KEEP THE FOCUS IN THE CENTER RING
AS THIS CIRCUS CONTINUES

I would like to focus on some of the REAL PLAYERS in this foolish game of charades. To do so and to fully bring past non-accessed (to our information) players and readers up to current speed, I need to speak about the Bilderbergers and, more importantly, the Trilateral Commission, and see how these players are integrated within the Committee of 300. This is repetitious and tedious but, if our own team does not know the players, we can't fully develop our

10/31/96 RAY BILGER

Chief Sitting Bull of the Sioux (Indian) Nation was on the warpath almost continuously from 1869-1876, because he consistently refused to submit to reservation life. After the battle of Little Bighorn in 1876, Sitting Bull fled across the border into Canada where Indians were allowed to live in peace. This practice became a constant source of embarrassment to the American Government. Thus, an American commission, led by General Alfred Terry, was sent to Canada to request Sitting Bull and his band of Sioux to return to the United States and reservation life. Sitting Bull responded by reviewing his tribe's experiences with the "Great White Father" in Washington, reminding the general of the innumerable broken treaties and promises. He then continued, (quoting:)

For 64 years you have persecuted my people. I ask you what we have done to cause us to depart from our own country? I will tell you. We had no place to go, so we took refuge here. It was on this side of the boundary I first learned to shoot and be a man. For that reason I have come back. I was kept ever on the move until I was compelled to foresake my own lands and come here. I was raised close to, and today shake hands with, these people. (He strides toward Canadian Commissioner MacLeod and Superintendent Walsh, shakes hands with them, then turns to the American commissioners.)

That is the way I came to know these people, and that is the way I propose to live. We did not give you our country; you took it from us. Look how I stand with these people (pointing to the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police). Look at me. You think I am a fool, but you are a greater fool than I am. This house, the home of the English, is a medicine house (the abode of truth) and you come here to tell us lies. We do not want to hear them. Now I have said enough. You can go back. Say no more. Take your lies with you. I will stay with these people. The country we came from belonged to us; you took it from us; we will live here. (End quoting)

The embarrassment that was the government of the Great White Father in Washington is no less an embarrassment today to sane, thinking, intelligent Americans. And the lies continue, for the Indian as well as for the general masses, who are but slaves themselves to the Great White (now Bolshevik) Father. Oh, how wonderful it would be to simply say to the Elite One World Controllers, "Just go back to where you came from and take your lies with you!" But we need to be more realistic about such things.

No one in power ever willingly gave up that power to the people. We-The-People in America did fight for, and win, that power to ourselves in 1776. But we were lulled to sleep by the clever Elite and they've now given us sports to feel our power. Most have accepted this substitution without sensing any change.

As this author writes this page, heavy rains (weather control?) have cancelled the first game of the 1996 World Series of baseball in New York City. The average American, like the Roman just before the collapse of the Roman Empire, has lost sight of what his real focus should be (the impending collapse of the world as we know it) and is instead distracted by the thrill of momentary illusions. Today, one might appropriately ask, "Who is the fool, and who is the greater fool?" Let's continue with our investigation of geo-physical manipulations.

When we left off with Part XI, we had seen how powerful electromagnetic light flashes were observed prior to the great earthquake at Tangshan, China in 1976, and we saw how Tesla-technology was able to create such phenomenon. We also saw that, as Dr. Peter Beter revealed, the Russians had placed deep undersea bombs in the Pacific Ocean to generate earthquakes.

Dr. Peter Beter has also revealed that, as of 1980, the Russians had also planted earthquake-generating cobalt bombs underground in the Northeastern part of the United States. These are primarily concentrated around New York City but extend up into New England. On the morning of January 9, 1982, an earthquake of magnitude 5.9 on the Richter scale was set off in Eastern Canada, near Maine. This was reported to be the worst earthquake in the area in 127 years. Nine days later, on January 18, a second earthquake was set off in New Hampshire. This was population control with earthquakes, conducted by the Russians.

In Part XI of this series, it was stated that the January 30, 1981 edition of the Washington Post reported an increase in significant earthquakes coincident with an increase of E.L.F. (Extremely Low Frequency) transmissions by both Russia and the United States.

The March 29, 1992 edition of the Washington Times reported that the incidence of E.L.F. signals associated with earthquakes are continuing, (quoting:)

Satellites and ground sensors detected mysterious radio waves or related electrical and magnetic activity before major earthquakes in Southern California during 1986-87, Armenia in 1988, and Japan and Northern California in 1989.

(The radio signals before these quakes had very low frequencies.) They are known as Very Low, Extremely Low, and Ultra Low Frequency waves, or V.L.F., E.L.F., and U.L.F. Such waves can travel through a certain amount of solid rock, as well as through the atmosphere. (End quoting)

In addition to the above, an Athens University physicist observed electromagnetic signals in six out of seven quakes in Greece over several years.

The available information on human-induced earthquakes is scant compared to that available on weather modification. For one reason, it is not as easy to look inside the Earth as it is to look into the sky. When we see incredibly heavy rains and flooding in one area, lasting for months, while a few hundred miles away there are unusual drought conditions, it's not hard to figure out that something is not quite right. But we cannot see inside the Earth to study how the tectonic plates are moving. Nor are we able to see inside how magma (molten lava) is circulating like the blood in our own veins and arteries.

When, however, there are brilliant flashes of light, seen for 200 miles, prior to an earthquake, or very powerful E.L.F. waves detected just prior to an earthquake, this should be an indication that the earthquake may well have been human-induced.

According to one highly-reputable source who must remain nameless, both Russia and our own U.S. (Bolshevik) Government have the capability of triggering earthquake faults and also of detonating volcanos. In fact, in May of 1979, Mt. St. Helens was triggered to explode, apparently by Russian Cosmospheres.

According to this unnamed source, as of 1992, there were approximately 150 Cosmospheres stationed high above and all along the San Andreas Fault, from Alaska to Central America. As well, all along the New Madrid Fault, which runs roughly along the path of the Mississippi River, from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, there are over 100 Cosmospheres in high-altitude positions.

There are also squadrons of Cosmospheres stationed above every major volcanic mountain in the Pacific Northwest of America. These include, but are by no means limited to, Mt. St. Helens, Mount Adams, Glacier Peak, Mt. Rainier and Mt. Shasta.

Why the big emphasis on the West Coast of America? Heavy damage inflicted there would cause major chaos. Also, the banking central computer system, as of 1992, was/is located there. If this were damaged there would be chaos in the American financial community. It doesn't take much imagination to figure out that if the American financial community collapsed, and that included Wall Street and New York City, it could be used as the pretext to collapse the already shaky world financial community!

Why do you think all American business has moved to other countries? And why we had to have G.A.T.T., N.A.F.T.A., etc.? The intent is to collapse America, and We-The-People along with it. A big part of the Elite One World Controller's Global Plan 2000 is major depopulation of planet Earth by the year 2000, and all of the above planning fits neatly into their dastardly scheme. The triggering of earthquake faults, however, is not done by Cosmospheres alone. Our own Space Shuttles are used, among other things, for the same purpose.

On Sunday, October 10, 1993, C.N.N. Headline News announced that the Space Shuttle Columbia was being prepared to launch on Thursday, October 14th. On the morning of the 14th, it looked as though weather (?) would cause a delay. Then things looked okay, but moments before lift-off a "computer malfunction" stopped the launch. It was announced they would try again the following day.

On Friday, October 15th, N.A.S.A. announced they would reschedule the launch for Monday, October 18th.

On Monday morning, October 18, 1993, Columbia lifted off from Cape Canaveral, Florida, with its crew, and 14 rats, on a 2-week mission (unnamed intelligence sources have reported that the salamanders were involved in high-level contract negotiations and boycotted this particular flight). It was (really) announced by C.N.N. that some of the rats would be decapitated and dissected. Unfortunately for us slaves, the rats did not include Bill Clinton, George Bush, any of Clinton's Cabinet Members, Alan Greenspan, or Henry Kissinger, as all of them were seen elsewhere the same day. Would you have cried if some of them were decapitated? Apparently there are some Americans who believe the rat stories. Amazing!

According to another highly reputable source who must also remain nameless, this Shuttle mission (as well as many others) was used for triggering earthquakes. Early on the morning of Sunday, October 24, 1993, at 1:55 a.m., a strong earthquake, reportedly of "about" magnitude 6.8, shook Mexico City. During this same two-week period of the Columbia being in orbit around the Earth, there were many small quakes in Oregon, California, and Nevada. On October 19, there was a magnitude "4.1" quake along the California-Nevada border. On October 20, the same thing. On October 21, yet another magnitude "4.1" quake in the same area (almost looks like a pattern).

As well, there were earthquakes in Japan, the Kuril Islands, the Philippines, Solomon Islands, off the coast of Kamchatka, off the coast of Nicaragua, the Virgin Islands, Southern Bolivia, Fiji Islands, Guatemala, Costa Rica and Ohio. All of these quakes had magnitudes between "4.3" and "5.8", except Ohio, which was "3.4".

One might ask the question, "Are all of these earthquakes significant?" The answer, of course, is yes, because our scientists know that to keep all fault lines in repeated and periodic motion keeps them loose enough that when it is determined to hit them hard, they will go without a hitch! Besides, all this shaking keeps the masses on edge. It is actually terrorizing of the masses. This is part of the reason we have to have terrorists. If we did not have terrorists to keep the masses traumatized through fear (and thus in more chaos and confusion and totally controlled), they would have to be created. But we are now actually getting into what could be termed part of behavior modification, so let's leave this for now.

On the morning of Monday, January 17, 1994, at 4:31 a.m. local time, an earthquake of magnitude "6.8" shook the area around Northridge, California. This was in the area of Los Angeles, and the shaking damaged several other areas of the city, destroying buildings, freeways, water mains, powerlines, and gas lines which ignited fires. According to scientists, this quake occurred on a previously unknown fault which was said to be a reverse thrust fault. There were reports that at the very epicenter, magnitudes were more like "9.0".

Sources have revealed that this earthquake was human induced. One of the clues is that there was actually a sharp up-thrusting of the land. Naturally occurring earthquakes are usually characterized by mostly lateral movement as the two sides of a fault slip along against each other. According to sources, this quake was caused by detonations from below, which in turn caused the violent up-thrusting of the land.

Even though this earthquake was man-made, it still has many of the markings of a naturally occurring quake. Because the Earth has been greatly disturbed, there are aftershocks, and in L.A. there were many. Two hours after the initial quake there was a magnitude "4.0" quake in Northern California, just north of San Francisco. On Wednesday, January 19, there was a magnitude "6.9" quake in Indonesia and a "4.4" in Klamath Falls, Oregon. On January 20, there was activity in Taiwan, Peru and Northern California. And on Friday, January 21, there were two quakes in Indonesia, a "7.3" and a "6.2". All during this same time Los Angeles experienced over 1,500 aftershocks, many of magnitude "5.0" to "5.5".

Since earthquakes occur all the time in California, (almost) no one suspected that human beings would create such things to destroy and control other human beings. But they do.

By January of 1995, Japan was sitting in a very favorable financial position as it had used its assets, abilities and technological ingenuity to build the world's most successful manufacturing empire. Those who like to let it be known that they run the world, the Elite One World Controllers, had been pressuring Japan to allow the International Monetary Fund (I.M.F., a United Nations-related institution) to have some control over Japan's great financial empire. Japan, wanting to maintain what it felt it had rightly earned itself, chose to retain control over its own wealth and resisted the moves by the I.M.F. If Japan would not listen to the words of the Controllers, then some powerful arm twisting was in order. Japan needed to be taught a lesson!!

Early on the morning of Tuesday, January 17, 1995 (one year to the day after the Northridge, California quake), at 4:45 a.m., a very powerful earthquake of magnitude "7.2" struck Kobe, Japan, one of the country's main manufacturing centers, especially of high technology, and a major port city. The message had been sent to Japan, loud and clear. And they got the message. Sources said it was more like magnitude "8.2"!

The death toll of the Kobe quake would eventually reach 5,000, as the twin cities of Osaka and Kobe suffered incredible devastation. However, those who had been awake and outside prior to the quake reported that there was a tremendous lighted explosive blast prior to the actual earthquake. Some witnesses said it resembled what they would describe as "the whole world being blown up". The Kobe quake was man-made!! As in the Northridge quake, there was the same incredible up-thrusting of the land with relatively very little lateral movement.

The same day as the Kobe earthquake, there was a "6.0" shaker in the Fiji Islands at a depth of 600 kilometers, and another "6.0" in Alaska. The following day there was a "5.6" quake in the Kuril Islands just north of Japan, and the day after that, a "6.5" in Colombia, South America.

We need to understand that all is connected to all on this tiny planet, and that any earthquake activity around the 'Ring of Fire', or around the great Pacific Tectonic Plate generally, affects earthquake activity in other areas around that plate, oftentimes on the opposite side. The entire surface of planet Earth is nothing but a series of interconnected crustal plates, known as tectonic plates. These tectonic plates are always in motion, and at this particular time of Earth changes activity they are in an even more heightened state of movement. Both natural and artificial earthquakes occur today, and will occur tomorrow, because we do not put a stop to the artificial ones. Let's move on to the study of behavior modification, which affects us in more ways than we realize.

Behavior modification, in the broadest sense, includes every device, scheme, artifice or mechanism used to control or influence human behavior, either directly, by some physical means, or through more subtle suggestion (which is not always so subtle), to effect in the human being a specific change in and of their performance.

The practice of behavior modification, when viewed in this broad definition, is as old as humanity on this planet. If we can narrow the parameters of our investigation of this subject to just this century, where the major thrust for controlling the masses has really been elevated to a rather sophisticated science, then we will not have to consume precious time examining the barbarity of past centuries. This is by no means to say that the use of E.L.F. waves to manipulate human behavior is anything but barbaric. It is just that we will not discuss spears, clubs, lances or the like which no doubt were rather effective early means of behavior modification.

What we do know about human behavior modification is that the head is the main target for all of it. This is simply because all of our important senses for perceiving the world are concentrated there. Whatever we see on T.V., or on advertising billboards, or read in books, newspapers, or magazines is seen by the eyes. Whatever we hear, from T.V., to radios, to other people's opinions (most of whom have been brainwashed by the propaganda that envelopes us all) reaches us through our ears. And the brain is the computer which must help in interpreting all of this, as well as helping to maintain all of the general physiological functions which keep the entire body going. As was explained in Part IX of this series, the Alpha Waves of the human brain are in the range of 10 cycles per second, which is also within the range of E.L.F. waves, which are being pulsed almost continuously today for both behavior modification and for weather control. The use of lies to control the people is as old as civilization itself, but the more sophisticated means employed to control huge populations, and even all of humanity, have seen the major thrust of their development in the early part of this century. It was explained in Part V of this series that at the conclusion of World War I, the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations was established in England. It is the 'Tavistock Method' which uses repeated psychological shocks or stressful events to absolutely control society. This is why mankind has been bombarded with one crisis after another for at least this entire century.

The print media (newspapers, books, and magazines) has been used as a device for controlling the masses as long as there has been the printed word. While one might find some truth in books, in America, newspapers were and are owned by powerful monied interests and obviously represent those interests. Remember, the history of events and wars is written by the winners, i.e., the international bankers and the multinational corporations.

It was the advent of radio broadcasting which began a new form of communications. With radio, people could be informed almost immediately about events half-way around the world. Of course, the reporting would have the desired spin on it for purposes of controlling or influencing the listeners to perceive the reported events in a certain way.

The first scheduled preadvertised radio program in the United States went on the air on the evening of Election Day, November 2, 1920, when Station KDKA, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, operated by Westinghouse Electric, broadcast the returns of the Harding-Cox presidential elections. From that day forward, America and Americans would never be the same.

With this new media at their disposal, the One World Controllers kept the major think tanks busy devising all sorts of programs to numb the masses, and then alternately shock them repeatedly with reporting on world events. We have already seen, from earlier Parts of this series, how the masses were lied to time after time about World War I, the crash of the stock market in 1929 and the ensuing economic collapse, the great depression, and events as they unfolded into World War II, and on, and on.

The paramount mind-control device was being developed through the 1920s and 1930s. Silent film, sound, movies were becoming more and more popular, but it was television which would capture the attention of all who saw it, in a unique new way. In 1939 the National Broadcasting Company began regularly scheduled public telecasting with an experimental station, but it would be another decade before TV really had the bugs worked out and it caught on big. By 1948, television was no longer a fad, it was the modern means of communication.

Many years ago, this author heard a story (true) which must have sent a very clear message to our Controllers about just how powerful was this new media called television. Some details about the exact year and location are sketchy, but perhaps some reader might inform us of the correct details.

It was about 1950 with the first hour-long scheduled TV program of Milton Berle, broadcast out of Detroit, Michigan. Today, we have TV commercials every other minute (or so it seems), but in 1950, an hour-long program only had one break, after 30 minutes, or, right in the middle of the hour. This was sensible, as even Milton or his guests might need a momentary break. This program ran at what would later become known as "prime time", from 8:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. All was good, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the very popular Milton Berle.

In a related story, however, there was a big problem in Detroit that had developed, and which could not at first be explained. At precisely 8:30 p.m. on certain evenings the entire city of Detroit would lose all water pressure. This was puzzling until it was realized that this only happened on nights when the Milton Berle Show was on TV. So popular was Milton that everyone was watching him, but not only that, everyone was waiting until the break at 8:30 p.m. to use the bathroom, and then everybody went at once. With thousands-upon-thousands of toilets flushing at the same time, it was as though someone had opened all the water outlet valves in the city, thereby reducing the water pressure in the entire city to almost nothing!!

This was, no doubt, valuable news to our Elite One World Controllers. They now knew for certain they had an enormously powerful tool on their hands. The people could be trained like robots to all get up and go to the bathroom at the same time. It would not be too difficult then to have all the lambs line up for the slaughter, especially if the slaughterhouse could be made more attractive with slick programming, color pictures (on the TV) and with great sound effects. Just think of it; a mind control device to control the world, disguised as a television set. How clever!!

What is it that makes TV so magnetic that it draws you into its spell like some hypnotic trance? Try walking into a room where people are watching TV and see how difficult it is not to pay attention to it. Could it be because TV is an electromagnetic device that is radiating electromagnetic signals, and sounds, out to the viewer? Do TV programs program us??

Although there is incredible potential for television to become a very engaging tool to inform and enlighten the masses, since the efforts of our Elite Controllers have overwhelmingly been to lie to the people, it should come as no surprise to learn that TV was and is used to further the lies.

Some excerpts from Encyclopedia Americana, 1962 Edition, Volume 26, will prove very telling about what was projected onto the public from a publication now obviously controlled by think tanks. It is amazing that the encyclopedia said what it did. It is doubtful you would read about this in a new encyclopedia, (quoting:)

There are compelling reasons for the serial character of television programming. One is the fact that television adapts itself to the routine of daily life so that audiences form viewing habits and develop program loyalties. The housewife organizes her domestic tasks around her favorite programs, the children's schedules are built around programs designed for them, the family gathers for group viewing after the day's tasks are over...

The continuous operation of television broadcasting stations throughout the day, every day, has no parallel in other public communications media and the consequent rapid absorption of program ideas places considerable strain on human ingenuity and imagination. It would be literally impossible to schedule something entirely new and original in each program segment; hence the necessity of stretching each program idea as far as possible...

Television is essentially a reporting medium, with the unique advantage of being able to time its reports flexibly and precisely in terms of... the needs and psychological readiness of audiences... information can be timed to find the audience in a suitably relaxed and receptive mood...

The speed and completeness of public acceptance of television broadcasting have been among the most striking of social phenomena of modern times. This is true in every country where a television service has been made available, but particularly true in the United States because of its size, large number of primary stations, and the purchasing power of the general public. Within a decade (1950-1960), over 46,000,000 homes in the United States were equipped with television. It took radio broadcasting 25 years to accomplish the same penetration, and the automobile half-a-century. In that brief decade the television set advanced from a novelty to a household necessity, ranked in importance with the telephone, the bathtub, and the refrigerator...

Television is sometimes alleged to be responsible for juvenile delinquency, crime waves, and other anti-social behavior; or it is proposed that television be used to "sell" democracy...

Students of social control believe that people are influenced most importantly by the small, primary social group to which they belong. It appears that television's capacity to influence behavior depends heavily upon certain prior circumstances, such as an individual's existing disposition toward the behavior suggested by television and the existence of a social mechanism to facilitate achievement of the suggested goal...

Though television is not all-powerful as a social influence, it nevertheless has a profound advantage over all other media of communication in its capacity to enlarge the individual's horizon of experience vicariously. (End quoting)

Today, it is not difficult to see how true is the above information from 1962. "Television's capacity to influence behavior depends heavily upon certain prior circumstances", and if those circumstances are guns, drugs and violence in the environment of young people, and they see plenty of guns, drugs and violence on television, then those same young people are predisposed to turn around and go shoot someone for drugs. The "social mechanism to facilitate achievement of the suggested goal" is, or can be, the gun, and it is used as the convenient means of solving social problems on an increasingly frequent basis. And those who do not see how all of this has worked together to destroy youth, the family, and society, are blind!!!

FOREWORD

We will call this a "Foreword" simply because it is the next writing. I have been focused this week on distant situations which have needed my full attention so the recent writings have had to be private and regarding, mostly, urgently needed considerations.

CANADIAN DEBT CALL ON U.S.

We have to take note of the heating up of conflict between the United States and just about everybody else. The Canadian Border problems are about the most intense issue today. I consider it a very good thing for you-the-people and I hope you will not simply let the opportunity of bearing sweet fruit die on the vine. There are trillions of citizen dollars tied up in the "call" on the U.S. to pay the Canadians for property seized, but agreed to be paid fairly for, at the end of the Revolutionary War for Independence. The ONLY way the nation is going to be able to honor such agreements, now with billions of dollars in interest added, is to honor THAT GOLD CERTIFICATE ESTABLISHED IN VALUE BY THE GOOD OL' BOYS' BUSH CLUB. It alone can pay off ALL the debt of the United States owed on such treaties and agreements. But will the Privately owned and European-operated Federal Reserve Banking network also WIN? NO. Just remember, readers, ALL of your income taxes go to servicing that DEBT to THOSE banks—not to running your government or for your own services.

DISEASES

I need to remind you AGAIN of things taking place today in the world of micro-organisms as a weapon of choice being used against you-the-people.

During this very current period of time there was a full blown political plan of the Shadow Government orchestrated through the corrupt portion of the CIA and the Elite, yea Banksters—to release millions of infected fleas as well as introduce spores and organisms through aerosol carriers, into the population at major airports, train and bus terminals and into the shopping malls—right through Christmas.

The diseases are now running rampant through populations of different nations as the Olympics participants have carried the original infections back home to share and tell. The initial symptoms are first recognized as colds and flu. The bouts worsen into full-blown disease only after the first cycling comes and goes and you think you have bested the organisms sickening you. No, these are genetically altered micro-organisms which mutate to each new host.

A LOT of lies are being foisted off on you, however. Beware of major hype articles which will simply push you off into rash and unlawful behavior and get great numbers incarcerated and/or killed. There are a lot of correct presentations but among the REAL come the foolish lies as well. Use your minds, sort carefully, and be prepared as much as you can. YOU ARE ALREADY EXPERIENCING BOUTS OF PUBLIC-ACQUIRED ORGANISMS AS EVEN RESTAURANTS ARE BEING TEMPORARILY CLOSED BECAUSE OF OUTBREAKS IN FOOD OR THROUGH FOOD HANDLERS.

What are the expected diseases, for starters?

1. PLAGUE—Yersinia Pestis.
2. ANTHRAX—Bacillus Anthracis.
3. CHOLERA—Vibrio Cholera.
4. TYPHOID FEVER—Salmonella Typhi.

These are all "recognized" diseases and all are known to be deadly in Pandemic ability to spread through insects, food and water supplies.

NOW THEY ARE CROSSED WITH VIRUSES WHICH MUTATE AND ARE THEREFORE "MISSED" IN DIAGNOSIS MOST OF THE TIME.

It is not unusual to pick up a variation of say, Salmonella, (food poisoning) and most of the time the diagnosis is simple food poisoning when actually there is present Botulism—so PAY ATTENTION to your own sniffles. Certainly, do not panic and go off the deep end with antibiotics for a case of "cold" lest you build up resistance. However, I suggest that if you can do so, have some antibiotics on hand. The best way to store such is through colloidalized solutions such as Titanium, Copper, Silver and Gold. These are totally harmless to the overall body cells but destructive to the invaders. Only the OxySol and Silver, however, act as an immediate antiseptic. Almost any recognized "antiseptic" agent, however, will kill the surface organisms. There will come a time when ONLY the colloidalized items, mentioned here, will work at all for internal infection.

I ask that you be especially aware of PNEUMONIC PLAGUE. This occurs when cells of Y. pestis are either inhaled directly or reach the lungs during bubonic plague bouts. Symptoms are usually absent until the last day or two of the disease when large amounts of bloody sputum are emitted. Untreated cases rarely survive more than two days. Pneumonic plague, as one might expect, is a highly contagious disease, and can spread rapidly via the respiratory route if infected individuals are not immediately quarantined. This, of course, IS the carrier organism for that old "new" "mystery virus" which kills in a matter of hours. THERE IS NO MYSTERY about it except what is intended for your consumption and a full expectation that the disease itself will be "treated" in such a way as to enhance the introduced virus reproduction even if the carrier organism is killed. So, we can simply refer to this advanced type of plague as Septicemic Plague.

Billions of those Septicemic Plague organisms are being released in flea hosts. The fleas remain dormant in cold temperatures, so this time of the year, along with Spring, are the ideal dispersion times. The fleas can be chilled, put into "thermos" bottles or containers, and dumped at sites where, when warmed a bit, the flea becomes animated—AND HUNGRY. There are several different insects used as carriers, but for Plagues the ideal carrier is the flea.

And how can you tell if your fleas are non-dormant? Well, perhaps you can't because they can endure intense heat and intense cold without damage. You CAN, however, accurately measure temperatures by several of the other insects and realize that the flea is among the same grouping. You can "hear" the temperature changes if you learn to LISTEN. Obviously, since the grasshopper is a herbivore and only eats plants, it won't work for a human host because you have to have a BLOOD-SUCKER.

The grasshopper, as a for instance, is loudest at 95° F and is unable to chirp when the temperature falls below 62° F. This is why the winter nights on a farm are so silent. All the insects who sing and chirp are sleeping. A grasshopper which can fly very well in the summer, cannot fly at all at a temperature below 45° F, and at 36° or 37° F is unable to jump. Therefore, whenever you hear a grasshopper, you know the temperature is at least 62° F.

At 40° F ALL insects are silent, and at 33° or 34° F the insect thermometer ceases to register because all the insects are helpless. Ah, but like the hungry bear in the Spring—those insects awaken with voracious appetites.

I would also note that fleas especially tend to clump on hosts when the temperatures reach above 105° F. This is for the "cooling" needs as much as for food supply.

HALLOWEEN TREATS

One "community" plan of the Adversary this and subsequent years is to mist the areas where children in highly populated areas will be Trick- or-Treating on Halloween. It is easy to do this and nobody will be recognized as everyone will be dressed up to hide identities. VERY, VERY DANGEROUS, THIS TRICK-OR-TREATING! This is not called All Saints Day where we come from—it is ALL SATAN'S DAY!

Just remember something very, very important: the disease you see is no longer the "disease you have".

GERM WARFARE

It is touted around that "germ" warfare will come from a foreign source, such as Clinton's spewing that somehow Iraq is capable of utilizing this mode of war. Well, that may well be so—but they got the damned microbes FROM THE UNITED STATES—and therefore, Clinton won't go to Iraq to use them ON YOU. And YOU, brethren, are TOTALLY UNPREPARED FOR THIS TYPE OF WARFARE.

I do suggest, however, that you seriously consider GETTING THE HELL OUT OF THE MIDDLE EAST, U.S., BECAUSE WHAT IS ABOUT TO ERUPT IS GOING TO BE SIMILAR TO WHATEVER YOU CONSIDER TO BE, HELL.

The U.S. and ally Israel are now accepted everywhere on the globe as "the naked aggressors". You have turned millions of friends into enemies and your days are numbered for you stand at the brink of total disaster.

I have to remind you now of something else we wrote about many times but it NOW TAKES ON OMINOUS MEANING.

LASER TECHNOLOGY

Do you remember when we told you about lasers that melt eyeballs? Do you also remember that we told you about the U.S. supplying Israel with such technology? No? Well here it is, better stated than did we for we did not focus much on the whos and hows—but be ready, readers, Iraq not only has Germ Warfare capabilities but also has this Laser technology and is just waiting for you to suck Her in—again! To make the point of this deadly weapon I related it to the Photon Belt passage wherein there would PROBABLY be an igniting of the Radiation Belt around your planet. This would produce such intense light radiation as to accomplish blindness in most of the population.

We have been laughed at and ridiculed by the best “patriots” you can offer, i.e., Monarch Herr Col. James “Bo” Gritz, et al., for our suggestion to have instantly available some extremely dark glasses and preferably some of the darkest welder’s goggles available. We were accused of possibly owning stock in the goggle factory. I wish we did!

[QUOTING, as an example as to how accepted this is, now, let us just reprint here a copy of a special request for massive distribution of an article in Spotlight, Oct. 28, 1996 entitled:]

DEATH RAY GIVEAWAY

“Israel Acquiring Banned American Laser That ‘Melts Eyeballs’ of Enemies” is the headline of a “Special Report” in the July issue of The Washington Report on Middle East Affairs. The author of the story, Tim Kennedy, describes a weapon so horrible that it is forbidden to American troops—but is being given to Israel.

Here is what Kennedy had to say, in part, in the Washington Report:

Yielding to pressure, last September U.S. Secretary of Defense William Perry banned the fielding of lasers designed to cause permanent blindness. However, it now appears that Perry and President Bill Clinton intend to give an anti-personnel laser to Israel in exactly the same category they have banned for American military use. And neither the Pentagon nor the White House intends to prohibit Israel from using this devastating weapon to destroy the eyesight of its enemies.

Back in May, Warren Hough, exclusively informed readers of the Spotlight:

A “death ray” laser weapon, U.S.-designed but denied to American forces because it is thought “too inhuman”, will be handed over to Israel this year by the Clinton administration. The public announcement of the gigantic defense giveaway, timed to coincide with Israel Prime Minister Shimon Peres’ recent state visit to Washington, identifies the weapon only as the “Nautilus anti-missile” laser. The “Buck Rogers-style” weapon can destroy missiles in flight with deadly accuracy.

But there is only one (and a lesser) potential use. It can be used on the ground to instantly immobilize and permanently blind thousands of combat troops in an instant.

Kennedy further reports that “The laser is effective against targets up to 12 miles away,” and quotes an eye specialist at Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington [H: And, oh boy, they should know!] that: “Simply put: total, permanent blindness,” will be the result of the use of the weapon. The laser light literally “melts the eyeball”, this specialist, who served as a medical consultant for several anti-personnel laser testing programs, told the magazine writer.

The Spotlight identified TRW, a major defense-technology conglomerate, as the company where research on anti-personnel laser weapons has been going on for 17 years. Code-named MIAAD-182 (Mid-range Infra-red Advanced Antipersonnel Disabling system), it has been renamed “Nautilus”. [H: Read it again—it is NOW called “NAUTILUS”.]

The Spotlight’s Hough quoted one expert: “War planners foresaw a time when the mere terror of a swiftly, silently gliding ray that ‘melts’—literally incinerates—the human eye would panic hostile troops and rout them without firing a shot.”

An expert on laser technology and weaponry told the Spotlight that “The Nautilus represents the ultimate combat technology. Properly engineered, it will destroy anything in its path.”

And there is one more point of interest: As with many Spotlight exclusives, readers sent the reports to their representatives and senators in Congress and were informed by these worthies that the Spotlight had no idea what it was talking about. [H: How many times have you heard that one?] These constituents were told that the Defense Department had assured Congress that no such weapon existed and we certainly hadn’t given away any such things.

Perhaps readers can now ask their representatives and senators if The Washington Report on Middle East Affairs is also lying—along with the people quoted. Or is it the government?

[END OF QUOTING]

This is a time of serious threat specifically to any troops in the Middle East but the germ warfare is going to take place AT HOME, wherever you call home. That same laser, by the way, is intense enough to ignite that Radiation Belt of which we have just spoken. You are safe NOWHERE. However, there will be a full intent of protection for God’s true people. It simply IS and there is no need for arguments. There will also be places “off limits” to direct attack. I can’t give you those coordinates but I suggest you do some in-depth Journal, and back issue of CONTACT, reading.

Whether or not you actually “have” an Armageddon—you shall certainly have an Apocalypse, for there eventually comes a time when these rampant threats against the population take their devastating toll. We are now speaking of deadly assaults which do not take into consideration specific and focused groups such as the “homosexual” community for starters. Just as with AIDS, the microbes make no distinction as to sexual preference, sexuality, OR SEX—period.

Neither will eyeball melting be selective to any of the above characterizations.

BANKS AND BANKING AND THE ELITE

While we write of things of war we may as well go on and update on happenings within the Corporate Banking Community. I did not say “corporations”—I said “Corporate.”

Your non-heard-of Green Party candidate, Ralph Nader, commented on banks and money. He said: “Bill Clinton reappointed the Republican chairman of the Federal Reserve, which is part of the permanent government in Washington that makes the economy safe for the financial industry’s profits—no matter what its mischief and speculation. The federal banking agencies serve the banks under Clinton as they did under Republican presidents, using massive bailouts of crooks and swindlers. Taxpayers will pay half-a-trillion dollars between 1990 and 2020 in principal and interest for the savings-and-loan scandal alone.” Better listen up, readers, because you are literally into a race for your money—as well as for your lives.

Along the lines of this topic, writer James L. Green has done another superb job of presenting some interesting information.

[QUOTING, SPOTLIGHT, Oct. 28, 1996:]

FED. GOVERNMENT DEPRESS ECONOMY

[H: Note that when the market DROPS there is usually speculation the there is ECONOMIC GROWTH and it never makes any sort of REASONABLE sense. That is because you are talking about only a FEW major corporations that comprise the “averages” and NOT the actual economy. Either way it doesn’t mean anything except realization of full MANIPULATION by the Elite Banksters.]

I usually think of crossties as wooden beams that support railroad tracks. In a broader context, crossties are any interdependent supports or connections. Crossties should be clearly definable, but even the most obvious are sometimes too subtle to grasp.

Today’s corporate entrepreneurship is the hallmark of business. Corporations from the Fortune 500 to thousands of smaller businesses are legal entities with stated rights, privileges and liabilities distinct from those of their shareowners. Significantly, corporate crossties connect the massive economic resources demanded by ever-changing technology and markets with a growing concentration of capital flows and financing.

Corporations create jobs, they create wealth and distribute income which provides the mass markets they service with a continuous flow of goods and services. The credo: Service customers with quality goods at competitive prices.

Now, let’s check the crossties. Since private corporations evolved with the American Industrial Revolution at the turn of this century, their role as powerful cogs in the machinery of the economy has been suspect by those holding political power.

In recent decades, this rivalry has quickened. Both governments and corporations seek to develop nations and markets culturally and commercially. The resiliency of market successes contrasts with the failure of government-planned economies.

Political interventionism in the United States, however, has seemingly abandoned the goal of equality of opportunity and heralded equality for all, regardless of qualification, training or suitability. Through "command and control" mandates, government has long endeavored to turn the very considerable corporate economic/social contributions into the public benevolence of a "caring government". A prime tool used by government in this endeavor is its monopoly control over our debt-based money system.

The money power is a means to direct economic performance, to redistribute income, and to control and manipulate economic activities to gain political ends. At every turn in the economic environment, government grapples for the control of wealth and the exercise of economic power.

Given this continuing rivalry and interference, it is no surprise that economic growth, investment, productivity gains, real wages and economic stability have been winding down since then-President Richard Nixon cut all ties to sound money in 1971.

We can be assured that in the coming deep economic contraction, the raucous demands to "share the wealth" and redistribute income will bounce off every political sounding board.

The crossties are weakening. As the pace of change quickens, both social and technological revolutions are underway. More and more entrepreneurial corporations are tethered to the money power to garner financial access to massive capital requirements, to the expertise corporations need to survive and to fast-changing technology.

CENTRAL BANKS' ROLE

Corporations operate in markets where they allocate resources, build technology into productive capacity, hire labor services, finance, produce and sell their goods and services. All markets are subject to ups and downs triggered by the depreciating dollar and its loss of value as the money power rises.

Central banks control transaction-money availability and short-term interest rates. With a pen, central bankers can bankrupt a nation and bring its economy to a standstill. Central banks have crossties to regional spheres that transcend nation-states.

Monetary crossties of central bankers determine who gets the money, who keeps the money, who spends the money and, importantly, who drives the economy and in what direction. However, crossties of the monetary power causing the long-term devaluation of the dollar remain uncorrected and irreversible. At some point, the money power crossties crumble. Then real economic trouble erupts, and we face monetary reality.

[END OF QUOTING]

This writer did not present some important additional facts but we weary of repeating and repeating the same old tales. The world economy is near collapse for the citizens. This is only ONE OF THE SIGNS of approaching devastation of society as you have come to realize it. We refer to it as the Sodomizing and Gommorahizing of the globe. When such massive evil erupts and so totally corrupts all facets of societal structure and behavior, the inevitable and unavoidable consequences of that deviation and deterioration of moral and physical standards accomplishes total Evil in consequences.

WHAT IN THE NAME OF ROMAN CATHOLICISM...?

Even in your imaginings would anyone come up with this new information regarding Russia and only from the joint actions of Catholic-Israeli (Judeo-Christian) attitudes and misadventures comes this new turn or events and declarations. Some "Saints" have been hundreds of years in the making and yet comes along, now, one of the biggest LIES ever told to find its conclusion in misrepresentation in the very places of Czarism. But, citizens of the world—THIS TELLS MORE ABOUT TRUTH AND FACT THAN ANY PRESENTATION YOU CAN FIND.

[QUOTING, from U.S. News and World Report, Oct. 28, 1996:]

LAST CZAR, NEW SAINT

Almost 80 years have passed since Bolshevik assassins killed Czar Nicholas II, his wife, Alexandria, and their five children. [H: Already the lies are borne forth: All of the Czar Nicholas II's family WERE NOT ASSASSINATED. In fact, none of them were assassinated AS HAS BEEN PRESENTED IN THE HISTORY ANNALS.] But now Russia's last royal family is about to get its due—complete with halos. Last week, the Russian Orthodox Church formally recommended that the entire family be recognized as martyrs of the faith and canonized as saints. Since 1981 [H: At least one son was still LIVING: H.I.H. Aleksei Nicholaevichy Romanoff, The Heir to the All-Russian Imperial Throne. Tsarevich and Grand Duke of Russia, Head of the Russian Imperial House, etc., etc. So, doesn't this smack of some kind of misdirection in intent? I will note, however, that you TRUE Christians might well take HEART from this silent recognition that Russia, as was once known—is and was not, what she came to be after the Jewish Zionist COMMUNIST takeover BY THE BOLSHEVIKS IN 1917! FURTHERMORE, JUST "WHO" HAS THOSE COSMOSPHERES?] the czar has been considered a saint by the church's American branch—which was unconstrained by the hidebound atheism of the Soviet regime. Even in the newly open Russia, the decision is controversial: Communists have long regarded Nicholas as a bloody oppressor whose excesses led to the even bloodier Russian Revolution. But church officials hailed the czar as a symbol of purity murdered as a representative of Russian Christianity. The church's Congregational Synod will render a final decision in February.

[END OF QUOTING]

I would like to end this writing with an observation of these politicians who get up and expound that somehow you "are at peace" as a nation. NO you ARE NOT for PEACE IS LIBERTY IN TRANQUILITY. And readers, THAT fact was recognized by Cicero many, many generations past and he never even made it to Sainthood!

You have NO PEACE for there is NO TRANQUILITY—ANYWHERE.

Even Ted Turner has been sacrificed. He, at the least, occasionally let some worthy news slip through. Now he is married to a Jewess who manipulated his way right into the trap of Time-Warner ENTERPRISES, INC. And he already bites the bullet and then the dust.

WHO'S SORRY NOW?

Ted Turner has apologized to the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) [H: British Intelligence of British Israel.] of B'nai B'rith for comparing fellow media mogul Rupert Murdoch to Adolf Hitler. But Turner didn't apologize to Murdoch. "Murdoch is like the late Fuhrer," Turner was quoted in remarks comparing freedom of reporting between media outlets owned by him and those owned by Murdoch. Abraham Foxman of the ADL called for "an explanation" and Turner immediately came through with an apology for "an unfortunate choice of words".

Fine, he ALSO LOST CONTROL OF HIS OWN NETWORK!

In the above statement attributed to Turner, it reads "Fuhrer". That could mean any head of state in Germany. Do you see how insidious and insipid is the focus on Anti-Semitic (which the Jews are not, Semitic) anything and such as this kind of trashing? But, in addition, just watch how quickly come the Elite apologies.

Ah, friends, it is time to take note of the Manifesting Realities.

Dear Friends,
Here's more news the networks don't tell you:

THE GODS ARE BACK (did they ever leave?)

When people hear information about what is in orbit around Earth, what is on the Moon or Mars, or such, they always ask (or at least think), "If that's true, why doesn't somebody see something, how come it's not front page headlines," and such. The answers are, astronomers and others do see things, things are reported, but there are conspiracies to keep the truth away from the mass of the public. You can find information if you look, but you must "do your homework." Example, on a recent Art Bell radio show, Art read a FAX he had received from an astronomer who was currently tracking a giant object (craft) of some sort flying around the moon. An older example, on a 19 July, 1991 radio broadcast of For The People, the question was what ever happened to 8-13A? The host read the following from a 6 Oct '77 article from the NY Times, (quoting):

Government scientists call newly discovered heavenly object a stray asteroid. Astronomers worldwide in disagreement with official explanation call the phenomena an intelligently guided object.

Washington, Oct 6. United States Government astronomers at the National Radio Astronomy Observatory have identified an uncataloged object near Jupiter as an asteroid from outside the solar system. Their conclusions have been contested by leading astronomers across the world who believe the object is not a natural phenomena. The object, designated 8-13A, was discovered on Monday by Dr. Leo Moffet at the Green Bank Radio Astronomy center in West Virginia. Dr. Moffet made the discovery while searching for evidence of an atmosphere on Io, a moon of Jupiter.

His instruments detected a small object not previously recorded just outside Io's orbital path. The existence of the object has been verified by scientists worldwide. Dr. Moffet initially believed that the object was a tiny moon of Jupiter, but its course and velocity persuaded him otherwise. He then assumed it was an errant asteroid on an extremely elongated, elliptical orbit around the Sun. He named it asteroid 8-13A in accordance with the observatory's classification system.

When the discovery was announced to the scientific community on Tuesday, astronomers throughout the world focused their attention on 8-13A. Its size was approximated to be 7 kilometers, about 4 miles, in diameter. Scientists had expressed surprise that the object had hitherto escaped detection and focused their attention on plotting its course. No trace of an orbital curve could be found. The object is apparently on a straight trajectory that will take it very close to Earth. According to calculations, there is no danger of collision. But if 8-13A's rate of deceleration remains constant, it should take up orbit around Earth just inside that of the moon on or about Oct 25. In light of the discoveries concerning 8-13A's trajectory, Dr. Moffet modified his original statement and described the object as a cometary body from interstellar space which was making its first and only visit to this solar system. Not all scientists agree with this explanation, however. Dr. Lawrence Rude of the British Interplanetary Society stated "the facts surrounding 8-13A effectually discount the possibility of a natural origin for the object. First, the object is on a perfectly straight path toward Earth. Second, it is traveling at just the right speed to enable it to enter into a stable orbit around Earth. If it were traveling any slower it would be pulled into Earth by gravity with catastrophic results. If it were any faster, it would pass by our planet and move on out of the solar system. Finally, the fact is that 8-13A is DECELERATING as it approaches implies guidance.

Natural celestial bodies do not decelerate of their own accord. It is my belief that 8-13A is neither an asteroid nor a comet, but an intelligently guided vehicle from beyond the solar system."

MORE RECENT VISITORS

Here is another recent example. NASA scientist Dr. Norman Bergun says in his new book The Ring-Makers of Saturn that a NASA Voyager probe took pictures of intelligently controlled craft in orbit around Saturn. He said that portholes could be seen on the craft. There were two craft, elliptical, and each one was estimated to be approximately the size of the Earth! Bergun talked of them on the Alan Handlemann Radio Show in Charlotte, North Carolina, on January 30, 1996, WRFX-FM.

Science News, August 5, 1995, in the article titled "Saturn ring toss: Hubble finds more moons", p. 87, announced discovery of "...two previously unknown moons orbiting the planet", dubbed S3 and S4. The article says Amanda Bosh of Lowell Observatory in Flagstaff, Ariz., and Andrew Rivkin of University of Arizona reported the findings in a July 26 report. "These bodies lie outside Saturn's narrow, outer F ring, with S3 adjacent to the ring and S4 about 6,000 km farther out." The article then reveals that the orbits were projected using "...a set of quick observations taken in 1980 and 1981, when the two Voyager spacecraft flew past Saturn." Then Science News, February 3, 1996, page 71, in the article "New Saturn moons or only transient debris?" reported on these "new moons" but said they may be only clouds of "ice and dust". "But after analyzing the data further, Bosh has now determined that only one of the bodies is a new moon. The other, dubbed S3, has an orbit so similar to one of Saturn's outer rings, the F ring, that it in fact represents a small clump of material from the ring.

"From Hubble images taken during the August 10 crossing, Phillip D. Nicholson of Cornell University and his colleagues detected two never-before-seen bodies as well as S3. The team has concluded that none is a moon. Nicholson says the objects must have been created during the last 14 years, because they are too big and too bright for the Voyager craft to have overlooked them during Saturn fly-bys in the early 1980s. In addition, the brightest of the three bodies is elongated, unlike a satellite. All three objects seem to have disappeared by Nov. 21, when Hubble again viewed Saturn, Nicholson notes."

Big. Bright. Two unknowns, then three, then they decide one "may represent remnants of tiny, shattered moons". But they say that "none is a moon". There have been many reports of sightings of HUGE craft near the Moon, etc., reports of unknown "comets/asteroids" coming in toward Earth then they are never mentioned again, etc. Why does the government hide this information?

When asked this question, Dr. Bergun said: "The 1958 Space Act states that the public should only be informed of space data and photographs if it is determined 'non-hostile'." He said a craft this size would be considered "hostile" and would be kept secret from the public. "It would have far too great a military significance," he said.

DON'T MISS YOUR TRAIN

Nikolos Soren, a private investigator in Los Angeles, called a news conference on March 26, 1996, and said that while he was on a stakeout west of the Montgomery Freeway, he aimed his "bionic ear" microphone across the bay at the Coronado Naval Amphibious Base on Silver Strand Blvd. He heard an officer say, "Oh, shit! Look at the time. We'd better get back in. The tube train leaves in fifteen minutes for Groom Lake!"

Groom Lake, Nevada, is a long way from Los Angeles. Soren later said he had received threatening phone calls telling him to "shut up about the train".

WIZARD OF ID

TURN, TURN, TURN

British crop circle researcher Colin Andrews says that the crop circle researcher community has been nearly taken over by intelligence operatives. Intelligence agents threatened him. He said, "They wanted me to state publicly that the crop circle phenomenon was a hoax. When we got back to my home he said that he would show me how to say it and what to say. In return for this I was offered a bank account in Switzerland in which would be enough money that I would never need to even think about money ever again." Andrews has moved to the United States.

SADDAM HUSSEIN GETS HIS (BALL) BEARINGS

Aviation Week & Space Technology magazine for Sep. 30, p. 23, article says: "CONFUSED COMMAND"—Cruise missile raids against Iraq have shown some command and control problems within Central Command, Pentagon officials say. Conventional air-launched cruise missiles were fired against the wrong types of targets because of last-minute target changes made by Central Command officials who didn't know the capabilities of the B-52-launched weapons. The Boeing-made missiles carry one-ton warheads that dispense a spray of metal balls designed to destroy air defense missiles, radars and control vans out in the open—not blast hardened facilities or underground bunkers....Not surprisingly, damage was inconsequential..."

The Sep. 9 issue had an article (p. 35) called "No Clear Winners Emerge From U.S.-Iraq Clash" which said there were 4 target sites with 15 targets, 44 cruise missiles were fired but many missed. "That means at least half the missiles hit within 30-45 ft. of their targets. What is not clear is the total damage inflicted by those missiles that were not direct hits. One senior Pentagon official classified the first strike as 'about what the planners expected,' but the re-strike 'wasn't worth a damn'." If the first strike did what they planned, then why did they need a restrike? They said that clouds prevented them from knowing for sure if the targets were hit. Fact is, cruise missiles are programmed for stationary targets, and are not appropriate for mobile targets such as SA-6 and SA-8 sites. Remember the news telling us that Iraq fired a missile at a U.S. plane and we fired back and "took it out"? AW&ST said the Iraqi SA-8 missile radar site fired and then was turned off "but it is not known if the SA-8 was hit." "No clear winners?" It looks to me like they both won, it's almost as if Clinton and Hussein were working together for mutual political benefit.

Page 36 has an article about conventional air-launched cruise missiles being used to carry electromagnetic pulse generator warheads, and says that these same CALCM's are sometimes used to throw out "a spray of metal balls".

NASA CONTINUES TO BE TAKEN OVER BY WAR-MAKERS

AW&ST, Oct. 7, 1996: "NASA Begins Shuttle Handover", p. 72. Article says that 85% of shuttle operations are being placed under United Space Alliance, a joint venture of Lockheed Martin and Rockwell International (William Perry and Norm Augustine and boys). CEO of United Space Alliance is Kent Black. I wonder how/why/where they came up with the name "United Space Alliance". They are preparing for war in space. The Air Force Magazine, October 1996, p. 3 says: "The Air Force is preparing for the eventuality that military operations—and probably combat—will occur in space." General Thomas S. Moorman, Jr., Air Force vice chief of staff, spoke of "spacebased lasers to shoot down hostile ICBMs, space weapons that attack other satellites, or weapons released from space platforms that destroy terrestrial targets."

BUGS

Georgia Tech is currently talking to three companies about mass producing bio-sensors to detect such bio-hazards as food poisoning.

"The nation's military chiefs have endorsed a plan to vaccinate all U.S. forces against anthrax in what would be the Pentagon's first regular inoculation program against a germ warfare agent, Defense Department officials said". (Oct. 2.)

Short wave radio talk shows have told of agents equipped with anthrax warfare kits who have (already) been infiltrated into this country and are ready to go on command. They plan to kill hundreds-of-thousands. Don't run out and "get your shots", though, the shots are often more deadly than the disease. Health and disease are some of the DEADLIEST hoax subjects being used to kill and control people and amass fortunes. A small "for example": George Bush was part owner of a Houston company that sold biological warfare agents to Iraq which were used against American troops. Bush was head of one of the world's largest illegal drug operations when he was head of the CIA, then he was made a director of Eli Lilly drug company by Dan Quayle's father (now you know why Quayle was later chosen as Bush's vice president). He illegally lobbied for drug companies and is still in the drug business, both legal and illegal (drugs are drugs, whether legal or not). Alan Abelson in Barron's said "Neither Mr. Dole nor Mr. Clinton has made an issue of the startling disclosure that the CIA was hawking crack in L.A. during the 'Eighties'." What goes around comes around. Former senior White House FBI agent Dennis Sculimbrene says some top Clinton Administration officials had recent histories of extensive drug use. What he did not say, but others do, is that (the real) Clinton inhales about 5 lines of cocaine per day.

Rumors on the Internet were that several people had been arrested about October 24 or 25 at Houston Airport for carrying thermos jugs full of (anthrax) fleas. Dulles Airport was shut down for four hours at approximately the same time, officials were observed spraying perfume in the air conditioning vents at O'Hare Airport, etc. It appears that Clinton bombed Hussein (actually, Clinton did not know about it until after it happened), and Hussein told the U.S. that he would retaliate with biological attacks on the U.S. There is more going on but it is not safe to know too much about it. The following was posted on the Internet by Brian Redman:

IRAQI WOMEN BRING ANTHRAX AMPULES INTO THE US (HIDDEN IN THEIR PRIVATE PARTS)—Biological Pearl Harbor Feared by Pentagon. Former CIA microbiologist Larry Harris was on Steve Quayle's shortwave radio program Blueprint for Survival, 9.400 Mhz, 5 pm CST yesterday, warning of a biological "Pearl Harbor".

Harris said he did an interview for CNN that hasn't aired yet about Iraqi agents bringing anthrax and plague into the country to unleash on American cities. My feeling is that CNN will never air it. He said the government is taking the threat seriously and that is why they want to vaccinate ALL American G.I.s. Quayle started his program saying a lot of people from the Defense Department were listening to this program Tuesday to hear Harris. Harris is an ex-CIA microbiologist who had some inside information given to him by an Iraqi microbiologist he met at a university he was attending. The woman is a daughter of a former high-level Iraqi official. She told Harris 100 Iraqi cell groups were in place in 1993. Harris said he is now under CIA protection, and that most of his story has been confirmed by the government and they believe the attack is imminent. Harris expects the attack in July

A LITTLE GREEN MAN CALLED GORBACHEV

Mikhail Gorbachev spoke at Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana, on Oct. 8, 1996. He praised his good buddies Maurice Strong, former Senator John Mitchell, and Vice President Al Gore, and promoted his organization called Green Cross International. Gorbachev, President of Green Cross International, met with the Chairman of the Earth Council, Maurice Strong, in The Hague in April 1994 and agreed to start The Earth Charter initiative.

Think about Gorbachev, who covered up the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, as head of an environmental movement? It makes about as much sense as Bush and Clinton being promoters of the anti-drug war.

An Earth Charter workshop was held in May 1995, and a branch called Global Green USA was started and is supported by such as Indiana Governor Evan Bayh, Yoko Ono, Robert Redford, Carl Sagan, and Ted Turner. An Earth Charter draft is scheduled to be ratified in time for its proclamation on January 1, 2000.

WHO TURNED OUT THE LIGHTS?

We wrote previously about the "Blackout" on August 10, 1996, that hit over 6 Western states. Skywatch

International, a group whose members watch the heavens for signs of extraterrestrial existence, put a report on the Internet on August 26 (and reported in Mail Tribune of Medford, OR, Sep. 9) that at precisely 3:45 p.m. on August 10, witnesses saw three oblong sky ships, each about 120 feet long, over the same area where the outage was reported to have started. The telephones went out at the same time, and a woman said her daughter "went to her husband's place of work [a gas station] and was told that a man had come into the gas station saying that all the cars on Interstate 5 had stalled when the power went out." Another woman came into the station and said that her car had mysteriously stalled and she wanted the station to check it out. They found nothing wrong.

Birds. That's all it was. I've heard of power outages caused by birds. Sure enough. Birds. BIG birds. 120 feet long.

BIG BIRDS IN ISRAEL

The Maariv daily paper in Israel has reported on the ongoing wave of UFO sightings in Israel, and listed 16 reported sightings in the past 3 months. A 62-year-old Israeli was interviewed on television about his story that he was abducted by aliens on the way to the post office. He made front page headlines, and a strange dust on his clothing was analyzed and determined to be 55 percent aluminum and not from around there. Samples were sent to NASA for further study.

WHERE WOLVES?

New York Times (Sep. 1, 1996) reported that Banbirpur, India, is having "the worst wolf menace anywhere in the world in at least 100 years," quoting an Indian animal conservationist. The deaths of 33 children in five months have been blamed on werewolves, but authorities say it was from wolf packs. A hunt by villagers and police resulted in killing ten wolves.

"It came across the grass on all four paws, like this," said Sita Devi, the 10-year-old sister of the boy killed by a wolf Aug. 16 in Banbirpur. She moved forward in a crouch from a cluster of villagers gathered by a well. She told her story with tears in her eyes, to anxious murmurs from the crowd.

"As it grabbed Anand, it rose onto two legs until it was tall as a man," she said. "Then it threw him over its shoulder. It was wearing a black coat and a helmet and goggles."

ANOTHER ROCKET BITES THE DUST

On June 4 this year, the flagship launch of the European Space Agency, carrying four Cluster magnetospheric research satellites which were to study the Sun's affect on the Earth's atmosphere, veered off course just 40 seconds after launch and was blown up, flaming to the ground near the launch facility in French Guiana, South America. The cause of this giant $8 billion fireworks display was said to be a computer glitch. Staff and guests were evacuated from three miles around the area, wearing gas masks.

This launch was to be a major bid for future launches to compete with the American Space Shuttle for the world's satellite launch business. The failure was a major loss of face for Europe. The "project was all but doomed by the Ariane 5 failure because the satellites were not insured" (AW&ST, 6/10/96, p. 22). The space craft were to "obtain a three-dimensional picture of the various plasma field boundaries in the Earth's magnetosphere." They were to orbit Earth in tetrahedral formation (attention Mr. Hoagland).

Ariane 4 also exploded in mid-flight in 1994. A similar scientific satellite was the Spartan-Halley spacecraft lost in the STS-51L Challenger accident.

It seems to me that they are spending an awful lot of effort and money on measuring the Sun's rays.

MY MAGNETOSPHERE SCIENTIFIC EXPERIMENT

There have been reports of the magnetic North Pole fluctuating recently, so I got a compass and placed it on the window sill and lined the pointer to precisely North. A few days later, the needle was about 1 degree off. I lined it up and it did it again. It has not changed recently, though. You might want to try your own similar experiment, so that you can see for yourself if the magnetic field changes.

By the way, do you know why compasses have mirrors on them?

Why, so you will know who is lost, of course.

ANOTHER O.J. BOOK

Johnnie Cochran has a new book out about the O.J. Simpson case, and the ad asks these questions:

Why didn't the Jury hear the statement O.J. made after his arrest? Why did most of the DNA come from bloodstains discovered weeks after the murders? Why was the bloody glove still moist and sticky after lying on dry ground for seven hours? Where are the assailant's (or assailants') clothes and weapons? Why did no one see blood on the socks for two months? Why didn't the glove fit?

U.S. SURRENDERS TO THE SOVIETS!!!

Excerpted from a FLYER by Bob Johnson, Queen Creek, AZ, [quoting:]

Surrender to a foreign power is done with such subtle ploy as to cause you to think you are helping a needy brother—whilst you KILL your own families.

Some nine years ago we broke the news in The Dove that President Reagan had been forced to surrender to the Soviet Union. Most people did not believe us.

The surrender terms stated that Reagan had five years to dismantle the military forces of the United States and submit to the Soviet Union or face total destruction. At the time the Soviets had developed a laser defense which was able to knock out 95% of all U.S. missiles and bombers if we had tried to attack them. At this same time the U.S. had worked on a similar program called "Star Wars", but it was not yet in operation. The Soviets demonstrated their ability by shooting down the U.S. Space Shuttle with a laser, and also shooting down several U.S. rockets carrying military satellites.

It is important for you to understand that the Soviet Union has been governed, since the Communist takeover, by the World Government and used as a "dummy front" to force the rest of the world into submission to a coming world dictator. The World Government then used a new technique when the five years were up. The Soviet Union collapsed and the American taxpayers were forced to pick up the tab and care for not only the Soviets, but for all the collapsing Communist satellite nations. Then the American people were told the Cold War was over and the West had won. But here are the facts: Our money was and is being sent to the former Soviet Union, including all our technology. The Soviet Union is now being rebuilt by the West. We are rebuilding their entire industrial base, their mines, oil fields, refineries, electric grid, nuclear reactors, and they are becoming joint partners with NASA.

They never had to fire one shot, never had to send a soldier to attack us, because we are policing ourselves, paying tribute to them and stripping our land of all our assets. THE AMERICAN PEOPLE HAVE BEEN LED INTO THE SMARTEST TRAP EVER SPRUNG ON A PEOPLE. ## MINT SAVES BEES

Excerpted from EARTH CHANGES REPORT, October 1996, articles by Cynthia Keyes, Matrix Institute, Inc., P.O. Box 336, Chesterfield, NH 03443-0336, phone 800-628-7493, [quoting:]

Beekeeper Robert Noel of Cumberland, Maryland couldn't bear to just stand by as witness to the demise of his 46 bee colonies, so last year he started experimenting with remedies to eradicate the culprit mites. "I just wanted to try something," he told ECR.

Rapid spread over the last few years of two types of parasitic mites coupled with the recent harsh winter have crippled the bee population, threatening crops, especially in the North and Northeast, and caused farmers to pay dearly to rent hives for pollinating. (See News story, ECR, 8/96)

Thinking about some of the natural ingredients that bees encounter in nectar and what might be acceptable to a bee but distasteful to a blood-sucking mite, Noel was inspired to try applying cinnamon in one of his hives. He was elated to find that it succeeded in knocking the mites off his bees, but dismayed several days later to discover that, "they jumped right back on".

Noel consulted his sister, a nursing school college professor, who opened her kitchen cupboard and grabbed a bottle of wintergreen oil. She recalled one of her college professors who had extolled the powers of wintergreen. Since his bees were dying anyway, Noel went home to concoct a mixture of the wintergreen oil into a solid patty of shortening and sugar.

Much to his amazement, when he checked the tested hive several days later not only were the mites off his bees, but they were dead, by the hundreds, on the bottom of the hive. Thrilled with his discovery, Noel contacted the U.S. Government and at least 15 Universities about his natural remedy. The only respondent was West Virginia University entomologist James Amrine who was, indeed, skeptical at first but could not argue with Noel's resulting healthy, honey-producing bee colonies.

Since then, Noel and Amrine have worked together testing other effective oils such as tea tree, pennyroyal, spearmint, peppermint and patchouly and devising the best delivery system for the remedy. It appears that most mint oils will work.

Successful methods of delivering the remedies so far have included mixing the mint oils in a patty placed in the hive, on a sticky tracking strip that the bees come in contact with or in a sugar water mix that the bees drink when flowers are not making nectar. The oil eradicates varroa mites, the most deadly, by weakening them and leaving them unable to reproduce. The pesky tracheal mite gets stuck in the oil and dies because it is unable to migrate to the bee's breathing tubes.

Noel's most recent experiment is aimed at treating the top of the hive as effectively as the bottom which has the drink dispensers and sticky strips. "A friend of mine calls me the mad scientist," he said, "because I'm always trying new

Another friend told him he should hire a lawyer and seek a patent. This doesn't interest Noel. "Loss of bees for pollination could mean world famine," Noel warned. To be truly successful he feels it is more important to get the word out to beekeepers than to cash in on his solution.

"To that end, Noel, a high school computer teacher by day, has over 200 beekeepers listed on his data base. He offers suggestions tailored to each individual beekeeper's needs and keeps records on their applications. Noel's research and formulas are posted on the Internet at <<http://www.wvu.edu/~agexten.varroa.htm>>. An article outlining Amrine and Noel's research and formulas appeared in the Sept. issue of American Bee Journal. Information on his remedies and results can also be obtained by contacting Noel at 108 Blackiston Ave., Cumberland, Maryland 21502.

While scientists continue working on the development of mite-resistant bees, they admit that the oils, which seem preferable and more effective than the traditional chemical pesticides, are a very plausible solution.

"I think there is hope," Noel reflected, "the key is to get the word out to beekeepers because we need to save our bees and the Earth." Acknowledging that he could gain to profit from his experimentation, Noel excuses that angle, stating that the problems with our Earth have come about because of people going after the "almighty dollar". He prefers to try and "help my fellow man and help out our Earth. We need to work on that," he finished, "there's nothing more important than our environment." [End quoting]

What a blessed man God has sent to help us in our time of need. In this day and age, can you believe a man turns down (probably) millions of dollars to make it easier, and possible, for man to save himself and his fellow man from famine and to help save planet Earth from further destruction. THANK YOU, GOD!!! I venture to say that some of Satan's boys planted these mites as part of their plan to remove MOST of the Earth's population BY THE YEAR 2000 ("the Elite PLAN 2000"). Don't forget GOD ALSO HAS A PLAN 2000. I'll give you one guess who wins.

WHERE HAVE THE "GREAT STRIDES OF MEDICAL SCIENCE" TAKEN US?

Excerpted from THE POISONED NEEDLE, by Eleanor McBean, [quoting:]

After a glance at the medical records covering the past 70 years of what is boastfully called "our great strides of medical science" we can hardly help wondering if those seven league strides haven't been in reverse, because there has been a marked decline in our nation's health and a shocking increase in the serious killer diseases during those very years. The acute diseases that were supposed to have been conquered by vaccination have only been masked and re-named to "save face" or suppressed until the retained poison corroded the internal organs and developed into dangerous chronic diseases.

The following table gives us an idea of what our present faulty methods are doing to our race:

INCREASE IN KILLER DISEASES DURING THE PAST 70 YEARS...

Insanity	400%
Cancer	308%
Anemia	300%
Epilepsy	397%
Bright's Disease	65%
Heart Disease	179%
Diabetes	1800% (In spite of or because of insulin.)
Polio	680%

FROM AN OBSCURE GENIUS COMES A TINY PUMP FOR COMPUTER AGE

Excerpted from THE SEATTLE POST-INTELLIGENCER, 10/16/96, [quoting:]

This tiny pump—the size and composition of a computer chip—has no moving parts. It was built by and in the early part of this century predicted future technologies that sound like cellular phones and the Internet. A basic unit of electromagnetic power is named for him. And that's just the beginning. Tesla's name is on more than 700 U.S. patents.

Yet many of his ideas, some half-completed and some half-baked, languish from the same lack of recognition [You would be amazed by the recognition he gets from the Elite by their overwhelming use of his ideas and inventions.] that today accompanies his name. One such idea was a pump design known—or in most cases not known—as the Tesla valve.

"I was surprised at how little application this (pump design) has had," said Fred Forster, a UW professor of mechanical engineering.

Forster, Afromowitz and their students had been struggling to build a tiny pump for use in medicine,

But the UW engineers, with graduate students Nigel Sharma and Ron Bardell, pursued the idea and found Tesla's 1920 patent. Then they created a variety of tiny Tesla-style pumps by etching silicon wafers in the same way computer chips are created.

The intake and outlet valves, each a series of pretzel-like loops on each side of the pump chamber, are about the width of a human hair. The central pump chamber, also silicon, is maybe a quarter inch in diameter and one-tenth of a millimeter thick.

A small electric charge applied hundreds of times per second to the pump chamber makes it flex, forcing the fluid to move. Because of the design of the valves, the fluid tends to move in one direction.

"It looks kind of bizarre," said Afromowitz. "We had no idea if this would work."

It did, but only after the UW team made changes to adapt Tesla's design to fluid behavior at the micro level. Some $200,000 in private and public funding was made available to the UW engineering team now working to perfect this micropump.

"We expect miniaturized fluid systems to be a major breakthrough in new technologies," Forster said.

If so, it's another breakthrough credited to a man once called "the greatest inventor the world has ever known".

There are a lot of theories, and conspiracy theories, that attempt to explain Tesla's lack of recognition despite his immense accomplishments. His contemporaries often regarded Tesla's ideas, inventions and behavior as bizarre [Jealous and envious people are always anxious to call others odd, crazy, etc., to take away their limelight or to divert recognition of talent and knowledge.]. A Serb born in Croatia in 1856, he came to America in 1884 to pursue his interest in electrical engineering by first working in Edison's lab.

Tesla and Edison soon had a major falling out based on Tesla's advocacy of alternating current. Edison had invested his efforts—and a lot of money—in direct current electricity and ridiculed Tesla's competing theories. Tesla left Edison's lab and sought other financial support for his research.

"But Edison was high on the pecking order with the industrial giants of the day," said Nicholas Kosanovich, executive secretary of the Tesla Memorial Society Inc. based in Lackawanna, N.Y.

With Edison campaigning against him, Tesla had trouble getting funded. Eventually, he succeeded in convincing George Westinghouse to support him. Making a long and convoluted story short, Tesla created the AC induction motor that now represents about 80 percent of all electrical power in use today. In doing so, he made Westinghouse an industrial giant.

"Still, Tesla remains obscure," said Afromowitz, noting the inventor didn't profit much from his inventions because he usually had to sell the rights for the amount he needed to pay for his next project. "He wasn't much of a businessman, that's for sure [Tesla wasn't here to make money—he was here to bring technology to this planet in hopes of helping man to save himself from himself. Instead, the Elite have used the knowledge to enslave the world.]."

As far as some of the scientific community was concerned, Tesla wasn't a regular scientist either. He tended to like dramatic demonstrations—such as creating man-made lightning or running high-voltage electricity through his body—and to make wild pronouncements [How else could he get the attention of the people he was trying to help? You know how hard it is for good people even today to get out the truth to

This tiny pump -- the size and composition of a computer chip -- has no moving parts. It was built by University of Washington engineers using a design patented 75 years ago by the eccentric Serbian American inventor Nikola Tesla.

University of Washington engineers using a design patented 75 years ago by the eccentric Serbian American inventor Nikola Tesla.

Engineers at the university of Washington have created a microchip-sized pump with no moving parts, exploiting a 75-year-old patent held by an eccentric Serbian American inventor whose celebrity status was once the equal of Thomas Edison and Albert Einstein.

His name is Nikola Tesla.

Many people today, scientists and engineers included, have never heard of Tesla. Yet those who do know his work contend he may have had a more profound effect on the modern world than Edison, if not Einstein [Much more profound, but the Elite removed his materials and knowledge from ready access and saved it for their own use to take over control of the world. Much of his technology is used today in all sorts of "Star Wars" weapons, satellites, etc.].

"His impact on the 20th century was phenomenal," said Martin Afromowitz, a UW professor of electrical engineering.

Most of our electrical power system—based on alternating current—was Tesla's creation. He invented fluorescent light bulbs, held the first patent on radio electronics and any situation in which very small amounts of fluid must be pumped without the poorer reliability and damaging interference of moving parts.

Nothing they came up with worked until one night when Forster remembered a college course he took some 30 years ago. His professor had shown the class a Tesla pump.

Tesla, Forster said, had built a gas engine pump without moving parts. The pump featured two complicated series of loops for the intake and outlet valves designed to favor flow in one direction over the other.

This "leaky valve" approach to pumping is not very efficient in terms of overall flow rate, Forster said, but it has the advantage of being simple in construction and highly reliable.

When Forster suggested the Tesla pump approach to his UW colleagues, they just stared at him.

"Nobody had ever heard of it," he said.

the masses.].

He dismissed as wrong Einstein's theory of general relativity [Hatonn has verified that the theory was/is wrong.] and once claimed to have received communication from extraterrestrials [There is nothing strange about that. Many people believe in the Bible and yet it tells of ones who conversed with extraterrestrials.]. He had all sorts of strange phobias and compulsions and, as far as anyone knows, never had a romantic life [Most good people who come and truly try to help man out of the mire of this planet have been mistreated, criticized, imprisoned and/or killed. How would you react under the circumstances?].

Tesla died in 1943 a semirecluse, in debt and perhaps even more on the fringes of the scientific establishment than when he began his fight with Edison. Because he seldom kept notes on his experiments, much of his work remains a mystery.

But as Forster and colleagues showed, it pays to remember Tesla.

"It's easy for an engineering or science student to think that the last 10 years are all that matters," Forster said. [End quoting]

Tesla was a genius beyond the point of which most highly trained scientists of today can begin to understand. He was truly a man ahead of his time—trying to AWAKEN mankind before it was too late. Man will pay the penalty because of failure to recognize God's gifts to help him on this journey to knowledge and wisdom. TESLA MADE A BOLD EFFORT.

DON'T PREPARE FOR GLOBAL ANYTHING

Excerpted from the Internet, [quoting:]

If you are a social naturalist you might be interested in a peculiar quirk that infects those of us who labor in the journalism trade.

We have a habit of picking up a sentence or a phrase, usually originated by some political or corporate flack, repeating it until it becomes a cliché and then elevating it to the status of a mantra with the power to paralyze a journalist's brain.

Here's an example: "We must prepare our children to compete in the global economy."

One, it implies that the global economy is something new that Americans have never had to cope with. That's just ignorance. Americans have been participating in a global economy since the days they called themselves loyal subjects of his majesty, King George.

Two, so far as their work is concerned, the overwhelming majority of Americans will not compete in the global economy. The bulk of the American economy is domestic.

Three, individuals rarely compete in the global economy. Offhand, the only people I can think of would be entertainers, lawyers and mercenaries. Mostly, it's a few American corporations that compete in foreign markets, and many of them compete by building plants overseas staffed by nationals of the country where the plant is located. In 1991, U.S. direct investment abroad was about $450 billion.

In 1994, American exports accounted for $513 billion. That year, like most years, we imported more than we exported, so the net effect of foreign trade was a minus $151 billion.

Thus, unless your child plans to operate in the overseas sales and marketing division of a large corporation, the global economy, as far as his education is concerned, is just another example of globaloney.

You will notice that people who say we must prepare American children to compete in the global economy never get around to saying just how they propose to do that. How do you prepare a carpenter, plumber, bricklayer, machinist, librarian or truckdriver to compete in the global economy?

Suppose you are a machinist who works for Boeing, which competes in a global economy. It makes no difference. The machinist's skills are the same whether the plane he's working on is going to be sold domestically or overseas.

Actually, all the globaloney is just propoganda to mask some bad trade policies and some unconscionable practices of American corporations that prefer cheap foreign labor to American workers.

The more important point is that the people laboring in schools to convert little savages into competent human beings have enough problems without being showered by political and journalistic fertilizer.

American children need to learn today what they have always needed to know: how to read, write and speak their own language; how to use math; the history and philosophy of their own country and its institutions; geography; something about basic sciences; literature; art; music; and a skill that will be marketable in the great American domestic economy.

If we fund the schools, reduce class sizes, cut the crap out of the curricula added by politicians and bureaucrats and enforce iron discipline, our educational system's problems will vanish.

Let us prepare American children to be strong Americans, and they will handle any competition that comes along.

Toss the globaloney into the trash where it belongs. Gives one pause for thought, doesn't it?—Susan Holladay, Citizens United for Education, [End quoting]

U.N. CONCENTRATION CAMPS IN U.S.

Excerpted from a FLYER, by Bob Johnson, Queen Creek, AZ, [quoting:]

A total of ten concentration camps were activated under Reagan's "Rex 84" program. The additional six

"emergency custodial facilities", as they were conveniently called, were quietly set up on existing U.S. military bases: Ft. Benning, GA; Oakdale, CA; Ft. Huachuca, AZ; Ft. McCoy, WI; Eglin Air Force Base, FL; and Vandenburg Air Force Base, CA.

One massive detention camp is in the wilds of Alaska. This monstrosity is designed to handle more than 500, 000 prisoners. An 80-acre civilian internment camp has been built near Topeka, Knasas. The map below shows concentration camps and locations. [End quoting]

"Useless Eaters" are the segment of population considered disposable by the New World Order. These people include: the elderly, sick or disabled will be disposed of. Any person who will not conform to their global policies, such as Christians, Patriots, constitutionalists, the militias, gun-owners, food "hoarders" (those who garden and put food by), etc. will be used as "sex slaves" for the Elite, or "slave laborers". The attack on the U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights continues to gather dangerous momentum. To those who would doubt there is such a plan, read Khrushchev's prophecy:

"I can prophesy that your grandchildren in America will live under Socialism. And please don't be afraid.

Your grandchildren will not understand how their grandparents did not understand the progressive nature of a socialist society." Nikita Khrushchev, head of the Soviet Communist Party and President of the USSR, speaking on an American nationwide television program, June 1957.

When he was preparing to leave the U.S., Khrushchev made the following statement:

"We cannot expect Americans to jump from Capitalism to Communism, but we can assist their elected leaders in giving Americans small doses of Socialism until they suddenly awake to find they have Communism."—World in Review, June 1996 [End quoting]

GROWING POPULATION LEADS TO DEBATE ON FOOD SUPPLY

WASHINGTON, OCT. 28, 1996:

It's shaping into the great debate for the 21st century: Can the world produce enough to feed another few billion people?

Agronomists and other scientists say yes, and they want more money to research everything from milk cows that also pull a plow to hybrid potatoes.

Population activists and some social scientists say no, and they think the only solution is to limit the mouths to feed.

Both sides in the debate agree that the Earth's land and waters give up about as much human nourishment as they can with current technology.

The bottom line: Without big scientific advances, sharp reductions in population growth or both, millions more people could starve in the early 2000s.

The main disagreement is over how much food the planet can yield.

The environmental research group Worldwatch said in a pessimistic report last month that "food scarcity is emerging as the defining issue of a new era" where future supplies will depend more on family planners than fishermen and farmers.

But that's not the way the world's agriculture and fishery industries or international agriculture researchers see it.

"It's totally untrue that we have reached the limit," said Ismael Serageldin, World Bank vice president and chairman of the world's largest international research consortium, known as CGIAR.

The Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research, with research labs around the world, issued its own optimistic report on the future of world food production Sunday.

"Despite some gloom and doom predictions, the world has the resources needed to feed the 8 billion-plus people who will be on Earth in 2025," the report says. But it adds that this will require strong support for agricultural research.

The report says CGIAR scientists in Africa, Latin America, Asia and elsewhere are developing "super rice", wheat and cassava strains that can "break through the yield ceiling" and new fish varieties that can double the returns of small aquaculture farmers.

CGIAR scientists are meeting this week in Washington with farmers, private business leaders, nongovernment organizations, government officials and multinational organizations to map out a strategy for feeding the world into the next century.

[END OF QUOTING]

If there is this possibility RIGHT NOW, why are you not using it? What happens from here to the turn of the century? Since when has a committee of basically non-farmers ever come up with anything concerning agriculture worthy of note? Also, how long since the Associated Press did any publication in accuracy? Oh yes indeed, they ran a whole series of publications globally on "us" and the Ekkers about the Phoenix Institute, offered by George Abbott, AND THERE WAS NOT ONE SINGLE WORD OF TRUTH IN IT SAVE THE NAMES (which in itself is not usually correct).

The road to famine is already built and you are on the journey. The foods produced are, in addition, so filled with pesticides and antibiotics along with additives as to be generally worthless in value. A full tummy only feels better momentarily—death comes anyway—from malnutrition if values are missing.

We really MUST GET MOVING on our reclamation and survival foodstuffs. This can no longer be a waiting and/or "committee" matter. However, as you consider growing these products as we discuss them—consider carefully your locations for a lot of land mass will be GONE or BURIED. Check, as a good general rule of thumb, Scallion's map of changes. And Sharon, even if your part of the world is still going to be there, there simply is not funding here at this location at present to even consider reclaiming land and old irrigation systems and fighting with the government over land use. I cannot scatter focus enough to attend your needs while I am working on the larger picture. You all have to each check out your TRUE DESIRE for projects, etc., because too many want to begin, get weary, impatient, and all sorts of other excuses to FAIL and never finish. You have to consider whatever YOU begin as necessary for YOU to fund and finish and it usually is poor in rewards of any kind save frustration and disappointment. It is not always that it can't work; it is usually that it doesn't work if it requires more than SELF to attend the project in point, whatever might be that project.

We are finding it a fact, RIGHT HERE under our noses, that if we need something—we DO IT OURSELVES. Example? Charles arranges and helps EVERYONE and their relatives to MOVE from, or to, anywhere. Not only is he asked to help—he is asked, literally, to arrange moving equipment and plan the moving. However, he just experienced, with Ekkers, the fact that only one or two so much as offered to lift a finger or provide a pot for our now arrived Professional Farm Consultant who had to leave Canada WITH NOTHING SO AS TO BE ABLE TO LEGALLY CROSS THE BORDER INTO THE U.S.

I asked that, through this time of necessity for us to be otherwise occupied, that there be NO VACATIONS as to paper and other production—but alas, there was a much LAID BACK crew during Dharma's inability to write on topical matters and having to focus on intense funding and housing matters. Dharma is also having to put together a full spectrum colloidal injection system for feeding the crops and the lands into the hundreds of gallons of solution bearing EVERYTHING necessary to upgrade growth potential. Again, we are having to do this on a shoestring because we can't carry any more financial load here and continue the legal hassles on a daily basis of meet and confer. Patience for responses to your petitions; personal matters simply have to be put aside.

If someone will make a list of inquiries, I will attempt to answer a few questions on Saturday. We will be gathering a few friends because Mark and Cathy will be here for a day or so. And, readers, in total opposition to George Green's and Ence's publications that we HID (or hide) from them "...because Mark will see through Doris", we shall be daring enough to allow for that wondrous possibility. If he sees what I see, "through Doris", we shall accomplish the rest of our mission!

What a boring life these people must live, just tagging along, trailing us about, vandalizing, making childish phone calls, 911 UNLAWFUL calls, etc. I wonder why people don't just GET A LIFE. They don't like us, what we do, or anything other than a resource to steal from—and yet, they won't go away. We haven't taken anything from anyone; we have helped others all along the way and facilitated them even having a "living", and we are pounded and pounded while the guilty shams are protected as if they are gods of some kind. What is this? Turn to the misfits and thieves, liars and cheats that you have joined in order to do what? Do you really think YOUR ATTORNEYS AT CRIME are going to get you ANYTHING? It appears from here as a bunch of jackals having a feeding frenzy around your unfortunate carcasses as the last drop of blood is sucked from you under the guise of "getting your 'investment'". There are NO INVESTORS OR INVESTMENTS HERE nor were there EVER such. There are lenders with honorable notes and there are participants in the Institute—NOTHING MORE. If George Green EVER TOLD YOU OTHERWISE, you were a fool to listen and he was a thief and liar to say otherwise.

By the way, readers, NOT ONE CENT of "lenders'" money has gone to fight any suit involving only Ekkers! NOT ONE CENT. The facts are that, in actuality, Ekkers also borrowed enough funds to continue the struggle for the Institute in protection of the Corporation's standing. So be it.

SHEPHERDS

Along the lines of "self-proclaimed" innocents and liars, cheats and thieves, comes a poem or ode to Mandela, from South Africa. It applies to any politician traitor of the same ilk so put in whichever name you choose from any nation you choose and by all means put in the NAME OF GEORGE BUSH:

MANDELA IS MY SHEPHERD

Mandela is my shepherd
I shall not work
He maketh me to lie down on park benches
He leadeth me besides the still factories
He restoreth my faith in the Conservative Party
He guideth me in the path of unemployment
Yea though I walk through the valley of the soup kitchen
I shall still be hungry
For I feel they are against me
They have anointed my income with tax
My expenses runneth over my salary
Surely poverty and hard living shall follow me
All the days of the Labour administration

5000 years ago Moses said
"Pick up your shovels, mount your camels and I'll take you to the promised land."

5000 years later F W said
"Lay down your shovels, sit on your arse and light up a camel, for this is the promised land."

Now watch out, or Mandela will take away your shovel, sell your camel, kick your arse, and take away the promised land.

I'm glad that I'm a South African
So glad that I am free
But wish I was a doggie
And Mandela was a tree!

Thank you, Carol, and please realize that there has finally been reached an equality of Black, White, any race anywhere and an equality of nations—all ready to go down the drainpipe.

By the way, beautiful ones in South Africa, the answer to a couple of questions: One: the symbol of Aton or God in the Ancient languages? Sun! Ancient language meaning of HESA? Hellenic Express South Africa. I am not into languages or symbology.

However, just to keep the records somewhat straight, HESA can be pronounced as IISA which means Christ as in Iisa, Esu, etc. Never mind the logo(s) or the label—just KISS, will do nicely. The more clean and professional a heading will always hold you in great esteem. Explicitness is the KEY to communication. Implicitness is the evidentiary road to confusion. And ALWAYS REMEMBER: Impatience is the visible recognition of lack of faith IN GOD.

For our South African friends I would like to dedicate this next portion on the dastardly deeds of one George Bush for this will be one crime committed too many to allow the bushwhacker to keep pulling off international intrigue for his, and his cronies', self-gains—much longer.

I would hope that we can get to the full story as is ongoing in Special Reports by EIR on the topic of Bush and the indictments, but we shall see. I do want to cover a bit on the murder of Swedish Prime Minister Olof Palme, the South African connections, and miscellaneous other topics and inclusions. This one act by that brigade may well prove, in the ending, to be THE END.

Bear with us while we hop, skip and jump around with excerpts.

OLOF PALME, SWEDISH PRIME MINISTER

[QUOTING, the following will all be from the EIR Special Report:]

[H: I shall not put this into any particular order other than the sequence as outlaid. You will get the message without my input as to structure of writing.]

NEW REVELATIONS TIE PALME MURDER TO BUSH, THATCHER-LINKED ARMS CARTEL

On Feb. 28, 1986, Sweden's Prime Minister Olof Palme was assassinated on the streets of Stockholm, as he and his wife were walking home from a movie. Palme's wife was also shot in the attack, but survived. The assassin, or assassins, escaped, despite the fact that the prime minister's security detail was in the area when the attack took place.

More than ten years have passed since the Palme murder and, up until September 1996, Swedish authorities had failed to catch the assassins, or even name the responsible agencies. From the very outset, an ambitious international disinformation campaign was carried out, involving such "strange bedfellows" as the Soviet KGB, the East German State Security Service ("Stasi"), the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (ADL), and NBC-TV, to deter honest Swedish investigators from pursuing promising trails of evidence. Instead, the ADL, the Stasi, et al., colluded to fabricate "proof" that the assassin was associated with Swedish colleagues of American political economist, three-time Democratic Party pre-Presidential candidate, and EIR Founding Editor Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. By the time the bogus "LaRouche killed Palme" tale was discredited, the trail of the real assassins had turned colder than a Swedish winter.

The Palme assassination was not an isolated incident. As you will learn below, since 1984, a large number of public figures, including French general René Augran, German state governor Uwe Barschel, Indian Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi, Israeli intelligence agent Amiram Nir, Canadian weapons manufacturer Gerald Bull, and Belgian government minister André Cools, all died sudden and violent deaths.

At the time of their death, each of these men was in possession of sensitive information about the activities of an international weapons and munitions cartel, operating on both sides of the East-West Cold War divide. During the 1980s, this cartel was engaged in an arms business involving many hundreds of billions of dollars a year, fueled by the Iran-Iraq War (1980-88), the Afghanistan War (1979-89), and the East-West surrogate wars in Angola, Namibia, Mozambique, El Salvador, and Nicaragua. In many instances, the clandestine shipments of weapons were linked to other underground commodities, especially illegal drugs. In the cases of the Nicaraguan Contras and the Afghanis mujahideen, it has been widely documented that illegal sales of cocaine and heroin, by the U.S. and British government-backed "freedom fighters", generate much of the money used to purchase weapons and other materiel. In Africa, a lucrative trade in black market ivory, diamonds, and rhinoceros tusks served the same function as the illegal drug trade in Central America and Afghanistan. It generated millions of dollars in illegal funds to finance the purchase of weapons—to keep the regional conflicts going.

THE "ASTEROIDS"

To protect the interests, and carry out the clandestine activities of this transnational apparatus, a global network of hired killers and soldiers of fortune was assembled, under a variety of private, commercial covers. This latter-day "Murder, Inc." represented both a direct continuity from, and an expansion of, the 1960s and 1970s British intelligence front-company Perminde, that was implicated in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, in the murder of Italian oil industry figure Enrico Mattei, and that tried, unsuccessfully, to assassinate French President Charles de Gaulle. That 1960s-era worldwide "Murder, Inc." was based, at various points, in Montreal, Rome, and Johannesburg.

The vast 1980s "private enterprise", like its Perminde antecedent, was sponsored, protected, and deployed by elements of the U.S., British, and French governments, among others. U.S. Vice President George Bush, the director of all Reagan Administration "special situation"—i.e., covert operations—was a pivotal figure in all of these 1980s activities. However, the British, especially during the years when Margaret Thatcher was prime minister (1970-1990), played a far more dominant, albeit low-key role, in many of these dirty operations—particular in Africa and Central Asia, where Great Britain has a long history of colonial rule, and maintains vast networks of intelligence assets, often headed by "retired" British Special Air Services (SAS) offices.

[H: I am asked why, indeed, does Bush not simply fund the "certificate" from which we have assets due and owing? We offered! Bush and Boys proved-up and valued the instrument and USED IT FOR FUNDING THESE CLANDESTINE ESCAPADES OF MURDER AND CHAOS. THE VALUE IS SO GREAT AS TO, IN ADDITION TO ALL THEY SPENT, BE MORE THAN ALL THE CURRENCY IN THE WORLD. However, there was first a "study" done by "them" and they didn't "...want to deal at this time". Then, they decided they didn't need us at all for they would just take-out a few more players and they would end up with everything anyway. Well, that didn't work because Bush may well be brave but an intergalactic war can not be won with all his stash of arms and money, gold or warheads. So, he then came back to try and fool us by saying we are "nothing more than a tiny annoyance..." So be it, just call me Anoy Ance. I have time—YOU DO NOT! Moreover, I am certainly sufficient to the needs of my crewmates, for I have bigger weapons and they are NOT of war machines.]

The legacy of these 1980s activities today is an even bigger worldwide network of mercenaries, illegal arms dealers, drug traffickers, money launderers, terrorists, and private spies. Collectively, they are referred to among intelligence specialists today as "the asteroids". They operate increasingly outside the purview of governments, and are involved in smuggling, terrorism, and political destabilizations world-wide.

[H: Ah, readers, but WHAT happens when the thugs outgrow the leaders who organized the thugs? Wow, what a "downer" to consider if I were those no-longer-necessary Elite rulers and all those busy "asteroids" decided to take ALL the shares!]

Further, since the end of the Cold War and the collapse of the Soviet Union, a large, and growing number, of former Soviet intelligence operators have been integrated into this asteroid apparatus. It is impossible to understand the apparent "overnight" emergence of a powerful, worldwide "Russian Mafia", over the past five years, without factoring in the role of former KGB and GRU (Soviet Military Intelligence) personnel within the asteroids, and without recognizing the antecedents of the new East-West criminal "partnership" in the Cold War era arms- and drug-trafficking collusion between the intelligence services of the two rival power blocs. This Cold War arrangement, among corrupted intelligence assets, East and West, might be termed the policy of "destructive engage-

The Palme case offers a critical window into this global asteroid phenomenon, and underscores the role of the Thatcher and Bush circles in creating the policy framework for the proliferation of these modern-day pirates and dragoons.

NEW PALME MURDER REVELATIONS

Dramatic new evidence about who killed Olof Palme, and why, has surfaced since late September 1996. It began in a South African courtroom, where a former South African security officer was on trial for a series of apartheid-era assassinations. Col. Eugene de Kock, who headed a covert "death squad" unit of the South African paramilitary police, called C-10, had already been convicted, following a 19-month trial, of the murders of four anti-apartheid activists. He was originally indicted on 89 counts of murder, conspiracy, and fraud. During his sentencing hearing, on Sept. 26, 1996, de Kock calmly revealed to the court that a well-known South African spy-turned-National Party politician, Craig Williamson, had been responsible for the assassination of Olof Palme.

Several days later, another former head of the same C-10 unit, Brig. John "Dirk" Coutzee, who had been Williamson's boss inside the South African paramilitary police for years, issued a public statement, corroborating de Kock's charges against Williamson. In addition, he named another former South African intelligence operator, James Anthony "Ant" White, a former Rhodesian Selous Scout, as the actual killer of Palme.

Next, a third associate of Coutzee and Williamson, Peter Casselton, came forward with additional details about the Palme hit. He identified "one individual living in Turkey" as another important player in the murder. The man was soon identified as Bertil Wedin, a Swedish national and one-time United Nations soldier, widely known in extreme right-wing circles in Scandinavia. Wedin is living in the Turkish sector of Cyprus. He had lived for several years in London, where he was on the payroll of South African intelligence. Wedin had also functioned as an informant for SAPO, the Swedish national police agency, which was in charge of the Palme assassination probe.

In recent years, Wedin has been associated with a Swedish magazine, Contra, which has been a channel of contact among "asteroid" networks in North America and Europe. Contra, for example, has featured writings of Dr. Jack Wheeler, a leading player in the 1980s "Reagan Doctrine" of surrogate warfare throughout the Third World. Wheeler today is part of a London-based and British Intelligence-linked outfit, Strategic Investment, that has been involved in the British propaganda campaign against the U.S. Presidency, ever since Bill Clinton replaced George Bush in the White House in January 1993.

MOUNTING EVIDENCE

Despite the fact that Williamson, White, and Wedin have all publicly denied that they were involved in the Palme murder, in the weeks since the initial de Kock courtroom revelations, a great deal of evidence implicating the three men in the crime has come to light. Williamson has been arrested by Angolan authorities, and remains behind bars, as of this writing; and Swedish prosecutors have been dispatched to Johannesburg, South Africa, to pursue all of the leads that have bubbled to the surface since Sept. 26, 1996.

Within days of the de Kock statements and the other new revelations, stories began to appear in the Swedish press that, while giving credence to the "South African connection" to the murder of Palme, sought to explain the involvement of Williamson, White, et al., strictly from the standpoint of Palme's well-known role in supporting the African National Congress and other anti-apartheid groups. Scant attention was focused on the broader issue of the global arms and explosives cartel, which, during the 1980s, ran from Europe, through South Africa, into both Iran and Iraq, flooding the Persian Gulf with the armaments that kept the Iran-Iraq War going for the better part of a decade. Swedish companies, such as Bofors and Nobel, were at the center of that arms/munitions flow, at the same time as Prime Minister Palme was in charge of a United Nations commission (the "Palme Commission") specifically mandated to enforce the arms embargo against the two Persian Gulf combatants. Palme was well aware of the role of the big Swedish munitions firms, in breaking the very Persian Gulf arms embargo that he was charged with enforcing, and, at times, he personally facilitated those violations. But this knowledge also placed Palme in the precarious position of "knowing enough to be dangerous". [END OF QUOTING]

I may have to offer more "parts" to this ongoing tale unfolding here. I would hope that you who can afford to do so—GET THIS SPECIAL REPORT!

All of you who can't seem to make the global connections and can't bring yourselves to believe it can be like this—go back and read the prior 186 JOURNALS we have offered since Fall of 1989. Twinkle Fingers, here, has been busy as a tapping bee for all these months to MAKE SURE YOU HAVE AVAILABLE THE INFORMATION YOU NEED FOR CONCLUSIONS OF PROPER PERSPECTIVE. And to you ones who are so kind as to honor her birthday today, Thank You, but no, she can't have the day off from the keyboard. She is just happy to have made it to Medicare so "she thinks" she can afford to get sick now and have a rest vacation. That is not likely either.

And to all of you: a birthday is misnamed—for it is only a celebration toward dying and counting the days passing toward that transition. Remembering is always nice, however, so I convey her appreciation and simply tell you that she is "getting old and tired". No, she is neither! And, neither is she a Halloween follow-on, for I like to remind her that BEFORE EVIL THERE WAS GOD! And so too shall there again be TRUTH (dharma) and GOD. There is no evil in this place and in this mission there are no slackards.

Salu and have a good day—WHILST YE CAN.

NO! Dole is one of the Kingpins! Check it out carefully and you will find that "be damned if you do and be damned if you don't." You should have KNOWN as much when BUSH backed Dole and gave HIM HIS INSTRUCTIONS. Check out the connections of Dole, for instance, with Archer, Daniels, Midland grain cartel CORPORATION who has paid Dole off into the millions of $$$, not to even mention the other purchasers.

Then, is Clinton better? Perish the thought! In political nightmare circles it is all but impossible to find "better" or "worse" and when you vote for the "lesser evil" you still have EVIL. Think about it.

A GLOBAL APPARATUS

Williamson and White were not merely hit-men for the apartheid regime in South Africa. By the mid-1980s, when the Palme assassination plot unfolded, both men were in the middle of a largely British-sponsored smuggling and mercenary apparatus, running up into the highest echelons of what is known as the Club of the Isles, the European financier oligarchy that controls much of the world supply of strategic raw materials, petroleum, arms, explosives, and black market commodities such as narcotics. At this time, this apparatus was enjoying the total backing of the Thatcher government in Britain, and the Reagan-Bush administration's "secret parallel government" structure, headed, out of the White House, by Vice President George Bush. Both Thatcher and Bush were assets of various factions of the Club of the Isles, and remain so today.

Not only was this Club of the Isles-run apparatus flooding the Persian Gulf with weapons. Similar flows of arms were stoking conflicts all across southern Africa (Angola, Mozambique, Namibia), in Southeast Asia (Cambodia), Central Asia (Afghanistan), and Central America (Nicaragua, El Salvador)—all at an enormous profit to the Club of the Isles.

CRAIG WILLIAMSON

According to published accounts, including an interview with Williamson in the April 19, 1995 London Observer, Craig Williamson was recruited in the late 1970s, while a university student, as a spy for the South African security police, and was assigned to infiltrate radical student organizations, especially groups involved in the anti-apartheid struggle. By the late 1970s, Williamson had maneuvered himself into a leadership position in the International University Exchange Fund headquartered in Geneva, a group that specialized in conduiting money to the African National Congress (ANC). Among the other directors of the IUEF, while Williamson was infiltrating the fund, were Swedes Bernt Carlsson and Gunnar Eriksson, both close collaborators of Swedish Social Democratic Party leader, and frequent prime minister, Olof Palme.

In January 1980, Williamson returned to South Africa, along with his security branch boss, Brig. Johan Coutzee. Coutzee would eventually become the national police chief of South Africa. In 1989, he defected to the ANC, and began to spill the beans on some of the most egregious apartheid-era crimes of the National Party. Because of his early break with the National Party, Coutzee is considered to be a very credible source of eyewitness information about the dirty war in southern Africa.

Williamson remained in the security branch as an officer until 1985, when he retired with the rank of major. He immediately joined the South African military intelligence service, and was promoted to the rank of colonel.

While he was still with the security branch, Williamson, by his own admission, participated in a series of terrorist attacks and assassinations, targeted against leading figures in the ANC. Among the crimes to which Williamson confessed were the 1982 assassination of anti-apartheid activist Ruth First, in Maputo, Mozambique; the bombing of the London headquarters of the ANC the same year; and the Lubango, Angola mail-bomb killings of Jeanette Schoon and her six-year-old daughter, Katryn, in 1984. The actual target of the 1984 mail-bomb attack was Marius Schoon, another prominent anti-apartheid activist.

When Williamson switched over to South African military intelligence in 1985, he operated under the cover of several "private" companies, including GMR, an international trading company, founded by Giovanni Mario Ricci (a shadowy figure with whom we will deal later) and an outfit called Longreach. According to South African government sources, Longreach shared offices in Johannesburg with GMR, but also maintained offices in the Isle of Wight, off the coast of England. [H: And don't forget about those enriched, by CIA, Bush, et al., drug funds, oil funds, and other illicit hiding of cold, hard MONEY on the "Cow Islands" off England—you know: Jersey, Guernsey and so on.] These sources report that the British government reached a modus vivendi with Longreach, which was known to be a front for South African intelligence. It was all right for Longreach operatives to stalk ANC leaders inside Britain—as they did for years; but it was not acceptable for Longreach to officially operate "on shore", with an office in London. As we shall see, Williamson's ties to British Intelligence, and to senior figures in the City of London financial oligarchy, deepened over time.

During 1985-87, according to De Wet Potgieter, the Pretoria bureau chief for the South African Sunday Times who has written a book cataloguing the South African underworld, Longreach employed Anthony White as a director. Official statements by GMR claim that the firm's South African branch was not formally started until sometime in 1986, but other published accounts, backed by sources in South Africa, place the actual start-up date, and the point at which Williamson, White, and Ricci were in collusion, at some time during 1985, at the latest. So, according to these sources, during the 24-month period preceding and following the Palme assassination, White, Williamson, and Ricci were all involved, together, in Longreach.

Longreach's executive director at this time was Michael Irwin, a "former" high-ranking officer in the British Royal Marines. According to the Swedish daily Aftonbladet, Irwin functioned as a liaison between British and South African intelligence, via Longreach, to coordinate such activities as the surveillance of anti-apartheid activists, and the breaking of the United Nations embargo against South Africa, through an elaborate smuggling apparatus. The Aftonbladet information is consistent with a report from a South African government official, that Longreach was simultaneously operating out of the Isle of Wight.

It is here that the role of Giovanni Mario Ricci takes on special significance, and reveals links among Williamson, White, and a European-based criminal infrastructure that figured prominently in some of the most notorious of the Bush-Thatcher "secret parallel government" activities of the 1980s.

Ricci, an Italian national, with close ties to the Propaganda Two (P-2) Italian freemasonic lodge, set up shop on the Seychelles Islands during the mid-1970s. When the islands were taken over by a "Marxist" regime, under President-for-life Albert René, Ricci became the power behind the throne, and rapidly helped transform the Seychelles into a world-class off-shore money-laundering center and tax haven. Ricci's own Seychelles International Bank became the islands' de facto central bank; Ricci, in 1983, arranged for a branch of the Bank of Credit and Commerce International (BCCI) to be opened on Mahe Island; Ricci was made the unofficial chief of the islands' foreign intelligence service; and Ricci's hotel became a safehouse-of-preference for some of Europe's leading financial swindlers and renegade arms merchants, many of whom were involved in aspects of the Thatcher-Bush secret wars.

[H: Now readers, ANYBODY who thinks Robert Dole is NOT JUST A PUPPET OF THE BUSH BRIGADE, THINK AGAIN. My goodness, as frail a reed as is Perot in this election—it IS THE ONLY THING YOU HAVE GOING—FOR YOU. Clinton is a puppet of the same gang but for different reasons, and the Bilderbergers and Dole fit better with the Committee of 300. Take your choice and weep.]

MARIO RICCI, P-2, AND THE KNIGHTS OF MALTA

Africa Confidential, a London newsletter often described as being closely affiliated with Britain's MI-5, published a story on the Ricci-Williamson alliance in its April 15, 1987 issue, entitled "South Africa: The network of a Master Spy". Africa Confidential editor Stephen Ellis reported that the Ricci-Williamson collaboration was principally aimed at breaking the South Africa embargo, especially the petroleum embargo.

"Oil exports to South Africa are outlawed by the United Nations," Ellis noted, "although South Africa has previously experienced little difficulty in circumventing this legislation, largely through independent commodity dealers such as Marc Rich. Rich in fact visited the Seychelles in 1984 for talks with local officials and others to discuss a scheme to establish the islands as an oil-dealing entrepot, buying cheap from Mexico and re-selling the oil for a profit. Rich is not known to have participated in this plan subsequently. This scheme was the brainchild of Francesco Pazienza, a former employee of the Italian military intelligence service SISMI, and a former consultant to the notorious Banco Ambrosiano. Pazienza, an extraordinary political fixer, is currently on trial in Italy for offences connected with the 1982 collapse of Banco Ambrosiano. Pazienza stayed at Ricci's hotel in the Seychelles when he was on the run from the Italian police in 1984. It was then that he raised the oil scheme which he discussed with other interested parties, including René, Ricci, Rich, and Robert Armao, former aide to the Rockefeller family, spokesman for the late Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi of Iran, and friend of Central Intelligence Agency Director William Casey. It appears that Pazienza's 1984 scheme is only now coming to fruition, although not quite as he had planned since Pazienza is in jail and the idea is in the process of being co-opted by Williamson."

Africa Confidential brought up another dimension of the Ricci and Pazienza profiles, one that has significant implications for the sanctions-evading operations, and the under-ground international arms trade. "Among the many achievements in Pazienza's bizarre career was the establishment in New York of a company called the Sovereign Order of St. John, Knights of Malta, Inc. Ricci is officially accredited to the Seychelles as the representative of a phony Christian order of chivalry which he calls by various names at different times, mostly versions of the name Sovereign Order of St. John, Knights of Malta, and it appears that he was originally recognized as the ambassador of Pazienza's outfit. Ricci's spurious diplomatic status gives him access to a diplomatic bag. Williamson has also joined Ricci's Order of St. John. ...The Seychelles is the only country in the world which has given diplomatic recognition to Ricci's order. He has rendered numerous services to the Seychellois government over a period of years, including supervision of external security and donations to the ruling party. And it was Ricci who, according to President René, masterminded the establishment of the Seychelles as a tax haven, a strange development in a Marxist state.

"Williamson's directorship of GMR (South Africa) gives him an association with a remarkable international network in Europe, the Indian Ocean, Somalia and Kenya, where GMR is said to have interests in casinos. An impressive array."

Impressive indeed. The Knights of Malta, both the official Vatican-recognized order, and the many splinter orders, have been long identified as pivotal to the global arms trade. Sam Cummings, the American-born, London-based armaments dealer who founded Interarms, the world's largest "private sector" supplier of weapons, is a longtime member of the Knights of Malta, as was the late CIA director Casey, and American shipping magnate J. Peter Grace. Cummings and Grace were instrumental in the "public diplomacy" efforts, on behalf of the Bush-North secret wars of the 1980s.

But, Ricci's connections to the even more shadowy P-2 Lodge are of equal significance to the reinvigorated Palme probe, with its focus upon the "South Africa connection", Williamson, White, et al.

[END OF QUOTING]

If this seems hard for some of you to follow—stick with us. You will find I don't utilize all of the material because you need to get your own copy of this report.

You are going to find that you can't OVERLOOK some references and we will cover them a bit later, but one you have to attend is the "Train" connection. Also we will cover Mr. Goldsmith's infectious integration with the Plan.

One of the Trains, you will recall, was a constant companion to JACQUELINE KENNEDY ONASSIS right up until her sudden and rapidly growing CAN-CER which took her life! Of course it didn't, but they couldn't easily just "suicide" a former Mrs. Kennedy as they did John-Boy.

John Train, investment banker, writer, Anglophile, spook, is a sort of "red dye", a marker for secret government operations tied to the international killer apparatus centered on GEORGE BUSH and the international explosives cartel. From Sweden to AFRICA, from France to Afghanistan, from London to New York, you will find the tracks of John Train.

JOHN TRAIN: WALL STREET'S MAN IN BUSH'S SECRET GOVERNMENT. Still feel safe in your little election-year whirl of propaganda and who might be running what?

People, you have allowed a nasty little world of evil conspirators to take over. IT IS YOUR CHOICE! And, NO THANK YOU, I have no interest in CLEANING anything "up". You do what you will—I simply want to get God's people through in some semblance of physical and SPIRITUAL wholeness. We need to do some modicum of realistic building and growing and that won't inconvenience the "big boys" a whit—in fact, it will make them look good a little longer—in your blinded eyes.

And what of those triangular "ships" flying low and indescribably over your heads hither and yon. Indeed, what about them? Well, they DO NOT house "little grey aliens"!

And to you readers of long-standing: YES, we have written all of this PRIOR TO NOW—but many, many readers were not yet aboard and do not realize the tight connections of the players in the Plan—any plan. This is only ONE connection network which is focused so greatly out of and into and through South Africa as to catch the eye of those friends almost as far down-under as is Australia—where the same players lurk in the Bushes.

I CAN WORK WITH MY ENEMY—I DO NOT BECOME MY ENEMY! Try it for self, but perhaps you had best MAKE SURE where your foundation is built and on what footing you take your stand. MINE IS WITH, ON, THROUGH, FOR, AND ALWAYS, ATOP GOD'S OWN TRUTH, LAW, AND REFLECTION. Indeed I can work with anyone for in not becoming "that one" I have no need to break laws, lie, cheat, steal or upset anyone.

Some very, very important breaking information has just come past my request-for-attention-screen. I ask that it be put onto the hot-line POST HASTE. Dharma simply cannot physically cover it all and, in addition, it is too late for next Tuesday's paper as next Tuesday IS the election.

People, it simply doesn't matter what happens on Tuesday—it is FIXED and PLANNED and IS DASTARDLY in concept and conclusion. You have been expecting it so why act shocked and, now that it is too late to change it, you are overwhelmed. NOTHING IS DIFFERENT! GET INFORMED. LEARN THE PLAYERS. AND YOU MAY HAVE A CHANCE OF BYSTEPPING THE SCALLYWAGS IF NOTHING ELSE. KEEP THE LAWS FOR YOU CANNOT WIN ANYTHING SAVE INCARCERATION OR FIRING SQUAD BY BREAKING THEM AT THIS JUNCTURE IN THE GAME. THE MILITARY BASES, EVERYWHERE, ARE BEING RENOVATED FOR HOUSING ALL YOU DISSIDENTS. CHECK IT OUT—RIGHT OVER, EVEN, IN BARSTOW, CALIFORNIA. Check it out with building contractors in the area who are being hired to do the job. No, they don't know why—they are told it is to update housing, etc. It doesn't even occur to them to ask and most don't even know which bases are actually "closed" for ANY reasons. You are dealing with a BLIND population of people.

"Fighting" a thing is the last way to accomplish anything. By the very term it indicates there has to be a power stronger than the other and GOD does not play in your SILLY GAMES OF GLADIATOR SPORTS. GOD WINS THE GAME, AND CARES LITTLE ABOUT THE SKIRMISHES. WARS DO NOT TAKE OUT THE GRANDE PLAYERS—ONLY THE LITTLE GUN FODDER VICTIMS. IN YOUR MILITIA-TYPE ESCAPADES YOU ONLY MANAGE TO TAKE-OUT THE LEADERS OF PATRIOT VALUE.

AND YOU WHO STILL WONDER ABOUT COL. "BO" GRITZ, IT IS A GOOD SAFE PLACE FOR BO RIGHT NOW WHERE HE CAN'T BE ACCUSED OF ANYTHING LIKE PATRIOTISM. THE BIG BOYS NEED HIM IN A SECURE PLACE AS REWARD FOR SERVICES RENDERED. SATAN ALWAYS HAS A WAY TO SURPRISE EVERYONE AND YOU ALWAYS FALL FOR THE TRICKS, AND SO WHAT ELSE IS NEW?

Thank you for seeing to the hot-line items because we can't keep up from this desk. Salu.

Some Observations On All Satan's Day

10/31/96 #1 HATONN

ALL SATAN'S DAY

Today is All Satan's Day—do you know where your children are? Finally it has happened—the two greatest holidays within your calendars are Satan's days—Halloween and Xmas. These are days of taking, tricking, treating, and generally spent in chaos. Remember: Peace is liberty in tranquility.

So be it for you ARE what you BECOME! Satan never has to change his plan or his approach for the old tricks never fail him. A bit of candy, peppermint or chocolate, always does the trick.

BANK IN TROUBLE

This next may well need some explanation but please see if you can find any clues which associate it with other things we have poured onto your heads.

[QUOTING, from the Associated Press, October 29, 1996:]

FIRED COPPER TRADER ARRESTED IN FORGERY

by Mari Yamaguchi

TOKYO—A former star copper trader at SUMITOMO CORP., accused of losing $2.6 billion in 10 years of unauthorized deals, was arrested Tuesday on forgery charges, and authorities searched his home.

The scandal added to questions about Japanese management and regulatory oversight of financial markets, and led to a 10 percent drop in world copper prices. That decline widened Sumitomo's copper losses from the trades by 44% from its original estimate of $1.8 billion.

Yasuo Hamanaka, 48, was arrested on suspicion of forging documents involving metal trading with the U.S.-based Merrill Lynch & Co.

Sumitomo managing director Naoki Kuroda denied that anyone else in the company knew about the unauthorized deals, saying, "Basically he did it all on his own. We'd like to get to the truth of what he did." [H: SURE THEY WOULD!]

Hamanaka, who was fired after two decades as a Sumitomo trader, will be sued for aggravated breach of trust, the company said.

Prosecutors did not say where Hamanaka was arrested, or what they confiscated from his home outside Tokyo.

Sumitomo's Kuroda suggested that Hamanaka was able to carry out his trades because he used forged signatures rather than carved seals, the customary means of signing documents in Japan.

However, fraud experts and investigators doubt that Hamanaka could have chalked up losses of such magnitude without others knowing. Allegations that the scandal's central figure tried to fake trading records were raised as long as five years ago.

"Merrill Lynch had no knowledge of any forgery. We conducted all our business with Sumitomo in good faith and an entirely proper manner," said James Wiggins, a spokesman for Merrill Lynch.

Sumitomo is believed to control up to half the world's copper production. The company was founded in the 17th century by Masatomo Sumitomo, a former monk who wrote about business ethics.

[END OF QUOTING]

This would seem to be, off hand, a straightforward bit of information, wouldn't it? No, it is NOT.

For several months Sumitomo BANK has been working against closure because of a $2.6 BILLION loss. The exact amount, give or take a billion $$, is about what the Bush Brigade used on falsification of a certain GOLD CERTIFICATE CONTRACT.

Next look at the increases in "copper losses": 44 PERCENT! This is the exact amount of increasing interest owing on the Certificate—compounded!

Next, you will find that just about every Bush transaction of the "color of treason" Brigade will have Merrill Lynch & Co. SOMEWHERE IN THE DEALINGS.

Is this some dreamed-up insight by a certain Commander? No, I, months ago, asked E.J. to follow up on hidden Sumitomo activities and offer the President of the Sumitomo Bank an opportunity to bail out that organization. Oops! The gentleman was pleasant and finally said he couldn't do anything and then abruptly hung up the phone. Still think there aren't any BIG POWER PLAYS GOING ON WITH, ONCE AGAIN, INNOCENT PARTIES GETTING DESTROYED IN THE CROSSFIRE? DO YOU ALSO STILL THINK THAT GOLD CERTIFICATE BONUS CONTRACT IS A FIGMENT OF INSANE IMAGININGS?

ILLINOIS POWER COMPANY

"When it rains, it pours," is the old saying and perhaps it might be so, in fact.

V.K. Durham, sole owner of the "Contract" above, now lawfully owns the Illinois Power Utility—or at the least, $3 BILLION of it. The courts didn't bother to even respond to her petitions and finally default, a deposit acceptance against the default ruling—and she is in the Utility business.

The bankers, the politicians and now, the Court involved are just laughing and stonewalling! This also all goes back to silver certificates.

In digging out information it now comes to light that this particular UTILITY UNLAWFULLY is owned by Foreign Corporations. Moreover, it has spun off MANY other companies—also FOREIGN and based in mostly the Cayman Islands and Delaware. These would be something like "Illinova". It would seem there is no end to their intrigue in the circles of the Elite. Ah indeed, the liens are quite well done and totally LEGAL AND LAWFUL and that part of the program is not even in question. The point, however, is that there is an unwritten law on your judicial system books which, as stated by Gerry Spence is: "This axiom, like all great axioms, is simply stated: LITTLE PEOPLE ARE ENTITLED TO LITTLE JUSTICE."

THE SILKWOOD CASE

Gerry was referring to the Silkwood case of infamy. However, it should be noted that Gerry WON the case but, so far, no "winnings" have been garnered by the ones who WON.

Ah, but the courts never MENTION that little rule of "inserted" law: Little People are Entitled to Little Justice. YOUR rightfully owned government with all its systems—BELONGS TO YOU-THE-PEOPLE! How is it that you just laugh at the political antics, shake your heads and turn away to your fate in the crockpot?

It is said that this most important presidential election of all elections, next Tuesday, is expected to draw the smallest crowd of voters IN ALL HISTORY. No, I certainly do NOT blame you for not voting for it is true that any of the candidates who run in the TWO

Note About J.A.M.S. Series And Role Of Rose Colombo

10/30/96 RAY BILGER

Dear Readers: In the April 9, 1996 issue of CONTACT there appeared a Front Page article by this reporter, entitled "Legal Gangsters—Judicial Corruption Takes An Enterprising Turn Thru J.A.M.S." The article was about J.A.M.S. (Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services) and a very brave woman named Rose Colombo who suffered, and continues to suffer, at the hands of the allegedly corrupt judicial system in Orange County and the J.A.M.S. operations there.

This reporter would be somewhat remiss if he did not acknowledge the significant contribution of Rose Colombo in making the article and two subsequent articles possible.

But Rose is not the only person to suffer at the hands of J.A.M.S.; thousands of other persons statewide expected justice at J.A.M.S. but found, instead, a judicial process allegedly corrupted by money, greed and power. The responses received from readers made it clear they wanted to see the J.A.M.S. situation fully investigated and exposed.

For further information regarding Rose Colombo and her brave and continuing efforts to expose the allegedly corrupt judicial system in Orange County and beyond, please write to Rose Colombo at 16027 Brookhurst St. #G279, Fountain Valley, California 92708. Good Luck, Rose.

PARTY SYSTEM of merged ONE-NESS, are totally corrupt and evil and, therefore, whoever wins is the DANGEROUS EVIL ONE because it would appear he somehow has achieved total POWER. But has he? No, he is simply the more OBVIOUS puppet. THE FUTURE IS UP TO YOU!

Now, to respond to another constantly asked question: "What is happening with arrested 'Bo' Gritz?"

[QUOTING, The Orlando Sentinel, 10-30-96:]

SURVIVALIST BO GRITZ DENIES
KIDNAPPING PLOT

ENFIELD, Conn.—Right-wing survivalist James "Bo" Gritz pleaded not guilty Tuesday to attempted kidnapping charges stemming from his efforts to help a woman involved in a child custody battle. Gritz and his son, James R. Gritz, who also pleaded not guilty, were arrested Sept. 30 outside a school attended by one of Linda Wiegand's children. Her husband has custody of their two children.

[END OF QUOTING]

So, what makes this anything but an open and shut case? Because it is also reported that Gritz "just happened" to be at the very place indicated with pictures of the children IN HIS PERSONAL POCKET. It is also interesting that the men were in Connecticut whilst Bo lives in Sandy Valley, NEVADA. He said he was looking at a "car" which was for sale on the street. There are a lot of coincidences, I assume, but this one does stretch it a bit. Why would he be looking for a sale car in Connecticut on the same street as would be children whose pictures are in his pocket—half a nation distant from where he lives?

Will Gerry Spence represent Bo? Who knows? You asked what is going on and this is what is going on. I do not longer "know" Mr. Gritz so have no interest in his ongoing escapades.

Let us look at another HIDDEN message:

[QUOTING, Associated Press, 10-30-96:]

DEMOCRAT LINKED TO FOREIGN MONEY
GIVES TESTIMONY

WASHINGTON—Democratic Party fund-raiser John HUANG [H: (Vietnamese)], criticized by Republicans for soliciting foreign-linked political contributions, was questioned in a closed session Tuesday in a civil suit AGAINST THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT. [H: Do NOT miss this, readers, for this is not some investigation into political campaign contributions—it is concerning shady and unlawful dealings of one RON BROWN in commercial payoffs.] U.S. District Judge Royce Lamberth said a videotape of the testimony could be shown publicly. Huang was giving a deposition in a suit against the Commerce Department by Judicial Watch, a conservative activist group. Larry Klayman, a lawyer for Judicial Watch, said Huang was being evasive, but Assistant U.S. Attorney Bruce Hegyi, representing the Commerce Department, said Huang was responding to almost all the questions.

[H: And just WHO do you think will get in the last ruling (in favor of) the U.S. Attorneys? Come on, readers, the facts are dumped all over you in confetti-style distractors. Vietnam politicians BOUGHT Secretary of Commerce RON BROWN. And, it became necessary to murder the Secretary when the incidents came to light. It is all in a day's work for the demolition squads. Go back now and CAREFULLY READ Fire From The Sky!]

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, with these things, as above, in mind I would like to share a writing from Mistress Ann Beam assisted by Sandy Ence and Tammy Alley which came a few months ago and bashed me and Doris in insult after insult as if truth is somehow made different by ridicule and/or lies. I want to share it for I want MY SCRIBE to get the picture here and realize that I have never misled her nor, intentionally, anyone who reads this paper. The information of just who all participated in this cute dissertation may well be in question but I assure Sandy and Tammy that they were given full credit for input. How do we KNOW it was a FAX from Ann? Because it came directly FROM Leon Fort's fax machine which was checked on INSTANTLY AFTER RECEIVING THE DOCUMENT ON THE CONTACT MACHINE.

[QUOTING:]

were spent in Sola, Uam, on the 3rd planet from the 7th from Alcyone if you count the other six as orbiting around it.

They don't, of course, but one of the locals on Planet Three decided to drum up a batcha new believers to milk lotsa belief-juice from. So she pretended she was a no-show spacelord named Hatonn. Hatonn in Ubangi means here-to-save-you. In English it means the opposite of Hats Off, but she wanted a wider audience.

Actually she wasn't a no-show spacelord named Hatonn. She was a plagiarist embezzler named in several lawsuits later on. Her worst crime, however, was a mishmash of illiterate ravings purporting to warn the reader what's really about to happen on Planet Three. "Hatonn" then proceeds to quote from more industrious people's homework azzo it were his own, while knocking all other sources including the one he's quoting from as errant, misleading, inaccurate, and spiritually inferior. This always leads to Hatonn painting himself as the only true harbinger of good, and the reader as damned. Each item and issue of mishmash therefore starts out as the model of paternal omniscience, and ends up cursing the very ones it sets out to save.

"Ye hath strayed!" it raves illiterately, in pseudo biblical Ubangi. (Which interestingly reads like brain-damaged English.) Maybe that was ok, since most Planet Three believers were raving illiterates anyway. —SOMEONE bought the papers. [H: This last sentence is most amusing of all; these people do NOT buy the paper but rather filch it from carriers—but they certainly are our most AVID READERS!]

[END OF QUOTING]

I'm quite sure that there was a LOT of laughter and thigh slapping going on as this was orchestrated—BUT HE WHO LAUGHS FIRST DOES NOT USUALLY LAUGH LAST!

Today, I suppose, is Ann Beam Day for it is Halloween and it is said by people who KNOW (from Tucson, Az.) that Annie is/was a member of a Witch's Coven there. She now presents herself into every facet of other people's affairs, including lawyers for Green (you know, "agent of"). Leon fell for the sucker-deal and ever since life is just not too happy. In the end the TRUTH will OUT and the LIGHT WILL SHINE ON THE GUILTY.

By the way, readers, when I present something to you AS TOLD TO ME BY SOMEONE ELSE—I CAN ONLY QUALIFY IT AS "SOMEONE TOLD ME" OR "WE RECEIVED...", ETC. That in itself does not mean that I offer it as TRUTH but only as that which we received. I JUDGE NOT for the cycle of return will return to the sender in type of that which was sent forth—I do NOT need to judge. People judge for selves and usually follow-through with proof of their frailties. Perhaps we shall take up the letter Ann Beam SENT TO GERRY SPENCE about the Ekkers and his consideration for taking the singular California property case—having NOTHING remotely to do with one Ann Beam—but NOW PROVING A MAJOR CONSPIRACY ARRANGEMENT AMONG LAWYERS AND, YES, EVEN A JUDGE! Now Annie has generously given of her talents in affidavits which finish the PROOF. THANK YOU, ANNIE.

Now as one last reminder to Dharma, and you readers, as to how vicious can be the enemies of truth who take, and bash, and lie about you and TRUTH:

This comes from Robert E. Rhoads, father of Tammy Alley and Sandy Ence/Enz.

[QUOTING:]

To Whom It May Concern;

Due to the vicious lies, manipulation and transgressions by Doris and E.J. Support? With this kind of "support" who needs it? The fact that Rod Ence/Enz works directly for and with George Green and himself took over $23,500 FROM THE INSTITUTE WHILE HE WAS PRESIDENT of same, smacks of collusion and CONSPIRACY—in my humble opinion and observation.

CHECK OUT YOUR NUMBERS— AGAIN

A new month comes and simply compounds the prior errors in calendar counting, and so what else is new on Planet Earth-Shan? If something annoys you—just round off to the nearest whole number.

In New York one year there was a major legislation pending to round off the numerical value of "pi" [the ratio of the circumference to the diameter of a circle] because "the fractions were annoying".

Well, readers, the entire calendar counting system is off by thousands of years for all sorts of reasons of which not the least is your counting SYSTEM.

What is all the hoopla about your computers NOW? You don't have any valid way of representing year 2000. So, what will you do—repeat 19__ again?

Something more serious happened in the "B.C./A.D." debacle now called the "Common Era" as there was no Roman Numeral available to represent the "0" (zero) (SUPPOSEDLY Christ's Birth) and therefore the anniversary of that date will have to be celebrated in year 2001. Christ is a "state of being" so at any rate the date would be incorrect just because the CONCEPT is incorrect. And worse, Esu I-E-Jmanuel (the one later called "Jesus") was born in August and not in December.

So what is the hoopla about? Well, there was already a 25th celebration for "Satan" toward the moon ending in or around the 25th December—in whatever year it was ultimately decided for celebration. Oh, it was later called to represent "Saint" something or other but note the letter in your English alphabet: s-a-i-n-t (Satin—as spelled in many countries). This came to be foisted off onto Santa (s-a-n-t-a, Satan as spelled in the U.S.). And worse, "Nick" is a dubbed name for Satan as in (Satin Nick-olas). So, just what do you celebrate at "Christmas"? Mostly all the trappings and traditions of a Satanic holiday complete with commercial Zionist selling and profit-taking from you-the-people. You are not even allowed to longer celebrate, LEGALLY, the Religious or Spiritual aspects through VISUAL settings—in most public places. The candle holder of the Jewish tradition is the accepted replacement which has become the Judeo-Christian heritage. B.S. There IS NO "Judeo-Christian" HERITAGE. The two are OPPOSITES IN THE EXTREME.

So, about Christmas gift giving? Giving is nice ANY DAY OF THE YEAR—TO EXPRESS LOVE AND SHARING. Christmas is a nice time for focusing on the GOOD in life experience—but I wonder how many of you truly find Good, Life, and Joy ANY time? It is NOT in the giving or the celebration—IT IS THE LIE ABOUT THE DATE AND WHAT IT MEANS THAT IS CONFUSING. AND THE PRINCE/KING OF CONFUSION? SATAN!

I asked Dharma to count the number of cards advertised in a catalog of Christmas Cards to see how many were related to the Spiritual or Religious aspect of the Holiday. Four. Four out of well into the Hundreds. There were more, by far, odes to the Jewish Holiday—but of course, the catalog was an advertisement for a Jewish commercial business.

No, I am NOT knocking anything—I just am called to answer inquiries and this is one of them. You will do whatever you will do, with or without my input. I actually enjoy your warmth and celebrations of family and goodness any time I can find it, anywhere. X-mas is no exception. And yes indeed, "X-mas" is the OFFICIAL abbreviation of Christmas.

This is not the first time there is trauma to the trivial in the minds of mankind. So, if you check it out, you may be off even more than centuries or thousands—you may well be off by zillions! There was such a stink at the end of the 1800s that it became THE big issue of the day, never mind that the Bolsheviks were planning a takeover of the world and swinging into Bankster Big Deal Protocols to see to its fruition in year 2000 when NO ONE WOULD BE ABLE TO READ A CALENDAR ACCURATELY. You would have KNOWN more about it, however, in 1899 than today.

So, what might I have as a comment on this "great" computer dilemma?

"BEFORE GOD WE ARE ALL EQUALLY WISE—EQUALLY FOOLISH."

Republic Of Texas Found In Contempt

[Quoting, from The Victoria Advocate, 10/29/96:]

AUSTIN (AP)—A state district judge found the Republic of Texas group and its top leaders in contempt of court Monday for trying to take over state bank accounts.

Judge Joseph Hart ordered the group to rescind letters mailed to about 176 banks directing them to transfer all accounts held by the state, its agencies and political subdivisions to the organization.

Hart gave the group one week to comply with the order before facing $10,000-a-day fines that will double each day until the letters are rescinded.

Hart told officials from Attorney General Dan Morales' office they could seek higher penalties or arrest of group leaders if they do not comply with his order.

Richard McLaren, ambassador of the so-called Republic, said Hart has no authority to order the group to do anything. He contends that the people of Texas will take action if the state tries to enforce the fines.

"If they start taking assets, you won't believe what will happen. If they start it, they won't be able to turn it off." McLaren said.

"People are upset. If you start going around stealing assets, people are going to react. ...If he really pulls it off, God help him."

The Republic group, which would not reveal its membership, claims the annexation of Texas in 1845 was illegal. It has set up various institutions, including its own courts and treasury.

Peter Haskal, as assistant attorney general, said he was unaware of any bank turning over accounts to the group. But he said the letters have caused some confusion and have wasted people's time.

Hart earlier this year approved a temporary injunction against the group, ordering it to stop filing items against property held by government entities and private people. He also ordered the group to stop filing supposedly legal government documents like the bank notices.

Haskel said the group also has notified other businesses in Texas that the state no longer exists. He said the notices direct any business wanting to work in Texas to deal with the organization.

He added that Attorney General Dan Morales hopes to avoid any violence and would rather see so-called Republic obey the law. But Haskel said the legal governments in Texas can't be held hostage.

"State and local government must be allowed to function, to do their jobs, to perform their duties and not have to answer to a nongovernmental, small self-appointed group of extremists to do that," he said.

Haskel also said the state's civil lawsuit against the group could be expanded soon. He declined to elaborate, but said Morales is working closely with other law enforcement officials.

Aton: Recognizing The Power Of Your Divine Birth-right

11/3/96 ATON, THE ONE LIGHT

Greeting, little one. It is I, Aton, the One Light, come to briefly commune with you this day.

This is a time for growth. You are being tested as are all who wish to participate. This is a time for sorting, and ones are going to have to face their fears. You shall overcome or you shall have to stand down. You have your challenges, as do all of Ground Crew at this time.

Ones may wonder why I, Aton, do not write more often. It is most difficult for ones down there to confront the fact that God would talk directly to them. Yet it is as natural as the thoughts you think every second of every day.

Also, ones have their own perceptions of who I am and how I communicate. I do NOT need anyone's permission to speak, write, or even paint a masterpiece on a sheet of canvas. I do, however, choose to allow my messengers to bring forth my messages of Lighted Truth because these ones (these Angelic messengers) need their lessons, as do you. How else do you think these ones earn their positions of responsibility as a Co-Creator?

All is for a reason. I have chosen the title of Aton at this time so as not to be confused with the many religions running around down there, claiming to be of God. Aton simply means "The One Light". This title was used in ancient Egypt and has been nearly removed from the awareness of man during the later centuries. The label is simply for identification purposes at this time. If you cannot come to grips with the fact that I, Creator God, can choose any label that I may desire, then I must ask: Who are YOU to place limits on the One who created you?!

My scribe wonders why the explanation of my label. There are newly awakening readers who need the information. These ones will do well just to keep up with the new writings coming out—let alone go back and read the thousands of writings penned prior.

Ones will have to go within and find the Truth that they need. The writings are made available to any who choose to partake of the gifts offered.

Many hear Louis Farrakhan use this label, and are confused, for it does not appear in your Bible. There are many spiritual Truths that do not appear in any of the many versions of your Bible!

At this present time of greatly accelerated experiencing, ones are waking up to the fact that there is something to My Reality. This is to say that ones are becoming more aware of the true spiritual nature of their existence. Ones out there, such as Mr. Farrakhan, need to know who is who. Furthermore, they, too, need their confirmations that they are indeed on the correct path.

There are My Host sent in every form you can conceive of at this time. Some are incarnate in the physical, and are thus born into the planet's birthright. Others may be in the physical and yet they were not born into the planet's birthright. And still others have come in the etheric state (the fourth-dimensional state).

There are many other presentations that exist, yet there is no allowance for their descriptions in the current language. These ones exist in higher-dimensional realities and exist mostly as thought projections, both within and without the known universe of your perception.

You ones may be asking: "What is this 'birthright' of the planet?" When ones choose to enter into the planet's karmic condition through the route of being born into the world as a child, they, in effect, can do more without bumping into the restrictions otherwise imposed by the Non-Interference Rules. Ones who come to a planet, yet are not born into the world, are restricted as to what they can and cannot do in terms of bringing about change.

Ones who choose to be born into the planet must go through all the distractions of the physical and are subject to getting lost in the confusion of the planet's high density, low frequency condition. Yet, ones who wake up to their reality of mission, and make connection, have the ability to more directly impact the evolutionary process of the planet's civilization.

Take my son Esu "Jesus" Immanuel as an example. He would not have been allowed to impact the spiritual awareness of your planet if he did not first agree to go down and be born into the planet. By being born, he earned the right to influence the course of humanity on that planet. [See box on next page]

So, for those of you down there at this time who are the ones who bring forth my messages of Spiritual Truth, whether they be from one of my messengers or from Me Myself (GOD!), I am reminding you that there is good reason for your DIRECT CONNECTION at this time.

This also goes for you ones who may not receive consciously at this time. Please know that you DO receive—and that the mere act of spreading the inspired messages of Truth, from whatever physical source such may enter into your awareness, causes the means by which the awareness of a planet can be shifted.

Ones need to realize that their "holy" books are limited and have been distorted through time. There is, however, much truth left in them. But I tell you now: discern always the information! Take all information and think it through for yourself.

Even these writings that are coming forth each day must be read with discernment, for you are always being tested as to where you are in your current level of perception and awareness. There are no absolutes down there in the physical experiences. Use your mind and be responsible for your choices.

No man has any corner on Truth. You each have to find your own way through the challenges of the physical compression of that third-dimensional reality.

Be attentive to those things which cause you to feel fear. Fear is what will inhibit you from reaching your true potential while down there in the physical. Recognize WHO you are and WHY you are there! Go forth in confidence that you are part of the Oneness that is Light. You shall either create the miracles or they will not get created. IT IS YOUR BIRTH-RIGHT!

I LEAVE YOU NOW WITH MY BLESSINGS. TO YOU WHO EFFORT TO FIND TRUTH AND SEEK TO FULFILL YOUR PART IN THIS MISSION: I AM THE ONE LIGHT. I AM ATON. I AM. ADONAI.

Esu Sananda On Overcoming Fear

Editor's note: In conjunction with Aton's message on the previous page, the following is another important spiritual lesson for all of us as we enter a time, now that the elections are over, when all indications are that the Elite controllers will step-up their agenda for domination over We-The-People, the "useless eaters". As has been discussed in many of the "Rainbow Masters" series of spiritual writings over the past several months in CONTACT, we are entering a time when the direct connection of each of us with the God-Source within shall become imperative. Fear is the single biggest tool the Adversary uses to block or otherwise derail that connection. Thus the following writing is most appropriate "food for thought" at this time.

10/30/96 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

Peace, Thomas, Esu present in Radiance.

Fear hangs like a shroud above your planet, strangling out freedom of thought, crippling many into non-action. It is that "negative" force which keeps man down, that keeps man as part of the herd mentality, that keeps the eyes locked in place, the heart racing, and always the doubts run through the mind—will "they" come for me at the front door; will "they" stop me on the street; will I be gunned down; will I be arrested; the list is endless. Will I die alone, is a big one.

Always, in a state of fear, God is locked out, barred from entry by the closed mind that has no faith.

Am I saying that those who fear have no faith in God? Well, essentially, yes. For once you truly become one with God, in your faith in God's Creation, there is no thing in this world to fear. Certainly there needn't be fear of even death for, in truth, with God's people there is only eternal life—each played out on a new stage of Creation.

Man locks out all possibility with fear, he becomes immobilized, stagnant, and worst of all, in a true state of fear, he does, by design, become very alone. God never leaves his people, but God's people continually lock God out, the doors closed and barred and God is left, waiting for man to awaken to the true state of things, the true awareness within the Creation that truly there is nothing to fear but fear itself!

Fear prevents movement; it prevents change; it prevents possibility. Fear is an evil thing because it draws the Lighted being away from God, not toward God.

Fear is a tool of the adversary in action. Be ever watchful of these adversarial devices, i.e., divide and conquer, and fear! Fear represents lack of faith. Shore up your faith! Ask for help and it shall be given unto you. Ask not and it shall not be given—it is the law!

It is worthy to think on these things, for if man does not overcome these things, he is ill equipped to shoulder the responsibilities of leadership in God's kingdom.

The next time you find yourselves in fear, beloved of mine, ask God to enter and clear the area. Ask for help and it shall be given. Ask for courage and it shall be given. Ask for Light and it shall be given. All things will be opened unto thee in proper sequence if you but ask.

You of God's people are loved beyond measure. Do not shut God out of your personal equation lest self will be found wanting. Rather, invite in God's protection which is ever freely offered unto you, and you shall know no fear.

So be it and Selah.

I am Esu Sananda to clear.

WHAT ARE OUR ARMED FORCES DOING IN SAUDI ARABIA?

WELL! THEY GOT THERE BY MISUSE OF 5 USC FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT!

10/28/96 GRANDMA

If all of you remember, several months ago, Mr. Clinton "had it in the wringer" for cutting deals and selling arms to Iran. The news media gave several blurbs on the deal cutting and selling of arms, but Congress and the Senate, as usual, sat there like bumps on a log, with their thumbs up their fannies and their collective brains in neutral. Ignoring unconstitutional misconstruction and abuse of presidential powers. Why? Well, it would or could be explained better if members of the U.S. Houses of Representatives, members of the Executive Branch, and members of the Judiciary's net worth were audited (before and after taking office of public trust), and the source of the collective wealth explained to the people.

THINK ABOUT IT!

England (the nation on which the Sun never set on her imperial empire) executed the very same tactics, to control the world. (She went broke because she had too many mouths to feed, too much military to support, and she spread herself too thin.) England could not pay her debts (not even the Alabama claims of the Civil War, which was $17 million in gold to the United States). England and Germany, including Russia (all cousins), actually, deliberately started WWII. WWI, WWII were nothing more than for generation of new industry, because they had spread themselves too thin. Moving of mass populations who moved for jobs in order to feed their families. Seizing the mood of the people and the moment of history, in marched Adolph Hitler, with promises of 1000 years of peace (everlasting peace). Hitler went to nation after nation, all across Europe, "to preserve peace we must disarm the people!" Nation after nation disarmed. (Check out England's current Parliamentary proceedings planning to disarm the English people in total.) Hitler, in the meantime, had Krupp manufacturing the war machines. Once the nations were disarmed to his satisfaction, Hitler rolled across Europe like hot pucky through a hot tin horn. Until Stalingrad.

Our past presidents of the United States, like Hitler with his obsession with Stalingrad, have been so obsessed with overthrowing our constitutional United States, for preservation of everlasting peace. They have, as did Hitler, alienated their people and the nation with obsessive, blind will to overcome the will of the people.

Mr. Clinton, in his zeal and obsession to overwhelm this nation by lack of industry, lack of jobs, lack of manufacturing, lack of...has, by and through the usage of the Federal Advisory Committee Act grossly misconstrued and abused his powers of Office of Public Trust. And when challenged, he hides under section 6 of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, declaring National Security!

THINK ABOUT IT!

Not unlike Napoleon, Adolph Hitler and others who assaulted "Mother Russia" (historic phrase), all, without exception, met their Waterloo. Mr. Clinton is no different. America is represented as Lady Liberty. Germany is the "Fatherland", Russia, the "Motherland"; a culmination of mother and father now endangers the child—Liberty. For, due to the Federal Advisory Committee Act, treaty agreements were cut and Mr. Gorbachev has been given direct control over our "Pride of the U.S. Marines", the Presidio, directing other treaties, while Germany occupies Holloman Air Force Base (NM), complete with armed military personnel.

THINK ABOUT IT!

Now, think about this. You hire someone to conduct your business affairs, and to keep you apprised of any pending areas which may or may not cause you harm. There are profits generated from this business, and the hired personnel must run your business from the funds generated. You both agree, and enter into a contract. Things go along fine; you enjoy prosperity, your hired personnel enjoy prosperity—and suddenly the hired help, your employees, decide that the business is so profitable, they are going to take this business away from you. They, then, strike out on their own. They tell you nothing about the profits generated, they present no books of accounting records. They persist in telling you, the employer, the business is no longer profitable, and you must keep pumping money into the business to keep the business going.

What you have not been told is your employees set up a side corporation/business and have gone into competition with you. They are forcing you out of business! In corporate lingo it's called a hostile takeover!

The Federal Government (your employees under contract) has taken over our business (the Constitution of the United States). Breaching the contract of union of the united States Republics.

10/30/96 GRANDMA

Our President of the United States has taken money from individuals from nations other than the United States. This is so very sad. It jeopardizes our system of government, and the economic security of this nation. In the '50s and '60s we called it "payola". Today it's called political correctness, and election money. I still prefer calling it payola. If it waddles like a duck, has feathers, webbed feet, and quacks a lot, you call it what it is. Therefore, payola is payola; payment for favors in the future, to those who make the payments.

Let's take a stroll back through history to 1887, and look at the Oath of Office—appointive or elective. It reads as follows:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and of the State of _____, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of office of _____, according to the best of my ability."

Elected officers take the above, and add the following:

"And I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not directly or indirectly paid, offered, or promised to pay, contributed, or offered, or promised to contribute any money or other valuable things as a consideration or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected to said office, and I have not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding any such vote."

(This can be found in Commercial Law of 1887, business form no. 74)

THINK ABOUT IT!

In March of 1933, Roosevelt warned that unless Congress acted in the economic emergency, "I shall ask the Congress for the one remaining instrument to meet the crisis—broad Executive power to wage a war against the emergency, as great as the power that would be given to me if we were in fact invaded by a foreign foe." No president could ask for less than this in a future crises; he probably would ask for more. And no modern congress could resist him, for part of the nation's consensus over freedom and equality is a commitment to federal action against depression and poverty. And because that commitment first and foremost binds the president and will do so indefinitely, it is part of the edifice of presidential government.

THINK ABOUT IT!

This is formally called the Enabling Act or Emergency War Powers Act (originated by A. Lincoln). The Supreme Court had previously held such powers were unconstitutional. Each successive president of the United States, has employed the unconstitutional Executive Ordered emergency acts.

Adding insult to unconstitutional injury, the Executive Powers granted by Congress to Franklin D. Roosevelt, in March 1933, specifically to meet the crisis of (1) the failed economy, and (2) a severe depression; whereupon and whereas, once the nation recovered and was once again enjoying jobs, industry, manufacturing—and the homelessness and joblessness which plagued the nation was met with satisfaction and moderate means of self-sustaining of the individuals (American citizens), Mr. Roosevelt's "indefinite" time was concluded.

Then, after the nation prospered so greatly, another president, Richard M. Nixon, "needed" other additional powers. He sought the Federal Advisory Committee Act from the U.S. Congress in 1972, and it was granted. Mr. Nixon, in his exuberance, immediately ordered "palace guard" uniforms for the U.S. Secret Service, complete with clarion trumpets. He thought this Federal Advisory Committee Act granted him a kingship. He began tinkering around with Social Security Trust Funds. He cut a side deal with the Teamsters Union. Social Security Trust Money was then put into the Railroad Retirement Fund. Recently it was exposed that "ten or more years of Social Security records were lost" (1972-1983).

THE FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT!

5 U.S.C.

THINK ABOUT IT!

Since the Federal Advisory Committee Act, our presidents have colluded, conspired, operated successfully drug operations and arms sales, started wars without Congress, cut business deals though the Commerce Department, allowed treaties to infringe onto the rights of the American people, and brought this nation to such depths of degradation and despair, sinking to depths only a conquering force could do to a nation while occupying the fallen nation.

The Federal Advisory Committee Act must be repealed. The Executive privilege of Executive Orders of the Emergency War Powers Act must also be repealed. For these two acts of Congress alone, have destroyed this nation. Also, Congress must go back and take a good hard, long look at the Federal Reserve Banking System Act in its original form, and its limited original intent, for misconstruction and abuse of these three acts have occurred, the original agreement/contract has been grossly abused and breached.

The U.S. Congress has the powers to resolve these wrongs as committed under these congressional acts. It's time they got off their dead ends, and did their jobs!

A Tip Of The Iceberg

“WE HAVE NO AUTHORITY OVER THESE MATTERS”

10/29/96 V.K. DURHAM

Time after time, millions upon millions of Americans have been told one of the above, after having fallen victim to Criminal Acts and/or Criminal Practices—which either caused great bodily harm, loss of home, loss of money, loss of business and loss after loss across this land of ours, when the victimized has petitioned district attorneys, state’s attorneys, attorneys, secretaries of state, governors, state senators, and other representatives, U.S. representatives, including the President of the United States. All of whom, when petitioned, put the old spin on: “Go hire an attorney, this is not an area of our jurisdiction; we have no authority over these matters.” While our laws keep crumbling down, our nation keeps crumbling down, and the mob rule of the lawless keeps oppressing the people.

IT JUST KEEPS ON,
KEEPIN’ ON—

Back in 1991-93, we realized something was wrong with our Nevada corporation and that someone was using idem sonans (a sound-alike name) impersonating our Cosmos Seafood Energy Marketing Ltd. We noticed the secretary of state, the corporations commissioner of the state of Nevada—no response. Then, we noticed the State of Nevada of our intentions of temporarily putting CSEML on “vacation until we could find out what was going on.” Again, no response.

Wasn’t too long until we received a large, very expensive book on COSMOS Travel, etc. This is a global fun in the sun, travel guide, travel accommodation, even with AAA (automobile club). The book was sent to us with no return address. It was as though we were being told, “We stole your corporation, did all of this with it; now what are you going to do about it?”

Back in 1988-90, seven different home loans with First Union Mortgage of Raleigh, N.C., were discovered alleging to be in my name. Also, these seven alleged loans were on a nonexistent property at a nonexistent address in Hemet, California. No one had an area of jurisdiction over this fraud upon my person, or my property, for seven alleged loans, in seven distinct amounts, with seven different loan numbers, under seven different sound-alike names.

My homestead property is in San Jacinto, California; the forgeries, and the idem sonans are in Hemet, California. I did not abandon my homestead, I was forced at the point of a gun from my homestead, as the California Highway Patrol and Riverside County Sheriff personnel sat in their cruisers, watched and laughed at these mob rule tactics.

I wrote to Bill Sessions (DOJ); I wrote to Bill Clinton; I wrote to the United States Secret Service. I went to congressman after congressman, senator after senator, attorney general after attorney general, only to get the same old canned response, “This is not an area of my/our jurisdiction, go hire an attorney.”

The Bar Association attorneys refuse to assist or properly represent anyone in same or similar circumstances. The good old boys have locked us out of the courts, and our duly constituted rights have been denied to the victims while the mob rule criminals enjoy the privilege of being above the law, in all instances. All rights belong to the crooks and criminals—and though inherently, inviolably, perpetually belonging to the people, are denied to the people in favor of the mob rule. Something is very wrong here.

IN COURT AFTER COURT
ACROSS THIS LAND, THE VICTIMS/
PEOPLE ARE TOLD:
YOU HAVE NO RIGHTS
IN MY COURT!

THINK ABOUT IT!

WE PAY OUR TAXES FOR REPRESENTATION,
DO WE NOT?

THINK ABOUT THIS!

Last July, a person known to all of us as John (Jack) P. Jones, while working at Midstate Tank Company here in Illinois, suffered loss of a thumb (end of his thumb) due to company negligence. This is the second digit lost by Mr. Jones in less than two years because of company negligence. One would think Workman’s Comp Insurance would take care of these problems. Moreover, one would think when company negligence (cited by OSHA) occurred, the company’s insurance would pay for the sustained injuries also. Nope, not so. Mr. Jones was advised to go hire an attorney, which he did. He entered into a contract with the attorney. The attorney asked him to sign it while some “blanks” existed on the face of the page. Trusting the attorney, Mr. Jones signed the contract. Later he discovered the mandatory 20% fee for the attorney was increased to approximately 60% of any moneys he would have received, because that little three letter word kept popping up. It kept saying:

“And 20% for this, and 20% for that...” To make this contract work in the averages of the mandatory 20%, the attorney sat on his dead end, did no filing in Mr. Jones behalf—thusly the insurance companies refused to pay, Workman’s Comp refused to pay, plus, adding insult to injury, losing two (2) fingers on the job in less than two years, an additional trauma of emotional stress and duress (post trauma stress) is evidenced. Mr. Jones’ doctor fears for his safety and the safety of others around him under stressful working conditions such as existed at the time of the accidents, and has put Mr. Jones on 100% disability.

In the meantime, the company attempts to force Mr. Jones back to work against doctor’s orders. Mr. Jones’ attorney sides with the company, and asked Mr. Jones to make a “good faith effort” against doctor’s orders (in writing, no less).

Since all of us “know the drill” and lawlessness of this and other similar situations, it can be safely said that Mr. Jones is destitute. He cannot afford to keep his doctor’s appointments (no money to make the trip). He has become homeless like millions of other Americans, because no one has an “area of jurisdiction” over criminal activities.

WRIT OF MANDAMUS WAS “DENIED”

10/30/96 V.K. DURHAM

As all of you know, an old contract, being a simple sum certain contract, exists upon which a UCC-1 Lien, and UCC-9-503 Default was taken on Illinois Power Company. Subsequently, I filed a case, no. 96-739 WLB, in the U.S. District Court, Article III (constitutional) jurisdiction, for the Southern District of Illinois. The case in its entirety is based on res judicata in commerce, prevailing upon already decided by the U.S. Supreme Court in regards to contracts, which have never been overturned. This case (keep in mind the Default is of recorded record, and seasoned) also prevailed upon Article 1, Clause 10 of the Constitution of the United States prohibiting impeding of contracts and contract rights. Per: Rule of Decision.

The presiding judge and magistrates failed to properly monitor the case, allowed liberties to be taken by the defendants who were in default after default, including acts of bad faith, acts of threats and coercion (as stated in writing) to remove from the secretary of state, state of Illinois records—public records, as regarding the UCC-1 Lien and UCC-9-503 Default, constituting acts of criminalities by destruction of public records.

The U.S. District Court, failing to recognize Article III jurisdiction, res judicata, Article I, Clause 10 Jurisdiction of Contract Rights, caused a Writ of Mandamus to be filed in the United States Court of Appeals on October 16, 1996—“to order an officer of the United States Court to perform his sworn duties to execute Summary Judgment on six Defaults of the defendants, Illinois Power Company pursuant to the Federal Civil Procedures and Rules, Rule 56 (a)."

October 28, 1996, the Writ of Mandamus was denied by the United State Court of Appeals. Eight words only: "It is ordered that the motion is denied."

No explanation for the conduct of the court begin investigated—nothing. Just a denial of Mandamus, and to Hell with improprieties conducted by the defendants, and allowances by the court.

WHAT WAS MY POINT IN FILING FOR A SUMMARY JUDGEMENT ON A UCC-9-503, COLLATERAL TITLE TAKEN WITHOUT JUDICIAL PROCESS?

My point, quite frankly (and believe it or not), was:

(1) No court will allow fair play on the UCC-1 Liens now that the people have discovered them, and have possibly found remedy to this corruption in the commercial industry, which has cost millions of homes, farms and other equity rights to belong not to the people, but exclusive rights belonging only to the large corporations or "Old Boys' Club members", and (2) our constitutional rights are being, and have been, thrown out of the courts, which are sworn under Article VI, Clause 2, to protect us and the laws of the Constitution.

What makes this so sad, to me, and to other American citizens who know what our constitutional laws and constitutional rights are, our courts and our inherent, inviolable, perpetual duly constituted rights are, and seeing courts flagrantly charge through the proverbial "mine field", knowing these cases are being exposed, charging onwards into areas where angels would fear to tippy-toe.

Does the court's refusal to execute Summary Judgment cause harm to the UCC-1 Lien? No! It does not. Does the court's refusal to execute the Summary Judgment affect UCC-9-503 "taking possession of collateral without judicial process"? No! It does not.

Let's take a look at the probability in the refusal of the court to execute Summary Judgment. Why would such a position be taken on a lawful default, recorded of record? (1) Summary Judgment would bring about a federal audit of all accounts, businesses and other relevants as associated with this syndicated conglomerate alleging to be a public utility, which would disclose to the public the misuse of public funds. (2) Summary Judgment would disclose breach after breach of Illinois grandfathered laws, governing public utility companies. (3) Also current breaches of encumbering equipment, lines, and other properties governed by Illinois Title Codes under current public utility laws. (4) Summary Judgment would disclose monopolies and current violations of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, including the Hobbs Act, the Banking Act, and last but not least, the Clayton Act, section (ss) 8:

Clayton Act. A federal law enacted in 1914 as an amendment to the Sherman Anti-Trust Act dealing with antitrust regulations and unfair trade practices. 15 U.S.C.A. ss12-27. The act prohibits price discrimination, tying and exclusive dealing contracts, mergers, and interlocking directorates, "where the effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce".

THINK ABOUT IT!

However, when our courts uphold such flagrant violations, we, as the public utility owners who pay our taxes for these public utility bonds, must most assuredly question where our tax dollars have gone. And do we have a vested interest in all these foreign-held corporations owned by the public companies, which were purchased with our tax dollars—and where in the Hell are our dividends?! Our rates increase, instead of decrease? It's time to start asking questions!

Honorable Judges, Flaun, Manion and Evans,

It is realized by me, this is an unprecedented attempt by me, V.K. Durham, to correspond directly with Judges on these issues, however, conditions as presenting unprecedented prevailing issues, warrants this correspondence.

Your Appellate Article III Jurisdiction was petitioned for a Writ of Mandamus to order a U.S. District Court Judge to perform his sworn duties, whereas said petition was denied.

This same Judge, William D. Stiehl (you may check the phone records), did call (618) 243-5615 after the filing of Misc-E-93-116-WDS, where upon he did state: "I know absolutely nothing about the UCC laws, therefore I must recuse myself from this case."

The case was never reassigned. I was the petitioner as the CEO of COSMOS Seafood Energy Marketing, Ltd. The co-CEO, Russell E. Herrmann-Herrman-Herman subsequently was murdered. (Prima facie evidence of photos affixed.)

Gentlemen, the two (2) cases, duly filed into the U.S. District Court for the South District of Illinois, whereas U.S. District Judge William D. Stiehl's frank admitting of lack of knowledge of Uniform Commercial Codes leaves much to be desired when Article III Jurisdiction, the Constitution of the United States, Article I, Clause 10, Rule of Decision, Choice of Constitutional Common Law of Contracts in Res Judicata, by U.S. Supreme Court grandfathered cases were petitioned. Whereas, in one particular instance, Judge Stiehl admitted knowing absolutely nothing about the Uniform Commercial Codes (witnessed).

Knowing this prevailing problem of not knowing the "Uniform Commercial Codes", as previously stated (witnessed) by Judge Stiehl, when the UCC-9-503 Default and Taking Title/Possession of Collateral Without Judicial Process, as provided by said UCC-9-503, UCC-1-105 was chosen as the Choice of Law. My Choice of Law Rule of Decision, the Constitutional Common Law of Contracts in Res Judicata, prevailing upon Article I, Clause 10, prohibiting impeding of contracts, pursuant to Article III Jurisdiction.

From appearances (a) either the laws are not known or understood, or (b) no laws are to made available to me. It's one of the two.

In the MISC-E-93-116-WDS case, the second CEO was murdered on or about August 29, 1994 (prima facie evidence photos affixed), before that case

Courage is resistance to fear, mastery of fear—not absence of fear. Except a creature be part coward, it is not a compliment to say it is brave; it is merely a loose misapplication of the word.

Consider the flea: incomparably the bravest of all creatures of God, if ignorance of fear were courage. Whether you are asleep or awake, he will attack you, caring nothing for the fact that, in bulk and strength, you are to him as are the massed armies of the Earth to a sucking child; he lives both day and night, and all days and nights, in the very lap of peril and the immediate presence of death, and yet is no more afraid than is the man who walks the streets of a city that was threatened by an earthquake ten centuries before.

could or would be reassigned and/or adjudicated.

On January 13, 1994, I did petition the Illinois State's Attorney in Nashville, IL for (a) investigation into the murder of the second CEO, and (b) prosecution of said murder. Only to be informed, "I have no area of jurisdiction", by the Illinois State's Attorney (?). I also petitioned the Illinois Attorney General—same response.

Gentlemen, something is very wrong here. (1) Clear-cut cases are presented, (2) [a] either the judge is unfamiliar with the laws, [b] recuses and fails to reassign, [c] fails his oath to the Constitution of the United States, [d] breaches Article VI, Clause 2, and fails to acknowledge Res Judicata pursuant to Constitutional Law on A Breach of Contract, In Default.

Now, therefore, gentlemen, three prime, clear-cut cases, one of which was clearly evidenced as a murder, have presented themselves for Resolution at Law, and By Lawful Means. All three cases bore my name, V.K. Durham. Each case involved duly constituted rights. All three were denied.

Gentlemen, would you care to reconsider the denial for Writ of Mandamus, or fully explain your reasons for denial of a breach of Rule of Decision, and Res Judicata.

V.K. Durham, attorney in fact, in pro se, secured party, holder in good faith.

understands the order denying, but fails to understand the reasoning or logic used by this Appellate Court in doing so, which fails to conform with the Administrative Procedures Act ss23.09, Mandatory Relief in General, and ss23.10, Jurisdiction to Grant Mandatory Relief, and ss23.04, Injunction and Declaratory Judgment as sought in the original case 96-739-WLB. Now, therefore, failing to fully understand said order denying Writ of Mandamus, said plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham is praying for a more definite statement of this reasoning, given such a decision, when said Cause involves a simple sum certain contract in Default six times, as clear cut, in Res Judicata, evidenced by said secured party, plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham has brought forth.

Further, said plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham had brought up the issue of investigating the district court pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A., Title V, Article III Jurisdiction in original petition for Writ of Mandamus to the U.S. Appeals Court. This Court failed to discuss or dispose of this or these sets of issues brought forward in said Appeals Case no. 96-3565, duly filed in said case as originally duly filed into the Court Record, failing to gain full determination of said Appeals Court. This partial decision by said Appeals Court, by ordering to deny plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham's petition for Writ of Mandamus in no way alleviates this Appellate Court's responsibility and sworn duty to address all issues brought forth by said plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham. A partial judgment constitutes justice half served, or in other words, lack of justice; justice denied.

Now, therefore, if, in the event this Appeals Court chooses to deny said plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham's petition in full, then said plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham hereby and herein requests a more definite statement as to the reasons for said denial. For, as a pro se litigant, the U.S. Appeals Court, Article III Jurisdiction, for the Seventh Circuit, Chicago, Illinois, has as its sworn duty to the Constitution of the United States, an obligation to help said plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham better understand the law and workings thereof (Haines vs. Kerner) whereupon and whereas said plaintiff/defendant/appellant Durham requires by law these more definite statements in order to better understand why her complaint is not being pursued nor justice being attained in something as simple as a Contract in Default and Default Taken in Conformance with Law per Rule of Decision, in Res Judicata.

CANADIANS ARE DESIROUS OF PAYMENT? FOR WHAT?!
PROPERTIES LOST DURING AND AFTER THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR
(THEY SAY).
TAKE IT UP WITH THE "Q"

10/30/96 V.K. DURHAM

There it has been rumored, the Canadians want reparation for lands they allege were lost during the American Revolution, and they are desirous of payment for those allegedly lost lands. Nope! Ain't going to happen. Not from this source—not unless Hell freezes over!

In the event Canadians are hoping to cash in on the old Contract/Certificate for remuneration of sorts for allegedly lost lands, they had best go to their treaty at that time executed by the Crown of England. The treaty allowed all who were desirous of remaining in this country were by treaty law allowed to remain unmolested, allowed to retain all property rights, and were given the choice of remaining loyal to the Crown as Canadians and subjects of the Crown, or they had the choice of becoming American citizens. They were not deprived of any rights, or properties. The right of choice was clearly theirs. This old bull-larkey of wanting remuneration for something they gave up willingly will not fly with me, nor will I allow one American penny to be paid to them from the old Contract/Certificate's accrued interest. As I stated: take it up with the "Q" (Queen).

No one has ever bothered to take a good, long, hard look at my name. It is the name I was born with. Canadians would be knowledgeable of the name Durham. The "Q" (dear old cuz) is well aware of that name. The English Parliament is well aware of that name. That name, throughout historic past, has caused many a crowned head a lot of problems, even to the loss of heads.

When one of my great grandfathers left the English Parliament, it was said that "Parliament will never be the same." The same holds true in reference to the wanting remuneration for something which they freely gave up. For, the accrued interest on that old Contract/Certificate will never be allowed subject to the same old games played by my cousins throughout generations, causing harm to countless numbers of people, through countless generations, in countless countries since time began. It will not be allowed to happen again.

My name is far older than the Queen's, for while the "Q's" family were still sitting in front of warm fireplaces in their German castles, my progenitor William the Bastard, from Normandy, had already conquered England, and our families sat in original form as the heads of England, whereupon the unity of Tripartate of the civilized European Nations, sanctioned by the Church!

Our blood has not become bastardized!

In the event the "Q" woke up, she would know I still have the double eagles. They are my birth right. Also, the "Q" is aware, I also have the three lions and the chevron. Although she has an impressive crest, hers pales next to those belonging to me as my inherent, perpetual birth right. Now, therefore, taking into consideration, the "Q" and myself favor in looks or appearance to one another, any similarity ends rights there.

Unlike the "Q", I have no illusions of grandeur, I can only live in one house at a time, and my life is a simple life, only desirous of that which has been stated by me and by Russell so many times before: It is America and Americans first, last and always. Once this nation is secured, the homeless housed, the jobless with jobs, our industry and manufacturing restored, our Constitution restored, and every single American citizen is safe and in the event old cuz, the "Q", is still around and kicking, we might discuss her problems.

That is very doubtful, because I am becoming very bitchy in my old age, especially regarding the lack of morals, lack of common decency, lack of dignity, lack of pride and lack of responsibilities such as exemplified by her and her family members. Which most assuredly set a poor example for younger and more impressionistic minds of our youth. Examples must be set by those who lead. In the event bad examples are set, our youth have nothing else to follow as guidelines.

The only, other similarity between the two of us is that the young Princess Diana and my daughter could be stood side by side and it would be difficult to tell them apart. Of course, Princess Diana is a Spencer; however, the DNA runs strong in those old families. It pops up in the 3-2-1 ratios of genetics.

Now, back to the Canadian issue. Remember the old parliamentary saying of "shades of radical Jack". Then think about the 3-2-1 ratio. Jack's back, boys and girls! For the readers' information, Jack caused 60 years of bad English law to be repealed, and called for reform of the common laws.

There will be no remuneration on lands freely given up.

74. TREATY OF PEACE WITH GREAT BRITAIN

September 3, 1783
(Malloy, ed. Treaties, Conventions, etc., Vol. I, p. 586ff.)

The surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, October 19, 1781, brought an end to the British effort to subdue the American colonies. February 27, 1782, a motion urging King George to end the war passed the House of Commons; a month later Lord North resigned, and the Rockingham Ministry entered into negotiations for a definitive peace. Congress appointed John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, John Jay, Henry Laurens, and Thomas Jefferson to conduct the negotiations, but Jefferson did not leave America, and Laurens was released from prison too late to take part in the peace conferences. The chief burden of the negotiations fell upon Franklin, and the treaty is largely a tribute to his shrewdness, persistence, and sagacity. On the Treaty, see the scholarly account by J.B. Scott, in S.F. Bendis, ed. American Secretaries of State, Vol. I, chs. iv-v; A.C. McLaughlin, Confederation and Constitution, chs. i-ii; E.G. Petty, Lord Fitzmaurice, Life of William, Earl of Shelburne, Vol. III.

Art. I.—His Britannic Majesty acknowledges the said United States, viz. New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island, and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and Georgia, to be free, sovereign and independent States; that he treats with them as such, and for himself, his heirs and successors, relinquishes all claims to the Government, proprietary and territorial rights of the same, and every part thereof.

Art. II—And that all disputes which might arise in future, on the subject of the boundaries of the said United States may be prevented, it is hereby agreed and declared, that the following are, and shall be their boundaries, viz.: from the northwest angle of Nova Scotia, viz.: that angle which is formed by a line drawn due north from the source of Saint Croix River to the Highlands; along the said Highlands which divide those rivers that empty themselves into the river St. Lawrence, from those which fall into the Atlantic Ocean, to the north-westernmost head of Connecticut River; thence down along the middle of that river, to the forty-fifth degree of north latitude; from thence, by a line due west on said latitude, until it strikes the river Iroquois or Cataraquy; thence along the middle of said river into Lake Ontario, through the middle of said lake until it strikes the communication by water between that lake and Lake Erie; thence along the middle of said communication into Lake Erie, through the middle of said lake until it arrives at the water communication between that lake and Lake Huron; thence along the middle of said water communication into the Lake Huron; thence through the middle of said lake to the water communication between that lake and Lake Superior; thence through Lake Superior northward of the Isles Royal and Phelipeaux, to the Long Lake; thence through the middle of said Long Lake, and the water communication between it and the Lake of the Woods, to the said Lake of the Woods; thence through the said lake to the most northwestern point thereof, and from thence on a due west course to the river Mississippi; thence by a line to be drawn along the middle of the said river Mississippi until it shall intersect the northernmost part of the thirty-first degree of north latitude. South, by a line to be drawn due east from the determination of the line last mentioned, in the latitude of thirty-one degrees north of the equator, to the middle of the river Appalachicola or Catahouche; thence along the middle thereof to its junction with the Flint river; thence straight to the head of St. Mary's River; and thence down along the middle of St. Mary's River to the Atlantic Ocean. East, by a line to be drawn along the middle of the river St. Croix, from its mouth in the Bay of Fundy to its source, and from its source directly north to the aforesaid Highlands, which divide the rivers that fall into the Atlantic Ocean from those which fall into the river St. Lawrence; comprehending all islands within twenty leagues of any part of the shores of the United States, and lying between lines to be drawn due east from the points where the aforesaid boundaries between Nova Scotia on the one part, and East Florida on the other, shall respectively touch the Bay of Fundy and the Atlantic Ocean; excepting such islands as now are, or heretofore have been, within the limits of the said province of Nova Scotia.

Art. III—It is agreed that the people of the United States shall continue to enjoy unmolested the right to take fish of every kind on the Grand Bank, and on all the other banks of Newfoundland; also in the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, and at all other places in the sea where the inhabitants of both countries used at any time heretofore to fish. And also that the inhabitants of the United States shall have liberty to take fish of every kind on such part of the coast of Newfoundland as British fishermen shall use (but not to dry or cure the same on that island) and also on the coasts, bays and creeks of all other of His Britannic Majesty's dominions in America; and that the American fishermen shall have liberty to dry and cure fish in any of the unsettled bays, harbours and creeks of Nova Scotia, Magdalen Islands, and Labrador, so long as the same shall remain unsettled; but so soon as the same or either of them shall be settled, it shall not be lawful for the said fishermen to dry or cure fish at such settlements, without a previous agreement for that purpose with the inhabitants, proprietors or possessors of the ground.

Art. IV—It is agreed that creditors on either side shall meet with no lawful impediment to the recovery of the full value in sterling money, of all bona fide debts heretofore contracted.

Art. V—It is agreed that the Congress shall earnestly recommend it to the legislature of the respective States, to provide for the restitution of all estates, rights and properties which have been confiscated, belonging to real British subjects, and also of the estates, rights and properties of persons resident in districts in the possession of His Majesty's arms, and who have not borne arms against the said United States. And that persons of any other description shall have free liberty to go to any part or parts of any of the thirteen United States, and therein to remain twelve months, unmolested in their endeavors to obtain the restitution of such of their estates, rights and properties as may have been confiscated; and that Congress shall also earnestly recommend to the several States a reconsideration and revision of all acts or laws regarding the premises, so as to render the said laws or acts perfectly consistent, not only with justice and equity, but with that spirit of conciliation which, on the return of the blessings of peace, should universally prevail. And that Congress shall also earnestly recommend to the several States, that the estates, rights and properties of such last mentioned persons, shall be restored to them, they refunding to any persons who may be now in possession, the bona fide price (where any has been given) which such persons may have paid on purchasing any of the said lands, rights or properties, since the confiscation. And it is agreed, that all persons who have any interest in confiscated lands, either by debts, marriage settlements or otherwise, shall meet with no lawful impediment in the prosecution of their just rights.

Art. VI—That there shall be no future confiscations made, nor any prosecutions commenced against any person or persons for, or by reason of the part which he or they may have taken in the present war; and that no person shall, on that account, suffer any future loss or damage, either in his person, liberty or property: and that those who may be in confinement on such charges, at the time of the ratification of the treaty in America, shall be immediately set at liberty, and the prosecutions so commenced be discontinued.

Art. VII—there shall be a firm and perpetual peace between His Britannic Majesty and the said States, and between the subjects of the one and the citizens of the other, wherefore all hostilities, both by sea and land, shall from henceforth cease; (sic) All prisoners on both sides shall be set at liberty, and His Britannic Majesty shall, with all convenient speed, and without causing any destruction, or carrying away any negroes or other property of the American inhabitants, withdraw all his armies, garrisons and fleets from the said United States, and from every post, place and harbour within the same; leaving in all fortifications the American artillery that may be therein; And shall also order and cause all archives, records, deeds and papers, belonging to any of the said States, or their citizens, which, in the course of the war, may have fallen into the hands of his officers, to be forthwith restored and delivered to the proper

States and persons to whom they belong.

Art. VIII—The navigation of the river Mississippi, from its source to the ocean, shall forever remain free and open to the subjects of Great Britain, and the citizens of the United States.

Art. IX—In case it should so happen that any place or territory belonging to Great Britain or to the United States, should have been conquered by the arms of either from the other, before the arrival of the said provisional articles in America, it is agreed, that the same shall be restored without difficulty, and without requiring any compensation....

Islamic Presence In South Africa

OUT OF AFRICA—WITHOUT ROBERT REDFORD

I would like to share a notation about a mutual acquaintance out of Africa and note that "Islam" is getting bad press as "Islamic fundamentalists...", etc. Indeed I see a nasty confrontation seething and turning toward Civil War—soon. The interesting thing is that Islam and Moslem are coins of the same realm and it is so unfortunate that the misfits of Earth-Shan can bring this kind of confusion and hatred into the hearts and souls of men.

Never mind, however, for this is not the focus of my little speech—I want YOU to know WE KNOW.

[QUOTING, from a paper we will leave UNNAMED, please:]

SOUTH AFRICA: The South African government has issued an "emergency warning" about what some government officials are describing as the "growing influence of Islam" in that country. According to Reuters news agency, the Islamic "revolution" in South Africa is being led by Islamic fundamentalists who have received training in Afghanistan, Iran and Libya.

In August Islamic nationalists hunted down and executed the leader of one of the largest drug rings in South Africa. As the drug kingpin was being beaten and readied for execution, crowds of people were cheering the vigilantes on. The Moslem fundamentalists have become heroes in their neighborhoods and this is just the beginning of their effort to eliminate leaders of the drug cartel.

In response the South African government arrested the vigilante leader, while a Moslem member of the government heaped praise on him, causing a conflict in government circles. Another government minister, Bantu Holomisa, was sacked by Nelson Mandela because he accused the ANC (African National Congress) of taking $400,000 in bribes from Jewish hotel owner Sol Kerzner prior to the 1994 elections.

Kerzner is the Jew who founded and opened a gambling area in the Transkei called Sun City (Sin City). While the apartheid government was in power, Kerzner made it possible for those who wished to engage in interracial sexcapades to be able to do so by driving across the border from South Africa into Transkei's Sun City. [H: I'm sure there would not be sexcapades without Kerzner—aren't you? After all, he probably hog-tied those sexcapaders and dragged them into the brothels. Do you see: anything to keep you distracted and off-balance and cause the culprits of the acts of immorality to not be responsible for their own choices!]

At the time he gave the $400,000 contribution to the ANC, Kerzner was under investigation by the government of the Transkei which claimed that he had bribed some members of the Transkei tribal government when he obtained his casino license. Watch for the conflict between the Islamic fundamentalists in South Africa and the pro-Jewish faction of the Mandela government to grow in the near future. The growing number of Islamic fundamentalists in the South African government and the rapidly growing Islamic movement in that country will eventually cause a major conflict between those who are Islamic and oppose the Jews and those like Mandela who have cooperated with the Jews in the past. Mandela and others who are pro-Jewish will soon have to choose between the Jews and the growing number of Moslems in the country. Also, don't rule out a possible alliance between Afrikaner nationalists and Islamic fundamentalists in the future.

[END OF QUOTING]

No, I don't have much further comment on the above other than this is simply the way things ARE here and there around the globe. However, it is a typical way to get the business away from the owners as is equally practiced all over the world causing people to flee to cover-safety in other locales. Sun City is simply another sin city on the pattern of Las Vegas, Atlantic City, etc. It also proves the Elite plan to have Africa as their own relax-and-recreate playground. It is likewise amazing how many of these businessmen have valid connections which are rarely seen by the "people" and, in addition, why so little publication information is available on the real nitty-gritty of the circles of power or funding.

I do have to remind you readers, ALL: Money is not good or bad—only MAN is good or bad and money is valid for use of "money", "currency", whatever, as exchange (barter) for opportunities for use. Who is at fault in the above scenario, for instance, of "Sin City"—the man who built it for whatever reason (usually more money possibilities) OR THE PEOPLE WHO CHOOSE TO UTILIZE THE OPPORTUNITIES PROVIDED BY THE CITY? Are the "funds" in point or the morality of USE OF THIS FACILITY? Mankind seems to blame the provider of opportunity, just as he blames the messengers for the truth, when all that is supplied is the CHOICE. MORALITY CANNOT BE LEGISLATED! MORALITY IS WITHIN THE HEART OF INDIVIDUAL BEING.

strategy or our defenses. Our only intent is to build, develop industrial products for use by citizens, and make sure there is a fundamental holding of TRUTH and ability to reason in Truth and function in physical aspect.

This world game is exactly like a multi-ring circus in that so many things are taking place on the field of play as to be so elusive as to astound and confound. You have to see the activities, recognize the possibilities—but eventually, if you are going to participate in the circus itself—you have to know who runs the thing, plays in the game, is the “Star”, and the general “pecking order” in the barnyard. Obviously if you are avoiding confrontation with the goose because of a goose’s reputation for biting and you bumble into the real nasty culprit in that barnyard, the setting but gentle-appearing old hen, you have made a nasty mistake and will get a severe flogging.

You nice readers do not even REALIZE that the players you see are not the CONTROLLERS you GET. We are going to lay out some players for you and for all practical purposes they will come through as recognized world leaders—AND YOU WILL NOT KNOW WHETHER THEY ARE CONTROLLED REPLICAS OR THE REAL “McCoy”—or—Rockefeller as the case will be. It doesn’t matter at our level of intrigue for the one they present as the “player” may well be a puppet, but you can get the drift of the screenplay just by watching the play unfold.

I am not going to go back to our own dissertations on these topics because most of you didn’t get it the first time and you need the confirmation—not revelation—of FACTS. Those facts, in fact, need to be as in confirmed evidence and documentation so that you can KNOW and not simply “assume” because I ask Dharma to type it for me.

From Spotlight, as FIRST PRESENTED IN NOVEMBER 1992. This was when the major puppets and puppet-masters were becoming current-day players and continue to impact you TODAY.

We will begin with that Trilateral Commission from Hell and see if you can begin to fit some more major puzzle pieces together on this Sunday before elections in the U.S.

I am asked why I have not made these thrusts BEFORE election so you would have all this? Well, WE HAVE DONE SO OVER AND OVER AND OVER AGAIN—ALREADY. Tuesday next doesn’t make a whit of real difference—as all the players have fundamentally FIXED the game. If you won’t change and take control of your nation and yourself, all the hoopla from here is not going to change an iota of it BEFORE THE FACT. KNOWLEDGE, however, may well allow you some actions AFTER THE FACT WHERE YOU CAN WORK FROM CONSTITUTIONAL LAW.

David Rockefeller (left) and his brother Laurance Rockefeller (right) jointly run the international Rockefeller family empire. According to inside sources, David, the better known of the two, sits on corporate boards and makes public pronouncements. Laurance, on the other hand, is the behind-the-scenes strategist, directing the family’s operations.

THE TRILATERAL COMMISSION

WHO WANT TO RULE
THE WORLD!*

*NOT A CONSPIRACY THEORY,
BUT A FACT...*

Every year since 1973, a handful of the wealthiest and most influential financiers, industrialists, media barons, union bosses and political figures from North America, Western Europe and Japan hold a secret conclave and chart the future of the globe.

The deliberations of this elite group of power brokers, led by David and Laurance Rockefeller, shape the course of world affairs. Yet, few people know that this organization—The Trilateral Commission—exists.

This is no “conspiracy theory”. THIS IS A FACT. HERE’S THE FULL STORY OF THE TRILATERAL COMMISSION AND HOW ITS DECISIONS AFFECT YOU.

[H: We will go back and remind you ones of the more distant and earlier established clubs who orchestrate, but here is the layout of the manipulators at levels of international “Circles of Intrigue”.]

TRILATERAL COMMISSION: WORLD SHADOW GOVERNMENT?

The Trilateral Commission was established in 1973. Its founder and primary financial angel was international financier, David Rockefeller, longtime chairman of the Rockefeller family-controlled Chase Manhattan Bank and undisputed overlord of his family’s global corporate empire. [H: Note the distinction missing as this says “Rockefeller” and does not use inclusive terms such as “Rothschilds”. This is a major, major CLUE in discerning POWER positions. This does NOT mean these empires do not overlap, nor does it mean that they don’t have joint “causes”, but you have to know where the chinks in the armor are borne by the armor in place ON THE PLAYER INDIVIDUAL.]

Rockefeller’s idea for establishing the commission emerged after he had read a book entitled Between Two Ages written by an Establishment scholar, Prof. Zbigniew Brzezinski [H: Not his given name.] of Columbia University.

In his book Brzezinski proposed a vast alliance between North America, Western Europe, and Japan. According to Brzezinski, changes in the modern world required it. [H: I will give you a short insert regarding Brzezinski because this is one of the most "important" men in conceptual world "order" control. If you have not studied this man's insipid book, please do so and weep, for it is more of a structure of happenings than could even compare to the insight of Orwell.]

"Resist as it might," Brzezinski wrote elsewhere, "the American system is compelled gradually to accommodate itself to this emerging international context, with the U.S. government called upon to negotiate, to guarantee, and, to some extent, to protect the various arrangements that have been contrived even by private business."

In other words, it was necessary for the international upper class to band together to protect its interests, and to ensure, in the developed nations, that political leaders were brought to power who would ensure that the global financial interests (of the Rockefellers and the other ruling elites) would be protected over those of the hoi polloi.

POCANTICO HILLS CONFABS

Although the initial arrangements for the commission were laid out in a series of meetings held at the Rockefellers' famous Pocantico Hills estate outside New York City, Rockefeller first introduced the idea of the commission at an annual meeting of the Bilderberg group, this one held in Knokke, Belgium in the spring of 1972.

(The Bilderberg group is similar to the Trilateral Commission in that it is funded and heavily influenced by the Rockefeller empire, and composed of international financiers, industrialists, media magnates, union bosses, academics and political figures.

(The Trilateral Commission was unique, though, in that it brought the Japanese ruling elite into the inner councils of the global power brokers, a recognition of Japan's growing influence in the world economic and political arena...)

RULING CLASSES UNITE

[H: Please pay attention here as you watch the coalitions being formed among these Elite groups.]

"The Commission's purpose is to engineer an enduring partnership among the ruling classes of North America, Western Europe and Japan—hence the term 'Trilateral'—in order to safeguard the interests of Western capitalism in an explosive world. The private commission is attempting to mold public policy and construct a framework for international stability in the coming decades. [H: For THEM, that is!]

"To put it simply, Trilateralists are saying: 'The people, governments and economies of all nations must serve the needs of multinational banks and corporations.'

"In short, Trilateralism is the current attempt by ruling elites to manage both dependence and democracy—at home and abroad."

Another Trilateral critic, now retired Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.), views the commission as a Rockefeller family operation through and through. According to Goldwater:

The Trilateral organization created by David Rockefeller was a surrogate—the members selected by Rockefeller, its purposes defined by Rockefeller, its funding supplied by Rockefeller. David Rockefeller screened and selected every individual who was invited to participate." [H: Yes indeed, even Henry Kissinger!]

PICKING POLICYMAKERS

David Rockefeller and Brzezinski then began the process of selecting from among the "Trilateral" nations the several hundred elite power brokers who would be permitted to join in Trilateral policymaking in the coming years.

One of the commission's primary goals was to place a Trilateral-influenced president in the White House in 1976, and to achieve that goal it was necessary to groom an appropriate candidate who would be willing to cooperate with Trilateral aims.

Rockefeller and Brzezinski selected a handful of well-known liberal Democrats and a scattering of Republicans (primary of the liberal-internationalist bent) to serve on the commission.

And in an effort to give regional balance to the commission Rockefeller invited the then-obscure one-term Democratic governor of Georgia, Jimmy Carter, to join the commission.

[H: I think it better to insert the information regarding Brzezinski at this point so you can see the vision as it would take place.]

STRANGE VIEWS OF GROUP'S FOUNDER ZBIGNIEW BRZEZINSKI

[H: Don't EVER forget the thrust this man had in favoring SOVIETISM. In this I refer to the Khazarian Communism of the SOVIET Union as was formed through the "Jewish" element which could later become recognized as a form of Israeli Khazarianism—ANTI-GOD, ANTI-CHRIST.]

The strange views of the Trilateral Commission's founding director, Columbia University Prof. Zbigniew Brzezinski, say much about the unusual political orientation of the commission and its leadership.

Brzezinski outlined his views in his book Between Two Ages, published shortly before, in 1973, he set the Trilateral Commission in motion at the instruction of his patron David Rockefeller.

[H: Before we finish our series on these topics you will see WHY it was necessary to "take-out" and REPLACE all the major players in this game in order to render coalition within that ANTI-GOD NEW WORLD ORDER! We have written on the focus of Brzezinski and events surrounding the "taking-out" of the Rockefeller "brothers" and the surprise demise of one Henry Kissinger and Nancy, immediately following his giving of Nelson Rockefeller's eulogy. That is not the focus here so we will not take it up in repetition again at this time, please.]

WALTER MONDALE
... Trilateral Vice President.

Rockefeller had read Brzezinski's book and was impressed with its contents. It was this book that inspired Rockefeller to create the Trilateral Commission.

Here are a number of selections from the book that proved to be the genesis of the commission:

- "Though Stalinism may have been a needless tragedy for both the Russian people and Communism as an ideal, there is the intellectually tantalizing possibility that for the world at large it was, as we shall see, a blessing in disguise."
  - "Marxism represents a further vital and creative stage in the maturing of man's universal vision. Marxism is simultaneously a victory of the external, active man over the inner, passive man and a victory of reason over belief."
  - "The Soviet Union could have emerged as the standard-bearer of this century's most influential system of thought and as the social model for resolving the key dilemmas facing modern man."
  - Marxism "supplied the best available insight into contemporary reality. Marxist theory [is] this century's most influential system of thought."
  - "The approaching 200th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence could justify the call for a national Constitutional Convention TO RE-EXAMINE THE NATION'S FORMAL INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK."
- Brzezinski, of course, went on to serve as perhaps the most powerful man in the Carter administration (1977-1981), serving as the president's national security adviser, responsible for maintaining America's national security (despite his written views favoring world Communism).

ROCKEFELLER CENTER—SOUTH

Rockefeller had longtime ties to the local Atlanta political and economic Establishment. In fact, much of Rockefeller's personal investment portfolio is in Atlanta real estate. (According to David Horowitz, co-author of The Rockefellers, "Atlanta is Rockefeller Center South.")

And Rockefeller himself had once even invited Carter to dine with him at the Chase Manhattan Bank several years before, as early as 1971, the year Carter began serving as governor.

Carter very definitely impressed Rockefeller and Brzezinski, more so than another Southern Democrat, Florida Gov. Reuben Askew, also selected to serve on the commission and viewed, like Carter, as a possible Trilateral candidate.

In fact, according to Brzezinski, "It was a close thing between Carter and Askew, but we were impressed that Carter had opened up trade offices for the state of Georgia in Brussels and Tokyo. That seemed to fit perfectly into the concept of the Trilateral."

Carter, in fact, like Askew, did announce for the 1976 Democratic presidential nomination, but because of Rockefeller's interest, Carter had the inside shot.

So much so that in a speech at the commission's first annual meeting in Kyoto, Japan in May of 1975, Rockefeller's man Brzezinski promoted the then-still obscure

... Favored Sovietism.

Carter to his fellow Trilateralists as an ideal presidential candidate.

CUT AND DRIED

From that point on, it was all cut and dried. According to Goldwater: "Rockefeller and Brzezinski found Carter to be their ideal candidate. They helped him win the Democratic nomination and the presidency.

"To accomplish this purpose they mobilized the money-power of the Wall Street bankers, the intellectual influence of the academic community—which is subservient to the wealth of the great tax-free foundations—and the media controllers represented in the membership of the CFR and the Trilateralists."

(The aforementioned CFR—Council on Foreign Relations—is another Rockefeller-financed foreign policy pressure group similar to the Trilateralists and the Bilderberg group, although the CFR is composed solely of American citizens.)

(In his book The Carter Presidency and Beyond, published in 1980 by the Ramparts Press, Prof. Laurence H. Shoup devotes an entire chapter to demonstrating how the Trilateral-linked and Trilateral-controlled Establishment media promoted the presidential candidacy in 1976 of the then-obscure Georgia Gov. Jimmy Carter.) [H: Can you also NOW SEE WHY it was necessary and HOW IT COULD CHANGE THE DIRECTION OF THE WORLD to take-out and REPLACE with cloned, down-loaded REPLICAS these major players? The whole game would then be manipulated by ONE SET OF REAL PLAYERS WHILE YOU WOULD BE LEFT THE PERCEPTION OF SEVERAL DIFFERING FACTIONS. NO, EVERYTHING BECAME ONE FOCUS, CONTROLLED AND MANIPULATED BY THAT LARGER AND MORE POWERFUL WORLD POWER—THE BRITISH-ISRAEL COMMITTEE OF 300. SEEM TOO ABSURD? HOW ABSURD IS IT THAT KISSINGER RUNS ABOUT IN THE QUEEN'S (ENGLAND THAT IS) BUGGY WITH TOP-HAT AND TAILS AND BECAME "SIR" HENRY AND ATTENDS THE PRINCESS DIANA, GOES TO THE RACES WITH THE QUEEN, ETC.? WHO YOU SEE IS NOT WHAT WAS!]

Carter, of course, campaigned as a "populist"—as a "man of the people"—as an "outsider" with no ties to the Establishment. The fact is, however, Carter, who said he'd never lie, was an elitist, an insider, the Trilateral Commission's "man on the white horse". [H: Remember that Carter also PROMISED TO TELL YOU-THE-PEOPLE ABOUT UFOs and ALIENS, ETC. So, what happened? Well, they knew you couldn't bring yourselves to the point of believing or accepting technology already developed that could clone adults, down-load memory and brain patterns and become no more than puppets in their "master's" hands. But it is so and as you learn more and more about DNA restructuring, genetic alterations and cloning quite efficiently of cattle and pigs, tomatoes and such, it is NO LONGER "FAR-OUT" IS IT? YOU CAN NOW BE TOTALLY CONTROLLED AND MANIPULATED BY PULSE WAVES IN THE INVISIBLE RANGE AND YOU STILL SHAKE YOUR HEADS AND GIGGLE: "IMPOSSIBLE". WELL, SCIENCE FICTION HAS CAUGHT UP WITH, AND SURPASSED, ANY RECOGNIZED FAIRY TALES OF H. G. WELLS AND OTHER "SCIENCE FICTION" WRITERS. You have literally become "brain-dead" entities, manipulated by those same Masters.]

And with the power of the commission and the Rockefeller empire and its media influence behind him, Carter made his way to the presidency, establishing the first full-fledged Trilateral administration, appointing numerous Trilateralists to key policymaking positions and carrying out the Trilateral agenda to the hilt.

CARTER FILLED POSITIONS WITH TC MEMBERS

The election of Trilateralist Jimmy Carter to the presidency in 1976 marked the first formal Trilateral Commission takeover of the executive branch. Here is a lengthy (but by no means complete) overview of the Trilateralists who served under the first Trilateral administration:

- * Jimmy Carter, president of the United states.
- * Walter F. Mondale, vice president of the United States.
- * Zbigniew Brzezinski, national security adviser.
- * Cyrus Vance, secretary of state.
- * Harold Brown, secretary of defense.
- * W. Michael Blumenthal, secretary of the treasury.
- * John Sawhill, federal energy administrator.
- * Robert Duncan, secretary of energy.
- * Joseph Califano, secretary of health and human services.
- * Stansfield Turner, director of central intelligence.
- * Robert R. Bowie, deputy to the director of central intelligence for national intelligence.
- * Warren Christopher, deputy secretary of state (and later secretary of state).
- * Lucy Wilson Benson, under secretary of state for security assistance.
- * Richard N. Cooper, under secretary of state for economic affairs.
- * Richard Holbrooke, assistant under secretary of state for East Asian and Pacific affairs.
- * Gerard C. Smith, U.S. ambassador at large for non-proliferation matters.
- * Anthony M. Soloman, under secretary of the treasury for monetary affairs.
- * Paul C. Warnke, director, U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency.
- * Andrew Young, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.
- * Paul Volcker, chairman of the Federal Reserve System.
- * Sol Linowitz, special negotiator for Panama Canal Treaties.

TC AGENDA CARRIED OUT

Within months of assuming office as the first member of the Trilateral Commission to be elected to the White House, President Jimmy Carter began implementing major policy measures that went hand in hand with the agenda of the commission. According to investigative reporter Craig S. Karpel, among those measures included:

- * Supporting restraints on freedom of the press.
- * Raising the price of new natural gas.
- * Refusing to place import controls on shoes.
- * Inserting a growth clause in the import regulations for textiles permitting clothing imports to rise by 6 percent annually.
- * Allowing the dollar to be devaluated against foreign currencies as a step toward its replacement in international trade with "Bancor", a worldwide paper money to be created in unlimited amounts by the International Monetary Fund.
- * Pushing through the House and Senate the largest contribution in history to the World Bank and other international lending institutions (to be disbursed as foreign aid loans without country-by-country review by Congress) to enable the less-developed countries to pay the interest on the $70 billion owed to private banks in the United States. [H: How about this one?]

* Surrender of the American canal in Panama to Panamanian dictator Omar Torrijos and his right-hand man and successor, Manuel Noriega. Trilateral-linked banks (including the London branch of the Rockefeller family's Chase Manhattan Bank) had lent large sums of money to the Panamanian government and were anxious to obtain interest on their loans. The banks believed interest payment would be possible only if Panama had access to profits from the canal.

These and other measures were part and parcel of the Trilateral strategy as implemented by Jimmy Carter and his Trilateral-dominated administration.

[H: I need to interrupt here and recall to your minds the FACTS as were reported about Jimmy Carter after he had been changed out. Doesn't anyone remember the jokes about the "killer rabbits" (even done into a segment of Monty Python's farces) and other incredibly amusing things such as the day outside Camp David where it was intended to take-out the replica of Carter which was doing these stupid things like rabbits, etc. There was a foot-race to be held and for publicity Carter would come out and run with the marathon group gathered. He was to run a while and keel over dead. Well he ran, and ran, and ran and finally he was hit by a laser to stop him but he just fell over and continued "running" from flat on his back. The processors didn't know what to do so they surrounded the body, carted him back into Camp David, and later produced a nice new Jimmy Carter all refreshed from his jog. Oh people, you are so innocent in your beings.

F a r fetched? Of course and that is exactly what is intended. Worse, so many of the major "players" have not the slightest idea WHAT IS REALLY TAKING PLACE! DO YOU THINK THAT EVEN SPOTLIGHT, WHO SEES ALL THE PROBLEMS CAN SEE THE TRUTH AND THE FACTS OF WHAT REALLY IS? THESE FACTS ARE SO "FAR-OUT" THAT EVEN THE INSIGHTFUL PLAYERS CAN'T SEE IT. IN OTHER WORDS, HOW COULD HENRY KISSINGER BE IN THREE PLACES AT ONCE? HOW COULD CARTER BE FISHING IN ONE PLACE AND RUNNING OUTSIDE CAMP DAVID AT THE SAME TIME? EASY!! You don't think ANYTHING about an "identical twin" showing up in one place while its "duplicate twin" shows up in another and creates confusion. Well, when you DNA-replicate something or somebody—you have EVEN MORE IDENTICAL AND GENETIC STRUCTURING. IT TAKES A BIT LONGER TO RECREATE SCARS AND WRINKLES, MOLES, ETC. [END QUOTING OF PART I]

CYRUS VANCE

I guess, Dharma, we will consider this as PART 1 of this topic because we want to compare three major "front groups" and it is all within this overall focus, however, this particular writing is becoming too lengthy. Thank you.

I will again refer readers to WHO'S WHO OF THE ELITE, by Robert Gaylon Ross, Sr. (Ross International Enterprises, 1700-A Ranch Rd. 12, Suite 325, San Marcos, Texas 78666-2502. [QUOTING, PART II:]

THREE FRONT GROUPS COMPARED

Three distinct Rockefeller-created and Rockefeller-financed international policy power blocs are often confused by their critics.

A reason for this confusion is that, aside from the fact that each is controlled—fully or in part—by the Rockefeller empire, the groups are very similar in intent and have a largely overlapping membership, usually working in direct concert toward the same goals.

The membership in each of the groups is always composed of members of the Rockefeller family, their paid employees and consultants, allied international financiers and industrialists, academics from the major universities and tax-free foundations, high-ranking union leaders, key media personalities and controllers, and selected political figures.

But each of the three—the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bilderberg group and the Trilateral Commission—is very different, as you will see from the following chart:

THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

The Council on Foreign Relations: Based in New also as a close, close personal friend of David Rockefeller. It should be noted that there is a visible absence of Ross Perot's name shown in Gaylon Ross's book. I don't have a comment about the matter as obviously Ross Perot's business has taken him into and within the highest listed "clubs" in the world, or at the least put him WITH players of that ilk. Perhaps he simply has more goodness within him than any have chosen to see thus far. (???)

Publishes the quarterly journal Foreign Affairs and conducts regular meetings and seminars. Key meetings are strictly confidential and off the record.

Created in 1921 with Rockefeller funding and emerged as the American branch of the British Royal Institute on International Affairs (RIIA), succeeding an earlier, less organized entity already established in that role.

The RIIA was the brainchild of English financier Cecil Rhodes (founder of the Rhodes scholarship) and devoted to the concept of reuniting the United States with the British Empire.

CFR members, beginning with the Republican Herbert Hoover administration on through the present day in administrations Democrat and Republican alike, have continuously been appointed to key policymaking posts.

David Rockefeller himself served as a longtime chairman of the CFR and remains its virtual master.

[H: Now for you who are not paying attention: CECIL RHODES DID HIS MOST HEINOUS DIRTY WORK AND WORLD ORDER PLANNING—IN SOUTH AFRICA!]

THE BILDERBERG GROUP

The Bilderberg Group takes its name from the hotel in Holland where it first met in 1954. Meets regularly (presumably on a once-a-year basis) at various locations around the world, always in extreme secrecy, often at resorts controlled by the Rockefeller family.

Has a revolving membership of several hundred participants composed of elites from the United States and Western Europe, primarily—almost exclusively—from the NATO countries.

The Rothschild family is the leading European force within the Bilderberg group, sharing its power with the American-based Rockefeller empire.

Maintains an extremely low profile and seldom, if ever, publishes reports or studies under its own OFFICIALegis.

Bilderberg participants denied the group's very existence for decades until forced into the open by the glare of media publicity, generated largely by the Spotlight and its newsletter-format predecessors, "Liberty Letter" and "Liberty Lowdown" (the latter publication is now defunct).

York and comprised solely of U.S. Citizens. [H: But these are the most notable and dangerous citizens such as Congressmen, Elitists, propagandists, etc. At one time Ross Perot was listed as a member and

TRILATERAL COMMISSION

Trilateral Commission was organized exclusively by David Rockefeller in 1973. Holds an official regular annual conclave closed to the independent press, but conducts seminars and other gatherings that are less exclusive.

Membership is limited to elitists from the United States and Canada, Western Europe and Japan, several hundred in number. (Sources report that the commission may begin extending membership to elitists from Mexico in the near future.) [H: Since they are now showing up at meetings it has to be assumed that this has taken place or will.]

Issues periodic reports known as the "Triangle Papers" and press releases and published a journal called Dialogue (now defunct).

David Rockefeller has continuously served, since its inception, as "North American chairman" but is acknowledged as its primary mover.

[H: I just want you to take note that the to-be "Czar" of the New World Order, whether original or duplicate: IS DAVID ROCKEFELLER. If we have time and space I will try to cover the "inner circle" currently in place and what might be their function and purpose as to world intent.

As we continue please keep in mind that this was written in 1992 and therefore what seems only "yesterday" is now several years past.]

VETS WANT INQUIRY

The members of America's major non-partisan veterans organizations, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, have formally called upon Congress to investigate the Trilateral Commission.

This is most appropriate considering the fact that it is America's veterans who have fought the wars and "police actions" staged by the Trilateralists and their allies in similar "one world" planning groups.

Here's the partial text of a resolution approved at the 63rd national convention of the American Legion held in Honolulu, September 1-3, 1981:

WHEREAS, the American Legion in National Convention assembled in Boston, Massachusetts,

August 19-20, 1980, did adopt Resolution 773 wherein it was demanded that the Congress of the United States launch a comprehensive investigation into the Trilateral Commission (TC) and its parent organization, the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) to determine what influence has been and is being exerted over the foreign and domestic policies of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Honorable Larry McDonald, of Georgia, introduced Resolution 773 on February 4, 1981 in the House of Representatives, applauded the initiative of the American Legion, commended the text of the resolution to his colleagues and gave his strong support to this effort [H: Still have questions as to WHY McDonald was taken OUT in the so-called crash of KAL-007?]; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, by the American Legion in National Convention assembled in Honolulu, Hawaii, September 1-3, 1981, that we demand, once more, that the Congress of the United States launch a comprehensive investigation into the TC and the CFR to determine what influence has been and is being exerted over the foreign and domestic policies of the United States; and, be it further...

(Here is the slightly edited text of a similar resolution (No. 460) approved by the Veterans of Foreign Wars in its 82nd national convention in 1981:)

WHEREAS, the New York City based Council on Foreign Relations, a private organization founded in 1921 and the Trilateral Commission (the U.S., Europe and Japan), formed in 1973, have as members, and often as overlapping members, literally scores of top U.S. officials of the executive and legislative branches of government; and

WHEREAS, the core beliefs of the CFR/TC—detente, "interdependence", muting of strongly held American nationalism, security through arms control, stable money markets, etc.—are often at variance with the uncommon sense of the American people... now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, by the 82nd National Convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, that a Joint Congressional Select Committee, drawn from the judiciary and Foreign Affairs committees of both Houses of the Congress... be called into being to assess the influence of the CFR and TC "network" upon the foreign and domestic policies of the United States and to report their findings to the American people.

Congress has yet to launch any such investigation as urged by the members of America's two largest veterans organizations.

[H: Next we offer from that same edition of Spotlight [November, 1992], an article by Michael Collins Piper—one of the finest investigative reporters and writers to ever grace your globe.]

SPOTLIGHTERS NOT SURPRISED AT EASTERN EUROPEAN EVENTS

World watchers who regularly read the Spotlight have not been surprised by Soviet dictator Mikhail Gorbachev's peace overtures, perestroika and glasnost, or by the revolutions in Eastern Europe. [H: I must again stop to remind you that Gorbachev NOW has a "Foundation" which is located tax-free in one of your oldest and most honored places, The Presidio in San Francisco, California. This is fully funded by "you-know-who". Also remember that when Gorbachev was no longer President of Russia—he BECAME PRESIDENT OF KISSINGER ASSOCIATES—IN MOSCOW!]

All of this actually stems from deals between the communist bosses and their business partners: Laurance and David Rockefeller and their allies in the highest echelons of the Trilateral Commission.

All of this was literally predicted in a front-page Spotlight exclusive published on April 24, 1989, describing how The Spotlight's crack investigative reporter James P. Tucker Jr. infiltrated the annual meeting of the Trilateral Commission in Paris on April 8-10, 1989.

[H: I am interrupted by an inquiry as to why, if we know so much, doesn't the Spotlight honor us as much as we honor them? They do, they read and study CONTACT and then have chosen a safer approach to handling a newspaper—without the clutter of having to answer about UFOs, aliens as Hosts, and other such distracting material. It is fine, we are also working to the end intent of allowing YOU readers to stop being distracted by those things—AND LOOK AT FACTS AS PRESENTED IN YOUR HUMAN ARENA. Once again Editorial Opinion is brought into play and it is fine with us. These people have had everything thrown at them from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (British Intelligence) that can be tossed. TRUTH is the point, readers, not blithering about spaced-out possibilities.]

In its exclusive, which was headlined: "Trilateral Goal: Make Soviets 'Full Partners in the Global Economy'," The Spotlight revealed the commission's agenda, one which The Spotlight aptly suggested would require "some artful juggling":

- * There must be enough movement toward peace so that Americans will tolerate massive transfusions of their tax dollars into communist countries to help the internationalists economically mine the lands behind the iron Curtain; and
- * There must remain enough fear of war so that the military-industrial complex, especially the strategic defense initiative [Star Wars], continues to be immensely profitable.

LARRY McDONALD

... Endorsed veterans' demand for inquiry into Trilateral Commission.

JIM TUCKER

... Journalist infiltrated Trilateralists.

Look for dramatic advances in the 'peace process' in Europe in months ahead—it has already started in Poland, with the world shadow government taking credit.

The Trilateral goal is to make the Soviet Union and the communist East-bloc countries "full partners in the global economy", with membership in the World Bank and the international Monetary Fund (IMF), both major conduits of American tax dollars into Third World countries.

As a reward for the East-bloc countries loosening their ties with Moscow, Americans are to support those countries so the communists can better afford to buy the materials when the internationalists build the factories to produce them.

As The Spotlight noted additionally:

David Rockefeller, through direct comments and those of other members (of the commission), claimed credit for Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev's "peace initiative" and for the Polish government's historic accord with Solidarity.

Rockefeller led a Trilateral delegation to Moscow in January (of 1989) and had a lengthy meeting with Gorbachev. There he urged that the Soviet government become "full partners in the global economy" and offered membership in the World Bank and IMF.

In February Rockefeller led a delegation from the Council on Foreign Relations to Warsaw, where similar promises were made to Poland.

In Warsaw, Rockefeller urged the communist country to make a deal with Solidarity prior to the April 8 Trilateral Commission meeting in Paris, so strategies for achieving "global interdependence" could be achieved.

All of this, however, does not bode well for American workers. As The Spotlight then noted:

Exploiting the economics lying behind the Iron Curtain will be of immense benefit to the international financiers and political leaders but to the detriment of America.

As long ago as April 17, 1980, writing in the Christian Science Monitor, Trilateral watcher Jeremiah Novak described how the Trilateral Commission was working for an ultimate merger of the Trilateral nations with the USSR and the Soviet satellite nations:

"The commission hopes that within the context of a constantly evolving relationship with the Soviet Union, it will be possible, at some future date, to invite the Soviets to join."

Trilateral Commission founder David Rockefeller is shown during a 1988 visit to Poland where he met with then-Polish dictator, Wojciech Jarezelski. In a subsequent visit with Jarezelski in February of 1989, Rockefeller set in motion the events that led to a political revolution in that Soviet satellite nation.

Zbigniew Brzezinski, the commission's chief ideologist, himself wrote:

An effort must be made to forge a community of developed nations that would embrace the Atlantic states, the more advanced European communist states and Japan.

"Movement toward such a community will, in all probability, require two broad and overlapping phases. The first of these would involve the forging of community links among the United States, Western Europe and Japan. The second phase would include the extension of these links to the communist countries.

As summarized by Novak: "The essence of the Trilateral program, therefore, is to create not only a balance of power between the Soviet Union and the Trilateral democracies, but a concert of power in which the USSR and the important Third World countries could share."

Brzezinski, speaking at the Trilateral Commission meeting in Tokyo in 1988, also discussed the move to bring the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe into the global power bloc:

While it is the stabilization of the relationship with the Soviet Union over the next decade that is a reasonable objective (but not much more than that), the re-engagement of Eastern Europe—in the context of a Soviet Union preoccupied with its domestic affairs—into a larger Europe becomes increasingly timely.

As someone said this morning, Eastern Europe is becoming Central Europe. I have long subscribed to the view that the existence of just a Western Europe and an Eastern Europe is an artificial post-World War II reality; that the genuine reality of Europe is a Europe which has a Western, a Central and an Eastern component—and that Central component would be gravitating toward the West in the years ahead.

Thus the Trilateral Commission has set in place its own agenda and bears responsibility for the new world arena that is being arranged today.

[H: Now read this next and again get your tissue out—and weep.]

TRILATERALISTS SAY: 'TOO MUCH DEMOCRACY'

The Trilateral Commission frankly state: that there's too much democracy and that the American people should be restrained from having too much say in how their nation is governed. [H: Well, you will certainly see that in action on TUESDAY NEXT!]

This authoritarian philosophy is outlined in a major Trilateral Commission position paper (which embarrasses even many Trilateralists) entitled THE CRISIS OF DEMOCRACY.

INVESTIGATION SCARES SOLONS

Numerous people have written their congressman and senators asking for further information about the Trilateral Commission or otherwise demanding a congressional investigation of the elitist body.

Here's the response they've gotten: The lawmakers have dispatched the Congressional Reference Division of the Library of Congress's Congressional Research Service (CRS) to look into the matter.

The CRS has prepared a compilation of Establishment newspaper articles about the commission and forwarded those materials to the members of Congress.

The members of Congress then pass that information on to their constituents.

Congress has no desire to investigate the Trilateral Commission, since more than a few of its past and present members (along with powerful campaign contributors and influential media masters) belong to the secretive body.

[H: I ask to wrap up this writing with closer-to-home observations. When you ask WHICH party should have your vote, there is no answer worthy of speculation. We have offered, as much as we were allowed, a start of a masterpiece on Dole and Buddies. But, when you check into Billy Boy's groupies you find only little thugs, cheats and criminals at the grass-roots level, but the big boys are right there AT THE TOP—STARTING, FOR ONE, WITH SECRETARY OF STATE WARREN CHRISTOPHER. PEOPLE, YOU HAVE ONE PLACE LEFT TO TURN, JUST ONE: BACK TO GOD IN TRUTH!]

Shown above is a report by the Congressional Research Service which whitewashes the activities of the Trilateral Commission. Prepared by the Library of Congress for use by members of Congress, this report has been sent by lawmakers to constituents who have made inquiries about the commission.

In this work, published under the commission's copyright, the authors, Michael Crozier, Samuel Huntington and Joji Watanuki, conclude that popular participation by the people of the Trilateral nations in government policymaking is a bad proposition.

According to the study, the ruling elites in the United States and Western Europe are already facing grass-roots dissent from the ranks of their people—a situation that Japan also faces—and that it will be necessary "to restore a more equitable relationship between government authority and popular control".

In other words, the power of the Trilateral elites and the governments they control must be strengthened—and the power of the people must be diminished. [H: And in doing this "diminishing" there must be total control over all information flow from, to and through all forms of media, press and wireless communications.]

According to the Trilateralists: "Al Smith once remarked that 'the only cure for the evils of democracy is more democracy.' Our analysis suggests that applying that cure at present could well be adding fuel to the flames. Needed instead is a greater degree of moderation in democracy."

How to diminish the power of the people? According to the Trilateralists: Increase restrictions on freedom of the press and limit popular participation in the political process through changes in the way public officials are elected (e.g., make it more difficult for the establishment of "third" parties), among other solutions.

[H: So what about investigations into this Trilateral Commission through Congress? Try this:]

TIONS.

[H: Continuing to give credit where due: THE SPOTLIGHT'S OWN TUCKER INFILTRATED THE BILDERBERGER MEETING WHERE IT WAS DECIDED TO MAKE CLINTON THE NEXT PRESIDENT PRIOR TO THE ELECTION IN 1992!

The November 1992 election marked the third time that a member of the Rockefeller-controlled Trilateral Commission (TC) was installed in the White House.

Arkansas Governor Bill Clinton, not only a Trilateralist, but also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) and a participant at the 1991 Bilderberg conference in Baden-Baden Germany, defeated incumbent Trilateralist-CFR man George Bush [H: And everyone who watched the elections draw to a close—SAW GEORGE BUSH HAND OVER THE THRONE ON A SILVER PLATTER—INTENTIONALLY!] and brought a host of Establishment power brokers into his new administration.

There are several Trilateralists among the highest-ranking figures in the Clinton administration: Secretary of State Warren Christopher; Housing and Urban Development Secretary Henry Cisneros; Interior Secretary Bruce Babbitt; Health & Human Services Secretary Donna Shalala, and National Security Advisor, W. Anthony Lake, all of whom are also CFR members.

The administration is also rife with other CFR members including: CIA Director James Woolsey; Treasury Secretary Lloyd Bentsen (also a Bilderberger); and Laura Tyson, Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors.

A wide-ranging array of other sub-cabinet level posts are also filled with CFR members, not to mention, most especially, the State Department, further pointing toward the claim, made by its critics, that the Clinton administration is a Rockefeller family fiefdom.

Interestingly, in an earlier edition of this special report on this Trilateral Commission issued several years before Clinton was elected president, The Spotlight pointed out that by virtue of his connection with the commission, Clinton was an early favorite for the 1992 presidential nomination of the Democratic Party, despite the fact that—at the time—Clinton was not well-known nationally. Obviously, this prediction came to pass.

Trilateralist Clinton, interestingly, is also a former Rhodes Scholar. As noted elsewhere in this special report, the Rhodes scholarships were established by British financier Cecil Rhodes who hoped for an ultimate reunification of the United States and Britain.

[H: And so—he has been successful.]

The young academic awarded Rhodes scholarships are indoctrinated with this philosophy and charged with the responsibility of promulgating its ultimate aim. Indeed, as also noted previously in this report, one leading Trilateralist has said that an "ideal" would, in fact, be the establishment of a single politico-economic entity composed of a merge of the United States and Britain. Needless to say, not only has Clinton installed Trilateralists in key policy-making positions, but he has also given high posts to fellow Rhodes Scholars.

[END QUOTING OF PART 2 AND DOCUMENT]

My, my, we have reached the end of the day and, beloved readers, there is no way to catch up centuries of work toward this New World Order so that you can be informed enough for WISE actions in a couple of days hence. I can only urge you to continue to BECOME INFORMED for it is only through TRUTH and TRUTHFUL KNOWLEDGE that you can reclaim any semblance of FREEDOM and LIBERTY. You have come to a place in your journey on the planet wherein THERE IS JUSTICE FOR NONE! May you allow God to open your minds so that you might actually SEE and HEAR and come to understand.

Salu.

NWO Takeover Continues

D - DAY 1996

As election day creeps-up on us, we are hearing rumors about some of our high-ranking US Military now being unlawfully arrested (by WHO?) for not going along with the NWO takeover of America. Is this it? I do not know if it is, BUT, years ago the year 1997 was in my documents. If the UN is going to take over America openly, Clinton will need an "excuse" - what will it be? Economic - financial collapse? / Domestic Terrorist threat? / Foreign Terrorist threat? [ a combination of these or ] How about: A plague has been unleashed upon us by Saddam Hussein, and everyone MUST be inoculated - and receive their National ID Card.

Are all the recent revelations about the Gulf War Syndrome just TIMELY coincidence? Are these "leaks" or admissions planned - orchestrated and now the timing is right? Slowly, the admissions, YES it was Saddam, not the NWO who caused GWI and shucks, golly gee says the DOD/CIA, we haven't been able to figure all this out for almost 6-years, but now we know, it was Iraq (of course). That being the case, our veterans have returned as carriers of a plague and the entire US population is at risk and must receive a vaccine, and in order to identify who has received it or not, everyone MUST carry their National ID Card, or be segregated from the healthy (card carrying) public in concentration work camps, just like those who ARE going to be identified as having GWI, will be placed in special camps for the protection of YOU the healthy card carrying public. [ Does this mean that all Veterans and active duty American forces (who won't fire on Americans) will be considered a threat to National Security because they were exposed/infected and we then will need the UN troops to replace them? ] We are also hearing stories about (possible) foreigners coming into the US carrying vials of biologicals. That may be real or a real possibility - but ask yourself WHO is our real enemy? Is our enemy (that we should fear) really Saddam Hussein in his tiny country of Iraq? Or is our enemy already here and under communist UN / NWO control? Are these releases (publicized)/orchestrated so that the public will be in FEAR of foreign biological attack and therefore will WELCOME the UN occupation of the US? And everyone will have to give up all rights, search and seizures take place by military / MJTF forces against the American civilian population for OUR protection? Now you will be hearing that it is "possible" that Iraq had the potential to deliver biological weapons in Scuds - a new expose will declare, ONLY, no one can figure out how it is that Iraq had the technology and NOT the US instead, and who sold the technology to Iraq? There is lots more - but all of these lead down one road - FEAR and a scapegoat, to make it a reality that someone else caused the GWS PLAGUE that is upon us. WHAT IS THE REAL ANSWER? One day you may read "Prussian Blue and the New World Order", or maybe you will be unlucky enough to live (and die) some of it!

GWI is a Communicable Disease, spreading worse than AIDS, by casual (non-sexual) contact, through perspiration, or by being close to someone who coughs. Your children can be infected at a playground or at school. Mycoplasma incognitus contains 40% of the HIV (AIDS) envelope, which was tampered with by humans. It is a warfare agent BY DESIGN. Our Government is involved in this great crime and cover-up. A nationwide/worldwide panic is going to be created, of such magnitude, that it will threaten our very existence. This same government will then step in to offer a solution, they will have "an antidote", a treatment, BUT, only those who will accept the Medical ID (national id) will be treated, all others will be considered a danger and threat to society, hunted down, and imprisoned or killed. Americans will welcome this solution, will turn-in their neighbors and friends in order to survive themselves. At the same time, this instrument WILL permanently-publicly SUSPEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THESE united STATES, to allow United Nations Rule, the New World Order / One World Government. AMERICA WILL BE ENSLAVED.

[ PS - Clinton is at Ft. Bliss / El Paso, Texas - today, WHY? ]

Almost ALL - US Combat Arms (units) are presently deployed out of the United States!

We are VULNERABLE and ripe for the pickins.

Last-Minute Election Thoughts

11/4/96 #2 HATONN

I have, by agreement, waited until this afternoon to give consideration to election "druthers". I ask that this be placed onto the phone whereat people can have my opinion—not to specific candidate or Party—but behind-the-scenes "you-can-count-on-its".

Think carefully now before you choose the better or worst of two (or three) evils tomorrow. Certainly you will, either way you vote, be counted among the "ones to watch". I am quite serious—you are listed into the computer Beast and you will be noted if you vote. So much for that...

What I want to share with you, especially you who are working on funding for our projects, for we must SEE what is taking place and what WILL take place—IF DOLE WINS:

Dole is a puppet for the New World Order GEORGE BUSH network of obscene corruption. He will never allow Bush to stand hearing on any accusations AT ALL and if there should be charges—HE WILL PARDON THE CROOKS—it is all set in agreements and pre-understandings.

With Clinton, you have some of the SAME controllers—but obviously it is planned to dump Clinton or take him out.

Perot will simply insure election of Clinton, even though he is now hitting hard on Clinton's immorality and local corruption dealings.

You HAVE NO REAL CHOICES, but you of our team DO have some things to LOSE if Bush is put back into POWER—and yes, I said Bush. Note who all is out there FRANTICALLY petitioning you to vote Republican: the MOST IMMORALLY AND FINANCIALLY CORRUPT INDIVIDUALS IN THE WORLD!

Clinton did not bomb or raid anything in the middle East—he was asleep at the time. He was more surprised to get saddled with that maneuver than any one of you good citizens.

The hope for the NEW WORLD ORDER IS TO GET DOLE IN THE PUPPET SEAT BECAUSE NO PRESIDENT RUNS EVEN THE ADMINISTRATION ANY LONGER. THIS WILL SEAL YOUR FATE AS NEXT BECOMING AGAIN UNDER THE RULE OF ENGLAND-ISRAELI STATE. CLINTON IS A FOOL. DOLE AND BUSH ARE MANIPULATIVE, SHREWD AND EVIL CHARACTERS, OUT TO "GETCHA" ONCE AND FOR ALL. LOOK WHO YOU HAVE PUSHING DOLE, I.E., FORD, CHENEY, POWELL, THE ENTIRE TEAM OF CORRUPT SHADOW GOVERNMENT POWER-BROKERS. THEY ARE THE ONES WHO STOLE THE GOLD CERTIFICATE AND USED IT FOR THEIR OWN POWERFUL ENDS. YOU WILL BE HANDING OVER EVERYTHING

READIED FOR YOUR ABILITY TO REFOCUS YOUR NATION AND THIS GLOBE.

THE OTHER SIDE IN ITSELF IS NO BETTER—AND THEY ARE MANIPULATED BY THE SAME EVIL OVERSEERS—BUT THERE IS NOT AS MUCH FOR YOU—THE-PEOPLE TO LOOSE AS WITH BUSH AND BOYS.

IF THESE MISFITS CALLING THEMSELVES REPUBLICANS GET BACK INTO A MORE POWERFUL POSITION—YOU ARE THROUGH AS A NATION UNDER GOD—FOR AS LONG OUT THERE INTO YOUR FUTURE AS YOU MIGHT CARE TO SEE AND, MUCH THE LESS, EXPERIENCE.

Clinton was put into power by the same ones who needed more TIME—but he is not the powerful player as is Bush and his band of criminals.

Think carefully about how you vote, if you vote, and which direction will each player TAKE YOU! These POWER BEASTS are neither Republican nor Democrat—they are NEW WORLD ORDER DICTATORS FROM THE HIGHEST SEATS OF EVIL THAT EXIST.

The issues they state are about proposed tax cuts which never happen, coverage for health which never happens and so on down the line on both touting poles. Forget it—for you are on your last legs to disaster. The monster is LOOSE! Pay attention and stop your sillies and get on with responsible thought processes and act accordingly.

You must consider who can do the MOST DAMAGE—IN A PLACE OF HIGHER POWER—AND YOU WILL SEE THAT IT IS DOLE/BUSH—NOT SLICK WILLIE. Clinton is just a wayward cheap-shot Rhodes-puppet, but it will take longer to totally take over and destroy through him than through the POWER brokers of the New World Order. Dole first sold his and Lizzie's Souls to the two-bit commercialists who paid them off through Switzerland. Then he sold it again to the big boy-crooks such as Archer, Daniels, Midland and the money tree. Then last of all he has sold out to the very misfits you voted OUT once before. THINK, AMERICA!

Ekker Trial Update On House Case

This statement was prepared by Gene Dixon and read at the 8/17/96 meeting with Commander Hatonn. We have decided to share it with all our inquiring readers at this time.

8/17/96 GENE DIXON

To All Interested Parties:

In the matter of Doris and E.J. Ekker vs. Larry Mitchell et al. (this is the case of the non-sale of Ekkers' house), because more than several persons have approached me and commented on the "fact" that the Ekkers had lost their lawsuit, or had been defeated very badly in court, etc., etc.; and none of this is true.

I was assisting Mr. Brad Elley, attorney for Ekkers, and was a percipient witness to the events that happened at "trial" during those days (August 5th and 6th, 1996), and it is not true that the Ekkers lost their case and as the facts are unfolding they may come out of it in better shape now because of the delay. Delay is not always bad, even after 8 years.

This is what happened. Prior to trial, the matter (case) was transferred from Judge Wallace to Judge Chapin. The only explanation rumored is that Judge Wallace elected to take two court trials and, thus, the Ekker case was transferred to Judge Chapin. If Judge Wallace was given a choice, I would find it difficult to believe that he would let go of this case that he had known so well for so many years.

Mr. Brad Elley had prepared well for trial, was extremely focused on the issues and all pre-trial work was out of the way and he had settled in locally for the trial. At the last moment Mr. Horn (opposing counsel) basically resubmitted a motion entitled "Motion in Limine" for the purpose of denying the Ekkers the opportunity to present any evidence of a non-sale. This (the fact that there was no sale) was the Ekkers' entire case.

Mr. Elley was not concerned about this motion because the identical motion, under a different name, had been made on the same factual circumstances, previously, before Judge Wallace, and Judge Wallace had denied it. There was little thought that this new Judge would make a different ruling. However, in pre-trial arguments, that carried over until mid-morning of the next day, the Judge announced that, on his own, he had gone beyond the motion, as filed by Mr. Horn, and had dug out all of the many volumes of the house (non-sale) case file not "caught" by anyone and not raised by Mr. Horn. Judge Chapin had found a defect, that defect being that when Mr. Tips (Ekkers' former attorney) negotiated a settlement with the R.T.C. (Resolution Trust Corporation) and Santa Barbara Savings and Loan, that Mr. Tips had wrongly and unknowingly disposed of the house case. Mr. Brad Elley argued strenuously that this was not likely, as the written agreement of dismissal expressly reserved the right of the Ekkers to continue with the house case.

Judge Chapin was undeterred and made his ruling adverse to the Ekkers. Mr. Elley then negotiated a continuance of the execution of the court's order until November, 1996, and paved the way for the Ekkers to file a Writ of Certiorari, or whatever appropriate document Mr. Elley decides to file, which will be filed as soon as possible.

I am happy to say that preliminary research done for the Writ has been fruitful and rewarding, and the Ekkers and Mr. Elley are even better prepared.

Technically, a trial never started. By law, a trial starts when the first witness is sworn to testify. This was just another battle, not the war, and as the saying goes, when you go to court with the Ekkers expect the unexpected and the unusual.

Hopefully, some day soon, they will have their day in court. In the meantime, Mr. Elley has a major court appearance before Judge Gibbons on August 21, 1996, and let's hope that truth and justice will prevail this time.

Mr. Gene Dixon, Director
Constitutional Law Center
