

CONTACT

THE PHOENIX JOURNAL

Y2K—THE NEW MILLENNIUM

KNOWING TRUTH IS NOT ENOUGH, SUCCESSFUL CHANGE REQUIRES ACTION

VOLUME 25, NUMBER 11

NEWS REVIEW

$ 3.00

OCTOBER 4, 1999

Seize The Moment Before Bubble Bursts

9/27/99—#2

AND WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT ECONOMICS—TODAY?

Hatonn—Yes, indeed, I said: “And what do you think about economics—today?” Things are getting pretty CRITICAL in governments and world economies—at explode point—or—implode point—OR JUST DUMP THE WHOLE THING, TIE UP THE TREASURY AND ISSUE NEW WORLD CURRENCY. SO, TOO, BASED ON WHAT WOULD BE THAT CURRENCY?

HOW MANY OF YOU HAVE CAREFULLY READ EVERYTHING IN THE “BUSINESS” SECTION OF A MAJOR PAPER THIS DAY? THIS WEEK? THIS MONTH?—EVER?

YOUR LIFE—AS YOU KNOW IT—IS READY FOR THE TRASH DUMP, AND YOU DON’T EVEN READ THE PAPER, AS FLIMSY AND FILLED WITH LIES AS IS POSSIBLE? DO YOU LISTEN TO THE FINANCIAL NEWS ON A NEWS CHANNEL ON TV? DO YOU UNDERSTAND THE MARKET AND ITS LACK OF VALUE TO ACCOUNT FOR ANYTHING? NOTHING? WHAT? UPON WHAT DO YOU BASE YOUR LIFE, YOUR DECISIONS—YOUR BEING? YES, INDEED, IT “IS” THAT SERIOUS.

WELL, OTHERS DIDN’T EITHER, AND YET PRONOUNCED THAT THE ONLY SUPPORT SYSTEM LEFT IS “OURS”, AND YET OTHER PEOPLE—DUE TO HAVE REAPED THE MOST—PRONOUNCED “IT CAN’T AND WON’T WORK” AND THEN PROCEEDED TO POUR OUT THEIR OWN BABIES WITH THAT BATHWATER. GOOD FOR THEM; WE DON’T HAVE TO CONSIDER THEM FURTHER, AND CAN TURN OUR ATTENTION BACK TO THE WORLD AND HOW SOMETHING MIGHT BE SALVAGED.

What do you think the printing presses have been printing all around the globe, people? That’s right: A NEW WORLD CURRENCY! And do we explode the possibility of making it work? No, what we offer is a way to salvage, for humankind, some value—when the grabbers collapse and replace the system. WE TOLD YOU ALL ABOUT IT

YEARS AGO, INCLUDING THE NEW CURRENCY IN STORE FOR THE WORLD.

I am going to ask that Dharma retype an article from BULLETIN, as faxed to us today from N. (2X1/16th). The copy is too bad to hope for other than redoing it for use. So, please, bear with us as we put it to better print, rather than simply recopy.

The article is by Hal Bryan from THE HARD MONEY INVESTOR and is a reprint in the BULLETIN, Committee to Restore the Constitution. Copy is so light as to be able to offer only that this publication, THE HARD MONEY INVESTOR and, we assume, Mr. Bryan, can be reached at Box 11, Enunclaw, WA 98022. If we have misspelled the town, please forgive, for it is truly the best we can do, until better informed. Then we will be extremely happy to give full reference information.

The article itself seems to have been run in August 1999 and was reprinted in BULLETIN in the October issue, which must have just now been released.

It is a month or so UNTIMELY, as so much has just taken place in the world economic circles during these recent days as to be shocking, but this will help you realize

(Continued on page 2)

CONTACT
P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126

PRE-SORTED
FIRST-CLASS MAIL
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
MOJAVE, CA 93501
PERMIT NO. 110

FIRST CLASS MAIL

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

The Phoenix Institute: Recap And Scenario.....	page 4
God’s G.A.I.A. Plan To Change Entire World.....	page 7
Revelation Reminders For The Remnant.....	page 10
God’s Reclamation Begins In The Phillipines.....	page 12
Bright Future For Gold As Short-Sellers Scramble.....	page 14
Phoenix Undead, Part Three, by John Quinn.....	page 16
Most Importantly: We Are All Connected—ALL!.....	page 21
The News Desk, by John Ray.....	page 22

what choices are and what is going to come down on unsuspecting mankind, like NOW, any minute of any day.

We have the ability to shore up just about everything—but ability and use of capability are entirely two different things. I will make an effort to note a few things as we go along.

You will also see why, if you have Treasury Bonds, or whatever, you should either get rid of them or get ready to sit on them. Those prior to 1930, BACKED BY GOLD, are secure and will sit forever secure—as reserves—for there already are NOT FUNDS to pay if lodged. This is covered toward the end of this article, as to what could be expected if new currency, new money printings or a need to place a moratorium on said bonds becomes a factual experience.

And, further, I hope that you who have done everything possible to destroy us, and our work, really think about your positions and that which you have cost your fellow citizens through your outright, intentional actions, lies, thefts and general subterfuge. I hope V.K. Durham will be able to shore up from the direction of the U.S.—for we have already agreed to not do any interference or actual business domestically in the U.S., for that is covered in Russell Herman's bequest to the U.S. people and its several states. All we could do, V.K., was get things validated and authenticated. We will, however, be given opportunity to assist in Native American stability and, therein, work together to accomplish that for which Russell gave his life! I don't want to further speak on that topic.

This following article is about the U.S. but it involves the world. The original plan to grab the world was set forth in the Philippines, through misleading a participating party whom they summarily "executed" when he got in the way. Russell they had, also, already executed, and thus he had no reason to further play ball with them, for he knew he was already a dead man. He had been irradiated and was on his deathbed when they tried to get his signatures on documents for their own use. Present in Russell's final hospital room were George Bush (President), James Baker III (Secretary of State but had also been Secretary of the Treasury), Lloyd Bentsen (Secretary of the Treasury), Col. Oliver North—AND ALAN GREENSPAN (of the FEDERAL RESERVE). Enough said.

Will there be globalization? Of course—YOU ARE ALREADY GLOBALIZED! THAT is not the question, people.

[QUOTING (Full credit is given to: Hal Bryan, THE HARD MONEY INVESTOR, Box 11, Enunclaw, WA 98022):]

WHAT COULD BURST THE BUBBLE?

By Hal Bryan, August 1999

In 1929, it was the expansion of credit at below-market rates by the Federal Reserve and the banks which, together with margin buying, propelled stocks to unstable levels. In the late 1990s, we find ourselves in the same situation.

Long-time readers of this publication know that our view is a longer one—that we try to prevent our readers being caught-up in the moment but, instead, move them to project their positions months and years into the future. Since personal circumstances are so vitally impacted by the status of one's portfolio, it may be said that lifestyle is the ultimate portfolio, which is the reason people expend so much time and energy thinking about it.

Recently, we have been barraged with questions from subscribers asking, in effect, "You have explained how the credit bubble is fueling the stock market boom, but what could cause the bubble to burst?"

It is a question with much validity, and we have attempted in many past issues to come to grips with it. But there appears [to be] a new urgency, driven by recent highs in the Dow, even as broader indexes have slipped into the negative, causing losses in many portfolios.

SOME OBVIOUS THINGS

Extreme volatility in markets suggests fundamental instability, which greatly magnifies the risks to market participants—not just to investors but to entrepreneurs, businessmen, employees, consumers and everyone who buys and sells; that is to say, all of us. Unstable markets are predisposed to collapse because, as every investor knows, the very uncertainty which breeds volatility is anathema to the market. It is also understood that collapses usually follow new market highs and that the steeper the run-up, the sharper the expected decline. [H: Check it out this very week!]

There is nothing new in any of this, but millions of investors seem to have forgotten it.

There is another reason for volatility in the markets, which is also common knowledge—the expansion of paper money and credit, which we know as INFLATION. Any statistic which tends to suggest an increase in the general price level is viewed with apprehension because of the threat of higher interest rates, increasing the cost of capital to business and weighing down upon the markets in stocks and bonds. Consequently, we have a generation of professional "Fed Watchers", whose ears are always tuned for any hint of action by the central bank(s) to raise rates.

[H: So, do you actually think the Fed is somehow not aware of Global things which we hold? Yes, indeed, they are aware, and they are smart enough to know we don't hurt them—we salvage their assets, spelled any way you wish. They will also go to whatever lengths we ask to keep us totally private in our negotiations and in our business transactions—so they can have ALL the nice credit. This is a politician's dream of Heaven achieved for, where our program is used, there will be dancing in the streets, instead of rallies against the leadership. If a President is wise enough to go this route with G.A.I.A., they have gained their nation and stabilized it at the same time. The Philippines has the hard ASSET, and the people holding same are given the opportunity to earn their way right into production and industrial achievement. The outlying provinces and townships can also be utilizing G.A.I.A. and running their own affairs, while there would not have to be taxation, only a percentage of transactions to run the central government—actually, in the extravagance to which they have become accustomed, through total corruption.]

Virtually all financial letters (publications) deal with these more obvious factors, largely ignoring more fundamental causes of market volatility.

THE NOT SO OBVIOUS

[H: NOW, START REALLY PAYING ATTENTION!]

Perhaps the most fundamental of all underlying causes of volatility is the declining value of the currencies in which markets are traded. During the period of the gold standard, prices were remarkably stable over time. In 1929, it was the expansion of credit at below-market rates by the Federal Reserve and the banks—which, together with margin buying, propelled stocks to unsustainable levels.

The SEC was supposedly established to end the over-leveraging of share purchases. In the late 1990s, we find ourselves in the same situation, with leveraging on a much greater scale through the use of derivatives, such as index funds. AND THIS TIME THERE IS NO GOLD FLOOR TO SUPPORT THE CURRENCY, AS THERE WAS UNTIL ROOSEVELT ADOPTED OUR PRESENT FIAT CURRENCY IN 1933.

WE ARE, THEREFORE, FACED NOT ONLY WITH THE POTENTIAL OF MARKET COLLAPSE, BUT CURRENCY COLLAPSE AS WELL, JUST AS HAPPENED RECENTLY IN ASIA.

Another super-fundamental which seems completely ignored, even in the hard-money press, is the loss to the marketplace of the capital expended on the Welfare state, one of the most inefficient systems the world has known. The misspending—malinvestment—by government has wasted hundreds of billions of dollars which might have gone into efficient production in the private sector, creating millions of jobs and increasing productivity by whole orders of magnitude, improving the standard-of-living for all. This capital is lost, forever, and we can only guess at how many businesses have failed, how many jobs have been lost, how many new technologies have foundered, how many cures for serious disease have not been discovered, how much sweat and tears have been wasted and how many dreams have been abandoned, because of the lack of it.

BECAUSE OF THE INSATIABLE APPETITE OF THE SOCIALIST STATE FOR CAPITAL, POLITICIANS HAVE HAD TO DIVORCE THE CURRENCY FROM GOLD AND USE THE PRINTING PRESS TO MANUFACTURE THE ARTIFICIAL CAPITAL NECESSARY TO SUSTAIN IT. WHEN PRICES BEGAN TO BETRAY THE FACT THAT WE WERE ON THE BRINK OF HYPERINFLATION, THEY HAD TO SWITCH FROM PRINTING FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES TO PRINTING TREASURY BONDS, SENDING THE PUBLIC DEBT INTO THE MULTIPLE TRILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

[H: NO, THIS DOES NOT INCLUDE THE GLOBAL (G.A.I.A.) ASSETS. OUR ASSETS GO ALL THE WAY BACK TO THE 1800s AND ARE BACKED AS PAYABLE BY HARD METAL; GOLD, GOLD BULLION, COINS, ETC. THIS WAS ALL PRIOR TO THE FEDERAL RESERVE ACT OF 1913, AND THE FEDERAL RESERVE BECAME RESPONSIBLE FOR THAT DEBT AS TURNED OVER BY THE TREASURY AND NOW BOUND BY THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND, THE WORLD BANK AND ACTUALLY THE WORLD BANKS THEMSELVES, BECAUSE THE ONES WHO OWN THE FEDERAL RESERVE ARE THE BANKING CARTEL. THEN, IF THAT IS NOT ENOUGH, IF THESE FAIL—THE TREASURY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, INTO PERPETUITY, IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DEBT, IF IT, INDEED, REVERTS FOR PAYMENT. At most, if there should be a moratorium on the redemption of Treasury securities, it would not affect G.A.I.A.—but only further SECURE IT AS A RESERVE ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD!]

When that began to be obvious, they had to transfer "off budget" some of the largest expenditures of the Welfare State. If the people understood the true cost of socialism, they would end it overnight. Knowing this, featherbedding politicians must continually disguise the fact that their extravagance has consigned the people, their children and their children's children to economic serfdom—for the rest of their natural lives. It is upon this flimsy financial base that our markets rest—not upon a sound footing, but upon a fictitious and ephemeral “money”, based not upon gold or real assets, but upon debt. While the global economy today has been termed a “house of cards” by some writers, even this description is not really apt, for in a house made of cards at least the cards are REAL. Imagine, for a moment, that instead of playing cards, the units are paper IOUs, and perhaps you will gain some insight as to the precarious nature of our economy. Then decide how much of your hard-earned capital you want to risk in today’s volatile and unstable markets.

All of this suggests that the bubble may burst by IMPLOSION, as well as by EXPLOSION. If we can determine which, perhaps we can make some important financial decisions before it is too late.

WILL IT BE IMPLOSION OR EXPLOSION?

Once we recognize that there are two ways in which bubbles may burst—and we know they always do—it remains only to list a number of events which might lead to one or the other, then try to pick the more likely.

If you believe the FED will continue to pump money and credit into the economy through below-market interest rates, thus continuing to increase the already-huge debt overhanging the economy, and especially if you think the FED will rush in with huge bailouts in the event of a significant downturn, then you are in the EXPLOSION camp, meaning that you expect an explosion of credit/debt.

If, on the other hand, you believe that our central bank will raise interest rates, allowing the stock and bond markets to take their lumps, you are basically opting for IMPLOSION. In this scenario, credit does not explode, it simply collapses, just as it did in Asia.

What must be understood is that both scenarios lead, not to deflation—wherein the currency becomes more valuable—but to a dollar decline.

In the explosive scenario, the value of money declines because huge influxes produce what amounts to a hyperinflation of money and credit. In the implosive scenario, markets fall, causing foreign investors to sell their shares and convert their dollars back to their home currencies, thus driving the dollar’s value down. [H: Note that the dollar in any scenario is BASED ON NOTHING!]

But, since all investments in American markets are DOLLAR-DENOMINATED, THEY WILL SUFFER NO MATTER WHICH SCENARIO PREVAILS.

The only rational response by government would be a massive and preemptive tax-cut, both for individuals, investors and businesses. Since even the most sweeping tax-reform bills working their way through the legislative process provide miniscule tax relief until the year 2005 and beyond, and since the President is inclined to veto even watered-down versions, there is virtually no hope for such an intelligent preventative of economic collapse. We must, therefore, conclude that, indeed, the bubble will burst, and so let us look at some potential triggers of what promises to be the collapse, not only of global markets but, ultimately, of the Welfare State as well. [H: And then, people, who is going to pay the bills? The jobs will be GONE, and all of those myriads of Welfare recipients will be dumped onto the disaster already under way—and the end looks pretty bleak!]

POTENTIAL TRIGGERS

We will not spend a great deal of time looking at the obvious events that could burst the global credit bubble.

They are, of course: interest-rate rises, a raising of the reserves banks are required to deposit with the FED and abandonment of direct market intervention—all political acts of the FED. To these we must add the economic reactions of investors, brokers and fund managers, corporations, small businesses, banks, etc.

Another is the collapse of a major brokerage house or fund, which we have already seen in the case of Long Term Credit Management (which required a hurried and massive bailout, engineered by the FED). There is no shortage of over-leveraged financial-management firms with significant solvency problems, both here and abroad. In addition, we have the approaching advent of the Y2K phenomenon, which some believe will disrupt the nation’s payments system, bringing business to a standstill for an extended period of time.

[H: This is all to not even mention, yet, the false reporting of gold and all the assets MISSING from these funds—brokerage records and actual gold simply MISSING. There have been oodles of gold leased—without any gold. Good game, as long as it lasts, I suppose—but that game is sharply OVER.]

But there are other possibilities, depending upon how far afield you want to roam intellectually. [H: Yes, we do want to go that far afield, and I will ask that the words be in capitals so that none of you readers, even sleepy ones, will fail to see them!]

FOR INSTANCE, GIVEN THE PROCLIVITY OF THE PRESIDENT TO GOVERN BY EXECUTIVE ORDER, A PROCESS RELYING ON THE CONTINUATION OF THE DECLARATION OF EMERGENCY BY FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT UNDER THE WAR POWERS ACT ORIGINATED BY THE WILSON ADMINISTRATION IN 1917, A PROGRESSION, WHICH MAY BE DUBBED THE “FREEZE SCENARIO”, SIMPLY HAS THE PRESIDENT CLOSING THE MARKETS AND THE BANKS UNTIL THE SYSTEM CAN BE RELIEFIED BY THE MASSIVE PRINTING OF CURRENCY, OR PERHAPS SCRIP (AN IDEA CONSIDERED, THEN ABANDONED AS UNNECESSARY BY THE ROOSEVELT ADMINISTRATION). SUCH A PLAN WOULD PROBABLY INVOLVE AT LEAST A TEMPORARY MORATORIUM ON THE REDEMPTION OF TREASURY SECURITIES.

[H: Please realize that there are already executive orders which are now called into play by ONE ORDER, placing into effect ALL ORDERS. THESE CONTROL EVERYTHING FROM YOUR LIVING SPACE TO TRANSPORTATION, MARTIAL LAW (IMMEDIATELY TAKING PLACE, WITHOUT EVEN SEPARATE ORDERS) AND ALL THINGS IN BETWEEN. THIS IS TOTAL SOCIALISTIC-FASCISM. Now, in addition to that, KNOW that the U.S. has effectively been UNDER MARTIAL LAW SINCE THOSE VERY DAYS OF THE WAR POWERS ACT AND CERTAINLY SINCE THE EARLY, EARLY 1930s.

I CERTAINLY WOULDN’T WANT TO BE HOLDING TREASURY OR FED RESERVE SECURITIES—BUT I WOULD WANT ABOUT ALL THE G.A.I.A. CONTRACTS AND AGREEMENTS I COULD POSSIBLY GET IN MY HANDS, AND HAVE THEM IN THE BANKS AS RESERVE, AND GOLD PURCHASED BY THE BANKS, AS DEMANDED BY THE AGREEMENTS—AND WATCH HOW SOFT ALL THOSE SEATS ARE BEGINNING TO FEEL UNDER YOUR OTHERWISE BARE ASSETS!

BUT, SORRY, AMERICA (U.S.A.), WE HAD TO

AGREE TO NOT ISSUE THESE DOCUMENTS IN THE DOMESTIC U.S.A. BUT WE CAN USE THEM FOR PROJECTS, BY CIRCULATING THE FUNDS BACK AROUND INTO PROJECTS OR INTO SOVEREIGN NATIVE AMERICAN “STATES”. OTHERWISE, WE CAN ASSIST IN FUNDING MASSIVE PROJECTS ELSEWHERE AND STABILIZING WHOLE MYRIADS OF NATIONS. I REPEAT, RUSSELL HERMANN LEFT ENOUGH ASSETS TO ATTEND THE U.S.A.—AS TO DEBTS AND FUNDING FOR A STABLE GOVERNMENT, TREASURY AND INDUSTRIAL GROWTH BEYOND YOUR IMAGININGS. BUT, FOR STABILITY, YOU HAVE TO BACK IT WITH GOLD—REAL, HARD GOLD—BECAUSE THAT IS THE COMMODITY NAMED IN THE CERTIFICATE/CONTRACT. YOU CAN USE CURRENCY—BUT THE CONTRACTS ARE BASED ON HARD ASSETS.]

FINALLY, THERE IS THE “DEATH-OF-THE-DOLLAR” SCENARIO, IN WHICH THE MONETARY UNIT IS SIMPLY ALLOWED TO COLLAPSE ALONG WITH THE MARKETS, TO BE REPLACED BY A NEW “GLOBAL CURRENCY”, WHICH WOULD SUCCEED THE EURO (WHICH WOULD ALSO HAVE COLLAPSED, ALONG WITH FOREIGN BOURSES). A NEW GLOBAL TAX SYSTEM WOULD REPLACE THOSE OF INDIVIDUAL COUNTRIES. IT IS VERY POSSIBLE THAT NATIONAL DEBTS WOULD BE ERASED, SIMPLY BY THE EXPEDIENT OF NOT FIXING A RATE-OF-EXCHANGE BETWEEN NEW AND OLD CURRENCY, THUS LEADING TO A GLOBAL BOND DEFAULT. IT WOULD NOT BE THE FIRST TIME, AS THIS WAS THE STRATAGEM USED IN GERMANY AFTER WW II.

[H: Now, readers, don’t go away saying this can’t happen! IT HAS HAPPENED, EVEN IN THE GOOD OLD U.S.A. THIS BREAK IS PLANNED, THIS ASSAULT ON THE WORLD, FOR NOW—SO THAT MOST OF YOU HAVEN’T ANY NOTION WHAT CAME BEFORE—AND YOU HAVE BECOME BRAIN-DEADENED, INTENTIONALLY. GOLD WAS CONFISCATED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—AS TO PRIVATE OWNERSHIP—IN THE 1930s. THE PLANS ARE TO TAKE IT AGAIN, TO ENSURE THAT YOU HAVE TO GO ALONG WITH THIS NEW WORLD ORDER PLAN. I’M TELLING YOU, IT IS NOT A WILD THOUGHT—IT IS PART OF THE PLAN IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—NOW! “But,” you stammer: “could it really happen to us, and how could they do this—it is unconstitutional!” Well, weep, citizen—look up those Executive Orders, and realize that you now have a multinational police force using weapons that you can’t even imagine, much the less stand against. YOU HAVE BEEN “HAD”, WORLD! AND, YES, IN THE PHOENIX JOURNALS WE TOLD YOU ABOUT IT ALL FOR A DECADE, TOLD YOU “HOW” IT WOULD BE, AND GOD HAS PROVIDED YOU WITH A WAY TO AVOID THE HORROR HEADED YOUR WAY—AND YOU ONLY ASSAULTED MY MESSENGERS AND BRINGERS OF GIFTS. SO BE IT. FOR THOSE WHO WILL LISTEN AND ACT WILL THRIVE INCREDIBLY, AND YOU WHO CONTINUE TO BASH-AND-CRASH US, SIMPLY ARE GOING TO FIND THAT YOU HAVE NEGATED EVEN THE “POSSIBILITY” OF HELPING THE CIRCUMSTANCE. AND YES, INDEED, WE HONOR EVERY COMMITMENT WE MAKE, EVERY AGREEMENT WE MAKE, AND MY TEAM IS WILLING TO HAVE EVERYTHING TAKEN AWAY BY ANYONE THINKING THEMSELVES TO BE "JUST DOING GOOD BUSINESS"!

A FEW OF YOU HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO SET YOUR PORTION TO RIGHT, RIGHT NOW, OR WE SIMPLY HAVE TO MOVE RIGHT ON BY— BUT ISN'T THAT THE PROMISE OF GOD— ALWAYS? WHERE DID YOU THINK GOD WOULD ACT, AND WHO WOULD CARRY THE WAY? WELL, CHECK AGAIN, FOR IN THE FIELDS THERE MAY BE TWO, SIDE-BY-SIDE, AND ONE WILL BE TAKEN AND ONE WILL BE LEFT—AND EACH WILL HAVE CHOSEN FOR SELF!

CONCLUSION

Whether you embrace the explosive or implosive end to our bubble-economy—or perhaps some combination of the two—it is time to accept that THE BUBBLE WILL BURST, no matter how many economists proclaim a new financial utopia, no matter how many historians insist on “the end of history” and no matter how many media commentators assure you that “it can't happen here”.

Please remember that we are approaching the most dangerous time of year for markets, which have historically crashed in September/October [H: AND JUST WHERE ARE YOU NOW? I WOULD TAKE AN OATH THAT THIS IS THE 27TH OF SEPTEMBER (WITH OCTOBER DEAD AHEAD), 19-HUNDRED-AND-99.]. If for no other reason, you should consider moving to the sidelines, at least until early next year.

Your key to the lateness of the hour is the extreme volatility of the markets, often more than 100 points on the Dow in a day. Be guided accordingly.

[END OF QUOTING]

Now, to my people back in the U.S. who have asked for consideration of funding for some MAJOR projects: Yes, we can do some of them FROM OVER HERE IN SOUTHEAST ASIA—ONCE ESTABLISHED. BUT THE ONES WE KNOW ABOUT—CAN BE DONE RIGHT HERE “IN” SOUTHEAST ASIA, AND THEN LATER, ALSO, RETURNED TO THE STATES OR TO THE NATIVE AMERICAN SOVEREIGN STATES FOR MAJOR CONSTRUCTION. OR PERHAPS V.K. DURHAM HAS ARRANGED FOR OTHER CONSIDERATIONS. SHE BUTTED US OUT OF HER BUSINESS AND WE WENT—SO TAKE IT UP WITH HER.

SEIZE THE MOMENT, CITIZENS, FOR THE MOMENTS ARE PASSING AND THE OPPORTUNITY MOVING ON BY.

I HAVE PRESENTED SOME, OTHER THAN EKKERS, FOR YOUR ASSISTANCE, HAVEN'T I, FATIMA? THERE ARE OTHERS WORKING DAY-AND-NIGHT TO MAKE SURE THIS GOES PROPERLY AND SEQUENTIALLY, FOR THE PERFECTION OF THE FUNDAMENTAL PLAN FOR SECURITY, THAT THERE BE OPPORTUNITY TO MOVE THROUGH THIS NIGHTMARE AHEAD AND DO IT IN STABILITY, IF YOU BUT “ACT”.

GOD BLESSES AND SALUTES YOU WHO ACT IN WISDOM.

And, to my messengers, holders and team: We SHALL get this done!

Salu

Consider this a memorandum of authority. GCH/d dharm

The Phoenix Institute: Recap And Scenario

9/27/99—#1

URGENT TO CONTACT AND PHOENIX SOURCE DISTRIBUTORS

Hatonn—It is noted that in the first 53 JOURNALS there is copyright and publishing information regarding ordering, and it is still represented as: America West Publishers.

New information must be reflected within these books, both at the beginning and at the end, so that ordering information is reflected properly. And, yes, I will tell you how it has gone thus far.

When it was found that Mr. Green, of America West Publishers, and Mrs. Green/Mr. Green had taken nearly $400,000 in gold coins INTENDED FOR THE PHOENIX INSTITUTE and secreted them away to Carson City, it was also KNOWN that George Green and Desireé Green, through America West Publishers and America West Distributors, had in their possession, in Nevada—110,000 volumes of JOURNALS, each priced at $10.00. This amounts to over a million dollars in value, which would have been credited, less $1.50 publishing cost (each), 50% to the Phoenix Institute. [Technically, and legally, since the publishing cost for most of them had been recovered by prior sales, and they were pledged as security for the loans from Phoenix Institute, 100% of the value belongs to the Institute.]

Dharma (the Ekkers) had signed over all rights and income from those books to the Phoenix Institute, as were the proceeds and profits of the paper, Liberator, SIGNED OVER TO THE INSTITUTE.

Mr. Green borrowed one-hundred and fifty-thousand dollars, collateralized by those Journals, from the Institute. Mr. Green also, however, charged all expenses for the entire America West Publishing and Distribution corporation(s) to the Institute, as can be easily shown from records required for the court at that time.

In confrontation in court, Mr. Green claimed all sorts of absurd things, but it was obvious to the Judge that he was not telling the truth and a trial was mandated. Years have passed, with hearings and other attention to a myriad of circumstances to keep Green from having to account in court. However, these things should be noted:

The court ordered that Mr. Green put the remainder of those books (110,000) in a safe and secure place, that he sell no books and that he fully insure the entire inventory.

It was shown [in another case] that prior to their move to Nevada, with only a small number of books sold and accounted, Greens were making over $170,000 per year.

Years later, Mr. Green was stating [in the second of his bankruptcies] that he had no books (Journals), and that they had been taken to the dump because they were damaged, while at the same time stating he had the old pocketbook of the “Manual” or something that he had printed for distribution [which he tried to mislead the court to think was the only security for the PI loans]. [The bankruptcy court immediately gave PI leave to pursue its case against Greens in State court. That was in February

1998; through legal maneuvering, Attorney Horton has managed to stall off the trial, which is now set for October 18, 1999.]

Green was unable to produce any record of destruction or placement of the books. He gave a storage address and [named] a man, who refused to get involved and did in fact name an attorney (who happened to be a Horton FRIEND). All we requested was a receipt for the disposal of the books. But, there was no flood as claimed at the site, for it sat high-and-dry on a knoll in Carson City and “the flood” was in Reno—many miles from Carson City.

Mr. Green had continued to sell the books, including copies of the Pleiades Connection “series”—banned from distribution by the Federal Court in Fresno, California—some of which had been turned over to the court for disposal. We have had many confirmations of those continued sales.

Mr. Green had signed a lawful note for the borrowed funds but then, when confronted for collection to square away Phoenix-owned assets—like the $150,000 (plus years of interest)—which were collateralized by the books, he claimed that the documents were “just paperwork”, and he owed NOTHING, and also refused to turn over the Journals, which he claimed were the property of the “Distributing” company and not HIS to turn over. However, HE HAD LISTED THEM AS HIS PROPERTY, AS COLLATERAL FOR THE LOANS.

He claimed, in addition, that he had put up some funds for the publication, etc., (WHAT IS A PUBLISHER FOR?) and, therefore, was due everything he gained. That sum grew from a quarter to about 3-million dollars in his presentations over the ensuing years. [Remember those wonderful cartoons in CONTACT of George's Pinocchio nose?]

He also claimed that he made his funds on “other” books which he published and distributed. Well, the “best-sellers” were two books, Immaculate Deception [which the authors put up some $50,000 for printing and of which they did not even receive “author's copies”], and Dr. Coleman's best-seller, The Committee of 300, [which was 100% prepared and paid for by people of the Phoenix Institute—from editing/typing/formatting to a loan to pay for the publishing cost]. Dr. Coleman had to pay for his own copies, just as the Institute and Phoenix HAD TO PAY FOR EVEN THE AUTHOR'S COPIES. So, The Phoenix Institute did, in FACT, publish Dr. Coleman's book!

Now, somebody tell me how it can be that the Institute, and two people who simply served as Directors of same, are responsible for all the business done by the Institute and now, somehow, owe millions of dollars to lenders. Assuming this to be so, how can any debt be paid, if the collectable assets go uncollected? These were PROJECTS established and presented as being projects of a business nature for the Institute.

The VALUE of the Journals, alone, would have easily paid off all outstanding debts of the Institute. These Journals list right up there with those books of Dr. Wayne Dyer, Dr. Scott Peck, Dr. Robert Schuller and any UFO writer on the face of the Earth. Dr. Coleman's book is well-read and recognized, just as is the paper, CONTACT—all over the world. It is sad but true that Dr. Coleman's book was among the list of most-read books in the Philippines—as a first-hand observation—along with CONTACT and various of the PHOENIX JOURNALS.

THE DIVINE PLAN, which still bears Green's information, along with THE RAINBOW MASTERS, are in such demand as to be put to copy from the few allowed copies here in the Philippines. So, SOMEBODY sold a LOT of these books, and it had to have been clandestinely, and the one with any printed "rights" [on the copyright page inside the books] would have been George Green.

Now, let us consider more recently: another book put together by, basically, our people was/is TRANCE FORMATION OF AMERICA—also a best-seller, to the point that enough books were sold by Phoenix Source (after George Green departed with America West) to run a sizable tab for payment to the authors. Gail Irwin and Rick Martin had TOTAL CONTROL OVER THE ACCOUNTS OF PHOENIX SOURCE, including sole banking rights. But the authors were paid nothing and, when Ekkers went home in April, they spoke to M. Phillips (author) and he was due over $15,000. Is the light of possibilities happening, readers?

Ekkers paid half of that out of their personal travel funds, and Social Security, and still are committed to the remainder, plus interest and, frankly, are committed to making up damages—Phillips [and O'Brien] had lost everything, including their home. It is also KNOWN that Green had asked for the privilege to sell TRANCE FORMATION, and Phillips denied a working relationship—so Green just went the other route, and got the books through others at a discount and went forth and sold them anyway. He continued to feature the other books named in his separate catalog—even after changing the "distributor" to another corporation.

I want to bring this to your attention so that you get our books into collective shelter, with REMOVAL [of America West information] or glued-in information-stickers in every Journal. There has been nothing preventing Green from re-publishing these Journals, for copies of the manuscripts have been provided, free of charge—by Al Overholt—TO THE INTERNET AND THUS, DIRECTLY, IN FINISHED FORMAT, TO GEORGE GREEN.

And somehow, readers, when we find out about these things and dare to say this is "not good", Ekkers are labeled "dark around the fringe", and there is opportunity under the guise of God's directions to steal things, like the entire paper, the Phoenix Source—AND THE RIGHT (SOMEHOW) TO UNLAWFULLY TAKE BOOKS ON CONSIGNMENT OUT OF A WAREHOUSE IN LAS VEGAS, AS CLAIMED BY ONES RAY BILGER AND ED YOUNG. Well, Brent Moorhead supplied the breakers-and-takers with a key, and this on the authority of Gail Irwin, who had control of the bank accounts of the corporations in point, and now you have a three-ring circus taking place when the responsible parties said, "Whoa! Enough."

How do I know that books are being sent with America West information? Because we got two in Manila—both with no information, other than America West Publishers. The copy of SIPAPU ODYSSEY, a personal novel by Doris Ekker, also bears all of the America West information—and in one of Green's notifications to all his mailing list, he stated that he "OWNED THE COPYRIGHT ON SIPAPU ODYSSEY". WRONG, Sipapu Odyssey is the only one of the whole of the Journals that was both copyrighted by Doris Ekker, under Dorushka Maerd, as well as with the Screen Writers Guild, for it was written by request for a "Motion Picture Treatment".

Is there actually any way to obtain JUSTICE? No, not any longer, but there must be some judicial considerations regarding things of this incredible size, and actual criminal activities and CONTEMPT OF COURT—in deliberate intent.

These Journals are going to be the most sought-after books on your planet and will be in every language—because they are more accurate and totally provable in every aspect—and Nostradamus and Edgar Cayce cannot hold a candle to them.

I am going to start again offering material on, yes, prophecy, with updated commentary—NOW, right here from the Philippines, and we will run them in the paper, CONTACT—"OUR" CONTACT. And, we SHALL reclaim everything stolen, usurped, used or damaged, including our own projects and property. The absurd "WATCHERS" HAVE DONE EVERYTHING FROM ATTEMPTED "MURDER" (LITERALLY) TO DROWNING CHICKENS AT THE LEASED FARM. DO WE KNOW WHO ARE THE "WATCHERS"? OF COURSE, AND THE MORE INTERESTING QUESTION WOULD BE: "WHO DOESN'T?"

What would be my first inquiry to that Spectrum bunch? "Norey and Carol: Why don't you come home where you belong?" You have allowed your credibility to be destroyed by an EGO-trapped person who takes credit for all your work, your receivings; who interprets, and changes and demands recognition, and by that very fact negates your presentations—which are, in the case of Norey, exceptional in clarity and reception. The same can be said of Kali's, when she began to receive—but now her own writings are outstanding, and Dr. Young even has to edit fact from "used" papers of other authors before he approves Carol's personal research observations from authorized journals and papers. He seems to feel a need to pronounce his opinions as to validity, or process, or whatever else comes along.

Is this right? Is this wrong? It is neither—IT IS! What it does do, however, is deny all credibility to YOUR receivings, because who can trust anything that needs interpretation by a very human and rather "strange" individualist, who PROCLAIMS his brilliance but offers very little of anything other than his proclamations and opinions.

Is Dr. Young brilliant or not? Oh, indeed, but what has that to do with anything? Adolf Hitler was Brilliant! Karl Marx was Brilliant! Henry Kissinger IS BRILLIANT—but that does not make them Godly or mandated to Edit for GOD. Einstein was BRILLIANT, a genius, and he presented his work, which was abundant—even if some was erroneous—but his attitude about space was "right on", and that is NOT the "Theory of Relativity", readers. We have not even seen any such offering from Dr. Young—PERIOD.

Young has pronounced our input as DARK. (???) You have had a dozen years and hundreds-of-thousands of pages from us—good enough that they have stolen the work and now pronounce it as some revelation or other—but we are DARK? What are THEY presenting that is of the LIGHT?

You had all better pay attention, for when you have someone who cannot allow any other to have credit for anything without his editorializing and HIS INPUT—listed FIRST—KNOW: THAT PERSON IS TOO "IN LOVE" WITH SELF TO EVEN CONSIDER BEING "IN LOVE" WITH ANY OTHER THING OR BEING. He will dump anyone who even contradicts him in his "opinion". Worse, the people who fall prey to these types of "brilliant" professors are trapped, for they are trained to love, honor and respect that teacher, until they can't function without their presence and "editorials".

Just KNOW, people trapped in that arena—you will either rise above and beyond that entrapment, or you shall be discredited and go down within it.

It is a funny happening: The Spectrum group is now presenting reprinted papers directly from Dharma—and presenting them as if they are receivings by others (since they don't identify). Well, many times Dharma didn't identify, so we could use these papers EXACTLY IN THIS MANNER TODAY! And Norey: YOU KNOW THAT YOU GOT YOUR INPUT FROM OUR WORK—SO WHERE IS YOUR LOYALTY TODAY? WITH A BRILLIANT, SELF-PROCLAIMED GENIUS? ARE YOU SURE?

Spectrum has written that what we write in CONTACT—we suppose regarding your comments on "watchers"—is preposterous as an interrupting, hidden statement in the middle of your receiving? How do YOU, Norey, feel about murder? How about vandalism? How about totally CRIMINAL theft, when you now write for one of the thieves? How do you feel today about a woman who commits suicide who was, yes, dying—while clinging to the perception that SHE WAS WAITING FOR RICK MARTIN, WHO CLAIMED TO BE HER SOUL-MATE. Oh yes, indeed, FACT—not fiction. So, where does Gail stand? Come on—we KNOW that, don't we?

WHEN YOU COVER THE LIE—YOU "ARE" THE LIE!

I ask that Brad Elley get appropriate excerpts of all these writings, and especially anything that concerns legal encounters or information as regards such as this one. We like everything to go onto the network, because it seems to be the only truth getting spread around, in and from that bunch of thieves and liars. Harsh words? What do YOU call "truth-challenged", "honor-challenged", thieves, cheats and liars? Well, anyone who continues to support them IS ONE OF THEM! Definitions have not been that greatly changed. And, God and Man can determine a person by observing his actions and the people with whom he has honor and associated—"You are judged by the company you keep."

GOD may well love unconditionally—BUT HE TEACHES US TO HAVE CONDITIONS FOR THOSE WHO COME WITHIN OUR SPACE. AND IF YOU CAN'T BEAR THE MEANING OF "CONDITIONAL" TOWARD A MAN OR WOMAN—THEN TRY "JUDGING THE ACTIONS", AND YOU MIGHT BETTER DISCERN THE INTENT.

I am going to set up a hypothetical scenario here—but it is mostly truth, so be cautious, and if the names seem to resemble some you have heard before, perhaps it is because I lack imagination:

We have a Board of Directors (literally) that are NOT E.J. and Doris Ekker. In fact, Doris turned over the Secretary position of the Institute to Nora Boyles in February of 1993 and only came as again acting Secretary following Nora's total incapacitation from terminal cancer. Now, Nora is deceased and Doris remains as "acting" Secretary, etc. That is not my story, so we will leave that with, however, stating that we were never without open Board meetings, WITH A FULL BOARD OF ADVISERS AT ALL TIMES AND ALL MEETINGS PUBLIC IN ATTENDANCE.

Now, let us look at Leon Fort's circumstance, where Ekkers, through the Institute, are claimed to have PERSONALLY stolen and lost his MOTHER'S estate? Leon Fort, it turns out, had a corporation—which became controlled and owned by a woman, a lover, who left him a few years ago. His corporation, holding Institute notes, is now in the possession and control of George Abbott, Leon's attorney, who also took $40,000 in payments on that note from the Institute, paid per agreement by the Institute, with a full pay-off schedule that Leon said in Court was never intended to be honored as an agreement. Well, in GOOD FAITH, that money was paid against that note and was taken and USED BY GEORGE ABBOTT. Part of it went into an investment [into a local area Bar, yet], where it was agreed that Leon would get some of the stock. It must have been lost. Years ago, the amount Fort owed his attorney, George Abbott, was MORE THAN THE NOTE, and that had to have been three years, or MORE, ago. The billings contained double-billing, and repeated items and smacked of total criminal action by said attorney. Mr. Fort was actually dropped by the opposing party from the case to help preserve Fort's position—and George Abbott REFUSED to allow him to be removed. Abbott said, in front of many witnesses: "I am going to retire on this case." So, we guess so!

Now, do you think Leon Fort's MOTHER, Esther, is intended to see a cent of that note payment? Will Leon? Leon will not even read the papers sent to him. George Abbott's bill is twice the amount of the note in question, so Leon will end up owing, above-and-beyond the value of any repaid note—double what is the value of the note, of which Abbott already took $40,000. Is this RIGHT—good and honorable judges of Ekker-Ekker-Phoenix?

Next, let us take Betty Tuten. The SAME holds true of her. The bills outdistance the note itself. She has been used and abused in actual criminal activities by Green, Abbott and HORTON. Wow. Now, she ties up the Institute so it can't do business, AFTER she cost Shari Yount and herself all the gold holdings collateralizing their notes. Then Betty actually TOOK corporate books unlawfully from NCH! She and Shari unlawfully forged names, offered false documents and stole those three corporations away, then, from NCH—three times. Is this little Betty Tuten, or don't you think she had help? Well, she said, "It isn't the money—it's the principle." What principle?

Now, let's just move on a bit: Until the last lawsuit, Betty Tuten received interest payments of several hundreds of dollars per month from the Institute, for the use of funds on her loan.

So, as of last week, her attorney says she wants full payment—AGAIN stating she will not accept payments. The interesting thing is that Betty Tuten sat in on a Board of Directors' meeting, where she was offered $2,000 in cash (on a weekend with closed banks) and payments monthly, until paid, even though her notes were not due, and she said, "NO! I want it all, in full, RIGHT NOW! TODAY."

OK, Board of Directors and King Solomon: Give us your answer! And remember that projects have taken incredible funds, much was STOLEN—as in hundreds of thousands in actual CASH AND GOLD, farm equipment, and you-name-it—both by ones who were founders of the Institute, as well as some who were actually officers and Directors of that same Institute. Then the Institute got completely shut down when Tuten asked for Receivership. It did not go into receivership but it was ordered that no further payments be made. Meanwhile, the price of gold dropped out the bottom, with no ability to do a thing except watch!

Now, we do have a game to play, Directors, and please share. Tuten wants hers, IN FULL, Millers want the house payments and whatever happened there, IN FULL, and they demand no loss on any of their participation loans. Fine, we can do that in a very short while—but let us just assume that you need to act now, Directors: Do you take all that is Millers', Margie's, Nora's and others—and pay Tuten's and Fort's LAWYERS? Yes, indeed—Millers, do you really want to do that? Oh, you don't care? Because now you can probably get the house and all of Ekkers' personal stuff, because they are in the Philippines and can't attend a move—when that house is so entangled in legal red-tape as to have to literally sit empty, under the law? You go right ahead and do what you perceive you have to do—but what about your funds—and a demand by Tuten, who also includes Shari Yount (who has never asked for a cent and did, indeed, ask Ekkers to PROTECT HER CORPORATIONS AND HER NOTES FROM THOSE "BAD PEOPLE")?

Doesn't it occur to anyone—with your demands—that it IS CRIMINAL ACTIVITY TO PAY ANY ONE WITHOUT PAYING THE OTHERS? There are no funds in Mexico, or wherever Green and Ence said Ekkers were going. There was also mention of Costa Rica and Chile, but confusion reigns—it is Green who owns coffee plantations down in CIA Country, Costa Rica. Ekkers own nothing, including the personal property Millers are going to claim.

Now, please, while you call Ekkers and Hatonn some type of Evil and awful beings—are YOU being promised a return on your loans? Is SPECTRUM promising you anything? They ask for donations—and a monthly paper—WHAT ELSE?

No? Is it just to destroy the whole possibility of return? Is that really good business?

Where have the Ekkers gone? They are in the Philippines, setting up a full program and a personal loan (unconnected to any prior business transactions), which will cover everything outstanding, regardless for what purpose it is outstanding. And, know that the pre-loan is offered because of the VALUE of the ongoing business under negotiation—even at as high a level as the President of the Philippines and the U.S. FED.

Yes, from just a little "advance" the house could be paid—but is such a thing ethical? NO! And just because it makes life miserable for Ekkers, it is not going to elicit a cop-out on the part of Ekkers. They are prepared emotionally to LOSE everything in the world to finish this job—EVERYTHING.

But, perhaps the Board of Directors should poll a few people who have something coming from the Institute, even salaries for services as have been covered in the past—take others' loans and pay the lawyers, or "WHAT WOULD YOU DO?" Ekkers are tired of the bashing! They are doing their job!! And, they continue to do it under the worst possible circumstances, while old PARTNERS, yet, turn them in with false charges as already determined in a court of law, steal funds, steal property, continue to sell property of the Institute unlawfully, use mailing lists and take funds from ones who think/thought they were supporting CONTACT AS IT WAS and, now, pronounce them as DARK AND EVIL.

This is BUSINESS! Dark and evil? What are you talking about, much the less basing character assassination on, as a general idea? We have no cult, and everything so far was, and is, a business arrangement between supposedly sophisticated people, between CORPORATIONS, where Ekkers don't even know who are behind most of those corporations.

But evidence points to George Green having sold over a million dollars of the Institute's Journals (books), as well as stealing over half-a-million (KNOWN) in gold from the Institute.

Doris and E.J. Ekker produced ALL of those books without remuneration. [We had help from many of you ones.] Oh, even Green promised $3,000 per Journal, up-front, and then 50% of sales. HE PAID NOTHING! If he paid anything, it was for the operations of his own companies—not Ekkers'. He had Fort produce some 30 copies of THE SAME DRAFT, of what was a check, which returned payment to Ekker for having set up Greens' corporations with Laughlin Associates, in Nevada. E.J. had the contact and used a credit card. The story gets ever-so-much worse—but this presents enough for you Directors to decide who of you want to give up your RIGHTS, in order to pay Tuten's attorney for stripping you of ability to even protect what was there and holding? Think about it, because these are the absurdities of these circumstances. And any of you who just don't want to decide about the "Spectrum" groupie: You had better take a good hard LOOK at even the persons involved, and you should KNOW that what we offer is NOT preposterous.

Now, please, get those Journals protected by, at the least, glued-in information for ordering. We are going to start reclaiming property, including books. Has this INJUSTICE in the judicial system not gone on LONG ENOUGH? Well, consider this: Ekkers no longer being anything in the Phoenix Institute! What would happen? They were never anything save Directors and, at most, E.J. was an officer.

Institute BOOKS [corporate] have been gone since Green left California in 1992. Ekkers are tired of this game of "getcha", "gotcha" and "blastya to Hell".

I want all of you to realize that, as far as Ekkers are concerned, to just do enough business to get the slime off them, they will give away the rest of anything negotiated, for it would look really "rich" to just have their Social Security and a tent on a dead-end street. But that Institute—with everything BLAMED on Ekkers—is going to be tended ASAP, and then enough is enough, and Dharma wants all her books BACK because they are best-sellers. If Ekkers must bear all the BLAME, then they shall certainly begin to accept some of the CREDIT, and that includes DUE-AND-OWING, as Rick demands. But, with Rick, how much do you have due-and-owing—if all you have done is seek, take and destroy?

Cut the baby into pieces, Judges? What baby and what pieces?

Oh yes, indeed, you people of faithful service—you SHALL be abundantly rewarded in this hypothetical scenario.

GOD IS "ABSOLUTE LOVE", NOT "UNCONDITIONAL LOVE"! FURTHERMORE, LOSS OF EXPECTED ABUNDANCE IN THE FACE OF NEGATIVE "CONDITIONS" OF INTENT OR ACTION IS THE "CONSEQUENCE" of those conditions. It does not remove the "ABSOLUTE" from HIS LOVE!

Mankind—individual—MUST HAVE CONDITIONS, AND HE IS STUPID IF HE FAILS TO JUDGE CIRCUMSTANCES.

So be it! Salu

And WHO is writing? Oh, well, anonymous seems acceptable—for TRUTH is TRUTH, is TRUTH, and this is the TRUTH. Perhaps this is the "watcher watchers" making a few "corrections"? Now isn't this about as silly and stupid as it can GET?

We now KNOW that there are at least 110,000 Journals out there in circulation, so even Commander, as old and weary as He might be, must have said "something" worthy of seeing or hearing! And THAT was just up until the REPRINTS after 1993! And it doesn't even consider the FREE BOOKS HANDED OUT ON THE INTERNET, PROVIDED BY AL OVERHOLT. Good show.

God also told you in every Holy document put to man: Turn thee from Evil—so, why don't you? You follow Evil intent like water downhill. WAKE UP, TEAM AND CREW! YOU ARE DOING THE PADDLING SO, AT THE LEAST—GET THEE OUT OF THE MUD AND CEMENT, FOR THE BOAT CAN'T MOVE ONCE SET. dharm

God's G.A.I.A. Plan To Change Entire World

9/28/99—#1

ARE "THEY" NUTS?

Hatonn—No, I am not referring to "Rainbow People"; I refer to those who do such things as the World Development Report and bring things down to their most confusing bottom-line possible. But those reports hold a lot of truth tucked away in the fog. Someone like, say, a Dr. Peter, who offered you the Peter Principle of: if it can go wrong it will; and others talk a lot about reaching your level of INcompetence—but not finding out until the Peter Principle has kicked in globally, etc.

We have to then look at people who have reached their level of ignorance and incompetence—getting rid of those who have finally achieved their beginning level of wisdom and competence. And through what mystical evidence do these incompetent people offer to protect their egos and impulsive actions? They shout all sorts of mystical things of "dark taint" and childish things like "Mommy is having a tantrum", from the perspective of the child on the floor, impulsively shouting, "I'll get even with you because you won't let me jump off the 12th floor." Or they simply spew, well, "'Whatever' they are doing, it won't work!". And, "I am going to get even with you—you don't want me for an enemy." And then the immature children go forth to get rid of Mom and Dad to spite their own well-being. BUT—this is not confusion—this is very clearly recognized by anyone with a brain and common sense.

It is usually the politicians who take the jobs of presenting, or seeing to the presentations, of the other preppy politicians who know nothing but want to get higher on that income level. The training lessons didn't make sense, because they were incorrect as taught by the professors and, in the final analysis, the information going in is wrong, and certainly the information coming out is wrong—"garbage in-garbage out". You know, the old 100% employment by 100% of the fact that there are no jobs. However, note that the future ability to pay debts is based on the computer adjustments upward, in the midst of no income for anyone.

So, with this in mind, we will go to the current observation of learned men on the topic of the shape of the future of the world economy. Then, somewhere along the pathway of Great Knowledge-sharing, they place the obvious and pretend it is rocket-science technology. Have fun, people, BUT KNOW THE DIFFERENCES. YOU, who have been with us for a decade, SHOULD EASILY KNOW THE DIFFERENCE. A closed book can only OFFER POTENTIAL, AND PUTTING IT UNDER YOUR PILLOW ONLY MAKES FOR A LUMPY BED AND A WORSE NECK-ACHE.

So, let's share, since my team needs this information to allow for people to look at something printed by some authority in something they have heard of, say, like their local paper.

This happens to come from Washington, D.C., but that is fine, for it has made it through the Editorial processing of Rica D. Delfinado, of the Philippine Star, listed under "Business as Usual", Monday, September 27, 1999.

And who noted what gold pricing was today, versus last week? Isn't manipulation amazing? Even with markets, manipulation is amazing! Amazing and no logical reason—remember the difference and then go RE-STUDY yesterday's writing number two.

[QUOTING:]

TWIN FORCES OF LOCALIZATION AND GLOBALIZATION WILL SHAPE FUTURE OF THE WORLD ECONOMY

WASHINGTON—Localization and globalization are the twin forces that will shape the global economy in the 21st Century, the World Bank said recently. [H: Well, the World Bank should know because they are part of the Power Elite who run everything, thus far.]

In its World Development Report 1999/2000 [H: See, they know what is going to happen even before the facts are possible.], the bank said [H: Note: Not the "bankers said" but rather, "the bank said". Is this taking no responsibility or what? How many banks have you talked to lately? No, you, if you made "contact", talked to a machine, a robot, or a person—not "a" or "the" BANK. Mr./Mrs. Anonymous are found everywhere. And note the response when pinned down—A FIRST NAME IS GIVEN IN A FOREIGN ACCENT, TO ENSURE LACK OF BEING ABLE TO IDENTIFY ANYONE, LATER. Perhaps this is part-and-parcel of the intelligence-level of incompetence of such as the "Watchers"? And, to go on, "the bank said":] localization, or the growing economic and political power of cities, provinces and other sub-national entities, will be one of the most important trends and, together with globalization, could revolutionize human development.

"Globalization is like a giant wave that can either capsize nations or carry them forward," said World Bank chief economist Joseph Stiglitz. [H: Do you suppose Joseph Stiglitz answers his own phone? Double-speak? Which will it be, do you suppose, up front here: capsizing or moving forward? What has happened thus far around the globe of starving masses, war and corruption?]

"Successful localization creates a situation where local entities and other groups in society—the crew of the boat if you will—are free to exercise individual autonomy but also have incentives to work together." [H: Stay tuned, because I am also going to offer you some local Philippine insight into limitations, regarding limited abilities and LGUs (Local Government Units).] The number of democracies in the world has expanded in the last quarter-century from 30-percent to 60-percent of all nations, and almost all of them have local elections, the report noted. [H: Now the report "speaks"; wow!]

Stiglitz said globalization represented a challenge to national governments, stressing that better institutions, such as legal and political systems, will be more necessary than ever to create the right climate for growth. [H: And, more wow!]

From the past half-century of development, the report cites four essential conditions for growth: ensuring macroeconomics stability, addressing human needs directly, providing a comprehensive approach, and offering a socially inclusive and flexible approach to sustained development. [H: MACROeconomics? Will somebody, besides Mr. Stiglitz, stand up and explain the in-depth meaning of this paragraph, please?]

These lessons "are central to how the World Bank envisions its work in the 21st century", the report said. [H: Can you bear this stuff?]

Localization can be a mixed blessing, according to the report. When it works well, such decentralization can make local authorities more efficient and more responsive to the needs of the people.

The report cites parts of Latin America where public services such as education, health, roads, water supply and sanitation are controlled by local authorities. Central government budget contributions to local authorities in Brazil, Mexico and Colombia have increased substantially.

However, when localization is mishandled, local governments can be overburdened and incapable of meeting demands for infrastructure and services.

"For that reason, non-governmental organizations and the private sector should be encouraged to become partners in localization," Stiglitz suggested. [H: Aren't you simply breathless to know WHO is this "Stiglitz"?)]

Local authorities can become a danger to macroeconomic stability by over-borrowing and over-spending, as had been the case recently in Brazil, he added. [H: NO GUANO!?! And who sets up the loans when the people are starving and the nation is bankrupt, so that this World Bank gets it all—but Mr. Stiglitz probably won't get more than fired for his efforts—just short of retirement pension.]

Pushed to an extreme, demands for local autonomy can degenerate into ethnic conflict and even civil war, warned Shad Yusuf, lead author of the report. [H: Hummmn, Mr. Yusuf did "a part" of this report, which says nothing!]

LESSONS FOR DEVELOPMENT

To this end, the report identifies what it calls "four critical lessons" of development experience in the past half-century:

- * Macroeconomic stability is essential for achieving the growth needed for development.
- * Growth does not trickle down, so therefore, development efforts must address human needs directly.
- * No one policy will spur development; a comprehensive approach is needed.
- * Sustained development must be socially inclusive and flexible enough to adapt to changing circumstances.

The report also said that, given current projections, the number of people living in absolute poverty will continue to increase. At the start of the new millennium, an estimated 1.5 billion people will subsist on the equivalent of a dollar a day, up from 1.2 billion people in 1997. [H: What happened to 1998 and 1999, where it is more like 5 billion people in poverty?]

[H: Come on, Pete, give us a picture of this—like the economists beating it 190 miles-an-hour around the globe with graphs and briefcases, and there are no toilets anywhere. I will give you an article on that topic right from yesterday’s front page in the Philippines. I will also note that Imelda Marcos tried to do something about that “no toilet” problem and in one empty space alone set some 4000 toilets, attached to NOTHING. Only in the Philippines? No, corruption took the funds for the house-building to surround the toilets. You know, like every state that has off-ramps and bridges to NOWHERE in the U.S.] [Ed: See Pete’s rendition, next page!]

By 2015, the number of people subsisting below this international poverty line could reach 1.9 billion. [H: People, if something doesn’t get corrected, there won’t be any people surviving on these scales of confusion by 2015. Do you yet feel totally raped, ravaged and pillaged?]

CITIES AND HUMAN WELFARE

According to the report, a growing number of the world’s poorest people will live in cities. In 1950, the number of people living in cities was about the same in industrialized and in developing countries—about 300 million.

By 2000, some two billion people will live in cities in developing countries, more than twice the number of urban dwellers in industrialized countries.

Many cities in developing countries are already having difficulty coping with this surge in population. About 220 million urban dwellers, 13-percent of the developing world’s urban population, lack access to safe drinking water, and about twice this number lack access to even the simplest of latrines. [H: MmmnnHummmn, there is that nasty latrine problem again.]

In Bangladesh, for example, the World Bank estimates that over 60-percent of city residents face serious shortages of housing and basic amenities.

[H: Ah, but isn’t it comforting to realize that Dr. Rick has provided the cure recipes for the life-saving drias to these places that I’m sure must go along with Bangladesh, Ethiopia, Appalachia, et al.]

[END OF QUOTING]

I could write a book on every paragraph of the above, but I know that you people KEEP UP with these piles of crapola and don’t need my input, but THAT IS WHAT IS FOISTED OFF ON YOU FROM THESE POWER ELITE, AND PEOPLE JUST WANTING TO HOLD ON TO THEIR POSITIONS IN THE NETWORK OF IDIOTS, WHO SAY ANYTHING AND DO IT ANONYMOUSLY, IF AT ALL POSSIBLE. IF YOU TAKE NO RESPONSIBILITY, YOU DON’T HAVE TO DO ANYTHING EXCEPT REMAIN ON THE DOLE, UNTIL THE PRODUCERS RUN FLAT OUT OF ANYTHING TO PAY. AND YES, YOU ARE LOOKING AT IT RIGHT IN TEHACHAPI, CALIFORNIA, INSIDE THE WORKING DISORGANIZATION OF THE SPECTRUM GROUPIE, WHO BLATHER NOTHING AND OFFER LESS BUT THEIR SANCTIMONIOUS AND PIOUS OPINIONS OF EVERYTHING FROM YOUR LIFE TO YOUR SOUL—EDITED, OF COURSE, BY “A MAN” TRAINED AND DIRECTED AND, OF COURSE, PROGRAMMED TO BE “KEPT” BY THESE VERY TYPES OF INSTITUTIONS. AN EDITOR WRITES EDITORIALS—HE DOES NOT RE-WRITE A JOURNALIST’S OR AUTHOR’S

MATERIAL.

An Editor, for instance, like Rica D. Delfinado, chose to put this absolute pig-poop on the front page of the Business Section of the major paper—but, since it had come from the AFP, he didn’t even bother to make a comment. Good? Bad? Well, his actions were OK; the article was extremely NOTHING, not even “just bad”.

Next, let us talk about the toilet situation in the Philippines. This is a front-page article. It comes right after an article which headlines: “ARE ‘FRANKENSTEIN FOODS’ SAFE?”

[QUOTING, from the Philippine Star, Sept. 27, 1999:]

23.4 MILLION FILIPINOS HAVE NO TOILETS

This data from the administration’s own five-year development plan appalled opposition Rep. Rolando Andaya, Jr. (Lakas, Camarines Sur) yesterday.

“This is shocking. In this age of the Internet and the Mars Explorer, a great number of our people do their morning rituals in natural surroundings,” he said.

Andaya said the Estrada administration should give flesh and meaning to its “Erap Para sa Mahirap” slogan by at least distributing free toilets to the poor. “But that is not what they intend to do,” he lamented.

According to Andaya, the Medium-Term Philippine Development Plan reports that “as of December last year, only 68.77-percent of the (74.7 million) population have access to sanitary toilet facilities.” [H: Well, readers, if you don’t have anything to eat—eventually you don’t have anything to poop! Now THAT is logical reasoning—perhaps. And surely somewhere sit those Imelda toilets, where at least she TRIED TO DO SOMETHING. IN FACT, THE GOOD THINGS THAT HAVE HAPPENED TO THE PHILIPPINES, IN SPITE OF WHAT PEOPLE WANT TO BELIEVE, CAME ABOUT THROUGH THE MARCOS LEADERSHIP. THIS BASHING OF MARCOS IS A POLITICAL “THING” WITH, ACTUALLY, NO FACTUAL TRUTH—JUST POLITICAL AND RELIGIOUS HYPE AND THE POWER ELITE STRUGGLING FOR SUPREMACY IN THE NEW WORLD ORDER.]

The same document revealed that the administration plans to distribute 131,380 “household latrines” and build 250 public and school toilets starting this year, up to the year 2004, when President Estrada’s six-year term ends. [H: How many of you could wait five years to go to the john?]

Andaya said, in contrast to the present leadership, the Ramos administration distributed 670,000 sanitary toilets from 1993 to 1998. In population terms, he said, 5.3 million Filipinos would benefit from the Estrada administration’s toilet distribution and construction plan.

If each of the household latrines would be shared by 10 persons, then 1.3 million Filipinos would benefit from the latrine distribution program, leaving about four million beneficiaries of the 250 toilets planned to be built in the public places and schools, or roughly 16,000 persons per public toilet, he said.

“That’s for Ripley’s, unless what the government has in mind are public toilets as big as Megamalls,” he stressed.

According to the official Philippine Statistical Yearbook, only 3.9 million out of the 11.4 million households in 1990 had “water-sealed, septic tank, exclusively used by the household” type of toilet facility. Some 942,000 households also had this type of toilet but shared it with other households.

Around one million households used “closed pits”, while 1.6 million had “open pits”. Some 227,000 households used the pail system, while 1.8 million had no toilet facility. Reporter: Jess Diaz

[END OF QUOTING]

Strange and humorous article? Not really, people. This is about as serious to public health as anything possible, including HIV. And, if you are a tourist, there is no way you won’t get “touristi pallor”. Even in the “sanitary facilities” you will not find paper, running water for washing or, in most provinces, even fixtures that work—and which have not worked for a dozen years and mostly since “installation”. Often, you will find a bucket, which may or may not have a “flushing” pail, usually empty, or with no dipper to pour. Dharma noted that probably all those people at the mall are there to go to the bathroom.

I can promise you that the majority of Filipinos DO NOT use their toilets as their library reading-room!

This is the hard, cold world caught in this New World Order of disastrous intent, readers. And you in America just sleep on and kill the messengers, rather than waking up and, much the less—doing something helpful.

But, will us bringing about an economy that puts toilets in every home and a chicken on every table—really help anything? Yes, this plan will change the entire WORLD, because the people will have jobs, and provide their own toilets, and be able to obtain their own chicken, and their PESO will be worth something. PEOPLE DO NOT LIKE LIVING IN A CESSPOOL!

Ah, but...! Let us go on and examine, again, “two factors” THAT SEVERELY LIMIT PRIVATE SECTOR INTEREST...

[QUOTING, from the Philippine Star, Monday, September 27, 1999: (And yes, readers, THIS IS THE MAJOR NEWSPAPER IN THIS AREA.)]

PAPER EXPLAINS LGUs’ LIMITED FUND ACCESS

[H: Well, bear with us, because here is another speaking paper.]

Two factors severely limit private-sector interest in providing funds for Local Government Units (LGUs).

These are the depository requirement of the Commission on Audit (COA) and the lack of clarity on an intercept mechanism for the Internal Revenue Allotment of LGUs.

This observation was made in a paper titled “Issues in Local Government Finance Loans”, which was published under the Governance and Local Democracy project of the Associates in Rural Development and the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Against this backdrop, the paper said national government agencies should take steps to remove existing constraints on private lending, by allowing local governments to deposit funds in accredited private commercial banks and clarifying the IRA intercept provision, to make it available to both government financial institutions and private banks.

The LGUs, themselves, can usefully concentrate on improving their capacity to raise their own account revenues, thus providing a stronger base for commercial borrowing.

The paper noted that resources of government financial institutions and the Municipal Development Fund (MDF) are sufficient to address the expanding financial requirements of LGUs, particularly with their expanded responsibilities under the Local Government Code of 1991.

There is a pressing need to facilitate local government access to private loan resources.

Until now, it was noted, there has been no clear-cut delineation of how the MDF, government financial institutions and private lenders can support local government borrowing. Despite the pressing need of LGUs for private credit, little progress has been made.

The 1991 Local Government Code provides more liberal rules for local government borrowing. Setting a limit on LGU indebtedness, the code states that “the amount of appropriation for debt servicing shall not exceed 20-percent of the regular income of the local government concerned.”

This is in contrast with Presidential Decree 752 of 1975, which governed local government credit finance in the Marcos era.

Specifically, the code repealed a provision of PD752 compelling local governments to seek Department of Finance (DOF) approval before applying for bank credit, or issuing bonds and other forms of indebtedness.

However, the borrowing capacity of local governments under this provision is roughly three to ten times as large as under the COA’s earlier “net paying capacity” formula.

The code also encourages local governments to secure debt finance not only from government financial institutions but [also] from private lenders.

The MDF, created in 1984 as a conduit for foreign loans and grants contracted by the national government for local governments, emerged in the late 1980s as virtually the only source of long-term credit finance for local governments.

The government financial institutions’ credit to local governments, previously a significant source, dwindled following the build-up of unpaid obligations in the first half of the 1980s, but the code resuscitated the government financial institutions’ interest in the local government credit market.

These institutions accounted for 86-percent of the P12.6 billion of local government loans approved in 1992-1995.

During the period, the MDF remained an important source of local government credit finance, but private banks shunned lending to local governments despite occasional statements of interest.

Thus, the paper said, there is a compelling need for the MDF to refocus its efforts in the short-and medium-term. The government financial institutions and the private capital market will not be able to address the credit needs of many LGUs, particularly those that are financially weak.

On the topic of increasing local government access to private credit, local officials and outside observers identified several approaches for consideration.

The new LGU credit framework (developed by the DOF) should be implemented as soon as possible, with all local governments made aware of their borrowing status. (Manila Newsfeatures and Commentaries)

[END OF QUOTING]

Ok, now, please tell me what that said? Let’s see, the LGUs are certainly requirements of the COA as relative to the MDF and the IRA while the GC again impacts the COA’s earlier MDF reports of 1984. Then the DOF received or presented new LGU credit—and this all came from the MNC.

So, but what else is in the news? Oh, some dozen or so agents of the NBI have been collected for CRIMINAL activities of the major variety, you know: murder, rape, drug dealing and blowing up its own headquarters with [an] unlawful bomb and explosive materials. And what is this NBI? Oh, just your Filipino equivalent, or actual counterpart, to this new INTERNATIONAL FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION that you thought was just a Federal U.S. agency. It is sort of the PNP service, which is noted for worse activities. And WHAT is the PNP? Oh, just the Philippine NATIONAL POLICE. And what do they all do? They protect the Power-Elite Bankers and things like that. These agents get very good at criminal activities because their pay is so bad that they have to do crime to survive. And no, we aren’t joshing anyone—this is a fact. But then the Central Government does CRIME on a major scale, so what’s a person to do?

Now, you might say, Americans—“Well, OIP!” This is a most used term, meaning “Only In the Philippines”. NO, IT IS IN TEHACHAPI, CALIFORNIA, ESPECIALLY HEAVY IN WASHINGTON, D.C., AND DOWNTOWN GENEVA AND BRUSSELS, NOT TO MENTION NEW YORK (BOTH LITERALLY AND LITERALLY).

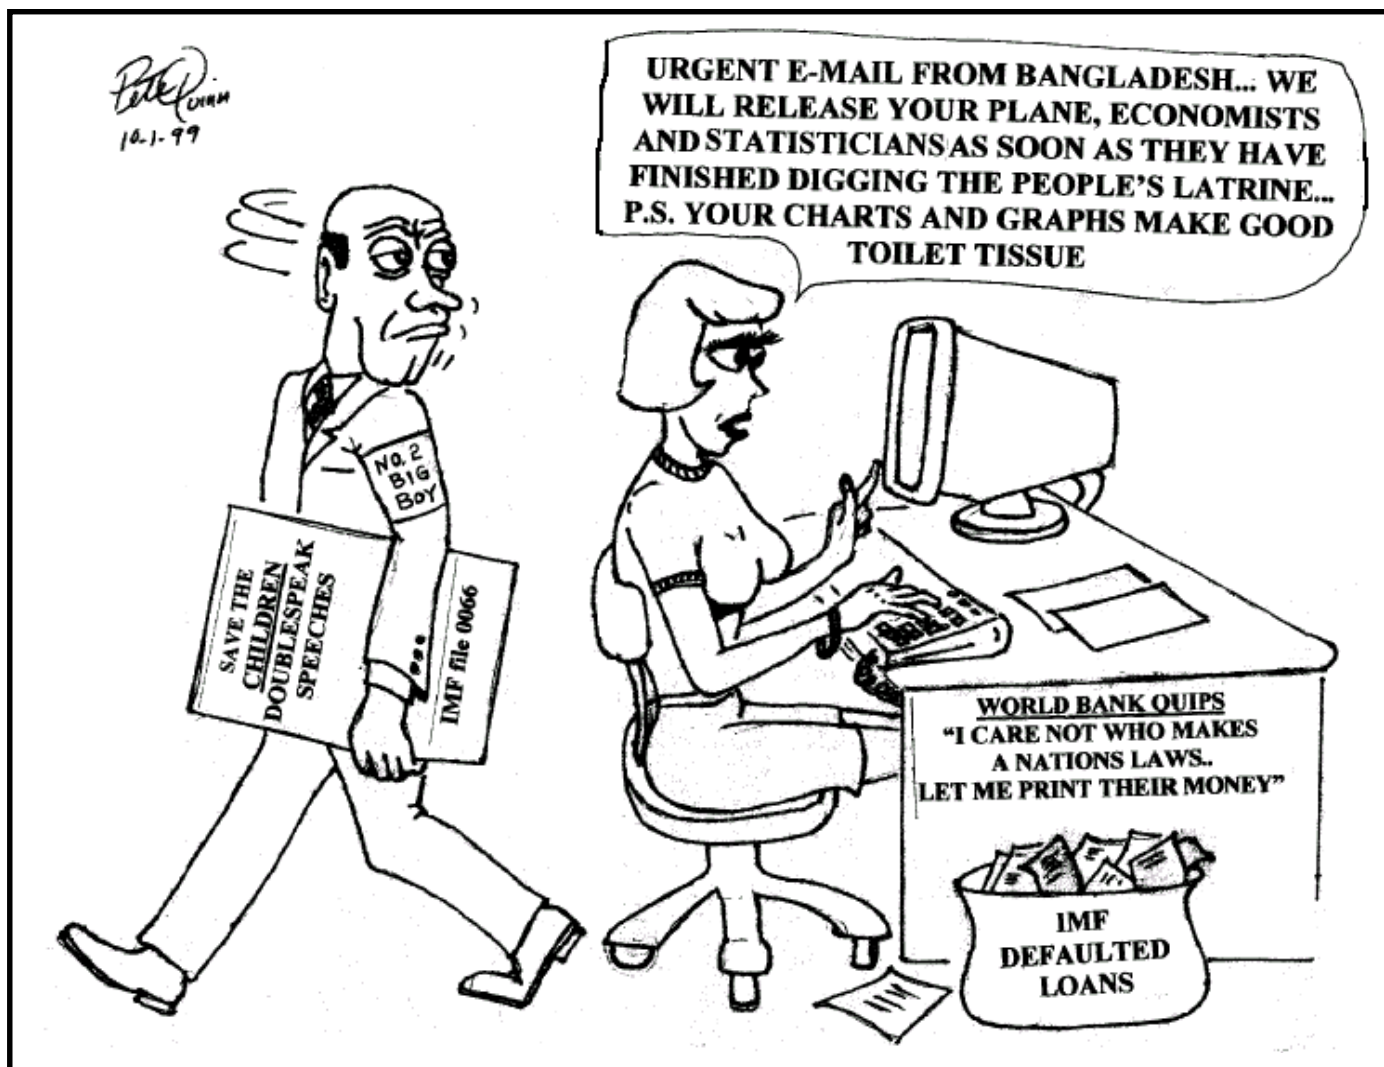

“And so, Big Boy,” you might inquire, “just what are you doing about those little localities which never get anything but have to give everything to Big Brother?” Why, my dears, I thought you would never ask: WE ARE FUNDING THEM, OF COURSE! AH, THE PEOPLE HAVE THE GOLD TO BACK THE FUNDS, AND THEY WILL NOW HAVE JUST AS MUCH AS

IT REQUIRES TO HAVE TWO TOILETS IN THE HOUSE (OF WHICH THEY HAVE ALSO “NOT” HAD), AND A JOB TO BOOT. MY, MY, ISN’T LIFE SIMPLE? AH YES, OIP! CHECKMATE? YES. GOD WINS, PEOPLE OF THE LIE—GOD WINS! AND GOD ONLY HAS TO TURN ABOUT THAT WHICH THE EVIL, WALKING TWO-LEGGEDS SET FORTH FOR THEMSELVES. SO, PERHAPS WE CAN BE A BIT PATIENT, WHILE INSTRUCTIONS CAN BE GIVEN AND PARTICIPATION BE SHELTERED, SO THERE IS NOT MASS DISRUPTION AND SETBACK BECAUSE OF SUCH AS THE FED, IMF, WB, AND THE CPT (CENTRAL POLITICAL THIEVES), WHO MUST DEAL WITH HANDING OUT CUSTOMS-SEIZED LUXURY CARS TO THE CABINET MEMBERS AND SHUSHING UP THE TOILET TALES. IS THE U.S. DIFFERENT? NO, YOU JUST DON’T READ OR THINK, DO YOU? AND, IF YOU WAIT FOR SPECTRUM TO FILL YOU IN—GOOD GRIEF, CHILDREN. IT WAS BAD ENOUGH WHEN YOU JUST “FOLLOWED THE SELF-PROCLAIMED LEADER”, BUT NOW YOU JUST “FOLLOW THE LIARS”. IT IS DIFFICULT, ISN’T IT, TO COME UP OUT OF THE DARK AGES?

Will our team ever come home? Well, perhaps, if they can just decide (and the planes are still flying and a government false indictment isn’t waiting, thanks to the Spectrum nitwits) which to fly: PAL, NW, KLM, AM, or RB—or perhaps SAL or even HKA. And if you still don’t have a HA (headache), then you aren’t trying hard enough!

Sincere and best wishes for a thoughtful day in Wonderland, and may you live until tomorrow!

Salu
dharma

Revelation Reminders For The Remnant

10/1/99—#1

CONTENTMENT IS NATURAL WEALTH;
LUXURY, ARTIFICIAL POVERTY—Socrates

Hatonn—Ah, but life does not leave you live in your “natural wealth” nor your artificial poverty.

With that in mind, let us look at something else upon which to undertake patience: “I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.” [Philippians 4:11]

Yes, I too have problems, readers. When I say “be patient” everyone goes back to sleep, stops working at progression and simply waits for whatever focus may well be in front of you for resolution—of its new status of “patient waiting—upon the Lord”.

LOOK around you. Let us say you are waiting, as always, for funds. Can you just stop in mid-stride because I say we must be patient to allow for human progress and steps? No, you must check to see what else you can turn to in order to make transition in systems, check all the details which will be necessary to manage offices, travel potentials, corporate restructuring, corporation readjustments, attend vehicles, dwellings—whatever is a PART OF LIVING. NOTHING STOPS because we get bogged an extra week in a foreign land—WHERE, BY THE WAY, YOU SHOULD BE NOTICING SOME PRETTY ABRUPT AND RATHER DRASTIC SHIFTS IN THE CONTROL SLIPPAGE OF SOME COMMODITIES ON THE INTERNATIONAL MARKETS.

Yes, we DO know what we are doing—but no, we will not share that information to make the job of the adversary possible.

Please, attend that which others CAN ATTEND in our absence, and leave us to our ability to work with freedom of movement.

There are no “setbacks”, only longer paperwork shuffling, security of moving that which has to be transferred from one location to others, and always the political puppet-master, negotiating for each breath we take.

How long does it require for you to get a small loan, even $500, from a local bank? Try changing the entire world economic structure—with every major bank in the world into a new International system—without making the sky fall. Well, that is where WE are. All nicely approved—just setting a foundation for being able to shift methods and secure totally discarded record-keeping. You see, once, all banking and national currencies were based on a simple value upon which to issue currency routinely. Now, everyone has FORGOTTEN how to do bookkeeping, and these systems have to be replaced in entire, newly-structured (-programmed) computer accounting systems. So, BE PATIENT, but get everything ELSE done while you are patient. We are working our way through this maze, and again we end up today, meeting, meeting and meeting to hopefully catch the ending of the week AND THE

PASSAGE OF THE MONTH PRIOR.

Bottom line to you at “the house”: The word is, simply, “Yes, we can save it.” We have heard it before, yes; however, in each instance these days the reasons for shifting are notably present. One of the MAJOR banks handling the advance, interim loan to Ekkers, personally, is now removed from the MAJOR TRANSACTIONS, as approved through the Central Bank and Government. That caused a shut-down in that bank of the advance funds, which must then be shifted, with all the weeks of paperwork—to another institution. Then comes the petition of the ones in the Transaction of MAJOR size—and the size of that “one” separate transaction is too large to discuss here—to please just be patient and not cause us this inconvenience of advancing, when we will be shifting into major corporations “imminently”, anyway, and all “the problems will be over for those people”. “Those people” being Ekkers, of course.

We have cried “foul” because of some deadlines on bits of property in legal swamps, deadlines, and you-name-it, on a miserable scale of just trying to get through this period of time. Well, we are weary also, and we are tired of being yanked here and there with promises—ah, the daily, weekly, monthly and yearly promises! Our displeasure, however, does not merit impulsive idiocy in reaction—we just offer more of ourselves to get the job done, and so we shall. We work with that which we have and that is all we can do. Keep your eyes on the prize—IT’S WORTH IT!

Meanwhile, we have several in direct contact with us in Manila and, you who are among them, just realize that we CANNOT get back to you timely. When we respond, we instantly get back a new bunch of pleadings for information and instructions. NO, we can’t do it and I don’t even want my people to shift focus.

Lester, YES, we will have a place and facilities to further your work, with others like LS in California (and others), and probably, to save “start-up” time, we will have to arrange something here in the Philippines. However, the facilities whereat these things can be produced are yet to be constructed and certainly are not ready to take on foreign elements. That does not mean, however, that a lot cannot be worked out for interim facilities—but NOTHING can be done until we get over the hurdles of permits and other problems immediately before us.

Yes, once there is funding flowing adequately, we will simply get you others to get together and represent selves in your selected participation focus—here or “there”, wherever.

A major and urgently important task is to get a structured interweb capability of the “Native” peoples of the various locations around the globe—working together, for from them will have to come an integration of Spiritual Recognition, while at the same time bringing people into equality of modern living, instead of increasing slippage into total poverty, as Governments place more and more pressures, as less flows into the tribal coffers.

The point of the adversarial societies is, and has always been, to get rid of the “Tribal” GOD aspects of humanity, so that there is no interference in taking the souls of the balance from all the societies’ individuals—without further conscience interference. Note I said “conscience” and not “conscious”. These adversaries are very conscious of that which they do without conscience.

No, it is not different than that which you people do to one another, every time you get your personal nose out of joint, for one excuse or another, and can hurt another deliberately for some perceived affront.

I am always amused as I watch you making one error in judgment after another—because the gossipers tell you something—which obviously cannot even be so. Well, we have to leave it to each individual as to what they choose to do and, more surely, what they choose to believe.

All the while that you prepare your mission of doing-in one another, you pound on me to tell you what is going to happen. Where have you been for the last 2000 years? How many times do you need to be told? We, alone, have told you a dozen times in as many years. I am quite amused that you thinking you want Ekker’s dwelling may well find that—if you take it in malicious, mean intent—the Ekkers may well escape the expenses of rebuilding a damaged building from other upheavals. Am I giving threats? No, it is just that as ones pull away, you leave open the removal of the protection and sheltering area, which again puts the area into possibility of extreme damages—from several of the local faults, if they slip, and they are already slipping. WATCH THOSE QUAKES AND VOLCANOES, FOR THEY HAVE NOW WORKED THEIR WAY BACK-AND-FORTH AROUND THE GLOBE, AND THE ONE IN MEXICO IS HEADED NORTH.

We have only a very few in the California area of Tehachapi, who would be quite relieved to be free of the responsibility of quake-resulting damages. Will you have quakes there? Indeed! I would assure you of several things happening and, when a quake hits in a big magnitude in that area of Coastal California inland, the area should be thrust upward; and if we need to make adjustments, we will probably simply move the crystal to a place of more security, and that alone is going to give a whole new perspective to the landscape. And you who would rather attend the political projections of “no crystal” in the area—you will be right, I suppose—but you will have a severely broken mountain therefrom.

It can’t happen? Oh, foolish children, what happened to Pan? What happened to Atlantis? What happened to Mu and Lemuria? Did it never even occur to you that if you turn from God, you are allowed to go it alone? Is it also possible that YOU might have missed the method of relocation or safety placement? Or did you think we would just “hover over” and whisk you into a craft or something—because you somehow change your mind as the shaking started? No, thank you; if you have betrayed us on land—you would certainly soon betray us in your demands while on board. And no, the rules have never been otherwise—EVER. “If you have done it to the least of mine, you have done it unto me.” And, some of you have really done everything in your power to “do it” unto any of mine, not even the “least”.

Ah, but will “my” crew be safe? Of course, if you are among the remnant waiting for selection of locations—or, for remaining at station. I want you to take a good, hard look at Scallion’s map and then recognize that—if we pull stabilization from the area to protect that crystal—you are going to get a ride for your dime. And if the Garlock Fault breaks between Mojave and Tehachapi and the Tehachapi area raises over 1,200 feet, doesn't it seem you might, without (or even with) stabilization, (you are going to) have one heck of a go of it, being only a couple of miles up the road? Do I know what we are doing or talking about here? Yes, DO YOU?

Since this was, and continues to be, more direct information through dharma in the U.S.A., we will RE-offer the information. We will later speak of other geographic locations—but in every location there are other speakers for instructions.

PROPHECY AND REVELATION

I think I will just repeat here what WE wrote as far back, with Dharma, as 1986-87. I, personally, offered it to you several times in various repeats, reminders and bluntly in new writings every day for, lo, going on 14 years.

There SHALL be winds, and there shall be, in the time when it is WINTER; and the trees shall bow down their boughs, and the winds shall sting with the cold; and there shall be great suffering among the people, and they shall fall down and cry for mercy. Ah, but some of you will have heard and will have prepared, so that you can pass through the tribulation and shall not hear the cry for mercy as ones come rushing back to your safety lodge.

And there shall be a mighty earthquake, and it shall split in twain the country of North America, and it shall be as nothing the world has known before, for it shall be that there shall be a great part of the great land of the north continent go down, and a great sea shall form within her center part, from the Dominion of Canada into the Gulf of Mexico.

But it is noted that, even though there be great and mighty destruction, there is that which comes afterward, as we go on with this information: And there shall be great ocean liners, liners which shall travel within its waters, which will be propelled by solar energy of the next age. But with this, they shall be unable to travel east to west or from west to east, through what is now the Atlantic Ocean, for it shall have a mountain range which has been thrown up from the bottom of the Atlantic; and it shall be extended into the air to the altitude of ten thousand feet, and it shall be one of the places of the old, for it was once the Light of the world. She went down amid a great shock and a great wave; and it shall be that she shall come up the same way as she went down.

This needs attention, readers, for if you have this happening in the Atlantic, you have to realize that a balancing thrust will happen in the Pacific. This is what happens when you have an axis shift of rather sudden nature, but that also is accompanied by a major UPWARD thrust of the ocean floor, as well as the shifting of polar topography and water seeking ever the lowest level available to it.

Does this "have to happen"? No, but what do you see thus far that would prevent this at some time in your perceived and expected "future"? If a handful of our people betrays us and turns away, then who is left to bring about the changes? The facts are that, in such circumstances, the ones who remain true to cause simply cease to see merit in further attendance of the masses. The ones who struggle to make way for the better way and bring through a remnant usually see no significant reason for further adjustments for clearing a passage.

The western side of this rift shall be as the sheer side of granite, and it shall be without foothold; and the way shall be as the eagle flies from the place which is considered upper Virginia some three hundred miles due east; and at this point it shall be one thousand and eight hundred feet from the waters; and not an entrance through the land shall there be to the east, for it is not for them, which are to be the remnants, to communicate by water; for it shall be with a new science, and a new method shall be given unto them. For there is not a place which is that shall remain the same in its present state.

And not a person shall be left which is not prepared for that which shall be. And there are many called but few are chosen: for there are none which have been chosen which have not been carefully prepared; and they have been unto themselves true, and they have given credit where credit is due. And now it is given unto them to be the seed of the new Civilization, which shall come upon the Earth.

And within the time which is left before this shall come upon the Earth, it shall be that many will be called but few are chosen, for they volunteer to serve but do not stay the course. Those who remain in service have been carefully selected and have been carefully prepared; and they have been unto themselves true as well as to the course of actions mandated and recognize that it is of Highest cause that a remnant shall remain and thrive.

Those who come forth and proclaim to desire service are many, but they doubt; and they fear; and they faint; and they shall fall by the way; and they shall in no wise be wise, for it is given unto man to fear that which he does not understand—and for that does he wait. He is given that which would allow him TO UNDERSTAND, but he turns away, and refuses to see and hear, and thus cannot understand.

And it is said there shall be winds, and certainly there shall be and ARE GREAT WINDS, which come from the sea and also from the land, and they are all rolled into one great tempest. And they are as the winds of the North and the South and East and the West, and they shall tear that which is in their path, and they shall be as the reaper who mows down that which is in his path. And they shall sing with the bitterness of the cold. And they shall be as the elements of the Earth, for they shall contain both rain and wind; and the hail shall be as big as bird eggs, or bigger, and shall split that which it strikes.

And it shall be that the suffering shall be great upon the Earth, for it is given unto man to know suffering. And he has not known such suffering before and, when it is come upon him, he shall fall down and shall again cry for mercy.

And it shall be that the winds too shall be greater yet upon the Earth—they shall blow east, west, north and south, and not a place shall there be upon the Earth which shall escape the winds which blow; and when this tribulation has come upon the Earth, it shall be that there shall be many who have kept within the law and they will escape within the shelters they have prepared as to their instructions.

And with the coming of the winds and belching of fire from within the Earth there shall be—MORE!

And to those who believe that they shall simply cling upon the backs of the others, who stay the course, it shall not be as in that way. No one will be responsible for the words or deeds of any other, nor shall any man take upon himself that which would be done by another. Excuses are not acceptable. Each entity will be responsible for his own and held responsible for that which he presents, and his actions are that which shall be judged as to himself. Man has lost identity with the Father/Mother God which created him and—if he does not awaken and act in setting things to correct course and return to that which are the instructions for the security and stabilization of your habitat—those that continue on their blind trek shall surely perish in the physical form, and many SOULS SHALL BE SET TO THE PLACES OF LOWER EXPECTATIONS, FOR THEY WILL HAVE FAILED TO GROW IN SUCH A MANNER AS TO MOVE FARTHER FORWARD IN KNOWING AND EXPERIENCE THAN THAT IN WHICH THEY LEAVE THEIR EARTHLY PHYSICAL RECOGNITION.

TALK ABOUT THE PRESENT

I am always petitioned to speak about the "goodly" brotherhood of "Hosts" who are expected. I don't know what else to say to you—WE ARE HERE WITH YOU AND YET YOU DENY US. You see things happening to your own next entity, as in neighbor, and you see not? Do you think that man simply walks past a waste-bin and picks up that which is of such value as to be unlimited, and it fits into the pattern of a century or many centuries for the solution to those things come upon you—for your use? Can you not see that these things provided are so massive that they cannot be of human development? What does it take for you to see and hear?

I have to interrupt, now, in this dissertation, to offer you other information right out of your own news and from insightful observers who can put together the various pieces of the very things taking place, AS WE HAVE TOLD YOU THEY COULD COME TO PASS. And yet, my own claimed team or crewmembers continue to bring pain upon our very nucleus, who MUST see these things through in distant lands and foreign hands. Where IS your heart? Where is your soul intent? Do not tell me "good business", as you threaten and destroy the very last shred of security of my right-hand team. Nothing is of great importance to them, for they shall be able to replace every last shred of what is lost or taken—but what of YOU WHO DO THIS? YOU are not in need, nor will the pittance you gain be of worth in any real way unto you. WHY DO YOU DO THESE THINGS TO YOUR BRETHREN? WHOM DO YOU ALLOW TO LEAD YOU DOWN SUCH WRONG PATHWAYS? YOU FOLLOW THAT WHICH IS EVIL IN INTENT AND IT SHALL BE JUDGED IN ACTION. SO BE IT.

I need to leave this writing, for we have other things needing attention at this moment. Then, I must offer what has been sent to our attention, which obviously needs sharing, but I think I must make comments or you may well miss the point or connection with these presentations and what is ACTUALLY TAKING PLACE AROUND YOUR GLOBE.

WE ARE DOING OUR COMMISSIONED WORK AND IT IS BEING NOTED AROUND THE NATIONS, EVEN AS THE MOMENTS PASS BY.

If you do not change, Earthman, you are going to reap the rewards (consequences) of that which is already released unto its unfolding.

Earth is entering a phase of two seasons: summer and winter, with extreme temperatures in each. Those places which have no notable summer or winter will experience the repercussions of that which is happening elsewhere, and it will come in volcanic eruptions, floods or drought and, certainly, in ALL PLACES there shall be undue hardships, for Man's time of great bounty and food abundance will greatly be altered with each passing day and with each event which happens upon the planet. This will worsen as you turn to hybrid plants, which cannot reproduce themselves and bear good fruit, as well as the acts of what appears to be Nature upon your growing fields, as well as the attacks upon your fields by vermin, pestilence and microbial attack, as in the smuts, fungus, blight and contaminated soil. Man's human excrement and waste will recycle back in its contaminated and polluted form into his intake system, and then the greed of Man shall be realized in the hoarding and limitation.

We have done, and shall continue to do, everything possible to get you informed, assist with those things which can allow protection and a growing up through these things come upon you, such as diseases which are already becoming untreatable through medical methods now known, while the limitation of your ability to have those things which CAN HEAL AND CURE are disallowed your use.

We of the Hosts, however, do not come to simply set anything to right. We have come to fulfill the destiny of your planet, which is to experience a period of cleansing and purification and then to usher in a new and GOLDEN AGE OF LIGHT. We of your Higher Brotherhood call that time a time of Radiance.

I want you to realize, however, that what you are told by the liars and projectionists of such as "ascension" without merit are misleading you to your peril. You are not going to "just ascend" because you believe on something or someone you have murdered a long while ago, to take, somehow according to your wishes, YOUR responsibilities and errors. There will surely be a "migration" and transferal of many things unto many places but not as you are told by oracles and mystics, OR RELIGIOUS RITUALISTS.

I will constantly remind you that when these things are happening, you will be unable to "think", and you will panic and run hither and yon, helter-skelter. Don't do that, for you present more danger unto self. Remember the people who run from their ruined buildings and sleep in their cars, only to have the next shock break the building asunder, and it falls upon the car and they are crushed. Yes, it will seem that no place is secure and no place shall be secure. KNOW, that if you are with us, you will be secure wherever you are; for you will either be placed in security by some instruction to be elsewhere than your usual place, find yourself in a secure area by "accidental coincidence", or simply be secure where you ARE. And, I will remind any of you who play games of seek-and-destroy of my people: Should you damage or injure even one hair or one feather, DELIBERATELY THROUGH YOUR ACTIONS, OF GOD'S CREATURES, YOU SHALL REAP THE REWARDS OF SUCH ILL-BEGOTTEN INTENT. YOU can play with that which is without conscious life or animal projection, but you who injure, deliberately, the creatures of God's innocence shall not be left without responsibility for those actions. So be it. There is no further acceptance of drowning chickens, plucking birds, kicking dogs or cats and or doing deliberate damage or theft to any property. And let it be known that the taking of anything personal is deliberate theft of property and shall be treated as deliberate and intentional breaking, entering and THEFT. This shall be called, in legal terms, felony theft and, at the least, LOOTING.

We shall continue to speak on these topics of expectations, but you must see the unfolding events, as we begin to structure that which can give stability and foundation to move from the direction of certain downfall into the Light of Positive Change.

Salu, Aton

dharmia

God's Reclamation Begins In The Phillipines

10/2/99—#1

PHILIPPINES

Hatonn—AS A REMINDER, PLEASE:

I want to repeat something: "How many of you would believe that the Philippines, as currently located, hold the keys of transition and reformation as well as rebuilding of the remnant upon the beautiful Creation Shan? There are other portions in other places but central to the reclamation of this cycle of life-stream of you as a civilization and experience of God-self upon that land-mass manifest—shall come to balance and focus within the wondrous places rising in the Sea of Peace, called Philippines." (Through Darkness into Light, THE DIVINE PLAN, Vol. I, Hatonn/Aton—June 1992)

A REMARKABLE DAY IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Every day is remarkable in some way and, if not—YOU are not doing your job, that which makes it remarkable.

Each of you will find one topic more interesting or personal than another so, with that in mind, we have to consider that it is, however, THE WHOLE, with connections firmly established, that allows forward movement.

It is difficult to bring the pieces of a puzzle together in such a way that blind men can bring forth a picture and then bring the picture to living expression. If you are making a cake, you can assemble different ingredients until the stove runs out of heat and still have no cake—until you put the parts together, blend them properly and then bake the batter—only then do you have cake. And then? Well, unless you eat the cake for which it was baked, why bake it at all? Too pretty to eat? Then, in that case, you are an artist; and the cake, itself, could be cardboard, so why waste the time. We find that all governments in this day of IMF, Banksters, Corruption and Mayhem, along with racket and pandemonium, are but confusing distracters.

Yesterday's show-and-tell of China's celebration tells the tale, to you witnesses of historical FACT. China is a massive dragon looming over everything like a serpent on a mouse. Moreover, there have been the governmental and people-power to have discipline to make the system precisionally functional—good or bad.

I bring no bigotry to this table, but I will bring every FACT that passes our door, because you must realize that even though it APPEARS that such as China are Communistic, as in "Soviet Union"—NO, it is not so, and hatred of the Power Elite is great in the Chinese heart. Remember that Soviet Communism is a fabrication of Bolsheviks. And U.S.A.—YOU HAVE LIED TO AND ABOUT THE CHINESE. That was a grave error of the media as to the WTO agreements, which were never finalized nor signed between WTO and China—and you have accused the Chinese of breaking their word, by saying they have broken the agreements. There weren't any agreements from last April to break. Your foolish lies given to media and presented in worldwide false information are eating you alive.

The U.S.A. and allies are giving themselves away, citizens, and you are simply caught in ignorance, in the middle of the battle for power.

We only have time, if we are to get this writing back to the States for paper deadline, to finish the topic on "Gold", as begun yesterday. And no, I do not agree with some of the things the author states, but he has put to paper a general outlay of information that brings simplicity to the focus.

The author of the article is Sherman Skolnick, who is recognized as a most controversial "insider", or "outsider", depending upon whose side you are placed. It is very difficult to tell which side Mr. Skolnick is on, as a matter of fact. He often quotes and presents information from such as "most confused" Rayellen Russbacher (Rumor Mill), for instance, who may or may not have good information. She certainly NEVER presented factual information regarding myself or our people, either in purpose or action. It is up to the reader or listener to evaluate all the pieces, research, get information from every possible direction, and then add it to your collection of data. Eventually, you can get a good picture.

With that in mind, we will just copy this off onto disk so that it can be available. This particular article is very good as to giving you a picture of the gold debacle, taking place currently.

[QUOTING, Sherman Skolnick, Sightings, 9/27/99:]

THE BANK OF ENGLAND AND THE GOLD CRISIS

Far too many people believe the common fairy tale that geniuses are in charge of financial affairs. History is riddled with the monumental blunders of the big-money crowd.

If the price of gold goes up, it tends to discredit paper money. After all, some do consider gold the only real, independent money, separate and apart from Governments. The Bank of England has been part of a scheme to force down the price of gold. Up to about the summer of 1999, gold had been pushed down to just a touch over 250 dollars per ounce, a recent historical low. The best, most efficient Canadian mines have a cost of production at 285 dollars per ounce. So the Bank of England announced, for September 1999, another sale of gold, supposedly from "their Reserves". This was joined with stories, not every one believed, that OTHER central banks were tired of having gold reserves and were, and are, likewise selling off and discarding their Treasures.

There was, however, a deep, dark secret. The Bank of England does not really have that much in "gold reserves". They have used up their gold in two World Wars, as well as numerous devaluation attacks on the British Pound Sterling, which once was $4.80 for one British Pound. AND, all the while, to the last minute, falsely denying that the Pound was about to be devalued.

Some believe that the person using the name "Clinton" was ordered, by the secret societies that installed him as President, to start the war against Serbia, which had not attacked any foreign country, least of all the U.S. A simple reason: the new Euro Dollar was declining against the so-called "U.S. Dollar". So the Europeans had a financial interest to get the U.S. into a financial disaster called Kosovo, to wreck the Dollar. When it is all said and done, WHO will have to pay for reconstructing the bombed-out bridges, factories, and buildings in Serbia? You guessed it: the common, ordinary U.S. taxpayer suckers. Not the Rockefellers, Mellons, Morgans, and other ruling families, WHO PAY NO TAXES, hiding their fortunes through Foundations and corruption of the Internal Revenue Service. [H: Recognize that I am presenting the article as written and haven't time to comment on each item. But Mr. Skolnick has part of the reason for Kosovo totally wrong. The people of the taxpaying world will pay, OK, but even that is not quite so cut-and-dried because of the entangled webs of deceit structured in that mayhem. The results are the same: the Elite are able to distract from the facts AND THE REAL FOCUS.]

So, to try to force down the price of gold even lower than $250 per ounce, the Bank of England was selling gold it did not really have. [H: Well, everybody IN THE BUSINESS was selling gold they didn't have, as well as leasing it, manipulating it and removing nations from any standard at all for currencies.] Upon the downfall of the Soviets, the Dutch arranged to steal thousands of tons of Soviet gold with the help of criminals in Moscow, the newly-rich, open-market "miracle" entrepreneurs, former Commissars. After all, there was a time when the Moscow government was the world's second-largest gold producer. Maybe not longer true with the great decline in production in general since 1991. [H: Wow, this is not factual at all. Criminal elements may well be involved, but where are they not involved? This is simply not so, readers, and if this is not so—be careful. By the way, note that a government is NOT A PRODUCER; it can, at best, only be a "handler" and even then it is not "the government", it is a conglomeration of two or more people who form a conspiracy to act in certain ways. Generalities should be left out of factual information distribution as truth, but I have no control over another's distribution, nor do I have obligation to set their information to correct. You can, however, look at what has happened in Russia and KNOW that the manipulators were hard at work as in every nation around the globe.]

In its simplest form, the Bank of England was selling gold borrowed from thieves in Amsterdam. NOTE: The Dutch have been a transit point for Vatican financial schemes. By the way, that nation, which is forever fighting off the seas—the Netherlands being below sea level—has used strong-arm tactics to prevent ANY speculating against THEIR currency, the Guilder. Currency speculators know it is a death warrant to mess with the Guilder, which remains stable in an unstable world. [H: I think it should be noted here that the Queen Bee of the Netherlands is a very, very important player in the society of the Elite Committees—i.e., Committee of 300, Club of Rome, Bilderbergers and right along with other Royal families who just "seem" to be figureheads. It helps to know these connections and then you can know pretty much what is valid information. By consideration only of things presented, you won't find out what makes that clock tick. Therefore, please pay attention to all the little tid-bits of information you can gather, and then the whole picture begins to emerge.]

Reputed currency gangster George Soros became reportedly aware that the Bank of England was playing a dirty, dangerous game with someone else's stolen gold. To counter him, the central bank of Britain has reportedly instigated stories such as: Soros is a world-class gangster, which he probably is; Soros is using stolen insider secrets, which he probably is; and to appeal to a growing number of Anti-Jew bigots, calling him, through other people's mouths, a "dirty, rotten Jew", thus defaming and slandering all Jews in general.

So Soros and other world pirates joined with the Swiss—who never were sweet angels—to attack the Bank of England. There is a pertinent principle of commodity trading called DELIVERY. The commodity traders sometimes joke that the items you speculate in might someday be ordered to be DELIVERED, like to be dumped on your front lawn. The currency bandits reportedly have been ordering the Bank of England to DELIVER the gold they supposedly sold in auctioning off THEIR "Gold Reserves". That is where the trouble started. So the price of gold began shooting up, for a number of reasons.

REASON NUMBER ONE: Could the Bank of England DELIVER stolen gold without unraveling the whole Dutch-former Soviet Gold Robbery? Also, the Dutch, through their bank octopus, Algemene Bank Nederland, ABN, have been buying up, FOR GOLD, banks in 15 U.S. cities. For example, ABN bought up a long-known requited money laundry for bribing judges, called La Salle National Bank of Chicago, now the flagship in the U.S. for ABN. La Salle National Bank was one of the only two out of 20,000 U.S. National Banks in 1964 that refused to disclose their 20 largest stockholders of record, when demanded by the House Banking Committee under Chairman Congressman Wright Patman of Texas. A populist, he caused a report of the national bank ownership to be published in 1964, the first and only time of such in U.S. history that National Banks were required to list their major owners for a U.S. Government-published report.

REASON NUMBER TWO: It is little known that the U.S. has a contract arrangement with Saudi and Japan. THEIR vast ownership of U.S. Treasury bills, notes, and bonds, are subject to being paid, upon their demand, IN GOLD. No U.S. citizen is allowed to convert their U.S. bonds into gold upon demand. Further, the Persian Gulf oil producers have an arrangement that their sale of oil to the West is payable in so-called "U.S. Dollars", actually, Federal Reserve notes backed by nothing, not gold, not silver, just hot-air promises. Upon demand, however, only the Saudis have the right to DEMAND payment in GOLD, instead of "U.S. Dollars". So the world price of oil is pegged to the "U.S. Dollar", AND Saudi can get gold for

THEIR oil. [H: And this paragraph of back-up information is the entire reason I am bothering to reprint this article. THIS IS IMPORTANT, AND WE HAVE BEEN TELLING YOU THIS OVER AND OVER AGAIN. ACTUALLY, THERE ARE OTHER OIL PRODUCERS THAT CAN EXCHANGE OIL FOR GOLD AND, CERTAINLY, THE CASH TO ISRAEL ALWAYS IS OFFERED IN A RETURN DEMAND FOR GOLD. IT IS TO NOTE THAT U.S. CITIZENS CANNOT DEMAND, NOR ARE THEY EVER PAID IN, GOLD OR SILVER. YOU HAVE NOT HAD GOLD RESERVES FOR MANY YEARS.]

Another secret, known to gold-mining and marketing experts, is that the Federal Reserve has an unwritten policy of a trip-wire: $410 per ounce. For example, the Fed, with the help of the monopoly press, in the market crash of 1987, concealed for weeks and weeks that the Fed was lifting heaven-and-earth to keep gold from topping $500 [per ounce] following the Crash. Over the years, whenever gold even approached $410 per ounce, the Fed and the press-fakers started an attack on gold, such as: gold does not pay interest but lays dormant; gold is a barbaric metal from the past, no longer needed; gold is useless to own; and similar fables, suddenly circulated by the paper-money crowd.

I find it interesting that over a period of years, I was the only journalist to go to the annual meeting, called the Chicago Gold Conference, [with] gold experts from all over the world. The press-whores, fronting for the paper-money cartel, never printed a single word of the all-day, Chicago-based meeting.

Rumors are circulating, believed by savvy folks to have validity, that the Bank of England needs a rescue of 200 BILLION DOLLARS to bail out their blunders. If the Federal Reserve, circulating their Notes masquerading as "U.S. Dollars", has to send that many paper lifeboats to London, where will they get it? And will it sink the "U.S. Dollar"? And by having more so-called "U.S. Dollars"—that is, Federal Reserve Notes—printed? Of course, that inflation would simply cause gold to go even higher.

Do not be surprised, however, that the monopoly press says little, if anything, about the Bank of England, or is it the BUNK OF ENGLAND, and the gold crisis. And no surprise if the press-liars start circulating stories about gold, that, after all, gold is no good to have. Wags with gold teeth claim that, when gold is high in price, they have to hire a guard for their mouth.

—Sherman H. Skolnick, a moderator/producer of Chicago public-access Cable TV Program "BroadSides", since 1991 and, since 1963, founder/chairman, Citizen's Committee to Clean Up the Courts [END OF QUOTING]

Things are taking place which can produce changes pretty rapidly but that will not likely be made public—as in "advertised"—as the world economic controllers struggle to hold positions. Please keep informed and be prepared. So much is going to be taking place that you will have trouble keeping informed, even if you are on it every minute—AND WATCH CHINA! IT IS ALSO KNOWN IN WORLD CIRCLES AS "WATERLOO".

I will reserve further commentary so that this can be sent this morning.

Thank you, Dharma, it IS a good day! Salu
dharma

Bright Future For Gold As Short-Sellers Scramble

10/1/99—#2

ARE “WE” PLAYING WITH GOLD?

Hatonn—NO! We are NOT playing. We are having a lot of fun, but the game is not one considered as “playing”. What the world is doing—in the realm of big business, banking, and general manipulation of currency and commodity—is, however, both interesting and tells THE story of what happens when reason begins to take the place of insanity and confusion.

I don't want to make too many comments on the material I have been offered for sharing. I also know that we could just run these articles in CONTACT and save a lot of time and commentary—but would you read it, study and get the point in every instance? No, not unless focused on the topic.

I do not write these articles, such as we will offer here, so I will endeavor to give full credit to authors, viewers who see and send and my own teams, who do hours and hours of research in every media and medium to make sure I have that which is worthy of immediate attention and focus. It is for this reason that, unless we have urgent other matters to cause dharma to be absent, we will offer as much as possible. This also, please understand, readers, gets the information onto disk, for further ability to use as reference material without undue search and hope-to-find. You have to know what is taking place NOW, or you can't connect it to that which is already gone past and that which is anticipated as it unfolds.

With this bit of introduction, I again wish to thank John Ray, who also is responsible for our superb “News Desk” in the paper. This is much like a double load for him but, until we can have some help—more than is available to us right now—we will have to impose on his good nature and assistance.

John and Jean are among the ones who come, from over half a continent distant, just to help pull weeds in our farm garden when they can and share constantly as they can, in every way they can. As a matter of fact, they are greatly responsible for having the kind of helpful relationship with V.K. Durham, in those days when we had to support, literally, that person. They and their friend, Jack, actually moved right in to attend her and help with whatever her needs might be. They have never stopped in their efforts to both make our work bear fruit and get it to harvest. Thank you.

There is not much comment necessary on any of that which will follow, for it is presented for your input and insight and to get it to disk for the sharing with people here, in the Philippines, who are deeply involved in the activities of consequence in the adventures taking place. Some of these more active and interesting adventures go all the way back to Pleiadian contacts, and commodity availability brought forth from Lemuria and set forth against this day of recognition.

Therefore, when we see great interest in such as “Gold”, we MUST look carefully, for that was and is the commodity-of-choice for use as the foundation upon which currency, global and otherwise, can be valued, to stop the incredible manipulation of people's lives—to the poor's destruction and the wealthy's reward for greed and avarice.

[QUOTING, Business Wire:]

WORLD GOLD COUNCIL WELCOMES CENTRAL BANK INITIATIVE ON GOLD SALES; FIVE-YEAR LIMIT IMPOSED ON NEW SALES

NEW YORK (Business Wire)—September 27, 1999—The World Gold Council (WGC) said today that it welcomed the initiative of the European central banks to introduce a five-year moratorium on new sales of gold from official reserves.

Mr. Wim Duisenberg, President of the European Central Bank, said in Washington yesterday, following a meeting of the Group of 10 leading industrial countries, that the central banks of the Euro-system, plus the Bank of England, [along with] Switzerland and Sweden, had agreed to limit sales of gold from official reserves to a maximum of 2,000 tonnes over the next five years. This figure includes the potential sale of 1,300 tonnes by the Bank of Switzerland and the current sales by the Bank of England. The sales would be limited to a maximum of approximately 400 tonnes a year.

The central banks have also agreed not to increase their gold lending arrangements and derivative operations above current levels for the next five years.

“The World Gold Council welcomes this move,” said Robert Pringle, head of the WGC's Centre for Public Policy Studies. “These decisive measures by a group which accounts for some 50% of all official gold holdings [H: Note the word “official” tucked in among the speakings.] will reduce dramatically the scope for rumour and speculation which has been such a damaging feature of the gold market in recent years.

The other major holders of gold—the United States, the IMF, the Bank of Japan and the Bank for International Settlements—while not part of this agreement, are associated with it. [H: They are not just “associated”, they are the CAUSE of it.] The Reserve Bank of Australia several weeks ago also stated that it had no intention of selling more gold in the foreseeable future. This brings almost 90 percent of official gold holdings worldwide within the scope of a general restriction on gold sales and lending. [H: And to you who are asking about our wish to sell gold—no, we are NOT interested in selling gold.]

“The WGC has been drawing attention to the dangers of instability in the gold market fuelled by speculation, and we are pleased to see that central bankers share our concern and have taken steps to limit the opportunity for unfounded rumour. WE ARE ALSO PLEASED TO NOTE THAT THE WORLD'S MAJOR CENTRAL BANKS HAVE ALSO RE-AFFIRMED THEIR COMMITMENT TO GOLD AS

AN IMPORTANT RESERVE ASSET FOR THE FORESEEABLE FUTURE,” said Mr. Pringle. [H: My, my, what will they think of next?]

[END OF QUOTING]

And as we move from Aussieland, let us see what the EU statement might be.

[QUOTING, Asia Precious Metals Review, September 27, 1999:]

GOLD SURGES US $13 ON EU STATEMENT

by Polly Yam, Bridge News

Hong Kong—Sep. 27—Spot gold rose by US $13 to $284 from $271 in Asian opening, due to massive SHORT-COVERING worldwide on a statement from major European central banks Sunday that said the banks would cap their gold sales, dealers in Hong Kong said. Market sentiment turned from mixed to bullish today and many expect the price to rise to $300 in the near future. [H: Well, so far so good!]

The European Central Bank, 13 EU central banks and the Swiss National Bank released a statement on Sunday in Washington to clarify their positions on their gold reserves. The statement said that there would be no sales beyond those already announced over the next 5 years, and that the annual sales will not exceed approximately 400 tonnes, and that total sales over a period of 5 years will not exceed 2,000 tonnes. The statement also said the signatories have also agreed not to expand their gold leasings and their use of gold futures and options over the 5 years. It stressed that gold is to remain an important element of global monetary reserves. Also on Sunday, the International Monetary Fund announced that it has officially endorsed a plan to re-value 14 million ounces of its gold reserves through off-market gold sales. This eliminated previous fears that the IMF's gold sales in the open market would push down spot prices. THE DEALERS SAID PLAYERS HOLDING SHORT POSITIONS WORRIED THAT THEY WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO BORROW SUFFICIENT GOLD TO COVER THEIR POSITIONS, BECAUSE THOSE CENTRAL BANKS WILL NOT LEASE MORE GOLD TO THE MARKET. This forced many shorts to cover their positions in the spot market today, they added. As Sunday's statement reconfirmed gold status as “an important element of global monetary reserves”, market sentiment quickly turned to bullish, which attracted some fresh buying, they said. Some dealers see gold rising further in the overseas market today to $290 and to $300 in the near term. Others, however, were cautiously optimistic about a further rise, saying that gold was overbought as the price has already risen $13 in Asia. Due to the strong gold [prices], silver, platinum and palladium were steady in sluggish trade as dealers FOCUSED ON GOLD.

[END OF QUOTING]

I would suggest you people start praying very, very diligently that we can get our work done properly, because the circumstances are pretty sad, if not. The amount of gold being talked about is so small that it should terrify you as to any thought of RESERVES. This is also WHY, to you inquiring and impatient minds, it has to be handled most delicately, to maintain any foundation upon which to hold without collapse. When you have nothing backing paper—you have a very, very rickety and unstable situation.

Why will “our plan” work? Because we offer reserves to back the purchase of gold collateral, which then, in turn, gives a foundation for currency valuation. Simple? Yes, God always offers solutions which are simple in concept and always POSSIBLE in presentation. But SOMEBODY has to, for goodness’ sakes, see and recognize the potential and be daring and risk-taking enough to push it through under every threat known to Man, including the badgering and harangue of those they considered their own best partners and co-workers. God did not say it would be an easy road, nor would it be an easy accomplishment. HE PROMISED THAT IT COULD BE ACCOMPLISHED, AND THE METHOD WOULD BE QUITE SIMPLE AND THAT HE WOULD PROVIDE THAT WHICH IS NEEDED, AS WELL AS “THE” NECESSARY PARTICIPANTS. AND, IT IS SO!

The question then arises about what happens next, after the reserves and collateral are in place? Then the obvious is to have credit against that collateral, so that the backing is solid and substantial, while the projects against which credit is issued can grow and flourish. Funds become available upon which a society can grow and build, without the drain of interest payments which, in turn, allows a business venture to bear fruit freely, while at the same time the banks are covered with secure collateral and solid reserves.

“Well, why would the IMF, for instance, allow such a thing to come to pass?” you might well ask. Because they haven’t any choice, in place number one, but in place number two: Why can’t they utilize their teams, already in every central bank and major bank, to simply serve as the administrators of a “new-type” of program for serving needy people, WITH GOLD-BACKED VALUE? THE DEBT IS THEIR OWN, AND THUS, THEY KNOW IT IS “GOOD” AND “VALID”; THEY SIMPLY HAVE TO CHANGE THEIR WAY OF DOING BUSINESS AND STOP STRIPPING THE NATIONS AND THE PEOPLE THEREOF, ALONG WITH THE PEOPLE WHO PROVIDE THE MONEY IN THE FIRST PLACE—“YOU-THE-PEOPLE”. IF YOU GET EVERYONE ON A STANDARD OF VALUE—THE WORLD CAN FLOURISH.

The next writing I would like to share starts off with paragraph one holding the most astounding presentation, which outlines EXACTLY the idea in point.

[QUOTING, Robert Chapman, The International Forecaster, September 29, 1999:]

GOLD

A SENIOR MEMBER OF THE JAPANESE RULING PARTY AND UNOFFICIAL ADVISOR TO P.M. KEIZA OBUCHI, SUGGESTED JAPAN SHOULD USE EXCESS DOLLARS IN ITS FOREIGN RESERVES TO BUY GOLD FROM THE IMF. [H: !!!!!]

Low gold prices over the past two years have caused the closure of over 130 mines. The only reason production is up 1% is that major mining companies are hi-grading their reserves.

In early September, short positions rose from 184 to 196 tons. One-month lease rates were about 4.85% late in the month, 12-month rates were 3.25%. Both are historically high levels. Some central banks are not rolling existing loans, causing the pressure.

Comment from important Indians has recommended that the country should take advantage of the current low prices to increase its gold reserves. Mr. S.S. Tarapore, former Deputy Governor of the Reserve Bank of India, said India’s reserves of 375 tons could safely be doubled and accounts for only 8% of external reserves.

We don’t know if former Vice Minister of International Affairs at the Japanese Ministry of Finance, Dr. Eisuke Sakaibara, was right in his statements in May to the Australian Financial Review, that Wall Street would crash over the next year, but he certainly coined the name for the U.S. economy, Bubble.com. If Mr. Sakaibara is correct, it goes a long way toward explaining why the Bank of England is in such haste to sell or transfer the gold reserve holdings of the people of Great Britain to other Elitists and, at the same time, save them from their investments involving the gold carry-trade; the carry-trade positions being just one part of the $300 trillion in financial obligations floating in the world financial system. There is always more than one reason why these people do things. It was not some bolt-out-of-the-blue that prompted the UK’s sale of 415 of 715 tons of gold. It was grand theft of the people’s assets. As a result, 130 mines have been shut down and thousands are out of work. This has been abetted by the IMF, which wants to sell 311 tons but was forced to use accounting procedures to turn its hoard into dollars, after the U.S. Congress sent them the message that they wouldn’t approve the sale. As we close in on the day of reckoning of the financial system, the effrontery and greed of the Elitists becomes more easily recognizable: sale, or proposed gold sales, by the BofE, IMF and the Swiss and the scandals hitting banking every month, such as major banks being caught money laundering, which is nothing new to our readers, in their quest for easy profits. Whether it’s Coutts, Chase, Citibank, or Bank of New York, they are all involved. If the BofE gold sales are any yardstick, you can rest assured gold is still the only store of value, at least the Elitists think so; they are buying it.

Second-Quarter gold demand hit a record high of 809.5 tons, up 16% from 1998’s 807 tons. [H: Of course, readers, realize that if you believe those particular numbers, you are not seeing the real picture—even the arithmetic is wrong.] Jewelry demand was up 13% and investment demand 32%. In the U.S., Gulf States and India, demand was at the highest level ever for a Second Quarter.

In July, the average, daily, net-clearing turnover in London gold markets was up sharply to 1,082 tons, or much higher than actual demand.

On September 21st, the BofE said it had sold 25 tons of gold from reserves at $255.75 an ounce, slightly above price expectations. The sale was eight times over-subscribed. Three times over would have been bullish. Eight times is somewhat astonishing. Interestingly, gold-mining companies were among the bidders, and it was significant that South Africa’s Gold Fields said it bought 12.5% of the total. This could be very positive, as it shows a genuine belief in higher prices and could signal a slowdown in producer hedging and possibly even future buy-backs. Other positive news was a report in the Tribune de Geneve that said Swiss central bank sales would probably start in 2001, rather than 2000; although the Swiss National Bank later said it plans to sell half its 2,600-ton reserve some time early in 2000. The IMF had to throw in a canard, that it is considering a plan to sell more than 10-million ounces to raise money for debt relief. They can’t, without U.S. approval, and neither can the Swiss, without voter approval.

Any sane person with any intellect whatsoever has got to believe, given the facts, that central banks, with the assistance of some major gold producers, have been manipulating the price of gold since 1986. Who in their right mind would lend an asset at 1.5% interest? It certainly can’t be a profitable endeavor. We know central banks have admitted leasing gold. The Fed denies having done so. We suspect the Fed has been writing call options, which allows bullion banks to hedge their gold-leasing activities. It also could be true that the Fed and other central banks have sold call options in the $290-$300 per ounce area. This could be another reason why the BofE took the unprecedented step of selling off part of Britain’s gold reserves. The writing of call options would invigorate gold leasing, but low gold prices going into option expiration time would be beneficial to the writer. Thus, the BofE action could have carried banks through a period of terminating maturities. During such a period, a lessor would not be leasing or writing calls, thus, the increase in gold lease rates from 1.5% to 4%. It is possible that the Fed and others, last May, when gold prices looked like they might move to $310-$320 an ounce, requested the BofE take the drastic step that it did—selling gold reserves—thereby suppressing prices. This happened at almost the same time that hedge funds got in trouble in the yen and franc carry-trades. The BofE could have had two reasons for suppressing prices. It is the function of central banks to prevent financial breakdowns, and driving down gold prices under these circumstances would be justified. What is not justified is the manipulation of gold prices in the first place. If the central banks are in the market, investors and speculators have to lose money due to their actions. Not only do they manipulate markets for their own benefit, but they also lie about it under the guise of it being in the national interest.

Of course, the national interest is whatever the Elitists deem it to be. Their interest is the national interest. The British excuse for selling, borders on the ridiculous. At least sales by other EU countries had a rationale and that was meeting Maastricht criteria. The Swiss do have excess gold reserves, but we doubt the public will ever allow them to be sold, but just the announcement of such an event sabotages the market. We are convinced that that is what Swiss sales are all about; consequently, for whatever reasons, they are also part of the problem. Bullion bank leasing is not leasing if the borrower sells the gold. Banks have sold the gold through an intermediary, for interest, hoping they’ll get the bullion replaced. The intermediary uses the cash and leverages. All we can say is: one problem and the whole system could collapse. Thus, the first to go could be gold-lending central banks. If our reasons are correct, and the financial system went to the edge, without our being told, it could have a frightening enough effect on central banks, so that they might cut back or end leasing arrangements. If that does happen, gold is certainly headed higher.

At the end of 1998, official gold reserves were approximately 33,500 tons, or 15% of total, world foreign-exchange reserves. The five largest holders, the U.S., France, Switzerland, Germany and Italy, own 20,000 tons. Annual turnover at the London Bullion Exchange is 250,000 tons. The net short position in gold derivatives is between 4,000 and 14,000 tons. Whatever the figure is, that amount has been sold into the bullion market and must either be bought back or rolled. We always tend to look at the price of gold in terms of higher prices. Gold selling unnaturally at $252-$265 an ounce, on the other hand, presents a great buying opportunity, which has led to major physical demand at these levels by traditional buyers in the Middle East, India and throughout Asia. In June, we said we thought gold had finally bottomed at $252 an ounce. If we are correct, long-term buyers should be taking advantage of what could be a golden opportunity.

As discussed in our last issue, the IMF plans to revalue 14-million ounces of gold to finance its share of a debt-relief initiative. The value is about $5.5 billion. The U.S. intends to seek funding from Congress for their share of funds, so its contribution may never materialize. [H: Oh, I don't know. Didn't Billy Clinton just FORGIVE the debts of the 29 most impoverished nations, as owed by those nations to the U.S.? Of this, the U.S. would only have an outgo of $1 billion, as they write off the $5 billion, because they couldn't collect the rest anyway. He was urging other nations to do the same. Well, now, why do you suppose this write-off would be handled in this manner? Ah ha, in politics nothing is coincidental or by chance. There is a REALLY BIG problem here, people, and the Elite don't know how else to do this amazing manipulation that allows for survival.] As you can see, the IMF revalues its gold but expects members to fund the giveaway. Instead of selling gold, they revalued it and then assessed the $5.5 billion to membership, which is just another tax of the taxpayer, or another scam. We hear all these platitudes about the tragedy it will be if we miss this opportunity to further aid the indebted poor. Having spent years in Africa, we can assure you that any debt relief we execute will descend into a bottomless pit, and the whole cycle begins anew. While the IMF is demanding more taxpayer funds, they have abruptly changed the rules on international lending. It is fine to change the rules, but they should have given fair warning to lenders. Remember, the IMF created the lending problems in the first place by bailing out everyone with taxpayers' hard-earned money.

[END OF QUOTING]

I realize that this is getting too lengthy to really hold the interest of the ordinary reader but our readers are NOT ORDINARY. However, we can save the next for tomorrow morning and still, perhaps, get it to the States in time for the next issue of CONTACT. I have noted that, if we make these writings too long, there is a notable loss of focus.

I have no wish to bore anyone with that root of all evil, love of gold and money—but, the reclamation of a basic economy based on value is the first thing that must be accomplished, if you are to turn about your spiraling-out-of-control world. You MUST have knowledge about these commodities, which control your lives and styles of living.

Thank you and good evening.

Salu
dharma

PHOENIX UNDEAD— THE MONTAUK PROJECT AND CAMP HERO TODAY

Part Three

In this five-part series, John Quinn—who runs Newshawk, a genuine, insightful, Internet, e-mail-based news service—provides us with an amazing update on the situation at Montauk today. NewsHawk can be reached by e-mail at <newshawk1@luckynumber.com>

By John A. Quinn, NewsHawk Inc., 9/15/99

©1999, John A. Quinn/NewsHawk Inc. All rights reserved. No reproduction without permission.

PART THREE—WHO'S RUNNING THE SHOW

BELIEF SYSTEMS—ILLUSION OF CHOICE

The readers' interest and intelligence—as evidenced by their willingness to look beyond the nearly worthless disinformational slop and tripe doled out by the major news and information media on almost every subject of any importance whatsoever—is greatly appreciated. At this point in time, the owners and operators of the major news organizations, to a very large degree, are thoroughly connected to the “powers-that-be” behind the scenes of our society; they are part of the overarching, “mind-controlling” structure now in place, and many of the employees of such organizations are, themselves, “mind controlled” for the most part, and avoid or ignore stories and information which wouldn't further the aims of the “controllers”; employees are controlled in their thinking through the threat of job/income loss, if nothing else. The mass-media corporations support and further the aims and practices of our covert government—disseminating disinformation, which aids the cover-ups of some of the most grievous wrongs committed against us by our (secret) government.

By controlling the general information which is made public, the plan to (further) manipulate the consciousness and awareness of humanity is already in progress—in fact, well under way.

The real story is definitely not on CBS or anywhere else like that!

It has crossed my mind more than a few times lately that—with the astonishing array of mind-, mood-, thought-, body-, and environment- (as in HAARP) altering technologies at the disposal of the covert government and its New World Order/Big Brother/1984 objectives—it would be extremely easy, and undoubtedly quite tempting, for these “devotees of evil” to attempt to manipulate much of the world's population, in accordance with the “religious” beliefs of a good percentage of humanity, into believing that the entire life-supporting framework on Earth is crumbling (which to some extent it may well be, due to rapacious and devastating environmental policies and agendas set by the covert government), and/or that we are under attack from some thoroughly evil, possibly cannibalistic aliens, hell-bent on enslaving, raping, pillaging and, in general, destroying humanity and maybe our planet as well. (Funny how that's exactly what the covert government is doing!!)

There are innumerable adherents worldwide to the plethora of “apocalyptic” false religions, fostered and propagated by the malignant, secret, cultic “brotherhoods” underlying so much of the world's genuine power structure. Among these false religions, I would include at least the institutionalized and popularized versions of most of the world's primary organized religions. The concepts, precepts and beliefs instilled in the followers of these religions, create within them fertile ground for both general social control, more overt forms of manipulation and blind obedience to “authority”, in addition to creating a fundamental psychological framework or mindset within great numbers of human beings which greatly increases their susceptibility to the more brutal, intensive and destructive types of advanced mind-control programming we find being implemented in such projects as MK-ULTRA, Phoenix and, of course, Montauk.

What's further distressing is that even a social “movement”, such as what's known as the “New Age” philosophy, which has some undeniably positive aspects—including a sensitivity and openness to the fundamental connection within each of us to all life and to higher realms of understanding, wisdom and awareness, as well as an enhanced sense of respect for and desire to coexist with all facets of Nature on this planet—can be “infiltrated”, subverted and manipulated by some of the many tentacles of the beast that is the worldwide, covert control-system, or government.

I believe that more than a few fundamental, “New Age” tenets and theories—such as an impending pole-shift, dimensional shift, or other galactic or planetary realignments of a potentially massive, even catastrophic nature, including the “end-of-time” scenario, as per the Mayan Calendar and other schools of esoteric knowledge—could be getting played upon through the implementation of some very subversive social manipulation, by some very devious people and agencies, using any and all available means of influencing and shaping human consciousness (including certain highly-advanced technologies like those EM/RF systems perfected in the Montauk Project, and now HAARP).

It would be pretty easy to make it seem like the poles, magnetic fields and everything else are shifting, if the ionosphere is being whipped into a veritable frenzy with HAARP's EM/RF transmissions, which deeply impact weather, mind, seismic activity and just about everything else! And HAARP is just one of the ways in which various aspects of our "reality" can be manipulated and our perceptions thus "controlled".

Byron Weeks has put it as well as I ever could, and I reprint below some of his thoughts on this topic:

"With what we know of electronic warfare, I am sure that it has occurred to many of you that we have the potential for one-heck-of-a millennial celebration!

"We have harnessed the Tesla Effect and are able to roil the magma at the core of the earth enough to create tectonic plate disruption, sufficient to produce earthquakes and volcanoes. The HAARP Project has demonstrated the ability to control weather, produce giant storms, cause severe droughts and, quite probably, [affects] the phenomenon known as "El Nino". High-wattage microwaves are capable of melting rocks and leveling small mountains. ELF waves are versatile and have been used successfully in mind control, with a typical reaction being the hallucinated appearance of alien beings. Holographic projections can show realistic movies against the sky and could entertain us with a fake Second Coming of Christ, angels in the sky, trumpets and celestial music. Biological warfare could give a good imitation of the punitive plagues of the last days...

"...Do you suppose any of the above might cause chaos and rioting that would necessitate calling in United Nations troops to keep order? If that wasn't dramatic enough, our government has buddied-up to Russia, in a continued war against the drugged-up and dumbed-down people of 'Amerika'. Along with the anticipation of global governance, the NWO probably has more up its sleeve: such as planned economic collapse, and civil insurrection engendered by the collapse of welfare payments, involving rabid minorities, armed with Chinese weapons and whipped into a finely-tuned state of paranoia, through the application of ELF waves.

"It has always been a little troubling to me to consider that a loving, Eternal Father in Heaven would bring the dreadful punishment of an Apocalypse down upon a sinful world. Could it not be that what the prophets have always told us may have come from God's foreknowledge of Mankind's tendency to self-destruction? Perhaps He thinks it wiser to let us decimate ourselves, since the human experiment has not turned out very well, anyway.

"But we can be very proud that our technology has advanced to the point at which we can self-annihilate in a very short time, whenever the fancy strikes us. Imagine! Our very own Apocalypse! I guess we can show those aliens a thing or two!"—© Byron Weeks

THE FUNDAMENTALS OF CONTROL

The entire philosophical impetus and conceptual basis for what the secret government is trying to accomplish—with what I've called "reality control", implemented on a very widespread basis—is a subject worthy of much study in itself.

Others have done a tremendous amount of excellent research and writing on this topic, which needs not be duplicated—even if I could do so. Rather, it makes sense to quote some pertinent material from different sources, to help portray some of what underlies the Montauk Project and many other mind-control/consciousness-manipulation operations.

Again, Byron Weeks has some excellent writing on one aspect of this; the complete de-spiritualization of human beings. In other words, inculcating the concept that we are nothing more than "meat machines", thoroughly mechanistic, biological systems, whose "consciousness"—in terms of emotion, creativity, or any "higher" awareness whatsoever, not to mention anything remotely spiritual—is nothing more than a synaptic byproduct of the interactions of purely physical components and processes. In other words, we are nothing but a body—a view reinforced by our civilization's officially sanctioned, modern "science" at every conceivable turn.

As Mr. Weeks put it, in The Psychology Behind Mind Control and Psychic Warfare:

"Body identification gives rise to a host of sociological phenomena, the least of which is the mechanistic view that consciousness is a product of the brain and, secondarily, that the mind is centered in the brain. Dr. Jose Delgado was one of the chief proponents of this viewpoint. Delgado was the author of the book Physical Control of the Mind: Toward a Psychocivilized Society. For Delgado, the mind existed only in the brain; to postulate its existence as an independent entity was, to him, sheer nonsense.

"He rejected the concept of free will and proposed that the mind was a functional entity produced by the electrical operations of the brain and, as such, should be manipulated and controlled, in order to control the behavior of the population. This is a view that seems to be shared by proponents of the New World Order. Delgado, since the mid-1970s, was the director of the Spanish neuro-physiological laboratory, Centro Ramon y Cajal. As time went on, his interests shifted from direct stimulation of the brain to the broader area of the biological effects of electromagnetic fields, an area that has been eagerly embraced by the military and political system, as a means to achieve their goal of absolute control of the population.

"There are several psychological schools of thought that have been adopted by government psycho-scientists and the military to justify mind control. All of them relate to the idea of psychic energy as originating in the human psyche, typified by the work of Carl Jung. The energy originating in the human psyche consists of thoughts, feelings, emotions and neuro-physiological stimuli and responses. It consists of a physical component that can be measured and an etheric, hyper-spacial component that can only be measured by specialized equipment."

SCIENTIFIC MANIPULATIONS—FALSE DATA

Weeks goes on to describe, extremely coherently and lucidly, how the public is continually manipulated and our evolution and progress substantially restricted by the suppression, destruction, and/or alteration of significant, important information.

Weeks refers particularly to an alteration of Maxwell's equations, which resulted from Maxwell's extensive research into electromagnetism—alterations which drastically affected the entire course of "mainstream" science and physics forever afterward; notably in the information made available to scientists and physicists of the time, such as Einstein, as well as the subsequent conceptual framework which Einstein arrived at. To cut to the chase, the missing link, which would provide the key to the Unified Field Theory, was deliberately cut out of Maxwell's equations by a rather sinister group of scientists, before Maxwell's work was presented to the scientific community and the world. Of course, his original work and all the implications thereof were, and are now, known to the covert world government, as are the resultant, advanced sciences and applications of this knowledge of very high technology.

This technology is all being implemented in the furtherance of unquestionably evil, abusive, oppressive, brutal and rapacious agendas and goals; with consequences which are destructive to nearly every significant aspect of human beings; destructive to human society and any of its positive, hopeful and constructive goals; and destructive globally, to the fabric of life itself; in part, due to a general state of mind which has no understanding of, respect for, and connection with and to Nature and the Earth, with its multitude of life forms; a state of mind which is the product of our current, dehumanized, mechanistic and massively mind-controlled (through every available means) existence, at the hands of the worldwide covert government and its super-hi-tech arsenal of mind-manipulating technologies.

I found the information below—regarding Maxwell's original equations and the inter-dimensional implications thereof—very interesting and, I feel it is extremely relevant to what is known about the work of Wilhelm Reich, regarding what he called "orgone" energy, some characteristics of which are "electromagnetic" in nature but outside of the commonly understood "EM" frame of reference. The information is also quite relevant to what Preston Nichols has reported on regarding the Montauk Project—both the mind-control and inter-dimensional/time-travel aspects of the Project.

From The Suppression of Vital Data in Physics, by Byron Weeks:

"For thousands of years, many discoveries have been suppressed from the populations of the planet, in order to keep them in bondage. The burning of the libraries of Alexandria is one example of how information can be suppressed. Another example would be the common technique of suppression of scientific information, by alteration of the information itself.

"Perhaps the most blatant and far-reaching alteration of data was the alteration of Maxwell's equations. James Clerk Maxwell was a mathematical genius who lived in the late 19th century. His original work, which is available to covert scientific departments in the government, had the potential to radically alter the entire course of our civilization.

"It is certainly clear to most of you by now that the human population can easily be manipulated by electronic means, using various methods developed through the military-industrial complex. What may not be clear to you is that many of the EM effects can be initiated from outside of what is normally seen as the electromagnetic spectrum. Just as a magnetic field in a wire is at right angles to the current flow, other fields and waveforms exist that are an integral part of the electromagnetic spectrum, yet exist at a certain number of right-angle rotations (orthogonal rotations) away from the electromagnetic-field components we are normally accustomed to. If these hyper-spacial components—which are not subject to the usual electromagnetic constraints of time and space—are generated and manipulated, they can, in turn, generate EM effects that have the ability to influence human biology and consciousness.

"Let's take a brief look at how and by whom the equations of Maxwell were changed, in order to make subsequent, open, scientific development—that would have influenced civilization in a positive way—impossible."—© Byron Weeks

The following section contains crucial information about the massive deception and manipulation of scientific concepts, which so extensively impacts our view of "reality" in this present-day, materialistic culture and is quoted directly from Valdemar Valerian's Matrix III, Volume One, 1992, pp. 310-311:

THE HERTZIAN CONSPIRACY

“In late 1864, James Clerk Maxwell published his epic material on electromagnetic waves. His material dealt not only with electrical and magnetic waves but also the relativistic/ethereal psychoactive component of these waves (representing electromagnetics of the second order and above). The equations also included transformations that enabled the change from inertial frames of reference to non-inertial frames of reference. Maxwell’s original equations were written in Quaternion notation, a complex mathematical system available at that time, before Vector Analysis was introduced by Oliver Heaviside. Today’s generalized equivalent of Quaternions is Tensors.

“In short, Maxwell’s original work gave the necessary information for gravitational propulsion and psychoactive devices. Someone, somewhere, recognized this, for shortly after his death, the mathematician Oliver Heaviside, the chemist Willard Gibbs and the physicist Heinrich Hertz, decided to “edit” or “interpret” Maxwell’s famous equations which were—in the original form—the foundations of electromagnetics and Unified Field Theory (UFT). This “unholy trio”, especially Heaviside, disregarded the Quaternions or Scalar components of Maxwell’s original equations, because they represented potentials and not fields. He thought potentials were akin to “mysticism”, because “everybody knows” that fields contain mass, and mass cannot be created from apparently nothing, which is what potentials are, both literally and mathematically; they are an accumulation, or reservoir, of energy. Furthermore, not only did they throw away the gravitational component with the Quaternion/Scalar, but they also postulated that gravitation and electromagnetism were mutually exclusive, not interdependent. That was the death blow to subsequent efforts by scientists to realize a functioning Unified Field Theory. Because of this one act, electromagnetism was reduced from its original five dimensions to only four: X, Y, Z and time. The element of G was removed.

“Because of this deliberate act, twenty-two other errors exist today in electromagnetic theory. The very concepts of force, mass and charge are ill-defined, and the so-called “static” electrical charge has been discovered by quantum mechanics, not to be static at all, but to move rotationally by virtue of the quantum-mechanical spin. Finally, adding insult to injury, the so-called “imaginary components” of Maxwell’s original equations—as well as the mutilated version of the equations—have also been discarded or ignored. With this last error, the door to hyper-spacial domains was forever closed, for the present mathematics and physics of electromagnetic theory do not allow for hyper-spacial domains (domains outside of three dimensions), superluminal signals (signals that exceed the speed of light or are infinite in speed) and a Unified Field Theory.

“The edited version of Maxwell’s work, which every physicist and engineer has had to contend with, discards electrogravitation and avoids the unification of gravitation and electromagnetics. It also prevents the direct engineering of gravitation, space-time, time-flow rates, free-energy devices and quantum changes—which is viewed by the altered equations that are vector-based as only a statistical change. The Quaternion approach captures the ability to utilize electromagnetics and produce local curvature of space-time. Heaviside wrote a subset of Maxwell’s equations, where this capability is excluded.

“Dr. Henry Monteith has independently discovered that Maxwell’s original Quaternion Theory was a Unified Field Theory. Einstein assumed, because he only had access to the altered equations, that curving space-time could only be achieved by the weak gravitational force due to mass; that the local frame would always be a Lorentz frame, which would mean that all operations would be constrained to “conservation laws of physics”. “In the 1960s, the Hertz (Hz) replaced Cycles-Per-Second. Since then, everyone thinks that all electromagnetic waves are hertzian. Only the upper portion of the spectrum—before Infrared—contains Hertzian waves. ELF and ULF are not [Hertzian]; waves in bio-systems and natural phenomena are not Hertzian in nature.”—© Valdemar Valerian

THE ANCIENT HISTORY OF MONTAUK AND SURROUNDING AREAS

POWER POINTS—TETRAHEDRAL PHYSICS

There are two researchers who have contacted me independently with what I feel is some quite significant information. The work of each of these individuals dovetails and coincides to a great degree with that of the other on some very intriguing points. The information brought forth by each is very significant in relation to the truly ancient history of Montauk and, what’s more, to the real history of the human race on Earth as well.

Dr. Bruce Cornet, of New Jersey, was the first of the two to contact me. Dr. Cornet’s detailed and extensive research relates to the tetrahedral physics developed by Carl Munck, Bruce Cathie and Richard Hoagland (who popularized it) and applies tetrahedral formulas to the Northeastern U.S., in particular, in this case—as it relates to a planetary grid-system and specific power-points. Cornet has accomplished this by means of correlating the tetrahedral data to topographical features, geomagnetic anomalies and known locations of metaphysical/parapsychological phenomena, and he has cross-referenced this data with the esoteric and ancient history of the region, to come up with some most intriguing ideas.

To sum it up, Mr. Cornet has pieced together evidence and information as noted, related this to the photographs of Mars’ Cydonia region, and states that much of the northeastern area of the U.S. had actually been terraformed many millennia ago (obviously, by some technologically-advanced civilization), in what amounts to a replica, or analog, of the Cydonia region of Mars!

Of particular note would be the lower Hudson Valley region of New York State, an area with a very significant history, both recent and not, of a great number of occurrences of paranormal, metaphysical phenomena. Areas of New Jersey and Pennsylvania would be included in this region, and Long Island and Montauk, itself, would figure in this overall scheme of things as researched by Cornet.

This is a good place to mention that for some time I have felt or intuited a “connection” of some kind between the lower Hudson Valley region and Montauk. My feeling is that this connection could be “esoteric” and energy-related, and there could possibly be actual physical connections as well—perhaps tunnels. In fact, I have had this intuition corroborated by a number of people. In terms of hard evidence, I offer this statement, which came my way through Bruce Cornet, from Mr. Bob Tidwell:

“I was assigned to Stewart AFB, near Newburgh (lower Hudson Valley area) in 1969, so I’m familiar with that area. (I was only there for two weeks, and that’s a story in itself. Stewart was used as a staging point for Montauk personnel.)”

Let’s keep in mind, here, that Montauk Air Force Station was officially decommissioned in 1969. Why would the Air Force need a staging area for a base which was closed? In fact, Stewart AFB was also supposedly closed right around this time, as well, though it is well known throughout the area that it, in fact, is not the least bit closed—even today! Stewart AFB seems to have played a rather significant role in some way or other in the widely publicized “Hudson Valley UFO” phenomenon—tens of thousands of sightings of mostly huge, boomerang-shaped craft—throughout much of the middle and late 1980s).

Dr. Cornet wrote:

“By the way, Montauk occurs at the same latitude as Colchis, on the eastern side of the Black Sea. Colchis was important as an early, ancient-Egyptian outpost and was the place where the Golden Fleece of Greek mythology was hidden. The Golden Fleece, according to Temple (1976), is Horus or Hero. Colchis is also where the native saffron and crocus plants are located—the only known source of a chemical that cures gout. Read The Sirius Mystery, by Robert K.G. Temple (<http://www.gotoit.com/titles/sirmysti.htm>).

“Oh, and by the way, my area of specialization in geology was the Newark Supergroup, and one of the basins I concentrated my studies on was the Newark basin of PA, NJ, and NY. It is shaped like a giant Ark or Argo, with Philadelphia as its rudder, Newark near its bow, the Empire State Building at its prow and the Statue of Liberty along its keel. Long Island and Montauk fit into this picture as a forward, submarine extension of this Ark—something like a ramming device.”—© Bruce Cornet

Another researcher, named Michael Lawrence Morton, contacted me with some similar information: to wit, that he had applied the tetrahedral formulas of Munck, Cathie and, to some extent, Hoagland—to the area around Turtle Cove/Camp Hero, using topographical maps—and came up with what were, to him, some very startling correspondences. Within the central area of Montauk Air Force Station, itself, according to the noted formulas, the two main bunkers and radar hill came up as being very major power spots—right on the nose, so to speak!

Granted that these hills were the result of construction by the government and military within (mostly, we think) the 20th century—nevertheless, the data and numbers on these three small hills are so significant that it appears certain that the construction took place at these exact locations precisely because of their “tetrahedral”, planetary-grid significance. What’s more, it appears at least very possible that these exact spots could well have been the locations of the “Pyramids of Montauk”, the existence of which, at one time, anyway, does seem fairly certain.

Dr. Cornet estimated that the date that this large-scale terraforming would have taken place would have been at least 10-12,000 years ago. Interesting to note is that the Montauk Indians are believed to have inhabited what was, until recently, the island of Montauk—for at least 8,000 years, if not longer.

RECENT CHRONOLOGY OF CAMP HERO AND THE PROJECT, “STAR WARS”

There are some signs and testimony that “negative”, malevolent forces were not in control of the power spot and subterranean facilities/laboratories at Montauk Air Force Station, between (approximately) 1993 and mid-1997, although more recently this appears to have changed, once again.

Between 1993 and 1997, the facility was operated by an Air Force contingent, utilizing particle-beam technology in defensive operations concerning Hale-Bopp and the object said to be trailing the comet; perhaps also against “hostile” UFOs.

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

In late February of 1998, a psychic in NYC told me that her reading on Camp Hero indicated to her that the time portal, so to speak, was currently shut down.

Not long after, in a phone conversation with Al Bielek, he told me more-or-less the same thing: that certain groups had closed off the access to the portal (stargate) for those regressive forces which have been responsible for so much of the severe horror and abuse at Montauk—not only abuses against human beings, but abuses of the power-point/inter-dimensional gateway, itself.

According to Bielek, the Montauk Project, per se—which Moon and Nichols have written about and which my report covers—was primarily being operated from the future, and the project was (and still is) in support of the so-called “New World Order” objectives, using a veritable army of 5-10,000,000 intensively-programmed individuals in the U.S. alone. Bielek informed me that these negative agencies have numerous other locations in the U.S. and elsewhere worldwide, some very close to the Montauk base itself; in fact, some within a few miles (one directly north of the village of Montauk, beneath an old Navy submarine base on Fort Pond Bay). So, it’s not as though they’ve packed up and gone home!

Bielek also told me that “positive” (for lack of a better word) Constitutionalist groups within the U.S. Air Force had been instrumental in rousting these creeps, to some extent—NOT that the Air Force is totally unified on this or related issues. It seems that most of the armed services are in a condition of schizophrenia on the whole issue—with some elements supporting the New World Order and some not. Bielek’s information indicates that the Camp Hero underground (as opposed to other underground facilities in and near Montauk) was recently the site of a defensive operation utilizing particle-beam weaponry and other technologies, reportedly directed against malevolent ET intrusions. According to Al Bielek, this Air Force crew deflected the Hale-Bopp comet from a collision course with Earth, and the object “hiding” behind it was then destroyed (however, an escape pod did manage to bail out before destruction). The reason this object was targeted was that the Air Force called in over 130 remote viewers to get a reading on the trailing object and came up with 130+ different readings—indicating to them that the object was being heavily cloaked/screened and, therefore, its intentions had to be considered hostile. Time manipulations have been involved in some of this defensive activity, by Bielek’s accounting, and the fact that the time portal has been shut off does, in fact, have some drawbacks from this perspective.

I subsequently contacted Preston Nichols to get his input on this. For the most part he did, in fact, corroborate Bielek’s information—in fact, much of it came from Nichols. However, he can or will NOT say positively that there were no negative forces anywhere in the extensive Montauk underground during this period of time.

As best he could personally determine, through his active contacts with Air Force agencies recently at Camp Hero, there did not appear to be any EM, mind-control operations going on there at the time, but given the way projects can be hidden within other projects and the way compartmentalization works, secret agendas can be piggybacked onto “legitimate” operations, with no way for anyone involved in the above-board activities to even be aware of it. Nichols pointed out that his most recent investigations indicate that there are EM/RF mind-control transmissions still being picked up in the vicinity—by his estimation, emanating from Block Island, about 15 miles directly east of Montauk Point—but not emanating directly out of Camp Hero.

He confirmed Bielek’s statement that “anti-NWO” Air Force agents raided an underground base about 15 miles west of Montauk, in Sag Harbor, being operated by the Montauk Project’s mind-control crew, in August of 1996 and turned up records on 30,000 programees (New World Order shock troops—mostly recent ones) at that base alone! Apparently, this caused (the Air Force) some consternation; in some respects, there is a serious, secret conflict or even a war underway, between two opposing factions within the (covert?) government.

Apparently, this “Montauk Boys” programming operation in Sag Harbor was operated with the assistance of a Catholic religious order known as the Pallotine group—a monastic order working with the secret government to help train an elite fighting group of children, along the lines of Delta Forces. There will be more on this aspect, later in this report.

MONTAUK—THE PROJECT THAT WOULDN’T DIE

The Montauk Project (especially the EM/RF, mind-control aspect) was reactivated—more like exhumed from the grave—in 1988, and a phase of the project was carried out at Camp Hero until around 1992. There are some indications that security had then become excessively problematical, as the first Montauk Project book by Nichols and Moon had been published, and curiosity seekers and others were becoming far too prevalent and nosy. There are other rumors of conflicts among different groups over the use of the facility and, in 1993, the Montauk Project moved out.

The Project was eventually reorganized at Robbins Air Force Base near Atlanta. However, after a period of time, it seems, Project directors realized that certain aspects of the Project just couldn’t be implemented adequately other than at Camp Hero due, it would seem likely, to the geomagnetic characteristics of Montauk. Additionally, directorship of the Montauk Project appears to have shifted to the Navy at this time, as has occurred with HAARP. A linking of some elements of the Montauk Project to HAARP—previously, often suspected and which may have already existed—has now been proved to be underway at the Camp Hero location.

TROUBLED TIMES AT CAMP HERO

It would seem that there were some sort of contentious or adversarial activities at the Air Force Station beginning in late 1997. In mid-February 1998, in the immediate vicinity of Camp Hero State Park/Montauk Air Force Station, the following conditions were observed; consequently, clear proof now exists of a maintained, covert, subterranean facility operating at this location, a facility the very existence of which has been covered up for years—as it is currently by covert, federal, intelligence/military groups, the NY State government and the NY State Parks System, along with other local and regional governments and relevant agencies.

There is an old bunker southeast of the base proper, outside the “restricted area”, which is relatively close to the lighthouse and right on the Atlantic cliffs, with a paved circular area directly in front of it, which was (at one time) an artillery emplacement. (This was the location where Siemens-subsiary Cardion Corporation tested a very high-tech, particle-beam, radar system for at least five months in 1994; all clearly visible from the lighthouse.)

The bunker entrance—adjacent to this circular, concrete area was—recently demolished in an “unauthorized” and “unofficial” fashion, in an obviously substantial endeavor, according to certain witnesses from the Montauk area. A section of the thick concrete was completely broken through, exposing an underground area. This hole was, subsequently, cemented over again by certain authorities.

A contingent of people from Montauk were at this location, checking out the current situation there, after having witnessed the previous conditions just described.

Continuing along the remnants of Old Montauk Highway, west—through the locked “fisherman’s gate”, towards the “fisherman’s (parking) lot”, the first paved road on the right (heading roughly north)—leads to the southeast entrance to Camp Hero/Montauk AFS. About halfway to that entrance, along this road, on the left (west) side, is a large boulder, which had somehow been moved a bit, and clearly visible underneath was a well-maintained concrete well or entrance, with a metal ladder bolted to the side—all in good repair. Despite extensive, drenching rains around this time, when a rock was dropped, there was NO SOUND of it hitting any water. The boulder hiding this entrance was quite large and would require at least a few people to move it.

Further on this road, at the base entrance, the extremely sturdy, locked gate at this entrance was severely impacted—smashed and basically wrecked—although entry with other than a tank would not really be possible. The same thing also happened to the main entrance to Montauk Air Force Station off Highway 27 (Montauk Highway), about 6 months ago, and to at least one other entrance, at the baseball field “leased” (by whom I haven’t ascertained) to East Hampton Township for recreational use by the residents of the small neighborhood right nearby—the old base housing area.

SCHISM WITHIN THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT

Certain of the underground facilities at Montauk AFS, as noted, were used by the Air Force, in what they considered to be legitimate, defensive operations related to Hale-Bopp comet and an object (said to be) following it. Preston Nichols, as noted, was working occasionally with the Air Force during this time on a sort of “consultant” basis. Nichols believes these operations were not in any way a part of the “Montauk Project”.

At this time, as well (1996-1997), Nichols was openly working with an Air Force contingent, which had busted the “Montauk Project” mind-control operations in Sag Harbor, as described above. Apparently, the Air Force was either unaware of the mind-control operations at the WW II Navy base on Fort Pond Bay in Montauk, or else these activities started up (again?) more recently (since 1997).

Nichols has affirmed that he had not been in the Montauk underground since late spring of 1997, when the comet departed our skies. His suspicions—that the current tenants at Camp Hero/Montauk Air Force Station are Navy operatives, connected to the HAARP project—got some solid confirmation from a source who often receives reliable information from connections in certain ultra-top-secret intelligence and military agencies. This source has stated that the Navy/HAARP contingent has, without doubt, taken control of the Montauk underground installations, in a decidedly heavy-handed fashion; i.e., they were definitely not given the keys.

A linking of certain aspects of the Montauk Project with the global capabilities of HAARP, is high up on the agenda right now, as well as using the Montauk (Turtle Cove) power spot to boost other HAARP (Tesla technology) operations and experiments.

DOWN THE HATCH

This would be a good place to pass along some information conveyed to me by Preston Nichols in March 1998. I asked Nichols if he was consciously aware of how one enters the underground facility at Montauk and, if so, whether or not he would tell me. He replied instantly, "Sure, I know. The main checkpoint entrance to the areas of the Montauk underground, which I and Air Force personnel I was working with used, is beneath the 'Montauk Tower' building, right in the middle of Montauk village!"

This was most interesting, because that building has had an unusual history and was the subject of some investigation on my part not long ago. The results of that investigation make up the latter section of Part Four of my report on the Montauk Project. Suffice it to say here that my investigations on this particular building—purportedly at this time, privately-owned "residential condos"—turned up a substantial number of major anomalies, incongruities and obvious indications of outright BS, lies and misrepresentation on the part of numerous government/bureaucratic officials at various regional and local levels, real estate agents, supposed occupants—you name it.

The roughly 9-story building was constructed in the 1920s—a peculiarity in its time and still the tallest building on Long Island's east end (that's not saying much, mind you). After failing to attract many tenants, it was appropriated during WW II by the U.S. Navy, which operated a submarine base with underwater "sub pens" about a mile north of the village on Fort Pond Bay, as well as at Camp Hero, and the "Montauk Tower" became a major command point.

Its history after WW II is notably obscure. I think it's safe to say that the structure was utilized by means of tunnels connecting it to Camp Hero at Montauk Point during the 1950s and 1960s, before the "Montauk Project", per se, got into gear and in certain forerunner projects being operated on Long Island, as well as during the Montauk Project, from roughly 1970-1983. And as we now know, even after its supposed conversion to privately-owned condominium residences, it is still, in fact, part of the secret operations in Montauk, NY.

One thing I asked about continually—when I was posing as a prospective buyer for certain units available (supposedly) for sale—was what was the basement of the building used for; how did one gain access to the basement, and such. Never once did I receive a straightforward, clear response to this line of inquiry from any supposed tenants or realtors. And guess where one gains access to the Montauk underground? Well, of course, not by way of the penthouse apartment, though that "apartment" was unquestionably an Air Force facility, staffed with Air Force personnel, at least up until mid-1997.

Nichols said that one enters an elevator, which goes to the basement; however, this is NOT the main elevator for the six floors of "condos", which has no button for a basement level (I know, because I was in it). After exiting in the basement, one walks to a small room off the main basement in which there is another elevator, which seems to go down quite deep. One exits into a small room with armed guards and is there subject to what Nichols called a retina scan: word is that this does more than just correlate patterns in the iris and such, but actually can scan thought and consciousness, as a way of making an absolutely foolproof identification. From there, one enters into the underground.

Considering the high levels of obvious bullshit surrounding everything about this building and what it's supposed to be, I wasn't too surprised to hear this from Preston Nichols; nevertheless, there it is in black-and-white: eyewitness testimony about how one gains entry to the Montauk underground facilities.

Towards the completion of the "Sky Pebbles" operation with the Air Force, and prior to the U.S. Navy assuming control of the Montauk underground, Preston Nichols entered the underground by means of the entrance beneath the "Tower" building in the middle of the village of Montauk, in the company of an Air Force General. Nichols says this man had orders from the Pentagon, granting him access to the subterranean facility; he and Preston were authorized to snoop around, making sure that by all indications and evidence the operations being run there were the operations which had, in fact, been authorized.

A question arises, however, as to which levels or areas of the underground the General and Nichols were given access to. Furthermore, the way compartmentalization works, certain groups could be involved in certain activities without any knowledge that their operations may be a small part of some much larger project, the overall scope of which they are not even remotely aware. Also, secret agendas can be piggybacked onto "legitimate" operations, with no way for anyone involved in the above-board activities to even be aware of it. Thus, at Montauk, for instance, there could be Air Force people working on something to do with particle-beam technology, with no knowledge that, for example, it's being used against ETs. Again, there may be personnel there who are unaware that their particular activities may, in some way, "plug into" HAARP operations; or if they do know that, they are completely ignorant of what some of the real objectives of HAARP actually are!

WHO'S ON WHOSE SIDE

Of particular interest, as well, in this account is the fact that some cadre within the Air Force dispatched this General to the Montauk underground to check up on what was going on there; in other words, to check up on what some other Air Force faction was doing or had done in the "Sky Pebbles" (Star Wars) particle-beam operations. This would tend to bolster reports of a massive, virtually across-the-board split within the many levels and layers of the federal government—both covert and overt—and certainly within the military and intelligence agencies, into at least two main factions: pro- and anti-New World Order. Undoubtedly, many further subdivisions and splinter factions exist within these two general camps.

NEARBY UNDERGROUND FACILITIES

In late 1996, I took a ride with Preston Nichols northeast of the village of East Hampton, and north of Amagansett, in the Devon, Stony Hill and Springs areas. In the woods west of Albert's Landing and Devon, we found what seemed clearly to be the remains of an old bunker; several are known to have existed in the general area. This particular location seemed as though it had been excavated, cleared and then "landscaped" a bit—perhaps 5 to 10 years previous to our visit.

These bunkers, which date back to before and during WW II, connected underground and underwater to Montauk, via tunnels beneath Gardiner's Bay. Noteworthy, also, is that there is said to have been a Nazi underwater submarine pen near Stony Hill, linked to an underground facility there. (Don't laugh: There is voluminous evidence of a great many instances of a highly peculiar and rather constant Nazi presence and a strong, Pro-Nazi element on Long Island, before, during and after WW II. Peter Moon has covered many facets of this entire, mind-blowing story in the Montauk Project book series co-authored with Preston Nichols, and I refer readers to this, as well as to the sources Moon cites for further details.) As it seems the bunkers and underground facilities were still intact during the 1970s, there is a strong likelihood these bunkers were somehow used in the Project—perhaps as a way to bring kids into the underground for programming. As at Camp Hero, there were recreational facilities quite nearby, often used by youth groups, day camps and boy/girl scouts.

Later on this same trip, while driving through the surrounding woods, Nichols noticed and commented upon the numerous red standpipes protruding from flat cement slabs, all throughout this mostly undeveloped area. These seemed at first glance to be fire hydrants. There are some residences here, but the density is fairly sparse. It seemed a bit unusual to have so many hydrants in this kind of area, so we stopped and checked them out more closely.

It seemed that a good percentage of those numerous standpipes were not, in fact, hydrants, because in most cases there was a smaller, straight pipe with a vented cap adjacent to the larger pipe, which looked like a hydrant. This immediately gives rise to the solid hypothesis that these larger pipes are not for getting water from but are, in fact, for pumping something, such as fuel, into—underground storage tanks, which would need to be vented. Some of these concrete slabs did not have this vent pipe, indicating that they were, in fact, the "real" fire hydrants in the area. The same kind of standpipes with accompanying vent stacks are seen along Old Montauk Highway, directly adjacent to Camp Hero.

Following this train of thought along some very substantial and well-bedded tracks, there can't be too many reasons for numerous (fuel) storage tanks throughout this area; the private residences here use no common fuel tanks or anything like that. It stands to reason that such underground storage tanks are, in fact, for adjacent underground facilities, and the existence of bunkers in the general area, which were once linked to the Fort Pond Bay Navy base and Camp Hero, would lead one to think that this area still has such connections, and there is some kind of currently active underground here.

Nichols also noticed on this trip the existence of triple-phase electrical lines all throughout the area; this would be totally unnecessary in any residential or even light-industry area and would simply never be seen in such areas. Triple-phase power lines are only for heavy industry or other activity in which major amounts of electrical power would be used. This does not fit at all with any of the visible, surface conditions and characteristics of this entire area of eastern Long Island. Shipbuilders or other known industries nearby would not use triple-phase power.

My trip to the area in June and July of 1998 brought to light some other conditions regarding this general vicinity of East Hampton Township, in relation to apparent underground installations, which is discussed further along in the article.

Changing locales a bit, there is some corroborative testimony regarding very substantial underground areas at Brookhaven National Laboratories, related by a building contractor from eastern Long Island. He told reporter Jerry Cimisi, from Dan's Papers on Long Island, that he has, on several occasions, done on-site construction work in the subterranean levels of BNL, and he stated in no uncertain terms that the underground areas at Brookhaven were vast—and that only refers to what he got to see!

END PART 3

Most Importantly: We Are All Connected—ALL!

10/2/99—#2

THE REAL TERROR

Hatonn—This is the title of an article written by Yuriy Kirienko, relating to the “Regular Jewish Lie at the foundation of the Revision of History”.

To call these people who insist on going back to the historical happenings and presenting it as it really was “revisionists” is a typical mode of operation for the bands of those who use cunning and change labels to confuse and misrepresent; they were the REAL revisionists—from truth to fiction—in the first place.

The reason I want to call attention to this information is that you will find the same thing has happened in the United States of America, wherein almost ALL of the government are Jewish, as represent the immediate cabinet and Department heads surrounding same. In addition, despite the fact that it is unconstitutional, there is also in the U.S. the FACT that lawyers and most judges are not supposed to be able to fill these particular governmental and legislative positions, because they bear foreign titles of “nobility”, i.e. “Esquire”, and thus and so.

When we write on that which others have written, it is somehow assumed that we are bigots or anti-something-or-other and yet, how can you not write what is FACT? Worse, if you were caught in the trap of being a citizen in Russia or Soviet countries in the Communist takeover—you have to be interested. I would share this information on the topic, which was forwarded for our perusal.

This is a response to a communication from Franklin Wayne Poley, who wrote to a Mr. Ian Punnett.

[QUOTING:]

Huge public companies are controlled by voting blocks much smaller than 52%. But then we should ask a specialist and expert, Mr. YK, who is always eager to educate the public on such matters. FWP

[END OF QUOTING]

Mr. IP had written:

[QUOTING:]

Mr. Poley: Let me see if I get this straight: The government of the Ukraine was a slim-majority Jewish in 1917. After the Bolshevik Revolution, when religion becomes outlawed, Stalin begins to implement his evil plan of wiping out all of his potential enemies. Stalin kills millions through his Soviet minions, including millions in the Ukraine, in a holocaust of communists killing non-communists or rival communists, regardless of religion. And this is the best you can do is quote an obscure author’s opinion that the blame is at the feet of Jews? Pretty fuzzy. This doesn’t even begin to compare to the clear-cut religious genocide of the Crusades, the New World and the World Wars. And what an apology for Stalin! God bless, P.

[END OF QUOTING]

It is hard to keep these messages straight—as in “order of writings”—since all came together but I’m sure you can see the point.

Yuriy Kirienko wrote:

[QUOTING:]

Franklin:

1. I have to finish what I am doing before distracting myself to anything else. People like Ian Punnett keep saying lies—either knowingly, as Jewish agents, or due to ignorance—to create an aura of false knowledge following the lead of Kelly Bundy from “Married with Children”.

2. At the time when most of the atrocities took place, Stalin had no power. It was during the [sic] Lenin’s lifetime in 1917-1924. At that period Lenin, Trotsky and their Jewish suit had full control of the Party. Later, when Stalin removed the Jews from the positions of leadership in the party, they still remained in large numbers in the positions of power on lower levels that they received after the Revolution under Lenin and Trotsky. They continued to cause damage to Russian people from Stalin’s name and for that reason they created the cult of Stalin.

3. Kassior was that Jew who was responsible for creation of Stalin’s cult on his own initiative in Russia. Jews created a similar cult of Hitler in Germany in the same manner to attribute their bloody deeds to Hitler’s personality and Germany. The design for the Hitler Germany, all top Nazi executives and their financing, came from the same Jewish-American sources that earlier promoted Jewish takeover of Russia.

[H: I am not offering this as factual, although this last statement was a fact and, therefore, you should carefully research any information, ESPECIALLY IF IT MAKES YOU UNCOMFORTABLE. And remember, the topic here is not “Jew”, for that is the term these Khazarian Elite of that “tribe” called themselves after moving within the Judean acceptance of religious attitudes, as opposed to the Christian aspect. They were priorly called (by themselves) the Serpent People, who are an alien tribe, outside that of the 12 Tribes of Israel. This is simply historically-recognized fact, so don’t jump to “hate-mail” mentality here. The point is to find out what history REALLY tells about that which is so important, but no non-Jew is allowed to speak, lest he be labeled anti-Semite or worse. It is good to have some insight from a researcher/historian from the aspect of Russian background. Be gracious and perhaps all can learn something worthy of attention. All are going to have to learn to LIVE TOGETHER IN COMMUNITY AND BROTHERHOOD, OR THIS OLD WORLD IS HEADED FOR A VERY NASTY RIDE, STRAIGHT AHEAD. LET US SEE IF WE CAN DO SOME SORTING OF INFORMATION, WITHOUT BLAME, VINDICTIVENESS OR RANCOR. WE ARE FROM THE TRIBE OF SHEM (SEMITE), SO YOU SEE, THE TERM DOES NOT FIT THE “JEWS” AS EVEN BEING DEFINITIVE, OR MUCH THE LESS, ACCURATE. These Power-Elite Bolsheviks are self-styled and self-proclaimed (but are FALSE) “Jews”.

They do, however, classify themselves further as being Talmudic and Zionists of the Elders. They also only have two classifications for people: 1. Jew; and 2. Gentiles (ALL WHO ARE NOT JEWS, OF ANY NATIONALITY, RACE OR CREED.)

4. The ascent of Hitler to power, as was the coup d’état of Lenin and Trotsky in Russia, was a Jewish deed of installing the Jewish race in power over the Aryan [H: Confound it, this is not “Arian”—this says ARYAN and good grief yes, there is a total difference as from one extreme pole to its opposite.] in their native countries. It was done under the empty and deceptive slogans never meant to be fulfilled. Hitler’s ascent to power was facilitated by all means of the German state that was completely in the hands of Masonry. Hitler’s revolution was bloodless, as now is Clinton’s revolution in America, because Jews control Masonry of both countries and the Masonry was too weak for that in Russia in 1917.

5. A simple count of Jewish heads in the government makes little sense, because they constituted all of the power at the very top, both in Russia and in Germany, not solely because of their numbers. In Central Committees of:

1. Bolsheviks: Jews were 9 out of 12.
2. Menshevik: 11 out of 11.
3. Right Esers: 13 out of 15.
4. Left Esers: 10 out of 12.
5. Committee of Anarchists: 4 out of 5.

From 545 people at the top echelon of power, 447 were Jews; that makes it 82%. Since then, it was established that Lenin himself, Kerensky and several other known individuals were Jewish as well.

6. However, it is not the numbers by themselves but the organization of those numbers is what counts. On that stands the power of Masonry and the Jews in the U.S. and Russia at present.

7. In the Councils of the Russian Soldiers’, Workers’ and Peasants’ deputies, all of the deputies were Jews. None of them was a soldier, a worker, a peasant or a Russian. Every word that [a] Jewish mouth utters is a lie and, as a race, Jews are incapable of saying anything but lies. [H: This is what gets people who blast out into such trouble. This lumps all Jews or “Jewish” people into a classification of “liars” and that is neither fair nor Just. Because Jews are people, does that then mean that ALL PEOPLE ARE LIARS? Well, as a matter of fact I find that ALL are, either through intentional lying or ignorance. The term itself groups all into one pot, and even in a pot of soup, a sweet potato is different from a white potato. They may well all be “Potato” but the dumping is an error and causes incredible hurt and mischief.

Let us consider BANKERS. Almost all bankers of the highest Elite order are Jewish, but not ALL bankers are Jewish. With the term banker, you deal now with a commercial concept involving interest, etc., as established by the Jewish element of society. This does not mean, however, that all bankers are banksters. However, let us understand that this man is responding to the “Jewish Question”, of which burying it will not make it invisible.]

8. It is not that there was no Jewish Holocaust—aside from “cutting off the dead branches”—that Jews did to themselves from the name of others. It was a natural cleansing function of the Jews, accounting for the fact that one-third of the Jews suffer from inborn genetic idiocy, while the remainders are afflicted by scores of other mental diseases and genetic disorders.

[H: WRONG. The “typical” Jew is anything but an idiot with inborn genetic problems. The typical “Jew” is one of the more brilliant of achievers and NOT inborn with genetic problems. This writing, right here, becomes bigoted, and it appears that this very writer is somehow a genetic idiot. These are the attitudes which destroy credibility and I, personally, would not wish to offer anything further from this writer. In fact, I hope

I have made my point, for I find the information both repulsive and inaccurate. With this in mind, I ask that we close this copy and I will further comment, please.]

[END OF QUOTING]

Yes, certainly, I note that we didn't get even half-way through the writing but it is ridiculous to go further. Until those who shout against another clean up themselves, there can be no justice or brotherhood.

Do the Jews need to clean up their act? YES, indeed. BUT, so too do the Christians and, since there is NO SUCH THING AS JUDEO-CHRISTIAN, let's stop the stupidity. You are all ONE THING: HUMAN BEINGS IN A HELL OF A LOT OF TROUBLE. YOU HAD BETTER PUT DOWN YOUR STONES, BECAUSE THE NEXT THING YOU MAY FEEL IS ONE OF THOSE MODERN MISSILES PARADED ABOUT YESTERDAY IN CHINA! You must become a COMMUNITY OF MANKIND, or you are going down, purely and simply put, as best I can.

There is a Christian issue, a Jewish issue, a Black issue, a White issue and certainly a Brown issue—not to mention a God issue, a Christ issue and all religious issues vs. a Satanic issue; and then there is Politically correct and Politically incorrect, and both are issues. The REAL ISSUE IS: Get off this hate-kick, blame-kick, revenge-kick, “better than”-kick and whatever other KICK you have going. And yes, there are characteristics of given groups of people that might even be considered in some instances genetic—but it is CALLED “CULTURAL” AND “TRADITION” as much as anything in a description “pertaining to...”.

This writer in point has a lot of valid information, but it will be put down because of his incredibly limited attitude. A historian who is so unobjective is NOT A TRUE HISTORIAN OR AUTHORITY—HE IS JUST ANOTHER BIGOTED INDIVIDUAL WITH AN OPINION AND AN ATTITUDE IN NEED OF ADJUSTING.

I would suppose, further, that the Jews dislike such as Mr. Kirienko even more than he dislikes the likes of them. Do you never, on Earth, ever get enough of hate, insulting, warring, and other dastardly and foolish attitudes? I further take exception in a later statement that refers to the “Russian Imperial Army” as the best in the world and “could not have been defeated... if...” The best army in the world is one that goes NOT to war, nor needs defeating or defending. Until you outgrow war and warriors, you can't have peace and balance, for you will always have Kosovo and East Timor. When will man outgrow his primitive condition? It is very discouraging.

I do not wish to offend anyone, but is it not possible to realize that you MUST LIVE ON THIS EARTH TOGETHER OR NO ONE WILL LIVE ON THE ORB? You cannot hide in caves, and you cannot longer continue to kill your brother or your planet, for you don't actually have anywhere else to go—DO YOU?

GET YOUR SPIRITUAL “TRUTH” IN ORDER AND YOU MIGHT JUST MAKE IT THROUGH THIS TIME OF TRASHING, BUT IT IS GOING TO HAVE TO BE “TOGETHER”, LIKE IT OR NOT.

There is a song which goes: “Take a look at yourself and you will see your brother differently—PUT YOUR HAND IN THE HAND OF THE MAN—WHO CAN SHOW YOU THE WAY”—AND THAT, FRIENDS, BE GOD, BY WHATEVER NAME YOU MIGHT CALL HIM/HER/IT!

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on this writing; it is most important, for we are all connected—ALL!

Salu and good evening.

dharna

The News Desk

By John Ray

HIDING BEHIND THE FIRST AMENDMENT

By Dennis Byrne, Chicago SUN-TIMES, 9/26/99

As summer slips into autumn, it must be time for the American Library Association's seasonal rite known as Banned Books Week...

...What a crock it is that America is not being overrun by book-burners...you still can easily find the Bible, Little Red Riding Hood and other books that the Chicago-based ALA calls “banned” or “threatened”...Thanks to the ALA's zealotry, many American libraries still allow children access to violent, pornographic and offensive Web sites and other materials.

The ALA apparently doesn't take very seriously Hillary Rodham Clinton's dictum that child-raising takes a village. Or at least, in the ALA's village, there is no shared responsibility for raising children free of disturbing and damaging influences. The ALA labels as censorship any restrictions placed on materials that children “want or need”, arguing that parents alone are responsible for monitoring their children's reading. At the same time, the ALA hypocritically refuses to let parents see their children's borrowing records...

...The ALA's Manual of Public Policy Positions supports the Equal Rights Amendment, nuclear freeze, gay rights, national health insurance and minors' access to sexual resources, in and out of the library. Children clicking on the ALA's Web site can find their way to the ALA's recommended reading list, which includes sexually-explicit advice that many parents find objectionable.

At the same time, it extends neither the same courtesy nor rights to those who disagree with its own interpretations of the First Amendment. Talk radio's Laura Schlessinger, who has campaigned against the ALA's position, finds herself on the nasty end of a campaign to censor her through her advertisers.

It falls short of the kind of positive response from Family Friendly Libraries, a national network of concerned citizens, parents, educators, trustees and library professionals concerned about how public library policies affect children and their families. Based in Fairfax County in northern Virginia, the group is offering a sensible alternative to Banned Books Week with its own Family Friend Books Week. It reminds everyone, especially the ALA, that included in the First Amendment is a guarantee that citizens have the right “to petition the government for redress of grievances”... It also should remind everyone that public libraries are exactly that—public bodies that are run by self-governing citizens...

...Karen Jo Gounaud, Family Friendly Libraries president, is not conducting a war against librarians... Librarians should be assisted in expanding collections to ensure that family-friendly materials are equally represented. (At the same time, Gounaud makes clear, she is not conducting a campaign to rid libraries of materials she does not agree with.)

But she also encourages parents to become involved in what are, after all, their libraries...They should work for parental access to their children's borrowing records, and should be alert to one-sided collection building and displays on controversial issues, such as Gay History month...

[JR: The ALA now seems to be an extension to the OBE (Outcome Based Education) educational system coming to your local school districts.]

MONSANTO PLAN TO CASH IN ON WORLD WATER CRISIS

By Geoffrey Lean, INDEPENDENT—UK, 9/26/99

MONSANTO, the genetically-modified-food giant, drew up plans to make billions of dollars out of the world's water crisis, confidential company documents reveal. The documents, seen by the Independent on Sunday, identify a “vast economic opportunity” for the company in impending global shortages of resources such as water.

They outline a strategy to use “environmental issues” to “deliver strong financial returns” and create “a compelling possible future for Monsanto—financially, strategically and aspirationally”.

The revelation of the strategy—drawn up in connection with recently dropped plans to establish water businesses in India and Mexico—follows the publication 10 days ago of a report on the growing, global environmental crisis by the United Nations Environment Programme.

The GEO 2000 report identifies impending water shortage as the world's greatest environmental problem after global warming. It says that over one-third of the world's people already live in countries suffering “water stress” and that, on present trends, two-thirds will do so by the year 2025...

...The confidential Monsanto document—a “sustainable-development sector strategy” and a “water business plan” use the same statistics and take up the same theme. The business plan adds that two billion people worldwide “still lack reasonable access to safe water” and says that this is likely to rise to 2.5 billion over the next decade.

The document, like much of Monsanto's material on genetically-modified foods, is written in idealistic language. The strategy paper says that one of its aims, as well as strengthening Monsanto, is “to help solve some of the world's major environmental issues and to improve quality of life in the process”...But the documents display a sharp sense of the gains for Monsanto, both now and in the future: “Initial entry into the water business will create US$400m in annual revenues...furthermore, extension of the water platform beyond the safe and healthy water business has the potential to create several billion dollars in annual revenue.”

It adds that there would be “other strategic benefits”, including “reshaping Monsanto's image as a more sustainable and environmentally-positive company”.

It goes on: “Population growth and economic development will apply increasing pressure on natural-resource markets. Those pressures, and the world's desire to prevent the consequences of those pressures if unabated, will create vast economic opportunity.”

Yesterday, Dr. Vandana Shiva, director of the Research Foundation for Science, Technology and Ecology in New Delhi, India, said: “Monsanto is seeking a new business opportunity because of the emerging water crisis. Since water is as central to food production as seed, and without water, life is not possible, Monsanto is now trying to establish its control over it [as] a source of guaranteed profits. Privatization and commodification of water are a threat to the right to life..."

[JR: I hope their purification systems will be better than what we have now. This is a classic example of the Elite's plan to own, control and profit from everything essential to our lives.]

BIOTECH FOOD COMPANIES PLAN DEFENSE

By Brett Chase, Bloomberg News, 9/26/99

Monsanto Inc., Du Pont Co., Novartis AG and other companies that produce genetically-modified foods, are gearing up to defend their products, as safety concerns gain momentum in the United States.

For these companies, which have staked their future on biotechnology, U.S. acceptance is crucial. Health concerns have led Europeans and the Japanese to spurn the technology, which inserts new genes into crops to make them more resistant to pests and weed killers.

The companies hope to stave off similar sentiments in the United States, where much of the food supply already contains genetically-modified ingredients. Half of the U.S. soybean acres and 38 percent of corn acres were planted with genetically-altered seeds this year. About 60 percent of packaged foods contain soy, a source of oil and protein, while corn, a source of starch, oil and sweeteners, is found in about 13 percent of foods.

"With all the static in the air, we need to make our own statement," said Ed Shonsey, President and CEO of Novartis Seeds Inc., a U.S. subsidiary of the Swiss drug and agriculture giant. We have to reassure (the public) and be activists somewhat ourselves.

About 40 religious, farm-owner, environmental and other activist groups in the United States, are participating in Genetic Engineering Action Network USA, which held a two-day retreat outside San Francisco in August. The groups plan a campaign questioning the environmental and health effects of gene-altered foods. They also intend to lobby Congress and state legislatures for stricter regulations on testing and labeling.

Separately, Greenpeace—which has crusaded against genetically-engineered food in Europe—started a U.S. campaign this year, is asking 50 food companies whether ingredients in their products have been genetically modified.

Novartis' Gerber unit and H.J. Heinz Co. said this year that they will not use the ingredients in their baby-food products.

Du Pont spokeswoman Kathy Forte acknowledged that U.S. environmental groups are becoming more vocal in their opposition.

"The intensity has increased in the United States," she said. "It's not at the level of Europe, but we can't assume it won't be."

[JR: Let's keep watch and make ourselves heard here. If the Europeans and the Japanese won't buy it, why should we Americans?]

AMERICAN RIVERS URGES RELOCATION CHOICE FOR FLOOD VICTIMS

E-Wire, Lycos, 09/25/99

In the wake of Hurricane Floyd, American Rivers asked Congress to increase the percentage [of] disaster relief funding usable for voluntary relocation of flooded homes and businesses to 25 percent. Current law allows the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to spend 15 percent of disaster relief on relocation. "We need to give flood victims a real choice between moving from harm's way or rebuilding in the floodplain," said Scott Faber, director of floodplain programs for American Rivers.

Flood losses have been exacerbated by inappropriate floodplain development, Faber said. As floodplain development has increased, annual national flood losses have jumped to $4 billion. "Too many people are building too close to the river's edge, driving up the cost of floods," Faber said. "If we allow people to relocate these flooded homes now, the taxpayers won't have to pay more disaster relief in the future."

Following the Great Flood of 1993, Congress amended disaster-relief law to set aside 15 percent of disaster relief for relocation of flooded homes, allowing almost 10,000 homes and businesses to be moved to higher ground. Since 1993, another 10,000 homes in other states have been relocated by FEMA. In July, Congress directed the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to relocate frequently flooded homes before disaster strikes.

[JR: "American HERITAGE Rivers" is the latest federal land acquisition and confiscation program for U. S. rivers and their millions of acres of flood plains. These rivers and lands are being declared "Preserves for Future Generations" and then turned over to the UN, as most of our American Historical Sites and National Parks have been.]

MYSTERY IN SPACE: GIANT FLASH OF ENERGY

By Seth Borenstein, Herald Washington Bureau, 9/25/99

WASHINGTON—Astronomers worldwide are tracking down a mysterious and unusual burst of energy that exploded like a flashbulb in the sky last week, lingered several hours and disappeared.

The sudden flash turned a star too dim to see—except with a good telescope—into one almost visible to the naked eye. But the outburst really wowed astronomers in invisible wavelengths—X-ray, gamma-ray and radio—where it flashed more than 120 times stronger than normal, to become briefly the brightest thing in the sky.

Messages flashed through cyberspace as astronomers buzzed about something very peculiar going on. "It's become a kind of global detective story," said American University astronomer Richard Berendzen.

On Sept. 15, as a storm approached in Australia, Rod Stubbings, an amateur astronomer, snatched a glance at a star that is known to flicker a bit in the southern constellation Sagittarius.

"Wow! This is some outburst," Stubbings recalled via e-mail. "I closed up the observatory, ran inside and reported the outburst."

Then the worldwide hunt started. Researchers scoured the spectrum from long-range radio waves to very short-wave X-rays and gamma-rays. Astronomers at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology diverted a NASA X-ray telescope to take a look.

"This one came screaming out of nowhere at us," said MIT researcher Donald Smith.

Smith enlisted the help of radio astronomers at observatories across the United States.

"Something really unusual is going on," said astronomer Bob Hjellming at the National Radio Astronomy Observatory in New Mexico. "It's gotten odder and odder as we've gotten pieces of data on it."

Gamma-ray astronomers started an independent investigation...

...Scientists agree the phenomenon was real, but now comes the hard part: What was it?

The mysterious flash came from somewhere between 1,300 and 3,300 light-years away in the Milky Way, Hjellming determined...

...At first, different astronomers, looking at the outburst in their particular field of expertise, couldn't get the whole picture, Hjellming said. But a theory started to jell via the Internet.

Experts' best guess—and they say that's all it is—is that a super-compact object, either a black hole or neutron star, suddenly swallowed much of a neighboring star and belched out enormous high-energy jets...

[JR: It is amazing that our best scientific minds can only theorize that it must be a belch from an overstuffed black hole. Everyone knows that even LIGHT CANNOT ESCAPE, that is why they call it a BLACK HOLE!]

SHERIFF'S WEB SITE DENOUNCES ABORTION, GAYS, ACLU

The Boston Globe, 9/26/99

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—A Florida sheriff is using his official government Web site to denounce abortion and attack gays, feminists, atheists and the American Civil Liberties Union.

After quoting the preamble to the U.S. Constitution, Lee County Sheriff John McDougall takes a stab at what he calls "the diabolical forces of moral corruption": Planned Parenthood, politicians, liberal judges, cyber-porn, music videos and "United Nations one-world-government radicals," among others.

"To our disgrace as a nation, we have caved in to the wishes of the depraved," he writes.

McDougall, 57, said he posted the letter as a crime prevention document about two weeks ago.

"I wanted to get the message out there," McDougall told the Fort Myers News-Press for Saturday's editions. "As a nation, we're dissolving."

The Florida Attorney General's office wouldn't comment on the legality of McDougall's use of government property to express personal views.

Lee County Commissioner John Manning said McDougall is entitled to his views, "but when it comes to taxpayers paying for the Web site, there has to be a question...of the appropriateness of that activity."

McDougall isn't new to controversy.

When rapper Ice-T released his 1992 song, "Cop Killer", McDougall tried to have him charged with sedition.

When an abortion provider asked McDougall for protection from protesters, McDougall said he would protect the doctor's free speech, as he would protect "a baby killer like yourself".

Howard Simon, executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union of Florida, called the sheriff's latest letter distressing and said McDougall needs to brush up on the protections afforded by U.S. law.

[JR: It is encouraging to hear about a Sheriff standing up for his convictions enough to take on the responsibility for righting society's wrongs.]

BIG BROTHER GOES PRIVATE

Privacy Concerns, 9/25/99

Surveillance devices now in the hands of government and corporate officials include: heat-sensing imaging devices that can tell if a house is occupied, voice amplifiers, light-amplifying/night-vision devices and techniques for reading mail without breaking the seal...

...The Olivetti Corporation is now marketing its "active badge" to employers—a tiny device employees would affix to their clothes, emitting an infrared pulse every 15 seconds. The pulse is picked up by sensors throughout the workplace and processed through a central computer, allowing managers to ascertain the precise whereabouts of any employee at any time.

On any given day more than 4,000 phone calls are legally tapped by authorities. No one can be sure, but illegal telephone eavesdropping by corporations and other private bodies may exceed that number by a factor of 10.

The National Security Agency, tape records every international phone call placed in to or out of the United States. Technically, monitoring domestic phone calls is against the law, but the NSA monitors all microwave transmissions, which is legal—and a huge number of long-distance phone calls are now beamed by microwave transmission.

There is no law protecting the privacy of non-voice transmissions. Fax-interception equipment retails for $20,000 or less, well within the budgets of most corporations...

...Within the workplace, e-mail is completely devoid of legal safeguards. Your messages are company property.

In April 1995, Great Britain opened the world's first DNA database. By the end of the century, 5 million Brits are supposed to have their genetic codes in the Home-Office master computer. Under the current law, only convicted criminals get a DNA database listing...

...A recent survey by Macworld magazine found that 22 percent of CEOs and other top managers acknowledged snooping around in their employees' e-mail, voice mail and computer files...

...Electronic workplace surveillance has become so commonplace that many networking software packages have worker-monitoring features—such as keystroke monitoring—built in...

...The United States has the world's most extensive system of computer databases of personal information on citizens. The information is collected for purposes ranging from monitoring criminals, to credit reporting, to demographic research for product marketers and everything in between. The types of personal information collected on millions of Americans and stored in databases includes the basics, like names and addresses, as well as more intimate information, such as medical records, psychological profiles, drinking habits and political affiliations.

Some of the largest collectors of such data are credit-reporting agencies—private bureaus that advise prospective lenders on customers' creditworthiness. Even under the Fair Credit Reporting Act of 1970—ostensibly designed to protect the privacy of people who want to borrow money (a group which includes almost every American these days)—individuals have no right or means to find out where their files are kept unless their credit is denied, nor does the subject of a credit report have any right to see the actual report, even though it contains extremely personal financial information. The law, however, places no real limit on who else can gain access to credit files...

...The State of California keeps records on more people in its criminal information system than there are people in California.

In 1989, it was revealed that the FBI ran a "library surveillance program", attempting to ascertain the political bent of library users by monitoring the books they check out. When some librarians blew the whistle on the program, the FBI investigated them.

In 1990, the Internal Revenue Service seized people's personal property in 125% more cases than a decade earlier, even though delinquent tax cases were up just 32%. Under the inaptly named "Taxpayer Bill of Rights", the IRS is allowed to seize all but $1,650 worth of your personal property. There is only one body that handles appeals in such cases—the IRS itself.

As mandatory drug-testing grips the world of corporate and government employment, methods to fool the standard urine-test detection method have become well known. To combat this trend, some companies have turned to the more reliable method of hair testing. Hair maintains a permanent and unalterable record of all drugs an individual ingests...

...A person's history of drug indulgence is therefore as easy to read as his or her hair is long. But head hair is far from the only source for that information. Body hair and fingernails also do the trick...

...With such methods for identifying people as blood typing, semen analysis and fingerprinting apparently not reliable enough, law-enforcement agencies are turning to analysis of DNA, an individual's genetic code, to make identifications.

Between 1978 and 1984, the FBI and other federal agencies tripled the amount of private mail they opened and read or inspected for "national security" reasons. Between 1980 and 1984 the government doubled its requests for electronic surveillance. Federal agencies must apply to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court before placing a subject under electronic surveillance, but the court had never denied a request as of the end of the Reagan administration.

The U.S. Customs Service plans a computer system that would classify incoming airline passengers as "high risk" or "low risk" based on information supplied by airlines...

[JR: Americans are supposed to be free people, but Big Brother is more than just watching us, he makes us prisoners through electronic chains.]

NYC SEARCHES ABUSER MEDICAL RECORDS

Privacy Concerns, 9/25/99

NEW YORK (AP)—City officials plan to start searching welfare recipients' medical records for evidence of drug use in an effort to funnel abusers into treatment programs, The New York Times reported today.

For such abusers, the treatment program would be a mandatory condition for receiving public assistance.

Officials say checks are needed, because the city's current drug-screening system is finding unrealistically low substance-abuse rates.

But Paul N. Samuels, director of the nonprofit advocacy group, Legal Action Center, said the search would be an invasion of privacy, "that will upset just about everybody".

"Violating confidentiality is an ambush that will drive many people away from treatment," he said.

Jason A. Turner, commissioner of the city's Human Resources Administration, said information would be collected from computerized Medicaid insurance bills submitted for applicants who have voluntarily sought substance-abuse treatment.

"These are our own records," Turner said. "We are not interfering with the doctor-patient relationship. We're helping poor people."

No date has been set to begin the review.

With few exceptions, a federal law passed in the 1970s bars the disclosure of information on patients in drug and alcohol treatment programs without the patient's narrowly-defined written consent. That consent does not allow re-disclosure for any other purpose.

Christopher H. Peacock, spokesman for the Federal Health Care Financing Administration, which oversees Medicaid records, said he had not received official notification of the plan.

"But there are confidentiality provisions in New York's Medicaid plan, and we expect them to be followed," he said.

[JR: Data provided by the insurer will be the method by which government and agencies will seek, find and help you to comply.]

CIA SETS UP VENTURE-CAPITAL FIRM TO INVEST IN INTERNET-AGE TECHNOLOGIES

By Tom Raum, The Boston Globe, 9/29/99

WASHINGTON (AP)—The CIA, not wanting to be left behind in the Internet age or be outsmarted by tech-savvy adversaries, is teaming up with Silicon Valley entrepreneurs to invest in companies developing computer technologies that could assist in intelligence gathering.

Foregoing its usual clandestine ways, the agency has set up its own venture-capital firm with money appropriated by Congress with offices in Washington and Palo Alto, Calif. It will invest in promising new start-up/hi-tech companies.

The CIA picked a fanciful name for the new company: In-Q-It. The "In" stands for intelligence. The "It" stands for information technology. And the Q? That's the code name of the James Bond character who comes up with all the gadgets that the fictional British spy uses.

"We do have a sense of humor," Central Intelligence Agency spokesman Bill Harlow said today, confirming the existence of the new company.

Harlow said the venture-capital company "is clearly tied to us, but they make a big point of being independent."

The venture, first reported by The Washington Post and The New York Times in today's editions, was actually set up last February as a nonprofit organization.

But it is just now getting organized, with its own board of directors, according to the new Chief Executive Officer, Gilman Louie.

Louie said in an interview that the company would be small, with about 20 to 25 employees, and is being started with $28 million appropriated by Congress last year as part of the classified budget for the agency.

Both Louie and the CIA said that the venture-capital company would only work on unclassified projects.

Mainly, In-Q-It will invest in some high-tech companies and form joint ventures with other ones, where the companies are working on promising technological projects that could benefit the CIA.

This includes ways of helping the CIA to use the Internet more effectively and securely.

It also will try to find promising technologies that will help the CIA better use the information it already possesses in a variety of forms, from paper to computer files.

He cited the May 7 bombing of the Chinese Embassy in Yugoslavia, a target picked by the CIA as "the manifestation of the worst result that could happen if you don't have all your information lined up".

Louie, 39, founded his own electronic-game company, MicroProse Inc., that was later bought by Hasbro. At Hasbro, Louie has been an executive with the toy company's online business group.

He said he has no experience in espionage "and I want to keep it that way".

The company's board of directors includes John Seely Brown, Director of the Xerox Corporation's Palo Alto Research Center; Norm Augustine, Chairman of Lockheed Martin; William Perry, the former Defense Secretary; and Jeong Kim of Lucent.

[JR: The CIA has always denied covertly owning or financing various corporate businesses such as U.S. AIR, et al. Now, according to the "Spooks in suits", they openly announce they are going to provide venture capital in Silicon Valley with taxpayers' dollars for corporate espionage to control the future of public electronics. This allows the government to confiscate all potential "National Security" and espionage systems in the early stages of development.]

CELL TOWER PROPOSED IN CHURCH CROSS

The Boston Globe, 09/26/99

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)— A financially struggling church is considering a deal with Ma Bell: Allow AT&T to build a 130-foot-tall cross with a cellular-phone tower concealed inside, and First Christian Church will get $18,000 a year.

"This could be a godsend, from our perspective," said the Rev. Tim Mabbott, the church pastor.

The money would represent almost 10 percent of the church's annual budget and help put the church back on solid footing.

But for the church's neighbors, the proposed cross is a troubling sign of things to come.

"We do not have anything against the church," said Michael Cassidy, who lives directly behind First Christian. "The church has been wonderful to this neighborhood. We believe in the church, but we don't believe in the encroachment of AT&T in a residential neighborhood."

AT&T usually places cell-phone equipment on existing buildings, but about 15 percent of the time that isn't possible, said Alexa E. Graf, a company spokeswoman.

The company initially approached Alexandria's First Baptist Church, she said, but the Baptists were not interested in hiding the equipment in their steeple.

"We are debating what we are going to do," Ms. Graf said. "If the community opposition stays as strong as it is right now, we are going to have to rethink our other options."

That is not what Mabbott wants to hear.

Three years ago, First Christian was on the verge of closing its doors. The church was running an annual deficit and the aging congregation considered selling its land to a neighboring retirement home.

"This is a very valuable piece of property, and there was some talk of selling it to raise money and moving out to an area with more young children and families," Mabbott said. "But we decided to give it another try."

For longtime church-member Betty Pratt, the debate over the cell tower boils down to common sense.

"All the people who came up here the other day and were upset about this had cell phones," Ms. Pratt said. "I don't know where they think those signals are going to bounce off of. They have got to bounce off something. You know the tower has to go someplace and we might as well get the benefit of it."

[JR: It may provide a healthy financial environment but an otherwise unhealthy environment for the congregation.]

TOWER COLLISIONS KILLING MILLIONS OF BIRDS

E-Wire, Lycos, 09/25/99

Bad weather, radio signals and lights on communications towers are spelling death for millions of birds across the United States. Bird scientists gathering at Cornell University last month for the annual American Ornithologists' Union meeting looked ahead to fall migration time with dread.

Although birds have been hitting structures in North America for at least 100 years, there are now more tall towers than ever before—especially for cellular phone and digital television transmission—with even more on the drawing boards. "The more towers, the more dead birds," said Bill Evans, a consulting ornithologist for the Cornell Laboratory of Ornithology who helped organize the first scientific session of its kind, "Avian Mortality at Communications Towers".

"Many of these species face degraded habitats at both ends of their migration flights and the thousands of towers are a new threat along the way," said Evans, citing estimates of bird collisions with manmade objects at four million per year. Albert Manville, a biologist from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS) Office of Migratory Bird Management in Arlington, Virginia said that television stations converting to the digital format in the United States plan to erect more than 1,000 "megatowers", each at least 1,000 feet tall. The FWS biologist said that friends of birds can expect more catastrophes such as the January 22, 1998 incident, when an estimated 10,000 Lapland Longspurs died one foggy, snowy night in western Kansas. The television tower that killed the neotropical migrants was "only" 420 feet high.

[JR: In addition to the potential danger of frequencies emitting from these towers that may affect people, these megatowers, in almost every metropolitan neighborhood, are also obstructions to the flight patterns of migratory birds. Will the owners of these towers be arrested and fined for killing endangered species—like a certain farmer—when he accidentally ran his tractor over a "protected" field mouse?]

CARDINAL AND ACTIVISTS TAKE SIDES OVER VIRGIN MARY WITH ELEPHANT DUNG

By Beth J. Harpaz, The Boston Globe, 09/26/99

NEW YORK (AP)—Cardinal John O'Connor on Sunday asked Catholics to join him in condemning a painting of the Virgin Mary embellished with a clump of elephant dung, while civil rights activists defended the Brooklyn Museum of Art's right to show the piece.

Mayor Rudolph Giuliani, meanwhile, reiterated his pledge to cut all $7 million of city funding to the museum, one-third of its budget, unless the painting is pulled from an exhibit scheduled to open Friday.

"I'm saddened by what appears to be an attack not only on our blessed mother...but one must ask if it is not an attack on religion, itself, and in a special way on the Catholic Church," said O'Connor in his weekly sermon at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

O'Connor did not name the mayor, but said he was "grateful to city officials", adding: "It is their right, if not their duty, to express themselves on such matters"...

...But New York Civil Liberties Union Director Norman Siegel said the Mayor's threat to cut the funding "violates the First Amendment. His assertion that New York City can withdraw all funds for the museum, based on a single exhibition that he finds offensive, illustrates a serious misunderstanding of the Constitution."

Siegel, who discussed the controversy Sunday as a speaker at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Harlem, later said by phone that government funding may not legally be withdrawn because public officials dislike particular works.

"You don't have an obligation to provide funding to the arts but once you do, you can't de-fund a museum solely because public officials are displeased with the expression of the art," he said...

...Giuliani, meanwhile, defended his funding threat at a news conference at a new riverfront park in the West Village.

"There is nothing in the First Amendment that supports horrible and disgusting projects," Giuliani said. "If you're going to use taxpayers' dollars, you have to be sensitive to the feelings of the public."

...The painting, "The Holy Virgin Mary," depicts Mary with dark skin, African features and flowing robes. It features a shellacked clump of elephant dung and two dozen cutouts of buttocks from pornographic magazines.

The artist, Chris Ofili, 30, a Black Catholic who was born in England and lives there, has said he used the pornographic images because classical images of Mary are often sexually charged.

He also told Salon magazine in February: "Elephant dung in itself is quite a beautiful object"...

...Ofili began using elephant dung during a six-week stay in Zimbabwe. He is now famous for using the material, which he gets from the London Zoo, in virtually all his artwork. In 1998, he won Britain's prestigious Turner Prize, a $33,000 award for artists under 50.

[JR: His right to demean and offend as an interpretation of his freedom of expression sounds like a bunch of his "beautiful" elephant DUNG. We are now called Judeo-Christians, but check out his non-Christian supporters.]

INVASIVE MITES THREATEN U.S. HONEYBEES, BEEKEEPERS

By Pauline Arrillaga, The Boston Globe, 9/25/99

SALOME, Ariz. (AP)—...In a dirt lot alongside a field of alfalfa seed plants, hundreds of pine containers are stacked on pallets. Inside, 800 colonies of honeybees are resting after a hard season in the fields. They pollinated almonds and cherries in California, cantaloupe and watermelons in Arizona.

Back in the McMullen Valley, 10,000 acres of farmland 100 miles northwest of Phoenix, they're gearing up for another round of work come fall. More melons await, along with cotton and alfalfa.

Clad in jeans and a T-shirt labeled Bee World Inc., Ken Orletsky inspects his lot, prying open boxes and pulling out screens laden with thousands of bees. There are four colonies per pallet, each colony swarming with as many as 40,000 bees...

...Over the past two decades, 90 percent of the nation's wild honeybees have been wiped out by two mites that arrived in the United States in the 1980s, transported by insect and man. Managed colonies owned by beekeepers such as Orletsky have dwindled from 5 million to 2.4 million, while the number of U.S. beekeepers has fallen from 212,000 to about 125,000.

The culprits are the tracheal and varroa mites. First detected in Great Britain in 1921, the tracheal mite clogs a bee's breathing tube. The varroa, native to Asia, feeds on the blood of developing bees, which emerge from the hive with deformed wings or missing legs.

Together, these alien creatures are destroying U.S.

honeybees, themselves a non-native species first brought to America in the 1500s by Catholic orders that used them for winemaking and wax.

Today, honeybees account for much of the food in the nation's supermarkets. Besides producing an average 210-million pounds of honey each year, they pollinate just about all the fruit, nut and seed crops: everything from apples, cherries, cantaloupes, watermelons, blueberries and strawberries to almonds, cashews and alfalfa seed, which feeds cattle and poultry.

"Many people do not realize that without the honeybees, their diet would be reduced to a few grain crops, potatoes and rice and a nut crop or two," says Eric Erickson, director of the US Department of Agriculture's Carl Hayden Bee Research Center in Tucson.

In the late 1980s, when the tracheal mite migrated to Arizona, Orletsky began treating his colonies with pesticides. He's never stopped, and spends at least $12,000 annually on mite medication.

Orletsky strives to maintain 4,000 colonies, but each year he'll lose up to 50 percent of his bees. He estimates that treating for mites and rebuilding colonies have driven his costs up 100 percent, and the burden is beginning to trickle down to the growers.

In California, where 1 million bees are needed annually to pollinate the state's almond crop, hives are renting for $40 each compared with $18 in the 1980s, says Chico almond grower Dan Cummings...

...Joseph Nicolosi, who grows cantaloupes, pickles and zucchini squash in Swedesboro, N.J., placed an ad on the Internet looking for 80 colonies after mites destroyed the colonies he usually rents.

"We can't work without them," Nicolosi says.

Another problem is that the decimation of European honeybees has coincided with the arrival of Africanized bees in the United States. These intruders are resistant to the deadly mites. So as the bee population recovers, it is a hybrid mix that tends to be more Africanized than European, researchers say.

Africanized bees pollinate just as well as European bees, but beekeepers don't want them because they're more aggressive.

Researchers are trying to develop additional techniques to fight the mites, including the use of essential oils and breeding mite-resistant bees. An African beetle that first appeared in the United States last year is threatening bees along the East Coast.

"Between man-assisted methods and wind currents, these creatures can go virtually anywhere," Erickson says. "People traveling from west-to-east in automobiles, trains and planes—all those conveniences provide an opportunity for creatures to hitch a ride."

[JR: We have been subjected to the proliferation of pesticide poisons for killing insects that are killing man as well. Now massive amounts of foreign fruits, vegetables and other non-quarantined imports are transporting various "mites", that will destroy our honeybee population, that is so vital to the pollination of our crops, a main staple of our food chain. At the same time, we are also depleting the wonderful honey nectar from our good-health diet.]

NEW ZEALAND TIDAL-BOMB EXPERIMENT COULD HAVE MATCHED ATOM BOMB

Yahoo News, 9/25/99

WELLINGTON, September 25 (AFP)—Top-secret wartime experiments were conducted off the New Zealand coast to perfect a tidal-wave bomb believed to be potentially as effective as the atom bomb, a report said Saturday citing declassified files.

Auckland University professor Thomas Leech set off a series of underwater explosions triggering mini-tidal waves at Whangaparaoa, just north of Auckland, in 1944 and 1945, the New Zealand Herald reported.

His work was considered so significant that United States defense chiefs said if the project had been completed before the end of the war, it could have played a role as effective as that of the atom bomb.

Details of the tsunami bomb, known as Project Seal, are contained in 53-year-old documents released by the New Zealand Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade. Papers stamped "top secret" show the United States and British military were eager for Seal to be developed in the post-war years too...

... "Dr. Compton is impressed with Professor Leech's deductions on the Seal project and is prepared to recommend to the Joint Chiefs of Staff that all technical data from the test—relevant to the Seal project—should be made available to the New Zealand Government for further study by Professor Leech," said a July 1946 letter from Washington to Wellington.

Leech ... was the university's Dean of Engineering from 1940 until 1950. News of his being awarded a CBE in 1947 for research on a weapon, led to speculation in newspapers around the world about what was being developed...

... A former colleague of Leech, Neil Kirton, told the New Zealand Herald that the experiments involved laying a pattern of explosives underwater to create a tsunami.

Small-scale explosions were carried out in the Pacific and off Whangaparaoa, which at the time was controlled by the army.

It is unclear what happened to Project Seal once the final report was forwarded to Wellington Defence Headquarters late in the 1940s.

The bomb was never tested on a full scale, and Kirton doubts the public would have noticed the trials.

"Whether [or not] it could ever be resurrected... Under some circumstances, I think it could be devastating," he said.

[JR: This "Project Seal" for creating what seems to be natural disasters is so obsolete today. HAARP is now the weather weapon of future wars.]

PRION DISEASES SPREADING THROUGH GRAINS?

The Idaho Observer, 9-24-99

SANDPOINT, ID—Though mad cow disease may have spread to English cattle that ate sheep brains, the infectious crystalline agent associated with the disorder, called a prion, did not likely originate there. A new theory on such Transmissible Spongiform Encephalopathies (TSEs) provides a sobering likelihood that the sheep likely became initially contaminated by eating fungal-infected grains.

Indeed, a growing body of scientific evidence shows that yeast, or fungi, may carry the resilient, infectious prion responsible for Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease (CJD) in humans, scrapie in sheep, mad cow disease in cows and several other transmissible brain disorders affecting other species of wild animals.

This new prion theory, according to Harvard graduate and internationally-known public-health authority Dr. Leonard G. Horowitz and his colleague, principle investigator Dr. Joseph E. Barber, forecasts that these deadly TSEs foreshadow a biological apocalypse that will make "AIDS seem like an appetizer at a cataclysmic picnic".

According to their new 511-page text, Healing Codes for the Biological Apocalypse (Tetrahedron Press. 1999), Dr. Barber, a naturopathic physician, was intuitively guided to research prions while treating patients suffering from fungal infections.

Accessing to the scientific literature, he happened upon a report in Cell by researchers at the Howard Hughes Medical Institute at the University of Chicago. They reported that a prion-like protein found in yeast, a fungus, was able to transmit apoptosis (programmed cell death), through crystal growth, without depending on DNA or RNA.

This, they reported, occurred "much like" what was observed in the brains of mad cow diseased cattle and humans with CJD. Though the article reassured consumers not to worry about prions in bread and beer, Dr. Susan Lindquist, one of the Institute's team leaders, said that these particles relayed genetic inheritance through a mechanism associated with several devastating neuro-degenerative diseases, including Alzheimer's.

Upon further research by Dr. Horowitz, the authors concluded that consumers of yeast, or fungal-infected grains, may not be free of prion risks. Prions, the authors wrote, "are able to pass toxicity and inheritable messages from one generation of fungus to the next." And since these crystalline structures effectively resist chemical control, and even extreme heat, they can be passed through even processed foods—as was the case in the British outbreak of CJD in beefeaters. These diseases, "mad cow", scrapie, and CJD are equally, then, if not more likely, transmitted by the prion crystal pathogens identified in contaminated fungi and their primary host—grains.

Lending support for this theory, a widely-publicized case of CJD in Britain occurred in a young woman, Claire Tomkins, who was a longtime, steadfast vegetarian.

Compounding their evidence is a complaint filed with the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) by the Consumers Union (CU). The 1997 petition alerted officials regarding the likelihood that prion diseases were being transmitted by unregulated swine wastes and pork products. The CU reported that at least two epidemiologic studies in the scientific literature had addressed the issue of dietary risk factors for CJD.

Both found links to pork. Other species at risk for prion infections, according to the CU, included chickens and mink as well as other animals that may eat swine-waste contaminants that commonly spill into rivers and streams or spread through fertilizers to open fields, thus infecting grains and grazing animals.

According to U.S. Government health officials, CJD is virtually nonexistent in North America, though wild animals are increasingly developing TSEs. According to University of Pittsburgh researchers, however, 5.5 percent of Alzheimer's patients may have been misdiagnosed. A similar CJD study at Yale found more than twice that amount. Even at that small percentage rate, the authors concluded, with more than 2,000,000 Alzheimer's cases in the United States today, there is likely a hidden CJD epidemic of approximately 200,000 cases.

"Unless health officials from around the world heed this warning, scrutinize these facts, and take preventive precautions," Dr. Horowitz concluded, populations may fall victim to a biological apocalypse unprecedented in Earth's history.

[JR: This grain of truth certainly gives you food for thought.]

New Gaia Products

Order by Mail		1999 Order Form		Order by Phone
New Gaia Products P.O. Box 27710 Las Vegas, NV 89126				1 (800) NEW-GAIA (639-4242) 1 (702) 263-5181 FAX
(Please Print)
Name		Date
Street Address
City/Town		State/Prov.		Zip Code
Daytime Phone No.
Credit Card No. (Visa, Master Card or Discover)			Expiration Date
Signature For Credit Card Orders

* SHIPPING & HANDLING RATES:

FOR: CA, WA, OR, AZ, MT, UT, ID, CO, NM, WY, NV		FOR THE REST OF CONTINENTAL USA
$ 0-100	$6.00	$ 0-100	$8.00
$ 101-200	$7.00	$ 101-200	$9.00
$ 201-300	$8.00	$ 201-300	$10.00
$ 301-400	$9.00	$ 301-400	$11.00
$ 401-500	$10.00	$ 401-500	$12.00
$ 501-600	$11.00	$ 501-600	$13.00

ALASKA & HAWAII PLEASE CALL FOR SHIPPING RATES

NOTE:

-  For UPS 2nd day to Rural Alaska, please call for rates.
-  For Priority Mail to any locations, please call for rates.
-  All Foreign orders, please contact our office in writing for specific rates as rates vary greatly.
-  When ordering cases of product call for shipping rates.

FOR ALL BREAD MACHINES, BREAD MIXES, FLOUR ORDERS, PROGRAM STARTING PACKAGES AND MAINTENANCE PACKAGES, CALL FOR SHIPPING COSTS.

Item	PRICE PER UNIT	Qty.	Amount	Item	PRICE PER UNIT	Qty.	Amount
GAIANDRIANA LIQUID 16 oz.	$ 20.00			OXYSOL Trace minerals & Colloidal Silver 2 oz.	$ 8.00
	$ 40.00				$ 45.00
AQUAGAIA (Mitochondria) LIQUID 16 oz.	$ 20.00				$ 75.00
	$ 40.00			GAIACLEANSE KIT 14-DAY PARASITE PROGRAM	$ 48.00
GAIALYTE 2 liters	$ 8.50			Individual components sold separately—call for prices
	$ 15.00			GULF WAR SYNDROME "Starter Kit"	$260.00
KOMBUCHA TEA BREEZE 1 liter	$ 3.50			GAIASORB NEUTRA-BOND 2 oz.	$ 6.00
	$ 6.00			NICOTINE__ CAFFEINE__ ALCOHOL__	each
KOMBUCHA TEA VINEGAR 16 oz.	$ 6.00			SUCROSE__ STARCH__
CARBAGAIA (FIBRINO-CARTILAGE) 8 oz.	$ 8.50			GAIASORB NEUTRA-BOND TRAVEL PACK	$ 15.00
MELLOREAM BEVERAGE POWDER 3.25 lb	$ 15.00			*HITACHI (HB101) BREAD MACHINE	No Longer Available
"3 IN 1" GRAPE SEED EXTRACT 60 CAPSULES	$ 18.00			(FACTORY BLEMISHED/REFURBISHED)
"4 IN 1" WILD YAM EXTRACT 60 CAPSULES	$ 22.00			*GAIASPELT (Whole Wheat & Spelt) BREAD MIX	$ 3.50
A-C-E Anti-Oxidant Formula 180 TABLETS	$ 24.95
CHLORELLA 300 TABLETS/500mg. EA.	$ 21.00			* GAIASPELT FLOUR 2 lbs. @ $1.25/lb.	$ 2.50
ECHINACEA GOLD PLUS 90 TABLETS	$ 24.50				$ 5.00
GAIATRIM — 30 Day Supply	$ 35.00				$ 10.00
GINKGO BILOBA (24% Extract) 180 TABLETS	$ 24.95			* GAIASPELT Kernels 4 lbs. @ $1.25/lb.	$ 5.00
OLIVE LEAF 60 TABLETS	$ 24.00				$ 12.50
OLIVE LEAF EXTRACT 35 PG. BOOKLET	$ 2.75			* PROGRAM STARTING PACKAGE	$130.00
	$ 6.00			1 Bottle Gaiandriana (1 qt.)
RARE EARTH CAPSULES 60 CAPSULES	$ 6.00			1 Bottle AquaGaia (1 qt.)
POSLIN CAPSULES 60 CAPSULES	$ 6.00			2 Bottles GaiaLyte (2 liters each)
ALOE PLUS 77 60 CAPSULES/450mg. EA.	$ 16.95			4 Pkgs. Spelt Bread Mix
				5 Audio-cassettes
ALOE FREEZE DRIED CAPS 90 CAPSULES	$30.00			* MAINTENANCE PACKAGE	$ 80.00
NONI 60 CAPSULES	$22.00			1 Bottle Gaiandriana (1 qt.)
MEGA-MULTI VITAMINS 30 CAPSULES	$11.00			2 Bottles GaiaLyte (2 liters each)
ALOE JUICE Whole Leaf Aloe Vera Concentrate (10X STRENGTH) 1 liter	$18.00			4 Pkgs. Spelt Bread Mix
SUPER OXY (CHERRY-BERRY) (CRANBERRY-APPLE) 1 quart	$18.00			* MICROWATER™ ELECTROLYSIS ALKALINE/ACIDIC WATER SYSTEM	$1100.00
BODY BOOSTER 32 oz.	$20.00			VORTEX KIT	$ 8.00
LIQUID LIFE 32 oz.	$22.00			ADZUKI BEANS 50-LB BAG	$ 50.00
GAIAGLO LOTION 4 oz.	$20.00			RED LENTILS 50-LB BAG	No Longer Available
HORSETAIL TINCTURE 2 oz.	$ 8.00
GAIA VITE Colloidal Multi-Vitamin & Mineral 2 oz.	$10.00
GAIA COL Colloidal Silver with trace minerals & Trace Gold suspended in a distilled water fluid 16 oz.	$56.00
	$96.00
GAIA GOLD Colloidal Gold 2 oz.	$20.00
	$112.00
	$192.00
GAIA DHEA Colloidal Dehydroepiandrosterone 2 oz.	$20.00
GAIA CU-29 Colloidal Copper 2 oz.	$10.00
GAIA TI-22 Colloidal Titanium 2 oz.	$20.00
GAIALIFE COLLOIDAL MINERALS 121++ 2 oz.	$10.00

PLEASE USE THE SHIPPING RATE CHART (located on the top of this order form) WHEN CALCULATING SHIPPING FOR ALL New Gaia Products.

 FOR PROGRAM STARTING PACKAGES and MAINTENANCE PACKAGES, BREAD PRODUCTS, MICROWATER™ ELECTROLYSIS, BEANS AND LENTILS PLEASE CALL FOR SHIPPING RATES.

PLEASE ALLOW 3 TO 6 WEEKS FOR DELIVERY.

Please make all checks and money orders payable to:

New Gaia Products
P.O. Box 27710
Las Vegas, NV 89126

TOTAL
SHIPPING & HANDLING
SUB TOTAL
SALES TAX	Nevada Residents only: add 7%
TOTAL ENCLOSED

PHOENIX JOURNALS LIST

THESE WORKS ARE A SERIES CALLED THE Phoenix Journals AND HAVE BEEN WRITTEN TO ASSIST MAN TO BECOME AWARE OF LONG-STANDING DECEPTIONS AND OTHER MATTERS CRITICAL TO HIS SURVIVAL AS A SPECIES AT THIS TIME. SINGLE Journals ARE $6.00; ANY 4 Journals ARE $5.50 EACH; 10 OR MORE Journals ARE $5.00 EACH (Shipping extra—see right.)

1. SIPAPU ODYSSEY
2. AND THEY CALLED HIS NAME IMMANUEL....
3. SPACE-GATE, THE VEIL REMOVED
4. SPIRAL TO ECONOMIC DISASTER
5. FROM HERE TO ARMAGEDDON
7. THE RAINBOW MASTERS
9. SATAN'S DRUMMERS
10. PRIVACY IN A FISHBOWL
11. CRY OF THE PHOENIX
21. CREATION, THE SACRED UNIVERSE
38. THE DARK CHARADE
39. THE TRILLION DOLLAR LIE...VOL. I
40. THE TRILLION DOLLAR LIE...VOL. II
41. THE DESTRUCTION OF A PLANET—ZIONISM IS RACISM
42. UNHOLY ALLIANCE
43. TANGLED WEBS VOL. I
44. TANGLED WEBS VOL. II
45. TANGLED WEBS VOL. III
46. TANGLED WEBS VOL. IV
48. TANGLED WEBS VOL. V
49. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VI
50. THE DIVINE PLAN VOL. I
51. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VII
52. TANGLED WEBS VOL. VIII
53. TANGLED WEBS VOL. IX
54. THE FUNNEL'S NECK
55. MARCHING TO ZION
56. SEX AND THE LOTTERY
57. GOD, TOO, HAS A PLAN 2000—DIVINE PLAN VOL. II
58. FROM THE FRYING PAN INTO THE PIT OF FIRE
59. "REALITY" ALSO HAS A DRUM-BEAT!
60. AS THE BLOSSOM OPENS
61. PUPPY-DOG TALES
62. CHAPARRAL SERENDIPITY
63. THE BEST OF TIMES
64. TO ALL MY CHILDREN
65. THE LAST GREAT PLAGUE
66. ULTIMATE PSYCHOPOLITICS
67. THE BEAST AT WORK
68. ECSTASY TO AGONY
69. TATTERED PAGES
70. NO THORNLESS ROSES
71. COALESCENCE
72. CANDLELIGHT
73. RELATIVE CONNECTIONS VOL. I
74. MYSTERIES OF RADIANCE UNFOLDED VOL. II
75. TRUTH AND CONSEQUENCES VOL. III
76. SORTING THE PIECES VOL. IV
77. PLAYERS IN THE GAME
78. IRON TRAP AROUND AMERICA
79. MARCHING TO ZOG
80. TRUTH FROM THE ZOG BOG
81. RUSSIAN ROULETTE
82. RETIREMENT RETREATS
83. POLITICAL PSYCHOS
84. CHANGING PERSPECTIVES
85. SHOCK THERAPY
86. MISSING THE LIFEBOAT??
87. IN GOD'S NAME AWAKEN!
88. THE ADVANCED DEMOLITION LEGION
89. FOCUS OF DEMONS
90. TAKING OFF THE BLINDFOLD
91. FOOTSTEPS INTO TRUTH
92. WALK A CROOKED ROAD WITH THE CROOKS
93. CRIMINAL POLITBUROS AND OTHER PLAGUES
94. WINGING IT....
95. HEAVE-UP (Phase One)
96. HEAVE-HO (Phase Two)
97. HEAVE 'EM OUT (Phase Three)
98. ASCENSION OR NEVER-EVER LAND?
99. USURPERS OF FREEDOM IN CONSPIRACY
100. BUTTERFLIES, MIND CONTROL—THE RAZOR'S EDGE
101. THE BREATHING DEAD AND CEMENT CHILDREN
102. SACRED WISDOM
103. CONFRONT THE NOW CREATE THE FUTURE
104. FIRST STEPS
105. AMERICA IN PERIL—AN UNDERSTATEMENT!
107. RING AROUND THE ROSIE...!
130. TRACKING DOWN THE KILLER
"AND OTHER FORMS OF MURDER" (The Health Book)
222. BIRTHING THE PHOENIX VOL. 1;
223. BIRTHING THE PHOENIX VOL. 2;
224. BIRTHING THE PHOENIX VOL. 3;
225. BIRTHING THE PHOENIX VOL. 4
227. RISE OF ANTICHRIST VOL. 1;
228. RISE OF ANTICHRIST VOL. 2;
229. RISE OF ANTICHRIST VOL. 3;
230. RISE OF ANTICHRIST VOL. 4

FOR INFORMATION ABOUT JOURNALS, BOOKS, ETC., MENTIONED IN THIS NEWSPAPER, PLEASE INQUIRE:

PHOENIX SOURCE DISTRIBUTORS, Inc.
P.O. Box 27353
Las Vegas, Nevada 89126

(or call)
1-800-800-5565
(Mastercard, VISA, Discover)

Phoenix Source Distributors SHIPPING CHARGES:

USA (except Alaska & Hawaii)
UPS-$3.75 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Bookrate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Priority-$3.40 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l

ALASKA & HAWAII
Bookrate-$2.50 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
Priority-$3.40 1st title, $1.00 ea add'l
UPS 2nd day-$9.00 1st title, $1 ea add'l

CANADA & MEXICO
Surface-$3.00 1st title, $1.50 ea add'l
Airbook-$4.50 1st title, $2.00 ea add'l

FOREIGN
Surface-$3.00 1st title, $1.50 ea add'l
Airbook-$8.00 per title estimate

(Please allow 3-4 weeks for delivery on all book orders)

PLEASE NOTE:

CONTACT and Phoenix Source Distributors are NOT the same! Checks sent for JOURNALS or book orders should NOT be made out to CONTACT—and vice versa.

CONTACT: THE PHOENIX EDUCATOR

is published by
CONTACT, Inc.
P.O. Box 27800
Las Vegas, NV 89126
Phone: (800) 800-5565

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Subscription orders may be placed by mail to the above address or by phone to 1-800-800-5565. Subscribers: Expiration date appears on upper left side of mailing label.

Quantity Subscriptions: U.S. For Foreign subscriptions call or write for shipping charges.

SINGLE SUBSCRIPTIONS QUANTITY SUBSCRIPTIONS

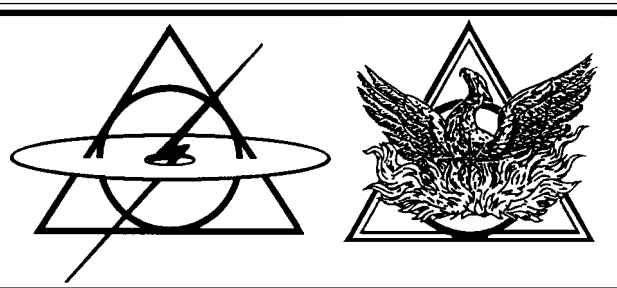

Qty OF ISSUES	U.S.	U.S. w/ENVELOPE	CAN/	FOREIGN	Qty OF ISSUES	10 COPIES	25 COPIES	50 COPIES	100 COPIES
13 ISSUES	$30	$40	$40	$45	13 ISSUES	$95	$125	$160	$275
26 ISSUES	$60	$80	$80	$90	26 ISSUES	$190	$250	$320	$550
52 ISSUES	$110	$150	$150	$170	52 ISSUES	$380	$500	$640	$1,100

BACK ISSUE RATES

Miscellaneous copies of individual back issues are $3.00 each copy

Shipping is included in the price for U.S. orders

Foreign please call or write for additional shipping charges

Editorial Policy

Opinions of the CONTACT contributors are their own and do not necessarily reflect those of the CONTACT staff or management.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 661-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.