Something-For-Nothing: Cons Proliferate Internet

12/19/02—#1 (16-125)

RE: "SELF" MATTERS AT CHRISTMAS AS WELL AS EVERY OTHER DAY OF THE YEAR

COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS

GCH—"When you're weary (sad, hurting, worried,...) and you can't sleep, just count your blessings instead of sheep, and you'll go to sleep counting your blessings." Moreover, at some point you won't even "think" sheep, you will bypass the chaff and go right to the grain and ponder: "What is this and how do I find the positive points immediately?"

The latter attitude is always a bit difficult when you already feel you have gone a lot further than you ever wanted to go in the first place. HOWEVER, it is not further than you wanted to go in the first place or you would not be doing what you are doing in "the first place".

"But shouldn't truth and righteousness flow easily?"

Yes indeed, BUT it doesn't! "Should" and "does" are two entirely separate concepts. "Should" and "Could" are two concepts which are NOT interchangeable either. "Would" then comes along and botches the concepts of each of the foregoing and often misused words in your English language—or ANY language.

It is Christmas Season, which is a concept all in its own category of misrepresentation. "Christ" is an afterthought because even the "season" is arranged to make the commercial aspect of the "holiday" profitable, a glitter-blind of distractions, and oh my, whose birthday?

Once again in the Philippines, as a for instance, the entire period of time between Christmas Eve eve and sometime into the week AFTER the New Year's Day—is declared "special" holidays.

Ah but—any employee refusing to work through the "commercial" days will be FIRED. Moreover, the employers are refusing to pay "holiday" wages—so, it turns out to be one more perk for the government apparatus where the politicians are paid by the people to have a grand holiday vacation while the nation goes deeper in debt and no business can be done on the open market. HOWEVER, the "books" can be attended "full-time" in preparation for the new year inspections.

We note that even the persons who came a couple of weeks ago from the states (U.S.), and there is a globe-full of "states", readers, to do wonders by Christmas have hung up their hopes and efforts and returned FOR CHRISTMAS having done nothing but transfer their funds to the con artists.

One even experienced a TYPICAL "transaction" whereby it all ENDED with "the police confiscating the 'commodity'". Yes, and E.J. warned this particular visitor many, many times that these games are prevalent. There was nothing in the first place, except the drama. No police did anything but that is not because they "wouldn't"—they simply are a part of the lies and fabricated tales.

Another thing the scammers do is turn one against another and we also experienced that this week—but with little expectation of any OTHER concept than the "game".

A BUNCH of gold was to come in (yesterday afternoon)—105 kilograms to be specific. But, in the conversation from the “broker person” it was stated that the “holders” had sold one batch already of 100 kilograms. Really? Well, since it was supposed to have been to “our” contact, E.J. started making some phone calls to find a full “set-up” in play. “The gamesmen were caught in their drama and strangely enough you might think—no response on the phone calls.” Moreover, the minute the “free lunch” (literally) is not forthcoming—so too are the “brokers” and their “holders”.

There is a “diplomat” from one of these nearby countries (I’m going to deprive V.K. of information on this one) who is due here in Makati at 10:00 a.m. TODAY. Of course he was DUE HERE OVER THREE WEEKS AGO.

Parties, from the Philippines (a long way down South) pooled resources to be in Manila for this man’s visit—LAST WEEK.

The man ended up MISSING, for over a week, so the others went home and yesterday morning the “diplomat” showed up ready for his visit YESTERDAY.

Oh, OK, says Mr. Ekker, let me know when you will be here.

By afternoon the man finally called and was ready for his visit—whenever Mr. Ekker could get over to his hotel.

“No, we don’t leave this place.”

“Oh, well, ‘send your driver for me’.”

“We have neither a driver nor budget to send a cab.”

More and more garbage and finally after “misunderstanding” upon “misunderstanding” the day was worn out.

The next call bore something like, “I’m still waiting for your driver...”

At this point the “text” message from E.J. went diplomatically along the lines of, “We will see you at the Gilarmi or not at all.”

This at least brought forth a “call” instead of the text game in play.

Oh, misunderstanding—AGAIN, as the man just hadn’t “gotten the picture”.

He said he HAD TO MEET WITH MR. EKKER and how could it be worked out—WOULD MR. E. MEET “TOMORROW”?

Sure, said Mr. E., “We have made ourselves available for three weeks, why rush on past tomorrow?”

“But how can I find you?”

“Oh, you tell the taxi driver the address and he will bring you right to the door.” Then, have the bellman or desk call me and I will rush right over within a few minutes.

“Oh, well, alright.”

We shall see what the game is TODAY, won’t we?

This is a person who claims to be third in line of POWER to the Prime Minister of his country and can make incredible decisions and arrangements in behalf of his nation.

Well, when searching for the “missing man” we find that no one in “his country’s” embassy knows even the name. Moreover, when talking about the missing man being found and notification made to the other parties involved—our main contact person had not heard of the man—either.

It appears that a group of diligent people trying their very best to get something done just paid for a three-weeks trip to have the man visit relatives, etc., in the Philippines.

When the man asks for “taxi fare” to get back to his hotel, E.J. will hand him instructions to reach the Embassy which is only a few blocks from here and suggest he WALK.

Ah but, DON’T YOU KNOW, the man is also carrying some “Bellringer” Website “material”.

GOOD, and thank you for little miracles of revelation. WE ALSO FIND THAT A DOCUMENT, AT LEAST 10 PAGES, OF THE V.K. DURHAM RUBBISH IS CIRCULATING IN THE BANKING COMMUNITY, ETC. AH, BUT THE COWS ARE COMING HOME, READERS, ALONG WITH THE CHICKENS WITH THEIR SCRAMBLED BRAINS AND EGGS.

It is NOT that such as Bellringer, “patriotlad”, Ru Mill, etc., don’t have counter INFORMATION—it is that they refuse to share it with their Website tappers.

Good for us, for V.K. just keeps right on spewing her absurdities and the ones now appearing to be the FOOLS are the ones who dump this trash onto people who would really like to have TRUTH.

V.K. now claims (yesterday yet) that Ekkers actually went into her records in the recorders office and removed her marriage license and application (the second marriage) to one, Russell Herrman. Oh? From Manila yet? From Washington County, Illinois?

She only claims to have filed those in Ida County, Iowa, some few months ago and sent us copies of both the application and the certificate. Want a hoot? Try those documents on for “authenticity”, people.

She also makes a big thing over Doris saying “in public publication” that “she had never met Russell HERRMAN”.

Strange thing, Doris never met Russell HERMAN either—but certainly spoke with him MANY TIMES, even with V.K. on the LINE. V.K. can’t seem to even get her “acclaimed” husband right, much less anything else.

She names off “Trusts”, corporations, and other things that simply do not, and never did, so much as EXIST. It is easy enough to find out those details—simply go to the corporation’s registration site on your familiar computer Internet and there are BUNCHES of information at your fingertips. ONE OF WHICH IS SHOWING A CORPORATION IN GOOD STANDING SINCE 1985 CALLED COSMOSSEAFOOD ENERGY MARKETING LTD. It is NOT retired, in a “trust” of ANY KIND. [<http://sos.state.nv.us/corpsrch.asp>]

V.K. exclaims that she even has the “checks” showing that she PAID FOR THE FOUNDING OF THE CORPORATION. No she did NOT. She was not anywhere around at the founding of that corporation—period and end of discussion.

Moreover, just as soon as “patriotlad” tells people where they can get the CORRECT information regarding “Bonus 2292-181” we will further inform you, ALL OF YOU, about the things she claims as her “trust”, her plans for becoming Queen of the “World” and take over every last shred of EVERYTHING left by one, Russell Herman. This is massive subterfuge on the U.S. as well, good people.

So, yes, please, make sure “Brian” keeps asking those questions and demanding response. Only YOU can make a FOOL of “self”, for no one ELSE can do it FOR you.

V.K. Durham has written over and over again how she didn’t trust Russell and how he appeared without even “underwear” and every other kind of outrageous tale she could foist off on you people from one day to the next—even in DIRECT CONTRADICTION.

Now she thanks “patriotlad” for “doing a good job” of posting her trash and says she will be “away” for a while on a “whirlwind” trip to “Mainland China” yet!

This trip, of course, right in the face of saying Ekkers were destroying the world by dealing with China, et al.

This “thank you” note is too good to not share in light of all of the accusations this person has made thus far. Keep the “no underwear” in mind as you read this next incredible diatribe:

[QUOTING patriotlad@aol.com., 5:39 PM, Wednesday, 11 December 2002:]

In Response To: THE END GAME OF THE BILLIONAIRE BOYS’ CLUB (Patriotlad)

To Patriotlad From V.K. Durham—

Thank you for getting the remaining articles and comments up on the Rumor Mill News Forum ... Just had time to check in on the RMN site. Great JOB!

Trip is going great ... have to go to Mainland China and work on some unfinished business of Russell’s. He (most people were unaware of this) was a TAIWAN heavily involved with the HONG KONG, SHANGHAI BANKING and with MAINLAND CHINA’S CENTRAL BANK.

I suppose I have never told anyone about Russell’s Chinese Family ... But, some things are none of anyone’s business ... so I won’t go into that at this time.

This is a whirlwind trip, flying via PRIVATE JET, with my DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY, and time constraints make it so that I can’t do any shopping, but those things I mentioned are getting done.

Next stop is GREECE. Then on to my home.

Thanks for editing and posting the articles ... GOOD JOB!

V.K. DURHAM, CEO

[H: “Stress capitals” V.K.’s]

[END OF QUOTING]

By the way, readers, a TAIWAN is a Chinese term for “bigger than ‘Tycoon’”. It indicates someone like Lucio Tan who is worth BILLIONS AND BILLIONS OF DOLLARS. You know, like Bill Gates.

If you read the affidavit which Mark will rerun [12/25/02 CONTACT, page 7] in the paper, requested by legal counsel(s) of Ekkers (with backup documents for the files) you will NOTE THAT CERTAINLY WE DID KNOW HER VERSION OF THE CONNECTIONS WITH “CHINESE FAMILY” AND RUSSELL. Our problem is not knowing how to spell “Herman” as used interchangeably by V.K. Durham—WHO NEVER WAS MARRIED TO RUSSELL OR ANY OF HIS ALIASES GIVEN BY HER, HAS NO “HOLDING TRUST” OF ANY KIND, AND HAS “NO” STANDING OR HOLDING OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER IN COSMOS SEAFOOD ENERGY MARKETING LTD. AND THUS NO STANDING OR HOLDING ON ANY BONUS 3392-181 “CONTRACT”.

THE “CERTIFICATE” CEASED HAVING ANY MEANING “AT ALL” WHEN IT WAS CHANGED OUT TO A “CONTRACT” TO COSMOS SEAFOOD ENERGY MARKETING LTD which corporation belonged to one, Russell Herman and NO OTHER—AT THAT TIME. Now V.K. goes further on her tirade while somehow blaming us for bringing “in” Cecellia Xalis (V.K. misspells the name, of course) as if we have created some atrocity of some kind. Moreover, WE HAD MANY CONVERSATIONS WITH CECELIA AND V.K. FULLY KNOWS THAT FACT. Cecilia Xalis was the other person who founded, with Russell HERMAN, the corporation in 1985. How could she NOT be noticed?

Ah BUT: I want to go back to a document, which V.K. FABRICATED and called it a “transfer of ownership” “recorded of record”, which paper is so outrageously and badly done as to embarrass anyone, which continually refers only to a “Peruvian Gold CERTIFICATE when, at the time, the CERTIFICATE had ceased to have any value or MEANING at all. V.K. could have 20 copies IN “COLOUR” yet and it would HAVE NO MEANING WHATSOEVER.

AS TO PATRIOTLAD AND OTHER DUPED INTERNET “MASTERS”?

Oh goodness reigns, my friends: “Thanks for editing and posting the articles ... GOOD JOB!” goes the “thank you to ‘Patriotlad’”.

She has also recently stated that she would ask Bellringer to do an “update” on the Ekker “cult”. I suggest they keep right on posting this bunch of hogwash because it certainly has now given us full backup for legal recourse. If this means we have to wait through the “Holy Days” to get anything done, we CAN WAIT—we now have enough!

How long do YOU think it will take V.K. to get back home from Mainland China with a swing through Greece (but not taking time to shop or anything)?

“PRIVATE JET” is interesting. However, it is not as “interesting” as “DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY”. V.K. is certainly NOT a diplomat and why would she even possibly need “immunity”?

More interesting, however, is that these “Webmasters” continue to post this garbage without posting response or corrections or FACTUAL TRUTH—BUT, in fact do not even offer information for obtaining fact in what is now touted about by V.K. and all of them, as CONTACT, which HAS PUBLISHED copies of the very documents associated with this drama. YELLOW JOURNALISM, AS V.K. CONTINUALLY HARANGUES?

I suggest you get information over to those “sites” and perhaps there might be an upsurge in subscriptions. YOU WANT TRUTH? GO WHERE TRUTH IS PROVIDED!

We do NOT have a Website because of the incredible usurpation of our information and publications by “four winds” and Bellringer/Spectrum.

And by the way, “patriotlad”, when V.K. Durham turns on you (AND SHE WILL) you are shredded meat!

V.K. says that she was trained for the job of being at the top in the “Good vs. Evil” confrontation—“at the very top”—and I would ask you to look around, check out some of these presentations and total farces—and YOU DECIDE ON WHICH “SIDE” THE LADY RESIDES/ STANDS! No, SHE WILL NOT win, anything. SHE IS THE PERSONIFICATION OF THE LIE. Please look up the word “personification”.

Did you actually think Satan would sit silently by while he lost the game to the “good guys”? Come now, being naïve is not becoming to anyone who has been given opportunity to become informed and grow OUT OF IGNORANCE.

BACK TO “CHRISTMAS” CONCEPTS

Please use some of this Season to reflect on kindness, random acts of “nice”, and make an effort to see beauty and positive possibilities in whatever comes upon you. In the darkest room, it only takes a candle to allow for seeing the way—to a possible door or window. Moreover, if you WANT TO LIVE AND PRODUCE MORE THAN YOU WANT OUT OF THE “STRESS”—YOU SHALL STAY ALIVE AND FUNCTIONING. It IS just as simple as that.

Every step or turn in the way IS/WAS necessary—every one. Anything “different” would have directed the journey into different avenues of experience. Isn’t LIFE simply wondrous in its very concept? God must be a very competent creator? You get to drive—THE WHOLE WAY. And, by the way: The “devil” doesn’t “make you” do ANYTHING. You choose—EVERY TIME.

If you are freezing and all you get in your Christmas stocking is a big lump or two of coal and a stick or two—I suggest you get a match and get a fire going instead of complaining about somebody else’s gifts.

I comment on some questions asked by “Brian” brianfischer88@hotmail.com of “Patriotlad”/V.K. Durham. (Patriotlad responded because the assumption is that V.K. is off jetting around Mainland China.)

Since it is obviously easier to get the documents off the sites I won’t go through it all, just the final few questions regarding V.K.’s “TRUST”.

“V.K. is seeking redress concerning the frauds done against her and her Trust. Is this her primary goal, regardless the nature of the FED? This is where my questions arise.

“1) How is it that any single corporation is in a position to be owed a trillion dollars by the U.S. government?

2) Why is the debt owed to a Trust and not a lending corporation?

3) Is the Trust privately owned?

4) Is the Trust subject to taxation?

5) Is the Trust subject to Treasury audits?

6) Is the Trust under the umbrella of the FED’s owners?

“I’m not interested so much in the mechanics of the fraud at this point (whether gold rigging, offshore accounts, debt and credit swaps, etc.). I’m interested in knowing who is stealing from who. Have the owners of the FED depleted the wealth of Americans to the point that they’re now getting better returns by simply stealing from each other? Or has the U.S. government decided that they can steal from the FED owners at will, knowing that the FED has nowhere to turn in America for salvation? Are the FED owners mobilizing other assets (other nations) to oppose the U.S. government’s acts of counter-fraud?

“I’m all for understanding more truth about the inner workings of the FED and international finance. But this sounds to me as a study in the lack of honour among thieves. The problem with that, is it leaves no one to root for.”

Right on, Brian, and may you NEVER stop asking questions and demanding answers.

“Yes, Virginia, there IS a Santa Claus!” went the tale. Indeed, there certainly IS and in keeping with V.K.’s inability to spell names: It is Satan Claws!

We are amused TODAY as we look at the papers and see that the IMF wants the nation here to TAX TEXTS. That means that there would be a tax on every little text message these people send to and fro. That suggestion is to “help reduce the debt to the IMF”. Do we jest? Of course not—the idea has been bandied about over and over all year—but for the budget of the State, NOT the IMF.

Well, Brian assures Patriot that he “is awake” now. I certainly hope someone shares with him so that he STAYS AWAKE.

I can only ask, however, that he “stay awake” by turning elsewhere than to “here”. We have our plates FULL as do the rest of our friends. We have published extraordinary amounts of information, published the exact papers as we have them, including many of V.K.’s Faxes and documents—EXACTLY AS SHE PRODUCED THEM. We will NOT go through it again on a one-on-one basis—for our job is massive and we cannot attend these personal inquiries. We are, however, pleased to respond to EVERYONE but they will simply have to get their own paper, for our people are “mad as hell and refuse to take it any longer!”

We have put out thousands of pages of responses and information—for many years. So be it. We are not going to now get into a global exchange and certainly WE DO NOT WANT “INTERPRETATIONS” BY SUCH AS BELLRINGER AND PATRIOTLAD BECAUSE THEY HAVE PROVEN THEIR INABILITY TO EVEN REPRODUCE ACCURATE INFORMATION. IN FACT, IF YOU READ THE V.K. DURHAM PRESENTATIONS ON THE INTERNET—YOU GET ONLY PATRIOTLAD’S EFFORTS AT TURNING THE GARBAGE INTO “LANGUAGE” AND STILL HE/SHE CAN’T REPRODUCE IT IN PROPER COPY. V.K. DURHAM is unique in her inability to repeat anything correctly, copy anything correctly, or present anything correctly.

V.K. does not even repeat her own claimed “Trust” name twice the same way and “TIAS” has nothing to do with ANYTHING—period.

Since the next thing will be to straighten out some of this nonsense come the first of the year—since V.K.’s barrage of documents to the global governments and to those of whom she constantly drops inappropriate and incorrect NAMES—we need to address THAT TRUST of Durham’s which is NOT.

The facts are that it was over THAT TRUST that all connections were severed with “that woman” in 1997. As of THAT TIME V.K. Durham was trying to EXTORT money FOR THE TRUST FORMATION while trying to blackmail us into giving her one of our corporations for her incredible game of get-it-all.

We have at least two sources for her proposed Articles of formation—as in “corporate articles”—and a plan as presented prior to the personal writing of those “Articles”. It is both interesting and presents big questions.

It is even more interesting to note what V.K. tells the world about the wrongdoings of our selves when she claims to know all the people, have resources and all contacts with ALL PLACES AND PERSONS, and even knows who backs the terrorist groups. That is a funny presentation since everything “we” have done or do is totally PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE right down to the details of EACH document. We even publish it in the paper.

Now, she comes forth and tells Patriotlad that in October she tried to cut a deal for a Trillion $$$ with the U.S. government. The fact that they somehow ignored her seems to, now, in addition to everything else, be “our” fault as insider dealing. Are the absurdities NEVER ENOUGH to cause the little chicks to question the Big Red Hen?

“Big Red” was one of her proudly espoused labels for V.K.—“back when...”. Then came the write-up in the paper in Illinois regarding the will of Russell Herman, etc., as being “Old Snooky” of Shawneeville. When the journalists went to call on her at her home she met them with: “I’m the bitch you came to...” and then asked them in for the “lowdown” on her holdings.

This is hardly the stuff of Taipans and Diplomatic anything, including “immunity”.

So, you might ask Ekkers about this “Russell Herman” and they would be at a loss to tell you more than that which they personally found and experienced—and what keeps being uncovered on a DAILY basis. IT IS SUFFICIENT.

What exactly happened to “Russell’s estate” which V.K. claimed “expired”? She was NEVER married to the man but by her own presentation both she and Russell had families—Russell supposedly a very large one as to siblings.

V.K. claimed that in the years in which she did not have ANY contact with Russell he had married, had three children while she had married and had two (or vice versa). She said both had “divorced”. Check it out in Ekkers’ affidavit because that information was taken DIRECTLY FROM A V.K. DURHAM DOCUMENT.

The question is: How can an “estate” expire? And, whatever happened to the family members who are KNOWN to have been around? Rick Martin even spoke with a brother of Russell’s who wanted NOTHING to do with V.K. Durham nor did he want to get involved with Russell’s “stuff”. This person also said that V.K. and Russell were not married and nobody could “stand that woman for even five minutes”.

I speak of these things because we deal with facts and legal documentation. We do not interfere or interject ourselves into any business of anyone unless it involves us directly. However, the involvement came from the fact that supposedly Russell and V.K. had willed $40 million to the CONTACT from Russell’s AND HER estate which somehow “expired” at the “county level” in Illinois somewhere.

She will, further, give references to where YOU can go get your information from her records and, as with one interesting recent revelation, you can go to page “084” of the Illinois records and find her second “recorded” marriage certificate recorded.

Try it and you’ll likely laugh all the way home. The more recent statement is that Ekkers and GAIA went in and took those recorded documents right out of the files recorded with Thomas Ganz, Recorder.

She did, however, ease the burden of getting such documents by sending a copy of her “Marriage Certificate” in point to everyone she could conjure to somehow prove “something”. She then states that she “re-recorded” in Ida County, Iowa. WHY? Wouldn’t records be in several places OTHER than in her self-recorded “file” under ANY circumstances?

The most interesting thing about this “Certificate” in point is that it shows different information than was on her “application” which was equally badly fabricated. Also shows that she married Russell Herrman/Herman. Then the certificate has the typical blank lines to be filled in by the officiating minister and this certificate reads: “According to the Ordinance of God and the Laws of the State of Illinois on the 2nd day of 1993 in the year of OUR LORD one Thousand Nine Hundred Mark S. Lohnes.”

Now, tell me why would ANYONE wanting to find problems with V.K. entries EVER REMOVE THOSE INCREDIBLE DOCUMENTS FROM THE FILES? Moreover, every use of the documents in a records office is accounted, even to a person buying file copies. Records show missing pages in V.K.’s filings AND notation of her having the file out and in use as noted by the Recorder’s office.

Why would all this have cause for attention? BECAUSE if V.K. could not prove marriage to Russell HERMAN, then she could not even CLAIM any holding or standing in this infamous Bonus 3392-181. She can’t and she DOESN’T!

This is also why she continues to try to hang on to and “retire” Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing Ltd. in order to grab onto “something”—but she can’t and she DOESN’T have any standing. THESE ARE EASILY-FOUND CONFIRMATION DOCUMENTS, for any “Inquiring Mind”.

Just this minute another interesting Rumor Mill Reading Room Forum hit. It is also by, it appears, V.K. Durham but, someone didn’t have time to REALLY edit it very well or attend it prior to posting and it does say some interesting things along with her myriad semi-colons in all the wrong places. It is hard to keep up with a prolific producer of “impossible to decipher” scrambled rantings.

We can address all of these things at some point but we don’t want to stop the flow and the insanity foisted off onto curious parties who surf these Websites. Some are actually looking for some Truth and it is so sad they find so little.

Poor Rumor complains now to her Friends, Patriots and the Children of Light—“Once more, it appears that Rumor Mill News and the Readers’ Forum are under attack, and the Odds-on favorite for the group most likely to be responsible for this attack is the Ekkers’ GAIA cult, which is one of the engines supporting the Al Qaeda network, and which is operating like a Trojan Horse inside the U.S.”

Would these not somehow be considered “fighting words” possibly? The garbage is said to have gone to Tony Blair, Prime Minister, U.K. with instructions to “The Parliament of the United Kingdom”.

V.K. now lumps in something called “NESRA” and somebody had to append [also known as NESARA.]” But, in the MO of one V.K., that doesn’t deter V.K. from a continued reference to same as same.

Then she sends it ALL to “Arnie Gammelsgard” of INTERPOL, Chief of Operations, Fraud Division—SHE CLAIMS. However, others sending “stuff” to “her” given instructions for address DO NOT reach any such anyone.

Then the lovely “lady” at 5:57 AM after a hard day’s night of perhaps wine and roses does a take on Australia and someone involved in “NESRA”.

Australia? The lady just said earlier in THIS writing that “NESRA” is a “U.S. Congress ‘Act’” of some sort which she also misidentifies while the “editor” tries to attempt to explain the discrepancies. There seems to be no end to the contradictions—OR THE LIES.

V.K. now explains the old Farm Claims, etc. Well, she should know about the rip-offs on those first “recovery” claims, for it was called “Cosmos” and the ADDRESS USED was hers—in Okawville, Illinois.

Next she gets into some interesting “Oversoul Trust” something or another. This seems to have the Ekkers and GAIA taking one “horn of the bull” with the ISLAMIC BANKING while the OVERSOUL TRUST takes the “second horn of the bull” with CHINESE BANKING.

Then the middle (between those horns) “...STANDS; THE U.S. DEPT OF THE TREASURY, U.S. FED. Res., WORLD BANK & IMF.” “Those in the Agreement to split 50-50 on BONUS 3392-181—Conspiracy at U.S. Fed. Res. & U.S. Dept. of the Treasury levels.”

Next comes an interesting notation in that a person by the name of GREG PAULSEN, who currently is “joined heavily into the Chinese Banking Systems”. By golly we can’t tell where her quoting takes up and leaves off to even more confused diatribe—but this “Greg Paulsen” seem to head up “THE CHURCH OF THE OVERSOUL ‘TRUST’”.

Now, this seems to somehow present as something called “the TRIDENT” program. Meanwhile she periodically tells “Arnie” to pay attention to this or that which “he didn’t think she knew...”.

We are confident Greg Paulson (WHOEVER HE IS) will be delighted to realize she “has his number”. The only time we have even been exposed to that name was in a list, including us, of being directly involved in the murder of “Russell Hermann et al.”

We warned Rayelan of Rumor Mill, “patriotlad”, Bellringer and any who would listen that this VIPER will eat your lunch and she is halfway through it already. Durham continues to set up these people, usually even mispronouncing or misspelling their names (Gammelsgard is most likely from Denmark and that is GammelsgAard, BUT WHO KNOWS?).

To allow this kind of assault on other people leaves HIM OPEN DIRECTLY for charges for not stopping this insult to humanity poured on by this mentally-challenged person. So, Rumor Mill is “under attack”? Fine, she should be taken OFF the airwaves. But please, not before she assists and abets V.K. in hanging herself COMPLETELY. Anybody and everybody can check out easily what Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA) is ABOUT as well as who are Ekkers AND WHAT THEY ARE DOING. There is not and never has been any secret or clandestine with ANYONE.

V.K. Durham, after Russell’s death, tried to turn it into a “capture everything” clandestine game and we all terminated both any association with her business and/or her PERSON.

To you who are bored with this continual harangue—STOP IT. THIS IS YOUR LIFE—THIS IS THE CONFRONTATION OF GOOD AND EVIL RIGHT THERE IN THE MIDDLE OF “YOUR” PARTICIPATION.

Does this make our job more difficult? Only in the “moment” of insult to intelligence. It is only part, however, of wiping out the questions regarding what we hold and have to offer. So, getting it cleared away in a nasty but broad “swoop” can only save us time later along with presenting credibility which otherwise we could not expect to gain so massively in scope. Hurt the U.S.? Come now, readers, WE DON’T DO ANYTHING, BY AGREEMENT, IN OR TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. V.K. IS IN THE U.S., NOT US! Well, that is, whenever she isn’t in “Mainland China” on her PRIVATE JET with DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY.

By the way, Rayelan and Patriotlad: The longer you decline to run the opposing facts, the more deeply mired you are in the muck of total fraud and disinformation scatter. Rayelan, at the time of Princess Diana’s death, did in fact blame Gunther Russbacher (her husband) for being involved in the direct murder of said Princess. THIS WAS PUT FORTH ON SHERMAN H. SKOLNICK’S PROGRAM AND HOT LINE.

SHE ALSO WAS CREDITED, AT THAT TIME, ON THOSE OPEN NETWORKS WITH STATING SHE WAS OWED BILLIONS OF DOLLARS AS HER PORTION OF PAYOFF OF SOME KIND AS GUNTHER'S WIFE. SHE VERBALIZED A QUESTION AS TO WHETHER OR NOT SHE WOULD GET IT. It seems Gunther had claimed to have divorced Raye and married a lady named Jane so who would get the elusive loot? Perhaps the Shadow knows?

Dark side? Oh, I don't think so—it appears to us that the LIGHT is shining more brightly than ever before and Truth is having a field day of revelation. MERRY CHRISTMAS and thank you for allowing just a bit of "CHRIST" to shine through at this wondrous time of the year—just before we embark on a NEW YEAR with its own possibilities and potentials.

By the way, to "Brian". It is interesting that on the Internet our dear friend V.K. has given some numbers and statements about a 1990 calculation of the "Bonus 3392-181" Fed evaluation.

I just want you to look at it a minute and realize that you, Brian, didn't get the whole picture in a "reconstruction" from Patriotlad who said: "The gentle reader will be staggered by the numbers presented, as I was, and so for the benefit of all, they decipher as follows:..." then let us pass on past the percentages compounded, etc., and look at "$206,858 Quadrillion... that is, Two Hundred Six Thousand Eight Hundred Fifty-eight Thousand-Trillions of dollars in Gold value, for a Quadrillion is a thousand trillion...".

The number is: $206,858,581,465,280,000,000.00. That is NOT, "gentle reader", a "QUAD" NUMBER. I suggest, for your own information, YOU LOOK IT UP. The document is before us at this keyboard. That was the amount due and payable April 30, 1990. The document itself is not dated.

Now, another thing V.K. uses and we find it interesting is "$USDA". And no, we do not know what that means other than U.S. Department of Agriculture. That may not be as "off the wall" a "Freudian slip" as it might at first seem, for BILLIONS of dollars were shipped out THROUGH THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TO BOTH IRAN AND IRAQ—but that is another story, isn't it?

So, how does "Doris" know all this? Oh my, she doesn't, didn't, and never pretended to "know it all". However, curiosity and need to substantiate what we write—she always goes forth and "finds out". TRY IT AND PERHAPS YOU TOO WILL LIKE IT.

Now, readers, if you don't think that kind of massive funds shouldn't be "contained" reasonably, then you have other problems bigger than we can possibly assess. Furthermore, if it is going to be utilized as a fundamental "value" as it states in "gold", then there has to be GOLD ACQUIRED to literally back it—to the last accounted ounce.

On that, please, I would like to leave this keyboard for this afternoon, for it has already been a very long day here while the trashing never seems to stop. Therefore, we are always forced to ask: What are you "patriots" attempting to do? Well, the question is answered in "for whom do you work"? Choices are YOURS and doodle-bugs will always flick sand in your eyes. And, just like the doodle-bug or "bandwagon" going in circles—you will simply end up with a dizzy headache if you don't get off the "ride" before it "gets" you.

Be very careful, the saying goes, for that for which you pray may well be given.

Salu, GCH

RE: SELF HELP OR "HELP YOURSELF"! "MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR"—FOR WHOM?

HUMAN FRAILTIES

Be kind if you will of yes, please, MINE (human frailties)! In spite of V.K.'s suggestion otherwise, I am neither omnipotent nor omniscient. I have no cause nor claim to challenge anyone save those who present total lies and evil in both intent and follow-through.

I particularly wish to thank you who have taken action in this latest barrage of nonsense from the dingy side of the disinformation tracks. Just please, don't get so sidetracked or distracted that our own tasks get put aside while answering curious inquisitors.

Yesterday as E.J. and I went forth—AGAIN—to clear visas and gain extensions we were reminded of this long journey into strange and almost "obscene" places and the mind cries out to "go home" only to realize that one person with full intent to destroy us personally and internationally is at work with her nasty little devils giving support and forum for her lies and misrepresentations. Well, friends (and enemies): WE CAN TAKE IT!

Do we have a choice? Yes but our choice is to continue right through the flak and right to the goal line and on ACROSS IT. That is our commitment to YOU and to our families who have had to be without parents, grandparents, friends, and who also help hold us together.

We are now bound by steel bindings one to another and our observation is that those bonds get even more strengthened in each encounter of the negative kind. Let us call it, please, "The Light of Truth and Realization". WE HAD NO WAY OF KNOWING HOW THIS WOULD MOVE FORWARD AND STILL WE CAN'T SEE MORE THAN TO THE NEXT BEND IN THE PATH (OR RIVER) BUT WE HAVE CONFIRMATION THAT THE PATH (AND THE RIVER) WILL BE THERE WAITING NO MATTER WHAT THE DEBRIS OR "SHALLOWS" IN OUR WAY.

Are we somehow "holy" or at the least, "holier than anyone else"? Nope, just human while being totally "SACRED" because each being and thing in God's UNIVERSE is SACRED! So, we take claim to our share, please.

This "Odyssey" upon which we accepted responsibility and embarked has unfolded in most interesting and unexpected realization and outright REVELATION in support and confirmation in each step along the journey—from upstart, through "Russell Herman's" petition for "help", and right on through the journey to this moment in what we perceive as "time".

I'm confident that V.K., as she has shouted to the winds, probably does NOT recognize the "Russell Herman" attached to her. It is a fact, stated personally BY RUSSELL HERMAN, that when he realized he was actually being murdered, his attitudes had major reconstruction of focus.

He even gave us a short "no atheists in foxholes" rendition of possible "death" sentence. He told us he was witnessing a full and evil intent to get him out of the way and claim FULL CONTROL of the incredible asset held by himself.

He further stated that he had intentionally let some paperwork lapse in the past to hopefully bury the whole of the asset but greedy people worked their secret manipulations BEFORE he could get it stopped.

Then, he said there were claims of intent to do nothing but "good" and allow for recovery of, at the least, "our great nation" and perhaps he too could then rectify some pretty "crappy" escapades on his part in his own "past experiences". He said he was in no position to longer simply STOP the adventures or adventurers doing their dirties but WE COULD IF WE WOULD AGREE TO ASSIST HIM.

We did, and the rest is history.

We had NO reason to disbelieve V.K. "Durham" (note she has never claimed "Herman" as her name except when trying to sell a lie).

She flooded us with documents AFTER Russell's death. We ran most of the "stuff" in the paper for all the world to see—believing we were helping her and serving "mankind" only to find we were NOT serving other than V.K. Durham's self-interests AT OUR EXPENSE (literally). V.K. comes on NOW with this BS hogswill about her "wonderful husband" of at least four spellings of his name which is also, she says, "hers". Well, we only knew ONE and that was "Herman".

It is proven without any further question that V.K. NEVER was married to Russell Herman—PERIOD AND END OF ANY POSSIBLE DEBATE.

Even SHE had said they were not married. And yes, they had to have been married LEGALLY AND LAWFULLY to even have CONSIDERATION of a possible claim as a "spouse" to anything of Russell's. There is not such "anything" to support anything the person says. This includes a "holding trust".

HOLDING TRUST

Let's bury THAT ONE right now—AGAIN!

In 1997 when WE WERE SUPPORTING HER TOTALLY, she demanded funds to "do" her trust. Then she demanded in "extortion" (we'll get there in a minute) $5,000 (after we had run completely out of funds to even pay outstanding phone bills).

At the same time, she demanded that we turn over to her one of our corporations.

The point was that she would extend our "permits" or something and add some funds to our allotment of her "Bonus" funds IF WE MET HER DEMANDS AND SHE GAVE US FIVE DAYS TO DO SO.

For goodness sakes, we had held the entire asset since August 5, 1993—and this latest barrage of extortion and blackmail met with our dismissing her from our lives (we hoped). And NO, we were NOT dealing with a Global Alliance Investment Corporation prior to that interchange.

As we began to find all the games and manipulations afoot, we GOT OUT of any association with the woman and solving those problems established by our association were internationally MAMMOTH. People as far distant as South Africa had actually formed CORPORATIONS there for their business ventures—with “that woman”.

At one point, in debating that “trust”, I personally asked WHY she wasn’t setting up something as in “The Herman Foundation” which would honor Russell? Her answer was that she was “THE ONLY SIGNATORY” on Bonus 3392-181 and that she had “made sure of that”.

We had no documents regarding sales or transfers—so we had ONLY her word that such were in order. We did not know until SO MUCH LATER AS TO BE ASTOUNDING that there is no LEGAL transfer, sale, or ANYTHING. EVERY DOCUMENT SHE FILED IS FRAUDULENT AND FABRICATED, AS IN FORGED.

Many things began to come out just prior to our severance of activities with V.K. ONE major one was all the antics taking place while she asked for our HELP in trying to claim Russell’s pensions and welfare/disability for her personally.

She also produced ongoing legal cases where she was acting in her own counsel against “Illinois Power” utility for BILLIONS of dollars and to which she claimed she got a “default” judgement.

Next, when she owed us so much money as to be staggering, she said she had these precious treasurers “of Russell’s” on which she had been offered $500 MILLION, pending payment. So, payback and the $40 million to CONTACT as promised in a “non-existent” WILL, was no problem and instead immediately turned into $40 million in FRNs and $40 million in GOLD, yet.

TALK ABOUT BLIND

After severance with V.K., we were faced with what to do next about Russell Herman’s assignment. And, as you might well guess, our first wish was to dump it into the round file under the kitchen sink.

My own “psychic” realization, being omnipotent you understand, was that this would be more trouble than Africa has killer bees. BUT, I was only a “one small voice” and Rick was on the chop-block because it was by then KNOWN that V.K. not only knew about the assignment but had used Russell’s signature on one of her documents. At THAT time we didn’t know WHICH ONE.

Russell had also said that “the authorities” also were informed and given a copy of the assignment. To us that meant such as George Bush Sr. and his “et als.”. It was certainly KNOWN around because even Cmdr. Al Martin (of recent “infame”) and several VERY INSIDE PEOPLE had told us so. NOW, FRIEND, WHAT WOULD “YOU” HAVE DONE OR WOULD DO NOW?

We had gone DIRECTLY and FIRST to George Bush Sr. and his “et als.”. I repeat: FIRST! Response? “Not ready to deal at this time.” Our assumption now is that he still is not ready to “deal”. Or, perhaps he has “dealt” because we certainly have “agreements” which are identified in the way (and with full instructions) as typically from clandestine operations. This is WHY we couldn’t, EVEN SHOULD WE HAVE WANTED TO DO SO, let the now recognized SPECTRUM group TAKE (STEAL) CONTACT NEWSPAPER. CONTACT IS THE COMMUNICATIONS VEHICLE—AS INSTRUCTED.

However, back to the story first in point: E.J. and I PERSONALLY had just finally received some funds and in conclusion of this long story gone on for years, we discussed the next move IN AN OPEN FORUM WITH EVERYONE ATTACHED TO ANYTHING WE DID, EVEN TO VISITORS, IN ATTENDANCE.

I look back now and realize that it wasn’t “their” money they voted to spend, so what the heck—spend Ekkers’! Well, self flagellation is both tacky and a bit too late in this case. The blood is spilled to the vampires and yet we still have the paper and ourselves intact!

We said we were willing to spend every last cent on attending the “Assignment” because we had business persons AND A WELL-KNOWN AND RESPECTED LAWYER who had checked out the “thing” fully and pronounced everything sound and lawful to the last word. He had spent time with Gerry Spence and part of the connection in the Philippines was Imelda Marcos of “Spence” fame.

During the time AFTER our severance “from” V.K., we lost track of her. Sometime after the break we received a petition for financial help for V.K. in that she was being “evicted” and the “move out” was imminent if she did not catch up rents, etc. First of all, we had no funds and secondly, it seemed a bit cheap and ugly to suggest we do anything other than turn her in to the authorities for “possible criminal” acts. We did inquire about the massive “funding” for the priceless artifacts and WHY she would be “destitute”.

Do we somehow “hate” V.K. Durham?

Gosh NO! She has since provided us with EVERYTHING we have needed, including her fabricated documents—TO PROVE EVERYTHING WE HAVE OFFERED TO ANYONE REGARDING THE MATTER OR THE ASSET.

We “own” nothing. We don’t even own anything that we used to think we “owned”. So how do we continue to survive in Manila? We survive because those ones, who have experienced with us all along this way, have LOANED us money. (They will be first repaid—Resolutions already of RECORD (public) and to cover full restitution and payment of loans prior to now.)

We appreciate help and everyone realizes we CAN only do the very best we can—but we now KNOW this job can be done and done well. That will provide plenty for full repayment. We do not take grants, donations or gifts of funds. ALL THOSE ARE ACCOUNTED, RECORDED AND WILL BE REPAYED IN FULL, WITH INTEREST.

We don’t know HOW to be either more open or forthcoming. To say that we are responsible for derivatives and trading games which have bankrupted the global economies is amusing at best. I think V.K. doesn’t read well and others haven’t bothered.

What sets “Global” aside? Just about EVERYTHING YET KNOWN TO BANKERS.

We require GOLD (hard, cold and validated) to back every shekel, every peso and yes indeed, every dollar, as might be referenced in THIS PROGRAM. The assets are then HELD publicly in the nation’s bank as well as funds issued on lines of credit FOR PROJECTS. These are fully ACCOUNTED. We go further than that in our own position: WE ONLY “BORROW” FUNDS BACKED BY THOSE ASSETS OF HARD METAL AND ONLY UTILIZE A VERY SMALL PERCENTAGE FOR PROJECTS ALREADY COMMITTED FOR “VALID” ASSISTANCE.

THIS IS GOD’S PLAN—NOT EKKERS’!

Delays are only an inconvenience. And, with the recent nonsense on the INTERNATIONAL INTERNET SITES and “investigators”, simply do what V.K. demands: “Get the recorded public records” (which are now mostly “missing”, of course, because of clandestine thievery or WTC collapse which destroyed her PERSONAL records along with that “trust”). The jig is up! It simply takes TIME to get anything operative or “on line”.

Especially here in the Philippines where the confusion is TOTAL we find patience difficult—but necessary. What will happen if there is war in Iraq? Who knows? There is ALWAYS “war” somewhere when the biggest bullies can bash the little guys off the map. You can note the CURRENT revelations that the U.S., Germany and U.K. are the MAJOR nations supplying all the components for those WMD TO IRAQ. It has been published in the international papers, readers, so it is not a figment of imagination as in “mine” or “yours”.

By the way, anyone who pays attention has full access to exactly WHAT WE ARE DOING. We have published the MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT regarding and applicable to every venture, bank interchange and project at issue. Perhaps that is why we have been disallowed from doing business, for we COULD HAVE FLOODED THIS OLD WORLD with exactly what V.K. proclaims.

We have put guidelines and limits on the asset and demand full backup commodity for every cent in point. Acting otherwise is absurd and could be absolutely devastating. In the hands of mentally unbalanced persons such as V.K. Durham (whoever she thinks she might be) is beyond our wildest imaginings of “terrible”. She is a “terrorist” of the very worst variety and that includes “Al Qaeda”, ALL KADA or whoever else she has conjured for us to “back”.

V.K. and buddies want to claim “cult” status for US? TWO doesn’t appear to be a very large “cult”, does it? Indeed something certainly seems strange in V.K.’s apparatus. She claims to have EVERYTHING and know everyone. WE CERTAINLY CLAIM NOTHING OF THE SORT. We don’t even know “Arnie” or “Prince Bandar”. Certainly I do NOT claim to even have ever heard of any “Princess Rani” whom I am now supposed to BE, according to V.K. and the Rumor Mill NETWORK. Is there not something just a tad silly, or even STUPID, in her litany?

Do I resent “wasting” precious time on this nonsense? Yes and NO. It is certainly not a WASTE and all we actually have in this realization is the moment called “time”. Clearing this baloney has no greater priority.

Whatever V.K. Durham may or may not have is neither our business nor within our attempt to control. If she has involved us in some way—any way—we will respond and confront. V.K. was totally missing from our scope for months, perhaps years even. She left Okawville, Illinois and went away, apparently, to the “alligators” in Louisiana.

She next surfaced in Ida Grove, Iowa, which she obviously intended that the address not be known. What IS the BS about anonymity and HIDING? What of these Internet bashers who try to hide themselves? They only get found out when they blow their own cover—just as did V.K. Durham.

SHORT CUT TO THE POINT HERE

The true irony in this story is the lengths to which manipulators will go to attain their ends.

The facts ARE exactly what Russell Herman TOLD US they would be: GET COSMOS SEAFOOD ENERGY MARKETING LTD. AND “YOU HAVE ALL YOU WILL EVER NEED”. HE SAID TO “GET IT INTO TOTAL SECURITY” AND THEN WHATEVER YOU UTILIZE DO IT THROUGH AN “ALLIANCE” SET UP FOR THAT PURPOSE AND KEEP IT SIMPLE AND CLEAN, AND AS WELL, WITHIN REASONABLE BOUNDS.

We have taken it much further in that we deal in nothing as mundane or worthless as PAPER—we require GOLD to be available and accounted. Will we EVER be able to do this job? Well, we certainly intend to do so. “Never” and “ever” are really rather big words by definition. We also have everything structured for ABSOLUTE PRIVACY. That in NO WAY suggests anything clandestine nor shady. We want NO attention, fame or notoriety—we would like to live out our days in total non-recognition with all debts paid in full.

WHAT DO “I” THINK ABOUT
SUCH AS V.K. DURHAM?

I don’t, except when she is AGAIN in my face. E.J. doesn’t attend it much even then. You see, we EXPERIENCED the games of Rumor Mill, Bellringer, et al. They are “dark horses”, people, and betting on them is a very foolish bet, to say the very least.

WE HAVE NOTHING TO “PROVE” TO ANYONE SAVE THE PEOPLE WITH WHOM WE TRANSACT INTERCHANGE. We most certainly DO NOT owe ANYONE any information or proof of our own status. We respond in behalf of those who must walk along this same pathway where accusations are flung about like dung in a fan. THEY deserve response and all the proof we can gather. We, I repeat, would be far more happy to have NO recognition AT ALL.

Moreover, we could get back to what we felt was our job in the first place: putting out a paper with information of the valid variety. Or, simply RETIRE and go camping—for that used to be fun with the children and other families out on a “dirt ride”. THAT life STOPPED for us about 17 years ago and this Odyssey has absorbed us, like it or not, since. We accepted the task and we will do the task—and we will not sit silently by while destroyers try to ruin everything good.

WE are NOT out to save the world, or YOU. We “CAN’T” even if we wanted to do so in the worst of ways. We have accepted a job that we CAN do and thus we shall. YOU will have to attend yourself, whoever you might be. If you have helped us, then I would guess that that will be nicely rewarded in the not too distant future—when we scrape off the leeches and other bloodsuckers.

If you want on THIS “bandwagon”, then I assume you can participate—to any extent you please, right up through helping with resources—FOR WHICH ALL/EACH WILL BE REPAID. WHEN WE ARE ACCOMPLISHED HERE WE WANT NO DEBTS HANGING OVER OUR BEINGS—EVER AGAIN!

We will confront, legally, those who have come against us, taken our property and/or brought intentional damage to us or this program. We have several years to accomplish that particular task, so we just keep right on TRACKING as in a train which has finally “started” to roll.

We are confident that other saboteurs will emerge from the dark recesses of the “ratholes” but that is no longer very daunting to us. We will also confront the dirty deeds of Durham and her colleagues even to the New Gaia legal mess where she has CLAIMED FOR HERSELF the responsibility of contacting the Feds, the FDA and turned EVERYONE “in”. She claims to have even gone to INTERPOL with “that” “vitamin mislabeling” debacle. Well, Diane has paid the price and now she can plan on recovering at leisure.

We have information from right here in Manila that it is rumored from these scurrilous Internet sites that Ekkers are “wanted” in Mexico and the U.S. Funny thing is that V.K. has continually touted Grand Jury, warrants for arrest and you name it, just as have the SPECTRUM “crooks” WHO TURNED IN TOTALLY FRAUDULENT AFFIDAVITS—AND YES INDEED, THEY HAVE BEEN NAMED.

As a parent it has been all but impossible to watch the hounds of hell come against family and friends—however, the key words are “all BUT”. It was POSSIBLE and we got through it as to the worst, and if we can’t ever return home to our country, so be it—for sometimes the price of FREEDOM comes in tough packages.

We have not been able to exchange anything except “tidings” for Christmas in such a long time we can’t even remember but somehow the end of a year and the very simple realization of an expectation of a new year brings peace and hope.

Yesterday we had to go over to the “Penn” hotel (across the street) to get processing on our visa extension and walking into that lobby was, as is annual, a chin-dropping experience. That hotel is so elegant anyway and there is no sparing of funds, apparently, for the decorations which just surpass anything we have seen in the “taste” and sheer beauty and size of the decorations. The decorations are made and are huge by combining simple “little ones” into massive wreaths and garlands; the trees have ropes and ropes of lights and poinsettias.

I want to go back and just sit, get a cup of “wassail” and count our blessings.

We have a person due back here for a meeting and a few “checkouts” on Christmas Eve (next Tuesday if memory serves). It would be so like “Dad” to have that be worthy and a step off for the New Year. Every time we are hurting and wallowing in disappointments—we get a boost which is confirming and promising.

There is no “instant” gratification in this journey—as of course, we thought when we started (don’t we all?). We have to EARN every step of the way and with such as this Durham clutch-cult of whatever kind, it IS difficult. I repeat, however, each nasty thrust gives full backup TO THE TRUTH of what REALLY IS.

May we just walk in beauty of the magnificence of the “Penn” lobby and we can tread on a few steps more. We have learned to better check priorities and grow from each experience—right after we lick our wounds.

Experiences are interesting in their own right. Coming back from that visa jaunt we get on the elevator to home and on steps a man with a pleasant face and attitude. I pulled the old silly of “I know you!” He smiled and shook hands and said yes indeed, he is one of our local CONGRESSMEN. Yes, like one of the MOST IMPORTANT ones in the Congress. And, he lives right on the 21st floor! Wonders never cease if we keep our eyes and ears OPEN. Our neighbor directly across the hall is from the Japanese Embassy which, by the way, may also be closed—perhaps even by the 27th (next week).

The predominant expectation is that the Arroyo administration can’t last past next week either. Daily the blasts and revelations of total graft, corruption and outright treason are building and ready to BLOW.

We do what we have always been TOLD TO DO: keep the head down, along with the assets, and keep right on working. We have not been allowed to “play favorites” as to political personages and have been here long enough to have knowledge of the halls of justice and injustice. It certainly becomes easy to see that these years have indeed been far shorter than any sane person could have even hoped.

We can forego a few more turkey days and our own Christmas tree if necessary. It saves a lot of work, anyway, on the 26th and 2nd. We can just turn on the computer and start typing—and, go to McDonalds for our feast! Not bad and the cleanup is easy. Ah BUT, don’t we have wondrous MEMORIES stored to get us through these “lights out” days where the festivities must wait again until their turn for attention.

Well, I need to close lest I get nostalgic and have a self-pity party.

Let us count our blessings of which there are so many to occupy the day(s). We are grateful for everything, including the lessons—for else how could we do this job? We are happy that Diane has graduated from her resort management program—and now all we need is our own resort!

Our son, Chuck, called day before yesterday and said it was very cold in Los Angeles. Just an hour prior to his call, Ellen and Mark had called and said they were all but stranded in SNOW. All asked about our weather. It is embarrassing to say that it is exactly like yesterday and last year—90 degrees in the shade and warming. Electricity is too costly to run air-conditioners much, so we sit in a windstorm in front of a fan while we sweat for “natural cooling”. It is fine and we are settled sufficiently to get our work done.

At home back at the farm—or off it as the case now is, it is more difficult as ones make room and make do in the confusion. We will have to confront the “losses” at a future time and even Mr. Turner knows we have a very good case against him—but he “had to sell” and there is the nutshell circumstance.

He tried to capture a lot of things but the court allows until the Dec. 30th to move what is ours as to household, office, etc., items. It is a full bother and a massive “LOSS” but what IS—IS and it becomes one more thing out of our hands for concern or burden. There are other expenses to keep the paper going, phones and other utilities met but in many ways the burden is, for the moment anyway, lessened a bit. I find it much like “death” in that we perceive loss, grieve a bit or a lot, and move on in management with whatever is required or best applicable in the aftermath.

I’m sorry, friends, but with each thing TAKEN or FORCED from us, I function better—for the load is not so heavy on the back and settlement and forward movement LATER will be ever so much better achieved.

If we don’t “make it”, then the circumstances in point are moot issues. But, when we (and we will) get this up and running the point is, again, a moot issue because we can pick and choose that which is better for our purposes—while being able to possibly RECOVER some of the losses and damages or, at the least, shut down the perpetrators of lies and crimes. And yes indeed, I certainly DO want them shut down and out of their incredible disinformation businesses.

I will say that V.K. Durham and her brood of chickens have credited me with being so important and brilliant as to have claimed the world and control all in it—and thank HER kindly or unkindly, as the case may well be. Let us bless the assaults, for indeed we CAN confront and WE CERTAINLY DO HAVE DOCUMENTED BACKUP FOR ALL WE CLAIM—AND YES, IT TOOK ME A WHILE TO ACTUALLY BELIEVE IT MYSELF. Oh, we knew it was “real” but we just couldn’t quite see how we could get this done and the backup we needed.

We were told we would “have what you need” and so we have! Being allowed staying the course is all that is now left to accomplish!

Have a loving Christmas and try to laugh a bit as in “merry” and then let us turn to the NEW YEAR with all the wondrous potential of which we get only a glimpse in the crystal ball from time to time. We ALWAYS have promise of program adjustments in August and January—since we began this odyssey. We look forward to better, for it is always likewise so that it happens that way—we don’t ever move backward—only a step forward.

May there be peace within even if not “without” in the hurting world. We must offer healing and not just bandages for the bleeding wounds. WE “CAN” DO THAT and we CAN DO THIS. Our very deepest love, appreciation and “THANK YOU” to each and every one of you—even V.K. (who reads the paper most faithfully and carefully. Too bad she misses the important things).

To you who would have LIGHT on these things—please, “turn on the lights”, for the resources are all available to all.

Joy to the world, for unto us is given “a way to better understanding” and experience if we but seize the opportunity and paddle like mad.

Love, Doris and E.J., from beautiful downtown Paradise—so the saying goes.

REACH OUT TO OTHERS

Reach out to others, with your heart, your hand,
Every opportunity that comes, it’s yours to command,
And build in them confidence, strong faith and love,
Cause this is our Father’s teachings, sent from above.

Help others daily, as you travel life’s road,
On into the future, as you lighten some load,
Unto thee is given, strong leadership so true,
The Heavens send blessings in the teachings we do.

Thankful in heart, and as long as we live,
Others will benefit from the services we give.
Our mutual thoughts of love, faith, hope and peace,
The inspirations given, they will never cease.

Happy is the person, to know you as a friend,
Eternal is this blessing, like a circle without end.

Reach out to others and with a faith so true,
Surely, God decrees it, and He will see you through.

PHOENIX JOURNAL #14 (1990)

APPENDIX I

AUDIO TAPE

May 2, 1990 11:35A.M.—Hatonn

Greetings Commander.

I come in Light.

Thank you.

Dharma has known since she got up this morning that it is a very urgent day. I hate to use two-by-fours across your cranial cavity. You could very well be in the middle of nuclear war 3 by nightfall. An incredibly serious impasse has been achieved in your Panama Canal area. What you will hear is not what has taken place.

I have a tendency to bypass my own security measures and you will please be patient with me, for I have much to do this day, but I will tell you now there is nothing more important than the peace of mind of you ones.

As we ready ourselves to begin to pen the information that regards the Zionist-Jewish persons that have infiltrated into your government the bombardment is going to get worse here.

You are hostage, and I may not do anything about it. I speak of your country.

While Mrs. Bush hugs and kisses babies with AIDS in an orphanage, lies go forth. Mr. Endara is somewhere in your United States and I will not divulge his location.

Both of the Vice Presidents of Panama are in incarceration in the coup. There are two Cosmospheres sitting above the Panama Canal, daring. There are at least six missiles, any one of which could wipe out Panama—ready, aimed and waiting to be fired depending on what your nation does.

The backup forces are all along the coastline in Central America; Peru is in an active state of rebellion. You see the United States and Great Britain tried to dink around in their election. They have already been at war with you because you sent your ships and you sent your planes into Peru and those people turned down the politician puppet that the United States had sent.

Great military forces are lining up on either side. You can expect anything. The reason I say to you that you can expect anything is because they are adamantly denying it out of Washington, so you can be sure.

The Panamanians are angry. Over ten thousand of their people killed in what you ones have called a little invasion and the Israeli Zionists are up to their eyes in it. Absolutely up to their eyes in it. They’re getting ready to take over Jerusalem, friends. You are in the final days of your countdown. Whatever information you are getting is the big B word.

There is a terror campaign going on about your planet unmatched in all of the history since the creation of your planet.

The Zionists have been working on their temple aided and abetted by the Christians who want that temple up because they say that brings the Second Coming of the Christos. Until that temple is operable that will not happen. So, while you have the ones hiding behind the Greek Orthodox Church who have just sold out to the Jews who have now occupied the building in Jerusalem in the Christian Quarter, they are ready to go to war, too. They’ve already brought armaments in and stashed them in that building. It has nothing to do with religion. I did not even need to say that. You know that.

They have all of their artifacts ready to begin their Jewish “Orthodox sacrificial services” again, their rituals. They’ve now finished gathering up or remaking all of the items necessary for their altars and for their sacrificial altars.

Just as with the passage of time they have done a little investigating and they find they’re off with their own predictions of exactness. They find now, my friends, they don’t have to build that temple at the Dome of The Rock exactly, but it means they almost have to have a mutual wall some three-feet distance from the wall of the Dome of The Rock Temple Mosque.

The Zionists are getting ready to take Jerusalem.

Every uprising that you have had where there have been any guerilla activities whatsoever the Jewish Mossad have trained the troops, including your own. They have no loyalties. The very nicest thing that could happen would be that the United States and Russia go to war, then they wouldn’t have to pull this off.

I want you ones to come to your own conclusions. I have to be honest with you, Dharma is so confused in her consciousness that I have great difficulty getting through. She needed to respond immediately to me when I first called this morning, but it became a discussion of things and then she doesn’t know which way to turn—and I’ll tell you something else, friends, when the news is bad she turns me off. It is the most human of all responses. “Don’t tell me this, Hatonn, I don’t need another thing.” So we walked on the hill and we picked the flowers and I still could not touch her. She would not hear me.

I gave you ones signs and you chuckled knowing full well that’s what they were. That computer was set to go off the first time she pushed the save button—and she’d be hit with a beam. I’m sorry, we couldn’t let it happen.

We're getting into material now, friends, that is very serious. There is no mercy in the Zionist-Jewish community, none. We're talking now about a thirteenth tribe known as the Khazars. They've infiltrated every quarter of your government and information has been written—but they know the truth is coming from here. They monitor everything that goes on here.

Dharma is uncomfortable about going to Los Angeles, rightfully so. She knows they have got her targeted.

There are a string of Cosmospheeres, some seven in strategic locations along the San Andreas Fault. If they blast the Panama Canal, they will blast the fault.

Now what else can I tell you to make your day happy? I am sorry that Charles got away.

You can not live in fear—fear renders everyone totally helpless, but neither do you play into the hands and foolishness. These are the probabilities of change that you have to understand that we can only predict. We cannot definitely say anything. This was a very secret military move and I believe now that you understand the mechanism of Guyana. You can understand that which I tell you. You don't know what is going on, you have no idea what is going on in your world. Even when you are told you don't know what is going on. If they blast the San Andreas Fault, it will trigger so many things that I can't even outline them here. You already have activity. You already have a steady beam system being beamed into the fault lines. You have a row, if you will—does that mean what I'm trying to express (lined up)?—(Audience: Yes.) Craft, spheres, along the deep fault in your mid-Pacific. They would probably trigger that first because that would disrupt and would cause tidal waves. That is the rift, the major rift in the Pacific Ocean floor.

Lemuria is rising. They know Lemuria is rising. They know that there are at least three domed underwater cities already populated and they hover above them. You see the full length of that rift is not volcanic. It's much like a fault line and a volcanic fault line. As the volcanoes are erupting and spreading the plates in many areas you get an upthrust, some you simply get pillow lava formations as the lava cools. These are great depths, but basically what is happening is that those are the areas where it is releasing the pressure of the upthrust. The intent would be to trigger complete unrest with particle beams that would disrupt that fault line first. That way they could better control and you would not have massive movement of your entire planetary plates, but only the Pacific plate.

That could very well take out Japan. It would only damage somewhat Australia because Australia is not on the Pacific plate. It rubs against it a little and that's off shore.

It would wreak havoc with all of the system up along your western South American coast, Central America and give you trouble, quite frankly, all the way into the Sedona area—all portions of old Lemuria of which this is a part and so are the four corners areas, parts of Central America and Peru. This is the way these places were formed, friends, and now technology is sophisticated enough upon your planet to pull it off.

Son, you will look. I believe you have a hawk.

Oberli: "I believe so too."

We'll have to be ridiculous about the birds. Life is very similar in the bird world to life in the real world.

I'd never get back here if that hawk got that Oriole.

If you see one yellow feather, Oberli, you'd better hide it.

Where was I? Back into some mundane thing about nuclear war, I believe. Audience: Peru????

It's a heavy day in these spheres. This is why we've come, to monitor. This is why you are here, to be ready, and your consciousness says, "I can't handle it. It's too much; I can't believe it." Believe it and pray, you need more time. In your perception of time we need more time.

The greed of man is so incredible that every time Germain gets things worked out they get to the final issuing of funds and the confounded greed gets so big that both sides lose for lack of being able to negotiate. Your world has gotten to the point where they no longer even wish to build projects—they want to only make money on money and everybody wants it all and I'm talking billions of dollars.

I would take some inquiries. I'm distracted, I'm sorry.

Ed, were you aware of anything on Panama?

I? The result of the news was that the two Vice Presidents were "caught and in custody" and this guy that's in the United States, Endara, was with Bush making a little chat. That's all I heard.

Hatonn: Yes, it was on just a minute ago. Not very much, just exactly what Ed said.

Al: They were talking about, the last day or two, about Bush was mad at Congress because they won't release the funds to help Panama or something to that effect.

Oberli: That sounds like a contest between Bush's faction and the Zionist faction.

Hatonn: Ah so, were getting some reasoning; continue, you ones have all the answers.

Oberli: Congress is owned by the Zionists. Bush is a Rockefeller conspirator.

Al: Pulled the puppet out and they've got him up here now.

Hatonn: Got him into safety didn't they?

Oberli: Yes.

Al: I heard about week before last or last week, we set up or we're going to set up a training ground down in Peru for I forget how many battalions. In other words we are taking over Peru. I don't know whether it is the Zionists or the Bush part, but they were American troops.

Hatonn: Well, you see, while nobody was looking, now they've got your ships along that coastline. They managed to do right under your nose exactly what they started out to do and got caught off Colombia, so they turned all of the ships around and send them back home and the minute it quiets down they go off again. Do you know where your aircraft carriers are? Do you know where your nuclear submarines are?

Al: They haven't talked about it that I know of.

Hatonn: So they haven't have they?

Al: No information at all.

Hatonn: Do you see how difficult it is?

I have to say a few things here because I have to allow Dharma to hear them from me. She cannot go into the room and trust what she receives. She came to Oberli and she said, "We're going to have a meeting or I'll do it myself or something, there's something wrong. He suggested do it yourself, it will be faster. This is not to be obnoxious to Oberli. It is just that when her consciousness is so disturbed she cannot get through and she does not hear me. She doesn't trust what she hears. That's why we had to have the tape. I had to get herself aside. She wants to participate. It's her life. It's your life. For the first time she sensed the terror that comes with having a machine gun aimed at her. She's been able to resist that for a while, but you're playing with the devil now. So far you've been playing with the puppets. You stand toe to toe with the devil this morning. At some point the Truth of the Journals comes out. It is not that any one portion—save the counterfeit money and probably what I'm telling you right now—has not been known and published by someone somewhere and they've been shut up.

I'm not going to tell you ever whether or not you are the only ones publishing this material or amongst many. I have told you that information will come in a major way from seven locations as protection. I did not say it would come in a comprehensive lump, that there would be many or one. I want no one dwelling upon it. As you go through the literature available you will find fifty books uncovering UFO escapades. I could sit here and name the various authors. Why do you think that suddenly ones such as Bill Cooper would want to sue Dharma? Why do you think so many in "the New Age movement" and the UFO movement send the books back and try to get George to stop printing them? Because it's going to put them all out of business and Dharma says, "My God, I won't have anybody that's not my enemy." Right, and I have to remind her that she sat in this chair with most of you present when we said if you step over this line my child, there is no going back. Please everybody remember that and she made her choice and she does not wish to change her choice but she feels responsible. Her choice does not mean everybody else has to go down that primrose path. So that remains everyone's and each one's decision, always forever and ever, Amen.

And in each day there is a new decision. "Well, if I stop now, I won't have the Zionists pissed off at me." Oh, yes you do, my child, but where the Zionist Jew works the hardest, so is God and there will not be another crucifixion of a Christos. That does not mean that there won't be plenty of murder of the Christians, but it will not be as it was and that is the promise of God. Rightfully so, a small handful of you very human beings look and say, "Not me, Father, you know I don't understand this. I'm willing to do whatever it is you want but we can't be that important." Yes, you are that important. I don't know how to tell you that you are that important—and yet you will be given your freewill choices right along with all other entities created by God upon your placement.

You must not work in fear. Have a healthy, cautious respect for the terror you feel. It will keep the light about you. It will keep the light about you because every time you have a little twinge of terror you also say, "Oh, God" and it's there. The shield is there. We don't have many ways that we can reach out and hit you. You have to watch for the clues.

It was well proven to you this morning. We could not allow you to fix the computer as simply as that, but it was realized from the moment that it was turned on that there was something the matter with it. Somebody had done something to it. It worked in perfection yesterday, why would it not this morning? This does not mean that you do not go ahead and fix a mechanical object. It does mean pay attention.

You are moving into very heavy times. The point is your perception should not change from day to day. The birds sing, the flowers bloom, the sky is blue and the secrets are magnificent. I can not tell you all of this, I can suggest that I don't want Dharma in Anaheim. I do not believe that you need that particular course. It would give a great deal more comfort to have you right here and I don't know that Charles needs to spend $500 of his money to go to that course. Do we know how to get him?

Oberli: Yes. I could find him later tonight.

Hatonn: I would not like to interfere with his journey because he needs the visit with his family. As I analyze it, I see safety but you know it's going to split right through that area. Give me some of your Earth names.

Oberli: He's in_____.

Hatonn: In the Angeles Forest. That split goes right along down through what you call Lake Hughes. Am I correct?

Oberli: Yes, and through what's called The Devil's Garden.

Hatonn: Well, it's going to shake at_____.

Oberli: Yes, it's just five miles or maybe seven. Does everybody know where Mount Wilson is? It sits above Los Angeles on the highest part of the Angeles Crest Mountains. Highway 2 that goes across the crest of the mountain to Wrightwood and the fault line is probably within a mile of Wrightwood. It might be right down Main Street. I remember right. I think that the fault is really what causes the little valley that Wrightwood is in.

Al: Charles has a sister there?

Oberli: No, his daughter. George is planning to drive up tomorrow morning, early, and then he and Desiré were considering going to the Anaheim meeting, also—and Chris and LeRoy just called a few minutes ago and said that they wanted to set up a corporation. What did I think about them going to the Anaheim meeting? Sounds like that this is not a good time to be in Anaheim.

Hatonn: No, it is not.

Oberli: Will it be several days before the Panama situation clears one way or another?

Hatonn: I can't tell. Oh, it's going to be several days. Perhaps I misunderstand your question. What you are wanting to know is if it's going to be safe down there in a few days? I'm not going to tell you that. As long as those Cosmospheres sit above that fault line it's not safe and they show no signs of withdrawing. They know they've got the power, my friends. They've got the last word. As a matter of fact they've got the last word for your planet. You have nothing that can knock them out because in the mere destruction of them triggers the beam. They've got you until you come up with something more clever. The only thing they don't have is the ability to get rid of us.

Oberli: I have some confusion because we can recognize two factions, but the Russians have not—they have alignments with the Rockefeller cartel from time to time but not consistently. As near as I can tell and it appears that we have a three-way proposition going now. You've got the Zionists on one hand and they are currently aligned with the Bolsheviks, so that's the Zionist-Bolshevik group, the Rockefeller Cartel group, and then the Russians. They have the Cosmospheres. They have the power, yet we don't feel, I don't feel where their alignment is. At this point it must be opposite the Zionists.

Hatonn: My dear, it's where ever it is most convenient for them. They are the brains behind the entire thing.

Al: You're talking about the Zionists?

Hatonn: I'm talking about the Zionists, I'm talking about the anti-Christian "Bolshevik" government of what you call Soviet Russia.

Oberli: The current government of Soviet Russia kicked out the Bolsheviks and they ganged up with the Zionists and took over the U.S. The Bolsheviks and the Zionists are together.

Al: Who has the Cosmospheres, the White Russians?

Oberli: Yeah, White Russians. Bush and the Rockefeller gang have aligned themselves from time to time with the Cosmospheres.

Hatonn: Yes, they're trying very hard right now. Why do you think that he's being so lovely? Why do you think he's giving away Lithuania to the devil?

Al: Well, I've always seen they are a bunch of Godfathers working together for basic things but fighting amongst themselves and killing off each other for their own self-greed.

Oberli: Let me turn the tape.

Side 2

Hatonn: From the time of your Biblical writings you should have pieced together your clues and realized that a major play will be made out of Syria. It says so right in your Bible. It's one of the truths. It will be Syrian in origin. Those poor little countries over there are aligning themselves up for any kind of defense that they can muster. We're talking about a lot of anti-Christian people, if you would know of it. This is the time of chaos. Basically, everybody on your planet is anti-Christian in the true sense of the word. And the ones who wear the title spread across their forehead are usually the most lethal of all and the most ignorant—the most deceived.

You have to go all the way back to the beginning of a planet created, destroyed, reclaimed for Lucifer and then the story began to be changed and Lucifer told you how you'd be. When his name was changed to Satan you knew how it would be. The entire Bible—even the lies in the Bible—tells you exactly how it would be. He's the master Prince of Deceit and lies. You were told that before the ending of the cycle of the time of the age he would be given free reign on this planet. Little did you realize, did you, that it was that way from the beginning? You see, everything that you perceive within is going to have to come without. You're going to have to look at everything that happens in your existence from the inner core without.

As the Luciferian groups get kicked out of one place after another and separated from the presence of God—always they are given a place to experience—the scenario is so well written that you go through it. You see, Satan needs no new script—the old one works just fine. He needs no new script. He has learned that the man, HU-man, created to experience, always will do essentially the same thing in mass—in mass consciousness. Individual players will change, individual intents will change but the mass of the human stream of experience will repeat and repeat and repeat and repeat.

So the first thing that they have to get rid of in the Bible, for instance, is the possibility of anyone truly believing that one could re-experience—although all logic would tell you that if you have a universal one entity Creator without limits, He can do anything He wants. So the next obvious perception would be that He would not waste an experience of a soul fragment by putting it in a coffin and burying it in the ground to be lost forever. There would be no purpose in such a thing. What would be the purpose? And yet Satan comes and tells you all this and everybody eats it just like ice cream and it melts so sweetly and it goes right down.

And then he tells you don't listen to the truth when it comes because it's a lie. So man puts his fingers in both ears, puts on his dark glasses, will not read, falls prey to a system that destroys an educational system where man eventually will not be able to read and march so gently, sweetly right along behind. And when I project these things they come back to batter your humanness with all that doom and gloom. "Everything looks so bad I'm going to go back over there and hold my crystal and I'm going to do some chants and I'm going to do some aums and ums."

The blessed in Brazil are going through reformation of their church and the precious little peasants crawling on their knees for miles to get to a holy altar only to get there and find it's no magic place. Somewhere along their crawling they missed God and at the end of their trail there's a man and some bits of metal and stone and they carry their statue in its glass sarcophagus of the Blessed Mother—and all along the way they miss Mother for a statue. Oh Jesus wept, my friends, but it's an experience, it's an experience. The one who crawls must learn the man who stands at the end with all of that Light being focused upon him understands not the responsibility that he bears because washing your hands in a pot of water and saying, "I am through with this," doesn't cut it. Nobody is going to say, "Well, it's not my fault. It was Preacher Jones or Pope Paul's and I just did what I was told," anymore than the man in Vietnam that bashes in the head of a peasant in the village and kills a child.

The forgiveness is there if he asks forgiveness, the responsibility is the same and yet God makes those... I don't know—I should not give you a new word. He gives you that leeway. If you're acting under orders and you don't know better, if you have a gun to your head panic comes—do I kill the child or do I have my own head blown off? Man screams out for his own salvation and there is no blame—God has no blame. God does not pronounce right or wrong. You meet Him in the final days and you know what was right or wrong and that's up to you; but it's why young men go crazy because they knew and they know there is no excuse for the behavior—they went mad.

Mass madness—your world is in mass madness and if one thing looks good, the swarm swims toward that and in the light of day somewhere else looks good and the masses swim back to that. All the while they miss the truth that lays in the middle—the simple truth. They're so busy swimming to God that they miss Him. The day you go back to the rituals in the Jewish church that so much as kills a chicken, you've had it. And I'm talking about public acceptance of sacrificial offerings, in a sanctified church in the name of God. How could a little lamb be killed to save yourselves? You've just gained one more by killing it. Better you kill it and eat it, thanking Grandfather for the service of food, than to kill it and offer it as your sacrifice for your sins.

I would respond to any questions that you have. I really need to be at my duty.

Oberli: I think we've heard your message about the Anaheim meeting. Are there any words of advice for George and Desiree?

Hatonn: I see no point in those children going. They are being pressed for time. You must go about your life.

With some care it will possibly be aborted. What has happened here is you ones have become sensitive enough that you know when something is amiss. Dharma simply gets to a point where she cannot function—she has become such a part of my beingness and she does not yet have the same ability to acquire the information and she cannot sort it. She can understand it as I sit here right now. She will come back, she will listen to the tape and it will be as if she's heard it for the first time. There is no ability to sort the true knowledge in the consciousness. You're not there yet nor is it wise that you be there yet—but when there is disruption in the energy patterns, in the energy flow, she senses them and you ones will just simply have to be patient. She doesn't know what they are.

These are things that I should not be—for your own security—really discussing and yet I'm put in a position where I cannot leave her dangle. It is going to be a time of changes almost from moment to moment as we move farther. What is appropriate for one hour may change before the next. You see, of all the things disallowed, the time of the coming is totally a no-no, even to the one coming. I've tried to explain that to you ones. Because of the energy patterns you are dealing with—an energy that has all the power of a God short of being Creator and that is Lucifer/Satan. He has all of the power of a Christ, Jesus Esu Sananda. He does not have the ability—there is a difference in the ability and capability and power, friends. He does not have the power to create. He cannot go create a planet. The Light has the power to create—the darkness has the power to destroy, to bring into chaos and confusion. He has the same power of usage of the human mind as does the Lighted forces and the only real shield you have against this energy is the energy of God—which is the Light vibration frequency—that stops it. Just as the shields that can now be put around the new submarines in your forces—both you and the Russians—there is a barrier, unfortunately it will not prevent penetration from the cosmic spheres and that particular type of beam but the Light Shield will do it. The vibration, the actual plasmic shell that will form when asked for from the God Source—your mind, if you will—can focus that shell that will protect you, and I would be open for suggestions. You tell me how to get this Word to man. How do we get this Word to man and make him hear? Satan's had a real head start, brothers. Our job is to keep some of you remnants alive.

It's going to be a transition... it's going to be—period. Our job is to do the very best we can to get the Word to the four corners of this planet for information and it is up to man—and you cannot go into the corners and bear the burden for every last person on the planet if you have done your job. It will not stop the weeping or the broken heart of the human entity. You ones are going to be so vulnerable and it pains me. I know the outcome—you don't. You can only trust and if human emotions are such that it is so overwhelming—and you wouldn't be here if you were not here to help—than to watch men slaughter each other is almost too much for you. And how can you turn it away when it's someone you love? Someone you've possibly birthed and they deny you and they fall into the cravass and you have to keep going? You have to keep going all the way to the top of that hill. You can't lay that cross down. You have to allow ones to fall to the side lest too many be lost because you didn't get there and, yes, in the end, you'll simply be home. But you've chosen this route. You've chosen to gain this experience and you chose from such a much higher plane because you felt that your soul energy would be strong enough to bear it and here you are. It's not easy and you're not super-human, you're just human—given to all of things of the human. So be it.

We all understand each other. That's why we're here—we have such an understanding, such a oneness of purpose and thought—just different jobs—and it is confusing. It is a world of confusion... dense impact... confusion of energy completely surrounding everything being beamed forth. Look what they are doing with your fruit flies, for goodness sakes. They're being purposely introduced. Don't try to make reason out of it. There is no reason within it. Oh, there are reasons they're doing it but there is no reason. Two-thirds of a planet have to be wiped away and it will be done in very interesting ways. You're not going to be able to get enough, you see, with AIDS or through the drug programs. You're going to have to have a massive war and the facts are you sit on the brink of it continually. It isn't new today, just a few actions are different today, but you ones are becoming very intuitive about things—something is wrong today—is what I get. Not quite right today. It is a beautiful day and my heart sings but there's something wrong today. The energies are not quite right.

Well, the energies coming off this crystal are incredible today. You have a Command out here on full alert and this is a central navigation crystal and if it doesn't make your ears ring, there's nothing in this world that will. I have over a million ships in my own singular Command. You are blanketed out beyond your stratosphere—some within—at red alert to the extent that I have trouble getting a channel today—a circuit. That's how cluttered your airways are today. That's pure physics; that is not mystical nonsense. That's pure radio tuning against a very, very large silicon chip. You have enough power coming off of that crystal to blow your computer and all it takes is one or two ships in vibration frequency to both wipe out your programs or change them. It happens this was deliberately done and not by me. I merely didn't let you finish fixing it because it wasn't fixed until you could over-ride that program.

Well, it will settle down and you will be able to fix it. I would prefer however, that she read and basically stand by. I don't know that I would need another visit today. Oberli, I would quite frankly suggest that you call W.C., see what you can find out, urge him to urge them to make concessions. Do not give away any confidentiality, please, but you should touch with him. We're talking about over a billion dollars and we don't want to let it all slip away. There's no way to tell you it's going to be easy because it isn't. Perhaps a war is the least of your problems. The S & L mess is such a mess but I would tell you something funny. I don't know if I should... even my own humor is too much.

Would you care to guess where the Resolution Trust Corporation is looking for help?—am I right, Oberli?

Oberli: Yes.

Hatonn: Plans to solve part of their major problems in funding? Would you care to guess?

Al: Let me think about that.

Hatonn: No, answer without thinking about it.

John: Oh, through the banks, through security on “bum” loans.

Hatonn: No. Closer to home, my friend.

Al: Through, through...

Hatonn: AH SO!!

Al: JJ?

Hatonn: Now you talk about little coincidences? And how secure does that make you feel?

What does that tell you about this world? Well, your pension program is just right there with three-quarters of all the weight of the body off of the edge of the cliff. It is hanging there with one fingernail. And what an interesting thing, you know, just moving back to what we discussed yesterday, let's lighten this off before I leave. I don't want to leave her with such a heavy load. Isn't it amusing that at the time of the hearing, when it began to get to be a real mess with this dwelling [Adam Drive] and Judge Brent, Mr. Cudd sent information along at the same time the house plans for this dwelling had been loaned to ones in Fresno. Now we're going to go back to court, so Mr. Cudd sends some things by mail, the people in Fresno send the house plans back by mail only to find that the mail person who had contracted to deliver the mail in Golden Hills was not delivering the mail but instead burning it or stashing it in the closet—had taken the contract without even a vehicle to deliver the mail—and no one discovered it for weeks until the water bills didn't show up. Now this makes all the papers. Everybody has to re-send billings, for instance, but nothing arrived to anyone. So when this was made clear to the “court”, part of the thing that the judge wants to thrust forth is that it sounds so real, you know, “Big deal. I'm sure everything was lost in the mail.” Isn't it interesting that a tape recording was made of his big, blasphemous speech and now there is no transcript and no tape? And they didn't even have an interruption in the mail service and worse yet, I am aggravated beyond belief that the attorney, Bill Hornback, signed away a paper saying both sides had been heard. No wonder Judge Brent can say in a public place, “I have never been overturned.” He does not expect to be overturned because the very thing that made it possible to over-rule has now been taken away. So we're going to have to have a whole total collapse of the Santa Barbara Savings mess or those judges will go along with Jason Brent. That's why it's important it gets into the paper. You have no justice system. You have no truthful religious system. You have no truthful governmental system. You have no truthful medical system. It is truly murder by injection, rape of a justice system. You have been taken over by Satanic law and I believe that I would go on that note. Call me if you wish to communicate with me further. Salu. Yes, I am going to go. Let me spend a minute with her. Just continue about your day.

INSPECTORS SAY U.S., UK MUST SHARE INTELLIGENCE

By Alistair Lyon, Daily News, 12/20/02

BAGHDAD (Reuters)—Arms inspectors on Friday criticized the United States, because they are saying Baghdad is in “material breach” of a UN disarmament resolution, and its ally Britain and yet neither not sharing vital information on Iraq. ...

Iraq said Washington had over-reacted by saying Baghdad’s weapons declaration was a “material breach”.

A day after Hans Blix told the United Nations the 12,000-page Iraqi arms declaration mainly repeated old reports and revealed little new data, the chief weapons inspector turned on two of Iraq’s fiercest critics for not sharing intelligence.

“If the UK and the U.S. are convinced and they say they have evidence, well then one would expect that they would be able to tell us where is this stuff,” said Blix, in charge of chemical, biological and ballistic weapons inspection teams in Iraq.

Asked if he was getting all the cooperation he wanted from Western intelligence, he told BBC radio: “Not yet. We get some but we don’t get all we need.”

“The most important thing that governments like the UK or the U.S. could give us would be to tell us of sites where they are convinced that they keep some weapons of mass destruction.”

A spokesman for the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), Mark Gwozdecky, told Reuters the UN nuclear watchdog had also received little help despite being “led to believe that we will be getting some of this information”.

Blix told the Security Council in his initial report on the Iraqi dossier that it had failed to include data on some chemical and biological agents, such as anthrax, in what he called a “missed opportunity”.

Washington stood alone on Friday in saying Iraq had committed a “material breach” by lying about its weapons programs.

Even its closest ally, Britain, stopped short of using the term that could trigger war. “At the moment we simply don’t know whether Iraq will be found in breach of the United Nations resolution,” Blair said. ...

The three other permanent members of the Security Council—China, France and Russia—have also refrained from saying Iraq was in “material breach” of the UN resolution.

Bush administration officials have indicated the next milestone date would be January 27 when the UN weapons inspectors are scheduled to make their first substantial assessment to the Security Council. They said Bush could make a decision around that time to attack Iraq.

Fueling speculation of a U.S.-led attack early next year, a German government source said Washington had asked Berlin to provide 2,000 troops to guard U.S. bases in the country at the end of January. ...

“It was political,” Amin, the chief Iraqi official liaising with UN weapons inspectors, said by telephone. “Even before they were able to read and analyze the declaration they said it had many gaps.”

Iraq’s Ba’ath Party newspaper al-Thawra said recent inspections of sites mentioned in a British government dossier on Iraqi arms programs had “exposed the lies and allegations by the Bush administration and its ally Blair.”

“If they have other information, as they allege, why don’t they give it to the inspection teams to verify?” al-Thawra said in an editorial. ...

[JR: Keep your focus on PEACE... especially this time of year! The U.S. is running into a lot of roadblocks against war and the new phrase among our allies is now “show us the evidence you claim to have”—but we all know that will never happen.]

UNMOVIC INSPECTION TEAM CRITICISES U.S.

By Timothy Bancroft-Hinchey, PRAVDA—Ru, 12/06/02

Washington has managed to add the United Nations Organisation to the growing list of entities offended by the arrogance of its rhetoric. A senior weapons inspector on the UNMOVIC team has declared that it is this organism which dictates how the inspections should be carried out, not Washington.

Demetrius Perricos, the leader of the team searching for biological and chemical weapons, rejected the calls by Washington for the teams to be more aggressive. “The people who sent us here are the international community, the United Nations. We are not serving the U.S. We are not serving the UK”, he declared.

The inspector added that if the U.S. shared its intelligence with the UNMOVIC and IAEA teams, perhaps gaps in information could be bridged. Yesterday the White House declared that it has a “solid base” for believing that Iraq has hidden its Weapons of Mass Destruction.

Should Iraq fail to mention all of its weapons of mass destruction in the report it is to present to the UN Security Council this weekend, this would constitute what it termed as a “serious breach”, which would automatically involve a meeting of the UN Security Council to discuss possible paths of action to follow.

Which path is followed by the U.S. is a question which is dividing the administration. Bush, Cheney and Rumsfeld, the hawks, would use any material breach as justification for a war, which would depose Saddam Hussein’s regime and impose a puppet regime as in Afghanistan, while at the same time Washington would command the vast oil resources of Iraq. Yesterday, Deputy Defence Secretary Paul Wolfowitz declared in the NATO headquarters in Brussels that NATO countries could take part in a post-Saddam coalition peace-keeping force.

Meanwhile, Defence Secretary Rumsfeld is set to announce a call-up of 10,000 more reservists, to add to the 50,000 already in service since September 11th.

Colin Powell, on the other hand, has made it clear that he is in favour of using diplomacy and collaborating with the United Nations Organisation, a policy which is echoed by Moscow and one which is in line with the norms of international law.

[JR: I think it was very generous of WOLFowitz to offer NATO countries some token participation in the U.S.’s post-Saddam “coalition” peacekeeping force. If the Bush Administration wants all of their anti-Saddam rhetoric to be believed, they should openly provide any crucial evidence they claim to have to the UNMOVIC team to officially verify. The reason this isn’t done is that all their ranting and raving could not be verified and would only humiliate the Bush-whackers. It all boils down to nothing more than an anti-Saddam propaganda campaign.]

IMMIGRATION LAWS ALMOST NULL AND VOID

By Georgie Anne Geyer,
Universal Press Syndicate, 12/06/02

WASHINGTON—The humongous new Department of Homeland Security has been kicked off, and don’t we all feel safer now? This agency, bringing together 170,000 employees from such unlike institutions as the Coast Guard and the Immigration and Naturalization Service, is charged with protecting us from Al Qaeda terrorists and international ne’er-do-wells, not to speak of bawdy brigands on the high seas. ...

The common reassurances to Americans after Sept. 11 were that: 1) Now, because so much of the terrorism devastation came from our ridiculously lax immigration “controls”, the government would act intelligently to manage immigration; 2) the Bush administration’s push for a massive amnesty was dead as the proverbial doornail; and 3) other governments would never again be allowed to dictate our immigration policies. ...

Here are some of the symptoms of the problem:

Census data just released by the INS show that legal immigration levels have risen by a huge 65 percent in the last two years; and the Federation for Immigration Reform estimates that in 2001, about 350,000, or one in three of the people who became legal American residents, had either entered the country illegally or remained here after the expiration of a temporary visa.

This is the first time in nearly a century that immigration has exceeded the 1 million mark, and the increase is due to illegal immigrants gaining legal status. ...

As a matter of fact, however, the amnesty idea continues to find fertile ground because President Bush neither fights it nor presents his own policy; indeed, the new American ambassador to Mexico, Tony Garza, declared before he went to his post that the Bush administration was renewing its amnesty proposals.

Meanwhile, Democratic House Minority Leader Richard Gephardt recently went even further than the Republicans in putting through a House bill that would have granted immediate green cards not only to most of the millions of illegal immigrants in the U.S., but also to their spouses and minor children outside America. To round it off, they would become immediately eligible for all federal and state welfare benefits hitherto available only to legal immigrants.

This would mean that when all the eligible relatives of the millions of illegal immigrants already in the U.S. were accounted for, the final total for the amnesty could be as many as 22 million people. ...

Mexico, in its aggressive move to spread its sovereignty over all Mexicans, including Mexicans with green cards and even Mexican-Americans, is now pushing effectively to get the formal Mexican identity card, the “matricula consular”, accepted as identification for Mexicans inside America.

Over the past eight months, more than 80 cities, some 600 police departments and thousands of businesses have formally recognized this ID, according to the Mexican Foreign Ministry. At the same time, 13 states have agreed to accept the card as a sufficient ID for a driver’s license application, without regard to visa status. The result of this, says Mark Krikorian, of the Center for Immigration Studies, is that “it’s part of a creeping amnesty. What we’re seeing with illegal immigrants is a growing institutionalization of their status.” ...

Finally, right here in Washington, Mayor Anthony A. Williams takes the position that non-citizens in the district should be allowed to vote in local elections. He has said the city needs to develop a “new standard for voting—but it isn’t citizenship.” It is probably, he said then, paying taxes. Thus, on every level, our citizenship and our security are themselves under attack. ...

The poor INS has been criticized interminably over the years, but frankly most of this is not the INS' fault. It is the fault of an American government—the White House, the State Department and especially the Congress—that refuses, with stubbornness born of indecision and lack of historical principle, to act intelligently. There are too many competing and cynical interests (cheap labor, multicultural cant, the Hispanic vote) for the nation to make up its collective political mind, and so the dangerous charade goes on. ...

[JR: While ignoring concerns for our security, Washington, without a public declaration, has opened the floodgates for immigration just to appease the global planners. They want America made over to fit into their homogenized one-class future world. Once they eliminate all the middle class and redistribute all the wealth we will all live the same and have the same. It will be an Orwellian kind of society that will seemingly promote an equitable sharing of goods. These so-called global visionaries are the same old despots of the Bolshevik/Zionist/Communist/Socialist regimes who have always been in charge. They have made themselves into the builders for a new futuristic/humanistic type of world. When you are reminded that there is nothing new under the Sun, believe it!]

SEPT. 11 FAMILIES CRITICIZE PANEL
MITCHELL QUILTS JOB;
BUSH ACCUSED OF HINDERING PROBE

By Bob Kemper, Washington Bureau, 12/12/02

WASHINGTON—The top Democrat on a government commission investigating the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks resigned Wednesday, while families of the attack victims charged that the White House is trying to undermine the commission's independent investigation.

Former Sen. George Mitchell of Maine, whom some saw as a potential counterweight to commission chairman Henry Kissinger, said in a brief statement that he needed more time for his law practice. Democratic leaders immediately replaced him with former Rep. Lee Hamilton of Indiana, who has headed the House intelligence and foreign affairs committees.

Mitchell's abrupt resignation, just days after accepting the commission post, along with other controversies surrounding the panel, was a setback to the commission and raised questions about its credibility.

In a letter to congressional Democrats, Mitchell raised concerns about suggestions he sever his ties to his law firm, Piper Rudnick, noting that the need to support his family precluded him from leaving the job.

In another potential blow to the panel, family members who lobbied for months for the commission's creation now say they may withdraw their support and declare it a sham if President Bush and incoming Senate Majority Leader Trent Lott (R-Miss.) refuse to appoint former Sen. Warren Rudman to the panel.

The Sept. 11 families also want Kissinger, who was appointed by Bush, to provide a list of clients for whom he has consulted since leaving public life. They want to determine if Kissinger, a former secretary of state with a wide-ranging consulting business, has a conflict of interest as he spearheads the investigation of the lapses leading up to Sept. 11. ...

But the Sept. 11 families, as well as some lawmakers, are even more concerned over what they see as Lott's all but certain decision to block Rudman at the urging of the White House.

Rudman is viewed by the families as someone who would not shy away from taking on the intelligence, diplomatic and military establishments. He also might join up with the commission's five Democrats to create a majority for authorizing subpoenas and taking other aggressive investigative actions. ...

Without Rudman, "we will oppose this commission as a whitewash," said Stephen Push, whose wife, Lisa Raines, was aboard the jetliner that hit the Pentagon.

"This is essentially a double-cross if they are going to block Warren Rudman on the commission," Push said. "We are not going to put our support behind a commission that is intended, as far as we can tell, to protect the president."

The White House denied that it has been anything but supportive of the commission and also denied pressuring Lott to block Rudman.

"The president strongly supported this bipartisan commission," said White House spokesman Scott McClellan. "That's why he signed it into law." And as for Rudman's appointment, McClellan said, "That's Sen. Lott's decision to make."

But the families argue Lott would not be making his choices without consulting the White House. Critics note that Bush steadfastly opposed the commission until its creation became inevitable, and they say he has sought to weaken it at every turn.

When Bush signed legislation creating the panel on Nov. 27, Bush said it should "uncover every detail and learn every lesson of Sept. 11" and "follow all the facts, wherever they lead".

But the president also urged the commission to show "responsible concern for sensitive information" and said he hoped the commission would complete its work in less than 18 months, the period set by law.

The White House also demanded and won the right to appoint the panel's sole chairman. Some lawmakers had wanted two co-chairmen, one appointed by the White House and one by Congress.

The White House also won a change that would bar the 10-member panel, divided evenly between Republicans and Democrats, from issuing subpoenas unless six members agreed. Lawmakers would have preferred to allow subpoenas to be issued with five votes, but administration officials said that would have allowed Democrats to go on politically motivated "fishing expeditions."...

The administration is also at odds with the 9/11 families over whether Kissinger should be required to reveal clients for whom he has worked in the private sector to determine if he has a conflict of interest in heading the commission.

Kissinger's refusal to reveal his client list is exacerbating existing concerns among lawmakers and family members that as a longtime part of the Washington power structure, Kissinger may feel protective of the intelligence and political establishment.

The White House has contended that Kissinger does not have to meet federal conflict of interest disclosure laws because the chairman's job is a part-time, unpaid position. But a legal opinion produced at the request of Sen. Joseph Lieberman (D-Conn.), one of those pushing to create the commission, disputes the White House's claim. ...

KISSINGER STEPS DOWN
AS CHAIRMAN OF 9/11 PANEL
CITES CONTROVERSY OVER
POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

CNN News, 12/13/02

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger stepped down Friday as chairman of a panel investigating the September 11 attacks, citing controversy over potential conflicts of interest with his private-sector clients.

"It is clear that, although specific potential conflicts can be resolved in this manner, the controversy would quickly move to the consulting firm I have built and own," Kissinger wrote in a letter to President Bush, who appointed him. "I have, therefore, concluded that I cannot accept the responsibility you proposed."

The decision was another blow for the fledgling panel and the families of September 11 victims. The panel's original vice chairman, George Mitchell, resigned from the commission Wednesday, partly because of pressures to quit his law firm.

Kissinger's resignation came one day after he tried to assure victims that his business interests would not conflict with his duties as chairman. The White House and congressional Democrats had clashed on whether he had to disclose his business clients, with Bush's advisers saying the law did not require such disclosures.

Kissinger said he had told White House lawyers he was willing to remove the appearance of conflict of interests by submitting "all relevant financial information" to the White House and to an independent review. He said he could not liquidate Kissinger Associates, his international consulting firm, without delaying the commission's work.

It was not immediately clear who, if anybody, asked him to liquidate his firm. ...

[JR: Now that Henry and Mitchell have removed themselves from this panel of inquiry into 9/11 it is becoming a crucial test for Bush as to his resolve. After stalling on this issue for over a year, we now have his controversial appointments and their subsequent resignations. His reasoning as to his choices for this panel is problematical and casts a big shadow over future proceedings. It is turning into a fiasco for the Bushites as it does put into question where this will all lead, because of this administration's emphasis on secrecy in everything they plan and do, which borders on clinical paranoia. The comments by Trent Lott, have been another major fiasco for the Bush boy. The resignations of both Kissinger and Mitchell show that they are both self serving and that their main priority is to profit from their duplicities with their Elite connections so that they can live long and prosper, which is not the prime directive of the universe.]

IN POLICY BIND, U.S. LETS SCUD SHIP GO

By Howard Witt & Stephen P. Hedges,
Washington Bureau, 12/12/02

WASHINGTON—One day after Spanish and American naval authorities halted a mysterious vessel laden with North Korean missiles amid fears the cargo was bound for Middle East terrorists or Iraq, the White House announced Wednesday that it was allowing the ship to proceed to Yemen, its intended destination.

The abrupt turnabout occurred after Bush administration officials discovered they had no basis under international law to stop North Korea, part of what President Bush has labeled an "axis of evil", from selling Scud missiles to Yemen, a state plagued with suspected al-Qaida terrorists that is nevertheless cooperating with Washington to root them out.

Yemeni officials loudly complained to Washington after the unflagged ship, its name obscured by paint and its cargo of 15 Scud missiles hidden under cement bags, was interdicted in the Arabian Sea. The Yemenis insisted they had every right to purchase the weapons for "defensive purposes".

"We have looked at this matter thoroughly. There is no provision under international law prohibiting Yemen from accepting delivery of missiles from North Korea," White House spokesman Ari Fleischer said. "While there is authority to stop and search, in this instance, there is no clear authority to seize the shipment of Scud missiles from North Korea to Yemen, and therefore the merchant vessel is being released."

Tuesday's incident in an unstable Persian Gulf region already unnerved over the possibility of a U.S.-led war in Iraq underscored the complexities the Bush administration faces as different channels in its declared war on terrorism begin to get crossed. ...

Secretary of State Colin Powell noted the dilemma in a speech Wednesday in which he called North Korea "one of the great proliferators on the face of the Earth".

But, he added, "at the same time we recognized it was going to a country we have good relations with."

Powell said that Yemen's Saleh had assured him that the North Korean Scuds were the last shipment of an order placed several years ago and would not be transferred to any third party. Yemen had recently promised Washington that it would not purchase any more missiles or parts from North Korea.

Fleischer said the missile shipment pointed out holes in international efforts to control the proliferation of long-range missiles that the administration would now seek to plug. North Korea is not a signatory to the only treaty governing such sales, the Missile Technology Control Regime, ratified by more than 30 advanced industrialized countries, including the United States.

But some critics said the episode also revealed holes in the administration's anti-terrorism policies.

"I am appalled that the Bush administration would allow the North Korean vessel to go free and allow these Scud missiles to be transferred to Yemen, a country with active al-Qaida cells. We have no idea whether these missiles were really intended for the Yemeni military or whether they would end up in the wrong hands," said Rep. Edward Markey (D-Mass.), a senior member of the House Energy and Commerce Committee.

"The Bush administration, in its focus on disarming Iraq, appears to be ignoring other potential threats to our security," Markey said. "Before it let the North Korean vessel go, it should have demanded a full and complete investigation of the circumstances surrounding this entire incident."

Others noted that the Scud incident occurred on the same day that the administration unveiled a new strategy to deter the use of weapons of mass destruction against the United States by explicitly threatening a potential response with nuclear weapons.

"The fact of the matter is, we're making all this noise about bombing folks when they get weapons of mass destruction, and then when we get a chance to stop a shipment, we don't," said Henry Sokolski, a North Korea expert and director of the Nonproliferation Policy Education Center. "Where is the money going from this sale? To North Korea's nuclear programs? Its missile program? It will have to be one of the two."

But Fleischer said the administration felt it had little choice but to allow the missile shipment to proceed to Yemen.

"Our concern about North Korea has been violation of treaties, particularly dealing with nuclear weapons or other such weapons, that involve threats to our national security or because their exports violate existing treaty regimes or international obligations," Fleischer said.

"And we don't have to like everything North Korea does but that doesn't mean that we have the right to change international law out of convenience..."

"How do you stop a country like North Korea from selling its missiles, and other countries from buying?" said Joseph Cirincione, a non-proliferation expert at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. "The only way to do it is through diplomacy. For a fraction of what we are spending on missile defense programs, you could basically buy out the North Korean missile program."

[JR: The U.S. has gotten itself tangled up in a dilemma of its own making. Here we have North Korea, whom we consider a security threat and part of an axis of evil, sending a shipment of missiles to a country we consider our "shady" ally, Yemen. What a paradox for the U.S.'s "war on terrorism", with its weekly twists, turns and reverses. The masterminds at the Tower of Babel in D.C., must by now be developing psychotic personalities trying to balance all the balls they have in the air. When you carve up the world as unevenly as the U.S. has, you are bound to get more than a few wires crossed. The most simplified solution for us would be to go back to the diplomatic route as suggested, but that option has gone the way of the dinosaurs with the Clinton administration and this is continuing with the Bushites. The U.S. has backed off from its past agreements on the nonproliferation of weapons treaties and the use of nuclear weapons, so the question is how can the U.S. run a world if our only plan seems to be to destroy it?]

U.S. MOVE ON SCUDS SPURS ANGER IN SPAIN

By Daniel Woolls, Newsday, 12/13/02

MADRID (AP)—Spanish military officials and opposition politicians grumbled Thursday about the U.S. decision to release a North Korean missile shipment, with one officer saying Madrid should consider pulling its ships out of the coalition against terrorism.

The Defense Ministry said it was "surprised" by the White House decision to let the Scud missiles continue to Yemen after asking Spain to stop the ship Monday in the Arabian Sea. ...

"There has been a change of tack toward Yemen that the United States will have to explain," another military official told El Mundo.

The opposition United Left party voiced scathing criticism of both the Spanish government and the United States. Parliamentary spokesman Felipe Alcaraz said that by opening fire, the Spanish navy had committed a warlike act and that the United States had made Spain look ridiculous.

Spain's main opposition party, the Socialist Party, said the United States had shown a lack of tact and information. "There are gaps that it would be good to fill in," said Jordi Marsal, a party spokesman.

Both El Mundo and El Pais suggested in editorials that there was more to the incident than meets the eye. El Pais said it may have been orchestrated by Washington as a way to show Pyongyang that Uncle Sam is watching its every move.

El Mundo said that Spain deserved and must demand a more thorough explanation from the United States, and that if it doesn't get one, it should remove the two Spanish warships taking part in Operation Enduring Freedom.

[JR: After getting their "monetary ($$) aid", my guess is that the U.S. is playing little mind games in testing Spain's resolve and dedication to helping us in our global "war on terrorism". For Yemen it was to test her veracity as an ally. The masterminds in D.C. knew they had made a huge mistake when Yemen objected to the seizure of its missiles. Spain is right on in its assumption that the U.S. is making a point to North Korea that they are under continuous surveillance by our big eye in the sky. This is how the world controllers keep us all in line and also to impress upon us that they know all, see all and therefore control all.]

U.S. TOUGHENS ITS STRATEGY ON STRIKING BACK

Daily News, 12/11/02

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House has issued a new, tougher strategy as a reminder to Iraq and other hostile countries that the United States is prepared to use "overwhelming force"—including nuclear weapons—in response to any chemical or biological attack.

In a new, 6-page mission statement on countering weapons of mass destruction, or WMD, the Bush administration underscores a long-standing policy that the United States "reserves the right to respond with overwhelming force—including through resort to all of our options—to the use of WMD against the United States, our forces abroad and friends and allies."

That passage intends to threaten U.S. nuclear retaliation as a deterrent to hostile governments, said senior administration officials. The strategy was developed by National Security Adviser Condoleezza Rice and Homeland Security Adviser Tom Ridge. Its timing coincides with other muscle-flexing by President Bush designed to intimidate Iraqi President Saddam Hussein.

The White House document, called the "National Strategy to Combat Weapons of Mass Destruction," is to be delivered to Congress on Wednesday.

[JR: This ominous announcement is part of an ongoing campaign to validate our reasons for going to war. The White House not only means this to be a threat to Iraq but anyone else who feels brave enough to oppose us. We talk tough because like all Zionist bullies we fear being seen for what we truly are... world oppressors.]

UN WIDENS SCOPE OF IRAQ SEARCHES

By E.A. Torriero, Tribune, 12/11/02

BAGHDAD—United Nations weapons inspectors expanded their 2-week-old search Tuesday by more than doubling their teams and visiting the most Iraqi sites in one day, but the UN was moving far more slowly than the Bush administration desires.

The Iraqis have yet to comply with UN Security Council demands to supply inspectors with hundreds of names of scientists who possibly could tell them about hidden weapons. The council imposed no deadline for the Iraqis to comply.

The UN, too, was proceeding at a bureaucratic pace in signing a contract for at least a half-dozen helicopters needed to swiftly shuttle inspectors and catch Iraqis off-guard at remote sites. So far, only one helicopter borrowed from another UN program was available and being assembled in Iraq. The UN expects a contract to be signed in a matter of days, a UN spokesman said.

The shortage of helicopters and information from scientists will make it far more difficult for the UN to accelerate the inspections in scope and intensity and pinpoint disputed sites that could debunk Iraq's claims that it has no weapons of mass destruction, U.S. officials said.

"I wouldn't categorize it as delays," UN spokesman Hiro Ueki said Tuesday. "It simply takes time. It's not that we are dragging our feet."

The Iraqis see another eight months of inspections ahead just to examine major sites. Privately, UN officials predict they have enough destinations to keep more than 100 inspectors busy for at least a year. Nearly 70 inspectors are now on the job, including about two dozen who arrived Tuesday.

Five teams fanned out to five sites, including a uranium-mining outpost on the Syrian border that is a six-hour drive from Baghdad. The Akkashat mining operation was visited by UN inspectors in the 1990s and was considered a key source for uranium that later could be enriched for bombmaking.

Inspectors also visited al-Tuwaitha, Iraq's major nuclear research center, for the third time in two weeks. Another UN team searched a veterinary medicine factory once used for biological weapons research. Other inspectors went to a military training center and an industrial plant.

"We are deploying the inspectors as fast as we can," Ueki said.

Iraq, meanwhile, accused the United States of “unprecedented blackmail in the history of the United Nations” for being the first country to obtain and distribute unedited versions of Iraq’s report on its nuclear, chemical and biological capabilities that was handed over to the UN on Saturday.

“This American behavior aims at manipulating United Nations documents to find covers for aggression against Iraq,” an Iraqi Foreign Ministry statement said.

Countered James Cunningham, U.S. deputy ambassador to the United Nations: “We have not blackmailed anybody.”

The 12,000-plus pages were being examined Tuesday by UN analysts in Vienna and New York, U.S. intelligence staffers, and at least four other nations that lead the council.

Iraq produced the dossier at the demand of the council and the Bush administration, which is calling on Iraq to reveal its arsenal and disarm or face “serious consequences.”...

U.S. officials are growing incensed over Iraq’s lack of disclosure and the UN’s apparently tepid stance regarding Iraqi scientists who developed, worked on and monitored the country’s advanced weapons programs.

The UN Security Council demanded not only that Iraq comply with inspections anywhere at any time, it also mandated that Iraqi scientists and their families could freely leave the country to be interviewed or speak in a safe location.

“We do believe that conducting interviews is a critical tool for the inspectors to carry out their mandate and determine if Iraq has decided to take the final opportunity to comply with its international obligations and disarm,” U.S. State Department spokesman Richard Boucher said last week.

The Bush administration’s stance suggests asylum as a possibility for Iraqi scientists.

“It is important for the inspectors to exercise the full range of their capabilities,” Boucher said.

UN arms inspectors, however, were advancing cautiously so as to not put Iraqi scientists in danger of Hussein’s well-known vengeance. Inspectors know that any scientist on the list will be warned about disclosing sensitive information and monitored by Iraqi intelligence.

“If you were a scientist here, what would you do?” asked one UN official. “They are at great risk. We want to handle this matter carefully and deliberately.”

[JR: What will satisfy the U.S. demands to Iraq? That is the really big question. If Iraqi scientists are given asylum in the U.S., any disclosure by them would be considered as being compromised and therefore extremely questionable. Will these scientists, like the German scientists after WWII, be recruited to assist us to develop our weapons of mass destruction? Whatever they know or have developed was done with the full assistance and cooperation of Bush Sr. Is this the reason why it is so essential for the Bushmen to become the sole authority on this volatile issue? Secrecy is a very high priority with Bush Jr. and it wouldn’t do to have his Big Daddy’s dirty secrets uncovered by Saddam no less.]

AFGHANS COMPLAIN OF BORDER CREEP
PAKISTANIS SHIFT CHECKPOINTS, STEAL LAND, TRIBES ASSERT

By Liz Sly, Tribune, 12/06/02

GHULDI KANDAU, Afghanistan (Pakistan border)—Tempers were starting to fray among the Afghan tribespeople waiting at this remote border checkpoint for the Pakistani guards to allow them to cross into territory they believe doesn’t even belong to Pakistan.

“You have stolen our soil and taken the land of our children,” shouted Amanullah, a man in his 60s who said he wanted to cross the border to fetch water from his family’s well. “This is Afghanistan, and you should go back.”...

Other tribesmen insisted the old man was perfectly sane. During the past two decades of civil war, they said, Pakistani troops have gradually shifted their border checkpoints westward, occupying about three miles of Afghan territory and leaving Amanullah’s well in a different country. Others have been similarly affected. ...

This is just one small dispute among many that are starting to erupt along Afghanistan’s historically troubled border with Pakistan. At various points along the 1,400-mile frontier, Afghan government officials and local residents say, Pakistan has taken advantage of the conflict to encroach upon Afghan territory, moving checkpoints as much as seven miles into Afghanistan.

Many of the incursions took place during the Afghans’ war against the Russians; others during the chaotic reign of the mujahedeen government in the early 1990s, said Gen. Samiullah Qatra, who is in charge of border forces at the Interior Ministry in Kabul. The most recent encroachments occurred last year, during the chaos that surrounded the collapse of the Taliban, he said. ...

Now that Afghanistan has a new government that is seeking to extend its sovereignty into every corner of the country, Afghans are clamoring for the land to be returned.

In recent weeks, tribal delegations have been streaming into Kabul from border regions to complain to President Hamid Karzai about alleged Pakistani incursions, government officials say. According to one group of elders from the eastern province of Nangahar, Pakistani troops visited their village six months ago and offered to provide schools and wells if they agreed to become part of Pakistan. ...

Afghanistan’s fragile new government is hardly in a position to engage in a border dispute with Pakistan. Karzai, who is struggling to extend his authority beyond Kabul, has repeatedly said that he wants friendly relations with all neighboring countries.

Pakistan denies the allegations and insists there is no question over the demarcation of the border. “Pakistan has not moved any checkpoints and it has not taken any Afghan territory,” said government spokesman Maj. Gen. Rashid Qureshi.

U.S. forces, still hunting for al-Qaida and Taliban fighters in the border region, say the dispute is a local one that will not affect their operations.

But the problem of the shifting checkpoints is stirring ancient animosities that predate the existence of Pakistan, clouding the embittered relationship between Kabul and Islamabad. ...

Although Karzai is striving to mend fences with Pakistan, government officials remain suspicious that at least some Pakistanis are continuing to back elements of the former Taliban regime.

One problem is that no one seems too sure exactly where the border is. Known as the Durand Line, after the British cartographer who marked out the northwestern frontier of British India in 1893, the line severed the traditional territory of the Pashtun tribe. ...

The Karzai government is hoping other such disputes can also be solved locally. ...

The Karzai government’s position is one of “formal non-recognition of the Durand Line,” according to Foreign Ministry spokesman Omar Samad. “It’s not an issue for Afghanistan right now. There are other priorities.”

But the question of where the border lies remains a burning issue for those who live alongside it. “That is Afghan soil, and we want it to be joined with Afghanistan,” said Rozi Khan, a tribal elder in the Ghuldi Kandau area. “Even if the Pakistanis come farther and farther, we will take back that land. If not now then in 50 years, in 100 years, however long it takes.”

[JR: Seems as though Pakistan is taking a page from Israel’s book of acquiring lands expropriated during times of orchestrated chaos. If the Karzai government defers pressing Pashtun’s land claims how forceful can he be in upholding Afghan’s rights and agreements with Pakistan? Why are the Pashtun’s claims to their lands being given such a minor attention by the Karzai government? What advantage could there be for the regime in Kabul in not working to gain the favor and the cooperation of the Pashtuns? Is it because, they are the power outside of Kabul? This faulty tactic won’t help bring about stability if these tribal grievances are ignored and the hostilities build up again. Maybe Karzai is relying on assurances by his U.S. controllers that we will diffuse or eliminate Kabul’s rivalries? Sounds like a plan from the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion to me.]

10 AFGHAN CHILDREN DIE OF COLD AT REFUGEE CAMP

Newsday, 12/11/02

KABUL, Afghanistan (Reuters)—Unusually cold weather has claimed the lives of more than 10 children in the past week among displaced families on Afghanistan’s southern border with Pakistan, the United Nations refugee agency said Tuesday.

Ten children died at the camp at Spin Boldak, which is just inside Afghanistan, the UN High Commissioner for Refugees said. It said further deaths had been reported at a camp in Chaman, just inside Pakistan, but gave no details.

“Initial reports indicate that 10 children in Spin Boldak died during the unusually cold weather,” the UNHCR said in a report, quoting Daniel Endres, its deputy chief for Afghanistan. “Deaths have been reported also among the displaced population stuck at the Chaman Waiting Area.”

The deaths come after sharp nighttime drops in temperature that prompted UNHCR and the Afghan government to distribute emergency winter supplies to the displaced families crammed into makeshift shelters and tents.

Afghanistan has an estimated 700,000 internally displaced people. About 400,000 are scattered around southern areas of the country, most having been forced from their homes as a result of a long-running drought.

In the report, UNHCR called for urgent international rehabilitation and reconstruction assistance to drought-affected regions of Afghanistan.

Several thousand Afghans have died in the past four years of drought, the worst to hit the country in about four decades.

Nearly 200 deaths were caused by extreme cold in one night two years ago at a camp for displaced people in the western city of Herat.

AFGHAN MISSION CHANGING FOCUS

By Liz Sly, Tribune, 12/08/02

KABUL, Afghanistan—With their hunt for al-Qaida terrorists entering its second year, U.S. forces in Afghanistan are planning to restructure their operations in ways that will reduce the role of combat troops and emphasize humanitarian and political activities, military officials say.

By February, the Pentagon is expected to announce that the war in Afghanistan has entered a “post-combat” phase in which the focus of U.S. forces would be on rebuilding the war-ravaged nation and bolstering the status of President Hamid Karzai’s government.

In what military planners are calling Phase 4, there will be a greater role for civil-affairs reservists and military contractors. It will mark the formal end of Phase 3: the combat phase that began when the U.S. went to war in Afghanistan last year to rout out al-Qaida and the Taliban regime.

Phase 4 also will herald a reduction in the number of troops deployed in Afghanistan. Among those whose presence already is shrinking are the Special Forces units whose secretive missions have been a defining feature of the war.

The teams of Special Forces civil-affairs specialists who operated alongside their military counterparts already have left. They are being replaced by reservists who are professionals in fields such as water supply, agriculture and engineering, said Col. Phil Maughan, commander of the Kabul-based Joint Civil Military Operations Task Force, which oversees civil-affairs operations. ...

But hunting terrorists increasingly will fall to the conventional units of the Army's 82nd Airborne Division, which was deployed in Afghanistan last summer.

Officials would not say how many troops, currently about 8,000, will be drawn down. But there is speculation that the U.S. military headquarters eventually will be moved from the huge Bagram air base to Kabul, although no decision is expected for several more months, Maughan said. ...

Yet even as the overall number of troops deployed to Afghanistan falls, their role in promoting peace and stability will be expanded.

The civil-affairs soldiers [JR: What??] will be absorbed into larger teams of 40 to 50 people, including State Department diplomats, U.S. Agency for International Development personnel and military contractors who will be dispatched to seven regional centers throughout Afghanistan. ...

Although American officials repeatedly have said they do not want the United States to become involved in "nation-building," some of the tasks under discussion for the new teams will closely involve Americans in activities to boost the authority of Karzai's government.

Private security firms may be given a role in disarming the local militias of the Afghan warlords, whose power remains a major obstacle to peace, Maughan said. They also are expected to try to bring order to Afghanistan's chaotic borders.

Civil-affairs experts will be assigned to government ministries to coordinate reconstruction efforts with teams out in the field—all with the goal of promoting the popularity of the Karzai administration. ...

Last month, Virginia-based DynCorp took over the task of protecting Karzai, who had been guarded since July by 45 Special Forces soldiers. ...

The experiences of the last year have shown that people are more likely to volunteer information about enemy activities if U.S. forces have helped improve their living conditions, said military spokesman Col. Roger King.

"We want to let people know that if they don't listen to al-Qaida, and they listen to us and they help us, more good things will happen to their village," he said.

[JR: Why has the U.S. waited two years to improve our relations with the Afghan people and to begin the rebuilding of their invaded country? The U.S. denies its interest in nation building and yet we are sending "civil affairs soldiers" and State Dept. diplomats to insert ourselves in every aspect of Afghan's affairs. The U.S. is definitely and actively engaged in the reconstruction of Afghanistan as a U.S. satellite. If Pres. Karzai is now being guarded by a private security firm based in Va. [CIA?], aren't we really trying to protect the fact he is our front man serving our special interests? While we are engaged in making our visible presence more subtle and innocuous, we are establishing our invisible presence in all of Afghanistan's affairs. Our U.S. civil affairs experts will play a vital role as spin gurus whose job it will be to promote and exalt the Karzai regime to the citizens of Afghanistan. Sounds like a human Softwars program in action to me.]

A REALITY CHECK FOR SOUTH AFRICA

By Bob Chapman, KITCO.com, 11/30/02

White Boer-Afrikaners are a group of White people in the midst of a sea of Black Africans. They seek to protect their culture, identity, Afrikaans language, history and way of life. They do this in part by making defensive preparations for the day they know that is surely coming when there will be all out war against the Whites in South Africa. A cultural and racial war or a conservative versus Marxist conflict.

The white minority in South Africa cannot topple the government but they can inflict horrific economic damage. The ANC claims these original inhabitants of the lands of South Africa plan a coup against the ANC and these are not groups of farmers or miners, but middle-class officers with high-level positions in the South African Defense Force. The enemy of these supposed plotters is not only the African but also the UN, World Bank, IMF, Freemasons and world elitists. The ANC says these Afrikaner groups believe that this group wants to bring about world government under the coming antichrist. Other enemies are the UK government, MI-6, the U.S. and the CIA, Islam, Cuba, Russia, China and North Korea.

These are the same White South Africans who joined with the Zulu nation and Mongosthu Buthelezi to form an independent homeland in Transvaal in 1994, only to see British gunships, and SAS and U.S. troops in Botswana prepare to invade on behalf of the budding Marxist government that the British had fraudulently put into office. There were bombings at that time, which were actually executed by the White apartheid intelligence service to discredit right-wing Whites. These were planned by Joe Slovo, of the South African Communist Party with UN approval and the help of the CIA, MI-6, the EU and the U.S. State Department.

What South Africa is seeing now is the manifestation to ignite nationalism. The time is right for change in South Africa and the ANC will never let it be a peaceful one.

Crime, child rape, immorality and the social fabric are in shreds. The government is living on borrowed time. South Africans, both Black and White, were promised safety, equality without favoritism, foreign investments, hundreds of thousands of new homes and jobs and a sound economy. They have received none of this.

They received the third highest crime rate in the world, a socialist state along with teachers from Cuba to teach Marxist ideology. Over 100,000 White teachers have been replaced by Cubans. The attempt is to separate Afrikaner children from culture, parents and history. A dialectical control of the nation, which is totally unworkable. Violence and drugs are already out of control in schools just like in America.

How do you live a productive family life when 1800 farmers are murdered and 6,000 others are attacked with few prosecutions and many Blacks assuming control of the land? It has become a national Black sport of young Black men to abduct and gang-rape White girls who survive only to die the horrible death of AIDS—which one-third of Black Afrikaners are already infected with.

The poor Black South African out of the communist circle is told he is suppressed by Whites and is urged to revolt in an orgy of killing and rape such as we have recently witnessed in Zimbabwe, which would be on a scale far greater and far more gruesome than their experience. There is a major movement to kill the use of Afrikaans language with the total imposition of English, which is the White minority.

The invasion of millions of illegal aliens carrying AIDS has been happening for some time. There are pitched gun battles on crowded city streets at mid-day by drug, prostitution and murder gangs from Congo, Rwanda and Sierra Leone. ... The job outlook for young Whites is bleak—as unqualified Blacks are given positions they have little training and acumen for.

For the promiscuous there are 50 different types of venereal diseases to catch. This is what South Africa has degenerated to.

This story appears under gold because we want to impress upon you the risks of buying South African mining shares. These are facts and you should be aware of them because your media won't tell you about them. South Africa is ready to explode. We will not invest there.

Pakistan and Malaysia are in direct conflict with the IMF and World Bank. Pakistan has decreed that within 12 months an interest-free monetary system will be adopted. We believe that soon the gold dinar will be used throughout the entire Muslim world for international trade. In the process we expect the elitists to launch all kinds of problems on Malaysia, including terrorist attacks.

Central banks are lending gold, accepting the credit risk, and receiving no compensation. That sort of business conduct currently means they are lending gold to suppress the price. Desperate people do desperate things. Control of the gold market by the gold manipulation Cartel will soon be over. Fiat money is about to die an ignoble death. The dollar is in the process of collapsing, as the FED creates trillions more and that will be followed by a stampede out of dollar denominated investments.

Historically deflation has been fought over and over again by inflation and it's never worked. The FED now has us believing it will. We'll bet on history. We are already in deflation—as we have explained for months—that is why the economy can't and will not respond to inflationary stimulus. That stimulus only makes the dollar weaker and gold more attractive. While this proceeds we have one scandal after another.

The latest, which we wrote about some time ago, is the National Century Financial fraud. This is the next Enron. Guess who were on the company's board? Yes, you guessed it, two bankers from JP Morgan Chase. One was even on the audit committee and Morgan was trustee on one of their funding vehicles. All we can say is some due diligence. This is just another nail in Morgan's coffin.

Mark your calendars, things political, economic, technical, fundamental will all come together by mid-December for an explosion in gold and silver prices and shares. The dollar and the U.S. stock market will slide, taking other markets with it. ...

Contrary to what you are told in some quarters, South Africa is not a safe place to live or invest.

[JRN: This is most revealing, as it points out the duality of American politicians, especially those of our State Department Bureaucrats who have had nothing to say about what is going on in South Africa... or in Zimbabwe for that matter. The Talmudists that were behind the rise of the ANC have probably left SA and now are in the U.S. or the U.K., having taken their money out and left behind the chaos that they are famous for.]

U.S. COURTS HORN OF AFRICA RUMSFELD KEYS ON WAR ON TERROR

By Marc Lacey, New York Times, 12/11/02

NAIROBI, Kenya—In yet another sign of Africa's increased importance to U.S. military planners, Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld arrived in Eritrea on Tuesday on a three-country tour aimed at courting allies considered essential to the fight against al-Qaida and to possible military action against Iraq. ...

The recent terrorist bombing in Kenya, which is widely believed to have been orchestrated by al-Qaida, highlights the importance of a region that had previously seen its strategic role in the world fade after the end of the Cold War. Now, with al-Qaida operatives scattering and the United States looking for the broadest possible array of military allies, African governments are finding Washington increasingly receptive.

After meeting with President Isaias Afewerki of Eritrea on Tuesday, Rumsfeld left for Eritrea's bitter rival to the south, Ethiopia.

Prime Minister Meles Zenawi of Ethiopia just returned from a meeting year border war with Eritrea that ended in 2000 with President Bush at the White House, which was also attended by President Daniel Arap Moi of Kenya. Analysts suspect that one reason Eritrea is so eager to court the American military is to outflank Ethiopia, considered one of Washington's key allies in the region. ...

In recent weeks, Eritrea's lobbyists in Washington have sought to play up their country's importance in the region. They point out that Eritrea, half Christian and half Muslim, has resisted joining the Arab League and the Organization of Islamic States and would have no qualms about assisting the United States in an attack against Iraq.

"Located directly across the Red Sea from Saudi Arabia and Yemen, and with deepwater ports on the Red Sea, a military partnership between the United States and Eritrea is sensible and well-timed," said a recent position paper distributed by Greenberg Traurig, a Washington law firm working for Eritrea.

The country has been shunned in the past because of its repressive government, which last year jailed numerous opposition leaders, student activists and independent journalists. Two Eritreans who work at the U.S. Embassy in Asmara have been jailed for the past year for what the Eritrean government says is subversive activity. Repeated calls for their release have been ignored by Eritrean leaders. ...

Another stop on Rumsfeld's tour will be Djibouti, a former French colony that sits at the mouth of the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aden, between Eritrea and the lawless state of Somalia. There are already more than 1,000 American troops, mostly Special Operations forces and Marines, stationed in Djibouti. They are there to assist the operation against al-Qaida and, if necessary, the offensive against Iraq.

Rumsfeld will wind up his trip in Qatar, where the American military's Central Command has put in place a new forward headquarters for the Persian Gulf region. ...

[JR: The U.S. is now going all out to win over some of the poorest countries to be on our side. If we weren't down to a short list of friends and allies, we wouldn't be pandering ourselves in Africa—which is as desperate to survive as we are to retain our hold on world affairs. Eritrea will be well paid to allow us a strategic foothold in Africa to supposedly fight the al-Qaida. The great persuader for Eritrea is of course money and the opportunity to gain an advantage over her rival Ethiopia. Eritrea will find in time that she has traded British colonialism for U.S. globalism.]

CABINET SHAKE-UP MAY NOT BOOST U.S. ECONOMY

Tribune Chronicle, 12/08/02

WASHINGTON (AP)—The shake-up of President Bush's economic team may not be enough to wake the economy from its long slumber, but it was necessary for political and economic reasons, analysts suggest.

Bush and his advisers want to make sure he avoids the mistakes of his father. The first President Bush lost re-election in 1992 in large part because of a sour economy and his perceived indifference to it.

The resignations of Treasury Secretary Paul O'Neill and White House economics adviser Lawrence Lindsey clear the way for a different lineup and new ideas for reviving the economy—for example, sending a big stimulus and tax cut proposal to the new Republican-led Congress in January. O'Neill had suggested such a plan was not needed.

It would not take much to plunge the economy back into recession. Economists agree that a significant drop in consumer spending, which accounts for two-thirds of all economic activity, would do it quickly. ...

"There's no downside" for Bush in changing his economic team and making new proposals, Zandi said. "It's good timing."

The unemployment rate stands at 6 percent, the highest in nearly nine years. Household wealth has fallen to its lowest level since 1995, largely because of a 17 percent plunge in the value of stock and mutual fund holdings. More than half of all Americans own stocks, mostly through 401(k)-style retirement plans.

Bush needs a team capable of selling his plan on Capitol Hill, while keeping Wall Street reassured.

Wall Street leaders distrusted the blunt-speaking O'Neill, chief executive of aluminum producer Alcoa Inc. before taking the Treasury post. Nor was he a popular figure among congressional Republicans, whom he disparaged as being more interested in "show business" than results.

Likewise, Lindsey was not respected by the markets and in recent weeks had lost the confidence of the president, according to government and financial officials. ...

The resignations Friday came just four weeks after Securities and Exchange Commission Chairman Harvey Pitt left under fire.

Economists and policy-makers disagree over whether Bush's proposals can reinvigorate the economy but say it is important for the president to show he is engaged. ...

"It's clear the White House wants to go for big tax cuts and to do it as quickly as possible," said Lawrence Chimerine, president of Radnor Consulting, an economics firm in Philadelphia. ...

In many ways, O'Neill and Lindsey have become potential scapegoats for the ailing economy, Chimerine said. ...

Furthermore, O'Neill also was frequently compared unfavorably to one of his predecessors, Robert Rubin, who held the post under Clinton and was highly respected on Wall Street.

Gene Sperling, Clinton's former chief economics adviser, said O'Neill and Lindsey were "victims of the president's recognition of the need to show that he understands his economy and to show he's willing to take decisive action when things are going poorly."

"After you have been there for two years, you have to take ownership of the economy," Sperling said. "I read this as (Bush) wanting to send a signal of making a clean start for the new year."

[JR: The Bush team's top priority is to cover up its own puny efforts to stabilize our economy before the elections in 2004. The jobless rate and the continued layoffs have not made much of an impact on this White House or to the tricksters on Wall Street. Any matters or concerns related to the ever-rising jobless rate, will be presented as marginal by this bunch of money moguls. It wouldn't do to have that "misery factor" surface and spoil the fun and all the good times for the profit-men running Republican-Land. Beside the relentless campaign to sell wars, the big job of the handlers will be to build up Bush's image as being his own man and an innovative leader. If big business cannot create growth in the next two years, the Bushmen will be hard-pressed to find enough spin to gloss over our gloomy economic future. We have a trade deficit this year that comes to a whopping $375 billion, because those who do buy from us—like Latin America, Germany and Japan—are struggling with their own recessions. I guess when more American workers like those at United Airlines are forced to work for less pay and live with less, then maybe more of us will begin to see through the spin and the lies.]

JUDGE REBUFFS EFFORT TO OBTAIN RECORDS ON CHENEY TASK FORCE

By David Stout, New York Times, 12/08/02

WASHINGTON—In a case involving bedrock constitutional issues, a federal judge today threw out a lawsuit brought by an agency of Congress against Vice President Dick Cheney over the formulation of the administration's energy policy.

Judge John D. Bates of Federal District Court found that Comptroller General David M. Walker, the head of the General Accounting Office, did not have sufficient standing to sue the vice president.

Mr. Walker had asked the judge to order the White House to reveal the identities of industry executives who helped the administration develop its energy policy last year.

In declining to do so, and in dismissing Mr. Walker's suit, Judge Bates said that granting the GAO chief's request "would fly in the face of the restricted role of the federal courts under the Constitution."

When arguments were held before Judge Bates on Sept. 27, lawyers for Mr. Cheney argued—successfully, as it turned out today—that the comptroller general lacked standing because he had not suffered any personal injury and had no genuine stake in the outcome of the litigation.

In deciding for Mr. Cheney on relatively narrow grounds, Judge Bates said the Supreme Court has made it clear over the years that a would-be party to a case involving constitutional separation of powers must meet "especially rigorous" standards just to have standing to bring such a suit.

This, Mr. Walker has simply failed to do, the judge said, because he has suffered no personal injury and was merely acting to aid Congress.

The issues raised in the suit are so important that an appeal, perhaps to the Supreme Court eventually, would not be surprising. But Mr. Walker said he would confer with Congressional leaders "on a bipartisan basis" before deciding what to do next.

"We are very disappointed with the judge's decision," Mr. Walker said in a statement. "We are in the process of reviewing and analyzing the decision to fully understand the bases for it and its potential implications."

Over the years, the General Accounting Office, the auditing arm of Congress, has conducted thousands of investigations and evaluations of government programs and activities, submitting stacks of reports to the lawmakers.

But the case of Walker vs. Cheney marked the first time in the 81-year history of the GAO that the comptroller general had asked a court to order a member of the executive branch to turn over records to Congress.

The development of the Bush administration's energy policy has been marked by deep differences between the White House and Democratic lawmakers. Numerous energy executives, including some from the Enron Corporation, met on several occasions in 2001 with Mr. Cheney and the energy task force that he headed.

The comptroller general, with the backing of some Democrats in Congress, wanted Mr. Cheney to reveal the names of industry executives who helped the administration develop its policy. The administration argued that such an order would be an unprecedented and unwarranted intrusion into executive branch powers and would hobble an administration's essential, legitimate ability to receive frank information and advice.

Judge Bates, who was appointed to the bench last year by President Bush, noted that neither House of Congress and no Congressional committee had authorized the comptroller general to file the suit. Rather, the judge noted, the suit was filed as the result of a GAO investigation begun at the request of Representatives John D. Dingell and Henry A. Waxman, both Democrats.

Mr. Dingell was the ranking minority member of the House Committee on Energy and Commerce, while Mr. Waxman was the ranking minority member on the Government Reform Committee.

“Plaintiff is not an independent constitutional actor,” Judge Bates said of Mr. Walker. Rather, the judge said, the comptroller general is “subservient to Congress”.

Significantly, Judge Bates said, the full Congress had issued no subpoena for the information sought in the suit. The absence of full Congressional backing leaves to “the realm of speculation” whether there is any need, or justification, for the court to try to exercise its power by ordering the executive branch to do something, the judge said.

(Judge Bates’s ruling can be read online by clicking onto the Website of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia: www.dcd.uscourts.gov/.)

[JR: The decision is puzzling given that according to Bates: “under statute, the Comptroller General is granted broad authority to carry out investigations and evaluations for the benefit of Congress,” and is specifically authorized under the same statute “to enforce these investigatory powers by bringing a civil action... to require the head of [an] agency to produce a record.” Bates claims, however, that the court does not need to reach the issue of GAO’s powers, since the Comptroller has suffered no injury. The decision stands in stark contrast to statements made by Bates during his tenure as Deputy Independent Counsel during the Whitewater investigation from 1995 to 1997. He declared that the special prosecutors intended merely to “diligently and properly follow relevant leads in an attempt to discover the truth.” The fact is Judge Bates (a Bush appointee) is beholden to President Bush and VP Cheney, and therefore in a position to block any attempt to discover the truth. Judge Bates wouldn’t have been appointed to the Federal District Court if he hadn’t sworn to uphold “special security policies” of the Bush administration.]

WE’RE BROKE!

By Don Stott, gold-eagle.com (Gold Digest), 12/16/02

Check out the papers. California is $21 billion in the red. All states are in the red. Counties, cities, towns and even villages are broke. Ford stock hovers around $7, and United Airlines stocks which got almost to $100, now are worth pennies. They’re broke also. Continental Airlines, and all of the others, except those who are run decently, are broke as well. Qwest has debts of $25 billion, and Kroger supermarkets are heavily in debt. The county in which I live is struggling, as is the whole state. Tourism is so far down, that thousands of tourist-oriented businesses are broke, for sale, or hovering at that point.

Highway construction is shuttered in many places, because the department is broke. Airlines have cut travel agency commissions so severely, that hundreds of them have simply quit, because they can’t make it. Building permits are so far down in most places that hundreds of layoffs in those departments around America have taken place. Construction outfits, contractors and manufacturers of construction items are down, down, down in their businesses. Auto sales are dismal, even with zero percent financing. Trucking companies have gone bankrupt, and thousands of drivers are laid off. Wanna buy a cheap tractor? Take over the payments... please! Rail freight traffic is way down, and lots of railway employees are on furlough.

McDonalds is in trouble—and a holder of over 500 Burger King franchises is bankrupt. Bankruptcies are up double percentage points everywhere. PBS (perennial begging system) is pleading for help, as the usual contributors can’t afford it of late. K-Mart is almost a memory, thanks to poor management and China-Mart competition. China-Mart’s aren’t even doing too well. Locally, a long-time discount chain, Gibsons, bit the dust after doing nicely for several decades. Layoffs by the millions have bankrupted tens of thousands of families.

It is so sad. Millions of IRAs and 401Ks are but a fraction of their former values, thanks to the stock market’s tanking. Millions of people approaching retirement have little to look forward to, thanks to the stock market.

This reminds me of a few decades ago when I was in the theatre business and the entire industry was in the doldrums. The joke was: a caller asks, “When does the next feature start?” and the manager replies, “When can you get here?”

The plain fact is, there are no shortages of anything, and that’s bad for an economy. E-Gold keeps e-mailing me, telling me my account is something or other—and that is strange because I wouldn’t open an e-gold account for all the tea in China. It’s their way of trying to get a rise out of me, so they can open one for me. It won’t work. It’s shortages of things that make an economy buzz. Shortages make prices go up. Shortages of space on cruise ships, tourist trains, or hotels, make the economy prosper. There are no shortages of anything. Plenty of movie seats, restaurants aren’t full, and Greyhound isn’t doing too well either. They just moved out of a $475-a-month station here in my town and had been there for 10 years. They couldn’t afford it and moved into a cubbyhole for half the price... just to try to show a profit.

With all businesses operating at far less than capacity, the entire economy is bad—and with a bad economy, tax collections are so far off that state, county and city governments are in deep trouble.

Notice, I didn’t say a word about the federal government.

The fed is doing just fine, thank you. Thousands of new hires, expanding bureaucracies—and the military-industrial complex Ike warned us about is going full throttle. D.C. is booming and—as a premonition of hyper-inflation—the presses are rolling. Officially 8% a year in increases of the dollar supply, but maybe a lot more, because of the “off budget” things, which aren’t part of the official record. None of the bureaucracies can balance their checkbooks—but it doesn’t matter, because there’s plenty to make up any differences or shortages. D.C. drones don’t have to worry about a shortage, as does a homeowner, businessman, state, county, or city. If you make $25,000 a year, and bring home $20,000, you have to live on $20,000.

If you are a governor of a state, you can’t print the dollars to pay your bills, and United Airlines can’t print the mazuma to bring it out of the depths. The federal government will never go down, because it can produce what it calls “money”—out of nothing. One of Sir Greenspan’s newer henchmen said so a couple of weeks ago, lest we doubt the power of the Fed to fill the coffers of the bureaucrats with all due haste. I’ll bet the owner of those 500-plus Burger Kings wishes he could print his way out of bankruptcy. Credit cards maxed out, and 3 million unemployed doesn’t make for a Merry Christmas. I’m playing Santa at a Christmas show on Dec 18th, and I’ll shout Ho, Ho, Ho—but inside, I am worried sick about America’s economic future. Gold is up $5 today and silver 7 cents. That’s an indicator to me.

Now the Muslims are going to try to bury us with their gold dinar. They say it will kill capitalism, because their dinars will be made of, and backed by real gold, and become the only true money in the entire world. That may sound ominous, except for one thing. In order to produce gold money, you have to have the gold to do it. Muslims aren’t the richest people in the world, and as a generalization, they are probably close to the poorest. Where are they going to get the dollars or euros to buy the gold to make their dinars? It’s easy to say, “I am going to coin gold money or gold-backed money and kill you capitalistic pigs,” except it would take quite a few trillion dollars to do it. Sure, they have oil, but they spend it as fast as they get it. Those opulent palaces the sheiks live in aren’t cheap. The rest of the rabble seems to live on the brink of extinction. Which country will produce the dinar? Whose capital will provide the gold? What denominations will it be in? How do we know it will be backed by gold? Who would believe them? If enough gold dinars are made out of real gold, to make them accepted around the world... to kill us capitalistic pigs of course... they’d have to buy thousands of tons of gold, coin it, distribute it, and then change the prices of everything. Let’s see now, that Hershey bar is a 350th ounce of gold, which is the size of a pin head probably. Coins this small would be lost continuously, and become a joke. Maybe a silver dinar? That Hershey bar might be a 1/5th ounce of silver, or a dime size. That would work, except the amount of silver added to the gold required to formulate an entirely new currency known throughout the world, is impossible. No one has that many dollars or euros to buy the gold and silver. There aren’t any gold and silver mines near those oil wells. I doubt that the dinar will ever harm the dollar or euro. They are harming themselves, because they are merely pieces of paper with ink on them.

In summers, while we were kids, we’d get the hose out and squirt everyone and everything. Water was cheap. We’d go to the beach and build sandcastles and splash to our hearts desire. Endless amounts of water and sand for the taking, to amuse us. Just like the federal government’s supply of dollars. They can have anything they want, just like the sands of the seashore. Just issue more dollars to pay for it. How wonderful! Why, we can go to war in Iraq with fancy, and technical arms of unimaginable sophistication. Drone planes shooting things up, and no pilots in danger. Only a million a pop. Expensive? Who cares? We can print all the dollars needed and never you worry. Let’s send $30 billion to Brazil and spend hundreds of millions in Afghanistan. Bail out, subsidize, and spend, spend, spend, is the D.C. agenda and practice. They know no limits. Iraq? It’ll cost a mere $200 billion... at least initially. “Hey Rube, print some more T-Bills.”

The more they spend and print, the less yours will be worth. Too bad, you’ll have to work longer hours, or get a second or third job to make ends meet, because times are tough... except in Washington D.C. You must make more. The more decreasing-value dollars you have to make, you are automatically in a higher tax bracket. The dollars are going down the tubes, and you are working your head off to break even... and you find yourself in a higher tax bracket. Marvelous. Isn’t out-of-control government wonderful? They print and spend—and you work and pay your higher taxes. They prosper, and just about every other entity, be they private or governmental, is in trouble. They can’t print. The Fed can—and the more it prints, the less yours are worth. Solution? Get the hell out of those absurd dollars, other than for day-to-day expenditures. Save in gold and silver. Save in antiques. Save in homes that are underpriced. Save in anything but dollars. I wonder if new presses are ordered yet. When inflation gets out of hand, as I honestly believe it is about to, there is always a shortage of fiat paper money. The prices go “up” so fast, that it takes a lot more paper money to buy the same stuff, and they always have to increase press runs. Yes, it’s true, the new bills are being replaced again. This time in color, and supposed “re-design” which means they will print more billions. Surely I am not the only person who knows what’s going on, am I? Protect yourself, and not with Technicolor $50 bills stored under your mattress. Do so with $50 Gold Eagles stored under your mattress. The paper money will automatically decrease in value, even while stored under the bed. A $50 Gold Eagle will buy the same or more in 25 years even if you never touched it. Naturally, the $50 Gold Eagle is more than $50 in funny money, but it's still a bargain compared to its price in 6 months... I'll bet. You should have sold your United Airlines stock at $90—because it's worth 90 cents now. Protect yourself.

MORE SA BLACKS ARE SAYING
APARTHEID LIFE WAS BETTER

The Guardian—UK, 12/13/02

The number of Black people who believe life was better under South Africa's apartheid regime is growing, according to a survey published yesterday.

In a rebuke to the African National Congress government, more than 60% of all South Africans polled said the country was better run during White minority rule.

One in five Black people interviewed gave the regime which jailed Nelson Mandela and denied them the vote, a positive rating—a result which analysts attributed to crime and unemployment. In 1995, fewer than one in ten gave apartheid a positive rating.

A growing number of White people voiced confidence in the future of the state, as did Blacks who have prospered since democratic elections replaced apartheid in 1994. Perceptions that the new elite is corrupt have also diminished.

The study was conducted by Afrobarometer in September and October on behalf of the Institute for Democracy in South Africa, Ghana's Centre for Democratic Development and Michigan State University.

Some 2,400 South Africans were interviewed in a representative sample based on the 1996 census. The disparity in views on the new South Africa threw into relief the anger of a large minority of Blacks who felt abandoned, said Bob Mattes of Afrobarometer, which is based in Cape Town.

"They are not looking to go back to apartheid, but as time passes you tend to forget the negative things and emphasise the things that you had then and don't have now, such as law and order and jobs. Apartheid was a harsh, repressive, but seemingly efficient government which made the trains run on time."

There were positive findings for the young democracy but Prof. Mattes said the state should be worried at a growing "de-linkage" between ruler and ruled. Only one in 10 people believed their elected representatives were interested in their needs and fewer than one in three felt today's government was more trustworthy than the apartheid regime.

Black people were only slightly more positive than White and mixed-race groups about the government, with 38% deeming it more trustworthy than the ousted oppressors. Prof. Mattes also attributed the bitterness to controversial legislation which allowed elected officials to switch parties, giving the ANC more control at provincial level.

However, the feebleness of the opposition meant that in the short term there was no threat to its power, he said.

"There is no place for disaffected African voters to go to. They either stay out [of the political process] or hold their noses and vote for the ANC," he added.

However, 54% of those questioned viewed the current system of government as positive—an 18% jump since 1995. The apparent nostalgia for apartheid emerged when people were asked to compare governments.

NEVADA CORPORATIONS:

What They Don't Say Can Really Help You

Budget's "Tip of the Week" #5:

Key provisions NOT included in Nevada's corporate statutes

In the first four installments of "Tip of the Week" we took a close look at several very interesting provisions of Nevada's corporate statutes. Sometimes, however, what is NOT mentioned in the statutes is just as important.

In Nevada, as many readers may be aware, there is no statute mandating the issuance of stock. (Nevada is not unique in this regard; several other states' corporate statutes similarly ignore this key issue. What makes Nevada unique is the combination of statutory provisions, non-addressed key issues and actual practices, all of which add up to make Nevada the ONLY state that allows for privacy of ownership and control of a corporation.)

As if to underscore the non-necessity of stock issuance, there is no requirement to hold an annual meeting of stockholders. Yes, there are many references to the stockholders' meeting but nowhere is it stated that any such meeting must be held.

Similarly, Nevada is one of a few states that does not nullify the use of "bearer" shares. It is not that there is a statutory provision endorsing the use of bearer shares or even addressing the issue; it is that the issue goes entirely unmentioned, whereas in most other states the use of bearer shares is statutorily denied.

A major, major issue that is not addressed anywhere in the Nevada Revised Statutes is that of nominee officers and directors. The use of nominee officers and directors has been common in practice in Nevada for more than 75 years and yet this issue, which is the key to privacy of control of a Nevada corporation, is simply not mentioned. Doesn't that make you wonder why not?

Other states (Wyoming comes to mind) have directly addressed the issue of nominee stockholders. In Nevada, however, there seems to be more power granted by not restricting the use of this technique even by defining it.

Nevada only requires a corporation's primary officers to be listed annually but does not abridge the key roles that can be afforded to secondary officers, such as a vice president, who may exercise all of the powers of the president in the president's absence; an assistant treasurer, who may be empowered to sign checks and otherwise fulfill the role of treasurer; or an assistant secretary, who may perform all of the duties of the secretary. When nominee service is used, the primary officers are assuredly absent, empowering these secondary officers, who are never listed in the public records with the Secretary of State.

Finally, since only an annual list of officers needs to be filed, a corporation may change its officers and directors at any time through a proper resolution (a PROTECTED "internal" record of the corporation) without notifying the state to modify the public record.

This listing is, of course, by no means all-inclusive. We trust, however, that it provides the reader with a lot of serious "food for thought" as to possibilities for private control and ownership of Nevada corporations.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM HATONN

CONTACT OR SPECTRUM?

I want to briefly respond to a most unusual question from a totally "out of the blue" person: "It appears Spectrum will fail, possibly close, so will you go back to writing for CONTACT or what?"

I have never stopped writing for CONTACT—but I have NOT written, nor have my compatriots written for Spectrum. Tails wag a lot of dogs, my friends. Therefore, "or what" has no meaning.
