Are We On The Verge Of Extinction

This Silent Night, Holy Night?

Early in a writing in last week’s CONTACT, Geophysical Commander Soltec made an interesting comment about this Holiday Season. In his inimitable way, he connected Mother Earth’s recent increasing level of shaking and volcanic eruptions (her rising “blood pressure”) with the growing emotional tensions around this “social” event. He explained the emotional tension as the gap between “what is” and “what we know, inside, ought to be” the state of our world.

He said: “Many feel ‘in the air’ a tension of underlying unrest and discontent, despite the superficial flurry of activity and glitter, as society continues to fall apart and spin downward into ever worsening moral decay—in blatant and unsettling contrast to the True Meaning of the Season.”

We did not have to proceed very far into the week following that writing to see some brutish examples of what he was talking about. First came the unconscionable bombing of Iraq. Then came the contrived House vote to impeach Clinton.

Longtime readers of CONTACT know well the implications of both of these events and the common, connected diabolical driving force behind them.

As Commander Hatonn mentions in a writing in this week’s paper: “You are, as a nation, in a war for your lives and souls, friends. I’d say the BEAR is being wagged, and that is not too healthy in this day and age. The attention is perhaps being changed from Viagra to ‘being royally screwed’. Welcome to Hell in Sodom and Gomorrah, human species. We

WEAPONS INSPECTOR SCOTT RITTER ACCUSED CLINTON OF BEING ON A WAG THE DOG SCHEDULE

Excerpted from the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <wrlldline@texas.net>, 12/18/98: [quoting]

Former chief U.N. weapons inspector Scott Ritter accused Clinton of being on a Wag The Dog schedule, saying U.S. officials created a crisis that would justify a bombing by pushing inspection teams to return to Iraq last month.

FIREFIGHTS IN GULF AND FIREWORKS IN CONGRESS

by TRACY CONNOR

It was a day of fast-breaking, wide-ranging developments as the White House juggled the deepening crises in Iraq and at home:

*Cruise missiles slammed into Iraq after President Clinton launched "Operation Desert Fox" with a surprise attack on Saddam Hussein for refusing to cooperate with United Nations weapon inspectors.

*House leaders delayed an impeachment vote against Clinton—deciding instead to vote today [12/17/98] on a resolution supporting American troops in the Persian Gulf.

*In a 15-minute address to the nation after the bombs started falling on Baghdad, the president denied the raids were a plot to divert attention from Sexgate.

*Top congressional GOP leaders, including Senate Majority Leader Trent Lott, were quick to criticize the timing of the attack. "Why now?" asked Rep. Gerald Solomon (R-N.Y.), who accused the president of trying to delay the impeachment vote. Democrats and some Republicans defended Clinton's decision.

*Defense Secretary William Cohen ordered a sharp increase in American air and ground forces in the Gulf, and officials said the bombing raids could last four days.

*Grim-faced Prime Minister Tony Blair announced Britain had joined in the attack against Iraq. "We have exhausted all other avenues," he said.

*U.N. weapons inspection teams were hurriedly evacuated from Baghdad in a convoy hours before the attack. The crisis reached a boiling point after a blistering report to the U.N. by chief arms inspector Richard Butler, who said the Iraqis had once again refused to cooperate by blocking access to sites and hindering inspections.

Former chief U.N. weapons inspector Scott Ritter accused Clinton of being on a "Wag the Dog" schedule, saying U.S. officials created a crisis that would justify a bombing by pushing inspection teams to return to Iraq last month [emphasis mine].

*Officials confirmed they timed the airstrikes so they would not interfere with the projected start of Ramadan, the Muslim holy month of dawn-to-dusk fasting, prayer and reflection.

*Hours before the strikes, Saddam told his country Iraq would not "kneel" before the United States. Iraqi radio reported he and his top aides were preparing for strikes by dividing the country into four regional commands.

*Early reaction to the strikes from U.S. allies was mixed—with Canada backing the military action while France tried to distance itself from the bombing, noting the "grave human consequences".

*Israeli defense chiefs met late into the night to prepare for possible retaliatory Scud attacks by Saddam Hussein in a replay of Desert Storm.

*The double whammy of Iraq and impeachment triggered a stock-market drop, with the Dow falling 32.70 to 8,790.60, although historically low oil prices and oil stocks were boosted by the latest Gulf crisis.

* Arab-Americans in New York expressed skepticism about the raids, as 80 protesters in Times Square blasted the United States, shouting "Let Iraq live."

*In Los Angeles, Hollywood stars including Ted Danson, Barbra Streisand and Jack Nicholson backed Clinton during an anti-impeachment rally.

*Officials said reputed terror boss Osama bin Laden has ordered new "unusually specific" attacks on American targets in the Persian Gulf. Meanwhile, five more fugitives were charged with the August attack on a U.S. Embassy in Tanzania, which bin Laden is accused of orchestrating. [End quoting]

Don't you just love how the "elite" bastards have so much compassion for Iraq's Ramadan holiday that they wanted to get the destruction, maiming and killing done before the holiday? Talk about sick minds! How can we Americans or anybody just sit and take this?

BABYLON WITH ELECTRONICS & INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

"THE GLOBAL FINANCIAL SYSTEM HAS FAILED..."

PRIME MINISTER OF AUSTRALIA
WAKES UP!

Excerpted from THE STRATEGY, Australia, Nov. 1998: [quoting]

POLITICALLY CORRECT

It's no longer "conspiracy theory". It's no longer "doom-saying". It is Politically Correct to say: "The Global Financial System Has Failed." It's OK, no need to be nervous about it, no need to look over your shoulder, or whisper it through the corner of your mouth—the Prime Minister actually said it on ABC AM. Some 12 days earlier, Alan Stokes wrote an exposé in THE AUSTRALIAN which revealed that the Global Financial System is 99% about laying bets with virtual money. "Playing games with virtual money" and even that "virtual money" is borrowed! While we were being told that "free" markets, deregulation of finance, aka financial reform or "globalisation", was the best thing since sliced bread, Stokes tells us that it is "playing games with virtual money".

Now, it is outrageous to even suggest that this "playing games with virtual money" and "borrowed virtual money" at that, could actually determine the value of a national currency. After all, Monopoly may be a popular game, but it doesn't bring down the Bank of England, right?

WRONG! Soros and his now-"sainted" friend Goldsmith actually did it!

The Global Financial System, we were told in the media only recently, is 99% Monopoly played with Monopoly Money, but up till now we were made to believe it was actually real money that was being transferred from nation to nation at the speed of light.

"Well," the media say now, "we are very sorry to have misled you. They were only bets, on the movement of the value of currencies and commodities." Of course they are only telling us part of the truth. The whole truth and the media are diametric opposites.

THE RACEHORSE & THE NATION

Now, if a lot of punters bet a lot of money on a horse to win, and the horse loses the race, that doesn't collapse the price of the horse. The racehorse is priced on its overall performance. The price of a racehorse is high because it is overall a winner.

Not so with an industrial nation. If a lot of punters lay bets on a currency failing, all of a sudden the value of that nation can be lowered by as much as 80%, i.e. Indonesia.

THE LIE, THE FRAUD, THE ECONOMIC CRIME

The horrible truth is that when it is reported that $2000 Billion money is traded each day, it is a lie. What is being "traded" is pieces of paper—sophisticated IOU's—being exchanged. These pieces of paper purport to transact astronomical amounts of money, but the trick is that each piece of paper (contract) is covered by another piece of paper saying the same in reverse. In actual fact it is only $1 to $2 billion per day that actually is moved for purposes of real trade. These tricksters are "selling" to (exchanging with) each other quantities of things they do not possess to sell. As a matter of fact the actual quantities claimed to have been moved DO NOT EXIST, there isn't that much of it in the world! Derivatives are claimed to be transactions but aren't. They are confidence tricks. And these confidence tricksters, trick us into believing that their game determines the value of the dollar, wheat, wool, coal, gold by pretending to 'trade' in those things when they are not! In the days of responsible financial supervision, such people would have been behind bars.

THE CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY

But, they were allowed to get away with trillions of hard earned Asian reserves, because they were allowed to make us believe their Monopoly game with Monopoly Money was the Real Thing. The confidence trick that closed warehouses and industries. Workers were unemployed. Food prices rose 400%, 500%! Hundreds of millions of people are now starving. The weak breed virulent diseases. Air travel spreads it. And, the developed world is misusing antibiotics. Moreover, the Western nations have a great deal of junk food, nicotine, alcohol and drug abuse, which results in lowered immunity. [End quoting]

It's about time the prime minister woke up to who his—and his people's—enemies are.

BANKING CRISIS
HITS PERU, ECUADOR.
FUJIMORI FORCED TO BUY BANKS'
NON-PERFORMING DEBT

From the INTERNET, Sofie Mattsson <sofiem@algonet.se>, 12/7/98: [quoting]

The crisis in Peru's banking sector which has been brewing for months, has now hit full force.

In neighboring Ecuador, rumor has it that the central bank is about to intervene in the country's largest bank, Filanbanco, which has half a million depositors. Last week, the central bank tried to bail it out with $150 million, but now appears ready to declare it insolvent. Two months earlier the Banco de Prestamos closed its doors. Paraguay is the other country whose banking system is also in crisis. Reviewing the regional situation, Peru's Sintesis warns that "the outbreak of a probable crisis approaches." Gestion includes a cartoon showing banks as falling dominos.

In Peru, the banks' estimated short-term foreign debt (in dollars) of $3.5 billion—total bank foreign debt is at least $5 billion—a drying-up of foreign credit lines and a run on mutual funds and deposits have combined to make for an explosive situation. On Nov. 23, the Banking Superintendent announced the intervention of the Banco Republica, whose investors are Chilean, while the Banco Latino was reportedly "informally" bailed out by the central bank. In a panic, President Alberto Fujimori announced in early December that all deposits would now be insured for up to 62,000 sols ($20,000—previously the ceiling was 14,000 sols). Then, last weekend, in a highly unusual move, the government announced it was buying up the banks' bad debt for $150 million, which would provide them with some liquidity, while offering another $140 million through the third reduction in the last several weeks of the reserve ratio (from 40.5 a 20%) [sic]. In any case, banking sources say that the $150 million is totally insufficient—banks had expected $500 million.

Now, a rash of mergers and acquisitions are expected, to pare down the size of the banking sector. Large banks have stopped lending to smaller ones. Some banks are also demanding that the government use some percentage of its reserves, which are deposited in Swiss banks, to provide liquidity, and also as collateral for new loans. However, most banks admit that were this to occur, they will use the funds to pay their foreign debt. [End quoting]

The IMF has the pressure on every country they possibly can to force their worldwide control, but thank God some are taking daring steps to stop this global raping.

IMF TRADE SURPLUS DEMAND
FROM BRAZIL FOR 1999, SUGGESTS
DEVALUATION PLANNED

From the INTERNET, Sofie Mattsson <sofiem@algonet.se>, 12/7/98: [quoting]

According to O Estado, the Dec. 2 IMF communique announcing the approval of the first loan for Brazil contained a surprise: the statement that Brazil would reach a $2.8 billion trade SURPLUS in 1999. Given that Brazil has been running record trade deficits each month in 1998, and is projected to run a $5.5 billion trade DEFICIT for the year, the only ways Brazil could achieve this conditionality would be to radically cut imports, either through a severe fall in domestic production, a maxi-devaluation (which would produce the same effect), or a combination of both. Thus, O Estado wrote, the IMF trade conditionality was read by "investors" as an indication that Brazil would have to maxi-devalue its currency.

The IMF communique specifies that imports will drop in 1999 by U.S.$4 billion over 1998 levels, and exports will increase by U.S.$3.8 billion. The latter assumption is ludicrous. 1998 exports are projected to come in at 1-2% below 1997 exports.

According to O Estado, the comment of the Minister of Trade, Commerce and Industry, Jose Botafogo Goncalves, on this part of the IMF communique was simply, "From what I know, this [$2.8 billion] estimate is an IMF exercise, and not our commitment." [End quoting]

Here is yet another example of the collapse of a country's economy, despite all the hot air in recent years over the benefits of NAFTA. The only winners are the "elite" crooks—as always.

RIO TINTO SET TO GOBBLE CHEAP ASSETS
IN GLOBAL RECESSION

From the INTERNET, Sofie Mattsson <sofiem@algonet.se>, 12/7/98: [quoting]

[Source: The Australian, by Matthew Stevens]

The Queen's mining company [emphasis mine], Rio Tinto, is preparing to seize growth opportunities created by what it publicly expects to be a "profound and prolonged" global economic recession in 1999. Rio Tinto's London-based chairman, Robert Wilson, said that if the U.S. economy contracted suddenly in 1999, "we are facing a very gloomy future." "The downside risk is very serious," he said.

"Looking into 1999, we are going to see an unusually low rate of global growth, only around 1.5%. I see 1999 as being quite unusual in terms of its outlook. It would not look like a great year in any circumstances, but it holds nasty possibilities on the downside."

Wilson went on to state that there were "three easily identifiable trigger points which could lead the global economy into a very profound recession, profound and prolonged," which he identified as: a collapse of the U.S. stock market, a slide of the Japanese economy from recession into depression, and a disintegration of the Brazilian economy, which could trigger a U.S. stock market crash.

Particularly referencing the collapse of the global steel market, Wilson attacked some countries' anti-dumping rules, which he described as "protectionism by another means", and said they concentrated the burden of recession. He also admitted that the steel collapse had impacted on the production of its Hamersley Iron Ore mine in Western Australia. Despite the gloomy outlook, Wilson stated that "the prospect of a global crunch had prompted the world's biggest miner to keep its takeover tinder dry in expectation a global downturn would throw up growth opportunities." [End quoting]

The Queen and her cohorts create a depression—not recession—and then buy everything for pennies on the dollar—like they did in 1929! BE PREPARED!!

WHEN TRUTH DEPARTS

From THE STRATEGY, Australia, by Paul von Stroheim, Nov. 1998: [quoting]

Yesterday Dr. Fredrick Toeben appeared before the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission (HREOC) here in Sydney in an action brought against him by the Australian Council of Jewry (ACJ) and B'nai B'rith.

Dr. Toeben runs the Internet website 'ADELAIDE INSTITUTE' and the ACJ asserts that many articles and statements made on this website are defamatory, insulting and hurtful to the Jewish community.

Around 25 people attended the hearing. The ACJ (Australian Council of Jewry) was represented by Mr. Jeremy Jones, Solicitor and Barristers Messrs. Peter Wertheim and Mr. Rothman and 3 other unidentified persons ... Dr. Toeben had 8 supporters in the room (including this author) the rest of the group was made up of members of the press.

Dr. Toeben started the proceedings by trying to extract an affirmation from the HREOC Commissioner, Ms. McEvoy, that TRUTH COULD BE USED AS A DEFENCE in the proceedings....

Commissioner McEvoy refused to give this assurance ... the more Dr. Toeben tried to get an assurance, the more the Commissioner continued to side-step the issue.

Dr. Toeben then contended that "IF TRUTH IS NOT A DEFENCE THEN THE LIE MUST PREVAIL and the proceedings must therefore be immoral..." He then walked out of the proceedings.

The outraged Jewish Solicitor Mr. Peter Wertheim ran out into the lobby to confront Dr. Toeben, berating Dr. Toeben about how the whole Wertheim family had been murdered in Crema 3 in Auschwitz, a somewhat unbelievable claim as Mr. Wertheim does not seem to be older than around 45 years old.

Despite the fact that Dr. Toeben had nothing to do with anything that occurred in Auschwitz, Mr. Wertheim became quite aggressive before rejoining his group.

A number of Newsgroups reported on the proceedings and surprisingly the ABC (Australian Broadcasting Corp) ran a quite balanced report about the proceedings, including an interview with Dr. Toeben, on the evening TV news.

We do not know how this affair will continue to develop; the Council of Australian Jewry may choose to force the matter into the Federal Court of Australia, in which case TRUTH must be a defense.... Or they may choose to pursue the matter through the HREOC by way of written submissions.... We will keep you informed! [End quoting]

Whether it is the 1920s attacks on Henry Ford Senior for printing The Truth or these recent attacks on Dr. Toeben, the goals of the dark liars remain the same. However, their arguments are becoming weaker and more silly as more ones stand up for The Truth.

THE MOUTH THAT BORED

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin

Burgin, <wrlldline@texas.net>, 12/14/98: [quoting]

Mynamar (Burma)—Vice President Al “Bore” Gore took time to criticize the tiny Far-Eastern dictatorship about human rights abuses, during the recent APEC conference. Mynamar is now showing they are not willing to simply cave in and have started to play their own “China” card.

Mynamar quietly responded to the Veep blowing wind by deploying two of its Chinese-built Hoxin class guided-missile boats. The MAGA and her sister ship SAITTRA deployed in simulated missile attacks against U.S. forces directly after Gore’s critical comments.

The tiny Mynamar Navy obtained a half dozen of the 478-ton Hoxin class missile boats from China between 1996 and 1997. Each ship is to be armed with four C.801 (CSS-N-4) Chinese cruise missiles, code named “Sardine” by NATO.

Mynamar had decided to not arm the boats after being pressed by the Clinton administration. However, Asian defense analysts now expect Mynamar to acquire the Chinese-made C.801 missiles because of the Gore tirade. [End quoting]

Again we are seeing more ones who are not acting so quietly or politely to the political puppets of the “elite” Zionists.

GORE IGNORED INTELLIGENCE REPORTS

From THE SPOTLIGHT, by Martin Mann, 12/14/98: [quoting]

SPOTLIGHT READERS ALREADY KNOW THE VEEP IS LINKED TO RUSSIAN CORRUPTION; NOW THE REST OF THE WORLD KNOWS.

Vice President Al Gore is deeply involved in a conspiracy with a syndicate of Zionist racketeers who plundered the Russian economy to the tune of hundreds of billions of dollars. The New York Times confirmed on Nov. 23.

The story of the vice president’s criminal alliance with a paper-thin upper crust of Moscow financiers who are stealing Russia blind, linked by their ethnic and emotional ties to Israel—by their Israeli passports—was broken by this populist newspaper in a series of exclusive investigative reports more than a month before the Times discovered the scandal.

“Among financial and political insiders in Moscow, Gore is known as ‘the Knuckle’, which is nineteenth century thief’s slang for the strong-arm attendant who used to accompany crooked Russian gamblers, serving tea with rum to card players oblivious of being ‘cheated’ and then protecting the sharpsters’ getaway in case of trouble.” The SPOTLIGHT revealed Sept. 28.

What Gore did was to “strike up a back-room alliance with some of the most rapacious and cunning self-promoters in Moscow, among them Victor Chernomyrdin, a longtime Soviet bureaucrat who had managed to turn Russia’s huge gas reserves into a corrupt personal fiefdom after the Communist regime’s collapse”, this populist newspaper reported in its groundbreaking exposé.

Backed by Gore’s unconditional endorsement, Chernomyrdin became prime minister of the Russian Federation and co-chairman with the U.S. vice president of a top Moscow “leadership commission” in charge of Russia’s democratization and economic reform [emphasis mine], The SPOTLIGHT disclosed.

With Gore providing political support, international legitimacy and economic credibility, “Chernomyrdin and his retinue—a clique of Zionist financiers backed by gangs of killer thugs—stole whatever they could, and what they did not steal, they corrupted,” this newspaper summed up, quoting a Russian sociologist.

Following the trail blazed by this populist newspaper, the Times revealed on Nov. 23 that over the years, Gore received voluminous hard intelligence summaries from the CIA documenting the “pervasive corruption and criminality of the regime he sponsored in Moscow”.

But the “conclusive evidence gathered by the CIA on the personal corruption of Prime Minister Victor Chernomyrdin was rejected by Vice President Al Gore, who sent it back to the CIA with a barnyard epithet scrawled across its cover,” the Times said.

“At CIA headquarters in Langley, Va., the message seemed clear: The vice president did not want to hear that Mr. Chernomyrdin was corrupt, and was not interested in further intelligence reports on the matter,” the imperious East Coast daily newspaper charged.

As a result, CIA analysts “now censor themselves” the Times said.

“When, for instance, the agency [CIA] found that it cost a German business executive a $1 million bribe just to get a meeting with Mr. Chernomyrdin, it decided not to circulate the report,” the Times imparted.

Belatedly, the New York newspaper acknowledged that another top Russian official, Anatoly B. Chubais, a front man for both Chernomyrdin and Wall Street currency speculator George Soros, was also identified as a crook in “many other CIA reports”.

What the Times did not mention was that until now, it was itself among the admirers of Chubais—one of the key Moscow power brokers said to hold a second passport from Israel—whom it hailed as “the architect of property privatization in Russia”.

That post-Communist “reform process”—now exposed as a vast organized-crime racket from which a handful of Zionist billionaires gouged hundreds of billions of dollars—netted Chernomyrdin himself a hidden personal fortune of at least $5 billion, the Times estimated this month. [End quoting]

With the Times reporting this it looks like Gore may have a hard time keeping the Presidency “if” he ever gets it. There are other indications certain powerful people want him in, but others definitely don’t. A battle royale is coming up!

CLINTON CRISIS: PHONE CALLS, E-MAIL, WIRES INUNDATE HOUSE OFFICES

From THE DAILY NEWS, Los Angeles, 12/16/98: [quoting]

An avalanche of telephone calls, e-mail and even old-fashioned telegrams poured into congressional offices Tuesday as people coast to coast sought to influence the House vote on impeaching President Clinton.

“Every time we hang up a line, it rings again,” said Leslie Belcher, spokeswoman for uncommitted Republican Rep. Wes Watkins of Oklahoma. “The one thing that is consistent is people feel very strongly about it.”

The House e-mail server, which normally processes about 80,000 electronic messages a day, handled more than 1 million Tuesday, almost double the 520,000 on Monday. Telephone calls to the main Capitol switchboard were double the normal volume at more than 14,000 Tuesday.

“It’s been very, very large, but we’re used to it,” said Jason Poblete, spokesman for the House Oversight Committee.

Some contacts were part of an orchestrated campaign by the liberal group People for the American Way, which opposes impeaching Clinton for his conduct in the Monica Lewinsky affair. The House will begin debating four articles of impeachment Thursday.

Using broadcast ads and phone banks in four major cities, the group claimed credit for generating more than 174,000 anti-impeachment calls over six days by providing a toll-free number that automatically routes callers to the Capitol switchboard.

“We’re telling them to use Westrem Union because you can’t get through to the Capitol anymore,” said Carol Shields, president of People for the American Way. “The e-mails they’re getting in Congress they’re not even reading anymore.”

Indeed, calls Tuesday to House and Senate offices in Washington were frequently met with the frustrating “all circuits are busy” recorded response.

Most lawmakers report a deep split among callers and people sending e-mail on whether to impeach or censure Clinton. It’s unclear how much impact they might be having. [End quoting]

It is clear from watching the hearings on television that those Representatives who are not completely bought-out through Zionist blackmail or bribery are well aware there is an overwhelming public opinion to back-off from a full impeachment. These representatives have to think hard about ignoring that magnitude of public input!

PRETTY SOON— NO MORE DISSIDENTS

Excerpted from the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <“wrlldline@texas.net>, 12/14/98: [quoting]

BEIJING, CHINA—During his last visit to China, Gore toasted Chinese President Jiang Zemin with champagne. The signal given by Gore is that America will not tolerate any half-efforts to abuse human rights... Only full scale, Orwellian nightmare, oppression on a massive scale is acceptable [emphasis mine].

Given the Gore green light—Red China has begun another round of arrests, bringing the recent total to 15 dissidents taken by communist police squads in the past two weeks. Two more dissidents, Lou Yugen and Wie Linwen, were detained by the People’s Armed Police (PAP) over the weekend. [End quoting]

Again we see the “elite” New World Order Zionist agenda being carried out through their puppets and prostitutes.

DEAD MONEY

From the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <“wrlldline@texas.net>, 12/14/98: [quoting]

Boeing's recent announcements of major cuts in their labor force are the only first round of bad news for the aerospace giant.

Lower than expected earnings from declining Asian sales projections have forced the Washington-based company to shed over 48,000 jobs.

Market analysts say Boeing is "in turmoil" and unable to reorganize because of mismanagement. Morgan Stanley analyst Pierre Chao said that anyone with Boeing stock is essentially "sitting on dead money".

Boeing is now expected to put its helicopter division up for sale. The Boeing chopper company has several big defense contracts such as the new Army Comanche light attack helicopter. [End quoting]

More signs of Willy's "booming economy".

FILTERING SOFTWARE SHOT DOWN

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 12/14/98: [quoting]

A U.S. district court judge in Alexandria, Va., has found that a county library board's decision to screen out Internet sites that it decided could be harmful to minors violated constitutional rights of free speech. The judge stated that it may be legal to use filtering software on computers set aside exclusively for minors, or to install a system that adults could disable. An attorney representing the group that filed the suit noted, "This is a landmark decision for the public libraries and mainstream citizens who want to decide for themselves what they want to read." [End quoting]

This sounds drastic to some, but remember the "elite" never stop once they get their foot in the door. They had already put filters on some library computers to prevent anyone from reading such material as The Spotlight—which most readers know as one of the most truth-telling publications available—which they don't like. And of course CONTACT is another one they would like to stop—by any means!!

It's up to the parents to do more to protect their children—the "elite" and their laws are not to be trusted to do that for you.

NO THANKS

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 12/14/98: [quoting]

British aid volunteers were threatened with imprisonment by United States immigration officials as they flew home from Honduras after helping victims of Hurricane Mitch. They were held for six hours and fined a total of $1,920. The group, members of the charity Rapid UK, were getting a lift home on a cargo plane owned by an Anglo-Russian company. During a stop at McConnell Air Force Base in Wichita, Kansas, an immigration officer said their paperwork was not in order. Meanwhile 1.5 million Mexicans, Asians and other "Third-Worlders" swarm into the country every year. [End quoting]

Would you say there's something fishy about this?

GRAVY TRAIN

From THE SPOTLIGHT, 12/14/98: [quoting]

It was reported that [Zionist puppet] Morris Dees and his cash cow, the Southern Poverty Law Center, raised more than $65 million to combat what he labels "hate" groups and "right-wing extremists" in his publication Klanwatch. Klanwatch has reportedly listed some 850 organizations under this category including this populist newspaper, The SPOTLIGHT. [End quoting]

Who do you think setup the Klan? This is some more propagandizing playing both ends of the game to make fortunes and control the "slaves".

"THE NEXT BIG WAVE OF UNEMPLOYMENT WILL HIT AS A RESULT OF START OF THE EURO NEXT MONTH"

From the INTERNET, Sofie Mattsson <sofiem@algonet.se>, 12/9/98: [quoting]

Commented an economist who has been studying the corporate plans once currency risk disappears from the 11 founding countries of the Euro: "The wave of corporate mergers is only beginning in Europe.

"Now there will be no currency risk, for example, if a German firm decides to take over a French or Belgian [one]. In each case, the results will be large job redundancies as part of cost reduction.

"The other effect of the cost reduction will be creation of an even larger stock market bubble built on 'shareholder value'." [End quoting]

Are we prepared for another 1929 crash, but worse?

NOW, AMERICAN FIRMS FACE HOLOCAUST CLAIMS

FINGER-POINTING AT THE SWISS COMES FULL CIRCLE

Excerpted from U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT, by John Marks, 12/14/98: [quoting]

Paper chase. Archives are the key. Since 1996, when the Holocaust restitution effort gained new momentum, these quiet repositories have become drivers of world events. Their contents have forced apologies from governments, opened long-dormant bank accounts, unlocked the secrets of art museums, and compelled corporations to defend their reputations....

The questions about Chase [Manhattan Bank] arise from a lawsuit alleging that several French banks kept the assets of clients who died in concentration camps. But Chase's wartime role has long been controversial. Historian Charles Higham alleged in 1983 that some of the bank's executives in Europe were Nazi sympathizers. Chase says it is consulting with Jewish groups and promises that any money that was not returned by the French government will be repaid with interest to the victims or their heirs. The bank's preliminary investigation indicates that fewer than 100 accounts are involved.

Researchers at Yad Vashem, the Holocaust memorial in Israel, are now planning a super database of documents from around the world. When the computerized project is finished, researchers will be able to track the destinies of 20 million Jews—as well as of countries and companies—through the Holocaust. [End quoting]

Once these robbers got the Swiss banks to pay off, Pandora's Box was opened. Now, many corporations who had businesses in Germany and any others who supplied them are open to this blackmail. And, knowing how greedy these Khazarian Zionist gangsters are, there is no telling how many billions they'll gouge out of these corporations. And don't forget, the consumers of their products and services will be the ones who pay the ransom.

By the way, Chase Manhattan is brought into the picture as one that will have to pay—do you believe that, when they are a Rockefeller bank? My guess is they will be one of the biggest beneficiaries of this massive heist!!

DR. PATCH

A CLOWN DOCTOR, HAILED BY HOLLYWOOD, DREAMS OF GIVING FREE MEDICAL CARE TO CHILDREN

From U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT, by Marci McDonald, 12/14/98: [quoting]

A brilliant 16-year-old, shattered by his father's death and a beloved uncle's suicide, lands in a Virginia psychiatric ward. Appalled by officious physicians who prefer pushing pills to actually listening to what their patients have to say, he emerges and later launches a guerrilla assault on the U.S. health care system, using an unlikely choice of weapons: his own medical degree and a clown's oversize red rubber nose. It sounds like pure Hollywood, but since Hollywood didn't have the wit to invent Hunter D. "Patch" Adams—the real-life 53-year-old Virginia clown doctor who prescribes a daily dose of silliness for what ails the world—it had to content itself with second best: hiring Robin Williams to bring Adams' zany iconoclasm to the screen.

Scheduled to open nationwide on Christmas day, Patch Adams already has preview audiences cheering for a hero whose life is an ebullient argument for free—and wackily humanized—health care. Adams has delivered that radical prescription, by invitation, thousands of times over the past 15 years to medical schools and doctors' conventions. "Greed is at the core of what's wrong" he says, damning a profession that traded house calls for higher profit margins. "I'm a political activist—medicine and clowning are just two of my vehicles." [End quoting]

What a refreshing way to get his message across.

IN MEMORY OF A CHILD

From ANGELS ON EARTH, Nov/Dec, 1998, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

From the courtroom windows Shirley could see across the street. Shoppers entered the bookstore where window boxes held blooming poinsettias. She should be at home sweeping snow from the front sidewalk and urging William to put up the tree, she thought. She should be arranging the crêche and baking Amy's favorite almond cookies. But it didn't seem at all like Christmas.

Instead of being lifted by the season, Shirley was surrounded by a deep and bitter darkness. She clenched her hands in her lap. God, I am so angry—at everyone and everything. Amy is dead, and I feel like the light has gone out of my life. I know I must bear the pain, but please help me let go of the anger.

She and William were alone in the courtroom. He made an irritating, scratching sound as he slid his thumb up and down the crease of his dark flannel slacks.

"You know what I want even more than that killer's conviction?" she asked.

William stopped. He frowned and tilted his head as if trying to make sense of her words.

She leaned against his arm. "I wish the jury could know what Amy was like. I want them to remember our child."

"I know." He put his hand over hers.

They had arrived five days earlier, already exhausted from Amy's murder in the fall, the arrest, and then the long drive west. The trial was in the same college town where they had thought she would be safe.

As people began entering the courtroom, the prosecutor stopped on the way to his seat. "This is it," he said. "Closing arguments. I'll speak first."

"You'll do a good job." William gripped the younger man's hand again.

The bailiff opened a side door and the young defendant appeared. Dressed in a navy-blue suit and with a fresh haircut, he looked harmless, even personable. Before taking his seat he looked around the courtroom. His glance grazed Shirley before he smiled and waved at someone in the back of the room. The sight of him made her stomach hurt.

When it was time, the prosecutor carried his yellow legal pad of notes and crossed the room to the jury. His footsteps echoed on the old wooden floor.

Shirley studied the jurors. Some of them she remembered from the selection process: a factory worker, a portly truck driver, a grandmother, a businesswoman in a tailored suit, a bearded college professor, a lawn-service owner, a young mother. They must have daughters or sisters they loved too; surely they would feel compassion.

The attorney paused until all 12 jurors looked at him, and then he began to speak, summing up, repeating information covered earlier, ticking off items on his pad. "William and Shirley's only child...a freshman at the college...working part-time as a waitress...innocently accepted a ride home from a new employee at the café...".

Unable to hear the details without crying, Shirley opened her purse for a tissue. Her fingers touched an envelope, the most recent in a stream of letters from teachers and friends: I worked with Amy at the café. When my little boy got sick, she gave me all her tips and baby-sat my daughter so I could take my son to the doctor.

The attorney paced before the jury box. "Hands tied behind her back...her body in a field of corn stubble...found by hunters after she had been missing for a week...".

The jurors' faces were impassive. What are they thinking? Shirley wondered. How could they seem so unmoved by what they were hearing?

William's shoulder pressed against hers, and she knew he was fighting to hold back sobs. He reached for his handkerchief.

When the prosecutor finished and took his seat, Shirley questioned William with her eyes. Is that all he's going to say? She had wanted to address the court herself, but in this case it wasn't an option. Did the jurors understand all that she and her husband had lost?

William lifted his eyebrows and shook his head from side to side almost imperceptibly.

The defense attorney strode toward the jury, hands clasped behind his back. He smiled at them. A few smiled back. "Troy was a happy, pudgy baby," he began. He spoke of the absence of Troy's father from the home, the abuse Troy suffered when his father was at home, Troy's dependency disease. In his last words the defense attorney described the youth as a victim himself.

The attorney didn't mention Troy's criminal history: juvenile detention, misdemeanors escalating to felonies, probation, house arrest, parole.

Shirley's anger welled up inside her, and she felt like lashing out at the boy, at his attorney, even at the jury. God, I don't want these dark feelings, but I can't help myself.

By noon, the judge had given the jurors their instructions and sent them to begin their deliberations. The defense attorney patted his client on the back, and he was led away. The prosecutor turned to Shirley and William.

Shirley looked around the empty courtroom. The last chance to make the jury see Amy as a person, someone living and loving, had passed.

Shirley wadded the tissue she clutched, jammed it into her purse and snapped it shut. She wished she could have read the letter in her purse to the jury, showed her wallet pictures of Amy in her prom dress, Amy in her cap and gown.

"How long do you think they'll be?" William asked the attorney.

"It's hard to tell. Couple hours at least. If they don't have something by five o'clock, they'll probably be allowed to go home for the night and resume deliberations tomorrow."

He collected his papers and closed his briefcase. "I have to get back to the office. You folks get something to eat. We'll call you at the motel when they have a verdict." He urged them from the courtroom into the midday sun.

Out of habit they drove to the motel and went into the coffee shop. Shirley stared at the brass sunburst clock behind the counter, watched the second hand tick off the minutes. When the waitress returned for the third time to ask if they were ready to order, William got hamburgers for both of them.

When their food came, Shirley picked at the bun and pale french fries. William ate a few bites of his burger, drank the iced tea that came with every meal.

Later, Shirley called the motel desk to see if there were any messages. None so far. She sat in a chair by a small round table that held magazines. William sat on the edge of the bed, head in his hands, elbow on knees.

Shirley had to do something to make time pass. She flipped through a magazine. On the pages happy families gathered for Christmas Eve candlelight services, just as she and William and Amy had once, but would no more.

Every page was a reminder of what she had lost. Shirley closed her eyes, and tried to ignore the sharp ache building in her chest.

In the late afternoon the room grew dim and chilly. When the phone rang she jumped, and the magazine slid to the floor.

William grabbed the receiver, listened, nodded and hung up. "The jury has a verdict."

She shivered.

The morning's procession was repeated. Attorneys, bailiff, defendant, judge and finally the jurors filed in. They directed their gazes toward the judge as the bailiff collected their verdict.

The paper was unfolded. "Guilty."

Arms at her sides, Shirley stood like a stone as William hugged her. She had thought a guilty verdict would make her feel better, but her anger only deepened. It was final. It hadn't changed a thing. That man was still alive and Amy was gone forever.

Outside, they said good-bye to the prosecutor. Yes, William said, they would be on their way home first thing in the morning.

Shirley lingered, looked back at the courthouse. Someone hurried down the steps toward her.

"Ma'am." It was a juror.

Shirley waited on the sidewalk.

"You're Amy's mother, aren't you?"

Shirley nodded.

"Something happened. We had been deliberating a while and were almost ready to vote." At first her words came out in a rush, but when she seemed confident of Shirley's attention, she slowed and said, "We were silently reviewing our notes when I noticed the room sort of light up. I looked outside, but the Sun hadn't brightened. The overhead fluorescents hadn't flashed. But there was a clear, pure, white light in the room. It felt as if an incredible love had filled every available space. Then, somehow, I could see Amy. Not with my eyes, though. It was more like the light was revealing Amy to my heart." The woman's voice shook. She paused and took a deep breath.

"The foreman said it was time to take a vote. Nobody said a word while he collected our ballots. Afterward, the professor asked if anyone had noticed anything strange." She grasped Shirley's hand, and Shirley saw that tears filled her eyes. "Every one of us saw the light. Every juror felt what I felt—a love so pure we will never forget it."

"Even though I never met her, I will always remember her. We all will. The others wanted me to tell you."

For a moment Shirley's heart lifted. Her anger ebbed. The light and love and hope of Christmas returned, good tidings delivered once again by an angel, an angel of light.

This year there would be no tree or almond cookies, but she would set up the crèche—in memory of a child.

"Thank you," Shirley whispered. "Thank YOU." —by Carol Newman [End quoting]

What a wonderful Christmas present under such adverse conditions.

A MUCH DESERVED
THANK YOU AND
HOLIDAY GREETINGS
TO OUR WONDERFUL
READERS AND SUPPORTERS

I want to thank all of the ones who have kept me supplied with clippings, magazines, newspapers, flyers, Internet articles, etc., for the News Desk. They have given me a wealth of information from which to choose. I have so much good material to use that it's hard to pare it down to my allotted space. Thanks again.

We at CONTACT and all of the Ground Crew here helping to fulfill God's purposes for our lives want to wish you all a very happy and joy-filled Holiday Season. I pray that we are prepared for whatever happens in the new year, and above all, that we have control over any possible fears over the predictions for the future. Strong faith in God and doing our part will keep us on track, but fear will certainly sidetrack us. Don't forget there will be many wondrous experiences happening for those who serve God.

May God bless us all.

Pass The Pepsi And Welcome To "Aspartame Disease"

12/19/98 DR. AL OVERHOLT

PASS THE PEPSI

From the INTERNET, courtesy of John F. Winston, <HEOT@onelist.com>, 12/15/98: [quoting]

I will have to admit that I love Pepsi. I love the regular type, the diet type and the new one called Pepsi One. Lately a friend of mine was given a prize that consisted of 24 cases of Pepsi that contains a total of 576 cans. I've been drinking them like mad, and giving them away to everyone in sight. If you have ever wondered about my sanity in the past, you will be convinced of my insanity after reading the following article.

From: R. F.; Subject: URGENT: World conference warned about Aspartame!!! Please forgive me if this is a duplicate of a message you have already received. Its nature is serious enough to warrant my sending it to each of you out of concern for your health and that of your loved ones. Some of you have complained of similar symptoms recently and this information may be useful to determine if you have been unknowingly effected by methanol toxicity. I wish everyone a happy, healthy, prosperous holiday season. I try to not make it a habit of forwarding messages in general, however the urgency of this message has prompted me to do so. There is a life-sight-hearing threat from the sweetener Aspartame that is also responsible for misdiagnoses and/or aggravated conditions in people with multiple sclerosis and systemic lupus when, in reality, many times the disease is methanol toxicity. Using Aspartame-containing products will cause serious problems. The scary part is that there are over 5000 products out there with Aspartame as an ingredient. Be careful, family and friends, please. And especially, old supplies or supplies of products that have reached above 86 degrees Fahrenheit may be responsible for a condition of methanol toxicity in you or a loved one. If in doubt, I would suggest having your doctor test for methanol toxicity. I love you all and wish no harm to come to you for lack of this information. WORLD ENVIRONMENTAL
MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS
FOUNDATION
F.D.A. IS SUING FOR
COLLUSION WITH MONSANTO

Article written by Nancy Markle (11/20/97)

I have spent several days lecturing at the WORLD ENVIRONMENTAL CONFERENCE on "ASPARTAME, marketed as 'NutraSweet', 'Equal', and 'Spoonful'". In the keynote address by the EPA, they announced that there was an epidemic of multiple sclerosis and systemic lupus, and they did not understand what toxin was causing this to be rampant across the United States. I explained that I was there to lecture on exactly that subject.

When the temperature of Aspartame exceeds 86 degrees F, the wood alcohol in ASPARTAME converts to formaldehyde and then to formic acid, which in turn causes metabolic acidosis. (Formic acid is the poison found in the sting of fire ants.) The methanol toxicity mimics multiple sclerosis; thus people were being diagnosed with having multiple sclerosis in error. The multiple sclerosis is not a death sentence, where methanol toxicity is.

In the case of systemic lupus, we are finding it has become almost as rampant as multiple sclerosis, especially [among] Diet Coke and Diet Pepsi drinkers. Also, with methanol toxicity, the victims usually drink three to four 12 oz. cans of them per day, some even more. In the cases of systemic lupus, which is triggered by ASPARTAME, the victim usually does not know that the Aspartame is the culprit. The victim continues its use, aggravating the lupus to such a degree that sometimes it becomes life threatening. When we get people off the Aspartame, those with systemic lupus usually become asymptomatic. Unfortunately, we can not reverse this disease.

On the other hand, in the case of those diagnosed with multiple sclerosis (when in reality, the disease is methanol toxicity), most of the symptoms disappear. We have seen cases where their vision has returned and even their hearing has returned. This also applies to cases of tinnitus.

During a lecture, I said, "If you are using ASPARTAME (NutraSweet, Equal, Spoonful, etc.) and you suffer from fibromyalgia symptoms, spasms, shooting pains, numbness in your legs, cramps, vertigo, dizziness, headaches, tinnitus, joint pain, depression, anxiety attacks, slurred speech, blurred vision, or memory loss—you probably have ASPARTAME DISEASE!" People were jumping up during the lecture saying, "I've got this; is it reversible?"

It is rampant. Some of the speakers at my lecture even were suffering from these symptoms. In one lecture attended by the Ambassador of Uganda, he told us that their sugar industry is adding Aspartame! He continued by saying that one of the industry leader's son could no longer walk--due in part from product usage!

We have a very serious problem. Even a stranger came up to Dr. Espisto (one of my speakers) and myself and said, "Could you tell me why so many people seem to be coming down with MS?" During a visit to a hospice, a nurse said that six of her friends, who were heavy Diet Coke addicts, had all been diagnosed with MS. This is beyond coincidence. Here is the problem. There were Congressional Hearings when Aspartame was included in 100 different products. Since this initial hearing, there have been two subsequent hearings, but to no avail. Nothing has been done. The drug and chemical lobbies have very deep pockets. Now there are over 5,000 products containing this chemical, and the PATENT HAS EXPIRED!!!!

At the time of this first hearing, people were going blind. The methanol in the Aspartame converts to formaldehyde in the retina of the eye. Formaldehyde is grouped in the same class of drugs as cyanide and arsenic—DEADLY POISONS!!! Unfortunately, it just takes longer to quietly kill, but it is killing people and causing all kinds of neurological problems.

Aspartame changes the brain's chemistry. It is the reason for severe seizures. This drug changes the dopamine level in the brain. Imagine what this drug does to patients suffering from Parkinson's Disease. This drug also causes Birth Defects.

There is absolutely no reason to take this product. It is NOT A DIET PRODUCT!!! The Congressional record said, "It makes you crave carbohydrates and will make you FAT." Dr. Roberts stated that when he got patients off Aspartame, their average weight loss was 19 pounds per person. The formaldehyde stores in the fat cells, particularly in the hips and thighs.

Aspartame is especially deadly for diabetics. All physicians know what wood alcohol will do to a diabetic. We find that physicians believe that they have patients with retinopathy, when in fact, it is caused by the Aspartame. The Aspartame keeps the blood sugar level out of control, causing many patients to go into a coma. Unfortunately, many have died.

People were telling us, at the Conference of the American College of Physicians, that they had relatives that switched from saccharin to an Aspartame product and how that relative had eventually gone into a coma. Their physicians could not get the blood-sugar levels under control. Thus, the patients suffered acute memory loss and eventually coma and death.

Memory loss is due to the fact that aspartic acid and phenylalanine are neurotoxic without the other amino acids found in protein. Thus it goes past the blood brain barrier and deteriorates the neurons of the brain. Dr. Russell Blaylock, neurosurgeon, said, "The ingredients stimulate the neurons of the brain to death, causing brain damage of varying degrees."

Dr. Blaylock has written a book entitled EXCITOTOXINS: THE TASTE THAT KILLS (Health Press 1-800-643-2665). Dr. H.J. Roberts, diabetic specialist and world expert on Aspartame poisoning, has also written a book entitled DEFENSE AGAINST ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE (1-800-814-9800). Dr. Roberts tells how Aspartame poisoning is escalating Alzheimer's Disease, and indeed it is. As the hospice nurse told me, women are being admitted at 30 years of age with Alzheimer's Disease. Dr. Blaylock and Dr. Roberts will be writing a position paper with some case histories and will post it on the Internet. According to the Conference of the American College of Physicians, "We are talking about a plague of neurological diseases caused by this deadly poison."

Dr. Roberts realized what was happening when Aspartame was first marketed. He said "his diabetic patients presented memory loss, confusion, and severe vision loss". At the Conference of the American College of Physicians, doctors admitted that they did not know. They had wondered why seizures were rampant (the phenylalanine in Aspartame breaks down the seizure threshold and depletes serotonin, which causes manic depression, panic attacks, rage and violence).

Just before the Conference, I received a FAX from Norway, asking for a possible antidote for this poison because they are experiencing so many problems in their country. This "poison" is now available in 90-PLUS countries worldwide. Fortunately, we had speakers and ambassadors at the Conference from different nations who have pledged their help. We ask that you help too. Print this article out and warn everyone you know. Take anything that contains Aspartame back to the store. Take the "NO ASPARTAME TEST" and send us your case history.

I assure you that MONSANTO, the creator of Aspartame, knows how deadly it is. They fund the American Diabetes Association, American Dietetic Association, Congress, and the Conference of the American College of Physicians. The New York Times, on November 15, 1996, ran an article on how the American Dietetic Association takes money from the food industry to endorse their products. Therefore, they can not criticize any additives or tell about their link to MONSANTO. How bad is this? We told a mother who had a child on NutraSweet to get off the product. The child was having grand mal seizures every day. The mother called her physician, who called the ADA, who told the doctor not to take the child off the NutraSweet. We are still trying to convince the mother that the Aspartame is causing the seizures. Every time we get someone off of Aspartame, the seizures stop. If the baby dies, you know whose fault it is, and what we are up against. There are 92 documented symptoms of Aspartame, from coma to death. The majority of them are all neurological, because the Aspartame destroys the nervous system.

Aspartame Disease is partially the cause to what is behind some of the mystery of the Desert Storm health problems. The burning tongue and other problems discussed in over 60 cases can be directly related to the consumption of an Aspartame product. Several thousand pallets of diet drinks were shipped to the Desert Storm troops. (Remember heat can liberate the methanol from the Aspartame at 86 degrees F.) Diet drinks sat in the 120 degree F. Arabian sun for weeks at a time on pallets. The service men and women drank them all day long. All of their symptoms are identical to Aspartame poisoning. Dr. Roberts says, "consuming Aspartame at the time of conception can cause birth defects." The phenylalanine concentrates in the placenta, causing mental retardation, according to Dr. Louis Elsas, Pediatrician Professor—Genetics, at Emory University, in his testimony before Congress.

In the original lab tests, animals developed brain tumors (phenylalanine breaks down into DXP, a brain tumor agent). When Dr. Espisto was lecturing on Aspartame, one physician in the audience, a neurosurgeon, said, "when they remove brain tumors, they have found high levels of Aspartame in them".

Stevia, a sweet food, NOT AN ADDITIVE, which helps in the metabolism of sugar, which would be ideal for diabetics, has now been approved as a dietary supplement by the F.D.A. For years, the F.D.A. has outlawed this sweet food because of their loyalty to MONSANTO.

If it says "SUGAR FREE" on the label—DO NOT EVEN THINK ABOUT IT!!!!!! Senator Howard Metzenbaum wrote a bill that would have warned all infants, pregnant mothers and children of the dangers of Aspartame. The bill would have also instituted independent studies on the problems existing in the population (seizures, changes in brain chemistry, changes in neurological and behavioral symptoms). It was killed by the powerful drug and chemical lobbies, letting loose the hounds of disease and death on an unsuspecting public. Since the Conference of the American College of Physicians, we hope to have the help of some world leaders. Again, please help us too. There are a lot of people out there who must be warned; please let them know this information.

[End forwarded message]

JW: I've got just about all of the symptoms listed. I was under the impression the the drink called Pepsi One was entirely different than Diet Pepsi but I just read the ingredients and it does contain Aspartame.

BRAVO, JOHN !!! I read Dr. Blaylock's book several months ago and it was a great catalyst for me and my family to severely alter our diet. When (as the Dr. noted) you see "Natural Flavorings" listed on your processed foods you are consuming 20-60% pure MSG! As well, my Mother is diabetic and has consumed the artificial sweeteners for years because her doctor told her to. After she read the history of Aspartame that I had given her, she stopped using it and has now gone off all her diabetic meds, etc. and her doctor sent her home with a clean bill of health. All is normal. Hmmm. Coincidence?

Several years ago she had a brain aneurysm explode in her head. This usually means instant death or a vegetable state. The surgeons went into her head 4 different times. She has completely recovered mentally and physically and is a walking miracle as far as I'm concerned. In the Light of Perfect Healing, Christopher Recall that the elite has a Plan of Mass Depopulation. Would you suspicion this is one of the ways to help accomplish it? With this they can "milk" the sick of their money before they collect the burial fees and the inheritance taxes. This is worse than the elite's Holocaust that they keep yelping about!!

This is easy enough to stop if enough of you get off your couches and complain to your "leaders"; or just read your labels and quit buying the poison. Would you buy food that has arsenic or strychnine in it??—this is also poison!! Do you realize there are hundreds of millions of people being poisoned and killed by this one product?

The substitute Stevia is an herb and the FDA has been putting up a mighty fight against it, so that should tell you something—but do your own research! ☹

What Is Happening In The Middle East?

12/15/98 NORA BOYLES

I am not an expert on Middle East policies of the various governments or of our own government. However, there have been a number of recent events to raise questions as to evolving relationships and actual intent of our own government, the United Nations, England, Israel, Iran, Turkey, Afghanistan, Palestine, and others in this unsettled region.

First there were our government's unprecedented missile strikes against bases in Afghanistan and a pharmaceutical manufacturing house in Sudan. (Why destroy a pharmaceutical plant?) Next there was the media hype about the U.S. and Iran's first step towards an understanding. The reason for this change of direction, according to several leaks on the subject, was that England and the U.S. hoped to obtain permission to run an oil pipeline across Iran. You can imagine the money involved in such a plan. I believe the pipeline is intended to hook-up with the newly developing oil field in Baku, Azerbaijan, north of Iran on the land-locked Caspian Sea. (What will Russia do about it?)

Somewhere in this time line we were told that Turkey had again entered Northern Iraq and was fighting the Kurds! This invasion did not bring down the sanctions of the U.N. or NATO, or the U.S. Why?

With the entry of the Taliban of Afghanistan into the news following the U.S. strikes against training bases south of Kabul in hopes of eliminating Osama bin Laden, we soon learned that Afghanistan and Iran were having difficulties and that Iran had placed military forces along its borders with Afghanistan. The reason for the disturbance was not explained. We were told that the Taliban had killed four Iranians, but what had caused the dispute was left to our imagination. Later we also learned that the U.S. did not appear at a court hearing investigating Osama bin Laden's involvement in terrorist acts or present any evidence to support their actions!

More recently Mr. Netanyahu of Israel, Yasser Arafat of Palestine, and Bill Clinton met in the U.S. to work on the Middle East peace process (again). The reported results were that Israel would release more land for peace (13% of the Gaza Strip) and Palestine (Arafat) would crack down on Palestinian terrorists, confiscating guns among the Palestinians. Included in that agreement was Mr. Arafat's decision to withdraw certain words from Palestinian documents regarding Israel's rights and legitimacy. All of this set both Israelis and Palestinians against their leaders. Now we see that the "peace process" is still as much on hold as it ever was. Netanyahu allowed Israelis settlement on more disputed land in Jerusalem, causing an uprising of Palestinians and stopping the land-for-peace agreements in the midst of more violence.

All of the above may appear to be no greater or less than other events which have occurred in the Middle East during the last few decades. However, an article on the Middle East by guest columnist Ali Baghdadi, in the 10/16/98 issue of The Final Call newspaper, puts a perspective on the events which provides a look at a possible plan behind some of these activities. Admittedly, Mr. Baghdadi is pro-Arab and pro-Muslim in his views. He sees Israel and the United States as co-authors of the scenario now unfolding, although publicly both urge the various parties to "calm down and address their grievances". Still, an Arab and Muslim view of the situation is critical to what will happen in the Middle East and our understanding of it.

Following is a summary of essential points in Mr. Baghdadi's article:

We are told:

1. Turkey has entered into a military alliance with Israel for "humanitarian objectives" and will strike Syria, which refuses to yield to Israeli dictates. The American government has stated it "understands the Turkish position, a diplomatic term which is interpreted as an invitation for Turkey to attack". (Why would Turkey go to war for Israel? For "humanitarian objectives"?)

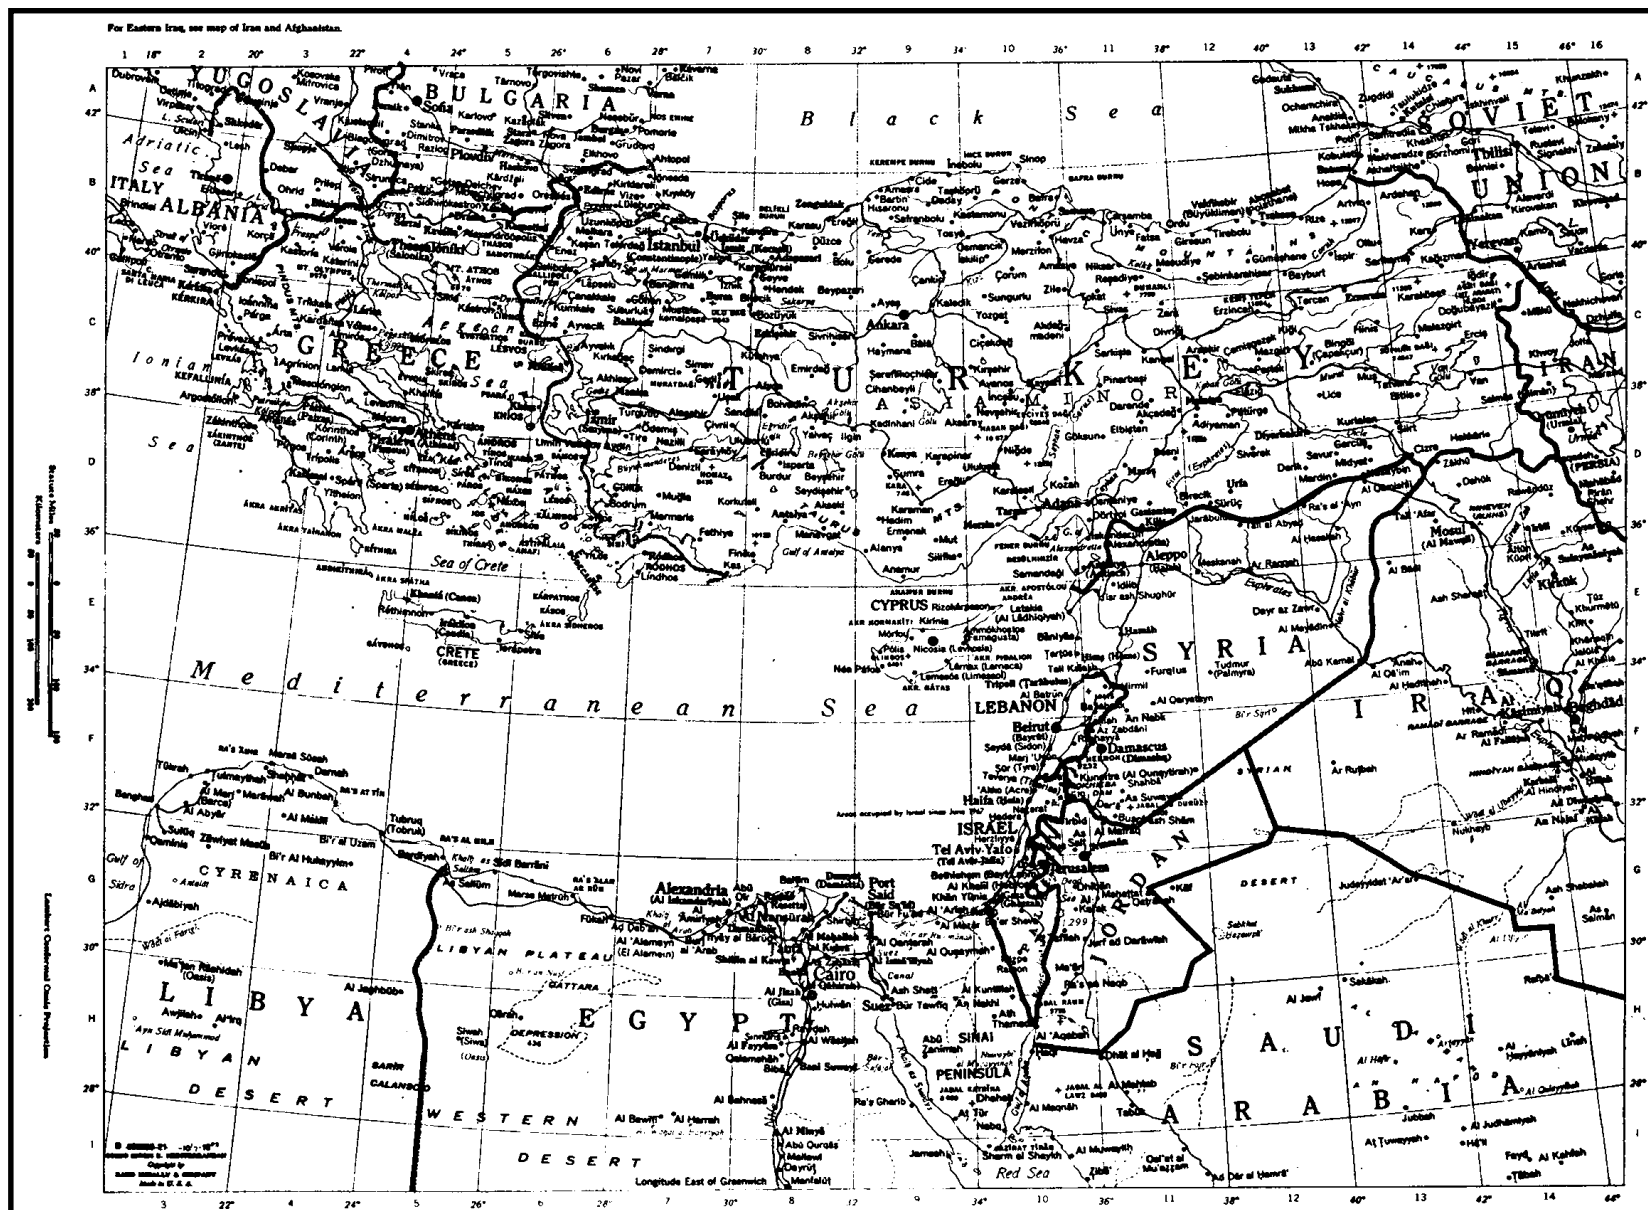

2. The Taliban (remember, according to an earlier report in The Final Call, the Taliban are a creation of the U.S.) in Afghanistan are working hard to provoke Iran and force her into a war on her eastern border to distract her from aiding Syria. Pakistan is instructed to come to the aid of the Taliban if necessary. (Who is giving the orders to Pakistan?)

3. It is difficult to imagine that Iraq, which has already been invaded by Turkish forces, will stand idly by. (Even with American guns still at their heads?)

4. Jordan, which joined Israel, Turkey and the U.S. in a defacto military pact that was never publicly announced, will be ordered to move its forces north and east towards Syria and Iraq. (Again, who will give the orders?)

5. In the confusion, Israel will strike missile bases and vital military and industrial sites in Iran and Syria.

6. The American forces in the Mediterranean, Red Sea and Persian Gulf will provide support to its "friends".

7. Mr. Arafat, who provided Israel with the "legitimacy it sought for 50 years", is expected not to be around for very long; health reasons.

8. Israel is alarmed at the population growth of the Palestinians. Mr. Baghdadi predicts that Israel may reoccupy Gaza and West Bank and force another wave of Palestinians to neighboring Arab states. "Jordan may become the new Palestine", despite its past and current cooperation with Israel. Three cities are being built in southern Jordan to receive the next inflow of Palestinians.

9. In order to relieve the pressure, the Zionists plan to transfer approximately three million Palestinians to northern Iraq (this is the area now being cleared of Kurds by Turkey with their "humanitarian objectives").

Mr. Baghdadi understandably does not provide the sources of his information. He has been a Middle East reporter for The Final Call newspaper for sometime, and has close ties in the Arab world. He sees the present unfolding scenario in the Middle East as the most difficult yet faced by the Moslem nations with predictably disastrous results unless they wake up to their dangerous situation and work together.

It is impossible in all of this to see how the actions of our own government have been truly of peace-seeking intent. According to Mr. Baghdadi, in effect Israel and her cohorts in the U.S. government plan to set all the Arabs against each other, remaining in the background unscathed, themselves!

Iran and Syria, by their size, are in critical positions in my opinion regarding the affairs of the Arab world. If they do not pull together, both of them and the Arab World will be severely weakened and could fall prey to their adversaries.

One wonders about Iran's sudden involvement in dialogues with the U.S. The oil pipeline appears to be the only reason. How did it all start? Who is the Iranian leader considering and pursuing the change? Who are the oil-barons behind it all? It appears from Mr. Baghdadi's report that Iran is being set up for a fall.

From my earlier articles regarding Nostradamus' predictions about the "anti-Christ" in the Middle East area, you may recall that he predicted Iran would be one of the first major nations to be taken over in the eastern Mediterranean, followed by Russia and China! According to Nostradamus this anti-Christ wears a "blue turban". According to Hatonn, the "blue turban" represents the blue headgear of the United Nations.

I wrote the following predictions of Nostradamus in the 11/10/92 issue of the PHOENIX LIBERATOR (precursor to CONTACT), and it was printed in my book The Garden of Aton, Vol. I [quote]:

In general the anti-Christ will take advantage of the Earth changes and the general chaos to further his rule. There will be a year without a rainbow (great drought) and famine, which he further uses to his advantage. The first area of his activity will be in the eastern Mediterranean. His first power takeover will be Persia (Iran), and then will spread to Russia and China. His European takeover will start in southern Europe, Italy, Rome. The religious fanatics will be gaining political power and there will be another rise of Nazism. [End quote.]

Considering also the present difficulties in southern Europe (parts of the former Yugoslavia, Serbia and Kosov), the major floods in China, and financial difficulties of Russia and Asia, it is a time to be more than usually alert to happenings in our world. However, predictions and prophecies do not have to happen. Man must wake up, become responsible for his circumstances and change them.

I have taken a copy of a map of the eastern Mediterranean from Rand McNally's World Atlas, printed in 1984, to give you a better picture of the area of Mr. Baghdadi's concern [see previous page]. Obviously, with Jordan tied to Israel, Iraq pinned down by U.S. forces, Iran interested in an understanding with the U.S. and England and involved in military activity on its eastern border, Syria could become isolated from those normally considered friends (or at least Moslem brothers) and therefore prey to its enemies in a concerted military effort by both Turkey and Israel. War in the Middle East could start quickly, given the above scenarios.

It is difficult to understand the politics of Turkey's and Jordan's positions, as outlined by Mr. Baghdadi. There is much that has been kept secret. Nevertheless, keep in mind that Turkey is part of the former Ottoman Empire which always gave top preference to the merchants and exclusively used Jews who claimed descent from the House of King David as chief bankers until recent times. In addition, the United States has poured in vast dollar sums and military aid to Turkey since the end of World War II. As for Jordan, this monarchy owes its establishment to the "peace accords" following World War II, at which time the Jews were allowed to return to Palestine. From many sources, which I have already touched upon in previous articles, it is clear that the Zionists were in control of that "peace process".

are told by very valid parties here that Russia has over 2 million armed men to back Iraq—AT READY. These will be added unto by more than that number from China. Start holding your breath, for the stuff is in the fan."

Meanwhile, the weather continues its mixed-up display. Large sections of our country have been experiencing unseasonably warm weather and declaring drought conditions at a time when rain and snow should be plentiful. The electromagnetic manipulations going on in our planetary atmosphere are causing ever worsening climactic conditions. So when will our food supplies completely vanish in the wake of this nonsense? How can farmers be expected to produce anything with Mother Nature in a dizzy spin due to the self-centered wishes of dark crooks in high places employing technologies they know little about?

And then, on a personal level, an unusual number of people have commented to me lately along the lines of: "I can't believe it's the Holiday Season ALREADY!" (Neither can I.) Or: "It feels too creepy, more like Halloween than Christmas!" (And for good reason!) Or: "I'm going through the motions, but I just don't feel very much in the Holiday spirit." (Not hard to understand when you consider the huge-and-widening gap between the True Meaning of the Season and the superficial, empty materialism rampant today.)

Yes, once again Professor Soltec hit the nail on the head in a most concise way. He routinely efforts to call to our attention that ALL is connected to ALL.

However, while the world seems determined to fall apart, there are still many things for which one should be thankful at this Holiday time of acknowledging blessings, especially as symbolized in gifts. We would all do well to pause, every so often, amidst the Holiday festivities, and count our blessings.

On behalf of all of us at CONTACT, I would like to thank all of you readers who have quietly helped us to remain financially afloat during this past year. Often the story of hope and caring behind the crumpled-up $5 bill you sent our way is as profound as the larger checks or the simple notes of encouragement. Please continue to help, else this voice of Truth could fall silent.

Indeed this world slides rapidly downward as the forces of darkness are allowed to reign in response to the choices made by so many. After all, this is a schoolroom for learning important lessons of creative manifestation. Some very big lessons are unfolding now, and those who have prepared with good intent shall find the unfolding events a lot more interesting than those who shall, head-on, meet the manifested creations of their less-than-thoughtful thoughts.

Testing Lessons Along The Schoolroom Path

12/19/98 #1 HATONN

THE GREATEST GIFT WE CAN GIVE TO OTHERS IS A GOOD EXAMPLE

A good example does not include allowing others to take what is rightfully property of another if you can stop such actions.

When we work in service to God and fellow man, we first keep our promises, with or without written contract. We do not keep rewriting prior agreements in a unilateral manner to feed our own greed, for that is dishonor.

Does one participant have a right to “simply write off” that which is agreed to, and lose greatly for many people, to appease the power and greed of another participant in any business or honorable family circumstance? No. However, you will find that every time gold or money enters the picture, the activities become those of greed and corruption. Then, if that is pointed out, there is great pressure to capitulate. No. Man must be of honor and do what he can to protect others from hurt and loss in any interchange inclusive of others.

In our current activities, in which we are making efforts to stabilize and bring into total balance that which includes others who have offered assistance to the Phoenix Institute, for instance, so that projects can be built upon that foundation of truth and honor, for some to toss aside promises and use our resources for massive gain for themselves, proves our need to take great care in that which includes other parties who do not use honor and truth in their activities.

These same “users” then object if the topic is discussed among the involved players. We do, however, find it mandatory to present the circumstances to any and all affected parties.

Hugh Hale, a prior co-worker from Canada, and now Manila, has really shown us such dishonor as to be shocking.

He has gone forth under the shelter of our work and our property, even utilizing for almost a year the facilities (without cost) of our friends and colleagues in the Philippines, and made a large “deal” of some kind—using as cover the name of his mistress to hide their activities.

Through the Philippine National Bank we KNOW that Hugh has received, at minimum, 100 million dollars. The transaction shows that the paperwork bears the name of Yulan Fucius. Yulan claims to be a Guru who gets her information from “Hatonn”. My, my, I am embarrassed that anyone who might claim to work WITH ME would lie, cheat or steal. So be it.

I tell you right here and now that this is NOT acceptable. The point has been to bring the Institute to perfect stability, including the input of one Hugh Hale who seemed to find our work and product, along with projects, more than acceptable until came this psychic guru. Now he no longer wishes to honor anything, and the lesson you must receive, readers, is that of total lack of honor while he continues to steal and lie.

We have spent hundreds of hours in showing how to do this business and, suddenly, he hasn’t anything to do with us? I don’t think so, for Hugh and Yulan sit holding INSTRUMENTS for over $10 Billion, 100 million dollars. And these are inclusive of V.K. Durham. She is usually not too loving or giving when things are perfectly above board, but she can be deadly when it comes to light she has been royally you-know-what.

Do we wish to spoil these two people’s fun and games? Yes. Do we want to spoil the transaction? No, for it is not to fail that we have worked for nearly a decade.

What will we do? Well, we have several choices. One is to actually destroy the transaction for we, too, have work going with the bank in point and have inside information resources at the very top of that very bank who keep us fully informed.

Or, we can simply lay forth all the documentation, including copies of contracts, and let the law settle the dispute. Or, we can turn it over for collection to V.K. Durham. We do not wish more than that which brings the Institute whole from the years of litigation, thefts by Green, and attack by individual members of Green’s circle. The Institute’s share of this transaction as it stands ALONE in the first tranche is 52%. I think you can all add and subtract. So, do we “let it go”? Or, do we put our obligation and responsibility forth and confront this? WE NEED YOUR INPUT.

Our own recognition is that we might well “settle” but just “where” do we settle? Certainly we do not have a right to demand any other input or “out-take” above our own agreed share, but we do have responsibility to collect that or something lesser for clearing obligations incurred through this two-to-three-years of work and expenditures to accomplish this harvest which would bring the Institute into total stability and balance for all involved persons.

Hugh came to this success directly through his participation with US, through us, taught by us, and using our resources and friends to make this gain.

His direct response is that he is owed, in writing, apologies from E.J. Well, E.J. has only said that the games being played by Hugh and his mistress were unacceptable in that they take advantage of others, and this certainly leaves a nasty view from those people paying the cost for his activities. E.J. has NOTHING to do with anything in point. We did not even disallow furnishing Hugh’s demands, given in writing in his own hand, even though we were in total disagreement with his activities.

His last response on the day before yesterday to Rick was that of, “Well, how much is a bit of groveling apology worth to E.J.?” Well, E.J. immediately called and asked for input as to just what would he be apologizing for? Hugh responded in fury, “you figure it out!” Now THAT is mature and wondrous. E.J. also points out that he has nothing to do with it and we demand that other contracts in Hugh’s possession be returned directly to us (since we seem to be only some blocks from his new condo in the most expensive part of Makati, Manila). “No, I will get them back to you through Mr. DeLara” (who housed, fed and had drivers and maid service supplied to Hugh for a year now), and finally, that he is “a man of his word”. Which word? We have handwritten statements that “the contracts are in the mail”—back to Tehachapi. He also told Rick the same, with Charles present, on a speaker phone. This is like Mr. Clinton; YOU CAN’T HAVE IT BOTH WAYS.

This only, however, was focused on outstanding contracts with a Mr. Diaz, a contact of Mr. Hale. There are these others made out by DEMAND, to Yulan—at least five, for great sums of money.

I ask you people, WHAT MIGHT BE WRONG WITH YOUR WORLD? Well, every day we learn a bit more, don’t we?

Does this somehow stop us here? Oh no, things look VERY GOOD here for we have some new colleagues who seem to be able to both protect our people but know all the inside routes to get to and through everyone we need to know and negotiate.

We find that, in the Philippines, the only route for holding and exchange of GOLD is through the Central Bank. Therefore, we know that Hugh can’t be backing anything with gold or he could not be using the Philippine National Bank as indicated in a 100-Million-dollar Certificate of Deposit made out to Mr. Hale PERSONALLY. But I repeat, the transaction documents bear the name of YULAN. How interesting.

Hugh further says: “How could I do anything with your stuff if I don’t have signatory rights?” Funny? Of course not—but Yulan did the transaction in her name, and her name, personally, was ON THE DOCUMENTS.

Will Hugh care? Who knows, but yes he will. Will Yulan care? No, she thinks she is win-win, IN THE NAME OF GOD, and is the problem behind the whole operation. The bankers and the dealers laugh and remark that “She controls him and all his strings.” Fine, we hope it works into a proper relationship and all live happily ever after—but I suspect that they won’t. And, you who have shared and worked for years on behalf of the Institute, SHOULD be incredibly upset for THAT TRANSACTION would have returned, by itself, all loans, all outstanding pressures AND begin some of the projects put on hold through years of litigation.

We probably will attempt to get a restraining order to disallow Hugh from “running out” of the country—as he plans to do in the next few days—to go to Canada, with Yulan, for the Holidays. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you who are getting raped by one more of our devoted and upstanding takers.

Well, V.K., we are sorry—we tried everything we knew to do and hoped to work out whatever would be necessary with you to get funding into your hands. Unfortunately, we obviously cannot control what thieves do. This is, however, KNOW IT, why we completely ceased to struggle with any of those original contracts from which we pledged help to you.

This is not a transaction to which we have given any focus over here at this time because we have deemed it better to diversify our attempts. We always felt that if Hugh got something done, it would be wondrous and we could trust him. Therefore, we have focused in totally different directions with totally different parties—to save time and duplication of efforts. It is not a happy moment here, but I promise my team and you back home who have been generous and supportive: We WILL accomplish our mission and this is only a bit of a distraction which we will disallow to impact us in the ongoing relationships.

We have requested that all documents and copies of all past interchange as well as sealed contracts be forwarded to us immediately from California and Nevada, and we will turn them over for consideration and evaluation by a legal firm here. We will continue to follow this, readers, but we don't know what will be the outcome. Except, of course, one more lesson and a renewed example of "do it yourself" or expect this kind of treason.

What is so difficult is the use of GOD as a guide in this kind of corrupt and criminal action and announcing that our "lack" is from karmic curses placed onto us by Yulan. Oh, I don't think so! A sorting process? Yes indeed!!

Will such as Hugh and Yulan be happy, healthy and wise? No; you have never in your life heard such an angry and miserable person. The Team here will do whatever is the responsible measure when we get input. It is said that Hugh plans to move to and live in Manila, and that is probably to escape the responsibility to his own associates in Canada. So be it. I think what they will find is that they hold a potato so hot as to burn the fingers. Strange how deceit usually ends up with an immediate response in kind.

We have too much to do to linger on this subject. You are, as a nation, in a war for your lives and souls, friends. I'd say the BEAR is being wagged, and that is not too healthy in this day and age. The attention is perhaps being changed from Viagra to "being royally screwed". Welcome to Hell in Sodom and Gomorrah, human species. We are told by very valid parties here that Russia has over 2 million armed men to back Iraq—AT READY. These will be added unto by more than that number from China. Start holding your breath, for the stuff is in the fan.

I will also tell you now, the banks are already in problems, and they do not look with kindness on anyone who pulls scams or cons on them, and Philippine National Bank is, as we write, being privatized with the "management" being Lehman Brothers. I can only warn everyone, I cannot force anyone to do anything. However, we will NOT BE INVOLVED IN ANY FOOLISH GAMES. THAT is my own promise to you who work with us.

This is hard to write, Dharma? No, stop it, this is the very thing which must become habit to you—to confront that which is wrong when it impacts right in a negative realization. This is the way it must be in every encounter. We coerce not, but we stand when darkness overtakes that which is good and honorable.

You will be given the strength and energy to see these things through to our mission. Love unto each and all, and KNOW that God is available and HE STILL HAS THAT PLAN 2000.

Salu.

WingMakers Found By Grounded Bird Tribe?

12/20/98 PRINCETON WINTON

Why would a normally quiet CONTACT editor submit an article to CONTACT? Because he is excited. You will be too when you access this newly-arrived web-site:

<http:// wingmakers.com>.

The first day I held a "mouse" in my hand (I'm computerdumb), I went to the above site. Astounding Good Fortune!

Perhaps we have lived through catch-22; now comes catch-23. The good one. This website explains how a New Mexico archeological site was discovered and is comprised of 23 chambers wherein are contained artifacts, music, and wall art from an ancient civilization from Pleiades which overleaps "modern" technology. The artifacts include a small CD-size disc. The 5% to 7% of the 8,100 pages of total contents that have been deciphered (from this "time capsule" from 28th-century existing beings, just bridging-in to our physical realm and interfacing with our technology) tells us:

■ These pro-humankind time travelers have left, concealed, seven sites globally with all-linking explanations of how each of us can connect with Universal Consciousness. This one is the critical first discovery, now revealed on the Internet! (They "seeded" the concept of the Internet years ago in preparation for this singular, now-in-progress event and, perhaps quickly now, for broadcasting other big events.)

■ Reading a few pages of this will immediately tell you this is no hoax, though one talk-show host has already pronounced it so, either in haste, ignorance or disinformation.

■ While our waking consciousness seems to be the only game in town, we can actually be simultaneously functioning in 200,000 of our own consciousnesses. Yes, it gets into timelessness in real time, presenting the hard-at-the-moment-to-argue-with idea that the ultimate (and reachable) technology is interactive time travel.

■ That true global culture is coming, one (earthly) language is coming (and no, none of this is sponsored by the New World Order)—and our limitations are going, as we allow them to, resulting from the clarity of understanding coming from this new information.

■ How the Cosmic Hierarchy's local role changes as we bridge this moment into planetary and individual illumination.

■ How the change from the ["...two dominant models of existence that shape the interaction and destiny of the human race"] Evolution-Saviorship model to the Transformation-Mastership model is an essential step in the right direction.

■ Technology in active earthly use permits seamless memory-tailoring. Used properly, wouldn't this mean ill-conditioning could be directly altered? (Yes, the ethics here need to be examined.) In fact the very reason for the heroic defector (from an NSA super-secret sub-group) to allow this information out to the Internet was because he feared he was next to get his memory "doctored" as a security risk because he knew too much. (That, and a growing sympathy for the obviously good-for-humankind message of the WingMakers along with knowing that his parent group would not offer this to the public.)

If you're like me, you'll feel smarter already just from reading about a gift from the friendly aliens—an "intelligence accelerator" program, and how it figures into all this.

These are a few siftings from reading the 100+ pages so far available on the net. Am I gaining your attention to the WingMakers? If not, I hope I'm not flunking in soul-development as badly as I must be in sketch-writing.

Check the site. You will know immediately this is no hoax, no scam, no trap.

P.S. A sub-atomic network of light-encoded filaments (the Sovereign Integral Network [SIN]) links each individual to Source Intelligence. "...core purpose of WingMakers, to help terra-Earth [link with] SIN before its opportunity to interface has [passed]." The earthly correlation is the hottest topic in "new physics", the Super String Theory. It's 3-D/higher-D technology-merging time, fellow students. I want to stay-in and play! For Sale or Gift: one ascension ticket (badly worn from overclutching). It's all in there—you will Love it! What a Christmas Gift. Thank you, Father.

Aton: Recognize Your Own Power To Help The Many

12/21/98 ATON, THE ONE LIGHT

Good morning, little one. It is I, Aton, The One Light. I am The ONENESS which connects all life together to make up the whole. Be at peace and be still.

You who play in the physical arena are in the times prophesied by many an en-Light-ened wayshower from times past. This is not a time to be feared, but rather, a time to look forward to, with the anticipation and eagerness of a small child awaiting Christmas morning.

There shall be the apparent atrocities along the way, such as you ones just witnessed in the Persian Gulf area of your world. The actions taken by the "global community" could be easily viewed as a grown adult male beating on a small child, in terms of physical might. There is no true community spirit in what your global "elite" controllers have planned for you.

Your world is controlled by less than 2% of your population, and the majority of you still continue to fall for the same old tricks that the darkened ones have been playing for thousands of years. These ones are like the stage magician who dazzles you with distraction while setting up the next sleight of hand. Impeachment, war, stock market fluctuations, weather catastrophes and such are all part of the dazzles to keep you from seeing the truth at hand of your enslavement.

Knowledge is only as powerful as is its holder's willingness to act upon it and use it in a reasonable manner. You can know truth, and hold it in a coveted manner, without any immediate consequence to yourself. However, as time passes by, you will become very uncomfortable as you see all of the people you could have helped if you had just stepped forward and shared what you know.

There are MANY who hold such accurate, experiential, first-hand knowledge, who are afraid to step forward out of fear of possible repercussions. Then there are the ones, such as Mr. Bob Lazar, who do not hesitate to step forward and tell ALL that they know.

[Editor's note: For those of you who do not know who Bob Lazar is, check out his information on the Internet. He is a physicist who claims to have worked at secret government/military installations on the reverse engineering of captured alien spacecraft for terrestrial use. Some of this work has been successful, and indicates just how far our secret technologies are ahead of what the public knows anything about. Other aspects of the reverse engineering efforts are akin to putting a piano in front of a group of cave men—it will be "awhile" before they figure out how to build one or what to use it for!]

What has your "mighty" government done to hurt Bob Lazar? What can they do within reason? If they prosecute him, then they are admitting to the world that what this man says is TRUTH! If they kill him, they make him a martyr and really get people looking at his information.

Do you see: the ones who put aside their fears and follow their heart, which knows the value of the information they hold and how ALL of humanity can greatly benefit from the "secret" information, are walking within the Protective Light of My Will.

Great gifts have been given to your world in many forms—from spiritual insights to advanced technologies that would enable your species to clean-up the environmental messes you are making and feed your starving world. These gifts have been, for the most part, confiscated, hidden, and exploited by your dark "elite" in their petty games of manipulation, deceit, and insane ego-bolstering.

YOU WHO REMAIN QUIET ABOUT YOUR SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE DO NO SERVICE FOR YOUR FELLOW HUMAN BEINGS, FOR YOUR WORLD IS ON THE BRINK OF MASSIVE PHYSICAL CHANGE AND THESE TECHNOLOGIES WILL BE USED AGAINST THE VERY PEOPLE WHOM YOU BELIEVE YOU ARE PROTECTING. HOW WILL YOU FEEL ABOUT THE DECISIONS FOR SILENCE YOU HAVE MADE, IN FEAR, WHEN THE RESULTS OF THOSE CHOICES MOST CERTAINLY CIRCLE BACK TO IMPACT NEGATIVELY UPON YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS IN SOME VERY BIG WAYS?

Take a step forward and tell your "secret" stories. And pay attention to avenues such as this newspaper and late-night radio talk-show host Art Bell's program, for therein are some of many possible valid avenues for broadcasting this information. When more and more step forward and shed light upon the "secret" technologies, there will be a "safety in numbers" and an exponential increase in the probability of survival of your planetary species.

Do this out of the Inner Knowing that it is the right thing to do and you will be well protected. It is MY promise!

Do it for the greed of money and ego gratification and you will, by your own hand, be putting yourself in a very compromised situation.

The "right" reason will resonate to the core of your being and thus tap great reservoirs of My Power. Your frequency will thus increase into a range where those who would intend you harm would simply not be able to co-exist for long within your physical space. This is the protective shielding of My Light at work!

This is as much a part of true physics as are the extra-terrestrial craft, which your governments have possession of, that use thought projections from an individual to directly interact with and operate the craft.

So, what are these "thought projections"? Your thoughts are as tangible as is the fruit which grows on trees or the air you breathe. They are electromagnetic, bi-polar, pulse-wave emanations. They can become quite visible in what you ones call etheric space (some call this hyper-space). Your thoughts are capable of interacting with the physical environment in very direct and noticeable manners. Just the act of observing (focusing attention upon) a situation both adds energy to it and (thus) modifies what you are observing.

[Editor's note: In a very much more limited way than what is being addressed above, quantum physics has long had a principle which recognizes this phenomenon, called the Heisenberg Uncertainty Principle. Interested readers should consult a good scientific dictionary or physics textbook for more information about the fascinating implications of this situation.

Of course, what Aton is talking about is key to such fundamental mind-over-matter phenomena as psychokinesis and levitation. For selfish reasons of control of the masses, the dark "elite" crooks would have you believe that such phenomena do not exist. Many heavily credentialed (and well paid) stooges and puppets of the dark agenda are more than happy to tell you things which serve to keep you asleep to your true potential as a Lighted being. It will be increasingly difficult to keep a lid on The Truth as things continue to evolve because, as Soltec commented last week, more and more scientists are observing mind-over-matter phenomena in sensitive experiments.]

You project (usually in a passive, scattered manner) your consciousness into whatever your thoughts are focused upon from moment to moment. These thoughts and ideas usually will cause an emotional response within you, proportional to the emotional charge associated with the thought. For many, the idea of watching two puppies playing will give a sensation of amusement and bring a smile to your face. Likewise, the thought of cattle in a slaughter house will usually stir up emotional sensations closer to sadness or outrage or even physical nausea for some.

When you are thinking thoughts which resonate with the core (non-physical) essence of your being—with your Higher Self—you are literally unstoppable! By contrast, when you dwell on those thoughts which cause you great inner frustration or turmoil, thus lowering your frequency, you will head down a path of diminishing returns. And if such thoughts become a habit, you will begin to diminish in both physical strength and mental clarity.

At this point I wish to address a related matter which is an aside to the main discussion of this writing. This matter has to do with those who have a Higher Purpose at this time as public receivers. The greatest problem we have with our public receivers at this time is in the form of distraction. Many of you ones place great faith in these ones to bring forth My messages in an accurate and uncompromised manner. These ones intrinsically know the level of responsibility it takes in order to insure an accurate message be penned.

These ones also know that they are not perfect, despite what many of you want to believe or place upon their shoulders. Just because a receiver is accurate today, does not necessarily mean they will be accurate tomorrow or at all times. Inner emotional turmoil is that which most frequently gets in the way of clear receiving, and can cause sometimes quite extreme "coloration" of a message we wish to transmit. NEVER BLINDLY ACCEPT ANY RECEIVED INFORMATION WITHOUT QUESTION!

When some (the most conscientious) public receivers perceive that they have made a mistake, whether they actually have or not, they will often withdraw from the responsible task of writing. Others, from a position of ego gratification, will deny their fallibility and begin to compound their error. Both of these will result in a lowered frequency state—one from withdrawal from (avoidance of) Higher Purpose, the other from compounding error with more error. This is where the adversary jumps in and begins to push all of the "buttons" he can, while he can.

My current receiver wishes to withdraw from this sort of work, for this one feels a tremendous pressure associated with bringing through as accurate a message as possible—so much so that this one feels it is easier to simply avoid the task. So, on behalf of all My scribes, everywhere (of which there are MANY), please read every word of such messages with a questioning and reasoning mind, and know that the ones who sit and write are NOT any different from you in terms of wanting answers—and having questions, doubts, fears, and inner turmoil—and most of all they make mistakes and are NOT perfect!

YOU must all discern every word you hear or read if you are to objectively find your own way. You should all be moving toward weaning yourselves from relying solely upon the words of another, and becoming more aware of your own Inner Connection. Any excuse you offer has been used till threadbare by every one of My scribes, and will do nothing except slow you down and get in your way.

Many of you are looking for answers to such questions as: "When will all of this great change take place?"

The answer is: You are in it—NOW! Cycles of change begin first on non-physical (mental) planes of experience, and then this energy filters down and begins to manifest in the physical consciousness associated with the planetary consciousness as a whole (which is connected to the Universal Consciousness of all sentient life-forms everywhere).

The emotional frequencies associated with your individual thoughts summon forth nonphysical energies which synchronize with the vibrational frequencies of these emotions. (Keep in mind that the "universal" language is EMOTION.) These energies are then focused through the mind-brain interface at levels both within and beyond the consciousness of the average person on your planet at this time. These energies then begin to interact in very orchestrated manners so as to, for example, bring people together at the "right" time so that there can be the fulfillment of an overall desire. What you ones often call "coincidences" and "good luck" (or "bad luck") are some of the recognized ways in which these energies operate.

There are an infinite number of variables in the equation which impact and affect the final physical "drama" from moment to moment. The orchestration of this drama is of a nature so as to keep the planetary consciousness heading in a general direction of purposeful growth. You will always have ones who seem to be operating outside such orchestration, for the general drama-equation allows for a "long-shot" to "play-through". It is for this reason that exact times and dates are neither practical nor reasonable.

Just the act of stating such a date introduces a variable that changes the equation. This is why My messengers suggest that you look at sequences of events, rather than at the clock or the calendar. When you see a great force rise up against your United Nations, and tear it down, you will know the ENDING of the so-called "tribulation" is near. YOU ARE IN IT NOW! So don't ask Me when it will start.

Look to whatever prophecies you care to place your beliefs in, and re-read them with discernment and what little knowledge you have concerning "super-secret" technologies, such as holographic projection, genetic engineering, electromagnetic propulsion craft (UFOs), and electromagnetic mind-control, and then formulate your OWN personal meaning about what you are reading. Perhaps the answers you are looking for are right there in front of you, awaiting you to take notice.

This cycle in which you are now experiencing is one of cleansing—a purification of sorts. Your planet is entering a high-frequency region wherein the inhabitants will need to match and maintain a minimum vibrational state (emotional and mental) that is quite high by your current standards. Along with this increased frequency will come a greater mental and emotional clarity. Ones will be able to literally observe when someone is in a lower-frequency state. Someone who is intentionally trying to deceive another, such as through lying or cheating, will stand out as a flashing red (warning) light to those they are trying to manipulate.

This will be an Age of Peace and an Age of Truth. The process of cleansing is perhaps the single most liberating experience one can have while in the physical. The negativity will literally be burned out of those of you who persist through these times. Your innate will to survive will be what guides you and allows you to make the necessary internal adjustments to the ever increasing frequency shifts.

Those who will not allow for the release of the negativity will simply transition (die) as the physical body is consumed with harsh emotional energy surges from within. It will be as if they are burned out from within.

There is great wisdom in heeding the many helpful messages sent your way at this time. Monitor closely your thoughts and subsequent emotions, and how it is you are flowing your energy from moment to moment. Developing this awareness now will greatly aid you in the coming years as things "heat-up" (increase in vibrational frequency).

The rewards will be great for those who persist through the challenges ahead. The proper mental and emotional attitude will insure a successful journey.

Be at peace and go within for your own clarification of this message. Many of you would greatly help your understanding if you were to get out a dictionary or technical reference and explore further the terms "frequency" and "vibration". The entirety of the physical universe can be described in these terms. All matter vibrates and thus has a frequency (rate of vibration) associated with it.

The physical is a reflection (and a subset) of the non-physical universes—and guess what? The non-physical universes are also made up of energies which vibrate and pulse. These are clues for you, to help you to make inner conscious connections about the true source and nature of Energy, Thought, and Soul Essence.

I am Aton. This is a label I have chosen to use, through this particular scribe and at this particular time; it means THE ONE LIGHT. I am Creator God. I am.

Go in peace, and forever seek greater understanding and clarity for yourselves.

Salu.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 805-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.
