Don't Trust Washington With TRUST FUNDS

Social Security Only Tip Of Scam

Editor's note: While the following bold but upsetting report rightly belongs in the News Desk, its impact upon so many Americans warrants the greater attention of our Front Page. This is especially true as economies worldwide continue on their downward spiral toward total collapse.

Each time the phony Fed bestows upon we slaves another interest rate decrease, know that the process is identical to throwing sand bags out of a sinking hot-air balloon. Equally slick is the system of mirrors the Washington money crooks use to make important public trust funds seem healthier than they actually are.

Social Security rip-off only the tip of trust-fund scam
by Uncle Sam

The money Uncle Sam “borrows” from Social Security is merely the most visible example of how the looting of federal trust funds perverts the fiscal process.

DEMONSTRATION DANGER

Street protesters will drive Malaysia into the hands of foreigners

From the INTERNET, by Shamsul Akmar and Wan Hamidi Hamid, 10/23/98: [quoting]

KUALA LUMPUR: Street demonstrators who are trying to topple the Government will indirectly drive Malaysia into the hands of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), enabling foreigners to take over local companies, Datuk Seri Dr. Mahathir Mohamad said.

They might not know it but that is exactly what they are doing, the Prime Minister said yesterday.

"The demonstrators don't seem to realise that politics has an economic dimension to it." "In fact, they must not separate the political dimension from the economic as far as the Western agenda is concerned," he said.

He said the protesters thought they could overthrow the Government through continuous street protests, like what happened in Indonesia.

"They think they can do it continuously in Malaysia by increasing the level of violence. We can see the pattern and there is even some Indonesian involvement," he told a press conference at his office.

Supporters of Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim and members of the opposition parties who are trying to gain political mileage from the situation have been demonstrating in the city, calling on Dr. Mahathir to resign.

However, the Prime Minister did not see the current situation as an excuse to call for an early general election, saying it would have the effect of undermining the programmes to ensure economic progress.

"This is what they (foreigners) want. If they (the protesters) can win, the country will have to follow the IMF. Malaysia will then submit to the IMF," he said.

"Look at what happened in Indonesia. Following the massive demonstrations and the overthrow of the government, Indonesia now has to open up totally, allowing unimpeded entry to foreign investors to take control of their companies," he added.

The IMF, despite its recent capitulation to Dr. Mahathir's view of having lower interest rates to kick-start the economy, has been prescribing measures which have resulted in devastation of the economies and people of the countries it was supposed to help.

The IMF's bailout for American and European companies in East Asian economies had resulted in mass unemployment, price increases and social ills.

Dr. Mahathir said that during his visit to Japan, he came to realise that the term "crony capitalism", which was invented by the West and propagated by their media, was to vilify Asian governments which did not allow US and European companies to participate fully in their economies.

He said South Korea, despite receiving IMF's aid, was still considered to be practising crony capitalism because of its refusal to open up its economy totally.

"In Malaysia and most Asian countries, privatisation means (projects being privatised) moved from from the Government to the local private sector.

"Because the foreigners did not get the contracts freely, they call us crony capitalists. For them, crony capitalism means no foreign participation. All the while I thought crony capitalism was helping friends and family. Now I know that as long as foreigners do not have the right to come in unimpeded, we are accused of being crony capitalists," he added.

Asked how the country could avoid "colonisation" via the economy, he said Malaysians must be aware of the moves. "We do not want to bow to them. They will exert this through the WTO (World Trade Organisation). I also expect them to use APEC (Asia-Pacific Economic Co-operation)," he said.

The prime minister said Malaysia also continued to receive bad press, particularly when the foreign media and the so-called foreign observers had turned the court case of Anwar into the trial of the Government of Malaysia.

"The Government is on trial as far as the foreign media is concerned. They are not concerned whether Anwar is guilty or not but they want to make sure the Government or the courts are guilty (if Anwar is convicted). This is interference with our judicial and legal system. If you intimidate the judge, you will see no justice," he said.

Dr. Mahathir said the foreign media tried to portray a situation where the court would be unfair if the accused was found guilty, thus forcing the judges to act in a manner so that the courts would be seen as independent.

The prime minister said the Government was ready for elections, stating that whether it won or lost, everybody should accept the result through such a democratic exercise. He, however, said that demonstrators were trying to bring down the Government through street protests which were affecting the daily lives of other people.

"They are trying to provoke the police to become violent so that the foreign media can take pictures of police brutality.

"They are also trying to force the police to arrest (Anwar Ibrahim's wife) Datin Seri Dr. Wan Azizah Wan Ismail and her daughter so that the world will see Malaysia as an oppressive country," he said.

Dr. Mahathir also pointed out how Western observers tried to exaggerate the political situation in Malaysia, citing an article written by former Hong Kong governor Chris Patten who said that "Anwar was beaten to a pulp." This, he said, was totally untrue and everybody in Malaysia knew Anwar's health condition. "That is, however, only expected. Chris Patten had also said that Anwar was the darling of the Western world and, as such, it is probably his duty to defend Anwar," he said. [End quoting]

HUMAN RIGHTS GROUP TELLS MALAYSIAN LEADER TO QUIT

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 10/26/98:
[quoting]

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia—One day after a police crackdown turned an anti-government protest into a riot, a leading Malaysian human rights group demanded Sunday that the prime minister resign. Human rights group Suaram said in a statement that Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad "must accept full responsibility for having totally mishandled the situation. We call upon the prime minister to resign." [End quoting]

Just some more nasty tricks from the IMF bastards trying to divide and conquer with a bunch of terrorists whom they control like a bunch of slaves. They can't tolerate any leader who tries to help his people progress out of poverty of spirit and physical substances—Dr. Mahathir for instance. They have to have slaves or they are very, very uncomfortable. They have a severe inferiority complex and can't tolerate the thought that they may have to earn an honest living if they lose control and the people gain full freedom. They are the cancers of society. Hopefully Prime Minister Mahathir will have enough backing to keep the situation under control.

CLINTON SCHEDULES CONFERENCE ON SHORING UP SOCIAL SECURITY

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 10/25/98: [quoting]

President Clinton will hold a long-planned White House conference on Social Security in December, a meeting that will "help pave the way toward a bipartisan solution early next year", he said Saturday.

In one of his last weekly radio addresses before midterm elections, Clinton reiterated a main theme of the Democratic campaign: That to bolster Social Security, the party stopped Republican attempts to squander a budget surplus through tax cuts.

"We turned back these efforts," Clinton said. "The balanced budget I signed this week protects our hard-won surplus until we save Social Security first."

Rep. Heather Wilson, R-N.M., said Social Security also is a major priority for the Republicans.

"Next year we will save Social Security from insolvency and provide real tax relief for families," she said in the weekly GOP address.

Clinton, who this year held town meetings around the country on Social Security, said the conference would be Dec. 8-9.

He announced the conference in his January State of the Union address as he asked lawmakers to set aside any federal budget surpluses this year to brace up Social Security for an onslaught of aging baby boomers.

The conference most likely will include Republicans and representatives from special interest groups.

Voters will select candidates for all seats in the House of Representatives and a third of the Senate in the Nov. 3 midterm elections. [End quoting]

This means only one thing—and that is they want to get at even more of our funds.

By the way, have you heard about the measly—less than 2 percent—cost-of-living raise this year? Has your cost of staying alive been that low? No need to answer!

If we would all get together and stand up to these Mafia-Khazarian-Mishpucka thieves, we could stop this robbery!

SUIT THROWN OUT OVER USE OF PEPPER SPRAY

Logging protesters to appeal federal ruling

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 10/27/98: [quoting]

San Francisco—Saying police can use “pain compliance” to break up sit-ins, a federal judge Monday dismissed a lawsuit by anti-logging protesters whose eyes were swabbed with pepper spray.

The ruling by U.S. District Judge Vaughn Walker bars a second trial, which had been scheduled for Nov. 16. The first trial ended in a hung jury Aug. 25, with jurors deadlocked 4-4 on the question of whether officers used excessive force by applying the burning chemical to the eyelids of nonviolent demonstrators. [End quoting]

The police never stop at the point at which they are given legal authority—so expect much worse torture to be used on even peaceful demonstrators.

U.S. MAY COMMIT BILLIONS TO SHORE UP ECONOMY IN LATIN AMERICA

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 10/25/98: [quoting]

The United States is preparing to commit U.S. taxpayer funds as part of a lending program of at least $30 billion to try to insulate Brazil, and with it the rest of Latin America, from the worst effects of the financial turmoil circling the globe, according to U.S. and foreign officials assembling the program.

Details of the U.S. contribution, which is expected to total several billion dollars in direct aid or loan guarantees, have yet to be negotiated. But several congressional leaders have been alerted to the likelihood that the administration would have to act while Congress is in recess.

This early warning from the administration reflects memories of how Congress erupted with objections and hearings in 1995 when President Clinton committed $20 billion in U.S. funds to the bailout of Mexico. But administration officials said last week that their early soundings indicate that members of Congress are deeply concerned about preventing an economic collapse in Latin America that would resound in the United States, and thus they expect few objections.

The timing of an aid package for Brazil—originally expected within the next few days—is complicated by unexpected delays that have cropped up in dealing with the Brazilian government.

The government of President Fernando Henrique Cardoso faces politically risky gubernatorial elections today, which may well determine whether Brazil can execute an austerity program that is the key condition for the loans it is concurrently negotiating with the International Monetary Fund.

The biggest role in the rescue program for Brazil will be taken by the International Monetary Fund, which said last week that it would contribute at least $15 billion—and appears to be under pressure from the United States to do even more. Another $9 billion or so will come from the World Bank and the Inter-American Development Bank, and the remainder from the United States and other major industrial nations. [End quoting]

This is nothing more than another mass theft of billions of taxpayer funds!

NEW KIND OF SPACECRAFT LEAVES EARTH

Excerpted from THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 10/25/98: [quoting]

A spacecraft that is equipped with an ion engine and can think for itself rocketed away from Earth on Saturday on a quest to test technologies straight out of Star Trek.

NASA's Deep Space I soared through clouds aboard an unmanned rocket, bound for an asteroid 120 million miles away.

The mood was tense as launch controllers awaited word as to whether Deep Space I was catapulted out of Earth orbit by the Delta booster as planned; the incoming data were unreadable. Then tracking stations were slow to acquire signals from the spacecraft, and engineers had to send commands to make sure the solar wings were unfurled.

The good news finally came two hours after liftoff—Deep Space I was on the right course and in good shape. Launch controllers applauded and hugged.... [End quoting]

This is simply another “bone” thrown to we-the-dogs to give the impression of far-out technology and create a sense of technical advancement. This way we supposedly won't go snooping for the actual, really-far-out craft!

GOVERNMENT TAKES OVER BANK IN JAPAN

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 10/98: [quoting]

Japan's government put its long-awaited bank bailout plan into action Friday by taking over one of the country's biggest lenders, the debt-ridden Long-Term Credit Bank of Japan.

The takeover—the first nationalization of a Japanese bank since World War II—avoided a full-scale collapse of LTCB, which would have further eroded confidence in Japan's banking system and shaken world markets. [End quoting]

IMPLANT LETS BRAIN TALK TO COMPUTER

Excerpted from THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 10/21/98: [quoting]

A Star Trek-type implant that enables direct communication between the brain and a computer is allowing a paralyzed, mute stroke victim to use his brainpower to move a cursor across a screen and convey simple messages such as hello and goodbye.

Researchers think the tiny implant the size of the tip of a ball-point pen is the first device that allows direct communication between the brain and a computer.

“Of all things people lose, the ability to communicate is the most frightening thing—to know what you want to say and not to be able to say it,” said Dr. Warren Selman, a neurosurgeon at University Hospitals of Cleveland not involved in the research. “This is the first step to unlocking that.”

Doctors implanted a device into the 53-year-old man's brain that amplifies his brain signals. Those signals are then transmitted to a laptop computer through an antenna-like coil placed on his head.

Like a computer mouse, the brain signals can move a cursor across the computer screen and point at icons with messages such as “See you later. Nice talking with you.” The man also can use the cursor to tell others that he is hungry or thirsty.... [End quoting]

FOREST FIRES CAUSED BLUE RAIN IN ARGENTINA

From the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 10/24/98: [quoting]

Argentine government scientists said Saturday that blue rain that astonished residents of a northern Argentine town in September was caused by ash from forest fires.

Ash from huge fires to the north in Bolivia and Brazil blew over Argentina and mixed with the rain, giving it a bluish tint, scientists from the Corrientes Province health ministry said, according to the state-run Telam news agency.

Baffled locals from the town of Perugorria collected samples of the strange rain when it fell on September 2, and handed it over to the government for analysis. A health ministry laboratory found ash in the rain water which it linked to the forest fires after studying meteorological records. [End quoting]

I would highly suspicion there was more to this episode than we are being told. Have you ever before heard of forest fires producing blue rain?

CHINA SCIENTIST BATTLES BEETLE THAT BUGS U.S.

Excerpted from the INTERNET, <para-discuss@tje.net>, 10/26/98: [quoting]

When U.S. bug-busters come to China seeking advice in their fight to stop an infestation of the Asian long-horned beetle, their first stop is with Gao Ruitong.

Gao, a professor at the Chinese Academy of Forestry, has 20 years experience fighting the beetle that has bored its way into already touchy trade ties between the United States and China.

The insect, known in Chinese as the “shiny-shouldered starry-heaven beetle” because of its black speckled back, has hitched its way across the Pacific Ocean in wooden pallets and crates and begun munching trees in New York and Illinois.

Larvae of the wood-boring beetle have been found in wooden crates originating from China at 30 shipping warehouses in the United States.

With no natural enemies in the United States and a stubborn immunity to tree-friendly pesticides, the bug has threatened to inflict $138 billion in damage if it spreads to forests, the Department of Agriculture (USDA) said.

Last month the USDA announced emergency measures requiring that any wooden packing material from China must be fumigated or it would not be allowed to enter the U.S. market.

Shipments leaving China on or after December 17 would be turned back unless they had certificates stating either that they had been fumigated or did not contain wooden packing material, the USDA's Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service said. [End quoting]

What better way to help sabotage us?

CREDIT CARD GIMMICKS

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 10/24/98: [quoting]

The credit card business, which was down in the dumps a couple of years ago, is now flourishing in a healthy economy on a cycle of frenzied spending and competition.

So, when things are good, the customers who helped make it that way find themselves getting nailed with kind words first, then new higher fees for their loyalty.

I got good news from my plastic money purveyor on page one of a letter they sent. They thanked me for my continued membership with discounts of the type you get on the back of a supermarket sales slip.

I got another pat on the back at the bottom of the letter, and when I turned it over, I found out that the customer kiss was a prelude to a slap in the face.

First, the credit card company told me it had raised their delinquency fee from $5 to $25 if payment was 10 days late. The same 20 percent [sic] raise was also tacked on if I charged up to my card's limit, and the grace period for not paying my new balance was cut down from 30 days to 20 days.

Also, the minimum payment on the balance is now due in 20 days, instead of 30 days.

It's no surprise my credit card company made record profits last year with these kinds of "customer rewards".

Now, however, it will have one less card member. Me! I'd rather switch to another credit card as a way to fight back to show how I didn't appreciate their lack of loyalty and crummy letter of thanks. [End quoting]

Do you think these banking gangsters can get any greedier? They're not going to stop until we stop them!

WHO HOLDS CONTROLLING INTEREST IN THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM?

From THE BULLETIN, Committee To Restore The Constitution, 11/98: [quoting]

"But, a Mr. R. E. McMaster, publisher of a newsletter, The Reaper, asked his Swiss and Saudi Arabian contacts which banks hold controlling interest in the Federal Reserve System. This was the answer received, and I quote, "Owner number one, Rothschild Banks of London and Berlin; Owner number two, Lazard Brothers Banks of Paris; Owner number three, Israel Moses Seif Banks of Italy; Owner number four, Warburg Bank of Hamburg and Amsterdam; Owner number five, Lehman Brothers Bank of New York; Owner number six, Kuhn, Loeb Bank of New York; Owner number seven, Chase Manhattan Bank of New York." Mr. Chairman, it is the Chase Manhattan Bank which controls all of the other eleven Federal Reserve Banks. Finally, "Owner number eight, Goldman, Sachs Bank of New York."

Mr. Chairman, sir, there are approximately three hundred people, all known to each other and sometimes related to one another, who hold stock or shares in the Federal Reserve System. They compose an interlocking, international banking cartel of wealth beyond comprehension." [End quoting]

This gives us an excellent example of by whom and how we are being enslaved.

EQUITY LOANS CAN RESULT IN BORROWER'S LOSS OF HOME

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 10/13/98: [quoting]

Dear Ann Landers: I work with a mortgage company in Texas. You recently printed a letter from "Wised Up in Detroit", who said unscrupulous advertising tempts people to obtain loans that are secured by their houses. If they default on those loans, they lose their homes. In your response, you said it is best to talk to your creditors and work out a payment plan. That may be comforting, but unfortunately, in this case, it would not work.

While it is true that some loans and credit card debt can be worked out with creditors, equity loans are an entirely different matter. Thousands of people are being sucked into obtaining equity loans to pay off their credit card debt. While credit card interest may be high, at least a credit card company cannot take your house away from you.

These ads are very seductive. They say, "Buy a new car, get an equity loan, and the interest will be tax deductible." There's just one hitch—if you can't pay this loan, these creditors can and will take your home. It is rare for a mortgage lender to provide a plan to "work it out".

Due to this deceptive and tempting advertising, there are going to be thousands of foreclosures in the next two or three years, especially in Texas, where home equity lending has only recently become legal. Consumers need to ask two questions when applying for any type of loan: 1) Is this loan secured by my house? and 2) If I'm not able to pay back the money, is there a chance I will lose my home? If the answers are yes, think long and hard before you do it.

Thanks for letting me get this information into a forum that can help educate a lot of people. —C.B., Bellaire, Texas [End quoting]

Homeowners better really need money badly to even attempt to raise cash with this method. The lenders will do their best to cause you not to pay on time.

WAIT A MINUTE—FACE TRANSPLANTS?

From THE FINAL CALL, 10/16/98: [quoting] John Baker, a plastic surgeon based in Louisville, Ky., is saying techniques similar to those used in hand transplants may be useful for face transplants. By early next year, scientists will know whether hands can be taken from cadavers (dead bodies) and attached to the limbs of the living, he said. Around the same time, doctors should know whether anti-rejection drugs work, he said. If you can do a hand, a face shouldn't be too difficult, Dr. Baker said. [End quoting]

LOW-COST INFO CARDS

From POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, July 1998, [quoting:]

A new type of small, inexpensive data card for a variety of portable electronic devices is getting financial backing from Microsoft and other large corporations. The draw: Because the card and the device that reads it have no moving parts, the system's low power requirements make battery operation feasible. Developed by Ioptics Inc. of Bellevue, Washington, the optical read-only memory (OROM) cards have 128 megabytes of storage capacity—while being smaller than a business card. The card reader fits in a shirt pocket. Ioptics envisions OROM being used for digital maps and other types of prerecorded databases.

Rotating a disk to obtain data, as a computer hard drive does, consumes a lot of power. By contrast, the Ioptics reader uses very little. OROM data is prerecorded on about 5,000 information patches per card. When a card is inserted into the reader, it is aligned over an array of LEDs. Each patch is assigned a LED. When data is requested, the patch is illuminated by the LED and the information contained on the patch is projected onto the reader's image sensor. The sensor then converts the image into digital data that can be used by any device containing a computer processor. Data access time is about 10 milliseconds, roughly 10 times as fast as that of CD-ROMs.

Ioptics hopes to have a prototype reader built this year and to start production late in 1999. [End quoting]

Some more very interesting technology.

RUSSIANS HOPE FOR LIGHT FROM BIG MIRROR IN SPACE

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, 10/24/98: [quoting]

The Russian space agency is preparing to launch a giant mirror into orbit to illuminate Sun-starved northern cities, officials said Friday. The Znamya, or Banner, will blast off with a cargo ship headed to the Mir space station on Sunday, and will be unraveled in February. The mirror, about 100 feet in diameter, is a membrane covered with a metal layer that, in theory, would reflect sunlight onto some of the chilly reaches of Russia during the long nights. [End quoting]

[Comment by contributor:] If this is an adjustable focus, parabolic mirror, the power output from this is mind-boggling and one of the most formidable weapons in existence.

"THE PEOPLE NEVER GIVE UP THEIR LIBERTIES BUT UNDER SOME DELUSION"

From GREAT ENDEAVORS NATION, P.O. Box 33681, Phoenix, AZ 85067: [quoting]

One of those delusions is "I have money, they can't hurt me! The man who set up Hitler's financial takeover of Germany, and then other countries, had his fortune taken from him even though his son was on the General Staff of Hitler's army. His son was soon relieved because of Himmler's coveting the fortune and property and power of the Theissens. Both died penniless.

Another delusion:

"I can hurt that guy who makes me feel inferior (because of my own inferior feelings) but I will not be hurt. I can stab him/her in the back and get away with it, because the 'thought police' love rats."

OLD FOES SIDE AGAINST VOTERS, FREE SPEECH

Summary of a SPOTLIGHT story, 10/26/98: [paraphrasing]

Bob Dornan—a supposedly conservative ex-congressman—lost a vote fraud case against his opponent, Liberal Democrat Loretta Sanchez, in the last congressional race.

Several months back, Mr. Frogue—a local college board member—would not go along with the ADL to stop Michael Collins Piper from speaking to the students about the Kennedy assassination. The ADL then tried to have him fired, but as of my latest knowledge has not succeeded.

But when the ADL pressure was applied, the "good conservative Dornan" joined with his liberal opponent—who he claims stole the election from him—to fight with the ADL to FIGHT AGAINST FREE SPEECH! [End paraphrasing]

USING EMOTION

From THE ORLANDO SENTINEL, letter to editor, 10/20/98: [quoting]

I AM outraged. Two Oct. 14 letters tried to make the point that, somehow, if you are morally opposed to homosexuality and politically opposed to the gay political agenda you are culpable for the tragic death of gay student Matthew Shepard. To equate being opposed to the gay political agenda with advocating violence against gays is illogical, irresponsible, narrow-minded and, dare I say, hate-filled and mean-spirited.

Using the emotions of this tragedy for political gain is a typical tactic of the gay-rights movement, to force its narrow views on the majority of Americans who are simply opposed to special treatment for a lifestyle we see as morally wrong. —Joe Cardamone, Melbourne [End quoting]

AN ANGEL IN THE CAVE

From the INTERNET, <hollowearth@onelist.com>, 10/23/98: [quoting]

Cherry H.: Many many years ago, when I was a child of age five, my family decided to stop and have lunch at a near cave on the side of Mt. Shasta. The year was 1946 (yeah, I'm 57). Mom & Dad were preparing lunch, and my sisters explored the trees and pretty rocks. But I was fascinated by the small cave. It had two chambers, both small. I began hearing a musical voice calling me, using my name.

I noticed a small hole at the bottom of one wall, and from the hole glowed a bright blue light. I crawled through the small opening and saw a lovely glowing lady. I thought she must be an angel. She sat on one of the large boulders, her feet touching another smaller one.

She called me to come closer and listen to her. Her voice sounded like chimes. It felt like time disappeared as I listened to her message.

Suddenly, far away, I heard Mother's voice calling me. The Blue Angel said, "Go, but do not let them go yet, they must stay for awhile. Tell them that they MUST take a picture. They MUST!"

I crawled back through the hole; my parents were frantic, telling me that I was lost for an hour, and they were frightened and worried.

I ate a quick sandwich and then as we were about to get into the car, I remembered the Blue Angel's warning.

I have always been a good child, never creating a scene, but this time I fought them, insisting that they take my picture at the cave. They finally agreed. As Dad took the picture, a logging truck roared by, out of control.

Leaving the cave area we started the downhill drive down from the mountain. As we turned a curve on the road, we saw a terrible accident, caused by that truck. We stopped to offer assistance until the police arrived. It was then that my folks realized that if they had left the cave when they planned then we would have been in the middle of that accident.

Over the years I have tried and tried to recall the message of that the Blue Angel. I know now that when the time is "right" I will know all of it.

I have spent my life searching for the answers for the mystery of the subterranean world. I have explored caves and caverns in many countries, spent 35 years in researching the UFO mystery. One thing always gets connected to the UFO story: the underground world.

I have been blessed and sheltered throughout my life. I was educated by robed Unknown Beings between the ages 10 through 20.

I have lived through five major car accidents (I was never at fault; it was drunk drivers, and federal employees who nearly killed me via car wrecks). I have struggled through a crippling stroke that the doctors said would leave me as a vegetable. But I never give up. I have fully recovered and I have been protected through it all. [End quoting]

Another fascinating story of how God's angels look after us and prepare many of us for future jobs here on Earth as the planetary transition accelerates.

Serapis Bey: High Frequency Equals Greater Opportunities

10/31/98 SERAPIS BEY

Greetings, old friend! It is I, Serapis Bey, Master Teacher of the Fourth (crystal clear) Aspect of Creator's spectral expression. I represent the fulcrum or balance point between the first three and the last three Aspects whom you ones commonly refer to as the Ascended Masters.

I prefer the direct approach to communicating my messages, and therefore I am less "colorful" than are some of my compatriots. Please do not be disturbed if my bluntness comes across too strongly.

Your world has entered the cleansing phase of the Great Transition. This is a purification of sorts which will ensure that the like-minded, high-frequency beings of proper attunement and preparation will evolve as caretakers along with your planetary orb, Earth-Shan.

The evolving conditions of frequency increase will not be suitable for low-frequency energy systems. Many of you are finding that inner stress is building at an ever increasing rate and those "minor" annoyances that caused subtle irritation even a year ago will likely make you physically ill in a very short time this day. The ever increasing frequency of the Earth-Shan planetary system is causing many a "rational" person to do quite "insane" acts.

There are, indeed, many reasons for this, not the least of which is the susceptibility of the physical body to damaging man-made electromagnetic pulse-wave frequencies, deliberate biological attacks, and various mind-control media propaganda. All of these are designed to place and keep ones in a low-energy, low-frequency state.

How, you may be asking, can I keep my frequency and energy level up?

First and foremost is to catch yourself as soon as possible when you notice that you are feeling stress, frustration, anger, or any sort of negative feelings, and realize that you do NOT have to be in that low-frequency state. Also, appreciate that these same low-frequency feeling-indicators serve you as a very sophisticated (yet simple to utilize) bio-feedback mechanism.

Recognize that these low-frequency states disconnect you from the Infinite Creative Source, and that there is rarely if ever a truly productive thought or idea to be had while in such a state. As you move out of the anger, frustration, or apathy, and into a higher-frequency range, you will begin to open up again the energy-flow pathway (the natural position is wide open) and thus create a condition of greater potential for receiving inspirational ideas and thoughts.

Grief-stricken persons will usually walk around in a semi-conscious state, not fully aware of what they are doing. Why? Because this state is such a complete polar opposite to that of the Higher Self (the soul-you). One will become almost completely disconnected from Source due to the effects of such a low vibrational frequency. Severe apathy can also result in death or near-death conditions of the body-vehicle as a result of this nearly constant disconnect (lack of Life Force) resulting from that low-frequency state.

The non-physical aspect of YOU (the REAL YOU) knows that there is nothing truly bad or negative which warrants lingering in such a low-frequency vibration. As your frequency lowers, you become more and more irrational, desperate, and disconnected from Source. Usually this state will cause a rapid downward spiral of impacting negativity. If that negative state becomes chronic, you can become seriously ill (especially cancers and heart troubles) and eventually disconnect completely from the body—resulting in death of the body.

We in the non-physical realms witness many a potential Ground Crew member sliding into these lower-frequency ranges. This is most often due to the dwelling upon feelings of frustration and/or apprehension. Many of you will lapse into these lower-vibrational frequencies in a subtle manner on a regular basis. The regularity begins to breed comfort through familiarity, and then you ones will often begin to look for justifications for anger, frustration, or grief. You can justify this situation as much as you like, however the facts remain that you become disconnected from Source, and thus BY CHOICE you move away from the natural state of your true (Higher) self. The result is inner pain and needless suffering.

These kinds of downward-spiraling habits, when you insist upon holding onto their "comfort", will only serve to leave you behind and disable you as a viable participant in the unfolding growth opportunity available in the coming years.

There is no need to justify your anger, guilt, or frustrations! Do you hear ones trying to defend their joy and justify their happiness? Not too often—and if you do, it is because they are feeling guilty about something else that happened in their earlier experiences.

Your natural state is one of happiness and joy, for you are all born of that common vibration. THE CREATIVE PROCESS IS OF THE HIGHEST FREQUENCIES, AND THUS YOU WERE ALL CREATED IN THIS PURE, HIGH FREQUENCY STATE OF DESIRE. This leaves an imprint, a "genetic"-type of signature that in essence IS you.

From a high-frequency state you cannot feel down or upset. Yet most of you find yourselves in these lower emotional states of doubt and worry and such. Why is this?

Again we get right back to very fundamental spiritual concepts: YOU have allowed yourself to slip into these lower emotional states, and then you will generally deny (to yourself and to others) that YOU had anything to do with it—it "just happened".

NOTHING "just happens"! There is reason for all that happens and for all that is.

Self discipline is the key to recognizing and understanding how it is that YOU got yourself to where you are this day. If you are continually happy and excited about life and living, then this is because you have learned to stay connected to Source despite the conditions and vibrations of others. You will also be the ones who will still be able to function quite nicely as the planet and all of her many inhabitants go through the Transformation. You will be the ones who will rebuild and bring forth the ideals of "Heaven" and manifest them, in the physical, on Earth.

Among other challenges of this Great Planetary Transformation, there will be traumatic events which will cause many an "innocent" person to die (leave the physical). You will need to be firmly grounded in your spiritual understanding that this dying is merely the stoppage of functioning of the physical apparatus—and not the end of the soul being.

This situation is much like when you get out of your car (vehicle) and shut off the motor. It will stop functioning and just sit there, still and non-moving. But the vehicle is not you! If you neglect (stay away from) the vehicle for too long, the battery will drain, the tires will rot, rust will seize the engine, and eventually the car will never work again.

So what. You can always go and get into another new car and drive it around for awhile. Just don't get too attached to that "car", again, because it is not you!

The point here is that you who appreciate these messages will need to draw upon your understanding of the Natural Laws of the universe. Through such Inner Knowing you will be able to maintain your certainty that, though some of these coming experiences may be uncomfortable, each souled being had an opportunity to play a unique high-frequency role in this growth and evolution event. Only those who were disciplined enough to see the value of keeping in a high-frequency state will be around after the completion of the cycle.

Learn to be able to observe severe (low-frequency) conditions without matching frequency with the condition. This is not an easy task, for most of you are far more empathic than you realize.

If you see a small child being yelled at in a public place, most of you would sooner get upset for the "poor" child, who you may view as a victim of "bad" parents. Would it not be more productive to you, and eventually to the child, if you could view such an incident and simply send an uplifting thought (prayer) toward both the parents and the child, that they might both grow in understanding of who they are and why they have chosen one another for their current challenges?

This is being in the world but NOT becoming a part of the low-frequency aspect of the world that only serves to disconnect you from Source. You each came forth wanting to be a high-frequency, high-energy up-lifter, and to create a high-frequency environment and show others how to do same.

You can only do this if YOU, yourself, are able to consistently maintain a high-frequency state. You then attract others (resources) into your experience who radiate the same high-frequency state, and then there will be the necessary momentum generated to bring forth and manifest this desire.

The bottom line is: recognize the true Nature and Potential of your being, and bring this high-frequency aspect out in all situations, despite the apparent negativity of the situation. In doing so, you become the Light in the darkness, the calm amidst the confusion, and the one who will afford others a greater opportunity to grow.

You are all the product of Creator's perfection! Feel, understand, and KNOW this!

I am Serapis Bey. I come as Teacher, Guide, and Friend to all who desire to have same. I am borne of the Light and I come as Representative of the Fourth Aspect of Creator God's spectral expression. It is my nature to be direct and to-the-point in my teaching so that ones can more easily appreciate the beauty and simplicity of Creator's Lighted Thought.

Salu!

Many Americans have begun to understand Social Security's accounting subterfuge. Its trust fund comprises nothing more than nonmarketable Treasury securities. The fund is credited with these IOUs as excess Social Security tax revenues are spent. What most Americans don't understand, however, is how the Social Security rip-off is only part of a much larger scam.

There are various ways to put this misrepresentation into perspective. One way is to compare the $70 billion budget surplus being claimed for fiscal 1998 to the simultaneous $112 billion increase in the national debt.

Another telling view of this curious phenomenon is offered by a recent Congressional Budget Office analysis. It shows that of the $1.75 trillion in national debt now held by government accounts, only $736 billion is debt owed to the Social Security trust fund. The remaining 60 percent or so is owed to accounts other than Social Security.

A third way of looking at this bogus system is to focus on the handling of a trust fund unknown to most Americans. This perspective is important because it speaks to the claim of the system's defenders. Their defense holds that even if Social Security's IOUs are only government promises to pay, it's unthinkable that Washington wouldn't honor those promises.

A story in Tuesday's Investor's Business Daily about the unemployment insurance trust fund may cause these defenders to think again. It reveals, as well as anecdotal evidence can, the extent of Washington's fiscal chicanery.

Employers pay a tax rate of 0.8 percent on the first $7,000 of each employee's wages to fund state employment assistance programs that are closely supervised by the federal government. The tax, which will raise $6 billion this year, is kept at its present level even though the program's trust fund has swelled to $23 billion.

The trust fund continues to grow, the story relates, because

Washington sends less than 60 percent of the collected tax receipts back to the states to help the jobless.

The revenue from this dedicated tax is like all other such programs including Social Security, highway construction, air transportation and the like. The money not spent on its intended purpose goes to pay for unrelated budget items. The trust fund gets a Treasury IOU, which has no economic value except as a claim against government.

Why have all these other trust funds beyond Social Security's grown to $1 trillion-plus worth of IOUs? Washington used the surplus revenue as a cash cow—earlier to make deficits seem smaller, and now to create the illusion of surplus.

Washington has two honest choices here. It can reduce the burden of the dedicated tax, or it can spend all revenues as intended. It does neither. It applies some revenue toward its dedicated purpose and confiscates the rest. It then uses an accounting pretense to create the impression that the money was only borrowed from its intended beneficiaries rather than misappropriated.

The way trust funds have been handled is convincing proof that Washington can't be trusted to do the right thing. Thus, who's to say political leaders won't shortchange Social Security when the promises made on behalf of its trust fund must be kept?

View From Malaysia

Watch Who Meddles In Economic Affairs

10/30/98 #1 HATONN

TALK ABOUT TOTAL AND AUDACIOUS B.S.!

With a Global Alliance team still in Malaysia the IMF is making a frantic attempt to divert what is taking place among the intelligent leaders of this Southeastern Asian sector.

Not only is there a hyped-up effort to bring chaos and street-rioting for the overthrow of Dr. Mahathir's government, but there is a thrust through media-IMF garbage factoring.

MALAYSIA CAN DO THE JOB FOR THE ENTIRE AREA. AND HERE IS WHERE THE TERROR WITHIN THE WORLD ORDER RANKS IS SHOWING ITS COLORS—BEFORE THE APEC MEETINGS STARTING ON THE 12TH OF NOVEMBER AND RUNNING THROUGH THE 18TH. IF THE ASIAN PROBLEM OF CURRENCY AND FUNDING RESOURCES CAN BE RESOLVED PRIOR TO THAT MEETING, THE IMF AND ITS HOLD OVER THE WORLD IN THIS GEOGRAPHIC LOCATION—AND PROBABLY GLOBALLY—IS FINISHED, OVER, DISSOLVED.

Let me example:

[QUOTING, New Straits Times, Business Sec., Thurs., Oct. 29, 1998:]

MALAYSIA'S CONTROLS MAY DELAY REFORMS, SAYS IMF

Singapore: Malaysia's currency exchange rate controls may delay the implementation of reforms needed in the other parts of the country's economy, an International Monetary Fund deputy director said.

[H: Say what? What "reforms" might this self-proclaimed director of nations' economies have in mind? Malaysia has had the most progressive nation and economy in the current half century. What reforms? Could this be panic-time that the IMF can't insert IT'S FORMS OF CONTROL IF MALAYSIA HOLDS ITS STRENGTH? THINK VERY CAREFULLY ABOUT THIS BECAUSE THIS IS EXACTLY WHAT IT MEANS.]

"We are concerned that the imposition of controls may tend to delay the reforms that are needed in other parts of the economy," IMF deputy director of research Flemming Larsen said at a presentation of the fund's World Economic

Outlook, THE IMF'S FLAGSHIP PUBLICATION.

He said while the fund was not opposed to capital controls "we are concerned about the imposition of controls in the midst of a crisis", adding that the impact was to weaken investor confidence.

"For a very successful economy like Malaysia, the imposition of currency (exchange rate) controls may be viewed by foreign investors as casting doubt on the openness of the country to the rest of the world."

[H: No, just to the IMF strangulators. If Malaysia simply goes forth with its planned Asian Alliance, which includes an Asian Monetary Fund (AMF), there will be no need to consider problems, for investors will pour in, pleading to do business here—and if not, the nation can build its own wealth and strength for FREE and get their own currency and that of the neighboring nations' currencies based on solid value. There will be no stronger nation in the world nor any as stable as the circle of coalition nations in association in an alliance based on truth and value instead of on the currencies such as the U.S., BASED ON NO VALUE AT ALL, SAVE A PRINTING PRESS!]

Larsen said the IMF's hopes were that Malaysia would succeed in tackling its economic problems. [H: Bunko B.S.!]

He said the fund expects Malaysia to recover from the crisis in line with the recovery in the rest of crisis-hit Asia.

Larsen projected the economies of Korea and Thailand would bottom out in the first and second quarters of next year and recovery would be underway by mid-year.

He said Malaysia's projection of one per cent gross domestic product growth in 1999 was realistic. The Malaysian Government had forecast the economy would shrink 4.8 per cent this year after growing 7.7 per cent in 1997.

He said at this stage, the chances of a recovery in Malaysia would be dependent on its pursuit of economic reform and also what happens in global economies.

Larsen said Malaysia had started into the crisis with "somewhat better pre-conditions than the other countries and it had some breathing space to tackle some of its problems". [H: Anyone want to consider just HOW IT STARTS OFF IN A BETTER POSITION? RIGHT! BECAUSE OF STRONG LEADERSHIP IN THE FACE OF THE IMF, POLITICAL ASSAULTS, AND THREATS

FROM THE NEW WORLD ORDER THROUGH THE IMF-CONTROLLED CENTRAL BANKS OF JUST ABOUT EVERY NATION KNOWN TO MAN.]

He added, however, that at the time Malaysia did not make use of this "breathing space". [H: Oh? And just what does he believe Malaysia was doing—other than making use of the time? I sincerely believe he will EAT THOSE WORDS BEFORE THIS IS OVER. THE NEXT STATEMENT IS THE CAKE ICING, HOWEVER:]

"There's a good chance they will be making good use of the (new) breathing space, but it's difficult to say at this stage." — Reuters

[END QUOTING]

We must break this at this point so that it can be gotten to the appropriate people timely. I shall continue later. Salu.

To now continue:

In the event that we find ourselves busy later in the day, we should try diligently to get some information off to the paper. To bring the focus to our own circumstances is one thing but we must not overlook the pressures brought to bear on our hosts in this area.

It appears that there is no way to confirm anything published in the public media papers for there will be contradiction of each statement within the same paper.

We need to acknowledge that, as the trial of Anwar looms closer, there is more than contradiction—there is outright fabrication in order to play at war games without actually shedding blood for the blood-letting is still basically on "hold".

I would like to assure all interested parties that Mr. Anwar is in perfectly wonderful health and no policeman gave him any "black-eye". If Mr. Anwar has "blackened eyes" it is a reflection of his character.

You can see what is taking place through what is going on in the area and within the political circles as people with no business in Malaysia keep showing up and butting into something within which they have absolutely no business.

Let us take up Chris Patten who was running Hong Kong at the time of its turnover to China. SUDDENLY he has a trip to peddle and push a book? I can see that pushing a book in Hong Kong is one thing, but to be involved with his "good friend Anwar's plight" is a reflection of the probable lack of truth in his own version of Hong Kong's business. But, why should he even comment on the internal affairs of a nation so removed from his own as to be in a separate hemisphere? Interesting? Oh, I believe it to be far more important than merely "interesting".

Mr. Patten has stated to world media that Anwar was "beaten to a pulp". Say what? At worst Mr. Anwar had a shadow under one of his eyes which could have been from his glasses pressing on his face, his nose being bumped (although there was no bloody nose), or any number of things from hitting a car seat to bumping into a door or hitting anything if he stooped over to pick up something. It is obvious that the incident happened BEFORE incarceration because the bruise was on the wane at appearance time only a few days later. If one didn't have the bruise pointed out to them, and with Anwar's glasses, it would never have been noted nor noticed. "Beaten to a pulp" would certainly encourage readers to believe that there should at least be whip marks here and there, or at the least, too tight handcuffs? NOTHING! The point I wish to make is, however, that Chris Patten the international (NOW) author and authority—from London—claims his good friend was "beaten to a pulp" and his wife "terrorized"! His wife has been out in an effort to rally the Anwar troops to incite riots. She may well claim to want no violence or insurgency—but her actions and press releases indicate a concerted effort to topple the government in Malaysia.

Even Anwar "claims" to want no violence—while doing everything in his power to rally rabble to riot and seizure. And people, this man was caught dead to rights in his activities. He has cost billions of dollars and ringgits in the mess with Soros and the IMF wherein, in those transactions, he was able to personally siphon-off millions of dollars into and through off-shore conduits. These people are TRAINED TO LIE, confound it—just like Clinton lies, and their own clandestine oaths to cover for one another are obvious in all these encounters. This man was caught in his banking dealings (he was FINANCE MINISTER) and he was CAUGHT WITH HIS LOVERS IN SODOMY WITH A MAN. IN THIS COUNTRY THIS IS AGAINST THE LAWS OF THE LAND—UNLAWFUL! IT IS UNLAWFUL EVERYWHERE BUT IGNORED, APPARENTLY, IN THE U.S.A., BRITAIN, AND OTHER WESTERN PORTS-O'-CALL. Perhaps more insulting to the intelligence of the nation here is as it should be in the U.S. where a wife actually is caused to defend her spouse for being so abused by him. Well, power and the desire to remain in power is quite a push as you might guess—and this lady of Anwar's stands to end up in prison as well as Anwar. This is the same thing that should be taking place with Mrs. Clinton, if indeed, there was any concern about the laws of the land, the Constitution, or the moral stability of a nation where leaders are teaching children that immorality, crime and lying, cheating and stealing are the call of the day.

I would reprint a "Letter of the Day" from New Straits Times, today, Oct. 30, 1998:

[QUOTING:]

PATTEN IGNORANT OF FACTS
IN ANWAR'S CASE

Somebody must wake Chris Patten up from his dream as Britain no longer rules the waves. He must realize that Englishmen are no longer the colonial masters and that its colonies, including Malaysia, are now sovereign nations.

It must have shattered Patten's heart to be the last Englishman to hand over a colony to its rightful owner. Perhaps, too, he has not recovered from the trauma of having to hand over Hong Kong to China. He may still harbour the desire to see the West re-colonizing the East once again. [H: Well, it happened in America—why not in Hong Kong and the other parts as East and West come out of the OPIUM (AS IN DRUGS) WARS.]

This is what I gather when reading his article, "We must defend the Finance Minister with a black eye" which was published in the Independent on Sunday (Oct. 11).

Hence ignoring the British tradition of fair play, Patten decided to champion former Finance Minister Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim who is facing charges of corruption and sodomy, hoping he can arouse the Western leaders to side with him. [H: And pray tell, what do any "Western" leaders have to do with the LAWS in Malaysia? My goodness, especially if you are going to sort of depend on the United Nations to gain stature—when you in the U.S. and/or BRITAIN have not so much as paid dues to said organization. How can you tolerate the gross international arrogance? Oh well!]

Patten was quick to assume that the charges laid against Anwar were trumped up. That he could make such an assumption only reflects the possibility that such practices may be common in his country. The normal reaction would be to wait for the evidence to be produced in court and for the judge to pass judgment.

Patten may not know this, but the Government of Malaysia ordered a thorough investigation into the alleged beating-up of Anwar while under detention. Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr. Mahathir Mohamad was reported in the media as saying that a thorough investigation would be carried out and if there was evidence those responsible would be charged in an open court.

But, to paint a picture of Anwar "beaten to a pulp" sounded like a British joke. Perhaps, Patten should see those picture of Anwar taken recently.

It is also funny that Patten claimed Anwar's wife has been terrorized. It is funny for someone who Patten claimed was terrorized to still go shopping with her daughter. Anwar's wife was quoted by a foreign wire service as having said she was going shopping with her daughter at Malaysia's major shopping complex recently when she came across a group of Anwar's supporters demonstrating for his release. [H: Hummmnnn, and how is your day going?]

The "terrorized" wife was seen shaking hands with her husband's supporters along a busy road in Kuala Lumpur.

Patten also wrote in the article that Anwar said the right things, he did the right thing, too. For his information, Anwar told CNBC, a TV station, that he had conducted two DNA tests to prove that he did not father any illegitimate child. It turned out to be a lie because he later admitted he had not had the test. [H: And WHY have not Clinton's illegitimate children/child been brought before the executioner—oh yes, indeed, he has! He has a child that was sold to exile early in his Presidency, by a Black woman. It is reported that the child, at least, is in Australia in "cover" and the whereabouts of the mother is not being revealed. How do these people cover so well that which is actually media-printed NEWS? Perhaps Starr didn't do his job well after all, for there is no, seemingly, mention of drug use or trade or any of the other criminal activities of the man in point—even at such gatherings, with George Bush, as the Bohemian Grove annual bash, past and present—where the boys go for a bit of fun and games. And THIS MAN, CLINTON, is planning to come and butt into the affairs of Malaysia on behalf of the criminal himself? How dare you allow this bundle of corruption to come to this beautiful place! Keep him and his attachments in the U.S. where corruption is an acceptable commodity of the day's business. I think you-the-people would find DNA results of some of these "little temptations" resulting in production of whole offspring to be even more interesting than DNA "material" on a blue cocktail dress of a little intern romping about in the White House as part of her own seduction training to share with mommy dearest.]

It is indeed amusing that Patten thinks Anwar has been for years the deserved darling of the international financial community. I cannot share Patten's view on this because as a Malaysian, I find his financial policies shocking, especially when the economy contracted by 6.8 per cent in the second quarter of this year. Before Anwar became the Finance Minister, the ringgit was RM2.52 to one US dollar. Under his tenure it was RM3.80 and had even gone down to RM4.88.

Also, during his term, Bank Negara lost RM30 BILLION dabbling in the foreign exchange market and another RM3.80 BILLION in defending the Ringgit. The Kuala Lumpur Stock Exchange saw RM600 BILLION being wiped out and the INTEREST RATES WERE PUSHED UP TO 24 PER CENT CAUSING SEVERE LIQUIDITY CRUNCH AND CRIPPLING INDUSTRIES. Incidentally, Malaysia's per capita income also contracted from US$5,000 to US$2,000, a loss of US$60 BILLION and the banks now need RM16 BILLION for recapitalization. Maybe, Patten would like to invite Anwar to be his financial adviser? [H: Yes, and these are JUST THE THINGS YOU KNOW ABOUT! WHERE IS ALL THAT IMF MONEY? WHAT OF THOSE "OFF-SHORE" ACCOUNTS, PROBABLY NOW EMPTY OR MOVED?]

Patten must have been hoodwinked into believing that Anwar is actually fighting corruption and nepotism. At the last Umno general assembly, it was revealed that his own father and family members were beneficiaries of shares allocated by the Government to Bumiputeras. His friends were awarded Government privatized projects.

Patten must have forgotten or the news was not conveyed to him about Anwar's arrest when Queen Elizabeth was visiting the country, and to close the 16th Commonwealth Games. His arrest had nothing to do with the charges laid against him, but was related to inciting his supporters to riot. He timed the demonstration to get the maximum international coverage. The Queen was praying in a church next to an open space where he incited his supporters to riot. This was to enable the cameras accompanying the Queen to switch to him.

Having successfully achieved his objective there, Anwar then left for home where he videotaped a message meant for his children that he was going to be arrested under the Internal Security Act. For Patten's information, his children were sitting before him when the message was taped. The message was, of course, delivered to a foreign TV station where it was broadcast.

If this is the man Patten wants the Western leaders to defend, we Malaysians would like to say good luck. A man who places his personal interest above that of his own people has no place in Malaysia.

—Hairu Hamat, Sha Alam

[END OF QUOTING]

It is difficult for me to watch the news having been usurped in this very place—by the controlled media of the World Elite. How could it have happened with such subtle acceptance that nations around the globe could fall under the absolute hand of such press and media power as to let only a couple of controlled networks do such a number on you-the-people and then laugh it off as if it were the “lark of the day”.

Next comes the inability to even gather together nations in the same location to have private meetings on possible solutions without the international wags getting input and involved. How can a nation offer solutions only to be thwarted by the very liars and cheats bringing forth the problem in the first place? Well, it looks pretty desperate to me, readers, when the guns such as Kissinger, Soros, and little boy Billy mess in the mud-pies. Does the New World Order have problems perchance? I certainly do hope so!

Do world leaders KNOW about these tricks? Of course, but they are so corruption-involved themselves that they are worse than nothing in defense of their own nations—for they are the problems within their own nations. If, for instance, you actually shot all of the traitors and treasonists in Washington D.C., just to name one place—there would be no politicians left in the city. It reminds me of Sodom and Gomorrah—not one good man could be found to stop the destruction. Actually, I call you the Viagra generation—in hopes you screw yourselves to death if that's what grabs you because in the midst of the fall of a planet to think of diddling around under the covers is obscene, in my opinion. I'm confident that if Caesar had had Viagra he would have diddled instead of fiddled while Rome was destroyed.

And what of George Soros? Now, there is another interesting personality who is about as popular here in Malaysia as the Dengue Fever outbreak. I'm sure good ol' Anwar is his personal buddy also. Is it not strange how many “good ol' buddies” a Finance Minister has? SORT OF LIKE GREENSPAN?

But what of Soros in his own businesses these days? It is hard to tell, because to play the game as well as these Hounds of Hell, it is impossible to believe anything you see or hear. However, the word in the press just day before yesterday was stating that “poor” little George was having poor returns. Aw shucks!

Example?

[QUOTING, New Straits Times, Oct. 28, 1998:]

SOROS' FUNDS SHOWING POOR RETURNS

George Soros, one of the world's most famous investors, is making several changes at his Quantum Group of mutual funds after poor investment returns in the recent months of global financial turmoil, with some funds showing declines of more than 15 per cent so far this year.

One fund, which Soros is proposing to close, has lost more than 30 per cent of its value this year.

Taken together, the investment returns and Soros' response in recent days show that even one of the world's pre-eminent investors—who has made billions of dollars out of inspired and well-informed speculation in world financial markets—has taken something of a battering this year, not least because of the severe downturn in emerging markets.

Earlier this year, the Soros Group said it had lost about US$2 billion (RM7.6 billion) in Russia, which defaulted on its debts in August.

In an Oct. 23 letter to shareholders in Quantum funds, Soros told investors that Nicholas Roditi, his star fund manager of recent years, would “take a temporary medical leave of absence”, that Quantum proposes to merge two of its funds—Quasar International and Quantum Industrial Holdings—and that it would close Quantum Emerging Growth, which had lost 31.16 per cent of its value as of last Thursday.

The Soros funds, which are incorporated in Curacao, in the Netherlands Antilles, may be sold only to non-US investors.

But their performances are widely watched world-wide, not least because of Soros' reputation as a canny investor.

They generally charge a management fee of one per cent of assets and carry an incentive fee of 20 per cent of profits earned.

The minimum investment is generally hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Stanley Druckenmiller, chief investment strategist for Soros Fund Management, the company that oversees Quantum Group, will temporarily take over Roditi's responsibilities for overseeing much of the management of the Quota and Quasar funds, Soros' letter said.

Antoine Bernheim, the publisher of the US Off-shore Funds Directory, a listing of hedge funds, characterized SOROS FUNDS' RETURNS SO FAR THIS YEAR AS “A RECENT DISAPPOINTMENT” AGAINST AN “OUTSTANDING LONGSTANDING RECORD”. That record owes much to Roditi, a London money manager who hails from southern Africa and who closely guards his privacy.

Reached at his office in the north London borough of Hampstead last year, Roditi refused requests for interviews with the phrase “I don't talk to journalists”. He routinely asks friends not to talk about him to the media.

He suffered a life-threatening illness some years ago, described on Monday as tuberculosis by friends who spoke on the condition of anonymity.

“He did not look well,” one executive said on Monday who saw Roditi last week when the Soros manager visited New York.

“We simply do not know how long his absence will be,” Shawn Pattison, a spokesman for Soros Fund Management, said on Monday in a written answer to questions about Roditi.

“It is Roditi's hope, as well as ours here at Soros Fund Management, that it will be of a short duration,” he wrote. Pattison's note said Roditi “has been Soros Fund Management's most trusted adviser”.

Pattison said on Monday that Roditi would not answer journalists' questions.

The Quota fund, which Roditi manages, has seen a 13.64 per cent decline in its value as of last Thursday, according to Pattison.

That decline reflects “the recent market turmoil”, Pattison said. Recent months aside, Quota has turned in high returns.

In 1997, it earned 49.3 per cent; in 1996 81.9 per cent, and in 1995 it earned a staggering 159.4 per cent.

Speaking last year, Bernheim said that Quota “has been the most successful hedge fund over the five years 1992 to 1996, with an annual compound return of 56.6 per cent”.

Discussing Roditi's strategy then, he said: “He takes very large positions on his convictions. When it works, it produces spectacular returns.”

But this year has not been such a good one for many investors, including the Soros funds.

Soros' flagship, the Quantum fund, was up 4.3 per cent as of last Thursday and now has US$8.7 billion under management, including deferred fees, Pattison said on Monday.

Last year it made 17.2 per cent, in 1996 it was down 1.5 per cent and in 1995 it earned 39 per cent.

Quantum Industrial Holdings, with assets of about US$2 billion, saw a 19 per cent fall in its value as of last Thursday, according to Soros Fund Management. That compares poorly with returns of 49.8 per cent in 1995, 16.6 per cent in 1996 and 21.9 per cent in 1997.

The Quasar fund, meanwhile, has lost 18.8 per cent of its value this year, with assets of US$969 MILLION AS OF LAST Thursday.

That compares with returns of eight per cent last year, 8.5 per cent in 1996 and 47.5 percent in 1995.

This year's lacklustre performance at Quantum Emerging Growth, which had US$1.5 billion under management as of last week, contrasts starkly with the fund's high returns of 22.3 per cent in 1997, 37.9 per cent in 1996 and 21.6 per cent in 1995.

While the emerging markets have not been kind to Soros, some significant US investments have not gone well, either.

The Soros funds, for example, have invested in Waste Management Inc, the Houston waste company, which has performed poorly. Pattison declined to comment on that investment on Monday. — NYT

[END OF QUOTING]

What about the thousands of people in these funds? There is no mention about what happens to those as companies are closed and losses are absorbed. It is as if the RTC is again at work—and just after wiping out billions of dollars and thousands or hundreds of thousands of people's property—“Oops, it's all gone, and we all fall down!” No, the big bad wolves do NOT fall down—only you little chickens in the coop are caught in the “oops” wringout.

And why do you suppose that RIGHT NOW when things are so rough out in the hinterlands—such as Soros and Kissinger get top billing in foreign press and media? And, oh yes indeed, it is a fact that within the past few days there is a full quarter-page from Kissinger hitting the IMF and suggesting major changes in same. Kissinger? What has Kissinger to do with ANYTHING about the world government, the US government, or any other government? Kissinger WAS a political appointee of an administration now gone from power—or is it gone from power? Kissinger Associates will be found in every questionable place where business is done. Remember that Kissinger is even a high-level participant in American Express, not to mention the running of nations—i.e. planned and orchestrated SOMALIA and other hapless victims of his KISSINGER ASSOCIATES.

We will note that the world is in severe crisis every direction you look and you will find the same players have insured that exact intent be realized. The Bilderbergs and Committee of 300 rule the world and the waves, readers, and that is where you encounter such as Kissinger, Volcker, Rockefeller, et al., in the top positions around the globe. These are Satan's children all the way. Still wonder who runs the world?

Oh well! Salu.

GET EDUCATED PROPERLY
IF YOU WANT TO SURVIVE
THE GETCHAS AND GOTCHAS

If I have failed to make the players clearly defined in the years of writing on the topic of Christ (all goodly God-respecting people) and the Antichrist players who have gained control of your world, and now seem to hold the cards for insuring your demise, I will try to do a bit better.

First, however, I will again spell out the outline of the Protocols Of The Learned Elders Of Zion of the Talmudic Jews (now called Jews). Perhaps you will be able to better understand, if you are a newcomer to my work, the circumstance in which the free-world of humankind now finds itself experiencing. It is hard to know your enemy when the enemy takes on the costumes and the labels of yourself, and then turns and accuses you of your own abuses.

Then I intend to simply offer a writing from Reuters news agency out of New York City (World Headquarters of the commercial-mercenary Jeus). Please do not correct my spelling of "Jeu", for it is correct, for I speak not of some tribe of people having had the fortune or misfortune to have been somehow within the line of Israeli Semite. These TWO factions are NOT THE SAME.

[QUOTING, BIRTHING THE PHOENIX, Vol. 3, A Phoenix Journal, by Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn, 1998:]

[H: To simplify and shorten the terribly long and tedious writings of the Protocols Of Zion, I will offer a listed short reference as was offered by Rabbi Reichhorn in Prague, 1869. This has been offered many other times in Rockefeller journals and publications, Rothschild publications, and basically the New World Order with the usual denial, lies, hedging and threats of violence against any who would dare to bring forth any kind or element of truth and upset the PLAN 2000 to take control of the globe—you know, Earth. Well, right down the list you will find they have SUCCEEDED and you find yourselves in the very last few months of possibilities of doing anything about your plight.]

FUNERAL ORATION:
RABBI REICHHORN
RE: GRAND RABBI
SIMEON-ben-IHUDA

1. Every hundred years, We, the Sages of Israel, have been accustomed to meet in Sanhedrin in order to examine our progress towards the domination of the world which Jehovah [H: Also recognized as Lucifer, the Morning Star, Satan, Shatan, etc.] has promised us, and our conquests over the enemy—Christianity.

[H: BIG STOP RIGHT HERE! WHEN REFERRING TO "CHRISTIANS" IT IS MANDATORY THAT ALL PEOPLE KNOW THAT TO THE GROUP HERE QUOTED, GOY, GOYIM, GOI, CHRISTIAN, ISLAMIC, GENTILE, ETC., ETC. ARE OF THE SAME DEFINITION. IN OTHER WORDS, ANYONE OR BODY NOT A JEU IS A GENTILE, GOY, CHRISTIAN, ETC. THIS COMES FROM THE FACT THAT ALL GOD-RESPECTING (AS IN CREATOR) RELIGIONS FOLLOW THE TEACHINGS OF GOODNESS WHICH ARE REFLECTIVE OF THE "CHRIST" TEACHINGS. "CHRIST" IS NOT A NAME, BUT A DESIGNATION OF STATUS OR RESPECT AS IN ANY LANGUAGE WHERE A PERSON HAS A TITLE OF RESPECT IN ACCOMPLISHMENT. IT IS NOT A NAME, BUT RATHER, A "STATE OF SPIRITUAL BEING".]

2. This year, united over the tomb of our reverend Simeon-ben-Ihuda, we can state with pride that the past century has brought us very near to our goal, and that this goal will be very soon attained.

3. Gold always has been and always will be the irresistible power. Handled by expert hands it will always be the most useful lever for those who possess it, and the object of envy for those who do not. With gold we can BUY THE MOST REBELLIOUS CONSCIENCES, CAN FIX THE RATE OF ALL VALUES, THE CURRENT PRICE OF ALL PRODUCTS, CAN SUBSIDIZE ALL STATE LOANS, AND THEREAFTER HOLD THE STATES AT OUR MERCY. [H: In other words—get control of the money and the currency and bring it under total control of the few.]

4. Already the principal banks, the exchanges of the entire world, the credits of all the governments, ARE IN OUR HANDS. [H: Come on, readers, this was stated in 1869!]

5. The other great power is THE PRESS. By repeating without cessation certain ideas, the Press succeeds in the end in having them accepted as actualities. The Theatre renders us analogous services. Everywhere the Press and the Theatre obey our orders. (There was no "radio" or "TV" at the time.)

[H: This is very important, readers, to realize that the Press and the Theatre were the ONLY media of the day and still the Elite were able to gain control of the minds of the people easily and thoroughly. I cannot urge you strongly enough to get the series of books, BIRTHING THE PHOENIX (4 vols.) and RISE OF ANTICHRIST (4 vols.). [See Back Page for ordering information.]

Today, in 1998, there is 100 percent control of ALL MEDIA with an effort to suppress and control all publications and news outlets.]

6. By the ceaseless praise of DEMOCRATIC RULE we shall divide the Christians into political parties; we shall destroy the unity of their nations; we shall sow discord everywhere. Reduced to impotence, they will bow before the LAW OF OUR BANK, always united, and always devoted TO OUR CAUSE.

7. We shall force the Christians [H: Remember now: "Christian" refers to all humans who ARE NOT JEUS (JEWS).] into wars by exploiting their pride and their stupidity. They will massacre each other, and clear the ground for us to put our own people into.

[H: Another comment, please, regarding the direct use here of the term "Christian". You must, in other lands with religions which hold a majority, e.g., Malaysia where the recognized predominant religion is Muslim, understand that this particular speech was being made in and for the purpose of the U.S.A. wherein the largest numbers of citizens were assumed to be Christians. These shrewd manipulators never miss a trick.]

8. The possession of the land has always brought influence and power. In the name of Social Justice and Equality we shall parcel out the great estates; we shall give the fragments to the peasants who covet them and all their powers, and who will soon be in debt to us by the expense of cultivating them. Our capital will make us their masters. We in our turn shall become the great proprietors, and the possession of the land will assure the power to us.

9. LET US TRY TO REPLACE THE CIRCULATION OF GOLD WITH PAPER MONEY; OUR CHEST WILL ABSORB THE GOLD, AND WE SHALL REGULATE THE VALUE OF THE PAPER WHICH WILL MAKE US MASTERS OF ALL THE POSITIONS.

10. We count among us plenty of orators capable of feigning enthusiasm and of persuading mobs. We shall spread them among the people to announce changes which should secure the happiness of the human race. By gold and by flattery we shall gain the proletariat which will charge itself with annihilating Christian capitalism. We shall promise workmen salaries of which they have never dared to dream, but we shall also raise the price of necessities so that our profits will be greater still.

11. In this manner we shall prepare Revolutions which the Christians will make themselves and of which we shall reap the fruit.

12. By our mockeries and our attacks upon them we shall make their priests ridiculous—then odious, and their religion as ridiculous and as odious as their clergy. Then we shall be masters of their SOULS. For our pious attachment to our own religion, to our own worship, will prove the superiority of our religion and the superiority of our souls. [H: NOTE A TOTAL LACK OF REFERENCE TO SPIRITUAL OR MORAL VALUES.]

13. We have already established our own men in all important positions. We must endeavor to provide the Goyim with lawyers and doctors; the lawyers are au curant with our interests; doctors, once in the house, become confessors and directors of consciences.

14. But above all let us monopolize Education. By this means we spread ideas that are useful to us, and shape ideas that are useful to us, and shape the children's brains as suits us.

15. If one of our people should unhappily fall into the hands of justice amongst the Christians, we must rush to help him; find as many witnesses as he needs to save him from his judges, until we become judges ourselves.

16. The monarchs of the Christian world, swollen with ambition and vanity, surround themselves with luxury and with numerous armies. We shall furnish them with all the money their folly demands, and so shall keep them in leash.

17. Let us take care not to hinder the marriage of our men with Christian girls, for through them we shall get our foot into the most closely locked circles. If our daughters marry GOYIM they will be no less useful, for the children of a Jewish mother are ours. Let us foster the idea of free love, that we may destroy among Christian women attachment to the principles and practices of their religion.

18. For ages past the sons of Israel, despised and persecuted, have been working to open up a path to power. They are hitting the mark. They control the economic life of the accursed Christians; their influence preponderates over politics and over manners.

19. At the wished-for hour, fixed in advance, we shall let loose the Revolution, which by ruining all classes of Christianity will definitely enslave the Christians to US. [H: And of course that means the whole of the Global Community as well; but if you can destroy the "Christian" U.S., you don't have any problem with the rest of the world—DO YOU?] Thus will be accomplished the promise of God made to His People.

[END OF QUOTING]

Please take time to go back and re-read the above 19 items and you will realize the fox is now in the chicken-house eating the chickens. And since I am in Malaysia, I will take an opportunity to show you how the game works in the business circles of those Elite manipulators—so that the personal recognition might come home to roost on the right sets of eyes and ears.

It is known that Salomon Smith Barney have become the "advisers" and financial experts hired by the Malaysian government to organize and structure a solution to the monetary problems foisted off onto unsuspecting and innocent people. Really? Let me just show you a good example right from your own paper to prove the point of the above 19 items which might otherwise slip by your attention, what with all the merging, divorcing, capturing, manipulations, and thus and so of banks, corporations, markets, brokerage houses and you name it!

Salomon Brothers was, prior to the hedge fund and derivatives rip-off business, in the Savings and Loan strip-the-people business and cost multi-billions upon billions of dollars in loss. They don't even change their game—just their name and team-mates to give them more and bigger circles through which to surround you and eat you alive.

This year "All Satan's Day" (Halloween) might have a whole different meaning to you who are paying the price of being the dinner for the vampires and ghouls.

Please read the next with a realization that even your Dr. Mahathir in Malaysia said the bailout of LTCM WAS A TERRIBLE THING. He also, however, seems to, at least publicly, relate to Salomon Smith Barney. No, you cannot have it BOTH WAYS, for it simply is still the nest of vipers with whom you are dealing.

[QUOTING, New Straits Times, Oct. 31, 1998:]

SOME WALL STREET FIRMS HAD
'PREVIEW OF LTCM BOOKS'

[H: So what else is new—they are all the SAME THING!]

NEW YORK: Several Wall Street firms got a sneak preview of Long-Term Capital Management's books prior to a decision by a group of banks to bail out the troubled hedge fund for US$3.5 billion (RM13.3 billion), sources said on Thursday.

Goldman Sachs, J.P. Morgan & Company Inc. and Merrill Lynch and Co Inc, which are each giving US$300 million to keep LTCM afloat, talked with the fund about its risk positions and losses in late summer, sources familiar with the situation said.

Two billionaire investors—George Soros and Warren Buffett—also got reports on the fund's positions in August, with an eye towards making bids that never came about, sources said. [H: And yet, less than three days ago in this same paper came the word that Buffett was probably going to buy LTCM. And THAT, readers, is from this same horse's mouth! Could something be afool here?]

LTCM's losses and its sudden bail-out, led by the US Federal Reserve Bank [H: Also a PRIVATE BANK OWNED BY THESE SAME THUGS.], rocked the world's markets in September.

THE FUND, RUN BY FORMER STAR, SALOMON BROTHERS BOND TRADER JOHN MERIWETHER, AND OTHER TOP WALL STREET MINDS, WAS ALREADY STRUGGLING WITH LOSSES BY AUGUST AND TALKED WITH PARTIES, INCLUDING GOLDMAN, J.P. MORGAN, SOROS AND BUFFETT, ABOUT RAISING EQUITY.

LTCM said on Sept. 2 its net asset value had fallen by 50 per cent since the start of the year.

Then, on Sept. 23 came the shocking disclosure that a group of 14 banks, at the behest of the Fed, would inject more than US$3.5 billion into LTCM because the fund's collapse would have been too much for world markets.

Merrill, which said on Thursday it first saw LTCM's documents detailing its holdings on Sept. 21, said later that on Sept. 9 its corporate credit department paid a visit to the fund's Greenwich headquarters, disturbed by the fund's losses.

"On Sept. 9, we had a meeting in Greenwich that was a credit due diligence meeting to discuss credit issues and the status of the trading relationship," a Merrill spokesman said.

"Other firms that did business with them had identical meetings with them the same week for the same reasons."

Merrill, which has a fully collateralized exposure of US$1.4 billion to LTCM, said it had no meetings with the fund in August, denying a report in Britain's Financial Times that its staff as well as J.P. Morgan's, visited LTCM's Greenwich office then. [H: My, they can't even keep their lies straight can they? And you would have these cheats and liars running YOUR BUSINESS?]

"There was contact," a Merrill spokesman said. "There was an ongoing client relationship with which we had more than US$1 billion in positions, but there were no meetings." [H: Are these liars lawyers or what? Is this like, "well, we had oral relations but no sexual relationship" as with Billy Zipper? THESE ARE THE SAME PEOPLE WHO RULE YOUR WORLD, WORLD.]

Goldman, which tried to buy LTCM with Buffett and American International Group, as well as J.P. Morgan had advance access to LTCM's trading information through meetings with the fund, sources said.

Goldman denied comment, as did J.P. Morgan. Morgan said it had adequate firewalls in place within the firm to prohibit one part of the firm from discussing confidential information with another part of the company. [H: SAY WHAT?]

Spokesmen for LTCM and for the consortium of banks involved in the rescue also declined comment.

A Soros spokesman and Buffett were not immediately available for comment.

The finer details of the fund's positions have been kept secret by the 14 firms involved in the bail-out, and barriers have been set up for fear that traders, learning of LTCM's positions, might try to front-run the market.

Several sources familiar with the situation said Goldman and Buffett talked with LTCM about its positions in late August.

However, one source familiar with the situation said Meriwether first tried to call Goldman chairman Jon Corzine about raising money on either Sept. 10 or 11, but Corzine was not in the country.

Goldman then sent staff up to Greenwich on Sept. 13 to review information about the fund's positions and risks, the source said.

On Sept. 17, Meriwether came down to Goldman's New York headquarters to discuss options and over that weekend Corzine made calls to other firms, starting the ball rolling on the big capital infusion.

On Sept. 21, Merrill, Union Bank of Switzerland, Goldman and J.P. Morgan sent teams up to LTCM headquarters to review the books.

The next day Deutsche Bank AG joined in and gradually the consortium formed, a source said.

J.P. Morgan was also approached by LTCM about helping the fund raise equity in mid-August, sources familiar with the situation said.

While LTCM approached different parties about getting capital, the markets continued to deteriorate and the fund's positions worsened to the point of near-collapse.

The consortium now has six representatives directly overseeing the trading strategy and working in Greenwich with Meriwether [H: Remember: Salomon Bros. of Salomon Smith Barney—Malaysia's advisers through this "economic crunch".] and his recently reduced staff, as well as a larger board of directors made up of 14 representatives from the different financial firms. — Reuters

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, I ask you, is this not just the most interesting can of worms?

Do you REALLY THINK the adversary and guilty parties in Malaysia's mess don't get instant and constant updates on every move the ministers and political leaders MAKE? Don't you think that Anwar [Malaysia's jailed former Deputy Prime Minister; see the 10/20/98 special issue of CONTACT on Malaysia] has all the information before it cools? How can you run a nation while the wolves are chewing on your bones after digesting all the flesh from your bodies?

Don't you KNOW that the entire world of financial demons are pushing and manipulating the public in every detail to cause gross uprisings and chaos over Anwar, who WAS ONE OF THEM? It is not that they protect Anwar because of Anwar—it is to keep themselves from in front of the firing squads.

Well, I am just about to the end of making special efforts to assist because my team comes under such attack and discrediting by these criminals in high places with access to the eyes and ears of those who can make a difference.

Do you ACTUALLY BELIEVE the foxes who have killed your chickens want to help you replace them or bring them back to life? No, the point is to finish you off. These bastards from hell don't like us because we ended their fun and games with the "Superfund" that was able to build an empire big enough to suck you all into the trap and then chew you up and spit you out.

I certainly do suggest that you people start reading the Phoenix Journals just as fast as ever your little eyes can travel across the print because you are just about to drown with your last gasp at breath being sucked out as we write.

I ask that this be immediately sent to the Prime Minister's office for hand delivery ASAP. The next few days could be a time of total recovery of course correction for this nation, and in turn ALL NATIONS, or it will be that the opportunity will be lost to the focus on chaos and confusion as you are further manipulated by the PUPPET MASTERS.

Thank you and good afternoon, GCH.

11/2/98 #2 HATONN

TODAY IN MALAYSIA

Today at least opens, and may finish, the first flap in the Anwar case. I find that Malaysia is not on trial but rather the IMF, World Bankers, World Order, Elite and MEDIA—international world media of every type.

The lies and half truths being foisted off onto the world by press, television, radio and Internet is enough to cause serious concern to the most naive world citizens. I SUGGEST STRONGLY THAT ALL OF YOU GO WATCH AND RE-WATCH WAG THE DOG, the movie. WHAT IN THE WORLD DOES IT REQUIRE FOR YOU PEOPLE TO SEE TRUTH? THE CULPRITS AND MANIPULATORS EVEN GIVE YOU A FULL VIEWING AND SHOW YOU TRUTH—AND YOU LAUGH AND STILL BITE ON EVERY IDIOTIC THING TRIED ON YOU.

Now, what is happening in Kuala Lumpur and Anwar's big war? Nothing. It is assumed that his trial is under way and if the public gets out of control, the LAW WILL HANDLE IT! If the man is ultimately found innocent, he will walk out a free man. If the man is found guilty, he will be treated as any other criminal according to the laws of the land. THE WORLD SHOULD TAKE LESSONS.

And what of all that blathering on the international media's hot-lines? Well, I guess there will be the liars and cheats on every occasion where the manipulators can make their point. It is working in Malaysia that Reuters is getting a nice bump in honor ratings for "trying" to tell some of the truth some of the time but AP is showing its total incapability of printing truth at all. That comes from taking input from such as we have had to face along the way from the Abbotts who lie to the AP reporters, etc.

From the Internet comes one from a computer in the US—shipped to us here on the yesterday. And I fully intend to reprint it here (only for teaching purposes for the honoring of copyright laws). The teaching involved: It doesn't help to copyright truth for it bears no ability for copyrighting if it indeed be a simple statement of truth. If it bears a copyright and threats when it covers TRUTH—you can be sure it is a LIE. This, then, is recognized immediately as a LIE directly from the AP network.

I requested the search be made because of the damage being caused in this city by such outrageous garbage. In the taxis there were even rumors that there was a bomb placed to blow up the Petronas Twin Towers and other shopping malls. Remember that the Twin Towers are the tallest and most magnificent buildings in the world! The information was claimed to have come from the international Internet. So, I asked our people to search, and after a couple of hours of intense search, the following was found and sent.

[QUOTING, Internet, Oct. 31, 06:27 EST:]

[H: Other teaching properties involved here are facts from eyewitness experience of my own TEAM PRESENT AT THE SITE, that the entire offering is not factual.]

MALAYSIAN POLICE BRACE FOR PROTESTS

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—Hundreds of police carrying automatic rifles circled the world's tallest building today, bracing for another round of anti-government protests.

[H: LIE! OUR PEOPLE CAN SEE THE STREETS ENCIRCLING THE TOWERS COMPLEX, THE PEOPLE FLOW, AND WHAT IS TAKING PLACE—FROM THEIR OWN HOTEL ROOMS. OOPS??]

The show of force at the Petronas Twin Towers came ahead of a planned visit by embattled Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamed.

[H: LIE! MAHATHIR HAD A FULL SCHEDULE OF APPEARANCES ALL WEEK-END AND NONE OF THEM WERE AT THE PETRONAS TOWERS. FURTHER, ANWAR MAY BE EMBATTLED—PRIME MINISTER MAHATHIR IS NOT! HE IS ENJOYING MORE RESPECT AND REVERENCE, ALONG WITH APPRECIATION, THAN ANY MAN ON THE GLOBE DURING THIS ECONOMIC CRISIS. THE LAW WILL TAKE CARE OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES AND THEY WILL ALSO HANDLE ANY UPRISINGS CAUSED BY THE HOODS IN CAUSING CHAOS AND INCITING PROBLEMS. IT IS NOW KNOWN AND IDENTIFIED AS TO PARTICIPANTS, THAT "FOREIGNERS" WERE MAJOR INSTIGATORS IN ANY UNLAWFUL GATHERINGS THUS FAR AND MANY HAVE BEEN ARRESTED AND/OR ARE UNDER CONSTANT SURVEILLANCE.

DOES THIS MEAN NOTHING CAN HAPPEN OF UNTOWARD ASSAULTS? NO, IT MEANS THAT THE WORLD WILL KNOW WHO DID IT, HOW AND WHY! IT IS BRINGING TRUTH TO A WORLD AND LIGHT TO THE FACTS THAT WILL BE THE UNDOING OF THE CRIMINAL ELEMENTS IN THIS WORLD TAKEOVER PLAN.]

Dozens of police took up positions around shopping malls in downtown Kuala Lumpur, another planned venue for today's demonstrations. A surveillance helicopter hovered overhead and police trucks with water cannons stood by.

[H: LIES! There were perhaps more police present in the public areas but they carried nothing more than ordinary daily wear and certainly were not apparently being anything other than their usual gracious and generously friendly selves—AND OUR PEOPLE WERE THERE IN THE MIDDLE OF THE BIGGEST BUMIPUTRA (PEOPLE'S) MALL IN THE CITY—TO HAVE LUNCH AND GET COMPUTER SUPPLIES. NO TRUCKS, NO MOTORCYCLES, NO HIGH-SPEED HORSES OR CAMELS, NO HIDDEN DONKEYS FOR SLOW CHASE, NO CANNONS—WATER OR OTHERWISE, AND NOTHING EVEN REMOTELY INTERESTING TAKING PLACE. AND THIS MALL IN POINT IS ONLY BLOCKS FROM THE VERY INCARCERATION PLACE OF SAID "PUT-UPON" ANWAR!]

Street protests have become common in Malaysia since Anwar Ibrahim was fired from his post as deputy prime minister, then arrested on Sept. 20. Demonstrators have demanded justice for Anwar and the ouster of Mahathir.

[H: LIES! There simply are no "street protests"—period. If little groups gather here and there—it is so well contained and hidden as to be ridiculous. The pictures shown to the world are the same ones from months ago and that never even made itself known at the games where it was supposed to have torn up the whole games and in front of the Queen (of England) yet. Anwar was fired, yes, but he was not arrested until much later, and then he was arrested for inciting riots whereat he was the ring-leader demanding to "be arrested". So, the police arrest him under a law that ANWAR HAD PUSHED THROUGH THE LEGISLATURE! Believe me, readers, no "demonstrators" are demanding JUSTICE for Anwar lest he be hanged at dawn. They are demanding, if anything, injustice be handled like in the U.S.A. and England. No citizen wants the ouster of Mahathir—HE SAVED THEIR VERY ASSETS AND ASSES WHILE ANWAR GOT IN BED WITH ANYONE HE COULD, AS WELL AS THE HOODS FROM THE IMF AND OUR OWN CORRUPT PEOPLE LIKE ALBRIGHT, COHEN, RUBIN, ETC. ANWAR SHOULD BE TRIED FOR ABSOLUTE TREASON AS SHOULD YOUR PLAYERS IN THE USA.]

With Anwar's trial on charges of corruption and sodomy to begin Monday, tension has blanketed the capital. Anwar says he is innocent and claims the charges are politically motivated.

Riot police have warned they will come down hard on participants in the banned anti-government protests. [H: HOORAY!]

“Our uppermost concern is to ensure public order in or outside the court and we reckon the trial will proceed smoothly,” said police chief Abdul Rahim Noor.

[H: Golly gee, could it be that Mahathir isn't going to behead anyone or beat anyone personally "to a pulp"?)

A riot—the first in nearly three decades in Malaysia—broke out last week [H: LIE, LIE, LIE, LIE, LIE!] after police fired tear gas and water cannons at protesters at a neighborhood mosque.

[H: STOP RIGHT HERE. THE FACT THAT THIS IS A BUNCH OF HOOEY IS BEYOND THE POINT BUT THERE HAVE BEEN INCIDENTS OF THESE HOOLIGANS USING MOSQUES AS STAGING AREAS. NOW, WHO WOULD DO SUCH A THING AS TO DESPOIL A MUSLIM MOSQUE? (THINK HARD, YOU KNOW, ABOUT THINGS LIKE DOME OF THE ROCK, JERUSALEM, ETC.) THESE INSIPID "WARRIORS" FOR "TRUTH, JUSTICE AND ORDER"—WENT INSIDE THE MOST HOLY PLACES OF THE PEOPLE IN THIS CITY TO TAKE THEIR NASTY AND DIRTY TRASHING. THE POLICE HAD TO REMOVE THEM AND DID SO IN A VERY ORDERLY MANNER. THIS WOULD BE THE APPROXIMATE SAME THING TO HAVE TAKEN UP A WAR IN THE CATHEDRAL OF GOD OR THE CRYSTAL CATHEDRAL—OR THE MUSLIMS TO MOVE INTO THE TEMPLE OF SOLOMON. WHAT IS WRONG WITH YOU BLIND PEOPLE? HOW DARE YOU PUT YOUR FILTH ONTO EVERYTHING YOU TOUCH? I CAN'T EVEN BEGIN TO SPEAK ABOUT THIS QUIETLY AND WITHOUT PASSION—FOR YOU HAVE GONE TOO FAR THIS TIME, GOOD BUDDIES OF THE ADVERSARY. THESE ARE MY PLACES WHICH ARE DESPOILED BY THE FILTH OF THE ADVERSARY, AND BEFORE THIS ENDS SO TOO SHALL END THE REIGN OF TERROR OF THAT ADVERSARY—COUNT ON IT!]

Demonstrators responded by hurling stones and bricks. Hundreds of people have been detained in the unrest.

[H: Well, a few people were detained and, yes indeed, this fine upstanding group of demonstrators did hurl bricks and rocks—at the police for doing their job and removing the insipid intruders from the mosque.]

On Friday, human rights activists blamed the police for instigating the violence.

[H: How gullible do these idiots think you people to be? This is like blaming the police for stopping the criminal from killing more than the people in the crowd he has already managed to massacre.]

“My appeal to calm and tolerance would be to the police, who are behaving like thugs instead of law enforcers,” said Tien Chua, a spokesman for the human rights group SUARAM.

[H: The very statement itself SPEAKS FOR ITSELF as does the reference to this "Chua" and the group "SUARAM", a group fully controlled and operated by Anwar Ibrahim and his silent thug gangs.]

Mahathir on Friday called on the foreign media to give a balanced report on the demonstrations.

[H: My goodness, would that not be refreshing? How many of you informed people ever expect that to happen? People, this Malaysian government under this Godly leader can, and very well probably will, topple the entire New World Order—not bad for a few months work!]

[H: Now watch the goodies at the bottom of this paper—so the sorry bastards can cover their asses. Please do not correct my English.]

[END OF QUOTING]

By the way, anyone who wants to go to the trial can certainly go and will be denied entrance only if they are “packing heat” or other nasties. People can stand around outside as long as they are not organized into UNLAWFUL gatherings to incite or commit rioting. This is to protect the public and you tell me what the police are FOR if not for this very purpose—protection of the citizens?

NOW I REPEAT: GO WATCH, TWICE, WAG THE DOG! AND IF YOU DON'T GET THE PLAYERS IN THE GAME—GO WATCH IT AGAIN.

Now, let us offer a bit of other commentary on the topic of the handling of the currency measures adopted by Prime Minister Mahathir:

[QUOTING, New Straits Times, Monday, November 2, 1998:]

US don: DR. MAHATHIR'S
MOVE SHREWD,
TIMING IMPECCABLE

The currency exchange rate control measures adopted by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr. Mahathir Mohamad is now hailed as “his most important” contribution to international economy.

Seen as a defensive move driven primarily by domestic political calculation could very well help rewrite the rules of global economy.

Writing in the Sept. 28 issue of TIME magazine's “Viewpoint” column, Jeffrey A. Winters said: “You don't have to be a Mahathir fan to acknowledge that his move was shrewd and his timing impeccable.”

Winters, a professor of political economy at Northwestern University in the United States, wrote, “With the International Monetary Fund and World Bank damaged and in disarray, with establishment economists more confused and contentious than at any time in the past half-century, and with Japan, Russia, China and even the United States facing escalating economic danger, Mahathir saw he could act with impunity.”

The widening crisis, that started in Asia, was rewriting the rules of international economy and they all would be studying how Malaysia fared, Winters said.

By taking Malaysia off-line, a new and significant political-economic space had been carved open for government leaders eager to reclaim some control over their economies.

The limits set on external financial links, even for a few years, would give the world evidence on the range of responses to gyrations of capital in today's international economy.

Winters said it was government decisions and policies that set the terms for the huge daily movement of investment funds into and out of countries and trade in national currencies.

Disputing critics such as IMF's deputy managing director Stanley Fisher who called Dr. Mahathir's move “retrograde”, Winters said Fisher “could only bark and not bite”.

Controllers of private capital, Winters adds, were also powerless to unleash their standard barrage of punishments of threatening to withdraw resources because “they have already done that”.

Dire warnings that Malaysia had seriously damaged its reputation among global investors also rang empty.

“By the time this economic crisis subsides and capital starts flowing again in earnest to emerging markets, Mahathir will likely be at the end of his political career.

“Malaysia will still be an inviting place to invest. As the country gradually reengages, the new government can blame the old one for any sins, and investors, assuming their memories are that long or that they even care, will come back with enthusiasm.”

[H: Hummnnn—, seems that just this very day in the information on business subject—it is recognized that some of the most outrageous of Microsoft (you know, Billy Gates' little company) is going to go gangbusters in Malaysia's new “Corridor”. Look out, world, why do you think Microsoft is on the court circuit these days—and wouldn't you get out of the old USA IF YOU HAD A BUSINESS BEING KILLED BY SUCH ACTIVITIES? OPEN YOUR EYES, VIEWIERS—YOU CAN'T “SEE” WITH THEM SHUT!]

Comparing responses to the crisis, Winters said IMF's prescription for Indonesia was not working. This was in spite of having thrown off a dictator. Indonesia was still riding a roller-coaster ride of economic default and instability.

While more moderate, Thailand had also had one change of government but was discreetly abandoning the letter and spirit of the IMF cure by trying economic stimulation instead.

[H: Will somebody please show them that I have better solutions to their problems?]

Malaysia, not having received any aid from the IMF, had decided to stimulate its economy in an environment that was less exposed to the uncertainties of cross-border capital movements.

While Indonesia and Thailand continue to endure jolts and surges across their borders, Dr. Mahathir was hopeful that limiting capital transactions would buy stability.

“Mahathir knows all eyes are on him,” Winters wrote.

[END OF QUOTING]

I ask that this be gotten particular attention so that it can be sent for THIS WEEK'S CONTACT. How effectively and efficiently we accomplish our network opportunities depends on our ability to move rapidly. Salu.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.
