"Rapture" Movie Madness For New World Order Religion

Now on to something I think is so interesting and so important as to about blow the valves right out of "their" Mercedes and BMWs. We do wish to share these little secrets, don't we readers?

This comes—how nice to have good Earth information—from the "North-East". It is in the form of an interview with one Serge Monast done for CONTACT by Dr. Pierre Cloutier and Ricardo Lopes. It took place at College de Maisonneuve in Montreal, Canada on March 19, 1994. Mr. Monast as one of two featured guests present. Since "I" like the references to inquiries numbers 8 through 10 best, WE WILL BEGIN THEREWITH:

BLUE BEAM PROJECT

The Elite Committee(s) have absolutely HATED us speaking about the Monarch Project and, yet, this one seems to bother them far more than even that old ongoing project. They seem also quite concerned about Mr. Jackson speaking on these subjects along with MJ-12. Well, the information is already out there so we ASK MR. JACKSON TO KEEP A VERY LOW PROFILE ON THESE MATTERS. MR. JACKSON NEEDS TO FOCUS ON RE-CONSTITUTING THE CONSTITUTION AND NOT ON DROPPING BOMBS, BEYOND NECESSITY FOR FREEDOM, ON THE HEADS OF THE BASTARD TROOPS IN POWER. WITH "BLUE BEAM", however, YOU STEP ON MY VERY OWN TOES AND IT IS QUITE ACCEPTABLE TO ME THAT YOU TAKE CARE OF SOME OF THE GARBAGE AROUND—ALTHOUGH, WHEN YOU START ON GOD IN TRUTH AND MY COMMAND—IT WILL BE BROUGHT TO A RIGHT QUICK STOP. YOU HIT SOME OF THE "BROTHERS" WHO TRAVEL WITH ME, GOOD SIRS, AND I THINK IT IS TIME TO REMIND YOU THAT WE KNOW WHAT YOU ARE UP TO—IN CASE SOME OF YOUR "CREW" HAS FORGOTTEN OUR RELATIONSHIP AND AGREEMENTS.

So, backing up a bit and:

You mentioned this would be your last public speaking engagement, S.M. Is this true and, if so, for what reason?

S.M.: I have received threats to my life from the office of the Prime Minister and THE VATICAN.

9. "Holy" Vatican City in Rome—the Pope? How so?

S.M.: Because I dared to unveil the NASA "BLUE BEAM" Project. The Vatican does not threaten the life of someone without good reason. This is an extremely BIG secret. I am sure Commander Hatonn will have more to add.

As we sit to write this day I am flexible as to subject material, Dharma, but I think we should go for the “gusto” first. Well, perhaps I have it in reverse—let’s go for the dregs and then we can have a bit of fun with the gusto. I don’t have to give you “revelation”—I can, however, offer that to which FEW have access or resource interest. We can talk first, about the offerings of one Henry Kissinger. Remember, of course, that it is NOT Henry Kissinger who is the dangerous entity—other than in a whatever else he might be, is one of the most robotic, puppet-type manner—it is his “handlers” who must be attended.

Kissinger came up through the Soviet training ground of the KGB and has branched out into the most powerful positions of the globe. Therefore it is worthy of your attention to watch and study whatever he presents for he is but a spokesman for that which will come to pass as “somebody” has to set the track rules, regulations and event goals. The “Big Boy” will only orchestrate.

Another thing you might well “watch”, as I have told you prior to this—is a journal which IS “the” outlay of these games in progress or intent for the Council on Foreign Relations. This journal will NOT “seem” to be such but IS and I can give you a picture example of what I mean by offering you new publications of Kissinger’s “old” projections. It is YOU who must stay alert or you miss it, forget it, or never find it.

Then, after we offer this, let us turn to the more interesting, I hope, subject of space alien visitors of which varieties there are over 80 on your planet for the interesting “show-down”.

We must also get back to the Constitution—Federalist Papers but until we have more “finger” help, we will take first things first and, right now, world affairs are more urgent than the Constitution as background.

As you witness your U.S. President prancing down the isles in robes, crowned and attended by ones with flowing trains to the robes and lesser important “professors”, of OXFORD, carrying the hems of the garments—are you not sickened? This is actually paying homage to “Rhodes”—king of the New One World Order of Kings and slaves. Are not the “sides” beginning to become more clarified? And, yes indeed, the Soviet empire is not to be overlooked in this scenario—but YOU HAD BEST MORE READILY ATTEND THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE!

In first reflection on Kissinger we will offer what is reprinted in Foreign Affairs, May/June 1994. The article in point is directly from Henry Kissinger who was National Security Adviser and Secretary of State in the Nixon and Ford Administrations. This essay is adapted from his eleventh book, Diplomacy, with the permission of Simon & Schuster. Copyright 1994 by Henry A. Kissinger. We offer it here for its informative educational content.

To honor all copyrights, however, we shall only offer excerpts. But in order to take nothing out of context, that which we offer will be verbatim so that understanding of the author’s intent is not influenced by our own interpretation. We honor Mr. Kissinger for his ongoing authorship and his last 16 books. You, as readers, can use your guidelines of “Bureaucratic Intent” by KNOWING that it is better to read for “opposite” truth in INTENT. Kissinger, whatever else he might be, is one of the most IMPORTANT personages in your time.

REFLECTIONS ON CONTAINMENT
THE SUCCESS AND PAIN OF THE STRATEGY

No matter what Wilsonian-minded [H: Remember that WILSON (President) is the one who brought in the Federal Reserve, etc. The most massively DESTRUCTIVE one thing that ever happened to America—or the world.] American statesmen called them, by late 1945 spheres of influence were emerging across Europe, and they were to remain in place until the collapse of Communism four decades later. Under U.S. leadership, the Western occupation zone of Germany were consolidated, while the Soviet Union turned the countries of Eastern Europe into its appendages. The erstwhile Axis Powers—Italy, Japan and, after 1949, the Federal Republic of Germany—gradually moved toward alliance with the United States. The Soviet Union cemented its dominance over Eastern Europe by means of coercion. At the same time, the Kremalin tried its utmost to interrupt the process of Western consolidation by fostering a guerrilla war in Greece and by encouraging mass demonstrations by West European Communist parties, especially in France and Italy. [H: Since direct instructions and “how-to” for great involvements such as Kuwait, Iraq, Somalia, etc., were set forth by Kissinger Associates—we have to assume that Henry knew of that which he speaks. We also have to remember that the first major business “announced” as start-up in Moscow after fall of the so-called Soviet bloc nations—was KISSINGER ASSOCIATES to which Mr. Gorbachev was appointed PRESIDENT.]

American leaders concluded that they had to resist further Soviet expansion. But their national tradition caused them to seek to justify this resistance on nearly any basis other than as an appeal to the traditional balance of power. In doing this, American leaders were not being hypocrite1. When they finally came to recognize that Franklin D. Roosevelt’s vision of a peaceful globe guarded by the four policemen (the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and China) could not be implemented, they preferred to interpret this development as a temporary setback on the way to an essentially harmonious world order. Here they faced a philosophical challenge. Was Soviet insinuence merely a passing phase, which Washington could wait out? Were the Americans, as former Vice President Henry Wallace and his followers suggested, unwittingly causing the Soviets to feel paranoid by not adequately communicating their pacific intentions to Stalin? Did Stalin really reject post-war “At bottom of the Kremlin’s neurotic view of the world? Did he not want in the end to be America’s friend? As the highest policymaking circles in Washington considered those questions, a document arrived on February 22, 1946, from an expert on Russia, one George Kennan, a relatively junior diplomat at the American embassy in Moscow, that was to provide the philosophical and conceptual framework for interpreting Stalin’s foreign policy. Rarely does an embassy report by itself reshape Washington’s view of the world, but what later came to be known as the “Long Telegram” emphatically did. Kennan maintained that the United States should stop blaming itself for Soviet insinuence; the sources of Soviet foreign policy lay deep within the Soviet system itself. For Kennan, Communist ideology was at the heart of Stalin’s approach to the world. Stalin regarded the Western capitalist powers as irrevocably hostile. The friction between the Soviet Union and America was therefore not the product of some misunderstanding or faulty communications between Moscow and Washington but was inherent in the Soviet Union’s perception of Western imperialist ambitions. From time immemorial, argued Kennan, the Russian tsars had sought to expand their territory. They had sought to subjugate Poland and to turn it into a dependent nation. They had regarded Bulgaria as within Russia’s sphere of influence. And they had sought a warm-water port on the Mediterranean, mandating control of the Black Sea Straits:

“...At bottom of the Kremlin’s neurotic view of world affairs is traditional and instinctive Russian sense of insecurity. Originally, this was insecurity of a peaceful, agricultural people trying to live on vast exposed plain in neighborhood of fierce nomadic peoples. To this was added, as Russia came into contact with economically advanced West, fear of more competent, more powerful, more highly organized societies in that area. But this latter type of insecurity was one which afflicted rather Russian rulers than Russian people; for Russian rulers have invariably sensed that their rule was relatively archaic in form, fragile and artificial in its psychological foundation, unable to stand comparison or contrast with political systems of Western countries.” [H: That was when Kissinger got his “gusto”.
Ah—hummnnn?

This historical insecurity was, according to Kennan, given a new sense of urgency by Communist dogma. [H: And "WHO" were and are the "Communists" who both took over the Russian Soviet empire, set up the Socialist-Fascist empire and "called" it "Communism"? Were not every one of the players in power Khazarion Zionist Jews?—go check out the listing of ones who set up the Communist control in Russia. Every last one of them were Jews—of the same variety of "non-Judean" lineage as IS HENRY KISSINGER!]

"In this [Communist] dogma, with its basic altruism of purpose, they found justification for their instinctive fear of outside world, for the dictatorship without which they did not know how to rule, for cruelties they did not dare not to inflict, for sacrifices they felt bound to demand.... Without it they would stand before history, at best, as only the last of that long succession of cruel and wasteful Russian rulers who have relentlessly forced [their] country on to ever new heights of military power in order to guarantee external security of their internally weak regimes...."

America, Kennan argued, had to hunker down for a long struggle; the goals and philosophies of the United States and the Soviet Union were irremovable. [H: There WERE NO DIFFERENCES—now that Communism was in "power"—all connections with Russia were EXACTLY alike as the Soviet master-minds were gradually but methodically SHIFTED into the U.S. and took places of high level influence (not in Congress) but in original councils, became counsels and advisers which required no U.S. citizenship. Also connections were made with ones such as bonding with the likes of Brent Scowcroft, a leader and establisher of order and doctrine in the Mormon Church coupled with the likes of Eagleburger, an overfed and pompous politician—all high-level members of Kissinger Associates. These very men and henchmen SET THE ENTIRE PHILOSOPHY AND DIRECTION AS WELL AS INTERACTIONS AND INFLUENCE OF THE NATION. You can prove this to selves as you reread the bits on "Famine", etc. and the sell-out of food supplies, etc. [Front Page story of last week's CONTACT], BY KISSINGER TO COMMUNIST NATIONS—LONG, LONG AGO WHILE YOU "THOUGHT" YOU WERE AT SOME KIND OF SOCIAL OR FACTUAL WAR WITH THOSE NATIONS AND PEOPLES.]

"PAY ATTENTION"

In a top-secret study dated September 24, 1946, Truman adviser Clark Clifford [H: This man is far more important to you and at least as dangerous as the little puppet, Kissinger, and don't forget it!! This man can turn banking empires upside down AGAINST THE LAW AND NEVER EVEN RECEIVE A REMOTE TAP ON THE WRIST—but in fact, GLEANS "SYMPATHY" for his ELDERLY STATUS. BETTER LOOK AT THAT "ELDERLY STATUS" ALSO, GOOD BUDDIES!] fell in with this view: "The main deterrent to Soviet attack on the United States, or to attack on areas of the world which are vital to our security, will be the military power of this country." By now, this had become conventional wisdom. But Clifford used it as a springboard from which to proclaim a global American security mission, embracing "all democratic countries which are in any way menaced or endangered by the U.S.S.R." It was not clear what was meant by "democratic". Did this qualification limit America's defense to Western Europe, or was it a courtesy that extended to any threatened area and thus required the United States to defend simultaneously the jungles of Southeast Asia, the deserts of the Middle East and densely populated Central Europe? In time, the latter interpretation became dominant.

Clifford rejected any similarity between the emerging policy of containment and trad...
On March 20, 1974, an article entitled "The Kissinger Caper" by Frank A. Capell appeared in The Review of the News which showed that a former general in Communist Intelligence states that Henry A. Kissinger was a Soviet agent before he went to Harvard University. The impact of this article resulted in the reprint and distribution of over 100,000 copies; thousands of letters were sent to Senators, Congressmen and other Government Officials. Invariably, the replies to these letters stated that Henry Kissinger was investigated on three occasions — in 1961, 1969, and 1973 — and was given the necessary security clearances. These replies were based on information supplied by the State Department. What was not stated, however, is that security clearances are granted by the Department of State in SPITE of derogatory information developed during the FBI full-field investigations.

The fact is that Alger Hiss, Harry Dexter White, John Abt, Virginius Frank Cole, Laurence Duggan, Charles Kramer, and a long list of others who have since been identified as Communists and members of Soviet espionage rings, were also investigated by the FBI and were also given the necessary security clearances. If it seems incredible that a Secretary of State can be a Soviet agent, remember that Alger Hiss was a top advisor to President Franklin D. Roosevelt and was one of the thousands of diplomatic, political, military, scientific, and economic secrets of the United States have been stolen by Soviet agents in our Government and other persons closely connected with the Communists.

Thousands of diplomatic, political, military, and economic secrets of the United States have been stolen by Soviet agents in our Government and other persons closely connected with the Communists.

Despite the fact that the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other security agencies had reported extensive information about this Communist penetration, little was done by the Executive branch to interrupt the Soviet operatives in their ascent in Government until Congressional committees brought forth to public light the facts of the conspiracy.

Powerful groups and individuals within the Executive branch were at work obstructing and weakening the effort to eliminate Soviet agents from positions in Government.

Members of this conspiracy repeatedly swore to oaths denying Communist Party membership when seeking appointments, transfers, and promotions and these falsifications have, in virtually every case, gone unpunished...

Policies and programs laid down by members of the Soviet conspiracy are still in effect within our Government and constitute a continuing hazard to our national security.

Henry A. Kissinger appears to be an Untouchable. Most government officials and elected officers are hesitant to criticize him although his policies and programs invariably have strengthened the International Communist conspiracy at the expense of our national security and the U.S. pocketbook. Understandably, Kissinger has the support of many; Alger Hiss was also favored with the support of many at the time he was arrested for perjury in connection with turning over secret documents to the Soviet Union. Among those who rallied to his defense and testified on his behalf were the Secretary of State, a Supreme Court Justice and other high government officials. They eulogized him and attested to his fine character, loyalty and patriotism. There are millions of people in Eastern Europe living in Communist police states today as a result of President Roosevelt's acceptance of the advice of Alger Hiss.

To further strengthen the Communist regimes of the U.S.S.R. and Red China, Henry A. Kissinger has enabled them to obtain billions of dollars of credit and through his efforts the Communist governments of the once-free nations of Eastern Europe have been made to appear legitimate.

Tom Anderson, National Chairman of the American Party, sent a copy of "The Kissinger Caper" to every Member of both Houses of Congress and to 9,000 newspapers. So powerful is the influence and protection surrounding Henry Kissinger that the major news media have avoided any mention of it. This, therefore, is the reason for the book.
tional diplomacy. In his view, the Soviet-American conflict was not caused by clashes of national interests—which by definition might be negotiated—but by the moral shortcomings of the Soviet leadership. Therefore, the goal of American policy was not so much to restore the balance of power as to transform Soviet society. Just as in 1917 Wilson had blamed the need for a declaration of war on the Kaiser rather than on the threat Gospo to American security, so Clifford now ascribed Soviet-American tensions to “a small ruling clique and not the Soviet people.” [H: Indeed, the only reason they persevere is if you perceive him to be a “bad boy” because we write about him—remember something—SOMEONE TRIED TO PULL HIM DOWN OVER BANKING IRREGULARITIES WHICH IN TURN HE SPURRED—I would look carefully at who might be this man for he may well be for One World Order, etc., but he also recognized the dangers disadvantage of America’s continuing take-over by the hoods in Zionist garb. We do not comment on his own status—only on observations and actions. Do not compare apples and turnip greens or you will miss the fruit-boat.] A significant Soviet change of heart, and probably a new set of Soviet leaders, was required before an overall Soviet-American agreement would be possible. At some dramatic moment, that permitted to the world. The costs of the war had taken a toll, and the desire for peace was strong. The relationship between the proposed aid to minorities or by outside pressures.” Inevitably a new set of Soviet leaders, was required to be such a heinous leader—the Soviets or the Russians? [H: By the way, readers, by whom was Stalin judged to be such a heinous leader—the Soviets or the Russians?]

TRUMAN DOCTRINE

Had Soviet leaders been more aware of American history, they would have understood the ominous nature of what the president was saying. [H: Oh Barf! They knew EXACTLY what it meant because THEY HELPED STRUCTURE IT!] The Truman Doctrine marked a watershed because, once America had thrown down the moral [H: MORA???] gauntlet, the kind of realpolitik Stalin understood best would be forever at an end, and bargaining over reciprocal concessions would be out of the question. Henceforth, the conflict could only be settled by a change in Soviet purposes, by the collapse of the Soviet system, or both. Truman had proclaimed his doctrine as “the policy of the United States to support free peoples who are resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities or by outside pressures.” Marshall had said: “the active policy of defending democracy appeared at both ends of the intellectual spectrum: some protested that America was defending countries that, however important, were morally unworthy; others objected that America was committing itself to the defense of societies that, whether free or not, were not vital to American security. It was an ambiguity that refused to go away, generating debates that have not ended to this day about American purposes in nearly every crisis. Ever since, American foreign policy has been obliged to navigate between those who assail it for being amoral and those who criticize it for going beyond the national interest through crusading moralism.”

The Truman Doctrine had been defined as the very future of democracy, America could not wait until a civil war actually occurred, as it had in Greece. On June 5, less than three months after the announcement of the Truman Doctrine, Secretary Marshall in a commencement address at Harvard committed America to the task of eradicating the social and economic conditions that tempted aggression. America would aid European recovery, announced Marshall, to avoid “political disturbances” and “desperation,” to restore the world economy and to nurture free institutions. Therefore, “[any] government that is willing to assist in the task of recovery will find full cooperation, I am sure, on the part of the United States Government.” In other words, participation in the Marshall Plan was open even to governments in the Soviet orbit—a hint taken up in Warsaw and Prague and just as quickly squelched by Stalin. [H: By the way, readers, by whom was Stalin judged to be such a heinous leader—the Soviets or the Russians?]

Only a country as idealistic as pioneering America, and as relatively inexperienced as the United States, could have advanced a plan for global economic recovery based solely on its own resources. And yet the very sweep of that vision elicited a national commitment that would sustain the Cold War generation through its final victory. The program of economic recovery, said Secretary Marshall, would be "directed not against any country or doctrine, but against hunger, poverty, desperation, and chaos." Just as when the Atlantic Charter had been proclaimed, a global crusade against hunger and despair was found to be more persuasive to Americans than appeals to immediate self-interest or the balance of power.

THE X ARTICLE

CONTINUATION FROM 6-8-1994. (This will reflect as the second writing or "Part 2". For continuity please refer to prior writing as there will be no review):

[QUOTING:] At the end of all of these more or less random initiatives, there emerged a document that would, for over a generation, serve as the bible for the containment policy, indeed which supplied it with its very name. All the various strands of American postwar thought were brought together in an extraordinary article published in July 1947 in Foreign Affairs. [Hi: Here is your confirmation that this JOURNAL is the journal for the Council on Foreign Relations.] Though it was anonymously signed by "X", the author was later identified as George F. Kennan, by then head of the policy planning staff of the State Department. Of the thousands of articles written since the end of World War II, Kennan's "The Sources of Soviet Conduct" stands in a class by itself. In this lucidly written, passionately argued literary adaptation of his "Long Telegram", Kennan raised the Soviet challenge to the level of philosophy of history.

By the time Kennan's article appeared, Soviet intransigence had become the staple of policy documents. Kennan's distinctive contribution was to explain the ways in which hostility to the democracies was inherent in the Soviet domestic structure and why that structure would prove impervious to conciliatory Western policies. Tension with the outside world was inherent in the very nature of Communist philosophy and, above all, in the way the Soviet system was being run domestically. Internally, the Communist Party was the only organized group, with the rest of society fragmented into an inchoate mass. Thus the Soviet Union's implacable hostility to the outside world was an attempt to gear international affairs to its own internal rhythm. Soviet policy was "to make sure that it has filled every nook and cranny available to it in the basin of world power." The way to defeat Soviet strategy was by "a policy of firm containment, designed to confront the Russians with untenable counterforce at every point where they show signs of encroaching upon the interests of a peaceful and stable world." [Hi: Interpreted: To bash every natural Russian while supporting and furthering the integration of the New World Order, Henry Kissinger and thus and so.]

Like almost every other contemporary foreign policy document,Kennan's "X" article was the expression of a precise diplomatic goal. What he sketched was the age-old American dream of a peace achieved by the conversion of the adversary, albeit in language more elevated and far more trenchant in its perception than that of any contemporary. But where Kennan differed from other experts was when he described the mechanism by which, sooner or later, through one power struggle or another, the Soviet system would be fundamentally transformed. [Hi: Now watch the rationale of failure of such thought and a "fog factor" of about 2000!] Kennan thought likely that, at some point, various contestants for authority might reach down into these politically immature and inexperienced masses in order to find support for their respective claims. If this were ever to happen, strange consequences could flow for the Communist Party: "For the membership at large has been exercised only in the practices of iron discipline and obedience and not in the arts of compromise and accommodation. If, consequently, anything were ever to occur to disrupt the unity and efficacy of the party as a political instrument, Soviet Russia might be changed overnight from one of the strongest to one of the weakest and most pitiable of national societies."

No other document forecast quite so accurately what would in fact take place after the advent of Mikhail Gorbachev. [Hi: Ah HA—now bunch huddled around this old buzzard, Kissinger. THAT is what KISSINGER ASSOCIATES does, reads—"CONSULTANTS that ruin nations and planets! In every nation in upheaval from Somalia to Lower Outlying Siobovia—you will find KISSINGER ASSOCIATES, at the least, Scowcroft and Eagleburger and the myriads of other little cute puppets whose strings are totally operated by the higher Committee. Now, I am about tired of this "higher Committee". They may well be more on my side than the Committee of openly Satanic practitioners—but they are not very "nice" people and most are NOT even people at all! Now, readers, when you reach out into NON-PEOPLE I have the trump card when the game gets tight and THEY know it, so it would behoove them to just pretend they LIKE me.]. It seems carping to point out just how back-breaking an assignment Kennan had prescribed for his people. For he had charged America with combating Soviet pressures for the indefinite future all around a vast periphery that embraced the widely differing circumstances of Asia, the Middle East and Europe. The Kremlin was, moreover, free to select its point of attack, presumably only where it calculated it would have the greatest advantage. Throughout subsequent crises, the American political offensive was deemed to be the preservation of the status quo, with the overall effort producing Communism's final collapse only after a protracted series of ostensibly inconclusive conflicts. It was surely the ultimate expression of America's national optimism and unimpaired sense of self-confidence that as sophisticated an observer as George Kennan could have assigned his society to a role so global, so stern and, at the same time, so reactive. [Hi: HOGWASH! We will get to the REAL terror about Russia to these turkey-waddles in a bit—and that is the NEW "threat to democracy", THANK GOD. JUNE 14, 1994

The News Desk

6/9/94  ED CLEARY

THE U.N. CAIRO CONFERENCE

The New World Order is relentless in its drive to control the entirety of the world’s population by year 2000. Since 1945 the U.N. has been an essential factor in this action on many fronts to destroy the existence of traditional nations, states and families.

The U.N. has scheduled its 1994 International Conference on Population and Development in Cairo, Egypt for September 5-13. The first population conference staged by the U.N. was held in Bucharest, Romania 20 years ago. Since then an enormous decline in the world economy has taken place as well as a gigantic increase in the submission of the people of the planet to world government under the fakery of “Socialism”. The beginnings of the present economic and social collapse were augmented then and have now reached a critical condition.

In the “Draft Program of Action” for the Cairo conference it is stated that the organization hopes to “achieve sustainable development... states should reduce and eliminate unsustainable patterns of productions and consumption and promote appropriate demographic policies... The right to bear children implies responsibility to care for children and to consider their interests and the interest of the larger community.”

Here we have the usual fine sounding words hiding the dagger aimed at the heart. The document goes on to demand that reproduction be controlled, that medical services be decreased for the poor, plus increased attacks on the sacredness of individual life and the basic tenets of natural law and order. The principal targets are obvious: Africa, already a dying continent; Somalia, Rwanda, Kenya; the Soviet Union, now perilously endangered; and South America en masse. Even in the U.S. and Britain the destruction of the economy is evidenced by increasing numbers of the homeless and unemployed.

The U.N. is a fake and has been since 1945. It is forever the hypocrite; talking one way, acting another. It is an agent for the world government of the New World Order and it is getting its work done right out in the open with little resistance. The same is true of the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank. They are agencies of the new socialist world dictatorship aborning, not to be trusted in any circumstance. Any country forced to depend upon their financial assistance will eventually be in their complete control.

GUNS AND THE U.N.

Get the guns away from the people! Get the people to give away their guns. This policy has been in operation for over 200 years and the common people have not understood, "Why". The "Why" is so that you can't shoot back on the controls becoming real. All over the globe, nations, states and local communities are passing laws to control people and calling them crime control measures.

On May 23rd the United Nations began its program for GLOBAL gun control. The U.N. Disarmament Commission has the ball rolling to tighten controls on gun trading in the U.S. and other member nations in order to control arms sales on an international basis. The AP wire covered the story worldwide on May 24.

"The U.N. Disarmament Commission has adopted a working paper, a basis for future debate, that proposes tighter controls on the gun trade in the United States and other member nations as a way of combating international arms trafficking. The commission is essentially powerless, able only to issue recommendations. But its findings could lead to a debate over the weapons trade, including the relatively freelancing U.S. small-arms business, in the high-profile U.N. General Assembly. The U.S. representative on the Disarmament Commission, which comprises all 184 U.N. member nations, balked at first last December when the subject of arms trafficking was proposed for debate.

But on May 9 the United States allowed consensus adoption of the working paper which makes the issue one of two items—the other is nuclear disarmament—on the commission agenda for its spring 1995 meetings. A final report is not expected before 1996. The little-noted move represents the first U.N. effort to foster regulation of the multibillion-dollar trade in small arms."

The Coos are formidable. That any one of them could possibly support life.

But, would it be life as we know it? Fortunately, the Coos are against that.

HEAVY PAPERS are not a problem. The Coos are against that. If you aren't barbing by this point—probably not. You certainly don't understand the sugared-coated poison just now dumped on you. And, worse, THIS IS WHAT THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS BASES ITS OPERATIONS UPON!"

SYNTHESIS OF SCIENCE AND RELIGION

This title, as with all titles written before the writing on the subject seems a bit much for my scribe, not being particularly good at, or in tune with, either subject—much the less a synthesis of the two. Moreover, the terms used in conjunction, such as in "religious science", is an oxymoron statement of the highest level. Therefore we will define this writing as simply an interesting look into quantum-statistical methods of simulating energy-informational processes. The better studies of these integrated subjects, with the better UFO documentation and truth of the matter, come out of Russia. I don't need to foist that off on you readers but it is nonetheless fact and you must accustom yourselves to such fact.

My problem is how to bring this to you in understandable terms. I usually just lay it on you and then expect Dr. Young to explain it to you. That is unfair—but I am noted for being due reward or retribution. In a broader sense, for my scribe, not being particularly good at, stood to mean a broad philosophical category the less a synthesis of the two. Moreover, the well known in quantum physics, describe the dependence in combination with the principle of unity, integrity, and h.

The equations of Schrodinger and Dirac, well known in quantum physics, describe the laws of the conservation of probability for fluxes of matter at the level of elementary particles of the microworld. By means of certain mathematical transformations, obtained equivalent equations of a much broader applicability. They describe the laws of the conservation of probability for fluxes of matter, energy, and information. The equations have a deep philosophical meaning, which extends far beyond the interpretation of the Schrodinger and Dirac equations. An appropriate name for them is, in my view, suggested by a doctrine of Oriental philosophy—"karma". In a narrow sense, it claims that every deed or thought, good or bad, receives due reward or retribution. In a broader sense, it denotes the principle of unity, integrity, and inter-conditionality and causality in the Universe. That is how I construe the term "equations of karma", which describe any cause-and-effect relationship.

WHAT IS THE "EQUATION OF KARMA"?

The study of psychic phenomena dictated the need to define the concept of the information-energy field. Its material medium, according to contemporary notions, may be a global lepton gas, consisting of extremely light particles, microleptons, with a mass of 10^{-40} g. Microleptons are much lighter than electrons and are capable of freely penetrating any body in the Universe. The gaps between atomic nuclei are for them just as spacious as the holes in a fishing net for molecules of air.

The idea of a microlepton gas appears to echo the 19th-century notion of the universal ether, but is scientifically much more complex and profound. What we are talking about in this case is no longer an ideal space-pervading fluid, but a quantum-granular structure of the space-time continuum, filled with whirling streams of polarized microleptons (including some virtually vacuum-born).

Such an approach enables us to use the mathematical apparatus of quantum mechanics to describe the information-energy field. Moreover, relationships of a higher level of generalization are derived than the classical equations of Schrodinger. The new equations describe not only the movements of matter, but also the development of the totality of communications, signals, events, and processes. The special term introduced for such relationships is "equations of karma". [H: No, I am not going to break these things down for you—as we presented the subject of "light" and "thought projection" as in manifestation by/of God we have been brought into Federal Court on charges of plagiarism. I will not put my scribe into such a position again! It is ALL THE SAME THING BUT LAWYERS AND MORE ESPECIALLY, JUDGES, DO NOT READ THE MATERIAL IN POINT NOR GIVE A DAMN ABOUT YOU OR "IT". SO YOU WILL SIMPLY HAVE TO HUNT AND PECK YOUR WAY THROUGH, GOOD FRIENDS. IF THIS BE "FOR YOU" IT WILL BE QUITE UNDERSTANDABLE. If not, then I fear you are on your own. Boris Iskakov is a friend of some of my now-on-Earth competitors and he...]

Here Ψ denotes the probability density wave (the wave function); Δ, the Laplace operator; S, the potential energy density, and h, Planck's constant.

These equations may be solved in the form of equations of waves and anti-waves, with quantization of probability waves. Connected with them are perturbations of the information-energy field, i.e., wave signals. In principle, such signals may propagate faster than light.

The equations of karma make it possible to draw certain philosophical conclusions of fundamental significance. It follows from them that diffusion takes place not only in space but also in time. Any event is, so to speak, split in space-time. The propagation of a solitary signal is preceded by a series of pre-signals and followed by post-signals, both fading with distance. Perceptive analysts are able to use the first intimations of pre-signals to give a precise picture of a coming event. This is called scientific foresight. But there is also intuitive prevision. Centuries ago clairvoyants described events that are happening in our time.

Pre-signals provide an explanation of relative psychropy—when a sensitive person learns about an event before others do. Such a person detects pre-signals that most people do not perceive.

For instance, an explosion on the Sun may produce solar prominences extending for millions of kilometers. Two or three days later the "solar wind" reaches the Earth, causing powerful geomagnetic storms that affect everything living. During such periods, disease and mortality rates increase in all countries.

This dependence of everything living upon solar catastrophes was proved several decades ago by Alexander Chizhevsky. Can we learn from the approaching "solar wind" in advance? It appears that we can. The solar wind has pre-signals: swift streams of solar photons and neutrinos, which reach the Earth in eight minutes. [H: It is right here that an explanation is needed; don’t you see?] By detecting them it is possible to warn the medical services of all countries of an imminent geomagnetic storm two or three days in advance, ample time to take the necessary measures.

[Note: Yes indeed, I hear the majority of you readers complaining about taking time for this kind of a deep and dreary as well as totally incomprehensible writing. However, you are not the party to whom this is directed, if you object. It is for the Dr. Young of the reading audience that I give them the information the same way as do you if it be “general” in offering. They then know WHAT TO DO WITH IT! As long as this is my receiver/scribe and this paper is our communications conduit—along with the journals—we will from time to time reflect on these subjects—for UFOs and Creation do not JUST HAPPEN! Neither are they “mystical” phenomena—only mysterious until understood.

From the theoretical standpoint the works of the eminent Russian researcher Anatoly Okhatrin are of definite interest. They confirm the idea of an ether or universal lepton gas, which contains all information about the masses and sizes of all the elements. Clusters of the lightest particles—microleptons—carry people’s thoughts and feelings; these microleptons are capable of travelling in space and time at tremendous speeds.

The speed of light is a limiting factor only for a continuous stream of speeds, the so-called continuum. However, greater speed lends a spaciousness to the speed of light, so possible for extremely weak signals.

Okhatрин’s experiments and calculations show that people’s thoughts are carried by the lightest microleptons. And the equations of karma prove that they can travel much faster than light. This justifies the conclusion that humanity’s potential in getting to understand the Universe is practically boundless.

The potential of our potential in the conquest of outer space is limited by what is known as the pessimistic radius of Poincaré-Einstein. If we multiply the speed of light by the human life span, we arrive at the limit that even the most sophisticated spaceships cannot surpass. No generation of spacemen can explore the Universe beyond that radius [it says].

From the equation of karma it follows that at the level of extremely weak signals we can reach out far beyond the Poincaré-Einstein sphere. Material thought can travel to distant regions of the Universe at a speed greater than that of light. Man can obtain information about what is happening at any distance from him. This is a fundamental philosophical conclusion that allows humanity to look to the future with optimism.

I arrived at this conclusion by considering the equations of energy-information holograms, each of which carries complete but weakened information about the person, including his or her innermost thoughts and feelings, his or her mind and conscience. It is said that the sum-total of these holograms is nothing short of a person’s lepton soul.

Ordinarily, people do not see the energy-information shells that surround them. But in certain conditions it is possible to make the first hologram glow, especially the part of it surrounding a person’s head. The fact is that upper chakras, the more powerful, more intense, are called higher chakras. Some people have a first quantum shell that can become visible.

Estimates show that the energy of the first shell amounts to fractions of an electron-volt. This is quite enough for a faint glow in the optical range of the spectrum. But for the glow to become a reality a great deal of energy has to be pumped into the upper chakras. This means a person has to adopt a definite mode of life: overcome base passions, and make his or her thoughts, feelings, and deeds pure, loving, and free. It is in this case that the energy of the upper chakras causes the excitation of the first shell by fractions of an electron-volt, and a halo visible to other people appears around the head of such a person (for example, a saint).

In Christian art, only part of the hologram around the head is usually portrayed as glowing. But in Buddhist temples, there are pictures showing the whole spacesuit-shaped hologram aglow.

The most ancient Buddhist manuscripts speak of a person’s seven bodies: one dense and six subtle. The first hologram is called the ethereal body; the second, the astral body; the third, the mental body, and so forth. The elimination of the synthesis allows a larger number of holograms.

Judging from the equations of karma, we humans are infinitely larger and our lives are infinitely longer than we are accustomed to think. This means that each person is a factor of Cosmic significance.

Moreover, analysis reveals that inanimate objects as well as Homo Sapiens and other living beings have holograms of this kind. [H: Our ships have such halos of light around them and this is one of the marks of such craft—the “aura” or “light” and the vapor essence surrounding us in the sky as visualized in the daylight hours. We can easily turn-off the visual realization as we can manipulate the energy field but this is why the objects have their aura, because not everything has an aura and field—some others, are so dense that they are actually sucked within the being itself and the density itself becomes a huge vacuum of energy. These persons with such energy fields will literally suck dry a person of lighted aura, so to speak. It is as with a refrigerator where you have the heat-cold exchange. It is physics explained but with light—hard to comprehend.]
Thoughts and feelings are our offspring, who communicate with one another and with us in a language of super-weak signals. When our offspring are noble eidoses of kindness, love, mercy, mutual assistance, truth, beauty, and harmony, we contribute to the health of humanity's leptonosphere. But when we beget malformed eidoses, i.e., evil, envious, cowardly, vain, and arrogant thoughts and feelings, we thereby pollute the leptonosphere we inhabit. Here we also come up against a legal problem. Mere criminal intent is not yet a crime at the atomic-molecular level, but when a person conceives, say, a murderer, he or she spawns criminal eidoses, which open up a全新 level of mankind's leptonosphere. That is why when someone steals a nation or country onto a road leading to disaster, that person commits the grave offense above all against the whole of mankind.

Although economic and political catastrophes are still many years off, it has already taken place at the lepton level, in the public mind. The collapse of a vast State can contaminate humanity's leptonosphere to such a degree that humanity's very existence becomes threatened. And no clan, no state, nor coalition of states can save the situation once it is threatened. And no clan, no state, nor coalition of states can save the situation once it is threatened.

But if every zone of space "knows" everything, and hence, "everything in everything" and, in the expanding form this may be taken to mean that every point of space-time "knows" everything about all the other points.

In every zone of space "knows" everything, it is an all-encompassing encyclopaedia, in infinite storage of knowledge about the Universe. All that is needed is to learn how to plug into this source of information, which can tell a person about anything and everything in the world. The lepton hypothesis that the soul is real and material. A human being, in the customary sense of the term, is nothing but a dense nucleus around which streams of leptons circulate. The totality of lepton shells is a cold bioplasma, which contains complete information about the nucleus. Thus, it can be termed a person's lepton soul. This notion has a quite precise materialistic content.

According to the lepton concept, thoughts and feelings are material. They are carried by superweak pulses of electromagnetic and microlepton fields. Visual, audible, and other impressions are interpreted as clusters of super-light elementary particles. This brings to mind Plato's inspired guess that all eidoses, i.e., ideas or thoughts, exist autonomously, "float in the air" and recognize no boundaries. [Hi: This is a FACT and, as with Russell's work on LIGHT—so too were the facts as given to him also given in every direction to all receivers.]

Plato intuitively arrived at that conclusion over two thousand years ago. [Hi: Too bad he had such a warped factual knowledge of philosophy.] Today we can put this into the language of mathematical formulae. We can measure the mass of a single human thought. Its weight varies from $10^{-60}$ to $10^{-30}$ g. To be sure, the opinion of sensitive and Okhatrin's experiments cannot serve as proof. Similar investigations have to be carried out at other laboratories. This will furnish the statistical data for reliable conclusions. If they confirm Okhatrin's findings, he will become the author of the greatest discovery of the latter half of the 20th century.

Thoughts and feelings generated by human beings begin their independent existence in space and time. Both theory and experiments show that these eidoses are capable of existing for centuries and much longer. The most important of all is that one person's thoughts can occur to other people. Eidoses are like small living beings, but at the lepton level of matter. Thoughts and feelings are our offspring, who communicate with one another and with us in a language of super-weak signals.

Estimates show that during a lifetime a person generates millions and even billions of eidoses. This makes it clear that we bear an enormous responsibility before the whole of humankind and before ourselves for what our offspring, i.e., our thoughts and feelings, will be like.

When our offspring are noble eidoses of kindness, love, mercy, mutual assistance, truth, beauty, and harmony, we contribute to the health of humanity's leptonosphere. But when we beget malformed eidoses, i.e., evil, envious, cowardly, vain, and arrogant thoughts and feelings, we thereby pollute the leptonosphere we inhabit. Should the negative eidoses exceed a certain critical mass, humankind will be doomed. At present our survival depends to a great extent on the health of the leptonosphere.

Here we also come up against a legal problem. Mere criminal intent is not yet a crime at the atomic-molecular level, but when a person conceives, say, a murderer, he or she spawns criminal eidoses, which open up a全新 level of mankind's leptonosphere.

That is why when someone steals a nation or country onto a road leading to disaster, that person commits the grave offence above all against the whole of mankind.

Although economic and political catastrophes are still many years off, it has already taken place at the lepton level, in the public mind. The collapse of a vast State can contaminate humanity's leptonosphere to such a degree that humanity's very existence becomes threatened. And no clan, no state, nor coalition of states can save the situation once it is threatened.

EARTHQUAKES

I have no NEW comments to make on earthquake activity and I doubt that Soltec does. Those PACIFIC Plates are deadly, friends, and they are MOVING! I hesitate to remind you which is touted to be the South American-Pacific Plate running into the Nazca Plate is amusing if not downright deceptive. All those plates are integral to one another as to be like a finely meshed gear mechanism—YOU CANNOT HAVE ACTION ON ONE WITHOUT ACTION ON ALL. HOW MUCH ACTION IS THE ONLY CONSIDERATION. And, furthermore, moving on up to the north from South America (Peru-Bolivia) to the Colombia disaster is right on track. You had better LISTEN to your geologists about the San Andreas and Haywood Faults as today those are THE two most unstable—and the activities from that area are destined to rumble right on up through Mt. Rainier who is already GROWLING. Southern California is already so unstable as to be a catch-as-catch-can. The Elite have told you they intend to bump off one of those areas between the 6th and 11th of June (NOW). What is left to be said? In watching the maneuvers of troops of foreign origin flooding over into the U.S., as we write, and moving into the areas along the Mississippi—I would REALLY watch the New Madrid line. If you had a quake in Peru last night which was reflected all the way into Canada (which you did), there will be nothing to triggering the New Madrid from Gulf to Canada. When a nation can be deliberately "captured" by use of "natural disasters—all the better.

Along these lines, I remind the politicians playing games with ME that my patience is RUNNING THIN. I expect your commitments to be met BEFORE you further inconvenience me and my own crew. You seem to keep considering it annoying to YOU—well, it IS going to get more and more annoying TO YOU! Thank you, surveillance team, for forwarding this information immediately. I want my teammates RELEASED and allowed to get their business completed so that we can quietly go about our business. Your compromises and negotiations with people is your business—I AM TIRED OF NEGOTIATING AND WILL NOT COMPROMISE—so, it behoves the ones in charge to get with this program and MEET THE AGREEMENTS OF THE PRIOR NEGOTIATIONS. I TRULY CANNOT BELIEVE YOU DESIRE A CONFRONTATION OF THE KIND WITH WHICH YOU KEEP TINKERING! You have had enough "time" so today is a very good day to get on with our interchange and transfers. There is shortly going to be more "chicken poop" scattered around than little Zacky Farms indiscretions with Clintonistas. Perhaps Chicken C.O.U.P.E.S. HAD BETTER HEED MY WARNING.

I also suggest that the group in Chicago, around the Rockefeller property, mind your manners and business as well. I would also like that information couriered, please. My attention is NOT "the world"—I suggest you not make it my attention. We are EVERYWHERE you look in the heavens—I suggest you keep your promises to me because, when push comes to shove—those nice aliens you have underground WILL BE ON MY TEAM!! Now, isn't this getting to be a whole lot of FUN? The solution to the "Elite" problem is quite easy and quite quickly resolved—but I can promise you that promises will be kept. If information is going to pour forth through every pore and crevasse (that means from tiny openings to massive openings—your choice).

How To Make A Point: Picketing "Ms." Reno

Editor's note: We share the following Press Release with you because it makes a very powerful point about the matter of getting out there and DOING something as opposed to sitting and griping about how bad things are. Can you imagine how steamed "Ms." Reno must have been over this flop in her parade of pageantry.

PRESS RELEASE: FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLICATION
June 7, 1994

Page 11-A of this morning's San Antonio Express News provided the itinerary of "ACTING" Attorney General Janet Reno during her visit to San Antonio for a speech to the United States Federal Judges' Conference. At 10:45 a.m. she was to visit a former "crackhouse" being converted to civic usefulness at 126 Anderson St. From there she would proceed to the Springview Softball Field which the San Antonio Police Department has sponsored for the neighborhood kids. She was then scheduled to walk three blocks through the housing project to the Community Center where neighborhood children had planted a vegetable garden. WOAI news reporter, Jim Forsythe, kept pushing Reno to confirm the report that she had approved quadrupling of the Branch Davidian sentences next week for their use of automatic weapons, and finally she acknowledged that she had.

Janet Reno has accepted responsibility for FBI actions at Mt. Carmel, Texas which resulted in the murder of eighty-one persons, yet after one year she has authorized neither an investigation nor prosecution of the murderers. Sons of Liberty in San Antonio could not permit today's effort to display this evil woman as a kind and caring federal official who works to stamp out crime without exposing her wickedness, incompetence and irresponsibility.

Although there was no time to prepare a major demonstration, a few signs were hastily prepared which read "REMEMBER WACO" and "ABORTION AND J. RENO KILL LITTLE CHILDREN" and "PROSECUTE RENO FOR WACO CRIMES".

The first picketer to arrive at the "crackhouse" single-handedly diverted Reno's tour to by-pass it, according to the reporters who were there. Four Sons of Liberty followed Reno and pro-actively diverted Reno's tour to bypass the "crackhouse". The Elite have told you they intend to bump off one of those areas between the 6th and 11th of June (NOW). What is left to be said? In watching the maneuvers of troops of foreign origin flooding over into the U.S., as we write, and moving into the areas along the Mississippi—I would REALLY watch the New Madrid line. If you had a quake in Peru last night which was reflected all the way into Canada (which you did), there will be nothing to triggering the New Madrid from Gulf to Canada. Wolfe she was directly confronted with the signs and continuous chants of "child-killer". She proceeded to the softball field and attempted to bask in the reflected glory of the S.A.P.D.'s excellent project for the youth of that crime-infested neighborhood.

Since no interview could be conducted without "child-killer" chants in the background, Reno decided to forego the walk to the Barbara Jordan Cultural Center where the garden is located. To her dismay, there was no place to hide at Jordan Center either, as the children's garden had been planted inside a fence right at the edge of the sidewalk. The Sons of Liberty grew to the incredible size of five persons at this point. Chanting continued there along with challenges to Mayor Wolfe to stop kowtowing to the Federal Government, and encouragement called to the entourage to disassociate themselves with this child killer.

Throughout the day reports of the picket dominated local radio news coverage on stations WOAI and KTSX. Each sound bite with Reno was punctuated with "child-killer" in the background.

In a related matter, Hillary Clinton is scheduled to be in town on Saturday, June 11th for the American Nurses Association at 4:00 p.m. at S.A.'s Hemisfair Arena. Sons of Liberty take note!

"Good men promise little and perform much; wicked men promise much and perform nothing."

--An Old Proverb
Naturally, this superbly staged, full-scale falsification will result in social/religious disorder on a grand scale, including millions of programmed religious fanatics. [H: And where do you think such as Falwell, Robertson and the other avowed ZIONISTS will be? Where do you think all those massively scattered TBN transmitters and receivers will be that day—along with the GREAT PRETENDERS who carry forth this very day?] Many scenarios are possible, including a Holy War in the Middle East. In addition, this event will occur at a time of great political anarchy and general tumult—at the edge of something big. The U.N. even now plans to use the Beethoven Song of JOY as the official anthem for the NWO.

11. Is this the only reason the Vatican is attempting to suppress you?
S.M.: No. Let me explain. We have been given the accepted scenario involving established prophesies of the Anti-Christ and so on. What the world does not know, and is not given to know, is that other UNKNOWN prophesies exist that very accurately chart the course of human history to the present day and beyond in which is SHOWN THE DOWNFALL OF THE ANTI-CHRIST.

12. Have you had access to these documents in truth?
S.M.: Yes.
13. You are saying that something else, besides what we are given to know by the controlled media, exists that is more magnificently greater and which has yet to surface?
S.M.: Yes, precisely. And the church KNOWS. What is more, these prophesies have come down to us from the French lineage, from France, and are extant in Quebec [Quebec is the only surviving remnant of original European ancestry in North America]. [H: Be very careful with this one for it is not QUITE right, readers—at least-wise, not as this seems to be presented here. The truth is abundant in the old Sumarian seals and tablets but "France" doesn't have much of anything to do with it. There are other scrolls, etc., also—but do not depend on those you call the Dead Sea bunch of nonsense now loosed upon you. Remember that the Israelis have control of "those" and that was the END OF TRUTH.

14. Extraordinary! So there is known prophecy, and there is secret prophecy?
S.M.: That's right. The present U.N. maneuver in Quebec not only is strategic but is also for religious/spiritual reasons. It is foretold in these prophesies of which we speak that the Anti-Christ [the leading figurehead of the Khazar Satanist cabal] will come to Quebec in order to fulfill all the religious aspects of the source. Does this explain the U.N. foothold in this strategic part of the world we are witness to?

15. Amazing! In essence, you have insight into God's Plan. S.M.: Yes, but I am not God...[laughter].
JUNE 14, 1994

[H: Now we will return to the beginning of the interview and fill in the missing numbers:]

1. Would you have an update for us regarding the massive foreign military incursion into Quebec Province from adjacent north-eastern United States, as witnessed in recent weeks?

S.M.: Yes, as a matter of fact I am preparing a full-scale investigative report for CONTACT on all current United Nations installations throughout Canada. This will be of special interest to our American brethren, as such developments here tend to rule out any possibility of a coup d'etat for the U.S.

2. There have been reports in the local media of alleged premeditated "terrorist" acts, coincident with these military maneuvers. Is there a connection between these seemingly unrelated events?

S.M.: Definitely there is a link. The police account of the several hydro-electric tower explosions point to three weeks ago. The press and public support also began three weeks ago. The events could not have been unrelated. The explosions served as cover for accidental discovery of the incoming troops. The terrorist element also serves as psychological preparation for things to come.

3. What kind of troops?

S.M.: Black-garbed, FEMA troops were confirmed heading for the St.Hubert [Montreal] and Val Cartier [Quebec City] bases. In his book, Bordering on Aggression, author Floyd Rudmin speaks of the special training that "forces" training at Fort Drum [in upstate New York] who specialize in house-to-house urban attacks, winter warfare and night combat. Moreover, the U.S. troops currently training at a little-known army base in northern Maine [adjacent to the New Brunswick border] were formerly used for social disorder and torture in Central and South America.

4. Were you aware that in 1987 Fort Drum in New York was allotted in excess of one billion dollars?

S.M.: Yes, and at a time of widespread budget cutting!

5. U.S. military strategists in the '60s, and more recently the BROOKINGS INSTITUTE, have long been "predicting" the break-up of Canada. Now, thanks to your research, there is evidence of covert design, if not outright preparation, for such a scenario. [H: Remember the Ekkers and the Phoenix Institute are not up against a little nothing like University of Science and Philosophy for sharing their introduction in the U.S. South and elsewhere.]

6. In your latest book, The United Nations Concentration Camps Program in America—Book 1 (of four), available April 15th, we are wondering if you mention the fate of a number of their returned Messiah in spectacularly convincing lifelike realness....The U.N. even now plans to use the Beethoven Song of JOY as the official anthem for the NWO.

Not a single area will be excluded. With computer animation and sound effects appearing to come from the depths of space, astonished followers of the various creeds will witness their own returned Messiah in spectacularly convincing lifelike realness....The U.N. even now plans to use the Beethoven Song of JOY as the official anthem for the NWO.

[END OF QUOTING; END OF INTERVIEW]

Now, surveillance agents: I suggest you get on with distribution of this information to the proper authorities. We are playing by our agreements and we can see and know your every change of plans: IT IS NOT NICE TO TRY TO FOOL "MOTHER NATURE," I want my people released and YOU KNOW WHO THEY ARE—I WOULDNT THINK YOU WOULD LIKE ME TO START NAMING THEM?

When you strategize to walk a crooked road and double-cross the very hand that feeds you—it is unwise. That road will circle right back to your "coyote" backsides where the "roadrunner" will nip you smartly. Thank you for your pleasant and agreeable service. Salu.

Excerpts From A Conversation With Ronn Jackson On Project Blue Beam

6/10/94 RICK MARTIN

Ronn: [Mentioning] Blue Beam is going to bother some people, but it's not going to bother me in the least. It doesn't make any difference to me—it is NASA. What is it you're running?

Rick: Well, the information we got briefly outlines what the project is.

Ronn: What does it say it is?

Rick: Basically, a massive holographic display globally using the sky as a motion picture screen, using satellites and holographic images.

Ronn: Well, the satellites started being put in place in 1978. So they have been there. They are required. There are a number of satellites involved with it, so not only is it a NASA project but it's sanctioned by other organizations. It goes into a little more detail besides holographic images.

Rick: The detail that was described concerns all global religions, including a narrative explaining the prophesies and that man has misinterpreted religion.

Ronn: Well, just remember one thing—this is and was being initiated by NASA. But it's a funded project of this country and a couple of other countries.

Rick: The way it was described has to do with One World Order Religion—the bringing in of the One World Order Religion through a re-education process by these holographic images and sounds, using the sky as the screen.

Ronn: Well, you know there are a number of the religious leaders who feel jeopardized by this. For example, Oral Roberts, Jerry Falwell, other organizations and that's one of the reasons they are pushing...and they don't know the entire concept. Blue Beam...they do know that as individuals their little domain is about to be infringed upon. It was originally scheduled for January of this year but it had to be put off because of some of the imaging.

Rick: What other countries are involved, other than the U.S.?

Ronn: Central Europe, Japan and then they were trying to get a point that is geographically the center of the Soviet Union but you have to remember they have a little problem because of the Earth being round. They are going to have to do the same thing in the Southern Hemisphere. So they're having a little logistical problem. And another problem is because of the languages involved and so on. It's quite involved.

Rick: Quite a technical project.

Ronn: The last number I heard that was involved with the satellites, the minimum requirement was like two-hundred-thirty-two. I believe something in that order and they were having a little problem because of that. So the time frame, I know, was moved up but I'm not sure how much. I believe it is supposed to be less than a year, so I can't be more specific than that.
Can you find the European troops in this picture?

Of course not! Half of this team are troops from the E.E.C. (European Economic Community) assigned to enforce the New World Order in America. Help us destroy those who think that the U.S. Constitution and Bill of rights are above the United Nations Charter. Help us to abolish the American fire arms owners and those that would call themselves patriots.

For more information contact your local or regional U.N. control coordinator.

PUBLICITÉ DES NATIONS-UNIES P
AUX ÉTATS-UNIS EN MAI 1984...
Editor's note: Readers, please keep in mind that it takes a good 8-10 weeks of publication and printing activities between the time that we announce the latest JOURNAL here, only GOING to press, and when that new JOURNAL is actually completed and available for purchase through Phoenix Source Distributors. FOREWORD

SHARKS HAVE NO BONES

How many of you realize that sharks HAVE NO BONES? NOT ONE! How many of you know there is a reddish worm that lives deep under the surface of the seas that ranges up to 25 feet long, ingests its food, but has no organs that correspond to a mouth or intestines? These creatures are nourished by bacteria that live inside their cells. Further, they have an entire phylum of their own. How many of you know what the word "phylum" means? Well, it simply means "a major division of the plant or animal kingdom". How many of you realize that there are almost as many creatures with exoskeletons as endoskeletons? Back to "phylum": How many of you know what "phyla" is your own category? Are you a chordate or a subphylum vertebrate? Do you give a damn?

With all the wondrous things about you that you do not know—why can you not function without having to know if Pleiadians have sex like humans or no sex at all. Can you not find important things upon which to dwell and expand your minds? No? Then what hope is there for you?

BUT SHARKS DO HAVE TEETH!

Since this is the third book of the "HEAVE" series and will represent "Phase III", let's consider things briefly. This will be called, of course, "HEAVE 'EM OUT". However, since this volume will split at least three ongoing subject areas we will have to continue the volume numbering someway for identification purposes. How about "Vol. III, Part I"? This will allow us as many "parts" as necessary—but I especially want the connections made for "good old Kissinger" as well as some ongoing discussion regarding the Russian, Zhirinovsky. The CONSTITUTION-FEDERALIST PAPERS [not presented yet in CONTACT] will be so ongoing that we will ultimately set an entire volume or two in separation with "just" that information. Our purpose is to offer variety as with any good journaled magazine so we thank you readers for bearing along with us.

We do not claim to be publishers, knowable or even very good at format or how to handle content. If we were better informed personally (as we thought George Green as publisher, was) we would not have handled any of our early documents as we did. It still strikes me as interesting that no-one claims as plagiarism an article of news, true, etc., in the New York Times which may well have run somewhere else, say, the London Times. This is not considered plagiarism (especially for credit is given to original sources) and is not the original publication conduit. But we run the smallest thing a scientist says, proclaiming that to be truth and suddenly "ALL" our work is somehow plagiarized.

Well, we are a newspaper and news magazine; I don't know how else to run the "news". Do note that to be a human doing anything—you have to be prepared for every heinous attack there is and, furthermore, be prepared to LOSE EVERYTHING UNDER THE POINT OF A GUN AND THE LEGAL CABAL. Funny— I believe that even the National Enquirer can run anything about anyone, no matter how poor is the taste, and if it is truth—it is considered "journalism". Worse, it and other tabloids can print outright lies and still it is considered journalism if "source" is offered as "being told".

FACTS IS FACTS

Readers, I hereby go on record as telling you that there are "aliens" among you, under the ground, around you, and working with some of the elders of the very Government you serve. Whose side are "they" on? Well, it depends on the side you are on as to whom you consider a friend or enemy. I hope you will read right through this journal—or go to the last portion about the "Blue Beam" project [see p. 12]—and see if my writings seem quite so false and amusing to you. It is YOUR CHARACTERS WHO PLAN THESE CUTE GAMES AT YOUR EXPENSE AND HAVE BEEN FOR YEARS—I ONLY TELL YOU ABOUT THEM.

Here is why the heading above regarding shark's teeth. It is remarkable that sharks do not have bones—that is scientifically proven—BUT THEY CERTAINLY DO HAVE TEETH AND THAT, TOO, IS SCIENTIFICALLY PROVEN.

Well, good friends, you can bet the sharks out there among you who want to enslave you—will use those teeth every chance—every chance!

NEWS ITEMS ABOUT "US"

Since the nit-wit write-up in a Las Vegas ad-sheet, I am asked about it and if it hurts my feelings? Feelings? I find it pathetic and some things even more interesting than others. Here is THE state with guardianship laws for men and businesses and the people doing that the money for publication expenses. Well, good readers, these books published were not even all ours—as agreed upon! Besides, he has both the money, now, and the books—all nicely and untruthfully marked "copyrighted by America West". So be it.

My people find it hard to believe that this kind of a thrust would be publicly made—about the Institute defending itself for protection of participants. THAT IS THE LAW, READERS! AND, FURTHERMORE—A LAWYER IS REQUIRED BY LAW TO HANDLE THE CASE—BY LAW!

BILL CLINTON

Now, tell me where you are on this observation: "YOU PAY FOR BILL'S DEFENSE". "President Bill Clinton is using taxpayer dollars to defend himself against a personal morals charge (Paula Jones)." You bash people for following the law and defending against destruction of an Institute and yet—this other garbage is what I call like the Eveready rabbit. In fact, let's look at this Clinton "moral" case. Thank you, SPOTLIGHT, for this insight. This is by Mike Blair—one of the best investigative journalists anywhere!

[QUOTING:]

President Bill Clinton is using lawyers from the Justice Department, funded by U.S. taxpayers, to help his private attorneys prepare his defense against sexual discrimination charges filed against him by Paula Jones.

She is claiming Clinton made extremely crude sexual advances to her while he was governor of Arkansas. Although the statute of limitations on sexual harassment has run out, she claims she suffered in her state job for a sexual discrimination suit while she remains in office as president.

In 1982 the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that presidents cannot be sued for acts committed while in office. [H: I didn't read that in your Constitution] as the charges Clinton is facing occurred some 20 months before he took office as president.

NOT EXEMPT

Many legal scholars contend that since he was not president at the time, he must face the charges. You have the charges Clinton is facing occurring some 20 months before he took office as president.

Bennett is also currently counsel for Rep. Dan Rostenkowski (D-IL), powerful chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, who has charged Rostenkowski with misuse of public funds in a scandal involving the House post office. [H: Yes but it is costing Mr. Rostenkowski right through his OWN proverbial nose!]

It is believed that Clinton's legal expenses could cost millions (of dollars). The work being done on his behalf by Justice Department personnel, presumably with the guidance of Attorney General Janet Reno, could ultimately cost the taxpayers additional millions.

Jones is one of several individuals including Arkansas state troopers assigned to protect Clinton while he was governor and a number of other women, who have come forward with similar accusations against the president.

The charges faced by the president in the Jones case are the worst ever leveled at a sitting president.

Jones charges that after having a member of his state police staff entice her to his room at the hotel, Clinton made several sexual advances, then dropped his pants and asked her to perform a sexual act.

Regarding Clinton's questionable use of Justice Department attorneys to help in his defense, one of Jones' attorneys, Gilbert Davis, said, "I believe he is a sex addict as any other citizen."

"But David won his battle with a slingshot, and we feel confident we have a pretty good case," the attorney added.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, as to my refusing interviews and other confrontations with writers, radio talk-show hosts, etc., I think the next will show you a good example of WHY. There is little truth or even similarity of content with what is offered, published or construed with truth or the original statements. Here is an excellent example:

[QUOTING:]

YOU CAN'T ALWAYS BELIEVE WHAT YOU READ IN AN ESTABLISHMENT NEWSPAPER, AS A U.N. ENVY DISCOVERED RECENTLY.

By Warren Hough

The Washington Times has "misquoted me and utterly misrepresented my views," U.N. diplomat Gilbert Davis said.

Jaramillo told the SPOTLIGHT on May 24.

Only hours earlier, a report in the Washington Times, a daily newspaper published in the nation's capital and financed by mysterious Korean cult leader and ex-convict Sun Myung Moon, blamed the U.N.'s growing preoccupation with gun control on the "freewheeling U.S. small-arms business."

To support the claim that smaller nations feel threatened by the Constitutional right of American citizens to own guns, the Washington Times invoked an alleged statement made by Ms. Londono, the respected counselor of Colombia's U.N. delegation.

According to the Times, Ms. Londono asserted, "Colombia's problem is that in the U.S. you can legally buy any firearms, and those arms are transferred illegally out of the country. But in Colombia any purchase of arms is illegal."

STORY REPUDIATED

"I never said anything like that, and the Times knows it," Ms. Londono told this populist newspaper. "To declare that in Colombia "any purchase of firearms is illegal", is ridiculous. And the U.S. study of international gun controls is not driven by the 'freewheeling U.S. small-arms business', as the Times put it.

It was triggered by a series of extraordinary crimes committed, often in paramilitary fashion, by drug gangsters and terrorist hit squads whose illicit weapons and tactics came not from the U.S. BUT FROM ISRAEL," she added.

In a written repudiation to the Washington Times, Ms. Londono stated that "For the sake of clarity and justice, I would appreciate it if you do not attribute to me concepts and relations that I have not mentioned or made."

[END OF QUOTING]

I find the more important statement in the above being the statement regarding Israel. Why? Because I am a bigot? No, readers, because of the way everything is handled in the Establishment media—especially anything regarding Jews or Israel. Am I against Israel? No, in fact it is a nice little piece of terrible land mass called PALESTINE. The United Nations decided that Palestine was of no value and gave it to the Zionists—not even the Jews. Why is that? Because the Zionists are driven by the Bolsheviks. They have NEVER kept a single promised promise nor peace overture. A "Jew"'s massacred a whole big bunch of Palestinians in a Mosque and yet now that things aren't so great on the "peace treaty" front—it is "all Yassir Arafat's fault". Middle East? The Jews, Israelis have NEVER WANTED PEACE. In fact, the very LAST THING they want is PEACE! Most specially when you recall the "Holy" lands, Jerusalem, etc. How else can they excuse the tearing down of the Mosque and putting up their own temple on the same spot—so you hoodwinked people can have your Rapture? Will you NEVER wake up?

Let's look at this article in this U.S. News & World Report, an editorial by the Editor-in-Chief, Mortimer Zuckerman. This is, after all, one of their publications (the controlled media).

[QUOTING:]

THE END OF A PATCHED-UP AFFAIR?

The first few days of Palestinian control over Gaza and Jericho do not augur well for the Mideast peace process. Two Israeli soldiers were killed by Gazans who melted into the Palestinian population without Arab police pursuit; three Israelis were arrested by the Palestinian police in breach of the agreement; without legal authority, Yassir Arafat canceled most regulations and orders for Gaza and Jericho, including the Oslo accord. The cabinet had enacted for the and occupied territories.

Worst of all, on May 10, the chairman of the Palestine Liberation Organization let the mask slip in a speech in Johannesburg. Arafat was secretly recorded when he told a mosque audience: 'You have to come and fight a jihad [holy war] to liberate Jerusalem, your precious shrine.' That he likened the Oslo and Cairo agreements with Israel to the prophet Muhammad's agreement with the Quraysh tribes in A.D. 628. Unable to conquer Holy Mecca with his army, Muhammad adopted the stratagem of agreeing to a 10-year peace to lull the Meccans into a false sense of security while building up his own forces. He had no intention of keeping this agreement, and two years later he fell on the city when he felt strong enough to conquer it. Arafat's implication was clear: If Muhammad could violate such a pact with the Meccans, as Arafat described it, so could Arafat violate his pact with the Jews.

There is no possible camouflage for Arafat's hint of treachery. He had no political need, in a South African mosque, to assert his revolutionary credentials. It is all of a piece with his past references to the so-called "endeavour plan of 1974, in which PLO policy became: We will take whatever part of Israel we can get now, and the rest later. It is all of a piece with the PLO's return to pre-Oslo terrorism. Arafat has disregarded the public letter he signed in September, renouncing and denouncing all terroristic activities and promising to discipline those engaged in them. Instead, he has continued to finance and support the killers, even within his own Fatah faction. More Israelis were murdered in the six months following the September handshake than in the six months before.

Now the Israeli public is in an uproar. Many leading commentators conclude that Arafat is not serious about peace, that the Oslo process is dead. One of the most eloquent of these, Dr. Shlomo Avineri, put it this way in the New York Times on September 16:

"It should be made clear that there are a number of varieties of Zionism. There is Messianic Zionism, held as a tenet of faith by many Christian faiths as well as by Judaism. And then there is Israeli Zionism, oriented, predicated on Israel's Declaration of Independence in 1948, which said, 'Israel will be open for Jewish immigration and for the Ingathering of Exiles'. The Declaration of Establishment also states, 'The mission of gathering in the exiles is the central task of a State of Israel'. The Zionist movement in our days and requires constant efforts by the Jewish people in the Diaspora'."

Berger then goes on, "It is clear that the process of building up a state for the Jewish people, identified either by religion or birth by a Jewish mother, continues within the framework of a 'democracy' of privileging Jews in Israel. This affected the structure of the economy, educational opportunities, and the rights of political organizations, public subsidies for activities such as agriculture, provisions of public services such as roads, utilities and housing, among others."

"Israel is a state, therefore, in which if apartheid is not as blatant as or territorially viable as South Africa, Jews are nevertheless more equal than others. The application of Zionist laws makes discrimination a matter of national politics. This being so, it is an abandonment of democratic principle to accuse those who oppose these public policies of malevolent or 'obscene' motivations."

Rabbi Berger adds: "I am unsure of what racism may mean to all of those who participated in the U.N. debate or have been witness to or some of its side shows. But if racism is a form of government or a structure of society in which national rights and responsibilities are officially legislated upon the basis of creed, color or ethnic derivation, then the Zionist character of much basic Israel law qualifies."

Recently a Jew named Alvin Levine wrote an article for the Jewish periodical Jewish Weekly American Examiner. He said: "The cause of anti-Semitism in the U.S. is not the Ku Klux Klan or Liberty Lobby or the Minute Men. The main cause is our Jewish leaders, who are becoming more and more shortsighted, dogmatic, inflexible and arrogant. In this country the Jewish people are treated better than in any other country in the world, including Israel. This mood may soon disappear unless sensible reason prevails."

[END OF QUOTING]

Well, that was in 1975—almost two decades ago. Where are you now? Let me suggest that you had better start to pay attention because, little ones, with Project Blue Beam you are going to get "raptured" by those nice Zionists—right out into ever-loving heaven and land and it "ain't" into HEAVEN Salu.

This volume shall be identified as:

It is very difficult to tell the "white hats" from the "black hats" if you have no vision. If you are blind, you are going to have to sharpen up to energy signals and learn of "directions" and "players". Citizen "mankind" is basically but a pawn in the Elite game of who gets to run things. You must learn to play the game BETTER than the script writers for until YOU WRITE THE SCRIPT—you are destined to be caught in "their" play.

VLADIMIR ZHIRINOVSKY

How can you tell when the Elite are REALLY concerned about someone? Watch how they do a fourteen-page blast and horror trip about them in FOREIGN AFFAIRS, the CFR (Council on Foreign Relations) journal. Then look to see who got commissioned to write the article and thus and so. In the instance we are going to utilize now we will take up Mr. Zhirinovsky and the fourteen-page article in FOREIGN AFFAIRS commissioned by the CFR and author of the article in point, Jacob W. Kipp. Won't this remind my own crew, who just got hauled in a rag-sheet from Las Vegas by one Aaron Cohen! Since the article about me was 100% about garbage and certainly not about the Trillion Dollar Lie, I have to surmise he hasn't read much of my work.

Well, I always like publicity and especially from a weekly compilation of all the "dirty" gamboling spots in Vegas. I am only sorry to not have made the same page with the advertisement for surgical enlargements of male penises and nipples—by up to three full inches! NOW THAT is important "stuff", readers. So be it. I'm afraid the attention will ultimately hurt me no more than it has hurt Zhirinovsky!

Concern about Zhirinovsky really? Oh indeed, for the minute these Elite New World Order lame-brains blink—he will wipe them off the map!

So who is Kipp?

Jacob W. Kipp is a Senior Analyst with the Foreign Military Study Office at Fort Leavenworth in Kansas and Adjunct Professor of History at the University of Kansas. He is also U.S. Editor of European Security. The views expressed are those of the author and should not be interpreted as representing those of the Department of the Army or the Department of Defense. [H: Golly, how about the Council on Foreign Relations?]

[Hi: Now just why would you want to waste time on this topic? Because it is evident it has a LOT to do with the rest of the global politics and perhaps survival itself. If it is this important a topic to the CFR when most of Americans haven't even heard of the man in point—IT MUST BE IMPORTANT! We must have a REAL THREAT here—to a WHOLE LOT OF PEOPLE!]

[QUOTING:] THE ZHIRINOVSKY THREAT
A DANGER TO RUSSIAN DEMOCRACY

In the ongoing drama of what Russia is to be—state or empire, democracy or autocracy [H: Everybody in the Elite corps of disaster makers—REPUBLIC is avoided like AIDS.], Vladimir Zhirinovsky has shouldered his way to center stage with a bellicose, attention-grabbing performance. Some Russian and Western observers have quickly concluded that this ultranationalist is a bit player, thrust forward less by his own devices than by the inadequacies of Russian reformers in the December parliamentary elections. Yet it would be dangerous to dismiss Zhirinovsky, with his rash, outlandish statements to the press, as a self-destructive clown. His writings and the statements by key ideologues of his Liberal Democratic Party (LDP), as well as his electioneering skills, make him a potent threat to Russian democracy. Post-election surveys indicate voters support his ideas, and not just as a protest against economic conditions.

Zhirinovsky and his year-old Liberal Democratic Party surfaced in June 1991 when he drew six million votes, almost eight percent of the total election returns, to finish third in the Russian presidential election won by Boris Yeltsin. [Hi: Yes, and this was with the usual "fixed" election pieces AND TOTAL INABILITY TO HAVE ANY MEDIA COVERAGE AT ALL—JUST LIKE THE LITTLE INDEPENDENT RUNNERS IN AMERICA—IN FACT THIS WHOLE THING WAS SET-UP BY THE AMERICANS—OF ZIONIST DESCENT.] Two-and-a-half years later, in December's parliamentary elections, his populist television campaigning garnered the LDP nearly 25 percent of the vote. Russia's political leaders and intellectuals, along with the West, were astounded to find this demagogue commanding a strategic position in the new 450-seat assembly, along with a fairly large bloc of hard-line, anti-reform Communists. Although mutually hostile on a number of key issues, the Communists and the LDP are proving capable of selective cooperation. Together they voted to release those who had been imprisoned by the 1991 coup against former Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev and the October 1993 insurrection in the Parliament. Zhirinovsky instigated the surprise anti-Yeltsin maneuver fully aware that freeing Aleksandr Rutskoi might empower a more centrist rival for the political leadership of nationalist forces.

With hindsight it is evident that Zhirinovsky expertly organized for election success while openly portraying the effort as merely positioning himself for the next presidential election, whenever it may come. Rising discontent about Russia's declining economic condition increased Zhirinovsky's appeal between the 1991 and 1993 elections and, as the economy continued to falter, Russian commentators suggest that his appeal will continue to grow. His base of support consists of relatively well-educated young males from larger cities, older less-educated males from smaller cities, disgruntled rural residents and numerous members of the Russian armed forces. Zhirinovsky pledged to resolve the country's problems—by granting privileges to Russian businessmen facing foreign competitors, increasing arms export sales, ending Russia's "humiliations" abroad, and even getting husbands for unwed women and cheap vodka for all.

In response, Yeltsin has shorn his government of reformers and adopted Zhirinovsky's calls for a crackdown on crime, an assertive foreign policy and strong state controls over economic and social activities. Some experts, including former U.S. State Department official Paul Goble, see the real danger not in Zhirinovsky but rather "in the way Boris Yeltsin and other Russian 'reformers' are likely to exploit the Zhirinovsky vote to pressure the former Soviet republics, and in the extraordinary likelihood that the West will complacently accept whatever demands the Russian president makes on them." Russian reformers and Western observers have tended to underestimate the appeal of Zhirinovsky and his party. Even as late as the summer of 1993, foreign observers played down the threat to Russian democracy and the West coming from Zhirinovsky and other "Red-Browns." Richard Pipes, a leading historian of modern Russia and the Soviet Union, writing on the eve of the constitutional crisis that would pit President Yeltsin against his vice president and the Supreme Court, dismissed the Red-Brown threat as portrayed in Walter Laqueur's Black Hundred, a work devoted to the rise of the extreme right in Russia. Pipes spoke of fanatics seeking power and "the ravings of extremist intellectuals" but concluded that Laqueur's warning was a "false alarm." As the events of the next few months would show, Russia was far less stable than Pipes' analysis suggested.

A major problem was that Yeltsin's government used its control of the media during the electoral campaign to play down the growing power of the Red-Browns in general, and Zhirinovsky's LDP in particular. During the last week of the campaign, when the LDP bought 220 minutes of television time to get its message to the voters, that attitude began to change. A last-minute effort by Vyacheslav Bragin, then chief of Ostankino Television, to use a program on Zhirinovsky and the LDP to "sober up" the electorate to the Zhirinovsky threat backfired. Only on the eve of elections did Russia's Choice, the top reform party, led by Yegor Gaidar, warn that it was time to stop considering Zhirinovsky a "harmless clown" and to recognize him as "a threat to Russia's existence." [Hi: No, just to the Elite Zionist's existence! With such a man in power—Russia might just have a chance!]

There has been a strong tendency to dismiss Zhirinovsky's success as part protest vote and part personal charisma. [H: Personal charisma?? This man is a dirt-poor, hard labor one-of-the-poor-peasant people! This hardly smacks of some hierarchical political CHARISMA.] Laqueur characterized Zhirinovsky as "a fine orator-demagogue" with "a power of persuasion and an ability to mobilize crowds," but he was not a "revolutionist" in the usual sense. [H: Well, there you have IT, readers, as Mr. Laqueur just proved his own work to be totally absurd and that is what this article, likewise absurd, is based upon. Ah, but next we bring Mr. William Safire into the mouth-wagging equation and you can be SURE that Mr. Zhirinovsky has some good attributes, after all. Keep alert, readers, and you can get the picture without ever being shown the ACTUAL PICTURE! Political columnist William Safire dismissed the "panic over Mr. Z" as excessive. More recently, "60 Minutes" broadcast a feature on Zhirinovsky by Australian television entitled THE MAD RUSSIAN. [H: Again—I'd say that is about as good as "compliance" as you can get from the controlled MEDIA! In an interview with advocacy of individual freedom within a civic FOREIGN-MOSTLY RUSSIAN JEWS WHO... and anarchy. [H: See how slippery this old dude..."

Zhirinovsky, the reporter asked him to his enemies. [H: Well, good reader, how..."nationw, not a influx of unlawful bullies..."

Such commentary underlines the real threat Zhirinovsky represents to Russian democracy. Were conditions to worsen, Zhirinovsky's skills at marshaling public dis-temper and the appeal of his ideas could produce additional unwanted surprises. Thus the ideas that propel him, apart from his impromptu, headline-grabbing outbursts, are..."What side are you on anyway, America's or Russia's?" NEITHER. Dharma happens to be an American—I AM NEITHER RUSSIAN NOR AMERICAN! Perhaps that is why I can be objective and point out the truth of this fine kettle of fish you have caught and can't see because the pot water is so dirty.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

At first glance the designation "liberal democratic" seems a misnomer. Yet Zhirinovsky's choice of the terms liberal and democratic to describe his party is no accident. It is a conscious effort to distinguish his Zhirinovskyan from other nations that range from monarchist to Communist. [H: What would you expect him to call a Party, United Socialist Soviet Republic?? Wasn't something similar to that already "taken"?]

In Zhirinovsky's hands "liberal" is an ahistorical category designating his outsider status. This is necessary for his political success and causes it also to be no true, political program. The party's slogan, "Through a pluralism of opinions the superiority of the law," consciously invokes ties with past Russian liberalism. Previously, Russian liberalism carried a notion of moderate reform and Westernization. Russian liberals sought to build a civic society under law and were hardly concerned with democrats. Moreover, conservative nationalist, populists and Marxists, who were at odds with one another on almost every issue, were united in their rejection of liberals. Liberalism was branded as part of a utopian dream, disconnected from Russian realities. Liberals were depicted as compromisers, spouting noble sentiments but achieving petty deeds. No one wants worse than rejected as the idea of gradual reform. Indeed, Western schol- ars, in gauging the failure of prerevolutionary anarchy. [H: Again-Mr. Laqueur..."

Zhirinovsky's..."

For Zhirinovsky, the idea of a strong Russians is not antithetical to empire. Rather, it is the preferred tool for recreating the Russian imperial reality of old. [H: Oh, how so? Does this mean if you get rid of the..."

For Zhirinovsky, if the Revolution that you long for and will have an "IMPERIAL" reality, much less assume Zhirinovsky WANTS ONE? How dare this foolish author to even ASSUME such a stance—certainly Zhirinovsky has NEVER STATED ANY SUCH DESIRE.] Thus, he starkly rejects the 75-year-old Soviet totalitarian experience and hopes to work for an "IMPERIAL" empire in content. [H: Good grief, the man just said he wanted an "Imperial reality"—even this amazing author cannot have it BOTH WAYS. This work is so badly done that I'm not sure, readers, I can make it all the way through it for it is difficult to let a single sentence pass un-noted. the sort was even implied. The hope was to bring peace and working cooperation within the nations and become as one working region for the betterment of BOTH. What he actually said is now offered in italics and it is not what this man just implied.

The final "thrust" to the south: As I dream of it, Russian soldiers will wash their boots in the warm waters of the Indian Ocean and forever change to summer uniforms... We must pacify that region forever. [H: Pacify as properly defined means: PEACE AND FURTHER AS STATED HERE: PEACE IN THE REGION.]

Rejecting Communist Federalism as "a pretty Bolshevik [H: And just WHO were we? and are the Bolsheviks?] many which Zhirinovsky's supporters oppose the idea of a territorial state in which citizenship is a function of residence. They reject a multinational Russian Federation in favor or a centralized Russia of one nationality, Russian, sharing one culture and language. In short, they reject a civic state in favor of an ethnic state. [H: Say what?] According to Zhirinovsky, non-Russians would be Russified and the Orthodox church given a "dominant position". [H: Well, remember your public law that now states you in the U.S. have a one religion country, Noahedic Law! I would guess that you do not longer have SOVEREIGN states, either, lest all those states wouldn't have to be going back into the courts to regain any semblance of sovereignty from your controlling powers—nationalists. The new Russia is a state under law, an enlightened state. This is a powerful presidential regime, a powerful, multiparty parliament. This is legislation, which is for the ages, which we won't have to change every ten years. This is a constitution of which Zhirinovsky's supporters respect everyone from infant to elder. This is a unified symbol throughout the entire country—the black, yellow, white flag, the state flag of Russia. It must wave over all state institutions in every region of our huge Fathertland. This is the country's anthem, one anthem. This is the state language, the language of interethnic communication, the Russian. This is a single monetary unit—the ruble. [H: Seems to me, good people, that a lot of you could take some lessons.]

Zhirinovsky's LDP ideologues understand the force of such ideas in the struggle for power and note the weakness of their Communist and democratic opponents in trying to enlist puppet nations in Wash. Those Decidedly Criminal. The Phoenix Journals are intended as a "real time" commentary on current events, how current events relate to past events and the relationships of both to the physical and spiritual destinies of mankind.

All of history, as we now know it, has been revised, rewritten, twisted and tweaked by selfishly motivated men to achieve and maintain control over other men. When one can understand that everything is comprised of "energy" and that even physical matter is "coalesced" energy, and that all energy emanates from God's thought, one can accept the idea that the successful focusing of millions of minds on one expected happening will cause it to happen.

If the many prophecies made over thousands of years are accepted, these are the "end times" (specifically the year 2000, the second millennium, etc.). That would put us in the "sorting" period and only a few short years from the finish line. God has said that in the end-times would come the WORD—to the four corners of the world—so that each could decide his/her own course toward, or away from, divinity—based upon TRUTH.

So, God sends His Hosts—Messages—to present that TRUTH. This is the way in which He chooses to present it, through the Phoenix Journals. Thus, these journals are Truth, which cannot be copyrighted; they are compilations of information already available on Earth, researched and compiled by others (some, no doubt, for this purpose) which should not be copyrighted. Therefore, these journals are not copyrighted (except SIPAPU ODYSSEY which is "fiction").

The first sixty or so journals were published by America West Publishing which elected to indicate that a copyright had been applied for on the theory that the ISBN number was dependent upon the copyright. Commander Hatton, the primary author and compiler, insisted that no copyrights be applied for and, to our knowledge, none were.

If the Truth is to reach the four corners of the world, it must be freely passed on. It is hoped that each reader will feel free to do that, keeping it in context, of course.
And, indeed there are more:
3. I just wish to call attention and ask you to do your own follow-up. As with the Zhirinovsky overview from FOREIGN AFFAIRS, the CFR journal, I want you to read the information while considering the source, the publication and the purpose of such information in bashing a man who is very popular to the people in the Russias but very unpopular with the elite-one-worlders. With Kissinger, I just want you to see what is being used as guidelines and treated as authoritarian-expert counsel and instructions to the various committees, disinformation and working material for the Council on Foreign Relations, et al. You do not, in these instances, need an entire article to get the point! Neither do we have the time or the space to present it all-we are at best a review service to point out what you should be attending.

I do, however, feel the Zhirinovsky material is important enough to repeat most of the article because it is already "public" and if you read it carefully according to the rules you have now learned—you will learn a lot about the man who will be very important in Russia. The elite continue to back Yeltsin so you can have continuity of one World Government but the ones you don't hear about are the important players in a thrust for a free world.

Why do authors "copyright" information which is simply public, supposedly, truth? Because it is not truth and it is not desired that any of us take the information and afford it with reason. Copyrights are the highest form of censorship! Regardless of what America West may present in the early 50-60 journals—none of those journals are copyrighted! We beg, plead and ask that you copy, distribute, study, consider and discuss anything and everything you find in either the journal or the article because it is important enough to repeat most of the transformation of the country into an industrial superpower. [H: Who directed it into a superpower? The "committee" controls Japan, hook, line and sinker!] This has led S.F. Dergunov, one of the LDP's (Liberal Democratic Party) key ideologues, to posit the following thesis regarding Russia's economic transformation: the transitional economy must operate on the basis of state programs that create competitive sectors, modern infrastructure and the structural transformation of the economy. Moreover, "an obligatory element of these programs is a plan for gradual organized curtailment and transfer of state property into the hands of the people as a whole." For Dergunov, there are two key reasons why this program of state capitalism would work. First, it is true to national traditions: "For our country, state programs are natural." Second, it would require minimal retraining for the industrial managers of the Communist era. The model of state capitalism invoked here is nothing like those used in the relocation of industry in 1941. In this manner the LDP's program combines the supposed benefits of Communist enterprise managers working under state direction with personal enrichment through state-directed privatization. The program promises to take privatization out of the hands of bureaucrats and put it into the hands of the elite. It calls for a three-year process that converts most enterprises into "self-financing" ventures, a leasing arrangement with funds used to cover social programs, and financing for the privatization fund run by the Russian State Bank. In the first year, resources would be divided evenly between the three efforts. After that, more would go to the privatization fund and the collective and state farm managers. The ownership of such certificates would be confined to Russian citizens and Russians living abroad in order to avoid the injustice of foreign or shady capital" buying up enterprises cheaply.

Playing on the economic chaos created by hyperinflation, the LDP blames declining productivity and the collapse of many enterprises on the Yeltsin government's "slavish" behavior in the face of the demands of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund. The LDP's program calls for a state-regulated program to stimulate production by gradually converting the monetary system to a "noncash, convertible ruble." [H: Why do we bother to continue this dialogue? Because this is the CFR we are talking about—the big old committee who does the bidding of the higher and miniscule committees—this is the substance of which trillions of dollars are poured into "beating" politically such a "rascal" as Zhirinovsky at bat. In other words—hit him with the ball instead of playing the game with honor. Next you will find the hands of the dirty crew at work, the Khazarian Bolsheviks (the Jews) as usual.] This is the most important thing, but it is a funny thing, too, that the Jews use it either way—they find possibility of "Jewish bloodline" in this terrible man—and use that against him too, in propaganda. You (main text continued on p.23)
Along these lines it is time to interrupt at this very point to MAKE A POINT to you who aren't yet back to sleep. Wake up! From Gordon "Jack" Mohr, 113 Ballentine Street, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi 39520 comes the following. I offer the name and address because from him you can get 100 of these papers for $5.00 or, per copy, 30 cents; postage paid. We have run this for you prior to this; it is not new—it was an update sent to Jews throughout the world in 1956, ALMOST 40 YEARS AGO! Where do you think you might be on the "gotcha" scale TODAY?

WORLD PROTOCOL

In 1956, the following WORLD PROTOCOL was sent out to Jews world-wide. It was a confidential notice which went to orthodox, reformed, non-religious and "Christian" Jews:

"We are about to reach our goal. World War II furthered our plans greatly. We succeeded in having millions of Christians kill each other and returning other millions in such condition that they can do us no harm.

"There remains little to be done to complete our control of the United States.

"JEWS IN AMERICA—THESE ARE YOUR FINAL INSTRUCTIONS PRIOR TO THE TAKEOVER:
1. Continue to enlarget our control over radio, TV, newspapers, movies and magazines.
2. Educate our sons and crowd the Gentiles out of the practice of law, medicine, pharmacy and all retail trades.
3. Make their schools and colleges training camps for our Red Revolution.
4. Bring ridicule upon their Christian faith; divide their people; weaken their churches.
5. Demoralize their women and children.
6. Corrupt their courts and bring them into contempt.
7. Turn class against class. The Negro against the White.
8. Buy politicians and continue to corrupt their local, state and national governments.
9. GET the Fascist anti-Semites, one way or another.
10. Use willing tools in government; they will do our bidding.
11. Plan unlimited immigration of our persecuted people.
12. Continue our control of their money through the Federal Reserve System.
13. We MUST destroy the Republic and replace it with a Democracy (Jewish-governed state Socialism).
15. Continue our control over Labor; agitate unrest, strikes and violence by any means or schemes.

"Especially through these methods shall we plunge this country into destitution, demoralization, bankruptcy, and civil war, further lessening the numbers of our enemies.

"The Bolshevik Revolution made us masters of Russia.

"The last war made us rulers of all Europe except Spain.

"Let this next war make us MASTERS OF AMERICA!

"For the preservation of our race, you are warned to renounce, abjure, repudiate and deny any of this information if questioned by the Gentiles, even under oath, AS DIRECTED BY THE TALMUD.

"It is needless to caution you of the terrible consequences that might follow if these instructions should fall into goyim hands." [H: OOPS!]

SIGNED: THE CENTRAL CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN RABBIS!

Col. Mohr: Now it's very possible that some of you who read these words are going to say: "Well, I don't believe that!" But if you are a normally intelligent individual, and are willing to look around and see what is happening, you will have to admit, if you are honest, that all the aforementioned things are happening to this country. Do you honestly believe they are happening by accident?

A CRUEL HOAX!

Almost without fail, when I (Mohr) come up with some documented facts concerning the hatred of Jews towards Christianity, some naive Christian will say: "But our Lord Jesus Christ was a Jew. So we must love the Jews." This "big-lie" technique has been "brainwashing" Americans for a long time and in no place has it received such a strong foothold as in the evangelical and fundamental church world. The "so-called" Jews of today have been very successful in causing Christians to believe that Jesus Christ, who called them "liars, hypocrites, poisonous snakes and murderers", was "King of the Jews". This reference was first made in English translations of the Old and New Testament, centuries before the Jews "hi-jacked" the word "Jew" in the 19th Century. They have spent millions of dollars trying to convince Christians that Jesus Christ was a kin of theirs, while calling him an "illegitimate bastard". Very strange, isn't it? On one hand, they claim Him as one of them—when it benefits them with the Christian world—while on the other hand their TALMUD curses Him and consigns Him to all kinds of terrible suffering in hell.

The alleged kinship of Jesus with those who call themselves "Jews" comes from a myth of their common ancestry with the "so-called Jews" of the Bible in Old Testament history and is fiction based on fable. In Tim. 1:14, the Apostle Paul warns Christians about "giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, which turn from the truth." In verse 10 of that same chapter, He identifies these as "unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, SPECIALLY THEY OF THE CIRCUMCISION." He goes on to say that these Jews "subvert whole houses teaching falsehood for money's sake."

Very few Christians realize they are being brainwashed twenty-four hours every day by television, radio, newspapers, magazines, movies and books, by political leaders in office and seeking office and by religious leaders who have become subservient to those who are the worst enemies of the one they call "Lord".

— Gordon "Jack" Mohr.
HITLER RECONSIDERED

Along with small bands of overt Russian fascists, such as A.P. Barkashov and the Russian National Unity movement, Zhirinovsky takes a lead in co-opting and militarizing the Russian national-socialist movement. While noting that some of Hitler's extreme measures did harm Germans, Zhirinovsky concludes that in general, his ideology does not contain anything negative in itself. [H: No idea, ideal or ideology contains one iota of power, negative or positive—UNTIL ACTED UPON] Ideologues of the Liberal Democratic Party have gone further in claiming ties to Nazi German and Hitler. LDP theorist Igor Minin has said that national-socialists form the "third force" in Russian politics between communists and democrats, both of which have discarded themselves by their hostility to the national idea. "The true carrier of the ideals of national socialism is the national-patriotic movement," of which the Liberal Democratic Party will assume leadership. In this fashion Zhirinovsky's party intends to co-opt and militarize the Russian right. The national-patriotic movement will require its own paramilitary formations, called the druzhina (guard) and organized into "agitation and propaganda groups" and "protection-assault groups" for street operations during electoral campaigns. These groups are to be organized by district, block and factory and be controlled by 15 persons, including one or two experienced activists and several military.

Anti-Semitism is an organizing tool for Zhirinovsky as it was for Hitler. At home it results in the LDP's persistent caricature of former Finance Minister Gaidar as Yeltsin's "ideological Jew". Gaidar the democrat became the court Jew, using his position for personal gain. Abroad, the LDP seeks to build connections through an international anti-Semitic alliance. The chief source of anti-national forces is Zionism. Minin has asserted that "Zionism has as its final goal the establishment of the economic and political supremacy of Jewry in all the leading countries of the world and is a direct result of the basic features of the national character of the Jewish people." The LDP denies that it will practice a "humane" policy toward Jews and confine its version of the final solution to Zionists. Viewing the governments of the United States, France and Great Britain as tools of international Zionism, the LDP ideology wants to reduce contact with those governments. They would also accelerate the emigration of Jews from Russia and reduce the influence of Jews in the mass media by imposing proportional representation on such positions. [H: Is this bad? It seems to me that you remained in a "Cold" war situation with Russia for YEARS because they would not allow Jews to leave. NOW IT IS BAD TO ALLOW THEM, EVEN ENCOURAGE THEM, TO GO TO WHERE THEY WISH TO BE?] They view proportional representation as the vehicle for maintaining Russian hegemony in a centralized, multietnic state. [H: Please note that the author, Jacob W. Kipp is a Kazarian Zionist Jew—regardless of what he will tell you!]

In seeking to create an alliance motivated by anti-Zionism, the LDP ideologues look to capitalistic countries that have retained a government with a "national," as opposed to cosmopolitan, character. Not surprisingly, this leads to rather ahistorical interpretation of contemporary German and Japanese societies and a search for nationalist allies in those societies. Igor Minin writes:

We are speaking first of all about Japan and Germany. Everyone knows the patriotism and faithfulness to national values of the Japanese people. The Japanese government maximally, to that degree allowed by capitalism, has used the features of Japanese national character and in its turn has adapted to them as much as possible. Now it feeds off the fruits of its correct strategy.

Germany has had a different fate. It is located in the very center of Europe and that means in the very epicenter of subjective anti-nationalist forces and, as a consequence, 150 years of its history have taken place under the influence of the continual struggle of the German nation against these influences. We will not discuss the details of this struggle or the mistakes made by the Germans. What is important is that this struggle did not end with the unification of the German states but entered a new phase.

National socialism supports the maximum widening of cooperation with the most nationalist governments, in particular Japan and Germany. Only this cooperation can bring good to our nation and help in the matter of constructing a national government. (Author's footnote: Minin, Teoreticheskie osnovy national-socializma.)* "German radical right parties share this view of the world. Gerard Frey of the German People's Union attended the Third Congress of the LDP and is quoted in the LDP newspaper, Liberal, as speaking with admiration of the LDP's program and saying that his organization "stands opposed to America's supremacy in the world and seeks that Russia should be powerful and occupy a deserved place in the world.)

In short, the foreign policy objectives of Zhirinovsky's movement can only be achieved by overthrowing the existing world order [H: There you have it.] and undermining the position of the United States. In December, at the end of the electoral campaign, Zhirinovsky penned and signed his own map of a new Europe and gave it to Rolf Gauffin, the former Swedish ambassador to Russia. The map shows two great powers dominating Central and Eastern Europe. The first is a revived Russian empire that reincorporates Ukraine and Belarus. The second is a Grossdeutschland that includes Austria, Bohemia-Moravia and Poland's western territories. Poland would be compensated by getting the Lvov region back from Ukraine. Slovakia would go to Russia. Russia would give up Kaliningrad to Germany and be compensated by getting back the Baltic states, except for Tallinn, which would be turned into a city-state "like Luxembourg or Lichtenstein." Lithuania would disappear and be replaced by a special zone around Kaunas, in the next few years. Yugoslavia would be partitioned between Croats and Serbs. Zhirinovsky would sanction the creation of a "Greater Bulgaria," which would include Macedonia and Thrace. Romania, it would appear, is to gain Moldova's expense.

[H: Do I agree with such antics? Of course NOT. Every man, woman and child must have sovereignty and THEN, EVERY STATE MUST HAVE SOVEREIGNTY AND EVERY "OTHER" STATE, NATION OR EMPIRE HAS TO STOP GOBBLING UP, DIVIDING UP AND KILLING OFF THAT WHICH IS NOT HIS TO DIVIDE. IT WOULD SEEM THAT AS LONG AS THERE IS MAN—HE WILL DESTROY, ENSLAVE AND PROounce HIS OWN EVIL UPON ALL OTHERS. NO, I CER- TAINLY DO NOT AGREE WITH ANY OF THE MEASURES OUTLINED—"THAT", HOWEVER, DOES NOT MAKE MR. ZHIRINOVSKY THAT OF WHICH HE IS ACCUSED BY JACOB KIPP.]

Race figures prominently in LDP foreign policy. LDP ideologues speak of the yellowing, reddening and blackening of the world's population and even use the metaphor of a white Fay Wray in the hands of King Kong to describe the threat facing the white race. To avoid such a fate and preserve the white race's civilization, "which gives more than it receives," the LDP would challenge the dominant cosmopolitan order represented by the United States. [H: Read that again!—I Do you think this is a statement by a bigoted Zhirinovsky or a planting of poison hemlock seeds by Jacob Kipp?] In its place, the LDP wants an international order of "parallel civilizations, the development of each being directed by a dominant regional power.

FRANK & ERNEST

NO, THEY'RE REQUIREMENTS, NOT "GOALS!"
Zhirinovsky predicts the United States will collapse because of the internal contradictions stemming from its cosmopolitan character.

[H: If not stemmed—IT WILL!] This crisis will force a weak and divided America to give up its leading role in defending the current world order and lead it to adopt its own version of the final thrust to the south, bringing Latin America under its authority. [H: Want to try to repeat or explain that one?]

CONTINUATION: THE ZHIRINOVSKY THREAT, Part 3
by Jacob W. Kipp as presented in FOREIGN AFFAIRS, Vol. 73, No. 3:

THE ARMY TO THE RESCUE

H: BETTER PAY ATTENTION! THEY HAVE CAPABILITY AND A "LOT" OF NIFTY LITTLE ALIENS AS WELL.

[QUOTE:] Zhirinovsky views the army as a potential ally in restoring order if it can be won over to steal their thunder and emerge as the undisputed leader of the country.

Zhirinovsky's approach to winning over this army is to mobilize the nation around a shared image of a "foreign enemy". For all practical purposes, the enemies are the United States as a power and ZIONISM as an ideology. He is holding out future glories to the army through which it will be reborn. At the LDP's Third Congress, many speakers addressed the military and its fate. (The LDP set out to use the politicization of the military to its own ends, seeking to discredit the government and the current military leadership. It played on the loss of prestige felt by the officer corps. K.N. Popov, a spokesman for the military in the LDP, talked about the collapse of discipline, tanks rusting in Siberia, warships that were not seaworthy and planes that could not fly. He criticized the current military commanders as mere businessmen. The only hope, he argued, was to spread the party's ideas among the "mid-level officer corps, where many are sympathetic to our ideas." The party's propagandists were instructed to take their message into the barracks and academies to gain support against a compromised military leadership. The implications of this position were made clear in another speech, when a naval officer spoke of the party's efforts to organize its own detachments within the armed forces.]

In the election campaign for parliament the LDP, more than any other party, recruited candidates from the military—a total of ten candidates were listed as military servicemen or members of the Ministry of Internal Affairs. While some other parties recruited star candidates from among the established military leadership, the LDP chose mid-level officers, the strata that the LDP had identified as the military's center of gravity. [H: Superb observation.]

The LDP's efforts in the military paid off in the December elections for parliament. President Yeltsin attributed one-third of the vote gained by the LDP to its military support. While Zhirinovsky is not of the same stature as Yeltsin or perestroika's "father," he has been able to steal their thunder and emerge as the undisputed voice of the opposition. [H: Yes, and that IS IN SPITE of being refused any MEDIA recognition or time—AT ALL.] He cultivates the clown image to attract media attention, which he skillfully uses to his own ends. In an age of sound bites and shallow coverage, he is a powerful orator who speaks simply and persuasively to the audience. He is depicted as the consummate politician. He is portrayed as a fascist, communist, drug abuser or KGB spy. Reading this, it is easy to see why Washington (George) said things about our government's failure to support the Jewish cause—"I am a Jew and I have been told by..."

Perhaps American Patriots might do well to become a cult—but do it one by one or something—because you certainly cannot just have churches and patriotic leaders. If you can't see what this writer and this writing is about, then I think may as well stop trying to understand the TRUTH.

The difficulty of containing threats such as those posed by Zhirinovsky has been poignantly captured by the Polish writer Adam Michnik:

Today Russia stands before a dramatic dilemma, to which no one has yet given a reasonable answer. What is better: Disrupt the rules of democracy and chase out the totalitarian parties while they are still sufficiently weak? Or respect the democratic order and open to these parties the road to power? Russia, burdened with a young, weak government, faces staggering economic and social problems, does not have the capacity to resolve Michnik's "dramatic dilemma" alone. Nor does it stand alone as a potential victim of the Zhirinovsky threat.

Dr. Peter Beter On The Subject Of Deaths Brought To “Life”

6/11/94 #2 HATONN

While we are at "lies", I am accused of lying, deceptive practices and outright thiev-ery of spirit and information. How can TRUTH be thieved? However, if you desire a bit of thought-provoking information—go for the "gusto" readers. The TRUTH was coming forth from one Peter Beter before the "big boys" threatened to kill his family and finally did get him. I tell you there are "doubles" and "robotoids", "aliens" and Elite rulers? Yes indeed! Now they are all AMONG you and head up some of the neatest and meanest and most powerful committees on your planet. Oh, but I said Mr. Kissinger "just isn't his original self"?? Yes I did. Henry and Nancy Kissinger were killed in a mid-air explosion over the Atlantic ocean on February 5, 1979. So WHO is that natty ruler of nations running about looking like Henry Kissinger? Indeed, World, you have some REAL problems. Want a taste of others who AREN'T WHAT THEY "SEEM" TO BE? A nice person has bothered to take documents, research and historical information and offer the following. This person just couldn't believe what his eyes and ears were telling him so he went and investigated—moreover, he shares a few "death" dates with us and I would like to share the information with you—just as it appears here. If, further, you wish the full information of Air Force MK-Ultra, The Phoenix Project in Vietnam, Blue Beam and other "cute" operations whereby there is total genetic, DNA alterations, alien (as in "space") sellouts by your Government and on and on. It will certainly cause you, I HOPE, to question just WHO MIGHT BE PULLING STRINGS IF SO MANY OF THE RECOGNIZED PLAYERS ARE DUPLICATES. THERE IS SOMEONE PULLING THE PUPPET-STRINGS, GOOD FRIENDS—EVERY TIME.

ANONYMOUS CORRESPONDENCE

[It: I don't blame him.]

[QUOTING:]

The pabulum of the major media, T.V. and radio is certainly a very poor version of honest reporting and actually amounts to a form of traitorism for the citizens of this Republic. Just who is "minding the store" these days?

From Dr. Peter Beter's audio tapes I have learned the following of which not a line has been in the newspapers or broadcast to my knowledge. If Dr. Beter is telling lies WHY HASN'T SOMEONE COME FORTH TO DECRY THEM?

Dr. Beter:
Most of the above have been replaced by some human doubles and lately by "Russian Robotoids". See: Tape #47, of June 1979. Our base on the Moon was wiped out by the Russians on 9-27-77 and they made their 1st Moon landing on 10-16-77 (Letter 42). Charged particle beam weapons now are operational from many bases. Cosmospheres are used. Re: DOUBLES, ROBOTOIDS AND REPLICAS, SEE Phoenix Journal Express, Feb. 1, 1991, pages 14 and 15.

The regeneration of Robotoids is done at Camp David.

[END OF QUOTING]

Camp David is NOT, BY A LONG WAY, the only place where there is robotic regeneration. A lot of set-up is taken at Bethesda Naval Hospital and many other "ports". It is simply that Camp David is SO OBVIOUS I DON'T SEE HOW ANY OF YOU CAN MISS IT. Even Andy Rooney (last Sunday's 60 Minutes) tried to get in, get pictures or even just talk to somebody about Camp David. He ended up being the one under interrogation and all but got arrested. It still isn't as good as Area 51 and a few other prime vortex centers. Citizens—you are still living, mentally, in the DARKAGES! It is truly sad to witness.

I think you need a lunch-break, Dharma, before we go on. I think we need a rest because I think the audience may not be ready for—nor do you have the stamina to speak on—things like duplication, DNA-reproduced cloning, surface-barrier transistors and the like. This is so much more interesting and entertaining than simple old transistors, is it not, Dr. Young? Salu.

Oklahoma State Representative John Monks is more than just a bit upset with the direction the President and Congress have taken with regard to placing America’s armed forces at the disposal of the United Nations. As a veteran with 30 years of service in active and reserve status with the U.S. Army, he is angered and alarmed by the deployment of U.S. troops throughout the world for the furtherance of U.N. objectives and in service of a “new world order.” As a senior State Legislator he decided he had not only the opportunity but the duty to do something about it.

On March 28th, the Oklahoma House of Representatives adopted Resolution No. 1047 by Representative Monks memorializing Congress to cease funding and engaging in any UN military activities and to cease support of the establishment of any form of global government (see below). The document will be presented to the clerk of the U.S. House of Representatives, the secretary of the U.S. Senate, and each member of the Oklahoma congressional delegation. Monks knows that the resolution has no binding authority, but told The New American he believes actions like this are necessary to let the politicians in Washington know that “there is no popular support for these UN military operations and, in fact, considerable opposition to our growing involvement in them.”

With 24 years in office, John Monks is one of the “deans” of the State Legislature: only one other current member of the 101-member House has served as long. A democrat, he represents an active member of the Disabled American Veterans, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the American Legion.

Monks said he didn’t find any opposition to the measure and very quickly signed on 45 co-sponsors. “It fit pretty much with the current mood here concerning the federal government,” he said, noting that the Legislature had just voted down a mandatory motorcycle helmet law for adults, even though Washington had threatened to cut off $2 million in federal highway funds if it did so. “I think a lot of people and a lot of State Legislators around the country are getting sick of this kind of blackmail and all of these federal mandates,” he said.

In introducing the resolution, Monks told The New American, “I simply explained that the purpose of the United States military is to protect the life, liberty, and property of U.S. citizens and to defend this nation against insurrection or foreign invasion, not promote an agenda for some ‘new world order’.” No one disagreed; it passed on a voice vote without any dissent.

—William F. Jaapisk

Resolution of the House of Representatives of the State of Oklahoma

WHEREAS, President Clinton has affirmed that his foreign policy regarding the deployment of the United States military forces under the authority of the United Nations will bear little change from that of his predecessor; and

WHEREAS, the constitutional role of the United States military is to protect the life, liberty and property of United States citizens and to defend our nation against insurrection or foreign invasion; and

WHEREAS, the United States is an independent sovereign nation and not a tributary of the United Nations; and

WHEREAS, there is no popular support for the establishment of a “new world order” or world sovereignty of any kind either under the United Nations or under any world body in any form of global government; and

WHEREAS, global government would mean the destruction of our Constitution and corruption of the spirit of the Declaration of Independence, our freedom, and our way of life.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the 2nd session of the 44th Oklahoma Legislature:

That the United States Congress is hereby memorialized to:
1. Cease the appropriation of United States funds for any military activity not authorized by Congress;
2. Cease engagement in any military activity under the authority of the United Nations or any world body;
3. Cease the rendering of aid to any activity or engagement under the jurisdiction of the United Nations or any world body; and
4. Cease any support for the establishment of a “new world order” or to any form of global government.

That the United States Congress is hereby memorialized to refrain from taking any further steps toward the economic or political merger of the United States into a world body or any form of world government.

The Defendants are those whose duty it is to manage and direct the tax laws of the United States of America and whose actions are controlled by statute and the laws of the United States.

IV.

This action was brought by the plaintiffs as a class action, on their own behalf and on behalf of all others similarly situated, under the provisions of Rules 23(a) and 23(b)(1),(2), and (3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, for declaratory relief pursuant to 5 USC 702 under which no monetary relief is sought however the case in controversy could impact on millions of dollars, and relief incident and subordinate thereto, including costs and attorneys' fees. This action seeks declaratory relief in the form of a declaration by this court as to the proper administration of specific statutes so as to cause the defendants, who lack of communication with the plaintiff, have in many cases refused to obey and have ignored the strict guidelines of the statutes and the Constitution.

VI.

The class so represented by plaintiffs in this action, and of which plaintiffs are themselves members, consists of any and all Americans who have experienced abuse by the Internal Revenue Service and/or its agents. More particularly from actions which have been inconsistent with the strict letter of the law and its fair and just operation as indicated by the intent of Congress and the record of their proceedings. This is not a case against the fair collection of taxes and the honoring of the laws as established. This is not a suit to prohibit the collection of taxes as prohibited under 26 USC 7421 (Anti-Injunction Act). This is not an action regarding taxes thus precluding 28 USC Section 2201 which does not apply. It is a non-monetary action (5 USC 702) to seek declaratory relief from the District Court with regards to the procedure, conduct and behavior of the IRS, its Commissioner, Directors and delegated agents.

VII.

There are common questions of law and fact in the action that relate to and affect the rights of each member of the class and the relief sought which are common to the entire class, namely, that to deprive, seize, levy, distrain, take away, without notice or adequate notice and a right to be heard, by administrative appeal, such property, assets and freedom from individuals without consideration to Due Process and Equal Protection found in the Constitution of the United States and those safeguards built into the statutes and Constitution of the United States, is contrary to the authority extended under those statutes.

VIII.

The claims of plaintiffs, whose representatives of the class herein are typical of the claims of the class, in that the claims of all members of the class, including plaintiffs, depend on a showing of the acts and omissions of defendants giving rise to the right of plaintiffs to the relief sought herein. There is no conflict as between any individual named plaintiff and other members of the class with respect to this action, or with respect to claims for relief herein set forth.

IX.

The named plaintiffs are the representative parties for the class, and are able to, and will, fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. The attorneys for the plaintiffs are experienced and capable in litigation in the field of Constitutional law, taxation and civil rights and have successfully represented claimants in other litigations of this nature. Of the attorneys designated as counsel for plaintiffs Paul J. Young will actively conduct and be responsible for plaintiffs' case herein.

This action is properly maintained as a class action inasmuch as the defendants herein, all of whom oppose the class, have acted or refused to act, as hereinafter more specifically alleged, on grounds which are applicable to the class, and have by reason of such conduct, made appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the entire class, as sought in this action.

FIRST COUNT

In 1993 the Government Accounting Office (hereinafter GAO) concluded its own audit of the Internal Revenue Service (hereinafter IRS). The results of that audit were published to Congress and made a part of the record thereof. Pursuant to that record it was discovered that the audit was not complete. The reason given was that the systems of the IRS were not fully operational and for that reason only approximately one-third of the actual records could be reviewed. Even though it was only a portion of the records the audit revealed a great deal about how much the IRS was having problems with its own accounting practices and principals. The plaintiffs wish to present to this court substantial evidence that will show that the behavior discovered by the GAO is not inconsistent with the behavior of the IRS personnel in the field as they administer the guidelines. Plaintiffs allege that the GAO audit was necessary and that the people of the United States as a right should have the audit repeated and the results published and available for scrutiny by the general public at large.

SECOND COUNT

The IRS is charged and authorized to administer the tax laws of this country. However, Congress has given guidelines and safeguards which have been upheld by the judiciary to insure that Constitutional rights, such as the right to pri-
FIFTH COUNT

That the powers entrusted with the IRS which are contained under Title 26 of the Code and the 16th Amendment of the Constitution have not been the only powers used by the IRS in accomplishing its collection objectives. Plaintiffs allege that the IRS in its collection activities has illegally used sections of the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco and Firearms portion of the United States Code under Title 27, amongst others, as though they were with the same authority as granted under Title 26 and subject to some discretionary power yet to be attained through any proper delegation from Congress. Plaintiffs will present evidence and testimony pursuant to the allegations under this count the substance of which is to demonstrate an inappropriate use of the statutes and law contrary to the original intent of Congress and which in fact will demonstrate a use which is beyond the original intent of Congress. Plaintiffs will ask the court to issue a declaratory judgment that will confine of each title to the extent that it is shown and that it appears that Congress intended and restrict any such application which goes beyond the reasonable interpretation of those statutes and laws. Plaintiffs will show by evidence and testimony where such deviations exist.

SIXTH COUNT

The IRS has also seized 100% of the wages and property of certain Americans in a practice which affects all plaintiffs whereas under 26 USC 6334 (a)(9) and (d)(1)-(3) there is provided a standard deduction which allows a minimum of funds to be available to support and feed the family during periods in which the IRS is seeking to collect unpaid taxes and/or penalties. The plaintiffs would ask this court to issue a declaratory judgment in that the law is clear, and that the taxpayer has a right to at the very least an existence.

SEVENTH COUNT

Plaintiffs ask for declaratory judgment that the IRS not be permitted to compel citizens to perform services and give up resources without just compensation. The completion of tax forms and keeping of payroll records and accounts on behalf of employees after a business has been closed by the IRS is tantamount to peonage or inequitable servitude.

EIGHTH COUNT

There have been numerous reports of the IRS not responding to reasonable inquiries by the plaintiffs. Questions regarding the law and which statutes are specifically involved, when and if an administrative hearing is appropriate, how an assessment has been derived, where does the information for the assessment come from, whether or not the figures are based on the Department of Labor Statistics and not really on the actual income of the "taxpayers", all of which have not been answered or have been responded to with simple form letters containing no substance. Plaintiffs seek declaratory judgment based on the statutes and the law as to the responsibility of the IRS to be open and honest with taxpayers and to be responsible for giving true, correct, and straight forward information.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray, for themselves and all other members of the class:

1. That the rights of class members to having the procedures of the law declared by this court to be correct and the proper function of those rules specified based on a review of the statutes and United States Constitution and as such the rights be adjudicated and declared;

2. That the defendants be restrained and enjoined from any collection activities which are contrary to the guidelines set forth in the statutes;

3. That plaintiffs be awarded reasonable attorneys fees.

4. That declaratory judgments be issued where appropriate to identify the proper behavior and conduct of the IRS and its delegated authorities with regards to the interests and rights of Americans.

5. That plaintiffs have such other relief as to the court may seem appropriate, including costs and expenses.

Noahide Laws Revisited: Zionist Talmud Scare

6/12/94 #1 HATONN

Our job here is to offer you myriads of pieces of insight as quickly as possible and then offer you confirmation of those truths as they become available—either before or after the fact of a given incident. That which in the past "seemed" to be outrageous science-fiction is now becoming evolved FACT but YOU had to grow enough to see and hear. Every day, now, the confirmations flow in to the point we have hardly time to offer them to you and the paper would swell to ten times its already overwhelming size. We shall attend that also, as we can, but meanwhile—we do that which we CAN.

Along these lines in this writing I will share some things which arrive to my attention this very morning. Many, just like YOU, find some things in YOUR expression when we offer them to you that it is often months, years even, before confirmation can be found and then "shock" sets in. Even in this one day's receivings of mail there is too much to even consider all for sharing, but I believe the one regarding the Noahide Laws as having become U.S. LAW is worthy of first note. This has received more denial than almost all other subjects other than "Jesus" references—of which we have another lengthy dispute about our lack of biblical knowledge. I respect and honor this person who has researched and written many pages "proving" the Jesus story and us to be New Age. The only source, of course, for his most eloquent dissertation is from the book called Bible as he is a minister of the Christian Faith. Please, I do not denounce your choices—I only ask that if you can be open enough to hear other truth—that you pay attention to possibilities of usurpation of your texts for other than God's purposes. I AM NOT NEW AGE! This one statement of that writer proves he has not availed himself of my dictations for I have said many, many times that this which you call "New Age" will be the death of your planet as it is the base (quite physically and humanistically oriented, even though you hug trees, etc.) upon which the ONE WORLD RELIGION WILL BE BASED—AND THAT WILL BE, IN TURN, TOTALLY ORIENTED TO WHAT YOU MIGHT NOW CALL "ANTI-CHRIST". Unfortunately, unless integrated in the infinite realization of the infinite soul being—there CAN BE NO BALANCE IN YOUR EXPRESSION. It is God expression in thought energy which allows for CREATION and it is SOUL ENERGY WITH GOD WHICH ALLS FOR INFINITE LIFE.

A discussion of that correspondence in bit-by-bit consideration would be the most important offering of the day and, yet, because of pressures, we will need to first consider these other inputs while hopefully the spiritual correspondence will not be lost to the entropy heap.

I may well offer spiritual teachings—but I am not intended as your SPIRITUAL TEACHER as total focus any more than "Jesus" was your total political teacher. It is the "Christ" knowingness and consciousness which is in focus here—not a man—and THIS is the part which is hard to accept or understand—even though your BIBLES will tell you as much.

I am always interested in those who disclaim the possibility of your experiencing more than "once"—when the man Jesus, himself your guide for so many, said he would be back and you expect him to do so. He also said, "All of these things will be fulfilled in their time", and he also said, "When these things occur, your decision will be sealed". Must you be so selective as to exclude one while touting the other? Just as with the Master Teachers, however, if you fail to attend ALL of the offerings in teachings—how can you base knowledge on the fragmented out-of-context bits and portions you CHOOSE to look at? It is fine if you do otherwise, but it is not my business. And, have I not the RIGHT to "interpret" a passage the same as you?—in any book including the Bible? Why am I discounted when another is "accounted" as valid? Because I claim, somehow, to come from "out there" somewhere? Well, where is this Master Jesus you await? You do not recognize his presence WITHIN at all times as you are perched on an assumed location Earthbound—OR YOU WOULD NOT BE EXPECTING HIM "BACK" FROM "SOMEWHERE" "OUT THERE"! Furthermore, if you READ ALL THE INSTRUCTIONS, it will CLEARLY present to you from these teachings you continue to quote to me as if I know them not—that HIS messengers, his angels, etc., would return to make ready a "landing place" (to paraphrase). I also have the right to paraphrase as ALL YOU PREACHERS DO! Further, God accounts for HIS angels and messengers—how is it that YOU CAN NOT? How did YOU think it would be? Where did YOU perceive it would happen? WHEN did YOU think these things would be fulfilled as to prophecy? HOW DO YOU KNOW SO SURELY THAT I AM NOT VALID?—FOR I AM! If, further, YOU read and study all that I have offered with my brethren—there IS THERE and you will find nothing I do I am giving in my presentation. I may well offer spiritual teachings—but I will find nothing lacking in my presentation. God’s enemies recognize me for the valid being I AM—but those who CLAIM to be the followers of "Christ" cannot? Why might this be? I think it might be wise to ponder upon this circumstance.

NOAHIDE LAWS

FROM: "Sincerely, kindly don’t mention my name as I have enough trouble already." Dear "Sincerely", we understand your "trouble already" and thank you for sharing with us. We, in same reference, have so MANY troubles already that one more is not going to matter much.

The correspondence [QUOTING]:

May 29, 1994
Dear Sirs:

I have some information to share with you that throws considerable light on the "seven Noahide Laws" whose enactment as the "law of the land" you mentioned earlier in CONTACT. When Congress voted that resolution embracing those laws as the "highest moral standard", etc., you reported this as an attempt to make Judaism the State religion. That didn't quite ring true to me as I saw no follow-thru on this. There was no attempt to teach these laws in school or impose them on Christian Churches. The Laws seemed to be a "dead letter" and no more, a resolution to please a special group—but meaning nothing.

But this is not the case. I found the answer to this mystery in the Nation's Islam's book: The Secret Relationship Between Blacks and Jews on page 202. This page starts the chapter on "Slavery in the Jewish Law" and summarized the TALMUDIC laws regarding slavery.

A Jew is permitted to enslave a non-Jew. Indeed, in another part of the TALMUD it specifies that the reason God created non-Jewish humans was so that the Holy Race (Jews) would "not be served by animals only".

[H: Interesting since the very term "Jew" was not conjugated until the 18th century and along with it came "Zionist" to be used widely in the 19th and especially—in the 20th century. The possibly more interesting point, however, is that the TALMUD is not and never was a supposedly GOD-GIVEN document—it is written by and touted as the laws of the Elders of the Jewish faith. So you have a man-made book of rules and laws for a man-self-proclaimed grouping of people who assume whatever they wish as to race, creed and color and proclaim themselves to be non-Christian in every manner possible—THE ANTI-CHRIST! Why am I or any man considered a heretic, hate-monger or otherwise to restate WHAT THEY HAVE ALREADY STATED? They claim us to be hateful "anti-Semite" at every political turn. Anti-Semite?? I AM A SEMITE AND MOST OF YOU ARE LIKELY WHOSE GROUP OF TALMUDIC ZIONIST JEWS—ARE NOT OF THE SEMITES—NEVER WERE! THEY SIMPLY TURN LIES AND PRESENT THEM AS TRUTH AND WHAM, BANG, TACK YOU GOOD PEOPLE—IT BECOMES ENFORCED BY LAW, ACCEPTED—WHETHER YOU LIKE IT OR NOT.]

However, a Jew is required to convert a slave to the Jewish religion. If the slave refuses to convert, the Jew is required to sell him after a year. This contains the sentence: "In order to keep an uncircumcised slave, the slave must agree to obey the seven commandments of the descendants of Noah." This is what we agreed to do when "our" representatives in Congress voted to make the seven Noahide Laws the Law of the Land! This resolution, far from being a dead letter, is the religious, legal and moral basis for the Jews to keep the American people as their slaves!

Another interesting bit of religious symbolism is the six pointed star and the Israeli flag. [H: Please think back, HARD, readers, and see how many of you have heard me tell... you this several times.] The latter [flag] looks like a towel. It has two blue stripes with the six pointed star of Zionism in the middle. What this refers to is the promise from Genesis that the seed of Israel shall be given all the land "from the river of Egypt unto the Euphrates". The two blue stripes on the flag represent the Nile and Euphrates Rivers. The Zionist star between the rivers is self explanatory. The Israeli flag is a claim to most of the Middle East: Syria, Lebanon, much of Iraq, Jordan and the whole Arabian Peninsula.

The six pointed star is NOT the "Star of David". Its first appearance is on the coins of Herod the Great who built the great Temple and it is a symbol of his Empire WHICH WAS THE GREATEST JEWISH EMPIRE SINCE DAVID. IN THE 9TH CENTURY IT WAS PAINTED ON THE SHIELD OF DAVID EL ROY (DAVID THE KING), A KHAZAR JEW WHO LED A FAILED ZIONIST CRUSADE TO RECAPTURE THE HOLY CITY OF JERUSALEM. THE SIX POINTED STAR IS THE SYMBOL OF ZEALOTRY: THE ZIONIST HERESY.

Since the above was written, Khalid Mohammed was shot, in California, with the female Jewry, rather it represents one faction of Jewry: the Zionist heresy.

I have already written about "changes", how it IS, and on more subjects than we can name. I shall not focus on revelations or fortune-telling—now or ever. I have also given you the possibilities of finding very good information and speculation persons to attend. Why do I say "speculation"? Because information is given to receivers which is valid, timely (even seeming to be prophetic and often IS) and worthy of extensive attention. Why would ONE person at this keyboard be the ONLY set of fingers to offer such insight? Dharma doesn't even claim to be anything, not psychic, not anything save a typist. Well, she is more, but she remembers not and it is fine for she does her job and others are supposed to do theirs.

FOR INSTANCE:

GORDON-MICHAEL SCALLION

I have told you before to pay attention to his offerings—he is valid to the extent he can be. [Editor's note: For more information on Gordon-Michael Scallion's visions, see his monthly Earth Changes Report; call: 603-399-4916 or write: Matrix Institute, P.O. Box 87, Westmoreland, NH 03467. And tell them CONTACT sent you!] He does not input man-controlled properties into his projections to any great extent so he does what a good receiver should do—he projects what he sees and is told and allows the time to fulfill the expectations. No one is going to know the moment of such massive upheavals as he can see coming. I do not focus on the one with him for that is not MY task—to evolve or chart courses for all psychically-gifted humans—or for that matter, aliens or robots.

If you have not been made privy to Scallion's map after projected upheavals (of the U.S.), I suggest you avail yourselves of a copy and study it carefully. Then I suggest you go back and read SIPAPU ODYSSEY [see Back Page for ordering information]. Doris thought herself to simply be writing a dialogue for a movie script—but I think you will find it most interesting relative to other things that will give you insight as presented to me as to urgent warnings but I remind you—the time for preparation against all things expected is NOW since you can't do it yesterday, if indeed you did not. Yes, readers, the major thrust beyond writing here in this location is for later circumstances as expected—to establish good business of a major VARIETY of talents and product—for both survival beyond major changes of the Earth itself and against a need to sustain during and after upheavals of political change.

There WILL BE change—even if only toward more negative circumstance. But "HERE" the job is not to chart human maps and predict individual places of either physical safety or maturity. We do this as we can—We do—but guidance must be an individual feeling of truth and thrust—not based on what JR. is doing or Mary Jones is doing down the street—unless, of course, they have kept informed and you haven't bothered! GET PREPARED FOR WHATEVER IS PROJECTED AND EXPECTED IN YOUR LOCATION. IN COASTAL CALIFORNIA IT IS OBVIOUSLY FOR MAJOR EARTH SHAKINGS AND YOU HAVE HAD WARNING AFTER WARNING AND THAT IS THE BEST ANY BEING CAN DO FOR YOU.

Let's move on now to information which even I find most interesting. I have NO information as to who sent this so the best I can do is document resource exactly as it appears—and HOPE it will keep us out of the court!

I shall really "try" to keep out of this because it comes from Edgar Cayce and he did quite well before I came along to play in the word-games.

When there is the first breaking up of some conditions in the South Sea (that's South Pacific, to be sure), and those as apparent in the sinking or rising of that which is almost opposite to it, or in the Mediterranean, and the [Mount] Etna area. Then we may know it has begun.

Q-14. Will there be any physical changes in the Earth's surface in North America? If so, what sections will be affected, and how? A-14. All over the country we will find many physical changes of a minor or greater degree. The greater change, as we will find, in America, will be the North Atlantic Seaboard. Watch New York!

Q-16. What, if any, changes will take place around Norfolk area, Virginia? A-16. No material, that would be effective to the area, other than would eventually become more beneficial—in a port, or the like.

Q-15. What form will they take? A-15. To be sure, that may depend upon much that deals with metaphysical as well as what people call actual or in truth! For, as understood—or should be [understood] by the entity—there are those conditions that are the result of the activity of individuals, in line of thought and endeavor, keep oft many a city and many a land intact through their application of the spiritual laws in their associations with individuals. This will take more of the form here in the change, as we find, through the sinking of portions, with the following up of the inundations by this overflow.

Q-16. When will the physical changes start in Norfolk and vicinity? A-16. This would be nearer to '38 than to '36, as we find.

Stripes will arise through the period. Watch for them near Davis Strait (between Greenland and Canada) in the attempts there for the keeping of the life line to a land open.

Watch for them in Libya and in Egypt, in Ankara and in Syria, through the straits about those areas above Australia, in the Indian Ocean and the Persian Gulf.

Ye say that these are of the sea; yes—for there shall the breaking up be, until there are those in every land that shall say that this or that shows the hand of Divine Interference, or that it is Nature taking a hand, or that it is the natural consequence of good judgments.

But in all of these, let each declare Whom ye will serve; a nation, a man, a state, OR THY GOD? For to Him ye must look for comfort that ye know that comes. All that is of a temporal nature—this, too, must pass away; yet there remains the comfort for those who declare themselves, "Let others do as they may, for as for me, I will serve the living God."

In the period, too, there will be the breaking of agreements, the declaring of stands by groups will be of Light, and bring—to some—consternation.

But FEAR NOT ye that influence that may destroy the body. Rather give praise and glory to Him who may SAVE BOTH BODY AND SOUL to everlasting joy.

As to those things that deal with the mental of the Earth, these shall call upon the mountains to cover them. As ye have seen those in lowly places raised to those of power in the political, in the machinery of nations' activities, so shall you see those in high places reduced and calling on the waters of darkness to cover them.

And as there is the wakening of those that would enter as emissaries, as teachers from the throne of Life, the throne of Light, the throne of Immortality, and wage war in the air with those of darkness, then know ye that the ARMAGEDDON is at hand.

For with the great numbers of the gathering of the hosts of those that have hindered and would make for man and his weaknesses stumbling-blocks, they shall wage war with each other, that come unto the Earth for this awakening, that has been and are being called by those of the sons of men into the service of the living God. For He, as ye have been told, is not the God of the dead, but the God of those that have forsaken Him, but those that love His coming, and that love His associations among men—The God of the living, the God of LIFE! For, HE IS LIFE.

Ye say that there are those in every land that shall say that the Lord, thy Christ—may depend?

For the entity came with those groups who were to establish the Hall or House of Records, and the entity directly or indirectly may be among those who will yet bring these to light when the present disturbances (World War II) through those particular areas have again given privilege for the searching for the sacred records of the Atlanteans. help. The name then was Acmelwen.

On June 30, 1936, a reading was given in which an interpretation of Mr. Cayce's dream-experience was requested. The answer follows:

These experiences, as has often been indicated, come to the body in those manners in which there may be help, strength, for periods when doubt or fear may have arisen. As in this experience, there were about the entity those influences which appeared to make for such a removal of confusion as to appear to the material or mental-minded as a doubting or fearing of those sources which caused the periods through which the entity was passing in that particular period.

And the vision was that there might be strength, that there might be an understanding, that though the moment may appear dark, though the moment may be periods of the misunderstanding of purposes, even these will be turned into that which will be the very proof itself in the experiences of the entity and those whom the entity might, whom the entity would, in its experience through the Earth plane, help, and those to whom the entity might give hope and understanding.

This then is the interpretation. As has been given, "Fear not." Keep the faith; for those that be with thee are greater than those that would hinder. [H: Dharma, do you think you could please hold to this thought also? How about the rest of you who are set upon entering again at that period—or in 1998.

This priest Ra, now Edgar Cayce, may develop himself to be in that position or capacity of a liberator of the world, in its relationships to individuals in those periods to come. For he must enter again at that period—or in 1998.

He had been born again in 2100 A.D. in Nebraska. The sea apparently covered all of the western part of the country, as the city where he lived was on the coast. The family name was a strange one. At an early age as a child he declared himself to be Edgar Cayce who had lived two hundred years before.

Scientists, men with long beards, little hair, and thick glasses were called in to observe the child. They decided to visit the places where he said he had been born, lived, and worked—in Kentucky, Alabama, New York, Michigan, and Virginia. Taking the child with them the group of scientists visited these places in a long, cigar-shaped, metal flying ship which moved at high speed.

Water covered part of Alabama. Norfolk, Virginia, had become an immense seaport. New York had been destroyed either by war or an earthquake and was being rebuilt. Industries were scattered over the countryside. Most of the houses were of glass.

Many records of Edgar Cayce's work were discovered and collected. The group returned to Nebraska, taking the records with them for study.

REMINDER TO ENTHUSIASTIC CONTACT SUBSCRIBERS

Apparently it is once again time to remind our more enthusiastic spreaders of THE TRUTH to be thoughtful about how and where they spread the CONTACT.

Just as we were going to press, we were contacted by a Police Department in Idaho, where CONTACT was being placed on car windshields—obviously without asking the permission of the car owners—and the presence of CONTACT was (not surprisingly) more than some recipients could handle.

Remember to never place CONTACT in private mail boxes (it's illegal). Select locations in your local community AND in your travels where you can LEGITIMATELY place CONTACT—that usually means asking permission, especially on non-public property. Suggested locations could be: supermarkets and convenience stores, laundromats, colleges and other educational environments, coffee shops, local community centers, parks, churches, Unemployment Offices, Food Stamp Offices—wherever you think interested readers may be.

But remember: there is no need to aggressively impose CONTACT upon another. Such over-enthusiasm only hurts us and, ultimately, the spreading of THE TRUTH.
There is a lot of discussion in the world of corporations about which type of corporation is the best. There are two primary types of for-profit corporations with respect to taxation, the C-Corporation and the "subchapter S" Corporation. Both of these types of corporations have their advantages in different circumstances and should be viewed from your specific needs.

After the Tax Reform Act of 1986 went into effect, many corporations changed from C-Corporations to S-Corporations. An S-Corporation allows the profits and losses of the corporation to flow directly through to the owners/shareholders of the corporation without being taxed at the corporate level first. This eliminates the potential for double taxation. Double taxation occurs when the corporation has profits that are taxed and then those profits are later paid out to shareholders in the form of dividends on which they are then taxed again. This problem can be easily dealt with by eliminating corporations and pass through good money management.

S-Corporations are also generally limited to calendar year ends (i.e., no "Fiscal" year). However, this can be changed if you can prove to the IRS that you have a good business reason to make your year end during a different month. All C-Corporations can elect to make their year-end date any month that they choose.

S-Corporations are used to lower the payroll taxes of a corporation. This is done by having the owners of the corporation pay themselves a low salary and a high dividend. This lowers payroll taxes because there are no payroll taxes on dividends. This can be used to a limited extent but if the proportions of these two are way out of line, the IRS will come in and reapportion them and you will be stuck with their outcome.

The real deciding factor of which type of corporation to use is when it comes to your personal privacy. Every corporation that elects "subchapter S" will be letting the IRS and the State that they operate in know who the owners of the corporation are. Because all profits and losses flow through to the owners, there is no privacy in this structure. If you are incorporated in Nevada and set up a C-Corporation, ownership is completely hidden. Remember that Nevada is the only state that does not require that the owners be listed on any state records. For this reason alone we avoid S-Corporations altogether.

Time and again we are asked whether a trust or a corporation is the best form of ownership. From one end of the country to the other, I have heard why one is better than the other. We are professionals in the world of corporations and not in the world of trusts, so with that in mind, we will share with you some of the understandings that we have gained in our exposure to both.

When deciding whether to work with a trust or a corporation, one needs to consider carefully all of the given specifics of the situation that they are considering using this "Fiscal" year. The concerns of specific cost are public exposure, privacy, use of the entity, and tax position. There are, however, some situations where a combination of trusts and corporations work well together.

From a lay perspective, corporations are generally much more accepted and understood. Unlike trusts, there are very few明确规定 current law. When a corporation is viewed as a "profit or non-profit" and "C-Corp. or S-Corp." When looking at trusts, it can become quite confusing deciding in which type is best for your situation. There are Living Trusts, Common Law Trusts, A-B Trusts, Grantor & Non-Grantor Trusts, Statutory and Non-Statutory Trusts, Irrevocable and Revocable Trusts, Business Trusts—also called Unincorporated Business Organizations (UBOs), and the list goes on. From this perspective alone, you can see how there is much more to be aware of when working with a trust. It is very important to work with an experienced individual when creating a trust.

One of the most serious concerns that we have had either form of ownership, is how each is viewed by the courts. Clearly, corporations are better understood by the courts than trusts, but this alone does not necessarily mean they are better. One of the most alarming articles that I've read regarding the asset protection strength of today's more popular trusts, was written in the Law Prof. Journal in June 1993. This newsletter entitled "Some Trusts Can't Be Trusted" went into the recent boom of trust promoters.

The trusts that are being most commonly sold by these promoters are called: Common Law, Massachusetts Business Trusts, UBOs, Pure, Equity and Family Preservation Trusts. The article states that "Promoters of such trusts might be led to believe that courts have consistently ruled that such trusts were shams lacking in economic substance and invalid for tax purposes." This last statement, about trusts being invalid for tax purposes, caught my attention because so many patriots today use these trusts to protect their assets when taking a stand against taxation. Because these trusts are used commonly by tax protesters and the uninitiated, I fear for their future. The article went on to say that "The courts have repeatedly ruled that these trusts provide absolutely no liability protection against the claims of personal creditors or the IRS." The conclusion is with this in mind, let's continue. Once an individual becomes experienced with trusts and corporations, there are benefits to layering assets with multiple trusts and corporations where ownership of an asset is meant to be obscured. It is my opinion that trusts do have their place. Trusts are less expensive to create and maintain.
CONFIRMED: POWs MURDERED

U.S. Knew About Red War Crimes

From a former general who served the Ministry of Defense of what was communist and Soviet-dominated Czechoslovakia during the so-called Cold War, The SPOTLIGHT has learned the grim fate of hundreds of American prisoners of war never accounted for by communist forces from the Korean and Vietnam wars.

EXCLUSIVE TO THE SPOTLIGHT

BY MIKE BLAIR

General Major Jan Sejna, the highest ranking communist official ever to defect to the United States, knew about the torture of American POWs by the communists. Captured American soldiers were used as guinea pigs in horrific experiments—acts that can be described only as war crimes. The U.S. government was informed of these facts and not only did not complain, but has, over the years, helped these war criminals and their governments.

Here, for the first time, are the gruesome details.

Gen. Sejna, in addition to serving as chief of staff in the Czechoslovak Defense Ministry prior to his defection to the United States in 1968, was also a member of the nation's Communist Party Central Committee, served on the National Assembly and the Presidium, was a member of the bureau of the Main Political Administration, served as first secretary of the party at the Ministry of Defense and was secretary of the Defense Council, the highest authority in the communist system of government in dealing with matters of national security, deception, intelligence, counterrintelligence and the economy.

LEONID BREZHNEV

... Gave human testing his seal of approval.

NEARLY IGNORED

Yet, when Gen. Sejna defected to the United States in 1968 the resulting intelligence coup went practically unnoticed—even, unbelievably, within the top secret corridors and offices of the Central Intelligence Agency.

He was never debriefed on deception, i.e., efforts of the communist bloc states to deceive the West.

Instead, his debriefing was only cursory and by January 1969, reportedly under the orders of Henry Kissinger, national security advisor to the

... Emphasized the need to increase funding for human testing.

NOTE: Mike Blair, involved for some 20 years in the search to determine the fate of American POWs and MIAs who never returned to their native land from America's past wars and who has reported over those years articles about them in hundreds of pages of SPOTLIGHT special reports, had hoped to one day be able to report a happy conclusion to the POW/MIA tragedy.

This is obviously not that report. It is a report of the fate of hundreds of those men, brutally murdered by inhuman communist leaders in heinous medical experiments, all of which has long been ignored and concealed by callous U.S. leaders, unwilling to deal with the truth. It is not the fate of all those still missing, but many of them.

Following World War II, defeated German and Japanese leaders, accused of similar atrocities, stood in the dock of so-called "international tribunals" and many ultimately were hanged.

Those responsible for the torturous murder of hundreds of American POWs and MIAs of the Korean and Vietnam wars have escaped such a fate, either due to natural deaths through the passage of time, duplicity of U.S. leaders more willing to ignore their heinous crimes and now, as in the case of the former Soviet Union, Red China and Vietnam, by embracing them as "new friends" of America.

A number of these sub-humans, however, will not escape the light of day. They will be named here.

In this story, made possible through the research of Dr. Joseph D. Douglass Jr., a consultant on defense security matters and former deputy director of the Tactical Technology Office in the Advanced Research Projects Agency of the Department of Defense, the fate of these murdered Americans is revealed by a former top general of the Czechoslovakian Defense Ministry. He also held some of the highest posts in the now deposed communist regime that ruled that nation for more than four decades.

General Major Jan Sejna (pronounced Chain-ah) slipped away to the West February 25, 1968 and is the highest-ranking Eastern Bloc official ever to defect.

Is his story true?

For the past 15 years, and still today, Gen. Sejna has been employed as an advisor/analyst for the U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA).

It is no small irony that the DIA has been the U.S. intelligence agency charged by successive White House administrations to determine the fate of America's POWs and MIAs, those who never came home.

This is the story that DIA officials, with the knowledge of America's leaders, have known but never told. It is related here, through the efforts of "Joe" Douglass, from an eyewitness who has long been one of their own, trusted operatives.

Editor's note: The above article is "hot off the press" and we felt it imperative to share this excellent investigative journalism of Mike Blair with our readers. This article is yet another confirmation for most of you who are well aware of what Commander Hatton has said about our older POWs and how they have been treated by our own country's Government-by-criminals. As always, CONTACT would like to thank THE SPOTLIGHT for their unrestricted sharing. To subscribe to SPOTLIGHT, call toll-free: (800) 522-6292; price is $38 for one year, $70 for two years.
then new president, Richard M. Nixon, Sejna's debriefing was ordered halted.

The CIA moved Sejna to the Catskills region of upstate New York, where he was given "a new life" as the operator of a restaurant, which shortly went bankrupt.

In despair, Sejna wrote to then-CIA Director Richard Helms and outlined his dilemma, and the spy chief called him back to Washington in December 1969, where Sejna felt he would be more valuable, particularly in helping to give the agency some guidance on how to handle high-ranking defectors, his situation being a case in point about how not to do it.

According to SPOTLIGHT sources, he was placed in the hands of Ray Rocca, deputy for research for James J. Angleton, the agency's long-time chief of counterintelligence.

Ultimately, after Angleton's ouster from the CIA, Sejna found himself with the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA).

REMAINED IN OBSCURITY

There, the former Czech general languished in obscurity until three years ago, when efforts to account for American POWs and MIAs reached a high point and Dr. Joseph D. Douglass Jr., a long-time consultant on defense and security matters, recalled having been told years earlier by Sejna of American POWs being used by the communists in top secret medical experiments.

Of tremendous importance to Sejna, Douglass learned the reasons why the U.S. government had for years been dragging its heels on resolving the POW/MIA issue.

The murder of American POWs by the communists in horrible medical experiments, using them as human guinea pigs to test new chemical and biological warfare agents, even to determine the extent to which the human body can deal with increasingly high levels of atomic radiation, made the POW/MIA issue a matter of dealing with war crimes.

But how can war crimes be dealt with when no government will call for a war crimes tribunal?

The Soviet Union, North Korea, Vietnam, Czechoslovakia, East Germany and other communist states involved in the atrocities did not lie prostrate at the feet of victor's forces, as did the Japanese and West Germans at the end of World War II.

In addition, in successive administrations since World War II, the White House, State Department and U.S. intelligence agencies had been under the influence of foreign elements, as was notably highlighted by the exposure of long-time "mole" Aldrich Ames, who from 1968 to 1989 served as chief of counter-intelligence for the CIA's Soviet Division.

Therefore, there was a reluctance to deal effectively with the transgressions of any of the so-called "socialist," i.e., communist, states.

GRISLY EXPERIMENTS

The Soviets, in collusion with the North Vietnamese, North Koreans, Red Chinese, Czechs, East Germans and others, had murdered hundreds of GIs who were, according to Sejna and now revealed by Douglass, "used as subjects in testing the effectiveness of military intelligence drugs, including a wide variety of mind-control and behavior-modification drugs, which...were used during the Korean War to cause American servicemen to speak out on the 'evils' of capitalism and the 'benefits' of communism.

"The Soviets exposed GIs to atomic detonations to determine how much atomic radiation was needed to kill or incapacitate a man. Lethal doses were administered and then the GIs were watched to determine how long soldiers could function and to learn if there were any drugs that could be used to prolong their ability to perform military tasks before permanently succumbing to the radiation. Tests to determine the long-term consequences of sub-lethal dose levels also were run.

"Experiments were conducted in military hospitals in North Korea during the Korean War and in military hospitals in Laos and North Vietnam during the Vietnam War. American POWs were also moved to the Soviet Union for experimental purposes from North Korea following the end of the Korean War and from Laos and North Vietnam during the Vietnam War."

"The Soviets exposed GIs to atomic radioactivity during tests using U.S. POWs for experimentation."

"Victims of Tests"

Like with the Korean War GIs, Vietnam War POWs found themselves the victims of tests to determine the effectiveness of new germ warfare agents and chemicals.

"How many from World War II who died or were killed when no longer needed by their captors? A later Soviet general secretary, Alexei Khrushchev, the chief of the Red Army General Staff, agreed with the words of President Khrushchev during his address to the U.S. Congress in 1960.

"There is no accurate count of the number of Americans who ended up as Soviet guinea pigs," Douglass said, "the number from the Korean War would approach, if not exceed, 1,000 and, from the Vietnam War, at least several hundred, likely over 500.

"How many from World War II (who fell into Soviet hands after being 'liberated' from German and Japanese POW camps) met this fate and who would have been better off than those who perished in communist slave labor camps is anyone's guess. Russia isn't telling and the U.S. government isn't asking."

"Those Responsible"

Who gave the orders for these atrocity experiments?

Soviet President Alexei Kosygin, according to Sejna, was responsible for this experimentation. Soviet General Secretary Nikita Khrushchev attended a meeting of the Consultative Commission in late 1963 or 1964, at which he said an agreement had been reached with North Vietnam regarding the use of the POWs for the experiments.

A later Soviet general secretary, Leonid Brezhnev, gave the human testing his seal of approval.

General Major Kalashnik, the Soviet Main Political Administration in 1956 lectured the Czech military about the importance of intelligence, and Soviet General Aleksandr Kuschev urged the North Vietnamese to cooperate with the Soviet experiments.

Soviet Marshal Matvev V. Zakharov, the chief of the Red Army General Staff, was personally responsible for the experiments on the Soviet end during the Vietnam War. Soviet General A.I. Kononov, deputy chief of the Red Army General Staff, while overseeing the transport of U.S. POWs from Vietnam to the Soviet Union, declined to allow the North Koreans to conduct experiments during a stopover there.

Other Soviet officials who worked on the project included General Aleksy Yefishev of the Main Political Administration and who headed the KGB interests in the experiments under KGB Gen. Mironov. Serge Petuchov represented the Red Army intelligence (CIU) in working out details.

GERMAN CONNECTION

Gen. Heinz Hoffmann, the East German defense minister, told Sejna while the two were on a fishing trip in 1964 that drugs tested on American Vietnam War POWs were "one thousand percent more effective than atomic weapons as physical means of persuasion.""

During the Vietnam War, the Czechs worked on experiments in Laos with Lao: Sin Ka-po, who headed the communist Pathet Lao, and General Kong-Le, who headed "neutralist" forces in Laos.

In the USSR, the GIs were injected with blood samples from those who died or were killed when no longer needed by their captors. In North Korea, a hospital was built to test new chemical and biological warfare agents, even to determine the extent to which the human body can deal with increasingly high levels of atomic radiation, made the POW/MIA issue a matter of dealing with war crimes.

But how can war crimes be dealt with when no government will call for a war crimes tribunal?

The hospital was actually run by Col. Professor Dr. Dufek, who, along with Col. Babba, discussed the operations there with Sejna. A Dr. Plazk, who was in charge of neurological research at the Czech Central Military Hospital in Prague, was an assistant of Dufek, who was a former Soviet citizen who had emigrated to Czechoslovakia and was a heart specialist at the Central Military Hospital.

Some 18 Czech doctors and 20 Soviet doctors were involved in the experiments at the North Korean hospital. The center of these from the Central Military Hospital, the College for Military Doctors and the Czech Air Force Scientific Research Institute at Hradack Kralove.

During the Vietnam War, 15 doctors and eight scientists connected
Correspondent’s Reflections

5/29/94 RICK MARTIN

Within the haze of the upside down world of that which, for most, differs from everything which has come before; in a world where black is white, up is down, and inside is outside; in a world of clandestine encounters, half-truths and innuendo, it occasionally becomes difficult to rationally evaluate that which is unfolding. In the arena of world-class assassins, what is normal? What is reasonable?

Within this illusion of God’s play unfolding before our very eyes, written on the sands of time, is it wise to question? Or rather, to blindly accept the play as written rather than taking pen in hand as co-author to a script which is malleable rather than fixed?

What is one day or two or ten within the fabric of time which is itself an illusion experienced only here, now, with us as experiencers? What once was out of the question becomes the commonplace, and the commonplace is then re-examined for deeper meaning.

Let me give an example of what I’m talking about so that you, too, may come to understand the outlandish nature of that which now seems normal. On assignment in the Carson City, Nevada area (covering the ongoing Ronn Jackson saga), I had occasion to take an hour or two respite. And during this break a conversation arose with a woman in her 40s who appeared as “open” and “normal” as anyone could appear. When she queried as to what I do, naturally I replied that I write for a newspaper called CONTACT and am on assignment. When she delved further it was a lesson, for me, in how far on the fringe I have moved, how crazy the words must sound to the relatively uninformed.

Prefacing any commentary with, “You won’t believe me,” I explained about the Committee of 16’s assassin named Jackson, and her eyes grew wide as Robert Ludlum writes about. Going further, I explain in brief about the Committee of 16, MJ-12, Montauk and time travel, ETs, etc. “You probably fit right in there in Southern California,” came the reply with a slight grin.

As I reflect on my time with Jackson in prison and the mouth-to-ear recounts, what seems to me plausible and probable, sounds absolutely nuts to most. Why is it reasonable for me to assume, for example, that Alternative 3 wasn’t just someone’s theory; it was actually executed? Why does the idea seem plausible that several of our nation’s Founding Fathers are still living—and are functioning on a very real, very active committee of global import?

Beneath the veil of forgetfulness it is not enough to simply say, “Just know”—the mind seeks answers, directions that the path taken not be one of error or hardship but rather one to fulfillment, completion, and to radiance.

To “trust in God” is no passive position wherein it will “all be taken care of”, but rather it is the inner knowing that, within God, all things are possible; within His light, all things are possible.

The cycle continues to unfold in its never ending beauty and mystery. When the answers become, it is even better.

SPELT

Spelt is the most ancient and very best grain. Spelta is a grain of its own unique being. It is the best fiber resource, and has large amounts of B-17 (anti-carcinoma). It is the grain GOD gave to the planet as “manna” when humans were placed upon it.

Spelt was brought from the Middle East more than 9,000 years ago; it is a well-tested product. It has spread over the European Continent. Very recently, Spelt has enjoyed renewed popularity in Europe as a result of translations of mystical writings. At a major time in Kurrayhel, Germany, Spelt of Bingen, who praised Spelt as the grain best tolerated by the body. The Old Testament mentions Spelt in Exodus 9:31, 32 and Ezekiel 4:9.

Today it is used in the West in much the same way as wheat; one main distinction is that the people with allergies to wheat frequently do not react to Spelt. Although Spelt contains gluten, those with gluten sensitivity, even celiacs, can usually tolerate it. In addition, Spelt is appreciated as much for its hearty nut-like flavor as for its healing qualities.

The grain berry grows an exceptionally thick husk that protects it from pollutants and insects. It is stored with its husk intact, so it remains fresher. Thus, unlike other grains, it is not normally treated with pesticides or other chemicals. The strong, protective husk may also be a metaphorical signature of this grain’s capacity to strengthen immunity. Spelt contains special carbohydrates (Mucopolysaccharides) which are an important factor in blood clotting and stimulating the body’s immune system.

Spelt is richly endowed with nutrients. In general, it is higher in protein, fat and fiber than most varieties of wheat. An important feature is its highly water-soluble fiber, which dissolves easily and allows for efficient nutrient assimilation by the body. Spelt also contains essential amino acids, which combine with the protein in Spelt constitute a source for human plasma.

To use Spelt in baked goods, cereals and other dishes calling for wheat or other grains, substitute it for one. You will likely always have to add gluten (from wheat) to give satisfactory yeast products.

Spelt has been used as an adjunct in the treatment of many disorders, especially chronic digestive problems of all kinds, chronic infections (herpes, AIDS), nerve and bone disorders (Parkinson’s disease, Alzheimer’s disease, arthritis), cancer and antibiotic side effects.

GAIAANDRIANA

Gaiaandriana is a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic “foods” to help cells weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of health.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders. The end result is a feeling of wellbeing by, of course, being well.

The Gaiaandriana (commonly referred to as “chondriana” in the biological literature) are capable of intelligent, organized attack against cellular invaders like viruses. Think of it as a “pac-man” operation of sorts. However, beyond that, the Gaiaandriana are capable of stimulating cellular structural repairs due to damage caused by, for instance, free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called “background” radiation in our modern environment. Healthy DNA and RNA within the nuclei of our cells then lead to properly formed and concentrated enzymes, upon which healthy cellular function depends.

Gaiaandriana liquid is made entirely from wholesome natural ingredients.

AQUAGAIA

Complementary to the Gaiaandriana product, AquaGaia is also a non-alcoholic health tonic which provides basic “foods” to help cells weakened by the stresses of modern life, to return to a state of healthy function.

AquaGaia contains mitochondria. These are the “machinery” that keeps each cell going and healthy is produced in the mitochondria. Unfortunately, the mitochondria are particularly damaged by free radicals and cumulative levels of so-called “background” radiation in our modern environment. These compromised mitochondria, like half-dead batteries, then lead to impaired cellular functioning and health. Thus is the importance of AquaGaia, with its assimilable supply of healthy mitochondria—like “fresh batteries” for the body’s cells.

The better our cells function, the greater is the stamina returned to our internal defense systems, and the better we can counter the constant onslaught of biological and viral invaders.

2/11/93 2# HATONH

GAIAANDRIANA & AQUAGAIA

To help in understanding the workings of these organic “pac-men” you must realize that there is a protein covering “cap” on viruses. The protein cap is centered on a charged zinc atom and is the part of the virus that recognizes and binds to DNA—in turn allowing the virus to reproduce.

AquaGaia, in conjunction with the Gaiaandriana, knock out the zinc atom (a simple “charge” change), which renders the protein ineffective. This is a breakdown of “parts” of the Gaiaandriana male-female DNA structure which releases many working variants but frees the Gaiaandrioonettes or “killers” to take out that zinc atom and pass right into the affected cell. Without the “cap”, the virus cannot reproduce and infect more cells—further, the damaged virus feeds the Gaiaandriana unified cells and the circulating mitochondria. Healthy cells are not affected because they lack the zinc-centered protein cap on the virus.

These “Gaia” compounds have an effect on cancer cells because they stop an enzyme on the cancer cells from producing a “messanger” molecule that blocks a second enzyme from attacking the cancer cell’s DNA. The compounds (Gaia) have been seen to actually take out leukemia, breast, brain and colon cancer cells. We have no claim to anything other than stating that people utilizing these simple and natural substances do show improved well-being and do report feeling generally and, often remarkably, improved as to state of health, thought processes and stamina.

The obvious conclusion is that there might well be good reports of better health and faster recovery, following infection by other viruses, than those mentioned above. All viruses known react in generally the same manner.

It is known that many diseases are due to retroviral DNA and these are the most affected viruses by the Gaia-chondriana (living crystal forms). We, again, make no medical claims—we are simply reporting in an effort to explain WHAT takes place within the cellular structures of living organisms.

NOTE

If any product you receive has an unpleasant odor—it is from the finishing culture process. Leave the bottle open to air and it will quickly dissipate. Then, depending on taste and preference—refrigerate after opening and refrigerate again.

IMPORTANT: Do not mix the two, Gaiaandriana and AquaGaia, together for storage as the AquaGaia (mitochondria) are aggressive and begin to “eat” the Gaiaandriana for fuel. Once ingested, they go about their food by that name. The juice being from the tropical “Guava” fruit. Any juice is fine, however, and is most pleasant to intake. Diabetics should utilize whatever juices are available on their food plan to keep within the safe guidelines for calories and other requirements.

The most innocuous and easy intake available is simply a few drops under the tongue, both products taken at the same time or at different times of the day. Once the “initial” program is completed, and the maintenance level of intake is being followed, certainly the drops under the tongue are the least annoying to any daily regimen.

GaiaLyte

GaiaLyte is brought forth from Kargosak Tea. This is the basic component of MO-GU tea as we have used the tea by that name. The GaiaLyte is a full spectrum of vitamins, minerals, Ginkgo, Echinacea, Chlorella, Oxygenators, Aloe Vera—everything necessary to "program" the cells in the tea membrane. The GaiaLyte is a PERFECT medium to enhance the ability of the Aloe Vera to "program" the cells in the tea membrane. The GaiaLyte is a natural enhancer. The vitamins found in chlorella cells include: vitamin C, provitamin A, B-carotene, chlorophyll-A, chlorophyll-B, thiamine (B1), riboflavin (B2), pyridoxine (B6), niacin (B3), pantothenic acid, folic acid, vitamin B-12, biotin, choline, vitamin K, PABA, lipoid acid, inositol and para-aminobenzoic acid. The minerals include: phosphorus, potassium, iodine, magnesium, sulphur, iron, calcium, manganese, copper, zinc and cobalt.

The amino acids include: lysine, histidine, arginine, aspartic acid, threonine, serine, glutamic acid, proline, glycine, alanine, cystine, valine, methionine, isoleucine, leucine, tyrosine, phenylalanine, ornithine, tryptophan.

The suggested daily consumption is 3 grams per day.

ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS
(with American Ginseng)

In recent years few medicinal plants have received more attention than Echinacea (Echinacea Purpurea and Echinacea Angustifolia). Echinacea is a non-specific stimulant to the immune system. Claims for Echinacea include: stimulation of leukocytes, mild antibiotic activity, anti-inflammatory activity, stimulation of the adrenal cortex, stimulation of the properdin-complement system, interferon-like activity, stimulation of general cellular immunity, and anti-viral activity. Internal preparations are said to assist in alleviating cold and flu symptoms, respiratory infections, and arthritis, to name a few. Goldenseal (Hydrastis Canadensis) is another of the most popular herbs in the American health food market. Use is numerous, including but not limited to: antibiotic, hemostatic, diuretic, laxative, and tonic/anti-inflammatory for the mucous membranes, hemorrhoids, nasal congestion, mouth and gum sores and eye afflictions.

Few medicinal plants in the world possess Ginseng's near-legendary status. Dating back thousands of years, its history of use in the Orient records therapeutic properties so wide ranging that it was first dismissed by Western doctors as a "panacea". When fatigued, Ginseng reportedly restores both physical and mental functions to peak efficiency and, with regular use, improves resistance to disease and stress. American Ginseng's genus name is Panax Quinquefolius. Over 40,000 species of mushrooms exist, many of which are used as medicines. Of particular note are such remedies as penicillin and ergot-based extracts used in migraine treatment, to name a few. Extensive research has been done with one mushroom in particular, namely, Reishi. This mushroom is now considered a tried and true immune system fortifier.
