WILL LEAD TO ORDER, WHICH, IN TURN BRINGS HAPPINESS TO THE PEOPLE. The prestige of this power will excite mystical adoration, and the peoples will bow before it. TRUE POWER DOES NOT YIELD TO ANY RIGHT, EVEN BE IT THAT OF GOD. None will dare approach it in order to deprive it even of an atom of its might.

PROTOCOL NO. XXIII

To teach the people obedience they must be taught modesty, and to accomplish this THE PRODUCTION OF LUXURIES MUST BE LIMITED.

We will RESTORE HANDICRAFT, which will undermine the private capital of manufacturers... big manufacturers often influence... the thoughts of the people against the government.

A people, practicing handicraft, does not know what unemployment means, and this makes them cling to existing conditions and consequently to the power of authority. Unemployment is most dangerous for a government. IT WILL HAVE FINISHED ITS WORK FOR US AS SOON AS AUTHORITY FALLS INTO OUR HANDS.

DRUNKENNESS WILL ALSO BE FORBIDDEN BY LAW and will be punishable as a crime against human decency, for man becomes bestial under the influence of alcohol.

The sovereign who will replace the present existing governments... must destroy such a society, IF NECESSARY DROWN IT IN ITS OWN BLOOD, in order to resurrect it as a well-organized army, which consciously struggles against the infection of any anarchy affecting the state organism.

HE, GOD'S ELECT, IS CHOSEN FROM ABOVE FOR THE PURPOSE OF CRUSHING THE INSANE FORCES THAT ARE MOVED BY INSTINCT AND NOT BY INTELLECT, BY BESTIALITY AND NOT BY HUMANITARIANISM.

Then we will say to the peoples: "Pray to God and bow before him who bears the mark of predestination, to whom God Himself showed His Star, so that none but He Himself should free you from all sinful forces and from evil.

PROTOCOL NO. XXIV

A few members of the seed of David will train the sovereigns and their successors, who will be selected not by right of inheritance, but according to their personal ability.

ONLY THOSE OF AN UNDOUBTEDLY ABLE AND FIRM, EVEN CRUEL CHARACTER, WILL RECEIVE THE REINS OF GOVERNMENT FROM OUR WISE MEN.

Only the sovereign and his three sponsors will know the future.

Nobody will know the aims of the sovereign when he issues his orders, and thus nobody will dare oppose him.

Naturally, the mental capacity of the sovereign must be equal to the plan of rule herein contained. For this reason he will not mount the throne before a TEST OF HIS MIND is made by the above-mentioned Wise Men.

The King of Israel must not be influenced by his passions, especially by sensuality. No particular element of his nature must have the 'upper hand' and rule over his mind. SENSUALITY, MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE, UPSETS MENTAL ABILITY AND CLEARNESS OF VISION BY DEFLECTING THOUGHT TO THE WORST AND MOST BESTIAL SIDE OF HUMAN NATURE.

The Pillar of the Universe in the person of the World Ruler, sprung from the sacred seed of David, MUST SACRIFICE ALL PERSONAL DESIRES FOR THE BENEFIT OF HIS PEOPLE.

OUR SOVEREIGN MUST BE IRREPROACHABLE. [END OF QUOTING]

* * * * *

Now you who are in shocking disbelief, bear with me a bit longer. The entire text is over 63 pages in length—and that is just the summary of the main, detailed document which has not been seen outside the "privileged" circles.

Dharma asks, "But what of the Jewish people who live and work and dwell in all ways among us?" So be it, chela. Did you know all of this information? Neither do they!! The "ordinary" Jewish person will be sacrificed in the most outrageous manner. The Zionist Jews have more hatred for the "Jew" than all other beings on your placement placed in one lump anywhere or at any time. They are the tools of the teachings.

Who are Goys? Again I repeat for your memory prompting—they are ALL except the Zionists.

Frightening? I should certainly hope so, beloved chelas. It is a good time to use your earthly phrase: "If you aren't in a panic; you don't understand the situation!"

Dharma, please close this portion and print it. Let us then check on the time and desires of the group and we may or may not finish with THE SECRET NEW CONSTITUTION summary today. It has been far too long a work period so we will look carefully at timing.

CHAPTER 19

REC #3 HATONN

SUN., OCT. 14, 1990 3:20 P.M. YEAR 4 DAY 59

AND NOW, TODAY

Let us finish this Express and Journal Chapter with current circumstance. There is great misunderstanding regarding Jews, Zionists, U.S. Nationalism and anti-Semitism, or, any other anti-anything.

DEFINITION: ZIONISM

Zionism is a secular political movement dedicated to the establishment of a Jewish state. It seeks to transform religious hopes and the yearning for individual freedom into a nationalistic political program. Not until the first Zionist Congress in 1897 did Theodor Herzl call for a "legally secured Jewish home in Palestine." Zionism uses the mask of religion to hide its blatant nationalism, racism and atheistic philosophy. (Doesn't sound like Father Joseph's or Mother Mary's Jewish children to me!)

MEDDLING

Meddling can easily trigger NUCLEAR HOLOCAUST! And YOU, AMERICA—ARE MEDDLING BEYOND YOUR DEPTH TO CONTROL.

Actually, since the U.S. abandoned her traditional nationalism and intervened in a European war and turned it into World War I, hundreds of thousands of young American service people have died in needless foreign wars.

It is imperative that the U.S. return to the old Monroe Doctrine in which you tolerated no European or Asian domination of any nation—IN YOUR HEMISPHERE. It is equally imperative that you observe ALL OF THE MONROE DOCTRINE, in which you pledged not to intervene in quarrels outside the Western Hemisphere.

Unless your leaders are forced to return to sanity, the world will be goaded into a devastating World War III. The greatest, most effective means the internationalists use to promote U.S. intervention in the volatile Middle East is the charge of "anti-Semitism" to those who oppose using American tax dollars to support Israeli aggression and oppression. You have developments unfolding this very day which prove the point.

Israel, on the yesterday, said they would not fight a UN force moving into Jerusalem to investigate Monday's fray. Now, today, they refuse any cooperation and denounce any such move and will effort at preventing any such group from entering. What does that tell you, America? Does it not say loudly and clearly that there is evil afoot? If you have nothing to hide from the world, then why all this objection to finding truth. Surely, if the Palestinians were the culprits, they would quickly be denounced as usual! No, the group will find foundation stones for the "new temple" and exclusion of the Palestinian worshippers from their Holy places—through intensified force!

Some of the "natural" incidents you are undergoing in America is to bring the Bush administration under control in an all-out effort to bring the Israelis under control—for if this is not done within mere days, that massive war will be underway!

RELIGIOUS AND HISTORICAL MYTHS

Americans today are confused by various religious and historical myths that surround the question of the formation and destiny of the so-called "republic" of Israel. Uninformed so-called "Christians" believe that Zionism is a "religious" movement, instead of a political one.

The gravest confusion exists in the realm of the political, however. The philosophy of internationalism, which has been assiduously inculcated into the minds of two generations of Americans by a veritable army of well-financed brainwashers who aim to bring about a world of perpetual peace through perpetual war, has unfortunately been absorbed even by millions of Americans who consider themselves patriots—this certainly includes Jewish persons, perhaps to an even greater extent than others.

Most Americans seem subconsciously to believe that ANY FIGHT ANYWHERE in the world between two groups justifies your nation's immediate intervention, the appropriation of millions or billions of dollars and the raising of an army to bring "peace" to the afflicted area.

Only a very tiny few Americans ever stop to think that there are at least three sides to any quarrel of foreigners—there is one side to each of the antagonists and also the American side. And contrary to the naive and childish internationalist idea that wars are fought between the "good" and the "evil", as Spinoza once said, they are fought between two "right" sides.

The question that America should answer when viewing the differences of others is not "Which side is right?" and "Which side should America take?" but "What are the interests of America?!"

As simple and as self-evident as this is, the thought is totally alien to most Americans—and particularly to your political leaders.

I will briefly herein touch on a few points which shall be enlarged upon in a future presentation allowing more space for publication.

Could you, for a minute, forget everything except being "American"? If you are of another country—pretend for this moment that you are American. Consider the Mideast problem from an unabashedly America-First standpoint, as peculiar and unpopular as such a position may be with the false patriots and the corrupt who deliberately strive to use the power of the American people for alien ends and their own personal profit.

The question you must attempt to answer is not, "Are the Jews or the Arabs (in this instance, Iraq) right?" but rather, "What is to America's best interest?" Now you must also realize that oil, to the citizen of the U.S., is not short of supply nor should there be outrageous prices, for you have abundant supplies of oil both stored and unproduced domestically.

Readers will note that the above means what it says, as the writer herein does not mistake the interests of say, Standard Oil, for the national interest of America, and consider that anyone who would contemplate war for the purpose of protecting the profits of a few stateless international financiers and stockholders is unworthy of serious refutation.

Although the judgments in this instance appear to be harsher against Israel and international Zionism than against the Iraqis, the reader is respectfully reminded that if he wishes to know the pro-Israel viewpoint, all he has to do is to turn on his television set, buy a newspaper or contact his nearest politician.

The state of Israel is purely the product of the political machinations of one political group—the Zionists—made up largely of atheistic self-proclaimed and false Jews. You find the Zionists trying to involve the U.S. of America in their feud with the Arabs at every time—which involvement is over land which has been stolen by the Zionists.

Let us contrast the "traditional" basis of American foreign policy in rejecting "entangling alliances with foreign powers" and the political, economic and military disasters that have always resulted when this historic principle of non-intervention (neutrality) has been forgotten or ignored. You are going to really have to reach back a long way for this one.

If America is to avoid being swept into the maelstrom of a nuclear confrontation in the Middle East and a resulting world war that would destroy all the fruits of Western culture and civilization, you must stand firm for a policy of neutrality and non-involvement in the Middle East and demand a return of your soldiers, equipment and all fragments thereof—HOME TO AMERICA!

Historians have already pointed out quite sufficiently that American intervention in the affairs of Europe in 1917 only created new problems for America. That, dear ones who don't remember, was the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia. Within only a couple of decades, the fruits of the Versailles Treaty were harvested: World War II. By secret planning of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and England's Prime Minister Winston S. Churchill, the U.S. experienced its greatest military disaster at Pearl Harbor, which led to your involvement once again in the ancient quarrels of other nations.

Yet, in spite of the sacrifice of thousands of American youth and the expenditure of billions of the taxpayers' money, no lasting accomplishment came out of the two world wars, as I am sure any of you can take note.

Thousands of American soldiers, almost forgotten, still patrol the uneasy border between South and North Korea. An uneasy truce, constantly being violated, reflects the failure to secure convincing victory either on the military or diplomatic fronts. Again, the violation of your policy of neutrality led to the needless death of countless American youths. Some of these soldiers still are POW's and, beloved chelas, a great number of them are in SOVIET PRISONS IN RUSSIA AT THIS VERY TIME. Your intervention in Asian affairs has led to the upsetting of the subtle balance of power in Asia and has given the Soviet Empire the excuse for formation of the strongest military force in world history to protect its Asian empire from American encroachment.

Now you had better take a closer look at that which is taking place through China at the present time, for it is far more important than you can imagine. CHINA IS BEGINNING A VAST EXPLORATION OF THE ANTARCTIC!! NOW JUST WHY DO YOU SUPPOSE THEY WOULD BE DOING SUCH A THING?

Your retreat from Vietnam, after the expenditure of more than 50,000 lives and hundreds of billions of dollars, constituted the first military defeat for the U.S. Although your troops were finally out, the war-torn peninsula remained aflame with intense conflict. Your intervention in Vietnam was a crime, not only to all Vietnamese but to yourselves, and the significance of your shameful defeat is not even vaguely understood by Americans. You have left yourselves open to be actually invaded by these Viet-Cong right into and up through your southern border with Mexico. Further, your government is indeed over its head into the Opium trade from out of the Asian Golden Triangle.

Your misadventure in Vietnam is categorical in its proof of the total irresponsibility and stupidity of the internationalist policy of “perpetual war for perpetual peace”, which you have followed since the days of poor foolish puppet Woodrow Wilson.

It is clearly established, by all these lessons of the past and present, that American involvement in the affairs of foreign nations is a costly and useless exercise in meddling.

Americans must examine carefully the unending propaganda of the Zionists, in the press, on the air and especially on the floor of Congress. Able exponents of Zionist schemes to entangle you in the quarrels and feuds of the Mideast forget their roles as “doves of peace” in the Vietnam conflict, and raise their shrill “war-hawk” cries for intervention in the Arab-Israeli conflict.

With Zionists in control of the American press, radio and TV, the flood of advocates for American intervention are selling the American public a false religious-political sentimentality that, “Israel is God’s chosen nation—you must save it!” Oh, perish the thought!

If your people and leaders ignore the lessons of the past and involve you in the angers and hates of the Mideast, then will come the most horrible nuclear holocaust and the death of the world you have known and presumably loved.

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Your examination of American diplomatic history must begin at least as far back as Washington’s Farewell Address of 1796, wherein he admonished your young country to guard against foreign entanglements. “It is our true policy”, declared George Washington, “to steer clear of permanent alliances with any portion of the foreign world—so far, I mean, as we are now at liberty to do it.”

This policy of avoiding entanglements and maintaining neutrality in the Washington presidential tradition was solidified in Thomas Jefferson’s first inaugural address, in which the new president supported the non-interventionist policy of Washington. Jefferson counseled his fellow citizens to enjoy “peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations, and entangling alliances with NONE.”

Washington’s great rule found further expression in the Monroe Doctrine, enunciated by President James Monroe in 1823. All Americans know that the chief executive here declared that the Western Hemisphere was the specific interest of the U.S. and that the nations of Europe and Asia were to keep out of the Western Hemisphere in terms of military adventure or conquest. You further guaranteed the safety and preservation of these nations within your Western Hemisphere’s geographical area—you most certainly did not promise to invade them as with Panama.

What many forget over and over, is that Monroe added another guarantee, namely: “As long as the other nations of the world respect our area of influence in the Western Hemisphere, we acknowledge that we have no MORAL right to interfere with the extensions of power by other nations in the other areas of the world.” Thus, President Monroe sharply delineated his understanding of the moral basis for Washington’s neutrality policy. It may come as a surprise to many misinformed Americans to learn that the Monroe Doctrine is a two-way street.

As long as your leaders were firm in supporting this doctrine, other nations respected it and observed its restrictions. In 1866, the Monroe Doctrine was invoked to oppose the intervention of France in Mexico, which had as its object the establishment of the Archduke Maximilian as Mexico’s emperor. Again, in the late 1860s, President Ulysses Grant broadened the doctrine to forbid the transfer of European territory in the New World from one European power to another.

In 1905, Teddy Roosevelt added what was to become known as the Roosevelt Corollary to the Monroe Doctrine. President Roosevelt expounded the principle that “chronic wrongdoing, or an impotence resulting in the general loosening of the ties of civilized society on the part of a country in the Western Hemisphere, might require the U.S. to exercise an international police power.”

Roosevelt’s forceful declaration was generated by the situation in Latin America and the Caribbean area, where the navies of the British and German empires were setting up blockades of the Venezuelan coast.

The Pan American Conference of 1940 reasserted that no country in the New World could be transferred from one power to another, and the U.S. was authorized to act unilaterally in an emergency to enforce this principle.

One more example of this application of the Monroe Doctrine occurred in 1962, when President John F. Kennedy instituted a naval blockade around Cuba and announced a “naval quarantine of the island”. After secret negotiations and an agreement, not yet made public, between the president and the leaders of the Kremlin, the missiles were “officially removed” from Cuba.

Your last foray in the New World under the Monroe Doctrine was in 1965, when U.S. Marines were sent into the Dominican Republic to quell a communist-inspired revolution.

After reading this profile of Washington’s and Jefferson’s advice to stay clear of involvement with foreign nations outside the Western Hemisphere, it is valid to pause and ask how you slipped up and permitted yourselves to become involved in two world wars and several “local wars”—set forth by Executive Order and never declared valid by your Congress.

Again, a review of history is requisite to a full comprehension of both of these twin disasters and the conspiratorial webs that ensnared your government. Though Americans claim to detest war, you have lost hundreds of thousands of your fighting men in both world wars in the effort to “make the world ‘SAFE FOR DEMOCRACY’”.

The critical question must arise: “Why did America permit itself to be baited into these terrible wars?” Most Americans remain woefully uninformed as to the whys and wherefors of the maneuvering that surreptitiously nudged the United States of America into those holocausts.

PLANNED SECRET PATH TO WORLD WAR I

In 1916, the political parties of the U.S. sensed the mood of the electorate as calling for neutrality. The majority of citizens felt the quarrels of Europe were their own family affairs over there. Woodrow Wilson, hypocritically, was running as the candidate who “kept us out of war”. The Republican platform also called for a “strict and honest neutrality in the European war”. The Democratic platform condemned the efforts of every organization “that has for its object the advancement of the interest of a foreign power”.

Then, on January 22, 1917, President Wilson told the Congress: “We do not desire any hostile conflict with the Imperial German government; we are the sincere friends of the German people and earnestly desire to remain at peace with the government that speaks for them.”

While the American people were thus lulled into the belief that both political parties were “peace parties”, already, hidden events were pushing Wilson toward a warlike position.

MENTIONING THE UNMENTIONABLE

As one traces American steps of intervention toward both World Wars, historians find it essential to examine the part which Zionism has played in getting Americans to fight European wars and then expose the real political objectives of the Zionists.

When one attempts to point out the part played by Zionists in getting you into war, the cry is immediately made that “You are anti-Semitic”. This, many times, frightens the unsuspecting historian and closes his inquiry into this important aspect of political life—which is exactly that which it is created to perfect.

Oddly enough, one can successfully speak of German history without being branded anti-German; one can discuss the Irish, the Poles or Italians, without fear of reprisal. But let one discuss the origins of the present Arab-Israeli conflicts and—unless the Jews are cast in nothing but the most glowing terms—the “anti-Semitic” charge springs forward like some reflex, calculated to intimidate and gag any concessions on behalf of the Arabs.

Yet, you cannot trace American intervention in World War I and your abandonment of Gen. Washington’s injunction “to avoid permanent alliances” without examining Zionism and its role in pushing the U.S. into war. So, without apology, we must trace the steps by which Zionists have pushed “gentile” nations into bitter conflict with other “gentile” nations, in order for the Zionist nation to rise triumphant out of the discord and ruins of the goyim nations.

ZIONISM IS NOT JUDAISM!

Zionism is an unknown quantity to most people; but one fact must be made unmistakably clear, and that is that Zionism IS NOT JUDAISM, NOR IS IT JEWRY. ZIONISM IS AN INTERNATIONAL AND CULTURAL SCHEME TO ESTABLISH A JEWISH HOMELAND IN WHAT WAS FORMERLY KNOWN AS PALESTINE AND IS NOW ISRAEL!

Zionism was founded not by Abraham or Moses, but by Theodor Herzl, a Hungarian journalist, in 1897. Herzl was Jewish, but there are many non-Jewish Zionists and many Jewish non-Zionists.

There was only one small and inconvenient difficulty with Herzl’s dream of setting up this Zionist homeland in Palestine: 93 percent of its inhabitants were Arabs, and this had been historically true for 19 centuries. It is true that more than 3,000 years ago the area was INVADED AND CONQUERED BY BANDS OF HEBREWS AND A “MIXED MULTITUDE” OF OTHERS, but the blood relationship between these Biblical peoples and modern Jews, after more than a hundred generations, is most faint indeed—and that is to say the very least.

Dharma, allow us to close this portion lest the Express gain the length of a Journal in one issue. We shall finish this dissertation in the following Express. This is the most important fact about your modern day circumstances; more important than is any other. Until next time, I ask blessings upon you all and may God be thine shield. DEMOCRACY FOR DESPOTS?

DEMOCRACY BUDS IN AN UNLIKELY PLACE: THE UN

By R.C. Longworth, Tribune, 10/27/02

Who would have thought it? Who would have predicted that the United Nations—that much-abused and often-ignored wind tunnel on the East River—would become this autumn the most important political forum on the planet, a place where the world's only superpower must pay court to the votes of the world?

Yet that is what is happening, as the Bush administration struggles to persuade the rest of the world, and particularly its fellow members of the Security Council, to give it permission to make war on Iraq.

It's not really global democracy, but it's looking like the first glimmerings of it. The administration, having gotten its war bill past the elected senators and representatives in Washington, has found that it must now win over the governments of the other nations, many of them also popularly elected.

The U.S. government is trying to do this with reasoned arguments, veiled threats, backroom arm-twisting and promises of favors—just the way it won the vote in Congress. If it loses, it can still go to war on its own, but only at a high political price.

Being a superpower isn't supposed to be this complicated, or this confining.

President Bush's new national security strategy, issued last month, warned that "we will not hesitate to act alone, if necessary" to counter threats. But having won the political battle at home, Bush finds himself in a tougher battle at the UN. He might not win and, if he doesn't, he may find that his ability to act alone is a lot more limited than he thought it was.

Call it The Revenge of The Rest. ...

The world has never had to cope with a nation as strong as the United States is now. Reports from overseas say that other countries, friends as well as foes, are worried, even frightened, by this overwhelming power and not at all reassured that the Bush administration knows how to handle it.

Thus, the search has been on to find some way to put some international limits on this 800-pound gorilla. The United Nations may be the answer.

Oddly enough, the American people had a voice in this event and may cheer on the result.

Two months ago, the administration appeared ready to attack Iraq on its own, possibly with allies like Britain but without any UN approval. This was an administration, after all, that had scorned the UN and other international political organizations, like the International Criminal Court. It argued that other nations were like Lilliputians who would use international rules and regulations to tie down the American Gulliver.

British Prime Minister Tony Blair, Bush's closest ally, had been using his access to the White House to push Bush toward a UN resolution, to counter political opposition to the war within Britain. Vice President Dick Cheney, on a Middle East swing, was told by the rulers there that they could not support a unilateral attack on Iraq without risking uprisings by their people. ...

Clearly, the administration had a political problem. A unilateral attack, especially if it went wrong, could produce a regime change in Washington as well as Baghdad.

Bush, bowing to this pressure, went to the United Nations with a speech that called for Iraqi disarmament and an attack if President Saddam Hussein refused. He warned the UN that its credibility was at stake if it let Hussein continue to flout past UN resolutions on weapons inspections.

For many in the administration, it was a galling mission. Undersecretary of State John Bolton, a leading hawk, had been quoted in the New York Review of Books as saying that "there is no such thing as the United Nations. There is an international community that can be led by the only real power left in the world, and that is the United States, when it suits our interests and when we can get others to go along."

This was not an administration that was used to going to the UN hat in hand, begging for approval. Bush expected the UN to "go along" and more or less demanded it. But others were searching for ways to restrain Bush as well as Hussein.

Their attitude was summed up by a former European ambassador to Washington who told Clyde Prestowitz, president of the Economic Strategy Institute, that, in its domestic politics, Americans "have the wonderful system of checks and balances that gives all concerned an ability to influence the outcome. But in foreign policy... many of us who will be deeply affected [by American policy] have no opportunity even to make our voice heard, let alone to influence anything."

These non-Americans were looking for some global checks and balances, and Bush's approach to the UN seems to have provided that. ...

If the world's most powerful nation is to be kept from wielding unlimited power, some global institution must exist to provide the checks and balances. Suddenly, the UN is it.

Nothing was more unexpected. Any strong institution—national or international—needs the legitimacy that comes from the respect and consent of the people who live under it. The United Nations, which turned 57 last Thursday, has a history of debate and posturing, with forays into peacekeeping and nation-building that have been only sporadically successful.

The United States mostly has treated the UN as an impediment or an irrelevancy and has taken it seriously only when it wanted the Security Council to countersign some American action, like the Gulf War in 1991. This was what Bush had in mind. The last thing he expected was that his UN speech would help create a global democracy able to modify or even control U.S. power.

But that seems to be what is happening. Why?

One reason is that most of the world thinks the Bush policy toward Iraq is misguided, if not mad, and desperately wants to halt it. Another, no doubt, is the new respect for the organization won by its secretary general, Kofi Annan, who has become the most admired and effective UN leader since Dag Hammarskjöld.

The real reason probably lies in the world's realization that, while the U.S. usually can be counted on to do the right thing, its overwhelming power is a danger. No nation—not China nor Russia nor even a bloc of nations like the European Union—can challenge this American power. The only place for an effective challenge is the UN.

Bush gave the UN, and especially its Security Council members, that chance.

If they succeed, global politics will never be the same. [JR: The power of the U.S. has become a flash point of concern for the global community. We have underlings in the State Dept. like war hawk John Bolton making statements as to our invincible powers around the world. Bolton's pomposity only adds to the concerns of other nations the fact that our government is out of control and is now overrun by individuals who have assumed powers they should not and do not have. We can only turn our focus and our thoughts that the UN's resolution will change global politics not according to how the U.S. sees it or declares it to be, but according to what the world agrees to and pronounces it should be.]

OPPOSITION OVER IRAQ TAKES RISE VIA THE NET

By Farah Stockman, Boston Globe, 10/14/2002

"As Congress prepared to pass a resolution authorizing the use of force against Iraq last week, college campuses were quiet and just a few dozen peace demonstrators stood with signs outside Senator John Kerry's Boston office.

Yet on Amy Hendrickson's computer, a movement was brewing. "I get 600 e-mails a day," said Hendrickson, a Brookline software consultant who works from home. "These days, I spend 10 to 12 hours a day on the computer."

When tens of thousands of people came out on Oct. 6 to protest U.S. policy on Iraq, the seeds of action had been sown not on college campuses, which had their own, much smaller protests last Monday, but on the computer desktops of people like Hendrickson, 58. From her living room, she helped organize simultaneous protests in 14 countries, including Japan, Bangladesh, Germany, Austria, Australia, India and Nepal.

This year, for the first time since the advent of the Internet, Americans are engaging in public debate about whether to go to war, and a great deal of the opposition has coalesced online. The ease of electronic communication allows like-minded people to sign petitions and coordinate protests far more easily than they could in the 1960s, or even a decade ago during the Gulf War. But it also raises a question: Can a movement with no physical center and no pen-and-ink signatures really have a political impact? ...

She got a message back from Not In Our Name, a New York-based peace group that asked her to get the word out in Boston about the Oct. 6 protest.

Not In Our Name is, in many ways, typical of the groups protesting the White House stance on Iraq. Formed eight months ago by veteran peace activists worried about the direction the war on terror was taking, it gained sudden momentum when the Bush administration turned its attention to Saddam Hussein. The group picked up celebrity endorsements from actress Susan Sarandon, radio emcee Casey Kasem, hip-hop musician Mos Def, playwright Tony Kushner, and authors Alice Walker and Kurt Vonnegut, among others, who signed a call to resist the government's policy of "military coercion" and published it in a full-page advertisement in the New York Times. ...

On her own, she decided to send more than 1,000 e-mails to peace groups she found on the Internet around the world, inviting them to demonstrate alongside protesters in the United States by holding protests outside U.S. embassies at noon. People at Not In Our Name discouraged her, Hendrickson said, saying the group wanted to focus on Americans.

But she pressed on anyway, with e-mails that suggested slogans and possible demands on the U.S. government, as well as a copy of Not In Our Name's resistance pledge, which is translated into 12 languages on the group's Website. "Help launch the first World Wide Peace Demonstration!" she wrote, calling on them to "protest current U.S. policies".

A few days later, the first message came back, from Dhaka, Bangladesh.

"They said, 'We'll be demonstrating with you,'" she said. "That first [e-mail response] was a hell of a kick."

Next came a missive from Nepal. "Dear Peacefriends," it read. Then Manila ("Dear comrades") and Berlin ("Hi peace-loving Americans!") and "Hello from Helsinki, Finland."

In all, people in more than 14 cities wrote back that, "in groups" large and small, they had demonstrated. Some sent e-mail pictures to prove it.

"Part of the promise of the Net is that people can communicate unmediated," Hendrickson said. "It's people to people, not from one government to the other.”...

[JR: Having strong beliefs and convictions are the building blocks that enable one person to act to do something in order to make a difference. Connections are made and a movement begins to grow and take form and gradually it stretches across the globe and reaches others of like mind. It also informs others that Americans are for peace and that we are aware of the dangerous road our government is leading us on. The communication between peoples on a global magnitude is a perfect example of CREATING!]

“IRAQ ISN’T THE ONLY WAR SHAPING UP IN THE MIDDLE EAST”

By Marc Sirois, YellowTimes.org, 10/14/02

A new crisis is brewing along the border between Israel and Lebanon, but this one is not about Lebanese guerrillas fighting the occupation of Lebanese land or even about Palestinian guerrillas crossing the frontier to fight the occupation of Palestinian land. It is about water.

The Council for the South, an official Lebanese body tasked with helping spread development to impoverished southern Lebanon, has installed a pump at the Wazzani Springs, which feed into the Hasbani River, itself a tributary of the Jordan, which empties into the Sea of Galilee (aka as Israelis as the Kinneret, and to Arabs as Lake Tiberias). In response, Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon has threatened military action to prevent what he and other officials in the Jewish state ludicrously describe as the theft of their water.

The facts of the case are clear. The water source in question is part of the Jordan system, which is an international one, so Israel has every right to ensure that its rights are not abrogated. But what Lebanon proposes to do is entirely within its own rights, as laid down by the 1955 Johnston Agreement. That pact was never ratified by the governments in question—those of Lebanon, Israel, Syria, and Jordan—but it was signed by technical teams from all four and actually granted the lion’s share of the water to the Jewish state.

Lebanon was accorded an annual take of 35 million cubic meters (mcm). Seeing as how the Lebanese government had no access to the area between 1978 and 2000 owing to Israeli occupation, the amount of water its citizens were able to draw was strictly limited. Today it stands at just 7 mcm, and the new facility will increase that to just 10 mcm. An Israeli academic recently inflated the figure to 15 mcm, but even that would be well within the limits established by the Johnston deal.

The U.S. government has sent experts to examine the site, and their findings have led the State Department to counsel “restraint” by both sides. The problem, of course, is that for Lebanon, “restraint” means refraining from legitimate efforts to provide water to parched villages. For Israel, it means not bombing the property of a neighboring state as punishment for simply making use of its own resources.

As usual, an unfair status quo that benefits Israel is regarded as sacrosanct by Washington. Imagine what the State Department’s message would have been if the experts had concluded that Lebanon was acting improperly.

I would let this particular manifestation of the usual double standard speak for itself, but Israeli temerity and American duplicity go even further in this instance than is usually the case. The Israelis, you see, do not simply wait for Wazzani water to find its way to them via the Hasbani and the Jordan: They actually still have a pump on Lebanon’s side of the border, within spitting distance of the equipment installed by the Council for the South.

Some say that if and when the Lebanese facility starts running, its location will dry up the pool from which the Israeli pump draws water. That would certainly inconvenience Israel, but it is hardly, as Sharon and others have claimed, a casus belli. The Israeli installation is a relic of the occupation and has no business being there in the first place.

The last thing Washington wants is a flareup on Israel’s northern border just as George W. Bush tries to gain at least a modicum of Arab acceptance for a war against Iraq. The past few months have taught that Bush lacks the brass to keep Sharon in line, so even a minor skirmish over Wazzani threatens to explode into a full-blown clash that might rival or even surpass the infamous bloodletting sparked by Israel’s 1996 “Grapes of Wrath” offensive.

Hizbullah, the organization that dogged Israeli occupation forces until they finally left in 2000, has warned in no uncertain terms that if the Israelis knock out the Wazzani site, retaliation will ensue. For example, an Israeli juice plant sits within a few hundred yards of the border, well within the range of even Hizbullah’s smaller weapons. It has been mentioned as a possible target if Israel destroys the new pump.

If experience were any guide, such a move would then prompt Israel to up the ante by launching air strikes against bridges, power stations, and possibly major water facilities in other parts of Lebanon.

Israeli warplanes can operate with impunity in Lebanon, whose air force consists of a few antiquated Iroquois helicopters (yes, the “Hueys” that were so ubiquitous in Vietnam). The government that sends them to wreak havoc on this tiny nation should not fool itself, however, into thinking that it can do so without paying some sort of price itself. Hizbullah has a crude but effective arsenal of Katyusha rockets which, when launched in mass salvos, can inflict significant damage.

What Sharon would do in response after a shower of fifty to two hundred of these projectiles is anybody’s guess, but it is reasonable to assume that he would not be overly concerned about civilian casualties on this side of the border.

There might then be yet another Hizbullah riposte, etc., etc., ad nauseam.

All of this is to say that whatever “loss” Israel claims it would sustain by “allowing” Lebanon to exercise its legal rights, it can only be multiplied by taking military action. The Lebanese will undoubtedly suffer more, but that will not alter the fact that Israelis will be subjected to wholly unnecessary hardships brought about solely by their own government’s refusal to behave in a civilized manner.

Critics of Beirut’s position complain that its timing was calculated to box the Israelis in, i.e. to take advantage of U.S. pressure on the Jewish state to avoid hostilities during the run-up to Iraq. Frankly, that is entirely possible.

It is also, however, utterly irrelevant. When and how a particular nation-state chooses to avail itself more fully of its own under-utilized resources is a matter for its own government to decide. That process should not have to take place under ominous threat from an aggressive neighbor.

[JR: The long-awaited Wazzani pumping project was officially inaugurated Wednesday 10/16/02 in a ceremony attended by a number of top officials, including President Emile Lahoud. Lahoud’s surprise presence however, was due to the decision by U.S. Embassy officials to boycott the ceremony, but was attended by representatives from the UN, the EU and various embassies. The U.S. Embassy explained its decision in a statement protesting Lebanon’s “failure” to inform third parties that it intended to carry out the project. All embassies were aware of this “water project” and it didn’t happen overnight, but unless they get special permission from these “third parties”, meaning Israel and the U.S., I guess it just isn’t Kosher and is considered anti-Semitic. It was stated that the U.S. Embassy’s decision was “in keeping with our position that unilateral action by either party undermines efforts to reach an understanding,” the statement said. “We very much want the dispute to be solved peacefully and fairly. To that end we continue to work closely with the governments of Lebanon and Israel in conjunction with the UN, the EU and others.” Ugh... gag—I feel nauseated.]

ISRAEL’S GOVERNMENT FALLS APART
LABOR MINISTERS WALK OUT
OVER FUNDING FOR SETTLEMENTS

By Christine Spolar, Tribune, 10/31/02

JERUSALEM—Defense Minister Benjamin Ben Eliezer resigned abruptly Wednesday during contentious budget talks, triggering a collapse of Prime Minister Ariel Sharon’s “unity” government and setting the stage for possible early elections.

Ben Eliezer’s resignation prompted other key Labor ministers to resign as well, including Foreign Minister Shimon Peres, who called the situation “a crisis”.

The showdown came over Sharon’s budget, with Labor demanding that $147 million be cut from the government support of Jewish settlements in the West Bank and Gaza Strip. Ben Eliezer argued that the money should be spent on pensioners and the poor, but he also suggested that funding the settlements was part of a military solution that, so far, had not brought peace to Israel.

The fate of Sharon’s government remained unclear Wednesday. In the next few days, Sharon could try to fashion a slim new majority with some small right-wing parties, or forge ahead with a more vulnerable minority government. ...

The budget passed, by a 67-45 vote, after a messy, daylong political drama in the Knesset chambers. The Knesset still must approve the budget two more times before final acceptance.

Legislators heckled both Sharon and Ben Eliezer as they made last-minute appeals. Sharon, who had drawn attorneys and business leaders into the budget talks in an unusual attempt to save the coalition, vowed that he would continue “to lead the state responsibly”.

“At this fateful hour, with the eyes of the world upon us, what is required of all of us in the coalition is to vote for the budget,” said Sharon, who days earlier had threatened to dismiss any Cabinet member who opposed him on the budget. ...

Sharon also pointed out that the debate over settlement money came a day after a Palestinian gunman infiltrated a settlement in the northern West Bank and killed two girls and a woman before being shot dead by Israeli soldiers.

The $147 million in question is less than one-third of 1 percent of the overall budget.

Israel has faced a budget squeeze over the past year as military incursions across the West Bank and the Gaza Strip have sapped its resources and an economic downturn has boosted the jobless rate. ...

[JR: Crisis or not, Sharon has the reigns of government before new elections are held in nine months. The Zionists both in the Likud and Labor Party are united even in their so-called disunity. The war will go on and so will the new settlements no matter who is in power. The real crisis for Israel would be if by some miracle the U.S. was forced to withdraw its financial and military support. That would happen when we all wake up to the fact that Israel and not Iraq is the world’s number-one threat.]

U.S. OFFERS ISRAEL AID PACKAGE AS SHIELD

Dawn.com, 10/21/02

AL QUDS (AFP)—The United States has offered Israel a huge aid package to shield its economy from the fallout of any military action against Iraq, a senior official revealed Monday as a Tel Aviv daily spoke of a request for loan guarantees totaling 10 billion dollars.

“The Americans have proposed a large aid package to allow the Israeli economy to weather the blow of a U.S. strike on Iraq,” the top official told AFP, asking not to be identified.

The offer was made during Prime Minister Ariel Sharon’s visit to Washington last week, he said.

It is being considered by Israeli experts, who are keen to revive an economy already reeling from the twin blows of the two-year-old Palestinian uprising and a slump in its key hi-tech industries.

“We’re basically talking about credit guarantees and soft loans to stimulate a return of foreign investment to Israel, help relaunch a string of projects and strengthen our credibility in overseas financial markets,” the official said.

After his talks with Sharon last Wednesday, U.S. President George W. Bush told a joint news conference that he understood the high price that Israel was paying for Palestinian “terrorism” but remained convinced of Israel’s enormous economic potential.

More than a decade ago, the United States offered Israel a huge package of soft loans to help the integration of a million immigrants from the former Soviet Union, but then the aid was made conditional on it not being used in the Palestinian territories.

The liberal broadsheet Haaretz said Israel had set up an inter-ministerial committee headed by Sharon’s chief of staff Dov Weissglass and including officials from the Treasury and the defence ministry to discuss how large a package to press for.

The committee was holding out for a total package of 10 billion dollars, including soft loans as well as loan guarantees, the paper said.

It also wanted Washington to allow the 2.1 billion dollars in military aid which it currently gives Israel each year to spend in the Jewish state instead of the United States.

[JR: Well the U.S. is Zionist Israel’s BIG piggy bank. If you believe that Israel is obligated to pay back one cent on these loans (let alone any interest), there is some prime property to sell to you in the Gaza or West Bank overlooking the Mediterranean. Sharon is confident that we will always cave in to Israeli demands and follow his commands because he knows that Israel now has full control of the U.S. government. Sharon, in a showing of contemptuous arrogance, made this declaration in an interview in May of this year. While on his latest visit here Sharon gave very high praise to Pres. Bush and his administration for doing more for Israel than any other President or past administration. Now, if that doesn’t shatter your illusions about how vulnerable the state of Israel isn’t, nothing will. America is now run like the autocratic state of Israel and Americans are classified as second-class citizens just like the Palestinians. Israel along with Britain and a few so-called Iraqi dissidents will make up the U.S. coalition that Bush hinted about when moaning about the UN’s inaction over Iraq. No one has dared make mention of exactly how much this war will cost us along with the handouts to Israel as well as its effect on our economy and the jobless rate. The spin will be that America will benefit from the new oil companies that the Bush Cartel will create and because of this there is really no need to consider the horrendous price that will be paid by the Iraqi people.]

ISRAEL SEES ‘MAJOR’ PROBLEMS IN PEACE PLAN

By Christine Spola, Tribune, 10/24/02

JERUSALEM—U.S. special envoy Williams Burns arrived in Israel on Wednesday as the government of Prime Minister Ariel Sharon made clear that a diplomat-brokered “road map for peace” between Palestinians and Israelis was unacceptable.

Sharon, in his first public reference to the plan crafted by the so-called quartet of U.S., European Union, United Nations and Russian diplomats, reportedly told a visiting delegation from the Anti-Defamation League on Tuesday night that the plan lacked credibility and veered too far from the hard-line vision President George Bush voiced in a June 24 speech.

Throughout the day Wednesday, Sharon advisers took to the state and army radio airwaves to voice reservations about the peace plan that was formally presented to Sharon last week in Washington.

Even Foreign Minister Shimon Peres, who supports settlement with Palestinians, cast doubts on the proposal after Burns delivered the details in talks Wednesday.

“I believe the fact there is a road map should be welcomed. I think a great deal of thought was invested in the road map [but] there are major, many problems as well,” Peres told reporters, with Burns at his side.

The plan, according to those familiar with its main points, would demand Israel loosen restrictions on Palestinian territories, end military “provocations” in Gaza and the West Bank, and look toward dismantling settlements in the Palestinian territories.

Palestinians are called on to unequivocally renounce terrorist acts, call for an end to the two-year uprising, or intifada, and begin to seriously institute reforms throughout the Palestinian Authority, including establishment of a prime minister.

Cabinet minister Reuven Rivlin, a close adviser to Sharon, said in pointed remarks Wednesday afternoon on Israel Radio that Israel was open to U.S. efforts in the region but had no special commitment to European or UN plans for resolving the strife between Palestinians and Israelis.

“People are viewing the plan as something the Americans have signed off on to placate the Europeans as a way to get into Iraq,” said one knowledgeable source, referring to the Bush administration efforts to garner international support against Iraqi President Saddam Hussein. “But it doesn’t call for new [Palestinian] leadership like the Bush speech did and it doesn’t demand a full-stop to terror.”

Burns, an assistant secretary of state, has been traveling throughout the Middle East this week in a mediation effort to quell Israeli-Palestinian violence as the Bush administration pushes for possible military confrontation with Iraq over its weapons programs. Burns, from all reports, was aiming to bolster confidence in the diplomats’ proposal.

Burns’ mission began as Israeli society, still reeling from a gruesome, fiery bus bomb this week, was shaken by another deep, unexpected security threat. State-run radio and television broadcasts Wednesday afternoon revealed that a high-ranking military commander had been arrested for spying on behalf of the Lebanese terror group Hezbollah.

[JR: The recommendations that would have lessened the hostilities and would have been a first step towards peace have been—and with deliberation—solidly rejected by Israel. Israel is unwilling to ease off on her provocative actions in the Gaza and West Bank nor is she willing to suspend her terrorization of innocent Palestinian civilians. You can bet that it is written in stone that the Zionists will never ever consider withdrawing from any of the illegal settlements Israel has continuously built. Pres. Bush has reinforced Israel’s position with his hard-line speeches favoring Israel while refusing to mediate on the Palestinian issues. This in effect has nullified any attempts from outsiders like the UN or the EU to effect any changes in Israel or the Middle East. Israel will remain adamant and steadfast until the hell she has made freezes over. This may have been a “road map” towards peace but Israel has made deadly sure it leads to a dead end. Israel and the U.S. are going through the motions for peace while all the while planning for wars.]

U.S. WARNED INDONESIA OF TERROR THREAT

By Michael Sheridan, Sunday Times of London, 10/14/02

The United States ambassador to Jakarta, Ralph Boyce, had warned the Indonesian government only a few days before the blasts in Bali that unless it acted against terrorist groups posing a threat to westerners, America would begin to withdraw its diplomatic staff.

Last night those terrorists appeared to have struck at one of the most vulnerable and valuable targets in the country in a night of carnage on the paradise island of Bali, Indonesia’s main source of tourist revenue.

The attacks will be a shattering blow to the “island of the gods”, which draws visitors from all over the world to experience mellow, exotic beauty and colourful Hindu traditions amid the world’s most populous Muslim nation. ...

The island has little security and is open to anyone seeking to strike soft targets as it gears up for an influx of tens of thousands of Christmas tourists from Australia, Europe, the United States and Japan.

Western intelligence officials have been arguing for more than a month with their Indonesian counterparts for action after the capture in west Java of a senior al-Qaida terrorist, Omar Al-Faruq, whose leaked confessions described plans to attack local targets.

The CIA had even presented Indonesian officials with evidence of an al-Qaida plot to assassinate President Megawati Sukarnoputri.

But U.S. and British officials have openly admitted their frustration as the Indonesians failed to arrest individuals they believe are directly involved in planning and committing terrorism.

Megawati’s government is a coalition dependent on the support of Islamic religious parties and she fears a backlash from Muslim activists who are trying to wreak havoc in a nation that has a long tradition of religious harmony.

Last night’s explosions are likely to force the government to confront its most radical opponents or risk the destruction of a multi-million-pound tourist industry that is one of the country’s few resources after the Asian financial crash and the chaotic overthrow of its longtime dictator, General Suharto, in 1998.

Indonesia boasts a bewildering proliferation of groups competing for hardline Islamic support, including a murderous militia called Laskar Jihad, which has used ethnic cleansing methods to expel Christians from the Spice Islands.

But Western officials have identified one group, Jamaah Islamiyah, as the most credible terrorist threat following a visit to its leaders two years ago by Osama bin Laden’s second-in-command, Ayman al-Zawahiri.

They have singled out a firebrand cleric, Abu Bakar Ba’asyir, as the spiritual guide of the group. In two recent interviews with The Sunday Times, Ba’asyir denied any connections to terrorism, although he vowed to go on preaching that Muslims had a duty to use violence in a just religious cause.

Ba’asyir, 65, has been linked to al-Qaida in a series of leaked CIA documents and in statements by security officials in the U.S. and Singapore. Both countries have demanded, in vain, that Indonesia detain him.

A defiant Ba’asyir filed lawsuits in a Jakarta court for defamation against the CIA and Time magazine, which printed details of the allegations.

The accusations are partly based on an alleged confession by Al-Faruq, a 31-year-old Kuwaiti said to be an emissary of al-Qaida in southeast Asia.

Indonesian security agents, acting on a tip-off from the CIA, arrested Al-Faruq in west Java last June. Three months later, the CIA interrogators are said to have broken Al-Faruq’s resistance and extracted testimony against Ba’asyir.

After the Indonesians complained that they had received nothing in exchange for their assistance, the Americans handed over the dossier and demanded they arrest Ba’asyir.

[JR: The U.S. is keen to place blame on the Indonesian government for not acting on our warnings of a possible terrorist attack. Tragedies are often allowed to happen because they are useful in gaining a political advantage or are part of a political agenda. It would have been reassuring for the victims and the firemen who were sacrificed on 9/11 as well as their grieving families, had our government heeded the warnings in August from both Russia and France that might have prevented a 9/11. You could also question Sir Powell why the Defense Dept. on May 8th gave the Taliban in Afghanistan $43 million to buy their cooperation for our oil pipeline project, and why in July 2001 we had a meeting in Berlin planning to coordinate the war in Afghanistan. Our aim in Indonesia is to gain the support of a government that is in control of the world's most populous Muslim nation of 220 million people. What resources does Indonesia have that the Bush oil cartel wants to control? I don't think the U.S. is acting out of any great concerns over how terrorism will effect the U.S. and foreign tourist trade to the exotic island of Bali, but is evaluating how cooperative and responsive Pres. Megawati and her government is to our ardent and duplicitous proposals.]

IRELAND VOTES YES TO EUROPE

Observer—UK, 10/20/02

As Irish voters ratify the Nice Treaty at second attempt, Henry McDonald says the vote will have major implications for Eastern Europe, but also for Irish politics north and south of the border.

Ireland opened the door today to the EU for nearly a hundred million Eastern Europeans by voting to endorse the Nice Treaty at the second attempt.

Millions who used to live under communism before 1989 from the Baltic to the Black Sea now have the right to join one of the richest clubs on the planet. Approval by the Irish has cleared the last roadblock to their ambitions to enter the EU.

Romano Prodi, the European Commission President, said Ireland had given a "green light" to EU enlargement.

The Nice Treaty on EU enlargement has been accepted by Irish voters, with a Yes vote of 62.8 percent. The total turnout was 48.45 percent.

Bertie Ahern, the Taoiseach (Prime Minister) declared victory in mid afternoon claiming the difficulties of the last Nice referendum had been overcome. Ahern said Ireland had rejected "the eurosceptic option". ...

All the major parties in the Irish parliament (Dail Eireann) had supported a Yes vote along with the employers' organisations, the Irish Congress of Trade Unions and the Irish Farmers Association. The treaty was opposed by a broad coalition ranging from the Marxist hard left to the Catholic far right and encompassed Sinn Fein and the Green Party.

By four o'clock today the results from 40 out of the 42 constituencies across the Irish Republic had been counted. Out of a total of 1,381, 205 votes cast, 865,835 voted Yes to Nice while 510,265 voted No.

The No vote was strongest in conservative, rural parts of Ireland. The highest recorded No vote being Donegal North East where 47.5 percent voted against Nice. In contrast the constituency with the highest Yes vote is also regarded as the most liberal in Ireland—Dun Laoghaire, south of Dublin, where 73.3 percent voted Yes.

Opponents of the Nice Treaty claimed the Yes vote was a reluctant one from people who felt control ebbing away from them. The leader of the Irish Green Party Trevor Sargent said Irish neutrality would still be an issue despite today's vote. The Greens and their allies had claimed that endorsing Nice would lead to Ireland joining the proposed European Rapid Reaction Force.

Left-wing Socialist TD (Irish MP) Joe Higgins put the Yes victory down in part to the spending power of the pro-Nice lobby. Higgins said there was "disparity" between the money spent by the two sides in the referendum. ...

Victory has secured Bertie Ahern's position as Prime Minister for the next few years. Battered by a series of scandals involving former colleagues accused of corruption, unpopular cuts in health and education hidden from the public during the June general election and the debacle over his pet project, Stadium Ireland, Ahern was in danger of facing a rebellion on the back benches. Had he have lost the referendum the clamour for Ahern to be replaced would have become louder within the ruling Fianna Fail party. Ahern is now safe at least until local and European elections in 2004.

One politician north of the border who will breathe a sigh of relief will be Ulster Unionist leader David Trimble. The outgoing First Minister of Northern Ireland has established a friendly rapport with Ahern and has expressed concern recently that the Irish Premier was in danger of being toppled in an internal party coup.

Defeat for the No campaign is also the first setback for Sinn Fein in Irish electoral politics since the 1997 IRA ceasefire. Up until today the IRA's political allies have been on a roll with their support growing on both sides of the border. The party invested heavily in the No campaign being one of the most active groups to fight against the Nice treaty.

As the Republic draws even closer to Europe the vote will also precipitate the move towards economic integration on the island of Ireland. Unlike the Republic Northern Ireland is still outside the Euro zone. However, businesses and consumers in large parts of the North use both the Euro and Sterling in the daily transactions. Even in Belfast—under the shadow of the City Hall, a symbol of unionist power where the Union Jack still flies—several ATMs dispense Euros alongside Sterling. By tying itself closer to Brussels, Berlin and Bratislava today, Dublin may have also helped to move closer to Belfast.

[JR: The Irish Yes vote was bought with the infusion of money and foreign investments infused into the economies of the big cities like Dublin, where the power is centered. The question is how long can this booming economy be sustained now that Ireland has become an insignificant member of the EU? This is the BIG net the Elite use to catch the smaller fish to get them into their murky pool of power. Politician Bernie Ahern has always maintained a close and amiable working relationship with the British even during Ireland's worst crisis. This has made him a powerful player and influence in politics and also in the future course of Irish history. It is likely that the "time of the troubles" is not over for Ireland. Peace and unification is not likely to come on the current winds of change. The politicians of Ireland have traded in what little freedom they had under their English masters and have handed it over to their new masters, the EU.]

THE MEDIA'S WHITEWASH OF THE BELTWAY SNIPER

By Jennifer King, The American Partisan, 10/25/02

Ballistics experts and eyewitnesses have agreed, and it looks as though Maryland's Police Chief Charles Moose has successfully nabbed his man. Suspected serial sniper John Allen Muhammad has been caught redhanded, with the rifle, a scope and alterations to his auto which effectively turned it into a shooting blind.

This irrefutable and damning evidence has put the major media in an unenviable position, considering their not-so-secret longing for another Timothy McVeigh.

By now, even the most casual peruser of the news has discerned that suspect Muhammad is Black, thus defying 95% of the Cable News' so-called "experts" who had confidently predicted that the shooter would be an angry White gun nut. Thus flummoxed, the media next flailed about searching for another favored target on which to pin the blame.

Defense Secretary Rumsfeld was incredulous when asked—twice, by different reporters—if the U.S. military "felt" responsible for the Beltway shootings, because of the perp's prior Army career.

The media's PC obsession and their slavish loyalty to absurd mischaracterization has once more blinded them to the real story, which is found in Muhammad's last name. Mr. Muhammad, who was Mr. Williams until the year 2000, has an interesting record, to say the least. According to certain bias news reports, Mr. Muhammad provided a security detail for Louis Farrakhan, during the 1995 so-called "Million Man March", which was immediately and openly denied on TV by Farrakhan.

Acquaintances have also come forward to report that Mr. Muhammad, a recent convert to Islam, was known for his anti-American, pro-terrorist rhetoric and that he always seemed to have a ready supply of cash despite living in a homeless shelter. The director of that shelter, the Lighthouse Mission, even reported Muhammad's oddities to the FBI.

The major media ignores inconvenient facts, which don't fit into their worldview—even if they are reported on by others. ...

Mohammad's "stepson", Lee Malvo, who was caught with him, is an illegal alien from Jamaica. Jamaica is also the home of Sheikh Abdullah al-Faisal, reported to be al-Qaida's number two recruiter. The links are intriguing, but blithely ignored.

Outside the hallowed halls of mainstream media punditry, many regular Americans speculated that the Beltway sniper was, indeed, linked to terrorism.

What better way to terrorize people than to gun them down while they were performing innocent everyday tasks like gassing the car and mowing the lawn?

He showed no bigotry, murdering men, women, Black, Latino and White alike. He even tried—and nearly succeeded—in killing a child, and he threatened to kill many more.

This sniper, like other terrorists, was focused solely and determinedly on his hatred of all Americans. Most likely, like them, he also considers himself as acting upon orders from God.

On September 12th, we thought the world had changed and for many of us it did. The media and the Left, however, are still dreamily ensconced in their world—where it's always September 10th. ... Mr. Muhammad terrorizes Washington and we're supposed to understand his rage.

Since the 1970's, Islamofascists have been behind most acts of terrorism.

They are uniformly Muslim, and usually ethnic. For the media, whose demons are White and Christian, this is intolerable. Therefore, these inconvenient facts are ignored like the proverbial elephant in the living room or the unseemly belch by a dinner guest which everyone politely pretends didn't happen.

Americans, however, for the most part are pragmatic realists. We realize we now have a serious Fifth Column problem, even if the media doesn't. ...

[JR: There were many Muslims marching in solidarity with fellow Americans in the demonstrations in cities across the U.S. against this war on Iraq. I also watched as a distinguished-looking representative of American Muslims was interviewed by a foxy young Black girl on FOX News, Sunday (10/27). After he defended the position of millions of American Muslims in response to this "Muslim" D.C. Sniper, this Black girl, looking very serious, then pressed the usual extremist question to him. "But aren't there many radical Islamists out there?" He politely said, what THEY do is against our Koran and true Muslims won't have anything to do with them and God WILL punish them. I was surprised he didn't take the opportunity to say: "This suspected serial sniper, John Allen (Williams) Muhammad was also Black." Should that make all Blacks become suspect as terrorist? I can just imagine what the reaction of this young "Black" girl would have been since she was trying so hard to negate his defense of faithful American Muslims.]

MIDEAST CONFLICT BOOSTS TENSIONS
AT U.S. COLLEGES

By Ron Grossman, Tribune, 10/17/02

When the University of Chicago brought in counselors from the Anti-Defamation League this fall to train dormitory advisers in sensitivity to ethnic and religious minorities, it was one of many signs that another front in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict has opened on America's college campuses.

The highly unusual move came after allegations that supporters of Israel had been harassed on the Chicago campus and reflects similar concerns reported by Jewish students and professors nationwide. Meanwhile, some scholars of the Islamic world said they also have become targets of intimidation.

Although most of the skirmishes have been rhetorical rather than physical, university leaders are increasingly concerned that the Middle East has become such a bitterly charged topic that legitimate debate is distorted or stifled, poisoning the academic environment.

Last week, more than 300 college and university presidents issued a statement through the American Jewish Committee saying they feared that hostility over Israel threatened to erode the tradition of classroom civility and rational discourse upon which scholarship and learning depend.

Indeed, on one North American campus, the subject virtually has been put off limits.

Former Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu was to speak at Concordia University in Montreal on Sept. 9, but his appearance was canceled after several thousand pro-Palestinian demonstrators laid siege to the lecture hall. Tear gas was used to subdue protesters who broke windows and stormed the building, and a number of students were arrested.

Declaring that the university needed a cooling-off period, Rector Frederick Lowy proclaimed a moratorium on events relating to the Middle East, including "public speeches, rallies, exhibits and information tables."

The university presidents' statement expressed concern over how Jewish students and supporters of Israel have been treated in recent months, citing various threats and defacement of property.

On the University of Colorado's Boulder campus, for example, a sukkah, or festive holiday booth, set up by the Jewish student organization Hillel, was defaced with swastikas. Anti-Semitic graffiti were scribbled on a Jewish fraternity house.

But the leaders also said something more insidious is occurring.

"We are concerned that recent examples of classroom and on-campus debate have crossed the line into intimidation and hatred, neither of which have any place on university campuses," the statement said.

At Harvard University this fall, President Lawrence Summers publicly noted that professors and students have a perfect right to question Israel's policies. Discussing thorny issues, after all, is at the heart of what universities are about.

But too often, he said, that criticism is now betraying simple prejudice. "Profoundly anti-Israel views are increasingly finding support in progressive intellectual communities," Summers said.

Jewish student activists said the kind of campus climate Summers described—which includes growing demands that universities divest their portfolios of financial holdings in Israel—has made them pariahs while silencing others. ...

The Council on American-Islamic Relations said it has received relatively few allegations—about a dozen—of discrimination against Muslim students and professors in the last year. One student at Central Missouri State University alleged that after a heated classroom exchange, a university administrator called the Muslim student "un-American".

But John Woods, director of the Center for Middle Eastern Studies at the University of Chicago, said some Jewish activists have unfairly targeted scholars, assuming that someone who studies Arabic is automatically anti-Israel and potentially anti-Semitic.

Woods particularly objects to the Web site www.campus-watch.org, where scholars who back Israel have posted notices since September about professors and university departments considered anti-Israel. Thinking the enterprise smacks of McCarthyism, Woods recently sent an e-mail alerting colleagues to what he considers an intimidation campaign.

Amy Newhall, executive director of the Middle East Studies Association, noted that Campus Watch urges students to report on their professors, potentially discouraging lecturers from talking freely—especially those not protected by tenure.

"Now, professors have to worry that someone is secretly monitoring them," Newhall said.

Campus conflict over the Middle East began to worsen toward the end of the previous academic year. In May, when the Hillel chapter at San Francisco State University attempted to hold a peace demonstration, San Francisco police officers had to escort Jewish students off campus after a threatening crowd surrounded them. A similar clash at the University of California at Berkeley, on Holocaust Remembrance Day, led to the arrest of 79 pro-Palestinian demonstrators.

The Berkeley administration also felt obliged to take a hand in the case of a controversial freshman course offering, "English 1A: The Politics and Poetics of Palestinian Resistance." The last line in the course description read, "Conservative thinkers are encouraged to seek other sections"—implying that dissent from a pro-Palestinian position would not be tolerated.

The English department later acknowledged "a lapse in oversight of its reading and composition courses", and the university stressed that students are not excluded from any courses on the basis of political persuasion.

Some Jewish student activists at the University of Chicago alleged that a similar pro-Palestinian, anti-Israeli bias has crept into course offerings there. They said the university doesn't offer a course in the history of Israel, which, they said, only shows up as a "problem" in courses dealing with other Middle Eastern countries. ...

When an alumnus took the issue to the administration, Provost Richard Saller took a hands-off approach. "The university's long-standing policy does not call for the central administration to take an active role in presenting different views for the sake of balance," he wrote in a letter.

Halper and other student activists also presented a list of other complaints, which prompted the invitation to the Anti-Defamation League to offer sensitivity training. Yet Saller said only a few of the students' allegations could be substantiated. ...

[JR: If there is an issue worth bolstering, why resort to exaggerations, accusations and censure when confronted with an opposing point of view? The Jewish students are simply reacting to criticisms. They could enlighten us all on our own misconceptions by presenting us with their own points of view, and not parrot the usual Zionist rhetoric with rallying cries of Anti-Semitism. The ADL's involvement to train dorm advisers in so-called "sensitivity training" is solely to bolster the Jewish students resolve, and to recruit them in their crusades for preservation. The ADL's presence on the campuses is not to diffuse but to elevate the discord through the process of targeting and intimidation. The issues need to be discussed by both sides so that a common denominator can be found and we can begin the work to put an end to the endless cycle of dissensions and wars. We need to emphasize our similarities and not focus so much on what divides us. It has to begin somewhere so why not on the campuses and in the supposedly higher halls of learning.]

NORTH KOREA CLAIMS RIGHT TO DEVELOP NUCLEAR WEAPONS

Straits Times, 11/01/02

MOSCOW (AFP, AP)—North Korea has a right to develop nuclear and other weapons of mass destruction because of the United States threat to its sovereignty, Pyongyang's ambassador to Moscow said yesterday in the first firm defence of the communist state's clandestine military programme.

But Mr. Pak Hui Chun denied that North Korea was actually developing a nuclear arsenal, calling such accusations from the U.S. "groundless".

"We unambiguously told the U.S. presidential special envoy that, facing a growing nuclear threat from the U.S., we have the right to possess not only nuclear, but even more powerful, weapons in order to defend our sovereignty and the right to survive," news agencies quoted Mr. Pak as saying.

"If the U.S. tries to crush us with tough policy, we will retaliate to this with super toughness," he said in a rare appearance before Russian reporters.

On a softer note, he said North Korea preferred to resolve the conflict "through talks, not deterrence".

Meanwhile, a South Korean official said the foreign ministers of the U.S., Japan and South Korea would meet in Seoul this month, on the sidelines of an international meeting on democracy, to discuss Pyongyang's nuclear weapons programme.

N. KOREA PRESENTS UNPLEASANT CHOICES

By Steve Chapman, Tribune, 10/20/02

Flush with our victory in Afghanistan, poised to invade and occupy Iraq, the United States bestrides the globe like a colossus. But Gulliver was big too, and he found that Lilliputians could be a great hindrance. We are now learning that lesson from a primitive Stalinist backwater with a puny economy and just 21 million people.

The North Korean government recently surprised the Bush administration by admitting it has pursued nuclear weapons in violation of a 1994 agreement. The administration was not surprised by the program, which it had detected and brought up with the North Koreans—only by their candor about what they had done. They acknowledged having "other more powerful things as well", reported the New York Times, which apparently means chemical or biological weapons.

As if this distraction from Iraq weren't enough, U.S. intelligence officials say the supplier of technology for the nuclear program was our cherished ally in the war on terror: Pakistan. The administration is justifying an invasion of Iraq to prevent nuclear proliferation—while forging close ties with a dictator who helps our enemies get doomsday weapons.

What the North Koreans are up to is a puzzle. The admission could be taken as a warning of the consequences we can expect if we deal with them the way we propose to deal with Saddam Hussein. But some experts think the North Koreans were coming clean as a step toward abandoning their program—if they can get something in return.

At the moment, though, no one in Washington is very interested in bartering. The Bush administration pronounced the death of the 1994 deal, which obligated the U.S. and other countries to provide North Korea with fuel oil and help in building two nuclear reactors. ...

Punishing Pyongyang through diplomatic isolation and economic sanctions sounds like a great idea until you remember that we tried that approach for 40 years. What did we get? The same nuclear weapons program that the 1994 agreement was intended to extinguish. Kim Jong Il's government has proven quite able to endure pariah status and a starving population when it has to.

The Iraq formula—using military force to remove a hostile government—is out of the question. To begin with, North Korea has a large army, and it could inflict catastrophic damage on Seoul, a city of 10 million in artillery range of the Demilitarized Zone. We could win a war on the peninsula, but only at an intolerable price.

That's without even taking into account any weapons of mass destruction the North Koreans may have. The CIA says they probably produced one or two nuclear weapons before accepting the 1994 deal.

South Korea and Japan see no real alternative to negotiation, which has already led to improvement of relations between those two countries and North Korea. But it's hard to hold out great hope for a process that Pyongyang has badly discredited.

So what does that leave? Accepting something—a nuclear North Korea—that we may not be able to change. It's not as though Kim Jong Il can use nukes for any aggressive purpose, since doing so would mean total destruction. Our conventional forces and nuclear arsenal are perfectly capable of containing North Korea in the future, just as they have in the past.

But this latest development ought to remind Americans that even the world's only superpower can be stymied. Many nations have powerful incentives to acquire nuclear weapons and—as Iraq, Pakistan and North Korea have demonstrated—they are willing to pay a high price to do so.

Nukes, after all, are the best way to assure a government's survival. The only reason we can plan on invading Iraq and toppling Saddam Hussein is that he hasn't gotten those weapons yet. Any government that has serious disagreements with the U.S.—and particularly any on our “axis of evil”—knows that if we can decide who rules Iraq, we may later decide who rules other nations. There is only one protection: going nuclear.

The Bush administration has big plans for remaking the world to suit its preferences. We shouldn't be surprised if some countries will do everything they can to resist those plans, and we shouldn't be surprised if some succeed.

[JR: It would seem that the North Korean government is the little mouse that has startled the Republican Hannibals with their admission that despite their signed agreement with the Clintonites in 1994, they went ahead with their own development of a nuclear weapons program. To make matters worse they succeeded in attaining the cooperation from our closest ally in our war against terrorism, PAKISTAN! So now the big question is just who can the U.S. really trust as an ally? This is the dilemma that the Bush Administration is forced to deal with. The U.S. can be greatly faulted for making it our primary policy to flaunt our own weapons of mass destruction to intimidate other countries. It was to be expected that other countries would feel the necessity to build their own weapon systems for their own protection. The Bush Administration has, if anything, succeeded in engaging the whole world in another arms race. The U.S. is now seen as an aggressor and a major threat to the sovereignty of every country. North Korea has cleverly chosen this point in time to show us up and to prove to the rest of the world that we can be vulnerable in imposing and enforcing U.S. demands on others. That is the problem that the hawks in Washington now have to deal with.]

PAIN KILLER

The maker of Tylenol will finally have to admit that it is a dangerous drug

After 25 years of study a Food and Drug Administration advisory panel decided last week to recommend that acetaminophen, the active ingredient in Tylenol, America's most popular non-prescription drug should carry an explicit label warning about potential liver damage. “You cannot allow more innocent men, women and children to suffer,” said Kate Trunk at the FDA hearing before the advisory panel's vote. Her son recently died from liver disease after taking an acetaminophen drug after injuring his wrist.

Even the possibility that a problem exists in acetaminophen came as a shock to many Americans, 55 million of whom use Tylenol each year. Johnson and Johnson, a big drugs company, made Tylenol into a huge success with advertising campaigns boasting, “Nothing's safer”. ...

But while J&J was quick to address external threats it only grudgingly faced up to problems with acetaminophen itself. The distinction between a safe and a harmful dosage is particularly narrow and it can be toxic in relatively small quantities. According to documents that emerged in lawsuits J&J was aware that explicit health warning would damage TYLENOL sales. Perhaps not coincidentally, its labels in most cases bear no reference to the potential harm in taking acetaminophen.

Each year there are 56,000 emergency room visits because of acetaminophen overdoses and 100 fatalities, says the FDA. According to William Lee of the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Centre, acetaminophen is the leading cause of acute liver failure. In a recent FDA study of patients with liver damage linked to acetaminophen, 20% had used less than the recommended daily dosage.

Yet Tylenol-related lawsuits have rarely succeeded. It is difficult to link cause and effect definitely in a medical case. Many people use the drug without problems. Often J&J has in effect argued that the victim could not prove that the recommended dose had been precisely followed. ...

[JR: However, the FDA tried in 1977, 1988 and 1993 to force a warning on the label but each time was defeated by TYLENOL's lobbying. Acetaminophen also is known as paracetamol and N-acetyl-p-aminophenol (APAP). Acetaminophen is the most widely used pharmaceutical analgesic and antipyretic agent in the United States and the world; it is contained in more than 100 products. As such, acetaminophen is one of the most common pharmaceuticals associated with both intentional and accidental poisoning. “In the US: Acetaminophen or APAP is one of the most common agents in overdose reported to the American Association of Poison Control Centers. APAP toxicity is the most common cause of hepatic failure requiring liver transplantation in the United States and Great Britain” (emedicine.com). What you don't know can and often does hurt you but the big boys want to keep you ignorant. Never mind the side effects, if it works and it makes J&J billions then it is good—for them—NOT US!]

THE CARNIVAL By Peggy from AZ

[JR: Here is another beautiful insight from a dear friend.]

The group stood... ready to set off for Yosemite almost a continent away.

They had heard about the long, plummeting cascades of white water spraying wide in abandon over the land's edge as if learning to fly, and the paralyzing cold Merced River slipping through the valley, the silver master-line of life and the stark smooth cliffs, bleached, sprouting green tufts, playing at blocking the sun.

The group could almost smell the fragrant breeze carrying pine and juniper scents and earthy whiffs of the small, rugged wildflowers nestled as green stuff all along the forest valley floor.

Almost there, at the bottom of the first rise, the primary hint of majesty to come, they looked to their left.

Two hundred yards away, almost out of sight stood a tall, thin man beckoning.

He was dressed in a black Lincolnesk hat, a wide red tie, black and white stripped trousers, and a black shiny jacket split into tails.

His arm was moving robotically, like dead Captain Ahab's arm as the white whale turned the trapped corpse to and fro. The man's smile seemed practiced, yet genuine.

Curious, they walked towards him and heard the faint calliope music of a merry-go-round.

Tinkling bells and great rushes of deep notes mixed together in rhythm, the energy of pumping horses forever in one place on a moving disc.

What to make of this! What to do!

To go on, straight toward the hidden mountain to take the trek to unseen territory merely envisioned, or to pause and rest and visit the carnival familiar and fun offering itself.

Popcorn and hot dog odors mixed with screams from the roller-coaster riders erased the nebulous.

They chose proximity and as one they moved past the beckoning charmer and headed for the merry-go-round.

A full day passed, and there were still swirling tea cups to excite the blood and a jungle boat tour with awesome surprises, and a giant ferris wheel turning itself with swaying seats, up and down in endless cycling.

The next day promised a parade of make believe creatures and free cotton candy and a band with 10 electronic guitars and two drummers at sundown.

Some in the group wanted a turn in the bumper-car arena which would open the next morning.

And so they stayed... on and on. Outside the beckoner still waved and smiled as his coattails flapped out behind him.

As the group left the carnival, a strange, lost feeling filled each traveler.

They walked over the ground they had once walked to get here, and nothing about it was the same.

They could not remember what they had been doing before the carnival!

They could not remember their mission or destination.

They looked toward Yosemite but did not see it.

Eyes searched other eyes hoping for clues, if not answers.

Now they could not go back to the carnival with any enthusiasm, and they could not go elsewhere without direction and purpose.

They turned and walked past the beckoner and entered the carnival grounds once more.

They headed for the arena where there would be horse races today, and the tall man smiled.

[JR: You can draw your own meaning after reading Peggy's writing. To me the stranger is the tempter that diverts us from the truth, our truer selves and, most importantly, from our purpose.]

FDA APPROVES IMPLANTABLE CHIP SALES IN HUMANS

By Julia Scheeres, Wired.com, 10/24/02

A surprise decision by the Food and Drug Administration permits the use of implantable ID chips in humans, despite an FDA investigator's recent public reservations about the devices.

The FDA sent chip manufacturer Applied Digital Solutions (ADS) a letter stating that the agency would not regulate the VeriChip if it was used for “security, financial and personal identification or safety applications,” ADS said Tuesday.

But the FDA has not determined whether the controversial chip can be used for medical purposes, including linking to medical databases, the company added. In the United States, ADS has principally marketed VeriChip as a life-saving tool, saying, for example, that unconscious patients brought to emergency rooms could be scanned to determine their medical histories.

Repeated phone calls to the FDA's press office were not returned Tuesday, and ADS refused to provide the media with a copy of the agency's letter.

The decision comes five months after ADS made international headlines by implanting three members of a Florida family with the VeriChip, which is slightly larger than a grain of rice and emits a 125-kilohertz radio frequency signal that can be picked up by a scanner up to four feet away.

In an interview earlier this month, FDA investigator Wally Pellerite said he was unaware of any implantable device that was not regulated by the FDA. Cosmetic implants—including breast and penile enhancers—undergo a rigorous FDA examination to determine their effect on the human body despite having no medical function.

Although ID chips have been used in animals for years, they may have "inherent risks" when used in humans, Pellerite said in the interview.

On Tuesday, Pellerite referred questions to the FDA press office.

"At this point, I can't say anything other than to represent what the official agency opinion is in this matter," he wrote in an e-mail. "Previously I was free to give you both sides of the argument and to point out the pros and cons to each. I am no longer free to do that."

Applied Digital Solutions has gotten into hot water in the past for issuing conflicting statements to the media and to the FDA about the VeriChip's intended use. In May, the FDA launched an investigation into the VeriChip when the company repeatedly referred to the chip as a medical lifesaver in the media, yet assured officials it was merely an identification device.

Tuesday's press release was also confusing, with ADS repeatedly referring to VeriChip as a medical device despite the fact that the FDA has not ruled whether the chip may be used for health purposes.

ADS president Scott Silverman did not comment on the release, but said he was pleased with the FDA's decision.

"We'll now go into high gear with our sales, marketing and distribution plans in the U.S.," he said, adding that the company would be focusing on the security and ID aspects of the microchip.

Silverman said security applications could include using the chip to control access to sensitive structures such as nuclear power plants, government buildings or private businesses. An example of an ID application could include "chipping" an Alzheimer's patient who suffers memory loss and wanders away from home, he added.

Richard Smith, a privacy expert (<http://www.computerbytesman.com/>) who follows the VeriChip, suggested the device should have been subjected to a full FDA review to determine its safety.

"Does ADS have any data for complications of VeriChips being installed in animals?" Smith asked. "Are there ever infection problems or autoimmune rejections? Since the FDA has chosen to not test the device, the next best thing is to try to understand if there have been health-related problems in animals."

Meanwhile, Leslie Jacobs, the matriarch of the Florida family chipped in May, said she hoped the FDA would approve the VeriChip for medical use. Both her husband and son experience ongoing health problems.

"People who need this should be able to elect to have it," she said. "The VeriChip could help save lives." [MM: Essentially, it's tantamount to claiming that advanced scalar EM technology could be utilized for the benefit/advancement of mankind!]

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

Stay Small Or Increase Substance In Nevada

Budget's "Tip of the Week" #18:

More on "Nexus" and "Substance"

Two legal issues crop up when operating a Nevada corporation which might have some activities in a foreign jurisdiction: "nexus" and "substance". Without getting into a full-blown legal definition for the purposes of this discussion, nexus can be considered equivalent to the related word, "connection". And for purposes of this discussion we can consider the legal issue of "substance" to mean "physical presence".

We have previously pointed out a list of conditions under which a Nevada corporation is not considered to be "doing business" in a foreign jurisdiction. It may, for instance, use an independent contractor to effect sales outside of Nevada, as long as each sale is not considered final until accepted in Nevada. If, however, a Nevada corporation has significant nexus in (connection to) another jurisdiction, in many cases the tax-hungry foreign state will seek to extend its tax laws to compel the Nevada corporation to pay some home-state taxes. A Nevada corporation with little presence in Nevada but which provides all sorts of equipment to an independent contractor working in, say, California could find itself under attack from the California Franchise Tax Board.

So far, at least, there are very few examples of small, private situations undergoing such scrutiny. However, in cases where the amounts of revenue derived from the foreign jurisdiction are large enough to present a "target of opportunity", various states are becoming increasingly aggressive in extending their tax tentacles. In auditing such a situation the home-state taxation authority will pose many questions relating to the "substance" (physical presence) of the Nevada corporation in Nevada.

Actual audit questions in establishing the substance of the Nevada corporation in Nevada can be very detailed and probing, including but not limited to the following: employees (compensation, responsibilities, payroll returns); identification of officers and compensation; copies of phone bills; actual payments made on notes; list of suppliers and professional-service providers; where decisions are made regarding investments; copies of corporate records including minutes and resolutions; banking (copies of all bank statements, checks and deposit slips).

The Nevada Department of Taxation uses the following criteria to evaluate nexus in Nevada: use of an office, distribution house, warehouse, service enterprise or other place of business; maintenance of a stock of goods; solicitation of orders by employees or independent contractors; regular engagement in the delivery of property in this state, other than by common carrier or United States mail; or regular engagement in any activity in connection with the leasing or servicing of property which is located within this state.

From the foregoing it should be obvious that it is always best to remain small in order to keep the bureaucrats out of your private business affairs whenever possible. And if and when your business grows to become a substantial potential target, it may become necessary to broaden its Nevada base, in order to retain more "substance" in Nevada relative to "nexus" in the foreign jurisdiction.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM HATONN

CONTACT OR SPECTRUM?

I want to briefly respond to a most unusual question from a totally "out of the blue" person: "It appears Spectrum will fail, possibly close, so will you go back to writing for CONTACT or what?"

I have never stopped writing for CONTACT—but I have NOT written, nor have my compatriots written for Spectrum. Tails wag a lot of dogs, my friends. Therefore, "or what" has no meaning.
