“Real Thing” Begins— This Is Not A Drill

10/17/99—#1

STILL WANT TO ARGUE, WATCHERS?

WHEN YOU DO IT UNTO THE LEAST OF MINE,
YOU HAVE DONE IT UNTO ME!

Hatomm—Indeed, my precious lambs: CONSIDER IT A WARNING SHOT OVER THE BOW! IT IS A GROSS ERROR TO BITE GOD’S HOSTS WHO HAVE NURTURED YOU! WHAT DOES IT REQUIRE—TO GET YOUR ATTENTION—LITTLE ONES?

Oh, indeed, it is too late to change your course. You have been given EVERY opportunity to allow for changes of intent, allowing the work to be carefully and orderly brought to harvest and an opportunity to make course corrections—especially “in the places of the LION”. The earthquake in the Mojave Desert of California will have such an impact on those massive Garlock and San Andreas FAULT LINES as to stagger your imagination.

I suggest—as you move my team out onto the street, good “WATCHERS”, UNDER THE FORCE OF LAW—that you consider carefully what you have accomplished.

I also suggest to you moving the personal property that you put the food destined for the dump under a shelter of some kind, so that you have access, if necessary. You can “sift” out any “artifacts” as necessary.

I also suggest you drag out the water bottles/barrels, etc., from the back basement area; also set them aside in a shady spot because the water will be interrupted, in all probability.

I gave warning that things were going to heat up and that protection would be removed from the area, as the tricksters changed their lizard colors and took up active war and betrayed, yea, deliberately continued damaging goodness. They were blessed but have now brought the consequences upon selves.

To you who are packing and moving out—don’t concern over anything in “fear”—just keep right on “moving it out”, even if it is only to get things onto the “south lot” of “Ekkers” house. You had a good “ride” yesterday, and EVEN YOUR OWN GEOLOGISTS PRONOUNCE EVEN LARGER AFTERSHOCKS!

And yes, that which was added unto MY DWELLING (indeed, it has always been acknowledged openly, since 1987, that THAT PLACE WAS MINE) SHALL BE REMOVED, AND THE PROPERTY SHALL BE RETURNED TO ITS BARREN STATE.

Leave the birds in their familiar surroundings for as long as you can, so that they can be kept warm and safe. Clear it with Millers, if necessary—but those aviaries are OUTSIDE that which will be locked—and YOU will, please, keep your “counter-watchers” on guard.

I warned you ALL that mighty quakes would be happening—but so, too, have all the geologists around the globe and now you KNOW, don’t you, that the warnings were worthy of attention. We are, indeed, relieved to no longer concern about damage from rain or shine upon the property in point OF RECENT FOCUS.

And to you who are going to wish the mountains would fall on you—probably NOT. It is usually so much more impressive to reap your rewards in conscious experiences. And no, I doubt any of you will “shift-shape into green serpents” as depicted—but observers might well consider that red ones are interesting. YOU WHO

MISLEAD GOD'S CHILDREN AND PREACH THE LIE SHALL FALL BY THE LIE.

Now, to my people who will hear: In those areas of California, I would most certainly move at least the trinkets you feel might fall and be broken and it would hurt your hearts—to a secure position on the floor, or let it go, for a better way is being prepared, and we only need a bit more of YOUR time. There is a LOT TO BE SAID for the freedom of responsibility of any property which can be left to those who just “do good business”, while destroying that into which others have invested their very life-blood. BLOOD CAN NO LONGER BE WASHED FROM THE HANDS, HEARTS AND SOULS OF THOSE PARASITES WHO FEED UPON THE PAIN AND MISERY OF A BROTHER! YOU HAVE JOINED YOUR SERPENT BRETHREN—YE SHALL BE GIVEN TO WISH FOR CAVES IN WHICH TO SECURE YOUR SPINELESS BEINGS. AND YES, IT IS PURELY “PHYSICS” AND KNOWN PROBABILITIES OF WHICH YOU, YOURSELVES, HAVE PROJECTED. IT IS SAD YOU DO NOT HEED YOUR OWN ADVICE, SAVE IN PIDDLING, SELF-CENTERED WAYS.

And to you who choose to present “me” as something-or-another of your own choosing: I suggest you stop it, because “YOU OF THE RAINBOW LIES” are shouting against the DARKNESS OF YOUR OWN BEINGS.

WELCOME TO THE REAL WORLD!

AH, INDEED, YOU PREACH: “GOD WOULD NOT DO, OR SAY...!” RIGHT! GOD DOES NOT DESTROY—GOD CREATES AND SHELTERS THAT WHICH IS “HIS” AND THOSE WHICH ARE “IN HIS BOSOM”—GO LOOK IT UP!

SO BE IT AND SELAH. Count the DAYS and the WAYS.

And you who perceive the impact on my people to be “negative”, STOP IT, for these are the most POSITIVE actions yet presented FOR MY PEOPLE.

We shall finish our work here in Southeast Asia—as to the upstart—and all who have served in goodly intent shall have coverage (insurance?) against those things to come. Is “someone” or some “thing” going to precipitate Earth upheavals? A lot of them, yes, but it is the time of cleansing, and these things are but to WITNESS that which IS.

SIGNS AND SYMBOLS

And so, the miracles of signs and symbols; may they rest heavily upon you until you see and hear! WORLD: YOU ARE IN A STUPOR, WHILE THE GAMESMEN PLAY THEIR TRICKS AND PLY YOUR MINDS WITH HALF-TRUTHS, UNTRUTHS AND SENSATIONAL CRAP. DOES EVERYONE HEAR ME? YOU TURN FROM GOD AND YOU TURN UNTO HIS ADVERSARY, AND THAT SIMPLY IS THE “WAY IT IS”.

I, personally, as an individual expression in form, am quite happy to be free of the misinformers, misdirected and “watchers”. They call themselves “Light Watchers”? Indeed, they “watch” those of THE LIGHT to see where next they can place their bloody swords—and, well, I guess intent is known and recognized as accepted.

To you, such as Ranos: You have turned AGAIN unto the Dark Side, as they have sucked you into the maze more totally than that which came before, while ye tarried in Los Angeles. Therefore, I shall make no further effort to salvage you from your chosen course. And to you who think someone has the name “Aton” within their own given set of alphabet—might well consider this: It is not the name that counts—IT IS THE IDENTIFICATION—PERIOD! And, it is only in “English” that your name spells anything at all. So be it and SALU!

Now, I repeat to my people: KEEP YOUR CHILDREN AND SELVES IN SECURITY ON “HALLOWEEN”. SATAN IS PLAYING HIS GAMES, AND IT IS TIME YOU PAY ATTENTION! THESE ARE “NOT” COINCIDENCES AND, AS IS TYPICAL, CANDY BARS FOR THE CHILDREN ARE NOT WORTHY OF THEIR LIVES! GET SERIOUS ABOUT THIS JOURNEY AND STOP THE NONSENSE. YOU PARENTS HAD BETTER GET PARANOID—JUST IN CASE!

And—for you working around the clock to save our precious few remaining things from the eviction crews—rejoice, for you will have time to remove that which is in dispute, and then leave it to the vipers doing “good business”. We needed to clear the lot and the house, and the project is working in perfection, so BE AT PEACE.

I suggest that the attorney supply you with copies of the outstanding deeds on that property in Tehachapi—to show to any lock-out or sheriff service, and you will find that WE actually own, already, a great portion of that property! Enough to now win a case in a court for damages, pain and suffering—and now it will go against not just the people but against that TITLE COMPANY INVOLVED. There is NO CLEAR TITLE TO THAT PROPERTY AND, AT WORST CIRCUMSTANCES, IT ENTANGLES FURTHER DEALINGS, FOR ANY BUYER WHO WOULD BE, INDEED, FOOLISH ENOUGH TO INVOLVE SELVES FOR ANY PRICE, OR EVEN “GIVE-AWAY”. But to you “movers”—just keep moving it out—because the alternative actions will only be taken next from STRENGTH and ABUNDANCE.

I would remind those such as the Rainbow Children, especially Rick, that that house is “strange”, indeed. Can he possibly not recall smoke alarms, adversarial blasts against the building, itself, and other interesting things, experienced by himself, PERSONALLY, so that there is NO MISTAKING THE ACTIONS? I think Millers have made a very bad choice of assumptions that some of those “evil spirits” will keep their “new” property protected. And NO, INDEED, no person of our friends or relations will so much as touch a thing.

I do suggest that one of you remove the “chip” from the whirlpool tub that WE REPLACED, for it is ours—the tub never worked, so it will not distract from the building itself. No ENEMY, self-declared, shall reap REWARD from dastardly and mean deeds. Yes, indeed, we leave the property as we found it, as to things which “improved” THE TEMPORARY STRUCTURES.

Then, I further suggest that along the property lines you set up orderly “no trespass” signs, so that our property on the south lot is secured. Thank you. All the things placed on the adjacent lot just mentioned can then be MOVED AT CONVENIENCE. This same holds true for the north lot, adjacent to the house property.

Then, to you who have denied, shifted, wheeled-and-dealed and claimed vision of ships and visions: PAY ATTENTION, ALL OF YOU—TO MY PLACES—FOR NOTHING YOU HAVE SEEN WILL MERIT THAT EQUAL TO WHAT YOU ARE GOING TO SEE! You may well find your properties to be lakefront tracts. And no, I DID NOT SAY “Oceanfront...”—I said LAKE FRONT (OR BACK), WHICHEVER YOU PREFER. You won't note the “lake effect” yet, but there could be an interesting shift of property, if you don't clean up your act. Oh, and by the way, to you who claim air-CRAFT possibilities? I suggest you keep your eye to the sky, so to speak. For, I repeat: “YOU WHO HAVE DONE IT TO

THE LEAST OF MINE HAVE DONE IT UNTO ME.” The ROAD runs in both directions, and if you have problems with that message: ASK CROW!

IS THE END OF THE WORLD AT HAND? PERISH THE THOUGHT AND WISHFUL THINKING—THIS IS ONLY THE BEGINNING.

And that old “Institute”? What of that “old Institute”? WE HAVE NEW AND STABLE BIRD TRIBES, AND THAT WHICH THE USURPERS HAVE DESTROYED IS DEAD—THEY DESTROYED IT. OUR FRIENDS WILL SUFFER NOTHING OF LOSS, ONLY ABUNDANCE—BUT THE DESTROYERS HAVE INSURED THEIR LOSS, AS IN “LOSS”, NOT INSURANCE FOR GAIN.

I ask also that you of CONTACT make another trek to the sheriff, and take them a copy of the last SPECTRUM with the green snake, for I want them “watching”. THAT is THE cult, not we of the community. The Rainbow Kids have now adequately proven our non-association, and I think green snakes will interest the men of the force.

Don't do ANYTHING; just tell them that you insist that they attend our property and keep an eye on the “little rays”. Also report the intentions of the property on Adam Drive, and demand that they run tight surveillance. Trouble at the farm was one thing—this now moves into town and even gives a Satanic crew a bad name.

I also want the writing which asserts that Norey is “Aton” to be presented to them, with an explanation that “Aton” is simply an Egyptian term—but they now have set that crown on their own heads. Laughable? Yes! It is just as SILLY as we want it to be! An English word or alphabet has NO BEARING ON ANYTHING OF ARAMAIC OR EVEN GREEK—AND MUCH THE LESS EGYPTIAN.

Rick Martin-Cortright said that we “don't want me [him] for an enemy...”? Wrong! I enjoy having him as a documented enemy; it cuts down considerably on my work. And prophecy? READ REVELATIONS AND SEE IF ANYTHING WE COULD EVER DREAM UP COULD MATCH THE PROMISES OF OLD NOSTRADAMUS, CAYCE OR JOHN THE REVELATOR.

And, oh yes, that garbage turned out by the “Revelator” author whom SPECTRUM is presenting? Facts are: That is to Spirituality and Truth what [Dr.] Ruth Westheimer has been to the art of SPREADING DISEASE OF MIND, BODY AND SOUL. YOU CANNOT CHANGE DNA! YOU CAN ONLY CHANGE A GENETIC THREAD AND SOMEWHAT READJUST THE RNA STRANDING—AND A HUMAN CANNOT, AND WILL NOT, ASCEND, AND YOU WHO FOLLOW ALONG AND BELIEVE SUCH HEINOUS ROT ARE DESERVING OF WHAT THOSE CONSEQUENCES WILL NET UNTO YOUR BEINGS.

And that Sedona garbage is exactly that: Garbage. It is not even recognized enough to be noted in the Cult world of New Age. So, you “Chicken Littles” with your piggy poop, you might want to reconsider your circumstances—and watch where and when Rick goes for an R&R BREAK—for he always RUNS AWAY, if at all possible.

CONTACT, THE PAPER

I ask that this edition be put out as best you can, for I won't ask my scribe to be glued to this keyboard for regular “news” articles, especially for this week. HER HOME AND THE LAST SHRED OF PERSONAL PROPERTY IS IN THE ACT OF BEING THIEVED, WHILE SHE IS UNABLE TO RESPOND IN ANY WAY AT ALL. E.J. IS DEALING WITH THE HEAD

OF THE CENTRAL BANK AND THE PRESIDENT OF THE PHILIPPINES, WHICH MAKES A PERTURBATION OVER POSSIBLE PROPERTY TOTALLY INAPPROPRIATE FOR MORE OF HIS ATTENTION. WE HAVE ACCOMPLISHED OUR WORK HERE, BUT IT MUST BE WRAPPED UP IN A WORKABLE FORMAT AND FORM, AND YOU ADVERSARIES WILL “NOT” CAUSE THIS TEAM TO RUN HOME AND INTO YOUR TRAPS—TAKE WHAT YOU WILL FROM THEM, AND “THAT” IS THE LEARNING FROM ALL THE YEARS OF HARD TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE.

“They” wanted to destroy us and Ekkers? Oh, blunder! Evil is no longer the way to go, citizens, and strangely enough—they have just, in their rotten intentions, relieved Ekkers of the biggest and last burden around their necks—in both property and people! Think about it carefully! And, my children, KEEP MOVING IT OUT AND INTO SECURITY! The way and the how will open unto you. And yes, all who need to, in order to have immediately workable funds for the shift, use it—for we are finished here, except for starting distribution, and it will be structured so that, up front, there will be convertible currency available.

Give us your coordinates and change the mailbox to receive the next Lot’s mail in the lock-boxes. Shift the phone to an office setting while retaining both fax and phone numbers, please. You may well want to shift the CABLE TV to the next lot, as well, for use in the coach. Make sure you have at least one water line on the property immediately, and start permits on the south lot. Then, such as Chuck, you may well wish to park your own coach, as well as others—on that lot. L.A. is in for the biggest shaking of its life—SOON.

You have wondered how you would know, you of my team and crew? This is how, and always in time for action, as in security. The Apple Center is but a single-level structure and thus becomes as safe as any “building” for these purposes and—if you pull enough “flooring” out of the attic, along with as much as you can shift out of the lower level—you can use it for shoring up any necessary make-do sheltering of that place, or for any of our people around the town. Remember that, in about 1952, Bakersfield was REALLY DAMAGED and Tehachapi all but wiped off the map. You may well need “patch” material. So, in addition to what you are doing, get some extra rolls of PLASTIC WRAP—clear is best, so you can see through it—and some clamp-downs, in case you need to have temporary “roofing”-type sheltering. THAT AREA IS DUE FOR A WIND LIKE YOU HAVE NEVER SEEN. SO, JUST BE PREPARED TO SLAP PLASTIC OVER THE ROOF, IF NECESSARY, IN YOUR PLACES IN TOWN—AND HAVE IT AVAILABLE AT THE FARM FOR IMMEDIATE AND EMERGENCY ROOFING, BECAUSE THE WIND WILL, IN ALL PROBABILITY, BE FOLLOWED BY RAIN OR, MORE LIKELY, SNOW—AND MISERABLY COLD TEMPERATURES.

As the winds change directions, keep moving the facing of the coaches head-on into the wind, and you will be fine. But, if it is a visibly destructive phenomenon presenting—get into the “deep” shelter, until it passes. Just make sure your exits can’t be blocked or your airways shut down.

Make sure you have extra drinking water, for public pumps will probably fail—so, you will want your camping trailers, motorhomes and extra water containers FULL and treated. MAKE SURE THE PROPANE

TANKS ARE FULL! THIS WILL INCLUDE THE “HOUSE” TANK, BUT HAVE IT READY FOR IMMEDIATE CONVERSION TO THE SOUTH LOT. [E-E: The movers probably should move it to the south side of those storage sheds.]

I also suggest you get a quantity of nails suitable for affixing plywood, where necessary (thus the need for all the boarding and plywood you can clear to the next lot). Gene will want to keep his nail-gun handy, for speed, if needed. You will have time to get these things accomplished, so just move along—but do get these necessary tools and items handy for broken windows, blown-out windows, doorways, etc. And, if you settle into need of shelter for settling down—just use the HOUSE, but open the door to none of the KNOWN ENEMY. THEY HAVE MADE THEIR CHOICES.

I ALSO SUGGEST YOU GET MANY ROLLS OF DUCT-TAPE FOR TEMPORARY AFFIXING. LOTS OF PLASTIC AND LOTS OF TAPE, PLYWOOD AND BOARDING CAN SAVE YOU BUNDLES OF PAIN AND AGONY AND, IF NOTHING HAPPENS, YOU HAVE IT AVAILABLE FOR “NEXT TIME”, FOR YOU KNOW THERE WILL COME THE DAY THAT THIS HAPPENS—LOOK CAREFULLY AT THAT WHICH IS HAPPENING AROUND THE GLOBE—AND IN THE RING OF FIRE.

IF THAT LIFT IS NOT BACK FROM DAVID—GET IT, IF POSSIBLE, FOR YOU WILL NEED IT FOR LIFTING STUFF. THE “GAMES” ARE OVER. YOU CAN WARN ANYONE YOU FEEL DRAWN TO WARN, BUT THERE IS NO LONGER SPECIAL SHELTER FOR THE DECLARED ENEMIES—AND “THAT” IS WHAT THEY CALL THEMSELVES. I HAVE NO ENEMIES!

MAKE SURE THE KEROSENE TANKS ARE FULL, AND GET SOME EXTRA BARRELS FILLED AND STASHED THERE, AS WELL, FOR YOU CAN USE THAT FOR NECESSARY FILL-IN WHEN ELECTRICITY FAILS.

IS THIS A FALSE WARNING? NO! THIS IS NOT A WARNING; THESE ARE IMMEDIATE (NOT IMMINENT) REMINDERS.

Make sure that after you empty the house and lot at 21512 that you get Ron (B) to take those motorcycles and get them WORKING, and somebody go get some helmets, because you may well find you can’t get gas for the vehicles for a while. So, I also suggest that the gas tank(s) at the farm be topped and available.

WOW, now isn’t this exciting time? Believe me, you have nothing to lose and everything to gain. And take care of my chickens—you will want those eggs! You can, friends, live a long time on frozen—even a bit freezer-burned—eggs and spelta bread. So, leave things where you can get at them—like bread makers, etc. We will have a couple of big generators, and Eric has another or so, and you can team up, if necessary.

If you can’t get enough stuff out of your dwellings, just use coats, fur and all, sweaters (any and all of them you are moving out of Ekkers)—and keep warm. What is not necessary can be dumped on Goodwill LATER. USE WHAT YOU NEED, and a strange thing is happening—you WILL BE HAVING A GLORIOUS TIME, EVEN IN JUST THE ANTICIPATION, SO GO FOR IT!

Call Sullivans out in Yucca Valley, and make sure they are OK and alert them, please. These things are happening in their dooryard at this time, but your senses should be warning you that this is just a WARNING to our people.

WE WILL NOT STOP THE NEXT ONE!

Yes, indeed, you have a team in Manila pacing the floor and, as I write, they will keep sending, through the day(s) [to come]. You must understand that we had already started the unfolding before there was any information flowing AT ALL. It was an incredibly long night for Doris, but confirming that I am both REAL and in attendance.

We will simply continue to do that which is necessary and so, too, shall you!

Would I be there with you? Of course! Where else? Did you actually think the adversary would go down easily? This is better than an “E-ride” at Disneyland in “Ratville”.

You will want to have fuel—and chain saws and construction tools for rescue—available. OUR properties are pretty secure, so don’t waste time being terrorized or in panic—for these ounces of prevention are going to be worth tons of cure.

Since you are moving toward winter, get a store of charcoal so that you can, if necessary and when feasible, cook on your outside stoves and warm around the little “outdoor” stoves, etc. Do not risk these things INSIDE any enclosed area.

I suggest that someone get into town and get a BUNCH of brown rice, and keep out the BIG RICE COOKER FROM THE ATTIC. You can live nicely on rice and spelt (so keep some Vita-Mix grinders handy, along with some quantity of YEAST for grinding grain, etc.); keep honey handy, get some supply of BUTTER and a big pot at ready for boiling beans. Then, under about the worst of circumstances, if you have water—you will be FINE.

And while you are feeling bad about such as Millers—stop it. We tried every way under the heavens to make them HEAR and reconsider their actions. But no, chelas, that house is partly OWNED, I remind you again, BY I.E.S.C. and that is THE EKKERS’. It was mandatory to vacate it as it unfolded—but in an emergency—USE IT IF IT STILL IS STANDING. FOR THAT MATTER, THE WAY IT HAS WORKED OUT AND FILTERED DOWN—SO, TOO, IS THE PHOENIX CHURCH AFTER ITS ABANDONMENT BY THE OTHER RESPONSIBLE PARTIES—SO AN ARGUMENT IS HARDLY A TERM FOR USE HERE, AS IN “LEGAL CAUSE”.

The actions have been deliberately intended to destroy us and ours, and it just isn’t going to work out nicely for those who function in such horrendous intent. And I’m sorry that those who simply “listened to” advice from the Spectrum Rainbow shall suffer greatly in eventual “loss”.

“Mom” would like to remind you kids of hers that you must not take time to struggle with boxes of old memories, or sorting old Christmas “stuff” or searching for whatever—JUST GET IT OUT AND STACKED—YOU WILL HAVE PLENTY OF TIME FOR SORTING, AND YOU NEED NEITHER THE TIME IT TAKES TO WASTE ON DISCUSSIONS, OR CHOOSING OR SEARCHING—I REPEAT: GET IT OUT AND SECURED, AND YOU WILL HAVE PLENTY OF TIME FOR FUN AND GAMES LATER, WHEN YOU MAY WISH TO HANG THOSE VERY ORNAMENTS ON THAT VERY CHRISTMAS TREE—IN OUR MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM, FOR THE CHRISTMAS PARTY! IT IS TIME FOR FAMILY, FRIENDS, BROTHERHOOD AND LOVE—NOT ARGUMENTS AND NOT SHIFTING AWAY OF “MOM’S” STUFF—SHE IS, BY A LONG WAY—NOT DEAD, NOT GONE, AND THAT TO COME IS PURELY WONDROUS, BECAUSE SHE AND E.J. HAVE STAYED THE COURSE, ALONG WITH OUR TEAMS AND CREWS. HOLD IT IN YOUR HEARTS, AND ALL ELSE CAN BE CONSIDERED AT LEISURE AND, IF NO ONE TAKES ANYTHING, YOU WILL HAVE NO ARGUMENTS ANYWAY. GET IT OUT, GET IT SECURED—AND HAVE FUN, WITHOUT ACCUSATIONS OR JUDGMENTS. IT IS TIME FOR HEALING AND GATHERING TOGETHER FOR PURPOSE, NOT FURTHER DIVISION, FOR YOU WILL ALL AND EACH SORELY NEED ONE ANOTHER. AND, MOREOVER, YOU ARE GOING TO FIND OUT “WHY” WE HAVE STASHED ALL THAT STUFF! SO BE IT.

NERVES ARE ON EDGE, PAIN IS UPPERMOST—BUT ONLY ON THE SURFACE, AND RESPONSIBILITY RESTS HEAVY—LET GO AND LET GOD FOR, IN THE ENDING, IT IS ALL THAT CAN BE.

You will be surprised at the other things which will work out better for you as things get tighter—those who have brought this immediate strife upon you—NOW WELL KNOW THAT YOU HAVE NOTHING FOR THEM IN EITHER STORED ITEMS, I.E., FOOD OR DRINK, AND NOTHING OF SECURITY IN BEDS OR SHELTER. THEY HAVE DESTROYED IT, AND NOW THEY WILL SIMPLY HAVE TO FACE THEIR OWN CONSEQUENCES OF THESE ACTIONS—THERE IS NOTHING LEFT TO SHARE WITH THEM, AND IT IS UP TO YOU TO PROVE IT. I doubt anyone around will expect you to feed the masses from a ripped tent, following total eviction. See to it, please!

NOTICE: THIS IS NOT A DRILL, THIS IS NOT AN EXERCISE—THIS IS THE BEGINNING OF THE “REAL THING”!

Another Big Step Toward Freedom

By Doris and E.J. Ekker, 10/15/99

BEEN THERE AND DONE THAT...!

OR, HOW DO YOU SORT A LIFETIME?

I walked out at about quarter-to-four this morning, onto the outside walkway, 11 floors up in the Gilarmi Hotel, our home for over a year now. I looked up first and there HE was, smiling and blinking his Christmas lights. Then I crept up to the railing and got the “every-time” pain in my belly that belies my being able to enjoy being more than a foot off the ground. I gazed over the rail and down into the swimming pool, which somehow, this morning, seemed very much larger than it had before.

It faced me square on, however, that people often make a choice. I couldn't sleep, for it seemed some MORE years of concern over everything and everybody just stacked up too high to manage in a brain already too busy—but NOW, busy with the most incredible experiences of almost all people of ANY lifetime. I have been blessed—WE HAVE BEEN BLESSED, precious friends.

I don't care who gets this message, for a grateful heart has no room for sorrow—only a bit of sadness, as you realize you just can't do it all, and there are choices as to what do you forfeit out of this stupid schedule you have chosen within which to be sucked. I actually laughed and realized—what if I were dead: What would take place? Everything would flow just fine, the kids would hate me for leaving the place in a mess with all the storage of a lifetime, including much of THEIR lifetimes as well.

This started the wheels turning, and I asked myself: What is it that bothers you most about being driven from your home? Well, under these circumstances, it is leaving all the fuss and incredible job of moving and sorting to others, who already have more stuff and more problems than they need, and to take on ours is much, indeed.

WHY?

Why do you collect things? Well, we had been in business and, since we would still be in business—you save all “that” stuff. You know, typewriters from Uncle (and suddenly I can't remember his name, for he died a thousand years ago), all the stuff that was left for Goodwill when we moved into the LaCrescenta house in 1968, along with a 14-room, 5-bathroom house where you raise dozens of children and grandchildren, along with full-time jobs and several varieties of collectables. None of any value—except to the heart. Of these things, you understand—the melted ceramic cup that you tell the creator thereof that it is precious, for it is now a squatty thing that if you poke just right, you can get a couple of tiny, dried flowers into the opening. And suddenly you have a one-of-a-kind vase. Then you have the “platypus” bird in turquoise paint, with something similar to Pleiadian (from a time before you ever heard of Pleiades) symbols, best described as some kind of Native Art.

Then there are the children's profiles, drawn by some street artist at the Fair—and I think you get the picture, if you are a parent.

You even have boxes of pictures of weddings you loved doing and shared the joy of a wondrous day, with months of work, and remember that THAT was why you had enough cookware and bake-stuff to outfit a hospital or cafeteria. You don't ever take out the pictures, however, for those couples went their separate ways, and you don't drool over those memories—BUT YOU SAVE EVERYTHING—BECAUSE, SURELY ENOUGH—YOU GET TO DO IT AGAIN SOMETIME, SOMEWHERE ELSE, WHERE THE JOY IS JUST AS WONDERFUL AS THE LAST TIME. Most of those don't last, either, but we learn that that is part of living, and to try and keep the heart in balance turns out to be the most important thing—not the trinkets or bent-flower arches. And you can, for years after, reuse the baskets over and over again, for other wondrous adventures and THINGS. And you can share them when someone—anyone—has a “do”. It seemed so reasonable at the time.

MOVING

You move from one huge house to another, as big, because remember, you now have the same kids to come home, only now with their attachments and the grandkids—who also grew up while I was writing history.

Oh gosh, and then there was Liz, Kathy, Klew, Audrey and Eric—you name them, we had them, along with some interesting “Sipapu” gatherings, which I’m not sure how they happened. But the first three years in Tehachapi, E-E didn’t have even a weekend without people filling up the bedrooms. IN THE BEGINNING—possibly before there was even light—everybody who came stayed with us. So, we were always glad we hadn’t “tossed” the big pots. You could always find soup and/or beans or something extravagant, like spaghetti or scrambled eggs (E.J.’s concoction and Doris’ biscuits) at our place. This is the way our children grew up, and we had camped, and motorcycled, and generally lived a rat-race and pack-rat life since, I guess, we were born, a thousand years ago.

Then came the writings and the “get prepared” warnings. So, we were glad we had saved the two old ironers, so we could iron (sterilize) the old sheets we carefully saved—for bandages on the battlefields of life, if necessary.

I had worked at a hospital for a decade, so I saved every sample that came through our office and thought might be needed in some critical emergency out there, somewhere, some day. Then, with the really important stock-up program, we had to give up the linen closet (a big one) to store the important things like vitamins (all over the house on four levels), Aspirin (plain, coated, enteric and melted), and then a dozen different varieties of non-aspirin, in case someone couldn’t take the Aspirin. And then there are the things for sleeping, coughing, choking, hives, teeth fixers (couldn’t afford a dentist) and the emergency 50 tubes of extra toothpaste. I realized, when home last, that we had started with Colgate simple and graduated to Sensodyne, as the age crept in.

Anyway, NOTHING went, while we collected more, and more and more. Some of those things, like the sewing machines—I truly thought I would be able to, someday, settle down and “hobby”. I saved the old clothes and got more, because I could make a child’s dress out of a skirt, etc. I bought up the stuff when fabric stores sold out or thrift stores closed.

Now, look what a mess I have: ENOUGH TO HAVE MY OWN THRIFT STORE, OR NIGHTMARE, as the case might be.

LOSS? WHAT LOSS?

Is what is happening in our lives—my LOSS? Oops, not when I really stop and think reasonably about things. The loss is in having to be 9,000 miles away, while I can’t sort it or do anything about it. It is the helplessness which is overwhelming—I certainly realize that it is not the “loss”.

In a couple of weeks I will join E.J. at 68 years old and, frankly, I am tired. I am tired of trying to handle the “survival”, the “products”, the “whatever”—because I “have the room, we’ll just store it in the attic”.

When a good store like Best closed down, you could stock-up on everything you didn’t need at only half the price as regular—even if the mixer didn’t have beaters! Oh, well. BECAUSE, we were going to have either a second-hand store called “The Garage” and/or a place where we could furnish places, while people decided about their own future—or if anyone needed anything—and I do mean “anything”.

Can we shift stuff off to everywhere else, including the dungeon and Gene’s lower level, Connie’s lower level and the Apple Center, until we can sort it? Yes, but it is going to be a magnificent job, and we have, what, (?) 72 hours (less—now 24) to get it out or Millers are locking us OUT!

Why didn’t we spend the funds on the house? Because we were always assured that we would “NEVER BE LEFT WITHOUT”; do you remember Charles, any of you? How about Rick? They helped get and use the stuff, even helped build the storage in the attic, and where are they, today? Well, Rick keeps driving by to see if he has been able to accomplish enough pain and agony on the “old folks”, after he all but destroyed the very goal accomplishments of MANY of us who have pressed on in spite of the devastation of those tornado-days everyone looks forward to in retirement years—you know, when people just STEAL, TAKE, AND DESTROY EVERYTHING THEY CAN GET. INCLUDING YOUR PAPER, FUNDS, BUSINESS—AND NOW, EVERY LAST PERSONAL THING YOU EVER HELD.

Well, go ahead, Tricky, for the last smile is not yet finished. We have now over a THOUSAND agreements signed, sealed and waiting. We now have agreements with the Central Bank here to start funding. There is an even larger and unrelated involvement in funding, which is underway and planned for massive distribution, waiting for Y2K.

So, what now? Well, I don’t know because I can’t see far enough. We confront what is in front of us—not what we wish to have happen.

If we can rent or lease the house back in Tehachapi, or buy it by Monday (this is Friday), or beg a few days extra from Millers to allow us to move it out orderly—we will hold steady. We do have a nice thing confronting us, as Rick, Brent and Ed turned us in with charges to the Feds, and they say we have an indictment facing us if we set foot in the U.S.

Since we are sort of working with the Feds, we don’t believe it—but far stranger things than that have happened to us in the past decade. So, we have to consider what that would do to everyone else who depends on us, in these days of concluding this job over here in the Philippines.

We have had a conference with our team-mates and decided we just needed to finish this job, no matter what else happened to drag us away. We have had “them” attempt murder on our son so, surely, we would appear for a funeral. Well, all of you, as we told Janice Berend—DON’T DIE, BECAUSE WE WILL NOT COME HOME EVEN IF—! WE ARE GOING TO FINISH THIS JOB, AND WE ARE ON THE LAST LAP AND CLOSING ON THE FINISH LINE AS I WRITE THIS MORNING.

WHY DIDN’T WE JUST GET THE HOUSE SECURED?

People, we have been accused of misuse, abuse, skipping town and running off, we’ve been stolen from, bashed, battered and, frankly, we WOULD NEVER USE FUNDS TO SECURE SOMETHING FOR OURSELVES, WHILE OTHERS WERE WORKING OUT THEIR GUTS TO SALVAGE WHAT IS NECESSARY—THE BUSINESSES, THE FARM AND STORED GRAIN, ETC. TO AGAIN FACE LOSING THE HOUSE IS JUST NOT IN THE CARDS FOR CONSIDERATION. THE HURT AND DEVASTATION IS NO LESS—WHAT DO YOU, FOR INSTANCE, DO WITH THREE AVIARIES OF EXOTIC BIRDS THAT ARE BABIES?

THAT PROPERTY HAS SO MANY PROBLEMS AND BRAIN-SUCKERS AS TO BE SOMEWHAT OF A RELIEF TO JUST WALK AWAY, AND LET SOMEONE ELSE WHO THINKS THEY WANT TO TEACH US SOME KIND OF A LESSON IN REVENGE—HAVE IT ALL—AND I MEAN “ALL”. NOBODY ELSE CAN ABIDE THAT COURSE OF ACTION, HOWEVER, AND SINCE WE CAN’T GET HOME TO TEND IT—WE HAVE TO LEAVE IT TO THE DECISIONS OF THOSE “IN” THE PROBLEM. YOU KNOW, SORT OF LIKE IF YOU WERE DEAD, AND THE RESULTS HAD TO BE SORTED!

What happens when you have worked for 12 years to get everything suggested to you to have on hand for probable influx of people, emergencies and actual sub-shelters? ANYTHING ANYONE WANTS TO DO WITH IT, I SUPPOSE! It truly is a time of confronting it. There is enough stuff to sell, as in get rid of, to have bought the damned house—but then, who needs a big, empty house to tend?

These are just thoughts, friends and family, to let you realize that we are not vacationing while you have to live through this nightmare on Adam Drive. It is supposed that nobody could save the house, or they would have done so, and that is the simple whole of it. We have been blessed and grateful beyond our words can speak to have had a place through all the years of legal harassments etc., to arrive at HERE. GOD ALLOWED US TO GET THROUGH THOSE YEARS AND, IF WE JUST PRESS ON ANOTHER TEN FEET, EVERYBODY, THOSE OTHER THINGS WILL BE MEMORIES.

PUBLICATIONS AND STUFF

Yesterday, as part of my worst day with this “thing”, I found God ON DUTY, AS USUAL. One party here, who has a LOT (BUNCHES) of both contacts and is in-the-works for a large, LARGE return on his efforts, also has a PUBLISHING concern, in which he plans to put another half-billion $$$s.

I cried, but then I cry a lot these days, when he said he would be humbly honored to get these Journals to press. He would do the paper and anything asked of him. He doesn’t have any funds for helping us, because he just lost several million dollars in the currency collapse—AS DID ALMOST EVERYONE WE MEET OVER HERE, WHO HAVE BUSINESSES. We don’t even know what “hard times” are about, and poverty here is what Third World poverty is all about—in living awful.

This man is also taking up the task of Mang Pedro and will get things worked out with the University of the Philippines (at least the professor, of whom we have spoken before) and get it set up so that—when the funds turn over—we can immediately be ready to get the most important of the Mang Pedro prophecies OUT. Mang only knew of one last book he was to write, and it was to have started in full scripting in September. I have no other information, but “Ben” thinks he even knows that professor and will get busy.

People over here now know about the house and our own problems, and they are again working around the clock to get us our interim loan and make it big enough to just pay the full price of that confounded house to Millers. But, I don’t blame them for not wanting to wait—but with rent payments directly to them, and not through routes which lose it all, I would think they could allow us at least a couple of weeks.

And yes, we can FIGHT, and litigate, and stall and badger—another fortune for both of us—but my heart is just not in it any longer, team; I am run out of caring. I realized yesterday that I can't TEND THE WORLD and myself, too. E.J. may well think he can, but I simply don't want to do this any longer. And no, this does not mean that I either "give up", am a "basket-case" or plan to stop anything! We will keep right on and—when we are over this hurdle—those things are BEHIND US, CREW.

The last time this happened—as in deja vu (misspelled I'm sure)—we were told that the evictor had to have movers come in, pack carefully and store everything properly. Then, within 30 days, by paying those expenses, we could buy them back from the storage. And that, of course, is an option—if we can get together enough funds to simply pay to have it done.

I do not intend to leave the wonderful cupboards that my son built for me, or my fans and lamps, etc. So, perhaps this is a solution. At the least, to vacate the dwelling before lock-out, we could just hire Pablo and his whole Brotherhood, and ask Manny to get us some more available, and just haul it out and stash it at the Center and farm, until we can sort it.

E.J. is out now, and probably the earlier phone call was from Tehachapi—BUT, OF COURSE, OUR PHONE IS NOT WORKING! So, we will see how it unfolds. E.J. has meetings starting in half an hour and, if it is like yesterday, it will go on until night. Just the business we set up yesterday, team-maties, would do everything we have in mind to accomplish. Therefore, NO, we are not going to take the easy-APPEARING way out and run a risk of blowing anything—IF WE LOSE EVERY LAST THING AROUND AND ALL HOPE OF RETURNING HOME.

SO, TO YOU WHO ARE PRAYING, AND WORKING AND PUSHING EVERY WAY YOU CAN TO KEEP US GOING—WE WILL STAY THE COURSE, AS LONG AS THERE IS A CONCEIVABLE WAY TO ACCOMPLISH IT, DAY BY DAY. WE ARE HELD UP BY THE GOVERNMENT AND THE CENTRAL BANK—AND NOW, BOTH HAVE AGREED TO FUND AND USE OUR PLAN AND DOCUMENTS. WE SEE, DAILY, THE RESULTS OF THOSE THINGS COMING TO BE, RIGHT IN THE ARTICLES IN THE PAPER. THEY HAVE AGREED TO SILENTLY WORK THIS SO THAT IT DOESN'T JUST BLOW OUT THE "WORLD", AND THE JOB IS MASSIVE IN SCOPE AND ACTION. WHATEVER WE THOUGHT OR KNEW WAS TAKING PLACE—IS NOTHING BESIDE WHAT IS, AND ACTUALLY HAS ALREADY BEEN, UNDERWAY.

Even old "Hank K." has been to his eyeballs in this thing—as has a whole bunch of players that are simply not for discussion. We were even choking on a really big deal, with something out of the U.S. and exchange for "dollars", or something. I mean, BIG! But, just yesterday, we saw the PUSH for Britain to join the Euro, and that must mean that the world is ready to collapse the dollar, somewhere along the line. We demanded gold exchange—and guess what: "They don't have enough...!" This could be worse news for the U.S. than the biggest earthquake that could hit the nation in a dozen locations, all at the same time.

Oh, there is not longer any quarrel over validity of our "stuff"—it is just how in the world to move with it—because the ones who set this thing up, back in the Russell Herman days—did some real thoughtful planning and placing—around the globe. THIS DOES NOT, THEREFORE, JUST HAVE TO DO WITH INDIVIDUALS ATTACHED TO E-E OR CONTACT,

OR A HANDFUL OF FAITHFUL. THIS IS "IT".

Interruption—right here and now it is nearly 9:30 a.m., and it is already a wondrous day. Got the tears out of the way early, with Ellen and our kids—who have made my life worth going on today. We must have done something wonderful along the way to be blessed with our family and friends, who continue to make it possible to meet these obligations over here. And, you know what!? I feel wonderful—sad but wonderful.

As I said above, my hurt comes from having to have someone else clean up loose ends, move out, on instant notice, a thousand years of precious crap—and then LET IT GO, with no attachments, just thankful for that which we have had and have been able to hold for a while.

Those who have driven us out will never have another day of joy—for, when revenge blasts your way to grabbing and thieving another's very life, it never pays. If we can work things otherwise than totally moving out of the house—fine—if not, then it appears the team is ready to just "move 'er out", and cry and sort later! GOD, THANK YOU—FOR ALLOWING US TO SAVE A BIT OF SPACE FOR A COUPLE OF MONTHS TO SIMPLY SHIFT FOR INTERIM HOLDING.

Perhaps this will make those who had to live through the call this morning realize that it is them I care about—not the STUFF! I now know how one feels to see everything burned to the ground, broken by an earthquake or whatever—but you walk away with your living family intact—GRATEFUL, HUMBLY GRATEFUL FOR THE BLESSING. WITH US, WE WILL WALK AWAY WITH ALL THE OTHER "STUFF" JUST HOLDING, AND IT CAN BE DIVIDED LATER.

I AM GOING TO PUT THIS INTO WRITING ONE MORE TIME: MY CUPBOARDS—MY CHINA-CRYSTAL FRONTS, AND ALL THOSE THAT GENE BUILT FOR ME—ARE GOING WITH ME. IN ADDITION, ANY STANDING SHELVES IN THE ATTIC OR BASEMENT THAT ARE EVEN STORAGE, AS WELL AS PLYWOOD ON THE RAFTERS—GOES, KIDS. WE LEAVE NOTHING THAT WAS TO BE USED FOR RETIREMENT—NOTHING. ALL OUR HANGING LAMPS AND FANS, WHICH WERE PUT IN SO THEY WOULDN'T BE A PART OF THE BUILDING—GO, AS WELL. WE CAN HAVE ONE, BIG, GIANT GARAGE SALE A LOT LATER, IF NECESSARY. THE HOUSE GOES AS BARE-BONES AS WE ACQUIRED IT.

AND REMEMBER, THE CURTAINS AND "RODS" ARE ALSO OURS, FOR WE PUT THEM ALL IN, AND MOST ARE MULTIPLE—JUST LEAVE THOSE—BUT ALL THE CURTAINS, ALL OF THEM, ARE OURS—REMEMBER THAT HAINES LEFT ONLY A FEW LITTLE LACE RUFFLES! I BELIEVE UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES IMPOSED ON US TO MAKE LIFE SIMPLY "MISERABLE" AND HURTFUL—THEY DESERVE NOTHING FROM US—INCLUDING CLEANING THE MESS OF MOVING—JUST LET THEM LOCK THE TRASH INSIDE!

SHARE THE FOOD AROUND TO EMPTY THE FREEZERS, AND LET'S JUST PACK IT ENOUGH TO GET IT SHIFTED.

WE ARE ABOUT TO THE END GAMES OF THE LEGAL ENCOUNTERS AND ANYTHING HOLDING OVER OUR HEAD—AND, FRANKLY, I AM RELIEVED TO CONTEMPLATE BEING RID OF THE PROBLEM. EVERYBODY CAN HELP SORT AND TOSS WHEN WE DO GET HOME—WHEN EVERYTHING HERE IS SECURE, SO WE CAN FACE ANYTHING "THERE". WE HAVE SUCCEEDED—IT IS NOW JUST IN THE DANCING!

As I said above—we have publishers, printers, you-name-it—right here, pleading to take our material. So, even if we continue to publish there—WHICH WE CERTAINLY WILL, BECAUSE OF OUR HISTORY OF NOT TOSSING IN TOWELS IN THE MIDDLE OF A GOOD BATTLE—WE ARE COVERED, BIGGER AND BETTER, WHERE IT'S AT, AND WHERE PEOPLE DON'T WALK OUT ON US AND THEN TURN AND SHOOT US IN THE BACK. I CAN HANDLE BEING FREE OF THAT.

WE KNOW WHAT HAS TAKEN PLACE, AND RICK AND GAIL CAN CHECK EVERY FIVE MINUTES IF THEY PLEASE, AS CAN ED AND NOREY—BUT THEY WILL ONLY FIND THAT WE KEEP RIGHT ON SERVING AND KEEPING ON AND, I SUPPOSE, THEY CAN DRIFT FURTHER INTO THE HELL THEY HAVE CHOSEN FOR THEMSELVES.

They won't like it, however, because we will, team, have all the rest of the property totally surrounding that house on the hill. And, I don't know about you guys, but I AM TIRED OF TENDING IT ALL!

Tears? Oh, indeed, it is hard to witness being executed, while the parasites suck your last drop of blood for the heck of it—calling it good business! Good business? Oh, I don't think so, but this too shall pass, with far less pain than anything thus far—for we move this time, team, FROM TOTAL STRENGTH!

E.J. just met—was late, in fact, as we talked with home—with some people from, I gather, the U.S. AND Australia. The Aussie has been making runs back and forth from Sydney since Spring and keeps bringing other business people. This time, he has brought someone who could explain our own program against the facade of typical trading programs, etc., and they have been at that all morning, as others join them—and are working out a feasible program to set up the "GO TEAM". It is hard to be other than sorry to leave my "mess" and "pile of stuff" to others, because nobody needs consider shortages ever again, after we get this flow under way—YOU CAN HAVE YOUR OWN, DOZENS OF EACH, NEW! EXCEPT YOU OF THE TEAM WON'T WANT TO BE TIED TO THE SHACKLES OF STUFF—FOR THERE IS A WORLD TO BE BUILT AND USED, AND YES, AN AIRLINE TO USE, AS WELL! AND NO, I HAVE NOT LOST MY MARBLES NOR BECOME, FINALLY, THE "BASKET-CASE" OF CHARLES' AND RICK'S PROJECTION. A BASKET-CASE, PERHAPS, BUT THIS TIME THE BASKET IS REALLY WONDROUS.

I can't possibly ever outthink God, for in return for service, He is abundant. And, HE has allowed the takers to simply sort themselves into fixed pathways of non-return to my soft-headed/hearted and idiotic brain. And NO, Millers DO NOT fit that category. Millers are doing what they feel they need to do but, when they see how they have been pushed and manipulated, they will be as hurt, probably, as I have been at the turn of the vipers.

Somehow, it is like watching this from somewhere "out-there", without being able to do more than be embarrassed over having not attended this or saving that—or whatever. I mean, like watching while your life is taken apart, as if you have died or something—while the love just grows and bursts, and knowing that the kids will struggle, curse Mom as they get tired and just laugh over all the “buffet servers” and warmers (with fuel) they find. There is even enough luggage to move everyone to Manila who wishes to come.

BUT, if you can just get it out of the house and off the property proper—when we do the next step, we can have it professionally sorted and shifted, or whatever. WE HAVE DONE IT—TEAM—WE HAVE DONE IT! AND, WE COULD NOT HAVE DONE ANYTHING, ESPECIALLY AFTER WE PICKED UP OUR PARTNER-ENEMIES, WITHOUT EACH ONE OF YOU.

AND, TO GEORGE AND SYNI—SIGN WHATEVER THE BASTARDS WANT FROM YOU ON THAT “NAVY” DEAL—WE GET SMART—[NOT] OLD! AND BE GLAD THAT SOMETHING WONDERFUL HAS BEEN AT WORK, BECAUSE WE CERTAINLY DO NOT TAKE ANY GREAT BRAIN-CREDIT FOR THIS TURN OF WONDERFUL EVENTS. PERSISTENCE, FAITH, PERSEVERENCE AND ABILITY—ARE GIFTS OF GOD, AND EVEN GOD IS NOT THAT STUFFY OLD MAN WITH THE ROBES! HE IS WONDERFULLY ALIVE AND WELL, AND SERVES US BETTER THAN WE WANT—BECAUSE, WHEN WE SAY “IN YOUR BEST WAY”, HE GOES ABOUT WHAT IS “BEST” AND NOT WHAT “WE WANT”. WE ONLY HAVE TO KNOW THAT IT WILL BE BETTER WITH EACH BLOW, EACH GIFT, EACH “CHANGE”.

No, we are not “giving up” anything, even though we are promised the best of all worlds over here. We have oodles to do over there in the U.S., BUT LITTLE CROW HAS MORE TO DO THAN US AND, BOY, IT IS JUST ABOUT READY TO BURST OPEN. FRANKLY, THE SALE OF THAT HOUSE TOLD ME THAT GOD HAD KEPT HIS PROMISE RIGHT TO TODAY—AND WE ARE NOW READY FOR THE BIG JOB. HE SAID WE WOULD HAVE THE HOUSE AS LONG AS WE “NEEDED” IT—AND WE HAVE!

Yes, we also know that we will be able to purchase the thing ten times over—but we are pretty sure we simply don’t want to bother with it, or to deal with it, once moved out and the debris cleared away. We will have to see. People here are working, still, around the clock, to get funds back in the states to cover the whole outstanding purchase. I don’t even know if I want to do that any longer—it seems like a good time to get rid of stuff, clear out our lives and be able to “go”.

Birds? I don’t know—but, when the time comes for that decision, I also know we can afford to house them properly, and there will be someone who really will love them. If we have funds, we have always planned to have some half-way retirement places for animals, domestic and wildlife, and we know two people who would have love and joy in attending same but haven’t been able to afford it. We will be able to afford it. I hope, in fact, to simply buy up the Arens Ranch and Indian Hills—and Drakes can just go for it, like Dick has always wanted to do. We can build heated buildings, big breeding aviaries like Mr. DeDios has here and really do some of those wonderful things our hearts need.

We intend to keep the farm, at least for a while, and the aviaries can be set up temporarily under the cottonwood trees and wind breaks, in pressed block, built, to do in the pinch if necessary. Hey, guys, we are not kidding you—we are headed for all those things we planned—only BIGGER! We had no idea how abundantly GOD planned. We can also, Diane—tell Dick, that we can actually cover the expenses, etc., of Tippie Hedren’s place. These are the things God promised ME, if I would just stick with this job—and then built in an incentive.

This place over here in the Philippines NEEDS EVERYTHING, from water systems, sewage—you name it—they need it. Then, as we get a picture, we can go right back to Sovereign Native Communities and do the same thing. THEY WILL DO IT, we just provide the way, as offered to us.

And, people, we quit picking on George Bush, Twigs, etc. We get on our knees and thank Baker, Kissinger and that bunch of misguided chilluns—for they made it all possible. And we thank Marcos and Meldy for stashing the stuff all over the globe—AGAINST THIS VERY DAY OF UNFOLDING and FOR THIS PURPOSE. We bless them all—never waste time on fighting them. Same with our own bunch of hooligans—thank them for being so nasty as to get completely and totally out of our thought frames. We had to go a different way—and it is THE way, and without them to drag us into endless bickering and haggling. GOD IS CLEARING THE DECKS OF ALL THE LOOSE CANNONS!

And about those animals and the “animal farm”: We can get that Cummings Valley (Cummings old ranch) area, which is already set forth as that hunting club for killing helpless wildlife. We will redo it, restructure it and yes, indeed, turn it into a sanctuary. Same with the Broome property—OH YES, we will have exactly WHAT WE WANT—I KNOW IT! WE MAY, IN FACT, REALIZE “WE” DON’T WANT IT, BUT THERE WILL BE THOSE WHO DO AND THEY WILL DO WONDERS WITH IT.

I so totally HURT, on the one hand, and am SO RELIEVED of the burdens, on the other. We need that “freedom” to move on and not be locked to “things”. THINGS can be had by everyone else who want to do THAT job and, yes, I have come to realize that there are people who really DO want to retire in Tehachapi and DO EXACTLY THOSE THINGS. But I think that most of the ones who have struggled with us will also want freedom to put wheels on the feet and wings on the back—while simply overseeing the “stuff”. That, I do believe, is OUR REWARD FOR RETIREMENT!

Now, to my own babies and, yes, those are E.J.’s, as well, for they are every bit as much mine as his—and his is the only family I have had: WE LOVE YOU, we are proud of each and every one of you, we feel totally blessed in every way and, yes, honor Paul for, without his sacrifice, we likely would not have walked THIS WAY. We are sorry if we have caused you to have less than grannies and grandies—BUT WE KNOW WE ARE LEAVING YOU A BETTER WORLD, WITH SOME HOPE OF CHANGE AND GROWTH. AND WE WILL GET THAT EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION FORMED AND CAN OFFER A BETTER WAY TO MANY, IN EXCHANGE FOR THAT WHICH WE MAY HAVE LACKED.

We have not been “RELIGIOUS” because, frankly, that would have prevented us from being Spiritual enough to allow God into our lives, to use us to accomplish the IMPOSSIBLE.

IT IS SO IMPORTANT TO US TO KNOW THAT YOU UNDERSTAND THIS CLEARLY! WE WILL GET INHERITANCES AND OTHER BUSINESS

WORKED OUT AS WE CAN DO SO, FOR YOU HAVE ENOUGH TO WORK WITH, AS YOU CAN SHIFT CORPORATIONS, ETC. AS NECESSARY, WITHOUT CHANGING ANYTHING BUT THE DIRECTORS—AND RON KNOWS HOW. WE JUST HAVE TO LET IT NOW UNFOLD AS IT COMES.

Remember that—wherever we use this PLAN—we will have half of the assets to pour into building. We will leave 80% of the assets IN GOLD, for use as collateral, for which we will pour that amount back into the local areas or other places. We will have 20% to build whatever we need to get started back home—and YES, it is plenty—more, in fact, than the Fed will shift without trying to tie it up—so we will need those sovereign banks to shift into directly, both with assets and collateral.

Nobody but GOD could have even thought this up! We might like to take credit for a lot of it—but I’m afraid that is a bit much!

God is good in so many ways, even as with the house: We never were allowed to do other than use it for a work space, and it was never allowed to be “ours”—so, really, there are no painful roots to dig and dry. It served us WELL, all our needs, and life will go from that place with our going—just like the house in LaCrescenta, kids. That is still more “home” than this house on the hill that has never been allowed to be enjoyed. And, as you waggle over the memories and the motorcycles and old camping stuff—know that it was a joy—not a sorrow! We have built more memories in our lifetime than people build in a dozen lifetimes. WE HAVE NOTHING TO LOSE—AND EVERYTHING TO GAIN. Besides, I used to live in a camper on big camping trips, etc.—we can surely make do in the Coach—if Gene will loan it to us. On the other hand, a nice big bed in a nice motel room really sounds good to me!

This has gone on a very long time this morning, and I have my balance back and my priorities in order again. It will work out exactly like it will work out—in the wisdom of my friend, Crow.

Our hearts are simply with you who have to do the actual WORK, for I fear I would be totally useless, anyway—HOW DO YOU CLEAN OUT A LIFETIME? I sort of thought I would die and get out of the job.

We love all of you, and to you who THINK you aren’t our family—no, you ARE, and as for Pablo and his “friends”, we are getting closer and closer to making “those dreams” come true—properly!

As we move on, frustrated or not, let us turn to the things of REAL importance—our trinkets are not really among the “important” realities, like getting Ron C.’s freedom, J. Berend’s kidney and pancreas replaced, the Institute square and put to bed, the legal cases off our ever-burdened backs and the children of the Ethers out of our hair. I find myself blessing Zita, in realization of the things she shared with me as a friend and that I have experienced through this past year—that her way was truly easier than watching this unfold.

I can’t help Gail, she made her choices and, as a friend and Mother, my heart is breaking for Bill and Germain, but we DO go on—or we quit—and that is simply not a worthy way. Perhaps, when we keep going, even those negative things have a way of working out, if we just give them love, insight and patience.

And please, friends, be gracious and kind to Millers, for they helped us through so many rough spots that we can’t be other than totally filled with appreciation and full intent of repaying every cent with that appreciation.

We had the use of the house through their help, and so be it as to how things work out—more timely than we would WISH. If they just give us time to move out reasonably, it will be wonderful. If they only give us the three days, we will simply have to do it. Perhaps they could then give us just a bit of time to get the outside stuff shifted off the lot. And know, movers, the sheds can be shifted off onto that lot, as well, if you run out of time before they lock the doors.

Know that this is what the gloaters are about: LOCKING US OUT OF OUR HOME! They somehow think this is the same as what happened at the paper. No, it isn't, and it will not be treated as gently. I remind you all—WE ARE NOW COMING FROM "STRENGTH"—SO MUCH, IN FACT, THAT I TRULY WOULD HAVE LEFT THE ENTIRE PROBLEM INTACT IN THAT HOUSE AND SIMPLY TIED IT INTO KNOTS—EXCEPT THAT IS NO LONGER A PART OF MY MAKEUP, AND MY FAMILY AND FRIENDS WOULD HAVE BEEN PAINED EVEN MORE GREATLY THAN THIS WAY. AND, I WOULD NOT REPAY MILLERS FOR THEIR HELP OVER THE YEARS BY DOING SUCH A THING.

I became a bit concerned over the possibility of earthquake damages after Cmdr. wrote the other day—and then I had a dream, and that house was crumbled—but, strangely enough—nothing of ours was in it, nor were the birds there, and nothing was hurt, so I was on my knees thanking GOD for sparing the pets and us. I thought it a nightmare—today, it simply seems comforting.

I also am grateful that God thinks us worthy of a few more years of worthy service so, please, everyone, look forward and not backward—things can be replaced, and KNOW that there is great relief in stopping trying to be everything to everyone—and maybe we will all live longer and happier. The next big decision is how to keep Commander from using my time over here—for over here HE IS APPRECIATED, and people are only "waiting" until things settle to start their own push for meetings. There is nothing here that discounts, denies, or even slows people in doubt. For one thing, HE worked directly with Marcos, and the legacy lingers. We simply don't have to be—ANY OF US—where we are not happy or wanted. We can even go back and rebuild our La Crescenta place, if we choose—and that's a fact! I even remember the address—not the phone number—just the address: 5020 Rosemont Ave. 91214 (I think). (??) Does Alzheimer's come with short-term memory loss or long-term loss?

Thank you for allowing me to write all this—it saves E.J. about four days of agony and so, he thanks you.

He has come up here a couple of times—beaming. He has some people down there now that even stayed in our hotel overnight. just to be able to spend time—and this one is a computer master who sets up BANKING SYSTEMS—and he and his people know the way and wherefor in Papua New Guinea. The question is no longer "can we?", it is "how can we handle it all?" So thank you, again, for doing this miserable task in Tehachapi—until you are better paid, for life is GOOD and, as the Muslims say: GOD IS GREAT! And, I feel 90 years younger since this morning. We must truly be within mere inches of that cross-over line that causes us to have to make decisions we would otherwise simply put aside.

Thank you, thank you and thank you—
E-E

Mind Creates, Action Manifests

By Doris Ekker, 10/16/99

Commander will get back onto "paper topics" today, I think, but he is obviously not yet through with the lessons FOR US. We have the most wondrous opportunity, in this "house silliness", to confront "feelings", intentions and, indeed, have fun or misery. Well, it is difficult to sort fun from misery, for each set of circumstances seems to have BOTH and every other degree of emotion in between.

It is a difficult morning here in the world, as we come to confront and cope as best we can—in these times of testing our metal. Of what are we fashioned? Stone? Obviously not, for from day to day we are bending with the necessities of give-and-take—hopefully, without shattering or chipping. Gold? Are we made of gold? Obviously not, for even though we can be bent and shaped, we cannot remain unchanged from day to day in the confrontations and flow of a world in constant change. Are we made of diamonds? No, for we do not always sparkle with the JOY of just being a diamond in the sunlight! But we are made up of all of these wondrous things and, within us, we bear the one DNA-RNA that counts—we carry the code of Creator, which presents us to the world and claims us as HIS representatives—so we must be great in HIS SIGHT. No, if I categorize us as "being in HIS sight" that separates HIM from us, as in something viewing "something" or "someone" ELSE. We are HIS reflection, from WITHIN, so that which we present is that which GOD IS, WITHIN US. And, we CAN do it, for when the road is hardest and the losses, slings and arrows come against us and pile one upon another, we are caused to look deeper, higher and beyond that which SEEMS TO BE.

Does knowing that things are actually fine make a difference to the hurting heart? YES. Does that change the circumstances as physically presented? YES, for all that we are left to feel is of the visible things, of which there is no TRUE reality. If we look beyond, into CREATING THAT WHICH IS FORWARD CREATING—we reach out and take the raw materials of the moment, and move into that which is wondrously a miracle. It has nothing to do with "strength", as in such as "he is such a strong person". No, we are weak "persons" and what happens to us can only depend on being what we make it to be. Does it mean that you like or love the moment, or that perceptions can't rest on possibilities of negative impacts? No. But, it does mean that we can take the MOMENT, with all its facets of presentation—AND CREATE IT TO BE THAT WHICH WE MAKE IT TO BE.

To you out there who may not know what impacts today: Ekkers are homeless, as the street people of Skid Row. And, friends, BUT FOR THE GRACE OF GOD—GOES YOU! Those who set themselves up as the "Righteous" "children of Light (Spectrum)" believe that this day they have prevailed, and that the wicked witches of the North Dark 40 have bit the dust. No, the JOY is empty for them—KNOW IT, for they have won nothing save a "mess" of hornets, which they will ALSO leave the Millers to handle for, with the short notice to vacate that dwelling, there is no way for an organized move or a cleaning of the place—or, frankly, "time to weep" over the debris, representing some kind of something to each who surveys the wreck. Well, moving is a wreck under any circumstances, and this is no different from any other who must give up material "stuff" in the face of living. We can quit, or we can turn it into fuel to ensure that we finish the remainder of our journey—possibly unencumbered by shackles that bind us to a place, a thing, a location and, in fact, disallow us to freely serve where it counts, in LIVING LIFE.

E.J. and I have learned something: YOU CANNOT TAKE IT WITH YOU—NOT EVEN, FEASIBLY, ACROSS AN OCEAN—MUCH THE LESS, TO GOD OR INTO SPIRITUAL REALMS. PLEASE HEAR ME: YOU CANNOT TAKE IT WITH YOU. We can't even afford to bring the stuff to use where we ARE. The "cost" is too prohibitive and, if we simply DO OUR JOB TO ITS END—WE CAN REPLACE THAT WHICH WE THINK WE NEED, BUT WE CAN'T CHANGE A THING OF THE PAST AND, THEREFORE, MUST LET IT GO.

There ARE DOZENS OF PLACES to scatter "things", and yes, the "things" might even get some GOOD USE. We certainly can't use any of it NOW. And, worse, we are told that some furniture, which we have never sat upon more than twice, has an infection of "mice". Well, that is what happens when a home is basically abandoned—life moves in and takes it.

In this instance, the "Kids of the Rainbow" drool over that which hurts the Ekkers, and they think they will glean some goodies? Oh, I don't think so. Rick drives by to check and gloat, and they all get together and gloat in their great "winning". (???) Winning? Friends, THEY LOST THE RUN, FINALLY, TODAY! AS INDIVIDUALS, THEY LOST—TODAY.

THE LOCKS MAY WELL BE CHANGED ON OUR HOME BY MONDAY—BUT THEY WILL PROTECT NOTHING BUT THE DEBRIS OF A MAJOR AND HURRIED EVICTION—IT WILL NOT BE PRETTY, FOR IN AN EVICTION THERE ARE NO NEGOTIATIONS, NO TIME FOR OTHER THAN PUSHING OUT OF ONE THING INTO ANOTHER—JUST TO GET "OUT". E.J. and Doris are 9,000 miles away, and so the work falls to those already overworked, and they have rallied, and an army is plowing through and moving out. Tears can come LATER. And, as once again happens, that which was put aside against a day of need has been destroyed by the vermin, who live off whatever they can find of bones to pick. All of the tools and necessary pots and supplies can be shifted, scattered and used. THE INTERESTING THING IN THIS LESSON: YOU CANNOT TAKE IT WITH YOU—AND, AT SOME TIME, THERE IS NO CONTROL OVER A GIVEN CIRCUMSTANCE; EXCEPT, OF COURSE, TO CREATE CONTROL AND CHANGE “CIRCUMSTANCE”. “But couldn’t you have saved it?” comes the inquiry. Yes, we could HAVE, IN THE PAST, saved the place. But we trusted those who had control of the circumstances—and we learned that they fell to the whims and prattlings of the “lighted blokes”. They have claimed that Ekkers have bunches of moola stashed all over the place. No, sorry about that—we have had to beg and plead for enough to keep the paper going, let others “make it” a month longer—and barely scrape by to GET THIS JOB DONE. We would rather wait and regain after regrouping than to spend another cent or tear on this incident from their “intended” Hell. So, get the hell out—and the battle is won already!

Is that not selfish, in itself? Perhaps—but of the problems confronting us—getting this mission accomplished is THE ONLY PROBLEM WE CAN SEE OR MOVE TOWARD POSITIVE CONCLUSION. ALL THE REST MUST GO BY THE WAY.

KNOW, FRIENDS, THAT ADVERSITY IS BUT GREATER VICTORY AND GLORY, JUST BEYOND THE CURTAIN. A sequence of events MUST TAKE PLACE and those are events which we often cannot consciously see, because of the tears in the eyes and the tears or tears [as in “rips”] in the heart. By the way, GOD said to us in the early confrontations about that house that “it will be fine”. He never said, and reminded us of it often, that we might not have to move out, temporarily, or whatever we might then choose to do.

As I picture the “movers”, I KNOW that, over and over again, it will be said: “What in the world did they need with all this stuff?” We didn’t need hardly any of it—but just take files, for instance—where are we after today? The files have been taken, those of importance, by the thieves and liars and, after this push-out, lock-out, what can we find? We now have nothing.

Don’t you think honeysuckle and roses will give a nice touch of “home” around our coach lawn and “fountain”. Consequences of this kind of a muddle and madness? We don’t know, but what can you do with no place to go and no place to “keep”? I would guess that judges would not make it worse for us, and I think even Brad could see the merit in this mess-up.

What appears to be a calamity is a clearing, as well, and the friends are left with inability to do other than take the obviously useful and leave the debris of a lifetime. When people set out to hurt and destroy—it is often the destroyer who pays the ultimate price of such consequences. There are some new things put on the roof of that house because there were leaks—the “parts” haven’t even been paid for yet—perhaps the strip-team should just gather them up and leave the shell to the rain. When you do this to a home—you have turned it into a lifeless shell, nothing more. It is that, somehow, a busy house, a loving home, becomes a dead thing, as in “murdered” thing, with no life and NO LIGHT. The light seems to go with the lamps, and yes, the very energy-saving light bulbs. Please just don’t make clean-up or negotiate fix-its with anyone. We welcome anything they wish to precipitate in COURT.

And, I think roses and honeysuckle will [precipitate].

Can the Ekkers be blamed for this one? Who cares? Ekkers have spent some seven days and nights in the place since August 11th, last year. We have never been left in peace over that building. And, perhaps it sounds silly, but the things I want are the GIFTS of honeysuckle, Nora’s Iris placed in our care, so later in the garden we would all share. Can we take those things? Yes, and perhaps the family will choose to do that—if there is time to do so.

I, Doris, have this feeling, finally, that to go back to the place that somehow “never was” is not a useful thing for moving ahead. GOD DOES THAT WHICH IS “BEST”, WHEN WE ASK FOR THAT GRACE—AND THAT WHICH SEEMS SO DIFFICULT ALWAYS TURNS OUT TO BE BETTER AND BEST.

All those wonderful dishes and things I stashed for gatherings, and weddings and celebrations—can now be stored and placed where ALL CAN COME AND USE THEM, SHARE THEM, AND YES, GET THEM INTO A LITTLE “COMMUNITY” “HAVE-IT-IF-YOU-NEED-IT” PLACE. WE HAVEN’T TOSSED OUT ANYTHING IN OUR WHOLE LIFETIME.

Back to “couldn’t you have somehow saved it?” No, not without using that which has been offered for keeping the paper and the mission going. We have not and would NEVER use that which is not “ours”, and just to put off some confrontation with someone who actually doesn’t need the place or the funds is not worthy—not with us. We have been accused of spending, and wasting, and running away with millions of dollars, misuse, abuse and you name it—well, we do not fit the accusations—THEN OR NOW. PLEASE, KNOW IT, FRIENDS, AND LET US MOVE ON. There are people right in our own places who can use all of these things—when we decide what we will do, and we only need a few more weeks to determine our own course of action. Remember that farm house? Well, the lease is paid, at least for this month—and, if necessary, the furniture can go with Rex and also for Margie’s use with products, etc. Come on, WE DON’T WASTE OUR GIFTS. If we lose the farm, then we scatter it to “whomever”.

For now, it will sit safely in the Apple Center complex, for the offices are empty and the lease must be paid anyway. My suggestion from this great distance away is to get it shifted, stacked, spread out or whatever—and from that which is in the freezers, etc.—HAVE A PARTY! HAVE A DOZEN PARTIES! AND, BY ALL MEANS, IN A FEW SHORT DAYS—BE READY TO “REALLY HAVE A PARTY!”

What do we want left on the property? NOTHING! NOTHING! Even the wire from the aviaries can be moved, along with the aviary houses. “THEY” want the place—THEY CAN HAVE THE PLACE! Ah, but WE OWN the lot to the south of the house. I suggest, further, that whatever you can’t move—put on that lot—and someone can sleep in the coach, which you can park crosswise across the lot, with stuff behind it, and plug into the house—or even the generator. SAVE TIME, GET SHIFTED AND GIVE THEM PLACE FOR THEIR LOCKSMITH. THE GARDEN HOUSES CAN BE DISMANTLED—OR GET A LIFT AND JUST MOVE IT ALL OFF.

IF YOU WANT TO HAVE SHELTER—ASK JOHN HENSON FOR USE OF HIS BIG TENTS,

WHICH WE BORROWED BEFORE. JUST GET ENOUGH HANDS TO SIMPLY DISMANTLE AND SHIFT—IT IS FAR CHEAPER THAN MOVERS, OR LOSING THE THINGS SUCH AS GENERATORS AND EQUIPMENT.

If the notice for lock-out has not yet arrived, note that there will be 72 hours from delivery of the service order. So, every twig you get moved off that place and onto the next lot is secure and without need of bargaining over it. I can’t imagine that Millers want our aviaries—but Rick will, just to hurt us where he thinks it will hurt us most. No, it won’t—I promise all of you—IT WILL NOT HURT US MORE THAN FOR THE TIME IT TAKES TO SHIFT IT OUT.

We can see, with every passing day—that Commander has PLANS which include ALL OF US, and when He starts making His own presence known, it will still need to be through us and, therefore, that means we must all be ready, willing and able to be MOBILE. Yes, we can have our roots parked—but the tree must be able to move about. We do not just have a direction for change—but we are asked to share in the joy of the fun and games. My gosh, we need everything here in the Philippines from water processing, desalination and garbage disposal, to building houses and complexes. It is like a world of toy-choices, laid before us to experience. Then we will need all the same for our Native Brothers and, who knows, with enough funds, we may just get Peltier out of prison and get dignity and JOY back into the breast of our PEOPLE.

God cannot have Doris and E.J. sitting on our naked rears, spilling tears over a bunch (TOO MUCH) of material trinkets. And to all of you who have sent us gifts, paintings, anything: It will all be tended and shifted and, later, we can get it into a proper sharing center to be gathered into our memories’ inclusions.

I am so grateful that I did some things before we left home, and I find it interesting to realize, NOW, why it was important. Margie made a “story-quilt” for us a few years ago and I couldn’t USE it, so we hung it as a wall-hanging. It folds into a pillow, as well, so we also used it as a pillow. However, it was one of those wonderful things that children LOVE TO TOUCH, dust loves to befall, etc., so I took it down, put it away and, at least, it is preserved. We understand that mice have invaded EVERY ROOM: attic, basement, etc. But you know, I simply KNOW that that quilt, with every stitch, is intact. Those days seemed so happy, and YET, look at the journey. We need those memories to remind us that it was a journey, and today we know the JOY of friends who ARE FRIENDS, travelers who came, used and left and ones who came, stayed and wouldn’t leave. Fine, they are reminders of our own value and direction.

I think I now understand that lesson about “you have to lose your life before you find it.” And God simply takes some of those terrible decisions out of your hands—as with a dead albatross around our necks, that we insist on taking with us. Do all of you realize that we would never have given up that place, other than in THIS MANNER? We could not have done so—for that property, in dispute, in use, in value along the way, was a sign of “making it”, somehow. We would never have just walked away, and yet, here it goes, we are pushed away, and the demand presents the ability toward freedom, and from here the choices are infinite—from going back and taking it back—to moving on to greater and more wondrous adventures—without that damned albatross!

Gosh, even the mouse problem is no longer ours. As of this week, even the mouse problem is no longer OURS!

Will we weep, and grieve and feel loss? YES, because that is part of “living”, but this time the hurt is so buffered by the taste of success that—even if success is less than dreamed—TODAY IS SWEET UPON THE MIND. And, for you children who think this is just TOO MUCH, as the back hurts and the tears flow: IT WOULD HAVE TO BE DONE IF WE HAD DIED—NOW, WE CAN ALL LIVE TO ENJOY. MOREOVER, YOU ALL ARE FORTUNATE, INDEED, FOR WE HAVE NO PLANS TO WAIT UNTIL WE ARE DEAD-AND-GONE TO SHARE OUR LIFE AND OUR WORK GLEANINGS—WE WILL GET RIGHT ON WITH THAT, ASAP. Can you realize that we are just proving that LIFE IS UNLIMITED AND EXACTLY WHAT YOU CREATE IT TO BE? GOD GIVES AND HE TAKES AWAY—AND EITHER, OR BOTH, ARE BUT DOORWAYS TO FREEDOM AND ULTIMATE SUCCESS. THERE ARE NO FAILURES—JUST SOME TESTINGS AND LESSONS, WHILE LEARNING TO CREATE THIS WONDROUS GLORY. DREAMING IS NOT ENOUGH—EXPERIENCE IN ACTION IS THE ONLY WAY TO GET THERE! CREATING IS FROM THE MIND—WITH SOUL—MANIFESTATION IS ONLY THROUGH ACTION.

I am caused to have a bit of humor this morning, however, as we ponder on some things, from what seems a world away from the focus. We don't have an address. We don't have a phone number. We don't have a place—and yet we have ALL PLACES! There is a lot of freedom in having it all taken from you! But don't try this at home, you really might not like it. We don't—but we also know that, whatever the outcome—it is up to us. We can only be damaged or hurt—IF WE AGREE, and we simply don't agree.

And, how nice for us, we sever need to be “nice” to “lookers”, we can stay right in the same spot and meet the lookers, who will ask if that's a good place to live. We, friends, will have electricity and can just get a permit to live in the motorhome, if we choose that route. This is actually beginning to look like a rather fun challenge.

The Greenbelt behind the house and over to the Spring is public land; we have the south lot and easements to the north and use of the whole of the land around the place. Isn't it interesting how the picture changes when the attitude changes? YES! The “self-proclaimed enemies have won”? Oh, I don't think so! And, once again, WE DON'T NEED TO DO A THING.

I do feel confident that each of you making a contribution to our “enemies” will be able to realize some satisfaction out of the possibilities.

It is as with the honeysuckle vines—they only have to be moved into a holding hole on the next lot. And the trellises will obviously go with the storage sheds—so things begin to look interesting. I don't know, but isn't it about time to move or prune ROSES around those parts? My thought is to leave the place as pristine and natural as when we found it—you know, all those things we did to improve, as renters, we have a right to remove, as evicted tenants.

Also, until the three-day notice appears, a bunch of troops can dismantle just about everything and even set it up somewhere else. Perhaps an aviary on the parking lot of the Apple Center, house and all, might be impressive—they do it at Circle K, or whatever the pet shop is—and, after all, it is only “temporary”. LET US HAVE FUN WITH THIS, FOR THE POSSIBILITIES ARE ALMOST ENDLESS, and you are only limited by time.

When you get to within three days of easily moving it out and slamming it shut—demand a three-day notice, so it is documented carefully and so that you have REASON—in print—for just walking out. And, if all records are LOST or destroyed in the move, who can be responsible? Who do they BLAME now? Wow, a whole world of stuff outweighs the circumstances of pain and agony.

And watch, please. See WHO of “those” fence-sitters comes to HELP! Where will Kathy be? Where will Dave be? Where will...? This is one reason I would like Henson to be asked about renting or borrowing a tent or two—even if we never have to use it!

We have a pretty good go of it this time, BECAUSE we do have the south LOT—legally and lawfully—and already have stuff on it. They might not like the tents in the way of the “view” (what will the neighbors think) and later, if need be, we can start permitting some building on that lot, and actually get a construction bin and portable shed for STUFF—legally. Oh, kids, I think—once your backs stop hurting and the anger is released—YOU WILL HAVE A WHOLE LOT OF FUN WITH THIS ONE.

As for sheds, aviaries, etc. and flooring, Gene can tractor a smooth and level place, and you can put cement slabs down, so the varmints can't dig up through—and those slabs can be moved to anywhere we want them. I think those birds might well become our symbol of possibilities. We will have to pay for that Center anyway, so we may as well have some fun out of this deal. Oh, those WATCHERS should have a time of it—and YOU should have a party every day and night until the barbecue is broken in well—after all, there are a couple of them there at the house—always waiting until we could “start living” again—which have never been used! But save at least one party for us when we can come play.

I know that as you all begin to see the humor and fun in this, you will have a grand time—and please, if you do, then we can relax and get this done over here. And KNOW that we will not leave the home forever hurt—a home is a living thing, a house is a building—but we care about BOTH.

And yes, I mean it, please, take out even the attic flooring, if you have time, because we can use it for flooring, shelving or whatever—another day and another time. And, if and when we take back the property, we will mouse-proof, bird-proof and renovate and seal the house properly—with flooring in the attic, because it is actually such a wonderful place and, empty, we can do what would make it wonderful forever.

We had always wanted to build-in under a deck on the north side and have a park in the north lots. We would then seal in where the temporary sheds are, to match the house. And remember, we were going to build that south lot into an adjacent “house” for offices, garages, etc. We were going to rehab the garages there into a great “big room”, and turn the “fern garden” and little toilet room into a nice hot-tub-bathroom. Hey, we had plans—and we actually needed an empty house to do it. So, while you break your backs, and rave and curse the load—KNOW THAT WE CAN ONLY GO TO “BETTER” FROM HERE.

How do I know it is going to work out well? Because just yesterday E.J. spent a very large part of his day with the first son and daughter of “the” Mr. Marcos, working on unfolding the plan—and the son went away with a deed for his own corporation, etc., IN HAND. That son lives in the U.S. and was a member of the “BLUE DIAMONDS” (as in “Blue Angels”) flight wing. Oh, people, this is interesting, and the miracle now is beginning to be: “How was it accomplished in such a short time?” It only seems long in the “waiting”.

So, please, get enough people to have it FUN, not just labor and stress.

I need to get out of this room now, because we have a backed-up drain and the people need to clean and fix. We will try to get this off to you—and perhaps this is a way, if no other, to share a bit. It is so much easier to type than pack or move! I know, NOT FUNNY! But, LAUGH a lot, for tears of laughter are ever so much more fun than misery. Please, KNOW that we have lost nothing but gained a world of wonderful possibilities, and to empty that house is the first major step into a more wondrous future than we can ever conceive at the moment, but I intend to try on a lot of possible responses to that proposition, and cleared decks help. And speaking of decks—you CAN also, to save time—stack the stuff outside on the decks—it is hard to lock an open deck and, from the front, you can even “rope-and-pully” stuff down, and park it on the drive. They can lock you out of the house—not keep personal property from the owner! Remember, before, it was legal and wonderfully workable to have one of those tents right on the front lawn. This time, we OWN THE NEXT LOT—WOW! I HATE BEING OVER HERE, BECAUSE THIS GAME IS GETTING TO BE FUN.

Got to go but will probably be on the board again. Perhaps the paper can wait this week? Well, there are some GOOD articles on gold and economics, and probably the readers won't mind if we take some time to attend this blight come upon us!

Now, before leaving, I would like to leave you with the thought for the day. Sometimes it is good to KNOW what is going on. The reason the Cortrights are so interested is that they are promised free housing, IN OUR HOUSE, the minute they can get YOU (“us”) out, and so, yes, indeed, I would enjoy that they not have it very nice, clean and comfy for them to celebrate with Centanni and the gathering of the watchers. Thank you! I'm sure you can think of something to make it a bit uncomfortable—like a “counter-watcher's” party next door?

Before anyone sleeps in the coach, though, set off a bug bomb and then air it out. The place gets loaded with spiders, and that concerns far more than mice, but that would get those cleared out, also. That south lot location—while “watching”—can be fun, and that can be accomplished through just being “nosy neighbors”! You know, like shutting off the water and power, or something clever like Charles pulled. Especially, please, disconnect the “cable” service, because Rick cannot survive without television and racket.

Perhaps you don't need the big tents, if you just borrow Campbell's, etc., smaller ones, in exchange for whatever—did you get the forklift back? He can deliver it to the south lot now, where we need it! Like NOW! Bring the other one in and use it to help move heavy stuff. Make this as easy on self as possible. Then freely remove flooring plywood and shelving from the attic and garage. We planned to empty that attic anyway, and actually mouse-proof anyway, and that plywood and those boards can be used as flooring for tents, canopies, etc. We have a bunch of canopies that Klew used to use for selling booths—get them, and simply get everything out that is necessary—except the debris. I want Rick to have an enjoyable time of it because he is, without doubt, the most lazy one human I have ever run against. Actually, you can have a motorhome/tenting convention on that south lot, if you really want to have fun! Just ask, if anyone gives you trouble, and we will supply you with permission and “guard” instructions. The local cops will remember you, won't they, Rex?

Know, however, that you can't park the birds, even temporarily, in a tent or unfloored shelter—remember that we have foxes and racoons there, and they will get the birds—they got our whole flock of doves when we first moved there. Oh damn, this is getting to be so much fun just thinking about it—I WANT TO BE THERE! AND, THIS IS GOING TO GIVE US SOMETHING TO PROVE OUR “DAMAGES” RIGHT IN A COURT OF LAW, AND ESPECIALLY IF RICK AND GAIL ARE IN THAT BUILDING! OH GLEE, OH GLEE! AND THEN THERE IS RAY BILGER! WOW, DOES GOD BLESS US OR WHAT?

I THINK YOU CAN COUNT ON US GETTING SOME KIND OF A FUN RESTRAINING ORDER OVER THAT HOUSE AND RENTING IT OR USING IT—THE MINUTE WE GET FUNDS TO MAKE IT INTERESTING FOR A “THINKING” LAWYER. NO, I CAN'T STOOP TO “JASON”, BUT THANK YOU FOR THINKING ABOUT IT! We really DO have a lot of ways to go—and, actually, it only takes funding. So, we will work on the funding, if you will keep up our team's game there.

Perhaps you can have some nice pot-luck barbies under the tent shades, right there on that nice south lot! Nobody needs to watch alone. And, you can hook up a VCR and go through all the movies in the storage—that coach is comfy and, certainly, you can get enough paper goods to make the camp-out doable. (There are plenty of those upstairs, downstairs and in her ladies' chamber.) Please don't put the permanent dishes, etc. back in yet, though, because we cleaned it out on purpose. If we choose to live in it when we return, we can put just enough stuff in to use.

By the way, upstairs is the OLD kitchen center motor—the one in the kitchen is NEW, and I do NOT want to leave it—so just leave the old one—or a hole. Preferably—a hole! And, take all the appliances that go with it, for I have one in the coach, also—just like it, and it can be used there.

Love for now,

E-E

PHOENIX UNDEAD— THE MONTAUK PROJECT AND CAMP HERO TODAY

Part Five-A

In this five-part series, John Quinn—who runs Newshawk, a genuine, insightful, Internet, e-mail-based news service—provides us with an amazing update on the situation at Montauk today. Due to the length of Part Five, we have broken it down into two sections. Part Five-B will appear in the next issue. NewsHawk can be reached by e-mail at <newshawk1@luckynumber.com>

PART FIVE—RELATED/SIMILAR PROJECTS

A WEST COAST PARALLEL

For a number of years I've resided principally in the Pacific Northwest. I know for a fact that, on overnight field trips to the San Francisco area, school kids from all over Northern California and beyond use the “old” military facilities north of the Golden Gate (within the Golden Gate National Recreation Area) for bivouacking overnight, as the federal government (still the owners of the property—though the military facilities are supposedly “closed” or “decommissioned”) offers the “accommodations” to school districts all over Northern California, to use for sleepovers during their field trips, etc. Uh-huh...

We got the following information from a schoolgirl who was there in that context recently. Although the area where they were spending the night was supposedly not militarily active, a missile mounted on a flatbed trailer, visible behind a chain link fence in the evening, was gone the next morning! One might well wonder what else might have happened during the night at this location where those kids were, given the documented tunnels, etc. in this region.

The regions in and around the Golden Gate National Recreation Area on both the San Francisco and Marin sides, as well as areas of nearby Sonoma, Napa and Lake counties, are reported to have a number of extensive underground areas—some engineered and constructed since the arrival of white people and some far more ancient. As at Montauk, and elsewhere, the covert government has created numerous underground installations at the many military and ex-military sites (and other locations) throughout the general area.

Peter Moon has made allusions to the fact that the San Francisco Peninsula, and the Golden Gate region as a whole, is a substantial Earth-grid power-point, and this factor has been known and utilized by cultic, secret “brotherhoods” directly linked to the worldwide shadow government. There is a SAGE radar site in the Golden Gate area, as well. One of the covert government's more “well known” facilities in the general area is Bohemian Grove, in Sonoma County's Russian River region. I can attest—from personal recollection during the time I resided in nearby Santa Rosa in the 1980s—that, over the years, a number of local residents have reported on some decidedly peculiar and even vile and very ugly events occurring at this heavily guarded, completely isolated, remote, exclusive “campground” in the woods, where many of the “shadow” government's most powerful figures come to “unwind” and “party”. These incidents were reported to local law-enforcement agencies and made public through the regional news media.

Certain of these incidents—regarding the physical/sexual abuse of women by groups of men—have been reported by the local Sonoma County press and substantiated by testimony, such as that e-mailed to me by “Sue Ellen” and reprinted in the section of this report immediately following. She describes her sister's forced involvement in very unpleasant episodes at Bohemian Grove during the time she was employed at the Pentagon. I have recently read other testimony describing truly horrendous incidents at Bohemian Grove and the proclivities of some of it's more “illustrious” members; people like [former President] George Bush.

Further substantiation of the conditions at Bohemian Grove comes from Cathy O'Brien. While I cannot personally vouch for the accuracy of the following material, and though some reasonable doubts and suspicions about both Cathy O'Brien's and husband Mark Phillips' credibility have been raised, I am, nonetheless, including here an excerpt from Ms. O'Brien's TranceFormation Of America, which describes her own experience at Bohemian Grove. I am doing so because it does jibe substantially with my own personal knowledge of numerous allegations and charges made about Bohemian Grove on the local level, involving the same kinds of unpleasantries and atrocities related by Ms. O'Brien.

“I was programmed and equipped to function in all rooms at Bohemian Grove in order to compromise specific government targets according to their personal perversions. ‘Anything, anytime, anywhere with anyone’ was my mode of operation at the Grove. I do not purport to understand the full function of this political cesspool playground, as my perception was limited to my own realm of experience.

“My perception is that Bohemian Grove serves those ushering in the New World Order through mind control, and consists primarily of the highest Mafia and U.S. Government officials. I do not use the term ‘highest’ loosely, as copious quantities of drugs were consumed there. Project Monarch Mind-Control slaves were routinely abused there to fulfill the primary purpose of the club: purveying perversion. Bohemian Grove is reportedly intended to be used recreationally, providing a supposedly secure environment for politically affluent individuals to ‘party’ without restraint. The only business conducted there pertained to implementing the New World Order, through the proliferation of mind-control atrocities, giving the place an air of 'Masonic Secrecy'. The only room where business discussions were permitted was the small, dark lounge affectionately and appropriately referred to as the Underground.

"...My purpose at the Grove was sexual in nature, and therefore my perceptions were limited to a sex slave's viewpoint. As an effective means of control, to ensure undetected proliferation of their perverse indulgences, slaves such as myself were subjected to ritualistic trauma. I knew each breath I took could be my last, as the threat of death lurked in every shadow. Slaves of advancing age, or with failing programming, were sacrificially murdered 'at random' in the wooded grounds of Bohemian Grove, and I felt it was 'simply a matter of time until it would be me'. Rituals were held at a giant, concrete owl monument on the banks of the Russian River. These occult-like sex rituals stemmed from the scientific belief that mind-controlled slaves required severe trauma to ensure compartmentalization of the memory, and not from any spiritual motivation."—© 1995 by Cathy O'Brien with Mark Phillips

This "owl" monument does indisputably exist, as attested to by many other accounts, which also tell of similar grotesque, terrifying, perverted and even deadly horrors at the outwardly idyllic compound.

I've been in contact with a woman in Sonoma County, who gave me a good bit of information on underground facilities in the Bay Area, including Hamilton AFB in Marin, which—surprise—has supposedly been closed since the mid-1980s but, in fact, is positively NOT closed. (The AF was still answering the phone as of a few years ago.) There is a foster-care facility directly adjacent to the base property, and the FBI is on the board of directors for this "home". It's virtually guaranteed that there have been ties to the Presidio Monarch-Project operation at San Francisco's Presidio Army Base. At the Child Development Center's day-care facility on the base, several hundred children were subjected to psychosexual mind-control programming by Army Colonel Michael Aquino, an intelligence officer who also worked for the CIA and other intelligence agencies. Additionally, Aquino was head honcho of the "Temple of Set"—a Church of Satan offshoot based in San Francisco—which provided the seemingly requisite conceptual cult underpinning for the Presidio's kiddie mind-control operations.

In further exchanges, she told of growing up in the Santa Rosa area; her dad was a dabbler in the OTO (Crowley) and similar mystical stuff. In the 1960s or 1970s, she happened to meet a fellow who was the Civil-Defense coordinator for the Santa Rosa area in the 1950s. He told her that there was a substantial underground facility (which I have heard mentioned elsewhere) beneath an AT&T building in downtown Santa Rosa; further discussions revealed that this facility stretched for several miles to a military airfield. Part of this installation would now be directly beneath the Santa Rosa Mall, a major hangout for kids, and probably several schools, residential, industrial and office districts.

Back then, Ms. Gulson was not really able to plug this kind of info into any larger scenario. Later, she became very interested in mind-control activities by the government—especially involving children.

As in many other regions of the United States, there is no shortage of clandestine, bizarre government operations throughout this area—one of which is an underground facility/base constructed in 1992, about 15 miles southeast of Santa Rosa, near the boundary with Napa County.

I mentioned this information to my acquaintance, Judy Gulson, and she told me that she already knew of the facility.

Regarding this subterranean base: The Napa Sentinel thoroughly investigated the secretive goings-on in the mountains between Napa and Sonoma County. Their exhaustive research, involving many calls to Washington, D.C., as well as to two local Air Force facilities, determined that, on the record at least, this was a classified operation—according to Travis AFB and Hamilton AFB (in nearby Marin County)—to construct an underground facility, to be staffed and operated primarily but by no means only by FEMA! Many black, unmarked choppers were seen in association with both the construction and subsequent operation of this facility. A large microwave transmitter there is aimed at Santa Rosa.

On paper—and sinister enough in its own right if one takes into account FEMA's secret charter and agenda—this facility is ostensibly part of the "continuity of government (in chaos)" system of numerous, bomb/radiation-safe underground installations nationwide; a system supposedly designed to ensure the maintenance of law, order and government during a time of national emergency, social/civil upheaval, extreme natural disaster (perhaps induced by HAARP!), or other situation which causes a definite collapse to some degree of the federal government; FEMA's operating charter also calls for the reins (or is that "reigns") of the federal government and virtually all its powers being passed into FEMA's control, if deemed necessary.

However, I personally think it's very likely that this new underground base near Santa Rosa is actually more than a FEMA hangout. A weird point in all this, which Ms. Gulson and I both noted, is that Hamilton Air Force Base, contacted by The Napa Sentinel during its investigation, was supposedly closed a number of years ago; at one point Marin County was supposed to acquire the property for use as some kind of park (sound familiar?). The deal never finalized, and most people think the installation is closed and mothballed. Guess what—it's not! It is in some level of operation, staffed by at least some AF personnel.

Another very interesting point: Immediately adjacent to this base is a privately-run foster home called St. Vincent's Home for Boys, on the board of which is the FBI! Oh, really! I imagine other, unlisted, members of the board of directors are the NSA and CIA. As seems to happen so often in this whole business, there is a well-known writer on mind-control operations who, according to some, is himself actually tied to the same agencies and operations he has written about; a man who has some strange connections, including to the above-mentioned foster-care home.

The following comes from Ms. Judy Gulson, in Northern California:

"The whole subject of Walter Bowart is really up for grabs and conjecture. A man in Petaluma has a web-site called "THE PAGE". His name is Walter Radtke—aka Walter Alter. Recently, I was in e-mail contact with a woman named Kathleen Sullivan, an MK-ULTRA survivor. I was doing some research on mind control and somehow connected up with her. Kathleen was gearing up for this conference in Atlanta and was e-mailing all sorts of stuff. I happened to mention something about the Alter/Radtke web-site and the information there. She became hysterical and claimed that Bowart is Radtke/Alter.

"Now, I have been in touch with Radtke/Alter...[he] never mentioned anything about Kathleen Sullivan. Out of the blue, he e-mails me saying that someone was accusing him of being Walter Bowart. He says, 'Who's Walter Bowart?' I became uneasy and answered, 'With all of the information you have at your site, you surely must know of Walter Bowart!!'"

"I have never spoken with this man in person. I know where Walter Radtke lives; he is [listed] in the phone book. This past weekend I was in Petaluma and drove by his house. Kathleen said that he would be living in a cul-de-sac. The reasons for that are security [related], she says. Sure enough, he does live in a cul-de-sac.

"In addition, after further research, I found that a corporation owns the house. Walter Radtke/Alter tells me that he works at St. Vincent's Home...right next door to ('decommissioned') Hamilton AFB...and the FBI is on the board of the Home. The Home is privately held. There is much strangeness...not the least of whom is Kathleen herself."—© Judy Gulson

SACRAMENTO VALLEY: MAJOR TRANSMISSIONS DISCOVERED

In the summer of 1998, Preston Nichols was contracted to do some scientific work for a private party in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, east of Sacramento, California. Nichols became aware that Beale Air Force Base, somewhat near his location, was emitting signature EM/RF frequencies indicative of "Delta T" inter-dimensional/time-travel operations in progress. Furthermore, Nichols also noted the presence of extensive and pervasive "435 Mhz" transmissions, capable of implementing mind control, weather control and other relativistic, high-energy physics functions such as inter-dimensional/time-travel operations.

The transmission blanketed the entire central Sacramento Valley region—even beyond some of the lower mountains to the west. Only after several mountain ranges were passed, did the signal finally begin to diminish.

Nichols reported that he had never seen such a pervasive signal and believes that it is somehow propagated upon the water molecules in the air, enabling it to "saturate" an area, especially a geographic basin area such as the Sacramento Valley, in a way unlike other EM/RF transmissions. Indications are that a ground-based transmission is being deployed. Nichols speculated that there is some kind of link to HAARP operations going on, very likely but not exclusively [related] to the weather-control aspects of HAARP.

NEWS OF STRANGENESS IN DENVER, CALGARY, NEW YORK CITY

A man now living in Calgary, named John Tooker, has had substantial recall of personal involvement in the Montauk Project. Tooker believes that he was a participant during the Montauk Project operations in the late 1970s and early 1980s, while in an altered state of mind and/or some alternate, parallel reality or "timeline". Tooker says he was rather a different person when he worked on advanced, time-related technologies at the Camp Hero base; that is, literally—that he may have been subjected to some kind of age regression and/or transfer of consciousness, along the lines of that reported by Al Bielek, and that he was "Daniel John Waters" during this period at Camp Hero.

Mr. Tooker has reported on some extremely timely info about some VERY odd goings-on in Calgary, which sound amazingly similar to a lot of the information coming in about Denver. (Denver has been named by some as the "capital" for the western U.S. sector in the possibly impending New World Order.)

Given the fact that Calgary is in roughly the same geographical relationship to the continental divide (the Rockies) as is Denver, perhaps there is some esoteric/Earth-energy relationship, as well, which may make Calgary suitable for use as another Western North America NWO "nerve center".

Tooker informed me that a Canadian Armed Forces base in Calgary, although recently "closed" and decommissioned (here we go again), is in fact, still functioning but has become extremely secretive about doing so. This is based not only on direct observation but also eyewitness testimony from a security guard who was working there; just recently, this guard—who is a close friend of Tooker and has worked with him on some research—was summarily transferred from the location without explanation.

There was more notable weirdness—quite significant, in my opinion—which he told me was going on there; for instance, so-called cell-phone transmitter towers have been appearing everywhere in Calgary. A similar state of affairs exists in New York City, where these transmitters have been installed on nearly every street corner!

These so-called cell-phone transmitters are being installed in tremendous numbers all over the country now, and that while cell-phone communications may be one of the purposes of these towers, there is a covert purpose, as well, and that such transmitters are being unquestionably used for mind modification/control of the general population. Most of the towers are operating at ten kilowatts of power or higher—much more power than is needed for only cell-phone transmissions. (My current residence is in a very sparsely-populated mountain region of Northern California and, sure enough, within the past two years, one of these transmitters was installed on a mountain quite nearby.)

Al Bielek, having left Denver after living there for about 18 months, told me the city was literally crawling with “Montauk boys” and, to some extent, “Montauk girls”; young people with Aryan (Germanic/Nordic) racial characteristics, programmed with the Montauk and “Monarch”-type techniques to be sleeper agents, to be utilized in the covert government’s astonishing array of brutal, vicious, psychotic, satanic and murderous “operations” and “activities” and, also, during the projected implementation of the so-called New World Order. Bielek had a number of casual interactions with some of these people while in Denver. Bizarrely, and remarkably like what Al Bielek was telling me about Denver, Tooker said that the streets of Calgary have, as of fairly recently, become inundated with a tremendous number of street people, the great majority of whom fit the “requirements” for the typical “Montauk Boys” to a “T”! Holy shit!

There is solid evidence, some in photographic form, of a tremendous, many-leveled and multipurpose subterranean city—easily one hundred square miles beneath the finally completed Denver International Airport—which houses a vast array of different underground facilities, including those necessary for a national government to operate, as well as underground freeways and a subterranean rail-line connecting this to other subterranean complexes operated by the covert government.

In addition to all this, the floor of the main terminal at Denver Airport is constructed of a material which is said to be impervious to particle-beam/EM-pulse weapons. The floor and walls have a number of esoteric Masonic symbols and phrases, as well as murals depicting global destruction and apocalyptic themes. If the place was plastered with Buddhist, Jewish or Christian symbolism, you can bet some Constitutionalist or civil libertarian would be raising hell.

Obviously, many more subterranean installations exist nationwide and worldwide.

I have been told by Preston Nichols, which was corroborated by other sources, that large portions of Long Island have underground facilities (including, of course, Brookhaven Labs—a point confirmed to Long Island reporter Jerry Cimisi by a private contractor who’s worked often on the Brookhaven facility), AND that these are connected to many other such facilities nationwide (and worldwide) by an extensive and elaborate super-high-speed underground rail system.

Nichols also told me that the Lower Hudson Valley region, where so many hundreds-of-thousands have had “UFO” sightings, contacts and like experiences, has major underground installations—vast, in fact. This is borne out by Ellen Crystal’s research in the Pine Valley, NY region, where she documents numerous instances of craft disappearing underground and the sounds of tremendous subterranean construction activity; also by Larry Warren (the principal Bentwaters AFB/Rendelsham RAF UFO witness), who said that the Plattsburgh AFB, NY area (Upper Hudson Valley) was the site of an enormous subterranean government military installation; as well, Mr. Warren was in an underground base in Egypt while in the service, which he says was about as big as NY State! (Bentwaters, itself, of course, is situated above a huge underground [base].)

In yet another correspondence to me from Judith, she comments on a recent trip she made through several northeastern states in 1997.

“Back to the underground. According to conspiracy theories, experimentation may be going on there—possibly underground living quarters—do you know anything more, proven or theory, about what may be actually happening? I took a 4-day trip through DC, MD, OH, PA—driving in July—I saw some very unusual situations there. First, unexplained spikey dust all over the forests in MD & PA. In PA, on the turnpike in about the center of the state, I ran across this weird area where, again, the vibes were very high; the traffic was mesmerized in there, you go through 3 tunnels in and 3 tunnels OUT of there. There was an inordinate amount of 18-wheelers in there, with NO identifying names or signs on the sides. There were thousands of cars in there—lined up bumper-to-bumper, not moving (and it was a major freeway)—for reasons unknown. I got out of my car and found that the steep embankment there was throbbing—you could hear the sounds of machinery below the surface.

“It was spooky—but obviously something was going on down below. Of course, PA is mining country, but this seemed too close to the surface...I spoke to a doctor who knew the area and knew PA. He had heard of this particular stretch of PA and knew that whatever was going on was highly unusual.”—© Judith

TESLA TECHNOLOGY USED FOR DIABOLICAL PURPOSES

A gentleman from Pennsylvania, named Ron Hannivig, contacted me—after reading HAARP’s Covert Agendas—with some startling testimony about the U.S. (shadow) government’s long interest in and experience with the fundamentals underlying much of what HAARP technology is based upon, long before there was HAARP—which to a great extent is the awe-inspiring technology developed by of the “father” of our modern AC electrical power system, Nicola Tesla.

Hannivig reports that he personally worked on the construction of a “Tesla EM Tx site” in West Australia during the 1960s; a location roughly on the other side of the world from Montauk.

According to Mr. Hannivig, there are a number of such sites worldwide, which would correlate with what others have discovered about HAARP.

From Ron Hannivig:

“Been reviewing your work regarding the ongoing activity out on Long Island, NY...by way of messages being forwarded to my attention—and thought you might be interested in considering my findings.

“From what I can gather—at the time, the area around Montauk Point, Long Island, NY was a prime portal—a ‘wormhole’ in the time/space conundrum. By the way...it is understood there is another such ‘wormhole’ located not too far from Montauk—in Block Island Sound...very near Fishers Island, NY (this island is actually in NY—however, it’s located right off the coast of New London/Mystic, CT). This wormhole appears at a pinpoint location...and [I’ve] been trying to verify the report/s for about a year.

“Back in the mid-1960s—I had worked during the construction phase of a massive Tesla EM Tx (electromagnetic transmission) site located upon the Northwest Cape of the Exmouth Peninsula, West Australia...and was there the day it was officially turned over to The U.S. Navy. It was subsequently named the Harold Holt U.S. Navy Communications Base...named after the former Prime Minister of Australia—who mysteriously drowned while he was in office. At the time of his drowning—I was in West Australia, and nobody I knew believed it was an accident.

“Today—we (my Australians contacts and myself) believe Prime Minister Holt had been seriously questioning the true mission of this American U.S. Navy base upon Australian soil—and, as a result, was rubbed-out.

“The prime requirement of these Tesla EM Tx sites is their location relative to MN (magnetic north) and those selected targets to be zapped by an electromagnetic slug (of sheer energy)...setup an electromagnetic force field...cause holographic-type illusions to simulate UFO-type activity...fully distort the time/space conundrum...Of course, this list can continue on, to include mind-altering experiments, etc... Furthermore, this same great arc alignment includes a fourth plot point—which is the interpolated timely position of MN...a prime factor in implementing this quantum-type technology. Four plot points representing interconnecting events, all of them falling upon a common great arc...becomes prima facie evidence.

“Therefore, given this alignment—relative to MN...the generating facility for the activity on Long Island, NY would actually be located on the other side of the world. Distance is not a real factor...it’s the alignment, relative to the elusive positions of MN. Finally...if I had not actually worked at this massive West Australia Tesla EM Tx facility—I would likely not have been able to make this connection. Any questions, please feel free to ask. The dedicated target of the Tesla facility I know to be at Exmouth, is just south of Long Island, NY.”—© Ron Hannivig

I do believe Mr. Hannivig has a fairly solid grasp of the nature and purpose of these sites in general, although I found some of the scenarios painted—as to the potential and/or planned uses for these sites and the “Tesla” technology—to be unlikely and a little extreme. Hannivig indicated that, in his firm opinion, the Tesla technology, as implemented through HAARP, would be utilized to trigger a major undersea seismic event in the Atlantic during summer 1998. Hannivig pinpointed a target date of August 24, 1998. Coincidentally or not, this date has been mentioned a number of times this year by a number of “psychics”. as a date when a massive cataclysm [of] some kind would occur, resulting in a tidal wave striking the Eastern Coast of North America—and also an exceptionally large hurricane, “Bonnie”, did, indeed, begin to pose a substantial threat to the Eastern seaboard on this very date (no tsunamis or similar cataclysms were generated, however).

I ran Hannivig’s ideas past Preston Nichols and I find myself in agreement with his general assessment of Hannivig’s ideas: Although such a scenario is technically possible, there is way too much the overt government/“Establishment” and the covert government/New World Order would stand to lose—far too much of the country’s and the world’s industry, banking, commerce, wealth and power, as well as great numbers of military, governmental and scientific facilities are centralized or located along the Atlantic Seaboard of the U.S. for such a move to be seriously considered or enacted. Hannivig noted that the Tesla EM/Tx site which would likely implement this would be on the opposite side of the globe—in Australia. Yet, on July 18, 1998, at least three significant tsunamis, caused by a seismic event, occurred in the South Pacific, and as many as 8,000 people—mostly children—may have perished on Papua/New Guinea’s north coast, in addition to which entire villages and a large portion of the whole culture, a way of life, were utterly decimated. The story of this immense human tragedy completely vanished from sight and consciousness within days and was subsequently unilaterally avoided by the mass media—for some strange reason.

My thought was this: Given the undeniable and relentlessly “Nazi”-like, pro-“Aryan” mindset and worldview of so many in the covert government, perhaps the scenario Ron Hannivig envisioned was fairly correct—but in reverse. In other words, perhaps the HAARP facilities on Long Island were utilized to trigger the undersea quake which caused the devastating and deadly tsunamis in New Guinea. After all, nothing vital to Establishment or covert (global) government interests, in terms of global resources or power base, was lost, and no White people perished; only thousands of brown-skinned people's lives were lost.

Mr. Hannivig has commented, in reply, that the Papua/New Guinea tsunamis could have been artificially triggered. One would have to plot the trajectories in terms of the relations to Magnetic North to determine where the Navy's HAARP/Tesla sites would need to be in order to have triggered the undersea tremors off New Guinea and if, in fact, there are such transmitter sites at these locations.

CONCEPTUAL/PHILOSOPHICAL BASIS OF MONTAUK MIND-CONTROL OPERATIONS CONNECTIONS TO OTHER "MK" PROJECTS

[D.C. Hammond on Monarch and MK-ULTRA programming:]

Serious students of mind control may know of this talk by Dr. D.C. Hammond, on artificially-induced Multiple Personality Disorder—i.e., the deliberate fracturing of a person's personality and consciousness coupled with mind "programming", by means of ritualistic, psychosexual abuse, as well as drugs and EM/RF signals. These operations are often carried out by "satanic" cults directly linked to intelligence/military covert government agencies, for the purpose of creating Monarch-type agents. I am including in this report a portion of some of his comments on this topic. I found it to be one of the most lucid and understandable explanations of the entire system and how (tragically well) it works, and has worked, on a truly unbelievable number of people nationwide.

Dr. Hammond has worked closely with a substantial number of victims of government (intelligence)-run mind-control operations, and has a solid grasp of both the overall extent and scope of the programs, and also the impact of these kinds of activities upon the personal lives of those unfortunate enough to have been subjected to them. [Dr. Hammond:]

"At the end of World War II, before it even ended, Allen Dulles and people from our Intelligence Community were already in Switzerland making contact to get out Nazi scientists. As World War II ends, they not only get out rocket scientists, but they also get out some Nazi doctors, who have been doing mind-control research in the camps. They brought them to the United States.

"What they basically do is they will get a child and they will start this, in basic forms, it appears, by about two-and-a-half, after the child's already been made dissociative. They'll make him dissociative not only through abuse, like sexual abuse, but also things like putting a mousetrap on their fingers and teaching the parents, 'You do not go in until the child stops crying. Only then do you go in and remove it.'

"They start in rudimentary forms at about two-and-a-half and kick into high gear, it appears, around six or six-and-a-half, continuing through adolescence with periodic reinforcements in adulthood. Basically in the programming the child will be put, typically, on a gurney. They will have an IV in one hand or arm. They'll be strapped down, typically naked.

"There'll be wires attached to their head to monitor electroencephalograph patterns. They will see a pulsing light, most often described as red, occasionally white or blue. They'll be given, most commonly, I believe, Demerol. Sometimes it'll be other drugs, as well, depending on the kind of programming. They have it, I think, down to a science where they've learned you give so much every twenty-five minutes until the programming is done. They then will describe a pain in one ear, their right ear, generally, where it appears a needle has been placed, and they will hear weird, disorienting sounds in that ear while they see photic stimulation to drive the brain into a brainwave pattern with a pulsing light at a certain frequency, not unlike the goggles that are now available through Sharper Image and some of those kinds of stores. Then, after a suitable period, when they're in a certain brainwave state, they will begin programming—programming oriented to self-destruction and debasement of the person. In a patient, at this point in time about eight years old, who has gone through a great deal [of] early programming that took place on a military installation—that's not uncommon.

"I've treated and been involved with cases that are part of this original mind-control project, as well as having their programming on military reservations, in many cases. We find a lot of connections with the CIA. This patient, now, was in a Cult school, a private Cult school, where several of these sessions occurred a week. She would go into a room and get all hooked up. They would do all of these sorts of things. When she was in the proper, altered state, now they were no longer having to monitor it with electroencephalographs, she also had already had placed on her—electrodes, one in the vagina, for example, four on the head. Sometimes they'll be on other parts of the body. They would then begin and they would say to her, 'You are angry with someone in the group.' She'd say, 'No, I'm not,' and they'd violently shock her. They would say the same thing until she complied and didn't make any negative response. Then they would continue. 'And because you are angry with someone in the group,' or 'When you are angry with someone in the group, you will hurt yourself. Do you understand?' She said, 'No', and they shocked her. They repeated again, 'Do you understand?' 'Well, yes, but I don't want to.' Shock her again until they get compliance. Then they keep adding to it.

"And you will hurt yourself by cutting yourself. Do you understand?' Maybe she'd say yes, but they might say, 'We don't believe you' and shock her anyway. 'Go back and go over it again.' They would continue in this sort of fashion. She said typically it seemed as though they'd go about thirty minutes, take a break for a smoke or something and come back. They may review what they'd done and stop, or they might review what they'd done and go on to new material. She said the sessions might go half an hour, [or] they might go three hours; she estimated three times a week.

"Programming [occurred] under the influence of drugs in a certain brainwave state, and with these noises in one ear, and them speaking in the other ear, usually the left ear, associated with right-hemisphere, non-dominant brain functioning, and with them talking, therefore, and requiring intense concentration and intense focusing. Often they'd have to memorize and say certain things back, word-perfect, to avoid punishment, shock, and other kinds of things that were occurring. This is basically how a lot of programming goes on. Some of it'll also use other typical brainwashing kinds of techniques. There will be very standardized types of hypnotic things done at times. There'll be sensory deprivation, which we know increases suggestibility in anyone. [Under] total sensory deprivation, suggestibility has significantly increased, from the research. It's not uncommon for them to use a great deal of that, including formal sensory-deprivation chambers before they do certain of these things.

"Now the problem is, there are many different layers of alternate personalities with this stuff. What we have up here are innumerable alters...we found out that all of this great work had done nothing but deal with the alters up here and had not touched the mind-control programming. In fact, it was not only intact, but we found one who was having her therapy monitored every session by her mother, out-of-state, over the telephone, and that she still had intact suggestions that had been given to her to kill her therapist at a certain future time.

"...I have the very uncomfortable feeling from some past experience that, when you look at this, you will find the large proportion of ritual-abuse victims in this country are having their ongoing therapy monitored.

"I remember a woman who came in, about twenty-four years old and claimed her father was a Satanist. Her parents divorced when she was six. After that it would only [happen] when her father had visitation and he would take her to rituals sometimes, up until age fifteen. She said, 'I haven't gone to anything since I was fifteen.' Her therapist believed this at face value. We sat in my office. We did a two-hour inquiry using hypnosis. We found the programming present. In addition to that, we found that every therapy session was debriefed and, in fact, they had told her to get sick and not come to the appointment with me. Another one had been told that I was [with a] Cult and that, if she came, I would know that she'd been told not to come and I would punish her. If anything meaningful comes out in a patient who's being monitored like that—from what I've learned thus far, they're tortured with electric shocks—my belief is if they're in that situation, you can't do meaningful therapy, other than being supportive, and caring, and letting them know you care a lot and you'll be there to support them. But I wouldn't try to work with any kind of deep material or deprogramming with them, because I think it can do nothing but get them tortured and hurt, unless they can get into a safe, secure inpatient unit for an extended period of time to do some of the work required. I have a feeling that, when you make inquiries, you're going to find that probably greater than fifty percent of these patients, if they're bloodline, meaning mother or dad or both involved, will be monitored on some ongoing basis. [Pause]

"The way you create Manchurian Candidates is you divide the mind. It's part of what the Intelligence Community wanted to look at. If you're going to get an assassin, [if] you're going to get somebody to go do something, you divide the mind. It fascinates me about cases like the assassination of Robert Kennedy, where Bernard Diamond, on examining Sirhan Sirhan, found that he had total amnesia of the killing of Robert Kennedy but, under hypnosis, could remember it. But, despite suggestions he would be able to consciously remember, Sirhan could not remember a thing after he was out of hypnosis. I'd love to examine Sirhan Sirhan."—© Dr. D. Corydon Hammond

CONNECTIONS TO RELIGIONS AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS / SYSTEMS

THE MORMONS

From "Sue Ellen", a well-known Mormon singer:

"One thing which has been cropping up more and more in the info I've been getting is the tremendously extensive use of children in mind-control operations and the unbelievably high level of infiltration into the child-care and education systems on the part of agencies carrying out these operations. The following was e-mailed to me in 1998 by a woman who has lived much of her life immersed in the world of the Church of the Latter Day Saints, as well as government, psychosexual-abuse, mind-control programs linked to military bases and kiddie-porn operations.

"First off, I am one of 13 children. I am also a professional singer. I have three CDs and 9 cassettes that I have produced for the Mormon (LDS) music market. I am kind of famous in my market and have won what you might call 'grammy' awards. My albums sell all over the world.

"I was raised by Vandenberg Air Force Base in Santa Maria (Santa Barbara County), California. My sisters Eve and Louisa have worse stories than mine, but let's just say we've all experienced some crazy times. My mother was a religious fanatic. She was third-generation incest. My father was secretive and also religiously 'affected', even though he did not practice what he preached. His mother molested him. We were the 'perfect' large Mormon family. My dad was a music teacher. My Mom produced babies almost every year that I remember growing up. I was the second mom by the time I was six years old and learned how to cook and do laundry. My Dad was apparently into child pornography and 'sold' us to the government.

"When my sister, Eve, was reportedly gang-raped when she was 11, she started running away and was put into a Catholic convent in Los Angeles—(this is really, really strange considering how Catholics and Mormons get along). I am sure she was MK-ULTRA'd there. Her story is very interesting and is picked up in the military, where there was a base she was on that served up a lot of drugs. She says that Crystal Gayle and a well-dressed man asked her to mule drugs for her 'country'. He spilled a file on my whole family in front of her on the floor. She picked it up and saw every one of us in it! She says we were all sold to the government, according to him. She also says that everyone on that base, almost, is now famous! It was like an entertainment base...training ground for the MK stars. She names a lot of them. She is a multiple personality, and a recovering alcoholic and drug abuser. It took me many years to get this all out of her. Now her life makes sense to me.

"Louisa, my other sister, had hysterical black-out/non-breathing spells since the day she was born. I know now that she was a victim of sexual molestation from my dad (her primary caretaker at the time). She remembers it until she was four or five. Memories keep coming up for her. She was also molested at age sixteen, when my dad 'flipped out' and had full-penetration sex with her. He ran away to Hawaii and wrote me on an old garbage bag that he didn't remember what he did and that he was sorry. I was a very religious girl at the time, and I thought the world had come to an end and was just 'waking up' to the possibility of these horrible things happening to people.

"Did I tell you that Louisa (one of my sisters that worked for the Pentagon), just told me about another memory about Vandenberg AFB, where she remembers being hooked up to this helmet with wires. She got sick when the memory was coming up. She's had so many of them, she knows what to expect now and gets through it all better than she used to.

"My family is a nightmare. Anyway, Louisa ended up working for a man that was third from the top at the Pentagon. She worked as his assistant and decoded top-secret government files (all in Disney and Alice in Wonderland, etc. language), and made reservations for his regular trips to Santa Rosa, where he would meet his buddies at the 'good ole' boys' fart club there. You've probably heard of Bohemian Grove. She was 'losing' time, on occasion, and was eventually raped by this man. When she tried to go through even the proceedings to indict him, she was unsuccessful and bullied. She quit the armed services and has had a family of six children. She is just now waking up to what has happened to her and the memories are surfacing. I am worried for what they may have programmed into her when she wakes up!

"Anyway, to my story. As if my family of origin wasn't bad enough. My husband's family is involved, too! My husband's dad was in the Army (a colonel) and Navy and is now retired. He would take the kids to Disneyland every year for ten years, while he learned [from] some ridiculous language school for the Army (a language he cannot even speak hardly a word of to this day when asked, so I think this was a cover for what he was really doing). He was a member of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and became a Mormon Bishop. Sounds great, huh? The only problem is, I found out he molested a niece in the family and had never 'repented' before accepting the 'calling from the Lord' as BISHOP! Red flags started going up all over for me. His family is even worse than mine!

"I could go on. It's too long.

"Anyway, that's a start. These are painful memories and

I want to see that those bastards that are playing around with people's emotions get what they karmically deserve AS SOON AS POSSIBLE! I want to, however, stay out of fear and not give in to hate. But let me know how I can help you GET THESE GUYS! THERE'S ONLY A FEW OF THEM AND A WHOLE LOT OF US!!

"I hope that's enough of an advantage.

"There was a report done by the 'Strengthening the Saints Committee', where they asked a sort of high-ranking church official to do a study and report. He interviewed 60 victims of satanic-ritual abuse. These Satanic-Ritual-Abuse victims pulled the lid off Pandora's box by all saying pretty much the same thing: 'They took me to the church/temple to get baptized. They dunked me. I think they were trying to drown me. They asked if I loved Jesus. I said yes. They dunk me again. They ask if Jesus will save me. I say yes, they dunk me again. This goes on and on and Jesus doesn't save me. Then Satan comes and saves me and he's the one who really loves me and now I will do anything he says.'

"They have all seen murder. Some have participated and remember it. They all have emerging memories in their 30s and 40s. That is when this stuff comes out. Anyway, a lot of them are under psychiatric care and many were referred by the psychiatric world, where split personalities are becoming so common because of these rituals. They are so horrific that the victims simply can't endure unless they run away into another personality that's stronger or whatever. It's the saddest thing in the world. These are sadistic soul murderers."—© "Sue Ellen"

THE PALLOTINE GROUP

Another connection to organized religion surfaced when Preston Nichols was working with Air Force agents in deprogramming a number of "Montauk Boys" at Sag Harbor, as noted in the section of this report on corroborative evidence. The Pallotine group, by means of various youth-related services and facilities, has been tied to the procurement of children for use in the project. Preston Nichols called it a monastic order working with the secret government to help train an elite fighting group of children along the lines of Delta Forces. Strangely, the Pallotines, considered to be a "militant" order by the Roman Catholic Church, are said to have extensive interactions and liaisons, as well, with many other organized religions. The unfortunate children are procured for the Project through various youth-related services and facilities operated by the Pallotine group, and those deemed suitable for such "service" to their unconstitutional, secret government are funneled through the Pallotine network into the Montauk Project. Judging by some photos on the Pallotine web site, these "fathers" look like real CIA types. They have a remarkably creepy message on the web-site also, which reads, in part—"for those that have gone astray...this is where you will find your salvation" and that "Jesus is going to refresh and REMAKE you". I definitely won't be planning to worship at these guys' church!

Though this may sound somewhat hokey and not particularly significant or relevant in the bigger picture, I can say this: Preston Nichols feels that the information he has found out relating to the Pallotines and many of the world's organized religions, is a major aspect of the Phoenix/Montauk Project which, until now, has been almost entirely unknown and completely hidden. Due to what he feels is the extreme emotionalism and, at times, irrational nature of how many relate to religious beliefs in our world, Preston Nichols stated that he is NOT going to publicize the information he has uncovered regarding the Pallotine organization. Because it exposes the deep involvement of many organized religions in the mind manipulations perpetrated against humanity by the covert world government, it is severely damaging to these religions, and it could lead to an extraordinarily volatile and dangerous situation for him personally.

OTHER LINKS

The Order of the Rosy Cross as well [as] the Knights of Malta (to which George Bush belongs) and also the Skull and Bones Society (to which both Bush and supposed political rival Bill Clinton both belong) have been mentioned as other religious or "philosophical" organizations which have been and are linked to the Montauk Boys operations and are tied in fundamental ways to the New World Order in general. In addition, the various organizations mentioned are linked to Masonic systems.

TIES TO THE MILITARY

Substantial and virtually indisputable evidence of direct links between certain military agencies and a number of mind-control operations has already been well documented by other writers and researchers, and some new evidence is provided in this report in the preceding material by the Mormon singer "Sue Ellen", regarding child abuse and psychosexual programming at California's Vandenberg Air Force Base in Santa Barbara County.

Worthy of special note regarding this topic is the body of information relating to the Monarch Project operation at San Francisco's Presidio Army base, in which hundreds of children at the Child Development Center's day-care facility on the base were subjected to psychosexual mind-control programming under the general direction of Army Colonel Michael Aquino. An intelligence officer with extensive and significant connections to the CIA and other intelligence agencies, Aquino also ran and operated the "Temple of Set", a Church of Satan offshoot based in San Francisco. Due to major ties to the CIA on the part of Aquino and other principal defendants, and just as in the McMartin Preschool case in Los Angeles County, no one was ever found guilty in the Presidio case, despite substantial hard evidence and the testimony of hundreds of youngsters, parents and mental health-care professionals.

From Judith—who provided some very interesting information noted earlier in this report on some unusual occurrences in NYC and Long Island on or around August 12, 1983 (a highly significant date in the Philadelphia/Montauk [Phoenix] saga), comes testimony which corroborates so much other information on the ritualistic abuse of children in programming/mind-control operations, designed to create " sleeper" agents with thoroughly controlled alternate personalities. [Judith:]

"Thanks so much for the articles and your recent correspondences. I have not gone over the articles in depth, but the info in your letters has me very intrigued. You certainly have done your research.

"I am most interested in the underground info you may have delved into.

"My father, an AF colonel, graduated from West Point [in] 1944. I lived there as an infant in the early 1950s. Yeah—there WERE tunnels at West Point—most notably under the day-care center. Children were assaulted there, my sister and I both. Some very sadistic acts [were] going on there.

VAMPIRESQUE-CULTS IN THAT AREA.

"Also, [there were] a great deal of extra frequencies in and around West Point and that whole area. [There's] not a question and they continue today. There are particular buildings at West Point which have definite frequency problems. Those of us who seem to be much more attuned to the change in frequency levels (my theory is that all military people have been set-up with implants—possibly mind controlled, too—and are thus very sensitive to changes in frequencies in the air in any environment), notice these changes from one city-town-territory to the next. I am sure that Montauk is filled with frequency problems and is, hence, quite magnetic and charged.

BLOOD LINES

Research has shown an extraordinarily high level of involvement on the part of certain families or clans—blood-lines, in other words—in a great many inter-dimensional activities and related operations along the lines of Philadelphia/Montauk; members of which apparently possess specific psychic and genetic characteristics, which facilitate certain of these endeavors. Many of these blood-lines are German (Teutonic) and/or Celtic.

The primary psychic used in the “heyday” of the Montauk activities up until 1983 was Duncan Cameron, directly related to the truly horrible Ewen Cameron, who conducted the well-known, experimental, mind-control research (mostly drug-based with some EM/RF aspects also) at Montreal’s Allan Memorial Institute (mostly in the 1960s and early 1970s).

Duncan’s father was deeply involved with clandestine (and not-so-clandestine) government agencies, which funneled hordes of Nazi officials and scientists into this country; much of this well before the end of WW II. The Kennedy clan is historically related to the Cameron clan, and Joseph Kennedy, in his office as U.S. ambassador to Great Britain, was unabashed in support of Hitler, even after WW II began—in direct conflict with the position and wishes of his president, Franklin Roosevelt.

Masterminds of Philadelphia/Montauk and related operations are thoroughly tied to the Nazi/Aryan agenda and even for lower-level, non-esoteric, non-critical activities and experiments will often utilize subjects with “Aryan” genetic characteristics and blood-lines: these people are often of German or Celtic descent. The reason these groups have been “selected” (let’s not say “chosen”) for such a thoroughly unenviable distinction in connection with such activities, is due to what project operators believe are strong psychic, intuitive and mystical/magical abilities inherent in people of these races.

To whatever extent this may be true, those of Celtic/German descent are most unfortunately being exploited in service of a truly hellish and near-unremittably-evil agenda. It seems more and more evident that cherishers of true human dignity and freedom must all use any powers we do, indeed, possess; such as positivity of thought and strength of mind, body and spirit, used with compassion and insight, to overturn and counteract the operations of these despoilers of humanity to the greatest extent possible.

Aleister Crowley, a British-Intelligence agent with strong sympathies for the Nazi movement, in addition to (being) a well-known “mystic”, was thoroughly in on much of this type of skullduggery earlier in the century, employing his own peculiar mixture of mysticism, Aryan fascism, elements of psychosexual mind (and astral) programming and cloak-and-dagger weirdness. The Crowleys also reputedly have clan connections to the prominent mystical family, Cameron, and Aleister, himself, had strong connections to Montauk.

SCIENTOLOGY / DIANETICS

Another family name which Peter Moon has found [that] crops up in this field with notable frequency is Wilson. One member of the Wilson clan who has been very influential in the modern world—and who has been consistently in opposition, certainly, to some of the agendas of the secret (worldwide) government—is L. Ron Hubbard, founder of Scientology. Hubbard is the name of his adoptive parents but he was born a Wilson. Peter Moon was fairly high up in the Scientology network in the 1970s when Hubbard was quite active, personally and has researched this genetic angle exhaustively. Whatever one’s personal views on Scientology (and by many indications it’s been thoroughly subverted by infiltrators after Hubbard’s death), they did seem to be dedicated to a relatively enlightened agenda, which sought real psychological clarity and freedom from pathological, knee-jerk states of mind imprinted onto our subconscious from past traumatic events, even prior to the present lifetime. It’s an undeniable fact that Hubbard and Scientology were mercilessly and relentlessly hounded and harassed by Federal authorities back when he was alive (and likely since!)—way beyond any reasonable degree—and that alone would give one reason to think that he was probably on to something both important and positive.

Though not publicized much in the more popular, “outer” teachings of Dianetics, those in Hubbard’s inner circles were quite aware that some of his non-published, internal material which Hubbard allowed access to, addressed very specifically ill-intentioned extra-terrestrials or extra-dimensionals, which capture human souls—usually between lifetimes. These beings implant (false) spiritual, psychological, even sociopolitical concepts designed to keep souls trapped and enslaved, as it were—by continually and endlessly reincarnating into an external reality or world already heavily controlled and manipulated in so many ways; by those who maintain and broadcast the dominant “frequencies” which make up the (quantum/electromagnetic) matrix of our perceived and experienced reality, via such operations as the Montauk Project. This fits some vast agenda of human spiritual (and physical!) enslavement and corresponding conditions; a longstanding agenda of the secret, cultic “governments” which support, further and foster this ongoing mass manipulation of the human race through the indoctrinated and/or enforced political, religious and other social systems.

William Bramley’s exceptional book, The Gods Of Eden, one of the more unusual “UFO” books ever written, covers this very angle in tremendous detail and provides ample documentation that the predominant “control group” which attempts to run the show here on Earth, as manifested in the ruling secret brotherhoods/societies/governments (i.e. the Bilderbergers, CFR and the like) is inextricably tied to specific ET groups.

As for further information on L. Ron Hubbard, he did a stint in Naval Intelligence, where he assimilated a lot of the information the government had amassed resulting from their research and experiments into drug-based mind manipulation and narcosynthesis—this in the 1930s! Hubbard took the information and techniques and applied them in a methodology supposedly aimed at “empowering” (in pc 90s-speak) and liberating people on very fundamental, psychological levels from ingrained, encoded (often deliberately) “engramatic” behavior and states of mind, usually programmed by traumatic means (intentionally or not). It does not seem as though Hubbard wanted to be a cult leader, no matter how the government has tried to portray him, and much of his work comes across as predominantly sane and useful.

Hubbard was vehemently opposed to psychiatry and, in particular (interestingly enough!), to the ubiquitous Dr. Ewen Cameron, who at different times has been—incredibly—the president of the American Psychiatric Association, the Canadian Psychiatric Association and the World Psychiatric Association. In light of that, and given Ewen Cameron’s truly odious, cruel, horrible and unpardonable activities, any reasonable person would be more than a little suspicious of the motives and agenda of psychiatry in general, as Hubbard most certainly was. Far too often, psychiatry is used as a tool of social behavioral control and modification, used to force subjects’ minds to conform to certain concepts, beliefs, structures and mores imposed from without; structures which, again, nearly always reinforce the wishes and aims of society’s prevailing rulers and of the status quo.

Montauk Project author Peter Moon was a Scientology member and occasionally worked directly with Hubbard. Moon seems certain that Hubbard was pretty much on the opposite team, certainly in terms of the known objectives of Phoenix/Montauk, regarding “mind control”. Moon believes Hubbard to have been, on the whole, dedicated to the personal spiritual emancipation of human beings from programming of virtually any kind, and my admittedly skimpy knowledge of Scientology/Dianetics would tend to back that up. I think the movement has suffered from a personality-cult syndrome, and that Hubbard may have had a bit of a messiah complex running, but I do find some quite worthwhile elements in the Dianetics material.

Hubbard was, of course, a participant in the so-called “Babylon Working”, some mystical ceremony enacted along with fellow Aleister Crowley adherents, Jack (JPL/Cal-Tech/Father of modern rocketry) Parsons and Marjorie Wilson-Cameron. This ceremony has been said to have certain esoteric correspondences with the Philadelphia Experiment and may have (helped) open some dimensional channel, enabling negative ETs easier access to our dimension/reality—a new freeway was put in.

Perhaps, to that extent, Hubbard was some kind of influence on the more mystical aspects of the Montauk/Phoenix operation, but I see little evidence he would have supported the specific goals of the project at all.

Perhaps it would be best to note, however, that there are a substantial number of people who dispute that statement and would even dispute that Hubbard and his organizations ever had any beneficial, humanitarian or positive goals and agendas at all.

STANFORD, SCIENTOLOGY AND THE CIA

Interestingly, other information about the connection of certain Scientology members to some of the secret government’s “unusual” experimental research activities comes from premiere mind-control researcher and author Alex Constantine, who has authored a wealth of excellent books and articles on the general topic of government-sponsored, administered and operated mind-control projects, including certain of those based on electromagnetic/radio-frequency transmissions.

I quote below a section called “Psychic Spying at the Stanford Research Institute Or CIA Mind Control?” from Constantine’s Virtual Government:

“Concrete evidence that electronic mind control was the true object of study at Stanford Research Institute (SRI) was exposed by the Washington Post in 1977. When the Navy awarded a contract to the Institute, the scientific assistant to the Secretary of the Navy, Dr. Sam Koslov, received a routine briefing on various research projects, including SRI’s. As the briefer flashed his chart onto the screen and began to speak, Koslov stormily interrupted, ‘What the hell is that about?’ Among the glowing words on the projected chart, the section describing SRI’s work was labeled, ‘ELF and Mind Control’.

“‘ELF’ stands for ‘extremely long [low] frequency’ electromagnetic waves, from the very slow brain frequencies up to about 100 cycles-per-second...But the ‘Mind Control’ label really upset Koslov. He ordered the SRI investigations for the Navy stopped, and canceled another $35,000 in Navy funds slated for more remote-viewing work. Contrary to Koslov’s attempt to kill the research, the Navy quietly continued to fork out $100,000 for a two-year project directed by a bionics specialist. The “remote viewing” team at SRI was really engaged in projecting words and images directly to the cranium. It was not a humanitarian pastime: The project was military, and test subjects are subjected to a lifetime of EM torture, plied with the same thorough disregard for human rights as the radiation tests conducted at the height of the Cold War. To be sure, the treatment subjects have received at the hands of their own government would be considered atrocities if practiced in wartime.

“Mind control was also used in domestic covert operations designed to further the CIA’s heady ambitions, and during the Vietnam War period SRI was a hive of covert political subterfuge. The Symbionese Liberation Army, like the People’s Temple, was a creation of the CIA. The SLA had at its core a clique of Black ex-convicts from Vacaville Prison. Donald DeFreeze, otherwise known as “Cinque”, led the SLA. He was formerly an informant for the LAPD’s Criminal Conspiracy Section and the director of Vacaville’s Black Cultural Association (BCA), a covert mind-control unit with funding from the CIA channeled through SRI. The Menlo Park behavior-modification specialists experimented with psychoactive drugs administered to members of the BCA. Black prisoners were programmed to murder selected Black leaders—once on the outside. The CIA/SRI zombie-killer hit list included Oakland school superintendent Dr. Marcus Foster, and Panthers Huey Newton and Bobby Seale, among others. DeFreeze stated that at Vacaville in 1971-72, he was the subject of a CIA mind-control experiment. He described his incarceration on the prison’s third floor, where he was corralled by CIA agents who drugged him and said he would become the leader of a radical movement and kidnap a wealthy person. After his escape from Vacaville (an exit door was left unlocked for him), that’s exactly what he did.

“EM mind-control machines were championed at SRI by Dr. Karl Pribram, director of the Neuropsychology Research Laboratory: ‘I certainly could educate a child by putting an electrode in the lateral hypothalamus and then selecting the situations at which I stimulate it. In this way I can grossly change his behavior.’ Psychology Today touted Pribram as ‘The Magellan of Brain Science’. He obtained his B.S. and M.D. degrees at the University of Chicago, and at SRI studied how the brain processes and stores sensory imagery. He is credited with discovering that mental imaging bears a close resemblance to hologram projection (the basis for transmitting images to the brains of test subjects under the misnomer ‘remote viewing’?).

“The SRI/SAIC psi experiments were supervised at Langley by John McMahan, second in command under William Casey, succeeding Bobby Ray Inman, the SAIC director. McMahan has, according to Philip Agee, the CIA whistle-blowing exile, an affinity for ‘technological exotics for CIA covert actions’. He was recruited by the Agency after his graduation from Holy Cross College. He is a former director of the Technical Services Division, deputy director for Operations, and in 1982 McMahan was appointed deputy director of Central Intelligence. He left the Agency six years later to take the position of President of the Lockheed Missiles and Space Systems Group. In 1994, he moved on to Draper Laboratories. He is a director of the Defense Enterprise Fund and an adviser to congressional committees.

“Many of the SRI ‘empaths’ were mustered from L. Ron Hubbard’s Church of Scientology. Harold Puthoff, the Institute’s senior researcher, is a leading Scientologist. Two ‘remote viewers’ from SRI have also held rank in the Church: Ingo Swann, a Class VII Operating Thetan, a founder of the Scientology Center in Los Angeles, and the late Pat Price. Puthoff and Targ’s lab assistant was a Scientologist married to a minister of the church. When Swann joined SRI, he stated openly that fourteen ‘Clears’ participated in the experiments ‘more than I would suspect’. At the time, he denied CIA involvement, but now acknowledges, ‘it was rather common knowledge all along who the sponsor was’, although in documents the identity of the Agency was concealed behind the sobriquet of ‘an East-Coast scientist’. The Agency’s interest was quite extensive.

“A number of agents of the CIA came, themselves, ultimately to SRI to act as subjects in ‘remote viewing’ experiments, as did some members of Congress.”—© 1996 Alex Constantine

STANFORD ALLEGEDLY INVOLVED IN CIA IMPLANT/MIND-CONTROL EXPERIMENTATION

In a rare example of a crack in the mass media’s wall of silence and coverup regarding mind-control projects in general and electronic mind control in particular, the Sonoma County Independent weekly newspaper, in their July 9, 1998 edition, featured a front-page article on electronic mind manipulation by the means of surgically-implanted micro-transceivers.

The article focuses primarily on the case of a Silicon Valley family; in particular, activities involving their son. Writer J. Douglas Allen-Taylor details a litany of horrors suffered by the Kats family at the hands of “scientists” and “doctors” working at Stanford University Medical Center facilities, in the service of government intelligence agencies; pursuing extensive mind-control agendas, which utilize physical implants for monitoring, tracking and activating pre-encoded psychological “triggers”.

Edward and Claudia Kats, Russian immigrants who left when Russia was still part of the Soviet Union, relate how their son, Jay, was first implanted during a 1982 tonsillectomy operation at Stanford Medical Center. Edward attests that he, himself, was then implanted during an operation at Kaiser Hospital in 1991. They suspect that the initial reason for the interest on the part of the CIA was the family’s suspected but nonexistent connection to the KGB. Subsequent experimentation continued even after the agency realized there was no such connection, as [their] son, Jay, was inducted into a full-on mind-control operation. The article mentions the blond-haired, blue-eyed appearance of Jay, and this makes me suspicious that perhaps the real reason for the interest on the part of the CIA has to do with genetic/racial factors.

The Kats describe how the implants affected Jay’s mood, mental acuity, attitudes towards other people...the works. His school performance deteriorated tremendously and he began to get in trouble with the law.

They believe he and Edward are the targets of transmissions, which are intended to induce them to commit any of a wide range of preprogrammed actions—even crimes. Claudia noted in the article that threats, “bad thoughts” and negative, (self)-destructive concepts and attitudes or “feelings” are also transmitted.

Edward Kats feels that large segments of the population, in particular racial minorities, are being subjected to the same kind of programming; for one reason, to instigate continual social/civil unrest and disturbances. The Katses and their legal representatives have filed formal and well-documented complaints and reports with a host of law-enforcement, judicial and other governmental agencies on many levels. Predictably, no serious interest has been shown nor any actions taken in response to the charges.

Another Silicon Valley resident mentioned in the article is David Duval, who feels he was implanted because of his suspected links to illegal drug trafficking and is being used in the expectation that he can help track the whereabouts of certain kingpins in illegal drug operations. Santa Clara University law professor Alan Schefflin, author of a very hard-to-find 1978 book called The Mind Manipulators, says that clandestine mind-control experiments have been going on in the U.S. for many years, and that a good number of these involve implantation with just the kinds of devices referred to in the above allegations.

THE LONG ISLAND RAILROAD MASSACRE

In late October of 1997, Investigative Report on the Arts & Entertainment Network carried a report on the Colin Ferguson murder trial. Ferguson had been found guilty of murdering six and wounding another thirteen during a deadly and inexplicable outburst aboard a Long Island Railroad commuter train in late 1993.

A brief segment towards the end of the A&E report showed reporters interviewing a “Raoul Diaz”, outside the courthouse where Ferguson’s murder trial was in progress. Diaz, who had appeared to testify in Ferguson’s behalf, described how he had been kidnapped while driving a taxi in the Bronx, and subsequently placed on a Long Island Railroad train at Penn Station, bound for Hicksville. Someone of Oriental appearance, sitting directly adjacent to him on the train, displayed a small handheld device and commented that he was employed by the CIA. He said to Diaz, “look at that Black man over there”, then pressed something on the device and Ferguson immediately fell unconscious. Appearing visibly ill-at-ease during the interview, Diaz nervously continued with his astonishing account when someone behind him whispered something, and the interview was terminated abruptly.

There was no explanation offered—by either those conducting the interview at the time or by the producers of the A&E report—for the information related by Diaz. The intended inference would seem to be that this was just some screwball, though he certainly didn’t appear so. Diaz came across as coherent, rational and credible and gave no indication of being a “wacko”.

Diaz was not allowed to testify at the Ferguson trial by Ferguson and/or the judge and, to my knowledge, no other witnesses—who had some other peculiar and troubling information to impart about that train ride to hell—ever got to testify either. Diaz has literally never been heard from again, certainly not in any public way. [It seems] strange, as well, that Ferguson, a man with some obvious and substantial mental impairment, was allowed by the judicial system, in a blatant procedural anomaly, to conduct his own defense—which, though technically permitted under the U.S. Constitution, is almost never granted in practice in a mass-murder case such as this, with good reason.

I first heard this information in 1995 from Montauk Project book series co-author Peter Moon, about the Oriental man who urged Diaz to observe how the small, handheld, remote-control transmitter could make Ferguson nod off. Why Diaz would have been kidnapped and placed on the train, to so observe the clandestine technology, which apparently activated the terrifying and deadly proceedings, is anyone’s guess. How interesting that this took place on Long Island. Notice we are talking about electromagnetic/radio-frequency mind control here—the undeniable specialty of the Montauk Project.

It could be that the killings were an attempt to exacerbate racial tensions in the New York area, which had already been rather strained for years. Or maybe only one or several of those killed were actually the real, intended victims and the mass shooting was to cover up that fact—as it would look like the target(s) died by chance with the others in an indiscriminate mass shooting.

Perhaps this was a preliminary test-run of technology which could subsequently have been used in the astonishing number of mass murders committed by young teen or preteen boys in the past couple of years in the United States—often at schools.

REAL GOLD, PAPER GOLD AND FOOL'S GOLD: THE PATHOLOGY OF INFLATION

By Reg Howe, 10/16/99

There was a time when, as someone recently said, everybody and his cat knew the difference between real gold and paper gold. But today's kool cats, if they own gold at all (which few do), are too smart to pay storage or insurance on allocated gold, too sophisticated to tie up funds in stodgy old coins or bullion bars with no yield, and too greedy to forswear the allure of maximum leverage. Gold investors, on the other hand, know gold first and foremost as a portfolio anchor to windward, a shelter in a monetary storm. Ashanti and Cambior [companies] are examples of apparently good hooks that dragged badly at the first stormy blasts. Why?

The nub of the problem is to recognize that, while the line between real gold and paper gold is quite clear, the line between paper gold and fool's gold can be a moving target. Paper gold is all paper instruments credibly repayable in, or otherwise linked to, gold. Fool's gold is paper gold that lacks credibility. Typical examples include unallocated gold in unsound banks, options or futures on gold from parties that may not be able to deliver and mining shares in companies whose ore deposits or finances are questionable.

To appreciate the potential force of the coming monetary storm, a basic understanding of gold, gold banking, inflation and deflation is essential. Forget the CPI and other such price indices. They are generally lagging indicators of prices in certain sectors of the economy. What is more, the CPI is now subject to so many "adjustments" that its usefulness—except, perhaps, as a tool to reduce government expenses tied to it (e.g., Social Security payments)—is suspect. Forget, too, most blather about whether gold does better in an inflation or a deflation. Gold is insurance against severe currency or credit destruction, whether its precipitating cause be inflation or deflation. Inflation and deflation are, respectively, expanding and contracting credit relative to some reliable measure of money. Historically, the monetary measure was gold, which does not do well in periods of controlled or hidden inflation precisely because more credit can be built on less gold without arousing widespread public alarm. Measuring inflation today is difficult, because what passes for money—unlimited paper currency—is, itself, so intermingled with credit as to make the two virtually indistinguishable. A money-market fund is nothing, really, but short-term credit obligations aggregated to look like what was once a bank account, backed (in a sound bank) by a 40% reserve in gold coin or bullion resting in the vault.

Measuring the amount of real money in the world is no more difficult today than a century ago. It is the total, above-ground, physical-gold stock, now somewhere around 120,000 metric tons (excluding the double-counting of gold leased by central banks but still on their balance sheets). Going off the classical gold standard and the quasi-gold standards that followed, has not changed gold's inherent nature as real, permanent, natural money. What it has done, besides changing, for a time at least, general public perceptions about gold, is to reduce to a small but elite group (international financial institutions like the BIS and IMF, national central banks, bullion banks and their customers, and the gold markets themselves) that portion of the international currency/credit structure directly tied to gold.

The short gold position created by the bullion banks with leased gold, mostly from the central banks, is a fractional-reserve position. This physical gold sold short must, at some point, be replaced, either by purchases in the market or new production. Be this short position 6000 metric tons, 10,000 tons or higher, it is a significant multiple of annual new production of around 2500 tons. Some portion of this short position represents forward sales by gold-mining companies; the remainder is largely borrowed gold used in the so-called carry trade. Accordingly, counting forward sales by gold mining companies as existing gold (which they really aren't), and assuming these contracts cover approximately half of the total short position (as good a guess as any), the gold banks are operating with fractional reserves not far from the minimum safe level of 40% sanctioned by historic experience. Half the physical gold they owe to their lessors must be obtained on the market. What is more, the other half is not really in the vault. It is underground, but in an ore deposit, where it must be dug out, processed and refined before it can be delivered.

On top of this shaky reserve position, the bullion banks have created gold derivatives, principally options and futures. Cambior's hedge book shows how the gold banks have created options for gold in amounts that far exceed the amounts already sold forward by producers. What is more, they have done so primarily in the over-the-counter market, out of public view. The gold banks' exposures—particularly as they relate to the gold-mining industry—are detailed in an excellent article by John Hathaway of the Tocqueville Gold Fund, entitled "Simple Math & Common Sense: A $66 Billion Problem". —(www.tocqueville.com/brainstorms/brainstorm0041.shtml)

All that is reported about the activities of the London Bullion Market Association is its monthly average-daily-clearing volume, a figure that will be quite interesting to watch in the months to come. The LBMA dwarfs the two best-known public markets, the COMEX and the TOCOM which, though smaller, are more transparent. They offer gold-futures contracts where open interest now exceeds warehouse stocks by multiples of 20 or more. On the COMEX, open interest is north of 600 tons (200,000 contracts x 100 / 31250 = 622), against warehouse stocks of some 30 tons. On the TOCOM, where the percentage of coverage appears even lower, open interest has very recently shrunk from over 500 tons to 400 tons on October 7. Fear, perhaps, is hitting the TOCOM a bit before it hits New York.

As I have discussed before, TOCOM futures, which are priced in yen, are in backwardation. The degree of backwardation, however, is more than accounted for by interest-rate differentials between the dollar (in which gold is almost universally priced, internationally) and the yen. In other words, the implied yen forward rate is not what the difference between gold lease rates and yen interest rates would suggest, but less (i.e., a smaller negative percent or discount) than on dollar/yen futures. However, as a result of the backwardation, open interest on the TOCOM is mostly in the further-out months, although this, too, may be beginning to shift.

The COMEX also offers options on futures contracts, where the call open interest at strike prices between $310/oz. and $335/oz. running from November to February exceeds 500,000 contracts, representing futures on another 1500+ tons. Including options, the two public futures markets could be asked to deliver about one full year's production within a year, mostly in December and next spring. This potential obligation has been assumed on the erroneous assumption that, because gold is just another commodity, there is no possibility of ever having to make actual delivery of the total outstanding open interest. With another quick [rise of] $60 on the gold price, all the options will be well in the money, and futures on gold will almost certainly be fool's gold.

But what is most alarming about the strained condition of the gold banks is the larger world financial picture, of which they are a small but very important part. At the macroeconomic level, not only are there eye-popping figures on credit creation, derivative exposures and stock-market valuations, but the potential collapse last year of a single hedge fund, Long Term Capital Management, threatened sufficiently dire consequences for the entire international financial system to warrant a bailout, orchestrated by the Fed and backed by three discount-rate cuts. Determining what paper gold is credible and what isn't is difficult enough under ordinary circumstances. Far harder, and in extraordinary times much more crucial, is gauging external factors—macroeconomic, geopolitical, cultural, whatever—that paper gold and even real gold may have to survive.

The bullion banks and their customers were not caught wrong-footed by a free gold market. They were caught out of position by the first attack in a monetary war that they didn't expect and on terrain that they thought they controlled. The full story of how Anglo-American manipulation of the gold market led to a counterattack by the European central banks is yet to be told, but Ashanti, Cambior and their shareholders are among the first victims. Before the gathering monetary storm is over, there will be many more casualties, caught in the cross-fire as nations fight a currency war the likes of which the world has never seen. Governments who try to wage this war with the weapons of old—forex interventions, interest rate changes, currency controls, gold restrictions, competitive devaluations, etc.—are likely to be overwhelmed by the very free-market principles which they have recently preached, if not always followed. For, in a truly free market for money—one with no legal-tender laws—gold wins.

In the United States, the legal and cultural settings are vastly different from the 1930s or 1970s. As a matter of law, at least, gold is in a free market, hugely complicating the legal basis for any effort at confiscation. Trust in government officials, starting with the President, has never been lower. So turned off to their government are Americans, that nearly half the eligible voters no longer participate. So offended are they by the shenanigans of the two major parties that third-party—or otherwise apparently independent—candidates arouse astonishing levels of interest and support. And then there is the Internet, giving freedom of speech and debate rein to affect public policy as never before while, at the same time, braking the power of the mass media. What is more, the Internet is now as international as gold, giving gold bugs worldwide their own web in which to catch miscreant officials and expose official scams.

So-called "gold clauses" were a standard feature of many private contracts, from the "greenback era" of the Civil War to the midst of the Great Depression, when the monetary measures of the New Deal made them invalid by government fiat. Thus fell, at a blow, supposedly certain protection against the gold devaluation of the dollar, catching off-base the most prudent and best-advised lenders of their era. For ordinary American citizens in that particular financial cataclysm, mining shares proved a much better refuge than physical gold or gold dollars, ownership of which was made illegal on the ridiculous theory that government gave gold its value by making it money. So, too, in 1971, not even an international treaty, the Bretton Woods Agreements, could protect those nations who had placed their reserves in U.S. dollars from a second, unilateral, gold devaluation by the United States. Only the French, by redeeming dollars in gold "avant le déluge" gained a partial measure of protection. The monetary history of the Twentieth Century, for both individual nations and the world at large, is a story of swift and devastating discontinuities, not a linear progression of events.

Today, the evidence points to an impending conjunction of macroeconomic and geopolitical events that will almost certainly sweep from the scene the entire monetary and credit structure erected on floating exchange rates, with the U.S. dollar as the key reserve currency. This lopsided international structure—imposed by and so favorable to the United States that it has for years run balance-of-payments deficits of truly gargantuan proportions—is hopelessly dysfunctional, often placing smaller economies at the mercy of forex [foreign exchange] market speculators. As this structure disintegrates, gold will retake its accustomed place at the heart of the world monetary order, not so much by official choice as by international necessity, enforced by free-market principles that will be virtually impossible for free governments, at least, to resist.

To ask at what price gold [should be] is to misunderstand both the problem and gold. No one could foresee in 1929 that gold, then $20.67/oz., would be $35/oz. in 1934? Similarly, no one could tell in 1971 that gold, then $35/oz., would rise as high as $800/oz. within a decade? What a few could and did predict in the months and years immediately preceding these devaluations was that the world would soon be forced to confront the effects of then-unprecedented credit inflation, built with far too little regard for the underlying amount of gold available to support it. What they also could and did predict was that the existing dollar/gold exchange rate (or price) was too low and would have to rise substantially, to offset what would otherwise be devastating credit deflations. As they say, history repeats, though never in quite the same way.

Eight years ago, in The Golden Sextant, I discussed the problem of setting a new, official, gold price in the context of an orderly return to an international gold standard. Today, 40% gold cover for U.S. currency in circulation would require a gold price of over $800/oz., almost twice the number of eight years ago. Yet, we are constantly told that this is the decade when inflation was vanquished. When gold was at $800/oz., in January 1980, one ounce would buy the Dow Jones Industrial Average, as it would have in 1932, if it had been fixed at $35/oz. two years sooner. If you must guess a future gold price, ask yourself what will be the price when, next, one ounce, two or even three will buy the Dow.

Eight years ago I also held little hope of an orderly return to a gold-linked dollar. By then, American officials of both political parties and all three branches of government had decreed, by their actions over many years, that any formal return to gold would come, if at all, only under almost unimaginable crisis conditions, when the golden lifeboat is the only lifeboat. What historians may call “The Great Gold Scandal” and Americans may call “Moneygate” did not begin just a few years ago, only to surface with the Bank of England’s gold sales. It began in 1971, when President Nixon “closed the gold window” and, for the first time in U.S. history, cut the dollar free from any meaningful link to gold. Compared to what is coming, Watergate was a bagatelle.

It is no accident that Moneygate began with the first President to be driven from office and will likely end with the first in this century to be impeached. Scandals—indeed, the most egregious breaches of public and private trusts—are part of the pathology of all great inflations, a pathology not unlike that of the drunk or the addict. Nowhere is this pathology better described than in today’s addition to my Reading List: Fiat Money Inflation in France, by Andrew Dexter White, founder and first president of Cornell University. This essay, written in 1876 and read by its author to members of the House and Senate in connection with the debate over returning to the gold standard after the Civil War, tells the story of the French assignats of the 1790s. This great paper-money inflation, originating in the French Revolution, ended “in the complete financial, moral and political prostration of France—a prostration from which only a Napoleon could raise it.”

The tragedy for today’s America is not just that the looming monetary shipwreck could have been avoided by more honest policy decisions, but that it would have been, if mostly well-intentioned but misguided officials had stuck to the letter and spirit of the monetary provisions of the Constitution. Its framers knew, when they met in Philadelphia in the hot summer of 1787, what the French were about to prove to themselves the hard way, despite their inflationary experience seventy years before, in John Law’s Mississippi Bubble.

Nobody can predict with certainty or in detail the consequences of a 100-year storm, be it financial and monetary, or meteorological. Gold will more than survive; it will prevail as it always has. Gold mines will prosper, though certain mine owners may fail. With clear thinking, preparation, nerve and luck, gold investors will survive; some may even prosper. As for the nation, let’s hope that aided by their ability to speak directly with each other on the Internet, exercising their good judgment and common sense, the American people will demand for themselves, their children and their Constitution—as is their right in accordance with its exact terms—early passage on the golden lifeboat.

HULDA CLARK CHARGED WITH PRACTICING MEDICINE ILLEGALLY

By Stephanie Holmes, Herald-Times, 10/4/99

A hearing is scheduled today in California to extradite a former Brown County resident back to Indiana on charges of illegally practicing medicine.

Hulda Clark, 70, was arrested Sept. 20 in San Diego on charges of practicing medicine without a license, a Class C felony.

Clark claims she can cure diseases, including cancer and AIDS, with unconventional treatments, which she has been administering at a clinic in Tijuana, Mexico.

Brown County authorities say she was doing the same thing in Nashville in the early 1990s, which amounted to practicing medicine without a license. A warrant for her arrest was issued in 1993.

Brown County Sheriff’s deputies left Friday to pick up Clark. A court hearing for her extradition has been set for today at the San Diego Municipal Court.

She has been detained for being a fugitive in Indiana at Los Colinas, a women’s correctional facility in Santee, Calif. She is being held without bail.

According to a longtime friend, Frank Gerome of Columbus, Clark lived in Nashville for five or six years.

During this time, she further developed her interest in electronic techniques for scanning the human body and began private consulting. She also did government-funded research in biophysics and cell physiology at Indiana University.

Clark has a Ph.D. in physiology but is not a medical doctor...

...Clark’s trouble started in 1992, when one of her former AIDS patients made a complaint to the Indiana attorney general.

“The patient alleged Dr. Clark treated him instead of a physician,” said Brown County Prosecutor James Oliver. “This was a problem, because Indiana law prohibits unlicensed doctors from diagnosing or treating people.”

According to Oliver, further allegations against Clark occurred when the investigating attorney and the Indiana

Department of Health sent two investigators to her office. Clark diagnosed one of the investigators with AIDS.

She sent the investigators to Indianapolis for blood tests. The investigator asked the lab not to draw his blood because he was an undercover investigator.

Within a few days, Clark disappeared. She took all of her belongings and cleared out her house on Cossey-Hill Road in Nashville. Investigators suspected she was tipped off by the lab.

Since then she has written three books: The Cure for all Cancers, The Cure for HIV and The Cure for AIDS, and released much of her information through the Internet.

“Her attitude is that anything she finds, she wants to turn over to the people through books and information,” Gerome said. “She is afraid of having her information being taken, bottled up, monopolized or buried.”

Her books center around her research and the capabilities of the “Zapper”, which is an experimental device that sells for $59.95 on the Internet. Clark says the Zapper has a negative effect on parasites, bacteria and other pathogens that harm the body, which can be found in both cancer and AIDS patients.

“In my opinion, the conventional treatment of cancer and AIDS doesn’t work and has failed in most cases,” said Tim Bolen, whose public relations firm in California issued a news release in support of Clark.

Bolen said he expects 50 to 100 people to show up at the hearing today to protest Clark’s extradition.

[JR: Most CONTACT readers should recall “THE ZAPPER”. Methinks the brave Dr. Clark is getting too close to what can cure, and that is a threat to the plague-inducers. (No, we won’t say CDC.)]

TEEN SEX: THE UNFPA AGENDA

By Beverly LaHaye, CNS News Analysis, 9/14/99

Recently, 17 kids in Pennsylvania, some as young as 10, were caught teaching each other to have sex. Some cases involved incest. Six of the youths were charged in juvenile court for crimes ranging from rape to involuntary deviate sexual intercourse. While these kids await their fate, Congress is poised to pour $25 million into an international agency that will encourage kids around the world to engage in similar sexual activity.

In June, the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) concluded its Cairo+5 conference, reportedly aimed at reducing the world’s population. However, the debate focused on liberalizing views on sexuality. Unfettered access to abortion (surgical and chemical) and contraceptives was championed. Delegates demanded that adolescents as young as 10 receive graphic information through programs that encourage sexual activity.

The controversial document discussed at Cairo+5 states, “Countries should remove legal, regulatory and social barriers to reproductive health information and care for adolescents.” [ICPD, para. 73(f)]. It also declares that adolescents’ “responsible sexual behavior” includes “sexual expression”.

According to the UN, adolescence begins at age 10. The Sexuality Information and Education Council of the United States (SIECUS), a supporter of UNFPA, describes how this language is implemented.

In Guidelines for Comprehensive Sexuality Education, K-12th Grade, SIECUS explains that 12- to 15-year-olds should learn that “being sexual with another person usually involves different sexual behaviors”. 15- to 18-year-olds learn that “some sexual behaviors shared by partners include caressing, massage, sharing erotic literature or art, and oral, vaginal or anal intercourse”.

When the children in Pennsylvania “expressed” what SIECUS and UNFPA promote, authorities deemed the behavior not only immoral and shocking, but also illegal.

A few conscientious delegates at Cairo+5 fought to put this sex training in the context of parental involvement. At the least, parents should be able to know what their kids are taught.

Word spread to Washington, where 33 members of Congress sent a letter to the conference. They declared, "we are increasingly concerned to discover that many delegations negotiating the document under consideration at Cairo+5 are attempting to remove parental rights, especially in reference to adolescent sexuality. We are particularly dismayed that this effort seems to be supported by some employees of the U.S. Department of State."

Disregarding the congressmen, the U.S. delegation stressed that "these policies and programs must be implemented in accordance with the Convention on the Rights of the Child"—a treaty the United States has never ratified, primarily because it strips parents of their right to raise their children with moral boundaries.

Moreover, Clinton-appointed delegates also took the lead in removing the condition that "all population and development programmes maintain full respect for the various religions, ethical values and cultural background of each country's people".

Brazil, working from language drafted by the U.S. delegation, proposed that governments should train and equip abortion providers. A conscience clause for health-care providers who do not want to perform abortions was dropped altogether.

Last year, Congress cut funding for the UNFPA, based on its support of China's population-control programs. But the problem with UNFPA is not limited to its involvement with China's one-child policy and the process that enforces it. It has passed the radical Cairo+5 agenda and sent abortion kits to refugee women from Kosovo.

This year, Congress approved giving $25 million to the UNFPA, with the House including the condition of reducing the amount by $1 for every dollar UNFPA spends on China's program. The amendment is attached to an appropriations bill that is currently in conference committee to work out the differences between the Senate and House versions.

UNFPA receives significant private donations from prominent corporations and people like Microsoft founder Bill Gates, who recently gave $10 million. According to groups that work with UNFPA, its budget is so large they can effectively call their own shots without approval from the UN. So why do supporters, including Hillary Clinton, demand U.S. taxpayers' dollars?...

...You can understand why UNFPA needs American ethical credit for legitimacy. The question is, why are we letting UNFPA use our moral clout to undermine the beliefs that make us moral?—Beverly LaHaye, founder of Concerned Women for America

[JR: Those listening to Dr. Laura Shlessinger on the radio know how strongly she came out against this and made major enemies. Parents' time is running out to get informed, get involved and get serious about what your children are being taught. This IS happening and is already being implemented at your local school district.]

MAKING SCHOOLS MORE HOMOSEXUAL-FRIENDLY

Christian Journal, 10/6/99

ATLANTA, GA (CNS)—More than 700 teachers, administrators, high school and college students and homosexual activists gathered in downtown Atlanta this weekend to strategize on how to make schools around the nation more homosexual-friendly.

The third annual national conference of the Gay, Lesbian and Straight Education Network (GLSEN) featured a keynote address by civil-rights activist and Georgia Democrat Rep.

John Lewis, comic relief by comedienne Margaret Cho, a "prom" for homosexual youth, and symposia on topics such as "Responding to the Religious Right" and "Addressing GLBT (gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered) Issues in Middle School".

Kevin Jennings, founder and executive director of GLSEN, opened the conference by proclaiming, "We are at a new moment in our history."

College freshman Derrick Henckel, who "came out" to parents and friends at age 12, recounted his high school experience, which he said included beatings, name calling and verbal attacks.

"I never knew what awaited me every time I turned a corner," said Henckel. "I can only think what would have happened if there had not been community organizations like GLSEN when I had been in high school."

Lewis' keynote address pledged the support of the civil-rights community for homosexual activists... "We have a moral obligation and a mandate to speak out," continued Lewis. "If we fail to speak out, then we become less than human."

While the conference was spurred by what organizers described as "an atmosphere of fear" that oppresses homosexual students in American schools, symposia focused on the necessity of making today's students more friendly to the homosexual agenda.

"The fear of the Religious Right is that the schools of today are the governments of tomorrow," said Deanna DUBY of the National Education Association at a symposium...

... "If we do our jobs right," added James Anderson, director of communications for GLSEN, "we're going to raise a generation of kids who don't believe [the claims of] the Religious Right."

Strategies discussed included creating Gay-Straight Alliances (GSAs) in high schools and middle schools, including lessons on homosexuals in otherwise unrelated classes—for example, emphasizing homosexual victims of the Holocaust in history classes—and inviting homosexual partners and their adopted children to speak in schools about "diverse families".

Other symposia, such as "The Locker Room: The Last Closet" and "Sports, Sexual Orientation and School Climate", discussed how to make locker rooms safe for homosexual students and how sports may influence a school to be less friendly to homosexual students.

Activists from GLAAD, the Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund (LLDEF), the ACLU and Americans United for Separation of Church and State also gathered with attendees to give tips and trade strategies on how to change school policies on issues such as homosexuality in sex education classes, homosexual literature in school libraries, school-sponsored homosexual student groups and cross-dressing among "transgendered" students, as well as fighting "parental rights" amendments and the elimination of sex education.

"The Right would love to have prayer in schools and religion classes, but they would accept a neutral curriculum that only taught the '3 Rs,'" said Steven K. Green, general counsel of Americans United for Separation of Church and State. "You've got to watch for that sort of watering down of sex-ed in your community."

Cathy Renna, director of community relations of the Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation (GLAAD), told attendees at a symposium on "Responding to the Religious Right" how to approach journalists writing stories on gay issues...

... "If [journalists] do a feature on Gay Pride, they invite the American Family Association to comment," agreed one attendee. "If you did a story on Hanukkah, you wouldn't get the Aryan Nation to comment, would you?"

Above all, presenters and attendees discussed strategies to portray religious voters as extremist and homosexual activists as mainstream.

"We are now in the position of being able to say, we have the high ground, we have the facts, and we don't have to go one-on-one with these people," said Renna. "We've come such a long way—we're the mainstream now."

The GLSEN conference received corporate sponsorship from Levi's, which also provided youth scholarships for more than twenty high school students to attend, as well as American Airlines and several homosexual-orientated businesses.

Exhibitors at the conference included the Log Cabin Republicans, a homosexual GOP group; the U.S. Department of Education; the photo exhibit "Loves Makes a Family"; a study in "family diversity" featured in the film It's Elementary; and Out magazine, which supplied free copies of its latest issue to attendees. The issue included an interview with a male prostitute-turned-author, and a feature story on New York actor Jonah Falcon, which focused on his genitalia.

Other material available at the information booth included the publication Etc., which featured a variety of sexually-explicit advertisements for homosexual gyms, bath houses and phone-sex lines.

[JR: It seems everyone has come out of the closet in Georgia. They are confident that you will not object to your child being taught that a homosexual lifestyle is normal. If you think otherwise—then you will be considered abnormal.]

CINNAMON IS LETHAL WEAPON AGAINST E. COLI

Science News, 8/6/99

When cinnamon is in, Escherichia Coli O157:H7 is out. That's what researchers at Kansas State University discovered in laboratory tests with cinnamon and apple juice heavily tainted with the bacteria. Presented at the Institute of Food Technologists' 1999 Annual Meeting in Chicago on July 27, the study findings revealed that cinnamon is a lethal weapon against E. Coli O157:H7 and may be able to help control it in unpasteurized juices.

Lead researcher Erdogan Ceylan, M.S., reported that in apple juice samples inoculated with about one million E. Coli O157:H7 bacteria, about one teaspoon (0.3 percent) of cinnamon killed 99.5 percent of the bacteria in three days at room temperature (25 C). When the same amount of cinnamon was combined with either 0.1 percent sodium benzoate or potassium sorbate, preservatives approved by the Food and Drug Administration, the E. Coli were knocked out to an undetectable level. The number of bacteria added to the test samples was 100 times the number typically found in contaminated food.

"This research indicates that the use of cinnamon alone and in combination with preservatives in apple juice, besides its flavoring effect, might reduce and control the number of E. Coli O157:H7," concluded Ceylan, a Ph.D. graduate assistant at K-State. "Cinnamon may help protect consumers against food-borne bacteria that may be in unpasteurized juices and may partially or completely replace preservatives in foods to maintain their safety," he said.

"If cinnamon can knock out E. Coli O157:H7, one of the most virulent food-borne microorganisms that exists today, it will certainly have anti-microbial effects on other common food-borne bacteria, such as Salmonella and Campylobacter," noted Daniel Y.C. Fung, Ph.D., professor of Food Science in the Department of Animal Sciences and Industry at K-State, who oversaw the research.

Last year, Fung and Ceylan researched the anti-microbial effects of various spices on E. Coli O157:H7 in raw ground beef and sausage and found that cinnamon, clove, and garlic were the most powerful. This research led to their recent studies on cinnamon in apple juice, which proved to be a more effective medium than meat for the spice to kill the bacteria.

“In liquid, the E. Coli have nowhere to hide,” Fung noted, “whereas in a solid structure, such as ground meat, the bacteria can get trapped in the fat or other cells and avoid contact with the cinnamon. But this cannot happen in a free-moving environment.”

Regardless of the K-State findings, people who are at greater-than-normal risk for food-borne diseases—namely, the elderly, young children, or immune-compromised—would be urged to avoid drinking unpasteurized juices or unthoroughly-cooked hamburgers, which may contain harmful microorganisms.

[JR: Sounds promising as a natural and inexpensive way to fight these food-borne diseases. Let us hope we hear more on this research.]

SUPER-RESISTANT STAPH ON THE LOOSE

BBC NEWS, 10/4/99

A bacterium, resistant to most antibiotics, has been found outside hospitals, raising fears that so-called superbugs may be leaving their usual breeding grounds and affecting the population at large.

Methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus (MRSA) is unaffected by most antibiotics—only vancomycin is powerful enough to destroy it.

However, infection has only ever occurred in hospitals before, and its appearance among Native-American communities has alarmed doctors.

There have been several instances of MRSA evolving into a bacterium resistant to vancomycin, a development some specialists have said marks the end of the era of antibiotics.

Half Affected

Teams from the Indian Health Service in New Mexico, the Centers for Disease Control—which monitors antibiotic-resistant bacteria—and the Minnesota Health Department found the bug in Minnesota among Native Americans living in the countryside.

They checked 112 patients with Staphylococcus aureus infections and found that 62 of them had the methicillin-resistant form.

Only 16 of them had been in a hospital or care center, or had any of the other risk factors for an antibiotic-resistant infection, leading the researchers to conclude [that] the bacteria were at large in the community.

There have been previous accounts of infection occurring in the community—in Chicago and Canada—but these have been isolated incidents.

Barbara Murray, a specialist in infectious diseases at the University of Texas, said MRSA was no longer a problem isolated in hospitals.

“This reports it in rural American-Indian communities—so it is out there in the real world,” she said...

Danger

...Bacteria are more likely to develop resistance to antibiotics in hospitals because they contain patients who take antibiotics for long periods, sometimes months.

In this time, some bacteria are bound to survive, and—because these are genetically predisposed to resist the antibiotic—they multiply and evolve into a resistant form.

Dr. Barry Cookson, of the UK’s Public Health Laboratory Service, said there was always an increased risk of transmission in close-knit communities...

Community Problems

...But another well-recorded problem was that of the indigenous people in Western Australia, many of whom were infected with MRSA.

Because their communities were so closely knit, the bug had found a strong breeding ground and in some cases was transferring from the community into hospitals...

...“The hospitals need to make sure they are well prepared for this—they need to screen people as they come into hospitals—as they do now when people are transferred from nursing homes.”

The U.S. researchers presented their findings at the Interscience Conference on Antimicrobial Agents and Chemotherapy, arranged by the American Society of Microbiology.

[JR: This is another one of those superbugs that somehow only infects certain groups of people. With all the advancements in DNA knowledge, why do we have more plagues and less cures?]

MALAYSIA MYSTERY VIRUS UNMASKED

By Helen Briggs, BBC Science, 10/8/99

The killer virus which killed at least 100 people in Malaysia and led to the slaughter of thousands of pigs, has been identified.

Malaysian medical authorities initially blamed a mosquito-borne disease called Japanese encephalitis for the deaths.

Later, the previously undescribed virus called Nipah was held to be responsible.

Now, the Lancet medical journal has published a report by doctors in Malaysia and the United States, confirming that the Nipah virus was the cause of the mystery illness.

It is thought to be a brand-new disease that has crossed only recently from animals to people.

In a separate report, doctors in Singapore say the Nipah virus was also responsible for an outbreak of fever and drowsiness among abattoir workers there in March [of] this year.

They say the 11 workers infected—one of whom died—were employed at an abattoir that imported pigs from a farm in Malaysia that was affected by the virus.

Researchers are now awaiting further test results on pigs, horses, dogs and other domestic animals to see if they can find out more about the virus and where it has come from.

Dr. Nicholas Paton from Tan Tock Seng Hospital in Singapore, says the virus appears to have spread from bats to pigs, and then to people, but nobody knows why.

[JR: If all of these new and rare viruses are such mysteries, how is it that they have all been previously named?]

OUR NATIONAL PARKS UNDER THE UN

The Orlando Sentinel, 8/7/99

The United States has 20 United Nations World Heritage sites. It has 47 U.N.-designated Biosphere Reserves, encompassing 51-million acres.

You are probably more familiar with these sites as U.S. national parks, U.S. historical sites or national forests.

This happened because the United States signed and ratified the United Nations World Heritage Treaty in 1972. It allows a president, without congressional approval, to designate something a World Heritage site or Biosphere Reserve. Though the treaty gives the United Nations no direct authority to manage these sites, it does obligate the United States to manage them in compliance with UN standards...

...Sovereignty, as a political term, means simply nothing higher. A sovereign nation, for example, answers to no one but itself. To manage parts of its own territory in accordance with UN standards, rather than its own, is a surrender of sovereignty.

When we think about and remember all that we love about the United States, we think of it as [a] sovereign nation. We do not think of it as merely a part of something else. It was not the United Nations that fought the British and drafted the Constitution with its beautiful Bill of Rights. It was not the United Nations that fought the wars that have kept this nation free. It was, however, the United Nations that was in charge of botched or unnecessary wars in Korea, Somalia, Iraq and now the Balkans.

The United States ought to withdraw from the United Nations, and it should ask the United Nations to move out of New York City to some foreign city such as Mogadishu, in Somalia, or Brazzaville, in the Congo. Those would be appropriate cities for a bunch of international bureaucrats whose main aim in life seems to be to live the good life at the expense of their own poor people back at home.

An old newspaper friend who joined the U.S. Information Agency, told a story of two brothers who had staged a coup in a small African nation, only to come to fatal blows over the question of who would be president and who would be ambassador to the United Nations. Neither wanted to be president, as both preferred to live in New York City, rather than in their own squalid little country. I don’t blame them.

The Big Apple may leave a lot to be desired, but it has much more to offer than any Third World city, especially for those with diplomatic immunity, fat salaries and porcine expense accounts.

Of course, dumping the United Nations is only a dream. The politicians in Washington, most especially those in the Republican majority, don’t even have the sand to dump the National Endowment for the Arts or the Corporation for Public Broadcasting...

...What was the point of our ancestors killing 600,000 of each other to preserve the Union, if we, their descendants, are going to allow a bunch of thoughtless politicians to surrender our nation’s independence in bits and pieces? And surrender it to some international order run by money-lenders and international bureaucrats. Maybe we ought to all get together and secede from Washington. Too many paid too high a price to create and preserve an independent nation to see it surreptitiously surrendered.

If Americans can’t unite on the principle of maintaining our independence, then perhaps it is time to think about a breakup. Nations—like the old German, Oswald Spengler said—seem to have a biological-like life cycle. Maybe our beloved country is ready for retirement, if it’s too feeble to kick the United Nations out of Yellowstone National Park.

[JR: What more is there to be said—other than its citizens grew apathetic and let it all happen.]

KEEP TROOPS IN PANAMA, U.S. CONGRESS TOLD

Yahoo News, 10/5/99

WASHINGTON, Oct 5 (AFP)—A petition bearing 250,000 signatures was delivered to Congress on Tuesday, demanding that U.S. troops remain in Panama after the hand-over of the Panama Canal at the end of the year.

Under a treaty signed in 1997, the United States undertook to hand over the canal to Panama at the end of 1999, ending 85 years of U.S. control of the strategic waterway [since the U.S. built it].

Last year, Panama’s former president, Ernesto Perez, refused a request from President Bill Clinton to retain some U.S. troops in the country.

“The Panama Canal continues to be a strategic choke-point for a large share of the world’s commercial shipping,” said U.S. Republican Senator Bob Barr, who organized the petition. “Furthermore, Panama’s unique location makes it the single best narcotics interdiction and eradication base in the region”...

...Barr also expressed fears about growing Chinese influence in the canal zone, referring to agreements giving long-term leases on port facilities at both ends of the canal to the Hong Kong-based conglomerate, Hutchinson

Whampoa.

In a statement, retired U.S. Navy Admiral Thomas Moorer expressed fears of a Chinese takeover of the canal, referring in a statement to “infiltrating Chinese communists”.

“If the United States does not maintain priority use of the canal, then we would be forced to take it back, whatever the cost,” he said. “We built it, we paid many billions for it, and we are going to use it.”

The petition seeks to press Clinton to ask Panama’s new President, Mireya Moscoso, expected in Washington next week, to allow a U.S. troop presence to remain beyond the hand-over.

“We should be working with the Panamanian government to maintain a limited role in the country for security and counter-narcotics purposes,” said Barr.

Some 17,000 ships carry 200-million tonnes of cargo through the canal each year. In 1998, they paid tolls worth 546-million dollars.

Trent Lott, leader of the Republican Senate, and Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman Jesse Helms are among critics of the U.S. withdrawal.

President Clinton has been invited to hand-over ceremonies in Panama on December 14, but the White House has yet to confirm whether [or not] he will take part.

Work on the canal was begun by a French company in the 19th Century. The United States completed the work in 1914 and has maintained a heavy military presence there ever since.

[JR: Why did Carter give the canal away in the first place? I believe we only have about 500 troops remaining. Do you suppose Bill might renege, create a crisis and send what few troops we have left in the U.S. to Panama? Hmm!?!]

WALDHEIM SAYS FOREIGN CRITICISM OF AUSTRIA UNCALLED FOR

By Robert H. Reid, Boston Globe, 10/8/99

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Responding to outrage in Israel over the successful showing of a far-right party, Austrian leaders say foreign critics have no right to tell them how to choose their leaders.

Former President, Kurt Waldheim, barred from the United States for his activities in World War II, told the Austria Press Agency that the international uproar over the possibility that the Freedom Party of Joerg Haider might enter the government was “entirely out of place”.

The Freedom Party, running on an anti-immigrant platform, received about a quarter of the votes in Sunday’s national elections, edging out the junior-coalition partner, Austria Peoples Party, for second place, following the Social Democrats of Chancellor Viktor Klima.

That has raised the possibility that the Freedom Party might end up in a new coalition. About 200,000 absentee ballots remain to be counted, and the results could determine whether or not the Freedom Party will join the government.

Klima repeated his opposition today to any role for the Freedom Party in a new Social Democrat-run coalition.

In a report published today, Waldheim told APA that it was “not up to foreigners to suggest to Austria who should and who should not be in the government.”

Waldheim said he did not believe that the majority of Freedom Party supporters cast ballots out of “ideological reasons” but out of a desire for change, after the 13-year rule of the “grand coalition” of Social Democrats and the center-right Peoples Party.

“For others, the fear of being flooded by foreigners, primarily so many workers, prompted them to vote for the Freedom Party,” Waldheim added.

Waldheim, former UN secretary-general, was barred from entering the United States starting in April 1987, after an investigation of his wartime activities as a German army lieutenant in the Balkans. U.S. law prohibits admission of any alien who participated in World War II persecution.

Haider’s electoral success has alarmed neighboring countries and Israel because of some comments years ago in praise of Adolf Hitler’s “decent employment policies”.

Following a meeting with Austria’s figurehead president, Thomas Klestil, Klima said he was ready to try to form a government from parties other than Haider’s group. Klima also said the government must find ways to convince the rest of the world that Austria is not a land of “right-wing extremists”.

Israeli Foreign Minister David Levy has warned that Israel will “reassess” its ties with Austria if Haider joins the government. Haider replied that Israel’s reaction was “hysterical”.

The deputy chairman of Austria’s Social Democratic Party, Heinz Fischer, was quoted today by the Israeli newspaper Haaretz as saying his party “will not, under any circumstances, include Haider in the coalition”.

Israel’s Jewish Agency, a quasi-government organization, said Thursday it was sending an envoy to Austria to encourage the country’s 9,000 Jews to emigrate to Israel.

But Ariel Muzikant, the leader of Austria’s Jewish community, said Sunday’s election result was “a purely internal Austrian affair (and) a problem that can only be solved here.”

[JR: The involvement of the Freedom Party is "upsetting" the status quo, and could result in a crisis for the Austrian government. Why do those supposedly not affected feel so threatened?]

U.S. USING CEMENT BOMBS AGAINST IRAQ

By Selcan Hacaoglu, Chicago Sun-Times, 10/8/99

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—U.S. warplanes have been dropping bombs filled with cement and not explosives in raids on Iraqi installations, in a move to minimize civilian casualties, a military official said Thursday.

The 2,000- to 3,000-pound laser-guided bombs are still capable of causing damage, especially when dropped from high altitudes by a speeding jet, said Lt. Col. Michael Waters, a spokesman for Operation Northern Watch, the allied effort to patrol a no-fly zone over northern Iraq.

“If you drop it on a radio, it could break the radio without blowing up,” Waters said.

The new bombs were introduced following Iraqi allegations that the constant bombings by U.S. jets in response to Iraqi anti-aircraft fire were causing civilian casualties.

“We are extremely careful about collateral damage,” Waters said. “We have used those bombs.”

Operation Northern Watch warplanes are based at Incirlik air base in southern Turkey.

U.S. and British planes have been patrolling no-fly zones over northern and southern Iraq since the 1991 Persian Gulf War, to protect Kurdish and Shiite minorities from the forces of Iraqi President Saddam Hussein.

The cement-filled bombs would also cut the cost of the operation. American and British pilots often drop bombs a few times a week, responding to Iraqi challenges. They use anything from $12,000 laser-guided bombs to $80,000 Maverick missiles.

“The guidance equipment is still there, but the cement is less expensive than explosives,” Waters said.

Since December, when Baghdad started challenging the Allied planes, warplanes have dropped more than 1,400 bombs and missiles on targets in northern and southern Iraq.

U.S. officials say missiles have hit more than 375 military targets, including radar sites and anti-aircraft weapons. Iraq claims non-military facilities are being hit and hundreds of civilians have been killed.

U.S. authorities say civilian damage has been minimal, and most of what the Iraqis claimed as casualties were military casualties or false reports.

[JR: How considerate, kind and humane of us. I'd be more impressed if those expensive bombs were filled with "water balloons". It might at least make the Iraqi desert bloom.]

ISRAEL FACES CRITICAL WATER SHORTAGE

By Alan Philps, Telegraph-UK, 10/6/99

ISRAEL is facing an unprecedented water crisis, with the level in the Sea of Galilee, its main freshwater reservoir, expected this week to fall below the critical level for the first time.

Water experts have drawn a “red line” for the Sea of Galilee at 213 metres below sea level, beyond which many believe further pumping would cause irreparable damage to the ecosystem. But that level is likely to be reached by Friday, and the authorities have authorised pumping to continue as an emergency measure.

The Environment Minister, Dalia Itzik, said after touring the Sea of Galilee—which, despite its name, is a lake—that Israel should declare a drought emergency. The problem lies in the fact that the lower levels of the lake are salty, caused either by saline springs or residue from the time when the whole area was part of a salt sea. If the level goes too low, the water could become too salty to drink.

But Israel’s veteran water commissioner, Meir Ben-Meir, 75, insists that, following the failure of last winter’s rains, continued pumping will not lead to disaster. He said: “I am not denying there is a crisis. But we have enough water now and we always will. The water in the Sea of Galilee is not saline and its quality is not in decline.”

This year, water allocations to agriculture have been cut by 40 percent and then by a further 15 percent, causing a serious crisis for farmers. But there is still no ban on watering gardens or washing cars. Even simple measures like putting a brick in the lavatory cistern to reduce the amount of water flushed, are not enforced. Mr. Ben-Meir says the Israeli population would not abide by such laws.

The government does not share his rosy view of the future. The Agriculture Ministry is considering an offer to import water from Turkey in plastic bubbles, which would be towed across the sea, or to build a desalination plant.

But these are long-term, expensive solutions. Increasingly, economists are saying that it is foolish for an arid country like Israel to grow cotton or oranges for export to Europe. This runs against the pride Israelis have in the Zionist pioneers’ dream of “making the desert bloom” through high-tech agriculture.

However, the problem is all the more acute as an underground aquifer—which supplies water to much of the centre of the country—runs beneath Palestinian territory. Up to now, Israel has retained full control of all water resources, and Israeli water consumption is far greater than that of the Palestinians, many of whom have to buy water from tankers in summer.

But as the peace process gets under way, the Palestinians will insist on a fairer share of the water, which is likely to deliver the final blow to the Zionist dream of water-intensive agriculture.

[JR: The Israeli people, like their government, have their heads in the sand on the premise: "The Lord will provide for His chosen people." Israel controls all water rights, so it will be the Palestinians who will be given the least consideration in any water crisis.]

ISRAELI DAIRY COMPANY INSTALLS VIDEO CAMERAS IN MILKING SHEDS

Boston Globe, 10/8/99

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel's largest dairy company has heeded a rabbi's instructions and installed video cameras in its cowsheds, to make sure Jewish employees aren't working on the Sabbath.

The Tnuva Company installed cameras at knee level in the milking sheds to see who is doing the work and when.

The videos are collected by rabbinical supervisors and then monitored, the Haaretz newspaper reported Friday.

The strict supervision enables the company to sell strictly kosher dairy products to those who request it, Haaretz said. Kashrut is a set of dietary laws, including rules on food preparation.

Tnuva produces 70 percent of Israel's dairy products. [JR: We ought to adopt this Kosher-type spy system in the back rooms of the White House and Congress to "purify" our politicians.]

COMPUTERS KEEPING TRACK OF GOVERNMENT MONEY SAID AT RISK

By Alice Ann Love, Boston Globe, 10/8/99

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lax security and other weaknesses endanger the computer systems handling the government's financial transactions, congressional auditors say.

"Billions of dollars of payments and collections are at significant risk of loss or fraud, vast amounts of sensitive data are at risk of inappropriate disclosure and critical computer-based operations are vulnerable to serious disruptions," the General Accounting Office, the investigative and auditing arm of Congress, said in an Oct. 4 report.

As part of an annual review of government finances, the GAO investigated operations at the seven main data-processing centers of the Treasury Department's Financial Management Service, from August 1998 to February 1999.

FMS spokeswoman Connie Craig said Friday that the agency has made significant improvements to its computer systems since then.

"I believe that we're in much better shape than is reflected in the report," Craig said. "It isn't reflecting current reality. We have taken a lot of steps to correct the weaknesses identified."

The FMS acts as the government's accountant, disbursing and collections agency, working with the Federal Reserve and about 11,000 financial institutions to carry out these duties.

In 1998, it oversaw $1.6 trillion in payments and $1.7 trillion in collections, including Social Security and veterans' checks, income taxes and refunds, federal employees' salaries, customs duties and fines.

The agency also keeps the balance sheets used by Congress and the executive branch to make decisions about the federal budget.

Among weaknesses the auditors found at some or all of the FMS' main data centers:

Inadequate security to control physical entry to the premises of data centers and the computer equipment and tape libraries they house.

Lax control over user IDs and passwords that allow access to sensitive computer records.

Outdated or inaccurate data.

The GAO said that 14 out of 20 major problems identified in the previous year's audit had been corrected, and that FMS was working on other improvements. However, it said auditors had identified NEW problems.

[JR: This government has gotten so big it can't function. How many more billions will be spent to update and improve these systems? You'd better want to know!]

CANDID CAMERAS CATCH CRAFTY CARS

By Seth Hettena, Associated Press, 10/11/99

BALTIMORE (AP)—Drivers who floor it when the light turns red, may soon be opening the mail to find themselves caught in the act on film.

About 250 cameras are trained on intersections from Baltimore to San Diego and that number is expected to double annually, suppliers say.

Police love the ever-vigilant cameras, which they say reduce red-light running and relieve officers from intersection stakeouts.

Local governments love them because they bring in millions of dollars in traffic fines. But privacy advocates worry about the introduction of yet another piece of technology to monitor the everyday activities of Americans.

The cameras, long used in Europe and other countries, were slow to catch on in the United States. But in the five years since cameras went up in New York City, they have spread to nearly 50 cities and 10 states. They have generated an estimated $90 million in gross revenues, according to Lockheed Martin IMS, a major supplier.

Few states have embraced the cameras as enthusiastically as Maryland, where experienced drivers know a green light means wait for the red-light runners to clear the intersection. Baltimore has a dozen cameras and has signed up for 48 more, which will make it one of the largest users in the nation.

The number of red-light cameras elsewhere in Maryland is expected to grow from 75 to 200 by year's end. Traffic-safety advocates say it's about time. Each year, red-light running accounts for about 260,000 crashes, 121,000 injuries and more than 800 deaths nationwide, according to the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety. Fatal crashes at intersections with traffic signals have risen 24 percent, from 1,888 in 1992 to 2,344 in 1997...

...An Insurance Institute study found that red-light violations dropped 40 percent in Fairfax, Va. and Oxford, Calif., after cameras were introduced in 1996 and 1997, respectively.

Police in Howard County, a wealthy suburb of Baltimore and Washington, D.C., found the number of red lights run at four intersections dropped 57 percent, five months after cameras were introduced last year... "It's a very effective, sustained program for changing driving behavior to make roads safer," said Lt. Glenn Hansen, who runs the county's program. "It frees up officers to handle other needs"...

...Cities and counties using cameras allow firms, such as Electronic Data Systems, of Plano, Texas and Lockheed Martin IMS, a subsidiary of the Bethesda-based defense giant, to do a job once done exclusively by police.

When a car speeds through a red light at any of 20 intersections in Howard County, a magnetic relay beneath the pavement sends a signal, and the shutter on a $50,000

German-made camera pops open twice. A computer notes the time, date, vehicle speed and amount of time the light was red.

Each day, a company technician retrieves the film, scans the negatives into a computer, looks up the license-plate number and draws up a ticket. The ticket is verified by a civilian police employee and sent to the registered car owner.

What if a lead-footed friend borrows the car and runs a red light? In Maryland, as in most states, drivers can go to court and testify they weren't behind the wheel. In New York, the registered owner is liable.

At busy intersections, the money can add up. Howard County's cameras generated at least $1.37 million between February 1998 and May 1999. Baltimore's six red-light cameras have issued more than 9,500 tickets—adding up to $700,000 in fines—in less than six months.

The 30 cameras on the clogged streets of New York generate about $8 million in annual gross revenue and about $1.5 million in profits for the city, according to Jack Fleming of EDS. Lockheed Martin IMS estimates red-light cameras in the United States will have generated $100 million by 2000. Averaging ticket prices and traffic patterns across the country, each camera issues a $50 citation every two hours, says the company which, of course, has a financial interest in promoting the cameras.

All that money worries the American Automobile Association, which believes the job of stopping red-light runners is best left to police.

In cities where red-light running is rampant, the cameras can make streets safer, but the association fears they will become a crutch for cash-strapped local governments, said spokesman Jerry Cheske.

"The concern is that it doesn't become a cash cow for either the company or the community," he said. Civil-rights advocates and lawmakers in numerous states also have some concerns that the cameras are another infringement on privacy.

"When we are promised that these systems will be used for this one limited purpose, we should be very skeptical," said Barry Steinhardt, associate director of the American Civil Liberties Union.

In most states, photos are taken from the rear of the intersection, so the driver can't be seen. But California and Arizona require frontal photography. Technicians obscure the faces of passengers for privacy, according to Lockheed Martin IMS.

Police have used the cameras for decades in Europe, where they were developed in 1958 by a Dutch race-car driver wanting a better way to time a race.

"Europeans tend to be much more comfortable about this type of enforcement," said Dana King of Lockheed Martin IMS. "The concept of an Orwellian society doesn't scare the Europeans as much as it does the Americans, whose concept of freedom is so fundamental."

Some angry motorists have learned to recognize the little boxes, which could easily be mistaken for a birdhouse and are sometimes disguised as lanterns.

Vandals in New York fogged the lens with a lubricant. In Charlotte, N.C., an angry motorist pumped 21 bullets into the camera housing. The camera kept working. Police in Howard County were prepared for opposition. But the county has sent more than 30,000 camera-assisted citations with few complaints, Hansen said...

...When officers issue tickets without photographic evidence, many are contested, but caught on film, more than 90 percent of violators pay the $75 fine, Hansen said....

[JR: Notice how this technology is always sold as a "benefit" for our own protection. We fall for it, and many actually believe they are safer. This will be abused ($), just like RICO.]

BOARD REJECTS CREATIONISM
IN SCIENCE CLASS

By Andy Lenderman, Albuquerque Tribune, 10/10/99

SANTA FE—When Steve Brugge teaches the theory of evolution in his science class at Albuquerque's Eisenhower Middle School, he sometimes finds that someone has surreptitiously placed a Bible on his desk in the classroom, and he sometimes hears from angry parents...

...Now Brugge and thousands of other New Mexico teachers have the state Board of Education to back up their instruction materials in science.

The board voted 14-1 Friday to change its science-teaching standards—essentially eliminating any possibility that teaching creationism will find its way into New Mexico science classrooms. The new standards clearly support the teaching of evolution and its methodology. The previous standards did not spell out, as specifically, what should be taught in science.

Students can still ask questions about creationism if they choose.

Creationism is a theory that humans were created by a deity. But evolution, a theory that includes the stipulation that humans and other primates evolved over time from a common ancestor, was backed up by the board in numerous changes to science-teaching standards.

"Religious dogma in the science realm is not something that I support," board member Christine Trujillo said...

...The Kansas State School Board and the Kentucky Education Department this year have passed measures that weaken evolution-teaching standards.

New Mexico's decision to suppress creationist teaching in science means teachers will have an easier time teaching evolution, said Trujillo, who also teaches at Monte Vista Elementary School in Albuquerque.

Trujillo said many teachers have told her [that] they feel pressured by some parents to avoid teaching time teaching evolution, said Trujillo, who also teaches at Monte Vista Elementary in Albuquerque. evolution, and many teachers who spoke to the board before the Friday vote, reported similar experiences.

The only board member to vote against the new standards was Van Witt of Roswell. He said he'd rather have both creationism and evolution discussed in the science classroom, so students could make their own decisions after hearing about each.

Before the vote, three people spoke to the board against adopting the new standards, stressing that it's not fair to exclude creationism from the classroom.

"The debate is healthy and should be encouraged," said Phil Robinson, a science teacher from Albuquerque's John Adams Middle School.

He said the new standards would equate to "censorship".

But Brugge and others argued that comparing evolution and creationism simply isn't feasible, saying religious theory is based in the supernatural realm and science is based in the natural world.

"It's not that it's not important," Brugge said of religious theory. "It's just that it's not part of the science curriculum."

[JR: These evolutionists are only reflecting their biased opinions. They cannot fully explain why there are still apes, if we supposedly evolved from them. Darwinism is being seriously challenged.]

Explanatory Letter From New Gaia Products

By Diane Kunick, 10/11/99

This letter was received in my office last month and I can't help but wonder how many others are being fed misinformation, or misunderstanding the information they are getting. It occurs to me that I have no way of knowing what is being said by Spectrum (if anything) and what is being said by others who just wish to make my life a little more challenging.

I would like to publish this letter because the misdirection, possibly intentional, of knowledge or perceived knowledge is at such a height now—with the split between CONTACT and Spectrum—that it should be known where New Gaia Products stands in the axiomatic battle of the forces.

I have taken the author's name off of the letter to protect him (her) from embarrassment. I am, however, leaving the locale of the person, so maybe we can know from where the corrupt information is emanating and, hopefully, put a stop to it.

Thank you for your time and your interest in New Gaia Products.

[QUOTING, from a letter (unedited) addressed to New Gaia Products:]

New Gaia Products,

Sept 21-99

I'm thouraly dissappointed. You never once mentioned that the products Gaiandrianna & Aquagia with the fact that they were limited to shelf life of from 6-12 months. I spent thousands of $ stocking up thru the years. Had some 4 years old or more. Why do you tell people to stock up when it's not going to be any good in a few months anyway. After all these years what a thing to find out. I have a 16oz, left in my fridge. I know its more than a year old, because the place I get it from doesn't keep it cold and doesn't sell that quick, by the time we get it it is old. These products and others should be dated when made and when expired. Please date these as I don't feel I want anymore. I can't trust it. TOO BAD.

Langley, B.C.

PS: This has been misrepresented. These products and probably other ???? as to keeping qualities (not mentioned) The other products Colloids ect we were told would last anytime what about Gaialyte? same as the drias? shelf life? super oxy? Aloe juice?? I don't expect any answer, but would be nice. I'm sorry about everything that's happened. I feel I'm on my own now. But I want to thank you for all of your work it was a good 11 years or so, but for me its all sort of banished except the lessons I've learned and information, great while the going was on. We must move on.

Dear XXXXXX,

I wish to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated September 21, 1999. I am not clear where or from whom you obtained your information but, to set the record straight, you are incorrect. I would suggest that you may want to verify your sources before you jump off the Proverbial Cliff.

The shelf life for the Gaiandriana is several years and the same is true for the Aquagaia. Once either of these two products are opened and exposed to the air, they become susceptible to oxidation. This will not ruin the product for quite some time. It has been said that, to an opened bottle of Aquagaia, there can be added a small amount of Pure Aloe Vera Juice (not Gel). This will give the living organisms in the product, food to feed on—rather than upon itself and extends the life of the product for months. We do, however, suggest that once a bottle of Aquagaia or Gaiandriana has been opened, it should be refrigerated or kept in a very cool, darkened place and should be consumed within one year or sooner. Several months would be ideal. The product that we ALWAYS suggest—when a customer is ordering in quantity—to be used within a fairly short term is the Gaialyte. It is a perishable product and does need refrigeration once it is opened and should always be kept from excessive heat or cold. The Colloids have a very long shelf life if handled properly. They, too, should be stored in a cool place, out of direct light. The shelf life of Colloids is approximately two years. The Aloe Vera also has a shelf life of several years. The liquid minerals again can be safely stored unopened in a cool, darkened place for years.

I am sorry that you took the word of the one who gave you the erroneous information about our products. I am sure you did not intend for your letter to come across in the attacking manner in which it did. I do, indeed, hate to see you go as a customer, since we have shared a TRUSTED relationship for quite sometime. I do, however, feel that if you do have reservations about our products that you have the right to not do business with us if you choose. I will do my best to assure you that the products brought to you today are of the same quality and high standard that they have been for over 9 years. New Gaia Products is the same Company that it has always been. We just, unfortunately, have been caught up in the cross fire between Spectrum and CONTACT. I would be happy to hear from the individual who gave you the above misinformation and set them straight as well.

Again, I am sorry to have you so upset over something that was not true, and I hope to do continued business with you.

Sincerely,
Diane Kunick

We Are But ONE

October 13, 1999

Dear Dr. Deku,

I am recognized as "Dharma"; I am corporate Secretary and a Director of GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION, and also Mrs. E.J. Ekker. I am the receiver/translator for Commander Hatonn/Aton in this particular mission/task and I do not accept higher status than any other of HIS PEOPLE. We each are given a job and have a purpose upon which others must rely in order that the WHOLE of the mission be perfected timely and within the THOUGHT OF GOD. We ARE but the THOUGHT OF GOD MADE MANIFEST.

I have been asked to respond to your last message via e-mail because there is not breathing time here. I can acknowledge that we have received your messages but are too occupied to take the time necessary to properly respond and explain in detail what you seem to need. We must rely on others to take up the pressures, for it is absolutely critical to NOT DISTRACT here.

We are under total surveillance. All our messages, by any mode, including mail, are not only monitored but we are the "last" to get them. This is fine with us, because we act in EVERY WAY within all laws OF GOD and of those brought to "contain" us.

Here, the GAIA instruments are having to take a secondary position to that which was already put in place. The Global "participants" are THE focus. GAIA has simply opened the door for an alliance for Mankind to take back our heritage.

The most dangerous, deadly, corrupt personages on the globe are also involved—however, if we meet the silly qualifications they lay forth, it is quite workable. This is the reason for instant and succinct response to your correspondence. What may well seem to be innocent, Godly, and open to yourself and to us—is running against agreements and, if we break agreements, we are OUT, as in "taken-...". Thank you for understanding.

We have, that we know of, some 71 nations giving us the same pressure that you are exerting. We will follow our guidance and keep things in God's sequence.

GOD'S DELAYS ARE NOT GOD'S DENIALS AND, LIKE IT OR NOT, WE MUST WORK WITHIN THE GUIDELINES GIVEN US OR WE SHALL NOT ACCOMPLISH THIS MISSION, OF WHICH YOU ARE OBVIOUSLY A PART.

I can't, either, explain over this electronic (intercepted) mail what is taking place here and globally. It is not our prerogative to divulge intent, names or methods. It IS BECAUSE of this stance and our total dedication to attending matters to the letter of instructions and law that we are alive, well, and, we hope, thriving.

If you find our responses unsatisfactory, we are sad but will not change our stance one iota.

You have mentioned "Trading...". That is the subject of the number ONE agreement. The entire world economy is in near collapse because of the programs based on NOTHING. Our agreement is ironclad—TO NOT INVOLVE, ENCOURAGE OR PARTICIPATE WITH OUR INSTRUMENTS IN SUCH PROGRAMS. THE SOLUTION OF THE GLOBAL INSANITY IS TO GET BACK ON A GOLD-BASED CURRENCY, which is the antithesis of the trading programs.

We are not a "one man" show. God has many teams in many places doing many things that will be brought together at the correct time. If you are to be a part of that, it will become clear to all of us. In the meantime, we will not be distracted from our part of the mission.

We usually refrain from sending anything pertaining to this program to those in the physical United States. An exception has been made in your case, since you have roots where a strong beachhead could be created. And we believe your best place of service is there. August and Carol are there and, working together, you could be very effective.

We welcome your input with Col. Gadhafi or ANYONE in your area. But it seems your area is South Carolina in the U.S., and we cannot do much about that circumstance other than set aside [as in "hold"] the amounts requested by Commander Hatonn.

We cannot, at this time, help anyone, for we have spent our assets and everything we could borrow to support this mission. There have been efforts to STOP this mission from bearing positive fruit. We are holding on and God sees to it that we make it day-to-day, for which we are humbly grateful. It now appears that the program, itself, is planned to coincide with the new year. THAT is also WHY the Y2K flap—to try to stop the transition.

The FACTS are, Dr. Deku, that we still do not have specific or proven conduits to issue collateral to you. Even our correspondence with you carries risk, yet, we KNOW that God wins—IF WE BUT FOLLOW DIRECTIONS AND STAY WITHIN HIS PROTECTION AND LIGHT.

We can, as directed by Commander Hatonn, set aside the collateral and mark it as allocated to Ghana, but that is simply ALL WE CAN DO AT THIS TIME. We must finish our work here FIRST, while the momentum is favorable. This is difficult for us, so I implore you to not make it more difficult.

I will take the time to retype something which was given to us October 31st, 1991. I had been serving as a receiver since late 1988 only. I won't go into that now but, please understand: I have received and written close to 300 BOOKS since that time, received hours, into the thousands, of information via audio tape and, as is usually the way with God, HE tells you, after you pass his sorting and training, what HE would like to have accomplished. The Pathway is covered in brambles and stones—most of which are thrown at you by your very own people, who are obviously sent to break you rather than actually help you. So, with that in mind, please, let me just offer something that we actually had no conceivable reason to even have with us in Manila—and there it lay, on the bed in our hotel room yesterday. If we fail to recognize these little pieces of visible "miracles", we are not suited for the journey we have chosen as purpose. [QUOTING, from a writing received by "dharma", Oct. 31, 1991:]

INTRODUCTION TO COMMANDER HATONN

Hatonn—Hatonn is: Gyeorgos Ceres Hatonn-Aton. I write, through a "translator", communications through pulsed short-wave transmission. This is not "psychic channeling or hocus-pocus". This is purely "physics" of frequency transmission, receiver termination of transmission and translation of the signal into the English language.

I am Commander of the "Phoenix Project", serving the Command of the ONE whom you refer to as "The messenger, Christos, God, etc.". The "Command Fleet" is from the sector Pleiades, from which originated your ancestral lineage. My mission is in preparation for the return of the "God" to reclaim His property. He went forth and has prepared safe passage and "a place" for each of you who would come within His shelter. The choice is individual, for force is not of God, and you have free will for all choices.

Our direct commission is to set the records into Truth of content of historical facts, for the planet is ending one cycle and beginning a new and wondrous cycle of experience. This gives cause for you of the human species to make changes concurrent with the greater physical changes of the planet. Yours will be a "spiritual change" and may or may not include physical translation. Each will be given choice of direction and translation.

The purpose of these writings and speakings is to allow the Truth to be put forth unto those of the masses who would wish to receive them. The JOURNALS also serve as historical documentation of this portion of "history" relative to that which has come before—known and unknown—for whatever life forms and generations follow this manifested experience.

You come against the wall, so to speak, wherein you all but cross the societal point-of-no-return. You will act to reclaim your human rights, or you will fall to the Adversary who, by the way—is that one touted to be the "anti-Christ". You are in the time of, and the action of, Armageddon, as recognized from prophecy. It makes no difference to me whether or not you are believing of this information. Truth will stand into infinity, and God does not send us, the Hosts, to banter or kibitz with you about the facts of the matter—ours is to present the situation, as it is, unto you.

Your "enemies"—as to "space aliens"—are now all landlocked to your orbiting system. YOU HAVE NO ENEMIES AMONG THE BROTHERHOOD IN SPACE (COSMOS). YOU DO HAVE ENEMIES IN YOUR "SPACES" BUT THEY ARE VERY EARTH-ORIENTED AND ORIGINATED. All of this is explained in depth in the writings—the message is for identification of myself and my co-workers, who bring information and assistance at this time of evolution.

We bring the unfolding and uncovering of the actions upon your globe, so that you can awaken unto your plight—with "reason" and "proof". It is up to you as to what action you take, for our commission is to respond to you who have asked input and assistance. We will DO nothing FOR you; we will serve and inform with "HOW TO", as we move along through the maze of incredible deceit. You have NOTHING TO FEAR from us of the Lighted Brotherhood of the Cosmos, for we work and act only within the Laws of God and those of the Universal Creation (Natural). Your would-be "Kings" (rulers of the globe) have heinous plans to injure you and place blame upon the Cosmic Brotherhood. What will be claimed is a blatant LIE. You are "People of the Lie" and, unless you awaken and reclaim your heritage as nations and people—you shall fall—no more and no less.

Massive efforts are put forth to STOP our presentations—so be it. We have naught to lose—YOU HAVE EVERYTHING TO LOSE, INCLUDING YOUR SOULS AS WELL AS YOUR LIVES PHYSICAL. My commission is to "inform" you, and I shall do so to the best of my allowed abilities, for I (we) are not allowed by Cosmic law to interfere or intervene except in specific and delineated instances, which have been covered in lengthy dialogue prior to this.

I serve aboard the Command Ship, PHOENIX, and I head the Fleet Command. I am Commander of the "United Federation Fleet, Intergalactic Federation Command". I link with other Commands, i.e., the referenced "Ashtar Command", ONLY in time of imminent planetary destruction, at which time that Command will be in charge of any evacuation of general nature. Our Command will bring all of God's people into security. I have no responsibility to the "adversary" or his followers, and no evil shall be brought into the places of Lighted God. Evil is a manifestation of "human", and we do NOT allow evil within our orderly, God-revering societies. This does not, however, mean that ones who are in deciding will not be taken into a placement which can preserve "SOUL" survival.

I am not here to ask your permission for anything; I care not what any aspect thinks or believes. I have a mission of GOD and shall see to it. You may join with me or deny me, for it makes not one iota of difference. I do not "sell" anything—not this paper nor any other item. I have a commitment and obligation and I will see to it. You may do that which you will—agree or disagree. I do, however, suggest that all read with an open mind to the “possibilities” herein, for you are told by all corners of your intelligence that you are in a traumatic time of change—you might well be advised to look into the possibility of the Truth of this information. I chair the Cosmic Council—relative to this Universal Sector—and I believe you will find that I am not overruled. He who denounces my person had best be carefully looked at through the intent of WISDOM, for I meet with any man and/or energy who claims my falseness. I find that no one ever, somehow, wishes to participate in that invitation for confrontation—do you not find that strange?

You will find most of the “New Age” groups and speakers fully in alignment with the “New World Order—Global Government”. This will be denied, for they do not realize the subterfuge and “sucking in” of the innocent and ignorant. I suggest you pay close attention, for you are on the brink of losing your world—not just your freedoms.

I shall continue to bring to your attention the cover-ups as they occurred and still occur. God has neither mysticism nor hidden agenda—God is open, and the only “mystery” is that which you simply do not yet understand—that, too, He gives unto you openly and freely. There are no secret rituals or hidden doctrines, royal titles or elite placements. If you find any of these things in that which YOU follow—I suggest wisdom in discernment of your choices. If you give of your Power unto another—according to his decrees—you have forfeited your Power forever. God asks that you accept and take your POWER in HIS name, so that you can become one within HIS GRACE and a reclamer of that which is your rightful heritage.

I feel that we must begin to publish this identification and purpose, for we are swamped with new readers, and it is magnificently important that you KNOW who we are and that which we are about—for we are about our “Father’s” business. Again, you have nothing to lose by gaining TRUTH and insight—but you do have everything to lose in the physical and soul realms by remaining ignorant at the hands of deceivers who would hide Truth from your eyes and ears. So be it. I salute you who assume responsibility. I pity you who do not, and I have great compassion as we pass into the more compressing times ahead, as you perceive the journey. I offer my hand in love and brotherhood and I give you all that I have and am. Accept or deny my person—but I suggest you look into the possibility that what we bring “might” well be Truth, and you will come to understand. To deny the robber, who has just bound and gagged you, is to be a stupid fool. The better part of wisdom is to look, discern and then act. God never limits your investigation into all facets of the Truth—does your “minister”? Does your controlling hierarchy? I suggest you ponder this well.

[END OF QUOTING]

We WILL get there, if we are patient in our “waiting upon the Lord”—for, if we don’t, we simply don’t prevail anyway! May our journey always be in brotherhood and friendship, for we are but ONE, sharing as fragments in HIS GREATER PLAN.

Most sincerely yours in BROTHERHOOD,
Doris and EJ

PUBLIC NOTICE

GLOBAL ALLIANCE INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION

This is to notify all parties who are interested or would become interested in any type of cooperative venture with Global Alliance Investment Association (GAIA) of ABSOLUTE guidelines and agreements.

GAIA will NOT under ANY circumstances do any domestic U.S.A. business, nor do business with any corporations within the States of the United States of America, including Hawaii and Alaska.

The only “BUSINESS” we will co-venture within that territory SHALL BE with the Sovereign States of Native Peoples, i.e., Native Americans, erroneously recognized as American “Indians”, and Tribal organizations in any other Nation which have Sovereign-State RIGHTS to establish intra-governmental governance and have TREATY rights of “absolute” ESTABLISHMENT.

Once established and with banking facilities available, we can and shall have protected access to assist those “nations” in a manner considered to be “International” in recognition.

We can also do an interchange of business with ANY OTHER nation than the United States of America on an open basis but only with those organizations which establish themselves in a proper, recognized, incorporation-type of business acceptance, Governments, Organizations, etc. We shall not deal directly with specific individuals not backed by acceptable, to their nation’s satisfaction, laws of regulation.

We do NOT interfere in any way with that which becomes the portion of any funding considered as the Joint Venture Partner’s “share”, once the Joint Venture is terminated upon funding and a reserve of GOLD or HARD ASSET is in place and properly accounted.

We will NOT participate in any KNOWN intentional program which directs the flow of funds—uncollateralized by GOLD assets in recognized banks or facilities—into any Trading, Leasing, Rollover, Derivatives, or “Floating Dollar” based program.

We do not, however, have any input as for what the former Joint Venture Partner utilizes its funds. We have agreements in the Memorandum of Agreement to cover these things, specifically, the use for humanitarian and non-warring purposes. However, it is recognized that we have no FORCE for control of same. A representative’s signature and word must be the bond and we cannot control another’s intent or honor. Only our own will be enforced—IN THIS MANNER—as is also acceptable to the “Debtors” of this GAIA asset.

It is, further, our agreement that we will not give further information as to how to contact other parties to said original contracts, for they have severed working relationships with our team and those parties will have to make new arrangements if there is to be any further cooperation.

If you, as example, have a program which enhances the position or coalition of other geographic locations, i.e., Africa—then it must be KNOWN that GAIA’s participation must be through that nation or coalition of nations.

Our own assets resulting from Joint Venture funding, will be utilized as desired but only through protection and cooperation with the established systems already operative. We only wish to create better systems for those who choose participation, allow for growth and building, and who wish to participate in again creating a strong industrial foundation and stable economic environment based on value and not on empty, worthless paper currencies. As it now exists—without base for currencies—the entire world functions in POVERTY.

WE WILL MAKE NO EXCEPTIONS—NO MATTER HOW GREAT THE PETITION OFFERED IS IN “THE NAME OF GOD”. WE KNOW GOD; WE ARE GOD’S PLAN IN ACTION—AS IS RECOGNIZED AS THE “DIVINE PLAN”—AND UPON OUR WORD IS BASED THE ENTIRETY OF THE PROGRAM UNFOLDING. PLEASE DO NOT ASK FOR EXCEPTIONS FOR INDIVIDUALS OR COALITIONS WHICH DO NOT MEET THESE GUIDELINES. WE CAN FUNCTION OFF SHORE AMONG PARTIES AND BETWEEN BANKING INSTITUTIONS. THE U.S.A., FOR DOMESTIC PURPOSES, IS OFF LIMITS TO OUR PROGRAM.

This is a typical “Khazarian-type” demand but since the Khazarian-type government is in established POWER AND CONTROL of the United States of America, we are bound to honor these demands. Thank you for understanding our position in this matter at the beginning of this PROGRAM.

Most people claim to serve GOD and then offer us proposals that only bring benefit FIRST unto themselves. MANY WILL COME—FEW WILL MAKE IT THROUGH THE SORTING.

This document is signed “under penalty of perjury” as true and accurate to the best of our knowledge. We have been asked that we insert this statement to meet the demands of legal counsel for the FED and that of the U.S. Treasury Dept.

Signed this day, October 11, 1999, Makati, Manila, Philippines.

In fulfillment of legal requirements, this is the second of three publications of this Public Notice.

TELEPHONE HOTLINE 661-822-0202

As an adjunct to CONTACT, the Telephone Hotline keeps you as informed as possible on current events and other important information that needs to get to our subscribers before our publishing date.

The message machine will answer after 2 rings if there are any new messages for that day, and after 4 rings if not. Thus daily callers can hang up after 2 rings and save toll charges if no new message has been recorded. If the Hotline does not answer your call, then there is currently no Hotline message.
