2 Million Man March

Devastating To Elite's Plans

10/17/95 #1 HATONN

FARRAKHAN MARCH

I need to offer confirmation about yesterday, October the 16th, and the Million Man "March". Where was I and why did we not write and why did I require her to watch and record the full event as offered? Because I believe, if you watched at all—you would realize that I WAS IN WASHINGTON D.C.—IT BEING "ME" WHO CALLED FOR THE MARCH IN THE FIRST PLACE! I have no interest in anyone's opinion about my choices or my actions—we needed a show of strength of the "little men" and the White race in America is already so dead that it could not be started through them, and now you can have the other minority groups gain involvement. It had to be the Blacks FIRST—FOR THE RIGHT REASONS—GOODNESS AND RE-SPONSIBILITY.

DID YOU NOT HEAR WHAT FARRAKHAN SAID ABOUT ATON AND AKHNATON? WE ARE IT, BROTHERS, AND IT DOESN'T MATTER WHO THINKS OR WISHES OTHERWISE—AND WE KNOW OUR ENEMIES!!

We did not allow the Space Shuttle to launch for the plan was to have the Shuttle complete the computer direction coordination pathways for the HAARP and GWEN pulse systems. The plan was to turn Washington D.C. into a blood-bath. No, the "march" did its PERFECT job—it proved to THE PEOPLE that there CAN be something done by "the least among God's people".

Do "we" or "you" march to Farrakhan's tune? No, your job is NOT THE SAME as his. But EACH body has to do its own job in order that others can then do theirs. The media is having to openly show their own lies and bigotry today as the ADL REFUSES TO HAVE ANY ENCOUNTER AT ALL WITH FARRAKHAN.

The point of Powell not attending, etc. For goodness sakes, the man is half JEW! He has been in the Elite society of White Man's greed and New World Order since his YOUTH. Powell is run by the Elite CFR and is a total facade put forth to further deceive you-the-people. Stop the nonsense and SEE WHAT IS BEFORE YOU.

10/18/95 #1 HATONN

WHO CAN YOU BELIEVE?

In testing your own credibility—count them yourself. If you need choose between one million or 400,000—COUNT THE NUMBERS YOURSELF. I can guarantee you that if the marchers in Washington on Monday past were unruly and riotous, rather than righteous, you would have been given a number of far more than two million. Ah, but there was a power greater than the sum of all the marchers and there was only brotherhood and desire for growth and change—an accepting of responsibility, on that Mall on Monday. And THAT only represented the Black brothers—WHO DARED. Satan is worried this day, readers, for his days are numbered. Goodness has been drained from your societies and bloodletting has been accepted within your cultures—but "higher human"ity is rearing its head above the crowds as those who have nothing more to lose claim their place in God's WORLD. Has it been thus before now? Of course, and you were there! Go listen to Mr. Farrakhan's speech. I herein ask that a transcript be obtained of that speech in Washington. The man speaks of ATON and messengers, Akhnaton of the ONE LIGHT—OF GOD. But who will listen? ENOUGH, MY FRIENDS—ENOUGH!

SPACE SHUTTLE

Beware the time following the launching of the Shuttle now on the pad, waiting to be launched. It has been grounded because GOD INTERVENED! Yes, oh shock, I really did say that "God intervened". God will always respond to the petitions of Godly people asking voice and expression in the perfection of HIS calling. I often refer to the Negroid races as the "least" of HIS people. Why? Am I a bigot? No, it is because they have been brought forth as servants and slaves unto the masses of adversarial rulers. Ah, but the most relevant thing I can point out to you is that the most slaves in America came forth from such as the White people from Ireland, England and the bonded-races to serve the Elite Politicians and Patricians. The Blacks in the early days of the United States (actually the continents of the Americas) were usually placed within the household as servants and were more precious and more highly "placed" in the order of things than were the "poor White" people in "bondage". Look at Appalachia! The Blacks, however, have been more notably exploited than any, and you had better heed the warnings, for when the Blacks do rise up in retaliation—rather than atonement—it will be the worst of confrontations short of the places of HELL. They alone are a force with which to reckon and, gathered with brothers of all races, including the White "common man"—there will be a HOLY REVOLUTION. This is WHY the adversary Elite cannot allow the MESSAGE OR THE MESSENGER TO PASS UNALTERED—THEY KNOW THAT WHEN GOD BECOMES THE FOCUS—THEY SHALL FALL AS FLIES BEFORE THE "RAID". This adversarial New World Order filled with misfits and greedy filth has tried to destroy every symbol of decency—but obviously they have failed. In their own greed and usurpation they have built an army of "underdogs" who are mad as Hell and will not take it any more. But the message is Truth and the messenger is Truth and all the lies of the media and the "counting crews" cannot change the actuality of each and EVERY person on the Mall on Monday! The "atonement" (at-one-ment, Aton-ment [God-ness]) comes forth and the taking back of dignity and God-reality in goodness SHALL RISE NEXT. However, between here and there—the enemies of God-TRUTH and expression of LOVE shall be attacked and squandered and riots shall be the chosen happenings as attempts are made to destroy the MESSENGERS before the world can hear the message.

The children, however, are purposeless, angry, and troubled. They are bright and can see, so they will turn against the irresponsible of their own race first (and they have done so) and then they will take control of their destiny—be it in terror, horror or in goodness. They have gone about as far as they can go into the pits of despair and abuse. Ah, but those who are in despair and desperation—DON'T FORGET GOD!

How do "I" feel about the attacks on the messengers? I feel just fine, friends—when the attacks come I know that I am reaching through and whether it be through Dharma, Farrakhan, or Little Billy Doolittle, it is proof and confirmation that we ARE being heard—in spite of everything the Adversary can toss against us. When the attacks and assaults come against my receivers—it becomes the most easy route to the sorting as ones sort selves from myself.

I told you before and I shall present it again—it is far more safe for you to be on the list of CONTACT and have journals in your home WHEN THE DAY OF RECKONING COMES THAN ALL THE BLOOD AND MONEY YOU CAN SPREAD ON YOUR PASSOVER DOORSILLS OR TAX RECEIPTS. I would suggest you scatter a few journals of the Phoenix variety on your coffee tables for your own protection when the trouble comes upon you. I said that this WORD would be your security—BELIEVE IT.

God (Aton by Egyptian title) said unto Mr. Farrakhan to "ask for a million and I SHALL GIVE YOU MORE" and so it came to pass on the day of October 16, in the year 9, day 61, of our Golden Age of Change, that twice a million gathered in the city of Sodom D.C., U.S.A. in the name of Goodness, Light, and preservation of humankind. And God said that when two or more are gathered in MY NAME—so shall I be among you. I can narrow it down a bit more: WHEN ONE OR MORE OF YOU ARE GATHERED IN GOD'S NAME—SO SHALL HE BE WITH YOU!

TIME AS YOU NOW EXPERIENCE IT SHALL BE NO MORE!

However, in the eight steps to higher growth, the game gets more difficult and seemingly hard—but anchored in truth, the choices get ever so much easier, chelas. As you begin to better UNDERSTAND, you cannot be pulled away. As you release the ego control over your being and become learned in the courses of GOD, you have no need of sorrow or doubts—for each incident becomes a positive CONFIRMATION of TRUTH—not a destructive weakening of self. What God promises is always delivered—as YOU allow it to 'BECOME'.

Dharma is worn out today so there is no reasonable use to trying to write on our biology lessons after five days interim. I will voice some of the things which she knows and some which she does NOT know but will give "reason" to her fatigue and frustration—although it comes with increased realization and insightfulness. We have to attend the assaults and painful incidents to get around to being able for you and others who participate in the load here—to understand.

To be called "evil" leaders is not just an error in accusation against the Ekkers and Charles but the offense really comes through the total lack of factual circumstances—even to the "leader" portion of the statement. Then to base the accusation on the erroneous information stemming, this time, from Ence/Enz (Rod changed the name, you must understand) is beyond my ability to understand why OTHERS do not respond properly to these pieces of correspondence. You will note that ones in opposition DO NOT speak or correspond with the parties involved but continue the AROUND BEHIND THE BACK stabbing and spreading lies. It is the name of the game, students—you see it with O.J., with Farrakhan—with anyone who functions in TRUTH and simply tries to do their job.

I do, however, have to give Doris some significant insight for the painful accusations are just that, painful, and cause doubt within as to either the "truth" or inner doubts which challenge the being.

LIES COME BACK TO HAUNT LIARS

I do not care who lies or what lies are told about either myself or my contacts—they will not stand and those who participate in THE LIES shall surely fall. This includes Green, Abbott, Ence/Enz—you name it—for they will fall of their own doing.

Along those avenues it is obvious that the last document filed by Abbott is filed on the basis of "Power of Attorney" documents. Whether Eleanor Schroepfer really, personally, authorized this latest filing is unknown to us, but it is more likely that Abbott was able to file on a Power of Attorney in his possession from Eleanor. It is obvious the same happened with Leon. LEON WILL "ALONE" END UP RESPONSIBLE FOR HOLDING THE BAG—AND PAYING EXPENSES FOR LEGAL, COURT AND DAMAGES TO EACH OF THE "DEFENDANTS" NAMED IN THAT SAD DOCUMENT. The "CRIMINAL" charges put forth by Abbott will eat him alive—while assuring LEON pays all the expenses of this insane maneuver.

My heart says for you to go and explain this to Leon and also to somehow contact Eleanor and explain this to her (Rod, whoever), for this time the man has gone too far and, yet, "time" is running out for Leon to protect himself. The full game is laid out in this last filing along with the removal of George Green as a "defendant".

I remind all of you within this loop that the claims that Tuten, Yount, Hoffmann family, etc., filing with Abbott and Green to bankrupt the Institute is sadly lacking in judgment of any good intent.

Tuten, Yount and another did not respond to the "call" on the gold—at the advice of Green and Berger. What did that mean? It meant that the gold covering their loan as collateral was taken by the bank. That in turn means there is NO GOLD backing any of THEIR loans. If the Institute is put into receivership THEY AUTOMATICALLY LOSE EVERYTHING IN IT—RIGHT OFF THE TOP! So, does it actually sound logical that these people are so dense that they can't see this critical little manipulation of Green? Now, Abbott is seeing to it that Leon loses everything just for participating with him and Green. It has NOTHING to do with Ekkers (a total distraction which was false from onset) or the Institute business. Abbott has continually lied to Leon and Ann until the egg splatters are enough to bury them in the rotten contents. Why? Because they used the information of Abbott, even about himself, to write and file against people and thus and so—only to now find that the lies were, after all, HIS LIES—WHILE LEON WAS STILL PAYING FOR HIS OWN HANGING.

You will find that, NOW, because of the demands against Ekkers and their "evil" ways and "spy" Charles Neil—accounting has to be done. Challenge Met corporation, by Rod's information, is somehow "his" corporation or at the least run under his directions and banking. Nearly all farm expenses, etc., were paid into that corporation which was ONLY run by Ence/Enz. This is unfortunate for Rod because the facts are proving that, through the records ongoing—there have been expenses upon expenses which were personal which were charged off to and paid for by Sunshine Farms who borrowed money for the project to PROTECT Ence/Enz. We are now informed that Ence/Enz intends to 'ABANDON' the corporation and somehow "that will show them"! Wait, son, before you do such a stupid thing for that means accounting has to be MADE PUBLIC. When that is made public the Ence/Enz FAMILY WILL BE IN LEGAL TROUBLE OVER THEIR FIGURATIVE HEADS with the State and Feds.

Rod took property not belonging to him; he further claims he sent keys and maintenance manuals to Hamilton's in Utah for the equipment not belonging to him—to confuse things. Hamilton's have not yet received the keys so the obvious conclusion is that Rod LIED. Why? Because part of the equipment includes a "harvester". If no one here can use the harvester, then the millet has to be sacrificed or hand-picked—which was the full "sharing and giving" intent. All this means is that some modicum of bird-feed could be salvaged. They already had sold off Doris' and Gene's birds which had been given, along with the aviary, all supplies and FOOD by said parties. They also sold off the laying chickens which had been supplied ALONG WITH CHICKEN FOOD (ONGOING) by and for the farm and from which all the eggs were personally paid for by others, the money retained by Ence/Enz. If Ekkers, for instance, got eggs—THEY OVERPAID FOR THEM. Then, there were other chickens given when moves were made by friends (who, by the way are back on their original property and could have used the chickens back), who never were contacted for same.

All expenses were provided for the Ence/Enz family as to utilities, housing, even gas for the vehicles. Everything was provided INCLUDING FULL PAY—for both Rod and the children for their work. It even turns out that the children were charged for at the same rate as Rod. So, he had the children doing the work but was billing as if it were himself—or at the least, paid as if it were himself. They had food and other help through the Food Stamp program so that a family could eat and live comfortably. ALL of this in addition to reimbursements which had grown to mammoth proportions. Expense sheets even bore the listing of such as graduation parties for the family—to which some of you made contribution in attending. That was a final blow to the accounting person and questioned. Up until then all billings were simply paid on the assumption that Rod was an honest person.

Now, why would I write about this "thing"? Because Dharma has trouble continuing 24-hour-a-day service in light of the bashing which comes recently from Sandy's and Tammy's Father:

[QUOTING:]

DUE TO THE VICIOUS LIES, MANIPULATION AND TRANSGRESSIONS BY DORIS AND E.J. [END OF QUOTING]

[Editor's note: Please see E.J. Ekker's measured response to this letter on page 5.]

Letters and calls have come from various ones in

CALVIN AND HOBBS—Bill Watterson

Utah, including Lemura, etc., with claims of now knowing about all the things taking place "from the direct source". Fine, good—but it wasn't any of these "sources".

It seems even Ken Hardy is in the picture, saying that Ed Cleary has ALWAYS been an insider for George Green. He and others also report that Green had called and said that Ekkers were packed and either gone or leaving for "South America" (first Peru and then Chile) and others were returning to their own prior places (i.e., Paul and Gene) along with lists of people who were joining him in this last filing of Abbott. Well, some made excuses and called E.J. (to see if he was still 'there'). And Dharma weeps? I could kick her fanny. Why would she weep? These people in point have dealt nothing save problems, trouble and "taking" from their arrivals on!

Dharma, we can get on with our work just as soon as you dump the "asses" off your back. By this I refer to the man with the donkey who met people going to town with his donkey (ass). The donkey had a load and he was riding. Upon complaints the man got down and led the donkey. Upon more complaints the man took the burden himself and led the donkey. The point of the story is that to please all the people the man finally picked up the donkey and carried it also—only to finally topple off a bridge and kill them all and lose the load to boot. Well, here we are! Your CONTRACT is with the lenders TO BE GOOD STEWARDS and protect our assets from the TAKERS. We shall continue to struggle—but we will carry no more asses! Is this understood? We are not here for YOUR SPIRITUAL DOINGS—we have a job and YOU HAVE A COMMITMENT—WHICH YOU MIGHT CONSIDER KEEPING.

I warned all of you IN ADVANCE—that I will no longer abide the lies and misinformation and that if you choose the routes of ill-begotten and treks of misinformation—I will not keep silent.

Rod, for instance, (and yes I do get information and I DON'T HAVE TO GET IT FROM ANY PHYSICAL PERSON) was going to go to Jason Brent and bring charges against Ekkers. For what? Oh, he didn't need a case—he just wanted to give as much HELL as possible by going to Jason the Khazar. When that didn't result in very "wise" action with no case—he proceeded to park his car outside Jason's office so all would be stirred up by the tricks. Well, Ed Cleary, mentor and "used", lived on that corner also—so nobody gave a damn. What are you people doing? Perhaps it might "pay" to think about what you are going to do AFTER YOU KISS-US-OFF! And you who expect me and mine to FIX things that we did not break—forget it! The very idea sticks like gall in the throat. Neither Doris nor E.J. EVER asked to run anything of this operation and have gotten stuck trying and succeeding in making Green's business plan work, while bringing it into security. George took all of Doris' writings and copyrighted them—so he says. Well, he only claims the ONES which he actually COULDN'T copyright—stupid is as stupid does. The ones which show his copyright are likely NOT but they show same.

Do we have things to "hide"? NO, we would enjoy a bit a privacy in our own personal affairs—but NO, there is nothing SECRET here. We don't even keep secrets enough to not have to answer to private writings as with this one. This one WILL GET BACK and necessitate more attention—but NO, WE DO NOT OBJECT! I do, however, have need to communicate with Dharma and E.J. and this is the way we choose to do it so that involved parties can share—i.e. Charles, who is included as a participant and "spy". It so happens that the other dealing corporation is the Sunshine Valley Farms and Charles is a senior officer who has sunk more hours and money into the Ence failure than any other one person—excluding no one. How dare you people accuse and abuse. Charles "IS" Sunshine Valley Farms. Sunshine Valley borrowed all the funding and now has to face bankruptcy because of lousy, deceitful management by Challenge Met—which is now going to be "abandoned" (dumped) by Rod Ence/

Enz? I don't think so—at the least, not while the lies are flowing from that sector.

You misunderstand if you think I have urged ANYONE to USE corporations in this UNETHICAL manner. Corporations are sound ONLY if you attend them, keep impeccable records and contracts and use them properly. WE DO!! Further, if we are called into a court of law—OUR STRUCTURES HOLD BECAUSE WE ATTEND OUR BUSINESS WITH INTEGRITY AND RECORDS CORRECTLY DOCUMENTED. I WOULD FURTHER SUGGEST, HOWEVER, THAT IF YOU DON'T KNOW THE DIFFERENCE IN "EVICT" AND "VACATE" THAT YOU SHOULD PROBABLY NOT DEPEND ON A CORPORATION TO PROTECT YOUR SHENANIGANS. The LESSONS are well taken, however, and appreciated. It may well make for less "giving" by ones involved—but WELL TAKEN AND WELL LEARNED in these quarters.

When you lie to and/or in front of your own spouse and children—you have erred greatly for you have sucked them into YOUR DECEPTION—AND THEY KNOW THE DIFFERENCE—BUT WILL LIKELY SIMPLY CONTINUE THE PATH OF SAME TO THEIR OWN PAIN AND DOWNFALL. So, how do "I" feel about this sort of thing? I am pained by it—but when you have done that which you can—you release it/them to their own course and direction. I, personally, remove my protection and direction and it usually bodes quite badly for those who break away in this manner through discounting and assault against me. I do NOTHING—SAVE RELEASE AND GO MY WAY. However, it is NOT ACCEPTABLE to fail to counter the lies along the way which damage MANY by the thrusts at the few.

I am filled with appreciation to the ones, such as Phyllis and others, who have "filled-in" brilliantly with CONTACT while we have been off our schedule. You have developed the finest PAPER in publication—yes, YOU. You tiny handful and you "out there" have been the ROCK upon which God has been able to "BUILD HIS HOUSE", and there shall come the day when ye shall not be wanting. I speak of such as Claudia who quietly works around the clock EVERY DAY and the others who are the backbone of what is offered here. Look carefully before you weep and entangle selves in "attitudes"—WHO WAS DOING ALL THE WORK BEFORE?? I thought you might perceive it a bit differently when you take away the rosy glasses. But grieve we must, for the losses sustained and the disappointments which tear at our hearts. Then, we pull ourselves together, release it and GO ON.

Last in this writing: LOOK AHEAD, for all of you can begin to see our directions and the massive task ahead. If it is too much, pray about it and if it is still too much, back off—there is nothing wrong with stepping aside if you FEAR the path ahead. Just don't expect everyone to get off because you choose to do so, and can you not "get off" on your own responsible perceptions—without trying to pull down the very ones you claimed to have as fellow-teammates? Nothing changes HERE so in the ending you who falsely accuse will simply find yourselves looking the fools. We keep picking up the broken pieces and going and going—while now carrying your abuse, disinformation and with our hands bitten by the very ones we fed and nurtured. It always comes back around, chelas—in its form given forth. It may take a while and the heart may be pained—but truth will OUT and that sent forth WILL CIRCLE BACK!

Let us just consider the "Rhoads" letter above—how will the TRUTH fit with this blast of hate—WHEN THE TRUTH IS KNOWN? WHAT HAVE THE "CHILDREN" TOLD THESE PARENTS THAT CAUSES A FATHER TO WRITE A LETTER AS THIS—WHEN NOTHING IN IT IS IN TRUTH? AH, I THINK THAT "THINKING" PRIOR TO SUCH DRASTIC SPEAKINGS AND SELF-DEFENSE MIGHT WELL BE IN ORDER.

And about asking "forgiveness"—DO NOT BOTHER WITH SUCH SILLINESS. Forgiveness enters not this scene. Forgetting would be foolish but no one here even wants to BOTHER WITH THE MISERY OF "FORGIVING". LET'S JUST SEE HOW WELL YOU FORGIVE YOURSELF FOR THE MISCHIEF YOU CAUSE ANOTHER—FOR IT SHALL ALWAYS BE GREATER AGAINST THE ONES YOU LEAST DESIRE TO HURT—AND SELF.

IMPORTANT CONFIRMATIONS

Now, for you, Dharma: you are stronger today than yesterday, you understand better today than yesterday—and now you have your confirmation of your "place" in this unfolding play. It is indeed overwhelming—but you are equal to the task and you shall have the seers and knowers to walk with you as your tasks come into the unity of the ONE. If nothing else, little bird, the "Crow's feathers" shall sustain you. If we have no enemies and everybody adores us—it is because they are liars and we are fools and idiots—AND WE ARE NOT TELLING TRUTH. We who are bound in our brotherhood take each thing in love and appreciation from the teachers who come to share and serve—and pick up our share of the task and move forward. We continue to make it possible for each and all of us to move toward God in Truth—for that is, after all, the GAME of this day. It simply remains a fact that the consequences of your choices shall rest upon YOU. I shall not accept YOURS.

Salu and, Dharma, give me some of your quiet time this day for the fat is in the fire and the flames are blazing but victory is in sight—the infantry is on the move. The Chariots of Fire are rolling and the enemy is GOING TO FALL!

'This is it, Inez. Easy street.'

Dear Mr. Rhoads:

A copy of your letter sent to CONTACT has been forwarded to me since it contains some misinformation concerning me, Doris and Charles Neil which I feel compelled to try to clarify for you.

Rod Ence has stolen from us, cheated us, and when confronted with the factual evidence, lied to us and, further, signed letters of agreement agreeing to take actions which could have saved some of the crop left on the farm as well as reducing some of the unwarranted expense he was willfully incurring. He immediately and deliberately violated those agreements, using as his excuse that he refused to do what he was told to do (by a committee of four men appointed to replace him as "farm manager") because it "aroused the stubbornness" in him.

I doubt that your daughter, Sandy [Rod's wife], has told you much of this. It is quite likely that a lot of what transpired on the financial side of things was never revealed to her.

When you say "evicted from the ranch" you reveal that you also have likely been lied to. The indication is that our action was sudden and unexpected. No. A year ago in early September Charles and I met at the farm with Rod to tell him that information we had received confirmed that a large part of his "light" spelt crop was a direct result of his late plantings and that we felt it very important that the crop be planted (and watered immediately) by October 15. We also told him that the ground would have to be turned by plowing, and disked before planting, and urged him to begin immediately to make arrangements for a tractor and plow. I needn't bore you with the excuses but I will say that the plowing was not done and the spelt was not planted until after December 15, and then with only half the recommended seed density.

Rod may try to claim, to you and to others, that he didn't have the equipment, fertilizer, etc., etc., with which to work. He was never denied the rental of equipment. The first year we spent over $33,000 to apply Nutricarb to all of the useable land. Rod represented to us that no further fertilizing would be needed for some seven years. Then, just last fall we spent another $12,000-plus, at his request, to apply several additional fertilizers to that same 100 acres to be planted in spelt. To his credit Rod arranged for a loan to obtain a used tractor and some equipment, all of which proved to be in bad shape. He spent a lot of time and thousands of our dollars bringing it up to serviceable condition. He leased the harvester and swather in the name of Sunshine Valley Farms and has run off with the keys and Operating/Maintenance Manuals to both, claiming to have sent them to the leasing company—which has heard nothing of them. Those are petty, childish tricks that you need to know about before condemning us and our actions. He has stolen some fifty-sixty items of tools and supplies which clearly belonged to the farm and/or Charles Neil.

In May, when the "volunteer" rye (which was nearly as thick as the spelt) outgrew the spelt by several inches, Rod knew he was in trouble. He got advice from a farmer (who understood the problem) to use the harvester or swather to gather, or at least clip, the taller rye to give the spelt a chance to grow and mature. Rod actually made a couple of passes, apparently with the swather, which demonstrated that it would work. Why didn't he do the whole field? Why didn't he mention the problem to us? We didn't learn of the problem from Rod; we learned of it from someone working in the garden who walked out to the spelt field to see how it was doing. By the time we heard about it, however, it was too late. The spelt had grown a few inches higher and much less uniform in height so that the swather could no longer just clip the rye. Was Rod's inaction laziness or a deliberate act of sabotage? True, it would have taken a few long days of careful swather driving to save most of the 100-acre spelt crop.

Somebody has said, "Well, at 14 cents-per-pound the crop wasn't worth much anyway." That is a shallow view of the reality of what happens here. Spelt flows through several corporations and processes before it is hulled, cleaned, ground into flour and packaged for use in bread machines where it retails for $3.50 per package (which contains slightly over one pound of spelt flour). A good crop of spelt (planted on time on well-prepared ground) can yield up to 3,500 pounds per acre. If we dropped that 20% to 2,800 pounds and allow for a loss of 35% for cleaning (which is high) we would have 1,800 pounds of clean grain/flour. 100 acres of properly farmed land could easily yield 180,000 pounds, which can be retailed for more than $500,000 while providing employment for several people and a modest profit for each of several corporations. Whether due to laziness, ineptness, defiance or downright enmity, that is what Rod has cost us here and we would surely be remiss in not acting to prevent its happening again.

Further, the threat of deliberate sabotage could not permit us to allow Rod to remain on the farm. He has removed (stolen) farm tools and supplies as he has moved, demonstrating a vicious streak of vindictiveness not previously disclosed to us.

You could say, as I'm sure he will, "But he was so underpaid while he was working so hard that he is justified in trying to stay at least even." As the saying goes: "It is neither legal nor moral for the departing secretary to take the typewriter, even if the boss still owes her wages." Worse, for him, we owed him nothing and I'll here outline his compensation package at the time of his departure so that you can see how "badly" he was being treated: His home was furnished and all his utilities paid for, even his telephone bill; a Toyota pickup was furnished as well as gasoline for his personal cars. And he was paid $600 per week; that is more than $30,000 per year virtually free and clear. He was even reimbursed for the children's school supplies, purchased at the local stationery store.

Yes, beginning July 1 of this year we did require that Rod work 60 hours per week, which is pretty modest for a successful farmer. Up to that time he had claimed to work 20 hours per week and made up the difference with the children's time, and Charles paid for the children's time each week. You have referred to Charles as a "spy". You must not have been made aware of the fact that Charles is the manager of the corporation (Sunshine Valley Farms, Inc.) directly responsible for overseeing the performance of Challenge Met (Rod's corporation) as operator of the farm. Our perception is that Charles was a great deal more forgiving of Rod's nonperformance than he might have been. I can personally attest to the fact that Rod usually spent more time in Tehachapi, Bakersfield and Lancaster than at the farm.

But Rod is not stupid. A year-and-a-half ago a nicely sized and located local grocery store was available for rent. Rod likes to bake spelt bread and other spelt products and it appeared there might be an opportunity to open a bakery and establish a regional market for spelt-based bakery products. So we asked Rod if he wouldn't rather get into the bakery business than farm. He thought about it overnight and then said, no, he was a farmer and would stay on the farm. In retrospect one is tempted to regard this decision on Rod's part as that he can recognize a "soft touch".

In your letter you say, "Due to the Vicious Lies, Manipulation and Transgressions by Doris and E.J. Ekker...." It is a bit difficult to know what it is to which you refer so our answer has had to be somewhat broader in scope than might have been necessary had you been more specific. When you cancel your subscriptions to CONTACT, the tapes, Journals and the GAIA products you are simply "cutting off your (and your lovely wife's) nose to spite your face", as the saying goes. I surely hope you have the courage and fortitude to consider what I have told you in comparison to the unfounded prevarications of Rod Ence, even though those may be relayed to you by your own daughter.

You say you can "no longer support an operation under such evil leadership as Doris and E.J. Ekker". You surely know, as do Rod and Sandy, from whence comes the "leadership" here. That "source" is only "evil" to the dark forces, Mr. Rhoads, so I am obliged to inquire which side you might really be on. It seems I recall the name Rhoads associated with the Illuminati. Don't take that as an accusation but it might be worthy of some thought. We do get some warmth thinking of the name Sandy Rhoads. And I cannot end this letter without mentioning that Sandy and most of the kids worked very hard to clean up the farm in spite of Rod and Chase dragging their feet and making fun. Your daughter showed some class, which we accept as a reflection of her parents; we will pray that our impression of you folks was correct and that you are only temporarily misled by your son-in-law. We wish you clarity of thought and, through that, happiness.

Sincerely yours,
/s/ E.J. EKKER

Unity Of Purpose Can Work Miracles

DESTROY THE MESSENGER

I tell you this day that even the messenger cannot be destroyed if he brings Truth. The messenger's property, dignity and yea, even his life, may well be smashed and crumbled—but neither the message nor the messenger can be actually destroyed. If the message be in truth of Spiritual reality—there is only change—never destruction.

Lies cannot be destroyed either—only recognized or realized and these shall always come back around to devastate the sender.

FRIENDS AND GOBLINS

It is said that "Friendship consists in forgetting what one gives and remembering what one receives." This has far more meaning than at first glance for it means not the "gifts" of trinkets but the heartfelt "gift" which ones offer in exchange for that which they have received FROM you. When the act of "taking" through deceit, force or trickery, is present in the giving or receiving—you have NO FRIEND and no amount of tinkering with that one will make it different. When one takes the very most tiny hidden thing which is not theirs—it comes from someone who owned it and paid for it—who is the ultimate loser? Both! However, at confrontation—it is always the thief who is in greatest agony for he has brought pain upon himself and the other. Some will remain with and even follow the leadership of that traitor to truth—but they will also ALWAYS KNOW the shortcomings and will grow to be unforgiving and angry at the deceit, and the relationships will finally crumble as truth is uncovered. You can train a child to play a game of deception in a public setting—but you cannot change the attitude of the KNOWING of the child. He will become more deceitful than his teacher or rebel against those dishonest guardians of his life-stream. Parents—which are you in representation? How can you conceive responsibility in behavior when the parent is lacking? It, further, is not a question of whether or not the parent CAN learn better—it is strictly a matter of whether or not the parent WILL learn. YOU DO NOT FOOL THE CHILD AND HE WILL LOATHE YOU FOR THE DECEPTION.

OTHER MESSENGERS

Other than WHO? All beings are messengers of some sort or another! I am deluged with inquiries—again—about Ronn Jackson's place in MY plan? Well, mostly Ronn Jackson HAS NO PLACE IN MY "PLAN"! It was agreed in the hierarchy of operating Elite that Ronn Jackson would and could be the recognized (by both sides) entity for conduit of resources for our agreed upon projects. No more, no less! He stated he wished to begin a "New Republic" and, I suppose, believed that he could do so. He stated he had 33 million "followers" for that endeavor which has so far produced NOTHING. Is his direction wrong, or the direction of all others? That is NOT MY BUSINESS. I am saddened to see that some have supported him into the poor-house of debt and misdirected funds—but I cannot attend those things and choices.

I am now prevailed upon to answer as to what Ronn Jackson was doing "wandering around" at the recent Corporation meeting in Las Vegas. I was not there except with the participants and speakers who offered and received INFORMATION on Corporations. Ronn Jackson had NOTHING to do with it one way or another. I assume he wanted to be there—no more and no less. He was actually searching for individuals who he thought would be in attendance. He forgets that we have all, each, no "group" save in interest and intent. It is no longer a question of his management as no-one can know or understand his direction or difficulties. We have our own tasks to accomplish and we do not attend that of another lest it be attached to our own.

I will speak a moment of the area of intention for use for this New Republic (which, by the way, would be a superb way of handling "government"). It is encumbered by Texaco (Pennzoil, I'm now told). Have you ever known an OIL company to turn valuable resources over to the enemy? Well, we shall see. It CAN be accomplished—but not while USING others to fulfill promises made by yet another. Will this "hope" run away to be discounted as were those who have come before? Perhaps—we shall surely see. I have been warned to stay out of Ronn's face and ones think somehow that there is control or attachment with CONTACT. No, unfortunately, there has been no help there, either, so we struggle on but we do so without compromise of validity. Jackson tells us quite clearly what he will and will not "give up" or "stop" no matter who asks him otherwise. Fine! If you cannot control SELF—you certainly cannot expect another to follow your path of self-ness. I would suggest to all of you who want a Ronn Jackson's New Republic to rethink it a bit, as well as I would offer to Ronn that he might consider some changes to the perceptions flowing forth into the ethers and public patriotic community. I make no charge or inference about the intent—it is the perception which causes great difficulty as TIME PASSES WITHOUT POSITIVE MERIT SHOWN OR PROVEN. A man is only as good as his WORD in the judgment of others, for others have no other measure by which to scale expectation or presentation. This is NOT meanness—

Don't let parasites cheat you anymore!

A natural way to eliminate parasites from the body.

it is observation of that which IS.

Does this mean that somehow I distance from Ronn Jackson? No, but Ronn certainly is distancing himself from ME. Why? That is not my business! Perhaps it is as with Father Cleary, the PROMISES are made and when confronted it is the big kiss-off of "screw you" and "it is none of your business"! So be it. Does Ronn Jackson OR Father Cleary MEAN IT? Oh indeed! But do they REALLY mean it? Oh indeed! They want no shadow of God or Messengers upon their works or receivings. Does this mean they are Evil? What mean YOU by "evil"? It simply means they ARE! Evil or Goodness has little to do with the individual workings of physical man—ONLY THE SPIRITUAL INTENT WHICH IS MEASURED BY NONE SAVE GOD AND THAT MAN!

Does Ronn Jackson have access to the money he claims? NO! The key word here is "access", so don't hop to conclusions! However, in this day of power players—"access" is the key to almost everything. YOU may well have great abundance in foreign banks, etc. It is the ACCESSING that is the real bugger. Will hanging Ronn Jackson do wonders for getting that which he promises but does not produce? Nope—so you may as well hold strong and see what CAN BE PRODUCED. IT GETS HARDER TODAY, AFTER MONDAY, TO STEAL WITHOUT RECOURSE—AS IT IS SHOWN BY TWO MILLION MEN THAT THEY WILL TAKE IT NO LONGER AND ARE WILLING TO GO THROUGH THE STEPS GOD PROPOSES TO SHOW THEIR INTENT! When two million men, then eight million, then 100 million, and a billion—march around the walls of "Jerico"—those walls will FALL! Evil cannot prevail in that type of energy frequency or harmonic resonance. The very heavens will open unto the higher power when this happens, readers—and it becomes purely "physics" in its truth and form—a mystery solved—not a mystical journey in mysticism.

SPELTA

I see a problem facing you who package Spelt flour and mixes. This must be considered, as holding of product allows hatching of tiny pantry moths. And worse, it would seem to you who process the products—that nothing bothers the grain in the hull or the freshly hulled, but still whole, kernels. Right! What you have is a product untampered with no processing of additives to change the organic and natural circumstance of the product. This is mandatory in organically handled and grown food. But you don't want bugs or moths in your food? Then you have to attend the products. Our people do not grind the flour until just prior to shipping to avoid just such infestation. But—remember that the product is then measured, packaged and goes to a warehouse prior to shipping. So, the product is uncontaminated at onset of handling and, being untreated, but only handled with gloved hands that package ONLY by hand, there is perfection sought, but the moment it leaves the package—table it is subject to the things of life in any pantry. My thoughts on the matter? Handle with CARE and attention! The packages on receiving by the consumer MUST BE INTENTIONALLY HANDLED PROPERLY. The mixes, etc., can either be kept in a FREEZER or refrigerator (if cold enough). Bulk flour (just as with ANY food product) must be attended in SEALED containers with proper treatment for STORAGE. This can be accomplished as with any preservation method suggested by any food supplier or "survival" food packager.

If there are "webs" in the product—filter or sift the product at use—as there is nothing wrong with the product, although it is aesthetically undesirable to have alien life-forms in another type of life-form than you want in your daily bread.

If you have a vacuum "Food Saver", then my suggestion is to put the packages in wide-mouth canning jars and vacuum seal the jar. Or, vacuum seal into plastic bags—but realize that the packages are easily UNSEALED. YOU have to be responsible for your own products, readers—no one can guarantee a perfect, forever-lasting product of organic items. This is why pre-freezing and irradiation are used. Both damage the cellular structure to some extent—of the product. However, storage of the product is feasible while there is refrigeration, and after freezing the product will be ok as long as SEALED. If frozen and then sealed—fine, but the moment it is unsealed it is again open for contamination and spoilage. IT IS IN THE AIR, READERS—EVERYTHING YOU WOULD RATHER NOT HAVE—BUT GET ANYWAY. CONTAMINATION IS BROUGHT DIRECTLY FROM THE FIELDS, THE STORES, THE PANTRY—YOU ARE CONTAMINATED SO YOU HAVE TO TAKE PRECAUTIONS FOR SELF.

At source here it is impossible to process in vacuum containers and do all that which YOU CAN DO, in advance. Why? Because the cost would be so great as to disallow those save the wealthy to have the products. Here is no place for the massive business of big-business. There is no big industry here—NONE. It is much the same as coming to dinner at our table and we share product and food at that table. ALL things are within the regulator's list of stupid assumptions, but we claim no great "business" or production factories.

When Mr. Jackson or some other "promissory" party funds these projects—then, and only then, will there be great production plants with freeze-dryers and preservation supplies. Until then, we offer what we can for friends and relations—for our purpose is to share, NOT SAVE, anyone or anything!

The "promises" have been loudly made and great in expectation but still the tiny handful of subscribers (who dare) and the same few keep the paper going forth and the products in some measure of production—at the lowest cost that can be managed. We claim nothing but we offer what we have! It is enough for God—it is enough for us. If we are forced to close—we shall do so. Yes, people play their games with us and steal and thief from us—but we cannot control that aspect of humankind. We do what we can and that is all that is expected by God—from us. YOU MUST BE RESPONSIBLE FOR SELF AND THAT WHICH FLOWS UNTO YOU.

I should tell you now that the expenses of labor for the paper, the publications and all other things are supported through loans to entities FROM NEW GAIA. There is no person or persons reaping rewards from our small production. Everything is separate but all income is shared to maintain other entities. Income is tiny indeed, for ALL—but costs are not offered lesser to us—if anything, the business world "out-there" is more expensive for us in hopes of destroying the source. When you use ANY product from New Gaia—you are sharing with the loving hands of those here

Spelt

New Gaia Presents Bread Mixes, Flour & Kernels

Spelt is the most ancient and very best grain. Spelta is a grain of its own unique being. It is the best fiber resource and has large amounts of B-17 (anti-carcinoma). The grain berry grows an exceptionally thick husk that protects it from pollutants and insects. It is stored with its husks intact, so it remains fresher. Thus, unlike other grains, it is not normally treated with pesticides or other chemicals. The strong, protective husk may also be a metaphorical signature of this grain's capacity to strengthen immunity. Spelt contains special carbohydrates (Mucopolysaccharides) which are an important factor in blood clotting and stimulating the body's immune system.

New Gaia offers Bread Mixes that use pure Spelt flour instead of wheat. The taste is uniquely nutty and enjoyable for the whole family. Also offered are combination Bread Mixes with both Spelt flour and whole wheat flour. Both are perfect for a 2 lb. loaf of bread which can be utilized in the Hitachi Bread Machine or others of its equal. The mixes are easy to use with only the simple addition of water, butter & sweetener. The packages come in 2 lb. sizes only.

Also available are whole spelt flour packages for your baking and homemade bread needs that come in 2 lb., 4 lb. and 8 lb. sizes.

You may also order the whole spelt kernels that can be milled at home into flour. These come in 4 lb. and 10 lb. bags. [See Next-to-Last Page for ordering information or call 1-800-639-4242 (1-800-New-Gaia)] who SERVE you because they CARE ENOUGH to send you the very best—personally and with that honorable “hallmark” of working now in hopes of sharing resources LATER. If ones come who do not feel this loving sharing—they soon drift away for their reasons were wrong in the first place and/or their patience with God got too sorely tested.

If you want a church, cult or commune—GO SOMEWHERE ELSE, FOR HERE YOU WILL FIND NONE OF THESE. You will only find here, those just as the ones on the Washington D.C. mall—individual people in unity of purpose but totally separate in every other way. You don't have to like the message or the messenger HERE—but you have to have integrity to remain in business—period. Integrity in every aspect of service is mandatory for one may not be allowed to drain the coffers and cost the co-op its products. One business MUST depend on other businesses—it is called capitalism or free trade or whatever you choose. It is known as trade, barter, i.e., the spelta grower needs the miller and the miller has nothing to mill if there are no grains and thus and so. This does not mean that the miller must COMMUNE with the grower—ponder it. However, for the grain grower to stay IN BUSINESS—he must produce grain. And, if the baker expects to make bread—he must have the miller. THIS DOES NOT MEAN YOU HAVE TO LIVE IN EACH OTHER'S BEDROOM! It DOES mean that each has to produce to the best of his integral ability. And, further, if one cannot do this as promised at upstart—then changes become MANDATORY because the one cannot survive in BUSINESS without the other. THAT IS WHAT “BUSINESS” IS! Spiritual reality is the individual right of each person. BUSINESS WHICH DEPENDS UPON ANOTHER'S BUSINESS IS A VERY PHYSICAL REALITY OF NECESSITY.

THERE IS, BY THE WAY, NO FREE LUNCH WITH GOD! PONDER IT! If you CLAIM to be Godly—then you had best be RESPONSIBLE because you will otherwise find yourself in the mire of confusion and, finally, disallowance, as ones who depend upon YOU are left holding bag after empty bag of unfulfilled “claims” and “promises”. The intelligent ones continue to work and HOPE—while doing their work. The “hopeless hoppers” just set about destroying and WAITING for another to attend their wants. NO THANK YOU. I attend those who responsibly attend themselves to the best of their ability. Misperceptions are NOTHING—true realization is EVERYTHING. GOD'S DELAYS ARE NOT GOD'S DENIALS—and failure is measured by such a variety of SUCCESSES as to boggle the human mind but fulfill the SPIRIT. GOD IS SPIRITUAL PERFECTION—human guidelines and measurements are of the physical plane. BOTH ARE CHOICES—and moreover, that tangled web you weave is first begun in the first deception rendered. Perhaps you should assume that each and every human you meet might well be God—lest you deceive the WRONG ENTITY, for you can NEVER DECEIVE THE RIGHT ENTITY and the deception itself shall come back to rest upon self.

I enjoy a good game of WITS as much as any other—but brothers, I have far more advantages on MY SIDE, so I win—not just sometimes—ALL OF THE TIME. IT MAY WELL APPEAR OTHERWISE—BUT THE GAME IS NEVER OVER UNTIL IT IS FINAL IN ETERNAL OVERNESS! Your human perceptions only move from, say, C through E—I can see BOTH ends of the road—and the opening as well as the closing of the play. And, readers, GOD WILL ALWAYS SEND HIS MESSENGERS—IT IS THE PROMISE OF LIFE! YOU choose to listen, heed and practice—OR, to deafen your ears, eyes and mind. However, since God WINS—it behooves you to decide carefully as to whose message you shall receive. You can count with the Evil Elite and find 400,000 or you can count in TRUTH and find TWO MILLION. BUT, if you only find 400,000 you have already succumbed to the lies of the media and controllers.

What happens when you prepare for and come forth to do WAR but no one on the opposing front plays in your WAR? Oh my, we do have problems among the Elite Anti-Christ this day as they try to cover TRUTH with more lies. It won't work!! There was love, peace and atonement in Washington D.C. on Monday—and all the lies and squiggling of the press and media cannot change a breath of it. You can kill that messenger—but that MESSAGE WILL NEVER BE STILLED—ever again. Never mind the messenger—HEED THE MESSAGE! THERE WERE MORE BEINGS TO WITNESS LIGHT AND LIFE IN WASHINGTON D.C., THE SEAT OF EVIL, THAN STOOD TO WITNESS THE DARKNESS AT GOLGOTHA 2,000 YEARS AGO! KEEP IT IN YOUR HEARTS!

“AND A CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM...” Ah, but how many of you thought it might be a Black child who would pick up the Holy Cross and bear it unto God? Humm-Hummmann. You had best look again at the youngest speaker man on that podium on Oct. 16th in Washington D.C., for there goes the leader who shall bring “HIS” PEOPLE HOME! GOD HAS NO COLOR, FRIENDS—GOD IS LIGHT! If YOU cannot perceive the meaning of this—then you have yet a long way to go.

Does God play at tricks on the unsuspecting YOU? No, YOU go about deceiving SELVES. YOU MEAN NO MORE TO GOD THAN DOES THE MOST TINY PIGMY BLACK PRIMITIVE CHILD IN DEEPEST AFRICA—AND PERHAPS NOT AS MUCH.

This is that which LIFE is about—not your silly fantasies fed to you by the deceivers of “time”. Eternity is a very long time filled with experience after experience upon which your actions are garnered and measured as to growth. May you come to know differences. The skin color of a being is only a physical anomaly or deviation. The YOU of YOU is but a varying spectrum color wave of LIGHT. IT IS IN THIS MEASUREMENT THAT YOU ARE IN THE IMAGE OF GOD CREATOR. IT MATTERS LITTLE WHAT YOU “CALL” GOD—BUT I DO SUGGEST YOU CALL HIM, FOR HE DRAWS EVER NEARER UNTO HIS PEOPLE. Salu.

JAPAN: LIVING ON THE EDGE

In last week's CONTACT, Commander Soltec issued a timely reminder to watch Japan for clues as to timing for major earthquake and volcanic escalations worldwide—especially the West Coast of the U.S. During the first week in October 6,694 quakes were recorded in the vicinity of the Ito hot springs (no relation?), about 60 miles southwest of Tokyo. 103 of the quakes were strong enough to be felt, according to the media report. A week ago, Mount Hosho rumbled to life, ending 257 years of dormancy with an outburst of belching ash. On Wednesday of this week (10/18), the islands were on tsunami alert following a 6.7 quake, as reported in this October 19 AP article in the DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

TOKYO—Hundreds of thousands of people were ordered to flee coastal areas of southern Japan for higher ground today, fearing a tsunami of up to 6 feet would follow a strong earthquake that rocked the region. The tidal wave alert was issued shortly after an earthquake with a preliminary magnitude of 6.7 hit the Amami islands at 11:41 a.m. (7:41 p.m. PDT Wednesday). The area, about 750 miles southwest of Tokyo, has been battered by more than 300 aftershocks since a 6.2-magnitude quake struck late Wednesday. Tsunami, or high waves generated by undersea disturbances, are widely feared in Japan. In some quakes, tidal waves have killed far more people than the quake itself. In 1993, following a 7.8-magnitude quake, a huge tsunami wiped out much of the fishing island of Okushiri, killing scores of people.

FARRAKHAN ORGANIZES "THIRD POLITICAL POWER"

From the October 19 issue of the DAILY NEWS,

[quoting:]

WASHINGTON—A drive begun at this week's huge rally of black men will seek to register millions of African-American voters for a "third political power" not bound to any party. Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan said Wednesday. "We intend to be a force in the next election," Farrakhan said. [If there IS a "next election".] "We will vote independently," he added. "We may be Democrat, we may be Republican, we may be independent, but our loyalty will be to an agenda." ...The campaign seeks to register 8 million eligible African-American voters. [8 million people exerting their energies in a directed manner can have decided impact! What will the agenda be? Will this power base be a positive force for the planet—or infiltrated and controlled by one or more factions of the NWO Elite? Stay tuned to Planet Earth—and don't miss Commander Hatonn's provocative comments on this subject on pages 3 & 6.]

MILLION MAN MARCH CONCERNS JEWISH LEADERS

This article appeared prior to the march, in the October 6 issue of the DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

Los Angeles Jewish leaders said Sunday that the Million Man March today in Washington, D.C., could make organizer Louis Farrakhan into the dominant leader of African-Americans—setting race relations back 50 years. "In my view, what's going to happen tomorrow is a coronation march, which is the culmination of a 10-year power drive" by Nation of Islam leader Farrakhan, said author Harold Brackman...during a press conference at the Simon Wiesenthal Center. Rabbi Marvin Hier, dean and founder of the Wiesenthal Center, said march supporters' comments that critics should separate the message from the messenger are "ludicrous and dishonest". Hier said the march is even more disturbing in light of the recent acquittal of O.J. Simpson in his double murder trial, a verdict that has divided the country along racial lines. "It's almost self-destructive to have a rally in Washington and give it to Farrakhan after O.J. Simpson," Hier said. [Mishpuckas were counting on a "guilty" verdict to ignite the riots they had been setting up; undaunted, they have redoubled their efforts—using the "not guilty" verdict and all the media tools at their disposal—to stir racial strife. By the way, did you notice how the Million Man March was down played by the Jewish-controlled mainstream media?]

This article from the October 17 issue of the DAILY NEWS—one day after the march—intensifies the focus on "racial strife", [quoting:]

If there were a "tension" indicator, Los Angeles right now would be recording near the top, a county commission said Monday. County layoffs, the debate over the O.J. Simpson verdicts, battles over affirmative action and strife over immigration policies are all straining the county's collective patience and creating "an unusually destabilized and tense period", according to a memo by the Los Angeles County Human Relations Commission to the Board of Supervisors. The Sept. 25 memo [is] from Rabbi Lee Bycel, the commission president [Oh!]. Saying it's important to talk frustrations over, the commission has restarted a "Keep the Peace" hot line, which it ran in other high-tension times, such as the 1982 Olympics and the federal trial of Los Angeles police officers accused of beating Rodney King. The hot line can be reached at (213) 974-7622, and is [allegedly] designed to help callers clear up rumors and inaccurate information that could lead to racial or other problems. [Just like the ADL's Cult Awareness Network protects people from vicious "cults"?]

"ANTI-VIOLENCE" DEMONSTRATORS STORM OUT AFTER MINISTER URGES LOVE

Never a dull moment in Southern California! This thought-provoking article appeared in the October 16 issue of the DAILY NEWS, [quoting:]

A rally kicking off an anti-violence campaign got off to a tense start Sunday when families of murder victims angrily snatched photos of loved ones from a stage and marched out in protest. The protesters, many members of the group Justice for Homicide Victims Inc., said later they were outraged by the comments of the Rev. Steven Gooden, who urged forgiveness for disgraced former LAPD Detective Mark Fuhrman, O.J. Simpson, former LAPD Sgt. Stacey Koon and Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan. Gooden, an African-American minister from Orange County, also urged African-Americans to forgive white people for enslaving them, then unfurled a banner reading, "Love Mark Fuhrman—To Help End Racism!" An embarrassed-looking Mayor Richard Riordan stood at Gooden's side as the banner was opened, then hastily ducked out. He said later through a spokeswoman that Gooden's speech was offensive and inappropriate. YWCA officials also criticized the remarks and sought to distance themselves from Gooden.

"We are here mourning and remembering murdered family members. We did not come here to love Mark Fuhrman," said Jackie Ravel of Los Angeles, whose mother was killed in 1992. "The victims were disgraced by this activity," said Arnold Heileman, vice president of the Malibu-based Justice for Homicide Victims. [End of quoting.]

What do you make of this? The YWCA (Young Women's CHRISTIAN Organization) sponsored the Week Without Violence—a nationwide event. A Christian minister preaches love and forgiveness and is roundly condemned. The anti-violence demonstrators became, if not violent, at least very angry! I guess love and forgiveness were not the answers they were looking for—maybe they weren't ready to give up their own victim status. What WERE they after? Justice for Homicide Victims—is it "justice" they're interested in?—or will they settle for REVENGE for their hurt and anger? This is a heckuva can of worms! Christian organizations allege that they are based on the teachings of Jesus—stuff like, "Love your enemies" and "If you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly father will forgive you"—but when exhorted to actually PRACTICE it, pandemonium ensues! Sounds a bit hypocritical. Actually, I'm sorry I missed this event; "love" and "forgiveness" are weighty topics and it would have been interesting to ask a few questions, like: "Does 'forgiveness' mean to let someone off the hook for their behavior?" "Do I have the power and authority to do that?" "What is 'love'?" "Does it mean you condone or overlook someone's negative behavior?" "What would 'loving Mark Fuhrman' look like?" Love: everybody talks about it, everybody's looking for it, and nearly nobody can tell you what it is! Hey! Back to the news!

GOVERNMENT CREATES BLOOD SAFETY COUNCIL

From the October 13 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

Responsibility for a safe blood supply is being given to the government's highest-level doctors [does that make you feel safe?], a response to criticism that bureaucratic red tape allowed thousands of Americans to get AIDS-tainted blood in the 1980s. A first step of the new Blood Safety Council announced Thursday before Congress, will be to decide whether thousands should be notified that they may have caught the liver disease hepatitis from transfusions before 1990.

Until now, blood safety has fallen to a government mishmash. The Food and Drug Administration regulates blood banks, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention sounds the alarm when new diseases are found in blood [and maybe creates a few], and the National Institutes of Health performs blood research. Some 10,000 hemophiliacs, who need frequent plasma donations, and thousands of other blood recipients got HIV while the government debated what to do.

ARMOUR IGNORED AIDS ALERT ON BLOOD DRUG

From the October 6 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

Armour Pharmaceutical Co. kept a blood-clotting drug on the market in 1985, despite warnings its heat-treating process was not effective at killing the AIDS virus, according to a published report. Two years later, six hemophiliacs in Vancouver, British Columbia, five of them children, contracted the AIDS virus from contaminated dosages of the drug, Factorate, The Philadelphia Inquirer reported Thursday. Several hemophiliacs in other parts of Canada, the United States and elsewhere also contracted the virus, the newspaper said. Armour prevented virologist Alfred Prince from making his findings about Factorate public by invoking a confidentiality clause in his contract, according to an internal corporate document obtained by the Inquirer.

PENTAGON BUNKER NOT NEEDED

From the October 7 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—The Defense Department has relinquished control of a once-secret underground bunker built during the Cold War to house members of Congress and their families during a nuclear attack. [How nice! And where the bunkers for You-the People? Oh, I see—expendable.] The structure is deep beneath the West Virginia Wing of The Greenbrier, a posh mountain resort in White Sulphur Springs. The government gave up its lease July 31, according to a letter from Assistant Secretary of Defense Emmett Paige Jr. that was released by Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va. [You remember Senator Byrd—the "little guy" who was Cathy O'Brien's first owner as a a Monarch mind-controlled slave? Do you think the Pentagon gave up the lease because it believes the Cold War is over?? Or because it has completed a bigger and better facility? (Check one)]

TEXAS COTTON FARMERS LEARN THE HARD WAY

From the October 10 issue of THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, [quoting:]

Clifford Smith shamefully admits being one of 831 Rio Grande Valley cotton farmers who approved a program to eradicate the boll weevil that ravages their crops. Now he is leading the effort to eradicate the program itself, blaming the spraying for a different insect blight. The problem is that a different insect took over where the boll weevil left off and laid waste to cotton fields, costing farmers millions in losses and the federal government millions in insurance payouts. U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists said last month that widespread spraying with malathion also killed the good bugs that eat boll weevils and other pests. [Mother Nature is no fool! We just keep shooting ourselves in the foot with our "War on (poverty, drugs, violence, bugs)" mentality. We'd be making progress if we analyzed the problem intelligently first!]

JUDGE HENRY WOODS AND THE LONG ARM OF THE LAW

Did you wonder how Governor Jim Guy Tucker managed to have three of his indictments thrown out? It helps to know the right people! The following is excerpted from a lengthy article that appeared in the September 18-24 issue of THE WASHINGTON TIMES, NATIONAL WEEKLY EDITION. It is written by Jim Johnson, former member of the Arkansas General Assembly, the 1966 Democratic nominee for governor and a retired elected justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court, [quoting:]

U.S. District Judge Henry Woods, the author of that extraordinary decision to throw out three of the 14 indictments of Gov. Jim Guy Tucker of Arkansas, a decision that astonished his judicial colleagues for his breathtaking disregard of the law, is nothing if not consistent with his record of public service. The stakes are huge, and the Clintons and their friends are pulling out every stop as the Whitewater investigation moves into its most critical stage.

The wording of the independent counsel's commission is clear and unambiguous: "The independent counsel shall have jurisdiction and authority to investigate other allegations or evidence or violation of any federal criminal law...by any person or entity developed during the independent counsel's investigation referred to above, and connected with or arising out of that investigation."

Only a star natal idiot could actually misunderstand that language, and Henry Woods is not a star natal idiot. Henry Woods, 77, knows what he wants and he is determined to get it. He is among the closest of all confidants of President Clinton and the first lady, Hillary Rodham Clinton. In 1990, when Mr. Clinton was making plans to run for the presidency, Judge Woods urged a movement to draft Mrs. Clinton to run for governor herself, to allow her husband to be undisturbed in his contemplation of the highest office. Last November, on the most crucial night of the Clinton presidency, Judge Woods was a special overnight guest at the White House to help with monitoring the mid-term election returns. Henry has a long history of monitoring election returns in Arkansas. This close and intimate association should have been more than enough to persuade a judge, eager to uphold justice and to cultivate public confidence in the judiciary, to recuse himself. But he would not. He understands, better than almost anyone else, that Jim Guy Tucker is a crucially important player in the Whitewater drama now playing out. Keeping Mr. Tucker out of prison is the key to saving Bill and Hillary from being washed away as Whitewater reaches flood tide. [You get the picture.]

STATE OF NEVADA WILL BACK FEDS IN NYE SUIT

The August 8 issue of CONTACT featured "Public Lands at Issue: Nye County, Nevada", an article by Rick Martin on states' rights vs. federal land ownership. The next article, from the October 19 issue of the LAS VEGAS REVIEW JOURNAL, provides follow up, [quoting:]

The state of Nevada is siding with the federal government in a lawsuit against Nye County over who controls Nevada's public lands. The attorney general's office on Wednesday filed its response to the litigation, filed earlier this year by the U.S. government, saying that Nye County commissioners had interfered with the management of federally owned lands.

Attorney General Frankie Sue Del Papa, who grew up in Nye County, said that while Nevada has significant interests in its public land, including management and use authority, the state does not have an "enforceable claim to title over federal lands." Nevada, she said, is the only state with a law on the books that seeks to remove Congress from trusteeship over the land in question. Known as the Sagebrush Rebellion statutes, the laws were enacted in 1979 despite warnings from the Legislative Counsel Bureau that long-standing legal precedent would prevail should the issue be tried in the courts.

The attorney general's response came the same week that Nye County Commissioner Richard Carver, a leader in the so-called county supremacy movement, made the cover of Time magazine. The article details Carver's 1994 brush with the U.S. Forest Service in which he bulldozed open a road within a national forest. The action was a defining point in the current standoff. Time's report also highlights recent acts of violence against federal officials in Nevada and concludes that Carver's message is a warning to presidential hopefuls that "something has come unfastened in the West, and everybody has guns." Neither Carver nor attorney John Howard, one of the attorneys representing Nye County, could be reached Wednesday. Nye County District Attorney Robert Beckett's office said he had not seen the state's filing and could not respond.

Ed Presley, who heads a local research organization that supports Nye County, said that he hoped the state's inclusion would give (Nevada) the opportunity to go to the heart of the matter." Presley said there have been problems within the Nye defense team and legal bills threaten the county's case. A statement issued last week by Nye County Manager William Offutt said Presley "does not now represent, nor has he ever represented Nye County in any manner."

Both Presley and Del Papa said the current litigation could be affected by a recent federal court decision out of Reno by U.S. District Judge David Hagen involving the same issue. Hagen ruled against Ruby Valley rancher Cliff Gardner, who challenged ownership of public lands. Presley said he would prefer the Gardner case, which is now before the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, decide the issue because "there are no politics involved."

Del Papa said in a statement that Nye County "acted rashly when it bulldozed roads through Forest Service lands." "Unfortunately, many people speaking for and advising Nye County are not Nevadans and don't share our values," the statement said. "I think they have a narrow political agenda and their objective is to place public lands into the private ownership of a few people."

At a news conference, Del Papa said she questioned the motives of the "out-of-state folks coming in and telling you how to do it, where to do it and when to do it." Del Papa said that while the Nye County suit raised legitimate legal issues, the proper forum for the fight over public lands is Congress, where "leaders and citizens in the state have an opportunity to discuss the merits and ramifications" rather than a courtroom.

The case has been argued before U.S. District Judge Lloyd George in Las Vegas, but a decision is weeks away. [End of quoting.]

CONTACT reader Ed Presley faxed us his comments, [quoting:]

I (Ed Presley, National Director for the County Alliance to Restore the Economy and Environment [CAREE]), am amazed at the indifference Nevada's Attorney General has for the one arrow she has in her midst to launch at the feds. Her quickness to surrender the 87% treasured assets to the central government and participate in creating an advantaged Court against the Citizens is a call to have a suit brought to mandate her to do the job she was elected to do. Enforce and defend the laws of the great State of Nevada with all vigor that is within her power. Not to steal away the obligation of the federal judge to determine the Constitutional status of a Nevada law.

An interesting note, Frankie is quoted: "...Nevada has significant interest in its public land, including management and use authority, the state does not have an 'enforceable claim to title over federal lands'."

To wit, I would respond: "If these are federally owned lands making up 87% of the state, then the supreme power over such is vested in the central government 'without limitation', Kleppe v. New Mexico (her favorite case law authority). Furthermore, do not waste Nevada taxpayer dollars trying to fight the nuke dump or any other garbage deposit New York or any other state may want to put in a federal WORLD landfill here in Nevada, instead of a barge floating in the Atlantic Ocean. The AG's statement is imbedded deeply in circular reasoning and contradiction. If Del Papa does not enforce Nevada Ownership law on the books and litigates in the future against the federal government in the nuke waste dump issue, I will do what can be done to find an attorney to file amicus briefs in opposition to Nevada's position and in support of the supreme power vested in the federal government to control its own property. 87% of the Diminished Colony of Nevada!

U.N. BASH SPAWNS SECURITY SUPER-ALERT

It's Halloween time, the Shuttle's up, and world "leaders" are gathered in New York to celebrate their success in perpetrating the United Nations scam for the past 50 years. Here's the first report on the latter, [quoting]

NEW YORK—Presidents and premiers from around the world sat down together to dine and offer toasts to peace [their definition, of course] Saturday night in a citadel of American finance, kicking off a four-day celebration of the 50th anniversary of the United Nations. Outside the World Financial Center, site of Saturday's gala dinner, hundreds of city police and federal agents wrapped a security blanket around the downtown Manhattan district. They had rooftop anti-sniper teams, bomb-sniffing dogs and police boats on the nearby Hudson River at their disposal.

"Many in America are questioning the role of the United Nations," master of ceremonies Henry A. Kissinger said, but "The United Nations has played a useful, sometimes decisive role in maintaining the peace." [If things are so darned peaceful, why the need for the security super-alert?]

LEADERS QUESTION MESSENGER

Oh? "Leaders" (???) question God's Messenger? Which one? Me, Mine, Farrakhan, Farrakhan's, God Himself, Christ (Jesus, among others?) or do YOU misspeak?

Dharma, for instance, has before her a document (one of many copies of same) which acclaims her as an evil leader. Leader? She hardly leaves her basement computer, i.e.: [QUOTING:]

Sept. 28, 1995

To Whom it May Concern;

Due to the vicious lies, manipulation and transgressions by Doris and E.J. Ekker, also spy Charles Neil, to have the Rod Ence family evicted from the ranch, please remove my name from your Contact list. Also include the tape list, journals and Gaia products, as I can no longer support an operation under such evil leadership as Doris and E.J. Ekker.

Thank you,
Robert E. Rhoads
P.O. Box 60
Victor, MT. 59875 [END OF QUOTING]

[Editor's note: Again, see E.J. Ekker's measured response to this letter on page 5.]

This happens to also be the father of Mrs. Rod Ence. THE ONLY REASON ROD ENCE WAS NOT ASKED TO VACATE THE "RANCH" (a 160-acre research farm) TWO-AND-A-HALF YEARS AGO IS BECAUSE OF DORIS AND E.J. EKKER. The farm has been a continuing downhill failure since the Ences took the helm. They were provided with every living need FREE, given gifts, helped to get onto "assistance" and PAID, through their Corporation, full salary. In turn the Sunshine Valley Farms got billed and paid for all costs, repairs, a pickup truck provided, and was even charged for such things as a graduation pizza party for family and friends wherein the guests OVERPAID for the costs—in addition. Sunshine Valley Farms is NOW bankrupt and there was no "eviction"; the Ences were given a typical 30-day vacate notice. Meanwhile the Ekkers and "spy" Charles Neil were working as quickly as possible to make arrangements to shift Rod into the upcoming Jojoba operation being moved to Tehachapi.

The farm ran out of operation funds in JUNE at which time "I" asked to close it down and save the milling operation to cover the lease until expiration so the milling equipment wouldn't be lost. Is this BAD leadership? Yes, the farm should have closed down in the Spring when the crops were already a total failure and the farm growing nothing but massively and superbly-growing weeds.

Ences sold Dharma's and her son's exotic birds, the farm fowl, and even took the provided chicken feed left over (some half-ton). Much of the equipment and tools are missing and the Institute is out over $20,000 run through to Rod Ence for equipment (tractor, etc.) which he has taken to auction. Fine, he had found the investor for the equipment and chose this routing to protect his interests. This is not really good, however, for either the lender OR proper management of his corporation which he now plans to "abandon" with all outstanding debts. So, is this bad and evil "leadership"? Theft and trashing a place is a CHOICE! Sabotage is a CHOICE; blaming others for your own sins is a CHOICE—ROD MADE THE CHOICES!

And "spy Charles Neil"? Well, Charles is co-manager of the Farm in point and IS the senior "operative" of Sunshine Valley Farms who operates the property. You know, readers, the one with the nasty job of making a project WORK and, in this instance, about four projects. I can only suggest to Mr. Rhoads that "your daughter(s) and grandchildren are in trouble."

Then came the following unattached to the above [QUOTING:]

(A thought from Robert J. Peters on ignorance:)
Cdr:

As you know, a thought came to me to pass on.

Ignorance is not knowing, while acting incorrectly. When you know the truth and still act ignorantly, that is called stupidity... God provides truth... Are we accepting it and acting on it? This is a free will world but we do reap what we sow. So be it.

I AM that I AM. Please keep up the good work and good word; the truth is needed for a weary world and its ignorant inhabitants. (Well, yes, that includes me.)

Bob [END OF QUOTING]

Dharma and E.J. came to this place to RETIRE. ALL others came later and have all but destroyed them. They did not offer to "LEAD" anything or anyone. They have been "trapped" within God's service to get a given job accomplished. I get no complaints from them and 154 journals and years of 24-hour-service-a-day is all accepted with the promise of "soon there will be relief". They have lost every bit of property they owned, have spent hundreds of hours in court and have had to salvage the Institute from its own founder. They do not call this "leadership"; they call it responsibility and, further, a responsibility they detest, abhor and find to be an abominable burden in such as the Ence/Enz incident.

From where do the MAGICAL funds come? Well, they surely have NOT come from the agreed-upon sources. In fact, I am asking that a note from Ron Carlson to "Ronn (Jackson) & Friends" be run in this writing, by ones here who are being accused of hiding funds which have "arrived from Jackson". No, readers, nothing has arrived from Jackson except more promises. Perhaps he shall keep them—I hope so, but remember: we do not know the "contract of another". It seems Ron has appended his note to a page of one of my earlier writings and it is a good reminder of that which I have said for it comes back that I somehow advise great things and terrible things and I am most often misquoted. I will repeat a portion that is underlined by Mr. Carlson: "There are ALTERNATIVES to EVERY

If you NEVER have to say "I'm Sorry" to God—then surely you will not be plagued with having to say same to another man. He also underlined another sentence FROM me to ALL: "I am not happy when you TAKE MY SPACE and demand of me and mine that your will be done. I DO GOD'S WILL—NONE OTHER!"

Ron Carlson and his team have done more for freedom and government change than any other parties that I see—in proper structuring. I mean no disrespect, and I have great loss of faith in the entire aspects you present. Until we can communicate toe to toe, nose to nose, without anger, fear, or intimidation, with seeking justice and truth as true intent, we are all lost!

I have called and missed you all recently as a rule. Credibility of mission is in breakdown, and I know why now.

We do here that which we can and beyond that we can do no more. The interesting thing, however, is that we get a "blast" from a given reader or one such as from Mr. Rhoads with a stop page of information flow BACK TO THEM. Interesting to consider who may be the Evil parties. (???) How can you gain knowledge IF YOU STOP THE FLOW OF INFORMATION? IF YOU EVER FELT THE INFORMATION WORTHY OF YOUR ATTENTION—WHAT CHANGED? IS IT THE MESSAGE, OR THE MESSENGER, OR YOU?

I HAVE KEPT MY AGREEMENTS WITH ONE, RONN JACKSON—IT IS HIS TURN NOW! I DID NOT PUT "CONDITIONS" ON MY PERFORMANCE AND WE GOT HIS RELEASE—WHAT ARE ALL THE "CONDITIONS" ON HIS PERFORMANCE? HE HAS PROMISED TO SHOVE ALL THOSE "HEADS" WHERE THE SUN DON'T SHINE BUT SO FAR ALL WE HAVE ARE PAINFUL DEBTS AND SCARS FROM THE MESSENGER IN POINT. INDEED HE CAN ACCOMPLISH WHAT HE HAS STATED BUT HE CANNOT GET OUT OF HIS OWN WAY LONG ENOUGH TO GET IT DONE!

LOOKING AT OTHER OBJECTIONS

I want to share some other "objections" about our writings, i.e., comments on the Kol Nidre of Jewish YOM KIPPUR. In my opinion anyone can do anything they want to do. I write and CONTACT prints some of my writings. The Jews denounce every one's "other" choices of "religion" and bash every "other" type of living standard—why do you quiver and shake in your boots when you speak out in historical documentation of their attitudes? YOU ARE CONTROLLED, READERS, TOTALLY CONTROLLED BY THE ELITE MEDIA AND THEIR OWN PUPPET-MASTERS.

Why will such as the "marchers" to Washington prevail in their search for Godness and throw off their shackles? Because the true shield of GOD will hold—

YOM KIPPUR, DAY OF ATONEMENT TO BE MARKED HERE BY SPECIAL SERVICES

The St. Augustine Record, Saturday, Sept. 30, 1995.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, will be celebrated here this coming week by members of both the Congregation Sons of Israel and Temple Bet Yam.

The Sons of Israel worship at the synagogue on Cordova Street, and Temple Bet Yam has services at 2487 State Road 3, St. Augustine Beach.

Yom Kippur is described as the most solemn day of the Jewish calendar. Because penitence, prayer and charity can alter evil, the day is spent in fasting, praying and committing oneself to a worthy cause.

Kol Nidre (all vows) is recited before sundown on the eve of Yom Kippur. This is a declaration that all vows and promises made by man to God and to himself during the past year which have been overlooked shall be null and void.

Excerpts from the prophets are read on Yom Kippur, and Ne'ilah is the final service of the observance. It is said just before sundown when the gates of heaven close. It is the Jewish belief that the gates of heaven are open especially during the 10 days of Penitence to receive the prayers of all people.

At Congregation Sons of Israel, Rabbi Samuel Cywick, spiritual leader of the synagogue for four years, will lead services. He came to St. Augustine from Caracas, Venezuela, where he was chief rabbi for many years. He was presented the Order of Francisco de Miranda for effective community services by two presidents of that country. This is the highest civilian honor which could be bestowed on an individual.

The schedule of services for Congregation Sons of Israel this coming week begins with a memorial service at 11 a.m.

GAIA PRODUCTS

Why do "I" feel qualified to continue to give "health" warnings and information on such as Gaiandriana, GaiaCleanse, GaiaCol, etc? Because I DEVELOPED THEM; I brought the Drias from "Off Shore" and I KNOW WHAT TO USE!

For you who have complementary packages at the request of CONTACT—we really don't appreciate greatly your asking and then not using them while proceeding to advise "everybody" that they don't work. YOU DO NOT KNOW OF WHAT YOU SPEAK.

We now have several requests from users who have sent drawings and described a most despicable "death accomplishing" parasite which is being passed by many of you nice readers who "wouldn't have parasites". I ask that Grandma's drawing be put in here [see right] along with her question to Rick about, "What in the hell is this?!" The "thing" is 8 INCHES in length and the protruding "arms" have hooks (as in the "bovine/equine hookworm") and reproduce with each "arm". The "arms" are individual entities which "hook" onto the surface of wherever they are and multiply.

Grandma will recall a contamination (intentionally done) to their water supply—well, here is one of the results—and these babies carry ALL SORTS OF BACTERIAL VIRUSES. Is this a "bad" term? No, you now have bacterial viruses and VIRUSES WITH THEIR OWN BACTERIA. THIS IS WHY I DETEST HAVING TO SPEND TIME ON SUCH AS THE ABOVE NON-SENSE OF PERSONAL NATURE—YOU NEED INFORMATION ON CELLULAR LIFE AND WHAT IS HAPPENING TO YOU.

The drawing is pretty representative of the Strongyloides papillosus crossed with a Bunostomum phebatomum (hookworm) and a giant liver fluke which grows rapidly to 100 mm long and then will continue to grow until TREATED and killed. This is called Fascioloides Magna. This CROSS-BREED is INTRO-

Wednesday, and Yiskur is at approximately 11 a.m., with Mincha at 4 p.m.

Temple Bet Yam (Temple by the Sea), a reform Jewish congregation, will have Kol Nidre service at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday; and Wednesday at 10 a.m., the service continues, with memorial and concluding services at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

A community break-fast follows the concluding. For further information on this, call 471-9994.

So much for parasites; let us look at such as HAARP, GWEN, MRY (x-ray laser) and mind control, cloning, elemental transmutation, alchemy, etc. All these things are fully integrated and related one to the other. We have a reader who has asked about these things for he just got two free newspaper (CONTACT) articles sent to him from "somewhere" dealing with mind control. I can only suggest you go back and get back copies for I have no time nor inclination to repeat the volumes of work on these topics. He does close his letter with: [QUOTING:]

Response: Get right with GOD and hang on for all you are worth—for it is the ONLY shielding left at your disposal and which cannot be altered by Earth physical tamperings.

WHAT IS IN A NAME?

Specifically, the demand is: "What is in YOUR name, Hatonn?" Well, readers, the "H" is silent when spoken as is the final "n". It is pronounced "Aton" and perhaps you might refer to Mr. Louis Eugene Walcott (now recognized as Mr. Farrakhan) for further definition of the label, along with material about my scribe of ancient Egypt, Akhnaton. We don't butt into much but when we do so—it is only to respond to great outcry for intervention—like keeping the "March" on Washington free of the bloodbath planned to be put onto CNN screens throughout the world. But, a funny thing happened, didn't it? There was NO BLOODBATH; there was only GOD and peaceful atonement (Atonment) (GOD DECLARATION). THE SHUTTLE DIDN'T LAUNCH AND THE HAARP AND GWEN SYSTEMS COULD NOT, THEREFORE, DESTROY THE SCENE.

Does Mr. Farrakhan know me? ABSOLUTELY! HE JUST DOESN'T YET RECOGNIZE OR KNOW MY RESOURCES OR RECEIVERS. You and everyone on Earth can "turn/tune me out"—but it changes not one iota of the truth of it. I AM THAT YOU MAY BE—AND I ENJOY MY WORK AND IF YOU WANT MIRACLES—GO LOOK AT THE BOOB-TUBE AS THE ENEMY TRIES DESPERATELY TO BREAK DOWN THE BEAUTY AND WONDER OF THE MIRACLE ON THE MALL IN WASHINGTON D.C. ON OCT. 16, 1995. P.S.: There were 2 million, 106 thousand, and 19 people present. This does NOT include the multitudes of 'ALIENS' PRESENT!!—nor the politicians who walked back and forth giggling from the "balcony" behind the speakers. I suggest that HE WHO LAUGHS LAST MIGHT WELL HAVE THE VICTORY! Moreover, it is we who do not take the Kol Nidre but accept our truthful responsibilities WHO shall prevail. We bring TRUTH; we do not take an OATH TO LIE AND ABSOLVE OURSELVES OF TRUTH, VOID OUR OATHS OR COP-OUT UNDER THE GUISE AND SHROUD OF CALLING ON GOD WHILE LYING THROUGH OUR PROVERBIAL TEETH—WE WALK WITH GOD. Care to come along?? By the way—if not another issue of CONTACT is ever presented—IT HAS DONE ITS JOB. But, I "prophesy" that it shall continue in some manner for it is ordained that it be so. Dharma served me well in Akhnaton's time and she serves me well now. She is NOT your leader, not your dump-ground—she is MY SECRETARY and RECEIVER. If you do not "like it"—t-u-f-f! YOU are going to witness more and more the HAND OF GOD at work—and "you ain't seen nuthin' yet!" These robotoid offspring of Satan are going to perish at their OWN HANDS AND TOYS! HOW MANY WILL THEY TAKE WITH THEM? OODLES AND GOBS! IT IS UP TO YOU WHERE YOU GO.

And, to you who TRY and are thwarted in your efforts to bring some Light into the lives of others and continue to learn and grow on your own—I can only say, "Release it and let them go." God is not of FORCE. When children are involved the "loss" is indeed seemingly great—but remember, you have to "accept that which you cannot change" and you "must have wisdom enough to know the difference". There are FAR MORE enemies than there are friends in truth, good buddies, and when you know as much—you can more easily choose your own responsible pathway. Ones, by the way, who simply choose the easy "being" way—are in pretty serious trouble also, for man is judged by HIS ACTS AND HIS INTENT AND IF HIS INTENT IS ONLY TO "BE", HE IS NOT GOING TO PROVE MUCH WITH HIS ACTIONS—IS HE? By the way—kissing trees will often only merit you "bark parasites". You can LOVE all things without doing silly diddle-de-doods or screwing around with your pleasures and stupid disease-acquiring activities. LOVE is WHOLE in itself and is a SPIRITUAL EXPRESSION WITHIN—there isn't any way to PROVE it through your stupid and insipid misuse of physical "stuff".

Don't give me "unconditional love" as your excuse for your behaviors—GOD IS TOTALLY "CONDITIONAL" AND "ABSOLUTE" LOVE! DO NOT CONFUSE THE TWO TERMS. FOR A GODLY PERSON TO ACCEPT SATAN AND HIS GAMES, IS IN ITSELF EVIL. NOW, YOU DO THAT WHICH YOU WILL AND THAT WHICH YOU CHOOSE BUT I AM CLOSING DOWN ON THE ONES WHO TAKE OUR TIME AND BASH MY PEOPLE FROM THEIR OWN IGNORANCE, FOOLISHNESS, STUPIDITY, OR WHATEVER YOU WISH TO CALL IT. I SHALL BEGIN, HOWEVER, TO RESPOND IN KIND AND IN TRUTH—AS TO SUCH AS GREEN, RHOADS, ENCE/ENZ—WHOMSOEVER OFFERS LIES IN THE FACE OF TRUTH. I have no input into your personal choices or actions—but you shall not longer bury the FACTS IN GARBAGE. We have to move through these experiences ONCE—to learn the lessons necessary for the passage—but ONCE IS SURELY ENOUGH AND MORE THAN ONCE IS A LONG WAY PAST ACCEPTABLE.

"But what about such as Green and, for goodness sakes, a Bo Gritz?" you continue to ask. Why? Green is a fraud, it appears, and is reported to be an insipid liar and government stooge. Bo Gritz is reported, and it is claimed to be proven, to be a liar and a government paid agent who was into the inner knowings and workings of the CIA drug operations—and is an infiltrator into the "supremist", "separatist" and "PATRIOT" network. True or false? Judge actions and see for yourselves!! We report what we are given—no more and no less. I can't imagine why they continue to delve into MY BUSINESS—I prefer to have a total absence of both, with their attachments, in my life-stream. YOU do what you want to do—both still make seminars and

YOU GO SEE WHAT YOU HEAR AND GET FROM THEM. I can tell you this much: there are some VERY ANGRY AUTHORS whose work has been stolen—and this has NOTHING to do with journals. George is apparently making money off the "others" he has scammed—but he is purely CHOKING on the journals he took hostage and the misery he is apparently having returned to his door-yard. THAT too remains his business and YOURS. We attend OURS to the best of our ability in physical response to physical actions.

PHOTON BELT

I am asked by my friend at America East if I am interested in the information on the "Photon Belt" as presented by Virginia Essene and Sheldon Nidle. NO THANK YOU. You are IN the Photon Belt—you just can't "see" the rays. HOWEVER, IT WILL INTENSIFY TREMENDOUSLY AND YOU ARE GOING TO HAVE THE UNLUCKY EXPERIENCE OF PROBABLY HAVING THE RADIATION BELT AROUND YOUR PLANET IGNITED. THIS IS GOING TO BE A VERY "BRIGHT" DAY FOR ABOUT THREE FULL DAYS. OR, THE PHYSICAL HAPPENINGS OF THE GLOBE WILL CAST YOU INTO A "WINTER" OF DARKNESS WHEREIN NO ELECTRONIC OR ELECTRIC GEAR WILL "WORK". THESE ARE FACTS, I AM NOT INTERESTED IN PARAPSYCHOLOGISTS' INPUT. There is NOTHING mystical about the very PHYSICAL (PHYSICS) HAPPENINGS. The book You Are Becoming A Galactic Human is whatever YOU want it to be. I personally would not pay ten cents for it. You people are going to get with REALITY or you are going to fall into the traps positioned along your pathway. The Photon Belt is a normal happening which rolls around regularly in the Solar system. You are in the fringes; I suspect about year 2011 you will find great, great reaction to the solar waves (peaking). Yes indeed, I still recommend that you have the DARK-EST light-glasses or goggles that you can obtain and keep them close—because in the event of the ignition (which is planned for you after the Elite go underground for their own protection) there will be blindness throughout the planet. More than this, however, is that your own military arsenals contain portable equipment that can produce the same thing to an oncoming army and get everyone in the group. Planes are falling out of the sky every day now, due to the playing with these light rays through the blinding of pilots who are both blinded and "stunned" mentally into incapacity of function.

Is it not time for YOU to GROW UP? YOU HAVE REACHED THE END OF CHILDHOOD, WORLD.

I salute my team for tasks WELL DONE, for the spark of freedom has been shown as a viable flame and we shall nurture it until it brightens the entire planet that perhaps you may again achieve your place of brightness in the Cosmos. You have been dark too long. Salu.

CONTACT: The Phoenix Project

CONTACT is a unique and inspired newspaper for concerned citizens everywhere, though it particularly focuses on the United States because of this country's special mission in the affairs of the world. That is, "As goes the United States, so goes the world."

CONTACT is a vehicle for Commander Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn's most recent writings on important current affairs, plus those from other enlightening sources, on matters critical to a responsible and informed public at this time of planetary transition and final days of battle between the Forces of Light and the "Evil Empire" forces of darkness.

CONTACT exists to counteract the manipulating lies and clever half-truths put out (on purpose) by the regular print and broadcast media prostitutes of the Satanic Elite controllers—parasites who are in the process of economically, physically, and spiritually collapsing this once great country (and actually the entire planet) down to a slave-state level of existence under their diabolical control plan called The New World Order.

This newspaper, CONTACT, began life on March 30, 1993, risen, like the mythical bird, with great determination "up from the ashes" of its internationally acclaimed predecessor called THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR.

THE PHOENIX LIBERATOR, in turn, began life in mid-October of 1991, having evolved from an earlier newsletter called the PHOENIX JOURNAL EXPRESS, which itself came into existence as a faster way to get THE TRUTH out to you readers than was possible with the more substantial "book" format of the PHOENIX JOURNALS. Much incredible ground has been covered so far in that mission.

While the PHOENIX LIBERATOR's motto reminded all that "The Truth Will Set You Free", the CONTACT's motto, displayed prominently in the masthead, takes that thought another important step forward and proclaims: "Ye Shall Know The Truth And The Truth Shall Make You Mad!"

The "Phoenix Project" is about those preparations needed—at body, mind and soul levels—to both understand and survive the great healing changes which are beginning to energize this beautiful little planet, now so frazzled and tortured from abuses of all kinds. We look forward, with great expectations, to the CONTACTING with all of you—a coming together that is rapidly taking place as the entire Phoenix Project "ground crew" continues to connect, solidify, and gain strength through becoming informed of THE TRUTH. Indeed, welcome aboard, friends!

GODS, DEMIGODS, DEMAGOGS AND DECEPTION

I am called everything from the Brotherhood leader of evil to a God of Creation. I AM NOT GOD—I AM OF GOD. What you call me is none of my business!! What I AM is MY business. However, what I AM is OF GOD of Life sent in representation of His attendance TO YOU. Therefore, I SHARE my being that you might grow and learn through and from that which is at present beyond your expression, but not necessarily your experience. YOU create or allow the flourishing of any and all of the above headlined perceptions.

Have you ever considered "things" as to their beauty or their tackiness? Let us look at what appears perhaps to be a barren desert. Ah, but is it barren? No, for where there is life there is that invisible energy of LIFE. Even the shadows become alive in the still places of light and shadow. However, to maintain and sustain life in a desert there must be care given in preparation for the things each life-form must have or perish. Do you take off for the snow-covered mountains of winter with the same things you would find necessary to survive in the Sahara Desert?

People go about their lives as if there is nothing which can impact them save the "daily grind". Why are we considered "fear mongers" when we warn you to put aside provisions against an emergency? How does it come that the ones of mankind can create wars and plagues and we ask you to consider preparations for emergencies and WE ARE THE FEAR MON- GERS? Then, following an emergency in which lives are lost and death comes, OR YOUR TRINKETS AND GOLD ARE LOST, it is asked, "Why has God done this to me?"

GOD doesn't DO anything TO you. God in infinite wisdom allows you choices for which HE then causes you to have to stand responsible for same. If your choices are wise, you revel in your newly found wisdom and success of self-respect. When you act in foolishness, the lack of wisdom is witnessed, for all the repercussions of vanity and silliness cannot be totally hidden.

It is often said to me that your demand for forgiveness is because I am somehow more perfect than you and because of such stature I must forgive, forget, bless and abide a continuation of the foolishness. No thank you. There is nothing to forgive, it is stupid to forget, and why should I or anyone bless you for ignorance and misbehavior? Why must I abide enemies in my own home? And by the way, chelas, AGE is no excuse, save as an infant. I don't like the elderly trying to get away with a shifting of responsibility because they have somehow lived without learning, at the least, manners in the growing processes. He who takes the simplest thing of another because he feels he somehow deserves it or passes the confusion to another and claims senility or whatever, is a loathsome character. If you grow old in your demand for a kingdom bowing at your robe hem, you are in TROUBLE. Perhaps it is time for some of you to look carefully at selves. Do you take something for self and then casually charge it to another? Do you take what is available when you need it, cast it aside when you don't need it—and then, if needed again, expect it to be there? How dare you!!

A LESSON IN TRUTH

Is it worthy to say unto God, "I am hungry, provide me with provisions!" It is alright to say this but I would certainly suggest you get off your honkers and LOOK for something to eat and drink. God operates through HIS children, HIS offspring, HIS creations. HE gave YOU the ability to attain the very highest station of perfection upon your plane—but, the highest level of expression is not met on your dimensional plane—for it is the Etheric Spirit of YOU which attends GOD. HE has created YOU to be separate, special, and independent from all others. Since HE operates through HIS children of which you are one, whether human or angelic ones, making each one interdependent with all others, and thus men or angels may have for helpers, each other, or perhaps only some animal brother. God takes note of a, say, drowning sailor, but unless some brother is there to rescue, he may well physically perish. God has no particular interest or favoritism for your housing. He does not often tempereth the wind to the shorn lambs—but he expects mankind who sheared the lambs to attend their plight if the weather be intemperate—either with heat or cold. HE might well even touch the heart of an observer unattached to the lambs who will cover them with shelter.

IT IS THROUGH THE MAINSPRINGS OF CHARACTER, BY OUR HEAVENLY CREATOR-FATHER IMPLANTED IN THE SOULS OF HIS CHILDREN, THAT HE EVER HELPS OR SAVES. PONDER UPON THIS CAREFULLY! So now you can consider this to be "mostly" true (for God often does perform that which appear to be miracles): that the physical body must pray with MUSCULAR ACTION if it would get an answer to its needs in physical form. The mind must pray through mental processes, and its answer will be in mental results. Spirit shall pray through its spiritual nature, and receive those values which are not perceptible to the natural mind. However, if the mind prayeth forever and that mind remain in the physical housing BUT DOES NO WORK, the results—save a brother acteth—shall not be for the body.

So, how shall that nice all-encompassing mind pray? By being in harmony with the Spirit! By casting aside the physical ego-controlling factor so that GOD CAN BE CONNECTED, AND THAT CONTROL OF SELF THROUGH THE WILL OF SELF, THAT IT INFRINGE NOT THE LAWS OF THAT WHOLENESS WHICH IS GOD.

If the mind is not connected to God of Lighted Truth it matters not how much you pray, for the prayers and more especially, the responses, will be intercepted by your enemy of LIFE.

Perhaps an example might be worth a thousand lectures: if you are sitting lotus-like in a cave on a hillside and you are starving to death while praying abundantly—perhaps it might be wise to hear that small, wee voice which says get up off your duff, grab your travois and haul your assets down the hill and work for a bit of food and shelter. EARTH IS NOT A FREE-LUNCH PLANET—IT IS A FREE-WILL PLANET. AND FURTHERMORE, YOU CANNOT BE A DWELLER ON TWO PLANETS—THE BEST YOU CAN EVER ACCOMPLISH ON "EARTH SHAN" IS TO BE A POSSIBLE DWELLER IN TWO DIMENSIONS—NOT TWO PLANETS.

So GOD sends messengers which you try to kill in every recognized manner. If you cannot kill them outright, you go about destruction in every other possible fashion. So be it for in the cycle's completion it is, after all, YOU who will receive the unhappiness. How many of you do not wait for God to supply that "BETTER" you have requested before you lash out, "getcha" and burn bridges—often beyond repair? And remember, when you are in a family unit—perhaps God is hearing the prayers of "another" and YOU are being a foolish nincompoop! Success and happiness come to those who meet their RESPONSIBILITIES IN MATURE, SELF-RELIABLE FASHION. GOD NEVER CLOSES A DOOR WITHOUT OPENING ANOTHER—TO A BETTER POSSIBILITY!

It is time, however, to look at messengers: Do you take ANOTHER'S messenger as your own—away from the original attendee? Are you sure? I would remind you of something very, very important. DO NOT WORSHIP THE MESSENGER OR THE TEACHER, BUT OUR CREATOR WHO SENT US. Remember that you are experiencing in the arena of an externalized idea of God in your flatland of experience and expression—GOD IS THE REALITY.

There is a most important factor to place into your abundant computer of knowing: when humankind comes into its KNOWING of HUMANITY—there can be no further dwelling on Earth as you now recognize it to be. When accomplishment is present you will experience elsewhere for, just as a child will outgrow a bassinet—so too does soul outgrow the bindings of a third-dimensional classroom.

The animal man must experience and work for the human man, and he for the Spirit man—the I AM. Thus only then does the ego have ability to progress through what is called "matter". It is not a sublime thought that such as reincarnation means transmigration of souls. The first leads man ever upward; the other—which is false, even in theory, merely a perverted notion of the first—might mean progress, but more often would mean retrogression, and in all this Universe there is no retrogression. Reincarnation is but a chance to expiate the errors of life, chiefest of which are not overcoming and containing SELF.

OPPOSING GOD OF CREATION

You think and act, act and think and find that which suits your most egotistical demands. You will even have ones telling you that there is unconditional love in which there are NO CONDITIONS. No, there is that which is appropriately CALLED by that label, perhaps, but it is not of GOD, for GOD IS ABSOLUTE LOVE, NOT UNCONDITIONAL ANYTHING. IF YOU WISH TO GROW AND MOVE BEYOND THE BINDINGS OF SOCIAL MANIFESTATION IN THIS WORLD OF MATTER, YOU MUST MEET THE CONDITIONS OF GOD!

What is perfection? Perfection within GOD reflects a "good" being, being in ABSOLUTE HARMONY with HIS infinite Creation. There is also "perfect EVIL". So, you can have "perfect men"—who reflect the "perfection" of the accepted human behavior. There are PERFECT EVIL BEINGS, WHICH LIKEWISE ARE NOT, NEVER WERE, NOR EVER WILL BE, "HUMAN" (Higher Universal MAN). What then, are these? They are in perfect harmony with the laws of their existence, but those laws and their conditions are absolutely opposed to ours, and to that which is GOOD. In the scheme of Creation, evil and good are quite evenly balanced.

What of SATAN? Well, he was an Angel of Light—FALLEN, and came to so much the greater fall in that his height was of such lofty status. He is a rebel, and out of harmony with those things of SOUL PROGRESSION. He is a trapper, of sorts, who captures your "sensing" manifestation and holds you bound as surely as any steel cage; then he binds the mind so that there is no realization of ability to change. If you can see or feel no "alternative possibilities" in your experiences—you are already TRAPPED. There are ALTERNATIVES to EVERY choice. AND TO EACH CHOICE THERE IS CHOICE OF ACTIONS—WISE OR FOOLISH!! Perhaps a good rule of thumb would be to live in such a manner as to NEVER HAVE TO SAY "I'M SORRY"—TO GOD. If you never have to say "I'm Sorry" to God—then surely you will not be plagued with having to say same to another man.

I find most of you trying to gain control of your lives through Neo-Tech or "Men are from Mars, Women are from Venus" rather than from any of the TRUTHS GOD OFFERS. Men are NOT from Mars and Women are NOT from Venus. Neo Tech is a simple and very self-centered way to get what YOU want from another who may not want what you perceive to be the WAY or the gain. I love it when all of you are going to TRAIN ME!

Many of you have MANY marriages—all of which failed because of the "failures of the other to fit your druthers!" Ponder it. Now that you have proven your ability to fail at such things—you want to solve every one else's misperceptions. You may be PERFECT in your perceptions—but most often it is "a perfect fool".

INTERPRET MY TEACHINGS

The next thing I find is that you choose books which support YOUR OPINION in the first place and feed those back with your interpretation. You don't keep up with what we write; you "just don't have time"—but I note you have unlimited time to solve everyone's problems according to your NOW VERY LIMITED INFORMATION. I welcome your input but you do not place your input onto me—but onto the ones who simply serve. Fine, but don't expect them to respond like a "God" of some perfect revelation. They, nor I, have asked for your guiding light from out your darkness. I live, exist and work from a level of etheric PERFECTION so I am rather amused and sometimes annoyed at primitive "peace settlers". You know, "make peace at all costs" because it makes YOU uncomfortable to function in your own little perceived limitations with unrest—even if you don't know a confounded thing about the problem.

WHEN YOU HAVE PERFECTED ALL RELATIONSHIPS WITHIN YOUR OWN BLOOD FAMILIES—THEN, AND ONLY THEN, SHALL YOU BE WELCOME TO RUN MINE. I AM NOT SOME "EASY" TASKMASTER WITH NOTHING TO DO EXCEPT SOOTHE RUFFLED FEATHERS OF THE FLEDGLINGS. I DO NOT SERVE A HATCHING FACTORY. MY BIRDS HAVE GOT TO FLY, FULLY FLEDGED AND IN TOTAL RESPONSIBILITY—FOR THE NEST ROBBERS ARE ON THE WING CIRCLING YOUR NESTS. If all you feel that all you need do is sit and be perfect while waiting for God to shower you with great wisdom—then the least you can do is get out of the way of those trying in spite of you to put aside provisions and prepare for negative possibilities. If, further, you have time to spend an hour or dozens of hours working out MY lessons—then you DO HAVE TIME TO STUDY YOURS!! If you can spend even twenty minutes vilifying my people and ME—on a telephone or over lunch—then you DO HAVE TIME TO LEARN THE FACTS AND THE TRUTH. YOU LIE TO SELVES IF YOU SPOUT OTHERWISE. BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY: IF YOU WANT TO HELP SOMEONE WITH MONEY—DO IT. BUT DON'T USE MINE—ESPECIALLY TO USE AGAINST ME OR MINE.

REMEMBER—SOMEONE IS ACCOUNTABLE

FOR EVERYTHING AND ANYTHING. IS IT NOT TIME YOU GOT A BIT MORE ACCOUNTABLE FOR SELF INSTEAD OF SUFFERING AROUND WITH "OTHERS"?

TOO MUCH

There is a lot being missed here but I weary of my words being taken out of context and presented twisted and warped, so we will speak of some of those things orally. I am happy to share and I am happy to have you welcomed into my "space". I am not happy when you TAKE MY SPACE and demand of me and mine that your will be done. I DO GOD'S WILL—NONE OTHER!

I requested that any who would attend my tea-break this day to bring with you all your venom and confrontations—for I am happy to confront and remove your stingers—and I do it for FREE! If you don't like my cookies GO EAT SOMEWHERE ELSE! Is this so hard to understand? Would I go to Sims' lamp shop and throw out his lamps, demand of his workers and "just take a lamp or two" because I like them or smash others because I don't like them? Do I make long-distance calls to "get him" because I disagree with his lamp-making and plead with people to not buy them and yet even to shun them while I also tell that they are inferior and a "lie"? I especially object when the lamps are just FINE but the ones running the lamps don't know enough to plug them into the electrical outlet! Especially when they got the lamps "FREE" in the beginning. I would never presume to even take a step inside his lobby without first being invited or welcomed IN ADVANCE!! And don't say in retort: "Well, you're different and I demand inclusion." No, I am NOT and you can continue to demand all you want—but you will not always continue to find pious graciousness for same. You who continue to play both ends against the middle—are going to end up SMASHED in that middle. You who burn both ends of your candle—will run out of fuel in the middle and never accomplish anything! Think about it.

If all you do is object to MY OPINION OF LIFE—and go forth on great arguments about same according to yours—WHY DO YOU ATTEND MINE IN THE FIRST PLACE? Do you think that arguing mine will make YOURS correct? If mine IS INCORRECT—why not just go forth and leave me and my opinions ALONE? WHY? Because YOU KNOW I am correct and all the arguing and bashing will change not one iota of it. You may think you are "drawn" here because of something physical like a market tip or something similar—or simply to be in the circle for making trouble and stirring interesting chaos. NO, you KNOW that I AM RIGHT! I, worse, make NO ACCOMMODATION TO YOUR DRUTHERS as to GOD AND TRUTH. That burns a lot of you but would you be not disappointed if I just said, "Fine, you are right, I am wrong—and Pigs is Pigs." BUT, "GETCHA" AND "FIXYA" ARE NOT NICE EFFORTS OR WORDS TO PULL ON ME! If you don't like me then STAY AWAY FROM ME! And, furthermore, I will promise to STAY AWAY FROM YOU—as far away as I can get—and that is A VERY LONG WAY! And when you ask God to fix something for you—REMEMBER, He sent me once—to YOU—and now, what do you think you may get instead?

It is quite simple deduction, readers and listeners—I KNOW THE WAY AND YOU DO NOT!! You will always find others who will promise you greatness and the way—BUT WILL YOU FIND IT AFTER ALL IS LAID BARE? It is actually even more simple than the foregoing: DENY ME AND I SHALL DENY YOU TO MY FATHER AND—ON THAT DAY OF CONFRONTATION—LET US SEE WHO KNOWS THE TRUTH OF LIFE AND JOURNEY! BY THE WAY: I HAVE NO OBLIGATION TO SHARE ANYTHING

May whatever force be with you—that you choose. But remember, the FORCE of my resources are the LIGHTED GOD'S PERFECTION—AND IN THE END GOD WINS!!!! You may well be allowed the "playing" in the game—BUT THE GAME IS GOD'S!
Salu.

A Letter From Kelly To CONTACT Readers

September 30, 1995

Dear CONTACT Readers,

Hello! It's me again. I am verys sorry that it has taken me so long to write again. Issues in my immediate situation have taken up a considerable amount of time. You may be pleased to know that I will be granted the presence of my mom on Tuesday, October 2nd.

Something I believe I forgot to mention in my last letter is that I am a very avid reader. I will read anything I can get my hands on—well, almost anything. For those who were wondering, I am allowed to receive any gift anyone would like to send. Unfortunately, I am no longer getting any mail that doesn't have return address or is addressed to my better name, Kelly Phillips. I think it's rather pointless and trivial, but you get used to things like that in my situation.

Thank you to everybody who has written and sent gifts of love. I really appreciate it. My apologies that I cannot write you each individually. I would have to lock myself in my room for a number of months, and then I still may not get all of the letters written. I regret that I must now close. I love you all very, very much!!

In LOVE and LIGHT,
Kelly Phillips

Demystifying The Grand Jury System

10/19/95 RICK MARTIN

Try asking a friend to explain the grand jury system to you. The odds are, they wouldn't be able to. Grand juries are cloaked in secrecy, which is by design. But in reality, almost no one knows about grand juries and the hows and whys under which they operate.

This week in Bakersfield, Calif., the county grand jury held an "open house" for the first time, which gave me an excellent opportunity to really find out, in detail, what the grand jury system is all about. And since the model for grand juries is the same across the land, let me explain it for you.

Grand juries have two primary functions. The first function of a grand jury is civil—to act as a "watchdog" which will objectively investigate, audit or examine all aspects of county government, and its cities, to insure that these bodies are being effectively governed and that public monies are being judiciously handled.

The grand jury may subpoena persons and/or records to obtain information on subjects under investigation.

The grand jury is sworn to complete confidentiality, as it pertains to complainants, witnesses or content of investigative matters. They may not disclose any information they receive within the confines of the jury or the identity of anyone appearing before them, unless permission is given.

The second function of a grand jury is the conducting of criminal hearings to hand down criminal indictments. It is an accusatory, not a trial jury. It may hold criminal hearings to weigh evidence brought before them by the District Attorney's office to determine if an individual should be charged with a crime, in which case an indictment would be returned upon an affirmative vote of at least twelve out of the nineteen jurors. If no indictment is returned, all records are kept secret. Few criminal cases are now heard by the grand jury since the accused still has the right to a preliminary hearing even if an indictment is returned. As in the case of civil investigations, all hearings pertaining to criminal cases are conducted in complete secrecy.

Grand juries consist of 19 members in counties with a population of less than four million. In counties with a population greater than four million, the grand jury consists of 23 members.

Before we explore further the inner workings of the grand jury system, let's go back historically and view the evolution of the general concept of a jury system.

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

While grand juries can be traced as far back as ancient Greece, let's hear what the late, great English Barrister Sir William Blackstone, K.T., has to say about the history of trial by jury in his 1915 classic, Commentaries on the Laws of England. Please keep in mind that some of the words and spellings are in the old English tradition. [Quoting:]

HISTORY OF TRIAL BY JURY

A trial that hath been used time out of mind in this nation, and seems to have been coeval with the first civil government thereof. Some authors have endeavored to trace the original of juries up as high as the Britons themselves, the first inhabitants of our island [England]; but certain it is that they were in use among the earliest Saxon colonies, their institution being ascribed by Bishop Nicholson to Woden himself, their great legislator and captain. Hence it is that we may find traces of juries in the laws of all those nations which adopted the feudal system, as in Germany, France and Italy, who had all of them a tribunal composed of twelve good men and true, "boni homines", usually the vassals or tenants of the lord, being the equals and peers of the parties litigant, and, as the lord's vassals judged each other in the lord's courts, so the king's vassals, or the lords themselves, judged each other in the king's court. In England we find actual mention of them so early as the laws of King Ethelred, and that not as a new invention. Stiernhook ascribes the invention of the jury, which in the Teutonic language is denominated nembda, to Regner, King of Sweden and Denmark, who was cotemporary with our King Egbert. Just as we are apt to impute the invention of this, and some other pieces of juridical polity, to the superior genius of Alfred the Great; to whom, on account of his having done much, it is usual to attribute everything, and as the tradition of ancient Greece placed to the account of their one Hercules whatever achievement was performed, superior to the ordinary prowess of mankind. Whereas, the truth seems to be that this tribunal was universally established among all the northern nations, and so interwoven in their very Constitution, that the earliest accounts of the one give us also some traces of the other. Its establishment, however, and use, in this island, of what date soever it be, though for a time greatly impaired and shaken by the introduction of the Norman trial by battle, was always so highly esteemed and valued by the people, that no conquest, no change of government, could ever prevail to abolish it. In Magna Carta it is more than once insisted on as the principal bulwark of our liberties; but especially by chapter 29, that no free-man shall be hurt in either his person or property; "nisi per legale iudicium parium suorum vel per legem terrae (unless by the lawful judgment of his peers)." And it was ever esteemed, in all countries, a privilege of the highest and most beneficial nature.

But I will not misspend the reader's time in fruitless encomiums on this method of trial: but shall proceed to the dissection and examination of it in all its parts, from whence, indeed, its highest encomium will arise; since the more it is searched into and understood the more it is sure to be valued. And this is a species of knowledge most absolutely necessary for every gentleman in the kingdom, as well because he may be frequently called upon to determine in this capacity the rights of others, his fellow-subject, as because his own property, his liberty and his life depend upon maintaining, in its legal force, the constitutional trial by jury. [End quoting.]

Using a far different source, let me quote what The World Book Encyclopedia has to say about the history of juries. [Quoting:]

The history of the jury goes back at least to the 800s. [Their researchers did not go back far enough.] The first juries were called inquests. They were used as a means of getting information about matters of common knowledge in the locality, such as the commission of crimes or the boundaries of the king's lands, which the judges might not know. This form was brought to England by the Normans in the 1000s.

By the end of the 1400s, the jury had come to be used much as it is used today, to decide questions of fact in criminal and civil trials. Trial by jury took the place of such ways of deciding cases as having two representatives fight in a trial by combat, with the winner of the fight winning the case.

The nature of a jury trial has undergone many changes. Originally, jurymen were shut up without food and drink until they reached a verdict. Sometimes, if they failed to agree, they were carted to the edge of the county and thrown into a ditch. Today, no one except the other members of a jury can urge any juror to come to an agreement. Jurymen were once witnesses, called because they had knowledge of the facts. Today, a juror who has special knowledge about the case is excused from serving on a petty jury. (A petit, or petty, jury is the ordinary trial jury.) It is important that jurors decide on the basis of evidence given in court.

The grand jury probably grew out of the Anglo-Saxon custom in the 1000s and 1100s of having twelve senior knights decide whether a man accused of wrongdoing should be freed or forced to submit to trial by ordeal or by combat.

The jury system was introduced into many countries of Europe in the 1800s, and later into many countries of South America. But these countries followed the French system, rather than the English. Under this system, the jury is used only in important civil cases, and in criminal trials. The verdict does not have to be unanimous. [End quoting.]

In a footnoted comment in Sir William Blackstone's Commentaries on the Laws of England, "It is, in fact, to the reign of Henry the Second that we owe the introduction of trial by jury; not, as Blackstone seems to suppose, by way of reviving ancient custom, but as a royal innovation, stoutly resisted by popular prejudice." [Jenks, in 4 Stephen's Comm. (16th ed.), 428.]

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The Constitution of the United States of America provides for the grand jury in the 5th Amendment, which reads:

Guaranty of Trial By Jury; Private Property To Be Respected

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Within the United States, the first grand jury was held in the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

Juries are further mentioned in the 6th and 7th Amendments:

6th Amendment: Rights Of Accused Persons

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which districts shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

7th Amendment: Rules Of The Common Law

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States than according to the rules of common law.

It is common knowledge that during construction of the Constitution there were many heated debates. The Federalist Papers represent many of the most articulate arguments regarding various aspects of the Constitution under consideration. In Federalist Paper

No. 83, Alexander Hamilton writes, [quoting:]

The excellence of the trial by jury in civil cases appears to depend on circumstances foreign to the preservation of liberty. The strongest argument in its favor is that it is a security against corruption. As there is always more time and better opportunity to tamper with a standing body of magistrates than with a jury summoned for the occasion, there is room to suppose that a corrupt influence would more easily find its ways to the former than to the latter. The force of this consideration is, however, diminished by others. The sheriff, who is the summoner of ordinary juries, and the clerks of courts, who have the nomination of special juries, are themselves standing officers, and, acting individually, may be supposed more accessible to the touch of corruption than the judges, who are a collective body. It is not difficult to see that it would be in the power of those necessary, than they might be if they had themselves the exclusive determination of all causes. [End quoting.]

Hamilton's concern is well taken, particularly in light of the fact that not only judges but grand juries constitute "standing bodies".

CONTEMPORARY GRAND JURY STRUCTURE

Who can be on the grand jury? A citizen, 18 years or older, who has been a resident of the county for one year immediately prior to being selected, and is of ordinary intelligence and good character, as well as having a working knowledge of the English language, and who has not served as a grand juror within one year is eligible to serve. No law degree or specific credentials are necessary to become a grand jury member.

How is a person selected to serve on the grand jury? Qualified citizens may submit their names to the Superior Court, and each of fifteen Superior Court Judges nominate four applicants.

Sixty nominees are then placed into a random drawing for 30 prospective jurors. The 30 prospective jurors then appear in court in June, which are then reduced by another random drawing to the final 19 and may include up to 10 "hold over" members of the previous grand jury.

The selected panel is sworn in, given a description of its duties and begins a one-year term on July 1.

In a statement from the (California) law book Cal Jur, "Each member of the grand jury is required to take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States and the California State Constitution, and all laws made in pursuance thereof and in conformity therewith; to diligently inquire into, and make true presentment, of all public offenses against the people of the state, committed or triable within the county, of which the grand jury has or can obtain legal evidence; to keep his or her own counsel, and that of fellow grand jurors and of the government, and not, except when required in the due course of judicial proceedings or authorized by statute, disclose the testimony of any witness examined before the grand jury or anything said by any grand juror, or the manner in which any grand juror may have voted on any matter before the grand jury; to present no person through malice, hatred, or ill will, or leave any person unrepresented through fear, favor, or affection, or for any reward or the promise or hope thereof; and to represent the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, according to the best of the juror's skill and understanding. It is presumed that a grand jury was regularly and legally sworn."

What is the time commitment for a juror? Citizens serving on the grand jury must be willing to spend the better part of three to four days a week with grand jury obligations, including jury and committee meetings, visits to facilities and personnel throughout the county.

officers to select jurors who would serve the purpose of the party as well as a corrupted bench. In the next place, it may fairly be supposed that there would be less difficulty in gaining some of the jurors promiscuously taken from the public mass, than in gaining men who had been chosen by the government for their probity and good character. But making every deduction for these considerations, the trial by jury must still be a valuable check upon corruption. It greatly multiplies the impediments to its success. As matters now stand, it would be necessary to corrupt both court and jury; for where the jury have gone evidently wrong, the court will generally grant a new trial, and it would be in most cases of little use to practice upon the jury unless the court could be likewise gained. Here then is a double security; and it will readily be perceived that this complicated agency tends to preserve the purity of both institutions. By increasing the obstacles to success, it discourages attempts to seduce the integrity of either. The temptations to prostitution which the judges might have to surmount must certainly be much fewer, while the co-operation of a jury is Jurors are paid a per diem fee plus mileage each day served.

The grand jury is divided into committees, each of which concentrates on investigations of certain governmental departments. The committees established by the grand jury include: ad hoc; administrative; audit/finance; continuity/tracking; coordination with cities; criminal justice/special investigations; education; health and welfare; procedures manual/editorial; public awareness and special districts.

Who can request a grand jury investigation? Any citizen, county and city official or employee may present complaints to the grand jury. They should be written, including specific information and/or allegations. The jury investigates possible felonies and charges of malfeasance (wrongdoing), misfeasance (a lawful act in an unlawful manner), and nonfeasance (failure to perform required acts by public officials).

All correspondence will be acknowledged; remain confidential; and all complainants will receive notification of the action taken by the grand jury.

How are results of grand jury investigations made public? At the end of its term, the grand jury issues a Final Report to the Presiding Judge. Portions of this document pertaining to investigation results during the year, may have been previously released to encourage actions on urgent matters. These reports, including findings and recommendations of each committee, are available to the general public and the media.

In the law book Cal Jur, comes the following statement under Criminal Law. [Quoting:]

Generally, no person is to be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury.

A grand jury is a body of the required number of persons returned from the citizens of the county before a court of competent jurisdiction, and sworn to inquire into public offenses committed or triable within the county. It is an investigatory and inquisitorial body of ancient origin, created for the protection of society and the enforcement of the law as an arm or agency of the court. The grand jury is a judicial body and an instrumentality of the courts of the state. Furthermore, it is a part of the court by which it is convened and is under that court's control. Thus, grand jurors are officers of the court.

An indictment is an accusation in writing, presented by the grand jury to a competent court, charging a person with a public offense.

The grand jury is authorized to proceed against a corporation. [End quoting.]

FUNCTIONS OF THE GRAND JURY

"The rules of legal interpretation are rules of common sense, adopted by the courts in the construction of the laws." [Alexander Hamilton, Federalist Paper No. 83.]

Once again, in Blackstone's Commentaries on the Laws of England, "The functions of the grand jury are so admirably stated by Mr. Justice Field, while on circuit, that an extended quotation is given from his charge to the grand jury in the United States circuit court." [Quoting further:]

You are summoned as grand jurors of the circuit court of the United States for the district of California, and the duties with which you are charged are of the highest importance to the due administration of justice. By the Constitution of the United States, no person can be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger. No steps, therefore, can be taken, with the exceptions mentioned, for the prosecution of any crime of an infamous character—and under that designation the whole series of felonies is classed—beyond the arrest, examination and commitment of the party accused, until the grand jury have deliberated and acted upon the accusation. Your functions are, therefore, not only as already stated, important; they are indispensable to the administration of criminal justice.

The institution of the grand jury is of very ancient origin in the history of England; it goes back many centuries. For a long period its powers were not clearly defined; and it would seem, from the accounts of commentators on the laws of that country, that it was at first a body, which not only accused, but which also tried public offenders. However this may have been in its origin, it was, at the time of the settlement of this country, an informing and accusing tribunal only, without whose previous action no person charged with a felony could, except in certain special cases, be put upon his trial. And in the struggles which at times arose in England between the powers of the king and the rights of the subject, it often stood as a barrier against persecution in his name; until, at length, it came to be regarded as an institution by which the subject was rendered secure against oppression from unfounded prosecutions of the crown.

In this country, from the popular character of our institutions, there has seldom been any contest between the government and the citizen, which required the existence of the grand jury as a protection against oppressive action of the government. Yet the institution was adopted in this country, and is continued from considerations similar to those which give to it its chief value in England, and is designed as a means, not only of bringing to trial persons accused of public offenses upon just grounds, but also as a means of protecting the citizen against unfounded accusation, whether it come from government or be prompted by partisan passion or private enmity. No person shall be required, according to the fundamental law of the country, except in the cases mentioned, to answer for any of the higher crimes, unless this body, consisting of not less than sixteen [this should now read 19], nor more than twenty-three, good and lawful men, selected from the body of the district, shall declare, upon careful deliberation, under the solemnity of an oath, that there is good reason for his accusation and trial.

From these observations, it will be seen, gentlemen, that there is a double duty cast upon you as grand jurors of this district; one a duty to the government, or, more properly speaking, to society, to see that parties against whom there is just ground to charge the commission of crime, shall be held to answer the charge; and, on the other hand, a duty to the citizen to see that he is not subjected to prosecution upon accusations having no better foundation than public clamor or private malice...

In your investigations you will receive only legal evidence, to the exclusion of mere reports, suspicions and hearsay evidence. Subject to this qualification, you will receive all the evidence presented which may throw light upon the matter under consideration, whether it tends to establish the innocence or the guilt of the accused. And more: if, in the course of your inquiries, you have reason to believe that there is other evidence, not presented to you, within your reach, which would qualify or explain away the charge under investigation, it will be your duty to order such evidence to be produced. Formerly, it was held that an indictment might be found if evidence were produced sufficient to render the truth of the charge probable. But a different and a more just and merciful rule now prevails. To justify the finding of an indictment, you must be convinced, so far as the evidence before you goes, that the accused is guilty—in other words, you ought not to find an indictment unless, in your judgment, the evidence before you, unexplained and uncontradicted, would warrant a conviction by a petit jury.

How far you should proceed to inquire into other matters than such as are brought to your consideration by the government, through its prosecution officer, the district attorney, has been a matter of much conflict of opinion among different judges.

Before giving our views upon this subject, it is proper to state that there is a wide difference between the powers and duties of grand juries of the state courts of California and of grand juries of the national courts.

By a statute of the state, grand juries of the state courts possess very great inquisitorial powers. They are required to inquire into the official misconduct of public officers of every description in their country, and are entitled to the examination of all its public records. They are bound by their oath to inquire into and presentment make all public offenses against the laws of the state committed or triable in their county, of which they have, or can obtain, legal evidence. In order to ascertain whether or not there has been any official misconduct in any public office, they have, under the statute, authority to inspect all his books and records, and to subject him to a searching examination.

No such general authority to inspect the books of the officers of the United States, and to subject the officers themselves to examination in respect to the entries in those books, is possessed by the grand juries of the national courts. The exercise of such authority might prove of serious detriment to the public service, for it might interfere with the established system by which the accountability of the local officers of the United States to the executive departments at Washington is secured. You will readily perceive that an inspection by the grand jury, for instance, of the books of the collector of customs at this port, and requiring that officer to explain his entries and his conduct, often directed by private and confidential communications from those departments, might seriously embarrass the government in its action. So, too, embarrassment might follow from a similar inspection of the records and examination of other officers of the United States...

We return now to the inquiry as to what matters you can direct your investigation beyond those which are brought to your notice by the district attorney. Your oath requires you to diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of such articles, matters and things as shall be given you in charge, or otherwise come to your knowledge touching the present service.

The first designation of subjects of inquiry are those which shall be given you in charge; this means those matters which shall be called to your attention by the court, or submitted to your consideration by the district attorney. The second designation of subjects of inquiry are those which shall otherwise come to your knowledge touching the present service; this means those matters within the sphere of and relating to your duties which shall come to your knowledge, other than those to which your attention has been called by the court or submitted to your consideration by the district attorney.

But how come to your knowledge?

Not by rumors and reports, but by knowledge acquired from the evidence before you, or from your own observations. Whilst you are inquiring as to one offense, another and a different offense may be proved, or witnesses before you may, in testifying, commit the crime of perjury.

Some of you, also, may have personal knowledge of the commission of a public offense against the laws of the United States, or of facts which tend to show that such an offense has been committed, or possibly attempts may be made to influence corruptly or improperly your action as grand jurors. If you are personally possessed of such knowledge, you should disclose it to your associates; and if any attempts to influence your action corruptly or improperly are made, you should inform them of it also, and they will act upon the information thus communicated as if presented to them in the first instance by the district attorney.

But unless knowledge is acquired in one of these ways, it cannot be considered as the basis for any action on your part.

We, therefore, instruct you that your investigations are to be limited: First, to such matters as may be called to your attention by the court; or, second, may be submitted to your consideration by the district attorney; or, third, may come to your knowledge in the course of your investigations into the matters brought before you, or from your own observations; or, fourth, may come to your knowledge from the disclosures of your associates.

You will not allow private prosecutors to intrude themselves into your presence, and present accusations. Generally such parties are actuated by private enmity, and seek merely the gratification of their personal malice.

If they possess any information justifying the accusation of the person against whom they complain, they should impart it to the district attorney, who will seldom fail to act in a proper case. But if the district attorney should refuse to act, they can make their complaint to a committing magistrate, before whom the matter can be investigated, and if sufficient evidence be produced of the commission of a public offense by the accused, he can be held to bail to answer to the action of the grand jury.

When the court does not deem the matter of sufficient importance to call your attention to it, and the district attorney does not think it expedient to submit the matter to your consideration, and the private prosecutor neglects to proceed before the committing magistrate, we think it may be safely inferred that public justice will not suffer, if the matter is not considered by you.

A preliminary examination of the accused before a magistrate, where he can meet his prosecutor face to face, and cross-examine him, and the witnesses produced by him, and have the benefit of counsel, is the usual mode of initiating proceedings in criminal cases, and is the one which presents to the citizen the greatest security against false accusations from any quarter. And this mode ought not to be departed from, except in those cases where the attention of the jury is directed to the consideration of particular offenses by the court, or by the district attorney, or the matter is brought to their knowledge in the course of their investigations, or from their own observations, or from disclosures made by some of their number.

We have been led, gentlemen, to give these instructions upon the nature of your duties and the limits to the sphere of your investigations, because an impression widely prevails that the institution of the grand jury has outlived its usefulness, an impression which has been created from a disregard of those limits, and the facility with which it has, unfortunately, often been used as an instrument for the gratification of private malice...

The oath which you have taken indicates the impartial spirit with which your duties should be discharged. You are to present no one from envy, hatred or malice; nor shall you leave anyone unpresented for fear, favor, affection, hope of reward or gain; but shall present all things truly as they come to your knowledge according to the best of your understanding.

You are also to keep your own deliberations secret; you are not at liberty even to state that you have had a matter under consideration. Great injustice and injury might be done to the good name and standing of a citizen if it were known that there had ever been before you for deliberation the question of his guilt or innocence of a public offense. You will allow no one to question you as to your own action or the action of your associates on the grand jury.

To authorize you to find an indictment or presentment there must be a concurrence of at least twelve of your number; a mere majority will not suffice.

The Constitution, as you have observed, speaks of a presentment or indictment by a grand jury. The latter—the indictment—is a formal accusation made by the grand jury charging a party with the commission of a public offense. Formerly it was the practice in all courts having jurisdiction to inquire by the intervention of a grand jury of public offenses, amounting to the grade of felonies—and such is the practice now in many courts—for the public prosecutor to hand to the grand jury an instrument of this character—that is, a bill of an indictment in form, with a list of the witnesses to establish the offense charged. If in such as the jury found that the evidence produced justified the finding of an indictment they indorsed on the instrument "A true bill"; otherwise, "Not found", or "Not a true bill", or the words "Ignoramus"—we know nothing of it—from the use of which latter word the bill was sometimes said to be ignored.

A presentment differs from an indictment in that it wants technical form, and is usually found by the grand jury upon their own knowledge, or upon the evidence before them, without having any bill from the public prosecutor. It is an informal accusation, which is generally regarded in the light of instructions upon which an indictment can be framed.

This form of accusation has fallen in disuse since the practice has prevailed—and the practice now obtains generally—for the prosecuting officer to attend the grand jury and advise them in their investigations.

The government now seldom delivers bills of indictment to the grand jury in advance of their action, but generally awaits their judgment upon the matters laid before them. The district attorney has the right to be present at the taking of testimony before you for the purpose of giving information or advice touching any matter cognizable to you, and may interrogate witnesses before you, but he has no right to be present pending your deliberations on the evidence. When your vote is taken upon the question whether an indictment shall be found or a presentment made, no person besides yourselves should be present.

These, gentlemen, are all the general instructions which we have thought important to give you at this time. [End quoting.] [Field, J., Charge to Grand Jury, 2 Sawy. 667, Fed. Cas. No. 18,255.]

ALEXANDER HAMILTON ON JURIES

In Federalist Paper No. 83 (1787-1788), Alexander Hamilton writes, [quoting:]

Alexander Hamilton

The friends of adversaries of the plan of the convention [constitutional convention], if they agree in nothing else, concur at least in the value they set upon the trial by jury; or if there is any difference between them it consists in this: the former regard it as a valuable safeguard to liberty; the latter represent it as the very palladium of free government. For my own part, the more the operation of the institution has fallen under my observation, the more reason I have discovered for holding it in high estimation; and it would be altogether superfluous to examine to what extent it deserves to be esteemed useful or essential in a representative republic, or how much more merit it may be entitled to as a defense against the oppressions of an hereditary monarch, than as a barrier to the tyranny of popular magistrates in a popular government. Discussions of this kind would be more curious than beneficial, as all are satisfied of the utility of the institution, and of its friendly aspect to liberty. But I must acknowledge that I cannot readily discern the inseparable connection between the existence of liberty and the trial by jury in civil cases. Arbitrary impeachments, arbitrary punishments upon arbitrary convictions have ever appeared to me to be the great engines of judicial despotism; and these have all relation to criminal proceedings. The trial by jury in criminal cases, aided by the habeas corpus act, seems therefore to be alone concerned in the question. [End quoting.]

EUSTACE MULLINS

In modern times, one person who is well acquainted with the judicial process is author and researcher Eustace Mullins. In his book Rape of Justice, Mullins comments: "When an American citizen goes into court, he can say, as Christ said in Luke 22:53, 'this is your hour, and the power of darkness.' We are on the verge of dispelling the power of darkness in our courts. We must now turn on the lights full force, and see hordes of cockroaches scuttling frantically towards a dark corner. There are a number of encouraging developments throughout the United States; first, a growing awareness of the absolute corruption of the legal process; two, there is little that most lawyers will do for you except to take your money; and, three, your awareness of the true condition of the legal morass is your best protection."

CONCLUDING REMARKS

The dangers within the grand jury system include the potential domination of the jury with a tyrannical or dominating and authoritarian person. The general consensus across the nation seems to be that county grand juries are "rubber stamps" for the district attorney's office and a mere "yes-man" extension of that office, with a prosecutorial agenda to fulfill. There are, of course, two sides to that coin. There is also the potential for fair and impartial examination of evidence. Abuse of power also remains an unknown factor within the grand jury process.

State and federal grand juries, while slightly different in scope from the county grand jury, are conceptually the same. When 19-23 men and women examine evidence before them, or evidence which they research through their efforts and determine that impropriety of a criminal nature occurred, they have the authority and the obligation to issue indictments against those persons. So, too, if they do not find evidence supporting claims of wrong doing, then they are duty bound to reach that conclusion and not issue indictments.

What became clear to me in my discussions with Kern County grand jurors is that the scope of the grand jury function "behind-the-scenes" is far greater than we would suspect with regard to insuring integrity within the city and county government structure and behind the scenes problem solving and resolution of improprieties when those in a given agency may not be aware that a given action is inappropriate. Indictments and prosecution are not the only possibilities here.

Surely there is equal opportunity for abuse and corruption, particularly in sparse, rural areas of the country when the same group of citizens step forward to take responsibility (or control). But this, too, has built in safeguards, as the term for grand jury service is 1 year. There are, it is true, those who are "held over" for a second term but then stepping down for a minimum of 1 year is required.

The KEY person, by far, within the entire grand jury structure is the Foreman. The Foreman sets the tone and the pace for what is or is not accomplished.

The grand jury has at its disposal county counsel, as well as counsel from the superior court presiding judge. There is NOT, however, a judge present at the grand jury proceedings—just the citizens sitting on the jury. While the annual operating budgets for local grand juries are minimal at best, the grand jury does have access to certain records and documents that the general public would not have access to.

There are many unemployed, or independent, or retired, or semi-retired people across the nation who often ask themselves, "How can I make a difference?" One way to really make a difference at the local county level is to apply to the grand jury. Please keep in mind before doing this, however, that it is a commitment of about 3 days a week, for one year—with no pay to speak of (approximately $10/day).

Sitting on the grand jury process IS community service, and also a way to influence the judicial system directly. So, if you don't like the way your local government is being run and you feel corruption is rampant and you don't want to run for public office, try participation on the grand jury.

AFTERWORD

We live in an imperfect world, and our Founding Fathers foresaw many difficulties prior to the actual framing of the Constitution, as evidenced, in part, by Hamilton's remarks on judges, grand juries, and juries. The bottom line here, in my opinion, is that a grand jury is only as good as the integrity and moral foundation of the people who sit on the jury. Corruption and abuse of power breed corruption and further abuse of power, but as Hamilton so aptly put it, "The friends of adversaries of the plan of the convention, if they agree in nothing else, concur at least in the value they set upon the trial by jury; or if there is any difference between them it consists in this: the former regard it as a valuable safeguard to liberty; the latter represent it as the very palladium of free government."

* Footnote: I would like to offer a special acknowledgement and thanks to the 1995 Kern County Grand-Jury Foreperson Deborah Phillips and other jury members for their open and thorough sharing of information about the Grand Jury system. It is my firm belief that the current grand jury in Kern County is a fair and impartial body of free-thinking individuals and not a "rubber stamp" for the D.A.'s office. This was a very reaffirming and pleasant realization.

ENTROPY

There is a truth which accompanies the piles of entropy in a given area: "If you wait long enough and shuffle enough, a thing will eventually surface, again." If I write on several subjects I will get responses and inquiries on as many subjects, AND MORE. My reasons for writing on a given subject are planned to encounter the CONFIRMATION coming back upon you so that you can begin to see and know that we do indeed keep up with things which are impacting or WILL IMPACT you greatly.

Today we have more information on new forms of tapeworms. We have refusal to believe that your weather and your very death-dealing elements are being sold and transported through your world systems without so much as a sidewise glance—FROM RUSSIA, WITH LOVE.

We have, also, the returning results of users of our products and their widespread uses—even to smokers who had been living-smoking-machines for 44 years—who stopped instantly and totally comfortably while using GaiaGold. Gold is the most recognized and effective anti-addiction potion known to mankind—for any "time". It is so effective for treatment of addictions that it is banned where possible, buried when possible, and that is why you have the zillions of worthless but expensive money-makers that DO NOT WORK. [Editor's note: GaiaGold does not adversely affect the natural intestinal flora.]

I also need to speak on the very system of the Universe (a bit broad at best) so that you can see how frequency and energy are all there are—in a most orderly operating machine. And then there is "my" wish: that we could continue to cover CELLULARLIFE so that you can understand the rest of the "stuff" I pour upon you.

Earthquakes are happening all around now—but I have to leave most of that reference to Soltec because Dharma only has ten fingers guided by one brain center. That means, however, that Ed, Norey and Kali are pulled from their other work to receive and pass on the information behind the obvious.

Everyone wants to label Dharma as THE culprit, saint, worker, great confuser, etc., etc. No, sorry about that, for we work as a team. Phyllis tries to put together the News Desk, Claudia tries to cram all the information into an allotted number of pages in CONTACT that can be somehow paid for, Editors Zita and Princeton make every effort to pick up errors after E.J. finishes with the rough typo-error-catching and on and on. Rick is usually on assignment. Seares was lost to us months ago—silenced would be a better term, and hence we are back to picking up the behind-the-scenes events as we

You who have done so—try desperately to make others SEE AND HEAR, but alas the controllers of adversarial intent keep you muffled and baffled. The BIG ants can always eat the little ants. And then, nobody wants to take out the trash as everybody, no matter how much of a failure in other life-experience, wants to be THE honcho who doesn't do anything—just "knows" better than whoever might be doing the work. On top of that position—there are also the takers who pull on you to supply their needs and then bash you if you allow it.

Anyone who thinks our people are in some kind of abundant trance and live in diamond mansions is nuts. Every nook and cranny of each area is crammed with a dozen different projects that go on day and night, year after short year—with no assets, while the pickers pick and the moaners moan over their sad state of "getcha". The WONDERMENT comes from the fact that some STILL, IN SPITE OF EVERYTHING, continue to offer and serve.

Why would a Farrakhan, a Dharma, an E.J. or a Ron Carlson continue endlessly and without interruption to produce something of worthiness? Do you think somehow that they like being shot at, beaten down, accused of vileness, and just love the inner reward of

New Gaia Products Offer Help

GaiaCol

GaiaCol is a combination of Colloidal Silver, Trace Colloidal Gold and Trace Crystalline Drias. This combination of ingredients has produced a product that is so high frequency and potent that it could quite possibly be the solution to our ongoing fight against the new antibiotic-resistant diseases that we face today. Colloidal Silver was used extensively and very successfully against bacteria, virus, fungi and the like before the advent of the first antibiotic, penicillin. The uses of Colloidal Gold were also significantly used in the restoration of health as early as 1885 and was noted for its ability to calm and harmonize the emotional body. Once the chemical companies began manufacturing the myriad of antibiotics, silver and gold were no longer looked to for treatment. The antibiotics they were producing, however, produced no effect on the more resistant viruses, fungi and parasites. Now we face a new generation of bacteria that are completely resistant to any antibiotics merely due to antibiotic over-prescribing and resultant survival of the fittest bacteria.

Research has demonstrated that Colloidal Silver is nontoxic to humans and allows no presently known disease-causing organism to live in its proximity. With the addition of Trace Colloidal Gold and Trace Crystalline Drias, the frequency of GaiaCol is remarkably enhanced to allow these newer, more powerful viruses and bacteria to be eliminated. GaiaCol is gentle enough to use topically on just about any skin, hair or mouth condition without fear of toxicity and is outstanding for burns.

For internal use during any type of infectious process, start with one teaspoon the first day and then 10-12 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue until the infection clears. Then maintain with 3-4 drops, 3-4 times per day under the tongue. Important: Due to the powerful nature of this product, friendly bacteria can be affected so it is advisable to replace the natural intestinal flora with some type of acidophilus/lactobacillus supplement daily or at least when symptoms are noted such as cramps, bloating, diarrhea/constipation and a general feeling of malaise.

GaiaCol is said to be safe for children and pets and can be taken with other medications without incident. This product is not addictive and does not build up a tolerance to it in the body. 2 oz. $10.00

GaiaGold

GaiaGold is a solution of 100% Colloidal Gold which is one of the oldest used substances for medicinal purposes and has no equal in affecting the physical body positively. Around 1885, colloidal gold was commonly used in the United States as the basis for the cure of alcoholism with additional uses including treatment of Arthritis, skin ulcers, burns and certain nerve damages. Colloidal gold does not have the same Germicidal/Antibiotic action of Colloidal Silver when topically applied, but it does have tremendous effect if taken internally for such as Syphilis and other diseases.

Colloidal Gold has been noted for its tremendous ability to balance and harmonize the emotional body, particularly in regards to unstable mental and emotional states such as "depression", "autism", "Alzheimer's", etc. Gold has further been found to aid in the healing of heart muscle and is highly beneficial in rejuvenating sluggish organs—especially the brain—as gold is the best electrical conductor yet recognized for nerve action. Another use for Gold is in cases of glandular and nervous incoordination because Colloidal Gold is said to rejuvenate the glands and stimulate the nerves which releases the pressure and allows the signals for function to reach through to the various organs and glands.

GaiaGold intake can benefit self-control in diet and quit-smoking programs because it helps to balance the brain's craving or need for such overindulgence or addiction. Taken in conjunction with GaiaCol, overall renewed vitality and longevity may be achieved. 2 oz. $20.00 battering? When a stream of marching ants are on their way to the anteater and one in front stops and won't go to the dragon's mouth—what happens? At first the whole train of ants will run over him or push him into the anteater's mouth or he will have to buck the train in full motion—or he finally gives up and marches with the throng. Worse, the ant who stings the anteater is the one who is REALLY in trouble. And so we go on—and on—and on, hoping the stream of ants will turn about. Worse, the other ants will eat the diversionist alive—or holocaust him at the stake for efforting to live and/or find freedom.

I am also asked to comment on Quebec pulling away into sovereignty in Canada and an upcoming election. Come now readers, IT IS EXACTLY THE SAME AS IF TEXAS AGAIN TRIED TO GET OUT OF THE U.S. NIGHTMARE. THE PENALTIES WILL BE TERRIBLE AND DRASTIC AS THE POLITICIANS GO TO WORK ON THE BABY—AND PICKING THE CARCASS. YOU HAVE A NEW WORLD ORDER—DON'T FORGET THAT FACT FOR A SINGLE MOMENT!

Ronn Jackson says this is THE year of the patriot and "1995 is the year that our Nation will be returned to a Republic as a direct result of the spirit of freedom and the dedicated efforts of its Patriotic citizens. The Constitution shall prevail for all of history!" Well, it is the 20th of October so I ask JUST WHO is going to do it? It most certainly appears it won't be Mr. Jackson, at the rate he is moving. It is hard out here, readers!!

I have a letter here with October 17th's epistle from Mr. Jackson attached which reads: "My Fellow Americans: Government says there are problems in this country. What government means to say is, 'The problems that are said by that entity is what government wants to be a problem.' Black and white are terms used by government as income-producing reasons. Government is the problem! The truth is absolute and cannot be changed or denied.

"1995' is the year that our Nation will be returned to a Republic as a direct result of the spirit of freedom and the dedicated efforts of its Patriotic citizens. The Constitution shall prevail for all of history!

"In Light and Freedom, Ronn Jackson
"Please Subscribe to our Newsletter."

The letter attached is not suitable for printing. The gist is that, if that is all Mr. Jackson is doing—spouting such drivel and expecting us to support his stupid tactics (this woman/man/person seems to have given a lot of money to Mr. Jackson's campaign), he is insane. And he tells us nothing we don't know from our first awakening by honorable speakers; he takes without giving; his "truth that cannot be changed or denied" is nothing but lies and non-production and is changed AND denied AT EVERY INTERSECTION. "I apologize from the bottom of my heart that I diverted my help to him—from CONTACT—but I don't have any more to offer either one! I literally quit my job and went to New Mexico, so, I guess I don't need to share my stupidity any further—ok?"

My comments? "Why are you telling me?" Can Jackson perform on his promises? Some of them. Will he? It doesn't appear so—but his business, except as it impacts mine, is NONE OF MY BUSINESS. I can listen to you, readers, but I cannot manage your business. Some of you were emotionally involved and I am sorry for that—but the rest of us, including you, did our share to free the man so he could fulfill his agreements and promises. I know not what else to do for each of you who are feeling "stung" in the process. And you, "writer"—I TOLD YOU NOT TO GO! I understand hurt, desire, hunger for participation and outright emotional ties—but whatever I say or do comes back to rest on the shoulders of our team. Asking you to write and ask release for a man in trouble is one thing—to move sight unseen for that person without reasonable knowing ends up with accusations against my scribe—and it is unacceptable. First, first, FIRST of all things: YOU MUST HAVE CONTROL OF YOURSELF BEFORE YOU CAN DIVE OFF INTO ANOTHER'S RELATIONSHIP, DREAM OR PURPOSE. Some of you, this particular writer (above), were just as involved IN THE SAME WAYS with Gunther Russbacher—and STILL hang onto the possibility of something coming from that sector. Well, perhaps it will—but it will be a damned long time, and, as a matter of fact, the Elite bastards intend to assassinate (that is murder by any label) him before he is released this next time—from prison. Can't I help him? NO! I can't, he and Rayelan call on Satan's sons, Atalon and Cebal, for their inspiration. Raye implanted that idea in Gunther's brain and there it remains while he CLAIMS it is Hatonn. NO, NO, and NO. NO-SELL! I needed a conduit for funds flow—FROM AUSTRIAN FACILITIES, yet it appears that I can't get it even through another routing. The boyz in de hoodzpa do not give up their jingle-jangle easily. However, the romantic illusion (elusion) is not even in my vision to understand. Can you not offer assistance, friendship and love WITHOUT FALLING "IN-LOVE"? "In-love" is about the most shallow relationship beings can conjure, for all sorts of deceptions and USING occurs with such shallow reasoning—especially sight-UNSEEN!

Could Ronn J. change the perceptions now coming to fullness? Yes, he could produce some Hoover files, some funds he says were already running around in brief-cases, just show 500 letters of intent—but he either has them NOT or decides to not share them while petitioning for FAX funds. I'm sorry, readers, I have no connection other than through agreements (which I have kept) with one Ronn Jackson, and what he does otherwise is NONE OF MY BUSINESS.

I am particularly distressed over the lady back "East" who just wrote with some insightful cautions about the above situation BUT HAS DROPPED CONTACT BECAUSE OF THE "CONNECTION". There is NO CONNECTION. We hoped that there might be a political sharing—nothing more, with the operation in Pahrump, Nevada. I say "no more than..." because it is obvious that what is AGREED upon and contracted for, is NOT happening—and, we have no funds or SPACE for more than we offer. I HAVE NO INTENTION OF STARTING OR RUNNING A "NEW REPUBLIC". I DON'T NEED A NEW ANYTHING—I ALREADY HAVE A PERFECT SETTING. WHY WOULD I COERCE YOU INTO RONN JACKSON'S? YOU need a new REPUBLIC by, of and for the people—not me! My needs are for physical help in getting a remnant through in security with the needs of survival if necessary. We need to be able to offer methods and industrial possibilities for this change—not keep our noses buried in politics—anybody's politics! YOU should and will do anything you choose to do, with or without me, and my ORDERS are to allow you to do exactly THAT. If you WANT to go to New Mexico and wait for the possibility of Ronn showing up on Texaco's land to start a New Republic—do so. It is an exceptionally good place to do that job—because WE HAVE A BASE RIGHT THERE! If Ronn can gain title to same—you would have strong capability for restructuring a nation. I would further suggest that when Ronn works for THE SAME "CREATOR" as I serve, we will get moving quite quickly. Do we have "TIME" to wait? NO!

More important to me today is the recent complaint of physicians that antibiotics are NOT WORKING on the "NEW" diseases. I am pressured to give you information about parasites because THEY CARRY VIRUSES AND BACTERIA and are in your water supplies. I have here, from October 19, 1995, an article on "Tapeworms" which I will present as example: [QUOTING:]

TAPEWORMS REMAIN DEADLY THREAT

THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 10-19-95

Question: You (The Family Doctor, Allan Bruckheim column), have become a true source of information for our family, and now we need to know about the tapeworm disease that comes from eating uncooked pork. We know that this disease exists but have no clue as to its name or particulars. Could you please explain and tell us what treatments can be used to help?

ANSWER: The disease you are seeking information about is caused by T. solim, the pork tapeworm, and is called cysticercosis. Tapeworms are more common in this country than most people realize, and many people are not even aware of the deadly nature of cysticercosis.

If a person eats undercooked pork that has a larval form of the tapeworm in it, he or she is essentially swallowing an undeveloped coiled form, or cyst, of the tapeworm, whose head is wrapped up way inside the cyst.

By John Deering, Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, Little Rock

The human digestive process unravels or unsheathes the tapeworm head, which attaches itself to the lining of the human intestine by means of hooks and suckers. Segment by segment the worm proliferates, sometimes becoming several FEET LONG.

The new segments or eggs of the tapeworm can detach and are passed out in the stool. [H: Or they separately attach themselves on the way through.] If by chance a person contaminates his or her hand by contact with the feces and makes hand-to-mouth contact, the tapeworm eggs are again ingested. The hatched embryos invade skeletal muscle, eye tissue or the CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEM AND EVEN THE BRAIN. [H: EMPHASIS MINE! These same tapeworms now carry their own bacteria who carry their own viruses or are implanted with hitch-hikers.]

Usually, cysticercosis develops when the eggs rather than the larvae are swallowed. Epilepsy and severe headaches are some of the symptoms that can appear after the cysts have invaded critical areas. The liver, lungs, peritoneum and underlying skin tissues also can be greatly damaged. Surgical removal of the cysts may be necessary.

Cysticercosis should always be considered when a person discovers a problem of tapeworms, because the diagnosis and treatment are difficult.

As treatment, either niclosamide or praziquantel can be used. These kill the tapeworm, which is usually digested by the time it is passed in the stool.

Stools should then be rechecked at three and six months to be sure that a cure has been achieved.

Just to keep the record straight, another common disease from uncooked or poorly cooked pork is trichinosis, in which the culprit is a roundworm called T. spiralis. But that is a tale of another worm. [END OF QUOTING]

The sharing reader added a comment: "Parasite hosts bacteria which hosts virus. I believe you can also get these parasite worms from chicken and turkeys, also. And, farmers, working with these animals are very vulnerable."

So much, today, for the worm variety of parasites. Let us now look at the recognition, in a rather round-about way, of human "parasites and fluke" diseases. [QUOTING:]

DISASTERS CAUSED BY HUMANS, UN SAYS

Sunday, Oct. 10, 1995

GENEVA (Associated Press)—Earthquakes, floods, hurricanes and other natural disasters are occurring more often and causing more harm to people and property, largely because of environmental changes wrought by humans.

Today, the United Nations will observe the International Day for Natural Disaster Reduction by focusing on how communities can protect themselves, apparently from themselves. [H: Or better yet, ridding themselves of the fatal parasitic infestation by the "flukes" and manipulative political and economic parasites of the globe.]

Over the last 30 years, the number of disasters has risen by an average of 6% a year, UN experts said yesterday. With better care of the environment and better safeguards, however, many such cataclysms could have been prevented, they said.

The United Nations defines a "natural" disaster as an extreme natural event that causes death, injury or destruction on a large scale.

Between 1963 and 1967, there were 89 disasters with death tolls of 100 people or more, UN figures show. Between 1988 and 1992 there were 205.

Part of the reason for the increase is natural events are more likely to cause damage because of increased urbanization, said Peter Hanson, UN emergency relief coordinator.

In other cases, people are the culprits. [H: !!!!!] Deforestation and intensive farming are causing floods and landslides, while global warming is suspected of altering weather patterns and producing more killer storms and typhoons, Hanson said. [H: B.S., HOGWASH AND BALDERDASH!!] [END OF QUOTING]

And, if you still want to talk about Quebec. [QUOTING:]

U.S. COULD GET TOUGH, STUDY SAYS

MONTREAL (CP)—The U.S. could impose tough conditions on a sovereign Quebec, says a study done jointly by the University of Ottawa and the Center for Strategic and International Studies in WASHINGTON.

Quebec independence could lead to Canada being dismantled, says the study by Michel Demers, of the University of Ottawa and Carleton University. The resulting economic chaos could lead the U.S. to force its own solution, the study said.

Demers said the U.S. could impose what share of the Canadian debt would be repaid by Quebec.

It could also accept the territorial claims of Quebec's native people, many of whom have said they would remove their territory from a sovereign Quebec state. And it could demand that the rights of English-speaking people be respected. [END OF QUOTING]

And furthermore, you nice citizens accept this garbage without hardly a comment. May you sleep on and sleep well for the alarm clock is about to go into snooze-alarm in which you "snooze" your way into catastrophe.

Let us turn our humorous attention to your wondrous Attorney General, Janet Reno. How many of you watched yester-evening as Reno spoke? First there was a change in the way the FBI can function to not "let another Ruby Ridge" happen. Then followed the B.S. about Oklahoma City and then to top it off, a discussion of the bungling at WACO. After all this "NEWS" was offered the scene changed to Reno who was commenting, from a request of fluke Foxman, head of the ADL, about the Farrakhan "march". Mzzz Reno said that it was terrible about the march for she found such divisive information from the speaker, Farrakhan, when it was a time for family unity and unification of the masses. She could simply not "abide" the separatist and racist movement. Next, following the interview news-bite—the VERY NEXT subject was a statement by the Park Service that they would no longer be in the "crowd counting" business. Well when you can only count 400,000 when there are 2 million, 106 thousand and 19 present—I would say they aren't too good at "crowd counting" anyway YOU COUNT.

However, do not despair, for Mr. Jackson (Ronn) has responded to Mr. Foxman's antics: [QUOTING:]

TO: Abraham Foxman, Head of the ADL

FROM: RONN JACKSON

P.O. Box 4104

Pahrump, Nevada 89041

Ph. 702-727-0546

Fax. 702-727-7496

Mr. Foxman,

Your bullshit has now been exposed. You, the ADL, and all "big Jews" (Khazarians) [H: Ronn learned of the Khazar involvements from "David Newby", it seems, since apparently he doesn't longer read CONTACT.] can kiss my Patriotic Ass. The days of Khazarian domination are quickly evaporating. The lie is exposed [H: Oh? Who exposed it? Farrakhan? I certainly hope so for there is where it's at, good friends!] Your asses are exposed to the entire world. Have a nice day (while you can).

Signed: Ronn Jackson [END OF QUOTING]

My first comment is that the ADL is a branch of British Intelligence and not at all Khazarian. They are from the British-Israeli segment of the CROWN OF ENGLAND. The second is that "Big Jews" are NOT Jewish at all. Ronn, friend, you can fool some of the people some of the time, some of the people all of the time, but fooling ALL of the people (who read CONTACT), you can no longer fool ANY OF THE TIME. Now, why don't you do your job so we can get on with our work and stop blowing hot air where the sun don't shine? Partially informed "patriots" are going to destroy the nation as surely as the parasites will eat you alive while you can't see them at work. Never mind the insulting threats—do your job and the threats won't be necessary—for they are not desired at any rate, and you tell on self. Not even YOUR READERS longer take you seriously and I can do no more to shelter your bad choices of either words or actions. Produce the 33 million pieces of claimed mail, the Hoover files (even one will do), give instead of ask for, fundings as promised, and your word will be re-established as valid. At present, son, your word is now discounted as nothing. All you have done thus far, as complaints arrive daily at my door, is slow up progress toward a free nation and waste the funds which WERE available while putting a couple or three "real" patriotic citizens into debt in the poor-house.

Painful? Well it ain't been too lovely for the participants either—SO FAR. And please, don't dump it on Germain. We are weary of appearing the FOOLS. And, good luck with scaring the wits out of Abraham Foxman, I wish somebody could accomplish that task. I note that Clinton, Reno and the rest of your pointed receivers of your warnings are falling right into line with freedom and change. Things will change abruptly when you keep even ONE of your long list of promises and commitments. May the Overlords be kind! The Overmind is quite annoyed! So be it.

Thank you and good morning. Salu.

Heart And Hands Work Together For Success

10/21/95 #1 HATONN

IS THERE LIFE
AFTER BRAIN TRAUMA?
HOW ABOUT HEART TRAUMA?

YES! IF YOU LEARN SOMETHING OF VALUE!!

May we take a minute to speak to this subject? Cyrus is often quoted as he offered: "All...have their frailties and whoever looks for a friend without imperfections, will never find what he seeks. We love ourselves notwithstanding our faults, and we ought to love our friends in like manner." Oh? How might this be?

First of all, readers, we may search for friends but friends are not some commodity on the market as you would find an apple on the shelf and pick only the ones with no bruises or blemishes. The worst part of the above statement is the lie that we "love ourselves notwithstanding our faults..." We don't and, as a matter of FACT, most of us despise ourselves and hence can see nothing save frailties in another. We, worse, set up ourselves AND OUR FRIENDS to have the same fall and failings. Well, it doesn't work when one is serving GOD because the one in service has no time to attend the frailties of another. And, further, if that "other" claims friendship and serves as a partner in service—he MUST BE TRUSTED. When that trusted friend takes advantage or lies about his doings he has not ever been A FRIEND! YOU have to accept the difference.

As you move ON you must, however, pause and look back from time to time but realize that living in the past is a dull and lonely practice for looking always backwards strains the neck unless you turn around and see "only" that which is past. In addition, I would warn you that in doing this you will bump into people not going your way and they shall smite you for your carelessness. You must hold true friends with both your hands and in that way you have no hands left to dabble in that which is not your business. There are three very valid friendships which you might consider carefully for they offer great advantage and give forth even more advantage to self as well as the friend: friendship with the sincere and honest, friendship with the upright, and with the person of much observation. The latter can grow and learn. And I must remind you that LOVE in TRUTH must continually be nurtured, not schemed against, and it must be learned and learned, again and again; there is no end to it. When a man turns away and smites you—he was NO FRIEND from the beginning for he could not reach beyond HIS OWN REFLECTION. When these self-imaged reflectors move on—rejoice and release. Remember that these "searchers" were looking for their own reasons—when they found you! These are the ones who shall ever "look" and never, or rarely at best, FIND. They do not want truth—they want life to be a reflection of what they perceive and that is measured in the confusion and sickness of warped personalities and minds. They will stay longer if you are equally as warped but when you "catch on" to the game—you will speak out and they cannot bear the confrontation for theirs is the "blame game", while demanding you accept both their flaws and mischief as your own. These people don't make it in the REAL world where measurements are made on practical business structure. They can only hold onto existence by the glue that is wrought through misperceptions of Spiritual allowances. Our JOB AT HAND demands more!

THE GOLDEN SCRIPTS

I am often asked about The Golden Scripts penned by "The Recorder". I have recently received more inquiries about these presentations and I assume the writer speaks of Pelly's recordings.

I, as a teacher, am not so familiar with other's works. I am in knowing of that which IS and I often do not study my brethren's works. This is not aloofness—it is that I have no right to speculate on that with which I am not totally informed. I can give you THE RULE OF THUMB: IF TRUTH IS PRESENT AND THE TEACHINGS ARE FROM GOD'S INSTRUCTIONS—IT IS WORTHY. IF NOT, NO AMOUNT OF PRATTLING ABOUT IT WILL MAKE IT "RIGHT". I TRY TO OFFER THAT WHICH IS REFERENCED "SOMEWHERE" IN YOUR PHYSICAL PLANE SO THAT YOU HAVE CONFIRMATION AND RECOGNITION. WE WRITE IT "AGAIN" SO THAT YOU HAVE REMINDINGS AND REFERENCES AND TO OFFER THAT WHICH IS CONGRUENT AND CONCURRENT WITH YOUR EXPERIENCES OF THE DAY IN WHICH YOU FIND SELVES EXPRESSING.

I would, however, find that the "language" of the Scripts could find misinterpretation because of the terms used therein. We each tend to speak in such manner as would be recognized by the readers of a given "time" and often that causes great loss of input by the attending generation of readers or listeners. I could give you example after example but let me just paraphrase passages which I find accurate and see if you can "hear" them more easily. Let us consider the thirty-fifth "speaking" from the Scripts (Chapter 242) and see that which it actually "says": [PARAPHRASING:]

It is now time to know that THE time is here when it moves beyond reason to know whereof the actual battle rage. It now comes unto man that he is depressed and in darkness—and there seems to be none to lift him from that state of controlled existence. But there IS a way to rise above and beyond all things gone before—if you but see and grasp the hand that reaches out in truth and knowing.

Man has come to hate truth for he recognizes it not from the garbage of lies cast upon him. Man has become accepting of his penury, and want, and starvation (both of body and soul), even of suffering, else he would rise and smite the smiter of his destinies. Ah, but would this not simply have a more massive smiting coming back to himself? So we smite with pen and TRUTH. The enemy does not know what to do with TRUTH and peaceful STRENGTH. The enemy is forced to increase his control and make more obvious his lies until he becomes transparent before the world viewers. How DARE YOU call this oppression your "destiny".

It is not the intended lot of man to be "put down". Man has a temper to grind with his enemy of LIFE and FREEDOM; he has a lechery to overcome; he has a basket to fill with goodly fruits which he picks of his own accord from the Father's garden of mercy and justice; he has a destiny to complete which does not come only from some miserable suffering. But man has to perceive that which is goodly and sort it from that which will cast him down. It behooves man to take of that which is of importance TO HIS SOUL for he must come to know that he stands or falls by HIS OWN INTENTIONS.

I am weary of those who say: Lord, Lord, we love You and do Your bidding but simply USE to accomplish their hidden agendas. I would have those depart from me when they turn and conspire with the Evil One adroitly, thinking that I forgive them in that good ever comes from such evil thinking... for goodness is birthed from goodness—not of evil.

But I find most "timely" the truth in the following writings of the "Master" as presented:

Be advised, beloved friends, for I warn you that death is stalking those who linger by the wayside while the fields are heavy with the harvests of abundance and makes efforts to deny brethren of their rightful harvest. This is NOT worthy of any who CLAIM TO BE OF GOD. You must arise and be about your Father's business. If your heart is heavy and seems "broken", bind it up and rise to do better in goodness unto those who have done what is perceived, by you, to be an injury. Prove of your worthiness for doing more injury is only to prove the unworthiness for ALL TO SEE AND KNOW.

Friends, be advised: the enemy stalks you, he crouches as does a lion in hiding, he tears the very life of the soft ones; he roars and he blasphemeth. However, I can tell you that he does you NO DAMAGE OR INJURY WHILE YOU ARE ABOUT OUR FATHER'S BUSINESS.

It is only when you labor not, but fall into wayside mischiefs, does the evil beast find entry to tear at you; for he can see your goings and your comings and acknowledges that he cannot outwit those who go in a straight line in the right pathway.

He can, however, have a claw to dig at the ones who stand on the wayside and/or aid and abet the dragon for the dragon has a way to tear down the ones who make evil choices. Those ones who turn from God shall fall if they stand in the pathway of justice and honor. They fall, however, of their own works and actions and to speak otherwise in blame is but to further prove dishonor.

In our mission toward passage from the bondage we must have ones who can perceive a lean land and FILL IT; they dig wells for fresh water and learn how to cleanse that which is tainted; they give it to brethren who have thirst. Some with whom we share will have stingers with which to prick us but if we are of GOD we will prevail. You may well have to dwell with your enemy and the enemy of God—but you, within your soul, have no cause to honor him.

I suggest you taunt not, boast not, give neither aid nor comfort unto your enemy by praising and flattering his self proclaimed prowess or by pretending with him for his "favours" that he is brilliant or intelligent. A man will be "found-out" by his own actions and intent will become revealed.

Hear me and my words—be wise. Be wise and shrewd as a fox—but gentle and blessed as the doves of the fields. Beware the self-proclaimed eagles for they tear with talons and hooked beak while pretending to be the great ruler of God's gatherers. In the beginning the Eagle did not dine on the carcass of his slain victims nor scavenge off the rot of decaying bodies. Mankind has developed the Eagle's need to forage among the living dead which has caused him to FORGET that he is a wonderment of perfection who fuels himself with the energy of the universe and dines on the rays of the Cosmos.

Be most cautious of those who merely say, "I am here and would labor with you in the fields of goodness." Ask as to what he would labor AT, that the harvest may be gathered? [END OF PARAPHRASING]

Each of you claim to want communion with brethren ren and with Hosts. AH, BUT DO YOU? Here, right here in your dooryard, you have opportunity upon opportunity to assist and you do not even "think" of it. There is a farm RIGHT HERE that needs repair, paint, cleaning, roofing, equipping, building and constructing milling equipment—and only the one or two come forth to help. The fences need mending and preparation for winter needs accomplishment—but few even offer to help. GOD IS WATCHING THE FLOCK! A VISION is of no value without the actions to accomplish the image. Will you wait for Thanksgiving to share the feast? Oh, dear ones, you let the very gifts of eternal LIFE pass you by without participation. You labor not and harvest not that which IS available while awaiting it to be handed to you upon the silver platter—because it fits not your "job description". Well, perhaps YOU DON'T FIT INTO "MY" JOB DESCRIPTION.

It is time, readers, to be about our Father's business. It is time to pick up your sickles and proceed unto the cutting.

I can promise you something: IF YOU LABOR NOT THERE SHALL BE NO HARVEST FOR THEE.

I note that at the farm itself, the moment the trouble arose—all stopped attending even the garden. Is this to make the workers pay even more dearly for their taking of responsibility and accepting more burden upon their own few shoulders? Is there some reason you as individuals cannot cut the heads of grain with your pruners or scissors to feed the fowl which will produce you eggs?? You are offered ABUNDANCE and you let it fall in the fields.

You who sit upon the bended fence are going to be sitting on the fence at lift-off for I will leave you to your perch. Great words may well enthrall the heart, mind and soul but the expression is reflected in the physical actions in the fields. IT IS NOT ENOUGH TO PROCLAIM GOD—YOU MUST REFLECT GOD IN THAT WHAT YE WOULD HAVE HIM GIVE UNTO YOU. YOU MUST BE WILLING, AT THE LEAST, TO PICK UP THE GRAIN LEST IT BE TRAMPLED INTO THE SOIL AND WASTED FOREVER. When God offers his chariots, will you be there—or waiting for some miracle—elsewhere? Your "ending" will reflect your journey and be found in your destination. Oh well...!

I do not coerce your choices—I ONLY GIVE YOU MINE! I have "conditions" upon which I base every action—every thought! I offer ABSOLUTE allowance—BUT TELL YOU OF MY OWN "CONDITIONS". I serve GOD CREATOR. If I MAY or CAN also serve YOU—I am grateful. HIS conditions are MY conditions—and I AM REQUIRED TO LABOR IN THE FIELDS. Why should I share my harvest with you who do not labor beside me? What else of wonderment do you have to do? Can you even remember what you ate for dinner Tuesday evening last? How about lunch? When did you last "exercise" at an expensive gym? When did you last wash a wall or paint a ceiling or nail a shingle on a roof? When did you last pick fruits of the garden, pull a weed or preserve a squash—for shelter and food? Oh, I will do it for you? I don't think so for if you contribute not to the larder—call yourself "Mother Hubbard". He who helps self in integrity and honor shall reap the reward of same a thousand-fold. I did not come to tend you—I came to show you the way. I did not come to labor FOR you—I came to allow you to receive from your own labors. I did NOT come to simply LOVE YOU. I came to offer TRUTH and the MEANING OF LOVE. GOD IS NOT UNCONDITIONAL LOVE—GOD IS ABSOLUTE LOVE WITH LOTS OF "CONDITIONS".

Dharma, enough for now, friend, for you may go and glean some supply of grain for the winter feed for the creatures who shall otherwise be hungry. If need be, grind it and make bread for the creatures who eat not the seeds. They do eat seed cake. It is time to attend the hatches that the holds may be not empty when they are battened against the coming storms. The "people" laughed and taunted Noah—also! It is a good parable myth to be remembered. Millet makes sweet bread and pottage to fill the belly—especially for the babes—and offers good fiber for the gut.

You will each do that which you will, and speak in gossip as you will—but I can promise you that if you participate not in that which will hold you safe and secure—you shall NOT BE SAFE AND SECURE. He who takes of God's precious gifts and gives NOT BACK is undeserving of reward or shelter. When ones do not accept and appreciate the gifts of LIFE—let them die in their foolishness and be buried by the dead. Keep a door on your larder and coffer and bring your friends within in need—but lock away the intruders for they HAVE MADE THEIR CHOICES AGAINST YOU. Why would you weep for the offenders? Weep not in silly thrashings about—each has, in my presence, ability to learn and KNOW "TRUTH". The dependence is upon you who will allow them to sneak back within your space to hide beneath your garment in hopes of passage on YOUR TICKET. We have entrance requirements of only ONE SOUL PER TICKET. Will clipping grain in the field help earn the ticket? Yes indeed. You do not have to have a commune to help your neighbor—much the less, self. There are NO GUESTS in God's KINGDOM. Understand? You earn your way there and you earn your keep after you get there—it is called HOME.

Walk softly, friend, and dwell in thought upon these things—for no one is going to, nor can, do it FOR you.

"Oh, but I have no time for serving the farm or other tasks as I have my own...!" you spout off to me. Well, good buddies, I have no time for serving you for I, also, have my own to attend. Think about it and be sure to wave good-bye as the neighbor slams the door in your innocent-looking faces. Do I suggest you choose sides? YES INDEED—LIKE VERY SOON FOR "TIME" IS ALL BUT GONE FOR THE CHOOSING. WE HAVE WORK TO DO, PLAYING TO DO, LIFE TO LIVE AND GLORY TO BE ENJOYED. YOU ARE WELCOME ABOARD—YOU ARE NOT MANDATORY TO OUR JOURNEY. In fact, a lot of you are proving that you are quite dispensable through every day and task that presents itself. GOD IS INDISPENSABLE—NONE OTHER!

Thank you for your ongoing inquiries and I hope you find the interpretation suitable for I will negotiate (if it be with honor in all directions) but I shall not compromise one tiny iota of the conditions placed forth by GOD CREATOR, and we all KNOW what are those conditions. Salu.

A Reminder From Sananda

The following message from Sananda is always timely. It is excerpted from The Phoenix Express and Phoenix Journal #12, Crucifixion Of the Phoenix.

1/11/90 SANANDA

Sananda to commune. I see we have some painful subject matter today. Firstly, allow me to remind you ones of something, for great quarrels are being conjured because of ridiculous pronouncements.

The word is coming back that this writer declares Jesus to be either extinct or a mental figment or worse, an imposter and now some new "Sananda" is the big cheese. Oh dear, you ones of that tiny, dark planet with all its beauty—do not either listen or see.

You are into the time of the "prophecy's fruition"—not only would I not return as the identical "Jesus" than I would return as the identical Quetzal Coatl or Buddha. STOP your foolishness—even in your tampered "Bibles" it was said that the Christ would bear a new name to designate his position. That name is simply "Sananda". It is a designation and you do not understand the Universal language. I have been coming and going for some many years in this latter century—as Sananda—mostly to the higher places of teaching and to the places where the remaining portions of the continents contain remnants of your ancient civilizations. IT WOULD BE MOST WISE INDEED, IF THE QUARRELS CEASE AND MAN LOOKS AROUND AT THE PLIGHT IN WHICH HE IS MIRE. IT IS OF SATAN TO CAUSE DERISION AND DENIAL FOR THERE IS NAUGHT SAVE LIGHT AND TRUTH IN THESE WORDS. CONTINUE TO DENY AND THE GRIM REAPER SHALL EXPUNGE THE LIE AND IT SHALL BE UGLY INDEED. SO BE IT.

How did you expect me to make an entrance and how were you to be prepared? Did you think I would come via Jimmy Bakker or Jimmy Swaggart? How about Ramtha? Mafu? Lazarus? No, I would come again, first within the hearts of man. Further, there would be a great revival of man turning into truth as the Word goes forth—I AM THE WORD! Not this little scribe who would resign her post—"I" AM THE WORD. Do not be dismayed by those who do not believe—there is no force from God—each will make his choice. You dear ones who make effort at sending forth the word, do not waste of thy time in the remorse of those who will not hear. As it spreads and grows—they will hear, or, they simply will continue to discredit. If you listen—really listen—to their tales, you can know of their ignorance and untruth and they have simply become ensnared within the tentacles of the liar.

It comes from the egos which assume themselves to be "too big" to be attacked and either do not know how to remove the evil fragments or find it "beneath" their need to do so. They are easiest to entrap. These ones "know it all" already and have great "visions" and it usually has more to do with human "following"—"fan clubs" and/or riches gaining. Some are simply duped.

If an "energy" tells you everything you "want" to hear, be highly suspect of that mouth! Almost everything coming forth in truth is that which NO ONE WANTS TO HEAR! HOWEVER, WITH IT COMES THE SOLUTIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS—AND ALWAYS THE GRACE OF CREATOR AND THE UNLIMITED FORGIVENESS, LOVE AND PLACEMENT.

Giving Proper Attention To Tasks At Hand

10/22/95 #1 HATONN

A PERSONAL WORD FROM DAD

What do you see and what do you specifically HEAR as you plod along your physical pathway? When you stop seeing that which is around you; when you stop thanking God each moment for the experience; when you refuse to hear that which is offered, even when you question—you are simply existing and NOT LIVING. You walk in infinite beauty in every moment of this wondrous journey and, yet, you see only that which the emotional life-stream will allow. When the heart is bent and broken—how many beautiful flowers do you see? How many do you stop to smell? Do you hear the sound of crickets or the chatter of squirrels, or do you only imagine the clutter and clatter of their little voices, as the mind ponders its revenge or, at the least, management of the time for healing?

Yesterday in the millet field where Dharma was gathering grain, she was angry that Rod had taken the ONLY keys to the harvest equipment and had lied when he said he had mailed them to Utah to the lenders of the financing for the swather and harvester machines. The keys weren't his to send nor his to toss away—but he did so. However, he did NOT send them along with their manuals to the people in Utah as he claimed. The grain is lost for there is no way to cut it without now destroying it. (He didn't even do that much—you will be quite annoyed and surprised to find what he did with those keys and other things which you will find and "surprise" you "trick or treat".) Well, YOU guess what is in the diesel tank plugging the outlet! Nothing can get into the diesel tank without BEING PUT THERE FROM THE OPENING IN THE TOP! You THOUGHT you were dealing with a mature MAN? No, you were dealing with a man who TAKES and plants revenge when caught in his own trap of lies and deceit. Worse, he teaches his children to be equally cruel and hard. The public image is beautiful and serene, but the pain is whirling like a "dust devil". The little boys were allowed to catch ground squirrels and poke them, puncture them, cut them and then stomp them. This is a game? No, I think not! Did Mommy know? The rest of you KNEW—how could she NOT KNOW? But back to the field: as Dharma and E.J. walked down the weed overgrown row to meet Al, she stepped in a hole that was to her knees. Just wham, and she was in it—stunned but thankful to not have been running, for a broken leg would have resulted in any forward motion. The thought came of ground squirrels but the hole was too large; then weasels; and then the thought of a rattlesnake loomed next—ah, but nothing bit her, so "ok"—just get out and go on. Rick found two such holes which would break the leg of a horse if it stepped within. But my point is: WHAT WERE THE THOUGHTS?? Do you see the holes, watch for the holes in a normal field and walk around them, or do you just hippity-hop and hit every one of them? Obviously Dharma just walks into them. You must understand, of course, that a well tended field will not have five-year-old burrows in its middle for the animals will move to the perimeters to dig entrances to avoid having to re-dig community openings for major "neighborhood" tunnel complexes. I asked Rod to make feeding stations on the edges of the fields—he did nothing. He then announced that these are not protected Mojave Ground Squirrels and feeding stations will just cause proliferation. I asked him if they would, however, leave the field where he felt them to be a problem—all the fields were simply weed patches. He agreed but objected to the extra labor to relocate the little ba——. This is "just"? This is respect and harmony? So be it, for if YOU feel it IS—YOU HAVE A PROBLEM!

My reflection, however is not the hole—but the thoughts surrounding a hole in which you might now be standing knee deep. Well, in this instance it was of relief, for a broken leg is most annoying when you have so much work to do as to be stymied anyway. So much for the hole. Next, turn the thoughts to loss of crops. Then the feeling washes over that it would be so much better to just have the hundreds and hundreds of pounds of lentils and millet which was now wasted on the fields so that at least you would have the funds spent for seeds—or at the least, the stash of grain and lentils for the larder. Then, the next overwhelming thought is, "What do we do now?"

After the grain plot, they moved to the sunflower field, where there are ripening sunflower heads—only to find thousands upon thousands of blackbirds eating their way to overweight. There were at least two to three "blasters" bought for the sunflower field but Rod didn't bother to hook them up—and now they can't be found (still in their boxes). Well, perhaps they are also in the diesel fuel tank!

And, who do you suppose keeps coming and opening the house doors and leaving them open? The Shadow?? Spud doesn't let a stranger within 50 yards of that house!!! Games? No, these are not games nor accepted as cute Halloween pranks. There is now a guard living on the premises so I suggest you spread the word to be cautious in the trick arena.

PLANTING

But from his heart, E.J. asks me, "What of planting—what do you want us to do?" Farmers with equipment left after bankruptcy at the hands of government are scarce. Spelt needs planting a month ago and at the latest a week ago. What will we do? Well, what do you WANT TO DO? You have at least four choices: find a farmer and rent equipment (if you can garner enough funds), plant later than optimum and remain "marginal" in crop production, and/or as soon as possible begin to WORK THE LAND for next Spring and some Summer crops, or leave it lay fallow and try to get some equipment of smaller variety to get the weeds under control.

If you choose to have a late year planting of Spelt I can give you to the middle of November, and offer rain to start the seeds or at the least help winter them. Past mid-November, it is unworthy of effort or seeds for a winter crop. If you choose to plant "late" you will have to plant VERY HEAVILY so that the grain can get up and smother out the weeds in early Spring. Or, would you be better to simply get another silo or two UP and buy grain? Well, chelas, this is a hard one because there is no way to tell until Mr. Jackson does his job—to see funds for major storage ON TURNER'S PROPERTY WHICH HE PLANS TO SELL AS SOON AS HE CAN DO SO. HE HAS TO, AS HE IS IN FINANCIAL TROUBLE.

Will Mr. Jackson get his job done? I honestly do not know when he shall do anything! The structure is in place, the agreements made—but hang-ups are still working. Just remember something: all the hours of work and investment into the various operations located at that farm before you "toss in the towel". Perhaps a Thanksgiving week-end of painting, roofing and winterizing might be better than gorging selves on feasting and celebration. Oh well...! If YOU don't care enough—I DON'T EITHER.

No, I am not suggesting that you do the entire farm by hand. I do suggest that you who want Dharma to FIX IT, for speaking out—go get the keys from Mr. Ence, make him account for his misdeeds and missing equipment and at the least stop PROTECTING the problem, so that, when we can get the farming underway, the other problems are not staring you in the face also.

And by the way—if there are others who don't want to participate in such adventures—why stay around where the problems annoy you?

Then there is the vegetable patch and berry vines. Each without water and overfilled with weeds. The vegetables are now ruined from frost and nobody harvests the good remaining. The thought comes: WHY DOES GOD BOTHER WITH US WHEN WE HAVE SO LITTLE RESPECT FOR HIS GIFTS?!?! Ence took ALL of the tractor and plow equipment to his own private location for auction—after running the funds through the Institute, to cover the notes, while serving as President of the Board of Directors of the Institute. Fine. He arranged for the funds from his Mother, so he uses the money, but either the Institute has to repay the notes or the funds are lost and the Institute must account for them. Upstanding? No, I don't think so, friends. Or perhaps my ideals of rightness and wrongness are warped, but I don't think so!

Did you expect it to be somehow different because this was OUR mission, our projects, our journey? Indeed you did! Now, perhaps, we can get on with our jobs with proper attention to the tasks at hand. We no longer will tolerate the slipshod management of business ventures by the ones who "just come" for "God to take care of..." When a man will say how wondrous God is for always providing—YOU CAN BET YOUR LAST PENNY THAT SOMEBODY IN THE SHAPE OF A HUMAN BEING IS ATTENDING THE NEEDS WHILE THE TAKER LAUGHS AT YOU.

You queazy ladies with the little children should go to the farm and look at the dead cats behind the barn. What killed them? What happened to the birds and farm fowl? Well, they were, fortunately, sold because there came a buyer—but they were not Ences to sell without consultation.

Now, you say: well, they had to sell them to move after eviction. Number one: they WERE NOT EVICTED. Number two: JUST THROUGH ROD ENCE, they were provided with a home, utilities, a vehicle, and all living expenses. They had assistance for food and dental/medical for the children. In addition, the income alone was well OVER $50,000 a year, roughly calculated, WITHOUT considering the personal income from crops or eggs. If there were repairs, the costs were covered by OTHERS and others provided the work in most instances. And, the children were PAID by OTHERS for their services, good or bad, at the wages of the man.

Ah, but you want Dharma, who finally could no longer work hard enough to continue the pay scale, to FIX IT because somehow she represents the voice of God and must not offend or respond as human. It becomes TOO MUCH. How many of you who felt Ences got a raw deal at the farm and gave parties to them, who weren't going anywhere save stepping up into better housing, have gone to help salvage the farm??? How many of you have picked one millet spray or cleaned out the knee-deep horse stall or the bird or chicken coops left without so much as emptying the feed dishes? Please spare me, readers, and DO NOT ASK FOR MORE AND MORE AND MORE—UNTIL YOU AT-TEND THE MESS LEFT FOR, AGAIN, DHARMA AND E.J., ALONG WITH CHARLES, TO ATTEND. Art, thank you for unstintingly giving of your talents and work to get milling equipment rolling again. Gene H. and Bob J.: thank you for pitching in to help. And thank you, Jeff, for tending Spud—he is old and lonely and Turner can't spend time with him.

Ed Cleary kissed off his debts to us and took off for Tennessee and parts East. He said he was going where he was appreciated and that he should have been placed in charge of all these plans IF THEY ARE OF GOD because he has eighty-some-odd years of experience and was a priest in the Catholic Church? Come again??? He and others took thousands of dollars to use, to get what they hoped would be financing from the Philipines to do the projects necessary—and kissed it off with, "It's none of your business"! Whose business is it? People: whose business is it??? He is now gone to "look over possibilities" and would be back "for his farewell party". Well, I hope so, for he is a friend and he edited and TRIED to find resources. But I wonder—he is elderly, he was severed from his priesthood by the "Church"—long, long, long ago. Who will attend him? Who will care for and love him when he is ill and infirm? The problem is, friends, WHEN YOU KISS-OFF GOD, YOU HAVEN'T MUCH REMAINING WITH WHICH TO HOLD OR PROTECT.

Is this housecleaning? Is this sorting? Some object to just tossing aside the upheavals as "sorting selves". But I ask you: how do YOU sort? How much does the landlord tolerate from the tenant who is working against him constantly and destroying rather than building? HOW MUCH? How long do you allow the TAKING FROM OTHERS (like YOU) for self and then cast rocks back at the ones who finally CANNOT GO ON CARRYING THE BURDEN? Is it lack of communication, really? NO, you object to "speaking of problems" as "gossip"—while others have to bear the burden of the assaults while you close your eyes and minds and pretend the problem doesn't exist. Then when the back breaks from the last straw piled on—you protect the straw-piler and kick the beast of burden. Is this Godly? No, it is foolishness!

As we make efforts to sit again together, it is awkward and feelings are high and confused. This is fine, people, for you will respond to anything in "reaction" but it is time to find the routing of REASON and RESPONSE instead of the immediate assumptions and actions without insight.

THIS IS EXACTLY WHY YOU HAVE TO KNOW WHAT IS WRONG WITH YOUR WORLD AND YOUR GOVERNMENT, YOUR NATION OR YOUR NEIGHBOR BEFORE YOU LAUNCH OUT WITH MILITIAS, GUNS AND SOLUTIONS WHICH WILL ONLY SLAY YOUR OWN PEOPLE, LOSE YOUR ASSETS AND END YOU UP IN PRISONS INSTEAD OF THAT FREEDOM YOU SEEK AND DEMAND. YOU CANNOT CHANGE A WORLD BY OBJECTING AND GETTING INTO PRISON OVER THE LITTLE LAWS SUCH AS SEAT-BELTS AND DRIVER'S LICENSES—FOR THESE THINGS ARE NOT THE PROBLEM. YOU HAVE TO KNOW WHAT IS WRONG OR HAS GONE WRONG OR HAS CHANGED AND LOOK AT THE WHO, WHY, WHAT, WHERE AND WHEN OF EVERY INSTANCE—BEFORE YOU ACT WITHOUT WISDOM AND INSIGHT! THESE ARE THE MAJOR LESSONS TO BE LEARNED FROM THE LITTLE INDIVIDUAL ENCOUNTERS OF FARMS AND LAWSUITS. YOU HAVE TO KNOW HOW THINGS ARE REQUIRED TO "WORK" BEFORE SIMPLY BLASTING OUT IN ACCUSATIONS AND FALSE RECOGNITION.

We did not, for instance, "drive away" ANYONE. We even sought every conceivable way to shift without hurting while upgrading them. We have no animosity now, even after the bashing, for we understand misunderstandings and inner pain while worrying and concerning over the children—actually, the family as a whole. But to then be called "evil leaders" and "spy" and "evictors" while full intent was to shift, replace and restructure while "vacating" the premises to try and salvage something of the mess, is unacceptable. In the beginning no-one "blamed" and month after downhill month it was one meeting and agreement made following another—each BROKEN BY ROD. And then the objection flows back that we "should understand". No, we don't "need to understand" the foolish statements of another who doesn't know anything about the circumstances and are fed misperceptions and outright lies. The problem becomes as racism or cultism focus—the entire of the flock has to be included in the chicken klatch which was likely not unified in the first place. However, look carefully at all facets of a given problem and see how really far back go the symptoms of any current encounter. Note the traits, the deceptions, the chattering, the minding of everyone's business, the little problems introduced "innocently", the "hurtful gossip" or silly staging of events and circumstances—all these things grow and grow and finally, if not attended, BURST FORTH IN FULL-BLOWN EXPLOSION.

Then comes the home environment and how it is structured and works. Do EACH of the parties involved contribute equally but each to his own task or output? Or do the parties "just exist" waiting on the others to support them in every encounter along life's journey? How long can the lopsided load be carried by the "other"? Well, let me remind you that when, finally, the RESPECT goes—there goes EVERYTHING OF VALUE because sex becomes control and "in-love" is already GONE. Ponder it. As long as you call the wrong things "LOVE" you will NEVER find LOVE! You may well have "co-dependence" but that indicates some sort of immature addiction to pain and dissatisfaction in the world of "fantasy land" and self punishment. When the loser is tossed out on her/his ear—they grow up or find another to live off, as parasites, who carry unrest and unhappiness with them as surely as night follows day. This is as real with a nation as a couple. Your RIGHT is to allow whatever you will—but not to cause any other to have to endure your choices. I am not being "hard" or "callous" to anyone, any group or any country—this is just the way it IS. If these shoes fit, then wear them—but do not complain if they pinch or expect someone ELSE to fix it. These are simple FACTS OF LIVING.

I am reminded of Dalene's story of her dreams which bothered her and appeared every time she was faced with hard decisions and problems. She would be "trying" to move but attached to her was a rumpled bed and rusty frame. EVERY TIME! In "dream-work" she chose that focus to try and see why she always dragged that rumpled bed everywhere she went as involved problems and sometimes even when she was quite happy. This went on for several years and it always left her sad and depressed. So, dreams are YOURS; they mean ONLY SOMETHING TO YOU; you write the dreams, live the dreams and the meanings are singularly yours—so YOU know what they mean and have to decipher that answer for self. There are ways to play at this game of deciphering and it only usually takes a minute with a partner knowing what to do and demand and ask—to have an "ah-ha" solution appear as if from nowhere. Well, a few minutes into the questioning and answering—the Ah-Ha came bursting onto the mind: "I made my own bed and now I have to drag it and sleep in it, as is, or make it, change it and/or get rid of it!" She immediately changed the sheets and cut the shackles and finds life carries a lot more insight. If, by the way, Dalene, if that bed shows up again—I suggest you look at it carefully before you change those old sheets, however, for the problem WILL NOT BE THE SAME.

Life is one encounter after another that probably DISAGREES with what you THINK a thing should be. That IS life. What you need is more preparation for living and relationships and less trying to change the sheets when they aren't dirty but simply don't fit the bed. YOU may be the one most difficult to live with—the perceived other party—from YOUR viewpoint. It is when both are willing to WORK to resolve the confrontations and problems that maturity, love, respect and communion can enter into the picture. Or do you just continue to tear down "the other" and, finally, in the throes of facing the circumstance, turn away and BLAME another or others for your own addiction or predicament? How can you have a healthy and balanced life flow with SICK PEOPLE? How do you get well? Get OFF your ego and get busy SEEING within and LOOK AT SELF—FIRST, and then WORK WITH THAT "OTHER", BE IT ONE OR A BILLION—TO SEE WHAT YOU CAN DO. IF IT IS NOT YOUR PROBLEM—THEN MOVE AWAY AND RELEASE. Providing crutches to an uncrippled person is NOT A SOLUTION.

YOU have to take responsibility for SELF and if you like your predicament—stay in it. But when you build a strong and right foundation for self—emotionally—you may find you are quite weary and broken from the burden of carrying another's habits and demands or "just being" as an ornament to clutter your space. You can push on a wet noodle forever and not budge it one iota from its place where it has glued itself to the table—but you can get out there and detach self or get in front and pull. If you pull and the noodle breaks—get the hell out of your own way! Or at the least get the hell out of MY WAY, so I can get my job done! Is this hard or unfair? Neither—it is absolutely reasonable and more than fair if the other has been warned. Threats are of NO VALUE!! Be responsible in truth—for self. Then, require that the "other" be responsible. And then, squarely face the circumstance and make necessary changes in attitude or purpose, see how the bed is rumpled or tidy, DARE TO TAKE A CHANCE AND MOVE ON, or quit complaining about your plight. YOU MADE THAT BED, DRAG THAT BED—AND YOU WILL LIE IN IT. IT IS THE LAW OF THE UNIVERSE. When you get weary enough and crippled enough from dragging the bed—you will change it.

I bid you good morning. Salu.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE

805-822-0202

This is a service for our dedicated readers. Today's Watch telephone hotline carries the latest news and comments from Commander Hatonn's most recent writings. This is our way of keeping you informed about fast-breaking news and events.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. The message update(s), if any, occur by 6 PM Pacific Time.
