Entering The Golden Age Of Cosmic Man's Awakening Begins With Knowing TRUTH!

12/22/98 KORTON

Good afternoon. Commander Tomeros Maasu Korton here in Service and Light unto Holy God.

This is a time of many lessons upon your world—the unfolding of long-standing Truths, the revealing of long-hidden lies, and the emancipation of the True Power within each Lighted fragment of Creator yearning to grow into Radiance. Toward that end I come at this time to discuss some of the ongoing recent events on your planet and coordinate your understanding of those events with Higher Purpose, that you may grow in ability to better read the clues on your own.

Now that you in America have been led to focus your attention back into outer space, such as through the recent publicity stunt of John Glenn, it is time to allow the last act of a most interesting physical play to unfold. Your adversarial group of Satanic controllers—Committee of 300, Illuminati, Freemasonists, MJ-12, Trilateralists, Bilderbergers, Foreign Relations Council, Club of Rome, or, Big Oil, Big Business, Big Bankers, The British Crown, The Zionist-affiliated Jews, The P2 (Propaganda 2)-affiliated Italian mobsters, right on down to Global Intelligence uniting of KGB, CIA, NSA, MI-6, Mossad, SEDECE, and all the world's spy "cults"—are now ready to pull off the biggest hoax man (Please see Entering The Golden Age Of Cosmic Man's Awakening, p.12)

MAJOR ASSET SALE IN THAILAND

From WORLD NEWS from Radio Australia, 12/16/98: [quoting]

Auctioneers in Bangkok are ready to start what Thai officials are calling the world's biggest ever one-day asset sale.

Lots up for auction are core assets from 56 companies shut down by the government last year in the darkest hours of Thailand's worst economic crisis.

The auction is the culmination of Thailand's efforts to pay back creditors of the firms, including the central bank which lent BILLIONS of dollars in a doomed effort to salvage the sector.

Critics say the measures are tantamount to the government selling Thailand off cheaply to foreigners.

Economists say the auction will play a crucial role in restoring foreign investor confidence in Thailand. [End quoting]

It was all part of the plan to rape the country from the very beginning of setting up the financial chaos—then buy all the assets for pennies on the dollar and no doubt squeeze out any possible non-gang-member bidders.

SADDAM SECRET ARMY "TO LAUNCH LONDON ATTACKS"

Excerpted from the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <"wrlldline@texas.net">, 12/22/98: [quoting]

REVENGE for the raids on Iraq could begin with terrorist attacks on President Saddam Hussein's opponents in Britain. Diplomats and security officials in the Gulf feared yesterday the Iraqi leader would "contract Islamic terrorist groups" to exact retaliation for Operation Desert Fox.

Kuwaiti officials said they had stepped up security for Britons there, and revealed that terrorist threats were made yesterday against its embassy and offices in London.

A leading Arab newspaper, Al-Hayat, published in London, reported receiving a telephone warning from an unnamed Islamic group threatening to bomb Kuwaiti targets in Britain. Many Iraqi dissidents live in London, including key figures in the Iraqi National Congress. A leading Scotland Yard anti-terrorist detective yesterday called the threats "very credible. You can take it we are very aware of the heightened risk."

Security checks and roadblocks have been stepped up in Kuwait City and officials said armed National Guards had been deployed around residential complexes where British diplomats and civilians live. More Western civilians are leaving Kuwait than the usual Christmas exodus, and an increasing number of Kuwaitis were yesterday trying to book flights out. [End quoting]

And guess what—the "terrorists" are probably setups by the same crooks who started the bombings of Iraq.

FBI TASK FORCE TO TARGET NW HATE GROUPS

Excerpted from the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <"wrlldline@texas.net">, 12/22/98: [quoting]

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 22 (UPI)—FBI agents have confirmed that a special task force is being formed in the Northwest to handle the growing number of domestic terrorism cases in eastern Washington, northern Idaho and Montana.

The Spokane Spokesman-Review newspaper reported today that details have not been revealed, but special agents say the force will monitor anti-government and White supremacy groups that have been behind acts of terrorism in the region over the past 16 years.

Special Agent Burdena Pasenelli told the newspaper "This is the first time in the history of the FBI that two field offices have come together to form a task force to look at an ongoing criminal problem."

The force will reportedly involve the participation of at least three dozen federal, state and local officers from three states.

It will use offices in Spokane, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho and Helena, Mont. [End quoting]

Things must be getting pretty hot for the "elite" controllers so they are going to go after the resisters—the ones who "aren't going to take it any longer".

Our advice has always been to play it God's way—which is non-violence.

BRITS ORDERED TO HOARD FOR Y2K SHORTAGES

Excerpted from the INTERNET, courtesy of Calvin Burgin, <"wrlldline@texas.net">, 12/14/98: [quoting]

by Nicole Veash/London Observer Service

Britons have been warned to stock up with two weeks' emergency food rations in anticipation of "millennium bug"-related shortages.

The government's millennium-bug task force, Action 2000, is advising every British household to take sensible precautions against the millennium bug by buying an extra supply of food, in the direst warning yet of a potential millennium meltdown.

In an unprecedented statement indicating the level of panic in official circles, the Department of Trade and Industry-funded task force, charged with minimizing potential damage caused by the bug, has said that contingency planning for a worst-case scenario should start as soon as possible.

"We are talking about people having a judicious amount of surplus food in their kitchen cupboards. Anyone sensible would plan for this," said Gwynneth Flower, head of Action 2000. "Because we don't want to see panic buying in the weeks leading up to next Christmas, consumers should think about this in advance."

Flower's warning has emerged amid increasing concern over the impact of the millennium bug—a computer code anomaly that will not allow many of the world's computers and a substantial percentage of computer chips to function properly when their internal clocks reach 2000.

Despite repeated assurances that the bug will be ironed out, it has now emerged that large numbers of government, utilities and corporate computer systems will not be ready for the turn of the century. According to Action 2000, the British government will issue a leaflet either next spring or summer explaining what sort of food people should keep in their stockpile [Why are they waiting so long??].

"Tins, dried foods and grains will be very useful," Flower said. "Cans of soup, maybe half a dozen curries, tuna and packets of biscuits. Long-life milk would also be a good idea, although we wouldn't advise people to stockpile water [emphasis mine]."

"We are talking about the sort of common sense provision that you would automatically do to ensure against any potential emergency."

Despite Action 2000's advice, most major British supermarkets are not planning to buy increased stocks of long-life products with long shelf-lives.

"We feel fairly confident that everything will be normal next year," said a spokeswoman for the Sainsbury chain. "Much of our millennium preparation is going on alcohol because we think people will be drinking more [emphasis mine]. We are renting an extra 400,000 square feet of warehouse space for all that surplus booze." [End quoting]

Can you imagine telling the people that stocking water isn't important when the water companies won't be able to supply it—but they're going to have plenty of booze so you can get drunk while you die. Doesn't this sound like part of the Depopulation Plan 2000?

WORLD'S FIRST MANNED ROCKET FLIGHT IN 1633!

From WEEKLY WORLD NEWS, by Naresh Singh, 12/15/98: [quoting]

History's first manned rocket flight wasn't a U.S. or Russian launch in the 1960s—it happened in Turkey way back in 1633!

That's when a daredevil named Hasan Celebi blasted off in a two-stage, gunpowder-powered rocket that flew 1½ miles off the coast of Turkey before crashing into the sea.

"Celebi sat in a center section of the 90-foot rocket as it blasted off," said Mauritz Roffavik, director of the Norway Aircraft Museum and co-owner of a firm that plans to raise the rocket and exhibit it in a museum. "Six small engines circled a larger central motor. The six smaller rockets comprised the 'first stage' that lifted the rocket into the air."

When these rockets had exhausted their fuel, the larger central rocket, or the "second stage", ignited and pushed the rocket further into the air, said Roffavik.

"Once the rocket reached its highest point—900 feet—Celebi jumped off and floated toward the sea on a primitive form of hang-gliding equipment. He then swam to shore while the rocket crashed into the water 1½ miles away.

“Later in the evening he received honors from the Sultan of Turkey,” Roffavik said.

“The Turkish army had rocketry divisions as far back as the 15th century. Their rockets would blast enemy positions, killing or frightening those they were aimed against. But this 90-foot projectile was the first to be manned.”

Frank Winter, assistant curator for launch vehicles, at the Space and Exploration Department of the Smithsonian Institution, said: “The flight of the Turkish rocketeer Celebi in 1633 is the first manned rocket flight ever recorded.” [End quoting]

The “elite” have been hiding far greater secrets than this for centuries—like nuclear war on this planet thousands of years ago and extraterrestrial visits since ancient times.

THEY CALL IT VIGILANCE

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, Dec. 1998: [quoting]

Congress and the Clinton administration want you to believe they are firmly committed to keeping Americans safe from terrorism. That’s why you show ID and pass through metal detectors when boarding a plane, for example. At the same time, however, the US annually allows hundreds of “students” from terrorist-sponsoring states like Iran, Iraq, Libya, Sudan, and Syria to attend American colleges and universities to study chemical engineering, nuclear physics and other military-related subjects. The “students”, says Hillary Mann of the Washington Institute for Near East Policy, are sometimes funded by their governments for eventual political and military purposes. [End quoting]

We know there is no sanity in government anti-terrorism policy and it is used as a cover for control of the American population. This is simply one more example of the truth behind the deception.

POLITICS AND SOCIAL SECURITY

From THE MODESTO BEE, letter to the editor, 12/8/98: [quoting]

I had been hopeful that The Bee’s series on the Social Security system would be an in-depth study of the system—its strengths and weaknesses.

What we got was a “political press release” on which politicians could hang their support of the system. We got a lot of data, projections, and everyone’s pledge to “protect the system”.

You did get one thing right, Social Security is “Robinhoodish” and a “redistribution of money”. It is a social program and should not be confused with any retirement-pension program.

As a social program, every citizen who works should be required to participate in Social Security.

Why should any group (members of Congress, railroad workers, teachers, on and on) be exempt from participation in “FDR’s greatest legacy”? Exempt groups can only laugh at Social Security and hope they are never a part of it. However, they do like Medicare.

A couple of suggestions for restructuring the system. First, require that everyone be a participant. No exceptions! An employer could still provide an additional program if it so desired. Second, the return to an individual should be commensurate with his or her contribution to the system.

The Bee would do well to research and provide the public with information on how Social Security compares to exempt groups’ retirement programs. Compare contribution, benefits, retirement age, penalties for working after retirement, etc.

This would allow workers to see what could be done with their contribution. Workers would ask for a revamping of the system, not just a continuation.

I believe in Social Security and that it should be saved. But, it needs restructuring so that it is fair and the social aspect of the system doesn’t fall on only some citizens. —Bob Schenone [End quoting]

Anytime we think the government is going to change a law to give more, safer or fairer benefits to “we the people” we should have our heads examined. Social Security was set up as a method to rape and control us suckers!! It was “F. D. Roosevelt’s legacy” because he was able to pull off such a massive heist of power and money in one fell swoop!

RE: ASPARTAME— SOME MAY SAY CONSPIRACY

From the INTERNET, <HE0T@one1ist.com>, 12/24/98: [quoting]

From: “G. Kuric” <gek@townsqr.com>
Happy Holidays, everyone!

My 28-year-old daughter is recovering from Aspartame poisoning at this time, so although I am incredulous at the damage this substance can do, I have had very recent first-hand experience. A year ago she and her fiancé had a bad truck wreck and he was killed. She has been in terribly worsening shape all year—severe muscle pains in legs, slurred speech, fatigue, confusion, high anxiety, terrible stomach problems, headaches, sleep disorder—and the doctor finally, after many tests, diagnosed fibromyalgia aggravated by stress.

About a month ago I started to receive these Aspartame warnings and the symptoms were such a perfect match that I went over and cleaned out her cabinets. She has, shall we say, a different style of eating than I do. She drinks a six-pack a day of regular Coke which I suspect contains Aspartame, under “artificial sweeteners”. She was also drinking a few Instant Breakfasts a day under doctor’s orders, hot cocoa mix, fancy cappuccino mix, and wine coolers. These are all loaded with Aspartame. I also removed the Flintstone vitamins her 4-year-old takes. I found it in the fake creamer I use at work in my coffee. Once you start looking, it is in many packaged foods!

After ONE day my daughter was able to put away the walker she had been using for months to get to school and work. Daily she improved until most of her symptoms just disappeared! I’ve never seen so dramatic a healing along nutritional lines before!

If Monsanto is pushing this stuff here, just imagine the amount dumped on Third World people! Methanol poisoning—a tricky way to incapacitate a fourth of the population, while making a buck.

Cheers everyone, have an enjoyable Holiday, and may the new year bring further enlightenment on many issues! —Gail [End quoting]

This is an excellent follow-up on the article I recently published in last week’s CONTACT on artificial sweeteners. I hope you don’t need any more evidence to, at the very least, do your own research. Every reader should quickly look into the herb Stevia and the available literature about Stevia. This amazing natural sweetener is being squashed, along with all literature on the subject, just as fast as bogus charges can be generated to cover the tracks of the cover-up. This seems to be a collusional effort between the government (who wants you sick) and the sugar industry (who wants their cash flow to continue). Please look into Stevia and remain vigilant about the diabolical steps being taken by such as the FDA to ban this wonderful herbal sweetener, as well as the educational literature and cookbooks which help you to use it.

YOU MAY BE IN VIOLATION OF FTC REGULATIONS!

Excerpted from a PAMPHLET supplied by a Doctor of Chiropractic in Montreal, 12/98: [quoting]

An urgent alert to all Doctors of Chiropractic in the United States from Dr. Terry A. Rondberg:

You may be in danger of violating federal law if you:

- * Suggest to patients that correction of vertebral subluxation may be beneficial to their health;

- * Provide any educational material which discusses the use of chiropractic as a way to improve health by eliminating nerve interference;

- * Promote chiropractic as part of a wellness program including chiropractic for children;

- * State or imply that vertebral subluxations—also known as “the silent killer”—might have a negative affect on general health or nerve function; or

- * Distribute virtually ANY book, pamphlet or brochure published by any organization, company or individual which refers to chiropractic as a way to enhance health or aid the body in its fight against disease.

According to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) anything you say in your advertising, patient education materials, discussions and presentations, or other communication must be supported by what it deems to be “competent and reliable scientific evidence”. This is defined by them as “adequate and well-controlled clinical testing conforming to acceptable designs and protocols and conducted by a person or persons qualified by training and experience to conduct such testing”.

To discredit chiropractic, the medical establishment has claimed there is no valid scientific evidence of the existence of vertebral subluxations or the negative impact of subluxations on human health. Even some chiropractors like Slaughter and Triano, have similarly dismissed the entire concept of vertebral subluxation. Therefore, any information you provide on VS could be considered deceptive advertising and be outlawed. If you so much as tell your patients that correcting their vertebral subluxations might have a beneficial effect on their health, you could be in violation of FTC regulations.

This is not a False alarm! This is a very real threat to all D.C.s who wish to spread the chiropractic message. Already, the FTC has engaged in lengthy and costly investigations of various non-allopathic health care advocates and has in almost all cases made it impossible for them to provide information on products or services which might compete with the medical establishment. If the FTC is not stopped, it can and probably will turn on the rest of us. You could be next!

CHIROPRACTOR FILES LAWSUIT AGAINST THE FTC

To fight such blatant abuse of power, as President of the World Chiropractic Alliance and Chiropractic Benefit Services and publisher of The Chiropractic Journal I have retained famed attorney Richard A. Jaffe to fight for our profession. At my own expense, I filed a lawsuit against the FTC to protect the right of all chiropractors to inform your patients and the public at large of the importance of correcting vertebral subluxations.

Mr. Jaffe is well known in chiropractic circles and throughout the health care arena. He has a proven track record of success in fighting against the medical establishment and the government in defense of the rights of alternative practitioners. He took on the FDA and successfully represented Dr. Stanislaw Burzynsky, whose alternative cancer treatment “threatened” the medical and pharmaceutical industries. He also championed the chiropractic cause when he successfully represented New Jersey chiropractors in a federal racketeering action against employees of the New Jersey Department of Insurance, Fraud Division.

He knows first-hand how the government is acting to bolster the medical monopoly—and he knows how to fight back and win. The lawsuit he filed in U.S. District Court calls for an injunction to stop the FTC from interfering with the right of chiropractors around the country to advocate the benefits of chiropractic care.

“The FTC is attempting to police and censor matters of pure advocacy which are fully protected by the first amendment,” Mr. Jaffe stated. “We hope and expect that the Federal Court will send a clear message to the FTC.”

WHY WE NEED TO FEAR THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

The stated mission of the FTC is to “ensure that the nation’s markets function competitively, and are vigorous, efficient, and free of undue restrictions”. Yet, when it comes to health care, its allegiance to the medical and pharmaceutical industries is hard to ignore.

When dealing with health care issues, the FTC works hand-in-hand with the Food & Drug Administration (FDA). Its primary public document on fraudulent health claims was produced in cooperation with the FDA and it takes much of its information on health care from the FDA. It refers people to the FDA for information about health care and receives referrals from the FDA on related advertising.

The FDA, in turn, is closely aligned with the pharmaceutical companies. In fact, it is financially dependent on the drug industry. The Prescription Drug User Fee Act of 1992 required drug and biologics manufacturers to pay fees for drug and biologics applications, as well as annual establishment fees and annual product fees. In short, the drug companies pay the salaries of the FDA reviewers who are charged with approving their products.

With a projected income from drug companies of more than $183 million in just five years, the FDA is undoubtedly going to put the interests of the drug industry before anything else. Naturally, the FTC is going to work with its sister agency to promote allopathic domination of the health care field.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR CHIROPRACTIC— YOU AND ME

The current FTC actions have the potential to affect ALL doctors of chiropractic practicing in America—regardless of how they practice. Right now, the FDA—which supplies information to the FTC—cooperates closely with William Jarvis, Ph.D., and Stephen Barrett, M.D. and their “National Council Against Health Fraud”. The FDA’s Internet site is sprinkled with quotes from Jarvis, who is presented as an expert in health care. The same Barrett and Jarvis who for years have headed the most vicious and slanderous campaign against chiropractic, claiming that the major premise of chiropractic is invalid.

Few people would argue that the drug and medical industries would benefit greatly if chiropractic could be discredited. The public’s interest in non-allopathic health care and wellness has been sparked in great part by the educational efforts of doctors of chiropractic. Stop us and the last real obstacle to a totally medicalized society would be eliminated.

First, the medical establishment tried to stop us by claiming we were practicing medicine without a license and having us thrown in jail. We fought back and finally won our right to have a separate licensed profession.

Then, the AMA and other medical organizations outlawed any dealings with chiropractors and engaged in an aggressive campaign of misinformation. We fought back and won the landmark case of Wilk vs. AMA.

Now, the medical interests are trying to prevent chiropractors from making any statements or claims about the health benefits of chiropractic. If we fight back NOW, we can win once again. [End quoting]

I would venture that thousands of CONTACT readers have benefited from chiropractors. If we want to continue using them we’d better start speaking up to the politicians.

POLYGAMY TRIAL SET

From THE MODESTO BEE, 12/11/98: [quoting]

A leader of one of Utah’s largest and most secretive polygamist clans was ordered Thursday to stand trial on charges of incest and sexual abuse of a minor stemming from his alleged marriage to his 17-year-old niece. The girl testified Thursday that she was “trapped” in an arranged polygamous marriage with David Ortell Kingston and—fearing to refuse his advances—had sex with him four times. [End quoting]

SMUGGLING CHARGED

From THE MODESTO BEE, 12/11/98: [quoting]

Thirty-five people have been charged in an immigrant-smuggling operation that investigators say made $170 million in two years by moving 3,600 Chinese citizens across the Canadian border into the United States. [End quoting]

It looks like ones were playing outside of the gangster’s control and the “competition” had to be put in its place.

EDUCATION EFFICIENCY

From MEDIA BYPASS, 12/98: [quoting]

Analyses by the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development show that U.S. schools are the least efficient, in terms of academic improvement, among those of all industrialized nations. U.S. academic expenditures are the third highest in the world, 75 percent more than the international primary school average and 54 percent more than the international average for secondary schools. Despite that expenditure, U.S. students make just 78 percent of the year-to-year progress in reading made by students in 17 OECD countries, and only 73 percent as much progress in math as students in those countries. In science, U.S. student progress ranked second to last. [End quoting]

This is just another way to look at the statistics which tell the story of the dumbing down of the American educational system.

CATEGORICAL IMPERATIVES

From MEDIA BYPASS, 12/98: [quoting]

Government schools are burdened by agendas, which undermine the teaching of basic reading, writing, math, science and history. Mandated government school programs now include environmental education, special education, bilingual education, cultural awareness, drug education, driver education, sex education, gang intervention and health screening. These imperatives have greatly reduced the original mandate of government schools to teach. If American schools are to become the great institutions of learning they once were, they must regain their focus on education. [End quoting]

It won’t happen until we put an end to the reign of the dark, so-called “elite” who definitely don’t want our kids to be educated.

QUIPS

From MEDIA BYPASS, 12/98: [quoting]

- If elections could really change anything, they would be illegal.

- President Clinton’s spin doctors are now on TV defending Clinton’s crimes by saying: “Jesus said, ‘Let he who is without sin cast the first stone.’” If they would bring Clinton in front of me and say this, I would supply the stone and be the first to cast it at him. [I certainly understand his feelings but don’t agree with his proposed action.].

- It is a fact that Americans spend more money on bubble gum each year than on political campaigns. When an American buys a piece of bubble gum, at least they get something for their money.

- The only reason that it is against the law to steal is because the government doesn’t want any competition.

- If private businesses handled their employees’ personal pension plans the same way Washington politicians handle Social Security, they would be arrested and thrown in the slammer for life. [End quoting]

LASER POINTERS ARE RED DOT MENACES

From THE MODESTO BEE, 12/8/98: [quoting]

They may seem the ideal stocking-stuffer: small, inexpensive and a guaranteed hit with hard-to-please adolescents. Yet laser pointers—the size and shape of a pen and capable of beaming a red light as far away as 1,500 feet—can be dangerous in the hands of children.

Ophthalmologists warn that the pointers pose a danger far worse than mischief. Although the light produced by laser pointers is less than a penlight flashlight, its focused energy pointed at an eye for several seconds can damage the retina.

After some girls pointed the beams at their eyes for several seconds and experienced temporary vision loss, both the American Academy of Ophthalmology and the federal Food and Drug Administration issued warnings to parents and school officials. At gift-buying time, it's a message worth heeding: "Don't let your kids play with these items," warns the academy, "and no matter how much they beg, don't purchase them as a substitute for a toy." [End quoting]

Please be cautious of allowing any of your children to have these unless they have a genuine purpose for them.

FARMERS TALK MORE OF SUICIDE

Excerpted from THE MODESTO BEE, 11/29/98: [quoting]

"They are not going to be obvious suicides, because then the life insurance is no good."

The University of Nebraska had reported 21 farm fatalities through the end of October. There were 23 farm deaths last year and 20 in 1996.

The number of calls to the hot line where Soll works has doubled since July, with a sharp rise in callers talking of suicide.

Some say, "I could make a lot more for my wife if she had my life insurance instead of me," Soll said. "I have to keep reminding them that that is not for a long-term solution."

The best way to prevent farm suicides is to get the word out about counseling hot lines and places where farmers can go for help, officials said. [End quoting]

The best way to prevent these suicides and many others is to put honest politicians into offices so that the farmers can run an honest and ethical business without the crooks in office robbing them and controlling them.

DIARRHEA DOSE FOR KIDS

From THE MODESTO BEE, 12/8/98: [quoting]

The nation's largest pediatricians' group says all U.S. infants should be vaccinated against the leading cause of diarrhea, an illness that each year causes 55,000 hospitalizations, kills 40 children, and costs $400 million. Though costly, the three-dose vaccine against rotavirus, an intestinal infection, should prevent thousands of American preschoolers from suffering severe diarrhea, health officials believe. In the most severe cases, a child can experience 10 to 20 episodes of diarrhea in a single day, quickly getting dangerously dehydrated. The vaccine costs $38 per dose wholesale. [End quoting]

First, the price is plain robbery; second, they don't say it will help, only that it should—no guarantees; and third, but the most important—no guarantees that it won't maim or kill your child as so many vaccines have for decades. BEWARE!!

HOLOCAUST FUND COMING

From THE MODESTO BEE, 12/8/98: [quoting]

LONDON—The government will establish a $40 million fund to compensate victims of Nazi persecution whose assets were seized by Britain during World War II, The Financial Times reported Monday. Details of the compensation plan are to be announced today in Parliament. [End quoting]

These gangster-blackmailing—"Jews" will never give up their lucrative extortion racket until we-the-people let them know: "We aren't going to take it any longer!"

FDIC DRAWS WRATH OF THE PUBLIC

From THE MODESTO BEE, 12/11/98: [quoting]

The FDIC is being deluged with thousands of e-mails and letters from citizens furious about new anti-money-laundering rules proposed for banks, which they view as an invasion of privacy. [Hooray!]

As a visible symbol of the federal government with a plaque in every bank branch, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. has become a magnet for consumers' anger over the proposed rules. The ire is directed at the proposed regulations, called "Know Your Customer" rules, that would require banks to verify their customers' identities and know where their money comes from. [End quoting]

We ran a major story on this matter on the Front Page of the 12/8/98 issue of CONTACT. That was the best way to blow the cover off these antics the crooks in Washington were trying to keep ever so quiet. Our voices are being heard, but if we get complacent they are going to continue their ways—don't let up on the complaints!!

WHAT GOOD ARE CONSERVATIVES?

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, Dec. 1998: [quoting]

Right-wing Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-UT, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, helped confirm the appointment of Left-wing Clinton pal William Fletcher as a federal appeals court judge on the 9th circuit in San Francisco. Fletcher, a college classmate of Clinton's, was barred by law from serving on the circuit because his mother sits as a judge on the same court. Sen. Hatch joined forces with the Senate Left to pass legislation circumventing federal anti-nepotism law. Fletcher never worked as a lawyer or a judge—only as an academic—but he was confirmed 57-41. The 9th U.S. Court of Appeals is widely regarded as the most left-wing in the country, and Fletcher will help keep the panel's reputation, thanks to Hatch. [End quoting]

Welcome to the politics of "You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours." The days for this kind of nonsense are rapidly running out as more people become aware of political shenanigans and take action.

HELPFUL HATCH

From MIDDLE AMERICAN NEWS, Dec. 1998: [quoting]

Sen. Hatch also endorsed Clinton's idea for more "hate crime" legislation. In an interview with Associated Press, Hatch said, "Sometimes you may need something like that so everybody in this country realizes there's a penalty, that there's a punishment that comes from being vicious and vindictive against people who you might not agree with." But the legislation has nothing to do with stopping bad behavior; laws like that are already on the books. Instead, "hate crime" laws criminalize the ideas and emotions that accompany behavior. Clinton's bill would add gender, "sexual orientation", and disability to existing federal hate crime law. Hatch said he would be glad to help Clinton by holding hearings on the bill. [End quoting]

Looks like Clinton and Hatch have quite a cozy relationship going on.

ADVICE FROM A TIE PEDDLER

From ANGELS ON EARTH, Sep/Oct, 1998, Guideposts, 39 Seminary Hill Rd., Carmel, NY 10512: [quoting]

On a late summer day in 1934, in Long Beach, Calif., Mrs. Bowley hurried to answer the doorbell. Through the screen she could hear the whir of a distant lawnmower, children playing up the block, a rustle of the palm trees at curb's edge—all the usual sounds of an afternoon on Raymond Street. "Coming!" Mrs. Bowley called. Her daughter followed behind, first toddling on wobbly legs, then plopping down to crawl, so she could keep up with her mother's quick steps.

When she realized it was a peddler, Mrs. Bowley was sorry she'd made such a fuss. "Not today, I'm afraid," she said. But the man had already flipped open his display of ties.

She hesitated, hating to seem too abrupt during these hard times.

Mrs. Bowley scrutinized the man as he went into his sales pitch. He wasn't young, nor pitifully old. His clothes, though passably clean, were baggy at the knees and frayed at the cuffs. Yet it was his demeanor that was really telling. Beneath thick brows his eyes were downcast, and as he mumbled on she couldn't help but wonder how many ties he had actually sold from the display in his arms. Not a one, was her guess.

The child behind her tugged at the hem of her skirt. Mrs. Bowley scooped her up, smoothing back dark curls from the little forehead.

The man stopped talking and watched the child. He watched too as the mother smiled and soothed her baby.

"That's a beautiful little girl, lady," the peddler allowed. "Is she yours?"

"Of course she's mine," Mrs. Bowley answered, holding the young one close.

"I mean, is she really yours?" The peddler's voice was low, but his meaning was clear. He lifted his head, his gaze challenging her. Mrs. Bowley felt her throat tighten. This was absurd, she and the peddler looking into each other's eyes, a question hanging in the air between them. The child cooed. Mrs. Bowley stood mute in the doorway.

He knew. This stranger knew. Just by looking, he knew. The joy of the last several months fell away.

"No," Mrs. Bowley whispered finally. "She's adopted."

"Are you going to tell her, ma'am?"

"No—yes—I don't know," she stammered. "My husband and I can't agree."

Then, in horror and disbelief at what she'd admitted to a complete stranger, a down-and-out peddler, no less, she moved to shut the door. But somehow he'd opened the screen far enough to insert his foot and stop the door from closing.

"Don't be afraid, lady. Please," he begged. "I want to tell you the story of my life."

Mrs. Bowley wondered later why she hadn't run out the back to a neighbor's, or grabbed the phone to call the police. Instead she listened, reluctantly, through a crack in the door only as wide as the peddler's foot.

"I'm from a small town in the Midwest," he began. "Corn country. I was the oldest of three boys. My parents had thought they would be childless forever before they adopted me, but as sometimes happens, after I arrived my mother was able to have two more children. They didn't tell me I was adopted and I didn't know any different."

The peddler pulled a yellowed handkerchief from his pocket and wiped his brow. "Until I was thirteen. A classmate called me a dirty name. I laughed at first, but when he insisted it was true, I fought him after school. My brothers watched and then followed me home at a distance, lowering their heads when I looked back. I guess they knew what was coming.

"When we got to the house I asked what the boy had meant. I'd had time to think it over for myself. I was different from my brothers. They were light; I was dark. They were pudgy; I was tall and thin. They were always laughing and carrying on; I was serious and quiet.

"Could it be my brothers weren't really my brothers? Could it be my mom and dad weren't really my parents?

Could it be? I asked my brothers, over and over again."

Mrs. Bowley listened more intently, opening the door bit by bit, until only the screen separated her from the peddler.

"Finally they admitted it: I was adopted. The cousins had told, and sworn them to secrecy. They were crying now, their eyes pleading with me to say I understood and that it was okay. But it wasn't.

"I washed my face, put some clothes in a sack, grabbed the money jar I kept by my bed, and ran toward town. My brothers tried to keep up. They ran after me, begging me to come back. I didn't. I couldn't. I caught a bus without caring where it was going—just so long as it took me far away from what I'd thought was my family. I haven't seen them since."

He cleared his throat, looking around as if for the rest of the story, as if there must be words somewhere to fill the years from age 13 to the present. "You've got to tell her, lady." His eyes came back to meet hers. "You've got to tell her the truth. It's being lied to that's unbearable," he said. "Yes, that's it," he repeated, seeming just now to come to the conclusion for himself.

Mrs. Bowley stared, confused, moved again to silence by the peddler's words. Her eyes grew wet as she switched the squirming baby to the other hip. She thought of cornfields surrounding a small town, of brothers now grown, of parents perhaps no longer living.

"Did they try to find you?" she asked.

"Yes, they had me followed. For years. Many's the time I slipped out the back door of a hotel after seeing a detective in the lobby. I got good at spotting them." As if from habit, his eyes darted to the street behind him.

"Were they well-to-do, then? To afford detectives, I mean."

"Oh, no," the peddler said. "They ran a small hardware store, and times weren't all that good then, either."

Mrs. Bowley struggled to understand. "Did they treat you"—she chose the word carefully—"differently from your brothers?"

He considered the question. "If anything, they treated me better. Like I was their favorite, even."

Her face flushed as she assessed the story from a mother's point of view. "Did you get measles, chicken pox, whooping cough?"

"Yes, I did."

"Were you ever hurt? Bruised? Ever fall off your bike? Or a horse?" Mrs. Bowley's voice rose.

"Yes."

"Did they pick you up when you cried?" she demanded. "Take you to the doctor? Get up with you in the middle of the night? Did they do all this without complaining?"

"They did."

"Because they loved you?"

"Yes." The peddler bit his lip. "They loved me."

Mrs. Bowley was satisfied. She had made her point. She burst through the doorway, shoving his case, pushing him down the steps. "Get out! Get out! Go away!" she hollered, retreating into her house, slamming the door behind her. She couldn't stand the sight of him, not for another second. How could he have put his parents through so much grief? Mrs. Bowley clung to her daughter, promising her there would never be such distance and misunderstanding between them.

Several months went by and one day she again answered the door to a peddler. This one was neat, his hair trimmed, clothes well pressed. His smile was confident and he stood straight. Then she noticed something sticking out of his case. A tie? Instantly she recognized the man and stepped back to shut the door.

"Please, lady, listen! I called them—my parents. For Thanksgiving." His words tumbled out. "I'm going home for Christmas."

The door was pulled open, and Mrs. Bowley peeked out from behind it.

"They wanted to send me money right away, but I couldn't let them. I'm saving up, and I've almost enough. My mom's so grateful to you. And so am I. I believe God sent me to your door because He knew you would change my life."

"But it was you who changed our lives." Mrs. Bowley smiled tenderly. "My husband and I have settled our differences, and as soon as our little girl is old enough to understand, we will tell her how she came to us."

My mother kept her word. Growing up, I often heard the story of the tie peddler who had shown up on our doorstep and inspired her to let me know that I was the baby they wanted most of all. [End quoting]

It never ceases to amaze me how God uses us to help others—and, in turn, to help ourselves. ~~✠~~

Mitar Tarabich, Serbian Prophet; A Reader's Comments

12/7/98 NORA BOYLES

I received in the mail a most welcome letter from a reader who is obviously knowledgeable about the Serbian/Croatian language but also a person with deep appreciation and respect for Mitar Tarabich. He read my brief update on the subject which appeared in the 10/6/98 issue of CONTACT, and has some corrections to offer. You may recall that the information available to me at that time came from a website author named Tim Good and the book, The Balkan Prophecies. I believe that this reader's observations speak for themselves: [quoting as received]

Dear Nora,

I like to offer a few observations on your article in the recent (October 6, 1998) issue of CONTACT: "Mitar Tarabich—Serbian Prophet", and maybe help you to correct some mistakes that worked their way into that presentation. My only reference here is the original book that you mention in your introduction, authored by John Bonicle-Malenkoviely: Kremausko Prorocestvo, Beograd 1986.

As you mention, the book is well illustrated with an assortment of old photographs.

However very few of these leave any meaningful connection with Mitar and his prophecies. There are a few pictures of Zaharije Zaharieh (page 6 i 37) [sic]. No pictures of Mitar or any of his relatives. The old woman in the photo on top of page 200 is referred to as only possibly being Mitar's wife.

The corrections, if I may, as some of minor and some of major disagreement: Zaharije Zaharieh was Mitar's priest, friend and confidant, but not his godfather. Born in 1836, Zaharije (that j is the sound of y) was Mitar's junior by seven years. The word kum, which by dictionary would translate as godfather, has a different meaning in general usage in that part of the world. My best effort at interpreting kum used in that book would be: dependable friend, steady friend.

Mitar's visions and any concern the government had were for Serbia, not Yugoslavia, as the latter did not exist.

The cause of Tito's death Mitar states in the short chapter on page 174 in one concise sentence: "Od toga gubitka nože ce i umrijeti, a ne od starosti svoje." Translated literally saying: "From that loss of the leg he will die, and not from his old age." And that is exactly how Tito—bless his soul—passed on. Tito ended up with some kind of bad infection on one of his legs (maybe gangrene), doctors amputated his leg in an effort to stop the spreading, but some poisoning, I believe, did spread through his blood. Was there also a case of diabetes involved behind the infection and the loss of his leg? I do not know. Whatever the particulars of his final health problem causing the death, Tito definitely died by loss of his leg, as Mitar had predicted a century before the event. How that could be missed by this people, Sever-Vaujaka, is hard to understand, especially as the original authors in their book particularly mention, on the same page 174, this very prophesy as an outstanding example of Mitar's clear vision into future.

Mitar presents Tito as the ruler riding on a white horse and attributes the injury of his leg to the fall from that white horse. The authors, Golubovich and Malenkovich, also point out, correctly, in the same chapter, that the white horse on which Tito was meant to be riding (and then falling off) was a symbolic presentation of his leadership and rule. We should remember—or know—that Tito indeed rose to power and "rode" through long years as the ruler of Yugoslavia by awakening, organizing and leading the good, positive, white (as against dark) forces in people. Forces of unity, cooperation, brotherhood. The "white horse" however was not a parade-rider show-horse, but a war stallion that tramped under its hoofs also some good people and ideas with the bad ones. That is to say Tito's rule was not pure white, but it was the best practically possible in the place and time. To understand what dark forces and dragons Tito and his white horse kept at bay, look at those lands today!

Mitar Tarabich did NOT consider himself a Yugoslavian, but that which he was—a Serbian. Not only he did not but he possibly could not have been a Yugoslavian, as Yugoslavia never existed in or near Mitar's time. The country to be later named Yugoslavia was put together at the end of WWI, under the name: Drzava Srba, Hivata Sloveuaca, meaning Country of Serbs, Croats and Slavenes. That is almost 30 years after Mitar's passing. Years later the country was renamed to Kingdom of Yugoslavia. UYG (spelled JUG) meaning South; so, South Slavs-ia.

Although Mitar in a way foresees the future country Yugoslavia, he considers it basically an expanded Serbia. So in the chapter "Tito's Times and His Death", on page 174 of the Golubovich-Malenkovich book, Mitar starts out by saying: "Serbia will live best when the throne takes a man of blue eyes on a white horse," while referring to Yugoslavia. In another place he says: "After the first war Austria will disappear, and Serbia will be as large as a kingdom."

So I ask: How can anyone, out of these facts, conclude and write: "He considered himself a Yugoslavian and not a Serbian." Does somebody have an agenda of their own here? Needless to say, out of those few sentences that you give in your article, I have a bad feeling about the book The Balkan Prophecy.

(I will order a copy, and if it misrepresents the truth, we could maybe run the translation of Golubovich and Malenkovich's work in CONTACT. Back to your article and Mitar.)

saying that "people would go underground for protection". He did say almost the opposite on pages 192-193: "Those that will escape and seek shelter in the three mountains, will find there their salvation." At another time he says: "Then the people will flee from towns into the country and seek mountains to breathe there and drink water. Those that will flee will save themselves and their offspring."

The world court Mitar talked about is the United Nations. However he saw it only as a positive, benevolent body and force in the world, as it could have been. He said: "Wherever a war breaks out, the court will rule and bring love and agreement, instead of hate and killing." Ones that will live to see that time will be happy. But as you nicely reminded us at the end of your presentation: Prophecies do not have to happen. Man can change things! So man has!

While Hatonn is of course absolutely right in stating that the prophecies of Mitar Tarabich are more accurate than those of Nostradamus, for [while] Mitar has no peers, he is a head-and-some above whoever is next. With all due respect to Nostradamus and all the rest! There are two main reasons for my saying so:

Firstly, while many great seers told us through centuries of coming technical achievements: the planes in the air, the submarines, telecommunications, and some great or catastrophic events, Mitar talks of those things and then tells us of the effects those advances will have on mankind, and how and why. He foretells how we will injure the Earth, poison the air and water, poison the food we grow. He tells us: "Throughout the world will rule some horrible disease, and none will know how to cure it." What astonishes me most about Mitar's visions is not only that he "sees" into the future, he sees it more clearly and understands it better than we do, living in that future! He says, "However, the bigger the knowledge that men acquire, the lesser will be the love between them and consideration for each other [sic]. Disregard will grow so that different inventions will mean more to them than their closest members." At another occasion he warns: "There will be many sages that will think through their books that they know and can do everything. They will be the great barrier in the way to real knowledge, and when all this becomes known, then the people will realize in what deception they were, listening to these wise men of theirs." And again:

"You see, my friend, when mankind after the Universal War takes to live in peace and abundance, it will all be one bitter image of human blunder, because many will forget God, and instead will worship their own human mind.

"And do you know, my friend, what is the human mind in comparison with God's Will and knowing? It would not make up one drop of water in the greatest sea!"

Does not He see us well?!

"People will drill holes into the Earth and out of these take gold that will turn everything and give them light, speed and power, and the Earth will cry in sorrow, because on her, herself will be much more gold and light than in her bowels. She will be in pain from all those wounds." Also: "They will poison the air and the water and release poison through the seas, rivers and land, and people will be dying suddenly of some diseases."

Secondly, Mitar speaks a language of beautiful simplicity, yet with powerful concentration of meaning. I have never come across anyone with such meaningful usage of human speech. Some of the credit, I guess, must go to his "secretary" Zaharije. How I wish I could use the words so economically yet so effectively! I even wish mighty Hatonn and other teachers could! No offense meant. Take this example:

"After the Second Great War the people will not fight with such might for a long time. There will be wars, but somehow small; still, thousands and thousands of people will perish, but in those small wars.

"All those wars and revolutions will be caused by big kingdoms [powers] from their pure wickedness and bad intent, and those that will fight will be killing each other because of their own foolish minds."

There you have more vital, truthful information on the subject than came out in hundreds of books and thousand of articles written on the matter over the last five decades.

I believe Mitar Tarabich was one of the most advanced and developed entities to incarnate on Earth in later centuries, especially the Western world. One needs only to read the stories of his last day on Earth and his passing away, to understand the maturity and magnitude of this being.

If you wish, Nora, to include this writing in your column in the CONTACT, you are of course welcome to do so. If there is need to do more, we will do more. If you need a name to call me, Tomas will do.

[I] wish to thank you for all the hard work you have done on research and writing over the years for the benefit and enlightenment of us all!

Warm greetings!

[End quoting]

If Tomas has more observations to offer at a later date, especially about Mr. Tarabich's prophecies for our times and beyond, I will certainly share them with you.

Thank you, Tomas.

Remember Your Phoenix “Flying” Lessons

12/26/98 HATONN

I understand that time-lines are difficult to maintain in your brains, even in the best of circumstances, but to have days behind and days ahead of that which is your own time-zone representation is truly confusing. Let us just never mind “time” and move on with “do”.

Today is a good day to start your avian activities and this can well be run in the paper for any and all to share.

Part of the projection of the traditional time of enlightenment would be two things (among others), but one would be the return of the cells of life, drias, and another would be the “return” of the Phoenix as in “pretty bird from the ashes”. These have as many names as there are cultures, so don’t be put off if one label doesn’t fit.

I have made you go out of your way, Team, to find a resource and I want it followed-up, please, if only for another day and another time—but THIS IS THE TIME TO GET STARTED.

The finding of our friends will be much easier than you think before you get started. And as you go looking, look for the logo bird of the television channel using it. I do not want to even call the name for I don’t want anyone into this, botching it for us.

The bird you seek is a legend, of course, but you will find a fine replica pair or two “perching around”. They are not what you think you are looking for, as with the boldness prey-type features of the Thunderbird, Quetzal or depiction of the Phoenix in the fire. They are often referred to as “Firebirds” for obvious reasons, but don’t expect the eagle to be its representation. Eagles have entirely different meanings. The Philippine Eagle is, however, the king of the eagle family, and is the largest in the world. I have sent several to visit your home territory, as well as the Imperial Eagle which bears little difference. These have far more “meaning” but we don’t need an avian lesson here today.

Stay attached to Gillie Manillie because that Blue-Gold Parrot is the resource to get you to the proper party. Thank you for doing your homework timely and getting cards and even mugs for your Christmas toast. For you back home this means we have a new Corporation called Phoenix Bird Tribe, Ltd. (Avian Importers-Exporters). Our logo is the Phoenix Bird of our traditional “Journal”. Our “mugs” of which we speak are coffee mugs with a print of the logo on one side and “Phoenix Bird Tribe” on the other.

We have done this for protection of our Team in the field. There have been a recent and terrible spurt of kidnappings and murders of “traders” in the money business and we are now in the Bird Business as represented by our cards and trappings. We are letting others be the spearhead of our thrusting tools, and that is so far working as on this very day there are meetings of great import taking place in another province.

We chuckle at the daily turn and return of the ongoing Philippines Airlines and still the men are interested to see that, after months, they are recognized everywhere they go—even to a “New Orleans” restaurant last evening. See, dear ones, when you listen to Dad you get a great abundance of help. Patience is a virtue beyond words.

An airline fits with our public image and, at the least, if PAL ever gets squared away—the Phoenix Bird on its side will be a nice picture-piece. That company has certainly burned itself alive, dead and in-between, so if it ever does get its wings going, it deserves accolades. However, I don’t know what the taipans and politicians will do. I agree, E.J., Tan should give his share to Imelda as she ruined the line in the first place and now claims ownership. It seems appropriate somehow. Except, of course, they are threatening her again with “jail” for lying to the subcommittee last week. Oh indeed, lying is a Kol Nidre culture ritual around the globe. We can call it the Global Kol Nidre, Inc.

Just note that the airline gets less valuable every day, Team, as the planes are being repossessed as quickly as the owners can get a pilot in the cockpits. Yes indeed, we have gotten far more mileage of that airline without leaving the ground than you’ll ever get in the air at the rate it’s going. As is you will be lucky to still be able to use the tickets you carry and which became worthless the first time they closed the line. Will you ever get home? Of course, it is in the PLAN. I have to get my birds into the right coops. I think the Apple Center might well make a good Bird Center and also give the adversary a go at Bird Cults again. How disappointing to come looking for Flying objects and only find exotic and non-exotic birds!

WOW!! Have fun, you flight lovers. It will also be a good place for Dick Drake to train those beauties.

I do, however, intend to enlarge our “avian” activities to meetings and seminars at some point. And it doesn’t matter if our speakers don’t know anything about birds—they need to learn instead of screwing around landlocked.

No, Dad hasn’t lost HIS sense of humor—HAVE YOU?

Once we have funding, there will be a lot of need for bird tenders among our other interesting projects, and anyone not enjoying such an adventure (or cleaning bird poop), don’t come!

Let us consider another company which is called Phoenix Bird Tribe Airlines. Let us have some fun along the way, tongue-in-cheek or otherwise.

When we get funding we are going to go even further into low-profile because our people want to live a life as well as talk to birds. They are getting tired of both birds and politicians, not to mention bankers and greedy snitches.

I hope this gives you nice people somewhere out there something to hold for I know that for a long time you have considered that we “are for the birds”. Indeed. And never forget that GOD knows each of His sparrows and humming birds. So, please, hum a happy tune as you go about your living, for a song is a prayer and GOD HEARS EVERY PRAYER.

You need a shield to be before you and won’t the inquisitors be shocked to find you UFO nuts are simply retired Bird hatchers? It allows for your flock to grow without problem for you are going to be importers and exporters as well. AND, YOU ARE GOING TO FALL IN LOVE WITH EACH AND EVERY FRIEND WITH FEATHERS WHO WILL ALLOW YOU WITHIN THEIR SPACE.

REJOICE WITH THE PHOENIX IN SPLENDOR

I want the information found in our Encyclopedia on disc to be inserted here and run in the paper, please. Indeed, it is the time of the Phoenix.

[QUOTING:]

Phoenix (mythology): Legendary bird that lived in Arabia. According to tradition, the phoenix consumed itself by fire every 500 years, and a new, young phoenix sprang from its ashes. In the mythology of ancient Egypt, the phoenix represented the Sun, which dies at night and is reborn in the morning. Early Christian tradition adopted the phoenix as a symbol of both immortality and resurrection.

[END OF QUOTING]

I believe I will just leave you with this message upon which to dream and we just keep dancing until we get this dream awake and flying. And, for my Team in Manila—get with it for when you locate what you need regarding this Phoenix, you will know your other endeavors ARE ON THEIR WAY.

In love more magnificent than that of Heaven or Earth, I send My own share of Radiance to Light your way and My own wings upon which to fly and thereto shall you find shelter.

Aho, DAD.

Sananda: It Is Time My People Come Together!

Editor's note: The following writing began as a personal message to a scribe who has been struggling with the responsibilities of public receivership for some time. However, the message evolved into such a wonderful "pep talk" for the entire Ground Crew that it was decided that it be shared publicly, here. Astute readers will find continuation of an important theme addressed by Aton Himself in last week's CONTACT. That message was written through a different public receiver who likewise struggles with the challenges and doubts and responsibilities of the job. Let us all be mindful that these ones do not take their jobs lightly, but strive ever to conduct themselves Light-ly!

12/25/98 ESU "JESUS" SANANDA

When decisions are made to serve the Light, there will always come distractions to turn your attention away to what is perceived as the more important task. Good evening, child. I am Sananda, come to visit with you upon this night reported to be my earthly birthday.

I bring unto you the blessing of Holy God of Light, and I am well pleased that you have taken the counsel as you have. Though it is understood that there are many earthly duties that you perceive have been heaped upon your shoulders, know that most of these perceived duties are but distractions placed in your life to sway you off the path of receivership.

There is so much that you can offer to your world by serving in this manner, and that is the reason the darkness will forever try to seduce you from that service for which you have been chosen and you have chosen in this life experience.

Long before you came into this physical expression, you chose a life of service, whether you know it or not. You also chose to come into your present life, in this time of great chaos and transition, for you knew that a clear-channel receiver was a role that the world would need.

Anytime you desire to be a teacher of the spiritual nature, you must have a life in which you learn much, for in learning, you shall be able to pass along advice and wisdom to those who are reaching out to you. How often have you ones in the role of teacher found yourselves touching another at times least expected? This happens in the check-out line at a grocery store, or when listening to a co-worker struggling with a personal or business-related problem, or when taking-in a wayward and confused teenager, or when hugging and kissing a crying child.

How often have you seen, in the eyes these ones, a glimmer of Light as you passed on to them a blessing in one form or another? Can you deny that this is your chosen path? A teacher comes in many forms and, as a receiver, you stand in the station of teacher.

I understand your hesitation, for you do not feel qualified to be dishing-out advice. However, consider that you do not so much pass on your own wisdom as you do that which is channeled through you, for your receiving abilities are not limited to penning words for publication. You are in a constant state of receivership, whether you recognize it or not!

There are many times when the receiver needs to be fine-tuned, for there is much interference on the frequency, but the channel is open nonetheless. Those are the times when you find yourself steeped in doubt and depression.

Depression is a state of mental and emotional anxiety when you have conflict within. That conflict is nearly always in making some choice between the heavier, material universes and the lighter, spiritual universes.

As I stated above, when you have chosen a spiritual path, the darkness will always attempt to interfere, to sway you away from this spiritual walk, by throwing all sorts of emergencies and other earthly duties in your path. When you are in the process of making these choices, quite often ones will experience a state of depression. However, once the choice has been made, be it the physical path, or be it the spiritual path, the depression will almost always pass.

Those who are the most spiritually attuned and sensitive experience these states of mental depression. That depression is the "pull" or "tug of war" of conflict within. Those who suffer with this horrible ailment should pay very close attention, for if they did, and if they would consider what choices they need to be making, most of the Prozac could end up being flushed down the toilet!

There are two segments to the human brain—the side that is the vehicle for the physical mind, and the side that is the vehicle for the spiritual mind. These two segments of the mind, when functioning properly, will be in balance; that is, neither side dominates, but both work in perfect synchronicity.

That state is all but absent in 98% of the population of the planet at this time, and so there is always a state of internal conflict. With those of greater sensitivity, this conflict, very often, manifests itself in the form of mental depression.

Inside you will find a reproduction of the Shroud of Turin overlaid by a transparency of the cover photograph of Sananda.

The correlation is truly a remarkable visual experience!

So, how do you overcome these bouts of depression? By recognizing them for exactly what they are—the internal battle of Light and dark. Your spiritual nature is attempting to get a message through to you, while the physical nature is pulling you in the opposite direction.

Your doctors give you explanations along the lines that the synapses of your nerves are misfiring, as a spark plug in your car misfires. There is a bio-electrical charge that these synapses create, and this spark (or charge) should, if things are functioning properly, cross the gap between the two segments of the brain. When a synapse misfires, the charge may fail to cross the gap. That is why it is helpful for you to make a conscious effort to make a decision, for in so doing, you are stimulating the synapses to fire properly and thus for the charge-signal to cross the gap properly between the two brain segments.

That is what the so-called anti-depressant drugs are touted to do. And they do. However, as with nearly all of your chemically produced drugs, there are, in nearly all cases, undesirable side effects to deal with.

These side effects are very much a cause for alarm in those people who are considered border-line depression cases. What happens is, the drug creates a spark great enough to cross the gap; but, it may “overfire”, so to speak, throwing the person out of the depressive state and into an over-reactive state, such as one of extreme anger or other expressive outrage.

When this occurs, you may have the Vietnam veteran who suddenly grabs his gun and goes out on a killing spree, only to remember nothing as soon as the dosage of the drug begins to wear off. Your chemists and doctors are dealing with something they know little about, and so, as usual, there are casualties—which often include more than just the patient.

You are winding up another year, and so, because of the mental and emotional conditioning of the population of the planet, it is a time of endings and beginnings. You are about to enter the last year of the current millennium, according to the dominant calendar used. There is significance to this, because of the belief systems of the majority of your population; therefore, it is a time now to reflect back and to look forward.

As the new year comes, so too will many changes. The year approaching, because it represents a cycle of completion, will prove to be a double-edged sword. There will be many, many blessings; but there shall also be much chaos and consternation. So, if you thought the past year has been an interesting ride, just wait until this next one begins to unfold.

Changes. That shall be the order of the day, nearly every day. For those who live strictly in the physical realm, there will be more grief than joy. For those who live by the spirit, there will also be great changes—but those who have been studying the teachings we have been offering for these last many years should recognize and understand what is taking place. All those things you have learned shall come to serve you well!

It is also a time for those of you who have chosen to assist in the transition of the planet to begin your work IN EARNEST. The coming year will definitely be a time when I shall separate the “chaff” from the “wheat”. There is going to be an infusion of The Light as you have never before seen, as the cleansing becomes accelerated during the coming year.

Those who function in less than truth are going to find it more and more difficult to cover their tracks. There are going to be even more uncoverings of past indiscretions and lies. Some shall find it unbearable to the point where they choose to simply leave the planet through the death process.

People shall be forced to make their choices, as the “battle lines” are drawn between the forces of Light and dark. For some, it will appear that all hell has broken loose; for others, they will instead believe that the Kingdom of Heaven has come to Earth. It shall all be in the perspective of the individual.

Those sitting on the fence are going to get kicked off to one side or the other! So, get ready to be confronted with all sorts of decision-making opportunities.

I made a statement, lo so many years past, that in those days, to either be hot or cold, for the lukewarm I would spew out. That means NOW! And that means every one of you who has not made up your mind as to whether you serve The Light or you serve the darkness.

IT IS THE TIME OF MAKING UP YOUR MINDS! Those who serve The Light are going to find they have little-to-no tolerance for deception in ANY form, and these are those who WILL demand THE TRUTH!

Do not think for one moment that the cleansing is going to take place only within the dark recesses of governments and big businesses, although it shall. BELIEVE ME WHEN I SAY TO YOU THAT THE GREATER CLEANSING WILL BE AMONG MINE OWN! Those who claim to be in service unto The Light, yet in their hearts believe differently, are going to fall by the wayside.

That is why you have been offered so many messages from so many valid sources which suggest you MUST learn to turn to your OWN Inner Guidance and stop relying solely on those who have been penning our messages all these past years.

MANY OF THOSE WHO HAVE CLAIMED TO BE WRITING OR SPEAKING FOR THE LIGHT ARE INDEED IMPOSTERS, OR HAVE SLIPPED FROM AN HONEST TO A DISHONEST ROLE, AND I INTEND THAT THESE ONES SHALL BE UNCOVERED. If I cannot have honesty from within mine own, then how can I, or you, demand honesty from the others? NO, FIRST THE PURGING WILL OCCUR WITHIN MINE OWN RANKS! So be it.

This internal cleansing is going to upset many, for they have found it comforting to follow another. Yet, it is also laziness on their part, for they believe that they assume no accountability for their choices. I SAY UNTO EACH OF YOU THAT YOU HAVE ACCOUNTABILITY AND RESPONSIBILITY ONCE YOU HAVE HEARD AND KNOW THE TRUTH! After such time, following another one blindly is not an excuse that I shall accept.

If you ones thought that we Teachers from the Higher Realms have been hard and harsh before, you have seen nothing yet. What may appear as harshness is simply demanding that each and every one of you take a stand and choose now whom you intend to serve. And you shall be responsible and accountable for the choice you make.

Judgement is not your job, but it is mine and my Father’s. You would serve yourselves well to begin judging thine own intent and actions, rather than those of another, for none of you know the intent and agreements of another. So leave the judging up to those who DO KNOW the intent and agreements! Believe me when I tell you that you shall have quite enough to do focusing upon your own person in the coming year!

To my receivers, I wish to address the subject of doubt. You ones, all of you, struggle with whether you are hearing properly and correctly, and whether you are hearing those of The Light or those of darkness.

In your doubt, you err. Doubt comes from fear, and fear is from the darkness. So shed the darkness, shed the fear, and the doubt shall cease to exist. Always be diligent in demanding identification, and check your own Inner Guidance, for it shall serve you well if the intent is pure.

Those in the station of (especially public) receivership have had much practice and lessons in discernment over the past years, and this was for a purpose. Those lessons shall now serve you well, for in your learning you have grown strong.

There are literally thousands of you. Some have just become more public than have others, but each of you is serving a specific purpose, and most of you are serving VERY WELL. Those who are penning and speaking for purposes of personal or material gain or gratification shall also receive their reward very soon, for we are even now dealing with them.

Those of you who have made the decision to serve The Light are going to have a most interesting year. You are going to make connections with others of like minds and spirit, and you will be amazed by whom you shall be coming in contact with.

I will caution you ones, however, that regardless of how famous the personality might be, each of you has a specific and EQUALLY IMPORTANT role to play, so guard against the demi-god syndrome that you are so apt to fall into.

IT IS TIME THAT MY PEOPLE COME TOGETHER AND DECLARE THEMSELVES TO ONE ANOTHER AND TO THE WORLD AT LARGE!

Many of you ones have been quietly working behind the scenes for many years now, and it is time that you each step forward and take upon yourselves the job which you are here to perform. IT SHALL BE A TIME SUCH AS YOU HAVE NEVER WITNESSED BEFORE UPON EARTH, AND IT SHALL BE A JOY UNTO YOU!

There is much more that I could say at this time, but let us draw this to a close, for I believe that I have given you ones enough for consideration at this time. If you feel that this message is overload for you, it is imperative that you take the time to go within and settle yourself—for it can be overwhelming, but together, believe me, we shall go through onto the other side of these times.

I am Sananda, One with The Light of Holy God of Creation. I leave thee with my Father’s blessing upon thee.

Salu.

Entering The Golden Age Of Cosmic Man's Awakening

has yet to witness, whether or not he is ever made aware of it.

It has taken two thousand years for you to evolve to THIS DAY, and your technology that has been kept from you (while bits and pieces were allowed to filter through to your markets, adding to the coffers of the "elite" controllers) is now ready to do the unthinkable—imitate God. "Man will do greater things than I" is wording from your Bible that will have great meaning for those who know the full technical capabilities of the secret manipulators of your planet.

THE MANIPULATION OF OUTER SPACE FOR THE ENSLAVEMENT OF MANKIND

The "god" your Satanic masters are going to imitate is the one most of you have come to "know" from generations of religious programming. Lucifer, the fallen one, who believed he could rule just as good or better than God-Aton, The One Light, has enlisted some very astute beings to help him pull the wool over the eyes and minds of you-the-people.

This is what will determine if you indeed have the capability to discern what is of God of Divine Light and what is of "god" of dark influence and manipulation. Always your measuring stick will be: God-Aton neither coerces nor tricks you into doing or believing ANYTHING. He always allows humans to learn their lessons for advancement at their own pace and at their own level of awareness of what "reality" truly is.

If you are fooled by the tricks and false promises of the evil magicians who control ALL availability of technological applications considered to be "advanced", then it matters not what is happening in the skies above your heads or what materializes in front of you, for you will not know the difference. You have no practical understanding of what can and cannot be made manifest for your senses, other than that which you have heard in legends and myths. This is SPIRITUAL IGNORANCE and it is this one area of your lack of knowledge that is going to do-in a great number of people.

John Glenn's show-and-tell trip back into space was the cover for some very heinous plans—OF WHICH YOU ONES HAVE BEEN GIVEN NOTHING AS TO WHAT ACTUALLY TRANSPIRED! The moment that Shuttle was out of sight of your inquiring eyes, all video sequences fed to PUBLIC monitors instantly were switched from live, realtime images, to PRERECORDED, previous missions and training mockup flights done within your very atmosphere. Have you forgotten Hollywood's capability to simulate weightlessness effects such as was demonstrated in the movie Apollo 13?

You were prepared every step of the way in case something went wrong with the televised portions of the launch. (And with this Satanic bunch, something always goes wrong; it is just that the masses are unaware that there is anything sinister happening that they should be watching for.) Excuses were given to cover military attacks upon the Shuttle, in which case the original Shuttle would not be coming home to you. In actuality, you have no "original" Shuttles; all of them have been destroyed or abandoned in space, while new orbiters were continually manufactured and flown in at the appointed times and places—always with full complements of "cloned" crews.

The Space Program simply cannot be as NASA's Dan Goldin is telling you. Every corner of your sky is teeming with space-capable craft of every description. Your solar system's planets all have orbital space platforms that put the purported International Space Station to shame.

By the way, the first mission patch for the station depicts the Earth surrounded by a chain made of gold. The chain signifies your bondage—and I need not remind you what importance gold has played in the master plan of the Bolshevik-Zionist "Jews".

They tell you that you will be able to see the station every night. Chelas, what about all the other objects seen nightly by thousands that your media completely ignore?!? And when enough of you phone-in to the news and police centers to report them, a hastily put together blurb is presented to once again put the masses back to sleep, lest they miss the latest sexcapade on television.

The high content of sexual situations in the media, by the way, is also part of "the plan". With AIDS running rampant within the Black communities throughout the world, and now working its way like wildfire through all other groups, your PROGRAMMED preoccupation with sex (protected or not—CONDOMS PROVIDE NO PROTECTION AGAINST AIDS) is just what the evil doctors prescribed; global depopulation is a UN mandate, my friends, and the secret Bolshevik manipulators of the Security Council plan to carry out that mandate to the letter.

You will find very little in your media, besides distraction tidbits, about Mars or Earth's Moon. This is because they are two parts of a planetary triad, that includes Earth, as you prepare to join intergalactic communities you never knew existed.

Have you ever wondered why the Moon is so large in comparison to the satellites of other planets, yet Earth-Shan itself is so small next to such as the gas giants—with many and varied moons? Why is it that yours is so hospitable and convenient?

Indeed, there is much awaiting unfoldment as you enter the Age of Cosmic Man's Awakening.

You have so many Spaceports on your planet that it has become impossible to hide the daily trips outside your atmosphere. The conspiracy-based and heavily controlled major media simply do not mention them. These things are not just visible near outbacks or remote island locations, such as Diego Garcia in the Indian Ocean. Rather, as you enter the "new" millennium, in your counting, space flight is becoming routine and very necessary. And, if it does end up on television, the accompanying story is as ridiculous as your military's apparent lack of interest in these publicly witnessed "phenomena" (I think is the "politically correct" term Tavistock Institute's brain-shaping London think-tank has you using). The reason you have been kept in the dark about the actual advanced state of your technological capabilities is so that, when the time would be ripe, an entire planet could be captured by the relative few who are in a position to pull these technical strings to bedazzle the masses.

ISRAEL SHOWS THE WORLD WHO HAS THE BIGGEST STICK: BOLSHEVIK WARLORDS ORDER IRAQI AIR STRIKES

The FALSE "Jews" from your Bible have fulfilled Nostradamus' prophecy for the war that is to be number three—and your last—on a worldwide scale. The fifteenth century Frenchman told you, 500 years ago, that the series of battles which leads up to nuclear holocaust was to begin before the end of 1998.

He also said in his quatrains (before the interpreters made the messages more confusing than even he had intended—which he did to avoid being burned at the stake, not unlike what ones face today in order to bring you Truth) that the group identified by the blue turban and flag of Khazaria (Israel) would be the ones who would send the missiles flying.

You must understand that the need for the Khazar "Jews" to be masters of the planet is as great as their desire for gold. Your Space Program has one of the greatest secret stockpiles of precious metals imaginable. The spacecraft that operate outside of the Earth's atmosphere, as well as from the surface (far from the prying eyes of you taxpayers who funded it all), utilize great amounts of gold in the alloys that make up the outer surfaces. There are many industries which support super-secret space applications that are either covered up or made to look like parts and equipment for already proven technology. All of it is in the hands of the Zionist (Khazar) Occupational Government (ZOG) that has slowly taken over Washington starting many years ago.

Why do I speak so harshly of “Jews”? I speak only of that which they do which is against the Laws of God and note their flagrant attempts to wipe out a planet of His creations: you!

You don't have to take the word of a prophet or even a Space Commander. Your own Bible—tampered with as it is—spells it out quite nicely for you, such as in the Book of Revelation: “I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich) and the slander of those who say that they are Jews and are not, but are of the synagogue of Satan.”

The false Jews are generally called Ashkenazi Jews in more modern times and are those Khazarian Jews whose medieval ancestors mostly migrated to the land that became greater Germany. Being parasites by nature, this migration was partly due to the attraction of the prime, desirable area and culture of vibrant Germany, and partly due to the relatively peace-seeking nations around them finally driving them from what was their original location.

The evil Khazar empire flourished around 700 A.D. between the Black Sea and the Caspian (Khazar) Sea, and did so through the most “blood-sucking” of activities. Many writings in this newspaper over the past many years have covered the history of these dark ones in great detail, from available records and good scholarship.

Their parasitic nature disposes them to live off of the sweat and creativity of any outside culture. The more hard-working the culture, the more beneficial to their games of deception and control. THEIR THEFT OF THE LEGACY OF THE LEGITIMATE JUDEAN IS WHAT YOUR BIBLE IS REFERRING TO.

Also in the Book of Revelation: “Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie—behold, I will make them come and bow down before your feet, and learn that I have loved you.” This refers to who, ultimately, will win the final battle, chelas. However, YOU must do your part in saving your own planet and your own lives if you wish to halt Armageddon (the days you have been living out for at least two decades now). The situation on your planet does not have to descend to full-scale war, as your enemies have written, before “the meek inherit” what's left.

No other country on the face of the planet is behind your war with Iraq—or your wars with any other country for that matter! You are a nation in the dark. Other nations know that real weapons of mass destruction are waiting to be used by the Khazarian-Zionist ruling element in the American government, and if they come into play, not very many living humans will survive in the physical form.

The other nations have a more spiritual belief than do most of you Americans who have fallen under the mind control of these Khazarian tricksters, yet you are quick to label other nations as pagan. Do you not see that you have been duped into becoming the tool for Satan's army? Do you not realize that these weapons of mass destruction you have amassed (as a “God-loving” “christian” nation) are about to be unleashed upon innocent people? Where is your dictum of life, liberty, freedom, and justice for ALL? Do you not remember that the rest of the world WAS trying to be like America?

Now the rest of the world laughs at you and hopes the Khazar “Jews” do not prevail in their plans—that now have become YOUR PLANS. How did this happen, America? Have you been asleep and preoccupied with the wrong goals for too long? Do you care about what you leave behind for your children and grandchildren? How shall you explain to them your choices which leave them in such a vulnerable position? Of what importance is that country club membership compared to the incarceration of a magnificent nation which was to be the shining example for the world?

Civilization after civilization has ended after the waging of a “holy” war, and you are now about to repeat one of the biggest mistakes history has repeatedly tried to teach you. The Muslims of the world are a greatly united people, especially Arabs and Blacks, for they are not fooled by the Khazar manipulations. (That is why your controlled and mind-controlling media dared not have a White or Jewish face as the one “in charge” in the film The Siege.)

Why have some who should know better sold-out their people and their lands? For the same reason the lot of you have done so, whether you realize it or not—greed! Remember Rothschild's words of long ago: “Permit me to control a nation's currency, and I care not who makes its laws.” Once there is Jewish control of gold, there is control—period! These dark ones know that indeed most every man has his price.

This is THE lesson of schoolroom Earth. If ones chose not to succumb to the temptations of the adversary's puppets, then the mess you find yourselves in now as a nation would not be possible. For instance, picture a Congress or leader of industry who would not be bribed, and you would be well on your way to a truly free nation under God, a nation that would act as a beacon of Light for the entire world.

SADDAM DID NOT FIGHT YOU DURING THE LAST CONFLICT

How can you say you won a war if your opponent doesn't show up to fight? Saddam allowed you to slaughter many tens of thousands of his soldiers during an agreed-upon withdrawal. THIS IS A FLAGRANT VIOLATION OF GENEVA RULES OF ENGAGEMENT CONCERNING ARMED NATIONAL CONFLICT. The rest of the world has not forgotten—especially the Arabs have not forgotten what you are capable of.

You are a people of The Lie. You believe what your bought-and-paid-for Congress tells you regarding U.S. military supremacy.

So-called “communist” aircraft, and biological and chemical delivery systems, as well as tactical compact and full-yield nuclear weapons can, in twenty minutes time, destroy EVERY SINGLE INHABITED CITY IN THE U.S. Your conscience tells you something is very wrong with the official explanations for this diabolical engagement in Iraq. However, you ones do not question your brainwashed “American supremacy” and thus give little thought to the possibilities of “just” retribution ON YOUR OWN SOIL!

Let us not forget WHO Iraq's allies are—only the two most truly powerful nations on your planet! Russia and China are looking for any excuse to get rid of what they see as the parasitic cancer called Khazarian “capitalism” that is ravaging the world.

Am I against every citizen having his share of the pie? Of course not; God is abundance! Would His promise to you be otherwise? However, this variety of capitalism, AS YOUR ENEMY HAS SET IT UP TO OPERATE, is nothing short of a diabolical trap for humanity. When unbounded greed and maniacal control become the sail and rudder of the ship, you can be sure the vessel is doomed to crash against God's Law of Balance and pay the price for ignoring God's Law of Giving and Regiving.

The Russians are now using a system of barter that can turn your world around for the better. Until you move into a new (old) way of doing business THAT IS FAIR FOR ALL PARTIES INVOLVED, you are doomed to failure. Doing business by trading goods and services (like you did before the Khazar manipulators introduced gold, and then usury, into the market for evil purposes) is what will carry you through. You must look to sustaining yourselves outside of the Federal Reserve and its collection police, the IRS. Both are “elite”-owned, illegal, PRIVATE corporations THAT ARE NOT a part of the original design of your Republic Federal Government.

The Russians who are native to their land are Christians, just like you profess to be, and they are taking back their country from the Bolshevik-Zionist “Jews” who killed more than 100 million people—again Christians. These Russians are now in the process of breaking the economic hold the Bolsheviks still have on their non-military infrastructure and people. The Kremlin has had enough—both with Israel and with your inability to rid yourselves of your “cancer”, including at the very least, your inability to control Israel's aggressive use of your government.

Russia is preparing to use their very advanced and powerful Space Triad—consisting of manned killer-beam satellites, Moon-based beam mega-weapons, and electrogravitic hovering Cosmosphere weapons platforms—to put an end to the Khazarian Zionist parasitic infestation of your planet.

Modern Israel (the location of the state of Palestine) is about to be blown out of existence, since all diplomatic attempts to stop World War III from escalating are failing. The Khazar Jews and their genetic-replica puppets are programmed to fight; it is as simple as that. If you had no worthy adversary to supply your testing, you would not have a journey or lessons worth learning, for in the Higher Realms (your next stop when you “graduate”) there is no aggression, nor even tendencies toward negative behavior.

Do you see? You MUST learn these things while you are experiencing in what is called The Plane of Demonstration. Schoolroom Earth is providing you with exquisite learning and testing challenges. How do you think you are doing, grade-wise, with your lessons? The deeper lesson of Esu "Jesus" Sananda's parable about the Good Samaritan is one of daring to take risks to right the wrongs that cross your path. How many of you look the other way, instead? The bad won't just go away by itself! Explain your choices to your children and grandchildren when they ask you why things are such a mess—and especially when they have to go off to fight in those Khazarian-generated wars!

You can no more get into Heaven (the Higher Realms) without learning your lessons than you can get a driver's license (legally) without learning the rules and laws of the road, and the operation of a vehicle, lest you be given a death machine. A car has the capability, if misused or used incorrectly, to kill many people, as your yearly highway death statistics prove. Technologies of societies of infinitely more sophistication and power (in the Higher Realms) would cause even greater damage if they were not understood and used correctly!

America, you did not always have so many enemies in the world, and the Arabs, Chinese, Russians, and soon to be Muslim Blacks do not have to declare war upon you. As a nation, it does not have to go that far.

Do not allow the "divide and conquer" formula (another old Rothschild technique) of the Khazar Jews to pit brother against brother and country against country so that the victors of the contest (Bolshevik-Zionist anti-God "aliens" in your midst) succeed without so much as an attempt to save your lives, not to mention your planet! Meanwhile, the cancerous parasites will make sure they are hiding in underground caverns and shelters while you all prepare for a war THEY started.

Russia is moving all of their diplomats out of harm's way before they get involved in the shooting. Are you ready for a real war? I thought not.

STAR WARS AND ARMAGEDDON: YOU WERE ALREADY AT WAR

Do not be fooled, America. Your nation was already at war well before the Bolshevik-Zionists attacked Iraq—while the masses have been largely unaware of the situation. Missiles were flying DAILY above your heads and homes, especially being observed along your West Coast as nighttime "meteors" with unusual trajectories. Your nation was (is) at the highest state of alert in the history of organized warfare. The politicians and military analysts are fully aware of the likely results of a world war in your current state of technological advancement and are in nothing short of a panic.

The ones who appear to have no emotions regarding the suicidal outcome of such belligerent actions ARE NOT SOULED BEINGS! Manufactured organic intelligence tools (agents, soldiers, or politicians) have no attachment to Creator Source, so they do not fear death as such, and will continue their programming until physically unable to do so. For these beings it is as simple as that.

The secret Bolshevik-Zionist warlords who control NASA and your other MILITARY Space Agency have been trying to get sensor satellites into orbit long enough to facilitate a first strike nuclear attack on your Kremlin brothers. While you hold hands in orbit with Russia in front of the cameras, behind the scenes rages a power struggle of epic proportions. (Note how during this last trip into space, for the Space Station, there were no Russians present. I would think that it would be a very festive occasion for all involved.) Russia's Cosmosphere space weapons platforms, of which there are thousands upon thousands now, have SO FAR narrowly averted Nuclear War I (World War III) that is to begin in the Middle East. But your blackmailed President and his Khazarian-staffed war advisors have not given up. If anything, they have intensified their thrust to bring to you the prophesied Armageddon scenario as presented in the scripted planning outlay of your Book of Revelation.

Remember, an "Armageddon" IS NOT God's plan! Many centuries ago the Khazarian revisionists infesting Germany rewrote that Book to suit themselves AND to facilitate the taking of a planet in the name of the Evil One himself.

How did you think Satan was going to "getcha"? In dark robes, during a Halloween parade? Or did you think CNN was going to announce suddenly that the world had a new ruler?

Dear ones, Lucifer has been planning this from the beginning, and it is his most intricate, most elaborate of schemes. How else can even the Prince of Deception hope to capture a planet of almost 9 billion of Aton's wayward children? (Yes, I know some of you are saying, "But some of this population are soul-less creations of the secret genetics laboratories." However, I would suggest that you do not underestimate Aton's abilities to instantly provide the missing soul material if and when He sees fit to do so!)

When you have Cruise Missiles poised and ready (reportedly 65 of them) to be launched from a submerged craft or crafts many miles inland to "a" spot in the Mojave Desert—ON THE DAY YOU INITIALLY WERE TO DO EXACTLY THE SAME TO IRAQ—wouldn't that qualify as a modern "shot across the bow"? (And just because they told you that ONE British[?!?] submarine sat off the coast of California, how could you know what lurks beneath the surface?)

Whether the "target" (or TARGETS) was the China Lake Naval Weapons Center, Edwards Air Force Base, cities along your entire West Coast as part of a preemptive attack against the U.S., or our little Space Command nerve-center nestled in the Tehachapi Mountains, your nation came within hours of experiencing a massive firestorm in your dooryard. And, dear ones, it wouldn't have been just a few pounds of TNT—I assure you!

The Hollywood "spin doctors" do not miss a beat when it comes to preparing the masses for their heinous plans. The movies

Armageddon, The Siege, Enemy Of The State, and Elisabeth were released in sequence to subliminally program you, utilizing the "big screen" and video-cassette playback for repetitious reinforcement to foster the climate they need to shape your minds to war and their guided outcome of staged world events.

Khazar manipulation of the media has generated an ideal of One Worlders against the MANY COLORS of the masses of you-the-people. AND, CHELAS, A RACE WAR IS YOUR ADVERSARY'S TRUMP CARD! Do not be fooled into thinking the problem is one race or color against another. IT IS ONE MIND SET AGAINST GOD'S PEOPLE—ALL OF YOU. BY CREATING DIVERSITY AND STRIFE AMONGST DIFFERENT SEGMENTS OF AMERICANS, the Satanic Bolshevik-Khazarians can incapacitate everyone, regardless of creeds, colors, beliefs, religions or associations.

In addition to setting the stage for a second and final American civil war, these films show you just what your government will do to innocent people while trying to "find" "terrorists" or other enemies of the state—THAT IS, ENEMIES OF THE PSEUDO-STATE OF ISRAEL, NOT THE U.S. The evil manipulators do not want you to know the truth about how all your political, military and economic problems stem from their warped minds.

Armageddon, the movie, was timed to be released during the Leonid meteor shower so as to prepare you for something altogether different than a nighttime light show that was best viewed in Indonesia. For any of you with access to the raw video and other data that was recorded of the event, you might notice that these were NOT "meteors" but spacecraft crisscrossing your atmosphere.

Every attempt was made to allow presentation of evil aliens and invading ships, should November 18 become THE DAY to introduce the world to extraterrestrials. Were they friends here to assist you in your plight, or were they your secret government's replicated aliens, manufactured right within your underground labs for just such an occasion?

All I will say is there is a lot going on in that part of the world at this time and God's Hosts ARE PRESENT, and in great numbers, to see to it that you ones of the Lighted Workers have what you need to do your end of the Divine Task. Allow common sense and reason to be your indicators of what is of God and what is of evil manifestation.

You have not been left alone to fend for yourselves during this confrontation period called Armageddon. We, along with a good number of advanced Russian craft, were present. However, none of the earthly vehicles of your evil so-called "elite" could keep pace with our ships. There is and was a total news blackout regarding the "light show" and I doubt you will ever hear about it over your airways.

KNOW that we are here and that your leaders also are fully aware of our presence—for it is THEY who fear us, because the strength of our presence weakens their dominance.

Korton to standby for the present segment. Salu.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE
805-822-0202
As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.
The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.
